A BILL

То	enact sections 4119.01, 4119.02, 4119.04,	1
	4119.05, 4119.06, 4119.07, 4119.08, and 4119.99	2 of the Revised Code to prohibit any requirement	3 that employees of private employers join or pay	4
	dues to any employee organization and to	5 establish civil and criminal penalties against	6
	employers who violate that prohibition.	7

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 4119.01, 4119.02, 4119.04,	8
4119.05, 4119.06, 4119.07, 4119.08, and 4119.99 of the Revised	9
Code be enacted to read as follows:	10
Sec. 4119.01. As used in this chapter:	11
(A) "Employee" and "employer" have the same meanings as in	12 section 4113.51 of the Revised Code, except that "employer" does	13
not include any of the following:	14
(1) The United States or any corporation wholly owned by	15
the United States;	16

(2) Any federal reserve bank;	17
(3) Any person subject to the "Railway Labor Act of 1926,"	18
44 Stat. 577, 45 U.S.C. 151 et seq., as amended;	19
(4) The state or any agency or instrumentality of the	20
state;	21
(5) Any municipal corporation, county, township, school	22
district, or other political subdivision;	23
(6) Any agency or instrumentality of a municipal_	24 corporation, county, township, school district, or other	25 political subdivision.	26
(B) "Employee organization" means any labor or bona fide	27 organization in which employees participate and that exists for	28
the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers	29 concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, hours, terms, and	30
other conditions of employment.	31
(C) "Injunctive relief" includes a permanent injunction, a	32
temporary injunction, or a temporary restraining order.	33
(D) "Labor dispute" includes any controversy, regardless	34 of whether the disputants stand in the proximate relation of	35
employee or employer, that concerns any of the following:	36
(1) The terms or conditions of employment;	37
(2) Employment relations;	38
(3) The association or representation of persons in	39 negotiations for the purpose of setting, maintaining, or	40 changing the terms or conditions of employment;	41
(4) Any other controversy arising out of the respective	42 interests of the relationship between an employee and an	43

Sec. 4119.02. (A) The general assembly finds that	45 governmental authority allows and encourages employers to	46 organize in corporate and other forms of capital control, and,	47
in dealing with these employers, an employee who is not	48 represented by an employee organization is helpless to exercise	49 liberty of contract or to protect personal freedom of labor and	50
thus is helpless to obtain acceptable terms and conditions of	51
employment.	52
(B) The policy of this state is that the negotiation of	53
terms and conditions of private sector employment should result	54 from voluntary agreement between an employer and the employer's	55 employees. Therefore, each employee must be fully free to	56 associate, organize, and designate a representative, as the	57 employee chooses, for the negotiation of the terms and	58 conditions of employment in the private sector and must be free	59
from coercion, interference, or restraint by the employee's	60 employer or an agent of the employee's employer in designating a	61 representative, self-organizing, or other concerted activity for	62
the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or	63
protection.	64
(C) The policy of this state is that each employee must be	65 fully free to decide whether to associate, organize, designate a	66 representative, or join or assist an employee organization.	67
Sec. 4119.04. (A) No employer shall recklessly do any of	68
the following:	69
(1) Require any employee to become or remain a member of	70
any employee organization;	71
(2) Require any employee to pay any dues, fees,	72

assessments, or other charges to an employee organization;	73
(3) Require any employee to pay any amount to a charity or	74
other third party in lieu of paying dues, fees, assessments, or	75
other charges to an employee organization;	76
(4) Deduct from the wages, earnings, or compensation of	77
any employee any dues, fees, assessments, or other charges to be	78 held for or paid over to an employee organization unless the	79 employer first receives a written authorization for those	80 deductions as provided in division (A) of section 4119.05 of the	81
Revised Code.	82
(B) An employer and an employee organization shall not	83
enter into an oral or written agreement, contract, or promise	84 that violates division (A) of this section. Any such agreement,	85 contract, or promise is void and unenforceable.	86
Sec. 4119.05. (A) An employee may authorize the employee's	87

