division, the executive director may approve the request for that 4059 peace officer or trooper and grant an extension of the time within 4060 minimum number of hours of continuing professional training set by 4062 the commission. An extension granted under this division may be 4063 for any period of time the executive director believes to be 4064 appropriate, and the executive director shall specify in the 4065 notice granting the extension the date on which the extension 4066 ends. Not later than thirty days after the date on which a request 4067 is submitted to the commission, for each peace officer and trooper 4068 hours of continuing professional training set by the commission, 4077

the appointing authority shall require that peace officer or 4078

the minimum and with division (B) of section 109.761 of the 4085 Revised Code and if the appointed peace officers and troopers of 4086 the public appointing authority comply with section 109.801 of the 4087 Revised Code to the extent that they are subject to that section 4088 and comply with all other training mandated by the general 4089 reimburse the public appointing authority for the successful 4091 training costs of each of its appointed peace officers and 4092 troopers as provided in section 109.802 of the Revised Code. 4093~~ its appointed peace officers and troopers for whom such an 4105 extension was not granted, as provided in section 109.802 of the 4106

Revised Code. 4107~~

appointing authority for whom the executive director granted such 4109 an extension completes prior to the date on which the extension 4110 minimum, if the officer or trooper also has complied with section 4112 109.801 of the Revised Code to the extent that the officer or 4113 trooper is subject to that section and has complied with all other 4114 training mandated by the general assembly or the attorney general, 4115 and if the public appointing authority has complied with division 4116 under Chapter 152. of the Revised Code, to operate the capital 4239 facilities for such period of time as may be specified by law and 4240 to pay such rent as the secretary of state determines to be 4241 appropriate. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised 4242 any such lease is legally sufficient to obligate the county for 4244

6074

(H) "Site selection organization" means the national football 6079 league, the national collegiate athletic association, the national 6080 basketball association, the national hockey league, major league 6081 baseball, the federation internationale de football association, 6082 the international world games association, the United States 6083 olympic committee, the national senior games association, or the 6084 national governing body of a sport that is recognized as such by 6085 the United States olympic committee. 6086

Sec. 122.121. (A) If an endorsing municipality or endorsing 6087 county enters into a joinder undertaking with a site selection 6088 organization, the endorsing municipality or endorsing county may 6089 apply to the director of development, on a form and in the manner 6090 prescribed by the director, for a grant based on the projected 6091 incremental increase in the receipts from the tax imposed under 6092 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code within the market area 6093 designated under division (C) of this section, for the two-week 6094 period that ends at the end of the day after the date on which a 6095 game will be held, that is directly attributable, as determined by 6096 the director, to the preparation for and presentation of the game. 6097
The director shall determine the projected incremental increase in 6098 the tax imposed under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code from 6099 information certified to the director by the endorsing 6100 municipality or the endorsing county including, but not limited 6101 to, historical attendance and ticket sales for the game, income 6102 statements showing revenue and expenditures for the game in prior 6103 years, attendance capacity at the proposed venues, event budget at 6104 the proposed venues, and projected lodging room nights based on 6105 historical attendance, attendance capacity at the proposed venues, 6106 and duration of the game and related activities. The endorsing 6107 municipality or endorsing county is eligible to receive a grant 6108 under this section only if the projected incremental increase in 6109 receipts from the tax imposed under section 5739.02 of the Revised 6110 Code, as determined by the director, exceeds two hundred fifty 6111 thousand dollars. The amount of the grant shall be determined by 6112 the director but shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars. 6113

The director shall not issue grants with a total value of more 6114 than one million dollars in any fiscal year, and shall not issue 6115 any grant before July 1, 2011. 6116

(B) If the director of development approves an application 6117 for an endorsing municipality or endorsing county and that 6118 endorsing municipality or endorsing county enters into a joinder 6119 agreement with a site selection organization, the endorsing 6120 municipality or endorsing county shall file a copy of the joinder 6121 agreement with the director of development, who immediately shall 6122 notify the director of budget and management of the filing. Within 6123 thirty days after receiving the notice, the director of budget and 6124 management shall establish a schedule to disburse from the general 6125 revenue fund to such endorsing municipality or endorsing county 6126 payments that total the amount certified by the director of 6127 development under division (A) of this section, but in no event 6128 shall the total amount disbursed exceed five hundred thousand 6129 dollars, and no disbursement shall be made before July 1, 2011. 6130
The payments shall be used exclusively by the endorsing 6131 municipality or endorsing county to fulfill a portion of its 6132 obligations to a site selection organization under game support 6133 contracts, which obligations may include the payment of costs 6134 relating to the preparations necessary for the conduct of the 6135 game, including acquiring, renovating, or constructing facilities; 6136 to pay the costs of conducting the game; and to assist the local 6137 organizing committee, endorsing municipality, or endorsing county 6138 in providing assurances required by a site selection organization 6139 sponsoring one or more games. 6140

(C) For the purposes of division (A) of this section, the 6141 director of development, in consultation with the tax 6142 commissioner, shall designate as a market area for a game each 6143 area in which they determine there is a reasonable likelihood of 6144 measurable economic impact directly attributable to the 6145 preparation for and presentation of the game and related events, 6146 including areas likely to provide venues, accommodations, and 6147 services in connection with the game based on the information and 6148 the copy of the joinder undertaking provided to the director under 6149 divisions (A) and (B) of this section. The director and 6150 commissioner shall determine the geographic boundaries of each 6151 market area. An endorsing municipality or endorsing county that 6152 has been selected as the site for a game must be included in a 6153 market area for the game. 6154

(D) A local organizing committee, endorsing municipality, or 6155 endorsing county shall provide information required by the 6156 director of development and tax commissioner to enable the 6157 director and commissioner to fulfill their duties under this 6158 section, including annual audited statements of any financial 6159 records required by a site selection organization and data 6160 obtained by the local organizing committee, endorsing 6161 municipality, or endorsing county relating to attendance at a game 6162 and to the economic impact of the game. A local organizing 6163 committee, an endorsing municipality, or an endorsing county shall 6164 provide an annual audited financial statement if so required by 6165 the director and commissioner, not later than the end of the 6166 fourth month after the date the period covered by the financial 6167 statement ends. 6168

(E) Within sixty days after the game, the endorsing 6169 municipality or the endorsing county shall report to the director 6170 of development about the economic impact of the game. The report 6171 shall be in the form and substance required by the director, 6172 including, but not limited to, a final income statement for the 6173 event showing total revenue and expenditures and revenue and 6174 expenditures in the market area for the game, and ticket sales for 6175 the game and any related activities for which admission was 6176 charged. The director of development shall determine, based on the 6177 reported information and the exercise of reasonable judgment, the 6178 incremental increase in receipts from the tax imposed under 6179 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code directly attributable to the 6180 game. If the actual incremental increase in such receipts is less 6181 than the projected incremental increase in receipts, the director 6182 may require the endorsing municipality or the endorsing county to 6183 refund to the state all or a portion of the grant. 6184

(F) No disbursement may be made under this section if the 6185 director of development determines that it would be used for the 6186 purpose of soliciting the relocation of a professional sports 6187 franchise located in this state. 6188

(G) This section may not be construed as creating or 6189 requiring a state guarantee of obligations imposed on an endorsing 6190 municipality or endorsing county under a game support contract or 6191 any other agreement relating to hosting one or more games in this 6192

Sec. 122.151. (A) An investor who proposes to make an 6194 investment of money in an Ohio entity may apply to an Edison 6195 center for a tax credit under this section. The Edison center 6196 shall prescribe the form of the application and any information 6197 that the investor must submit with the application. The investor 6198 shall include with the application a fee of two hundred dollars. 6199
The center, within three weeks after receiving the application, 6200 shall review it, determine whether the investor should be 6201 recommended for the tax credit, and send written notice of its 6202 initial determination to the industrial technology and enterprise 6203 advisory council and to the investor. If the center determines the 6204 investor should not be recommended for the tax credit, it shall 6205 include in the notice the reasons for the determination. Subject 6206 to divisions (C) and (D) of this section, an investor is eligible 6207 for a tax credit if all of the following requirements are met: 6208

(1) The investor's investment of money is in an Ohio entity 6209 engaged in a qualified trade or business. 6210

(2) The Ohio entity had less than two million five hundred 6211 thousand dollars of gross revenue during its most recently 6212 completed fiscal year or had a net book value of less than two 6213 million five hundred thousand dollars at the end of that fiscal 6214 year. 6215

(3) The investment takes the form of the purchase of common 6216 or preferred stock, a membership interest, a partnership interest, 6217 or any other ownership interest. 6218

(4) The amount of the investment for which the credit is 6219 being claimed does not exceed three hundred thousand dollars in 6220 the case of an investment in an EDGE business enterprise or in an 6221 Ohio entity located in a distressed area, or two hundred fifty 6222 thousand dollars in the case of an investment in any other Ohio 6223 entity. 6224

(5) The money invested is entirely at risk of loss, where 6225 repayment depends upon the success of the business operations of 6226
the Ohio entity. 6227

(6) No repayment of principal invested will be made for at 6228 least three years from the date the investment is made. 6229

(7) The annual combined amount of any dividend and interest 6230 payments to be made to the investor will not exceed ten per cent 6231 of the amount of the investment for at least three years from the 6232 date the investment is made. 6233

(8) The investor is not an employee with proprietary 6234 decision-making authority of the Ohio entity in which the 6235 investment of money is proposed, or related to such an individual. 6236

The Ohio entity is not an individual related to the investor. For 6237 purposes of this division, the industrial technology and 6238 enterprise advisory council shall define "an employee with 6239 proprietary decision-making authority." 6240

(9) The investor is not an insider. 6241

For the purposes of determining the net book value of an Ohio 6242 entity under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, if the entity 6243 is a member of an affiliated group, the combined net book values 6244 of all of the members of that affiliated group shall be used. 6245

Nothing in division (A)(6) or (7) of this section limits or 6246 disallows the distribution to an investor in a pass-through entity 6247 of a portion of the entity's profits equal to the investor's 6248 federal, state, and local income tax obligations attributable to 6249 the investor's allocable share of the entity's profits. Nothing in 6250 division (A)(6) or (7) of this section limits or disallows the 6251 sale by an investor of part or all of the investor's interests in 6252 an Ohio entity by way of a public offering of shares in the Ohio 6253
entity. 6254

(B) A group of two but not more than twenty investors, each 6255 of whom proposes to make an investment of money in the same Ohio 6256 entity, may submit an application for tax credits under division 6257
(A) of this section. The group shall include with the application 6258 a fee of eight hundred dollars. The application shall identify 6259 each investor in the group and the amount of money each investor 6260 proposes to invest in the Ohio entity, and shall name a contact 6261 person for the group. The Edison center, within three weeks after 6262 receiving the application, shall review it, determine whether each 6263 investor of the group should be recommended for a tax credit under 6264 the conditions set forth in division (A) of this section, and send 6265 written notice of its determination to the industrial technology 6266 and enterprise advisory council and to the contact person. The 6267 center shall not recommend that a group of investors receive a tax 6268 credit unless each investor is eligible under those conditions. 6269

The center may disqualify from a group any investor who is not 6270 eligible under the conditions and recommend that the remaining 6271 group of investors receive the tax credit. If the center 6272 determines the group should not be recommended for the tax credit, 6273 it shall include in the notice the reasons for the determination. 6274

(C) The industrial technology and enterprise advisory council 6275 shall establish from among its members a three-person committee. 6276 Within four weeks after the council receives a notice of 6277 recommendation from an Edison center, the committee shall review 6278 the recommendation and issue a final determination of whether the 6279 investor or group is eligible for a tax credit under the 6280 conditions set forth in division (A) of this section. The 6281 committee may require the investor or group to submit additional 6282 information to support the application. The vote of at least two 6283 members of the committee is necessary for the issuance of a final 6284 determination or any other action of the committee. Upon making 6285 the final determination, the committee shall send written notice 6286 of approval or disapproval of the tax credit to the investor or 6287 group contact person, the director of development, and the Edison 6288 center. If the committee disapproves the tax credit, it shall 6289 include in the notice the reasons for the disapproval. 6290

(D)(1) The industrial technology and enterprise advisory 6291 council committee shall not approve more than one million five 6292 hundred thousand dollars of investments in any one Ohio entity. 6293 However, if a proposed investment of money in an Ohio entity has 6294 been approved but the investor does not actually make the 6295 investment, the committee may reassign the amount of that 6296 investment to another investor, as long as the total amount 6297 invested in the entity under this section does not exceed one 6298 million five hundred thousand dollars. 6299

If the one-million-five-hundred-thousand-dollar limit for an 6300

Ohio entity has not yet been reached and an application proposes 6301 an investment of money that would exceed the limit for that 6302 entity, the committee shall send written notice to the investor, 6303 or for a group, the contact person, that the investment cannot be 6304 approved as requested. Upon receipt of the notice, the investor or 6305 group may amend the application to propose an investment of money 6306 that does not exceed the limit. 6307

(2) Not more than ~~thirty~~ forty-five million dollars of tax 6308 credits shall be issued under sections 122.15 to 122.154 of the 6309
Revised Code. 6310

(E) If an investor makes an approved investment of less than 6311 two hundred fifty thousand dollars in any Ohio entity other than 6312 an EDGE business enterprise or in an Ohio entity located in a 6313 distressed area, the investor may apply for approval of another 6314 investment of money in that entity, as long as the total amount 6315 invested in that entity by the investor under this section does 6316 not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars. If an investor 6317 makes an approved investment of less than three hundred thousand 6318 dollars in an EDGE business enterprise or in an Ohio entity 6319 located in a distressed area, the investor may apply for approval 6320 of another investment of money in that entity, as long as the 6321 total amount invested in that entity by the investor under this 6322 section does not exceed three hundred thousand dollars. An 6323 investor who receives approval of an investment of money as part 6324 of a group may subsequently apply on an individual basis for 6325 approval of an additional investment of money in the Ohio entity. 6326

(F) The industrial technology and enterprise advisory council 6327 committee shall approve or disapprove tax credit applications 6328 under this section in the order in which they are received by the 6329 council. 6330

(G) The director of development may disapprove any 6331 application recommended by an Edison center and approved by the 6332 industrial technology and enterprise advisory council committee, 6333 or may disapprove a credit for which a tax credit certificate has 6334 been issued under section 122.152 of the Revised Code, if the 6335 director determines that the entity in which the applicant 6336 proposes to invest or has invested is not an Ohio entity eligible 6337 to receive investments that qualify for the credit. If the 6338 director disapproves an application, the director shall certify 6339 the action to the investor, the Edison center that recommended the 6340 application, the industrial technology and enterprise advisory 6341 council, and the tax commissioner, together with a written 6342 explanation of the reasons for the disapproval. If the director 6343 disapproves a tax credit after a tax credit certificate is issued, 6344 the investor shall not claim the credit for the taxable year that 6345 includes the day the director disapproves the credit, or for any 6346 subsequent taxable year. 6347

The director of development, in accordance with section 6348 111.15 of the Revised Code and with the advice of the industrial 6349 technology and enterprise advisory council, may adopt, amend, and 6350 rescind rules necessary to implement sections 122.15 to 122.154 of 6351
the Revised Code. 6352

(H) An Edison center shall use application fees received 6353 under this section only for the costs of administering sections 6354 122.15 to 122.154 of the Revised Code. 6355

is employed for consideration for such time or renders such 6361 service but is on family or medical leave under the federal Family 6362 and Medical Leave Act of 1993, Pub. L. No. 103-3, 107 Stat. 6, as 6363~~

~~(2) "New employee" means one of the following:~~ 6366

~~project that is the subject of the agreement after the taxpayer~~ 6368

~~enters into a tax credit agreement with the tax credit authority~~ 6369

~~under this section;~~ 6370

~~(b) A full time employee first employed by a taxpayer in the~~ 6371

~~project that is the subject of the tax credit after the tax credit~~ 6372

~~authority approves a project for a tax credit under this section~~ 6373

~~in a public meeting, as long as the taxpayer enters into the tax~~ 6374

~~credit agreement prepared by the department of development after~~ 6375

~~such meeting within sixty days after receiving the agreement from~~ 6376

~~the department. If the taxpayer fails to enter into the agreement~~ 6377

~~within sixty days, "new employee" has the same meaning as under~~ 6378

~~division (A)(2)(a) of this section. A full time employee may be~~ 6379

~~considered a "new employee" of a taxpayer, despite previously~~ 6380

~~having been employed by a related member of the taxpayer, if all~~ 6381

~~the tax credit; and~~ 6390

~~(iii) The employee was considered a new employee of the~~ 6391

~~related member prior to employment with the taxpayer.~~ 6392

~~Under division (A)(2)(a) or (b) of this section, if the tax~~ 6393

~~credit authority determines it appropriate, "new employee" also~~ 6394

~~may include an employee re hired or called back from lay off to 6395 work in a new facility or on a new product or service established 6396 or produced by the taxpayer after entering into the agreement 6397 under this section or after the tax credit authority approves the 6398 tax credit in a public meeting. Except as otherwise provided in 6399 this paragraph, "new employee" does not include any employee of 6400 the taxpayer who was previously employed in this state by a 6401
the taxpayer after the taxpayer entered into the tax credit 6403
agreement or after the tax credit authority approved the credit in 6404
a public meeting, or any employee of the taxpayer for which the 6405 taxpayer has been granted a certificate under division (B) of 6406 section 5709.66 of the Revised Code. However, if the taxpayer is 6407 engaged in the enrichment and commercialization of uranium or 6408 uranium products or is engaged in research and development 6409 activities related thereto and if the tax credit authority 6410 determines it appropriate, "new employee" may include an employee 6411 of the taxpayer who was previously employed in this state by a 6412
a public meeting. "New employee" does not include an employee of 6416 the taxpayer who is employed in an employment position that was 6417 relocated to a project from other operations of the taxpayer in 6418 this state or from operations of a related member of the taxpayer 6419 in this state. In addition, "new employee" does not include a 6420 child, grandchild, parent, or spouse, other than a spouse who is 6421 legally separated from the individual, of any individual who is an 6422 employee of the taxpayer and who has a direct or indirect 6423 ownership interest of at least five per cent in the profits, 6424 capital, or value of the taxpayer. Such ownership interest shall 6425 be determined in accordance with section 1563 of the Internal 6426 Revenue Code and regulations prescribed thereunder. 6427~~

~~(3) "New income "Income tax revenue" means the total amount withheld under section 5747.06 of the Revised Code by the taxpayer during the taxable year, or during the calendar year that includes the tax period, from the compensation of ~~new employees for the tax levied under Chapter 5747. of the Revised Code.~~~~

~~(4) "Related member" has the same meaning as under division (A)(6) of section 5733.042 of the Revised Code without regard to division (B) of that section each employee employed in the project to the extent the employee's withholdings are not used to determine the credit under section 122.171 of the Revised Code. "Income tax revenue" excludes amounts withheld before the day the taxpayer becomes eligible for the credit.~~

(2) "Baseline income tax revenue" means income tax revenue except that the applicable withholding period is the twelve months immediately preceding the date the tax credit authority approves the taxpayer's application multiplied by the sum of one plus an annual pay increase factor to be determined by the tax credit authority. If the taxpayer becomes eligible for the credit after the first day of the taxpayer's taxable year or after the first day of the calendar year that includes the tax period, the taxpayer's baseline income tax revenue for the first such taxable or calendar year of credit eligibility shall be reduced in proportion to the number of days during the taxable or calendar year for which the taxpayer was not eligible for the credit. For subsequent taxable or calendar years, "baseline income tax revenue" equals the unreduced baseline income tax revenue for the preceding taxable or calendar year multiplied by the sum of one plus the pay increase factor.

(3) "Excess income tax revenue" means income tax revenue minus baseline income tax revenue.

(B) The tax credit authority may make grants under this section to foster job creation in this state. Such a grant shall 6460 take the form of a refundable credit allowed against the tax 6461 imposed by section 5725.18, 5729.03, 5733.06, or 5747.02 or levied 6462 under Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code. The credit shall be 6463 claimed for the taxable years or tax periods specified in the 6464 taxpayer's agreement with the tax credit authority under division 6465

(D) of this section. With respect to taxes imposed under section 6466 5733.06 or 5747.02 or Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code, the 6467 credit shall be claimed in the order required under section 6468 5733.98, 5747.98, or 5751.98 of the Revised Code. The amount of 6469 the credit available for a taxable year or for a calendar year 6470 that includes a tax period equals the ~~new~~ excess income tax 6471 revenue for that year multiplied by the percentage specified in 6472 the agreement with the tax credit authority. Any credit granted 6473 under this section against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 or 6474 5747.02 of the Revised Code, to the extent not fully utilized 6475 against such tax for taxable years ending prior to 2008, shall 6476 automatically be converted without any action taken by the tax 6477 credit authority to a credit against the tax levied under Chapter 6478 5751. of the Revised Code for tax periods beginning on or after 6479
July 1, 2008, provided that the person to whom the credit was 6480 granted is subject to such tax. The converted credit shall apply 6481 to those calendar years in which the remaining taxable years 6482 specified in the agreement end. 6483

(C) A taxpayer or potential taxpayer who proposes a project 6484 to create new jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit 6485 authority to enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this 6486 section. The director of development shall prescribe the form of 6487 the application. After receipt of an application, the authority 6488 may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for a credit under 6489 this section if it determines all of the following: 6490

(1) The taxpayer's project will ~~create new jobs in this state~~ 6491 increase payroll and income tax revenue; 6492

(2) The taxpayer's project is economically sound and will 6493 benefit the people of this state by increasing opportunities for 6494 employment and strengthening the economy of this state; 6495

(3) Receiving the tax credit is a major factor in the 6496 taxpayer's decision to go forward with the project. 6497

(D) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 6498
following: 6499

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 6500 of the agreement; 6501

(2) The term of the tax credit, which shall not exceed 6502 fifteen years, and the first taxable year, or first calendar year 6503 that includes a tax period, for which the credit may be claimed; 6504

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer shall maintain operations 6505 at the project location for at least ~~twice the number of years as~~ 6506 ~~the term of the tax credit~~ the greater of seven years or the term 6507 of the credit plus three years; 6508

(4) The percentage, as determined by the tax credit 6509

~~immediately following the calendar year in which the authority~~ 7078 ~~amends the agreement or the director notifies the taxpayer in~~ 7079 ~~writing of such failure. If the taxpayer fails to annually report~~ 7080 insurance in the case of an insurance company, the chairperson of 7105 the authority shall provide to the commissioner or superintendent 7106 the commissioner or superintendent within sixty days after the 7120 commissioner or superintendent requests it. 7121

this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 7157 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 7159 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 7160 refunded to the tax commissioner. ~~The~~ or the superintendent of 7161

If the taxpayer is an insurance company, the superintendent of 7165 insurance shall make an assessment under section 5725.222 or 7166

under those chapters and sections do not apply to an assessment 7168 under this division, but the commissioner or superintendent shall 7169 make the assessment within one year after the date the authority 7170 certifies to the commissioner or superintendent the amount to be 7171 refunded. 7172

~~that received a tax credit under this section has reduced the~~ 7174
~~number of employees agreed to under division (E)(5) of this~~ 7175
~~section by more than ten per cent, the director shall notify the~~ 7176 ~~tax credit authority of the noncompliance. After receiving such~~ 7177
~~notice, and after providing the taxpayer an opportunity to explain~~ 7178
~~the noncompliance, the authority may amend the agreement to reduce~~ 7179
~~the percentage or term of the tax credit. The reduction in the~~ 7180 ~~percentage or term shall take effect in the taxable year, or in~~ 7181
~~the calendar year that includes the tax period, in which the~~ 7182 ~~authority amends the agreement.~~ 7183

(K) The director of development, after consultation with the 7184 tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and in 7185 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 7186 rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 7187 section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 7193 the director shall submit copies of the proposed rules to the 7194 chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 7195 preceding calendar year, a description of the project that is the 7203 subject of each such agreement, and an update on the status of 7204

calendar year. 7206

applicable corporation and its related members in an amount equal 7208 credit granted to the corporation or related members under 7210 division (B) of this section. The credit is subject to divisions 7211 (B) to (E) and division (J) of this section. 7212~~ authorities or the director of administrative services relative to 8259 reduction in pay or position, job abolishments, layoff, 8260

Upon the creation by the board of trustees of a civil service 8672

(C) of this section, all persons in the employ of a civil service 8675 township police or fire department having ten or more full-time 8676 paid employees. The classified service consists of two classes, 8677 which shall be designated as the competitive class and the 8678

(1) The competitive class shall include all positions and employments in the state and the counties, cities, city health districts, general health districts, and city school districts of the state, and, upon the creation by the board of trustees of a civil service township of a township civil service commission, all positions in a civil service township police or fire department having ten or more full-time paid employees, for which it is practicable to determine the merit and fitness of applicants by competitive examinations. Appointments shall be made to, or employment shall be given in, all positions in the competitive class that are not filled by promotion, reinstatement, transfer, or reduction, as provided in this chapter, and the rules of the director of administrative services, by appointment from those certified to the appointing officer in accordance with this chapter.

or commission, as applicable, shall certify from the highest on 8713
the list double the number to be employed; from this number, the 8714 appointing officer shall appoint the number actually needed for 8715 the particular work. If more than one applicant receives the same 8716 rating, priority in time of application shall determine the order 8717 in which their names shall be certified for appointment. 8718

(C) A municipal or civil service township civil service 8719 commission may place volunteer firefighters who are paid on a 8720 fee-for-service basis in either the classified or the unclassified 8721 civil service. 8722

(D) This division does not apply to persons in the 8723 unclassified service who have the right to resume positions in the 8724 classified service under sections 4121.121, 5119.071, 5120.38, 8725 5120.381, 5120.382, 5123.08, 5139.02, and 5501.19 of the Revised 8726
Code. 8727

An appointing authority whose employees are paid directly by 8728 warrant of the director of budget and management may appoint a 8729 person who holds a certified position in the classified service 8730 within the appointing authority's agency to a position in the 8731 unclassified service within that agency. A person appointed 8732 pursuant to this division to a position in the unclassified 8733 service shall retain the right to resume the position and status 8734 held by the person in the classified service immediately prior to 8735 the person's appointment to the position in the unclassified 8736 service, regardless of the number of positions the person held in 8737 the unclassified service. An employee's right to resume a position 8738 in the classified service may only be exercised when an appointing 8739 authority demotes the employee to a pay range lower than the 8740 employee's current pay range or revokes the employee's appointment 8741 to the unclassified service. An employee forfeits the right to 8742 resume a position in the classified service when the employee is 8743 removed from the position in the unclassified service due to 8744 incompetence, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral 8745 conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, 8746 neglect of duty, violation of this chapter or the rules of the 8747 director of administrative services, any other failure of good 8748 behavior, any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, or 8749 nonfeasance in office, or conviction of a felony. An employee also 8750 forfeits the right to resume a position in the classified service 8751 upon transfer to a different agency. 8752

Reinstatement to a position in the classified service shall 8753 be to a position substantially equal to that position in the 8754 classified service held previously, as certified by the director 8755 of administrative services. If the position the person previously 8756 held in the classified service has been placed in the unclassified 8757 service or is otherwise unavailable, the person shall be appointed 8758 to a position in the classified service within the appointing 8759 authority's agency that the director of administrative services 8760 certifies is comparable in compensation to the position the person 8761 previously held in the classified service. Service in the position 8762 in the unclassified service shall be counted as service in the 8763 position in the classified service held by the person immediately 8764 prior to the person's appointment to the position in the 8765 unclassified service. When a person is reinstated to a position in 8766 the classified service as provided in this division, the person is 8767 entitled to all rights, status, and benefits accruing to the 8768 position in the classified service during the person's time of 8769 service in the position in the unclassified service. 8770 on a prorated basis. The ratio between the hours worked and the 8828 vacation hours earned by these classes of employees shall be the 8829 same as the ratio between the hours worked and the vacation hours 8830 earned by a full-time permanent employee with the same amount of 8831 service as provided for in this section. 8832

Vacation leave is not available for use until it appears on 8833

this section. 8840

(B) Employees granted leave under this section shall forfeit 8841 employee is only eligible to receive payment for vacation leave 8852 when the employee's vacation leave credit is at, or will reach in 8853 the immediately following pay period, the maximum of the accrual 8854 vacation leave ~~during the immediately preceding twelve months, the~~ 8856 vacation leave denied in any pay period in which the employee's 8861

immediately following pay period, the maximum of accrual for three 8863 years. Any vacation leave for which an employee receives payment 8864 shall be deducted from the employee's vacation leave balance. 8865 ~~Payment shall not be made for any leave accrued in the same~~ 8866 ~~calendar year in which the payment is made. No employee is~~ 8867 eligible to receive payment for denied vacation leave in either 8868 fiscal year 2010 or fiscal year 2011. 8869

(D) The supreme court, general assembly, secretary of state, 8870 auditor of state, treasurer of state, and attorney general may 8871 establish by policy an alternate payment structure for employees 8872 whose vacation leave credit is at, or will reach in the 8873

years and the employee has been denied the use of vacation leave. 8875 An employee is not entitled to receive payment for vacation leave 8876 denied in any pay period in which the employee's vacation leave 8877 credit is not at, or will not reach in the immediately following 8878 pay period, the maximum of accrual for three years. Any vacation 8879 from the employee's vacation leave balance. 8881

~~(C)~~ (E) Upon separation from state service, an employee 8882 granted leave under this section is entitled to compensation at 8883 the employee's current rate of pay for all unused vacation leave 8884 accrued under this section or section 124.13 of the Revised Code 8885 to the employee's credit. In case of transfer of an employee from 8886 one state agency to another, the employee shall retain the accrued 8887 and unused vacation leave. In case of the death of an employee, 8888 the unused vacation leave shall be paid in accordance with section 8889 2113.04 of the Revised Code, or to the employee's estate. An 8890 employee serving in a temporary work level who is eligible to 8891 receive compensation under this division shall be compensated at 8892 the base rate of pay of the employee's normal classification. 8893

Sec. 124.14. (A)(1) The director of administrative services 8894 shall establish, and may modify or rescind, by rule, a job 8895 classification plan for all positions, offices, and employments 8896 the salaries of which are paid in whole or in part by the state. 8897
The director shall group jobs within a classification so that the 8898 positions are similar enough in duties and responsibilities to be 8899 described by the same title, to have the same pay assigned with 8900 equity, and to have the same qualifications for selection applied. 8901
The director shall, by rule, assign a classification title to each 8902 classification within the classification plan. However, the 8903 director shall consider in establishing classifications, including 8904 classifications with parenthetical titles, and assigning pay 8905 ranges such factors as duties performed only on one shift, special 8906 skills in short supply in the labor market, recruitment problems, 8907 separation rates, comparative salary rates, the amount of training 8908 required, and other conditions affecting employment. The director 8909 shall describe the duties and responsibilities of the class, 8910 establish the qualifications for being employed in each position 8911 in the class, and file with the secretary of state a copy of 8912 specifications for all of the classifications. The director shall 8913 file new, additional, or revised specifications with the secretary 8914 of state before they are used. 8915

The director shall, by rule, assign each classification, 8916 either on a statewide basis or in particular counties or state 8917 institutions, to a pay range established under section 124.15 or 8918 section 124.152 of the Revised Code. The director may assign a 8919 classification to a pay range on a temporary basis for a period of 8920 six months. The director may establish, by rule adopted under 8921 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, experimental classification 8922 plans for some or all employees paid directly by warrant of the 8923 director of budget and management. The rule shall include 8924 specifications for each classification within the plan and shall 8925 specifically address compensation ranges, and methods for 8926 advancing within the ranges, for the classifications, which may be 8927 assigned to pay ranges other than the pay ranges established under 8928 section 124.15 or 124.152 of the Revised Code. 8929

(2) The director of administrative services may reassign to a 8930 proper classification those positions that have been assigned to 8931 an improper classification. If the compensation of an employee in 8932 such a reassigned position exceeds the maximum rate of pay for the 8933 employee's new classification, the employee shall be placed in pay 8934 step X and shall not receive an increase in compensation until the 8935 maximum rate of pay for that classification exceeds the employee's 8936 compensation. 8937

(3) The director may reassign an exempt employee, as defined 8938 in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, to a bargaining unit 8939 classification if the director determines that the bargaining unit 8940 classification is the proper classification for that employee. 8941 Notwithstanding Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code or instruments 8942 and contracts negotiated under it, these placements are at the 8943 director's discretion. 8944

(4) The director shall, by rule, assign related 8945 classifications, which form a career progression, to a 8946 classification series. The director shall, by rule, assign each 8947 classification in the classification plan a five-digit number, the 8948 first four digits of which shall denote the classification series 8949 to which the classification is assigned. When a career progression 8950 encompasses more than ten classifications, the director shall, by 8951 rule, identify the additional classifications belonging to a 8952 classification series. The additional classifications shall be 8953 part of the classification series, notwithstanding the fact that 8954 the first four digits of the number assigned to the additional 8955 classifications do not correspond to the first four digits of the 8956 numbers assigned to other classifications in the classification 8957 series. 8958

(5) The director, ~~in accordance with rules adopted under~~ 8959
~~Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall establish, and may~~ 8960 establish, modify, or rescind, a classification plan for county 8961 agencies that elect not to use the services and facilities of a 8962 county personnel department. The director shall establish any such 8963 classification plan by means of rules adopted under Chapter 119. 8964 of the Revised Code. The rules shall include a methodology for the 8965 establishment of titles unique to county agencies, the use of 8966 state classification titles and classification specifications for 8967 common positions, the criteria for a county to meet in 8968 establishing its own classification plan, and the establishment of 8969 what constitutes a classification series for county agencies. The 8970 director may assess a county agency that chooses to use the 8971 classification plan a usage fee the director determines. All usage 8972 fees the department of administrative services receives shall be 8973 paid into the state treasury to the credit of the human resources 8974 fund created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code. 8975

(B) Division (A) of this section and sections 124.15 and 8976
124.152 of the Revised Code do not apply to the following persons, 8977 positions, offices, and employments: 8978

(1) Elected officials; 8979

(2) Legislative employees, employees of the legislative 8980 service commission, employees in the office of the governor, 8981 employees who are in the unclassified civil service and exempt 8982 from collective bargaining coverage in the office of the secretary 8983 of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, and attorney 8984 general, and employees of the supreme court; 8985

(3) Employees of a county children services board that 8986 establishes compensation rates under section 5153.12 of the 8987

(4) Any position for which the authority to determine 8989 compensation is given by law to another individual or entity; 8990

(5) Employees of the bureau of workers' compensation whose 8991 compensation the administrator of workers' compensation 8992 establishes under division (B) of section 4121.121 of the Revised 8993

(C) The director may employ a consulting agency to aid and 8995 assist the director in carrying out this section. 8996

(D)(1) When the director proposes to modify a classification 8997 or the assignment of classes to appropriate pay ranges, the 8998 director shall send written notice of the proposed rule to the 8999 appointing authorities of the affected employees thirty days 9000 before a hearing on the proposed rule. The appointing authorities 9001 shall notify the affected employees regarding the proposed rule. 9002

The director also shall send those appointing authorities notice 9003 of any final rule that is adopted within ten days after adoption. 9004

(2) When the director proposes to reclassify any employee so 9005 that the employee is adversely affected, the director shall give 9006 to the employee affected and to the employee's appointing 9007 authority a written notice setting forth the proposed new 9008 classification, pay range, and salary. Upon the request of any 9009 classified employee who is not serving in a probationary period, 9010 the director shall perform a job audit to review the 9011 classification of the employee's position to determine whether the 9012 position is properly classified. The director shall give to the 9013 employee affected and to the employee's appointing authority a 9014 written notice of the director's determination whether or not to 9015 reclassify the position or to reassign the employee to another 9016 classification. An employee or appointing authority desiring a 9017 hearing shall file a written request for the hearing with the 9018 state personnel board of review within thirty days after receiving 9019 the notice. The board shall set the matter for a hearing and 9020 notify the employee and appointing authority of the time and place 9021 of the hearing. The employee, the appointing authority, or any 9022 authorized representative of the employee who wishes to submit 9023 facts for the consideration of the board shall be afforded 9024 reasonable opportunity to do so. After the hearing, the board 9025 shall consider anew the reclassification and may order the 9026 reclassification of the employee and require the director to 9027 assign the employee to such appropriate classification as the 9028 facts and evidence warrant. As provided in division (A)(1) of 9029 section 124.03 of the Revised Code, the board may determine the 9030 most appropriate classification for the position of any employee 9031 coming before the board, with or without a job audit. The board 9032 shall disallow any reclassification or reassignment classification 9033 of any employee when it finds that changes have been made in the 9034 duties and responsibilities of any particular employee for 9035 political, religious, or other unjust reasons. 9036

