A BILL

To amend sections 2305.113, 2305.51, and 2317.43 1

patient or others; and to clarify the definition 22 of "medical claim." 23

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2305.113, 2305.51, and 2317.43 be 24 amended and sections 2305.2311, 2317.44, 2317.45, and 2323.451 25 of the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 26

Sec. 2305.113. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this 27 section, an action upon a medical, dental, optometric, or 28 chiropractic claim shall be commenced within one year after the 29 cause of action accrued. 30

(B) (1) If prior to the expiration of the one-year period 31 specified in division (A) of this section, a claimant who 32 allegedly possesses a medical, dental, optometric, or 33 chiropractic claim gives to the person who is the subject of 34 that claim written notice that the claimant is considering 35 bringing an action upon that claim, that action may be commenced 36 against the person notified at any time within one hundred 37 eighty days after the notice is so given. 38

(2) A claimant who allegedly possesses a medical claim and 39 who intends to give to the person who is the subject of that 40 claim the written notice described in division (B) (1) of this 41 section shall give that notice by sending it by certified mail, 42 return receipt requested, addressed to any of the following: 43

(a) The person's residence; 44

(b) The person's professional practice; 45

(c) The person's employer; 46

(d) The address of the person on file with the state 47 medical board or other appropriate agency that issued the 48 person's professional license. 49

(3) An insurance company shall not consider the existence 50 or nonexistence of a written notice described in division (B) (1) 51 of this section in setting the liability insurance premium rates 52 that the company may charge the company's insured person who is 53 notified by that written notice. 54

(C) Except as to persons within the age of minority or of 55 unsound mind as provided by section 2305.16 of the Revised Code, 56 and except as provided in division (D) of this section, both of 57
the following apply: 58

(1) No action upon a medical, dental, optometric, or 59 chiropractic claim shall be commenced more than four years after 60 the occurrence of the act or omission constituting the alleged 61 basis of the medical, dental, optometric, or chiropractic claim. 62

(2) If an action upon a medical, dental, optometric, or 63 chiropractic claim is not commenced within four years after the 64 occurrence of the act or omission constituting the alleged basis 65 of the medical, dental, optometric, or chiropractic claim, then, 66 any action upon that claim is barred. 67

(D) (1) If a person making a medical claim, dental claim, 68 optometric claim, or chiropractic claim, in the exercise of 69 reasonable care and diligence, could not have discovered the 70 injury resulting from the act or omission constituting the 71 alleged basis of the claim within three years after the 72 occurrence of the act or omission, but, in the exercise of 73 reasonable care and diligence, discovers the injury resulting 74 from that act or omission before the expiration of the four-year 75 period specified in division (C) (1) of this section, the person 76 may commence an action upon the claim not later than one year 77 after the person discovers the injury resulting from that act or 78 omission. 79

(2) If the alleged basis of a medical claim, dental claim, 80 optometric claim, or chiropractic claim is the occurrence of an 81 act or omission that involves a foreign object that is left in 82 the body of the person making the claim, the person may commence 83 an action upon the claim not later than one year after the 84 person discovered the foreign object or not later than one year 85 after the person, with reasonable care and diligence, should 86 have discovered the foreign object. 87

(3) A person who commences an action upon a medical claim, 88 dental claim, optometric claim, or chiropractic claim under the 89 circumstances described in division (D) (1) or (2) of this 90 section has the affirmative burden of proving, by clear and 91 convincing evidence, that the person, with reasonable care and 92 diligence, could not have discovered the injury resulting from 93 the act or omission constituting the alleged basis of the claim 94 within the three-year period described in division (D) (1) of 95 this section or within the one-year period described in division 96
(D) (2) of this section, whichever is applicable. 97 action for damages for a breach of contract or another agreement 286 between persons or governmental entities. "Tort action" includes 287 an action on a medical claim. 288

(B) Subject to division (C) (3) of this section, a health 289 care provider or emergency medical technician that provides 290 emergency medical services, first-aid treatment, or other 291 emergency professional care, including the provision of any 292 medication or other medical product, as a result of a disaster 293 is not liable in damages to any person in a tort action for 294 injury, death, or loss to person or property that allegedly 295 arises from an act or omission of the health care provider or 296 emergency medical technician in the health care provider's or 297 emergency medical technician's provision of those services or 298 that treatment or care if that act or omission does not 299 constitute reckless disregard for the consequences so as to 300 affect the life or health of the patient. 301

