the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 556

Sec. 7.10. For the publication of advertisements, notices, 557 and proclamations, except those relating to proposed amendments to 558 the Ohio ~~constitution~~ Constitution, required to be published by a 559 public officer of the state, ~~county, municipal corporation,~~ 560 ~~township, school,~~ a benevolent or other public institution, or by 561 a trustee, assignee, executor, or administrator, or by or in any 562 court of record, except when the rate is otherwise fixed by law, 563 publishers of newspapers may charge and receive for such 564 advertisements, notices, and proclamations rates charged on annual 565 contracts by them for a like amount of space to other advertisers 566 who advertise in its general display advertising columns. ~~Legal~~ 567

For the publication of advertisements, notices, or 568 proclamations required to be published by a public officer of a 569 county, municipal corporation, township, school, or other 570 political subdivision, publishers of newspapers shall establish a 571 government rate, which shall include free publication of 572 advertisements, notices, or proclamations on the newspaper's 573 internet web site, if the newspaper has one. The government rate 574 shall not exceed the lowest classified advertising rate and lowest 575 insert rate paid by other advertisers. 576

Legal advertising, except that relating to proposed 577 amendments to the Ohio ~~constitution~~ Constitution, shall be set up 578 in a compact form, without unnecessary spaces, blanks, or 579 headlines, and printed in not smaller than six-point type. The 580 type used must be of such proportions that the body of the capital 581 letter M is no wider than it is high and all other letters and 582 characters are in proportion. 583

Except as provided in section 2701.09 of the Revised Code, 584 all legal advertisements or notices shall be printed in newspapers 585 published in the English language only of general circulation and 586 also shall be posted on a newspaper's internet web site, if the 587 newspaper has one. 588

Sec. 7.11. A proclamation for an election, an order fixing 589 the time of holding court, notice of the rates of taxation, bridge 590 and pike notices, notice to contractors, and such other 591 advertisements of general interest to the taxpayers as the county 592 auditor, county treasurer, probate judge, or board of county 593 commissioners deems proper shall be published in ~~two newspapers a~~ 594 newspaper of ~~opposite politics of~~ general circulation, as defined 595 in section ~~5721.01~~ 7.12 of the Revised Code at the county seat ~~if~~ 596
~~there are such newspapers published thereat. If there are not two~~ 597 ~~newspapers of opposite politics and of general circulation~~ 598
~~published in said county seat, such publication shall be made in~~ 599
~~one newspaper published in said county seat and in any other~~ 600 ~~newspaper of general circulation in said county as defined in~~ 601
~~section 5721.01 of the Revised Code, wherever published, without~~ 602 ~~regard to the politics of such other newspaper.~~ In counties having 603 cities of eight thousand inhabitants or more, not the county seat 604 of such counties, additional publication of such notice shall be 605 made in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of opposite politics and of 606 general circulation ~~in such city,~~ as defined in such section, in 607 such city. ~~For purposes of this section, a newspaper independent~~ 608 ~~in politics is a newspaper of opposite politics to a newspaper of~~ 609 ~~designated political affiliation. Sections 7.10 to 7.13,~~ 610

~~inclusive, of the Revised Code, do not apply to the publication of~~ 611
~~notices of delinquent and forfeited land sales.~~ 612

The cost of any publication authorized by this section, which 613 ~~is~~ shall be printed in display form, shall be the ~~commercial~~ 614

~~without further restriction or limitation upon a selection of the~~ 623 ~~newspaper to be used. If no newspaper is published in such~~ 624 ~~municipal corporation, county, or other political subdivision,~~ 625 such legal publication shall be made in any newspaper of general 626 circulation therein. If there are less than two newspapers 627 published in any municipal corporation, county, or other political 628 subdivision in the manner defined by this section, then any legal 629 publication required by law to be made in a newspaper published in 630 a municipal corporation, county, or other political subdivision 631 may be made in any newspaper regularly issued at stated intervals 632 from a known office of publication located within the municipal 633 corporation, county, or other political subdivision. As used in 634 this section, a known office of publication is a public office 635 where the business of the newspaper is transacted during the usual 636

~~business hours, and such office shall be shown by the publication itself. As used in the Revised Code,~~ 637 638

~~In addition to all other requirements, a "newspaper" or "newspaper of general circulation," except ~~those publications~~ daily law journals in existence on or before July 1, 2011, and advertisement meets all of the following requirements: 700

(1) It is published in the newspaper of general circulation 701 in which the first publication of the notice or advertisement was 702 made and is published on that newspaper's internet web site, if 703 the newspaper has one. 704

(2) It includes a statement that the notice or advertisement 705 is posted in its entirety on the state agency's or political 706 subdivision's internet web site, or on the state public notice web 707 site established under section 125.182 of the Revised Code. 708

(3) It includes the internet addresses on the world wide web 709 of the state agency, political subdivision, or state public notice 710 web site and of the newspaper. 711

(4) It includes instructions for accessing the notice or 712 advertisement on the internet web sites specified in division 713
(A)(3) of this section. 714

(5) It is of sufficient size that it is at least one-fourth 715 of the size of the first publication in the newspaper. 716

(B) A notice or advertisement published under this section on 717 an internet web site shall be published in its entirety in 718 accordance with the section of the Revised Code that requires the 719 publication. 720

(C) If a state agency or political subdivision does not 721 operate and maintain, or ceases to operate and maintain, an 722 internet web site, and if the state public notice web site 723 established under section 125.182 of the Revised Code is not 724 operational, the state agency or political subdivision shall not 725 publish a notice or advertisement under this section, but instead 726 shall comply with the publication requirements of the section of 727 the Revised Code that refers to this section. 728

Sec. 9.03. (A) As used in this section, "political" 729 subdivision" means any body corporate and politic, except a 730 municipal corporation that has adopted a charter under Section 7 731 of Article XVIII, Ohio Constitution, and except a county that has 732 adopted a charter under Sections 3 and 4 of Article X, Ohio 733 Constitution, to which both of the following apply: 734

(1) It is responsible for governmental activities only in a 735 geographic area smaller than the state. 736

(2) It is subject to the sovereign immunity of the state. 737

(B) Except as otherwise provided in division (C) of this 738 section, the governing body of a political subdivision may use 739 public funds to publish and distribute newsletters, or to use any 740 other means, to communicate information about the plans, policies, 741 and operations of the political subdivision to members of the 742 public within the political subdivision and to other persons who 743 may be affected by the political subdivision. 744

(C) Except as otherwise provided in division (A)(7) of 745 section 340.03 or division (A)(12) of section 340.033 of the 746 Revised Code, no governing body of a political subdivision shall 747 use public funds to do any of the following: 748

(1) Publish, distribute, or otherwise communicate information 749 that does any of the following: 750

(a) Contains defamatory, libelous, or obscene matter; 751

(b) Promotes alcoholic beverages, cigarettes or other tobacco 752 products, or any illegal product, service, or activity; 753

(c) Promotes illegal discrimination on the basis of race, 754 color, religion, national origin, handicap, age, or ancestry; 755

(d) Supports or opposes any labor organization or any action 756 by, on behalf of, or against any labor organization; 757

(e) Supports or opposes the nomination or election of a 758 candidate for public office, the investigation, prosecution, or 759 recall of a public official, or the passage of a levy or bond 760 issue. 761

(2) Compensate any employee of the political subdivision for 762 time spent on any activity to influence the outcome of an election 763 for any of the purposes described in division (C)(1)(e) of this 764 section. Division (C)(2) of this section does not prohibit the use 765 of public funds to compensate an employee of a political 766 subdivision for attending a public meeting to present information 767 about the political subdivision's finances, activities, and 768 governmental actions in a manner that is not designed to influence 769 the outcome of an election or the passage of a levy or bond issue, 770 even though the election, levy, or bond issue is discussed or 771 debated at the meeting. 772

(D) Nothing in this section prohibits or restricts any 773 political subdivision from sponsoring, participating in, or doing 774
any of the following: 775

(1) Charitable or public service advertising that is not 776 commercial in nature unless the commercial advertising complies 777 with section 9.031 of the Revised Code; 778

(2) Advertising of exhibitions, performances, programs, 779 products, or services that are provided by employees of a 780 political subdivision or are provided at or through premises owned 781 or operated by a political subdivision; 782

(3) Licensing an interest in a name or mark that is owned or 783 controlled by the political subdivision. 784

(E) As used in this section, "cigarettes" and "tobacco 785 product" have the same meanings as in section 5743.01 of the 786

Sec. 9.031. (A) As used in this section: 788

(1) "Advertising" means internet advertising, including 789 banners and icons that may contain links to commercial internet 790 web sites. "Advertising" does not include spyware, malware, or any 791 viruses or programs considered to be malicious. 792

(2) "Political subdivision" has the meaning defined in 793
section 9.03 of the Revised Code. 794

(3) "State agency" has the meaning defined in section 1.60 of 795 the Revised Code and includes state institutions of higher 796 education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code. 797

(4) "State agency web site" means a web site, internet page, 798 or web page of a state agency office, with respective internet 799 addresses or subdomains, that are intended to provide the public 800 with information about services offered by the state agency 801 office, including relevant forms of searchable data. 802

(5) "Political subdivision web site" means a web site, 803 internet page, or web page of a political subdivision office, with 804 respective internet addresses or subdomains, that are intended to 805 provide the public with information about services offered by the 806 political subdivision office, including relevant forms of 807 searchable data. 808

(B) A state agency or political subdivision may authorize 809 commercial advertising on a state agency web site or political 810 subdivision web site. A state agency shall adopt rules under 811 section 111.15 of the Revised Code and a political subdivision 812 shall adopt a resolution to authorize placing commercial 813 advertising on the state agency or political subdivision web site. 814
The rules or resolution shall include all of the following: 815

(1) A specification of the state agency or political 816 subdivision office, and of the officials or employees therein, who 817 are authorized to place commercial advertisements on the state 818 agency or political subdivision web site; 819

(2) Criteria for choosing the advertisers and types of 820 advertisements that may be placed on the state agency or political 821 subdivision web site; 822

(3) Requirements and procedures for making requests for 823 proposals for placing commercial advertising on the state agency 824 or political subdivision web site; 825

(4) Any other requirements or limitations necessary to 826 authorize commercial advertising on the state agency or political 827 subdivision web site. 828

(C) A state agency or political subdivision web site on which 829 commercial advertising is placed shall be used exclusively to 830 provide information from the state agency or political subdivision 831 office to the public, and shall not be used as a public forum. 832

Sec. 9.05. Notwithstanding any provision of section 109.02 of 833 the Revised Code to the contrary, the members of the apportionment 834 board, by majority vote, may choose to be represented by either 835 the attorney general or by private legal counsel in regard to any 836 lawsuit challenging the constitutionality or legality of general 837 assembly districts established under Article XI of the Ohio 838 Constitution. 839

As used in this section, "apportionment board" means the 840 persons designated in Section 1 of Article XI, Ohio Constitution, 841 as being responsible for the apportionment of this state for 842 members of the general assembly. 843

Sec. 9.06. (A)(1) The department of rehabilitation and 844 correction may contract for the private operation and management 845 pursuant to this section of the initial intensive program prison 846 established pursuant to section 5120.033 of the Revised Code, if 847 one or more intensive program prisons are established under that 848 section, and may contract for the private operation and management 849 of any other facility under this section. Counties and municipal 850 corporations to the extent authorized in sections 307.93, 341.35, 851 753.03, and 753.15 of the Revised Code may contract for the 852 private operation and management of a facility under this section. 853

A contract entered into under this section shall be for an initial 854 term ~~of not more than two years~~ specified in the contract with an 855 option to renew for additional periods of two years. 856

(2) The department of rehabilitation and correction, by rule, 857 shall adopt minimum criteria and specifications that a person or 858 entity, other than a person or entity that satisfies the criteria 859 set forth in division (A)(3)(a) of this section and subject to 860 division (I) of this section, must satisfy in order to apply to 861 operate and manage as a contractor pursuant to this section the 862 initial intensive program prison established pursuant to section 863 5120.033 of the Revised Code, if one or more intensive program 864 prisons are established under that section. 865

(3) Subject to division (I) of this section, any person or 866 entity that applies to operate and manage a facility as a 867 contractor pursuant to this section shall satisfy one or more of 868 the following criteria: 869

(a) The person or entity ~~is accredited by the American~~ 870 ~~correctional association and~~, at the time of the application, 871 operates and manages one or more facilities accredited by the 872 American correctional association. 873

(b) The person or entity satisfies all of the minimum 874 criteria and specifications adopted by the department of 875 rehabilitation and correction pursuant to division (A)(2) of this 876 section, provided that this alternative shall be available only in 877 relation to the initial intensive program prison established 878 pursuant to section 5120.033 of the Revised Code, if one or more 879 intensive program prisons are established under that section. 880

(4) Subject to division (I) of this section, before a public 881 entity may enter into a contract under this section, the 882 contractor shall convincingly demonstrate to the public entity 883 that it can operate the facility with the inmate capacity required 884 by the public entity and provide the services required in this 885 section and realize at least a five per cent savings over the 886 projected cost to the public entity of providing these same 887 services to operate the facility that is the subject of the 888 contract. No out-of-state prisoners may be housed in any facility 889 that is the subject of a contract entered into under this section. 890

(B) Subject to division (I) of this section, any contract 891 entered into under this section shall include all of the 892
following: 893

(1) A requirement that ~~the contractor retain the contractor's~~ 894 ~~accreditation from the American correctional association~~ 895 ~~throughout the contract term or~~, if the contractor applied 896 pursuant to division (A)(3)(b) of this section, the contractor 897 continue complying with the applicable criteria and specifications 898 adopted by the department of rehabilitation and correction 899 pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section; 900

(2) A requirement that all of the following conditions be 901 met: 902

(a) The contractor begins the process of accrediting the 903 facility with the American correctional association no later than 904 sixty days after the facility receives its first inmate. 905

(b) The contractor receives accreditation of the facility 906 within twelve months after the date the contractor applies to the 907 American correctional association for accreditation. 908

(c) Once the accreditation is received, the contractor 909 maintains it for the duration of the contract term. 910

(d) If the contractor does not comply with divisions 911
(B)(2)(a) to (c) of this section, the contractor is in violation 912 of the contract, and the public entity may revoke the contract at 913 its discretion. 914

(3) A requirement that the contractor comply with all rules 915 promulgated by the department of rehabilitation and correction 916 that apply to the operation and management of correctional 917 facilities, including the minimum standards for jails in Ohio and 918 policies regarding the use of force and the use of deadly force, 919 although the public entity may require more stringent standards, 920 and comply with any applicable laws, rules, or regulations of the 921 federal, state, and local governments, including, but not limited 922 to, sanitation, food service, safety, and health regulations. The 923 contractor shall be required to send copies of reports of 924 inspections completed by the appropriate authorities regarding 925 compliance with rules and regulations to the director of 926 rehabilitation and correction or the director's designee and, if 927 contracting with a local public entity, to the governing authority 928 of that entity. 929

(4) A requirement that the contractor report for 930 investigation all crimes in connection with the facility to the 931 public entity, to all local law enforcement agencies with 932 jurisdiction over the place at which the facility is located, and, 933 for a crime committed at a state correctional institution, to the 934 state highway patrol; 935

(5) A requirement that the contractor immediately report all 936 escapes from the facility, and the apprehension of all escapees, 937 by telephone and in writing to all local law enforcement agencies 938 with jurisdiction over the place at which the facility is located, 939 to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the facility is 940 located, to the state highway patrol, to a daily newspaper having 941 general circulation in the county in which the facility is 942 located, and, if the facility is a state correctional institution, 943 to the department of rehabilitation and correction. The written 944 notice may be by either facsimile transmission or mail. A failure 945 to comply with this requirement regarding an escape is a violation 946 of section 2921.22 of the Revised Code. 947

(6) A requirement that, if the facility is a state 948 correctional institution, the contractor provide a written report 949 within specified time limits to the director of rehabilitation and 950 correction or the director's designee of all unusual incidents at 951 the facility as defined in rules promulgated by the department of 952 rehabilitation and correction or, if the facility is a local 953 correctional institution, that the contractor provide a written 954 report of all unusual incidents at the facility to the governing 955 authority of the local public entity; 956

(7) A requirement that the contractor maintain proper control 957 of inmates' personal funds pursuant to rules promulgated by the 958 department of rehabilitation and correction for state correctional 959 institutions or pursuant to the minimum standards for jails along 960 with any additional standards established by the local public 961 entity for local correctional institutions and that records 962 pertaining to these funds be made available to representatives of 963 the public entity for review or audit; 964

(8) A requirement that the contractor prepare and distribute 965 to the director of rehabilitation and correction or, if 966 contracting with a local public entity, to the governing authority 967 of the local entity annual budget income and expenditure 968 statements and funding source financial reports; 969

(9) A requirement that the public entity appoint and 970 supervise a full-time contract monitor, that the contractor 971 provide suitable office space for the contract monitor at the 972 facility, and that the contractor allow the contract monitor 973 unrestricted access to all parts of the facility and all records 974 of the facility except the contractor's financial records; 975

correctional institution designated department of rehabilitation	977 and correction staff members be allowed access to the facility in	978 accordance with rules promulgated by the department;	979
(11) A requirement that the contractor provide internal and	980 perimeter security as agreed upon in the contract;	981
(12) If the facility is a state correctional institution, a	982 requirement that the contractor impose discipline on inmates	983 housed in a state correctional institution the facility only in	984 accordance with rules promulgated by the department of	985 rehabilitation and correction;	986
(13) A requirement that the facility be staffed at all times	987 with a staffing pattern approved by the public entity and adequate	988
both to ensure supervision of inmates and maintenance of security	989 within the facility and to provide for programs, transportation,	990 security, and other operational needs. In determining security	991 needs, the contractor shall be required to consider, among other	992 things, the proximity of the facility to neighborhoods and	993 schools.	994
(14) If the contract is with a local public entity, a	995 requirement that the contractor provide services and programs,	996 consistent with the minimum standards for jails promulgated by the	997 department of rehabilitation and correction under section 5120.10	998
of the Revised Code;	999
(15) A clear statement that no immunity from liability	1000 granted to the state, and no immunity from liability granted to	1001 political subdivisions under Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code,	1002 shall extend to the contractor or any of the contractor's	1003
employees;	1004
(16) A statement that all documents and records relevant to	1005
the facility shall be maintained in the same manner required for,	1006 and subject to the same laws, rules, and regulations as apply to, 1007 the records of the public entity; 1008

