To urge the United States Congress and the President of 1
the United States to enact legislation that would 2 reinstate the separation of commercial and investment 3 banking function that was in effect under the Glass- 4 Steagall Act. 5

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF OHIO (THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING):

WHEREAS, An effective money and banking system is essential 6 to the functioning of the United States economy. Such a system 7 must function in the public interest without any bias; and 8

WHEREAS, Since 1933, the Federal Banking Act, also referred 9 to as the Glass-Steagall Act, has protected the public interest 10 through the regulation of commercial and investment banking, 11 insurance companies, and securities. Important provisions of the 12 Glass-Steagall Act were repealed in 1999, partially contributing 13 to the greatest speculative bubble and worldwide recession since 14
the Great Depression; and 15

WHEREAS, The worldwide recession greatly affected our 16 country's economy and citizens' lives. It left millions of homes 17 in foreclosure and caused the loss of millions of jobs 18 nationwide. The recession also put severe financial strains on 19 states, counties, cities, and other municipalities, exacerbating 20 unemployment and the loss of public services; and 21

WHEREAS, The United States House of Representatives and 22
United States Senate have been making efforts to restore the 23 protections of the Glass-Steagall Act. United States 24 Representative Marcy Kaptur has introduced H.R. 381, known as 25 the Return to Prudent Banking Act of 2015, which would revive 26 the separation between commercial banking and the securities 27 business in the manner provided by the Glass-Steagall Act. 28
United States Senator Elizabeth Warren, along with Senators John 29 McCain, Maria Cantwell, Angus King, and others have introduced 30 the 21st Century Glass-Steagall Act (S. 1709), which would 31 reduce risk for American taxpayers in the financial system and 32 decrease the likelihood of future financial crises; and 33

WHEREAS, The Glass-Steagall Act has widespread national 34 support from prominent economic and business leaders and 35 national publications, including Thomas Hoenig of the Federal 36 Deposit Insurance Corporation, former CEO of Citigroup Sanford 37
Weill, economist Luigi Zingales, the New York Times, the St. 38
Louis Post-Dispatch, the Los Angeles Times, and many others; and 39

WHEREAS, Resolutions demanding action to return to Glass- 40 Steagall protections have been introduced in at least 25 states 41 since 2013. In fact, Maine and South Dakota passed resolutions 42 on the matter in both chambers of their legislatures in 2013. 43 Additionally, both the Alabama and Indiana houses of 44 representatives adopted resolutions urging action to reinstate 45 Glass-Steagall in the same year; and 46

WHEREAS, Overwhelming pressure must be brought to bear on 47 members of the United States House of Representatives and the 48 United States Senate to take action to pass this important 49 legislation; now therefore be it 50

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the 132nd General 51 Assembly of the State of Ohio, in adopting this resolution, urge 52 the United States Congress and the President of the United 53 States to enact legislation that, in order to prevent American 54 taxpayers from being called upon to fund hundreds of billions of 55 dollars to bail out financial institutions, would reinstate the 56 separation of commercial and investment banking functions that 57 was in effect under the Glass-Steagall Act, prohibiting 58 commercial banks and bank holding companies from investing in 59 stocks, from underwriting securities, and from investing in or 60 acting as guarantors to derivative transactions; and be it 61 further 62

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit duly 63 authenticated copies of this resolution to the President of the 64
United States, the President of the United States Senate, the 65
Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the 66 members of the Ohio congressional delegation, United States 67 Representative Marcy Kaptur, United States Senator Elizabeth 68
Warren, and the news media of Ohio. 69