(C) (1) This section does not create a new cause of action 302 or substantive legal right against a health care provider or 303 emergency medical technician. 304

(2) This section does not affect any immunities from civil liability or defenses established by another section of the Revised Code or available at common law to which a health care provider or emergency medical technician may be entitled in connection with the provision of emergency medical services, first-aid treatment, or other emergency professional care, including the provision of medication or other medical product. 305
306
308
309
310
311

(3) This section does not grant an immunity from tort or other civil liability to a health care provider or emergency medical technician for actions that are outside the scope of authority of the health care provider or emergency medical technician. 312
313
315
316

(4) This section does not affect any legal responsibility of a health care provider or emergency medical technician to comply with any applicable law of this state or rule of an agency of this state. 317
318
320

(5) This section applies only to the provision of emergency medical services, first-aid treatment, or other emergency professional care, including the provision of any medication or other medical product, by a health care provider or emergency medical technician as a result of a disaster and through the duration of the disaster. 321
322
324
326

(D) This section does not apply to a tort action alleging wrongful death against a health care provider or emergency medical technician that provides emergency medical services, first-aid treatment, or other emergency professional care, including the provision of any medication or other medical product, that allegedly arises from an act or omission of the health care provider or emergency medical technician in the health care provider's or emergency medical technician's 327
328
330
331
332
333
334 provision of those services or that treatment or care as a 335 result of a disaster. 336

Sec. 2305.51. (A) (1) As used in this section: 337

(a) "Civil Rights" has the same meaning as in section 338
5122.301 of the Revised Code. 339

(b) "Mental health client or patient" means an individual 340 who is receiving mental health services from a mental health 341 professional or organization. 342

(c) "Mental health organization" means an organization 343 that engages one or more mental health professionals to provide 344 mental health services to one or more mental health clients or 345 patients. 346

(d) "Mental health professional" means an individual who 347 is licensed, certified, or registered under the Revised Code, or 348 otherwise authorized in this state, to provide mental health 349 services for compensation, remuneration, or other personal gain. 350

(e) "Mental health service" means a service provided to an 351 individual or group of individuals involving the application of 352 medical, psychiatric, psychological, professional counseling, 353 social work, marriage and family therapy, or nursing principles 354 or procedures to either of the following: 355

(i) The assessment, diagnosis, prevention, treatment, or 356 amelioration of mental, emotional, psychiatric, psychological, 357 or psychosocial disorders or diseases, as described in the most 358 recent edition of the diagnostic and statistical manual of 359 mental disorders published by the American psychiatric 360 association; 361

(ii) The assessment or improvement of mental, emotional, 362 psychiatric, psychological, or psychosocial adjustment or 363 functioning, regardless of whether there is a diagnosable, pre- 364 existing disorder or disease. 365

(f) "Knowledgeable person" means an individual who has 366 reason to believe that a mental health client or patient has the 367 intent and ability to carry out an explicit threat of inflicting 368 imminent and serious physical harm to or causing the death of a 369 clearly identifiable potential victim or victims and who is 370 either an immediate family member of the client or patient or an 371 individual who otherwise personally knows the client or patient. 372

(g) "Advanced practice registered nurse" has the same 373 meaning as in section 4723.01 of the Revised Code. 374

(h) "Hospital" has the same meaning as in section 2305.25 375
of the Revised Code. 376

(i) "Physician" means an individual authorized under 377
Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code to practice medicine and 378 surgery or osteopathic medicine and surgery. 379

(j) "Physician assistant" has the same meaning as in 380 section 4730.01 of the Revised Code. 381

(2) For the purpose of this section, in the case of a 382 threat to a readily identifiable structure, "clearly 383 identifiable potential victim" includes any potential occupant 384 of the structure. 385