(17) Authorization for the public entity to impose a fine on 1009 the contractor from a schedule of fines included in the contract 1010 for the contractor's failure to perform its contractual duties or 1011 to cancel the contract, as the public entity considers 1012 appropriate. If a fine is imposed, the public entity may reduce 1013 the payment owed to the contractor pursuant to any invoice in the 1014 amount of the imposed fine. 1015

(18) A statement that all services provided or goods produced 1016 at the facility shall be subject to the same regulations, and the 1017 same distribution limitations, as apply to goods and services 1018 produced at other correctional institutions; 1019

(19) ~~Authorization~~ If the facility is a state correctional 1020 institution, authorization for the department to establish one or 1021 more prison industries at a the facility ~~operated and managed by a~~ 1022 ~~contractor for the department;~~ 1023

(20) A requirement that, if the facility is an intensive 1024 program prison established pursuant to section 5120.033 of the 1025 Revised Code, the facility shall comply with all criteria for 1026 intensive program prisons of that type that are set forth in that 1027
section; 1028

(21) If the ~~institution~~ facility is a state correctional 1029 institution, a requirement that the contractor provide clothing 1030 for all inmates housed in the facility that is conspicuous in its 1031 color, style, or color and style, that conspicuously identifies 1032 its wearer as an inmate, and that is readily distinguishable from 1033 clothing of a nature that normally is worn outside the facility by 1034 non-inmates, that the contractor require all inmates housed in the 1035 facility to wear the clothing so provided, and that the contractor 1036 not permit any inmate, while inside or on the premises of the 1037 facility or while being transported to or from the facility, to 1038 wear any clothing of a nature that does not conspicuously identify 1039 its wearer as an inmate and that normally is worn outside the 1040 facility by non-inmates. 1041

(C) No contract entered into under this section may require, 1042 authorize, or imply a delegation of the authority or 1043 responsibility of the public entity to a contractor for any of the 1044
following: 1045

(1) Developing or implementing procedures for calculating 1046 inmate release and parole eligibility dates and recommending the 1047 granting or denying of parole, although the contractor may submit 1048 written reports that have been prepared in the ordinary course of 1049 business; 1050

(2) Developing or implementing procedures for calculating and 1051 awarding earned credits, approving the type of work inmates may 1052 perform and the wage or earned credits, if any, that may be 1053 awarded to inmates engaging in that work, and granting, denying, 1054 or revoking earned credits; 1055

(3) For inmates serving a term imposed for a felony offense 1056 committed prior to July 1, 1996, or for a misdemeanor offense, 1057 developing or implementing procedures for calculating and awarding 1058 good time, approving the goodtime, if any, that may be awarded to 1059 inmates engaging in work, and granting, denying, or revoking good 1060
time; 1061

(4) Classifying an inmate or placing an inmate in a more or a 1062 less restrictive custody than the custody ordered by the public 1063 entity; 1064

(5) Approving inmates for work release; 1065

(6) Contracting for local or long distance telephone services 1066 for inmates or receiving commissions from those services at a 1067 facility that is owned by or operated under a contract with the 1068

department. 1069

(D) A contractor that has been approved to operate a facility 1070 under this section, and a person or entity that enters into a 1071 contract for specialized services, as described in division (I) of 1072
pursuant to section 5120.033 of the Revised Code to be operated by 1074
a contractor that has been approved to operate the prison under 1075 this section, shall provide an adequate policy of insurance 1076 specifically including, but not limited to, insurance for civil 1077 rights claims as determined by a risk management or actuarial firm 1078 with demonstrated experience in public liability for state 1079 governments. The insurance policy shall provide that the state, 1080 including all state agencies, and all political subdivisions of 1081 the state with jurisdiction over the facility or in which a 1082 facility is located are named as insured, and that the state and 1083 its political subdivisions shall be sent any notice of 1084 cancellation. The contractor may not self-insure. 1085

A contractor that has been approved to operate a facility 1086
under this section, and a person or entity that enters into a 1087
pursuant to section 5120.033 of the Revised Code to be operated by 1090
this section, shall indemnify and hold harmless the state, its 1092 officers, agents, and employees, and any local government entity 1093 in the state having jurisdiction over the facility or ownership of 1094 the facility, shall reimburse the state for its costs in defending 1095 the state or any of its officers, agents, or employees, and shall 1096 reimburse any local government entity of that nature for its costs 1097 in defending the local government entity, from all of the 1098
following: 1099

(1) Any claims or losses for services rendered by the 1100 contractor, person, or entity performing or supplying services in 1101 connection with the performance of the contract; 1102

(2) Any failure of the contractor, person, or entity or its 1103 officers or employees to adhere to the laws, rules, regulations, 1104 or terms agreed to in the contract; 1105

(3) Any constitutional, federal, state, or civil rights claim 1106 brought against the state related to the facility operated and 1107 managed by the contractor; 1108

(4) Any claims, losses, demands, or causes of action arising 1109 out of the contractor's, person's, or entity's activities in this 1110
state; 1111

(5) Any attorney's fees or court costs arising from any 1112 habeas corpus actions or other inmate suits that may arise from 1113 any event that occurred at the facility or was a result of such an 1114 event, or arise over the conditions, management, or operation of 1115 the facility, which fees and costs shall include, but not be 1116 limited to, attorney's fees for the state's representation and for 1117 any court-appointed representation of any inmate, and the costs of 1118 any special judge who may be appointed to hear those actions or 1119 suits. 1120

(E) Private correctional officers of a contractor operating 1121 and managing a facility pursuant to a contract entered into under 1122 this section may carry and use firearms in the course of their 1123 employment only after being certified as satisfactorily completing 1124 an approved training program as described in division (A) of 1125
section 109.78 of the Revised Code. 1126

(F) Upon notification by the contractor of an escape from, or 1127 of a disturbance at, the facility that is the subject of a 1128 contract entered into under this section, the department of 1129 rehabilitation and correction and state and local law enforcement 1130 agencies shall use all reasonable means to recapture escapees or 1131 quell any disturbance. Any cost incurred by the state or its political subdivisions relating to the apprehension of an escapee or the quelling of a disturbance at the facility shall be chargeable to and borne by the contractor. The contractor shall also reimburse the state or its political subdivisions for all reasonable costs incurred relating to the temporary detention of the escapee following recapture.

(G) Any offense that would be a crime if committed at a state correctional institution or jail, workhouse, prison, or other correctional facility shall be a crime if committed by or with regard to inmates at facilities operated pursuant to a contract entered into under this section.

(H) A contractor operating and managing a facility pursuant to a contract entered into under this section shall pay any inmate workers at the facility at the rate approved by the public entity. Inmates working at the facility shall not be considered employees of the contractor.

(1) The contract for the general operation and management 1164 shall comply with all requirements and criteria set forth in this 1165 section, and all provisions of this section apply in relation to 1166 the prison operated and managed pursuant to the contract. 1167

(2) Divisions (A)(2), (B), and (C) of this section do not 1168 apply in relation to any specialized services contract, except to 1169 the extent that the provisions of those divisions clearly are 1170 relevant to the specialized services to be provided under the 1171 specialized services contract. Division (D) of this section 1172 applies in relation to each specialized services contract. 1173

(J) If, on or after the effective date of this amendment, a 1174 contractor enters into a contract with the department of 1175 rehabilitation and correction under this section for the operation 1176 and management of any facility described in Section 753.10 of the 1177 act in which this amendment was adopted or with the department of 1178 youth services and department of administrative services under 1179 Section 753.30 of the act in which this amendment was adopted for 1180 the operation and management as an adult correctional facility of 1181 any facility described in that section, if the contract provides 1182 for the sale of the facility to the contractor, if the facility is 1183 sold to the contractor subsequent to the execution of the 1184 contract, and if the contractor is privately operating and 1185 managing the facility, notwithstanding the contractor's private 1186 operation and management of the facility, all of the following 1187 apply: 1188

(1) Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this 1189 section, the facility being privately operated and managed by the 1190 contractor shall be considered for purposes of the Revised Code as 1191 being under the control of, or under the jurisdiction of, the 1192 department of rehabilitation and correction. 1193

(2) Any reference in this section to "state correctional 1194 institution," any reference in Chapter 2967. of the Revised Code 1195 to "state correctional institution," other than the definition of 1196 that term set forth in section 2967.01 of the Revised Code, or to 1197

"prison," and any reference in Chapter 2929., 5120., 5145., 5147., 1198 or 5149. or any other provision of the Revised Code to "state 1199 correctional institution" or "prison" shall be considered to 1200 include a reference to the facility being privately operated and 1201 managed by the contractor, unless the context makes the inclusion 1202 of that facility clearly inapplicable. 1203

(3) Upon the sale and conveyance of the facility, the 1204 facility shall be returned to the tax list and duplicate 1205 maintained by the county auditor, and the facility shall be 1206 subject to all real property taxes and assessments. No exemption 1207 from real property taxation pursuant to Chapter 5709. of the 1208 Revised Code shall apply to the facility conveyed. The gross 1209 receipts and income of the contractor to whom the facility is 1210 conveyed that are derived from operating and managing the facility 1211 under this section shall be exempt from gross receipts and income 1212 taxes levied by the state and its subdivisions, including the 1213 taxes levied pursuant to Chapters 718., 5747., 5748., and 5751. of 1214
the Revised Code. 1215

(K) As used in this section: 1216

(1) "Public entity" means the department of rehabilitation 1217 and correction, or a county or municipal corporation or a 1218 combination of counties and municipal corporations, that has 1219 jurisdiction over a facility that is the subject of a contract 1220 entered into under this section. 1221

(2) "Local public entity" means a county or municipal 1222 corporation, or a combination of counties and municipal 1223 corporations, that has jurisdiction over a jail, workhouse, or 1224 other correctional facility used only for misdemeanants that is 1225 the subject of a contract entered into under this section. 1226

(3) "Governing authority of a local public entity" means, for 1227 a county, the board of county commissioners; for a municipal 1228 corporation, the legislative authority; for a combination of 1229 counties and municipal corporations, all the boards of county 1230 commissioners and municipal legislative authorities that joined to 1231 create the facility. 1232

(4) "Contractor" means a person or entity that enters into a 1233 contract under this section to operate and manage a jail, 1234 workhouse, or other correctional facility. 1235

(5) "Facility" means ~~the~~ any of the following: 1236

(a) The specific county, multicounty, municipal, 1237 municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal jail, workhouse, 1238 prison, or other type of correctional institution or facility used 1239 only for misdemeanants, ~~or a~~ that is the subject of a contract 1240 entered into under this section; 1241

(b) Any state correctional institution, ~~that is the subject~~ 1242 of a contract entered into under this section, including any 1243 facility described in Section 753.10 of the act in which this 1244 amendment was adopted or under Section 753.30 of the act in which 1245 this section was adopted and used as an adult correctional 1246 facility at any time prior to or after any sale to a contractor of 1247 the state's right, title, and interest in the facility, the land 1248 situated thereon, and specified surrounding land. 1249

(6) "Person or entity" in the case of a contract for the 1250 private operation and management of a state correctional 1251 institution, includes an employee organization, as defined in 1252 section 4117.01 of the Revised Code, that represents employees at 1253 state correctional institutions. 1254

Sec. 9.231. (A)(1) Subject to divisions (A)(2) and (3) of 1255 this section, a governmental entity shall not disburse money 1256 totaling twenty-five thousand dollars or more to any person for 1257 the provision of services for the primary benefit of individuals 1258 or the public and not for the primary benefit of a governmental 1259 entity or the employees of a governmental entity, unless the 1260 contracting authority of the governmental entity first enters into 1261 a written contract with the person that is signed by the person or 1262 by an officer or agent of the person authorized to legally bind 1263 the person and that embodies all of the requirements and 1264 conditions set forth in sections 9.23 to 9.236 of the Revised 1265 Code. If the disbursement of money occurs over the course of a 1266 governmental entity's fiscal year, rather than in a lump sum, the 1267 contracting authority of the governmental entity shall enter into 1268 the written contract with the person at the point during the 1269 governmental entity's fiscal year that at least seventy-five 1270 thousand dollars has been disbursed by the governmental entity to 1271 the person. Thereafter, the contracting authority of the 1272 governmental entity shall enter into the written contract with the 1273 person at the beginning of the governmental entity's fiscal year, 1274 if, during the immediately preceding fiscal year, the governmental 1275 entity disbursed to that person an aggregate amount totaling at 1276 least seventy-five thousand dollars. 1277

(2) If the money referred to in division (A)(1) of this 1278 section is disbursed by or through more than one state agency to 1279 the person for the provision of services to the same population, 1280 the contracting authorities of those agencies shall determine 1281 which one of them will enter into the written contract with the 1282
person. 1283

(3) The requirements and conditions set forth in divisions 1284
(A), (B), (C), and (F) of section 9.232, divisions (A)(1) and (2) 1285 and (B) of section 9.234, divisions (A)(2) and (B) of section 1286 9.235, and sections 9.233 and 9.236 of the Revised Code do not 1287 apply with respect to the following: 1288

(a) Contracts to which all of the following apply:	1289
(iii) Payment for the services is made after the services are delivered and upon submission to the governmental entity of an invoice or other claim for payment as required by any applicable local, state, or federal law or, if no such law applies, by the terms of the contract.	1305 1306 1307 1308 1309
(b) Contracts under which the services are reimbursed through or in a manner consistent with a federal program that meets all of the following requirements:	1310 1311 1312
(i) The program calculates the reimbursement rate on the basis of the previous year's experience or in accordance with an alternative method set forth in rules adopted by the Ohio department of job and family services.	1313 1314 1315 1316
(ii) The reimbursement rate is derived from a breakdown of direct and indirect costs.	1317 1318
(iii) The program's guidelines describe types of expenditures	1319 that are allowable and not allowable under the program and 1320 delineate which costs are acceptable as direct costs for purposes 1321 of calculating the reimbursement rate. 1322

(iv) The program includes a uniform cost reporting system 1323 with specific audit requirements. 1324

(c) Contracts under which the services are reimbursed through 1325 or in a manner consistent with a federal program that calculates 1326
the reimbursement rate on a fee for service basis in compliance 1327 with United States office of management and budget Circular A-87, 1328 as revised May 10, 2004. 1329

(d) Contracts for services that are paid pursuant to the 1330 earmarking of an appropriation made by the general assembly for 1331 that purpose. 1332

(B) Division (A) of this section does not apply if the money 1333 is disbursed to a person pursuant to a contract with the United 1334 States or a governmental entity under any of the following 1335 circumstances: 1336

(1) The person receives the money directly or indirectly from 1337 the United States, and no governmental entity exercises any 1338 oversight or control over the use of the money. 1339

(2) The person receives the money solely in return for the 1340 performance of one or more of the following types of services: 1341

(a) Medical, therapeutic, or other health-related services 1342 provided by a person if the amount received is a set fee for each 1343 time the person provides the services, is determined in accordance 1344 with a fixed rate per unit of time, or is a capitated rate, and 1345 the fee or rate is reasonable and customary in the person's trade 1346 or profession; 1347

(b) Medicaid-funded services, including administrative and 1348 management services, provided pursuant to a contract or medicaid 1349 provider agreement that meets the requirements of the medicaid 1350 program established under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code. 1351

(c) Services, other than administrative or management 1352 services or any of the services described in division (B)(2)(a) or 1353 (b) of this section, that are commonly purchased by the public at 1354 an hourly rate or at a set fee for each time the services are 1355 provided, unless the services are performed for the benefit of 1356 children, persons who are eligible for the services by reason of 1357 advanced age, medical condition, or financial need, or persons who 1358 are confined in a detention facility as defined in section 2921.01 1359 of the Revised Code, and the services are intended to help promote 1360 the health, safety, or welfare of those children or persons; 1361

(d) Educational services provided by a school to children 1362 eligible to attend that school. For purposes of division (B)(2)(d) 1363 of this section, "school" means any school operated by a school 1364 district board of education, any community school established 1365 under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code, or any nonpublic school 1366 for which the state board of education prescribes minimum 1367 education standards under section 3301.07 of the Revised Code. 1368

(e) Services provided by a foster home as defined in section 1369
5103.02 of the Revised Code; 1370

(f) "Routine business services other than administrative or 1371 management services," as that term is defined by the attorney 1372 general by rule adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 1373

(g) Services to protect the environment or promote 1375 environmental education that are provided by a nonprofit entity or 1376 services to protect the environment that are funded with federal 1377 grants or revolving loan funds and administered in accordance with 1378
federal law; 1379

~~(h) Services, including administrative and management 1380~~

~~services, provided under the children's buy in program established 1381
under sections 5101.5211 to 5101.5216 of the Revised Code. 1382~~

(3) The person receives the money solely in return for the 1383 performance of services intended to help preserve public health or 1384 safety under circumstances requiring immediate action as a result 1385 of a natural or man-made emergency. 1386

