Child custody proceedings

17

R.C. 111.46

18

If a court, in a child custody proceeding in which a party is a Safe at Home program participant, discloses a participant's confidential information without a motion from the other party, requires that the court document findings that the disclosure is safe and necessary.

20

21

22

23

Allows, instead of requires, a court to disclose or withhold a participant's confidential information, even if the court has found that the disclosure is safe and necessary.
