A RESOLUTION

Honoring Malone University on its One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 132nd General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to applaud Malone University on the auspicious occasion of its One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, Recognition of this prestigious milestone is, indeed, a fitting tribute to Malone University, for throughout the past one hundred twenty-five years, it has played a valuable role in preparing students to meet the challenges of the future. The university was established by Walter and Emma Malone on March 17, 1892, as Cleveland Bible Training School, and its founders selected Canton since it was the biggest city at the time without a university. Today, more than seventy percent of the institution's students come from Stark County and more than forty percent of its alumni reside in Stark County, and it has become known as Canton's University. With an unwavering commitment to educational excellence, the faculty, staff, and administration of the school have worked diligently to offer students a balanced curriculum which seeks to develop their academic and practical skills, and they have gained the appreciation of students, parents, and the community alike; and

WHEREAS, Colleges and universities provide scholars with much more than the basic educational skills, and we are certain that the instructors and administrators of Malone University will maintain their dedication to helping students become capable and well-rounded individuals. As they take part in the school's Quasiquicentennial celebration, the students, staff, and alumni can be justly proud of this fine institution; and 27

WHEREAS, Education is vital to our nation's continued 28 economic and social well-being, and as the need for global 29 learning and understanding increases, so do the demands placed 30 upon our system of education. Malone University has consistently 31 and effectively met these demands, and all those associated with 32
the college are worthy of acknowledgement; therefore be it 33

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 132nd 34
General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, salute 35
Malone University on its One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary and 36