(C) With respect to a nonprofit association, corporation, or 1387 organization established for the purpose of providing educational, 1388 technical, consulting, training, financial, or other services to 1389 its members in exchange for membership dues and other fees, any of 1390 the services provided to a member that is a governmental entity 1391 shall, for purposes of this section, be considered services "for 1392 the primary benefit of a governmental entity or the employees of a 1393 governmental entity. 1394

Sec. 9.24. (A) Except as may be allowed under division (F) of 1395 this section, no state agency and no political subdivision shall 1396 award a contract as described in division (G)(1) of this section 1397 for goods, services, or construction, paid for in whole or in part 1398 with state funds, to a person against whom a finding for recovery 1399 has been issued by the auditor of state on and after January 1, 1400 2001, if the finding for recovery is unresolved. 1401

A contract is considered to be awarded when it is entered 1402 into or executed, irrespective of whether the parties to the 1403 contract have exchanged any money. 1404

(B) For purposes of this section, a finding for recovery is 1405 unresolved unless one of the following criteria applies: 1406

(1) The money identified in the finding for recovery is paid 1407 in full to the state agency or political subdivision to whom the 1408 money was owed; 1409

(2) The debtor has entered into a repayment plan that is 1410 approved by the attorney general and the state agency or political 1411 subdivision to whom the money identified in the finding for 1412 recovery is owed. A repayment plan may include a provision 1413 permitting a state agency or political subdivision to withhold 1414 payment to a debtor for goods, services, or construction provided 1415 to or for the state agency or political subdivision pursuant to a 1416 contract that is entered into with the debtor after the date the 1417 finding for recovery was issued. 1418

(3) The attorney general waives a repayment plan described in 1419 division (B)(2) of this section for good cause; 1420

(4) The debtor and state agency or political subdivision to 1421 whom the money identified in the finding for recovery is owed have 1422 agreed to a payment plan established through an enforceable 1423 settlement agreement. 1424

(5) The state agency or political subdivision desiring to 1425 enter into a contract with a debtor certifies, and the attorney 1426 general concurs, that all of the following are true: 1427

(a) Essential services the state agency or political 1428 subdivision is seeking to obtain from the debtor cannot be 1429 provided by any other person besides the debtor; 1430

(b) Awarding a contract to the debtor for the essential 1431 services described in division (B)(5)(a) of this section is in the 1432 best interest of the state; 1433

(c) Good faith efforts have been made to collect the money 1434 identified in the finding of recovery. 1435

(6) The debtor has commenced an action to contest the finding 1436 for recovery and a final determination on the action has not yet 1437 been reached. 1438

(C) The attorney general shall submit an initial report to 1439 the auditor of state, not later than December 1, 2003, indicating 1440 the status of collection for all findings for recovery issued by 1441 the auditor of state for calendar years 2001, 2002, and 2003. 1442 Beginning on January 1, 2004, the attorney general shall submit to 1443 the auditor of state, on the first day of every January, April, 1444 July, and October, a list of all findings for recovery that have 1445 been resolved in accordance with division (B) of this section 1446 during the calendar quarter preceding the submission of the list 1447 and a description of the means of resolution. The attorney general 1448 shall notify the auditor of state when a judgment is issued 1449 against an entity described in division (F)(1) of this section. 1450

(D) The auditor of state shall maintain a database, 1451 accessible to the public, listing persons against whom an 1452 unresolved finding for recovery has been issued, and the amount of 1453 the money identified in the unresolved finding for recovery. The 1454 auditor of state shall have this database operational on or before 1455 January 1, 2004. The initial database shall contain the 1456 information required under this division for calendar years 2001, 1457 2002, and 2003. 1458

Beginning January 15, 2004, the auditor of state shall update 1459 the database by the fifteenth day of every January, April, July, 1460 and October to reflect resolved findings for recovery that are 1461 reported to the auditor of state by the attorney general on the 1462 first day of the same month pursuant to division (C) of this 1463
section. 1464

(E) Before awarding a contract as described in division 1465
(G)(1) of this section for goods, services, or construction, paid 1466 for in whole or in part with state funds, a state agency or 1467 political subdivision shall verify that the person to whom the 1468 state agency or political subdivision plans to award the contract 1469 has no unresolved finding for recovery issued against the person. 1470
A state agency or political subdivision shall verify that the 1471 person does not appear in the database described in division (D) 1472 of this section or shall obtain other proof that the person has no 1473 unresolved finding for recovery issued against the person. 1474

(F) The prohibition of division (A) of this section and the 1475 requirement of division (E) of this section do not apply with 1476 respect to the companies, payments, or agreements described in 1477 divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, or in the circumstance 1478 described in division (F)(3) of this section. 1479

(1) A bonding company or a company authorized to transact the 1480 business of insurance in this state, a self-insurance pool, joint 1481 self-insurance pool, risk management program, or joint risk 1482 management program, unless a court has entered a final judgment 1483 against the company and the company has not yet satisfied the 1484 final judgment. 1485

(2) To medicaid provider agreements under Chapter 5111. of 1486 the Revised Code ~~or payments or provider agreements under the~~ 1487 ~~children's buy in program established under sections 5101.5211 to~~ 1488

(3) When federal law dictates that a specified entity provide 1490 the goods, services, or construction for which a contract is being 1491 awarded, regardless of whether that entity would otherwise be 1492 prohibited from entering into the contract pursuant to this 1493
section. 1494

(G)(1) This section applies only to contracts for goods, 1495 services, or construction that satisfy the criteria in either 1496 division (G)(1)(a) or (b) of this section. This section may apply 1497 to contracts for goods, services, or construction that satisfy the 1498 criteria in division (G)(1)(c) of this section, provided that the 1499 contracts also satisfy the criteria in either division (G)(1)(a) 1500 or (b) of this section. 1501

(a) The cost for the goods, services, or construction 1502 provided under the contract is estimated to exceed twenty-five 1503 thousand dollars. 1504

(b) The aggregate cost for the goods, services, or 1505 construction provided under multiple contracts entered into by the 1506 particular state agency and a single person or the particular 1507 political subdivision and a single person within the fiscal year 1508 preceding the fiscal year within which a contract is being entered 1509 into by that same state agency and the same single person or the 1510 same political subdivision and the same single person, exceeded 1511 fifty thousand dollars. 1512

(c) The contract is a renewal of a contract previously 1513 entered into and renewed pursuant to that preceding contract. 1514

(2) This section does not apply to employment contracts. 1515

(H) As used in this section: 1516

(1) "State agency" has the same meaning as in section 9.66 of 1517

(2) "Political subdivision" means a political subdivision as 1519 defined in section 9.82 of the Revised Code that has received more 1520 than fifty thousand dollars of state money in the current fiscal 1521 year or the preceding fiscal year. 1522

(3) "Finding for recovery" means a determination issued by 1523 the auditor of state, contained in a report the auditor of state 1524

Revised Code, that public money has been illegally expended, 1526 public money has been collected but not been accounted for, public 1527 money is due but has not been collected, or public property has 1528 been converted or misappropriated. 1529

(4) "Debtor" means a person against whom a finding for 1530 recovery has been issued. 1531

(5) "Person" means the person named in the finding for 1532 recovery. 1533

(6) "State money" does not include funds the state receives 1534 from another source and passes through to a political subdivision. 1535

Sec. 9.33. As used in sections 9.33 to ~~9.333~~ 9.335 of the 1536

(A) "Construction manager" means a person with substantial 1538 discretion and authority to plan, coordinate, manage, and direct 1539 all phases of a project for the construction, demolition, 1540 alteration, repair, or reconstruction of any public building, 1541 structure, or other improvement, but does not mean the person who 1542 provides the professional design services or who actually performs 1543
the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or 1544 reconstruction work on the project. 1545

(B)(1) "Construction manager at risk" means a person with 1546 substantial discretion and authority to plan, coordinate, manage, 1547 direct, and construct all phases of a project for the 1548 construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of 1549
any public building, structure, or other improvement and who 1550 provides the public authority a guaranteed maximum price as 1551 determined in section 9.334 of the Revised Code. 1552

(2) As used in division (B)(1) of this section: 1553

(a) "Construct" includes performing, or subcontracting for 1554
reconstruction. 1556

(b) "Manage" includes approving bidders and awarding 1557 subcontracts for furnishing materials regarding, or for 1558
reconstruction. 1560

(C) "Construction management contract" means a contract 1561 between a public authority and another person obligating the 1562 person to provide construction management services. 1563

(D) "Construction management services" or "management services" means the range of services that either a construction manager or a construction manager at risk may provide. 1564

(E) "Qualified" means having the following qualifications: 1567

(1) Competence to perform the required management services as 1568 indicated by the technical training, education, and experience of 1569 the construction manager's or construction manager at risk's 1570 personnel, especially the technical training, education, and 1571 experience of the construction manager's or construction manager 1572 at risk's employees who would be assigned to perform the services; 1573

(2) Ability in terms of workload and the availability of 1574 qualified personnel, equipment, and facilities to perform the 1575 required management services competently and expeditiously; 1576

(3) Past performance as reflected by the evaluations of 1577 previous clients with respect to factors such as control of costs, 1578 quality of work, and meeting of deadlines; 1579

(4) Financial responsibility as evidenced by the capability 1580 to provide a letter of credit pursuant to Chapter 1305. of the 1581 Revised Code, a surety bond, certified check, or cashier's check 1582 in an amount equal to the value of the construction management 1583 contract, or by other means acceptable to the public ~~owner~~ 1584
authority; 1585

(5) Other similar factors. 1586

~~(C)~~(F)(1) "Public ~~owner~~ authority" means the state, ~~or any~~ 1587 state institution of higher education as defined in section 1588 3345.011 of the Revised Code, any county, township, municipal 1589 corporation, school district, or other political subdivision, or 1590 any public agency, authority, board, commission, instrumentality, 1591 or special purpose district of the state or of a political 1592 subdivision. 1593

(2) "Public authority" does not include the Ohio turnpike commission. 1594
1595

(G) "Open book pricing method" means a method in which a construction manager at risk provides the public authority, at the public authority's request, all books, records, documents, and other data in its possession pertaining to the bidding, pricing, or performance of a construction management contract awarded to the construction manager at risk. 1596

Sec. 9.331. (A) Before entering into a contract to employ a construction manager or construction manager at risk, a public ~~owner~~ authority shall advertise, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the contract is to be performed, and may advertise by electronic means pursuant to rules adopted by the director of administrative services, notice of its intent to employ a construction manager or construction manager at risk. The notice shall invite interested parties to submit proposals for consideration and shall be published at least thirty days prior to the date for accepting the proposals. The public ~~owner~~ authority also may advertise the information contained in the notice in appropriate trade journals and otherwise notify persons believed to be interested in employment as a construction manager or construction manager at risk. 1602
1603
1606
1615

(B) The advertisement shall include a general description of the project, a statement of the specific management services required, and a description of the qualifications required for the project. 1616
1619

Sec. 9.332. ~~For every construction management contract, the~~ Every public ~~owner~~ authority planning to contract for construction management services with a construction manager shall evaluate the proposals submitted and may hold discussions with individual 1620

construction managers to explore further their proposals, the 1624 scope and nature of the services they would provide, and the 1625 various technical approaches they may take regarding the project. 1626 Following this evaluation, the public ~~owner~~ authority shall: 1627

(A) Select and rank no fewer than three construction managers 1628 that it considers to be the most qualified to provide the required 1629 construction management services, except when the public ~~owner~~ 1630 authority determines in writing that fewer than three qualified 1631 construction managers are available in which case it shall select 1632 and rank them; 1633

(B) Negotiate a contract with the construction manager ranked 1634 most qualified to perform the required services at a compensation 1635 determined in writing to be fair and reasonable. Contract 1636 negotiations shall be directed toward: 1637

(1) Ensuring that the construction manager and the public 1638 ~~owner~~ authority have a mutual understanding of the essential 1639 requirements involved in providing the required services; 1640

(2) Determining that the construction manager will make 1641 available the necessary personnel, equipment, and facilities to 1642 perform the services within the required time. 1643

(C) Upon failure to negotiate a contract with the 1644 construction manager ranked most qualified, the public ~~owner~~ 1645 authority shall inform the construction manager in writing of the 1646 termination of negotiations and enter into negotiations with the 1647 construction manager ranked next most qualified. If negotiations 1648 again fail, the same procedure ~~shall~~ may be followed with each 1649 next most qualified construction manager selected and ranked 1650 pursuant to division (A) of this section, in order of ranking, 1651 until a contract is negotiated. 1652

(D) If the public ~~owner~~ authority fails to negotiate a 1653 contract with any of the construction managers selected pursuant 1654 to division (A) of this section, the public ~~owner shall~~ authority 1655 may select and rank additional construction managers, based on 1656 their qualifications, and negotiations ~~shall~~ may continue as with 1657 the construction managers selected and ranked initially until a 1658 contract is negotiated. 1659

(E) Nothing in this section affects a public authority's 1660 right to accept or reject any or all proposals in whole or in 1661
part. 1662

Sec. 9.333. (A) No public ~~owner~~ authority shall enter into a 1663 construction management contract with a construction manager 1664 unless the construction manager provides a letter of credit 1665 pursuant to Chapter 1305. of the Revised Code, a surety bond 1666 pursuant to sections 153.54 and 153.57 of the Revised Code, a 1667 certified check or cashier's check in an amount equal to the value 1668 of the construction management contract for the project, or 1669 provides other reasonable financial assurance of a nature and in 1670 an amount satisfactory to the ~~owner~~ public authority. The public 1671 ~~owner~~ authority may waive this requirement for good cause. 1672

(B) Before construction begins pursuant to a construction 1673 management contract with a construction manager at risk, the 1674 construction manager at risk shall provide a surety bond to the 1675 public authority in accordance with section 153.57 of the Revised 1676 Code in an amount not less than the combined contract values of 1677 any work under contract to be constructed pursuant to the 1678 construction management contract prior to the establishment of the 1679 guaranteed maximum price or in the amount of the guaranteed 1680 maximum price as agreed to by the public authority, as the case 1681 may be. 1682

Sec. 9.334. (A) Every public authority planning to contract 1683 for construction management services with a construction manager 1684 at risk shall evaluate the proposals submitted and select not 1685 fewer than three construction managers at risk the public 1686 authority considers to be the most qualified to provide the 1687 required construction management services, except that the public 1688 authority shall select and rank fewer than three when the public 1689

construction managers at risk are available. 1691

(B) The public authority shall provide each construction 1692 manager at risk selected under division (A) of this section with a 1693 description of the project, including a statement of available 1694 design detail, a description of how the guaranteed maximum price 1695 for the project shall be determined, including the estimated level 1696 of design detail upon which the guaranteed maximum price shall be 1697 based, the form of the construction management contract, and a 1698 request for a pricing proposal. 1699

(C) The pricing proposal of each construction manager at risk 1700 shall include at least the following regarding the construction 1701 manager at risk: 1702

(1) A list of key personnel for the project; 1703

(2) A statement of the general conditions and contingency 1704 requirements; 1705

(3) A fee proposal divided into a preconstruction fee, a 1706 construction fee, and the portion of the construction fee to be at 1707 risk in a guaranteed maximum price. 1708

(D) The public authority shall evaluate the submitted pricing 1709 proposals and may hold discussions with individual construction 1710 managers at risk to explore their proposals further, including the 1711 scope and nature of the proposed services and potential technical 1712 approaches. 1713

(E) After evaluating the pricing proposals, the public 1714 authority shall rank the selected construction managers at risk 1715 based on its evaluation of the value of each pricing proposal, 1716 with such evaluation considering the proposed cost and 1717 qualifications. 1718

(F) The public authority shall enter into negotiations for a 1719 construction management contract with the construction manager at 1720 risk whose pricing proposal the public authority determines to be 1721
the best value under division (E) of this section. Contract 1722

(1) Ensuring that the construction manager at risk and the 1724 public authority mutually understand the essential requirements 1725 involved in providing the required construction management 1726 services, including the provisions for the use of contingency 1727 funds and the possible distribution of savings in the final costs 1728 of the project; 1729

(2) Ensuring that the construction manager at risk will be 1730 able to provide the necessary personnel, equipment, and facilities 1731 to perform the construction management services within the time 1732 required by the construction management contract; 1733

(3) Agreeing upon a procedure and schedule for determining a 1734
guaranteed maximum price using an open book pricing method that 1735
shall represent the total maximum amount to be paid by the public 1736 authority to the construction manager at risk for the project and 1737 that shall include the costs of all the work, the cost of its 1738 general conditions, the contingency, and the fee payable to the 1739 construction manager at risk. 1740

(G)(1) If the public authority fails to negotiate a 1741
construction management contract with the construction manager at 1742
the best value under division (E) of this section, the public 1744 authority shall inform the construction manager at risk, in 1745 writing, of the termination of negotiations. 1746

(2) Upon terminating negotiations, the public authority may 1747 enter into negotiations as provided in this section with the 1748 construction manager at risk that the public authority ranked next 1749 highest under division (E) of this section. If negotiations fail, 1750 the public authority may enter into negotiations as provided in 1751 this section with the construction manager at risk the public 1752 authority ranked next highest under division (E) of this section. 1753

(3) If a public authority fails to negotiate a construction 1754 management contract with a construction manager at risk whose 1755 pricing proposal the public authority determines to be the best 1756 value under division (E) of this section, the public authority may 1757 select additional construction managers at risk to provide pricing 1758 proposals to the public authority pursuant to this section or may 1759 select an alternative delivery method for the project. 1760

(H) If the public authority and construction manager at risk 1761 fail to agree on a guaranteed maximum price, nothing in this 1762 section shall prohibit the public authority from allowing the 1763 construction manager at risk to provide the management services 1764 that a construction manager is authorized to provide. 1765