(E)(1) Employees of each county department of job and family 9037 services shall be paid a salary or wage established by the board 9038 of county commissioners. The provisions of section 124.18 of the 9039 Revised Code concerning the standard work week apply to employees 9040 of county departments of job and family services. A board of 9041 county commissioners may do either of the following: 9042

(a) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 9043 supplement the sick leave, vacation leave, personal leave, and 9044 other benefits of any employee of the county department of job and 9045 family services of that county, if the employee is eligible for 9046 the supplement under a written policy providing for the 9047 supplement; 9048

(b) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 9049 personal leave, or other benefits for employees not inconsistent 9051 with the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement covering 9052 the affected employees. 9053

(2) Division (E)(1) of this section does not apply to 9054 employees for whom the state employment relations board 9055 establishes appropriate bargaining units pursuant to section 9056 4117.06 of the Revised Code, except in either of the following 9057 situations: 9058

(a) The employees for whom the state employment relations 9059 board establishes appropriate bargaining units elect no 9060 representative in a board-conducted representation election. 9061

(b) After the state employment relations board establishes 9062 appropriate bargaining units for such employees, all employee 9063 organizations withdraw from a representation election. 9064

(F)(1) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of sections 9065 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code, the board of trustees of 9066 each state university or college, as defined in section 3345.12 of 9067
the Revised Code, shall carry out all matters of governance 9068 involving the officers and employees of the university or college, 9069 including, but not limited to, the powers, duties, and functions 9070 of the department of administrative services and the director of 9071 administrative services specified in this chapter. Officers and 9072 employees of a state university or college shall have the right of 9073 appeal to the state personnel board of review as provided in this 9074 chapter. 9075

(2) Each board of trustees shall adopt rules under section 9076 described in division (F)(1) of this section. Until the board of 9078 trustees adopts those rules, a state university or college shall 9079 continue to operate pursuant to the applicable rules adopted by 9080

the director of administrative services under this chapter. 9081

As used in this division, "service in the uniformed services" 9971 and "uniformed services" have the same meanings as in the 9972
"Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 9973 1994," 108 Stat. 3149, 38 U.S.C.A. 4303. 9974

~~(C)~~(D) An examination may include an evaluation of such 9975 factors as education, training, capacity, knowledge, manual 9976 dexterity, and physical or psychological fitness. An examination 9977 shall consist of one or more tests in any combination. Tests may 9978 be written, oral, physical, demonstration of skill, or an 9979 evaluation of training and experiences and shall be designed to 9980 fairly test the relative capacity of the persons examined to 9981 discharge the particular duties of the position for which 9982 appointment is sought. Tests may include structured interviews, 9983 assessment centers, work simulations, examinations of knowledge, 9984 skills, and abilities, and any other acceptable testing methods. 9985
If minimum or maximum requirements are established for any 9986 examination, they shall be specified in the examination 9987 announcement. 9988

~~(D)~~(E) The director of administrative services shall have 9989 control of all examinations administered for positions in the 9990 service of the state and all other examinations the director 9991 administers as provided in section 124.07 of the Revised Code, 9992 except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the 9993 Revised Code. ~~No~~ 9994

(F) No questions in any examination shall relate to political 9995 or religious opinions or affiliations. No credit for seniority, 9996 efficiency, or any other reason shall be added to an applicant's 9997 examination grade unless the applicant achieves at least the 9998 minimum passing grade on the examination without counting that 9999 extra credit. 10000

~~(E)~~(G) Except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 10001 124.64 of the Revised Code, the director of administrative 10002 services shall give reasonable notice of the time, place, and 10003 general scope of every competitive examination for appointment ~~to~~ 10004 a position in the civil service that the director administers for 10005 positions in the service of the state. The director shall send 10006 written, printed, or electronic notices of every examination to be 10007 conducted for positions in the ~~state~~ classified civil service of 10008 the state to each agency of the type the director of job and 10009 family services specifies and, in the case of a county in which no 10010 such agency is located, to the clerk of the court of common pleas 10011 of that county and to the clerk of each city located within that 10012 county. Those notices shall be posted in conspicuous public places 10013 in the designated agencies or the courthouse, and city hall of the 10014 cities, of the counties in which no designated agency is located 10015 for at least two weeks preceding any examination involved, and in 10016 a conspicuous place in the office of the director of 10017 administrative services for at least two weeks preceding any 10018 examination involved. In case of examinations limited by the 10019 director to a district, county, city, or department, the director 10020 shall provide by rule for adequate publicity of an examination in 10021 the district, county, city, or department within which competition 10022 is permitted. 10023

Sec. 124.27. (A) The head of a department, office, or 10024 institution, in which a position in the classified service is to 10025 be filled, shall notify the director of administrative services of 10026 the fact, and the director shall, except as otherwise provided in 10027 this section and sections 124.30 and 124.31 of the Revised Code, 10028 certify to the appointing authority the names and addresses of the 10029 ten candidates standing highest on the eligible list for the class 10030 or grade to which the position belongs, except that the director 10031 may certify less than ten names if ten names are not available. 10032
When less than ten names are certified to an appointing authority, 10033 appointment from that list shall not be mandatory. When a position 10034 in the classified service in the department of mental health or 10035 the department of mental retardation and developmental 10036 disabilities is to be filled, the director of administrative 10037 services shall make such certification to the appointing authority 10038 within seven working days of the date the eligible list is 10039 requested. 10040

(B) The appointing authority shall notify the director of a 10041 position in the classified service to be filled, and the 10042 appointing authority shall fill the vacant position by appointment 10043 of one of the ten persons certified by the director. If more than 10044 one position is to be filled, the director may certify a group of 10045 names from the eligible list, and the appointing authority shall 10046 appoint in the following manner: beginning at the top of the list, 10047 each time a selection is made, it must be from one of the first 10048 ten candidates remaining on the list who is willing to accept 10049 consideration for the position. If an eligible list becomes 10050 exhausted, and until a new list can be created, or when no 10051 eligible list for a position exists, names may be certified from 10052 eligible lists most appropriate for the group or class in which 10053 the position to be filled is classified. A person who is certified 10054 from an eligible list more than three times to the same appointing 10055 authority for the same or similar positions may be omitted from 10056 future certification to that appointing authority, provided that 10057 certification for a temporary appointment shall not be counted as 10058 one of those certifications. Every person who qualifies for 10059 veteran's preference under section 124.23 of the Revised Code, who 10060 is a resident of this state, and whose name is on the eligible 10061 list for a position shall be entitled to preference in original 10062 appointments to any such competitive position in the civil service 10063 of the state and its civil divisions over all other persons 10064 eligible for those appointments and standing on the relevant 10065 eligible list with a rating equal to that of the person qualifying 10066 for veteran's preference. Appointments to all positions in the 10067 classified service, that are not filled by promotion, transfer, or 10068 reduction, as provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised 10069 Code and the rules of the director prescribed under those 10070 sections, shall be made only from those persons whose names are 10071 certified to the appointing authority, and no employment, except 10072 as provided in those sections, shall be otherwise given in the 10073 classified service of this state or any political subdivision of 10074 the state. 10075

(C) All original and promotional appointments, including 10076 appointments made pursuant to section 124.30 of the Revised Code, 10077 but not intermittent appointments, shall be for a probationary 10078 period, not less than sixty days nor more than one year, to be 10079 fixed by the rules of the director, except as provided in section 10080 124.231 of the Revised Code, and except for original appointments 10081 to a police department as a police officer or to a fire department 10082 as a firefighter which shall be for a probationary period of one 10083 year. No appointment or promotion is final until the appointee has 10084 satisfactorily served the probationary period. If the service of 10085 the probationary employee is unsatisfactory, the employee may be 10086 removed or reduced at any time during the probationary period. If 10087 the appointing authority decides to remove a probationary employee 10088 in the service of the state, the appointing authority shall 10089 communicate to the director the reason for that decision. A 10090 probationary employee duly removed or reduced in position for 10091 unsatisfactory service does not have the right to appeal the 10092 removal or reduction under section 124.34 of the Revised Code. 10093

Sec. 124.321. (A) Whenever it becomes necessary for an 10094 appointing authority to reduce its work force, the appointing 10095 authority shall lay off employees or abolish their positions in 10096 accordance with sections 124.321 to 124.327 of the Revised Code 10097
~~and. If the affected work force is in the service of the state,~~ 10098
~~the reduction shall also be in compliance with~~ the rules of the 10099 director of administrative services. 10100

(B)(1) Employees may be laid off as a result of a lack of 10101 funds within an appointing authority. For appointing authorities 10102 that employ persons whose salary or wage is paid by warrant of the 10103 director of budget and management, the director of budget and 10104 management shall be responsible for determining, consistent with 10105 the rules adopted under division (B)(3) of this section, whether a 10106 lack of funds exists. For appointing authorities that employ 10107 persons whose salary or wage is paid other than by warrant of the 10108 director of budget and management, the appointing authority itself 10109 shall determine whether a lack of funds exists ~~and shall file a~~ 10110 ~~statement of rationale and supporting documentation with the~~ 10111
~~director of administrative services prior to sending the layoff~~ 10112
~~notice.~~ 10113

(2) As used in this division, a "lack of funds" means an 10114 appointing authority has a current or projected deficiency of 10115 funding to maintain current, or to sustain projected, levels of 10116 staffing and operations. This section does not require any 10117 transfer of money between funds in order to offset a deficiency or 10118 projected deficiency of funding for programs funded by the federal 10119 government, special revenue accounts, or proprietary accounts. 10120 Whenever a program receives funding through a grant or similar 10121 mechanism, a lack of funds shall be presumed for the positions 10122 assigned to and the employees who work under the grant or similar 10123 mechanism if, for any reason, the funding is reduced or withdrawn. 10124

(3) The director of budget and management shall adopt rules, 10126 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, for agencies whose 10127 employees are paid by warrant of the director of budget and 10128 management, for determining whether a lack of funds exists. 10129

(C)(1) Employees may be laid off as a result of lack of work 10130 within an appointing authority. For appointing authorities whose 10131 employees are paid by warrant of the director of budget and 10132 management, the director of administrative services shall 10133 determine, consistent with the rules adopted under division (F) of 10134 this section, whether a lack of work exists. All other appointing 10135 authorities shall themselves determine whether a lack of work 10136 exists ~~and shall file a statement of rationale and supporting~~ 10137 ~~documentation with the director of administrative services prior~~ 10138
~~to sending the layoff notice.~~ 10139

(2) As used in this division, a "lack of work" means an 10140 appointing authority has a current or projected decrease in 10141 workload that requires a reduction of current or projected 10142 staffing levels in its organization or structure. The 10143 determination of a lack of work shall indicate the current or 10144 projected decrease in workload and whether the current or 10145 projected staffing levels of the appointing authority will be 10146

excessive. 10147

(D)(1) Employees may be laid off as a result of abolishment 10148 of positions. As used in this division, "abolishment" means the 10149 deletion of a position or positions from the organization or 10150 structure of an appointing authority. 10151

For purposes of this division, an appointing authority may 10152 abolish positions for any one or any combination of the following 10153 reasons: as a result of a reorganization for the efficient 10154 operation of the appointing authority, for reasons of economy, or 10155 for lack of work. 10156

(2)(a) Reasons of economy permitting an appointing authority 10157 to abolish a position and to lay off the holder of that position 10158 under this division shall be determined at the time the appointing 10159 authority proposes to abolish the position. The reasons of economy 10160 shall be based on the appointing authority's estimated amount of 10161 savings with respect to salary, benefits, and other matters 10162 associated with the abolishment of the position, except that the 10163 reasons of economy associated with the position's abolishment 10164 instead may be based on the appointing authority's estimated 10165 amount of savings with respect to salary and benefits only, if: 10166

(i) Either the appointing authority's operating appropriation 10167 has been reduced by an executive or legislative action, or the 10168 appointing authority has a current or projected deficiency in 10169 funding to maintain current or projected levels of staffing and 10170 operations; and 10171

(ii) In the case of a position in the service of the state, 10172 it files a notice of the position's abolishment with the director 10173 of administrative services within one year of the occurrence of 10174 the applicable circumstance described in division (D)(2)(a)(i) of 10175
this section. 10176

(b) The following principles apply when a circumstance 10177 described in division (D)(2)(a)(i) of this section would serve to 10178 authorize an appointing authority to abolish a position and to lay 10179 off the holder of the position under this division based on the 10180 appointing authority's estimated amount of savings with respect to 10181 salary and benefits only: 10182

(i) The position's abolishment shall be done in good faith 10183 and not as a subterfuge for discipline. 10184

(ii) If a circumstance affects a specific program only, the 10185 appointing authority only may abolish a position within that 10186 program. 10187

(iii) If a circumstance does not affect a specific program 10188 only, the appointing authority may identify a position that it 10189 considers appropriate for abolishment based on the reasons of 10190 economy. 10191

(3) Each appointing authority shall determine itself whether 10192 any position should be abolished. An appointing authority 10193 abolishing any position in the service of the state shall file a 10194 statement of rationale and supporting documentation with the 10195 director of administrative services prior to sending the notice of 10196 abolishment. 10197

If an abolishment results in a reduction of the work force, 10198 the appointing authority shall follow the procedures for laying 10199 off employees, subject to the following modifications: 10200

(a) The employee whose position has been abolished shall have 10201 the right to fill an available vacancy within the employee's 10202 classification. 10203

(b) If the employee whose position has been abolished has 10204 more retention points than any other employee serving in the same 10205 classification, the employee with the fewest retention points 10206 shall be displaced. 10207

(E) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the displacement procedure described in section 124.324 of the Revised Code for employees to displace other employees during a layoff, the director of administrative services or a county appointing authority may establish a paper lay-off process under which employees who are to be laid off or displaced may be required, before the date of their paper layoff, to preselect their options for displacing other employees.

(F) The director of administrative services shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for the determination of lack of work within an appointing authority, for the abolishment of positions by an appointing authority, and for the implementation of this section as it relates to positions in the service of the state.

Sec. 124.324. (A) A laid-off employee has the right to displace the employee with the fewest retention points in the following order:

(1) Within the classification from which the employee was laid off;

(2) Within the classification series from which the employee was laid off;

(3) Within the classification the employee held immediately prior to holding the classification from which the employee was 10238 laid off, except that the employee may not displace employees in a 10239 classification if the employee does not meet the minimum 10240 qualifications of the classification or if the employee last held 10241 the classification more than three years prior to the date on 10242 which the employee was laid off. 10243

If, after exercising displacement rights, an employee is 10244 subject to further layoff action, the employee's displacement 10245 rights shall be in accordance with the classification from which 10246
the employee was first laid off. 10247

The director of administrative services shall verify the 10248 calculation of the retention points of all employees in the 10249 service of the state in an affected classification in accordance 10250 with section 124.325 of the Revised Code. 10251

(B) Following the order of layoff, an employee laid off in 10252 the classified civil service shall displace another employee 10253 within the same appointing authority or independent institution 10254 and layoff jurisdiction in the following manner: 10255

(1) Each laid-off employee possessing more retention points 10256 shall displace the employee with the fewest retention points in 10257 the next lower classification or successively lower classification 10258 in the same classification series. 10259

(2) Any employee displaced by an employee possessing more 10260 retention points shall displace the employee with the fewest 10261 retention points in the next lower classification or successively 10262 lower classification in the same classification series. This 10263 process shall continue, if necessary, until the employee with the 10264 fewest retention points in the lowest classification of the 10265 classification series of the same appointing authority or 10266 independent institution has been reached and, if necessary, laid 10267
off. 10268

(C) Employees shall notify the appointing authority of their 10269 intention to exercise their displacement rights, within five days 10270 after receiving notice of layoff. This division does not apply if 10271 the director of administrative services has established a paper 10272 lay-off process pursuant to division (E) of section 124.321 of the 10273 Revised Code that includes a different notification requirement 10274 for employees exercising their displacement rights under that 10275 process. 10276

(D) No employee shall displace an employee for whose position 10277 or classification there are certain position-specific minimum 10278 qualifications, as established by the appointing authority and 10279 reviewed for validity by the department of administrative 10280 services, or as established by bona fide occupational 10281 qualification, unless the employee desiring to displace another 10282 employee possesses the requisite position-specific minimum 10283 qualifications for the position or classification. 10284

(E) If an employee exercising displacement rights must 10285 displace an employee in another county within the same layoff 10286 district, the displacement shall not be construed to be a 10287 transfer. 10288

(F) The director of administrative services shall adopt rules 10289 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for the implementation of 10290 this section as it relates to positions in the service of the 10291

Sec. 124.325. (A) Retention points to reflect the length of 10293 continuous service and efficiency in service for all employees 10294 affected by a layoff shall be verified by the director of 10295 administrative services for positions in the service of the state. 10296

(B) An employee's length of continuous service will be 10297 carried from one layoff jurisdiction to another so long as no 10298 break in service occurs between transfers or appointments. 10299

(C) If two or more employees have an identical number of 10300 retention points, employees having the shortest period of 10301 continuous service shall be laid off first. 10302

(D)(1) As used in this division, "affected employee" means a 10303 city employee who becomes a county employee, or a county employee 10304 who becomes a city employee, as the result of any of the 10305
following: 10306

(a) The merger of a city and a county office; 10307

(b) The merger of city and county functions or duties; 10308

(c) The transfer of functions or duties between a city and 10309 county. 10310

(2) For purposes of this section, the new employer of any 10311 affected employee shall treat the employee's prior service with a 10312 former employer as if it had been served with the new employer. 10313

(E) The director of administrative services shall adopt rules 10314 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to establish a 10315 system for the assignment of retention points for each employee in 10316 the service of the state in a classification affected by a layoff 10317 and for determining, in those instances where employees in the 10318 service of the state have identical retention points, which 10319 employee shall be laid off first. 10320

Sec. 124.34. (A) The tenure of every officer or employee in 10321 the classified service of the state and the counties, civil 10322 service townships, cities, city health districts, general health 10323 districts, and city school districts of the state, holding a 10324 position under this chapter, shall be during good behavior and 10325 efficient service. No officer or employee shall be reduced in pay 10326 or position, fined, suspended, or removed, or have the officer's 10327 or employee's longevity reduced or eliminated, except as provided 10328 in section 124.32 of the Revised Code, and for incompetency, 10329 inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, 10330 insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of 10331 duty, violation of any policy or work rule of the officer's or 10332 employee's appointing authority, violation of this chapter or the 10333 rules of the director of administrative services or the 10334 commission, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of 10335 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office, or conviction 10336 of a felony. The denial of a one-time pay supplement or a bonus to 10337 an officer or employee is not a reduction in pay for purposes of 10338

this section. 10339

This section does not apply to any modifications or 10340 reductions in pay authorized by division (Q) of section 124.181 or 10341

An appointing authority may require an employee who is 10343 suspended to report to work to serve the suspension. An employee 10344 serving a suspension in this manner shall continue to be 10345 compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay for hours 10346 worked. The disciplinary action shall be recorded in the 10347 employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary 10348 actions and has the same effect as a suspension without pay for 10349 the purpose of recording disciplinary actions. 10350

A finding by the appropriate ethics commission, based upon a 10351 preponderance of the evidence, that the facts alleged in a 10352 complaint under section 102.06 of the Revised Code constitute a 10353 violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of 10354 the Revised Code may constitute grounds for dismissal. Failure to 10355 file a statement or falsely filing a statement required by section 10356 102.02 of the Revised Code may also constitute grounds for 10357 dismissal. The tenure of an employee in the career professional 10358 service of the department of transportation is subject to section 10359
5501.20 of the Revised Code. 10360

Conviction of a felony is a separate basis for reducing in 10361 pay or position, suspending, or removing an officer or employee, 10362 even if the officer or employee has already been reduced in pay or 10363 position, suspended, or removed for the same conduct that is the 10364 basis of the felony. An officer or employee may not appeal to the 10365 state personnel board of review or the commission any disciplinary 10366 action taken by an appointing authority as a result of the 10367 officer's or employee's conviction of a felony. If an officer or 10368 employee removed under this section is reinstated as a result of 10369 an appeal of the removal, any conviction of a felony that occurs 10370 during the pendency of the appeal is a basis for further 10371 disciplinary action under this section upon the officer's or 10372 employee's reinstatement. 10373

A person convicted of a felony immediately forfeits the 10374 person's status as a classified employee in any public employment 10375 on and after the date of the conviction for the felony. If an 10376 officer or employee is removed under this section as a result of 10377 being convicted of a felony or is subsequently convicted of a 10378 felony that involves the same conduct that was the basis for the 10379 removal, the officer or employee is barred from receiving any 10380 compensation after the removal notwithstanding any modification or 10381 disaffirmance of the removal, unless the conviction for the felony 10382 is subsequently reversed or annulled. 10383

Any person removed for conviction of a felony is entitled to 10384 a cash payment for any accrued but unused sick, personal, and 10385 vacation leave as authorized by law. If subsequently reemployed in 10386 the public sector, the person shall qualify for and accrue these 10387 forms of leave in the manner specified by law for a newly 10388 appointed employee and shall not be credited with prior public 10389 service for the purpose of receiving these forms of leave. 10390

As used in this division, "felony" means any of the 10391
following: 10392

(1) A felony that is an offense of violence as defined in 10393

section 2901.01 of the Revised Code; 10394

(2) A felony that is a felony drug abuse offense as defined 10395 in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code; 10396

(3) A felony under the laws of this or any other state or the 10397
United States that is a crime of moral turpitude; 10398

(4) A felony involving dishonesty, fraud, or theft; 10399

(5) A felony that is a violation of section 2921.05, 2921.32, 10400 or 2921.42 of the Revised Code. 10401

(B) In case of a reduction, a suspension of more than forty 10402 ~~or more~~ work hours in the case of an employee exempt from the 10403 payment of overtime compensation, a suspension of more than 10404 twenty-four ~~or more~~ work hours in the case of an employee required 10405 to be paid overtime compensation, a fine of more than forty ~~or~~ 10406 compensation, or removal, except for the reduction or removal of a 10410 probationary employee, the appointing authority shall serve the 10411 employee with a copy of the order of reduction, fine, suspension, 10412 or removal, which order shall state the reasons for the action. 10413

Within ten days following the date on which the order is 10415 served or, in the case of an employee in the career professional 10416 service of the department of transportation, within ten days 10417 following the filing of a removal order, the employee, except as 10418 otherwise provided in this section, may file an appeal of the 10419 order in writing with the state personnel board of review or the 10420 commission. For purposes of this section, the date on which an 10421 order is served is the date of hand delivery of the order or the 10422 date of delivery of the order by certified United States mail, 10423 whichever occurs first. If an appeal is filed, the board or 10424 commission shall forthwith notify the appointing authority and 10425 shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within 10426 thirty days from and after its filing with the board or 10427 commission. The board, commission, or trial board may affirm, 10428 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. 10429 However, in an appeal of a removal order based upon a violation of 10430 a last chance agreement, the board, commission, or trial board may 10431 only determine if the employee violated the agreement and thus 10432 affirm or disaffirm the judgment of the appointing authority. 10433

In cases of removal or reduction in pay for disciplinary 10434 reasons, either the appointing authority or the officer or 10435 employee may appeal from the decision of the state personnel board 10436 of review or the commission, and any such appeal shall be to the 10437 court of common pleas of the county in which the appointing 10438 authority is located, or to the court of common pleas of Franklin 10439 county, as provided by section 119.12 of the Revised Code. 10440 a fine, demotion, or removal, of a chief of police, a chief of a 10442 fire department, or any member of the police or fire department of 10443 a city or civil service township, who is in the classified civil 10444 service, the appointing authority shall furnish the chief or 10445 member with a copy of the order of suspension, fine, demotion, or 10446 removal, which order shall state the reasons for the action. The 10447 order shall be filed with the municipal or civil service township 10448 civil service commission. Within ten days following the filing of 10449 the order, the chief or member may file an appeal, in writing, 10450 with the commission. If an appeal is filed, the commission shall 10451 forthwith notify the appointing authority and shall hear, or 10452 appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within thirty days from 10453 and after its filing with the commission, and it may affirm, 10454 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. An 10455 appeal on questions of law and fact may be had from the decision 10456 of the commission to the court of common pleas in the county in 10457 which the city or civil service township is situated. The appeal 10458 shall be taken within thirty days from the finding of the 10459 commission. 10460

(D) A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 10461

nonteaching employee under this section. 10463

(E) As used in this section, "last chance agreement" means an 10464 agreement signed by both an appointing authority and an officer or 10465 employee of the appointing authority that describes the type of 10466 behavior or circumstances that, if it occurs, will automatically 10467 lead to removal of the officer or employee without the right of 10468 appeal to the state personnel board of review or the appropriate 10469 commission. 10470

performance of, or arising out of, state employment. When an 10475 eligible employee's absence as a result of such an injury extends 10476 beyond four hundred eighty hours, the employee immediately becomes 10477 bereavement leave, and administrative leave. 10560

(3) "No pay status" means the conditions under which an 10561 prior to November 15, 1981, compensation for such sick leave used 10611 shall be at a rate as the director determines. 10612

(E)(1) The previously accumulated sick leave balance of an 10613 employee who has been separated from the public service, for which 10614 separation payments pursuant to section 124.384 of the Revised 10615 Code have not been made, shall be placed to the employee's credit 10616 upon the employee's reemployment in the public service, if the 10617 reemployment takes place within ten years of the date on which the 10618 employee was last terminated from public service. 10619

(1) Employees who are in active payroll status on June 18, 2011, shall receive a one-time credit of additional sick leave in the pay period that begins on July 1, 2011. employee shall receive the retirement benefit and a supplement 10708 payment that equals a percentage of the employee's base rate of 10709 pay and that, when added to the retirement benefit, equals no more 10710 than the percentage of pay received by employees after the first 10711 six months of disability. This supplemental payment shall not be 10712 leave, personal leave, compensatory time, or vacation leave 10717 balances to supplement the benefits payable under this section. 10718

The balances used to supplement the benefits, plus any amount 10719 compensation plan; 10739

(10) Provisions for precluding the payment of benefits in 10740 order to ensure that benefits are provided in a consistent manner. 10741

~~(2) For the first three months, the employee's share shall be 10753 paid by the employee. 10754~~

this section shall not deny disability leave benefits for an 10765 employees to elect one of the following options with respect to 10814 be available to an employee at any one time is forty hours. 10817

(2) Convert the balance to accumulated sick leave, to be used 10818 in the manner provided by section 124.382 of the Revised Code; 10819

(3) Receive a cash benefit. The cash benefit shall equal one 10820 credit that is converted. An employee serving in a temporary work 10822 level who elects to convert unused personal leave to cash shall do 10823 so at the base rate of pay of the employee's normal 10824 classification. Such cash benefit shall not be subject to 10825 contributions to any of the retirement systems, either by the 10826 bids that offer products that have been produced or mined in this 11142 state where sufficient competition can be generated within this 11143 state to ensure that compliance with these requirements will not 11144 result in an excessive price for the product or acquiring a 11145 disproportionately inferior product. If there are ~~two~~ four or more 11146 qualified bids that offer products that have been produced or 11147 mined in this state, it shall be deemed that there is sufficient 11148 shall reflect substantial equivalence to the system of preferences 11161 incorporate all of the requirements of the federal "Buy America 11167 Act," 47 Stat. 1520 (1933), 41 U.S.C. 10a to 10d, as amended, and 11168 the rules adopted under that act. 11169

Before and during the development and promulgation of the 11170 model act, the director shall consult with appropriate statewide 11171 organizations representing counties, townships, and municipal 11172 corporations so as to identify the special requirements and 11173 concerns these political subdivisions have in their purchasing and 11174 public improvement contracting procedures. The director shall 11175 promulgate the model act by rule adopted pursuant to Chapter 119. 11176 of the Revised Code and shall revise the act as necessary to 11177 reflect changes in this chapter or section 153.012 of the Revised 11178 specifically enjoined by law as duties resulting from their 12547 office, trust, and station for purposes of section 2731.01 of the 12548 Revised Code. The issuer or obligor, and its officers, employees, 12549 and agents responsible in the circumstances, shall do all things 12550 necessary or appropriate to comply with such covenants and shall 12551 take all actions to account for, calculate, report, make 12552 available, and make tax compliance payments pursuant to the 12553 Internal Revenue Code to the extent required to comply with such 12554 covenants. In order to protect the tax exemption of interest or 12555 other qualification, classification, or exemption for tax 12556 purposes, and to reduce tax compliance payments: 12557

(1) Moneys from the funds to which any such interest is 12558 credited, and from any fund that is generally available for the 12559 general purposes of the issuer or obligor, available for the 12560 purpose of the securities issue, or available for operating and 12561 maintenance expenses of any improvements financed or refinanced by 12562 that issue or of any system or enterprise of which those 12563 improvements are a part, shall be appropriated and are deemed 12564 appropriated for all purposes to the payment of such amounts 12565 pursuant to such covenant, and may be so appropriated in the 12566 absence of such a covenant. Subject to the provisions of the 12567 applicable proceedings and notwithstanding any statutory or 12568 administrative limitations on the use or transfer of those funds 12569 or receipts, the appropriate official of the issuer or obligor 12570 may: 12571

(a) Withdraw or transfer tax compliance payments from the 12572 fund or funds designated by the issuer or obligor for the purpose, 12573 including any bond, improvement, or special fund, and any bond 12574 retirement fund after provision for current debt charges 12575 requirements, or direct the deposit from receipts, and deposit tax 12576 compliance payments in or credit them to the fund or account 12577 established for the purpose, which establishment is hereby 12578 authorized, and disburse moneys from that fund or account for that 12579 purpose. 12580

(b) Withdraw or transfer investment income from any bond or 12581 improvement fund, from any bond retirement fund after provision 12582 for current debt charges requirements, and from any other special 12583 fund established with respect to an issue of securities, and 12584 deposit that investment income in or credit that investment income 12585 to any other fund or account. 12586

(2) An issuer or obligor may invest any proceeds or gross 12587 proceeds, as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, of public 12588 obligations or fractionalized interests in public obligations in 12589 tax-exempt bonds of any person authorized to issue tax-exempt 12590 bonds under the Internal Revenue Code, and in any regulated 12591 investment company, the investment in which is treated as an 12592 investment in tax-exempt bonds for purposes of provisions of 12593 section 148 of the Internal Revenue Code, and in any special 12594 series of obligations of the United States made available for 12595 purposes of compliance with provisions of section 148 of the 12596 Internal Revenue Code. The authority to invest proceeds under this 12597 division is in addition to and not restricted or conditioned by 12598 any other authority of an issuer to invest its moneys. 12599

Nothing in this division or in other prior or current 12600 provisions of law requires that an issuer or obligor comply with 12601 provisions of federal tax law or regulations to exclude interest 12602 on its public obligations from gross income for federal income tax 12603 purposes or otherwise to have the public obligations or interest 12604 thereon treated in any particular way under federal tax laws, 12605 except to the extent, if any, that the issuer or obligor covenants 12606 to do so, and the validity of the public obligations shall not be 12607 adversely affected by the absence of that compliance or of 12608 compliance with any covenants made pursuant to this division. 12609

This division applies to public obligations and 12610 fractionalized interests in public obligations, outstanding on or 12611 entered into prior to, or issued or entered into on or after, 12612
October 30, 1989. 12613

Sec. 133.022. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Large local educational agency" and "qualified school construction bond" have the same meaning as in section 54F of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 54F.

