taxable for that preceding year or period under sections 4503.02, 32685 4503.04, 4503.11, 4503.12, and 4503.16 or Chapter 4504. of the 32686 Revised Code. When a certificate of registration is issued upon 32687 the first registration of a motor vehicle by or on behalf of the 32688 owner, the official issuing the certificate shall indicate the 32689 issuance with a stamp on the certificate of title or memorandum 32690 certificate and on the inspection certificate for the motor 32691 vehicle, if any. The official also shall indicate, by a stamp or 32692 for each reflectorized safety license plate issued, and a single 32708 charge of twenty-five cents shall be made for each county 32709 identification sticker or each set of county identification 32710 producing the license plates and stickers, including material, 32712 manufacturing, and administrative costs. Those fees shall be in 32713 addition to the license tax. If the total cost of producing the 32714 plates is less than twenty-five cents per plate, or if the total 32715 cost of producing the stickers is less than twenty-five cents per 32716 sticker or per set issued, any excess moneys accruing from the 32717 fees shall be distributed in the same manner as provided by 32718 section 4501.04 of the Revised Code for the distribution of 32719 license tax moneys. If the total cost of producing the plates 32720 exceeds twenty-five cents per plate, or if the total cost of 32721 producing the stickers exceeds twenty-five cents per sticker or 32722

2003, and three dollars and fifty cents commencing on January 1, 32728 2004, for each application for registration and registration 32729 renewal notice the deputy registrar receives, which shall be for 32730 the purpose of compensating the deputy registrar for the deputy 32731 registrar's services, and such office and rental expenses, as may 32732 be necessary for the proper discharge of the deputy registrar's 32733 duties in the receiving of applications and renewal notices and 32734 the issuing of licenses. 32735

(E) Upon the certification of the registrar, the county 32736

The registrar, within three days after receipt of notification of 32756 the deposit of funds by a deputy registrar in a local bank or 32757 depository, shall draw on that account in favor of the treasurer 32758 of state. The registrar, subject to the approval of the director 32759 and the treasurer of state, may make reasonable rules necessary 32760 for the prompt transmittal of fees and for safeguarding the 32761 interests of the state and of counties, townships, municipal 32762 corporations, and transportation improvement districts levying 32763 local motor vehicle license taxes. The registrar may pay service 32764 banking facilities are not available, they shall transmit the fees 32767 forthwith, by money order or otherwise, as the registrar, by rule 32768 approved by the director and the treasurer of state, may 32769 prescribe. The registrar may pay the usual and customary fees for 32770 section and those rules and about the need in those counties to 32801 renewal notice as provided in division (B) of this section prior to the expiration date of the registration shall request an ownership of a motor vehicle from the proprietorship or 32962 partnership to the corporation, the registration shall be 32963 continued upon the filing by the surviving or new corporation, 32964 within thirty days of such transfer, of an application for an 32965 amended certificate of registration, unless such registration is 32966 prohibited by division (D) of section 2935.27, division (A) of 32967 section 2937.221, division (B) of section 4507.168, or division 32968 or names under which business is conducted, whereupon the 34492 department shall issue a new license for the unexpired period. Any 34493 change of business location or change or addition of names without 34494 auction company, the auctioneer must file an individual bond, as 34528 set forth in this section. The bond may be either a cash bond or a 34529 surety bond and, if a surety bond, it shall be executed by a 34530 surety company authorized to do business in this state. Such 34531

Sec. 4707.13. Any nonresident who applies for permission to 34571 operate as an auctioneer within this state shall file an 34572 irrevocable consent with the department of ~~commerce~~ agriculture 34573 that suits and actions may be commenced against such applicant in 34574 any court of competent jurisdiction within this state by service 34575 that the service of such process shall be held in all courts to be 34577 valid and binding as if service had been made upon the applicant 34578 within this state. 34579

Sec. 4707.15. The department of ~~commerce~~ agriculture may 34580 publicly funded child day-care. 37884

been present. County departments shall specify the maximum number 37891 of days providers will be provided certificates of payment for 37892 days the provider would have provided publicly funded child 37893 day-care had the child been present. The maximum number of days 37894 shall ~~be at least~~ not exceed ten days in a six-month period during 37895

For each person in the assistance group that brings the 38037 assistance group to more than fifteen persons, add one hundred two 38038 dollars to the amount of gross income for an assistance group of 38039 fifteen specified in division (D)(1)(a) of this section. 38040

In making this determination, the county department shall 38042 disregard amounts that federal statutes or regulations and 38043 sections 5101.17 and 5117.10 of the Revised Code require be 38044 disregarded. The assistance group is ineligible to participate in 38045

Ohio works first if the assistance group's gross income, less the 38046 amounts disregarded, exceeds the amount specified in division 38047 (D)(1)(a) of this section. 38048

(b) If the assistance group's gross income, less the amounts 38049 disregarded pursuant to division (D)(1)(a) of this section, does 38050 not exceed the amount specified in that division, determine 38051 whether the assistance group's countable income is less than the 38052 payment standard. The assistance group is ineligible to 38053 participate in Ohio works first if the assistance group's 38054 countable income equals or exceeds the payment standard. 38055

(2) To determine whether an assistance group participating in 38056
Ohio works first continues to be eligible to participate, a county 38057 department of job and family services shall determine whether the 38058 assistance group's countable income continues to be less than the 38059 payment standard. In making this determination, the county 38060 department shall disregard the first two hundred fifty dollars and 38061 fifty per cent of the remainder of the assistance group's gross 38062 earned income. No amounts shall be disregarded from the assistance 38063 group's gross unearned income. The assistance group ceases to be 38064 eligible to participate in Ohio works first if its countable 38065 income, less the amounts disregarded, equals or exceeds the 38066 payment standard. 38067

(3) If an assistance group reapplies to participate in Ohio 38068 works first not more than four months after ceasing to 38069 participate, a county department of job and family services shall 38070 use the income requirement established by division (D)(2) of this 38071 section to determine eligibility for resumed participation rather 38072 than the income requirement established by division (D)(1) of this 38073
section. 38074

(E)(1) An assistance group may continue to participate in 38075
Ohio works first even though a public children services agency 38076 removes the assistance group's minor children from the assistance 38077 group's home due to abuse, neglect, or dependency if the agency 38078 does both of the following: 38079

(a) Notifies the county department of job and family services 38080 at the time the agency removes the children that it believes the 38081 children will be able to return to the assistance group within six 38082 months; 38083

(b) Informs the county department at the end of each of the 38084 first five months after the agency removes the children that the 38085 parent, guardian, custodian, or specified relative of the children 38086 is cooperating with the case plans prepared for the children under 38087 section 2151.412 of the Revised Code and that the agency is making 38088 reasonable efforts to return the children to the assistance group. 38089

(2) An assistance group may continue to participate in Ohio 38090 works first pursuant to division (E)(1) of this section for not 38091 more than six payment months. This division does not affect the 38092 eligibility of an assistance group that includes a woman at least 38093 six months pregnant. 38094

Sec. 5107.14. An assistance group is ineligible to 38095 thirty days after applying for or undergoing a redetermination of 38098 eligibility for the program, enters into a written 38099 self-sufficiency contract with the county department of job and 38100 family services. The contract shall set forth the rights and 38101 responsibilities of the assistance group as applicants for and 38102 participants of the program, including work responsibilities 38103 established under sections 5107.40 to 5107.69 of the Revised Code 38104 and other requirements designed to assist the assistance group in 38105 achieving self sufficiency and personal responsibility. The county 38106 department shall provide without charge a copy of the contract to 38107 each assistance group member who signs it. 38108

Each self-sufficiency contract shall include, based on 38109

Revised Code; 38126

(D) Other responsibilities that members of the assistance 38127 group must satisfy to participate in Ohio works first and the 38128 consequences for failure or refusal to satisfy the 38129 responsibilities; 38130

(E) An agreement that the assistance group will comply with 38131 the conditions of participating in Ohio works first established by 38132 this chapter and sections ~~5101.19~~, 5101.58, 5101.59, and 5101.83 38133
of the Revised Code; 38134

(F) Assistance and services the county department will 38135 provide to the assistance group; 38136

Sec. 5107.18. (A) Except as provided in divisions (B), (C), (D), and (E) of this section, an assistance group is ineligible to participate in Ohio works first if the assistance group includes an adult individual who has participated in the program for thirty-six months as any of the following: an adult head of household, minor head of household, or spouse of an adult head of household or minor head of household . The time limit applies regardless of whether the thirty-six months are consecutive.	38146 38147 38148 38149 38150 38151 38152 38153
(B) An assistance group that has ceased to participate in Ohio works first pursuant to division (A) of this section for at least twenty-four months, whether consecutive or not , may reapply to participate in the program if good cause exists as determined by the county department of job and family services. Good cause may include losing employment, inability to find employment, divorce, domestic violence considerations, and unique personal circumstances. The assistance group must provide a county department of job and family services verification acceptable to the county department of whether any members of the assistance group had employment during the period the assistance group was not participating in Ohio works first and the amount and sources of the assistance group's income during that period. If a county department is satisfied that good cause exists for the assistance group to reapply to participate in Ohio works first, the assistance group may reapply. Except as provided in divisions (C), (D), and (E) of this section, the assistance group may not	38154 38155 38156 38157 38158 38159 38160 38161 38162 38163 38164 38165 38166 38167 38168 38169 38170 participate in Ohio works first for more than twenty-four 38171 additional months. The time limit applies regardless of whether 38172 the twenty-four months are consecutive. 38173

(C) In determining the number of months a parent or pregnant 38174 woman has received assistance under Title IV-A, a county 38175 department of job and family services shall disregard any month 38176 during which the parent or pregnant woman was a minor child but 38177 was neither a minor head of household nor married to the head of 38178 an assistance group. 38179

(D) In determining the number of months an adult has received 38180 assistance under Title IV-A, a county department of job and family 38181 services shall disregard any month during which the adult lived on 38182 not more than twenty per cent of the average monthly number of 38189 Ohio works first ~~participants~~ assistance groups from the time 38190 limit established by this section on the grounds that the county 38191 department determines that the time limit is a hardship. In the 38192 case of the time limit established by division (A) of this 38193 section, a county department may not exempt an assistance group 38194 until the group has exhausted its thirty-six months of cash 38195 assistance. 38196

(F) The department of job and family services shall 38198 continually monitor the percentage of the average monthly number 38199 of Ohio works first ~~participants~~ assistance groups in each county 38200 that is exempted under division (E) of this section from the time 38201 limit established by this section. On determining that the 38202 percentage in any county equals or exceeds eighteen per cent, the 38203 department shall immediately notify the county department of job 38204 and family services. 38205

(G) Only participation in Ohio works first on or after 38206 October 1, 1997, applies to the time limit established by this 38207 section. The time limit applies regardless of the source of 38208 funding for the program. Assistance under Title IV-A provided by 38209 any state applies to the time limit. The time limit is a lifetime 38210 limit. No assistance group shall receive assistance under the 38211 program in violation of the time limit for assistance under Title 38212 IV-A established by section 408(a)(7) of the "Social Security 38213

~~one minor child or a pregnant woman and meets the program's~~ 38233 ~~eligibility requirements~~ a county department of job and family 38234 services in accordance with either the model design for the 38239 program that the department of job and family services develops 38240 under section 5108.05 of the Revised Code or the county 38241 department's own policies for the program developed under section 38242 prevention, retention, and contingency program the department of 38257 job and family services develops under section ~~5108.07~~ 5108.05 of 38258 the Revised Code or develop its own policies for the program. To 38259 develop its own policies, a county department shall adopt a 38260 written statement of the policies governing the program. The 38261 policies may be a modification of the model design, different from 38262

~~the model design, or a combination. The policies shall establish 38263 or specify eligibility requirements, assistance or services to be 38264

Code, and amendments to the plan. 38272~~

A county department of job and family services shall inform 38273 the department of job and family services of whether it has 38274 adopted the model design or developed its own policies for the 38275 prevention, retention, and contingency program. If a county 38276 department develops its own policies, it shall provide the 38277 department a written copy of the statement of policies and any 38278 amendments it adopts to the statement. 38279

Sec. 5108.07. The model design for the prevention, retention, 38280 and contingency program that the department of job and family 38281 services develops under section 5108.05 of the Revised Code and 38282 policies for the program that a county department of job and 38283 family services may develop under section 5108.06 of the Revised 38284 Code shall establish or specify eligibility requirements for 38285 assistance groups that apply for the program under section 5108.10 38286 of the Revised Code, benefits and services to be provided under 38287 the program to assistance groups, administrative requirements, and 38288 a county department, in the case of county policies, determine are 38290 necessary. 38291

The model design and a county department's policies may 38292 establish eligibility requirements for, and specify benefits and 38293 services to be provided to, types of groups, such as students in 38294 the same class, that share a common need for the benefits and services. If the model design or a county department's policies include such a provision, the model design or county department's policies shall require that each individual who is to receive the benefits and services meet the eligibility requirements established for the type of group of which the individual is a member. The model design or county department's policies also shall require that the county department providing the benefits and services certify the group's eligibility, specify the duration that the group is to receive the benefits and services, and maintain the eligibility information for each member of the group receiving the benefits and services.

The model design and a county department's policies may specify benefits and services that a county department may provide for the general public, including billboards that promote the prevention, and reduction in the incidence, of out-of-wedlock pregnancies or encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families.

The model design and a county department's policies must be consistent with Title IV-A, federal regulations, state law, the Title IV-A state plan submitted to the United States secretary of health and human services under section 5101.80 of the Revised Code, and amendments to the plan. All benefits and services to be provided under the model design or a county department's policies must be allowable uses of federal Title IV-A funds as specified in 42 U.S.C.A. 604(a), except that they may not be "assistance" as defined in 45 C.F.R. 260.31(a). The benefits and services shall be benefits and services that 45 C.F.R. 260.31(b) excludes from the definition of assistance.

Sec. 5108.08. Benefits and services provided under the prevention, retention, and contingency program are inalienable and family services' model design for the program developed under 38337 section ~~5108.07~~ 5108.05 of the Revised Code, the model design; 38338

(B) If the county department developed its own policies for 38339 the program, the county department's written statement of policies 38340 adopted under section ~~5108.08~~ 5108.06 of the Revised Code and any 38341 amendments the county department adopted to the statement. 38342

Sec. 5108.10. An assistance group seeking to participate in 38343 the prevention, retention, and contingency program shall apply to 38344 a county department of job and family services using an 38345 application containing information the county department requires. 38346

When a county department receives an application for 38347 participation in the prevention, retention, and contingency 38348 program, it shall promptly make an investigation and record of the 38349 circumstances of the applicant in order to ascertain the facts 38350 surrounding the application and to obtain such other information 38351 as may be required. On completion of the investigation, the county 38352 department shall determine whether the applicant is eligible to 38353 participate, the ~~assistance~~ benefits or services the applicant 38354 should receive, and the approximate date when participation is to begin. 38355 relationship of the case-mix values to one another; 38787

(c) Modify the grouper methodology as follows: 38788

(i) Establish a different hierarchy for assigning residents 38789

(2) The department shall determine case-mix scores for 38799 intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded using data 38800 for each resident, regardless of payment source, from a resident 38801 assessment instrument and grouper methodology prescribed in rules 38802 adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and 38803 expressed in case-mix values established by the department in 38804 those rules. ~~The department may change the grouper methodology~~ 38805 ~~prescribed in rules in effect on June 30, 1999, only if the~~ 38806

(B) Not later than fifteen days after the end of each 38809 calendar quarter, each nursing facility and intermediate care 38810 the complete assessment data, from the instrument specified in 38812 rules adopted under division (A) of this section, for each 38813 resident, regardless of payment source, who was in the facility or 38814 on hospital or therapeutic leave from the facility on the last day 38815 of the quarter. 38816

Except as provided in division (C) of this section, the 38817 department, after the end of each calendar year and pursuant to 38818 procedures specified in rules adopted in accordance with Chapter 38819 119. of the Revised Code, shall calculate an annual average 38820 case-mix score for each nursing facility and intermediate care 38821 facility for the mentally retarded using the facility's quarterly 38822 case-mix scores for that calendar year. 38823

(C)(1) If a facility does not timely submit information for a 38824 calendar quarter necessary to calculate its case-mix score, or 38825 submits incomplete or inaccurate information for a calendar 38826 quarter, the department may assign the facility a quarterly 38827 average case-mix score that is five per cent less than the 38828 facility's quarterly average case-mix score for the preceding 38829 calendar quarter. If the facility was subject to an exception 38830 review under division (C) of section 5111.27 of the Revised Code 38831 for the preceding calendar quarter, the department may assign a 38832 quarterly average case-mix score that is five per cent less than 38833 the score determined by the exception review. If the facility was 38834 assigned a quarterly average case-mix score for the preceding 38835 quarter, the department may assign a quarterly average case-mix 38836 score that is five per cent less than that score assigned for the 38837 preceding quarter. 38838

The department may use a quarterly average case-mix score 38839 assigned under division (C)(1) of this section, instead of a 38840 quarterly average case-mix score calculated based on the 38841 facility's submitted information, to calculate the facility's rate 38842 for direct care costs being established under section 5111.23 of 38843 the Revised Code for one or more months, as specified in rules 38844 adopted under division (D) of this section, of the quarter for 38845 which the rate established under section 5111.23 of the Revised 38846 Code will be paid. 38847

Before taking action under division (C)(1) of this section, 38848 the department shall permit the facility a reasonable period of 38849 time, specified in rules adopted under division (D) of this 38850 section, to correct the information. In the case of an 38851 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, the 38852 department shall not assign a quarterly average case-mix score due 38853 to late submission of corrections to assessment information unless 38854
the facility fails to submit corrected information prior to the 38855 eighty-first day after the end of the calendar quarter to which 38856 the information pertains. In the case of a nursing facility, the 38857 department shall not assign a quarterly average case-mix score due 38858
to late submission of corrections to assessment information unless 38859
the facility fails to submit corrected information prior to the 38860 earlier of the eighty-first day after the end of the calendar 38861 quarter to which the information pertains or the deadline for 38862 submission of such corrections established by regulations adopted 38863 by the United States department of health and human services under 38864 Titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act. 38865

(2) If a facility is paid a rate calculated using a quarterly 38866 average case-mix score assigned under division (C)(1) of this 38867 section for more than six months in a calendar year, the 38868 department may assign the facility a cost per case-mix unit that 38869 is five per cent less than the facility's actual or assigned cost 38870 per case-mix unit for the preceding calendar year. The department 38871 may use the assigned cost per case-mix unit, instead of 38872 calculating the facility's actual cost per case-mix unit in 38873 accordance with section 5111.23 of the Revised Code, to establish 38874 the facility's rate for direct care costs for the following fiscal 38875
year. 38876

(3) The department shall take action under division (C)(1) or 38877
(2) of this section only in accordance with rules adopted under 38878 division (D) of this section. The department shall not take an 38879 action that affects rates for prior payment periods except in 38880 accordance with sections 5111.27 and 5111.28 of the Revised Code. 38881

(D) The director may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 38882
119. of the Revised Code that do any of the following: 38883

(1) Specify the medium or media through which the completed 38884 assessment information shall be submitted; 38885

(2) Establish procedures under which the department will 38886 review assessment information for accuracy and notify the facility 38887 of any information that requires correction; 38888

(3) Establish procedures for facilities to correct assessment 38889 information. The procedures may prohibit an intermediate care 38890 facility for the mentally retarded from submitting corrected 38891 assessment information, for the purpose of calculating its annual 38892 average case-mix score, more than two calendar quarters after the 38893 end of the quarter to which the information pertains or, if the 38894 information pertains to the quarter ending the thirty-first day of 38895 December, after the thirty-first day of the following March. The 38896 procedures may limit the content of corrections by nursing 38897 facilities in the manner required by regulations adopted by the 38898 United States department of health and human services under Titles 38899 XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act and prohibit a nursing 38900 facility from submitting corrected assessment information, for the 38901 purpose of calculating its annual average case-mix score, more 38902 than the earlier of the following: 38903

(a) Two calendar quarters after the end of the quarter to 38905 which the information pertains or, if the information pertains to 38906 the quarter ending the thirty-first day of December, after the 38907 thirty-first day of the following March; 38908

(b) The deadline for submission of such corrections 38909 established by regulations adopted by the United States department 38910 of health and human services under Titles XVIII and XIX of the 38911 Social Security Act. 38912

(4) Specify when and how the department will assign case-mix 38913 scores or costs per case-mix unit under division (C) of this 38914 section if information necessary to calculate the facility's 38915 average annual or quarterly case-mix score is not provided or 38916 corrected in accordance with the procedures established by the 38917 rules. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 5111.20 to 38918 5111.32 of the Revised Code, the rules also may provide for 38919 exclusion of case-mix scores assigned under division (C) of this 38920 section from calculation of the facility's annual average case-mix 38921 score and the maximum cost per case-mix unit for the facility's 38922 peer group. 38923

Sec. 5111.25. (A) The department of job and family services 38924 shall pay each eligible nursing facility a per resident per day 38925 rate for its reasonable capital costs established prospectively 38926 each fiscal year for each facility. Except as otherwise provided 38927 in sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised Code, the rate shall 38928 be based on the facility's capital costs for the calendar year 38929 preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid. The rate 38930 shall equal the sum of divisions (A)(1) to (3) of this section: 38931

(1) The lesser of the following: 38933

(a) Eighty-eight and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent of 38934
the facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem cost of 38935 ownership and eighty-five per cent of the facility's actual, 38936 allowable, per diem cost of nonextensive renovation determined 38937 under division (F) of this section; 38938

(b) Eighty-eight and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent of	38939
the following limitation:	38940
(i) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1993, sixteen	38941 dollars per resident day;	38942
(ii) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1994, sixteen	38943 dollars per resident day, adjusted to reflect the rate of	38944 inflation for the twelve-month period beginning July 1, 1992, and	38945 ending June 30, 1993, using the consumer price index for shelter	38946 costs for all urban consumers for the north central region,	38947 published by the United States bureau of labor statistics;	38948
(iii) For subsequent fiscal years, the limitation in effect	38949 during the previous fiscal year, adjusted to reflect the rate of	38950 inflation for the twelve-month period beginning on the first day	38951 of July for the calendar year preceding the calendar year that	38952 precedes the fiscal year and ending on the following thirtieth day	38953 of June, using the consumer price index for shelter costs for all	38954
urban consumers for the north central region, published by the	38955
United States bureau of labor statistics.	38956
(2) Any efficiency incentive determined under division (D) of	38957
this section;	38958
(3) Any amounts for return on equity determined under	38959
division (H) of this section.	38960
Buildings shall be depreciated using the straight line method	38961
over forty years or over a different period approved by the	38962
department. Components and equipment shall be depreciated using	38963
the straight-line method over a period designated in rules adopted	38964
by the director of job and family services in accordance with	38965
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, consistent with the guidelines	38966
of the American hospital association, or over a different period	38967 approved by the department. Any rules adopted under this division	38968 that specify useful lives of buildings, components, or equipment	38969 apply only to assets acquired on or after July 1, 1993. 38970

Depreciation for costs paid or reimbursed by any government agency 38971 shall not be included in cost of ownership or renovation unless 38972 that part of the payment under sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the 38973 Revised Code is used to reimburse the government agency. 38974

(B) The capital cost basis of nursing facility assets shall 38975 be determined in the following manner: 38976

(1) For purposes of calculating the rate to be paid for the 38977 fiscal year beginning July 1, 1993, for facilities with dates of 38978 licensure on or before June 30, 1993, the capital cost basis shall 38979 be equal to the following: 38980

(a) For facilities that have not had a change of ownership 38981 during the period beginning January 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 38982 1993, the desk-reviewed, actual, allowable capital cost basis that 38983 is listed on the facility's cost report for the cost reporting 38984 period ending December 31, 1992, plus the actual, allowable 38985 capital cost basis of any assets constructed or acquired after 38986 December 31, 1992, but before July 1, 1993, if the aggregate 38987 capital costs of those assets would increase the facility's rate 38988 for capital costs by twenty or more cents per resident per day. 38989

(b) For facilities that have a date of licensure or had a 38990 change of ownership during the period beginning January 1, 1993, 38991 and ending June 30, 1993, the actual, allowable capital cost basis 38992 of the person or government entity that owns the facility on June 38993 30, 1993. 38994

Capital cost basis shall be calculated as provided in 38995 division (B)(1) of this section subject to approval by the United 38996 States health care financing administration of any necessary 38997 amendment to the state plan for providing medical assistance. 38998

The department shall include the actual, allowable capital 38999 cost basis of assets constructed or acquired during the period 39000 beginning January 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 1993, in the calculation for the facility's rate effective July 1, 1993, if the aggregate capital costs of the assets would increase the facility's rate by twenty or more cents per resident per day and the facility provides the department with sufficient documentation of the costs before June 1, 1993. If the facility provides the documentation after that date, the department shall adjust the facility's rate to reflect the costs of the assets one month after the first day of the month after the department receives the documentation.

(2) Except as provided in division (B)(4) of this section, for purposes of calculating the rates to be paid for fiscal years beginning after June 30, 1994, for facilities with dates of licensure on or before June 30, 1993, the capital cost basis of each asset shall be equal to the desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, capital cost basis that is listed on the facility's cost report for the calendar year preceding the fiscal year during which the rate will be paid.

(3) For facilities with dates of licensure after June 30, 1993, the capital cost basis shall be determined in accordance with the principles of the medicare program established under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42
U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, except as otherwise provided in sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised Code.

(4) Except as provided in division (B)(5) of this section, if a provider transfers an interest in a facility to another provider after June 30, 1993, there shall be no increase in the capital cost basis of the asset if the providers are related parties. If the providers are not related parties or if they are related parties and division (B)(5) of this section requires the adjustment of the capital cost basis under this division, the basis of the asset shall be adjusted by the lesser of the following: 39033

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs during the 39034 time that the transferor held the asset, as calculated by the 39035 department of job and family services using the "Dodge building 39036 cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39037
Marshall and Swift; 39038

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for 39039
all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United 39040 States bureau of labor statistics, during the time that the 39041 transferor held the asset. 39042

(5) If a provider transfers an interest in a facility to 39043 another provider who is a related party, the capital cost basis of 39044 the asset shall be adjusted as specified in division (B)(4) of 39045 this section for a transfer to a provider that is not a related 39046 party if all of the following conditions are met: 39047

(a) The related party is a relative of owner; 39048

(b) Except as provided in division (B)(5)(c)(ii) of this 39049 section, the provider making the transfer retains no ownership 39050 interest in the facility; 39051

(c) The department of job and family services determines that 39052 the transfer is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules the 39053 department shall adopt in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 39054 Revised Code no later than December 31, 2000. The rules shall 39055 provide that a transfer is an arm's length transaction if all of 39056 the following apply: 39057

(i) Once the transfer goes into effect, the provider that 39058 made the transfer has no direct or indirect interest in the 39059 provider that acquires the facility or the facility itself, 39060 including interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, 39061 independent contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a 39062 creditor. 39063

(ii) The provider that made the transfer does not reacquire 39064 an interest in the facility except through the exercise of a 39065 creditor's rights in the event of a default. If the provider 39066 reacquires an interest in the facility in this manner, the 39067 department shall treat the facility as if the transfer never 39068 occurred when the department calculates its reimbursement rates 39069 for capital costs. 39070

(iii) The transfer satisfies any other criteria specified in 39071
the rules. 39072

(d) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic 39073 event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a 39074 provider making the transfer who is at least sixty-five years of 39075 age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the same 39076 facility, the capital cost basis was adjusted most recently under 39077 division (B)(5) of this section or actual, allowable cost of 39078 ownership was determined most recently under division (C)(9) of 39079
this section. 39080

(C) As used in this division, "lease expense" means lease 39081 payments in the case of an operating lease and depreciation 39082 expense and interest expense in the case of a capital lease. As 39083 used in this division, "new lease" means a lease, to a different 39084 lessee, of a nursing facility that previously was operated under a 39085 lease. 39086

(1) Subject to the limitation specified in division (A)(1) of 39087 this section, for a lease of a facility that was effective on May 39088 27, 1992, the entire lease expense is an actual, allowable cost of 39089 ownership during the term of the existing lease. The entire lease 39090 expense also is an actual, allowable cost of ownership if a lease 39091 in existence on May 27, 1992, is renewed under either of the 39092 following circumstances: 39093

(a) The renewal is pursuant to a renewal option that was in 39094 existence on May 27, 1992; 39095

(b) The renewal is for the same lease payment amount and 39096 between the same parties as the lease in existence on May 27, 39097

(2) Subject to the limitation specified in division (A)(1) of 39099 this section, for a lease of a facility that was in existence but 39100 not operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable cost 39101 of ownership shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense 39102 or the annual depreciation expense and imputed interest expense 39103 that would be calculated at the inception of the lease using the 39104 lessor's entire historical capital asset cost basis, adjusted by 39105 the lesser of the following amounts: 39106

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs during the 39107
time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease, 39108 as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 39109 indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39110
Marshall and Swift; 39111

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for 39112
all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United 39113 States bureau of labor statistics, during the time the lessor held 39114
each asset until the beginning of the lease. 39115

(3) Subject to the limitation specified in division (A)(1) of 39116
this section, for a lease of a facility with a date of licensure 39117 on or after May 27, 1992, that is initially operated under a 39118 lease, actual, allowable cost of ownership shall include the 39119 annual lease expense if there was a substantial commitment of 39120 money for construction of the facility after December 22, 1992, 39121 and before July 1, 1993. If there was not a substantial commitment 39122 of money after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993, actual, 39123 allowable cost of ownership shall include the lesser of the annual 39124 lease expense or the sum of the following: 39125

(a) The annual depreciation expense that would be calculated 39126 at the inception of the lease using the lessor's entire historical 39127 capital asset cost basis; 39128

(b) The greater of the lessor's actual annual amortization of 39129 financing costs and interest expense at the inception of the lease 39130 or the imputed interest expense calculated at the inception of the 39131 lease using seventy per cent of the lessor's historical capital 39132 asset cost basis. 39133

(4) Subject to the limitation specified in division (A)(1) of 39134
this section, for a lease of a facility with a date of licensure 39135 on or after May 27, 1992, that was not initially operated under a 39136 lease and has been in existence for ten years, actual, allowable 39137 cost of ownership shall include the lesser of the annual lease 39138 expense or the annual depreciation expense and imputed interest 39139 expense that would be calculated at the inception of the lease 39140 using the entire historical capital asset cost basis of the 39141 lessor, adjusted by the lesser of the following: 39142

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs during the 39143
time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease, 39144
as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 39145
indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39146
Marshall and Swift; 39147

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for 39148 all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United 39149 States bureau of labor statistics, during the time the lessor held 39150
each asset until the beginning of the lease. 39151

(5) Subject to the limitation specified in division (A)(1) of 39152 this section, for a new lease of a facility that was operated 39153 under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable cost of ownership 39154 shall include the lesser of the annual new lease expense or the 39155 annual old lease payment. If the old lease was in effect for ten 39156 years or longer, the old lease payment from the beginning of the 39157 old lease shall be adjusted by the lesser of the following: 39158

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs from the 39159 beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease, as 39160 calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 39161
indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39162
Marshall and Swift; 39163

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for 39164
all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United 39165 States bureau of labor statistics, from the beginning of the old 39166
lease to the beginning of the new lease. 39167

(6) Subject to the limitation specified in division (A)(1) of 39168
this section, for a new lease of a facility that was not in 39169 existence or that was in existence but not operated under a lease 39170 on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable cost of ownership shall include 39171 the lesser of annual new lease expense or the annual amount 39172 calculated for the old lease under division (C)(2), (3), (4), or 39173 (6) of this section, as applicable. If the old lease was in effect 39174 for ten years or longer, the lessor's historical capital asset 39175 cost basis shall be adjusted by the lesser of the following for 39176 purposes of calculating the annual amount under division (C)(2), 39177
(3), (4), or (6) of this section: 39178

(a) One-half of the change in construction costs from the 39179 beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease, as 39180
calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 39181
indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39182
Marshall and Swift; 39183

(b) One-half of the change in the consumer price index for 39184
all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United 39185 States bureau of labor statistics, from the beginning of the old 39186
lease to the beginning of the new lease. 39187

In the case of a lease under division (C)(3) of this section 39188 of a facility for which a substantial commitment of money was made 39189 after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993, the old lease 39190 payment shall be adjusted for the purpose of determining the 39191 annual amount. 39192

(7) For any revision of a lease described in division (C)(1), 39193
(2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of this section, or for any subsequent 39194 lease of a facility operated under such a lease, other than 39195 execution of a new lease, the portion of actual, allowable cost of 39196 ownership attributable to the lease shall be the same as before 39197 the revision or subsequent lease. 39198

(8) Except as provided in division (C)(9) of this section, if 39199 a provider leases an interest in a facility to another provider 39200 who is a related party, the related party's actual, allowable cost 39201
of ownership shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense 39202
or the reasonable cost to the lessor. 39203

(9) If a provider leases an interest in a facility to another 39204 provider who is a related party, regardless of the date of the 39205 lease, the related party's actual, allowable cost of ownership 39206 shall include the annual lease expense, subject to the limitations 39207 specified in divisions (C)(1) to (7) of this section, if all of 39208 the following conditions are met: 39209

(a) The related party is a relative of owner; 39210

(b) If the lessor retains an ownership interest, it is, 39211 except as provided in division (C)(9)(c)(ii) of this section, in 39212 only the real property and any improvements on the real property; 39213

(c) The department of job and family services determines that 39214
the lease is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules the 39215 department shall adopt in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 39216
Revised Code no later than December 31, 2000. The rules shall 39217 provide that a lease is an arm's length transaction if all of the 39218

following apply: 39219

(i) Once the lease goes into effect, the lessor has no direct 39220 or indirect interest in the lessee or, except as provided in 39221 division (C)(9)(b) of this section, the facility itself, including 39222 interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, independent 39223 contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a lessor. 39224

(ii) The lessor does not reacquire an interest in the 39226 facility except through the exercise of a lessor's rights in the 39227 event of a default. If the lessor reacquires an interest in the 39228 facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility 39229 as if the lease never occurred when the department calculates its 39230 reimbursement rates for capital costs. 39231

(iii) The lease satisfies any other criteria specified in the 39232 rules. 39233

(d) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic 39234
event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a lessor 39235 who is at least sixty-five years of age, not less than twenty 39236 years have elapsed since, for the same facility, the capital cost 39237 basis was adjusted most recently under division (B)(5) of this 39238 section or actual, allowable cost of ownership was determined most 39239 recently under division (C)(9) of this section. 39240

(10) This division does not apply to leases of specific items 39241 of equipment. 39242

(D)(1) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, the 39243 department shall pay each nursing facility an efficiency incentive 39244 that is equal to fifty per cent of the difference between the 39245
following: 39246

(a) Eighty-eight and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent of 39247
the facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem cost of 39248 ownership; 39249

(b) The applicable amount specified in division (E) of this section.	39250 39251
(2) The efficiency incentive paid to a nursing facility shall not exceed the greater of the following:	39252 39253
(a) The efficiency incentive the facility was paid during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1994;	39254 39255
(b) Three dollars per resident per day, adjusted annually for rates paid beginning July 1, 1994, for the inflation rate for the twelve-month period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year preceding the calendar year that precedes the fiscal year for which the efficiency incentive is determined and ending on the thirtieth day of the following June, using the consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics.	39256 39257 39258 39259 39260 39261 39262 39263 39264
(3) For purposes of calculating the efficiency incentive, depreciation for costs that are paid or reimbursed by any government agency shall be considered as costs of ownership, and renovation costs that are paid under division (F) of this section shall not be considered costs of ownership.	39265 39266 39267 39268 39269
(E) The following amounts shall be used to calculate efficiency incentives for nursing facilities under this section:	39270 39271
(1) For facilities with dates of licensure prior to January 1, 1958, four dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day;	39272 39273
(2) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1957, but prior to January 1, 1968:	39274 39275
(a) Five dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or more per bed;	39276 39277 39278
(b) Four dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39279

cost of construction was less than three thousand five hundred	39280
dollars per bed.	39281
(3) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31,	39282
1967, but prior to January 1, 1976:	39283
(a) Six dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39284
cost of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars	39285
or more per bed;	39286
(b) Five dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39287 cost of construction was less than five thousand one hundred fifty	39288 dollars per bed, but exceeded three thousand five hundred dollars	39289
per bed;	39290
(c) Four dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39291
cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or	39292
less per bed.	39293
(4) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31,	39294
1975, but prior to January 1, 1979:	39295
(a) Seven dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if	39296
the cost of construction was six thousand eight hundred dollars or	39297
more per bed;	39298
(b) Six dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39299 cost of construction was less than six thousand eight hundred	39300 dollars per bed but exceeded five thousand one hundred fifty	39301
dollars per bed;	39302
(c) Five dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39303
cost of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars	39304
or less per bed, but exceeded three thousand five hundred dollars	39305
(d) Four dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the	39307
cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or	39308
less per bed.	39309

(5) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1978, but prior to January 1, 1981:	39310
	39311
(a) Seven dollars and seventy-four cents per patient day if the cost of construction was seven thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars or more per bed;	39312
(b) Seven dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the cost of construction was less than seven thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars per bed but exceeded six thousand eight hundred dollars per bed;	39315
	39316

(c) Six dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the cost of construction was six thousand eight hundred dollars or less per bed but exceeded five thousand one hundred fifty dollars per bed;	39319
	39322
(d) Five dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the cost of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars or less but exceeded three thousand five hundred dollars per bed;	39323
	39326
(e) Four dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or less per bed.	39327
(6) For facilities with dates of licensure in 1981 or any year thereafter prior to December 22, 1992, the following amount:	39330
	39331
(a) For facilities with construction costs less than seven thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars per bed, the applicable amounts for the construction costs specified in divisions (E)(5)(b) to (e) of this section;	39332
	39335
(b) For facilities with construction costs of seven thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars or more per bed, six dollars per patient day, provided that for 1981 and annually thereafter prior to December 22, 1992, department shall do both of the following to	39336

the six-dollar amount: 39340

(i) Adjust the amount for fluctuations in construction costs 39341 calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 39342
indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39343
Marshall and Swift, using 1980 as the base year; 39344

(ii) Increase the amount, as adjusted for inflation under 39345 division (E)(6)(b)(i) of this section, by one dollar and 39346
seventy-four cents. 39347

(7) For facilities with dates of licensure on or after 39348
January 1, 1992, seven dollars and ninety-seven cents, adjusted 39349 for fluctuations in construction costs between 1991 and 1993 as 39350 calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 39351
indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39352 Marshall and Swift, and then increased by one dollar and 39353
seventy-four cents. 39354

For the fiscal year that begins July 1, 1994, each of the 39355 amounts listed in divisions (E)(1) to (7) of this section shall be 39356 increased by twenty-five cents. For the fiscal year that begins 39357 July 1, 1995, each of those amounts shall be increased by an 39358 additional twenty-five cents. For subsequent fiscal years, each of 39359 those amounts, as increased for the prior fiscal year, shall be 39360 adjusted to reflect the rate of inflation for the twelve-month 39361 period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year 39362 preceding the calendar year that precedes the fiscal year and 39363 ending on the following thirtieth day of June, using the consumer 39364 price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the 39365 north central region, as published by the United States bureau of 39366
labor statistics. 39367

If the amount established for a nursing facility under this 39368 division is less than the amount that applied to the facility 39369 under division (B) of former section 5111.25 of the Revised Code, 39370 as the former section existed immediately prior to December 22, 39371 1992, the amount used to calculate the efficiency incentive for 39372 the facility under division (D)(2) of this section shall be the 39373 amount that was calculated under division (B) of the former 39374

section. 39375

(F) Beginning July 1, 1993, regardless of the facility's date 39376 of licensure or the date of the nonextensive renovations, the rate 39377 for the costs of nonextensive renovations for nursing facilities 39378 shall be eighty-five per cent of the desk-reviewed, actual, 39379 allowable, per diem, nonextensive renovation costs. This division 39380 applies to nonextensive renovations regardless of whether they are 39381 made by an owner or a lessee. If the tenancy of a lessee that has 39382 made nonextensive renovations ends before the depreciation expense 39383 for the renovation costs has been fully reported, the former 39384 lessee shall not report the undepreciated balance as an expense. 39385

(1) For a nonextensive renovation made after July 1, 1993, to 39387 qualify for payment under this division, both of the following 39388 conditions must be met: 39389

(a) At least five years have elapsed since the date of 39390 licensure of the portion of the facility that is proposed to be 39391 renovated, except that this condition does not apply if the 39392 renovation is necessary to meet the requirements of federal, 39393 state, or local statutes, ordinances, rules, or policies. 39394

(b) The provider has obtained prior approval from the 39395 department of job and family services, and if required the 39396 director of health has granted a certificate of need for the 39397 renovation under section 3702.52 of the Revised Code. The provider 39398 shall submit a plan that describes in detail the changes in 39399 capital assets to be accomplished by means of the renovation and 39400 the timetable for completing the project. The time for completion 39401 of the project shall be no more than eighteen months after the 39402 renovation begins. The department of job and family services shall 39403 adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 39404 that specify criteria and procedures for prior approval of 39405 renovation projects. No provider shall separate a project with the 39406 intent to evade the characterization of the project as a 39407 renovation or as an extensive renovation. No provider shall 39408 increase the scope of a project after it is approved by the 39409 department of job and family services unless the increase in scope 39410 is approved by the department. 39411

(2) The payment provided for in this division is the only 39412 payment that shall be made for the costs of a nonextensive 39413 renovation. Nonextensive renovation costs shall not be included in 39414 costs of ownership, and a nonextensive renovation shall not affect 39415 the date of licensure for purposes of calculating the efficiency 39416 incentive under divisions (D) and (E) of this section. 39417

(G) The owner of a nursing facility operating under a 39418 provider agreement shall provide written notice to the department 39419 of job and family services at least forty-five days prior to 39420 entering into any contract of sale for the facility or voluntarily 39421 terminating participation in the medical assistance program. After 39422 the date on which a transaction of sale is closed, the owner shall 39423 refund to the department the amount of excess depreciation paid to 39424
the facility by the department for each year the owner has 39425 operated the facility under a provider agreement and prorated 39426 according to the number of medicaid patient days for which the 39427 facility has received payment. If a nursing facility is sold after 39428 five or fewer years of operation under a provider agreement, the 39429 refund to the department shall be equal to the excess depreciation 39430 paid to the facility. If a nursing facility is sold after more 39431 than five years but less than ten years of operation under a 39432 provider agreement, the refund to the department shall equal the 39433 excess depreciation paid to the facility multiplied by twenty per 39434 cent, multiplied by the difference between ten and the number of 39435 years that the facility was operated under a provider agreement. 39436

If a nursing facility is sold after ten or more years of operation 39437 under a provider agreement, the owner shall not refund any excess 39438 depreciation to the department. The owner of a facility that is 39439 sold or that voluntarily terminates participation in the medical 39440 assistance program also shall refund any other amount that the 39441 department properly finds to be due after the audit conducted 39442 under this division. For the purposes of this division, 39443
"depreciation paid to the facility" means the amount paid to the 39444 nursing facility for cost of ownership pursuant to this section 39445 less any amount paid for interest costs, amortization of financing 39446 costs, and lease expenses. For the purposes of this division, 39447 "excess depreciation" is the nursing facility's depreciated basis, 39448 which is the owner's cost less accumulated depreciation, 39449 subtracted from the purchase price net of selling costs but not 39450 exceeding the amount of depreciation paid to the facility. 39451

A cost report shall be filed with the department within 39453 ninety days after the date on which the transaction of sale is 39454 closed or participation is voluntarily terminated. The report 39455 shall show the accumulated depreciation, the sales price, and 39456 other information required by the department. The department shall 39457 provide for a bank, trust company, or savings and loan association 39458 to hold in escrow the amount of the last two monthly payments to a 39459 nursing facility made pursuant to division (A)(1) of section 39460 5111.22 of the Revised Code before a sale or termination of 39461 participation ~~shall be held in escrow by a bank, trust company, or~~ 39462 ~~savings and loan association, except that if or, if the owner~~ 39463 fails, within the time required by this division, to notify the 39464
department before entering into a contract of sale for the 39465 facility, the amount of the first two monthly payments made to the 39466 facility after the department learns of the contract, regardless 39467

of whether a new owner is in possession of the facility. If the 39468 amount the owner will be required to refund under this section is 39469 likely to be less than the amount of the ~~last~~ two monthly payments 39470 otherwise put into escrow under this division, the department 39471 shall take one of the following actions instead of withholding the 39472 amount of the ~~last~~ two monthly payments: 39473

(1) In the case of an owner that owns other facilities that 39474 participate in the medical assistance program, obtain a promissory 39475 note in an amount sufficient to cover the amount likely to be 39476
refunded; 39477

(2) In the case of all other owners, withhold the amount of 39478 the last monthly payment to the nursing facility or, if the owner 39479 fails, within the time required by this division, to notify the 39480
department before entering into a contract of sale for the 39481 facility, the amount of the first monthly payment made to the 39482 facility after the department learns of the contract, regardless 39483
of whether a new owner is in possession of the facility. 39484

The department shall, within ninety days following the filing 39485 of the cost report, audit the cost report and issue an audit 39486 report to the owner. The department also may audit any other cost 39487 report that the facility has filed during the previous three 39488 years. In the audit report, the department shall state its 39489 findings and the amount of any money owed to the department by the 39490 nursing facility. The findings shall be subject to adjudication 39491 conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. No 39492 later than fifteen days after the owner agrees to a settlement, 39493 any funds held in escrow less any amounts due to the department 39494 shall be released to the owner and amounts due to the department 39495 shall be paid to the department. If the amounts in escrow are less 39496 than the amounts due to the department, the balance shall be paid 39497 to the department within fifteen days after the owner agrees to a 39498 settlement. If the department does not issue its audit report 39499 within the ninety-day period, the department shall release any money held in escrow to the owner. For the purposes of this section, a transfer of corporate stock, the merger of one corporation into another, or a consolidation does not constitute a sale.