(I) Nothing in this section affects a public authority's 1766

Sec. 9.335. The requirements set forth in sections 9.33 to 1769 9.334 of the Revised Code for the bidding, selection, and award of 1770 a construction management contract by a public authority prevail 1771 in the event of any conflict with a provision of Chapter 153. of 1772

Sec. 9.482. (A) As used in this section, "political 1774 subdivision" has the meaning defined in section 2744.01 of the 1775

(B) When authorized by their respective legislative 1777 authorities, a political subdivision may enter into an agreement 1778 with another political subdivision whereby a contracting political 1779 subdivision agrees to exercise any power, perform any function, or 1780 render any service for another contracting recipient political 1781 subdivision that the contracting recipient political subdivision 1782 is otherwise legally authorized to exercise, perform, or render. 1783

In the absence in the agreement of provisions determining by 1784 what officer, office, department, agency, or other authority the 1785 powers and duties of a contracting political subdivision shall be 1786 exercised or performed, the legislative authority of the 1787 contracting political subdivision shall determine and assign the 1788 powers and duties. 1789

An agreement shall not suspend the possession by a 1790 contracting recipient political subdivision of any power or 1791 function that is exercised or performed on its behalf by another 1792 contracting political subdivision under the agreement. 1793

A political subdivision shall not enter into an agreement to 1794 levy any tax or to exercise, with regard to public moneys, any 1795 investment powers, perform any investment function, or render any 1796 investment service on behalf of a contracting subdivision. 1797

(C) No power shall be exercised, no function shall be 1798 performed, and no service shall be rendered by a contracting 1799 political subdivision pursuant to an agreement entered into under 1800 this section within a political subdivision that is not a party to 1801 the agreement, without first obtaining the written consent of the 1802 political subdivision that is not a party to the agreement and 1803 within which the power is to be exercised, a function is to be 1804 performed, or a service is to be rendered. 1805

(D) Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code, insofar as it applies 1806 to the operation of a political subdivision, applies to the 1807 political subdivisions that are parties to an agreement and to 1808 their employees when they are rendering a service outside the 1809 boundaries of their employing political subdivision under the 1810 agreement. Employees acting outside the boundaries of their 1811 employing political subdivision while providing a service under an 1812 agreement may participate in any pension or indemnity fund 1813 established by the political subdivision to the same extent as 1814 while they are acting within the boundaries of the political 1815 subdivision, and are entitled to all the rights and benefits of 1816 Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code to the same extent as while they 1817 are performing a service within the boundaries of the political 1818

subdivision. 1819

Sec. 9.90. (A) The governing board of any public institution 1820 of higher education, including without limitation state 1821 universities and colleges, community college districts, university 1822 branch districts, technical college districts, and municipal 1823 universities, may, in addition to all other powers provided in the 1824
Revised Code: 1825

(1) Contract for, purchase, or otherwise procure from an 1826 insurer or insurers licensed to do business by the state of Ohio 1827 for or on behalf of such of its employees as it may determine, 1828 life insurance, or sickness, accident, annuity, endowment, health, 1829 medical, hospital, dental, or surgical coverage and benefits, or 1830 any combination thereof, by means of insurance plans or other 1831 types of coverage, family, group or otherwise, and may pay from 1832 funds under its control and available for such purpose all or any 1833 portion of the cost, premium, or charge for such insurance, 1834 coverage, or benefits. However, the governing board, in addition 1835 to or as an alternative to the authority otherwise granted by 1836 division (A)(1) of this section, may elect to procure coverage for 1837 health care services, for or on behalf of such of its employees as 1838 it may determine, by means of policies, contracts, certificates, 1839 or agreements issued by at least two health insuring corporations 1840 holding a certificate of authority under Chapter 1751. of the 1841 Revised Code and may pay from funds under the governing board's 1842 control and available for such purpose all or any portion of the 1843 cost of such coverage. 1844

(2) Make payments to a custodial account for investment in 1845 regulated investment company stock for the purpose of providing 1846 retirement benefits as described in section 403(b)(7) of the 1847 Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended. Such stock shall be 1848 purchased only from persons authorized to sell such stock in this 1849
state. 1850

Any income of an employee deferred under divisions (A)(1) and 1851
(2) of this section in a deferred compensation program eligible 1852 for favorable tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1853 1954, as amended, shall continue to be included as regular 1854 compensation for the purpose of computing the contributions to and 1855 benefits from the retirement system of such employee. Any sum so 1856 deferred shall not be included in the computation of any federal 1857 and state income taxes withheld on behalf of any such employee. 1858

(B) All or any portion of the cost, premium, or charge 1859 therefor may be paid in such other manner or combination of 1860 matters as the governing board may determine, including direct 1861 payment by the employee in cases under division (A)(1) of this 1862 section, and, if authorized in writing by the employee in cases 1863 under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, by such governing 1864 board with moneys made available by deduction from or reduction in 1865 salary or wages or by the foregoing of a salary or wage increase. 1866 Nothing in section 3917.01 or section 3917.06 of the Revised Code 1867 shall prohibit the issuance or purchase of group life insurance 1868 authorized by this section by reason of payment of premiums 1869 therefor by the governing board from its funds, and such group 1870 life insurance may be so issued and purchased if otherwise 1871 consistent with the provisions of sections 3917.01 to 3917.07 of 1872

the Revised Code. 1873

(C) The board of education of any school district may 1874 exercise any of the powers granted to the governing boards of 1875 public institutions of higher education under divisions (A) and 1876 (B) of this section, except in relation to the provision of health 1877 care benefits to employees. ~~All health care benefits provided to 1878 persons employed by the public schools of this state shall be 1879 health care plans that contain best practices established by the 1880 school employees health care board pursuant to section 9.901 of 1881

Sec. 101.15. (A) As used in this section: 1883

(1) "Caucus" means all of the members of either house of the 1884 general assembly who are members of a committee and members of the 1885 same political party. 1886

(2) "Committee" means any committee of either house of the 1887 general assembly, a joint committee of both houses of the general 1888 assembly, including a committee of conference, or a subcommittee 1889 of any committee listed in division (A)(2) of this section. 1890

(3) "Meeting" means any prearranged discussion of the public 1891 business of a committee by a majority of its members. 1892

(B)(1) Except as otherwise provided in ~~division~~ divisions 1893
(B)(2) and (F) of this section, all meetings of any committee are 1894 declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times. 1895
The secretary assigned to the chairperson of the committee shall 1896 prepare, file, and maintain the minutes of every regular or 1897 special meeting of a committee. The committee, at its next regular 1898 or special meeting, shall approve the minutes prepared, filed, and 1899 maintained by the secretary, or, if the minutes prepared, filed, 1900 and maintained by the secretary require correction before their 1901 approval, the committee shall correct and approve the minutes at 1902 the next following regular or special meeting. The committee shall 1903 make the minutes available for public inspection not later than 1904 seven days after the meeting the minutes reflect or not later than 1905 the committee's next regular or special meeting, whichever occurs 1906 first. 1907

(2) Upon motion, the chairperson of a committee shall recess 1908 a meeting of the committee to enable the members of the committee 1909 who are members of the same political party to hold a caucus 1910 meeting to discuss matters that have been referred to or are under 1911 consideration by the committee. Unless the caucus determines 1912 otherwise, a caucus meeting is neither a public meeting nor open 1913 to the public at any time. During a recess for the purpose of a 1914 caucus meeting, it is not in order for the committee to take up or 1915 dispose of any matter that has been referred to or is under 1916 consideration by the committee. 1917

(C) Each committee shall establish a reasonable method 1918 whereby any person may determine the time and place of all 1919 regularly scheduled meetings and the time, place, and purpose of 1920 all special meetings. No committee shall hold a regular or special 1921 meeting unless it gives at least twenty-four hours' advance notice 1922 to the news media that have requested notification. 1923

The method established by each committee shall provide that, 1924 upon request and payment of a reasonable fee, any person may 1925 obtain reasonable advance notification of all meetings at which 1926 any specific type of public business will be discussed. Provisions 1927 for advance notification may include, but are not limited to, 1928 mailing the agenda of meetings to all subscribers on a mailing 1929 list or mailing notices in self-addressed stamped envelopes 1930 provided by the person who desires advance notification. 1931

(D) Any action of a committee relating to a bill or 1932 resolution, or any other formal action of a committee, is invalid 1933 unless taken in an open meeting of the committee. Any action of a 1934 committee relating to a bill or resolution, or any other formal 1935 action of a committee, taken in an open meeting is invalid if it 1936 results from deliberations in a meeting not open to the public. 1937

(E)(1) Any person may bring an action to enforce this 1938 section. An action under this division shall be brought within two 1939 years after the date of the alleged violation or threatened 1940 violation. Upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of 1941 this section in an action brought by any person, the court of 1942 common pleas shall issue an injunction to compel the members of 1943 the committee to comply with its provisions. 1944

(2)(a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 1945
under division (E)(1) of this section, the court shall order the 1946 committee that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture of five 1947 hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction and shall 1948 award to that party all court costs and, subject to reduction as 1949 described in this division, reasonable attorney's fees. The court, 1950 in its discretion, may reduce an award of attorney's fees to the 1951 party that sought the injunction or not award attorney's fees to 1952 that party if the court determines both of the following: 1953

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 1954 and case law as it existed at the time of the violation or 1955 threatened violation that was the basis of the injunction, a 1956 well-informed committee reasonably would believe that the 1957 committee was not violating or threatening to violate this 1958
section; 1959

(ii) That a well-informed committee reasonably would believe 1960 that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the basis of the 1961 injunction would serve the public policy that underlies the 1962
threatened conduct. 1964

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an injunction under division (E)(1) of this section and the court determines at that time that the bringing of the action was frivolous conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to the committee all court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court.

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that sought the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably presumed upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of this section.

(4) A member of a committee who knowingly violates an injunction issued under division (E)(1) of this section may be removed from office by an action brought in the court of common pleas for that purpose by the prosecuting attorney of Franklin county or by the attorney general.

(5) The remedies described in divisions (E)(1) to (4) of this section shall be the exclusive remedies for a violation of this section.

(F) This section does not apply to or affect either of the following:

(1) All meetings of the joint legislative ethics committee created under section 101.34 of the Revised Code other than a meeting that is held for any of the following purposes:

(a) To consider the adoption, amendment, or rescission of any rule that the joint legislative ethics committee is authorized to adopt pursuant to division (B)(11) of section 101.34, division (E) of section 101.78, division (B) of section 102.02, or division (E) of section 121.68 of the Revised Code;

(b) To discuss and consider changes to any administrative operation of the joint legislative ethics committee other than any matter described in division (G) of section 121.22 of the Revised Code;

(c) To discuss pending or proposed legislation.	1996
(2) Meetings of a caucus, except as provided in division (B)(2) of this section.	1997 1998
(G) For purposes of division (F)(1)(a) of this section, an advisory opinion, written opinion, or decision relative to a complaint is not a rule.	1999 2000 2001
Sec. 102.02. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (H) of this section, all of the following shall file with the appropriate ethics commission the disclosure statement described in this division on a form prescribed by the appropriate commission: every person who is elected to or is a candidate for a state, county, or city office and every person who is appointed to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term in such an elective office; all members of the state board of education; the director, assistant directors, deputy directors, division chiefs, or persons of equivalent rank of any administrative department of the state; the president or other chief administrative officer of every state institution of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code; the executive director and the members of the capitol square review and advisory board appointed or employed pursuant to section 105.41 of the Revised Code; all members of the Ohio casino control commission, the executive director of the commission, all professional employees of the commission, and all technical employees of the commission who perform an internal audit function; the individuals set forth in division (B)(2) of section 187.03 of the Revised Code; the chief executive officer and the members of the board of each state retirement system; each employee of a state retirement board who is a state retirement system investment officer licensed pursuant to section 1707.163 of the Revised Code; the members of the Ohio retirement study council appointed pursuant to division (C) of section 171.01 of the	2002 2003 2004 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018 2019 2020 2021 2022 2023 2024 2025 2026

Revised Code; employees of the Ohio retirement study council, 2027 other than employees who perform purely administrative or clerical 2028 functions; the administrator of workers' compensation and each 2029 member of the bureau of workers' compensation board of directors; 2030 the bureau of workers' compensation director of investments; the 2031 chief investment officer of the bureau of workers' compensation; 2032 the director appointed by the workers' compensation council; all 2033 members of the board of commissioners on grievances and discipline 2034 of the supreme court and the ethics commission created under 2035 section 102.05 of the Revised Code; every business manager, 2036 treasurer, or superintendent of a city, local, exempted village, 2037 joint vocational, or cooperative education school district or an 2038 educational service center; every person who is elected to or is a 2039 candidate for the office of member of a board of education of a 2040 city, local, exempted village, joint vocational, or cooperative 2041 education school district or of a governing board of an 2042 educational service center that has a total student count of 2043 twelve thousand or more as most recently determined by the 2044 department of education pursuant to section 3317.03 of the Revised 2045 Code; every person who is appointed to the board of education of a 2046 municipal school district pursuant to division (B) or (F) of 2047 section 3311.71 of the Revised Code; all members of the board of 2048 directors of a sanitary district that is established under Chapter 2049 6115. of the Revised Code and organized wholly for the purpose of 2050 providing a water supply for domestic, municipal, and public use, 2051 and that includes two municipal corporations in two counties; 2052 every public official or employee who is paid a salary or wage in 2053 accordance with schedule C of section 124.15 or schedule E-2 of 2054 section 124.152 of the Revised Code; members of the board of 2055 trustees and the executive director of the southern Ohio 2056 agricultural and community development foundation; all members 2057 appointed to the Ohio livestock care standards board under section 2058 904.02 of the Revised Code; and every other public official or 2059 employee who is designated by the appropriate ethics commission 2060 pursuant to division (B) of this section. 2061

The disclosure statement shall include all of the following: 2062

(1) The name of the person filing the statement and each 2063 member of the person's immediate family and all names under which 2064 the person or members of the person's immediate family do 2065
business; 2066

(2)(a) Subject to divisions (A)(2)(b) and (c) of this section 2067 and except as otherwise provided in section 102.022 of the Revised 2068 Code, identification of every source of income, other than income 2069 from a legislative agent identified in division (A)(2)(b) of this 2070 section, received during the preceding calendar year, in the 2071 person's own name or by any other person for the person's use or 2072 benefit, by the person filing the statement, and a brief 2073
description of the nature of the services for which the income was 2074 received. If the person filing the statement is a member of the 2075 general assembly, the statement shall identify the amount of every 2076 source of income received in accordance with the following ranges 2077 of amounts: zero or more, but less than one thousand dollars; one 2078 thousand dollars or more, but less than ten thousand dollars; ten 2079 thousand dollars or more, but less than twenty-five thousand 2080 dollars; twenty-five thousand dollars or more, but less than fifty 2081 thousand dollars; fifty thousand dollars or more, but less than 2082 one hundred thousand dollars; and one hundred thousand dollars or 2083 more. Division (A)(2)(a) of this section shall not be construed to 2084 require a person filing the statement who derives income from a 2085 business or profession to disclose the individual items of income 2086 that constitute the gross income of that business or profession, 2087 except for those individual items of income that are attributable 2088 to the person's or, if the income is shared with the person, the 2089 partner's, solicitation of services or goods or performance, 2090 arrangement, or facilitation of services or provision of goods on 2091 behalf of the business or profession of clients, including 2092 corporate clients, who are legislative agents. A person who files 2093

the statement under this section shall disclose the identity of 2094 and the amount of income received from a person who the public 2095 official or employee knows or has reason to know is doing or 2096 seeking to do business of any kind with the public official's or 2097 employee's agency. 2098

(b) If the person filing the statement is a member of the 2099 general assembly, the statement shall identify every source of 2100 income and the amount of that income that was received from a 2101 legislative agent during the preceding calendar year, in the 2102 person's own name or by any other person for the person's use or 2103
benefit, by the person filing the statement, and a brief 2104
description of the nature of the services for which the income was 2105 received. Division (A)(2)(b) of this section requires the 2106 disclosure of clients of attorneys or persons licensed under 2107 section 4732.12 of the Revised Code, or patients of persons 2108 certified under section 4731.14 of the Revised Code, if those 2109 clients or patients are legislative agents. Division (A)(2)(b) of 2110 this section requires a person filing the statement who derives 2111 income from a business or profession to disclose those individual 2112 items of income that constitute the gross income of that business 2113 or profession that are received from legislative agents. 2114

(c) Except as otherwise provided in division (A)(2)(c) of 2115 this section, division (A)(2)(a) of this section applies to 2116 attorneys, physicians, and other persons who engage in the 2117 practice of a profession and who, pursuant to a section of the 2118 Revised Code, the common law of this state, a code of ethics 2119 applicable to the profession, or otherwise, generally are required 2120 not to reveal, disclose, or use confidences of clients, patients, 2121 or other recipients of professional services except under 2122 specified circumstances or generally are required to maintain 2123 those types of confidences as privileged communications except 2124 under specified circumstances. Division (A)(2)(a) of this section 2125 does not require an attorney, physician, or other professional 2126 subject to a confidentiality requirement as described in division 2127 (A)(2)(c) of this section to disclose the name, other identity, or 2128 address of a client, patient, or other recipient of professional 2129 services if the disclosure would threaten the client, patient, or 2130 other recipient of professional services, would reveal details of 2131

the subject matter for which legal, medical, or professional 2132 advice or other services were sought, or would reveal an otherwise 2133 privileged communication involving the client, patient, or other 2134 recipient of professional services. Division (A)(2)(a) of this 2135 section does not require an attorney, physician, or other 2136 professional subject to a confidentiality requirement as described 2137 in division (A)(2)(c) of this section to disclose in the brief 2138 description of the nature of services required by division 2139 (A)(2)(a) of this section any information pertaining to specific 2140 professional services rendered for a client, patient, or other 2141 recipient of professional services that would reveal details of 2142
the subject matter for which legal, medical, or professional 2143
advice was sought or would reveal an otherwise privileged 2144 communication involving the client, patient, or other recipient of 2145 professional services. 2146