(B) A mental health professional or mental health 386 organization may be held liable in damages in a civil action, or 387 may be made subject to disciplinary action by an entity with 388 licensing or other regulatory authority over the professional or 389 organization, for serious physical harm or death resulting from 390 failing to predict, warn of, or take precautions to provide 391 protection from the violent behavior of a mental health client 392 or patient, only if the client or patient or a knowledgeable 393 person has communicated to the professional or organization an 394 explicit threat of inflicting imminent and serious physical harm 395 to or causing the death of one or more clearly identifiable 396 potential victims, the professional or organization has reason 397 to believe that the client or patient has the intent and ability 398 to carry out the threat, and the professional or organization 399 fails to take one or more of the following actions in a timely 400 manner: 401

(1) Exercise any authority the professional or 402 organization possesses to hospitalize the client or patient on 403 an emergency basis pursuant to section 5122.10 of the Revised 404
Code; 405

(2) Exercise any authority the professional or 406 organization possesses to have the client or patient 407 involuntarily or voluntarily hospitalized under Chapter 5122. of 408
the Revised Code; 409

(3) Establish and undertake a documented treatment plan 410 that is reasonably calculated, according to appropriate 411 standards of professional practice, to eliminate the possibility 412 that the client or patient will carry out the threat, and, 413 concurrent with establishing and undertaking the treatment plan, 414 initiate arrangements for a second opinion risk assessment 415 through a management consultation about the treatment plan with, 416 in the case of a mental health organization, the clinical 417 director of the organization, or, in the case of a mental health 418 professional who is not acting as part of a mental health 419 organization, any mental health professional who is licensed to 420 engage in independent practice; 421

(4) Communicate to a law enforcement agency with 422 jurisdiction in the area where each potential victim resides, 423 where a structure threatened by a mental health client or 424 patient is located, or where the mental health client or patient 425 resides, and if feasible, communicate to each potential victim 426 or a potential victim's parent or guardian if the potential 427 victim is a minor or has been adjudicated incompetent, all of 428 the following information: 429

(a) The nature of the threat; 430

(b) The identity of the mental health client or patient 431 making the threat; 432

(c) The identity of each potential victim of the threat. 433

(C) All of the following apply when a mental health 434 professional or organization takes one or more of the actions 435 set forth in divisions (B) (1) to (4) of this section: 436

(1) The mental health professional or organization shall 437 consider each of the alternatives set forth and shall document 438 the reasons for choosing or rejecting each alternative. 439

(2) The mental health professional or organization may 440 give special consideration to those alternatives which, 441 consistent with public safety, would least abridge the rights of 442 the mental health client or patient established under the 443 Revised Code, including the rights specified in sections 5122.27 444 to 5122.31 of the Revised Code. 445

(3) The mental health professional or organization is not 446 required to take an action that, in the exercise of reasonable 447 professional judgment, would physically endanger the 448 professional or organization, increase the danger to a potential 449 victim, or increase the danger to the mental health client or 450 patient. 451

(4) The mental health professional or organization is not 452 liable in damages in a civil action, and shall not be made 453 subject to disciplinary action by any entity with licensing or 454 other regulatory authority over the professional or 455 organization, for disclosing any confidential information about 456 a mental health client or patient that is disclosed for the 457 purpose of taking any of the actions. 458

(D) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised 459 Code, a physician, physician assistant, advanced practice 460 registered nurse, or hospital is not liable in damages in a 461 civil action, and shall not be made subject to disciplinary 462 action by any entity with licensing or other regulatory 463 authority, for doing either of the following: 464

(1) Failing to discharge or to allow a patient to leave 465 the facility if the physician, physician assistant, advanced 466 practice registered nurse, or hospital believes in the good 467 faith exercise of professional medical, advanced practice 468 registered nursing, or physician assistant judgment according to 469 appropriate standards of professional practice that the patient 470 has a mental health condition that threatens the safety of the 471 patient or others; 472

(2) Discharging a patient whom the physician, physician 473 assistant, advanced practice registered nurse, or hospital 474 believes in the good faith exercise of professional medical, 475 advanced practice registered nursing, or physician assistant 476 judgment according to appropriate standards of professional 477 practice not to have a mental health condition that threatens 478 the safety of the patient or others. 479

(E) The immunities from civil liability and disciplinary action conferred by this section are in addition to and not in limitation of any immunity conferred on a mental health professional or organization or on a physician, physician assistant, advanced practice registered nurse, or hospital by any other section of the Revised Code or by judicial precedent.