If a nursing facility is not sold or its participation is not terminated after notice is provided to the department under this division, the department shall order any payments held in escrow released to the facility upon receiving written notice from the owner that there will be no sale or termination. After written notice is received from a nursing facility that a sale or termination will not take place, the facility shall provide notice to the department at least forty-five days prior to entering into any contract of sale or terminating participation at any future time.

(H) The department shall pay each eligible proprietary nursing facility a return on the facility's net equity computed at the rate of one and one-half times the average interest rate on special issues of public debt obligations issued to the federal hospital insurance trust fund for the cost reporting period, except that no facility's return on net equity shall exceed ~~one~~ dollar fifty cents per patient day.

When calculating the rate for return on net equity, the department shall use the greater of the facility's inpatient days during the applicable cost reporting period or the number of inpatient days the facility would have had during that period if its occupancy rate had been ninety-five per cent.

(I) If a nursing facility would receive a lower rate for capital costs for assets in the facility's possession on July 1, 1993, under this section than it would receive under former section 5111.25 of the Revised Code, as the former section existed immediately prior to December 22, 1992, the facility shall receive for those assets the rate it would have received under the former 39532 section for each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1993, 39533 until the rate it would receive under this section exceeds the 39534 rate it would have received under the former section. Any facility 39535 that receives a rate calculated under the former section 5111.25 39536 of the Revised Code for assets in the facility's possession on 39537 July 1, 1993, also shall receive a rate calculated under this 39538 section for costs of any assets it constructs or acquires after 39539

July 1, 1993. 39540

Sec. 5111.251. (A) The department of job and family services 39541 shall pay each eligible intermediate care facility for the 39542 mentally retarded for its reasonable capital costs, a per resident 39543 per day rate established prospectively each fiscal year for each 39544 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. Except as 39545 otherwise provided in sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised 39546 Code, the rate shall be based on the facility's capital costs for 39547 the calendar year preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will 39548 be paid. The rate shall equal the sum of the following: 39549

(1) The facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem 39550 cost of ownership for the preceding cost reporting period, limited 39551 as provided in divisions (C) and (F) of this section; 39552

(2) Any efficiency incentive determined under division (B) of 39553
this section; 39554

(3) Any amounts for renovations determined under division (D) 39555
of this section; 39556

(4) Any amounts for return on equity determined under 39557 division (I) of this section. 39558

Buildings shall be depreciated using the straight line method 39559
over forty years or over a different period approved by the 39560
department. Components and equipment shall be depreciated using 39561

the straight line method over a period designated by the director 39562 of job and family services in rules adopted in accordance with 39563
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, consistent with the guidelines 39564
of the American hospital association, or over a different period 39565 approved by the department of job and family services. Any rules 39566 adopted under this division that specify useful lives of 39567 buildings, components, or equipment apply only to assets acquired 39568 on or after July 1, 1993. Depreciation for costs paid or 39569 reimbursed by any government agency shall not be included in costs 39570 of ownership or renovation unless that part of the payment under 39571 sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised Code is used to 39572 reimburse the government agency. 39573

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay to 39574 each intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded an 39575 efficiency incentive equal to fifty per cent of the difference 39576 between any desk-reviewed, actual, allowable cost of ownership and 39577 the applicable limit on cost of ownership payments under division 39578 (C) of this section. For purposes of computing the efficiency 39579 incentive, depreciation for costs paid or reimbursed by any 39580 government agency shall be considered as a cost of ownership, and 39581 the applicable limit under division (C) of this section shall 39582 apply both to facilities with more than eight beds and facilities 39583 with eight or fewer beds. The efficiency incentive paid to a 39584 facility with eight or fewer beds shall not exceed three dollars 39585 per patient day, adjusted annually for the inflation rate for the 39586 twelve-month period beginning on the first day of July of the 39587 calendar year preceding the calendar year that precedes the fiscal 39588 year for which the efficiency incentive is determined and ending 39589 on the thirtieth day of the following June, using the consumer 39590
price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the 39591
north central region, as published by the United States bureau of 39592
labor statistics. 39593

(C) Cost of ownership payments to intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded with more than eight beds shall not exceed the following limits:	39594 39595 39596
(1) For facilities with dates of licensure prior to January 1, 1958, not exceeding two dollars and fifty cents per patient day;	39597 39598 39599
(2) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1957, but prior to January 1, 1968, not exceeding:	39600 39601

(b) Three dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was less than five thousand one hundred fifty dollars per bed, but exceeds three thousand five hundred dollars per bed;	39613 39614 39615 39616
(c) Two dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or less per bed.	39617 39618 39619
(4) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1975, but prior to January 1, 1979, not exceeding:	39620 39621
(a) Five dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was six thousand eight hundred dollars or more per	39622 39623

bed;	39624
(b) Four dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost	39625 of construction was less than six thousand eight hundred dollars	39626 per bed but exceeds five thousand one hundred fifty dollars per	39627
bed;	39628
(c) Three dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost	39629
of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars or	39630
less per bed, but exceeds three thousand five hundred dollars per	39631
bed;	39632
(d) Two dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost	39633
of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or less	39634
per bed.	39635
(5) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31,	39636

bed but exceeds five thousand one hundred fifty dollars per bed;	39647
(d) Three dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost	39648
of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars or	39649
less but exceeds three thousand five hundred dollars per bed;	39650
(e) Two dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost	39651
of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or less	39652
per bed.	39653

(6) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1979, but prior to January 1, 1981, not exceeding:	39654 39655

intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded made after 39741
January 1, 1981, not exceeding six dollars per patient day using 39742

1980 as the base year and adjusting the amount annually until June 30, 1993, for fluctuations in construction costs calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift. The payment provided for in this division is the only payment that shall be made for the capitalized costs of a nonextensive renovation of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. Nonextensive renovation costs shall not be included in cost of ownership, and a nonextensive renovation shall not affect the date of licensure for purposes of division (C) of this section. This division applies to nonextensive renovations regardless of whether they are made by an owner or a lessee. If the tenancy of a lessee that has made renovations ends before the depreciation expense for the renovation costs has been fully reported, the former lessee shall not report the undepreciated balance as an expense.

For a nonextensive renovation to qualify for payment under this division, both of the following conditions must be met:

(2) The provider has obtained prior approval from the department of job and family services. The provider shall submit a plan that describes in detail the changes in capital assets to be accomplished by means of the renovation and the timetable for completing the project. The time for completion of the project shall be no more than eighteen months after the renovation begins. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that specify criteria and procedures for prior approval of renovation projects. 39775

No provider shall separate a project with the intent to evade the 39776 characterization of the project as a renovation or as an extensive 39777 renovation. No provider shall increase the scope of a project 39778 after it is approved by the department of job and family services 39779 unless the increase in scope is approved by the department. 39780

(E) The amounts specified in divisions (C) and (D) of this 39781 section shall be adjusted beginning July 1, 1993, for the 39782 estimated inflation for the twelve-month period beginning on the 39783 first day of July of the calendar year preceding the calendar year 39784 that precedes the fiscal year for which rate will be paid and 39785 ending on the thirtieth day of the following June, using the 39786 consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for 39787 the north central region, as published by the United States bureau 39788 of labor statistics. 39789

(F)(1) For facilities of eight or fewer beds that have dates 39790 of licensure or have been granted project authorization by the 39791 department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities 39792 before July 1, 1993, and for facilities of eight or fewer beds 39793 that have dates of licensure or have been granted project 39794 authorization after that date if the facilities demonstrate that 39795 they made substantial commitments of funds on or before that date, 39796 cost of ownership shall not exceed eighteen dollars and thirty 39797 cents per resident per day. The eighteen-dollar and thirty-cent 39798 amount shall be increased by the change in the "Dodge building 39799
cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 39800 Marshall and Swift, during the period beginning June 30, 1990, and 39801 ending July 1, 1993, and by the change in the consumer price index 39802 for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central 39803 region, as published by the United States bureau of labor 39804 statistics, annually thereafter. 39805

(2) For facilities with eight or fewer beds that have dates 39806

of licensure or have been granted project authorization by the 39807 department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities on 39808 or after July 1, 1993, for which substantial commitments of funds 39809 were not made before that date, cost of ownership payments shall 39810 not exceed the applicable amount calculated under division (F)(1) 39811 of this section, if the department of job and family services 39812 gives prior approval for construction of the facility. If the 39813 department does not give prior approval, cost of ownership 39814 payments shall not exceed the amount specified in division (C) of 39815
this section. 39816

(3) Notwithstanding divisions (D) and (F)(1) and (2) of this 39817 section, the total payment for cost of ownership, cost of 39818 ownership efficiency incentive, and capitalized costs of 39819 renovations for an intermediate care facility for the mentally 39820 retarded with eight or fewer beds shall not exceed the sum of the 39821 limitations specified in divisions (C) and (D) of this section. 39822

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or section 39823 5111.24 of the Revised Code, the director of job and family 39824 services may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 39825 Revised Code that provide for a calculation of a combined maximum 39826 payment limit for indirect care costs and cost of ownership for 39827 intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded with eight 39828 or fewer beds. 39829

(H) After June 30, 1980, the owner of an intermediate care 39830 facility for the mentally retarded operating under a provider 39831 agreement shall provide written notice to the department of job 39832 and family services at least forty-five days prior to entering 39833 into any contract of sale for the facility or voluntarily 39834
terminating participation in the medical assistance program. After 39835
the date on which a transaction of sale is closed, the owner shall 39836
refund to the department the amount of excess depreciation paid to 39837 the facility by the department for each year the owner has 39838

operated the facility under a provider agreement and prorated 39839
according to the number of medicaid patient days for which the 39840 facility has received payment. If an intermediate care facility 39841 for the mentally retarded is sold after five or fewer years of 39842 operation under a provider agreement, the refund to the department 39843 shall be equal to the excess depreciation paid to the facility. If 39844 an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is sold 39845 after more than five years but less than ten years of operation 39846 under a provider agreement, the refund to the department shall 39847 equal the excess depreciation paid to the facility multiplied by 39848 twenty per cent, multiplied by the number of years less than ten 39849 that a facility was operated under a provider agreement. If an 39850 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is sold after 39851 ten or more years of operation under a provider agreement, the 39852 owner shall not refund any excess depreciation to the department. 39853 For the purposes of this division, "depreciation paid to the 39854 facility" means the amount paid to the intermediate care facility 39855 for the mentally retarded for cost of ownership pursuant to this 39856 section less any amount paid for interest costs. For the purposes 39857 of this division, "excess depreciation" is the intermediate care 39858 facility for the mentally retarded's depreciated basis, which is 39859 the owner's cost less accumulated depreciation, subtracted from 39860 the purchase price but not exceeding the amount of depreciation 39861 paid to the facility. 39862

A cost report shall be filed with the department within 39863
ninety days after the date on which the transaction of sale is 39864 closed or participation is voluntarily terminated for an 39865 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded subject to 39866 this division. The report shall show the accumulated depreciation, 39867 the sales price, and other information required by the department. 39868
The department shall provide for a bank, trust company, or savings 39869 and loan association to hold in escrow the amount of the last two 39870 monthly payments to an intermediate care facility for the mentally 39871 retarded made pursuant to division (A)(1) of section 5111.22 of 39872 the Revised Code before a sale or voluntary termination of 39873 participation ~~shall be held in escrow by a bank, trust company, or~~ 39874 ~~savings and loan association, except that if or, if the owner~~ 39875 fails, within the time required by this division, to notify the 39876

department before entering into a contract of sale for the 39877
facility, the amount of the first two monthly payments made to the 39878 facility after the department learns of the contract, regardless 39879
of whether a new owner is in possession of the facility. If the 39880 amount the owner will be required to refund under this section is 39881 likely to be less than the amount of the ~~last~~ two monthly payments 39882
otherwise put into escrow under this division, the department 39883
shall take one of the following actions instead of withholding the 39884
amount of the ~~last~~ two monthly payments: 39885

(1) In the case of an owner that owns other facilities that 39887
participate in the medical assistance program, obtain a promissory 39888
note in an amount sufficient to cover the amount likely to be 39889
refunded; 39890

(2) In the case of all other owners, withhold the amount of 39891 the last monthly payment to the intermediate care facility for the 39892 mentally retarded or, if the owner fails, within the time required 39893 by this division, to notify the department before entering into a 39894 contract of sale for the facility, the amount of the first monthly 39895 payment made to the facility after the department learns of the 39896 contract, regardless of whether a new owner is in possession of 39897 the facility. 39898

The department shall, within ninety days following the filing 39899 of the cost report, audit the report and issue an audit report to 39900 the owner. The department also may audit any other cost reports 39901 for the facility that have been filed during the previous three 39902 years. In the audit report, the department shall state its findings and the amount of any money owed to the department by the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. The findings shall be subject to an adjudication conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. No later than fifteen days after the owner agrees to a settlement, any funds held in escrow less any amounts due to the department shall be released to the owner and amounts due to the department shall be paid to the department.

If the amounts in escrow are less than the amounts due to the department, the balance shall be paid to the department within fifteen days after the owner agrees to a settlement. If the department does not issue its audit report within the ninety-day period, the department shall release any money held in escrow to the owner. For the purposes of this section, a transfer of corporate stock, the merger of one corporation into another, or a consolidation does not constitute a sale.

If an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is not sold or its participation is not terminated after notice is provided to the department under this division, the department shall order any payments held in escrow released to the facility upon receiving written notice from the owner that there will be no sale or termination of participation. After written notice is received from an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that a sale or termination of participation will not take place, the facility shall provide notice to the department at least forty-five days prior to entering into any contract of sale or terminating participation at any future time.

(I) The department of job and family services shall pay each eligible proprietary intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded a return on the facility's net equity computed at the rate of one and one-half times the average of interest rates on special issues of public debt obligations issued to the federal 39935 hospital insurance trust fund for the cost reporting period. No 39936 facility's return on net equity paid under this division shall 39937 exceed one dollar per patient day. 39938

In calculating the rate for return on net equity, the 39939 department shall use the greater of the facility's inpatient days 39940
during the applicable cost reporting period or the number of 39941
inpatient days the facility would have had during that period if 39942
its occupancy rate had been ninety-five per cent. 39943

(J)(1) Except as provided in division (J)(2) of this section, 39944 if a provider leases or transfers an interest in a facility to 39945 another provider who is a related party, the related party's 39946 allowable cost of ownership shall include the lesser of the 39947
following: 39948

(a) The annual lease expense or actual cost of ownership, 39949 whichever is applicable; 39950

(b) The reasonable cost to the lessor or provider making the 39951 transfer. 39952

(2) If a provider leases or transfers an interest in a 39953 facility to another provider who is a related party, regardless of 39954 the date of the lease or transfer, the related party's allowable 39955 cost of ownership shall include the annual lease expense or actual 39956 cost of ownership, whichever is applicable, subject to the 39957 limitations specified in divisions (B) to (I) of this section, if 39958 all of the following conditions are met: 39959

(a) The related party is a relative of owner; 39960

(b) In the case of a lease, if the lessor retains any 39961 ownership interest, it is, except as provided in division 39962 (J)(2)(d)(ii) of this section, in only the real property and any 39963 improvements on the real property; 39964

(c) In the case of a transfer, the provider making the 39965 transfer retains, except as provided in division (J)(2)(d)(iv) of 39966 this section, no ownership interest in the facility; 39967

(d) The department of job and family services determines that 39968 the lease or transfer is an arm's length transaction pursuant to 39969 rules the department shall adopt in accordance with Chapter 119. 39970 of the Revised Code no later than December 31, 2000. The rules 39971 shall provide that a lease or transfer is an arm's length 39972 transaction if all of the following, as applicable, apply: 39973

(i) In the case of a lease, once the lease goes into effect, 39974 the lessor has no direct or indirect interest in the lessee or, 39975 except as provided in division (J)(2)(b) of this section, the 39976 facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, 39977 director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but 39978 excluding interest as a lessor. 39979

(ii) In the case of a lease, the lessor does not reacquire an 39980 interest in the facility except through the exercise of a lessor's 39981 rights in the event of a default. If the lessor reacquires an 39982 interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall 39983 treat the facility as if the lease never occurred when the 39984 department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs. 39985

(iii) In the case of a transfer, once the transfer goes into 39987 effect, the provider that made the transfer has no direct or 39988 indirect interest in the provider that acquires the facility or 39989 the facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, 39990 director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but 39991 excluding interest as a creditor. 39992

(iv) In the case of a transfer, the provider that made the 39993 transfer does not reacquire an interest in the facility except 39994 through the exercise of a creditor's rights in the event of a 39995 default. If the provider reacquires an interest in the facility in 39996 this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the 39997 transfer never occurred when the department calculates its 39998

reimbursement rates for capital costs. 39999

(v) The lease or transfer satisfies any other criteria 40000 specified in the rules. 40001

(e) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic 40002
event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a lessor 40003 or provider making the transfer who is at least sixty-five years 40004 of age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the 40005 same facility, allowable cost of ownership was determined most 40006 recently under this division. 40007

2000 and thereafter, costs reported in nursing facilities' cost 40009 reports for purchased nursing services shall be allowable direct 40010 care costs up to ~~the following amounts:~~ 40011

~~cent of the nursing facility's direct care costs specified in the~~ 40013 ~~cost report for services provided that year by registered nurses,~~ 40014 ~~licensed practical nurses, and nurse aides who are employees of~~ 40015
~~the facility, plus one-half of the amount by which the reported~~ 40016 ~~costs for purchased nursing services exceed that percentage;~~ 40017

~~(B) For costs incurred during calendar year 1993, fifteen per~~ 40018 ~~cent of the nursing facility's costs specified in the cost report~~ 40019
~~for services provided that year by registered nurses, licensed~~ 40020 ~~practical nurses, and nurse aides who are employees of the~~ 40021 ~~facility, plus one-half of the amount by which the reported costs~~ 40022
~~for purchased nursing services exceed that percentage;~~ 40023

~~(C) For costs incurred during calendar year 1994 and each~~ 40024 ~~calendar year thereafter, ten twenty per cent of the nursing~~ 40025 facility's costs specified in the cost report for services 40026 provided that year by registered nurses, licensed practical 40027 nurses, and nurse aides who are employees of the facility, plus 40028 one-half of the amount by which the reported costs for purchased 40029 nursing services exceed that percentage. 40030

Sec. 5111.28. (A) If a provider properly amends its cost 40031 report under section 5111.27 of the Revised Code and the amended 40032 report shows that the provider received a lower rate under the 40033 original cost report than it was entitled to receive, the 40034 department shall adjust the provider's rate prospectively to 40035 reflect the corrected information. The department shall pay the 40036 adjusted rate beginning two months after the first day of the 40037 month after the provider files the amended cost report. If the 40038 department finds, from an exception review of resident assessment 40039 information conducted after the effective date of the rate for 40040 direct care costs that is based on the assessment information, 40041 that inaccurate assessment information resulted in the provider 40042 receiving a lower rate than it was entitled to receive, the 40043 department prospectively shall adjust the provider's rate 40044 accordingly and shall make payments using the adjusted rate for 40045 the remainder of the calendar quarter for which the assessment 40046 information is used to determine the rate, beginning one month 40047 after the first day of the month after the exception review is 40048 completed. 40049

(B) If the provider properly amends its cost report under 40050 section 5111.27 of the Revised Code, the department makes a 40051 finding based on an audit under that section, or the department 40052 makes a finding based on an exception review of resident 40053 assessment information conducted under that section after the 40054 effective date of the rate for direct care costs that is based on 40055 the assessment information, any of which results in a 40056 determination that the provider has received a higher rate than it 40057 was entitled to receive, the department shall recalculate the provider's rate using the revised information. The department shall apply the recalculated rate to the periods when the provider received the incorrect rate to determine the amount of the overpayment. The provider shall refund the amount of the overpayment.

In addition to requiring a refund under this division, the department may charge the provider interest at the applicable rate specified in this division from the time the overpayment was made.

(1) If the overpayment resulted from costs reported for calendar year 1993, the interest shall be no greater than one and one-half times the average bank prime rate.

(2) If the overpayment resulted from costs reported for subsequent calendar years:

(a) The interest shall be no greater than two times the average bank prime rate if the overpayment was equal to or less than one per cent of the total medicaid payments to the provider for the fiscal year for which the incorrect information was used to establish a rate.

(b) The interest shall be no greater than two and one-half times the current average bank prime rate if the overpayment was greater than one per cent of the total medicaid payments to the provider for the fiscal year for which the incorrect information was used to establish a rate.

~~(3) The department shall determine the average bank prime rate using statistical release H.15, "selected interest rates," a weekly publication of the federal reserve board, or any successor publication. If statistical release H.15, or its successor, ceases to contain the bank prime rate information or ceases to be published, the department shall request a written statement of the average bank prime rate from the federal reserve bank of Cleveland~~

~~or the federal reserve board.~~

(C) The department also may impose the following penalties:

40090

40094

40095

40096

40098

40103

(D) If the provider continues to participate in the medical assistance program, the department shall deduct any amount that the provider is required to refund under this section, and the amount of any interest charged or penalty imposed under this section, from the next available payment from the department to the provider. The department and the provider may enter into an agreement under which the amount, together with interest, is deducted in installments from payments from the department to the provider.

(E) The department shall transmit refunds and penalties to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general revenue fund.

(F) For the purpose of this section, the department shall determine the average bank prime rate using statistical release H.15, "selected interest rates," a weekly publication of the federal reserve board, or any successor publication. If statistical release H.15, or its successor, ceases to contain the

40117

40119 bank prime rate information or ceases to be published, the 40120 department shall request a written statement of the average bank 40121 prime rate from the federal reserve bank of Cleveland or the 40122 federal reserve board. 40123

Sec. 5111.29. (A) The director of job and family services 40124 shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 40125 Code that establish a process under which a nursing facility or 40126 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, or a group 40127 or association of facilities, may seek reconsideration of rates 40128 established under sections 5111.23 to 5111.28 of the Revised Code, 40129 including a rate for direct care costs recalculated before the 40130 effective date of the rate as a result of an exception review of 40131 resident assessment information conducted under section 5111.27 of 40132
the Revised Code. 40133

(1) Except as provided in divisions (A)(2) to (4) of this 40134 section, the only issue that a facility, group, or association may 40135 raise in the rate reconsideration shall be whether the rate was 40136 calculated in accordance with sections 5111.23 to 5111.28 of the 40137 Revised Code and the rules adopted under those sections. The rules 40138 shall permit a facility, group, or association to submit written 40139 arguments or other materials that support its position. The rules 40140 shall specify time frames within which the facility, group, or 40141 association and the department must act. If the department 40142 determines, as a result of the rate reconsideration, that the rate 40143 established for one or more facilities is less than the rate to 40144 which it is entitled, the department shall increase the rate. If 40145 the department has paid the incorrect rate for a period of time, 40146 the department shall pay the facility the difference between the 40147 amount it was paid for that period and the amount it should have 40148 been paid. 40149

(2) The rules shall provide that during a fiscal year, the 40150 department, by means of the rate reconsideration process, may increase a facility's rate as calculated under sections 5111.23 to 5111.28 of the Revised Code if the facility demonstrates that its actual, allowable costs have increased because of extreme circumstances. A facility may qualify for a rate increase only if its per diem, actual, allowable costs have increased to a level that exceeds its total rate, including any efficiency incentive and return on equity payment. The rules shall specify the circumstances that would justify a rate increase under division (A)(2) of this section. The In the case of nursing facilities, the rules shall provide that the extreme circumstances include increased security costs for an inner-city nursing facility and an increase in workers' compensation experience rating of greater than five per cent for a facility that has an appropriate claims management program but do not include a change of ownership that results from bankruptcy, foreclosure, or findings of violations of certification requirements by the department of health. In the case of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, the rules shall provide that the extreme circumstances include, but are not limited to, renovations approved under division (D) of section 5111.251 of the Revised Code, an increase in workers' compensation experience rating of greater than five per cent for a facility that has an appropriate claims management program, increased security costs for an inner-city facility, and a change of ownership that results from bankruptcy, foreclosure, or findings of violations of certification requirements by the department of health. An increase under division (A)(2) of this section is subject to any rate limitations or maximum rates established by sections 5111.23 to 5111.28 of the Revised Code for specific cost centers. Any rate increase granted under division (A)(2) of this section shall take effect on the first day of the first month after the department receives the request.

(3) The rules shall provide that the department, through the rate reconsideration process, may increase a facility's rate as calculated under sections 5111.23 to 5111.28 of the Revised Code if the department, in its sole discretion, determines that the rate as calculated under those sections works an extreme hardship on the facility.

center to provide the habilitation center services to the 41708 individuals who received the services pursuant to the contract the 41709 department had with the center in state fiscal year 2001. 41710

(C) The amount the department shall assign under divisions 41711
(A) and (B) of this section shall be adequate to ensure that the 41712 habilitation center services the individuals receive are 41713 comparable in scope to the habilitation center services they 41714 received when the private habilitation center was under contract 41715 with the department. The amount that the department assigns shall 41716 not be less than the amount the department paid the private 41717 habilitation center for the individuals under the contract the 41718 department had with the center in fiscal year 2001. 41719

(D) A county board shall use the assignment it receives under 41720 divisions (A) and (B) of this section to pay the nonfederal share 41721 of the medicaid allowable payment, less the amount withheld as a 41733 fee under section 5123.0412 of the Revised Code and any amount 41734 that may be required by rules adopted under section 5123.0413 of 41735 the Revised Code to be deposited into the state MR/DD risk fund. 41736

The rules shall establish the process by which county boards of 41737 and provide the nonfederal share of medicaid expenditures that the 41739 county board is required by division (A) of section 5126.056 of 41740 the Revised Code to pay. The process shall require a county board 41741 to certify that the county board has funding available at one time 41742 permit a county board to certify that the county board has funding 41744 available at one time for more than two months costs for those 41745 receives in the prior county at the time the individual moves. If 41752 the county board serving the county to which the individual moves 41753 determines under section 5126.041 of the Revised Code that the 41754 individual is eligible for county board services, the county board 41755 shall ensure that the individual receives the comparable services. 41756

If the county board determines that the individual is not eligible 41757 for county board services, the department of mental retardation 41758 and developmental disabilities shall ensure that the individual 41759 receives the comparable services. 41760

If the home and community-based services that the individual 41761 receives at the time the individual moves include supported living 41762 or residential services, the department shall reduce the amount 41763 the department allocates to the county board serving the county 41764 the individual left for those supported living or residential 41765 services by an amount that equals the payment the department 41766 authorizes or projects, or both, for those supported living or 41767 residential services from the last day the individual resides in 41768 the county to the last day of the state fiscal year in which the 41769 individual moves. The department shall increase the amount the 41770 department allocates to the county board serving the county the 41771 individual moves to by the same amount. The department shall make 41772 the reduction and increase effective the day the department 41773 determines the individual has residence in the new county. The 41774 department shall determine the amount that is to be reduced and 41775 increased in accordance with the department's rules for 41776 authorizing payments for home and community-based services 41777 subsequent state fiscal year as necessary. 41780 developmental disabilities may bring a mandamus action against a 41782 county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities 41783

that fails to pay the nonfederal share of medicaid expenditures 41784

5126.056 of the Revised Code to pay. The department may bring the 41786 mandamus action in the court of common pleas of the county served 41787 by the county board or in the Franklin county court of common 41788 pleas. 41789

deposited into the ODMR/DD administration and oversight fund and 41804 the portion of the fees to be deposited into the ODJFS 41805 administration and oversight fund shall be the portion specified 41806 in an interagency agreement entered into under division (C) of 41807 this section. The department of mental retardation and 41808 developmental disabilities shall use the money in the ODMR/DD 41809

the respondent's placement is being sought. 42281

(9) The court shall receive only relevant, competent, and 42282 may order a continuance of the hearing. 42302

(14) To an extent not inconsistent with this chapter, the 42303
Rules of Civil Procedure shall be applicable. 42304

(B) Unless, upon completion of the hearing, the court finds 42305 by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent named in the 42306 affidavit is a mentally retarded person subject to 42307 institutionalization by court order, it shall order the 42308 respondent's discharge forthwith. 42309

has not already been discharged or has not requested voluntary 42369 admission status, the director of the facility or program, or the 42370 person to whose care the respondent has been committed, shall 42371 discharge the respondent forthwith, unless at least ten days 42372 presented to the director in writing and the director shall 44978 provide prompt notice of the allegations to the person who is the 44979 subject of the allegations. A denial, suspension, or revocation 44980 the effective date of the rules, to meet the new certification 44987 standards. 44988

A person who is registered under this section on the 44989 effective date of any rule that changes the standards adopted 44990 under this section shall have such period as the rules prescribe, 44991 but not less than one year, to meet the new registration 44992
standards. 44993

(2) If an applicant for a certificate for employment has not 44994 completed the courses of instruction necessary to meet the 44995 department's standards for certification, the department shall 44996 inform the applicant of the courses the applicant must 44997 successfully complete to meet the standards and shall specify the 44998 time within which the applicant must complete the courses. The 44999 department shall grant the applicant at least one year to complete 45000 the courses and shall not require the applicant to complete more 45001 than four courses in any one year. The applicant is not subject to 45002 any changes regarding the courses required for certification that 45003 are made after the department informs the applicant of the courses 45004 the applicant must complete, unless the applicant does not 45005 successfully complete the courses within the time specified by the 45006 department. 45007

(F) A person who holds a certificate or evidence of 45008 registration, other than one designated as temporary, is qualified 45009 to be employed according to that certificate or evidence of 45010 registration by any county board. 45011

(G) The director shall monitor county boards to ensure that 45012 their employees who must be certified or registered are 45013 appropriately certified or registered and performing those 45014 functions they are authorized to perform under their certificate 45015 or evidence of registration. 45016

(H) A county board superintendent or the superintendent's 45017 designee may certify to the director that county board employees 45018 who are required to meet continuing education or professional 45019 training requirements as a condition of renewal of certificates or 45020 evidence of registration have met the requirements. The 45021 superintendent or the superintendent's designee shall maintain in 45022 appropriate personnel files evidence acceptable to the director 45023 that the employees have met the requirements and permit 45024 representatives of the department access to the evidence on 45025 request. 45026

(I) All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be 45027 deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the employee 45028 certification and registration fund, which is hereby created. 45029 Money credited to the fund shall be used solely for the operation 45030 of the certification and registration program established under 45031 this section and for providing continuing training to county board 45032 employees. 45033

(J) Employees of entities that contract with county boards of 45034 mental retardation and developmental disabilities to operate 45035 programs and services for individuals with mental retardation and 45036 developmental disabilities are subject to the certification and 45037 registration requirements established under section 5123.082 of 45038
the Revised Code. 45039

Sec. 5126.31. (A) A county board of mental retardation and 45040 developmental disabilities shall review reports of abuse and 45041 neglect made under section 5123.61 of the Revised Code and reports 45042 referred to it under section 5101.611 of the Revised Code to 45043 determine whether the person who is the subject of the report is 45044 an adult with mental retardation or a developmental disability in 45045 need of services to deal with the abuse or neglect. The board 45046 shall give notice of each report to the registry office of the 45047 department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities 45048 established pursuant to section 5123.61 of the Revised Code on the 45049 first working day after receipt of the report. If the report 45050 alleges that there is a substantial risk to the adult of immediate 45051 physical harm or death, the board shall initiate review within 45052 twenty-four hours of its receipt of the report. If the board 45053 determines that the person is sixty years of age or older but does 45054 not have mental retardation or a developmental disability, it 45055 shall refer the case to the county department of job and family 45056 services. If the board determines that the person is an adult with 45057 mental retardation or a developmental disability, it shall 45058 continue its review of the case. 45059

(B) For each review over which the board retains 45060 responsibility under division (A) of this section, it shall do all 45061 of the following: 45062

(1) Give both written and oral notice of the purpose of the 45063 review to the adult and, if any, to the adult's legal counsel or 45064 caretaker, in simple and clear language; 45065

(2) Visit the adult, in the adult's residence if possible, 45066 and explain the notice given under division (B)(1) of this 45067
section; 45068

(3) Request from the registry office any prior reports 45069 concerning the adult or other principals in the case; 45070

(4) Consult, if feasible, with the person who made the report 45071 under section 5101.61 or 5123.61 of the Revised Code and with any 45072 agencies or persons who have information about the alleged abuse 45073 or neglect; 45074

(5) Cooperate fully with the law enforcement agency 45075 responsible for investigating the report and for filing any 45076 resulting criminal charges and, on request, turn over evidence to 45077
the agency; 45078

(6) Determine whether the adult needs services, and prepare a 45079 written report stating reasons for the determination. No adult 45080 shall be determined to be abused, neglected, or in need of 45081 services for the sole reason that, in lieu of medical treatment, 45082 the adult relies on or is being furnished spiritual treatment 45083 through prayer alone in accordance with the tenets and practices 45084 of a church or religious denomination of which the adult is a 45085 member or adherent. 45086

(C) The board shall arrange for the provision of services for 45087 the prevention, correction or discontinuance of abuse or neglect 45088 or of a condition resulting from abuse or neglect for any adult 45089 who has been determined to need the services and consents to 45090 receive them. These services may include, but are not limited to, 45091 ~~case management~~ service and support administration, fiscal 45092 management, medical, mental health, home health care, homemaker, 45093 legal, and residential services and the provision of temporary 45094 accommodations and necessities such as food and clothing. The 45095 services do not include acting as a guardian, trustee, or 45096 protector as defined in section 5123.55 of the Revised Code. If 45097 the provision of residential services would require expenditures 45098 by the department of mental retardation and developmental 45099 disabilities, the board shall obtain the approval of the 45100 department prior to arranging the residential services. 45101

To arrange services, the board shall: 45102

(1) Develop an individualized service plan identifying the 45103 types of services required for the adult, the goals for the 45104 services, and the persons or agencies that will provide them; 45105

(2) In accordance with rules established by the director of 45106 mental retardation and developmental disabilities, obtain the 45107 consent of the adult or the adult's guardian to the provision of 45108 any of these services and obtain the signature of the adult or 45109 guardian on the individual service plan. An adult who has been 45110 found incompetent under Chapter 2111. of the Revised Code may 45111 consent to services. If the board is unable to obtain consent, it 45112 may seek, if the adult is incapacitated, a court order pursuant to 45113 section 5126.33 of the Revised Code authorizing the board to 45114 arrange these services. 45115

(D) The board shall ensure that the adult receives the 45116 services arranged by the board from the provider and shall have 45117 the services terminated if the adult withdraws consent. 45118

(E) On completion of a review, the board shall submit a 45119 written report to the registry office established under section 45120 5123.61 of the Revised Code. If the report includes a finding that 45121 a person with mental retardation or a developmental disability is 45122 a victim of action or inaction that may constitute a crime under 45123 federal law or the law of this state, the board shall submit the 45124 report to the law enforcement agency responsible for investigating 45125 the report. Reports prepared under this section are not public 45126 records as defined in section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 45127

(F) The board shall provide comprehensive formal training for 45129 employees and other persons authorized to implement the 45130 requirements of this section. 45131

Sec. 5126.311. (A) Notwithstanding the requirement of section 45132 5126.31 of the Revised Code that a county board of mental 45133 retardation and developmental disabilities review reports of abuse 45134 and neglect, ~~if the department of mental retardation and~~ 45135 ~~developmental disabilities or a county board of mental retardation~~ 45136

~~and developmental disabilities determines that it would be~~ 45137 ~~inappropriate for the county board to investigate a report of~~ 45138 ~~abuse or neglect made under section 5123.61 of the Revised Code,~~ 45139
~~at the request of the department or county board,~~ one of the 45140 following government entities may, at the request of the county 45141 board or the department of mental retardation and developmental 45142 disabilities, shall review the report instead of the county board 45143 if circumstances specified in rules adopted under division (B) of 45144 this section exist: 45145

