237 SYNOPSIS

238 Creation of new boards via consolidation

239 R.C. Chapters 4725. and 4744.; Sections 515.30 to 515.35,
240 with conforming changes

HC2787

241 Removes from the bill provisions that did all of the 242 following:

243 --Created the State Vision Professionals Board by
244 abolishing the existing State Board of Optometry and Ohio
245 Optical Dispensers Board;

246 --Created the State Speech and Hearing Professionals Board
247 by abolishing the existing Hearing Aid Dealers and Fitters
248 Licensing Board and Board of Speech-Language Pathology and 249 Audiology;

250 --Abolished the Ohio Board of Dietetics and placed the 251 regulation of dietitians under the State Medical Board;

252 --Abolished the Ohio Respiratory Care Board and placed the 253 regulation of respiratory care therapists with the State Medical 254 Board and the regulation of home medical equipment service
255 providers with the State Board of Pharmacy;

256 --Transferred existing employees from the abolished boards
257 one of the two new boards, the State Medical Board, or the State
258 Board of Pharmacy, as applicable;

259 --Permitted the abolished boards to establish a retirement
260 incentive plan for its employees who were members of the Public
261 Employees Retirement System;

262 --Required the State Medical Board to appoint a dietetics
263 advisory council to advise the Board on issues relating to the 264 practice of dietetics and a respiratory care advisory council to 265 advise the Board on issues relating to the practice of 266 respiratory care;

267 --Required the State Board of Pharmacy to appoint a home
268 medical equipment services advisory council to advise the Board
269 on issues relating to providing home medical equipment services;

270 --Applied procedures for the regulation of dietitians and
271 respiratory care therapists that applied to the other health
272 care professionals currently regulated by the State Medical 273 Board, including requirements for impaired practitioners.

274 --Subjected optometrists, dispensing opticians, and hearing
275 aid dealers and fitters to a code of ethical practice;

276 --Required an individual applying for a hearing aid
277 dealer's or fitters license or a license or permit issued under 278 the Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Licensing Law to

HC2787

279 submit to a criminal records check as a condition of receiving a
280 license or permit;

281 --Allowed the State Vision Professionals Board, with the 282 Controlling Board's approval, to increase fees for the optical
283 dispensing licensing examination in excess of the fee currently 284 established by rule, so long as the increase did not exceed 50%
285 of the current fee.

286 Restores current law's requirement that certain license
287 applications be written.