(3) The name of every corporation on file with the secretary 2147 of state that is incorporated in this state or holds a certificate 2148 of compliance authorizing it to do business in this state, trust, 2149 business trust, partnership, or association that transacts 2150 business in this state in which the person filing the statement or 2151 any other person for the person's use and benefit had during the 2152 preceding calendar year an investment of over one thousand dollars 2153 at fair market value as of the thirty-first day of December of the 2154 preceding calendar year, or the date of disposition, whichever is 2155 earlier, or in which the person holds any office or has a 2156 fiduciary relationship, and a description of the nature of the 2157 investment, office, or relationship. Division (A)(3) of this 2158 section does not require disclosure of the name of any bank, 2159 savings and loan association, credit union, or building and loan 2160 association with which the person filing the statement has a 2161 deposit or a withdrawable share account. 2162

(4) All fee simple and leasehold interests to which the 2163 person filing the statement holds legal title to or a beneficial 2164 interest in real property located within the state, excluding the 2165 person's residence and property used primarily for personal 2166 recreation; 2167

(5) The names of all persons residing or transacting business 2168
in the state to whom the person filing the statement owes, in the 2169 person's own name or in the name of any other person, more than 2170 one thousand dollars. Division (A)(5) of this section shall not be 2171 construed to require the disclosure of debts owed by the person 2172 resulting from the ordinary conduct of a business or profession or 2173 debts on the person's residence or real property used primarily 2174 for personal recreation, except that the superintendent of 2175 financial institutions shall disclose the names of all 2176 state-chartered savings and loan associations and of all service 2177 corporations subject to regulation under division (E)(2) of 2178 section 1151.34 of the Revised Code to whom the superintendent in 2179
the superintendent's own name or in the name of any other person 2180 owes any money, and that the superintendent and any deputy 2181 superintendent of banks shall disclose the names of all 2182 state-chartered banks and all bank subsidiary corporations subject 2183 to regulation under section 1109.44 of the Revised Code to whom 2184 the superintendent or deputy superintendent owes any money. 2185

(6) The names of all persons residing or transacting business 2186
in the state, other than a depository excluded under division 2187
(A)(3) of this section, who owe more than one thousand dollars to 2188

the person filing the statement, either in the person's own name 2189 or to any person for the person's use or benefit. Division (A)(6) 2190 of this section shall not be construed to require the disclosure 2191 of clients of attorneys or persons licensed under section 4732.12 2192 or 4732.15 of the Revised Code, or patients of persons certified 2193 under section 4731.14 of the Revised Code, nor the disclosure of 2194 debts owed to the person resulting from the ordinary conduct of a 2195 business or profession. 2196

(7) Except as otherwise provided in section 102.022 of the 2197
Revised Code, the source of each gift of over seventy-five 2198 dollars, or of each gift of over twenty-five dollars received by a 2199 member of the general assembly from a legislative agent, received 2200 by the person in the person's own name or by any other person for 2201 the person's use or benefit during the preceding calendar year, 2202 except gifts received by will or by virtue of section 2105.06 of 2203
the Revised Code, or received from spouses, parents, grandparents, 2204 children, grandchildren, siblings, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, 2205 brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, 2206 fathers-in-law, mothers-in-law, or any person to whom the person 2207 filing the statement stands in loco parentis, or received by way 2208 of distribution from any inter vivos or testamentary trust 2209 established by a spouse or by an ancestor; 2210

(8) Except as otherwise provided in section 102.022 of the 2211
Revised Code, identification of the source and amount of every 2212 payment of expenses incurred for travel to destinations inside or 2213 outside this state that is received by the person in the person's 2214 own name or by any other person for the person's use or benefit 2215 and that is incurred in connection with the person's official 2216 duties, except for expenses for travel to meetings or conventions 2217 of a national or state organization to which any state agency, 2218 including, but not limited to, any legislative agency or state 2219 institution of higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of 2220

the Revised Code, pays membership dues, or any political 2221 subdivision or any office or agency of a political subdivision 2222 pays membership dues; 2223

(9) Except as otherwise provided in section 102.022 of the 2224
Revised Code, identification of the source of payment of expenses 2225 for meals and other food and beverages, other than for meals and 2226 other food and beverages provided at a meeting at which the person 2227 participated in a panel, seminar, or speaking engagement or at a 2228 meeting or convention of a national or state organization to which 2229 any state agency, including, but not limited to, any legislative 2230 agency or state institution of higher education as defined in 2231 section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, pays membership dues, or any 2232 political subdivision or any office or agency of a political 2233 subdivision pays membership dues, that are incurred in connection 2234 with the person's official duties and that exceed one hundred 2235 dollars aggregated per calendar year; 2236

(10) If the disclosure statement is filed by a public 2237 official or employee described in division (B)(2) of section 2238 101.73 of the Revised Code or division (B)(2) of section 121.63 of 2239
the Revised Code who receives a statement from a legislative 2240 agent, executive agency lobbyist, or employer that contains the 2241 information described in division (F)(2) of section 101.73 of the 2242 Revised Code or division (G)(2) of section 121.63 of the Revised 2243
Code, all of the nondisputed information contained in the 2244 statement delivered to that public official or employee by the 2245 legislative agent, executive agency lobbyist, or employer under 2246 division (F)(2) of section 101.73 or (G)(2) of section 121.63 of 2247

A person may file a statement required by this section in 2249 person or by mail. A person who is a candidate for elective office 2250 shall file the statement no later than the thirtieth day before 2251 the primary, special, or general election at which the candidacy 2252 is to be voted on, whichever election occurs soonest, except that 2253 a person who is a write-in candidate shall file the statement no 2254 later than the twentieth day before the earliest election at which 2255

the person's candidacy is to be voted on. A person who holds 2256 elective office shall file the statement on or before the 2257 fifteenth day of April of each year unless the person is a 2258 candidate for office. A person who is appointed to fill a vacancy 2259 for an unexpired term in an elective office shall file the 2260 statement within fifteen days after the person qualifies for 2261 office. Other persons shall file an annual statement on or before 2262 the fifteenth day of April or, if appointed or employed after that 2263 date, within ninety days after appointment or employment. No 2264 person shall be required to file with the appropriate ethics 2265 commission more than one statement or pay more than one filing fee 2266 for any one calendar year. 2267

The appropriate ethics commission, for good cause, may extend 2268 for a reasonable time the deadline for filing a statement under 2269
this section. 2270

A statement filed under this section is subject to public 2271 inspection at locations designated by the appropriate ethics 2272 commission except as otherwise provided in this section. 2273

(B) The Ohio ethics commission, the joint legislative ethics 2274 committee, and the board of commissioners on grievances and 2275 discipline of the supreme court, using the rule-making procedures 2276 of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, may require any class of 2277 public officials or employees under its jurisdiction and not 2278 specifically excluded by this section whose positions involve a 2279 substantial and material exercise of administrative discretion in 2280 the formulation of public policy, expenditure of public funds, 2281
the execution of other public trusts, to file an annual statement 2283 on or before the fifteenth day of April under division (A) of this 2284 section. The appropriate ethics commission shall send the public 2285 officials or employees written notice of the requirement by the 2286 fifteenth day of February of each year the filing is required 2287 unless the public official or employee is appointed after that 2288 date, in which case the notice shall be sent within thirty days 2289 after appointment, and the filing shall be made not later than 2290 ninety days after appointment. 2291

Except for disclosure statements filed by members of the 2292 board of trustees and the executive director of the southern Ohio 2293 agricultural and community development foundation, disclosure 2294 statements filed under this division with the Ohio ethics 2295 commission by members of boards, commissions, or bureaus of the 2296 state for which no compensation is received other than reasonable 2297 and necessary expenses shall be kept confidential. Disclosure 2298 statements filed with the Ohio ethics commission under division 2299
(A) of this section by business managers, treasurers, and 2300 superintendents of city, local, exempted village, joint 2301 vocational, or cooperative education school districts or 2302 educational service centers shall be kept confidential, except 2303 that any person conducting an audit of any such school district or 2304 educational service center pursuant to section 115.56 or Chapter 2305 117. of the Revised Code may examine the disclosure statement of 2306 any business manager, treasurer, or superintendent of that school 2307 district or educational service center. Disclosure statements 2308 filed with the Ohio ethics commission under division (A) of this 2309 section by the individuals set forth in division (B)(2) of section 2310 187.03 of the Revised Code shall be kept confidential. The Ohio 2311 ethics commission shall examine each disclosure statement required 2312 to be kept confidential to determine whether a potential conflict 2313 of interest exists for the person who filed the disclosure 2314 statement. A potential conflict of interest exists if the private 2315 interests of the person, as indicated by the person's disclosure 2316 statement, might interfere with the public interests the person is 2317 required to serve in the exercise of the person's authority and 2318 duties in the person's office or position of employment. If the 2319 commission determines that a potential conflict of interest 2320 exists, it shall notify the person who filed the disclosure 2321 statement and shall make the portions of the disclosure statement 2322 that indicate a potential conflict of interest subject to public 2323 inspection in the same manner as is provided for other disclosure 2324 statements. Any portion of the disclosure statement that the 2325 commission determines does not indicate a potential conflict of 2326 interest shall be kept confidential by the commission and shall 2327 not be made subject to public inspection, except as is necessary 2328 for the enforcement of Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised Code 2329 and except as otherwise provided in this division. 2330

(C) No person shall knowingly fail to file, on or before the 2331 applicable filing deadline established under this section, a 2332 statement that is required by this section. 2333

(D) No person shall knowingly file a false statement that is 2334 required to be filed under this section. 2335

(E)(1) Except as provided in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this 2336 section, beginning with statements for calendar year 2011, the 2337 statement required by division (A) or (B) of this section shall be 2338 accompanied by a filing fee of ~~forty~~ sixty dollars. 2339

(2) ~~The~~ Beginning with statements for calendar year 2011, the 2340 statement required by division (A) of this section shall be 2341 accompanied by the following filing fee to be paid by the person 2342 who is elected or appointed to, or is a candidate for, any of the 2343 following offices: 2344

(3) No judge of a court of record or candidate for judge of a court of record, and no referee or magistrate serving a court of record, shall be required to pay the fee required under division (E)(1) or (2) or (F) of this section.

(F) ~~If~~ Beginning with statements for calendar year 2011, if a statement required to be filed under this section is not filed by the date on which it is required to be filed, the appropriate ethics commission shall assess the person required to file the statement a late filing fee of ~~ten~~ twenty dollars for each day the statement is not filed, except that the total amount of the late filing fee shall not exceed ~~two~~ five hundred ~~fifty~~ dollars.

(G)(1) The appropriate ethics commission other than the Ohio ethics commission and the joint legislative ethics committee shall deposit all fees it receives under divisions (E) and (F) of this section into the general revenue fund of the state.

(3) The joint legislative ethics committee shall deposit all receipts it receives from the payment of financial disclosure statement filing fees under divisions (E) and (F) of this section into the joint legislative ethics committee investigative fund.

(H) Division (A) of this section does not apply to a person elected or appointed to the office of precinct, ward, or district committee member under Chapter 3517. of the Revised Code; a presidential elector; a delegate to a national convention; village or township officials and employees; any physician or psychiatrist who is paid a salary or wage in accordance with schedule C of section 124.15 or schedule E-2 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code and whose primary duties do not require the exercise of administrative discretion; or any member of a board, commission, or bureau of any county or city who receives less than one thousand dollars per year for serving in that position.

Sec. 105.41. (A) There is hereby created in the legislative branch of government the capitol square review and advisory board, consisting of thirteen members as follows:

(1) Two members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate, both of whom shall not be members of the same political party; 2412

(2) Two members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, both of whom shall not be members of the same political party; 2415

(3) Five members appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, not more than three of whom shall be members of the same political party, one of whom shall be the chief of staff of the governor's office, one of whom shall represent the Ohio arts council, one of whom shall represent the Ohio historical society, one of whom shall represent the Ohio building authority, and one of whom shall represent the public at large; 2418
2422
2423
2425

(4) One member, who shall be a former president of the senate, appointed by the current president of the senate. If the current president of the senate, in the current president's discretion, decides for any reason not to make the appointment or if no person is eligible or available to serve, the seat shall remain vacant. 2426
2427
2429
2431

2435
2437

(6) The clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives. 2438
2439

(B) Terms of office of each appointed member of the board shall be for three years, except that members of the general assembly appointed to the board shall be members of the board only 2440

so long as they are members of the general assembly and the chief 2443 of staff of the governor's office shall be a member of the board 2444 only so long as the appointing governor remains in office. Each 2445 member shall hold office from the date of the member's appointment 2446 until the end of the term for which the member was appointed. In 2447 case of a vacancy occurring on the board, the president of the 2448 senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, or the 2449 governor, as the case may be, shall in the same manner prescribed 2450 for the regular appointment to the commission, fill the vacancy by 2451 appointing a member. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy 2452 occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which the 2453 member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the 2454 remainder of the term. Any appointed member shall continue in 2455 office subsequent to the expiration date of the member's term 2456 until the member's successor takes office, or until a period of 2457 sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 2458

(C) The board shall hold meetings in a manner and at times 2459 prescribed by the rules adopted by the board. A majority of the 2460 board constitutes a quorum, and no action shall be taken by the 2461 board unless approved by at least six members or by at least seven 2462 members if a person is appointed under division (A)(4) or (5) of 2463 this section. At its first meeting, the board shall adopt rules 2464 for the conduct of its business and the election of its officers, 2465 and shall organize by selecting a chairperson and other officers 2466 as it considers necessary. Board members shall serve without 2467 compensation but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary 2468 expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. 2469

(D) The board may do any of the following: 2470

(1) Employ or hire on a consulting basis professional, 2471 technical, and clerical employees as are necessary for the 2472 performance of its duties; 2473

(2) Hold public hearings at times and places as determined by 2474

the board;	2475
(3) Adopt, amend, or rescind rules necessary to accomplish the duties of the board as set forth in this section;	2476 2477
(5) Purchase a warehouse in which to store items of the capitol collection trust and, whenever necessary, equipment or other property of the board.	2489 2490 2491
(E) The board shall do all of the following:	2492
(1) Have sole authority to coordinate and approve any improvements, additions, and renovations that are made to the capitol square. The improvements shall include, but not be limited to, the placement of monuments and sculpture on the capitol grounds.	2493 2494 2495 2496 2497
(2) Subject to section 3353.07 of the Revised Code, operate the capitol square, and have sole authority to regulate all uses of the capitol square. The uses shall include, but not be limited to, the casual and recreational use of the capitol square.	2498 2499 2500 2501
(3) Employ, fix the compensation of, and prescribe the duties of the executive director of the board and other employees the board considers necessary for the performance of its powers and duties;	2502 2503 2504 2505

(4) Establish and maintain the capitol collection trust. The 2506 capitol collection trust shall consist of furniture, antiques, and 2507 other items of personal property that the board shall store in 2508 suitable facilities until they are ready to be displayed in the 2509 capitol square. 2510

(5) Perform repair, construction, contracting, purchasing, 2511 maintenance, supervisory, and operating activities the board 2512 determines are necessary for the operation and maintenance of the 2513
capitol square; 2514

(6) Maintain and preserve the capitol square, in accordance 2515 with guidelines issued by the United States secretary of the 2516 interior for application of the secretary's standards for 2517 rehabilitation adopted in 36 C.F.R. part 67; 2518

(7) Plan and develop a center at the capitol building for the 2519 purpose of educating visitors about the history of Ohio, including 2520 its political, economic, and social development and the design and 2521 erection of the capitol building and its grounds. 2522

(F)(1) The board shall lease capital facilities improved or 2523 financed by the Ohio building authority pursuant to Chapter 152. 2524 of the Revised Code for the use of the board, and may enter into 2525 any other agreements with the authority ancillary to improvement, 2526 financing, or leasing of those capital facilities, including, but 2527 not limited to, any agreement required by the applicable bond 2528 proceedings authorized by Chapter 152. of the Revised Code. Any 2529 lease of capital facilities authorized by this section shall be 2530 governed by division (D) of section 152.24 of the Revised Code. 2531

(2) Fees, receipts, and revenues received by the board from 2532 the state underground parking garage constitute available receipts 2533 as defined in section 152.09 of the Revised Code, and may be 2534 pledged to the payment of bond service charges on obligations 2535 issued by the Ohio building authority pursuant to Chapter 152. of 2536

the Revised Code to improve, finance, or purchase capital 2537 facilities useful to the board. The authority may, with the 2538 consent of the board, provide in the bond proceedings for a pledge 2539 of all or a portion of those fees, receipts, and revenues as the 2540 authority determines. The authority may provide in the bond 2541 proceedings or by separate agreement with the board for the 2542 transfer of those fees, receipts, and revenues to the appropriate 2543 bond service fund or bond service reserve fund as required to pay 2544 the bond service charges when due, and any such provision for the 2545 transfer of those fees, receipts, and revenues shall be 2546 controlling notwithstanding any other provision of law pertaining 2547 to those fees, receipts, and revenues. 2548