~~(A)(1)~~ Another county board of mental retardation and 45146 developmental disabilities; 45147

~~(B)(2)~~ The department; 45148

~~(C)(3)~~ A regional council of government established pursuant 45149 to Chapter 167. of the Revised Code; 45150

~~(D)(4)~~ Any other government entity authorized to investigate 45151 reports of abuse and neglect. 45152

(B) The director of mental retardation and developmental 45153 disabilities shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of 45154 the Revised Code specifying circumstances under which it is 45155 inappropriate for a county board to review reports of abuse and 45156 neglect. 45157

Sec. 5126.313. (A) After reviewing a report of abuse or 45158 neglect under section 5126.31 of the Revised Code or a report of a 45159 major unusual incident made in accordance with rules adopted under 45160 section 5123.612 of the Revised Code, a county board of mental 45161 retardation and developmental disabilities shall conduct an 45162 investigation if circumstances specified in rules adopted under 45163 division (B) of this section exist. If the circumstances specified 45164 in the rules exist, the county board shall conduct the 45165 investigation in the manner specified by the rules. 45166

(B) The director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code specifying circumstances under which a county board shall conduct investigations under division (A) of this section and the manner in which the county board shall conduct the investigation. 45167
45170
45171
45172

Sec. 5126.32. If during the course of the review conducted 45173 under section 5126.31 of the Revised Code or the investigation 45174 conducted under section 5126.313 of the Revised Code, any person 45175 denies or obstructs the board's access to the residence of the 45176 adult who is the subject of ~~a report of abuse or neglect~~ the 45177 review or investigation, the board may file a petition with the 45178 probate court of the county in which the residence is located for 45179 a temporary restraining order, in accordance with Civil Rule 65, 45180 to prevent the denial or obstruction of access. If the court finds 45181 reasonable cause to believe that the adult is abused or neglected 45182 and that access to ~~his~~ the adult's residence has been denied or 45183 obstructed, the court shall issue a temporary order restraining 45184 the interference or obstruction. After the order has been 45185 obtained, at the request of the board, an officer of the law 45186 enforcement agency investigating the report shall accompany 45187 representatives of the board to the adult's residence. 45188

If a person refuses to allow or interferes with the provision 45189 of services described in division (C) of section 5126.31 of the 45190 Revised Code to an adult who has consented to them, the county 45191 board may file a petition with the probate court of the county in 45192 which the adult resides for appropriate injunctive relief in 45193 accordance with Civil Rule 65. 45194

Sec. 5126.357. (A) As used in this section: 45195

(1) "In-home care" means the supportive services provided 45196 within the home of an individual who receives funding for the 45197 services as a county board client, including any client who 45198 receives residential services funded through ~~the medical~~ 45199 ~~assistance program's~~ home and or community-based services ~~waivers~~ 45200 ~~administered by the department of mental retardation and~~ 45201 ~~developmental disabilities~~, family support services provided under 45202 section 5126.11 of the Revised Code, or supported living provided 45203 in accordance with sections 5126.41 to 5126.47 of the Revised 45204 Code. "In-home care" includes care that is provided outside a 45205 client's home in places incidental to the home, and while 45206 traveling to places incidental to the home, except that "in-home 45207 care" does not include care provided in the facilities of a county 45208 board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities or care 45209 provided in schools. 45210

(2) "Parent" means either parent of a child, including an 45211 adoptive parent but not a foster parent. 45212

(3) "Unlicensed in-home care worker" means an individual who 45213 provides in-home care but is not a health care professional. A 45214 county board worker may be an unlicensed in-home care worker. 45215

(4) "Family member" means a parent, sibling, spouse, son, 45216 daughter, grandparent, aunt, uncle, cousin, or guardian of the 45217 individual with mental retardation or a developmental disability 45218 if the individual with mental retardation or developmental 45219 disabilities lives with the person and is dependent on the person 45220 to the extent that, if the supports were withdrawn, another living 45221 arrangement would have to be found. 45222

(B) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, a 45223 family member of an individual with mental retardation or a 45224 developmental disability may authorize an unlicensed in-home care 45225 worker to give or apply prescribed medication or perform other 45226 health care tasks as part of the in-home care provided to the 45227 individual, if the family member is the primary supervisor of the 45228 care and the unlicensed in-home care worker has been selected by 45229 the family member and is under the direct supervision of the 45230 family member. Sections 4723.62 and 5126.351 to 5126.356 of the 45231 Revised Code do not apply to the in-home care authorized by a 45232 family member under this section. Instead, a family member shall 45233 obtain a prescription, if applicable, and written instructions 45234 from a health care professional for the care to be provided to the 45235 individual. The family member shall authorize the unlicensed 45236 in-home care worker to provide the care by preparing a written 45237 document granting the authority. The family member shall provide 45238 the unlicensed in-home care worker with appropriate training and 45239 written instructions in accordance with the instructions obtained 45240 from the health care professional. 45241

(C) A family member who authorizes an unlicensed in-home care 45242 worker to give or apply prescribed medication or perform other 45243 health care tasks retains full responsibility for the health and 45244 safety of the individual receiving the care and for ensuring that 45245 the worker provides the care appropriately and safely. No entity 45246 that funds or monitors the provision of in-home care may be held 45247 liable for the results of the care provided under this section by 45248 an unlicensed in-home care worker, including such entities as the 45249 county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities, 45250 any other entity that employs an unlicensed in-home care worker, 45251 and the department of mental retardation and developmental 45252 disabilities. 45253

An unlicensed in-home care worker who is authorized under 45254 this section by a family member to provide care to an individual 45255 may not be held liable for any injury caused in providing the 45256 care, unless the worker provides the care in a manner that is not 45257 in accordance with the training and instructions received or the 45258 worker acts in a manner that constitutes wanton or reckless 45259 misconduct. 45260

(D) A county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities may evaluate the authority granted by a family member under this section to an unlicensed in-home care worker at any time it considers necessary and shall evaluate the authority on receipt of a complaint. If the board determines that a family member has acted in a manner that is inappropriate for the health and safety of the individual receiving the services, the authorization granted by the family member to an unlicensed in-home care worker is void, and the family member may not authorize other unlicensed in-home care workers to provide the care. In making such a determination, the board shall use appropriately licensed health care professionals and shall provide the family member an opportunity to file a complaint under section 5126.06 of the Revised Code.

The rules shall allow a person to automatically satisfy a standard for certification under this section if the person holds a current, valid license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code to operate a residential facility and had to satisfy the standard to obtain the residential facility license.

(B) Pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the department shall adopt rules establishing quality assurance standards for supported living provided to individuals by providers certified under this section.

(d) The ability to work cooperatively with the department, county boards, and other providers;	45309 45310
(e) Any other factor considered relevant.	45311
(2) The records of evaluations conducted under this section are public records for purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall be made available on request of any person, including individuals being served, individuals seeking supported living, and county boards.	45312 45313 45314 45315 45316

nonfeasance, confirmed abuse or neglect, financial 45321

(2) When the additional rate is for any of the following, the increased rate shall be for a continuing period of time:

(a) For the current expenses for a detention home district, a district organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, or a combined district organized under sections 2151.34 and 2151.65 of the Revised Code;

(b) For providing a county's share of the cost of maintaining 46266 and operating schools, district detention homes, forestry camps, 46267 or other facilities, or any combination thereof, established under 46268 section 2151.34 or 2151.65 of the Revised Code or under both of 46269 those sections. 46270

(3) When the additional rate is for any of the following, the 46271 increased rate may be for a continuing period of time: 46272

(a) For the purposes set forth in division (I), (J), (U), or 46273
(KK) of this section; 46274

(b) For the maintenance and operation of a joint recreation 46275 district; 46276

(c) A levy imposed by a township for the purposes set forth 46277 in division (G) of this section. 46278

(4) When the increase is for the purpose set forth in 46279 division (D) or (CC) of this section or for both of the purposes 46280 set forth in divisions (G) and (OO) of this section, the tax levy 46281 may be for any specified number of years or for a continuing 46282 period of time, as set forth in the resolution. 46283

(5) When the additional rate is for the purpose described in 46284 division (Z) of this section, the increased rate shall be for any 46285 number of years not exceeding ten. 46286

A levy for the purposes set forth in division (I), (J), or 46287
(U) of this section, and a levy imposed by a township for the 46288 purposes set forth in division (G) of this section, may be reduced 46289 pursuant to section 5705.261 or 5705.31 of the Revised Code. A 46290 levy for the purposes set forth in division (I), (J), or (U) of 46291 this section, and a levy imposed by a township for the purposes 46292 set forth in division (G) of this section, may also be terminated 46293 or permanently reduced by the taxing authority if it adopts a 46294 resolution stating that the continuance of the levy is unnecessary 46295 and the levy shall be terminated or that the millage is excessive 46296 and the levy shall be decreased by a designated amount. 46297

A resolution of a detention home district, a district 46298 organized under section 2151.65 of the Revised Code, or a combined 46299 district organized under both sections 2151.34 and 2151.65 of the 46300 Revised Code may include both current expenses and other purposes, 46301 provided that the resolution shall apportion the annual rate of 46302 levy between the current expenses and the other purpose or 46303 purposes. The apportionment need not be the same for each year of 46304 the levy, but the respective portions of the rate actually levied 46305 each year for the current expenses and the other purpose or 46306 purposes shall be limited by the apportionment. 46307

Whenever a board of county commissioners, acting either as 46308 the taxing authority of its county or as the taxing authority of a 46309 sewer district or subdistrict created under Chapter 6117. of the 46310 Revised Code, by resolution declares it necessary to levy a tax in 46311 excess of the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of constructing, 46312 improving, or extending sewage disposal plants or sewage systems, 46313 the tax may be in effect for any number of years not exceeding 46314 twenty, and the proceeds of the tax, notwithstanding the general 46315 provisions of this section, may be used to pay debt charges on any 46316 obligations issued and outstanding on behalf of the subdivision 46317 for the purposes enumerated in this paragraph, provided that any 46318 such obligations have been specifically described in the 46319 resolution. 46320

The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its 46321 passage, and no publication of the resolution is necessary other 46322 than that provided for in the notice of election. 46323

When the electors of a subdivision have approved a tax levy 46324 under this section, the taxing authority of the subdivision may 46325 anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue 46326 anticipation notes in accordance with section 5705.191 or 5705.193 46327
of the Revised Code. 46328

Sec. 5705.41. No subdivision or taxing unit shall: 46329

(A) Make any appropriation of money except as provided in 46330
Chapter 5705. of the Revised Code; provided, that the 46331 authorization of a bond issue shall be deemed to be an 46332 appropriation of the proceeds of the bond issue for the purpose 46333 for which such bonds were issued, but no expenditure shall be made 46334 from any bond fund until first authorized by the taxing authority; 46335

(B) Make any expenditure of money unless it has been 46336 appropriated as provided in such chapter; 46337

(C) Make any expenditure of money except by a proper warrant 46338 drawn against an appropriate fund; 46339

(D)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (D)(2) of 46340 this section and section 5705.44 of the Revised Code, make any 46341 contract or give any order involving the expenditure of money 46342 unless there is attached thereto a certificate of the fiscal 46343 officer of the subdivision that the amount required to meet the 46344 obligation or, in the case of a continuing contract to be 46345 performed in whole or in part in an ensuing fiscal year, the 46346 amount required to meet the obligation in the fiscal year in which 46347 the contract is made, has been lawfully appropriated for such 46348 purpose and is in the treasury or in process of collection to the 46349 credit of an appropriate fund free from any previous encumbrances. 46350
This certificate need be signed only by the subdivision's fiscal 46351 officer. Every such contract made without such a certificate shall 46352 be void, and no warrant shall be issued in payment of any amount 46353 due thereon. If no certificate is furnished as required, upon 46354 receipt by the taxing authority of the subdivision or taxing unit 46355 of a certificate of the fiscal officer stating that there was at 46356 the time of the making of such contract or order and at the time 46357 of the execution of such certificate a sufficient sum appropriated 46358 for the purpose of such contract and in the treasury or in process 46359 of collection to the credit of an appropriate fund free from any 46360 previous encumbrances, such taxing authority may authorize the 46361 drawing of a warrant in payment of amounts due upon such contract, 46362 but such resolution or ordinance shall be passed within thirty 46363 days from the receipt of such certificate; provided that, if the 46364 amount involved is less than one hundred dollars in the case of 46365 counties or one thousand dollars in the case of all other 46366 subdivisions or taxing units, the fiscal officer may authorize it 46367 to be paid without such affirmation of the taxing authority of the 46368 subdivision or taxing unit, if such expenditure is otherwise 46369 valid. 46370

(2) Annually, the board of county commissioners may adopt a 46371 resolution exempting for the current fiscal year county purchases 46372 of seven hundred fifty dollars or less from the requirement of 46373 division (D)(1) of this section that a certificate be attached to 46374 any contract or order involving the expenditure of money. The 46375 resolution shall state the dollar amount that is exempted from the 46376 certificate requirement and whether the exemption applies to all 46377 purchases, to one or more specific classes of purchases, or to the 46378 purchase of one or more specific items. Prior to the adoption of 46379 the resolution, the board shall give written notice to the county 46380 auditor that it intends to adopt the resolution. The notice shall 46381 state the dollar amount that is proposed to be exempted and 46382 whether the exemption would apply to all purchases, to one or more 46383 specific classes of purchases, or to the purchase of one or more 46384 specific items. The county auditor may review and comment on the 46385 proposal, and shall send any comments to the board within fifteen 46386 days after receiving the notice. The board shall wait at least 46387 fifteen days after giving the notice to the auditor before 46388 adopting the resolution. A person authorized to make a county 46389 purchase in a county that has adopted such a resolution shall 46390 prepare and file with the county auditor, within three business 46391 days after incurring an obligation not requiring a certificate, a 46392 written document specifying the purpose and amount of the expenditure, the date of the purchase, the name of the vendor, and such additional information as the auditor of state may prescribe.

(3) Upon certification by the auditor or other chief fiscal officer that a certain sum of money, not in excess of five thousand dollars, has been lawfully appropriated, authorized, or directed for a certain purpose and is in the treasury or in the process of collection to the credit of a specific line-item appropriation account in a certain fund free from previous and then outstanding obligations or certifications, then for such purpose and from such line-item appropriation account in such fund, over a period not exceeding three months and not extending beyond the end of the fiscal year, expenditures may be made, orders for payment issued, and contracts or obligations calling for or requiring the payment of money made and assumed; provided, that the aggregate sum of money included in and called for by such expenditures, orders, contracts, and obligations shall not exceed the sum so certified. Such a certification need be signed only by the fiscal officer of the subdivision or the taxing district and may, but need not, be limited to a specific vendor. An itemized statement of obligations incurred and expenditures made under such certificate shall be rendered to the auditor or other chief fiscal officer before another such certificate may be issued, and not more than one such certificate shall be outstanding at a time.

sum of money has been lawfully appropriated, authorized, or 46425 directed for a permitted purpose and is in the treasury or in the 46426 process of collection to the credit of the specific line-item 46427 appropriation account in the specified fund free from previous and 46428 then-outstanding obligations or certifications; provided that the 46429 aggregate sum of money included in and called for by the 46430 expenditures, orders, and obligations shall not exceed the 46431 certified sum. The purposes for which a subdivision may lawfully 46432 appropriate, authorize, or issue such a certificate are the 46433 services of an accountant, architect, attorney at law, physician, 46434 professional engineer, construction project manager, consultant, 46435 surveyor, or appraiser by or on behalf of the subdivision or 46436 contracting authority; fuel oil, gasoline, food items, roadway 46437 materials, and utilities; and any purchases exempt from 46438 competitive bidding under section 125.04 of the Revised Code and 46439 any other specific expenditure that is a recurring and reasonably 46440 predictable operating expense. Such a certification shall not 46441 extend beyond the end of the fiscal year or, in the case of a 46442 board of county commissioners that has established a quarterly 46443 spending plan under section 5705.392 of the Revised Code, beyond 46444 the quarter to which the plan applies. Such a certificate shall be 46445 signed by the fiscal officer and may, but need not, be limited to 46446 a specific vendor. An itemized statement of obligations incurred 46447 and expenditures made under such a certificate shall be rendered 46448 to the fiscal officer for each certificate issued. More than one 46449 such certificate may be outstanding at any time. 46450

In any case in which a contract is entered into upon a per 46451 unit basis, the head of the department, board, or commission for 46452 the benefit of which the contract is made shall make an estimate 46453 of the total amount to become due upon such contract, which 46454 estimate shall be certified in writing to the fiscal officer of 46455 the subdivision. Such a contract may be entered into if the 46456 appropriation covers such estimate, or so much thereof as may be 46457 due during the current year. In such a case the certificate of the 46458 fiscal officer based upon the estimate shall be a sufficient 46459 compliance with the law requiring a certificate. 46460

Any certificate of the fiscal officer attached to a contract 46461 shall be binding upon the political subdivision as to the facts 46462 set forth therein. Upon request of any person receiving an order 46463 or entering into a contract with any political subdivision, the 46464 certificate of the fiscal officer shall be attached to such order 46465 or contract. "Contract" as used in this section excludes current 46466 payrolls of regular employees and officers. 46467

Taxes and other revenue in process of collection, or the 46468 proceeds to be derived from authorized bonds, notes, or 46469 certificates of indebtedness sold and in process of delivery, 46470 shall for the purpose of this section be deemed in the treasury or 46471 in process of collection and in the appropriate fund. This section 46472 applies neither to the investment of sinking funds by the trustees 46473 of such funds, nor to investments made under sections 731.56 to 46474
731.59 of the Revised Code. 46475

No district authority shall, in transacting its own affairs, 46476 do any of the things prohibited to a subdivision by this section, 46477 but the appropriation referred to shall become the appropriation 46478 by the district authority, and the fiscal officer referred to 46479 shall mean the fiscal officer of the district authority. 46480

Sec. 5705.44. When contracts or leases run beyond the 46481 termination of the fiscal year in which they are made, the fiscal 46482 officer of the taxing authority shall make a certification for the 46483 amount required to meet the obligation of such contract or lease 46484 maturing in such fiscal year. The amount of the obligation under 46485 such contract or lease remaining unfulfilled at the end of a 46486 fiscal year, and which will become payable during the next fiscal 46487 year, shall be included in the annual appropriation measure for 46488

the next year as a fixed charge. 46489

The certificate required by section 5705.41 of the Revised 46490
Code as to money in the treasury shall not be required for 46491 contracts on which payments are to be made from the earnings of a 46492 publicly operated water works or public utility, but in the case 46493 of any such contract made without such certification, no payment 46494 shall be made on account thereof, and no claim or demand thereon 46495 shall be recoverable, except out of such earnings. That 46496 certificate also shall not be required if requiring the 46497 certificate makes it impossible for a county board of mental 46498 retardation and developmental disabilities to pay the nonfederal 46499 share of medicaid expenditures that the county board is required 46500 by division (A) of section 5126.056 of the Revised Code to pay. 46501

Sec. 5709.17. (A) Real estate held or occupied by an 46502 association or corporation, organized or incorporated under the 46503 laws of this state relative to soldiers' memorial associations, 46504 monumental building associations, or cemetery associations or 46505 corporations, which in the opinion of the trustees, directors, or 46506 managers thereof is necessary and proper to carry out the object 46507 intended for such association or corporation, shall be exempt from 46508 taxation. 46509

(B) Real estate and tangible personal property held or 46510 occupied by a war veterans' organization, which is organized 46511 exclusively for charitable purposes and incorporated under the 46512 laws of this state or the United States, except real estate held 46513 by such organization for the production of rental income, shall be 46514 exempt from taxation. 46515

(C) Tangible personal property held by a corporation 46516 chartered under 112 Stat. 1335, 36 U.S.C.A. 40701, described in 46517 section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and exempt from 46518 taxation under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall 46519 be exempt from taxation if it is surplus property obtained as 46520 described in 112 Stat. 1340, 36 U.S.C.A. 40730. 46521

Sec. 5711.33. (A)(1) When a county treasurer receives a 46522 certificate from a county auditor pursuant to division (A) of 46523 section 5711.32 of the Revised Code charging the treasurer with 46524 the collection of an amount of taxes due as the result of a 46525 deficiency assessment, the treasurer shall immediately prepare and 46526 mail a tax bill to the taxpayer owing such tax. The tax bill shall 46527 contain the name of the taxpayer; the taxable value, tax rate, and 46528 taxes charged for each year being assessed; the total amount of 46529 taxes due; the final date payment may be made without additional 46530 penalty; and any other information the treasurer considers 46531 pertinent or necessary. Taxes due and payable as a result of a 46532 deficiency assessment, less any amount specifically excepted from 46533 collection under division (B) of section 5711.32 of the Revised 46534 Code, shall be paid with interest thereon as prescribed by section 46535 5719.041 of the Revised Code on or before the sixtieth day 46536 following the date of issuance of the certificate by the county 46537 auditor. The balance of taxes found due and payable after a final 46538 determination by the tax commissioner or a final judgment of the 46539 board of tax appeals or any court to which such final judgment may 46540 be appealed, shall be paid with interest thereon as prescribed by 46541 section 5719.041 of the Revised Code on or before the sixtieth day 46542 following the date of certification by the auditor to the 46543 treasurer pursuant to division (C) of section 5711.32 of the 46544 Revised Code of such final determination or judgment. Such final 46545 dates for payment shall be determined and exhibited on the tax 46546 bill by the treasurer. 46547

(2) If, on or before the sixtieth day following the date of a 46548 certification of a deficiency assessment under division (A) of 46549 section 5711.32 of the Revised Code or of a certification of a 46550 final determination or judgment under division (C) of section 46551 5711.32 of the Revised Code, the taxpayer pays the full amount of 46552 taxes and interest due at the time of the receipt of certification 46553 with respect to that assessment, determination, or judgment, no 46554 interest shall accrue or be charged with respect to that 46555 assessment, determination, or judgment for the period that begins 46556 on the first day of the month in which the certification is made 46557 and that ends on the last day of the month preceding the month in 46558 which such sixtieth day occurs. 46559

(3) In addition to any other means provided by law for the 46560 collection of such taxes, the county treasurer may enter into a 46561 written tax contract with a taxpayer charged with the payment of 46562 taxes as a result of a deficiency assessment issued under division 46563 (A) of section 5711.32 of the Revised Code whereby the taxpayer is 46564 permitted to pay the full amount of those taxes in installments. 46565 Such a contract may not be entered into later than the sixtieth 46566 day after the day the assessment is issued. The terms of the tax 46567 contract shall include the amount payable and the due date of each 46568 installment including the final payment date, which shall be not 46569 more than five years after the date of the first payment. A 46570 receipt shall be issued for each installment payment when paid. 46571 Each payment shall be applied to the taxes and interest in the 46572 same order as each became due and shall be apportioned among the 46573 various funds for which the taxes were levied at the next 46574 succeeding tax settlement. When a payment is not tendered as 46575 agreed upon, the treasurer shall declare the tax contract to be 46576 void and proceed to collect the unpaid balance by any means 46577 provided by law. When the treasurer declares a tax contract to be 46578 void, the remaining tax and interest due becomes delinquent, and 46579 the penalty provided by division (B) of this section shall be 46580 imposed on that remaining tax and interest due. The treasurer may 46581 permit a delinquent tax contract to be undertaken on any 46582 delinquent tax due as provided in section 5719.05 of the Revised 46583

Code. 46584

(B) When the taxes charged, as mentioned in division (A) of 46585 this section, are not paid within the time prescribed by such 46586 division or if a tax contract is not entered into as provided in 46587 division (A)(3) of this section, a penalty of ten per cent of the 46588 amount due and unpaid and interest for the period described in 46589 division (A)(2) of this section shall accrue at the time the 46590 treasurer closes the treasurer's office for business on the last 46591 day so prescribed, but if the taxes are paid within ten days 46592 subsequent to the last day prescribed, the treasurer shall waive 46593 the collection of and the auditor shall remit one-half of the 46594 penalty. The treasurer shall not thereafter accept less than the 46595 full amount of taxes and penalty except as otherwise authorized by 46596 law. Such penalty shall be distributed in the same manner and at 46597 the same time as the tax upon which it has accrued. The whole 46598 amount collected shall be included in the next succeeding 46599 settlement of appropriate taxes. 46600

(C) When the taxes charged, as mentioned in division (A) of 46601 this section, remain unpaid after the final date for payment 46602 prescribed by such division, such charges shall be deemed to be 46603 delinquent taxes. The county auditor shall cause such charges, 46604 including the penalty that has accrued pursuant to this section, 46605 to be added to the delinquent tax duplicate in accordance with 46606
section 5719.04 of the Revised Code. 46607

(D) The county auditor, upon consultation with the county 46608 treasurer, shall remit a penalty imposed under division (B) of 46609 this section or division (C) of section 5719.03 of the Revised 46610 Code for the late payment of taxes when: 46611

(1) The taxpayer could not make timely payment of the tax 46612 because of the negligence or error of the auditor or treasurer in 46613 the performance of a statutory duty relating to the levy or 46614 collection of such tax. 46615

(2) In cases other than those described in division (D)(1) of this section, the taxpayer failed to receive a tax bill or a correct tax bill, and the taxpayer made a good faith effort to obtain such bill within thirty days after the last day for payment of the tax.

(4) The taxpayer demonstrates to the satisfaction of the auditor that the full payment was properly deposited in the mail in sufficient time for the envelope to be postmarked by the United States postal service on or before the last day for payment of such tax. A private meter postmark on an envelope is not a valid postmark for purposes of establishing the date of payment of such tax.

(E) The taxpayer, upon application, may request the tax commissioner to review the denial of the remission of a penalty by the auditor. The commissioner shall consider the application, determine whether the penalty should be remitted, and certify the determination to the taxpayer and to the treasurer and auditor who shall correct the tax list and duplicate accordingly. The commissioner shall issue orders and instructions for the uniform implementation of this section by all auditors and treasurers, and such orders and instructions shall be followed by such officers.

Sec. 5721.30. As used in sections 5721.30 to 5721.42 of the Revised Code:

(A) "Tax certificate," "certificate," or "duplicate certificate" means a document which may be issued as a physical certificate, in book-entry form, or through an electronic medium, at the discretion of the county treasurer. Such document shall contain the information required by section 5721.31 of the Revised Code and shall be prepared, transferred, or redeemed in the manner prescribed by sections 5721.30 to 5721.41 of the Revised Code. As used in those sections, "tax certificate," "certificate," and "duplicate certificate" do not refer to the delinquent land tax certificate or the delinquent vacant land tax certificate issued under section 5721.13 of the Revised Code.

(B) "Certificate parcel" means the parcel of delinquent land that is the subject of and is described in a tax certificate.

(C) "Certificate holder" means a person who purchases a tax certificate under section 5721.32 or 5721.33 of the Revised Code, or a person to whom a tax certificate has been transferred pursuant to section 5721.36 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Certificate purchase price" means, with respect to the sale of tax certificates under sections 5721.32 and 5721.33 of the Revised Code, the amount equal to delinquent taxes, assessments, penalties, and interest computed under section 323.121 of the Revised Code charged against a certificate parcel at the time the tax certificate respecting that parcel is sold, not including any delinquent taxes, assessments, penalties, interest, and charges, the lien for which has been conveyed to a certificate holder through a prior sale of a tax certificate respecting that parcel; provided, however, that payment of the certificate purchase price in a sale under section 5721.33 of the Revised Code may be made wholly in cash or partially in cash and partially by noncash consideration acceptable to the county treasurer from the purchaser. In the event that any such noncash consideration is delivered to pay a portion of the certificate purchase price, such noncash consideration may be subordinate to the rights of the holders of other obligations whose proceeds paid the cash portion of the certificate purchase price.

"Certificate purchase price" also includes the amount of the fee charged by the county treasurer to the purchaser of the certificate under division (H) of section 5721.32 of the Revised Code.

(E) With respect to a sale of tax certificates under section 5721.32 of the Revised Code and except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, "certificate redemption price" means the amount determined under division (E)(1) or (2) of this section.

(1) During the first year after the date on which a tax certificate is sold, the sum of the following:

(a) The certificate purchase price;

(b) The greater of the following:

(i) Interest, at the certificate rate of interest, accruing during the certificate interest period on the certificate purchase price;

(ii) Six per cent of the certificate purchase price.

(c) The fee charged by the county treasurer to the purchaser of the certificate under division (H) of section 5721.32 of the Revised Code.

(2) After the first year after the date on which a tax certificate is sold, the sum of the following:

(a)(i) If division (E)(1)(b)(i) applied during the first year, the certificate purchase price;

(ii) If division (E)(1)(b)(ii) applied during the first year, the sum of the certificate purchase price plus six per cent of the certificate purchase price.

(b)(i) If division (E)(1)(b)(i) applied during the first year, interest at the certificate rate of interest accruing during the certificate interest period on the certificate purchase price;

(2) Division (C) of this section applies to any commercial or industrial purchaser's receipt of electricity through a meter of an end user in this state or through more than one meter at a single location in this state in a quantity that exceeds forty-five million kilowatt hours of electricity over the course of the preceding calendar year, or any commercial or industrial purchaser that will consume more than forty-five million kilowatt hours of electricity over the course of the succeeding twelve 47106 months as estimated by the tax commissioner. The tax commissioner 47114 shall make such an estimate upon the written request by an 47115 applicant for registration as a self-assessing purchaser under 47116 this division. Such a purchaser may elect to self-assess the 47117 excise tax imposed by this section at the rate of $.00075 per 47118 kilowatt hour on ~~not more than~~ the first five hundred four million 47119 kilowatt hours distributed to that meter or location during the 47120 registration year, and four per cent of the total price of all 47121 electricity distributed to that meter or location. A qualified end 47122 user that receives electricity through a meter of an end user in 47123 this state or through more than one meter at a single location in 47124 this state and that consumes, over the course of the previous 47125 calendar year, more than forty-five million kilowatt hours in 47126 other than its qualifying manufacturing process, may elect to 47127 self-assess the tax as allowed by this division with respect to 47128 the electricity used in other than its qualifying manufacturing 47129 process. ~~Payment~~ Until January 1, 2003, payment of the tax shall 47130 be made directly to the treasurer of state in accordance with 47131 divisions (A)(4) and (5) of section 5727.82 of the Revised Code. 47132 Beginning January 1, 2003, payment of the tax shall be made 47133 directly to the tax commissioner in accordance with divisions 47134 (A)(4) and (5) of section 5727.82 of the Revised Code, or the 47135 treasurer of state in accordance with section 5727.83 of the 47136 Revised Code. If the electric distribution company serving the 47137 self-assessing purchaser is a municipal electric utility and the 47138 purchaser is within the municipal corporation's corporate limits, 47139 payment shall be made to such municipal corporation's general fund 47140 and reports shall be filed in accordance with divisions (A)(4) and 47141 (5) of section 5727.82 of the Revised Code, except that "municipal 47142 corporation" shall be substituted for "treasurer of state" and 47143

"tax commissioner." A self-assessing purchaser that pays the 47144 excise tax as provided in this division shall not be required to 47145 pay the tax to the electric distribution company from which its 47146 electricity is distributed. If a self-assessing purchaser's receipt of electricity is not subject to the tax as measured under this division, the tax on the receipt of such electricity shall be measured and paid as provided in division (A) of this section.

(3) In the case of the acquisition of a package, unless the elements of the package are separately stated isolating the total price of electricity from the price of the remaining elements of the package, the tax imposed under this section applies to the entire price of the package. If the elements of the package are separately stated, the tax imposed under this section applies to the total price of the electricity.

(4) Any electric supplier that sells electricity as part of a package shall separately state to the purchaser the total price of the electricity and, upon request by the tax commissioner, the total price of each of the other elements of the package.

(5) The tax commissioner may adopt rules relating to the computation of the total price of electricity with respect to self-assessing purchasers, which may include rules to establish the total price of electricity purchased as part of a package.

(6) ~~Application~~ An annual application for registration as a self-assessing purchaser shall be made for each qualifying meter or location, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner. The registration year begins on the first day of May and ends on the following thirtieth day of April. Persons may apply after the first day of May for the remainder of the registration year. In the case of an applicant applying on the basis of an estimated consumption of forty-five million kilowatt hours over the course of the succeeding twelve months, the applicant shall provide such information as the tax commissioner considers to be necessary to estimate such consumption. At the time of making the application and by the first day of May of each year, excluding May 1, 2000, a self-assessing purchaser shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars 47179 to the tax commissioner, or to the treasurer of state as provided 47180 in section 5727.83 of the Revised Code, for each qualifying meter 47181 or location. The tax commissioner shall immediately pay to the 47182 treasurer of state all amounts that the tax commissioner receives 47183 under this section. The treasurer of state shall deposit such ~~fees~~ 47184 amounts into the kilowatt hour excise tax administration fund, 47185 which is hereby created in the state treasury. Money in the fund 47186 shall be used to defray the tax commissioner's cost in 47187 administering the tax owed under section 5727.81 of the Revised 47188 Code by self-assessing purchasers. After the application is 47189 approved by the tax commissioner, the registration shall remain in 47190 effect for the current registration year, or until canceled by the 47191 registrant upon written notification to the commissioner of the 47192 election to pay the tax in accordance with division (A) of this 47193 section, or until canceled by the tax commissioner for not paying 47194 the tax or fee under division (C) of this section, or for not 47195 meeting the qualifications in division (C)(2) of this section. The 47196 tax commissioner shall give written notice to the electric 47197 distribution company from which electricity is delivered to a 47198 self-assessing purchaser of the purchaser's self-assessing status, 47199 and the electric distribution company is relieved of the 47200 obligation to pay the tax imposed by division (A) of this section 47201 for electricity distributed to that self-assessing purchaser until 47202 it is notified by the tax commissioner that the self-assessing 47203 purchaser's registration is canceled. Within fifteen days of 47204 notification of the canceled registration, the electric 47205 distribution company shall be responsible for payment of the tax 47206 imposed by division (A) of this section on electricity distributed 47207 to a purchaser that is no longer registered as a self-assessing 47208 purchaser. A self-assessing purchaser with a canceled registration 47209 must file a report and remit the tax imposed by division (A) of 47210 this section on all electricity it receives for any measurement 47211 period prior to the tax being reported and paid by the electric 47212 distribution company. A self-assessing purchaser whose 47213 registration is canceled by the tax commissioner is not eligible 47214 to register as a self-assessing purchaser for two years after the 47215 registration is canceled. 47216

(7) If the tax commissioner cancels the self-assessing 47217 registration of a purchaser registered on the basis of its 47218 estimated consumption because the purchaser does not consume at 47219 least forty-five million kilowatt hours of electricity over the 47220 course of the twelve-month period for which the estimate was made, 47221 the tax commissioner shall assess and collect from the purchaser 47222 the difference between (a) the amount of tax that would have been 47223 payable under division (A) of this section on the electricity 47224 distributed to the purchaser during that period and (b) the amount 47225 of tax paid by the purchaser on such electricity pursuant to 47226 division (C)(2)(a) of this section. The assessment shall be paid 47227 within sixty days after the tax commissioner issues it, regardless 47228 of whether the purchaser files a petition for reassessment under 47229 section 5727.89 of the Revised Code covering that period. If the 47230 purchaser does not pay the assessment within the time prescribed, 47231 the amount assessed is subject to the additional charge and the 47232 interest prescribed by divisions (B) and (C) of section 5727.82 of 47233 the Revised Code, and is subject to assessment under section 47234 5727.89 of the Revised Code. If the purchaser is a qualified end 47235 user, division (C)(7) of this section applies only to electricity 47236 it consumes in other than its qualifying manufacturing process. 47237

(D) The tax imposed by this section does not apply to the 47238 distribution of any kilowatt hours of electricity to the federal 47239 government, to an end user located at a federal facility that uses 47240 electricity for the enrichment of uranium, to a qualified 47241 regeneration meter, or to an end user for any day the end user is 47242 a qualified end user. The exemption under this division for a 47243 qualified end user only applies to the manufacturing location 47244 where the qualified end user uses more than three million kilowatt 47245 hours per day in a qualifying manufacturing process. 47246

Sec. 5727.811. (A) For the purpose of raising revenue for 47247 public education and state and local government operations, an 47248 excise tax is hereby levied on every natural gas distribution 47249 company for all natural gas volumes billed by, or on behalf of, 47250 the company ~~on and after~~ beginning with the measurement period 47251 that includes July 1, 2001. Except as provided in divisions (C) or 47252 (D) of this section, the tax shall be levied at the following 47253 rates per MCF of natural gas distributed by the company through a 47254 meter of an end user in this state: 47255

MCF DISTRIBUTED TO AN END USER	RATE PER MCF
For the first 100 MCF per month	$.1593	47256
For the next 101 to 2000 MCF per month	$.0877	47257
For 2001 and above MCF per month	$.0411	47258

If no meter is used to measure the MCF of natural gas 47260 distributed by the company, the rates shall apply to the estimated 47261 MCF of natural gas distributed to an unmetered location in this 47262
state. 47263

(B) A natural gas distribution company shall base the tax on 47264 the MCF of natural gas distributed to an end user through the 47265 meter of the end user in this state that is estimated to be 47266 consumed by the end user as reflected on the end user's customer 47267 statement from the natural gas distribution company. ~~The~~ Until 47268 January 1, 2003, the natural gas distribution company shall pay 47269 the tax levied by this section to the treasurer of state in 47270 accordance with section 5727.82 of the Revised Code. Beginning 47271 January 1, 2003, the natural gas distribution company shall pay 47272
the tax levied by this section to the tax commissioner in 47273 accordance with section 5727.82 of the Revised Code unless 47274 required to remit payment to the treasurer of state in accordance 47275 with section 5727.83 of the Revised Code. 47276

(C) A natural gas distribution company with fifty thousand 47277 customers or less may elect to apply the rates specified in 47278 division (A) of this section to the aggregate of the natural gas 47279 distributed by the company through the meter of all its customers 47280 in this state, and upon such election, this method shall be used 47281 to determine the amount of tax to be paid by such company. 47282

(D) A natural gas distribution company shall pay the tax 47283 imposed by this section at the rate of $.02 per MCF of natural gas 47284 distributed by the company through the meter of a flex customer. 47285
The natural gas distribution company correspondingly shall reduce 47286 the per MCF rate that it charges the flex customer for natural gas 47287 distribution services by $.02 per MCF of natural gas distributed 47288 to the flex customer. 47289

(E) Except as provided in division (F) of this section, each 47290 natural gas distribution company shall pay the tax imposed by this 47291 section in all of the following circumstances: 47292

(1) The natural gas is distributed by the company through a 47293
meter of an end user in this state; 47294

(2) The natural gas distribution company is distributing 47295 natural gas through a meter located in another state, but the 47296 natural gas is consumed in this state in the manner prescribed by 47297
the tax commissioner; 47298

(3) The natural gas distribution company is distributing 47299 natural gas in this state without the use of a meter, but the 47300 natural gas is consumed in this state as estimated and in the 47301 manner prescribed by the tax commissioner. 47302

(F) The tax levied by this section does not apply to the 47303 distribution of natural gas to the federal government, or natural 47304 gas produced by an end user in this state that is consumed by that 47305 end user or its affiliates and is not distributed through the facilities of a natural gas company.

natural gas company tax value loss and continue to be charged in 47626 the tax year preceding the distribution year. For the years 2007 47627 through 2016 in the case of school district emergency levies, and 47628

(2) ~~The total taxable value in tax year 1998 in the case of~~ 47643
~~the electric company tax value loss and 1999 in the case of the~~ 47644 ~~natural gas company 1999 less the~~ tax value loss in each school 47645

If the amount computed under division (H) of this section for 47648 any school district, joint vocational school district, or local 47649 taxing unit is greater than zero, that amount shall equal the 47650 fixed-sum levy loss reimbursed pursuant to division (E) of section 47651 5727.85 of the Revised Code or division (A)(2) of section 5727.86 47652 proportion of each levy to the sum of all fixed-sum levies within 47656 each school district, joint vocational school district, or local 47657 taxing unit. 47658

(I) Notwithstanding divisions (D), (E), (G), and (H) of this 47659 section, in computing the tax value loss, fixed-rate levy loss, 47660 and fixed-sum levy loss, the tax commissioner shall use the 47661 greater of the 1998 tax rate or the 1999 tax rate in the case of 47662 levy losses associated with the electric company tax value loss, 47663 but the 1999 tax rate shall not include for this purpose any tax 47664 levy approved by the voters after June 30, 1999, and the tax 47665 commissioner shall use the greater of the 1999 or the 2000 tax 47666 rate in the case of levy losses associated with the natural gas 47667 company tax value loss, ~~but the 2000 tax rate shall not include~~ 47668 ~~for this purpose any tax levy approved by the voters after~~ 47669
~~November 7, 2000.~~ 47670

(J) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner 47671 shall certify to the department of education the tax value loss 47672 determined under divisions (D) and (E) of this section for each 47673 taxing district, the fixed-rate levy loss calculated under 47674 division (G) of this section, and the fixed-sum levy loss 47675 calculated under division (H) of this section. The calculations 47676 under divisions (G) and (H) of this section shall separately 47677 display the levy loss for each levy eligible for reimbursement. 47678

