Makes various changes to the eligibility requirements for Title IV-E adoption assistance regarding a child who is adopted and then turns 18, including the following:

- (1) Requires the adoption assistance agreement to be effective/entered into after the child's 16th birthday, instead of providing the option that the parent simply entered into such an agreement.
- (2) Designates a child who meets the changed eligibility requirements an "adopted young adult" (AYA).
- (3) Prohibits AYAs from being eligible for Title IV-E foster care payments.

Makes various changes to the eligibility requirements for Title IV-E foster care assistance regarding a child who reaches 18 while in custody or care, including the following:

- (1) Permits the child to be in either a planned permanent living arrangement (PPLA) or in the Title-IV-E-eligible care and placement responsibility of a juvenile court or other governmental agency providing Title IV-E reimbursable placement services instead of just in the temporary or permanent custody of a public children services agency.
- (2) Provides that the PPLA or the care and placement by the juvenile court terminate on or after the child's 18th birthday.

rules adopted under the bill that apply foster caregiver's written needs assessment and continuing training plan.

Eliminates statutory coursework, training, needs assessment, and continuing training plan requirements for caregivers in favor of rules adopted by ODJFS.

Allows for up to 20% of the training to take place online.

Requires compensation in the form of an allowance for the cost of training pursuant to the rules adopted by ODJFS.

Prohibits ODJFS from compensating a recommending agency for a foster caregiver's foster home certification training that the private child placing agency or a private noncustodial agency requires, if it is in addition to the minimum continuing training required by ODJFS rules adopted under the bill.

Fiscal effect: Under continuing law, foster caregivers are reimbursed for preplacement and continuing foster care training hours at a rate of $10 per hour, per caregiver. Additionally, ODJFS reimburses private recommending agencies $15 per hour, per caregiver for providing foster care training (which includes $10 per hour provided to each caregiver).
