(1) The debt is certified as paid in full by the state agency or political subdivision to whom the debt was owed; 455
456

(4) The debtor and state agency or political subdivision to whom the debt is owed have agreed to a payment plan established through a settlement. 467

owed. 480

(C) The auditor of state shall maintain a database, 481 debt to the state and the amount of the unresolved debt. The 483 auditor of state shall have this database operational on or before 484 January 1, 2004. The initial database shall contain the 485

(E) As used in this section, "state agency" has the same 494 meaning as in section 9.66 of the Revised Code. 495

Sec. 9.83. (A) The state and any political subdivision may 496 procure a policy or policies of insurance insuring its officers 497 and employees against liability for injury, death, or loss to 498 person or property that arises out of the operation of an 499 automobile, truck, motor vehicle with auxiliary equipment, 500 self-propelling equipment or trailer, aircraft, or watercraft by 501 the officers or employees while engaged in the course of their 502 employment or official responsibilities for the state or the 503 political subdivision. The state is authorized to expend funds to 504 pay judgments that are rendered in any court against its officers 505 or employees and that result from such operation, and is 506 authorized to expend funds to compromise claims for liability 507 against its officers or employees that result from such operation. 508

No insurer shall deny coverage under such a policy, and the state shall not refuse to pay judgments or compromise claims, on the ground that an automobile, truck, motor vehicle with auxiliary equipment, self-propelling equipment or trailer, aircraft, or watercraft was not being used in the course of an officer's or employee's employment or official responsibilities for the state or a political subdivision unless the officer or employee who was operating an automobile, truck, motor vehicle with auxiliary equipment, or self-propelling equipment or trailer is convicted of a violation of section 124.71 of the Revised Code as a result of the same events.

(B) ~~Such funds~~ Funds shall be reserved as ~~are~~ necessary, in the exercise of sound and prudent actuarial judgment, to cover potential expense, fees, damage, loss, or other liability. The superintendent of insurance may recommend or, if the state requests of the superintendent, shall recommend, a specific amount for any period of time that, in the superintendent's opinion, represents such a judgment.

(C) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the department of administrative services to purchase liability insurance for all state vehicles in a single policy of insurance or to cover all state vehicles under a single plan of self-insurance.

(D) Insurance procured by the state pursuant to this section shall be procured as provided in section 125.03 of the Revised Code.

(E) For purposes of liability insurance procured under this section to cover the operation of a motor vehicle by a prisoner for whom the insurance is procured, "employee" includes a prisoner in the custody of the department of rehabilitation and correction who is enrolled in a work program that is established by the department pursuant to section 5145.16 of the Revised Code and in which the prisoner is required to operate a motor vehicle, as 541 defined in section 4509.01 of the Revised Code, and who is engaged 542 in the operation of a motor vehicle in the course of the work 543 program. 544

(F) There is hereby created in the state treasury the vehicle 545 liability fund. All contributions collected by the director of 546 administrative services under division (I) of this section shall 547 be deposited into the fund. The fund shall be used to provide 548 insurance and self-insurance for the state under this section. All 549 investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to it. 550

(G) The director of administrative services, through the 551 office of risk management, shall operate the vehicle liability 552 fund on an actuarially sound basis. 553

(H) Reserves shall be maintained in the vehicle liability 554 fund in any amount that is necessary and adequate, in the exercise 555 of sound and prudent actuarial judgment, to cover potential 556 liability claims, expenses, fees, or damages. Money in the fund 557 may be applied to the payment of liability claims that are filed 558 against the state in the court of claims and determined in the 559 manner provided in Chapter 2743. of the Revised Code. The director 560 of administrative services may procure the services of a qualified 561 actuarial firm for the purpose of recommending the specific amount 562 of money that is required to maintain adequate reserves for a 563 specified period of time. 564

(I) The director of administrative services shall collect 565 from each state agency or any participating state body its 566 contribution to the vehicle liability fund for the purpose of 567 purchasing insurance or administering self-insurance programs for 568 coverage authorized under this section. The amount of the 569 contribution shall be determined by the director, with the 570 approval of the director of budget and management. It shall be 571 based upon actuarial assumptions and the relative risk and loss 572 experience of each state agency or participating state body. The 573 amount of the contribution also shall include a reasonable sum to 574 cover administrative costs of the department of administrative 575 services. 576

Sec. 101.34. (A) There is hereby created a joint legislative 577 ethics committee to serve the general assembly. The committee 578 shall be composed of twelve members, six each from the two major 579 political parties, and each member shall serve on the committee 580 during the member's term as a member of that general assembly. Six 581 members of the committee shall be members of the house of 582 representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of 583 representatives, not more than three from the same political 584 party, and six members of the committee shall be members of the 585 senate appointed by the president of the senate, not more than 586 original appointment. The members of the committee shall be 589 appointed within fifteen days after the first day of the first 590 regular session of each general assembly and the committee shall 591 meet and proceed to recommend an ethics code not later than thirty 592 days after the first day of the first regular session of each 593 general assembly. 594

In the first regular session of each general assembly, the 595 speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint the 596 chairperson of the committee from among the house members of the 597 committee and the president of the senate shall appoint the 598 vice-chairperson of the committee from among the senate members of 599 the committee. In the second regular session of each general 600 assembly, the president of the senate shall appoint the 601 chairperson of the committee from among the senate members of the 602 committee and the speaker of the house of representatives shall 603 appoint the vice-chairperson of the committee from among the house 604 members of the committee. The chairperson, vice-chairperson, and 605 members of the committee shall serve until their respective 606 successors are appointed or until they are no longer members of 607 the general assembly. 608

The committee shall meet at the call of the chairperson or 609 upon the written request of seven members of the committee. 610

(B) The joint legislative ethics committee: 611

(1) Shall recommend a code of ethics which is consistent with 612 law to govern all members and employees of each house of the 613 general assembly and all candidates for the office of member of 614 each house; 615

(2) May receive and hear any complaint which alleges a breach 616 of any privilege of either house, or misconduct of any member, 617 shall not order the closure of any state institutional facility, 1319 for the purpose of expenditure reductions or budget cuts, other 1320 than in accordance with this section. 1321

(C) If the governor determines that necessary expenditure 1322 reductions and budget cuts cannot be made without closing one or 1323

The anticipated savings to be obtained by the commission's 1348 recommendation shall be approximately the same as the anticipated 1349 savings the governor specified in the governor's notice provided 1350 closing one or more state institutional facilities, the governor 1362 division, the governor shall not close any state institutional 1366 facility of the target state agency that is not listed in the 1367 commission's recommendation, and shall not close multiple 1368 institutions in any order other than the order of the commission's 1369 preference as specified in the recommendation. The governor is not 1370 required to follow the recommendation of the commission in closing 1371 an institutional facility if the governor determines that a 1372 significant change in circumstances makes the recommendation 1373 unworkable. 1374

(D) A state facilities closure commission shall be created at 1375 the time and in the manner specified in division (C)(2) of this 1376 section. If more than one state agency or department is a target 1377 management. One member shall be the director, or other agency 1395 head, of the target state agency. Two members shall be private 1396 executives with expertise in facility utilization, with one of 1397 these members appointed by the speaker of the house of 1398 representatives and the other appointed by the president of the 1399 senate, and neither of the members so appointed may have a state 1400 institutional facility of the target state agency in the county in 1401 which the member resides. One member shall be a representative of 1402 making this determination, the commission shall, at a minimum, 1415 consider the following factors: 1416

(1) Whether there is a need to reduce the number of 1417
facilities; 1418

(2) The availability of alternate facilities;	1419
(3) The cost effectiveness of the facilities;	1420
(4) The geographic factors associated with each facility and its proximity to other similar facilities;	1421 1422

the profits, capital, or value of the taxpayer. Such ownership 2980 interest shall be determined in accordance with section 1563 of 2981 the Internal Revenue Code and regulations prescribed thereunder. 2982

(3) "New income tax revenue" means the total amount withheld 2983 under section 5747.06 of the Revised Code by the taxpayer during 2984 the taxable year from the compensation of new employees for the 2985

(B) The tax credit authority may make grants under this 2990 take the form of a refundable credit allowed against the tax 2992 imposed by section 5733.06 or 5747.02 of the Revised Code. The 2993 of the Revised Code. The amount of the credit equals the new 2998 income tax revenue for the taxable year multiplied by the 2999 percentage specified in the agreement with the tax credit 3000 authority. 3001

(C) A taxpayer or potential taxpayer who proposes a project 3002 to create new jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit 3003 authority to enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this 3004 section. The director of development shall prescribe the form of 3005 the application. After receipt of an application, the authority 3006 may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for a credit under 3007 this section if it determines all of the following: 3008

(1) The taxpayer's project will create new jobs in this 3009
state; 3010

(2) The taxpayer's project is economically sound and will 3011 benefit the people of this state by increasing opportunities for 3012 employment and strengthening the economy of this state; 3013

(3) Receiving the tax credit is a major factor in the 3014 taxpayer's decision to go forward with the project. 3015

(D) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 3016
following: 3017

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 3018 fifteen years, and the first taxable year for which the credit may 3021 be claimed; 3022

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer shall maintain operations 3023 at the project location for at least twice the number of years as 3024 the term of the tax credit; 3025

(4) The percentage, as determined by the tax credit 3026 authority, of new income tax revenue that will be allowed as the 3027 amount of the credit for each taxable year; 3028

(5) A specific method for determining how many new employees 3029 are employed during a taxable year; 3030

the director of development the number of new employees, the new 3032 income tax revenue withheld in connection with the new employees, 3033 and any other information the director needs to perform ~~his~~ the 3034 director's duties under this section; 3035

(7) A requirement that the director of development annually 3036 shall verify the amounts reported under division (D)(6) of this 3037 section, and after doing so shall issue a certificate to the 3038 taxpayer stating that the amounts have been verified; 3039

otherwise provided in division (D)(8)(b) of this section, shall 3041 not relocate employment positions from elsewhere in this state to 3042
the project site that is the subject of the agreement for the 3043
lesser of five years from the date the agreement is entered into 3044 or the number of years the taxpayer is entitled to claim the tax 3045
credit. 3046

(b) The taxpayer may relocate employment positions from 3047
elsewhere in this state to the project site that is the subject of 3048
the following: 3050

(i) That the site from which the employment positions would 3051 be relocated is inadequate to meet market and industry conditions, 3052
considerations affecting the taxpayer; 3054

(ii) That the legislative authority of the county, township, 3055
be relocated has been notified of the relocation. 3057

subdivision shall be considered a relocation of an employment 3060 position, but the transfer of an individual employee from one 3061 political subdivision to another political subdivision shall not 3062 be considered a relocation of an employment position as long as 3063 the individual's employment position in the first political 3064 subdivision is refilled. 3065

(E) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 3066 or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit 3067 authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 3068 of the tax credit. The reduction of the percentage or term shall 3069 take effect in the taxable year immediately following the taxable 3070 year in which the authority amends the agreement. If the taxpayer 3071 relocates employment positions in violation of the provision 3072
required under division (D)(8)(a) of this section, the taxpayer 3073 shall not claim the tax credit under section 5733.0610 of the 3074
Revised Code for any tax years following the calendar year in 3075

which the relocation occurs and any subsequent taxable years. 3078

(F) Projects that consist solely of point-of-final-purchase 3079 retail facilities are not eligible for a tax credit under this 3080 section. If a project consists of both point-of-final-purchase 3081 retail facilities and nonretail facilities, only the portion of 3082 the project consisting of the nonretail facilities is eligible for 3083 a tax credit and only the new income tax revenue from new 3084 employees of the nonretail facilities shall be considered when 3085 computing the amount of the tax credit. If a warehouse facility is 3086 part of a point-of-final-purchase retail facility and supplies 3087 only that facility, the warehouse facility is not eligible for a 3088 tax credit. Catalog distribution centers are not considered 3089 point-of-final-purchase retail facilities for the purposes of this 3090 division, and are eligible for tax credits under this section. 3091

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 3092

applicant or recipient of a tax credit under this section, and any 3094 information taken for any purpose from such statements or 3095 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 3096
the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of the authority may 3097
issuing public reports or in connection with court proceedings 3099
concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 3100 request of the tax commissioner, the chairperson of the authority 3101 shall provide to the commissioner any statement or information 3102 submitted by an applicant or recipient of a tax credit in 3103 connection with the credit. The commissioner shall preserve the 3104 confidentiality of the statement or information. 3105

(H) A taxpayer claiming a credit under this section shall 3106 submit to the tax commissioner a copy of the director of 3107
development's certificate of verification under division (D)(7) of 3108 this section for the taxable year. However, failure to submit a 3109 copy of the certificate does not invalidate a claim for a credit. 3110

(I) The director of development, after consultation with the 3111 tax commissioner and in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 3112
Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary to implement this 3113 section. The rules may provide for recipients of tax credits under 3114
this section to be charged fees to cover administrative costs of 3115
the tax credit program. At the time the director gives public 3116 notice under division (A) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code of 3117
the adoption of the rules, the director shall submit copies of the 3118 proposed rules to the chairpersons of the standing committees on 3119
representatives. 3121

(J) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 3122
a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 3123
subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 3124
Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 3125

distributive share to its owners. A credit received under this 3126 section by a partnership, S-corporation, or other such business 3127 entity shall be apportioned among the persons to whom the income 3128 or profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 3129
or profit is distributed. 3131

(K) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 3132 who has received a credit under this section is not complying with 3133 the requirement under division (D)(3) of this section, the 3134 director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 3135
noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 3136 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the tax 3137 credit authority may require the taxpayer to refund to this state 3138 a portion of the credit in accordance with the following: 3139

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 3140 location for at least one and one-half times the number of years 3141 of the term of the tax credit, an amount not exceeding twenty-five 3142 per cent of the sum of any previously allowed credits under this 3143
section; 3144

location for at least the number of years of the term of the tax 3146 credit, an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the sum of any 3147 previously allowed credits under this section; 3148

(3) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 3149 location for less than the number of years of the term of the tax 3150 credit, an amount not exceeding one hundred per cent of the sum of 3151 any previously allowed credits under this section. 3152

In determining the portion of the tax credit to be refunded 3153 to this state, the tax credit authority shall consider the effect 3154 of market conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the 3155 taxpayer continues to maintain other operations in this state. 3156

After making the determination, the authority shall certify the 3157 amount to be refunded to the tax commissioner. The commissioner 3158 shall make an assessment for that amount against the taxpayer 3159 under Chapter 5733. or 5747. of the Revised Code. The time 3160 limitations on assessments under Chapter 5733. or 5747. of the 3161 Revised Code do not apply to an assessment under this division, 3162 but the commissioner shall make the assessment within one year 3163 after the date the authority certifies to the commissioner the 3164 amount to be refunded. 3165

(L) On or before the thirty-first day of March each year, the 3166 director of development shall submit a report to the governor, the 3167 president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 3168 representatives on the tax credit program under this section. The 3169 report shall include information on the number of agreements that 3170 were entered into under this section during the preceding calendar 3171
agreements entered into before the preceding calendar year. 3174

During the fifth year of the tax credit program, the director 3175 of development in conjunction with the director of budget and 3176 management shall conduct an evaluation of it. The evaluation shall 3177 include assessments of the effectiveness of the program in 3178 creating new jobs in this state and of the revenue impact of the 3179 program, and may include a review of the practices and experiences 3180 of other states with similar programs. The director of development 3181 shall submit a report on the evaluation to the governor, the 3182 president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 3183
representatives on or before January 1, 1998. 3184

(M) There is hereby created the tax credit authority, which 3185 consists of the director of development and four other members 3186 appointed as follows: the governor, the president of the senate, 3187 and the speaker of the house of representatives each shall appoint 3188 one member who shall be a specialist in economic development; the 3189 governor also shall appoint a member who is a specialist in 3190 taxation. Of the initial appointees, the members appointed by the 3191 governor shall serve a term of two years; the members appointed by 3192 representatives shall serve a term of four years. Thereafter, 3194 terms of office shall be for four years. Initial appointments to 3195 the authority shall be made within thirty days after January 13, 3196 1993. Each member shall serve on the authority until the end of 3197 the term for which the member was appointed. Vacancies shall be 3198 filled in the same manner provided for original appointments. Any 3199 member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the 3200 expiration of the term for which the member's predecessor was 3201 appointed shall hold office for the remainder of that term. 3202 Members may be reappointed to the authority. Members of the 3203 authority shall receive their necessary and actual expenses while 3204 engaged in the business of the authority. The director of 3205 development shall serve as chairperson of the authority, and the 3206 members annually shall elect a vice-chairperson from among 3207 themselves. Three members of the authority constitute a quorum to 3208 transact and vote on the business of the authority. The majority 3209 vote of the membership of the authority is necessary to approve 3210 any such business, including the election of the vice-chairperson. 3211

The director of development may appoint a professional 3212 employee of the department of development to serve as the 3213 director's substitute at a meeting of the authority. The director 3214 shall make the appointment in writing. In the absence of the 3215 director from a meeting of the authority, the appointed substitute 3216 shall serve as chairperson. In the absence of both the director 3217 and the director's substitute from a meeting, the vice-chairperson 3218 shall serve as chairperson. 3219

(E) An agreement under this section shall include all of the following:	3380 3381
(2) The method of calculating the number of full-time employment positions as specified in division (A)(3) of this section.	3386 3387 3388
(3) The term and percentage of the tax credit, and the first year for which the credit may be claimed.	3389 3390
(4) A requirement that the taxpayer maintain operations at the project site for at least twice the number of years as the term of the credit.	3391 3392 3393
(5) A requirement that the taxpayer retain a specified number of full-time employment positions at the project site and within this state for the term of the credit, including a requirement that the taxpayer continue to employ at least one thousand employees in full-time employment positions at the project site during the entire term of any agreement, subject to division (E)(7) of this section.	3394 3395 3396 3397 3398 3399 3400
(6) A requirement that the taxpayer annually report to the director of development the number of full-time employment positions subject to the credit, the amount of tax withheld from employees in those positions, the amount of the payments made for	3401 3402 3403 3404

the capital investment project, and any other information the 3405 director needs to perform the director's duties under this 3406
section. 3407

review the annual reports of the taxpayer to verify the 3409 information reported under division (E)(6) of this section and 3410 compliance with the agreement. Upon verification, the director 3411 shall issue a certificate to the taxpayer stating that the 3412 information has been verified and identifying the amount of the 3413 credit for the taxable year. The Unless otherwise specified by the 3414 tax credit authority in a resolution and included as part of the 3415 agreement, the director shall not issue a certificate for any year 3416 in which the total number of filled full-time employment positions 3417 for each day of the calendar year divided by three hundred 3418 sixty-five is less than ninety per cent of the full-time 3419 employment positions specified in division (E)(5) of this section. 3420
In determining the number of full-time employment positions, no 3421 position shall be counted that is filled by an employee who is 3422 included in the calculation of a tax credit under section 122.17 3423
of the Revised Code. 3424

otherwise provided in division (E)(8)(b) of this section, shall 3426 not relocate employment positions from elsewhere in this state to 3427
lesser of five years from the date the agreement is entered into 3429 or the number of years the taxpayer is entitled to claim the 3430
credit. 3431

(i) That the site from which the employment positions would 3436

considerations affecting the taxpayer; 3439

position unless the movement is confined to the project site. The 3446 transfer of an individual employee from one political subdivision 3447 to another political subdivision shall not be considered a 3448 relocation of an employment position as long as the individual's 3449 employment position in the first political subdivision is 3450 refilled. 3451

(9) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods 3452 relating to assessments or adjustments resulting from the 3453 taxpayer's failure to comply with the agreement. 3454

(F) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 3455
authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 3457 of the credit. The reduction of the percentage or term shall take 3458 effect in the taxable year immediately following the taxable year 3459 in which the authority amends the agreement. If the taxpayer 3460 relocates employment positions in violation of the provision 3461
shall not claim the tax credit under section 5733.0610 of the 3463
Revised Code for any tax years following the calendar year in 3464 which the relocation occurs, or shall not claim the tax credit 3465 under section 5747.058 of the Revised Code for the taxable year in 3466
which the relocation occurs and any subsequent taxable years. 3467

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 3468
the department of development or the tax credit authority by an 3469 applicant for or recipient of a tax credit under this section, and 3470 any information taken for any purpose from such statements or 3471 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 3472
concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 3476
request of the tax commissioner, the chairperson of the authority 3477 shall provide to the commissioner any statement or other 3478 information submitted by an applicant for or recipient of a tax 3479 credit in connection with the credit. The commissioner shall 3480 preserve the confidentiality of the statement or other 3481 information. 3482

(H) A taxpayer claiming a tax credit under this section shall 3483
submit to the tax commissioner a copy of the director of 3484 development's certificate of verification under division (E)(7) of 3485
this section for the taxable year. However, failure to submit a 3486
copy of the certificate does not invalidate a claim for a credit. 3487

(I) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 3488
subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 3490
distributive share to its owners. A tax credit received under this 3492
or profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 3495
or profit is distributed. 3497

(J) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 3498 that received a tax credit under this section is not complying 3499 with the requirement under division (E)(4) of this section, the 3500 director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 3501

noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 3502 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the 3503 authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 3504 refund to the state all or a portion of the credit claimed in 3505 previous years, as follows: 3506

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 3507 for less than the term of the credit, the amount required to be 3508 refunded shall not exceed the amount of any tax credits previously 3509 allowed and received under this section. 3510

(2) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 3511 longer than the term of the credit but less than one and one-half 3512 times the term of the credit, the amount required to be refunded 3513 shall not exceed fifty per cent of the sum of any tax credits 3514 previously allowed and received under this section. 3515

(3) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 3516 for at least one and one-half times the term of the credit but 3517 less than twice the term of the credit, the amount required to be 3518 refunded shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the sum of any 3519 tax credits previously allowed and received under this section. 3520

In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded to 3521 this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 3522 conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the taxpayer 3523 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 3524 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 3525 refunded to the tax commissioner. The commissioner shall make an 3526 assessment for that amount against the taxpayer under Chapter 3527 5733. or 5747. of the Revised Code. The time limitations on 3528 assessments under Chapter 5733. or 5747. of the Revised Code do 3529 not apply to an assessment under this division, but the 3530 commissioner shall make the assessment within one year after the 3531 date the authority certifies to the commissioner the amount to be 3532

refunded. 3533

If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 3534 that received a tax credit under this section has reduced the 3535 number of employees agreed to under division (E)(5) of this 3536 section by more than ten per cent, the director shall notify the 3537 tax credit authority of the noncompliance. After receiving such 3538 notice, and after providing the taxpayer an opportunity to explain 3539 the noncompliance, the authority may amend the agreement to reduce 3540 the percentage or term of the tax credit. The reduction in the 3541 percentage or term shall take effect in the taxable year in which 3542 the authority amends the agreement. 3543

(K) The director of development, after consultation with the 3544
Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary to implement this 3546
the adoption of the rules, the director shall submit copies of the 3551
proposed rules to the chairpersons of the standing committees on 3552
representatives. 3554

(L) On or before the thirty-first day of March of each year, 3555 the director of development shall submit a report to the governor, 3556 the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 3557
were entered into under this section during the preceding calendar 3560

(M)(1) A nonrefundable credit shall be allowed to an applicable corporation and its related members in an amount equal to the applicable difference. The credit is in addition to the credit granted to the corporation or related members under division (B) of this section. The credit is subject to divisions (B) to (E) and division (J) of this section.

years, not to permit the use of a site that is developed or 3635 improved with such assistance to cause the relocation of jobs to 3636 that site from elsewhere in Ohio. 3637

(D) A site developed or improved with assistance under 3638 section 122.24 of the Revised Code may be the site of jobs 3639 collusion or combination among bidders, the bids of those 4110 concerned therein shall be rejected. 4111 provided by law" includes, but is not limited to, bereavement, 4556 personal, vacation, administrative, and sick leave, disability 4557 benefits, holiday pay, and pay supplements provided under the 4558

Revised Code, but does not include wages or salary. 4559

(E) New employees paid under schedule B of division (A) of 4560 this section or under schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the 4561 Revised Code shall be employed at the minimum rate established for 4562 the range unless otherwise provided. Employees with qualifications 4563 that are beyond the minimum normally required for the position and 4564 that are determined by the director to be exceptional may be 4565 employed in, or may be transferred or promoted to, a position at 4566 an advanced step of the range. Further, in time of a serious labor 4567 market condition when it is relatively impossible to recruit 4568 employees at the minimum rate for a particular classification, the 4569 entrance rate may be set at an advanced step in the range by the 4570 director of administrative services. This rate may be limited to 4571 geographical regions of the state. Appointments made to an 4572 advanced step under the provision regarding exceptional 4573 qualifications shall not affect the step assignment of employees 4574 already serving. However, anytime the hiring rate of an entire 4575 classification is advanced to a higher step, all incumbents of 4576 that classification being paid at a step lower than that being 4577 used for hiring, shall be advanced beginning at the start of the 4578 first pay period thereafter to the new hiring rate, and any time 4579 accrued at the lower step will be used to calculate advancement to 4580 a succeeding step. If the hiring rate of a classification is 4581 increased for only a geographical region of the state, only 4582 incumbents who work in that geographical region shall be advanced 4583 to a higher step. When an employee in the unclassified service 4584 changes from one state position to another or is appointed to a 4585 position in the classified service, or if an employee in the 4586 classified service is appointed to a position in the unclassified 4587 service, the employee's salary or wage in the new position shall 4588 be determined in the same manner as if the employee were an 4589 employee in the classified service. When an employee in the 4590 unclassified service who is not eligible for step increases is 4591 appointed to a classification in the classified service under 4592 which step increases are provided, future step increases shall be 4593 based on the date on which the employee last received a pay 4594 increase. If the employee has not received an increase during the 4595 previous year, the date of the appointment to the classified 4596 service shall be used to determine the employee's annual step 4597 advancement eligibility date. In reassigning any employee to a 4598 classification resulting in a pay range increase or to a new pay 4599 range as a result of a promotion, an increase pay range 4600 adjustment, or other classification change resulting in a pay 4601 range increase, the director shall assign such employee to the 4602 step in the new pay range that will provide an increase of 4603 approximately four per cent if the new pay range can accommodate 4604 the increase. When an employee is being assigned to a 4605 classification or new pay range as the result of a class plan 4606 change, if the employee has completed a probationary period, the 4607 employee shall be placed in a step no lower than step two of the 4608 new pay range. If the employee has not completed a probationary 4609 period, the employee may be placed in step one of the new pay 4610 range. Such new salary or wage shall become effective on such date 4611 as the director determines. 4612

(F) If employment conditions and the urgency of the work 4613 require such action, the director of administrative services may, 4614 upon the application of a department head, authorize payment at 4615 any rate established within the range for the class of work, for 4616 work of a casual or intermittent nature or on a project basis. 4617 Payment at such rates shall not be made to the same individual for 4618 more than three calendar months in any one calendar year. Any such 4619 action shall be subject to the approval of the director of budget 4620 and management as to the availability of funds. This section and 4621 sections 124.14 and 124.152 of the Revised Code do not repeal any 4622 authority of any department or public official to contract with or 4623 fix the compensation of professional persons who may be employed 4624 temporarily for work of a casual nature or for work on a project 4625 basis. 4626

(G) ~~Each~~ (1) Except as provided in division (G)(2) of this 4627 section, each state employee paid under schedule B of this section 4628 or under schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall 4629 be eligible for advancement to succeeding steps in the range for 4630 the employee's class according to the schedule established in this 4631 division. Beginning on the first day of the pay period within 4632 which the employee completes the prescribed probationary period in 4633 the employee's classification with the state, each employee shall 4634 receive an automatic salary adjustment equivalent to the next 4635 higher step within the pay range for the employee's class or 4636 grade. 4637

Each employee paid under schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of 4638 the Revised Code shall be eligible to advance to the next higher 4639 step until the employee reaches step six, if the employee has 4640 maintained satisfactory performance in accordance with criteria 4641 established by the employee's appointing authority. Those step 4642 ~~increases~~ advancements shall not occur more frequently than once 4643 in any twelve-month period. An employee only may advance to step 4644 seven upon performing at an exemplary level as determined in the 4645 employee's performance evaluation. An employee's advancement to 4646 step seven is at the discretion of the employee's appointing 4647 authority. An employee may not appeal the denial of advancement to 4648 step seven to the state personnel board of review. 4649

When an employee is promoted or reassigned to a higher pay 4650 range, the employee's step indicator shall return to "0" or be 4651 adjusted to account for a probationary period, as appropriate. 4652 Step advancement shall not be affected by demotion. A promoted 4653 employee shall advance to the next higher step of the pay range on 4654 the first day of the pay period in which the required probationary 4655 period is completed. Step advancement shall become effective at 4656 the beginning of the pay period within which the employee attains 4657 the necessary length of service. Time spent on authorized leave of 4658 absence shall be counted for this purpose. 4659

If determined to be in the best interest of the state 4660 service, the director of administrative services may, either 4661 statewide or in selected agencies, adjust the dates on which 4662 annual step ~~increases~~ advancements are received by employees paid 4663 under schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 4664

(2)(a)(i) Except as provided in division (G)(2)(a)(ii) of 4665
this section, there shall be a moratorium on step advancements 4666 under division (G)(1) of this section from the pay period 4667 beginning June 29, 2003, through the pay period ending June 25, 4668 2005. Step advancements shall resume with the pay period beginning 4669
June 26, 2005. Upon the resumption of step advancements, there 4670 shall be no retroactive step advancements for the period the 4671 moratorium was in effect. The moratorium shall not affect an 4672 employee's performance evaluation schedule. 4673

(ii) During the moratorium under division (G)(2)(a)(i) of 4674 this section, an employee who is hired or promoted and serves a 4675 probationary period in the employee's new position shall advance 4676 to the next step in the employee's pay range upon successful 4677 completion of the employee's probationary period. Thereafter, the 4678 employee is subject to the moratorium. 4679

(b) The moratorium under division (G)(2)(a)(i) of this 4680 section shall apply to the employees of the secretary of state, 4681 the auditor of state, the treasurer of state, the attorney 4682 general, the supreme court, and state boards and commissions, who 4683 are subject to this section unless the secretary of state, auditor 4684 of state, treasurer of state, attorney general, supreme court, 4685 board, or commission decides to exempt its employees from the 4686 moratorium and so notifies the director of administrative services 4687 in writing on or before July 1, 2003. 4688

(H) Employees in appointive managerial or professional 4689 positions paid under salary schedule C of this section or under 4690 salary schedule E-2 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code may be 4691 appointed at any rate within the appropriate pay range. This rate 4692 of pay may be adjusted higher or lower within the respective pay 4693 range at any time the appointing authority so desires as long as 4694 the adjustment is based on the employee's ability to successfully 4695 administer those duties assigned to the employee. Salary 4696 adjustments shall not be made more frequently than once in any 4697 six-month period under this provision to incumbents holding the 4698 same position and classification. 4699

(I) When an employee is assigned to duty outside this state, 4700 the employee may be compensated, upon request of the department 4701 head and with the approval of the director of administrative 4702 services, at a rate not to exceed fifty per cent in excess of the 4703 employee's current base rate for the period of time spent on that 4704 duty. 4705

(J) Unless compensation for members of a board or commission 4706 is otherwise specifically provided by law, the director of 4707 administrative services shall establish the rate and method of 4708 payment for members of boards and commissions pursuant to the pay 4709 schedules listed in section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 4710

(K) Regular full-time employees in positions assigned to 4711 classes within the instruction and education administration series 4712 under the rules of the director of administrative services, except 4713 certificated employees on the instructional staff of the state 4714 school for the blind or the state school for the deaf, whose 4715 positions are scheduled to work on the basis of an academic year 4716 rather than a full calendar year, shall be paid according to the 4717 pay range assigned by such rules but only during those pay periods 4718 included in the academic year of the school where the employee is 4719 located. 4720

(1) Part-time or substitute teachers or those whose period of employment is other than the full academic year shall be compensated for the actual time worked at the rate established by this section.

(2) Employees governed by this division are exempt from sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code.

(3) Length of service for the purpose of determining eligibility for step ~~increases~~ advancements as provided by division (G) of this section and for the purpose of determining eligibility for longevity pay supplements as provided by division ~~(F)~~(E) of section 124.181 of the Revised Code shall be computed on the basis of one full year of service for the completion of each academic year.

(L) The superintendent of the state school for the deaf and the superintendent of the state school for the blind shall, subject to the approval of the superintendent of public instruction, carry out both of the following:

(1) Annually, between the first day of April and the last day of June, establish for the ensuing fiscal year a schedule of hourly rates for the compensation of each certificated employee on the instructional staff of that superintendent's respective school constructed as follows:

(a) Determine for each level of training, experience, and other professional qualification for which an hourly rate is set forth in the current schedule, the per cent that rate is of the rate set forth in such schedule for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience. If there is more than one such rate for such a teacher, the lowest rate shall be used to make the computation.

