facility under this section. A contract entered into under this 547 section shall be for an initial term of not more than two years 548 with an option to renew for additional periods of two years. 549

(2) The department of rehabilitation and correction, by rule, 550 entity, other than a person or entity that satisfies the criteria 552 set forth in division (A)(3)(a) of this section and subject to 553 division (I) of this section, must satisfy in order to apply to 554 operate and manage as a contractor pursuant to this section the 555 initial intensive program prison established pursuant to section 556 5120.033 of the Revised Code if one or more intensive program 557 prisons are established under that section. 558

(4) Subject to division (I) of this section, before a public 574 entity may enter into a contract under this section, the 575 contractor shall convincingly demonstrate to the public entity 576 that it can operate the facility with the inmate capacity required 577 by the public entity and provide the services required in this 578 section and realize at least a five per cent savings over the 579 projected cost to the public entity of providing these same 580 services to operate the facility that is the subject of the 581 contract. No out-of-state prisoners may be housed in any facility 582 that is the subject of a contract entered into under this section. 583

(b) The contractor receives accreditation of the facility 599 within twelve months after the date the contractor applies to the 600 American correctional association for accreditation. 601

(c) Once the accreditation is received, the contractor 602 maintains it for the duration of the contract term. 603

(d) If the contractor does not comply with divisions 604 general circulation in the county in which the facility is 635 located, and, if the facility is a state correctional institution, 636 to the department of rehabilitation and correction. The written 637 notice may be by either facsimile transmission or mail. A failure 638 to comply with this requirement regarding an escape is a violation 639 of section 2921.22 of the Revised Code. 640

(6) A requirement that, if the facility is a state 641 correctional institution, the contractor provide a written report 642 within specified time limits to the director of rehabilitation and 643 correction or the director's designee of all unusual incidents at 644 the facility as defined in rules promulgated by the department of 645

(8) A requirement that the contractor prepare and distribute 658 to the director of rehabilitation and correction or, if 659 contracting with a local public entity, to the governing authority 660 of the local entity annual budget income and expenditure 661 statements and funding source financial reports; 662

(9) A requirement that the public entity appoint and 663 supervise a full-time contract monitor, that the contractor 664 provide suitable office space for the contract monitor at the 665 facility, and that the contractor allow the contract monitor 666 unrestricted access to all parts of the facility and all records 667 of the facility except the contractor's financial records; 668

(10) A requirement that if the facility is a state correctional institution designated department of rehabilitation and correction staff members be allowed access to the facility in accordance with rules promulgated by the department;

(11) A requirement that the contractor provide internal and perimeter security as agreed upon in the contract;

(12) If the facility is a state correctional institution, a requirement that the contractor impose discipline on inmates the records of the public entity; 701

(17) Authorization for the public entity to impose a fine on 702 the contractor from a schedule of fines included in the contract 703 for the contractor's failure to perform its contractual duties or 704 to cancel the contract, as the public entity considers 705 appropriate. If a fine is imposed, the public entity may reduce 706 the payment owed to the contractor pursuant to any invoice in the 707 amount of the imposed fine. 708

(18) A statement that all services provided or goods produced 709 at the facility shall be subject to the same regulations, and the 710 same distribution limitations, as apply to goods and services 711

For the purposes of determining the net book value of an Ohio 3072 entity under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, if the entity 3073 is a member of an affiliated group, the combined net book values 3074 of all of the members of that affiliated group shall be used. 3075

Nothing in division (A)(6) or (7) of this section limits or 3076 disallows the distribution to an investor in a pass-through entity 3077 of a portion of the entity's profits equal to the investor's 3078 federal, state, and local income tax obligations attributable to 3079 the investor's allocable share of the entity's profits. Nothing in 3080 division (A)(6) or (7) of this section limits or disallows the 3081 sale by an investor of part or all of the investor's interests in 3082 an Ohio entity by way of a public offering of shares in the Ohio 3083 entity. 3084

(B) A group of two but not more than twenty investors, each 3085 of whom proposes to make an investment of money in the same Ohio 3086 entity, may submit an application for tax credits under division 3087 (A) of this section. The group shall include with the application 3088 a fee of eight hundred dollars. The application shall identify 3089 each investor in the group and the amount of money each investor 3090 proposes to invest in the Ohio entity, and shall name a contact 3091 person for the group. The Edison center, within three weeks after 3092 receiving the application, shall review it, determine whether each 3093 investor of the group should be recommended for a tax credit under 3094 the conditions set forth in division (A) of this section, and send 3095 written notice of its determination to the industrial technology 3096 and enterprise advisory council and to the contact person. The 3097 center shall not recommend that a group of investors receive a tax 3098 credit unless each investor is eligible under those conditions. 3099
The center may disqualify from a group any investor who is not 3100 eligible under the conditions and recommend that the remaining 3101 group of investors receive the tax credit. If the center 3102 determines the group should not be recommended for the tax credit, 3103 it shall include in the notice the reasons for the determination. 3104

(C) The industrial technology and enterprise advisory council 3105 shall establish from among its members a three-person committee. 3106 Within four weeks after the council receives a notice of 3107 recommendation from an Edison center, the committee shall review 3108 the recommendation and issue a final determination of whether the 3109 investor or group is eligible for a tax credit under the 3110 conditions set forth in division (A) of this section. The 3111 committee may require the investor or group to submit additional 3112 information to support the application. The vote of at least two 3113 members of the committee is necessary for the issuance of a final 3114 determination or any other action of the committee. Upon making 3115 the final determination, the committee shall send written notice 3116 of approval or disapproval of the tax credit to the investor or 3117 group contact person, the director of development, and the Edison 3118 center. If the committee disapproves the tax credit, it shall 3119 include in the notice the reasons for the disapproval. 3120

(D)(1) The industrial technology and enterprise advisory 3121 council committee shall not approve more than one million five 3122 hundred thousand dollars of investments in any one Ohio entity. 3123 However, if a proposed investment of money in an Ohio entity has 3124 been approved but the investor does not actually make the 3125 investment, the committee may reassign the amount of that 3126 investment to another investor, as long as the total amount 3127 invested in the entity under this section does not exceed one 3128 million five hundred thousand dollars. 3129

If the one-million-five-hundred-thousand-dollar limit for an 3130
Ohio entity has not yet been reached and an application proposes 3131 an investment of money that would exceed the limit for that 3132 entity, the committee shall send written notice to the investor, 3133 or for a group, the contact person, that the investment cannot be 3134 approved as requested. Upon receipt of the notice, the investor or 3135 group may amend the application to propose an investment of money 3136 that does not exceed the limit. 3137

(2) Not more than ~~thirty~~ forty-five million dollars of tax credits shall be issued under sections 122.15 to 122.154 of the Revised Code.

(F) The industrial technology and enterprise advisory council committee shall approve or disapprove tax credit applications under this section in the order in which they are received by the council.

the action to the investor, the Edison center that recommended the 3170 application, the industrial technology and enterprise advisory 3171 council, and the tax commissioner, together with a written 3172 explanation of the reasons for the disapproval. If the director 3173 disapproves a tax credit after a tax credit certificate is issued, 3174 the investor shall not claim the credit for the taxable year that 3175 includes the day the director disapproves the credit, or for any 3176 subsequent taxable year. 3177

The director of development, in accordance with section 3178 111.15 of the Revised Code and with the advice of the industrial 3179 technology and enterprise advisory council, may adopt, amend, and 3180 rescind rules necessary to implement sections 122.15 to 122.154 of 3181
the Revised Code. 3182

(H) An Edison center shall use application fees received 3183 under this section only for the costs of administering sections 3184
122.15 to 122.154 of the Revised Code. 3185

If the taxpayer fails to enter into the agreement within sixty days, "new employee" has the same meaning as under division (A)(2)(a) of this section. a public meeting, or any employee of the taxpayer for which the 3235 taxpayer has been granted a certificate under division (B) of 3236 section 5709.66 of the Revised Code. However, if the taxpayer is 3237 activities related thereto and if the tax credit authority 3240 determines it appropriate, "new employee" may include an employee 3241 of the taxpayer who was previously employed in this state by a 3242 related member of the taxpayer and whose employment was shifted to 3243

(2) "Baseline income tax revenue" means income tax revenue except that the applicable withholding period is the twelve months immediately preceding the date the tax credit authority approves the taxpayer's application multiplied by the sum of one plus an annual pay increase factor to be determined by the tax credit authority. granted is subject to such tax. The converted credit shall apply 3308 to those calendar years in which the remaining taxable years 3309 specified in the agreement end. 3310

(C) A taxpayer or potential taxpayer who proposes a project 3311 to create new jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit 3312 authority to enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this 3313 section. The director of development shall prescribe the form of 3314 the application. After receipt of an application, the authority 3315 may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for a credit under 3316 this section if it determines all of the following: 3317

(1) The taxpayer's project will ~~create new jobs in this state~~ 3318 increase payroll and income tax revenue; 3319

(2) The taxpayer's project is economically sound and will 3320 benefit the people of this state by increasing opportunities for 3321 employment and strengthening the economy of this state; 3322

(3) Receiving the tax credit is a major factor in the 3323 taxpayer's decision to go forward with the project. 3324

(D) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 3325
following: 3326

~~(8)(a) A provision requiring that the taxpayer, except as 3359 otherwise provided in division (D)(8)(b) of this section, shall 3360 not relocate employment positions from elsewhere in this state to 3361 the project site that is the subject of the agreement for the 3362 lesser of five years from the date the agreement is entered into 3363 or the number of years the taxpayer is entitled to claim the tax 3364 credit. 3365~~

~~(b) The taxpayer may relocate employment positions from 3366 elsewhere in this state to the project site that is the subject of 3367 the agreement if the director of development determines both of 3368
the following: 3369~~

~~(i) That the site from which the employment positions would 3370 be relocated is inadequate to meet market and industry conditions, 3371 expansion plans, consolidation plans, or other business 3372 considerations affecting the taxpayer; 3373~~

~~(ii) That A provision providing that the taxpayer may not 3374 relocate a substantial number of employment positions from 3375 elsewhere in this state to the project location unless the 3376 director of development determines that the legislative authority 3377 of the county, township, or municipal corporation from which the 3378 employment positions would be relocated has been notified by the 3379 taxpayer of the relocation. 3380~~

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment 3381 position from one political subdivision to another political 3382 subdivision shall be considered a relocation of an employment 3383 position, ~~but the transfer of an individual employee from one 3384 political subdivision to another political subdivision shall not 3385 be considered a relocation of an employment position as long as 3386 the individual's employment position in the first political 3387 subdivision is refilled unless the employment position in the 3388~~ first political subdivision is replaced. 3389

(E) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 3390 or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit 3391 authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 3392 of the tax credit. The reduction of the percentage or term shall 3393 ~~take effect (1) in the taxable year immediately following the~~ 3394 ~~taxable year in which the authority amends the agreement or the~~ 3395 ~~director of development notifies the taxpayer in writing of such~~ 3396
~~failure, or (2) in the first tax period beginning in the calendar~~ 3397 ~~year immediately following the calendar year in which the~~ 3398 ~~authority amends the agreement or the director notifies the~~ 3399 ~~taxpayer in writing of such failure. If the taxpayer fails to~~ 3400 ~~annually report any of the information required by division (D)(6)~~ 3401
~~of this section within the time required by the director, the~~ 3402 ~~reduction of the percentage or term may take effect in the current~~ 3403 ~~taxable year. If the taxpayer relocates employment positions in~~ 3404
~~violation of the provision required under division (D)(8)(a) of~~ 3405
~~this section, the taxpayer shall not claim the tax credit under~~ 3406
~~section 5733.0610 of the Revised Code for any tax years following~~ 3407
~~the calendar year in which the relocation occurs, or shall not~~ 3408 ~~claim the tax credit under section 5725.32, 5729.032, or 5747.058~~ 3409
~~of the Revised Code for the taxable year in which the relocation~~ 3410 ~~occurs and any subsequent taxable years, and shall not claim the~~ 3411 ~~tax credit under division (A) of section 5751.50 of the Revised~~ 3412
~~Code for any tax period in the calendar year in which the~~ 3413 ~~relocation occurs and any subsequent tax periods~~ may take effect 3414 in the current taxable or calendar year. 3415

(F) Projects that consist solely of point-of-final-purchase 3416 retail facilities are not eligible for a tax credit under this 3417 section. If a project consists of both point-of-final-purchase 3418 retail facilities and nonretail facilities, only the portion of 3419 the project consisting of the nonretail facilities is eligible for 3420

a tax credit and only the ~~new~~ excess income tax revenue from ~~new~~ 3421 ~~employees of~~ the nonretail facilities shall be considered when 3422 computing the amount of the tax credit. If a warehouse facility is 3423 part of a point-of-final-purchase retail facility and supplies 3424 only that facility, the warehouse facility is not eligible for a 3425 tax credit. Catalog distribution centers are not considered 3426 point-of-final-purchase retail facilities for the purposes of this 3427 division, and are eligible for tax credits under this section. 3428

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 3429 the department of development or the tax credit authority by an 3430 applicant or recipient of a tax credit under this section, and any 3431 information taken for any purpose from such statements or 3432 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 3433 the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of the authority may 3434 make use of the statements and other information for purposes of 3435 issuing public reports or in connection with court proceedings 3436 concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 3437 request of the tax commissioner or, if the applicant or recipient 3438 is an insurance company, upon the request of the superintendent of 3439 insurance, the chairperson of the authority shall provide to the 3440 commissioner or superintendent any statement or information 3441 submitted by an applicant or recipient of a tax credit in 3442 connection with the credit. The commissioner or superintendent 3443
information. 3445

(H) A taxpayer claiming a credit under this section shall 3446 submit to the tax commissioner or, if the taxpayer is an insurance 3447 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 3448 director of development's certificate of verification under 3449 division (D)(7) of this section with the taxpayer's tax report or 3450 return for the taxable year or for the calendar year that includes 3451 the tax period. Failure to submit a copy of the certificate with 3452 the report or return does not invalidate a claim for a credit if 3453 the taxpayer submits a copy of the certificate to the commissioner 3454 or superintendent within sixty days after the commissioner or 3455 superintendent requests it. 3456

(I) The director of development, after consultation with the 3457 tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and in 3458 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 3459 rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 3460 for recipients of tax credits under this section to be charged 3461 fees to cover administrative costs of the tax credit program. The 3462 fees collected shall be credited to the tax incentive programs 3463 operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 3464 the time the director gives public notice under division (A) of 3465 section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 3466 the director shall submit copies of the proposed rules to the 3467 chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 3468 the senate and the house of representatives. 3469

(J) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 3470 a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 3471 subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 3472 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 3473 distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 3474 other such business entity may elect to pass the credit received 3475 under this section through to the persons to whom the income or 3476 profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 3477 distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 3478 required under division (D)(6) of this section. The election 3479 applies to and is irrevocable for the credit for which the report 3480 is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 3481 apportioned among those persons in the same proportions as those 3482 in which the income or profit is distributed. 3483

(K) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 3484 who has received a credit under this section is not complying with 3485

the requirement under division (D)(3) of this section, the 3486 director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 3487 noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 3488 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the tax 3489 credit authority may require the taxpayer to refund to this state 3490 a portion of the credit in accordance with the following: 3491

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 3492 location for ~~at least one and one half times the number of years~~ 3493 ~~of the term of the tax credit, an amount not exceeding twenty five~~ 3494
~~per cent of the sum of any previously allowed credits under this~~ 3495
~~section;~~ 3496

location for at least the number of years of the term of the tax 3498 credit, an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the sum of any 3499 previously allowed credits under this section;~~ 3500

location for less than the number of years of the term of the tax 3502 credit, an amount not exceeding one hundred per cent of the sum of 3503 any previously allowed credits under this section a period less 3504 than or equal to the term of the credit, an amount not exceeding 3505 one hundred per cent of the sum of any credits allowed and 3506 received under this section; 3507~~

concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 3925 request of the tax commissioner, the chairperson of the authority 3926 shall provide to the commissioner any statement or other 3927

(J) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 3957 with the requirement under division (E)~~(4)~~(3) of this section, the 3959

director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 3960

authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 3963 refund to the state all or a portion of the credit claimed in 3964 previous years, as follows: 3965

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 3966 for less than or equal to the term of the credit, ~~the amount~~ 3967

the amount required to be refunded shall not exceed fifty per cent 3974

In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded to 3977 this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 3978

If the taxpayer is an insurance company, the superintendent of 3986 insurance shall make an assessment under section 5725.222 or 3987 5729.102 of the Revised Code. The time limitations on assessments 3988

under this division, but the commissioner or superintendent shall 3990 make the assessment within one year after the date the authority 3991 certifies to the commissioner or superintendent the amount to be 3992 refunded. 3993

~~notice, and after providing the taxpayer an opportunity to explain~~ 3999
~~the noncompliance, the authority may amend the agreement to reduce~~ 4000
~~the percentage or term of the tax credit. The reduction in the~~ 4001 ~~percentage or term shall take effect in the taxable year, or in~~ 4002 expenditures that qualify as eligible production expenditures. The 4503 certified public accountant shall issue a report to the company 4504 and to the director of development certifying the company's 4505 eligible production expenditures and any other information 4506 required by the director. Upon receiving and examining the report, 4507 the director may disallow any expenditure the director determines 4508 is not an eligible production expenditure. If the director 4509 disallows an expenditure, the director shall issue a written 4510 notice to the motion picture production company stating that the 4511 expenditure is disallowed and the reason for the disallowance. 4512 Upon examination of the report and disallowance of any 4513 of state a power of attorney designating the secretary of state as 4697 its agent for the purpose of accepting service of summons in any 4698 action brought under Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, and until 4699

the agreement is submitted to the attorney general and the 4700 authorities or the director of administrative services relative to 4966 reduction in pay or position, job abolishment, layoff, 4967 suspension, discharge, assignment or reassignment to a new or 4968 and to the same extent as provided by division (G) of section 5047 124.09 of the Revised Code. All witness fees shall be paid in the 5048 manner set forth in that division. 5049

Upon the creation by the board of trustees of a civil service township civil service commission, the classified service shall also comprise, except as otherwise provided in division (A)(17) or (C) of this section, all persons in the employ of a civil service township police or fire department having ten or more full-time 5383 paid employees. The classified service consists of two classes, 5384 which shall be designated as the competitive class and the 5385 unskilled labor class. 5386

(1) The competitive class shall include all positions and 5387 employments in the state and the counties, cities, city health 5388 districts, general health districts, and city school districts of 5389 the state, and, upon the creation by the board of trustees of a 5390 civil service township of a township civil service commission, all 5391 positions in a civil service township police or fire department 5392 having ten or more full-time paid employees, for which it is 5393 practicable to determine the merit and fitness of applicants by 5394 competitive examinations. Appointments shall be made to, or 5395 employment shall be given in, all positions in the competitive 5396 class that are not filled by promotion, reinstatement, transfer, 5397 or reduction, as provided in this chapter, and the rules of the 5398 director of administrative services, by appointment from those 5399 certified to the appointing officer in accordance with this 5400
chapter. 5401

(2) The unskilled labor class shall include ordinary 5402 unskilled laborers. Vacancies in the labor class for positions in 5403 service of the state shall be filled by appointment from lists of 5404 applicants registered by the director. Vacancies in the labor 5405 class for all other positions shall be filled by appointment from 5406 lists of applicants registered by a commission. The director or 5407 the commission, as applicable, by rule, shall require an applicant 5408 for registration in the labor class to furnish evidence or take 5409 tests as the director or commission considers proper with respect 5410 to age, residence, physical condition, ability to labor, honesty, 5411 sobriety, industry, capacity, and experience in the work or 5412 employment for which application is made. Laborers who fulfill the 5413 requirements shall be placed on the eligible list for the kind of 5414 labor or employment sought, and preference shall be given in 5415 employment in accordance with the rating received from that 5416 evidence or in those tests. Upon the request of an appointing 5417 officer, stating the kind of labor needed, the pay and probable 5418 length of employment, and the number to be employed, the director 5419 or commission, as applicable, shall certify from the highest on 5420 the list double the number to be employed; from this number, the 5421 appointing officer shall appoint the number actually needed for 5422 the particular work. If more than one applicant receives the same 5423 rating, priority in time of application shall determine the order 5424 in which their names shall be certified for appointment. 5425

(C) A municipal or civil service township civil service 5426 commission may place volunteer firefighters who are paid on a 5427 fee-for-service basis in either the classified or the unclassified 5428 civil service. 5429

(D) This division does not apply to persons in the 5430 unclassified service who have the right to resume positions in the 5431 classified service under sections 4121.121, 5119.071, 5120.38, 5432 5120.381, 5120.382, 5123.08, 5139.02, and 5501.19 of the Revised 5433
Code. 5434

An appointing authority whose employees are paid directly by 5435 warrant of the director of budget and management may appoint a 5436 person who holds a ~~certified~~ permanent position in the classified 5437 service within the appointing authority's agency to a position in 5438 the unclassified service within that agency. A person appointed 5439 pursuant to this division to a position in the unclassified 5440 service shall retain the right to resume the position and status 5441 held by the person in the classified service immediately prior to 5442 the person's appointment to the position in the unclassified 5443 service, regardless of the number of positions the person held in 5444 the unclassified service. An employee's right to resume a position 5445 in the classified service may only be exercised when an appointing 5446 authority demotes the employee to a pay range lower than the 5447 employee's current pay range or revokes the employee's appointment 5448 to the unclassified service. An employee forfeits the right to 5449 resume a position in the classified service when the employee is 5450 removed from the position in the unclassified service due to 5451 incompetence, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral 5452 conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, 5453 neglect of duty, violation of this chapter or the rules of the 5454 director of administrative services, any other failure of good 5455 behavior, any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, or 5456 nonfeasance in office, or conviction of a felony. An employee also 5457 forfeits the right to resume a position in the classified service 5458 upon transfer to a different agency. 5459

Reinstatement to a position in the classified service shall 5460 be to a position substantially equal to that position in the 5461 classified service held previously, as certified by the director 5462 of administrative services. If the position the person previously 5463 held in the classified service has been placed in the unclassified 5464 service or is otherwise unavailable, the person shall be appointed 5465 to a position in the classified service within the appointing 5466 authority's agency that the director of administrative services 5467 certifies is comparable in compensation to the position the person 5468 previously held in the classified service. Service in the position 5469 in the unclassified service shall be counted as service in the 5470 position in the classified service held by the person immediately 5471 prior to the person's appointment to the position in the 5472 unclassified service. When a person is reinstated to a position in 5473 the classified service as provided in this division, the person is 5474 entitled to all rights, status, and benefits accruing to the 5475 position in the classified service during the person's time of 5476 service in the position in the unclassified service. 5477

Sec. 124.134. (A) Each full-time permanent state employee 5478 paid in accordance with section 124.152 of the Revised Code and 5479 those employees listed in divisions (B)(2) and (4) of section 5480 124.14 of the Revised Code, ~~after service of one year, shall have~~ 5481 ~~earned and will be due upon the attainment of the first year of~~ 5482 ~~employment, and annually thereafter, eighty hours of vacation~~ 5483

~~leave with full pay. One year of service shall be computed on the~~ 5484 ~~basis of twenty six biweekly pay periods. A full time permanent~~ 5485
~~state employee with five or more years of service shall have~~ 5486 ~~earned and is entitled to one hundred twenty hours of vacation~~ 5487 ~~leave with full pay. A full time permanent state employee with ten~~ 5488
~~or more years of service shall have earned and is entitled to one~~ 5489 ~~hundred sixty hours of vacation leave with full pay. A full time~~ 5490
~~permanent state employee with fifteen or more years of service~~ 5491 ~~shall have earned and is entitled to one hundred eighty hours of~~ 5492 ~~vacation leave with full pay. A full time permanent state employee~~ 5493
~~with twenty or more years of service shall have earned and is~~ 5494 ~~entitled to two hundred hours of vacation leave with full pay. A~~ 5495
~~full time permanent state employee with twenty five or more years~~ 5496
~~of service shall have earned and is entitled to two hundred forty~~ 5497
~~hours of vacation leave with full pay. Such vacation leave shall~~ 5498 ~~accrue to the employee at the rate of three and one tenth hours~~ 5499
~~each biweekly period for those entitled to eighty hours per year;~~ 5500 ~~four and six tenths hours each biweekly period for those entitled~~ 5501
~~to one hundred twenty hours per year; six and two tenths hours~~ 5502
~~each biweekly period for those entitled to one hundred sixty hours~~ 5503 ~~per year; six and nine tenths hours each biweekly period for those~~ 5504 ~~entitled to one hundred eighty hours per year; seven and~~ 5505
~~seven tenths hours each biweekly period for those entitled to two~~ 5506 ~~hundred hours per year; and nine and two tenths hours each~~ 5507
~~biweekly period for those entitled to two hundred forty hours per~~ 5508 ~~year shall be credited with vacation leave with full pay according~~ 5509
biweekly pay period, as follows: 5511

Length of Service	Accrual Rate Per Pay Period
Less than 4 years	3.1 hours	5513
4 but less than 9 years	4.6 hours	5514
9 but less than 14 years	6.2 hours	5515
14 but less than 19 years	6.9 hours	5516
24 years or more	9.2 hours	5518

Fifty-two weeks equal one year of service. 5519

The amount of an employee's service shall be determined in 5520 accordance with the standard specified in section 9.44 of the 5521 Revised Code. Credit for prior service, including an increased 5522 vacation accrual rate and longevity supplement, shall take effect 5523 during the first pay period that begins immediately following the 5524 date the director of administrative services approves granting 5525 credit for that prior service. No employee, other than an employee 5526 who submits proof of prior service within ninety days after the 5527 date of the employee's hiring, shall receive any amount of 5528 vacation leave for the period prior to the date of the director's 5529 approval of the grant of credit for prior service. 5530

Part-time permanent employees who are paid in accordance with 5531 section 124.152 of the Revised Code and full-time permanent 5532 employees subject to this section who are in active pay status for 5533 less than eighty hours in a pay period shall earn vacation leave 5534 on a prorated basis. The ratio between the hours worked and the 5535 vacation hours earned by these classes of employees shall be the 5536 same as the ratio between the hours worked and the vacation hours 5537 earned by a full-time permanent employee with the same amount of 5538 service as provided for in this section. 5539

Vacation leave is not available for use until it appears on 5540
the employee's earning statement and the compensation described in 5541
the earning statement is available to the employee. An employee 5542 may begin using accrued vacation leave upon completion of the 5543 employee's initial probation period. 5544

(B) Employees granted leave under this section shall forfeit 5545 their right to take or to be paid for any vacation leave to their 5546 credit which is in excess of the accrual for three years. Any 5547 excess leave shall be eliminated from the employees' leave 5548 balance. If an employee's vacation leave credit is at, or will 5549 reach in the immediately following pay period, the maximum of the 5550 accrual for three years and the employee has been denied the use 5551 of vacation leave during the immediately preceding twelve months, 5552 the employee, at the employee's request, shall be paid in a pay 5553 period for the vacation leave the employee was denied, up to the 5554 maximum amount the employee would be entitled to be paid for in 5555 any pay period. An employee is not entitled to receive payment for 5556 vacation leave denied in any pay period in which the employee's 5557 vacation leave credit is not at, or will not reach in the 5558 immediately following pay period, the maximum of accrual for three 5559 years. Any vacation leave for which an employee receives payment 5560 shall be deducted from the employee's vacation leave balance. 5561 Payment shall not be made for any leave accrued in the same 5562 calendar year in which the payment is made. 5563

(C) Upon separation from state service, an employee granted 5564 leave under this section is entitled to compensation at the 5565 employee's current rate of pay for all unused vacation leave 5566 accrued under this section or section 124.13 of the Revised Code 5567 to the employee's credit. In case of transfer of an employee from 5568 one state agency to another, the employee shall retain the accrued 5569 and unused vacation leave. In case of the death of an employee, 5570 the unused vacation leave shall be paid in accordance with section 5571 2113.04 of the Revised Code, or to the employee's estate. An 5572 employee serving in a temporary work level who is eligible to 5573 receive compensation under this division shall be compensated at 5574 the base rate of pay of the employee's normal classification. 5575

Sec. 124.14. (A)(1) The director of administrative services 5576 shall establish, and may modify or rescind, by rule, a job 5577 classification plan for all positions, offices, and employments 5578 the salaries of which are paid in whole or in part by the state. 5579
The director shall group jobs within a classification so that the 5580 positions are similar enough in duties and responsibilities to be 5581 described by the same title, to have the same pay assigned with 5582 equity, and to have the same qualifications for selection applied. 5583
The director shall, by rule, assign a classification title to each 5584 classification within the classification plan. However, the 5585 director shall consider in establishing classifications, including 5586 classifications with parenthetical titles, and assigning pay 5587 ranges such factors as duties performed only on one shift, special 5588 skills in short supply in the labor market, recruitment problems, 5589 separation rates, comparative salary rates, the amount of training 5590 required, and other conditions affecting employment. The director 5591 shall describe the duties and responsibilities of the class, 5592 establish the qualifications for being employed in each position 5593 in the class, and file with the secretary of state a copy of 5594 specifications for all of the classifications. The director shall 5595 file new, additional, or revised specifications with the secretary 5596 of state before they are used. 5597

The director shall, by rule, assign each classification, 5598 either on a statewide basis or in particular counties or state 5599 institutions, to a pay range established under section 124.15 or 5600 section 124.152 of the Revised Code. The director may assign a 5601 classification to a pay range on a temporary basis for a period of 5602 six months. The director may establish, by rule adopted under 5603 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, experimental classification 5604 plans for some or all employees paid directly by warrant of the 5605 director of budget and management. The rule shall include 5606 specifications for each classification within the plan and shall 5607 specifically address compensation ranges, and methods for 5608 advancing within the ranges, for the classifications, which may be 5609 assigned to pay ranges other than the pay ranges established under 5610 section 124.15 or 124.152 of the Revised Code. 5611

(2) The director of administrative services may reassign to a 5612 proper classification those positions that have been assigned to 5613 an improper classification. If the compensation of an employee in 5614 such a reassigned position exceeds the maximum rate of pay for the 5615 employee's new classification, the employee shall be placed in pay 5616 step X and shall not receive an increase in compensation until the 5617 maximum rate of pay for that classification exceeds the employee's 5618 compensation. 5619

(3) The director may reassign an exempt employee, as defined 5620 in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, to a bargaining unit 5621 classification if the director determines that the bargaining unit 5622 classification is the proper classification for that employee. 5623 Notwithstanding Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code or instruments 5624 and contracts negotiated under it, these placements are at the 5625 director's discretion. 5626

(4) The director shall, by rule, assign related 5627 classifications, which form a career progression, to a 5628 classification series. The director shall, by rule, assign each 5629 classification in the classification plan a five-digit number, the 5630 first four digits of which shall denote the classification series 5631 to which the classification is assigned. When a career progression 5632 encompasses more than ten classifications, the director shall, by 5633 rule, identify the additional classifications belonging to a 5634 classification series. The additional classifications shall be 5635 part of the classification series, notwithstanding the fact that 5636 the first four digits of the number assigned to the additional 5637 classifications do not correspond to the first four digits of the 5638 numbers assigned to other classifications in the classification 5639 series. 5640

(5) The director, ~~in accordance with rules adopted under~~ 5641
~~Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall establish, and~~ 5642 establish, modify, or rescind, a classification plan for county 5643 agencies that elect not to use the services and facilities of a 5644 county personnel department. The director shall establish any such 5645 classification plan by means of rules adopted under Chapter 119. 5646 of the Revised Code. The rules shall include a methodology for the 5647 establishment of titles unique to county agencies, the use of 5648 state classification titles and classification specifications for 5649 common positions, the criteria for a county to meet in 5650 establishing its own classification plan, and the establishment of 5651 what constitutes a classification series for county agencies. The 5652 director may assess a county agency that chooses to use the 5653 classification plan a usage fee the director determines. All usage 5654 fees the department of administrative services receives shall be 5655 paid into the state treasury to the credit of the human resources 5656 fund created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code. 5657

(B) Division (A) of this section and sections 124.15 and 5658
124.152 of the Revised Code do not apply to the following persons, 5659 positions, offices, and employments: 5660

(1) Elected officials; 5661

(2) Legislative employees, employees of the legislative 5662 service commission, employees in the office of the governor, 5663 employees who are in the unclassified civil service and exempt 5664 from collective bargaining coverage in the office of the secretary 5665 of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, and attorney 5666 general, and employees of the supreme court; 5667

(3) Employees of a county children services board that 5668 establishes compensation rates under section 5153.12 of the 5669
Revised Code; 5670

(4) Any position for which the authority to determine 5671 compensation is given by law to another individual or entity; 5672

(5) Employees of the bureau of workers' compensation whose 5673 compensation the administrator of workers' compensation 5674 establishes under division (B) of section 4121.121 of the Revised 5675

(C) The director may employ a consulting agency to aid and 5677 assist the director in carrying out this section. 5678

(D)(1) When the director proposes to modify a classification 5679 or the assignment of classes to appropriate pay ranges, the 5680 director shall send written notice of the proposed rule to the 5681 appointing authorities of the affected employees thirty days 5682 before a hearing on the proposed rule. The appointing authorities 5683 shall notify the affected employees regarding the proposed rule. 5684
The director also shall send those appointing authorities notice 5685 of any final rule that is adopted within ten days after adoption. 5686

(2) When the director proposes to reclassify any employee so 5687 that the employee is adversely affected, the director shall give 5688 to the employee affected and to the employee's appointing 5689 authority a written notice setting forth the proposed new 5690 classification, pay range, and salary. Upon the request of any 5691 classified employee who is not serving in a probationary period, 5692 the director shall perform a job audit to review the 5693 classification of the employee's position to determine whether the 5694 position is properly classified. The director shall give to the 5695 employee affected and to the employee's appointing authority a 5696 written notice of the director's determination whether or not to 5697 reclassify the position or to reassign the employee to another 5698 classification. An employee or appointing authority desiring a 5699 hearing shall file a written request for the hearing with the 5700 state personnel board of review within thirty days after receiving 5701 the notice. The board shall set the matter for a hearing and 5702 notify the employee and appointing authority of the time and place 5703 of the hearing. The employee, the appointing authority, or any 5704 authorized representative of the employee who wishes to submit 5705 facts for the consideration of the board shall be afforded 5706 reasonable opportunity to do so. After the hearing, the board 5707 shall consider anew the reclassification and may order the 5708 reclassification of the employee and require the director to 5709 assign the employee to such appropriate classification as the 5710 facts and evidence warrant. As provided in division (A)(1) of 5711 section 124.03 of the Revised Code, the board may determine the 5712 most appropriate classification for the position of any employee 5713 coming before the board, with or without a job audit. The board 5714 shall disallow any reclassification or reassignment classification 5715 of any employee when it finds that changes have been made in the 5716 duties and responsibilities of any particular employee for 5717 political, religious, or other unjust reasons. 5718

(E)(1) Employees of each county department of job and family 5719 services shall be paid a salary or wage established by the board 5720 of county commissioners. The provisions of section 124.18 of the 5721 Revised Code concerning the standard work week apply to employees 5722 of county departments of job and family services. A board of 5723 county commissioners may do either of the following: 5724