(3) All moneys received by the treasurer of state on account 2549 of the board and required by the applicable bond proceedings or by 2550 separate agreement with the board to be deposited, transferred, or 2551 credited to the bond service fund or bond service reserve fund 2552 established by the bond proceedings shall be transferred by the 2553 treasurer of state to such fund, whether or not it is in the 2554 custody of the treasurer of state, without necessity for further 2555 appropriation, upon receipt of notice from the Ohio building 2556 authority as prescribed in the bond proceedings. 2557

(G) All fees, receipts, and revenues received by the board 2558 from the state underground parking garage shall be deposited into 2559 the state treasury to the credit of the underground parking garage 2560 operating fund, which is hereby created, to be used for the 2561 purposes specified in division (F) of this section and for the 2562 operation and maintenance of the garage. All investment earnings 2563 of the fund shall be credited to the fund. 2564

(H) All donations received by the board shall be deposited 2565 into the state treasury to the credit of the capitol square 2566 renovation gift fund, which is hereby created. The fund shall be 2567 used by the board as follows: 2568

(1) To provide part or all of the funding related to	2569 construction, goods, or services for the renovation of the capitol	2570
square;	2571
(2) To purchase art, antiques, and artifacts for display at	2572
the capitol square;	2573
(3) To award contracts or make grants to organizations for	2574
educating the public regarding the historical background and	2575 governmental functions of the capitol square. Chapters 125., 127.,	2576 and 153. and section 3517.13 of the Revised Code do not apply to	2577 purchases made exclusively from the fund, notwithstanding anything	2578 to the contrary in those chapters or that section. All investment	2579 earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund.	2580
(I) Except as provided in divisions (G), (H), and (J) of this	2581
section, all fees, receipts, and revenues received by the board	2582
shall be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the	2583
sale of goods and services fund, which is hereby created. Money	2584 credited to the fund shall be used solely to pay costs of the	2585 board other than those specified in divisions (F) and (G) of this	2586 section. All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to	2587
the fund.	2588
(J) There is hereby created in the state treasury the capitol	2589
square improvement fund, to be used by the board to pay	2590 construction, renovation, and other costs related to the capitol	2591 square for which money is not otherwise available to the board.	2592
Whenever the board determines that there is a need to incur those	2593 costs and that the unencumbered, unobligated balance to the credit	2594 of the underground parking garage operating fund exceeds the	2595
amount needed for the purposes specified in division (F) of this	2596 section and for the operation and maintenance of the garage, the	2597 board may request the director of budget and management to	2598 transfer from the underground parking garage operating fund to the	2599
capitol square improvement fund the amount needed to pay such	2600 construction, renovation, or other costs. The director then shall 2601 transfer the amount needed from the excess balance of the 2602 underground parking garage operating fund. 2603

(K) As the operation and maintenance of the capitol square 2604 constitute essential government functions of a public purpose, the 2605 board shall not be required to pay taxes or assessments upon the 2606 square, upon any property acquired or used by the board under this 2607 section, or upon any income generated by the operation of the 2608
square. 2609

(L) As used in this section, "capitol square" means the 2610 capitol building, senate building, capitol atrium, capitol 2611 grounds, the state underground parking garage, and the warehouse 2612 owned by the board. 2613

(M) The capitol annex shall be known as the senate building. 2614

Sec. 107.09. Immediately after the determination of each 2615 decennial apportionment for members of the general assembly the 2616 governor shall cause such apportionment to be published for four 2617 consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 2618 Code, in three newspapers, one in Cincinnati, one in Cleveland, 2619 and one in Columbus. 2620

Sec. 109.02. The attorney general is the chief law officer 2621 for the state and all its departments and shall be provided with 2622 adequate office space in Columbus. Except as provided in division 2623 (E) of section 120.06 and in sections 9.05, 3517.152 to 3517.157, 2624 and 3521.04 of the Revised Code, no state officer or board, or 2625 head of a department or institution of the state shall employ, or 2626 be represented by, other counsel or attorneys at law. The attorney 2627 general shall appear for the state in the trial and argument of 2628 all civil and criminal causes in the supreme court in which the 2629 state is directly or indirectly interested. When required by the 2630 governor or the general assembly, the attorney general shall 2631 appear for the state in any court or tribunal in a cause in which 2632

the state is a party, or in which the state is directly 2633 interested. Upon the written request of the governor, the attorney 2634 general shall prosecute any person indicted for a crime. 2635

Sec. 109.36. As used in this section and sections 109.361 to 2636

(A)(1) "Officer or employee" means any of the following: 2638

(a) A person who, at the time a cause of action against the 2639 person arises, is serving in an elected or appointed office or 2640 position with the state or is employed by the state. 2641

(b) A person that, at the time a cause of action against the 2642 person, partnership, or corporation arises, is rendering medical, 2643 nursing, dental, podiatric, optometric, physical therapeutic, 2644 psychiatric, or psychological services pursuant to a personal 2645 services contract or purchased service contract with a department, 2646 agency, or institution of the state. 2647

(c) A person that, at the time a cause of action against the 2648 person, partnership, or corporation arises, is rendering peer 2649 review, utilization review, or drug utilization review services in 2650 relation to medical, nursing, dental, podiatric, optometric, 2651 physical therapeutic, psychiatric, or psychological services 2652 pursuant to a personal services contract or purchased service 2653 contract with a department, agency, or institution of the state. 2654

(d) A person who, at the time a cause of action against the 2655 person arises, is rendering medical, nursing, dental, podiatric, 2656 optometric, physical therapeutic, psychiatric, or psychological 2657 services to patients in a state institution operated by the 2658 department of mental health, ~~is a member of the institution's~~ 2659 ~~staff, and is performing the services pursuant to an agreement~~ 2660

~~between the state institution and a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services described in section 340.021 of the Revised Code with the department.~~

(2) "Officer or employee" does not include any person elected, appointed, or employed by any political subdivision of the state.

(B) "State" means the state of Ohio, including but not limited to, the general assembly, the supreme court, courts of appeals, the offices of all elected state officers, and all departments, boards, offices, commissions, agencies, institutions, and other instrumentalities of the state of Ohio. "State" does not include political subdivisions.

(C) "Political subdivisions" of the state means municipal corporations, townships, counties, school districts, and all other bodies corporate and politic responsible for governmental activities only in geographical areas smaller than that of the
state.

(D) "Employer" means the general assembly, the supreme court, courts of appeals, any office of an elected state officer, or any department, board, office, commission, agency, institution, or other instrumentality of the state of Ohio that employs or contracts with an officer or employee or to which an officer or employee is elected or appointed.

Sec. 109.42. (A) The attorney general shall prepare and have printed a pamphlet that contains a compilation of all statutes relative to victim's rights in which the attorney general lists and explains the statutes in the form of a victim's bill of rights. The attorney general shall distribute the pamphlet to all sheriffs, marshals, municipal corporation and township police departments, constables, and other law enforcement agencies, to all prosecuting attorneys, city directors of law, village solicitors, and other similar chief legal officers of municipal corporations, and to organizations that represent or provide services for victims of crime. The victim's bill of rights set forth in the pamphlet shall contain a description of all of the rights of victims that are provided for in Chapter 2930. or in any other section of the Revised Code and shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(2) The potential availability pursuant to section 2151.359 or 2152.61 of the Revised Code of a forfeited recognizance to pay damages caused by a child when the delinquency of the child or child's violation of probation or community control is found to be proximately caused by the failure of the child's parent or guardian to subject the child to reasonable parental authority or to faithfully discharge the conditions of probation or community control;

(3) The availability of awards of reparations pursuant to sections 2743.51 to 2743.72 of the Revised Code for injuries caused by criminal offenses;

(4) The right of the victim in certain criminal or juvenile cases or a victim's representative to receive, pursuant to section 2930.06 of the Revised Code, notice of the date, time, and place of the trial or delinquency proceeding in the case or, if there 2724 will not be a trial or delinquency proceeding, information from 2725 the prosecutor, as defined in section 2930.01 of the Revised Code, 2726 regarding the disposition of the case; 2727

(5) The right of the victim in certain criminal or juvenile 2728 cases or a victim's representative to receive, pursuant to section 2729 sentenced for the violation pursuant to division (B)(1)(a), (b), 2828 or (c) of section 2971.03 of the Revised Code, of a victim of an 2829 attempted rape committed on or after January 2, 2007, by an 2830 offender who also is convicted of or pleads guilty to a 2831 specification of the type described in section 2941.1418, 2832 2941.1419, or 2941.1420 of the Revised Code and is sentenced for 2833 the violation pursuant to division (B)(2)(a), (b), or (c) of 2834 section 2971.03 of the Revised Code, and of a victim of an offense 2835 that is described in division (B)(3)(a), (b), (c), or (d) of 2836 section 2971.03 of the Revised Code and is committed by an 2837 offender who is sentenced pursuant to one of those divisions to 2838 receive, pursuant to section 2930.16 of the Revised Code, notice 2839 of a hearing to determine whether to modify the requirement that 2840 the offender serve the entire prison term in a state correctional 2841 facility, whether to continue, revise, or revoke any existing 2842 modification of that requirement, or whether to terminate the 2843 prison term. As used in this division, "sexually violent offense" 2844 and "sexually violent predator specification" have the same 2845 meanings as in section 2971.01 of the Revised Code. 2846

(B)(1)(a) Subject to division (B)(1)(c) of this section, a 2847 prosecuting attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, city 2848
director of law, assistant city director of law, village 2849
solicitor, assistant village solicitor, or similar chief legal 2850 officer of a municipal corporation or an assistant of any of those 2851 officers who prosecutes an offense committed in this state, upon 2852 first contact with the victim of the offense, the victim's family, 2853 or the victim's dependents, shall give the victim, the victim's 2854 family, or the victim's dependents a copy of the pamphlet prepared 2855 pursuant to division (A) of this section and explain, upon 2856 request, the information in the pamphlet to the victim, the 2857 victim's family, or the victim's dependents. 2858

(b) Subject to division (B)(1)(c) of this section, a law 2859 enforcement agency that investigates an offense or delinquent act 2860 committed in this state shall give the victim of the offense or 2861 delinquent act, the victim's family, or the victim's dependents a 2862 copy of the pamphlet prepared pursuant to division (A) of this 2863 section at one of the following times: 2864

(i) Upon first contact with the victim, the victim's family, 2865 or the victim's dependents; 2866

(ii) If the offense or delinquent act is an offense of 2867 violence, if the circumstances of the offense or delinquent act 2868 and the condition of the victim, the victim's family, or the 2869 victim's dependents indicate that the victim, the victim's family, 2870 or the victim's dependents will not be able to understand the 2871 significance of the pamphlet upon first contact with the agency, 2872 and if the agency anticipates that it will have an additional 2873 contact with the victim, the victim's family, or the victim's 2874 dependents, upon the agency's second contact with the victim, the 2875

If the agency does not give the victim, the victim's family, 2877 or the victim's dependents a copy of the pamphlet upon first 2878 contact with them and does not have a second contact with the 2879 victim, the victim's family, or the victim's dependents, the 2880 agency shall mail a copy of the pamphlet to the victim, the 2881 victim's family, or the victim's dependents at their last known 2882

address. 2883

(c) In complying on and after December 9, 1994, with the 2884 duties imposed by division (B)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, an 2885 official or a law enforcement agency shall use copies of the 2886 pamphlet that are in the official's or agency's possession on 2887 December 9, 1994, until the official or agency has distributed all 2888 of those copies. After the official or agency has distributed all 2889 of those copies, the official or agency shall use only copies of 2890 the pamphlet that contain at least the information described in 2891 divisions (A)(1) to (17) of this section. 2892

(2) The failure of a law enforcement agency or of a 2893
prosecuting attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, city 2894
solicitor, assistant village solicitor, or similar chief legal 2896 officer of a municipal corporation or an assistant to any of those 2897 officers to give, as required by division (B)(1) of this section, 2898 the victim of an offense or delinquent act, the victim's family, 2899 or the victim's dependents a copy of the pamphlet prepared 2900 pursuant to division (A) of this section does not give the victim, 2901 the victim's family, the victim's dependents, or a victim's 2902 representative any rights under section 2743.51 to 2743.72, 2903 2945.04, 2967.12, 2969.01 to 2969.06, 3109.09, or 3109.10 of the 2904 Revised Code or under any other provision of the Revised Code and 2905 does not affect any right under those sections. 2906

(3) A law enforcement agency, a prosecuting attorney or 2907 assistant prosecuting attorney, or a city director of law, 2908 assistant city director of law, village solicitor, assistant 2909 village solicitor, or similar chief legal officer of a municipal 2910 corporation that distributes a copy of the pamphlet prepared 2911 pursuant to division (A) of this section shall not be required to 2912 distribute a copy of an information card or other printed material 2913 provided by the clerk of the court of claims pursuant to section 2914

(C) The cost of printing and distributing the pamphlet prepared pursuant to division (A) of this section shall be paid out of the reparations fund, created pursuant to section 2743.191 of the Revised Code, in accordance with division (D) of that section.	2916 2917 2918 2919 2920
(D) As used in this section:	2921
(1) "Victim's representative" has the same meaning as in section 2930.01 of the Revised Code;	2922 2923
(2) "Victim advocate" has the same meaning as in section 2919.26 of the Revised Code.	2924 2925
Sec. 109.57. (A)(1) The superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation shall procure from wherever procurable and file for record photographs, pictures, descriptions, fingerprints, measurements, and other information that may be pertinent of all persons who have been convicted of committing within this state a felony, any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses, or any misdemeanor described in division (A)(1)(a), (A)(8)(a), or (A)(10)(a) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code, of all children under eighteen years of age who have been adjudicated delinquent children for committing within this state an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult or who have been convicted of or pleaded guilty to committing within this state a felony or an offense of violence, and of all well-known and habitual criminals. The person in charge of any county, multicounty, municipal, municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal jail or workhouse, community-based correctional facility, halfway house, alternative residential facility, or state correctional institution and the person in charge of any state institution having custody of a person	2926 2927 2928 2929 2930 2931 2932 2933 2934 2935 2936 2937 2938 2939 2940 2941 2942 2943 2944 2945 suspected of having committed a felony, any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses, or any misdemeanor described in division (A)(1)(a), (A)(8)(a), or (A)(10)(a) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code or having custody of a child under eighteen years of age with respect to whom there is probable cause to believe that the child may have committed an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult shall furnish such material to the superintendent of the bureau. Fingerprints, photographs, or other descriptive information of a child who is under eighteen years of age, has not been arrested or otherwise taken into custody for committing an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence who is not in any other category of child specified in this division, if committed by an adult, has not been adjudicated a delinquent child for committing an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult, has not been convicted of or pleaded guilty to committing a felony or an offense of violence, and is not a child with respect to whom there is probable cause to believe that the child may have committed an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult shall not be procured by the superintendent or furnished by any person in charge of any county, multicounty, municipal, municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal jail or workhouse, community-based correctional facility, halfway house, alternative residential facility, or state correctional institution, except as authorized in section 2151.313 of the Revised Code.

(2) Every clerk of a court of record in this state, other than the supreme court or a court of appeals, shall send to the superintendent of the bureau a weekly report containing a summary of each case involving a felony, involving any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses, involving a misdemeanor described in division (A)(1)(a),

(A)(8)(a), or (A)(10)(a) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code, 2979 or involving an adjudication in a case in which a child under 2980 eighteen years of age was alleged to be a delinquent child for 2981 committing an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence 2982 if committed by an adult. The clerk of the court of common pleas 2983 shall include in the report and summary the clerk sends under this 2984 division all information described in divisions (A)(2)(a) to (f) 2985 of this section regarding a case before the court of appeals that 2986 is served by that clerk. The summary shall be written on the 2987 standard forms furnished by the superintendent pursuant to 2988 division (B) of this section and shall include the following 2989
information: 2990

(a) The incident tracking number contained on the standard 2991 forms furnished by the superintendent pursuant to division (B) of 2992
this section; 2993

(b) The style and number of the case; 2994

(c) The date of arrest, offense, summons, or arraignment; 2995

(d) The date that the person was convicted of or pleaded 2996 guilty to the offense, adjudicated a delinquent child for 2997 committing the act that would be a felony or an offense of 2998 violence if committed by an adult, found not guilty of the 2999 offense, or found not to be a delinquent child for committing an 3000 act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed 3001 by an adult, the date of an entry dismissing the charge, an entry 3002 declaring a mistrial of the offense in which the person is 3003 discharged, an entry finding that the person or child is not 3004 competent to stand trial, or an entry of a nolle prosequi, or the 3005 date of any other determination that constitutes final resolution 3006 of the case; 3007

the Revised Code that was alleged to be violated; 3009

(f) If the person or child was convicted, pleaded guilty, or was adjudicated a delinquent child, the sentence or terms of probation imposed or any other disposition of the offender or the delinquent child.

If the offense involved the disarming of a law enforcement officer or an attempt to disarm a law enforcement officer, the clerk shall clearly state that fact in the summary, and the superintendent shall ensure that a clear statement of that fact is placed in the bureau's records.