(b) Determine which six city, local, and exempted village school districts with territory in Franklin county have in effect on, or have adopted by, the first day of April for the school year 4752 that begins on the ensuing first day of July, teacher salary 4753 schedules with the highest minimum salaries for a teacher with a 4754 bachelor's degree and no experience; 4755

(c) Divide the sum of such six highest minimum salaries by 4756 ten thousand five hundred sixty; 4757

(d) Multiply each per cent determined in division (L)(1)(a) 4758 of this section by the quotient obtained in division (L)(1)(c) of 4759
this section; 4760

(e) One hundred five per cent of each product thus obtained 4761 shall be the hourly rate for the corresponding level of training, 4762 experience, or other professional qualification in the schedule 4763 for the ensuing fiscal year. 4764

(2) Annually, assign each certificated employee on the 4765 instructional staff of the superintendent's respective school to 4766 an hourly rate on the schedule that is commensurate with the 4767 employee's training, experience, and other professional 4768 qualifications. 4769

If an employee is employed on the basis of an academic year, 4770 the employee's annual salary shall be calculated by multiplying 4771 the employee's assigned hourly rate times one thousand seven 4772 hundred sixty. If an employee is not employed on the basis of an 4773 academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated in 4774 accordance with the following formula: 4775

(a) Multiply the number of days the employee is required to 4776 work pursuant to the employee's contract by eight; 4777

(b) Multiply the product of division (L)(2)(a) of this 4778 section by the employee's assigned hourly rate. 4779

Each employee shall be paid an annual salary in biweekly 4780 installments. The amount of each installment shall be calculated 4781

Sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code do not apply to an employee who is paid under this division. 4784

As used in this division, "academic year" means the number of days in each school year that the schools are required to be open for instruction with pupils in attendance. Upon completing an academic year, an employee paid under this division shall be deemed to have completed one year of service. An employee paid under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under division (L)(1), (2), or (3) of section 124.181 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, but is not eligible to receive a pay supplement under division (L)(4) or (5) of that section. An employee paid under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under division (L)(6) of section 124.181 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, except that the supplement is not limited to a maximum of five per cent of the employee's regular base salary in a calendar year. 4786

Sec. 124.181. (A) Except as provided in division (M) of this 5072 section, any employee paid under schedule B of section 124.15 or 5073 under schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code is 5074 eligible for the pay supplements provided in this section upon 5075 application by the appointing authority substantiating the 5076 employee's qualifications for the supplement and with the approval 5077 of the director of administrative services except as provided in 5078 division (E) of this section. 5079

(B) ~~In~~ Except as provided in section 124.183 of the Revised 5080 Code, in computing any of the pay supplements provided in this 5081 section, the classification salary base shall be the minimum 5082 hourly rate of the pay range, provided in section 124.15 or 5083 124.152 of the Revised Code, in which the employee is assigned at 5084
the time of computation. 5085

(C) The effective date of any pay supplement, except as 5086 provided in section 124.183 of the Revised Code or unless 5087 otherwise provided in this section, shall be determined by the 5088 director. 5089

(D) The director shall, by rule, establish standards 5090 regarding the administration of this section. 5091

(E)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this division, 5092 beginning on the first day of the pay period within which the 5093 employee completes five years of total service with the state 5094 government or any of its political subdivisions, each employee in 5095 positions paid under salary schedule B of section 124.15 or under 5096 salary schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall 5097 receive an automatic salary adjustment equivalent to two and 5098 one-half per cent of the classification salary base, to the 5099 nearest whole cent. Each employee shall receive thereafter an 5100 annual adjustment equivalent to one-half of one per cent of the 5101 employee's classification salary base, to the nearest whole cent, 5102 for each additional year of qualified employment until a maximum 5103 of ten per cent of the employee's classification salary base is 5104 reached. The granting of longevity adjustments shall not be 5105 affected by promotion, demotion, or other changes in 5106 classification held by the employee, nor by any change in pay 5107 range for the employee's class. Longevity pay adjustments shall 5108 become effective at the beginning of the pay period within which 5109 the employee completes the necessary length of service, except 5110 that when an employee requests credit for prior service, the 5111 effective date of the prior service credit and of any longevity 5112 adjustment shall be the first day of the pay period following 5113 approval of the credit by the director of administrative services. 5114

No employee, other than an employee who submits proof of prior 5115 service within ninety days after the date of the employee's 5116 hiring, shall receive any longevity adjustment for the period 5117 prior to the director's approval of a prior service credit. Time 5118 spent on authorized leave of absence shall be counted for this 5119 purpose. 5120

(2) An employee who has retired in accordance with the 5121 provisions of any retirement system offered by the state and who 5122 is employed by the state or any political subdivision of the state 5123 on or after June 24, 1987, shall not have prior service with the 5124 state or any political subdivision of the state counted for the 5125 purpose of determining the amount of the salary adjustment 5126 provided under this division. 5127

(3) There shall be a moratorium on employees' receipt under 5128 this division of credit for service with the state government or 5129 any of its political subdivisions during the period from July 1, 5130 2003, through June 30, 2005. In calculating the number of years of 5131 total service under this division, no credit shall be included for 5132 service during the moratorium. The moratorium shall apply to the 5133 employees of the secretary of state, the auditor of state, the 5134 treasurer of state, the attorney general, the supreme court, and 5135 state boards and commissions, who are subject to this section 5136 unless the secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of 5137 state, attorney general, supreme court, board, or commission 5138 decides to exempt its employees from the moratorium and so 5139 notifies the director of administrative services in writing. 5140

If an employee is exempt from the moratorium, receives credit 5141 for a period of service during the moratorium, and takes a 5142 position with another entity in the state government or any of its 5143 political subdivisions, either during or after the moratorium, and 5144 if that entity's employees are or were subject to the moratorium, 5145 the employee shall continue to retain the credit. However, if the 5146 moratorium is in effect upon the taking of the new position, the 5147 employee shall cease receiving additional credit as long as the 5148 employee is in the position, until the moratorium expires. 5149

(F) When an exceptional condition exists that creates a 5150 temporary or a permanent hazard for one or more positions in a 5151 class paid under schedule B of section 124.15 or under salary 5152 schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code, a special 5153 hazard salary adjustment may be granted for the time the employee 5154 is subjected to the hazardous condition. All special hazard 5155 conditions shall be identified for each position and incidence 5156 from information submitted to the director on an appropriate form 5157 provided by the director and categorized into standard conditions 5158 of: some unusual hazard not common to the class; considerable 5159 unusual hazard not common to the class; and exceptional hazard not 5160 common to the class. 5161

(1) A hazardous salary adjustment of five per cent of the 5162 employee's classification salary base may be applied in the case 5163 of some unusual hazardous condition not common to the class for 5164 those hours worked, or a fraction thereof, while the employee was 5165 subject to the unusual hazard condition. 5166

(2) A hazardous salary adjustment of seven and one-half per cent of the employee's classification salary base may be applied in the case of some considerable hazardous condition not common to the class for those hours worked, or a fraction thereof, while the employee was subject to the considerable hazard condition.

(3) A hazardous salary adjustment of ten per cent of the employee's classification salary base may be applied in the case of some exceptional hazardous condition not common to the class for those hours worked, or a fraction thereof, when the employee was subject to the exceptional hazard condition.

(4) Each claim for temporary hazard pay shall be submitted as a separate payment and shall be subject to an administrative audit by the director as to the extent and duration of the employee's exposure to the hazardous condition.

(G) When a full-time employee whose salary or wage is paid directly by warrant of the auditor of state and who also is eligible for overtime under the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 52 Stat. 1060, 29 U.S.C.A. 207, 213, as amended, is ordered by the appointing authority to report back to work after termination of the employee's regular work schedule and the employee reports, the employee shall be paid for such time. The employee shall be entitled to four hours at the employee's total rate of pay or overtime compensation for the actual hours worked, whichever is greater. This division does not apply to work that is a continuation of or immediately preceding an employee's regular work schedule.

(H) When a certain position or positions paid under schedule B of section 124.15 or under salary schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code require the ability to speak or write a language other than English, a special pay supplement may be granted to attract bilingual individuals, to encourage present employees to become proficient in other languages, or to retain 5198 qualified bilingual employees. The bilingual pay supplement 5199 provided in this division may be granted in the amount of five per 5200 cent of the employee's classification salary base for each 5201 required foreign language and shall remain in effect as long as 5202 the bilingual requirement exists. 5203

(I) The director may establish a shift differential for 5204 employees. Such differential shall be paid to employees in 5205 positions working in other than the regular or first shift. In 5206 those divisions or agencies where only one shift prevails, no 5207 shift differential shall be paid regardless of the hours of the 5208 day that are worked. The director and the appointing authority 5209 shall designate which positions shall be covered by this division. 5210

(J) Whenever an employee is assigned to work in a higher 5211 level position for a continuous period of more than two weeks but 5212 no more than two years because of a vacancy, the employee's pay 5213 may be established at a rate that is approximately four per cent 5214 above the employee's current base rate for the period the employee 5215 occupies the position, provided that this temporary occupancy is 5216 approved by the director. Employees paid under this division shall 5217 continue to receive any of the pay supplements due them under 5218 other divisions of this section based on the step one base rate 5219 for their normal classification. 5220

(K) If a certain position, or positions, within a class paid 5221 under schedule B of section 124.15 or under salary schedule E-1 of 5222 section 124.152 of the Revised Code are mandated by state or 5223 federal law or regulation or other regulatory agency or other 5224 certification authority to have special technical certification, 5225 registration, or licensing to perform the functions which are 5226 under the mandate, a special professional achievement pay 5227 supplement may be granted. This special professional achievement 5228 pay supplement shall not be granted when all incumbents in all 5229 positions in a class require license as provided in the 5230 classification description published by the department of 5231 administrative services; to licensees where no special or 5232 extensive training is required; when certification is granted upon 5233 completion of a stipulated term of in-service training; when an 5234 appointing authority has required certification; or any other 5235 condition prescribed by the director. 5236

(1) Before this supplement may be applied, evidence as to the 5237 requirement must be provided by the agency for each position 5238 involved, and certification must be received from the director as 5239 to the director's concurrence for each of the positions so 5240 affected. 5241

(2) The professional achievement pay supplement provided in 5242 this division shall be granted in an amount up to ten per cent of 5243 the employee's classification salary base and shall remain in 5244 effect as long as the mandate exists. 5245

(L) Those employees assigned to teaching supervisory, 5246 principal, assistant principal, or superintendent positions who 5247 have attained a higher educational level than a basic bachelor's 5248 degree may receive an educational pay supplement to remain in 5249 effect as long as the employee's assignment and classification 5250 remain the same. 5251

(1) An educational pay supplement of two and one-half per 5252 cent of the employee's classification salary base may be applied 5253 upon the achievement of a bachelor's degree plus twenty quarter 5254 hours of postgraduate work. 5255

upon achievement of a master's degree. 5258 be applied upon achievement of a master's degree plus thirty 5261 quarter hours of postgraduate work. 5262 employee's classification salary base may be applied when the 5264 employee is performing as a master teacher. 5265 normal schedule, at their straight time hourly rate up to a 5273 maximum of five per cent of their regular base salary in any 5274 calendar year. 5275

(M)(1) A state agency, board, or commission may establish a 5276 supplementary compensation schedule for those licensed physicians 5277 employed by the agency, board, or commission in positions 5278 requiring a licensed physician. The supplementary compensation 5279 schedule, together with the compensation otherwise authorized by 5280 this chapter, shall provide for the total compensation for these 5281 employees to range appropriately, but not necessarily uniformly, 5282 mental health after consultation with relevant constituencies as 8961 required by division (A)(11) of section 5119.06 of the Revised 8962 Code, with regard to mental health services, the board of alcohol, 8963 drug addiction, and mental health services shall: 8964

(c) In accordance with guidelines issued by the director of 8975 mental health after consultation with board representatives, 8976 including the needs of all residents of the district now residing 8981 in state mental institutions and severely mentally disabled 8982 adults, children, and adolescents; all children subject to a 8983 determination made pursuant to section 121.38 of the Revised Code; 8984 and all the facilities and community mental health services that 8985 are or will be in operation or provided during the period for 8986 which the plan will be in operation in the service district to 8987

The plan shall include, but not be limited to, a statement of 8989 which of the services listed in section 340.09 of the Revised Code 8990 the board intends to provide or purchase, an explanation of how 8991 the board intends to make any payments that it may be required to 8992 pay under section 5119.62 of the Revised Code, a statement of the 8993 inpatient and community-based services the board proposes that the 8994 department operate, an assessment of the number and types of 8995 residential facilities needed, and such other information as the 8996 department requests, and a budget for moneys the board expects to 8997 receive. The board shall also submit an allocation request for 8998 state and federal funds. Within sixty days after the department's 8999 determination that the plan and allocation request are complete, 9000 the department shall approve or disapprove the plan and request, 9001 in whole or in part, according to the criteria developed pursuant 9002 to section 5119.61 of the Revised Code. The department's statement 9003 of approval or disapproval shall specify the inpatient and the 9004 community-based services that the department will operate for the 9005 board. Eligibility for financial support shall be contingent upon 9006 an approved plan or relevant part of a plan. 9007

If the director disapproves all or part of any plan, the 9008 director shall inform the board of the reasons for the disapproval 9009 and of the criteria that must be met before the plan may be 9010 approved. The director shall provide the board an opportunity to 9011 present its case on behalf of the plan. The director shall give 9012 the board a reasonable time in which to meet the criteria, and 9013 shall offer the board technical assistance to help it meet the 9014 criteria. 9015

If the approval of a plan remains in dispute thirty days 9016 prior to the conclusion of the fiscal year in which the board's 9017 current plan is scheduled to expire, the board or the director may 9018 request that the dispute be submitted to a mutually agreed upon 9019 third-party mediator with the cost to be shared by the board and 9020 the department. The mediator shall issue to the board and the 9021 department recommendations for resolution of the dispute. Prior to 9022 the conclusion of the fiscal year in which the current plan is 9023 scheduled to expire, the director, taking into consideration the 9024 recommendations of the mediator, shall make a final determination 9025 and approve or disapprove the plan, in whole or in part. 9026

If a board determines that it is necessary to amend a plan or 9027 an allocation request that has been approved under division 9028 (A)(1)(c) of this section, the board shall submit a proposed 9029 amendment to the director. The director may approve or disapprove 9030 all or part of the amendment. If the director does not approve all 9031 or part of the amendment within thirty days after it is submitted, 9032 the amendment or part of it shall be considered to have been 9033 approved. The director shall inform the board of the reasons for 9034 disapproval of all or part of an amendment and of the criteria 9035 that must be met before the amendment may be approved. The 9036 director shall provide the board an opportunity to present its 9037 case on behalf of the amendment. The director shall give the board 9038 a reasonable time in which to meet the criteria, and shall offer 9039 the board technical assistance to help it meet the criteria. 9040

The board shall implement the plan approved by the 9041 department. 9042

(d) Receive, compile, and transmit to the department of 9043 mental health applications for state reimbursement; 9044

(e) Promote, arrange, and implement working agreements with 9045 social agencies, both public and private, and with judicial 9046

(2) Investigate, or request another agency to investigate, 9048 any complaint alleging abuse or neglect of any person receiving 9049 services from a community mental health agency as defined in 9050 section 5122.01 of the Revised Code, or from a residential 9051 facility licensed under section 5119.22 of the Revised Code. If 9052 the investigation substantiates the charge of abuse or neglect, 9053 the board shall take whatever action it determines is necessary to 9054 correct the situation, including notification of the appropriate 9055 authorities. Upon request, the board shall provide information 9056 about such investigations to the department. 9057

(3) For the purpose of section 5119.611 of the Revised Code, 9058 cooperate with the director of mental health in visiting and 9059 evaluating whether the services of a community mental health 9060 agency satisfy the certification standards established by rules 9061 adopted under that section; 9062

(4) In accordance with criteria established under division 9063
(G) of section 5119.61 of the Revised Code, review and evaluate 9064 the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of services provided 9065 through its community mental health plan and submit its findings 9066 and recommendations to the department of mental health; 9067

(5) In accordance with section 5119.22 of the Revised Code, 9068 review applications for residential facility licenses and 9069 recommend to the department of mental health approval or 9070 disapproval of applications; 9071

(6) Audit, in accordance with rules adopted by the auditor of 9072 state pursuant to section 117.20 of the Revised Code, at least 9073 annually all programs and services provided under contract with 9074 the board. In so doing, the board may contract for or employ the 9075 services of private auditors. A copy of the fiscal audit report 9076 shall be provided to the director of mental health, the auditor of 9077 state, and the county auditor of each county in the board's 9078 district. 9079

(7) Recruit and promote local financial support for mental 9080 health programs from private and public sources; 9081

(8)(a) Enter into contracts with public and private 9082 facilities for the operation of facility services included in the 9083 board's community mental health plan and enter into contracts with 9084 public and private community mental health agencies for the 9085 provision of community mental health services listed in section 9086 340.09 of the Revised Code and included in the board's community 9087 mental health plan. Contracts with community mental health 9088 agencies are subject to section 5119.611 of the Revised Code. 9089 Section 307.86 of the Revised Code does not apply to contracts 9090 entered into under this division. In contracting with a community 9091 mental health agency, a board shall consider the cost 9092 effectiveness of services provided by that agency and the quality 9093 and continuity of care, and may review cost elements, including 9094 salary costs, of the services to be provided. A utilization review 9095 process shall be established as part of the contract for services 9096 entered into between a board and a community mental health agency. 9097
The board may establish this process in a way that is most 9098 effective and efficient in meeting local needs. In the case of a 9099 contract with a community mental health facility ~~described, as~~ 9100 defined in ~~division (B) of~~ section 5111.022 of the Revised Code, 9101 to provide services ~~established by~~ listed in division ~~(A)(B)~~ of 9102 that section, the contract shall provide for the facility to be 9103 paid in accordance with the contract entered into between the 9104

~~division (E) of that~~ section 5111.91 of the Revised Code and any 9106 rules adopted under division (A) of section 5119.61 of the Revised 9107
Code. 9108

If either the board or a facility or community mental health 9109 agency with which the board contracts under division (A)(8)(a) of 9110 this section proposes not to renew the contract or proposes 9111 substantial changes in contract terms, the other party shall be 9112 given written notice at least one hundred twenty days before the 9113 expiration date of the contract. During the first sixty days of 9114 this one hundred twenty-day period, both parties shall attempt to 9115 resolve any dispute through good faith collaboration and 9116 negotiation in order to continue to provide services to persons in 9117 need. If the dispute has not been resolved sixty days before the 9118 expiration date of the contract, either party may notify the 9119 department of mental health of the unresolved dispute. The 9120 director may require both parties to submit the dispute to a third 9121 party with the cost to be shared by the board and the facility or 9122 community mental health agency. The third party shall issue to the 9123 board, the facility or agency, and the department recommendations 9124 on how the dispute may be resolved twenty days prior to the 9125 expiration date of the contract, unless both parties agree to a 9126 time extension. The director shall adopt rules establishing the 9127 procedures of this dispute resolution process. 9128

(b) With the prior approval of the director of mental health, 9129 a board may operate a facility or provide a community mental 9130 health service as follows, if there is no other qualified private 9131 or public facility or community mental health agency that is 9132 immediately available and willing to operate such a facility or 9133 provide the service: 9134

(i) In an emergency situation, any board may operate a 9135 facility or provide a community mental health service in order to 9136 provide essential services for the duration of the emergency; 9137

(ii) In a service district with a population of at least one 9138 hundred thousand but less than five hundred thousand, a board may 9139 operate a facility or provide a community mental health service 9140 for no longer than one year; 9141

(iii) In a service district with a population of less than 9142 one hundred thousand, a board may operate a facility or provide a 9143 community mental health service for no longer than one year, 9144 except that such a board may operate a facility or provide a 9145 community mental health service for more than one year with the 9146 prior approval of the director and the prior approval of the board 9147 of county commissioners, or of a majority of the boards of county 9148 commissioners if the district is a joint-county district. 9149

The director shall not give a board approval to operate a 9150 facility or provide a community mental health service under 9151 division (A)(8)(b)(ii) or (iii) of this section unless the 9152 director determines that it is not feasible to have the department 9153 operate the facility or provide the service. 9154

The director shall not give a board approval to operate a 9155
facility or provide a community mental health service under 9156 division (A)(8)(b)(iii) of this section unless the director 9157 determines that the board will provide greater administrative 9158 efficiency and more or better services than would be available if 9159 the board contracted with a private or public facility or 9160 community mental health agency. 9161

facility previously operated by a person or other government 9163 entity unless the board has established to the director's 9164 satisfaction that the person or other government entity cannot 9165 effectively operate the facility or that the person or other 9166 government entity has requested the board to take over operation 9167 of the facility. The director shall not give a board approval to 9168 provide a community mental health service previously provided by a 9169 community mental health agency unless the board has established to 9170 the director's satisfaction that the agency cannot effectively 9171 provide the service or that the agency has requested the board 9172 take over providing the service. 9173

The director shall review and evaluate a board's operation of 9174 a facility and provision of community mental health service under 9175 division (A)(8)(b) of this section. 9176

Nothing in division (A)(8)(b) of this section authorizes a 9177 board to administer or direct the daily operation of any facility 9178 or community mental health agency, but a facility or agency may 9179 contract with a board to receive administrative services or staff 9180 direction from the board under the direction of the governing body 9181 of the facility or agency. 9182

(9) Approve fee schedules and related charges or adopt a unit 9183 cost schedule or other methods of payment for contract services 9184 provided by community mental health agencies in accordance with 9185 guidelines issued by the department as necessary to comply with 9186 state and federal laws pertaining to financial assistance; 9187

(10) Submit to the director and the county commissioners of 9188 the county or counties served by the board, and make available to 9189 the public, an annual report of the programs under the 9190 jurisdiction of the board, including a fiscal accounting; 9191

(11) Establish, to the extent resources are available, a 9192 community support system, which provides for treatment, support, 9193 and rehabilitation services and opportunities. The essential 9194 elements of the system include, but are not limited to, the 9195 following components in accordance with section 5119.06 of the 9196
Revised Code: 9197

(a) To locate persons in need of mental health services to inform them of available services and benefits mechanisms;	9198 9199 reporting of that municipal corporation's tax on income. 10058

(2) "Return preparer" means any person other than a taxpayer 10059 that is authorized by a taxpayer to complete or file an income tax 10060 return, report, or other document for or on behalf of the 10061 taxpayer. 10062

(B) A municipal corporation shall not require a taxpayer to 10063 file an annual income tax return or report prior to the filing 10064 date for the corresponding tax reporting period as prescribed for 10065 such a taxpayer under the Internal Revenue Code. For taxable years 10066 beginning after 2003, except as otherwise provided in section 10067 718.051 of the Revised Code and division (D) of this section, a 10068 municipal corporation shall not require a taxpayer to file an 10069 annual income tax return or report on any date other than the 10070 fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of the 10071 taxpayer's taxable year. 10072

(C) On and after January 1, 2001, any municipal corporation 10073 that requires taxpayers to file income tax returns, reports, or 10074 other documents shall accept for filing a generic form of such a 10075 return, report, or document if the generic form, once completed 10076 and filed, contains all of the information required to be 10077 submitted with the municipal corporation's prescribed returns, 10078 reports, or documents, and if the taxpayer or return preparer 10079 filing the generic form otherwise complies with rules or 10080 ordinances of the municipal corporation governing the filing of 10081 returns, reports, or documents. 10082

(D) ~~Beginning~~ Except as otherwise provided in section 718.051 10083 of the Revised Code, beginning January 1, 2001, any taxpayer that 10084 has requested an extension for filing a federal income tax return 10085 may request an extension for the filing of a municipal income tax 10086 return. The taxpayer shall make the request by filing a copy of 10087 the taxpayer's request for a federal filing extension with the 10088 individual or office charged with the administration of the 10089 municipal income tax. The request for extension shall be filed not 10090 later than the last day for filing the municipal income tax return 10091 as prescribed by ordinance or rule of the municipal corporation. A 10092 municipal corporation shall grant such a request for extension 10093 filed before January 1, 2004, for a period not less than the 10094 period of the federal extension request. For taxable years 10095 beginning after 2003, the extended due date of the municipal 10096 income tax return shall be the last day of the month to which the 10097 due date of the federal income tax return has been extended. A 10098 municipal corporation may deny a taxpayer's request for extension 10099 only if the taxpayer fails to timely file the request, fails to 10100 file a copy of the request for the federal extension, owes the 10101 municipal corporation any delinquent income tax or any penalty, 10102 interest, assessment, or other charge for the late payment or 10103 nonpayment of income tax, or has failed to file any required 10104 income tax return, report, or other related document for a prior 10105 tax period. The granting of an extension for filing a municipal 10106 corporation income tax return does not extend the last date for 10107 paying the tax without penalty unless the municipal corporation 10108 grants an extension of that date. 10109

Sec. 718.051. (A) As used in this section, "Ohio business 10110 gateway" means the online computer network system, initially 10111 created by the department of administrative services under section 10112 electronically file business reply forms with state agencies. 10114

(B) Notwithstanding section 718.05 of the Revised Code, on 10115 and after January 1, 2005, any taxpayer that is subject to any 10116 municipal corporation's tax on the net profit from a business or 10117 profession and has received an extension to file the federal 10118 income tax return shall not be required to notify the municipal 10119 corporation of the federal extension and shall not be required to 10120 file any municipal income tax return until the last day of the 10121 month to which the due date for filing the federal return has been 10122 extended, provided that, on or before the date for filing the 10123 municipal income tax return, the person notifies the tax 10124 commissioner of the federal extension through the Ohio business 10125 gateway or any successor electronic filing and payment system. 10126

(C) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, 10127 a taxpayer subject to any municipal corporation's tax on the net 10128 profit from a business or profession may file any municipal income 10129 tax return or estimated municipal income return, and may make 10130 business gateway or any successor electronic filing and payment 10139 system. 10140

(E) Nothing in this section affects the due dates for filing 10141 income tax returns or employer withholding tax returns or for 10142 paying any amounts shown to be due on such returns. 10143

(F) No municipal corporation shall be required to pay any fee 10144 or charge for the operation or maintenance of the Ohio business 10145 gateway. 10146

(G) The use of the Ohio business gateway by municipal 10147 corporations, taxpayers, or other persons pursuant to this section 10148 does not affect the legal rights of municipalities or taxpayers as 10149 otherwise permitted by law. This state shall not be a party to the 10150 administration of municipal income taxes or to an appeal of a 10151 municipal income tax matter, except as otherwise specifically 10152 provided by law. 10153

that imposes such a tax after that date, shall establish such a 10165 board by ordinance not later than one hundred eighty days after 10166 the tax takes effect. 10167

Whenever a tax administrator issues a decision regarding a 10168 municipal income tax obligation that is subject to appeal as 10169 provided in this section or in an ordinance or regulation of the 10170 municipal corporation, the tax administrator shall notify the 10171 taxpayer in writing at the same time of the taxpayer's right to 10172 appeal the decision and of the manner in which the taxpayer may 10173 appeal the decision. 10174

Any person who is aggrieved by a decision by the tax 10175 administrator and who has filed with the municipal corporation the 10176 required returns or other documents pertaining to the municipal 10177 income tax obligation at issue in the decision may appeal the 10178 issues the decision complained of. 10183

The board shall schedule a hearing within forty-five days 10184 after receiving the request, unless the taxpayer waives a hearing. 10185
If the taxpayer does not waive the hearing, the taxpayer may 10186 appear before the board and may be represented by an attorney at 10187 law, certified public accountant, or other representative. 10188

The board may affirm, reverse, or modify the tax 10189 administrator's decision or any part of that decision. The board 10190 shall issue a final decision on the appeal within ninety days 10191 after the board's final hearing on the appeal, and send ~~notice a~~ 10192 copy of its final decision by ordinary mail to the petitioner 10193 within fifteen days after issuing the decision. The taxpayer may 10194 appeal the board's decision to the board of tax appeals as 10195 provided in section 5717.011 of the Revised Code. 10196

Each board of appeal created pursuant to this section shall 10197 adopt rules governing its procedures and shall keep a record of 10198 its transactions. Such records are not public records available 10199 for inspection under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. Hearings 10200 requested by a taxpayer before a board of appeal created pursuant 10201 to this section are not meetings of a public body subject to 10202 compensation when it is paid in that current taxable year, then 10216 the second municipal corporation shall allow a credit for the tax 10217 paid to the first municipal corporation to the same extent that 10218 the second municipal corporation would allow a credit if the tax 10219 had been paid to the first municipal corporation in the current 10220 taxable year. 10221

Sec. 718.15. A municipal corporation, by ordinance, may grant 10222

Before a municipal corporation passes an ordinance allowing such a 10240 provisions governing agreements between the department and 10958 of a parcel of land under common ownership that is otherwise 10975 devoted exclusively to agricultural use; or any combination of 10976 such husbandry, production, or growth; and includes the 10977 processing, drying, storage, and marketing of agricultural 10978

"Agricultural production" includes conservation practices, 10981 provided that the tracts, lots, or parcels of land or portions 10982 thereof that are used for conservation practices comprise not more 10983 than twenty-five per cent of tracts, lots, or parcels of land that 10984 are otherwise devoted exclusively to agricultural use and for 10985 which an application is filed under section 929.02 of the Revised 10986

Code. 10987

(B) "Withdrawal from an agricultural district" includes the 10988 explicit removal of land from an agricultural district, conversion 10989

Sec. 955.51. (A) Any owner of horses, sheep, cattle, swine, 10998 mules, goats, domestic rabbits, or domestic fowl or poultry that 10999 have an aggregate fair market value of ten dollars or more and 11000 that have been injured or killed by a coyote or a black vulture 11001 shall notify the dog warden within three days after the loss or 11002 injury has been discovered. The dog warden promptly shall 11003 investigate the loss or injury and shall determine whether or not 11004 the loss or injury was made by a coyote or a black vulture. If the 11005 dog warden finds that the loss or injury was not made by a coyote 11006 or a black vulture, the owner has no claim under sections 955.51 11007 to 955.53 of the Revised Code. If the dog warden finds that the 11008 loss or injury was made by a coyote or a black vulture, ~~he~~ the dog 11009 warden promptly shall notify the wildlife officer of that finding. 11010
The wildlife officer then shall confirm the finding, disaffirm it, 11011 or state that ~~he~~ the wildlife officer is uncertain about the 11012 finding. If the wildlife officer affirms the finding of the dog 11013 warden or states that ~~he~~ the wildlife officer is uncertain about 11014 that finding, the owner may proceed with ~~his~~ a claim under 11015 sections 955.51 to 955.53 of the Revised Code, and the dog warden 11016 occurred, and all other pertinent facts in the possession of the 11023 claimant. If the animals, fowl, or poultry die as a result of 11024 their injuries, their fair market value is the market value of 11025 uninjured animals, fowl, or poultry on the date of the death of 11026 the injured animals, fowl, or poultry. If the animals, fowl, or 11027 poultry do not die as a result of their injuries, their fair 11028 market value is their market value on the date on which they 11029 received their injuries. 11030

(B) If the dog warden finds all the statements that the owner 11031 made on the form to be correct and agrees with the owner as to the 11032 fair market value of the animals, fowl, or poultry, ~~he~~ the dog 11033 warden promptly shall so certify and send both copies of the form, 11034 together with whatever other documents, testimony, or information 11035
the department of agriculture. 11037

(C) If the dog warden does not find all the statements to be 11038 correct or does not agree with the owner as to the fair market 11039 value, the owner may appeal to the department of agriculture for a 11040 determination of ~~his~~ the owner's claim. In that case the owner 11041 shall secure statements as to the nature and amount of the loss or 11042 injury from at least two witnesses who viewed the results of the 11043 killing or injury and who can testify about the results and shall 11044 submit both copies of the form to the department no later than 11045 warden shall submit to the department whatever documents, 11047 testimony, and other information ~~he~~ the dog warden has received 11048 relating to the loss or injury. The department shall receive any 11049 other information or testimony that will enable it to determine 11050 the fair market value of the animals, fowl, or poultry injured or 11051 killed. 11052

(D) If the animals, fowl, or poultry described in division 11053
(A) of this section are registered in any accepted association or 11054 registry, the owner or ~~his~~ the owner's employee or tenant shall 11055 submit with the claim form the registration papers showing the 11056 lines of breeding, age, and other relevant matters. If the animals 11057 are the offspring of registered stock and eligible for 11058

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a timber sale agreement shall not be executed unless the person or governmental entity bidding on the sale executes and files a surety bond conditioned on completion of the timber sale in accordance with the terms of the agreement in an amount equal to 11747 bonds shall be given in a form prescribed by the chief and shall 11753

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 11755 signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 11756 either by the attorney in fact thereof, with a certified copy of 11757 the power of attorney attached. The chief shall not approve the 11758 bond unless there is attached a certificate of the superintendent 11759 and surety business in this state. 11761

In lieu of a bond, the bidder may deposit any of the 11762
following: 11763

(2) United States government securities having a par value 11765

The cash or securities shall be deposited on the same terms 11771 as bonds. If one or more certificates of deposit are deposited in 11772 lieu of a bond, the chief shall require the bank that issued any 11773 of the certificates to pledge securities of the aggregate market 11774 value equal to the amount of the certificate or certificates that 11775 is in excess of the amount insured by the federal deposit 11776 insurance corporation. The securities to be pledged shall be those 11777 state, on the written order of the chief, all or any portion of 11788 the cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or letters of 11789 all interest or other income from any such securities or 11797 certificates as it becomes due. If securities so deposited with 11798 and in the possession of the treasurer of state mature or are 11799 called for payment by their issuer, the treasurer of state, at the 11800 request of the bidder who deposited them, shall convert the 11801 proceeds of the redemption or payment of the securities into other 11802 United States government securities, negotiable certificates of 11803 deposit, or cash as the bidder designates. 11804

When the chief finds that a person or governmental agency has 11805 failed to comply with the conditions of the person's or 11806 cause the timber sale to be completed or pay to the treasurer of 11814

state the cost thereof. 11815

All moneys collected as a result of forfeitures of bonds, 11816 cash, securities, certificates, and letters of credit under this 11817 the state forest lands and state forest nurseries under terms that 11821 are advantageous to the state, and the chief may grant mineral 11822 rights on a royalty basis on those lands and nurseries, with the 11823 approval of the attorney general and the director. 11824

(D) All moneys received from the sale of state forest lands, 11825 or in payment for easements or leases on or as rents from those 11826 state forest lands and state forest nurseries, together with 11836 royalties from mineral rights, shall be paid into the state 11837 treasury to the credit of the state forest fund. 11838

At the time of making such a ~~payment or deposit~~ into the 11839 state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund, the 11840 chief shall determine the amount and ~~gross~~ net value of all such 11841 ~~products~~ standing timber sold ~~or royalties received~~ from lands and 11842 nurseries in each county, in each township within the county, and 11843 shall send to each county treasurer a copy of the determination 11845 and shall provide for payment to the county treasurer, for the use 11846 of the general fund of that county from the amount so received as 11847 provided in this division, an amount equal to ~~eighty~~ sixty-five 11848 sold ~~or royalties received~~ from lands and nurseries located in the 11858 township; 11859

(3) Request the board of education of any school district 11860 located within the county and containing such lands and nurseries 11861 to identify which fund or funds of the district should receive the 11862 moneys available to the school district under division (D)(3) of 11863 this section. After receiving notice from the board, the county 11864 auditor shall pay into the fund or funds so identified one-half of 11865 the amount received by the county from ~~products~~ standing timber 11866 sold ~~or royalties received~~ from lands and nurseries located in the 11867 school district, distributed proportionately as identified by the 11868 board. 11869

The division of forestry shall not supply logs, lumber, or 11870 other forest products or minerals, taken from the state forest 11871 lands or state forest nurseries, to any other agency or 11872 subdivision of the state unless payment is made therefor in the 11873 amount of the actual prevailing value thereof. This section is 11874 applicable to the moneys so received. All moneys received from the 11875 sale of reforestation tree stock or other revenues derived from 11876 the operation of the state forests, facilities, or equipment shall 11877 be paid into the state forest fund. 11878

funded in whole or in part by moneys authorized under section 12183 1515.16 of the Revised Code and shall disapprove any such project 12184 filed in accordance with rules adopted by the Ohio soil and water 12188 matching grant recipient. 12272

Sec. 1521.06. (A) No dam may be constructed for the purpose 12273 of storing, conserving, or retarding water, or for any other 12274 purpose, nor shall any dike or levee be constructed for the 12275 purpose of diverting or retaining flood water, unless the person 12276 or governmental agency desiring the construction has a 12277 construction permit for the dam, dike, or levee issued by the 12278 chief of the division of water. 12279

A construction permit is not required under this section for: 12280

(1) A dam ~~which~~ that is or will be less than ten feet in 12281
more than fifty acre-feet at the elevation of the top of the dam, 12283 as determined by the chief. For the purposes of this section, the 12284 height of a dam shall be measured from the natural stream bed or 12285 dam to the elevation of the top of the dam. 12287

(2) A dam, regardless of height, ~~which~~ that has or will have 12288 a storage capacity of not more than fifteen acre-feet at the 12289 elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by the chief; 12290

(3) A dam, regardless of storage capacity, ~~which~~ that is or 12291 will be six feet or less in height, as determined by the chief; 12292

(4) A dam, dike, or levee ~~which~~ that belongs to a class 12293 exempted by the chief; 12294

(5) The repair, maintenance, improvement, alteration, or 12295 removal of a dam, dike, or levee ~~which~~ that is subject to section 12296 1521.062 of the Revised Code, unless the construction constitutes 12297 an enlargement of the structure as determined by the chief; 12298

