A BILL

To amend section 121.30 and to enact sections 1 121.34, 121.341, and 121.342 of the Revised Code 2 to create the Women's Policy and Research 3 Commission and the Women's Policy and Research 4 Center, to specify their powers and duties, and 5 to make an appropriation. 6

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That section 121.30 be amended and sections 7 121.34, 121.341, and 121.342 of the Revised Code be enacted to 8 read as follows: 9

Sec. 121.30. As used in sections 121.30 to ~~121.34~~ 121.33 10 of the Revised Code, "Spanish-speaking people" means persons who 11 possess any of the following characteristics: 12

(A) Use Spanish as their primary language; 13

(B) Regard themselves as or are regarded in their 14 community as being of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central 15

American, South American, Spanish, or other Spanish-speaking 16 origin or descent. 17

Sec. 121.34. (A) There is the women's policy and research 18 commission to promote the advancement of women and remove 19 barriers to women's equality. The commission shall consist of 20 fifteen members. 21

(B) The governor shall appoint six members to represent 22 the public, not more than three of whom shall be members of the 23 same political party. Members appointed by the governor may 24 include, but are not limited to, persons who are active in and 25 knowledgeable about the following areas: health and human 26 services, education, business and industry, science and 27 technology, arts and culture, the promotion of social justice, 28 law and government, and volunteerism. The president and minority 29 leader of the senate each shall appoint one member of the 30 senate, and one nonlegislator member to represent the public. 31
The speaker and minority leader of the house of representatives 32 each shall appoint one member of the house of representatives, 33 and one nonlegislator member to represent the public. The 34 governor or the governor's designee shall be a member of the 35 commission. 36

Each member of the commission shall be an elector of this 37 state. At least two-thirds of the members of the commission 38 shall be women. The membership of the commission shall reflect 39 the diversity of this state's population with respect to age, 40 race, and ethnic background. The governor, the president and 41 minority leader of the senate, and the speaker and minority 42 leader of the house of representatives shall consult with 43 individuals and organizations that promote the advancement of 44 women to seek their recommendations of persons to serve as 45 public members of the commission. 46

Of the governor's initial appointments to the commission, 47 three shall be to terms that end one year after the effective 48 date of this section, two shall be to terms that end two years 49 after that date, and one shall be to a term that ends three 50 years after that date. The initial appointment of the public 51 member by the speaker of the house of representatives shall be 52 to a term that ends two years after the effective date of this 53 section, and the initial appointment of the public member by the 54 minority leader of the house of representatives shall be to a 55 term that ends three years after that date. The initial 56 appointment of the public member by the president of the senate 57 shall be to a term that ends two years after the effective date 58 of this section, and the initial appointment of the public 59 member by the minority leader of the senate shall be to a term 60 that ends three years after that date. Thereafter, the terms of 61 office of all public members shall be for three years, with each 62 term ending on the same day of the same month as did the term it 63 succeeds. 64

The speaker and minority leader of the house of 65 representatives and the president and minority leader of the 66 senate shall appoint the legislator members to the commission 67 within thirty days after the commencement of the first regular 68 session of each general assembly. These members shall serve on 69 the commission until their respective successors are appointed 70 or until they are no longer members of the general assembly. A 71 public member who has served two consecutive three-year terms on 72 the commission is ineligible for reappointment to the commission 73 until three years have passed since the end of the member's 74 second consecutive three-year term. A legislator member who has 75 served three consecutive terms on the commission is ineligible 76 for reappointment to the commission until two years have passed 77 since the end of the member's third consecutive term. Vacancies 78 shall be filled in the manner provided for original 79 appointments. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring 80 before the expiration date of the term for which a predecessor 81 was appointed shall hold office as a member for the remainder of 82 that term. A public member shall continue in office following 83 the expiration date of the member's term until a successor is 84 appointed or until a period of ninety days has elapsed, 85 whichever occurs first. 86

(C) Members of the commission shall receive no 87 compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses, 88 actually incurred in the conduct of their official business. 89

(D) The governor shall call the first meeting of the 90 commission within forty-five days after all commission members 91 have been appointed. Thereafter, the commission shall prescribe 92 the manner and the times at which commission meetings shall be 93 called, except that the commission shall meet at least four 94 times annually. The commission shall choose annually from among 95 its members a chair to preside over its meetings, a secretary to 96 keep a record of its proceedings, and such other officers as it 97 considers necessary. A majority of the members of the commission 98 constitutes a quorum. 99

Sec. 121.341. (A) The women's policy and research 100 commission shall do all of the following: 101

(1) Establish policies and procedures governing the 102 operation of the women's policy and research center established 103 under section 121.342 of the Revised Code; 104

(2) Employ an executive director for the center to 105

implement the policies and procedures established under division	106
(A) (1) of this section;	107
(3) Furnish a written report of its activities for the	108
preceding calendar year, not later than the first day of	109
February of each year, to the governor, the president of the	110
senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives.	111
(B) The commission may do any of the following:	112
(1) Hold public hearings to assess the problems and needs	113
of women in this state;	114
(2) Create standing or special committees as needed. These	115
standing or special committees shall be chaired by a member of	116
the commission but may include members who are not members of	117
the commission.	118
(3) Sell publications issued by the commission or the	119
center;	120
(4) Accept gifts, donations, benefits, and other funds	121
from any public agency or private source to carry out any or all	122
of the commission's or center's powers or duties.	123
(C) All expenses incurred in carrying out this section and	124
sections 121.34 and 121.342 of the Revised Code are payable	125
solely from the funds of the commission.	126
(D) There is in the state treasury the women's policy and	127
research commission fund. All proceeds from the sale of	128
publications under division (B) (3) of this section and all	129
gifts, donations, benefits, and other funds received by the	130
commission under division (B) (4) of this section shall be	131
deposited in the fund.	132
Sec. 121.342. (A) There is the women's policy and research	133

center under the supervision of the women's policy and research	134
commission. The center shall do all of the following:	135
(1) Identify, through research, data collection, and	136
public hearings, barriers to women's equality;	137
(2) Maintain and make available to the appropriate	138
appointing authorities lists of persons qualified for	139
appointment to positions in state government;	140
(3) Educate the public on the status of women and on the	141
impact of public policy on women;	142
(4) Issue reports and recommendations to the executive and	143
legislative branches of state government and to the general	144
public regarding women's policy issues;	145
(5) Analyze current and proposed public policies to	146
determine their impact on women, and report the analysis to the	147
appropriate authorities;	148
(6) Help the public and private sectors develop programs	149
and services for women;	150
(7) Encourage collaboration between the center and other	151
public agencies and institutions on issues of mutual interest to	152
them.	153
(B) The executive director of the center shall appoint the	154
center's employees with the approval of the commission.	155
Section 2. That existing section 121.30 of the Revised	156
Code is hereby repealed.	157
Section 3. All items in this section are hereby	158 appropriated as designated out of any moneys in the state	159 treasury to the credit of the designated fund. For all	160 appropriations made in this act, those in the first column are 161 for fiscal year 2020 and those in the second column are for 162 fiscal year 2021. The appropriations made in this act are in 163 addition to any other appropriations made for the FY 2020-FY 164 2021 biennium. 165