(3) The superintendent shall cooperate with and assist sheriffs, chiefs of police, and other law enforcement officers in the establishment of a complete system of criminal identification and in obtaining fingerprints and other means of identification of all persons arrested on a charge of a felony, any crime constituting a misdemeanor on the first offense and a felony on subsequent offenses, or a misdemeanor described in division (A)(1)(a), (A)(8)(a), or (A)(10)(a) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and of all children under eighteen years of age arrested or otherwise taken into custody for committing an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult. The superintendent also shall file for record the fingerprint impressions of all persons confined in a county, multicounty, municipal, municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal jail or workhouse, community-based correctional facility, halfway house, alternative residential facility, or state correctional institution for the violation of state laws and of all children under eighteen years of age who are confined in a county, multicounty, municipal, municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal jail or workhouse, community-based correctional facility, halfway house, alternative residential facility, or state correctional institution or in any facility for delinquent children for committing an act that would be a felony or an offense of violence

if committed by an adult, and any other information that the 3042 superintendent may receive from law enforcement officials of the 3043 state and its political subdivisions. 3044

(4) The superintendent shall carry out Chapter 2950. of the 3045 Revised Code with respect to the registration of persons who are 3046 convicted of or plead guilty to a sexually oriented offense or a 3047 child-victim oriented offense and with respect to all other duties 3048 imposed on the bureau under that chapter. 3049

(5) The bureau shall perform centralized recordkeeping 3050 functions for criminal history records and services in this state 3051 for purposes of the national crime prevention and privacy compact 3052 set forth in section 109.571 of the Revised Code and is the 3053 criminal history record repository as defined in that section for 3054 purposes of that compact. The superintendent or the 3055 superintendent's designee is the compact officer for purposes of 3056 that compact and shall carry out the responsibilities of the 3057 compact officer specified in that compact. 3058

(B) The superintendent shall prepare and furnish to every 3059 county, multicounty, municipal, municipal-county, or 3060 multicounty-municipal jail or workhouse, community-based 3061 correctional facility, halfway house, alternative residential 3062 facility, or state correctional institution and to every clerk of 3063 a court in this state specified in division (A)(2) of this section 3064 standard forms for reporting the information required under 3065 division (A) of this section. The standard forms that the 3066 superintendent prepares pursuant to this division may be in a 3067 tangible format, in an electronic format, or in both tangible 3068 formats and electronic formats. 3069

(C)(1) The superintendent may operate a center for 3070 electronic, automated, or other data processing for the storage 3071 and retrieval of information, data, and statistics pertaining to 3072 criminals and to children under eighteen years of age who are 3073 adjudicated delinquent children for committing an act that would 3074 be a felony or an offense of violence if committed by an adult, 3075 criminal activity, crime prevention, law enforcement, and criminal 3076 justice, and may establish and operate a statewide communications 3077 network to be known as the Ohio law enforcement gateway to gather 3078 and disseminate information, data, and statistics for the use of 3079 law enforcement agencies and for other uses specified in this 3080 division. The superintendent may gather, store, retrieve, and 3081 disseminate information, data, and statistics that pertain to 3082 children who are under eighteen years of age and that are gathered 3083 pursuant to sections 109.57 to 109.61 of the Revised Code together 3084 with information, data, and statistics that pertain to adults and 3085 that are gathered pursuant to those sections. 3086

(2) The superintendent or the superintendent's designee shall 3087 gather information of the nature described in division (C)(1) of 3088 this section that pertains to the offense and delinquency history 3089
of a person who has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been 3090
adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a sexually oriented 3091 offense or a child-victim oriented offense for inclusion in the 3092 state registry of sex offenders and child-victim offenders 3093 maintained pursuant to division (A)(1) of section 2950.13 of the 3094 Revised Code and in the internet database operated pursuant to 3095 division (A)(13) of that section and for possible inclusion in the 3096 internet database operated pursuant to division (A)(11) of that 3097
section. 3098

(3) In addition to any other authorized use of information, 3099 data, and statistics of the nature described in division (C)(1) of 3100 this section, the superintendent or the superintendent's designee 3101 may provide and exchange the information, data, and statistics 3102 pursuant to the national crime prevention and privacy compact as 3103 described in division (A)(5) of this section. 3104

(4) The attorney general may adopt rules under Chapter 119. 3105 of the Revised Code establishing guidelines for the operation of 3106 and participation in the Ohio law enforcement gateway. The rules 3107 may include criteria for granting and restricting access to 3108 information gathered and disseminated through the Ohio law 3109 enforcement gateway. The attorney general may appoint a steering 3110 committee to advise the attorney general in the operation of the 3111 Ohio law enforcement gateway that is comprised of persons who are 3112 representatives of the criminal justice agencies in this state 3113 that use the Ohio law enforcement gateway and is chaired by the 3114 superintendent or the superintendent's designee. 3115

(D)(1) The following are not public records under section 3116
149.43 of the Revised Code: 3117

(a) Information and materials furnished to the superintendent 3118
pursuant to division (A) of this section; 3119

(b) Information, data, and statistics gathered or 3120 disseminated through the Ohio law enforcement gateway pursuant to 3121 division (C)(1) of this section; 3122

(c) Information and materials furnished to any board or 3123 person under division (F) or (G) of this section. 3124

gather and retain information so furnished under division (A) of 3126
of a person who has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been 3128 adjudicated a delinquent child for committing a sexually oriented 3129 offense or a child-victim oriented offense for the purposes 3130 described in division (C)(2) of this section. 3131

(E) The attorney general shall adopt rules, in accordance 3132 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, setting forth the procedure 3133 by which a person may receive or release information gathered by 3134 the superintendent pursuant to division (A) of this section. A 3135 reasonable fee may be charged for this service. If a temporary 3136 employment service submits a request for a determination of 3137 whether a person the service plans to refer to an employment 3138 position has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense 3139 listed in division (A)(1), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of section 3140 109.572 of the Revised Code, the request shall be treated as a 3141 single request and only one fee shall be charged. 3142

(F)(1) As used in division (F)(2) of this section, "head 3143 start agency" means an entity in this state that has been approved 3144 to be an agency for purposes of subchapter II of the "Community 3145 Economic Development Act," 95 Stat. 489 (1981), 42 U.S.C.A. 9831, 3146
as amended. 3147

(2)(a) In addition to or in conjunction with any request that 3148 is required to be made under section 109.572, 2151.86, 3301.32, 3149
5104.013, 5123.081, 5126.28, 5126.281, or 5153.111 of the Revised 3151
Code or that is made under section 3314.41, 3319.392, ~~or 3326.25~~, 3152 or 3328.20 of the Revised Code, the board of education of any 3153 school district; the director of developmental disabilities; any 3154 county board of developmental disabilities; any entity under 3155 contract with a county board of developmental disabilities; the 3156 chief administrator of any chartered nonpublic school; the chief 3157 administrator of any home health agency; the chief administrator 3158 of or person operating any child day-care center, type A family 3159 day-care home, or type B family day-care home licensed or 3160 certified under Chapter 5104. of the Revised Code; the 3161 administrator of any type C family day-care home certified 3162 pursuant to Section 1 of Sub. H.B. 62 of the 121st general 3163 assembly or Section 5 of Am. Sub. S.B. 160 of the 121st general 3164 assembly; the chief administrator of any head start agency; the 3165 executive director of a public children services agency; a private 3166 company described in section 3314.41, 3319.392, ~~or 3326.25~~, or 3167 3328.20 of the Revised Code; or an employer described in division 3168

(b) When a board of education is required to receive information under this section as a prerequisite to employment of an individual pursuant to section 3319.39 of the Revised Code, it may accept a certified copy of records that were issued by the bureau of criminal identification and investigation and that are presented by an individual applying for employment with the district in lieu of requesting that information itself. In such a case, the board shall accept the certified copy issued by the bureau in order to make a photocopy of it for that individual's 3202 employment application documents and shall return the certified 3203 copy to the individual. In a case of that nature, a district only 3204 shall accept a certified copy of records of that nature within one 3205 year after the date of their issuance by the bureau. 3206

(c) Notwithstanding division (F)(2)(a) of this section, in 3207 the case of a request under section 3319.39, 3319.391, or 3327.10 3208 of the Revised Code only for criminal records maintained by the 3209 federal bureau of investigation, the superintendent shall not 3210 determine whether any information gathered under division (A) of 3211 this section exists on the person for whom the request is made. 3212

(3) The state board of education may request, with respect to 3213 any individual who has applied for employment after October 2, 3214 1989, in any position with the state board or the department of 3215 education, any information that a school district board of 3216 education is authorized to request under division (F)(2) of this 3217 section, and the superintendent of the bureau shall proceed as if 3218 the request has been received from a school district board of 3219 education under division (F)(2) of this section. 3220

(4) When the superintendent of the bureau receives a request 3221 for information under section 3319.291 of the Revised Code, the 3222 superintendent shall proceed as if the request has been received 3223 from a school district board of education and shall comply with 3224 divisions (F)(2)(a) and (c) of this section. 3225

(5) When a recipient of a classroom reading improvement grant 3226 paid under section 3301.86 of the Revised Code requests, with 3227 respect to any individual who applies to participate in providing 3228 any program or service funded in whole or in part by the grant, 3229 the information that a school district board of education is 3230 authorized to request under division (F)(2)(a) of this section, 3231 the superintendent of the bureau shall proceed as if the request 3232 has been received from a school district board of education under 3233 division (F)(2)(a) of this section. 3234

(G) In addition to or in conjunction with any request that is 3235 required to be made under section 3701.881, 3712.09, 3721.121, or 3236 ~~3722.151~~ 5119.85 of the Revised Code with respect to an individual 3237 who has applied for employment in a position that involves 3238 providing direct care to an older adult, the chief administrator 3239 of a home health agency, hospice care program, home licensed under 3240 Chapter 3721. of the Revised Code, adult day-care program operated 3241 pursuant to rules adopted under section 3721.04 of the Revised 3242 Code, or adult care facility may request that the superintendent 3243 of the bureau investigate and determine, with respect to any 3244 individual who has applied after January 27, 1997, for employment 3245 in a position that does not involve providing direct care to an 3246 older adult, whether the bureau has any information gathered under 3247 division (A) of this section that pertains to that individual. 3248

In addition to or in conjunction with any request that is 3249
required to be made under section 173.27 of the Revised Code with 3250 respect to an individual who has applied for employment in a 3251 position that involves providing ombudsperson services to 3252 residents of long-term care facilities or recipients of 3253 community-based long-term care services, the state long-term care 3254 ombudsperson, ombudsperson's designee, or director of health may 3255 request that the superintendent investigate and determine, with 3256
respect to any individual who has applied for employment in a 3257 position that does not involve providing such ombudsperson 3258 services, whether the bureau has any information gathered under 3259 division (A) of this section that pertains to that applicant. 3260

required to be made under section 173.394 of the Revised Code with 3262
respect to an individual who has applied for employment in a 3263 position that involves providing direct care to an individual, the 3264 chief administrator of a community-based long-term care agency may 3265

request that the superintendent investigate and determine, with 3266
respect to any individual who has applied for employment in a 3267 position that does not involve providing direct care, whether the 3268 bureau has any information gathered under division (A) of this 3269 section that pertains to that applicant. 3270

On receipt of a request under this division, the 3271 superintendent shall determine whether that information exists 3272 and, on request of the individual requesting information, shall 3273 also request from the federal bureau of investigation any criminal 3274 records it has pertaining to the applicant. The superintendent or 3275 the superintendent's designee also may request criminal history 3276 records from other states or the federal government pursuant to 3277
the national crime prevention and privacy compact set forth in 3278 section 109.571 of the Revised Code. Within thirty days of the 3279 date a request is received, the superintendent shall send to the 3280 requester a report of any information determined to exist, 3281 including information contained in records that have been sealed 3282 under section 2953.32 of the Revised Code, and, within thirty days 3283 of its receipt, shall send the requester a report of any 3284 information received from the federal bureau of investigation, 3285 other than information the dissemination of which is prohibited by 3286
federal law. 3287

(H) Information obtained by a government entity or person 3288 under this section is confidential and shall not be released or 3289 disseminated. 3290

(I) The superintendent may charge a reasonable fee for 3291 providing information or criminal records under division (F)(2) or 3292
(G) of this section. 3293

(J) As used in this section, "sexually oriented offense" and 3294
"child-victim oriented offense" have the same meanings as in 3295
section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 3296

Sec. 109.572. (A)(1) Upon receipt of a request pursuant to 3297 section 121.08, 3301.32, 3301.541, or 3319.39 of the Revised Code, 3298 a completed form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of this 3299 section, and a set of fingerprint impressions obtained in the 3300 manner described in division (C)(2) of this section, the 3301 superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 3302 investigation shall conduct a criminal records check in the manner 3303 described in division (B) of this section to determine whether any 3304 information exists that indicates that the person who is the 3305 subject of the request previously has been convicted of or pleaded 3306 guilty to any of the following: 3307

(a) A violation of section 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 3308

Code, a violation of section 2905.04 of the Revised Code as it 3317
existed prior to July 1, 1996, a violation of section 2919.23 of 3318
the Revised Code that would have been a violation of section 3319 2905.04 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1996, 3320 had the violation been committed prior to that date, or a 3321 violation of section 2925.11 of the Revised Code that is not a 3322 minor drug possession offense; 3323

(b) A violation of an existing or former law of this state, 3324 any other state, or the United States that is substantially 3325 equivalent to any of the offenses listed in division (A)(1)(a) of 3326
this section. 3327

(2) On receipt of a request pursuant to section 5123.081 of 3328 the Revised Code with respect to an applicant for employment in 3329 any position with the department of developmental disabilities, 3330 pursuant to section 5126.28 of the Revised Code with respect to an 3331 applicant for employment in any position with a county board of 3332 developmental disabilities, or pursuant to section 5126.281 of the 3333 Revised Code with respect to an applicant for employment in a 3334 direct services position with an entity contracting with a county 3335 board for employment, a completed form prescribed pursuant to 3336 division (C)(1) of this section, and a set of fingerprint 3337 impressions obtained in the manner described in division (C)(2) of 3338 this section, the superintendent of the bureau of criminal 3339 identification and investigation shall conduct a criminal records 3340
check. The superintendent shall conduct the criminal records check 3341 in the manner described in division (B) of this section to 3342 determine whether any information exists that indicates that the 3343 person who is the subject of the request has been convicted of or 3344 pleaded guilty to any of the following: 3345

(a) A violation of section 2903.01, 2903.02, 2903.03, 3346

existed prior to July 1, 1996, a violation of section 2919.23 of 3444
2905.04 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1996, 3446
had the violation been committed prior to that date; 3447

(b) A violation of an existing or former municipal ordinance 3448 or law of this state, any other state, or the United States that 3449 is substantially equivalent to any of the offenses listed in 3450 division (A)(5)(a) of this section. 3451

(6) On receipt of a request pursuant to section 3701.881 of 3452 the Revised Code with respect to an applicant for employment with 3453 a home health agency in a position that involves providing direct 3454 care to an older adult, a completed form prescribed pursuant to 3455

impressions obtained in the manner described in division (C)(2) of 3457
this section, the superintendent of the bureau of criminal 3458
identification and investigation shall conduct a criminal records 3459
check. The superintendent shall conduct the criminal records check 3460
in the manner described in division (B) of this section to 3461
determine whether any information exists that indicates that the 3462
person who is the subject of the request previously has been 3463 convicted of or pleaded guilty to any of the following: 3464

Revised Code as it existed prior to July 1, 1996, a violation of 3577 section 2919.23 of the Revised Code that would have been a 3578 violation of section 2905.04 of the Revised Code as it existed 3579 prior to July 1, 1996, had the violation been committed prior to 3580 that date, or a violation of section 2925.11 of the Revised Code 3581 that is not a minor drug possession offense; 3582

(b) A violation of an existing or former law of this state, 3583
any other state, or the United States that is substantially 3584

this section. 3586

(11) On receipt of a request for a criminal records check 3587 from an individual pursuant to section 4749.03 or 4749.06 of the 3588 Revised Code, accompanied by a completed copy of the form 3589 prescribed in division (C)(1) of this section and a set of 3590 fingerprint impressions obtained in a manner described in division 3591
(C)(2) of this section, the superintendent of the bureau of 3592 criminal identification and investigation shall conduct a criminal 3593 records check in the manner described in division (B) of this 3594 section to determine whether any information exists indicating 3595 that the person who is the subject of the request has been 3596 convicted of or pleaded guilty to a felony in this state or in any 3597 other state. If the individual indicates that a firearm will be 3598 carried in the course of business, the superintendent shall 3599 require information from the federal bureau of investigation as 3600 described in division (B)(2) of this section. The superintendent 3601 shall report the findings of the criminal records check and any 3602 information the federal bureau of investigation provides to the 3603 director of public safety. 3604

(12) On receipt of a request pursuant to section 1321.37, 3605
Code, a completed form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of 3607 this section, and a set of fingerprint impressions obtained in the 3608
superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 3610 investigation shall conduct a criminal records check with respect 3611 to any person who has applied for a license, permit, or 3612 certification from the department of commerce or a division in the 3613 department. The superintendent shall conduct the criminal records 3614 check in the manner described in division (B) of this section to 3615 determine whether any information exists that indicates that the 3616

convicted of or pleaded guilty to any of the following: a 3618 violation of section 2913.02, 2913.11, 2913.31, 2913.51, or 3619 2925.03 of the Revised Code; any other criminal offense involving 3620 theft, receiving stolen property, embezzlement, forgery, fraud, 3621 passing bad checks, money laundering, or drug trafficking, or any 3622 criminal offense involving money or securities, as set forth in 3623 Chapters 2909., 2911., 2913., 2915., 2921., 2923., and 2925. of 3624 the Revised Code; or any existing or former law of this state, any 3625 other state, or the United States that is substantially equivalent 3626 to those offenses. 3627