(6) A dam or impoundment constructed under Chapter 1513. of 12299
the Revised Code. 12300

(B) Before a construction permit may be issued, three copies 12301 of the plans and specifications, including a detailed cost 12302 estimate, for the proposed construction, prepared by a registered 12303 professional engineer, together with the filing fee specified by 12304 this section and the bond or other security required by section 12305 1521.061 of the Revised Code, shall be filed with the chief. The 12306 detailed estimate of the cost shall include all costs associated 12307 with the construction of the dam, dike, or levee, including 12308 supervision and inspection of the construction by a registered 12309 professional engineer. ~~Except for a political subdivision, the~~ The 12310 filing fee shall be based on the detailed cost estimate for the 12311 proposed construction as filed with and approved by the chief, and 12312 shall be determined by the following schedule unless otherwise 12313 provided by rules adopted under this section: 12314

(1) For the first one hundred thousand dollars of estimated 12315 cost, a fee of ~~two~~ four per cent; 12316

(2) For the next four hundred thousand dollars of estimated 12317 cost, a fee of ~~one and one-half~~ three per cent; 12318

(3) For the next five hundred thousand dollars of estimated 12319 cost, a fee of ~~one~~ two per cent; 12320

(4) For all costs in excess of one million dollars, a fee of 12321
~~one-quarter~~ one-half of one per cent. 12322

In no case shall the filing fee be less than ~~two hundred~~ one 12323 thousand dollars or more than ~~fifty~~ one hundred thousand dollars. 12324
If the actual cost exceeds the estimated cost by more than fifteen 12325 per cent, an additional filing fee shall be required equal to the 12326 fee determined by the preceding schedule less the original filing 12327 fee. ~~The filing fee for a political subdivision shall be two~~ 12328 ~~hundred dollars.~~ All fees collected pursuant to this section, and 12329 all fines collected pursuant to section 1521.99 of the Revised 12330 Code, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of 12331 the dam safety fund, which is hereby created. Expenditures from 12332 the fund shall be made by the chief for the purpose of 12333 administering this section and sections 1521.061 and 1521.062 of 12334

(C) The chief shall, within thirty days from the date of the 12336 receipt of the application, fee, and bond or other security, issue 12337 or deny a construction permit for the construction or may issue a 12338 construction permit conditioned upon the making of such changes in 12339 the plans and specifications for the construction as ~~he~~ the chief 12340 considers advisable if ~~he~~ the chief determines that the 12341 construction of the proposed dam, dike, or levee, in accordance 12342 with the plans and specifications filed, would endanger life, 12343 health, or property. 12344

(D) The chief may deny a construction permit ~~if he finds~~ 12345 after finding that a dam, dike, or levee built in accordance with 12346 the plans and specifications would endanger life, health, or 12347 property, because of improper or inadequate design, or for such 12348 other reasons as the chief may determine. 12349

In the event the chief denies a permit for the construction 12350 of the dam, dike, or levee, or issues a permit conditioned upon a 12351 making of changes in the plans or specifications for the 12352 construction, ~~he~~ the chief shall state ~~his~~ the reasons therefor 12353 and so notify, in writing, the person or governmental agency 12354 making the application for a permit. If the permit is denied, the 12355 chief shall return the bond or other security to the person or 12356 governmental agency making application for the permit. 12357

The decision of the chief conditioning or denying a 12358 construction permit is subject to appeal as provided in Chapter 12359 119. of the Revised Code. A dam, dike, or levee built 12360 substantially at variance from the plans and specifications upon 12361 which a construction permit was issued is in violation of this 12362 section. The chief may at any time inspect any dam, dike, or 12363 levee, or site upon which any dam, dike, or levee is to be 12364 constructed, in order to determine whether it complies with this 12365
section. 12366

(E) A registered professional engineer shall inspect the 12367 construction for which the permit was issued during all phases of 12368 construction and shall furnish to the chief such regular reports 12369 of ~~his~~ the engineer's inspections as the chief may require. When 12370 the chief finds that construction has been fully completed in 12371 accordance with the terms of the permit and the plans and 12372 specifications approved by ~~him~~ the chief, ~~he~~ the chief shall 12373 approve the construction. When one year has elapsed after approval 12374 of the completed construction, and the chief finds that within 12375 this period no fact has become apparent to indicate that the 12376 construction was not performed in accordance with the terms of the 12377 permit and the plans and specifications approved by the chief, or 12378 that the construction as performed would endanger life, health, or 12379 property, ~~he~~ the chief shall release the bond or other security. 12380

No bond or other security shall be released until one year after 12381 issuance of bald eagle license plates under section 4503.572 of 12477 the Revised Code, moneys credited to the fund under section 12478 1533.151 of the Revised Code, and ~~of~~ contributions made directly 12479 to it. Any person may contribute directly to the fund in addition 12480 annual fee of ~~ten~~ twenty-five dollars for each permit. No fee 12519 possess, and transport at any time and in any manner specimens of 12523 wild animals protected by law or their nests and eggs for 12524 scientific study, school instruction, other educational uses, or 12525

The owner of lands in the state and take or possess deer, wild turkeys, fur-bearing animals, ducks, 12575 geese, brant, or any nongame animal while possessing only a 12576 ~~tourist's~~ small game hunting license. A ~~tourist's~~ small game 12577 statement. 12592

This section does not authorize the taking and possessing of 12593 of a hunting license in violation of the requirements of this 12621 section is an offense by both the purchaser of the illegally 12622 obtained hunting license and the clerk or agent who issued the 12623 hunting license. Any hunting license issued in violation of this 12624

(E) The probate court, by rule, may require an advance 13884 and biological siblings pursuant to section 3107.41 of the Revised 13892 Code, all proceedings relative to the petition, the entry of an 13893 order relative to the petition, and all services required to be 13894 connection with the petition for which the fee was charged. 13900

(G)(1) Thirty dollars of the fifty-dollar fee collected 13901 pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section shall be deposited 13902 into the "putative father registry fund," which is hereby created 13903 shall use the money in the fund to fund the department's costs of 13905 performing its duties related to the putative father registry 13906 established under section 3107.062 of the Revised Code. 13907

13960 administrator only if the person charged with the primary 13962 responsibility of administering the estate of the decedent 13963 actually receives the writing within the appropriate time 13964 specified in division (B) of this section. 13965

(B) ~~All~~ Except as provided in section 2117.061 of the Revised 13966 Code, all claims shall be presented within one year after the 13967 death of the decedent, whether or not the estate is released from 13968 administration or an executor or administrator is appointed during 13969 that one-year period. Every claim presented shall set forth the 13970 claimant's address. 13971

(C) ~~A~~ Except as provided in section 2117.061 of the Revised 13972 Code, a claim that is not presented within one year after the 13973 death of the decedent shall be forever barred as to all parties, 13974 including, but not limited to, devisees, legatees, and 13975 distributees. No payment shall be made on the claim and no action 13976 shall be maintained on the claim, except as otherwise provided in 13977 sections 2117.37 to 2117.42 of the Revised Code with reference to 13978 contingent claims. 13979

(D) In the absence of any prior demand for allowance, the 13980 executor or administrator shall allow or reject all claims, except 13981 tax assessment claims, within thirty days after their 13982 presentation, provided that failure of the executor or 13983 administrator to allow or reject within that time shall not 13984 prevent the executor or administrator from doing so after that 13985 time and shall not prejudice the rights of any claimant. Upon the 13986 allowance of a claim, the executor or the administrator, on demand 13987 of the creditor, shall furnish the creditor with a written 13988 statement or memorandum of the fact and date of the allowance. 13989

(E) If the executor or administrator has actual knowledge of 13990 a pending action commenced against the decedent prior to the 13991 decedent's death in a court of record in this state, the executor 13992 or administrator shall file a notice of the appointment of the 13993 executor or administrator in the pending action within ten days 13994 after acquiring that knowledge. If the administrator or executor 13995 is not a natural person, actual knowledge of a pending suit 13996 against the decedent shall be limited to the actual knowledge of 13997 the person charged with the primary responsibility of 13998 administering the estate of the decedent. Failure to file the 13999 notice within the ten-day period does not extend the claim period 14000 established by this section. 14001

(F) This section applies to any person who is required to 14002 give written notice to the executor or administrator of a motion 14003 or application to revive an action pending against the decedent at 14004 the date of the death of the decedent. 14005

(G) Nothing in this section or in section 2117.07 of the 14006 section 2125.02, 2305.09, 2305.10, 2305.11, 2305.113, or 2305.12 14008 of the Revised Code, provided that no portion of any recovery on a 14009 claim brought pursuant to any of those sections shall come from 14010 the assets of an estate unless the claim has been presented 14011

(H) Any person whose claim has been presented and has not 14014 been rejected after presentment is a creditor as that term is used 14015 in Chapters 2113. to 2125. of the Revised Code. Claims that are 14016 contingent need not be presented except as provided in sections 14017 2117.37 to 2117.42 of the Revised Code, but, whether presented 14018 pursuant to those sections or this section, contingent claims may 14019 be presented in any of the manners described in division (A) of 14020
this section. 14021

(I) If a creditor presents a claim against an estate in 14022 accordance with division (A)(2) of this section, the probate court 14023 shall not close the administration of the estate until that claim 14024 is allowed or rejected. 14025

(J) The probate court shall not require an executor or administrator to make and return into the court a schedule of claims against the estate.

If the decedent was a recipient, the person responsible for the estate shall give written notice to that effect to the administrator of the estate recovery program instituted under section 5111.11 of the Revised Code not later than thirty days after the occurrence of any of the following:

compliance with the requirements of division (B) of this section. 14057

(D) The estate recovery program administrator shall present a 14058 claim for estate recovery to the person responsible for the estate 14059 or the person's legal representative not later than ninety days 14060 this section or one year after the decedent's death, whichever is 14062 later. 14063

Sec. 2117.25. (A) Every executor or administrator shall 14064 proceed with diligence to pay the debts of the decedent and shall 14065 apply the assets in the following order: 14066 funeral director that are approved by the probate court, and an 14071 amount, not exceeding two thousand dollars, for burial and 14072 cemetery expenses, including that portion of the funeral 14073 director's bill allocated to cemetery expenses that have been paid 14074 to the cemetery by the funeral director. 14075

(C) Any natural person or fiduciary who pays a claim of any creditor described in division (A) of this section shall be subrogated to the rights of that creditor proportionate to the amount of the payment and shall be entitled to reimbursement for that amount in accordance with the priority of payments set forth in that division.	14109 14110 14111 14112 14113 14114

administration or for the allowance for support need not be 14119 presented. The executor or administrator shall pay debts included 14120 in divisions (A)(4) and (7) of this section, of which the executor 14121 or administrator has knowledge, regardless of presentation. 14122

(2) The giving of written notice to an executor or 14123 administrator of a motion or application to revive an action 14124 pending against the decedent at the date of death shall be 14125 equivalent to the presentation of a claim to the executor or 14126 administrator for the purpose of determining the order of payment 14127 of any judgment rendered or decree entered in such an action. 14128

(E) No payments shall be made to creditors of one class until 14129 all those of the preceding class are fully paid or provided for. 14130

(F) If it appears at any time that the assets have been 14133 exhausted in paying prior or preferred charges, allowances, or 14134 claims, those payments shall be a bar to an action on any claim 14135 not entitled to that priority or preference. 14136

Sec. 2151.352. A Except as otherwise provided in this 14137 section, a child, or the child's parents, or custodian, or any 14138 result from failure to complete any part of the forms. 14181

(B) The director shall promulgate written materials to be 14182 given to the parents of a child delivered pursuant to section 14183 2151.3516 of the Revised Code. The materials shall describe 14184 for a person to follow in order to reunite with a child the person 14188 delivered under section 2151.3516 of the Revised Code, including 14189 notice that the person will be required to submit to a DNA test, 14190 at that person's expense, to prove that the person is the parent 14191 of the child. 14192

(C) If the department of job and family services determines 14193 that money in the putative father registry fund created under 14194 section 2101.16 of the Revised Code is more than is needed for its 14195 duties related to the putative father registry, the department may 14196 use surplus moneys in the fund for costs related to the 14197 development and publication of forms and materials promulgated 14198 disseminate the forms and materials to the persons who are most in 14206 need of the forms and materials. 14207

(B) If the department of job and family services determines 14208
that money in the putative father registry fund created under 14209 section 2101.16 of the Revised Code is more than is needed to 14210 perform its duties related to the putative father registry, the 14211 department may use surplus moneys in the fund for costs related to 14212 the distribution of forms and materials pursuant to this section. 14213 shall enter into a jointly prepared written agreement with the 14216 young adult that obligates the agency to ensure that independent 14217 living services are provided to the young adult and sets forth the 14218 responsibilities of the young adult regarding the services. The 14219 agreement shall be developed based on the young adult's strengths, 14220 needs, and circumstances ~~and the availability of funds provided~~ 14221 ~~pursuant to section 2151.84 of the Revised Code.~~ The agreement 14222 shall be designed to promote the young adult's successful 14223 transition to independent adult living and emotional and economic 14224 self-sufficiency. 14225

(B) If the young adult appears to be eligible for services 14226 from one or more of the following entities, the agency must 14227 contact the appropriate entity to determine eligibility: 14228 the board to determine the young adult's eligibility for services. 14236

(2) The rehabilitation services commission; 14237

(3) A metropolitan housing authority established pursuant to 14238
section 3735.27 of the Revised Code. 14239

If an entity described in this division determines that the 14240 young adult qualifies for services from the entity, that entity, 14241 the young adult, and the agency to which the young adult made the 14242 request for independent living services shall enter into a written 14243 addendum to the jointly prepared agreement entered into under 14244 division (A) of this section. The addendum shall indicate how 14245 services under the agreement and addendum are to be coordinated 14246 agency that signed the addendum. 14248

Sec. 2151.84. The department of job and family services shall 14249 establish model agreements that may be used by public children 14250 services agencies and private child placing agencies required to 14251 provide services under an agreement with a young adult pursuant to 14252 section 2151.83 of the Revised Code. The model agreements shall 14253 the agreement or services provided under it. 14259

~~To facilitate the provision of independent living services,~~ 14260

the child to abide by the law during the period of community 14289

A period of electronically monitored house arrest imposed 14330 under this division shall not extend beyond the child's 14331 twenty-first birthday. If a court imposes a period of 14332 electronically monitored house arrest upon a child under this 14333 division, it shall require the child: to wear, otherwise have 14334

Unless ordered by the court, a child shall not receive credit 14354 for any time served on electronically monitored house arrest 14355 the act for which was imposed the dispositional order of 14357 electronically monitored house arrest. 14358

(1) A suspension of the driver's license, probationary 14359 driver's license, or temporary instruction permit issued to the 14360 section, except that the court shall not commit the child to a 14380 facility described in division (A)(2) or (3) of this section 14381 order made pursuant to division (C)(1)(e) of section 2151.354 of 14383 the Revised Code or division (A)(6) of this section. 14384

(b) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a 14385 chronic truant or a habitual truant who previously has been 14386 adjudicated an unruly child for being a habitual truant and the 14387 court determines that the parent, guardian, or other person having 14388

14422

(2) The child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 14423 committing an act that if committed by an adult would be a drug 14424 abuse offense or for violating division (B) of section 2917.11 of 14425 the Revised Code, with the suspension continuing until the child 14426 attends and satisfactorily completes a drug abuse or alcohol abuse 14427 education, intervention, or treatment program specified by the 14428 court. During the time the child is attending the program, the 14429 court shall retain any temporary instruction permit, probationary 14430 driver's license, or driver's license issued to the child, and the 14431 court shall return the permit or license when the child 14432 satisfactorily completes the program. 14433

(C) The court may establish a victim-offender mediation 14434 program in which victims and their offenders meet to discuss the 14435 offense and suggest possible restitution. If the court obtains the 14436 assent of the victim of the delinquent act committed by the child, 14437 the court may require the child to participate in the program. 14438

(D)(1) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for 14439 section, shall order the preparation of a victim impact statement 14444 by the probation department of the county in which the victim of 14445 the act resides, by the court's own probation department, or by a 14446 victim assistance program that is operated by the state, a county, 14447 a municipal corporation, or another governmental entity. The court 14448 shall consider the victim impact statement in determining the 14449 order of disposition to issue for the child. 14450

(2) Each victim impact statement shall identify the victim of 14451 the act for which the child was adjudicated a delinquent child, 14452 itemize any economic loss suffered by the victim as a result of 14453 the act, identify any physical injury suffered by the victim as a 14454 result of the act and the seriousness and permanence of the 14455 the statement to the department of youth services if the 14464 delinquent child is committed to the department or to both the 14465 record. If an officer is preparing pursuant to section 2947.06 or 14470 2951.03 of the Revised Code or Criminal Rule 32.2 a presentence 14471 investigation report pertaining to a person, the court shall make 14472 available to the officer, for use in preparing the report, a copy 14473 of any victim impact statement regarding that person. The copies 14474 of a victim impact statement that are made available to the 14475 adjudicated delinquent child or the adjudicated delinquent child's 14476 counsel and the prosecuting attorney pursuant to this division 14477 made available immediately following the imposition of an order of 14479

(E) If a child is adjudicated a delinquent child for being a 14488 chronic truant or an habitual truant who previously has been 14489 adjudicated an unruly child for being an habitual truant and the 14490 court determines that the parent, guardian, or other person having 14491
care of the child has failed to cause the child's attendance at 14492 school in violation of section 3321.38 of the Revised Code, in 14493 addition to any order of disposition it makes under this section, 14494 the court shall warn the parent, guardian, or other person having 14495 care of the child that any subsequent adjudication of the child as 14496 an unruly or delinquent child for being an habitual or chronic 14497 guardian, or other person having care of the child for a violation 14499 of division (C) of section 2919.21 or section 2919.24 of the 14500 probation officers have reasonable grounds to believe that the 14512 delinquent child is not abiding by the law or otherwise is not 14513 complying with the conditions of the delinquent child's community 14514 control. The court that places a delinquent child on community 14515 permissible search might extend to a motor vehicle, another item 14532 of tangible or intangible personal property, or a place of 14533 residence or other real property in which a notified parent, 14534 guardian, or custodian has a right, title, or interest and that 14535 the parent, guardian, or custodian expressly or impliedly permits 14536 the child to use, occupy, or possess. 14537 custody of any person, organization, or entity pursuant to this 14539 earnings, in your hands or under your control that belong to the 15413 judgment debtor, and that some of the money, property, or credits 15414 may not be exempt from garnishment under the laws of the State of 15415 Ohio or the laws of the United States. 15416

You are therefore ordered to complete the "ANSWER OF 15417 GARNISHEE" in section (B) of this form. Return one completed and 15418 relative to this order of garnishment: ..... Deliver one 15422

NOTICE TO THE JUDGMENT DEBTOR 15506

You are hereby notified that this court has issued an order 15507 in the above case in favor of (name and address of judgment 15508 creditor), the judgment creditor in this proceeding, directing 15509 that some of your money, property, or credits, other than personal 15510 earnings, now in the possession of (name and address of 15511 garnishee), the garnishee in this proceeding, be used to satisfy 15512 your debt to the judgment creditor. This order was issued on the 15513 basis of the judgment creditor's judgment against you that was 15514 obtained in (name of court) in (case number) on (date). Upon your 15515 receipt of this notice, you are prohibited from removing or 15516 attempting to remove the money, property, or credits until 15517 expressly permitted by the court. Any violation of this 15518 prohibition subjects you to punishment for contempt of court. 15519

The law of Ohio and the United States provides that certain 15520 benefit payments cannot be taken from you to pay a debt. Typical 15521 among the benefits that cannot be attached or executed upon by a 15522 creditor are the following: 15523

(1) Workers' compensation benefits; 15524

(2) Unemployment compensation payments; 15525

(3) Cash assistance payments under the Ohio works first 15526
program; 15527

(4) Benefits and services under the prevention, retention, 15528

and contingency program;	15529

(7) Supplemental security income (S.S.I.);	15533
(8) Veteran's benefits;	15534
(9) Black lung benefits;	15535
(10) Certain pensions.	15536
There may be other benefits not included in the above list that apply in your case.	15537 15538
If you dispute the judgment creditor's right to garnish your property and believe that the judgment creditor should not be given your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, now in the possession of the garnishee because they are exempt or if you feel that this order is improper for any other reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the claim in the request for hearing form, appearing below, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request for hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the clerk of this court no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right to garnish your property in the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right, you are not prohibited from stating any other reason at the hearing. If you do not state your reasons, it will not be held against you by the court, and you can state your reasons at the hearing. NO OBJECTIONS TO THE JUDGMENT ITSELF WILL BE HEARD OR CONSIDERED AT THE HEARING. If you request a hearing, the hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of	15539 15540 15541 15542 15543 15544 15545 15546 15547 15548 15549 15550 15551 15552 15553 15554 15555 15556 15557 15558

the possession or control of the garnishee, if any, that can be 15560 used to satisfy all or part of the judgment you owe to the 15561 judgment creditor. 15562

If you request a hearing by delivering your request for 15563 hearing no later than the end of the fifth business day after you 15564 receive this notice, it will be conducted in ..... courtroom 15565
....., (address of court), at ..... m. on ....., 15566
..... You may request the court to conduct the hearing before 15567 this date by indicating your request in the space provided on the 15568 form; the court then will send you notice of any change in the 15569 date, time, or place of the hearing. If you do not request a 15570 hearing by delivering your request for a hearing no later than the 15571 end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, some 15572 of your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, 15573 will be paid to the judgment creditor. 15574

If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may 15575

(2) The judgment debtor may receive a hearing in accordance 15620 with this division by delivering a written request for hearing to 15621 the court within five business days after receipt of the notice 15622 provided pursuant to division (C)(1) of this section. The request 15623 may set forth the judgment debtor's reasons for disputing the 15624 judgment creditor's right to garnish the money, property, or 15625 credits, other than personal earnings; however, neither the 15626 judgment debtor's inclusion of nor failure to include those 15627 reasons upon the request constitutes a waiver of any defense of 15628 the judgment debtor or affects the judgment debtor's right to 15629 produce evidence at the hearing. If the request is made by the 15630 judgment debtor within the prescribed time, the hearing shall be 15631 limited to a consideration of the amount of money, property, or 15632 credits, other than personal earnings, of the judgment debtor in 15633 the hands of the garnishee, if any, that can be used to satisfy 15634 all or part of the debt owed by the judgment debtor to the 15635 judgment creditor. If a request for a hearing is not received by 15636 the court within the prescribed time, the hearing scheduled 15637 pursuant to division (A) of this section shall be canceled unless 15638 the court grants the judgment debtor a continuance in accordance 15639 with division (C)(3) of this section. 15640

(3) If the judgment debtor does not request a hearing in the 15641 action within the prescribed time pursuant to division (C)(2) of 15642 this section, the court nevertheless may grant a continuance of 15643 the scheduled hearing if the judgment debtor, prior to the time at 15644 which the hearing was scheduled, as indicated on the notice to the 15645 judgment debtor required by division (C)(1) of this section, 15646 establishes a reasonable justification for failure to request the 15647 hearing within the prescribed time. If the court grants a 15648 continuance of the hearing, it shall cause the matter to be set 15649 for hearing as soon as practicable thereafter. The continued 15650 hearing shall be conducted in accordance with division (C)(2) of 15651
this section. 15652

(4) The court may conduct the hearing on the matter prior to 15653 the time at which the hearing was scheduled, as indicated on the 15654 notice to the judgment debtor required by division (C)(1) of this 15655 section, upon the request of the judgment debtor. The parties 15656 shall be sent notice, by the clerk of the court, by regular mail, 15657 of any change in the date, time, or place of the hearing. 15658

(5) If the scheduled hearing is canceled and no continuance 15659 is granted, the court shall issue an order to the garnishee to pay 15660 all or some of the money, property, or credits, other than 15661 personal earnings, of the judgment debtor in the possession of the 15662 garnishee at the time of service of the notice and order into 15663 court if they have not already been paid to the court. This order 15664 shall be based on the answer of the garnishee filed pursuant to 15665 this section. If the scheduled hearing is conducted or if it is 15666 continued and conducted, the court shall determine at the hearing 15667 the amount of the money, property, or credits, other than personal 15668 earnings, of the judgment debtor in the possession of the 15669 garnishee at the time of service of the notice and order, if any, 15670 that can be used to satisfy all or part of the debt owed by the 15671 judgment debtor to the judgment creditor, and issue an order, 15672 accordingly, to the garnishee to pay that amount into court if it 15673 has not already been paid to the court. 15674

(D) The notice to the judgment debtor form and the request 15675 for hearing form described in division (C) of this section shall 15676 be sent by the clerk by ordinary or regular mail service unless 15677 the judgment creditor requests that service be made in accordance 15678 with the Rules of Civil Procedure, in which case the forms shall 15679 be served in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. Any 15680 court of common pleas that issues an order of garnishment of 15681 property, other than personal earnings, under this section has 15682 jurisdiction to serve process pursuant to this section upon a 15683 garnishee who does not reside within the jurisdiction of the 15684 court. Any county court or municipal court that issues an order of garnishment of property, other than personal earnings, under this section has jurisdiction to serve process pursuant to this section upon a garnishee who does not reside within the jurisdiction of the court.

Sec. 2743.02. (A)(1) The state hereby waives its immunity from liability, except as provided for the office of the state fire marshal in division (G)(1) of section 9.60 and division (B) of section 3737.221 of the Revised Code and subject to division (H) of this section, and consents to be sued, and have its liability determined, in the court of claims created in this chapter in accordance with the same rules of law applicable to suits between private parties, except that the determination of liability is subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter and, in the case of state universities or colleges, in section 3345.40 of the Revised Code, and except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section. To the extent that the state has previously consented to be sued, this chapter has no applicability.

Except in the case of a civil action filed by the state, filing a civil action in the court of claims results in a complete waiver of any cause of action, based on the same act or omission, which the filing party has against any officer or employee, as defined in section 109.36 of the Revised Code. The waiver shall be void if the court determines that the act or omission was manifestly outside the scope of the officer's or employee's office or employment or that the officer or employee acted with malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner.

employee's acts or omissions but for the fact that the officer or 15716 employee has personal immunity under section 9.86 of the Revised 15717 Code, the state shall be held liable in the court of claims in any 15718 action that is timely filed pursuant to section 2743.16 of the 15719 Revised Code and that is based upon the acts or omissions. 15720

(B) The state hereby waives the immunity from liability of 15721 all hospitals owned or operated by one or more political 15722 subdivisions and consents for them to be sued, and to have their 15723 liability determined, in the court of common pleas, in accordance 15724 with the same rules of law applicable to suits between private 15725 parties, subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter. 15726
This division is also applicable to hospitals owned or operated by 15727 political subdivisions which have been determined by the supreme 15728 court to be subject to suit prior to July 28, 1975. 15729

(C) Any hospital, as defined in section 2305.113 of the 15730 Revised Code, may purchase liability insurance covering its 15731 operations and activities and its agents, employees, nurses, 15732 interns, residents, staff, and members of the governing board and 15733 committees, and, whether or not such insurance is purchased, may, 15734 to such extent as its governing board considers appropriate, 15735 indemnify or agree to indemnify and hold harmless any such person 15736 against expense, including attorney's fees, damage, loss, or other 15737 liability arising out of, or claimed to have arisen out of, the 15738 death, disease, or injury of any person as a result of the 15739 negligence, malpractice, or other action or inaction of the 15740 indemnified person while acting within the scope of the 15741 indemnified person's duties or engaged in activities at the 15742 request or direction, or for the benefit, of the hospital. Any 15743 hospital electing to indemnify such persons, or to agree to so 15744 indemnify, shall reserve such funds as are necessary, in the 15745 exercise of sound and prudent actuarial judgment, to cover the 15746 potential expense, fees, damage, loss, or other liability. The 15747 superintendent of insurance may recommend, or, if such hospital 15748 requests the superintendent to do so, the superintendent shall 15749 recommend, a specific amount for any period that, in the 15750 superintendent's opinion, represents such a judgment. This 15751 authority is in addition to any authorization otherwise provided 15752 or permitted by law. 15753

(D) Recoveries against the state shall be reduced by the 15754 aggregate of insurance proceeds, disability award, or other 15755 collateral recovery received by the claimant. This division does 15756 not apply to civil actions in the court of claims against a state 15757 university or college under the circumstances described in section 15758 3345.40 of the Revised Code. The collateral benefits provisions of 15759 division (B)(2) of that section apply under those circumstances. 15760

(E) The only defendant in original actions in the court of 15761 claims is the state. The state may file a third-party complaint or 15762 counterclaim in any civil action, except a civil action for two 15763 thousand five hundred dollars or less, that is filed in the court 15764 of claims. 15765

(F) A civil action against an officer or employee, as defined 15766 in section 109.36 of the Revised Code, that alleges that the 15767 officer's or employee's conduct was manifestly outside the scope 15768 of the officer's or employee's employment or official 15769 responsibilities, or that the officer or employee acted with 15770 malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner 15771 shall first be filed against the state in the court of claims, 15772 which has exclusive, original jurisdiction to determine, 15773 initially, whether the officer or employee is entitled to personal 15774 immunity under section 9.86 of the Revised Code and whether the 15775 courts of common pleas have jurisdiction over the civil action. 15776

The filing of a claim against an officer or employee under 15777 this division tolls the running of the applicable statute of 15778 limitations until the court of claims determines whether the 15779 officer or employee is entitled to personal immunity under section 15780

9.86 of the Revised Code. 15781

(G) Whenever a claim lies against an officer or employee who 15782 is a member of the Ohio national guard, and the officer or 15783 employee was, at the time of the act or omission complained of, 15784 subject to the "Federal Tort Claims Act," 60 Stat. 842 (1946), 28 15785 U.S.C. 2671, et seq., then the Federal Tort Claims Act is the 15786 exclusive remedy of the claimant and the state has no liability 15787 under this section. 15788

(H) If an inmate of a state correctional institution has a 15789 claim against the state for the loss of or damage to property and 15790 the amount claimed does not exceed three hundred dollars, before 15791 commencing an action against the state in the court of claims, the 15792 inmate shall file a claim for the loss or damage under the rules 15793 adopted by the director of rehabilitation and correction pursuant 15794 to this division. The inmate shall file the claim within the time 15795 allowed for commencement of a civil action under section 2743.16 15796 of the Revised Code. If the state admits or compromises the claim, 15797 the director shall make payment from a fund designated by the 15798 director for that purpose. If the state denies the claim or does 15799 not compromise the claim at least sixty days prior to expiration 15800 of the time allowed for commencement of a civil action based upon 15801 the loss or damage under section 2743.16 of the Revised Code, the 15802 inmate may commence an action in the court of claims under this 15803 chapter to recover damages for the loss or damage. 15804

The director of rehabilitation and correction shall adopt 15805 rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement 15806 this division. 15807

Sec. 2915.01. As used in this chapter: 15808

(A) "Bookmaking" means the business of receiving or paying 15809 off bets. 15810

(B) "Bet" means the hazarding of anything of value upon the result of an event, undertaking, or contingency, but does not include a bona fide business risk.

(C) "Scheme of chance" means a slot machine, lottery, numbers game, pool, or other scheme in which a participant gives a valuable consideration for a chance to win a prize, but does not include bingo.