(a) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 5725 supplement the sick leave, vacation leave, personal leave, and 5726 other benefits of any employee of the county department of job and 5727 family services of that county, if the employee is eligible for 5728 the supplement under a written policy providing for the 5729 supplement; 5730

(b) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 5731 establish alternative schedules of sick leave, vacation leave, 5732 personal leave, or other benefits for employees not inconsistent 5733 with the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement covering 5734

the affected employees. 5735

(2) Division (E)(1) of this section does not apply to 5736 to, a position at an advanced step of the range. Further, in time 6111 of a serious labor market condition when it is relatively 6112 impossible to recruit employees at the minimum rate for a 6113 particular classification, the entrance rate may be set at an 6114 advanced step in the range by the director of administrative 6115 services. This rate may be limited to geographical regions of the 6116 state. Appointments made to an advanced step under the provision 6117 regarding exceptional qualifications shall not affect the step 6118 assignment of employees already serving. However, anytime the 6119 hiring rate of an entire classification is advanced to a higher 6120 step, all incumbents of that classification being paid at a step 6121 lower than that being used for hiring, shall be advanced beginning 6122 at the start of the first pay period thereafter to the new hiring 6123 rate, and any time accrued at the lower step will be used to 6124 calculate advancement to a succeeding step. If the hiring rate of 6125 a classification is increased for only a geographical region of 6126 the state, only incumbents who work in that geographical region 6127 shall be advanced to a higher step. When an employee in the 6128 unclassified service changes from one state position to another or 6129 is appointed to a position in the classified service, or if an 6130 employee in the classified service is appointed to a position in 6131 the unclassified service, the employee's salary or wage in the new 6132 position shall be determined in the same manner as if the employee 6133 were an employee in the classified service. When an employee in 6134 the unclassified service who is not eligible for step increases is 6135 appointed to a classification in the classified service under 6136 which step increases are provided, future step increases shall be 6137 based on the date on which the employee last received a pay 6138 increase. If the employee has not received an increase during the 6139 previous year, the date of the appointment to the classified 6140 service shall be used to determine the employee's annual step 6141 advancement eligibility date. In reassigning any employee to a 6142 classification resulting in a pay range increase or to a new pay 6143 range as a result of a promotion, an increase pay range 6144 adjustment, or other classification change resulting in a pay 6145 range increase, the director shall assign such employee to the 6146 step in the new pay range that will provide an increase of 6147 approximately four per cent if the new pay range can accommodate 6148 the increase. When an employee is being assigned to a 6149 classification or new pay range as the result of a class plan 6150 change, if the employee has completed a probationary period, the 6151 employee shall be placed in a step no lower than step two of the 6152 new pay range. If the employee has not completed a probationary 6153 period, the employee may be placed in step one of the new pay 6154 range. Such new salary or wage shall become effective on such date 6155 as the director determines. 6156

(F) If employment conditions and the urgency of the work 6157 require such action, the director of administrative services may, 6158 upon the application of a department head, authorize payment at 6159 any rate established within the range for the class of work, for 6160 work of a casual or intermittent nature or on a project basis. 6161 Payment at such rates shall not be made to the same individual for 6162 more than three calendar months in any one calendar year. Any such 6163 action shall be subject to the approval of the director of budget 6164 and management as to the availability of funds. This section and 6165 sections 124.14 and 124.152 of the Revised Code do not repeal any 6166 authority of any department or public official to contract with or 6167 fix the compensation of professional persons who may be employed 6168 temporarily for work of a casual nature or for work on a project 6169 basis. 6170

(G)(1) Except as provided in ~~division~~ divisions (G)(2) and 6171
(3) of this section, each state employee paid in accordance with 6172 schedule B of this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of 6173 the Revised Code shall be eligible for advancement to succeeding 6174 steps in the range for the employee's class or grade according to 6175 the schedule established in this division. Beginning on the first 6176 day of the pay period within which the employee completes the 6177 prescribed probationary period in the employee's classification 6178 with the state, each employee shall receive an automatic salary 6179 adjustment equivalent to the next higher step within the pay range 6180 for the employee's class or grade. 6181

~~Each~~ Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 6182
section, each employee paid in accordance with schedule E-1 of 6183 section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall be eligible to advance 6184 to the next higher step until the employee reaches the top step in 6185 the range for the employee's class or grade, if the employee has 6186 maintained satisfactory performance in accordance with criteria 6187 established by the employee's appointing authority. Those step 6188 advancements shall not occur more frequently than once in any 6189 twelve-month period. 6190

~~When an employee is promoted or reassigned to a higher pay~~ 6191 ~~range, the employee's step indicator shall return to "0" or be~~ 6192 ~~adjusted to account for a probationary period, as appropriate.~~ 6193
When an employee is promoted, the step entry date shall be set to 6194 account for a probationary period. When an employee is reassigned 6195 to a higher pay range, the step entry date shall be set to allow 6196 an employee who is not at the highest step of the range to receive 6197 a step advancement one year from the reassignment date. Step 6198 advancement shall not be affected by demotion. A promoted employee 6199 shall advance to the next higher step of the pay range on the 6200 first day of the pay period in which the required probationary 6201 period is completed. Step advancement shall become effective at 6202 the beginning of the pay period within which the employee attains 6203 the necessary length of service. Time spent on authorized leave of 6204 absence shall be counted for this purpose. 6205

If determined to be in the best interest of the state 6206 service, the director of administrative services may, either 6207 statewide or in selected agencies, adjust the dates on which 6208 annual step advancements are received by employees paid in 6209 accordance with schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 6210
Code. 6211

~~(2)(a)(i) Except as provided in division (G)(2)(a)(ii) of~~ 6212
~~this section, there~~ There shall be a moratorium on annual step 6213 advancements under division (G)(1) of this section ~~from the pay~~ 6214 ~~period beginning June 29, 2003~~ June 21, 2009, through ~~the pay~~ 6215

resume with the pay period beginning ~~June 26, 2005~~ June 21, 2011. 6217 Upon the resumption of step advancements, there shall be no 6218 retroactive step advancements for the period the moratorium was in 6219 effect. The moratorium shall not affect an employee's performance 6220 evaluation schedule. 6221

~~(ii) During the moratorium under division (G)(2)(a)(i) of~~ 6222
~~this section, an employee who is hired or promoted and serves a~~ 6223 ~~probationary period in the employee's new position shall advance~~ 6224
~~to the next step in the employee's pay range upon successful~~ 6225 ~~completion of the employee's probationary period. Thereafter, the~~ 6226
~~employee is subject to the moratorium. An employee who begins a~~ 6227 ~~probationary period before June 21, 2009, shall advance to the~~ 6228
~~next step in the employee's pay range at the end of probation, and~~ 6229
~~then become subject to the moratorium. An employee who is hired,~~ 6230 ~~promoted, or reassigned to a higher pay range between June 21,~~ 6231
~~2009, through June 20, 2011, shall not advance to the next step in~~ 6232
~~the employee's pay range until the next anniversary of the~~ 6233 ~~employee's date of hire, promotion, or reassignment that occurs on~~ 6234
~~or after June 21, 2011.~~ 6235

(b) The moratorium under division (G)(2)(a)(~~i~~) of this 6236 section shall apply to the employees of the secretary of state, 6237 the auditor of state, the treasurer of state, and the attorney 6238 general, who are subject to this section unless the secretary of 6239 state, the auditor of state, the treasurer of state, or the 6240 attorney general decides to exempt the office's employees from the 6241 moratorium and so notifies the director of administrative services 6242 in writing on or before ~~July 1, 2003~~ July 1, 2009. 6243

(3) Employees in intermittent positions shall be employed at 6244
the minimum rate established for the pay range for their 6245 classification and are not eligible for step advancements. 6246

(H) Employees in appointive managerial or professional 6247 positions paid in accordance with schedule C of this section or 6248 schedule E-2 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code may be 6249 appointed at any rate within the appropriate pay range. This rate 6250 of pay may be adjusted higher or lower within the respective pay 6251 range at any time the appointing authority so desires as long as 6252 the adjustment is based on the employee's ability to successfully 6253 administer those duties assigned to the employee. Salary 6254 adjustments shall not be made more frequently than once in any 6255 six-month period under this provision to incumbents holding the 6256 same position and classification. 6257

(I) When an employee is assigned to duty outside this state, 6258 the employee may be compensated, upon request of the department 6259 head and with the approval of the director of administrative 6260 services, at a rate not to exceed fifty per cent in excess of the 6261 employee's current base rate for the period of time spent on that 6262 duty. 6263

(J) Unless compensation for members of a board or commission 6264 is otherwise specifically provided by law, the director of 6265 administrative services shall establish the rate and method of 6266 payment for members of boards and commissions pursuant to the pay 6267 schedules listed in section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 6268

(K) Regular full-time employees in positions assigned to 6269 classes within the instruction and education administration series 6270 under the rules of the director of administrative services, except 6271 certificated employees on the instructional staff of the state 6272 school for the blind or the state school for the deaf, whose 6273 positions are scheduled to work on the basis of an academic year 6274 rather than a full calendar year, shall be paid according to the 6275 pay range assigned by such rules but only during those pay periods 6276 included in the academic year of the school where the employee is 6277 located. 6278

(1) Part-time or substitute teachers or those whose period of 6279 employment is other than the full academic year shall be 6280 compensated for the actual time worked at the rate established by 6281

this section. 6282

(2) Employees governed by this division are exempt from 6283 sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code. 6284

(3) Length of service for the purpose of determining 6285 eligibility for step advancements as provided by division (G) of 6286 this section and for the purpose of determining eligibility for 6287 longevity pay supplements as provided by division (E) of section 6288 124.181 of the Revised Code shall be computed on the basis of one 6289 full year of service for the completion of each academic year. 6290

(L) The superintendent of the state school for the deaf and 6291
the superintendent of the state school for the blind shall, 6292 subject to the approval of the superintendent of public 6293 instruction, carry out both of the following: 6294

(1) Annually, between the first day of April and the last day 6295 of June, establish for the ensuing fiscal year a schedule of 6296 hourly rates for the compensation of each certificated employee on 6297 the instructional staff of that superintendent's respective school 6298 constructed as follows: 6299

(a) Determine for each level of training, experience, and 6300 other professional qualification for which an hourly rate is set 6301 forth in the current schedule, the per cent that rate is of the 6302 rate set forth in such schedule for a teacher with a bachelor's 6303 degree and no experience. If there is more than one such rate for 6304 such a teacher, the lowest rate shall be used to make the 6305 computation. 6306

(b) Determine which six city, local, and exempted village 6307 school districts with territory in Franklin county have in effect 6308 on, or have adopted by, the first day of April for the school year 6309 that begins on the ensuing first day of July, teacher salary 6310 schedules with the highest minimum salaries for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience;

(c) Divide the sum of such six highest minimum salaries by ten thousand five hundred sixty;

(d) Multiply each per cent determined in division (L)(1)(a) of this section by the quotient obtained in division (L)(1)(c) of this section;

(e) One hundred five per cent of each product thus obtained shall be the hourly rate for the corresponding level of training, experience, or other professional qualification in the schedule for the ensuing fiscal year.

(2) Annually, assign each certificated employee on the instructional staff of the superintendent's respective school to an hourly rate on the schedule that is commensurate with the employee's training, experience, and other professional qualifications.

If an employee is employed on the basis of an academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated by multiplying the employee's assigned hourly rate times one thousand seven hundred sixty. If an employee is not employed on the basis of an academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

(a) Multiply the number of days the employee is required to work pursuant to the employee's contract by eight;

(b) Multiply the product of division (L)(2)(a) of this section by the employee's assigned hourly rate.

Each employee shall be paid an annual salary in biweekly installments. The amount of each installment shall be calculated by dividing the employee's annual salary by the number of biweekly installments to be paid during the year.

Sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code do not apply 6341 to an employee who is paid under this division. 6342

As used in this division, "academic year" means the number of 6343 days in each school year that the schools are required to be open 6344 for instruction with pupils in attendance. Upon completing an 6345 academic year, an employee paid under this division shall be 6346 deemed to have completed one year of service. An employee paid 6347 under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under 6348 division (L)(1), (2), or (3) of section 124.181 of the Revised 6349 Code for which the employee qualifies, but is not eligible to 6350 receive a pay supplement under division (L)(4) or (5) of that 6351 section. An employee paid under this division is eligible to 6352 receive a pay supplement under division (L)(6) of section 124.181 6353 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, except that 6354 the supplement is not limited to a maximum of five per cent of the 6355 employee's regular base salary in a calendar year. 6356

(M) Division (A) of this section does not apply to "exempt 6357 employees," as defined in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, who 6358 are paid under that section. 6359

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, when an 6360 employee transfers between bargaining units or transfers out of or 6361 into a bargaining unit, the director of administrative services 6362 shall establish the employee's compensation and adjust the maximum 6363 leave accrual schedule as the director deems equitable. 6364

Sec. 124.152. (A)(1) Except as provided in divisions (A)(2) 6365 accordance with schedule E-1, schedule E-1 for step seven only, or 6372 schedule E-2 of division (B), or (C), ~~(D)~~, ~~(E)~~, ~~(F)~~, ~~or~~ (G) of 6373 this section, as applicable. 6374

~~(H)~~(D) As used in this section, "exempt employee" means a 6660 permanent full-time or permanent part-time employee paid directly 6661 by warrant of the director of budget and management whose position 6662 is included in the job classification plan established under 6663 division (A) of section 124.14 of the Revised Code but who is not 6664 considered a public employee for the purposes of Chapter 4117. of 6665 the Revised Code. As used in this section, "exempt employee" also 6666 includes a permanent full-time or permanent part-time employee of 6667 the secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, or 6668 attorney general who has not been placed in an appropriate 6669 bargaining unit by the state employment relations board. 6670

Sec. 124.18. (A) Forty hours shall be the standard work week 6671 for all employees whose salary or wage is paid in whole or in part 6672 by the state or by any state-supported college or university. When 6673 any employee whose salary or wage is paid in whole or in part by 6674 the state or by any state-supported college or university is 6675 required by an authorized administrative authority to be in an 6676 active pay status more than forty hours in any calendar week, the 6677 employee shall be compensated for such time over forty hours, 6678 except as otherwise provided in this section, at one and one-half 6679 times the employee's regular rate of pay. The use of sick leave or 6680 any leave used in lieu of sick leave shall not be considered to be 6681 active pay status for the purposes of earning overtime or 6682 compensatory time by employees whose wages are paid directly by 6683 warrant of the director of budget and management. A flexible-hours 6684 employee is not entitled to compensation for overtime work unless 6685 the employee's authorized administrative authority required the 6686 employee to be in active pay status for more than forty hours in a 6687 calendar week, regardless of the number of hours the employee 6688 works on any day in the same calendar week. 6689

Such compensation for overtime work shall be paid no later 6690 than at the conclusion of the next succeeding pay period. 6691

If the employee elects to take compensatory time off in lieu 6692 of overtime pay for any overtime worked, such compensatory time 6693 shall be granted by the employee's administrative superior, on a 6694 time and one-half basis, at a time mutually convenient to the 6695 employee and the administrative superior. Compensatory time is not 6696 available for use until it appears on the employee's earning 6697 statement and the compensation described in the earning statement 6698 is available to the employee. 6699

An employee may accrue compensatory time to a maximum of two 6700 hundred forty hours, except that public safety employees and other 6701 employees who meet the criteria established in the "Federal Fair 6702 Labor Standards Act of 1938," 52 Stat. 1060, 29 U.S.C.A. 207, 213, 6703 as amended, may accrue a maximum of four hundred eighty hours of 6704 compensatory time. An employee shall be paid at the employee's 6705 regular rate of pay for any hours of compensatory time accrued in 6706 excess of these maximum amounts if the employee has not used the 6707 compensatory time within ~~one~~ three hundred ~~eighty~~ sixty-five days 6708 after it is granted, if the employee transfers to another agency 6709 of the state, or if a change in the employee's status exempts the 6710 employee from the payment of overtime compensation. Upon the 6711 termination of employment, any employee with accrued but unused 6712 compensatory time shall be paid for that time at a rate that is 6713 the greater of the employee's final regular rate of pay or the 6714 employee's average regular rate of pay during the employee's last 6715 three years of employment with the state. 6716

No overtime, as described in this section, can be paid unless 6717 it has been authorized by the authorized administrative authority. 6718 Employees may be exempted from the payment of compensation as 6719 required by this section only under the criteria for exemption 6720 from the payment of overtime compensation established in the 6721
"Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938," 52 Stat. 1060, 29 6722 U.S.C.A. 207, 213, as amended. With the approval of the director 6723 of administrative services, the appointing authority may establish 6724 a policy to grant compensatory time or to pay compensation to 6725 state employees who are exempt from overtime compensation. With 6726 the approval of the board of county commissioners, a county human 6727 services department may establish a policy to grant compensatory 6728 time or to pay compensation to employees of the department who are 6729 exempt from overtime compensation. 6730

(B)(1) An employee, whose salary or wage is paid in whole or 6731 in part by the state, shall be paid for the holidays declared in 6732 section 124.19 of the Revised Code and shall not be required to 6733 work on those holidays, unless, in the opinion of the employee's 6734 responsible administrative authority, failure to work on those 6735 holidays would impair the public service. ~~An~~ 6736

(2) An employee paid directly by warrant of the director of 6737 budget and management who is scheduled to work on a holiday the 6738 first day of January, the commemoration of memorial day, the 6739 fourth day of July, the fourth Thursday in November, or the 6740 twenty-fifth day of December and who does not report to work the 6741 day before, the day of, or the day after the holiday due to an 6742 illness of the employee or of a member of the employee's immediate 6743 family shall not receive holiday pay as provided by this division, 6744 unless the employee can provide documentation of extenuating 6745 circumstances that prohibited the employee from so reporting to 6746 work. ~~An~~ If the employee works a shift between the employee's 6747 scheduled shift and the holiday, the employee shall be paid for 6748
the holiday. 6749

(3) An employee also shall not be paid for a holiday unless 6750
the employee was in active pay status on the scheduled work day 6751 immediately preceding the holiday, except that an employee need 6752 not be in active pay status on that work day in order to be paid 6753 for the holiday if the employee is participating in a mandatory or 6754 voluntary cost savings day under section 124.392 of the Revised 6755
Code. 6756

~~(2)~~(4) If any of the holidays declared in section 124.19 of 6757

the Revised Code falls on Saturday, the Friday immediately 6758 preceding shall be observed as the holiday. If any of the holidays 6759 declared in section 124.19 of the Revised Code falls on Sunday, 6760
the Monday immediately succeeding shall be observed as the 6761 holiday. Employees whose work schedules are based on the 6762 requirements of a seven-days-a-week work operation shall observe 6763 holidays on the actual days specified in section 124.19 of the 6764
Revised Code. 6765

~~(3)~~(5) If an employee's work schedule is other than Monday 6766 through Friday, the employee shall be entitled to eight hours of 6767 holiday pay for holidays observed on the employee's day off 6768 regardless of the day of the week on which they are observed. 6769

~~(4)~~(6) A full-time permanent employee is entitled to a 6770 minimum of eight hours of pay for each holiday regardless of the 6771 employee's work shift and work schedule. A flexible-hours 6772 employee, who is normally scheduled to work in excess of eight 6773 hours on a day on which a holiday falls, either shall be required 6774 to work an alternate schedule for that week or shall receive 6775 additional holiday pay for the hours the employee is normally 6776 scheduled to work. Such an alternate schedule may require a 6777 flexible-hours employee to work five shifts consisting of eight 6778 hours each during the week including the holiday, and, in that 6779 case, the employee shall receive eight hours of holiday pay for 6780 the day the holiday is observed. 6781

~~(5) Part-time (7) Except as provided under section 124.392 of~~ 6782
~~the Revised Code, part-time permanent employees shall receive four~~ 6783 ~~hours of holiday pay on a pro-rated basis, based upon the daily~~ 6784 ~~average of actual hours worked, excluding overtime hours worked,~~ 6785
~~in the previous calendar quarter. The figure shall be calculated~~ 6786
~~for the preceding calendar quarter on the first day of January,~~ 6787
~~April, July, and October of each year regardless of the employee's~~ 6788 ~~work shift and work schedule.~~ 6789

~~(6)~~(8) When an employee who is eligible for overtime pay 6790 under this section is required by the employee's responsible 6791 administrative authority to work on the day observed as a holiday, 6792 the employee shall be entitled to pay for such time worked at one 6793 and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay in addition 6794 to the employee's regular pay, or to be granted compensatory time 6795 off at time and one-half thereafter, at the employee's option. 6796 Payment at such rate shall be excluded in the calculation of hours 6797 in active pay status. 6798

(C) Each appointing authority may designate the number of 6799 employees in an agency who are flexible-hours employees. The 6800 appointing authority may establish for each flexible-hours 6801 employee a specified minimum number of hours to be worked each day 6802 that is consistent with the "Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 6803 1938," 52 Stat. 1060, 29 U.S.C.A. 207, 213, as amended. 6804

(D) This section shall be uniformly administered for 6805 employees as defined in section 124.01 of the Revised Code and by 6806 the personnel departments of state-supported colleges and 6807 universities for employees of state-supported colleges and 6808 filing, the person shall receive additional credit of twenty per 6944 cent of the person's total grade given in the regular examination 6945

in which the person receives a passing grade. 6946 and "uniformed services" have the same meanings as in the 6948 services shall give reasonable notice of the time, place, and 6979 general scope of every competitive examination for appointment ~~to~~ 6980 ~~a position in the civil service that the director administers for~~ 6981 positions in the service of the state. The director shall send 6982 written, printed, or electronic notices of every examination to be 6983 conducted for positions in the ~~state~~ classified civil service of 6984 the state to each agency of the type the director of job and 6985 family services specifies and, in the case of a county in which no 6986 such agency is located, to the clerk of the court of common pleas 6987 of that county and to the clerk of each city located within that 6988 county. Those notices shall be posted in conspicuous public places 6989 in the designated agencies or the courthouse, and city hall of the 6990 cities, of the counties in which no designated agency is located 6991 for at least two weeks preceding any examination involved, and in 6992 a conspicuous place in the office of the director of 6993 administrative services for at least two weeks preceding any 6994 examination involved. In case of examinations limited by the 6995 director to a district, county, city, or department, the director 6996 shall provide by rule for adequate publicity of an examination in 6997 the district, county, city, or department within which competition 6998 is permitted. 6999

Sec. 124.321. (A) Whenever it becomes necessary for an 7000 appointing authority to reduce its work force, the appointing 7001 authority shall lay off employees or abolish their positions in 7002 accordance with sections 124.321 to 124.327 of the Revised Code 7003 ~~and.~~ If the affected work force is in the service of the state, 7004 the reduction shall also be in compliance with the rules of the 7005 director of administrative services. 7006

(B)(1) Employees may be laid off as a result of a lack of 7007 funds within an appointing authority. For appointing authorities 7008 that employ persons whose salary or wage is paid by warrant of the 7009 director of budget and management, the director of budget and 7010 management shall be responsible for determining, consistent with 7011 the rules adopted under division (B)(3) of this section, whether a 7012 lack of funds exists. For appointing authorities that employ 7013 persons whose salary or wage is paid other than by warrant of the 7014 director of budget and management, the appointing authority itself 7015 shall determine whether a lack of funds exists ~~and shall file a~~ 7016 ~~statement of rationale and supporting documentation with the~~ 7017

~~director of administrative services prior to sending the layoff~~ 7018
~~notice.~~ 7019

(2) As used in this division, a "lack of funds" means an 7020 appointing authority has a current or projected deficiency of 7021 funding to maintain current, or to sustain projected, levels of 7022 staffing and operations. This section does not require any 7023 transfer of money between funds in order to offset a deficiency or 7024 projected deficiency of funding for programs funded by the federal 7025 government, special revenue accounts, or proprietary accounts. 7026 Whenever a program receives funding through a grant or similar 7027 mechanism, a lack of funds shall be presumed for the positions 7028 assigned to and the employees who work under the grant or similar 7029 mechanism if, for any reason, the funding is reduced or withdrawn. 7030

(3) The director of budget and management shall adopt rules, 7032 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, for agencies whose 7033 employees are paid by warrant of the director of budget and 7034 management, for determining whether a lack of funds exists. 7035

(C)(1) Employees may be laid off as a result of lack of work 7036 within an appointing authority. For appointing authorities whose 7037 employees are paid by warrant of the director of budget and 7038
management, the director of administrative services shall 7039 determine, consistent with the rules adopted under division (F) of 7040 this section, whether a lack of work exists. All other appointing authorities shall themselves determine whether a lack of work exists ~~and shall file a statement of rationale and supporting documentation with the director of administrative services prior to sending the layoff notice.~~

(2) As used in this division, a "lack of work" means an appointing authority has a current or projected decrease in workload that requires a reduction of current or projected staffing levels in its organization or structure. The determination of a lack of work shall indicate the current or projected decrease in workload and whether the current or projected staffing levels of the appointing authority will be excessive.

(D)(1) Employees may be laid off as a result of abolishment of positions. As used in this division, "abolishment" means the deletion of a position or positions from the organization or structure of an appointing authority.

For purposes of this division, an appointing authority may abolish positions for any one or any combination of the following reasons: as a result of a reorganization for the efficient operation of the appointing authority, for reasons of economy, or for lack of work.

(2)(a) Reasons of economy permitting an appointing authority to abolish a position and to lay off the holder of that position under this division shall be determined at the time the appointing authority proposes to abolish the position. The reasons of economy shall be based on the appointing authority's estimated amount of savings with respect to salary, benefits, and other matters associated with the abolishment of the position, except that the reasons of economy associated with the position's abolishment instead may be based on the appointing authority's estimated amount of savings with respect to salary and benefits only, if:

(i) Either the appointing authority's operating appropriation 7073 has been reduced by an executive or legislative action, or the 7074 appointing authority has a current or projected deficiency in 7075 funding to maintain current or projected levels of staffing and 7076 operations; and 7077

(ii) In the case of a position in the service of the state, 7078 it files a notice of the position's abolishment with the director 7079 of administrative services within one year of the occurrence of 7080 the applicable circumstance described in division (D)(2)(a)(i) of 7081
this section. 7082

(b) The following principles apply when a circumstance 7083 described in division (D)(2)(a)(i) of this section would serve to 7084 authorize an appointing authority to abolish a position and to lay 7085 off the holder of the position under this division based on the 7086 appointing authority's estimated amount of savings with respect to 7087 salary and benefits only: 7088

(i) The position's abolishment shall be done in good faith 7089 and not as a subterfuge for discipline. 7090

(ii) If a circumstance affects a specific program only, the 7091 appointing authority only may abolish a position within that 7092 program. 7093

(iii) If a circumstance does not affect a specific program 7094 only, the appointing authority may identify a position that it 7095 considers appropriate for abolishment based on the reasons of 7096 economy. 7097

(3) Each appointing authority shall determine itself whether 7098 any position should be abolished. An appointing authority 7099 abolishing any position in the service of the state shall file a 7100
director of administrative services prior to sending the notice of 7102 abolishment. 7103

If an abolishment results in a reduction of the work force, 7104 the appointing authority shall follow the procedures for laying 7105 off employees, subject to the following modifications: 7106

(a) The employee whose position has been abolished shall have 7107 the right to fill an available vacancy within the employee's 7108 classification. 7109

(b) If the employee whose position has been abolished has 7110 more retention points than any other employee serving in the same 7111 classification, the employee with the fewest retention points 7112 shall be displaced. 7113

(c) If the employee whose position has been abolished has the 7114
fewest retention points in the classification, the employee shall 7115 have the right to fill an available vacancy in a lower 7116 classification in the classification series. 7117

(d) If the employee whose position has been abolished has the 7118 fewest retention points in the classification, the employee shall 7119 displace the employee with the fewest retention points in the next 7120 or successively lower classification in the classification series. 7121

(E) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the 7122 displacement procedure described in section 124.324 of the Revised 7123 Code for employees to displace other employees during a layoff, 7124 the director of administrative services or a county appointing 7125 authority may establish a paper lay-off process under which 7126 employees who are to be laid off or displaced may be required, 7127 before the date of their paper layoff, to preselect their options 7128 for displacing other employees. 7129

(F) The director of administrative services shall adopt rules 7130 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for the determination of 7131 lack of work within an appointing authority, for the abolishment 7132 of positions by an appointing authority, and for the 7133 implementation of this section as it relates to positions in the 7134 service of the state. 7135

Sec. 124.324. (A) A laid-off employee has the right to 7136 displace the employee with the fewest retention points in the 7137 following order: 7138

(1) Within the classification and appointment category from 7139 which the employee was laid off; 7140

(2) Within the classification series and appointment category 7141 from which the employee was laid off; 7142

(3) Within the classification and appointment category the 7143 employee held immediately prior to holding the classification from 7144 which the employee was laid off, except that the employee may not 7145 displace employees in a classification if the employee does not 7146 meet the minimum qualifications of the classification or if the 7147 employee last held the classification more than three years prior 7148 to the date on which the employee was laid off. 7149

If, after exercising displacement rights, an employee is 7150 subject to further layoff action, the employee's displacement 7151 rights shall be in accordance with the classification from which 7152 the employee was first laid off. 7153

The director of administrative services shall verify the 7154 calculation of the retention points of all employees in the 7155 service of the state in an affected classification in accordance 7156 with section 124.325 of the Revised Code. 7157

(B) Following the order of layoff as stated in section 7158 124.323 of the Revised Code, an employee laid off in the 7159 classified civil service shall displace another employee within 7160 the same appointing authority or independent institution and 7161 layoff jurisdiction in the following manner: 7162

(1) Each laid-off employee possessing more retention points 7163 shall displace the employee with the fewest retention points in 7164 the next lower classification or successively lower classification 7165 in the same classification series. 7166

(2) Any employee displaced by an employee possessing more 7167 retention points shall displace the employee with the fewest 7168 retention points in the next lower classification or successively 7169 lower classification in the same classification series. This 7170 process shall continue, if necessary, until the employee with the 7171 fewest retention points in the lowest classification of the 7172 classification series of the same appointing authority or 7173 independent institution has been reached and, if necessary, laid 7174 off. 7175

(C) Employees shall notify the appointing authority of their 7176 intention to exercise their displacement rights, within five days 7177 after receiving notice of layoff. This division does not apply if 7178 the director of administrative services has established a paper 7179 lay-off process pursuant to division (E) of section 124.321 of the 7180 Revised Code that includes a different notification requirement 7181 for employees exercising their displacement rights under that 7182 process. 7183

(D) No employee shall displace an employee for whose position 7184 or classification there are certain position-specific minimum 7185 qualifications, as established by the appointing authority and 7186 reviewed for validity by the department of administrative 7187 services, or as established by bona fide occupational 7188 qualification, unless the employee desiring to displace another 7189 employee possesses the requisite position-specific minimum 7190 qualifications for the position or classification. 7191

(E) If an employee exercising displacement rights must 7192 displace an employee in another county within the same layoff 7193 district, the displacement shall not be construed to be a 7194 transfer. 7195

under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for the implementation of 7197 this section as it relates to positions in the service of the 7198
state. 7199

Sec. 124.325. (A) Retention points to reflect the length of 7200 continuous service and efficiency in service for all employees 7201 affected by a layoff shall be verified by the director of 7202 administrative services for positions in the service of the state. 7203

(B) An employee's length of continuous service will be 7204 carried from one layoff jurisdiction to another so long as no 7205 break in service occurs between transfers or appointments. 7206

(C) If two or more employees have an identical number of 7207 retention points, employees having the shortest period of 7208 continuous service shall be laid off first. 7209

(D)(1) As used in this division, "affected employee" means a 7210 city employee who becomes a county employee, or a county employee 7211 who becomes a city employee, as the result of any of the 7212
following: 7213

(a) The merger of a city and a county office; 7214

(b) The merger of city and county functions or duties; 7215

(c) The transfer of functions or duties between a city and 7216 county. 7217

(2) For purposes of this section, the new employer of any 7218 affected employee shall treat the employee's prior service with a 7219 former employer as if it had been served with the new employer. 7220

(E) The director of administrative services shall adopt rules 7221 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to establish a 7222 system for the assignment of retention points for each employee in 7223 the service of the state in a classification affected by a layoff 7224 and for determining, in those instances where employees in the 7225 service of the state have identical retention points, which 7226 employee shall be laid off first. 7227

Sec. 124.34. (A) The tenure of every officer or employee in 7228 the classified service of the state and the counties, civil 7229 service townships, cities, city health districts, general health 7230 districts, and city school districts of the state, holding a 7231 position under this chapter, shall be during good behavior and 7232 efficient service. No officer or employee shall be reduced in pay 7233 or position, fined, suspended, or removed, or have the officer's 7234 or employee's longevity reduced or eliminated, except as provided 7235 in section 124.32 of the Revised Code, and for incompetency, 7236 inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, 7237 insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of 7238 duty, violation of any policy or work rule of the officer's or 7239 employee's appointing authority, violation of this chapter or the 7240 rules of the director of administrative services or the 7241 commission, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of 7242 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office, or conviction 7243 of a felony. The denial of a one-time pay supplement or a bonus to 7244 an officer or employee is not a reduction in pay for purposes of 7245
this section. 7246

This section does not apply to any modifications or 7247 reductions in pay authorized by section 124.392 of the Revised 7248
Code. 7249

An appointing authority may require an employee who is 7250 suspended to report to work to serve the suspension. An employee 7251 serving a suspension in this manner shall continue to be 7252 compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay for hours 7253 worked. The disciplinary action shall be recorded in the 7254 employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary 7255 actions and has the same effect as a suspension without pay for 7256

the purpose of recording disciplinary actions. 7257

A finding by the appropriate ethics commission, based upon a 7258 preponderance of the evidence, that the facts alleged in a 7259 complaint under section 102.06 of the Revised Code constitute a 7260 violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of 7261 the Revised Code may constitute grounds for dismissal. Failure to 7262 file a statement or falsely filing a statement required by section 7263 102.02 of the Revised Code may also constitute grounds for 7264 dismissal. The tenure of an employee in the career professional 7265 service of the department of transportation is subject to section 7266
5501.20 of the Revised Code. 7267

Conviction of a felony is a separate basis for reducing in 7268 pay or position, suspending, or removing an officer or employee, 7269 even if the officer or employee has already been reduced in pay or 7270 position, suspended, or removed for the same conduct that is the 7271 basis of the felony. An officer or employee may not appeal to the 7272 state personnel board of review or the commission any disciplinary 7273 action taken by an appointing authority as a result of the 7274 officer's or employee's conviction of a felony. If an officer or 7275 employee removed under this section is reinstated as a result of 7276 an appeal of the removal, any conviction of a felony that occurs 7277 during the pendency of the appeal is a basis for further 7278 disciplinary action under this section upon the officer's or 7279 employee's reinstatement. 7280

