(F) The tax commissioner may request that natural gas companies, electric companies, and rural electric companies file a report to help determine the tax value loss under divisions (D) and (E) of this section. The report shall be filed within thirty days of the commissioner's request. A company that fails to file the report or does not timely file the report is subject to the penalty in section 5727.60 of the Revised Code.

(G) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its fixed-rate levy loss, which is the sum of its electric company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1998 for fixed-rate levies and its natural gas company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1999 for fixed-rate levies.

(H) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit its fixed-sum levy loss, which is the amount obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (H)(2) of this section from the amount described in division (H)(1) of this section:

(1) The sum of the electric company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1998, and the natural gas company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1999, for fixed-sum levies for all taxing districts within each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit. For the years 2002 through 2006, this computation shall include school district emergency levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss, and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, and all other fixed-sum levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss and continue to be charged in the tax year preceding the distribution year. For the years 2007 through 2016 in the case of school district emergency levies, and for all years after 2006 in the case of all other fixed-sum levies, this computation shall exclude all fixed-sum levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, but are no longer in effect in the tax year preceding the distribution year. For the purposes of this section, an emergency levy that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss, and

1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, continues to exist in a year beginning on or after January 1, 2007, but before January 1, 2017, if, in that year, the board of education levies a school district emergency levy for an annual sum at least equal to the annual sum levied by the board in tax year 1998 or 1999, respectively, less the amount of the payment certified under this division for 2002.

(2) The total taxable value in tax year 1999 less the tax value loss in each school district, joint vocational school district, and local taxing unit multiplied by one-fourth of one mill.

If the amount computed under division (H) of this section for any school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit is greater than zero, that amount shall equal the fixed-sum levy loss reimbursed pursuant to division (E) of section 5727.85 of the Revised Code or division (A)(2) of section 5727.86 of the Revised Code, and the one-fourth of one mill that is subtracted under division (H)(2) of this section shall be apportioned among all contributing fixed-sum levies in the proportion of each levy to the sum of all fixed-sum levies within each school district, joint vocational school district, or local taxing unit.

(I) Notwithstanding divisions (D), (E), (G), and (H) of this section, in computing the tax value loss, fixed-rate levy loss, and fixed-sum levy loss, the tax commissioner shall use the greater of the 1998 tax rate or the 1999 tax rate in the case of levy losses associated with the electric company tax value loss, but the 1999 tax rate shall not include for this purpose any tax levy approved by the voters after June 30, 1999, and the tax commissioner shall use the greater of the 1999 or the 2000 tax rate in the case of levy losses associated with the natural gas company tax value loss.

(J) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education the tax value loss determined under divisions (D) and (E) of this section for each taxing district, the fixed-rate levy loss calculated under division (G) of this section, and the fixed-sum levy loss calculated under division (H) of this section. The calculations under divisions (G) and (H) of this section shall separately display the levy loss for each levy eligible for reimbursement.

(K) Not later than September 1, 2001, the tax commissioner shall certify the amount of the fixed-sum levy loss to the county auditor of each county in which a school district with a fixed-sum levy loss has territory.

Sec. 5727.85. (A) By the thirty-first day of July of each year, beginning in 2002 and ending in 2016, the department of education shall determine the following for each school district and each joint vocational school district eligible for payment under division (C) or (D) of this section:

(1) The state education aid offset, which is the difference obtained by subtracting the amount described in division (A)(1)(b) of this section from the amount described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section:

(a) The state education aid computed for the school district or joint vocational school district for the current fiscal year as of the thirty-first day of July;

(b) The state education aid that would be computed for the school district or joint vocational school district for the current fiscal year as of the thirty-first day of July if the recognized valuation included the tax value loss for the school district or joint vocational school district.

(2) The greater of zero or difference obtained by subtracting the state education aid offset determined under division (A)(1) of this section from the fixed-rate levy loss certified under division (J) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code for all taxing districts in each school district and joint vocational school district.

By the fifth day of August of each such year, the department of education shall certify the amount so determined under division (A)(1) of this section to the director of budget and management.

(B) Not later than the thirty-first day of October of the years 2006 through 2016, the department of education shall determine all of the following for each school district:

(1) The amount obtained by subtracting the district's state education aid computed for fiscal year 2002 from the district's state education aid computed for the current fiscal year;

(2) The inflation-adjusted property tax loss. The inflation-adjusted property tax loss equals the fixed-rate levy loss, excluding the tax loss from levies within the ten-mill limitation to pay debt charges, determined under division (G) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code for all taxing districts in each school district plus the product obtained by multiplying that loss by the cumulative percentage increase in the consumer price index from January 1, 2002, to the thirtieth day of June of the current year.

(3) The difference obtained by subtracting the amount computed under division (B)(1) from the amount of the inflation-adjusted property tax loss. If this difference is zero or a negative number, no further payments shall be made under division (C) of this section to the school district from the school district property tax replacement fund.

(C) The department of education shall pay from the school district property tax replacement fund to each school district all of the following:

(1) In February 2002, one-half of the fixed-rate levy loss certified under division (J) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of February.

(2) From August 2002 through August 2006, one-half of the amount calculated for that fiscal year under division (A)(2) of this section between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February.

(3) From February 2007 through August 2016, one-half of the amount calculated for that calendar year under division (B)(3) of this section between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February.

(4) For taxes levied within the ten-mill limitation for debt purposes in tax year 1998 in the case of electric company tax value losses, and in tax year 1999 in the case of natural gas company tax value losses, payments shall be made equal to one hundred per cent of the loss computed as if the tax were a fixed-rate levy, but those payments shall extend from fiscal year 2006 through fiscal year 2016.

The department of education shall report to each school district the apportionment of the payments among the school district's funds based on the certifications under division (J) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code.

(D) Not later than January 1, 2002, for all taxing districts in each joint vocational school district, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education the fixed-rate levy loss determined under division (G) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code. From February 2002 to August 2016, the department shall pay from the school district property tax replacement fund to the joint vocational school district one-half of the amount calculated for that fiscal year under division (A)(2) of this section between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February.

(E)(1) Not later than January 1, 2002, for each fixed-sum levy levied by each school district or joint vocational school district and for each year for which a determination is made under division (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code that a fixed-sum levy loss is to be reimbursed, the tax commissioner shall certify to the department of education the fixed-sum levy loss determined under that division. The certification shall cover a time period sufficient to include all fixed-sum levies for which the tax commissioner made such a determination. The department shall pay from the school district property tax replacement fund to the school district or joint vocational school district one-half of the fixed-sum levy loss so certified for each year between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February.

(2) Beginning in 2003, by the thirty-first day of January of each year, the tax commissioner shall review the certification originally made under division (E)(1) of this section. If the commissioner determines that a debt levy that had been scheduled to be reimbursed in the current year has expired, a revised certification for that and all subsequent years shall be made to the department of education.

(F) Beginning in August 2002, and ending in February 2017, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the school district property tax replacement fund to the general revenue fund each of the following:

(1) Between the twenty-eighth day of August and the fifth day of September, the lesser of one-half of the amount certified for that fiscal year under division (A)(2) of this section or the balance in the school district property tax replacement fund;

(2) Between the first and fifth days of March, the lesser of one-half of the amount certified for that fiscal year under division (A)(2) of this section or the balance in the school district property tax replacement fund.

(G) By August 5, 2002, the tax commissioner shall estimate the amount of money in the school district property tax replacement fund in excess of the amount necessary to make payments under divisions (C), (D), (E), and (F) of this section. Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, the department of education, in consultation with the tax commissioner and from those excess funds, may pay any school district four and one-half times the amount certified under division (A)(2) of this section. Payments shall be made in order from the smallest annual loss to the largest annual loss. A payment made under this division shall be in lieu of the payment to be made in August 2002 under division (C)(2) of this section. No payments shall be made in the manner established in this division to any school district with annual losses from permanent improvement fixed-rate levies in excess of twenty thousand dollars, or annual losses from any other fixed-rate levies in excess of twenty thousand dollars. A school district receiving a payment under this division is no longer entitled to any further payments under division (C) of this section.

(H) On the thirty-first day of July of 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006, and on the thirty-first day of January and July of 2007 and each year thereafter, if the amount credited to the school district property tax replacement fund exceeds the amount needed to make payments from the fund under divisions (C), (D), (E), and (F) of this section, the department of education shall distribute the excess among school districts and joint vocational school districts. The amount distributed to each district shall bear the same proportion to the excess remaining in the fund as the ADM of the district bears to the ADM of all of the districts. For the purpose of this division, "ADM" means the formula ADM in the case of a school district, and the average daily membership reported under section 3317.03 of the Revised Code in the case of a joint vocational school district.

If, in the opinion of the department of education, the excess remaining in the school district property tax replacement fund in any year is not sufficient to warrant distribution under this division, the excess shall remain to the credit of the fund.

Amounts received by a school district or joint vocational school district under this division shall be used exclusively for capital improvements.

(I) From fiscal year 2002 through fiscal year 2016, if the total amount in the school district property tax replacement fund is insufficient to make all payments under divisions (C), (D), and (E) of this section at the time the payments are to be made, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the school district property tax replacement fund the difference between the total amount to be paid and the total amount in the school district property tax replacement fund, except that no transfer shall be made by reason of a deficiency to the extent that it results from the amendment of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code by Amended Substitute House Bill No. 95 of the 125th general assembly.

(J) If all or a part of the territory of a school district or joint vocational school district is merged with or transferred to another district, the department of education, in consultation with the tax commissioner shall adjust the payments made under this section to each of the districts in proportion to the tax value loss apportioned to the merged or transferred territory.

~~(J)~~(K) There is hereby created the public utility property tax study committee, effective January 1, 2011. The committee shall consist of the following seven members: the tax commissioner, three members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, and three members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The appointments shall be made not later than January 31, 2011. The tax commissioner shall be the chairperson of the committee.

The committee shall study the extent to which each school district or joint vocational school district has been compensated, under sections 5727.84 and 5727.85 of the Revised Code as enacted by Substitute Senate Bill No. 3 of the 123rd general assembly and any subsequent acts, for the property tax loss caused by the reduction in the assessment rates for natural gas, electric, and rural electric company tangible personal property. Not later than June 30, 2011, the committee shall issue a report of its findings, including any recommendations for providing additional compensation for the property tax loss or regarding remedial legislation, to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, at which time the committee shall cease to exist.

The department of taxation and department of education shall provide such information and assistance as is required for the committee to carry out its duties.

Sec. 5727.86. (A) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner shall compute the payments to be made to each local taxing unit for each year according to divisions (A)(1), (2), (3), and (4) and division (E) of this section, and shall distribute the payments in the manner prescribed by division (C) of this section. The calculation of the fixed-sum levy loss shall cover a time period sufficient to include all fixed-sum levies for which the tax commissioner determined, pursuant to division (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code, that a fixed-sum levy loss is to be reimbursed.

(1) Except as provided in divisions (A)(3) and (4) of this section, for fixed-rate levy losses determined under division (G) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code, payments shall be made in each of the following years at the following percentage of the fixed-rate levy loss certified under division (A) of this section:

YEAR	PERCENTAGE
2003	100%
2004	100%
2005	100%
2006	100%
2007	80%
2008	80%
2009	80%
2010	80%
2011	80%
2012	66.7%
2013	53.4%
2014	40.1%
2015	26.8%
2017 and thereafter	0%

(2) For fixed-sum levy losses determined under division (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code, payments shall be made in the amount of one hundred per cent of the fixed-sum levy loss for payments required to be made in 2002 and thereafter.

(3) A local taxing unit in a county of less than two hundred fifty square miles that receives eighty per cent or more of its combined general fund and bond retirement fund revenues from property taxes and rollbacks based on 1997 actual revenues as presented in its 1999 tax budget, and in which electric companies and rural electric companies comprise over twenty per cent of its property valuation, shall receive one hundred per cent of its fixed-rate levy losses from electric company tax value losses certified under division (A) of this section in years 2002 to 2016.

(4) For taxes levied within the ten-mill limitation for debt purposes in tax year 1998 in the case of electric company tax value losses, and in tax year 1999 in the case of natural gas company tax value losses, payments shall be made equal to one hundred per cent of the loss computed as if the tax were a fixed-rate levy, but those payments shall extend from fiscal year 2006 through fiscal year 2016.

(B) Beginning in 2003, by the thirty-first day of January of each year, the tax commissioner shall review the calculation originally made under division (A) of this section of the fixed-sum levy loss determined under division (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code. If the commissioner determines that a fixed-sum levy that had been scheduled to be reimbursed in the current year has expired, a revised calculation for that and all subsequent years shall be made.

(C) Payments to local taxing units required to be made under divisions (A) and (E) of this section shall be paid from the local government property tax replacement fund to the county undivided income tax fund in the proper county treasury. One-half of the amount certified under those divisions shall be paid between the twenty-first and twenty-eighth days of August and of February. The county treasurer shall distribute amounts paid under division (A) of this section to the proper local taxing unit as if they had been levied and collected as taxes, and the local taxing unit shall apportion the amounts so received among its funds in the same proportions as if those amounts had been levied and collected as taxes. Amounts distributed under division (E) of this section shall be credited to the general fund of the local taxing unit that receives them.

(D) By February 5, 2002, the tax commissioner shall estimate the amount of money in the local government property tax replacement fund in excess of the amount necessary to make payments in that month under division (C) of this section. Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, the tax commissioner may pay any local taxing unit, from those excess funds, nine and four-tenths times the amount computed for 2002 under division (A)(1) of this section. A payment made under this division shall be in lieu of the payment to be made in February 2002 under division (A)(1) of this section. A local taxing unit receiving a payment under this division will no longer be entitled to any further payments under division (A)(1) of this section. A payment made under this division shall be paid from the local government property tax replacement fund to the county undivided income tax fund in the proper county treasury. The county treasurer shall distribute the payment to the proper local taxing unit as if it had been levied and collected as taxes, and the local taxing unit shall apportion the amounts so received among its funds in the same proportions as if those amounts had been levied and collected as taxes.

(E) On the thirty-first day of July of 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006, and on the thirty-first day of January and July of 2007 and each year thereafter, if the amount credited to the local government property tax replacement fund exceeds the amount needed to be distributed from the fund under division (A) of this section in the following month, the tax commissioner shall distribute the excess to each county as follows:

(1) One-half shall be distributed to each county in proportion to each county's population.

(2) One-half shall be distributed to each county in the proportion that the amounts determined under divisions (G) and (H) of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code for all local taxing units in the county is of the total amounts so determined for all local taxing units in the state.

The amounts distributed to each county under this division shall be distributed by the county treasurer to each local taxing unit in the county in the proportion that the unit's current taxes charged and payable are of the total current taxes charged and payable of all the local taxing units in the county. As used in this division, "current taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and payable as most recently determined for local taxing units in the county.

If, in the opinion of the tax commissioner, the excess remaining in the local government property tax replacement fund in any year is not sufficient to warrant distribution under this division, the excess shall remain to the credit of the fund.

(F) From fiscal year 2002 through fiscal year 2016, if the total amount in the local government property tax replacement fund is insufficient to make all payments under division (C) of this section at the times the payments are to be made, the director of budget and management shall transfer from the general revenue fund to the local government property tax replacement fund the difference between the total amount to be paid and the amount in the local government property tax replacement fund, except that no transfer shall be made by reason of a deficiency to the extent that it results from the amendment of section 5727.84 of the Revised Code by Amended Substitute House Bill No. 95 of the 125th general assembly.

(G) If all or a part of the territories of two or more local taxing units are merged, or unincorporated territory of a township is annexed by a municipal corporation, the tax commissioner shall adjust the payments made under this section to each of the local taxing units in proportion to the tax value loss apportioned to the merged or annexed territory, or as otherwise provided by a written agreement between the legislative authorities of the local taxing units certified to the tax commissioner not later than the first day of June of the calendar year in which the payment is to be made.

The commercial car or commercial tractor involved in a violation of division (A)(1) or (2) of this section may be detained until a valid fuel use permit is obtained or reinstated.

Sec. 5728.06. (A) For the following purposes, an excise tax is hereby imposed on the use of motor fuel to operate on the public highways of this state a commercial car with three or more axles operated alone or as part of a commercial tandem, a commercial car with two axles operated as part of a commercial tandem having a gross vehicle weight or registered gross vehicle weight exceeding twenty-six thousand pounds, or a commercial tractor operated alone or as part of a commercial tractor combination or commercial tandem: to provide revenue for maintaining the state highway system, to widen existing surfaces on such highways, to resurface such

Subject to section 5735.292 of the Revised Code, on and after July 1, 2005, the tax shall be imposed in the same amount as the motor fuel tax imposed under Chapter 5735. of the Revised Code. Payment of the fuel use tax shall be made by the purchase of motor fuel within Ohio of such gallons as is equivalent to the gallons consumed while operating such a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state, or by direct remittance to the treasurer of state with the fuel use tax return filed pursuant to section 5728.08 of the Revised Code.

Any person subject to the tax imposed under this section who purchases motor fuel in this state for use in another state in excess of the amount consumed while operating such motor vehicle on the public highways of this state shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this section or a refund equal to the motor fuel tax paid to this state on such excess. No such credit or refund shall be allowed for taxes paid to any state that imposes a tax on motor fuel purchased or obtained in this state and used on the highways of such other state but does not allow a similar credit or refund for the tax paid to this state on motor fuel purchased or acquired in the other state and used on the public highways of this state.

The tax commissioner is authorized to determine whether such credits or refunds are available and to prescribe such rules as are required for the purpose of administering this chapter.

(B) Within sixty days after the last day of each month, the tax commissioner shall determine the amount of motor fuel tax allowed as a credit against the tax imposed by this section. The commissioner shall certify the amount to the director of budget and management and the treasurer of state, who shall credit the amount in accordance with section 5728.08 of the Revised Code from current revenue arising from the tax levied by section 5735.05 of the Revised Code.

An independent contractor that is not an owner, but that furnishes both the driver and motor vehicle and that has been designated by the owner of the motor vehicle to report and pay the tax, may designate that the person so furnished with driver and motor vehicle for a period of thirty days or more shall report and pay the tax incurred during that period.

Sec. 5728.99. If the company elected a nonrefundable credit, the amount of the credit shown on the certificate shall not exceed the amount of tax otherwise due. If the company elected a nonrefundable credit and the credit to which the company would otherwise be entitled under this section for any calendar year is greater than the tax otherwise due under section 5729.03 of the Revised Code, the excess shall be allowed as a credit in each of the ensuing ten calendar years, but the amount of any excess credit allowed in the ensuing calendar year shall be deducted from the balance carried forward to the next calendar year.

(F) "Tax year" means the calendar year in and for which the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is required to be paid.

(G) "Internal Revenue Code" means the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 1, as amended.

(H) "Federal income tax" means the income tax imposed by the Internal Revenue Code.

(I) Except as provided in section 5733.058 of the Revised Code, "net income" means the taxpayer's taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions, as required to be reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code, subject to the following adjustments:

(1)(a) Deduct any net operating loss incurred in any taxable years ending in 1971 or thereafter, but exclusive of any net operating loss incurred in taxable years ending prior to January 1, 1971. This deduction shall not be allowed in any tax year commencing before December 31, 1973, but shall be carried over and allowed in tax years commencing after December 31, 1973, until fully utilized in the next succeeding taxable year or years in which the taxpayer has net income, but in no case for more than the designated carryover period as described in division (I)(1)(b) of this section. The amount of such net operating loss, as determined under the allocation and apportionment provisions of section 5733.051 and division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code for the year in which the net operating loss occurs, shall be deducted from net income, as determined under the allocation and apportionment provisions of section 5733.051 and division

(B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code, to the extent necessary to reduce net income to zero with the remaining unused portion of the deduction, if any, carried forward to the remaining years of the designated carryover period as described in division (I)(1)(b) of this section, or until fully utilized, whichever occurs first.

(b) For losses incurred in taxable years ending on or before December 31, 1981, the designated carryover period shall be the five consecutive taxable years after the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurred. For losses incurred in taxable years ending on or after January 1, 1982, and beginning before August 6, 1997, the designated carryover period shall be the fifteen consecutive taxable years after the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurs. For losses incurred in taxable years beginning on or after August 6, 1997, the designated carryover period shall be the twenty consecutive taxable years after the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurs.

(c) The tax commissioner may require a taxpayer to furnish any information necessary to support a claim for deduction under division (I)(1)(a) of this section and no deduction shall be allowed unless the information is furnished.

(2) Deduct any amount included in net income by application of section 78 or 951 of the Internal Revenue Code, amounts received for royalties, technical or other services derived from sources outside the United States, and dividends received from a subsidiary, associate, or affiliated corporation that neither transacts any substantial portion of its business nor regularly maintains any substantial portion of its assets within the United States. For purposes of determining net foreign source income deductible under division (I)(2) of this section, the amount of gross income from all such sources other than dividend income and income derived by application of section 78 or 951 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be reduced by:

(a) The amount of any reimbursed expenses for personal services performed by employees of the taxpayer for the subsidiary, associate, or affiliated corporation;

(b) Ten per cent of the amount of royalty income and technical assistance fees;

(c) Fifteen per cent of the amount of all other income.

The amounts described in divisions (I)(2)(a) to (c) of this section are deemed to be the expenses attributable to the production of deductible foreign source income unless the taxpayer shows, by clear and convincing evidence, less actual expenses, or the tax commissioner shows, by clear and convincing evidence, more actual expenses.

(3) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of a capital asset, or an asset described in section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that such loss or gain occurred prior to the first taxable year on which the tax provided for in section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is computed on the corporation's net income. For purposes of division (I)(3) of this section, the amount of the prior loss or gain shall be measured by the difference between the original cost or other basis of the asset and the fair market value as of the beginning of the first taxable year on which the tax provided for in section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is computed on the corporation's net income. At the option of the taxpayer, the amount of the prior loss or gain may be a percentage of the gain or loss, which percentage shall be determined by multiplying the gain or loss by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months from the acquisition of the asset to the beginning of the first taxable year on which the fee provided in section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is computed on the corporation's net income, and the denominator of which is the number of months from the acquisition of the asset to the sale, exchange, or other disposition of the asset. The adjustments described in this division do not apply to any gain or loss where the gain or loss is recognized by a qualifying taxpayer, as defined in section 5733.0510 of the Revised Code, with respect to a qualifying taxable event, as defined in that section.

(4) Deduct the dividend received deduction provided by section 243 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) Deduct any interest or interest equivalent on public obligations and purchase obligations to the extent included in federal taxable income. As used in divisions (I)(5) and (6) of this section, "public obligations," "purchase obligations," and "interest or interest equivalent" have the same meanings as in section 5709.76 of the Revised Code.

(6) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent included in federal taxable income.

(7) To the extent not otherwise allowed, deduct any dividends or distributions received by a taxpayer from a public utility, excluding an electric company and a combined company, and, for tax years 2005 and thereafter, a telephone company, if the taxpayer owns at least eighty per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of the public utility. As used in division (I)(7) of this section, "public utility" means a public utility as defined in Chapter 5727. of the Revised Code, whether or not the public utility is doing business in the state.

(8) To the extent not otherwise allowed, deduct any dividends received by a taxpayer from an insurance company, if the taxpayer owns at least eighty per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of the insurance company. As used in division (I)(8) of this section, "insurance company" means an insurance company that is taxable under Chapter 5725. or 5729. of the Revised Code.

(9) Deduct expenditures for modifying existing buildings or structures to meet American national standards institute standard A-117.1-1961 (R-1971), as amended; provided, that no deduction shall be allowed to the extent that such deduction is not permitted under federal law or under rules of the tax commissioner. Those deductions as are allowed may be taken over a period of five years. The tax commissioner shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing reasonable limitations on the extent that expenditures for modifying existing buildings or structures are attributable to the purpose of making the buildings or structures accessible to and usable by physically handicapped persons.

(10) Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been allowable as a deduction in computing federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed and determined under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal Revenue Code not been in effect.

(11) Deduct net interest income on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent the laws of the United States prohibit inclusion of the net interest for purposes of determining the value of the taxpayer's issued and outstanding shares of stock under division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code. As used in division (I)(11) of this section, "net interest" means interest net of any expenses taken on the federal income tax return that would not have been allowed under section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code if the interest were exempt from federal income tax.

(12)(a) Except as set forth in division (I)(12)(d) of this section, to the extent not included in computing the taxpayer's federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions, add gains and deduct losses from direct or indirect sales, exchanges, or other dispositions, made by a related entity who is not a taxpayer, of the taxpayer's indirect, beneficial, or constructive investment in the stock or debt of another entity, unless the gain or loss has been included in computing the federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions of another taxpayer with a more closely related investment in the stock or debt of the other entity. The amount of gain added or loss deducted shall not exceed the product obtained by multiplying such gain or loss by the taxpayer's proportionate share, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, of the outstanding stock of the related entity immediately prior to the direct or indirect sale, exchange, or other disposition.

(b) Except as set forth in division (I)(12)(e) of this section, to the extent not included in computing the taxpayer's federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions, add gains and deduct losses from direct or indirect sales, exchanges, or other dispositions made by a related entity who is not a taxpayer, of intangible property other than stock, securities, and debt, if such property was owned, or used in whole or in part, at any time prior to or at the time of the sale, exchange, or disposition by either the taxpayer or by a related entity that was a taxpayer at any time during the related entity's ownership or use of such property, unless the gain or loss has been included in computing the federal taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions of another taxpayer with a more closely related ownership or use of such intangible property. The amount of gain added or loss deducted shall not exceed the product obtained by multiplying such gain or loss by the taxpayer's proportionate share, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, of the outstanding stock of the related entity immediately prior to the direct or indirect sale, exchange, or other disposition.

(c) As used in division (I)(12) of this section, "related entity" means those entities described in divisions (I)(12)(c)(i) to (iii) of this section:

(i) An individual stockholder, or a member of the stockholder's family enumerated in section 318 of the Internal Revenue Code, if the stockholder and the members of the stockholder's family own, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, in the aggregate, at least fifty per cent of the value of the taxpayer's outstanding stock;

(ii) A stockholder, or a stockholder's partnership, estate, trust, or corporation, if the stockholder and the stockholder's partnerships, estates, trusts, and corporations own directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, in the aggregate, at least fifty per cent of the value of the taxpayer's outstanding stock;

(iii) A corporation, or a party related to the corporation in a manner that would require an attribution of stock from the corporation to the party or from the party to the corporation under division (I)(12)(c)(iv) of this section, if the taxpayer owns, directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively, at least fifty per cent of the value of the corporation's outstanding stock.

(iv) The attribution rules of section 318 of the Internal Revenue Code apply for purposes of determining whether the ownership requirements in divisions (I)(12)(c)(i) to (iii) of this section have been met.

(d) For purposes of the adjustments required by division (I)(12)(a) of this section, the term "investment in the stock or debt of another entity" means only those investments where the taxpayer and the taxpayer's related entities directly, indirectly, beneficially, or constructively own, in the aggregate, at any time during the twenty-four month period commencing one year prior to the direct or indirect sale, exchange, or other disposition of such investment at least fifty per cent or more of the value of either the outstanding stock or such debt of such other entity.

(e) For purposes of the adjustments required by division (I)(12)(b) of this section, the term "related entity" excludes all of the following:

(i) Foreign corporations as defined in section 7701 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(ii) Foreign partnerships as defined in section 7701 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(iii) Corporations, partnerships, estates, and trusts created or organized in or under the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico or any possession of the United States;

(iv) Foreign estates and foreign trusts as defined in section 7701 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The exclusions described in divisions (I)(12)(e)(i) to (iv) of this section do not apply if the corporation, partnership, estate, or trust is described in any one of divisions (C)(1) to (5) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code.

(f) Nothing in division (I)(12) of this section shall require or permit a taxpayer to add any gains or deduct any losses described in divisions (I)(12)(f)(i) and (ii) of this section:

(i) Gains or losses recognized for federal income tax purposes by an individual, estate, or trust without regard to the attribution rules described in division (I)(12)(c) of this section;

(ii) A related entity's gains or losses described in division (I)(12)(b) of this section if the taxpayer's ownership of or use of such intangible property was limited to a period not exceeding nine months and was attributable to a transaction or a series of transactions executed in accordance with the election or elections made by the taxpayer or a related entity pursuant to section 338 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(13) Any adjustment required by section 5733.042 of the Revised Code.

(14) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 5733.0611 of the Revised Code to the extent that such amount satisfies either of the following:

(a) It was deducted or excluded from the computation of the corporation's taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions as required to be reported for the corporation's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) It resulted in a reduction of the corporation's taxable income before operating loss deduction and special deductions as required to be reported for any of the corporation's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code.

(15) Deduct the amount contributed by the taxpayer to an individual development account program established by a county department of job and family services pursuant to sections 329.11 to 329.14 of the Revised Code for the purpose of matching funds deposited by program participants. On request of the tax commissioner, the taxpayer shall provide any information that, in the tax commissioner's opinion, is necessary to establish the amount deducted under division (I)(15) of this section.

(16) Any adjustment required by section 5733.0510 or 5733.0511 of the Revised Code.

(17)(a)(i) Add five-sixths of the amount of depreciation expense allowed under subsection (k) of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, including a person's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of depreciation expense allowed by that subsection to any pass-through entity in which the person has direct or indirect ownership. ~~The~~

(ii) Add five-sixths of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense, including a person's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense allowed to any pass-through entity in which the person has a direct or indirect ownership. For the purposes of this division, "qualifying section 179 depreciation expense" means the difference between (I) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (II) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code as that section existed on December 31, 2002.

The tax commissioner, under procedures established by the commissioner, may waive the ~~add-back~~ add-backs related to a pass-through entity if the person owns, directly or indirectly, less than five per cent of the pass-through entity.

(b) Nothing in division (I)(17) of this section shall be construed to adjust or modify the adjusted basis of any asset.

(c) To the extent the add-back is attributable to property generating income or loss allocable under section 5733.051 of the Revised Code, the add-back shall be allocated to the same location as the income or loss generated by that property. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned, subject to division (B)(2)(d) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code.

(18)(a) If a person is required to make the add-back under division (I)(17)(a) of this section for a tax year, the person shall deduct one-fifth of the amount added back for each of the succeeding five tax years.

(b) If the amount deducted under division (I)(18)(a) of this section is attributable to an add-back allocated under division (I)(17)(c) of this section, the amount deducted shall be allocated to the same location. Otherwise, the amount shall be apportioned using the apportionment factors for the taxable year in which the deduction is taken, subject to division (B)(2)(d) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code.

(J) Any term used in this chapter has the same meaning as when used in comparable context in the laws of the United States relating to federal income taxes unless a different meaning is clearly required. Any reference

(e) Subject to division (L)(4) of this section, the corporation elects to be treated as a qualifying holding company for the tax year.

A corporation otherwise satisfying divisions (L)(1)(a) to (e) of this section that does not elect to be a qualifying holding company is not a qualifying holding company for the purposes of this chapter.

(2)(a)(i) For purposes of making the ninety per cent computation under division (L)(1)(a) of this section, the net book value of the corporation's assets shall not include the net book value of aircraft or real property described in division (L)(1)(b)(i) of this section.

(ii) For purposes of making the fifty per cent computation under division (L)(1)(a) of this section, the net book value of assets shall include the net book value of aircraft or real property described in division (L)(1)(b)(i) of this section.

(b)(i) As used in division (L) of this section, "intangible asset" includes, but is not limited to, the corporation's direct interest in each pass-through entity only if at all times during the corporation's taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year the corporation's and the corporation's related members' combined direct and indirect interests in the capital or profits of such pass-through entity do not exceed fifty per cent. If the corporation's interest in the pass-through entity is an intangible asset for that taxable year, then the distributive share of any income from the pass-through entity shall be income from an intangible asset for that taxable year.

(ii) If a corporation's and the corporation's related members' combined direct and indirect interests in the capital or profits of a pass-through entity exceed fifty per cent at any time during the corporation's taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year, "intangible asset" does not include the corporation's direct interest in the pass-through entity, and the corporation shall include in its assets its proportionate share of the assets of any such pass-through entity and shall include in its gross income its distributive share of the gross income of such pass-through entity in the same form as was earned by the pass-through entity.

(iii) A pass-through entity's direct or indirect proportionate share of any other pass-through entity's assets shall be included for the purpose of computing the corporation's proportionate share of the pass-through entity's assets under division (L)(2)(b)(ii) of this section, and such pass-through entity's distributive share of any other pass-through entity's gross income shall be included for purposes of computing the corporation's distributive share of the pass-through entity's gross income under division (L)(2)(b)(ii) of this section.

(c) For the purposes of divisions (L)(1)(b)(i), (1)(b)(ii), (2)(a)(i), and (2)(a)(ii) of this section, real property is described in division (L)(2)(c) of this section only if all of the following conditions are present at all times during the taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year:

(d) As used in division (L) of this section, "related member" has the same meaning as in division (A)(6) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard to division (B) of that section.

(3) The percentages described in division (L)(1)(a) of this section shall be equal to the quarterly average of those percentages as calculated during the corporation's taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year.

(4) With respect to the election described in division (L)(1)(e) of this section:

(c) The election is not irrevocable;

(d) The election applies only to the tax year specified by the corporation;

(e) The corporation's related members comply with division (L)(1)(d) of this section.

(Q) "Business income" means income arising from transactions, activities, and sources in the regular course of a trade or business and includes income from real property, tangible personal property, and intangible personal property if the acquisition, rental, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the regular course of a trade or business operation. It does not include market research, consumer surveys, efficiency surveys, management studies, ordinary testing or inspection of materials or products for quality control, historical research, or literary research. "Product" as used in this paragraph does not include services or intangible property.

The annual report determines the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of the taxpayer, which under division (A) or divisions (B) and (C) of this section is the base or measure of the franchise tax liability. Such determination shall be made as of the date shown by the report to have been the beginning of the corporation's annual accounting period that includes the first day of January of the tax year. For the purposes of this chapter, the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of any corporation that is a financial institution shall be deemed to be the value as calculated in accordance with division (A) of this section. For the purposes of this chapter, the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of any corporation that is not a financial institution shall be deemed to be the values as calculated in accordance with divisions (B) and (C) of this section. Except as otherwise required by this section or section 5733.056 of the Revised Code, the value of a taxpayer's issued and outstanding shares of stock under division (A) or (C) of this section does not include any amount that is treated as a liability under generally accepted accounting principles.

(A) The total value, as shown by the books of the financial institution, of its capital, surplus, whether earned or unearned, undivided profits, and reserves shall be determined as prescribed by section 5733.056 of the Revised Code for tax years 1998 and thereafter.

(B) The sum of the corporation's net income during the corporation's taxable year, allocated or apportioned to this state as prescribed in divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section, and subject to sections 5733.052, 5733.053, 5733.057, 5733.058, 5733.059, and 5733.0510 of the Revised Code:

(1) The net nonbusiness income allocated or apportioned to this state as provided by section 5733.051 of the Revised Code.

(2) The amount of Ohio apportioned net business income ~~from sources other than those allocated under section 5733.051 of the Revised Code,~~ which shall be ~~determined~~ calculated by multiplying the corporation's net business income by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the sum of the following products: the property factor multiplied by twenty, the payroll factor multiplied by twenty, and the sales factor multiplied by sixty. The denominator of the fraction is one hundred, provided that the denominator shall be reduced by twenty if the property factor has a denominator of zero, by twenty if the payroll factor has a denominator of zero, and by sixty if the sales factor has a denominator of zero.

The property, payroll, and sales factors shall be determined as follows, but the numerator and the denominator of the factors shall not include the portion of any property, payroll, and sales otherwise includible in the factors to the extent that the portion relates to, or is used in connection, with the production of nonbusiness income allocated under section 5733.051 of the Revised Code:

(a) The property factor is a fraction ~~the~~ computed as follows:

The numerator of which the fraction is the average value of the corporation's real and tangible personal property owned or rented, and used in the trade or business in this state during the taxable year, and the denominator of which the fraction is the average value of all the corporation's real and tangible personal property owned or rented, and used in the trade or business everywhere during such year. Real and tangible personal property used in the trade or business includes, but is not limited to, real and tangible personal property that the corporation rents, subrents, leases, or subleases to others if the income or loss from such rentals, subrentals, leases, or subleases is business income. There shall be excluded from the numerator and denominator of the ~~property factor~~ fraction the original cost of all of the following property within Ohio: property with respect to which a "pollution control facility" certificate has been issued pursuant to section 5709.21 of the Revised Code; property with respect to which an "industrial water pollution control certificate" has been issued pursuant to that section or former section 6111.31 of the Revised Code; and property used exclusively during the taxable year for qualified research.

(i) Property owned by the corporation is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the corporation is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. "Net annual rental rate" means the annual rental rate paid by the corporation less any annual rental rate received by the corporation from subrentals.

(ii) The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and the end of the taxable year, but the tax commissioner may require the averaging of monthly values during the taxable year, if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the corporation's property.

(b) The payroll factor is a fraction ~~the~~ computed as follows:

The numerator of which the fraction is the total amount paid in this state during the taxable year by the corporation for compensation, and the denominator of ~~which the fraction~~ is the total compensation paid everywhere by the corporation during such year. There shall be excluded from the numerator and the denominator of the payroll factor the total compensation paid in this state to employees who are primarily engaged in qualified research.

(i) Compensation means any form of remuneration paid to an employee for personal services.

(ii) Compensation is paid in this state if: (1) the recipient's service is performed entirely within this state, (2) the recipient's service is performed both within and without this state, but the service performed without this state is incidental to the recipient's service within this state, (3) some of the service is performed within this state and either the base of operations, or if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is within this state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the recipient's residence is in this state.

(iii) Compensation is paid in this state to any employee of a common or contract motor carrier corporation, who performs the employee's regularly assigned duties on a motor vehicle in more than one state, in the same ratio by which the mileage traveled by such employee within the state bears to the total mileage traveled by such employee everywhere during the taxable year.

(c) Except as provided in section 5733.059 of the Revised Code, the sales factor is a fraction ~~the~~ computed as follows:

The numerator of which the fraction is the total sales in this state by the corporation during the taxable year, and the denominator of ~~which the fraction~~ is the total sales by the corporation everywhere during such year. In determining the numerator and denominator of the ~~sales factor fraction~~, receipts from the sale or other disposal of a capital asset or an asset described in section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be eliminated. Also, in determining the numerator and denominator of the sales factor, in the case of a reporting corporation owning at least eighty per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of one or more insurance companies or public utilities, except an electric company and a combined company, and, for tax years 2005 and thereafter, a telephone company, or owning at least twenty-five per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of one or more financial institutions, receipts received by the reporting corporation from such utilities, insurance companies, and financial institutions shall be eliminated.

For the purpose of this section and section 5733.03 of the Revised Code, sales of tangible personal property are in this state where such property is received in this state by the purchaser. In the case of delivery of tangible personal property by common carrier or by other means of transportation, the place at which such property is ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which such property is received by the purchaser. Direct delivery in this state, other than for purposes of transportation, to a person or firm designated by a purchaser constitutes delivery to the purchaser in this state, and direct delivery outside this state to a person or firm designated by a purchaser does not constitute delivery to the purchaser in this state, regardless of where title passes or other conditions of sale.

Except as provided in section 5733.059 of the Revised Code, sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if either:

- (i) The income-producing activity is performed solely in this state;
- (ii) The income-producing activity is performed both within and without this state and a greater proportion of the seller's income-producing activity is performed within this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(d) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of division (B) of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may request, which request must be in writing and must accompany the report, a timely filed petition for reassessment, or a timely filed amended report, or the tax commissioner may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's allocated or apportioned base, if reasonable, any one or more of the following:

- (i) Separate accounting;
- (ii) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;
- (iii) The inclusion of one or more additional factors that will fairly represent the taxpayer's allocated or apportioned base in this state.

An alternative method will be effective only with approval by the tax commissioner.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to extend any statute of limitations set forth in this chapter.

(e) The tax commissioner may adopt rules providing for alternative allocation and apportionment methods, and alternative calculations of a corporation's base, that apply to corporations engaged in telecommunications.

~~(C)(1) Subject to divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section, the~~ The total value, as shown on the books of each corporation that is not a qualified holding company, of the net book value of a the corporation's assets less the net carrying value of its liabilities, and excluding from the corporation's assets land devoted exclusively to agricultural use as of the first Monday of June in the corporation's taxable year as determined by the county auditor of the county in which the land is located pursuant to section 5713.31 of the Revised Code, and making any adjustment required by division (D) of this section. For the purposes of determining that total value, any reserves shown on the corporation's books shall be considered liabilities or contra assets, as the case may be, except for any reserves that are deemed appropriations of retained earnings under generally accepted accounting principles.

~~(2)(a)~~ The base upon which the tax is levied under division (C) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code shall be computed by multiplying the amount determined under division (C)(1) of this section by the fraction determined under divisions (B)(2)(a) to (c) of this section and, if applicable, divisions (B)(2)(d)(ii) and (iii) of this section, and with regard to section 5733.052 of the Revised Code, but substituting "net worth" for "net income" wherever "net income" appears in division (B)(2)(c) in this section. For purposes of division (C)(2) of this section, the numerator and denominator of each of the fractions shall include the portion of any real and tangible personal property, payroll, and sales, respectively, relating to, or used in connection with the production of, net nonbusiness income allocated under section 5733.051 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this division shall allow any amount to be included in the numerator or denominator more than once.

(D)(1) If, on the last day of the taxpayer's taxable year preceding the tax year, the taxpayer is a related member to a corporation that elects to be a qualifying holding company for the tax year beginning after the last day of the taxpayer's taxable year, or if, on the last day of the taxpayer's taxable year preceding the tax year, a corporation that elects to be a qualifying holding company for the tax year beginning after the last day of the taxpayer's taxable year is a related member to the taxpayer, then the taxpayer's total value for the purposes of division (C) of this section shall be adjusted by the qualifying amount. Except as otherwise provided under division (C)(2)(b)(D)(2) of this section, "qualifying amount" means the amount that, when added to the taxpayer's total value, and when subtracted from the net carrying value of the taxpayer's liabilities computed without regard to division (C)(2) of this section, or when subtracted from the taxpayer's total value and when added to the net carrying value of the taxpayer's liabilities computed without regard to division ~~(C)(2)(D)~~ of this section, results in the taxpayer's debt-to-equity ratio equaling the debt-to-equity ratio of the qualifying controlled group on the last day of the taxable year ending prior to the first day of the tax year computed on a consolidated basis in accordance with general accepted accounting principles. For the purposes of division ~~(C)(2)(a)(D)(1)~~ of this section, the corporation's total value, after the adjustment required by that division, shall not exceed the net book value of the corporation's assets.

~~(b)(i)(2)(a)~~ The amount added to the taxpayer's total value and subtracted from the net carrying value of the taxpayer's liabilities shall not exceed the amount of the net carrying value of the taxpayer's liabilities owed to the taxpayer's related members.

~~(ii)(b)~~ A liability owed to the taxpayer's related members includes, but is not limited to, any amount that the corporation owes to a person that is not a related member if the corporation's related member or related members in whole or in part guarantee any portion or all of that amount, or pledge, hypothecate, mortgage, or carry out any similar transactions to secure any portion or all of that amount.

(3) The base upon which the tax is levied under division (C) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code shall be computed by multiplying the amount determined under divisions (C)(1) and ~~(2)(D)~~ of this section ~~by the fraction determined under divisions (B)(2)(a) to (c) of this section and, if applicable, divisions (B)(2)(d)(ii) to (iv) of this section~~ but without regard to section 5733.052 of the Revised Code.

(4) For purposes of division ~~(C)(D)~~ of this section, "related member" has the same meaning as in ~~division (A)(6) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard to division (B) of that section.~~

Sec. 5733.051. ~~Subject~~ For purposes of this section, "available" means information is such that a person is able to learn of the information by the due date plus extensions, if any, for filing the report for the tax year immediately following the last day of the taxable year, and "modified qualifying controlled group" means that portion of a qualifying controlled group consisting of the corporation the sale of which resulted in the gain or loss described in division (E) of this section together with all members of the qualifying controlled group owned directly or indirectly by that corporation, or the corporation that directly paid the dividend or directly made the distribution described in division (F) of this section together with all members of the qualifying controlled group owned directly or indirectly by that corporation.

Subject to section 5733.0510 of the Revised Code, net nonbusiness income of a corporation ~~subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code~~ shall be allocated and apportioned to this state as follows:

(A) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state. Net rents and royalties from real property not located in this state are allocable outside this state.

(B) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property, to the extent such property is utilized in this state, are allocable to this state ~~if the taxpayer is otherwise subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code.~~ Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property, to the extent such property is utilized outside this state, are allocable outside this state.

(C) Capital gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of real property located in this state are allocable to this state. Capital gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of real property located outside this state are allocable outside this state.

(D) Capital gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of tangible personal property are allocable to this state ~~if the property had a situs in this state at the time of sale and the taxpayer is otherwise subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code~~ to the extent such property was utilized in this state prior to the property's sale or other disposition. Capital gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of tangible personal property are allocable outside this state to the extent such property was utilized outside this state prior to the property's sale or other disposition.

(E) Capital gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of intangible property which may produce income enumerated in division (F)(1) of this section are allocable on the same basis as set forth in that division, substituting the day of the sale or disposition for the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution, but if the location of the physical assets described in that division is not available to the taxpayer, such gains and losses are apportionable under division (I) of this section. Capital gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of all other intangible property are apportionable under division (I) of this section.

(F) "Dividends or distributions" to which this division refers are dividends directly or indirectly paid by or distributions directly or indirectly made by any person classified for federal income tax purposes as an association taxable as a corporation.

(1) Dividends or distributions which are not otherwise deducted or excluded from net income, other than dividends or distributions from a domestic international sales corporation, ~~are allocable~~ shall be allocated to

~~this state in accordance with the ratio of the book value of the physical assets of the payor of the dividends or distributions located in this state divided by the book value of the total physical assets of the payor located everywhere by multiplying such dividends and distributions by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the book value of the physical assets in this state of the payor or, if the payor is a member of a modified qualifying controlled group on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution, the sum of the book values of the physical assets in this state of the payor and of all the other members of the modified qualifying controlled group of which the payor is a member on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution. The denominator of the fraction is the book value of the physical assets everywhere of the payor or, if the payor is a member of a modified qualifying controlled group on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution, the sum of the book values of the physical assets everywhere of the payor and of all the other members of the modified qualifying controlled group of which the payor is a member on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution.~~ Dividends or distributions received from a domestic international sales corporation, or from a payor for which the location of whose physical assets described in this division is unavailable ~~not available~~ to the taxpayer, are apportionable under division (I) of this section.

(2) If the payor of a dividend or distribution, or if that payor and any members of the qualifying controlled group of which the payor is a member on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution, separately or cumulatively own, directly or indirectly, on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution, more than fifty per cent of the equity of a pass-through entity, then for purposes of division (F)(1) of this section the payor and the other members are deemed to own the proportionate share of the physical assets that the pass-through entity directly or indirectly owns on the last day of the payor's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the payor pays the dividend or makes the distribution.

(3) For the purposes of division (F)(3) of this section, "upper level pass-through entity" means a pass-through entity directly or indirectly owning any equity of another pass-through entity, and "lower level pass-through entity" means that other pass-through entity. For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, an upper level pass-through entity is deemed to own, on the last day of the upper level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year, the proportionate share of the lower level pass-through entity's physical assets that the lower level pass-through entity directly or indirectly owns on the last day of the lower level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year ending within or with the last day of the upper level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year. If the upper level pass-through entity directly and indirectly owns less than fifty per cent of the equity of the lower level pass-through entity on each day of the upper level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year in which or with which ends the fiscal or calendar year of the lower level pass-through entity and if, based upon clear and convincing evidence, complete information about the location and cost of the physical assets of the lower level pass-through entity is not available to the upper level pass-through entity, then for purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, the upper level pass-through entity shall be deemed as owning no equity of the lower level pass-through entity for each day during the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year in which or with which ends the lower level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year.

~~(G) Patent and copyright~~ Net rents, net royalties, and net technical assistance fees, not representing the principal source of gross receipts of the taxpayer, from intangible property are allocable to this state to the extent that the activity of the payor thereof giving rise to the payment takes place in this state. If the location of the a payor's activity is unavailable not available to the taxpayer, such corporation, the net rents, net royalties, and net technical assistance fees are allocable or apportionable under division (I) of this section.

~~(H)(1) The following amounts described in division (B)(5) of section 5747.20 of the Revised Code are allocable to this state:~~

(a) All lottery prize awards paid by the state lottery commission pursuant to Chapter 3770. of the Revised Code;

(b) All earnings, profit, income, and gain from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of lottery prize awards paid or to be paid to any person by the state lottery commission pursuant to Chapter 3770. of the Revised Code;

(c) All earnings, profit, income, and gain from the direct or indirect ownership of lottery prize awards paid or to be paid to any person by the state lottery commission pursuant to Chapter 3770. of the Revised Code;

(d) All earnings, profit, income, and gain from the direct or indirect interest in any right in or to any lottery prize awards paid or to be paid to any person by the state lottery commission pursuant to Chapter 3770. of the Revised Code.

(2) Lottery prize awards and related earnings, profit, income, or gain with respect to lotteries sponsored by persons or agencies outside this state shall be allocated outside this state.

(1) ~~Any~~ Every other item of net nonbusiness income, from sources other than those enumerated in divisions (A) to (H) of this section, is allocated entirely to this state except to the extent the allocation of such item of net nonbusiness income entirely to this state is not within the taxing power of this state under the Constitution of the United States. To the extent such allocation entirely to this state would not be within the taxing power of this state under the Constitution of the United States, such item of net nonbusiness income is apportionable to this state on the basis of the mechanism provided in division (B)(2) of section 5733.05 and in section 5733.057 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5733.056. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Billing address" means the address where any notice, statement, or bill relating to a customer's account is mailed, as indicated in the books and records of the taxpayer on the first day of the taxable year or on such later date in the taxable year when the customer relationship began.

(c) A proportionate part of the cost of any improvement to real property made by or on behalf of the taxpayer which reverts to the owner or lessor upon termination of a lease or other arrangement. The amount to be included in gross rents is the amount of amortization or depreciation allowed in computing the taxable income base for the taxable year. However, where a building is erected on leased land, by or on behalf of the taxpayer, the value of the land is determined by multiplying the gross rent by eight, and the value of the building is determined in the same manner as if owned by the taxpayer.

(13) "Participation" means an extension of credit in which an undivided ownership interest is held on a pro rata basis in a single loan or pool of loans and related collateral. In a loan participation, the credit originator initially makes the loan and then subsequently resells all or a portion of it to other lenders. The participation may or may not be known to the borrower.

(14) "Principal base of operations" with respect to transportation property means the place of more or less permanent nature from which the property is regularly directed or controlled. With respect to an employee, the "principal base of operations" means the place of more or less permanent nature from which the employee regularly (a) starts work and to which the employee customarily returns in order to receive instructions from the employer or (b) communicates with the employee's customers or other persons or (c) performs any other functions necessary to the exercise of the trade or profession at some other point or points.

(B) The annual financial institution report determines the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of the taxpayer, and is the base or measure of the franchise tax liability. Such determination shall be made as of the date shown by the report to have been the beginning of the financial institution's annual accounting period that includes the first day of January of the tax year. For purposes of this section, division (A) of section 5733.05, and division (D) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code, the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of the financial institution shall include the total value, as shown by the books of the financial institution, of its capital, surplus, whether earned or unearned, undivided profits, and reserves, but exclusive of:

(1) Reserves for accounts receivable, depreciation, depletion, and any other valuation reserves with respect to specific assets;

(2) Taxes due and payable during the year for which such report was made;

(3) Voting stock and participation certificates in corporations chartered pursuant to the "Farm Credit Act of 1971," 85 Stat. 597, 12 U.S.C. 2091, as amended;

(4) Good will, appreciation, and abandoned property as set up in the annual report of the financial institution, provided a certified balance sheet of the company is made available upon the request of the tax commissioner. Such balance sheet shall not be a part of the public records, but shall be a confidential report for use of the tax commissioner only.

