Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, in any county having two or more judges of the court of common pleas, in which more than one-third of the judges plus one were previously elected at the same election, if the office of one of those judges so elected becomes vacant more than forty days prior to the second general election preceding the expiration of that judge's term, the office that that judge had filled shall be abolished as of the date of the next general election, and a new office of judge of the court of common pleas shall be created. The judge who is to fill that new office shall be elected for a six-year term at the next general election, and the term of that judge shall commence on the first day of the year following that general election, on which day no other judge's term begins, so that the number of judges that the county shall elect shall not be reduced.

Judges of the probate division of the court of common pleas are judges of the court of common pleas but shall be elected pursuant to sections 2101.02 and 2101.021 of the Revised Code, except in Adams, Harrison, Henry, Morgan, Morrow, Noble, and Wyandot counties in which the judge of the court of common pleas elected pursuant to this section also shall serve as judge of the probate division.

SECTION 2. That existing section 2301.02 of the Revised Code is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. (A) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 3513.05 of the Revised Code or any other provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, for the primary election held in 2002, any person desiring to become a candidate for party nomination for the office of judge of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas established by this act shall file a declaration of candidacy and petition and pay the fee, if any, required by section 3513.10 of the Revised Code, not later than 4:00 p.m. on February 28, 2002. The declaration of candidacy and petition shall be filed at the same time as one instrument with the Board of Elections of Butler County.

(B) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 3513.05 of the Revised Code or any other provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, for the 2002 primary election, the petitions accompanying the declarations of candidacy for party nomination for the office of judge of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas established by this act shall be open to public inspection until 4 p.m. on March 2, 2002.

(C) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 3513.05 of the Revised Code or any other provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, for the 2002 primary election, the Board of Elections of Butler county, not later than 4:00 p.m. on March 2, 2002, shall examine and determine the validity or invalidity of the signatures on the petitions filed with it for party nomination for the office of judge of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas established by this act.

(D) Except as otherwise provided in divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section, for the 2002 primary election, the provisions of section 3513.05 of the Revised Code and any other provisions of the Revised Code that are applicable to party nominations for the office of judge of a court of common pleas apply to a party nomination for the office of judge of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas established by this act.

SECTION 4. (A) Pursuant to sections 141.04 and 141.05 of the Revised Code, the state shall pay its required portion of the compensation of the new judge of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas who is first elected in 2002, and whose term begins on January 3, 2003, that is due for services that the judge performs from January 3, 2003, through June 30, 2003.

(B) Notwithstanding sections 141.04 and 141.05 of the Revised Code, Butler County shall reimburse the state for the amount of compensation that the state pays pursuant to division (A) of this section for the new judge of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas whose term began on January 3, 2003, for services the judge performs from January 3, 2003, through June 30, 2003.

SECTION 5. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety. The reason for such necessity is that a person desiring to become a candidate for a party nomination at the primary election to be held on May 7, 2002, and for election under this act as the judge for the general division of the Butler County Court of Common Pleas who is to be elected in the general election on November 5, 2002, and whose term begins on January 3, 2003, must file a declaration of candidacy and petition as provided in Section 3 of this act, not later than four p.m. on February 28, 2002. Therefore, this act shall go into immediate effect.