A person convicted of a felony immediately forfeits the 7281 person's status as a classified employee in any public employment 7282 on and after the date of the conviction for the felony. If an 7283 officer or employee is removed under this section as a result of 7284 being convicted of a felony or is subsequently convicted of a 7285 felony that involves the same conduct that was the basis for the 7286 removal, the officer or employee is barred from receiving any 7287 compensation after the removal notwithstanding any modification or 7288 disaffirmance of the removal, unless the conviction for the felony 7289 is subsequently reversed or annulled. 7290

Any person removed for conviction of a felony is entitled to 7291 a cash payment for any accrued but unused sick, personal, and 7292 vacation leave as authorized by law. If subsequently reemployed in 7293 the public sector, the person shall qualify for and accrue these 7294 forms of leave in the manner specified by law for a newly 7295 appointed employee and shall not be credited with prior public 7296 service for the purpose of receiving these forms of leave. 7297

section 2901.01 of the Revised Code; 7301

(2) A felony that is a felony drug abuse offense as defined 7302 in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code; 7303

(3) A felony under the laws of this or any other state or the 7304
United States that is a crime of moral turpitude; 7305

(4) A felony involving dishonesty, fraud, or theft; 7306

(B) In case of a reduction, a suspension of more than forty 7309 ~~or more~~ work hours in the case of an employee exempt from the 7310 payment of overtime compensation, a suspension of more than 7311 to be paid overtime compensation, a fine of more than forty ~~or~~ 7313 ~~more~~ hours' pay in the case of an employee exempt from the payment 7314 of overtime compensation, a fine of more than twenty-four ~~or more~~ 7315 compensation, or removal, except for the reduction or removal of a 7317 probationary employee, the appointing authority shall serve the 7318 employee with a copy of the order of reduction, fine, suspension, 7319 or removal, which order shall state the reasons for the action. 7320

Within ten days following the date on which the order is 7322 served or, in the case of an employee in the career professional 7323 service of the department of transportation, within ten days 7324 following the filing of a removal order, the employee, except as 7325 otherwise provided in this section, may file an appeal of the 7326 order in writing with the state personnel board of review or the 7327 commission. For purposes of this section, the date on which an 7328 order is served is the date of hand delivery of the order or the 7329 date of delivery of the order by certified United States mail, 7330 whichever occurs first. If an appeal is filed, the board or 7331 commission shall forthwith notify the appointing authority and 7332 shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within 7333 thirty days from and after its filing with the board or 7334 commission. The board, commission, or trial board may affirm, 7335 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. 7336 However, in an appeal of a removal order based upon a violation of 7337 a last chance agreement, the board, commission, or trial board may 7338 only determine if the employee violated the agreement and thus 7339 affirm or disaffirm the judgment of the appointing authority. 7340

In cases of removal or reduction in pay for disciplinary 7341 reasons, either the appointing authority or the officer or 7342 employee may appeal from the decision of the state personnel board 7343 of review or the commission, and any such appeal shall be to the 7344 court of common pleas of the county in which the appointing 7345 authority is located, or to the court of common pleas of Franklin 7346 county, as provided by section 119.12 of the Revised Code. 7347

(C) In the case of the suspension for any period of time, or 7348 a fine, demotion, or removal, of a chief of police, a chief of a 7349 fire department, or any member of the police or fire department of 7350 a city or civil service township, who is in the classified civil 7351 service, the appointing authority shall furnish the chief or 7352 member with a copy of the order of suspension, fine, demotion, or 7353 removal, which order shall state the reasons for the action. The 7354 order shall be filed with the municipal or civil service township 7355 civil service commission. Within ten days following the filing of 7356 the order, the chief or member may file an appeal, in writing, 7357 with the commission. If an appeal is filed, the commission shall 7358 forthwith notify the appointing authority and shall hear, or 7359 appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within thirty days from 7360 and after its filing with the commission, and it may affirm, 7361 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. An 7362 appeal on questions of law and fact may be had from the decision 7363 of the commission to the court of common pleas in the county in 7364 which the city or civil service township is situated. The appeal 7365 shall be taken within thirty days from the finding of the 7366

commission. 7367

(D) A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 7368 Revised Code is grounds for termination of employment of a 7369 nonteaching employee under this section. 7370

(E) As used in this section, "last chance agreement" means an 7371 agreement signed by both an appointing authority and an officer or 7372 employee of the appointing authority that describes the type of 7373 behavior or circumstances that, if it occurs, will automatically 7374 lead to removal of the officer or employee without the right of 7375 appeal to the state personnel board of review or the appropriate 7376 commission. 7377

Sec. 124.381. Each (A)(1) Each employee paid in accordance 7378 employee shall receive the retirement benefit and a supplement 7600 payment that equals a percentage of the employee's base rate of 7601 pay and that, when added to the retirement benefit, equals no more 7602 than the percentage of pay received by employees after the first 7603 six months of disability. This supplemental payment shall not be 7604 director, upon recommendation by the appointing authority. The 7648 director may delegate to any appointing authority the authority to 7649

the employee's earning statement and the compensation described in 7682
the earning statement is available to the employee. 7683

There shall be a moratorium on personal leave accrual 7684

December 2009. Personal leave accrual shall resume with employees 7686 receiving credit in December 2011 and there shall be no 7687 retroactive grant of credit for the period the moratorium was in 7688 effect. 7689

(B) When personal leave is used, it shall be deducted from 7690 the unused balance of the employee's personal leave on the basis 7691 of absence in such increments of an hour as the director of 7692 administrative services determines. Compensation for personal 7693 leave shall be equal to the employee's base rate of pay. 7694

(C) A newly appointed full-time permanent employee or a 7695 ~~nonfull-time~~ non-full-time employee who receives a full-time 7696 permanent appointment shall be credited with personal leave of 7697 thirty-two hours, less one and two-tenths hours for each pay 7698 period that has elapsed following the first paycheck the employee 7699 receives in December, until the first day of the pay period during 7700 which the appointment was effective. 7701

(D) The director of administrative services shall allow 7702 employees to elect one of the following options with respect to 7703 the unused balance of personal leave: 7704

(1) Carry forward the balance. The maximum credit that shall 7705 be available to an employee at any one time is forty hours. 7706 in the manner provided by section 124.382 of the Revised Code; 7708

(3) Receive a cash benefit. The cash benefit shall equal one 7709 hour of the employee's base rate of pay for every hour of unused 7710 credit that is converted. An employee serving in a temporary work 7711 level who elects to convert unused personal leave to cash shall do 7712 so at the base rate of pay of the employee's normal 7713 classification. Such cash benefit shall not be subject to 7714 contributions to any of the retirement systems, either by the 7715

There shall be a moratorium on the payment for conversion of 7717 unused personal leave until December 2011. 7718

(E) A full-time permanent employee who separates from state 7719 service or becomes ineligible to be credited with leave under this 7720 section shall receive a reduction of personal leave credit of one 7721 and two-tenths hours for each pay period that remains beginning 7722 with the first pay period following the date of separation or the 7723 effective date of the employee's ineligibility until the pay 7724 period preceding the next base pay period. After calculation of 7725 the reduction of an employee's personal leave credit, the employee 7726 is entitled to compensation for any remaining personal leave 7727 credit at the employee's current base rate of pay. If the 7728 reduction results in a number of hours less than zero, the cash 7729 equivalent value of such number of hours shall be deducted from 7730 any compensation that remains payable to the employee, or from the 7731 cash conversion value of any vacation or sick leave that remains 7732 credited to the employee. An employee serving in a temporary work 7733 level who is eligible to receive compensation under this section 7734 shall be compensated at the base rate of pay of the employee's 7735 normal classification. 7736

(F) An employee who transfers from one public agency to 7737 another public agency in which the employee is eligible for the 7738 credit provided under this section shall be credited with the 7739 state, treasurer of state, or attorney general decides to exempt 7749

the office's employees from the moratoria and so notifies the 7750 the employee shall be reclassified as insured again as an active 7856 employees of this state or any political subdivision for the 7871 purpose of providing for self-insurance of all risk in the 7872 method specific fringe benefits as authorized by the rules of the 7876 board of trustees of the jointly administered trust fund. Amounts 7877 from the fund may be used to pay direct and indirect costs that 7878 costs that are attributable to consultants or a third-party 7904 administrator and that are necessary to administer this section. 7905 the employee educational development fund, to be used to pay the 7928 of administrative services shall establish, and shall obtain the 7932 approval of the director of budget and management for, a charge 7933 for each such program that is sufficient only to recover those 7934

(B) of this section, if no bid is submitted by a minority business 7979 enterprise, the purchase shall be made according to usual 7980 procedures. The contracting agency shall from time to time set 7981 aside such additional purchases for which only minority business 7982 enterprises may compete, as are necessary to replace those 7983 purchases previously set aside for which no minority business 7984 enterprises bid and to ensure that, in any fiscal year, the 7985 aggregate amount of contracts awarded to minority business 7986 enterprises will equal approximately fifteen per cent of the total 7987

The findings and certification of the superintendent shall be 8631 that corrections to permanent improvements are necessary to remove 8660 or prevent health or safety hazards. 8661

(b) Existing fiscal and net indebtedness limitations make 8662 district pursuant to section 133.18 of the Revised Code the 8666

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 8707 of money the district would spend on such installations, 8708 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 8709 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 8710 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 8711 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 8712 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 8713 modification of installations or the remodeling of buildings for 8714 the purpose of significantly reducing energy consumption. 8715

If the commission determines that the board's findings are 8716 reasonable, it shall approve the board's request. Upon receipt of 8717 the commission's approval, the district may issue securities 8718 without a vote of the electors in a principal amount not to exceed 8719 nine-tenths of one per cent of its tax valuation for the purpose 8720 costs of buildings in which installations or modifications have 8729 been made or remodeling has been done pursuant to division (G) of 8730 this section and shall maintain and annually update a report 8731 documenting the reductions in energy consumption and resultant 8732 operational and maintenance cost savings attributable to such 8733 installations, modifications, or remodeling. The report shall be 8734 certified by an architect or engineer independent of any person 8735 that provided goods or services to the board in connection with 8736 the energy conservation measures that are the subject of the 8737 report. The resultant operational and maintenance cost savings 8738 shall be certified by the school district treasurer. The report 8739 shall be made available to the commission upon request. 8740

(H) With the consent of the superintendent of public 8741 instruction, a school district may incur without a vote of the 8742 electors net indebtedness that exceeds the amounts stated in 8743

the debt charges on the securities issued to evidence that 8756 authority of the district confirms the fiscal officer's estimate, 8758 which confirmation is approved by the superintendent of public 8759 instruction; 8760

(2) The fiscal officer of the school district certifies, and 8761 the taxing authority of the district confirms, that the district, 8762 at the time of the certification and confirmation, reasonably 8763 including the cost of items designated by the Ohio school 8777 facilities commission as required locally funded initiatives and 8778 the cost for site acquisition. The school facilities commission 8779 shall notify the superintendent of public instruction whenever a 8780 school district will exceed either limit pursuant to this 8781 division. 8782

(J) A school district whose portion of the basic project cost 8783 of its classroom facilities project under sections 3318.01 to 8784

section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 9568

(8) "Information pertaining to the recreational activities of 9569 a person under the age of eighteen" means information that is kept 9570 pertains to the recreational activities of a person under the age 9572 of eighteen years, and that discloses any of the following: 9573

(12) "Designee" and "elected official" have the same meanings 9595
as in section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 9596

(B)(1) Upon request and subject to division (B)(8) of this 9597 section, all public records responsive to the request shall be 9598 promptly prepared and made available for inspection to any person 9599 at all reasonable times during regular business hours. Subject to 9600 division (B)(8) of this section, upon request, a public office or 9601 person responsible for public records shall make copies of the 9602 requested public record available at cost and within a reasonable 9603 period of time. If a public record contains information that is 9604 exempt from the duty to permit public inspection or to copy the 9605 public record, the public office or the person responsible for the 9606 public record shall make available all of the information within 9607 the public record that is not exempt. When making that public 9608 record available for public inspection or copying that public 9609 record, the public office or the person responsible for the public 9610 record shall notify the requester of any redaction or make the 9611 redaction plainly visible. A redaction shall be deemed a denial of 9612 a request to inspect or copy the redacted information, except if 9613 federal or state law authorizes or requires a public office to 9614 make the redaction. 9615

(2) To facilitate broader access to public records, a public 9616 office or the person responsible for public records shall organize 9617 and maintain public records in a manner that they can be made 9618 available for inspection or copying in accordance with division 9619 (B) of this section. A public office also shall have available a 9620 copy of its current records retention schedule at a location 9621 readily available to the public. If a requester makes an ambiguous 9622 or overly broad request or has difficulty in making a request for 9623 copies or inspection of public records under this section such 9624 that the public office or the person responsible for the requested 9625 public record cannot reasonably identify what public records are 9626 being requested, the public office or the person responsible for 9627 the requested public record may deny the request but shall provide 9628 the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by 9629 informing the requester of the manner in which records are 9630 maintained by the public office and accessed in the ordinary 9631 course of the public office's or person's duties. 9632

(3) If a request is ultimately denied, in part or in whole, 9633 the public office or the person responsible for the requested 9634 public record shall provide the requester with an explanation, 9635 including legal authority, setting forth why the request was 9636 denied. If the initial request was provided in writing, the 9637 explanation also shall be provided to the requester in writing. 9638
The explanation shall not preclude the public office or the person 9639 responsible for the requested public record from relying upon 9640 additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action 9641 commenced under division (C) of this section. 9642

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 9643 federal law or in accordance with division (B) of this section, no 9644 public office or person responsible for public records may limit 9645 or condition the availability of public records by requiring 9646 disclosure of the requester's identity or the intended use of the 9647 requested public record. Any requirement that the requester 9648 disclose the requestor's identity or the intended use of the 9649 requested public record constitutes a denial of the request. 9650

(5) A public office or person responsible for public records 9651 may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may ask for 9652 the requester's identity, and may inquire about the intended use 9653 of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing 9654 to the requester that a written request is not mandatory and that 9655 the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or 9656 the intended use and when a written request or disclosure of the 9657 identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing 9658 the ability of the public office or person responsible for public 9659 records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought 9660 by the requester. 9661

(6) If any person chooses to obtain a copy of a public record 9662 in accordance with division (B) of this section, the public office 9663 or person responsible for the public record may require that 9664 person to pay in advance the cost involved in providing the copy 9665 of the public record in accordance with the choice made by the 9666 person seeking the copy under this division. The public office or 9667 the person responsible for the public record shall permit that 9668 person to choose to have the public record duplicated upon paper, 9669 upon the same medium upon which the public office or person 9670 responsible for the public record keeps it, or upon any other 9671 medium upon which the public office or person responsible for the 9672 public record determines that it reasonably can be duplicated as 9673 an integral part of the normal operations of the public office or 9674 person responsible for the public record. When the person seeking 9675 the copy makes a choice under this division, the public office or 9676 person responsible for the public record shall provide a copy of 9677 it in accordance with the choice made by the person seeking the 9678 copy. Nothing in this section requires a public office or person 9679 responsible for the public record to allow the person seeking a 9680 copy of the public record to make the copies of the public record. 9681

(7) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) of 9682 this section and subject to division (B)(6) of this section, a 9683 public office or person responsible for public records shall 9684 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United States 9685 mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission within a 9686 reasonable period of time after receiving the request for the 9687 copy. The public office or person responsible for the public 9688 record may require the person making the request to pay in advance 9689 the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by United States 9690 mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is transmitted other than 9691 by United States mail, and to pay in advance the costs incurred 9692 for other supplies used in the mailing, delivery, or transmission. 9693

Any public office may adopt a policy and procedures that it 9694 will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period of time 9695 after receiving a request, copies of public records by United 9696 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 9697 pursuant to this division. A public office that adopts a policy 9698 and procedures under this division shall comply with them in 9699 performing its duties under this division. 9700

In any policy and procedures adopted under this division, a 9701 public office may limit the number of records requested by a 9702 person that the office will transmit by United States mail to ten 9703 per month, unless the person certifies to the office in writing 9704 that the person does not intend to use or forward the requested 9705 records, or the information contained in them, for commercial 9706 purposes. For purposes of this division, "commercial" shall be 9707 narrowly construed and does not include reporting or gathering 9708 news, reporting or gathering information to assist citizen 9709 oversight or understanding of the operation or activities of 9710 government, or nonprofit educational research. 9711

(8) A public office or person responsible for public records 9712 is not required to permit a person who is incarcerated pursuant to 9713 a criminal conviction or a juvenile adjudication to inspect or to 9714 obtain a copy of any public record concerning a criminal 9715 investigation or prosecution or concerning what would be a 9716 criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 9717 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request to 9718 inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose of 9719 acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 9720 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 9721 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 9722 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought in 9723 the public record is necessary to support what appears to be a 9724 justiciable claim of the person. 9725

(9) Upon written request made and signed by a journalist on 9726 or after December 16, 1999, a public office, or person responsible 9727 for public records, having custody of the records of the agency 9728 employing a specified peace officer, parole officer, prosecuting 9729 attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, correctional employee, 9730 youth services employee, firefighter, or EMT shall disclose to the 9731 journalist the address of the actual personal residence of the 9732 peace officer, parole officer, prosecuting attorney, assistant 9733 prosecuting attorney, correctional employee, youth services 9734 employee, firefighter, or EMT and, if the peace officer's, parole 9735 officer's, prosecuting attorney's, assistant prosecuting 9736 attorney's, correctional employee's, youth services employee's, 9737 firefighter's, or EMT's spouse, former spouse, or child is 9738 employed by a public office, the name and address of the employer 9739 of the peace officer's, parole officer's, prosecuting attorney's, 9740 assistant prosecuting attorney's, correctional employee's, youth 9741 services employee's, firefighter's, or EMT's spouse, former 9742 spouse, or child. The request shall include the journalist's name 9743 and title and the name and address of the journalist's employer 9744 and shall state that disclosure of the information sought would be 9745 in the public interest. 9746

As used in this division, "journalist" means a person engaged 9747 in, connected with, or employed by any news medium, including a 9748 newspaper, magazine, press association, news agency, or wire 9749 service, a radio or television station, or a similar medium, for 9750 the purpose of gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, 9751 editing, or disseminating information for the general public. 9752

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure of a 9753 public office or the person responsible for public records to 9754 promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to the 9755 person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of this 9756 section or by any other failure of a public office or the person 9757 responsible for public records to comply with an obligation in 9758 accordance with division (B) of this section, the person allegedly 9759 aggrieved may commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 9760 orders the public office or the person responsible for the public 9761 record to comply with division (B) of this section, that awards 9762 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person that 9763 instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that includes 9764 an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(1) of this 9765 section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the court of 9766 common pleas of the county in which division (B) of this section 9767 allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme court pursuant to 9768 its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of Article IV, Ohio 9769 Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate 9770 district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not 9771 complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 9772
3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 9773

If a requestor transmits a written request by hand delivery 9774 or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any public 9775 record in a manner that fairly describes the public record or 9776 class of public records to the public office or person responsible 9777 for the requested public records, except as otherwise provided in 9778 this section, the requestor shall be entitled to recover the 9779 amount of statutory damages set forth in this division if a court 9780 determines that the public office or the person responsible for 9781 public records failed to comply with an obligation in accordance 9782 with division (B) of this section. 9783

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 9784 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 9785 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 9786 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 9787 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 9788 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 9789 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 9790 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 9791 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 9792 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 9793 damages shall be in addition to all other remedies authorized by 9794
this section. 9795

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 9796 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 9797
following: 9798

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 9799 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 9800 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 9801
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 9802 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 9803 this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 9804
well-informed public office or person responsible for the 9805
requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 9806
or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 9807 for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 9808 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 9809
section; 9810

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 9811 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 9812 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 9813 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 9814 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 9815 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 9816

(2)(a) If the court issues a writ of mandamus that orders the 9817 public office or the person responsible for the public record to 9818 comply with division (B) of this section and determines that the 9819 circumstances described in division (C)(1) of this section exist, 9820 the court shall determine and award to the relator all court 9821 costs. 9822

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 9823 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 9824 with division (B) of this section, the court may award reasonable 9825 attorney's fees subject to reduction as described in division 9826 (C)(2)(c) of this section. The court shall award reasonable 9827 attorney's fees, subject to reduction as described in division 9828
(C)(2)(c) of this section when either of the following applies: 9829

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 9830 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 9831 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 9832 under division (B) of this section. 9833

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 9834 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 9835 receive copies of the public records requested within a specified 9836 period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that 9837 specified period of time. 9838

(c) Court costs and reasonable attorney's fees awarded under 9839 this section shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 9840 Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred 9841 to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and 9842 to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. The court may 9843 reduce an award of attorney's fees to the relator or not award 9844 attorney's fees to the relator if the court determines both of the 9845

following: 9846

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 9847
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 9850
to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 9851
for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 9856 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 9857
section; 9858

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 9859
for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 9860
responsible for the requested public records as described in 9862 division (C)(2)(c)(i) of this section would serve the public 9863 policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting 9864 that conduct or threatened conduct. 9865

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 9866 provisions of this section. 9867

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 9868 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 9869 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 9870 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 9871 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 9872 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public records 9873 policy in compliance with this section for responding to public 9874 records requests. In adopting a public records policy under this 9875 division, a public office may obtain guidance from the model 9876 public records policy developed and provided to the public office 9877

by the attorney general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 9878 Except as otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not 9879 limit the number of public records that the public office will 9880 make available to a single person, may not limit the number of 9881 public records that it will make available during a fixed period 9882 of time, and may not establish a fixed period of time before it 9883 will respond to a request for inspection or copying of public 9884 records, unless that period is less than eight hours. 9885

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 9886 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of this 9887 section to the employee of the public office who is the records 9888 custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of the 9889 records of that office. The public office shall require that 9890 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public records 9891 policy. The public office shall create a poster that describes its 9892 public records policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous 9893 place in the public office and in all locations where the public 9894 office has branch offices. The public office may post its public 9895 records policy on the internet web site of the public office if 9896 the public office maintains an internet web site. A public office 9897 that has established a manual or handbook of its general policies 9898 and procedures for all employees of the public office shall 9899 include the public records policy of the public office in the 9900 manual or handbook. 9901

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant 9902 to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number 9903 of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person 9904 for the same records or for updated records during a calendar 9905 year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for 9906 bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of 9907 the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The 9908 bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the 9909 release of which is prohibited by law. 9910

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section: 9911

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 9912 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 9913 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 9914 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual costs 9915 paid to private contractors for copying services. 9916

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 9917 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 9918 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 9919 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 9920 class of records, or data base by a person who intends to use or 9921 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 9922 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 9923 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 9924 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 9925 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 9926 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 9927

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 9928 as well as established Ohio-based business enterprises developing 10002 new methods or technologies, including the promotion of research 10003 and development purposes, thereby increasing employment, creating 10004 additional wealth, and otherwise benefiting the economic welfare 10005 of the people of this state. Accordingly, it is the intention of 10006 the general assembly that the program fund make its investments in 10007 support of Ohio-based business enterprises and that the Ohio 10008 venture capital authority focus its investment policy principally 10009 on venture capital funds investing in such Ohio-based business 10010 enterprises. The general assembly finds and determines that this 10011 chapter and the investment policy, and actions taken under and 10012 consistent therewith, will promote and implement the public 10013 purposes of Section 2p of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution. 10014

Sec. 150.02. (A) There is hereby created the Ohio venture 10015 capital authority, which shall exercise the powers and perform the 10016 duties prescribed by this chapter. The exercise by the authority 10017 of its powers and duties is hereby declared to be an essential 10018 state governmental function. The authority is subject to all laws 10019 generally applicable to state agencies and public officials, 10020 including, but not limited to, Chapter 119. and sections 121.22 10021 and 149.43 of the Revised Code, to the extent those laws do not 10022 conflict with this chapter. 10023

(B) The authority shall consist of nine members. Seven of the 10024 members shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and 10025 consent of the senate, from among the general public. All 10026 appointed members shall have experience in the field of banking, 10027 investments, commercial law, or industry relevant to the purpose 10028 of the Ohio venture capital program as stated in section 150.01 of 10029 the Revised Code. The director of development and tax commissioner 10030 or their designees shall be ex officio, nonvoting members. 10031

Initial gubernatorial appointees to the authority shall serve 10032 staggered terms, with one term expiring on January 31, 2004, two 10033 terms expiring on January 31, 2005, two terms expiring on January 10034 31, 2006, and two terms expiring on January 31, 2007. Thereafter, 10035 terms of office for all appointees shall be for four years, with 10036 each term ending on the same day of the same month as did the term 10037 that it succeeds. A vacancy on the authority shall be filled in 10038 the same manner as the original appointment, except that a person 10039 appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed to the remainder of 10040 the unexpired term. Any appointed member of the authority is 10041 eligible for reappointment. 10042

A member of the authority may be removed by the member's 10043 appointing authority for misfeasance, malfeasance, willful neglect 10044 of duty, or other cause, after notice and a public hearing, unless 10045 the notice and hearing are waived in writing by the member. 10046

(C) Members of the authority shall serve without 10047 compensation, but shall receive their reasonable and necessary 10048 expenses incurred in the conduct of authority business. The 10049 governor shall designate a member of the authority to serve as 10050 chairperson. A majority of the voting members of the authority 10051 constitutes a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of 10052 the voting members present is necessary for any action taken by 10053 the authority. A vacancy in the voting membership of the authority 10054 does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and 10055 perform all duties of the authority. 10056

(D) The department of development shall provide the authority 10057 with office space and such technical assistance as the authority 10058 requires. 10059

(E) The authority and an issuer may cooperate in promoting 10060 the public purposes of the Ohio venture capital program as stated 10061 in section 150.01 of the Revised Code and shall enter into such 10062 agreements as the authority and the issuer shall deem appropriate, 10063 with a view to cooperative action and safeguarding of the 10064 respective interests of the parties thereto. Any agreement shall 10065 provide for the rights, duties, and responsibilities of the 10066 parties and any limitations thereon, shall provide for the terms 10067 on which any tax credits to be issued to the issuer or a trustee 10068 pursuant to section 150.07 of the Revised Code shall be issued and 10069 claimed, and shall provide terms as may be mutually satisfactory 10070 to the parties including, but not limited to, requirements for 10071 reporting, and a plan, prepared by the program administrator and 10072 acceptable to the authority and the issuer, designed to evidence 10073 and ensure compliance with division (D) of section 150.03 of the 10074 Revised Code and Section 2p of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution. 10075

~~this section~~ April 9, 2003, the authority shall establish, and 10077 subsequently may modify as it considers necessary, a written 10078 investment policy governing the investment of money from the 10079 program fund, which is hereby created. The program fund shall 10080 consist of the proceeds of loans acquired by a program 10081 its investment authority in Ohio-based venture capital funds. 10099 invested by the venture capital fund in Ohio-based business 10103 enterprises; 10104

(2) That one hundred per cent of program fund money invested 10105 co-investment fund in Ohio-based business enterprises; and 10107

(3) That, commencing with the first program fund investment 10108 in each venture capital fund, the aggregate amount invested in 10109 which the program fund has invested is not less than the aggregate 10111 amount of all program fund money invested in those venture capital 10112 funds. 10113

(E) It specifies that a program administrator or fund manager 10114 employed by the program administrator shall not invest money from 10115 the program fund in a venture capital fund to the extent that the 10116 total amount of program fund money invested in the venture capital 10117 fund, ~~when combined with any program fund money invested in a~~ 10118 ~~venture capital fund under the same management as that venture~~ 10119

United States, and ensure the safety and soundness of investments 10165

Sec. 150.04. (A) The investment policy established or 10172 modified under section 150.03 of the Revised Code shall specify 10173 the terms and conditions under which the authority may grant tax 10174 of the authority to continue fulfilling the purpose of this 10184 chapter as stated in section 150.01 of the Revised Code; and then 10185

(2) The granting of tax credits pursuant to section 150.07 of 10186 consistent with an agreement between the authority and the issuer 10190 entered into under division (E) of section 150.02 of the Revised 10191

Sec. 150.05. (A) The authority shall select, as program 10193 the program fund as prescribed in the investment policy 10196 presence in this state, and must be capitalized in accordance with 10208 any state and federal laws applicable to the issuance or sale of 10209 securities. 10210

The authority shall select program administrators only after 10211 this section. The authority shall publish a notice of a request 10213 for proposals in newspapers of general circulation in this state 10214 once each week for two consecutive weeks before a date specified 10215 reference into the request for proposals, provided that the 10236 request specifies where such documents may be obtained and such 10237 documents are readily available to all interested parties. 10238

After the date specified for receiving proposals, the 10239 authority shall evaluate submitted proposals. The authority may 10240 discuss a respondent's proposal with that respondent to clarify or 10241 revise a proposal or the terms of the agreement. 10242

The authority shall choose for review proposals from at least 10243 the authority. If three or fewer proposals are submitted, the 10246 authority shall review each proposal. The authority may cancel a 10247 request for proposals at any time before entering into an 10248 agreement with a respondent. The authority shall provide 10249 respondents fair and equal opportunity for such discussions. The 10250 authority may terminate discussions with any respondent upon 10251 written notice to the respondent. 10252

(B) After reviewing the chosen proposals, the authority may 10253 select not more than two such respondents and enter into a written 10254 administrator, does not exceed twenty million dollars; 10264

(2) Require investment by the program administrator or the 10265 fund manager employed by the program administrator to be in 10266 compliance with the investment policy established or modified in 10267 accordance with sections 150.03 and 150.04 of the Revised Code 10268 that is in effect at the time the investment is made, and prohibit 10269 the program administrator or fund manager from engaging in any 10270 investment activities other than activities to carry out that 10271 policy; 10272

(3) Require periodic financial reporting by the program 10273 administrator to the authority, which reporting shall include an 10274 annual audit by an independent auditor and such other financial 10275 reporting as is specified in the agreement or otherwise required 10276 by the authority for the purpose of ensuring that the program 10277 administrator is carrying out the investment policy; 10278

(4) Specify any like standards or general limitations in 10279 addition to or in furtherance of investment standards or 10280 limitations that apply pursuant to division (H) of section 150.03 10281

(5) Require the program administrator to apply program fund 10283 revenue first to the payment of principal borrowed by the program 10284 administrator for investment under the program, then to interest 10285 related to that principal, and then to amounts necessary to cover 10286 the program administrator's pro rata share required under division 10287 (B)(9) of this section; and require the program administrator to 10288 pay the authority not less than ninety per cent of the amount by 10289 which program fund revenue attributable to investments under the 10290 program administrator's investment authority exceeds amounts so 10291 applied; 10292

(6) Specify the procedures by which the program administrator 10293 shall certify immediately to the authority the necessity for the 10294 authority to issue tax credit certificates pursuant to contracts 10295 entered into under section 150.07 of the Revised Code; 10296

(7) Specify any general limitations regarding the employment 10297 of a fund manager by the program administrator, in addition to an 10298 express limitation that the fund manager be a person with 10299 demonstrated, substantial, successful experience in the design and 10300 capital formation. The fund manager may be, but need not be, an 10302 equity owner or affiliate of the program administrator. 10303 authority or the program administrator may terminate the 10305 agreement, including in the circumstance that the program 10306 administrator or fund manager violates the investment policy; 10307

(9) Require the program administrator or fund manager 10308 employed by the program administrator to provide capital in the 10309 form of a loan equal to one per cent of the amount of outstanding 10310 loans by lenders to the program fund. The loan from the program 10311 administrator or fund manager shall be on the same terms and 10312 conditions as loans from other lenders, except that the loan from 10313 the program administrator or fund manager shall not be secured by 10314 the Ohio venture capital fund or tax credits available to other 10315 lenders under division (B) of section 150.04 of the Revised Code. 10316 Such capital shall be placed at the same risk as the proceeds from 10317 such loans. The program administrator shall receive a pro rata 10318 share of the net income, including net loss, from the investment 10319 of money from the program fund, but is not entitled to the 10320 security against losses provided under section 150.04 of the 10321

Sec. 150.051. (A) As used in this section: 10323 physical delivery thereof or further act, and the lien of any such 10615 pledge is valid and binding against all parties having claims of 10616 any kind against the authority, irrespective of whether those 10617 parties have notice thereof, and creates a perfected security 10618 and the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to the purposes 10626 obligations authorized by Chapter 152. of the Revised Code, the 10630

net proceeds of which are to be applied to the costs of capital facilities, and to any trustee therefor, for the further securing of the payment of the bond service charges, and all or any rights under any agreement or lease made under this section may be assigned for such purpose. Obligations may be issued at one time or from time to time, and each issue shall be dated, shall mature at such time or times as determined by the authority not exceeding forty years from the date of issue, and may be redeemable before maturity at the option of the authority at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as are fixed by the authority prior to the issuance of the obligations. In case any officer who has signed any obligations, or caused the officer's facsimile signature to be affixed thereto, ceases to be such officer before such obligations have been delivered, such obligations may, nevertheless, be issued and delivered as though the person who had signed the obligations or caused the person's facsimile signature to be affixed thereto had not ceased to be such officer.