(5) A portion of the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of such financial institution equal to the amount obtained by multiplying such value by the quotient obtained by:

(a) Dividing (1) the amount of the financial institution's assets, as shown on its books, represented by investments in the capital stock and indebtedness of public utilities, except electric companies and combined companies, and, for tax years 2005 and thereafter, telephone companies, of which at least eighty per cent of the utility's issued and outstanding common stock is owned by the financial institution by (2) the total assets of such financial institution as shown on its books;

(b) Dividing (1) the amount of the financial institution's assets, as shown on its books, represented by investments in the capital stock and indebtedness of insurance companies of which at least eighty per cent of the insurance company's issued and outstanding common stock is owned by the financial institution by (2) the total assets of such financial institution as shown on its books;

(c) Dividing (1) the amount of the financial institution's assets, as shown on its books, represented by investments in the capital stock and indebtedness of other financial institutions of which at least twenty-five per cent of the other financial institution's issued and outstanding common stock is owned by the financial institution by (2) the total assets of the financial institution as shown on its books. Division (B)(5)(c) of this section applies only with respect to such other financial institutions that for the tax year immediately following the taxpayer's taxable year will pay the tax imposed by division (D) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code.

(6) Land that has been determined pursuant to section 5713.31 of the Revised Code by the county auditor of the county in which the land is located to be devoted exclusively to agricultural use as of the first Monday of June in the financial institution's taxable year.

(7) Property within this state used exclusively during the taxable year for qualified research as defined in section 5733.05 of the Revised Code.

(C) The base upon which the tax levied under division (D) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code shall be computed by multiplying the value of a financial institution's issued and outstanding shares of stock as determined in division (B) of this section by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the sum of the following: the property factor multiplied by fifteen, the payroll factor multiplied by fifteen, and the sales factor multiplied by seventy. The denominator of the fraction is one hundred, provided that the denominator shall be reduced by fifteen if the property factor has a denominator of zero, by fifteen if the payroll factor has a denominator of zero, and by seventy if the sales factor has a denominator of zero.

(D) A financial institution shall calculate the property factor as follows:

(1) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of real property and tangible personal property rented to the taxpayer that is located or used within this state during the taxable year, the average value of real and tangible personal property owned by the taxpayer that is located or used within this state during the taxable year, and the average value of the taxpayer's loans and credit card receivables that are located within this state during the taxable year; and the denominator of which is the average value of all such property located or used within and without this state during the taxable year.

(2)(a) The value of real property and tangible personal property owned by the taxpayer is the original cost or other basis of such property for federal income tax purposes without regard to depletion, depreciation, or amortization.

(b) Loans are valued at their outstanding principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a loan is charged-off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, the portion of the loan charged-off is not outstanding. A specifically allocated reserve established pursuant to financial accounting guidelines which is treated as charged-off for federal income tax purposes shall be treated as charged-off for purposes of this section.

(c) Credit card receivables are valued at their outstanding principal balance, without regard to any reserve for bad debts. If a credit card receivable is charged-off in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes, the portion of the receivable charged-off is not outstanding.

(3) The average value of property owned by the taxpayer is computed on an annual basis by adding the value of the property on the first day of the taxable year and the value on the last day of the taxable year and dividing the sum by two. If averaging on this basis does not properly reflect average value, the tax commissioner may require averaging on a more frequent basis. The taxpayer may elect to average on a more frequent basis. When averaging on a more frequent basis is required by the tax commissioner or is elected by the taxpayer, the same method of valuation must be used consistently by the taxpayer with respect to property within and without this state and on all subsequent returns unless the taxpayer receives prior permission from the tax commissioner or the tax commissioner requires a different method of determining value.

(4)(a) The average value of real property and tangible personal property that the taxpayer has rented from another and is not treated as property owned by the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes, shall be determined annually by multiplying the gross rents payable during the taxable year by eight.

(b) Where the use of the general method described in division (D)(4)(a) of this section results in inaccurate valuations of rented property, any other method which properly reflects the value may be adopted by the tax commissioner or by the taxpayer when approved in writing by the tax commissioner. Once approved, such other method of valuation must be used on all subsequent returns unless the taxpayer receives prior approval from the tax commissioner or the tax commissioner requires a different method of valuation.

(5)(a) Except as described in division (D)(5)(b) of this section, real property and tangible personal property owned by or rented to the taxpayer is considered to be located within this state if it is physically located, situated, or used within this state.

(b) Transportation property is included in the numerator of the property factor to the extent that the property is used in this state. The extent an aircraft will be deemed to be used in this state and the amount of value that is to be included in the numerator of this state's property factor is determined by multiplying the average value of the aircraft by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this state and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft everywhere. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this state cannot be determined, then the property will be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle will be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered.

(6)(a)(i) A loan, other than a loan or advance described in division (D)(6)(d) of this section, is considered to be located within this state if it is properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state.

(ii) A loan is properly assigned to the regular place of business with which it has a preponderance of substantive contacts. A loan assigned by the taxpayer to a regular place of business without the state shall be presumed to have been properly assigned if:

(I) The taxpayer has assigned, in the regular course of its business, such loan on its records to a regular place of business consistent with federal or state regulatory requirements;

(II) Such assignment on its records is based upon substantive contacts of the load to such regular place of business; and

(III) The taxpayer uses the records reflecting assignment of loans for the filing of all state and local tax returns for which an assignment of loans to a regular place of business is required.

(iii) The presumption of proper assignment of a loan provided in division (D)(6)(a)(ii) of this section may be rebutted upon a showing by the tax commissioner, supported by a preponderance of the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding such loan did not occur at the regular place of business to which it was assigned on the taxpayer's records. When such presumption has been rebutted, the loan shall then be located within this state if (1) the taxpayer had a regular place of business within this state at the time the loan was made; and (2) the taxpayer fails to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding such loan did not occur within this state.

(b) In the case of a loan which is assigned by the taxpayer to a place without this state which is not a regular place of business, it shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by the taxpayer on a showing supported by the preponderance of evidence, that the preponderance of substantive contacts regarding the loan occurred within this state if, at the time the loan was made the taxpayer's commercial domicile was within this state.

(c) To determine the state in which the preponderance of substantive contacts relating to a loan have occurred, the facts and circumstances regarding the loan at issue shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis and consideration shall be given to such activities as the solicitation, investigation, negotiation, approval, and administration of the loan. The terms "solicitation," "investigation," "negotiation," "approval," and "administration" are defined as follows:

(i) "Solicitation" is either active or passive. Active solicitation occurs when an employee of the taxpayer initiates the contact with the customer. Such activity is located at the regular place of business which the taxpayer's employee is regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of such employee were actually performed. Passive solicitation occurs when the customer initiates the contact with the taxpayer. If the customer's initial contact was not at a regular place of business of the taxpayer, the regular place of business, if any, where the passive solicitation occurred is determined by the facts in each case.

(ii) "Investigation" is the procedure whereby employees of the taxpayer determine the creditworthiness of the customer as well as the degree of risk involved in making a particular agreement. Such activity is located at the regular place of business which the taxpayer's employees are regularly connected with or working out of, regardless of where the services of such employees were actually performed.

(iii) Negotiation is the procedure whereby employees of the taxpayer and its customer determine the terms of the agreement, such as the amount, duration, interest rate, frequency of repayment, currency denomination, and security required. Such activity is located at the regular place of business to which the taxpayer's employees are regularly connected or working from, regardless of where the services of such employees were actually performed.

(iv) "Approval" is the procedure whereby employees or the board of directors of the taxpayer make the final determination whether to enter into the agreement. Such activity is located at the regular place of business to which the taxpayer's employees are regularly connected or working from, regardless of where the services of such employees were actually performed. If the board of directors makes the final determination, such activity is located at the commercial domicile of the taxpayer.

(v) "Administration" is the process of managing the account. This process includes bookkeeping, collecting the payments, corresponding with the customer, reporting to management regarding the status of the agreement, and proceeding against the borrower or the security interest if the borrower is in default. Such activity is located at the regular place of business that oversees this activity.

(d) A loan or advance to a subsidiary corporation at least fifty-one per cent of whose common stock is owned by the financial institution shall be allocated in and out of the state by the application of a ratio whose numerator is the sum of the net book value of the subsidiary's real property owned in this state and the subsidiary's tangible personal property owned in this state and whose denominator is the sum of the subsidiary's real property owned wherever located and the subsidiary's tangible personal property owned wherever located. For purposes of calculating this ratio, the taxpayer shall determine net book value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. If the subsidiary corporation owns at least fifty-one per cent of the common stock of another corporation, the ratio shall be calculated by including the other corporation's real property and tangible personal property. The calculation of the ratio applies with respect to all lower-tiered subsidiaries, provided that the immediate parent corporation of the subsidiary owns at least fifty-one per cent of the common stock of that subsidiary.

(7) For purposes of determining the location of credit card receivables, credit card receivables shall be treated as loans and shall be subject to division (D)(6) of this section.

(8) A loan that has been properly assigned to a state shall, absent any change of material fact, remain assigned to that state for the length of the original term of the loan. Thereafter, the loan may be properly assigned to another state if the loan has a preponderance of substantive contact to a regular place of business there.

(E) A financial institution shall calculate the payroll factor as follows:

(1) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the taxable year by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid both within and without this state during the taxable year.

(2) Compensation is paid in this state if any one of the following tests, applied consecutively, is met:

(a) The employee's services are performed entirely within this state.

(b) The employee's services are performed both within and without this state, but the service performed without this state is incidental to the employee's service within this state. The term "incidental" means any service which is temporary or transitory in nature, or which is rendered in connection with an isolated transaction.

(c) The employee's services are performed both within and without this state, and:

(i) The employee's principal base of operations is within this state; or

(ii) There is no principal base of operations in any state in which some part of the services are performed, but the place from which the services are directed or controlled is in this state; or

(iii) The principal base of operations and the place from which the services are directed or controlled are not in any state in which some part of the service is performed but the employee's residence is in this state.

(F) A financial institution shall calculate the sales factor as follows:

(1) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the receipts of the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year and the denominator of which is the receipts of the taxpayer within and without this state during the taxable year. The method of calculating receipts for purposes of the denominator is the same as the method used in determining receipts for purposes of the numerator.

(2) The numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from the lease or rental of real property owned by the taxpayer if the property is located within this state, or receipts from the sublease of real property if the property is located within this state.

(3)(a) Except as described in division (F)(3)(b) of this section the numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property owned by the taxpayer if the property is located within this state when it is first placed in service by the lessee.

(b) Receipts from the lease or rental of transportation property owned by the taxpayer are included in the numerator of the sales factor to the extent that the property is used in this state. The extent an aircraft will be deemed to be used in this state and the amount of receipts that is to be included in the numerator of this state's sales factor is determined by multiplying all the receipts from the lease or rental of the aircraft by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of landings of the aircraft in this state and the denominator of which is the total number of landings of the aircraft. If the extent of the use of any transportation property within this state cannot be determined, then the property will be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which the property has its principal base of operations. A motor vehicle will be deemed to be used wholly in the state in which it is registered.

(4)(a) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property if the property is located within this state. If the property is located both within this state and one or more other states, the receipts described in this paragraph are included in the numerator of the sales factor if more than fifty per cent of the fair market value of the real property is located within this state. If more than fifty per cent of the fair market value of the real property is not located within any one state, then the receipts described in this paragraph shall be included in the numerator of the sales factor if the borrower is located in this state.

(b) The determination of whether the real property securing a loan is located within this state shall be made as of the time the original agreement was made and any and all subsequent substitutions of collateral shall be disregarded.

(5) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property if the borrower is located in this state.

(6) The numerator of the sales factor includes net gains from the sale of loans. Net gains from the sale of loans includes income recorded under the coupon stripping rules of section 1286 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(a) The amount of net gains, but not less than zero, from the sale of loans secured by real property included in the numerator is determined by multiplying such net gains by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(4) of this section and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property.

(b) The amount of net gains, but not less than zero, from the sale of loans not secured by real property included in the numerator is determined by multiplying such net gains by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(5) of this section and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property.

(7) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and receipts from fees charged to card holders, such as annual fees, if the billing address of the card holder is in this state.

(8) The numerator of the sales factor includes net gains, but not less than zero, from the sale of credit card receivables multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(7) of this section and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged to card holders.

(9) The numerator of the sales factor includes all credit card issuer's reimbursement fees multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(7) of this section and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from credit card receivables and fees charged to card holders.

(10) The numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from merchant discount if the commercial domicile of the merchant is in this state. Such receipts shall be computed net of any card holder charge backs, but shall not be reduced by any interchange transaction fees or by any issuer's reimbursement fees paid to another for charges made by its card holders.

(11)(a)(i) The numerator of the sales factor includes loan servicing fees derived from loans secured by real property multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(4) of this section and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans secured by real property.

(ii) The numerator of the sales factor includes loan servicing fees derived from loans not secured by real property multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount included in the numerator of the sales factor pursuant to division (F)(5) of this section and the denominator of which is the total amount of interest and fees or penalties in the nature of interest from loans not secured by real property.

(b) In circumstances in which the taxpayer receives loan servicing fees for servicing either the secured or the unsecured loans of another, the numerator of the sales factor shall include such fees if the borrower is located in this state.

(12) The numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from services not otherwise apportioned under this section if the service is performed in this state. If the service is performed both within and without this state, the numerator of the sales factor includes receipts from services not otherwise apportioned under this section, if a greater proportion of the income producing activity is performed in this state based on cost of performance.

(13)(a) Interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero, and other income from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and activities shall be included in the sales factor. Investment assets and activities and trading assets and activities include but are not limited to: investment securities; trading account assets; federal funds; securities purchased and sold under agreements to resell or repurchase; options; futures contracts; forward contracts; notional principal contracts such as swaps; equities; and foreign currency transactions. With respect to the investment and trading assets and activities described in divisions (F)(13)(a)(i) and (ii) of this section, the sales factor shall include the amounts described in such divisions.

(i) The sales factor shall include the amount by which interest from federal funds sold and securities purchased under resale agreements exceeds interest expense on federal funds purchased and securities sold under repurchase agreements.

(ii) The sales factor shall include the amount by which interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including, but not limited to, assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, exceed amounts paid in lieu of interest, amounts paid in lieu of dividends, and losses from such assets and activities.

(b) The numerator of the sales factor includes interest, dividends, net gains, but not less than zero, and other income from investment assets and activities and from trading assets and activities described in division (F)(13)(a) of this section that are attributable to this state.

(i) The amount of interest, other than interest described in division (F)(13)(b)(iv) of this section, dividends, other than dividends described in that division, net gains, but not less than zero, and other income from investment assets and activities in the investment account to be attributed to this state and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying all such income from such assets and activities by a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of such assets which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state and the denominator of which is the average value of all such assets.

(ii) The amount of interest from federal funds sold and purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to this state and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in division (F)(13)(a)(i) of this section from such funds and such securities by a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state and the denominator of which is the average value of all such funds and such securities.

(iii) The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including but not limited to assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transaction, but excluding amounts described in division (F)(13)(b)(i) or (ii) of this section, attributable to this state and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in division (F)(13)(a)(ii) of this section by a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of such trading assets which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state and the denominator of which is the average value of all such assets.

(iv) The amount of dividends received on the capital stock of, and the amount of interest received from loans and advances to, subsidiary corporations at least fifty-one per cent of whose common stock is owned by the reporting financial institution shall be allocated in and out of this state by the application of a ratio whose numerator is the sum of the net book value of the payor's real property owned in this state and the payor's tangible personal property owned in this state and whose denominator is the sum of the net book value of the payor's real property owned wherever located and the payor's tangible personal property owned wherever located. For purposes of calculating this ratio, the taxpayer shall determine net book value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(v) For purposes of this division, average value shall be determined using the rules for determining the average value of tangible personal property set forth in division (D)(2) and (3) of this section.

(c) In lieu of using the method set forth in division (F)(13)(b) of this section, the taxpayer may elect, or the tax commissioner may require in order to fairly represent the business activity of the taxpayer in this state, the use of the method set forth in division (F)(13)(c) of this section.

(i) The amount of interest, other than interest described in division (F)(13)(b)(iv) of this section, dividends, other than dividends described in that division, net gains, but not less than zero, and other income from investment assets and activities in the investment account to be attributed to this state and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying all such income from such assets and activities by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross income from such assets and activities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state, and the denominator of which is the gross income from all such assets and activities.

(ii) The amount of interest from federal funds sold and purchased and from securities purchased under resale agreements and securities sold under repurchase agreements attributable to this state and included in the numerator is determined by multiplying the amount described in division (F)(13)(a)(i) of this section from such funds and such securities by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross income from such funds and such securities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state and the denominator of which is the gross income from all such funds and such securities.

(iii) The amount of interest, dividends, gains, and other income from trading assets and activities, including, but not limited to, assets and activities in the matched book, in the arbitrage book, and foreign currency transactions, but excluding amounts described in division (F)(13)(a)(i) or (ii) of this section, attributable to this state and included in the numerator, is determined by multiplying the amount described in division (F)(13)(a)(ii) of this section by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross income from such trading assets and activities which are properly assigned to a regular place of business of the taxpayer within this state and the denominator of which is the gross income from all such assets and activities.

(iv) The amount of dividends received on the capital stock of, and the amount of interest received from loans and advances to, subsidiary corporations at least fifty-one per cent of whose common stock is owned by the reporting financial institution shall be allocated in and out of this state by the application of a ratio whose numerator is the sum of the net book value of the payor's real property owned in this state and the payor's tangible personal property owned in this state and whose denominator is the sum of the payor's real property owned wherever located and the payor's tangible personal property owned wherever located. For purposes of calculating this ratio, the taxpayer shall determine net book value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(d) If the taxpayer elects or is required by the tax commissioner to use the method set forth in division (F)(13)(c) of this section, it shall use this method on all subsequent returns unless the taxpayer receives prior permission from the tax commissioner to use or the tax commissioner requires a different method.

(e) The taxpayer shall have the burden of proving that an investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity was properly assigned to a regular place of business outside of this state by demonstrating that the day-to-day decisions regarding the asset or activity occurred at a regular place of business outside this state. Where the day-to-day decisions regarding an investment asset or activity or trading asset or activity occur at more than one regular place of business and one such regular place of business is in this state and one such regular place of business is outside this state such asset or activity shall be considered to be located at the regular place of business of the taxpayer where the investment or trading policies or guidelines with respect to the asset or activity are established. Unless the taxpayer demonstrates to the contrary, such policies and guidelines shall be presumed to be established at the commercial domicile of the taxpayer.

(14) The numerator of the sales factor includes all other receipts if either:

(a) The income-producing activity is performed solely in this state; or

(b) The income-producing activity is performed both within and without this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed within this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(G) A qualified institution may calculate the base upon which the fee provided for in division (D) of section 5733.06 of the Revised Code is determined for each tax year by multiplying the value of its issued and outstanding shares of stock determined under division (B) of this section by a single deposits fraction whose numerator is the deposits assigned to branches in this state and whose denominator is the deposits assigned to branches everywhere. Deposits shall be assigned to branches in the same manner in which the assignment is made for regulatory purposes. If the base calculated under this division is less than the base calculated under division

(C) of this section, then the qualifying institution may elect to substitute the base calculated under this division for the base calculated under division (C) of this section. Such election may be made annually for each tax year on the corporate report. The election need not accompany the report; rather, the election may accompany a subsequently filed but timely application for refund, a subsequently filed but timely amended report, or a subsequently filed but timely petition for reassessment. The election is not irrevocable and it applies only to the specified tax year. Nothing in this division shall be construed to extend any statute of limitations set forth in this chapter.

(H) If the apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax commissioner may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

- (1) Separate accounting;
- (2) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;
- (3) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or
- (4) The employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's value.

Sec. 5733.057. As used in this section, "adjusted qualifying amount" has the same meaning as in section 5733.40 of the Revised Code.

This section does not apply to divisions (E) and (F) of section 5733.051 of the Revised Code.

Except as otherwise provided in divisions (A) and (B) of section 5733.401 and in sections 5733.058 and 5747.401 of the Revised Code, in making all apportionment, allocation, income, gain, loss, deduction, tax, and credit computations under this chapter and under sections 5747.41 and 5747.43 of the Revised Code, each person shall include in that person's items of business income, nonbusiness income, adjusted qualifying amounts, allocable income or loss, if any, apportionable income or loss, property, compensation, and sales, the person's entire distributive share or proportionate share of the items of business income, nonbusiness income, adjusted qualifying amounts, allocable income or loss, apportionable income or loss, property, compensation, and sales of any pass-through entity in which the person has a direct or indirect ownership interest at any time during the pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year ending within, or with the last day of the person's taxable year. A pass-through entity's direct or indirect distributive share or proportionate share of any other pass-through entity's items of business income, nonbusiness income, adjusted qualifying amounts, allocable income or loss, apportionable income or loss, property, compensation, and sales shall be included for the purposes of computing the person's distributive share or proportionate share of the pass-through entity's items of business income, nonbusiness income, adjusted qualifying amounts, allocable income or loss, apportionable income or loss, property, compensation, and sales under this section. Those items shall be in the same form as was recognized by the pass-through entity.

Sec. 5733.059. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Customer" means a person who purchases electricity for consumption either by that person or by the person's related member and the electricity is not for resale directly or indirectly to any person other than a related member.

(2) "Related member" has the same meaning as in division (A)(6) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard to division (B) of that section.

(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, this division applies only to sales of electric transmission and distribution services. For purposes of sections 5733.05 and 5747.21 of the Revised Code:

(1) Sales of the transmission of electricity are in this state in proportion to the ratio of the wire mileage of the taxpayer's transmission lines located in this state divided by the wire mileage of the taxpayer's transmission lines located everywhere. Transmission wire mileage shall be weighted for the voltage capacity of each line.

(2) Sales of the distribution of electricity are in this state in proportion to the ratio of the wire mileage of the taxpayer's distribution lines located in this state divided by the wire mileage of the taxpayer's distribution lines located everywhere. Distribution wire mileage shall not be weighted for the voltage capacity of each line.

(C) This division applies only to a person that has transmission or distribution lines in this state. If a contract for the sale of electricity includes the seller's or the seller's related member's obligation to transmit or distribute the electricity and if the sales contract separately identifies the price charged for the transmission or distribution of electricity, the price charged for the transmission and distribution of electricity shall be apportioned to this state in accordance with division (B) of this section. Any remaining portion of the sales price of the electricity shall be situated to this state in accordance with division (D) of this section.

If the sales contract does not separately identify the price charged for the transmission or distribution of electricity, the sales price of the electricity shall be situated to this state in accordance with division (D) of this section.

(D) Any person who makes a sale of electricity shall situate the following to this state:

(1) A sale of electricity directly or indirectly to a customer to the extent the customer consumes the electricity in this state;

(2) A sale of electricity directly or indirectly to a related member where the related member directly or indirectly sells electricity to a customer to the extent the customer consumes the electricity in this state;

(3) A sale of electricity if the seller or the seller's related member directly or indirectly delivers the electricity to a location in this state or directly or indirectly delivers the electricity exactly to the border of this state and another state;

(4) A sale of electricity if the seller or the seller's related member directly or indirectly directs the delivery of the electricity to a location in this state or directly or indirectly directs the delivery of the electricity exactly to the border of this state and another state.

(E) If the siting provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's or the taxpayer's related member's activity in this state, the taxpayer may request, or the tax commissioner may require, in respect to all or part of a taxpayer's or related member's sales, if reasonable, any of the following:

(1) Separate accounting;

(2) The exclusion of one or more additional siting factors that will fairly represent the taxpayer's and the related member's sales in this state;

(3) The inclusion of one or more additional siting factors that will fairly represent the taxpayer's and the related member's sales in this state.

The taxpayer's request shall be in writing and shall be filed with the report required by section 5733.02 of the Revised Code, a timely filed petition for reassessment, or a timely filed amended report. An alternative siting method shall be effective with the approval of the tax commissioner.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to extend any statute of limitations set forth in this chapter.

(F) If the siting provisions of this section do not fairly represent activity in this state, the tax commissioner may promulgate rules to situate sales using a methodology that fairly reflects sales in this state.

(G) Notwithstanding ~~sections 5733.111 and 5747.131~~ section 5703.56 of the Revised Code to the contrary, a person situsing a sale outside this state has the burden to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the doctrines enumerated in ~~those sections~~ that section do not apply.

Sec. 5733.0511. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Qualifying telephone company taxpayer" means either of the following:

(a) A telephone company, but only if the telephone company was subject to the tax imposed by section 5727.30 of the Revised Code for gross receipts received during the period from July 1, 2003, to June 30, 2004, and the telephone company's property subject to taxation under Chapter 5727. of the Revised Code for tax years 2003 through 2006 was assessed using the true value percentages provided for in division (B) of section 5727.111 of the Revised Code.

(b) Any taxpayer not described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section if a telephone company described in division (A)(1)(a) of this section transfers all or a portion of its assets and equity directly or indirectly to the taxpayer, the transfer occurred as part of an entity organization or reorganization, or subsequent entity organization or reorganization, and the gain or loss with respect to the transfer is not recognized in whole or in part for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code on account of a transfer as part of an entity organization or reorganization, or subsequent entity organization or reorganization.

(2) "Qualifying telephone company asset" means any asset shown on the qualifying telephone company taxpayer's books and records on December 31, 2003, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(3) "Net income" has the same meaning as in division (I) of section 5733.04 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Book-tax difference" means the difference, if any, between a qualifying telephone company asset's net book value shown on the qualifying telephone company taxpayer's books and records on December 31, 2003, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and such asset's adjusted basis on December 31, 2003. The book-tax difference may be a negative number.

(5) Solely for purposes of division (A)(1)(a) of this section, "tax year" has the same meaning as used in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) In computing net income under division (I) of section 5733.04 of the Revised Code, a qualifying telephone company taxpayer shall adjust net income to reflect a ten-year amortization of the book-tax difference for each qualifying telephone company asset, in equal installments over each of the ten tax years beginning with 2010. If the net book value exceeds the adjusted basis of the asset as of December 31, 2003, net income shall be reduced in each of the ten years beginning with tax year 2010 by one-tenth of the book-tax difference. If the adjusted basis exceeds the net book value of the asset as of December 31, 2003, net income shall be increased in each of the ten years beginning with tax year 2010 by one-tenth of the absolute value of the book-tax difference. The adjustment to net income provided for by this division shall apply without regard to the disposal of those assets after December 31, 2003.

(C) The allocation and apportionment of this amortization of the book-tax difference under this section shall be governed by division (B) of section 5733.05 and by section 5733.051 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may prescribe rules regarding the apportionment of the amortization of the book-tax difference under this section.

(D) Nothing in this section shall allow for an adjustment more than once with respect to the same qualifying asset or allow more than one corporation to claim an adjustment with respect to the same qualifying telephone company asset.

Sec. 5733.06. The tax hereby charged each corporation subject to this chapter shall be the greater of the sum of divisions (A) and (B) of this section, after the reduction, if any, provided by division (J) of this section, or division (C) of this section, after the reduction, if any, provided by division (J) of this section, except that the tax hereby charged each financial institution subject to this chapter shall be the amount computed under division (D) of this section:

(A) Except as set forth in division (F) of this section, five and one-tenth per cent upon the first fifty thousand dollars of the value of the taxpayer's issued and outstanding shares of stock as determined under division (B) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code;

(B) Except as set forth in division (F) of this section, eight and one-half per cent upon the value so determined in excess of fifty thousand dollars; or

(C)(1) Except as otherwise provided under division (G) of this section, four mills times that portion of the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock as determined under division (C) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code. For the purposes of division (C) of this section, division (C)(2) of section 5733.065, and division (C) of section 5733.066 of the Revised Code, the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of an eligible corporation for tax year 2003 through tax year 2007, or of a qualified holding company, is zero.

(2) As used in division (C) of this section, "eligible corporation" means a person treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes that meets all of the following criteria:

(a) The corporation conducts business for an entire taxable year as a qualified trade or business as defined by division (C) of section 122.15 of the Revised Code.

(b) The corporation uses more than fifty per cent of the corporation's assets, based on net book value, that are located in Ohio solely to conduct activities that constitute a qualified trade or business as defined by section 122.15 of the Revised Code.

(c) The corporation has been formed or organized not more than three years before the report required to be filed by section 5733.02 of the Revised Code is due, without regard to any extensions.

(d) The corporation is not a related member, as defined in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code, at any time during the taxable year with respect to another person treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes. A corporation is not a related member if during the entire taxable year at least seventy-five per cent of the corporation's stock is owned directly or through a pass-through entity by individuals, estates, and grantor trusts, and the individuals, estates, and grantor trusts do not directly or indirectly own more than twenty per cent of the value of another person treated as a corporation for federal income tax purposes that is conducting a qualified trade or business.

(D) The tax charged each financial institution subject to this chapter shall be that portion of the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock as determined under division (A) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code, multiplied by the following amounts:

(1) For tax years prior to the 1999 tax year, fifteen mills;

(2) For the 1999 tax year, fourteen mills;

(3) For tax year 2000 and thereafter, thirteen mills.

(E) No tax shall be charged from any corporation that has been adjudicated bankrupt, or for which a receiver has been appointed, or that has made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, except for the portion of the then current tax year during which the tax commissioner finds such corporation had the power to exercise its corporate franchise unimpaired by such proceedings or act. The minimum payment for ~~all corporations~~ each corporation shall be ~~fifty dollars~~ as follows:

(1) One thousand dollars in the case of a corporation having gross receipts for the taxable year equal to at least five million dollars from activities within or outside this state or in the case of a corporation employing at least three hundred employees at some time during the taxable year within or outside this state;

(2) Fifty dollars in the case of any other corporation.

The tax charged to corporations under this chapter for the privilege of engaging in business in this state, which is an excise tax levied on the value of the issued and outstanding shares of stock, shall in no manner be construed as prohibiting or otherwise limiting the powers of municipal corporations, joint economic development zones created under section 715.691 of the Revised Code, and joint economic development districts created under section 715.70 or 715.71 or sections 715.72 to 715.81 of the Revised Code in this state to impose an income tax on the income of such corporations.

(F) If two or more taxpayers satisfy the ownership or control requirements of division (A) of section 5733.052 of the Revised Code, each such taxpayer shall substitute "the taxpayer's pro-rata amount" for "fifty thousand dollars" in divisions (A) and (B) of this section. For purposes of this division, "the taxpayer's pro-rata amount" is an amount that, when added to the other such taxpayers' pro-rata amounts, does not exceed fifty thousand dollars. For the purpose of making that computation, the taxpayer's pro-rata amount shall not be less than zero. Nothing in this division derogates from or eliminates the requirement to make the alternative computation of tax under division (C) of this section.

(G) The tax liability of any corporation under division (C) of this section shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(H)(1) For the purposes of division (H) of this section, "exiting corporation" means a corporation that satisfies all of the following conditions:

(a) The corporation had nexus with or in this state under the Constitution of the United States during any portion of a calendar year;

(b) The corporation was not a corporation described in division (A) of section 5733.01 of the Revised Code on the first day of January immediately following that calendar year;

(c) The corporation was not a financial institution on the first day of January immediately following that calendar year;

(d) If the corporation was a transferor as defined in section 5733.053 of the Revised Code, the corporation's transferee was not required to add to the transferee's net income the income of the transferor pursuant to division (B) of that section;

(e) During any portion of that calendar year, or any portion of the immediately preceding calendar year, the corporation had net income that was not included in a report filed by the corporation or its transferee pursuant to section 5733.02, 5733.021, 5733.03, 5733.031, or 5733.053 of the Revised Code;

(f) The corporation would have been subject to the tax computed under divisions (A), (B), (C), (F), and (G) of this section if the corporation is assumed to be a corporation described in division (A) of section 5733.01 of the Revised Code on the first day of January immediately following the calendar year to which division (H)(1)(a) of this section refers.

(2) For the purposes of division (H) of this section, "unreported net income" means net income that was not previously included in a report filed pursuant to section 5733.02, 5733.021, 5733.03, 5733.031, or 5733.053 of the Revised Code and that was realized or recognized during the calendar year to which division (H)(1) of this section refers or the immediately preceding calendar year.

(3) Each exiting corporation shall pay a tax computed by first allocating and apportioning the unreported net income pursuant to division (B) of section 5733.05 and section 5733.051 and, if applicable, section 5733.052 of the Revised Code. The exiting corporation then shall compute the tax due on its unreported net income allocated and apportioned to this state by applying divisions (A), (B), and (F) of this section to that income.

(4) Divisions (C) and (G) of this section, division (D)(2) of section 5733.065, and division (C) of section 5733.066 of the Revised Code do not apply to an exiting corporation, but exiting corporations are subject to every other provision of this chapter.

(5) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 5733.01 or sections 5733.02, 5733.021, and 5733.03 of the Revised Code to the contrary, each exiting corporation shall report and pay the tax due under division (H) of this section on or before the thirty-first day of May immediately following the calendar year to which division (H)(1)(a) of this section refers. The exiting corporation shall file that report on the form most recently prescribed by the tax commissioner for the purposes of complying with sections 5733.02 and 5733.03 of the Revised Code. Upon request by the corporation, the tax commissioner may extend the date for filing the report.

(6) If, on account of the application of section 5733.053 of the Revised Code, net income is subject to the tax imposed by divisions (A) and (B) of this section, such income shall not be subject to the tax imposed by division (H)(3) of this section.

(7) The amendments made to division (H) of this section by Am. Sub. S.B. 287 of the 123rd general assembly do not apply to any transfer, as defined in section 5733.053 of the Revised Code, for which negotiations began prior to January 1, 2001, and that was commenced in and completed during calendar year 2001, unless the taxpayer makes an election prior to December 31, 2001, to apply those amendments.

(8) The tax commissioner may adopt rules governing division (H) of this section.

(I) Any reference in the Revised Code to "the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code" or "the tax due under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code" includes the taxes imposed under sections 5733.065 and 5733.066 of the Revised Code.

(J)(1) Division (J) of this section applies solely to a combined company. Section 5733.057 of the Revised Code shall apply when calculating the adjustments required by division (J) of this section.

(2) Subject to division (J)(4) of this section, the total tax calculated in divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall be reduced by an amount calculated by multiplying such tax by a fraction, the numerator of which is the total taxable gross receipts attributed to providing public utility activity other than as an electric company under section 5727.03 of the Revised Code for the year upon which the taxable gross receipts are measured immediately preceding the tax year, and the denominator of which is the total gross receipts from all sources for the year upon which the taxable gross receipts are measured immediately preceding the tax year. Nothing herein shall be construed to exclude from the denominator any item of income described in section 5733.051 of the Revised Code.

(3) Subject to division (J)(4) of this section, the total tax calculated in division (C) of this section shall be reduced by an amount calculated by multiplying such tax by the fraction described in division (J)(2) of this section.

(4) In no event shall the reduction provided by division (J)(2) or (J)(3) of this section exceed the amount of the excise tax paid in accordance with section 5727.38 of the Revised Code, for the year upon which the taxable gross receipts are measured immediately preceding the tax year.

Sec. 5733.0611. (A) There is hereby allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code. The credit shall be equal to the taxpayer's proportionate share of the lesser of either the tax due or the tax paid by any qualifying entity under section 5733.41 of the Revised Code for the qualifying taxable year of the qualifying entity that ends in the taxable year of the taxpayer. The taxpayer shall claim the credit for the taxpayer's taxable year in which ends the qualifying entity's qualifying taxable year.

In claiming the credit and determining its proportionate share of the tax due and the tax paid by the qualifying entity, the person claiming the credit shall follow the concepts set forth in subchapter K of the Internal Revenue Code. Nothing in this division shall be construed to limit or disallow pass-through treatment of a pass-through entity's income, deductions, credits, or other amounts necessary to compute the tax imposed and the credits allowed under this chapter.

The credit shall be claimed in the order required under section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. Any unused credit shall be allowed as a credit in the ensuing tax year. Any such amount allowed as a credit in an ensuing tax year shall be deducted from the balance carried forward to the next ensuing tax year.

(B) Any person that is not a taxpayer solely by reason of division (A) or (C) of section 5733.09 of the Revised Code or a person described in section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code or division (F) of section 3334.01 of the Revised Code, but that would be entitled to claim the nonrefundable credit under this section if that person were a taxpayer, may file an application for refund pursuant to section 5733.12 of the Revised Code. Upon proper application for refund under that section, the tax commissioner shall issue a refund in the amount of the credit to which that person would have been entitled under division (A)(1) of this section if the person had been a taxpayer, and as if the credit were a refundable credit.

(C) If an organization described in section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or a trust or fund is entitled to a proportionate share of the lesser of either the tax due or the tax paid by any qualifying entity under section 5733.41 of the Revised Code, and if that proportionate share is then or could be allocable to an exempt person as defined in division (D) of this section, then the organization, trust, or fund may file an application for refund with respect to such allocable amounts pursuant to section 5733.12 of the Revised Code. Upon proper application for refund under that section, the tax commissioner shall issue a refund in the amount of the credit to which the organization, trust, or fund would have been entitled under division (A)(1) of this section had the organization, trust, or fund been a taxpayer, and as if the credit were a refundable credit. To the extent that such an organization, trust, or fund is permitted to apply for a refund under this division, or to the extent that such an organization, trust, or fund has applied for such a refund, exempt persons are not entitled to the credit authorized under this section or section 5747.059 of the Revised Code.

(D)(1) For the purposes of division (C) of this section only, "exempt person" means any of the following:

(a) A person that is or may be the beneficiary of a trust if the trust is subject to Subchapter D of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) A person that is or may be the beneficiary of or the recipient of payments from a nuclear decommissioning reserve fund, a designated settlement fund, or any other trust or fund established to resolve and satisfy claims that may otherwise be asserted by the beneficiary or a member of the beneficiary's family. Sections 267(c)(4), 468A(e), and 468B(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code apply to the determination of whether such a person is an exempt person under division (D) of this section.

(c) A person, other than a person that is treated as a C corporation for federal income tax purposes, who is or may be the beneficiary of a trust that, under its governing instrument, is not required to distribute all of its income currently. Division (D)(1)(c) of this section applies only if the trust irrevocably agrees that for the taxable year during or for which the trust distributes any of its income to any of the beneficiaries, the trust is a qualifying trust as defined in section 5733.40 of the Revised Code and will pay the estimated tax, and will withhold and pay the withheld tax as required under section 5733.41 and sections 5747.40 to 5747.453 of the Revised Code.

(2) An exempt person does not include any person that would not qualify as an exempt person under the doctrines of "economic reality," "sham transaction," "step doctrine," or "substance over form." Notwithstanding ~~sections 5733.111 and 5747.131~~ section 5703.56 of the Revised Code to the contrary, an organization, trust, or fund described in division (C) of this section bears the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that any transaction giving rise to a claim for a refundable credit under this section does not have as a principal purpose a claim for that credit. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit solely to this section the application of the doctrines referred to in division (D)(2) of this section.

(E) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow a refund more than once with respect to the taxes imposed under section 5733.41 or 5747.41 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5733.09. (A) ~~An~~ (1) Except as provided in divisions (A)(2) and (3) of this section, an incorporated company, whether foreign or domestic, owning and operating a public utility in this state, and required by law to file reports with the tax commissioner and to pay an excise tax upon its gross receipts, and insurance, fraternal, beneficial, bond investment, and other corporations required by law to file annual reports with the superintendent of insurance and dealers in intangibles, the shares of which are, or the capital or ownership in capital employed by such dealer is, subject to the taxes imposed by section 5707.03 of the Revised Code, shall not be subject to this chapter, except for sections 5733.031, 5733.042, 5733.05, 5733.052, 5733.053, 5733.069, 5733.0611, 5733.40, 5733.41, and sections 5747.40 to 5747.453 of the Revised Code. However, for reports required to be filed under section 5725.14 of the Revised Code in 2003 and thereafter, nothing in this section shall be construed to exempt the property of any dealer in intangibles under section 5725.13 of the Revised Code from the tax imposed under section 5707.03 of the Revised Code. ~~Am~~

(2) An electric company subject to the filing requirements of section 5727.08 of the Revised Code or otherwise having nexus with or in this state under the Constitution of the United States, or any other corporation having any gross receipts directly attributable to providing public utility service as an electric company or having any property directly attributable to providing public utility service as an electric company, is subject to this chapter.

(3) A telephone company that no longer pays an excise tax under section 5727.30 of the Revised Code on its gross receipts billed after June 30, 2004, is first subject to taxation under this chapter for tax year 2005. For that tax year, a telephone company with a taxable year ending in 2004 shall compute the tax imposed under this chapter, and shall compute the net operating loss carry forward for tax year 2005, by multiplying the tax owed under this chapter, net of all nonrefundable credits, or the loss for the taxable year, by fifty per cent.

(B) A corporation that has made an election under subchapter S, chapter one, subtitle A, of the Internal Revenue Code for its taxable year under such code is exempt from the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code that is based on that taxable year.

A corporation that makes such an election shall file a notice of such election with the tax commissioner between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of each tax year that the election is in effect.

(C) An entity defined to be a "real estate investment trust" by section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code, a "regulated investment company" by section 851 of the Internal Revenue Code, or a "real estate mortgage investment conduit" by section 860D of the Internal Revenue Code, is exempt from taxation for a tax year as a corporation under this chapter and is exempt from taxation for a return year as a dealer in intangibles under Chapter 5725. of the Revised Code if it provides the report required by this division. By the last day of March of the tax or return year the entity shall submit to the tax commissioner the name of the entity with a list of the names, addresses, and social security or federal identification numbers of all investors, shareholders, and other similar investors who owned any interest or invested in the entity during the preceding calendar year. The commissioner may extend the date by which the report must be submitted for reasonable cause shown by the entity. The commissioner may prescribe the form of the report required for exemption under this division.

(D)(1) As used in this division:

(a) "Commercial printer" means a person primarily engaged in the business of commercial printing. However, "commercial printer" does not include a person primarily engaged in the business of providing duplicating services using photocopy machines or other xerographic processes.

(b) "Commercial printing" means printing by one or more common processes such as letterpress, lithography, gravure, screen, or digital imaging, and includes related activities such as binding, platemaking, prepress operation, cartographic composition, and typesetting.

(c) "Contract for printing" means an oral or written agreement for the purchase of printed materials produced by a commercial printer.

(d) "Intangible property located at the premises of a commercial printer" means intangible property of any kind owned or licensed by a customer of the commercial printer and furnished to the commercial printer for use in commercial printing.

(e) "Printed material" means any tangible personal property produced or processed by a commercial printer pursuant to a contract for printing.

(f) "Related member" has the same meaning as in ~~division (A)(6) of~~ section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard to division (B) of that section.

(2) Except as provided in divisions (D)(3) and (4) of this section, a corporation not otherwise subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for a tax year does not become subject to that tax for the tax year solely by reason of any one or more of the following occurring in this state during the taxable year that ends immediately prior to the tax year:

(a) Ownership by the corporation or a related member of the corporation of tangible personal property or intangible property located during all or any portion of the taxable year or on the first day of the tax year at the premises of a commercial printer with which the corporation or the corporation's related member has a contract for printing with respect to such property or the premises of a commercial printer's related member with which the corporation or the corporation's related member has a contract for printing with respect to such property;

(b) Sales by the corporation or a related member of the corporation of property produced at and shipped or distributed from the premises of a commercial printer with which the corporation or the corporation's related member has a contract for printing with respect to such property or the premises of a commercial printer's related member with which the corporation or the corporation's related member has a contract for printing with respect to such property;

(c) Activities of employees, officers, agents, or contractors of the corporation or a related member of the corporation on the premises of a commercial printer with which the corporation or the corporation's related member has a contract for printing or the premises of a commercial printer's related member with which the corporation or the corporation's related member has a contract for printing, where the activities are directly and solely related to quality control, distribution, or printing services, or any combination thereof, performed by or at the direction of the commercial printer or the commercial printer's related member.

(3) The exemption under this division does not apply for a taxable year to any corporation having on the first day of January of the tax year or at any time during the taxable year ending immediately preceding the first day of January of the tax year a related member which, on the first day of January of the tax year or during any portion of such taxable year of the corporation, has nexus in or with this state under the Constitution of the United States or holds a certificate of compliance with the laws of this state authorizing it to do business in this state.

(4) With respect to allowing the exemption under this division, the tax commissioner shall be guided by the doctrines of "economic reality," "sham transaction," "step transaction," and "substance over form." A corporation shall bear the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that any transaction giving rise to an exemption claimed under this division did not have as a principal purpose the avoidance of any portion of the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code.

Application of the doctrines listed in division (D)(4) of this section is not limited to this division.

Sec. 5733.121. If a corporation entitled to a refund under section 5733.11 or 5733.12 of the Revised Code is indebted to this state for any tax, workers' compensation premium due under section 4123.35 of the Revised Code, unemployment compensation contribution due under section 4141.25 of the Revised Code, or unemployment compensation payment in lieu of contribution under section 4141.241 of the Revised Code or fee ~~administered by the tax commissioner~~ that is paid to the state or to the clerk of courts pursuant to section 4505.06 of the Revised Code, or any charge, penalty, or interest arising from such a tax, workers' compensation premium, unemployment compensation contribution, or unemployment compensation payment in lieu of contribution under section 4141.241 of the Revised Code or fee, the amount refundable may be applied in satisfaction of the debt. If the amount refundable is less than the amount of the debt, it may be applied in partial satisfaction of the debt. If the amount refundable is greater than the amount of the debt, the amount remaining after satisfaction of the debt shall be refunded. If the corporation has more than one such debt, any debt subject to section 5739.33 or division (G) of section 5747.07 of the Revised Code shall be satisfied first. This section applies only to debts that have become final.

The tax commissioner may, with the consent of the taxpayer, provide for the crediting, against tax due for any tax year, of the amount of any refund due the taxpayer under this chapter for a preceding tax year.

Sec. 5733.18. Annually, on the day fixed for the payment of any excise or franchise tax required to be paid by law, such tax, together with any penalties subsequently accruing thereon, shall become a lien on all property in this state of a corporation, whether such property is employed by the corporation in the prosecution of its business or is in the hands of an assignee, trustee, or receiver for the benefit of the creditors and stockholders. Such lien shall continue until such taxes, together with any penalties subsequently accruing, are paid.

Upon failure of such corporation to pay such tax on the day fixed for payment, the tax commissioner may file, for which filing no fee shall be charged, in the office of the county recorder in each county in this state in which such corporation owns or has a beneficial interest in real estate, notice of such lien containing a brief description of such real estate. Such lien shall not be valid as against any mortgagee, purchaser, or judgment creditor whose rights have attached prior to the time such notice is so filed in the county in which the real estate which is the subject of such mortgage, purchase, or judgment lien is located. Such notice shall be recorded in a book kept by the recorder, called the corporation franchise lien record, and indexed under the name of the corporation charged with such tax. When such tax, together with any penalties subsequently accruing thereon, has been paid, the tax commissioner shall furnish to the corporation an acknowledgment of such payment which the corporation may record with the recorder of each county in which notice of such lien has been filed, for which recording the recorder shall charge and receive a base fee of two dollars for services and a housing trust fund fee of two dollars pursuant to section 317.36 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5733.22. (A)(1) Any corporation whose articles of incorporation or license certificate to do or transact business in this state has been canceled by the secretary of state pursuant to section 5733.20 of the Revised Code for failure to make any report or return or to pay any tax or fee, shall be reinstated and again entitled to exercise its rights, privileges, and franchises in this state, and the secretary of state shall cancel the entry of cancellation to exercise its rights, privileges, and franchises upon compliance with all of the following:

(a) Payment to the secretary of state of any additional fees and penalties required to be paid to the secretary of state;

(b) Filing with the secretary of state a certificate from the tax commissioner that it has complied with all the requirements of law as to franchise or excise tax reports and paid all franchise or excise taxes, fees, or penalties due thereon for every year of its delinquency;

(c) Payment to the secretary of state of an additional fee of ten dollars.

(2) The applicant for reinstatement shall be required by the secretary of state, as a condition prerequisite to such reinstatement, to amend its articles by changing its name if all of the following apply:

(a) The reinstatement is not made within one year from the date of the cancellation of its articles of incorporation or date of the cancellation of its license to do business;

(b) It appears that the applicant's articles of incorporation or license certificate has been issued to another entity and is not distinguishable upon the record from the name of the applicant;

(c) It appears that the articles of organization of a limited liability company, registration of a foreign limited liability company, certificate of limited partnership, registration of a foreign limited partnership, registration of a domestic or foreign limited liability partnership, or registration of a trade name has been issued to another entity and is not distinguishable upon the record from the name of the applicant. A certificate of reinstatement may be filed in the recorder's office of any county in the state, for which the recorder shall charge and collect a base fee of three dollars for services and a housing trust fund fee of three dollars pursuant to section 317.36 of the Revised Code.

Any officer, shareholder, creditor, or receiver of any such corporation may at any time take all steps required by this section to effect such reinstatement.

(B) The rights, privileges, and franchises of a corporation whose articles of incorporation have been reinstated in accordance with this section, are subject to section 1701.922 of the Revised Code.

(C) Notwithstanding a violation of section 5733.21 of the Revised Code, upon reinstatement of a corporation's articles of incorporation in accordance with this section, neither section 5733.20 nor section 5733.21 of the Revised Code shall be applied to invalidate the exercise or attempt to exercise any right, privilege, or franchise on behalf of the corporation by an officer, agent, or employee of the corporation after cancellation and prior to the reinstatement of the articles, if the conditions set forth in divisions (B)(1)(a) and (b) of section 1701.922 of the Revised Code are met.

Sec. 5733.45. (A) For purposes of this section, a "qualifying dealer in intangibles" is a dealer in intangibles that is a member of a qualifying controlled group of which a financial institution is also a member on the first day of the financial institution's tax year.

(B) For tax years 2002 and thereafter, there is hereby allowed to each financial institution a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code. The amount of the credit shall be computed in accordance with division (C) of this section. The credit shall be claimed in the order prescribed by section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. The credit shall not exceed the amount of tax otherwise due under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code after deducting any other credits that precede the credit claimed under this section in that order.

(C) Subject to division (D) of this section, the amount of the nonrefundable credit is the lesser of the amount described in division (C)(1) of this section or the amount described in division (C)(2) of this section.

(1) The amount of tax that a qualifying dealer in intangibles paid under Chapter 5707. of the Revised Code during the calendar year immediately preceding the financial institution's tax year. Such amount shall be reduced, but not below zero, by any refunds of such tax received by the qualifying dealer in intangibles under Chapter 5703. of the Revised Code during that calendar year.

(2) The product of the amounts described in division (C)(2)(a) to (C)(2)(c) of this section. The amount described in division (C)(2)(a) of this section shall be ascertained on the last day of the financial institution's taxable year immediately preceding the tax year.

(a) The cost of the financial institution's direct investment in the capital stock of the qualifying dealer in intangibles. The cost does not include any appreciation or goodwill to the extent those amounts are allowed as an exempted asset on the financial institution's annual report.

(b) The ratio described in section 5725.15 of the Revised Code for the calendar year immediately preceding the financial institution's tax year;

(c) The tax rate imposed under division (D) of section 5707.03 of the Revised Code for the calendar year immediately preceding the financial institution's tax year.

(D)(1) The principles and concepts set forth in section 5733.057 of the Revised Code shall apply to ascertain if a dealer in intangibles is a member of a qualifying controlled group of which the financial institution also is a member and to ascertain the cost of the financial institution's direct investment in the capital stock of the qualifying dealer in intangibles.

(2) Notwithstanding section ~~5733.111~~ 5703.56 of the Revised Code to the contrary, a financial institution claiming the credit provided by this section has the burden to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that none of the doctrines enumerated in that section would apply to deny to the financial institution all or a part of the credit otherwise provided by this section.