(2) "National limit" means, as applicable, the limitation on the aggregate amount of qualified school construction bonds that may be issued by the states each calendar year under section 54F of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) "State portion" means the portion of the national limit allocated to this state pursuant to section 54F of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The factors to be considered when making allocations of 12645 the state portion or reallocations of any amounts received by a 12646 large local educational agency include the following: 12647

(a) The interests of the state with regard to education and 12648 economic development; 12649

(b) The need and ability of each issuer to issue obligations. 12650

(3) The Ohio school facilities commission, in consultation 12651 with the director of budget and management, shall establish 12652 procedures for making allocations, including those from any 12653 carryover of the state portion, and shall adopt guidelines to 12654 carry out the purposes of this section. 12655

Sec. 133.06. (A) A school district shall not incur, without a 12656 vote of the electors, net indebtedness that exceeds an amount 12657 equal to one-tenth of one per cent of its tax valuation, except as 12658 provided in divisions (G) and (H) of this section and in division 12659 (C) of section 3313.372 of the Revised Code, or as prescribed in 12660 section 3318.052 or 3318.44 of the Revised Code, or as provided in 12661 division (J) of this section. 12662

(B) Except as provided in divisions (E), (F), and (I) of this 12663 section, a school district shall not incur net indebtedness that 12664 exceeds an amount equal to nine per cent of its tax valuation. 12665

(C) A school district shall not submit to a vote of the 12666 electors the question of the issuance of securities in an amount 12667 that will make the district's net indebtedness after the issuance 12668 of the securities exceed an amount equal to four per cent of its 12669 tax valuation, unless the superintendent of public instruction, 12670 acting under policies adopted by the state board of education, and 12671 the tax commissioner, acting under written policies of the 12672 commissioner, consent to the submission. A request for the 12673 consents shall be made at least one hundred five days prior to the 12674 election at which the question is to be submitted. 12675

The superintendent of public instruction shall certify to the 12676 district the superintendent's and the tax commissioner's decisions 12677 within thirty days after receipt of the request for consents. 12678

If the electors do not approve the issuance of securities at 12679 the election for which the superintendent of public instruction 12680 and tax commissioner consented to the submission of the question, 12681 the school district may submit the same question to the electors 12682 on the date that the next special election may be held under 12683 section 3501.01 of the Revised Code without submitting a new 12684 request for consent. If the school district seeks to submit the 12685 same question at any other subsequent election, the district shall 12686 first submit a new request for consent in accordance with this 12687
division. 12688

(D) In calculating the net indebtedness of a school district, 12689 none of the following shall be considered: 12690

(1) Securities issued to acquire school buses and other 12691 equipment used in transporting pupils or issued pursuant to 12692 division (D) of section 133.10 of the Revised Code; 12693

(2) Securities issued under division (F) of this section, 12694 under section 133.301 of the Revised Code, and, to the extent in 12695 excess of the limitation stated in division (B) of this section, 12696 under division (E) of this section; 12697

(3) Indebtedness resulting from the dissolution of a joint 12698 vocational school district under section 3311.217 of the Revised 12699 Code, evidenced by outstanding securities of that joint vocational 12700 school district; 12701

(4) Loans, evidenced by any securities, received under 12702 sections 3313.483, 3317.0210, 3317.0211, and 3317.64 of the 12703

(5) Debt incurred under section 3313.374 of the Revised Code;	12705
(6) Debt incurred pursuant to division (B)(5) of section 3313.37 of the Revised Code to acquire computers and related hardware;	12706 12707 12708
(7) Debt incurred under section 3318.042 of the Revised Code.	12709
(E) A school district may become a special needs district as to certain securities as provided in division (E) of this section.	12710 12711
(1) A board of education, by resolution, may declare its school district to be a special needs district by determining both of the following:	12712 12713 12714
(a) The student population is not being adequately serviced by the existing permanent improvements of the district.	12715 12716
(b) The district cannot obtain sufficient funds by the issuance of securities within the limitation of division (B) of this section to provide additional or improved needed permanent improvements in time to meet the needs.	12717 12718 12719 12720
(2) The board of education shall certify a copy of that resolution to the superintendent of public instruction with a statistical report showing all of the following:	12721 12722 12723
(a) A history of and a projection of the growth of the student population;	12724 12725
(b) The history of and a projection of the growth of the tax valuation;	12726 12727
(c) The projected needs;	12728
(d) The estimated cost of permanent improvements proposed to meet such projected needs.	12729 12730
(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall certify the district as an approved special needs district if the superintendent finds both of the following:	12731 12732 12733

(a) The district does not have available sufficient 12734 additional funds from state or federal sources to meet the 12735 projected needs. 12736

(b) The projection of the potential average growth of tax 12737 valuation during the next five years, according to the information 12738 certified to the superintendent and any other information the 12739 superintendent obtains, indicates a likelihood of potential 12740 average growth of tax valuation of the district during the next 12741 five years of an average of not less than three per cent per year. 12742
The findings and certification of the superintendent shall be 12743 conclusive. 12744

(4) An approved special needs district may incur net 12745 indebtedness by the issuance of securities in accordance with the 12746 provisions of this chapter in an amount that does not exceed an 12747 amount equal to the greater of the following: 12748

(a) Nine per cent of the sum of its tax valuation plus an 12749 amount that is the product of multiplying that tax valuation by 12750
the percentage by which the tax valuation has increased over the 12751 tax valuation on the first day of the sixtieth month preceding the 12752 month in which its board determines to submit to the electors the 12753 question of issuing the proposed securities; 12754

(b) Nine per cent of the sum of its tax valuation plus an 12755
the percentage, determined by the superintendent of public 12757 instruction, by which that tax valuation is projected to increase 12758 during the next ten years. 12759

(F) A school district may issue securities for emergency 12760 purposes, in a principal amount that does not exceed an amount 12761 equal to three per cent of its tax valuation, as provided in this 12762
division. 12763

(1) A board of education, by resolution, may declare an 12764 emergency if it determines both of the following: 12765

(a) School buildings or other necessary school facilities in 12766 the district have been wholly or partially destroyed, or condemned 12767 by a constituted public authority, or that such buildings or 12768 facilities are partially constructed, or so constructed or planned 12769 as to require additions and improvements to them before the 12770 buildings or facilities are usable for their intended purpose, or 12771 that corrections to permanent improvements are necessary to remove 12772 or prevent health or safety hazards. 12773

(b) Existing fiscal and net indebtedness limitations make 12774 adequate replacement, additions, or improvements impossible. 12775

(2) Upon the declaration of an emergency, the board of 12776 education may, by resolution, submit to the electors of the 12777 district pursuant to section 133.18 of the Revised Code the 12778 question of issuing securities for the purpose of paying the cost, 12779 in excess of any insurance or condemnation proceeds received by 12780 the district, of permanent improvements to respond to the 12781 emergency need. 12782

(3) The procedures for the election shall be as provided in 12783 section 133.18 of the Revised Code, except that: 12784

(a) The form of the ballot shall describe the emergency 12785 existing, refer to this division as the authority under which the 12786 emergency is declared, and state that the amount of the proposed 12787 securities exceeds the limitations prescribed by division (B) of 12788
this section; 12789

(b) The resolution required by division (B) of section 133.18 12790 of the Revised Code shall be certified to the county auditor and 12791 the board of elections at least seventy-five days prior to the 12792 election; 12793

(c) The county auditor shall advise and, not later than 12794 sixty-five days before the election, confirm that advice by 12795 certification to, the board of education of the information 12796 required by division (C) of section 133.18 of the Revised Code; 12797

(d) The board of education shall then certify its resolution 12798 and the information required by division (D) of section 133.18 of 12799 the Revised Code to the board of elections not less than sixty 12800 days prior to the election. 12801

(4) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 133.21 of the 12802 Revised Code, the first principal payment of securities issued 12803 under this division may be set at any date not later than sixty 12804 months after the earliest possible principal payment otherwise 12805 provided for in that division. 12806

(G) The board of education may contract with an architect, 12807 professional engineer, or other person experienced in the design 12808 and implementation of energy conservation measures for an analysis 12809 and recommendations pertaining to installations, modifications of 12810 installations, or remodeling that would significantly reduce 12811 energy consumption in buildings owned by the district. The report 12812 shall include estimates of all costs of such installations, 12813 modifications, or remodeling, including costs of design, 12814 engineering, installation, maintenance, repairs, and debt service, 12815 and estimates of the amounts by which energy consumption and 12816 resultant operational and maintenance costs, as defined by the 12817 Ohio school facilities commission, would be reduced. 12818

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 12819 of money the district would spend on such installations, 12820 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 12821 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 12822 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 12823 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 12824 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 12825 modification of installations or the remodeling of buildings for 12826 the purpose of significantly reducing energy consumption. 12827

If the commission determines that the board's findings are 12828 reasonable, it shall approve the board's request. Upon receipt of 12829 the commission's approval, the district may issue securities 12830 without a vote of the electors in a principal amount not to exceed 12831 nine-tenths of one per cent of its tax valuation for the purpose 12832 of making such installations, modifications, or remodeling, but 12833 the total net indebtedness of the district without a vote of the 12834 electors incurred under this and all other sections of the Revised 12835 Code, except section 3318.052 of the Revised Code, shall not 12836 exceed one per cent of the district's tax valuation. 12837

So long as any securities issued under division (G) of this 12838 section remain outstanding, the board of education shall monitor 12839 the energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance 12840 costs of buildings in which installations or modifications have 12841 been made or remodeling has been done pursuant to division (G) of 12842 this section and shall maintain and annually update a report 12843 documenting the reductions in energy consumption and resultant 12844 operational and maintenance cost savings attributable to such 12845 installations, modifications, or remodeling. The report shall be 12846 certified by an architect or engineer independent of any person 12847 that provided goods or services to the board in connection with 12848 the energy conservation measures that are the subject of the 12849 report. The resultant operational and maintenance cost savings 12850 shall be certified by the school district treasurer. The report 12851 shall be made available to the commission upon request. 12852

(H) With the consent of the superintendent of public 12853 instruction, a school district may incur without a vote of the 12854 electors net indebtedness that exceeds the amounts stated in 12855 divisions (A) and (G) of this section for the purpose of paying 12856 costs of permanent improvements, if and to the extent that both of 12857 the following conditions are satisfied: 12858

(1) The fiscal officer of the school district estimates that 12859 receipts of the school district from payments made under or 12860 pursuant to agreements entered into pursuant to section 725.02, 12861 1728.10, 3735.671, 5709.081, 5709.082, 5709.40, 5709.41, 5709.62, 12862

5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, 5709.78, or 5709.82 of the Revised 12863 Code, or distributions under division (C) of section 5709.43 of 12864 the Revised Code, or any combination thereof, are, after 12865 accounting for any appropriate coverage requirements, sufficient 12866 in time and amount, and are committed by the proceedings, to pay 12867 the debt charges on the securities issued to evidence that 12868 indebtedness and payable from those receipts, and the taxing 12869 authority of the district confirms the fiscal officer's estimate, 12870 which confirmation is approved by the superintendent of public 12871 instruction; 12872

(2) The fiscal officer of the school district certifies, and 12873 the taxing authority of the district confirms, that the district, 12874 at the time of the certification and confirmation, reasonably 12875 expects to have sufficient revenue available for the purpose of 12876 operating such permanent improvements for their intended purpose 12877 upon acquisition or completion thereof, and the superintendent of 12878 public instruction approves the taxing authority's confirmation. 12879

The maximum maturity of securities issued under division (H) 12880 of this section shall be the lesser of twenty years or the maximum 12881 maturity calculated under section 133.20 of the Revised Code. 12882

(I) A school district may incur net indebtedness by the 12883 issuance of securities in accordance with the provisions of this 12884 chapter in excess of the limit specified in division (B) or (C) of 12885 this section when necessary to raise the school district portion 12886 of the basic project cost and any additional funds necessary to 12887 participate in a project under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, 12888 including the cost of items designated by the Ohio school 12889 facilities commission as required locally funded initiatives and 12890 the cost for site acquisition. The school facilities commission 12891 shall notify the superintendent of public instruction whenever a 12892 school district will exceed either limit pursuant to this 12893

division. 12894

(J) A school district whose portion of the basic project cost 12895 of its classroom facilities project under sections 3318.01 to 12896 3318.20 of the Revised Code is greater than or equal to one 12897 hundred million dollars may incur without a vote of the electors 12898 net indebtedness in an amount up to two per cent of its tax 12899 valuation through the issuance of general obligation securities in 12900 order to generate all or part of the amount of its portion of the 12901 basic project cost if the controlling board has approved the 12902 school facilities commission's conditional approval of the project 12903 under section 3318.04 of the Revised Code. The school district 12904 board and the Ohio school facilities commission shall include the 12905 dedication of the proceeds of such securities in the agreement 12906 entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. No state 12907 moneys shall be released for a project to which this section 12908 applies until the proceeds of any bonds issued under this section 12909 that are dedicated for the payment of the school district portion 12910 of the project are first deposited into the school district's 12911 project construction fund. 12912

Sec. 133.18. (A) The taxing authority of a subdivision may by 12913 legislation submit to the electors of the subdivision the question 12914 of issuing any general obligation bonds, for one purpose, that the 12915 subdivision has power or authority to issue. 12916

(B) When the taxing authority of a subdivision desires or is 12917 required by law to submit the question of a bond issue to the 12918 electors, it shall pass legislation that does all of the 12919
following: 12920

(1) Declares the necessity and purpose of the bond issue; 12921

(2) States the date of the authorized election at which the 12922 question shall be submitted to the electors; 12923

(3) States the amount, approximate date, estimated net 12924 average rate of interest, and maximum number of years over which 12925 the principal of the bonds may be paid; 12926

(4) Declares the necessity of levying a tax outside the tax 12927 limitation to pay the debt charges on the bonds and any 12928 anticipatory securities. 12929

The estimated net average interest rate shall be determined 12930 by the taxing authority based on, among other factors, then 12931 existing market conditions, and may reflect adjustments for any 12932 anticipated direct payments expected to be received by the taxing 12933 authority from the government of the United States relating to the 12934 bonds and the effect of any federal tax credits anticipated to be 12935 available to owners of all or a portion of the bonds. The 12936 estimated net average rate of interest, and any statutory or 12937 charter limit on interest rates that may then be in effect and 12938 that is subsequently amended, shall not be a limitation on the 12939 actual interest rate or rates on the securities when issued. 12940

(C)(1) The taxing authority shall certify a copy of the 12941 legislation passed under division (B) of this section to the 12942 county auditor. The county auditor shall promptly calculate and 12943 advise and, not later than seventy-five days before the election, 12944 confirm that advice by certification to, the taxing authority the 12945 estimated average annual property tax levy, expressed in cents or 12946 dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation 12947 and in mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, that the county 12948 auditor estimates to be required throughout the stated maturity of 12949 the bonds to pay the debt charges on the bonds. In calculating the 12950 estimated average annual property tax levy for this purpose, the 12951 county auditor shall assume that the bonds are issued in one 12952 series bearing interest and maturing in substantially equal 12953 principal amounts in each year over the maximum number of years 12954 over which the principal of the bonds may be paid as stated in 12955 that legislation, and that the amount of the tax valuation of the 12956 subdivision for the current year remains the same throughout the 12957 maturity of the bonds, except as otherwise provided in division 12958 (C)(2) of this section. If the tax valuation for the current year 12959 is not determined, the county auditor shall base the calculation 12960 on the estimated amount of the tax valuation submitted by the 12961 county auditor to the county budget commission. If the subdivision 12962 is located in more than one county, the county auditor shall 12963 obtain the assistance of the county auditors of the other 12964 counties, and those county auditors shall provide assistance, in 12965 establishing the tax valuation of the subdivision for purposes of 12966 certifying the estimated average annual property tax levy. 12967

(2) When considering the tangible personal property component 12968 of the tax valuation of the subdivision, the county auditor shall 12969 take into account the assessment percentages prescribed in section 12970 5711.22 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may issue rules, 12971 orders, or instructions directing how the assessment percentages 12972 must be utilized. 12973

(D) After receiving the county auditor's advice under 12974 division (C) of this section, the taxing authority by legislation 12975 may determine to proceed with submitting the question of the issue 12976 of securities, and shall, not later than the seventy-fifth day 12977 before the day of the election, file the following with the board 12978 of elections: 12979

(9) "Community control sanction" has the same meaning as in section 2929.01 of the Revised Code. 14246
14247

(10) "Post-release control sanction" has the same meaning as in section 2967.01 of the Revised Code. 14248
14249

(11) "Redaction" means obscuring or deleting any information that is exempt from the duty to permit public inspection or copying from an item that otherwise meets the definition of a "record" in section 149.011 of the Revised Code. 14250
14251
14253

(12) "Designee" and "elected official" have the same meanings 14254

as in section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 14255

(B)(1) Upon request and subject to division (B)(8) of this 14256 section, all public records responsive to the request shall be 14257 promptly prepared and made available for inspection to any person 14258 at all reasonable times during regular business hours. Subject to 14259 division (B)(8) of this section, upon request, a public office or 14260 person responsible for public records shall make copies of the 14261 requested public record available at cost and within a reasonable 14262 period of time. If a public record contains information that is 14263 exempt from the duty to permit public inspection or to copy the 14264 public record, the public office or the person responsible for the 14265 public record shall make available all of the information within 14266 the public record that is not exempt. When making that public 14267 record available for public inspection or copying that public 14268 record, the public office or the person responsible for the public 14269 record shall notify the requester of any redaction or make the 14270 redaction plainly visible. A redaction shall be deemed a denial of 14271 a request to inspect or copy the redacted information, except if 14272 federal or state law authorizes or requires a public office to 14273 make the redaction. 14274

(2) To facilitate broader access to public records, a public 14275 office or the person responsible for public records shall organize 14276 and maintain public records in a manner that they can be made 14277 available for inspection or copying in accordance with division 14278 (B) of this section. A public office also shall have available a 14279 copy of its current records retention schedule at a location 14280 readily available to the public. If a requester makes an ambiguous 14281 or overly broad request or has difficulty in making a request for 14282 copies or inspection of public records under this section such 14283 that the public office or the person responsible for the requested 14284 public record cannot reasonably identify what public records are 14285 being requested, the public office or the person responsible for 14286 the requested public record may deny the request but shall provide 14287 the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by 14288 informing the requester of the manner in which records are 14289 maintained by the public office and accessed in the ordinary 14290 course of the public office's or person's duties. 14291

(3) If a request is ultimately denied, in part or in whole, 14292 the public office or the person responsible for the requested 14293 public record shall provide the requester with an explanation, 14294 including legal authority, setting forth why the request was 14295 denied. If the initial request was provided in writing, the 14296 explanation also shall be provided to the requester in writing. 14297
The explanation shall not preclude the public office or the person 14298 responsible for the requested public record from relying upon 14299 additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action 14300 commenced under division (C) of this section. 14301

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 14302 federal law or in accordance with division (B) of this section, no 14303 public office or person responsible for public records may limit 14304 or condition the availability of public records by requiring 14305 disclosure of the requester's identity or the intended use of the 14306 requested public record. Any requirement that the requester 14307 disclose the requestor's identity or the intended use of the 14308 requested public record constitutes a denial of the request. 14309

(5) A public office or person responsible for public records 14310 may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may ask for 14311 the requester's identity, and may inquire about the intended use 14312 of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing 14313 to the requester that a written request is not mandatory and that 14314 the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or 14315 the intended use and when a written request or disclosure of the 14316 identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing 14317 the ability of the public office or person responsible for public 14318 records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought 14319 by the requester. 14320

(6) If any person chooses to obtain a copy of a public record 14321 in accordance with division (B) of this section, the public office 14322 or person responsible for the public record may require that 14323 person to pay in advance the cost involved in providing the copy 14324 of the public record in accordance with the choice made by the 14325 person seeking the copy under this division. The public office or 14326 the person responsible for the public record shall permit that 14327 person to choose to have the public record duplicated upon paper, 14328 upon the same medium upon which the public office or person 14329 responsible for the public record keeps it, or upon any other 14330 medium upon which the public office or person responsible for the 14331 public record determines that it reasonably can be duplicated as 14332 an integral part of the normal operations of the public office or 14333 person responsible for the public record. When the person seeking 14334 the copy makes a choice under this division, the public office or 14335 person responsible for the public record shall provide a copy of 14336 it in accordance with the choice made by the person seeking the 14337 copy. Nothing in this section requires a public office or person 14338 responsible for the public record to allow the person seeking a 14339 copy of the public record to make the copies of the public record. 14340

(7) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) of 14341 this section and subject to division (B)(6) of this section, a 14342 public office or person responsible for public records shall 14343 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United States 14344 mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission within a 14345 reasonable period of time after receiving the request for the 14346 copy. The public office or person responsible for the public 14347 record may require the person making the request to pay in advance 14348 the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by United States 14349 mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is transmitted other than 14350 by United States mail, and to pay in advance the costs incurred 14351 for other supplies used in the mailing, delivery, or transmission. 14352

Any public office may adopt a policy and procedures that it 14353 will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period of time 14354 after receiving a request, copies of public records by United 14355 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 14356 pursuant to this division. A public office that adopts a policy 14357 and procedures under this division shall comply with them in 14358 performing its duties under this division. 14359

In any policy and procedures adopted under this division, a 14360 public office may limit the number of records requested by a 14361 person that the office will transmit by United States mail to ten 14362 per month, unless the person certifies to the office in writing 14363 that the person does not intend to use or forward the requested 14364 records, or the information contained in them, for commercial 14365 purposes. For purposes of this division, "commercial" shall be 14366 narrowly construed and does not include reporting or gathering 14367 news, reporting or gathering information to assist citizen 14368 oversight or understanding of the operation or activities of 14369 government, or nonprofit educational research. 14370

(8) A public office or person responsible for public records 14371 is not required to permit a person who is incarcerated pursuant to 14372 a criminal conviction or a juvenile adjudication to inspect or to 14373 obtain a copy of any public record concerning a criminal 14374 investigation or prosecution or concerning what would be a 14375 criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 14376 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request to 14377 inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose of 14378 acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 14379 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 14380 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 14381 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought in 14382 the public record is necessary to support what appears to be a 14383 justiciable claim of the person. 14384

(9) Upon written request made and signed by a journalist on 14385 or after December 16, 1999, a public office, or person responsible 14386 for public records, having custody of the records of the agency 14387 employing a specified peace officer, parole officer, prosecuting 14388 attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, correctional employee, 14389 youth services employee, firefighter, ~~or~~ EMT, or investigator of 14390 the bureau of criminal identification and investigation shall 14391 disclose to the journalist the address of the actual personal 14392 residence of the peace officer, parole officer, prosecuting 14393
youth services employee, firefighter, ~~or~~ EMT, or investigator of 14395 the bureau of criminal identification and investigation and, if 14396 the peace officer's, parole officer's, prosecuting attorney's, 14397 assistant prosecuting attorney's, correctional employee's, youth 14398 services employee's, firefighter's, ~~or~~ EMT's, or investigator of 14399 the bureau of criminal identification and investigation's spouse, 14400 former spouse, or child is employed by a public office, the name 14401 and address of the employer of the peace officer's, parole 14402 officer's, prosecuting attorney's, assistant prosecuting 14403 attorney's, correctional employee's, youth services employee's, 14404 firefighter's, ~~or~~ EMT's, or investigator of the bureau of criminal 14405 identification and investigation's spouse, former spouse, or 14406 child. The request shall include the journalist's name and title 14407 and the name and address of the journalist's employer and shall 14408 state that disclosure of the information sought would be in the 14409 public interest. 14410

As used in this division, "journalist" means a person engaged 14411 in, connected with, or employed by any news medium, including a 14412 newspaper, magazine, press association, news agency, or wire 14413 service, a radio or television station, or a similar medium, for 14414

the purpose of gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, 14415 editing, or disseminating information for the general public. 14416

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure of a 14417 public office or the person responsible for public records to 14418 promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to the 14419 person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of this 14420 section or by any other failure of a public office or the person 14421 responsible for public records to comply with an obligation in 14422 accordance with division (B) of this section, the person allegedly 14423 aggrieved may commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 14424 orders the public office or the person responsible for the public 14425 record to comply with division (B) of this section, that awards 14426 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person that 14427 instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that includes 14428 an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(1) of this 14429 section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the court of 14430 common pleas of the county in which division (B) of this section 14431 allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme court pursuant to 14432 its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of Article IV, Ohio 14433 Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate 14434 district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not 14435 complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 14436
3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 14437

If a requestor transmits a written request by hand delivery 14438 or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any public 14439 record in a manner that fairly describes the public record or 14440 class of public records to the public office or person responsible 14441 for the requested public records, except as otherwise provided in 14442 this section, the requestor shall be entitled to recover the 14443 amount of statutory damages set forth in this division if a court 14444 determines that the public office or the person responsible for 14445 public records failed to comply with an obligation in accordance 14446 with division (B) of this section. 14447

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 14448 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 14449 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 14450 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14451 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 14452 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 14453 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 14454 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 14455 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 14456 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 14457 damages shall be in addition to all other remedies authorized by 14458
this section. 14459

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 14460 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 14461
following: 14462

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 14463 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 14464 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 14465
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 14466 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 14467 this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 14468
well-informed public office or person responsible for the 14469 requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 14470 or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 14471 for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 14472 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14473
section; 14474

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 14475 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 14476 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 14477 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 14478 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 14479 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 14480

(2)(a) If the court issues a writ of mandamus that orders the 14481 public office or the person responsible for the public record to 14482 comply with division (B) of this section and determines that the 14483 circumstances described in division (C)(1) of this section exist, 14484 the court shall determine and award to the relator all court 14485 costs. 14486

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 14487 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 14488 with division (B) of this section, the court may award reasonable 14489 attorney's fees subject to reduction as described in division 14490 (C)(2)(c) of this section. The court shall award reasonable 14491
(C)(2)(c) of this section when either of the following applies: 14493

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 14494 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 14495 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 14496 under division (B) of this section. 14497

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 14498 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 14499 receive copies of the public records requested within a specified 14500 period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that 14501 specified period of time. 14502

(c) Court costs and reasonable attorney's fees awarded under 14503 this section shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 14504 Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred 14505 to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and 14506 to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. The court may 14507 reduce an award of attorney's fees to the relator or not award 14508 attorney's fees to the relator if the court determines both of the 14509

following: 14510

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 14511
and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 14512
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 14514
to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 14515
for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 14520
comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14521
section; 14522

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 14523
for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 14524
responsible for the requested public records as described in 14526 division (C)(2)(c)(i) of this section would serve the public 14527 policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting 14528 that conduct or threatened conduct. 14529

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 14530 provisions of this section. 14531

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 14532 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 14533 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 14534 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 14535 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 14536 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public records 14537 policy in compliance with this section for responding to public 14538 records requests. In adopting a public records policy under this 14539 division, a public office may obtain guidance from the model 14540 public records policy developed and provided to the public office 14541 by the attorney general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 14542 Except as otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not 14543 limit the number of public records that the public office will 14544 make available to a single person, may not limit the number of 14545 public records that it will make available during a fixed period 14546 of time, and may not establish a fixed period of time before it 14547 will respond to a request for inspection or copying of public 14548 records, unless that period is less than eight hours. 14549

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 14550 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of this 14551 section to the employee of the public office who is the records 14552 custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of the 14553 records of that office. The public office shall require that 14554 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public records 14555 policy. The public office shall create a poster that describes its 14556 public records policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous 14557 place in the public office and in all locations where the public 14558 office has branch offices. The public office may post its public 14559 records policy on the internet web site of the public office if 14560 the public office maintains an internet web site. A public office 14561 that has established a manual or handbook of its general policies 14562 and procedures for all employees of the public office shall 14563 include the public records policy of the public office in the 14564 manual or handbook. 14565

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant 14566 to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number 14567 of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person 14568 for the same records or for updated records during a calendar 14569 year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for 14570 bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of 14571 the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The 14572 bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the 14573 release of which is prohibited by law. 14574

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section: 14575

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 14576 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 14577 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 14578 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual costs 14579 paid to private contractors for copying services. 14580

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 14581 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 14582 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 14583 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 14584 class of records, or data base by a person who intends to use or 14585 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 14586 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 14587 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 14588 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 14589 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 14590 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 14591

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 14592 selling of any good, service, or other product. 14593

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 14594 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 14595 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed by 14596 the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 14597 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 14598 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer or 14599 records services. 14600

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, 14601
"surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 14602 purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 14603 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to 14604 assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 14605 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 14606

(2) "Public record" and "peace officer, parole officer, 14615 shall redact, encrypt, or truncate the social security number from 14632 that document. 14633

(3) Divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section do not apply to documents that are only accessible through the internet with a password.

those credits to be claimed for the purposes provided for in 15250 section 150.04 of the Revised Code with respect to any other tax 15251 imposed by this state; provided, that if any obligations issued 15252 under section 4582.71 of the Revised Code are then outstanding and 15253 section 150.02 of the Revised Code regarding the maintenance or 15256 restoration of reserves established and maintained with a trustee 15257 facsimile signature to be affixed thereto, ceases to be such 15504 officer before such obligations have been delivered, such 15505 obligations may, nevertheless, be issued and delivered as though 15506 the person who had signed the obligations or caused the person's 15507 facsimile signature to be affixed thereto had not ceased to be 15508 such officer. 15509

Any obligations may be executed on behalf of the authority by 15510 an officer who, on the date of execution, is the proper officer 15511 although on the date of such obligations such person was not the 15512 proper officer. 15513

the director, any other governmental agency, or a person to be 16138 assisted under this chapter, to take or provide for the purposes 16139 of this chapter any governmental action it is authorized to take 16140 director any action which the director is authorized to undertake 16142 pursuant to divisions (B)(3), (4), and (5) of this section or 16143 sound; 16156

(2) The borrower is unable to finance the necessary allowable 16157 costs through ordinary financial channels upon comparable terms; 16158

(3) The amount to be lent from the facilities establishment 16159 fund will not exceed seventy-five per cent of the total allowable 16160 costs of the eligible project, except that if any part of the 16161 amount to be lent from the facilities establishment fund is 16162 derived from the issuance and sale of project financing 16163 obligations the amount to be lent will not exceed ninety per cent 16164 of the total allowable costs of the eligible project; 16165

(4) The eligible project could not be achieved in the local 16166 area in which it is to be located if the portion of the project to 16167 be financed by the loan instead were to be financed by a loan 16168 guaranteed under section 166.06 of the Revised Code; 16169

(5) The repayment of the loan from the facilities 16170 establishment fund will be adequately secured by a mortgage, 16171 the Revised Code, at such level of priority as the director may 16173 require; 16174

this section shall be conclusive for purposes of the validity of a 16178 loan commitment evidenced by a loan agreement signed by the 16179 director. 16180

(C) In furtherance of the public policy of this chapter, 16181 there is hereby established the micro-lending program for the 16182 purpose of paying the allowable costs of eligible projects of 16183 establishment fund that the general assembly designates for the 16185 purpose of the micro-lending program, the director of development 16186 shall, either directly or indirectly, make loans under this 16187 section to eligible small businesses. The director shall establish 16188 eligibility criteria and loan terms for the program that 16189 supplement eligibility criteria and loan terms otherwise 16190 prescribed for loans under this section, and may prescribe reduced 16191 service charges and fees. For the purpose of lending under the 16192 micro-lending program, the director of development shall give 16193 precedence to projects of eligible small businesses that foster 16194 the development of small entrepreneurial enterprises, 16195 notwithstanding the considerations prescribed by divisions 16196 (A)(1)(a) and (b) of section 166.05 of the Revised Code to the 16197 extent those considerations otherwise may have the effect of 16198 disqualifying projects of eligible small businesses. The director 16199 may enter into agreements with for-profit or non-profit 16200 organizations in this state to originate and administer loans made 16201 under the micro-lending program. 16202 provisions of and security for loans made from the facilities 16205 establishment fund pursuant to this section shall be such as the 16206 director determines to be appropriate and in furtherance of the 16207 purpose for which the loans are made. The moneys used in making 16208 such loans shall be disbursed from the facilities establishment 16209 fund upon order of the director. The director shall give special 16210 consideration in setting the required job creation ratios and 16211 interest rates for loans that are for voluntary actions. 16212

~~(D)~~(E) The director may take actions necessary or appropriate 16213 to collect or otherwise deal with any loan made under this 16214 section, including any action authorized by section 9.661 of the 16215
Revised Code. 16216

~~(E)~~(F) The director may fix service charges for the making of 16217 a loan. Such charges shall be payable at such times and place and 16218 in such amounts and manner as may be prescribed by the director. 16219 applicable bond proceedings pursuant to written directions by the 16358 director. The right of such holders and owners to payment of bond 16359 service charges is limited to all or that portion of the pledged 16360 receipts and those special funds pledged thereto pursuant to the 16361 bond proceedings in accordance with this section, and each such 16362 obligation shall bear on its face a statement to that effect. 16363

(D) Obligations shall be authorized by resolution or order of 16364 the issuing authority and the bond proceedings shall provide for 16365 the purpose thereof and the principal amount or amounts, and shall 16366 provide for or authorize the manner or agency for determining the 16367 principal maturity or maturities, not exceeding twenty-five years 16368 from the date of issuance, the interest rate or rates or the 16369 maximum interest rate, the date of the obligations and the dates 16370 of payment of interest thereon, their denomination, and the 16371 establishment within or without the state of a place or places of 16372 payment of bond service charges. Sections 9.98 to 9.983 of the 16373 Revised Code are applicable to obligations issued under this 16374 section, subject to any applicable limitation under section 166.11 16375 of the Revised Code. The purpose of such obligations may be stated 16376 in the bond proceedings in terms describing the general purpose or 16377 purposes to be served. The bond proceedings also shall provide, 16378 subject to the provisions of any other applicable bond 16379 proceedings, for the pledge of all, or such part as the issuing 16380 authority may determine, of the pledged receipts and the 16381 applicable special fund or funds to the payment of bond service 16382 charges, which pledges may be made either prior or subordinate to 16383 other expenses, claims, or payments, and may be made to secure the 16384 obligations on a parity with obligations theretofore or thereafter 16385 issued, if and to the extent provided in the bond proceedings. The 16386 pledged receipts and special funds so pledged and thereafter 16387 received by the state are immediately subject to the lien of such 16388 pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and 16389 the lien of any such pledges is valid and binding against all 16390 parties having claims of any kind against the state or any 16391 governmental agency of the state, irrespective of whether such 16392 parties have notice thereof, and shall create a perfected security 16393 interest for all purposes of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code, 16394 without the necessity for separation or delivery of funds or for 16395 the filing or recording of the bond proceedings by which such 16396 pledge is created or any certificate, statement or other document 16397 with respect thereto; and the pledge of such pledged receipts and 16398 special funds is effective and the money therefrom and thereof may 16399 be applied to the purposes for which pledged without necessity for 16400 any act of appropriation. Every pledge, and every covenant and 16401 agreement made with respect thereto, made in the bond proceedings 16402 may therein be extended to the benefit of the owners and holders 16403 of obligations authorized by this section, and to any trustee 16404 therefor, for the further security of the payment of the bond 16405 service charges. 16406

(E) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions as 16407
to: 16408

(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the 16409 option of the issuing authority at such price or prices and under 16410 such terms and conditions as are provided in the bond proceedings; 16411

(2) Other terms of the obligations; 16412

(3) Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations; 16413

(4) The terms of any trust agreement or indenture securing 16414 the obligations or under which the same may be issued; 16415

(5) The deposit, investment and application of special funds, 16416 and the safeguarding of moneys on hand or on deposit, without 16417 regard to Chapter 131. or 135. of the Revised Code, but subject to 16418 any special provisions of this chapter, with respect to particular 16419 funds or moneys, provided that any bank or trust company which 16420 acts as depository of any moneys in the special funds may furnish 16421 such indemnifying bonds or may pledge such securities as required 16422 by the issuing authority; 16423

(6) Any or every provision of the bond proceedings being 16424 binding upon such officer, board, commission, authority, agency, 16425 department, or other person or body as may from time to time have 16426 the authority under law to take such actions as may be necessary 16427 to perform all or any part of the duty required by such provision; 16428

(7) Any provision that may be made in a trust agreement or indenture; 16429

The obligations may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the issuing authority determines. (H) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 16465 sale, as determined in the bond proceedings. 16466

Obligations issued to provide moneys for the loan guarantee 16467 fund or the innovation Ohio loan guarantee fund may, as determined 16468 by the issuing authority, be sold at private sale, and without 16469 publication of a notice of sale. 16470

(I) Pending preparation of definitive obligations, the 16471 issuing authority may issue interim receipts or certificates which 16472 shall be exchanged for such definitive obligations. 16473

(J) In the discretion of the issuing authority, obligations 16474 may be secured additionally by a trust agreement or indenture 16475 between the issuing authority and a corporate trustee which may be 16476 any trust company or bank having a place of business within the 16477 state. Any such agreement or indenture may contain the resolution 16478 or order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any 16479 provisions that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and 16480 other provisions which are customary or appropriate in an 16481 agreement or indenture of such type, including, but not limited 16482
to: 16483

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, trust agreement, indenture, 16484 or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 16485 the state has fully paid the bond service charges on the 16486 obligations secured thereby, or provision therefor has been made; 16487

(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be 16488 made by the bond proceedings, or any other agreement of the 16489 issuing authority made as a part of the contract under which the 16490 obligations were issued, enforcement of such payments or agreement 16491 by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in equity, action 16492 at law, or any combination of the foregoing; 16493

(3) The rights and remedies of the holders of obligations and 16494 of the trustee, and provisions for protecting and enforcing them, 16495 including limitations on rights of individual holders of 16496 obligations; 16497

(4) The replacement of any obligations that become mutilated 16498 or are destroyed, lost, or stolen; 16499

(5) Such other provisions as the trustee and the issuing 16500 authority agree upon, including limitations, conditions, or 16501 qualifications relating to any of the foregoing. 16502

(K) Any holders of obligations or trustees under the bond 16503 proceedings, except to the extent that their rights are restricted 16504 by the bond proceedings, may by any suitable form of legal 16505 proceedings, protect and enforce any rights under the laws of this 16506 state or granted by such bond proceedings. Such rights include the 16507 right to compel the performance of all duties of the issuing 16508 authority, the director of development, the Ohio air quality 16509 development authority, or the division of liquor control required 16510 by this chapter or the bond proceedings; to enjoin unlawful 16511 activities; and in the event of default with respect to the 16512 payment of any bond service charges on any obligations or in the 16513 performance of any covenant or agreement on the part of the 16514 issuing authority, the director of development, the Ohio air 16515 quality development authority, or the division of liquor control 16516 in the bond proceedings, to apply to a court having jurisdiction 16517 of the cause to appoint a receiver to receive and administer the 16518 pledged receipts and special funds, other than those in the 16519 custody of the treasurer of state, which are pledged to the 16520 payment of the bond service charges on such obligations or which 16521 are the subject of the covenant or agreement, with full power to 16522 pay, and to provide for payment of bond service charges on, such 16523 obligations, and with such powers, subject to the direction of the court, as are accorded receivers in general equity cases, excluding any power to pledge additional revenues or receipts or other income or moneys of the issuing authority or the state or governmental agencies of the state to the payment of such principal and interest and excluding the power to take possession of, mortgage, or cause the sale or otherwise dispose of any project facilities.

Each duty of the issuing authority and the issuing authority's officers and employees, and of each governmental agency and its officers, members, or employees, undertaken pursuant to the bond proceedings or any agreement or lease, lease-purchase agreement, or loan made under authority of this chapter, and in every agreement by or with the issuing authority, is hereby established as a duty of the issuing authority, and of each such officer, member, or employee having authority to perform such duty, specifically enjoined by the law resulting from an office, trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of the Revised Code.

The person who is at the time the issuing authority, or the issuing authority's officers or employees, are not liable in their personal capacities on any obligations issued by the issuing authority or any agreements of or with the issuing authority.

