Sec. 3721.04. (A) The director of health shall adopt and 54 publish rules governing the operation of homes, which shall have 55 uniform application throughout the state, and shall prescribe 56 standards for homes with respect to, but not limited to, the 57 following matters: 58

(1) The minimum space requirements for occupants and 59 equipping of the buildings in which homes are housed so as to 60 ensure healthful, safe, sanitary, and comfortable conditions for 61 all residents, so long as they are not inconsistent with 62 Chapters 3781. and 3791. of the Revised Code or with any rules 63 adopted by the board of building standards and by the state fire 64 marshal; 65

(2) The number and qualifications of personnel, including 66 management and nursing staff, for each class of home, and the 67 qualifications of nurse aides, as defined in section 3721.21 of 68 the Revised Code, used by long-term care facilities, as defined 69 in that section; 70

(3) The medical, rehabilitative, and recreational services 71 to be provided by each class of home; 72

(4) Dietetic services, including but not limited to 73

sanitation, nutritional adequacy, and palatability of food;	74
(5) The personal and social services to be provided by each class of home;	75 76
(6) The business and accounting practices to be followed and the type of patient and business records to be kept by such homes;	77 78 79
(7) The operation of adult day-care programs provided by and on the same site as homes licensed under this chapter;	80 81
(8) The standards and procedures to be followed by residential care facilities in admitting and retaining a resident who requires the application of dressings, including requirements for charting and evaluating on a weekly basis;	82 83 84 85
(9) The requirements for conducting weekly evaluations of residents receiving skilled nursing care in residential care facilities.	86 87 88
(B) The director shall adopt rules governing the reports required by section 3721.026 of the Revised Code, including a rule that defines the term "outbreak" for the purpose of that section. The director may adopt whatever additional rules are necessary to carry out or enforce the provisions of sections 3721.01 to 3721.09 and 3721.99 of the Revised Code.	89 90 91 92 93 94
(C) The following apply to the director when adopting rules under division (A) (1) of this section regarding the equipping of the buildings in which homes are housed:	95 96 97
(1) The rules shall not require that each resident sleeping room, or a percentage of the resident sleeping rooms, have a bathtub or shower that is directly accessible from or exclusively for the room.	98 99 100 101

(2) The rules shall require that the privacy and dignity	102
of residents be protected when the residents are transported to	103
and from bathing facilities, prepare for bathing, and bathe.	104
(D) The following apply to the director when adopting	105
rules under division (A) (2) of this section regarding the number	106
and qualifications of personnel in homes:	107
(1) When adopting rules applicable to residential care	108
facilities, the director shall take into consideration the	109 effect that the following may have on the number of personnel	110
needed:	111
(a) Provision of personal care services;	112
(b) Provision of part-time, intermittent skilled nursing	113
care pursuant to division (C) of section 3721.011 of the Revised	114
Code;	115
(c) Provision of skilled nursing care to residents	116
pursuant to division (D) of section 3721.011 of the Revised	117
Code.	118
(2) When adopting rules applicable to nursing homes, the	119
director shall require each nursing home to do both of the	120
following:	121
(a) Have sufficient direct care staff on each shift to	122
meet the needs of the residents in an appropriate and timely	123
manner;	124
(b) Have the following individuals provide a minimum daily	125
average of two and one-half hours of direct care per resident:	126
(i) Registered nurses, including registered nurses who	127
perform administrative and supervisory duties;	128

(ii) Licensed practical nurses, including licensed	129
practical nurses who perform administrative and supervisory	130
duties;	131
(iii) Nurse aides.	132
(3) The rules prescribing qualifications of nurse aides	133
used by long-term care facilities, as those terms are defined in	134 section 3721.21 of the Revised Code, shall be no less stringent	135 than the requirements, guidelines, and procedures established by	136
the United States secretary of health and human services under	137
section 1819 of the "Social Security Act," 101 Stat. 1330-160	138
(1987), 42 U.S.C. 1395i-3, as amended, and section 1919 of the	139
"Social Security Act," 101 Stat. 1330-182 (1987), 42 U.S.C.	140
1396r, as amended.	141
(E) The following apply to the director when adopting	142
rules under division (A) (2) of this section regarding the number	143
and qualifications of personnel in nursing homes or rules under	144 division (A) (5) of this section regarding social services to be	145 provided by nursing homes:	146
(1) The rules shall not prescribe the number of	147
individuals licensed as social workers under Chapter 4757. of	148
the Revised Code that a nursing home with one hundred twenty or	149
fewer beds must employ.	150
(2) The rules shall require each nursing home with more	151
than one hundred twenty beds to employ on a full-time basis one	152 individual licensed as a social worker under Chapter 4757. of	153
the Revised Code.	154
(3) The rules shall require each nursing home to offer its	155
residents medically related social services that assist the	156
residents in attaining or maintaining their highest practicable	157 physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being. 158

Sec. 3721.99. (A) Whoever violates section 3721.021, 159