(K) Not later than September 1, 2001, the tax commissioner 47679 shall certify the amount of the fixed-sum levy loss to the county 47680 auditor of each county in which a school district with a fixed-sum 47681 levy loss has territory. 47682

Sec. 5727.85. (A) By the thirty-first day of July of each 47683 year, beginning in 2002 and ending in 2016, the department of 47684 education shall determine the following for each school district 47685 and each joint vocational school district eligible for payment 47686 under division (C) or (D) of this section: 47687

(1) The state education aid offset, which is the difference 47688 obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (A)(1)(b) 47689 of this section from the amount described in division (A)(1)(a) of 47690
this section: 47691

(a) The state education aid computed for the school district 47692 or joint vocational school district for the current fiscal year ~~on~~ 47693 ~~the basis of the adjusted total taxable value~~ as of the 47694 thirty-first day of July; 47695

(b) The state education aid that would be computed for the 47696 school district or joint vocational school district for the 47697 current fiscal year as of the thirty-first day of July if the 47698 ~~district's adjusted total taxable value~~ recognized valuation 47699 included the tax value loss for ~~all taxing districts~~ in the school 47700 district or joint vocational school district. 47701

(2) The greater of zero or difference obtained by subtracting 47702 the state education aid offset determined under division (A)(1) of 47703 this section from the fixed-rate levy loss ~~determined~~ certified 47704 under division ~~(G)~~ (J) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code for 47705 all taxing districts in each school district and joint vocational 47706 state education aid computed for the current fiscal year; 47716

(2) The inflation-adjusted property tax loss. The 47717 inflation-adjusted property tax loss equals the fixed-rate levy 47718 loss, excluding the tax loss from levies within the ten-mill 47719 limitation to pay debt charges, determined under division (G) of 47720 section 5727.84 of the Revised Code for all taxing districts in 47721 each school district plus the product obtained by multiplying that 47722 loss by the cumulative percentage increase in the consumer price 47723 index from January 1, 2002, to the thirtieth day of June of the 47724 current year. 47725

(3) The difference obtained by subtracting the amount 47726 computed under division (B)(1) from the amount of the 47727 inflation-adjusted property tax loss. If this difference is zero 47728 or a negative number, no further payments shall be made under 47729 division (C) of this section to the school district from the 47730 school district property tax replacement fund. ~~If the difference~~ 47731 ~~is greater than zero, the department of education shall certify~~ 47732 twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of February. 47746

(2) From August 2002 through August 2006, one-half of the 47747

(A)(2) of this section ~~on or before each of the days prescribed~~ 47749
~~for the settlements under divisions (A) and (C) of section 321.24~~ 47750
~~of the Revised Code~~ between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth 47751 days of August and of February. 47752

(3) From February 2007 through August 2016, one-half of the 47753 amount ~~certified~~ calculated for that calendar year under division 47754

~~for the settlements under divisions (A) and (C) of section 321.24~~ 47756
~~of the Revised Code.~~ 47757

~~The county treasurer shall distribute amounts paid under~~ 47758 ~~divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section to the proper~~ 47759
~~school district as if they had been levied and collected as taxes,~~ 47760
~~and the school district shall apportion the amounts so received~~ 47761
~~among its funds in the same proportions as if those amounts had~~ 47762 ~~been levied and collected as taxes~~ between the twenty-first and 47763 twenty-eighth days of August and of February. 47764

(4) For taxes levied within the ten-mill limitation for debt 47765 purposes in tax year 1998 in the case of electric company tax 47766 value losses, and in tax year 1999 in the case of natural gas 47767 company tax value losses, payments shall be made equal to one 47768 hundred per cent of the loss computed as if the tax were a 47769 fixed-rate levy, but those payments shall extend from fiscal year 47770
2006 through fiscal year 2016. 47771

The department of education shall report to each school 47772 district the apportionment of the payments among the school 47773 district's funds based on the certifications under division (J) of 47774

section 5727.84 of the Revised Code. 47775

(D) Not later than January 1, 2002, for all taxing districts 47776 in each joint vocational school district, the tax commissioner 47777 shall certify to the ~~director of budget and management~~ department 47778 of education the fixed-rate levy loss determined under division 47779
(G) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code. From February 2002 to 47780

~~income tax fund in the proper county treasury,~~ joint vocational 47783 school district one-half of the ~~fixed rate levy loss so certified~~ 47784 ~~for each year on or before each of the days prescribed for the~~ 47785 ~~settlements under divisions (A) and (C) of section 321.24 of the~~ 47786
~~Revised Code. The county treasurer shall distribute such amounts~~ 47787
~~to the proper joint vocational school district as if they had been~~ 47788 ~~levied and collected as taxes, and the joint vocational school~~ 47789

~~in the same proportions as if those amounts had been levied and~~ 47791 ~~collected as taxes~~ amount calculated for that fiscal year under 47792 division (A)(2) of this section between the twenty-first and 47793
twenty-eighth days of August and of February. 47794

(E)(1) Not later than January 1, 2002, for each fixed-sum 47795 levy levied by each school district or joint vocational school 47796 district and for each year for which a determination is made under 47797 division (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code that a 47798

shall certify to the ~~director of budget and management~~ department 47800 of education the fixed-sum levy loss determined under that 47801 division. The certification shall cover a time period sufficient 47802 to include all fixed-sum levies for which the tax commissioner 47803 made such a determination. The ~~director~~ department shall pay from 47804 the school district property tax replacement fund to the county 47805 ~~undivided income tax fund in the proper county treasury school~~ 47806 ~~district or joint vocational school district~~ one-half of the 47807 fixed-sum levy loss so certified for each year ~~on or before each~~ 47808 ~~of the days prescribed for the settlements under divisions (A) and~~ 47809

~~(C) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code. The county treasurer~~ 47810 ~~shall distribute the amounts to the proper school district or~~ 47811 ~~joint vocational school district as if they had been levied and~~ 47812 ~~collected as taxes, and the district shall apportion the amounts~~ 47813
~~so received among its funds in the same proportions as if those~~ 47814 ~~amounts had been levied and collected as taxes~~ between the 47815 twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February. 47816

(2) Beginning in 2003, by the thirty-first day of January of 47817
each year, the tax commissioner shall review the certification 47818 originally made under division (E)(1) of this section. If the 47819 commissioner determines that a ~~fixed-sum~~ debt levy that had been 47820 scheduled to be reimbursed in the current year has expired, a 47821 revised certification for that and all subsequent years shall be 47822 made to the ~~director of budget and management~~ department of 47823

(F) Beginning in August 2002, and ending in February 2017, 47825 the director of budget and management shall transfer from the 47826 school district property tax replacement fund to the general 47827 revenue fund each of the following: 47828

(1) Between the twenty-eighth day of August and the fifth day 47829 of September, the lesser of one-half of the amount certified for 47830 that fiscal year under division (A)(2) of this section or the 47831 balance in the school district property tax replacement fund; 47832

(2) Between the first and fifth days of March, the lesser of 47833 one-half of the amount certified for that fiscal year under 47834 division (A)(2) of this section or the balance in the school 47835 district property tax replacement fund. 47836

(G) By August 5, 2002, the tax commissioner shall estimate 47837 the amount of money in the school district property tax 47838 payments ~~in that month~~ under divisions (C), (D), ~~and (E)~~, and (F) 47840 of this section. Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, the 47841 department of education, in consultation with the tax commissioner 47842 and from those excess funds, may pay any school district four and 47843 one-half times the amount certified under division (A)(2) of this 47844 section. Payments shall be made in order from the smallest annual 47845 loss to the largest annual loss. A payment made under this 47846 division shall be in lieu of the payment to be made in August 2002 47847 under division (C)(2) of this section. No payments shall be made 47848 in the manner established in this division to any school district 47849 with annual losses from permanent improvement fixed-rate levies in 47850 excess of twenty thousand dollars, or annual losses from any other 47851 fixed-rate levies in excess of twenty thousand dollars. A school 47852 district receiving a payment under this division is no longer 47853 entitled to any further payments under division (C) of this 47854

section. 47855

~~(G)~~(H) On the thirty-first day of July of 2003, 2004, 2005, 47856
and 2006, and on the thirty-first day of January and July of 2007 47857 and each year thereafter, if the amount credited to the school 47858 district property tax replacement fund exceeds the amount needed 47859 to make payments from the fund under divisions (C), (D), ~~and (E)~~, 47860 and (F) of this section ~~in the following month~~, the ~~director of~~ 47861 ~~budget and management~~ department of education shall distribute the 47862 excess among school districts and joint vocational school 47863 districts. The amount distributed to each district shall bear the 47864 same proportion to the excess remaining in the fund as the ADM of 47865 the district bears to the ADM of all of the districts. For the 47866 purpose of this division, "ADM" means the formula ADM in the case 47867 of a school district, and the average daily membership reported 47868 under section 3317.03 of the Revised Code in the case of a joint 47869 vocational school district. 47870

If, in the opinion of the ~~director of budget and management~~ 47871 department of education, the excess remaining in the school 47872 district property tax replacement fund in any year is not 47873 sufficient to warrant distribution under this division, the excess 47874 shall remain to the credit of the fund. 47875

Amounts received by a school district or joint vocational 47876 school district under this division shall be used exclusively for 47877 capital improvements. 47878

~~(H) If (I) From fiscal year 2002 through fiscal year 2016, if~~ 47879 the total amount in the school district property tax replacement 47880 fund is insufficient to make all payments under divisions (C), 47881

(3), and (4) and division (E) of this section, and shall 47935 distribute the payments in the manner prescribed by division (C) 47936 of this section. The ~~certification~~ calculation of the fixed-sum 47937 fixed-sum levies for which the tax commissioner determined, 47939 pursuant to division (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code, 47940 that a fixed-sum levy loss is to be reimbursed. 47941

(1) Except as provided in ~~division~~ divisions (A)(3) and (4) 47942 division (G) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code, payments 47944 shall be made in each of the following years at the following 47945

2011	80%	47957
2012	66.7%	47958
2013	53.4%	47959
2014	40.1%	47960
2015	26.8%	47961
2016	13.5%	47962

2017 and thereafter 0% 47964

(2) For fixed-sum levy losses determined under division (H) 47965 of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code, payments shall be made in 47966 the amount of one hundred per cent of the fixed-sum levy loss 47967 ~~certified under division (A) of this section~~ for payments required 47968 to be made in 2002 and thereafter. 47969

(3) A local taxing unit in a county of less than two hundred 47970 fifty square miles that receives eighty per cent or more of its 47971 combined general fund and bond retirement fund revenues from 47972 property taxes and rollbacks based on 1997 actual revenues as 47973 presented in its 1999 tax budget, and in which electric companies 47974 and rural electric companies comprise over twenty per cent of its 47975 property valuation, shall receive one hundred per cent of its 47976 fixed-rate levy losses from electric company tax value losses 47977 certified under division (A) of this section in years 2002 to 47978 2016. 47979

(4) For taxes levied within the ten-mill limitation for debt 47980 purposes in tax year 1998 in the case of electric company tax 47981 value losses, and in tax year 1999 in the case of natural gas 47982
company tax value losses, payments shall be made equal to one 47983 hundred per cent of the loss computed as if the tax were a 47984
fixed-rate levy, but those payments shall extend from fiscal year 47985
2006 through fiscal year 2016. 47986

(B) Beginning in 2003, by the thirty-first day of January of 47987
each year, the tax commissioner shall review the ~~certification~~ 47988 calculation originally made under division (A) of this section of 47989 the fixed-sum levy loss determined under division (H) of section 47990 5727.84 of the Revised Code. If the commissioner determines that a 47991 fixed-sum levy that had been scheduled to be reimbursed in the 47992 current year has expired, a revised ~~certification~~ calculation for 47993 that and all subsequent years shall be made. 47994

(C) Payments to local taxing units required to be made under 47995 divisions (A) and (E) of this section shall be paid from the local 47996 government property tax replacement fund to the county undivided 47997 income tax fund in the proper county treasury. One-half of the 47998 amount certified under those divisions shall be paid ~~on or before~~ 47999 ~~each of the days prescribed for the settlements under divisions~~ 48000

~~(A) and (C) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code~~ between the 48001 twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February. The 48002 county treasurer shall distribute amounts paid under division (A) 48003 of this section to the proper local taxing unit as if they had 48004 been levied and collected as taxes, and the local taxing unit 48005 shall apportion the amounts so received among its funds in the 48006 same proportions as if those amounts had been levied and collected 48007 as taxes. Amounts distributed under division (E) of this section 48008 shall be credited to the general fund of the local taxing unit 48009 that receives them. 48010

(D) By February 5, 2002, the tax commissioner shall estimate 48011 the amount of money in the local government property tax 48012 replacement fund in excess of the amount necessary to make 48013 payments in that month under division (C) of this section. 48014 Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, the tax commissioner 48015 may pay any local taxing unit, from those excess funds, nine and 48016 four-tenths times the amount computed for 2002 under division 48017 (A)(1) of this section. A payment made under this division shall 48018 be in lieu of the payment to be made in February 2002 under 48019 division (A)(1) of this section. A local taxing unit receiving a 48020 payment under this division will no longer be entitled to any 48021 further payments under division (A)(1) of this section. A payment 48022 made under this division shall be paid from the local government 48023 property tax replacement fund to the county undivided income tax 48024 fund in the proper county treasury. The county treasurer shall 48025 distribute the payment to the proper local taxing unit as if it 48026 had been levied and collected as taxes, and the local taxing unit 48027 shall apportion the amounts so received among its funds in the 48028 same proportions as if those amounts had been levied and collected 48029

as taxes. 48030

(E) On the thirty-first day of July of 2002, 2003, 2004, 48031
2005, and 2006, and on the thirty-first day of January and July of 48032
2007 and each year thereafter, if the amount credited to the local 48033 government property tax replacement fund exceeds the amount needed 48034 to be distributed from the fund under division (A) of this section 48035 in the following month, the ~~director of budget and management tax~~ 48036 commissioner shall distribute the excess to each county as 48037 follows: 48038

(1) One-half shall be distributed to each county in 48039 proportion to each county's population. 48040

(2) One-half shall be distributed to each county in the 48041 proportion that the amounts determined under divisions (G) and (H) 48042 of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code for all local taxing units 48043 in the county is of the total amounts so determined for all local 48044 taxing units in the state. 48045

The amounts distributed to each county under this division 48046 shall be distributed by the county ~~budget commission~~ treasurer to 48047 each local taxing unit in the county in the proportion that the 48048 unit's current taxes charged and payable are of the total current 48049 taxes charged and payable of all the local taxing units in the 48050 county. As used in this division, "current taxes charged and 48051 payable" means the taxes charged and payable as most recently 48052 determined for local taxing units in the county. 48053

If, in the opinion of the ~~director of budget and management~~ 48054 tax commissioner, the excess remaining in the local government 48055 property tax replacement fund in any year is not sufficient to 48056 warrant distribution under this division, the excess shall remain 48057 to the credit of the fund. 48058

(F) ~~If From fiscal year 2002 through fiscal year 2016, if the~~ 48059 total amount in the local government property tax replacement fund 48060 is insufficient to make all payments under division (C) of this 48061 section, ~~the payments required under division (A)(2) of this~~ 48062 ~~section shall be made first in their entirety. After all such~~ 48063 ~~payments are made, payments under divisions (A)(1) and (3) of this~~ 48064 ~~section shall be made from the balance of money available in the~~ 48065 ~~proportion of each local taxing unit's payment amount to the total~~ 48066 ~~amount of all payments to be made under divisions (A)(1) and (3)~~ 48067
~~of this section at the times the payments are to be made, the~~ 48068
~~director of budget and management shall transfer from the general~~ 48069 ~~revenue fund to the local government property tax replacement fund~~ 48070
~~the difference between the total amount to be paid and the amount~~ 48071
~~in the local government property tax replacement fund.~~ 48072

(G) If all or a part of the territories of two or more local 48073 taxing units are merged, or unincorporated territory of a township 48074 is annexed by a municipal corporation, the tax commissioner shall 48075 adjust the payments made under this section to each of the local 48076 taxing units in proportion to the tax value loss apportioned to 48077 the merged or annexed territory, or as otherwise provided by a 48078 written agreement between the legislative authorities of the local 48079 taxing units certified to the tax commissioner not later than the 48080 first day of June of the calendar year in which the payment is to 48081 be made. 48082

collected in the county in ~~tax year 1998~~ 1999 were one hundred 48101 fifty million dollars or less; 48102

(b) For purposes of the determination under division (B) of 48103 this section in the years 2007 through 2011, the administrative 48104 fee loss shall be determined by subtracting from the dollar amount 48105 joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit in the 48118 county. Not later than the ~~first~~ thirty-first day of ~~June~~ January 48119

Revised Code. 48272

There is hereby allowed a nonrefundable credit against the 48273 tax imposed under this chapter for a foreign insurance company for 48274 which a tax credit certificate is issued under section 5733.42 of 48275 the Revised Code. The credit may be claimed for credit periods 48276 beginning on or after January 1, ~~2001~~ 2003, and ending on or 48277 before December 31, ~~2003~~ 2005. The amount of the credit for the 48278 credit period beginning on January 1, 2003, shall equal one-half 48279 of the average of the eligible training costs paid or incurred by 48280

the company during ~~the three~~ calendar years immediately preceding 48281
~~the credit period for which the credit is claimed 1998, 1999, and~~ 48282 2000, not to exceed one thousand dollars for each eligible 48283 employee on account of whom eligible training costs were paid or 48284 incurred by the company. The amount of the credit for the credit 48285 period beginning on January 1, 2004, shall equal one-half of the 48286 average of the eligible training costs paid or incurred by the 48287 company during calendar years 2002, 2003, and 2004, not to exceed 48288 one thousand dollars for each eligible employee on account of whom 48289 eligible training costs were paid or incurred by the company. The 48290 amount of the credit for the credit period beginning on January 1, 48291 2005, shall equal one-half of the average of the eligible training 48292 costs paid or incurred by the company during calendar years 2003, 48293 2004, and 2005, not to exceed one thousand dollars for each 48294 eligible employee on account of whom eligible training costs were 48295 paid or incurred by the company. The credit claimed by a company 48296 for each credit period shall not exceed one hundred thousand 48297 dollars. 48298

A foreign insurance company shall apply to the director of 48299 job and family services for a tax credit certificate in the manner 48300 prescribed by division (C) of section 5733.42 of the Revised Code. 48301 Divisions (C) to (H) of that section govern the tax credit allowed 48302 by this section, except that "credit period" shall be substituted 48303 for "tax year with respect to a calendar year" wherever that 48304 phrase appears in those divisions and that the company shall be 48305 considered a taxpayer for the purposes of those divisions. 48306

A foreign insurance company may carry forward the credit 48307 allowed under this section to the extent that the credit exceeds 48308 the company's tax due for the credit period. The company may carry 48309 the excess credit forward for three credit periods following the 48310 credit period for which the credit is first claimed under this 48311 section. The credit allowed by this section is in addition to any 48312 credit allowed under section 5729.031 of the Revised Code. 48313

The reduction in the tax due under this chapter to the extent 48314 of the credit allowed by this section does not increase the amount 48315 of the tax otherwise due under section 5729.06 of the Revised 48316
Code. 48317

Sec. 5731.21. (A)(1)(a) Except as provided under division 48318
(A)(3) of this section, the executor or administrator, or, if no 48319 executor or administrator has been appointed, another person in 48320 possession of property the transfer of which is subject to estate 48321 taxes under section 5731.02 or division (A) of section 5731.19 of 48322 the Revised Code, shall file an estate tax return, within nine 48323 months of the date of the decedent's death, in the form prescribed 48324 by the tax commissioner, in duplicate, with the probate court of 48325 the county. The return shall include all property the transfer of 48326 which is subject to estate taxes, whether that property is 48327 transferred under the last will and testament of the decedent or 48328 otherwise. The time for filing the return may be extended by the 48329 tax commissioner. 48330

(b) The estate tax return described in division (A)(1)(a) of 48331 this section shall be accompanied by a certificate, in the form 48332 prescribed by the tax commissioner, that is signed by the 48333 executor, administrator, or other person required to file the 48334 return, and that states all of the following: 48335

(i) The fact that the return was filed; 48336

(ii) The date of the filing of the return; 48337

(iii) The fact that the estate taxes under section 5731.02 or 48338 division (A) of section 5731.19 of the Revised Code, that are 48339 shown to be due in the return, have been paid in full; 48340

(iv) If applicable, the fact that real property listed in the 48341 inventory for the decedent's estate is included in the return; 48342

(2) The probate court shall forward one copy of the estate tax return described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section to the tax commissioner.

(3) A person may, but shall not be required to, file a return under division (A) of this section if the decedent was a resident of this state and the value of the decedent's gross estate is twenty-five thousand dollars or less in the case of a decedent dying on or after July 1, 1968, but before January 1, 2001; two hundred thousand dollars or less in the case of a decedent dying on or after January 1, 2001, but before January 1, 2002; or three hundred thirty-eight thousand three hundred thirty-three dollars or less in the case of a decedent dying on or after January 1, 2002. If a probate court issues an order that grants a summary release from administration in connection with a decedent's estate under section 2113.031 of the Revised Code, that order eliminates the duty of all persons to file an estate tax return and certificate under divisions (A)(1)(a) and (b) of this section with respect to the estate for which the order was granted.

(4)(a) Upon receipt of the estate tax return described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section and the accompanying certificate described in division (A)(1)(b) of this section, the probate court promptly shall give notice of the return, by a form prescribed by the tax commissioner, to the county auditor. The auditor then shall make a charge based upon the notice and shall certify a duplicate of the charge to the county treasurer. The treasurer then shall collect, subject to division (A) of section 5731.25 of the Revised Code or any other statute extending the time for payment of an estate tax, the tax so charged.

(b) Upon receipt of the return and the accompanying certificate, the probate court also shall forward the certificate to the auditor. When satisfied that the estate taxes under section 5731.02 or division (A) of section 5731.19 of the Revised Code, that are shown to be due in the return, have been paid in full,
the auditor shall stamp the certificate so forwarded to verify that payment. The auditor then shall return the stamped certificate to the probate court.

(5)(a) The certificate described in division (A)(1)(b) of this section is a public record subject to inspection and copying in accordance with section 149.43 of the Revised Code. It shall be kept in the records of the probate court pertaining to the decedent's estate and is not subject to the confidentiality provisions of section 5731.90 of the Revised Code.

(b) All persons are entitled to rely on the statements contained in a certificate as described in division (A)(1)(b) of this section if it has been filed in accordance with that division, forwarded to a county auditor and stamped in accordance with division (A)(4) of this section, and placed in the records of the probate court pertaining to the decedent's estate in accordance with division (A)(5)(a) of this section. The real property referred to in the certificate shall be free of, and may be regarded by all persons as being free of, any lien for estate taxes under section 5731.02 and division (A) of section 5731.19 of the Revised Code.

(B) An estate tax return filed under this section, in the form prescribed by the tax commissioner, and showing that no estate tax is due shall result in a determination that no estate 48407 tax is due, if the tax commissioner within three months after the 48408 receipt of the return by the department of taxation, fails to file 48409 exceptions to the return in the probate court of the county in 48410 which the return was filed. A copy of exceptions to a return of 48411 that nature, when the tax commissioner files them within that 48412 period, shall be sent by ordinary mail to the person who filed the 48413 return. The tax commissioner is not bound under this division by a 48414 determination that no estate tax is due, with respect to property 48415 not disclosed in the return. 48416

(C) If the executor, administrator, or other person required 48417 to file an estate tax return fails to file it within nine months 48418 of the date of the decedent's death, the tax commissioner may 48419 determine the estate tax in that estate and issue a certificate of 48420 determination in the same manner as is provided in division (B) of 48421 section 5731.27 of the Revised Code. A certificate of 48422 determination of that nature has the same force and effect as 48423 though a return had been filed and a certificate of determination 48424 issued with respect to the return. 48425

Sec. 5733.02. Annually, between the first day of January and 48426 the thirty-first day of March or on or before the date as extended 48427 under section 5733.13 of the Revised Code, each taxpayer shall 48428 make a report in writing to the ~~treasurer of state tax~~ 48429 taxpayer as provided by section 5733.021 of the Revised Code. 48435 Remittance shall be made in the form prescribed by the ~~treasurer~~ 48436 the payment remitted to the treasurer. Thereafter, the treasurer 48440 shall immediately transmit all reports filed under this section to 48441

the tax commissioner. 48442~~

The commissioner shall furnish corporations, on request, 48443 copies of the forms prescribed by the commissioner for the purpose 48444 of making such report. A domestic corporation shall not dissolve, 48445 and a foreign corporation shall not withdraw or retire from 48446 business in Ohio, on or after the first day of January in any year 48447 without making a franchise tax report to the commissioner and 48448

The annual corporation report shall be signed by the 48451 president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, general manager, 48452 superintendent, or managing agent in this state of such 48453 corporation. If a domestic corporation has not completed its 48454 organization, its annual report shall be signed by one of its 48455 incorporators. 48456

The report shall contain the facts, figures, computations, 48457 and attachments that result in the tax charged by this chapter and 48458 determined in the manner provided within the chapter. 48459 of January file the report and make the payment required by 48461 section 5733.02 of the Revised Code shall make and file a 48462 declaration of estimated tax report for the tax year. 48463

The declaration of estimated tax report shall be filed with 48464 the ~~treasurer of state~~ tax commissioner on or before the last day 48465 of January in such form as prescribed by the tax commissioner, and 48466 shall reflect an estimate of the total amount due under this 48467 chapter for the tax year. 48468

(B) A taxpayer required to file a declaration of estimated 48469 tax report shall make remittance of such estimated tax to the 48470 ~~treasurer of state~~ tax commissioner as follows: 48471

(1) The entire estimated tax at the time of filing the 48472 declaration of estimated tax report, if such estimated tax is not 48473 in excess of the minimum tax as provided in section 5733.06 of the 48474 Revised Code; 48475

this state its transferor's net income allocated or apportioned to 48522 this state. The transferee shall add such income in computing its 48523 tax for the same tax year or years that such income would have 48524 been reported by the transferor if the transfer had not been made. 48525
The transferee shall add such income only to the extent the income 48526 is not required to be reported by the transferor for the purposes 48527 of the tax imposed by divisions (A) and (B) of section 5733.06 of 48528
the Revised Code. 48529

result in a financial institution that has branches in more than 48693 one state; and 48694

(b) Has at least ten per cent of its deposits in this state 48695 as of the last day of June prior to the beginning of the tax year. 48696

(16) "Real property owned" and "tangible personal property 48697 owned" mean real and tangible personal property, respectively, on 48698 which the taxpayer may claim depreciation for federal income tax 48699 purposes, or to which the taxpayer holds legal title and on which 48700 no other person may claim depreciation for federal income tax 48701 purposes, or could claim depreciation if subject to federal income 48702 tax. Real and tangible personal property do not include coin, 48703 currency, or property acquired in lieu of or pursuant to a 48704 foreclosure. 48705

(17) "Regular place of business" means an office at which the 48706 taxpayer carries on its business in a regular and systematic 48707 manner and which is continuously maintained, occupied, and used by 48708 employees of the taxpayer. 48709

(18) "State" means a state of the United States, the District 48710 of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or 48711 possession of the United States. 48712

(19) "Syndication" means an extension of credit in which two 48713 or more persons fund and each person is at risk only up to a 48714 specified percentage of the total extension of credit or up to a 48715 specified dollar amount. 48716

(20) "Transportation property" means vehicles and vessels 48717 capable of moving under their own power, such as aircraft, trains, 48718 water vessels and motor vehicles, as well as any equipment or 48719 containers attached to such property, such as rolling stock, 48720 barges, trailers, or the like. 48721

(B) The annual financial institution report determines the 48722 value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of the 48723 taxpayer, and is the base or measure of the franchise tax 48724 liability. Such determination shall be made as of the date shown 48725 by the report to have been the beginning of the financial 48726 institution's annual accounting period that includes the first day 48727 of January of the tax year. For purposes of this section, division 48728
(A) of section 5733.05, and division (D) of section 5733.06 of the 48729 Revised Code, the value of the issued and outstanding shares of 48730 stock of the financial institution shall include the total value, 48731 as shown by the books of the financial institution, of its 48732 capital, surplus, whether earned or unearned, undivided profits, 48733 and reserves, but exclusive of: 48734

(1) Reserves for accounts receivable, depreciation, 48735 depletion, and any other valuation reserves with respect to 48736 specific assets; 48737

(2) Taxes due and payable during the year for which such 48738 report was made; 48739

(3) Voting stock and participation certificates in 48740 corporations chartered pursuant to the "Farm Credit Act of 1971," 48741
85 Stat. 597, 12 U.S.C. 2091, as amended; 48742

(4) Good will, appreciation, and abandoned property as set up 48743 in the annual report of the financial institution, provided a 48744 certified balance sheet of the company is made available upon the 48745 request of the tax commissioner. Such balance sheet shall not be a 48746 part of the public records, but shall be a confidential report for 48747 use of the tax commissioner only. 48748

(5) A portion of the value of the issued and outstanding 48749 shares of stock of such financial institution equal to the amount 48750 obtained by multiplying such value by the quotient obtained by: 48751

(a) Dividing (1) the amount of the financial institution's 48752 assets, as shown on its books, represented by investments in the 48753 capital stock and indebtedness of public utilities of which at 48754 least eighty per cent of the utility's issued and outstanding 48755 common stock is owned by the financial institution by (2) the 48756 total assets of such financial institution as shown on its books; 48757

(b) Dividing (1) the amount of the financial institution's 48758 assets, as shown on its books, represented by investments in the 48759 capital stock and indebtedness of insurance companies of which at 48760 least eighty per cent of the insurance company's issued and 48761 outstanding common stock is owned by the financial institution by 48762 (2) the total assets of such financial institution as shown on its 48763 books; 48764

(c) Dividing (1) the amount of the financial institution's 48765 assets, as shown on its books, represented by investments in the 48766 capital stock and indebtedness of other financial institutions of 48767 which at least twenty-five per cent of the other financial 48768 institution's issued and outstanding common stock is owned by the 48769 financial institution by (2) the total assets of the financial 48770 institution as shown on its books. Division (B)(5)(c) of this 48771 section applies only with respect to such other financial 48772 institutions that for the tax year immediately following the 48773 taxpayer's taxable year will pay the tax imposed by division (D) 48774 of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code. 48775

(6) Land that has been determined pursuant to section 5713.31 48776 of the Revised Code by the county auditor of the county in which 48777 the land is located to be devoted exclusively to agricultural use 48778 as of the first Monday of June in the financial institution's 48779 taxable year. 48780

(7) Property within this state used exclusively during the 48781 taxable year for qualified research as defined in section 5733.05 48782
of the Revised Code. 48783

(C) The base upon which the tax levied under division (D) of 48784 section 5733.06 of the Revised Code shall be computed by 48785 multiplying the value of a financial institution's issued and 48786 outstanding shares of stock as determined in division (B) of this 48787 section by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the sum of 48788 the following: the property factor multiplied by fifteen, the 48789 payroll factor multiplied by fifteen, and the sales factor 48790 multiplied by seventy. The denominator of the fraction is one 48791 hundred, provided that the denominator shall be reduced by fifteen 48792 if the property factor has a denominator of zero, by fifteen if 48793 the payroll factor has a denominator of zero, and by seventy if 48794 the sales factor has a denominator of zero. 48795

(D) A financial institution shall calculate the property 48796 factor as follows: 48797

(1) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which 48798 is the average value of real property and tangible personal 48799 property rented to the taxpayer that is located or used within 48800 this state during the taxable year, the average value of real and 48801 tangible personal property owned by the taxpayer that is located 48802 or used within this state during the taxable year, and the average 48803 value of the taxpayer's loans and credit card receivables that are 48804 located within this state during the taxable year; and the 48805 denominator of which is the average value of all such property 48806 located or used within and without this state during the taxable 48807

year. 48808

(2)(a) The value of real property and tangible personal 48809 property owned by the taxpayer is the original cost or other basis 48810 of such property for federal income tax purposes without regard to 48811 depletion, depreciation, or amortization. 48812

(b) Loans are valued at their outstanding principal balance, 48813 without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a loan is 48814 charged-off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, 48815 the portion of the loan charged-off is not outstanding. A 48816 specifically allocated reserve established pursuant to financial 48817 accounting guidelines which is treated as charged-off for federal 48818 income tax purposes shall be treated as charged-off for purposes 48819
of this section. 48820

(c) Credit card receivables are valued at their outstanding 48821 principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If 48822 a credit card receivable is charged-off in whole or in part for 48823 federal income tax purposes, the portion of the receivable 48824 charged-off is not outstanding. 48825

(3) The average value of property owned by the taxpayer is 48826 computed on an annual basis by adding the value of the property on 48827 the first day of the taxable year and the value on the last day of 48828 the taxable year and dividing the sum by two. If averaging on this 48829 basis does not properly reflect average value, the tax 48830 commissioner may require averaging on a more frequent basis. The 48831 taxpayer may elect to average on a more frequent basis. When 48832 averaging on a more frequent basis is required by the tax 48833 commissioner or is elected by the taxpayer, the same method of 48834 valuation must be used consistently by the taxpayer with respect 48835 to property within and without this state and on all subsequent 48836 returns unless the taxpayer receives prior permission from the tax 48837 commissioner or the tax commissioner requires a different method 48838 of determining value. 48839

(4)(a) The average value of real property and tangible personal property that the taxpayer has rented from another and is not treated as property owned by the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes, shall be determined annually by multiplying the gross rents payable during the taxable year by eight.

(b) Where the use of the general method described in division (D)(4)(a) of this section results in inaccurate valuations of rented property, any other method which properly reflects the value may be adopted by the tax commissioner or by the taxpayer when approved in writing by the tax commissioner. Once approved, such other method of valuation must be used on all subsequent returns unless the taxpayer receives prior approval from the tax commissioner or the tax commissioner requires a different method of valuation.

(b) Transportation property is included in the numerator of the property factor to the extent that the property is used in this state. The extent an aircraft will be deemed to be used in this state and the amount of value that is to be included in the numerator of this state's property factor is determined by multiplying the average value of the aircraft by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this state and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft everywhere. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this state cannot be determined, then the property will be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle will be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered. 48872

(6)(a)(i) A loan, other than a loan or advance described in 48873 division (D)(6)(d) of this section, is considered to be located 48874 within this state if it is properly assigned to a regular place of 48875 business of the taxpayer within this state. 48876

(ii) A loan is properly assigned to the regular place of 48877 business with which it has a preponderance of substantive 48878 contacts. A loan assigned by the taxpayer to a regular place of 48879 business without the state shall be presumed to have been properly 48880 assigned if: 48881

(I) The taxpayer has assigned, in the regular course of its 48882 business, such loan on its records to a regular place of business 48883 consistent with federal or state regulatory requirements; 48884

(II) Such assignment on its records is based upon substantive 48885 contacts of the load to such regular place of business; and 48886 48887

(III) The taxpayer uses the records reflecting assignment of 48888 loans for the filing of all state and local tax returns for which 48889 an assignment of loans to a regular place of business is required. 48890

(iii) The presumption of proper assignment of a loan provided 48891 in division (D)(6)(a)(ii) of this section may be rebutted upon a 48892 showing by the tax commissioner, supported by a preponderance of 48893 the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts 48894 regarding such loan did not occur at the regular place of business 48895 to which it was assigned on the taxpayer's records. When such 48896 presumption has been rebutted, the loan shall then be located 48897 within this state if (1) the taxpayer had a regular place of 48898 business within this state at the time the loan was made; and (2) 48899 the taxpayer fails to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, 48900 that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding such load 48901 did not occur within this state. 48902

(b) In the case of a loan which is assigned by the taxpayer 48904 to a place without this state which is not a regular place of 48905 business, it shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by the 48906 taxpayer on a showing supported by the preponderance of evidence, 48907 that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan 48908 occurred within this state if, at the time the loan was made the 48909 taxpayer's commercial domicile was within this state. 48910

(c) To determine the state in which the preponderance of 48911 substantive contacts relating to a loan have occurred, the facts 48912 and circumstances regarding the loan at issue shall be reviewed on 48913 a case-by-case basis and consideration shall be given to such 48914 activities as the solicitation, investigation, negotiation, 48915 approval, and administration of the loan. The terms 48916
"solicitation," "investigation," "negotiation," "approval," and 48917
"administration" are defined as follows: 48918

(i) "Solicitation" is either active or passive. Active 48919 solicitation occurs when an employee of the taxpayer initiates the 48920 contact with the customer. Such activity is located at the regular 48921 place of business which the taxpayer's employee is regularly 48922 connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services 48923 of such employee were actually performed. Passive solicitation 48924 occurs when the customer initiates the contact with the taxpayer. 48925
If the customer's initial contact was not at a regular place of 48926 business of the taxpayer, the regular place of business, if any, 48927 where the passive solicitation occurred is determined by the facts 48928 in each case. 48929

(ii) "Investigation" is the procedure whereby employees of 48930 the taxpayer determine the creditworthiness of the customer as 48931 well as the degree of risk involved in making a particular 48932 agreement. Such activity is located at the regular place of 48933 business which the taxpayer's employees are regularly connected 48934 with or working out of, regardless of where the services of such employees were actually performed. 48935 48936

48938
48940
48941
48942
48944

(iv) "Approval" is the procedure whereby employees or the board of directors of the taxpayer make the final determination whether to enter into the agreement. Such activity is located at the regular place of business to which the taxpayer's employees are regularly connected or working from, regardless of where the services of such employees were actually performed. If the board of directors makes the final determination, such activity is located at the commercial domicile of the taxpayer. 48945
48946
48948
48949
48950
48952

(v) "Administration" is the process of managing the account. This process includes bookkeeping, collecting the payments, corresponding with the customer, reporting to management regarding the status of the agreement, and proceeding against the borrower or the security interest if the borrower is in default. Such activity is located at the regular place of business that oversees this activity. 48953
48956
48957
48959

(d) A loan or advance to a subsidiary corporation at least fifty-one per cent of whose common stock is owned by the financial institution shall be allocated in and out of the state by the application of a ratio whose numerator is the sum of the net book value of the subsidiary's real property owned in this state and the subsidiary's tangible personal property owned in this state and whose denominator is the sum of the subsidiary's real property 48960
48961
48963
48964
48965
48966 owned wherever located and the subsidiary's tangible personal 48967 property owned wherever located. For purposes of calculating this 48968 ratio, the taxpayer shall determine net book value in accordance 48969 with generally accepted accounting principles. If the subsidiary 48970 corporation owns at least fifty-one per cent of the common stock 48971 of another corporation, the ratio shall be calculated by including 48972 the other corporation's real property and tangible personal 48973 property. The calculation of the ratio applies with respect to all 48974 lower-tiered subsidiaries, provided that the immediate parent 48975 corporation of the subsidiary owns at least fifty-one per cent of 48976 the common stock of that subsidiary. 48977

(7) For purposes of determining the location of credit card 48978 receivables, credit card receivables shall be treated as loans and 48979 shall be subject to division (D)(6) of this section. 48980

(8) A loan that has been properly assigned to a state shall, 48981 absent any change of material fact, remain assigned to that state 48982 for the length of the original term of the loan. Thereafter, the 48983 loan may be properly assigned to another state if the loan has a 48984 preponderance of substantive contact to a regular place of 48985 business there. 48986

(E) A financial institution shall calculate the payroll 48987
factor as follows: 48988

(1) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which 48989 is the total amount paid in this state during the taxable year by 48990 the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the 48991 total compensation paid both within and without this state during 48992 the taxable year. 48993

(2) Compensation is paid in this state if any one of the 48994 following tests, applied consecutively, is met: 48995

(a) The employee's services are performed entirely within 48996
this state. 48997

(b) The employee's services are performed both within and 48998 without this state, but the service performed without this state 48999 is incidental to the employee's service within this state. The 49000 term "incidental" means any service which is temporary or 49001 transitory in nature, or which is rendered in connection with an 49002 isolated transaction. 49003

(c) The employee's services are performed both within and 49004 without this state, and: 49005

(i) The employee's principal base of operations is within 49006 this state; or 49007

(ii) There is no principal base of operations in any state in 49008 which some part of the services are performed, but the place from 49009 which the services are directed or controlled is in this state; or 49010 49011

(iii) The principal base of operations and the place from 49012 which the services are directed or controlled are not in any state 49013 in which some part of the service is performed but the employee's 49014 residence is in this state. 49015

(F) A financial institution shall calculate the sales factor 49016 as follows: 49017

(1) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is 49018 the receipts of the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year 49019 and the denominator of which is the receipts of the taxpayer 49020 within and without this state during the taxable year. The method 49021 of calculating receipts for purposes of the denominator is the 49022 same as the method used in determining receipts for purposes of 49023
the numerator. 49024