Any obligations may be executed on behalf of the authority by an officer who, on the date of execution, is the proper officer although on the date of such obligations such person was not the proper officer. 10663

(D) All obligations issued by the authority shall have all 10664 the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments and may be 10665 issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the authority 10666 determines. Provision may be made for the registration of any 10667 obligations with coupons attached thereto as to principal alone or 10668 as to both principal and interest, their exchange for obligations 10669 so registered, and for the conversion or reconversion into 10670 obligations with coupons attached thereto of any obligations 10671 registered as to both principal and interest, and for reasonable 10672 charges for such registration, exchange, conversion, and 10673 reconversion. The authority may sell its obligations in any manner 10674 and for such prices as it determines, except that the authority 10675 shall sell obligations sold at public or private sale in 10676 accordance with section 152.091 of the Revised Code. 10677

(E) The obligations of the authority, principal, interest, 10678 and any proceeds from their sale or transfer, are exempt from all 10679 taxation within this state. 10680 and other obligations under Section 2i of Article VIII, Ohio 10682 Constitution, for the purpose of paying the cost of capital 10683 payment of bond service charges and after any deposit of all or 10702 such lesser portion as the authority may direct of the premium 10703 received upon the sale of those obligations for the payment of the 10704 bond service charges, to be applied to the cost of community or 10705 technical college capital facilities, provided that the issuance 10706 of such obligations is subject to the execution of a written 10707 agreement in accordance with division (C) of section 3333.90 of 10708 the Revised Code for the withholding and depositing of funds 10709 otherwise due the district, or the college it operates, in respect 10710 of its allocated state share of instruction. 10711

The authority shall provide by resolution for the issuance of 10712 such obligations. The bond service charges and all other payments 10713 required to be made by the trust agreement or indenture securing 10714 the obligations shall be payable solely from available community 10715 or technical college receipts pledged thereto as provided in the 10716 resolution. The available community or technical college receipts 10717 pledged and thereafter received by the authority are immediately 10718 subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery 10719 thereof or further act, and the lien of any such pledge is valid 10720 and binding against all parties having claims of any kind against 10721 the authority, irrespective of whether those parties have notice 10722 thereof, and creates a perfected security interest for all 10723 purposes of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code and a perfected lien 10724 for purposes of any real property interest, all without the 10725 necessity for separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or 10726 recording of the resolution, trust agreement, indenture, or other 10727 agreement by which such pledge is created or any certificate, 10728 statement, or other document with respect thereto; and the pledge 10729 of such available community or technical college receipts is 10730 effective and the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to 10731 the purposes for which pledged. Every pledge, and every covenant 10732 and agreement made with respect to the pledge, made in the 10733 resolution may therein be extended to the benefit of the owners 10734 and holders of obligations authorized by this division, and to any 10735 trustee therefor, for the further securing of the payment of the 10736 bond service charges, and all or any rights under any agreement or 10737 lease made under this section may be assigned for such purpose. 10738 Obligations may be issued at one time or from time to time, and 10739 each issue shall be dated, shall mature at such time or times as 10740 determined by the authority not exceeding forty years from the 10741 date of issue, and may be redeemable before maturity at the option 10742 of the authority at such price or prices and under such terms and 10743 conditions as are fixed by the authority prior to the issuance of 10744 the obligations. The authority shall determine the form of the 10745 obligations, fix their denominations, establish their interest 10746 rate or rates, which may be a variable rate or rates, or the 10747 maximum interest rate, and establish within or without this state 10748 a place or places of payment of bond service charges. 10749

The director shall establish eligibility criteria and loan terms 11208 for the program that supplement eligibility criteria and loan 11209 terms otherwise prescribed for loans under this section, and may 11210 prescribe reduced service charges and fees. For the purpose of 11211 lending under the micro-lending program, the director of 11212 development shall give precedence to projects of eligible small 11213 businesses that foster the development of small entrepreneurial 11214 enterprises, notwithstanding the considerations prescribed by 11215 divisions (A)(1)(a) and (b) of section 166.05 of the Revised Code 11216 to the extent those considerations otherwise may have the effect 11217 of disqualifying projects of eligible small businesses. 11218

(D) Fees, charges, rates of interest, times of payment of 11219 interest and principal, and other terms, conditions, and 11220 provisions of and security for loans made from the facilities 11221 establishment fund pursuant to this section shall be such as the 11222 director determines to be appropriate and in furtherance of the 11223 purpose for which the loans are made. The moneys used in making 11224 such loans shall be disbursed from the facilities establishment 11225 fund upon order of the director. The director shall give special 11226 consideration in setting the required job creation ratios and 11227 interest rates for loans that are for voluntary actions. 11228

~~(D)~~(E) The director may take actions necessary or appropriate 11229 to collect or otherwise deal with any loan made under this 11230 section, including any action authorized by section 9.661 of the 11231
Revised Code. 11232

~~(E)~~(F) The director may fix service charges for the making of 11233 a loan. Such charges shall be payable at such times and place and 11234 in such amounts and manner as may be prescribed by the director. 11235

Sec. 169.08. (A) Any person claiming a property interest in 11236 unclaimed funds delivered or reported to the state under Chapter 11237
169. of the Revised Code, including the office of child support in 11238

3123.88 of the Revised Code, may file a claim thereto on the form 11240 prescribed by the director of commerce. 11241

(B) The director shall consider matters relevant to any claim 11242 filed under division (A) of this section and shall hold a formal 11243 hearing if requested or considered necessary and receive evidence 11244 concerning such claim. A finding and decision in writing on each 11245 claim filed shall be prepared, stating the substance of any 11246 evidence received or heard and the reasons for allowance or 11247 disallowance of the claim. The evidence and decision shall be a 11248 public record. No statute of limitations shall bar the allowance 11249 of a claim. 11250

(C) For the purpose of conducting any hearing, the director 11251 may require the attendance of such witnesses and the production of 11252 such books, records, and papers as the director desires, and the 11253 director may take the depositions of witnesses residing within or 11254 without this state in the same manner as is prescribed by law for 11255 the taking of depositions in civil actions in the court of common 11256 pleas, and for that purpose the director may issue a subpoena for 11257 any witness or a subpoena duces tecum to compel the production of 11258 any books, records, or papers, directed to the sheriff of the 11259 county where such witness resides or is found, which shall be 11260 served and returned. The fees of the sheriff shall be the same as 11261 that allowed in the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 11262 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 11263 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Fees and mileage shall be 11264 paid from the unclaimed funds trust fund. 11265

(D) Interest is not payable to claimants of unclaimed funds 11266 held by the state. Claims shall be paid from the trust fund. If 11267 the amount available in the trust fund is not sufficient to pay 11268 pending claims, or other amounts disburseable from the trust fund, 11269 the treasurer of state shall certify such fact to the director, 11270 who shall then withdraw such amount of funds from the mortgage 11271 accounts as the director determines necessary to reestablish the 11272 trust fund to a level required to pay anticipated claims but not 11273 more than ten per cent of the net unclaimed funds reported to 11274 date. 11275

The director ~~shall retain in the trust fund, as a fee for~~ 11276 ~~administering the funds, five per cent of the total amount of~~ 11277 ~~unclaimed funds payable to the claimant and~~ may withdraw the funds 11278 paid to the director by the holders and deposited by the director 11279 with the treasurer of state or in a financial institution as agent 11280 for such funds. Whenever these funds are inadequate to meet the 11281 requirements for the trust fund, the director shall provide for a 11282 withdrawal of funds, within a reasonable time, in such amount as 11283 is necessary to meet the requirements, from financial institutions 11284 in which such funds were retained or placed by a holder and from 11285 other holders who have retained funds, in an equitable manner as 11286 prescribed by the director. In the event that the amount to be 11287 withdrawn from any one such holder is less than five hundred 11288 dollars, the amount to be withdrawn shall be at the discretion of 11289 the director. Such funds may be reimbursed in the amounts 11290 withdrawn when the trust fund has a surplus over the amount 11291 required to pay anticipated claims. Whenever the trust fund has a 11292 surplus over the amount required to pay anticipated claims, the 11293 director may transfer such surplus to the mortgage accounts. 11294

(E) If a claim which is allowed under this section relates to 11295 funds which have been retained by the reporting holder, and if the 11296 funds, on deposit with the treasurer of state pursuant to this 11297 chapter, are insufficient to pay claims, the director may notify 11298 such holder in writing of the payment of the claim and such holder 11299 shall immediately reimburse the state in the amount of such claim. 11300
The reimbursement shall be credited to the unclaimed funds trust 11301 fund. 11302

(F) Any person, including the office of child support, 11303 adversely affected by a decision of the director may appeal such 11304 decision in the manner provided in Chapter 119. of the Revised 11305
Code. 11306

In the event the claimant prevails, the claimant shall be 11307 reimbursed for reasonable attorney's fees and costs. 11308

(G) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this chapter, 11309 any holder who has paid moneys to or entered into an agreement 11310 with the director pursuant to section 169.05 of the Revised Code 11311 on certified checks, cashiers' checks, bills of exchange, letters 11312 of credit, drafts, money orders, or travelers' checks, may make 11313 payment to any person entitled thereto, including the office of 11314 child support, and upon surrender of the document, except in the 11315 case of travelers' checks, and proof of such payment, the director 11316 shall reimburse the holder for such payment without interest. 11317 live in financially assisted rental housing complexes, and assist 11322 those tenants in identifying and obtaining community and program 11323 services and other benefits for which they are eligible. 11324

(B) The resident services coordinator program fund is hereby 11325 created in the state treasury to support the resident services 11326 coordinator program established pursuant to this section. The fund 11327 consists of all moneys the department of development sets aside 11328 occurs and for each resident who is subject to it. 11335

In lieu of the fine that may be imposed under division (A) of 11336 section 173.99 of the Revised Code, the director of aging may, 11337 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, fine a long-term care 11338 provider or other entity, or a person employed by a long-term care 11339 that division. The fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars for 11350 each day the violation continued. 11351

(B) On request of the director, the attorney general shall 11352 bring and prosecute to judgment a civil action to collect any fine 11353 imposed under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section that remains 11354 unpaid thirty days after the violator's final appeal is exhausted. 11355

(C) All fines collected under this section shall be deposited 11356 into the state treasury to the credit of the state long-term care 11357 the program by the general assembly is adequate for the number of 11428 eligible individuals. The rules shall not limit the eligibility of 11429 disabled persons solely on a basis classifying disabilities as 11430 shall adopt rules that establish eligibility standards for aged, 11432 blind, or disabled individuals who reside in one of the homes or 11433 the purposes of this section are insufficient to make payments to 11465 all eligible individuals. An individual may apply to be placed on 11466 the waiting list even though the individual does not reside in one 11467 section at the time of application. The director of aging, by 11469 rules adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 11470 shall specify procedures and requirements for placing an 11471 individual on the waiting list and priorities for the order in 11472 which individuals placed on the waiting list are to begin to 11473 receive residential state supplement payments. The rules 11474 specifying priorities may give priority to individuals placed on 11475 the waiting list on or after July 1, 2006, who receive 11476 supplemental security income benefits under Title XVI of the 11477 "Social Security Act," 86 Stat. 1475 (1972), 42 U.S.C. 1381, as 11478 amended. The rules shall not affect the place on the waiting list 11479 of any person who was on the list on July 1, 2006. The rules 11480 specifying priorities may also set additional priorities based on 11481 living arrangement, such as whether an individual resides in a 11482 facility listed in division (C)(1) of this section or has been 11483 in the living arrangement in which the individual resided on 11490 November 15, 1990. 11491 accordance with a grant agreement; 11525 and conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion 12608 of the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 12609 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 12610 filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 12611 developed for nonfarm commercial, industrial, residential, or 12612 the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge 12619 elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules to 12620 implement phase II of the storm water program of the national 12621 pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be inconsistent 12622 with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than the rules or 12623

the Revised Code, or to land being used in a surface mine 12630 operation as defined in section 1514.01 of the Revised Code. 12631

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 12633
file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 12634

acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 12637
unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 12638 utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 12639 the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 12640
following: 12641

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 12642 agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 12643

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and 12644 approval or disapproval of the plans; 12645

(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a 12646 person whose plans have been disapproved; 12649

(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits; 12650

(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the 12651 denial of a permit. 12652

Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt 12653 from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules 12654 adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section 12655 may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit 12656 processing, and field inspections. 12657

No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, 12658 transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project 12659 undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in 12660 accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control 12661 policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the 12662 division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ resources in the 12663 department of natural resources. 12664

(B) Rules or amendments may be adopted under this section 12665 only after public hearings at not fewer than two regular sessions 12666 of the board. The board of county commissioners shall cause to be 12667 published, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, 12668 notice of the public hearings, including time, date, and place, 12669 once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings. The 12670 proposed rules or amendments shall be made available by the board 12671 to the public at the board office or other location indicated in 12672 the notice. The rules or amendments shall take effect on the 12673 thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 12674

(C) The board of county commissioners may employ personnel to 12675 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 12676 under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 12677 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 12678 management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 12679 with one or more political subdivisions, other county officials, 12680 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 12681 obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 12682 sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 12683
for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 12684

(D) The board of county commissioners or any duly authorized 12685 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 12686 or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 12687

the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 12688
whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 12689 section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 12690 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 12691
may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 12692 county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 12693
chapter. 12695

(E)(1) If the board of county commissioners or its duly 12696 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 12697 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 12698 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 12699 obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 12700
and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 12701 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 12702 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 12703 violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 12704 representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 12705 violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 12706 elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 12707 violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 12708 representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 12709 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 12710 not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 12711
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 12712 or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 12713 after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 12714 attorney of the county if, in the opinion of the prosecuting 12715 attorney, the violation is egregious. 12716

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 12717 authorize representative shall request, in writing, the 12718 prosecuting attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other 12719 appropriate relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive 12720 erosion or sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules 12721 adopted under this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an 12722 injunction or other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, 12723 the court of common pleas may order the construction of sediment 12724 control improvements or implementation of other control measures 12725 and may assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more 12726 than five hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop 12727 work order issued under this section shall be considered a 12728 separate violation subject to a civil fine. 12729

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this 12730 section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the 12731 county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other 12732 appropriate relief from that order. 12733

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section 12734 against any public highway, transportation, or drainage 12735 improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government 12736 agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of 12737
its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the 12738 board or the chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ 12739 resources in the department of natural resources. 12740

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 12741 under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 12742 if the board of county commissioners determines that a violation 12743 of any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this 12744 section exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 12745 attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other appropriate 12746 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 12747 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules or order. In 12748 granting relief, the court of common pleas may order the 12749 construction of sediment control improvements or implementation of 12750 other control measures and may assess a civil fine of not less 12751 than one hundred or more than five hundred dollars. Each day of 12752 violation of a rule adopted or administrative order issued under 12753 this section shall be considered a separate violation subject to a 12754 civil fine. 12755

Sec. 311.32. (A) A sheriff or deputy sheriff who is trained 12756 in the same manner as uniformed employees of the motor carrier 12757 enforcement unit created under section 5503.34 of the Revised Code 12758 may, to the same extent as those employees, enforce compliance 12759
with any provision of Chapters 4919., 4921., and 4923. of the 12760 Revised Code or of a rule or order adopted or issued by the 12761 commission under those chapters regarding commercial motor vehicle 12762 transportation safety, economic, and hazardous materials 12763 requirements. 12764

(B)(1) A sheriff or deputy sheriff under division (A) of this 12765 section shall do both of the following: 12766

(a) Cooperate with the public utilities commission in 12767
laws; 12769

(b) Comply with any rules adopted pursuant to section 4919.80 12770

(2) A uniformed sheriff or deputy sheriff under division (A) 12772 of this section may stop commercial motor vehicles for the purpose 12773

Sec. 319.301. (A) ~~This~~ The reductions required by division 12776
(D) of this section ~~does~~ do not apply to any of the following: 12777

(1) Taxes levied at whatever rate is required to produce a 12778 specified amount of tax money, including a tax levied under 12779 section 5705.199 or 5705.211 of the Revised Code, or an amount to	12780

pay debt charges;	12781
(2) Taxes levied within the one per cent limitation imposed	12782
by Section 2 of Article XII, Ohio Constitution;	12783
(3) Taxes provided for by the charter of a municipal	12784
corporation.	12785
(B) As used in this section:	12786
(1) "Real property" includes real property owned by a	12787
railroad.	12788
(2) "Carryover property" means all real property on the	12789
current year's tax list except:	12790
(a) Land and improvements that were not taxed by the district	12791
in both the preceding year and the current year;	12792
(b) Land and improvements that were not in the same class in	12793
both the preceding year and the current year.	12794
(3) "Effective tax rate" means with respect to each class of	12795
property:	12796
(a) The sum of the total taxes that would have been charged	12797 and payable for current expenses against real property in that	12798 class if each of the district's taxes were reduced for the current	12799 year under division (D)(1) of this section without regard to the	12800 application of division (E)(3) of this section divided by	12801
(b) The taxable value of all real property in that class.	12802
(4) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and	12803 payable prior to any reduction required by section 319.302 of the	12804
Revised Code.	12805
(C) The tax commissioner shall make the determinations	12806 required by this section each year, without regard to whether a	12807 taxing district has territory in a county to which section 5715.24	12808 of the Revised Code applies for that year. Separate determinations 12809 shall be made for each of the two classes established pursuant to 12810

section 5713.041 of the Revised Code. 12811

(D) With respect to each tax authorized to be levied by each 12812 taxing district, the tax commissioner, annually, shall do both of 12813
the following: 12814

(1) Determine by what percentage, if any, the sums levied by 12815 such tax against the carryover property in each class would have 12816 to be reduced for the tax to levy the same number of dollars 12817 against such property in that class in the current year as were 12818 charged against such property by such tax in the preceding year 12819 subsequent to the reduction made under this section but before the 12820 reduction made under section 319.302 of the Revised Code. In the 12821 case of a tax levied for the first time that is not a renewal of 12822 an existing tax, the commissioner shall determine by what 12823 percentage the sums that would otherwise be levied by such tax 12824 against carryover property in each class would have to be reduced 12825 to equal the amount that would have been levied if the full rate 12826 thereof had been imposed against the total taxable value of such 12827 property in the preceding tax year. A tax or portion of a tax that 12828 is designated a replacement levy under section 5705.192 of the 12829 Revised Code is not a renewal of an existing tax for purposes of 12830 this division. 12831

(2) Certify each percentage determined in division (D)(1) of 12832 this section, as adjusted under division (E) of this section, and 12833 the class of property to which that percentage applies to the 12834 auditor of each county in which the district has territory. The 12835 auditor, after complying with section 319.30 of the Revised Code, 12836 shall reduce the sum to be levied by such tax against each parcel 12837 of real property in the district by the percentage so certified 12838 for its class. Certification shall be made by the first day of 12839 September except in the case of a tax levied for the first time, 12840 in which case certification shall be made within fifteen days of 12841 the date the county auditor submits the information necessary to 12842 make the required determination. 12843

(E)(1) As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "pre-1982 12844 joint vocational taxes" means, with respect to a class of 12845 property, the difference between the following amounts: 12846

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 12847 the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint 12848 vocational school district of which the school district is a part 12849 after making all reductions under this section; 12850

(b) The following percentage of the taxable value of all real 12851 property in that class: 12852

(i) In 1987, five one-hundredths of one per cent; 12853

(ii) In 1988, one-tenth of one per cent; 12854

(iii) In 1989, fifteen one-hundredths of one per cent; 12855

cent. 12857

If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds 12858 the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 12859 joint vocational taxes shall be zero. 12860

As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes 12861 charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of 12862 this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or 12863 thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 5705.199 12864
~~or~~, 5705.213, or 5705.219 of the Revised Code. 12865

(2) If in the case of a school district other than a joint 12866 vocational or cooperative education school district any percentage 12867 required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either 12868 class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable 12869 for current expenses to be less than two per cent of the taxable 12870 value of all real property in that class that is subject to 12871 taxation by the district, the commissioner shall determine what 12872 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 12873 payable for current expenses against that class, after all 12874 reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to 12875 equal, when combined with the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes 12876 against that class, the lesser of the following: 12877

(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized 12878 to be levied; 12879

(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that 12880 class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the 12881 reduction required by this section for that class. 12882

(3)(a) If in the case of a joint vocational school district 12883 any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this 12884 section for either class of property could cause the total taxes 12885 charged and payable for current expenses for that class to be less 12886 than the designated amount, the commissioner shall determine what 12887 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 12888 payable for current expenses for that class, after all reductions 12889 that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal the 12890 designated amount. The auditor shall use such percentages in 12891 making the reductions required by this section for that class. 12892

(b) As used in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, the 12893 designated amount shall equal the taxable value of all real 12894 property in the class that is subject to taxation by the district 12895 times the lesser of the following: 12896

(i) Two-tenths of one per cent; 12897

(ii) The district's effective rate plus the following 12898 percentage for the year indicated: 12899

WHEN COMPUTING THE ADD THE FOLLOWING 12900

TAXES CHARGED FOR PERCENTAGE: 12901

1987	0.025%	12902

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate at which any tax is levied. 12910

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction factor for either class of property in a taxing district located in more than one county by the last day of November because information required under division (G) of this section is unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 12929

12933

tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 12934 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 12935 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 12936 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 12937 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 12938 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 12939 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 12940 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 12941 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 12942 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 12943 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 12944 year. 12945

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 12946 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 12947 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 12948 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 12949 It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 12950 ensuing tax year. 12951

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 12952 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 12953 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 12954 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 12955 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 12956 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 12957 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 12958 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 12959 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 12960 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 12961 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 12962 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 12963 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 12964 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 12965 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 12966

Sec. 319.302. (A)(1) Real property that is not intended 12967 primarily for use in a business activity shall qualify for a 12968 partial exemption from real property taxation. For purposes of 12969 this partial exemption, "business activity" includes all uses of 12970 real property, except farming; leasing property for farming; 12971 occupying or holding property improved with single-family, 12972 two-family, or three-family dwellings; leasing property improved 12973 with single-family, two-family, or three-family dwellings; or 12974 holding vacant land that the county auditor determines will be 12975 used for farming or to develop single-family, two-family, or 12976 three-family dwellings. For purposes of this partial exemption, 12977 "farming" does not include land used for the commercial production 12978 of timber that is receiving the tax benefit under section 5713.23 12979 or 5713.31 of the Revised Code and all improvements connected with 12980 such commercial production of timber. 12981

(2) Each year, the county auditor shall review each parcel of 12982 real property to determine whether it qualifies for the partial 12983 exemption provided for by this section as of the first day of 12984 January of the current tax year. 12985

(B) After complying with section 319.301 of the Revised Code, 12986 the county auditor shall reduce the remaining sums to be levied 12987 against each parcel of real property that is listed on the general 12988 tax list and duplicate of real and public utility property for the 12989 current tax year and that qualifies for partial exemption under 12990 division (A) of this section, and against each manufactured and 12991 mobile home that is taxed pursuant to division (D)(2) of section 12992 4503.06 of the Revised Code and that is on the manufactured home 12993 tax list for the current tax year, by ten per cent, to provide a 12994 partial exemption for that parcel or home. Except as otherwise 12995 provided in sections 323.152, 323.158, 505.06, and 715.263 of the 12996 reduction shall be the real and public utility property taxes 12998 property that does not qualify for partial exemption under 13000 division (A) of this section, and the manufactured home tax 13001 charged and payable on each manufactured or mobile home, and shall 13002 be the amounts certified to the county treasurer for collection. 13003 Upon receipt of the real and public utility property tax 13004 duplicate, the treasurer shall certify to the tax commissioner the 13005 total amount by which the real property taxes were reduced under 13006 this section, as shown on the duplicate. Such reduction shall not 13007 directly or indirectly affect the determination of the principal 13008 amount of notes that may be issued in anticipation of any tax 13009 levies or the amount of bonds or notes for any planned 13010 improvements. If after application of sections 5705.31 and 5705.32 13011 of the Revised Code and other applicable provisions of law, 13012 including divisions (F) and (I) of section 321.24 of the Revised 13013 Code, there would be insufficient funds for payment of debt 13014 charges on bonds or notes payable from taxes reduced by this 13015 section, the reduction of taxes provided for in this section shall 13016 be adjusted to the extent necessary to provide funds from such 13017 taxes. 13018

(C) The tax commissioner may adopt rules governing the 13019 administration of the partial exemption provided for by this 13020
section. 13021

(D) The determination of whether property qualifies for 13022 partial exemption under division (A) of this section is solely for 13023 the purpose of allowing the partial exemption under division (B) 13024
of this section. 13025

auditor, on settlement with the treasurer and tax commissioner, on 13030

(E) In the event the time for the payment of taxes is 13270 extended, pursuant to section 323.17 of the Revised Code, the date 13271 on or before which settlement for the taxes so extended must be 13272 made, as herein prescribed, shall be deemed to be extended for a 13273 like period of time. At each such settlement, the auditor shall 13274 allow to the treasurer, on the moneys received or collected and 13275 accounted for by the treasurer, the treasurer's fees, at the rate 13276 or percentage allowed by law, at a full settlement of the 13277 treasurer. 13278

(F) Within thirty days after the day of each settlement of 13279 taxes required under divisions (A) and (C) of this section, the 13280 treasurer shall certify to the tax commissioner any adjustments 13281 that have been made to the amount certified previously pursuant to 13282 section 319.302 of the Revised Code and that the settlement has 13283 been completed. Upon receipt of such certification, the 13284 commissioner shall provide for payment to the county treasurer 13285 from the general revenue fund of an amount equal to one-half of 13286 the amount certified by the treasurer in the preceding tax year 13287 under section 319.302 of the Revised Code, less one-half of the 13288 amount computed for all taxing districts in that county for the 13289 current fiscal year under section 5703.80 of the Revised Code for 13290 crediting to the property tax administration fund. Such payment 13291 shall be credited upon receipt to the county's undivided income 13292 tax fund, and the county auditor shall transfer to the county 13293 amount had been levied and collected as taxes. The county auditor 13297 shall distribute the amount remaining among the various taxing 13298 districts in the county as if it had been levied, collected, and 13299 settled as real property taxes. The amount distributed to each 13300 taxing district shall be reduced by the total of the amounts 13301 computed for the district under section 5703.80 of the Revised 13302 Code, but the reduction shall not exceed the amount that otherwise 13303 would be distributed to the taxing district under this division. 13304

The tax commissioner shall make available to taxing districts such 13305 information as is sufficient for a taxing district to be able to 13306 determine the amount of the reduction in its distribution under 13307
this section. 13308

(G)(1) Within thirty days after the day of the settlement 13309 required in division (D) of this section, the county treasurer 13310 shall notify the tax commissioner that the settlement has been 13311 completed. Upon receipt of that notification, the commissioner 13312 shall provide for payment to the county treasurer from the general 13313 revenue fund of an amount equal to the amount certified under 13314 former section 319.311 of the Revised Code and paid in the state's 13315 fiscal year 2003 multiplied by the percentage specified in 13316 division (G)(2) of this section. The payment shall be credited 13317 upon receipt to the county's undivided income tax fund, and the 13318 county auditor shall distribute the amount thereof among the 13319 various taxing districts of the county as if it had been levied, 13320 collected, and settled as personal property taxes. The amount 13321 received by a taxing district under this division shall be 13322 apportioned among its funds in the same proportion as the current 13323 year's personal property taxes are apportioned. 13324

(2) Payments required under division (G)(1) of this section 13325 shall be made at the following percentages of the amount certified 13326 under former section 319.311 of the Revised Code and paid under 13327 division (G)(1) of this section in the state's fiscal year 2003: 13328

(f) In fiscal year 2009, sixteen per cent. 13334

After fiscal year 2009, no payments shall be made under 13335 division (G)(1) of this section. 13336

(H)(1) On or before the fifteenth day of April each year, the 13337 county treasurer shall settle with the county auditor for all 13338 manufactured home taxes that the county treasurer has collected on 13339 the manufactured home tax duplicate at the time of making the 13340 settlement. 13341

(2) On or before the fifteenth day of September each year, 13342 the county treasurer shall settle with the county auditor for all 13343 remaining manufactured home taxes that the county treasurer has 13344 collected on the manufactured home tax duplicate at the time of 13345 making the settlement. 13346

(3) If the time for payment of such taxes is extended under 13347 section 4503.06 of the Revised Code, the time for making the 13348 settlement as prescribed by divisions (H)(1) and (2) of this 13349 section is extended for a like period of time. 13350 total amount of all fees and charges that the auditor and 13366 treasurer would have been authorized to receive had such section 13367 not been in effect and that amount had been levied and collected 13368 as manufactured home taxes. The county auditor shall distribute 13369 the amount remaining among the various taxing districts in the 13370

If a municipal corporation is located in more than one solid waste management district, the entire municipal corporation shall be considered to be included in and shall be under the jurisdiction of the district in which a majority of the population of the municipal corporation resides.

A county and joint district established to comply with division (B) of section 3734.52 of the Revised Code shall have a population of not less than one hundred twenty thousand unless, in the instance of a county district, the board of county commissioners has obtained an exemption from that requirement under division (C)(1) or (2) of that section. Each joint district established to comply with an order issued under division (D) of that section shall have a population of at least one hundred twenty thousand.

(B) The boards of county commissioners of the counties establishing a joint district constitute, collectively, the board of directors of the joint district, except that if a county with a form of legislative authority other than a board of county commissioners participates, it shall be represented on the board of directors by three persons appointed by the legislative 13703 authority. 13704

The agreement to establish and maintain a joint district 13705 shall be ratified by resolution of the board of county 13706 commissioners of each participating county. Upon ratification, the 13707 board of directors shall take control of and manage the joint 13708 district subject to this chapter, except that, in the case of a 13709 joint district formed pursuant to division (C), (D), or (E) of 13710 section 343.012 of the Revised Code, the board of directors shall 13711 take control of and manage the district when the formation of the 13712 district becomes final under the applicable division. A majority 13713 of the board of directors constitutes a quorum, and a majority 13714 vote is required for the board to act. 13715

A county participating in a joint district may contribute 13716 lands or rights or interests therein, money, other personal 13717 property or rights or interests therein, or services to the 13718 district. The agreement shall specify any contributions of 13719 participating counties and the rights of the participating 13720 counties in lands or personal property, or rights or interests 13721 therein, contributed to or otherwise acquired by the joint 13722 district. The agreement may be amended or added to by a majority 13723 vote of the board of directors, but no amendment or addition shall 13724 divest a participating county of any right or interest in lands or 13725 personal property without its consent. 13726

The board of directors may appoint and fix the compensation 13727 of employees of, accept gifts, devises, and bequests for, and take 13728 other actions necessary to control and manage the joint district. 13729 Employees of the district shall be considered county employees for 13730 the purposes of Chapter 124. of the Revised Code and other 13731 provisions of state law applicable to employees. Instead of or in 13732 addition to appointing employees of the district, the board of 13733 directors may agree to use employees of one or more of the 13734 participating counties in the service of the joint district and to 13735 share in their compensation in any manner that may be agreed upon. 13736

The board of directors shall do one of the following: 13737

(1) Designate the county auditor, including any other 13738 official acting in a capacity similar to a county auditor under a 13739 county charter, of a county participating in the joint district as 13740 the fiscal officer of the district, and the county treasurer, or 13741 other official acting in a capacity similar to a county treasurer 13742 under a county charter, of that county as the treasurer of the 13743 district. The designated county officials shall perform any 13744 applicable duties for the district as each typically performs for 13745 the county of which ~~he~~ the individual is an official, except as 13746 otherwise may be provided in any bylaws or resolutions adopted by 13747 the board of directors. The board of directors may pay to that 13748 county any amount agreed upon by the board of directors and the 13749 board of county commissioners of that county to reimburse that 13750 county for the cost properly allocable to the service of its 13751 officials as fiscal officer and treasurer of the joint district. 13752

(2) Appoint one individual who is neither a county auditor 13753 nor a county treasurer, and who may be an employee of the 13754 district, to serve as both the treasurer of the district and its 13755 fiscal officer. That individual shall act as custodian of the 13756 funds of the board and the district and shall maintain all 13757 accounts of the district. Any reference in this chapter or Chapter 13758 3734. of the Revised Code to a county auditor or county treasurer 13759 serving as fiscal officer of a district or custodian of any funds 13760 of a board or district is deemed to refer to an individual 13761 appointed under division (B)(2) of this section. 13762

The fiscal officer of a district shall establish a general 13763 fund and any other necessary funds for the district. 13764

(C) A board of county commissioners of a county district or 13765 board of directors of a joint district may acquire, by purchase or 13766 lease, construct, improve, enlarge, replace, maintain, and operate 13767 such solid waste collection systems within their respective 13768 districts and such solid waste facilities within or outside their 13769 respective districts as are necessary for the protection of the 13770 public health. A board of county commissioners may acquire within 13771 its county real property or any estate, interest, or right 13772 therein, by appropriation or any other method, for use by a county 13773 or joint district in connection with such facilities. 13774 Appropriation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with 13775 sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code. 13776

(D) The sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department 13777 of a county maintaining a district and any sanitary engineer or 13778 sanitary engineering department of a county in a joint district, 13779 as determined by the board of directors, in addition to other 13780 duties assigned to that engineer or department, shall assist the 13781 board of county commissioners or directors in the performance of 13782 their duties under this chapter and sections 3734.52 to 3734.575 13783 of the Revised Code and shall be charged with any other duties and 13784 services in relation thereto that the board prescribes. A board 13785 may employ registered professional engineers to assist the 13786 sanitary engineer in those duties and also may employ financial 13787 advisers and any other professional services it considers 13788 necessary to assist it in the construction, financing, and 13789 maintenance of solid waste collection or other solid waste 13790 facilities. Such contracts of employment shall not require the 13791 certificate provided in section 5705.41 of the Revised Code. 13792 Payment for such services may be made from the general fund or any 13793 other fund legally available for that use at times that are agreed 13794 upon or as determined by the board of county commissioners or 13795 directors, and the funds may be reimbursed from the proceeds of 13796 bonds or notes issued to pay the cost of any improvement to which 13797
the services related. 13798

(2) The board of directors of a joint district may designate the prosecuting attorney of one of the counties forming the district to serve as the legal advisor of the district. When so designated, the prosecuting attorney shall provide such services to the joint district as are required or authorized to be provided to county boards under Chapter 309. of the Revised Code. The board of directors may pay to that county any amount agreed upon by the board of directors and the board of county commissioners of that county to reimburse that county for the cost properly allocable to 13831 the services of its prosecuting attorney as the legal advisor of 13832 the joint district. When that prosecuting attorney is so serving 13833 and the board considers it to be necessary or appropriate, the 13834 board, on its own initiative, may employ an attorney or other 13835 legal counsel to represent or advise the board regarding a 13836 particular matter in place of the prosecuting attorney. 13837

Instead of designating the prosecuting attorney of one of the 13838 counties forming the district to be the legal advisor of the 13839 district, the board of directors may employ on an annual basis an 13840 attorney or other legal counsel to serve as the district's legal 13841 advisor. Notwithstanding the employment of an attorney or other 13842 legal counsel as the district's legal advisor, the board of 13843 directors may require written opinions or instructions from the 13844 prosecuting attorney of any of the counties forming the district 13845 in matters connected with the board's official duties, and the 13846 prosecuting attorney shall provide the written opinion or 13847 instructions as though ~~he~~ the prosecuting attorney had been 13848 designated to serve as the district's legal advisor under division 13849 (E)(2) of this section. 13850

(F) A board of county commissioners may issue bonds or bond 13851 anticipation notes of the county to pay the cost of preparing 13852 general and detailed plans and other data required for the 13853 construction of solid waste facilities in connection with a county 13854 or joint district. A board of directors of a joint solid waste 13855 management district may issue bonds or bond anticipation notes of 13856 the joint solid waste management district to pay the cost of 13857 preparing general and detailed plans and other data required for 13858 the construction of solid waste facilities in connection with a 13859 joint district. The bonds and notes shall be issued in accordance 13860 with Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, except that the maximum 13861 maturity of bonds issued for that purpose shall not exceed ten 13862 years. Bond anticipation notes may be paid from the proceeds of 13863 bonds issued either to pay the cost of the solid waste facilities 13864 or to pay the cost of the plans and other data. 13865

(G) To the extent authorized by the solid waste management 13866 plan of the district approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of 13867 the Revised Code or subsequent amended plans of the district 13868 approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.56 of the Revised Code, 13869 the board of county commissioners of a county district or board of 13870 directors of a joint district may adopt, publish, and enforce 13871 rules doing any of the following: 13872

(1) Prohibiting or limiting the receipt of solid wastes 13873 generated outside the district or outside a service area 13874 prescribed in the solid waste management plan or amended plan, at 13875 facilities ~~covered by the plan~~ located within the solid waste 13876 management district, consistent with the projections contained in 13877 the plan or amended plan under divisions (A)(6) and (7) of section 13878 3734.53 of the Revised Code, ~~except that~~. However, rules adopted 13879 by a board under division (G)(1) of this section may be adopted 13880 and enforced with respect to facilities in the solid waste 13881 management district that are not owned by a county or the solid 13882 waste management district only if the board submits an application 13883 to the director of environmental protection that demonstrates that 13884 there is insufficient capacity to dispose of all solid wastes that 13885 are generated within the district at the facilities located within 13886 the district and the director approves the application. The 13887 demonstration in the application shall be based on projections 13888 contained in the plan or amended plan of the district. The 13889 director shall establish the form of the application. The approval 13890 or disapproval of such an application by the director is an action 13891 that is appealable under section 3745.04 of the Revised Code. 13892