(E) For tax years 2002 and 2003, the credit allowed by this section applies only if the qualifying dealer in intangibles on account of which the financial institution is claiming the credit submits to the ~~Tax Commissioner~~ tax commissioner, not later than January 15, 2002, a written statement that the qualifying dealer in intangibles irrevocably agrees that it will not seek a refund of the tax paid by the dealer under section 5707.03 of the Revised Code in 2000 and 2001, and irrevocably agrees to continue paying that tax in 2002, regardless of the amendment of section 5725.26 of the Revised Code by Am. Sub. H.B. 405 of the 124th general assembly.

Sec. 5733.49. Upon the issuance of a tax credit certificate by the Ohio venture capital authority under section 150.07 of the Revised Code, a credit may be claimed against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code. The credit shall be claimed for the tax year specified in the certificate issued by the authority and in the order required under section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. If the taxpayer elected a refundable credit under section 150.07 of the Revised Code, and the amount of the credit shown on the certificate exceeds the tax otherwise due under sections 5733.06, 5733.065, and 5733.066 of the Revised Code after all credits, including the credit allowed under this section, are deducted in that order, the taxpayer shall receive a refund equal to seventy-five per cent of that excess. If the taxpayer elected a nonrefundable credit, the amount of the credit, claimed in that order, shall not exceed the tax otherwise due under those sections after all the taxpayer's credits are deducted in that order. If the taxpayer elected a nonrefundable credit and the credit to which the taxpayer would otherwise be entitled under this section for any tax year is greater than the tax otherwise due under sections 5733.06, 5733.065, and 5733.066 of the Revised Code, after allowing for any other credits that precede the credit allowed under this section, the excess shall be allowed as a credit in each of the ensuing ten tax years, but the amount of any excess credit allowed in the ensuing tax year shall be deducted from the balance carried forward to the next tax year.

Sec. 5733.55. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "9-1-1 system" has the same meaning as in section 4931.40 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges" means nonrecurring charges approved by the public utilities commission for the telephone network portion of a 9-1-1 system pursuant to section 4931.47 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Eligible nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges" means all nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges for a 9-1-1 system, except:

(a) Charges for a system that was not established pursuant to a plan adopted under section 4931.44 of the Revised Code or an agreement under section 4931.48 of the Revised Code;

(b) Charges for that part of a system established pursuant to such a plan or agreement that are excluded from the credit by division (C)(2) of section 4931.47 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Telephone company" has the same meaning as in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) Beginning in tax year 2005, a telephone company shall be allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code equal to the amount of its eligible nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges. The credit shall be claimed for the company's taxable year that covers the period in which the 9-1-1 service for which the credit is claimed becomes available for use. The credit shall be claimed in the order required by section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. If the credit exceeds the total taxes due under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for the tax year, the commissioner shall credit the excess against taxes due under that section for succeeding tax years until the full amount of the credit is granted.

(C) After the last day a return, with any extensions, may be filed by any telephone company that is eligible to claim a credit under this section, the commissioner shall determine whether the sum of the credits allowed for prior tax years commencing with tax year 2005 plus the sum of the credits claimed for the current tax year exceeds fifteen million dollars. If it does, the credits allowed under this section for the current tax year shall be reduced by a uniform percentage such that the sum of the credits allowed for the current tax year do not exceed fifteen million dollars claimed by all telephone companies for all tax years. Thereafter, no credit shall be granted under this section, except for the remaining portions of any credits allowed under division (B) of this section.

(D) A telephone company that is entitled to carry forward a credit against its public utility excise tax liability under section 5727.39 of the Revised Code is entitled to carry forward any amount of that credit remaining after its last public utility excise tax payment for the period of July 1, 2003, through June 30, 2004, and claim that amount as a credit against its corporation franchise tax liability under this section. Nothing in this section authorizes a telephone company to claim a credit under this section for any eligible nonrecurring 9-1-1 charges for which it has already claimed a credit under section 5727.39 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5733.56. Beginning in tax year 2005, a telephone company that provides any telephone service program to aid the communicatively impaired in accessing the telephone network under section 4905.79 of the Revised Code is allowed a nonrefundable credit against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code. The amount of the credit is the cost incurred by the company for providing the telephone service program during its taxable year, excluding any costs incurred prior to July 1, 2004. If the tax commissioner determines that the credit claimed under this section by a telephone company was not correct, the commissioner shall determine the proper credit.

A telephone company shall claim the credit in the order required by section 5733.98 of the Revised Code. If the credit exceeds the total taxes due under section 5733.06 of the Revised Code for the tax year, the commissioner shall credit the excess against taxes due under that section for succeeding tax years until the full amount of the credit is granted. Nothing in this section authorizes a telephone company to claim a credit under this section for any costs incurred for providing a telephone service program for which it is claiming a credit under former section 5727.44 of the Revised Code.

The credit shall be claimed in the order required by section 5733.98 of the Revised Code.

(2) If the applicable amount for a tax year is less than zero, a small telephone company shall not be allowed for that tax year the credit provided under this section.

(1) The sale of dyed diesel fuel by a licensed motor fuel dealer from a location other than a retail service station provided the licensed motor fuel dealer places on the face of the delivery document or invoice, or both if both are used, a conspicuous notice stating that the fuel is dyed and is not for taxable use, and that taxable use of that fuel is subject to a penalty. The tax commissioner, by rule, may provide that any notice conforming to rules or regulations issued by the United States department of the treasury or the Internal Revenue Service is sufficient notice for the purposes of division (A)(1) of this section.

(2) The sale of K-1 kerosene to a retail service station, except when placed directly in the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle. A person shall not be reimbursed for taxes paid on fuel that is used while a motor vehicle is idling or used to provide comfort or safety in the operation of a motor vehicle. The commissioner may require that the application be supported by the affidavit of the claimant.

The refund authorized by this section or section 5703.70 of the Revised Code shall be reduced by the cents per gallon amount of any qualified fuel credit received under section 5735.145 of the Revised Code, as determined by the commissioner, for each gallon of qualified fuel included in the total gallonage of motor fuel upon which the refund is computed.

(E) The right to receive any refund under this section or section 5703.70 of the Revised Code is not assignable. The payment of this refund shall not be made to any person other than the person originally entitled thereto who used the motor fuel upon which the claim for refund is based, except that such refunds, when allowed and certified as provided in this section, may be paid to the executor, ~~the~~ administrator, ~~the~~ receiver, ~~the~~ trustee in bankruptcy, or ~~the~~ assignee in insolvency proceedings of such person.

(C) After consideration of the application and statement, the commissioner shall determine the amount of refund to which the applicant is entitled. If the amount is less than that claimed, the commissioner shall proceed in accordance with section 5703.70 of the Revised Code.

The commissioner may require that the application be supported by the affidavit of the claimant. No refund shall be authorized or ordered for any single claim for the tax on fewer than one hundred gallons of motor fuel. No refund shall be authorized or ordered on motor fuel that is sold by a school district or educational service center.

(D) The refund authorized by this section or section 5703.70 of the Revised Code shall be reduced by the cents per gallon amount of any qualified fuel credit received under section 5735.145 of the Revised Code, as determined by the commissioner, for each gallon of qualified fuel included in the total gallonage of motor fuel upon which the refund is computed.

(E) The right to receive any refund under this section or section 5703.70 of the Revised Code is not assignable. The payment of this refund shall not be made to any person or entity other than the person or entity originally entitled thereto who used the motor fuel upon which the claim for refund is based, except that the refund when allowed and certified, as provided in this section, may be paid to the executor, the administrator, the receiver, the trustee in bankruptcy, or the assignee in insolvency proceedings of the person.

Upon transmission of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. No resolution adopted under this division shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it, and, except as provided in division (B)(3) of this section, shall become effective on the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of sixty-five days from the date ~~of notice to~~ the tax commissioner ~~by~~ receives notice from the board of elections of the affirmative vote.

Upon transmission of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. The ballot question shall be the same as that prescribed in section 5739.022 of the Revised Code. The board shall prepare the statement and the preliminary plan using the best information available to the board at the time the statement is prepared. Neither the statement nor the preliminary plan shall be used as a basis to challenge the validity of the tax in any court of competent jurisdiction, nor shall the statement or preliminary plan limit the authority of the board to appropriate, pursuant to section 5705.38 of the Revised Code, an amount different from that specified in the preliminary plan.

~~(C)~~(D) In lieu of collecting the tax pursuant to the schedules set forth in divisions (A) ~~and~~, (B), ~~and~~ (C) of this section, a vendor may compute the tax on each sale as follows:

(1) On sales of fifteen cents or less, no tax shall apply.

(2) On sales in excess of fifteen cents, multiply the price by the aggregate rate of taxes in effect under sections ~~5739.01~~ 5739.02 and 5741.02 and sections 5739.021, 5739.023, 5739.026, 5741.021, 5741.022, and 5741.023 of the Revised Code. The computation shall be carried out to six decimal places. If the result is a fractional amount of a cent, the calculated tax shall be increased to the next highest cent and that amount shall be collected by the vendor.

~~(D)~~(E) On and after January 1, 2006, a vendor shall compute the tax on each sale by multiplying the price by the aggregate rate of taxes in effect under sections 5739.02 and 5741.02, and sections 5739.021, 5739.023, 5739.026, 5741.021, 5741.022, and 5741.023 of the Revised Code. The computation shall be carried out to three decimal places. If the result is a fractional amount of a cent, the calculated tax shall be rounded to a whole cent using a method that rounds up to the next cent whenever the third decimal place is greater than four. A vendor may elect to compute the tax due on a transaction on an item or an invoice basis.

(F) In auditing a vendor, the tax commissioner shall consider the method prescribed by this section that was used by the vendor in determining and collecting the tax due under this chapter on taxable transactions. If the vendor correctly collects and remits the tax due under this chapter in accordance with the schedules in divisions (A) ~~and~~, (B), and (C) of this section or in accordance with the computation prescribed in division ~~(C)~~(D) or (E) of this section, the commissioner shall not assess any additional tax on those transactions.

(G)(1) With respect to a sale of a fractional ownership program aircraft used primarily in a fractional aircraft ownership program, including all accessories attached to such aircraft, the tax shall be calculated pursuant to divisions (A) to (E) of this section, provided that the tax commissioner shall modify those calculations so that the maximum tax on each program aircraft is eight hundred dollars. In the case of a sale of a fractional interest that is less than one hundred per cent of the program aircraft, the tax charged on the transaction shall be eight hundred dollars multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the percentage of ownership or possession in the aircraft being purchased in the transaction, and the denominator of which is one hundred per cent.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the tax calculated under division (G)(1) of this section and paid with respect to the sale of a fractional ownership program aircraft used primarily in a fractional aircraft ownership program shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

Sec. 5739.026. (A) A board of county commissioners may levy a tax of one-fourth or one-half of one per cent on every retail sale in the county, except sales of watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and sales of motor vehicles, and may increase an existing rate of one-fourth of one per cent to one-half of one per cent, to pay the expenses of administering the tax and, except as provided in division (A)(6) of this section, for any one or more of the following purposes provided that the aggregate levy for all such purposes does not exceed one-half of one per cent:

(1) To provide additional revenues for the payment of bonds or notes issued in anticipation of bonds issued by a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code and to provide additional operating revenues for the convention facilities authority;

(2) To provide additional revenues for a transit authority operating in the county;

(3) To provide additional revenue for the county's general fund;

(4) To provide additional revenue for permanent improvements within the county to be distributed by the community improvements board in accordance with section 307.283 and to pay principal, interest, and premium on bonds issued under section 307.284 of the Revised Code;

(5) To provide additional revenue for the acquisition, construction, equipping, or repair of any specific permanent improvement or any class or group of permanent improvements, which improvement or class or group of improvements shall be enumerated in the resolution required by division (D) of this section, and to pay principal, interest, premium, and other costs associated with the issuance of bonds or notes in anticipation of bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code for the acquisition, construction, equipping, or repair of the specific permanent improvement or class or group of permanent improvements;

(6) To provide revenue for the implementation and operation of a 9-1-1 system in the county. If the tax is levied or the rate increased exclusively for such purpose, the tax shall not be levied or the rate increased for more than five years. At the end of the last year the tax is levied or the rate increased, any balance remaining in the special fund established for such purpose shall remain in that fund and be used exclusively for such purpose until the fund is completely expended, and, notwithstanding section 5705.16 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners shall not petition for the transfer of money from such special fund, and the tax commissioner shall not approve such a petition.

If the tax is levied or the rate increased for such purpose for more than five years, the board of county commissioners also shall levy the tax or increase the rate of the tax for one or more of the purposes described in divisions (A)(1) to (5) of this section and shall prescribe the method for allocating the revenues from the tax each year in the manner required by division (C) of this section.

(7) To provide additional revenue for the operation or maintenance of a detention facility, as that term is defined under division (F) of section 2921.01 of the Revised Code;

(8) To provide revenue to finance the construction or renovation of a sports facility, but only if the tax is levied for that purpose in the manner prescribed by section 5739.028 of the Revised Code.

As used in division (A)(8) of this section:

(a) "Sports facility" means a facility intended to house major league professional athletic teams.

(b) "Constructing" or "construction" includes providing fixtures, furnishings, and equipment.

(9) To provide additional revenue for the acquisition of agricultural easements, as defined in section 5301.67 of the Revised Code; to pay principal, interest, and premium on bonds issued under section 133.60 of the Revised Code; and for the supervision and enforcement of agricultural easements held by the county.

Pursuant to section 755.171 of the Revised Code, a board of county commissioners may pledge and contribute revenue from a tax levied for the purpose of division (A)(5) of this section to the payment of debt charges on bonds issued under section 755.17 of the Revised Code.

The rate of tax shall be a multiple of one-fourth of one per cent, unless a portion of the rate of an existing tax levied under section 5739.023 of the Revised Code has been reduced, and the rate of tax levied under this section has been increased, pursuant to section 5739.028 of the Revised Code, in which case the aggregate of the rates of tax levied under this section and section 5739.023 of the Revised Code shall be a multiple of one-fourth of one per cent. The tax shall be levied and the rate increased pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board. The board shall deliver a certified copy of the resolution to the tax commissioner, not later than the sixty-fifth day prior to the date on which the tax is to become effective, which shall be the first day of a calendar quarter.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution to levy the tax or to increase the rate of tax exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings on the resolution, the second hearing to be no fewer than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of the hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being no fewer than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. Except as provided in division (E) of this section, the resolution shall ~~become effective on the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of sixty days from the date of its adoption,~~ be subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code. If the resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, it must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of county commissioners and shall state the reasons for the necessity.

If the tax is for more than one of the purposes set forth in divisions (A)(1) to (7) and (9) of this section or is exclusively for one of the purposes set forth in division (A)(1), (2), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (9) of this section, the resolution shall not go into effect unless it is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question of the tax.

(B) The board of county commissioners shall adopt a resolution under section 351.02 of the Revised Code creating the convention facilities authority, or under section 307.283 of the Revised Code creating the community improvements board, before adopting a resolution levying a tax for the purpose of a convention facilities authority under division (A)(1) of this section or for the purpose of a community improvements board under division (A)(4) of this section.

(C)(1) If the tax is to be used for more than one of the purposes set forth in divisions (A)(1) to (7) and (9) of this section, the board of county commissioners shall establish the method that will be used to determine the amount or proportion of the tax revenue received by the county during each year that will be distributed for each of those purposes, including, if applicable, provisions governing the reallocation of a convention facilities authority's allocation if the authority is dissolved while the tax is in effect. The allocation method may provide that different proportions or amounts of the tax shall be distributed among the purposes in different years, but it shall clearly describe the method that will be used for each year. Except as otherwise provided in division (C)(2) of this section, the allocation method established by the board is not subject to amendment during the life of the tax.

(2) Subsequent to holding a public hearing on the proposed amendment, the board of county commissioners may amend the allocation method established under division (C)(1) of this section for any year, if the amendment is approved by the governing board of each entity whose allocation for the year would be reduced by the proposed amendment. In the case of a tax that is levied for a continuing period of time, the board may not so amend the allocation method for any year before the sixth year that the tax is in effect.

(a) If the additional revenues provided to the convention facilities authority are pledged by the authority for the payment of convention facilities authority revenue bonds for as long as such bonds are outstanding, no reduction of the authority's allocation of the tax shall be made for any year except to the extent that the reduced authority allocation, when combined with the authority's other revenues pledged for that purpose, is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds.

(b) If the additional revenues provided to the county are pledged by the county for the payment of bonds or notes described in division (A)(4) or (5) of this section, for as long as such bonds or notes are outstanding, no reduction of the county's or the community improvements board's allocation of the tax shall be made for any year, except to the extent that the reduced county or community improvements board allocation is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds or notes.

(c) If the additional revenues provided to the transit authority are pledged by the authority for the payment of revenue bonds issued under section 306.37 of the Revised Code, for as long as such bonds are outstanding, no reduction of the authority's allocation of tax shall be made for any year, except to the extent that the authority's reduced allocation, when combined with the authority's other revenues pledged for that purpose, is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds.

(d) If the additional revenues provided to the county are pledged by the county for the payment of bonds or notes issued under section 133.60 of the Revised Code, for so long as the bonds or notes are outstanding, no reduction of the county's allocation of the tax shall be made for any year, except to the extent that the reduced county allocation is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on the bonds or notes.

(D)(1) The resolution levying the tax or increasing the rate of tax shall state the rate of the tax or the rate of the increase; the purpose or purposes for which it is to be levied; the number of years for which it is to be levied or that it is for a continuing period of time; the allocation method required by division (C) of this section; and if required to be submitted to the electors of the county under division (A) of this section, the date of the election at which the proposal shall be submitted to the electors of the county, which shall be not less than seventy-five days after the certification of a copy of the resolution to the board of elections and, if the tax is to be levied exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section, shall not occur in February or August of any year. Upon certification of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. If approved by a majority of the electors, the tax shall become effective on the first day of a calendar quarter next following the ~~sixtieth~~ sixty-fifth day following the ~~certification of the results of the election to date~~ the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner by receive from the board of elections the certification of the results of the election, except as provided in division (E) of this section.

(2)(a) A resolution specifying that the tax is to be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section that is not adopted as an emergency measure may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax or increasing the rate of the tax to the electors of the county at a special election held on the date specified by the board of county commissioners in the resolution, provided that the election occurs not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections and the election is not held in February or August of any year. Upon certification of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. No resolution adopted under division (D)(2)(a) of this section shall go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it and, except as provided in division (E) of this section, not until the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of sixty-five days from the date ~~of the notice to~~ the tax commissioner by receives notice from the board of elections of the affirmative vote.

(b) A resolution specifying that the tax is to be used exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section that is adopted as an emergency measure shall become effective as provided in division (A) of this section, but may direct the board of elections to submit the question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax to the electors of the county at the next general election in the county occurring not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections. Upon certification of the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. The ballot question shall be the same as that prescribed in section 5739.022 of the Revised Code. The board of elections shall notify the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the result of the election immediately after the result has been declared. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax vote for repeal of the tax or repeal of the increase, the board of county commissioners, on the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of sixty-five days after the date ~~at the board and tax commissioner~~ received notice of the result of the election, shall, in the case of a repeal of the tax, cease to levy the tax, or, in the case of a repeal of an increase in the rate of the tax, cease to levy the increased rate and levy the tax at the rate at which it was imposed immediately prior to the increase in rate.

(c) A board of county commissioners, by resolution, may reduce the rate of a tax levied exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section to a lower rate authorized by this section. Any such reduction shall be made effective on the first day of the calendar quarter ~~specified in the resolution, but not sooner than the first day of the month~~ next following the ~~sixtieth~~ sixty-fifth day after the ~~resolution is certified to the tax commissioner~~ receives a certified copy of the resolution from the board.

(E) If a vendor that is registered with the central electronic registration system provided for in section 5740.05 of the Revised Code makes a sale in this state by printed catalog and the consumer computed the tax on the sale based on local rates published in the catalog, any tax levied or repealed or rate changed under this section shall not apply to such a sale until the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of one hundred twenty days from the date of notice by the tax commissioner ~~to the vendor, or to the vendor's certified service provider, if the vendor has selected one~~ pursuant to division (G) of this section.

(F) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and any tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.023 of the Revised Code.

A county that levies a tax pursuant to this section shall levy a tax at the same rate pursuant to section 5741.023 of the Revised Code.

The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected pursuant to section 5739.025 of the Revised Code.

Any tax levied pursuant to this section is subject to the exemptions provided in section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and in addition shall not be applicable to sales not within the taxing power of a county under the Constitution of the United States or the Ohio Constitution.

(G) Upon receipt from a board of county commissioners of a certified copy of a resolution required by division (A) of this section, or from the board of elections a notice of the results of an election required by division (D)(1), (2)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, the tax commissioner shall provide notice of a tax rate change in a manner that is reasonably accessible to all affected vendors. The commissioner shall provide this notice at least sixty days prior to the effective date of the rate change. The commissioner, by rule, may establish the method by which notice will be provided.

Sec. 5739.03. Except as provided in section 5739.05 of the Revised Code, the tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code shall be paid by the consumer to the vendor, and each vendor shall collect from the consumer, as a trustee for the state of Ohio, the full and exact amount of the tax payable on each taxable sale, in the manner and at the times provided as follows:

(A) If the price is, at or prior to the provision of the service or the delivery of possession of the thing sold to the consumer, paid in currency passed from hand to hand by the consumer or the consumer's agent to the vendor or the vendor's agent, the vendor or the vendor's agent shall collect the tax with and at the same time as the price;

(B) If the price is otherwise paid or to be paid, the vendor or the vendor's agent shall, at or prior to the provision of the service or the delivery of possession of the thing sold to the consumer, charge the tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code to the account of the consumer, which amount shall be collected by the vendor from the consumer in addition to the price. Such sale shall be reported on and the amount of the tax applicable thereto shall be remitted with the return for the period in which the sale is made, and the amount of the tax shall become a legal charge in favor of the vendor and against the consumer.

If any sale is claimed to be exempt under division (E) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code or under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, with the exception of divisions (B)(1) to (11) or (28) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the consumer must furnish to the vendor, and the vendor must obtain from the consumer, a certificate specifying the reason that the sale is not legally subject to the tax. If the transaction is claimed to be exempt under division (B)(13) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the exemption certificate shall be signed by both the contractor and the contractee and such contractee shall be deemed to be the consumer of all items purchased under such claim of exemption in the event it is subsequently determined that the exemption is not properly claimed. The certificate shall be in such form as the tax commissioner by regulation prescribes. If no certificate is furnished or obtained within the period for filing the return for the period in which such sale is consummated, it shall be presumed that the tax applies. ~~The~~ Failure to have so furnished, or to have so obtained, a certificate shall not prevent a vendor or consumer from establishing that the sale is not ~~subject~~ subject to the tax within ~~sixty~~ one hundred twenty days of the giving of notice by the commissioner of intention to levy an ~~assasment~~ assessment, in which event the tax shall not apply.

Certificates need not be obtained nor furnished where the identity of the consumer is such that the transaction is never subject to the tax imposed or where the item of tangible personal property sold or the service provided is never subject to the tax imposed, regardless of use, or when the sale is in interstate commerce.

(C) As used in this division, "contractee" means a person who seeks to enter or enters into a contract or agreement with a contractor or vendor for the construction of real property or for the sale and installation onto real property of tangible personal property.

Any contractor or vendor may request from any contractee a certification of what portion of the property to be transferred under such contract or agreement is to be incorporated into the realty and what portion will retain its status as tangible personal property after installation is completed. The contractor or vendor shall request the certification by certified mail delivered to the contractee, return receipt requested. Upon receipt of such request and prior to entering into the contract or agreement, the contractee shall furnish to the contractor or vendor a certification sufficiently detailed to enable the contractor or vendor to ascertain the resulting classification of all materials purchased or fabricated by the contractor or vendor and transferred to the contractee. This requirement applies to a contractee regardless of whether the contractee holds a direct payment permit under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code or furnishes to the contractor or vendor an exemption certificate as provided under this section.

For the purposes of the taxes levied by this chapter and Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code, the contractor or vendor may in good faith rely on the contractee's certification. Notwithstanding division (B) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, if the tax commissioner determines that certain property certified by the contractee as tangible personal property pursuant to this division is, in fact, real property, the contractee shall be considered to be the consumer of all materials so incorporated into that real property and shall be liable for the applicable tax, and the contractor or vendor shall be excused from any liability on those materials.

If a contractee fails to provide such certification upon the request of the contractor or vendor, the contractor or vendor shall comply with the provisions of this chapter and Chapter 5741. of the Revised Code without the certification. If the tax commissioner determines that such compliance has been performed in good faith and that certain property treated as tangible personal property by the contractor or vendor is, in fact, real property, the contractee shall be considered to be the consumer of all materials so incorporated into that real property and shall be liable for the applicable tax and the construction contractor or vendor shall be excused from any liability on those materials.

This division does not apply to any contract or agreement where the tax commissioner determines as a fact that a certification under this division was made solely on the decision or advice of the contractor or vendor.

(D) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, whenever the total rate of tax imposed under this chapter is increased after the date after a construction contract is entered into, the contractee shall reimburse the construction contractor for any additional tax paid on tangible property consumed or services received pursuant to the contract.

(E) A vendor who files a petition for reassessment contesting the assessment of tax on sales for which the vendor obtained no valid exemption certificates and for which the vendor failed to establish that the sales were properly not subject to the tax during the one-hundred-twenty-day period allowed under division (B) of this section, may present to the tax commissioner additional evidence to prove that the sales were properly subject to a claim of exception or exemption. The vendor shall file such evidence within ninety days of the receipt by the vendor of the notice of assessment, except that, upon application and for reasonable cause, the period for submitting such evidence shall be extended thirty days.

The commissioner shall consider such additional evidence in reaching the final determination on the assessment and petition for reassessment.

(F) Whenever a vendor refunds to the consumer the full price of an item of tangible personal property on which the tax imposed under this chapter has been paid, the vendor shall also refund the full amount of the tax paid.

Sec. 5739.032. (A) If the total amount of tax required to be paid by a permit holder under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code for any calendar year ~~indicated in the following schedule~~ equals or exceeds ~~the amounts prescribed for that year in the schedule~~ seventy-five thousand dollars, the permit holder shall remit each monthly tax payment in the second ensuing and each succeeding year by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by division (B) of this section.

Year	1992	1993 through 1999	2000 and thereafter

If a permit holder's tax payment for each of two consecutive years ~~beginning with 2000~~ is less than ~~sixty~~ seventy-five thousand dollars, the permit holder is relieved of the requirement to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer for the year that next follows the second of the consecutive years in which the tax payment is less than ~~sixty thousand dollars~~ that amount, and is relieved of that requirement for each succeeding year, unless the tax payment in a subsequent year equals or exceeds ~~sixty~~ seventy-five thousand dollars.

The tax commissioner shall notify each permit holder required to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer of the permit holder's obligation to do so, shall maintain an updated list of those permit holders, and shall timely certify the list and any additions thereto or deletions therefrom to the treasurer of state. Failure by the tax commissioner to notify a permit holder subject to this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer does not relieve the permit holder of its obligation to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer.

(B) Permit holders required by division (A) of this section to remit payments by electronic funds transfer shall remit such payments to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by this section and rules adopted by the treasurer of state under section 113.061 of the Revised Code, and on or before the following dates:

(1) On or before each of the ~~eleventh, eighteenth,~~ fifteenth and twenty-fifth days of each month, a permit holder shall remit an amount equal to ~~one-fourth~~ thirty-seven and one-half per cent of the permit holder's total tax liability for the same month in the preceding calendar year.

(2) On or before the twenty-third day of each month, a permit holder shall report the taxes due for the previous month and shall remit that amount, less any amounts paid for that month as required by division (B)(1) of this section.

The payment of taxes by electronic funds transfer does not affect a permit holder's obligation to file the monthly return as required under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code.

(C) A permit holder required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer may apply to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by the treasurer of state to be excused from that requirement. The treasurer of state may excuse the permit holder from remittance by electronic funds transfer for good cause shown for the period of time requested by the permit holder or for a portion of that period. The treasurer of state shall notify the tax commissioner and the permit holder of the treasurer of state's decision as soon as is practicable.

(D)(1) If a permit holder that is required to remit payments under division (B) of this section fails to make a payment, the commissioner may impose an additional charge not to exceed five per cent of that unpaid amount.

(2) If a permit holder required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer remits those taxes by some means other than by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by this section and the rules adopted by the treasurer of state, and the tax commissioner determines that such failure was not due to reasonable cause or was due to willful neglect, the commissioner may impose an additional charge not to exceed the lesser of five per cent of the amount of the taxes required to be paid by electronic funds transfer or five thousand dollars.

(3) Any additional charge imposed under division (D)(1) or (2) of this section is in addition to any other penalty or charge imposed under this chapter, and shall be considered as revenue arising from taxes imposed under this chapter. An additional charge may be collected by assessment in the manner prescribed by section 5739.13 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may waive all or a portion of such a charge and may adopt rules governing such waiver.

No additional charge shall be imposed under division (D)(2) of this section against a permit holder that has been notified of its obligation to remit taxes under this section and that remits its first two tax payments after such notification by some means other than electronic funds transfer. The additional charge may be imposed upon the remittance of any subsequent tax payment that the permit holder remits by some means other than electronic funds transfer.

Sec. 5739.033. The amount of tax due pursuant to sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised Code is the sum of the taxes imposed pursuant to those sections at the situs of the sale as determined under this section or, if applicable, under division (C) of section 5739.031 of the Revised Code.

(A) Except as otherwise provided in this section, division (C) of section 5739.031, and section 5739.034 of the Revised Code, the situs of all sales is the vendor's place of business.

(1) If the consumer or the consumer's agent takes possession of the tangible personal property at a place of business of the vendor where the purchase contract or agreement was made, the situs of the sale is that place of business.

(2) If the consumer or the consumer's agent takes possession of the tangible personal property other than at a place of business of the vendor, or takes possession at a warehouse or similar facility of the vendor, the situs of the sale is the vendor's place of business where the purchase contract or agreement was made or the purchase order was received.

(3) If the vendor provides a service specified in division (B)(3)(a), (b), (c), (d), (n), ~~or (o), (r), (s), or (t)~~ of section 5739.01 or makes a sale specified in division (B)(8) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the vendor's place of business where the service is performed or the contract or agreement for the service was made or the purchase order was received.

(B) If the vendor is a transient vendor as specified in division (B) of section 5739.17 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the vendor's temporary place of business or, if the transient vendor is the lessor of titled motor vehicles, titled watercraft, or titled outboard motors, at the location where the lessee keeps the leased property.

(C) If the vendor makes sales of tangible personal property from a stock of goods carried in a motor vehicle, from which the purchaser makes selection and takes possession, or from which the vendor sells tangible personal property the quantity of which has not been determined prior to the time the purchaser takes possession, the situs of the sale is the location of the motor vehicle when the sale is made.

(D) If the vendor is a delivery vendor as specified in division (D) of section 5739.17 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the place where the tangible personal property is delivered, where the leased property is used, or where the service is performed or received.

(E) If the vendor provides a service specified in division (B)(3)(e), (g), (h), (j), (k), (l), ~~or (m), (q), or (u)~~ of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the location of the consumer where the service is performed or received.

(F) ~~Except as provided in division (I) or (J) of this section:~~

~~(1) If the vendor provides a service specified in division (B)(3)(f) or (i) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the location of the telephone number or account as reflected in the records of the vendor.~~

~~(2) In the case of a telecommunications service, if the telephone number or account is located outside this state, the situs of the sale is the location in this state from which the service originated.~~

(G) If the vendor provides lodging to transient guests as specified in division (B)(2) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, the situs of the sale is the location where the lodging is located.

~~(H)~~(G) If the vendor sells a warranty, maintenance or service contract, or similar agreement as specified in division (B)(7) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code and the vendor is a delivery vendor, the situs of the sale is the location of the consumer. If the vendor is not a delivery vendor, the situs of the sale is the vendor's place of business where the contract or agreement was made, unless the warranty or contract is a component of the sale of a titled motor vehicle, titled watercraft, or titled outboard motor, in which case the situs of the sale is the county of titling.

~~(F)~~(H) Except as otherwise provided in this division, if the vendor sells a prepaid authorization number or a prepaid telephone calling card, the situs of the sale is the vendor's place of business and shall be taxed at the time of sale. If the vendor sells a prepaid authorization number or prepaid telephone calling card through a telephone call, electronic commerce, or any other form of remote commerce, the situs of the sale is the consumer's shipping address, or, if there is no item shipped, at the consumer's billing address.

Sec. 5739.034. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Air-to-ground radiotelephone service" means a radio service, as defined in 47 C.F.R. 22.99, in which common carriers are authorized to offer and provide radio telecommunications service for hire to subscribers in aircraft.

(2) "Call-by-call basis" means any method of charging for telecommunications services where the price is measured by individual calls.

(3) "Customer" means the person or entity that contracts with a seller of telecommunications service. If the end user of telecommunications service is not the contracting party, the end user of the telecommunications service is the customer of the telecommunications service. "Customer" does not include a reseller of telecommunications service or of mobile telecommunications service of a serving carrier under an agreement to serve the customer outside the home service provider's licensed service area.

(4) "End user" means the person who utilizes the telecommunications service. In the case of a person other than an individual, "end user" means the individual who utilizes the service on behalf of the person.

(5) "Home service provider" has the same meaning as in the "Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act," Pub. L. No. 106-252, 114 Stat. 631 (2000), 4 U.S.C. 124(5), as amended.

(6) "Place of primary use" means the street address representative of where the customer's use of the telecommunications service primarily occurs, which must be the residential street address or the primary business street address of the customer. In the case of mobile telecommunications services, "place of primary use" must be within the licensed service area of the home service provider.

(7) "Post-paid calling service" means the telecommunications service obtained by making a payment on a call-by-call basis either through the use of a credit card or payment mechanism such as a bank card, travel card, credit card, or debit card, or by charge made to a telephone number that is not associated with the origination or termination of the telecommunications service. "Post-paid calling service" includes a telecommunications service that would be a prepaid calling service, but for the fact that it is not exclusively a telecommunications service.

(8) "Prepaid calling service" means the right to access exclusively a telecommunications service that must be paid for in advance, that enables the origination of calls using an access number or authorization code, whether manually or electronically dialed, and that is sold in predetermined units or dollars of which the number declines with use in a known amount.

(9) "Service address" means:

(a) The location of the telecommunications equipment to which a customer's call is charged and from which the call originates or terminates, regardless of where the call is billed or paid.

(b) If the location in division (A)(9)(a) of this section is not known, "service address" means the origination point of the signal of the telecommunications service first identified by either the seller's telecommunications system or in information received by the seller from its service provider, where the system used to transport such signals is not that of the seller.

(c) If the locations in divisions (A)(9)(a) and (b) of this section are not known, "service address" means the location of the customer's place of primary use.

(B) The amount of tax due pursuant to sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised Code on sales of telecommunications service, information service, or mobile telecommunications service, is the sum of the taxes imposed pursuant to those sections at the sourcing location of the sale as determined under this section.

(C) Except for the telecommunications services described in division (E) of this section, the sale of telecommunications service sold on a call-by-call basis shall be sourced to each level of taxing jurisdiction where the call originates and terminates in that jurisdiction, or each level of taxing jurisdiction where the call either originates or terminates and in which the service address also is located.

(D) Except for the telecommunications services described in division (E) of this section, a sale of telecommunications services sold on a basis other than a call-by-call basis shall be sourced to the customer's place of primary use.

(E) The sale of the following telecommunications services shall be sourced to each level of taxing jurisdiction, as follows:

(1) A sale of mobile telecommunications service, other than air-to-ground radiotelephone service and prepaid calling service, shall be sourced to the customer's place of primary use as required by the Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act.

(2) A sale of post-paid calling service shall be sourced to the origination point of the telecommunications signal as first identified by the service provider's telecommunications system, or information received by the seller from its service provider, where the system used to transport such signals is not that of the seller.

(3) A sale of prepaid calling service made prior to January 1, 2004, shall be sourced under division (H) of section 5739.033 of the Revised Code. On and after January 1, 2004, a sale of mobile telecommunications service that is a prepaid telecommunications service shall be sourced under division (A)(5) of section 5739.033 of the Revised Code, but in lieu of sourcing the sale of the service under that section, it may be sourced to the location associated with the mobile telephone number.

Sec. 5739.09. (A)(1) A board of county commissioners may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the board, levy an excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The board shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. Except as provided in divisions (A)(2), (3), ~~and (4)~~, and (5) of this section, the regulations shall provide, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, for the return to each municipal corporation or township that does not levy an excise tax on the transactions, a uniform percentage of the tax collected in the municipal corporation or in the unincorporated portion of the township from each transaction, not to exceed thirty-three and one-third per cent. The remainder of the revenue arising from the tax shall be deposited in a separate fund and shall be spent solely to make contributions to the convention and visitors' bureau operating within the county, including a pledge and contribution of any portion of the remainder pursuant to an agreement authorized by section 307.695 of the Revised Code. Except as provided in division (A)(2), (3), ~~or (4)~~, or (5) or (H) of this section, on and after May 10, 1994, a board of county commissioners may not levy an excise tax pursuant to this division in any municipal corporation or township located wholly or partly within the county that has in effect an ordinance or resolution levying an excise tax pursuant to division (B) of this section. The board of a county that has levied a tax under division (C) of this section may, by resolution adopted within ninety days after July 15, 1985, by a majority of the members of the board, amend the resolution levying a tax under this division to provide for a portion of that tax to be pledged and contributed in accordance with an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code. A tax, any revenue from which is pledged pursuant to such an agreement, shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period for which the revenue from the tax has been so pledged.

(2) A board of county commissioners that levies an excise tax under division (A)(1) of this section on June 30, 1997, at a rate of three per cent, and that has pledged revenue from the tax to an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code, may amend the resolution levying that tax to provide for an increase in the rate of the tax up to five per cent on each transaction; to provide that revenue from the increase in the rate shall be spent solely to make contributions to the convention and visitors' bureau operating within the county to be used specifically for promotion, advertising, and marketing of the region in which the county is located; to provide that the rate in excess of the three per cent levied under division (A)(1) of this section shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period during which any agreement is in effect that was entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code by the board of county commissioners levying a tax under division (A)(1) of this section; and to provide that no portion of that revenue need be returned to townships or municipal corporations as would otherwise be required under division (A)(1) of this section.

(3) A board of county commissioners that levies a tax under division (A)(1) of this section on March 18, 1999, at a rate of three per cent may, by resolution adopted not later than forty-five days after March 18, 1999, amend the resolution levying the tax to provide for all of the following:

(a) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional four per cent on each transaction;

(b) That all of the revenue from the increase in the rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before November 15, 1998, and used to pay costs of constructing, maintaining, operating, and promoting a facility in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(c) That no portion of the revenue arising from the increase in rate need be returned to municipal corporations or townships as otherwise required under division (A)(1) of this section;

(d) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged, remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless provision is made by law or by the board of county commissioners for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds.

Division (A)(3) of this section does not apply to the board of county commissioners of any county in which a convention center or facility exists or is being constructed on November 15, 1998, or of any county in which a convention facilities authority levies a tax pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code on that date.

As used in division (A)(3) of this section, "cost" and "facility" have the same meanings as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(4) A board of county commissioners that levies a tax under division (A)(1) of this section on June 30, 2002, at a rate of three per cent may, by resolution adopted not later than September 30, 2002, amend the resolution levying the tax to provide for all of the following:

(a) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional three and one-half per cent on each transaction;

(b) That all of the revenue from the increase in rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before May 15, 2002, and be used to pay costs of constructing, expanding, maintaining, operating, or promoting a convention center in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(c) That no portion of the revenue arising from the increase in rate need be returned to municipal corporations or townships as otherwise required under division (A)(1) of this section;

(d) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged, remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless provision is made by law or by the board of county commissioners for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds.

As used in division (A)(4) of this section, "cost" has the same meaning as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(5)(a) As used in division (A)(5) of this section:

(i) "Port authority" means a port authority created under Chapter 4582. of the Revised Code.

(ii) "Port authority military-use facility" means port authority facilities on which or adjacent to which is located an installation of the armed forces of the United States, a reserve component thereof, or the national guard and at least part of which is made available for use, for consideration, by the armed forces of the United States, a reserve component thereof, or the national guard.

(b) For the purpose of contributing revenue to pay operating expenses of a port authority that operates a port authority military-use facility, the board of county commissioners of a county that created, participated in the creation of, or has joined such a port authority may do one or both of the following:

(i) Amend a resolution previously adopted under division (A)(1) of this section to designate some or all of the revenue from the tax levied under the resolution to be used for that purpose, notwithstanding that division;

(ii) Amend a resolution previously adopted under division (A)(1) of this section to increase the rate of the tax by not more than an additional two per cent and use the revenue from the increase exclusively for that purpose.

(c) If a board of county commissioners amends a resolution to increase the rate of a tax as authorized in division (A)(5)(b)(ii) of this section, the board also may amend the resolution to specify that the increase in rate of the tax does not apply to "hotels," as otherwise defined in section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, having fewer rooms used for the accommodation of guests than a number of rooms specified by the board.

(B)(1) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation or the board of trustees of a township that is not wholly or partly located in a county that has in effect a resolution levying an excise tax pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section may, by ordinance or resolution, levy an excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The legislative authority of the municipal corporation or the board of trustees of the township shall deposit at least fifty per cent of the revenue from the tax levied pursuant to this division into a separate fund, which shall be spent solely to make contributions to convention and visitors' bureaus operating within the county in which the municipal corporation or township is wholly or partly located, and the balance of that revenue shall be deposited in the general fund. The municipal corporation or township shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. The levy of a tax under this division is in addition to any tax imposed on the same transaction by a municipal corporation or a township as authorized by division (A) of section 5739.08 of the Revised Code.

(2) The legislative authority of the most populous municipal corporation located wholly or partly in a county in which the board of county commissioners has levied a tax under division (A)(4) of this section may amend, on or before September 30, 2002, that municipal corporation's ordinance or resolution that levies an excise tax on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests, to provide for all of the following:

(a) That the rate of the tax shall be increased by not more than an additional one per cent on each transaction;

(b) That all of the revenue from the increase in rate shall be pledged and contributed to a convention facilities authority established by the board of county commissioners under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code on or before May 15, 2002, and be used to pay costs of constructing, expanding, maintaining, operating, or promoting a convention center in the county, including paying bonds, or notes issued in anticipation of bonds, as provided by that chapter;

(c) That the increase in rate shall not be subject to diminution by initiative or referendum or by law while any bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, issued by the authority under Chapter 351. of the Revised Code to which the revenue is pledged, remain outstanding in accordance with their terms, unless provision is made by law, by the board of county commissioners, or by the legislative authority, for an adequate substitute therefor that is satisfactory to the trustee if a trust agreement secures the bonds.

As used in division (B)(2) of this section, "cost" has the same meaning as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code, and "convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(C) For the purpose of making the payments authorized by section 307.695 of the Revised Code to construct and equip a convention center in the county and to cover the costs of administering the tax, a board of county commissioners of a county where a tax imposed under division (A)(1) of this section is in effect may, by resolution adopted within ninety days after July 15, 1985, by a majority of the members of the board, levy an additional excise tax not to exceed three per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any tax that is levied pursuant to division (A) of this section, but it shall not apply to transactions subject to a tax levied by a municipal corporation or township pursuant to the authorization granted by division (A) of section 5739.08 of the Revised Code. The board shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.695 of the Revised Code. A tax imposed under this division shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the duration of the period for which the revenue from the tax has been pledged pursuant to that section.

(D) For the purpose of providing contributions under division (B)(1) of section 307.671 of the Revised Code to enable the acquisition, construction, and equipping of a port authority educational and cultural facility in the county and, to the extent provided for in the cooperative agreement authorized by that section, for the purpose of paying debt service charges on bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, described in division (B)(1)(b) of that section, a board of county commissioners, by resolution adopted within ninety days after December 22, 1992, by a majority of the members of the board, may levy an additional excise tax not to exceed one and one-half per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The excise tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any tax that is levied pursuant to divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section, to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, and to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code. The board of county commissioners shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax that are not inconsistent with this section or section 307.671 of the Revised Code. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.671 of the Revised Code and division (D) of this section. The levy of a tax imposed under this division may not commence prior to the first day of the month next following the execution of the cooperative agreement authorized by section 307.671 of the Revised Code by all parties to that agreement. The tax shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the period of time described in division (C) of section 307.671 of the Revised Code for which the revenue from the tax has been pledged by the county to the corporation pursuant to that section, but, to any extent provided for in the cooperative agreement, for no lesser period than the period of time required for payment of the debt service charges on bonds, or notes in anticipation of bonds, described in division (B)(1)(b) of that section.

(E) For the purpose of paying the costs of acquiring, constructing, equipping, and improving a municipal educational and cultural facility, including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.672 of the Revised Code, and for any additional purposes determined by the county in the resolution levying the tax or amendments to the resolution, including subsequent amendments providing for paying costs of acquiring, constructing, renovating, rehabilitating, equipping, and improving a port authority educational and cultural performing arts facility, as defined in section 307.674 of the Revised Code, and including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code, the legislative authority of a county, by resolution adopted within ninety days after June 30, 1993, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, may levy an additional excise tax not to exceed one and one-half per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The excise tax authorized by this division shall be in addition to any tax that is levied pursuant to divisions (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section, to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, and to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 351.021 of the Revised Code. The legislative authority of the county shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax, and may provide for the imposition of a penalty or interest, or both, for late payments, provided that the penalty does not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due, and the rate at which interest accrues does not exceed the rate per annum prescribed pursuant to section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.672 of the Revised Code and this division. The levy of a tax imposed under this division shall not commence prior to the first day of the month next following the execution of the cooperative agreement authorized by section 307.672 of the Revised Code by all parties to that agreement. The tax shall remain in effect at the rate at which it is imposed for the period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed fifteen years.

(F) The legislative authority of a county that has levied a tax under division (E) of this section may, by resolution adopted within one hundred eighty days after January 4, 2001, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, amend the resolution levying a tax under that division to provide for the use of the proceeds of that tax, to the extent that it is no longer needed for its original purpose as determined by the parties to a cooperative agreement amendment pursuant to division (D) of section 307.672 of the Revised Code, to pay costs of acquiring, constructing, renovating, rehabilitating, equipping, and improving a port authority educational and cultural performing arts facility, including debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code, and to pay all obligations under any guaranty agreements, reimbursement agreements, or other credit enhancement agreements described in division (C) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code. The resolution may also provide for the extension of the tax at the same rate for the longer of the period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed an additional twenty-five years, or the period of time required to pay all debt service charges on bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.672 of the Revised Code and on port authority revenue bonds provided for in division (B) of section 307.674 of the Revised Code. All revenues arising from the amendment and extension of the tax shall be expended in accordance with section 307.674 of the Revised Code, this division, and division (E) of this section.

(G) For purposes of a tax levied by a county, township, or municipal corporation under this section or section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, a board of county commissioners, board of township trustees, or the legislative authority of a municipal corporation may adopt a resolution or ordinance at any time specifying that "hotel," as otherwise defined in section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, includes establishments in which fewer than five rooms are used for the accommodation of guests. The resolution or ordinance may apply to a tax imposed pursuant to this section prior to the adoption of the resolution or ordinance if the resolution or ordinance so states, but the tax shall not apply to transactions by which lodging by such an establishment is provided to transient guests prior to the adoption of the resolution or ordinance.

(H)(1) As used in this division:

(a) "Convention facilities authority" has the same meaning as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code.

(b) "Convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(2) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of division (D) of this section, the legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more according to the most recent federal decennial census that has levied a tax under division (D) of this section may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, provide for the extension of such levy and may provide that the proceeds of that tax, to the extent that they are no longer needed for their original purpose as defined by a cooperative agreement entered into under section 307.671 of the Revised Code, shall be deposited into the county general revenue fund. The resolution shall provide for the extension of the tax at a rate not to exceed the rate specified in division (D) of this section for a period of time determined by the legislative authority of the county, but not to exceed an additional forty years.

(3) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more that has levied a tax under division (A)(1) of this section may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, increase the rate of the tax levied by such county under division (A)(1) of this section to a rate not to exceed five per cent on transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished to transient guests. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of division (A)(1) of this section, the resolution may provide that all collections resulting from the rate levied in excess of three per cent, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax, shall be deposited in the county general fund.

(4) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more that has levied a tax under division (A)(1) of this section may, by resolution adopted on or before August 30, 2004, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority, provide that all or a portion of the proceeds of the tax levied under division (A)(1) of this section, after deducting the real and actual costs of administering the tax and the amounts required to be returned to townships and municipal corporations with respect to the first three per cent levied under division (A)(1) of this section, shall be deposited in the county general fund, provided that such proceeds shall be used to satisfy any pledges made in connection with an agreement entered into under section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(5) No amount collected from a tax levied, extended, or required to be deposited in the county general fund under division (H) of this section shall be contributed to a convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity created after July 1, 2003, for the principal purpose of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center unless the mayor of the municipal corporation in which the convention center is to be operated by that convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity has consented to the creation of that convention facilities authority, corporation, or entity. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 351.04 of the Revised Code, if a tax is levied by a county under division (H) of this section, the board of county commissioners of that county may determine the manner of selection, the qualifications, the number, and terms of office of the members of the board of directors of any convention facilities authority, corporation, or other entity described in division (H)(5) of this section.

(6)(a) No amount collected from a tax levied, extended, or required to be deposited in the county general fund under division (H) of this section may be used for any purpose other than paying the direct and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, equipping, financing, or operating a convention center and for the real and actual costs of administering the tax, unless, prior to the adoption of the resolution of the legislative authority of the county authorizing the levy, extension, increase, or deposit, the county and the mayor of the most populous municipal corporation in that county have entered into an agreement as to the use of such amounts, provided that such agreement has been approved by a majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations in that county. The agreement shall provide that the amounts to be used for purposes other than paying the convention center or administrative costs described in division (H)(6)(a) of this section be used only for the direct and indirect costs of capital improvements, including the financing of capital improvements.

(b) If the county in which the tax is levied has an association of mayors and city managers, the approval of that association of an agreement described in division (H)(6)(a) of this section shall be considered to be the approval of the majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations for purposes of that division.

(7) Each year, the auditor of state shall conduct an audit of the uses of any amounts collected from taxes levied, extended, or deposited under division (H) of this section and shall prepare a report of the auditor of state's findings. The auditor of state shall submit the report to the legislative authority of the county that has levied, extended, or deposited the tax, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, and the leaders of the minority parties of the house of representatives and the senate.

Sec. 5739.10. (A) In addition to the tax levied ~~in~~ by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and any tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, and to secure the same objectives specified in ~~said those~~ sections, there is hereby levied upon the privilege of engaging in the business of making retail sales, an excise tax of six per cent on and after July 1, 2003, and on and before June 30, 2005, and an excise tax of five per cent on and after July 1, 2005, or, in the case of retail sales subject to a tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, a percentage equal to the aggregate rate of such taxes and the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code of the receipts derived from all retail sales, except ~~retail sales under sixteen cents and those to which the excise tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code is made inapplicable by division (B) of said that~~ section.

