SECTION 2. That existing section 1901.08 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. The nomination of the new municipal court judge of the Franklin County Municipal Court who is created by this act and is to be elected in 1997 shall be by nominating petition that is signed by at least one thousand electors, that is filed with the board of elections, and that otherwise conforms to the provisions of section 3513.261 of the Revised Code. The nominating petition shall designate the term of the office to which the candidate seeks election as provided in section 3513.28 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding section 1901.07 of the Revised Code or any other provision of law, the nominating petition shall be filed not later than four p.m. on September 1, 1997.

Notwithstanding section 3513.04 of the Revised Code, no person is prohibited from seeking election as a new judge created by this act because the person sought, by declaration of candidacy, a party nomination for an office or position at the May 1997, primary election.

SECTION 4. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety. The reason for this necessity is the fact that the new judge created by this act is seriously needed for the efficient and timely administration of justice in Franklin county and in this state, and if the new judge is not elected in 1997, the new judge otherwise cannot conveniently be made available for service for an additional two years, which would prolong delay, crowded court dockets, and inefficient administration of justice. Therefore, this act shall go into immediate effect.