(L) The issuing authority may authorize and issue obligations for the refunding, including funding and retirement, and advance refunding with or without payment or redemption prior to maturity, of any obligations previously issued by the issuing authority. Such obligations may be issued in amounts sufficient for payment of the principal amount of the prior obligations, any redemption premiums thereon, principal maturities of any such obligations maturing prior to the redemption of the remaining obligations on a parity therewith, interest accrued or to accrue to the maturity dates or dates of redemption of such obligations, and any 16556 allowable costs including expenses incurred or to be incurred in 16557 connection with such issuance and such refunding, funding, and 16558 retirement. Subject to the bond proceedings therefor, the portion 16559 of proceeds of the sale of obligations issued under this division 16560 to be applied to bond service charges on the prior obligations 16561 shall be credited to an appropriate account held by the trustee 16562 for such prior or new obligations or to the appropriate account in 16563 the bond service fund for such obligations. Obligations authorized 16564 under this division shall be deemed to be issued for those 16565 purposes for which such prior obligations were issued and are 16566 subject to the provisions of this section pertaining to other 16567 obligations, except as otherwise provided in this section; 16568 provided that, unless otherwise authorized by the general 16569 assembly, any limitations imposed by the general assembly pursuant 16570 to this section with respect to bond service charges applicable to 16571 the prior obligations shall be applicable to the obligations 16572 issued under this division to refund, fund, advance refund or 16573 retire such prior obligations. 16574

(M) The authority to issue obligations under this section 16575 includes authority to issue obligations in the form of bond 16576 anticipation notes and to renew the same from time to time by the 16577 issuance of new notes. The holders of such notes or interest 16578 coupons pertaining thereto shall have a right to be paid solely 16579 from the pledged receipts and special funds that may be pledged to 16580 the payment of the bonds anticipated, or from the proceeds of such 16581 bonds or renewal notes, or both, as the issuing authority provides 16582 in the resolution or order authorizing such notes. Such notes may 16583 be additionally secured by covenants of the issuing authority to 16584 the effect that the issuing authority and the state will do such 16585 or all things necessary for the issuance of such bonds or renewal 16586 notes in appropriate amount, and apply the proceeds thereof to the 16587 extent necessary, to make full payment of the principal of and 16588 interest on such notes at the time or times contemplated, as 16589 provided in such resolution or order. For such purpose, the 16590 issuing authority may issue bonds or renewal notes in such 16591 principal amount and upon such terms as may be necessary to 16592 provide funds to pay when required the principal of and interest 16593 on such notes, notwithstanding any limitations prescribed by or 16594 for purposes of this section. Subject to this division, all 16595 provisions for and references to obligations in this section are 16596 applicable to notes authorized under this division. 16597

The issuing authority in the bond proceedings authorizing the 16598 issuance of bond anticipation notes shall set forth for such bonds 16599 an estimated interest rate and a schedule of principal payments 16600 for such bonds and the annual maturity dates thereof, and for 16601 purposes of any limitation on bond service charges prescribed 16602 under division (A) of section 166.11 of the Revised Code, the 16603 amount of bond service charges on such bond anticipation notes is 16604 deemed to be the bond service charges for the bonds anticipated 16605 thereby as set forth in the bond proceedings applicable to such 16606 notes, but this provision does not modify any authority in this 16607 section to pledge receipts and special funds to, and covenant to 16608 issue bonds to fund, the payment of principal of and interest and 16609 any premium on such notes. 16610

(N) Obligations issued under this section are lawful 16611 investments for banks, societies for savings, savings and loan 16612 associations, deposit guarantee associations, trust companies, 16613 trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including domestic for 16614 life and domestic not for life, trustees or other officers having 16615 charge of sinking and bond retirement or other special funds of 16616 political subdivisions and taxing districts of this state, the 16617 commissioners of the sinking fund of the state, the administrator 16618 of workers' compensation, the state teachers retirement system, 16619 the public employees retirement system, the school employees 16620 retirement system, and the Ohio police and fire pension fund, 16621 notwithstanding any other provisions of the Revised Code or rules 16622 adopted pursuant thereto by any governmental agency of the state 16623 with respect to investments by them, and are also acceptable as 16624 security for the deposit of public moneys. 16625

(O) Unless otherwise provided in any applicable bond 16626 proceedings, moneys to the credit of or in the special funds 16627 established by or pursuant to this section may be invested by or 16628 on behalf of the issuing authority only in notes, bonds, or other 16629 obligations of the United States, or of any agency or 16630 instrumentality of the United States, obligations guaranteed as to 16631 principal and interest by the United States, obligations of this 16632 state or any political subdivision of this state, and certificates 16633 of deposit of any national bank located in this state and any 16634 bank, as defined in section 1101.01 of the Revised Code, subject 16635 to inspection by the superintendent of banks. If the law or the 16636 instrument creating a trust pursuant to division (J) of this 16637 section expressly permits investment in direct obligations of the 16638 United States or an agency of the United States, unless expressly 16639 prohibited by the instrument, such moneys also may be invested in 16640 no-front-end-load money market mutual funds consisting exclusively 16641 of obligations of the United States or an agency of the United 16642 States and in repurchase agreements, including those issued by the 16643 fiduciary itself, secured by obligations of the United States or 16644 an agency of the United States; and in common trust funds 16645 established in accordance with section 1111.20 of the Revised Code 16646 and consisting exclusively of any such securities, notwithstanding 16647 division (A)(4) of that section. The income from such investments 16648 shall be credited to such funds as the issuing authority 16649 determines, and such investments may be sold at such times as the 16650 issuing authority determines or authorizes. 16651

(P) Provision may be made in the applicable bond proceedings 16652 for the establishment of separate accounts in the bond service 16653 fund and for the application of such accounts only to the 16654 specified bond service charges on obligations pertinent to such 16655 accounts and bond service fund and for other accounts therein 16656 within the general purposes of such fund. Unless otherwise 16657 provided in any applicable bond proceedings, moneys to the credit 16658 of or in the several special funds established pursuant to this 16659 section shall be disbursed on the order of the treasurer of state, 16660 provided that no such order is required for the payment from the 16661 bond service fund when due of bond service charges on obligations. 16662

(Q) The issuing authority may pledge all, or such portion as 16663 the issuing authority determines, of the pledged receipts to the 16664 payment of bond service charges on obligations issued under this 16665 section, and for the establishment and maintenance of any 16666 reserves, as provided in the bond proceedings, and make other 16667 provisions therein with respect to pledged receipts as authorized 16668 by this chapter, which provisions are controlling notwithstanding 16669 any other provisions of law pertaining thereto. 16670

(R) The issuing authority may covenant in the bond 16671 proceedings, and any such covenants are controlling 16672 notwithstanding any other provision of law, that the state and 16673 applicable officers and governmental agencies of the state, 16674 including the general assembly, so long as any obligations are 16675 outstanding, shall: 16676

(1) Maintain statutory authority for and cause to be charged 16677 and collected wholesale and retail prices for spirituous liquor 16678 sold by the state or its agents so that the pledged receipts are 16679 sufficient in amount to meet bond service charges, and the 16680 establishment and maintenance of any reserves and other 16681 requirements provided for in the bond proceedings, and, as 16682 necessary, to meet covenants contained in contracts of guarantee 16683 made under section 166.06 of the Revised Code; 16684

(2) Take or permit no action, by statute or otherwise, that would impair the exemption from federal income taxation of the interest on the obligations. 16685

(S) There is hereby created the economic development bond service fund, which shall be in the custody of the treasurer of state but shall be separate and apart from and not a part of the state treasury. All moneys received by or on account of the issuing authority or state agencies and required by the applicable bond proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, transferred, or credited to a bond service fund or the economic development bond service fund, and all other moneys transferred or allocated to or received for the purposes of the fund, shall be deposited and credited to such fund and to any separate accounts therein, subject to applicable provisions of the bond proceedings, but without necessity for any act of appropriation. During the period beginning with the date of the first issuance of obligations and continuing during such time as any such obligations are outstanding, and so long as moneys in the pertinent bond service funds are insufficient to pay all bond services charges on such obligations becoming due in each year, a sufficient amount of the gross profit on the sale of spirituous liquor included in pledged receipts are committed and shall be paid to the bond service fund or economic development bond service fund in each year for the purpose of paying the bond service charges becoming due in that year without necessity for further act of appropriation for such purpose and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Chapter 4301. of the Revised Code. The economic development bond service fund is a trust fund and is hereby pledged to the payment of bond service charges to the extent provided in the applicable bond proceedings, and payment thereof from such fund shall be made or provided for by the treasurer of state in accordance with such bond proceedings without necessity for any act of appropriation. 16688

Sec. 166.11. (A) The aggregate principal amount of project 16721 financing obligations that may be issued under section 166.08 of 16722 the Revised Code is three hundred million dollars, plus the 16723 principal amount of such project financing obligations retired by 16724 payments. The aggregate principal amount of obligations, exclusive 16725 of project financing obligations, that may be issued under section 16726 166.08 of the Revised Code is six hundred thirty million dollars, 16727 plus the principal amount of any such obligations retired by 16728 payment, the amounts held or obligations pledged for the payment 16729 of the principal amount of any such obligations outstanding, 16730 amounts in special funds held as reserves to meet bond service 16731 charges, and amounts of obligations issued to provide moneys 16732 required to meet payments from the loan guarantee fund created in 16733 section 166.06 of the Revised Code and the innovation Ohio loan 16734 guarantee fund created in section 166.15 of the Revised Code. Of 16735 that six hundred thirty million dollars, not more than eighty-four 16736 million principal amount of obligations may be issued for eligible 16737 advanced energy projects and not more than one hundred million 16738 principal amount of obligations may be issued for eligible 16739 logistics and distribution projects. The terms of the obligations 16740 issued under section 166.08 of the Revised Code, other than 16741 obligations issued to meet guarantees that cannot be satisfied 16742 from amounts then held in the loan guarantee fund or the 16743 innovation Ohio loan guarantee fund, shall be such that the 16744 aggregate amount of moneys used from profit from the sale of 16745 spirituous liquor, and not from other sources, in any fiscal year 16746 shall not exceed sixty-three million dollars. For purposes of the 16747 preceding sentence, "other sources" include the annual investment 16748 income on special funds to the extent it will be available for 16749 payment of any bond service charges in lieu of use of profit from 16750 the sale of spirituous liquor, and shall be estimated on the basis 16751 of the expected funding of those special funds and assumed 16752 investment earnings thereon at a rate equal to the weighted 16753 average yield on investments of those special funds determined as 16754 of any date within sixty days immediately preceding the date of 16755 issuance of the bonds in respect of which the determination is 16756 being made. Amounts received in any fiscal year under section 6341 16757 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 6341, shall not be 16758 included when determining the sixty-three million dollar limit. 16759

The determinations required by this division shall be made by the 16760 treasurer of state at the time of issuance of an issue of 16761 obligations and shall be conclusive for purposes of such issue of 16762 obligations from and after their issuance and delivery. 16763

(B) The aggregate amount of the guaranteed portion of the 16764 unpaid principal of loans guaranteed under sections 166.06 and 16765 166.15 of the Revised Code and the unpaid principal of loans made 16766 under sections 166.07, 166.16, and 166.21 of the Revised Code may 16767 not at any time exceed eight hundred million dollars. Of that 16768 eight hundred million dollars, the aggregate amount of the 16769 guaranteed portion of the unpaid principal of loans guaranteed 16770 under sections 166.06 and 166.15 of the Revised Code shall not at 16771 any time exceed two hundred million dollars. However, the 16772 limitations established under this division do not apply to loans 16773 made with proceeds from the issuance and sale of project financing 16774
obligations. 16775

Sec. 166.22. (A) There is hereby created in the state 16776 treasury the rapid outreach loan fund, which shall consist of 16777 money transferred to the fund from the funds created and used 16778 under sections 166.20, 166.21, 166.25, and 166.26 of the Revised 16779 Code. Money in the fund shall be used for eligible projects only, 16780 as limited by the purposes for which money may be used under each 16781 fund from which the money is transferred, and applied to allowable 16782 costs as provided under those sections. The fund shall also 16783 consist of any other money appropriated to it and money received 16784 by the state from the repayment of loans and recovery on loan 16785 guarantees, including interest thereon, and the repayment and 16786 recovery of grants, made from the fund. All investment earnings on 16787 the cash balance in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The 16788 fund shall not be comprised, in any part, of money raised by 16789 taxation. 16790

controlling board and subject to other applicable provisions of 16792 this chapter, may lend or grant money in the rapid outreach loan 16793 fund to persons for the purpose of paying allowable costs of 16794 following conditions are met: 16796

(1) The project is economically sound; 16797

(2) The project is an eligible project under division (D) of 16798

(3) The amount to be provided from the rapid outreach loan 16802 fund is a reasonable amount given the scope of the eligible 16803 project as determined by the director; 16804

(4) If the money provided is in the form of a loan, the 16805 director shall determine whether the loan is to be repaid or may 16806 be forgiven. If the loan must be repaid, the director must 16807 determine whether the loan has been secured by a mortgage, 16808 assignment, pledge, lien provided for under section 9.661 of the 16809 Revised Code, or other interest in property or other assets of the 16810 borrower, at such level of priority and value as the director 16811 considers necessary, provided that, in making such a 16812 determination, the director shall take into account the value of 16813 any rights granted by the borrower to the director to control the 16814 use of any assets of the borrower under the circumstances 16815 described in the loan documents. 16816

(C) The determinations of the director under division (B) of 16817
this section shall be conclusive for purposes of the validity of a 16818 loan or grant agreement signed by the director. 16819

(D) Fees, charges, rates of interest, times of payment of 16820 interest and principal, and other terms and conditions of, and 16821 security for, loans and grants made from the rapid outreach loan 16822 fund shall be such as the director determines to be appropriate 16823 and in furtherance of the purpose for which the loans and grants 16824 are made. The moneys used in making loans and grants shall be 16825 disbursed from the fund upon order of the director. Unless 16826 otherwise specified in any indenture or other instrument securing 16827 obligations under division (D) of section 166.08 of the Revised 16828 Code, any payments of principal and interest from loans and grants 16829 made from the fund, including any proceeds of actions to collect 16830 the loans or to recover grant funds, shall be paid to the fund and 16831 used for the purpose of making loans and grants under this 16832
section. 16833

(E) The director may take actions necessary or appropriate to 16834 collect or otherwise deal with any loan or grant made under this 16835
section. 16836

(F) The director may fix service charges for the making of a 16837 loan. The charges shall be payable at such times and place and in 16838 such amounts and manner as may be prescribed by the director. 16839

(G)(1) There shall be credited to the rapid outreach loan 16840 fund money received by this state from the repayment of loans, 16841 including interest thereon, made from the fund, and money received 16842 from the sale, lease, or other disposition of property acquired or 16843 constructed with money in the fund derived from the proceeds of 16844 the sale of obligations under section 166.08 of the Revised Code. 16845 Money in the fund shall be applied as provided in this chapter 16846 pursuant to appropriations made by the general assembly. 16847

(2) In addition to the requirements in division (G)(1) of 16849 this section, money referred to in that division may be deposited 16850 to the credit of separate accounts established by the director 16851 within the rapid outreach loan fund or in the bond service fund 16852 and pledged to the security of obligations, applied to the payment 16853 of bond service charges without need for appropriation, released 16854 from any such pledge and transferred to the rapid outreach loan 16855 fund, all as, and to the extent, provided in the bond proceedings 16856 pursuant to written directions of the director. Accounts may be 16857 established by the director in the rapid outreach loan fund for 16858 particular projects or otherwise. The director may withdraw from 16859 the fund or, subject to provisions of the applicable bond 16860 proceedings, from any special funds established pursuant to the 16861 bond proceedings, or from any accounts in such funds, any amounts 16862 of investment income required to be rebated and paid to the 16863 federal government in order to maintain the exemption from federal 16864 income taxation of interest on obligations issued under this 16865 chapter, which withdrawal and payment may be made without the 16866 necessity for appropriation. 16867

Sec. 166.25. (A) The director of development, with the 16868 approval of the controlling board and subject to the other 16869 applicable provisions of this chapter, may lend money in the 16870 logistics and distribution infrastructure fund and the logistics 16871 and distribution infrastructure taxable bond fund to persons for 16872 the purpose of paying allowable costs of eligible logistics and 16873 distribution projects. 16874

(B) In determining the eligible logistics and distribution projects to be assisted and the nature, amount, and terms of assistance to be provided for an eligible logistics and distribution project, the director shall consult with appropriate governmental agencies, including the department of transportation and the Ohio rail development commission.

(C)(1) The director shall submit to the development financing advisory council the terms of the proposed assistance to be provided for an eligible logistics and distribution project and such other relevant information as the council may request.

(2) The council, on the basis of such information, shall make recommendations as to the appropriateness of the assistance to be provided. The recommendations may be revised to reflect any changes in the proposed assistance the director may submit to the council.

Sec. 166.28. (A) There is hereby created in the state treasury the logistics and distribution infrastructure taxable bond fund. The fund shall consist of grants, gifts, and contributions of money or rights to money lawfully designated for 16906 or deposited into the fund, all money and rights to money lawfully 16907 appropriated and transferred to the fund, including money received 16908 from the issuance of federally taxable obligations under section 16909 166.08 of the Revised Code and subject to section 166.11 of the 16910

Revised Code, and money credited to the fund pursuant to division 16911
(B) of this section. The fund shall be used for the allowable 16912 costs of eligible logistics and distribution projects. All 16913 investment earnings on the cash balance in the fund shall be 16914 credited to the fund. The fund shall not be comprised, in any 16915 part, of money raised by taxation. 16916

(B) There shall be credited to the logistics and distribution 16917 infrastructure taxable bond fund the money received by the state 16918 from the repayment of loans and recovery on loan guarantees, 16919 including interest thereon, made from the fund. 16920

Sec. 169.08. (A) Any person claiming a property interest in 16921 unclaimed funds delivered or reported to the state under Chapter 16922 169. of the Revised Code, including the office of child support in 16923 the department of job and family services, pursuant to section 16924 3123.88 of the Revised Code, may file a claim thereto on the form 16925 prescribed by the director of commerce. 16926

(B) The director shall consider matters relevant to any claim 16927 filed under division (A) of this section and shall hold a formal 16928 hearing if requested or considered necessary and receive evidence 16929 concerning such claim. A finding and decision in writing on each 16930 claim filed shall be prepared, stating the substance of any 16931 evidence received or heard and the reasons for allowance or 16932 disallowance of the claim. The evidence and decision shall be a 16933 public record. No statute of limitations shall bar the allowance 16934 of a claim. 16935

(C) For the purpose of conducting any hearing, the director 16936 may require the attendance of such witnesses and the production of 16937 such books, records, and papers as the director desires, and the 16938 director may take the depositions of witnesses residing within or 16939 without this state in the same manner as is prescribed by law for 16940 the taking of depositions in civil actions in the court of common 16941 pleas, and for that purpose the director may issue a subpoena for 16942 any witness or a subpoena duces tecum to compel the production of 16943 any books, records, or papers, directed to the sheriff of the 16944 county where such witness resides or is found, which shall be 16945 served and returned. The fees of the sheriff shall be the same as 16946 that allowed in the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 16947 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 16948 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Fees and mileage shall be 16949 paid from the unclaimed funds trust fund. 16950

(D) Interest is not payable to claimants of unclaimed funds 16951 held by the state. Claims shall be paid from the trust fund. If 16952 the amount available in the trust fund is not sufficient to pay 16953 pending claims, or other amounts disburseable from the trust fund, 16954 the treasurer of state shall certify such fact to the director, 16955 who shall then withdraw such amount of funds from the mortgage 16956 accounts as the director determines necessary to reestablish the 16957 trust fund to a level required to pay anticipated claims but not 16958 more than ten per cent of the net unclaimed funds reported to 16959 date. 16960

The director ~~shall retain in the trust fund, as a fee for~~ 16961 ~~administering the funds, five per cent of the total amount of~~ 16962 ~~unclaimed funds payable to the claimant and~~ may withdraw the funds 16963 paid to the director by the holders and deposited by the director 16964 with the treasurer of state or in a financial institution as agent 16965 for such funds. Whenever these funds are inadequate to meet the 16966 requirements for the trust fund, the director shall provide for a 16967 withdrawal of funds, within a reasonable time, in such amount as 16968 is necessary to meet the requirements, from financial institutions 16969 in which such funds were retained or placed by a holder and from 16970 other holders who have retained funds, in an equitable manner as 16971 prescribed by the director. In the event that the amount to be 16972 withdrawn from any one such holder is less than five hundred 16973 dollars, the amount to be withdrawn shall be at the discretion of 16974 the director. Such funds may be reimbursed in the amounts 16975 withdrawn when the trust fund has a surplus over the amount 16976 required to pay anticipated claims. Whenever the trust fund has a 16977 surplus over the amount required to pay anticipated claims, the 16978 director may transfer such surplus to the mortgage accounts. 16979

(E) If a claim which is allowed under this section relates to 16980 funds which have been retained by the reporting holder, and if the 16981 funds, on deposit with the treasurer of state pursuant to this 16982 chapter, are insufficient to pay claims, the director may notify 16983 such holder in writing of the payment of the claim and such holder 16984 shall immediately reimburse the state in the amount of such claim. 16985
The reimbursement shall be credited to the unclaimed funds trust 16986 fund. 16987

(F) Any person, including the office of child support, 16988 adversely affected by a decision of the director may appeal such 16989 decision in the manner provided in Chapter 119. of the Revised 16990
Code. 16991

In the event the claimant prevails, the claimant shall be 16992 reimbursed for reasonable attorney's fees and costs. 16993

(G) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this chapter, 16994 any holder who has paid moneys to or entered into an agreement 16995 with the director pursuant to section 169.05 of the Revised Code 16996 on certified checks, cashiers' checks, bills of exchange, letters 16997 of credit, drafts, money orders, or travelers' checks, may make 16998 payment to any person entitled thereto, including the office of 16999 child support, and upon surrender of the document, except in the 17000 case of travelers' checks, and proof of such payment, the director 17001 shall reimburse the holder for such payment without interest. 17002

Sec. 173.08. (A) The resident services coordinator program is 17003 established in the department of aging to fund resident services 17004 coordinators. The coordinators shall provide information to 17005 low-income and special-needs tenants, including the elderly, who 17006 live in financially assisted rental housing complexes, and assist 17007 those tenants in identifying and obtaining community and program 17008 services and other benefits for which they are eligible. 17009

(B) The resident services coordinator program fund is hereby 17010 created in the state treasury to support the resident services 17011 coordinator program established pursuant to this section. The fund 17012 consists of all moneys the department of development sets aside 17013 pursuant to division (A)~~(4)~~(3) of section 174.02 of the Revised 17014 Code and moneys the general assembly appropriates to the fund. 17015

Sec. 173.28. (A)(1) As used in this division, "incident" 17016 means the occurrence of a violation with respect to a resident or 17017 recipient, as those terms are defined in section 173.14 of the 17018 Revised Code. A violation is a separate incident for each day it 17019 occurs and for each resident who is subject to it. 17020

In lieu of the fine that may be imposed under division (A) of 17021 section 173.99 of the Revised Code, the director of aging may, 17022 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, fine a long-term care 17023 provider or other entity, or a person employed by a long-term care 17024 provider or other entity, for a violation of division (C) of 17025 section 173.24 of the Revised Code. The fine shall not exceed one 17026 thousand dollars per incident. 17027

(2) In lieu of the fine that may be imposed under division 17028
(C) of section 173.99 of the Revised Code, the director may, under 17029
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, fine a long-term care provider 17030 or other entity, or a person employed by a long-term care provider 17031 or other entity, for violating division (E) of section 173.19 of 17032 the Revised Code by denying a representative of the office of the 17033 state long-term care ombudsperson program the access required by 17034 that division. The fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars for 17035 each day the violation continued. 17036

(B) On request of the director, the attorney general shall 17037 bring and prosecute to judgment a civil action to collect any fine 17038 imposed under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section that remains 17039 unpaid thirty days after the violator's final appeal is exhausted. 17040

(C) All fines collected under this section shall be deposited 17041 into the state treasury to the credit of the state long-term care 17042 ombudsperson program fund created under section 173.26 of the 17043
Revised Code. 17044

Sec. 173.35. (A) As used in this section, "PASSPORT 17045 administrative agency" means an entity under contract with the 17046 department of aging to provide administrative services regarding 17047 the PASSPORT program created under section 173.40 of the Revised 17048

disabled adults under Title XVI of the "Social Security Act," 49 17053 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A., as amended. Residential state 17054 supplement payments shall be used for the provision of 17055 accommodations, supervision, and personal care services to 17056 supplemental security income recipients who the department 17057 determines are at risk of needing institutional care. 17058

(C) For an individual to be eligible for residential state 17059 supplement payments, all of the following must be the case: 17060

(1) Except as provided by division (G) of this section, the individual must reside in one of the following:

(a) An adult foster home certified under section 173.36 of the Revised Code;

Code as necessary to implement the residential state supplement 17106
program. 17107

To the extent permitted by Title XVI of the "Social Security 17108 Act," and any other provision of federal law, the director of job 17109 and family services shall adopt rules establishing standards for 17110 adjusting the eligibility requirements concerning the level of 17111 impairment a person must have so that the amount appropriated for 17112 the program by the general assembly is adequate for the number of 17113 eligible individuals. The rules shall not limit the eligibility of 17114 disabled persons solely on a basis classifying disabilities as 17115 physical or mental. The director of job and family services also 17116 shall adopt rules that establish eligibility standards for aged, 17117 blind, or disabled individuals who reside in one of the homes or 17118 facilities specified in division (C)(1) of this section but who, 17119 because of their income, do not receive supplemental security 17120 income payments. The rules may provide that these individuals may 17121 include individuals who receive other types of benefits, 17122 including, social security disability insurance benefits provided 17123 under Title II of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 17124 42 U.S.C.A. 401, as amended. Notwithstanding division (B) of this 17125 section, such payments may be made if funds are available for 17126 them. 17127

The director of aging shall adopt rules establishing the 17128 method to be used to determine the amount an eligible individual 17129 method that department establishes. 17132

(2) The director of aging shall adopt rules in accordance 17133 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing standards for 17134 certification of living facilities described in division (C)(1) of 17135
this section. 17136

The directors of aging and mental health shall enter into an 17137 agreement to certify facilities that apply for certification and 17138 meet the standards established by the director of aging under this 17139
division. 17140

(E) The county department of job and family services of the 17141 county in which an applicant for the residential state supplement 17142 program resides shall determine whether the applicant meets income 17143 and resource requirements for the program. 17144

(F) The department of aging shall maintain a waiting list of 17145 any individuals eligible for payments under this section but not 17146 receiving them because moneys appropriated to the department for 17147 the purposes of this section are insufficient to make payments to 17148 all eligible individuals. An individual may apply to be placed on 17149 the waiting list even though the individual does not reside in one 17150 of the homes or facilities specified in division (C)(1) of this 17151 section at the time of application. The director of aging, by 17152 rules adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 17153 shall specify procedures and requirements for placing an 17154 individual on the waiting list and priorities for the order in 17155 which individuals placed on the waiting list are to begin to 17156 receive residential state supplement payments. The rules 17157 specifying priorities may give priority to individuals placed on 17158 the waiting list on or after July 1, 2006, who receive 17159 supplemental security income benefits under Title XVI of the 17160

"Social Security Act," 86 Stat. 1475 (1972), 42 U.S.C. 1381, as 17161 amended. The rules shall not affect the place on the waiting list 17162 of any person who was on the list on July 1, 2006. The rules 17163 specifying priorities may also set additional priorities based on 17164 living arrangement, such as whether an individual resides in a 17165 facility listed in division (C)(1) of this section or has been 17166 admitted to a nursing facility. 17167

(G) An individual in a licensed or certified living 17168 arrangement receiving state supplementation on November 15, 1990, 17169 under former section 5101.531 of the Revised Code shall not become 17170 ineligible for payments under this section solely by reason of the 17171 individual's living arrangement as long as the individual remains 17172 in the living arrangement in which the individual resided on 17173 November 15, 1990. 17174

(H) The department of aging shall notify each person denied 17175 approval for payments under this section of the person's right to 17176 a hearing. On request, the hearing shall be provided by the 17177 department of job and family services in accordance with section 17178

Sec. 173.392. (A) The department of aging may pay a person or 17180 government entity for providing community-based long-term care 17181 services under a program the department administers, even though 17182 the person or government entity is not certified under section 17183 173.391 of the Revised Code, if all of the following are the case: 17184

(1) The person or government entity has a contract with the 17185 from the department or its designee to provide the services in 17188 accordance with a grant agreement; 17189

(2) The contract or grant agreement includes detailed 17190

(3) The person or government entity complies with the 17194 contract or grant agreement; 17195

(4) The contract or grant is not for medicaid-funded 17196 services, other than services provided under the PACE program 17197 administered by the department of aging under section 173.50 of 17198
the Revised Code. 17199

(B) The director of aging shall adopt rules in accordance 17200 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing both of the 17201
following: 17202

violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 18735 representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 18736 violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 18737 authorize representative shall request, in writing, the 18749 prosecuting attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other 18750 the court of common pleas may order the construction of sediment 18755 control improvements or implementation of other control measures 18756 and may assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more 18757

partnerships, associations, and corporations in whose names real 18913 property has been listed in each township, municipal corporation, 18914 special district, or separate school district, or part of either 18915 in the auditor's county, placing separately, in appropriate 18916 columns opposite each name, the description of each tract, lot, or 18917 parcel of real estate, the value of each tract, lot, or parcel, 18918 the value of the improvements thereon, and of the names of the 18919 several public utilities whose property, subject to taxation on 18920 department of taxation to the county, and the amount so 18922 apportioned to each township, municipal corporation, special 18923 district, or separate school district or part of either in the 18924 auditor's county, as shown by the certificates of apportionment of 18925 public utility property. If the name of the owner of any tract, 18926 lot, or parcel of real estate is unknown to the auditor, "unknown" 18927 shall be entered in the column of names opposite said tract, lot, 18928 or parcel. Such lists shall be prepared in duplicate. On or before 18929 the first Monday of September in each year, the auditor shall 18930 correct such lists in accordance with the additions and deductions 18931 ordered by the tax commissioner and by the county board of 18932 revision, and shall certify and on the first day of October 18933 deliver one copy thereof to the county treasurer. The copies 18934 prepared by the auditor shall constitute the auditor's general tax 18935 list and treasurer's general duplicate of real and public utility 18936 property for the current year. 18937

Once a permanent parcel numbering system has been established 18938 in any county as provided by the preceding paragraph, such system 18939 shall remain in effect until otherwise agreed upon by the county 18940 auditor and county treasurer. 18941

(2) Upon receiving a written request by affidavit described 18968 in division (B)(1) of this section, the county auditor shall act 18969 within five business days in accordance with the request to remove 18970 the name of the peace officer, parole officer, prosecuting 18971 database and the general tax list of real and public utility 18984 property and the general duplicate of real and public utility 18985 property, if practicable. If the removal and insertion is not 18986 practicable, the county auditor shall verbally or in writing 18987

Sec. 319.301. (A) ~~This~~ The reductions required by division 18994
(D) of this section does do not apply to any of the following: 18995

(1) Taxes levied at whatever rate is required to produce a 18996 specified amount of tax money, including a tax levied under 18997 section 5705.199 or 5705.211 of the Revised Code, or an amount to 18998 pay debt charges; 18999

(2) Taxes levied within the one per cent limitation imposed 19000 by Section 2 of Article XII, Ohio Constitution; 19001

(3) Taxes provided for by the charter of a municipal 19002 corporation. 19003

(B) As used in this section: 19004

(1) "Real property" includes real property owned by a railroad.	19005 19006
(2) "Carryover property" means all real property on the current year's tax list except:	19007 19008
(a) Land and improvements that were not taxed by the district in both the preceding year and the current year;	19009 19010
(b) Land and improvements that were not in the same class in both the preceding year and the current year.	19011 19012
(3) "Effective tax rate" means with respect to each class of property:	19013 19014
(a) The sum of the total taxes that would have been charged and payable for current expenses against real property in that class if each of the district's taxes were reduced for the current year under division (D)(1) of this section without regard to the application of division (E)(3) of this section divided by	19015 19016 19017 19018 19019
(b) The taxable value of all real property in that class.	19020
(4) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and payable prior to any reduction required by section 319.302 of the Revised Code.	19021 19022 19023
(D) With respect to each tax authorized to be levied by each taxing district, the tax commissioner, annually, shall do both of the following:	19030 19031 19032
(1) Determine by what percentage, if any, the sums levied by such tax against the carryover property in each class would have	19033 19034 to be reduced for the tax to levy the same number of dollars 19035 against such property in that class in the current year as were 19036 charged against such property by such tax in the preceding year 19037 subsequent to the reduction made under this section but before the 19038 reduction made under section 319.302 of the Revised Code. In the 19039 case of a tax levied for the first time that is not a renewal of 19040 an existing tax, the commissioner shall determine by what 19041 percentage the sums that would otherwise be levied by such tax 19042 against carryover property in each class would have to be reduced 19043 to equal the amount that would have been levied if the full rate 19044 thereof had been imposed against the total taxable value of such 19045 property in the preceding tax year. A tax or portion of a tax that 19046 is designated a replacement levy under section 5705.192 of the 19047 Revised Code is not a renewal of an existing tax for purposes of 19048 this division. 19049

(2) Certify each percentage determined in division (D)(1) of 19050 this section, as adjusted under division (E) of this section, and 19051 the class of property to which that percentage applies to the 19052 auditor of each county in which the district has territory. The 19053 auditor, after complying with section 319.30 of the Revised Code, 19054 shall reduce the sum to be levied by such tax against each parcel 19055 of real property in the district by the percentage so certified 19056 for its class. Certification shall be made by the first day of 19057 September except in the case of a tax levied for the first time, 19058 in which case certification shall be made within fifteen days of 19059 the date the county auditor submits the information necessary to 19060 make the required determination. 19061

(E)(1) As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "pre-1982 19062 joint vocational taxes" means, with respect to a class of 19063 property, the difference between the following amounts: 19064

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 19065 the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint 19066 vocational school district of which the school district is a part 19067 after making all reductions under this section; 19068

(b) The following percentage of the taxable value of all real 19069 property in that class: 19070

(i) In 1987, five one-hundredths of one per cent; 19071

(ii) In 1988, one-tenth of one per cent; 19072

(iii) In 1989, fifteen one-hundredths of one per cent; 19073

(iv) In 1990 and each subsequent year, two-tenths of one per 19074
cent. 19075

If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds 19076 the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 19077 joint vocational taxes shall be zero. 19078

As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes 19079 charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of 19080 this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or 19081 thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 5705.199 19082
~~or~~, 5705.213, or 5705.219 of the Revised Code. 19083

(2) If in the case of a school district other than a joint 19084 vocational or cooperative education school district any percentage 19085 required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either 19086 class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable 19087 for current expenses to be less than two per cent of the taxable 19088 value of all real property in that class that is subject to 19089 taxation by the district, the commissioner shall determine what 19090 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 19091 payable for current expenses against that class, after all 19092 reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to 19093 equal, when combined with the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes 19094 against that class, the lesser of the following: 19095

(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized 19096

to be levied;	19097
(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the reduction required by this section for that class.	19098 19099 19100
(3)(a) If in the case of a joint vocational school district any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable for current expenses for that class to be less than the designated amount, the commissioner shall determine what percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and payable for current expenses for that class, after all reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal the designated amount. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the reductions required by this section for that class.	19101 19102 19103 19104 19105 19106 19107 19108 19109 19110
(b) As used in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, the designated amount shall equal the taxable value of all real property in the class that is subject to taxation by the district times the lesser of the following:	19111 19112 19113 19114
(i) Two-tenths of one per cent;	19115
(ii) The district's effective rate plus the following percentage for the year indicated:	19116 19117
WHEN COMPUTING THE TAXES CHARGED FOR	ADD THE FOLLOWING PERCENTAGE:	19118 19119
1987	0.025%	19120
1988	0.05%	19121
1989	0.075%	19122
1990	0.1%	19123
1991	0.125%	19124
1992	0.15%	19125
1993	0.175%	19126
1994 and thereafter	0.2%	19127

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate 19128 at which any tax is levied. 19129

(G) The commissioner may order a county auditor to furnish 19130 any information the commissioner needs to make the determinations 19131 required under division (D) or (E) of this section, and the 19132 auditor shall supply the information in the form and by the date 19133 specified in the order. If the auditor fails to comply with an 19134 order issued under this division, except for good cause as 19135 determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall withhold 19136 from such county or taxing district therein fifty per cent of 19137 state revenues to local governments pursuant to section 5747.50 of 19138 the Revised Code or shall direct the department of education to 19139 withhold therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues to school 19140 districts pursuant to ~~Chapter~~ Chapters 3306. and 3317. of the 19141 Revised Code. The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of 19142 such revenues until the county auditor has complied with this 19143 division, and the department shall withhold the distribution of 19144 such revenues until the commissioner has notified the department 19145 that the county auditor has complied with this division. 19146

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction 19147 factor for either class of property in a taxing district located 19148 in more than one county by the last day of November because 19149 information required under division (G) of this section is 19150 unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 19151 tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 19152 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 19153 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 19154 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 19155 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 19156 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 19157 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 19158 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 19159 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 19160 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 19161 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 19162

year. 19163

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 19164 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 19165 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 19166 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 19167
It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 19168 ensuing tax year. 19169

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 19170 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 19171 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 19172 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 19173 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 19174 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 19175 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 19176 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 19177 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 19178 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 19179 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 19180 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 19181 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 19182 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 19183 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 19184

Sec. 319.302. (A)(1) Real property that is not intended 19185 primarily for use in a business activity shall qualify for a 19186 partial exemption from real property taxation. For purposes of 19187 this partial exemption, "business activity" includes all uses of 19188 real property, except farming; leasing property for farming; 19189 occupying or holding property improved with single-family, 19190 two-family, or three-family dwellings; leasing property improved 19191 with single-family, two-family, or three-family dwellings; or 19192 holding vacant land that the county auditor determines will be 19193 used for farming or to develop single-family, two-family, or 19194 three-family dwellings. For purposes of this partial exemption, 19195 "farming" does not include land used for the commercial production 19196 of timber that is receiving the tax benefit under section 5713.23 19197 or 5713.31 of the Revised Code and all improvements connected with 19198 such commercial production of timber. 19199

(2) Each year, the county auditor shall review each parcel of 19200 real property to determine whether it qualifies for the partial 19201 exemption provided for by this section as of the first day of 19202 January of the current tax year. 19203

(B) After complying with section 319.301 of the Revised Code, 19204 the county auditor shall reduce the remaining sums to be levied 19205 against each parcel of real property that is listed on the general 19206 tax list and duplicate of real and public utility property for the 19207 current tax year and that qualifies for partial exemption under 19208 division (A) of this section, and against each manufactured and 19209 mobile home that is taxed pursuant to division (D)(2) of section 19210 4503.06 of the Revised Code and that is on the manufactured home 19211 tax list for the current tax year, by ten per cent, to provide a 19212 partial exemption for that parcel or home. Except as otherwise 19213 provided in sections 323.152, 323.158, 505.06, and 715.263 of the 19214 Revised Code, the amount of the taxes remaining after any such 19215 reduction shall be the real and public utility property taxes 19216 charged and payable on each parcel of real property, including 19217 property that does not qualify for partial exemption under 19218 division (A) of this section, and the manufactured home tax 19219 charged and payable on each manufactured or mobile home, and shall 19220 be the amounts certified to the county treasurer for collection. 19221 Upon receipt of the real and public utility property tax 19222 duplicate, the treasurer shall certify to the tax commissioner the 19223 total amount by which the real property taxes were reduced under 19224 this section, as shown on the duplicate. Such reduction shall not 19225 directly or indirectly affect the determination of the principal 19226 amount of notes that may be issued in anticipation of any tax 19227 levies or the amount of bonds or notes for any planned 19228 improvements. If after application of sections 5705.31 and 5705.32 19229 of the Revised Code and other applicable provisions of law, 19230 including divisions (F) and (I) of section 321.24 of the Revised 19231 Code, there would be insufficient funds for payment of debt 19232 charges on bonds or notes payable from taxes reduced by this 19233 section, the reduction of taxes provided for in this section shall 19234 be adjusted to the extent necessary to provide funds from such 19235 taxes. 19236

(C) The tax commissioner may adopt rules governing the 19237 administration of the partial exemption provided for by this 19238
section. 19239

(D) The determination of whether property qualifies for 19240 partial exemption under division (A) of this section is solely for 19241 the purpose of allowing the partial exemption under division (B) 19242
of this section. 19243

Sec. 319.54. (A) On all moneys collected by the county 19244 treasurer on any tax duplicate of the county, other than estate 19245 tax duplicates, and on all moneys received as advance payments of 19246 personal property and classified property taxes, the county 19247 auditor, on settlement with the treasurer and tax commissioner, on 19248 or before the date prescribed by law for such settlement or any 19249 lawful extension of such date, shall be allowed as compensation 19250 for the county auditor's services the following percentages: 19251

(1) On the first one hundred thousand dollars, two and 19252 one-half per cent; 19253

(2) On the next two million dollars, eight thousand three hundred eighteen ten-thousandths of one per cent;

(3) On the next two million dollars, six thousand six hundred fifty-five ten-thousandths of one per cent;

(4) On all further sums, one thousand six hundred sixty-three ten-thousandths of one per cent.