(2) The numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from 49025 the lease or rental of real property owned by the taxpayer if the 49026 property is located within this state, or receipts from the 49027 sublease of real property if the property is located within this 49028

state. 49029

(3)(a) Except as described in division (F)(3)(b) of this 49030 section the numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from 49031 the lease or rental of tangible personal property owned by the 49032 taxpayer if the property is located within this state when it is 49033 first placed in service by the lessee. 49034

(b) Receipts from the lease or rental of transportation 49035 property owned by the taxpayer are included in the numerator of 49036 the sales factor to the extent that the property is used in this 49037 state. The extent an aircraft will be deemed to be used in this 49038 state and the amount of receipts that is to be included in the 49039 numerator of this state's sales factor is determined by 49040 multiplying all the receipts from the lease or rental of the 49041 aircraft by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of 49042 landings of the aircraft in this state and the denominator of 49043 which is the total number of landings of the aircraft. If the 49044 extent of the use of any transportation property within this state 49045 cannot be determined, then the property will be deemed to be used 49046 wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base 49047 of operations. A motor vehicle will be deemed to be used wholly in 49048
the state in which it is registered. 49049

(4)(a) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest 49050 and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured 49051 by real property if the property is located within this state. If 49052
the property is located both within this state and one or more 49053 other states, the receipts described in this paragraph are 49054 included in the numerator of the sales factor if more than fifty 49055 per cent of the fair market value of the real property is located 49056 within this state. If more than fifty per cent of the fair market 49057 value of the real property is not located within any one state, 49058 then the receipts described in this paragraph shall be included in 49059 the numerator of the sales factor if the borrower is located in 49060

this state. 49061

(b) The determination of whether the real property securing a 49062 loan is located within this state shall be made as of the time the 49063 original agreement was made and any and all subsequent 49064 substitutions of collateral shall be disregarded. 49065

(5) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest and 49066 fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured 49067 by real property if the borrower is located in this state. 49068

(6) The numerator of the sales factor includes net gains from 49069 the sale of loans. Net gains from the sale of loans includes 49070 income recorded under the coupon stripping rules of section 1286 49071 of the Internal Revenue Code. 49072

(a) The amount of net gains, but not less than zero, from the 49073 sale of loans secured by real property included in the numerator 49074 is determined by multiplying such net gains by a fraction the 49075 numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the 49076 sales factor pursuant to division (F)(4) of this section and the 49077 denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or 49078 penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real 49079 property. 49080

(b) The amount of net gains, but not less than zero, from the 49081 sale of loans not secured by real property included in the 49082 numerator is determined by multiplying such net gains by a 49083 fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the 49084 numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(5) of this 49085 section and the denominator of which is the total amount of 49086 interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from 49087 loans not secured by real property. 49088

(7) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest and 49089 fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card 49090 receivables and receipts from fees charged to card holders, such 49091 as annual fees, if the billing address of the card holder is in 49092

this state. 49093

(8) The numerator of the sales factor includes net gains, but 49094 not less than zero, from the sale of credit card receivables 49095 multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount 49096 included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division 49097 (F)(7) of this section and the denominator of which is the 49098 taxpayer's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the 49099 nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged 49100 to card holders. 49101

(9) The numerator of the sales factor includes all credit 49102 card issuer's reimbursement fees multiplied by a fraction, the 49103 numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the 49104
sales factor pursuant to division (F)(7) of this section and the 49105 denominator of which is the taxpayer's total amount of interest 49106 and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card 49107 receivables and fees charged to card holders. 49108

(10) The numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from 49109 merchant discount if the commercial domicile of the merchant is in 49110 this state. Such receipts shall be computed net of any card holder 49111 charge backs, but shall not be reduced by any interchange 49112 transaction fees or by any issuer's reimbursement fees paid to 49113 another for charges made by its card holders. 49114

(11)(a)(i) The numerator of the sales factor includes loan 49115 servicing fees derived from loans secured by real property 49116 multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount 49117
included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division 49118 (F)(4) of this section and the denominator of which is the total 49119 amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest 49120 from loans secured by real property. 49121

(ii) The numerator of the sales factor includes loan 49122 servicing fees derived from loans not secured by real property 49123 multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount 49124

included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division 49125
(F)(5) of this section and the denominator of which is the total 49126 amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest 49127 from loans not secured by real property. 49128

(b) In circumstances in which the taxpayer receives loan 49129 servicing fees for servicing either the secured or the unsecured 49130 loans of another, the numerator of the sales factor shall include 49131 such fees if the borrower is located in this state. 49132

(12) The numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from 49133 services not otherwise apportioned under this section if the 49134 service is performed in this state. If the service is performed 49135 both within and without this state, the numerator of the sales 49136 factor includes receipts from services not otherwise apportioned 49137 under this section, if a greater proportion of the income 49138 producing activity is performed in this state based on cost of 49139 performance. 49140

(13)(a) Interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than 49141 zero, and other income from investment assets and activities and 49142 from trading assets and activities shall be included in the sales 49143 factor. Investment assets and activities and trading assets and 49144 activities include but are not limited to: investment securities; 49145 trading account assets; federal funds; securities purchased and 49146 sold under agreements to resell or repurchase; options; futures 49147 contracts; forward contracts; notional principal contracts such as 49148 swaps; equities; and foreign currency transactions. With respect 49149 to the investment and trading assets and activities described in 49150 divisions (F)(13)(a)(i) and (ii) of this section, the sales factor 49151 shall include the amounts described in such divisions. 49152

(i) The sales factor shall include the amount by which 49153 interest from federal funds sold and securities purchased under 49154 resale agreements exceeds interest expense on federal funds 49155 purchased and securities sold under repurchase agreements. 49156

(ii) The sales factor shall include the amount by which 49157 interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets 49158 and activities, including, but not limited to, assets and 49159 activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign 49160 currency transactions, exceed amounts paid in lieu of interest, 49161 amounts paid in lieu of dividends, and losses from such assets and 49162 activities. 49163

(b) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest, 49164 dividends, net gains, but not less than zero, and other income 49165 from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and 49166 activities described in division (F)(13)(a) of this section that 49167 are attributable to this state. 49168

(i) The amount of interest, other than interest described in 49169 division (F)(13)(b)(iv) of this section, dividends, other than 49170 dividends described in that division, net gains, but not less than 49171 zero, and other income from investment assets and activities in 49172
the investment account to be attributed to this state and included 49173 in the numerator is determined by multiplying all such income from 49174 such assets and activities by a fraction, the numerator of which 49175 is the average value of such assets which are properly assigned to 49176 a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state and 49177 the denominator of which is the average value of all such assets. 49178

(ii) The amount of interest from federal funds sold and 49179 purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements 49180
and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to 49181 this state and included in the numerator is determined by 49182 multiplying the amount described in division (F)(13)(a)(i) of this 49183 section from such funds and such securities by a fraction, the 49184 numerator of which is the average value of federal funds sold and 49185 securities purchased under agreements to resell which are properly 49186 assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within 49187 this state and the denominator of which is the average value of 49188 all such funds and such securities. 49189

(iii) The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other 49190 income from trading assets and activities, including but not 49191 limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the 49192 arbitrage book, and foreign currency transaction, but excluding 49193 amounts described in division (F)(13)(b)(i) or (ii) of this 49194 section, attributable to this state and included in the numerator 49195 is determined by multiplying the amount described in division 49196 (F)(13)(a)(ii) of this section by a fraction, the numerator of 49197 which is the average value of such trading assets which are 49198 properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer 49199 within this state and the denominator of which is the average 49200 value of all such assets. 49201

(iv) The amount of dividends received on the capital stock 49202 of, and the amount of interest received from loans and advances 49203 to, subsidiary corporations at least fifty-one per cent of whose 49204 common stock is owned by the reporting financial institution shall 49205 be allocated in and out of this state by the application of a 49206 ratio whose numerator is the sum of the net book value of the 49207 payor's real property owned in this state and the payor's tangible 49208 personal property owned in this state and whose denominator is the 49209 sum of the net book value of the payor's real property owned 49210 wherever located and the payor's tangible personal property owned 49211 wherever located. For purposes of calculating this ratio, the 49212 taxpayer shall determine net book value in accordance with 49213 generally accepted accounting principles. 49214

(v) For purposes of this division, average value shall be 49215 determined using the rules for determining the average value of 49216 tangible personal property set forth in division (D)(2) and (3) of 49217
this section. 49218

(c) In lieu of using the method set forth in division 49219
(F)(13)(b) of this section, the taxpayer may elect, or the tax 49220 commissioner may require in order to fairly represent the business 49221 activity of the taxpayer in this state, the use of the method set 49222 forth in division (F)(13)(c) of this section. 49223

(i) The amount of interest, other than interest described in 49224 division (F)(13)(b)(iv) of this section, dividends, other than 49225 dividends described in that division, net gains, but not less than 49226
zero, and other income from investment assets and activities in 49227
the investment account to be attributed to this state and included 49228
in the numerator is determined by multiplying all such income from 49229 such assets and activities by a fraction, the numerator of which 49230 is the gross income from such assets and activities which are 49231 properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer 49232 within this state, and the denominator of which is the gross 49233 income from all such assets and activities. 49234

(ii) The amount of interest from federal funds sold and 49235 purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements 49236
and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to 49237
this state and included in the numerator is determined by 49238 multiplying the amount described in division (F)(13)(a)(i) of this 49239 section from such funds and such securities by a fraction, the 49240 numerator of which is the gross income from such funds and such 49241 securities which are properly assigned to a regular place of 49242 business of the taxpayer within this state and the denominator of 49243 which is the gross income from all such funds and such securities. 49244

(iii) The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other 49245
income from trading assets and activities, including, but not 49246 limited to, assets and activities in the matched book, in the 49247 arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, but excluding 49248 amounts described in division (F)(13)(a)(i) or (ii) of this 49249 section, attributable to this state and included in the numerator, 49250

is determined by multiplying the amount described in division 49251 (F)(13)(a)(ii) of this section by a fraction, the numerator of 49252 which is the gross income from such trading assets and activities 49253 which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the 49254 taxpayer within this state and the denominator of which is the 49255 gross income from all such assets and activities. 49256

(iv) The amount of dividends received on the capital stock 49257
of, and the amount of interest received from loans and advances 49258
to, subsidiary corporations at least fifty-one per cent of whose 49259 common stock is owned by the reporting financial institution shall 49260 be allocated in and out of this state by the application of a 49261 ratio whose numerator is the sum of the net book value of the 49262 payor's real property owned in this state and the payor's tangible 49263 personal property owned in this state and whose denominator is the 49264 sum of the payor's real property owned wherever located and the 49265 payor's tangible personal property owned wherever located. For 49266 purposes of calculating this ratio, the taxpayer shall determine 49267 net book value in accordance with generally accepted accounting 49268 principles. 49269

(d) If the taxpayer elects or is required by the tax 49270 commissioner to use the method set forth in division (F)(13)(c) of 49271 this section, it shall use this method on all subsequent returns 49272 unless the taxpayer receives prior permission from the tax 49273 commissioner to use or the tax commissioner requires a different 49274 method. 49275

(e) The taxpayer shall have the burden of proving that an 49276 investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity was 49277 properly assigned to a regular place of business outside of this 49278 state by demonstrating that the day-to-day decisions regarding the 49279 asset or activity occurred at a regular place of business outside 49280 this state. Where the day-to-day decisions regarding an investment 49281 asset or activity or trading asset or activity occur at more than 49282 one regular place of business and one such regular place of 49283 business is in this state and one such regular place of business 49284 is outside this state such asset or activity shall be considered 49285 to be located at the regular place of business of the taxpayer 49286 where the investment or trading policies or guidelines with 49287 respect to the asset or activity are established. Unless the 49288 taxpayer demonstrates to the contrary, such policies and 49289 guidelines shall be presumed to be established at the commercial 49290 domicile of the taxpayer. 49291

(14) The numerator of the sales factor includes all other 49292 receipts if either: 49293

(a) The income-producing activity is performed solely in this 49294
state; or 49295

(b) The income-producing activity is performed both within 49296 and without this state and a greater proportion of the 49297 income-producing activity is performed within this state than in 49298 any other state, based on costs of performance. 49299

(G) A qualified institution may calculate the base upon which 49300 the fee provided for in division (D) of section 5733.06 ~~(D)~~ of the 49301 ~~revised code~~ Revised Code is determined for each of the tax years 49302 1998, 1999, 2000, ~~and 2001, 2002, and 2003~~ by multiplying the 49303 value of its issued and outstanding shares of stock determined 49304 under division (B) of this section by a single deposits fraction 49305 whose numerator is the deposits assigned to branches in this state 49306 and whose denominator is the deposits assigned to branches 49307 everywhere. Deposits shall be assigned to branches in the same 49308 manner in which the assignment is made for regulatory purposes. If 49309 the base calculated under this division is less than the base 49310 calculated under division (C) of this section, then the qualifying 49311 institution may elect to substitute the base calculated under this 49312 division for the base calculated under division (C) of this 49313 section. Such election may be made annually for each of the tax 49314 years 1998, 1999, 2000, ~~and~~ 2001, 2002, and 2003 on the corporate 49315 report. The election need not accompany the report; rather, the 49316 election may accompany a subsequently filed but timely application 49317 for refund, a subsequently filed but timely amended report, or a 49318 subsequently filed but timely petition for reassessment. The 49319 election is not irrevocable and it applies only to the specified 49320 tax year. Nothing in this division shall be construed to extend 49321 any statute of limitations set forth in this chapter 49322

(H) If the apportionment provisions of this section do not 49323 fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in 49324 this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax commissioner 49325 may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's 49326 business activity, if reasonable: 49327

(1) Separate accounting; 49328

(2) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors; 49329

(3) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which 49330 will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this 49331
state; or 49332

(4) The employment of any other method to effectuate an 49333 equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's value. 49334

Sec. 5733.06. The tax hereby charged each corporation subject 49335 to this chapter shall be the greater of the sum of divisions (A) 49336 and (B) of this section, after the reduction, if any, provided by 49337 division (J) of this section, or division (C) of this section, 49338 after the reduction, if any, provided by division (J) of this 49339 section, except that the tax hereby charged each financial 49340 institution subject to this chapter shall be the amount computed 49341 under division (D) of this section: 49342

(A) Except as set forth in division (F) of this section, five 49343 and one-tenth per cent upon the first fifty thousand dollars of 49344 the value of the taxpayer's issued and outstanding shares of stock 49345 as determined under division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised 49346

Code; 49347

(B) Except as set forth in division (F) of this section, 49348 eight and one-half per cent upon the value so determined in excess 49349 of fifty thousand dollars; or 49350

(C) Except as otherwise provided under division (G) of this 49351 section, four mills times that portion of the value of the issued 49352 and outstanding shares of stock as determined under division (C) 49353 of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code. For the purposes of 49354 division (C) of this section, division (C)(2) of section 5733.065, 49355 and division (C) of section 5733.066 of the Revised Code, the 49356 value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of a qualified 49357 holding company is zero. 49358

(D) The tax charged each financial institution subject to 49359 this chapter shall be that portion of the value of the issued and 49360 outstanding shares of stock as determined under division (A) of 49361 section 5733.05 of the Revised Code, multiplied by the following 49362 amounts: 49363

(1) For tax years prior to the 1999 tax year, fifteen mills; 49364

(2) For the 1999 tax year, fourteen mills; 49365

(3) For tax year 2000 and thereafter, thirteen mills. 49366

(E) No tax shall be charged from any corporation that has 49367 been adjudicated bankrupt, or for which a receiver has been 49368 appointed, or that has made a general assignment for the benefit 49369 of creditors, except for the portion of the then current tax year 49370 during which the tax commissioner finds such corporation had the 49371 power to exercise its corporate franchise unimpaired by such 49372 proceedings or act. The minimum payment for all corporations shall 49373 be fifty dollars. 49374

The tax charged to corporations under this chapter for the 49375 privilege of engaging in business in this state, which is an 49376 excise tax levied on the value of the issued and outstanding 49377 shares of stock, shall in no manner be construed as prohibiting or 49378 otherwise limiting the powers of municipal corporations, joint 49379 economic development zones created under section 715.691 of the 49380 Revised Code, and joint economic development districts created 49381 under section 715.70 or 715.71 or sections 715.72 to 715.81 of the 49382 Revised Code in this state to impose an income tax on the income 49383 of such corporations. 49384

(F) If two or more taxpayers satisfy the ownership or control 49385 requirements of division (A) of section 5733.052 of the Revised 49386 Code, each such taxpayer shall substitute "the taxpayer's pro-rata 49387 amount" for "fifty thousand dollars" in divisions (A) and (B) of 49388 this section. For purposes of this division, "the taxpayer's 49389 pro-rata amount" is an amount that, when added to the other such 49390 taxpayers' pro-rata amounts, does not exceed fifty thousand 49391 dollars. For the purpose of making that computation, the 49392 taxpayer's pro-rata amount shall not be less than zero. Nothing in 49393 this division derogates from or eliminates the requirement to make 49394 the alternative computation of tax under division (C) of this 49395
section. 49396

(G) The tax liability of any corporation under division (C) 49397 of this section shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand 49398
dollars. 49399

(H)(1) For the purposes of division (H) of this section, 49400
"exiting corporation" means a corporation that satisfies all of 49401 the following conditions: 49402

(a) The corporation had nexus with or in this state under the 49403 Constitution of the United States during any portion of a calendar 49404
year; 49405

(b) The corporation was not a corporation described in 49406 division (A) of section 5733.01 of the Revised Code on the first 49407 day of January immediately following that calendar year; 49408

(c) The corporation was not a financial institution on the 49409 first day of January immediately following that calendar year; 49410

(d) If the corporation was a transferor as defined in section 49411 5733.053 of the Revised Code, the corporation's transferee was not 49412 required to add to the transferee's net income the income of the 49413 transferor pursuant to division (B) of that section; 49414

(e) During any portion of that calendar year, or any portion 49415 of the immediately preceding calendar year, the corporation had 49416 net income that was not included in a report filed by the 49417 corporation or its transferee pursuant to section 5733.02, 49418 5733.021, 5733.03, 5733.031, or 5733.053 of the Revised Code; 49419

(f) The corporation would have been subject to the tax 49420 computed under divisions (A), (B), (C), (F), and (G) of this 49421 section if the corporation is assumed to be a corporation 49422 described in division (A) of section 5733.01 of the Revised Code 49423 on the first day of January immediately following the calendar 49424 year to which division (H)(1)(a) of this section refers. 49425

(2) For the purposes of division (H) of this section, 49426
"unreported net income" means net income that was not previously 49427 included in a report filed pursuant to section 5733.02, 5733.021, 49428 5733.03, 5733.031, or 5733.053 of the Revised Code and that was 49429 realized or recognized during the calendar year to which division 49430 (H)(1) of this section refers or the immediately preceding 49431 calendar year. 49432

(3) Each exiting corporation shall pay a tax computed by 49433 first allocating and apportioning the unreported net income 49434 pursuant to division (B) of section 5733.05 and section 5733.051 49435 and, if applicable, section 5733.052 of the Revised Code. The 49436 exiting corporation then shall compute the tax due on its 49437 unreported net income allocated and apportioned to this state by 49438 applying divisions (A), (B), and (F) of this section to that 49439 income. 49440

(4) Divisions (C) and (G) of this section, division (D)(2) of 49441 section 5733.065, and division (C) of section 5733.066 of the 49442 Revised Code do not apply to an exiting corporation, but exiting 49443 corporations are subject to every other provision of this chapter. 49444

(5) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 5733.01 or 49445 sections 5733.02, 5733.021, and 5733.03 of the Revised Code to the 49446 contrary, each exiting corporation shall report and pay the tax 49447 due under division (H) of this section on or before the 49448 thirty-first day of May immediately following the calendar year to 49449 which division (H)(1)(a) of this section refers. The exiting 49450 corporation shall file that report on the form most recently 49451 prescribed by the tax commissioner for the purposes of complying 49452 with sections 5733.02 and 5733.03 of the Revised Code. Upon 49453 request by the corporation, the tax commissioner may extend the 49454 date for filing the report. 49455

(6) If, on account of the application of section 5733.053 of 49456 the Revised Code, net income is subject to the tax imposed by 49457 divisions (A) and (B) of this section, such income shall not be 49458 subject to the tax imposed by division (H)(3) of this section. 49459

(7) The amendments made to division (H) of this section by 49460 Am. Sub. S.B. 287 of the 123rd general assembly do not apply to 49461 any transfer, as defined in section 5733.053 of the Revised Code, 49462 for which negotiations began prior to January 1, 2001, and that 49463 was commenced in and completed during calendar year 2001, unless 49464 the taxpayer makes an election prior to December 31, 2001, to 49465 apply those amendments. 49466

(8) The tax commissioner may adopt rules governing division 49467

(H) of this section. 49468

(I) Any reference in the Revised Code to "the tax imposed by 49469 section 5733.06 of the Revised Code" or "the tax due under section 49470 5733.06 of the Revised Code" includes the taxes imposed under 49471 sections 5733.065 and 5733.066 of the Revised Code. 49472

(J)(1) Division (J) of this section applies solely to a 49473 combined company. Section 5733.057 of the Revised Code shall apply 49474 when calculating the adjustments required by division (J) of this 49475
section. 49476

(2) Subject to division (J)(4) of this section, the total tax 49477 calculated in divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall be 49478 reduced by an amount calculated by multiplying such tax by a 49479 fraction, the numerator of which is the total taxable gross 49480 receipts attributed to providing public utility activity other 49481 than as an electric company under section 5727.03 of the Revised 49482 Code for the year upon which the taxable gross receipts are 49483 measured immediately preceding the tax year, and the denominator 49484 of which is the total gross receipts from all sources for the year 49485 upon which the taxable gross receipts are measured immediately 49486 preceding the tax year. Nothing herein shall be construed to 49487 exclude from the denominator any item of income described in 49488
section 5733.051 of the Revised Code. 49489

(3) Subject to division (J)(4) of this section, the total tax 49490 calculated in division (C) of this section shall be reduced by an 49491 amount calculated by multiplying such tax by the fraction 49492 described in division (J)(2) of this section. 49493

(4) In no event shall the reduction provided by division 49494
(J)(2) or (J)(3) of this section exceed the amount of the excise 49495 tax paid in accordance with section 5727.38 of the Revised Code, 49496 for the year upon which the taxable gross receipts are measured 49497 immediately preceding the tax year. 49498

Sec. 5733.12. (A) Four and two-tenths per cent of all 49499 payments received ~~by the treasurer of state~~ from the taxes imposed 49500 under sections 5733.06 and 5733.41 of the Revised Code shall be 49501 credited to the local government fund for distribution in 49502 accordance with section 5747.50 of the Revised Code, six-tenths of 49503 one per cent shall be credited to the local government revenue 49504 assistance fund for distribution in accordance with section 49505 5747.61 of the Revised Code, and ninety-five and two-tenths per 49506 cent shall be credited to the general revenue fund. 49507

(B) Except as otherwise provided under divisions (C) and (D) 49508 of this section, an application to refund to the corporation the 49509 amount of taxes imposed under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code 49510 that are overpaid, paid illegally or erroneously, or paid on any 49511 illegal, erroneous, or excessive assessment, with interest thereon 49512 as provided by section 5733.26 of the Revised Code, shall be filed 49513 with the tax commissioner, on the form prescribed by the 49514 commissioner, within three years from the date of the illegal, 49515 erroneous, or excessive payment of the tax, or within any 49516 additional period allowed by division (C)(2) of section 5733.031, 49517 division (D)(2) of section 5733.067, or division (A) of section 49518 the prescribed time, the director shall hold such a hearing at a 49802 location to be determined by the director. Within thirty days 49803 after the hearing is adjourned, the director shall issue a 49804 redetermination affirming, reversing, or modifying the denial or 49805 reduction of the tax credit and send notice of the redetermination 49806 to the applicant or taxpayer by certified mail, return receipt 49807 requested, and shall issue a notice of the redetermination to the 49808 tax commissioner or superintendent of insurance. If an applicant 49809

(2) A municipal corporation or a township from levying an 51199 additional excise tax not to exceed three per cent on such 51200

(A) of section 5739.024 of the Revised Code. 51205

section. 51223

(D) The levy of this tax on retail sales of recreation and 51224

Sec. 5739.024. (A)(1) A board of county commissioners may, by 51228 resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, levy 51229 an excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by 51230 which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient 51231 guests. The board shall establish all regulations necessary to 51232 provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The 51233 regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may 51234 provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for 51235 late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per 51236 cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest 51237 accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to 51238 section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. Except as ~~otherwise~~ provided 51239 in divisions (A)(2) and (3) of this section, the regulations shall 51240 provide, after deducting the real and actual costs of 51241 administering the tax, for the return to each municipal 51242 corporation or township that does not levy an excise tax on such 51243 transactions, a uniform percentage of the tax collected in the 51244 municipal corporation or in the unincorporated portion of the 51245 township from each such transaction, not to exceed thirty-three 51246 and one-third per cent. The remainder of the revenue arising from 51247 the tax shall be deposited in a separate fund and shall be spent 51248 solely to make contributions to the convention and visitors' 51249 bureau operating within the county, including a pledge and 51250 contribution of any portion of such remainder pursuant to an 51251 agreement authorized by section 307.695 of the Revised Code. 51252 Except as ~~otherwise~~ provided ~~under~~ in division (A)(2) or (3) of 51253 this section, on and after May 10, 1994, a board of county 51254 commissioners may not levy an excise tax pursuant to this division 51255 in any municipal corporation or township located wholly or partly 51256 within the county that has in effect an ordinance or resolution 51257 levying an excise tax pursuant to division (B) of this section. 51258

The board of a county that has levied a tax under division (C) of 51259 this section may, by resolution adopted within ninety days after 51260 July 15, 1985, by a majority of the members of the board, amend 51261 the resolution levying a tax under this division to provide for a 51262 portion of that tax to be pledged and contributed in accordance 51263 with an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the 51264 Revised Code. A tax, any revenue from which is pledged pursuant to 51265 such an agreement, shall remain in effect at the rate at which it 51266 is imposed for the duration of the period for which the revenue 51267 therefrom has been so pledged. 51268

(2) A board of county commissioners that levies an excise tax 51269 under division (A)(1) of this section on June 30, 1997, at a rate 51270 of three per cent, and that has pledged revenue from the tax to an 51271 agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code, 51272 may amend the resolution levying that tax to provide for an 51273 increase in the rate of the tax up to five per cent on each 51274 transaction; to provide that revenue from the increase in the rate 51275 shall be spent solely to make contributions to the convention and 51276 visitors' bureau operating within the county to be used 51277 specifically for promotion, advertising, and marketing of the 51278 region in which the county is located; to provide that the rate in excess of the three per cent levied under division (A)(1) of this section shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period during which any agreement is in effect that was entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code by the board of county commissioners levying a tax under division (A)(1) of this section; and to provide that no portion of that revenue need be returned to townships or municipal corporations as would otherwise be required under division (A)(1) of this section.

(3) A board of county commissioners that levies a tax under division (A)(1) of this section on March 18, 1999, at a rate of three per cent may, by resolution adopted not later than forty-five days after March 18, 1999, amend the resolution levying the tax to provide for all of the following:

(a) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional four per cent on each transaction;

(b) That all of the revenue from the increase in rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before November 15, 1998, and used to pay costs of constructing, maintaining, operating, and promoting a facility in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(c) That no portion of the revenue arising from the increase in rate need be returned to municipal corporations or townships as otherwise required under division (A)(1) of this section;

(d) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under

Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged 51310 remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless 51311 provision is made by law or by the board of county commissioners 51312 for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the 51313 trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds. 51314

Division (A)(3) of this section does not apply to the board 51315 of county commissioners of any county in which a convention center 51316 or facility exists or is being constructed on November 15, 1998, 51317 or of any county in which a convention facilities authority levies 51318 a tax pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code on that 51319
date. 51320

As used in division (A)(3) of this section, "costs" and 51321
"facility" have the same meanings as in section 351.01 of the 51322 Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in 51323
section 307.695 of the Revised Code. 51324

(B) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation or 51325 the board of trustees of a township that is not wholly or partly 51326 located in a county that has in effect a resolution levying an 51327 excise tax pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section may by 51328 ordinance or resolution levy an excise tax not to exceed three per 51329 cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be 51330 furnished to transient guests. The legislative authority of the 51331 municipal corporation or township shall deposit at least fifty per 51332 cent of the revenue from the tax levied pursuant to this division 51333 into a separate fund, which shall be spent solely to make 51334 contributions to convention and visitors' bureaus operating within 51335 the county in which the municipal corporation or township is 51336 wholly or partly located, and the balance of such revenue shall be 51337 deposited in the general fund. The municipal corporation or 51338 township shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for 51339 the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may 51340 prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the 51341 imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, 51342 provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the 51343 amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not 51344 exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 51345 of the Revised Code. The levy of a tax under this division is in 51346 addition to any tax imposed on the same transaction by a municipal 51347 corporation or a township as authorized by division (C)(1) of 51348

section 5739.02 of the Revised Code. 51349

(C) For the purpose of making the payments authorized by 51350 section 307.695 of the Revised Code to construct and equip a 51351 convention center in the county and to cover the costs of 51352 administering the tax, a board of county commissioners of a county 51353 where a tax imposed under division (A)(1) of this section is in 51354 effect may, by resolution adopted within ninety days after July 51355 15, 1985, by a majority of the members of the board, levy an 51356 additional excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions 51357 by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient 51358 guests. The tax authorized by this division shall be in addition 51359 to any tax that is levied pursuant to division (A) of this 51360 section, but it shall not apply to transactions subject to a tax 51361 levied by a municipal corporation or township pursuant to the 51362 authorization granted by division (C)(1) of section 5739.02 of the 51363 Revised Code. The board shall establish all regulations necessary 51364 to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The 51365 regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may 51366 provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for 51367 late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per 51368 cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest 51369 accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to 51370 section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the 51371 tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.695 of the 51372 Revised Code. A tax imposed under this section shall remain in 51373 effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the 51374 period for which the revenue therefrom has been pledged pursuant 51375 to such section. 51376

(D) For the purpose of providing contributions under division 51377
(B)(1) of section 307.671 of the Revised Code to enable the 51378 acquisition, construction, and equipping of a port authority 51379 educational and cultural facility in the county and, to the extent 51380 provided for in the cooperative agreement authorized by that 51381 section, for the purpose of paying debt service charges on bonds, 51382 or notes in anticipation thereof, described in division (B)(1)(b) 51383 of that section, a board of county commissioners, by resolution 51384 adopted within ninety days after December 22, 1992, by a majority 51385 of the members of the board, may levy an additional excise tax not 51386 to exceed one and one-half per cent on transactions by which 51387 lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. 51388
The excise tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to 51389 any tax that is levied pursuant to divisions (A), (B), and (C) of 51390 this section, to any excise tax levied pursuant to division (C) of 51391 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, and to any excise tax levied 51392 pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code. The board of 51393 county commissioners shall establish all regulations necessary to 51394 provide for the administration and allocation of the tax that are 51395 not inconsistent with this section or section 307.671 of the 51396 Revised Code. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment 51397 of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or 51398 interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty 51399 does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the 51400 rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum 51401 prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All 51402 revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with 51403 section 307.671 of the Revised Code and division (D) of this 51404 section. The levy of a tax imposed under this section may not 51405 commence prior to the first day of the month next following the 51406 execution of the cooperative agreement authorized by section 51407

307.671 of the Revised Code by all parties to that agreement. Such 51408 tax shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for 51409 the period of time described in division (C) of section 307.671 of 51410 the Revised Code for which the revenue from the tax has been 51411 pledged by the county to the corporation pursuant to such section, 51412 but, to any extent provided for in the cooperative agreement, for 51413 no lesser period than the period of time required for payment of 51414 the debt service charges on bonds, or notes in anticipation 51415 thereof, described in division (B)(1)(b) of that section. 51416

(E) For the purpose of paying the costs of acquiring, 51417 constructing, equipping, and improving a municipal educational and 51418 cultural facility, including debt service charges on bonds 51419 provided for in division (B) of section 307.672 of the Revised 51420 Code, and for such additional purposes as are determined by the 51421 county in the resolution levying the tax or amendments thereto, 51422 including subsequent amendments providing for paying costs of 51423 acquiring, constructing, renovating, rehabilitating, equipping, 51424 and improving a port authority educational and cultural performing 51425 arts facility, as defined in section 307.674 of the Revised Code, 51426 including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division 51427 (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code, the legislative 51428 authority of a county, by resolution adopted within ninety days 51429 after June 30, 1993, by a majority of the members of the 51430 legislative authority, may levy an additional excise tax not to 51431 exceed one and one-half per cent on transactions by which lodging 51432 by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The 51433 excise tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any 51434 tax that is levied pursuant to divisions (A), (B), (C), and (D) of 51435
this section, to any excise tax levied pursuant to division (C) of 51436 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, and to any excise tax levied 51437 pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code. The legislative 51438 authority of the county shall establish all regulations necessary 51439 to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The 51440 regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may 51441

provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for 51442
late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per 51443 cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest 51444 accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to 51445 section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the 51446 tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.672 of the 51447 Revised Code and division (E) of this section. The levy of a tax 51448 imposed under this division shall not commence prior to the first 51449 day of the month next following the execution of the cooperative 51450 agreement authorized by section 307.672 of the Revised Code by all 51451 parties to that agreement. Such tax shall remain in effect at the 51452 rate at which it is imposed for the period of time determined by 51453 the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed fifteen 51454 years. 51455

(F) The legislative authority of a county that has levied a 51456 tax under division (E) of this section may, by resolution adopted 51457 within one hundred eighty days after ~~the effective date of this~~ 51458 ~~amendment~~ January 4, 2001, by a majority of the members of the 51459 legislative authority, amend the resolution levying a tax under 51460 division (E) of this section to provide for the use of the 51461 proceeds of that tax, to the extent that it is no longer needed 51462 for its original purpose as determined by the parties to a 51463 cooperative agreement amendment pursuant to division (D) of 51464 section 307.672 of the Revised Code, to pay costs of acquiring, 51465 constructing, renovating, rehabilitating, equipping, and improving 51466 a port authority educational and cultural performing arts 51467 facility, including debt service charges on bonds provided for in 51468 division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code, and to pay 51469 all obligations under any guaranty agreements, reimbursement 51470 agreements, or other credit enhancement agreements described in 51471 division (C) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code. The 51472 resolution may also provide for the extension of the tax at the 51473 same rate for the longer of the period of time determined by the 51474 legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed an 51475 additional twenty-five years, or the period of time required to 51476 pay all debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) 51477 of section 307.672 of the Revised Code and on port authority 51478 revenue bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of 51479 the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the amendment and 51480 extension of the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 51481 307.674 of the Revised Code and divisions (E) and (F) of this 51482

section. 51483

(G) For purposes of a tax levied by a county, township, or 51484 municipal corporation under this section or division (C) of 51485 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, a board of county 51486 commissioners, board of township trustees, or the legislative 51487 authority of a municipal corporation may adopt a resolution or 51488 ordinance at any time specifying that "hotel," as otherwise 51489 defined in section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, includes 51490 establishments in which fewer than five rooms are used for the 51491 accommodation of guests. The resolution or ordinance may apply to 51492 a tax imposed pursuant to this section prior to the adoption of 51493 the resolution or ordinance if the resolution or ordinance so 51494 states, but the tax shall not apply to transactions by which 51495 lodging by such an establishment is provided to transient guests 51496 prior to the adoption of the resolution or ordinance. 51497

Sec. 5739.032. (A) If the total amount of tax required to be 51498 paid by a permit holder under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code 51499 for any calendar year indicated in the following schedule equals 51500 or exceeds the amounts prescribed for that year in the schedule, 51501 the permit holder shall remit each monthly tax payment in the 51502 second ensuing and each succeeding year by electronic funds 51503 transfer as prescribed by division (B) of this section. 51504

Year	1992	1993 through 1999	2000 and thereafter	51505
------	------	-------------------	---------------------	-------

Tax payment $1,200,000 $600,000 $60,000 51506

 If a permit holder's tax payment for each of two consecutive 51507 years beginning with 2000 is less than sixty thousand dollars, the 51508 permit holder is relieved of the requirement to remit taxes by 51509 electronic funds transfer for the year that next follows the 51510 second of the consecutive years in which the tax payment is less 51511 than sixty thousand dollars, and is relieved of that requirement 51512 for each succeeding year unless the tax payment in a subsequent 51513 year equals or exceeds sixty thousand dollars. 51514

 The tax commissioner shall notify each permit holder required 51515 to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer of the permit holder's 51516 obligation to do so, shall maintain an updated list of those 51517 permit holders, and shall timely certify the list and any 51518 additions thereto or deletions therefrom to the treasurer of 51519 state. Failure by the tax commissioner to notify a permit holder 51520 subject to this section to remit taxes by electronic funds 51521 transfer does not relieve the permit holder of its obligation to 51522 remit taxes by electronic funds transfer. 51523

 (B) Permit holders required by division (A) of this section 51524 to remit payments by electronic funds transfer shall remit such 51525 payments to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by 51526 rules adopted by the treasurer under section 113.061 of the 51527 Revised Code and on or before the dates specified under section 51528 5739.031 of the Revised Code. The payment of taxes by electronic 51529 funds transfer does not affect a permit holder's obligation to 51530 file the monthly return as required under section 5739.031 of the 51531
Revised Code. 51532

 A permit holder required by this section to remit taxes by 51533 electronic funds transfer may apply to the treasurer of state in 51534 the manner prescribed by the treasurer to be excused from that 51535 requirement. The treasurer of state may excuse the permit holder 51536 from remittance by electronic funds transfer for good cause shown 51537 for the period of time requested by the permit holder or for a portion of that period. The treasurer shall notify the tax commissioner and the permit holder of the treasurer's decision as soon as is practicable.

51539
51540
51541

(C) If a permit holder required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer remits those taxes by some means other than by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by this section and the rules adopted by the treasurer of state, and the ~~treasurer~~ tax commissioner determines that such failure was not due to reasonable cause or was due to willful neglect, the ~~treasurer shall notify the tax commissioner of the failure to~~ ~~remit by electronic funds transfer and shall provide the~~ ~~commissioner with any information used in making that~~ ~~determination.~~ The tax commissioner may collect an additional charge by assessment in the manner prescribed by section 5739.13 of the Revised Code. The additional charge shall equal five per cent of the amount of the taxes required to be paid by electronic funds transfer, but shall not exceed five thousand dollars. Any additional charge assessed under this section is in addition to any other penalty or charge imposed under this chapter, and shall be considered as revenue arising from taxes imposed under this chapter. The tax commissioner may remit all or a portion of such a charge and may adopt rules governing such remission.

No additional charge shall be assessed under this division against a permit holder that has been notified of its obligation to remit taxes under this section and that remits its first two tax payments after such notification by some means other than electronic funds transfer. The additional charge may be assessed upon the remittance of any subsequent tax payment that the permit

Sec. 5739.07. (A) The tax commissioner shall refund to vendors the amount of taxes paid illegally or erroneously or paid 51569 on any illegal or erroneous assessment if the vendor has not been 51570 reimbursed from the consumer. When the illegal or erroneous 51571 payment or assessment was not paid to a vendor but was paid by the 51572 consumer directly to the treasurer of state ~~or~~, an agent of the 51573 treasurer of state, the tax commissioner, or an agent of the tax 51574 commissioner, the tax commissioner shall refund to the consumer. 51575

When a refund is granted for payment of an illegal or erroneous 51576 assessment issued by the department, the refund shall include 51577 interest as provided by section 5739.132 of the Revised Code. 51578

(B) The tax commissioner may make a refund to the consumer of 51579 taxes paid illegally or erroneously if the tax has not been 51580 refunded to the vendor and any of the following circumstances 51581 apply: 51582

(1) The consumer is unable to receive a refund from the 51583 vendor because the vendor has ceased business; 51584

(2) The vendor is unable to issue a refund because of 51585 bankruptcy or similar financial condition; 51586

(3) The consumer receives a refund of the full price paid to 51587 the vendor from a manufacturer or other person, other than the 51588 vendor, as a settlement for a complaint by the consumer about the 51589 property or service purchased. 51590

(C) Applications for refund shall be filed with the tax 51591 commissioner, on the form prescribed by the tax commissioner, 51592 within four years from the date of the illegal or erroneous 51593 payment of the tax, unless the vendor or consumer waives the time 51594 limitation under division (A)(3) of section 5739.16 of the Revised 51595 Code. If the time limitation is waived, the four-year refund 51596 limitation shall be extended for the same period of time as the 51597 waiver. On the filing of an application for refund, the 51598 commissioner shall determine the amount of refund due and certify 51599 that amount to the director of budget and management and treasurer 51600 of state for payment from the tax refund fund created by section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. 51601

remit all or a portion of the charge. 51634

Sec. 5739.12. Each person who has or is required to have a 51635 vendor's license, on or before the twenty-third day of each month, 51636 shall make and file a return for the preceding month, on forms 51637 prescribed by the tax commissioner, and shall pay the tax shown on 51638 the return to be due. The return shall show the amount of tax due 51639 from the vendor to the state for the period covered by the return 51640 and such other information as the commissioner deems necessary for 51641 the proper administration of this chapter. The commissioner may 51642 extend the time for making and filing returns and paying the tax, 51643 and may require that the return for the last month of any annual 51644 or semiannual period, as determined by the commissioner, be a 51645 reconciliation return detailing the vendor's sales activity for 51646 the preceding annual or semiannual period. The reconciliation 51647 return shall be filed by the last day of the month following the 51648 last month of the annual or semiannual period. The commissioner 51649 may remit all or any part of amounts or penalties which may become 51650 due under this chapter and may adopt rules relating thereto. Such 51651 return shall be filed by mailing ~~the same~~ it to the ~~treasurer of~~ 51652 ~~state tax commissioner~~, together with payment of the amount of tax 51653 shown to be due thereon after deduction of any discount provided 51654 for under this section. Remittance shall be made payable to the 51655 treasurer of state. The return shall be considered filed when 51656 received by the ~~treasurer of state tax commissioner~~, and the 51657 payment shall be considered made when received by the ~~treasurer of~~ 51658 ~~state tax commissioner~~ or when credited to an account designated 51659 by the treasurer of state or the tax commissioner. If the return 51660 is filed and the amount of tax shown thereon to be due is paid on 51661 or before the date such return is required to be filed, the vendor 51662 shall be entitled to a discount of three-fourths of one per cent 51663 of the amount shown to be due on the return. Amounts paid to the clerk of courts pursuant to section 4505.06 of the Revised Code shall be subject to the three-fourths of one per cent discount. The discount shall be in consideration for prompt payment to the clerk of courts and for other services performed by the vendor in the collection of the tax.

