

Senate Bill 33 is a direct assault on democracy. This bill makes it difficult for regular individuals to express their individual rights to protest freely. Making protesters subject to felonies undermines their rights. This bill is sponsored by the Oil and Gas corporations as a response to their fears that people have different opinions than they. The Oil and Gas Industries are attempting to protect themselves against those they see as protagonists. I urge you to vote against this bill.