If any settlement is not made on or before the date prescribed by law for such settlement or any lawful extension of such date, the aggregate compensation allowed to the auditor shall be reduced one per cent for each day such settlement is delayed after the prescribed date. No penalty shall apply if the auditor and treasurer grant all requests for advances up to ninety per cent of the settlement pursuant to section 321.34 of the Revised Code. The compensation allowed in accordance with this section on settlements made before the dates prescribed by law, or the reduced compensation allowed in accordance with this section on settlements made after the date prescribed by law or any lawful extension of such date, shall be apportioned ratably by the auditor and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue payable to the state as well as to the county, townships, municipal corporations, and school districts.

(B) For the purpose of reimbursing county auditors for the expenses associated with the increased number of applications for reductions in real property taxes under sections 323.152 and 4503.065 of the Revised Code that ~~results~~ result from the amendment of those sections by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly, ~~on the first day of August of each year~~ there shall be paid from the state's general revenue fund to the county treasury, to the credit of the real estate assessment fund created by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to one per cent of the total annual amount of property tax relief reimbursement paid to that county under sections 323.156 and made under this division shall be made at the same times and in 19287 the same manner as payments made under section 323.156 of the 19288

Revised Code. 19289

(C) From all moneys collected by the county treasurer on any 19290 tax duplicate of the county, other than estate tax duplicates, and 19291 on all moneys received as advance payments of personal property 19292 and classified property taxes, there shall be paid into the county 19293 treasury to the credit of the real estate assessment fund created 19294 by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount to be determined 19295 by the county auditor, which shall not exceed the percentages 19296 prescribed in divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section. 19297

(1) For payments made after June 30, 2007, and before 2011, 19298 the following percentages: 19299

(a) On the first five hundred thousand dollars, four per 19300
cent; 19301

(b) On the next five million dollars, two per cent; 19302

(c) On the next five million dollars, one per cent; 19303

(d) On all further sums not exceeding one hundred fifty 19304 million dollars, three-quarters of one per cent; 19305

(e) On amounts exceeding one hundred fifty million dollars, 19306 five hundred eighty-five thousandths of one per cent. 19307

(2) For payments made in or after 2011, the following 19308 percentages: 19309

(a) On the first five hundred thousand dollars, four per 19310
cent; 19311

(b) On the next ten million dollars, two per cent; 19312

(c) On amounts exceeding ten million five hundred thousand 19313 dollars, three-fourths of one per cent. 19314

Such compensation shall be apportioned ratably by the auditor 19315 and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue payable to 19316 the state as well as to the county, townships, municipal 19317 corporations, and school districts. 19318

(D) Each county auditor shall receive four per cent of the 19319 amount of tax collected and paid into the county treasury, on 19320 property omitted and placed by the county auditor on the tax 19321 duplicate. 19322

(E) On all estate tax moneys collected by the county 19323 treasurer, the county auditor, on settlement semiannually with the 19324 tax commissioner, shall be allowed, as compensation for the 19325 auditor's services under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code, the 19326 following percentages: 19327

(1) Four per cent on the first one hundred thousand dollars; 19328 use of the general fund of the county. 19332

(F) On all cigarette license moneys collected by the county 19333

(A)(2) of this section, if one-half of the current taxes charged 19759 against an entry of real estate together with the full amount of 19760 any delinquent taxes are not paid on or before the thirty-first 19761 day of December in that year or on or before the last day for 19762 payment as extended pursuant to section 323.17 of the Revised 19763 Code, a penalty of ten per cent shall be charged against the 19764 unpaid balance of such half of the current taxes on the duplicate. 19765
If the total amount of all the taxes is not paid on or before the 19766 twentieth day of June, next thereafter, or on or before the last 19767 day for payment as extended pursuant to section 323.17 of the 19768 Revised Code, a like penalty shall be charged on the balance of 19769 the total amount of such unpaid current taxes. 19770

(2) After a valid delinquent or omitted tax contract that 19771 includes unpaid current taxes from a first-half collection period 19772 described in section 323.12 of the Revised Code has been entered 19773 into under section 323.31 or 5713.20 of the Revised Code, no ten 19774 per cent penalty shall be charged against such taxes after the 19775 second-half collection period while the delinquent or omitted tax 19776 contract remains in effect. On the day a delinquent or omitted tax 19777 contract becomes void, the ten per cent penalty shall be charged 19778 against such taxes and shall equal the amount of penalty that 19779 would have been charged against unpaid current taxes outstanding 19780 on the date on which the second-half penalty would have been 19781 charged thereon under division (A)(1) of this section if the 19782 contract had not been in effect. 19783

(B)(1) On the first day of the month following the last day 19784 the second installment of taxes may be paid without penalty, 19785 interest shall be charged against and computed on all delinquent 19786 taxes other than the current taxes that became delinquent taxes at 19787 the close of the last day such second installment could be paid 19788 without penalty. The charge shall be for interest that accrued 19789 during the period that began on the preceding first day of 19790 December and ended on the last day of the month that included the 19791 last date such second installment could be paid without penalty. 19792
The interest shall be computed at the rate per annum prescribed by 19793 section 5703.47 of the Revised Code and shall be entered as a 19794 separate item on the tax list and duplicate compiled under section 19795
319.28 or 5721.011 of the Revised Code, whichever list and 19796 duplicate are first compiled after the date on which the interest 19797 is computed and charged. However, for tracts and lots on the real 19798 property tax suspension list under section 319.48 of the Revised 19799
Code, the interest shall not be entered on the tax list and 19800 duplicate compiled under section 319.28 of the Revised Code, but 19801 shall be entered on the first tax list and duplicate compiled 19802
under section 5721.011 of the Revised Code after the date on which 19803
the interest is computed and charged. 19804

(2) In a county on behalf of which a county land 19805 reutilization corporation has been organized under Chapter 1724. 19806 of the Revised Code, ~~on~~ upon the written order of the county 19807 treasurer, interest shall be charged against and computed on 19808 delinquent taxes as provided in division (B)(2)(a) or (b) of this 19809 section, as prescribed in the order: 19810

(a) In the manner provided under divisions (B)(1) and (B)(3) 19811 of this section, except that the interest shall be computed at the 19812 rate of twelve per cent per annum; or 19813

(b) On the first day of the ~~first~~ month following the month 19814 in which interest otherwise would be charged in accordance with 19815 division (B)(1) of this section as specified in the order, and 19816 each subsequent month, interest shall be charged against and 19817 computed on all delinquent taxes remaining delinquent on the last 19818 day of the preceding month at a rate of one per cent per month. ~~It~~ 19819 19820

The county treasurer shall file a copy of the order directing 19821 the rate and manner of charging interest under this division with 19822 the county treasurer and the tax commissioner. If interest is 19823 charged under division (B)(2) of this section, interest shall not 19824 be charged under division (B)(1) or (3) of this section. 19825

(3) On the first day of December, the interest shall be 19826 charged against and computed on all delinquent taxes. The charge 19827 shall be for interest that accrued during the period that began on 19828 the first day of the month following the last date prescribed for 19829 the payment of the second installment of taxes in the current year 19830 and ended on the immediately preceding last day of November. The 19831 interest shall be computed at the rate per annum prescribed by 19832 section 5703.47 of the Revised Code and shall be entered as a 19833
separate item on the tax list and duplicate compiled under section 19834
319.28 or 5721.011 of the Revised Code, whichever list and 19835
is computed and charged. However, for tracts and lots on the real 19837 property tax suspension list under section 319.48 of the Revised 19838
duplicate compiled under section 319.28 of the Revised Code, but 19840

(4) After a valid delinquent tax contract has been entered 19844 into for the payment of any delinquent taxes, no interest shall be 19845 charged against such delinquent taxes while the delinquent tax 19846 contract remains in effect in compliance with section 323.31 of 19847 the Revised Code. If a valid delinquent tax contract becomes void, 19848 interest shall be charged against the delinquent taxes for the 19849 periods that interest was not permitted to be charged while the 19850 delinquent tax contract was in effect. The interest shall be 19851 charged on the day the delinquent tax contract becomes void and 19852 shall equal the amount of interest that would have been charged 19853 against the unpaid delinquent taxes outstanding on the dates on 19854 which interest would have been charged thereon under divisions 19855 (B)(1), (2), and (3) of this section had the delinquent tax 19856 contract not been in effect. 19857

(C) If the full amount of the taxes due at either of the 19858 times prescribed by division (A) of this section is paid within 19859 ten days after such time, the county treasurer shall waive the 19860 collection of and the county auditor shall remit one-half of the 19861 penalty provided for in that division for failure to make that 19862 payment by the prescribed time. 19863

(D) The county treasurer shall compile and deliver to the 19864 county auditor a list of all tax payments the treasurer has 19865 received as provided in division (C) of this section. The list 19866 shall include any information required by the auditor for the 19867 remission of the penalties waived by the treasurer. The taxes so 19868 collected shall be included in the settlement next succeeding the 19869 settlement then in process. 19870

Sec. 323.156. (A) Within thirty days after a settlement of 19871 taxes under divisions (A), and (C), ~~and (H)~~ of section 321.24 of 19872 the Revised Code, the county treasurer shall certify to the tax 19873 commissioner one-half of the total amount of taxes on real 19874 property that were reduced pursuant to section 323.152 of the 19875 Revised Code for the preceding tax year, ~~and one-half of the total~~ 19876

~~amount of taxes on manufactured and mobile homes that were reduced~~ 19877
~~pursuant to division (B) of section 323.152 of the Revised Code~~ 19878
~~for the current tax year.~~ The commissioner, within thirty days of 19879 the receipt of such certifications, shall provide for payment to 19880 the county treasurer, from the general revenue fund, of the amount 19881 certified, which shall be credited upon receipt to the county's 19882 undivided income tax fund, and an amount equal to two per cent of 19883
the amount by which taxes were reduced, which shall be credited 19884 upon receipt to the county general fund as a payment, in addition 19885 to the fees and charges authorized by sections 319.54 and 321.26 19886
of the Revised Code, to the county auditor and treasurer for the 19887 costs of administering the exemption provided under sections 19888
323.151 to 323.159 of the Revised Code. 19889

(B) On or before the second Monday in September of each year, 19890 the county treasurer shall certify to the tax commissioner the 19891 total amount by which the manufactured home taxes levied in that 19892 year were reduced pursuant to division (B) of section 323.152 of 19893 the Revised Code, as evidenced by the certificates of reduction 19894 and the tax duplicate certified to the county treasurer by the 19895 county auditor. The commissioner, within ninety days after the 19896 receipt of such certifications, shall provide for payment to the 19897 county treasurer, from the general revenue fund, of the amount 19898 certified, which shall be credited upon receipt to the county's 19899
undivided income tax fund, and an amount equal to two per cent of 19900
the amount by which taxes were reduced, which shall be credited 19901
upon receipt to the county general fund as a payment, in addition 19902
to the fees and charges authorized by sections 319.54 and 321.26 19903
of the Revised Code, to the county auditor and treasurer for the 19904
costs of administering the exemption provided under sections 19905

(C) Immediately upon receipt of funds into the county 19907 undivided income tax fund under this section, the auditor shall 19908 distribute the full amount thereof among the taxing districts in 19909 the county as though the total had been paid as taxes by each 19910 person for whom taxes were reduced under sections 323.151 to 19911

323.159 of the Revised Code. 19912

Sec. 323.73. (A) Except as provided in division (G) of this 19913 section or section 323.78 of the Revised Code, a parcel of 19914 abandoned land that is to be disposed of under this section shall 19915 be disposed of at a public auction scheduled and conducted as 19916 described in this section. At least twenty-one days prior to the 19917 date of the public auction, the clerk of court or sheriff of the 19918 county shall advertise the public auction in a newspaper of 19919 general circulation in the county in which the land is located. 19920
The advertisement shall include the date, time, and place of the 19921 auction, the permanent parcel number of the land if a permanent 19922 parcel number system is in effect in the county as provided in 19923 section 319.28 of the Revised Code or, if a permanent parcel 19924 number system is not in effect, any other means of identifying the 19925 parcel, and a notice stating that the abandoned land is to be sold 19926 subject to the terms of sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised 19927
Code. 19928

(B) The sheriff of the county or a designee of the sheriff 19929 shall conduct the public auction at which the abandoned land will 19930 be offered for sale. To qualify as a bidder, a person shall file 19931 with the sheriff on a form provided by the sheriff a written 19932 acknowledgment that the abandoned land being offered for sale is 19933 to be conveyed in fee simple to the successful bidder. At the 19934 auction, the sheriff of the county or a designee of the sheriff 19935 shall begin the bidding at an amount equal to the total of the 19936 impositions against the abandoned land, plus the costs apportioned 19937 to the land under section 323.75 of the Revised Code. The 19938 abandoned land shall be sold to the highest bidder. The county 19939 sheriff or designee may reject any and all bids not meeting the 19940 minimum bid requirements specified in this division. 19941

(C) Except as otherwise permitted under section 323.74 of the 19942 Revised Code, the successful bidder at a public auction conducted 19943 under this section shall pay the sheriff of the county or a 19944 designee of the sheriff a deposit of at least ten per cent of the 19945 purchase price in cash, or by bank draft or official bank check, 19946 at the time of the public auction, and shall pay the balance of 19947 the purchase price within thirty days after the day on which the 19948 auction was held. Notwithstanding section 321.261 of the Revised 19949 Code, with respect to any proceedings initiated pursuant to 19950 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code, from the total 19951 proceeds arising from the sale, transfer, or redemption of 19952 abandoned land, twenty per cent of such proceeds shall be 19953 deposited to the credit of the delinquent tax and assessment 19954 collection fund to reimburse the fund for costs paid from the fund 19955 for the transfer, redemption, or sale of abandoned land at public 19956 auction. Not more than one-half of the twenty per cent may be used 19957 by the treasurer for community development, nuisance abatement, 19958 foreclosure prevention, demolition, and related services or 19959 distributed by the treasurer to a land reutilization corporation. 19960
The balance of the proceeds, if any, shall be distributed to the 19961 appropriate political subdivisions and other taxing units in 19962 proportion to their respective claims for taxes, assessments, 19963 interest, and penalties on the land. Upon the sale of foreclosed 19964 lands, the clerk of court shall hold any surplus proceeds in 19965 excess of the impositions until the clerk receives an order of 19966 priority and amount of distribution of the surplus that are 19967 adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or receives a 19968 certified copy of an agreement between the parties entitled to a 19969 share of the surplus providing for the priority and distribution 19970 of the surplus. Any party to the action claiming a right to 19971 distribution of surplus shall have a separate cause of action in 19972 the county or municipal court of the jurisdiction in which the 19973 land reposes, provided the board confirms the transfer or 19974 regularity of the sale. Any dispute over the distribution of the 19975 surplus shall not affect or revive the equity of redemption after 19976 the board confirms the transfer or sale. 19977 19978

(D) Upon the sale or transfer of abandoned land pursuant to 19979 this section, the owner's fee simple interest in the land shall be 19980 conveyed to the purchaser. A conveyance under this division is 19981 free and clear of any liens and encumbrances of the parties named 19982 in the complaint for foreclosure attaching before the sale or 19983 transfer, and free and clear of any liens for taxes, except for 19984 federal tax liens and covenants and easements of record attaching 19985 before the sale. 19986

(E) The county board of revision shall reject the sale of 19987 abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a preponderance of 19988 the evidence that the person is delinquent in the payment of taxes 19989 levied by or pursuant to Chapter 307., 322., 324., 5737., 5739., 19990 5741., or 5743. of the Revised Code or any real property taxing 19991 provision of the Revised Code. The board also shall reject the 19992 sale of abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a 19993 preponderance of the evidence that the person is delinquent in the 19994 payment of property taxes on any parcel in the county, or to a 19995 member of any of the following classes of parties connected to 19996 that person: 19997

(1) A member of that person's immediate family; 19998

(2) Any other person with a power of attorney appointed by 19999
that person; 20000

(3) A sole proprietorship owned by that person or a member of 20001 that person's immediate family; 20002

(4) A partnership, trust, business trust, corporation, 20003 association, or other entity in which that person or a member of 20004 that person's immediate family owns or controls directly or 20005 indirectly any beneficial or legal interest. 20006

(F) If the purchase of abandoned land sold pursuant to this 20007 section or section 323.74 of the Revised Code is for less than the 20008 sum of the impositions against the abandoned land and the costs 20009 apportioned to the land under division (A) of section 323.75 of 20010 the Revised Code, then, upon the sale or transfer, all liens for 20011 taxes due at the time the deed of the property is conveyed to the 20012 purchaser following the sale or transfer, and liens subordinate to 20013 liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied and discharged. 20014

(G) If the county board of revision finds that the total of 20015 the impositions against the abandoned land are greater than the 20016 fair market value of the abandoned land as determined by the 20017 auditor's then-current valuation of that land, the board, at any 20018 final hearing under section 323.70 of the Revised Code, may order 20019 the property foreclosed and, without an appraisal or public 20020 auction, order the sheriff to execute a deed to the certificate 20021 holder or county land reutilization corporation that filed a 20022 complaint under section 323.69 of the Revised Code, or to a 20023 community development organization, school district, municipal 20024 corporation, county, or township, whichever is applicable, as 20025 provided in section 323.74 of the Revised Code, ~~except that no~~ 20026 ~~deed shall be transferred to a county land reutilization~~ 20027 ~~corporation after two years following the filing of its articles~~ 20028
~~of incorporation by the secretary of state.~~ Upon a transfer under 20029 this division, all liens for taxes due at the time the deed of the 20030 property is transferred to the certificate holder, community 20031 development organization, school district, municipal corporation, 20032 county, or township following the conveyance, and liens 20033 subordinate to liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied and 20034 discharged. 20035

Sec. 323.74. (A) If a public auction is held for abandoned 20036 land pursuant to section 323.73 of the Revised Code, but the land 20037 is not sold at the public auction, the county board of revision 20038 may order the disposition of the abandoned land in accordance with 20039 division (B) or (C) of this section. 20040

(B) The abandoned land offered for sale at a public auction 20041 as described in section 323.73 of the Revised Code, but not sold 20042 at the auction, may be offered for sale in any usual and customary 20043 manner by the sheriff as otherwise provided by law. The subsequent 20044 public auction may be held in the same manner as the public 20045 auction was held under section 323.73 of the Revised Code, but the 20046 minimum bid at an auction held under this division shall be the 20047 lesser of fifty per cent of fair market value of the abandoned 20048 land as currently shown by the county auditor's latest valuation, 20049 or the sum of the impositions against the abandoned land plus the 20050 costs apportioned to the land under section 323.75 of the Revised 20051 Code. Notice of any subsequent sale pursuant to this section may 20052 be given in the original notice of sale listing the time, date, 20053 and place of the subsequent sale. 20054

(C) Upon certification from the sheriff that abandoned land 20055 was offered for sale at a public auction as described in section 20056 323.73 of the Revised Code but was not purchased, a community 20057 development organization or any school district, municipal 20058 corporation, county, or township in which the land is located may 20059 request that title to the land be transferred to the community 20060 development organization, school district, municipal corporation, 20061 county, or township at the time described in this division. The 20062 request shall be delivered to the board of revision at any time 20063 from the date the complaint for foreclosure is filed under section 20064 323.69 of the Revised Code, but not later than sixty days after 20065 the date on which the land was first offered for sale. ~~A county 20066 land reutilization corporation may not submit such a request, and 20067~~

~~the board of revision shall not accept such a request submitted,~~ 20068
~~after two years following the filing of the corporation's articles~~ 20069
~~of incorporation by the secretary of state.~~ The request shall 20070 include a representation that the organization, district, or 20071 political subdivision, not later than thirty days after receiving 20072 legal title to the abandoned land, will begin basic exterior 20073 improvements that will protect the land from further unreasonable 20074 deterioration. The improvements shall include, but are not limited 20075 to, the removal of trash and refuse from the exterior of the 20076 premises and the securing of open, vacant, or vandalized areas on 20077 the exterior of the premises. The representation shall be deemed 20078 to have been given if the notice is supplied by an electing 20079 subdivision as defined in section 5722.01 of the Revised Code. 20080

(D) The county board of revision, upon any adjudication of 20082 foreclosure and forfeiture against the abandoned land, may order 20083 the sheriff to dispose of the abandoned land as prescribed in 20084 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code, ~~except that no~~ 20085
~~interest in such abandoned lands shall be transferred to a county~~ 20086 ~~land reutilization corporation after two years following the~~ 20087 ~~filing of its articles of incorporation by the secretary of state.~~ 20088
The order by the board shall include instructions to the sheriff 20089 to transfer the land to the specified community development 20090 organization, school district, municipal corporation, county, or 20091 township after payment of the costs of disposing of the abandoned 20092 land pursuant to section 323.75 of the Revised Code or, if any 20093 negotiated price has been agreed to between the county treasurer 20094 and the community development organization, school district, 20095 municipal corporation, county, or township, after payment of that 20096 negotiated price as certified by the board to the sheriff. 20097

(E) Upon receipt of payment under this section, the sheriff 20099 shall convey by sheriff's deed the fee simple interest in, and to, 20100 the abandoned land. If the abandoned land is transferred pursuant 20101 to division (D) of this section and the county treasurer 20102 reasonably determines that the transfer will result in the 20103 property being occupied, the county treasurer may waive, but is 20104 not required to waive, some or all of the impositions against the 20105 abandoned land or costs apportioned to the land under section 20106

323.75 of the Revised Code. 20107

(F) Upon a transfer under this section, all liens for taxes 20108 due at the time the deed of the property is conveyed to a 20109 purchaser or transferred to a community development organization, 20110 school district, municipal corporation, county, or township, and 20111 liens subordinate to liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied 20112 and discharged. 20113

(G) Any parcel that has been advertised and offered for sale 20114 pursuant to foreclosure proceedings and has not sold for want of 20115 bidders or been otherwise transferred under sections 323.65 to 20116 323.79 of the Revised Code shall be forfeited or otherwise 20117 disposed of in the same manner as lands under section 323.25 or 20118 5721.18 or Chapter 5723. of the Revised Code. 20119

Sec. 323.77. (A) As used in this section, "electing 20120 subdivision" has the same meaning as in section 5722.01 of the 20121
Revised Code. 20122

(B) At any time from the date the complaint for foreclosure 20123 is filed under section 323.69 of the Revised Code, but not later 20124 than sixty days after the date on which the land was first offered 20125 for sale, an electing subdivision or a county land reutilization 20126 corporation may give the county treasurer, prosecuting attorney, 20127 or board of revision notice in writing that it seeks to acquire 20128 any parcel of abandoned land, identified by parcel number, from 20129 the abandoned land list. If any such parcel of abandoned land 20130 identified under this section is offered for sale pursuant to 20131 section 323.73 of the Revised Code, but is not sold for want of a 20132 minimum bid, the electing subdivision or a county land 20133 reutilization corporation that identified that parcel of abandoned 20134 land shall be deemed to have appeared at the sale and submitted 20135 the winning bid at the auction, and the parcel of abandoned land 20136 shall be sold to the electing subdivision or corporation for no 20137 consideration other than the costs prescribed in section 323.75 of 20138 the Revised Code or those costs to which the electing subdivision 20139 or corporation and the county treasurer mutually agree. ~~No~~ 20140

~~interest in such abandoned lands shall be transferred to a county~~ 20141
~~land reutilization corporation under this section after two years~~ 20142
~~following the filing of its articles of incorporation by the~~ 20143 ~~secretary of state.~~ The conveyance shall be confirmed, and any 20144 common law or statutory right of redemption forever terminated, 20145 upon the filing with the clerk of court the order of confirmation 20146 based on the adjudication of foreclosure by the county board of 20147 revision, which the clerk shall enter upon the journal of the 20148 court or a separate journal. 20149

If a county land reutilization corporation and an electing 20150 subdivision both request to acquire the parcel, the electing 20151

(C) In contracting with a program under division (A)(5) of this section, a board shall consider the cost effectiveness of	20619 20620 services provided by the program and the program's quality and 20621 continuity of care. The board may review cost elements, including 20622 salary costs, of the services provided by the program. 20623

A utilization review process shall be established as part of 20624 the contract for services. The board may establish this process in 20625 any way that it considers to be the most effective and efficient 20626 in meeting local needs. 20627

(D) If either the board or a program with which it contracts 20628 pursuant to division (A)(5) of this section proposes not to renew 20629 of this period, both parties shall attempt to resolve any dispute 20634 through good faith collaboration and negotiation in order that 20635 services to persons in need will be continued. If the dispute is 20636 not resolved during this time, either party may notify the 20637 department of alcohol and drug addiction services. The department 20638 may require both parties to submit the dispute to a mutually 20639 agreed upon third party with the cost to be shared by the board 20640 and the program. At least twenty days before the expiration of the 20641

section. 20650

(F)(1) With the prior approval of the department, a board of 20651 alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services may operate an 20652 alcohol or drug addiction program as follows if there is no 20653 qualified program that is immediately available, willing to 20654 provide services, and able to obtain certification under Chapter 20655

3793. of the Revised Code: 20656

(a) In an emergency situation, any board may operate a 20657 program in order to provide essential services for the duration of 20658 the emergency; 20659

(b) In a service district with a population of at least one 20660 hundred thousand but less than five hundred thousand, a board may 20661 operate a program for no longer than one year; 20662

(c) In a service district with a population of less than one 20663 hundred thousand, a board may operate a program for no longer than 20664 one year, except that such a board may operate a program for 20665 longer than one year with the prior approval of the department and 20666 the prior approval of the board of county commissioners, or of a 20667 majority of the boards of county commissioners if the district is 20668 a joint-county district. 20669

(2) The department shall not give a board its approval to 20670 operate a program under division (F)(1)(c) of this section unless 20671 it determines that the board's program will provide greater 20672 administrative efficiency and more or better services than would 20673 be available if the board contracted with a program for provision 20674 of the services. 20675

(3) The department shall not give a board its approval to 20676 operate a program previously operated by a public or private 20677 entity unless the board has established to the department's 20678 satisfaction that the entity cannot effectively operate the 20679 program, or that the entity has requested the board to take over 20680 operation of the program. 20681

(4) The department shall review and evaluate the operation of 20682 each program operated by a board under this division. 20683

(5) Nothing in this division authorizes a board to administer 20684 or direct the daily operation of any program other than a program 20685 operated by the board under this division, but a program may 20686 contract with a board to receive administrative services or staff 20687 direction from the board under the direction of the governing body 20688 of the program. 20689

(G) If an investigation conducted pursuant to division 20690
(A)(10) of this section substantiates a charge of abuse or 20691 neglect, the board shall take whatever action it determines is 20692 necessary to correct the situation, including notification of the 20693 appropriate authorities. On request, the board shall provide 20694 information about such investigations to the department. 20695

(H) When the board sets priorities and develops plans for the 20696 operation of alcohol and drug addiction programs under division 20697 (A)(2) of this section, the board shall consult with the county 20698 commissioners of the counties in the board's service district 20699 regarding the services described in section 340.15 of the Revised 20700 Code and shall give a priority to those services, except that 20701 those services shall not have priority over services provided to 20702 pregnant women under programs developed in relation to the mandate 20703 established in section 3793.15 of the Revised Code. The plans 20704 shall identify funds the board and public children services 20705 agencies in the board's service district have available to fund 20706 jointly the services described in section 340.15 of the Revised 20707
Code. 20708

Sec. 343.01. (A) In order to comply with division (B) of 20709 section 3734.52 of the Revised Code, the board of county 20710 commissioners of each county shall do one of the following: 20711

(1) Establish, by resolution, and maintain a county solid 20712 waste management district under this chapter that consists of all 20713

the incorporated and unincorporated territory within the county 20714 except as otherwise provided in division (A) of this section; 20715

(2) With the boards of county commissioners of one or more 20716 other counties establish, by agreement, and maintain a joint solid 20717 waste management district under this chapter that consists of all 20718
the incorporated and unincorporated territory within the counties 20719 forming the joint district except as otherwise provided in 20720 division (A) of this section. 20721

If a municipal corporation is located in more than one solid 20722 waste management district, the entire municipal corporation shall 20723 be considered to be included in and shall be under the 20724 jurisdiction of the district in which a majority of the population 20725 of the municipal corporation resides. 20726

A county and joint district established to comply with 20727 division (B) of section 3734.52 of the Revised Code shall have a 20728 population of not less than one hundred twenty thousand unless, in 20729 the instance of a county district, the board of county 20730 commissioners has obtained an exemption from that requirement 20731 under division (C)(1) or (2) of that section. Each joint district 20732 established to comply with an order issued under division (D) of 20733 that section shall have a population of at least one hundred 20734 twenty thousand. 20735

(B) The boards of county commissioners of the counties 20736 establishing a joint district constitute, collectively, the board 20737 of directors of the joint district, except that if a county with a 20738 form of legislative authority other than a board of county 20739 commissioners participates, it shall be represented on the board 20740 of directors by three persons appointed by the legislative 20741 authority. 20742

The agreement to establish and maintain a joint district 20743 shall be ratified by resolution of the board of county 20744 commissioners of each participating county. Upon ratification, the board of directors shall take control of and manage the joint district subject to this chapter, except that, in the case of a joint district formed pursuant to division (C), (D), or (E) of section 343.012 of the Revised Code, the board of directors shall take control of and manage the district when the formation of the district becomes final under the applicable division. A majority of the board of directors constitutes a quorum, and a majority vote is required for the board to act.

A county participating in a joint district may contribute lands or rights or interests therein, money, other personal property or rights or interests therein, or services to the district. The agreement shall specify any contributions of participating counties and the rights of the participating counties in lands or personal property, or rights or interests therein, contributed to or otherwise acquired by the joint district. The agreement may be amended or added to by a majority vote of the board of directors, but no amendment or addition shall divest a participating county of any right or interest in lands or personal property without its consent.

The board of directors may appoint and fix the compensation of employees of, accept gifts, devises, and bequests for, and take other actions necessary to control and manage the joint district. Employees of the district shall be considered county employees for the purposes of Chapter 124. of the Revised Code and other provisions of state law applicable to employees. Instead of or in addition to appointing employees of the district, the board of directors may agree to use employees of one or more of the participating counties in the service of the joint district and to share in their compensation in any manner that may be agreed upon.