(D) "Game of chance" means poker, craps, roulette, or other game in which a player gives anything of value in the hope of gain, the outcome of which is determined largely by chance, but does not include bingo.

division (D)(3) of that section, and, if applicable, only in 17656 accordance with division (B) of section 4729.65 of the Revised 17657 Code. The annual reports that pertain to the funds and that are 17658 the Revised Code also shall address the remaining proceeds, fines, 17660 and penalties that are paid or deposited into the funds pursuant 17661 to division (D)(2)(c) of this section. 17662

(3) If more than one law enforcement agency substantially 17663 conducted the investigation, the court ordering the forfeiture 17664 shall equitably divide the remaining proceeds, fines, and 17665 penalties among the law enforcement agencies that substantially 17666 park district if that agency desires to have and can use the drug 17771 paraphernalia. If the drug paraphernalia is not so given, it shall 17772 be disposed of by sale pursuant to division (B)(8) of this section 17773 or disposed of in another manner that the court that issued the 17774 order of forfeiture considers proper under the circumstances. 17775

(3) Drugs shall be disposed of pursuant to section 3719.11 of 17776 the Revised Code or placed in the custody of the secretary of the 17777 treasury of the United States for disposal or use for medical or 17778 scientific purposes under applicable federal law. 17779

(4) Firearms and dangerous ordnance suitable for police work 17780 may be given to a law enforcement agency for that purpose. 17781 Firearms suitable for sporting use, or as museum pieces or 17782 collectors' items, may be disposed of by sale pursuant to division 17783 (B)(8) of this section. Other firearms and dangerous ordnance 17784 shall be destroyed by a law enforcement agency or shall be sent to 17785 the bureau of criminal identification and investigation for 17786 destruction by it. As used in this division, "firearms" and 17787 "dangerous ordnance" have the same meanings as in section 2923.11 17788

(5) Computers, computer networks, computer systems, and 17790 computer software suitable for police work may be given to a law 17791 enforcement agency for that purpose. Other computers, computer 17792 networks, computer systems, and computer software shall be 17793 disposed of by sale pursuant to division (B)(8) of this section or 17794 disposed of in another manner that the court that issued the order 17795 of forfeiture considers proper under the circumstances. As used in 17796 this division, "computers," "computer networks," "computer 17797 systems," and "computer software" have the same meanings as in 17798
section 2913.01 of the Revised Code. 17799

(6) Obscene materials shall be destroyed. 17800

(7) Beer, intoxicating liquor, and alcohol shall be disposed 17801 of in accordance with division (D)(4) of section 2933.41 of the 17802

(8) In the case of property not described in divisions (B)(1) 17804 to (7) of this section and of property described in those 17805 divisions but not disposed of pursuant to them, the property shall 17806 be sold in accordance with division (B)(8) of this section or, in 17807 the case of forfeited moneys, disposed of in accordance with 17808 division (B)(8) of this section. If the property is to be sold, 17809 the prosecuting attorney shall cause a notice of the proposed sale 17810 of the property to be given in accordance with law, and the 17811 property shall be sold, without appraisal, at a public auction to 17812 the highest bidder for cash. The proceeds of a sale and forfeited 17813 moneys shall be applied in the following order: 17814

(a) First, to the payment of the costs incurred in connection 17815
with the seizure of, storage of, maintenance of, and provision of 17816

security for the property, the forfeiture proceeding or civil 17817 action, and, if any, the sale; 17818

(b) Second, the remaining proceeds or forfeited moneys after 17819 compliance with division (B)(8)(a) of this section, to the payment 17820 of the value of any legal right, title, or interest in the 17821 property that is possessed by a person who, pursuant to division 17822 (F) of section 2925.42 of the Revised Code or division (E) of 17823 section 2925.43 of the Revised Code, established the validity of 17824 and consequently preserved that legal right, title, or interest, 17825 including, but not limited to, any mortgage, perfected or other 17826 security interest, or other lien in the property. The value of 17827 these rights, titles, or interests shall be paid according to 17828 their record or other order of priority. 17829

(c) Third, the remaining proceeds or forfeited moneys after 17830 compliance with divisions (B)(8)(a) and (b) of this section, as 17831 follows: 17832

(i) If the forfeiture was ordered in a juvenile court, ten 17833
per cent to one or more alcohol and drug addiction treatment 17834 programs that are certified by the department of alcohol and drug 17835 addiction services under section 3793.06 of the Revised Code and 17836 that are specified in the order of forfeiture. A juvenile court 17837 shall not specify an alcohol or drug addiction treatment program 17838 in the order of forfeiture unless the program is a certified 17839 alcohol and drug addiction treatment program and, except as 17840 provided in division (B)(8)(c)(i) of this section, unless the 17841 program is located in the county in which the court that orders 17842
the forfeiture is located or in a contiguous county. If no 17843 certified alcohol and drug addiction treatment program is located 17844
in any of those counties, the juvenile court may specify in the 17845 order a certified alcohol and drug addiction treatment program 17846 located anywhere within this state. 17847

(ii) If the forfeiture was ordered in a juvenile court, 17848

ninety per cent, and if the forfeiture was ordered in a court 17849 other than a juvenile court, one hundred per cent to appropriate 17850 funds in accordance with divisions (D)(1)(c) and (2) of section 17851 2933.43 of the Revised Code. The remaining proceeds or forfeited 17852 moneys so deposited shall be used only for the purposes authorized 17853 by those divisions and division (D)(3)(a)(ii) of that section. 17854

(C)(1) Sections 2925.41 to 2925.45 of the Revised Code do not 17855 preclude a financial institution that possessed a valid mortgage, 17856 security interest, or lien that is not satisfied prior to a sale 17857 under division (B)(8) of this section or following a sale by 17858 application of division (B)(8)(b) of this section, from commencing 17859 a civil action in any appropriate court in this or another state 17860 to obtain a deficiency judgment against the debtor if the 17861 financial institution otherwise would have been entitled to do so 17862 in this or another state. 17863

(2) Any law enforcement agency that obtains any vehicle 17864 pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section shall take the vehicle 17865 subject to the outstanding amount of any security interest or lien 17866 that attaches to the vehicle. 17867

(3) Nothing in this section impairs a mortgage, security 17868 interest, lien, or other interest of a financial institution in 17869 property that was the subject of a forfeiture order under section 17870 2925.42 or 2925.43 of the Revised Code and that was sold or 17871 otherwise disposed of in a manner that does not conform to the 17872 requirements of division (B) of this section, or any right of a 17873 financial institution of that nature to commence a civil action in 17874 any appropriate court in this or another state to obtain a 17875 deficiency judgment against the debtor. 17876

(4) Following the sale under division (B)(8) of this section 17877 of any property that is required to be titled or registered under 17878 the law of this state, the prosecuting attorney responsible for 17879 the disposition of the property shall cause the state to issue an 17880 appropriate certificate of title or registration to the purchaser 17881 of the property. Additionally, if, in a disposition of property 17882 pursuant to division (B) of this section, the state or a political 17883 subdivision is given any property that is required to be titled or 17884 registered under the law of this state, the prosecuting attorney 17885 responsible for the disposition of the property shall cause the 17886 state to issue an appropriate certificate of title or registration 17887 to itself or to the political subdivision. 17888

(D) Property that has been forfeited to the state pursuant to 17889 an order of criminal forfeiture under section 2925.42 of the 17890 Revised Code or an order of civil forfeiture under section 2925.43 17891 of the Revised Code shall not be available for use to pay any fine 17892 imposed upon a person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 17893 felony drug abuse offense or upon any juvenile who is found by a 17894 juvenile court to be a delinquent child for an act that, if 17895 committed by an adult, would be a felony drug abuse offense. 17896

(E) Sections 2925.41 to 2925.45 of the Revised Code do not 17897 prohibit a law enforcement officer from seeking the forfeiture of 17898 contraband associated with a felony drug abuse offense pursuant to 17899
section 2933.43 of the Revised Code. 17900

Sec. 2929.38. (A) A board of commissioners of a county, in an 17901 agreement with the sheriff, a legislative authority of a municipal 17902 corporation, a corrections commission, a judicial corrections 17903 board, or any other public or private entity that operates a local 17904 detention facility described in division (A) of section 2929.37 of 17905 the Revised Code, may establish a policy that requires any 17906 prisoner who is confined in the facility as a result of pleading 17907 guilty to or having been convicted of an offense to pay a one-time 17908 reception fee for the costs of processing the prisoner into the 17909 facility at the time of the prisoner's initial entry into the 17910 facility under the confinement in question, to pay a reasonable 17911 fee for any medical or dental treatment or service requested by 17912 and provided to that prisoner, and to pay the fee for a random 17913 drug test assessed under division (E) of section 341.26, and 17914 division (E) of section 753.33 of the Revised Code. The fee for 17915 the medical treatment or service shall not exceed the actual cost 17916 of the treatment or service provided. No prisoner confined in the 17917 local detention facility shall be denied any necessary medical 17918 care because of inability to pay the fees. 17919

(B) Upon assessment of a one-time reception fee as described 17920 in division (A) of this section, the provision of the requested 17921 medical treatment or service, or the assessment of a fee for a 17922 random drug test, payment of the required fee may be automatically 17923 deducted from the prisoner's inmate account in the business office 17924 of the local detention facility in which the prisoner is confined. 17925
If there is no money in the account, a deduction may be made at a 17926 later date during the prisoner's confinement if the money becomes 17927 available in the account. If, after release, the prisoner has an 17928 unpaid balance of those fees, the sheriff, legislative authority 17929 of the municipal corporation, corrections commission, judicial 17930 corrections board, or other entity that operates the local 17931 detention facility described in division (A) of section 2929.37 of 17932
the Revised Code may bill the prisoner for the payment of the 17933 unpaid fees. Fees received for medical or dental treatment or 17934 services shall be paid to the commissary fund, if one exists for 17935 the facility, or if no commissary fund exists, to the general fund 17936 of the treasury of the political subdivision that incurred the 17937 expenses, in the same proportion as those expenses were borne by 17938 the political subdivision. Fees received for medical treatment or 17939 services that are placed in the commissary fund under this 17940 division shall be used for the same purposes as profits from the 17941 commissary fund, except that they shall not be used to pay any 17942 salary or benefits of any person who works in or is employed for 17943 the sole purpose of providing service to the commissary. 17944

(C) Any fee paid by a person under this section shall be 17945 deducted from any medical or dental costs that the person is 17946 ordered to reimburse under section 2929.36 of the Revised Code or 17947 to repay under a policy adopted under section 2929.37 of the 17948
Revised Code. 17949

(D) As used in this section, "inmate account" has the same 17950

Sec. 2933.43. (A)(1) Except as provided in this division or 17952 in section 2913.34 or sections 2923.44 to 2923.47 or 2925.41 to 17953 2925.45 of the Revised Code, a law enforcement officer shall seize 17954 any contraband that has been, is being, or is intended to be used 17955 in violation of division (A) of section 2933.42 of the Revised 17956 Code. A law enforcement officer shall seize contraband that is a 17957 watercraft, motor vehicle, or aircraft and that has been, is 17958 being, or is intended to be used in violation of division (A) of 17959 section 2933.42 of the Revised Code only if the watercraft, motor 17960 vehicle, or aircraft is contraband because of its relationship to 17961 an underlying criminal offense that is a felony. 17962

Additionally, a law enforcement officer shall seize any 17963 watercraft, motor vehicle, aircraft, or other personal property 17964 that is classified as contraband under division (B) of section 17965 2933.42 of the Revised Code if the underlying offense involved in 17966 the violation of division (A) of that section that resulted in the 17967 watercraft, motor vehicle, aircraft, or personal property being 17968 classified as contraband, is a felony. 17969

(2) If a law enforcement officer seizes property that is 17970 titled or registered under law, including a motor vehicle, 17971 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, the officer or the 17972 officer's employing law enforcement agency shall notify the owner 17973 of the seizure. The notification shall be given to the owner at 17974 the owner's last known address within seventy-two hours after the 17975 seizure, and may be given orally by any means, including 17976 telephone, or by certified mail, return receipt requested. 17977

If the officer or the officer's agency is unable to provide 17978 the notice required by this division despite reasonable, good 17979 faith efforts to do so, the exercise of the reasonable, good faith 17980 efforts constitutes fulfillment of the notice requirement imposed 17981 by this division. 17982

(B)(1) A motor vehicle seized pursuant to division (A)(1) of 17983 this section and the contents of the vehicle may be retained for a 17984 reasonable period of time, not to exceed seventy-two hours, for 17985 the purpose of inspection, investigation, and the gathering of 17986 evidence of any offense or illegal use. 17987

At any time prior to the expiration of the seventy-two-hour 17988 period, the law enforcement agency that seized the motor vehicle 17989 may petition the court of common pleas of the county that has 17990 jurisdiction over the underlying criminal case or administrative 17991 proceeding involved in the forfeiture for an extension of the 17992 seventy-two-hour period if the motor vehicle or its contents are 17993 needed as evidence or if additional time is needed for the 17994 inspection, investigation, or gathering of evidence. Upon the 17995 filing of such a petition, the court immediately shall schedule a 17996 hearing to be held at a time as soon as possible after the filing, 17997 but in no event at a time later than the end of the next business 17998 day subsequent to the day on which the petition was filed, and 17999 upon scheduling the hearing, immediately shall notify the owner of 18000 the vehicle, at the address at which notification of the seizure 18001 was provided under division (A) of this section, of the date, 18002 time, and place of the hearing. If the court, at the hearing, 18003 determines that the vehicle or its contents, or both, are needed 18004 as evidence or that additional time is needed for the inspection, 18005 investigation, or gathering of evidence, the court may grant the 18006 petition and issue an order authorizing the retention of the 18007 vehicle or its contents, or both, for an extended period as 18008 specified by the court in its order. An order extending a period 18009 of retention issued under this division may be renewed. 18010

If no petition for the extension of the initial 18011 seventy-two-hour period has been filed, prior to the expiration of 18012 that period, under this division, if the vehicle was not in the 18013 custody and control of the owner at the time of its seizure, and 18014 if, at the end of that seventy-two-hour period, the owner of the 18015 vehicle has not been charged with an offense or administrative 18016 violation that includes the use of the vehicle as an element and 18017 has not been charged with any other offense or administrative 18018 violation in the actual commission of which the motor vehicle was 18019 used, the vehicle and its contents shall be released to its owner 18020 or the owner's agent, provided that the law enforcement agency 18021 that seized the vehicle may require proof of ownership of the 18022 vehicle, proof of ownership or legal possession of the contents, 18023 and an affidavit of the owner that the owner neither knew of nor 18024 expressly or impliedly consented to the use of the vehicle that 18025 resulted in its forfeiture as conditions precedent to release. If 18026 a petition for the extension of the initial seventy-two-hour 18027 period has been filed, prior to the expiration of that period, 18028 under this division but the court does not grant the petition, if 18029 the vehicle was not in the custody and control of the owner at the 18030 time of its seizure, and if, at the end of that seventy-two-hour 18031 period, the owner of the vehicle has not been charged with an 18032 offense or administrative violation that includes the use of the 18033 vehicle as an element and has not been charged with any other 18034 offense or administrative violation in the actual commission of 18035 which the motor vehicle was used, the vehicle and its contents 18036 shall be released to its owner or the owner's agent, provided that 18037 the court may require the proof and affidavit described in the 18038 preceding sentence as conditions precedent to release. If the 18039 initial seventy-two-hour period has been extended under this 18040 division, the vehicle and its contents to which the extension 18041 applies may be retained in accordance with the extension order. 18042

If, at the end of that extended period, the owner of the vehicle 18043 has not been charged with an offense or administrative violation 18044 that includes the use of the vehicle as an element and has not 18045 been charged with any other offense or administrative violation in 18046 the actual commission of which the motor vehicle was used, and if 18047
the vehicle was not in the custody and control of the owner at the 18048 time of its seizure, the vehicle and its contents shall be 18049 released to its owner or the owner's agent, provided that the 18050 court may require the proof and affidavit described in the third 18051 preceding sentence as conditions precedent to release. In cases in 18052 which the court may require proof and affidavits as conditions 18053 precedent to release, the court also may require the posting of a 18054 bond, with sufficient sureties approved by the court, in an amount 18055 equal to the value of the property to be released, as determined 18056 by the court, and conditioned upon the return of the property to 18057 the court if it is forfeited under this section, as a further 18058 condition to release. If, at the end of the initial 18059 seventy-two-hour period or at the end of any extended period 18060 granted under this section, the owner has been charged with an 18061 offense or administrative violation that includes the use of the 18062 vehicle as an element or has been charged with another offense or 18063 administrative violation in the actual commission of which the 18064 motor vehicle was used, or if the vehicle was in the custody and 18065 control of the owner at the time of its seizure, the vehicle and 18066 its contents shall be retained pending disposition of the charge, 18067 provided that upon the filing of a motion for release by the 18068 owner, if the court determines that the motor vehicle or its 18069 contents, or both, are not needed as evidence in the underlying 18070 criminal case or administrative proceeding, the court may permit 18071 the release of the property that is not needed as evidence to the 18072 owner; as a condition precedent to a release of that nature, the 18073 court may require the owner to execute a bond with the court. Any 18074 bond so required shall be in an amount equal to the value of the 18075 property to be released, as determined by the court, shall have 18076 sufficient sureties approved by the court, and shall be 18077 conditioned upon the return of the property to the court to which 18078 it is forfeited under this section. 18079

The final disposition of a motor vehicle seized pursuant to 18080 division (A)(1) of this section shall be determined in accordance 18081
with division (C) of this section. 18082

(2) Pending a hearing pursuant to division (C) of this 18083 section, and subject to divisions (B)(1) and (C) of this section, 18084 any property lawfully seized pursuant to division (A) of this 18085 section because it was contraband of a type described in division 18086
(A)(13)(b), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), or (j) of section 18087
2901.01 of the Revised Code shall not be subject to replevin or 18088
other action in any court and shall not be subject to release upon 18089 request of the owner, and no judgment shall be enforced against 18090 the property. Pending the hearing, and subject to divisions (B)(1) 18091 and (C) of this section, the property shall be kept in the custody 18092 of the law enforcement agency responsible for its seizure. 18093

Pending a hearing pursuant to division (C) of this section, 18094 and notwithstanding any provisions of division (B)(1) or (C) of 18095 this section to the contrary, any property lawfully seized 18096 pursuant to division (A) of this section because it was contraband 18097 of a type described in division (A)(13)(a) or (c) of section 18098
other action in any court and shall not be subject to release upon 18100
request of the owner, and no judgment shall be enforced against 18101 the property. Pending the hearing, and notwithstanding any 18102 provisions of division (B)(1) or (C) of this section to the 18103 contrary, the property shall be kept in the custody of the law 18104 enforcement agency responsible for its seizure. 18105

A law enforcement agency that seizes property under division 18106
(A) of this section because it was contraband of any type 18107 described in division (A)(13) of section 2901.01 or division (B) 18108 of section 2933.42 of the Revised Code shall maintain an accurate 18109 record of each item of property so seized, which record shall 18110 include the date on which each item was seized, the manner and 18111 date of its disposition, and if applicable, the name of the person 18112 who received the item; however, the record shall not identify or 18113 enable the identification of the individual officer who seized the 18114 item. The record of property of that nature that no longer is 18115 needed as evidence shall be open to public inspection during the 18116 agency's regular business hours. Each law enforcement agency that, 18117 during any calendar year, seizes property under division (A) of 18118 this section because it was contraband shall prepare a report 18119 covering the calendar year that cumulates all of the information 18120 contained in all of the records kept by the agency pursuant to 18121 this division for that calendar year, and shall send a copy of the 18122 cumulative report, no later than the first day of March in the 18123 calendar year following the calendar year covered by the report, 18124 to the attorney general. Each report received by the attorney 18125 general is a public record open for inspection under section 18126 149.43 of the Revised Code. Not later than the fifteenth day of 18127
April in the calendar year in which the reports are received, the 18128 attorney general shall send to the president of the senate and the 18129 speaker of the house of representatives a written notification 18130 that does all of the following: 18131

(a) Indicates that the attorney general has received from law 18132 enforcement agencies reports of the type described in this 18133 division that cover the previous calendar year and indicates that 18134 the reports were received under this division; 18135

(b) Indicates that the reports are open for inspection under 18136
section 149.43 of the Revised Code; 18137

(c) Indicates that the attorney general will provide a copy 18138 of any or all of the reports to the president of the senate or the 18139 speaker of the house of representatives upon request. 18140

(C) The prosecuting attorney, village solicitor, city 18141 director of law, or similar chief legal officer who has 18142 responsibility for the prosecution of the underlying criminal case 18143 or administrative proceeding, or the attorney general if the 18144 attorney general has that responsibility, shall file a petition 18145 for the forfeiture, to the seizing law enforcement agency of the 18146 contraband seized pursuant to division (A) of this section. The 18147 petition shall be filed in the court that has jurisdiction over 18148 the underlying criminal case or administrative proceeding involved 18149 in the forfeiture. If the property was seized on the basis of both 18150 a criminal violation and an administrative regulation violation, 18151 the petition shall be filed by the officer and in the court that 18152 is appropriate in relation to the criminal case. 18153

The petitioner shall conduct or cause to be conducted a 18154 search of the appropriate public records that relate to the seized 18155 property for the purpose of determining, and shall make or cause 18156 to be made reasonably diligent inquiries for the purpose of 18157 determining, any person having an ownership or security interest 18158 in the property. The petitioner then shall give notice of the 18159 forfeiture proceedings by personal service or by certified mail, 18160 return receipt requested, to any persons known, because of the 18161 conduct of the search, the making of the inquiries, or otherwise, 18162 to have an ownership or security interest in the property, and 18163 shall publish notice of the proceedings once each week for two 18164 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 18165 county in which the seizure occurred. The notices shall be 18166 personally served, mailed, and first published at least four weeks 18167 before the hearing. They shall describe the property seized; state 18168 the date and place of seizure; name the law enforcement agency 18169 that seized the property and, if applicable, that is holding the 18170 property; list the time, date, and place of the hearing; and state 18171 that any person having an ownership or security interest in the 18172 property may contest the forfeiture. 18173

If the property seized was determined by the seizing law 18174 enforcement officer to be contraband because of its relationship 18175 to an underlying criminal offense or administrative violation, no 18176 forfeiture hearing shall be held under this section unless the 18177 person pleads guilty to or is convicted of the commission of, or 18178 an attempt or conspiracy to commit, the offense or a different 18179 offense arising out of the same facts and circumstances or unless 18180 the person admits or is adjudicated to have committed the 18181 administrative violation or a different violation arising out of 18182 the same facts and circumstances; a forfeiture hearing shall be 18183 held in a case of that nature no later than forty-five days after 18184 the conviction or the admission or adjudication of the violation, 18185 unless the time for the hearing is extended by the court for good 18186 cause shown. The owner of any property seized because of its 18187 relationship to an underlying criminal offense or administrative 18188 violation may request the court to release the property to the 18189 owner. Upon receipt of a request of that nature, if the court 18190 determines that the property is not needed as evidence in the 18191 underlying criminal case or administrative proceeding, the court 18192 may permit the release of the property to the owner. As a 18193 condition precedent to a release of that nature, the court may 18194 require the owner to execute a bond with the court. Any bond so 18195 required shall have sufficient sureties approved by the court, 18196 shall be in a sum equal to the value of the property, as 18197 determined by the court, and shall be conditioned upon the return 18198 of the property to the court if the property is forfeited under 18199 this section. Any property seized because of its relationship to 18200 an underlying criminal offense or administrative violation shall 18201 be returned to its owner if charges are not filed in relation to 18202 that underlying offense or violation within thirty days after the 18203 seizure, if charges of that nature are filed and subsequently are 18204 dismissed, or if charges of that nature are filed and the person 18205 charged does not plead guilty to and is not convicted of the 18206 offense or does not admit and is not found to have committed the 18207 violation. 18208

enforcement officer to be contraband other than because of a 18210 relationship to an underlying criminal offense or administrative 18211 violation, the forfeiture hearing under this section shall be held 18212 no later than forty-five days after the seizure, unless the time 18213 for the hearing is extended by the court for good cause shown. 18214

Where possible, a court holding a forfeiture hearing under 18215 this section shall follow the Rules of Civil Procedure. When a 18216 hearing is conducted under this section, property shall be 18217 forfeited upon a showing, by a preponderance of the evidence, by 18218 the petitioner that the person from which the property was seized 18219 was in violation of division (A) of section 2933.42 of the Revised 18220 Code. If that showing is made, the court shall issue an order of 18221 forfeiture. If an order of forfeiture is issued in relation to 18222 contraband that was released to the owner or the owner's agent 18223 pursuant to this division or division (B)(1) of this section, the 18224 order shall require the owner to deliver the property, by a 18225 specified date, to the law enforcement agency that employed the 18226 law enforcement officer who made the seizure of the property, and 18227 the court shall deliver a copy of the order to the owner or send a 18228 copy of it by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the 18229 owner at the address to which notice of the seizure was given 18230 under division (A)(2) of this section. Except as otherwise 18231 provided in this division, all rights, interest, and title to the 18232 forfeited contraband vests in the state, effective from the date 18233 of seizure. 18234

No property shall be forfeited pursuant to this division if 18235 the owner of the property establishes, by a preponderance of the 18236 evidence, that the owner neither knew, nor should have known after 18237 a reasonable inquiry, that the property was used, or was likely to 18238 be used, in a crime or administrative violation. No bona fide 18239 security interest shall be forfeited pursuant to this division if 18240 the holder of the interest establishes, by a preponderance of the 18241 evidence, that the holder of the interest neither knew, nor should 18242 have known after a reasonable inquiry, that the property was used, 18243 or likely to be used, in a crime or administrative violation, that 18244 the holder of the interest did not expressly or impliedly consent 18245 to the use of the property in a crime or administrative violation, 18246 and that the security interest was perfected pursuant to law prior 18247 to the seizure. If the holder of the interest satisfies the court 18248 that these requirements are met, the interest shall be preserved 18249 by the court. In a case of that nature, the court shall either 18250 order that the agency to which the property is forfeited reimburse 18251 the holder of the interest to the extent of the preserved interest 18252 or order that the holder be paid for the interest from the 18253 proceeds of any sale pursuant to division (D) of this section. 18254

(D)(1) Contraband ordered forfeited pursuant to this section 18255 shall be disposed of pursuant to divisions (D)(1) to (7) of 18256 section 2933.41 of the Revised Code or, if the contraband is not 18257 described in those divisions, may be used, with the approval of 18258 the court, by the law enforcement agency that has custody of the 18259 contraband pursuant to division (D)(8) of that section. In the 18260 case of contraband not described in any of those divisions and of 18261 contraband not disposed of pursuant to any of those divisions, the 18262 contraband shall be sold in accordance with this division or, in 18263 the case of forfeited moneys, disposed of in accordance with this 18264 division. If the contraband is to be sold, the prosecuting 18265 attorney shall cause a notice of the proposed sale of the 18266 contraband to be given in accordance with law, and the property 18267 shall be sold, without appraisal, at a public auction to the 18268 highest bidder for cash. The proceeds of a sale and forfeited 18269 moneys shall be applied in the following order: 18270

(a) First, to the payment of the costs incurred in connection 18271
security for the contraband, the forfeiture proceeding, and, if 18273 any, the sale; 18274

(b) Second, the remaining proceeds or forfeited moneys after 18275 compliance with division (D)(1)(a) of this section, to the payment 18276 of the balance due on any security interest preserved pursuant to 18277 division (C) of this section; 18278

compliance with divisions (D)(1)(a) and (b) of this section, as 18280
follows: 18281

(i) If the forfeiture was ordered in a juvenile court, ten 18282
per cent to one or more alcohol and drug addiction treatment 18283
addiction services under section 3793.06 of the Revised Code and 18285 that are specified in the order of forfeiture. A juvenile court 18286 shall not certify an alcohol or drug addiction treatment program 18287 in the order of forfeiture unless the program is a certified 18288
provided in division (D)(1)(c)(i) of this section, unless the 18290
the forfeiture is located or in a contiguous county. If no 18292
in any of those counties, the juvenile court may specify in the 18294
located anywhere within this state. 18296

(ii) If the forfeiture was ordered in a juvenile court, 18297

other than a juvenile court, one hundred per cent to the law 18299 enforcement trust fund of the prosecuting attorney and to the law 18300 enforcement trust fund of the county sheriff if the county sheriff 18301 made the seizure, to the law enforcement trust fund of a municipal 18302 corporation if its police department made the seizure, to the law 18303 enforcement trust fund of a township if the seizure was made by a 18304 township police department, township police district police force, 18305 or office of a township constable, to the law enforcement trust 18306 fund of a park district created pursuant to section 511.18 or 18307 1545.01 of the Revised Code if the seizure was made by the park 18308 district police force or law enforcement department, to the state 18309 highway patrol contraband, forfeiture, and other fund if the state 18310 highway patrol made the seizure, to the department of public 18311 safety investigative unit contraband, forfeiture, and other fund 18312 if the investigative unit of the department of public safety made 18313 the seizure, to the department of taxation enforcement fund if the 18314 department of taxation made the seizure, to the board of pharmacy 18315 drug law enforcement fund created by division (B)(1) of section 18316 4729.65 of the Revised Code if the board made the seizure, or to 18317 the treasurer of state for deposit into the peace officer training 18318 commission fund if a state law enforcement agency, other than the 18319 state highway patrol, the investigative unit of the department of 18320 public safety, the enforcement division of the department of 18321 taxation, or the state board of pharmacy, made the seizure. The 18322 prosecuting attorney may decline to accept any of the remaining 18323 proceeds or forfeited moneys, and, if the prosecuting attorney so 18324 declines, the remaining proceeds or forfeited moneys shall be 18325 applied to the fund described in this division that relates to the 18326 law enforcement agency that made the seizure. 18327

A law enforcement trust fund shall be established by the 18328 prosecuting attorney of each county who intends to receive any 18329 remaining proceeds or forfeited moneys pursuant to this division, 18330

(A) Subject to divisions (B) and (C) of this section, a board 20634 of education of a local school district may by a resolution 20635 approved by a majority of all its members propose to sever that 20636 local school district from the territory of the educational 20637 service center in which the local school district is currently 20638 included and to instead annex the local school district to the 20639 territory of another educational service center, the current 20640 territory of which is adjacent to the territory of the educational 20641
included. The resolution shall promptly be filed with the 20643 governing board of each educational service center affected by the 20644 resolution and with the superintendent of public instruction. 20645

(B) The resolution adopted under division (A) of this section 20646 shall not be effective unless it is approved by both the governing 20647 board of the educational service center to which the board of 20648 education proposes to annex the local school district and the 20649 state board of education. The severance of the local school 20650 district from one educational service center and its annexation to 20651 another educational service center under this section shall not be 20652 effective until one year after the first day of July following the 20653 later of the date that the governing board of the educational 20654 service center to which the local school district is proposed to 20655 be annexed approves the resolution or the date the board of 20656 elections certifies the results of the referendum election as 20657 provided in division (C) of this section. 20658

(C) Within sixty days following the date of the adoption of 20659 the resolution under division (A) of this section, the electors of 20660 the local school district may petition for a referendum vote on 20661 the resolution. The question whether to approve or disapprove the 20662 resolution shall be submitted to the electors of such school 20663 district if a number of qualified electors equal to twenty per 20664 cent of the number of electors in the school district who voted 20665 for the office of governor at the most recent general election for 20666 that office sign a petition asking that the question of whether 20667 the resolution shall be disapproved be submitted to the electors. 20668

The petition shall be filed with the board of elections of the 20669 county in which the school district is located. If the school 20670 district is located in more than one county, the petition shall be 20671 filed with the board of elections of the county in which the 20672 majority of the territory of the school district is located. The 20673 board shall certify the validity and sufficiency of the signatures 20674 on the petition. 20675

The board of elections shall immediately notify the board of 20676 education of the local school district and the governing board of 20677 each educational service center affected by the resolution that 20678 the petition has been filed. 20679

The effect of the resolution shall be stayed until the board 20680 of elections certifies the validity and sufficiency of the 20681 signatures on the petition. If the board of elections determines 20682 that the petition does not contain a sufficient number of valid 20683 signatures and sixty days have passed since the adoption of the 20684 resolution, the resolution shall become effective as provided in 20685 division (B) of this section. 20686

If the board of elections certifies that the petition 20687 contains a sufficient number of valid signatures, the board shall 20688 submit the question to the qualified electors of the school 20689 district on the day of the next general or primary election held 20690 at least seventy-five days after the board of elections certifies 20691 the validity and sufficiency of signatures on the petition. The 20692 election shall be conducted and canvassed and the results shall be 20693 certified in the same manner as in regular elections for the 20694 election of members of a board of education. 20695

If a majority of the electors voting on the question 20696 disapprove the resolution, the resolution shall not become 20697 effective. If a majority of the electors voting on the question 20698 approve the resolution, the resolution shall become effective as 20699 provided in division (B) of this section. 20700

(D) Upon the effective date of the severance of the local 20701 school district from one educational service center and its 20702 annexation to another educational service center as provided in 20703 division (B) of this section, the governing board of each 20704 educational service center shall take such steps for the election 20705 of members of the governing board and for organization of the 20706 governing board as prescribed in Chapter 3313. of the Revised 20707
Code. 20708

Sec. 3311.24. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this 20709 section, if the board of education of a city, exempted village, or 20710 local school district deems it advisable to transfer territory 20711 from such district to an adjoining city, exempted village, or 20712 local school district, or if a petition, signed by seventy-five 20713 per cent of the qualified electors residing within that portion of 20714 a city, exempted village, or local school district proposed to be 20715 transferred voting at the last general election, requests such a 20716 transfer, the board of education of the district in which such 20717 proposal originates shall file such proposal, together with a map 20718 showing the boundaries of the territory proposed to be 20719 day of April in any even-numbered year. The state board of 20721 education may, if it is advisable, provide for a hearing in any 20722 suitable place in any of the school districts affected by such 20723 proposed transfer of territory. The state board of education or 20724 its representatives shall preside at any such hearing. 20725

A board of education of a city, exempted village, or local 20726 school district that receives a petition of transfer under this 20727 division shall cause the board of elections to check the 20728 sufficiency of signatures on the petition. 20729

Not later than the first day of September the state board of 20730 education shall either approve or disapprove a proposed transfer 20731 of territory filed with it as provided by this section and shall 20732 notify, in writing, the boards of education of the districts 20733 affected by such proposed transfer of territory of its decision. 20734

If the decision of the state board of education is an 20735 approval of the proposed transfer of territory then the board of 20736 education of the district in which the territory is located shall, 20737 within thirty days after receiving the state board of education's 20738 decision, adopt a resolution transferring the territory and shall 20739 forthwith submit a copy of such resolution to the treasurer of the 20740 board of education of the city, exempted village, or local school 20741 district to which the territory is transferred. Such transfer 20742 shall not be complete however, until: 20743

(1) A resolution accepting the transfer has been passed by a 20744 majority vote of the full membership of the board of education of 20745 the city, exempted village, or local school district to which the 20746 territory is transferred; 20747

(2) An equitable division of the funds and indebtedness 20748 between the districts involved has been made by the board of 20749 education making the transfer; 20750

(3) A map showing the boundaries of the territory transferred 20751 has been filed, by the board of education accepting the transfer, 20752 with the county auditor of each county affected by the transfer. 20753

When such transfer is complete the legal title of the school 20754 property in the territory transferred shall be vested in the board 20755 of education or governing board of the school district to which 20756 the territory is transferred. 20757

(B) Whenever the transfer of territory pursuant to this 20758 section is initiated by a board of education, the board shall, 20759 before filing a proposal for transfer with the state board of 20760 education under this section, make a good faith effort to 20761 negotiate the terms of transfer with any other school district 20762 whose territory would be affected by the transfer. Before the 20763 state board may hold a hearing on the transfer, or approve or 20764 disapprove any such transfer, it must receive the following: 20765

(1) A resolution requesting approval of the transfer, passed 20766 by the school district submitting the proposal; 20767

(2) Evidence determined to be sufficient by the state board 20768 to show that good faith negotiations have taken place or that the 20769 district requesting the transfer has made a good faith effort to 20770 hold such negotiations; 20771

(3) If any negotiations took place, a statement signed by all 20772 boards that participated in the negotiations, listing the terms 20773

Negotiations held pursuant to this section shall be governed 20775 by the rules adopted by the state board under division (D) of 20776 section 3311.06 of the Revised Code. Districts involved in a 20777 transfer under division (B) of this section may agree to share 20778 revenues from the property included in the territory to be 20779 transferred, establish cooperative programs between the 20780 participating districts, and establish mechanisms for the 20781 settlement of any future boundary disputes. 20782 resolution proposing such creation, adopt a resolution making the 20799 creation effective prior to the next succeeding first day of July, 20800 unless, prior to the expiration of such thirty-day period, 20801 qualified electors residing in the area included in such proposed 20802 new district, equal in number to thirty-five per cent of the 20803 seventy-five days after the date of such certification, or at a 20817 special election, the date of which shall be specified in the 20818 certification, which date shall not be less than seventy-five days 20819 after the date of such certification. 20820 the entire assessed valuation of the former district as fixed on 20844 the effective date of transfer. As used in this section, "net 20845 effective date of the creation of the new district. 20857

The ~~governing~~ state board shall, following the election, file 20858 with the county auditor of each county affected by the creation of 20859

Revised Code. ~~Except~~ 22043

The board of education shall recommend to the commission 22044 whether the board supports or opposes a tax levy under section 22045 5705.194 or 5705.21 or Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code and shall 22046 provide supporting documentation to the commission of its 22047 recommendation. 22048

After considering the board of education's recommendation and 22049 supporting documentation, the commission shall adopt a resolution 22050 to either submit a ballot question proposing a tax levy or not to 22051 submit such a question. 22052

Except as otherwise provided in this division, the tax shall 22053 be levied in the manner prescribed for a tax levied under section 22054 5705.194 or 5705.21 or under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code. 22055
~~The~~ If the commission decides that a tax shall should be levied, 22056

~~the tax shall be levied for the purpose of paying current~~ 22057 ~~operating expenses of the school district. The question shall~~ 22058 ~~propose that the tax be levied at the rate required to produce~~ 22059 ~~annual revenue sufficient to eliminate the operating deficit as~~ 22060 ~~certified by the auditor of state and to repay outstanding loans~~ 22061
~~or other obligations incurred by the board of education for the~~ 22062 ~~purpose of reducing or eliminating operating deficits, as~~ 22063 ~~determined by the financial planning and supervision commission.~~ 22064
The rate of a tax levied under section 5705.194 or 5705.21 of the 22065 Revised Code shall be determined by the county auditor, and the 22066 rate of a tax levied under section 5748.02 or 5748.08 of the 22067 Revised Code shall be determined by the tax commissioner, upon the 22068 request of the commission. The commission, in consultation with 22069 the board of education, shall determine the election at which the 22070 question of the tax shall appear on the ballot, and the ~~board of~~ 22071 ~~education or~~ commission shall submit a copy of its resolution to 22072 the board of elections not later than seventy-five days prior to 22073 the day of that election. The board of elections conducting the 22074 election shall certify the results of the election to the board of 22075 education and to the financial planning and supervision 22076 commission. 22077

