The bill has no effect on the revenues or expenditures of the state or political subdivisions. It designates Danaus plexippus, commonly known as the monarch butterfly, as the official butterfly of the state.