determine the course topics, which shall include diversity 14 training with an emphasis on historical perspectives and 15 community-police relations, and shall establish criteria for 16 what constitutes successful completion of the course. The 17 commission shall conduct the course at the Ohio peace officer 18

semiannually. 20

(B) A newly appointed chief of police may request an 21 equivalency exemption from a portion of the forty hours of the 22 chief of police training course by submitting to the Ohio peace 23 officer training commission, not more than ten calendar days 24 following the person's appointment as a chief of police, 25

exempted portion. 27

(C) Upon presentation of evidence by a newly appointed 28 chief of police that because of a medical disability or other 29 good cause the newly appointed chief of police is unable to 30 complete the chief of police training course, the Ohio peace 31 officer training commission may defer the requirement for the 32 newly appointed chief of police to complete the chief of police 33 training course until the disability or cause terminates. 34

(D) As used in this section, "newly appointed chief of 35 police" means a person appointed chief of police under section 36 505.49, 737.05, or 737.15 of the Revised Code who did not hold 37 the office of chief of police on the date the person was 38 appointed chief of police, any person otherwise designated as 39 chief of police of a township, city, or village, or any 40 administrative official who is responsible for the daily 41 administration and supervision of peace officers in the 42 township, city, or village, as applicable. 43

Sec. 505.49. (A) As used in this section, "felony" has the 44 same meaning as in section 109.511 of the Revised Code. 45

(B) (1) The township trustees of a township police 46 district, by a two-thirds vote of the board, or a joint police 47 district board, by majority vote of its members, may adopt rules 48 necessary for the operation of the township or joint police 49 district, including a determination of the qualifications of the 50 chief of police, patrol officers, and others to serve as members 51 of the district police force. 52

(2) Except as otherwise provided in division (E) of this 53 section and subject to division (D) of this section, the 54 township trustees of a township police district, by a two-thirds 55 vote of the board or the joint police district board, by 56 majority vote of its members, shall appoint a chief of police 57 for the district, determine the number of patrol officers and 58 other personnel required by the district, and establish salary 59 schedules and other conditions of employment for the employees 60 of the township or joint police district. The chief of police of 61 the district shall serve at the pleasure of the township 62 trustees or the joint police district board and shall appoint 63 patrol officers and other personnel that the district may 64 require, subject to division (D) of this section and to the 65 rules and limits as to qualifications, salary ranges, and 66 numbers of personnel established by the board of township 67 trustees or the joint police district board. The township 68 trustees may include in the township police district and under 69 the direction and control of the chief of police any constable 70 the chief of police as a constable, as provided for in section 73 509.01 of the Revised Code, for the township police district. 74

(3) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, a 75 patrol officer, other police district employee, or police 76 constable, who has been awarded a certificate attesting to the 77

109.77 of the Revised Code, may be removed or suspended only 80 under the conditions and by the procedures in sections 505.491 81 to 505.495 of the Revised Code. Any other patrol officer, police 82 district employee, or police constable shall serve at the 83 pleasure of the township trustees or joint police district 84 board. In case of removal or suspension of an appointee by the 85 board of township trustees of a township police district or the 86 joint police district board, that appointee may appeal the 87 decision of either board to the court of common pleas of the 88 county in which the district is situated to determine the 89 sufficiency of the cause of removal or suspension. The appointee 90 shall take the appeal within ten days of written notice to the 91 appointee of the decision of the board. 92

(C) (1) Division (B) of this section does not apply to a 93 township that has a population of ten thousand or more persons 94 residing within the township and outside of any municipal 95 corporation, that has its own police department employing ten or 96 more full-time paid employees, and that has a civil service 97 commission established under division (B) of section 124.40 of 98 the Revised Code. The township shall comply with the procedures 99 provided by Chapter 124. of the Revised Code, except as 101 otherwise provided in divisions (C) (2) and (3) of this section. 102

(2) The board of township trustees of the township may 103 appoint the chief of police, and a person so appointed shall be 104 in the unclassified service under section 124.11 of the Revised 105 Code and shall serve at the pleasure of the board. A person 106 appointed chief of police under these conditions who is removed 107 by the board or who resigns from the position shall be entitled 108 to return to the classified service in the township police 109 department, in the position that person held previous to the 110 person's appointment as chief of police. 111

(3) The appointing authority of an urban township, as 112 defined in section 504.01 of the Revised Code, may appoint to a 113 vacant position any one of the three highest scorers on the 114 eligible list for a promotional examination. 115

(4) The board of township trustees of a township described 116 in this division shall determine the number of personnel 117 required and establish salary schedules and conditions of 118 employment not in conflict with Chapter 124. of the Revised 119
Code. 120

(5) Persons employed as police personnel in a township 121 described in this division on the date a civil service 122 commission is appointed pursuant to division (B) of section 123 124.40 of the Revised Code, without being required to pass a 124 competitive examination or a police training program, shall 125 retain their employment and any rank previously granted them by 126 action of the township trustees or otherwise, but those persons 127 are eligible for promotion only by compliance with Chapter 124. 128 of the Revised Code. 129

(6) This division does not apply to constables appointed 130 pursuant to section 509.01 of the Revised Code. This division is 131 subject to division (D) of this section. 132

(D) (1) The board of township trustees or a joint police 133 district board shall not appoint or employ a person as a chief 134 of police, and the chief of police shall not appoint or employ a 135 person as a patrol officer or other peace officer of a township 136 police district, township police department, or joint police 137 district on a permanent basis, on a temporary basis, for a 138 probationary term, or on other than a permanent basis if the 139 person previously has been convicted of or has pleaded guilty to 140 a felony. 141