Sec. 3317.01. As used in this section and section 3317.011 of 22078 the Revised Code, "school district," unless otherwise specified, 22079 means any city, local, exempted village, joint vocational, or 22080 cooperative education school district and any educational service 22081 center. 22082

This chapter shall be administered by the state board of 22083 education. The superintendent of public instruction shall 22084 calculate the amounts payable to each school district and shall 22085 certify the amounts payable to each eligible district to the 22086 treasurer of the district as provided by this chapter. No moneys 22087 shall be distributed pursuant to this chapter without the approval 22088 of the controlling board. 22089

The state board of education shall, in accordance with 22090 appropriations made by the general assembly, meet the financial 22091 obligations of this chapter. 22092

Annually, the department of education shall calculate and 22093 report to each school district the district's total state and 22094 local funds for providing an adequate basic education to the 22095 district's nonhandicapped students, utilizing the determination in 22096 section 3317.012 of the Revised Code. In addition, the department 22097 shall calculate and report separately for each school district the 22098 district's total state and local funds for providing an adequate 22099 education for its handicapped students, utilizing the 22100 determinations in both sections 3317.012 and 3317.013 of the 22101
Revised Code. 22102

Not later than the thirty-first day of August of each fiscal 22103 year, the department of education shall provide to each school 22104 district and county MR/DD board a preliminary estimate of the 22105 amount of funding that the department calculates the district will 22106 receive under each of divisions (C)(1) and (4) of section 3317.022 22107 of the Revised Code. No later than the first day of December of 22108 each fiscal year, the department shall update that preliminary 22109 estimate. 22110

Moneys distributed pursuant to this chapter shall be 22111 calculated and paid on a fiscal year basis, beginning with the 22112 first day of July and extending through the thirtieth day of June. 22113
The moneys appropriated for each fiscal year shall be distributed 22114 at least monthly to each school district unless otherwise provided 22115 for. The state board shall submit a yearly distribution plan to 22116 the controlling board at its first meeting in July. The state 22117 board shall submit any proposed midyear revision of the plan to 22118 the controlling board in January. Any year-end revision of the 22119 plan shall be submitted to the controlling board in June. If 22120 moneys appropriated for each fiscal year are distributed other 22121 than monthly, such distribution shall be on the same basis for 22122 each school district. 22123

The total amounts paid each month shall constitute, as nearly 22124 as possible, one-twelfth of the total amount payable for the 22125 entire year. Payments made during the first six months of the 22126 fiscal year may be based on an estimate of the amounts payable for 22127 the entire year. Payments made in the last six months shall be 22128 based on the final calculation of the amounts payable to each 22129 school district for that fiscal year. Payments made in the last 22130 six months may be adjusted, if necessary, to correct the amounts 22131 distributed in the first six months, and to reflect enrollment 22132 increases when such are at least three per cent. Except as 22133 otherwise provided, payments under this chapter shall be made only 22134 to those school districts in which: 22135

(A) The school district, except for any educational service 22136 center and any joint vocational or cooperative education school 22137 district, levies for current operating expenses at least twenty 22138 mills. Levies for joint vocational or cooperative education school 22139 districts or county school financing districts, limited to or to 22140 the extent apportioned to current expenses, shall be included in 22141 this qualification requirement. School district income tax levies 22142 under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, limited to or to the 22143 extent apportioned to current operating expenses, shall be 22144 included in this qualification requirement to the extent 22145 determined by the tax commissioner under division (D) of section 22146
3317.021 of the Revised Code. 22147

(B) The school year next preceding the fiscal year for which 22148 such payments are authorized meets the requirement of section 22149 3313.48 or 3313.481 of the Revised Code, with regard to the 22150 minimum number of days or hours school must be open for 22151 instruction with pupils in attendance, for individualized 22152 parent-teacher conference and reporting periods, and for 22153 professional meetings of teachers. This requirement shall be 22154 waived by the superintendent of public instruction if it had been 22155 necessary for a school to be closed because of disease epidemic, 22156 hazardous weather conditions, inoperability of school buses or 22157 other equipment necessary to the school's operation, damage to a 22158 school building, or other temporary circumstances due to utility 22159 failure rendering the school building unfit for school use, 22160 provided that for those school districts operating pursuant to 22161 section 3313.48 of the Revised Code the number of days the school 22162 was actually open for instruction with pupils in attendance and 22163 for individualized parent-teacher conference and reporting periods 22164 is not less than one hundred seventy-five, or for those school 22165 districts operating on a trimester plan the number of days the 22166 school was actually open for instruction with pupils in attendance 22167 not less than seventy-nine days in any trimester, for those school 22168 districts operating on a quarterly plan the number of days the 22169 school was actually open for instruction with pupils in attendance 22170 not less than fifty-nine days in any quarter, or for those school 22171 districts operating on a pentamester plan the number of days the 22172 school was actually open for instruction with pupils in attendance 22173 not less than forty-four days in any pentamester. 22174

A school district shall not be considered to have failed to 22175 comply with this division or section 3313.481 of the Revised Code 22176 because schools were open for instruction but either twelfth grade 22177 students were excused from attendance for up to three days or only 22178 a portion of the kindergarten students were in attendance for up 22179 to three days in order to allow for the gradual orientation to 22180 school of such students. 22181

The superintendent of public instruction shall waive the 22182 requirements of this section with reference to the minimum number 22183 of days or hours school must be in session with pupils in 22184 attendance for the school year succeeding the school year in which 22185 a board of education initiates a plan of operation pursuant to 22186 section 3313.481 of the Revised Code. The minimum requirements of 22187 this section shall again be applicable to such a district 22188 beginning with the school year commencing the second July 22189 succeeding the initiation of one such plan, and for each school 22190 year thereafter. 22191

comply with this division or section 3313.48 or 3313.481 of the 22193 Revised Code because schools were open for instruction but the 22194 length of the regularly scheduled school day, for any number of 22195 days during the school year, was reduced by not more than two 22196 hours due to hazardous weather conditions. 22197

(C) The school district has on file, and is paying in 22198 accordance with, a teachers' salary schedule which complies with 22199
section 3317.13 of the Revised Code. 22200

(D) The school district utilizes the student management 22201 record system prescribed by the department as its student 22202 administration software package to manage and report all data 22203 required to be reported to the department. This division applies 22204 beginning July 1, 2007. 22205

A board of education or governing board of an educational 22206 service center which has not conformed with other law and the 22207 rules pursuant thereto, shall not participate in the distribution 22208 of funds authorized by sections 3317.022 to 3317.0211, 3317.11, 22209 3317.16, 3317.17, and 3317.19 of the Revised Code, except for good 22210 and sufficient reason established to the satisfaction of the state 22211 board of education and the state controlling board. 22212

All funds allocated to school districts under this chapter, 22213 except those specifically allocated for other purposes, shall be 22214 used to pay current operating expenses only. 22215

Sec. 3317.012. (A)(1) The general assembly, having analyzed 22216 school district expenditure and cost data for fiscal year 1999, 22217 performed the calculation described in division (B) of this 22218 section, adjusted the results for inflation, and added the amounts 22219 described in division (A)(2) of this section, hereby determines 22220 that the base cost of an adequate education per pupil for the 22221 fiscal year beginning July 1, 2001, is $4,814. For the ~~five~~ three 22222 following fiscal years, the base cost per pupil for each of those 22223 years, reflecting an annual rate of inflation of two and 22224 eight-tenths per cent, is $4,949 for fiscal year 2003, $5,088 for 22225 fiscal year 2004, and $5,230 for fiscal year 2005, ~~$5,376 for~~ 22226 ~~fiscal year 2006, and $5,527 for fiscal year 2007.~~ 22227

(2) The base cost per pupil amounts specified in division 22228
(A)(1) of this section include amounts to reflect the cost to 22229 school districts of increasing the minimum number of high school 22230 academic units required for graduation beginning September 15, 22231 2001, under section 3313.603 of the Revised Code. Analysis of 22232 fiscal year 1999 data revealed that the school districts meeting 22233 the requirements of division (B) of this section on average 22234 required high school students to complete a minimum of nineteen 22235 and eight-tenths units to graduate. The general assembly 22236 determines that the cost of funding the additional two-tenths unit 22237 required by section 3313.603 of the Revised Code is $12 per pupil 22238 in fiscal year 2002. This amount was added after the calculation 22239 described in division (B) of this section and the adjustment for 22240 inflation from fiscal year 1999 to fiscal year 2002. It is this 22241 total amount, the calculated base cost plus the supplement to pay 22242 for the additional partial unit, that constitutes the base cost 22243 amount specified in division (A)(1) of this section for fiscal 22244 year 2002 and that is inflated to produce the base cost amounts 22245 for fiscal years 2003 through ~~2007~~ 2005. 22246

(B) In determining the base cost stated in division (A) of 22247 this section, capital and debt costs, costs paid for by federal 22248 funds, and costs covered by funds provided for disadvantaged pupil 22249 impact aid and transportation were excluded, as were the effects 22250 on the districts' state funds of the application of the 22251 cost-of-doing-business factors, assuming a seven and one-half per 22252 cent variance. 22253

The base cost for fiscal year 1999 was calculated as the 22254 unweighted average cost per student, on a school district basis, 22255 of educating students who were not receiving vocational education 22256 or services pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code and who 22257 were enrolled in a city, exempted village, or local school 22258 district that in fiscal year 1999 met all of the following 22259
criteria: 22260

(1) The district met at least twenty of the following 22261 twenty-seven performance indicators: 22262

(a) A ninety per cent or higher graduation rate; 22263

(b) At least seventy-five per cent of fourth graders 22264 proficient on the mathematics test prescribed under former 22265 division (A)(1) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code; 22266

(c) At least seventy-five per cent of fourth graders 22267 proficient on the reading test prescribed under former division 22268
(A)(1) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code; 22269

(A)(1) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code; 22272

(e) At least seventy-five per cent of fourth graders 22273

section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code;	22326
(w) At least sixty per cent of twelfth graders proficient on	22327
the reading test prescribed under former division (A)(3) of	22328

the citizenship test prescribed under former division (A)(3) of	22334
section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code;	22335

the science test prescribed under former division (A)(3) of 22337
section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code; 22338

(aa) An attendance rate for the year of at least ninety-three 22339 per cent as defined in section 3302.01 of the Revised Code. 22340

In determining whether a school district met any of the 22341 performance standards specified in divisions (B)(1)(a) to (aa) of 22342 this section, the general assembly used a rounding procedure 22343 previously recommended by the department of education. It is the 22344 same rounding procedure the general assembly used in 1998 to 22345 determine whether a district had met the standards of former 22346 divisions (B)(1)(a) to (r) of this section for purposes of 22347 constructing the previous model based on fiscal year 1996 data. 22348

(2) The district was not among the five per cent of all 22349 districts with the highest income, nor among the five per cent of 22350 all districts with the lowest income. 22351

(3) The district was not among the five per cent of all 22352 districts with the highest valuation per pupil, nor among the five 22353 per cent of all districts with the lowest valuation per pupil. 22354

This model for calculating the base cost of an adequate 22355 education is expenditure-based. The general assembly recognizes 22356 that increases in state funding to school districts since fiscal 22357 year 1996, the fiscal year upon which the general assembly based 22358 its model for calculating state funding to school districts for 22359 fiscal years 1999 through 2001, has increased school district base 22360 cost expenditures for fiscal year 1999, the fiscal year upon which 22361 the general assembly based its model for calculating state funding 22362 for fiscal years 2002 through ~~2007~~ 2005. In the case of school 22363 districts included in the fiscal year 1999 model that also had met 22364 the fiscal year 1996 performance criteria of former division 22365 (B)(1) of this section, the increased state funding may have 22366 driven the districts' expenditures beyond the expenditures that 22367 were actually needed to maintain their educational programs at the 22368 level necessary to maintain their ability to meet the fiscal year 22369 1999 performance criteria of current division (B)(1) of this 22370 section. The general assembly has determined to control for this 22371 effect by stipulating in the later model that the fiscal year 1999 22372 base cost expenditures of the districts that also met the 22373 performance criteria of former division (B)(1) of this section 22374 equals their base cost expenditures per pupil for fiscal year 22375 1996, inflated to fiscal year 1999 using an annual rate of 22376 inflation of two and eight-tenths per cent. However, if this 22377 inflated amount exceeded the district's actual fiscal year 1999 22378 base cost expenditures per pupil, the district's actual fiscal 22379 year 1999 base cost expenditures per pupil were used in the 22380 calculation. For districts in the 1999 model that did not also 22381 meet the performance criteria of former division (B)(1) of this 22382 section, the actual 1999 base cost per pupil expenditures were 22383 used in the calculation of the average district per pupil costs of 22384 the model districts. 22385

~~(C) In July of 2005, and in July of every six years 22386 thereafter, the speaker of the house of representatives and the 22387 president of the senate shall each appoint three members to a 22388 committee to reexamine the cost of an adequate education. No more 22389 than two members from any political party shall represent each 22390 house. The director of budget and management and the 22391 superintendent of public instruction shall serve as nonvoting ex 22392 officio members of the committee. 22393~~

~~The committee shall select a rational methodology for 22394 calculating the costs of an adequate education system for the 22395 ensuing six year period, and shall report the methodology and the 22396 resulting costs to the general assembly. In performing its 22397 function, the committee is not bound by any method used by 22398 previous general assemblies to examine and calculate costs and 22399~~

~~instead may utilize any rational method it deems suitable and 22400 reasonable given the educational needs and requirements of the 22401 state at that time. 22402~~

~~The methodology for determining the cost of an adequate 22403 education system shall take into account the basic educational 22404 costs that all districts incur in educating regular students, the 22405 unique needs of special categories of students, and significant 22406 special conditions encountered by certain classifications of 22407 school districts. 22408~~

~~The committee also shall redetermine, for purposes of 22409 updating the parity aid calculation under section 3317.0217 of the 22410 Revised Code, the average number of effective operating mills that 22411 school districts in the seventieth to ninetieth percentiles of 22412 valuations per pupil collect above the revenues required to 22413 finance their attributed local shares of the calculated cost of an 22414 adequate education. 22415~~

~~Any committee appointed pursuant to this section shall make 22416 its report to the office of budget and management and the general 22417 assembly within one year of its appointment so that the 22418 information is available for use by the office and the general 22419 assembly in preparing the next biennial appropriations act. 22420~~

~~(D)(1) For purposes of this division, an "update year" is the 22421 first fiscal year for which the per pupil base cost of an adequate 22422 education is in effect after being recalculated by the general 22423 assembly. The first update year is fiscal year 2002. The second 22424 update year is fiscal year 2008. 22425~~

~~(2) The general assembly shall recalculate the per pupil base 22426 cost of an adequate education every six years after considering 22427 the recommendations of the committee appointed under division (C) 22428 of this section. At the time of the recalculation, for each of the 22429 five fiscal years following the update year, the general assembly 22430~~

~~shall adjust the base cost recalculated for the update year using 22431 an annual rate of inflation that the general assembly determines 22432 appropriate. 22433~~

~~(3) The general assembly shall include, in the act 22434 appropriating state funds for education programs for a fiscal 22435 biennium that begins with an update year, a statement of its 22436 determination of the total state share percentage of base cost and 22437 parity aid funding for the update year. 22438~~

~~(4) During its biennial budget deliberations, the general 22439 assembly shall determine the total state share percentage of base 22440 cost and parity aid funding for each fiscal year of the upcoming 22441 biennium. This determination shall be based on the latest 22442 projections and data provided by the department of education under 22443 division (D)(6) of this section prior to the enactment of 22444 education appropriations for the upcoming biennium. If, based on 22445 those latest projections and data, the general assembly determines 22446 that the total state share percentage for either or both nonupdate 22447 fiscal years varies more than two and one half percentage points 22448 more or less than the total state share percentage for the most 22449 recent update year, as previously stated by the general assembly 22450 under division (D)(3) of this section, the general assembly shall 22451 determine and enact a method that it considers appropriate to 22452 restrict the estimated variance for each year to within two and 22453 one half percentage points. The general assembly's methods may 22454 include, but are not required to include and need not be limited 22455 to, reexamining the rate of millage charged off as the local share 22456 of base cost funding under divisions (A)(1) and (2) of section 22457 3317.022 of the Revised Code. Regardless of any changes in 22458 charge off millage rates in years between update years, however, 22459 the charge off millage rate for update years shall be twenty three 22460 mills, unless the general assembly determines that a different 22461 millage rate is more appropriate to share the total calculated 22462~~

~~base cost between the state and school districts. 22463~~

~~(5) The total state share percentage of base cost and parity 22464~~
~~aid funding for any fiscal year is calculated as follows: 22465~~

~~{(Total state base cost + total state parity aid funding) — 22466~~ ~~statewide charge off amount} / (Total state base cost + total 22467~~ ~~state parity aid funding) 22468~~

~~Where: 22469~~

~~(a) The total state base cost equals the sum of the base 22470~~
~~costs for all school districts for the fiscal year. 22471~~

~~(b) The base cost for each school district equals: 22472~~
~~formula amount X cost of doing business factor X 22473~~
~~the greater of formula ADM or 22474~~
~~three year average formula ADM 22475~~

~~(c) The total state parity aid funding equals the sum of the 22476~~ ~~amounts paid to all school districts for the fiscal year under 22477~~
~~section 3317.0217 of the Revised Code. 22478~~

~~(d) The statewide charge off amount equals the sum of the 22479~~ ~~charge off amounts for all school districts. 22480~~

~~(e) The charge off amount for each school district is the 22481~~ ~~amount calculated as its local share of base cost funding and 22482~~
~~deducted from the total calculated base cost to determine the 22483~~
~~amount of its state payment under divisions (A)(1) and (2) of 22484~~
~~section 3317.022 of the Revised Code. The charge off amount for 22485~~
~~each school district in fiscal year 2002 is the product of 22486~~
~~twenty three mills multiplied by the district's recognized 22487~~ ~~valuation as adjusted, if applicable, under division (A)(2) of 22488~~
~~section 3317.022 of the Revised Code. If however, in any fiscal 22489~~
~~year, including fiscal year 2002, a school district's calculated 22490~~ ~~charge off amount exceeds its base cost calculated as described in 22491~~
~~division (D)(5)(b) of this section, the district's charge off 22492~~ ~~amount shall be deemed to equal its calculated base cost. 22493~~

Sec. 3317.013. This section does not apply to handicapped preschool students.

Analysis of special education cost data has resulted in a finding that the average special education additional cost per pupil, including the costs of related services, can be expressed as a multiple of the base cost per pupil calculated under section 3317.012 of the Revised Code. The multiples for the following categories of special education programs, as these programs are defined for purposes of Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code, and adjusted as provided in this section, are as follows:

(A) A multiple of 0.2892 for students whose primary or only identified handicap is a speech and language handicap, as this term is defined pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code;

(B) A multiple of 0.3691 for students identified as specific learning disabled or developmentally handicapped, as these terms are defined pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code, or other health handicapped-minor;

(C) A multiple of 1.7695 for students identified as hearing handicapped, vision impaired, or severe behavior handicapped, as these terms are defined pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code;

(D) A multiple of 2.3646 for students identified as orthopedically handicapped, as this term is defined pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code or other health handicapped - major;

(E) A multiple of 3.1129 for students identified as multihandicapped, as this term is defined pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code;

(F) A multiple of 4.7342 for students identified as autistic, having traumatic brain injuries, or as both visually and hearing disabled, as these terms are defined pursuant to Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code.

In fiscal year ~~2002~~ 2004, the multiples specified in divisions (A) to (F) of this section shall be adjusted by multiplying them by ~~0.825~~ 0.88. In fiscal year ~~2003~~ 2005, the multiples specified in those divisions shall be adjusted by multiplying them by ~~0.875~~ 0.90.

Not later than May 30, 2004, and May 30, 2005, the department shall submit to the office of budget and management a report that specifies for each city, local, exempted village, and joint vocational school district the fiscal year allocation of the state and local shares of special education and related services additional weighted funding and federal special education funds passed through to the district.

Sec. 3317.014. The average vocational education additional cost per pupil can be expressed as a multiple of the base cost per pupil calculated under section 3317.012 of the Revised Code. the multiples for the following categories of vocational education programs are as follows:

(A) A multiple of 0.57 for students enrolled in vocational education job-training and workforce development programs approved by the department of education in accordance with rules adopted 22554

under section 3313.90 of the Revised Code. 22555

(B) A multiple of 0.28 for students enrolled in vocational 22556 education classes other than job-training and workforce 22557 development programs. 22558

Vocational education associated services costs can be 22559 expressed as a multiple of 0.05 of the base cost per pupil 22560 calculated under section 3317.012 of the Revised Code. 22561

The general assembly has adjusted the multiples specified in 22562 this section for calculating payments beginning in fiscal year 22563 2002 in recognition that its policy change regarding the 22564 application of the cost-of-doing-business factor produces a higher 22565 base cost amount than would exist if no change were made to its 22566 application. The adjustment maintains the same weighted costs as 22567 would exist if no change were made to the application of the 22568 cost-of-doing-business factor. 22569

The department of education shall annually report to the 22570 governor and the general assembly the amount of weighted funding 22571 for vocational education and associated services that is spent by 22572 each city, local, exempted village, and joint vocational school 22573 district specifically for vocational educational and associated 22574
services. 22575

Sec. 3317.022. (A)(1) The department of education shall 22576 compute and distribute state base cost funding to each school 22577 district for the fiscal year in accordance with the following 22578 formula, making any adjustment required by division (A)(2) of this 22579 section and using the information obtained under section 3317.021 22580 of the Revised Code in the calendar year in which the fiscal year 22581 begins. 22582

Compute the following for each eligible district: 22583

$\dagger(\text{cost-of-doing-business factor X}$  22584 the formula amount X ~~(the greater of formula ADM~~ 22585 ~~or three-year average formula ADM)~~† - 22586
(.023 X recognized valuation) 22587

If the difference obtained is a negative number, the 22588 district's computation shall be zero. 22589

(2)(a) For each school district for which the tax exempt 22590 value of the district equals or exceeds twenty-five per cent of 22591 the potential value of the district, the department of education 22592 shall calculate the difference between the district's tax exempt 22593 value and twenty-five per cent of the district's potential value. 22594

(b) For each school district to which division (A)(2)(a) of 22595 this section applies, the department shall adjust the recognized 22596 valuation used in the calculation under division (A)(1) of this 22597 section by subtracting from it the amount calculated under 22598 division (A)(2)(a) of this section. 22599

(B) As used in this section: 22600

(1) The "total special education weight" for a district means 22601 the sum of the following amounts: 22602

(a) The district's category one special education ADM 22603 multiplied by the multiple specified in division (A) of section 22604
3317.013 of the Revised Code; 22605

(b) The district's category two special education ADM 22606

3317.013 of the Revised Code; 22608

(c) The district's category three special education ADM 22609

(2) "State share percentage" means the percentage calculated for a district as follows:	22621 22622
(a) Calculate the state base cost funding amount for the district for the fiscal year under division (A) of this section. If the district would not receive any state base cost funding for that year under that division, the district's state share percentage is zero.	22623 22624 22625 22626 22627
(b) If the district would receive state base cost funding under that division, divide that amount by an amount equal to the following:	22628 22629 22630
Cost-of-doing-business factor X	22631
the formula amount X (the greater of formula	22632

The resultant number is the district's state share percentage.	22634 22635
(3) "Related services" includes:	22636
(a) Child study, special education supervisors and coordinators, speech and hearing services, adaptive physical development services, occupational or physical therapy, teacher assistants for handicapped children whose handicaps are described in division (B) of section 3317.013 or division (F)(3) of section 3317.02 of the Revised Code, behavioral intervention, interpreter services, work study, nursing services, and specialized	22637 22638 22639 22640 22641 22642 22643

(e) Any other related service needed by handicapped children in accordance with their individualized education plans.	22653 22654
(4) The "total vocational education weight" for a district means the sum of the following amounts:	22655 22656
(a) The district's category one vocational education ADM multiplied by the multiple specified in division (A) of section 3317.014 of the Revised Code;	22657 22658 22659
(b) The district's category two vocational education ADM multiplied by the multiple specified in division (B) of section 3317.014 of the Revised Code.	22660 22661 22662
(C)(1) The department shall compute and distribute state special education and related services additional weighted costs funds to each school district in accordance with the following formula:	22663 22664 22665 22666
The district's state share percentage	22667
X the formula amount for the year	22668 for which the aid is calculated	22669
X the district's total special education weight	22670
(2) The attributed local share of special education and related services additional weighted costs equals:	22671 22672
(1 - the district's state share percentage) X	22673

the district's total special education weight X 22674
the formula amount 22675

(3)(a) The department shall compute and pay in accordance 22676 with this division additional state aid to school districts for 22677 students in categories two through six special education ADM. If a 22678 district's costs for the fiscal year for a student in its 22679 categories two through six special education ADM exceed the 22680 threshold catastrophic cost for serving the student, the district 22681 may submit to the superintendent of public instruction 22682 documentation, as prescribed by the superintendent, of all its 22683 costs for that student. Upon submission of documentation for a 22684 student of the type and in the manner prescribed, the department 22685 shall pay to the district an amount equal to the sum of the 22686
following: 22687

(i) One-half of the district's costs for the student in 22688 excess of the threshold catastrophic cost; 22689

(ii) The product of one-half of the district's costs for the 22690 student in excess of the threshold catastrophic cost multiplied by 22691
the district's state share percentage. 22692

(b) For purposes of division (C)(3)(a) of this section, the 22693 threshold catastrophic cost for serving a student equals: 22694

(i) For a student in the school district's category two, 22695 three, four, or five special education ADM, twenty-five thousand 22696 dollars in fiscal year 2002 and twenty-five thousand seven hundred 22697 dollars in fiscal ~~year~~ years 2003, 2004, and 2005; 22698

(ii) For a student in the district's category six special 22699 education ADM, thirty thousand dollars in fiscal year 2002 and 22700 thirty thousand eight hundred forty dollars in fiscal ~~year~~ years 22701

~~The threshold catastrophic costs for fiscal year 2003 22703~~
~~represent a two and eight tenths per cent inflationary increase 22704~~

~~over fiscal year 2002.~~ 22705

(c) The district shall only report under division (C)(3)(a) 22706 of this section, and the department shall only pay for, the costs 22707 of educational expenses and the related services provided to the 22708 student in accordance with the student's individualized education 22709 program. Any legal fees, court costs, or other costs associated 22710 with any cause of action relating to the student may not be 22711 included in the amount. 22712

~~(5)(4)~~(4)(a) As used in this division, the "personnel allowance" 22713 means thirty thousand dollars in fiscal years 2002 ~~and~~, 2003, 22714
2004, and 2005. 22715

(b) For the provision of speech services to students, 22716 including students who do not have individualized education 22717 programs prepared for them under Chapter 3323. of the Revised 22718 Code, and for no other purpose, the department of education shall 22719 pay each school district an amount calculated under the following 22720 formula: 22721

(formula ADM divided by 2000) X 22722

the personnel allowance X the state share percentage 22723

(5) In any fiscal year, a school district shall spend for 22724 purposes that the department designates as approved for special 22725 education and related services expenses at least the amount 22726 calculated as follows: 22727

formula amount X the sum of categories 22729 one through six special education ADM) + 22730 (total special education weight X formula amount) 22731

The purposes approved by the department for special education 22732 expenses shall include, but shall not be limited to, 22733 identification of handicapped children, compliance with state 22734 rules governing the education of handicapped children and 22735 prescribing the continuum of program options for handicapped 22736 children, and the portion of the school district's overall 22737 administrative and overhead costs that are attributable to the 22738 district's special education student population. 22739

The department shall require school districts to report data 22740 annually to allow for monitoring compliance with division (C)(5) 22741 of this section. The department shall annually report to the 22742 governor and the general assembly the amount of money spent by 22743 each school district for special education and related services. 22744

(D)(1) As used in this division: 22745

(a) "Daily bus miles per student" equals the number of bus 22746 miles traveled per day, divided by transportation base. 22747

(b) "Transportation base" equals total student count as 22748 defined in section 3301.011 of the Revised Code, minus the number 22749 of students enrolled in preschool handicapped units, plus the 22750 number of nonpublic school students included in transportation 22751
ADM. 22752

(c) "Transported student percentage" equals transportation 22753
ADM divided by transportation base. 22754

(d) "Transportation cost per student" equals total operating 22755 costs for board-owned or contractor-operated school buses divided 22756 by transportation base. 22757

(2) Analysis of student transportation cost data has resulted 22758 in a finding that an average efficient transportation use cost per 22759 student can be calculated by means of a regression formula that 22760 has as its two independent variables the number of daily bus miles 22761 per student and the transported student percentage. For fiscal 22762 year 1998 transportation cost data, the average efficient 22763 transportation use cost per student is expressed as follows: 22764

51.79027 + (139.62626 X daily bus miles per student) + 22765

(116.25573 X transported student percentage) 22766

The department of education shall annually determine the average efficient transportation use cost per student in accordance with the principles stated in division (D)(2) of this section, updating the intercept and regression coefficients of the regression formula modeled in this division, based on an annual statewide analysis of each school district's daily bus miles per student, transported student percentage, and transportation cost per student data. The department shall conduct the annual update using data, including daily bus miles per student, transported student percentage, and transportation cost per student data, from the prior fiscal year. The department shall notify the office of budget and management of such update by the fifteenth day of February of each year.

(3) In addition to funds paid under divisions (A), (C), and (E) of this section, each district with a transported student percentage greater than zero shall receive a payment equal to a percentage of the product of the district's transportation base from the prior fiscal year times the annually updated average efficient transportation use cost per student, times an inflation factor of two and eight tenths per cent to account for the one-year difference between the data used in updating the formula and calculating the payment and the year in which the payment is made. The percentage shall be the following percentage of that product specified for the corresponding fiscal year:

FISCAL YEAR	PERCENTAGE
2000	52.5%
2001	55%
2002	57.5%
2003 and thereafter	The greater of 60% or the district's state share percentage

The payments made under division (D)(3) of this section each year shall be calculated based on all of the same prior year's data used to update the formula. 22797

(4) In addition to funds paid under divisions (D)(2) and (3) of this section, a school district shall receive a rough road subsidy if both of the following apply: 22799

(a) Its county rough road percentage is higher than the statewide rough road percentage, as those terms are defined in division (D)(5) of this section; 22802
22803
22804

(b) Its district student density is lower than the statewide student density, as those terms are defined in that division. 22805
22806

(5) The rough road subsidy paid to each district meeting the qualifications of division (D)(4) of this section shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula: 22807
22808

(per rough mile subsidy X total rough road miles) X density multiplier 22810 22811

where: 22812

(a) "Per rough mile subsidy" equals the amount calculated in accordance with the following formula: 22813
22814

0.75 - {0.75 X [(maximum rough road percentage - county rough road percentage)/(maximum rough road percentage - statewide rough road percentage)]} 22815 22816

county rough road percentage)/(maximum rough road percentage - statewide rough road percentage)]} 22817
22818

(i) "Maximum rough road percentage" means the highest county rough road percentage in the state. 22819
22820

(ii) "County rough road percentage" equals the percentage of the mileage of state, municipal, county, and township roads that is rated by the department of transportation as type A, B, C, E2, or F in the county in which the school district is located or, if the district is located in more than one county, the county to which it is assigned for purposes of determining its 22821
22822
22824
22825
22826

(iii) "Statewide rough road percentage" means the percentage 22828 of the statewide total mileage of state, municipal, county, and 22829 township roads that is rated as type A, B, C, E2, or F by the 22830 department of transportation. 22831

(b) "Total rough road miles" means a school district's total 22832 bus miles traveled in one year times its county rough road 22833 percentage. 22834

Code;	23288
(b) Beginning in fiscal year 2004, the unduplicated number of	23289 children ages five to seventeen residing in the school district 23290 and living in a family that has family income not exceeding the 23291 federal poverty guidelines and that receives family assistance, as 23292 certified or adjusted under section 3317.10 of the Revised Code. 23293

(7) "Kindergarten ADM" means the number of students reported 23294 under section 3317.03 of the Revised Code as enrolled in 23295 kindergarten. 23296

(8) "Kindergarten through third grade ADM" means the amount 23297
calculated as follows: 23298

(a) Multiply the kindergarten ADM by the sum of one plus the 23299 all-day kindergarten percentage; 23300

(b) Add the number of students in grades one through three; 23301

(c) Subtract from the sum calculated under division (A)(6)(b) 23302 of this section the number of special education students in grades 23303 kindergarten through three. 23304

(9) "Statewide average teacher salary" means forty-two 23305 thousand four hundred sixty-nine dollars in fiscal year 2002, and 23306 benefits. 23309

(10) "All-day kindergarten" means a kindergarten class that 23310 first at least as high as the district-wide percentage of students 23321 receiving such assistance. 23322

(b) Beginning in fiscal year 2004, the school buildings in a 23323 district with percentages of students in grades kindergarten 23324 through three receiving family assistance at least as high as the 23325 district-wide percentage of students receiving family assistance. 23326

(c) If, in any fiscal year, the information provided by the 23327 department of job and family services under section 3317.10 of the 23328 Revised Code is insufficient to determine the Ohio works first or 23329 family assistance percentage in each building, "buildings with the 23330 highest concentration of need" has the meaning given in rules that 23331 the department of education shall adopt. The rules shall base the 23332 definition of "buildings with the highest concentration of need" 23333 on family income of students in grades kindergarten through three 23334 in a manner that, to the extent possible with available data, 23335 approximates the intent of this division and division (G) of this 23336 section to designate buildings where the Ohio works first or 23337 family assistance percentage in those grades equals or exceeds the 23338 district-wide Ohio works first or family assistance percentage. 23339

(B) In addition to the amounts required to be paid to a 23340 school district under section 3317.022 of the Revised Code, a 23341 school district shall receive the greater of the amount the 23342 district received in fiscal year 1998 pursuant to division (B) of 23343 section 3317.023 of the Revised Code as it existed at that time or 23344

this section. 23346

(C) A supplemental payment that may be utilized for measures 23347 related to safety and security and for remediation or similar 23348 programs, calculated as follows: 23349

(1) If the DPIA index of the school district is greater than 23350 or equal to thirty-five-hundredths, but less than one, an amount 23351 obtained by multiplying the district's DPIA student count by two 23352 hundred thirty dollars; 23353

(2) If the DPIA index of the school district is greater than 23354 or equal to one, an amount obtained by multiplying the DPIA index 23355 by two hundred thirty dollars and multiplying that product by the 23356 district's DPIA student count. 23357

Except as otherwise provided in division (F) of this section, 23358 beginning with the school year that starts July 1, 2002, each 23359 school district annually shall use at least twenty per cent of the 23360 funds calculated for the district under this division for 23361 intervention services required by section 3313.608 of the Revised 23362
Code. 23363

(D) A payment for all-day kindergarten if the DPIA index of 23364 the school district is greater than or equal to one or if the 23365 district's three-year average formula ADM exceeded seventeen 23366 thousand five hundred, calculated by multiplying the all-day 23367 kindergarten percentage by the kindergarten ADM and multiplying 23368 that product by the formula amount. 23369

(E) A class-size reduction payment based on calculating the 23370 number of new teachers necessary to achieve a lower 23371 student-teacher ratio, as follows: 23372

(1) Determine or calculate a formula number of teachers per 23373 one thousand students based on the DPIA index of the school 23374 district as follows: 23375