In addition, the director of environmental protection may 13893 issue an order modifying a rule adopted under division (G)(1) of 13894 this section to allow the disposal in the district of solid wastes 13895 from another county or joint solid waste management district if 13896 all of the following apply: 13897

(a) The district in which the wastes were generated does not 13898 have sufficient capacity to dispose of solid wastes generated 13899 within it for six months following the date of the director's 13900 order; 13901

(b) No new solid waste facilities will begin operation during 13902 those six months in the district in which the wastes were 13903 generated and, despite good faith efforts to do so, it is 13904 impossible to site new solid waste facilities within the district 13905 because of its high population density; 13906

(c) The district in which the wastes were generated has made 13907 good faith efforts to negotiate with other districts to 13908 incorporate its disposal needs within those districts' solid waste 13909 management plans, including efforts to develop joint facilities 13910 authorized under section 343.02 of the Revised Code, and the 13911 efforts have been unsuccessful; 13912

(d) The district in which the wastes were generated has 13913 located a facility willing to accept the district's solid wastes 13914 for disposal within the receiving district; 13915

(e) The district in which the wastes were generated has 13916 demonstrated to the director that the conditions specified in 13917 divisions (G)(1)(a) to (d) of this section have been met; 13918

(f) The director finds that the issuance of the order will be 13919 consistent with the state solid waste management plan and that 13920 receipt of the out-of-district wastes will not limit the capacity 13921 of the receiving district to dispose of its in-district wastes to 13922 less than eight years. 13923

Any order issued under division (G)(1) of this section shall 13924 not become final until thirty days after it has been served by 13925 certified mail upon the county or joint solid waste management 13926 district that will receive the out-of-district wastes. 13927

(2) Governing the maintenance, protection, and use of solid 13928 waste collection or other solid waste facilities located within 13929 its district. The rules adopted under division (G)(2) of this 13930 section shall not establish design standards for solid waste 13931 facilities and shall be consistent with the solid waste provisions 13932 of Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code and the rules adopted under 13933 those provisions. The rules adopted under division (G)(2) of this 13934 section may prohibit any person, municipal corporation, township, 13935 or other political subdivision from constructing, enlarging, or 13936 modifying any solid waste facility until general plans and 13937 specifications for the proposed improvement have been submitted to 13938 and approved by the board of county commissioners or board of 13939 directors as complying with the solid waste management plan or 13940 amended plan of the district. The construction of such a facility 13941 shall be done under the supervision of the county sanitary 13942 engineer or, in the case of a joint district, a county sanitary 13943 engineer designated by the board of directors, and any person, 13944 municipal corporation, township, or other political subdivision 13945 proposing or constructing such improvements shall pay to the 13946 county or joint district all expenses incurred by the board in 13947 connection therewith. The sanitary engineer may enter upon any 13948 public or private property for the purpose of making surveys or 13949 examinations necessary for designing solid waste facilities or for 13950 supervising the construction, enlargement, modification, or 13951 operation of any such facilities. No person, municipal 13952 corporation, township, or other political subdivision shall forbid 13953 or interfere with the sanitary engineer or ~~his~~ the sanitary 13954 engineer's authorized assistants entering upon such property for 13955 that purpose. If actual damage is done to property by the making 13956 of the surveys and examinations, a board shall pay the reasonable 13957 value of that damage to the owner of the property damaged, and the 13958 cost shall be included in the financing of the improvement for 13959 which the surveys and examinations are made. 13960

(3) Governing the development and implementation of a program 13961 for the inspection of solid wastes generated outside the 13962 boundaries of this state that are disposed of at solid waste 13963 facilities included in the district's solid waste management plan 13964 or amended plan. A board of county commissioners or board of 13965 directors or its authorized representative may enter upon the 13966 premises of any solid waste facility included in the district's 13967 solid waste management plan or amended plan for the purpose of 13968 conducting the inspections required or authorized by the rules 13969 adopted under division (G)(3) of this section. No person, 13970
shall forbid or interfere with a board of county commissioners or 13972 directors or its authorized representative entering upon the 13973 premises of any such solid waste facility for that purpose. 13974

(4) Exempting the owner or operator of any existing or 13975 proposed solid waste facility provided for in the plan or amended 13976 plan from compliance with any amendment to a township zoning 13977 resolution adopted under section 519.12 of the Revised Code or to 13978 a county rural zoning resolution adopted under section 303.12 of 13979 the Revised Code that rezoned or redistricted the parcel or 13980 parcels upon which the facility is to be constructed or modified 13981 and that became effective within two years prior to the filing of 13982 an application for a permit required under division (A)(2)(a) of 13983 section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to open a new or modify an 13984 existing solid waste facility. 13985

(H) A board of county commissioners or board of directors may 13986 enter into a contract with any person, municipal corporation, 13987 township, or other political subdivision for the operation and 13988 maintenance of any solid waste facilities regardless of whether 13989 the facilities are owned or leased by the county or joint district 13990 or the contractor. 13991

(I)(1) No person, municipal corporation, township, or other 13992 political subdivision shall tamper with or damage any solid waste 13993 facility constructed under this chapter or any apparatus or 13994 accessory connected therewith or pertaining thereto, fail or 13995 refuse to comply with the applicable rules adopted by a board of 13996 county commissioners or directors under division (G)(1), (2), (3), 13997 or (4) of this section, refuse to permit an inspection or 13998 examination by a sanitary engineer as authorized under division 13999 (G)(2) of this section, or refuse to permit an inspection by a 14000 board of county commissioners or directors or its authorized 14001 representative as required or authorized by rules adopted under 14002
division (G)(3) of this section. 14003

(2) If the board of county commissioners of a county district 14004 or board of directors of a joint district has established facility 14005 designations under section 343.013, 343.014, or 343.015 of the 14006 Revised Code, or the director has established facility 14007 designations in the initial or amended plan of the district 14008 prepared and ordered to be implemented under section 3734.521, 14009 3734.55, or 3734.56 of the Revised Code, no person, municipal 14010 corporation, township, or other political subdivision shall 14011 deliver, or cause the delivery of, any solid wastes generated 14012 within a county or joint district to any solid waste facility 14013 other than the facility designated under section 343.013, 343.014, 14014 or 343.015 of the Revised Code, or in the initial or amended plan 14015 of the district prepared and ordered to be implemented under 14016 section 3734.521, 3734.55, or 3734.56 of the Revised Code, as 14017 applicable. Upon the request of a person or the legislative 14018 authority of a municipal corporation or township, the board of 14019 county commissioners of a county district or board of directors of 14020 a joint district may grant a waiver authorizing the delivery of 14021 all or any portion of the solid wastes generated in a municipal 14022 corporation or township to a solid waste facility other than the 14023 facility designated under section 343.013, 343.014, or 343.015 of 14024 the Revised Code, or in the initial or amended plan of the 14025 district prepared and ordered to be implemented under section 14026 3734.521, 3734.55, or 3734.56 of the Revised Code, as applicable, 14027 regardless of whether the other facility is located within or 14028 outside of the district, if the board finds that delivery of those 14029 solid wastes to the other facility is not inconsistent with the 14030 projections contained in the district's initial or amended plan 14031 under divisions (A)(6) and (7) of section 3734.53 of the Revised 14032 Code as approved or ordered to be implemented and will not 14033 adversely affect the implementation and financing of the 14034 district's initial or amended plan pursuant to the implementation 14035 schedule contained in it under divisions (A)(12)(a) to (d) of that 14036 section. The board shall act on a request for such a waiver within 14037 ninety days after receiving the request. Upon granting such a 14038 waiver, the board shall send notice of that fact to the director. 14039

The notice shall indicate to whom the waiver was granted. Any 14040 waiver or authorization granted by a board on or before October 14041 29, 1993, shall continue in force until the board takes action 14042 concerning the same entity under this division or until action is 14043 taken under division (G) of section 343.014 of the Revised Code. 14044

(J) Divisions (G)(1) to (4) and (I)(2) of this section do not 14045 apply to the construction, operation, use, repair, enlargement, or 14046 modification of either of the following: 14047

(1) A solid waste facility owned by a generator of solid 14048 wastes when the solid waste facility exclusively disposes of solid 14049 wastes generated at one or more premises owned by the generator 14050 regardless of whether the facility is located on a premises where 14051 the wastes are generated; 14052

(2) A facility that exclusively disposes of wastes that are 14053 generated from the combustion of coal, or from the combustion of 14054 primarily coal in combination with scrap tires, that is not 14055 combined in any way with garbage at one or more premises owned by 14056 the generator. 14057

(K)(1) A member of the board of county commissioners of a 14058 county solid waste management district, member of the board of 14059 directors of a joint solid waste management district, member of 14060 the board of trustees of a regional solid waste management 14061 authority managing a county or joint solid waste management 14062 district, or officer or employee of any solid waste management 14063 district, for the purposes of sections 102.03, 102.04, 2921.41, 14064 and 2921.42 of the Revised Code, shall not be considered to be 14065 directly or indirectly interested in, or improperly influenced by, 14066 any of the following: 14067

(a) A contract entered into under this chapter or section 14068
307.15 or sections 3734.52 to 3734.575 of the Revised Code between 14069 the district and any county forming the district, municipal 14070 corporation or township located within the district, or health 14071 district having territorial jurisdiction within the district, of 14072 which that member, officer, or employee also is an officer or 14073 employee, but only to the extent that any interest or influence 14074 could arise from ~~his~~ holding public office or employment with the 14075 political subdivision or health district; 14076

(b) A contract entered into under this chapter or section 14077
the district and a county planning commission organized under 14079 section 713.22 of the Revised Code, or regional planning 14080 commission created under section 713.21 of the Revised Code, 14081 having territorial jurisdiction within the district, of which that 14082 member also is a member, officer, or employee, but only to the 14083 extent that any interest or influence could arise from ~~his~~ holding 14084 public office or employment with the commission; 14085

(c) An expenditure of money made by the district for the 14086 benefit of any county forming the district, municipal corporation 14087 or township located within the district, or health district or 14088 county or regional planning commission having territorial 14089 jurisdiction within the district, of which that member also is a 14090 member, officer, or employee, but only to the extent that any 14091 interest or influence could arise from ~~his~~ holding public office 14092 or employment with the political subdivision, health district, or 14093

commission; 14094

(d) An expenditure of money made for the benefit of the 14095 district by any county forming the district, municipal corporation 14096
jurisdiction within the district, of which that member also is a 14099
member, officer, or employee, but only to the extent that any 14100 interest or influence could arise from ~~his~~ holding public office 14101
commission. 14103

(2) A solid waste management district, county, municipal 14104 corporation, township, health district, or planning commission 14105 described or referred to in divisions (K)(1)(a) to (d) of this 14106 section shall not be construed to be the business associate of a 14107 person who is concurrently a member of the board of county 14108 commissioners, directors, or trustees, or an officer or employee, 14109 of the district and an officer or employee of that municipal 14110 tires," and "solid waste transfer facility" have the same meanings 14155

as in section 3734.01 of the Revised Code. 14156

(2) "Change in district composition" and "change" have the 14157 same meaning as in section 3734.521 of the Revised Code. 14158

(3)(a) Except as provided in division (L)(3)(b) or (c), and 14159
(d), of this section, "solid wastes" has the same meaning as in 14160
section 3734.01 of the Revised Code. 14161

(b) If the solid waste management district is not one that 14162 resulted from proceedings for a change in district composition 14163 under sections 343.012 and 3734.521 of the Revised Code, until 14164 such time as an amended solid waste management plan is approved 14165 under section 3734.56 of the Revised Code, "solid wastes" need not 14166 include scrap tires unless the solid waste management policy 14167 committee established under section 3734.54 of the Revised Code 14168 for the district chooses to include the management of scrap tires 14169 in the district's initial solid waste management plan prepared 14170 under sections 3734.54 and 3734.55 of the Revised Code. 14171

(c) If the solid waste management district is one resulting 14172 from proceedings for a change in district composition under 14173 sections 343.012 and 3734.521 of the Revised Code and if the 14174 change involves an existing district that is operating under 14175 either an initial solid waste management plan approved or prepared 14176 and ordered to be implemented under section 3734.55 of the Revised 14177 Code or an initial or amended plan approved or prepared and 14178 ordered to be implemented under section 3734.521 of the Revised 14179 Code that does not provide for the management of scrap tires and 14180 scrap tire facilities, until such time as the amended plan of the 14181 district resulting from the change is approved under section 14182 3734.56 of the Revised Code, "solid wastes" need not include scrap 14183 tires unless the solid waste management policy committee 14184 established under division (C) of section 3734.521 of the Revised 14185 Code for the district chooses to include the management of scrap 14186 tires in the district's initial or amended solid waste management 14187 plan prepared under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code in 14188 connection with the change proceedings. 14189

(d) If the policy committee chooses to include the management 14190 of scrap tires in an initial plan prepared under sections 3734.54 14191

(d) of this section, "facility" has the same meaning as in section 14199 3734.01 of the Revised Code and also includes any solid waste 14200 transfer, recycling, or resource recovery facility. 14201

(b) If the solid waste management district is not one that 14202
resulted from proceedings for a change in district composition 14203
under section 3734.56 of the Revised Code, "facility" need not 14206 include any scrap tire collection, storage, monocell, monofill, or 14207 recovery facility unless the solid waste management policy 14208 committee established under section 3734.54 of the Revised Code 14209 for the district chooses to include the management of scrap tire 14210 facilities in the district's initial solid waste management plan 14211 prepared under sections 3734.54 and 3734.55 of the Revised Code. 14212

(c) If the solid waste management district is one resulting 14213

from proceedings for a change in district composition under 14214
sections 343.012 and 3734.521 of the Revised Code and if the 14215
change involves an existing district that is operating under 14216
either an initial solid waste management plan approved under 14217 section 3734.55 of the Revised Code or an initial or amended plan 14218 approved or prepared and ordered to be implemented under section 14219 3734.521 of the Revised Code that does not provide for the 14220 management of scrap tires and scrap tire facilities, until such 14221 time as the amended plan of the district resulting from the change 14222 is approved under section 3734.56 of the Revised Code, "facility" 14223 need not include scrap tires unless the solid waste management 14224 policy committee established under division (C) of section 14225 3734.521 of the Revised Code for the district chooses to include 14226 the management of scrap tires in the district's initial or amended 14227 solid waste management plan prepared under section 3734.521 of the 14228 Revised Code in connection with the change proceedings. 14229

(d) If the policy committee chooses to include the management 14230
of scrap tires in an initial plan prepared under sections 3734.54 14231 and 3734.55 of the Revised Code or in an initial or amended plan 14232 prepared under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code, the board of 14233 county commissioners or directors shall execute all of the duties 14234 imposed and may exercise any or all of the rights granted under 14235 this section for the purpose of managing solid waste facilities 14236 that are scrap tire collection, storage, monocell, monofill, or 14237 recovery facilities. 14238

Sec. 504.21. (A) The board of township trustees of a township 14239 that has adopted a limited home rule government may, for the 14240 unincorporated territory in the township, adopt, amend, and 14241 rescind rules establishing technically feasible and economically 14242 reasonable standards to achieve a level of management and 14243 conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion of 14244 the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 14245

soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 14246
filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 14247 developed in the township for nonfarm commercial, industrial, 14248 residential, or other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for 14249 determination of the acceptability of those management and 14250 conservation practices. The rules shall be designed to implement 14251 the applicable areawide waste treatment management plan prepared 14252 under section 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 14253 Stat. 816 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement 14254 phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant 14255 discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. 14256
The rules to implement phase II of the storm water program of the 14257 national pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be 14258 inconsistent with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than 14259 the rules or regulations adopted by the environmental protection 14260 agency under 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this 14261 section shall not apply inside the limits of municipal 14262 corporations, to lands being used in a strip mine operation as 14263 defined in section 1513.01 of the Revised Code, or to land being 14264 used in a surface mine operation as defined in section 1514.01 of 14265
the Revised Code. 14266

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 14267
file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 14268
otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 14270 acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 14271
unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 14272
utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 14273
the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 14274
following: 14275

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 14276
agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 14277

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and approval or disapproval of the plans;	14278 14279
(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a person whose plans have been disapproved;	14280 14281 14282 14283
(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits;	14284
(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the denial of a permit.	14285 14286
Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit processing, and field inspections.	14287 14288 14289 14290 14291
No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the division of soil and water conservation resources in the department of natural resources.	14292 14293 14294 14295 14296 14297 14298

(C) The board of township trustees may employ personnel to 14309
assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 14310
under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 14311 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 14312
management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 14313 with one or more political subdivisions, other township officials, 14314 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 14315
obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 14316
sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 14317
for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 14318

(D) The board of township trustees or any duly authorized 14319 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 14320
or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 14321
the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 14322
whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 14323
section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 14324 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 14325
may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 14326
county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 14327
section. 14329

(E)(1) If the board of township trustees or its duly 14330 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 14331 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 14332 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 14333
obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 14334
and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 14335 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 14336 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 14337
violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 14338
violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 14340

violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 14342
representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 14343 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 14344
not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 14345
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 14346
or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 14347
after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 14348 attorney of the county in which the township is located if, in the 14349 opinion of the prosecuting attorney, the violation is egregious. 14350

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 14351 authorized representative shall request, in writing, the 14352 prosecuting attorney to seek an injunction or other appropriate 14353 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 14354 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules adopted under 14355 this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an injunction or 14356 other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, the court of 14357 common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 14358 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 14359 assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 14360 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop work 14361 order issued under this section shall be considered a separate 14362 violation subject to a civil fine. 14363

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this 14364
section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the 14365
county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other 14366
appropriate relief from that order. 14367

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section 14368
against any public highway, transportation, or drainage 14369
improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government 14370 agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of 14371

board or the chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ 14373
resources in the department of natural resources. 14374

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 14375 under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 14376 if the board of township trustees determines that a violation of 14377 any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this section 14378 exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 14379 attorney of the county in which the township is located, to seek 14380 an injunction or other appropriate relief in the court of common 14381 pleas to abate excessive erosion or sedimentation and secure 14382 compliance with the rules or order. In granting relief, the court 14383 of common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 14384 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 14385 assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 14386 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule adopted or 14387 administrative order issued under this section shall be considered 14388 a separate violation subject to a civil fine. 14389

Sec. 718.04. (A) No municipal corporation other than the ~~city~~ 14390 municipal corporation of residence shall levy a tax on the income 14391 of any member or employee of the Ohio general assembly including 14392 the lieutenant governor which income is received as a result of 14393 services rendered as such member or employee and is paid from 14394 appropriated funds of this state. 14395

(B) No municipal corporation other than the municipal 14396 corporation of residence and the city of Columbus shall levy a tax 14397 on the income of the chief justice or a justice of the supreme 14398 court received as a result of services rendered as the chief 14399 justice or justice. No municipal corporation other than the 14400 municipal corporation of residence shall levy a tax on the income 14401 of a judge sitting by assignment of the chief justice or on the 14402 income of a district court of appeals judge sitting in multiple 14403 locations within the district, received as a result of services 14404 rendered as a judge. 14405

Sec. 721.15. (A) Personal property not needed for municipal 14406 purposes, the estimated value of which is less than one thousand 14407 dollars, may be sold by the board or officer having supervision or 14408 management of that property. If the estimated value of that 14409 property is one thousand dollars or more, it shall be sold only 14410 when authorized by an ordinance of the legislative authority of 14411 the municipal corporation and approved by the board, officer, or 14412 director having supervision or management of that property. When 14413 so authorized, the board, officer, or director shall make a 14414 written contract with the highest and best bidder after 14415 advertisement for not less than two or more than four consecutive 14416 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the municipal 14417 corporation, or with a board of county commissioners upon such 14418 lawful terms as are agreed upon, as provided by division (B)(1) of 14419
section 721.27 of the Revised Code. 14420

(B) When the legislative authority finds, by resolution, that 14421 the municipal corporation has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 14422 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 14423 that the municipal corporation has need of other vehicles, 14424 equipment, or machinery of the same type, and that it will be in 14425 the best interest of the municipal corporation that the sale of 14426 obsolete, unneeded, or unfit vehicles, equipment, or machinery be 14427 made simultaneously with the purchase of the new vehicles, 14428 equipment, or machinery of the same type, the legislative 14429 authority may offer to sell, or authorize a board, officer, or 14430 director of the municipal corporation having supervision or 14431 management of the property to offer to sell, those vehicles, 14432 equipment, or machinery and to have the selling price credited 14433 against the purchase price of other vehicles, equipment, or 14434 machinery and to consummate the sale and purchase by a single 14435 contract with the lowest and best bidder to be determined by 14436 subtracting from the selling price of the vehicles, equipment, or 14437 machinery to be purchased by the municipal corporation the 14438 purchase price offered for the municipally-owned vehicles, 14439 equipment, or machinery. When the legislative authority or the 14440 authorized board, officer, or director of a municipal corporation 14441 advertises for bids for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or 14442 machinery to the municipal corporation, they may include in the 14443 same advertisement a notice of willingness to accept bids for the 14444 purchase of municipally-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery 14445 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 14446

and to have the amount of those bids subtracted from the selling 14447 price as a means of determining the lowest and best bidder. 14448

(C) If the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 14449 determines that municipal personal property is not needed for 14450 public use, or is obsolete or unfit for the use for which it was 14451 acquired, and that the property has no value, the legislative 14452 authority may discard or salvage that property. 14453

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A) 14454 or (B) of this section and regardless of the property's value, the 14455 legislative authority of a municipal corporation may sell personal 14456 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of 14457 municipal officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, 14458 tools, or supplies, which is not needed for public use, or is 14459 obsolete or unfit for the use for which it was acquired, by 14460 internet auction. The legislative authority shall adopt, during 14461 each calendar year, a resolution expressing its intent to sell 14462 that property by internet auction. The resolution shall include a 14463 description of how the auctions will be conducted and shall 14464 specify the number of days for bidding on the property, which 14465 shall be no less than ~~fifteen~~ ten days, including Saturdays, 14466 Sundays, and legal holidays. The resolution shall indicate whether 14467 the municipal corporation will conduct the auction or the 14468 legislative authority will contract with a representative to 14469 conduct the auction and shall establish the general terms and 14470 conditions of sale. If a representative is known when the 14471 resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 14472 information such as the representative's name, address, and 14473 telephone number. 14474

After adoption of the resolution, the legislative authority 14475 shall publish, in a newspaper of general circulation in the 14476 municipal corporation, notice of its intent to sell unneeded, 14477 obsolete, or unfit municipal personal property by internet 14478 auction. The notice shall include a summary of the information 14479 provided in the resolution and shall be published at least twice. 14480
The second and any subsequent notice shall be published not less 14481 than ten nor more than twenty days after the previous notice. A 14482 similar notice also shall be posted continually throughout the 14483 calendar year in a conspicuous place in the offices of the village 14484 clerk or city auditor, and the legislative authority, and, if the 14485 municipal corporation maintains a website on the internet, the 14486 notice shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year at 14487 that website. 14488

When the property is to be sold by internet auction, the 14489 legislative authority or its representative may establish a 14490 minimum price that will be accepted for specific items and may 14491 establish any other terms and conditions for the particular sale, 14492 including requirements for pick-up or delivery, method of payment, 14493 and sales tax. This type of information shall be provided on the 14494 internet at the time of the auction and may be provided before 14495 that time upon request after the terms and conditions have been 14496 determined by the legislative authority or its representative. 14497

Sec. 737.39. (A) A municipal police officer who is trained in 14498 the same manner as uniformed employees of the motor carrier 14499 enforcement unit created under section 5503.34 of the Revised Code 14500

with any provision of Chapters 4919., 4921., and 4923. of the 14502 Revised Code or of a rule or order adopted or issued under those 14503 chapters regarding commercial motor vehicle transportation safety, 14504 economic, and hazardous materials requirements. 14505

(B)(1) A municipal police officer acting under division (A) 14506 of this section shall do both of the following: 14507

laws; 14510

(b) Comply with any rules adopted pursuant to section 4919.80 14511
of the Revised Code. 14512

(2) A uniformed municipal police officer under division (A) 14513
of this section may stop commercial motor vehicles for the purpose 14514
of inspecting those vehicles in carrying out that division. 14515

nitrogen or phosphorus guaranteed on the label, multiplied by the 14985 number of tons of mislabeled fertilizer that have been sold to the 14986 consumer; 14987

(b) Three dollars for each percentage point of potash in the 14988 fertilizer that is below the percentage of potash guaranteed on 14989 the label, multiplied by the number of tons of mislabeled 14990 fertilizer that have been sold to the consumer. 14991

(2) In the case of a fertilizer that contains a quantity of 14992 nitrogen, phosphorus, or potash that is more than five percentage 14993 points below the percentages guaranteed on the label, the 14994 penalties calculated under division (A)(1) of this section shall 14995 be tripled. 14996

(3) No penalty calculated under division (A) of this section 14997 shall be less than twenty-five dollars. 14998

(B) A penalty required to be paid under this section may be 14999 calculated by multiplying the market value of one unit of the 15000 mislabeled fertilizer by the number of units of the mislabeled 15001 fertilizer that have been sold to the consumer. 15002

(C) Upon making a determination under this section that a 15003 person has mislabeled fertilizer or mixed fertilizer, the director 15004 shall determine the parties to whom the penalty imposed by this 15005 section is required to be paid and, in accordance with division 15006
(A) or (B) of this section, as applicable, shall calculate the 15007 amount of the penalty required to be paid to each such party. 15008
After completing those determinations and calculations, the 15009 director shall issue to the person who allegedly mislabeled the 15010 fertilizer or mixed fertilizer a notice of violation. The notice 15011 shall be accompanied by an order requiring, and specifying the 15012 manner of, payment of the penalty imposed by this section to the 15013 parties in the amounts set forth in the determinations and 15014 during the period from the first day of January to the thirtieth 15190 day of June of that year. 15191

(B) A person who holds a valid seed labeler permit shall 15192 without a hearing, to issue a subsequent seed labeler permit for 15239 which the person applies. 15240 critical control point plan as required by rules, the director may 15366 condemn or retain the product on hand and immediately withdraw 15367

(F) Any person operating an establishment as defined in 15375 section 918.01 of the Revised Code who also operates on the same 15376 premises an establishment as defined in section 918.21 of the 15377 Revised Code shall apply either for licensure under section 918.08 15378 of the Revised Code or for licensure under section 918.28 of the 15379 Revised Code, but not for both, as the director shall determine. 15380

(G) If the director determines that the owner or operator of 15381 or any person employed by an establishment licensed under division 15382
(A) of this section forcibly assaulted, resisted, opposed, 15383 impeded, intimidated, or interfered with any person while that 15384 person was engaged in, or because of the person's performance of, 15385 official duties under sections 918.01 to 918.12 of the Revised Code or the rules adopted under those sections, the director immediately may withdraw inspection from the establishment prior to an adjudication hearing as required under section 119.06 of the Revised Code.

(H) In addition to any remedies provided by law and irrespective of whether or not there exists an adequate remedy at law, the director may apply to the court of common pleas of the county in which a violation of sections 918.01 to 918.12 of the Revised Code or rules adopted under those sections occurs for a temporary or permanent injunction or other appropriate relief concerning the violation.

Sec. 918.28. (A) Except as provided in division (F) of section 918.08 of the Revised Code, application for a license to operate an establishment shall be made to the director of agriculture on forms provided by the department of agriculture. The director shall inspect the establishment and if, upon inspection, the establishment is found to be in compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it, the director shall so notify the owner of the establishment and, upon receipt of the annual license fee of ~~fifty~~ one hundred dollars, shall issue the owner a license. However, if after inspection the director finds that an establishment is not in compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it, the director shall deny the license application. The applicant may appeal the denial of the license application in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The license shall expire on the thirty-first day of March of each year and, if the director finds that the establishment is in compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it, shall be renewed according to the standard renewal procedures of sections 4745.01 to 4745.03 of the Revised Code.

(B) If after inspection the director determines that an establishment licensed under this section is operating in violation of this chapter or a rule or order adopted or issued under authority thereof, the director shall notify the licensee in writing of the violation, giving the licensee ten days from the date of the notice to correct the conditions causing the violation. If the conditions are not corrected within the ten-day period, the director may do either of the following:

(1) Impose progressive enforcement actions as provided in division (C)(1) of this section in the same manner as inspectors;

(2) Suspend or revoke the license in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

(2) As used in division (C)(1) of this section, "suspension of inspection held in abeyance" means a period of time during which a suspension of inspection is lifted because an 15449 establishment has presented the director with a corrective action 15450 plan that, if implemented properly, would bring the establishment 15451 into compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it. 15452

(D) If in the opinion of the director the establishment is 15453 being operated under such insanitary conditions as to be a hazard 15454 to public health, or if the director determines that an 15455 establishment is not in compliance with its hazard analysis 15456 critical control point plan as required by rules, the director may 15457
condemn or retain the product on hand and immediately withdraw 15458 inspection from the establishment until such time as the 15459 insanitary conditions are corrected or until the establishment is 15460 in compliance with its hazard analysis critical control point 15461 plan, as applicable. 15462

(E) If the director determines that the owner or operator of 15463
or any person employed by an establishment licensed under division 15464
(A) of this section forcibly assaulted, resisted, opposed, 15465
official duties under sections 918.21 to 918.31 of the Revised 15468 Code or the rules adopted under those sections, the director 15469 immediately may withdraw inspection from the establishment prior 15470 to an adjudication hearing as required under section 119.06 of the 15471
Revised Code. 15472

(F) In addition to any remedies provided by law and 15473 irrespective of whether or not there exists an adequate remedy at 15474 law, the director may apply to the court of common pleas of the 15475 county in which a violation of sections 918.21 to 918.31 of the 15476 Revised Code or rules adopted under those sections occurs for a 15477 temporary or permanent injunction or other appropriate relief 15478 concerning the violation. 15479

Sec. 921.02. (A) No person shall distribute a pesticide 15480 within this state unless the pesticide is registered with the 15481 director of agriculture under this chapter. Registrations shall be 15482 issued for a period of time established by rule and shall be 15483 renewed in accordance with deadlines established by rule. 15484 Registration is not required if a pesticide is shipped from one 15485 plant or warehouse to another plant or warehouse operated by the 15486 same person and used solely at that plant or warehouse as a 15487 constituent part to make a pesticide that is registered under this 15488 chapter, or if the pesticide is distributed under the provisions 15489 of an experimental use permit issued under section 921.03 of the 15490 Revised Code or an experimental use permit issued by the United 15491 States environmental protection agency. 15492

(B) The applicant for registration of a pesticide shall file 15493 a statement with the director on a form provided by the director, 15494 which shall include all of the following: 15495

(1) The name and address of the applicant and the name and 15496 address of the person whose name will appear on the label, if 15497 other than the applicant's name; 15498

(2) The brand and product name of the pesticide; 15499

(3) Any necessary information required for completion of the 15500 department of agriculture's application for registration, 15501 including the agency registration number; 15502

(4) A complete copy of the labeling accompanying the 15503 pesticide and a statement of all claims to be made for it, 15504 including the directions for use and the use classification as 15505 provided for in the federal act. 15506

(C) The director, when the director considers it necessary in 15507 the administration of this chapter, may require the submission of 15508 the complete formula of any pesticide including the active and 15509 inert ingredients. 15510

(D) The director may require a full description of the tests 15511 made and the results thereof upon which the claims are based for 15512 any pesticide. The director shall not consider any data submitted 15513 in support of an application, without permission of the applicant, 15514 in support of any other application for registration unless the 15515 other applicant first has offered to pay reasonable compensation 15516 for producing the test data to be relied upon and the data are not 15517 protected from disclosure by section 921.04 of the Revised Code. 15518
In the case of a renewal of registration, a statement shall be 15519 required only with respect to information that is different from 15520 that furnished when the pesticide was registered or last 15521 registered. 15522

(E) The director may require any other information to be 15523 submitted with an application. 15524

Any applicant may designate any portion of the required 15525 registration information as a trade secret or confidential 15526 business information. Upon receipt of any required registration 15527 information designated as a trade secret or confidential business 15528 information, the director shall consider the designated 15529 information as confidential and shall not reveal or cause to be 15530 revealed any such designated information without the consent of 15531 the applicants, except to persons directly involved in the 15532 registration process described in this section or as required by 15533 law. 15534

(F) Beginning January 1, 2007, each applicant shall pay a 15535 registration and inspection fee of one hundred fifty dollars for 15536 each product name and brand registered for the company whose name 15537 appears on the label. If an applicant files for a renewal of 15538 registration after the deadline established by rule, the applicant 15539 shall pay a penalty fee of seventy-five dollars for each product 15540 name and brand registered for the applicant. The penalty fee shall 15541 be added to the original fee and paid before the renewal 15542 registration is issued. In addition to any other remedy available 15543 under this chapter, if a pesticide that is not registered pursuant 15544 to this section is distributed within this state, the person 15545 required to register the pesticide shall do so and shall pay a 15546 penalty fee of seventy-five dollars for each product name and 15547 brand registered for the applicant. The penalty fee shall be added 15548 to the original fee of one hundred fifty dollars and paid before 15549 the registration is issued. 15550

(G) Provided that the state is authorized by the 15551 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 15552 to register pesticides to meet special local needs, the director 15553 shall require the information set forth under divisions (B), (C), 15554 (D), and (E) of this section and shall register any such pesticide 15555 after determining that all of the following conditions are met: 15556

(1) Its composition is such as to warrant the proposed claims 15557 for it. 15558

(2) Its labeling and other material required to be submitted 15559 comply with the requirements of the federal act and of this 15560 chapter, and rules adopted thereunder. 15561

(3) It will perform its intended function without 15562 unreasonable adverse effects on the environment. 15563

(4) When used in accordance with widespread and commonly 15564 recognized practice, it will not generally cause unreasonable 15565 adverse effects on the environment. 15566

(5) The classification for general or restricted use is in 15567 conformity with the federal act. 15568

The director shall not make any lack of essentiality a 15569 criterion for denying the registration of any pesticide. When two 15570 pesticides meet the requirements of division (G) of this section, 15571 the director shall not register one in preference to the other. 15572

(H)(1) The director may refuse to register a pesticide if the application for registration fails to comply with this section.

(2) The director may suspend or revoke a pesticide registration after a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for a pesticide that fails to meet the claims made for it on its label.

(3) The director may immediately suspend a pesticide registration, prior to a hearing, when the director believes that the pesticide poses an immediate hazard to human or animal health or a hazard to the environment. Not later than fifteen days after suspending the registration, the director shall determine whether the pesticide poses such a hazard. If the director determines that no hazard exists, the director shall lift the suspension of the registration. If the director determines that a hazard exists, the director shall revoke the registration in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.