The commissioner may authorize vendors whose tax liability is not such as to merit monthly returns, as ~~determined~~ ascertained by the commissioner upon the basis of administrative costs to the state, to make and file returns at less frequent intervals. When returns are filed at less frequent intervals in accordance with such ~~a determination~~ authorization, the vendor shall be allowed the discount of three-fourths of one per cent in consideration for prompt payment with the return, provided the return is filed together with payment of the amount of tax shown to be due thereon, at the time specified by the commissioner.

~~The treasurer of state shall stamp or otherwise mark on all returns the date received by the treasurer of state and shall also show thereon by stamp or otherwise the amount of payment received for the period for which the return is filed. Thereafter, the treasurer of state shall immediately transmit all returns filed under this section to the commissioner. Any vendor who fails to file a return or pay the full amount of the tax shown on the return to be due under this section and the rules of the commissioner may, for each such return the vendor fails to file or each such tax the vendor fails to pay in full as shown on the return within the period prescribed by this section and the rules of the commissioner, be required to forfeit and pay into the state treasury an additional charge not exceeding fifty dollars or ten per cent of the tax required to be paid for the reporting period, whichever is greater, as revenue arising from the tax imposed by this chapter, and such sum may be collected by assessment in the manner provided in section 5739.13 of the Revised Code. The commissioner may remit all or a portion of the additional charge and may adopt rules relating to the imposition and remission of the additional charge.~~

If the amount required to be collected by a vendor from consumers is in excess of five per cent of the vendor's receipts from sales which are taxable under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, or in the case of sales subject to a tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, in excess of the percentage equal to the aggregate rate of such taxes and the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, such excess shall be remitted along with the remittance of the amount of tax due under section 5739.10 of the Revised Code.

The commissioner, if the commissioner deems it necessary in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, may require returns and payments to be made for other than monthly periods. The returns shall be signed by the vendor or the vendor's authorized agent.

Any vendor required to file a return and pay the tax under this section whose total payment in any year indicated in division (A) of section 5739.122 of the Revised Code equals or exceeds the amount shown in that division shall make each payment required by this section in the second ensuing and each succeeding year by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by section 5739.122 of the Revised Code, except as otherwise prescribed by that section.

Sec. 5739.121. As used in this section, "bad debt" means any debt that has become worthless or uncollectible in the time period between a vendor's preceding return and the present return, have been uncollected for at least six months, and that may be claimed as a deduction pursuant to the "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," 68A Stat. 50, 26 U.S.C. 166, as amended, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or that could be claimed as such a deduction if the vendor kept accounts on an accrual basis. "Bad debt" does not include any interest or sales tax on the purchase price, uncollectible amounts on property that remains in the possession of the vendor until the full purchase price is paid, expenses incurred in attempting to collect any account receivable or for any portion of the debt recovered, any accounts receivable that 51760 have been sold to a third party for collection, and repossessed 51761

property. 51762

In computing taxable receipts for purposes of this chapter, a 51763 vendor may deduct the amount of bad debts, as defined in this 51764 section. The amount deducted must be charged off as uncollectible 51765 on the books of the vendor. A deduction may be claimed only with 51766 respect to bad debts on which the taxes pursuant to sections 51767 5739.10 and 5739.12 of the Revised Code were paid in a preceding 51768 tax period. If the vendor's business consists of taxable and 51769 nontaxable transactions, the deduction shall equal the full amount 51770 of the debt if the debt is documented as a taxable transaction in 51771 the vendor's records. If no such documentation is available, the 51772 maximum deduction on any bad debt shall equal the amount of the 51773 bad debt multiplied by the quotient obtained by dividing the sales 51774 taxed pursuant to this chapter during the preceding calendar year 51775 by all sales during the preceding calendar year, whether taxed or 51776 not. If a consumer or other person pays all or part of a bad debt 51777 with respect to which a vendor claimed a deduction under this 51778 section, the vendor shall be liable for the amount of taxes 51779 deducted in connection with that portion of the debt for which 51780 payment is received and shall remit such taxes in ~~his~~ the vendor's 51781 next payment to the ~~treasurer of state~~ tax commissioner. 51782

Any claim for a bad debt deduction under this section shall 51783 be supported by such evidence as the tax commissioner by rule 51784 requires. The commissioner shall review any change in the rate of 51785 taxation applicable to any taxable sales by a vendor claiming a 51786 deduction pursuant to this section and adopt rules for altering 51787 the deduction in the event of such a change in order to ensure 51788 that the deduction on any bad debt does not result in the vendor 51789 claiming the deduction recovering any more or less than the taxes 51790 imposed on the sale that constitutes the bad debt. 51791

Sec. 5739.13. (A) If any vendor collects the tax imposed by 51792 or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of 51793 the Revised Code, and fails to remit the tax to the state as 51794 prescribed, or on the sale of a motor vehicle, watercraft, or 51795 outboard motor required to be titled, fails to remit payment to a 51796 clerk of a court of common pleas as provided in section 1548.06 or 51797 4505.06 of the Revised Code, the vendor shall be personally liable 51798 for any tax collected and not remitted. The tax commissioner may 51799 make an assessment against such vendor based upon any information 51800 in the commissioner's possession. 51801

If any vendor fails to collect the tax or any consumer fails 51802 to pay the tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 51803 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, on any 51804 transaction subject to the tax, the vendor or consumer shall be 51805 personally liable for the amount of the tax applicable to the 51806 transaction. The commissioner may make an assessment against 51807 either the vendor or consumer, as the facts may require, based 51808 upon any information in the commissioner's possession. 51809

An assessment against a vendor when the tax imposed by or 51810 pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of 51811 the Revised Code has not been collected or paid, shall not 51812 discharge the purchaser's or consumer's liability to reimburse the 51813 vendor for the tax applicable to such transaction. 51814

An assessment issued against either, pursuant to this 51815 section, shall not be considered an election of remedies, nor a 51816 bar to an assessment against the other for the tax applicable to 51817 the same transaction, provided that no assessment shall be issued 51818 against any person for the tax due on a particular transaction if 51819 the tax on that transaction actually has been paid by another. 51820

The commissioner may make an assessment against any vendor 51821 who fails to file a return or remit the proper amount of tax 51822 required by this chapter, or against any consumer who fails to pay 51823 the proper amount of tax required by this chapter. When 51824 information in the possession of the commissioner indicates that 51825 the amount required to be collected or paid under this chapter is 51826 greater than the amount remitted by the vendor or paid by the 51827 consumer, the commissioner may audit a sample of the vendor's 51828 sales or the consumer's purchases for a representative period, to 51829 ascertain the per cent of exempt or taxable transactions or the 51830 effective tax rate and may issue an assessment based on the audit. 51831

The commissioner shall make a good faith effort to reach agreement 51832 with the vendor or consumer in selecting a representative sample 51833 period. 51834

The tax commissioner may make an assessment, based on any 51835 information in his possession, against any person who fails to 51836 file a return or remit the proper amount of tax required by 51837
section 5739.102 of the Revised Code. 51838

The tax commissioner may issue an assessment on any 51839 transaction for which any tax imposed under this chapter or 51840 Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code was due and unpaid on the date 51841 the vendor or consumer was informed by an agent of the tax 51842 commissioner of an investigation or audit. If the vendor or 51843 consumer remits any payment of the tax for the period covered by 51844 the assessment after the vendor or consumer was informed of the 51845 investigation or audit, the payment shall be credited against the 51846 amount of the assessment. 51847

The commissioner shall give the party assessed written notice 51848 of the assessment as provided in section 5703.37 of the Revised 51849
Code. 51850

(B) Unless the party to whom the notice of assessment is 51851 directed files with the commissioner within sixty days after 51852 service of the notice of assessment, either personally or by 51853 certified mail, a petition for reassessment in writing, signed by 51854 the party assessed, or by the party's authorized agent having 51855 knowledge of the facts, the assessment shall become final and the 51856 amount of the assessment shall be due ~~and payable~~ from the party 51857 assessed and payable to the treasurer of state and remitted to the 51858 tax commissioner. The petition shall indicate the objections of 51859 the party assessed, but additional objections may be raised in 51860 writing if received prior to the date shown on the final 51861 determination by the commissioner. 51862

Unless the petitioner waives a hearing, the commissioner 51863 shall assign a time and place for the hearing on the petition and 51864 notify the petitioner of the time and place of the hearing by 51865 personal service or certified mail, but the commissioner may 51866 continue the hearing from time to time if necessary. 51867

The commissioner may make such correction to the assessment 51868 as the commissioner finds proper. The commissioner shall serve a 51869 copy of the commissioner's final determination on the petitioner 51870 by personal service or certified mail, and the commissioner's 51871 decision in the matter shall be final, subject to appeal as 51872 provided in section 5717.02 of the Revised Code. Only objections 51873 decided on the merits by the board of tax appeals or a court shall 51874 be given collateral estoppel or res judicata effect in considering 51875 an application for refund of amounts paid pursuant to the 51876 assessment. 51877

(C) After an assessment becomes final, if any portion of the 51878 assessment remains unpaid, including accrued interest, a certified 51879 copy of the commissioner's entry making the assessment final may 51880 be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas 51881 in the county in which the place of business of the party assessed 51882 is located or the county in which the party assessed resides. If 51883 the party assessed maintains no place of business in this state 51884 and is not a resident of this state, the certified copy of the 51885 entry may be filed in the office of the clerk of the court of 51886 common pleas of Franklin county.

The clerk, immediately upon the filing of such entry, shall enter a judgment for the state against the party assessed in the amount shown on the entry. The judgment may be filed by the clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "special judgments for state, county, and transit authority retail sales tax" or, if appropriate, "special judgments for resort area excise tax," and shall have the same effect as other judgments. Execution shall issue upon the judgment upon the request of the tax commissioner, and all laws applicable to sales on execution shall apply to sales made under the judgment except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Sec. 5741.10. The tax commissioner shall refund to sellers 51922 the amount of tax levied pursuant to section 5741.02, 5741.021, 51923 5741.022, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code paid on any illegal or 51924 erroneous payment or assessment, where the seller has reimbursed 51925 the consumer. When such payment or assessment was not paid to a 51926 seller, but was paid by the consumer directly to the treasurer of 51927 state, ~~or the treasurer of state's agent, by the consumer~~ 51928 commissioner, or the commissioner's agent, the treasurer of state 51929 shall make refund to the consumer. When such a refund is granted, 51930 it shall include interest thereon as provided by section 5739.132 51931 of the Revised Code. Applications for refund shall be filed with 51932 the tax commissioner, on the form prescribed by the commissioner, 51933 within four years from the date of the illegal or erroneous 51934 payment of the tax except where the vendor or consumer waives the 51935 time limitation under division (C) of section 5741.16 of the 51936 Revised Code, in which case the four-year refund limitation shall 51937 be extended for the same period of time as the waiver. On filing 51938 such application, the commissioner shall determine the amount of 51939 refund due and shall certify such amount to the director of budget 51940 and management and treasurer of state for payment from the tax 51941 refund fund created by section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. 51942

Sec. 5741.12. (A) Each seller required by section 5741.17 of 51943 the Revised Code to register with the tax commissioner, and any 51944 seller authorized by the commissioner to collect the tax imposed 51945 by or pursuant to section 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, or 5741.023 51946 of the Revised Code is subject to the same requirements and 51947 entitled to the same deductions and discount for prompt payments 51948 as are vendors under section 5739.12 of the Revised Code. The 51949 powers and duties of the commissioner and the treasurer of state 51950 with respect to returns and tax remittances under this section 51951 shall be identical with those prescribed in section 5739.12 of the 51952

Revised Code. 51953

(B) Every person storing, using, or consuming tangible 51954 personal property or receiving the benefit of a service, the 51955 storage, use, consumption, or receipt of which is subject to the 51956 tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, 51957 or 5741.023 of the Revised Code, when such tax was not paid to a 51958 seller, shall, on or before the twenty-third day of each month, 51959 file with the ~~treasurer of state~~ tax commissioner a return for the 51960 preceding month in such form as is prescribed by the commissioner, 51961 showing such information as the commissioner deems necessary, and 51962 shall pay the tax shown on the return to be due. Remittance shall 51963 be made payable to the treasurer of state. The commissioner may 51964 require consumers to file returns and pay the tax at other than 51965 monthly intervals, if ~~he~~ the commissioner determines that such 51966 filing is necessary for the efficient administration of the tax. 51967
If the commissioner determines that a consumer's tax liability is 51968 not such as to merit monthly filing, the commissioner may 51969 authorize the consumer to file returns and pay tax at less 51970 frequent intervals. ~~The treasurer of state shall show on the~~ 51971 water system and the private, auxiliary, or emergency water 52405 system. 52406

As used in this section: 52407

(A) "Backflow prevention device" means any device, method, or 52408 type of construction that is intended to prevent backflow into a 52409 potable water sytem. 52410

(B) "Physical separation" means that there is no direct or 52411 indirect connection between a public water system and a private, 52412 auxiliary, or emergency water system. 52413

Sec. 6109.21. (A) Except as provided in divisions (D) and (E) 52414 of this section, on and after January 1, 1994, no person shall 52415 operate or maintain a public water system in this state without a license issued by the director of environmental protection. A person who operates or maintains a public water system on January 1, 1994, shall obtain an initial license under this section in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) If the public water system is a community water system, not later than January 31, 1994;

(2) If the public water system is not a community water system and serves a nontransient population, not later than January 31, 1994;

(3) If the public water system is not a community water system and serves a transient population, not later than January 31, 1995.

A person proposing to operate or maintain a new public water system after January 1, 1994, in addition to complying with section 6109.07 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it, shall submit an application for an initial license under this section to the director prior to commencing operation of the system.

A license or license renewal issued under this section shall be renewed annually. Such a license or license renewal shall expire on the thirtieth day of January in the year following its issuance. A license holder that proposes to continue operating the public water system for which the license or license renewal was issued shall apply for a license renewal at least thirty days prior to that expiration date.

The director shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing procedures governing and information to be included on applications for licenses and license renewals under this section. Through June 30, ~~2002~~ 2004, each application shall be accompanied by the appropriate fee established under division (M) of section 52447 3745.11 of the Revised Code, provided that an applicant for an 52448 initial license who is proposing to operate or maintain a new 52449 public water system after January 1, 1994, shall submit a fee that 52450 equals a prorated amount of the appropriate fee established under 52451 that division for the remainder of the licensing year. 52452

(B) Not later than thirty days after receiving a completed 52453 application and the appropriate license fee for an initial license 52454 under division (A) of this section, the director shall issue the 52455 license for the public water system. Not later than thirty days 52456 after receiving a completed application and the appropriate 52457 license fee for a license renewal under division (A) of this 52458 section, the director shall do one of the following: 52459

(1) Issue the license renewal for the public water system; 52460

(2) Issue the license renewal subject to terms and conditions 52461 that the director determines are necessary to ensure compliance 52462 with this chapter and rules adopted under it; 52463

(3) Deny the license renewal if the director finds that the 52464 public water system was not operated in substantial compliance 52465
with this chapter and rules adopted under it. 52466

(C) The director may suspend or revoke a license or license 52467 renewal issued under this section if the director finds that the 52468 public water system was not operated in substantial compliance 52469 with this chapter and rules adopted under it. The director shall 52470 adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in accordance with Chapter 52471 119. of the Revised Code governing such suspensions and 52472 revocations. 52473

(D)(1) As used in division (D) of this section, "church" 52474 means a fellowship of believers, congregation, society, 52475 corporation, convention, or association that is formed primarily 52476 or exclusively for religious purposes and that is not formed or 52477 operated for the private profit of any person. 52478

(2) This section does not apply to a church that operates or 52479 maintains a public water system solely to provide water for that 52480 church or for a campground that is owned by the church and 52481 operated primarily or exclusively for members of the church and 52482 their families. A church that, on or before March 5, 1996, has 52483 obtained a license under this section for such a public water 52484 system need not obtain a license renewal under this section. 52485

(E) This section does not apply to any public or nonpublic 52486 school that meets minimum standards of the state board of 52487 education that operates or maintains a public water system solely 52488 to provide water for that school. 52489

Sec. 6111.035. (A) The director of environmental protection, 52490 consistent with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and the 52491 regulations adopted thereunder, without application therefor, may 52492 issue, modify, revoke, or terminate a general permit under this 52493 chapter for both of the following: 52494

(1) Discharge of stormwater; the discharge of liquids, 52495 sediments, solids, or water-borne mining related waste, such as, 52496 but not limited to, acids, metallic cations, or their salts, from 52497 coal mining and reclamation operations as defined in section 52498 1513.01 of the Revised Code; or treatment works whose discharge 52499 would have de minimis impact on the waters of the state receiving 52500
the discharge; 52501

(2) Installation or modification of disposal systems or any 52502 parts thereof, including disposal systems for stormwater or for 52503 coal mining and reclamation operations as defined in section 52504
1513.01 of the Revised Code. 52505

A general permit shall apply to a class or category of 52506 discharges or disposal systems or to persons conducting similar 52507 activities, within any area of the state, including the entire 52508

state. 52509

A general permit shall not be issued unless the director 52510 determines that the discharges authorized by the permit will have 52511 only minimal cumulative adverse effects on the environment when 52512 the discharges are considered collectively and individually and 52513 if, in the opinion of the director, the discharges, installations, 52514 or modifications authorized by the permit are more appropriately 52515 authorized by a general permit than by an individual permit. 52516

A general permit shall be issued subject to applicable 52517 mandatory provisions and may be issued subject to any applicable 52518 permissive provision of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act 52519 and the regulations adopted thereunder. 52520

The director, at the director's discretion, may require any 52521 person authorized to discharge or to install or modify a disposal 52522 system under a general permit to apply for and obtain an 52523 individual permit for the discharge, installation, or 52524 modification. When a particular discharge, installation, or 52525 modification is subject to an individual permit, a general permit 52526 shall not apply to that discharge, installation, or modification 52527 until the individual permit is revoked, terminated, or modified to 52528 exclude the discharge, installation, or modification. 52529

(B) Notwithstanding any requirement under Chapter 119. of the 52530 Revised Code concerning the manner in which notice of a permit 52531 action is provided, the director shall not be required to provide 52532 certified mail notice to persons subject to the issuance, 52533 modification, revocation, or termination of a general permit under 52534 division (A) of this section. 52535

Notwithstanding section 3745.07 of the Revised Code 52536 concerning the location of newspapers in which notices of permit 52537 actions are published, the director shall cause notice of the 52538 issuance, modification, revocation, or termination of a general 52539 permit to be published in the newspapers of general circulation 52540 determined by the director to provide reasonable notice to persons 52541 affected by the permit action in the geographic area covered by 52542 the general permit within the time periods prescribed by section 52543 3745.07 of the Revised Code. Any notice under this section or 52544 section 3745.07 of the Revised Code concerning the issuance, 52545 modification, revocation, or termination of a general permit shall 52546 include a summary of the permit action and instructions on how to 52547 obtain a copy of the full text of the permit action. The director 52548 may take other appropriate measures, such as press releases and 52549 notice to trade journals, associations, and other persons known to 52550 the director to desire notification, in order to provide notice of 52551 the director's actions concerning the issuance, modification, 52552 revocation, or termination of a general permit; however, the 52553 failure to provide such notice shall not invalidate any general 52554 permit. 52555

(C) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, 52556 a person subject to the proposed issuance, modification, 52557 revocation, or termination of a general permit under division (A) 52558 of this section may request an adjudication hearing pursuant to 52559 section 119.07 of the Revised Code concerning the proposed action 52560 within thirty days after publication of the notice of the proposed 52561 action in newspapers of general circulation pursuant to division 52562 (B) of this section. This division shall not be interpreted to 52563 affect the authority of the director to take actions on general 52564 permits in forms other than proposed general permits. 52565

(D) The director may exercise all incidental powers required 52566 to carry out this section, including, without limitation, the 52567 adoption, amendment, and rescission of rules to implement a 52568 general permit program for classes or categories of dischargers or 52569 disposal systems. 52570

(E) On and after the date on which the United States 52571 environmental protection agency approves the NPDES program 52572 submitted by the director of agriculture under section 903.08 of 52573 the Revised Code, this section does not apply to storm water from 52574 an animal feeding facility, as defined in section 903.01 of the 52575 Revised Code, or to manure, as defined in that section. 52576

(F) As used in this section, "Federal Water Pollution Control 52577 Act" means the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 52578 1972," 86 Stat. 886, 33 U.S.C.A. 1251, as amended by the "Clean 52579
Water Act of 1977," 91 Stat. 1566, 33 U.S.C.A. 1251, the "Act of 52580
October 21, 1980," 94 Stat. 2360, 33 U.S.C.A. 1254, the "Municipal 52581 Wastewater Treatment Construction Grant Amendments of 1981," 95 52582
Stat. 1623, 33 U.S.C.A. 1281, and the "Water Quality Act of 1987," 52583
101 Stat. 7, 33 U.S.C.A. 1251. 52584

Sec. 6111.044. Upon receipt of an application for an 52585 injection well drilling permit, an injection well operating 52586 permit, a renewal of an injection well operating permit, or a 52587 modification of an injection well drilling permit, operating 52588 permit, or renewal of an operating permit, the director of 52589 environmental protection shall determine whether the application 52590 is complete and demonstrates that the activities for which the 52591 permit, renewal permit, or modification is requested will comply 52592 with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and regulations 52593 adopted under it; the "Safe Drinking Water Act," 88 Stat. 1661 52594 (1974), 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f), as amended, and regulations adopted 52595 under it; and this chapter and the rules adopted under it. If the 52596 application demonstrates that the proposed activities will not 52597 comply or will pose an unreasonable risk of inducing seismic 52598 activity, inducing geologic fracturing, or contamination of an 52599 underground source of drinking water, the director shall deny the 52600 application. If the application does not make the required 52601 demonstrations, the director shall return it to the applicant with 52602 an indication of those matters about which a required 52603 demonstration was not made. If the director determines that the application makes the required demonstrations, the director shall transmit copies of the application and all of the accompanying maps, data, samples, and information to the chief of the division of mineral resources management, the chief of the division of geological survey, and the chief of the division of water in the department of natural resources.

The chief of the division of geological survey shall comment upon the application if the chief determines that the proposed well or injection will present an unreasonable risk of loss or damage to valuable mineral resources. If the chief submits comments on the application, those comments shall be accompanied by an evaluation of the geological factors upon which the comments are based, including fractures, faults, earthquake potential, and the porosity and permeability of the injection zone and confining zone, and by the documentation supporting the evaluation. The director shall take into consideration the chief's comments, and the accompanying evaluation of geologic factors and supporting documentation, when considering the application. The director shall provide written notice to the chief of the director's decision on the application and, if the chief's comments are not included in the permit, renewal permit, or modification, of the director's rationale for not including them.

The chief of the division of mineral resources management shall comment upon the application if the chief determines that the proposed well or injection will present an unreasonable risk that waste or contamination of recoverable oil or gas in the earth will occur. If the chief submits comments on the application, those comments shall be accompanied by an evaluation of the oil or gas reserves that, in the best professional judgment of the chief, are recoverable and will be adversely affected by the proposed well or injection, and by the documentation supporting the evaluation. The director shall take into consideration the chief's 52636 comments, and the accompanying evaluation and supporting 52637 documentation, when considering the application. The director 52638 shall provide written notice to the chief of the director's 52639 decision on the application and, if the chief's comments are not 52640 included in the permit, renewal permit, or modification, of the 52641 director's rationale for not including them. 52642

The chief of the division of water shall assist the director 52643 in determining whether all underground sources of drinking water 52644 in the area of review of the proposed well or injection have been 52645 identified and correctly delineated in the application. If the 52646 application fails to identify or correctly delineate an 52647 underground source of drinking water, the chief shall provide 52648 written notice of that fact to the director. 52649

The chief of the division of mineral resources management 52650 also shall review the application as follows: 52651

If the application concerns the drilling or conversion of a 52652 well or the injection into a well that is not or is not to be 52653 located within five thousand feet of the excavation and workings 52654 of a mine, the chief of the division of mineral resources 52655 management shall note upon the application that it has been 52656 examined by the division of mineral resources management, retain a 52657 copy of the application and map, and immediately return a copy of 52658 the application to the director. 52659

If the application concerns the drilling or conversion of a 52660 well or the injection into a well that is or is to be located 52661 within five thousand feet, but more than five hundred feet from 52662 the surface excavations and workings of a mine, the chief of the 52663 division of mineral resources management immediately shall notify 52664 the owner or lessee of the mine that the application has been 52665 filed and send to the owner or lessee a copy of the map 52666 accompanying the application setting forth the location of the 52667 well. The chief of the division of mineral resources management 52668 shall note on the application that the notice has been sent to the 52669 owner or lessee of the mine, retain a copy of the application and 52670 map, and immediately return a copy of the application to the 52671 director with the chief's notation on it. 52672

If the application concerns the drilling or conversion of a 52673 well or the injection into a well that is or is to be located 52674 within five thousand feet of the underground excavations and 52675 workings of a mine or within five hundred feet of the surface 52676 excavations and workings of a mine, the chief of the division of 52677 mineral resources management immediately shall notify the owner or 52678 lessee of the mine that the application has been filed and send to 52679 the owner or lessee a copy of the map accompanying the application 52680 setting forth the location of the well. If the owner or lessee 52681 objects to the application, the owner or lessee shall notify the 52682 chief of the division of mineral resources management of the 52683 objection, giving the reasons, within six days after the receipt 52684 of the notice. If the chief of the division of mineral resources 52685 management receives no objections from the owner or lessee of the 52686 mine within ten days after the receipt of the notice by the owner 52687 or lessee, or if in the opinion of the chief of the division of 52688 mineral resources management the objections offered by the owner 52689 or lessee are not sufficiently well-founded, the chief shall 52690 retain a copy of the application and map and return a copy of the 52691 application to the director with any applicable notes concerning 52692
it. 52693

If the chief of the division of mineral resources management 52694 receives an objection from the owner or lessee of the mine as to 52695 the application, within ten days after receipt of the notice by 52696 the owner or lessee, and if in the opinion of the chief the 52697 objection is well-founded, the chief shall disapprove the 52698 application and immediately return it to the director together 52699 with the chief's reasons for the disapproval. The director 52700 promptly shall notify the applicant for the permit, renewal 52701 permit, or modification of the disapproval. The applicant may 52702 appeal the disapproval of the application by the chief of the 52703 division of mineral resources management to the ~~mine-examining~~ 52704 ~~board~~ reclamation commission created under section ~~1561.10~~ 1513.05 52705 of the Revised Code, and the ~~board~~ commission shall hear the 52706 appeal in accordance with section ~~1561.53~~ 1513.13 of the Revised 52707 Code. The appeal shall be filed within thirty days from the date 52708 the applicant receives notice of the disapproval. No comments 52709 concerning or disapproval of an application shall be delayed by 52710 the chief of the division of mineral resources management for more 52711 than fifteen days from the date of sending of notice to the mine 52712 owner or lessee as required by this section. 52713

The director shall not approve an application for an 52714 injection well drilling permit, an injection well operating 52715 permit, a renewal of an injection well operating permit, or a 52716 modification of an injection well drilling permit, operating 52717 permit, or renewal of an operating permit for a well that is or is 52718 to be located within three hundred feet of any opening of any mine 52719 used as a means of ingress, egress, or ventilation for persons 52720 employed in the mine, nor within one hundred feet of any building 52721 or flammable structure connected with the mine and actually used 52722 as a part of the operating equipment of the mine, unless the chief 52723 of the division of mineral resources management determines that 52724 life or property will not be endangered by drilling and operating 52725 the well in that location. 52726

Upon review by the chief of the division of mineral resources 52727 management, the chief of the division of geological survey, and 52728 the chief of the division of water, and if the chief of the 52729 division of mineral resources management has not disapproved the 52730 application, the director shall issue a permit, renewal permit, or 52731 modification with any terms and conditions that may be necessary 52732 to comply with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act and 52733 regulations adopted under it; the "Safe Drinking Water Act," 88 52734 Stat. 1661 (1974), 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f) as amended, and regulations 52735 adopted under it; and this chapter and the rules adopted under it. 52736

The director shall not issue a permit, renewal permit, or 52737 modification to an applicant if the applicant or persons 52738 associated with the applicant have engaged in or are engaging in a 52739 substantial violation of this chapter that is endangering or may 52740 endanger human health or the environment or if, in the case of an 52741 applicant for an injection well drilling permit, the applicant, at 52742 the time of applying for the permit, did not hold an injection 52743 well operating permit or renewal of an injection well drilling 52744 permit and failed to demonstrate sufficient expertise and 52745 competency to operate the well in compliance with the applicable 52746 provisions of this chapter. 52747

If the director receives a disapproval from the chief of the 52748 division of mineral resources management regarding an application 52749 for an injection well drilling or operating permit, renewal 52750 permit, or modification, if required, the director shall issue an 52751 order denying the application. 52752

The director need not issue a proposed action under section 52753 3745.07 of the Revised Code or hold an adjudication hearing under 52754 that section and Chapter 119. of the Revised Code before issuing 52755 or denying a permit, renewal permit, or modification of a permit 52756 or renewal permit. Before issuing or renewing a permit to drill or 52757 operate a class I injection well or a modification of it, the 52758 director shall propose the permit, renewal permit, or modification 52759 in draft form and shall hold a public hearing to receive public 52760 comment on the draft permit, renewal permit, or modification. At 52761 least fifteen days before the public hearing on a draft permit, 52762 renewal permit, or modification, the director shall publish notice 52763 of the date, time, and location of the public hearing in at least 52764 one newspaper of general circulation serving the area where the 52765 well is or is to be located. The proposing of such a draft permit, 52766 renewal permit, or modification does not constitute the issuance 52767 of a proposed action under section 3745.07 of the Revised Code, 52768 and the holding of the public hearing on such a draft permit, 52769 renewal permit, or modification does not constitute the holding of 52770 an adjudication hearing under that section and Chapter 119. of the 52771 Revised Code. Appeals of orders other than orders of the chief of 52772 the division of mineral resources management shall be taken under 52773 sections 3745.04 to 3745.08 of the Revised Code. 52774

The director may order that an injection well drilling permit 52775 or an injection well operating permit or renewal permit be 52776 suspended and that activities under it cease after determining 52777 that those activities are occurring in violation of law, rule, 52778 order, or term or condition of the permit. Upon service of a copy 52779 of the order upon the permit holder or the permit holder's 52780 authorized agent or assignee, the permit and activities under it 52781 shall be suspended immediately without prior hearing and shall 52782 remain suspended until the violation is corrected and the order of 52783 suspension is lifted. If a violation is the second within a 52784 one-year period, the director, after a hearing, may revoke the 52785 permit. 52786

The director may order that an injection well drilling permit 52787
or an injection well operating permit or renewal permit be 52788 suspended and that activities under it cease if the director has 52789 reasonable cause to believe that the permit would not have been 52790 issued if the information available at the time of suspension had 52791 been available at the time a determination was made by one of the 52792 agencies acting under authority of this section. Upon service of a 52793 copy of the order upon the permit holder or the permit holder's 52794 authorized agent or assignee, the permit and activities under it 52795 shall be suspended immediately without prior hearing, but a permit 52796 may not be suspended for that reason without prior hearing unless 52797 immediate suspension is necessary to prevent waste or 52798 contamination of oil or gas, comply with the Federal Water 52799 Pollution Control Act and regulations adopted under it; the "Safe 52800 Drinking Water Act," 88 Stat. 1661 (1974), 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f), as 52801 amended, and regulations adopted under it; and this chapter and 52802 the rules adopted under it, or prevent damage to valuable mineral 52803 resources, prevent contamination of an underground source of 52804 drinking water, or prevent danger to human life or health. If 52805 after a hearing the director determines that the permit would not 52806 have been issued if the information available at the time of the 52807 hearing had been available at the time a determination was made by 52808 one of the agencies acting under authority of this section, the 52809 director shall revoke the permit. 52810

When a permit has been revoked, the permit holder or other 52811 person responsible for it immediately shall plug the well in the 52812 manner required by the director. 52813

The director may issue orders to prevent or require cessation 52814 of violations of this section, section 6111.043, 6111.045, 52815 6111.046, or 6111.047 of the Revised Code, rules adopted under any 52816 of those sections, and terms or conditions of permits issued under 52817 any of them. The orders may require the elimination of conditions 52818 caused by the violation. 52819

Section 2. That existing sections 9.03, 9.06, 9.821, 9.822, 52820
101.15, 101.27, 101.30, 101.311, 101.34, 101.37, 101.72, 101.73, 52821

Code are hereby repealed. 52913

Section 3. That sections 1517.05, 1517.06, and 1517.07 of the 52914
Revised Code be amended to read as follows: 52915

Sec. 1517.05. The department of natural resources, for and on 52916 behalf of the state, shall acquire a system of nature preserves 52917 for the following uses and purposes: 52918

(A) For scientific research in such fields as ecology, 52919 taxonomy, genetics, forestry, pharmacology, agriculture, soil 52920 science, geology, paleontology, conservation, and similar fields; 52921

(B) For the teaching of biology, natural history, ecology,	52922 geology, conservation, and other subjects;	52923
(C) As habitats for plant and animal species and communities	52924
and other natural objects;	52925
(D) As reservoirs of natural materials;	52926
(E) As places of natural interest and beauty;	52927
(F) For visitation whereby persons may observe and experience	52928 natural biotic and environmental systems of the earth and their	52929 processes;	52930
(G) To promote understanding and appreciation of the	52931 aesthetic, cultural, scientific, and spiritual values of such	52932 areas by the people of the state;	52933
(H) For the preservation and protection of nature preserves	52934 against modification or encroachment resulting from occupation,	52935 development, or other use that would destroy their natural or	52936 aesthetic conditions.	52937
The director of natural resources, upon the advice and	52938 concurrence of the Ohio natural areas council, shall accept	52939 natural areas by articles of dedication or gift, provided that	52940 funds and services are available for their preservation and	52941 protection.	52942
A nature preserve is established when articles of dedication	52943 have been filed by or at the direction of the owner of land, or a	52944 governmental agency having ownership or control thereof, in the	52945 office of the county recorder of the county in which the land is	52946 located.	52947
Articles of dedication shall be executed by the owner of the	52948 land in the same manner and with the same effect as a conveyance	52949 of an interest in land and shall be irrevocable except as provided	52950 in this section. The county recorder may not accept articles of	52951 dedication for recording unless they have been accepted by the 52952 director of natural resources. The director may not accept 52953 articles of dedication unless they contain terms restricting the 52954 use of the land that adequately provide for its preservation and 52955 protection against modification or encroachment resulting from 52956 occupation, development, or other use that would destroy its 52957 natural or aesthetic conditions for one or more of the uses and 52958 purposes set forth in this section. Wherever possible and 52959 consistent with such preservation and protection of the land, the 52960 articles shall provide for public access in order that the maximum 52961 benefit be obtained for the uses and purposes stated in this 52962

section. 52963

Articles of dedication may contain provisions for the 52964 management, custody, and transfer of land, provisions defining the 52965 rights of the owner or operating agency, and the department, and 52966 such other provisions as may be necessary or advisable to carry 52967 out the uses and purposes for which the land is dedicated. They 52968 may contain conditions under which the owner and the director of 52969 natural resources may agree to rescind the articles. 52970

The attorney general, upon request of the director of natural 52971 resources, may bring an action for injunction in any court of 52972 competent jurisdiction to enforce the terms of articles of 52973 dedication. 52974

The department may make or accept amendments of any articles 52975 of dedication upon terms and conditions that ~~the director of~~ 52976 ~~natural resources determines~~ will not destroy the natural or 52977 aesthetic conditions of a preserve, ~~including amendments that are~~ 52978 ~~in regard to a dedicated preserve not owned in fee simple by the~~ 52979 ~~department and that provide for the relocation of an existing~~ 52980 ~~easement, license, or right of way within the boundaries of the~~ 52981 ~~preserve if the relocation best serves to protect the natural or~~ 52982 ~~aesthetic condition of the preserve.~~ If the fee simple interest in 52983 the area or preserve is not held by the state, no amendments shall 52984 be made without the written consent of the owner. Each amendment 52985 shall be recorded in the same manner as the articles of 52986

dedication. 52987

Sec. 1517.06. ~~(A)~~ Nature preserves dedicated under section 52988 1517.05 of the Revised Code are to be held in trust, for the uses 52989 and purposes set forth in that section, for the benefit of the 52990 people of the state of present and future generations. They shall 52991 be managed and protected in the manner approved by, and subject to 52992 rules established by the chief of the division of natural areas 52993 and preserves. They shall not be taken for any other use except 52994 another public use after a finding by the department of natural 52995 resources of the existence of an imperative and unavoidable public 52996 necessity for such other public use and with the approval of the 52997 governor. Except as may otherwise be provided in the articles of 52998 dedication, the department may grant, upon such terms and 52999 conditions as it may determine, an estate, interest, or right in, 53000 or dispose of, a nature preserve, but only after a finding by the 53001 department of the existence of an imperative and unavoidable 53002 public necessity for ~~such~~ the grant or disposition and with the 53003

(E) It is expected that not all costs incurred by local units of government, school districts, and fire departments under each of the three programs of state financial assistance identified under this section will be fully reimbursed by the state. Reimbursement levels may vary by program and shall be based on: the relationship between the appropriation transfers requested by the Department of Commerce, the Office of Criminal Justice Services, and the Department of Education and provided by the Controlling Board for each of the programs; the rules and procedures established for each program by the administering state agency; and the actual costs incurred by local units of government, school districts, and fire departments.

(F) Each of these programs of state financial assistance shall be carried out as follows:

(1) PROSECUTION COSTS

(a) Appropriations may be transferred to the Office of Criminal Justice Services to cover local prosecution costs for 55288 second round of grant awards, the remaining appropriations 55309 available for this purpose may be awarded. 55310

(d) If for a given round of grants there are insufficient 55311 appropriations to make grant awards to all the eligible counties, 55312 aggravated murder and murder, second priority shall be given to 55314 cases involving a felony of the first degree, and third priority 55315

Section 44.01. MAINTENANCE AND EQUIPMENT 56291

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-320, Maintenance and 56292 Equipment, up to $25,000 may be expended in each year of the 56293 biennium for State Board of Education out-of-state travel. 56294

Section 44.02. HEAD START 56295

No later than July 15, 2001, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $76,156,175 from Fund 3W6, TANF Education, to the General Revenue Fund. No later than July 15, 2002, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $98,843,825 from Fund 3W6, TANF Education, to the General Revenue Fund. The transferred funds are appropriated for the appropriation item 200-406, Head Start. The foregoing appropriation item 200-406, Head Start, includes transferred funds of $76,156,175 in fiscal year 2002 and $98,843,825 in fiscal year 2003.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-406, Head Start, $100,000 per fiscal year shall be used for the Read Baby Read Book Club Program.

The remainder of foregoing appropriation item 200-406, Head Start, shall be distributed by the Department of Education to Head Start agencies. A "Head Start agency" means an entity that has been approved to be an agency in accordance with Section 641 (42 U.S.C. 9836) of the Head Start Act and amendments thereto, or an entity designated for state Head Start funding under this section. Participation in state-funded Head Start programs is voluntary.

