

Federalism Committee

Chairman Becker

May 29, 2019- 9:30 a.m.

Chairman Becker called the meeting of the House Federalism Committee to order at 9:30 a.m. A quorum was present, and minutes from the previous meeting were approved.

Chairman Becker called up HB 178 for its 5th Hearing.

Marguerite Boeckmann, of Moms Demand Action, was present and testified as an opponent. There were no question from the committee.

Valerie Cumming, of Westerville City Council, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Mike Weinman, Director of Government Affairs at the Fraternal Order of Police, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Chairman Becker asked LSC to explain the bill's potential effect on Terry v. Ohio.

Julie Womack, of Moms Demand Action, was present and testified as an opponent. There were no questions from the committee.

Kristine Woodworth, of Moms Demand Action, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Sarah Barry, of Delaware, Ohio, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Zane Jones, of Columbus, Ohio, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Betsy Mitchell, of New Richmond, Ohio, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Lauren Squires, of Columbus, Ohio, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

Andrea Yagoda, of Delaware, Ohio, was present, testified as an opponent, and answered questions from the committee.

The Chairman directed the committee's attention to the written-only testimony displayed on the iPads.

This concluded the 5th hearing of HB 178.

Seeing no further business, the Chair adjourned the meeting at 11:26 a.m.

Rep. Becker, Chairman

Rep. A. Miller, Secretary