(I) All money collected under this section shall be credited to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund created in section 921.22 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 921.06. (A)(1) No individual shall do any of the following without having a commercial applicator license issued by the director of agriculture:

(a) Apply pesticides for a pesticide business without direct supervision;

(b) Apply pesticides as part of the individual's duties while acting as an employee of the United States government, a state, county, township, or municipal corporation, or a park district, port authority, or sanitary district created under Chapter 1545., 4582., or 6115. of the Revised Code, respectively;

(c) Apply restricted use pesticides. Division (A)(1)(c) of this section does not apply to a private applicator or an immediate family member or a subordinate employee of a private applicator who is acting under the direct supervision of that private applicator.

(d) If the individual is the owner of a business other than a pesticide business or an employee of such an owner, apply pesticides at any of the following publicly accessible sites that are located on the property:

(i) Food service operations that are licensed under Chapter 3717. of the Revised Code;

(ii) Retail food establishments that are licensed under Chapter 3717. of the Revised Code;

(iii) Golf courses;

(iv) Rental properties of more than four apartment units at one location;

(v) Hospitals or medical facilities as defined in section 3701.01 of the Revised Code;

(vi) Child day-care centers or school child day-care centers as defined in section 5104.01 of the Revised Code;

(vii) Facilities owned or operated by a school district established under Chapter 3311. of the Revised Code, including an education service center, a community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, or a chartered or nonchartered nonpublic school that meets minimum standards established by the state board of education;

(ix) Food processing establishments as defined in section 3715.021 of the Revised Code;

(x) Any other site designated by rule.

(2) Divisions (A)(1)(a) to (d) of this section do not apply 15634 to an individual who is acting as a trained serviceperson under 15635 the direct supervision of a commercial applicator. 15636

(3) Licenses shall be issued for a period of time established 15637 by rule and shall be renewed in accordance with deadlines 15638 established by rule. The fee for each such license shall be 15639 established by rule. If a license is not issued or renewed, the 15640 application fee shall be retained by the state as payment for the 15641 reasonable expense of processing the application. The director 15642 shall by rule classify by pesticide-use category licenses to be 15643 issued under this section. A single license may include more than 15644 one pesticide-use category. No individual shall be required to pay 15645 an additional license fee if the individual is licensed for more 15646 than one category. 15647

The fee for each license or renewal does not apply to an 15648 applicant who is an employee of the department of agriculture 15649 whose job duties require licensure as a commercial applicator as a 15650 condition of employment. 15651

(B) Application for a commercial applicator license shall be 15652 made on a form prescribed by the director. Each application for a 15653 license shall state the pesticide-use category or categories of 15654 license for which the applicant is applying and other information 15655 that the director determines essential to the administration of 15656 this chapter. 15657

(C) If the director finds that the applicant is competent to 15658 apply pesticides and conduct diagnostic inspections and that the 15659 applicant has passed both the general examination and each 15660 applicable pesticide-use category examination as required under 15661 division (A) of section 921.12 of the Revised Code, the director 15662 shall issue a commercial applicator license limited to the 15663 pesticide-use category or categories for which the applicant is 15664 found to be competent. If the director rejects an application, the 15665 director may explain why the application was rejected, describe 15666 the additional requirements necessary for the applicant to obtain 15667 a license, and return the application. The applicant may resubmit 15668 the application without payment of any additional fee. 15669

(D)(1) A person who is a commercial applicator shall be 15670 deemed to hold a private applicator's license for purposes of 15671 applying pesticides on agricultural commodities that are produced 15672 by the commercial applicator. 15673

(2) A commercial applicator shall apply pesticides only in 15674 the pesticide-use category or categories in which the applicator 15675 is licensed under this chapter. 15676

(E) All money collected under this section shall be credited 15677 to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund created in 15678
section 921.22 of the Revised Code. 15679

Sec. 921.09. (A)(1) No person shall own or operate a 15680 pesticide business without obtaining a license from the director 15681 of agriculture. Licenses shall be issued for a period of time 15682 established by rule and shall be renewed in accordance with 15683 deadlines established by rule. 15684

(2) A person applying for a pesticide business license shall 15685 register each location that is owned by the person and used for 15686
the purpose of engaging in the pesticide business. 15687

(B) Any person who owns or operates a pesticide business 15688 outside of this state, but engages in the business of applying 15689 pesticides to properties of another for hire in this state, shall 15690 obtain a license for the person's principal out-of-state location 15691 from the director. In addition, the person shall register each 15692 location that is owned by the person in this state and used for 15693

the purpose of engaging in the pesticide business. 15694

(C)(1) The person applying for a pesticide business license 15695 shall file a statement with the director, on a form provided by 15696 the director, that shall include all of the following: 15697

(a) The address of the principal place of business of the 15698 pesticide business; 15699

(b) The address of each location that the person intends to 15700 register under division (A)(2) or (B) of this section; 15701

(c) Any other information that the director determines 15702 necessary and that the director requires by rule. 15703

(2) Each applicant shall pay a license fee established by 15704 rule for the pesticide business plus an additional fee established 15705 by rule for each pesticide business registered location specified 15706 in the application. The license may be renewed upon payment of a 15707 renewal fee established by rule plus an additional fee established 15708 by rule for each pesticide business registered location. A copy of 15709 the license shall be maintained and conspicuously displayed at 15710
each such location. 15711

(3) The issuance of a pesticide business license constitutes 15712 registration of any pesticide business location identified in the 15713 application under division (C)(1) of this section. 15714

(4) The owner or operator of a pesticide business shall 15715 notify the director not later than fifteen days after any change 15716 occurs in the information required under division (C)(1)(a) or (b) 15717

(D) The owner or operator of a pesticide business shall 15719 employ at least one commercial applicator for each pesticide 15720 business registered location the owner or operator owns or 15721 operates. 15722

(E) The owner or operator of a pesticide business is 15723 responsible for the acts of each employee in the handling, 15724 application, and use of pesticides and in the conducting of 15725 diagnostic inspections. The pesticide business license is subject 15726 to denial, modification, suspension, or revocation after a hearing 15727 for any violation of this chapter or any rule adopted or order 15728 issued under it. The director may levy against the owner or 15729 operator any civil penalties authorized by division (B) of section 15730 921.16 of the Revised Code for any violation of this chapter or 15731 any rule adopted or order issued under it that is committed by the 15732 owner or operator or by the owner's or operator's officer, 15733 employee, or agent. 15734

(F) The director may modify a license issued under this 15735 section by one of the following methods: 15736

(1) Revoking a licensee's authority to operate out of a 15737 particular pesticide business registered location listed under 15738 division (C)(1)(b) of this section; 15739

(2) Preventing a licensee from operating within a specific 15740 pesticide-use category. 15741

(G) The director may deny a pesticide business license to any 15742 person whose pesticide business license has been revoked within 15743 the previous thirty-six months. 15744

(H) Each pesticide business registered location that is owned 15745 by a pesticide business is subject to inspection by the director. 15746

(I) All money collected under this section shall be credited 15747
to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund created in 15748
section 921.22 of the Revised Code. 15749

Sec. 921.11. (A)(1) No individual shall apply restricted use 15750 pesticides unless the individual is one of the following: 15751

(c) A trained serviceperson who is acting under the direct supervision of a commercial applicator; 15754
15755

(d) An immediate family member or a subordinate employee of a private applicator who is acting under the direct supervision of that private applicator. 15756
15757
15758

(2) No individual shall directly supervise the application of a restricted use pesticide unless the individual is one of the following: 15759
15760

(b) Licensed under division (B) of this section. 15763

15774
15776

(C) An individual who is licensed under this section shall use or directly supervise the use of a restricted use pesticide only for the purpose of producing agricultural commodities on property that is owned or rented by the individual or the individual's employer. 15777
15778

15781

(D) All money collected under this section shall be credited to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund created in section 921.22 of the Revised Code. 15782

Sec. 921.13. (A) Any person who is acting in the capacity of 15785 a pesticide dealer or who advertises or assumes to act as a 15786 pesticide dealer at any time shall obtain a pesticide dealer 15787 license from the director of agriculture. Licenses shall be issued 15788 for a period of time established by rule and shall be renewed in 15789 accordance with deadlines established by rule. A license is 15790 required for each location or outlet within this state from which 15791 the person distributes pesticides. 15792

Any pesticide dealer who has no pesticide dealer outlets in 15793 this state and who distributes restricted use pesticides directly 15794 into this state shall obtain a pesticide dealer license from the 15795 director for the pesticide dealer's principal out-of-state 15796 location or outlet and for each sales person operating in the 15797
state. 15798

The applicant shall include a license fee established by rule 15799 with the application for a license. The application shall be made 15800 on a form prescribed by the director. 15801

Each pesticide dealer shall submit records to the director of 15802 all of the restricted use pesticides the pesticide dealer has 15803 distributed, as specified by the director, and duplicate records 15804 shall be retained by the pesticide dealer for a period of time 15805 established by rules. 15806

(B) This section does not apply to any federal, state, 15807 county, or municipal agency that provides pesticides for its own 15808 programs. 15809

(C) Each licensed pesticide dealer is responsible for the 15810 acts of each employee in the solicitation and sale of pesticides 15811 and all claims and recommendations for use of pesticides. The 15812 pesticide dealer's license is subject to denial, suspension, or 15813 revocation after a hearing for any violation of this chapter 15814 whether committed by the pesticide dealer or by the pesticide 15815 dealer's officer, agent, or employee. 15816

(D) All money collected under this section shall be credited 15817
to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund created in 15818
section 921.22 of the Revised Code. 15819

Sec. 921.16. (A) The director of agriculture shall adopt 15820 rules the director determines necessary for the effective 15821 enforcement and administration of this chapter. The rules may 15822 relate to, but are not limited to, the time, place, manner, and 15823 methods of application, materials, and amounts and concentrations 15824 of application of pesticides, may restrict or prohibit the use of 15825 pesticides in designated areas during specified periods of time, 15826 and shall encompass all reasonable factors that the director 15827 determines necessary to minimize or prevent damage to the 15828 environment. In addition, the rules shall establish the deadlines 15829 and time periods for registration, registration renewal, late 15830 registration renewal, and failure to register under section 921.02 15831 of the Revised Code; the fees for registration, registration 15832 renewal, late registration renewal, and failure to register under 15833 section 921.02 of the Revised Code that shall apply until the fees 15834 that are established under that section take effect on January 1, 15835 2007; and the fees, deadlines, and time periods for licensure and 15836 license renewal under sections 921.06, 921.09, 921.11, and 921.13 15837
of the Revised Code. 15838

(B) The director shall adopt rules that establish a schedule 15839 of civil penalties for violations of this chapter, or any rule or 15840 order adopted or issued under it, provided that the civil penalty 15841 for a first violation shall not exceed five thousand dollars and 15842 the civil penalty for each subsequent violation shall not exceed 15843 ten thousand dollars. In determining the amount of a civil penalty 15844 for a violation, the director shall consider factors relevant to 15845 which the projects are executed, local soil and water conservation 18801 districts, and authorities responsible for such projects; 18802

(3) Review plans for such projects to ensure their compliance 18803 with standards developed under division (E) of this section in 18804 cooperation with the department of transportation or with any 18805 other interested agency that is engaged in soil or water 18806 conservation projects in the state in order to minimize adverse 18807 impacts on soil and water resources adjacent to or otherwise 18808 affected by these projects; 18809

(4) Recommend measures to retard erosion and protect soil and 18810 water resources through the installation of water impoundment or 18811 other soil and water conservation practices; 18812

(5) Cooperate with other agencies and subdivisions of the 18813 state to protect the agricultural status of rural lands adjacent 18814 to such projects and control adverse impacts on soil and water 18815 resources. 18816

(J) Collect, analyze, inventory, and interpret all available 18817 information pertaining to the origin, distribution, extent, use, 18818 and conservation of the soil resources of the state; 18819

(K) Prepare and maintain up-to-date reports, maps, and other 18820 materials pertaining to the soil resources of the state and their 18821 use and make that information available to governmental agencies, 18822 public officials, conservation entities, and the public; 18823

(L) Provide soil and water conservation districts with 18824 technical assistance including on-site soil investigations and 18825 soil interpretation reports on the suitability or limitations of 18826 soil to support a particular use or to plan soil conservation 18827 measures. The assistance shall be upon such terms as are mutually 18828 agreeable to the districts and the department of natural 18829 resources. 18830

(M) Assist local government officials in utilizing land use 18831 planning and zoning, current agricultural use value assessment, 18832 development reviews, and land management activities; 18833

(N) When necessary for the purposes of this chapter or 18834
Chapter 1515. of the Revised Code, develop or approve operation 18835 and management plans. 18836

This section does not restrict the excrement of domestic or 18837 farm animals defecated on land outside a concentrated animal 18838 feeding operation or runoff therefrom into the waters of the 18839
state. 18840

Sec. 1511.021. (A) Any person who owns or operates 18841 agricultural land or a concentrated animal feeding operation may 18842 develop and operate under an operation and management plan 18843 approved by the chief of the division of soil and water 18844 ~~conservation~~ resources under section 1511.02 of the Revised Code 18845 or by the supervisors of the local soil and water conservation 18846 district under section 1515.08 of the Revised Code. 18847

(B) Any person who wishes to make a complaint regarding 18848 nuisances involving agricultural pollution may do so orally or by 18849 submitting a written, signed, and dated complaint to the chief or 18850 to the chief's designee. After receiving an oral complaint, the 18851 chief or the chief's designee may cause an investigation to be 18852 conducted to determine whether agricultural pollution has occurred 18853 or is imminent. After receiving a written, signed, and dated 18854 complaint, the chief or the chief's designee shall cause such an 18855 investigation to be conducted. 18856

(C) In a private civil action for nuisances involving 18857 agricultural pollution, it is an affirmative defense if the person 18858 owning, operating, or otherwise responsible for agricultural land 18859 or a concentrated animal feeding operation is operating under and 18860 in substantial compliance with an approved operation and 18861 management plan developed under division (A) of this section, with 18862 an operation and management plan developed by the chief under 18863 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code or by the supervisors of the 18864 local soil and water conservation district under section 1515.08 18865 of the Revised Code, or with an operation and management plan 18866 required by an order issued by the chief under division (G) of 18867 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this section is in 18868 derogation of the authority granted to the chief in division (E) 18869 of section 1511.02 and in section 1511.07 of the Revised Code. 18870

Sec. 1511.022. (A) Any person who owns or operates an 18871 agricultural operation, or owns the animals raised by the owner or 18872 operator of an agricultural operation, and who wishes to conduct 18873 composting of dead animals resulting from the agricultural 18874 operation shall do both of the following: 18875

(1) Participate in an educational course concerning 18876 composting conducted by the Ohio cooperative extension service and 18877 obtain a certificate of completion for the course; 18878

(2) Use the appropriate method, technique, or practice of 18879 composting established in rules adopted under division (E)~~(10)~~(8) 18880
of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. 18881

(B) Any person who fails to comply with division (A) of this 18882 section shall prepare and operate under a composting plan in 18883 accordance with an order issued by the chief of the division of 18884 soil and water ~~conservation~~ resources under division (G) of 18885 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. If the person's proposed 18886 composting plan is disapproved by the board of supervisors of the 18887 appropriate soil and water conservation district under division 18888 ~~(U)~~(Q)(3) of section 1515.08 of the Revised Code, the person may 18889 appeal the plan disapproval to the chief, who shall afford the 18890 person a hearing. Following the hearing, the chief shall uphold 18891 the plan disapproval or reverse it. If the chief reverses the 18892 disapproval, the plan shall be deemed approved. 18893

Sec. 1511.03. The chief of the division of soil and water 18894 ~~conservation~~ resources may enter into contracts or agreements, 18895 with the approval of the director of natural resources, with any 18896 agency of the United States government, or any other public or 18897 private agency, or organization, for the performance of the 18898 prescribed duties of the division, or for accomplishing 18899 cooperative projects within the designated duties of the division. 18900

Sec. 1511.04. The chief of the division of soil and water 18901 ~~conservation~~ resources may accept, on behalf of the department of 18902 natural resources, donations, grants and contributions in money, 18903 service, or equipment to enlarge or expedite the prescribed work 18904 of the division. 18905

Sec. 1511.05. The chief of the division of soil and water 18906 ~~conservation~~ resources, subject to approval of the terms of the 18907 agreement by the soil and water conservation commission, shall 18908 enter into cooperative agreements with the board of supervisors of 18909 any soil and water conservation district desiring to enter into 18910 such agreements pursuant to section 1515.08 of the Revised Code. 18911 Such agreements shall be entered into to obtain compliance with 18912 rules and orders of the chief pertaining to agricultural pollution 18913 abatement and urban sediment pollution abatement. 18914

The chief or any person designated by the chief may upon 18915 obtaining agreement with the owner, tenant, or manager of any 18916 land, public or private, enter thereon to make inspections to 18917 determine whether or not there is compliance with the rules 18918 adopted under division (E)(1) of section 1511.02 of the Revised 18919 Code. Upon reason to believe there is a violation, the chief or 18920 ~~his~~ the chief's designee may apply for and a judge of the court of 18921 common pleas for the county where the land is located may issue an 18922 appropriate inspection warrant as necessary to achieve the 18923 purposes of this chapter. 18924

Sec. 1511.06. The chief of the division of soil and water 18925
~~conservation~~ resources may enter into agreements with local 18926 government agencies for the purpose of soil surveys, land use 18927 inventories, and other soil-related duties. 18928

Sec. 1511.07. (A)(1) No person shall fail to comply with an 18929 order of the chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ 18930 resources issued pursuant to division (G) of section 1511.02 of 18931
the Revised Code. 18932

(2) In addition to the remedies provided and irrespective of 18933 whether an adequate remedy at law exists, the chief may apply to 18934 the court of common pleas in the county where a violation of a 18935 standard established under division (E)(1) or ~~(10)~~(8)(b) of 18936 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code causes pollution of the waters 18937 of the state for an order to compel the violator to cease the 18938 violation and to remove the agricultural pollutant or to comply 18939 with the rules adopted under division (E)~~(10)~~(8)(b) of that 18940 section, as appropriate. 18941

(3) In addition to the remedies provided and irrespective of 18942 whether an adequate remedy at law exists, whenever the chief 18943 officially determines that an emergency exists because of an 18944 unauthorized release, spill, or discharge of animal waste, or a 18945 violation of a rule adopted under division (E)~~(10)~~(8)(b) of 18946 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code, that causes pollution of the 18947 waters of the state, the chief may, without notice or hearing, 18948 issue an order reciting the existence of the emergency and 18949 requiring that necessary action be taken to meet the emergency. 18950
The order shall be effective immediately. Any person to whom the 18951 order is directed shall comply with the order immediately, but on 18952 application to the chief shall be afforded a hearing as soon as 18953 possible, but not later than twenty days after making the 18954 application. On the basis of the hearing, the chief shall continue 18955 the order in effect, revoke it, or modify it. No emergency order 18956 shall remain in effect for more than sixty days after its 18957 issuance. If a person to whom an order is issued does not comply 18958 with the order within a reasonable period, as determined by the 18959 chief, the chief or the chief's designee may enter upon private or 18960 public lands and take action to mitigate, minimize, remove, or 18961 abate the release, spill, discharge, or conditions caused by the 18962 violation of the rule. 18963

(B) The attorney general, upon the written request of the 18964 chief, shall bring appropriate legal action in Franklin county 18965 against any person who fails to comply with an order of the chief 18966 issued pursuant to division (G) of section 1511.02 of the Revised 18967
Code. 18968

Sec. 1511.071. There is hereby created in the state treasury 18969 the agricultural pollution abatement fund, which shall be 18970 administered by the chief of the division of soil and water 18971 ~~conservation~~ resources. The fund may be used to pay costs incurred 18972 by the division under division (A)(3) of section 1511.07 of the 18973 Revised Code in investigating, mitigating, minimizing, removing, 18974 or abating any pollution of the waters of the state caused by an 18975 unauthorized release, spill, or discharge of animal waste into or 18976 upon the environment that requires emergency action to protect the 18977 public health. 18978

Any person responsible for causing or allowing an 18979 unauthorized release, spill, or discharge is liable to the chief 18980 for any costs incurred by the division and soil and water 18981 conservation districts in investigating, mitigating, minimizing, 18982 removing, or abating the release, spill, or discharge, regardless 18983 of whether those costs were paid out of the agricultural pollution 18984 abatement fund or any other fund of the division or a district. 18985 Upon the request of the chief, the attorney general shall bring a 18986 civil action against the responsible person to recover those 18987 costs. Moneys recovered under this section shall be paid into the 18988 agricultural pollution abatement fund. 18989

Sec. 1511.08. Any person claiming to be deprived of a right 18990 or protection afforded ~~him~~ the person by law by an order of the 18991 chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ resources, 18992 except an order which adopts a rule, may appeal to the court of 18993 common pleas of Franklin county or the court of common pleas of 18994 the county in which the alleged violation exists. 18995

If the court finds that the order of the chief appealed from 18996 was lawful and reasonable, it shall affirm such order. If the 18997 court finds that such order was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall 18998 vacate such order and make the order which it finds the chief 18999 should have made. The judgment of the court is final unless 19000 reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal. 19001

Sec. 1513.021. (A) As used in this section, "ton" means two 19002 thousand pounds of coal that is measured at the point and time of 19003 extraction after the removal of any impurities. 19004

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (D) of this 19005 section, there is charged to an operator an energy resource 19006 extraction fee of eight cents per ton of coal. The fee that is 19007 charged under this section is to provide funding for the division 19008 of mineral resources management to administer the coal mining and 19009 reclamation program, satisfy the regulatory, environmental, and 19010 natural resources management requirements of this state, and 19011 reclaim land affected by mining. 19012

(C) In accordance with rules adopted under this section, the 19013 chief of the division of mineral resources management shall 19014 collect from each operator the fee that is charged under this 19015 section. The chief shall transmit all money collected under this 19016 section to the treasurer of state who shall transmit one cent per 19017 ton of coal to the county treasurer of the county from which the 19018 coal is extracted for the use of the general fund of that county 19019 and shall credit the remaining amount to the coal mining 19020 administration and reclamation reserve fund created in section 19021

1513.181 of the Revised Code. 19022

(D) Beginning July 1, 2013, and thereafter not later than 19023 thirty days after the end of a fiscal biennium, the director of 19024 natural resources shall examine the balance of the coal mining 19025 administration and reclamation reserve fund to determine if the 19026 fund contains sufficient money to fulfill the purposes specified 19027 in division (B) of this section for the fiscal biennium in which 19028 the examination is conducted. The director shall certify the 19029 director's determination to the director of budget and management 19030 and the treasurer of state. If the director of natural resources 19031 determines that the fund contains sufficient money for that fiscal 19032 biennium, the energy resource extraction fee shall be four cents 19033 per ton of coal. If the director determines that the fund does not 19034 contain sufficient money, the energy resource extraction fee shall 19035 be eight cents per ton of coal. 19036

(E) The chief, with the approval of the director of natural 19037 resources, shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of 19038 the Revised Code for the administration of this section. 19039

(F) In any fiscal year, the director of natural resources may 19040 request the director of budget and management to transfer from the 19041 coal mining administration and reclamation reserve fund to the 19042 geological mapping fund created in section 1505.09 of the Revised 19043 Code a portion of the money credited to the coal mining 19044 administration and reclamation reserve fund resulting from the 19045 energy resource extraction fee that is collected under this 19046
section. 19047

(G) Not later than January 1, 2015, the chief, in cooperation 19048 with a statewide association representing the coal mining industry 19049 and a statewide environmental advocacy association, shall complete 19050 a study to determine the solvency of the coal mining 19051 administration and reclamation fund and shall report the 19052 determination to the director of budget and management and make 19053 recommendations to the director concerning the rate of the energy 19054 resource extraction fee charged under this section. 19055

Sec. 1514.08. (A) The chief of the division of mineral 19056 resources management may adopt, amend, and rescind rules in 19057 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code in order to 19058 prescribe procedures for submitting applications for permits, 19059 amendments to permits, and amendments to plans of mining and 19060 reclamation; filing annual reports and final reports; requesting 19061 inspection and approval of reclamation; paying permit and filing 19062 fees; and filing and obtaining the release of performance bonds 19063 deposited with the state. For the purpose of preventing damage to 19064 adjoining property or achieving one or more of the performance 19065 standards established in division (A)(10) of section 1514.02 of 19066 the Revised Code, the chief may establish classes of mining 19067 industries, based upon industrial categories, combinations of 19068 minerals produced, and geological conditions in which surface or 19069 in-stream mining operations occur, and may prescribe different 19070 rules consistent with the performance standards for each class. 19071 For the purpose of apportioning the workload of the division of 19072 mineral resources management among the quarters of the year, the 19073 rules may require that applications for permits and annual reports 19074 be filed in different quarters of the year, depending upon the 19075 county in which the operation is located. 19076

(B) The chief shall adopt rules under this section that do 19077 all of the following: 19078

(1) With respect to in-stream mining, and in consultation 19079 with the chief of the division of soil and water resources, 19080 determine periods of low flow, which are the only time periods 19081 during which in-stream mining is allowed, and develop and 19082 implement any criteria, in addition to the criteria established in 19083 section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, that the chief determines are 19084 necessary for the permitting of in-stream mining; 19085

(2) Establish criteria and procedures for approving or 19086 disapproving the transfer of a surface or in-stream mining permit 19087 under division (F) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code; 19088

(3) Define when any of the following may be considered to be 19089
"significant" for purposes of section 1514.022 of the Revised 19090
Code: 19091

(a) An amendment to a permit issued under section 1514.02 of 19092 the Revised Code for a surface or in-stream mining operation; 19093

(b) An amendment to the plan of mining and reclamation that 19094 must be filed with an application for either permit under section 19095
1514.02 of the Revised Code; 19096

(c) Changes to that plan of mining and reclamation that are 19097 proposed in a permit renewal application filed under section 19098
1514.021 of the Revised Code. 19099

In defining "significant," the chief shall focus on changes 19100 that increase the likelihood that the mining operation may have a 19101 negative impact on the public. 19102

(4) Establish a framework and procedures under which the 19103 amount of any bond required to be filed under this chapter to 19104 ensure the satisfactory performance of the reclamation measures 19105 required under this chapter may be reduced by subtracting a credit 19106 based on the operator's past compliance with this chapter and 19107 rules adopted and orders issued under it. The rules also shall 19108 apply to cash, an irrevocable letter of credit, or a certificate 19109 of deposit that is on deposit in lieu of a bond. In establishing 19110 the amount of credit that an operator or applicant may receive 19111 based on past compliance, the chief may consider past compliance 19112 with respect to any permit for a surface or in-stream mining 19113 operation that has been issued in this state to the operator or 19114 applicant. 19115

(5) Establish criteria and procedures for granting a variance 19116 from compliance with the prohibitions established in divisions 19117 (E)(3) and (F)(3) of section 1514.10 of the Revised Code. The 19118 criteria shall ensure that an operator may obtain a variance only 19119 if compliance with the applicable prohibition is not necessary to 19120 prevent damage to the watercourse or surrounding areas. 19121

Sec. 1514.13. (A) The chief of the division of mineral 19122 resources management shall use the compilation of data for ground 19123 water modeling submitted under section 1514.02 of the Revised Code 19124 to establish a projected cone of depression for any surface mining 19125 operation that may result in dewatering. The chief shall consult 19126 with the chief of the division of soil and water resources when 19127 projecting a cone of depression. An applicant for a surface mining 19128 permit for such an operation may submit ground water modeling that 19129 shows a projected cone of depression for that operation to the 19130 chief, provided that the modeling complies with rules adopted by 19131 the chief regarding ground water modeling. However, the chief 19132 shall establish the projected cone of depression for the purposes 19133
of this section. 19134

The chief shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in 19135 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing 19136 requirements and standards governing both of the following: 19137

(1) Ground water modeling for establishing a projected cone 19138 of depression. A ground water model shall be generally accepted in 19139 the scientific community. 19140

(2) Replacement of water supplies. 19141

(B)(1) If an owner of real property who obtains all or part 19142 of the owner's water supply for domestic, agricultural, 19143 industrial, or other legitimate use from ground water has a 19144 diminution, contamination, or interruption of that water supply 19145 and the owner's real property is located within the projected cone 19146 of depression of a surface mining operation established under this 19147 section, the owner may submit a written complaint to the operator 19148 of that operation or to the chief informing the operator or the 19149

chief that there is a diminution, contamination, or interruption 19150 of the owner's water supply. The complaint shall include the 19151 owner's name, address, and telephone number. 19152

If the chief receives a written complaint, the chief 19153 immediately shall send a copy of the complaint to the operator, 19154 and the operator immediately shall respond by sending the chief a 19155 statement that explains how the operator resolved or will resolve 19156 the complaint. If the operator receives a written complaint, the 19157 operator immediately shall send to the chief a copy of the 19158 complaint and include a statement that explains how the operator 19159 resolved or will resolve the complaint. Not later than seventy-two 19160 hours after receipt of the complaint, the operator shall provide 19161 the owner a supply of water that is comparable, in quantity and 19162 quality, to the owner's water supply prior to the diminution, 19163 contamination, or interruption of the owner's water supply. The 19164 operator shall maintain that water supply until the operator 19165 provides a permanent replacement water supply to the owner under 19166 division (B)(3) of this section or until the division of mineral 19167 resources management completes the evaluation under division 19168
(B)(2) of this section, whichever is applicable. 19169

(2) A rebuttable presumption exists that the operation caused 19170 the diminution, contamination, or interruption of the owner's 19171 water supply. However, not later than fourteen days after receipt 19172 of the complaint, the operator may submit to the division 19173 information showing that the operation is not the proximate cause 19174 of the diminution, contamination, or interruption of the owner's 19175 water supply. The division shall evaluate the information 19176 submitted by the operator to determine if the presumption is 19177 rebutted. If the operator fails to rebut the presumption, the 19178 division immediately shall notify the operator that the operator 19179 failed to rebut the presumption. Not later than fourteen days 19180 after receipt of that notice, the operator shall provide the owner 19181 a permanent replacement water supply that is comparable, in 19182 quantity and quality, to the owner's water supply prior to the 19183 diminution, contamination, or interruption of the owner's water 19184 supply. If the operator rebuts the presumption, the division 19185 immediately shall notify the operator that the operator rebutted 19186 the presumption, and, upon receipt of that notice, the operator 19187 may cease providing a supply of water to the owner under division 19188

(B)(1) of this section. 19189

(3) If, within fourteen days after receipt of the complaint, 19190 the operator does not submit to the division information showing 19191 that the operation is not the proximate cause of the diminution, 19192 contamination, or interruption of the owner's water supply, the 19193 operator shall provide the owner, not later than twenty-eight days 19194 after receipt of the complaint, a permanent replacement water 19195 supply that is comparable, in quantity and quality, to the owner's 19196 water supply prior to the diminution, contamination, or 19197 interruption of the owner's water supply. 19198

(4) The division may investigate a complaint under division 19199
(B) of this section. 19200

(C) If an owner of real property who obtains all or part of 19201 the owner's water supply for domestic, agricultural, industrial, 19202 or other legitimate use from ground water has a diminution, 19203 contamination, or interruption of that water supply and the 19204 owner's real property is not located within the projected cone of 19205 depression of a surface mining operation established under this 19206
section, the owner may submit a written complaint to the operator 19207

chief that there is a diminution, contamination, or interruption 19209
of the owner's water supply. The complaint shall include the 19210 from the project are likely to exceed the estimated cost. The 19467 preliminary report shall identify all factors that are apparent to 19468 the supervisors, both favorable and unfavorable to the proposed 19469 improvement, so that the petitioners may be informed concerning 19470 what is involved with the construction of the improvement. 19471

In addition to reporting on the improvement as petitioned, 19472 the supervisors may submit alternate proposals to accomplish the 19473 intent of the petition. The preliminary report and all alternate 19474 amount established under rules. The fee shall be collected by a 20062 board of health under section 3701.344 of the Revised Code or the 20063 environmental protection agency under section 6109.22 of the 20064 Revised Code, as applicable. 20065

Each calendar quarter, a board of health or the environmental 20066 protection agency, as applicable, shall forward all well log 20067 filing fees collected during the previous calendar quarter to the 20068 division of soil and water resources. The fees shall be forwarded 20069 in accordance with procedures established in rules adopted under 20070
this section. 20071

Proceeds of well log filing fees shall be used by the 20072 division of soil and water resources for the purposes of 20073 acquiring, maintaining, and dispensing digital and paper records 20074 of well logs that are filed with the division. 20075

Sec. 1521.06. (A) No dam may be constructed for the purpose 20076 of storing, conserving, or retarding water, or for any other 20077 purpose, nor shall any levee be constructed for the purpose of 20078 diverting or retaining flood water, unless the person or 20079 governmental agency desiring the construction has a construction 20080 permit for the dam or levee issued by the chief of the division of 20081 soil and water resources. 20082

A construction permit is not required under this section for: 20083

(1) A dam that is or will be less than ten feet in height and 20084
acre-feet at the elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by 20086 the chief. For the purposes of this section, the height of a dam 20087 shall be measured from the natural stream bed or lowest ground 20088 elevation at the downstream or outside limit of the dam to the 20089 elevation of the top of the dam. 20090

(2) A dam, regardless of height, that has or will have a 20091 storage capacity of not more than fifteen acre-feet at the 20092 elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by the chief; 20093

(3) A dam, regardless of storage capacity, that is or will be 20094 six feet or less in height, as determined by the chief; 20095

(4) A dam or levee that belongs to a class exempted by the 20096 chief; 20097

(5) The repair, maintenance, improvement, alteration, or 20098 removal of a dam or levee that is subject to section 1521.062 of 20099 the Revised Code, unless the construction constitutes an 20100 enlargement or reconstruction of the structure as determined by 20101
the chief; 20102

(6) A dam or impoundment constructed under Chapter 1513. of the Revised Code. 20103
20104

(B) Before a construction permit may be issued, three copies of the plans and specifications, including a detailed cost estimate, for the proposed construction, prepared by a registered professional engineer, together with the filing fee specified by this section and the bond or other security required by section 1521.061 of the Revised Code, shall be filed with the chief. The detailed estimate of the cost shall include all costs associated with the construction of the dam or levee, including supervision and inspection of the construction by a registered professional engineer. The filing fee shall be based on the detailed cost estimate for the proposed construction as filed with and approved by the chief, and shall be determined by the following schedule unless otherwise provided by rules adopted under this section: 20105

(1) For the first one hundred thousand dollars of estimated cost, a fee of four per cent; 20118

(2) For the next four hundred thousand dollars of estimated cost, a fee of three per cent; 20120
20121

(3) For the next five hundred thousand dollars of estimated cost, a fee of two per cent; 20122
20123

(4) For all costs in excess of one million dollars, a fee of one-half of one per cent. 20124
20125

In no case shall the filing fee be less than one thousand five hundred dollars or more than ~~one~~ five hundred thousand dollars. If the actual cost exceeds the estimated cost by more than fifteen per cent, an additional filing fee shall be required equal to the fee determined by the preceding schedule less the original filing fee. All fees collected pursuant to this section, and all fines collected pursuant to section 1521.99 of the Revised Code, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of 20126 the dam safety fund, which is hereby created. Expenditures from 20134 the fund shall be made by the chief for the purpose of 20135 administering this section and sections 1521.061 and 1521.062 of 20136

the Revised Code. 20137

(C) The chief shall, within thirty days from the date of the 20138 receipt of the application, fee, and bond or other security, issue 20139 or deny a construction permit for the construction or may issue a 20140 construction permit conditioned upon the making of such changes in 20141 the plans and specifications for the construction as the chief 20142 considers advisable if the chief determines that the construction 20143 of the proposed dam or levee, in accordance with the plans and 20144 specifications filed, would endanger life, health, or property. 20145

(D) The chief may deny a construction permit after finding 20146 that a dam or levee built in accordance with the plans and 20147 specifications would endanger life, health, or property, because 20148 of improper or inadequate design, or for such other reasons as the 20149 chief may determine. 20150

In the event the chief denies a permit for the construction 20151 of the dam or levee, or issues a permit conditioned upon a making 20152 of changes in the plans or specifications for the construction, 20153 the chief shall state the reasons therefor and so notify, in 20154 writing, the person or governmental agency making the application 20155 for a permit. If the permit is denied, the chief shall return the 20156 bond or other security to the person or governmental agency making 20157 application for the permit. 20158

The decision of the chief conditioning or denying a 20159 construction permit is subject to appeal as provided in Chapter 20160 119. of the Revised Code. A dam or levee built substantially at 20161 variance from the plans and specifications upon which a 20162 construction permit was issued is in violation of this section. 20163
The chief may at any time inspect any dam or levee, or site upon 20164 which any dam or levee is to be constructed, in order to determine 20165 whether it complies with this section. 20166

(E) A registered professional engineer shall inspect the 20167 construction for which the permit was issued during all phases of 20168 construction and shall furnish to the chief such regular reports 20169 of the engineer's inspections as the chief may require. When the 20170 chief finds that construction has been fully completed in 20171 accordance with the terms of the permit and the plans and 20172 specifications approved by the chief, the chief shall approve the 20173 construction. When one year has elapsed after approval of the 20174 completed construction, and the chief finds that within this 20175 period no fact has become apparent to indicate that the 20176 construction was not performed in accordance with the terms of the 20177 permit and the plans and specifications approved by the chief, or 20178 that the construction as performed would endanger life, health, or 20179 property, the chief shall release the bond or other security. No 20180 bond or other security shall be released until one year after 20181 final approval by the chief, unless the dam or levee has been 20182 modified so that it will not retain water and has been approved as 20183 nonhazardous after determination by the chief that the dam or 20184 levee as modified will not endanger life, health, or property. 20185

(F) When inspections required by this section are not being 20186 performed, the chief shall notify the person or governmental 20187 agency to which the permit has been issued that inspections are 20188 not being performed by the registered professional engineer and 20189 that the chief will inspect the remainder of the construction. 20190 Thereafter, the chief shall inspect the construction and the cost 20191 of inspection shall be charged against the owner. Failure of the 20192 registered professional engineer to submit required inspection 20193 reports shall be deemed notice that the engineer's inspections are 20194 not being performed. 20195

(G) The chief may order construction to cease on any dam or 20196 levee that is being built in violation of this section, and may 20197 prohibit the retention of water behind any dam or levee that has been built in violation of this section. The attorney general, upon written request of the chief, may bring an action for an injunction against any person who violates this section or to enforce an order or prohibition of the chief made pursuant to this section.