(a) If the DPIA index of the school district is less than 23376 six-tenths, the formula number of teachers is 43.478, which is the 23377 number of teachers per one thousand students at a student-teacher 23378 ratio of twenty-three to one; 23379

(b) If the DPIA index of the school district is greater than 23380 or equal to six-tenths, but less than two and one-half, the 23381 formula number of teachers is calculated as follows: 23382 $$43.478 + \{[(\text{DPIA index} - 0.6) / 1.9] \times 23.188\}$$

Where 43.478 is the number of teachers per one thousand 23384 students at a student-teacher ratio of twenty-three to one; 1.9 is 23385 the interval from a DPIA index of six-tenths to a DPIA index of 23386 two and one-half; and 23.188 is the difference in the number of 23387 teachers per one thousand students at a student-teacher ratio of 23388 fifteen to one and the number of teachers per one thousand 23389 students at a student-teacher ratio of twenty-three to one. 23390

(c) If the DPIA index of the school district is greater than 23391 or equal to two and one-half, the formula number of teachers is 23392 66.667, which is the number of teachers per one thousand students 23393 at a student-teacher ratio of fifteen to one. 23394

(2) Multiply the formula number of teachers determined or 23395 calculated in division (E)(1) of this section by the kindergarten 23396 through third grade ADM for the district and divide that product 23397 by one thousand; 23398

(3) Calculate the number of new teachers as follows: 23399

(a) Multiply the kindergarten through third grade ADM by 23400
43.478, which is the number of teachers per one thousand students 23401 at a student-teacher ratio of twenty-three to one, and divide that 23402 product by one thousand; 23403

(b) Subtract the quotient obtained in division (E)(3)(a) of 23404 this section from the product in division (E)(2) of this section. 23405

(4) Multiply the greater of the difference obtained under 23406 division (E)(3) of this section or zero by the statewide average 23407 teachers salary. 23408

(F) This division applies only to school districts whose DPIA 23409 index is one or greater. 23410

(1) Each school district subject to this division shall first 23411 utilize funds received under this section so that, when combined 23412 with other funds of the district, sufficient funds exist to 23413 provide all-day kindergarten to at least the number of children in 23414 the district's all-day kindergarten percentage. 23415

(2) Up to an amount equal to the district's DPIA index 23416 multiplied by its DPIA student count multiplied by two hundred 23417 thirty dollars of the money distributed under this section may be 23418 utilized for one or both of the following: 23419

(a) Programs designed to ensure that schools are free of 23420 drugs and violence and have a disciplined environment conducive to 23421 learning; 23422

(b) Remediation for students who have failed or are in danger 23423 of failing any of the tests administered pursuant to section 23424
3301.0710 of the Revised Code. 23425

Beginning with the school year that starts on July 1, 2002, 23426 each school district shall use at least twenty per cent of the 23427 funds set aside for the purposes of divisions (F)(2)(a) and (b) of 23428 this section to provide intervention services required by section 23429
3313.608 of the Revised Code. 23430

(3) Except as otherwise required by division (G) or permitted 23431 under division (K) of this section, all other funds distributed 23432 under this section to districts subject to this division shall be 23433 utilized for the purpose of the third grade guarantee. The third 23434 grade guarantee consists of increasing the amount of instructional 23435 attention received per pupil in kindergarten through third grade, 23436 either by reducing the ratio of students to instructional 23437 personnel or by increasing the amount of instruction and 23438 curriculum-related activities by extending the length of the 23439 school day or the school year. 23440

School districts may implement a reduction of the ratio of 23441 students to instructional personnel through any or all of the 23442

following methods:	23443
(a) Reducing the number of students in a classroom taught by a single teacher;	23444 23445
(b) Employing full-time educational aides or educational paraprofessionals issued a permit or license under section 3319.088 of the Revised Code;	23446 23447 23448
(c) Instituting a team-teaching method that will result in a lower student-teacher ratio in a classroom.	23449 23450
Districts may extend the school day either by increasing the amount of time allocated for each class, increasing the number of classes provided per day, offering optional academic-related after-school programs, providing curriculum-related extra curricular activities, or establishing tutoring or remedial services for students who have demonstrated an educational need. In accordance with section 3319.089 of the Revised Code, a district extending the school day pursuant to this division may utilize a participant of the work experience program who has a child enrolled in a public school in that district and who is fulfilling the work requirements of that program by volunteering or working in that public school. If the work experience program participant is compensated, the school district may use the funds distributed under this section for all or part of the compensation.	23451 23452 23453 23454 23455 23456 23457 23458 23459 23460 23461 23462 23463 23464 23465
Districts may extend the school year either through adding regular days of instruction to the school calendar or by providing summer programs.	23466 23467 23468
(G) Each district subject to division (F) of this section shall not expend any funds received under division (E) of this section in any school buildings that are not buildings with the highest concentration of need, unless there is a ratio of instructional personnel to students of no more than fifteen to one	23469 23470 23471 23472 23473 in each kindergarten and first grade class in all buildings with 23474 the highest concentration of need. This division does not require 23475 that the funds used in buildings with the highest concentration of 23476 need be spent solely to reduce the ratio of instructional 23477 personnel to students in kindergarten and first grade. A school 23478 district may spend the funds in those buildings in any manner 23479 permitted by division (F)(3) of this section, but may not spend 23480 the money in other buildings unless the fifteen-to-one ratio 23481 required by this division is attained. 23482

(H)(1) By the first day of August of each fiscal year, each 23483 school district wishing to receive any funds under division (D) of 23484 this section shall submit to the department of education an 23485 estimate of its all-day kindergarten percentage. Each district 23486 shall update its estimate throughout the fiscal year in the form 23487 and manner required by the department, and the department shall 23488 adjust payments under this section to reflect the updates. 23489

(2) Annually by the end of December, the department of 23490 education, utilizing data from the information system established 23491 under section 3301.0714 of the Revised Code and after consultation 23492 with the legislative office of education oversight, shall 23493 determine for each school district subject to division (F) of this 23494 section whether in the preceding fiscal year the district's ratio 23495 of instructional personnel to students and its number of 23496 kindergarten students receiving all-day kindergarten appear 23497 reasonable, given the amounts of money the district received for 23498 that fiscal year pursuant to divisions (D) and (E) of this 23499 section. If the department is unable to verify from the data 23500 available that students are receiving reasonable amounts of 23501 instructional attention and all-day kindergarten, given the funds 23502 the district has received under this section and that class-size 23503 reduction funds are being used in school buildings with the 23504 highest concentration of need as required by division (G) of this 23505 section, the department shall conduct a more intensive 23506 investigation to ensure that funds have been expended as required 23507 by this section. The department shall file an annual report of its 23508 findings under this division with the chairpersons of the 23509 committees in each house of the general assembly dealing with 23510 finance and education. 23511

(I) Any school district with a DPIA index less than one and a 23512 three-year average formula ADM exceeding seventeen thousand five 23513 hundred shall first utilize funds received under this section so 23514 that, when combined with other funds of the district, sufficient 23515 funds exist to provide all-day kindergarten to at least the number 23516 of children in the district's all-day kindergarten percentage. 23517 Such a district shall expend at least seventy per cent of the 23518 remaining funds received under this section, and any other 23519 district with a DPIA index less than one shall expend at least 23520 seventy per cent of all funds received under this section, for any 23521 of the following purposes: 23522

(1) The purchase of technology for instructional purposes; 23523

(2) All-day kindergarten; 23524

(3) Reduction of class sizes; 23525

(4) Summer school remediation; 23526

(5) Dropout prevention programs; 23527

(6) Guaranteeing that all third graders are ready to progress 23528 to more advanced work; 23529

(7) Summer education and work programs; 23530

(8) Adolescent pregnancy programs; 23531

(9) Head start or preschool programs; 23532

(10) Reading improvement programs described by the department 23533 of education; 23534

(11) Programs designed to ensure that schools are free of drugs and violence and have a disciplined environment conducive to learning; 23535

(12) Furnishing, free of charge, materials used in courses of instruction, except for the necessary textbooks or electronic textbooks required to be furnished without charge pursuant to section 3329.06 of the Revised Code, to pupils living in families participating in Ohio works first in accordance with section 3313.642 of the Revised Code; 23538
23539
23541
23542
23543

(13) School breakfasts provided pursuant to section 3313.813 of the Revised Code. 23544
23545

Each district shall submit to the department, in such format and at such time as the department shall specify, a report on the programs for which it expended funds under this division. 23546
23548

(J) If at any time the superintendent of public instruction determines that a school district receiving funds under division (D) of this section has enrolled less than the all-day kindergarten percentage reported for that fiscal year, the superintendent shall withhold from the funds otherwise due the district under this section a proportional amount as determined by the difference in the certified all-day kindergarten percentage and the percentage actually enrolled in all-day kindergarten. 23549
23550
23552
23553
23554
23556

The superintendent shall also withhold an appropriate amount of funds otherwise due a district for any other misuse of funds not in accordance with this section. 23557

(K)(1) A district may use a portion of the funds calculated for it under division (D) of this section to modify or purchase classroom space to provide all-day kindergarten, if both of the following conditions are met: 23560
23561
23563

(a) The district certifies to the department, in a manner 23564 acceptable to the department, that it has a shortage of space for providing all-day kindergarten. 23565 23566

(b) The district provides all-day kindergarten to the number of children in the all-day kindergarten percentage it certified under this section. 23567
23569

(2) A district may use a portion of the funds described in division (F)(3) of this section to modify or purchase classroom space to enable it to further reduce class size in grades kindergarten through two with a goal of attaining class sizes of fifteen students per licensed teacher. To do so, the district must certify its need for additional space to the department, in a manner satisfactory to the department. 23570
23571

23574
23575
23576

Sec. 3317.0217. The department of education shall annually compute and pay state parity aid to school districts, as follows: 23577 23578

(A) Calculate the local wealth per pupil of each school district, which equals the following sum: 23579
23580

(1) Two-thirds times the quotient of (a) the district's recognized valuation divided by (b) its formula ADM; plus 23581
23582

(2) One-third times the quotient of (a) the average of the total federal adjusted gross income of the school district's residents for the three years most recently reported under section 3317.021 of the Revised Code divided by (b) its formula ADM. 23583
23584
23586

(B) Rank all school districts in order of local wealth per pupil, from the district with the lowest local wealth per pupil to the district with the highest local wealth per pupil. 23587

(C) Compute the per pupil state parity aid funding for each school district in accordance with the following formula: 23590
23591

Payment percentage X (threshold local wealth per pupil - the district's local wealth per pupil) X 0.0095 23592

Where: 23595

(1) "Payment percentage," for purposes of division (C) of 23596 this section, equals 20% in fiscal year 2002, 40% in fiscal year 23597 2003, 60% in fiscal year 2004, 80% in fiscal year 2005, and 100% 23598 after fiscal year 2005. 23599

(2) Nine and one-half mills (0.0095) is the general 23600 assembly's determination of the average number of effective 23601 operating mills that districts in the seventieth to ninetieth 23602 percentiles of valuations per pupil collected in fiscal year 2001 23603 above the revenues required to finance their attributed local 23604 shares of the calculated cost of an adequate education. This was 23605 determined by (a) adding the district revenues from operating 23606 property tax levies and income tax levies, (b) subtracting from 23607 that total the sum of (i) twenty-three mills times adjusted 23608 recognized valuation plus (ii) the attributed local shares of 23609

If the school district board determines that an existing 24932 facility has historical value or for other good cause determines 24933 that an existing facility should be renovated in lieu of acquiring 24934 a comparable facility by new construction, the commission may 24935 approve the expenditure of project funds for the renovation of 24936 that facility up to but not exceeding one hundred per cent of the 24937 estimated cost of acquiring a comparable facility by new 24938 construction, as long as the commission determines that the 24939 facility when renovated can be operationally efficient, will be 24940 adequate for the future needs of the district, and will comply 24941 with the other provisions of this division. 24942

(D) Sections 125.81 and 153.04 of the Revised Code shall not 24943

Code. 24946

Sec. 3318.042. (A) The board of education of any school 24947 district that is receiving assistance under sections 3318.01 to 24948 3318.20 of the Revised Code after May 20, 1997, or under sections 24949 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, and whose project is still 24950 under construction, may request that the Ohio school facilities 24951 commission examine whether the circumstances prescribed in either 24952 division (B)(1) or (2) of this section exist in the school 24953 district. If the commission so finds, the commission shall review 24954 the school district's original assessment and approved project and 24955 consider providing additional assistance to the school district to 24956 correct the prescribed conditions found to exist in the district. 24957 Additional assistance under this section shall be limited to 24958 additions to one or more buildings, remodeling of one or more 24959 buildings, or changes to the infrastructure of one or more 24960 buildings. 24961

(B) Consideration of additional assistance to a school 24962 district under this section is warranted in either of the 24963 following circumstances: 24964

(1) Additional work is needed to correct an oversight or 24965 deficiency not identified or included in the district's initial 24966 assessment. 24967

(2) Other conditions exist that, in the opinion of the 24968 commission, warrant additions or remodeling of the project 24969 facilities or changes to infrastructure associated with the 24970 district's project that were not identified in the initial 24971 assessment and plan. 24972

(C) If the commission decides in favor of providing 24973 additional assistance to any school district under this section, 24974 the school district shall be responsible for paying for its 24975 portion of the cost of the additions, remodeling, or 24976 infrastructure changes pursuant to section 3318.083 of the Revised 24977 Code. If, after making a financial evaluation of the school 24978 district, the commission determines that the school district is 24979 unable without undue hardship, according to the guidelines adopted 24980 by the commission, to fund the school district portion of the 24981 increase, then the state and the school district shall enter into 24982 an agreement whereby the state shall pay the portion of the cost 24983 increase attributable to the school district which is determined 24984 to be in excess of any local resources available to the district 24985 and the district shall thereafter reimburse the state. The 24986 commission shall establish the district's schedule for reimbursing 24987 the state, which shall not extend beyond ~~five~~ ten years. The 24988 commission may lengthen the reimbursement schedule of a school 24989 district that has entered into an agreement under this section 24990 prior to the effective date of this amendment as long as the total 24991 term of that schedule does not extend beyond ten years. Debt 24992 incurred under this section shall not be included in the 24993 calculation of the net indebtedness of the school district under 24994

section 133.06 of the Revised Code. 24995

Sec. 3318.05. The conditional approval of the Ohio school 24996 facilities commission for a project shall lapse and the amount 24997 reserved and encumbered for such project shall be released unless 24998 the school district board accepts such conditional approval within 24999 one hundred twenty days following the date of certification of the 25000 conditional approval to the school district board and the electors 25001 of the school district vote favorably on both of the propositions 25002 described in divisions (A) and (B) of this section within one year 25003 of the date of such certification, except that a school district 25004 described in division (C) of this section does not need to submit 25005 the proposition described in division (B) of this section. The 25006 propositions described in divisions (A) and (B) of this section 25007 shall be combined in a single proposal. If the district board or 25008 the district's electors fail to meet such requirements and the 25009 amount reserved and encumbered for the district's project is 25010 released, the district shall be given first priority for project 25011 funding as such funds become available. 25012

(A) On the question of issuing bonds of the school district 25013 board, for the school district's portion of the basic project 25014 cost, in an amount equal to the school district's portion of the 25015 basic project cost ~~less any deduction made under section 3318.033~~ 25016 ~~of the Revised Code and~~ less the amount of the proceeds of any 25017 securities authorized or to be authorized under division (J) of 25018 section 133.06 of the Revised Code and dedicated by the school 25019 district board to payment of the district's portion of the basic 25020 project cost; and 25021

(B) On the question of levying a tax the proceeds of which 25022 shall be used to pay the cost of maintaining the classroom 25023 facilities included in the project. Such tax shall be at the rate 25024 of not less than one-half mill for each dollar of valuation for a 25025 period of twenty-three years, subject to any extension approved 25026
under section 3318.061 of the Revised Code. 25027

(C) If a school district has in place a tax levied under 25028 section 5705.21 of the Revised Code for general ongoing permanent 25029 improvements ~~of at least two mills for each dollar of valuation~~ 25030 and the proceeds of such tax can be used for maintenance, the 25031 school district need not levy the additional tax required under 25032 division (B) of this section, provided the school district board 25033 includes in the agreement entered into under section 3318.08 of 25034 the Revised Code provisions earmarking an amount from the proceeds 25035 of that permanent improvement tax for maintenance of classroom 25036 facilities equivalent to the amount of the additional tax and for 25037 the equivalent number of years otherwise required under this 25038
section. 25039

(D) Proceeds of the tax to be used for maintenance of the 25040 classroom facilities under either division (B) or (C) of this 25041 section shall be deposited into a separate fund established by the 25042 school district for such purpose. 25043

Sec. 3318.052. At any time after the electors of a school 25044 district have approved either or both a property tax levied under 25045 section 5705.21 or 5705.218 of the Revised Code for the purpose of 25046 general ongoing permanent improvements or a school district income 25047 tax levied under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, the proceeds 25048 of which, pursuant to the ballot measures approved by the 25049 electors, are not so restricted that they cannot be used to pay 25050 the costs of a project or maintaining classroom facilities, the 25051 school district board may: 25052

(A) Within one year following the date of the certification 25053 of the conditional approval of the school district's classroom 25054 facilities project by the Ohio school facilities commission, enter 25055 approved by the electors of the district and issued by the 25074 district board for the district's portion of the basic project 25075 cost of its classroom facilities project in order for the district 25076 to receive state assistance for the project, an amount equal to 25077

3318.08 of the Revised Code. 25163

(3) That the question of any tax levy specified in a 25164 resolution described in division (A)(2)(a) of this section, if 25165 of the year in which the resolution of necessity is adopted. 25202

If the bonds are to be issued in more than one series, the 25203 be stated under division (B)(3) of section 133.18 of the Revised 25205 calculate, advise, and confirm by certification the estimated 25214 average property tax levy for each series of bonds to be issued. 25215

Notice of the election shall include the fact that the tax 25216 levy shall be at the rate of not less than one-half mill for each 25217 one dollar of valuation for a period of twenty-three years, and 25218 that the proceeds of the tax shall be used to pay the cost of 25219 maintaining the classroom facilities included in the project. 25220

If the bonds are to be issued in more than one series, the 25221 board of education, when filing copies of the resolution with the 25222 board of elections as required by division (D) of section 133.18 25223 year in which the tax is expected to be due for each series, in 25229 addition to the information required to be stated in the notice 25230 under division (E)(3)(a) to (e) of section 133.18 of the Revised 25231

(C)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (C)(2) of 25233

Where it is necessary to combine the question of issuing 25311
bonds of the school district and levying a tax as described in 25312 division (B) of this section with the question of issuing bonds of 25313 the school district for acquisition of a site, the question 25314 specified in that division to be voted on shall be "For the Bond 25315 Issues and the Tax Levy" and "Against the Bond Issues and the Tax 25316
Levy." 25317

Where it is necessary to combine the question of issuing 25318
bonds of the school district and levying a tax as described in 25319 division (B) of this section with the question of levying a tax 25320 for the acquisition of a site, the question specified in that 25321 division to be voted on shall be "For the Bond Issue and the Tax 25322 Levies" and "Against the Bond Issue and the Tax Levies." 25323

Where the school district board chooses to combine the 25324 question in division (B) of this section with any of the 25325 additional questions described in divisions (A) to (D) of section 25326 3318.056 of the Revised Code, the question specified in division 25327
(B) of this section to be voted on shall be "For the Bond Issues 25328 and the Tax Levies" and "Against the Bond Issues and the Tax 25329 Levies." 25330

If a majority of those voting upon a proposition hereunder 25331

Sec. 3318.08. Except in the case of a joint vocational school 25338 district that receives assistance under sections 3318.40 to 25339 3318.45 of the Revised Code, if the requisite favorable vote on 25340 the election is obtained, or if the school district board has 25341 resolved to apply the proceeds of a property tax levy or the 25342 proceeds of an income tax, or a combination of proceeds from such 25343 taxes, as authorized in section 3318.052 of the Revised Code, the 25344 Ohio school facilities commission, upon certification to it of 25345 either the results of the election or the resolution under section 25346 3318.052 of the Revised Code, shall enter into a written agreement 25347 with the school district board for the construction and sale of 25348 the project. In the case of a joint vocational school district 25349 that receives assistance under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 25350 Revised Code, if the school district board of education and the 25351 school district electors have satisfied the conditions prescribed 25352 in division (D)(1) of section 3318.41 of the Revised Code, the 25353 commission shall enter into an agreement with the school district 25354 board for the construction and sale of the project. In either 25355 case, the agreement shall include, but need not be limited to, the 25356 following provisions: 25357

(A) The sale and issuance of bonds or notes in anticipation 25358 thereof, as soon as practicable after the execution of the 25359 agreement, in an amount equal to the school district's portion of 25360 the basic project cost, including ~~any bonds previously authorized~~ 25361

~~by the district's electors as described in section 3318.033 of the~~ 25362 ~~Revised Code and~~ any securities authorized under division (J) of 25363 section 133.06 of the Revised Code and dedicated by the school 25364
district board to payment of the district's portion of the basic 25365 project cost of the project; provided, that if at that time the 25366 county treasurer of each county in which the school district is 25367 located has not commenced the collection of taxes on the general 25368 duplicate of real and public utility property for the year in 25369 which the controlling board approved the project, the school 25370 district board shall authorize the issuance of a first installment 25371 of bond anticipation notes in an amount specified by the 25372 agreement, which amount shall not exceed an amount necessary to 25373 raise the net bonded indebtedness of the school district as of the 25374 date of the controlling board's approval to within five thousand 25375 dollars of the required level of indebtedness for the preceding 25376 year. In the event that a first installment of bond anticipation 25377 notes is issued, the school district board shall, as soon as 25378 practicable after the county treasurer of each county in which the 25379 school district is located has commenced the collection of taxes 25380 on the general duplicate of real and public utility property for 25381 the year in which the controlling board approved the project, 25382 authorize the issuance of a second and final installment of bond 25383 anticipation notes or a first and final issue of bonds. 25384

The combined value of the first and second installment of 25385 bond anticipation notes or the value of the first and final issue 25386 of bonds shall be equal to the school district's portion of the 25387 basic project cost. The proceeds of any such bonds shall be used 25388 first to retire any bond anticipation notes. Otherwise, the 25389 proceeds of such bonds and of any bond anticipation notes, except 25390 the premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be deposited in 25391 the school district's project construction fund. In determining 25392 the amount of net bonded indebtedness for the purpose of fixing 25393 the amount of an issue of either bonds or bond anticipation notes, 25394 gross indebtedness shall be reduced by moneys in the bond 25395 retirement fund only to the extent of the moneys therein on the 25396 first day of the year preceding the year in which the controlling 25397 board approved the project. Should there be a decrease in the tax 25398 valuation of the school district so that the amount of 25399 indebtedness that can be incurred on the tax duplicates for the 25400 year in which the controlling board approved the project is less 25401 than the amount of the first installment of bond anticipation 25402 notes, there shall be paid from the school district's project 25403 construction fund to the school district's bond retirement fund to 25404 be applied against such notes an amount sufficient to cause the 25405 net bonded indebtedness of the school district, as of the first 25406 day of the year following the year in which the controlling board 25407 approved the project, to be within five thousand dollars of the 25408 required level of indebtedness for the year in which the 25409 controlling board approved the project. The maximum amount of 25410 indebtedness to be incurred by any school district board as its 25411 share of the cost of the project is either an amount that will 25412 cause its net bonded indebtedness, as of the first day of the year 25413 following the year in which the controlling board approved the 25414 project, to be within five thousand dollars of the required level 25415 of indebtedness, or an amount equal to the required percentage of 25416 the basic project costs, whichever is greater. All bonds and bond 25417 anticipation notes shall be issued in accordance with Chapter 133. 25418 of the Revised Code, and notes may be renewed as provided in 25419

section 133.22 of the Revised Code. 25420

(B) The transfer of such funds of the school district board 25421 available for the project, together with the proceeds of the sale 25422 of the bonds or notes, except premium, accrued interest, and 25423 interest included in the amount of the issue, to the school 25424 district's project construction fund; 25425

(C) For all school districts except joint vocational school 25426 districts that receive assistance under sections 3318.40 to 25427 3318.45 of the Revised Code, the following provisions as 25428 improvements, or the proceeds of a school district income tax 25434 levied under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, or the proceeds 25435 from a combination of those two taxes, in an amount to pay all or 25436 part of the service charges on bonds issued to pay the school 25437 district portion of the project and an amount equivalent to all or 25438 part of the tax required under division (B) of section 3318.05 of 25439

(2) If section 3318.052 of the Revised Code does not apply, 25441 either of the following: 25442

(a) The levy of the tax authorized at the election for the 25443 payment of maintenance costs, as specified in division (B) of 25444 for general ongoing permanent improvements under section 5705.21 25448 of the Revised Code and that tax can be used for maintenance, the 25449 earmarking of an amount of the proceeds from such tax for 25450 maintenance of classroom facilities as specified in division (B) 25451 of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code. 25452 assistance under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, 25454 provision for deposit of school district moneys dedicated to 25455

(F) Ownership of or interest in the project during the period	25464 of construction, which shall be divided between the commission and	25465
the school district board in proportion to their respective	25466 contributions to the school district's project construction fund;	25467
(G) Maintenance of the state's interest in the project until	25468

the time there is an insurable interest therein and so long as the	25472 state retains any ownership or interest in the project pursuant to	25473 division (F) of this section, in such amounts and against such	25474 risks as the commission shall require; provided, that the cost of	25475 any required insurance until the project is completed shall be a	25476 part of the basic project cost;	25477
(I) The certification by the director of budget and	25478

3318.032 of the Revised Code or, if the district is a joint 25539 vocational school district, under section 3318.42 of the Revised 25540
Code. 25541

(S) A provision stipulating that the commission may prohibit 25542 relative to that facility, unless demolition of that facility is 25563 included in the district's project. 25565

Sec. 3318.30. (A) There is hereby created the Ohio school 25566 facilities commission. The commission shall administer the 25567 provision of financial assistance to school districts for the 25568 acquisition or construction of classroom facilities in accordance 25569 with sections 3318.01 to 3318.33 of the Revised Code. 25570

The commission is a body corporate and politic, an agency of 25571 state government and an instrumentality of the state, performing 25572 essential governmental functions of this state. The carrying out 25573 of the purposes and the exercise by the commission of its powers 25574 conferred by sections 3318.01 to 3318.33 of the Revised Code are 25575 essential public functions and public purposes of the state. The 25576 commission may, in its own name, sue and be sued, enter into 25577 contracts, and perform all the powers and duties given to it by 25578 sections 3318.01 to 3318.33 of the Revised Code, but it does not 25579 have and shall not exercise the power of eminent domain. In its 25580 discretion and as it determines appropriate, the commission may 25581 delegate to any of its members, executive director, or other 25582 employees any of the commission's powers and duties to carry out 25583 its functions. 25584

(B) The commission shall consist of seven members, three of 25585 whom are voting members. The voting members of the commission 25586 shall be the director of the office of budget and management, the 25587 director of administrative services, and the superintendent of 25588 public instruction, or their designees. Of the nonvoting members, 25589 two shall be members of the senate appointed by the president of 25590 the senate, and two shall be members of the house of 25591 representatives appointed by the speaker of the house. Each of the 25592 appointees of the president, and each of the appointees of the 25593 speaker, shall be members of different political parties. 25594

Nonvoting members shall serve as members of the commission 25595 during the legislative biennium for which they are appointed, 25596 except that any such member who ceases to be a member of the 25597 legislative house from which the member was appointed shall cease 25598 to be a member of the commission. Each nonvoting member shall be 25599 appointed within thirty-one days of the end of the term of that 25600 member's predecessor. Such members may be reappointed. Vacancies 25601 of nonvoting members shall be filled in the manner provided for 25602 original appointments. 25603

Members of the commission shall serve without compensation. 25604

After the initial nonvoting members of the commission have 25605 been appointed, the commission shall meet and organize by electing 25606 voting members as the chairperson and vice-chairperson of the 25607 commission, who shall hold their offices until the next 25608 organizational meeting of the commission. Organizational meetings 25609 of the commission shall be held at the first meeting of each 25610 calendar year. At each organizational meeting, the commission 25611 shall elect from among its voting members a chairperson and 25612 vice-chairperson, who shall serve until the next annual 25613 organizational meeting. The commission shall adopt rules pursuant 25614 to section 111.15 of the Revised Code for the conduct of its 25615 internal business and shall keep a journal of its proceedings. 25616 Including the organizational meeting, the commission shall meet at 25617 least once each calendar quarter. 25618

Two voting members of the commission constitute a quorum, and 25619 the affirmative vote of two members is necessary for approval of 25620 any action taken by the commission. A vacancy in the membership of 25621 the commission does not impair a quorum from exercising all the 25622 rights and performing all the duties of the commission. Meetings 25623 of the commission may be held anywhere in the state and shall be 25624 held in compliance with section 121.22 of the Revised Code. 25625

(C) The commission shall file an annual report of its 25626 activities and finances with the governor, speaker of the house of 25627 representatives, president of the senate, and chairpersons of the 25628 house and senate finance committees. 25629

(D) The commission shall be exempt from the requirements of 25630 sections 101.82 to 101.87 of the Revised Code. 25631

Sec. 3318.31. (A) The Ohio school facilities commission may 25632 perform any act and ensure the performance of any function 25633 necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of, and 25634

Code, including any of the following: 25636

(2) Contract with, retain the services of, or designate, and 25640 fix the compensation of, such agents, accountants, consultants, 25641 desirable to carry out the programs authorized under Chapter 3318. 25643 of the Revised Code, or authorize the executive director to 25644 perform such powers and duties. 25645

(3) Receive and accept any gifts, grants, donations, and 25646 pledges, and receipts therefrom, to be used for the programs 25647 authorized under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. 25648

(4) Make and enter into all contracts, commitments, and 25649 agreements, and execute all instruments, necessary or incidental 25650 to the performance of its duties and the execution of its rights 25651 and powers under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, or authorize 25652 the executive director to perform such powers and duties. 25653

(B) The commission shall appoint and fix the compensation of 25654 an executive director who shall serve at the pleasure of the 25655 commission. The executive director shall supervise the operations 25656 of the commission and perform such other duties as delegated by 25657 the commission. The executive director also shall employ and fix 25658 the compensation of such employees as will facilitate the 25659 activities and purposes of the commission, who shall serve at the 25660 pleasure of the executive director. The employees of the 25661 commission shall be exempt from Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code 25662 and shall not be public employees as defined in section 4117.01 of 25663

(C) The attorney general shall serve as the legal 25665 representative for the commission and may appoint other counsel as 25666 necessary for that purpose in accordance with section 109.07 of 25667

such time as all funds set aside under division (B)(1) of this 25728 section have been encumbered ~~under section 3318.04 of the Revised~~ 25729 ~~Code. However, the commission need not conduct the evaluation of~~ 25730 facilities if the commission determines that a district's 25731 assessment conducted under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code is 25732 sufficient for purposes of this section. 25733

(4) Notwithstanding division (A) of section 3318.05 of the 25734 to section 3318.02 of the Revised Code, but any classroom facility 25746 constructed with assistance under this section shall not be 25747 included in a district's project at that time unless the 25748 commission determines the district has experienced the increased 25749 enrollment specified in division (B)(1) of section 3318.04 of the 25750

Revised Code. 25751

(C) No school district shall receive assistance under this 25752 section for a classroom facility that has been included in the 25753 discrete part of the district's classroom facilities needs 25754 identified and addressed in the district's project pursuant to an 25755 agreement entered into under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code. 25756

Sec. 3318.41. (A)(1) The Ohio school facilities commission 25757 annually shall assess the classroom facilities needs of the number 25758 of joint vocational school districts that the commission 25759 reasonably expects to be able to provide assistance to in a fiscal 25760 year, based on the amount set aside for that fiscal year under 25761 division (B) of section 3318.40 of the Revised Code and the order 25762 of priority prescribed in division (B) of section 3318.42 of the 25763 Revised Code, except that in fiscal year 2004 the commission shall 25764 conduct at least the five assessments prescribed in division (E) 25765

Upon conducting an assessment of the classroom facilities 25767 needs of a school district, the commission shall make a 25768 determination of all of the following: 25769

(a) The number of classroom facilities to be included in a 25770 project, ~~including classroom facilities authorized by a bond~~ 25771 ~~issuedescribed in section 3318.033 of the Revised Code,~~ and the 25772 basic project cost of acquiring the classroom facilities included 25773 in the project. The number of facilities and basic project cost 25774 shall be determined in accordance with the specifications adopted 25775 under section 3318.311 of the Revised Code except to the extent 25776 that compliance with such specifications is waived by the 25777 commission pursuant to the rule of the commission adopted under 25778 division (F) of section 3318.40 of the Revised Code. 25779

(b) The school district's portion of the basic project cost 25780 as determined under division (C) of section 3318.42 of the Revised 25781

(c) The remaining portion of the basic project cost that 25783 shall be supplied by the state; 25784

(d) The amount of the state's portion of the basic project 25785 cost to be encumbered in accordance with section 3318.11 of the 25786 Revised Code in the current and subsequent fiscal bienniums from 25787 funds set aside under division (B) of section 3318.40 of the 25788
Revised Code. 25789

(2) Divisions (A), (C), and (D) of section 3318.03 of the 25790
Revised Code apply to any project under sections 3318.40 to 25791

(B)(1) If the commission makes a determination under division 25793
(A) of this section in favor of the acquisition of classroom 25794 facilities for a project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 25795 Revised Code, such project shall be conditionally approved. Such 25796 conditional approval shall be submitted to the controlling board 25797 for approval. The controlling board shall immediately approve or 25798 reject the commission's determination, conditional approval, the 25799 amount of the state's portion of the basic project cost, and the 25800 amount of the state's portion of the basic project cost to be 25801 encumbered in the current fiscal biennium. In the event of 25802 approval by the controlling board, the commission shall certify 25803 the conditional approval to the joint vocational school district 25804 board of education and shall encumber the approved funds for the 25805 current fiscal year. 25806

(2) No school district that receives assistance under 25807 sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code shall have another 25808 such project conditionally approved until the expiration of twenty 25809 years after the school district's prior project was conditionally 25810 approved, unless the school district board demonstrates to the 25811 satisfaction of the commission that the school district has 25812 experienced since conditional approval of its prior project an 25813 exceptional increase in enrollment or program requirements 25814 significantly above the school district's design capacity under 25815 that prior project as determined by rule of the commission. Any 25816 rule adopted by the commission to implement this division shall be 25817 tailored to address the classroom facilities needs of joint 25818 vocational school districts. 25819

(C) In addition to generating the amount of the school 25820 district's portion of the basic project cost as determined under 25821 division (C) of section 3318.42 of the Revised Code, in order for 25822 a school district to receive assistance under sections 3318.40 to 25823 3318.45 of the Revised Code, the school district board shall set 25824 aside school district moneys for the maintenance of the classroom 25825 facilities included in the school district's project in the amount 25826 and manner prescribed in section 3318.43 of the Revised Code. 25827