(B) For the purpose of this section, no vendor shall be required to maintain records of ~~individual retail sales of tangible personal property under sixteen cents or sales of food for human consumption off the premises where sold, and no assessment shall be made against any vendor for retail sales of less than sixteen cents or for sales of food for human consumption off the premises where sold, solely because the vendor has no records of, or has inadequate records of, retail sales of less than sixteen cents or such sales of food for human consumption off the premises where sold; provided that where a vendor does not have adequate records of receipts from his retail sales in excess of fifteen cents or the vendor's sales of food for human consumption on the premises where sold, the tax commissioner may refuse to accept the vendor's return and, upon the basis of test checks of the vendor's business for a representative period, and other information relating to the sales made by such vendor, determine the proportion that taxable retail sales bear to all his of the vendor's retail sales. The tax imposed by this section shall be determined by deducting from the sum representing five or six per cent, as applicable under division (A) of this section, or, in the case~~ of retail sales subject to a tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, a percentage equal to the aggregate rate of such taxes and the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code of the receipts from such retail sales, the amount of tax paid to the state or to a clerk of a court of common pleas. The section does not affect any duty of the vendor under sections 5739.01 to 5739.19 and 5739.26 to 5739.31 of the Revised Code, nor the liability of any consumer to pay any tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5739.12. (A) Each person who has or is required to have a vendor's license, on or before the twenty-third day of each month, shall make and file a return for the preceding month, on forms prescribed by the tax commissioner, and shall pay the tax shown on the return to be due. The commissioner may require a vendor that operates from multiple locations or has multiple vendor's licenses to report all tax liabilities on one consolidated return. The return shall show the amount of tax due from the vendor to the state for the period covered by the return and such other information as the commissioner deems necessary for the proper administration of this chapter. The commissioner may extend the time for making and filing returns and paying the tax, and may require that the return for the last month of any annual or semiannual period, as determined by the commissioner, be a reconciliation return detailing the vendor's sales activity for the preceding annual or semiannual period. The reconciliation return shall be filed by the last day of the month following the last month of the annual or semiannual period. The commissioner may remit all or any part of amounts or penalties that may become due under this chapter and may adopt rules relating thereto. Such return shall be filed by mailing it to the tax commissioner, together with payment of the amount of tax shown to be due thereon after deduction of any discount provided for under this section. Remittance shall be made payable to the treasurer of state. The return shall be considered filed when received by the tax commissioner, and the payment shall be considered made when received by the tax commissioner or when credited to an account designated by the treasurer of state or the tax commissioner.

(B) If the return is filed and the amount of tax shown thereon to be due is paid on or before the date such return is required to be filed, the vendor shall be entitled to a the following discount of three-fourths:

(1) On and after July 1, 2003, and on and before June 30, 2005, nine-tenths of one per cent of the amount shown to be due on the return;

(2) On and after July 1, 2005, three-fourths of one per cent of the amount shown to be due on the return, but a.

A vendor that has selected a certified service provider as its agent shall not be entitled to the discount. Amounts paid to the clerk of courts pursuant to section 4505.06 of the Revised Code shall be subject to the ~~three-fourths of one per cent~~ applicable discount. The discount shall be in consideration for prompt payment to the clerk of courts and for other services performed by the vendor in the collection of the tax.

(C)(1) Upon application to the commissioner, a vendor who is required to file monthly returns may be relieved of the requirement to report and pay the actual tax due, provided that the vendor agrees to remit to the tax commissioner payment of not less than an amount determined by the commissioner to be the average monthly tax liability of the vendor, based upon a review of the returns or other information pertaining to such vendor for a period of not less than six months nor more than two years immediately preceding the filing of the application. Vendors who agree to the above conditions shall make and file an annual or semiannual reconciliation return, as prescribed by the commissioner. The reconciliation return shall be filed by mailing or delivering it to the tax commissioner, together with payment of the amount of tax shown to be due thereon after deduction of any discount provided in this section. Remittance shall be made payable to the treasurer of state. Failure of a vendor to comply with any of the above conditions may result in immediate reinstatement of the requirement of reporting and paying the actual tax liability on each monthly return, and the commissioner may at the commissioner's discretion deny the vendor the right to report and pay based upon the average monthly liability for a period not to exceed two years. The amount ascertained by the commissioner to be the average monthly tax liability of a vendor may be adjusted, based upon a review of the returns or other information pertaining to the vendor for a period of not less than six months nor more than two years preceding such adjustment.

(2) The commissioner may authorize vendors whose tax liability is not such as to merit monthly returns, as ascertained by the commissioner upon the basis of administrative costs to the state, to make and file returns at less frequent intervals. When returns are filed at less frequent intervals in accordance with such authorization, the vendor shall be allowed the discount ~~of three-fourths of one per cent~~ provided in this section in consideration for prompt payment with the return, provided the return is filed together with payment of the amount of tax shown to be due thereon, at the time specified by the commissioner, but a vendor that has selected a certified service provider as its agent shall not be entitled to the discount.

(D) Any vendor who fails to file a return or pay the full amount of the tax shown on the return to be due under this section and the rules of the commissioner may, for each such return the vendor fails to file or each such tax the vendor fails to pay in full as shown on the return within the period prescribed by this section and the rules of the commissioner, be required to forfeit and pay into the state treasury an additional charge not exceeding fifty dollars or ten per cent of the tax required to be paid for the reporting period, whichever is greater, as revenue arising from the tax imposed by this chapter, and such sum may be collected by assessment in the manner provided in section 5739.13 of the Revised Code. The commissioner may remit all or a portion of the additional charge and may adopt rules relating to the imposition and remission of the additional charge.

(E) If the amount required to be collected by a vendor from consumers is in excess of ~~five per cent~~ the applicable percentage of the vendor's receipts from sales that are taxable under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, or in the case of sales subject to a tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, in excess of the percentage equal to the aggregate rate of such taxes and the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, such excess shall be remitted along with the remittance of the amount of tax due under section 5739.10 of the Revised Code.

(F) The commissioner, if the commissioner deems it necessary in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, may require returns and payments to be made for other than monthly periods. The returns shall be signed by the vendor or the vendor's authorized agent.

(G) Any vendor required to file a return and pay the tax under this section, whose total payment ~~in any year indicated in division (A) of section 5739.122 of the Revised Code~~ equals or exceeds the amount shown in ~~that~~ division (A) of section 5739.122 of the Revised Code, shall make each payment required by this section in the second ensuing and each succeeding year by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by, and on or before the dates specified in, section 5739.122 of the Revised Code, except as otherwise prescribed by that section. For a vendor that operates from multiple locations or has multiple vendor's licenses, in determining whether the vendor's total payment equals or exceeds the amount shown in division (A) of that section, the vendor's total payment amount shall be the amount of the vendor's total tax liability for the previous calendar year for all of the vendor's locations or licenses.

Sec. 5739.121. (A) As used in this section, "bad debt" means any debt that has become worthless or uncollectible in the time period between a vendor's preceding return and the present return, ~~have~~ has been uncollected for at least six months, and that may be claimed as a deduction pursuant to the "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," 68A Stat. 50, 26 U.S.C. 166, as amended, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, or that could be claimed as such a deduction if the vendor kept accounts on an accrual basis. "Bad debt" does not include any interest or sales tax on the purchase price, uncollectible amounts on property that remains in the possession of the vendor until the full purchase price is paid, expenses incurred in attempting to collect any account receivable or for any portion of the debt recovered, ~~any accounts receivable that have been sold to a third party for collection,~~ and repossessed property.

(B) In computing taxable receipts for purposes of this chapter, a vendor may deduct the amount of bad debts, ~~as defined in this section.~~ The amount deducted must be charged off as uncollectible on the books of the vendor. A deduction may be claimed only with respect to bad debts on which the taxes pursuant to sections 5739.10 and 5739.12 of the Revised Code were paid in a preceding tax period. If the vendor's business consists of taxable and nontaxable transactions, the deduction shall equal the full amount of the debt if the debt is documented as a taxable transaction in the vendor's records. If no such documentation is available, the maximum deduction on any bad debt shall equal the amount of the bad debt multiplied by the quotient obtained by dividing the sales taxed pursuant to this chapter during the preceding calendar year by all sales during the preceding calendar year, whether taxed or not. If a consumer or other person pays all or part of a bad debt with respect to which a vendor claimed a deduction under this section, the vendor shall be liable for the amount of taxes deducted in connection with that portion of the debt for which payment is received and shall remit such taxes in the vendor's next payment to the tax commissioner.

(C) Any claim for a bad debt deduction under this section shall be supported by such evidence as the tax commissioner by rule requires. The commissioner shall review any change in the rate of taxation applicable to any taxable sales by a vendor claiming a deduction pursuant to this section and adopt rules for altering the deduction in the event of such a change in order to ensure that the deduction on any bad debt does not result in the vendor claiming the deduction recovering any more or less than the taxes imposed on the sale that constitutes the bad debt.

(D) In any reporting period in which the amount of bad debt exceeds the amount of taxable sales for the period, the vendor may file a refund claim for any tax collected on the bad debt in excess of the tax reported on the return. The refund claim shall be filed in the manner provided in section 5739.07 of the Revised Code, except that the claim may be filed within four years of the due date of the return on which the bad debt first could have been claimed.

(E) When the filing responsibilities of a vendor have been assumed by a certified service provider, the certified service provider shall claim the bad debt allowance provided by this section on behalf of the vendor. The certified service provider shall credit or refund to the vendor the full amount of any bad debt allowance or refund.

(F) No person other than the vendor in the transaction that generated the bad debt or, as provided in division (E) of this section, a certified service provider, may claim the bad debt allowance provided by this section.

Sec. 5739.122. (A) If the total amount of tax required to be paid by a vendor under section 5739.12 of the Revised Code for any calendar year indicated in the following schedule equals or exceeds the amounts prescribed for that year in the schedule seventy-five thousand dollars, the vendor shall remit each monthly tax payment in the second ensuing and each succeeding tax year by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by divisions (B) and (C) of this section.

If a vendor's tax payment for each of two consecutive years ~~beginning with 2000~~ is less than ~~sixty~~ seventy-five thousand dollars, the vendor is relieved of the requirement to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer for the year that next follows the second of the consecutive years in which the tax payment is less than ~~sixty thousand dollars~~ that amount, and is relieved of that requirement for each succeeding year, unless the tax payment in a subsequent year equals or exceeds ~~sixty~~ seventy-five thousand dollars.

The tax commissioner shall notify each vendor required to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer of the vendor's obligation to do so, shall maintain an updated list of those vendors, and shall timely certify the list and any additions thereto or deletions therefrom to the treasurer of state. Failure by the tax commissioner to notify a vendor subject to this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer does not relieve the vendor of its obligation to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer.

(B) Vendors required by division (A) of this section to remit payments by electronic funds transfer shall remit such payments to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by this section and rules adopted by the treasurer of state under section 113.061 of the Revised Code, and on or before the following dates:

(1) On or before the ~~eleventh~~ fifteenth day of each month, a vendor shall remit an amount equal to the taxes collected during the first ~~seven~~ eleven days of the month. ~~On or before the eighteenth day of each month, a vendor shall remit an amount equal to the taxes collected on the eighth through the fourteenth day of the month.~~ On or before the twenty-fifth day of each month, a vendor shall remit an amount equal to the taxes collected on the ~~fifteenth~~ twelfth through the twenty-first day of the month.

(2) In lieu of remitting the actual amounts collected for the periods specified in division (B)(1) of this section, a vendor may, on or before each of the ~~eleventh, eighteenth, fifteenth~~ and twenty-fifth days of each month, remit an amount equal to ~~one-fourth~~ thirty-seven and one-half per cent of the vendor's total tax liability for the same month in the preceding calendar year.

(3) On or before the twenty-third day of each month, a vendor shall report the taxes collected for the previous month and shall remit that amount, less any amounts paid for that month as required by division (B)(1) or (2) of this section.

The payment of taxes by electronic funds transfer does not affect a vendor's obligation to file the monthly return as required under section 5739.12 of the Revised Code.

(C) A vendor required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer may apply to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by the treasurer of state to be excused from that requirement. The treasurer of state may excuse the vendor from remittance by electronic funds transfer for good cause shown for the period of time requested by the vendor or for a portion of that period. The treasurer of state shall notify the tax commissioner and the vendor of the treasurer of state's decision as soon as is practicable.

(D)(1) If a vendor that is required to remit payments under division (B) of this section fails to make a payment, the commissioner may impose an additional charge not to exceed five per cent of that unpaid amount.

(2) If a vendor required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer remits those taxes by some means other than by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by this section and the rules adopted by the treasurer of state, and the treasurer of state determines that such failure was not due to reasonable cause or was due to willful neglect, the treasurer of state shall notify the tax commissioner of the failure to remit by electronic funds transfer and shall provide the commissioner with any information used in making that determination. The tax commissioner may impose an additional charge not to exceed the lesser of five per cent of the amount of the taxes required to be paid by electronic funds transfer or five thousand dollars.

(3) Any additional charge imposed under division (D)(1) or (2) of this section is in addition to any other penalty or charge imposed under this chapter, and shall be considered as revenue arising from taxes imposed under this chapter. An additional charge may be collected by assessment in the manner prescribed by section 5739.13 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may waive all or a portion of such a charge and may adopt rules governing such waiver.

No additional charge shall be imposed under division (D)(2) of this section against a vendor that has been notified of its obligation to remit taxes under this section and that remits its first two tax payments after such notification by some means other than electronic funds transfer. The additional charge may be imposed upon the remittance of any subsequent tax payment that the vendor remits by some means other than electronic funds transfer.

Sec. 5739.17. (A) No person shall engage in making retail sales subject to a tax imposed by or pursuant to section 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code as a business without having a license therefor, except as otherwise provided in divisions (A)(1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(1) In the dissolution of a partnership by death, the surviving partner may operate under the license of the partnership for a period of sixty days.

(2) The heirs or legal representatives of deceased persons, and receivers and trustees in bankruptcy, appointed by any competent authority, may operate under the license of the person so succeeded in possession.

(3) Two or more persons who are not partners may operate a single place of business under one license. In such case neither the retirement of any such person from business at that place of business, nor the entrance of any person, under an existing arrangement, shall affect the license or require the issuance of a new license, unless the person retiring from the business is the individual named on the vendor's license.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, each applicant for a license shall make out and deliver to the county auditor of each county in which the applicant desires to engage in business, upon a blank to be furnished by such auditor for that purpose, a statement showing the name of the applicant, each place of business in the county where the applicant will make retail sales, the nature of the business, and any other information the tax commissioner reasonably prescribes in the form of a statement prescribed by the commissioner.

At the time of making the application, the applicant shall pay into the county treasury a license fee in the sum of twenty-five dollars for each fixed place of business in the county that will be the situs of retail sales. Upon receipt of the application and exhibition of the county treasurer's receipt, showing the payment of the license fee, the county auditor shall issue to the applicant a license for each fixed place of business designated in the application, authorizing the applicant to engage in business at that location. If a vendor's identity changes, the vendor shall apply for a new license. If a vendor wishes to move an existing fixed place of business to a new location within the same county, the vendor shall obtain a new vendor's license or submit a request to the tax commissioner to transfer the existing vendor's license to the new location. When the new location has been verified as being within the same county, the commissioner shall authorize the transfer and notify the county auditor of the change of location. If a vendor wishes to move an existing fixed place of business to another county, the vendor's license shall not transfer and the vendor shall obtain a new vendor's license from the county in which the business is to be located. The form of the license shall be prescribed by the commissioner. The fees collected shall be credited to the general fund of the county.

A vendor that makes retail sales subject to tax under Chapter 5739. of the Revised Code pursuant to a permit issued by the division of liquor control shall obtain a vendor's license in the identical name and for the identical address as shown on the permit.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a vendor has no fixed place of business and sells from a vehicle, each vehicle intended to be used within a county constitutes a place of business for the purpose of this section.

(B) As used in this division, "transient vendor" means any person who makes sales of tangible personal property from vending machines located on land owned by others, who leases titled motor vehicles, titled watercraft, or titled outboard motors, who effectuates leases that are taxed according to division ~~(H)(4)(A)(2)~~ of section ~~5739.01~~ 5739.02 of the Revised Code, or who, in the usual course of the person's business, transports inventory, stock of goods, or similar tangible personal property to a temporary place of business or temporary exhibition, show, fair, flea market, or similar event in a county in which the person has no fixed place of business, for the purpose of making retail sales of such property. A "temporary place of business" means any public or quasi-public place including, but not limited to, a hotel, rooming house, storeroom, building, part of a building, tent, vacant lot, railroad car, or motor vehicle that is temporarily occupied for the purpose of making retail sales of goods to the public. A place of business is not temporary if the same person conducted business at the place continuously for more than six months or occupied the premises as the person's permanent residence for more than six months, or if the person intends it to be a fixed place of business.

Any transient vendor, in lieu of obtaining a vendor's license under division (A) of this section for counties in which the transient vendor has no fixed place of business, may apply to the tax commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, for a transient vendor's license. The transient vendor's license authorizes the transient vendor to make retail sales in any county in which the transient vendor does not maintain a fixed place of business. Any holder of a transient vendor's license shall not be required to obtain a separate vendor's license from the county auditor in that county. Upon the commissioner's determination that an applicant is a transient vendor, the applicant shall pay a license fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars, at which time the tax commissioner shall issue the license. The tax commissioner may require a vendor to be licensed as a transient vendor if, in the opinion of the commissioner, such licensing is necessary for the efficient administration of the tax.

Any holder of a valid transient vendor's license may make retail sales at a temporary place of business or temporary exhibition, show, fair, flea market, or similar event, held anywhere in the state without complying with any provision of section 311.37 of the Revised Code. Any holder of a valid vendor's license may make retail sales as a transient vendor at a temporary place of business or temporary exhibition, show, fair, flea market, or similar event held in any county in which the vendor maintains a fixed place of business for which the vendor holds a vendor's license without obtaining a transient vendor's license.

(C) As used in this division, "service vendor" means any person who, in the usual course of the person's business, sells services described in division (B)(3)(e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), ~~or (m)~~, (q), or (u) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

Every service vendor shall make application to the tax commissioner for a service vendor's license. Each applicant shall pay a license fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars. Upon the commissioner's determination that an applicant is a service vendor and payment of the fee, the commissioner shall issue the applicant a service vendor's license.

Only sales described in division (B)(3)(e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), ~~or (m)~~, (q), or (u) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code may be made under authority of a service vendor's license, and that license authorizes sales to be made at any place in this state. Any service vendor who makes sales of other services or tangible personal property subject to the sales tax also shall be licensed under division (A), (B), or (D) of this section.

(D) As used in this division, "delivery vendor" means any vendor who engages in one or more of the activities described in divisions (D)(1) to (4) of this section, and who maintains no store, showroom, or similar fixed place of business or other location where merchandise regularly is offered for sale or displayed or shown in catalogs for selection or pick-up by consumers, or where consumers bring goods for repair or other service.

(1) The vendor makes retail sales of tangible personal property;

(2) The vendor rents or leases, at retail, tangible personal property, except titled motor vehicles, titled watercraft, or titled outboard motors;

(3) The vendor provides a service, at retail, described in division (B)(3)(a), (b), (c), or (d) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code; or

(4) The vendor makes retail sales of warranty, maintenance or service contracts, or similar agreements as described in division (B)(7) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

A transient vendor or a seller registered pursuant to section 5741.17 of the Revised Code is not a delivery vendor.

Delivery vendors shall apply to the tax commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, for a delivery vendor's license. Each applicant shall pay a license fee of twenty-five dollars for each delivery vendor's license, to be credited to the general revenue fund. Upon the commissioner's determination that the applicant is a delivery vendor, the commissioner shall issue the license. A delivery vendor's license authorizes retail sales to be made throughout the state. All sales of the vendor must be reported under the delivery license. The commissioner may require a vendor to be licensed as a delivery vendor if, in the opinion of the commissioner, such licensing is necessary for the efficient administration of the tax. The commissioner shall not issue a delivery vendor license to a vendor who holds a license issued under division (A) of this section.

(E) Any transient vendor who is issued a license pursuant to this section shall display the license or a copy of it prominently, in plain view, at every place of business of the transient vendor. Every owner, organizer, or promoter who operates a fair, flea market, show, exhibition, convention, or similar event at which transient vendors are present shall keep a comprehensive record of all such vendors, listing the vendor's name, permanent address, vendor's license number, and the type of goods sold. Such records shall be kept for four years and shall be open to inspection by the tax commissioner.

Sec. 5739.21. (A) Four and two-tenths per cent of all money deposited into the state treasury under sections 5739.01 to 5739.31 of the Revised Code and not required to be distributed as provided in section 5739.102 of the Revised Code or division (B) of this section shall be credited to the local government fund for distribution in accordance with section 5747.50 of the Revised Code, six-tenths of one per cent shall be credited to the local government revenue assistance fund for distribution in accordance with section 5747.61 of the Revised Code, and ninety-five and two-tenths per cent shall be credited to the general revenue fund.

(B)(1) In any case where any county or transit authority has levied a tax or taxes pursuant to section 5739.021, 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code, the tax commissioner shall, within forty-five days after the end of each month, determine and certify to the director of budget and management the amount of the proceeds of such tax or taxes received during that month from billings and assessments ~~received during that month, or shown on~~ associated with tax returns or reports filed during that month, to be returned to the county or transit authority levying the tax or taxes. The amount to be returned to each county and transit authority shall be a fraction of the aggregate amount of money collected with respect to each area in which one or more of such taxes are concurrently in effect with the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the The numerator of which the fraction is the rate of the tax levied by the county or transit authority and the denominator of which the fraction is the aggregate rate of such taxes applicable to such area; provided, that the The amount to be returned to each county or transit authority shall be reduced by the amount of any refunds of county or transit authority tax paid pursuant to section 5739.07 of the Revised Code during the same month, or transfers made pursuant to division (B)(2) of section 5703.052 of the Revised Code.

(2) On a periodic basis, using the best information available, the tax commissioner shall distribute any amount of a county or transit authority tax that cannot be distributed under division (B)(1) of this section. Through audit or other means, the commissioner shall attempt to obtain the information necessary to make the distribution as provided under that division and, on receipt of that information, shall make adjustments to distributions previously made under this division.

(C) The aggregate amount to be returned to any county or transit authority shall be reduced by one per cent, which shall be certified directly to the credit of the local sales tax administrative fund, which is hereby created in the state treasury. For the purpose of determining the amount to be returned to a county and transit authority in which the rate of tax imposed by the transit authority has been reduced under section 5739.028 of the Revised Code, the tax commissioner shall use the respective rates of tax imposed by the county or transit authority that results from the change in the rates authorized under that section. ~~The~~

(D) ~~The~~ director of budget and management shall transfer, from the same funds and in the same proportions specified in division (A) of this section, to the permissive tax distribution fund created by division (B)(1) of section 4301.423 of the Revised Code and to the local sales tax administrative fund, the amounts certified by the tax commissioner. The tax commissioner shall then, on or before the twentieth day of the month in which such certification is made, provide for payment of such respective amounts to the county treasurer and to the fiscal officer of the transit authority levying the tax or taxes. The amount transferred to the local sales tax administrative fund is for use by the tax commissioner in defraying costs incurred in administering such taxes levied by a county or transit authority.

Sec. 5739.33. If any corporation, limited liability company, or business trust required to file returns and to remit tax due to the state under this chapter, including a holder of a direct payment permit under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code, fails for any reason to make the filing or payment, any of its employees having control or supervision of or charged with the responsibility of filing returns and making payments, or any of its officers, members, managers, or trustees who are responsible for the execution of the corporation's, limited liability company's, or business trust's fiscal responsibilities, shall be personally liable for the failure. The dissolution, termination, or bankruptcy of a corporation, limited liability company, or business trust shall not discharge a responsible officer's, member's, manager's, employee's, or trustee's liability for a failure of the corporation, limited liability company, or business trust to file returns or remit tax due. The sum due for the liability may be collected by assessment in the manner provided in section 5739.13 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5741.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Person" includes individuals, receivers, assignees, trustees in bankruptcy, estates, firms, partnerships, associations, joint-stock companies, joint ventures, clubs, societies, corporations, business trusts, governments, and combinations of individuals of any form.

(B) "Storage" means and includes any keeping or retention in this state for use or other consumption in this state.

(C) "Use" means and includes the exercise of any right or power incidental to the ownership of the thing used. A thing is also "used" in this state if its consumer gives or otherwise distributes it, without charge, to recipients in this state.

(D) "Purchase" means acquired or received for a consideration, whether such acquisition or receipt was effected by a transfer of title, or of possession, or of both, or a license to use or consume; whether such transfer was absolute or conditional, and by whatever means the transfer was effected; and whether the consideration was money, credit, barter, or exchange. Purchase includes production, even though the article produced was used, stored, or consumed by the producer. The transfer of copyrighted motion picture films for exhibition purposes is not a purchase, except such films as are used solely for advertising purposes.

(E) "Seller" means the person from whom a purchase is made, and includes every person engaged in this state or elsewhere in the business of selling tangible personal property or providing a service for storage, use, or other consumption or benefit in this state; and when, in the opinion of the tax commissioner, it is necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter, to regard any salesman, representative, peddler, or canvasser as the agent of a dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer under whom the person operates, or from whom the person obtains tangible personal property, sold by the person for storage, use, or other consumption in this state, irrespective of whether or not the person is making such sales on the person's own behalf, or on behalf of such dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer, the commissioner may regard the person as such agent, and may regard such dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer as the seller. "Seller" does not include any person to the extent the person provides a communications medium, such as, but not limited to, newspapers, magazines, radio, television, or cable television, by means of which sellers solicit purchases of their goods or services.

(F) "Consumer" means any person who has purchased tangible personal property or has been provided a service for storage, use, or other consumption or benefit in this state. "Consumer" does not include a person who receives, without charge, tangible personal property or a service.

A person who performs a facility management or similar service contract for a contractee is a consumer of all tangible personal property and services purchased for use in connection with the performance of such contract, regardless of whether title to any such property vests in the contractee. The purchase of such property and services is not subject to the exception for resale under division (E)(4) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

(G)(1) "Price," except as provided in ~~the case of watercraft, outboard motors, or new motor vehicles,~~ means the aggregate value in money of anything paid or delivered, or promised to be paid or delivered, by a consumer to a seller in the complete performance of the transaction by which tangible personal property has been purchased or a service has been provided for storage, use, or other consumption or benefit in this state, without any deduction or exclusion on account of the cost of the property sold, cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest, discount paid or allowed after the sale is consummated, or any other expense. If the transaction consists of the rental or lease of tangible personal property, "price" means the aggregate value in money of anything paid or delivered, or promised to be paid or delivered by the lessee to the lessor, in the complete performance of the rental or lease, without any deduction or exclusion of tax, interest, labor or service charge, damage liability waiver, termination or damage charge, discount paid or allowed after the lease is consummated, or any other expense. Except as provided in division (G)(6) of this section, the tax shall be calculated and collected by the lessor on each payment made by the lessee. If a consumer produces the tangible personal property used by the consumer, the price is the produced cost of such tangible personal property. "Price" does not include delivery charges that are separately stated on the initial invoice or initial billing rendered by the seller.

~~The tax collected by the seller from the consumer under this chapter is~~ not a part of the price, but is a tax collection for the benefit of the state, and of counties levying an additional use tax pursuant to section 5741.021 or 5741.023 of the Revised Code and of transit authorities levying an additional use tax pursuant to section 5741.022 of the Revised Code and, except for the discount authorized under section 5741.12 of the Revised Code and the effects of any rounding pursuant to section 5703.055 of the Revised Code, no person other than the state or such a county or transit authority shall derive any benefit from the collection or payment of such tax.

~~As used in division~~ divisions (G)(1)(2) to (6) of this section, "delivery charges" means charges by the seller for preparation and delivery to a location designated by the consumer of tangible personal property or a service, including transportation, shipping, postage, handling, crating, and packing has the same meaning as in division (H)(1) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code.

(3) In the case of a nonresident business consumer that purchases and uses tangible personal property outside this state and subsequently temporarily stores, uses, or otherwise consumes such tangible personal property in the conduct of business in this state, the consumer or the tax commissioner may determine the price based on the value of the temporary storage, use, or other consumption, in lieu of determining the price pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. A price determination made by the consumer is subject to review and redetermination by the commissioner.

(4) In the case of tangible personal property held in this state as inventory for sale or lease, and that is temporarily stored, used, or otherwise consumed in a taxable manner, the price is the value of the temporary use. A price determination made by the consumer is subject to review and redetermination by the commissioner.

(5) In the case of tangible personal property originally purchased and used by the consumer outside this state, and that becomes permanently stored, used, or otherwise consumed in this state more than six months after its acquisition by the consumer, the consumer or the commissioner may determine the price based on the current value of such tangible personal property, in lieu of determining the price pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section. A price determination made by the consumer is subject to review and redetermination by the commissioner.

(6) ~~In the case of the purchase or lease of any motor vehicle designed by~~ the manufacturer to carry a load of not more than one ton, watercraft, outboard motor, or aircraft, or the lease of any tangible personal property, other than motor vehicles designed by the manufacturer to carry a load of more than one ton, to be used by the lessee primarily for business purposes, the tax shall be collected by the vendor at the time the lease is consummated and calculated by the vendor on the basis of the total amount to be paid by the lessee under the lease agreement. If the total amount of the consideration for the lease includes amounts that are not calculated at the time the lease is executed, the tax shall be calculated and collected by the vendor at the time such amounts are billed to the lessee. In the case of an open-end lease, the tax shall be calculated by the vendor on the basis of the total amount to be paid during the initial fixed term of the lease, and then for each subsequent renewal period as it comes due. As used in division (G)(6) of this section only, "motor vehicle" has the same meaning as in section 4501.01 of the Revised Code If a consumer produces tangible personal property for sale and removes that property from inventory for the consumer's own use, the price is the produced cost of that tangible personal property.

(H) "Nexus with this state" means that the seller engages in continuous and widespread solicitation of purchases from residents of this state or otherwise purposefully directs its business activities at residents of this state.

(I) "Substantial nexus with this state" means that the seller has sufficient contact with this state, in accordance with Section 8 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States, to allow the state to require the seller to collect and remit use tax on sales of tangible personal property or services made to consumers in this state. "Substantial nexus with this state" exists when the seller does any of the following:

(1) Maintains a place of business within this state, whether operated by employees or agents of the seller, by a member of an affiliated group, as ~~described~~ defined in division (B)(3)(e) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code, of which the seller is a member, or by a franchisee using a trade name of the seller;

(8) Has any other contact with this state that would allow this state to require the seller to collect and remit use tax under Section 8 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States.

(J) "Fiscal officer" means, with respect to a regional transit authority, the secretary-treasurer thereof, and with respect to a county which is a transit authority, the fiscal officer of the county transit board appointed pursuant to section 306.03 of the Revised Code or, if the board of county commissioners operates the county transit system, the county auditor.

(L) "Transit authority" means a regional transit authority created pursuant to section 306.31 of the Revised Code or a county in which a county transit system is created pursuant to section 306.01 of the Revised Code. For the purposes of this chapter, a transit authority must extend to at least the entire area of a single county. (P) "Certified service provider" has the same meaning as in section 5740.01 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5741.02. (A)(1) For the use of the general revenue fund of the state, an excise tax is hereby levied on the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property or the benefit realized in this state of any service provided. The tax shall be collected ~~pursuant to the schedules as provided~~ in section 5739.025 of the Revised Code, provided that on and after July 1, 2003, and on or before June 30, 2005, the rate of the tax shall be six per cent. On and after July 1, 2005, the rate of the tax shall be five per cent.

(2) In the case of the lease or rental, with a fixed term of more than thirty days or an indefinite term with a minimum period of more than thirty days, of any motor vehicles designed by the manufacturer to carry a load of not more than one ton, watercraft, outboard motor, or aircraft, or of any tangible personal property, other than motor vehicles designed by the manufacturer to carry a load of more than one ton, to be used by the lessee or renter primarily for business purposes, the tax shall be collected by the seller at the time the lease or rental is consummated and shall be calculated by the seller on the basis of the total amount to be paid by the lessee or renter under the lease or rental agreement. If the total amount of the consideration for the lease or rental includes amounts that are not calculated at the time the lease or rental is executed, the tax shall be calculated and collected by the seller at the time such amounts are billed to the lessee or renter. In the case of an open-end lease or rental, the tax shall be calculated by the seller on the basis of the total amount to be paid during the initial fixed term of the lease or rental, and for each subsequent renewal period as it comes due. As used in this division, "motor vehicle" has the same meaning as in section 4501.01 of the Revised Code, and "watercraft" includes an outdrive unit attached to the watercraft.

(3) Except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, in the case of a transaction, the price of which consists in whole or part of the lease or rental of tangible personal property, the tax shall be measured by the installments of those leases or rentals.

(B) Each consumer, storing, using, or otherwise consuming in this state tangible personal property or realizing in this state the benefit of any service provided, shall be liable for the tax, and such liability shall not be extinguished until the tax has been paid to this state; provided, that the consumer shall be relieved from further liability for the tax if the tax has been paid to a seller in accordance with section 5741.04 of the Revised Code or prepaid by the seller in accordance with section 5741.06 of the Revised Code.

(C) The tax does not apply to the storage, use, or consumption in this state of the following described tangible personal property or services, nor to the storage, use, or consumption or benefit in this state of tangible personal property or services purchased under the following described circumstances:

(1) When the sale of property or service in this state is subject to the excise tax imposed by sections 5739.01 to 5739.31 of the Revised Code, provided said tax has been paid;

(2) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, tangible personal property or services, the acquisition of which, if made in Ohio, would be a sale not subject to the tax imposed by sections 5739.01 to 5739.31 of the Revised Code;

(3) Property or services, the storage, use, or other consumption of or benefit from which this state is prohibited from taxing by the Constitution of the United States, laws of the United States, or the Constitution of this state. This exemption shall not exempt from the application of the tax imposed by this section the storage, use, or consumption of tangible personal property that was purchased in interstate commerce, but that has come to rest in this state, provided that fuel to be used or transported in carrying on interstate commerce that is stopped within this state pending transfer from one conveyance to another is exempt from the excise tax imposed by this section and section 5739.02 of the Revised Code;

(4) Transient use of tangible personal property in this state by a nonresident tourist or vacationer, or a non-business use within this state by a nonresident of this state, if the property so used was purchased outside this state for use outside this state and is not required to be registered or licensed under the laws of this state;

(5) Tangible personal property or services rendered, upon which taxes have been paid to another jurisdiction to the extent of the amount of the tax paid to such other jurisdiction. Where the amount of the tax imposed by this section and imposed pursuant to section 5741.021, 5741.022, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code exceeds the amount paid to another jurisdiction, the difference shall be allocated between the tax imposed by this section and any tax imposed by a county or a transit authority pursuant to section 5741.021, 5741.022, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code, in proportion to the respective rates of such taxes.

As used in this subdivision, "taxes paid to another jurisdiction" means the total amount of retail sales or use tax or similar tax based upon the sale, purchase, or use of tangible personal property or services rendered legally, levied by and paid to another state or political subdivision thereof, or to the District of Columbia, where the payment of such tax does not entitle the taxpayer to any refund or credit for such payment.

(6) The transfer of a used manufactured home or used mobile home, as defined by section 5739.0210 of the Revised Code, made on or after January 1, 2000;

(7) Drugs that are or are intended to be distributed free of charge to a practitioner licensed to prescribe, dispense, and administer drugs to a human being in the course of a professional practice and that by law may be dispensed only by or upon the order of such a practitioner.

(D) The tax applies to the storage, use, or other consumption in this state of tangible personal property or services, the acquisition of which at the time of sale was excepted under division (E)(4) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code from the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, but which has subsequently been temporarily or permanently stored, used, or otherwise consumed in a taxable manner.

(E)(1) If any transaction is claimed to be exempt under division (E) of section 5739.01 of the Revised Code or under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, with the exception of divisions (B)(1) to (11) or (28) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the consumer shall provide to the seller, and the seller shall obtain from the consumer, a certificate specifying the reason that the transaction is not subject to the tax. The certificate shall be provided either in a hard copy form or electronic form, as prescribed by the tax commissioner. If the transaction is claimed to be exempt under division (B)(13) of section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, the exemption certificate shall be provided by both the contractor and contractee. Such contractee shall be deemed to be the consumer of all items purchased under the claim of exemption if it is subsequently determined that the exemption is not properly claimed. The certificate shall be in such form as the tax commissioner by rule prescribes. The seller shall maintain records, including exemption certificates, of all sales on which a consumer has claimed an exemption, and provide them to the tax commissioner on request.

(2) If no certificate is provided or obtained within the period for filing the return for the period in which the transaction is consummated, it shall be presumed that the tax applies. The failure to have so provided or obtained a certificate shall not preclude a seller or consumer from establishing, within one hundred twenty days of the giving of notice by the commissioner of intention to levy an assessment, that the transaction is not subject to the tax.

(F) A seller who files a petition for reassessment contesting the assessment of tax on transactions for which the seller obtained no valid exemption certificates, and for which the seller failed to establish that the transactions were not subject to the tax during the one-hundred-twenty-day period allowed under division (E) of this section, may present to the tax commissioner additional evidence to prove that the transactions were exempt. The seller shall file such evidence within ninety days of the receipt by the seller of the notice of assessment, except that, upon application and for reasonable cause, the tax commissioner may extend the period for submitting such evidence thirty days.

(G) For the purpose of the proper administration of sections 5741.01 to 5741.22 of the Revised Code, and to prevent the evasion of the tax hereby levied, it shall be presumed that any use, storage, or other consumption of tangible personal property in this state is subject to the tax until the contrary is established.

(H) The tax collected by the seller from the consumer under this chapter is not part of the price, but is a tax collection for the benefit of the state, and of counties levying an additional use tax pursuant to section 5741.021 or 5741.023 of the Revised Code and of transit authorities levying an additional use tax pursuant to section 5741.022 of the Revised Code. Except for the discount authorized under section 5741.12 of the Revised Code and the effects of any rounding pursuant to section 5703.055 of the Revised Code, no person other than the state or such a county or transit authority shall derive any benefit from the collection of such tax.

Sec. 5741.021. (A) For the purpose of providing additional general revenues for the county or supporting criminal and administrative justice services in the county, or both, and to pay the expenses of administering such levy, any county which levies a tax pursuant to section 5739.021 of the Revised Code shall levy a tax at the same rate levied pursuant to section 5739.021 of the Revised Code on the storage, use, or other consumption in the county of the following:

(1) Motor vehicles ~~acquired on or after May 1, 1970~~, and watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled in the county pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and ~~acquired on or after April 1, 1990~~, by a transaction subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code;

(2) In addition to the tax imposed by section 5741.02 of the Revised Code, tangible personal property and services subject to the tax levied by this state as provided in section 5741.02 of the Revised Code, and tangible personal property and services purchased in another county within this state by a transaction subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code.

The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution of the board of county commissioners which shall be adopted after publication of notice and hearing in the same manner as provided in section 5739.021 of the Revised Code. Such resolution shall be adopted and shall become effective on the same day as the resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners levying a sales tax pursuant to section 5739.021 of the Revised Code and shall remain in effect until such sales tax is repealed.

(B) The tax levied pursuant to this section on the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property and on the benefit of a service realized shall be in addition to the tax levied by section 5741.02 of the Revised Code and, except as provided in division (D) of this section, any tax levied pursuant to sections 5741.022 and 5741.023 of the Revised Code.

(C) The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected pursuant to ~~the schedules in~~ section 5739.025 of the Revised Code. If the additional tax or some portion thereof is levied for the purpose of criminal and administrative justice services, the revenue from the tax, or the amount or rate apportioned to that purpose, shall be credited to a special fund created in the county treasury for receipt of that revenue.

(D) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall not be applicable to any benefit of a service realized or to any storage, use, or consumption of property not within the taxing power of a county under the constitution of the United States or the constitution of this state, or to property or services on which a tax levied by a county or transit authority pursuant to this section or section 5739.021, 5739.023, 5739.026, 5741.022, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code has been paid, if the sum of the taxes paid pursuant to those sections is equal to or greater than the sum of the taxes due under this section and sections 5741.022 and 5741.023 of the Revised Code. If the sum of the taxes paid is less than the sum of the taxes due under this section and sections 5741.022 and 5741.023 of the Revised Code, the amount of tax paid shall be credited against the amount of tax due.

(E) As used in this section, "criminal and administrative justice services" has the same meaning as in section 5739.021 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5741.022. (A) For the purpose of providing additional general revenues for the transit authority and paying the expenses of administering such levy, any transit authority as defined in section 5741.01 of the Revised Code that levies a tax pursuant to section 5739.023 of the Revised Code shall levy a tax at the same rate levied pursuant to such section on the storage, use, or other consumption in the territory of the transit authority of the following:

(1) Motor vehicles ~~acquired on or after June 29, 1974~~, and watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled in the county pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and ~~acquired on or after April 1, 1990~~, by a transaction subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code;

(2) In addition to the tax imposed by section 5741.02 of the Revised Code, tangible personal property and services subject to the tax levied by this state as provided in section 5741.02 of the Revised Code, and tangible personal property and services purchased in another county within this state by a transaction subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code.

The tax shall be in effect at the same time and at the same rate and shall be levied pursuant to the resolution of the legislative authority of the transit authority levying a sales tax pursuant to section 5739.023 of the Revised Code.

(B) The tax levied pursuant to this section on the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property and on the benefit of a service realized shall be in addition to the tax levied by section 5741.02 of the Revised Code and, except as provided in division (D) of this section, any tax levied pursuant to sections 5741.021 and 5741.023 of the Revised Code.

(C) The additional tax levied by the authority shall be collected pursuant to ~~the schedules in~~ section 5739.025 of the Revised Code.

(D) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall not be applicable to any benefit of a service realized or to any storage, use, or consumption of property not within the taxing power of a transit authority under the constitution of the United States or the constitution of this state, or to property or services on which a tax levied by a county or transit authority pursuant to this section or section 5739.021, 5739.023, 5739.026, 5741.021, or 5741.023 of the Revised Code has been paid, if the sum of the taxes paid pursuant to those sections is equal to or greater than the sum of the taxes due under this section and sections 5741.021 and 5741.023 of the Revised Code. If the sum of the taxes paid is less than the sum of the taxes due under this section and sections 5741.021 and 5741.023 of the Revised Code, the amount of tax paid shall be credited against the amount of tax due.

(E) The rate of a tax levied under this section is subject to reduction under section 5739.028 of the Revised Code if a ballot question is approved by voters pursuant to that section.

Sec. 5741.023. (A) For the same purposes for which it has imposed a tax under section 5739.026 of the Revised Code, any county ~~which~~ that levies a tax pursuant to such section shall levy a tax at the same rate levied pursuant to such section on the storage, use, or other consumption in the county of the following:

(1) Motor vehicles, and watercraft and outboard motors required to be titled in the county pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code, acquired by a transaction subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code;

(2) In addition to the tax imposed by section 5741.02 of the Revised Code, tangible personal property and services subject to the tax levied by this state as provided in section 5741.02 of the Revised Code, and tangible personal property and services purchased in another county within this state by a transaction subject to the tax imposed by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code.

The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution of the board of county commissioners, which shall be adopted in the same manner as provided in section 5739.026 of the Revised Code. Such resolution shall be adopted and shall become effective on the same day as the resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners levying a sales tax pursuant to such section and shall remain in effect until such sales tax is repealed or expires.

(B) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the tax levied by section 5741.02 of the Revised Code and, except as provided in division (D) of this section, any tax levied pursuant to sections 5741.021 and 5741.022 of the Revised Code.

(C) The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected pursuant to ~~the schedules in~~ section 5739.025 of the Revised Code.

(D) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall not be applicable to any benefit of a service realized or to any storage, use, or consumption of property not within the taxing power of a county under the constitution of the United States or the constitution of this state, or to property or services on which tax levied by a county or transit authority pursuant to this section or section 5739.021, 5739.023, 5739.026, 5741.021, or 5741.022 of the Revised Code has been paid, if the sum of the taxes paid pursuant to those sections is equal to or greater than the sum of the taxes due under this section and sections 5741.021 and 5741.022 of the Revised Code. If the sum of the taxes paid is less than the sum of the taxes due under this section and sections 5741.021 and 5741.022 of the Revised Code, the amount of tax paid shall be credited against the amount of tax due.

Sec. 5741.121. (A) If the total amount of tax required to be paid by a seller or consumer under section 5741.12 of the Revised Code for any year ~~indicated in the following schedule~~ equals or exceeds ~~the amount prescribed for that year in the schedule~~ seventy-five thousand dollars, the seller or consumer shall remit each monthly tax payment in the second ensuing and each succeeding year by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by division (B) of this section.

Tax payment	$1,200,000	$600,000	$60,000

If a seller's or consumer's tax payment for each of two consecutive years ~~beginning with 2000~~ is less than ~~sixty~~ seventy-five thousand dollars, the seller or consumer is relieved of the requirement to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer for the year that next follows the second of the consecutive years in which the tax payment is less than ~~sixty thousand dollars~~ that amount, and is relieved of that requirement for each succeeding year, unless the tax payment in a subsequent year equals or exceeds ~~sixty~~ seventy-five thousand dollars.

The tax commissioner shall notify each seller or consumer required to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer of the seller's or consumer's obligation to do so, shall maintain an updated list of those sellers and consumers, and shall timely certify the list and any additions thereto or deletions therefrom to the treasurer of state. Failure by the tax commissioner to notify a seller or consumer subject to this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer does not relieve the seller or consumer of the obligation to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer.

(B) Sellers and consumers required by division (A) of this section to remit payments by electronic funds transfer shall remit such payments to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by this section and rules adopted by the treasurer of state under section 113.061 of the Revised Code, and on or before the following dates:

(1)(a) On or before the ~~eleventh~~ fifteenth day of each month, a seller shall remit an amount equal to the taxes collected during the first ~~seven~~ eleven days of the month. ~~On or before the eighteenth day of each month, a seller shall remit an amount equal to the taxes collected on the eighth through the fourteenth day of the month.~~ On or before the twenty-fifth day of each month, a seller shall remit an amount equal to the taxes collected on the ~~fifteenth~~ twelfth through the twenty-first day of the month.

(b) In lieu of remitting the actual amounts collected for the periods specified in division (B)(1)(a) of this section, a seller may, on or before each of the ~~eleventh, eighteenth,~~ fifteenth and twenty-fifth days of each month, remit an amount equal to ~~one-fourth~~ thirty-seven and one-half per cent of the seller's total tax liability for the same month in the preceding calendar year.

(2) On or before each of the ~~eleventh, eighteenth,~~ fifteenth and twenty-fifth days of each month, a consumer shall remit an amount equal to ~~one-fourth~~ thirty-seven and one-half per cent of the consumer's total tax liability for the same month in the preceding calendar year.

(3) On or before the twenty-third day of each month, a seller shall report the taxes collected and a consumer shall report the taxes due for the previous month and shall remit that amount, less any amounts paid for that month as required by division (B)(1)(a) or (b) or (B)(2) of this section.

The payment of taxes by electronic funds transfer does not affect a seller's or consumer's obligation to file the monthly return as required under section 5741.12 of the Revised Code.

(C) A seller or consumer required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer may apply to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by the treasurer of state to be excused from that requirement. The treasurer of state may excuse the seller or consumer from remittance by electronic funds transfer for good cause shown for the period of time requested by the seller or consumer or for a portion of that period. The treasurer of state shall notify the tax commissioner and the seller or consumer of the treasurer of state's decision as soon as is practicable.

(D)(1) If a seller or consumer that is required to remit payments under division (B) of this section fails to make a payment, the commissioner may impose an additional charge not to exceed five per cent of that unpaid amount.

(2) If a seller or consumer required by this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer remits those taxes by some means other than by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by the rules adopted by the treasurer of state, and the treasurer of state determines that such failure was not due to reasonable cause or was due to willful neglect, the treasurer of state shall notify the tax commissioner of the failure to remit by electronic funds transfer and shall provide the commissioner with any information used in making that determination. The tax commissioner may impose an additional charge not to exceed the lesser of five per cent of the amount of the taxes required to be paid by electronic funds transfer or five thousand dollars.

(3) Any additional charge imposed under this section is in addition to any other penalty or charge imposed under this chapter, and shall be considered as revenue arising from taxes imposed under this chapter. An additional charge may be collected by assessment in the manner prescribed by section 5741.13 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may waive all or a portion of such a charge and may adopt rules governing such waiver.

No additional charge shall be imposed under division (D)(2) of this section against a seller or consumer that has been notified of the obligation to remit taxes under this section and that remits its first two tax payments after such notification by some means other than electronic funds transfer.

The additional charge may be imposed upon the remittance of any subsequent tax payment that the seller or consumer remits by some means other than electronic funds transfer.

Sec. 5741.25. If any corporation, limited liability company, or business trust registered or required to be registered under section 5741.17 of the Revised Code and required to file returns and remit tax due to the state under this chapter fails for any reason to make the filing or payment, any of its employees having control or supervision of or charged with the responsibility of filing returns and making payments, or any of its officers, members, managers, or trustees who are responsible for the execution of the corporation's, limited liability company's, or business trust's fiscal responsibilities, shall be personally liable for the failure. The dissolution, termination, or bankruptcy of a corporation, limited liability company, or business trust shall not discharge a responsible officer's, member's, manager's, employee's, or trustee's liability for a failure of the corporation, limited liability company, or business trust to file returns or remit tax due. The sum due for the liability may be collected by assessment in the manner provided in section 5741.11 or 5741.13 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5743.05. All stamps provided for by section 5743.03 of the Revised Code, when procured by the tax commissioner, shall be immediately delivered to the treasurer of state, who shall execute a receipt therefor showing the number and aggregate face value of each denomination received by the treasurer of state and any other information that the commissioner requires to enforce the collection and distribution of all taxes imposed under section 5743.024 or 5743.026 of the Revised Code, and deliver the receipt to the commissioner. The treasurer of state shall sell the stamps and, on the fifth day of each month, make a report showing all sales made during the preceding month, with the names of purchasers, the number of each denomination, the aggregate face value purchased by each, and any other information as the commissioner requires to enforce the collection and distribution of all taxes imposed under section 5743.024 of the Revised Code, and deliver it to the commissioner. The treasurer of state shall be accountable for all stamps received and unsold. The stamps shall be sold and accounted for at their face value, except the commissioner shall, by rule certified to the treasurer of state, authorize the sale of stamps and meter impressions to wholesale or retail dealers in this state, or to wholesale dealers outside this state, at a discount of not less than one and eight-tenths per cent or more than ten per cent of their face value, as a commission for affixing and canceling the stamps or meter impressions.

The commissioner, by rule certified to the treasurer of state, shall authorize the delivery of stamps and meter impressions to wholesale and retail dealers in this state and to wholesale dealers outside this state on credit ~~when the purchaser files~~. If such a dealer has not been in good credit standing with this state for five consecutive years preceding the purchase, the tax commissioner shall require the dealer to file with the commissioner a bond to the state in the amount and in the form prescribed by the commissioner, and with surety to the satisfaction of the treasurer of state commissioner, conditioned on payment to the treasurer of state within thirty days for stamps or meter impressions delivered within that time. If such a dealer has been in good credit standing with this state for five consecutive years preceding the purchase, the tax commissioner shall not require that the dealer file such a bond but shall require payment for the stamps and meter impressions within thirty days after purchase of the stamps and meter impressions. Stamps and meter impressions sold to a dealer not required to file a bond shall be sold at face value. The maximum amount that may be sold on credit to a dealer not required to file a bond shall equal one hundred ten per cent of the dealer's average monthly purchases over the preceding calendar year. The maximum amount shall be adjusted to reflect any changes in the tax rate and may be adjusted, upon application to the tax commissioner by the dealer, to reflect changes in the business operations of the dealer. The maximum amount shall be applicable to the period of July through April. Payment by a dealer not required to file a bond shall be remitted by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by section 5743.051 of the Revised Code. If a dealer not required to file a bond fails to make the payment in full within the thirty-day period, the treasurer of state shall not thereafter sell stamps or meter impressions to that dealer until the dealer pays the outstanding amount, including penalty and interest on that amount as prescribed in this chapter, and the commissioner thereafter may require the dealer to file a bond until the dealer is restored to good standing. The commissioner shall limit delivery of stamps and meter impressions on credit to the period running from the first day of July of the fiscal year until the first day of the following May. Any discount allowed as a commission for affixing and canceling stamps or meter impressions shall be allowed with respect to sales of stamps and meter impressions on credit.

