the Supreme Court of Ohio, to appear before the 2
General Assembly and show cause why he should not be 3 removed from office under Article IV, Section 17 of 4
the Ohio Constitution. 5

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF OHIO (THE SENATE CONCURRING):

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 17 of the Ohio Constitution 6 provides that the General Assembly, upon the concurrence of two- 7 thirds of the members elected to each house, may adopt a 8 concurrent resolution removing a judge from office; and 9

WHEREAS, Article IV, Section 17 of the Ohio Constitution 10
also provides that such a concurrent resolution may be adopted 11 only upon complaint, the substance of which having been entered 12 upon the journals of the two houses, and only after the judge 13 has had notice of the complaint and been provided with an 14 opportunity to be heard; and 15

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives and the Senate of the 16
132nd General Assembly complain as follows under Article IV, 17
Section 17 of the Ohio Constitution against the Honorable 18
William M. O'Neill, Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio: 19

1. Justice O'Neill has declared as a candidate for Governor of Ohio under the Democratic Party. 20
21

2. His announcement as candidate for Governor was covered widely in the news media. 22
23

3. He lists himself as a candidate on his website and social media pages. 24
25

4. He has announced his positions on a variety of issues such as legalization of recreational marijuana, raising the minimum wage, high speed rail, renewable energy, prisons, and higher education; taking these positions have now forced him to recuse himself from all cases. 26
27

From these facts, the House of Representatives and the Senate find that Justice O'Neill has violated the Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct, which warrants Justice O'Neill's removal from office under Article IV, Section 17 of the Ohio Constitution. 31
32
34

The General Assembly is entrusted by the people to remove members of the judiciary when they have violated the Code of Judicial Conduct. By becoming a partisan candidate for a non-judicial office, Justice O'Neill has shaken the public's trust, compromised the independence of the judiciary, and betrayed the voters who elected him as a non-partisan jurist. In addition, with Justice O'Neill now having to recuse himself from all cases, it leaves justice unserved at Ohio's highest level. It is because of these extreme circumstances that Justice O'Neill has caused by his candidacy, that the General Assembly must act for the public's interest and remove him from the judiciary. 35