(D)(1) The conditional approval for a project certified under 25828 division (B)(1) of this section shall lapse and the amount 25829 reserved and encumbered for such project shall be released unless 25830

both of the following conditions are satisfied: 25831

(a) Within one hundred twenty days following the date of 25832 certification of the conditional approval to the joint vocational 25833 school district board, the school district board accepts the 25834 conditional approval and certifies to the commission the school 25835 district board's plan to generate the school district's portion of 25836 the basic project cost, as determined under division (C) of 25837 section 3318.42 of the Revised Code, and to set aside moneys for 25838 maintenance of the classroom facilities acquired under the 25839 project, as prescribed in section 3318.43 of the Revised Code. 25840

(b) Within one year following the date of certification of 25841 the conditional approval to the school district board, the 25842 electors of the school district vote favorably on any ballot 25843 measures proposed by the school district board to generate the 25844 school district's portion of the basic project cost. 25845

(2) If the school district board or electors fail to satisfy 25846 the conditions prescribed in division (D)(1) of this section and 25847 the amount reserved and encumbered for the school district's 25848 project is released, the school district shall be given first 25849 priority over other joint vocational school districts for project 25850 funding under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code as 25851 such funds become available. 25852

(E) If the conditions prescribed in division (D)(1) of this 25853 section are satisfied, the commission and the school district 25854 board shall enter into an agreement as prescribed in section 25855 3318.08 of the Revised Code and shall proceed with the development 25856 of plans, cost estimates, designs, drawings, and specifications as 25857 prescribed in section 3318.091 of the Revised Code. 25858

(F) Costs in excess of those approved by the commission under 25859 section 3318.091 of the Revised Code shall be payable only as 25860 provided in sections 3318.042 and 3318.083 of the Revised Code. 25861

(G) Advertisement for bids and the award of contracts for 25862 construction of any project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of 25863 the Revised Code shall be conducted in accordance with section 25864
3318.10 of the Revised Code. 25865

(H) The state funds reserved and encumbered and the funds 25866 provided by the school district to pay the basic project cost of a 25867 project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code 25868 shall be spent simultaneously in proportion to the state's and the 25869 school district's respective portions of that basic project cost. 25870

(I) Sections 3318.13, 3318.14, and 3318.16 of the Revised 25871
Code apply to projects under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 25872
Revised Code. 25873

Sec. 3319.01. Except in an island school district, where the 25874 superintendent of an educational service center otherwise may 25875 serve as superintendent of the district and except as otherwise 25876 provided for any cooperative education school district pursuant to 25877 division (B)(2) of section 3311.52 or division (B)(3) of section 25878 3311.521 of the Revised Code, the board of education in each 25879 school district and the governing board of each service center 25880 shall, at a regular or special meeting held not later than the 25881 first day of May of the calendar year in which the term of the 25882 superintendent expires, appoint a person possessed of the 25883 qualifications provided in this section to act as superintendent, 25884 for a term not longer than five years beginning the first day of 25885 August and ending on the thirty-first day of July. Such 25886 superintendent is, at the expiration of a current term of 25887 employment, deemed reemployed for a term of one year at the same 25888 salary plus any increments that may be authorized by the board, 25889 unless such board, on or before the first day of March of the year 25890 in which the contract of employment expires, either reemploys the 25891 superintendent for a succeeding term as provided in this section 25892 or gives to the superintendent written notice of its intention not 25893 to reemploy the superintendent. A superintendent may not be 25894 transferred to any other position during the term of the 25895 superintendent's employment or reemployment except by mutual 25896 agreement by the superintendent and the board. If a vacancy occurs 25897 in the office of superintendent, the board shall appoint a 25898 superintendent for a term not to exceed five years from the next 25899 preceding first day of August. 25900

~~Except as otherwise provided in this section, the employment 25901 or reemployment of a superintendent of a local school district 25902 shall be only upon the recommendation of the service center 25903 superintendent, except that a local board of education, by a 25904 three fourths vote of its full membership, may, after considering 25905 two nominations for the position of local superintendent made by 25906 the service center superintendent, employ or reemploy a person not 25907

A board may at any regular or special meeting held during the 25909 period beginning on the first day of January of the calendar year 25910 immediately preceding the year the contract of employment of a 25911 superintendent expires and ending on the first day of March of the 25912 year it expires, reemploy such superintendent for a succeeding 25913 term for not longer than five years, beginning on the first day of 25914 August immediately following the expiration of the 25915 superintendent's current term of employment and ending on the 25916 expires. No person shall be appointed to the office of 25918 superintendent of a city, or exempted village school district or a 25919 service center who does not hold a license designated for being a 25920 superintendent issued under section 3319.22 of the Revised Code, 25921 uniform plan affecting salaries of all employees of the district, 25932 and shall execute a written contract of employment with such 25933 superintendent. 25934

Each board shall adopt procedures for the evaluation of its 25935 superintendent and shall evaluate its superintendent in accordance 25936 with those procedures. An evaluation based upon such procedures 25937 procedure shall not create an expectancy of continued employment. 25940 Nothing in this section shall prevent a board from making the 25941 final determination regarding the renewal or failure to renew of a 25942 superintendent's contract. 25943

Termination of a superintendent's contract shall be pursuant 25944 to section 3319.16 of the Revised Code. 25945 has such leave may provide compensation at the superintendent's 25948 leave to the superintendent's credit at the time of separation, 25950 not to exceed the amount accrued within three years before the 25951 date of separation. In case of the death of a superintendent, such 25952 unused vacation leave as the board would have paid to this 25953 superintendent upon separation shall be paid in accordance with 25954 section 2113.04 of the Revised Code, or to the superintendent's 25955 estate. 25956

subsequent contracts granted such person shall be for a term of 26043 not less than two years and not more than five years. When a 26044 teacher with continuing service status becomes an assistant 26045 superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or other 26046 administrator with the district or service center with which the 26047 teacher holds continuing service status, the teacher retains such 26048 status in the teacher's nonadministrative position as provided in 26049

An assistant superintendent, principal, assistant principal, 26074 or other administrator is, at the expiration of the current term 26075 increments that may be authorized by the board, unless such 26077 employee notifies the board in writing to the contrary on or 26078 before the first day of June, or unless such board, on or before 26079 the last day of March of the year in which the contract of 26080 employment expires, either reemploys such employee for a 26081 succeeding term or gives written notice of its intention not to 26082 reemploy the employee. The term of reemployment of a person 26083 reemployed under this paragraph shall be one year, except that if 26084 such person has been employed by the school district or service 26085 center as an assistant superintendent, principal, assistant 26086 principal, or other administrator for three years or more, the 26087 term of reemployment shall be two years. 26088

(D)(1) Each board shall adopt procedures for the evaluation 26089 of all assistant superintendents, principals, assistant 26090 principals, and other administrators and shall evaluate such 26091 employees in accordance with those procedures. The evaluation 26092 based upon such procedures shall be considered by the board in 26093 deciding whether to renew the contract of employment of an 26094 assistant superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or other 26095 administrator. 26096

(2) The evaluation shall measure each assistant 26097 superintendent's, principal's, assistant principal's, and other 26098 administrator's effectiveness in performing the duties included in 26099 the job description and the evaluation procedures shall provide 26100 for, but not be limited to, the following: 26101 principal, and other administrator shall be evaluated annually 26103 through a written evaluation process. 26104

(b) The evaluation shall be conducted by the superintendent 26105 or designee. 26106

(c) In order to provide time to show progress in correcting 26107 the deficiencies identified in the evaluation process, the 26108 evaluation process shall be completed as follows: 26109

(i) In any school year that the employee's contract of 26110 employment is not due to expire, at least one evaluation shall be 26111 completed in that year. A written copy of the evaluation shall be 26112 provided to the employee no later than the end of the employee's 26113 contract year as defined by the employee's annual salary notice. 26114

(ii) In any school year that the employee's contract of 26115 employment is due to expire, at least a preliminary evaluation and 26116 at least a final evaluation shall be completed in that year. A 26117 written copy of the preliminary evaluation shall be provided to 26118 the employee at least sixty days prior to any action by the board 26119 on the employee's contract of employment. The final evaluation 26120 shall indicate the superintendent's intended recommendation to the 26121 board regarding a contract of employment for the employee. A 26122 written copy of the evaluation shall be provided to the employee 26123 at least five days prior to the board's acting to renew or not 26124 renew the contract. 26125

(3) Termination of an assistant superintendent, principal, 26126 assistant principal, or other administrator's contract shall be 26127 pursuant to section 3319.16 of the Revised Code. Suspension of any 26128 such employee shall be pursuant to section 3319.17 or 3319.171 of 26129
the Revised Code. 26130

(4) Before taking action to renew or nonrenew the contract of 26131 an assistant superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or 26132 other administrator under this section and prior to the last day 26133 of March of the year in which such employee's contract expires, 26134 the board shall notify each such employee of the date that the 26135 contract expires and that the employee may request a meeting with 26136 the board. Upon request by such an employee, the board shall grant 26137 the employee a meeting in executive session. In that meeting, the 26138 board shall discuss its reasons for considering renewal or 26139 nonrenewal of the contract. The employee shall be permitted to 26140 have a representative, chosen by the employee, present at the 26141 meeting. 26142

(5) The establishment of an evaluation procedure shall not 26143 create an expectancy of continued employment. Nothing in division 26144 (D) of this section shall prevent a board from making the final 26145 determination regarding the renewal or nonrenewal of the contract 26146 of any assistant superintendent, principal, assistant principal, 26147 or other administrator. However, if a board fails to provide 26148 evaluations pursuant to division (D)(2)(c)(i) or (ii) of this 26149 section, or if the board fails to provide at the request of the 26150 employee a meeting as prescribed in division (D)(4) of this 26151 section, the employee automatically shall be reemployed at the 26152 same salary plus any increments that may be authorized by the 26153 board for a period of one year, except that if the employee has 26154 been employed by the district or service center as an assistant 26155 superintendent, principal, assistant principal, or other 26156 administrator for three years or more, the period of reemployment 26157 shall be for two years. 26158

(E) On nomination of the superintendent of a service center a 26159 governing board may employ supervisors who shall be employed under 26160 written contracts of employment for terms not to exceed five years 26161 each. Such contracts may be terminated by a governing board 26162 pursuant to section 3319.16 of the Revised Code. Any supervisor 26163 employed pursuant to this division may terminate the contract of 26164 employment at the end of any school year after giving the board at 26165 least thirty days' written notice prior to such termination. On 26166 the recommendation of the superintendent the contract or contracts 26167 of any supervisor employed pursuant to this division may be 26168 suspended for the remainder of the term of any such contract 26169 pursuant to section 3319.17 or 3319.171 of the Revised Code. 26170

(F) A board may establish vacation leave for any individuals 26171 employed under this section. Upon such an individual's separation 26172 from employment, a board that has such leave may compensate such 26173 an individual at the individual's current rate of pay for all 26174 lawfully accrued and unused vacation leave credited at the time of 26175 separation, not to exceed the amount accrued within three years 26176 before the date of separation. In case of the death of an 26177 individual employed under this section, such unused vacation leave 26178 as the board would have paid to the individual upon separation 26179 under this section shall be paid in accordance with section 26180 2113.04 of the Revised Code, or to the estate. 26181

(G) The board of education of any school district may 26182 contract with the governing board of the educational service 26183 center from which it otherwise receives services to conduct 26184 searches and recruitment of candidates for assistant 26185 superintendent, principal, assistant principal, and other 26186 administrator positions authorized under this section. 26187

the ensuing fiscal year to provide and equip the offices and to 26294 provide heat, light, water, and janitorial services for such 26295 offices. The total estimate of cost shall include: 26296

(1) The total square feet of space to be utilized by the 26297

(2) The total square feet of any common areas that should be 26299 reasonably allocated to the center and the methodology for making 26300 this allocation; 26301

(3) The actual cost per square foot for both the space 26302 utilized by and the common area allocated to the center; 26303

(4) An explanation of the methodology used to determine the 26304 actual cost per square foot ~~cost~~; 26305 including an explanation of the methodology used to determine this 26309 cost; 26310

(7) Any other estimated costs that the board anticipates it 26311 rationale used to determine such costs. 26313

A copy of the total estimate of costs under this division 26314 shall be sent to the superintendent of the educational service 26315 center not later than the fifth day of April. The superintendent 26316 the superintendent agrees with the estimate, it shall become the 26321 final total estimate of cost. Failure of the superintendent to 26322 make objections to the estimate by the twentieth day after receipt 26323 of it shall be deemed to mean that the superintendent is in 26324 agreement with the estimate. 26325

If the superintendent provides specific objections to the 26326 board of county commissioners, the board shall review the 26327 objections and may modify the original estimate and shall send a 26328 revised total estimate to the superintendent within ten days after 26329 the receipt of the superintendent's objections. The superintendent 26330 shall respond to the revised estimate within ten days after its 26331 final total estimated cost. If the superintendent fails to respond 26333 within the required time, the superintendent shall be deemed to 26334 have agreed with the revised estimate. If the superintendent 26335 disagrees with the revised estimate, the superintendent shall send 26336 specific objections to the county commissioners. 26337

If a superintendent has sent specific objections to the 26338 revised estimate within the required time, the probate judge of 26339 the county which has the greatest number of resident local school 26340 district pupils under the supervision of the educational service 26341 center shall determine the final estimated cost and certify this 26342 amount to the superintendent and the board of county commissioners 26343 prior to the first day of July. 26344

(D)(1) A board of county commissioners shall be responsible 26345

(b) Sixty per cent for fiscal year 2004; 26349

(c) Forty per cent for fiscal year 2005; 26350

(d) Twenty per cent for fiscal year 2006. 26351

In fiscal years 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006 the educational 26352 service center shall be responsible for the remainder of any costs 26353 in excess of the amounts specified in division (D)(1)(a), (b), ~~or~~ 26354 provision and equipment of offices for the educational service 26356 center and for provision of heat, light, water, and janitorial 26357 services for such offices, including any unanticipated or 26358 unexpected increases in the costs beyond the final estimated cost 26359 amount. 26360

Beginning in fiscal year 2007, no board of county 26361 commissioners shall have any obligation to provide and equip 26362 offices for an educational service center or to provide heat, 26363 light, water, or janitorial services for such offices. 26364

(2) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the board of 26365 county commissioners and the governing board of an educational 26366 service center from entering into a contract for providing and 26367 equipping offices for the use of an educational service center and 26368 for providing heat, light, water, and janitorial services for such 26369 offices. The term of any such contract shall not exceed a period 26370 of four years and may be renewed for additional periods not to 26371 for the county's provision of an office and equipment, heat, 26375 light, water, and janitorial services beyond the amount specified 26376 in such contract. 26377

(3) No contract entered into under division (D)(2) of this 26378 section in any year prior to fiscal year 2007 between an 26379 educational service center formed under section 3311.053 or 26380 3311.059 of the Revised Code and the board of county commissioners 26381 required to provide and equip its office pursuant to division (B) 26382 of this section shall take effect unless the boards of county 26383 commissioners of all other counties required to participate in the 26384 funding for such offices pursuant to division (B) of this section 26385 adopt resolutions approving the contract. 26386

Sec. 3319.22. (A)(1) The state board of education shall adopt 26387 rules establishing the standards and requirements for obtaining 26388 temporary, associate, provisional, and professional educator 26389 licenses of any categories, types, and levels the board elects to 26390 provide. However, no educator license shall be required for 26391 teaching children two years old or younger. 26392

(2) If the state board requires any examinations for educator 26393 licensure, the department of education shall provide the results 26394 of such examinations to the Ohio board of regents, in the form and 26395 manner requested by the board of regents. 26396

(B) Any rules the state board of education adopts, amends, or 26397 rescinds for educator licenses under this section, division (D) of 26398 section 3301.07 of the Revised Code, or any other law shall be 26399 adopted, amended, or rescinded under Chapter 119. of the Revised 26400 Code except as follows: 26401

(1) Notwithstanding division (D) of section 119.03 and 26402 division (A)(1) of section 119.04 of the Revised Code, the 26403 effective date of any rules, or amendment or rescission of any 26404 rules, shall not be as prescribed in division (D) of section 26405 119.03 and division (A)(1) of section 119.04 of the Revised Code. 26406
Instead, the effective date shall be the date prescribed by 26407
section 3319.23 of the Revised Code. 26408

(2) Notwithstanding the authority to adopt, amend, or rescind 26409 emergency rules in division (F) of section 119.03 of the Revised 26410 Code, this authority shall not apply to the state board of 26411 education with regard to rules for educator licenses. 26412

(C)(1) The rules adopted under this section establishing 26413 standards requiring additional coursework for the renewal of any 26414 educator license shall require a school district and a chartered 26415 nonpublic school to establish local professional development 26416 committees. In a nonpublic school, the chief administrative 26417 officer shall establish the committees in any manner acceptable to 26418 such officer. The committees established under this division shall 26419 determine whether coursework that a district or chartered 26420 nonpublic school teacher proposes to complete meets the 26421 requirement of the rules. The rules shall establish a procedure by 26422 which a teacher may appeal the decision of a local professional 26423 development committee. 26424

(2) In any school district in which there is no exclusive 26425 representative established under Chapter 4117. of the Revised 26426 Code, the professional development committees shall be established 26427 as described in division (C)(2) of this section. 26428

Not later than the effective date of the rules adopted under 26429 this section, the board of education of each school district shall 26430 establish the structure for one or more local professional 26431 development committees to be operated by such school district. The 26432 committee structure so established by a district board shall 26433 remain in effect unless within thirty days prior to an anniversary 26434 of the date upon which the current committee structure was 26435 established, the board provides notice to all affected district 26436 employees that the committee structure is to be modified. 26437 Professional development committees may have a district-level or 26438 building-level scope of operations, and may be established with 26439 regard to particular grade or age levels for which an educator 26440 license is designated. 26441

Each professional development committee shall consist of at 26442 least three classroom teachers employed by the district, one 26443 principal employed by the district, and one other employee of the 26444 district appointed by the district superintendent. For committees 26445 with a building-level scope, the teacher and principal members 26446 shall be assigned to that building, and the teacher members shall 26447 be elected by majority vote of the classroom teachers assigned to 26448 that building. For committees with a district-level scope, the 26449 teacher members shall be elected by majority vote of the classroom 26450 teachers of the district, and the principal member shall be 26451 elected by a majority vote of the principals of the district, 26452 unless there are two or fewer principals employed by the district, 26453 in which case the one or two principals employed shall serve on 26454 the committee. If a committee has a particular grade or age level 26455 scope, the teacher members shall be licensed to teach such grade 26456 or age levels, and shall be elected by majority vote of the 26457 classroom teachers holding such a license and the principal shall 26458 be elected by all principals serving in buildings where any such 26459 teachers serve. The district superintendent shall appoint a 26460 replacement to fill any vacancy that occurs on a professional 26461 development committee, except in the case of vacancies among the 26462 elected classroom teacher members, which shall be filled by vote 26463 of the remaining members of the committee so selected. 26464

Terms of office on professional development committees shall 26465 be prescribed by the district board establishing the committees. 26466
The conduct of elections for members of professional development 26467 committees shall be prescribed by the district board establishing 26468 the committees. A professional development committee may include 26469 additional members, except that the majority of members on each 26470 such committee shall be classroom teachers employed by the 26471 district. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior 26472 to the expiration date of the term for which a predecessor was 26473 appointed shall hold office as a member for the remainder of that 26474 term. 26475

The initial meeting of any professional development 26476 committee, upon election and appointment of all committee members, 26477 shall be called by a member designated by the district 26478 superintendent. At this initial meeting, the committee shall 26479 select a chairperson and such other officers the committee deems 26480 necessary, and shall adopt rules for the conduct of its meetings. 26481 Thereafter, the committee shall meet at the call of the 26482 chairperson or upon the filing of a petition with the district 26483 superintendent signed by a majority of the committee members 26484 calling for the committee to meet. 26485

(3) In the case of a school district in which an exclusive 26486 representative has been established pursuant to Chapter 4117. of 26487 the Revised Code, professional development committees shall be 26488 established in accordance with any collective bargaining agreement 26489 in effect in the district that includes provisions for such 26490 committees. 26491

If the collective bargaining agreement does not specify a 26492 different method for the selection of teacher members of the 26493 committees, the exclusive representative of the district's 26494 teachers shall select the teacher members. 26495

If the collective bargaining agreement does not specify a 26496 different structure for the committees, the board of education of 26497 the school district shall establish the structure, including the 26498 number of committees and the number of teacher and administrative 26499 members on each committee; the specific administrative members to 26500 be part of each committee; whether the scope of the committees 26501 will be district levels, building levels, or by type of grade or 26502 age levels for which educator licenses are designated; the lengths 26503 of terms for members; the manner of filling vacancies on the 26504 committees; and the frequency and time and place of meetings. 26505 However, in all cases, except as provided in division (C)(4) of 26506 this section, there shall be a majority of teacher members of any 26507 professional development committee, there shall be at least five 26508 total members of any professional development committee, and the 26509 exclusive representative shall designate replacement members in 26510 the case of vacancies among teacher members, unless the collective 26511 bargaining agreement specifies a different method of selecting 26512 such replacements. 26513

(4) Whenever an administrator's coursework plan is being 26514 discussed or voted upon, the local professional development 26515 committee shall, at the request of one of its administrative 26516 members, cause a majority of the committee to consist of 26517 administrative members by reducing the number of teacher members 26518 voting on the plan. 26519

(D)(1) The department of education, educational service 26520 centers, county boards of mental retardation and developmental 26521 disabilities, regional professional development centers, special 26522 education regional resource centers, college and university 26523 departments of education, head start programs, the Ohio SchoolNet 26524 commission, and the Ohio education computer network may establish 26525 local professional development committees to determine whether the 26526 coursework proposed by their employees who are licensed or 26527 certificated under this section or section 3319.222 of the Revised 26528 Code meet the requirements of the rules adopted under this 26529 section. They may establish local professional development 26530 committees on their own or in collaboration with a school district 26531 or other agency having authority to establish them. 26532

Local professional development committees established by 26533 county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities 26534 shall be structured in a manner comparable to the structures 26535 prescribed for school districts in divisions (C)(2) and (3) of 26536 this section, as shall the committees established by any other 26537 entity specified in division (D)(1) of this section that provides 26538 educational services by employing or contracting for services of 26539 classroom teachers licensed or certificated under this section or 26540 section 3319.222 of the Revised Code. All other entities specified 26541 in division (D)(1) of this section shall structure their 26542 committees in accordance with guidelines which shall be issued by 26543 the state board. 26544

(2) Any public agency that is not specified in division 26545
(D)(1) of this section but provides educational services and 26546 employs or contracts for services of classroom teachers licensed 26547 or certificated under this section or section 3319.222 of the 26548 Revised Code may establish a local professional development 26549 committee, subject to the approval of the department of education. 26550
The committee shall be structured in accordance with guidelines 26551 issued by the state board. 26552

(D) For a full-time student enrolled in an eligible institution for a semester or quarter in addition to the portion of the academic year covered by a grant determined under division

27087

(C) of this section, the maximum grant amount shall be a 27088 percentage of the maximum prescribed in the applicable table of 27089 that division. The maximum grant for a fourth quarter shall be 27090 one-third of the maximum amount prescribed under that division. 27091
The maximum grant for a third semester shall be one-half of the 27092 maximum amount prescribed under that division. 27093

(E) No grant shall be made to any student in a course of 27094 study in theology, religion, or other field of preparation for a 27095 religious profession unless such course of study leads to an 27096 accredited bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, associate of 27097 arts, or associate of science degree. 27098

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (F)(2) of this section, 27099 no grant shall be made to any student for enrollment during a 27100 fiscal year in an institution with a cohort default rate 27101 determined by the United States secretary of education pursuant to 27102 the "Higher Education Amendments of 1986," 100 Stat. 1278, 1408, 27103 20 U.S.C.A. 1085, as amended, as of the fifteenth day of June 27104 preceding the fiscal year, equal to or greater than thirty per 27105 cent for each of the preceding two fiscal years. 27106

(2) Division (F)(1) of this section does not apply to the 27107
following: 27108

(a) Any student enrolled in an institution that under the 27109 federal law appeals its loss of eligibility for federal financial 27110 aid and the United States secretary of education determines its 27111 cohort default rate after recalculation is lower than the rate 27112 specified in division (F)(1) of this section or the secretary 27113 determines due to mitigating circumstances the institution may 27114 continue to participate in federal financial aid programs. The 27115 board shall adopt rules requiring institutions to provide 27116 information regarding an appeal to the board. 27117

(b) Any student who has previously received a grant under 27118

this section who meets all other requirements of this section. 27119

(3) The board shall adopt rules for the notification of all 27120 institutions whose students will be ineligible to participate in 27121 the grant program pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. 27122

(4) A student's attendance at an institution whose students 27123 lose eligibility for grants under division (F)(1) of this section 27124 shall not affect that student's eligibility to receive a grant 27125 when enrolled in another institution. 27126

(G) Institutions of higher education that enroll students 27127 receiving instructional grants under this section shall report to 27128 the board all students who have received instructional grants but 27129 are no longer eligible for all or part of such grants and shall 27130 refund any moneys due the state within thirty days after the 27131 beginning of the quarter or term immediately following the quarter 27132 or term in which the student was no longer eligible to receive all 27133 or part of the student's grant. There shall be an interest charge 27134 of one per cent per month on all moneys due and payable after such 27135 thirty-day period. The board shall immediately notify the office 27136 of budget and management and the legislative service commission of 27137 all refunds so received. 27138

Sec. 3333.16. As used in this section "state institution of 27139 higher education" means an institution of higher education as 27140 defined in section 3345.12 of the Revised Code. 27141

(A) By April 15, 2005, the Ohio board of regents shall do all 27142 of the following: 27143

(1) Establish policies and procedures applicable to all state 27144 institutions of higher education that ensure that students can 27145 begin higher education at any state institution of higher 27146 education and transfer coursework and degrees to any other state 27147 institution of higher education without unnecessary duplication or 27148 institutional barriers. The purpose of this requirement is to 27149 allow students to attain their highest educational aspirations in 27150 the most efficient and effective manner for the students and the 27151 state. These policies and procedures shall require state 27152 institutions of higher education to make changes or modifications, 27153 as needed, to strengthen course content so as to ensure 27154 equivalency for that course at any state institution of higher 27155 education. 27156

(2) Develop and implement a universal course equivalency 27157 classification system for state institutions of higher education 27158 so that the transfer of students and the transfer and articulation 27159 of equivalent courses or specified learning modules or units 27160 completed by students are not inhibited by inconsistent judgment 27161 about the application of transfer credits. Coursework completed 27162 within such a system at one state institution of higher education 27163 and transferred to another institution shall be applied to the 27164 student's degree objective in the same manner as equivalent 27165 coursework completed at the receiving institution. 27166

(3) Develop a system of transfer policies that ensure that 27167 graduates with associate degrees which include completion of 27168 approved transfer modules shall be admitted to a state institution 27169 of higher education baccalaureate program, except specific limited 27170 access programs or majors that have admission requirements other 27171 than academic performance, and shall have priority over 27172 out-of-state associate degree graduates and transfer students. To 27173 assist a student in advising and transferring, all state 27174 institutions of higher education shall fully implement the course 27175 applicability system. 27176

(4) Examine the feasibility of developing a transfer 27177 marketing agenda that includes materials and interactive 27178 technology to inform the citizens of Ohio about the availability 27179 of transfer options at state institutions of higher education and 27180 to encourage adults to return to colleges and universities for additional education. 27181 27182

(B) By April 15, 2004, the board shall report to the general assembly on its progress in attaining completion of the actions prescribed in division (A) of this section. 27183

(C) All provisions of the existing articulation and transfer policy developed by the board shall remain in effect except where amended by this act. 27186 27187 occupy, or is responsible for the Ohio arts facility, as 27623 determined by the commission. Construction services to be provided 27624 by a governmental agency or an arts organization shall be 27625 specified in an agreement between the commission and the 27626 governmental agency or arts organization. The agreement, or any 27627 actions taken under it, are not subject to Chapter 123. or 153. of 27628 commission and the arts organization. That agreement, and any 27638 actions taken under it, are not subject to Chapter 123., 153., or 27639

governmental agency or nonprofit corporation. That agreement, and 27674 any actions taken under it, are not subject to Chapter 123. or 27675 153. of the Revised Code, except for sections 123.151 and 153.011 27676 of the Revised Code, and shall be subject to Chapter 4115. of the 27677
Revised Code. 27678

(D) This division does not apply to a state historical 27679 facility. No state funds, including any state bond proceeds, shall 27680 be spent on the construction of any arts project under this 27681 chapter unless, with respect to the arts project and to the Ohio 27682 arts facility related to the project, all of the following apply: 27683

(1) The Ohio arts and sports facilities commission has 27684 determined that there is a need for the arts project and the Ohio 27685 arts facility related to the project in the region of the state in 27686 which the Ohio arts facility is located or for which the facility 27687 is proposed. 27688

(2) The commission has determined that, as an indication of 27689 substantial regional support for the arts project, the arts 27690 organization has made provision satisfactory to the commission, in 27691 its sole discretion, for local contributions amounting to not less 27692 than fifty per cent of the total state funding for the arts 27693 project. 27694

(3) The general assembly has specifically authorized the 27695 spending of money on, or made an appropriation for, the 27696 construction of the arts project, or for rental payments relating 27697 to the financing of the construction of the arts project. 27698 Authorization to spend money, or an appropriation, for planning 27699 the arts project does not constitute authorization to spend money 27700 on, or an appropriation for, construction of the arts project. 27701

(E) No state funds, including any state bond proceeds, shall 27702 be spent on the construction of any state historical facility 27703 under this chapter unless the general assembly has specifically 27704 authorized the spending of money on, or made an appropriation for, 27705 the construction of the arts project related to the facility, or 27706 for rental payments relating to the financing of the construction 27707 of the arts project. Authorization to spend money, or an 27708 appropriation, for planning the arts project does not constitute 27709 authorization to spend money on, or an appropriation for, the 27710 construction of the arts project. 27711

(F) State funds shall not be used to pay or reimburse more 27712 than fifteen per cent of the initial estimated construction cost 27713 of an Ohio sports facility, excluding any site acquisition cost, 27714 and no state funds, including any state bond proceeds, shall be 27715 spent on any Ohio sports facility under this chapter unless, with 27716 respect to that facility, all of the following apply: 27717

(1) The Ohio arts and sports facilities commission has 27718 determined that there is a need for the facility in the region of 27719 the state for which the facility is proposed to provide the 27720 function of an Ohio sports facility as provided for in this 27721 chapter. 27722

(2) As an indication of substantial local support for the 27723 facility, the commission has received a financial and development 27724 plan satisfactory to it, and provision has been made, by agreement 27725 or otherwise, satisfactory to the commission, for a contribution 27726 amounting to not less than eighty-five per cent of the total 27727 estimated construction cost of the facility, excluding any site 27728 acquisition cost, from sources other than the state. 27729

(3) The general assembly has specifically authorized the 27730
spending of money on, or made an appropriation for, the 27731 construction of the facility, or for rental payments relating to 27732 state financing of all or a portion of the costs of constructing 27733 the facility. Authorization to spend money, or an appropriation, 27734 for planning or determining the feasibility of or need for the 27735 facility does not constitute authorization to spend money on, or 27736 an appropriation for, costs of constructing the facility. 27737

(4) If state bond proceeds are being used for the Ohio sports 27738 facility, the state or a governmental agency owns or has 27739 sufficient property interests in the facility or in the site of 27740 the facility or in the portion or portions of the facility 27741 financed from proceeds of state bonds, which may include, but is 27742 not limited to, the right to use or to require the use of the 27743 facility for the presentation of sport and athletic events to the 27744 public at the facility, ~~extending for a period of not less than~~ 27745
~~the greater of the useful life of the portion of the facility~~ 27746 ~~financed from proceeds of those bonds as determined using the~~ 27747 ~~guidelines for maximum maturities as provided under divisions (B),~~ 27748
~~(C), and (D) of section 133.20 of the Revised Code, or the period~~ 27749
~~of time remaining to the date of payment or provision for payment~~ 27750
~~of outstanding state bonds allocable to costs of the facility, all~~ 27751
~~as determined by the director of budget and management and~~ 27752
~~certified by the director to the Ohio arts and sports facilities~~ 27753 ~~commission and to the Ohio building authority.~~ 27754

Sec. 3501.011. (A) Except as otherwise provided in divisions 27755
(B) and (C) of this section, and except as otherwise provided in 27756 any section of Title XXXV of the Revised Code to the contrary, as 27757 used in the sections of the Revised Code relating to elections and 27758 political communications, whenever a person is required to sign or 27759 affix a signature to a declaration of candidacy, nominating 27760 petition, declaration of intent to be a write-in candidate, 27761 initiative petition, referendum petition, recall petition, or any 27762 other kind of petition, or to sign or affix a signature on any 27763 other document that is filed with or transmitted to a board of 27764 elections or the office of the secretary of state, "sign" or 27765
"signature" means that person's written, cursive-style legal mark 27766 written in that person's own hand. 27767

(B) For persons who do not use a cursive-style legal mark during the course of their regular business and legal affairs, "sign" or "signature" means that person's other legal mark that the person uses during the course of that person's regular business and legal affairs that is written in the person's own hand.

(C) Any voter registration record requiring a person's signature shall be signed using the person's legal mark used in the person's regular business and legal affairs. For any purpose described in division (A) of this section, the legal mark of a registered elector shall be considered to be the mark of that elector as it appears on the elector's voter registration record.