~~(E)~~ (F) This section does not affect the civil rights of a mental health client or patient under Ohio or federal law.

Sec. 2317.43. (A) (1) In any civil action brought by an alleged victim of an unanticipated outcome of medical care or in any arbitration proceeding related to such a civil action, any and all statements, affirmations, gestures, or conduct expressing apology, sympathy, commiseration, condolence, compassion, error, fault, or a general sense of benevolence that are made by a health care provider ~~or,~~ an employee of a health care provider, or a representative of a health care provider to the alleged victim, a relative of the alleged victim, or a representative of the alleged victim, and that relate to the discomfort, pain, suffering, injury, or death of the alleged victim as the result of the unanticipated outcome of medical care are inadmissible as evidence of an admission of liability or as evidence of an admission against interest.

(2) If any statements, affirmations, gestures, or conduct that are described in division (A) (1) of this section or any reference to them are included in the medical record pertaining to the victim of an unanticipated outcome of medical care, only the portions of the medical record that include those statements, affirmations, gestures, or conduct or any reference to them are inadmissible as evidence of an admission of liability or as evidence of an admission against interest.

(B) (1) When made as part of a review conducted in good 510 faith by the health care provider, an employee of the health 511 care provider, or a representative of the health care provider 512 into the cause of or reasons for an unanticipated outcome of 513 medical care, the following communications are inadmissible as 514 evidence in any civil action brought by an alleged victim of an 515 unanticipated outcome of medical care, in any arbitration 516 proceeding related to such a civil action, or in any other civil 517 proceeding, unless the communications are recorded in the 518 medical record of the alleged victim, subject to division (A) (2) 519 of this section: 520

(a) Any communications made by a health care provider, an 521 employee of a health care provider, or a representative of a 522 health care provider to the alleged victim, a relative or 523 acquaintance of the alleged victim, or a representative of the 524 alleged victim; 525

(b) Any communications made by an alleged victim, a 526 relative or acquaintance of the alleged victim, or a 527 representative of the alleged victim to the health care 528 provider, an employee of a health care provider, or a 529 representative of a health care provider. 530

(2) Nothing in this section requires a review to be 531 conducted. 532

(C) For purposes of this section, unless the context 533 otherwise requires: 534

(1) "Health care provider" has the same meaning as in 535 division (B) (5) of section 2317.02 of the Revised Code. 536

(2) "Relative" means a victim's spouse, parent, 537 grandparent, stepfather, stepmother, child, grandchild, brother, 538 sister, half brother, half sister, or spouse's parents. The term 539 includes said relationships that are created as a result of 540 adoption. In addition, "relative" includes any person who has a 541 family-type relationship with a victim. 542

(3) "Representative of an alleged victim" means a legal 543 guardian, attorney, person designated to make decisions on 544 behalf of a patient under a medical power of attorney, or any 545 person recognized in law or custom as a patient's agent. 546

(4) "Representative of a health care provider" means an 547 attorney, health care provider, employee of a health care 548 provider, or other person designated by a health care provider 549 or an employee of a health care provider to participate in a 550 review conducted by a health care provider or employee of a 551 health care provider. 552

(5) "Review" means the policy, procedures, and activities 553 undertaken by or at the direction of a health care provider, 554 employee of a health care provider, or person designated by a 555 health care provider or employee of a health care provider with 556 the purpose of determining the cause of or reasons for an 557 unanticipated outcome, and initiated and completed during the 558 first forty-five days following the occurrence or discovery of 559 an unanticipated outcome. A review shall be initiated by verbal 560 communication to the patient, relative of the patient, or 561 representative of the patient by the health care provider, 562
employee of a health care provider, or person designated by a 563 health care provider or employee of a health care provider. The 564 verbal communication shall be followed by a written document 565 explaining the review process. A review may be extended for a 566 longer period if necessary upon written notice to the patient, 567 relative of the patient, or representative of the patient. 568

(6) "Unanticipated outcome" means the outcome of a medical treatment or procedure that differs from an expected result_or any outcome that is adverse or not satisfactory to the patient. 569

Sec. 2317.45. (A) As used in this section: 589

(1) "Health care provider" means any person or entity against whom a medical claim may be asserted in a civil action. 590
591