division (B) of this section. An employer shall provide a copy	102 of the notice to each employee at the time the employee is first	103 hired or rehired after a lapse of the employee's employment with	104
that employer.	105
(B) The notice required to be posted and distributed	106
pursuant to division (A) of this section shall read as follows:	107
"Under Ohio law, an employee who is employed by a private	108 employer may choose whether to join an employee organization	109 without penalty. It is unlawful for an employer and an employee	110 organization to enter into a contract or agreement that requires	111 employees to join or belong to an employee organization. It also	112 is unlawful for a private employer to require employees to pay	113
dues, fees, or charges of any kind to an employee organization	114
as a condition of obtaining or keeping a job or to require any	115 employee to pay any amount to a charity or other third party in	116 lieu of paying dues, fees, assessments, or other charges to an	117 employee organization. A private employer may not discharge or	118 otherwise discriminate against an employee because the employee	119 joined or refused to join an employee organization."	120
Sec. 4119.07. (A) Any person who is injured or is likely	121
to be injured as a result of a violation of section 4119.04 of	122
the Revised Code may bring an action in the court of common	123 pleas in the county in which the violation is alleged to have	124 occurred, and may obtain injunctive relief and recover any	125 actual damages the person sustained as a result of the violation	126 or threatened violation.	127
(B) A court does not have jurisdiction to grant injunctive	128 relief under this section that specifically or generally	129
prohibits a person from doing any of the following:	130

(1) Ceasing or refusing to perform work or to remain in an	131 employment relationship, regardless of a promise to do the work	132 or to remain in the relationship;	133
(2) Deceminante en anticipar e membra ef en amplemente	1 0 4
(2) Becoming or remaining a member of an employer or	134 employee organization, regardless of a promise described in	135
section 4113.02 of the Revised Code;	136
(3) Paying or giving to, or withholding from, another	137 person anything of value, including money, insurance, or strike	138 or unemployment benefits;	139
(4) Helping, by lawful means, another person to bring or	140 defend against an action similar to an action described in	141 division (A) of this section in a court of any state or the	142
United States;	143
(5) Publicizing, obtaining, or communicating information	144 about the existence of or a fact involved in a labor dispute by	145 any method that does not involve the act or threat of a breach	146
of the peace, fraud, or violence, including advertising,	147
speaking, and patrolling, with intimidation or coercion, a	148 public street or other place where a person lawfully may be	149 present;	150
(6) Ceasing to patronize another person or to employ	151
another person;	152
	1 - 0
(7) Assembling peacefully to do or to organize an act	153
listed in divisions (B)(1) to (6) of this section;	154
(8) Advising or giving another person notice of an intent	155
to do an act listed in divisions (B)(1) to (7) of this section;	156
(9) Agreeing with another person to do or not to do an act	157
listed in divisions (B)(1) to (8) of this section;	158

(10) Advising, inducing, or urging another person, without	159
the act or threat of fraud or violence, to do an act listed in	160 divisions (B)(1) to (9) of this section, regardless of a promise	161 described in section 4113.02 of the Revised Code;	162
(11) Performing an act listed in divisions (B)(1) to (10)	163
of this section in concert with another person on the ground	164
that the persons are engaged in an unlawful conspiracy.	165
Sec. 4119.08. Any person may file a complaint alleging a	166 violation of section 4119.04 of the Revised Code with the	167 attorney general. The attorney general shall investigate any	168 complaints of an alleged violation of that section. If, based on	169 that investigation, the attorney general has reasonable cause to	170 believe that an employer has violated that section, the attorney	171
general shall prosecute the employer for the violation.	172
Sec. 4119.99. Any employer or employee organization who	173 violates section 4119.04 of the Revised Code is guilty of a	174 misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment up to ninety days, a	175
fine up to one thousand dollars, or both.	176
Section 2. This act applies to all collective bargaining	177 agreements entered into on or after the effective date of this	178
act.	179