(2) (a) The board of township trustees or joint police 142 district board shall terminate the appointment or employment of 143 a chief of police, patrol officer, or other peace officer of a 144 township police district, township police department, or joint 145 police district who does either of the following: 146

(i) Pleads guilty to a felony; 147

(ii) Pleads guilty to a misdemeanor pursuant to a 148 negotiated plea agreement as provided in division (D) of section 149 2929.43 of the Revised Code in which the chief of police, patrol 150 officer, or other peace officer of a township police district, 151 township police department, or joint police district agrees to 152 surrender the certificate awarded to that chief of police, 153 patrol officer, or other peace officer under section 109.77 of 154 the Revised Code. 155

(b) The board shall suspend the appointment or employment 156 of a chief of police, patrol officer, or other peace officer of 157 a township police district, township police department, or joint 158 police district who is convicted, after trial, of a felony. If 159 such chief of police, patrol officer, or other peace officer 160 files an appeal from that conviction and the conviction is 161 upheld by the highest court to which the appeal is taken, or, if 162 no timely appeal is filed, the board shall terminate the 163 appointment or employment of that chief of police, patrol 164 officer, or other peace officer. If the chief of police, patrol 165 officer, or other peace officer of a township police district, 166 township police department, or joint police district files an 167 appeal that results in that chief of police's, patrol officer's, 168 or other peace officer's acquittal of the felony or conviction 169 of a misdemeanor, or in the dismissal of the felony charge 170 against the chief of police, patrol officer, or other peace 171 officer, the board shall reinstate that chief of police, patrol 172 officer, or other peace officer. A chief of police, patrol 173 officer, or other peace officer who is reinstated under division 174

(D) (2) (b) of this section shall not receive any back pay unless 175 the conviction of that chief of police, patrol officer, or other 176 peace officer of the felony was reversed on appeal, or the 177 felony charge was dismissed, because the court found 178 insufficient evidence to convict the chief of police, patrol 179 officer, or other peace officer of the felony. 180

(3) Division (D) of this section does not apply regarding 181
an offense that was committed prior to January 1, 1997. 182

(4) The suspension or termination of the appointment or 183 officer under division (D) (2) of this section shall be in 185 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 186

505.50 of the Revised Code to obtain all police protection for 189 the township police district or joint police district from one 190 or more municipal corporations, county sheriffs, or other 191 townships. If the board enters into such a contract, subject to 192 division (D) of this section, it may, but is not required to, 193 appoint a police chief for the district. 194

(F) The members of the police force of a township police 195 district of a township, or of a joint police district board 196 comprised of a township, that adopts the limited self-government 197 form of township government shall serve as peace officers for 198

the township territory included in the district. 199

(G) A chief of police or patrol officer of a township 200
police district, township police department, or joint police 201 district may participate, as the director of an organized crime 202 task force established under section 177.02 of the Revised Code 203 or as a member of the investigatory staff of that task force, in 204 an investigation of organized criminal activity in any county or 205 counties in this state under sections 177.01 to 177.03 of the 206 Revised Code. 207

(H) (1) A newly appointed chief of police appointed on or 208 after January 1, 2018, shall attend a chief of police training 209 course conducted by the Ohio peace officer training commission 210 pursuant to division (A) of section 109.804 of the Revised Code 211 not later than six months after the person's appointment as a 212 chief of police under this section. While attending the chief of 213 police training course, a newly appointed chief of police shall 214 receive compensation in the same manner and amounts as if 215 carrying out the powers and duties of the office of chief of 216 police. The costs of conducting the chief of police training 217 course shall be paid from state funds appropriated to the 218 attorney general. The cost of meals, lodging, and travel of a 219 newly appointed chief of police attending the chief of police 220 training course shall be paid from the budget of the township 221 police district or the budget of the joint police district board 222 that appointed the newly appointed chief of police. 223

(2) As used in this section, "newly appointed chief of 224 police" means a person appointed chief of police under this 225 section who did not hold the office of chief of police on the 226

the same meaning as in section 109.511 of the Revised Code. 232 person as a chief of police, a member of the police department 234 of the municipal corporation, or an auxiliary police officer on 235 a permanent basis, on a temporary basis, for a probationary 236 term, or on other than a permanent basis if the person 237 previously has been convicted of or has pleaded guilty to a 238 felony. 239

(2) (a) The director of public safety shall terminate the 240 department, or auxiliary police officer who does either of the 242 following: 243

(i) Pleads guilty to a felony; 244

(ii) Pleads guilty to a misdemeanor pursuant to a 245
negotiated plea agreement as provided in division (D) of section 246

(b) The director shall suspend from employment a chief of 252 of the felony or conviction of a misdemeanor, or in the 263 dismissal of the felony charge against that person, the director 264 shall reinstate that person. A chief of police, member of the 265 police department, or auxiliary police officer who is reinstated 266 under division (B) (2) (b) of this section shall not receive any 267 back pay unless that person's conviction of the felony was 268

the court found insufficient evidence to convict that person of 270 the felony. 271

(3) Division (B) of this section does not apply regarding 272
an offense that was committed prior to January 1, 1997. 273

(4) The suspension from employment, or the termination of 274 the employment, of the chief of police, member of the police 275 removed therefrom as provided by section 737.171 of the Revised 310

Code. 311

(B) No person shall receive an appointment under this 312 section after January 1, 1970, unless, not more than sixty days 313

newly appointed chief of police attending the chief of police 339