The board of directors shall do one of the following:

- (1) Designate the county auditor, including any other official acting in a capacity similar to a county auditor under a 20777 county charter, of a county participating in the joint district as 20778 the fiscal officer of the district, and the county treasurer, or 20779 other official acting in a capacity similar to a county treasurer 20780 under a county charter, of that county as the treasurer of the 20781 district. The designated county officials shall perform any 20782 applicable duties for the district as each typically performs for 20783 the county of which ~~he~~ the individual is an official, except as 20784 otherwise may be provided in any bylaws or resolutions adopted by 20785 the board of directors. The board of directors may pay to that 20786 county any amount agreed upon by the board of directors and the 20787 board of county commissioners of that county to reimburse that 20788 county for the cost properly allocable to the service of its 20789 officials as fiscal officer and treasurer of the joint district. 20790

(2) Appoint one individual who is neither a county auditor 20791 nor a county treasurer, and who may be an employee of the 20792 district, to serve as both the treasurer of the district and its 20793 fiscal officer. That individual shall act as custodian of the 20794 funds of the board and the district and shall maintain all 20795 accounts of the district. Any reference in this chapter or Chapter 20796 3734. of the Revised Code to a county auditor or county treasurer 20797 serving as fiscal officer of a district or custodian of any funds 20798 of a board or district is deemed to refer to an individual 20799 appointed under division (B)(2) of this section. 20800

The fiscal officer of a district shall establish a general 20801 fund and any other necessary funds for the district. 20802

(C) A board of county commissioners of a county district or 20803 board of directors of a joint district may acquire, by purchase or 20804 lease, construct, improve, enlarge, replace, maintain, and operate 20805 such solid waste collection systems within their respective 20806 districts and such solid waste facilities within or outside their 20807 respective districts as are necessary for the protection of the 20808 public health. A board of county commissioners may acquire within 20809 its county real property or any estate, interest, or right 20810 therein, by appropriation or any other method, for use by a county 20811 or joint district in connection with such facilities. 20812 Appropriation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with 20813 sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code. 20814

(D) The sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering department 20815 of a county maintaining a district and any sanitary engineer or 20816 sanitary engineering department of a county in a joint district, 20817 as determined by the board of directors, in addition to other 20818 duties assigned to that engineer or department, shall assist the 20819 board of county commissioners or directors in the performance of 20820 their duties under this chapter and sections 3734.52 to 3734.575 20821 of the Revised Code and shall be charged with any other duties and 20822 services in relation thereto that the board prescribes. A board 20823 may employ registered professional engineers to assist the 20824 sanitary engineer in those duties and also may employ financial 20825 advisers and any other professional services it considers 20826 necessary to assist it in the construction, financing, and 20827 maintenance of solid waste collection or other solid waste 20828 facilities. Such contracts of employment shall not require the 20829 certificate provided in section 5705.41 of the Revised Code. 20830 Payment for such services may be made from the general fund or any 20831 other fund legally available for that use at times that are agreed 20832 upon or as determined by the board of county commissioners or 20833 directors, and the funds may be reimbursed from the proceeds of 20834 bonds or notes issued to pay the cost of any improvement to which 20835 the services related. 20836

(E)(1) The prosecuting attorney of the county shall serve as 20837 the legal advisor of a county district and shall provide such 20838 services to the board of county commissioners of the district as 20839 are required or authorized to be provided to other county boards 20840 under Chapter 309. of the Revised Code, except that, if the board 20841 considers it to be necessary or appropriate, the board, on its own 20842 initiative, may employ an attorney or other legal counsel on an 20843 annual basis to serve as the legal advisor of the district in 20844 place of the prosecuting attorney. When the prosecuting attorney 20845 is serving as the district's legal advisor and the board considers 20846 it to be necessary or appropriate, the board, on its own 20847 initiative, may employ an attorney or other legal counsel to 20848 represent or advise the board regarding a particular matter in 20849 place of the prosecuting attorney. The employment of an attorney 20850 or other legal counsel on an annual basis or in a particular 20851 matter is not subject to or governed by sections 305.14 and 309.09 20852

of the Revised Code. 20853

Notwithstanding the employment of an attorney or other legal 20854 counsel on an annual basis to serve as the district's legal 20855 advisor, the board may require written opinions or instructions 20856 from the prosecuting attorney under section 309.09 of the Revised 20857 Code in matters connected with its official duties as though the 20858 prosecuting attorney were serving as the legal advisor of the 20859 district. 20860

(2) The board of directors of a joint district may designate 20861 the prosecuting attorney of one of the counties forming the 20862 district to serve as the legal advisor of the district. When so 20863 designated, the prosecuting attorney shall provide such services 20864 to the joint district as are required or authorized to be provided 20865 to county boards under Chapter 309. of the Revised Code. The board 20866 of directors may pay to that county any amount agreed upon by the 20867 board of directors and the board of county commissioners of that 20868 county to reimburse that county for the cost properly allocable to 20869 the services of its prosecuting attorney as the legal advisor of 20870 the joint district. When that prosecuting attorney is so serving 20871 and the board considers it to be necessary or appropriate, the 20872 board, on its own initiative, may employ an attorney or other 20873 legal counsel to represent or advise the board regarding a 20874 particular matter in place of the prosecuting attorney. 20875

Instead of designating the prosecuting attorney of one of the 20876 counties forming the district to be the legal advisor of the 20877 district, the board of directors may employ on an annual basis an 20878 attorney or other legal counsel to serve as the district's legal 20879 advisor. Notwithstanding the employment of an attorney or other 20880 legal counsel as the district's legal advisor, the board of 20881 directors may require written opinions or instructions from the 20882 prosecuting attorney of any of the counties forming the district 20883 in matters connected with the board's official duties, and the 20884 prosecuting attorney shall provide the written opinion or 20885 instructions as though ~~he~~ the prosecuting attorney had been 20886 designated to serve as the district's legal advisor under division 20887 (E)(2) of this section. 20888

(F) A board of county commissioners may issue bonds or bond 20889 anticipation notes of the county to pay the cost of preparing 20890 general and detailed plans and other data required for the 20891 construction of solid waste facilities in connection with a county 20892 or joint district. A board of directors of a joint solid waste 20893 management district may issue bonds or bond anticipation notes of 20894 the joint solid waste management district to pay the cost of 20895 preparing general and detailed plans and other data required for 20896 the construction of solid waste facilities in connection with a 20897 joint district. The bonds and notes shall be issued in accordance 20898 with Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, except that the maximum 20899 maturity of bonds issued for that purpose shall not exceed ten 20900 years. Bond anticipation notes may be paid from the proceeds of 20901 bonds issued either to pay the cost of the solid waste facilities 20902 or to pay the cost of the plans and other data. 20903

(G) To the extent authorized by the solid waste management 20904 plan of the district approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of 20905 the Revised Code or subsequent amended plans of the district 20906 approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.56 of the Revised Code, 20907 the board of county commissioners of a county district or board of 20908 directors of a joint district may adopt, publish, and enforce 20909 rules doing any of the following: 20910

(1) Prohibiting or limiting the receipt of solid wastes 20911 generated outside the district or outside a service area 20912 prescribed in the solid waste management plan or amended plan, at 20913 facilities ~~covered by the plan~~ located within the solid waste 20914 management district, consistent with the projections contained in 20915 the plan or amended plan under divisions (A)(6) and (7) of section 20916 3734.53 of the Revised Code, ~~except that.~~ However, rules adopted 20917 by a board under division (G)(1) of this section may be adopted 20918 and enforced with respect to solid waste disposal facilities in 20919 the solid waste management district that are not owned by a county 20920 or the solid waste management district only if the board submits 20921 an application to the director of environmental protection that 20922 demonstrates that there is insufficient capacity to dispose of all 20923 solid wastes that are generated within the district at the solid 20924 waste disposal facilities located within the district and the 20925 director approves the application. The demonstration in the 20926 application shall be based on projections contained in the plan or 20927 amended plan of the district. The director shall establish the 20928 form of the application. The approval or disapproval of such an 20929 application by the director is an action that is appealable under 20930
section 3745.04 of the Revised Code. 20931

In addition, the director of environmental protection may 20932 issue an order modifying a rule adopted under division (G)(1) of 20933 this section to allow the disposal in the district of solid wastes 20934 from another county or joint solid waste management district if 20935 all of the following apply: 20936

(a) The district in which the wastes were generated does not 20937 have sufficient capacity to dispose of solid wastes generated 20938 within it for six months following the date of the director's 20939 order; 20940

(b) No new solid waste facilities will begin operation during 20941 those six months in the district in which the wastes were 20942 generated and, despite good faith efforts to do so, it is 20943 impossible to site new solid waste facilities within the district 20944 because of its high population density; 20945

(c) The district in which the wastes were generated has made 20946 good faith efforts to negotiate with other districts to 20947 incorporate its disposal needs within those districts' solid waste 20948 management plans, including efforts to develop joint facilities 20949 authorized under section 343.02 of the Revised Code, and the 20950 efforts have been unsuccessful; 20951

(d) The district in which the wastes were generated has 20952 located a facility willing to accept the district's solid wastes 20953 for disposal within the receiving district; 20954

(e) The district in which the wastes were generated has 20955 demonstrated to the director that the conditions specified in 20956 divisions (G)(1)(a) to (d) of this section have been met; 20957

(f) The director finds that the issuance of the order will be 20958 consistent with the state solid waste management plan and that 20959 receipt of the out-of-district wastes will not limit the capacity 20960 of the receiving district to dispose of its in-district wastes to 20961 less than eight years. 20962

Any order issued under division (G)(1) of this section shall not 20963 become final until thirty days after it has been served by 20964 certified mail upon the county or joint solid waste management 20965 district that will receive the out-of-district wastes. 20966

(2) Governing the maintenance, protection, and use of solid 20967 waste collection or other solid waste facilities located within 20968 its district. The rules adopted under division (G)(2) of this 20969 section shall not establish design standards for solid waste 20970 facilities and shall be consistent with the solid waste provisions 20971 of Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code and the rules adopted under 20972 those provisions. The rules adopted under division (G)(2) of this 20973 section may prohibit any person, municipal corporation, township, 20974 or other political subdivision from constructing, enlarging, or 20975 modifying any solid waste facility until general plans and 20976 specifications for the proposed improvement have been submitted to 20977 and approved by the board of county commissioners or board of 20978 directors as complying with the solid waste management plan or 20979 amended plan of the district. The construction of such a facility 20980 shall be done under the supervision of the county sanitary 20981 engineer or, in the case of a joint district, a county sanitary 20982 engineer designated by the board of directors, and any person, 20983 municipal corporation, township, or other political subdivision 20984 proposing or constructing such improvements shall pay to the 20985 county or joint district all expenses incurred by the board in 20986 connection therewith. The sanitary engineer may enter upon any 20987 public or private property for the purpose of making surveys or 20988 examinations necessary for designing solid waste facilities or for 20989 supervising the construction, enlargement, modification, or 20990 operation of any such facilities. No person, municipal 20991 corporation, township, or other political subdivision shall forbid 20992 or interfere with the sanitary engineer or ~~his~~ the sanitary 20993 engineer's authorized assistants entering upon such property for 20994 that purpose. If actual damage is done to property by the making 20995 of the surveys and examinations, a board shall pay the reasonable 20996 value of that damage to the owner of the property damaged, and the 20997 cost shall be included in the financing of the improvement for 20998 which the surveys and examinations are made. 20999

(3) Governing the development and implementation of a program 21000 for the inspection of solid wastes generated outside the 21001 boundaries of this state that are disposed of at solid waste 21002 facilities included in the district's solid waste management plan 21003 or amended plan. A board of county commissioners or board of 21004 directors or its authorized representative may enter upon the 21005 premises of any solid waste facility included in the district's 21006 solid waste management plan or amended plan for the purpose of 21007 conducting the inspections required or authorized by the rules 21008 adopted under division (G)(3) of this section. No person, 21009 municipal corporation, township, or other political subdivision 21010 shall forbid or interfere with a board of county commissioners or 21011 directors or its authorized representative entering upon the 21012 premises of any such solid waste facility for that purpose. 21013

(4) Exempting the owner or operator of any existing or 21014 proposed solid waste facility provided for in the plan or amended 21015

(B) The board of directors of a convention facilities 21407 authority that has been authorized pursuant to resolution adopted, 21408 amended, or supplemented by the board of county commissioners 21409 pursuant to division (A) of this section may levy, by resolution 21410 adopted on or before December 31, 1988, either or both of the 21411
following: 21412

(1) Within the territory of the authority, an additional 21413 excise tax not to exceed four per cent on each transaction. The 21414 excise tax authorized by division (B)(1) of this section shall be 21415 in addition to any excise tax levied pursuant to section 5739.08 21416 or 5739.09 of the Revised Code, or division (B)(2) of this 21417

section. 21418

(2) Within that portion of any municipal corporation that is 21419 located within the territory of the authority or within the 21420 boundaries of any township that is located within the territory of 21421 the authority, which municipal corporation or township is levying 21422 any portion of the excise tax authorized by division (A) of 21423 section 5739.08 of the Revised Code, and with the approval, by 21424 ordinance or resolution, of the legislative authority of that 21425 municipal corporation or township, an additional excise tax not to 21426 exceed nine-tenths of one per cent on each transaction. The excise 21427 tax authorized by division (B)(2) of this section may be levied 21428 only if, on the effective date of the levy specified in the 21429 resolution making the levy, the amount being levied pursuant to 21430 division (A) of section 5739.08 of the Revised Code by each 21431 municipal corporation or township in which the tax authorized by 21432 division (B)(2) of this section will be levied, when added to the 21433 amount levied under division (B)(2) of this section, does not 21434 exceed three per cent on each transaction. The excise tax 21435 authorized by division (B)(2) of this section shall be in addition 21436 to any excise tax that is levied pursuant to section 5739.08 or 21437 5739.09 of the Revised Code, or division (B)(1) of this section. 21438

(C)(1) The board of directors of a convention facilities 21439 authority that is located in an eligible Appalachian county; that 21440 has been authorized pursuant to resolution adopted, amended, or 21441 supplemented by the board of county commissioners pursuant to 21442 division (A) of this section; and that is not levying a tax under 21443 division (B)(1) or (2) of this section may levy within the 21444 territory of the authority, by resolution adopted on or before 21445

December 31, 2005, an additional excise tax not to exceed three 21446 per cent on each transaction. The excise tax authorized under 21447 division (C)(1) of this section shall be in addition to any excise 21448 tax levied pursuant to section 5739.08 or 5739.09 of the Revised 21449
Code. 21450

~~(2)~~ As used in division (C)(1) of this section, "eligible 21451 Appalachian county" means a county in this state designated as 21452 being in the "Appalachian region" under the "Appalachian Regional 21453 Development Act of 1965," 79 Stat. 4, 40 U.S.C. App. 403, and 21454 having a population less than eighty thousand according to the 21455 most recent federal decennial census. 21456

(2) Division (B)(2) of this section applies only to a 21457 convention facilities authority located in a county with a 21458 population, according to the 2000 federal decennial census, of at 21459 least one hundred thirty-five thousand and not more than one 21460 hundred fifty thousand and containing entirely within its 21461 boundaries the territory of a municipal corporation with a 21462 population according to that census of more than fifty thousand. 21463
The board of directors of such a convention facilities authority, 21464 by resolution adopted on or before November 1, 2009, may levy 21465 within the territory of the authority an excise tax on 21466 transactions by which lodging by a hotel is or is to be furnished 21467 to transient guests at a rate not to exceed three per cent on such 21468 transactions for the same purposes for which a tax may be levied 21469 under division (B) of this section. The resolution may be adopted 21470 only if the board of county commissioners of the county, by 21471 resolution, authorizes the levy of the tax. The resolution of the 21472 board of county commissioners is subject to referendum as 21473 prescribed by sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code. If, 21474 pursuant to those procedures, a referendum is to be held, the 21475 board's resolution does not take effect until approved by a 21476 majority of electors voting on the question. The convention 21477 facilities authority may adopt the resolution authorized by 21478 division (C)(2) of this section before the election, but the 21479 authority's resolution shall not take effect if the board of 21480 commissioners' resolution is not approved at the election. A tax 21481 levied under division (C)(2) of this section is in addition to any 21482 tax levied under section 5739.09 of the Revised Code. 21483

(D) The authority shall provide for the administration and 21485 allocation of an excise tax levied pursuant to division (B) or (C) 21486 of this section. All receipts arising from those excise taxes 21487 shall be expended for the purposes provided in, and in accordance 21488 with this section and section 351.141 of the Revised Code. An 21489 excise tax levied under division (B) or (C) of this section shall 21490 remain in effect at the rate at which it is levied for at least 21491 the duration of the period for which the receipts from the tax 21492 have been anticipated and pledged pursuant to section 351.141 of 21493
the Revised Code. 21494

(E) Except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section, 21495 the levy of an excise tax on each transaction pursuant to sections 21496 5739.08 and 5739.09 of the Revised Code does not prevent a 21497 convention facilities authority from levying an excise tax 21498 pursuant to division (B) or (C) of this section. 21499

Sec. 504.21. (A) The board of township trustees of a township 21500 that has adopted a limited home rule government may, for the 21501 unincorporated territory in the township, adopt, amend, and 21502 rescind rules establishing technically feasible and economically 21503 reasonable standards to achieve a level of management and 21504 conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion of 21505 the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 21506 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 21507 filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 21508 developed in the township for nonfarm commercial, industrial, 21509 residential, or other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for 21510 determination of the acceptability of those management and 21511 conservation practices. The rules shall be designed to implement 21512 the applicable areawide waste treatment management plan prepared 21513 under section 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 21514 Stat. 816 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement 21515 phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant 21516 discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. 21517

The rules to implement phase II of the storm water program of the 21518 national pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be 21519 inconsistent with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than 21520 the rules or regulations adopted by the environmental protection 21521 agency under 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this 21522 section shall not apply inside the limits of municipal 21523 corporations, to lands being used in a strip mine operation as 21524 defined in section 1513.01 of the Revised Code, or to land being 21525 used in a surface mine operation as defined in section 1514.01 of 21526
the Revised Code. 21527

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 21528 file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 21529 management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 21530 otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 21531 acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 21532 unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 21533 utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 21534 the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 21535
following: 21536

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 21537 agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 21538

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and 21539 approval or disapproval of the plans; 21540

(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits;

(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the denial of a permit.

Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit processing, and field inspections.

No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ resources in the department of natural resources.

(C) The board of township trustees may employ personnel to assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 21572 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 21573 management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 21574 with one or more political subdivisions, other township officials, 21575 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 21576 obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 21577 sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 21578 for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 21579

(D) The board of township trustees or any duly authorized 21580 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 21581 or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 21582 the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 21583 whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 21584 section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 21585 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 21586 may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 21587 county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 21588 inspection warrant as necessary to achieve the purposes of this 21589
section. 21590

(E)(1) If the board of township trustees or its duly 21591 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 21592 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 21593 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 21594 obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 21595 and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 21596 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 21597 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 21598 violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 21599
representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 21600
violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 21601 elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 21602 violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 21603 representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 21604 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 21605 not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 21606 the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 21607 or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 21608 after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 21609 attorney of the county in which the township is located if, in the 21610 opinion of the prosecuting attorney, the violation is egregious. 21611

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 21612 authorized representative shall request, in writing, the 21613 prosecuting attorney to seek an injunction or other appropriate 21614 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 21615 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules adopted under 21616 this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an injunction or 21617 other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, the court of 21618 common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 21619 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 21620 assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 21621 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop work 21622 order issued under this section shall be considered a separate 21623 violation subject to a civil fine. 21624

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this 21625 section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the 21626 county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other 21627 appropriate relief from that order. 21628

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section 21629 against any public highway, transportation, or drainage 21630 improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government 21631 agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of 21632 its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the 21633 board or the chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ 21634 resources in the department of natural resources. 21635

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 21636 under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 21637 if the board of township trustees determines that a violation of 21638 any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this section 21639 exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 21640 attorney of the county in which the township is located, to seek 21641 an injunction or other appropriate relief in the court of common 21642 pleas to abate excessive erosion or sedimentation and secure 21643 compliance with the rules or order. In granting relief, the court 21644 of common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 21645 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 21646
assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 21647 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule adopted or 21648 administrative order issued under this section shall be considered 21649 a separate violation subject to a civil fine. 21650

Sec. 505.82. (A) If a board of township trustees by a 21651 unanimous vote or, in the event of the unavoidable absence of one 21652 trustee, by an affirmative vote of two trustees adopts a 21653 resolution declaring that an emergency exists that threatens life 21654 or property within the unincorporated territory of the township or 21655 that such an emergency is imminent, the board may exercise the 21656 powers described in divisions (A)(1) and (2) and (B) of this 21657 section during the emergency for a period of time not exceeding 21658 six months following the adoption of the resolution. The 21659 resolution shall state the specific time period for which the 21660 emergency powers are in effect. 21661

(1) If an owner of an undedicated road or stream bank in the 21662 unincorporated territory of the township has not provided for the 21663 removal of snow, ice, debris, or other obstructions from the road 21664 or bank, the board may provide for that removal. Prior to 21665 providing for the removal, the board shall give, or make a good 21666 faith attempt to give, oral notice to the owner or owners of the 21667 road or bank of the board's intent to clear the road or bank and 21668 to impose a service charge for doing so. The board shall establish 21669 just and equitable service charges for the removal to be paid, 21670 except as provided in division (B) of this section, by the owners 21671 of the road or bank. 21672

The board shall keep a record of the costs incurred by the 21673 township in removing snow, ice, debris, or other obstructions from 21674 the road or bank. The service charges shall be based on these 21675 costs and shall be in an amount sufficient to recover these costs. 21676
If there is more than one owner of the road or bank, the board, 21677 except as provided in division (B) of this section, shall allocate 21678 the service charges among the owners on an equitable basis. The 21679 board shall notify, in writing, each owner of the road or bank of 21680 the amount of the service charges and shall certify the charges to 21681 the county auditor. The service charges shall constitute a lien 21682 upon the property. The auditor shall place the service charges on 21683 a special duplicate to be collected as other taxes and returned to 21684 the township general fund. 21685

(2) The board may contract for the immediate acquisition, 21686 replacement, or repair of equipment needed for the emergency 21687 situation, without following the competitive bidding requirements 21688 of section 5549.21 or any other section of the Revised Code. 21689

(B) In lieu of collecting service charges from owners for the 21690 removal of snow or ice from an undedicated road by the board of 21691 township trustees as provided in division (A)(1) of this section, 21692 the board may enter into a contract with a developer whereby the 21693 developer agrees to pay the service charges for the snow and ice 21694 removal instead of the owners. 21695

(C) The removal of snow, ice, debris, or other obstructions 21696 from an undedicated road by a board of township trustees acting 21697 pursuant to a resolution adopted under division (A) of this 21698 section does not constitute approval or acceptance of the 21699

undedicated road. 21700

(D) As used in this section, "undedicated road" means a road 21701 that has not been approved and accepted by the board of county 21702 commissioners and is not a part of the state, county, or township 21703 road systems as provided in section 5535.01 of the Revised Code. 21704

(E) Nothing in this section shall be construed to waive the 21705 requirement under section ~~1517.16~~ 1547.82 of the Revised Code that 21706 approval of plans be obtained from the director of natural 21707 resources or the director's representative prior to modifying or 21708 causing the modification of the channel of any watercourse in a 21709 wild, scenic, or recreational river area outside the limits of a 21710 municipal corporation. 21711

Sec. 711.001. As used in this chapter: 21712

(A) "Plat" means a map of a tract or parcel of land. 21713

(B) "Subdivision" means either of the following: 21714

(1) The division of any parcel of land shown as a unit or as 21715 contiguous units on the last preceding general tax list and 21716 duplicate of real and public utility property, into two or more 21717 parcels, sites, or lots, any one of which is less than five acres 21718 for the purpose, whether immediate or future, of transfer of 21719 ownership, provided, however, that the following are exempt: 21720

(a) A division or partition of land into parcels of more than 21721 five acres not involving any new streets or easements of access; 21722

(b) The sale or exchange of parcels between adjoining lot 21723 owners, where that sale or exchange does not create additional 21724 building sites; 21725

(c) If the planning authority adopts a rule in accordance 21726 with section 711.133 of the Revised Code that exempts from 21727 division (B)(1) of this section any parcel of land that is four 21728 acres or more, parcels in the size range delineated in that rule. 21729

(C) "Household sewage treatment system" has the same meaning as in section 3709.091 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 711.05. (A) Upon the submission of a plat for approval, in accordance with section 711.041 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners shall certify on it the date of the submission. Within five days of submission of the plat, the board shall schedule a meeting to consider the plat and send a written notice by regular mail to the fiscal officer of the board of township trustees of the township in which the plat is located and the board of health of the health district in which the plat is located. The notice shall inform the trustees and the board of health of the submission of the plat and of the date, time, and location of any meeting at which the board of county commissioners will consider or act upon the proposed plat. The meeting shall take place within thirty days of submission of the plat, and no meeting shall be held until at least seven days have passed from the date the notice was sent by the board of county commissioners. The approval of the board required by section 711.041 of the Revised Code or the refusal to approve shall take place within thirty days from the date of submission or such further time as the applying party may agree to in writing; otherwise, the plat is deemed approved and may be recorded as if bearing such approval.

The rules may require the board of health to review and comment on a plat before the board of county commissioners acts upon it and may also require proof of compliance with any applicable zoning resolutions, and with rules governing household sewage treatment ~~rules adopted under section 3718.02 of the Revised Code~~ systems, as a basis for approval of a plat. Where under section 711.101 of the Revised Code the board of county commissioners has set up standards and specifications for the construction of streets, utilities, and other improvements for common use, the general rules may require the submission of appropriate plans and specifications for approval. The board shall not require the person submitting the plat to alter the plat or any part of it as a condition for approval, as long as the plat is in accordance with general rules governing plats and subdivisions of land, adopted by the board as provided in this section, in effect at the time the plat was submitted and the plat is in accordance with any standards and specifications set up under section 711.101 of the Revised Code, in effect at the time the plat was submitted.

(C) The ground of refusal to approve any plat, submitted in accordance with section 711.041 of the Revised Code, shall be stated upon the record of the board, and, within sixty days thereafter, the person submitting any plat that the board refuses to approve may file a petition in the court of common pleas of the county in which the land described in the plat is situated to review the action of the board. A board of township trustees is not entitled to appeal a decision of the board of county commissioners under this section.

Sec. 711.10. (A) Whenever a county planning commission or a regional planning commission adopts a plan for the major streets or highways of the county or region, no plat of a subdivision of land within the county or region, other than land within a municipal corporation or land within three miles of a city or one and one-half miles of a village as provided in section 711.09 of the Revised Code, shall be recorded until it is approved by the county or regional planning commission under division (C) of this section and the approval is endorsed in writing on the plat.

division (C) of this section. 21825

(C) Within five calendar days after the submission of a plat 21826 for approval under this division, the county or regional planning 21827 commission shall schedule a meeting to consider the plat and send 21828 a notice by regular mail or by electronic mail to the fiscal 21829 officer of the board of township trustees of the township in which 21830 the plat is located and the board of health of the health district 21831 in which the plat is located. The notice shall inform the trustees 21832 and the board of health of the submission of the plat and of the 21833 date, time, and location of any meeting at which the county or 21834 regional planning commission will consider or act upon the plat. 21835
The meeting shall take place within thirty calendar days after 21836 submission of the plat, and no meeting shall be held until at 21837 least seven calendar days have passed from the date the planning 21838 commission sent the notice. 21839

The approval of the county or regional planning commission, 21840 the commission's conditional approval as described in this 21841 division, or the refusal of the commission to approve shall be 21842 endorsed on the plat within thirty calendar days after the 21843 submission of the plat for approval under this division or within 21844 such further time as the applying party may agree to in writing; 21845 otherwise that plat is deemed approved, and the certificate of the 21846 commission as to the date of the submission of the plat for 21847 approval under this division and the failure to take action on it 21848 within that time shall be sufficient in lieu of the written 21849 endorsement or evidence of approval required by this division. 21850

A county or regional planning commission may grant 21851 conditional approval under this division to a plat by requiring a 21852 person submitting the plat to alter the plat or any part of it, 21853 within a specified period after the end of the thirty calendar 21854 days, as a condition for final approval under this division. Once 21855 all the conditions have been met within the specified period, the 21856 commission shall cause its final approval under this division to 21857 section, is concerned. Approval of a plat shall not be an 21908 acceptance by the public of the dedication of any street, highway, 21909 or other way or open space shown upon the plat. 21910

No county or regional planning commission shall require a 21911 person submitting a plat to alter the plat or any part of it as 21912 long as the plat is in accordance with the general rules governing 21913 plats and subdivisions of land, adopted by the commission as 21914 whichever method of calculation yields the largest amount. 22490

(A)(1) A penalty required to be paid under this section may 22491 be calculated as follows: 22492

(a) Five dollars for each percentage point of total nitrogen 22493 or phosphorus in the fertilizer that is below the percentage of 22494 nitrogen or phosphorus guaranteed on the label, multiplied by the 22495 number of tons of mislabeled fertilizer that have been sold to the 22496 consumer; 22497

(b) Three dollars for each percentage point of potash in the 22498 fertilizer that is below the percentage of potash guaranteed on 22499 the label, multiplied by the number of tons of mislabeled 22500 fertilizer that have been sold to the consumer. 22501

(2) In the case of a fertilizer that contains a quantity of 22502 nitrogen, phosphorus, or potash that is more than five percentage 22503 points below the percentages guaranteed on the label, the 22504 penalties calculated under division (A)(1) of this section shall 22505 be tripled. 22506

(3) No penalty calculated under division (A) of this section 22507 shall be less than twenty-five dollars. 22508

(B) A penalty required to be paid under this section may be 22509 calculated by multiplying the market value of one unit of the 22510 mislabeled fertilizer by the number of units of the mislabeled 22511

(C) Upon making a determination under this section that a 22513 person has mislabeled fertilizer or mixed fertilizer, the director 22514 shall determine the parties to whom the penalty imposed by this 22515 section is required to be paid and, in accordance with division 22516 (A) or (B) of this section, as applicable, shall calculate the 22517 amount of the penalty required to be paid to each such party. 22518 After completing those determinations and calculations, the 22519 director shall issue to the person who allegedly mislabeled the 22520 fertilizer or mixed fertilizer a notice of violation. The notice 22521 shall be accompanied by an order requiring, and specifying the 22522 manner of, payment of the penalty imposed by this section to the 22523 parties in the amounts set forth in the determinations and 22524 calculations required by this division. The order shall be issued 22525 licensing the establishment with the department of agriculture. 22814 department may make application therefor on forms provided by the 22816 department. If after inspection the director of agriculture finds 22817 establishment licensed under division (A) of this section is 22837 operating in violation of this chapter or the rules adopted _ 22838 thereunder, the director shall notify the licensee in writing of 22839 the violation and give the licensee ten days from the date of 22840 notice to cease or correct the conditions causing the violation. 22841

If the conditions causing the violation continue after the 22842 expiration of the ten-day period, the director may do either of 22843
the following: 22844

(1) Impose progressive enforcement actions as provided in 22845 division (D)(1) of this section in the same manner as inspectors; 22846

(2) Suspend or revoke the establishment's license in 22847 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 22848

(D)(1) If an inspector determines that an establishment 22849 licensed under division (A) of this section is operating in 22850 violation of sections 918.01 to 918.12 of the Revised Code and 22851 rules adopted under those sections, the inspector may notify the 22852 licensee in writing of the violation. The inspector immediately 22853 may impose progressive enforcement actions, including withholding 22854
the mark of inspection, suspension of inspection, suspension of 22855 inspection held in abeyance, and withdrawal of inspection. The 22856 progressive enforcement actions may be taken prior to affording 22857
the licensee an opportunity for a hearing. As authorized in 22858 division (C) of section 119.06 of the Revised Code, a decision to 22859 impose a progressive enforcement action is immediately appealable 22860 to a higher authority within the department who is classified by 22861
the director as a district supervisor and who is designated by the 22862 director to hear the appeal. If the district supervisor affirms 22863 the enforcement action of the inspector, the licensee may appeal 22864
the enforcement action in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 22865
Revised Code. 22866

(2) As used in division (D)(1) of this section, "suspension 22867 of inspection held in abeyance" means a period of time during 22868 which a suspension of inspection is lifted because an 22869 establishment has presented the director with a corrective action 22870

plan that, if implemented properly, would bring the establishment 22871 into compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it. 22872

(E) If in the opinion of the director the establishment is 22873 being operated under such insanitary conditions as to be a hazard 22874 to public health, or if the director determines that an 22875 establishment is not in compliance with its hazard analysis 22876 critical control point plan as required by rules, the director may 22877 condemn or retain the product on hand and immediately withdraw 22878 inspection from the establishment until the insanitary conditions 22879 are corrected or until the establishment is in compliance with its 22880 hazard analysis critical control point plan, as applicable. The 22881 director may take those actions prior to an adjudication hearing 22882 as required under section 119.06 of the Revised Code. The director 22883 subsequently shall afford a hearing upon the request of the owner 22884 or operator of the establishment. 22885

(F) Any person operating an establishment as defined in 22886 section 918.01 of the Revised Code who also operates on the same 22887 premises an establishment as defined in section 918.21 of the 22888 Revised Code shall apply either for licensure under section 918.08 22889 of the Revised Code or for licensure under section 918.28 of the 22890 Revised Code, but not for both, as the director shall determine. 22891

(G) If the director determines that the owner or operator of 22892 or any person employed by an establishment licensed under division 22893
(A) of this section forcibly assaulted, resisted, opposed, 22894 impeded, intimidated, or interfered with any person while that 22895 person was engaged in, or because of the person's performance of, 22896 official duties under sections 918.01 to 918.12 of the Revised 22897 Code or the rules adopted under those sections, the director 22898 immediately may withdraw inspection from the establishment prior 22899 to an adjudication hearing as required under section 119.06 of the 22900
Revised Code. 22901

(H) In addition to any remedies provided by law and 22902 irrespective of whether or not there exists an adequate remedy at 22903 law, the director may apply to the court of common pleas of the 22904 county in which a violation of sections 918.01 to 918.12 of the 22905 Revised Code or rules adopted under those sections occurs for a 22906 temporary or permanent injunction or other appropriate relief 22907 concerning the violation. 22908

Sec. 918.28. (A) Except as provided in division (F) of 22909 section 918.08 of the Revised Code, application for a license to 22910 operate an establishment shall be made to the director of 22911 agriculture on forms provided by the department of agriculture. 22912
The director shall inspect the establishment and if, upon 22913 inspection, the establishment is found to be in compliance with 22914 this chapter and rules adopted under it, the director shall so 22915 notify the owner of the establishment and, upon receipt of the 22916 annual license fee of ~~fifty~~ one hundred dollars, shall issue the 22917 owner a license. However, if after inspection the director finds 22918 that an establishment is not in compliance with this chapter and 22919 rules adopted under it, the director shall deny the license 22920 application. The applicant may appeal the denial of the license 22921 application in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 22922
The license shall expire on the thirty-first day of March of each 22923 year and, if the director finds that the establishment is in 22924 compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it, shall be 22925 renewed according to the standard renewal procedures of sections 22926
4745.01 to 4745.03 of the Revised Code. 22927

(B) If after inspection the director determines that an 22928 establishment licensed under this section is operating in 22929 violation of this chapter or a rule or order adopted or issued 22930 under authority thereof, the director shall notify the licensee in 22931 writing of the violation, giving the licensee ten days from the 22932 date of the notice to correct the conditions causing the 22933 violation. If the conditions are not corrected within the ten-day 22934 period, the director may do either of the following: 22935

(1) Impose progressive enforcement actions as provided in 22936 division (C)(1) of this section in the same manner as inspectors; 22937

(2) Suspend or revoke the license in accordance with Chapter 22938
119. of the Revised Code. 22939

(C)(1) If an inspector determines that an establishment 22940 licensed under division (A) of this section is operating in 22941 violation of sections 918.21 to 918.31 of the Revised Code and 22942
rules adopted under those sections, the inspector may notify the 22943
licensee in writing of the violation. The inspector immediately 22944
may impose progressive enforcement actions, including withholding 22945
the mark of inspection, suspension of inspection, suspension of 22946 inspection held in abeyance, and withdrawal of inspection. The 22947 progressive enforcement actions may be taken prior to affording 22948
the licensee an opportunity for a hearing. As authorized in 22949 division (C) of section 119.06 of the Revised Code, a decision to 22950
impose a progressive enforcement action is immediately appealable 22951 to a higher authority within the department who is classified by 22952
the director as a district supervisor and who is designated by the 22953 director to hear the appeal. If the district supervisor affirms 22954
the enforcement action of the inspector, the licensee may appeal 22955
the enforcement action in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 22956
Revised Code. 22957

(2) As used in division (C)(1) of this section, "suspension 22958 of inspection held in abeyance" means a period of time during 22959
which a suspension of inspection is lifted because an 22960
establishment has presented the director with a corrective action 22961
plan that, if implemented properly, would bring the establishment 22962
into compliance with this chapter and rules adopted under it. 22963

(D) If in the opinion of the director the establishment is 22964

to public health, or if the director determines that an 22966
establishment is not in compliance with its hazard analysis 22967
critical control point plan as required by rules, the director may 22968 condemn or retain the product on hand and immediately withdraw 22969 inspection from the establishment until such time as the 22970 insanitary conditions are corrected or until the establishment is 22971 in compliance with its hazard analysis critical control point 22972 plan, as applicable. 22973