(H) The chief may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, for the design and construction of dams and levees for which a construction permit is required by this section or for which periodic inspection is required by section 1521.062 of the Revised Code, for establishing a filing fee schedule in lieu of the schedule established under division (B) of this section and for establishing the minimum and maximum amounts of a filing fee in lieu of the amounts established in that division, for deposit and forfeiture of bonds and other securities required by section 1521.061 of the Revised Code, for the periodic inspection, operation, repair, improvement, alteration, or removal of all dams and levees, as specified in section 1521.062 of the Revised Code, and for establishing classes of dams or levees that are exempt from the requirements of this section and section 1521.062 of the Revised Code as being of a size, purpose, or situation that does not present a substantial hazard to life, health, or property. The chief may, by rule, limit the period during which a construction permit issued under this section is valid. The rules may allow for the extension of the period during which a permit is valid upon written request, provided that the written request includes a revised construction cost estimate, and may require the payment of an additional filing fee for the requested extension. If a construction permit expires without an extension before construction is completed, the person or agency shall apply for a new permit, and shall not continue construction until the new permit is issued.

Sec. 1521.061. Except as otherwise provided in this section, 20230 a construction permit shall not be issued under section 1521.06 of 20231 the Revised Code unless the person or governmental agency applying 20232 for the permit executes and files a surety bond conditioned on 20233 completion of the dam or levee in accordance with the terms of the 20234 permit and the plans and specifications approved by the chief of 20235 the division of soil and water resources, in an amount equal to 20236 fifty per cent of the estimated cost of the project. 20237

If a permittee requests an extension of the time period 20238 during which a construction permit is valid in accordance with 20239 rules adopted under section 1521.06 of the Revised Code, the chief 20240 shall determine whether the revised construction cost estimate 20241 provided with the request exceeds the original construction cost 20242 estimate that was filed with the chief by more than twenty-five 20243 per cent. If the revised construction cost estimate exceeds the 20244 original construction cost estimate by more than twenty-five per 20245 cent, the chief may require an additional surety bond to be filed 20246 so that the total amount of the surety bonds equals at least fifty 20247 per cent of the revised construction cost estimate. 20248

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 20249 signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 20250 either by the attorney in fact thereof, with a certified copy of 20251 the power of attorney attached. The chief shall not approve the 20252 bond unless there is attached a certificate of the superintendent 20253 of insurance that the company is authorized to transact a fidelity 20254 and surety business in this state. 20255

All bonds shall be given in a form prescribed by the chief 20256 and shall run to the state as obligee. 20257

The applicant may deposit, in lieu of a bond, cash in an 20258 amount equal to the amount of the bond or United States government 20259 securities or negotiable certificates of deposit issued by any 20260 bank organized or transacting business in this state having a par 20261 value equal to or greater than the amount of the bond. Such cash 20262 or securities shall be deposited upon the same terms as bonds. If 20263 one or more certificates of deposit are deposited in lieu of a 20264 bond, the chief shall require the bank that issued any such 20265 certificate to pledge securities of the aggregate market value 20266 equal to the amount of the certificate that is in excess of the 20267 amount insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation. The 20268 securities to be pledged shall be those designated as eligible 20269 under section 135.18 of the Revised Code. The securities shall be 20270 security for the repayment of the certificate of deposit. 20271

Immediately upon a deposit of cash, securities, or 20272 certificates of deposit, the chief shall deliver them to the 20273 treasurer of state, who shall hold them in trust for the purposes 20274 for which they have been deposited. The treasurer of state is 20275 responsible for the safekeeping of such deposits. An applicant 20276 making a deposit of cash, securities, or certificates of deposit 20277 may withdraw and receive from the treasurer of state, on the 20278 written order of the chief, all or any portion of the cash, 20279 securities, or certificates of deposit, upon depositing with the 20280 treasurer of state cash, other United States government 20281 securities, or negotiable certificates of deposit issued by any 20282 bank organized or transacting business in this state equal in par 20283 value to the par value of the cash, securities, or certificates of 20284 deposit withdrawn. An applicant may demand and receive from the 20285 treasurer of state all interest or other income from any such 20286 securities or certificates as it becomes due. If securities so 20287 deposited with and in the possession of the treasurer of state 20288 mature or are called for payment by the issuer thereof, the 20289 treasurer of state, at the request of the applicant who deposited 20290 them, shall convert the proceeds of the redemption or payment of 20291 the securities into such other United States government 20292 securities, negotiable certificates of deposit issued by any bank 20293 organized or transacting business in this state, or cash as the applicant designates.

When the chief finds that a person or governmental agency has failed to comply with the conditions of the person's or agency's bond, the chief shall make a finding of that fact and declare the bond, cash, securities, or certificates of deposit forfeited in the amount set by rule of the chief. The chief shall thereupon certify the total forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to collect that amount.

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety, at its option, may cause the dam or levee to be completed as required by section 1521.06 of the Revised Code and rules of the chief, or otherwise rendered nonhazardous, or pay to the treasurer of state the cost thereof.

All moneys collected on account of forfeitures of bonds, cash, securities, and certificates of deposit under this section shall be credited to the dam safety fund created in section 1521.06 of the Revised Code. The chief shall make expenditures from the fund to complete dams and levees for which bonds have been forfeited or to otherwise render them nonhazardous.

Expenditures from the fund for those purposes shall be made pursuant to contracts entered into by the chief with persons who agree to furnish all of the materials, equipment, work, and labor as specified and provided in the contract.

A surety bond shall not be required for a permit for a dam or levee that is to be designed and constructed by an agency of the United States government, if the agency files with the chief written assurance of the agency's financial responsibility for the structure during the one-year period following the chief's approval of the completed construction provided for under division (E) of section 1521.06 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 1521.062. (A) All dams and levees constructed in this state and not exempted by this section or by the chief of the division of soil and water resources under section 1521.06 of the Revised Code shall be inspected periodically by the chief, except for classes of dams that, in accordance with rules adopted under this section, are required to be inspected by registered professional engineers who have been approved for that purpose by the chief. The inspection shall ensure that continued operation and use of the dam or levee does not constitute a hazard to life, health, or property. Periodic inspections shall not be required of the following structures:

(1) A dam that is less than ten feet in height and has a storage capacity of not more than fifty acre-feet at the elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by the chief. For the purposes of this section, the height of a dam shall be measured from the natural stream bed or lowest ground elevation at the downstream or outside limit of the dam to the elevation of the top of the dam.

(2) A dam, regardless of height, that has a storage capacity of not more than fifteen acre-feet at the elevation of the top of the dam, as determined by the chief;

(3) A dam, regardless of storage capacity, that is six feet or less in height, as determined by the chief;

(4) A dam or levee belonging to a class exempted by the chief;

(5) A dam or levee that has been exempted in accordance with rules adopted under section 1521.064 of the Revised Code.

(B) In accordance with rules adopted under this section, the owner of a dam that is in a class of dams that is designated in the rules for inspection by registered professional engineers shall obtain the services of a registered professional engineer 20355 who has been approved by the chief to conduct the periodic 20356 inspection of dams pursuant to schedules and other standards and 20357 procedures established in the rules. The registered professional 20358 engineer shall prepare a report of the inspection in accordance 20359 with the rules and provide the inspection report to the dam owner 20360 who shall submit it to the chief. A dam that is designated under 20361 the rules for inspection by a registered professional engineer, 20362 but that is not inspected within a five-year period may be 20363 inspected by the chief at the owner's expense. 20364

(C) Intervals between periodic inspections shall be 20365 determined by the chief, but shall not exceed five years. 20366

(D) In the case of a dam or levee that the chief inspects, 20367 the chief shall furnish a report of the inspection to the owner of 20368 the dam or levee. With regard to a dam or levee that has been 20369 inspected, either by the chief or by a registered professional 20370 engineer, and that is the subject of an inspection report prepared 20371 or received by the chief, the chief shall inform the owner of any 20372 required repairs, maintenance, investigations, and other remedial 20373 and operational measures. The chief shall order the owner to 20374 perform such repairs, maintenance, investigations, or other 20375 remedial or operational measures as the chief considers necessary 20376 to safeguard life, health, or property. The order shall permit the 20377 owner a reasonable time in which to perform the needed repairs, 20378 maintenance, investigations, or other remedial measures, and the 20379 cost thereof shall be borne by the owner. All orders of the chief 20380 are subject to appeal as provided in Chapter 119. of the Revised 20381 Code. The attorney general, upon written request of the chief, may 20382 bring an action for an injunction against any person who violates 20383 this section or to enforce an order of the chief made pursuant to 20384
this section. 20385

(E) The owner of a dam or levee shall monitor, maintain, and 20386 operate the structure and its appurtenances safely in accordance 20387 with state rules, terms and conditions of permits, orders, and 20388 other requirements issued pursuant to this section or section 20389 1521.06 of the Revised Code. The owner shall fully and promptly 20390 notify the division of soil and water resources and other 20391 responsible authorities of any condition that threatens the safety 20392 of the structure and shall take all necessary actions to safeguard 20393 life, health, and property. 20394

(F) Before commencing the repair, improvement, alteration, or 20395 removal of a dam or levee, the owner shall file an application 20396 including plans, specifications, and other required information 20397 with the division and shall secure written approval of the 20398 application by the chief. Emergency actions by the owner required 20399 to safeguard life, health, or property are exempt from this 20400 requirement. The chief may, by rule, define maintenance, repairs, 20401 or other remedial measures of a routine nature that are exempt 20402 from this requirement. 20403

(G) The chief may remove or correct, at the expense of the 20404 owner, any unsafe structures found to be constructed or maintained 20405 in violation of this section or section 1521.06 of the Revised 20406 Code. In the case of an owner other than a governmental agency, 20407 the cost of removal or correction of any unsafe structure, 20408 together with a description of the property on which the unsafe 20409 structure is located, shall be certified by the chief to the 20410 county auditor and placed by the county auditor upon the tax 20411 duplicate. This cost is a lien upon the lands from the date of 20412 entry and shall be collected as other taxes and returned to the 20413 division. In the case of an owner that is a governmental agency, 20414 the cost of removal or correction of any unsafe structure shall be 20415 recoverable from the owner by appropriate action in a court of 20416 competent jurisdiction. 20417

(H) If the condition of any dam or levee is found, in the 20418 judgment of the chief, to be so dangerous to the safety of life, 20419 health, or property as not to permit time for the issuance and 20420 enforcement of an order relative to repair, maintenance, or 20421 operation, the chief shall employ any of the following remedial 20422 means necessary to protect life, health, and property: 20423

(1) Lower the water level of the lake or reservoir by 20424 releasing water; 20425

(2) Completely drain the lake or reservoir; 20426

(3) Take such other measures or actions as the chief 20427 considers necessary to safeguard life, health, and property. 20428

The chief shall continue in full charge and control of the 20429 dam or levee until the structure is rendered safe. The cost of the 20430 remedy shall be recoverable from the owner of the structure by 20431 appropriate action in a court of competent jurisdiction. 20432

(I) The chief may accept and expend gifts, bequests, and 20433 grants from the United States government or from any other public 20434 or private source and may contract with the United States 20435 government or any other agency or entity for the purpose of 20436 carrying out the dam safety functions set forth in this section 20437 and section 1521.06 of the Revised Code. 20438

(J) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 20439 chief may adopt, and may amend or rescind, rules that do all of 20440
the following: 20441

(1) Designate classes of dams for which dam owners must 20442 obtain the services of a registered professional engineer to 20443 periodically inspect the dams and to prepare reports of the 20444 inspections for submittal to the chief; 20445

(2) Establish standards in accordance with which the chief 20446 must approve or disapprove registered professional engineers to 20447 inspect dams together with procedures governing the approval 20448

process; 20449

(3) Establish schedules, standards, and procedures governing 20450 periodic inspections and standards and procedures governing the 20451 preparation and submittal of inspection reports; 20452

(4) Establish provisions regarding the enforcement of this 20453 section and rules adopted under it. 20454

(K) The owner of a dam or levee shall notify the chief in 20455 writing of a change in ownership of the dam or levee prior to the 20456 exchange of the property. 20457

Sec. 1521.063. (A) Except for the federal government, the 20458 owner of ~~any a~~ dam, that is classified as a class I, class II, or 20459 class III dam under rules adopted under section 1521.06 of the 20460 Revised Code and subject to section 1521.062 of the Revised Code 20461 shall pay an annual fee, based upon the height of the dam, the 20462 linear foot length of the dam, and the per-acre foot of volume of 20463 water impounded by the dam. The fee shall be paid to the division 20464 of soil and water ~~on or before June 30, 1988, and resources~~ on or 20465 before the thirtieth day of June of each ~~succeeding~~ year. The 20466 annual fee shall be as follows until otherwise provided by rules 20467 adopted under this section: 20468

(1) For any dam classified as a class I dam under rules 20469 adopted by the chief of the division of soil and water resources 20470 under section 1521.06 of the Revised Code, ~~thirty three hundred~~ 20471 dollars plus ten dollars per foot of height of dam, five cents per 20472 foot of length of the dam and five cents per-acre foot of water 20473 impounded by the dam; 20474

(2) For any dam classified as a class II dam under those 20475 rules, ~~thirty ninety~~ sixty dollars plus ~~one dollar~~ six dollars per foot 20476 of height of dam, five cents per foot of length of the dam and 20477 five cents per-acre foot of water impounded by the dam; 20478

(3) For any dam classified as a class III dam under those 20479 rules, thirty ninety dollars plus four dollars per foot of height 20480 of the dam, five cents per foot of length of the dam, and five 20481 cents per-acre foot of volume of water impounded by the dam. 20482

For purposes of this section, the height of a dam is the 20483 vertical height, to the nearest foot, as determined by the 20484 division under section 1521.062 of the Revised Code. 20485

All fees collected under this section shall be deposited in 20486 the dam safety fund created in section 1521.06 of the Revised 20487 Code. Any owner who fails to pay any annual fee required by this 20488 section within sixty days after the due date shall be assessed a 20489 penalty of ten per cent of the annual fee plus interest at the 20490 rate of one-half per cent per month from the due date until the 20491 date of payment. 20492

There is hereby created the compliant dam discount program to 20493 be administered by the chief. Under the program, the chief may 20494 reduce the amount of the annual fee that an owner of a dam is 20495 required to pay under division (A)(1), (2), or (3) of this section 20496 if the owner is in compliance with section 1521.062 of the Revised 20497 Code and has developed an emergency action plan pursuant to 20498 standards established in rules adopted under this section. The 20499 chief shall not discount an annual fee by more than twenty-five 20500 per cent of the total annual fee that is due. In addition, the 20501 chief shall not discount the annual fee that is due from the owner 20502 of a dam who has been assessed a penalty under this section. 20503 member's term until the member's successor takes office or until a 20951 period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. The 20952 council may remove a member for misfeasance, nonfeasance, or 20953 malfeasance in office. The council shall appoint members to fill 20954 any vacancies on the group. A member appointed to fill a vacancy 20955 shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which that 20956 member was appointed. 20957

The chairperson of the council shall appoint a chairperson of 20958 the advisory group. The advisory group shall advise the council on 20959 water resources issues addressed by the council. 20960

(D) There is hereby created in the state treasury the Ohio 20961 shall serve as the fiscal agent for the fund. The departments of 20963 agriculture, development, environmental protection, health, 20964 natural resources, and transportation shall transfer moneys to the 20965 fund in equal amounts via intrastate transfer voucher. The public 20966 utilities commission of Ohio, Ohio public works commission, and 20967 Ohio water development authority may transfer moneys to the fund. 20968

If a voluntary transfer of moneys is made to the fund, the portion 20969 that is required to be transferred by the departments of 20970 agriculture, development, environmental protection, health, 20971 natural resources, and transportation may be equally reduced. 20972 Moneys in the fund shall be used to pay the operating expenses of 20973 the Ohio water resources council, including those specified in 20974 division (E) of this section. 20975

(E) The Ohio water resources council may hire staff to 20976 support its activities. The council may enter into contracts and 20977 agreements with federal agencies, state agencies, political 20978 subdivisions, and private entities to assist in accomplishing its 20979 objectives. Advisory group members shall be reimbursed for 20980 expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties 20981 pursuant to section 126.31 of the Revised Code and any applicable 20982 rules pertaining to travel reimbursement adopted by the office of 20983 budget and management. 20984

Sec. 1523.01. In addition to all other powers granted to and 20985 duties devolving upon the chief of the division of soil and water 20986 resources, when in the chief's judgment it is for the public 20987 welfare and the best interests of the citizens of the state that 20988 the surplus, flood, and other waters of any of the watersheds, 20989 rivers, streams, watercourses, or public waters should be 20990 conserved, impounded, and stored in order to insure and promote 20991 the public health, welfare, and safety and to encourage and 20992 promote agriculture, commerce, manufacturing, and other public 20993 purposes, such chief shall proceed in furtherance of the purposes 20994 of sections 1523.01 to 1523.13 of the Revised Code, and for the 20995 preservation of the use of such waters for navigation, in case 20996 such waters are required for navigation, to construct such 20997 reservoirs, dams, storage basins, dikes, canals, raceways, and 20998 other improvements as are necessary for such purposes, or the 20999 chief may make additions to, enlarge, and make alterations in and 21000 upon such reservoirs, dams, storage basins, dikes, canals, 21001 raceways, and other improvements already in existence and 21002 constituting a part of the public works, as are necessary for such 21003 purposes. Any rights or privileges granted by sections 1523.01 to 21004 1523.13 of the Revised Code, shall not interfere with the control 21005 and maintenance of the state reservoirs or public parks which have 21006 been dedicated to the public for purposes of recreation and 21007 pleasure. 21008

~~Said~~ The chief, subject to the written approval of the 21009 director of natural resources and the governor, may acquire by 21010 gift, purchase, or by appropriation proceedings, in the name of 21011 and on behalf of the state, such real and personal property, 21012 rights, privileges, and appurtenances as are necessary in the 21013 chief's judgment for the construction of such reservoirs, dams, 21014 storage basins, dikes, canals, raceways, and other improvements, 21015 or for the alteration, enlargement, or maintenance of existing 21016 reservoirs, dams, and other improvements, together with such 21017 rights of way, drives, and roadways as are necessary for 21018 convenient access thereto. The appropriation proceedings referred 21019 to in this section shall be restricted to private property only. 21020

Before proceeding to purchase or appropriate any such 21021 property or rights, the cost of which, together with the land or 21022 real estate necessary upon which to locate and construct such 21023 improvements, including damages to remaining property, is in 21024 excess of one thousand dollars, the chief shall prepare plans, 21025 specifications, and estimates of such cost, including all material 21026 and labor therefor, together with the cost of such land or real 21027 estate and damages, and shall thereupon submit such plans, 21028 specifications, and estimates to the director, who in turn shall 21029 submit them to the governor for approval. 21030

The governor shall thereupon publish written notice once a 21031 week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in and of 21032 general circulation in the counties where any such improvements 21033 are proposed to be constructed, setting forth the location and 21034 character of the proposed improvements, that the plans, 21035 specifications, and estimates therefor are on file in the 21036 governor's office, and that objections thereto will be heard by 21037 the governor on a day to be named in ~~said~~ the notice, which day 21038 shall be not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the 21039 first publication thereof. Within thirty days after the date fixed 21040 for ~~said~~ the hearing, the governor shall return such plans, 21041 specifications, and estimates to the director, with the governor's 21042 written approval or rejection thereof indorsed thereon. The 21043 director shall immediately return such plans, specifications, and 21044 estimates, together with the governor's indorsement thereon, to 21045

the chief. 21046

Any instrument by which real property is acquired pursuant to 21047 this section shall identify the agency of the state that has the 21048 use and benefit of the real property as specified in section 21049
5301.012 of the Revised Code. 21050

Sec. 1523.02. If the governor approves the plans, 21051 specifications, and estimates authorized by section 1523.01 of the 21052 Revised Code, the chief of the division of soil and water 21053 resources shall thereupon proceed, as provided in sections 1523.02 21054 to 1523.13 of the Revised Code, to construct the improvements or 21055 to make alterations in or to enlarge those already existing, in 21056 such manner and form as is shown by such plans and specifications. 21057
In order to provide the funds for such construction, alteration, 21058 or enlargement, the chief shall issue and sell bonds of the state, 21059 not in excess of the estimated cost of such improvements. The 21060 bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one 21061 hundred dollars payable as a whole or in series on or before fifty 21062 years from the date thereof, with interest not to exceed the rate 21063 provided in section 9.95 of the Revised Code, payable either 21064 annually or semiannually. 21065

The bonds shall show on their face the purpose for which 21066 issued and shall create no liability upon or be considered an 21067 indebtedness of the state, but both the principal and interest 21068 shall be paid solely out of the proceeds arising from the 21069 improvements constructed, altered, or enlarged by the chief, or 21070 from the proceeds of the sale or foreclosure of the lien securing 21071 the bonds on such improvement or such part thereof as is 21072 constructed from the money realized from the sale of the bonds. 21073

The form of the bonds shall be approved by the attorney 21074 general, and they shall be signed by the governor and attested by 21075 the director of natural resources and the chief. The bonds may be 21076 issued as coupon bonds, payable to bearer only, or upon demand of 21077 the owner or holder thereof as registered bonds. 21078

Such bonds shall be sold by the chief to the highest bidder 21079 therefor, but for not less than the par value thereof, with 21080 accrued interest thereon, after thirty days' notice in at least 21081 two newspapers of general circulation in the county where such 21082 improvements are to be constructed, altered, or enlarged, setting 21083 forth the nature, amount, rate of interest, and length of time the 21084 bonds have to run, with the time and place of sale. 21085

The treasurer of state shall be the treasurer of the fund 21086 realized from the sale of such bonds, and the auditor of state 21087 shall be the auditor of such fund. The proceeds of such sale shall 21088 be turned over to the treasurer of state and shall be deposited by 21089 the treasurer of state in a solvent bank, located either in 21090 Columbus or in the county in which such improvements are located. 21091 Such proceeds shall be kept by such bank in a fund to be known as 21092 the water conservation improvement fund. Such fund shall be used 21093 to acquire the necessary real estate and to construct such new 21094 improvements and for no other purpose, except that the treasurer 21095 of state may pay the interest on the bonds during the period of 21096 condemnation and the construction, alteration, or enlargement of 21097 such improvements out of the proceeds arising from the sale of the 21098 bonds for a term not exceeding three years from the date on which 21099 the bonds are issued. The bank shall give bond to the state in 21100 such amount as the treasurer of state considers advisable, and 21101 with surety to the satisfaction of the treasurer of state, for the 21102 benefit of the holders of the bonds, and for the benefit of any 21103 contractors performing labor or furnishing material for such 21104 improvements, as provided by law, conditioned that it will safely 21105 keep the money and will make no payments or disbursements 21106 therefrom except as provided in sections 1523.01 to 1523.13 of the 21107

Revised Code. 21108

The treasurer of state shall hold such fund as trustee for 21109 the holders of the bonds and for all persons performing labor or 21110 furnishing material for the construction, alteration, or 21111 enlargement of any improvement made under such sections. Such 21112 funds shall not be turned into the state treasury, but shall be 21113 deposited and disbursed by the treasurer of state as provided in 21114 such sections. The interest coupons attached to such bonds shall 21115 bear the signature of the treasurer of state, executed by the 21116 treasurer of state or printed or lithographed thereon. 21117

Both the interest and principal of such bonds shall be made 21118 payable at the office of the treasurer of state in Columbus, and 21119 shall be paid by the treasurer of state, without warrant or 21120 authority of the director of budget and management, to the owner 21121 or holder of such bonds upon presentation by the owner or holder 21122 of matured interest coupons or bonds. 21123

Sec. 1523.03. Immediately after the sale of the bonds 21124 authorized by section 1523.02 of the Revised Code and the payment 21125 of the proceeds thereof to the treasurer of state as provided in 21126 such section, the chief of the division of soil and water 21127 resources shall make a written contract for the construction of 21128 the improvements or for the making of additions to or alterations 21129 in existing improvements with the lowest responsive and 21130 responsible bidder, in accordance with section 9.312 of the 21131 Revised Code, after advertisements once a week for four 21132 consecutive weeks in one newspaper in each of the cities of 21133 Columbus, Cleveland, and Cincinnati having a general circulation 21134 therein, one trade paper having a circulation among contractors 21135 engaged in the construction of public improvement work of like 21136 character, and two newspapers having a general circulation within 21137 the county in which the dam, reservoir, storage basin, or other 21138 improvement is located or is to be located. 21139

All bids shall be filed with the chief, within the time fixed 21140 for the filing of such bids in ~~said~~ the advertisement. The bids 21141 shall be opened and publicly read by the chief at twelve noon on 21142 the last day for filing them. Each bid shall contain the full 21143 names of every person or company interested in it, shall 21144 separately state the price of both the labor and material to be 21145 furnished under it, and shall meet the requirements of section 21146
153.54 of the Revised Code. 21147

The chief may reject any bids. If the chief rejects all bids, 21148 the chief shall within sixty days thereafter readvertise for bids 21149 for the construction of such improvements, as provided in this 21150 section, and may continue to readvertise for bids every sixty days 21151 until bids are received which are made to the chief's satisfaction 21152 and in conformity to sections 1523.01 to 1523.13 of the Revised 21153
Code. 21154

The chief may award separate contracts to bidders for each 21155 part of the labor to be done or material to be furnished for the 21156 construction of such improvements, provided that the amount of the 21157 contract, if awarded as a whole, or the aggregate of ~~said~~ the 21158 several contracts, if awarded separately, shall not, together with 21159 the cost of the land necessary for such improvements and the 21160 estimated damages to remaining property, be in excess of the 21161 estimated cost of the construction thereof, including such land 21162 and damages. Such contracts shall provide that all payments 21163 thereunder shall be made only from the proceeds of the sale of the 21164 bonds issued for the construction of such improvements. No 21165 contractor shall receive payment for any work or labor performed 21166 or material furnished for such improvements unless the contract 21167 therefor was, at the time of its execution, approved by the 21168 governor by the governor's written indorsement on such contract. 21169

Sec. 1523.04. When estimates or statements for either 21170 material theretofore furnished or labor theretofore performed 21171 under a contract entered into as provided in section 1523.03 of 21172 the Revised Code are presented to the chief of the division of 21173 soil and water ~~of the department of natural~~ resources by the 21174 contractor, certified as to the correctness thereof under oath by 21175 ~~him~~ the contractor or ~~his~~ the contractor's authorized agent and 21176 approved in writing by the chief, the chief shall pay the amount 21177 of such estimates or statements from the water conservation 21178 improvement fund. 21179

Sec. 1523.05. The chief of the division of soil and water 21180 resources shall by contract in writing sell or lease for 21181 agricultural, commercial, manufacturing, or other lawful purposes, 21182 for any term not exceeding fifty years, the water, or any part 21183 thereof, conserved and stored by the improvements then existing, 21184 or that will be conserved and stored by any improvements 21185 thereafter to be constructed by ~~him~~ the chief. The chief may lease 21186 the land surrounding ~~said~~ the water for a term not exceeding fifty 21187 years, as shown by the plans and specifications prepared by ~~him~~ 21188 the chief and approved by the governor as provided in section 21189 1523.01 of the Revised Code. Such agreements shall be for a 21190 certain price or rental for the water or lands furnished to or 21191 used by the grantees, lessees, or their assigns, to be paid 21192 quarterly, semiannually, or annually as the chief deems advisable. 21193

~~Said~~ The chief may, for a term not exceeding fifty years, 21194 sell or lease power generated by any head of water raised or 21195 maintained by any such improvement, or ~~he~~ the chief may sell or 21196 lease the right to use such head of water for generating power or 21197 other hydraulic purposes. 21198

All such contracts of sale or lease, whether for water or 21199 power, shall contain such reservations or restrictions as the 21200 chief deems necessary and proper in furtherance of the purposes of 21201 sections 1523.01 to 1523.13, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code, and 21202 the preservation of the use of such waters for navigation in case 21203 they are required therefor. 21204

Such contracts or leases ~~must~~ shall be approved by the 21205 attorney general as to their general form and legality and, before 21206 becoming binding obligations on the state, they shall be approved 21207 by the governor by ~~his~~ the governor's written indorsement thereon. 21208

Sec. 1523.06. (A) The chief of the division of soil and water 21209 resources before selling bonds as provided in section 1523.02 of 21210 the Revised Code or before receiving bids for the construction of 21211 improvements as authorized by section 1523.03 of the Revised Code 21212 may enter into tentative agreements for the sale or lease of water 21213 or power to: 21214

(1) Ascertain whether the public interest and welfare 21215 reasonably require the proposed improvements in the proposed 21216 locality; 21217

(2) Determine whether the revenues which the state may derive 21218 from the lease of lands and the lease and sale of the waters which 21219 are estimated will be conserved, impounded, and stored, or from 21220 the sale or lease of the power generated by such improvements, 21221 will be sufficient: 21222

(a) To pay the interest on bonds issued under section 1523.02 21223
of the Revised Code; 21224

(b) To create a sinking fund to retire ~~said~~ the bonds at 21225

their maturity; 21226

(c) To maintain and keep ~~said~~ the improvements in repair. 21227

(B) The performance and carrying out of such tentative 21228 agreements shall be conditioned upon the ability of such chief to: 21229

(1) Sell ~~said~~ the proposed bonds at not less than par and 21230 accrued interest; 21231

(2) Secure bids for the furnishing of all the labor and 21232 material necessary in the construction of such improvements, 21233 including all real estate required and damages incurred, at such a 21234 price that the rentals or compensation to be paid will provide 21235 during the terms of such contracts or leases a sum sufficient to 21236
keep ~~said~~ the improvements in repair. 21238

Sec. 1523.07. The treasurer of state shall be treasurer and 21239 the auditor of state shall be auditor of all moneys derived from 21240 the use of the improvements authorized by sections 1523.01 to 21241 1523.13, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code. The treasurer of state 21242 shall hold ~~said~~ the moneys as trustee for the maintenance of any 21243 improvements constructed under such sections, and for the holders 21244 of any bonds issued in accordance with section 1523.02 of the 21245 Revised Code. ~~Said~~ The moneys shall not be turned into the state 21246 treasury, but shall be deposited and disbursed by the treasurer of 21247 state in the manner provided in this section. All such moneys 21248 shall be collected by the treasurer of state on statements to be 21249 furnished by the chief of the division of soil and water resources 21250 and when so collected shall be deposited in solvent banks in the 21251 state upon the same terms as state funds are now loaned. ~~Said~~ The 21252 funds shall be kept by such banks in a fund known as the "water 21253 conservation fund" and shall be used, first, to maintain and keep 21254 in repair the dams, reservoirs, storage basins, and other 21255 improvements, and, second, to pay the interest upon and principal 21256 of the bonds issued and sold pursuant to section 1523.02 of the Revised Code, as such interest falls due or ~~said the~~ bonds mature.

The banks in which the treasurer of state deposits any of the moneys belonging either to the water conservation improvement fund provided for in section 1523.02 of the Revised Code or the water conservation fund provided for in this section shall be state depository banks as provided for in sections 135.01 to 135.21~~7 inclusive~~, of the Revised Code. An amount not to exceed fifty thousand dollars of the money on deposit at any one time in the water conservation improvement fund, and an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars in the water conservation fund shall be held by any of ~~said the~~ banks as an active deposit, and ~~said the~~ banks shall pay the treasurer of state on such deposits, both active and inactive, the same rate of interest then being paid by them upon the funds of the state then deposited with them by the treasurer of state. All such payments of interest shall be credited to the respective funds upon which such interest is paid.