The treasurer of state shall redeem and pay for any destroyed, unused, or spoiled tax stamps and any unused meter impressions at their net value, and shall refund to wholesale dealers the net amount of state and county taxes paid erroneously or paid on cigarettes that have been sold in interstate or foreign commerce or that have become unsalable, and the net amount of county taxes that were paid on cigarettes that have been sold at retail or for retail sale outside a taxing county.

An application for a refund of tax shall be filed with the tax commissioner, on the form prescribed by the commissioner for that purpose, within three years from the date the tax stamps are destroyed or spoiled, from the date of the erroneous payment, or from the date that cigarettes on which taxes have been paid have been sold in interstate or foreign commerce or have become unsalable.

On the filing of the application, the commissioner shall determine the amount of refund to which the applicant is entitled, payable from receipts of the state tax, and, if applicable, payable from receipts of a county tax. If the amount is less than that claimed, the ~~commissioner~~ commissioner shall certify the amount to the director of budget and management and treasurer of state for payment from the tax refund fund created by section 5703.052 of the Revised Code. If the amount is less than that claimed, the commissioner shall proceed in accordance with section 5703.70 of the Revised Code.

If a refund is granted for payment of an illegal or erroneous assessment issued by the department, the refund shall include interest on the amount of the refund from the date of the overpayment. The interest shall be computed at the rate per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5743.051. This section applies to any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer required by section 5743.05 of the Revised Code to remit payment for tax stamps and meter impressions by electronic funds transfer. The tax commissioner shall notify each dealer of the dealer's obligation to do so and shall maintain an updated list of those dealers. Failure by the tax commissioner to notify a dealer subject to this section to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer does not relieve the dealer of its obligation to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer.

A dealer required to remit payments by electronic funds transfer shall remit such payments to the treasurer of state in the manner prescribed by rules adopted by the treasurer of state under section 113.061 of the Revised Code and within the time prescribed for such a dealer by section 5743.05 of the Revised Code.

A dealer required to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer may apply to the tax commissioner in the manner prescribed by the tax commissioner to be excused from that requirement. The tax commissioner may excuse the dealer from remittance by electronic funds transfer for good cause shown for the period of time requested by the dealer or for a portion of that period.

If a dealer required to remit taxes by electronic funds transfer remits those taxes by some other means, the treasurer of state shall notify the tax commissioner of the failure to remit by electronic funds transfer. If the tax commissioner determines that such failure was not due to reasonable cause or was due to willful neglect, the tax commissioner may collect an additional charge by assessment in the manner prescribed by section 5743.081 of the Revised Code. The additional charge shall equal five per cent of the amount of the taxes required to be paid by electronic funds transfer but shall not exceed five thousand dollars. Any additional charge assessed under this section is in addition to any other penalty or charge imposed under this chapter and shall be considered as revenue arising from taxes imposed under this chapter. The tax commissioner may abate all or a portion of such a charge and may adopt rules governing such remissions.

No additional charge shall be assessed under this section against a dealer that has been notified of its obligation to remit taxes under this section and that remits its first two tax payments after such notification by some means other than electronic funds transfer. The additional charge may be assessed upon the remittance of any subsequent tax payment that the dealer remits by some means other than electronic funds transfer.

Sec. 5743.21. (A) No person shall affix a stamp required by section 5743.03 of the Revised Code to any package that:

(1) Bears any label or notice prescribed by the United States to identify cigarettes exempt from taxation by the United States pursuant to section 5704(b) of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26

U.S.C.A. 5704(b), including any notice or label described in 27 C.F.R. 290.185;

(2) Is not labeled in conformity with the "Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act," 79 Stat. 282, 15 U.S.C.A. 1331 (1965), or any other federal requirement for the placement of labels, warnings, or other information applicable to packages of cigarettes intended for domestic consumption;

(3) Has been altered by anyone other than the manufacturer or a person authorized by the manufacturer, including by the placement of a sticker to cover information on or add information to the package;

(4) Has been imported or brought into the United States after January 1, 2000, in violation of section 5754 of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 5754, or regulations adopted under that section;

(5) Is produced by a tobacco product manufacturer or is part of a brand family that is not included in the directory established under section 1346.05 of the Revised Code.

(B) No person shall sell or offer to sell any roll-your-own tobacco to any person in this state if the roll-your-own tobacco is not included in the directory established under section 1346.05 of the Revised Code. Any roll-your-own tobacco in the possession of a retail dealer in this state shall be prima facie evidence of offering to sell to a person in this state.

(C) Whenever the tax commissioner discovers any packages to which stamps have been affixed in violation of this section, or any roll-your-own tobacco sold or offered for sale in violation of this section, the tax commissioner may seize the packages or roll-your-own tobacco, which shall thereupon be forfeited to the state, and shall order their the destruction of the packages or roll-your-own tobacco, provided that the seizure and destruction shall not exempt any person from prosecution or from the fine or imprisonment provided for the violation of this section.

(D) As used in this section, "roll-your-own" has the same meaning as in section 1346.01 of the Revised Code, and "tobacco product manufacturer" and "brand family" have the same meanings as in section 1346.04 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5743.45. (A) As used in this section, "felony" has the same meaning as in section 109.511 of the Revised Code.

(B) For purposes of enforcing this chapter and Chapters 5728., 5735., 5739., 5741., and 5747. of the Revised Code and subject to division (C) of this section, the tax commissioner, by journal entry, may delegate any investigation powers of the commissioner to an employee of the department of taxation who has been certified by the Ohio peace officer training commission and who is engaged in the enforcement of those chapters. A separate journal entry shall be entered for each employee to whom that power is delegated. Each journal entry shall be a matter of public record and shall be maintained in an administrative portion of the journal as provided for in division (L) of section 5703.05 of the Revised Code. When that journal entry is completed, the employee to whom it pertains, while engaged within the scope of the employee's duties in enforcing the provisions of this chapter or Chapter 5728., 5735., 5739., 5741., or 5747. of the Revised Code, has the power of a police officer to carry concealed weapons, make arrests, and obtain warrants for violations of any provision in those chapters. The commissioner, at any time, may suspend or revoke ~~that~~ the commissioner's delegation by journal entry. No employee of the department shall divulge any information acquired as a result of an investigation pursuant to this chapter or Chapter 5728., 5735., 5739., 5741., or 5747. of the Revised Code, except as may be required by the commissioner or a court.

(C)(1) The tax commissioner shall not delegate any investigation powers to an employee of the department of taxation pursuant to division (B) of this section on a permanent basis, on a temporary basis, for a probationary term, or on other than a permanent basis if the employee previously has been convicted of or has pleaded guilty to a felony.

(2)(a) The tax commissioner shall revoke the delegation of investigation powers to an employee to whom the delegation was made pursuant to division (B) of this section if that employee does either of the following:

(i) Pleads guilty to a felony;

(ii) Pleads guilty to a misdemeanor pursuant to a negotiated plea agreement as provided in division (D) of section 2929.29 of the Revised Code in which the employee agrees to surrender the certificate awarded to that employee under section 109.77 of the Revised Code.

(b) The tax commissioner shall suspend the delegation of investigation powers to an employee to whom the delegation was made pursuant to division (B) of this section if that employee is convicted, after trial, of a felony. If the employee files an appeal from that conviction and the conviction is upheld by the highest court to which the appeal is taken or if the employee does not file a timely appeal, the commissioner shall revoke the delegation of investigation powers to that employee. If the employee files an appeal that results in that employee's acquittal of the felony or conviction of a misdemeanor, or in the dismissal of the felony charge against that employee, the commissioner shall reinstate the delegation of investigation powers to that employee. The suspension, revocation, and reinstatement of the delegation of investigation powers to an employee under division (C)(2) of this section shall be made by journal entry pursuant to division (B) of this section. An employee to whom the delegation of investigation powers is reinstated under division (C)(2)(b) of this section shall not receive any back pay for the exercise of those investigation powers unless that employee's conviction of the felony was reversed on appeal, or the felony charge was dismissed, because the court found insufficient evidence to convict the employee of the felony.

(3) Division (C) of this section does not apply regarding an offense that was committed prior to January 1, 1997.

(4) The suspension or revocation of the delegation of investigation powers to an employee under division (C)(2) of this section shall be in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5745.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Electric company," ~~and~~ "combined company," and "telephone company," have the same meanings as in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code, except "telephone company" does not include a non profit corporation.

(B) "Electric light company" has the same meaning as in section 4928.01 of the Revised Code, and includes the activities of a combined company as an electric company, but excludes nonprofit companies and municipal corporations.

(C) "Taxpayer" means ~~an~~ either of the following:

(1) An electric light company subject to taxation by a municipal corporation in this state for a taxable year, excluding an electric light company that is not an electric company or a combined company and for which an election made under section 5745.031 of the Revised Code is not in effect with respect to the taxable year. If such a company is a qualified subchapter S subsidiary as defined in section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code or a disregarded entity, the company's parent S corporation or owner is the taxpayer for the purposes of this chapter and is hereby deemed to have nexus with this state under the Constitution of the United States for the purposes of this chapter.

(2) A telephone company subject to taxation by a municipal corporation in this state for a taxable year. A telephone company is subject to taxation under this chapter for any taxable year that begins on or after January 1, 2004. A telephone company with a taxable year ending in 2004 shall compute the tax imposed under this chapter, or shall compute its net operating loss carried forward for that taxable year, by multiplying the tax owed, or the loss for the taxable year, by fifty per cent.

(D) "Disregarded entity" means an entity that, for its taxable year, is by default, or has elected to be, disregarded as an entity separate from its owner pursuant to 26 C.F.R. 301.7701-3.

(E) "Taxable year" of a taxpayer is the taxpayer's taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

(F) "Federal taxable income" means taxable income, before operating loss deduction and special deductions, as required to be reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code.

(G) "Adjusted federal taxable income" means federal taxable income adjusted as follows:

(1) Deduct intangible income as defined in section 718.01 of the Revised Code to the extent included in federal taxable income;

(2) Add expenses incurred in the production of such intangible income;

(3) If, with respect to a qualifying taxpayer and a qualifying asset there occurs a qualifying taxable event, the qualifying taxpayer shall reduce its federal taxable income, as defined in division (F) of this section, by the amount of the book-tax ~~differential~~ difference for that qualifying asset if the book-tax ~~differential~~ difference is greater than zero, and shall increase its federal taxable income by the absolute value of the amount of the book-tax ~~differential~~ difference for that qualifying asset if the book-tax ~~differential~~ difference is less than zero. The adjustments provided in division (G)(3) of this section are subject to divisions (B)(3), (4), and (5) of section 5733.0510 of the Revised Code to the extent those divisions apply to the adjustments in that section for the taxable year. A taxpayer shall not deduct or add any amount under division (G)(3) of this section with respect to a qualifying asset the sale, exchange, or other disposition of which resulted in the recognition of a gain or loss that the taxpayer deducted or added, respectively, under division (G)(1) or (2) of this section.

For the purposes of division (G)(3) of this section, ~~"net income" has the same meaning as in section 5733.04 of the Revised Code, and "book-tax differential difference," "qualifying taxpayer," "qualifying asset," and "qualifying taxable event" have the same meanings as in section 5733.0510 of the Revised Code.~~

(4) If the taxpayer is not a C corporation and is not an individual, the taxpayer shall compute "adjusted federal taxable income" as if the taxpayer were a C corporation, except:

(a) Guaranteed payments and other similar amounts paid or accrued to a partner, former partner, or member or former member shall not be allowed as a deductible expense; and

(b) With respect to each owner or owner-employee of the taxpayer, amounts paid or accrued to a qualified self-employed retirement plan and amounts paid or accrued to or for health insurance or life insurance shall not be allowed as a deduction.

Nothing in this division shall be construed as allowing the taxpayer to deduct any amount more than once.

(5) Add or deduct the amounts described in section 5733.0511 of the Revised Code for qualifying telephone company taxpayers.

(H) "Internal Revenue Code" means the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 1, as ~~amended~~ it existed on December 31, 2001.

(I) "Ohio net income" means the amount determined under division (B) of section 5745.02 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5745.02. (A) The annual report filed under section 5745.03 of the Revised Code determines a taxpayer's Ohio net income and the portion of Ohio net income to be apportioned to a municipal corporation.

(B) A taxpayer's Ohio net income is determined by multiplying the taxpayer's adjusted federal taxable income by the sum of the property factor multiplied by one-third, the payroll factor multiplied by one-third, and the sales factor multiplied by one-third. If the denominator of one of the factors is zero, the remaining two factors each shall be multiplied by one-half instead of one-third; if the denominator of two of the factors is zero, the remaining factor shall be multiplied by one. The property, payroll, and sales factors shall be determined in the manner prescribed by divisions (B)(1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(1) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented, and used in business in this state during the taxable year, and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented, and used in business everywhere during such year. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. "Net annual rental rate" means the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and the end of the taxable year, but the tax commissioner may require the averaging of monthly values during the taxable year, if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

(2) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the taxable year by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid

everywhere by the taxpayer during such year. Compensation means any form of remuneration paid to an employee for personal services. Compensation is paid in this state if: (a) the recipient's service is performed entirely within this state, (b) the recipient's service is performed both within and without this state, but the service performed without this state is incidental to the recipient's service within this state, or (c) some of the service is performed within this state and either the base of operations, or if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is within this state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the recipient's residence is in this state.

(3) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales in this state by the taxpayer during the taxable year, and the denominator of which is the total sales by the taxpayer everywhere during such year. Sales of electricity shall be situated to this state in the manner provided under section 5733.059 of the Revised Code. In determining the numerator and denominator of the sales factor, receipts from the sale or other disposal of a capital asset or an asset described in section 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be eliminated. Also, in determining the numerator and denominator of the sales factor, in the case of a reporting taxpayer owning at least eighty per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of one or more insurance companies or public utilities, except an electric company, a combined company, or a telephone company, or owning at least twenty-five per cent of the issued and outstanding common stock of one or more financial institutions, receipts received by the reporting taxpayer from such utilities, insurance companies, and financial institutions shall be eliminated.

For the purpose of division (B)(3) of this section, sales of tangible personal property are in this state where such property is received in this state by the purchaser. In the case of delivery of tangible personal property by common carrier or by other means of transportation, the place at which such property is ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which such property is received by the purchaser. Direct delivery in this state, other than for purposes of transportation, to a person or firm designated by a purchaser constitutes delivery to the purchaser in this state, and direct delivery outside this state to a person or firm designated by a purchaser does not constitute delivery to the purchaser in this state, regardless of where title passes or other conditions of sale.

Sales, other than sales of electricity or tangible personal property, are in this state if either the income-producing activity is performed solely in this state, or the income-producing activity is performed both within and without this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed within this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

For the purposes of division (B)(3) of this section, the tax commissioner may adopt rules to apportion sales within this state.

(C) The portion of a taxpayer's Ohio net income taxable by each municipal corporation imposing an income tax shall be determined by multiplying the taxpayer's Ohio net income by the sum of the municipal property factor multiplied by one-third, the municipal payroll factor multiplied by one-third, and the municipal sales factor multiplied by one-third, and subtracting from the product so obtained any "municipal net operating loss carryforward from prior taxable years." If the denominator of one of the factors is zero, the remaining two factors each shall be multiplied by one-half instead of one-third; if the denominator of two of the factors is zero, the remaining factor shall be multiplied by one. In calculating the "municipal net operating loss carryforward from prior taxable years" for each municipal corporation, net operating losses are apportioned in and out of a municipal corporation for the taxable year in which the net operating loss occurs in the same manner that positive net income would have been so apportioned. Any net operating loss for a municipal corporation may be applied to subsequent net income in that municipal corporation to reduce that income to zero or until the net operating loss has been fully used as a deduction. The unused portion of net operating losses for each taxable year apportioned to a municipal corporation may only be applied against the income apportioned to that municipal corporation for five subsequent taxable years. Net operating losses occurring in taxable years ending before 2002 may not be subtracted under this section.

A taxpayer's municipal property, municipal payroll, and municipal sales factors for a municipal corporation shall be determined as provided in divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(1) The municipal property factor is the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the average value of real and tangible personal property owned or rented by the taxpayer and used in business in the municipal corporation during the taxable year by (b) the average value of all of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in business during that taxable year in this state. The value and average value of such property shall be determined in the same manner provided in division (B)(1) of this section.

(2) The municipal payroll factor is the quotient obtained by dividing (a) the total amount of compensation earned in the municipal corporation by the taxpayer's employees during the taxable year for services performed for the taxpayer and that is subject to income tax withholding by the municipal corporation by (b) the total amount of compensation paid by the taxpayer to its employees in this state during the taxable year. Compensation has the same meaning as in division (B)(2) of this section.

(3) The municipal sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the taxpayer's total sales in a municipal corporation during the taxable year, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total sales in this state during such year.

For the purpose of division (C)(3) of this section, sales of tangible personal property are in the municipal corporation where such property is received in the municipal corporation by the purchaser. Sales of electricity directly to the consumer, as defined in section 5733.059 of the Revised Code, shall be considered sales of tangible personal property. In the case of the delivery of tangible personal property by common carrier or by other means of transportation, the place at which such property ultimately is received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the property is received by the purchaser. Direct delivery in the municipal corporation, other than for purposes of transportation, to a person or firm designated by a purchaser constitutes delivery to the purchaser in that municipal corporation, and direct delivery outside the municipal corporation to a person or firm designated by a purchaser does not constitute delivery to the purchaser in that municipal corporation, regardless of where title passes or other conditions of sale. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in the municipal corporation if either:

(a) The income-producing activity is performed solely in the municipal corporation;

(b) The income-producing activity is performed both within and without the municipal corporation and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed within that municipal corporation than any other location in this state, based on costs of performance.

For the purposes of division (C)(3) of this section, the tax commissioner may adopt rules to apportion sales within each municipal corporation.

(D) If a taxpayer is a combined company as defined in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code, the municipal property, payroll, and sales factors under division (C) of this section shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) The numerator of the municipal property factor shall include only the value, as determined under division (C)(1) of this section, of the company's real and tangible property in the municipal corporation attributed to the company's activity as an electric company using the same methodology prescribed under section 5727.03 of the Revised Code for taxable tangible personal property.

(2) The numerator of the municipal payroll factor shall include only compensation paid in the municipal corporation by the company to its employees for personal services rendered in the company's activity as an electric company.

(3) The numerator of the municipal sales factor shall include only the sales of tangible personal property and services, as determined under division (C)(3) of this section, made in the municipal corporation in the course of the company's activity as an electric company.

(E)(1) If the provisions for apportioning adjusted federal taxable income or Ohio net income under ~~division~~ divisions (B), (C), and (D) of this section do not fairly represent business activity in this state or among municipal corporations, the tax commissioner may adopt rules for apportioning such income by an alternative method that fairly represents business activity in this state or among municipal corporations.

(2) If any of the factors determined under division (B), (C), or (D) of this section does not fairly represent the extent of a taxpayer's business activity in this state or among municipal corporations, the taxpayer may request, or the tax commissioner may require, that the taxpayer's adjusted federal taxable income or Ohio net income be determined by an alternative method, including any of the alternative methods enumerated in division (B)(2)(d) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code. A taxpayer requesting an alternative method shall make the request in writing to the tax commissioner either with the annual report, a timely filed amended report, or a timely filed petition for reassessment. When the tax commissioner requires or permits an alternative method under division (E)(2) of this section, the tax commissioner shall cause a written notice to that effect to be delivered to any municipal corporation that would be affected by application of the alternative method. Nothing in this division shall be construed to extend any statute of limitations under this chapter.

(F)(1) The tax commissioner may adopt rules providing for the combination of adjusted federal taxable incomes of taxpayers satisfying the ownership or control requirements of section 5733.052 of the Revised Code if the tax commissioner finds that such combinations are necessary to properly reflect adjusted federal taxable income, Ohio net income, or the portion of Ohio net income to be taxable by municipal corporations.

(2) A taxpayer satisfying the ownership or control requirements of section 5733.052 of the Revised Code with respect to one or more other taxpayers may not combine their adjusted federal taxable incomes for the purposes of this section unless rules are adopted under division (F)(1) of this section allowing such a combination or the tax commissioner finds that such a combination is necessary to properly reflect the taxpayers' adjusted federal taxable incomes, Ohio net incomes, or the portion of Ohio net incomes to be subject to taxation within a municipal corporation.

(G) The tax commissioner may adopt rules providing for alternative apportionment methods for a telephone company.

Sec. 5745.04. (A) As used in this section, "combined tax liability" means the total of a taxpayer's income tax liabilities to all municipal corporations in this state for a taxable year.

(B) Beginning with its taxable year beginning in 2003, each taxpayer shall file a declaration of estimated tax report with, and remit estimated taxes to, the tax commissioner, payable to the treasurer of state, at the times and in the amounts prescribed in divisions (B)(1) to (4) of this section. This division also applies to a taxpayer having a taxable year consisting of fewer than twelve months, at least one of which is in 2002, that ends before January 1, 2003. The first taxable year a taxpayer is subject to this chapter, the estimated taxes the taxpayer is required to remit under this section shall be based solely on the current taxable year and not on the liability for the preceding taxable year.

(1) Not less than twenty-five per cent of the combined tax liability for the preceding taxable year or twenty per cent of the combined tax liability for the current taxable year shall have been remitted not later than the fifteenth day of the fourth month after the end of the preceding taxable year.

(2) Not less than fifty per cent of the combined tax liability for the preceding taxable year or forty per cent of the combined tax liability for the current taxable year shall have been remitted not later than the fifteenth day of the sixth month after the end of the preceding taxable year.

(3) Not less than seventy-five per cent of the combined tax liability for the preceding taxable year or sixty per cent of the combined tax liability for the current taxable year shall have been remitted not later than the fifteenth day of the ninth month after the end of the preceding taxable year.

(4) Not less than one hundred per cent of the combined tax liability for the preceding taxable year or eighty per cent of the combined tax liability for the current taxable year shall have been remitted not later than the fifteenth day of the twelfth month after the end of the preceding taxable year.

(C) Each taxpayer shall report on the declaration of estimated tax report the portion of the remittance that the taxpayer estimates that it owes to each municipal corporation for the taxable year.

(D) Upon receiving a declaration of estimated tax report and remittance of estimated taxes under this section, the tax commissioner shall immediately forward to the treasurer of state such remittance. The treasurer of state shall credit ninety-eight and one-half per cent of the remittance to the municipal income tax fund and credit the remainder to the municipal income tax administrative fund.

(E) If any remittance of estimated taxes is for one thousand dollars or more, the taxpayer shall make the remittance by electronic funds transfer as prescribed by section 5745.04 of the Revised Code.

(F) Notwithstanding section 5745.08 or 5745.09 of the Revised Code, no penalty or interest shall be imposed on a taxpayer if the declaration of estimated tax report is properly filed, and the estimated tax is paid, within the time prescribed by division (B) of this section.

Sec. 5747.01. Except as otherwise expressly provided or clearly appearing from the context, any term used in this chapter has the same meaning as when used in a comparable context in the Internal Revenue Code, and all other statutes of the United States relating to federal income taxes.

As used in this chapter:

(A) "Adjusted gross income" or "Ohio adjusted gross income" means federal adjusted gross income, as defined and used in the Internal Revenue Code, adjusted as provided in this section:

(1) Add interest or dividends on obligations or securities of any state or of any political subdivision or authority of any state, other than this state and its subdivisions and authorities.

(2) Add interest or dividends on obligations of any authority, commission, instrumentality, territory, or possession of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are exempt from federal income taxes but not from state income taxes.

(3) Deduct interest or dividends on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are included in federal adjusted gross income but exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States.

(4) Deduct disability and survivor's benefits to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income.

(5) Deduct benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income under section 86 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer who is a beneficiary of a trust that makes an accumulation distribution as defined in section 665 of the Internal Revenue Code, add, for the beneficiary's taxable years beginning before 2002 or after 2004, the portion, if any, of such distribution that does not exceed the undistributed net income of the trust for the three taxable years preceding the taxable year in which the distribution is made to the extent that the portion was not included in the trust's taxable income for any of the trust's taxable years beginning in 2002, 2003, or 2004. "Undistributed net income of a trust" means the taxable income of the trust increased by (a)(i) the additions to adjusted gross income required under division (A) of this section and (ii) the personal exemptions allowed to the trust pursuant to section 642(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and decreased by (b)(i) the deductions to adjusted gross income required under division (A) of this section, (ii) the amount of federal income taxes attributable to such income, and (iii) the amount of taxable income that has been included in the adjusted gross income of a beneficiary by reason of a prior accumulation distribution. Any undistributed net income included in the adjusted gross income of a beneficiary shall reduce the undistributed net income of the trust commencing with the earliest years of the accumulation period.

(7) Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been allowable as a deduction in computing federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed and determined under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal Revenue Code not been in effect.

(8) Deduct any interest or interest equivalent on public obligations and purchase obligations to the extent that the interest or interest equivalent is included in federal adjusted gross income.

(9) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent that the loss has been deducted or the gain has been included in computing federal adjusted gross income.

(10) Deduct or add amounts, as provided under section 5747.70 of the Revised Code, related to contributions to variable college savings program accounts made or tuition credits purchased pursuant to Chapter 3334. of the Revised Code.

(11)(a) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise allowable as a deduction or exclusion in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income for the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer paid during the taxable year for medical care insurance and qualified long-term care insurance for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and dependents. No deduction for medical care insurance under division (A)(11) of this section shall be allowed either to any taxpayer who is eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by any employer of the taxpayer or of the taxpayer's spouse, or to any taxpayer who is entitled to, or on application would be entitled to, benefits under part A of Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 301, as amended. For the purposes of division (A)(11)(a) of this section, "subsidized health plan" means a health plan for which the employer pays any portion of the plan's cost. The deduction allowed under division (A)(11)(a) of this section shall be the net of any related premium refunds, related premium reimbursements, or related insurance premium dividends received during the taxable year.

(b) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income during the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer paid during the taxable year, not compensated for by any insurance or otherwise, for medical care of the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and dependents, to the extent the expenses exceed seven and one-half per cent of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income.

(c) For purposes of division (A)(11) of this section, "medical care" has the meaning given in section 213 of the Internal Revenue Code, subject to the special rules, limitations, and exclusions set forth therein, and "qualified long-term care" has the same meaning given in section 7702(B)(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(12)(a) Deduct any amount included in federal adjusted gross income solely because the amount represents a reimbursement or refund of expenses that in any year the taxpayer had deducted as an itemized deduction pursuant to section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable United States department of the treasury regulations. The deduction otherwise allowed under division (A)(12)(a) of this section shall be reduced to the extent the reimbursement is attributable to an amount the taxpayer deducted under this section in any taxable year.

(b) Add any amount not otherwise included in Ohio adjusted gross income for any taxable year to the extent that the amount is attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of any amount deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income in any taxable year.

(13) Deduct any portion of the deduction described in section 1341(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, for repaying previously reported income received under a claim of right, that meets both of the following requirements:

(a) It is allowable for repayment of an item that was included in the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for a prior taxable year and did not qualify for a credit under division (A) or (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code for that year;

(b) It does not otherwise reduce the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for the current or any other taxable year.

(14) Deduct an amount equal to the deposits made to, and net investment earnings of, a medical savings account during the taxable year, in accordance with section 3924.66 of the Revised Code. The deduction allowed by division (A)(14) of this section does not apply to medical savings account deposits and earnings otherwise deducted or excluded for the current or any other taxable year from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income.

(15)(a) Add an amount equal to the funds withdrawn from a medical savings account during the taxable year, and the net investment earnings on those funds, when the funds withdrawn were used for any purpose other than to reimburse an account holder for, or to pay, eligible medical expenses, in accordance with section 3924.66 of the Revised Code;

(b) Add the amounts distributed from a medical savings account under division (A)(2) of section 3924.68 of the Revised Code during the taxable year.

(16) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 5747.059 of the Revised Code to the extent that such amount satisfies either of the following:

(a) The amount was deducted or excluded from the computation of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income as required to be reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) The amount resulted in a reduction of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income as required to be reported for any of the taxpayer's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code.

(17) Deduct the amount contributed by the taxpayer to an individual development account program established by a county department of job and family services pursuant to sections 329.11 to 329.14 of the Revised Code for the purpose of matching funds deposited by program participants. On request of the tax commissioner, the taxpayer shall provide any information that, in the tax commissioner's opinion, is necessary to establish the amount deducted under division (A)(17) of this section.

(18) Beginning in taxable year 2001, if the taxpayer is married and files a joint return and the combined federal adjusted gross income of the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse for the taxable year does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, or if the taxpayer is single and has a federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, deduct amounts paid during the taxable year for qualified tuition and fees paid to an eligible institution for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or any dependent of the taxpayer, who is a resident of this state and is enrolled in or attending a program that culminates in a degree or diploma at an eligible institution. The deduction may be claimed only to the extent that qualified tuition and fees are not otherwise deducted or excluded for any taxable year from federal or Ohio adjusted gross income. The deduction may not be claimed for educational expenses for which the taxpayer claims a credit under section 5747.27 of the Revised Code.

(19) Add any reimbursement received during the taxable year of any amount the taxpayer deducted under division (A)(18) of this section in any previous taxable year to the extent the amount is not otherwise included in Ohio adjusted gross income.

(20)(a)(i) Add five-sixths of the amount of depreciation expense allowed by subsection (k) of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, including the taxpayer's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of depreciation expense allowed by that subsection to a pass-through entity in which the taxpayer has a direct or indirect ownership interest. ~~The~~

(ii) Add five-sixths of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense, including a person's proportionate or distributive share of the amount of qualifying section 179 depreciation expense allowed to any pass-through entity in which the person has a direct or indirect ownership. For the purposes of this division, "qualifying section 179 depreciation expense" means the difference between (I) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (II) the amount of depreciation expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code as that section existed on December 31, 2002.

The tax commissioner, under procedures established by the commissioner, may waive the ~~add-back~~ add-backs related to a pass-through entity if the taxpayer owns, directly or indirectly, less than five per cent of the pass-through entity.

(b) Nothing in division (A)(20) of this section shall be construed to adjust or modify the adjusted basis of any asset.

(c) To the extent the add-back required under division (A)(20)(a) of this section is attributable to property generating nonbusiness income or loss allocated under section 5747.20 of the Revised Code, the add-back shall be situated to the same location as the nonbusiness income or loss generated by the property for the purpose of determining the credit under division (A) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned, subject to one or more of the four alternative methods of apportionment enumerated in section 5747.21 of the Revised Code.

(d) For the purposes of division (A) of this section, net operating loss carryback and carryforward shall not include five-sixths of the allowance of any net operating loss deduction carryback or carryforward to the taxable year to the extent such loss resulted from depreciation allowed by section 168(k) of the Internal Revenue Code and by the qualifying section 179 depreciation expense amount.

(21)(a) If the taxpayer was required to add an amount under division (A)(20)(a) of this section for a taxable year, deduct one-fifth of the amount so added for each of the five succeeding taxable years.

(b) If the amount deducted under division (A)(21)(a) of this section is attributable to an add-back allocated under division (A)(20)(c) of this section, the amount deducted shall be situated to the same location. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned using the apportionment factors for the taxable year in which the deduction is taken, subject to one or more of the four alternative methods of apportionment enumerated in section 5747.21 of the Revised Code.

(c) No deduction is available under division (A)(21)(a) of this section with regard to any depreciation allowed by section 168(k) of the Internal Revenue Code and by the qualifying section 179 depreciation expense amount to the extent that such depreciation resulted in or increased a federal net operating loss carryback or carryforward to a taxable year to which division (A)(20)(d) of this section does not apply.

(2) The estate of a decedent who at the time of death was domiciled in this state. The domicile tests of section 5747.24 of the Revised Code and any election under section 5747.25 of the Revised Code are not controlling for purposes of division (I)(2) of this section.

(3) A trust that, in whole or part, resides in this state. If only part of a trust resides in this state, the trust is a resident only with respect to that part.

For the purposes of division (I)(3) of this section:

(a) A trust resides in this state for the trust's current taxable year to the extent, as described in division (I)(3)(d) of this section, that the trust consists directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, of assets, net of any related liabilities, that were transferred, or caused to be transferred, directly or indirectly, to the trust by any of the following:

(2) the fair market value of the subsequently transferred assets at the time transferred, net of any related liabilities, from sources enumerated in division (I)(3)(a) of this section. (ii) A trust is described in division (I)(3)(e)(ii) of this section if the transfer is a qualifying transfer described in any of divisions (I)(3)(f)(i) to (vi) of this section, the trust is an irrevocable inter vivos trust, and at least

(ii) The transfer is made to a trust to which the decedent, prior to the decedent's death, had directly or indirectly transferred assets, net of any related liabilities, while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter, and prior to the death of the decedent the trust became irrevocable while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the purposes of this chapter.

(iii) The transfer is made on account of a contractual relationship existing directly or indirectly between the transferor and either the decedent or the estate of the decedent at any time prior to the date of the decedent's death, and the decedent was domiciled in this state at the time of death for purposes of the taxes levied under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code.

(iv) The transfer is made to a trust on account of a contractual relationship existing directly or indirectly between the transferor and another person who at the time of the decedent's death was domiciled in this state for purposes of this chapter.

(v) The transfer is made to a trust on account of the will of a testator.

(vi) The transfer is made to a trust created by or caused to be created by a court, and the trust was directly or indirectly created in connection with or as a result of the death of an individual who, for purposes of the taxes levied under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code, was domiciled in this state at the time of the individual's death.

(1) Add interest or dividends, net of ordinary, necessary, and reasonable expenses not deducted in computing federal taxable income, on obligations or securities of any state or of any political subdivision or authority of any state, other than this state and its subdivisions and authorities, but only to the extent that such net amount is not otherwise includible in Ohio taxable income and is described in either division (S)(1)(a) or (b) of this section:

(3) Add the amount of personal exemption allowed to the estate pursuant to section 642(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(4) Deduct interest or dividends, net of related expenses deducted in computing federal taxable income, on obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends are exempt from state taxes under the laws of the United States, but only to the extent that such amount is included in federal taxable income and is described in either division (S)(1)(a) or (b) of this section;

(5) Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been allowable as a deduction in computing federal taxable income for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal Revenue Code not been in effect, but only to the extent such amount relates either to income included in federal taxable income for the taxable year or to income of the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year;

(6) Deduct any interest or interest equivalent, net of related expenses deducted in computing federal taxable income, on public obligations and purchase obligations, but only to the extent that such net amount relates either to income included in federal taxable income for the taxable year or to income of the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year;

(7) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from sale, exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent that such loss has been deducted or such gain has been included in computing either federal taxable income or income of the S portion of an electing small business trust for the taxable year;

(8) Except in the case of the final return of an estate, add any amount deducted by the taxpayer on both its Ohio estate tax return pursuant to section 5731.14 of the Revised Code, and on its federal income tax return in determining federal taxable income;

(9)(a) Deduct any amount included in federal taxable income solely because the amount represents a reimbursement or refund of expenses that in a previous year the decedent had deducted as an itemized deduction pursuant to section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable treasury regulations. The deduction otherwise allowed under division (S)(9)(a) of this section shall be reduced to the extent the reimbursement is attributable to an amount the taxpayer or decedent deducted under this section in any taxable year.

(b) Add any amount not otherwise included in Ohio taxable income for any taxable year to the extent that the amount is attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of any amount deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio taxable income in any taxable year, but only to the extent such amount has not been distributed to beneficiaries for the taxable year.

(10) Deduct any portion of the deduction described in section 1341(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, for repaying previously reported income received under a claim of right, that meets both of the following requirements:

(a) It is allowable for repayment of an item that was included in the taxpayer's taxable income or the decedent's adjusted gross income for a prior taxable year and did not qualify for a credit under division (A) or (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code for that year.

(b) It does not otherwise reduce the taxpayer's taxable income or the decedent's adjusted gross income for the current or any other taxable year.

(11) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 5747.059 of the Revised Code to the extent that the amount satisfies either of the following:

(b) The amount resulted in a reduction in the taxpayer's federal taxable income as required to be reported for any of the taxpayer's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code.

(12) Deduct any amount, net of related expenses deducted in computing federal taxable income, that a trust is required to report as farm income on its federal income tax return, but only if the assets of the trust include at least ten acres of land satisfying the definition of "land devoted exclusively to agricultural use" under section 5713.30 of the Revised Code, regardless of whether the land is valued for tax purposes as such land under sections 5713.30 to 5713.38 of the Revised Code. If the trust is a pass-through entity investor, section 5747.231 of the Revised Code applies in ascertaining if the trust is eligible to claim the deduction provided by division (S)(12) of this section in connection with the pass-through entity's farm income.

Except for farm income attributable to the S portion of an electing small business trust, the deduction provided by division (S)(12) of this section is allowed only to the extent that the trust has not distributed such farm income. Division (S)(12) of this section applies only to taxable years of a trust beginning in 2002, 2003, or 2004.

(13) Add the net amount of income described in section 641(c) of the Internal Revenue Code to the extent that amount is not included in federal taxable income.

(14) Add or deduct the amount the taxpayer would be required to add or deduct under division (A)(20) or (21) of this section if the taxpayer's Ohio taxable income were computed in the same manner as an individual's Ohio adjusted gross income is computed under this section. In the case of a trust, division (S)(14) of this section applies only to any of the trust's taxable years beginning in 2002, 2003, or 2004.

(T) "School district income" and "school district income tax" have the same meanings as in section 5748.01 of the Revised Code.

(U) As used in divisions (A)(8), (A)(9), (S)(6), and (S)(7) of this section, "public obligations," "purchase obligations," and "interest or interest equivalent" have the same meanings as in section 5709.76 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Qualified tuition and fees" means tuition and fees imposed by an eligible institution as a condition of enrollment or attendance, not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars in each of the individual's first two years of post-secondary education. If the individual is a part-time student, "qualified tuition and fees" includes tuition and fees paid for the academic equivalent of the first two years of post-secondary education during a maximum of five taxable years, not exceeding a total of five thousand dollars. "Qualified tuition and fees" does not include:

(a) Expenses for any course or activity involving sports, games, or hobbies unless the course or activity is part of the individual's degree or diploma program;

(b) The cost of books, room and board, student activity fees, athletic fees, insurance expenses, or other expenses unrelated to the individual's academic course of instruction;

(c) Tuition, fees, or other expenses paid or reimbursed through an employer, scholarship, grant in aid, or other educational benefit program.

(BB)(1) "Modified business income" means the business income included in a trust's Ohio taxable income after such taxable income is first reduced by the qualifying trust amount, if any.

(2) "Qualifying trust amount" of a trust means capital gains and losses from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of equity or ownership interests in, or debt obligations of, a qualifying investee to the extent included in the trust's Ohio taxable income, but only if the following requirements are satisfied:

(a) The book value of the qualifying investee's physical assets in this state and everywhere, as of the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the gain or loss, is available to the trust.

(b) The requirements of section 5747.011 of the Revised Code are satisfied for the trust's taxable year in which the trust recognizes the gain or loss.

Any gain or loss that is not a qualifying trust amount is modified business income, qualifying investment income, or modified nonbusiness income, as the case may be.

(3) "Modified nonbusiness income" means a trust's Ohio taxable income other than modified business income, other than the qualifying trust amount, and other than qualifying investment income, as defined in section 5747.012 of the Revised Code, to the extent such qualifying investment income is not otherwise part of modified business income.

(4) "Modified Ohio taxable income" applies only to trusts, and means the sum of the amounts described in divisions (BB)(4)(a) to (c) of this section:

(a) The fraction, calculated under division (B)(2) of section 5733.05, and applying section 5733.057 of the Revised Code, as if the trust were a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 5733.06 of the Revised Code, multiplied by the sum of the following amounts:

- (i) The trust's modified business income;
- (ii) The trust's qualifying investment income, as defined in section 5747.012 of the Revised Code, but only to the extent the qualifying investment income does not otherwise constitute modified business income and does not otherwise constitute a qualifying trust amount.

(b) The qualifying trust amount multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the book value of the qualifying investee's physical assets in this state on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount, and the denominator of which is the sum of the book value of the qualifying investee's total physical assets everywhere on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the day on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount. If, for a taxable year, the trust recognizes a qualifying trust amount with respect to more than one qualifying investee, the amount described in division (BB)(4)(b) of this section shall equal the sum of the products so computed for each such qualifying investee.

(c)(i) With respect to a trust or portion of a trust that is a resident as ascertained in accordance with division (I)(3)(d) of this section, its modified nonbusiness income.

(ii) With respect to a trust or portion of a trust that is not a resident as ascertained in accordance with division (I)(3)(d) of this section, the amount of its modified nonbusiness income satisfying the descriptions in divisions (B)(2) to (5) of section 5747.20 of the Revised Code.

If the allocation and apportionment of a trust's income under divisions (BB)(4)(a) and (c) of this section do not fairly represent the modified Ohio taxable income of the trust in this state, the alternative methods described in division (C) of section 5747.21 of the Revised Code may be applied in the manner and to the same extent provided in that section.

(5)(a) Except as set forth in division (BB)(5)(b) of this section, "qualifying investee" means a person in which a trust has an equity or ownership interest, or a person or unit of government the debt obligations of either of which are owned by a trust. For the purposes of division (BB)(2)(a) of this section and for the purpose of computing the fraction described in division (BB)(4)(b) of this section, all of the following apply:

- (i) If the qualifying investee is a member of a qualifying controlled group on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the gain or loss, then "qualifying investee" includes all persons in the qualifying controlled group on such last day.

(ii) If the qualifying investee, or if the qualifying investee and any members of the qualifying controlled group of which the qualifying investee is a member on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the gain or loss, separately or cumulatively own, directly or indirectly, on the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount, more than fifty per cent of the equity of a pass-through entity, then the qualifying investee and the other members are deemed to own the proportionate share of the pass-through entity's physical assets which the pass-through entity directly or indirectly owns on the last day of the pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year ending within or with the last day of the qualifying investee's fiscal or calendar year ending immediately prior to the date on which the trust recognizes the qualifying trust amount.

(iii) For the purposes of division (BB)(5)(a)(iii) of this section, "upper level pass-through entity" means a pass-through entity directly or indirectly owning any equity of another pass-through entity, and "lower level pass-through entity" means that other pass-through entity.

An upper level pass-through entity, whether or not it is also a qualifying investee, is deemed to own, on the last day of the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year, the proportionate share of the lower level pass-through entity's physical assets that the lower level pass-through entity directly or indirectly owns on the last day of the lower level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year ending within or with the last day of the upper level pass-through entity's fiscal or calendar year. If the upper level pass-through entity directly and indirectly owns less than fifty per cent of the equity of the lower level pass-through entity on each day of the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year in which or with which ends the calendar or fiscal year of the lower level pass-through entity and if, based upon clear and convincing evidence, complete information about the location and cost of the physical assets of the lower pass-through entity is not available to the upper level pass-through entity, then solely for purposes of ascertaining if a gain or loss constitutes a qualifying trust amount, the upper level pass-through entity shall be deemed as owning no equity of the lower level pass-through entity for each day during the upper level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year in which or with which ends the lower level pass-through entity's calendar or fiscal year. Nothing in division

(BB)(5)(a)(iii) of this section shall be construed to provide for any deduction or exclusion in computing any trust's Ohio taxable income.

(b) With respect to a trust that is not a resident for the taxable year and with respect to a part of a trust that is not a resident for the taxable year, "qualifying investee" for that taxable year does not include a C corporation if both of the following apply:

(i) During the taxable year the trust or part of the trust recognizes a gain or loss from the sale, exchange, or other disposition of equity or ownership interests in, or debt obligations of, the C corporation.

(ii) Such gain or loss constitutes nonbusiness income.

(6) "Available" means information is such that a person is able to learn of the information by the due date plus extensions, if any, for filing the return for the taxable year in which the trust recognizes the gain or loss.

(CC) "Qualifying controlled group" has the same meaning as in section 5733.04 of the Revised Code.

(DD) "Related member" has the same meaning as in section 5733.042 of the Revised Code.

(EE) Any term used in this chapter that is not otherwise defined in this section and that is not used in a comparable context in the Internal Revenue Code and other statutes of the United States relating to federal income taxes has the same meaning as in section 5733.40 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5747.02. (A) For the purpose of providing revenue for the support of schools and local government functions, to provide relief to property taxpayers, to provide revenue for the general revenue fund, and to meet the expenses of administering the tax levied by this chapter, there is hereby levied on every individual, trust, and estate residing in or earning or receiving income in this state, on every individual, trust, and estate earning or receiving lottery winnings, prizes, or awards pursuant to Chapter 3770. of the Revised Code, and on every individual, trust, and estate otherwise having nexus with or in this state under the Constitution of the United States, an annual tax measured in the case of individuals by Ohio adjusted gross income less an exemption for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and each dependent as provided in section 5747.025 of the Revised Code; measured in the case of trusts by modified Ohio taxable income under division (D) of this section; and measured in the case of estates by Ohio taxable income. The tax imposed by this section on the balance thus obtained is hereby levied as follows:

In July of each year, beginning in 2005, the tax commissioner shall adjust the income amounts prescribed in this division by multiplying the percentage increase in the gross domestic product deflator computed that year under section 5747.025 of the Revised Code by each of the income amounts resulting from the adjustment under this division in the preceding year, adding the resulting product to the corresponding income amount resulting from the adjustment in the preceding year, and rounding the resulting sum to the nearest multiple of fifty dollars. The tax commissioner also shall recompute each of the tax dollar amounts to the extent necessary to reflect the adjustment of the income amounts. The rates of taxation shall not be adjusted.

The adjusted amounts apply to taxable years beginning in the calendar year in which the adjustments are made. The tax commissioner shall not make such adjustments in any year in which the amount resulting from the adjustment would be less than the amount resulting from the adjustment in the preceding year.

(B) If the director of budget and management makes a certification to the tax commissioner under division (B) of section 131.44 of the Revised Code, the amount of tax as determined under division (A) of this section shall be reduced by the percentage prescribed in that certification for taxable years beginning in the calendar year in which that certification is made.

(C) The levy of this tax on income does not prevent a municipal corporation, a joint economic development zone created under section 715.691, or a joint economic development district created under section 715.70 or 715.71 or sections 715.72 to 715.81 of the Revised Code from levying a tax on income.

(D) This division applies only to taxable years of a trust beginning in 2002, 2003, or 2004.

(1) The tax imposed by this section on a trust shall be computed by multiplying the Ohio modified taxable income of the trust by the rates prescribed by division (A) of this section.

(2) A credit is allowed against the tax computed under division (D) of this section equal to the lesser of (1) the tax paid to another state or the District of Columbia on the trust's modified nonbusiness income, other than the portion of the trust's nonbusiness income that is qualifying investment income as defined in section 5747.012 of the Revised Code, or (2) the effective tax rate, based on modified Ohio taxable income, multiplied by the trust's modified nonbusiness income other than the portion of trust's nonbusiness income that is qualifying investment income. The credit applies before any other applicable credits.

(3) The credits enumerated in divisions (A)(1) to (13) of section 5747.98 of the Revised Code do not apply to a trust subject to this division. Any credits enumerated in other divisions of section 5747.98 of the Revised Code apply to a trust subject to this division. To the extent that the trust distributes income for the taxable year for which a credit is available to the trust, the credit shall be shared by the trust and its beneficiaries. The tax commissioner and the trust shall be guided by applicable regulations of the United States treasury regarding the sharing of credits.

(E) For the purposes of this section, "trust" means any trust described in Subchapter J of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code, excluding trusts that are not irrevocable as defined in division (I)(3)(b) of section 5747.01 of the Revised Code and that have no modified Ohio taxable income for the taxable year, charitable remainder trusts, qualified funeral trusts and preneed funeral contract trusts established pursuant to section 1111.19 of the Revised Code that are not qualified funeral trusts, endowment and perpetual care trusts, qualified settlement trusts and funds, designated settlement trusts and funds, and trusts exempted from taxation under section 501(a) of the

The application shall be filed on or before the sixtieth day after the member's duty terminates. An applicant shall provide such evidence as the commissioner considers necessary to demonstrate eligibility for the extension.

(B)(1) If the commissioner determines that an applicant is qualified for an extension under this section, the commissioner shall enter into a contract with the applicant for the payment of the tax in installments that begin on the sixty-first day after the applicant's duty under operation Iraqi freedom terminates. Except as provided in division (B)(3) of this section, the commissioner may prescribe such contract terms as the commissioner considers appropriate.

(2) If the commissioner determines that an applicant is qualified for an extension under this section, the applicant shall not be required to file any return, report, or other tax document before the sixty-first day after the applicant's duty under operation Iraqi freedom terminates.

(3) Taxes paid pursuant to a contract entered into under division (B)(1) of this section are not delinquent. The tax commissioner shall not require any payments of penalties or interest in connection with such taxes.

(C)(1) Divisions (A) and (B) of this section do not apply to any taxable year for which a taxpayer receives an extension of time in which to file a federal income tax return or pay federal income tax under the Internal Revenue Code.

(2)(a) A taxpayer who is eligible for an extension under the Internal Revenue Code shall receive an extension of time in which to file any return, report, or other tax document described in this chapter and an extension of time in which to make any payment of taxes required under this chapter or Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code. The length of any extension granted under division (C)(2)(a) of this section shall be equal to the length of the corresponding extension that the taxpayer receives under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Taxes paid in accordance with division (C)(2)(a) of this section are not delinquent. The tax commissioner shall not require any payment of penalties or interest in connection with such taxes. The tax commissioner shall not include any period of extension granted under division (C)(2)(a) of this section in calculating the interest due on any unpaid tax.

(D) The tax commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to administer this section, including rules establishing the following:

(2) Criteria for eligibility;

(3) A schedule for repayment of deferred taxes.

If the amount refundable is less than the amount of the debt, it may be applied in partial satisfaction of the debt. If the amount refundable is greater than the amount of the debt, the amount remaining after satisfaction of the debt shall be refunded. If the person has more than one such debt, any debt subject to section 5739.33 or division (G) of section 5747.07 of the Revised Code shall be satisfied first. This section applies only to debts that have become final.

The tax commissioner may, with the consent of the taxpayer, provide for the crediting, against tax imposed under this chapter or Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code and due for any taxable year, of the amount of any refund due the taxpayer under this chapter or Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, as appropriate, for a preceding taxable year.

Sec. 5747.31. (A) This section applies to an individual or estate that is a proprietor or a pass-through entity investor.

The taxpayer shall claim one-seventh of the credit amount for the calendar year in which the new manufacturing machinery and equipment is purchased for use in the county by the taxpayer or partnership. One-seventh of the taxpayer credit amount is allowed for each of the six ensuing taxable years. The taxpayer shall claim the credit in the order required under section 5747.98 of the Revised Code.

The taxpayer shall file with the department of development a notice of

(a) Substitute "taxable year" for "tax year" wherever "tax year" appears in section 5733.39 of the Revised Code;

(2) Notwithstanding section ~~5747.131~~ 5703.56 of the Revised Code to the contrary, a taxpayer claiming a credit under this division has the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that the doctrines enumerated in section ~~5747.131~~ 5703.56 of the Revised Code do not apply with respect to the credit provided by this division.

(D) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or disallow pass-through treatment of a pass-through entity's income, deductions, credits, or other amounts necessary to compute the tax imposed by section 5747.02 of the Revised Code and the credits allowed by this chapter.

Sec. 5747.80. The credit shall be claimed for the taxable year specified in the certificate issued by the authority and in the order required under section 5747.98 of the Revised Code. If the taxpayer elected a refundable credit under section 150.07 of the Revised Code, and the amount of the credit shown on the certificate exceeds the tax otherwise due under section 5747.02 of the Revised Code after all credits, including the credit allowed under this section, are deducted in that order, the taxpayer shall receive a refund equal to seventy-five per cent of that excess. If the taxpayer elected a nonrefundable credit, the amount of the credit, claimed in that order, shall not exceed the tax otherwise due after all the taxpayer's credits are deducted in that order. If the taxpayer elected a nonrefundable credit and the credit to which the taxpayer would otherwise be entitled under this section for any taxable year is greater than the tax otherwise due under section 5747.02 of the Revised Code, after allowing for any other credits that precede the credit allowed under this section, the excess shall be allowed as a credit in each of the ensuing ten taxable years, but the amount of any excess credit allowed in the ensuing taxable year shall be deducted from the balance carried forward to the next taxable year.