(E) If the director determines that the owner or operator of 22974 or any person employed by an establishment licensed under division 22975
(A) of this section forcibly assaulted, resisted, opposed, 22976
impeded, intimidated, or interfered with any person while that 22977 person was engaged in, or because of the person's performance of, 22978
official duties under sections 918.21 to 918.31 of the Revised 22979
Code or the rules adopted under those sections, the director 22980
immediately may withdraw inspection from the establishment prior 22981
to an adjudication hearing as required under section 119.06 of the 22982
Revised Code. 22983

(F) In addition to any remedies provided by law and 22984 irrespective of whether or not there exists an adequate remedy at 22985
law, the director may apply to the court of common pleas of the 22986 county in which a violation of sections 918.21 to 918.31 of the 22987 Revised Code or rules adopted under those sections occurs for a 22988
temporary or permanent injunction or other appropriate relief 22989
concerning the violation. 22990

Sec. 921.02. (A) No person shall distribute a pesticide 22991 within this state unless the pesticide is registered with the 22992 director of agriculture under this chapter. Registrations shall be 22993 issued for a period of time established by rule and shall be 22994 renewed in accordance with deadlines established by rule. 22995 Registration is not required if a pesticide is shipped from one 22996 plant or warehouse to another plant or warehouse operated by the 22997 same person and used solely at that plant or warehouse as a 22998 constituent part to make a pesticide that is registered under this 22999 chapter, or if the pesticide is distributed under the provisions 23000 of an experimental use permit issued under section 921.03 of the 23001 Revised Code or an experimental use permit issued by the United 23002

States environmental protection agency. 23003

(B) The applicant for registration of a pesticide shall file 23004 a statement with the director on a form provided by the director, 23005 which shall include all of the following: 23006 address of the person whose name will appear on the label, if 23008 other than the applicant's name; 23009

(2) The brand and product name of the pesticide; 23010

(3) Any necessary information required for completion of the 23011 department of agriculture's application for registration, 23012 including the agency registration number; 23013

(4) A complete copy of the labeling accompanying the 23014 pesticide and a statement of all claims to be made for it, 23015 including the directions for use and the use classification as 23016 provided for in the federal act. 23017

(C) The director, when the director considers it necessary in 23018 the administration of this chapter, may require the submission of 23019 the complete formula of any pesticide including the active and 23020 inert ingredients. 23021

(D) The director may require a full description of the tests 23022 made and the results thereof upon which the claims are based for 23023 any pesticide. The director shall not consider any data submitted 23024 in support of an application, without permission of the applicant, 23025 in support of any other application for registration unless the 23026 other applicant first has offered to pay reasonable compensation 23027 for producing the test data to be relied upon and the data are not 23028 protected from disclosure by section 921.04 of the Revised Code. 23029

In the case of a renewal of registration, a statement shall be 23030 required only with respect to information that is different from 23031 that furnished when the pesticide was registered or last 23032 registered. 23033

(E) The director may require any other information to be 23034 submitted with an application. 23035

Any applicant may designate any portion of the required 23036 registration information as a trade secret or confidential 23037 business information. Upon receipt of any required registration 23038 information designated as a trade secret or confidential business 23039 information, the director shall consider the designated 23040 information as confidential and shall not reveal or cause to be 23041 revealed any such designated information without the consent of 23042 the applicants, except to persons directly involved in the 23043 registration process described in this section or as required by 23044 law. 23045

(F) Beginning January 1, 2007, each applicant shall pay a 23046 registration and inspection fee of one hundred fifty dollars for 23047 each product name and brand registered for the company whose name 23048 appears on the label. If an applicant files for a renewal of 23049 registration after the deadline established by rule, the applicant 23050 shall pay a penalty fee of seventy-five dollars for each product 23051 name and brand registered for the applicant. The penalty fee shall 23052 be added to the original fee and paid before the renewal 23053 registration is issued. In addition to any other remedy available 23054 under this chapter, if a pesticide that is not registered pursuant 23055 to this section is distributed within this state, the person 23056 required to register the pesticide shall do so and shall pay a 23057 penalty fee of seventy-five dollars for each product name and 23058 brand registered for the applicant. The penalty fee shall be added 23059 to the original fee of one hundred fifty dollars and paid before 23060 the registration is issued. 23061

(G) Provided that the state is authorized by the 23062 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 23063 to register pesticides to meet special local needs, the director 23064 shall require the information set forth under divisions (B), (C), 23065 (D), and (E) of this section and shall register any such pesticide 23066 after determining that all of the following conditions are met: 23067

(1) Its composition is such as to warrant the proposed claims 23068 for it. 23069

(2) Its labeling and other material required to be submitted 23070 comply with the requirements of the federal act and of this 23071 chapter, and rules adopted thereunder. 23072

(3) It will perform its intended function without 23073 unreasonable adverse effects on the environment. 23074

(4) When used in accordance with widespread and commonly 23075 recognized practice, it will not generally cause unreasonable 23076 adverse effects on the environment. 23077

(5) The classification for general or restricted use is in 23078 conformity with the federal act. 23079

The director shall not make any lack of essentiality a 23080 criterion for denying the registration of any pesticide. When two 23081 pesticides meet the requirements of division (G) of this section, 23082 the director shall not register one in preference to the other. 23083

(H)(1) The director may refuse to register a pesticide if the 23084 application for registration fails to comply with this section. 23085

(2) The director may suspend or revoke a pesticide 23086 registration after a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of 23087 the Revised Code for a pesticide that fails to meet the claims 23088 made for it on its label. 23089

(3) The director may immediately suspend a pesticide 23090 registration, prior to a hearing, when the director believes that 23091 the pesticide poses an immediate hazard to human or animal health 23092 or a hazard to the environment. Not later than fifteen days after 23093 suspending the registration, the director shall determine whether 23094 the pesticide poses such a hazard. If the director determines that 23095 no hazard exists, the director shall lift the suspension of the 23096 registration. If the director determines that a hazard exists, the 23097 director shall revoke the registration in accordance with Chapter 23098
119. of the Revised Code. 23099

(I) All money collected under this section shall be credited 23100 to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund created in 23101
section 921.22 of the Revised Code. 23102

Sec. 921.06. (A)(1) No individual shall do any of the 23103

4582., or 6115. of the Revised Code, respectively; 23112

(c) Apply restricted use pesticides. Division (A)(1)(c) of 23113 this section does not apply to a private applicator or an 23114 immediate family member or a subordinate employee of a private 23115 applicator who is acting under the direct supervision of that 23116 private applicator. 23117

(d) If the individual is the owner of a business other than a 23118 pesticides at any of the following publicly accessible sites that	23120 are located on the property:	23121

one location;	23128
(v) Hospitals or medical facilities as defined in section	23129
3701.01 of the Revised Code;	23130
(vi) Child day-care centers or school child day-care centers	23131

Sec. 921.16. (A) The director of agriculture shall adopt 23331 rules the director determines necessary for the effective 23332 enforcement and administration of this chapter. The rules may 23333 relate to, but are not limited to, the time, place, manner, and 23334 methods of application, materials, and amounts and concentrations 23335 of application of pesticides, may restrict or prohibit the use of 23336 pesticides in designated areas during specified periods of time, 23337 and shall encompass all reasonable factors that the director 23338 determines necessary to minimize or prevent damage to the 23339 environment. In addition, the rules shall establish the deadlines 23340 and time periods for registration, registration renewal, late 23341 registration renewal, and failure to register under section 921.02 23342 of the Revised Code; the fees for registration, registration 23343 of civil penalties for violations of this chapter, or any rule or 23351 order adopted or issued under it, provided that the civil penalty 23352 for a first violation shall not exceed five thousand dollars and 23353 the civil penalty for each subsequent violation shall not exceed 23354 ten thousand dollars. In determining the amount of a civil penalty 23355 for a violation, the director shall consider factors relevant to 23356 the severity of the violation, including past violations and the 23357 amount of actual or potential damage to the environment or to 23358 human beings. All money collected under this division shall be 23359 credited to the pesticide, fertilizer, and lime program fund 23360 created in section 921.22 of the Revised Code. 23361

(6) Requires a record to be kept of all pesticide applications made by each commercial applicator and by any trained serviceperson acting under the commercial applicator's direct supervision and of all restricted use pesticide applications made by each private applicator and by any immediate family member or subordinate employee of that private applicator who is acting under the private applicator's direct supervision as required under section 921.14 of the Revised Code;	23377 23378 23379 23380 23381 23382 23383 23384
(7) Determines the pesticide-use categories of diagnostic inspections that must be conducted by a commercial applicator;	23385 23386

(D) The director shall prescribe standards for the licensure of applicators of pesticides consistent with those prescribed by	23390 23391

the federal act and the regulations adopted under it or prescribe 23392 standards that are more restrictive than those prescribed by the 23393 federal act and the regulations adopted under it. The standards 23394 may relate to the use of a pesticide or to an individual's 23395 pesticide-use category. 23396

The director shall take into consideration standards of the 23397

the following: 23406

(1) Designate, in addition to those restricted uses so 23407 classified by the administrator of the United States environmental 23408 protection agency, restricted uses of pesticides for the state or 23409 for designated areas within the state and, if the director 23410 considers it necessary, to further restrict such use; 23411

(2) Define what constitutes "acting under the instructions 23412 and control of a commercial applicator" as used in the definition 23413 of "direct supervision" in division (Q)(1) of section 921.01 of 23414 the Revised Code. In adopting a rule under division (F)(2) of this 23415 section, the director shall consider the factors associated with 23416 the use of pesticide in the various pesticide-use categories. 23417 Based on consideration of the factors, the director may define 23418 "acting under the instructions and control of a commercial 23419 applicator" to include communications between a commercial 23420 director shall not adopt any rule under this chapter that is 23426 inconsistent with the requirements of the federal act and 23427 regulations adopted thereunder. 23428

(H) The director, after notice and opportunity for hearing, 23429 may declare as a pest any form of plant or animal life, other than 23430 human beings and other than bacteria, viruses, and other 23431 microorganisms on or in living human beings or other living 23432 animals, that is injurious to health or the environment. 23433

(I) The director may make reports to the United States 23434 environmental protection agency, in the form and containing the 23435 information the agency may require. 23436

(J) The director shall adopt rules for the application, use, 23437 storage, and disposal of pesticides if, in the director's 23438 judgment, existing programs of the United States environmental 23439 protection agency necessitate such rules or pesticide labels do 23440 not sufficiently address issues or situations identified by the 23441 department of agriculture or interested state agencies. 23442

(K) The director shall adopt rules establishing all of the 23443
following: 23444

(1) Standards, requirements, and procedures for the 23445 require commercial applicators and private applicators to 23449

(c) Procedures that third parties must follow in order to submit a proposed training program to the director for approval;

(d) Criteria that the director must consider when determining whether to authorize a commercial applicator or private applicator to participate in a training program instead of being required to pass a re-examination.

Sec. 1321.55. (A) Every registrant shall keep records 25725 pertaining to loans made under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the 25726 Revised Code. Such records shall be segregated from records 25727 pertaining to transactions that are not subject to these sections 25728 of the Revised Code. Every registrant shall preserve records 25729 pertaining to loans made under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the 25730 Revised Code for at least two years after making the final entry 25731 on such records. Accounting systems maintained in whole or in part 25732 by mechanical or electronic data processing methods that provide 25733 information equivalent to that otherwise required are acceptable 25734 for this purpose. At least once each eighteen-month cycle, the 25735 division of financial institutions shall make or cause to be made 25736 an examination of records pertaining to loans made under sections 25737 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code, for the purpose of 25738 determining whether the registrant is complying with these 25739 sections and of verifying the registrant's annual report. 25740

(B)(1) As required by the superintendent of financial 25741 institutions, each registrant shall file with the division each 25742 year a report under oath or affirmation, on forms supplied by the 25743 division, concerning the business and operations for the preceding 25744 calendar year. Whenever a registrant operates two or more 25745 registered offices or whenever two or more affiliated registrants 25746 operate registered offices, then a composite report of the group 25747 of registered offices may be filed in lieu of individual reports. 25748

(2) The division shall publish annually an analysis of the 25749 information required under division (B)(1) of this section, but 25750 the individual reports shall not be public records and shall not 25751 be open to public inspection. 25752

(3) Each licensee shall submit to the nationwide mortgage 25753 licensing system and registry call reports or other reports of 25754 condition, which shall be in such form and shall contain such 25755 information as the nationwide mortgage licensing system and 25756 registry may require. 25757

~~(C) All information obtained by the superintendent or the 25758 superintendent's deputies, examiners, assistants, agents, or 25759 clerks by reason of their official position, including information 25760 obtained by such persons from the annual report of a registrant or 25761 in the course of examining a registrant or investigating an 25762 applicant for a certificate, is privileged and confidential. All 25763 such information shall remain privileged and confidential for all 25764 purposes except when it is necessary for the superintendent and 25765 the superintendent's deputies, examiners, assistants, agents, or 25766 clerks to take official action regarding the affairs of the 25767 registrant or in connection with criminal proceedings. Such 25768 information may also be introduced into evidence or disclosed when 25769 and in the manner authorized in section 1181.25 of the Revised 25770
Code.~~ 25771

~~(D) No person is in violation of sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 25772~~

~~of the Revised Code for any act taken or omission made in reliance 25773 on a written notice, interpretation, or examination report from 25774 the superintendent. 25775~~

~~(E) This section does not prevent the division from releasing 25776 to or exchanging with other financial institution regulatory 25777 authorities information relating to registrants. 25778~~

~~(F) For purposes of this section, "financial institution 25779 regulatory authority" includes a regulator of a business activity 25780 in which a registrant is engaged, or has applied to engage in, to 25781 the extent that the regulator has jurisdiction over a registrant 25782 engaged in that business activity. A registrant is engaged in a 25783 business activity, and a regulator of that business activity has 25784 jurisdiction over the registrant, whether the registrant conducts 25785 the activity directly or a subsidiary or affiliate of the 25786 registrant conducts the activity (1) The following information is 25787 confidential: 25788~~

~~(a) Examination information, and any information leading to 25789 or arising from an examination; 25790~~

~~(b) Investigation information, and any information arising 25791 from or leading to an investigation. 25792~~

~~(2) The information described in division (C)(1) of this 25793 section shall remain confidential for all purposes except when it 25794 is necessary for the superintendent to take official action 25795 regarding the affairs of a registrant or licensee, or in 25796 connection with criminal or civil proceedings to be initiated by a 25797 prosecuting attorney or the attorney general. This information may 25798 also be introduced into evidence or disclosed when and in the 25799 manner authorized by section 1181.25 of the Revised Code. 25800~~

~~(D) All application information, except social security 25801 numbers, employer identification numbers, financial account 25802 numbers, the identity of the institution where financial accounts 25803~~ are maintained, personal financial information, fingerprint cards 25804 and the information contained on such cards, and criminal 25805 background information, is a public record as defined in section 25806

149.43 of the Revised Code. 25807

(E) This section does not prevent the division of financial 25808 institutions from releasing to or exchanging with other financial 25809 institution regulatory authorities information relating to 25810 registrants and licensees. For this purpose, a "financial 25811 institution regulatory authority" includes a regulator of a 25812 business activity in which a registrant or licensee is engaged, or 25813 has applied to engage in, to the extent that the regulator has 25814 jurisdiction over a registrant or licensee engaged in that 25815 business activity. A registrant or licensee is engaged in a 25816 business activity, and a regulator of that business activity has 25817 jurisdiction over the registrant or licensee, whether the 25818 registrant or licensee conducts the activity directly or a 25819 subsidiary or affiliate of the registrant or licensee conducts the 25820 activity. 25821

(1) Any confidentiality or privilege arising under federal or 25822 state law with respect to any information or material provided to 25823 the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry shall 25824 continue to apply to the information or material after the 25825 information or material has been provided to the nationwide 25826 mortgage licensing system and registry. The information and 25827 material so provided may be shared with all state and federal 25828 regulatory officials with mortgage industry oversight authority 25829 without the loss of confidentiality or privilege protections 25830 provided by federal law or the law of any state. Information or 25831 material described in division (E)(1) of this section to which 25832 confidentiality or privilege applies shall not be subject to any 25833 of the following: 25834

(a) Disclosure under any federal or state law governing 25835 disclosure to the public of information held by an officer or an agency of the federal government or of the respective state; 25836 25837

25839
25841
25843

(2) The superintendent, in order to promote more effective regulation and reduce regulatory burden through supervisory information sharing, may enter into sharing arrangements with other governmental agencies, the conference of state bank supervisors, and the American association of residential mortgage regulators. 25844
25845
25847
25849

(3) Any state law, including section 149.43 of the Revised Code, relating to the disclosure of confidential supervisory information or any information or material described in division (C)(1) or (E)(1) of this section that is inconsistent with this section shall be superseded by the requirements of this section. 25850
25851
25854

(F) This section shall not apply with respect to information or material relating to the employment history of, and publicly adjudicated disciplinary and enforcement actions against, mortgage loan originators that is included in the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry for access by the public. 25855
25856
25859

(G) This section does not prevent the division from releasing information relating to registrants and licensees to the attorney general, to the superintendent of real estate and professional licensing for purposes relating to the administration of Chapters 4735. and 4763. of the Revised Code, to the superintendent of insurance for purposes relating to the administration of Chapter 3953. of the Revised Code, to the commissioner of securities for 25860
25861

25864
25865
25866

purposes relating to the administration of Chapter 1707. of the 25867 Revised Code, or to local law enforcement agencies and local 25868 prosecutors. Information the division releases pursuant to this 25869 section remains confidential. 25870

(H) The superintendent of financial institutions shall, by 25871 rule adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 25872 establish a process by which mortgage loan originators may 25873 challenge information provided to the nationwide mortgage 25874 licensing system and registry by the superintendent. 25875

(I) No person, in connection with any examination or 25876 investigation conducted by the superintendent under sections 25877 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code, shall knowingly do any of 25878
the following: 25879

(1) Circumvent, interfere with, obstruct, or fail to 25880 cooperate, including making a false or misleading statement, 25881 failing to produce records, or intimidating or suborning any 25882 witness; 25883

(2) Withhold, abstract, remove, mutilate, destroy, or secrete 25884 any books, records, computer records, or other information; 25885

(3) Tamper with, alter, or manufacture any evidence. 25886

Sec. 1321.551. (A) No registrant shall conduct the business 25887 of making loans under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised 25888 Code in any office, room, or place of business in which any other 25889 business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or 25890 conjunction with any other such business, if the superintendent of 25891 financial institutions finds, pursuant to a hearing conducted in 25892 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, that the other 25893 business is of such a nature that the conduct tends to conceal 25894 evasion of sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code or of 25895 the rules adopted under those sections, and orders the registrant 25896 in writing to desist from the conduct. 25897

(B) The business of a mortgage loan originator shall 25898 principally be transacted at an office of the registrant with whom 25899 the licensee is employed or associated, which office is 25900 registered, if applicable, in accordance with division (A)(1) of 25901 section 1321.52 of the Revised Code. Each original mortgage loan 25902 originator license shall be deposited with and maintained at the 25903 registrant's main office. A copy of the mortgage loan originator 25904 license shall be maintained and displayed at the office where the 25905 mortgage loan originator principally transacts business. 25906

(C) If a mortgage loan originator's employment or association 25907 is terminated for any reason, the registrant shall return the 25908 original mortgage loan originator license to the superintendent 25909 within five business days after the termination. The licensee may 25910 request the transfer of the license to another registrant by 25911 submitting a transfer application, along with a fifteen dollar fee 25912 and any fee required by the national mortgage licensing system and 25913 registry, to the superintendent, or may request in writing that 25914 the superintendent hold the license in escrow. A licensee whose 25915 license is held in escrow shall cease activity as a mortgage loan 25916 originator. A licensee whose license is held in escrow shall be 25917 required to apply for renewal annually and to comply with the 25918 annual continuing education requirement. 25919

(D) A registrant may employ or be associated with a mortgage 25920 loan originator on a temporary basis pending the transfer of the 25921 mortgage loan originator's license to the registrant, if the 25922 registrant receives written confirmation from the superintendent 25923 that the mortgage loan originator is licensed under sections 25924
1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code. 25925

(E) Notwithstanding divisions (B), (C), and (D) of this 25926 section, if a mortgage loan originator is employed by or 25927 associated with a person claiming an exemption under division (D) 25928 of section 1321.53 of the Revised Code, the mortgage loan 25929 originator shall maintain and display the original mortgage loan 25930 originator license at the office where the mortgage loan 25931 originator principally transacts business. 25932

If the mortgage loan originator's employment or association 25933 is terminated for any reason, the licensee shall return the 25934
original mortgage loan originator license to the superintendent 25935
within five business days after the termination. The licensee may 25936 request the transfer of the license to a mortgage broker or other 25937 person claiming an exemption under division (D) of section 1321.53 25938 of the Revised Code by submitting a transfer application, along 25939 with a fifteen dollar fee and any fee required by the national 25940 mortgage licensing system and registry, to the superintendent, or 25941 may request the superintendent in writing to hold the license in 25942 escrow. A licensee whose license is held in escrow shall cease 25943 activity as a mortgage loan originator. A licensee whose license 25944 is held in escrow shall be required to apply for renewal annually 25945 and to comply with the annual continuing education requirement. 25946

The licensee may seek to be employed or associated with a 25947 mortgage broker or other person claiming an exemption under 25948 division (D) of section 1321.53 of the Revised Code if the 25949 mortgage broker or person receives written confirmation from the 25950 superintendent that the mortgage loan originator is licensed under 25951 sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code. 25952

(F) No registrant, through its managers or otherwise, shall 25953 fail to do either of the following: 25954

(1) Reasonably supervise mortgage loan originators or other 25955 persons employed by or associated with the registrant; 25956

(2) Establish reasonable procedures designed to avoid 25957 violations of sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code or 25958 rules adopted thereunder, or violations of applicable state and 25959 federal consumer and lending laws or rules, by mortgage loan 25960 originators or other persons employed by or associated with the 25961 registrant. 25962

(G) A license, or the authority granted under that license, 25963 is not assignable and cannot be franchised by contract or any 25964 other means. 25965

Sec. 1321.552. (A) Notwithstanding any provision of sections 25966 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code, or any rule adopted 25967 thereunder, if the "Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage 25968 Licensing Act of 2008," 122 Stat. 2810, 12 U.S.C. 5101, as 25969 amended, is modified after the effective date of this section, or 25970 any regulation, statement, or position is adopted under that act, 25971 and the item modified or adopted affects any matter within the 25972 scope of sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code, the 25973 superintendent of financial institutions may by rule adopt a 25974 similar provision. 25975

(B) The superintendent shall adopt the rules authorized by 25976 this section in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised 25977 Code. Chapter 119. of the Revised Code does not apply to rules 25978 adopted under the authority of this section. 25979

(C) A rule adopted by the superintendent under the authority 25980 of this section is effective on the later of the following dates: 25981

(1) The date the superintendent issues the rule; 25982

(2) The date the regulation, rule, interpretation, procedure, 25983 or guideline the superintendent's rule is based on becomes 25984 effective. 25985

(D) The superintendent may, upon thirty days' written notice, 25986 revoke any rule adopted under the authority of this section. A 25987 rule adopted under the authority of this section, and not revoked 25988 by the superintendent, lapses and has no further force and effect 25989 eighteen months after the rule's effective date. 25990

Sec. 1321.57. (A) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the 25991 Revised Code, a registrant may contract for and receive interest, 25992 calculated according to the actuarial method, at a rate or rates 25993 not exceeding twenty-one per cent per year on the unpaid principal 25994 balances of the loan. Loans may be interest-bearing or 25995 precomputed. 25996

(B) For purposes of computation of time on interest-bearing 25997 and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to, the 25998 calculation of interest, a month is considered one-twelfth of a 25999 year, and a day is considered one three hundred sixty-fifth of a 26000 year when calculation is made for a fraction of a month. A year is 26001 as defined in section 1.44 of the Revised Code. A month is that 26002 period described in section 1.45 of the Revised Code. 26003 Alternatively, a registrant may consider a day as one three 26004 hundred sixtieth of a year and each month as having thirty days. 26005

(C) With respect to interest-bearing loans: 26006

(1)(a) Interest shall be computed on unpaid principal 26007 balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. 26008

(b) As an alternative to the method of computing interest set 26009 forth in division (C)(1)(a) of this section, a registrant may 26010 charge and collect interest for the first installment period based 26011 on elapsed time from the date of the loan to the first scheduled 26012 payment due date, and for each succeeding installment period from 26013 the scheduled payment due date to the next scheduled payment due 26014 date, regardless of the date or dates the payments are actually 26015 made. 26016

(c) Whether a registrant computes interest pursuant to 26017 division (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, each payment shall be 26018 applied first to unpaid charges, then to interest, and the 26019 remainder to the unpaid principal balance. However, if the amount 26020 of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, 26021 the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the 26022 proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal 26023 balance. 26024

(2) Interest shall not be compounded, collected, or paid in 26025 advance. However, both of the following apply: 26026

(a) Interest may be charged to extend the first monthly 26027 installment period by not more than fifteen days, and the interest 26028 charged for the extension may be added to the principal amount of 26029
the loan. 26030

(b) If part or all of the consideration for a new loan 26031 contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, the 26032 principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include 26033 any unpaid interest that has accrued. The resulting loan contract 26034 shall be deemed a new and separate loan transaction for purposes 26035 of this section. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed 26036 loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned 26037 interest as provided in division (D)(3) of this section. 26038

(D) With respect to precomputed loans: 26039

(1) Loans shall be repayable in monthly installments of 26040 principal and interest combined, except that the first installment 26041 period may exceed one month by not more than fifteen days, and the 26042 first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining 26043 payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days; and 26044 provided further that monthly installment payment dates may be 26045 omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income. 26046

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of 26047 principal and precomputed interest until maturity of the loan. A 26048 registrant may charge interest after the original or deferred 26049 maturity of a precomputed loan at the rate specified in division 26050

(A) of this section on all unpaid principal balances for the time 26051 outstanding. 26052

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal, 26053 refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final 26054 installment due date, the registrant shall refund, or credit the 26055 borrower with, the total of the applicable charges for all fully 26056 unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as 26057 deferred, that follow the day of prepayment. If the prepayment is 26058 made other than on a scheduled installment due date, the nearest 26059 scheduled installment due date shall be used in such computation. 26060
If the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, 26061 the registrant may retain one-thirtieth of the applicable charge 26062 for a first installment period of one month for each day from date 26063 of loan to date of prepayment, and shall refund, or credit the 26064 borrower with, the balance of the total interest contracted for. 26065
If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and 26066 judgment is entered, the registrant shall credit the borrower with 26067 the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date 26068 the judgment is entered. 26069

(4) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan 26070 contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly 26071 unpaid installments, a registrant may grant a deferment and may 26072 collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A 26073 deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid 26074 installment and all subsequent installments as originally 26075 scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the 26076 deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which 26077 no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. 26078
The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the 26079 applicable charge for the installment period immediately following 26080 the due date of the last undeferred installment. A proportionate 26081 charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than 26082 one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the 26083 deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the 26084 deferment period. If a loan is prepaid in full during a deferment 26085 period, the registrant shall make, or credit to the borrower, a 26086 refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other 26087 refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full. 26088

(E) A registrant, at the request of the borrower, may obtain, 26089 on one or more borrowers, credit life insurance, credit accident 26090 and health insurance, and unemployment insurance. The premium or 26091 identifiable charge for the insurance may be included in the 26092 principal amount of the loan and may not exceed the premium rate 26093 filed by the insurer with the superintendent of insurance and not 26094 disapproved by the superintendent. If a registrant obtains the 26095 insurance at the request of the borrower, the borrower shall have 26096 the right to cancel the insurance for a period of twenty-five days 26097 after the loan is made. If the borrower chooses to cancel the 26098 insurance, the borrower shall give the registrant written notice 26099 of this choice and shall return all of the policies or 26100 certificates of insurance or notices of proposed insurance to the 26101 registrant during such period, and the full premium or 26102 identifiable charge for the insurance shall be refunded to the 26103 borrower by the registrant. If the borrower requests, in the 26104 notice to cancel the insurance, that this refund be applied to 26105 reduce the balance of a precomputed loan, the registrant shall 26106 credit the amount of the refund plus the amount of interest 26107 applicable to the refund to the loan balance. 26108

If the registrant obtains the insurance at the request of the 26109 borrower, the registrant shall not charge or collect interest on 26110 any insured amount that remains unpaid after the insured 26111 borrower's date of death. 26112

(F) A registrant may require the borrower to provide 26113 insurance or a loss payable endorsement covering reasonable risks 26114 of loss, damage, and destruction of property used as security for 26115 the loan and with the consent of the borrower such insurance may 26116 cover property other than that which is security for the loan. The 26117 amount and term of required property insurance shall be reasonable 26118 in relation to the amount and term of the loan contract and the 26119 type and value of the security, and the insurance shall be 26120 procured in accordance with the insurance laws of this state. The 26121 purchase of this insurance through the registrant or an agent or 26122 broker designated by the registrant shall not be a condition 26123 precedent to the granting of the loan. If the borrower purchases 26124 the insurance from or through the registrant or from another 26125 source, the premium may be included in the principal amount of the 26126 loan. 26127

(G) On loans secured by an interest in real estate, all of 26128 the following apply: 26129

(1) A registrant, if not prohibited by section 1343.011 of 26130 the Revised Code, may charge and receive up to two points, and a 26131 prepayment penalty not in excess of one per cent of the original 26132 principal amount of the loan. Points may be paid by the borrower 26133 at the time of the loan or may be included in the principal amount 26134 of the loan. On a refinancing, a registrant may not charge under 26135 division (G)(1) of this section either of the following: 26136

(a) Points on the portion of the principal amount that is 26137 applied to the unpaid principal amount of the refinanced loan, if 26138 the refinancing occurs within one year after the date of the 26139 refinanced loan on which points were charged; 26140

(b) A prepayment penalty. 26141

(2) As an alternative to the prepayment penalty described in 26142 division (G)(1) of this section, a registrant may contract for, 26143 charge, and receive the prepayment penalty described in division 26144 (G)(2) of this section for the prepayment of a loan prior to two 26145 years after the date the loan contract is executed. This 26146 prepayment penalty shall not exceed two per cent of the original 26147 principal amount of the loan if the loan is paid in full prior to 26148 one year after the date the loan contract is executed. The penalty 26149 shall not exceed one per cent of the original principal amount of 26150 the loan if the loan is paid in full at any time from one year, 26151 but prior to two years, after the date the loan contract is 26152 executed. A registrant shall not charge or receive a prepayment 26153 penalty under division (G)(2) of this section if any of the 26154 following applies: 26155

(a) The loan is a refinancing by the same registrant or a 26156 registrant to whom the loan has been assigned; 26157

(b) The loan is paid in full as a result of the sale of the 26158 real estate that secures the loan; 26159

(c) The loan is paid in full with the proceeds of an 26160 insurance claim against an insurance policy that insures the life 26161 of the borrower or an insurance policy that covers loss, damage, 26162 or destruction of the real estate that secures the loan. 26163

(3) Division (G) of this section is not a limitation on 26164 discount points or other charges for purposes of section 501(b)(4) 26165 of the "Depository Institutions Deregulation and Monetary Control 26166 Act of 1980," 94 Stat. 161, 12 U.S.C.A. 1735f-7 note. 26167

(H)(1) In addition to the interest and charges provided for 26168 by this section, no further or other amount, whether in the form 26169 of broker fees, placement fees, or any other fees whatsoever, 26170 shall be charged or received by the registrant, except costs and 26171 disbursements in connection with any suit to collect a loan or any 26172 lawful activity to realize on a security interest or mortgage 26173 after default, including reasonable attorney fees incurred by the 26174 registrant as a result of the suit or activity and to which the 26175 registrant becomes entitled by law, and except the following 26176 additional charges which may be included in the principal amount	26177 of the loan or collected at any time after the loan is made:	26178

(a) The amounts of fees authorized by law to record, file, or	26179 release security interests and mortgages on a loan;	26180
(b) With respect to a loan secured by an interest in real	26181 estate, the following closing costs, if they are bona fide,	26182 reasonable in amount, paid to third parties , and not for the	26183 purpose of circumvention or evasion of this section:	26184
(i) Fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of	26185
title, title insurance, surveys, title endorsements, title	26186 binders, title commitments, home inspections, or pest inspections;	26187 settlement or closing costs paid to unaffiliated third parties ;	26188 courier fees; and any federally mandated flood plain certification	26189
fee;	26190
(ii) If not paid to the registrant, an employee of the	26191
registrant, or a person related to affiliated with the registrant,	26192 fees for preparation of a mortgage, settlement statement, or other	26193 documents, fees for notarizing mortgages and other documents,	26194 appraisal fees, and fees for any federally mandated inspection of	26195 home improvement work financed by a second mortgage loan;	26196
(c) Fees for credit investigations not exceeding ten dollars.	26197
(2) Division (H)(1) of this section does not limit the rights	26198 of registrants to engage in other transactions with borrowers,	26199 provided the transactions are not a condition of the loan.	26200
(I) If the loan contract or security instrument contains	26201 covenants by the borrower to perform certain duties pertaining to	26202 insuring or preserving security and the registrant pursuant to the	26203 loan contract or security instrument pays for performance of the	26204 duties on behalf of the borrower, the registrant may add the	26205 amounts paid to the unpaid principal balance of the loan or	26206 collect them separately. A charge for interest may be made for	26207 sums advanced not exceeding the rate of interest permitted by 26208 division (A) of this section. Within a reasonable time after 26209 advancing a sum, the registrant shall notify the borrower in 26210 writing of the amount advanced, any interest charged with respect 26211 to the amount advanced, any revised payment schedule, and shall 26212 include a brief description of the reason for the advance. 26213

(J)(1) In addition to points authorized under division (G) of 26214 this section, a registrant may charge and receive the following: 26215

(a) With respect to ~~secured~~ loans secured by goods or real 26216 estate: if the principal amount of the loan is ~~less than~~ five 26217 hundred dollars or less, loan origination charges not exceeding 26218 fifteen dollars; if the principal amount of the loan is ~~at least~~ 26219 more than five hundred dollars but less than one thousand dollars, 26220 loan origination charges not exceeding thirty dollars; if the 26221 principal amount of the loan is at least one thousand dollars but 26222 less than two thousand dollars, loan origination charges not 26223 exceeding one hundred dollars; if the principal amount of the loan 26224 is at least two thousand dollars but less than five thousand 26225 dollars, loan origination charges not exceeding two hundred 26226 dollars; and if the principal amount of the loan is at least five 26227 thousand dollars, loan origination charges not exceeding the 26228 greater of two hundred fifty dollars or one per cent of the 26229 principal amount of the loan. 26230

(b) With respect to ~~unsecured~~ loans that are not secured by 26231 goods or real estate: if the principal amount of the loan is ~~less~~ 26232 ~~than~~ five hundred dollars or less, loan origination charges not 26233 exceeding fifteen dollars; if the principal amount of the loan is 26234 ~~at least~~ more than five hundred dollars but less than one thousand 26235 dollars, loan origination charges not exceeding thirty dollars; if 26236 the principal amount of the loan is at least one thousand dollars 26237 but less than five thousand dollars, loan origination charges not 26238 exceeding one hundred dollars; and if the principal amount of the 26239 loan is at least five thousand dollars, loan origination charges 26240 not exceeding the greater of two hundred fifty dollars or one per 26241 cent of the principal amount of the loan. 26242

(2) If a refinancing occurs within ninety days after the date 26243 of the refinanced loan, a registrant may not impose loan 26244 origination charges on the portion of the principal amount that is 26245 applied to the unpaid principal amount of the refinanced loan. 26246

(3) Loan origination charges may be paid by the borrower at 26247 the time of the loan or may be included in the principal amount of 26248
the loan. 26249

(K) A registrant may charge and receive check collection 26250 charges not greater than twenty dollars plus any amount passed on 26251 from other ~~financial~~ depository institutions for each check, 26252 negotiable order of withdrawal, share draft, or other negotiable 26253 instrument returned or dishonored for any reason. 26254

(L) If the loan contract so provides, a registrant may 26255 collect a default charge on any installment not paid in full 26256 within ten days after its due date. For this purpose, all 26257 installments are considered paid in the order in which they become 26258 due. Any amounts applied to an outstanding loan balance as a 26259 result of voluntary release of a security interest, sale of 26260 security on the loan, or cancellation of insurance shall be 26261 considered payments on the loan, unless the parties otherwise 26262 agree in writing at the time the amounts are applied. The amount 26263 of the default charge shall not exceed the greater of five per 26264 cent of the scheduled installment or fifteen dollars. 26265