Moneys distributed under this heading shall not be used to reduce expenditures from funds received by a Head Start agency from any other sources. Section 3301.31 of the Revised Code does not apply to funds distributed under this heading. In lieu of section 3301.31 of the Revised Code, distribution of moneys under this heading shall be as follows:

(A) In fiscal years 2002 and 2003, up to two per cent of the appropriation may be used by the department for administrative costs of complying with this section; developing program capacity; and assisting programs with facilities planning, construction, renovation, or lease agreements in combination with the Community Development Finance Fund (CDFS). Up to $1,530,000 in fiscal year 2002 and up to $1,560,600 in fiscal year 2003 may be used for the services of literacy specialist and training in early literacy for 56328 Head Start classroom teachers and administrators to support the 56329 OhioReads Initiative. 56330

(B) The department shall provide an annual report to the 56331
Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the 56332
President of the Senate, the State Board of Education, Head Start 56333 grantees, and other interested parties. The report shall include 56334 the following: 56335

(1) The number and per cent of eligible children by county 56336 and by grantee; 56337

(2) The amount of state funds received for continuation per 56338
grantee; 56339

(3) A summary of program performance on the state critical 56340 performance indicators; 56341

(4) A summary of developmental progress of children 56342 participating in the state-funded Head Start program; 56343

(5) Any other data reflecting the performance of Head Start 56344 that the department considers pertinent. 56345

(C) For purposes of this section, "eligible child" means a 56346 child who is at least three years of age and not of compulsory 56347 school age whose family earns no more than 100 per cent of the 56348 federal poverty level, except as otherwise provided in this 56349 division. 56350

The Department of Education, in consultation with Head Start 56351 grantees or their designated representatives, shall establish 56352 criteria under which individual Head Start grantees may apply to 56353 the department for a waiver to include as "eligible children" 56354 those children from families earning up to 185 per cent of the 56355 federal poverty level when the children otherwise qualify as 56356 "eligible children" under this division. 56357

In order to serve children whose families receive child care subsidy and whose incomes do not exceed 185 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines, Head Start grantees may enroll children whose families receive child care subsidy from the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services. Head Start grantees providing full-day, full-year comprehensive services, or otherwise meeting the child care needs of working families, may partner with child care centers or family day care homes or may access child care subsidy directly. This provision is to meet the child care needs of low-income families who are working, in training or education programs, or participating in Ohio Works First approved activities.

(D) After setting aside amounts to make any payments due from the prior fiscal year, in fiscal years 2002 and 2003, funds shall only be distributed to recipients of Head Start funds during the preceding fiscal year. Awards under this division shall be based on a per-pupil formula prescribed by the Department of Education and may be adjusted for one-time start-up costs, actual months of program operation, or the number of children enrolled and receiving services, as defined by the Department of Education, reported during the first full week of December, and may be increased by a reasonable percentage for inflation to be determined by the Department of Education and in accordance with this section. The department may redistribute dollars to programs demonstrating an unmet need based on updated assessments of family needs and community resources. In fiscal years 2002 and 2003, the department may authorize recipients to carry over funds to the subsequent fiscal year.

The department may reallocate unobligated or unspent money to participating Head Start agencies for: (1) facilities planning grants and to leverage construction, renovation, or lease agreements and for repair of critical deferred maintenance and safety items in combination with the CDFF; (2) teacher 56390 professional development and enhanced compensation in order to 56391 meet the requirements of section 3301.311 of the Revised Code; (3) 56392 meeting the documentation and reporting requirements and for 56393 technical support in accordance with division (F) of this section; 56394 and (4) expansion, improvement, or special projects to promote 56395 excellence and innovation. 56396

(E) Costs for developing and administering a Head Start 56397 program may not exceed fifteen per cent of the total approved 56398 costs of the program. 56399

All recipients of funds shall maintain such fiscal control 56400
and accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure the 56401 disbursement of, and accounting for, these funds. The control of 56402 funds provided in this program, and title to property obtained 56403 therefrom, shall be under the authority of the approved recipient 56404 for purposes provided in the program. The approved recipient shall 56405 administer and use such property and funds for the purposes 56406 specified. 56407

Each recipient shall furnish the department an annual audit 56408 that includes the review of state funds received under this 56409
section. 56410

In conjunction with the required audit of federal Head Start 56411 funds, the independent auditor shall examine state Head Start 56412 funds in accordance with the federal regulations and agreed-upon 56413 state procedures formulated by the department. 56414

(F) The department shall prescribe target levels for critical 56415 performance indicators for the purpose of assessing Head Start 56416 programs. On-site reviews and follow-up visits shall be based on 56417 grantee progress in meeting the prescribed target levels. 56418

The Department of Education, in consultation with the 56419 interested parties, including the state Department of Job and 56420

Family Services, shall develop the criteria to be used by Head 56421 Start grantees and delegate agencies with developing partnership 56422 agreements. 56423

The department may audit a Head Start agency's financial and 56424 program records. Head Start agencies that have financial practices 56425 not in accordance with standard accounting principles, that fail 56426 to substantially meet the Head Start performance standards, or 56427 that exhibit below-average performance shall be subject to an 56428 on-site review. 56429

The department shall require corrective plans of action for 56430 programs not achieving target levels or financial and program 56431 standards. Action plans shall include activities to be conducted 56432 by the grantee and timelines for activities to be completed and 56433 timelines for additional data submission to the department 56434 demonstrating targets have been met. The Policy Council 56435 chairperson and the appropriate grantee board official shall sign 56436 the corrective plans of action. 56437

Head Start programs not meeting performance targets in 56438 accordance with the plan of action and prescribed timelines may 56439 have their funding reduced until targets are met, or have all 56440 state funds withdrawn. 56441

The department shall require school districts to collect 56442
"preschool" information by program type. All data shall be 56443 reported via the Education Management Information System (EMIS). 56444

(G) The department shall develop prekindergarten reading and 56445 mathematics content standards and model curricula. These standards 56446 and curricula shall be made available to grantees. Head Start 56447 grantees delegate agencies, and child care partners shall document 56448 child progress, using a common instrument prescribed by the 56449 department, and report results annually. The department shall 56450 determine the dates for documenting and reporting. 56451

(H) New agencies may be designated for state Head Start 56452 funding if a Head Start agency voluntarily waives its right for 56453 funding or is de-funded based on performance. In either event, the 56454 grantee and delegate shall transfer control of title to property, 56455 equipment, and remaining supplies obtained through this program to 56456 the newly designated grantee and return any unexpended funds to 56457 the department along with any reports prescribed by the 56458
department. 56459

Section 3313.646 of the Revised Code does not apply to funds 56460 distributed under this section. 56461

(I) It is the intent of the General Assembly that 56462 appropriations for appropriation items 200-406, Head Start, and 56463
200-408, Public Preschool, be available for transfer between Head 56464
Start and public preschool programs so that unallocated funds may 56465
be used between the two programs. 56466

(J) The Department of Education shall comply with all TANF 56467 requirements, including reporting requirements and timelines, as 56468 specified in state and federal laws, federal regulations, state 56469 rules, and the Title IV-A state plan, and is responsible for 56470 payment of any adverse audit finding, final disallowance of 56471 federal financial participation, or other sanction or penalty 56472 issued by the federal government or other entity concerning these 56473 funds. Having met all of the above requirements, the Department 56474 shall have the authority to administer these funds in accordance 56475 with its own rules and guidelines, including grant administration 56476 procedures. 56477

Section 44.03. PUBLIC PRESCHOOL 56478

The Department of Education shall distribute the foregoing 56479 appropriation item 200-408, Public Preschool, to pay the costs of 56480 comprehensive preschool programs. As used in this section, "school 56481 district" means a city, local, exempted village, or joint 56482 vocational school district, or an educational service center. 56483

(A) In fiscal years 2002 and 2003, up to two per cent of the 56484 total appropriation may be used by the department for 56485 administrative costs of complying with this section; developing 56486 program capacity; and assisting programs with facilities planning, 56487 construction, renovation, or lease agreements in conjunction with 56488
the Community Development Finance Fund (CDFF). 56489

(B) The department shall provide an annual report to the 56490
Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the 56491
President of the Senate, the State Board of Education, Head Start 56492 grantees, and other interested parties. The report shall include: 56493

(1) The number and per cent of eligible children by county 56494 and by school district; 56495

(2) The amount of state funds requested for continuation per 56496 school district; 56497

(3) The amount of state funds received for continuation per 56498 school district; 56499

(4) A summary of program performance on the state critical 56500 performance indicators in the public preschool program; 56501

(5) A summary of developmental progress of children 56502 participating in the state-funded public preschool program; 56503

(6) Any other data reflecting the performance of public 56504 preschool programs that the department considers pertinent. 56505

(C) For purposes of this section, "eligible child" means a 56506 child who is at least three years of age whose family earns no 56507 more than 185 per cent of the federal poverty level. 56508

The Department of Education, in consultation with the 56509
Department of Job and Family Services, interested parties, and 56510 Head Start agencies shall formulate a method for determining an 56511 estimate of the number of eligible children and the percentage 56512 served by grantees in each county. 56513

(D) After setting aside amounts to make any payments due from 56514 the prior fiscal year, in fiscal years 2002 and 2003, funds shall 56515 first be distributed to recipients of funds during the preceding 56516 fiscal year. Awards under this division may be reduced by the 56517 amount received in that fiscal year for one-time start-up costs 56518 and may be adjusted for actual months of program operation or 56519 enrollment as reported during the first full week of December, and 56520 may be increased by a reasonable percentage to be determined by 56521 the Department of Education. The department may redistribute 56522 dollars to programs demonstrating an unmet need based on updated 56523 assessments of family needs and community resources, with special 56524 attention to the projected impact of welfare reform. In fiscal 56525 years 2002 and 2003, the department may authorize recipients to 56526 carry over funds to the subsequent fiscal year. 56527

The department may reallocate unobligated or unspent money to 56528 participating school districts for purposes of program expansion, 56529 improvement, or special projects to promote excellence and 56530 innovation. 56531

(E) Costs for developing and administering a preschool 56532 program may not exceed fifteen per cent of the total approved 56533
costs of the program. 56534

All recipients of funds shall maintain such fiscal control 56535
and accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure the 56536 disbursement of, and accounting for, these funds. The control of 56537 funds provided in this program, and title to property obtained 56538 therefrom, shall be under the authority of the approved recipient 56539 for purposes provided in the program. The approved recipient shall 56540 administer and use such property and funds for the purposes 56541
specified. 56542

(F) The department shall prescribe target levels for critical 56543 performance indicators for the purpose of assessing public 56544 preschool programs. On-site reviews and follow-up visits shall be 56545 based on progress in meeting the prescribed target levels. 56546 56547

The department may audit a school district's preschool 56548 financial and program records. School districts that have 56549 financial practices not in accordance with standard accounting 56550 principles, that operate preschool programs that fail to 56551 substantially meet the Head Start performance standards, or that 56552 exhibit below-average performance shall be subject to an on-site 56553 review. 56554

The department shall require corrective plans of action for 56555 programs not achieving target levels or financial and program 56556 standards. Action plans shall include activities to be conducted 56557 by the grantee and timelines for activities to be completed and 56558 timelines for additional data submission to the department 56559 demonstrating that targets have been met. The appropriate school 56560 board official shall sign the corrective plans of action. 56561

Public preschool programs not meeting performance targets in 56562 accordance with the plan of action and prescribed timelines may 56563 have their continuation funding reduced, be disqualified for 56564 expansion consideration until targets are met, or have all state 56565 funds withdrawn and a new program established. 56566

(G) The department shall require public preschool programs to 56567 document child progress, using a common instrument prescribed by 56568 the department, and report results annually. The department shall 56569 determine the dates for documenting and reporting. 56570

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules addressing the 56571 use of screening and assessment data, including, but not limited 56572 to, all of the following: 56573

(1) Protection of the identity of individual children through 56574 assignment of a unique but not personally identifiable code; 56575 56576

(2) Parents' rights; 56577

(3) Use of the data by school personnel as it relates to 56578 kindergarten entrance. 56579

(H) Each school district shall develop a sliding fee scale 56580 based on family incomes in the district and shall charge families 56581 who earn more than the federal poverty level for preschool. 56582

(I) It is the intent of the General Assembly that 56583
appropriations for appropriation items 200-406, Head Start, and 56584
200-408, Public Preschool, be available for transfer between Head 56585
Start and Public Preschool programs so that unallocated funds may 56586
be used between the two programs. 56587

Section 44.04. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT 56588

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional 56589
Development, $5,997,829 in each fiscal year shall be used by the 56590 Department of Education to develop a statewide comprehensive 56591 system of twelve professional development centers that support 56592 local educators' ability to foster academic achievement in the 56593 students they serve. The centers shall include training teachers 56594 on site-based management concepts to encourage teachers to become 56595 involved in the management of their schools. 56596

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional 56597
Development, $5,845,000 in fiscal year 2002 and $6,000,000 in 56598 fiscal year 2003 shall be used by the Department of Education to 56599 pay the application fee for teachers from public and chartered 56600 nonpublic schools applying to the National Board for Professional 56601 Teaching Standards for professional teaching certificates or 56602 licenses that the board offers, and to provide grants in each 56603 fiscal year to recognize and reward teachers who become certified 56604 by the board pursuant to section 3319.55 of the Revised Code, and 56605 up to $300,000 in each fiscal year of this set-aside may be used 56606 to pay for costs associated with activities to support candidates 56607 through the application and certification process. 56608

These moneys shall be used to pay for the first 900 56609 applications in fiscal year 2002 and up to the first 550 56610 applications in fiscal year 2003 received by the department. Each 56611 prospective applicant for certification or licensure shall submit 56612 an application to the Department of Education. When the department 56613 has collected a group of applications, but not later than 30 days 56614 after receipt of the first application in a group, it shall send 56615 the applications to the National Board for Professional Teaching 56616 Standards along with a check to cover the cost of the application 56617 fee for all applicants in that group. 56618

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional 56619
Development, up to $8,296,000 in fiscal year 2002 and up to 56620 $19,387,750 in fiscal year 2003 shall be allocated for entry year 56621 programs. These funds shall be used to support mentoring services 56622 of beginning teachers, including chartered nonpublic beginning 56623 teachers. In fiscal year 2002, the Department of Education shall 56624 select eligible beginning teachers to participate in a year-long 56625 entry year program that provides mentoring by experienced school 56626 and university faculty and Praxis III teacher performance 56627 assessment. In fiscal year 2003, the program shall also include 56628 the assessment of all beginning teachers with the Education 56629 Testing Service's Praxis III examination. 56630

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional 56631
Development, up to $650,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to 56632 continue Ohio leadership academies to develop and train 56633 superintendents in new leadership and management practices to 56634 support high performance schools. This training shall be 56635 coordinated with other locally administered leadership programs. 56636

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $850,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to support the Ohio Principal's Leadership Academy that will serve principals and their staff teams. An advisory panel comprised of national business and education experts shall advise the Department of Education on content and delivery of curriculum and instruction.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $975,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to establish an entry year program for principals, including for chartered nonpublic principals. Grants in fiscal year 2002 shall be issued to pilot sites that shall develop prototypes of the program in a variety of contexts. These sites also shall pilot the School Leaders Licensure Assessment, which was developed by the Educational Testing Service at a cost of $450 per assessment. Funds in fiscal year 2003 shall be used to implement an entry year program for principals.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $500,000 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Rural Appalachian Initiative to create professional development academies for teachers, principals, and superintendents in the Appalachian region. No funding shall be released prior to the Department of Education receiving a satisfactory report of the activities conducted by these professional development academies during the previous year.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $250,000 in fiscal year 2002 and up to $350,000 in fiscal year 2003 shall be used to support a Teacher Recognition Program. Funds awarded shall be used to recognize exemplary performance and support the professional development of educators across the educator life-cycle continuum, and may also be used to support the implementation of an educator-in-residence program.

(E) Not later than June 15, 2003, the Department of Education, in consultation with the Director of Budget and Management, shall determine, based upon estimates, if a reallocation of funds as described in the section of this act titled "Reallocation of Funds" is required.

If a reallocation of funds is required, then the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall request Controlling Board approval for a release of any balances in the Lottery Profits Education Fund available for the purpose of this division and pursuant to divisions (C)(1) and (2) of the section of this act titled "Reallocation of Funds." Any moneys so released are appropriated.

(F) In fiscal year 2003, if the Department of Education does not determine that a reallocation of funds is necessary by the fifteenth day of June, as provided in division (E) of this section, or if there is a balance in the Lottery Profits Education Fund after the release of any amount needed to preclude a reallocation of funds as provided in division (E) of this section, the moneys in the Lottery Profits Education Fund shall be allocated as provided in this division. Any amounts so allocated are appropriated.

Section 44.22. PROPERTY TAX ALLOCATION - EDUCATION 57967

The appropriation item 200-901, Property Tax Allocation - 57968

Education, is appropriated to pay for the state's costs incurred 57969 due to the homestead exemption and the property tax rollback. In 57970 cooperation with the Department of Taxation, the Department of 57971 Education shall distribute these funds directly to the appropriate 57972 school districts of the state, notwithstanding sections 321.24 and 57973 323.156 of the Revised Code, which provide for payment of the 57974 homestead exemption and property tax rollback by the Tax 57975 Commissioner to the appropriate county treasurer and the 57976 subsequent redistribution of these funds to the appropriate local 57977 taxing districts by the county auditor. 57978

Appropriation item 200-906, Tangible Tax Exemption - 57979
Education is appropriated to pay for the state's costs incurred 57980 due to the tangible personal property tax exemption required by 57981 division (C)(3) of section 5709.01 of the Revised Code. In 57982 cooperation with the Department of Taxation, the Department of 57983 Education shall distribute to each county treasurer the total 57984 amount certified by the county treasurer pursuant to section 57985 319.311 of the Revised Code, for all school districts located in 57986 the county, notwithstanding the provision in section 319.311 of 57987 the Revised Code which provides for payment of the $10,000 57988 tangible personal property tax exemption by the Tax Commissioner 57989 to the appropriate county treasurer for all local taxing districts 57990 located in the county. Pursuant to division (G) of section 321.24 57991 of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall distribute the 57992 amount paid by the Department of Education among the appropriate 57993 school districts. 57994

Upon receipt of these amounts, each school district shall 57995 distribute the amount among the proper funds as if it had been 57996 paid as real or tangible personal property taxes. Payments for the 57997 costs of administration shall continue to be paid to the county 57998 treasurer and county auditor as provided for in sections 319.54, 57999 321.26, and 323.156 of the Revised Code. 58000

Any sums, in addition to the amounts specifically 58001 appropriated in appropriation items 200-901, Property Tax 58002 Allocation - Education, for the homestead exemption and the 58003 property tax rollback payments, and 200-906, Tangible Tax 58004 Exemption - Education, for the $10,000 tangible personal property 58005 tax exemption payments, which are determined to be necessary for 58006 these purposes, are appropriated. 58007

Section 44.23. DISTRIBUTION FORMULAS* 58008

The Department of Education shall report the following to the 58009
Director of Budget and Management, the Legislative Office of 58010 Education Oversight, and the Legislative Service Commission: 58011

(A) Changes in formulas for distributing state 58012 appropriations, including administratively defined formula 58013 factors; 58014

(B) Discretionary changes in formulas for distributing 58015 federal appropriations; 58016

(C) Federally mandated changes in formulas for distributing 58017
federal appropriations. 58018

Any such changes shall be reported two weeks prior to the 58019 effective date of the change. 58020

Section 44.24. DISTRIBUTION - SCHOOL DISTRICT SUBSIDY 58021
PAYMENTS 58022

This section shall not take effect unless the Director of 58023 Budget and Management adopts an order putting it into effect and 58024 certifies a copy of the order to the Superintendent of Public 58025 Instruction and the Controlling Board. 58026

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised Code, the 58027 monthly distribution of payments made to school districts and 58028 educational service centers pursuant to section 3317.01 of the 58029

Revised Code for the first six months of each fiscal year shall 58030 equal, as nearly as possible, six and two-thirds per cent of the 58031 estimate of the amounts payable for each fiscal year. The monthly 58032 distribution of payments for the last six months of each fiscal 58033 year shall equal, as nearly as possible, ten per cent of the final 58034 calculation of the amounts payable to each school district for 58035 that fiscal year. 58036

The treasurer of each school district or educational service 58037 center may accrue, in addition to the payments defined in this 58038 section, to the accounts of the calendar years that end during 58039 each fiscal year, the difference between the sum of the first six 58040 months' payments in each fiscal year and the amounts the district 58041 would have received had the payments been made in, as nearly as 58042 possible in each fiscal year, twelve equal monthly payments. 58043

Notwithstanding the limitations on the amount of borrowing 58044 and time of payment provided for in section 133.10 of the Revised 58045 Code but subject to sections 133.26 and 133.30 of the Revised 58046
Code, a board of education of a school district may at any time 58047 between July 1, 2001, and December 31, 2001, or at any time 58048 between July 1, 2002, and December 31, 2002, borrow money to pay 58049 any necessary and actual expenses of the school district during 58050 the last six months of calendar years 2001 and 2002 and in 58051 anticipation of the receipt of any portion of the payments to be 58052 received by that district in the first six months of calendar 58053 years 2002 and 2003 representing the respective amounts accrued 58054 pursuant to the preceding paragraph, and issue notes to evidence 58055 that borrowing to mature no later than the thirtieth day of June 58056 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which such 58057 amount was borrowed. The principal amount borrowed in the last six 58058 months of calendar years 2001 or 2002 under this paragraph may not 58059 exceed the entire amount accrued or to be accrued by the district 58060 treasurer in those calendar years pursuant to the preceding 58061 paragraph. The proceeds of the notes shall be used only for the 58062 purposes for which the anticipated receipts are lawfully 58063 appropriated by the board of education. No board of education 58064 shall be required to use the authority granted by this paragraph. 58065

The receipts so anticipated, and additional amounts from 58066 distributions to the districts in the first six months of calendar 58067 years 2002 and 2003 pursuant to Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code 58068 needed to pay the interest on the notes, shall be deemed 58069 appropriated by the board of education to the extent necessary for 58070 the payment of the principal of and interest on the notes at 58071 maturity, and the amounts necessary to make those monthly 58072 distributions are appropriated from the General Revenue Fund. For 58073 the purpose of better ensuring the prompt payment of principal of 58074 and interest on the notes when due, the resolution of the board of 58075 education authorizing the notes may direct that the amount of the 58076 receipts anticipated, together with those additional amounts 58077 needed to pay the interest on the borrowed amounts, shall be 58078 deposited and segregated, in trust or otherwise, to the extent, at 58079 the time or times, and in the manner provided in that resolution. 58080
The borrowing authorized by this section does not constitute debt 58081 for purposes of section 133.04 of the Revised Code. School 58082 districts shall be reimbursed by the state for all necessary and 58083 actual costs to districts arising from this provision, including, 58084 without limitation, the interest paid on the notes while the notes 58085 are outstanding. The Department of Education shall adopt rules 58086 that are not inconsistent with this section for school district 58087 eligibility and application for reimbursement of such costs. 58088 Payments of these costs shall be made out of any anticipated 58089 balances in appropriation items distributed under Chapter 3317. of 58090 the Revised Code. The department shall submit all requests for 58091 reimbursement under these provisions to the Controlling Board for 58092 approval. 58093

During the last six months of each calendar year, instead of 58094 deducting the amount the Superintendent of Public Instruction 58095 would otherwise deduct from a school district's or educational 58096 service center's state aid payments in accordance with the 58097 certifications made for such year pursuant to sections 3307.56 and 58098 3309.51 of the Revised Code, the superintendent shall deduct an 58099 amount equal to forty per cent of the amount so certified. The 58100 secretaries of the retirement systems shall compute the 58101 certifications for the ensuing year under such sections as if the 58102 entire amounts certified as due in the calendar year ending the 58103 current fiscal year, but not deducted pursuant to this paragraph, 58104 had been deducted and paid in that calendar year. During the first 58105 six months of the ensuing calendar year, in addition to deducting 58106 the amounts the Superintendent of Public Instruction is required 58107 to deduct under such sections during such period, the 58108 superintendent shall deduct from a district's or educational 58109 service center's state aid payments an additional amount equal to 58110 the amount that was certified as due from the district for the 58111 calendar year that ends during the fiscal year, but that was not 58112 deducted because of this paragraph. The superintendent's 58113 certifications to the Director of Budget and Management during the 58114 first six months of the calendar year shall reflect such 58115 additional deduction. 58116

Section 44.25. REALLOCATION OF FUNDS 58117

(A) As used in this section: 58118

(1) "Basic aid" means the amount calculated for the school 58119 district received for the fiscal year under divisions (A) and (C) 58120 of section 3317.022 and sections 3317.023, 3317.025 to 3317.029, 58121 3317.0212, and 3317.0213 of the Revised Code and the amount 58122 computed for a joint vocational school district under section 58123
3317.16 of the Revised Code. 58124

(2) "Nonbasic aid" means the amount computed for a school district for fiscal year 2002 or fiscal year 2003 under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code and this act, excluding the district's basic aid and the amount computed under such chapter and acts for educational service centers, MR/DD boards, and institutions.

(B) If in either fiscal year of the biennium the Governor issues an order under section 126.05 of the Revised Code to reduce expenditures and incurred obligations and the order requires the superintendent to reduce such state education payments, or if lottery profits transfers are insufficient to meet the amounts appropriated from the Lottery Profits Education Fund for base cost funding, and if other funds are not sufficient to offset the shortfall, the superintendent shall reduce nonbasic aid payments so that the total amount expended in the fiscal year will not exceed the amount available for expenditure pursuant to the Governor's order. Subject to Controlling Board approval, the superintendent shall reallocate appropriations not yet expended from one program to another.

(C)(1) If further reductions in nonbasic aid are necessary following the reallocations implemented pursuant to division (B) of this section, the superintendent shall request the Controlling Board to approve the use of the money appropriated by this division. The superintendent shall include with the superintendent's request a report listing the amount of reductions that each school district will receive if the request is not approved, and also the amount of the reduction, if any, that will still be required if the use of the money appropriated by this section is approved.

(2) In accordance with division (C)(1) of this section, there is appropriated to the Department of Education from the unobligated balance remaining in the Lottery Profits Education Fund at the end of fiscal year 2001 the lesser of: the unobligated balance in the fund, or the amount needed to preclude a 58157 reallocation pursuant to this section. The money appropriated by 58158 this division may be spent or distributed by the department only 58159 with the approval of the Controlling Board. 58160

(D) If reductions in nonbasic aid are still necessary 58161 following the actions taken pursuant to divisions (B) and (C) of 58162 this section, the superintendent shall determine by what 58163 percentage expenditures for nonbasic aid must be reduced for the 58164 remainder of the fiscal year to make the total amount distributed 58165 for the year equal the amount appropriated or available for 58166 distribution. The superintendent shall reduce by that percentage 58167 the amount to be paid in nonbasic aid to each city, exempted 58168 village, local, and joint vocational school district, to each 58169 educational service center, to each county board of mental 58170 retardation and developmental disabilities, and to each 58171 institution providing special education programs under section 58172 3323.091 of the Revised Code for the remainder of the fiscal year. 58173

Section 44.26. EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTERS FUNDING 58174

Notwithstanding division (B) of section 3317.11 of the 58175 Revised Code, no funds shall be provided to an educational service 58176 center in either fiscal year for any pupils of a city or exempted 58177 village school district unless an agreement to provide services 58178 under section 3313.843 of the Revised Code was entered into by 58179 January 1, 1997, except that funds shall be provided to an 58180 educational service center for any pupils of a city school 58181 district if the agreement to provide services was entered into 58182 within one year of the date upon which such district changed from 58183 a local school district to a city school district. If insufficient 58184 funds are appropriated in fiscal year 2002 or fiscal year 2003 for 58185 the purposes of division (B) of section 3317.11 of the Revised 58186 Code, the department shall first distribute to each educational 58187 service center $37 per pupil in its service center ADM, as defined 58188 in that section. The remaining funds in each fiscal year shall be 58189 distributed proportionally, on a per-student basis, to each 58190 educational service center for its client ADM, as defined in that 58191 section, that is attributable to each city and exempted village 58192 school district that had entered into an agreement with an 58193 educational service center for that fiscal year under section 58194 3313.843 of the Revised Code by January 1, 1997. 58195

Section 44.27. The Legislative Office of Education Oversight 58196 shall survey the individualized education programs developed for 58197 handicapped children who have been identified under Chapter 3323. 58198 of the Revised Code as having "other health handicaps." The Office 58199 shall categorize the specific medical conditions that school 58200 districts identify as "other health handicaps" and shall quantify 58201 the number of students identified in each category. The Office 58202 shall report its findings to the General Assembly no later than 58203 six months after the effective date of this section. 58204

Section 44.28. * For the school year commencing July 1, 2001, 58205 or the school year commencing July 1, 2002, or both, the 58206 Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive for the board of 58207 education of any school district the ratio of teachers to pupils 58208 in kindergarten through fourth grade required under paragraph 58209
(A)(3) of rule 3301-35-03 of the Administrative Code if the 58210 following conditions apply: 58211

(A) The board of education requests the waiver. 58212

(B) After the Department of Education conducts an on-site 58213 evaluation of the district related to meeting the required ratio, 58214 the board of education demonstrates to the satisfaction of the 58215 Superintendent of Public Instruction that providing the facilities 58216 necessary to meet the required ratio during the district's regular 58217 school hours with pupils in attendance would impose an extreme 58218 hardship on the district. 58219

(C) The board of education provides assurances that are 58220 satisfactory to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that the 58221 board will act in good faith to meet the required ratio as soon as 58222 possible. 58223

Section 44.29. PRIVATE TREATMENT FACILITY PILOT PROJECT 58224

(A) As used in this section: 58225

(1) The following are "participating residential treatment 58226 centers": 58227

(a) Private residential treatment facilities that have 58228 entered into a contract with the Department of Youth Services to 58229 provide services to children placed at the facility by the 58230 department and which, in fiscal year 2002 or 2003 or both, the 58231 department pays through appropriation item 470-401, Care and 58232 Custody; 58233

(b) Abraxas, in Shelby; 58234

(c) Paint Creek, in Bainbridge; 58235

(d) Act One, in Akron; 58236

(e) Friars Club, in Cincinnati. 58237

(2) "Education program" means an elementary or secondary 58238 education program or a special education program and related 58239 services. 58240

(3) "Served child" means any child receiving an education 58241 program pursuant to division (B) of this section. 58242

(4) "School district responsible for tuition" means a city, 58243 exempted village, or local school district that, if tuition 58244 payment for a child by a school district is required under law 58245 that existed in fiscal year 1998, is the school district required 58246 to pay that tuition. 58247

(5) "Residential child" means a child who resides in a 58248 participating residential treatment center and who is receiving an 58249 educational program under division (B) of this section. 58250

(B) A youth who is a resident of the state and has been 58251 assigned by a juvenile court or other authorized agency to a 58252 residential treatment facility specified in division (A) of this 58253 section shall be enrolled in an approved educational program 58254 located in or near the facility. Approval of the educational 58255 program shall be contingent upon compliance with the criteria 58256 established for such programs by the Department of Education. The 58257 educational program shall be provided by a school district or 58258 educational service center, or by the residential facility itself. 58259 Maximum flexibility shall be given to the residential treatment 58260 facility to determine the provider. In the event that a voluntary 58261 agreement cannot be reached and the residential facility does not 58262 choose to provide the educational program, the educational service 58263 center in the county in which the facility is located shall 58264 provide the educational program at the treatment center to 58265 children under twenty-two years of age residing in the treatment 58266 center. 58267

(C) Any school district responsible for tuition for a 58268 residential child shall, notwithstanding any conflicting provision 58269 of the Revised Code regarding tuition payment, pay tuition for the 58270 child for fiscal years 2002 and 2003 to the education program 58271 provider and in the amount specified in this division. If there is 58272 no school district responsible for tuition for a residential child 58273 and if the participating residential treatment center to which the 58274 child is assigned is located in the city, exempted village, or 58275 local school district that, if the child were not a resident of 58276 that treatment center, would be the school district where the 58277 child is entitled to attend school under sections 3313.64 and 58278 3313.65 of the Revised Code, that school district shall, 58279 notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code, pay 58280 tuition for the child for fiscal years 2002 and 2003 under this 58281 division unless that school district is providing the educational 58282 program to the child under division (B) of this section. 58283 58284

A tuition payment under this division shall be made to the 58285 school district, educational service center, or residential 58286 treatment facility providing the educational program to the child. 58287

The amount of tuition paid shall be: 58288

(1) The amount of tuition determined for the district under 58289 division (A) of section 3317.08 of the Revised Code; 58290

(2) In addition, for any student receiving special education 58291 pursuant to an individualized education program as defined in 58292 section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, a payment for excess costs. 58293
This payment shall equal the actual cost to the school district, 58294 educational service center, or residential treatment facility of 58295 providing special education and related services to the student 58296 pursuant to the student's individualized education program, minus 58297 the tuition paid for the child under division (C)(1) of this 58298
section. 58299

A school district paying tuition under this division shall 58300 not include the child for whom tuition is paid in the district's 58301 average daily membership certified under division (A) of section 58302
3317.03 of the Revised Code. 58303

(D) In each of fiscal years 2002 and 2003, the Department of 58304 Education shall reimburse, from appropriations made for the 58305 purpose, a school district, educational service center, or 58306 residential treatment facility, whichever is providing the 58307 service, that has demonstrated that it is in compliance with the 58308 funding criteria for each served child for whom a school district must pay tuition under division (C) of this section. The amount of the reimbursement in either fiscal year shall be the formula amount specified in section 3317.022 of the Revised Code, except that the department shall proportionately reduce this reimbursement if sufficient funds are not available to pay this amount to all qualified providers.

(E) Funds provided to a school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility under this section shall be used to supplement, not supplant, funds from other public sources for which the school district, service center, or residential treatment facility is entitled or eligible.

(F) The Department of Education shall track the utilization of funds provided to school districts, educational service centers, and residential treatment facilities under this section and monitor the effect of the funding on the educational programs they provide in participating residential treatment facilities.
The department shall monitor the programs for educational accountability.

Section 44.30. SCHOOL DISTRICT PARTICIPATION IN NATIONAL ASSESSMENT OF EDUCATION PROGRESS

The General Assembly intends for the Superintendent of Public Instruction to provide for school district participation in the administration of the National Assessment of Education Progress in fiscal years 2002 and 2003 in accordance with section 3301.27 of the Revised Code.

Section 44.31. Notwithstanding Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, for purposes of complying with the local share and repayment tax requirements of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code, any school district given conditional approval for classroom facilities assistance under section 3318.04 of the Revised Code as 58339 of January 1, 1993, that approved a replacement permanent 58340 improvement levy at the November 5, 1996, election shall be 58341 permitted to use the proceeds of such levy, and any notes issued 58342 or to be issued in anticipation thereof, as available funds, 58343 within the meaning specified under section 3318.03 of the Revised 58344 Code, to pay the local share of the cost of the approved classroom 58345 facilities project. Notwithstanding the local share as previously 58346 determined for purposes of the conditional approval of the 58347 bills resulting from the Ohio State Fair only if all the following 58679 deems necessary on the use of the released funds. The Director of 58693 Budget and Management may transfer appropriation authority from 58694 fiscal year 2002 to fiscal year 2003 as needed. 58695

In the event that the Ohio Expositions Commission faces a 58696 temporary cash shortage that will preclude them from meeting 58697 current obligations, the Commission may request the Director of 58698 Budget and Management to approve use of the State Fair Reserve to 58699

Section 94.01. STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION

62351

As soon as practicable during each fiscal year of the 62352
2001-2003 biennium in accordance with instructions of the Board of 62353 Regents, each state-assisted institution of higher education shall 62354 report its actual enrollment to the Board of Regents. 62355

The Board of Regents shall establish procedures required by 62356 the system of formulas set out below and for the assignment of 62357 individual institutions to categories described in the formulas. 62358
The system of formulas establishes the manner in which aggregate 62359 expenditure requirements shall be determined for each of the three 62360 components of institutional operations. In addition to other 62361 adjustments and calculations described below, the subsidy 62362 entitlement of an institution shall be determined by subtracting 62363 from the institution's aggregate expenditure requirements income 62364 to be derived from the local contributions assumed in calculating 62365 the subsidy entitlements. The local contributions for purposes of 62366 determining subsidy support shall not limit the authority of the 62367 individual boards of trustees to establish fee levels. 62368

The General Studies and Technical models shall be adjusted by 62369 the Board of Regents so that the share of state subsidy earned by 62370 those models is not altered by changes in the overall local share. 62371
A lower-division fee differential shall be used to maintain the 62372 relationship that would have occurred between these models and the 62373 baccalaureate models had an assumed share of thirty-seven per cent 62374 been funded. 62375

In defining the number of full-time equivalent (FTE) students 62376 for state subsidy purposes, the Board of Regents shall exclude all 62377 undergraduate students who are not residents of Ohio, except those 62378 charged in-state fees in accordance with reciprocity agreements 62379 made pursuant to section 3333.17 or employer contracts entered 62380 into pursuant to section 3333.32 of the Revised Code. 62381

(B) PLANT OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE (POM) 62418

(1) DETERMINATION OF THE SQUARE-FOOT-BASED POM SUBSIDY 62419

Space undergoing renovation shall be funded at the rate 62420 allowed for storage space. 62421

In the calculation of square footage for each campus, square 62422 footage shall be weighted to reflect differences in space 62423 utilization. 62424

The space inventories for each campus shall be those 62425 determined in the fiscal year 1999 instructional subsidy, adjusted 62426 for changes attributable to the construction or renovation of 62427 facilities for which state appropriations were made or local 62428 commitments were made prior to January 1, 1995. 62429

Only 50 per cent of the space permanently taken out of 62430 operation in fiscal year 2002 or fiscal year 2003 that is not 62431 otherwise replaced by a campus shall be deleted from the fiscal 62432 year 1997 inventory. 62433

The square-foot-based plant operation and maintenance subsidy 62434 for each campus shall be determined as follows: 62435

(a) For each standard room type category shown below, the 62436 subsidy-eligible net assignable square feet (NASF) for each campus 62437 shall be multiplied by the following rates, and the amounts summed 62438 for each campus to determine the total gross square-foot-based POM 62439 expenditure requirement: 62440

	FY 2002	FY 2003
Classrooms	$5.33	$5.56	62442
Laboratories	$6.65	$6.93	62443

Storage	$2.36	$2.46	62446
Circulation	$6.73	$7.01	62447
Other	$5.33	$5.56	62448

(b) The total gross square-foot POM expenditure requirement shall be allocated to models in proportion to FTE enrollments as reported in enrollment data for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II.

(c) The amounts allocated to models in division (B)(1)(b) of this section shall be multiplied by the ratio of subsidy-eligible FTE students to total FTE students reported in each model, and the amounts summed for all models. To this total amount shall be added an amount to support roads and grounds expenditures to produce the total square-foot-based POM subsidy.

(2) DETERMINATION OF THE ACTIVITY-BASED POM SUBSIDY

(a) The number of subsidy-eligible FTE students in each model shall be multiplied by the following rates for each campus for each fiscal year.