Sec. 6117.02. (A) The board of county commissioners shall fix reasonable rates, including penalties for late payments, for the use, or the availability for use, of the sanitary facilities of a sewer district to be paid by every person and public agency whose premises are served, or capable of being served, by a connection directly or indirectly to those facilities when those facilities are owned or operated by the county and may change the rates from time to time as it considers advisable. When the sanitary facilities to be used by the county are owned by another public agency or person, the schedule of rates to be charged by the public agency or person for the use of the facilities by the county, or the formula or other procedure for their determination, shall be approved by the board at the time it enters into a contract for that use.

(B) The board also shall establish reasonable charges to be collected for the privilege of connecting to the sanitary facilities of the district, with the requirement that, prior to the connection, the charges shall be paid in full, or, if determined by the board to be equitable in a resolution relating to the payment of the charges, provision considered adequate by the board shall be made for their payment in installments at the times, in the amounts, and with the security, carrying charges, and penalties as may be found by the board in that resolution to be fair and appropriate. No public agency or person shall be permitted to connect to those facilities until the charges have been paid in full or provision for their payment in installments has been made. If the connection charges are to be paid in installments, the board shall certify to the county auditor information sufficient to identify each parcel of property served by a connection and, with respect to each parcel, the total of the charges to be paid in installments, the amount of each installment, and the total number of installments to be paid. The auditor shall record and maintain the information supplied in the sewer improvement record provided for in section 6117.33 of the Revised Code until the connection charges are paid in full. The board may include amounts attributable to connection charges being paid in installments in its billings of rates and charges for the use of sanitary facilities.

(C) When any of the sanitary rates or charges are not paid when due, the board may do any or all of the following as it considers appropriate:

(1) Certify the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, to the county auditor, who shall place them upon the real property tax list and duplicate against the property served by the connection. The certified amount shall be a lien on the property from the date placed on the real property tax list and duplicate and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes, except that, notwithstanding section 323.15 of the Revised Code, a county treasurer shall accept a payment in that amount when separately tendered as payment for the full amount of the unpaid sanitary rates or charges and associated penalties. The lien shall be released immediately upon payment in full of the certified amount.

(2) Collect the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, by actions at law in the name of the county from an owner, tenant, or other person or public agency that is liable for the payment of the rates or charges;

(3) Terminate, in accordance with established rules, the sanitary service to the particular property and, if so determined, any county water service to that property, unless and until the unpaid sanitary rates or charges, together with any penalties, are paid in full;

(4) Apply, to the extent required, any security deposit made in accordance with established rules to the payment of sanitary rates and charges for service to the particular property.

All moneys collected as sanitary rates, charges, or penalties fixed or established in accordance with divisions (A) and (B) of this section for any sewer district shall be paid to the county treasurer and kept in a separate and distinct sanitary fund established by the board to the credit of the district. Except as otherwise provided in any proceedings authorizing or providing for the security for and payment of any public obligations, or in any indenture or trust or other agreement securing public obligations, moneys in the sanitary fund shall be applied first to the payment of the cost of the management, maintenance, and operation of the sanitary facilities of, or used or operated for, the district, which cost may include the county's share of management, maintenance, and operation costs under cooperative contracts for the acquisition, construction, or use of sanitary facilities and, in accordance with a cost allocation plan adopted under division (E) of this section, payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for sanitary purposes under this chapter, and shall be applied second to the payment of debt charges payable on any outstanding public obligations issued or incurred for the acquisition or construction of sanitary facilities for or serving the district, or for the funding of a bond retirement or other fund established for the payment of or security for the obligations. Any surplus remaining may be applied to the acquisition or construction of those facilities or for the payment of contributions to be made, or costs incurred, for the acquisition or construction of those facilities under cooperative contracts. Moneys in the sanitary fund shall not be expended other than for the use and benefit of the district.

(D) The board may fix reasonable rates and charges, including connection charges and penalties for late payments, to be paid by any person or public agency owning or having possession or control of any properties that are connected with, capable of being served by, or otherwise served directly or indirectly by, drainage facilities owned or operated by or under the jurisdiction of the county, including, but not limited to, properties requiring, or lying within an area of the district requiring, in the judgment of the board, the collection, control, or abatement of waters originating or accumulating in, or flowing in, into, or through, the district, and may change those rates and charges from time to time as it considers advisable. The In addition, the board may fix the rates and charges in order to pay the costs of complying with the requirements of phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. part 122.

The rates and charges shall be payable periodically as determined by the board, except that any connection charges shall be paid in full in one payment, or, if determined by the board to be equitable in a resolution relating to the payment of those charges, provision considered adequate by the board shall be made for their payment in installments at the times, in the amounts, and with the security, carrying charges, and penalties as may be found by the board in that resolution to be fair and appropriate. The board may include amounts attributable to connection charges being paid in installments in its billings of rates and charges for the services provided by the drainage facilities. In the case of rates and charges that are fixed in order to pay the costs of complying with the requirements of phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. part 122, the rates and charges may be paid annually or semiannually with real property taxes, provided that the board certifies to the county auditor information that is sufficient for the auditor to identify each parcel of property for which a rate or charge is levied and the amount of the rate or charge.

When any of the drainage rates or charges are not paid when due, the board may do any or all of the following as it considers appropriate:

(1) Certify the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, to the county auditor, who shall place them upon the real property tax list and duplicate against the property to which the rates or charges apply. The certified amount shall be a lien on the property from the date placed on the real property tax list and duplicate and shall be collected in the same manner as taxes, except that notwithstanding section 323.15 of the Revised Code, a county treasurer shall accept a payment in that amount when separately tendered as payment for the full amount of the unpaid drainage rates or charges and associated penalties. The lien shall be released immediately upon payment in full of the certified amount.

(2) Collect the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, by actions at law in the name of the county from an owner, tenant, or other person or public agency that is liable for the payment of the rates or charges;

(3) Terminate, in accordance with established rules, the drainage service for the particular property until the unpaid rates or charges, together with any penalties, are paid in full;

(4) Apply, to the extent required, any security deposit made in accordance with established rules to the payment of drainage rates and charges applicable to the particular property.

All moneys collected as drainage rates, charges, or penalties in or for any sewer district shall be paid to the county treasurer and kept in a separate and distinct drainage fund established by the board to the credit of the district. Except as otherwise provided in any proceedings authorizing or providing for the security for and payment of any public obligations, or in any indenture or trust or other agreement securing public obligations, moneys in the drainage fund shall be applied first to the payment of the cost of the management, maintenance, and operation of the drainage facilities of, or used or operated for, the district, which cost may include the county's share of management, maintenance, and operation costs under cooperative contracts for the acquisition, construction, or use of drainage facilities and, in accordance with a cost allocation plan adopted under division (E) of this section, payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for drainage purposes under this chapter, and shall be applied second to the payment of debt charges payable on any outstanding public obligations issued or incurred for the acquisition or construction of drainage facilities for or serving the district, or for the funding of a bond retirement or other fund established for the payment of or security for the obligations. Any surplus remaining may be applied to the acquisition or construction of those facilities or for the payment of contributions to be made, or costs incurred, for the acquisition or construction of those facilities under cooperative contracts. Moneys in the drainage fund shall not be expended other than for the use and benefit of the district.

(E) A board of county commissioners may adopt a cost allocation plan that identifies, accumulates, and distributes allowable direct and indirect costs that may be paid from each of the funds of the district created pursuant to divisions (C) and (D) of this section, and that prescribes methods for allocating those costs. The plan shall authorize payment from each of those funds of only those costs incurred by the district, the county sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department, or a federal or state grant program, and those costs incurred by the general and other funds of the county for a common or joint purpose, that are necessary and reasonable for the proper and efficient administration of the district under this chapter and properly attributable to the particular fund of the district. The plan shall not authorize payment from either of the funds of any general government expense required to carry out the overall governmental responsibilities of a county. The plan shall conform to United States office of management and budget Circular A-87, "Cost Principles for State, Local, and Indian Tribal Governments," published May 17, 1995.

Sec. 6119.10. The board of trustees of a regional water and sewer district or any officer or employee designated by the board may make any contract for the purchase of supplies or material or for labor for any work, under the supervision of the board, the cost of which shall not exceed ~~fifteen~~ twenty-five thousand dollars. When an expenditure, other than for the acquisition of real estate and interests in real estate, the discharge of noncontractual claims, personal services, the joint use of facilities or the exercise of powers with other political subdivisions, or the product or services of public utilities, exceeds ~~fifteen~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, the expenditures shall be made only after a notice calling for bids has been published not less than two consecutive weeks in at least one newspaper having a general circulation within the district. If the bids are for a contract for the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of an improvement, the board may let the contract to the lowest and best bidder who meets the requirements of section 153.54 of the Revised Code. If the bids are for a contract for any other work relating to the improvements for which a regional water and sewer district was established, the board of trustees of the regional water and sewer district may let the contract to the lowest or best bidder who gives a good and approved bond with ample security conditioned on the carrying out of the contract. The contract shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by or shall refer to plans and specifications for the work to be done, approved by the board. The plans and specifications shall at all times be made and considered part of the contract. The contract shall be approved by the board and signed by its president or other duly authorized officer and by the contractor. In case of a real and present emergency, the board of trustees of the district, by two-thirds vote of all members, may authorize the president or other duly authorized officer to enter into a contract for work to be done or for the purchase of supplies or materials without formal bidding or advertising. All contracts shall have attached the certificate required by section 5705.41 of the Revised Code duly executed by the secretary of the board of trustees of the district. Those controls may include, but are not limited to, instituting environmental auditing programs to help ensure the adequacy of internal systems to achieve, maintain, and monitor compliance with applicable environmental laws and standards or instituting an antitrust compliance auditing program to help ensure full compliance with applicable antitrust laws. investigation to have a beneficial interest in the business of the applicant other than an equity interest or debt liability are of such magnitude that they prevent making the finding required under division (A) of this section, provided that at the request of the applicant or the individual or business concern charged, the director ~~or the hazardous waste facility board~~ shall defer decision upon the application during the pendency of the charge.

The center shall augment county and, where applicable, municipal jail programs and facilities by providing custody and rehabilitative programs for those persons under the charge of the sheriff of any of the contracting counties or of the officer or officers of the contracting municipal corporation or municipal corporations having charge of persons incarcerated in the municipal jail, workhouse, or other correctional facility who, in the opinion of the sentencing court, need programs of custody and rehabilitation not available at the county or municipal jail and by providing custody and rehabilitative programs in accordance with division (C) of this section, if applicable. The contract may include, but need not be limited to, provisions regarding the acquisition, construction, maintenance, repair, termination of operations, and administration of the center. The contract shall prescribe the manner of funding of, and debt assumption for, the center and the standards and procedures to be followed in the operation of the center. Except as provided in division (H) of this section, the contracting counties and municipal corporations shall form a corrections commission to oversee the administration of the center. Members of the commission shall consist of the sheriff of each participating county, the president of the board of county commissioners of each participating county, the presiding judge of the court of common pleas of each participating county, or, if the court of common pleas of a participating county has only one judge, then that judge, the chief of police of each participating municipal corporation, the mayor or city manager of each participating municipal corporation, and the presiding judge or the sole judge of the municipal court of each participating municipal corporation. Any of the foregoing officers may appoint a designee to serve in the officer's place on the corrections commission. The standards and procedures shall be formulated and agreed to by the commission and may be amended at any time during the life of the contract by agreement of the parties to the contract upon the advice of the commission. The standards and procedures formulated by the commission shall include, but need not be limited to, designation of the person in charge of the center, the categories of employees to be employed at the center, the appointing authority of the center, and the standards of treatment and security to be maintained at the center. person. Persons incarcerated in the center pursuant to an agreement entered into under this division shall be subject to supervision and control in the manner described in section 5120.161 of the Revised Code. This division does not affect the authority of a court to directly sentence a person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to a felony to the center in accordance with section 2929.16 of the Revised Code.

(D) Pursuant to section 2929.37 of the Revised Code, each board of county commissioners and the legislative authority of each municipal corporation that enters into a contract under division (A) of this section may require a person who was convicted of an offense, who is under the charge of the sheriff of their county or of the officer or officers of the contracting municipal corporation or municipal corporations having charge of persons incarcerated in the municipal jail, workhouse, or other correctional facility, and who is confined in the multicounty, municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal correctional center as provided in that division, to reimburse the applicable county or municipal corporation for its expenses incurred by reason of the person's confinement in the center.

(E) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this section or section 2929.18, 2929.28, or 2929.37 of the Revised Code, the corrections commission of a center may establish a policy that complies with section 2929.38 of the Revised Code and that requires any person who is not indigent and who is confined in the multicounty, municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal correctional center to pay a reception fee, a fee for medical treatment or service requested by and provided to that person, or the fee for a random drug test assessed under division (E) of section 341.26 of the Revised Code.

The management of funds in the commissary fund shall be strictly controlled in accordance with procedures adopted by the auditor of state. Commissary fund revenue over and above operating costs and reserve shall be considered profits. All profits from the commissary fund shall be used to purchase supplies and equipment for the benefit of persons incarcerated in the center and to pay salary and benefits for employees of the center, or for any other persons, who work in or are employed for the sole purpose of providing service to the commissary. The corrections commission shall adopt rules and regulations for the operation of any commissary fund it establishes.

(G) In lieu of forming a corrections commission to administer a multicounty correctional center or a municipal-county or multicounty-municipal correctional center, the boards of county commissioners and the legislative authorities of the municipal corporations contracting to establish the center may also agree to contract for the private operation and management of the center as provided in section 9.06 of the Revised Code, but only if the center houses only misdemeanor inmates. In order to enter into a contract under section 9.06 of the Revised Code, all the boards and legislative authorities establishing the center shall approve and be parties to the contract.

(H) If a person who is convicted of or pleads guilty to an offense is sentenced to a term in a multicounty correctional center or a municipal-county or multicounty-municipal correctional center or is incarcerated in the center in the manner described in division (C) of this section, or if a person who is arrested for an offense, and who has been denied bail or has had bail set and has not been released on bail is confined in a multicounty correctional center or a municipal-county or multicounty-municipal correctional center pending trial, at the time of reception and at other times the officer, officers, or other person in charge of the operation of the center determines to be appropriate, the officer, officers, or other person in charge of the operation of the center may cause the convicted or accused offender to be examined and tested for tuberculosis, HIV infection, hepatitis, including but not limited to hepatitis A, B, and C, and other contagious diseases. The officer, officers, or other person in charge of the operation of the center may cause a convicted or accused offender in the center who refuses to be tested or treated for tuberculosis, HIV infection, hepatitis, including but not limited to hepatitis A, B, and C, or another contagious disease to be tested and treated involuntarily.

(I) As used in this section, "multicounty-municipal" means more than one county and a municipal corporation, or more than one municipal corporation and a county, or more than one municipal corporation and more than one county.

DISASTER ASSISTANCE

Pursuant to requests submitted by the Department of Public Safety, the Controlling Board may approve transfers from the Emergency Purposes Fund to a Department of Public Safety General Revenue Fund appropriation item to provide funding for assistance to political subdivisions made necessary by natural disasters or emergencies. Such transfers may be requested and approved prior to the occurrence of any specific natural disasters or emergencies in order to facilitate the provision of timely assistance.

SOUTHERN OHIO CORRECTIONAL FACILITY COST

The Office of Criminal Justice Services and the Public Defender Commission may each request, upon approval of the Director of Budget and Management, additional funds from the Emergency Purposes Fund for costs related to the disturbance that occurred on April 11, 1993, at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility in Lucasville, Ohio.

DISASTER SERVICES

Pursuant to requests submitted by the Department of Public Safety, the Controlling Board may approve transfers from the foregoing appropriation item 911-601, Disaster Services, to a Department of Public Safety General Revenue Fund appropriation item to provide for assistance to political subdivisions made necessary by natural disasters or emergencies. These transfers may be requested and approved prior to the occurrence of any specific natural disasters or emergencies in order to facilitate the provision of timely assistance. The Emergency Management Agency of the Department of Public Safety shall use the funding for disaster aid requests that meet the Emergency Management Agency's criteria for assistance.

The foregoing appropriation item 911-601, Disaster Services, shall be used by the Controlling Board, pursuant to requests submitted by state agencies, to transfer cash and appropriation authority to any fund and appropriation item for the payment of state agency program expenses as follows:

- (A) The southern Ohio flooding, referred to as FEMA-DR-1164-OH;
- (B) The flood/storm disaster referred to as FEMA-DR-1227-OH;
- (C) The Southern Ohio flooding, referred to as FEMA-DR-1321-OH;
- (D) The flooding referred to as FEMA-DR-1339-OH;
- (E) The tornado/storms referred to as FEMA-DR-1343-OH;
- (F) Other disasters declared by the Governor, if the Director of Budget and Management determines that sufficient funds exist beyond the expected program costs of these disasters.

The unencumbered balance of appropriation item 911-601, Disaster Services, at the end of fiscal year 2004 is transferred to fiscal year 2005 for use under the same appropriation item.

MANDATE ASSISTANCE

(A) The foregoing appropriation item 911-404, Mandate Assistance, shall be used to provide financial assistance to local units of government, school districts, and fire departments for the cost of the following three unfunded state mandates:

(1) The cost to county prosecutors for prosecuting certain felonies that occur on the grounds of state institutions operated by the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction and the Department of Youth Services;

(2) The cost, primarily to small villages and townships, of providing firefighter training and equipment or gear;

(3) The cost to school districts of in-service training for child abuse detection.

(B) The Department of Commerce, the Office of Criminal Justice Services, and the Department of Education may prepare and submit to the Controlling Board one or more requests to transfer appropriations from appropriation item 911-404, Mandate Assistance. The state agencies charged with this administrative responsibility are listed below, as well as the estimated annual amounts that may be used for each program of state financial assistance.

PROGRAM	ADMINISTERING AGENCY	ESTIMATED ANNUAL AMOUNT
Prosecution Costs	Office of Criminal Justice Services	$146,500
Firefighter Training Costs	Department of Commerce	$731,000
Child Abuse Detection Training Costs	Department of Education	$585,000

(C) Subject to the total amount appropriated in each fiscal year for appropriation item 911-404, Mandate Assistance, the Department of Commerce, the Office of Criminal Justice Services, and the Department of Education may request from the Controlling Board that amounts smaller or larger than these estimated annual amounts be transferred to each program.

(D) In addition to making the initial transfers requested by the Department of Commerce, the Office of Criminal Justice Services, and the Department of Education, the Controlling Board may transfer appropriations received by a state agency under this section back to appropriation item 911-404, Mandate Assistance, or to one or more of the other programs of state financial assistance identified under this section.

(E) It is expected that not all costs incurred by local units of government, school districts, and fire departments under each of the three programs of state financial assistance identified under this section will be fully reimbursed by the state. Reimbursement levels may vary by program and shall be based on: the relationship between the appropriation transfers requested by the Department of Commerce, the Office of Criminal Justice Services, and the Department of Education and provided by the Controlling Board for each of the programs; the rules and procedures established for each program by the administering state agency; and the actual costs incurred by local units of government, school districts, and fire departments.

(F) Each of these programs of state financial assistance shall be carried out as follows:

(1) PROSECUTION COSTS

(a) Appropriations may be transferred to the Office of Criminal Justice Services to cover local prosecution costs for aggravated murder, murder, felonies of the first degree, and felonies of the second degree that occur on the grounds of institutions operated by the Department of Rehabilitation and Correction and the Department of Youth Services.

(b) Upon a delinquency filing in juvenile court or the return of an indictment for aggravated murder, murder, or any felony of the first or second degree that was committed at a Department of Youth Services or a Department of Rehabilitation and Correction institution, the affected county may, in accordance with rules that the Office of Criminal Justice Services shall adopt, apply to the Office of Criminal Justice Services for a grant to cover all documented costs that are incurred by the county prosecutor's office.

(c) Twice each year, the Office of Criminal Justice Services shall designate counties to receive grants from those counties that have submitted one or more applications in compliance with the rules that have been adopted by the Office of Criminal Justice Services for the receipt of such grants. In each year's first round of grant awards, if sufficient appropriations have been made, up to a total of $100,000 may be awarded. In each year's second round of grant awards, the remaining appropriations available for this purpose may be awarded.

(d) If for a given round of grants there are insufficient appropriations to make grant awards to all the eligible counties, the first priority shall be given to counties with cases involving aggravated murder and murder; second priority shall be given to cases involving a felony of the first degree; and third priority shall be given to cases involving a felony of the second degree. Within these priorities, the grant awards shall be based on the order in which the applications were received, except that applications for cases involving a felony of the first or second degree shall not be considered in more than two consecutive rounds of grant awards.

(2) FIREFIGHTER TRAINING COSTS

Appropriations may be transferred to the Department of Commerce for use as full or partial reimbursement to local units of government and fire departments for the cost of firefighter training and equipment or gear. In accordance with rules that the department shall adopt, a local unit of government or fire department may apply to the department for a grant to cover all documented costs that are incurred to provide firefighter training and equipment or gear. The department shall make grants within the limits of the funding provided, with priority given to fire departments that serve small villages and townships.

(3) CHILD ABUSE DETECTION TRAINING COSTS

Appropriations may be transferred to the Department of Education for disbursement to local school districts as full or partial reimbursement for the cost of providing in-service training for child abuse detection. In accordance with rules that the department shall adopt, a local school district may apply to the department for a grant to cover all documented costs that are incurred to provide in-service training for child abuse detection. The department shall make grants within the limits of the funding provided.

(G) Any moneys allocated within appropriation item 911-404, Mandate Assistance, not fully utilized may, upon application of the Ohio Public Defender Commission, and with the approval of the Controlling Board, be disbursed to boards of county commissioners to provide additional reimbursement for the costs incurred by counties in providing defense to indigent defendants pursuant to Chapter 120. of the Revised Code.

The amount to be disbursed to each county shall be allocated proportionately on the basis of the total amount of reimbursement paid to each county as a percentage of the amount of reimbursement paid to all of the counties during the most recent state fiscal year for which data is available and as calculated by the Ohio Public Defender Commission.

BALLOT ADVERTISING COSTS

Pursuant to requests submitted by the Ohio Ballot Board, the Controlling Board shall approve transfers from the foregoing appropriation item 911-441, Ballot Advertising Costs, to an Ohio Ballot Board appropriation item in order to reimburse county boards of elections for the cost of public notices associated with statewide ballot initiatives.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 911-441, Ballot Advertising Costs, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer any amounts that are not needed for the purpose of reimbursing county boards of elections for the cost of public notices associated with statewide ballot initiatives to appropriation item 911-404, Mandate Assistance.

SECTION 41.01. PERSONAL SERVICES

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-100, Personal Services, $1,630,181 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Department of Education to provide vocational administration matching funds pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 2311.

MAINTENANCE AND EQUIPMENT

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-320, Maintenance and Equipment, up to $25,000 may be expended in each fiscal year for State Board of Education out-of-state travel.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-320, Maintenance and Equipment, $692,014 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Department of Education to provide vocational administration matching funds pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 2311.

SECTION 41.02. PUBLIC PRESCHOOL

The Department of Education shall distribute the foregoing appropriation item 200-408, Public Preschool, to pay the costs of comprehensive preschool programs. As used in this section, "school district" means a city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district, or an educational service center.

(A) In each fiscal year, up to two per cent of the total appropriation may be used by the department for program support and technical assistance; developing program capacity; and assisting programs with facilities planning, construction, renovation, or lease agreements in conjunction with the Community Development Finance Fund (CDFF). The Department shall distribute the remainder of the appropriation in each fiscal year to serve children from families earning not more than 185 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines.

(B) The department shall provide an annual report to the Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President of the Senate, the State Board of Education, Head Start agencies, and other interested parties regarding the Public Preschool Program and performance indicators, as outlined by the Department.

(C) For purposes of this section, "eligible child" means a child who is at least three years of age, is not of the age to be eligible for kindergarten, and whose family earns not more than 185 per cent of the federal poverty guidelines.

(D) After setting aside the amounts to make payments due from the previous fiscal year, in fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005, the Department shall distribute funds first to recipients of funds under the program in the previous fiscal year and the balance to new recipients. Awards under this section shall be distributed on a per-pupil basis, which the Department may adjust so that the per-pupil amount multiplied by the number of eligible children enrolled and receiving services, as defined by the Department, reported on the first day of December or the first business day following that date equals the amount allocated under division (A) of this section. The Department may increase the per-pupil amount by a reasonable percentage for inflation, to be determined by the Department.

The Department may reallocate unobligated or unspent money to participating school districts for purposes of program expansion, improvement, or special projects to promote quality and innovation.

(E) Costs for developing and administering a preschool program may not exceed fifteen per cent of the total approved costs of the program.

All recipients of funds shall maintain such fiscal control and accounting procedures as may be necessary to ensure the disbursement of, and accounting for, these funds. The control of funds provided in this program, and title to property obtained therefrom, shall be under the authority of the approved recipient for purposes provided in the program unless, as described in division (J) of this section, a preschool program waives its right for funding or a program's funding is eliminated or reduced due to its inability to meet financial or program performance standards. The approved recipient shall administer and use such property and funds for the purposes specified.

(F) The Department shall prescribe target levels for critical performance indicators for the purpose of assessing public preschool programs. On-site reviews and follow-up visits shall be based on progress in meeting the prescribed target levels.

(G) The Department may examine a recipient's financial and program records. If the financial practices of the program are not in accordance with standard accounting principles or do not meet financial standards outlined under division (E) of this section, or if the program fails to substantially meet the Head Start performance standards or exhibits below average performance as measured against the performance indicators outlined in division (F) of this section, the preschool program shall propose and implement a corrective action plan that has been approved by the Department. The approved corrective action plan shall be signed by the school district board of education and the appropriate grantee official. The corrective action plan shall include a schedule for monitoring by the Department. Such monitoring may include monthly reports, inspections, a timeline for correction of deficiencies, and technical assistance to be provided by the Department or obtained by the public preschool program. The Department may withhold funding pending corrective action. If a public preschool program fails to satisfactorily complete a corrective action plan, the Department may either deny expansion funding to the program or withdraw all or part of the public preschool funding from the agency and establish a new state-funded agency through a competitive bidding process established by the Department.

(H) The department shall require public preschool programs to document child progress, using research-based indicators as prescribed by the department, and report results annually. The department shall determine the dates for documenting and reporting.

(I) Each school district shall develop a sliding fee scale based on family incomes in the district and shall charge families who earn more than the federal poverty guidelines for preschool.

(J) If a public preschool program voluntarily waives its right for funding, or has its funding eliminated for not meeting financial standards or program performance standards, the grantee and delegate shall transfer control of title to property, equipment, and remaining supplies obtained through the program to designated grantees and return any unexpended funds to the Department along with any reports prescribed by the Department. The funding made available from a program that waives its right for funding or has its funding eliminated or reduced may be used by the Department for new grant awards or expansion grants. The Department may award new grants or expansion grants to eligible providers who apply. The eligible providers who apply must do so in accordance with the competitive bidding process established by the Department.

SECTION 41.03. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $5,200,000 in fiscal year 2004 shall be used by the Department of Education to support a statewide comprehensive system of regional professional development centers that support local educators' ability to foster academic achievement in the students they serve. Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $5,200,000 in fiscal year 2005 shall be used by the regional education delivery system. Before releasing these funds in fiscal year 2005, the Department of Education shall submit a spending plan to the Controlling Board. The release of the funds is contingent on Controlling Board approval of the spending plan. Both the regional professional development centers in fiscal year 2004 and the regional education delivery system in fiscal year 2005 shall include training that assists educators, school leadership, and technical assistance providers in understanding and implementing standards-based education, data analysis, and development of assessment systems for quality instruction.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $7,079,625 in fiscal year 2004 and $7,329,625 in fiscal year 2005 shall be used by the Department of Education to provide grants to pay

$2,000 of the application fee in order to assist teachers from public and chartered nonpublic schools applying for the first time to the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards for professional teaching certificates or licenses that the board offers. This set aside shall also be used to recognize and reward teachers who become certified by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards pursuant to section 3319.55 of the Revised Code. Up to $300,000 in each fiscal year of this set aside may be used by the Department to pay for costs associated with activities to support candidates through the application and certification process.

These moneys shall be used to pay up to the first 500 applications in fiscal year 2004 and the first 400 applications in fiscal year 2005 received by the Department.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $10,442,358 in each fiscal year shall be allocated for entry year programs. These funds shall be used to support mentoring services and performance assessments of beginning teachers in school districts and chartered nonpublic schools.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $188,090 in each fiscal year shall be used to provide technical assistance and grants for districts to develop local knowledge/skills-based compensation systems. Each district receiving grants shall issue an annual report to the Department of Education detailing the use of the funds and the impact of the system developed by the district.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, up to $670,000 in each fiscal year shall be used for training and professional development of school administrators, school treasurers, and school business officials.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $144,000 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Department of Education to develop a supply and demand report that describes the availability of quality educators and critical educator shortage areas in Ohio.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $1,056,000 in each fiscal year shall be used for educator recruitment programs targeting special need areas, including recruiting highly qualified minority candidates into teaching, recruiting prospective mathematics and science teachers, and targeting other areas of special need.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $60,000 in fiscal year 2004 and $70,000 in fiscal year 2005 shall be used to support the Ohio University Leadership Program.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-410, Professional Development, $4,650,000 in each fiscal year shall be allocated by the Department of Education on a per pupil basis, to school districts in academic emergency. These funds shall be used by the districts to provide an equivalent of five days of ongoing embedded professional development for classroom teachers who provide instruction in the subject areas of reading, writing, mathematics, science, or social studies to students enrolled in the ninth or tenth grade. This professional development shall focus on developing subject competency, developing cultural competency, developing skills for analyzing test data, and developing data-based intervention strategies to prepare students below grade level to pass the Ohio Graduation Test. Districts shall submit a research-based, professional development plan for five days of embedded professional development to the Department of Education prior to receiving funds. The plan shall detail how ninth and tenth grade teachers will learn and implement classroom strategies for students to reach state standards in mathematics, reading, writing, social studies, and science.

SECTION 41.04. TECHNICAL SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT

The foregoing appropriation item 200-420, Technical Systems Development, shall be used to support the development and implementation of information technology solutions designed to improve the performance and customer service of the Department of Education. Funds may be used for personnel, maintenance, and equipment costs related to the development and implementation of these technical system projects. Implementation of these systems shall allow the Department to provide greater levels of assistance to school districts and to provide more timely information to the public, including school districts, administrators, and legislators.

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAMS

There is hereby created the Alternative Education Advisory Council, which shall consist of one representative from each of the following agencies: the Ohio Department of Education; the Department of Youth Services; the Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services; the Department of Mental Health; the Office of the Governor or, at the Governor's discretion, the Office of the Lieutenant Governor; the Office of the Attorney General; and the Office of the Auditor of State.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-421, Alternative Education Programs, not less than $7,529,274 in each fiscal year shall be used for the renewal of successful implementation grants and for competitive matching grants to the 21 urban school districts as defined in division (O) of section 3317.02 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1998, and not less than $7,494,820 in each fiscal year shall be used for the renewal of successful implementation of grants and for competitive matching grants to rural and suburban school districts for alternative educational programs for existing and new at-risk and delinquent youth. Programs shall be focused on youth in one or more of the following categories: those who have been expelled or suspended, those who have dropped out of school or who are at risk of dropping out of school, those who are habitually truant or disruptive, or those on probation or on parole from a Department of Youth Services facility. Grants shall be awarded according to the criteria established by the Alternative Education Advisory Council in 1999. Grants shall be awarded only to programs where the grant would not serve as the program's primary source of funding. These grants shall be administered by the Department of Education.

The Department of Education may waive compliance with any minimum education standard established under section 3301.07 of the Revised Code for any alternative school that receives a grant under this section on the grounds that the waiver will enable the program to more effectively educate students enrolled in the alternative school.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 200-421, Alternative Education Programs, $75,000 in each fiscal year shall be used to support the Toledo Tech Academy.

The treasurer of each school district or educational service center may accrue, in addition to the payments defined in this section, to the accounts of the calendar years that end during each fiscal year, the difference between the sum of the first six months' payments in each fiscal year and the amounts the district would have received had the payments been made in, as nearly as possible in each fiscal year, twelve equal monthly payments.

purpose of better ensuring the prompt payment of principal of and interest on the notes when due, the resolution of the board of education authorizing the notes may direct that the amount of the receipts anticipated, together with those additional amounts needed to pay the interest on the borrowed amounts, shall be deposited and segregated, in trust or otherwise, to the extent, at the time or times, and in the manner provided in that resolution. The borrowing authorized by this section does not constitute debt for purposes of section 133.04 of the Revised Code. School districts shall be reimbursed by the state for all necessary and actual costs to districts arising from this provision, including, without limitation, the interest paid on the notes while the notes are outstanding. The Department of Education shall adopt rules that are not inconsistent with this section for school district eligibility and application for reimbursement of such costs. Payments of these costs shall be made out of any anticipated balances in appropriation items distributed under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code. The department shall submit all requests for reimbursement under these provisions to the Controlling Board for approval.

During the last six months of each calendar year, instead of deducting the amount the Superintendent of Public Instruction would otherwise deduct from a school district's or educational service center's state aid payments in accordance with the certifications made for such year pursuant to sections 3307.56 and 3309.51 of the Revised Code, the superintendent shall deduct an amount equal to forty per cent of the amount so certified. The secretaries of the retirement systems shall compute the certifications for the ensuing year under such sections as if the entire amounts certified as due in the calendar year ending the current fiscal year, but not deducted pursuant to this paragraph, had been deducted and paid in that calendar year. During the first six months of the ensuing calendar year, in addition to deducting the amounts the Superintendent of Public Instruction is required to deduct under such sections during such period, the superintendent shall deduct from a district's or educational service center's state aid payments an additional amount equal to the amount that was certified as due from the district for the calendar year that ends during the fiscal year, but that was not deducted because of this paragraph. The superintendent's certifications to the Director of Budget and Management during the first six months of the calendar year shall reflect such additional deduction.

SECTION 41.25. EDUCATIONAL SERVICE CENTERS FUNDING

(A) As used in this section:

(1) "Internet- or computer-based community school" has the same meaning as in section 3314.02 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Service center ADM" has the same meaning as in section 3317.11 of the Revised Code.

(B) Notwithstanding division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code, no funds shall be provided under that division to an educational service center in either fiscal year for any pupils of a city or exempted village school district unless an agreement to provide services under section 3313.843 of the Revised Code was entered into by January 1, 1997, except that funds shall be provided to an educational service center for any pupils of a city school district if the agreement to provide services was entered into within one year of the date upon which such district changed from a local school district to a city school district.

(C) Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the contrary, an educational service center that sponsors a community school under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code in either fiscal year may include the students of that community school in its service center ADM for purposes of state funding under division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code, unless the community school is an Internet- or computer-based community school. A service center shall include the community school students in its service center ADM only to the extent that the students are not already so included, and only in accordance with guidelines issued by the Department of Education. If the students of a community school sponsored by an educational service center are included in the service center ADM of another educational service center, those students shall be removed from the service center ADM of the other educational service center and added to the service center ADM of the community school's sponsoring service center. The General Assembly authorizes this procedure as an incentive for educational service centers to take over sponsorship of community schools from the State Board of Education as the State Board's sponsorship is phased out in accordance with Sub. H.B. 364 of the 124th General Assembly. No student of an Internet- or computer-based community school shall be counted in the service center ADM of any educational service center. The Department shall pay educational service centers under division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code for community school students included in their service center ADMs under this division only if sufficient funds earmarked within appropriation item 200-501, Base Cost Funding, for payments under that division remain after first paying for students attributable to their local and client school districts, in accordance with divisions (B) and (D) of this section.

(D) If insufficient funds are earmarked within appropriation item

200-501, Base Cost Funding, for payments under division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code and division (C) of this section in fiscal year 2004 or fiscal year 2005, the Department shall prioritize the distribution of the earmarked funds as follows:

(1) The Department shall first distribute to each educational service center the per-student amount specified in division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code for each student in its service center ADM attributable to the local school districts within the service center's territory.

(2) The Department shall distribute the remaining funds in each fiscal year to each educational service center for the students in its service center ADM attributable to each city and exempted village school district that had entered into an agreement with an educational service center for that fiscal year under section 3313.843 of the Revised Code by January 1, 1997, up to the per-student amount specified in division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code. If insufficient funds remain to pay each service center the full amount specified in division (F) of that section for each such student, the Department shall distribute the remaining funds to each service center proportionally, on a per-student basis for each such student, unless that proportional per-student amount exceeds the amount specified in division (F)(1) of that section. In that case, the Department shall distribute the per-student amount specified in division (F)(1) of that section to each service center for each such student and shall distribute the remainder proportionally, on a per-student basis for each such student, to the multi-county service centers described in division (F)(2) of that section.

(3) If the Department has paid each service center under divisions (D)(1) and (2) of this section, the full amount specified in division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code for each student attributable to its local school districts and its client school districts described in division (D)(2) of this section the Department shall distribute any remaining funds proportionally, on a per-student basis, to each service center that sponsors a community school, other than an Internet- or computer-based community school, for the students included in the service center ADM under division (C) of this section. These payments shall not exceed per student the amount specified in division (F) of section 3317.11 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 41.26. * For the school year commencing July 1, 2003, or the school year commencing July 1, 2004, or both, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive for the board of education of any school district the ratio of teachers to pupils in kindergarten through fourth grade required under paragraph (A)(3) of rule 3301-35-05 of the Administrative Code if the following conditions apply:

(A) The board of education requests the waiver.

(B) After the Department of Education conducts an on-site evaluation of the district related to meeting the required ratio, the board of education demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction that providing the facilities necessary to meet the required ratio during the district's regular school hours with pupils in attendance would impose an extreme hardship on the district.

(C) The board of education provides assurances that are satisfactory to the Superintendent of Public Instruction that the board will act in good faith to meet the required ratio as soon as possible.

SECTION 41.27. PRIVATE TREATMENT FACILITY PILOT PROJECT

(A) As used in this section:

(1) The following are "participating residential treatment centers":

(a) Private residential treatment facilities that have entered into a contract with the Department of Youth Services to provide services to children placed at the facility by the Department and which, in fiscal year 2004 or fiscal year 2005 or both, the Department pays through appropriation item 470-401, Care and Custody;

(b) Abraxas, in Shelby;

(c) Paint Creek, in Bainbridge;

(d) Act One, in Akron;

(e) Friars Club, in Cincinnati.

(2) "Education program" means an elementary or secondary education program or a special education program and related services.

(3) "Served child" means any child receiving an education program pursuant to division (B) of this section.

(4) "School district responsible for tuition" means a city, exempted village, or local school district that, if tuition payment for a child by a school district is required under law that existed in fiscal year 1998, is the school district required to pay that tuition.

(5) "Residential child" means a child who resides in a participating residential treatment center and who is receiving an educational program under division (B) of this section.

(B) A youth who is a resident of the state and has been assigned by a juvenile court or other authorized agency to a residential treatment facility specified in division (A) of this section shall be enrolled in an approved educational program located in or near the facility. Approval of the educational program shall be contingent upon compliance with the criteria established for such programs by the Department of Education. The educational program shall be provided by a school district or educational service center, or by the residential facility itself. Maximum flexibility shall be given to the residential treatment facility to determine the provider. In the event that a voluntary agreement cannot be reached and the residential facility does not choose to provide the educational program, the educational service center in the county in which the facility is located shall provide the educational program at the treatment center to children under twenty-two years of age residing in the treatment center.

(C) Any school district responsible for tuition for a residential child shall, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code regarding tuition payment, pay tuition for the child for fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005 to the education program provider and in the amount specified in this division. If there is no school district responsible for tuition for a residential child and if the participating residential treatment center to which the child is assigned is located in the city, exempted village, or local school district that, if the child were not a resident of that treatment center, would be the school district where the child is entitled to attend school under sections 3313.64 and 3313.65 of the Revised Code, that school district, notwithstanding any conflicting provision of the Revised Code, shall pay tuition for the child for fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005 under this division unless that school district is providing the educational program to the child under division (B) of this section.

A tuition payment under this division shall be made to the school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility providing the educational program to the child.

The amount of tuition paid shall be:

(1) The amount of tuition determined for the district under division (A) of section 3317.08 of the Revised Code;

(2) In addition, for any student receiving special education pursuant to an individualized education program as defined in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, a payment for excess costs. This payment shall equal the actual cost to the school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility of providing special education and related services to the student pursuant to the student's individualized education program, minus the tuition paid for the child under division (C)(1) of this section.

A school district paying tuition under this division shall not include the child for whom tuition is paid in the district's average daily membership certified under division (A) of section 3317.03 of the Revised Code.

(D) In each of fiscal years 2004 and 2005, the Department of Education shall reimburse, from appropriations made for the purpose, a school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility, whichever is providing the service, that has demonstrated that it is in compliance with the funding criteria for each served child for whom a school district must pay tuition under division (C) of this section. The amount of the reimbursement shall be the formula amount specified in section 3317.022 of the Revised Code, except that the department shall proportionately reduce this reimbursement if sufficient funds are not available to pay this amount to all qualified providers.

(E) Funds provided to a school district, educational service center, or residential treatment facility under this section shall be used to supplement, not supplant, funds from other public sources for which the school district, service center, or residential treatment facility is entitled or eligible.

(F) The Department of Education shall track the utilization of funds provided to school districts, educational service centers, and residential treatment facilities under this section and monitor the effect of the funding on the educational programs they provide in participating residential treatment facilities. The department shall monitor the programs for educational accountability.

SECTION 41.28. SCHOOL DISTRICT PARTICIPATION IN NATIONAL ASSESSMENT OF EDUCATION PROGRESS

The General Assembly intends for the Superintendent of Public Instruction to provide for school district participation in the administration of the National Assessment of Education Progress in accordance with section 3301.27 of the Revised Code. Each school and school district selected for participation by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall participate.

SECTION 41.29. Notwithstanding division (C)(1) of section 3313.975 of the Revised Code, in addition to students in kindergarten through third grade, initial scholarships may be awarded to fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students in fiscal year 2004 and in fiscal year 2005.

SECTION 41.30. STATEMENT OF STATE SHARE PERCENTAGE FOR BASE COST AND PARITY AID FUNDING

Pursuant to division (D)(3) of section 3317.012 of the Revised Code, and based on the most recent data available prior to the enactment of this act, the General Assembly has determined that the state share percentage of base cost and parity aid funding for the update year (fiscal year 2002) is 49.0%. This is the target percentage for fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005 that the General Assembly shall use to fulfill its obligation under division (D)(4) of section 3317.012 of the Revised Code.

Pursuant to division (D)(4) of section 3317.012 of the Revised Code, and based on the most recent data available prior to the enactment of this act, the General Assembly has determined that the state share percentage of base cost and parity aid funding for fiscal year 2004 is 48.5% and for fiscal year 2005 is 47.9%. This determination fulfills the General Assembly's obligation under that division for fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005.

SECTION 41.31. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION APPROPRIATION TRANSFERS FOR STUDENT ASSESSMENT

In fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005, if the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that additional funds are needed to fully fund the requirements of Am. Sub. S.B. 1 of the 124th General Assembly for assessments of student performance, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may recommend the reallocation of unspent and unencumbered appropriations within the Department of Education to the General Revenue Fund appropriation item 200-437, Student Assessment, to the Director of Budget and Management. If the Director of Budget and Management determines that such a reallocation is required, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer unspent and unencumbered funds within the Department of Education as necessary to appropriation item 200-437, Student Assessment.

SECTION 41.32. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "IEP" has the same meaning as in section 3314.08 of the Revised Code.

(2) "SBH student" means a student receiving special education and related services for severe behavior handicap conditions pursuant to an IEP.

(B) This section applies only to a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code that in each of fiscal years 2004 and 2005 enrolls a number of SBH students equal to at least fifty per cent of the total number of students enrolled in the school in the applicable fiscal year.

(C) In addition to any payments made under section 3314.08 of the Revised Code, in each of fiscal years 2004 and 2005 the Department of Education shall pay to a community school a subsidy equal to the difference between the aggregate amount calculated and paid in that fiscal year to the community school for special education and related services additional weighted costs for the SBH students enrolled in the school and the aggregate amount that would have been calculated for the school for special education and related services additional weighted costs for those same students in fiscal year 2001. If the difference is a negative number, the amount of the subsidy shall be zero.

(D) The amount of any subsidy paid to a community school under this section shall not be deducted from any moneys calculated under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code for payment to a school district in which any of its students are entitled to attend school under section 3313.64 or 3313.65 of the Revised Code.

The amount of any subsidy paid to a community school under this section shall be paid from the amount appropriated to the Department of Education in appropriation item 200-501, Base Cost Funding.

SECTION 41.33. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Entitled to attend school" means entitled to attend school in a school district under section 3313.64 and 3313.65 of the Revised Code.

(2) "Formula ADM" and "category six special education ADM" have the same meanings as in section 3317.02 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Individualized education program" has the same meaning as in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Parent" has the same meaning as in section 3313.64 of the Revised Code.

(5) "Qualified special education child" is a child for whom all of the following conditions apply:

(a) The school district in which the child is entitled to attend school has identified the child as autistic;

(b) The school district in which the child is entitled to attend school has developed an individualized education program under Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code for the child;

(c) The child either:

(i) Was enrolled in the school district in which the child is entitled to attend school in any grade from preschool through twelve in the school year prior to the year in which a scholarship under this section is first sought for the child;

(ii) Is eligible to enter school in any grade preschool through twelve in the school district in which the child is entitled to attend school in the school year in which a scholarship under this section is first sought for the child.

(6) "Registered private provider" means a nonpublic school or other nonpublic entity that has been approved by the Department of Education to participate in the program established under this section.

(B) There is hereby established the Pilot Project Special Education Scholarship Program. Under the program, in fiscal years 2004 and 2005, the Department of Education shall pay a scholarship to the parent of each qualified special education child upon application of that parent pursuant to procedures and deadlines established by rule of the State Board of Education. Each scholarship shall be used only to pay tuition for the child on whose behalf the scholarship is awarded to attend a special education program that implements the child's individualized education program and that is operated by a school district other than the school district in which the child is entitled to attend school or by another public entity, to either of which under law the parent is required to pay tuition on behalf of the child, or by a registered private provider. Each scholarship shall be in an amount not to exceed the lesser of the tuition charged for the child by the special education program or fifteen thousand dollars. The purpose of the scholarship is to permit the parent of a qualified special education child the choice to send the child to a special education program, instead of, or in addition to, the one operated by or for the school district in which the child is entitled to attend school, to receive the services prescribed in the child's individualized education program once the individualized education program is finalized. A scholarship under this section shall not be awarded to the parent of a child while the child's individualized education program is being developed by the school district in which the child is entitled to attend school, or while any administrative or judicial mediation or proceedings with respect to the content of the child's individualized education program are pending. A scholarship under this section shall not be awarded to the parent of a child who attends a public special education program under a contract, compact, or other bilateral agreement between the school district in which the child is entitled to attend school and another school district or other public provider or to the parent of a child who attends a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code. A child attending a special education program with a scholarship under this section shall continue to be entitled to transportation to and from that program in the manner prescribed by law.

(C)(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Revised Code, a child for whom a scholarship is awarded under this section shall be counted in the formula ADM and the category six special education ADM of the district in which the child is entitled to attend school and not in the formula ADM and the category six special education ADM of any other school district.

(2) In each fiscal year, the Department shall deduct from the amounts paid to each school district under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code, and, if necessary, sections 321.24 and 323.156 of the Revised Code, the aggregate amount of scholarships awarded under this section for qualified special education children included in the formula ADM and category six special education ADM of that school district as provided in division (C)(1) of this section. The scholarships deducted shall be considered as an approved special education and related services expense for the purpose of the school district's compliance with division (C)(5) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code.

(3) From time to time, the Department shall make a payment to the parent of each qualified special education child for whom a scholarship has been awarded under this section. The scholarship amount shall be proportionately reduced in the case of any such child who is not enrolled in the special education program for which a scholarship was awarded under this section for the entire school year. The Department shall make no payments to the parent of a child while any administrative or judicial mediation or proceedings with respect to the content of the child's individualized education program are pending.

(D) A scholarship shall not be paid to a parent for payment of tuition owed to a nonpublic entity unless that entity is a registered private provider. The Department shall approve entities that meet the standards established by rule of the State Board for the program established under this section.

(E) The State Board shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code prescribing procedures necessary to implement this section, including, but not limited to, procedures and deadlines for parents to apply for scholarships, standards for registered private providers, and procedures for approval of entities as registered private providers. The Board shall adopt the rules so that the program established under this section is operational by January 1, 2004.

(F) The Legislative Office of Education Oversight shall conduct a formative evaluation of the program established under this section and shall report its findings to the General Assembly not later than March 1, 2005. In conducting the evaluation, the Office shall to the extent possible gather comments from parents who have been awarded scholarships under the program, school district officials, representatives of registered private providers, educators, and representatives of educational organizations for inclusion in the report required under this section.

SECTION 41.34. (A) Not later than March 31, 2004, the department of education shall recommend to the general assembly, in consultation with stakeholders, plans for an Ohio Regional Education Delivery System to provide minimum core services and technical assistance to school districts. The recommendations shall address how the system should provide the state-funded core services currently provided by educational service centers, regional professional development centers, special education regional resource centers, area media centers, school improvement facilitators, Ohio SchoolNet regional services, data acquisition sites, educational technology centers, and other regional service providers. The department shall also recommend that the system provide minimum core services and technical assistance to chartered nonpublic schools to assist these schools in meeting Ohio's statutory and administrative code provisions applicable to such schools. However, the recommendations shall specify that in providing services to chartered nonpublic schools, the system is not required to create additional services or technical assistance beyond those provided to school districts.

(B)(1) The number of regional service centers recommended under the Ohio Regional Education Delivery System shall not exceed nineteen and shall be distributed geographically throughout the state.

(2) The plans shall recommend that each region established under the Ohio Regional Education Delivery System be served by a fiscal agent in the form of a regional educational service agency. Each service agency shall be selected by a majority vote of the school districts in the region based upon the agency's satisfactory audit record, demonstrated fiscal capacity, and demonstrated staff and resource capacity. The selection of each service agency shall be subject to final approval by the State Board of Education.

(C) The department, in consultation with stakeholders, shall recommend an accountability system for the Ohio Regional Education Delivery System or any part thereof as deemed necessary. The recommended accountability system shall include minimum standards for operation and the provision of minimum core services. It shall also include benchmarks against performance measures based on each of the following:

- (1) Student achievement;
- (2) The effectiveness and efficiency of service delivery;
- (3) The quality of implementation of state initiatives;
- (4) Satisfaction expressed by school districts and other entities that use the Ohio Regional Education Delivery System with the quality of the system.

(D) The Department, in consultation with stakeholders, shall recommend rules regarding each of the following:

(1) Procedures for changing the boundaries of regions established under the system;

(2) Procedures for changing the configuration of the system;

(3) A requirement that each regional service center, prior to receiving state funds, submit to the Department an annual strategic plan and budget that is aligned with the state's strategic plan and demonstrates how the regional service center provides and coordinates services and technical assistance to client service providers, school districts, and school buildings;

(4) A governance structure for the system that includes a Regional Education Delivery Center Board and functional area advisory boards.

(E) The Department shall recommend a methodology to provide funding to the regional service centers, and all parts thereof, in order to support state education initiatives.