Sec. 3501.18. (A) The board of elections may divide a political subdivision<sub>7</sub> within its jurisdiction<sub>7</sub> into precincts ~~and~~<sub>1</sub> establish, define, divide, rearrange, and combine the several election precincts within its jurisdiction<sub>1</sub> and change the location of the polling place for each precinct when it is necessary to maintain the requirements as to the number of voters in a precinct and to provide for the convenience of the voters and the proper conduct of elections, ~~provided that no.~~ No change in the number of precincts or in precinct boundaries shall be made during the twenty-five days immediately preceding a primary or general election ~~nor~~ or between the first day of January and the day on which the members of county central committees are elected in the years in which those committees are elected. availability of an adequate number of poll workers, and handicap 27799 accessibility and other accessibility to the polling place. 27800

If the board changes the boundaries of a precinct after the 27801 filing of a local option election petition pursuant to sections 27802 4301.32 to 4301.41, 4303.29, or 4305.14 of the Revised Code that 27803 calls for a local option election to be held in that precinct, the 27804 local option election shall be held in the area that constituted 27805 the precinct at the time the local option petition was filed, 27806 regardless of the change in the boundaries. 27807

If the board changes the boundaries of a precinct in order to 27808 meet the requirements of division (B)(1) of this section in a 27809 manner that causes a member of a county central committee to no 27810 longer qualify as a representative of an election precinct in the 27811 county, of a ward of a city in the county, or of a township in the 27812 county, the member shall continue to represent the precinct, ward, 27813 or township for the remainder of the member's term, regardless of 27814 the change in boundaries. 27815

In an emergency, the board may provide more than one polling 27816 place in a precinct. In order to provide for the convenience of 27817 the voters, the board may locate polling places for voting or 27818 registration outside the boundaries of precincts, provided that 27819 the nearest public school or public building shall be used if the 27820 board determines it to be available and suitable for use as a 27821 polling place. Except in an emergency, no change in the number or 27822 location of the polling places in a precinct shall be made during 27823 the twenty-five days immediately preceding a primary or general 27824 election. 27825

Electors who have failed to respond within thirty days to any 27826 confirmation notice shall not be counted in determining the size 27827 of any precinct under this section. 27828 of this section, ~~not later than August 1, 2000,~~ the a board of 27830 elections shall determine all precinct boundaries using 27831 geographical units used by the United States department of 27832 commerce, bureau of the census, in reporting the decennial census 27833 of Ohio. 27834

~~(2) When any part of the boundary of a precinct also forms a 27835 part of the boundary of a legislative district and the precinct 27836 boundary cannot be determined by August 1, 2000, using the 27837 geographical units described in division (B)(1) of this section 27838 without making that part of the precinct boundary that also forms 27839 part of the legislative district boundary different from that 27840 legislative district boundary, the board of elections may 27841 determine the boundary of that precinct using the geographical 27842 units described in division (B)(1) of this section not later than 27843 April 1, 2002. As used in this division, legislative district 27844 means a district determined under Article XI of the Ohio 27845 Constitution. 27846~~

~~(3) The board of elections may apply to the secretary of 27847 state for a waiver from the requirement of division (B)(1) of this 27848 section when it is not feasible to comply with that requirement 27849 because of unusual physical boundaries or residential development 27850 practices that would cause unusual hardship for voters. The board 27851 shall identify the affected precincts and census units, explain 27852 the reason for the waiver request, and include a map illustrating 27853 where the census units will be split because of the requested 27854 waiver. If the secretary of state approves the waiver and so 27855 notifies the board of elections in writing, the board may change a 27856 precinct boundary as necessary under this section, notwithstanding 27857 the requirement in division (B)(1) of this section. 27858~~

~~(C) The board of elections may apply to the secretary of 27859 state for a waiver from the requirement of division (A) of this 27860 section regarding the number of electors in a precinct when the 27861~~ use of geographical units used by the United States department of 27862 commerce, bureau of the census, will cause a precinct to contain 27863 more than one thousand four hundred electors. The board shall 27864 identify the affected precincts and census units, explain the 27865 reason for the waiver request, and include a map illustrating 27866 where census units will be split because of the requested waiver. 27867

If the secretary of state approves the waiver and so notifies the 27868 board of elections in writing, the board may change a precinct 27869 despite the revocation of its residential care facility license. 29777

The director may delegate the director's authority and duties 29778 licensed as an adult care facility. 29786

(C) In determining the number of residents in a home for the 29787 unit licensed as a rest home shall be considered as another group. 29794

(2) The home is both a nursing home and an adult care 29795 facility. In that case, all the individuals in the part or unit 29796 that provides accommodations to individuals who do not require or 29802 receive skilled nursing care and do not receive personal care 29803 services from the home, in which case the individuals in the 29804 separate and discrete part or unit shall not be considered in 29805 determining the number of residents in the home if the separate 29806 and discrete part or unit is in compliance with the Ohio basic 29807 building code established by the board of building standards under 29808 Chapters 3781. and 3791. of the Revised Code and the home permits 29809 the director, on request, to inspect the separate and discrete 29810 part or unit and speak with the individuals residing there, if 29811 they consent, to determine whether the separate and discrete part 29812 or unit meets the requirements of this division. 29813

(D) The director of health shall charge an application fee 29814 and an annual renewal licensing and inspection fee of one hundred 29815 five dollars for each fifty persons or part thereof of a home's 29816 licensed capacity. All fees collected by the director for the 29817 issuance or renewal of licenses shall be deposited into the state 29818 treasury to the credit of the general operations fund created in 29819 section 3701.83 of the Revised Code for use only in administering 29820 and enforcing this chapter and rules adopted under it. 29821

(E)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 29822 results of an inspection or investigation of a home that is 29823 conducted under this section, including any statement of 29824 deficiencies and all findings and deficiencies cited in the 29825 statement on the basis of the inspection or investigation, shall 29826 be used solely to determine the home's compliance with this 29827 chapter or another chapter of the Revised Code in any action or 29828 proceeding other than an action commenced under division (I) of 29829 section 3721.17 of the Revised Code. Those results of an 29830 inspection or investigation, that statement of deficiencies, and 29831 the findings and deficiencies cited in that statement shall not be 29832 used in any court or in any action or proceeding that is pending 29833 in any court and are not admissible in evidence in any action or 29834 proceeding unless that action or proceeding is an appeal of an 29835 action by the department of health under this chapter or is an 29836 action by any department or agency of the state to enforce this 29837 chapter or another chapter of the Revised Code. 29838

(2) Nothing in division (E)(1) of this section prohibits the 29839

(2) If the home or program employed the individual in good 30008 faith on a conditional basis pursuant to division (C)(2) of this 30009

(b) The report of the criminal records check demonstrates 30033
that the person has not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an 30034 offense listed or described in division (C)(1) of this section, or 30035
the report demonstrates that the person has been convicted of or 30036 service or the applicant a letter from the employment service that 30049 is on the letterhead of the employment service, dated, and signed 30050 by a supervisor or another designated official of the employment 30051 service and that states that the employment service has requested 30052

the superintendent to conduct a criminal records check regarding 30053
the applicant, that the requested criminal records check will 30054 include a determination of whether the applicant has been 30055 convicted of or pleaded guilty to any offense listed or described 30056 in division (C)(1) of this section, that, as of the date set forth 30057 on the letter, the employment service had not received the results 30058 of the criminal records check, and that, when the employment 30059 service receives the results of the criminal records check, it 30060 for discharge for purposes of division (D)(2) of section 4141.29 30322 of the Revised Code if the individual makes any attempt to deceive 30323 the facility about the individual's criminal record. 30324

(D)(1) Each adult care facility shall pay to the bureau of 30325 criminal identification and investigation the fee prescribed 30326 made under division (B) of this section. 30329

(2) An adult care facility may charge an applicant a fee not 30330 exceeding the amount the facility pays under division (D)(1) of 30331 this section. A facility may collect a fee only if it notifies the 30332 person at the time of initial application for employment of the 30333 amount of the fee and that, unless the fee is paid, the person 30334 will not be considered for employment. 30335

(E) The report of any criminal records check conducted 30336 pursuant to a request made under this section is not a public 30337 shall not be made available to any person other than the 30339

following: 30340

(3) The administrator of any other facility, agency, or 30345

facility; 30348

(4) A court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual 30349 involved in a case dealing with a denial of employment of the 30350 applicant or dealing with employment or unemployment benefits of 30351 the applicant; 30352

(5) Any person to whom the report is provided pursuant to, 30353 and in accordance with, division (I)(1) or (2) of this section. 30354

(F) The public health council shall adopt rules in accordance 30355 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement this section. 30356
The rules shall specify circumstances under which an adult care 30357 facility may employ a person who has been convicted of or pleaded 30358 guilty to an offense listed or described in division (C)(1) of 30359 this section but meets personal character standards set by the 30360 council. 30361

(G) The chief administrator of an adult care facility shall 30362 inform each individual, at the time of initial application for a 30363 position that involves providing direct care to an older adult, 30364 that the individual is required to provide a set of fingerprint 30365 impressions and that a criminal records check is required to be 30366 conducted if the individual comes under final consideration for 30367 employment. 30368

(H) In a tort or other civil action for damages that is 30369 brought as the result of an injury, death, or loss to person or 30370 property caused by an individual who an adult care facility 30371 employs in a position that involves providing direct care to older 30372 adults, all of the following shall apply: 30373

(1) If the facility employed the individual in good faith and 30374 reasonable reliance on the report of a criminal records check 30375 requested under this section, the facility shall not be found 30376 negligent solely because of its reliance on the report, even if 30377 the information in the report is determined later to have been 30378 incomplete or inaccurate; 30379

(2) If the facility employed the individual in good faith on 30380 a conditional basis pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section, 30381 the facility shall not be found negligent solely because it 30382 employed the individual prior to receiving the report of a 30383 criminal records check requested under this section; 30384

(3) If the facility in good faith employed the individual 30385 according to the personal character standards established in rules 30386 adopted under division (F) of this section, the facility shall not 30387 be found negligent solely because the individual prior to being 30388 employed had been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense 30389 not required to request that the superintendent of the bureau of 30392 criminal identification and investigation conduct a criminal 30393 records check of an applicant if the applicant has been referred 30394 to the facility by an employment service that supplies full-time, 30395 part-time, or temporary staff for positions involving the direct 30396 care of older adults and both of the following apply: 30397

(a) The chief administrator receives from the employment 30398 service or the applicant a report of the results of a criminal 30399 records check regarding the applicant that has been conducted by 30400 the superintendent within the one-year period immediately 30401 preceding the applicant's referral; 30402

(b) The report of the criminal records check demonstrates 30403
that the person has not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an 30404 offense listed or described in division (C)(1) of this section, or 30405
the report demonstrates that the person has been convicted of or 30406 pleaded guilty to one or more of those offenses, but the adult 30407 care facility chooses to employ the individual pursuant to 30408 division (F) of this section. 30409

(2) The chief administrator of an adult care facility is not 30410 required to request that the superintendent of the bureau of 30411 criminal identification and investigation conduct a criminal 30412 records check of an applicant and may employ the applicant 30413 conditionally as described in this division, if the applicant has 30414 been referred to the facility by an employment service that 30415 supplies full-time, part-time, or temporary staff for positions 30416 involving the direct care of older adults and if the chief 30417 administrator receives from the employment service or the 30418 applicant a letter from the employment service that is on the 30419 letterhead of the employment service, dated, and signed by a 30420 supervisor or another designated official of the employment 30421 service and that states that the employment service has requested 30422

the superintendent to conduct a criminal records check regarding 30423
the applicant, that the requested criminal records check will 30424
include a determination of whether the applicant has been 30425
convicted of or pleaded guilty to any offense listed or described 30426
in division (C)(1) of this section, that, as of the date set forth 30427 on the letter, the employment service had not received the results 30428
of the criminal records check, and that, when the employment 30429
service receives the results of the criminal records check, it 30430 promptly will send a copy of the results to the adult care 30431 facility. If an adult care facility employs an applicant 30432 conditionally in accordance with this division, the employment 30433 service, upon its receipt of the results of the criminal records 30434 check, promptly shall send a copy of the results to the adult care 30435 facility, and division (C)(2)(b) of this section applies regarding 30436 the conditional employment. 30437

Sec. 3733.43. (A) Except as otherwise provided in this 30438 division, prior to the fifteenth day of April in each year, every 30439 person who intends to operate an agricultural labor camp shall 30440 licenser may accept an application on or after the fifteenth day 30443 of April. The license fees specified in this division shall be 30444 submitted to the licenser with the application for a license. No 30445 agricultural labor camp shall be operated in this state without a 30446 current and valid agricultural labor camp license is not excepted 30448 from compliance with sections 3733.41 to 3733.49 of the Revised 30449 Code by holding a valid and current hotel license. Each person 30450 proposing to open an agricultural labor camp shall submit with the 30451 application for a license any plans required by any rule adopted 30452 under section 3733.42 of the Revised Code. The annual license fee 30453 is ~~twenty~~ seventy-five dollars, unless the application for a 30454 license is made on or after the fifteenth day of April, in which 30455 case the annual license fee is ~~forty~~ one hundred dollars. An 30456 additional fee of ~~three~~ ten dollars per housing unit per year 30457 shall be assessed to defray the costs of enforcing sections 30458 3733.41 to 3733.49 of the Revised Code, unless the application for 30459

3733.41 to 3733.49 of the Revised Code and rules adopted 30466 thereunder. 30467

(B) Any license under this section may be denied, suspended, 30468 or revoked by the licensor for violation of sections 3733.41 to 30469 3733.49 of the Revised Code or the rules adopted thereunder. 30470 Unless there is an immediate serious public health hazard, no 30471 denial, suspension, or revocation of a license shall be made 30472 effective until the person operating the agricultural labor camp 30473 has been given notice in writing of the specific violations and a 30474 reasonable time to make corrections. When the licensor determines 30475 that an immediate serious public health hazard exists, ~~he~~ the 30476 licensor shall issue an order denying or suspending the license 30477 without a prior hearing. 30478

(C) All proceedings under this section are subject to Chapter 30479
119. of the Revised Code except as provided in section 3733.431 of 30480

Sec. 3733.45. (A) The licensor shall inspect all agricultural 30485 labor camps and shall require compliance with sections 3733.41 to 30486 3733.49 of the Revised Code and the rules adopted thereunder prior 30487 to the issuance of a license. Upon receipt of a complaint from the 30488 migrant agricultural ~~ombudsman~~ ombudsperson or upon the basis of a 30489 licensor's own information that an agricultural labor camp is 30490 operating without a license, the licensor shall inspect the camp. 30491
If the camp is operating without a license, the licensor shall 30492 require the camp to comply with sections 3733.41 to 3733.49 of the 30493 Revised Code and the rules adopted under those sections. No 30494 license shall be issued unless results of water supply tests 30495 indicate that the water supply meets required standards or if any 30496 violations exist concerning sanitation, drainage, or habitability 30497 of housing units. 30498

(B) The licensor shall, upon issuance of each license, 30499 making inspections required by this section. 30511

The licensor shall make at least one inspection prior to 30512 ~~licensing, and at least two inspections during occupancy of the~~ 30513
~~camp, at least one of which shall be an unannounced evening~~ 30514 ~~inspection conducted after five p.m. The licensor shall determine~~ 30515
~~and record housing unit occupancy during each evening inspection.~~ 30516
The licensor shall make such other inspections as ~~he~~ the licensor 30517 considers necessary to enforce sections 3733.41 to 3733.49 of the 30518 Revised Code adequately. 30519

(D) Any plans submitted to the licensor shall be in 30520 compliance with rules adopted pursuant to section 3733.42 of the 30521 Revised Code and shall be approved or disapproved within thirty 30522

~~section shall speak both English and Spanish fluently.~~ 30528

~~(F)~~ The licensor shall issue an annual report that shall 30529 accurately reflect the results of that year's inspections, 30530 including, but not limited to, numbers of ~~pre and post occupancy~~ 30531 inspections, number of violations found, and action taken in 30532 regard to violations. The report shall also include an assessment 30533 of any problems found in that year and proposed solutions for 30534 them. 30535

Sec. 3734.02. (A) The director of environmental protection, 30536 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 30537 and may amend, suspend, or rescind rules having uniform 30538 application throughout the state governing solid waste facilities 30539 and the inspections of and issuance of permits and licenses for 30540 all solid waste facilities in order to ensure that the facilities 30541 will be located, maintained, and operated, and will undergo 30542 closure and post-closure care, in a sanitary manner so as not to 30543 create a nuisance, cause or contribute to water pollution, create 30544 a health hazard, or violate 40 C.F.R. 257.3-2 or 40 C.F.R. 30545 257.3-8, as amended. The rules may include, without limitation, 30546 financial assurance requirements for closure and post-closure care 30547 and corrective action and requirements for taking corrective 30548 action in the event of the surface or subsurface discharge or 30549 migration of explosive gases or leachate from a solid waste 30550 facility, or of ground water contamination resulting from the 30551 transfer or disposal of solid wastes at a facility, beyond the 30552 boundaries of any area within a facility that is operating or is 30553 undergoing closure or post-closure care where solid wastes were 30554 disposed of or are being disposed of. The rules shall not concern 30555 or relate to personnel policies, salaries, wages, fringe benefits, 30556 or other conditions of employment of employees of persons owning 30557 or operating solid waste facilities. The director, in accordance 30558 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt and may amend, 30559 suspend, or rescind rules governing the issuance, modification, 30560 revocation, suspension, or denial of variances from the director's 30561 solid waste rules, including, without limitation, rules adopted 30562 under this chapter governing the management of scrap tires. 30563

Variances shall be issued, modified, revoked, suspended, or 30564 rescinded in accordance with this division, rules adopted under 30565 it, and Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director may order 30566 the person to whom a variance is issued to take such action within 30567 such time as the director may determine to be appropriate and 30568 reasonable to prevent the creation of a nuisance or a hazard to 30569 the public health or safety or the environment. Applications for 30570 variances shall contain such detail plans, specifications, and 30571 information regarding objectives, procedures, controls, and other 30572 pertinent data as the director may require. The director shall 30573 grant a variance only if the applicant demonstrates to the 30574 director's satisfaction that construction and operation of the 30575 solid waste facility in the manner allowed by the variance and any 30576 terms or conditions imposed as part of the variance will not 30577 create a nuisance or a hazard to the public health or safety or 30578 the environment. In granting any variance, the director shall 30579 state the specific provision or provisions whose terms are to be 30580 varied and also shall state specific terms or conditions imposed 30581 upon the applicant in place of the provision or provisions. The 30582 director may hold a public hearing on an application for a 30583 variance or renewal of a variance at a location in the county 30584 where the operations that are the subject of the application for 30585 the variance are conducted. The director shall give not less than 30586 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 30587 mail and shall publish at least one notice of the hearing in a 30588 newspaper with general circulation in the county where the hearing 30589 is to be held. The director shall make available for public 30590 inspection at the principal office of the environmental protection 30591 agency a current list of pending applications for variances and a 30592 current schedule of pending variance hearings. The director shall 30593 make a complete stenographic record of testimony and other 30594 evidence submitted at the hearing. Within ten days after the 30595 hearing, the director shall make a written determination to issue, 30596 renew, or deny the variance and shall enter the determination and 30597 the basis for it into the record of the hearing. The director 30598 shall issue, renew, or deny an application for a variance or 30599 renewal of a variance within six months of the date upon which the 30600 director receives a complete application with all pertinent 30601 information and data required. No variance shall be issued, 30602 revoked, modified, or denied until the director has considered the 30603 relative interests of the applicant, other persons and property 30604 affected by the variance, and the general public. Any variance 30605 granted under this division shall be for a period specified by the 30606 director and may be renewed from time to time on such terms and 30607 for such periods as the director determines to be appropriate. No 30608 application shall be denied and no variance shall be revoked or 30609 modified without a written order stating the findings upon which 30610 the denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the 30611 order shall be sent to the applicant or variance holder by 30612 certified mail. 30613

(B) The director shall prescribe and furnish the forms 30614 necessary to administer and enforce this chapter. The director may 30615 cooperate with and enter into agreements with other state, local, 30616 or federal agencies to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The 30617 director may exercise all incidental powers necessary to carry out 30618 the purposes of this chapter. 30619

The director may use moneys in the infectious waste 30620 management fund created in section 3734.021 of the Revised Code 30621 exclusively for administering and enforcing the provisions of this 30622 chapter governing the management of infectious wastes. Of each 30623 registration and renewal fee collected under rules adopted under 30624 division (A)(2)(a) of section 3734.021 or under section 3734.022 30625 of the Revised Code, the director, within forty-five days of its 30626 receipt, shall remit from the fund one-half of the fee received to 30627 the board of health of the health district in which the registered 30628 premises is located, or, in the instance of an infectious wastes 30629 transporter, to the board of health of the health district in 30630 which the transporter's principal place of business is located. 30631 However, if the board of health having jurisdiction over a 30632 registrant's premises or principal place of business is not on the 30633 approved list under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, the 30634 director shall not make that payment to the board of health. 30635

(C) Except as provided in this division and divisions (N)(2) 30636 and (3) of this section, no person shall establish a new solid 30637 waste facility or infectious waste treatment facility, or modify 30638 an existing solid waste facility or infectious waste treatment 30639 facility, without submitting an application for a permit with 30640 accompanying detail plans, specifications, and information 30641 regarding the facility and method of operation and receiving a 30642 permit issued by the director, except that no permit shall be 30643 required under this division to install or operate a solid waste 30644 facility for sewage sludge treatment or disposal when the 30645 treatment or disposal is authorized by a current permit issued 30646 under Chapter 3704. or 6111. of the Revised Code. 30647

No person shall continue to operate a solid waste facility 30648 for which the director has denied a permit for which an 30649 application was required under division (A)(3) of section 3734.05 30650 of the Revised Code, or for which the director has disapproved 30651 plans and specifications required to be filed by an order issued 30652 under division (A)(5) of that section, after the date prescribed 30653 for commencement of closure of the facility in the order issued 30654 under division (A)(6) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code 30655 denying the permit application or approval. 30656

On and after the effective date of the rules adopted under 30657 division (A) of this section and division (D) of section 3734.12 30658 of the Revised Code governing solid waste transfer facilities, no 30659 person shall establish a new, or modify an existing, solid waste 30660 transfer facility without first submitting an application for a 30661 permit with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, 30662 and information regarding the facility and its method of operation 30663 to the director and receiving a permit issued by the director. 30664

No person shall establish a new compost facility or continue 30665 to operate an existing compost facility that accepts exclusively 30666 source separated yard wastes without submitting a completed 30667 registration for the facility to the director in accordance with 30668 rules adopted under divisions (A) and (N)(3) of this section. 30669

This division does not apply to an infectious waste treatment 30670 facility that meets any of the following conditions: 30671

(1) Is owned or operated by the generator of the wastes and 30672 exclusively treats, by methods, techniques, and practices 30673 section 3734.021 of the Revised Code, wastes that are generated at 30675 any premises owned or operated by that generator regardless of 30676 whether the wastes are generated on the premises where the 30677 generator's treatment facility is located or, if the generator is 30678 a hospital as defined in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code, 30679

(c) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 30690

(D) Neither this chapter nor any rules adopted under it apply 30691 to single-family residential premises; to infectious wastes 30692 generated by individuals for purposes of their own care or 30693 treatment that are disposed of with solid wastes from the 30694 individual's residence; to the temporary storage of solid wastes, 30695 other than scrap tires, prior to their collection for disposal; to 30696 the storage of one hundred or fewer scrap tires unless they are 30697 stored in such a manner that, in the judgment of the director or 30698 the board of health of the health district in which the scrap 30699 tires are stored, the storage causes a nuisance, a hazard to 30700 public health or safety, or a fire hazard; or to the collection of 30701 solid wastes, other than scrap tires, by a political subdivision 30702 or a person holding a franchise or license from a political 30703 subdivision of the state; to composting, as defined in section 30704 1511.01 of the Revised Code, conducted in accordance with section 30705 1511.022 of the Revised Code; or to any person who is licensed to 30706 transport raw rendering material to a compost facility pursuant to 30707

section 953.23 of the Revised Code. 30708

(E)(1) As used in this division and section 3734.18 of the 30709
Revised Code: 30710

(a) "On-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 30711 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated on the premises 30712 of the facility. 30713

(b) "Off-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 30714 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated off the premises 30715 of the facility and includes such a facility that is also an 30716 on-site facility. 30717

(c) "Satellite facility" means any of the following: 30718

(i) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 30719 from other premises owned by the same person who generates the 30720 waste on the facility premises; 30721

(ii) An off-site facility operated so that all of the 30722 hazardous waste it receives is generated on one or more premises 30723 owned by the person who owns the facility; 30724

(iii) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 30725 that is transported uninterruptedly and directly to the facility 30726 through a pipeline from a generator who is not the owner of the 30727
facility. 30728

(2) Except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, no 30729 person shall establish or operate a hazardous waste facility, or 30730 use a solid waste facility for the storage, treatment, or disposal 30731 of any hazardous waste, without a hazardous waste facility 30732 installation and operation permit ~~from the hazardous waste~~ 30733 ~~facility board~~ issued in accordance with section 3734.05 of the 30734 Revised Code and subject to the payment of an application fee not 30735 to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, payable upon 30736 application for a hazardous waste facility installation and 30737 operation permit and upon application for a renewal permit issued 30738 under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, to be 30739 credited to the hazardous waste facility management fund created 30740 in section 3734.18 of the Revised Code. The term of a hazardous 30741 waste facility installation and operation permit shall not exceed 30742 five years. 30743

In addition to the application fee, there is hereby levied an 30744 annual permit fee to be paid by the permit holder upon the 30745 anniversaries of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste 30746 facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent 30747 renewal permits and to be credited to the hazardous waste facility 30748 management fund. Annual permit fees totaling forty thousand 30749 dollars or more for any one facility may be paid on a quarterly 30750 basis with the first quarterly payment each year being due on the 30751 anniversary of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste 30752 facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent 30753 renewal permits. The annual permit fee shall be determined for 30754 each permit holder by the director in accordance with the 30755 following schedule: 30756

In determining the annual permit fee required by this section, the director shall not require additional payments for multiple units of the same method of storage, treatment, or disposal or for individual units that are used for both storage and treatment. A facility using more than one method of storage, treatment, or disposal shall pay the permit fee indicated by the schedule for each such method.

The director shall not require the payment of that portion of an annual permit fee of any permit holder that would apply to a hazardous waste management unit for which a permit has been issued, but for which construction has not yet commenced. Once 30797 construction has commenced, the director shall require the payment 30798 of a part of the appropriate fee indicated by the schedule that 30799 bears the same relationship to the total fee that the number of 30800 days remaining until the next anniversary date at which payment of 30801 the annual permit fee is due bears to three hundred sixty-five. 30802

The director, by rules adopted in accordance with Chapters 30803 119. and 3745. of the Revised Code, shall prescribe procedures for 30804 collecting the annual permit fee established by this division and 30805 may prescribe other requirements necessary to carry out this 30806 division. 30807

(3) The prohibition against establishing or operating a 30808 hazardous waste facility without a hazardous waste facility 30809 installation and operation permit ~~from the board~~ does not apply to 30810 either of the following: 30811

(a) A facility that is operating in accordance with a permit 30812 renewal issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the 30813 Revised Code, a revision issued under division (I) of that section 30814 as it existed prior to August 20, 1996, or a modification issued 30815 by the director under division (I) of that section on and after 30816
August 20, 1996; 30817

(b) Except as provided in division (J) of section 3734.05 of 30818 the Revised Code, a facility that will operate or is operating in 30819 accordance with a permit by rule, or that is not subject to permit 30820 requirements, under rules adopted by the director. In accordance 30821 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director shall adopt, 30822 and subsequently may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules for the 30823 purposes of division (E)(3)(b) of this section. Any rules so 30824 adopted shall be consistent with and equivalent to regulations 30825 pertaining to interim status adopted under the "Resource 30826 Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 30827
6921, as amended, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. 30828

If a modification is requested or proposed for a facility 30829 described in division (E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section, division 30830
(I)~~(8)~~(7) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code applies. 30831

(F) No person shall store, treat, or dispose of hazardous 30832 waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted 30833 under it, regardless of whether generated on or off the premises 30834 where the waste is stored, treated, or disposed of, or transport 30835 or cause to be transported any hazardous waste identified or 30836 listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it to any other 30837 premises, except at or to any of the following: 30838

(1) A hazardous waste facility operating under a permit 30839 issued in accordance with this chapter; 30840

(2) A facility in another state operating under a license or 30841 permit issued in accordance with the "Resource Conservation and 30842 Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as 30843 amended; 30844

(3) A facility in another nation operating in accordance with 30845 the laws of that nation; 30846

(4) A facility holding a permit issued pursuant to Title I of 30847 the "Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972," 86 30848 Stat. 1052, 33 U.S.C.A. 1401, as amended; 30849

(5) A hazardous waste facility as described in division 30850
(E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section. 30851

(G) The director, by order, may exempt any person generating, 30852 collecting, storing, treating, disposing of, or transporting solid 30853 wastes or hazardous waste, or processing solid wastes that consist 30854 of scrap tires, in such quantities or under such circumstances 30855 that, in the determination of the director, are unlikely to 30856 adversely affect the public health or safety or the environment 30857 from any requirement to obtain a registration certificate, permit, 30858 or license or comply with the manifest system or other 30859 requirements of this chapter. Such an exemption shall be 30860 consistent with and equivalent to any regulations adopted by the 30861 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 30862 under the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 30863 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended, except as otherwise 30864 provided in this chapter. 30865

(H) No person shall engage in filling, grading, excavating, 30866 building, drilling, or mining on land where a hazardous waste 30867 facility, or a solid waste facility, was operated without prior 30868 authorization from the director, who shall establish the procedure 30869 for granting such authorization by rules adopted in accordance 30870 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 30871

A public utility that has main or distribution lines above or 30872 below the land surface located on an easement or right-of-way 30873 across land where a solid waste facility was operated may engage 30874 in any such activity within the easement or right-of-way without 30875 prior authorization from the director for purposes of performing 30876 emergency repair or emergency replacement of its lines; of the 30877 poles, towers, foundations, or other structures supporting or 30878 sustaining any such lines; or of the appurtenances to those 30879 structures, necessary to restore or maintain existing public 30880 utility service. A public utility may enter upon any such easement 30881 or right-of-way without prior authorization from the director for 30882 purposes of performing necessary or routine maintenance of those 30883 portions of its existing lines; of the existing poles, towers, 30884 foundations, or other structures sustaining or supporting its 30885 lines; or of the appurtenances to any such supporting or 30886 sustaining structure, located on or above the land surface on any 30887 such easement or right-of-way. Within twenty-four hours after 30888 commencing any such emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 30889 work, the public utility shall notify the director or the 30890 director's authorized representative of those activities and shall 30891 provide such information regarding those activities as the 30892 director or the director's representative may request. Upon 30893 completion of the emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 30894 activities, the public utility shall restore any land of the solid 30895 waste facility disturbed by those activities to the condition 30896 existing prior to the commencement of those activities. 30897

(I) No owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility, in 30898 the operation of the facility, shall cause, permit, or allow the 30899 emission therefrom of any particulate matter, dust, fumes, gas, 30900 mist, smoke, vapor, or odorous substance that, in the opinion of 30901 the director, unreasonably interferes with the comfortable 30902 enjoyment of life or property by persons living or working in the 30903 vicinity of the facility, or that is injurious to public health. 30904
Any such action is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. 30905

(J) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in 30906 the event the director finds an imminent and substantial danger to 30907 public health or safety or the environment that creates an 30908 emergency situation requiring the immediate treatment, storage, or 30909 disposal of hazardous waste, the director may issue a temporary 30910 emergency permit to allow the treatment, storage, or disposal of 30911 the hazardous waste at a facility that is not otherwise authorized 30912 by a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to 30913 treat, store, or dispose of the waste. The emergency permit shall 30914 not exceed ninety days in duration and shall not be renewed. The 30915 director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules in 30916 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 30917 issuance, modification, revocation, and denial of emergency 30918 permits. 30919

(K) No owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall 30920 knowingly accept for disposal, or dispose of, any infectious 30921 wastes, other than those subject to division (A)(1)(c) of section 30922

3734.021 of the Revised Code, that have not been treated to render 30923 them noninfectious. For the purposes of this division, 30924 certification by the owner or operator of the treatment facility 30925 where the wastes were treated on the shipping paper required by 30926 rules adopted under division (D)(2) of that section creates a 30927 rebuttable presumption that the wastes have been so treated. 30928

(L) The director, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 30929 Revised Code, shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, 30930 rules having uniform application throughout the state establishing 30931 a training and certification program that shall be required for 30932 employees of boards of health who are responsible for enforcing 30933 the solid waste and infectious waste provisions of this chapter 30934 and rules adopted under them and for persons who are responsible 30935 for the operation of solid waste facilities or infectious waste 30936 treatment facilities. The rules shall provide all of the 30937 following, without limitation: 30938

(1) The program shall be administered by the director and 30939 shall consist of a course on new solid waste and infectious waste 30940 technologies, enforcement procedures, and rules; 30941

(2) The course shall be offered on an annual basis; 30942

(3) Those persons who are required to take the course under 30943 division (L) of this section shall do so triennially; 30944

(4) Persons who successfully complete the course shall be 30945 certified by the director; 30946

(5) Certification shall be required for all employees of 30947 boards of health who are responsible for enforcing the solid waste 30948 or infectious waste provisions of this chapter and rules adopted 30949 under them and for all persons who are responsible for the 30950 operation of solid waste facilities or infectious waste treatment 30951 facilities; 30952

(6)(a) All employees of a board of health who, on the 30953 effective date of the rules adopted under this division, are 30954 responsible for enforcing the solid waste or infectious waste 30955 provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted under them shall 30956 complete the course and be certified by the director not later 30957 than January 1, 1995; 30958

(b) All employees of a board of health who, after the 30959 effective date of the rules adopted under division (L) of this 30960 section, become responsible for enforcing the solid waste or 30961 infectious waste provisions of this chapter and rules adopted 30962 under them and who do not hold a current and valid certification 30963 from the director at that time shall complete the course and be 30964 certified by the director within two years after becoming 30965 responsible for performing those activities. 30966

No person shall fail to obtain the certification required 30967 under this division. 30968

(M) The director shall not issue a permit under section 30969 3734.05 of the Revised Code to establish a solid waste facility, 30970 or to modify a solid waste facility operating on December 21, 30971 1988, in a manner that expands the disposal capacity or geographic 30972 area covered by the facility, that is or is to be located within 30973 the boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under 30974 Chapter 1541. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area 30975 established under section 1541.02 of the Revised Code, any unit of 30976 the national park system, or any property that lies within the 30977 boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that has not 30978 been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of the 30979 United States department of the interior, located in this state, 30980 or any candidate area located in this state and identified for 30981 potential inclusion in the national park system in the edition of 30982 the "national park system plan" submitted under paragraph (b) of 30983 section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 Stat. 825, 16 30984 U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of filing of the 30985 application for the permit, unless the facility or proposed 30986 facility is or is to be used exclusively for the disposal of solid 30987 wastes generated within the park or recreation area and the 30988 director determines that the facility or proposed facility will 30989 not degrade any of the natural or cultural resources of the park 30990 or recreation area. The director shall not issue a variance under 30991 division (A) of this section and rules adopted under it, or issue 30992 an exemption order under division (G) of this section, that would 30993 authorize any such establishment or expansion of a solid waste 30994 facility within the boundaries of any such park or recreation 30995 area, state park purchase area, or candidate area, other than a 30996 solid waste facility exclusively for the disposal of solid wastes 30997 generated within the park or recreation area when the director 30998 determines that the facility will not degrade any of the natural 30999 or cultural resources of the park or recreation area. 31000

(N)(1) The rules adopted under division (A) of this section, 31001 other than those governing variances, do not apply to scrap tire 31002 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 31003
Those facilities are subject to and governed by rules adopted 31004 under sections 3734.70 to 3734.73 of the Revised Code, as 31005 applicable. 31006

(2) Division (C) of this section does not apply to scrap tire 31007 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 31008
The establishment and modification of those facilities are subject 31009 to sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 and section 3734.81 of the Revised 31010 Code, as applicable. 31011

(3) The director may adopt, amend, suspend, or rescind rules 31012 under division (A) of this section creating an alternative system 31013 for authorizing the establishment, operation, or modification of a 31014 solid waste compost facility in lieu of the requirement that a 31015 person seeking to establish, operate, or modify a solid waste 31016 compost facility apply for and receive a permit under division (C) 31017 of this section and section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and a 31018 license under division (A)(1) of that section. The rules may 31019 include requirements governing, without limitation, the 31020 classification of solid waste compost facilities, the submittal of 31021 operating records for solid waste compost facilities, and the 31022 creation of a registration or notification system in lieu of the 31023 issuance of permits and licenses for solid waste compost 31024 facilities. The rules shall specify the applicability of divisions 31025

(A)(1), (2)(a), (3), and (4) of section 3734.05 of the Revised 31026
Code to a solid waste compost facility. 31027

Sec. 3734.05. (A)(1) Except as provided in divisions (A)(4), 31028 (8), and (9) of this section, no person shall operate or maintain 31029 a solid waste facility without a license issued under this 31030