	FY 2002	FY 2003
General Studies I	$ 537	$ 543	62463
General Studies II	$ 669	$ 686	62464

Medical II	$3,470	$3,581	62475
Blended MPD I	$1,135	$1,192	62476

(b) The sum of the products for each campus determined in 62478 division (B)(2)(a) of this section for all models except Doctoral 62479
I and Doctoral II for each fiscal year shall be weighted by a 62480 factor to reflect sponsored research activity and job 62481 training-related public services expenditures to determine the 62482 total activity-based POM subsidy. 62483

(C) CALCULATION OF CORE SUBSIDY ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS 62484

(1) CALCULATION OF CORE SUBSIDY ENTITLEMENTS 62485

The calculation of the core subsidy entitlement shall consist 62486 of the following components: 62487

(a) For each campus and for each fiscal year, the core 62488 subsidy entitlement shall be determined by multiplying the amounts 62489 listed above in divisions (A)(1) and (2) and (B)(2) of this 62490 section less assumed local contributions, by (i) average 62491 subsidy-eligible FTEs for the two-year period ending in the prior 62492 year for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II; and (ii) 62493 average subsidy-eligible FTEs for the five-year period ending in 62494 the prior year for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II. 62495

(b) In calculating the core subsidy entitlements for Medical 62496
II models only, the Board of Regents shall use the following count 62497 of FTE students in place of the two-year average and five-year 62498 average of subsidy-eligible students: 62499

(i) For those medical schools whose current year enrollment 62500 is below the base enrollment, the Medical II FTE enrollment shall 62501 equal: 65 per cent of the base enrollment plus 35 per cent of the 62502 current year enrollment, where the base enrollment is: 62503

The Ohio State University	1010	62504
University of Cincinnati	833	62505
Medical College of Ohio at Toledo	650	62506
Wright State University	433	62507
Ohio University	433	62508

Northeastern Ohio Universities 433 62509 College of Medicine

(ii) For those medical schools whose current year enrollment 62510 is equal to or greater than the base enrollment, the Medical II 62511
FTE enrollment shall equal the current enrollment. 62512

(c) For all FTE-based subsidy calculations involving 62513 annualized FTE data, FTE-based allowances shall be converted from 62514 annualized to all-terms rates to ensure equity and consistency of 62515 subsidy determination. 62516

(d) The Board of Regents shall compute the sum of the two 62517 calculations listed in division (C)(1)(a) of this section and use 62518
the greater sum as the core subsidy entitlement. 62519

The POM subsidy for each campus shall equal the greater of 62520 the square-foot-based subsidy or the activity-based POM subsidy 62521 component of the core subsidy entitlement. 62522

(e) The state share of instruction provided for doctoral 62523 students shall be based on a fixed percentage of the total 62524 appropriation. In each fiscal year of the biennium not more than 62525 10.34 per cent of the total state share of instruction shall be 62526 reserved to implement the recommendations of the Graduate Funding 62527 Commission. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the 62528 doctoral reserve be reduced each year thereafter until no more 62529 than 10.0 per cent of the total state share of instruction is 62530 reserved to implement the recommendations of the Graduate Funding 62531 Commission. The Board of Regents shall reallocate zero per cent in 62532 fiscal year 2002 and 2 per cent in fiscal year 2003 of the reserve 62533 among the state-assisted universities on the basis of a quality 62534 review as specified in the recommendations of the Graduate Funding 62535 Commission. No such reallocation shall occur in any year in which 62536 the total appropriation made to appropriation item 235-501, State 62537 Share of Instruction, is less than 103 per cent of the prior 62538 fiscal year's total. 62539

The amount so reserved shall be allocated to universities in proportion to their share of the total number of Doctoral I equivalent FTEs as calculated on an institutional basis using the greater of the two-year or five-year FTEs for the period fiscal year 1994 through fiscal year 1998 with annualized FTEs for fiscal years 1994 through 1997 and all-term FTEs for fiscal year 1998 as adjusted to reflect the effects of doctoral review. For the purposes of this calculation, Doctoral I equivalent FTEs shall equal the sum of Doctoral I FTEs plus 1.5 times the sum of Doctoral II FTEs.

(2) ANNUAL HOLD HARMLESS PROVISION

In addition to and after the other adjustment noted above, in fiscal year 2002 each campus shall have its state share of instruction adjusted to the extent necessary to provide an amount that is not less than 100 per cent of the state share of instruction received by the campus in fiscal year 2001. In fiscal year 2003, each campus shall have its state share of instruction adjusted to the extent necessary to provide an amount that is not less than 100 per cent of the state share of instruction received by the campus in fiscal year 2002.

(3) CAPITAL COMPONENT DEDUCTION

After all other adjustments have been made, instructional subsidy earnings shall be reduced for each campus by the amount, if any, by which debt service charged in Am. H.B. No. 748 of the 121st General Assembly, Am. Sub. H.B. No. 850 of the 122nd General Assembly, and Am. H.B. No. 640 of the 123rd General Assembly for that campus exceeds that campus's capital component earnings.

(D) REDUCTIONS IN EARNINGS

If the total state share of instruction earnings in any fiscal year exceed the total appropriations available for such purposes, the Board of Regents shall proportionately reduce the state share of instruction earnings for all campuses by a uniform 62571 percentage so that the systemwide sum equals available 62572 appropriations. 62573

(E) EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES 62574

Adjustments may be made to the state share of instruction 62575 payments and other subsidies distributed by the Board of Regents 62576 to state-assisted colleges and universities for exceptional 62577 circumstances. No adjustments for exceptional circumstances may be 62578 made without the recommendation of the Chancellor and the approval 62579 of the Controlling Board. 62580

DISTRIBUTION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION 62581

The state share of instruction payments to the institutions 62582 shall be in substantially equal monthly amounts during the fiscal 62583 year, unless otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and 62584 Management pursuant to section 126.09 of the Revised Code. 62585 Payments during the first six months of the fiscal year shall be 62586 based upon the state share of instruction appropriation estimates 62587 made for the various institutions of higher education according to 62588 Board of Regents enrollment estimates. Payments during the last 62589 six months of the fiscal year shall be distributed after approval 62590 of the Controlling Board upon the request of the Board of Regents. 62591

62592

LAW SCHOOL SUBSIDY 62593

The state share of instruction to state-supported 62594 universities for students enrolled in law schools in fiscal year 62595 2002 and fiscal year 2003 shall be calculated by using the number 62596 of subsidy-eligible FTE law school students funded by state 62597 subsidy in fiscal year 1995 or the actual number of 62598 subsidy-eligible FTE law school students at the institution in the 62599 fiscal year, whichever is less. 62600

Section 94.02. MISSION-BASED CORE FUNDING FOR HIGHER 62601 EDUCATION 62602

JOBS CHALLENGE 62603

Funds appropriated to appropriation item 235-415, Jobs 62604 Challenge, shall be distributed to state-assisted community and 62605 technical colleges, regional campuses of state-assisted 62606 universities, and other organizationally distinct and identifiable 62607 member campuses of the EnterpriseOhio Network in support of 62608 noncredit job-related training. In fiscal years 2002 and 2003, 62609 $2,114,673 and $1,981,841, respectively, shall be distributed as 62610 performance grants to EnterpriseOhio Network campuses based upon 62611 each campus's documented performance according to criteria 62612 established by the Board of Regents for increasing training and 62613 related services to businesses, industries, and public sector 62614 organizations. 62615

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-415, Jobs Challenge, 62616
$3,130,087 in fiscal year 2002 and $2,875,953 in fiscal year 2003 62617 shall be allocated to the Targeted Industries Training Grant 62618 Program to attract, develop, and retain business and industry 62619 strategically important to the state's economy. 62620

Also, in fiscal years 2002 and 2003, $2,991,513 and 62621
$3,629,797, respectively, shall be allocated to the Non-credit 62622 Incentives Grant Program to reward two-year campuses for 62623 increasing the amount of non-credit skill upgrading services 62624 provided to Ohio employers and employees. The funds shall be 62625 distributed to campuses in proportion to each campus's share of 62626 noncredit job-related training revenues received by all campuses 62627 for the previous fiscal year. It is the intent of the General 62628 Assembly that this workforce development incentive component of 62629 the Jobs Challenge Program reward campus noncredit job-related 62630 training efforts in the same manner that the Research Challenge 62631

Program rewards campuses for their ability to obtain sponsored research revenues. 62632
62633

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-415, Jobs Challenge, $1,863,726 in fiscal year 2002 and $1,712,409 in fiscal year 2003 shall be allocated as an incentive to support local EnterpriseOhio Network Campus/Adult Workforce Education Center Partnerships. The purpose of the partnerships is to promote and deliver coordinated, comprehensive training to local employers. Each partnership shall include a formal agreement between one or more EnterpriseOhio Network campus and one or more adult workforce education center for the delivery of training services. 62634

62637
62639
62640
62641
62642

ACCESS CHALLENGE 62643

In each fiscal year, the foregoing appropriation item 235-418, Access Challenge, shall be distributed to Ohio's state-assisted access colleges and universities. For the purposes of this allocation, "access campuses" includes state-assisted community colleges, state community colleges, technical colleges, Shawnee State University, Central State University, Cleveland State University, the regional campuses of state-assisted universities, and, where they are organizationally distinct and identifiable, the community-technical colleges located at the University of Cincinnati, Youngstown State University, and the University of Akron. 62644
62645
62647
62648
62649
62650
62651
62652
62654

In fiscal years 2002 and 2003, Access Challenge subsidies shall be distributed by the Board of Regents to eligible access campuses on the basis of each campus's share of fiscal year 1999 all-terms subsidy eligible General Studies FTEs. For the purpose of these calculations, the average all-terms subsidy eligible General Studies FTEs for Youngstown State University's eligible Comm-Tech enrollments shall equal 348. 62655
62656
62658
62659
62660
62661

For the purposes of this calculation, Cleveland State 62662

University's enrollments shall be adjusted by the ratio of the sum 62663 of subsidy-eligible lower-division FTE student enrollments 62664 eligible for access funding to the sum of subsidy-eligible General 62665 Studies FTE student enrollments at Central State University and 62666 Shawnee State University, and for the following universities and 62667 their regional campuses: Ohio State University, Ohio University, 62668 Kent State University, Bowling Green State University, Miami 62669 University, the University of Cincinnati, the University of Akron, 62670 and Wright State University. 62671

SUCCESS CHALLENGE 62672

The foregoing appropriation item 235-420, Success Challenge, 62673 shall be used by the Board of Regents to promote degree completion 62674 by students enrolled at a main campus of a state-assisted 62675 university. 62676

In each fiscal year, two-thirds of the appropriations shall 62677 be distributed to state-assisted university main campuses in 62678 proportion to each campus's share of the total statewide 62679 bachelor's degrees granted by university main campuses to 62680
"at-risk" students. In fiscal years 2002 and 2003, an "at-risk" 62681 student means any undergraduate student who has received an Ohio 62682 Instructional Grant during the past ten years. An eligible 62683 institution shall not receive its share of this distribution until 62684 it has submitted a plan that addresses how the subsidy will be 62685 used to better serve at-risk students and increase their 62686 likelihood of successful completion of a bachelor's degree 62687 program. The Board of Regents shall disseminate to all 62688 state-supported institutions of higher education all such plans 62689 submitted by institutions that received Success Challenge funds. 62690

In each fiscal year, one-third of the appropriations shall be 62691 distributed to university main campuses in proportion to each 62692 campus's share of the total bachelor's degrees granted by 62693 university main campuses to undergraduate students who completed 62694 their bachelor's degrees in a "timely manner" in the previous 62695 fiscal year. For the purposes of this section, "timely manner" 62696 means the normal time it would take for a full-time degree-seeking 62697 undergraduate student to complete the student's degree. Generally, 62698 for such students pursuing a bachelor's degree, "timely manner" 62699 means four years. Exceptions to this general rule shall be 62700 permitted for students enrolled in programs specifically designed 62701 to be completed in a longer time period. The Board of Regents 62702 shall collect base-line data beginning with the 1998-99 academic 62703 year to assess the timely completion statistics by university main 62704 campuses. 62705

RESEARCH CHALLENGE 62706

The foregoing appropriation item 235-454, Research Challenge, 62707 shall be used to enhance the basic research capabilities of public 62708 colleges and universities and accredited Ohio institutions of 62709 higher education holding certificates of authorization issued 62710 pursuant to section 1713.02 of the Revised Code, in order to 62711 strengthen academic research for pursuing Ohio's economic 62712 redevelopment goals. The Board of Regents, in consultation with 62713 the colleges and universities, shall administer the Research 62714 Challenge Program and utilize a means of matching, on a fractional 62715 basis, external funds attracted in the previous year by 62716 institutions for basic research. The program may include 62717 incentives for increasing the amount of external research funds 62718 coming to eligible institutions and for focusing research efforts 62719 upon critical state needs. Colleges and universities shall submit 62720 for review and approval to the Board of Regents plans for the 62721 institutional allocation of state dollars received through the 62722 program. The institutional plans shall provide the rationale for 62723 the allocation in terms of the strategic targeting of funds for 62724 academic and state purposes, for strengthening research programs, 62725 and for increasing the amount of external research funds, and 62726 shall include an evaluation process to provide results of the 62727 increased support. 62728

The Board of Regents shall submit a biennial report of 62729 progress to the General Assembly. 62730

COMPUTER SCIENCE GRADUATE EDUCATION 62731

The foregoing appropriation item 235-554, Computer Science 62732 Graduate Education, shall be used by the Board of Regents to 62733 support improvements in graduate programs in computer science at 62734 state-assisted universities. In each fiscal year, up to $200,000 62735 may be used to support collaborative efforts in graduate education 62736 in this program area. 62737

Section 94.03. HIGHER EDUCATION - BOARD OF TRUSTEES 62738

Funds appropriated for instructional subsidies at colleges 62739 and universities may be used to provide such branch or other 62740 off-campus undergraduate courses of study and such master's degree 62741 courses of study as may be approved by the Board of Regents. 62742

In providing instructional and other services to students, 62743 boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher 62744 education shall supplement state subsidies by income from charges 62745 to students. Each board shall establish the fees to be charged to 62746 all students, including an instructional fee for educational and 62747 associated operational support of the institution and a general 62748 fee for noninstructional services, including locally financed 62749 student services facilities used for the benefit of enrolled 62750 students. The instructional fee and the general fee shall 62751 encompass all charges for services assessed uniformly to all 62752 enrolled students. Each board may also establish special purpose 62753 fees, service charges, and fines as required; such special purpose 62754 fees and service charges shall be for services or benefits 62755 furnished individual students or specific categories of students 62756 and shall not be applied uniformly to all enrolled students. A 62757 tuition surcharge shall be paid by all students who are not 62758 residents of Ohio. 62759

The board of trustees of a state-assisted institution of 62760 higher education shall not authorize a waiver or nonpayment of 62761 instructional fees or general fees for any particular student or 62762 any class of students other than waivers specifically authorized 62763 by law or approved by the Chancellor. This prohibition is not 62764 intended to limit the authority of boards of trustees to provide 62765 for payments to students for services rendered the institution, 62766 nor to prohibit the budgeting of income for staff benefits or for 62767 student assistance in the form of payment of such instructional 62768 and general fees. 62769

Each state-assisted institution of higher education in its 62770 statement of charges to students shall separately identify the 62771 instructional fee, the general fee, the tuition charge, and the 62772 tuition surcharge. Fee charges to students for instruction shall 62773 not be considered to be a price of service but shall be considered 62774 to be an integral part of the state government financing program 62775 in support of higher educational opportunity for students. 62776

In providing the appropriations in support of instructional 62777 services at state-assisted institutions of higher education and 62778 the appropriations for other instruction it is the intent of the 62779 General Assembly that faculty members shall devote a proper and 62780 judicious part of their work week to the actual instruction of 62781 students. Total class credit hours of production per quarter per 62782 full-time faculty member is expected to meet the standards set 62783 forth in the budget data submitted by the Board of Regents. 62784

The authority of government vested by law in the boards of 62785 trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall 62786 in fact be exercised by those boards. Boards of trustees may 62787 consult extensively with appropriate student and faculty groups. 62788

Administrative decisions about the utilization of available 62789 resources, about organizational structure, about disciplinary 62790 procedure, about the operation and staffing of all auxiliary 62791 facilities, and about administrative personnel shall be the 62792 exclusive prerogative of boards of trustees. Any delegation of 62793 authority by a board of trustees in other areas of responsibility 62794 shall be accompanied by appropriate standards of guidance 62795 concerning expected objectives in the exercise of such delegated 62796 authority and shall be accompanied by periodic review of the 62797 exercise of this delegated authority to the end that the public 62798 interest, in contrast to any institutional or special interest, 62799 shall be served. 62800

Section 94.04. MEDICAL SCHOOL SUBSIDIES 62801

The foregoing appropriation item 235-515, Case Western 62802 Reserve University School of Medicine, shall be disbursed to Case 62803 Western Reserve University through the Board of Regents in 62804 accordance with agreements entered into as provided for by section 62805 3333.10 of the Revised Code, provided that the state support per 62806 full-time medical student shall not exceed that provided to 62807 full-time medical students at state universities. 62808

The foregoing appropriation items 235-536, Ohio State 62809
University Clinical Teaching; 235-537, University of Cincinnati 62810
Clinical Teaching; 235-538, Medical College of Ohio at Toledo 62811
Clinical Teaching; 235-539, Wright State University Clinical 62812
Teaching; 235-540, Ohio University Clinical Teaching; and 235-541, 62813
Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine Clinical 62814
Teaching, shall be distributed through the Board of Regents. 62815

The foregoing appropriation item 235-572, Ohio State 62816 University Clinic Support, shall be distributed through the Board 62817 of Regents to The Ohio State University for support of dental and 62818 veterinary medicine clinics. 62819

The Board of Regents shall develop plans consistent with 62820 existing criteria and guidelines as may be required for the 62821 distribution of appropriation items 235-519, Family Practice, 62822 235-525, Geriatric Medicine, and 235-526, Primary Care 62823
Residencies. 62824

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-539, Wright State 62825 University Clinical Teaching, $160,000 in each fiscal year shall 62826 be for the use of Wright State University's Ellis Institute for 62827 Clinical Teaching Studies to operate the clinical facility to 62828 serve the Greater Dayton area. 62829

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS FOR MEDICAL EDUCATION 62830

The Board of Regents, in consultation with the state-assisted 62831 medical colleges, shall develop performance standards for medical 62832 education. Special emphasis in the standards shall be placed on 62833 attempting to ensure that at least 50 per cent of the aggregate 62834 number of students enrolled in state-assisted medical colleges 62835 continue to enter residency as primary care physicians. Primary 62836 delivered electronically; automated media systems; and 64288 instructional and professional development materials for teachers. 64289

The commission shall cooperate with education technology agencies 64290 in the acquisition, development, and delivery of such educational 64291 resources to ensure high-quality and educational soundness at the 64292 lowest possible cost. Delivery of such resources may utilize a 64293 variety of technologies, with preference given to a high-speed 64294 integrated information network that can transport video, voice, 64295 data, and graphics simultaneously. 64296

Services shall include presentations and technical assistance 64297 that will help students and teachers integrate educational 64298 materials that support curriculum objectives, match specific 64299 learning styles, and are appropriate for individual interests and 64300 ability levels. 64301

Such instructional resources and services shall be made 64302 available for purchase by chartered nonpublic schools or by public 64303 school districts for the benefit of pupils attending chartered 64304 nonpublic schools. 64305

DISTANCE LEARNING 64306

Appropriation item 228-634, Distance Learning, shall be 64307 distributed by the Ohio SchoolNet Commission on a grant basis to 64308 eligible school districts to establish "distance learning" in the 64309 school district. Per the agreement with Ameritech, school 64310 districts are eligible for funds if they are within an Ameritech 64311 service area. Funds to administer the program shall be expended by 64312

Ameritech. 64314

Within 30 days after the effective date of this section, the 64315 company and the Public Utilities Commission in fiscal year 1995. 64320

ELECTRICAL INFRASTRUCTURE 64321

The unencumbered and unallotted balances of June 30, 2001, in 64322 appropriation item 228-690, SchoolNet Electrical Infrastructure, 64323 are reappropriated to fund projects pursuant to this section. The 64324 foregoing appropriation item may be distributed by the Ohio 64325 SchoolNet Commission for use by school districts to renovate 64326 existing buildings with sufficient electrical service to safely 64327 operate educational technology consistent with their SchoolNet and 64328 SchoolNet Plus technology plans. The Executive Director of the 64329 Ohio SchoolNet Commission shall review grant proposals from school 64330 districts for the use of these funds. In evaluating grant 64331 proposals, the executive director shall consider the ability and 64332 commitment of school districts to contribute local public and 64333 private resources to upgrade their electrical service and shall 64334 give consideration to consortia of school districts that have 64335 formed to optimize resources to upgrade electrical service. In no 64336 case shall grant awards exceed $1,000,000 for a single school 64337 district. Funding recommendations for this appropriation made by 64338 the executive director are subject to the review of the Ohio 64339 SchoolNet Commission. 64340

$200,000 in each fiscal year shall be used for the Stark County 64357 School Teacher Technical Training Center. The remaining amount for 64358 grants shall be made to school districts. 64359

The ONEnet Ohio Project is designed to link all public K-12 64360 classrooms to each other and the Internet, and to provide access 64361 to voice, video, and data educational resources for students and 64362 teachers. 64363

The Interactive Video Distance Learning Program shall provide 64364 competitive grants to school districts or consortia of school 64365 districts to purchase necessary distance learning technology, pay 64366 recurring connectivity costs, train technology coordinators to 64367 use, maintain, and support distance learning technology, train 64368 teachers to use distance learning technology in the classroom, and 64369 provide ongoing content development to be shared statewide. 64370

The INFOhio Network is a network of library resources to 64371 support the provision of electronic resources to all public 64372 schools with preference given to elementary schools. Consideration 64373 should be given to coordinating the allocation of these moneys 64374 with the efforts of OhioLINK and the Ohio Public Information 64375 Network. 64376

The JASON Project shall provide funding for statewide access 64377 and a 75% subsidy for statewide licensing of JASON content for 64378 90,000 middle school students statewide, and professional 64379 development for teachers participating in the program. 64380

It is the intent of the General Assembly that the SchoolNet Commission, in conjunction with RISE Learning Solutions, shall develop a program that may be conducted in conjunction with state-supported technology programs including, but not limited to, SchoolNet Commission appropriation item 228-406, Technical and Instructional Professional Development, and appropriation item 228-539, Education Technology, designed to educate preschool staff members and providers on developmentally appropriate teaching methods, behavior guidance, and literacy and to involve parents more closely in the education and development of their children. The project shall include an interactive instructional program, delivered using satellite television, Internet, and with facilitation, which shall be distributed to program participants using the established satellite receiver dishes on public schools, Head Start centers, and childcare centers at up to 100 locations throughout the state. The interactive instructional program shall be developed to enhance the professional development, training, and performance of preschool staff members; the education and care-giving skills of the parents of preschool children; and the preparation of preschool-aged children for learning.

The project shall utilize the grant to continue a direct-service program that shall include at least three teleconferences that may be distributed by Ohio-based public television utilizing satellite or microwave technology in a manner designed to promote interactive communications between the program participants located at sub-sites within the Ohio Educational Broadcast Network or as determined by the commission. Program participants shall communicate with trainers and participants at other program sites through telecommunications and facsimile and on-line computer technology. As much as possible, the project shall utilize systems currently available in state-supported technology programs and conduct the program in a manner that promotes innovative, interactive communications between program participants at all the sites. Parent support groups and teacher training sessions shall supplement the teleconferences and shall occur on a local basis.

RISE Learning Solutions may subcontract components of the project.

Individuals eligible to participate in the program include those children, their parents, custodians, or guardians, and preschool staff members who are eligible to participate in a preschool program as defined in division (A) of section 3301.52 and section 5104.02 of the Revised Code.

The programs, including two to be developed in support of teacher proficiency in teaching reading to prekindergarten and kindergarten to third grade students, at the direction of the Department, may include: two three-hour broadcast seminars from a central up-link station, distributed in up to 88 counties; high production-value video sought in various locations; and direct interactive adult learning activities. The program shall develop program workbooks and involve at least three small group-facilitated follow-up discussion workshops and development and distribution of at least two home videos. The program shall also provide Internet access, interactive lines, bulletin board, and CD-ROM.

Upon completion of each of the school years for which the grant was made, RISE Learning Solutions shall issue a report to the commission and the members of the General Assembly explaining the goals and objectives determined, the activities implemented, the progress made toward the achievement of the goals and objectives, and the outcome of the project.

Not later than August 30, 2001, after the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, the SchoolNet Commission shall submit a budget for the expected appropriations from the Tobacco Settlement Education Technologies Trust Fund to the Controlling Board. 64446

64448

the Library and Local Government Support Fund to the OPLIN 65471 Technology Fund, the amount distributed to each county undivided 65472

The assessment shall include identifying supports available to 66413 assessment, the Cabinet Council shall develop, in consultation 66417 with early childhood, business, and community organizations, a 66418

Any business commenced, but not completed by, the Mine 66444 Examining Board on the effective date of this section shall be 66445 completed by the Chief or the Reclamation Commission, as 66446 modified or rescinded by the Chief or the Reclamation Commission, 66454 as appropriate. 66455

refer to the Chief of the Division of Mineral Resources Management 66463 or the Reclamation Commission, as appropriate. 66464

No action or proceeding pending on the effective date of this section is affected by the transfer, and shall be prosecuted or defended in the name of the Chief or the Reclamation Commission, as appropriate. In all such actions and proceedings, the Chief or the Reclamation Commission, as appropriate, shall be substituted as a party upon application by the receiving entity to the court or other appropriate tribunal.

Section 186. EXTREME ENVIRONMENTAL CONTAMINATION OF SCHOOL FACILITIES

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the School Facilities Commission may provide assistance under the Exceptional Needs Pilot Program to any school district and not exclusively a school district in the lowest 50 per cent of adjusted valuation per pupil on the fiscal year 1999 ranking of school districts established pursuant to section 3317.02 of the Revised Code, for the purpose of the relocation or replacement of school facilities required as a result of extreme environmental contamination. If in the assessment of the school district's classroom facilities needs conducted under the Exceptional Needs Pilot Program pursuant to Section 26 of Am. Sub. H.B. 850 of the 122nd General Assembly, the commission determines that all the school district's classroom facilities ultimately will require replacement under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, then the commission may undertake a district-wide project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code.

The School Facilities Commission shall contract with an independent environmental consultant to conduct a study and to report to the commission as to the seriousness of the environmental contamination, whether the contamination violates applicable state and federal standards, and whether the facilities are no longer suitable for use as school facilities. The commission then shall make a determination regarding funding for 66496 the relocation or replacement of the school facilities. If the 66497 federal government or other public or private entity provides 66498 funds for restitution of costs incurred by the state or school 66499 district in the relocation or replacement of the school 66500 facilities, the school district shall use such funds in excess of 66501 the school district's share to refund the state for the state's 66502 contribution to the environmental contamination portion of the 66503 project. The school district may apply an amount of such 66504 restitution funds up to an amount equal to the school district's 66505 portion of the project, as defined by the commission, toward 66506 paying its portion of that project to reduce the amount of bonds 66507 the school district otherwise must issue to receive state 66508 assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code. 66509

Section 187. (A) The Ohio School Facilities Commission may 66510 commit up to thirty-five million dollars to the Canton City School 66511 District for construction of a facility described in this section, 66512 in lieu of a high school that would otherwise be authorized under 66513 Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. The commission shall not commit 66514 funds under this section unless all of the following conditions 66515 are met: 66516

(1) The district has entered into a cooperative agreement 66517 with a state-assisted technical college. 66518

(2) The district has received an irrevocable commitment of 66519 additional funding from nonpublic sources. 66520

(3) The facility is intended to serve both secondary and 66521 postsecondary instructional purposes. 66522

(B) The commission shall enter into an agreement with the 66523 district for the construction of the facility authorized under 66524 this section that is separate from and in addition to the 66525 agreement required for the district's participation in the 66526

Classroom Facilities Assistance Program under section 3318.08 of 66527 the Revised Code. Notwithstanding that section and sections 66528 3318.03, 3318.04, and 3318.083 of the Revised Code, the additional 66529 agreement shall provide, but not be limited to, the following: 66530

(1) The commission shall not have any oversight 66531 responsibilities over the construction of the facility. 66532

(2) The facility need not comply with the specifications for 66533 plans and materials for high schools adopted by the commission. 66534

(3) The commission may decrease the basic project cost that 66535 would otherwise be calculated for a high school under Chapter 66536
3318. of the Revised Code. 66537

(4) The state shall not share in any increases in the basic 66538 project cost for the facility above the amount authorized under 66539
this section. 66540

All other provisions of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code 66541 apply to the approval and construction of a facility authorized 66542 under this section. 66543

The state funds committed to the facility authorized by this 66544 section shall be part of the total amount the state commits to the 66545 Canton City School District under Chapter 3318. of the Revised 66546
Code. All additional state funds committed to the Canton City 66547 School District for classroom facilities assistance shall be 66548 subject to all provisions of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. 66549

Section 188. Not later than July 1, 2001, the Tax 66550 Commissioner shall certify to the Department of Education for each 66551 city, local, and exempted village school district the total 66552 federal adjusted gross income of the residents of the school 66553 district, based on tax returns filed by the residents of the 66554 amended or enacted by this act, and the items of law of which such 66928 sections as amended or enacted by this act are composed, are not 66929 subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, 66930 Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, such 66931 sections as amended or enacted by this act, and the items of law 66932 of which such sections as amended or enacted by this act are 66933 and 3323.091 of the Revised Code, as amended or enacted by this 66940 act, and the items of law of which such sections as amended or 66941 enacted by this act are composed, are not subject to the 66942 referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, Article II, 66943 Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the sections as 66944 amended or enacted by this act, and the items of law of which such 66945 sections as amended or enacted by this act are composed, are 66946 entitled to go into immediate effect when this act becomes law. 66947 However, the sections as amended or enacted by this act, and the 66948 items of law of which such sections as amended or enacted by this 66949 becomes law, whichever is later. 66951

Revised Code enacted by this act shall be effective sixty days 66953 after the effective date of this section. 66954

Section 209. (A) The amendment by this act removing language 66955 from division (B)(1)(e) of section 125.22 of the Revised Code 66956 constitutes an item of law that is subject to the referendum. 66957 Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1c and 66958 section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the item takes effect on the 66959 ninety-first day after this act is filed with the Secretary of 66960
State. If, however, a referendum petition is filed against the 66961

(B) The amendment by this act inserting division (A)(20) into 66964 section 125.22 of the Revised Code constitutes an item of law that 66965 is not subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio 66966 Constitution, Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the 66967 Revised Code, the item goes into immediate effect when this act 66968 becomes law. 66969

from division (B)(2) of section 3318.04 of the Revised Code 66971

section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the item takes effect on the 66974
ninety-first day after this act is filed with the Secretary of 66975 State. If, however, a referendum petition is filed against the 66976 item, the item, unless rejected at the referendum, takes effect at 66977 the earliest time permitted by law. 66978

Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the item goes into immediate effect when this act becomes law.

Section 211. (A) The amendment by this act removing language from divisions (G)(2) and (4) and (H)(1) and (2), and inserting language into what are now divisions (G)(3) and (H), of section 3734.82 of the Revised Code constitutes an item of law that is subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1c and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the item takes effect on the ninety-first day after this act is filed with the Secretary of State. If, however, a referendum petition is filed against the item, the item, unless rejected at the referendum, takes effect at the earliest time permitted by law.

(B) The amendment by this act to former division (G)(3) (now division (G)(2)) of section 3734.82 of the Revised Code constitutes an item of law that is not subject to the referendum. If, however, a referendum petition is filed against the item, the item, unless rejected at the referendum, takes effect at the earliest time permitted by law.

(B) The amendment by this act removing language from division 67010
(I) of section 5119.01 of the Revised Code constitutes an item of 67011 law that is not subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio 67012
Constitution, Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the 67013 Revised Code, the item goes into immediate effect when this act 67014
becomes law. 67015

Section 213. Sections 1517.05, 1517.06, and 1517.07 of the 67016 Revised Code, as amended both now and in the future by this act, 67017 are not subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio 67018 Constitution, Article II, Section 1c and section 1.471 of the 67019
Revised Code, sections 1517.05, 1517.06, and 1517.07 of the 67020 Revised Code as amended now by Section 1 of this act, go into 67021 immediate effect when this act becomes law, and sections 1517.05, 67022 1517.06, and 1517.07 of the Revised Code, as amended in the future 67023 by this act, go into effect on the future date specified in this 67024 act. 67025

Section 214. The repeal by this act of section 3317.0215 of 67026 the Revised Code is not subject to the referendum. Therefore, 67027 under Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 67028 of the Revised Code, the repeal goes into immediate effect when 67029 this act becomes law. 67030

5126.054 of the Revised Code constitute items of law that are not 67033
subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, 67034 Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the 67035 repeals go into immediate effect when this act becomes law. 67036

Section 216. Section 5104.32 of the Revised Code, as amended 67037
by this act, shall take effect January 1, 2002. 67038 amended by this act, shall take effect January 1, 2002. Sections 67043 5733.02, 5733.021, 5733.12, and 5733.18 of the Revised Code, as 67044

5735.06, 5735.061, 5743.62, 5743.63, 5745.03, 5745.04, and 5749.06 67047 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, shall take effect 67048 January 1, 2003. 67049

Section 219. The amendment by this act of sections 126.21, 67050 years beginning with fiscal year 2003. 67052

Section 220. The enactment of section 1309.525 of the Revised 67053
Code by this act is contingent upon and takes effect only if S.B. 67054
74 of the 124th General Assembly becomes law and section 1309.40 67055

Section 221. Section 3317.10 of the Revised Code, as amended 67057
by this act, shall take effect January 1, 2003. 67058

Section 222. (A) Sections 1345.21, 4707.01, 4707.011, 67059
4707.02, 4707.03, 4707.04, 4707.05, 4707.06, 4707.07, 4707.071, 67060
4707.072, 4707.08, 4707.09, 4707.10, 4707.11, 4707.111, 4707.12, 67061
4707.13, 4707.15, 4707.152, 4707.16, 4707.19, 4707.20, 4707.21, 67062 4707.23, and 4707.99 of the Revised Code, as amended by this act, 67063 shall take effect on October 1, 2001, or the earliest date 67064 thereafter permitted by law. 67065

(B)(1) On the effective date under division (A) of this 67066 section of the sections as amended, the licensing functions of the 67067 Department of Commerce under Chapter 4707. of the Revised Code are 67068 transferred to the Department of Agriculture. The Department of 67069 Agriculture thereupon and thereafter assumes these functions. 67070

Any business commenced but not completed by the Department of 67071 Commerce on that effective date shall be completed by the Director 67072 or Department of Agriculture in the same manner, and with the same 67073 effect, as if completed by the Director or Department of Commerce. 67074
No validation, cure, right, privilege, remedy, obligation, or 67075 liability is lost or impaired by reason of the transfer of 67076 functions required by this section and shall be administered by 67077 the Director or Department of Agriculture. All of the Department 67078 of Commerce's rules, orders, and determinations continue in effect 67079 as rules, orders, and determinations of the Department of 67080
Agriculture until modified or rescinded by the Department of 67081 Agriculture. If necessary to ensure the integrity of the numbering 67082 of the Administrative Code, the Director of the Legislative 67083 Service Commission shall renumber the Department of Commerce's 67084 relevant rules as appropriate to reflect their transfer to the 67085 Department of Agriculture. 67086

No employees of the Department of Commerce are transferred to 67087 the Department of Agriculture. The Director of Agriculture may 67088 create up to three additional full-time positions for the 67089 administration of the licensing functions of Chapter 4707. of the 67090 Revised Code assumed by the Director and Department payable out of 67091 the unexpended balances transferred to the Department of 67092 Agriculture. 67093

(2) Whenever the Director or Department of Commerce is 67094 referred to in any law, contract, or other document relating to 67095 the transferred functions, the reference shall be deemed to refer 67096 to the Director or Department of Agriculture, whichever is 67097 appropriate. 67098

No action or proceeding pending on the effective date of this 67099 section is affected by the transfer, and shall be prosecuted or 67100 defended in the name of the Director or Department of Agriculture. 67101
In all such actions, the Director or Department of Agriculture 67102 upon application to the court shall be substituted as a party. 67103

Section 223. (A) There is hereby transferred to the 67104 Governor's Advisory Council on Physical Fitness, Wellness, and 67105 Sports, all books, records, documents, files, transcripts, and 67106 other materials that are in the possession of the Physical Fitness 67107 and Sports Advisory Board, as they existed immediately prior to 67108 the effective date of sections 3701.77, 3701.771, and 3701.772 of 67109 the Revised Code, as amended by this act. 67110

(B) All moneys appropriated or reappropriated to the Board 67111 for the performance of the duties, powers, obligations, and 67112 functions, and the exercise of the rights, that are transferred by 67113 this act to the Council, to the extent of the remaining unexpended 67114 or unencumbered balance of the appropriations or reappropriations, 67115 whether obligated or unobligated, are hereby transferred to the 67116 Council for performing the duties, powers, obligations, and 67117 functions, and exercising the rights of the Council. Payments for 67118 liabilities for expenses incurred before or after the effective 67119 date of sections 3701.77, 3701.771, and 3701.772 of the Revised 67120 Code, as amended by this act, shall be made on separate vouchers 67121 or certificates approved by the Council. 67122

(C) All rules, acts, determinations, approvals, and decisions 67123 of the Board pertaining to the duties, powers, obligations, and 67124 functions that are transferred and assigned by this act to the 67125 Council and that are in effect at the time of the transfer shall 67126 continue in force as rules, acts, determinations, approvals, and 67127 decisions of the Board until they are duly modified, superseded, 67128 or repealed by the Council, as appropriate. Whenever the duties, 67129 powers, obligations, and functions of the Board that are 67130 transferred by this act to the Council are referred to or 67131 designated in any law, contract, or other document pertaining to 67132 those duties, powers, obligations, or functions, including the 67133 reference to the Board within section 27 of Sub. H.B. 670 of the 67134 121st General Assembly as subsequently amended, the reference or 67135 designation shall be considered, as appropriate, to be a reference 67136 or designation to the Council and to the duties, powers, 67137 obligations, and functions as transferred to it. 67138

No existing right or remedy of any character shall be lost, 67139 impaired, or affected by reason of the transfer, except as insofar 67140 as that remedy or right shall be administered, as appropriate, by 67141 the Council instead of the Board. 67142

Section 224. Except as otherwise specifically provided in 67143 this act, the uncodified sections of law amended or enacted in 67144 this act, and the items of law of which the uncodified sections of 67145 law amended or enacted in this act are composed, are not subject 67146 to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, Article II, 67147 Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the uncodified 67148 sections of law amended or enacted in this act, and the items of 67149 law of which the uncodified sections of law amended or enacted in 67150 this act are composed, go into immediate effect when this act 67151
becomes law. 67152

Section 225. Uncodified sections of law amended or enacted in 67153 this act, and items of law contained within the uncodified 67154 sections of law amended or enacted in this act, that are marked 67155 with an asterisk are subject to the referendum. Therefore, under 67156 Ohio Constitution, Article II, Section 1c and section 1.471 of the 67157 Revised Code, the uncodified sections and items of law marked with 67158 an asterisk take effect on the ninety-first day after this act is 67159 filed with the Secretary of State. If, however, a referendum 67160 petition is filed against an uncodified section or item of law 67161 marked with an asterisk, the uncodified section or item of law 67162 marked with an asterisk, unless rejected at the referendum, takes 67163 effect at the earliest time permitted by law. 67164

If the amending and existing repeal clauses commanding the 67165 amendment of an uncodified section of law are both marked with 67166 asterisks, the uncodified section as amended is deemed also to 67167 have been marked with an asterisk. 67168

An asterisk marking an uncodified section or item of law has 67169 the form *. 67170

This section defines the meaning and form of, but is not 67171 itself to be considered marked with, an asterisk. 67172

Section 226. The amendment to Section 10 of Am. Sub. S.B. 287 67173 of the 123rd General Assembly constitutes an item of law that is 67174
subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, 67175 Article II, Section 1c and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the 67176 item takes effect on the ninety-first day after this act is filed 67177 with the Secretary of State. If, however, a referendum petition is 67178 filed against the item, the item, unless rejected at the 67179 referendum, takes effect at the earliest time permitted by law. 67180

Section 227. The amendments by this act to Section 5 of Am. 67181
Sub. S.B. 50 of the 121st General Assembly, to Section 153 of Am. 67182
Sub. H.B. 117 of the 121st General Assembly, to Section 3 of Am. 67183
Sub. H.B. 440 of the 121st General Assembly, to Section 3 of Am. 67184
Sub. H.B. 621 of the 122nd General Assembly, to Section 3 of Am. 67185
Sub. H.B. 215 of the 123rd General Assembly, to Section 4 of Am. 67186
S.B. 210 of the 123rd General Assembly, and to Section 129 of Am. 67187
Sub. H.B. 283 of the 123rd General Assembly constitute items of 67188 law that are not subject to the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio 67189

Constitution, Article II, Section 1d and section 1.471 of the 67190 Revised Code, the items go into immediate effect when this act 67191 becomes law. 67192

Section 228. The repeals by this act of Section 18 of Am. 67193
Sub. H.B. 650 of the 122nd General Assembly and of Section 17 of 67194 Am. Sub. H.B. 282 of the 123rd General Assembly are not subject to 67195 the referendum. Therefore, under Ohio Constitution, Article II, 67196 Section 1d and section 1.471 of the Revised Code, the repeals go 67197 into immediate effect when this act becomes law. 67198

Section 229. If the amendment or enactment in this act of a 67199 codified or uncodified section of law is subject to the 67200 referendum, the corresponding indications in the amending, 67201 enacting, or existing repeal clauses commanding the amendment or 67202 enactment also are subject to the referendum, along with the 67203 amendment or enactment. If the amendment or enactment by this act 67204 of a codified or uncodified section of law is not subject to the 67205 referendum, the corresponding indications in the amending, 67206 enacting, or existing repeal clauses commanding the amendment or 67207 enactment also are not subject to the referendum, the same as the 67208 amendment or enactment. 67209

Section 230. An item, other than an amending, enacting, or 67210 repealing clause, that composes the whole or part of an uncodified 67211 section contained in this act has no effect after June 30, 2003, 67212 unless its context clearly indicates otherwise. 67213

Section 231. The amendment of sections 4779.01, 4779.02, 67214 4779.16, 4779.19, 4779.20, and 4779.26 of the Revised Code is not 67215 intended to supersede the earlier repeal, with delayed effective 67216 date, of those sections. 67217