SECTION 41.35. (A) There is hereby created the Head Start Partnership Study Council consisting of the following twenty-two members:

(1) Four representatives appointed by the Director of Job and Family Services, two of whom are employees of the Department of Job and Family Services;

(2) Four representatives appointed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, two of whom are employees of the Department of Education;

(3) Three members of the House of Representatives, not more than two of whom are members of the same political party, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives;

(4) Three members of the Senate, not more two of whom are members of the same political party, appointed by the President of the Senate;

(5) Three representatives of Head Start agencies, two of whom are appointed by the Ohio Head Start Association, and one of whom is appointed by the Ohio Association of Community Action Agencies;

(6) Two representatives of child care providers appointed by the Ohio Association of Child Care Providers;

(7) One representative appointed by the Ohio Day Care Advisory Council;

(8) One representative appointed by the County Commissioner's Association of Ohio;

(9) One representative appointed by the Association of Directors of County Departments of Job and Family Services.

Initial appointments of members shall be made not later than September 1, 2003. Vacancies in any of those appointments shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate jointly shall appoint the chairperson of the Council.

Members of the Council shall serve without compensation.

(B) In fiscal year 2004, the Council shall advise the Departments of Education and Job and Family Services in the design and implementation of the Title IV-A Head Start Plus Program as established under sections 3301.33 and 3301.35 of the Revised Code and shall report to the General Assembly on the plans for that program by December 31, 2003.

(C) In fiscal year 2005, the Council shall monitor the implementation of the Title IV-A Head Start Plus Program as established under sections 3301.33 and 3301.35 of the Revised Code and provide advice to the Departments of Education and Job and Family Services in that implementation.

(D) Unless reauthorized by the General Assembly, the Council shall cease to exist on July 1, 2005.

SECTION 41.36. (A) In the 2004-2005 and 2005-2006 school years, within three months after a student identified with disabilities begins receiving services for the first time under an individualized education program, as defined in section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, the school district in which that student is enrolled shall require the student to undergo a comprehensive eye examination performed either by an optometrist licensed under Chapter 4725. of the Revised Code or by a physician authorized under Chapter 4731. of the Revised Code to practice medicine and surgery or osteopathic medicine and surgery who is comprehensively trained and educated in the treatment of the human eye, eye disease, or comprehensive vision services, unless the student underwent such an examination within the nine-month period immediately prior to being identified with disabilities.

However, no student who has not undergone the eye examination required under this section shall be prohibited from initiating, receiving, or continuing to receive services prescribed in the student's individualized education program.

(B) The superintendent of each school district or the superintendent's designee may determine fulfillment of the requirement prescribed in division (A) of this section based on any special circumstances of the student, the student's parent, guardian, or family that may prevent the student from undergoing the eye examination prior to beginning special education services.

(C) Except for a student who may be entitled to a comprehensive eye examination in the identification of the student's disabilities, in the development of the student's individualized education program, or as a related service under the student's individualized education program, neither the state nor any school district shall be responsible for paying for the eye examination required by this section.

SECTION 41.37. TRANSITIONAL AID

The Department of Education shall distribute earmarked funds within appropriation item 200-501, Base Cost Funding, for transitional aid in each fiscal year to each city, local, and exempted village school district that experiences a decrease in its SF-3 funding plus charge-off supplement for the current fiscal year in excess of five per cent of its SF-3 funding plus charge-off supplement for the previous fiscal year. The Department shall distribute to each such district an amount to reduce the decrease to five per cent of the district's SF-3 funding plus charge-off supplement for the previous fiscal year. For this purpose, "SF-3 funding plus charge-off supplement" equals the sum of the following:

(J) Transportation under division (D) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code;

(K) The state aid guarantee under section 3317.0212 of the Revised Code;

(L) The excess cost supplement under division (F) of section 3317.022 of the Revised Code;

STATE FAIR RESERVE

The foregoing appropriation item 723-603, State Fair Reserve, shall serve as a budget reserve fund for the Ohio Expositions Commission in the event of a significant decline in attendance due to inclement weather or extraordinary circumstances during the Ohio State Fair resulting in a loss of revenue. The State Fair Reserve may be used by the Ohio Expositions Commission to pay bills resulting from the Ohio State Fair only if all the following criteria are met:

(A) Admission revenues for the 2003 Ohio State Fair are less than $2,542,500 or admission revenues for the 2004 Ohio State Fair are less than $2,619,000 due to inclement weather or extraordinary circumstances. These amounts are ninety per cent of the projected admission revenues for each year.

(B) The Ohio Expositions Commission declares a state of fiscal exigency and requests release of funds by the Director of Budget and Management.

(C) The Director of Budget and Management releases the funds. The Director of Budget and Management may approve or disapprove the request for release of funds, may increase or decrease the amount of release, and may place such conditions as the director considers necessary on the use of the released funds. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer appropriation authority from fiscal year 2004 to fiscal year 2005 as needed.

In the event that the Ohio Expositions Commission faces a temporary cash shortage that will preclude it from meeting current obligations, the Commission may request the Director of Budget and Management to approve use of the State Fair Reserve to meet those obligations. The request shall include a plan describing how the Commission will eliminate the cash shortage. If the Director of Budget and Management approves the expenditures, the Commission shall reimburse Fund 640 by the thirtieth day of June of that same fiscal year through an intrastate transfer voucher. The amount reimbursed is hereby appropriated.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 723-603, State Fair Reserve, up to $125,000 shall be transferred in fiscal year 2004 to appropriation item 723-403, Junior Fair Subsidy.

SECTION 52.03. WOMEN'S HEALTH SERVICES UNTIL JANUARY 1, 2004

None of the funds received for women's health services through a family planning grant from the foregoing appropriation item 440-416, Child and Family Health Services, shall be used to provide abortion services. None of the funds received through these family planning grants shall be used for counseling for or referrals for abortion, except in the case of a medical emergency. These funds shall be distributed on the basis of the relative need in the community served by the Director of Health to family planning programs, which shall include family planning programs funded under Title V of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 301, as amended, and Title X of the "Public Health Services Act," 58 Stat. 682 (1946), 42 U.S.C. 201, as amended, as well as to other family planning programs that the Department of Health also determines will provide services that are physically and financially separate from abortion-providing and abortion-promoting activities, and that do not include counseling for or referrals for abortion, other than in the case of medical emergency, with state moneys, but that otherwise substantially comply with the quality standards for such programs under Title V and Title X.

The Director of Health, by rule, shall provide reasonable methods by which a grantee wishing to be eligible for federal funding may comply with these requirements for state funding without losing its eligibility for federal funding, while ensuring that a family planning program receiving a family planning grant must be organized so that it is physically and financially separate from the provision of abortion services and from activities promoting abortion as a method of family planning.

This section expires January 1, 2004.

SECTION 52.04. WOMEN'S SERVICES STARTING JANUARY 1, 2004

None of the funds received through grants for women's health services under this section from the foregoing appropriation item 440-416, Child and Family Health Services, shall be used to provide abortion services. None of the funds received through these grants shall be used for counseling for or referrals for abortion, except in the case of a medical emergency. These funds shall be distributed by the Director of Health to programs that the Department of Health determines will provide services that are physically and financially separate from abortion-providing and abortion-promoting activities, and that do not include counseling for or referrals for abortion, other than in the case of medical emergency.

These women's health services include and are limited to the following: pelvic exams and lab testing; breast exams and patient education on breast cancer; screening for cervical cancer; screening and treatment for Sexually Transmitted Diseases (STDs) and HIV screening; voluntary choice of contraception, including abstinence and natural family planning; patient education and pre-pregnancy counseling on the dangers of smoking, alcohol, and drug use during pregnancy; education on sexual coercion and violence in relationships; and prenatal care or referral for prenatal care. These health care services shall be provided by licensed doctors, licensed nurses, licensed medical assistants, licensed counselors, and licensed social workers in a medical clinic setting.

The Director of Health shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code specifying reasonable eligibility standards that must be met to receive the state funding and provide reasonable methods by which a grantee wishing to be eligible for federal funding may comply with these requirements for state funding without losing its eligibility for federal funding.

Each applicant for these funds shall provide sufficient assurance to the Director of Health of all of the following:

(A) The program shall not discriminate in the provision of services based on an individual's religion, race, national origin, handicapping condition, age, sex, number of pregnancies, or marital status;

(B) The program shall provide services without subjecting individuals to any coercion to accept services or to employ any particular methods of family planning;

(C) Acceptance of services shall be solely on a voluntary basis and may not be made a prerequisite to eligibility for, or receipt of, any other service, assistance from, or participation in, any other program of the service provider;

(D) The costs for services provided by the program, if any are charged, shall be based on the patient's ability to pay and priority in the provision of services shall be given to persons from low-income families.

In distributing these grant funds, the Director of Health shall give priority to grant requests from local departments of health for women's health services to be provided directly by personnel of the local department of health. Prior to the effective date of this section, the Director of Health shall issue a single request for proposals for all grants under this set-aside. The Director of Health shall send a notification of this request for proposals to every local department of health in this state and shall place a notification on the department's web site. The Director shall allow at least 30 days after issuing this notification before closing the period to receive applications.

After the closing date for receiving grant applications, the Director of Health shall first consider grant applications from local departments of health that apply for grants for women's health services to be provided directly by personnel of the local department of health. Local departments of health that apply for grants for women's health services to be provided directly by personnel of the local department of health need not provide all the listed women's health services in order to qualify for a grant. However, in prioritizing awards among local departments of health that qualify for funding under this paragraph, the Director of Health may consider, among other reasonable factors, the comprehensiveness of the women's health services to be offered, provided that no local department of health shall be discriminated against in the process of awarding these grant funds because the applicant does not provide contraception.

If funds remain after awarding grants to all local departments of health that qualify for the priority, the Director of Health may make grants to other applicants. Awards to other applicants may be made to those applicants that will offer all eight of the listed women's health services or that will offer all of the services except contraception. No applicant shall be discriminated against in the process of awarding these grant funds because the applicant does not provide contraception.

This section takes effect January 1, 2004.

(2) For fiscal year 2005, the mean total per diem rate for all nursing facilities in the state, weighted by May 2004 Medicaid days and calculated as of July 1, 2004, shall not exceed $159.00, plus any difference between $156.68 and the mean total per diem rate for all nursing facilities in the state for fiscal year 2004, weighted by Medicaid days and calculated as of July 1, 2003.

(3) If the mean total per diem rate for all nursing facilities in the state for fiscal year 2004 or 2005, weighted by Medicaid days as specified in division (B)(1) or (2) of this section, as appropriate, and calculated as of the first day of July of the calendar year in which the fiscal year begins, exceeds the amount specified for that fiscal year in division (B)(1) or (2) of this section, the Department of Job and Family Services shall reduce the total per diem rate for each nursing facility in the state by a percentage that is equal to the percentage by which the mean total per diem rate exceeds the amount specified in division (B)(1) or (2) of this section for that fiscal year.

(4) Subsequent to any reduction required by division (B)(3) of this section, a nursing facility's rate shall be subject to any adjustments required or authorized by Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code during the remainder of the fiscal year.

(B) Medicaid-reimbursed programs other than home and community-based waiver services, in an amount not to exceed $1,000,000 in each fiscal year, that enable persons with mental retardation and developmental disabilities to live in the community.

WAIVER STATE MATCH

The purposes for which the foregoing appropriation item 322-416, Waiver State Match, shall be used include the following:

(A) Home and community-based waiver services pursuant to Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 301, as amended.

(B) Services contracted by county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities.

(C) To pay the nonfederal share of the cost of one or more new intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded certified beds in a county where the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities does not initiate or support the development or certification of such beds, if the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is required by this act to transfer to the director of job and family services funds to pay such nonfederal share.

The Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities may designate a portion of appropriation item 322-416, Waiver State Match, to county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities that have greater need for various residential and support services due to a low percentage of residential and support services development in comparison to the number of individuals with mental retardation or developmental disabilities in the county.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 322-416, Waiver State Match, $9,850,000 in each year of the biennium shall be distributed by the Department to county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities to support existing residential facilities waiver and individual options waiver related to Medicaid activities provided for in the component of a county board's plan developed under division (A)(2) of section 5126.054 of the Revised Code and approved under section 5123.046 of the Revised Code. Up to $3,000,000 of these funds in each fiscal year may be used to implement day-to-day program management services under division (A)(2) of section 5126.054 of the Revised Code. Up to $4,200,000 in each fiscal year may be used to implement the program and health and welfare requirements of division (A)(2) of section 5126.054 of the Revised Code.

In fiscal years 2004 and 2005 not less than $2,650,000 of these funds shall be used to recruit and retain, under division (A)(2) of section 5126.054 of the Revised Code, the direct care staff necessary to implement the services included in an individualized service plan in a manner that ensures the health and welfare of the individuals being served.

The methodology utilized by the department to determine each residential facilities waiver and individual options provider's allocation of such funds in fiscal year 2003 shall be used for allocation purposes to such providers in fiscal years 2004 and 2005, respectively.

SUPPORTED LIVING

The purposes for which the foregoing appropriation item 322-417, Supported Living, shall be used include supported living services contracted by county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities in accordance with sections 5126.40 to 5126.47 of the Revised Code and to pay the nonfederal share of the cost of one or more new intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded certified beds in a county where the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities does not initiate or support the development or certification of such beds, if the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is required by this act to transfer to the director of job and family services funds to pay such nonfederal share.

OTHER RESIDENTIAL AND SUPPORT SERVICE PROGRAMS

Notwithstanding Chapters 5123. and 5126. of the Revised Code, the Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities may develop residential and support service programs funded by appropriation item 322-413, Residential and Support Services, appropriation item 322-416, Waiver State Match, or appropriation item 322-417, Supported Living, that enable persons with mental retardation and developmental disabilities to live in the community. Notwithstanding Chapter 5121. and section 5123.122 of the Revised Code, the department may waive the support collection requirements of those statutes for persons in community programs developed by the department under this section. The department shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code or may use existing rules for the implementation of these programs.

The department shall adopt rules to implement these programs. The department may also use the foregoing appropriation item 322-451, Family Support Services, to pay the nonfederal share of the cost of one or more new intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded certified beds in a county where the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities initiates or supports the development or certification of such beds, if the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is required by this act to transfer to the director of job and family services funds to pay such nonfederal share.

SERVICE AND SUPPORT ADMINISTRATION

The foregoing appropriation item 322-452, Service and Support Administration, shall be allocated to county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities for the purpose of providing service and support administration services and to assist in bringing state funding for all department-approved service and support administrators within county boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities to the level authorized in division (C) of section 5126.15 of the Revised Code. The department may request approval from the Controlling Board to transfer any unobligated appropriation authority from other state General Revenue Fund appropriation items within the department's budget to appropriation item 322-452, Service and Support Administration, to be used to meet the statutory funding level in division (C) of section 5126.15 of the Revised Code.

Notwithstanding division (C) of section 5126.15 of the Revised Code and subject to funding in appropriation item 322-452, Service and Support Administration, no county may receive less than its allocation in fiscal year 1995. Wherever case management services are referred to in any law, contract, or other document, the reference shall be deemed to refer to service and support administration. No action or proceeding pending on the effective date of this section is affected by the renaming of case management services as service and support administration.

The Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities shall adopt, amend, and rescind rules as necessary to reflect the renaming of case management services as service and support administration. All boards of mental retardation and developmental disabilities and the entities with which they contract for services shall rename the titles of their employees who provide service and support administration. All boards and contracting entities shall make corresponding changes to all employment contracts.

The department may also use the foregoing appropriation item 322-452, Service and Support Administration, to pay the nonfederal share of the cost of one or more new intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded certified beds in a county where the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities initiates or supports the development or certification of such beds, if the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is required by this act to transfer to the director of job and family services funds to pay such nonfederal share.

STATE SUBSIDIES TO MR/DD BOARDS

The department may also use the foregoing appropriation item 322-501, County Boards Subsidies, to pay the nonfederal share of the cost of one or more new intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded certified beds in a county where the county board of mental retardation and developmental disabilities initiates or supports the development or certification of such beds, if the director of mental retardation and developmental disabilities is required by this act to transfer to the director of job and family services funds to pay such nonfederal share.

The funds shall be used as partial support payment and reimbursement for locally coordinated treatment plans for multi-needs children that come to the attention of the Family and Children First Cabinet Council pursuant to section 121.37 of the Revised Code. The Department of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities may use up to five per cent of this amount for administrative expenses associated with the distribution of funds to the county councils.

SECTION 89.01. OPERATING EXPENSES

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-321, Operating Expenses, up to $500,000 shall be used in fiscal year 2004 to support the activities of the Commission on Higher Education and the Economy. The Commission shall recommend a strategy to improve the quality and efficiency of Ohio's higher education system to increase effectiveness, eliminate unnecessary duplication, broaden the use of technology, and determine how higher education can most effectively support the state's economy, best prepare Ohio students for Third Frontier jobs, and add to the quality of life for Ohio's citizens. The Commission shall also study the ten year plan for higher education in the context of curricula, the number of higher education institutions, and the number and types of higher education degrees in relation to the needs created through the Third Frontier and other high technology economic initiatives. The Director of Budget and Management may transfer any unencumbered fiscal year 2004 balance to fiscal year 2005 to support the activities of the Commission.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-321, Operating Expenses, $50,000 in each fiscal year shall be distributed to the Don't Laugh at Me Program, which shall use the funds to disseminate educational resources designed to establish a climate that reduces the emotional and physical harm caused by ridicule, bullying, and violence.

LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 235-401, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2003, to June 30, 2005, by the Board of Regents pursuant to leases and agreements made under section 154.21 of the Revised Code, but limited to the aggregate amount of $463,377,100. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to contravene the obligation of the state to pay, without necessity for further appropriation, from the sources pledged thereto, the bond service charges on obligations issued pursuant to section 154.21 of the Revised Code.

SEA GRANTS

The foregoing appropriation item 235-402, Sea Grants, shall be disbursed to the Ohio State University and shall be used to conduct research on fish in Lake Erie.

MATHEMATICS AND SCIENCE TEACHING IMPROVEMENT

Appropriation item 235-403, Math/Science Teaching Improvement, shall be used by the Board of Regents to support programs such as OSI - Discovery designed to raise the quality of mathematics and science teaching in primary and secondary education.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-403, Math/Science Teaching Improvement, $217,669 in each fiscal year shall be distributed to the Mathematics and Science Center in Lake County.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-403, Math/Science Teaching Improvement, $87,068 in fiscal year 2004 and $87,067 in fiscal year 2005 shall be distributed to the Ohio Mathematics and Science Coalition.

COLLEGE READINESS INITIATIVES

Appropriation item 235-404, College Readiness Initiatives, shall be used by the Board of Regents to support programs designed to improve the academic preparation and increase the number of students that enroll and succeed in higher education.

MIDWEST HIGHER EDUCATION COMPACT

The foregoing appropriation item 235-408, Midwest Higher Education Compact, shall be distributed by the Board of Regents pursuant to section 3333.40 of the Revised Code.

INFORMATION SYSTEM

The foregoing appropriation item 235-409, Information System, shall be used by the Board of Regents to operate the higher education information data system known as the Higher Education Information System.

SECTION 89.02. JOBS CHALLENGE

Funds appropriated to appropriation item 235-415, Jobs Challenge, shall be distributed to state-assisted community and technical colleges, regional campuses of state-assisted universities, and other organizationally distinct and identifiable member campuses of the EnterpriseOhio Network in support of noncredit job-related training. In each fiscal year, $2,770,773 shall be distributed as performance grants to EnterpriseOhio Network campuses based upon each campus's documented performance according to criteria established by the Board of Regents for increasing training and related services to businesses, industries, and public sector organizations.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-415, Jobs Challenge, $2,819,345 in each fiscal year shall be allocated to the Targeted Industries Training Grant Program to attract, develop, and retain business and industry strategically important to the state's economy.

Also, in each fiscal year, $3,758,182 shall be allocated to the Higher Skills Incentives Program to promote and deliver coordinated, comprehensive training to local employers and to reward EnterpriseOhio Network campuses for increasing the amount of non-credit skill upgrading services provided to Ohio employers and employees. The funds shall be distributed to campuses in proportion to each campus's share of noncredit job-related training revenues received by all campuses for the previous fiscal year. It is the intent of the General Assembly that this Higher Skills Incentives component of the Jobs Challenge Program reward campus noncredit job-related training efforts in the same manner that the Research Challenge Program rewards campuses for their ability to obtain sponsored research revenues.

OHIO LEARNING NETWORK

Appropriation item 235-417, Ohio Learning Network, shall be used by the Board of Regents to support the continued implementation of the Ohio Learning Network, a statewide electronic collaborative effort designed to promote degree completion of students, workforce training of employees, and professional development through the use of advanced telecommunications and distance education initiatives.

ACCESS CHALLENGE

In each fiscal year, the foregoing appropriation item 235-418, Access Challenge, shall be distributed to Ohio's state-assisted access colleges and universities. For the purposes of this allocation, "access campuses" includes state-assisted community colleges, state community colleges, technical colleges, Shawnee State University, Central State University, Cleveland State University, the regional campuses of state-assisted universities, and, where they are organizationally distinct and identifiable, the community-technical colleges located at the University of Cincinnati, Youngstown State University, and the University of Akron.

The purpose of Access Challenge is to reduce the student share of costs for resident undergraduates enrolled in lower division undergraduate courses at Ohio's access campuses. The long-term goal is to make the student share of costs for these students equivalent to the student share of costs for resident undergraduate students enrolled throughout Ohio's public colleges and universities. Access Challenge appropriations shall be used in both years of the biennium to sustain, as much as possible, the tuition restraint or tuition reduction that was achieved with Access Challenge allocations in prior years.

In fiscal year 2004, Access Challenge subsidies shall be distributed by the Board of Regents to eligible access campuses on the basis of the average of each campus's share of fiscal year 2001 and 2002 all-terms subsidy-eligible General Studies FTEs. In fiscal year 2005, Access Challenge subsidies shall be distributed by the Board of Regents to eligible access campuses on the basis of the average of each campus's share of fiscal year 2002 and 2003 all-terms subsidy-eligible General Studies FTEs.

For the purposes of this calculation, Cleveland State University's enrollments shall be adjusted by the ratio of the sum of subsidy-eligible lower-division FTE student enrollments eligible for access funding to the sum of subsidy-eligible General Studies FTE student enrollments at Central State University and Shawnee State University, and for the following universities and their regional campuses: the Ohio State University, Ohio University, Kent State University, Bowling Green State University, Miami University, the University of Cincinnati, the University of Akron, and Wright State University.

SUCCESS CHALLENGE

The foregoing appropriation item 235-420, Success Challenge, shall be used by the Board of Regents to promote degree completion by students enrolled at a main campus of a state-assisted university.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-420, Success Challenge, 71.77 per cent of the appropriation in fiscal year 2004 and 74.29 per cent of the appropriation in fiscal year 2005 shall be distributed to state-assisted university main campuses in proportion to each campus's share of the total statewide bachelor's degrees granted by university main campuses to "at-risk" students. In fiscal years 2004 and 2005, an "at-risk" student means any undergraduate student who was eligible to receive an Ohio Instructional Grant during the past ten years. An eligible institution shall not receive its share of this distribution until it has submitted a plan that addresses how the subsidy will be used to better serve at-risk students and increase their likelihood of successful completion of a bachelor's degree program. The Board of Regents shall disseminate to all state-supported institutions of higher education all such plans submitted by institutions that received Success Challenge funds.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-420, Success Challenge, 28.23 per cent of the appropriation in fiscal year 2004, and 25.71 per cent of the appropriation in fiscal year 2005 shall be distributed to university main campuses in proportion to each campus's share of the total bachelor's degrees granted by university main campuses to undergraduate students who completed their bachelor's degrees in a "timely manner" in the previous fiscal year. For the purposes of this section, "timely manner" means the normal time it would take for a full-time degree-seeking undergraduate student to complete the student's degree. Generally, for such students pursuing a bachelor's degree, "timely manner" means four years. Exceptions to this general rule shall be permitted for students enrolled in programs specifically designed to be completed in a longer time period. The Board of Regents shall collect data to assess the timely completion statistics by university main campuses.

APPALACHIAN NEW ECONOMY PARTNERSHIP

The foregoing appropriation item 235-428, Appalachian New Economy Partnership, shall be distributed to Ohio University to continue a multi-campus and multi-agency coordinated effort to link Appalachia to the new economy. Ohio University shall use these funds to provide leadership in the development and implementation of initiatives in the areas of entrepreneurship, management, education, and technology.

EMINENT SCHOLARS

The foregoing appropriation item 235-451, Eminent Scholars, shall be used by the Ohio Board of Regents to establish an Ohio Eminent Scholars Program, the purpose of which is to invest educational resources to address problems that are of vital statewide significance while fostering the growth in eminence of Ohio's academic programs. Ohio Eminent Scholars endowed chairs will allow Ohio universities to recruit senior faculty members from outside Ohio who are nationally and internationally recognized scholars in areas of science and technology that provide the basic research platforms on which our technology and commercialization efforts are built. Endowment grants of approximately $750,000 to state colleges and universities and nonprofit Ohio institutions of higher education holding certificates of authorization issued under section 1713.02 of the Revised Code to match endowment gifts from nonstate sources may be made in accordance with a plan established by the Ohio Board of Regents. Matching nonstate gifts in science and technology programs shall be $750,000. The grants shall have as their purpose attracting and sustaining in Ohio scholar-leaders of national or international prominence; each will assist in accelerating state economic growth through research that provides an essential basic science platform for commercialization efforts. Such scholar-leaders shall, among their duties, share broadly the benefits and knowledge unique to their fields of scholarship to the betterment of Ohio and its people and collaborate with other state technology programs and program recipients.

RESEARCH CHALLENGE

The foregoing appropriation item 235-454, Research Challenge, shall be used to enhance the basic research capabilities of public colleges and universities and accredited Ohio institutions of higher education holding certificates of authorization issued pursuant to section 1713.02 of the Revised Code, in order to strengthen academic research for pursuing Ohio's economic development goals. The Board of Regents, in consultation with the colleges and universities, shall administer the Research Challenge Program and utilize a means of matching, on a fractional basis, external funds attracted in the previous year by institutions for basic research. The program may include incentives for increasing the amount of external research funds coming to eligible institutions and for focusing research efforts upon critical state needs. Colleges and universities shall submit for review and approval to the Board of Regents plans for the institutional allocation of state dollars received through the program. The institutional plans shall provide the rationale for the allocation in terms of the strategic targeting of funds for academic and state purposes, for strengthening research programs, for increasing the amount of external research funds, and shall include an evaluation process to provide results of the increased support. Each institutional plan for the investment of Research Challenge moneys shall report on existing, planned, and/or possible relationships with other State of Ohio science and technology programs and funding recipients in order to further ongoing statewide science and technology collaboration objectives. The Board of Regents shall submit a biennial report of progress to the General Assembly.

ENTERPRISEOHIO NETWORK

The foregoing appropriation item 235-455, EnterpriseOhio Network, shall be allocated by the Board of Regents to continue increasing the capabilities of the EnterpriseOhio Network to meet the ongoing training needs of Ohio employers. Funds shall support multicampus collaboration, best practice dissemination, and capacity building projects. The Regents Advisory Committee for Workforce Development, in its advisory role, shall advise in the development of plans and activities.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-455, EnterpriseOhio Network, $181,101 in fiscal year 2004 and $176,334 in fiscal year 2005 shall be used by the Dayton Business/Sinclair College Jobs Profiling Program.

SECTION 89.03. AREA HEALTH EDUCATION CENTERS

The foregoing appropriation item 235-474, Area Health Education Centers Program Support, shall be used by the Board of Regents to support the medical school regional area health education centers' educational programs for the continued support of medical and other health professions education and for support of the Area Health Education Center Program.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-474, Area Health Education Centers Program Support, $174,135 in fiscal year 2004 and $169,782 in fiscal year 2005 shall be disbursed to the Ohio University College of Osteopathic Medicine to operate a mobile health care unit to serve the southeastern area of the state. Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-474, Area Health Education Centers Program Support, $130,601 in fiscal year 2004 and $127,337 in fiscal year 2005 shall be used to support the Ohio Valley Community Health Information Network (OVCHIN) project.

ACCESS IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS

The foregoing appropriation item 235-477, Access Improvement Projects, shall be used by the Board of Regents to support innovative statewide strategies to increase student access and retention for specialized populations, and to provide for pilot projects that will contribute to improving access to higher education by specialized populations. The funds may be used for projects that improve access for nonpublic secondary students.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-477, Access Improvement Projects, $798,684 in fiscal year 2004 and $822,645 in fiscal year 2005 shall be distributed to the Ohio Appalachian Center for Higher Education at Shawnee State University. The board of directors of the center shall consist of the presidents of Shawnee State University, Ohio University, Belmont Technical College, Hocking Technical College, Jefferson Community College, Muskingum Area Technical College, Rio Grande Community College, Southern State Community College, and Washington State Community College; the dean of one of the Salem, Tuscarawas, and East Liverpool regional campuses of Kent State University, as designated by the president of Kent State University; and a representative of the Board of Regents designated by the Chancellor.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 235-477, Access Improvement Projects, $169,553 in fiscal year 2004 and $174,640 in fiscal year 2005 shall

SECTION 89.04. STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION

As soon as practicable during each fiscal year of the 2003-2005 biennium in accordance with instructions of the Board of Regents, each state-assisted institution of higher education shall report its actual enrollment to the Board of Regents.

The Board of Regents shall establish procedures required by the system of formulas set out below and for the assignment of individual institutions to categories described in the formulas. The system of formulas establishes the manner in which aggregate expenditure requirements shall be determined for each of the three components of institutional operations. In addition to other adjustments and calculations described below, the subsidy entitlement of an institution shall be determined by subtracting from the institution's aggregate expenditure requirements income to be derived from the local contributions assumed in calculating the subsidy entitlements. The local contributions for purposes of determining subsidy support shall not limit the authority of the individual boards of trustees to establish fee levels.

The General Studies and Technical models shall be adjusted by the Board of Regents so that the share of state subsidy earned by those models is not altered by changes in the overall local share. A lower-division fee differential shall be used to maintain the relationship that would have occurred between these models and the baccalaureate models had an assumed share of 37 per cent been funded.

In defining the number of full-time equivalent (FTE) students for state subsidy purposes, the Board of Regents shall exclude all undergraduate students who are not residents of Ohio, except those charged in-state fees in accordance with reciprocity agreements made pursuant to section 3333.17 of the Revised Code or employer contracts entered into pursuant to section 3333.32 of the Revised Code.

(1) DETERMINATION OF THE SQUARE-FOOT-BASED POM SUBSIDY

Space undergoing renovation shall be funded at the rate allowed for storage space.

In the calculation of square footage for each campus, square footage shall be weighted to reflect differences in space utilization.

The space inventories for each campus shall be those determined in the fiscal year 2003 state share of instruction calculation, adjusted for changes attributable to the construction or renovation of facilities for which state appropriations were made or local commitments were made prior to January 1, 1995.

Only 50 per cent of the space permanently taken out of operation in fiscal year 2004 or fiscal year 2005 that is not otherwise replaced by a campus shall be deleted from the plant operation and maintenance space inventory.

The square-foot-based plant operation and maintenance subsidy for each campus shall be determined as follows:

	FY 2004	FY 2005
Laboratories	$7.22	$7.53

Offices	$5.80	$6.04
Audio Visual Data Processing	$7.22	$7.53
Storage	$2.57	$2.68
Circulation	$7.31	$7.62
Other	$5.80	$6.04

(b) The total gross square-foot POM expenditure requirement shall be allocated to models in proportion to FTE enrollments as reported in enrollment data for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II.

(c) The amounts allocated to models in division (B)(1)(b) of this section shall be multiplied by the ratio of subsidy-eligible FTE students to total FTE students reported in each model, and the amounts summed for all models. To this total amount shall be added an amount to support roads and grounds expenditures to produce the total square-foot-based POM subsidy.

(2) DETERMINATION OF THE ACTIVITY-BASED POM SUBSIDY

General Studies I	$ 552	$ 560
General Studies II	$ 696	$ 705
General Studies III	$1,608	$1,651
Technical I	$ 777	$ 806
Technical III	$1,501	$1,570
Baccalaureate I	$ 700	$ 706
Baccalaureate II	$1,250	$1,232
Baccalaureate III	$1,520	$1,458
Masters and Professional I	$1,258	$1,301
Masters and Professional II	$2,817	$2,688
Masters and Professional III	$3,832	$3,712
Medical I	$2,663	$2,669
Medical II	$3,837	$4,110
MPD I	$1,213	$1,233

(b) The sum of the products for each campus determined in division (B)(2)(a) of this section for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II for each fiscal year shall be weighted by a factor to reflect sponsored research activity and job training-related public services expenditures to determine the total activity-based POM subsidy.

(C) CALCULATION OF CORE SUBSIDY ENTITLEMENTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

(1) CALCULATION OF CORE SUBSIDY ENTITLEMENTS

The calculation of the core subsidy entitlement shall consist of the following components:

(a) For each campus and for each fiscal year, the core subsidy entitlement shall be determined by multiplying the amounts listed above in divisions (A)(1) and (2) and (B)(2) of this section less assumed local contributions, by (i) average subsidy-eligible FTEs for the two-year period ending in the prior year for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II; and (ii) average subsidy-eligible FTEs for the five-year period ending in the prior year for all models except Doctoral I and Doctoral II.

(b) In calculating the core subsidy entitlements for Medical II models only, the Board of Regents shall use the following count of FTE students:

(i) For those medical schools whose current year enrollment, including students repeating terms, is below the base enrollment, the Medical II FTE enrollment shall equal: 65 per cent of the base enrollment plus 35 per cent of the current year enrollment including students repeating terms, where the base enrollment is:

The Ohio State University	1010
University of Cincinnati	833
Medical College of Ohio at Toledo	650
Wright State University	433
Ohio University	433
Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine	433

(ii) For those medical schools whose current year enrollment, excluding students repeating terms, is equal to or greater than the base enrollment, the Medical II FTE enrollment shall equal the base enrollment plus the FTE for repeating students.

(iii) Students repeating terms may be no more than five per cent of current year enrollment.

(c) The Board of Regents shall compute the sum of the two calculations listed in division (C)(1)(a) of this section and use the greater sum as the core subsidy entitlement.

The POM subsidy for each campus shall equal the greater of the square-foot-based subsidy or the activity-based POM subsidy component of the core subsidy entitlement.

(d) The state share of instruction provided for doctoral students shall be based on a fixed percentage of the total appropriation. In each fiscal year of the biennium not more than 10.34 per cent of the total state share of instruction shall be reserved to implement the recommendations of the Graduate Funding Commission. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the doctoral reserve not exceed 10.34 per cent of the total state share of instruction to implement the recommendations of the Graduate Funding Commission. The Board of Regents may reallocate up to two per cent in each fiscal year of the reserve among the state-assisted universities on the basis of a quality review as specified in the recommendations of the Graduate Funding Commission. No such reallocation shall occur unless the Board of Regents, in consultation with representatives of state-assisted universities, determines that sufficient funds are available for this purpose.

The amount so reserved shall be allocated to universities in proportion to their share of the total number of Doctoral I equivalent FTEs as calculated on an institutional basis using the greater of the two-year or five-year FTEs for the period fiscal year 1994 through fiscal year 1998 with annualized FTEs for fiscal years 1994 through 1997 and all-term FTEs for fiscal year 1998 as adjusted to reflect the effects of doctoral review and subsequent changes in Doctoral I equivalent enrollments. For the purposes of this calculation, Doctoral I equivalent FTEs shall equal the sum of Doctoral I FTEs plus 1.5 times the sum of Doctoral II FTEs.

(2) ANNUAL STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION FUNDING GUARANTEE

In addition to and after the other adjustment noted above, in fiscal year 2004, no campus shall receive a state share of instruction allocation that is less than 100 per cent of the prior year's state share of instruction amount. In fiscal year 2005, no campus shall receive a state share of instruction allocation that is less than 99 per cent of what that campus' state share of instruction would have been had the allocation in fiscal year 2004 been not less than 99 per cent, rather than 100 per cent, of the prior year's state share of instruction amount.

(3) CAPITAL COMPONENT DEDUCTION

After all other adjustments have been made, state share of instruction earnings shall be reduced for each campus by the amount, if any, by which debt service charged in Am. H.B. No. 748 of the 121st General Assembly, Am. Sub. H.B. No. 850 of the 122nd General Assembly, Am. H.B. No. 640 of the 123rd General Assembly, and H.B. No. 675 of the 124th General Assembly for that campus exceeds that campus's capital component earnings. The sum of the amounts deducted shall be transferred to appropriation item 235-552, Capital Component, in each fiscal year.

(D) REDUCTIONS IN EARNINGS

If the total state share of instruction earnings in any fiscal year exceed the total appropriations available for such purposes, the Board of Regents shall proportionately reduce the state share of instruction earnings for all campuses by a uniform percentage so that the system wide sum equals available appropriations.

(E) EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Adjustments may be made to the state share of instruction payments and other subsidies distributed by the Board of Regents to state-assisted colleges and universities for exceptional circumstances. No adjustments for exceptional circumstances may be made without the recommendation of the Chancellor and the approval of the Controlling Board.

(F) MID-YEAR APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS TO THE STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION

The standard provisions of the state share of instruction calculation as described in the preceding sections of temporary law shall apply to any reductions made to appropriation line item 235-501, State Share of Instruction, before the Board of Regents has formally approved the final allocation of the state share of instruction funds for any fiscal year.

Any reductions made to appropriation line item 235-501, State Share of Instruction, after the Board of Regents has formally approved the final allocation of the state share of instruction funds for any fiscal year, shall be uniformly applied to each campus in proportion to its share of the final allocation.

(G) DISTRIBUTION OF STATE SHARE OF INSTRUCTION

The state share of instruction payments to the institutions shall be in substantially equal monthly amounts during the fiscal year, unless otherwise determined by the Director of Budget and Management pursuant to section 126.09 of the Revised Code. Payments during the first six months of the fiscal year shall be based upon the state share of instruction appropriation estimates made for the various institutions of higher education according to Board of Regents enrollment estimates. Payments during the last six months of the fiscal year shall be distributed after approval of the Controlling Board upon the request of the Board of Regents.

(H) LAW SCHOOL SUBSIDY

The state share of instruction to state-supported universities for students enrolled in law schools in fiscal year 2004 and fiscal year 2005 shall be calculated by using the number of subsidy-eligible FTE law school students funded by state subsidy in fiscal year 1995 or the actual number of subsidy-eligible FTE law school students at the institution in the fiscal year, whichever is less.

SECTION 89.05. HIGHER EDUCATION - BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Funds appropriated for instructional subsidies at colleges and universities may be used to provide such branch or other off-campus undergraduate courses of study and such master's degree courses of study as may be approved by the Board of Regents.

In providing instructional and other services to students, boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall supplement state subsidies by income from charges to students. Each board shall establish the fees to be charged to all students, including an instructional fee for educational and associated operational support of the institution and a general fee for noninstructional services, including locally financed student services facilities used for the benefit of enrolled students. The instructional fee and the general fee shall encompass all charges for services assessed uniformly to all enrolled students. Each board may also establish special purpose fees, service charges, and fines as required; such special purpose fees and service charges shall be for services or benefits furnished individual students or specific categories of students and shall not be applied uniformly to all enrolled students. Except for the board of trustees of Miami University, in implementing the pilot tuition restructuring plan recognized by this act, a tuition surcharge shall be paid by all students who are not residents of Ohio.

The boards of trustees of individual state-assisted universities, university branch campuses, community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges shall limit in-state undergraduate instructional and general fee increases for an academic year over the amounts charged in the prior academic year to no more than six per cent. In addition to the six per cent main campus in-state undergraduate instructional and general fee increase limit established in this section, the Board of Trustees of The Ohio State University may authorize an additional university main campus in-state undergraduate instructional and general fee increase of three per cent for academic years 2003-2004 and 2004-2005. Except for the board of trustees of the Ohio State University, the boards of trustees of individual state-assisted universities, university branch campuses, community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges shall not authorize combined instructional and general fee increases of more than six per cent in a single vote. The board of trustees of The Ohio State University shall not authorize combined instructional and general fee increases of more than nine per cent in a single vote. The boards of trustees of individual state-assisted universities, university branch campuses, community colleges, state community colleges, and technical colleges may authorize an additional 3.9 per cent increase in in-state undergraduate instructional and general fees in a separate vote. The additional increase shall only be used for providing scholarships to low-income students, to be known as Access Scholarship Grants, to provide additional or improved technology services to students. These fee increase limitations apply even if an institutional board of trustees has, prior to the effective date of this section, voted to assess a higher fee for the 2003-2004 academic year. These limitations shall not apply to increases required to comply with institutional covenants related to their obligations or to meet unfunded legal mandates or legally binding obligations incurred or commitments made prior to the effective date of this act with respect to which the institution had identified such fee increases as the source of funds. Any increase required by such covenants and any such mandates, obligations, or commitments shall be reported by the Board of Regents to the Controlling Board. These limitations may also be modified by the Board of Regents, with the approval of the Controlling Board, to respond to exceptional circumstances as identified by the Board of Regents.

The board of trustees of a state-assisted institution of higher education shall not authorize a waiver or nonpayment of instructional fees or general fees for any particular student or any class of students other than waivers specifically authorized by law or approved by the Chancellor. This prohibition is not intended to limit the authority of boards of trustees to provide for payments to students for services rendered the institution, nor to prohibit the budgeting of income for staff benefits or for student assistance in the form of payment of such instructional and general fees. This prohibition is not intended to limit the authority of the board of trustees of Miami University in providing financial assistance to students in implementing the pilot tuition restructuring plan recognized by this act.

Except for Miami University, in implementing the pilot tuition restructuring plan recognized by this act, each state-assisted institution of higher education in its statement of charges to students shall separately identify the instructional fee, the general fee, the tuition charge, and the tuition surcharge. Fee charges to students for instruction shall not be considered to be a price of service but shall be considered to be an integral part of the state government financing program in support of higher educational opportunity for students.

In providing the appropriations in support of instructional services at state-assisted institutions of higher education and the appropriations for other instruction it is the intent of the General Assembly that faculty members shall devote a proper and judicious part of their work week to the actual instruction of students. Total class credit hours of production per quarter per full-time faculty member is expected to meet the standards set forth in the budget data submitted by the Board of Regents.

The authority of government vested by law in the boards of trustees of state-assisted institutions of higher education shall in fact be exercised by those boards. Boards of trustees may consult extensively with appropriate student and faculty groups. Administrative decisions about the utilization of available resources, about organizational structure, about disciplinary procedure, about the operation and staffing of all auxiliary facilities, and about administrative personnel shall be the exclusive prerogative of boards of trustees. Any delegation of authority by a board of trustees in other areas of responsibility shall be accompanied by appropriate standards of guidance concerning expected objectives in the exercise of such delegated authority and shall be accompanied by periodic review of the exercise of this delegated authority to the end that the public interest, in contrast to any institutional or special interest, shall be served.

The General Assembly recognizes the pilot tuition restructuring plan of the board of trustees of Miami University for undergraduate students enrolled at the Oxford campus. The purpose of this plan is to make higher education more affordable for moderate income Ohioans, encourage high-achieving Ohio students to stay in Ohio rather than attending colleges in other states, and provide incentives for Ohio students to major in areas crucial to Ohio's priorities and future economic development.

Notwithstanding any limit on in-state undergraduate instructional and general fees imposed by this act, the General Assembly recognizes that the plan will provide that all undergraduate students enrolled at the Oxford campus will be charged combined instructional and general fees in an amount equal to the nonresident instructional and general fees and tuition surcharge. For both resident student first enrolling on or after the summer term of 2003 and resident students who enrolled prior to this date, any increases in fees approved thereafter by the board of trustees are subject to any instructional and general fee caps imposed by the General Assembly.

The General Assembly recognizes that the plan provides that all students who are residents of Ohio will receive student financial assistance in an amount to be determined by the University.

The General Assembly recognizes that the plan provides that, for any resident student who enrolls at the Miami University Oxford campus prior to August 2004, the plan will have no direct financial impact except for paper changes on invoices so that such a student would only pay instructional and general fees in an amount equivalent to what the student was charged in the preceding year in addition to any increases in fees approved by the board of trustees.

SECTION 89.06. STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

The foregoing appropriation item 235-502, Student Support Services, shall be distributed by the Board of Regents to Ohio's state-assisted colleges and universities that incur disproportionate costs in the provision of support services to disabled students.

OHIO INSTRUCTIONAL GRANTS

Notwithstanding section 3333.12 of the Revised Code, in lieu of the tables in that section, instructional grants for all full-time students shall be made for fiscal year 2004 using the tables under this heading.

The tables under this heading prescribe the maximum grant amounts covering two semesters, three quarters, or a comparable portion of one academic year. The grant amount for a full-time student enrolled in an eligible institution for a semester or quarter in addition to the portion of the academic year covered by a grant determined under these tables shall be a percentage of the maximum prescribed in the applicable table. The maximum grant for a fourth quarter shall be one-third of the maximum amount prescribed under the table. The maximum grant for a third semester shall be one-half of the maximum amount prescribed under the table.

For a full-time student who is a dependent and enrolled in a nonprofit educational institution that is not a state-assisted institution and that has a certificate of authorization issued pursuant to Chapter 1713. of the Revised Code, the amount of the instructional grant for two semesters, three quarters, or a comparable portion of the academic year shall be determined in accordance with the following table:

Notwithstanding section 3333.05 of the Revised Code, the Ohio Board of Regents shall issue a charter for a new community college, as defined in division (C) of section 3354.01 of the Revised Code, to be operated jointly with the Warren County Career Center. However, the new community college shall not offer courses or request approval of appropriate associate degree programs from the Ohio Board of Regents until after July 1, 2005. Until July 1, 2005, the board of trustees of the new community college is authorized only to carry out activities for the organization of the new community college.

(2) The Warren County Career Center's joint vocational school district board and the local workforce policy board submit to the Ohio Board of Regents a community college plan that conforms to the requirements of section 3354.07 of the Revised Code and the plan is approved by the Board of Regents pursuant to that section.

(B) To administer the new community college, a board of trustees shall be appointed in accordance with section 3354.05 of the Revised Code.

(C) After July 1, 2005, the joint vocational-community college established under this section shall function as:

(3) A provider of arts and sciences and technical instructional programs for secondary school students participating in the postsecondary enrollment options program under Chapter 3365. of the Revised Code.

(D) The community college district of the new community college is comprised of the territory included within the boundaries of Warren County.

(E) All funds received by the joint vocational-community college to carry out its duties under division (C)(1) of this section shall be kept separate from all funds received by the joint vocational-community college to carry out its duties under divisions (C)(2) and (3) of this section. All revenues from taxes levied by the joint vocational school district shall be kept separate from all revenues of any taxes levied by the community college district.

(F) The joint vocational-community college established under this section is ineligible to receive state financial assistance for capital improvements otherwise available to community colleges under Chapter 3345. or 3354. of the Revised Code. The joint vocational-community college is eligible to receive only classroom facilities assistance under sections 3318.40 to 3318.46 of the Revised Code, but only if the assistance would provide funds for a project to carry out the responsibilities of the Warren County Career Center specified in division (C)(1) of this section. The joint vocational-community college is ineligible for classroom facilities under sections 3318.40 to 3318.46 of the Revised Code for projects that when complete would be used exclusively for community college purposes, as prohibited by division (C) of section 3318.40 of the Revised Code.

(G) By June 30, 2005, the board of education of the joint vocational school district and the board of trustees of the new community college shall submit a report to the Board of Regents on the status of the joint vocational-community college-university pilot partnership authorized by this act and the development of the new community college authorized by this section.

SECTION 89.18. The General Assembly recognizes the pilot tuition restructuring plan of the board of trustees of Miami University for undergraduate students enrolled at the Oxford campus. The purpose of this plan is to make higher education more affordable for moderate income Ohioans, encourage high-achieving Ohio students to stay in Ohio rather than attending colleges in other states, and provide incentives for Ohio students to major in areas crucial to Ohio's priorities and future economic development.

Notwithstanding any limit on in-state undergraduate instructional and general fees imposed by this act, the General Assembly recognizes that the plan provides that all undergraduate students enrolled at the Oxford campus will be charged combined instructional and general fees in an amount equal to the nonresident instructional and general fees and tuition surcharge. For both resident students first enrolling on or after the summer term of 2003 and resident students who enrolled prior to this date, any increases in fees approved thereafter by the board of trustees are subject to any instructional and general fee caps imposed by the General Assembly.

In implementing the plan, all undergraduate students who are residents of Ohio shall receive student financial assistance in the form of an Ohio Resident Scholarship and an Ohio Leader Scholarship.

Miami University established the Ohio Resident Scholarship in recognition of the support provided by this state to Miami University. Each enrolled student who is a resident of Ohio shall receive an Ohio Resident Scholarship. The Ohio Resident Scholarship shall be an award that is equal to, or in excess of, the per capita core funding, which is funding through the state share of instruction and success challenges, the University receives from this state. For fiscal year 2004, the board of trustees established the amount of an Ohio Resident Scholarship at $5,000. Each year, thereafter, the board of trustees of Miami University shall establish the amount of an Ohio Resident Scholarship for the entering class based upon increases or decreases in state core funding the University receives from this state and shall award such a scholarship to each undergraduate Ohio resident. The University shall guarantee the award will be renewed each year at not less than the initial amount until graduation or for six academic years, whichever occurs first.

Miami University established the Ohio Leader Scholarship to make Miami University more affordable for low- and middle-income Ohio families, to encourage high-achieving students to attend college in Ohio, and to provide incentives for Ohio students to major in areas crucial to Ohio's economic development. To determine which families qualify as low- and middle-income, the University shall use federal financial aid guidelines but assume that generally families earning less than $110,000 annually qualify. Each enrolled student who is a resident of Ohio shall receive an Ohio Leader Scholarship. The board of trustees established the amount of an Ohio Leader Scholarship at $4,750 in fiscal year 2004. Each year thereafter, the board of trustees shall award an Ohio Leader Scholarship to each undergraduate Ohio resident student in an amount based on financial need, academic qualifications, or state priorities criteria. The amount of an award may vary from student to student. The initial award amount shall be guaranteed by the University to be renewed each year, assuming satisfactory academic progress, at an amount that is not less than the initial amount until graduation or six academic years, whichever occurs first. All Ohio Leader Scholarship awards shall use financial need as the first criteria in determining the award amount. For fiscal year 2005, the University shall offer one-third of accepted high-need Ohio residents above average Ohio Leader Scholarship awards, one-third of accepted low-need Ohio residents shall be offered below average Ohio Leader Scholarship awards, and one-third of accepted average-need Ohio residents shall be offered average Ohio Leader Scholarship awards.

For fiscal year 2004, at the Oxford campus of Miami University where current instructional and general fee charges equal $18,103, the combined Ohio Resident Scholarship and Ohio Leader Scholarship amount totals $9,750. Based on instructional and general fee charges of $19,732 at the Oxford campus of Miami University in fiscal year 2005, Miami University projects the combined scholarship award will range from a minimum of $10,000 for those with the least need who will receive the lowest Ohio Leader Scholarship award to a maximum of $11,256 for those students with the greatest need who will receive the highest Ohio Leader Scholarship award. These scholarship awards shall augment other University financial assistance. During fiscal years 2004 and 2005, all funds generated by above average Ohio Leader Scholarship awards shall be utilized for the support of Ohio students.

For any resident student who enrolls at the Miami University Oxford campus prior to August 2004, the plan shall have no direct financial impact except for paper changes on invoices so that such a student shall only pay instructional and general fees in an amount equivalent to what the student was charged in the preceding year in addition to any increases in fees approved by the board of trustees.

SECTION 89.19. OIG RECONCILIATION

By the first day of August in each fiscal year, or as soon thereafter as possible, the Ohio Board of Regents shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount necessary to pay any outstanding prior year obligations to higher education institutions for the Ohio Instructional Grant Program. The amounts certified are hereby appropriated to appropriation item 235-618, OIG Reconciliation, from revenues received in the Instructional Grant Reconciliation Fund (Fund 5Y5).

