

House Finance Subcommittee on Transportation

Minutes

February 9, 2017

Chairman McColley called the meeting of the House Finance Subcommittee on Transportation to order at 1:32pm in Statehouse room 313. Attendance was taken and a quorum was present. The minutes from the February 8, 2017 committee meeting were approved without objection.

Chairman McColley called up House Bill 26 for its third hearing before the subcommittee.

Chairman McColley called up Joe Testa, Commissioner of the Ohio Department of Taxation, to provide testimony on HB 26. Commissioner Testa answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up David Goodman, Director of the Development Services Agency, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Director Goodman answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Matt Markey, Chief Financial Officer of the Ohio Public Works Commission, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Markey read from testimony provided by the Ohio Public Works Commission's Director, Michael Miller. Mr. Markey answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Mike Gatt, President of IGS CNG Services, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Gatt answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Matt Dietrich, the Executive Director of the Ohio Rail Development Commission, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Dietrich read testimony submitted by Mark Policinski, President of the Ohio Rail Development Commission. Mr. Dietrich answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Janel Kruse, General Manager of the Ottawa Oil Company, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Ms. Kruse answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Kent Witt, President of Hi-Grade Oil Company, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Witt answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Aldo Filippelli, President of the Ohio Deputy Registrars' Association, to provide testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Filippelli answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Maureen Brogan, Deputy Registrar of the North Olmstead License Bureau, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Ms. Brogan answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Bill Predovich, Deputy Registrar of the Parma License Bureau, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Predovich answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Alan Pool, Deputy Registrar, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Poole answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Thomas Balzer, President and CEO of the Ohio Trucking Association, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Balzer answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Kirt Conrad, President of the Ohio Public Transit Authority, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Conrad answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Jason Warner, Manager of Government Affairs at the Greater Oh Policy Center, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Mr. Warner answered questions of the committee.

Chairman McColley called up Wendy Patton, representing Policy Matters Ohio, to provide interested party testimony on House Bill 26. Ms. Patton answered questions of the committee.

With no further business, the committee adjourned at 4:44pm.

---

CHAIR MCCOLLEY

---

SECRETARY REECE