Sec. 1321.59. (A) No registrant under sections 1321.51 to 26266 1321.60 of the Revised Code shall permit any borrower to be 26267 indebted for a loan made under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the 26268 Revised Code at any time while the borrower is also indebted to an 26269 affiliate or agent of the registrant for a loan made under 26270 sections 1321.01 to 1321.19 of the Revised Code for the purpose or 26271 with the result of obtaining greater charges than otherwise would 26272 be permitted by sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code. 26273

(B) No registrant shall induce or permit any person to become 26274 obligated to the registrant under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of 26275 the Revised Code, directly or contingently, or both, under more 26276 than one contract of loan at the same time for the purpose or with 26277 the result of obtaining greater charges than would otherwise be 26278 permitted by sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code. 26279

(C) No registrant shall refuse to provide information 26280 regarding the amount required to pay in full a loan under sections 26281 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code when requested by the 26282 borrower or by another person designated in writing by the 26283
borrower. 26284

(D) On any loan or application for a loan under sections 26285 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code secured by a mortgage on a 26286 borrower's real estate which is other than a first lien on the 26287 real estate, no person shall pay or receive, directly or 26288 indirectly, fees or any other type of compensation for services of 26289 a mortgage broker that, in the aggregate, exceed the lesser of one 26290 thousand dollars or one per cent of the principal amount of the 26291
loan. 26292

(E) No registrant or licensee shall obtain a certificate of 26293 registration or license through any false or fraudulent 26294 representation of a material fact or any omission of a material 26295 fact required by state or federal law, or make any substantial 26296 misrepresentation in the registration or license application, to 26297 engage in lending secured by real estate. 26298

(F) No registrant or licensee, in connection with the 26299 business of making or offering to make residential mortgage loans, 26300 shall knowingly make false or misleading statements of a material 26301 fact, omissions of statements required by state or federal law, or 26302 false promises regarding a material fact, through advertising or 26303 other means, or engage in a continued course of 26304 misrepresentations. 26305

(G) No registrant, licensee, or person making loans without a 26306 certificate of registration in violation of division (A) of 26307 section 1321.52 of the Revised Code, shall knowingly engage in 26308 conduct, in connection with the business of making or offering to 26309 make residential mortgage loans, that constitutes improper, 26310 fraudulent, or dishonest dealings. 26311

(H) No registrant, licensee, or applicant involved in the 26312 business of making or offering to make residential mortgage loans 26313 shall fail to notify the division of financial institutions within 26314 thirty days after knowing any of the following: 26315 convicted of or pleaded guilty to a felony offense in a domestic, 26317 foreign, or military court; 26318

(2) That the registrant, licensee, or applicant has been 26319 convicted of or pleaded guilty to any criminal offense involving 26320 theft, receiving stolen property, embezzlement, forgery, fraud, 26321 passing bad checks, money laundering, breach of trust, dishonesty, 26322 or drug trafficking, or any criminal offense involving money or 26323 securities, in a domestic, foreign, or military court; 26324

(3) That the registrant, licensee, or applicant has had a 26325 mortgage lender registration or mortgage loan originator license, 26326 or comparable authority, revoked in any governmental jurisdiction. 26327
26329

(I) No registrant or licensee shall knowingly make, propose, 26330 or solicit fraudulent, false, or misleading statements on any 26331 mortgage document or on any document related to a mortgage loan, 26332 including a mortgage application, real estate appraisal, or real 26333 estate settlement or closing document. For purposes of this 26334 division, "fraudulent, false, or misleading statements" does not 26335 include mathematical errors, inadvertent transposition of numbers, 26336 typographical errors, or any other bona fide error. 26337

(J) No registrant or licensee shall knowingly instruct, 26338 solicit, propose, or otherwise cause a borrower to sign in blank a 26339 loan related document in connection with a residential mortgage 26340
loan. 26341

(K) No registrant or licensee shall knowingly compensate, 26342 instruct, induce, coerce, or intimidate, or attempt to compensate, 26343 instruct, induce, coerce, or intimidate, a person licensed or 26344 certified as an appraiser under Chapter 4763. of the Revised Code 26345 for the purpose of corrupting or improperly influencing the 26346 independent judgment of the person with respect to the value of 26347 the dwelling offered as security for repayment of a mortgage loan. 26348

(L) No registrant or licensee shall willfully retain original 26349 documents provided to the registrant or licensee by the borrower 26350 in connection with the residential mortgage loan application, 26351 including income tax returns, account statements, or other 26352 financial related documents. 26353

(M) No registrant or licensee shall, in connection with 26354 making residential mortgage loans, receive, directly or 26355 indirectly, a premium on the fees charged for services performed 26356 by a bona fide third party. 26357

(N) No registrant or licensee shall, in connection with 26358 making residential mortgage loans, pay or receive, directly or 26359 indirectly, a referral fee or kickback of any kind to or from a 26360 bona fide third party or other party with a related interest in 26361 the transaction, including a home improvement builder, real estate 26362 developer, or real estate broker or agent, for the referral of 26363 business. Nothing in this division shall prevent remuneration to a 26364 registrant or licensee for the licensed sale of any insurance 26365 product that is permitted under section 1321.57 of the Revised 26366 Code, provided there is no additional fee or premium added to the 26367 cost for the insurance and paid directly or indirectly by the 26368

borrower. 26369

(O) No registrant, licensee, or person making loans without a 26370 certificate of registration in violation of division (A) of 26371 section 1321.52 of the Revised Code shall, in connection with 26372 making or offering to make residential mortgage loans, engage in 26373 any unfair, deceptive, or unconscionable act or practice 26374 prohibited under sections 1345.01 to 1345.13 of the Revised Code. 26375

Sec. 1321.591. No registrant or licensee shall fail to follow 26376 the practices set forth in the federal "Fair Debt Collection 26377 Practices Act," 91 Stat. 874, 15 U.S.C. 1692, as amended, 26378 notwithstanding the fact that the registrant or licensee is 26379 seeking to collect upon the registrant's own debt. 26380

Sec. 1321.592. (A) In connection with providing a 26381 non-brokered loan secured by a lien on real property, a registrant 26382 or licensee shall, not earlier than three business days nor later 26383 than twenty-four hours before the loan is closed, deliver to the 26384 borrower a written disclosure that includes the following: 26385

(1) A statement indicating whether property taxes or any 26386 insurance will be escrowed; 26387

(2) A description of what is covered by the regular monthly 26388 payment, including principal, interest, taxes, and insurance, as 26389 applicable. 26390

(B) If a residential mortgage loan applied for will exceed 26391 ninety per cent of the value of the real property, the registrant 26392 shall provide a statement to the borrower within three business 26393 days after taking the loan application, printed in boldface type 26394 of the minimum size of sixteen points, as follows: "You are 26395 applying for a loan that is more than 90% of your home's value. It 26396 will be hard for you to refinance this loan. If you sell your 26397 home, you might owe more money on the loan than you get from the 26398 sale." 26399

(B) Where the violation was an act or practice declared to be 29387 deceptive or unconscionable by rule adopted under division (B)(2) 29388 of section 1345.05 of the Revised Code before the consumer 29389

consumer transaction. 29407

(2) If a consumer transaction between a loan officer 29408

(5) Shall specify the pollution abatement practices eligible 30163 for state cost sharing and determine the conditions for 30164 eligibility, the construction standards and specifications, the 30165 useful life, the maintenance requirements, and the limits of cost 30166 sharing for those practices. Eligible practices shall be limited 30167 to practices that address agricultural or silvicultural operations 30168 and that require expenditures that are likely to exceed the 30169 economic returns to the owner or operator and that abate soil 30170 erosion or degradation of the waters of the state by animal waste 30171 or soil sediment including pollutants attached thereto. 30172

~~(6) Until June 1, 1996, shall specify the multiflora rose 30173 control practices eligible for state cost sharing, the conditions 30174 of eligibility for state cost sharing, the limits of cost sharing 30175 for those practices, specifications for carrying out those 30176 practices to ensure effective control of the multiflora rose and 30177 to safeguard the health and safety of human beings and domestic 30178 animals and the environment, and the contract provisions to be 30179~~

~~included in cost sharing agreements with landowners;~~ 30180

~~(7) Until June 1, 1996, shall establish procedures for~~ 30181
~~administering grants to soil and water conservation districts for~~ 30182 ~~control of multiflora rose;~~ 30183

~~(8)~~ Shall establish procedures for administering grants to 30184 owners or operators of agricultural land or concentrated animal 30185 feeding operations for the implementation of operation and 30186 management plans; 30187

soil and water conservation districts for urban sediment pollution 30189 abatement programs, specify the types of projects eligible for 30190 grants, establish limits on the availability of grants, and 30191 establish requirements governing the execution of projects to 30192 encourage the reduction of erosion and sedimentation associated 30193 with soil-disturbing activities; 30194

~~(10)~~(8) Shall do all of the following with regard to 30195 composting conducted in conjunction with agricultural operations: 30196

(a) Provide for the distribution of educational material 30197 concerning composting to the offices of the Ohio cooperative 30198 extension service for the purposes of section 1511.022 of the 30199
Revised Code; 30200

(b) Establish methods, techniques, or practices for 30201 composting dead animals, or particular types of dead animals, that 30202 are to be used at such operations, as the chief considers to be 30203 necessary or appropriate; 30204

(c) Establish requirements and procedures governing the 30205 review and approval or disapproval of composting plans by the 30206 supervisors of soil and water conservation districts under 30207 division ~~(U)~~(Q) of section 1515.08 of the Revised Code. 30208

~~(11)~~(9) Shall be adopted, amended, or rescinded after the 30209 chief does all of the following: 30210

(a) Mails notice to each statewide organization that the 30211 chief determines represents persons or local governmental agencies 30212 who would be affected by the proposed rule, amendment thereto, or 30213 rescission thereof at least thirty-five days before any public 30214 hearing thereon; 30215

(b) Mails a copy of each proposed rule, amendment thereto, or 30216 rescission thereof to any person who requests a copy, within five 30217 days after receipt of the request; 30218

(c) Consults with appropriate state and local governmental 30219 agencies or their representatives, including statewide 30220 organizations of local governmental officials, industrial 30221 representatives, and other interested persons; 30222

(d) If the rule relates to agricultural pollution abatement, 30223 develops an economic impact statement concerning the effect of the 30224 proposed rule or amendment. 30225

~~(12)~~(10) Shall not conflict with air or water quality 30226 standards adopted pursuant to section 3704.03 or 6111.041 of the 30227 Revised Code. Compliance with rules adopted pursuant to this 30228 section does not affect liability for noncompliance with air or 30229 water quality standards adopted pursuant to section 3704.03 or 30230 6111.041 of the Revised Code. The application of a level of 30231 management and conservation practices recommended under this 30232 section to control windblown soil from farming operations creates 30233 a presumption of compliance with section 3704.03 of the Revised 30234 Code as that section applies to windblown soil. 30235

~~(13)~~(11) Insofar as the rules relate to urban sediment 30236 pollution, shall not be applicable in a municipal corporation or 30237 county that adopts ordinances or rules for urban sediment control, 30238 except that a municipal corporation or county that adopts such 30239 ordinances or rules may receive moneys for urban sediment control 30240 that are disbursed by the board of supervisors of the applicable 30241 soil and water conservation district under division ~~(R)~~(N) of 30242 section 1515.08 of the Revised Code. The rules shall not exempt 30243 any person from compliance with municipal ordinances enacted 30244 pursuant to Section 3 of Article XVIII, Ohio Constitution. 30245

(F) Cost share with landowners on practices established 30246 pursuant to division (E)(5) of this section as moneys are 30247 appropriated and available for that purpose. Any practice for 30248 which cost share is provided shall be maintained for its useful 30249 life. Failure to maintain a cost share practice for its useful 30250 life shall subject the landowner to full repayment to the 30251
division. 30252

(G) Issue orders requiring compliance with any rule adopted 30253 under division (E)(1) of this section or with section 1511.022 of 30254 the Revised Code. Before the chief issues an order, the chief 30255 shall afford each person allegedly liable an adjudication hearing 30256 under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The chief may require in 30257 an order that a person who has caused agricultural pollution by 30258 failure to comply with the standards established under division 30259 (E)(1) of this section operate under an operation and management 30260 plan approved by the chief under this section. The chief shall 30261 require in an order that a person who has failed to comply with 30262 division (A) of section 1511.022 of the Revised Code prepare a 30263 composting plan in accordance with rules adopted under division 30264 (E)(10)(c) of this section and operate in accordance with that 30265 plan or that a person who has failed to operate in accordance with 30266 such a plan begin to operate in accordance with it. Each order 30267 shall be issued in writing and contain a finding by the chief of 30268 the facts upon which the order is based and the standard that is 30269 not being met. 30270

(H) Employ field assistants and such other employees as are 30271 necessary for the performance of the work prescribed by Chapter 30272

1515. of the Revised Code, for performance of work of the 30273 division, and as agreed to under working agreements or contractual 30274 arrangements with local soil and water conservation districts, 30275 prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation in accordance 30276 with such schedules as are provided by law for the compensation of 30277 state employees. 30278

All employees of the division, unless specifically exempted 30279 by law, shall be employed subject to the classified civil service 30280 laws in force at the time of employment. 30281

(I) In connection with new or relocated projects involving 30282 highways, underground cables, pipelines, railroads, and other 30283 improvements affecting soil and water resources, including surface 30284 and subsurface drainage: 30285

(1) Provide engineering service as is mutually agreeable to 30286 the Ohio soil and water conservation commission and the director 30287 to aid in the design and installation of soil and water 30288 conservation practices as a necessary component of such projects; 30289

(2) Maintain close liaison between the owners of lands on 30290 which the projects are executed, local soil and water conservation 30291 districts, and authorities responsible for such projects; 30292

(3) Review plans for such projects to ensure their compliance 30293 with standards developed under division (E) of this section in 30294 cooperation with the department of transportation or with any 30295 other interested agency that is engaged in soil or water 30296 conservation projects in the state in order to minimize adverse 30297 impacts on soil and water resources adjacent to or otherwise 30298 affected by these projects; 30299

(4) Recommend measures to retard erosion and protect soil and 30300 water resources through the installation of water impoundment or 30301 other soil and water conservation practices; 30302

(5) Cooperate with other agencies and subdivisions of the 30303 state to protect the agricultural status of rural lands adjacent 30304 to such projects and control adverse impacts on soil and water 30305 resources. 30306

(J) Collect, analyze, inventory, and interpret all available 30307 information pertaining to the origin, distribution, extent, use, 30308 and conservation of the soil resources of the state; 30309

(K) Prepare and maintain up-to-date reports, maps, and other 30310 materials pertaining to the soil resources of the state and their 30311 use and make that information available to governmental agencies, 30312 public officials, conservation entities, and the public; 30313

(L) Provide soil and water conservation districts with 30314 technical assistance including on-site soil investigations and 30315 soil interpretation reports on the suitability or limitations of 30316 soil to support a particular use or to plan soil conservation 30317 measures. The assistance shall be upon such terms as are mutually 30318 agreeable to the districts and the department of natural 30319
resources. 30320

(M) Assist local government officials in utilizing land use 30321 planning and zoning, current agricultural use value assessment, 30322 development reviews, and land management activities; 30323

(N) When necessary for the purposes of this chapter or 30324 Chapter 1515. of the Revised Code, develop or approve operation 30325 and management plans. 30326

This section does not restrict the excrement of domestic or 30327 farm animals defecated on land outside a concentrated animal 30328 feeding operation or runoff therefrom into the waters of the 30329
state. 30330

Sec. 1511.021. (A) Any person who owns or operates 30331 agricultural land or a concentrated animal feeding operation may 30332 develop and operate under an operation and management plan 30333 approved by the chief of the division of soil and water 30334 ~~conservation~~ resources under section 1511.02 of the Revised Code 30335 or by the supervisors of the local soil and water conservation 30336 district under section 1515.08 of the Revised Code. 30337

(B) Any person who wishes to make a complaint regarding 30338 nuisances involving agricultural pollution may do so orally or by 30339 submitting a written, signed, and dated complaint to the chief or 30340 to the chief's designee. After receiving an oral complaint, the 30341 chief or the chief's designee may cause an investigation to be 30342 conducted to determine whether agricultural pollution has occurred 30343 or is imminent. After receiving a written, signed, and dated 30344 complaint, the chief or the chief's designee shall cause such an 30345 investigation to be conducted. 30346

(C) In a private civil action for nuisances involving 30347 agricultural pollution, it is an affirmative defense if the person 30348 owning, operating, or otherwise responsible for agricultural land 30349 or a concentrated animal feeding operation is operating under and 30350 in substantial compliance with an approved operation and 30351 management plan developed under division (A) of this section, with 30352 an operation and management plan developed by the chief under 30353 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code or by the supervisors of the 30354 local soil and water conservation district under section 1515.08 30355 of the Revised Code, or with an operation and management plan 30356 required by an order issued by the chief under division (G) of 30357 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. Nothing in this section is in 30358 derogation of the authority granted to the chief in division (E) 30359 of section 1511.02 and in section 1511.07 of the Revised Code. 30360

Sec. 1511.022. (A) Any person who owns or operates an 30361 agricultural operation, or owns the animals raised by the owner or 30362 operator of an agricultural operation, and who wishes to conduct 30363 composting of dead animals resulting from the agricultural 30364 operation shall do both of the following: 30365

(1) Participate in an educational course concerning 30366 composting conducted by the Ohio cooperative extension service and 30367 obtain a certificate of completion for the course; 30368

(2) Use the appropriate method, technique, or practice of 30369 composting established in rules adopted under division (E)~~(10)~~(8) 30370 of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. 30371

(B) Any person who fails to comply with division (A) of this 30372 section shall prepare and operate under a composting plan in 30373 accordance with an order issued by the chief of the division of 30374 soil and water ~~conservation resources~~ under division (G) of 30375 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. If the person's proposed 30376 composting plan is disapproved by the board of supervisors of the 30377 appropriate soil and water conservation district under division 30378 ~~(U)~~(Q)(3) of section 1515.08 of the Revised Code, the person may 30379 appeal the plan disapproval to the chief, who shall afford the 30380 person a hearing. Following the hearing, the chief shall uphold 30381 the plan disapproval or reverse it. If the chief reverses the 30382 disapproval, the plan shall be deemed approved. 30383

Sec. 1511.03. The chief of the division of soil and water 30384 ~~conservation resources~~ may enter into contracts or agreements, 30385 with the approval of the director of natural resources, with any 30386 agency of the United States government, or any other public or 30387 private agency, or organization, for the performance of the 30388 prescribed duties of the division, or for accomplishing 30389 cooperative projects within the designated duties of the division. 30390

Sec. 1511.04. The chief of the division of soil and water 30391 ~~conservation resources~~ may accept, on behalf of the department of 30392 natural resources, donations, grants and contributions in money, 30393 service, or equipment to enlarge or expedite the prescribed work 30394

of the division. 30395

Sec. 1511.05. The chief of the division of soil and water 30396 ~~conservation~~ resources, subject to approval of the terms of the 30397 agreement by the soil and water conservation commission, shall 30398 enter into cooperative agreements with the board of supervisors of 30399 any soil and water conservation district desiring to enter into 30400 such agreements pursuant to section 1515.08 of the Revised Code. 30401 Such agreements shall be entered into to obtain compliance with 30402 rules and orders of the chief pertaining to agricultural pollution 30403 abatement and urban sediment pollution abatement. 30404

The chief or any person designated by the chief may upon 30405 obtaining agreement with the owner, tenant, or manager of any 30406 land, public or private, enter thereon to make inspections to 30407 determine whether or not there is compliance with the rules 30408 adopted under division (E)(1) of section 1511.02 of the Revised 30409 Code. Upon reason to believe there is a violation, the chief or 30410 ~~his~~ the chief's designee may apply for and a judge of the court of 30411 common pleas for the county where the land is located may issue an 30412 appropriate inspection warrant as necessary to achieve the 30413 purposes of this chapter. 30414

Sec. 1511.06. The chief of the division of soil and water 30415
~~conservation~~ resources may enter into agreements with local 30416 government agencies for the purpose of soil surveys, land use 30417 inventories, and other soil-related duties. 30418

Sec. 1511.07. (A)(1) No person shall fail to comply with an 30419 order of the chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ 30420 resources issued pursuant to division (G) of section 1511.02 of 30421
the Revised Code. 30422

(2) In addition to the remedies provided and irrespective of 30423 whether an adequate remedy at law exists, the chief may apply to 30424 the court of common pleas in the county where a violation of a 30425 standard established under division (E)(1) or ~~(10)~~(8)(b) of 30426 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code causes pollution of the waters 30427 of the state for an order to compel the violator to cease the 30428 violation and to remove the agricultural pollutant or to comply 30429 with the rules adopted under division (E)~~(10)~~(8)(b) of that 30430 section, as appropriate. 30431

(3) In addition to the remedies provided and irrespective of 30432 whether an adequate remedy at law exists, whenever the chief 30433 officially determines that an emergency exists because of an 30434 unauthorized release, spill, or discharge of animal waste, or a 30435 violation of a rule adopted under division (E)~~(10)~~(8)(b) of 30436 section 1511.02 of the Revised Code, that causes pollution of the 30437 waters of the state, the chief may, without notice or hearing, 30438 issue an order reciting the existence of the emergency and 30439 requiring that necessary action be taken to meet the emergency. 30440
The order shall be effective immediately. Any person to whom the 30441 order is directed shall comply with the order immediately, but on 30442 application to the chief shall be afforded a hearing as soon as 30443 possible, but not later than twenty days after making the 30444 application. On the basis of the hearing, the chief shall continue 30445 the order in effect, revoke it, or modify it. No emergency order 30446 shall remain in effect for more than sixty days after its 30447 issuance. If a person to whom an order is issued does not comply 30448 with the order within a reasonable period, as determined by the 30449 chief, the chief or the chief's designee may enter upon private or 30450 public lands and take action to mitigate, minimize, remove, or 30451 abate the release, spill, discharge, or conditions caused by the 30452 violation of the rule. 30453

(B) The attorney general, upon the written request of the 30454 chief, shall bring appropriate legal action in Franklin county 30455 against any person who fails to comply with an order of the chief 30456 issued pursuant to division (G) of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code. 30457 30458

Sec. 1511.071. There is hereby created in the state treasury 30459 the agricultural pollution abatement fund, which shall be 30460 administered by the chief of the division of soil and water 30461 ~~conservation~~ resources. The fund may be used to pay costs incurred 30462 by the division under division (A)(3) of section 1511.07 of the 30463 Revised Code in investigating, mitigating, minimizing, removing, 30464 or abating any pollution of the waters of the state caused by an 30465 unauthorized release, spill, or discharge of animal waste into or 30466 upon the environment that requires emergency action to protect the 30467 public health. 30468

Any person responsible for causing or allowing an 30469 unauthorized release, spill, or discharge is liable to the chief 30470 for any costs incurred by the division and soil and water 30471 conservation districts in investigating, mitigating, minimizing, 30472 removing, or abating the release, spill, or discharge, regardless 30473 of whether those costs were paid out of the agricultural pollution 30474 abatement fund or any other fund of the division or a district. 30475 Upon the request of the chief, the attorney general shall bring a 30476 civil action against the responsible person to recover those 30477 costs. Moneys recovered under this section shall be paid into the 30478 agricultural pollution abatement fund. 30479

Sec. 1511.08. Any person claiming to be deprived of a right 30480 or protection afforded ~~him~~ the person by law by an order of the 30481 chief of the division of soil and water ~~conservation~~ resources, 30482 except an order which adopts a rule, may appeal to the court of 30483 common pleas of Franklin county or the court of common pleas of 30484
the county in which the alleged violation exists. 30485

If the court finds that the order of the chief appealed from 30486 was lawful and reasonable, it shall affirm such order. If the court finds that such order was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall vacate such order and make the order which it finds the chief should have made. The judgment of the court is final unless reversed, vacated, or modified on appeal.

Sec. 1514.08. (A) The chief of the division of mineral resources management may adopt, amend, and rescind rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code in order to prescribe procedures for submitting applications for permits, amendments to permits, and amendments to plans of mining and reclamation; filing annual reports and final reports; requesting inspection and approval of reclamation; paying permit and filing fees; and filing and obtaining the release of performance bonds deposited with the state. For the purpose of preventing damage to adjoining property or achieving one or more of the performance standards established in division (A)(10) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, the chief may establish classes of mining industries, based upon industrial categories, combinations of minerals produced, and geological conditions in which surface or in-stream mining operations occur, and may prescribe different rules consistent with the performance standards for each class. For the purpose of apportioning the workload of the division of mineral resources management among the quarters of the year, the rules may require that applications for permits and annual reports be filed in different quarters of the year, depending upon the county in which the operation is located.

(B) The chief shall adopt rules under this section that do all of the following:

(1) With respect to in-stream mining, and in consultation with the chief of the division of soil and water resources, determine periods of low flow, which are the only time periods during which in-stream mining is allowed, and develop and 30518 implement any criteria, in addition to the criteria established in 30519 section 1514.02 of the Revised Code, that the chief determines are 30520 necessary for the permitting of in-stream mining; 30521

(2) Establish criteria and procedures for approving or 30522 disapproving the transfer of a surface or in-stream mining permit 30523 under division (F) of section 1514.02 of the Revised Code; 30524

(3) Define when any of the following may be considered to be 30525
"significant" for purposes of section 1514.022 of the Revised 30526
Code: 30527

(a) An amendment to a permit issued under section 1514.02 of 30528 the Revised Code for a surface or in-stream mining operation; 30529

(b) An amendment to the plan of mining and reclamation that 30530 must be filed with an application for either permit under section 30531
1514.02 of the Revised Code; 30532

(c) Changes to that plan of mining and reclamation that are 30533 proposed in a permit renewal application filed under section 30534
1514.021 of the Revised Code. 30535

In defining "significant," the chief shall focus on changes 30536 that increase the likelihood that the mining operation may have a 30537 negative impact on the public. 30538

(4) Establish a framework and procedures under which the 30539 amount of any bond required to be filed under this chapter to 30540 ensure the satisfactory performance of the reclamation measures 30541 required under this chapter may be reduced by subtracting a credit 30542 based on the operator's past compliance with this chapter and 30543 rules adopted and orders issued under it. The rules also shall 30544 apply to cash, an irrevocable letter of credit, or a certificate 30545 of deposit that is on deposit in lieu of a bond. In establishing 30546 the amount of credit that an operator or applicant may receive 30547 based on past compliance, the chief may consider past compliance 30548 with respect to any permit for a surface or in-stream mining 30549 operation that has been issued in this state to the operator or 30550 applicant. 30551

(5) Establish criteria and procedures for granting a variance 30552 from compliance with the prohibitions established in divisions 30553 (E)(3) and (F)(3) of section 1514.10 of the Revised Code. The 30554 criteria shall ensure that an operator may obtain a variance only 30555 if compliance with the applicable prohibition is not necessary to 30556 prevent damage to the watercourse or surrounding areas. 30557

Sec. 1514.10. No person shall: 30558

(A)(1) Engage in surface mining without a permit; 30559

(2) Engage in in-stream mining or conduct an in-stream mining 30560 operation without an in-stream mining permit issued by the chief 30561 of the division of mineral resources management. A person who, on 30562
~~the effective date of this amendment~~ March 15, 2002, holds a valid 30563 permit to conduct in-stream mining that is issued under section 10 30564 of the "Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Act of 1899," 30 Stat. 30565 1151, 33 U.S.C. 403, as amended, shall not be required to obtain 30566 an in-stream mining permit from the chief under this chapter until 30567 the existing permit expires. 30568

(B) Exceed the limits of a surface or in-stream mining permit 30569 or amendment to a permit by mining land contiguous to an area of 30570 land affected under a permit or amendment, which contiguous land 30571 is not under a permit or amendment; 30572

(C) Purposely misrepresent or omit any material fact in an 30573 application for a surface or in-stream mining permit or amendment, 30574 an annual or final report, or any hearing or investigation 30575 conducted by the chief or the reclamation commission; 30576

(D) Fail to perform any measure set forth in the approved 30577 plan of mining and reclamation that is necessary to prevent damage 30578 to adjoining property or to achieve a performance standard 30579 required in division (A)(10) of section 1514.02 of the Revised 30580 Code, or violate any other requirement of this chapter, a rule 30581 adopted thereunder, or an order of the chief; 30582

(E) Conduct surface excavations of minerals within any of the 30583
following: 30584

(1) One hundred twenty feet horizontal distance outward from 30585

Division (G) of this section does not apply to the activities 30649 described in divisions (M)(1) and (2) of section 1514.01 of the 30650
Revised Code. 30651

Sec. 1514.13. (A) The chief of the division of mineral 30652 resources management shall use the compilation of data for ground 30653 water modeling submitted under section 1514.02 of the Revised Code 30654 to establish a projected cone of depression for any surface mining 30655 operation that may result in dewatering. The chief shall consult 30656 with the chief of the division of soil and water resources when 30657 projecting a cone of depression. An applicant for a surface mining 30658 permit for such an operation may submit ground water modeling that 30659 shows a projected cone of depression for that operation to the 30660 chief, provided that the modeling complies with rules adopted by 30661 the chief regarding ground water modeling. However, the chief 30662 shall establish the projected cone of depression for the purposes 30663
of this section. 30664

The chief shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules in 30665 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing 30666 requirements and standards governing both of the following: 30667

(1) Ground water modeling for establishing a projected cone 30668 of depression. A ground water model shall be generally accepted in 30669
the scientific community. 30670

(2) Replacement of water supplies. 30671

(B)(1) If an owner of real property who obtains all or part 30672 of the owner's water supply for domestic, agricultural, 30673 industrial, or other legitimate use from ground water has a 30674 diminution, contamination, or interruption of that water supply 30675 and the owner's real property is located within the projected cone 30676 of depression of a surface mining operation established under this 30677 section, the owner may submit a written complaint to the operator 30678 of that operation or to the chief informing the operator or the 30679
chief that there is a diminution, contamination, or interruption 30680 of the owner's water supply. The complaint shall include the 30681 owner's name, address, and telephone number. 30682

If the chief receives a written complaint, the chief 30683 immediately shall send a copy of the complaint to the operator, 30684 and the operator immediately shall respond by sending the chief a 30685 statement that explains how the operator resolved or will resolve 30686 the complaint. If the operator receives a written complaint, the 30687 operator immediately shall send to the chief a copy of the 30688 complaint and include a statement that explains how the operator 30689 resolved or will resolve the complaint. Not later than seventy-two 30690 hours after receipt of the complaint, the operator shall provide 30691 the owner a supply of water that is comparable, in quantity and 30692 quality, to the owner's water supply prior to the diminution, 30693 contamination, or interruption of the owner's water supply. The 30694 operator shall maintain that water supply until the operator 30695 provides a permanent replacement water supply to the owner under 30696 division (B)(3) of this section or until the division of mineral 30697 resources management completes the evaluation under division 30698
(B)(2) of this section, whichever is applicable. 30699

(2) A rebuttable presumption exists that the operation caused 30700 the diminution, contamination, or interruption of the owner's 30701 water supply. However, not later than fourteen days after receipt 30702 of the complaint, the operator may submit to the division 30703 information showing that the operation is not the proximate cause 30704 of the diminution, contamination, or interruption of the owner's 30705 water supply. The division shall evaluate the information 30706 submitted by the operator to determine if the presumption is 30707 rebutted. If the operator fails to rebut the presumption, the 30708 division immediately shall notify the operator that the operator 30709 failed to rebut the presumption. Not later than fourteen days 30710 after receipt of that notice, the operator shall provide the owner 30711 a permanent replacement water supply that is comparable, in 30712 quantity and quality, to the owner's water supply prior to the 30713 diminution, contamination, or interruption of the owner's water 30714 supply. If the operator rebuts the presumption, the division 30715 immediately shall notify the operator that the operator rebutted 30716 the presumption, and, upon receipt of that notice, the operator 30717 may cease providing a supply of water to the owner under division 30718

(B)(1) of this section. 30719

(3) If, within fourteen days after receipt of the complaint, 30720 the operator does not submit to the division information showing 30721 that the operation is not the proximate cause of the diminution, 30722 contamination, or interruption of the owner's water supply, the 30723 operator shall provide the owner, not later than twenty-eight days 30724 after receipt of the complaint, a permanent replacement water 30725 supply that is comparable, in quantity and quality, to the owner's 30726 water supply prior to the diminution, contamination, or 30727 interruption of the owner's water supply. 30728

(4) The division may investigate a complaint under division 30729
(B) of this section. 30730

(C) If an owner of real property who obtains all or part of 30731 the owner's water supply for domestic, agricultural, industrial, 30732 or other legitimate use from ground water has a diminution, 30733 contamination, or interruption of that water supply and the 30734 owner's real property is not located within the projected cone of 30735 depression of a surface mining operation established under this 30736 section, the owner may submit a written complaint to the operator 30737

of that operation or to the chief informing the operator or the 30738
chief that there is a diminution, contamination, or interruption 30739
of the owner's water supply. The complaint shall include the 30740
owner's name, address, and telephone number. 30741

If the operator receives a written complaint, the operator 30742 immediately shall send the chief a copy of the complaint. If the 30743 chief receives a written complaint, the chief immediately shall 30744 send the operator a copy of the complaint. The chief shall 30745 investigate any complaint submitted under this division and, upon 30746 completion of the investigation, immediately shall send the 30747 results of the investigation to the operator and to the owner that 30748 filed the complaint. 30749

An owner that submits a written complaint under this division 30750 may resolve the diminution, contamination, or interruption of the 30751 owner's water supply with the operator of that operation or may 30752 commence a civil action for that purpose. 30753

(D) An operator may request the chief to amend the plan of 30754 mining and reclamation filed with the application under section 30755 1514.02 of the Revised Code when a ground water user may affect 30756 the projected cone of depression established for the operation 30757 under division (A) of this section. The operator shall submit 30758 additional data that reflect the ground water user's impact on the 30759 ground water. The chief shall perform ground water modeling using 30760 the additional data and may establish a revised projected cone of 30761 depression for that operation. 30762

(E) This section shall not be construed as creating, 30763 modifying, or affecting any right, liability, or remedy of surface 30764 riparian owners. 30765

Sec. 1515.08. The supervisors of a soil and water 30766 conservation district have the following powers in addition to 30767 their other powers: 30768

(A) To conduct surveys, investigations, and research relating 30769 by this state or any of its agencies and on any other lands within 30788 the district, which works may include any facilities authorized 30789 under state or federal programs, and to acquire, by purchase or 30790 the performance of the duties and the execution of the powers of 30814 the district under this chapter, provided that all of the 30815 following apply: 30816

(1) Except as provided in section 307.86 of the Revised Code 30817 regarding expenditures by boards of county commissioners, when the 30818 cost under any such contract, lease, or agreement, other than 30819 soil and water conservation district plans to undertake under 30945 division (A), (B), (C), or (D) of this section and that will be 30946 funded in whole or in part by moneys authorized under section 30947 1515.16 of the Revised Code and shall disapprove any such project 30948 that the director finds will adversely affect the environment 30949 without equal or greater benefit to the public. The director's 30950 disapproval or recommendations, upon the request of the district 30951 filed in accordance with rules adopted by the Ohio soil and water 30952 conservation commission, shall be reviewed by the commission, 30953 which may confirm the director's decision, modify it, or add 30954 levy limitation approved for the benefit of local soil and water 30968 conservation districts, or received from an appropriation by a 30969 municipal corporation or a township to a maximum of eight thousand 30970 dollars, provided that the Ohio soil and water conservation 30971 commission may approve payment to a district in an amount in 30972 excess of eight thousand dollars in any calendar year upon receipt 30973 of a request and justification from the district. The county 30974 auditor shall credit such payments to the special fund established 30975 pursuant to section 1515.10 of the Revised Code for the local soil 30976 and water conservation district. The department may make advances 30977 at least quarterly to each district on the basis of the estimated 30978 contribution of the state to each district. Moneys received by 30979 each district shall be expended for the purposes of the district. 30980