SECTION 89.20. BELMONT TECHNICAL COLLEGE

Not later than one year after the effective date of this section, the Board of Regents shall consider a proposal from Belmont Technical College to convert to a community college.

The Board shall consider the demonstrated need for such an institution, the most effective use of state resources to fund such a conversion, and the regional benefit of such a conversion.

SECTION 97.01. LEASE RENTAL PAYMENTS

The foregoing appropriation item 230-428, Lease Rental Payments, shall be used to meet all payments at the times they are required to be made during the period from July 1, 2003, to June 30, 2005, by the School Facilities Commission pursuant to leases and agreements made under section 3318.26 of the Revised Code, but limited to the aggregate amount of $63,481,200. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to contravene the obligation of the state to pay, without necessity for further appropriation, from the sources pledged thereto, the bond service charges on obligations issued pursuant to Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

COMMON SCHOOLS GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE

The foregoing appropriation item 230-908, Common Schools General Obligation Debt Service, shall be used to pay all debt service and related financing costs at the times they are required to be made pursuant to sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the Revised Code during the period from July 1, 2003, to June 30, 2005. The Office of the Sinking Fund or the Director of Budget and Management shall effectuate the required payments by an intrastate transfer voucher.

OPERATING EXPENSES

The foregoing appropriation item 230-644, Operating Expenses, shall be used by the Ohio School Facilities Commission to carry out its responsibilities pursuant to this section and Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

Within ten days after the effective date of this section, or as soon as possible thereafter, the Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of cash from interest earnings to be transferred from the School Building Assistance Fund (Fund 032) or the Public School Building Fund (Fund 021) to the Ohio School Facilities Commission Fund (Fund 5E3).

By July 10, 2004, the Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of cash from interest earnings to be transferred from the School Building Assistance Fund (Fund 032) or the Public School Building Fund (Fund 021) to the Ohio School Facilities Commission Fund (Fund 5E3). The amount transferred may not exceed investment earnings credited to the School Building Assistance Fund (Fund 032) less any amount required to be paid for federal arbitrage rebate purposes.

REAPPROPRIATION

At the request of the Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission, the Director of Budget and Management may cancel encumbrances for school district projects from a previous biennium if the district has not raised its local share of project costs within one year of receiving Controlling Board approval in accordance with section 3318.05 of the Revised Code. The Executive Director of the Ohio School Facilities Commission shall certify the amounts of these canceled encumbrances to the Director of Budget and Management on a quarterly basis. The amounts of the canceled encumbrances are appropriated.

SECTION 97.02. COMMUNITY SCHOOL CLASSROOM FACILITIES LOAN GUARANTEE

The unencumbered and unallotted balances as of June 30, 2003, in appropriation item 230-602, Community School Loan Guarantee, are hereby reappropriated in fiscal year 2004 to support loan guarantees to community schools under section 3318.50 of the Revised Code. The unencumbered and unallotted balances of the appropriation at the end of fiscal year 2004 are hereby reappropriated in fiscal year 2005 to support loan guarantees to community schools under section 3318.50 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 97.03. EXTREME ENVIRONMENTAL CONTAMINATION OF SCHOOL FACILITIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the School Facilities Commission may provide assistance under the Exceptional Needs School Facilities Program established in section 3318.37 of the Revised Code to any school district, and not exclusively to a school district in the lowest fifty per cent of adjusted valuation per pupil on the current ranking of school districts established pursuant to section 3317.02 of the Revised Code, for the purpose of the relocation or replacement of school facilities required as a result of extreme environmental contamination.

The School Facilities Commission shall contract with an independent environmental consultant to conduct a study and to report to the commission as to the seriousness of the environmental contamination, whether the contamination violates applicable state and federal standards, and whether the facilities are no longer suitable for use as school facilities. The commission then shall make a determination regarding funding for the relocation or replacement of the school facilities. If the federal government or other public or private entity provides funds for restitution of costs incurred by the state or school district in the relocation or replacement of the school facilities, the school district shall use such funds in excess of the school district's share to refund the state for the state's contribution to the environmental contamination portion of the project. The school district may apply an amount of such restitution funds up to an amount equal to the school district's portion of the project, as defined by the commission, toward paying its portion of that project to reduce the amount of bonds the school district otherwise must issue to receive state assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 97.04. (A) The Ohio School Facilities Commission may commit up to thirty-five million dollars to the Canton City School District for construction of a facility described in this section, in lieu of a high school that would otherwise be authorized under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. The commission shall not commit funds under this section unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The district has entered into a cooperative agreement with a state-assisted technical college.

(2) The district has received an irrevocable commitment of additional funding from nonpublic sources.

(3) The facility is intended to serve both secondary and postsecondary instructional purposes.

(B) The commission shall enter into an agreement with the district for the construction of the facility authorized under this section that is separate from and in addition to the agreement required for the district's participation in the Classroom Facilities Assistance Program under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding that section and sections 3318.03, 3318.04, and 3318.083 of the Revised Code, the additional agreement shall provide, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The commission shall not have any oversight responsibilities over the construction of the facility.

(2) The facility need not comply with the specifications for plans and materials for high schools adopted by the commission.

(3) The commission may decrease the basic project cost that would otherwise be calculated for a high school under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

(4) The state shall not share in any increases in the basic project cost for the facility above the amount authorized under this section.

All other provisions of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code apply to the approval and construction of a facility authorized under this section.

The state funds committed to the facility authorized by this section shall be part of the total amount the state commits to the Canton City School District under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code. All additional state funds committed to the Canton City School District for classroom facilities assistance shall be subject to all provisions of Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code.

The programming shall be targeted to the needs of the poorest two hundred school districts as determined by the district's adjusted valuation per pupil as defined in section 3317.0213 of the Revised Code.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 228-406, Technical and Instructional Professional Development, $818,322 in each fiscal year shall be used by the INFOhio Network, with the advice of the Ohio SchoolNet Commission, to support the provision of electronic resources to all public schools with preference given to elementary schools. Grants shall be awarded in a manner consistent with the goals of Ohio SchoolNet. Special emphasis in the award of grants shall be placed on collaborative efforts among service providers.

Application for grants from this appropriation in appropriation item 228-406, Technical and Instructional Professional Development, shall be consistent with a school district's technology plan that shall meet the minimum specifications for school district technology plans as prescribed by the Ohio SchoolNet Commission. Funds allocated through these grants may be combined with funds received through other state or federal grants for technology so long as the school district's technology plan specifies the use of these funds.

EDUCATION TECHNOLOGY

The foregoing appropriation item 228-539, Education Technology, shall be used to provide funding to suppliers of information services to school districts for the provision of hardware, software, and staff development in support of educational uses of technology in the classroom as prescribed by the State Plan for Technology pursuant to section 3301.07 of the Revised Code, and to support assistive technology for children and youth with disabilities.

Of the foregoing appropriation item 228-539, Education Technology, up to $1,946,000 in each fiscal year shall be used by the Ohio SchoolNet Commission to link all public K-12 classrooms to each other and the Internet, and to provide access to voice, video, and data educational resources for students and teachers through the OneNet Ohio Program.

The commission shall cooperate with education technology agencies in the acquisition, development, and delivery of such educational resources to ensure high-quality and educational soundness at the lowest possible cost. Delivery of such resources may utilize a variety of technologies, with preference given to a high-speed integrated information network that can transport video, voice, data, and graphics simultaneously.

Services shall include presentations and technical assistance that will help students and teachers integrate educational materials that support curriculum objectives, match specific learning styles, and are appropriate for individual interests and ability levels.

Such instructional resources and services shall be made available for purchase by chartered nonpublic schools or by public school districts for the benefit of pupils attending chartered nonpublic schools.

In all such actions and proceedings, the Department of Youth Services or its director upon application of the court shall be substituted as party.

SECTION 113. EXPENDITURES AND APPROPRIATION INCREASES APPROVED BY THE CONTROLLING BOARD

Any money that the Controlling Board approves for expenditure or any increase in appropriation authority that the Controlling Board approves pursuant to the provisions of sections 127.14, 131.35, and 131.39 of the Revised Code or any other provision of law is appropriated for the period ending June 30, 2005.

SECTION 114. PERSONAL SERVICE EXPENSES

employees' retirement, workers' compensation, disabled workers' relief, and all group insurance programs; the costs of centralized accounting, centralized payroll processing, and related personnel reports and services; the cost of the Office of Collective Bargaining; the cost of the Personnel Board of Review; the cost of the Employee Assistance Program; the cost of the affirmative action and equal employment opportunity programs administered by the Department of Administrative Services; the costs of interagency information management infrastructure; and the cost of administering the state employee merit system as required by section 124.07 of the Revised Code. SECTION 116. * CAPITAL PROJECT SETTLEMENTS

This section specifies an additional and supplemental procedure to provide for payments of judgments and settlements if the Director of Budget and Management determines, pursuant to division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code, that sufficient unencumbered moneys do not exist in the particular appropriation to pay the amount of a final judgment rendered against the state or a state agency, including the settlement of a claim approved by a court, in an action upon and arising out of a contractual obligation for the construction or improvement of a capital facility if the costs under the contract were payable in whole or in part from a state capital projects appropriation. In such a case, the director may either proceed pursuant to division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code, or apply to the Controlling Board to increase an appropriation or create an appropriation out of any unencumbered moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the capital projects fund from which the initial state appropriation was made. The Controlling Board may approve or disapprove the application as submitted or modified. The amount of an increase in appropriation or new appropriation specified in an application approved by the Controlling Board is hereby appropriated from the applicable capital projects fund and made available for the payment of the judgment or settlement.

If the director does not make the application authorized by this section or the Controlling Board disapproves the application, and the director does not make application pursuant to division (C)(4) of section 2743.19 of the Revised Code, the director shall for the purpose of making that payment make a request to the General Assembly as provided for in division (C)(5) of that section.

SECTION 117. INCOME TAX DISTRIBUTION TO COUNTIES

There are hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund, which are not otherwise appropriated, funds sufficient to make any payment required by division (B)(2) of section 5747.03 of the Revised Code.

SECTION 118. SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENTS AND SETTLEMENTS AGAINST THE STATE

Any appropriation may be used for the purpose of satisfying judgments or settlements in connection with civil actions against the state in federal court not barred by sovereign immunity or the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, or for the purpose of satisfying judgments, settlements, or administrative awards ordered or approved by the Court of Claims in connection with civil actions against the state, pursuant to section 2743.15, 2743.19, or 2743.191 of the Revised Code. This authorization does not apply to appropriations to be applied to or used for payment of guarantees by or on behalf of the state, for or relating to lease payments or debt service on bonds, notes, or similar obligations and those from the Sports Facilities Building Fund (Fund 024), the Highway Safety Building Fund (Fund 025), the Administrative Building Fund (Fund 026), the Adult Correctional Building Fund (Fund 027), the Juvenile Correctional Building Fund (Fund 028), the Transportation Building Fund (Fund 029), the Arts Facilities Building Fund (Fund 030), the Natural Resources Projects Fund (Fund 031), the School Building Program Assistance Fund (Fund 032), the Mental Health Facilities Improvement Fund (Fund 033), the Higher Education Improvement Fund (Fund 034), the Parks and Recreation Improvement Fund (Fund 035), the State Capital Improvements Fund (Fund 038), the Highway Obligation Fund (Fund 041), the Coal

Research/Development Fund (Fund 046), and any other fund into which proceeds of obligations are deposited. SECTION 123. CORPORATE AND UCC FILING FUND TRANSFER TO GRF

Not later than the first day of June in each year of the biennium, the Director of Budget and Management shall transfer $1,000,000 from the Corporate and Uniform Commercial Code Filing Fund to the General Revenue Fund.

SECTION 124. GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS

Certain appropriations are in this act for the purpose of paying debt service and financing costs on general obligation bonds or notes of the state issued pursuant to the Ohio Constitution and acts of the General Assembly. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are appropriated.

SECTION 125. LEASE PAYMENTS TO OPFC, OBA, AND TREASURER OF STATE

Certain appropriations are in this act for the purpose of making lease payments pursuant to leases and agreements relating to bonds or notes issued by the Ohio Building Authority or the Treasurer of State or, previously, by the Ohio Public Facilities Commission, pursuant to the Ohio Constitution and acts of the General Assembly. If it is determined that additional appropriations are necessary for this purpose, such amounts are appropriated.

SECTION 126. AUTHORIZATION FOR TREASURER OF STATE AND OBM TO EFFECTUATE CERTAIN DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS

The Office of Budget and Management shall initiate and process disbursements from general obligation and lease rental payment appropriation items during the period from July 1, 2003, to June 30, 2005, relating to bonds or notes issued under Sections 2i, 2k, 2l, 2m, 2n, 2o, and 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and Chapters 151., 154., and 3318. of the Revised Code. Disbursements shall be made upon certification by the Treasurer of State of the dates and amounts due on those dates.

SECTION 127. STATE AND LOCAL REBATE AUTHORIZATION

There is hereby appropriated, from those funds designated by or pursuant to the applicable proceedings authorizing the issuance of state obligations, amounts computed at the time to represent the portion of investment income to be rebated or amounts in lieu of or in addition to any rebate amount to be paid to the federal government in order to maintain the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes of interest on those state obligations pursuant to section 148(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Rebate payments shall be approved and vouchered by the Office of Budget and Management.

SECTION 128. APPROPRIATIONS RELATED TO CASH TRANSFERS AND REESTABLISHMENT OF ENCUMBRANCES

Any cash transferred by the Director of Budget and Management as provided by section 126.15 of the Revised Code is appropriated. Any amounts necessary to reestablish appropriations or encumbrances as provided in section 126.15 of the Revised Code are appropriated.

SECTION 129. FEDERAL CASH MANAGEMENT IMPROVEMENT ACT

Pursuant to the plan for compliance with the Federal Cash Management Improvement Act required by section 131.36 of the Revised Code, the Director of Budget and Management is authorized to cancel and reestablish all or parts of encumbrances in like amounts within the funds identified by the plan. The amounts necessary to reestablish all or parts of encumbrances are appropriated.

SECTION 130. STATEWIDE INDIRECT COST RECOVERY

Whenever the Director of Budget and Management determines that an appropriation made to a state agency from a fund of the state is insufficient to provide for the recovery of statewide indirect costs pursuant to section 126.12 of the Revised Code, the amount required for such purpose is appropriated from the available receipts of such fund.

SECTION 131. GRF TRANSFERS ON BEHALF OF THE STATEWIDE INDIRECT COST ALLOCATION PLAN

The total transfers made from the General Revenue Fund by the Director of Budget and Management pursuant to this section shall not exceed the amounts transferred into the General Revenue Fund pursuant to division (B) of section 126.12 of the Revised Code.

A director of an agency may certify to the Director of Budget and Management the amount of expenses not allowed to be included in the Statewide Indirect Cost Allocation plan pursuant to federal regulations, from any fund included in the Statewide Indirect Cost Allocation plan, prepared as required by section 126.12 of the Revised Code.

Upon determining that no alternative source of funding is available to pay for such expenses, the Director of Budget and Management may transfer from the General Revenue Fund into the fund for which the certification is made, up to the amount of the certification. The director of the agency receiving such funds shall include, as part of the next budget submission prepared pursuant to section 126.02 of the Revised Code, a request for funding for such activities from an alternative source such that further federal disallowances would not be required.

SECTION 132. REAPPROPRIATION OF UNEXPENDED ENCUMBERED BALANCES OF OPERATING APPROPRIATIONS

An unexpended balance of an operating appropriation or reappropriation that a state agency lawfully encumbered prior to the close of a fiscal year is reappropriated on the first day of July of the following fiscal year from the fund from which it was originally appropriated or reappropriated for the following period and shall remain available only for the purpose of discharging the encumbrance:

(A) For an encumbrance for personal services, maintenance, equipment, or items for resale, other than an encumbrance for an item of special order manufacture not available on term contract or in the open market or for reclamation of land or oil and gas wells for a period of not more than five months from the end of the fiscal year;

(B) For an encumbrance for an item of special order manufacture not available on term contract or in the open market, for a period of not more than five months from the end of the fiscal year or, with the written approval of the Director of Budget and Management, for a period of not more than twelve months from the end of the fiscal year;

(C) For an encumbrance for reclamation of land or oil and gas wells, for a period ending when the encumbered appropriation is expended or for a period of two years, whichever is less;

(D) For an encumbrance for any other expense, for such period as the director approves, provided such period does not exceed two years.

Any operating appropriations for which unexpended balances are reappropriated beyond a five-month period from the end of the fiscal year, pursuant to division (B) of this section, shall be reported to the Controlling Board by the Director of Budget and Management by the thirty-first day of December of each year. The report on each such item shall include the item, the cost of the item, and the name of the vendor. This report to the board shall be updated on a quarterly basis for encumbrances remaining open.

Upon the expiration of the reappropriation period set out in divisions (A), (B), (C), or (D) of this section, a reappropriation made pursuant to this section lapses, and the Director of Budget and Management shall cancel the encumbrance of the unexpended reappropriation not later than the end of the weekend following the expiration of the reappropriation period.

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, with the approval of the Director of Budget and Management, an unexpended balance of an encumbrance that was reappropriated on the first day of July pursuant to this section for a period specified in division (C) or (D) of this section and that remains encumbered at the close of the fiscal biennium is hereby reappropriated pursuant to this section on the first day of July of the following fiscal biennium from the fund from which it was originally appropriated or reappropriated for the applicable period specified in division (C) or (D) of this section and shall remain available only for the purpose of discharging the encumbrance.

If the Controlling Board approved a purchase, that approval remains in effect as long as the appropriation used to make that purchase remains encumbered.

SECTION 133. FEDERAL GOVERNMENT INTEREST REQUIREMENTS

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, on or before the first day of September of each fiscal year, the Director of Budget and Management, in order to reduce the payment of adjustments to the federal government, as determined by the plan prepared pursuant to division (A) of section 126.12 of the Revised Code, may designate such funds as the director considers necessary to retain their own interest earnings.

SECTION 134.01. That Sections 11 and 11.04 of Am. Sub. H.B. 87 of the 125th General Assembly be amended to read as follows:

Of the foregoing appropriation item 772-421, Highway Construction - State, $3,145,500 is to be used each fiscal year during the 2003-2005 biennium by the Department of Transportation for the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of public access roads, including support features, to and within state facilities owned or operated by the Department of Natural Resources, as requested by the Director of Natural Resources.

Notwithstanding section 5511.06 of the Revised Code, of the foregoing appropriation item 772-421, Highway Construction - State, $2,228,000 in each fiscal year of the 2003-2005 biennium shall be used by the Department of Transportation for the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of park drives or park roads within the boundaries of metropolitan parks.

Included in the foregoing appropriation item 772-421, Highway Construction - State, the department may perform related road work on behalf of the Ohio Expositions Commission at the state fairgrounds, including reconstruction or maintenance of public access roads, including support features, to and within the facilities as requested by the commission and approved by the Director of Transportation.

LIQUIDATION OF UNFORESEEN LIABILITIES

Any appropriation made to the Department of Transportation, Highway Operating Fund, not otherwise restricted by law, is available to liquidate unforeseen liabilities arising from contractual agreements of prior years when the prior year encumbrance is insufficient.

~~RUMBLE STRIPS AT RAILROAD CROSSINGS~~

~~Of the foregoing appropriation item 776-665, Railroad Crossing Safety Devices, $1,000,000 in fiscal year 2004 shall be used by the Department of Transportation to fund competitive grants to political subdivisions for the~~ cost of putting rumble strips at active railroad crossings without gates or lights. The maximum amount of a competitive grant is $50,000 for any single crossing. Each political subdivision with jurisdiction over a crossing may apply to the Department for a competitive grant for the costs of putting rumble strips at crossings. Those political subdivisions awarded grants shall install the rumble strips by December 1, 2004. Those political subdivisions awarded such grants shall not use the moneys as matching funds for any ~~other state rail safety programs.~~

If rumble strips are not appropriate for a crossing, the Department may allow the political subdivision which is awarded the grant to use the funding ~~for a safety device or technology more appropriate for the crossing.~~

The Department shall notify each political subdivision with jurisdiction over a crossing of the requirements of this section that funding is available for rumble strips at crossings and for other rail crossing safety improvements. The Department also shall notify associations representing ~~political subdivisions of the availability of the funding.~~

(b) The sum of all money that would have been credited to the Local Government Fund, the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and the Library and Local Government Support Fund from July 2003 through May 2004, if sections 5727.45, 5727.84, 5733.12, 5739.21, 5741.03, and 5747.03 of the Revised Code were in effect during this period.

(2) By June 7, 2005, the commissioner shall subtract the amount calculated in division (D)(2)(b) of this section from the amount calculated in division (D)(2)(a) of this section. If the amount in division (D)(2)(a) of this section is greater than the amount in division (D)(2)(b) of this section, then such difference shall be subtracted from the total amount of income tax revenue credited to the Local Government Fund, the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and the Library and Local Government Support Fund in June 2005. An amount shall be subtracted from income tax revenue credited to the Local Government Fund, the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, or the Library and Local Government Support Fund only if, and according to the proportion by which, such fund contributed to the result that the amount in division (D)(2)(a) of this section exceeds the amount in division (D)(2)(b) of this section.

(a) The sum of all money credited to the Local Government Fund, the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and the Library and Local Government Support Fund from June 2004 through May 2005;

(b) The sum of all money that would have been credited to the Local Government Fund, the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and the Library and Local Government Support Fund from June 2004 through May 2005, if sections 5727.45, 5727.84, 5733.12, 5739.21, 5741.03, and 5747.03 of the Revised Code were in effect during this period.

(3) On the advice of the Tax Commissioner, during any month other than June 2004 or June 2005 of the period July 1, 2003, through July 31, 2005, the Director of Budget and Management may reduce the amounts that are to be otherwise credited to the Local Government Fund, Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, or Library and Local Government Support Fund in order to accomplish more effectively the purposes of the adjustments in divisions (D)(1) and (2) of this section. If the respective calculations made in June 2004 and June 2005 pursuant to divisions (D)(1) and (2) of this section indicate that excess reductions had been made during the previous months, such excess amounts shall be credited, as appropriate, to the Local Government Fund, Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and Library and Local Government Support Fund.

(E) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the total amount credited to each fund in each month during the period July 2003 through June 2005 shall be distributed by the tenth day of the immediately succeeding month in the following manner:

(1) Each county undivided local government fund shall receive a distribution from the Local Government Fund based on its proportionate share of the total amount received from the fund in such respective month for the period July 1, 2002, through June 30, 2003.

(2) Each municipality receiving a direct distribution from the Local Government Fund shall receive a distribution based on its proportionate share of the total amount received from the fund in such respective month for the period July 1, 2002, through June 30, 2003.

(3) Each county undivided local government revenue assistance fund shall receive a distribution from the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund based on its proportionate share of the total amount received from the fund in such respective month for the period July 1, 2002, through June 30, 2003.

(4) Each county undivided library and local government support fund shall receive a distribution from the Library and Local Government Support Fund based on its proportionate share of the total amount received from the fund in such respective month for the period July 1, 2002, through June 30, 2003.

(F) For the 2003, 2004, and 2005 distribution years, the Tax Commissioner is not required to issue the certifications otherwise required by sections 5747.47, 5747.501, 5747.51, and 5747.61 of the Revised Code, but shall provide to each county auditor by the twentieth day of July 2003, July 2004, and July 2005 an estimate of the amounts to be received by the county in the ensuing year from the Local Government Fund, Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and Library and Local Government Support Fund pursuant to this section and any pertinent section of the Revised Code. The Tax Commissioner may choose to report to each county auditor a revised estimate of the 2003, 2004, or 2005 distributions at any time during the period July 1, 2003, through July 31, 2005.

(G) During the period July 1, 2003, through July 31, 2005, the Director of Budget and Management shall issue those directives to state agencies that are necessary to ensure that the appropriate amounts are distributed to the Local Government Fund, to the Local Government Revenue Assistance Fund, and to the Library and Local Government Support Fund.

Notwithstanding section 5713.081 of the Revised Code, when qualified property has not received tax exemption due to a failure to comply with Chapter 5713. or section 5715.27 of the Revised Code, the owner of the property, at any time on or before twelve months after the effective date of this section, may file with the Tax Commissioner an application requesting that the property be placed on the tax exempt list and that all unpaid taxes, penalties, and interest on the property be abated.

The application shall be made on the form prescribed by the Tax Commissioner under section 5715.27 of the Revised Code and shall list the name of the county in which the property is located; the property's legal description; its taxable value; the amount in dollars of the unpaid taxes, penalties, and interest; the date of acquisition of title to the property; the use of the property during any time that the unpaid taxes accrued; and any other information required by the Tax Commissioner. If the Tax Commissioner finds that the property is not entitled to tax exemption and to the abatement of unpaid taxes, penalties, and interest for any of the years for which the owner claims an exemption or abatement, the Tax Commissioner shall order the county treasurer of the county in which the property is located to collect all taxes, penalties, and interest due on the property for those years in accordance with law.

The Tax Commissioner may apply this section to any qualified property that is the subject of an application for exemption pending before the Tax Commissioner on the effective date of this section, without requiring the property owner to file an additional application. The Tax Commissioner also may apply this section to any qualified property that is the subject of an application for exemption filed on or after the effective date of this section and on or before twelve months after that effective date, even though the application does not expressly request abatement of unpaid taxes.

The limitation does not apply to children participating in the program for medically handicapped children established under section 3701.023 of the Revised Code.

The lien is not valid as against the claim of any mortgagee, pledgee, purchaser, judgment creditor, or other lienholder of record at the time the notice is filed.

If the provider acquires real or personal property after notice of the lien is filed, the lien shall not be valid as against the claim of any mortgagee, pledgee, subsequent bona fide purchaser for value, judgment creditor, or other lienholder of record to such after-acquired property unless the notice of lien is refiled after the property is acquired by the provider and before the competing lien attaches to the after-acquired property or before the conveyance to the subsequent bona fide purchaser for value.

When the amount has been paid, the provider may record with the recorder notice of the payment. For recording such notice of payment, the recorder shall charge and receive from the provider a base fee of one dollar for services and a housing trust fund fee of one dollar pursuant to section 317.36 of the Revised Code.

In the event of a distribution of a provider's assets pursuant to an order of any court under the law of this state including any receivership, assignment for benefit of creditors, adjudicated insolvency, or similar proceedings, amounts then or thereafter due the state under this chapter have the same priority as provided by law for the payment of taxes due the state and shall be paid out of the receivership trust fund or other such trust fund in the same manner as provided for claims for unpaid taxes due the state.

If the attorney general finds after investigation that any amount due the state under this chapter is uncollectable, in whole or in part, the attorney general shall recommend to the director the cancellation of all or part of the claim. The director may thereupon effect the cancellation.

(C) The director's authority to modify the manner, or to establish a new manner, for medicaid to pay for the services specified in division (A) of this section is not limited by any rules adopted under section 5111.02 or 5119.61 of the Revised Code that are in effect on the effective date of this section and govern the way medicaid pays for those services. This is the case regardless of what state agency adopted the rules.

No proof of specific intent to defraud is required to show, for purposes of this section, that a provider has engaged in deception.

(B) Any provider who violates division (A) of this section shall be

The provider agreement shall not be terminated or reimbursement terminated if the provider or owner can demonstrate that the provider or owner did not directly or indirectly sanction the action of its authorized agent, associate, manager, or employee that resulted in the conviction or entry of a judgment in a criminal or civil action brought pursuant to section 109.85 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this division prohibits any owner, officer, authorized agent, associate, manager, or employee of a medicaid provider from entering into a medicaid provider agreement if the person can demonstrate that the person had no knowledge of an action of the medicaid provider the person was formerly associated with that resulted in the conviction or entry of a judgment in a criminal or civil action brought pursuant to section 109.85 of the Revised Code.

The transfer shall be considered to have taken place on the date on which the payment to someone other than the applicant or recipient was made.

(b) If a self-settled trust is an irrevocable trust and a portion of the trust is not distributable to the applicant or recipient, the trust shall be treated as an improper transfer of resources. The look-back period shall be sixty months from the baseline date. The transfer is considered to have been made as of the later of the date the trust was established or the date on which payment to the applicant or recipient was foreclosed. The value of these assets shall not be reduced by any payments from the trust that may be made from these unavailable assets at a later date.

(b) If a special needs trust meets the requirements of division (F)(1)(a) of this section and has been established for a disabled applicant or recipient under sixty-five years of age, the exemption for the trust granted pursuant to division (F) of this section shall continue after the disabled applicant or recipient becomes sixty-five years of age if the applicant or recipient continues to be disabled as defined in rules adopted by the department of job and family services. Except for income earned by the trust, the grantor shall not add to or otherwise augment the trust after the applicant or recipient attains sixty-five years of age. (b) No resources shall be used to establish or augment the trust.

shall not be considered a qualifying income trust by the county department of job and family services.

(d) Income placed in a qualifying income trust shall not be counted in determining an applicant's or recipient's eligibility for medical assistance. The recipient of the funds may place any income directly into a qualifying income trust without those funds adversely affecting the applicant's or recipient's eligibility for medical assistance. Income generated by the trust that remains in the trust shall not be considered as income to the applicant or recipient.

(e) All income placed in a qualifying income trust shall be combined with any countable income not placed in the trust to arrive at a base income figure to be used for spend down calculations.

(f) The base income figure shall be used for post-eligibility deductions, including personal needs allowance, monthly income allowance, family allowance, and medical expenses not subject to third party payment. Any income remaining shall be used toward payment of patient liability. Payments made from a qualifying income trust shall not be combined with the base income figure for post-eligibility calculations.

(v) The trust requires that, to the extent that any amounts remaining in the beneficiary's account on the death of the beneficiary are not retained by the trust, the trust pay to the state the amounts remaining in the trust up to an amount equal to the total amount of medical assistance paid on behalf of the beneficiary.

(b) Cash distributions to the applicant or recipient shall be counted as unearned income. All other distributions from the trust shall be treated as provided in rules adopted by the department of job and family services governing in-kind income.

(c) Transfers of assets to a pooled trust shall not be treated as an improper transfer of resources. Assets held prior to the transfer to the trust shall be considered as countable assets, countable income, or countable assets and income.

(4) A supplemental services trust that meets the requirements of section 1339.51 of the Revised Code and to which all of the following apply:

Each year thereafter, the maximum amount permitted is the prior year's amount plus two thousand dollars.

(d) A county department of job and family services shall review the trust to determine whether it complies with the provisions of section 1339.51 of the Revised Code.

(e) Payments from supplemental services trusts shall be exempt as long as the payments are for supplemental services as defined in rules adopted by the department of job and family services. All supplemental services shall be purchased by the trustee and shall not be purchased through direct cash payments to the beneficiary.

(f) If a trust is represented as a supplemental services trust and a county department of job and family services determines that the trust does not meet the requirements provided in division (F)(4) of this section and section 1339.51 of the Revised Code, the county department of job and family services shall not consider it an exempt trust.

(a) A provision that prohibits the trustee from making payments that would supplant or replace medical assistance or other public assistance;

(b) A provision that prohibits the trustee from making payments that would impact or have an effect on the applicant's or recipient's right, ability, or opportunity to receive medical assistance or other public assistance;

(c) A provision that attempts to prevent the trust or its corpus or principal from being counted as an available resource.

(4) A trust that meets the requirements of division (G)(1) of this section shall not be counted as an available resource if at least one of the following circumstances applies:

(a) If a trust contains a clear statement requiring the trustee to preserve a portion of the trust for another beneficiary or remainderman, that portion of the trust shall not be counted as an available resource. Terms of a trust that grant discretion to preserve a portion of the trust shall not qualify as a clear statement requiring the trustee to preserve a portion of the trust.

(b) If a trust contains a clear statement requiring the trustee to use a portion of the trust for a purpose other than medical care, care, comfort, maintenance, welfare, or general well being of the applicant or recipient, that portion of the trust shall not be counted as an available resource. The department shall implement the care management system in some or all counties and shall designate the medicaid recipients who are required or permitted to participate in the system. In the case of individuals who receive medicaid on the basis of being aged, blind, or disabled, as specified in division (A)(2) of section 5111.01 of the Revised Code, all of the following apply:

(1) Not later than July 1, 2004, the department shall designate a portion of the individuals for participation in the care management system.

(2) Individuals shall not be designated for participation unless they reside in a county in which individuals who receive medicaid on another basis have been designated for participation.

(3) If, pursuant to division (B)(2) of this section, the department requires or permits the individuals to obtain health care services through managed care organizations, the department shall select the managed care organizations to be used by the individuals through a request for proposals process. The department shall issue its initial request for proposals not later than December 31, 2003.

(4) Individuals shall not be required to obtain health care services through managed care organizations unless they are at least twenty-one years of age.

(B) The department of job and family services shall develop a pilot program under which chronically ill children are included among the medicaid recipients who are required to participate in the care management system established under section 5111.16 of the Revised Code. The pilot program shall be implemented not later than October 1, 2004, or, if by that date the department has not received any necessary federal approval to implement the program, as soon as practicable after receiving the approval. The department shall operate the program until October 1, 2006, except that the department shall cease operation of the program before that date if either of the following is the case:

(1) The department determines that requiring chronically ill children to participate in the care management system is not a cost-effective means of providing medicaid services;

(2) The combined state and federal cost of the children's care coordination described in division (D) of this section reaches three million dollars.

(C) The department shall ensure that the pilot program is operated in at least three counties selected by the department. In its consideration of the counties to be selected, the department may give priority to Hamilton county and Muskingum county. The department may extend its operation of the program into the areas surrounding the counties in which the program is operated.

(D) The purpose of the pilot program shall be to determine whether occurrences of acute illnesses and hospitalizations among chronically ill children can be prevented or reduced by establishing a medical home for the children where care is administered proactively and in a manner that is accessible, continuous, family-centered, coordinated, and compassionate. In establishing a medical home for a chronically ill child, all of the following apply:

(1) A physician shall serve as the care coordinator for the child. The care coordinator may be engaged in practice as a pediatrician certified in pediatrics by a medical specialty board of the American medical association or American osteopathic association, a pediatric subspecialist, or a provider for the bureau of children with medical handicaps within the department of health. As part of the evaluation, the department shall maintain statistics on physician expenditures, hospital expenditures, preventable hospitalizations, and other matters the department considers necessary to conduct the evaluation.

(F) The department shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as necessary to implement this section. The rules shall specify standards and procedures to be used in designating the chronically ill children who are required to participate in the pilot program.

services is jeopardized by the proposal to terminate or not to renew the contract. The disenrollment is not subject to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, but the managed care organization may request a reconsideration of the disenrollment. Reconsiderations shall be requested and conducted in accordance with rules the director of job and family services shall adopt in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The request for, or conduct of, a reconsideration regarding a proposed disenrollment shall not delay the disenrollment.

(1) ~~Make~~ make payments to the nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for patients eligible for services under the medical assistance program as provided in sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised Code. No payment shall be made for the day a recipient is discharged from the facility.

(2) ~~Provide copies of rules governing the facility's participation as a provider in the medical assistance program. Whenever the director of job and family services files a proposed rule or proposed rule in revised form under division (D) of section 111.15 or division (B) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code, the department shall provide the facility with one copy of such rule. In the case of a rescission or proposed rescission of a rule, the department may provide the rule number and title instead of the rules rescinded or proposed to be rescinded.~~

(B) The provider agrees to:

(1) Maintain eligibility as provided in section 5111.21 of the Revised Code;

(2) Keep records relating to a cost reporting period for the greater of seven years after the cost report is filed or, if the department issues an audit report in accordance with division (B) of section 5111.27 of the Revised Code, six years after all appeal rights relating to the audit report are exhausted;

(3) File reports as required by the department;

(4) Open all records relating to the costs of its services for inspection and audit by the department;

(5) Open its premises for inspection by the department, the department of health, and any other state or local authority having authority to inspect;

(6) Supply to the department such information as it requires concerning the facility's services to patients who are or are eligible to be medicaid recipients;

(7) Comply with section 5111.31 of the Revised Code.

The provider agreement may contain other provisions that are consistent with law and considered necessary by the department.

A provider agreement shall be effective for no longer than twelve months, except that if federal statute or regulations authorize a longer term, it may be effective for a longer term so authorized. A provider agreement may be renewed only if the facility is certified by the department of health for participation in the medicaid program.

The department of job and family services, in accordance with rules adopted by the director pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, may elect not to enter into, not to renew, or to terminate a provider agreement when the department determines that such an agreement would not be in the best interests of the recipients or of the state.

Sec. 5111.251. (A) The department of job and family services shall pay each eligible intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for its reasonable capital costs, a per resident per day rate established prospectively each fiscal year for each intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. Except as otherwise provided in sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised Code, the rate shall be based on the facility's capital costs for the calendar year preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid. The rate shall equal the sum of the following:

(1) The facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem cost of ownership for the preceding cost reporting period, limited as provided in divisions (C) and (F) of this section;

(2) Any efficiency incentive determined under division (B) of this section;

(3) Any amounts for renovations determined under division (D) of this section;

(4) Any amounts for return on equity determined under division (I) of this section.

Buildings shall be depreciated using the straight line method over forty years or over a different period approved by the department. Components and equipment shall be depreciated using the straight line method over a period designated by the director of job and family services in rules adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, consistent with the guidelines of the American hospital association, or over a different period approved by the department of job and family services. Any rules adopted under this division that specify useful lives of buildings, components, or equipment apply only to assets acquired on or after July 1, 1993. Depreciation for costs paid or reimbursed by any government agency shall not be included in costs of ownership or renovation unless that part of the payment under sections 5111.20 to 5111.32 of the Revised Code is used to reimburse the government agency.

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay to each intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded an efficiency incentive equal to fifty per cent of the difference between any desk-reviewed, actual, allowable cost of ownership and the applicable limit on cost of ownership payments under division (C) of this section. For purposes of computing the efficiency incentive, depreciation for costs paid or reimbursed by any government agency shall be considered as a cost of ownership, and the applicable limit under division (C) of this section shall apply both to facilities with more than eight beds and facilities with eight or fewer beds. The efficiency incentive paid to a facility with eight or fewer beds shall not exceed three dollars per patient day, adjusted annually for the inflation rate for the twelve-month period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year preceding the calendar year that precedes the fiscal year for which the efficiency incentive is determined and ending on the thirtieth day of the following June, using the consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics.

(C) Cost of ownership payments to intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded with more than eight beds shall not exceed the following limits:

(1) For facilities with dates of licensure prior to January 1, 1958, not exceeding two dollars and fifty cents per patient day;

(2) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1957, but prior to January 1, 1968, not exceeding:

(a) Three dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or more per bed;

(b) Two dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was less than three thousand five hundred dollars per bed.

(3) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1967, but prior to January 1, 1976, not exceeding:

(a) Four dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars or more per bed;

(b) Three dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was less than five thousand one hundred fifty dollars per bed, but exceeds three thousand five hundred dollars per bed;

(c) Two dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or less per bed.

(4) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1975, but prior to January 1, 1979, not exceeding:

(a) Five dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was six thousand eight hundred dollars or more per bed;

(b) Four dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was less than six thousand eight hundred dollars per bed but exceeds five thousand one hundred fifty dollars per bed;

(c) Three dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was five thousand one hundred fifty dollars or less per bed, but exceeds three thousand five hundred dollars per bed;

(d) Two dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the cost of construction was three thousand five hundred dollars or less per bed.

(5) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1978, but prior to January 1, 1980, not exceeding:

(a) Six dollars per patient day if the cost of construction was seven thousand six hundred twenty-five dollars or more per bed;

(b) Six dollars and forty-five cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds by the department of health.

(8) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1981, but prior to January 1, 1983, not exceeding:

(a) Twelve dollars per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(9) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1982, but prior to January 1, 1984, not exceeding:

(a) Twelve dollars per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(b) Seven dollars and nine cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds by the department of health.

(10) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1983, but prior to January 1, 1985, not exceeding:

(a) Twelve dollars and twenty-four cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(b) Seven dollars and twenty-three cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds by the department of health.

(11) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1984, but prior to January 1, 1986, not exceeding:

(a) Twelve dollars and fifty-three cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(b) Seven dollars and forty cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds by the department of health.

(12) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1985, but prior to January 1, 1987, not exceeding:

(a) Twelve dollars and seventy cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(b) Seven dollars and fifty cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds by the department of health.

(13) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1986, but prior to January 1, 1988, not exceeding:

(a) Twelve dollars and ninety-nine cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as residential facility beds by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities;

(b) Seven dollars and sixty-seven cents per patient day if the beds were originally licensed as nursing home beds by the department of health.

(14) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1987, but prior to January 1, 1989, not exceeding thirteen dollars and twenty-six cents per patient day;

(15) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1988, but prior to January 1, 1990, not exceeding thirteen dollars and forty-six cents per patient day;

(16) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1989, but prior to January 1, 1991, not exceeding thirteen dollars and sixty cents per patient day;

(17) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1990, but prior to January 1, 1992, not exceeding thirteen dollars and forty-nine cents per patient day;

(18) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1991, but prior to January 1, 1993, not exceeding thirteen dollars and sixty-seven cents per patient day;

(19) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 1992, not exceeding fourteen dollars and twenty-eight cents per patient day.

(D) Beginning January 1, 1981, regardless of the original date of licensure, the department of job and family services shall pay a rate for the per diem capitalized costs of renovations to intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded made after January 1, 1981, not exceeding six dollars per patient day using 1980 as the base year and adjusting the amount annually until June 30, 1993, for fluctuations in construction costs calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift. The payment provided for in this division is the only payment that shall be made for the capitalized costs of a nonextensive renovation of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. Nonextensive renovation costs shall not be included in cost of ownership, and a nonextensive renovation shall not affect the date of licensure for purposes of division (C) of this section. This division applies to nonextensive renovations regardless of whether they are made by an owner or a lessee. If the tenancy of a lessee that has made renovations ends before the depreciation expense for the renovation costs has been fully reported, the former lessee shall not report the undepreciated balance as an expense.

For a nonextensive renovation to qualify for payment under this division, both of the following conditions must be met:

(1) At least five years have elapsed since the date of licensure or date of an extensive renovation of the portion of the facility that is proposed to be renovated, except that this condition does not apply if the renovation is necessary to meet the requirements of federal, state, or local statutes, ordinances, rules, or policies.

(2) The provider has obtained prior approval from the department of job and family services. The provider shall submit a plan that describes in detail the changes in capital assets to be accomplished by means of the renovation and the timetable for completing the project. The time for completion of the project shall be no more than eighteen months after the renovation begins. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that specify criteria and procedures for prior approval of renovation projects. No provider shall separate a project with the intent to evade the characterization of the project as a renovation or as an extensive renovation. No provider shall increase the scope of a project after it is approved by the department of job and family services unless the increase in scope is approved by the department.

(E) The amounts specified in divisions (C) and (D) of this section shall be adjusted beginning July 1, 1993, for the estimated inflation for the twelve-month period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year preceding the calendar year that precedes the fiscal year for which rate will be paid and ending on the thirtieth day of the following June, using the consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics.

(F)(1) For facilities of eight or fewer beds that have dates of licensure or have been granted project authorization by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities before July 1, 1993, and for facilities of eight or fewer beds that have dates of licensure or have been granted project authorization after that date if the facilities demonstrate that they made substantial commitments of funds on or before that date, cost of ownership shall not exceed eighteen dollars and thirty cents per resident per day. The eighteen-dollar and thirty-cent amount shall be increased by the change in the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift, during the period beginning June 30, 1990, and ending July 1, 1993, and by the change in the consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, annually thereafter.

(2) For facilities with eight or fewer beds that have dates of licensure or have been granted project authorization by the department of mental retardation and developmental disabilities on or after July 1, 1993, for which substantial commitments of funds were not made before that date, cost of ownership payments shall not exceed the applicable amount calculated under division (F)(1) of this section, if the department of job and family services gives prior approval for construction of the facility or, regardless of whether the department gives prior approval, if the facility obtains a residential facility license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code pursuant to section 5123.1910 of the Revised Code. If the department does not give prior approval, cost of ownership payments shall not exceed the amount specified in division (C) of this section unless the facility obtains a residential facility license under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code pursuant to section 5123.1910 of the Revised Code.

(3) Notwithstanding divisions (D) and (F)(1) and (2) of this section, the total payment for cost of ownership, cost of ownership efficiency incentive, and capitalized costs of renovations for an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded with eight or fewer beds shall not exceed the sum of the limitations specified in divisions (C) and (D) of this section.

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or section 5111.24 of the Revised Code, the director of job and family services may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that provide for a calculation of a combined maximum payment limit for indirect care costs and cost of ownership for intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded with eight or fewer beds.

(H) After June 30, 1980, the owner of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded operating under a provider agreement shall provide written notice to the department of job and family services at least forty-five days prior to entering into any contract of sale for the facility or voluntarily terminating participation in the medical assistance program. After the date on which a transaction of sale is closed, the owner shall refund to the department the amount of excess depreciation paid to the facility by the department for each year the owner has operated the facility under a provider agreement and prorated according to the number of medicaid patient days for which the facility has received payment. If an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is sold after five or fewer years of operation under a provider agreement, the refund to the department shall be equal to the excess depreciation paid to the facility. If an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is sold after more than five years but less than ten years of operation under a provider agreement, the refund to the department shall equal the excess depreciation paid to the facility multiplied by twenty per cent, multiplied by the number of years less than ten that a facility was operated under a provider agreement. If an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is sold after ten or more years of operation under a provider agreement, the owner shall not refund any excess depreciation to the department. For the purposes of this division, "depreciation paid to the facility" means the amount paid to the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for cost of ownership pursuant to this section less any amount paid for interest costs. For the purposes of this division, "excess depreciation" is the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded's depreciated basis, which is the owner's cost less accumulated depreciation, subtracted from the purchase price but not exceeding the amount of depreciation paid to the facility.

A cost report shall be filed with the department within ninety days after the date on which the transaction of sale is closed or participation is voluntarily terminated for an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded subject to this division. The report shall show the accumulated depreciation, the sales price, and other information required by the department. The department shall provide for a bank, trust company, or savings and loan association to hold in escrow the amount of the last two monthly payments to an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded made pursuant to division (A)(1) of section 5111.22 of the Revised Code before a sale or voluntary termination of participation or, if the owner fails, within the time required by this division, to notify the department before entering into a contract of sale for the facility, the amount of the first two monthly payments made to the facility after the department learns of the contract, regardless of whether a new owner is in possession of the facility. If the amount the owner will be required to refund under this section is likely to be less than the amount of the two monthly payments otherwise put into escrow under this division, the department shall take one of the following actions instead of withholding the amount of the two monthly payments:

(1) In the case of an owner that owns other facilities that participate in the medical assistance program, obtain a promissory note in an amount sufficient to cover the amount likely to be refunded;

(2) In the case of all other owners, withhold the amount of the last monthly payment to the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded or, if the owner fails, within the time required by this division, to notify the department before entering into a contract of sale for the facility, the amount of the first monthly payment made to the facility after the department learns of the contract, regardless of whether a new owner is in possession of the facility.

The department shall, within ninety days following the filing of the cost report, audit the report and issue an audit report to the owner. The department also may audit any other cost reports for the facility that have been filed during the previous three years. In the audit report, the department shall state its findings and the amount of any money owed to the department by the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. The findings shall be subject to an adjudication conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. No later than fifteen days after the owner agrees to a settlement, any funds held in escrow less any amounts due to the department shall be released to the owner and amounts due to the department shall be paid to the department. If the amounts in escrow are less than the amounts due to the department, the balance shall be paid to the department within fifteen days after the owner agrees to a settlement. If the department does not issue its audit report within the ninety-day period, the department shall release any money held in escrow to the owner. For the purposes of this section, a transfer of corporate stock, the merger of one corporation into another, or a consolidation does not constitute a sale.

If an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded is not sold or its participation is not terminated after notice is provided to the department under this division, the department shall order any payments held in escrow released to the facility upon receiving written notice from the owner that there will be no sale or termination of participation. After written notice is received from an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded that a sale or termination of participation will not take place, the facility shall provide notice to the department at least forty-five days prior to entering into any contract of sale or terminating participation at any future time.

(I) The department of job and family services shall pay each eligible proprietary intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded a return on the facility's net equity computed at the rate of one and one-half times the average of interest rates on special issues of public debt obligations issued to the federal hospital insurance trust fund for the cost reporting period. No facility's return on net equity paid under this division shall exceed one dollar per patient day.

In calculating the rate for return on net equity, the department shall use the greater of the facility's inpatient days during the applicable cost reporting period or the number of inpatient days the facility would have had during that period if its occupancy rate had been ninety-five per cent.

(J)(1) Except as provided in division (J)(2) of this section, if a provider leases or transfers an interest in a facility to another provider who is a related party, the related party's allowable cost of ownership shall include the lesser of the following:

(a) The annual lease expense or actual cost of ownership, whichever is applicable;

(b) The reasonable cost to the lessor or provider making the transfer.

(2) If a provider leases or transfers an interest in a facility to another provider who is a related party, regardless of the date of the lease or transfer, the related party's allowable cost of ownership shall include the annual lease expense or actual cost of ownership, whichever is applicable, subject to the limitations specified in divisions (B) to (I) of this section, if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The related party is a relative of owner;

(b) In the case of a lease, if the lessor retains any ownership interest, it is, except as provided in division (J)(2)(d)(ii) of this section, in only the real property and any improvements on the real property;

(c) In the case of a transfer, the provider making the transfer retains, except as provided in division (J)(2)(d)(iv) of this section, no ownership interest in the facility;

(d) The department of job and family services determines that the lease or transfer is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules the department shall adopt in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code no later than December 31, 2000. The rules shall provide that a lease or transfer is an arm's length transaction if all of the following, as applicable, apply:

(i) In the case of a lease, once the lease goes into effect, the lessor has no direct or indirect interest in the lessee or, except as provided in division (J)(2)(b) of this section, the facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a lessor.

(ii) In the case of a lease, the lessor does not reacquire an interest in the facility except through the exercise of a lessor's rights in the event of a default. If the lessor reacquires an interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the lease never occurred when the department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs.

(iii) In the case of a transfer, once the transfer goes into effect, the provider that made the transfer has no direct or indirect interest in the provider that acquires the facility or the facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a creditor.

(iv) In the case of a transfer, the provider that made the transfer does not reacquire an interest in the facility except through the exercise of a creditor's rights in the event of a default. If the provider reacquires an interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the transfer never occurred when the department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs.

(v) The lease or transfer satisfies any other criteria specified in the rules.

(e) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a lessor or provider making the transfer who is at least sixty-five years of age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the same facility, allowable cost of ownership was determined most recently under this division.

Sec. 5111.85. (A) As used in this section, "medicaid waiver component" means a component of the medicaid program authorized by a waiver granted by the United States department of health and human services under section 1115 or 1915 of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A.

1315 or 1396n. "Medicaid waiver component" does not include a ~~managed~~ care management system established under section ~~5111.17~~ 5111.16 of the Revised Code.

(B) The director of job and family services may adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing medicaid waiver components that establish all of the following:

- (1) Eligibility requirements for the medicaid waiver components;
- (2) The type, amount, duration, and scope of services the medicaid waiver components provide;

(C) The director of job and family services may adopt different rules for the different medicaid waiver components. The rules shall be consistent with the terms of the waiver authorizing the medicaid waiver component.

(D) The director of job and family services may conduct reviews of the medicaid waiver components. The reviews may include physical inspections of records and sites where services are provided under the medicaid waiver components and interviews of providers and recipients of the services. If the director determines pursuant to a review that a person or government entity has violated a rule governing a medicaid waiver component, the director may establish a corrective action plan for the violator and impose fiscal, administrative, or both types of sanctions on the violator in accordance with rules adopted under division (B) of this section.

Sec. 5111.87. (A) As used in this section and section 5111.871 of the Revised Code, "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.