Sec. 1523.08. When the cost of any repairs to the improvements authorized by section 1523.01 of the Revised Code does not exceed one thousand dollars, the chief of the division of soil and water ~~of the department of natural resources~~ either may make such repairs ~~himself~~ or may let a contract therefor without advertising for bids. If the cost of any such repairs is in excess of one thousand dollars, the chief shall advertise for bids for the making of such repairs and let a contract therefor as provided in section 1523.03 of the Revised Code.

When itemized statements are presented to the chief showing the amount of labor performed and material furnished in the making of such repairs, verified by the person making them and approved in writing by the chief, the chief shall pay the amount of such statement from the water conservation fund.

Sec. 1523.09. If a reservoir, dam, storage basin, or other 21288 improvement constructed or enlarged by the chief of the division 21289 of soil and water resources as provided in sections 1523.01 to 21290 1523.13 of the Revised Code constitutes a part of the canal system 21291 of the state or is located upon any river, stream, or body of 21292 water formerly used as a feeder for the canal system, no water 21293 shall be sold or leased from the improvement ~~by the chief~~ except 21294 in accordance with section 1520.03 of the Revised Code. 21295

Sec. 1523.10. The funds derived from the sale, use, or lease 21296 of the water impounded and conserved or the power generated by the 21297 improvements constructed pursuant to sections 1523.01 to 1523.13, ~~inclusive,~~ 21298 ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code, or from the lease of the lands and 21299 improvements adjacent thereto are hereby expressly pledged for the 21300 purpose of maintaining and keeping ~~said the~~ improvements in repair 21301 and for the payment of the interest on and principal of the bonds 21302 issued under section 1523.02 of the Revised Code, as the same fall 21303 due and mature. The owners of such bonds are hereby given a lien 21304 for the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds upon 21305 any dam, reservoir, storage basin, or other improvements, or any 21306 part thereof, with the appurtenances belonging thereto, 21307 constructed by the chief of the division of soil and water 21308 resources with the funds derived from the sale of such bonds. 21309

If default is made in the payment of the interest on any of 21310
aggregating in par value not less than ten per cent of the total 21312 amount of such bonds then outstanding are not paid at maturity, 21313 then all of ~~said the~~ bonds, both principal and interest, shall 21314 become due and payable, and the owners of any of ~~said the~~ bonds, 21315 aggregating in par value not less than ten per cent of the total 21316 amount of such bonds then outstanding, may institute proceedings 21317 to foreclose such lien against the state in the court of common 21318 pleas of the county in which is located any of ~~said~~ the 21319 improvements, constructed, altered, or enlarged out of the 21320 proceeds of the sale of such bonds. 21321

~~Said~~ The court shall have jurisdiction of such action with 21322 full power to foreclose such lien and to make an order to the 21323 sheriff of ~~said~~ the county, acting as a master commissioner, 21324 directing ~~him~~ the sheriff to make a sale of such improvements or 21325 part thereof at not less than two-thirds of the appraised value 21326 thereof, and upon such terms and in manner and form as provided 21327 for in ~~said~~ the order, and to pay the proceeds of such sale to the 21328 clerk of the court of common pleas. Upon motion of the purchaser 21329 of such improvements at such sale, the court, if such sale is 21330 found to be regular in all respects and according to law, shall 21331 confirm the sale and order the sheriff to execute a deed to such 21332 purchaser and ~~his~~ the purchaser's assigns, conveying to ~~him~~ the 21333 purchaser and the purchaser's assigns all the right, title, and 21334
improvements, and all the right, title, and interest of the state, 21336 for a period of not more than fifty years from the date of such 21337 conveyance, in the same, with full right and franchise, for ~~said~~ 21338 the period of not to exceed fifty years, to operate ~~said~~ the 21339 improvements and dispose of the water conserved or the power 21340 generated thereby, with the further right, for ~~said~~ the period of 21341 fifty years, to flow, transport, and convey ~~said~~ the water from 21342 ~~said~~ the improvements, or to conduct and transmit power generated 21343 thereby through, over, and upon any of the lands of the state or 21344 channels or beds of any of its reservoirs, lakes, canals, races, 21345 aqueducts, or watercourses. In the exercise of such rights, such 21346 purchaser or ~~his~~ the purchaser's assigns shall at all times during 21347 the term of ~~said~~ the grant maintain the improvements so conveyed 21348 to them in a good state of repair and shall not interfere with the 21349 navigation of the canals of the state or with the control and 21350 maintenance thereof or with the sale of water by the state from 21351 its dams, reservoirs, and improvements other than those so 21352 constructed. The state does not incur any liability by reason of 21353 such sale and the rights granted thereunder to continue to 21354 maintain such canals, races, channels, or watercourses, or to 21355 continue the use thereof. Such conveyance or grant by the sheriff 21356 as such master commissioner shall contain a clause giving the 21357 chief such control of waste gates and wickets as to regulate the 21358 flow of water in the state reservoirs or canals, in such manner as 21359 to maintain the proper level therein and to prevent the flowing 21360 into such reservoirs and canals of such quantities of water as 21361 might impair any of the property of the state or its lessees, 21362 except as otherwise provided in section 1520.03 of the Revised 21363

Code. 21364

Upon the foreclosure of ~~said~~ the lien and the sale of ~~said~~ 21365 the improvements, all contracts or leases for the sale, use, or 21366

Upon the making of an order by the court for the sale of such 21370 improvements, ~~said~~ the appraisers shall appraise ~~said~~ the 21381 improvements as an entirety, and shall also appraise separately 21382 the part constructed from the proceeds of the sale of ~~said~~ the 21383 sale, in the operation of such improvements during the term of the 21395 franchise granted to ~~him~~ the purchaser by this section, shall draw 21396 from the dam or reservoir impounding such water only such portion 21397 thereof as the appraised value of that part of such improvements, 21398 constructed from the proceeds of the sale of such bonds and sold 21399 to ~~him~~ the purchaser under the order of the court, bears to the 21400 entire appraised value of such improvements. 21401

If at any time during the term of the franchise granted to 21402 the purchaser of such improvements at such foreclosure sale any 21403 controversy arises between ~~him~~ the purchaser or ~~his~~ the 21404 purchaser's assigns and the chief as to the operation of such 21405
purchaser is drawing or is entitled to draw therefrom, either ~~said~~ 21407 the purchaser or ~~said~~ the chief may file a petition in ~~said~~ the 21408 court, setting forth the facts connected with such controversy. 21409

Notice in writing of the filing of such petition shall be 21410 given to the opposite party to ~~said~~ the controversy within thirty 21411 days from the date of the filing thereof, either by service of 21412 such notice personally upon such opposite party by the sheriff of 21413 such county or by service by mail by the clerk. Such notice shall 21414

~~said the~~ clerk at the time of the delivery to the purchaser by the 21416 sheriff of the deed. Within thirty days from the serving or 21417 mailing of such notice, the opposite party to ~~said the~~ controversy 21418 shall file ~~his an~~ answer in ~~said the~~ court, and thereupon the 21419 court shall hear and determine ~~said the~~ controversy and make such 21420 order in regard to it as is just and proper, which order shall be 21421 binding upon all the parties to ~~said the~~ controversy. 21422

At the termination of ~~said the~~ period of not to exceed fifty 21423 years, all of the rights and privileges conveyed to ~~said the~~ 21424 purchaser by the deed and grant of such sheriff as master 21425 commissioner shall cease and ~~said the~~ improvements, with all the 21426 appurtenances belonging thereto, shall revert to and become the 21427 property of the state, free and clear of any claims whatever 21428 against them. 21429

The clerk shall distribute and pay the money received by ~~him~~ 21430
~~the clerk~~ from the sheriff as such master commissioner from the 21431 shall surrender to the ~~said the~~ clerk their bonds, with all unpaid 21434 interest coupons thereon. The clerk shall thereupon cancel the 21435 same and deliver them, so canceled, to the treasurer of the water 21436

Sec. 1523.11. All appropriations of property made by the 21438 chief of the division of soil and water resources in carrying out 21439 sections 1523.01 to 1523.13, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code, shall 21440 be made in accordance with sections 163.01 to 163.22, ~~inclusive,~~ 21441 of the Revised Code, provided that possession of any property so 21442

Sec. 1523.12. Sections 1523.01 to 1523.13,~~inclusive,~~ of the 21446 Revised Code do not authorize any reduction in the quantity or any 21447 impairment in the quality of the water in any watershed, stream, 21448 or basin, developed or undeveloped, from which any political 21449 subdivision is, at the time the chief of the division of soil and 21450 water resources proposes and is proceeding to construct in such 21451 watershed, stream, or basin any of the improvements authorized by 21452 such sections, taking water for the use of itself or its 21453 inhabitants, or has plans under way, or has made or begun 21454 appropriation of any property or rights in such watershed, stream, 21455 or basin for the purpose of acquiring a water supply for itself or 21456 its inhabitants for either domestic, industrial, or other uses. 21457 Such sections do not authorize the chief to sell or lease the 21458 right to use water at any time for any purpose or to such an 21459 extent as to prejudice, abrogate, or supersede any of the water 21460 rights granted by the state to the city of Akron as provided in 21461 volume 102, Ohio Laws, page 175, sections 1 to 3,~~inclusive.~~ 21462

Sec. 1523.13. If by reason of severe drought or other causes 21463 the water supply of any political subdivision is, in the judgment 21464 of the chief of the division of soil and water resources, at any 21465 time so reduced or impaired as to endanger the property of such 21466 political subdivision, or the health, safety, or property of the 21467 inhabitants thereof, then the chief, under such regulations as ~~he~~ 21468 the chief prescribes, may grant to such political subdivision the 21469 right, during the continuance of such emergency, to draw or take 21470 such quantity of water as is necessary to protect the property of 21471 such political subdivision and the health, safety, or property of 21472 its inhabitants from any improvement constructed under sections 21473 1523.01 to 1523.13,~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code, before any of 21474 the lessees or grantees of the state using the water for 21475 industrial purposes take water therefrom. Such political 21476 subdivision shall pay such price per thousand gallons for the 21477 water so taken by it as is fixed by the chief and the governor. 21478

The price so fixed shall not exceed the maximum price then being 21479 paid for water to the state by any of its lessees or grantees. 21480 Such grant by the chief to such political subdivision shall not 21481 modify the terms or impair the validity of any leases then 21482 existing between the state and other persons, firms, or 21483 corporations, except as expressly provided in this section. 21484

Sec. 1523.14. The director of transportation in constructing 21485 highways, bridges, and culverts as provided by law; the board of 21486 county commissioners in constructing highways, bridges, and 21487 culverts as provided by law; the board of township trustees of any 21488 township in constructing highways, bridges, and culverts as 21489 provided by law; and any municipal corporation constructing or 21490 improving viaducts, bridges, and culverts under section 717.01 of 21491 the Revised Code, either severally or jointly, upon request of the 21492 chief of the division of soil and water resources and with the 21493 approval of the director of transportation, may construct and 21494 maintain slack-water dams in connection with ~~said~~ the highway, 21495 highway bridge, or culvert so as to create reservoirs, ponds, 21496 water parks, basins, lakes, or other incidental works to conserve 21497 the water supply of the state. 21498

Sec. 1523.15. The chief of the division of soil and water ~~of~~ 21499
~~the department of natural~~ resources may request the public 21500 authority having charge of the construction of state, county, or 21501 township highways, highway bridges, and culverts, or municipal 21502 streets, for the construction of slack-water dams in connection 21503 with the construction of any such highway, street, highway bridge, 21504 or culvert whenever, in ~~his~~ the chief's opinion, the construction 21505 of such dam is desirable and feasible for the economical creation 21506 and construction of reservoirs, ponds, water parks, basins, lakes, 21507 or other incidental works for the conservation of the water supply 21508 of the state. 21509

The public authority having charge of such construction may 21510 approve such request when, in its opinion, the construction of 21511 such dams will not unnecessarily delay or hinder the construction 21512 of the highway, street, highway bridge, or culvert, or will not 21513 interfere with its value or use for highway purposes. 21514

If such request is approved, the chief, in cooperation with 21515 the department of transportation and the public authority 21516 participating in the project, shall make a survey and prepare 21517 plans, specifications, and estimates for the construction of such 21518 dams and the reservoir, pond, water park, basin, lake, or other 21519 incidental works in connection therewith. 21520

Upon approval of the plans and specifications and 21521 determination to proceed with the project, the chief shall enter 21522 into an agreement with the public authority on the distribution of 21523 the cost and expense of the construction of such dams and 21524 incidental works in connection therewith. The portion of the cost 21525 to be paid by the division of soil and water resources shall be 21526 paid from any funds appropriated for or paid into the division and 21527 available for such purpose. 21528

Such dams shall be constructed under and subject to any laws 21529 governing the construction of state, county, or township highways, 21530 bridges, or culverts. Any public authority undertaking 21531 construction under sections 1523.14 to 1523.20 of the Revised Code 21532 shall proceed in the same manner as provided for the construction 21533 of highway or street improvements. 21534

Sec. 1523.16. Any department or division of the state 21535 government, or any county, township, municipal corporation, park 21536 board, or district, or any organization, club, corporation, or 21537 private person may petition the chief of the division of soil and 21538 water resources for the construction of dams and reservoir 21539 projects in connection with the construction of any highway, 21540 highway bridge, or culvert. 21541

Upon receipt of such a petition and its approval by the 21542 chief, ~~he~~ the chief shall proceed as authorized by section 1523.15 21543 of the Revised Code. If the public authority having charge of the 21544 construction of such highway, street, highway bridge, or culvert 21545 approves the request, then the chief shall enter into an agreement 21546 with the public authority, organization, or person petitioning for 21547 the construction of such dam or reservoir on the apportionment of 21548 the cost and expense of construction. The cost and expense of such 21549 dam project shall include the cost of clearing and grubbing and 21550 the cost of property and damages incidental thereto. Such 21551 agreement shall also contain provisions for the proper maintenance 21552 and repair of such projects after completion, and also apportion 21553 the revenue derived therefrom between the division of soil and 21554 water resources and the petitioner. 21555

Sec. 1523.17. In all cases in which a public authority, 21556 private organization, or person petitions for the construction of 21557 a dam and reservoir project as authorized by ~~section~~ sections 21558 1523.14 to 1523.20 of the Revised Code, the chief of the division 21559 of soil and water ~~of the department of natural~~ resources, as a 21560 condition precedent to the construction of such project, shall 21561 require the petitioning authority, organization, or person to pay 21562 ~~his~~ the petitioning authority's, organization's, or person's share 21563 of the cost and expense of such project. 21564

Any deficiency shall be made up by the parties bearing the 21565 cost before any further work is done. If the deficiency is not 21566 made up within sixty days after it is known, the amount paid in, 21567 less the expense incurred by the chief and the cooperating public 21568 authorities, shall be refunded to the donor. After completion of 21569 the work, any amount remaining to the credit of the project shall 21570 likewise be refunded. 21571

Sec. 1523.18. In the construction of dams, reservoirs, and 21572 other incidental works under sections 1523.14 to 1523.20 of the 21573 Revised Code, the chief of the division of soil and water 21574 resources shall proceed as provided by law, and shall enter into 21575 contracts therefor as provided in sections 153.01 to 153.29 of the 21576 Revised Code. The director of transportation, the chief of the 21577 division of wildlife with the approval of the director of natural 21578 resources, and any county, township, municipal corporation, and 21579 public park board or district may proceed with the letting of 21580 contracts for the construction of such dams or reservoir projects, 21581 approved by the chief of the division of soil and water resources, 21582 under any laws regulating the letting of contracts applicable to 21583 their respective departments, divisions, districts, or political 21584 subdivisions, and the authority of sections 1523.14 to 1523.20 of 21585
the Revised Code. 21586

Sec. 1523.19. The chief of the division of soil and water 21587 resources shall have the supervision, care, and control of all 21588 agreed upon with the public or contracting authorities 21595 co-operating in the construction of such projects. 21596

Such projects may also be maintained by any department or 21597

The director or the director's representative may prepare and maintain a plan for the establishment, development, use, and administration of those areas as a part of the comprehensive state plans for water management and outdoor recreation. The director or the director's representative may cooperate with federal agencies administering any federal program concerning wild, scenic, or recreational river areas.

The director may propose for establishment as a wild, scenic, or recreational river area a part or parts of any watercourse in this state, with adjacent lands, that in the director's judgment possesses water conservation, scenic, fish, wildlife, historic, or outdoor recreation values that should be preserved, ~~using the classifications established in section 1517.15 of the Revised Code.~~ The area shall include lands adjacent to the watercourse in sufficient width to preserve, protect, and develop the natural character of the watercourse, but shall not include any lands more than one thousand feet from the normal waterlines of the watercourse unless an additional width is necessary to preserve water conservation, scenic, fish, wildlife, historic, or outdoor recreation values.

The director shall publish the intention to declare an area a wild, scenic, or recreational river area at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in each county, any part of which is within the area, and shall send written notice of the intention to the legislative authority of each county, township, and municipal corporation and to each conservancy district established under Chapter 6101. of the Revised Code, any part of which is within the area, and to the director of transportation, the director of development, the director of administrative services, and the director of environmental protection. The notices shall area by an entry in the director's journal. 23028

Declaration by the director that an area is a wild, scenic, 23029 or recreational river area does not authorize the director or any 23030 governmental agency or political subdivision to restrict the use 23031 of land by the owner thereof or any person acting under the 23032 landowner's authority or to enter upon the land and does not 23033 political subdivision to administer all or part of a wild, scenic, 23037 obtained approval of the plans for the highway, road, or structure 23052 or channel modification from the director of natural resources or 23053 ~~his~~ the director's representative. The court of common pleas 23054 by the division of watercraft not to exceed four per cent of all 23072 money accruing to the fund. The chief may condition any 23073 expenditures, maintenance activities, or construction of 23074 facilities on the adoption and enforcement of adequate floodplain 23075 zoning or land use rules. 23076

~~The director of natural resources may make a lease or~~ 23077 ~~agreement with a political subdivision to administer all or part~~ 23078
~~of a wild, scenic, or recreational river area.~~ 23079

~~The director may acquire real property or any estate, right, or interest therein for protection and public recreational use as a wild, scenic, or recreational river area.~~

(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (G)(2) or (3) of 23171 this section, the court shall sentence the offender to a jail term 23172 of three consecutive days and may sentence the offender pursuant 23173

The court may suspend the execution of the mandatory jail 23177 term of three consecutive days that it is required to impose by 23178 division (G)(1) of this section if the court, in lieu of the 23179 suspended jail term, places the offender under a community control 23180 sanction pursuant to section 2929.25 of the Revised Code and 23181 community control, to attend and satisfactorily complete any 23196 treatment or education programs, in addition to the required 23197 attendance at a drivers' intervention program, that the operators 23198 employment, the court may authorize that the offender be granted work release after the offender has served the mandatory jail term of three, ten, or thirty consecutive days that the court is required by division (G)(1), (2), or (3) of this section to impose. No court shall authorize work release during the mandatory jail term of three, ten, or thirty consecutive days that the court 23236 and the time actually spent under employment. 23241

(5) Notwithstanding any section of the Revised Code that 23242 authorizes the suspension of the imposition or execution of a 23243 sentence or the placement of an offender in any treatment program 23244 in lieu of being imprisoned or serving a jail term, no court shall 23245 suspend the mandatory jail term of ten or thirty consecutive days 23246 or place an offender who is sentenced pursuant to division (G)(2) 23248 or (3) of this section in any treatment program in lieu of being 23249 imprisoned or serving a jail term until after the offender has 23250 served the mandatory jail term of ten or thirty consecutive days 23251 required to be imposed pursuant to division (G)(2) or (3) of this 23252 section. Notwithstanding any section of the Revised Code that 23253 in lieu of being imprisoned or serving a jail term, no court, 23256 except as specifically authorized by division (G)(1) of this 23257 section, shall suspend the mandatory jail term of three 23258 consecutive days required to be imposed by division (G)(1) of this 23259 section or place an offender who is sentenced pursuant to division 23260 (G)(1) of this section in any treatment program in lieu of 23261 that records of organizations contracting with a district shall 23570 section 149.431 of the Revised Code solely by reason of any 23572 contract with a district. 23573

(D) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 23574 nonprofit corporation that governs a district shall be organized 23575 in the manner described in Chapter 1702. of the Revised Code. ~~The~~ 23576 incorporation in the secretary of state's office. 23583

In addition to meeting the requirements for articles of 23584 incorporation set forth in Chapter 1702. of the Revised Code, the 23585 articles of incorporation for the nonprofit corporation governing 23586 a district formed under this chapter shall provide all the 23587
following: 23588

of each participating political subdivision of the district; 23590

(2) A description of the territory within the district, which 23591 may be all or part of each participating political subdivision. 23592
The description shall be specific enough to enable real property 23593 owners to determine if their property is located within the 23594
district. 23595

(3) A description of the procedure by which the articles of 23596 incorporation may be amended. The procedure shall include 23597 receiving approval of the amendment, by resolution, from the 23598 legislative authority of each participating political subdivision 23599 and filing the approved amendment and resolution with the 23600 secretary of state. 23601

(4) The reasons for creating the district, plus an 23602 explanation of how the district will be conducive to the public 23603 health, safety, peace, convenience, and welfare of the district. 23604

(E) The articles of incorporation for a nonprofit corporation 23605 governing a district created under this chapter and amendments to 23606 them shall be submitted to the municipal executive, if any, and 23607 township in which the proposed district is to be located, Except 23609 in the case of a district created by an existing qualified 23610 accompanied by a petition signed either by the owners of at least 23612 sixty per cent of the front footage of all real property located 23613 in the proposed district that abuts upon any street, alley, public 23614 road, place, boulevard, parkway, park entrance, easement, or other 23615 existing public improvement within the proposed district, 23616 excluding church property or property owned by the state, county, 23617 township, municipal, or federal government, unless a church, 23618 county, township, or municipal corporation has specifically 23619 requested in writing that the property be included in the 23620 district, or by the owners of at least seventy-five per cent of 23621 the area of all real property located within the proposed 23622 district, excluding church property or property owned by the 23623 state, county, township, municipal, or federal government, unless 23624 a church, county, township, or municipal corporation has 23625 specifically requested in writing that the property be included in 23626 the district. For purposes of determining compliance with these 23627 requirements, the area of the district, or the front footage and 23628 ownership of property, shall be as shown in the most current 23629 records available at the county recorder's office and the county 23630 engineer's office sixty days prior to the date on which the 23631 petition is filed. 23632

Each municipal corporation or township with which the 23633 petition is filed has sixty days to approve or disapprove, by 23634 resolution, the petition, including the articles of incorporation. 23635
In the case of a district created by an existing qualified 23636 nonprofit corporation, each municipal corporation or township has 23637 sixty days to approve or disapprove the creation of the district 23638 after the corporation submits the articles of incorporation or 23639 amendments thereto. This chapter does not prohibit or restrict the 23640 rights of municipal corporations under Article XVIII of the Ohio 23641

Constitution or the right of the municipal legislative authority 23642 to impose reasonable conditions in a resolution of approval. 23643

(F) Persons proposing creation and operation of the district 23644 may propose an initial plan for public services or public 23645 improvements that benefit all or any part of the district. Any 23646 initial plan shall be submitted as part of the petition proposing 23647 creation of the district or, in the case of a district created by 23648 an existing qualified nonprofit corporation, shall be submitted 23649 with the articles of incorporation or amendments thereto. 23650

An initial plan may include provisions for the following: 23651

(2) Hiring employees and professional services; 23654

(3) Contracting for insurance; 23655

(4) Purchasing or leasing office space and office equipment; 23656

(5) Other actions necessary initially to form, operate, or 23657 organize the district and the nonprofit corporation to govern the 23658
district; 23659

(6) A plan for public improvements or public services that 23660 benefit all or part of the district, which plan shall comply with 23661 the requirements of division (A) of section 1710.06 of the Revised 23662 Code and may include, but is not limited to, any of the permissive 23663 provisions described in the fourth sentence of that division or 23664 listed in divisions (A)(1) to (5) of that section. 23665

After the initial plan is approved by all municipal 23666 corporations and townships to which it is submitted for approval 23667 and the district is created, each participating subdivision shall 23668 levy a special assessment within its boundaries to pay for the 23669 costs of the initial plan. The levy shall be for no more than ten 23670 years from the date of the approval of the initial plan. For 23671 purposes of levying an assessment for this initial plan, the 23672 services or improvements included in the initial plan shall be 23673 deemed a special benefit to property owners within the district. 23674

(G) Each nonprofit corporation governing a district under 23675 this chapter may do the following: 23676

(1) Exercise all powers of nonprofit corporations granted 23677 under Chapter 1702. of the Revised Code that do not conflict with 23678 implement plans for public improvements or public services within 23686 the district; 23687

(4) Contract and pay for insurance for the district and for 23688 directors, officers, agents, contractors, employees, or members of 23689 the district for any consequences of the implementation of any 23690 plan adopted by the district or any actions of the district. 23691

Sec. 1710.03. (A) ~~Each owner, other than a church or the~~ 23692
~~state, county, township, municipal, or federal government, unless~~ 23693
~~a church or county, township, or municipal corporation has~~ 23694
~~specifically requested in writing that the property be included in~~ 23695
~~the district, Except as otherwise provided in this division, each~~ 23696 owner of real property within a special improvement district other 23697 than the state or federal government is a member of the district, 23698 and the real property of each member of the district is subject to 23699 special assessment under division (C) of section 1710.06 of the 23700 Revised Code. The A church is not a member of the district unless 23701 the church specifically requested in writing that its property be 23702 included in the district or unless, in the case of a district 23703 created by an existing qualified nonprofit corporation, the church 23704 is a member of the corporation at the time the district is 23705 created. A county, township, or municipal corporation owning real 23706 property in the district is not a member of the district unless 23707 such entity specifically requested in writing that its property be 23708 included in the district. 23709

The identity and address of the owners shall be determined 23710 for any particular action of the nonprofit corporation that 23711 governs the district, including notice of meetings of the 23712 district, no more than sixty days prior to the date of the action, 23713 from the most current records available at the county auditor's 23714 office. For purposes of this chapter, the persons shown on such 23715 records as having common or joint ownership interests in a parcel 23716 of real property collectively shall constitute the owner of the 23717 real property. 23718

(B) A member may file a written statement with the district's 23719 secretary at least three days prior to any meeting of the entire 23720 membership of the district to appoint a proxy to carry out the 23721 member's rights and responsibilities under this chapter at that 23722 meeting. 23723

(C) A member also may appoint a designee to carry out the 23724 member's rights and responsibilities under this chapter by filing 23725 a written designation form with the district's secretary. This 23726 form shall include the name and address of the member, the name 23727 and address of the designee, and the expiration date, if any, of 23728 the designation and may authorize the designee to vote at any 23729 meeting of the district. 23730

(D) A proxy or designee need not be an elector or resident of 23731 any participating political subdivision of the district or a 23732 member of the district. The appointment of a proxy or a designee 23733 may be changed by filing a new form with the district's secretary. 23734

The most current form filed with the secretary is the valid 23735 appointment. Service of any notice upon a proxy or designee at the 23736 proxy's or designee's address as shown on that form satisfies any 23737 requirements for notification of the member. 23738

Sec. 1710.04. (A) A special improvement district created 23739 under this chapter shall be governed by the board of directors of 23740 the special improvement district. The board shall consist of at 23741 least five directors. The board shall include a person appointed 23742 by the legislative authority of each participating political 23743 subdivision and the municipal executive of each municipal 23744 corporation with territory within the boundaries of the special 23745 improvement district. The remainder of the board's members shall 23746 be members of the district. Except for the municipal executives 23747 and the appointees of the legislative authorities, and except as 23748 otherwise provided in this division, members of the board of 23749 directors shall be elected at a meeting of the entire membership 23750 of the district. The initial election of directors may occur at 23751 the first meeting of the entire membership of the district after 23752 its creation. All subsequent elections shall be held at a November 23753 meeting of the membership. 23754

Each municipal executive may designate one person who is an 23755 employee of the municipal corporation involved with its planning 23756 or economic development functions to serve in the municipal 23757 executive's stead. This designee shall serve at the pleasure of 23758 the municipal executive. 23759

In the case of a district created by an existing qualified 23760 nonprofit corporation, the corporation's board of trustees or 23761 other governing board, however denominated, shall be the board of 23762 directors of the special improvement district for the purposes of 23763 this chapter. The election of directors otherwise required by this 23764 division shall not be required, and the requirement that municipal 23765 executives and appointees of the legislative authorities be 23766 members of the district's board of directors may be satisfied by 23767 the membership on the corporation's governing board of 23768 representatives of such participating political subdivisions, or 23769 may be waived if approved by resolution of the legislative 23770 authorities of the participating political subdivisions. 23771

(B) A director may file a written statement with the 23772 district's secretary at least three days prior to any meeting of 23773 the board to have a person act as proxy to carry out the 23774 director's rights and responsibilities under this chapter at that 23775
meeting. 23776

A director may also appoint a designee to carry out the 23777 director's rights and responsibilities under this chapter by 23778 filing a written designation form with the district's secretary. 23779
This form shall include the name and address of the director, the 23780 name and address of the designee, and the expiration date, if any, 23781 of the designation. 23782

A proxy or designee need not be an elector or resident of a 23783 participating political subdivision of the district or a member of 23784 the district. The appointment of a proxy or designee may be 23785 changed by filing a new form with the district's secretary. The 23786 most current form filed with the secretary is the valid 23787 appointment. Service of any notice upon a proxy or designee at the 23788 proxy's or designee's address as shown on that form satisfies any 23789 requirements for notification of the director. 23790

(C) Notice of the time, date, place, and agenda for any 23791 meeting of the board of directors shall be by written notice to 23792 each director, transmitted by certified mail, personal service, or 23793 electronic device prior to the meeting. If possible, the notice 23794 shall be served at least one week prior to the meeting. 23795

The board shall act by a majority vote of those present and 23796 authorized to vote at any meeting where proper notice has been 23797 served. 23798

(D) The board shall elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, 23799 secretary, and treasurer of the board. These officers shall serve 23800 at the board's pleasure. A director may be elected to more than 23801 one office, except that the director elected as treasurer shall 23802 not be elected to any other office of the board. 23803

By the first day of March of each year, the treasurer shall 23804 submit to each member of the district and to the municipal 23805 executive, chief fiscal officer, and legislative authority of each 23806 municipal corporation with territory within the boundaries of the 23807 special improvement district and the board of township trustees of 23808 each township with territory within the boundaries of the special 23809 improvement district, a report of the district's activities and 23810 financial condition for the previous year. 23811

(E) Divisions (B), (C), and (D) of this section do not apply 23812 to a district created by an existing qualified nonprofit 23813 corporation to the extent those divisions are not consistent with 23814 the regulations of the corporation, in which case the regulations 23815 of the corporation shall govern. 23816

Sec. 1710.06. (A) The board of directors of a special 23817 improvement district may develop and adopt one or more written 23818 plans for public improvements or public services that benefit all 23819 or any part of the district. Each plan shall set forth the 23820 specific public improvements or public services that are to be 23821 provided, identify the area in which they will be provided, and 23822 specify the method of assessment to be used. Each plan for public 23823 improvements or public services shall indicate the period of time 23824 the assessments are to be levied for the improvements and services 23825 and, if public services are included in the plan, the period of 23826 time the services are to remain in effect. Plans for public 23827 improvements may include the planning, design, construction, 23828 reconstruction, enlargement, or alteration of any public 23829 improvements and the acquisition of land for the improvements. 23830

but are not limited to, provisions for the following: 23832 municipal corporation has specifically requested in writing that 23957 the property be included in the district, and filed with the 23958 municipal executive, if any, and the legislative authorities of 23959 the members of the district shall meet to consider it. Notice of 23965 the determination requires resolution of a medical issue, the 25120 superintendent shall determine whether the health care service at 25121 issue is a service covered under the terms of the enrollee's 25122 contract, policy, or agreement. The superintendent shall notify 25123 of the provider or the health care facility rendering the health 25179 care service. The provider or health care facility may not request 25180 a review without the prior consent of the enrollee. 25181

(2) An external review must be requested in writing, except 25182

(F) The health insuring corporation shall provide any coverage determined by the independent review organization's decision to be medically necessary, subject to the other terms, limitations, and conditions of the enrollee's contract. insuring corporation. The medical director shall give the 25342 participating provider an opportunity to discuss with the medical 25343 director the reason or reasons for the termination. 25344

(2) If a satisfactory resolution of a participating 25345 provider's appeal cannot be reached under division (B)(1) of this 25346 section, the participating provider may appeal the termination to 25347 a panel composed of participating providers who have comparable or 25348 higher levels of education and training than the participating 25349 provider making the appeal. A representative of the participating 25350 provider's specialty shall be a member of the panel, if possible. 25351
This panel shall hold a hearing, and shall render its 25352 hearing. The recommendation shall be presented to the medical 25354 director and to the participating provider. 25355

(3) The medical director shall review and consider the 25356 panel's recommendation before making a decision. The decision 25357 rendered by the medical director shall be final. 25358

(C) A provider's status as a participating provider shall 25359 remain in effect during the appeal process set forth in division 25360

(B) of this section unless the termination was based on any of the 25361 reasons listed in division (D) of this section. 25362

(D) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, a 25363 provider's participation may be immediately terminated if the 25364 participating provider's conduct presents an imminent risk of harm 25365 to an enrollee or enrollees; or if there has occurred unacceptable 25366 quality of care, fraud, patient abuse, loss of clinical 25367 privileges, loss of professional liability coverage, incompetence, 25368 or loss of authority to practice in the participating provider's 25369 field; or if a governmental action has impaired the participating 25370 provider's ability to practice. 25371

(E) Divisions (A) to (D) of this section apply only to 25372 providers who are natural persons. 25373

(F)(1) Nothing in this section prohibits a health insuring 25374 corporation from rejecting a provider's application for 25375 participation, or from terminating a participating provider's 25376 contract, if the health insuring corporation determines that the 25377 health care needs of its enrollees are being met and no need 25378 exists for the provider's or participating provider's services. 25379

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting 25380
a health insuring corporation from terminating a participating 25381 provider who does not meet the terms and conditions of the 25382 participating provider's contract. 25383

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting 25384
a health insuring corporation from terminating a participating 25385 provider's contract pursuant to any provision of the contract 25386 described in division (E)(2) of section 3963.02 of the Revised 25387

(2) The department of education shall furnish the ~~tests~~ 28833 assessments described by ~~section sections~~ 3301.0710 and 3301.0712 28834 required by this section; 29386

(viii) If the district is issued a report card under section 29387 higher performance rating than it deserved under that section, 29390 issue a revised report card for the district; 29391

(ix) Any other action designed to correct the district's data 29392 required by this section, the district shall reimburse the 29420 department for the full cost of the audit. The department may 29421 the district did not make a good faith effort to report data as 29432 required by this section, the district shall bear the full cost of 29433 conducting the hearing and of issuing any revised report card. 29434

(7) If the department determines that any inaccurate data 29435 reported under this section caused a school district to receive 29436 excess state funds in any fiscal year, the district shall 29437 reimburse the department an amount equal to the excess funds, in 29438 accordance with a payment schedule determined by the department. 29439 be on the district to demonstrate that it made a good faith effort 29448