(2) "Insurer" means any public or private entity doing or authorized to do any insurance business in this state. "Insurer" includes a self-insuring employer and the United States centers for medicare and medicaid services. 592
593
595

(3) "Medical claim" has the same meaning as in section 596

(4) "Reimbursement determination" means an insurer's 598 determination of whether the insurer will reimburse a health 599 care provider for health care services and the amount of that 600 reimbursement. 601

(5) "Reimbursement policies" means an insurer's policies 602 and procedures governing its decisions regarding the 603 reimbursement of a health care provider for health care services 604 and the method of reimbursement. 605

(B) Any insurer's reimbursement policies or reimbursement 606 determination or regulations issued by the United States centers 607 for medicare and medicaid services or the Ohio department of 608 medicaid regarding the health care services provided to the 609 patient in any civil action based on a medical claim are not 610 admissible as evidence for or against any party in the action 611 and may not be used to establish a standard of care or breach of 612 that standard of care in the action. 613

Sec. 2323.451. (A) (1) As used in this section, "medical 614 claim" has the same meaning as in section 2305.113 of the 615
Revised Code. 616

(2) This section may be used in lieu of, and not in 617 addition to, division (B) (1) of section 2305.113 of the Revised 618
Code. 619

(B) At the time of filing a complaint asserting a medical 620 claim, the plaintiff shall file with the complaint, pursuant to 621 rule 10(D) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, an affidavit of 622 merit relative to each defendant named in the complaint or a 623 motion to extend the period of time to file an affidavit of 624 merit. 625

(C) The parties may conduct discovery as permitted by the 626 Rules of Civil Procedure. Additionally, for the period of time 627 specified in division (D) (2) of this section, the parties may 628 seek to discover the existence or identity of any other 629 potential medical claims or defendants that are not included or 630 named in the complaint. All parties shall provide the discovery 631 under this division in accordance with the Rules of Civil 632 Procedure. 633

(D) (1) Within the period of time specified in division (D) 634
(2) of this section, the plaintiff, in an amendment to the 635 complaint pursuant to rule 15 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, 636 may join in the action any additional medical claim or defendant 637 if the original one-year period of limitation applicable to that 638 additional medical claim or defendant had not expired prior to 639 the date the original complaint was filed. The plaintiff shall 640 file an affidavit of merit supporting the joinder of the 641 additional medical claim or defendant or a motion to extend the 642 period of time to file an affidavit of merit pursuant to rule 643 10(D) of the Rules of Civil Procedure with the amendment to the 644 complaint. 645

(2) If a complaint is filed under this section prior to 646 the expiration of the one-year period of limitation applicable 647 to medical claims under section 2305.113 of the Revised Code, 648 then the period of time in which the parties may conduct the 649 discovery under division (C) of this section and in which the 650 plaintiff may join in the action any additional medical claim or 651 defendant under division (D) (1) of this section shall be equal 652 to the balance of any days remaining from the filing of the 653 complaint to the expiration of that one-year period of 654 limitation, plus one hundred eighty days from the filing of the 655
complaint. 656

(E) Subject to division (F) of this section, after the 657 expiration of the one-hundred-eighty-day period described in 658 division (D)(2) of this section, the plaintiff shall not join 659 any additional medical claim or defendant to the action unless 660 the medical claim is for wrongful death, and the period of 661 limitation for the claim under section 2125.02 of the Revised 662
Code has not expired. 663

(F) This section does not modify or affect and shall not 664 be construed as modifying or affecting any provision of the 665 Revised Code, rule of common law, or Ohio Rules of Civil 666 Procedure that applies to the commencement of the period of 667 limitation for medical claims that are asserted or defendants 668 that are joined after the expiration of the one-hundred-eighty- 669 day period described in division (D)(2) of this section. 670

Section 2. That existing sections 2305.113, 2305.51, and 671
2317.43 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 672

Section 3. (A) Section 2323.451 of the Revised Code, as 673 enacted by this act, applies to a civil action that is based 674 upon a medical claim and that is filed on or after the effective 675 date of this act. 676

(B) As used in division (A) of this section, "medical 677 claim" has the same meaning as in section 2305.113 of the 678
Revised Code. 679