(13) On receipt of a request for a criminal records check 3628
from the treasurer of state under section 113.041 of the Revised 3629 Code or from an individual under section 4701.08, 4715.101, 3630 4717.061, 4725.121, 4725.501, 4729.071, 4730.101, 4730.14, 3631
4731.296, 4731.531, 4732.091, 4734.202, 4740.061, 4741.10, 3633
4755.70, 4757.101, 4759.061, 4760.032, 4760.06, 4761.051, 3634
4762.031, 4762.06, or 4779.091 of the Revised Code, accompanied by 3635 a completed form prescribed under division (C)(1) of this section 3636 and a set of fingerprint impressions obtained in the manner 3637 described in division (C)(2) of this section, the superintendent 3638 of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation shall 3639 conduct a criminal records check in the manner described in 3640 division (B) of this section to determine whether any information 3641 exists that indicates that the person who is the subject of the 3642 request has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any criminal 3643 offense in this state or any other state. The superintendent shall 3644 send the results of a check requested under section 113.041 of the 3645 Revised Code to the treasurer of state and shall send the results 3646 of a check requested under any of the other listed sections to the 3647 licensing board specified by the individual in the request. 3648

(14) On receipt of a request pursuant to section 1121.23, 3649
Code, a completed form prescribed pursuant to division (C)(1) of 3651
this section, and a set of fingerprint impressions obtained in the 3652
manner described in division (C)(2) of this section, the 3653
superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and 3654
investigation shall conduct a criminal records check in the manner 3655
described in division (B) of this section to determine whether any 3656
information exists that indicates that the person who is the 3657
guilty to any criminal offense under any existing or former law of 3659 this state, any other state, or the United States. 3660

(15) On receipt of a request for a criminal records check 3661 from an appointing or licensing authority under section 3772.07 of 3662 the Revised Code, a completed form prescribed under division 3663
(C)(1) of this section, and a set of fingerprint impressions 3664 obtained in the manner prescribed in division (C)(2) of this 3665 section, the superintendent of the bureau of criminal 3666 identification and investigation shall conduct a criminal records 3667
check in the manner described in division (B) of this section to 3668
determine whether any information exists that indicates that the 3669
convicted of or pleaded guilty or no contest to any offense under 3671 any existing or former law of this state, any other state, or the 3672 United States that is a disqualifying offense as defined in 3673 section 3772.07 of the Revised Code or substantially equivalent to 3674 such an offense. 3675

(16) Not later than thirty days after the date the 3676 superintendent receives a request of a type described in division 3677
(A)(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), 3678 (14), or (15) of this section, the completed form, and the 3679 fingerprint impressions, the superintendent shall send the person, 3680 board, or entity that made the request any information, other than 3681 information the dissemination of which is prohibited by federal 3682 law, the superintendent determines exists with respect to the 3683 person who is the subject of the request that indicates that the 3684 person previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any 3685 offense listed or described in division (A)(1), (2), (3), (4), 3686 (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (14), or (15) of this 3687 section, as appropriate. The superintendent shall send the person, 3688 board, or entity that made the request a copy of the list of 3689 offenses specified in division (A)(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), 3690 (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (14), or (15) of this section, as 3691 appropriate. If the request was made under section 3701.881 of the 3692 Revised Code with regard to an applicant who may be both 3693 responsible for the care, custody, or control of a child and 3694 involved in providing direct care to an older adult, the 3695 superintendent shall provide a list of the offenses specified in 3696 divisions (A)(4) and (6) of this section. 3697

Not later than thirty days after the superintendent receives 3698 a request for a criminal records check pursuant to section 113.041 3699 of the Revised Code, the completed form, and the fingerprint 3700 impressions, the superintendent shall send the treasurer of state 3701 any information, other than information the dissemination of which 3702 is prohibited by federal law, the superintendent determines exist 3703 with respect to the person who is the subject of the request that 3704 indicates that the person previously has been convicted of or 3705 pleaded guilty to any criminal offense in this state or any other 3706
state. 3707

(B) The superintendent shall conduct any criminal records 3708 check requested under section 113.041, 121.08, 173.27, 173.394, 3709 1121.23, 1155.03, 1163.05, 1315.141, 1321.53, 1321.531, 1322.03, 3710

5126.281, or 5153.111 of the Revised Code, any relevant 3730 information contained in records that have been sealed under 3731
section 2953.32 of the Revised Code; 3732

(2) If the request received by the superintendent asks for 3733 information from the federal bureau of investigation, the 3734 superintendent shall request from the federal bureau of 3735 investigation any information it has with respect to the person 3736 who is the subject of the request, including fingerprint-based 3737 checks of national crime information databases as described in 42 3738
U.S.C. 671 if the request is made pursuant to section 2151.86, 3739
5104.012, or 5104.013 of the Revised Code or if any other Revised 3740 Code section requires fingerprint-based checks of that nature, and 3741 shall review or cause to be reviewed any information the 3742 superintendent receives from that bureau. If a request under 3743 section 3319.39 of the Revised Code asks only for information from 3744 the federal bureau of investigation, the superintendent shall not 3745 conduct the review prescribed by division (B)(1) of this section. 3746

(3) The superintendent or the superintendent's designee may 3747 request criminal history records from other states or the federal 3748 government pursuant to the national crime prevention and privacy 3749 compact set forth in section 109.571 of the Revised Code. 3750

(C)(1) The superintendent shall prescribe a form to obtain 3751 the information necessary to conduct a criminal records check from 3752 any person for whom a criminal records check is requested under 3753 section 113.041 of the Revised Code or required by section 121.08, 3754

5126.281, or 5153.111 of the Revised Code. Any person for whom a 3781 records check is requested under or required by any of those 3782 sections shall obtain the fingerprint impressions at a county 3783 sheriff's office, municipal police department, or any other entity 3784 with the ability to make fingerprint impressions on the standard 3785 impression sheets prescribed by the superintendent. The office, 3786 department, or entity may charge the person a reasonable fee for 3787 making the impressions. The standard impression sheets the 3788 superintendent prescribes pursuant to this division may be in a 3789 tangible format, in an electronic format, or in both tangible and 3790 electronic formats. 3791

(3) Subject to division (D) of this section, the 3792 superintendent shall prescribe and charge a reasonable fee for 3793 providing a criminal records check requested under section 3794

5123.081, 5126.28, 5126.281, or 5153.111 of the Revised Code. The 3804 person making a criminal records request under any of those 3805 sections shall pay the fee prescribed pursuant to this division. A 3806 person making a request under section 3701.881 of the Revised Code 3807 for a criminal records check for an applicant who may be both 3808

involved in providing direct care to an older adult shall pay one 3810 fee for the request. In the case of a request under section 3811 1121.23, 1155.03, 1163.05, 1315.141, 1733.47, 1761.26, or 5111.032 3812 of the Revised Code, the fee shall be paid in the manner specified 3813
in that section. 3814

(4) The superintendent of the bureau of criminal 3815 identification and investigation may prescribe methods of 3816 forwarding fingerprint impressions and information necessary to 3817 conduct a criminal records check, which methods shall include, but 3818 not be limited to, an electronic method. 3819

(D) A determination whether any information exists that 3820 indicates that a person previously has been convicted of or 3821 pleaded guilty to any offense listed or described in division 3822

(A)(9)(a) or (b), (A)(10)(a) or (b), (A)(12), (A)(14), or (A)(15) 3825 of this section, or that indicates that a person previously has 3826 been convicted of or pleaded guilty to any criminal offense in 3827 this state or any other state regarding a criminal records check 3828 of a type described in division (A)(13) of this section, and that 3829 is made by the superintendent with respect to information 3830 considered in a criminal records check in accordance with this 3831 section is valid for the person who is the subject of the criminal 3832 records check for a period of one year from the date upon which 3833 the superintendent makes the determination. During the period in 3834 which the determination in regard to a person is valid, if another 3835 request under this section is made for a criminal records check 3836 for that person, the superintendent shall provide the information 3837 that is the basis for the superintendent's initial determination 3838 at a lower fee than the fee prescribed for the initial criminal 3839 records check. 3840

(E) As used in this section: 3841

(1) "Criminal records check" means any criminal records check 3842 conducted by the superintendent of the bureau of criminal 3843 identification and investigation in accordance with division (B) 3844

Fees specified in this section may be paid by cash, check, or 4063 money order, by credit card in accordance with section 113.40 of 4064 the Revised Code, or by an alternative payment program in 4065 accordance with division (B) of section 111.18 of the Revised 4066 Code. Any credit card number or the expiration date of any credit 4067 card is not subject to disclosure under Chapter 149. of the 4068
Revised Code. 4069

Sec. 111.18. (A) The secretary of state shall keep a record 4070 of all fees collected by the secretary of state and, ~~subject to~~ 4071 ~~division (B) of section 1309.528 of the Revised Code and~~ except as 4072 otherwise provided in the Revised Code, shall pay them into the 4073 state treasury to the credit of the corporate and uniform 4074 commercial code filing fund created by section 1309.528 of the 4075
Revised Code. 4076

(B) The secretary of state may implement alternative payment 4077 programs that permit payment of any fee charged by the secretary 4078 of state by means other than cash, check, money order, or credit 4079 card; an alternative payment program may include, but is not 4080 limited to, one that permits a fee to be paid by electronic means 4081 of transmission. Fees paid under an alternative payment program 4082 shall be deposited to the credit of the secretary of state 4083 alternative payment program fund, which is hereby created in the 4084 state treasury. Any investment income of the secretary of state 4085 alternative payment program fund shall be credited to that fund 4086 and used to operate the alternative payment program. Within two 4087 working days following the deposit of funds to the credit of the 4088 secretary of state alternative payment program fund, the secretary 4089 of state shall pay those funds to the credit of the corporate and 4090 uniform commercial code filing fund, subject to division (B) of 4091 section 1309.401 of the Revised Code and except as otherwise 4092 provided in the Revised Code. 4093

The secretary of state shall adopt rules necessary to carry 4094 out the purposes of this division. 4095

Sec. 111.181. There is hereby created in the state treasury 4096 the information systems fund. The fund shall receive revenues from 4097 fees charged to customers for special database requests, including 4098 corporate and uniform commercial code filings. The secretary of 4099 state shall use the fund for information technology related 4100 expenses of the office. 4101

Sec. 111.28. (A) There is hereby created in the state 4102 treasury the help America vote act (HAVA) fund. All moneys 4103 received by the secretary of state from the United States election 4104 assistance commission shall be credited to the fund. The secretary 4105 of state shall use the moneys credited to the fund for activities 4106 conducted pursuant to the "Help America Vote Act of 2002," Pub. L. 4107
No. 107-252, 116 Stat. 1666. All investment earnings of the fund 4108 shall be credited to the fund. 4109

(B) There is hereby created in the state treasury the 4110 election reform/health and human services fund. All moneys 4111 received by the secretary of state from the United States 4112 department of health and human services shall be credited to the 4113 fund. The secretary of state shall use the moneys credited to the 4114 fund for activities conducted pursuant to grants awarded to the 4115 state under Title II, Subtitle D, Sections 261 to 265 of the Help 4116 America Vote Act of 2002 to assure access for individuals with 4117 disabilities. All investment earnings of the fund shall be 4118 credited to the fund. 4119

the citizen education fund. The fund shall receive gifts, grants, 4121 fees, and donations from private individuals and entities for 4122 voter education purposes. The secretary of state shall use the 4123 moneys credited to the fund for preparing, printing, and 4124 distributing voter registration and educational materials and for 4125 conducting related workshops and conferences for public education. 4126

Sec. 117.101. The auditor of state shall provide, operate, 4127 and maintain a uniform and compatible computerized financial 4128 management and accounting system known as the uniform accounting 4129 network. The network shall be designed to provide public offices, 4130 other than state agencies and the Ohio education computer network 4131 and public school districts, with efficient and economical access 4132 to data processing and management information facilities and 4133 expertise. In accordance with this objective, activities of the 4134 network shall include, but not be limited to, provision, 4135 maintenance, and operation of the following facilities and 4136
services: 4137

(A) A cooperative program of technical assistance for public 4138 offices, other than state agencies and the Ohio education computer 4139 network and public school districts, including, but not limited 4140 to, an adequate computer software system and a data base; 4141

(B) An information processing service center providing 4142 approved computerized financial accounting and reporting services 4143 to participating public offices. 4144

The auditor of state and any public office, other than a 4145 state agency and the Ohio education computer network and public 4146 school districts, may enter into any necessary agreements, without 4147 advertisement or bidding, for the provision of necessary goods, 4148 materials, supplies, and services to such public offices by the 4149 auditor of state through the network. 4150

The auditor of state may, by rule, provide for a system of 4151 user fees to be charged participating public offices for goods, 4152 materials, supplies, and services received from the network. All 4153 such fees shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of 4154 the uniform accounting network fund, which is hereby created. The 4155 fund shall be used by the auditor of state to pay the costs of 4156 establishing and maintaining the network. The fund shall be 4157 assessed a proportionate share of the auditor of state's 4158 administrative costs in accordance with procedures prescribed by 4159 the auditor of state ~~and approved by the director of budget and~~ 4160 ~~management.~~ 4161

Sec. 117.13. (A) The costs of audits of state agencies shall 4162 be recovered by the auditor of state in the following manner: 4163

(1) The costs of all audits of state agencies shall be paid 4164 to the auditor of state on statements rendered by the auditor of 4165 state. Money so received by the auditor of state shall be paid 4166 into the state treasury to the credit of the public audit expense 4167 fund--intrastate, which is hereby created, and shall be used to 4168 pay costs related to such audits. The costs of audits of a state 4169 agency shall be charged to the state agency being audited. The 4170 costs of any assistant auditor, employee, or expert employed 4171 pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code called upon to 4172 testify in any legal proceedings in regard to any audit, or called 4173 upon to review or discuss any matter related to any audit, may be 4174 charged to the state agency to which the audit relates. 4175

(2) The auditor of state shall establish by rule rates to be 4176 charged to state agencies for recovering the costs of audits of 4177

state agencies. 4178

(B) As used in this division, "government auditing standards" 4179 means the government auditing standards published by the 4180 comptroller general of the United States general accounting 4181
office. 4182

(1) Except as provided in divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this 4183 section, any costs of an audit of a private institution, 4184 association, board, or corporation receiving public money for its 4185 use shall be charged to the public office providing the public 4186 money in the same manner as costs of an audit of the public 4187
office. 4188

(2) If an audit of a private child placing agency or private 4189 noncustodial agency receiving public money from a public children 4190 services agency for providing child welfare or child protection 4191 services sets forth that money has been illegally expended, 4192 converted, misappropriated, or is unaccounted for, the costs of 4193 the audit shall be charged to the agency being audited in the same 4194 manner as costs of an audit of a public office, unless the 4195 findings are inconsequential, as defined by government auditing 4196 standards. 4197

(3) If such an audit does not set forth that money has been 4198 illegally expended, converted, misappropriated, or is unaccounted 4199 for or sets forth findings that are inconsequential, as defined by 4200 government auditing standards, the costs of the audit shall be 4201 charged as follows: 4202

(a) One-third of the costs to the agency being audited; 4203

(b) One-third of the costs to the public children services 4204 agency that provided the public money to the agency being audited; 4205

(c) One-third of the costs to the department of job and 4206 family services. 4207

(C) The costs of audits of local public offices shall be 4208 recovered by the auditor of state in the following manner: 4209

(1) The total amount of compensation paid assistant auditors 4210 of state, their expenses, the cost of employees assigned to assist 4211 the assistant auditors of state, the cost of experts employed 4212 pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code, and the cost of 4213 typing, reviewing, and copying reports shall be borne by the 4214 public office to which such assistant auditors of state are so 4215 assigned, ~~except that annual vacation and sick leave of assistant~~ 4216 ~~auditors of state, employees, and typists shall be financed from~~ 4217
~~the general revenue fund. The necessary traveling and hotel~~ 4218 ~~expenses of the deputy inspectors and supervisors of public~~ 4219 ~~offices shall be paid from the state treasury.~~ Assistant auditors 4220 of state shall be compensated by the taxing district or other 4221 public office audited for activities undertaken pursuant to 4222 division (B) of section 117.18 and section 117.24 of the Revised 4223 Code. The costs of any assistant auditor, employee, or expert 4224 employed pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code called 4225 upon to testify in any legal proceedings in regard to any audit, 4226 or called upon to review or discuss any matter related to any 4227 audit, may be charged to the public office to which the audit 4228 relates. 4229

(2) The auditor of state shall certify the amount of such 4230 compensation, expenses, cost of experts, reviewing, copying, and 4231 typing to the fiscal officer of the local public office audited. 4232
The fiscal officer of the local public office shall forthwith draw 4233 a warrant upon the general fund or other appropriate funds of the 4234 local public office to the order of the auditor of state; 4235 provided, that the auditor of state is authorized to negotiate 4236 with any local public office and, upon agreement between the 4237 auditor of state and the local public office, may adopt a schedule 4238 for payment of the amount due under this section. Money so 4239 received by the auditor of state shall be paid into the state 4240 treasury to the credit of the public audit expense fund--local 4241 government, which is hereby created, and shall be used to pay the 4242 compensation, expense, cost of experts and employees, reviewing, 4243 copying, and typing of reports. 4244

(3) At the conclusion of each audit, or analysis and report 4245 made pursuant to section 117.24 of the Revised Code, the auditor 4246 of state shall furnish the fiscal officer of the local public 4247 office audited a statement showing the total cost of the audit, or 4248 of the audit and the analysis and report, and the percentage of 4249 the total cost chargeable to each fund audited. The fiscal officer 4250 may distribute such total cost to each fund audited in accordance 4251 with its percentage of the total cost. 4252

(4) The auditor of state shall provide each local public 4253 office a statement or certification of the amount due from the 4254 public office for services performed by the auditor of state under 4255 this or any other section of the Revised Code, as well as the date 4256 upon which payment is due to the auditor of state. Any local 4257 public office that does not pay the amount due to the auditor of 4258 state by that date may be assessed by the auditor of state for 4259 interest from the date upon which the payment is due at the rate 4260 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All 4261 interest charges assessed by the auditor of state may be collected 4262 in the same manner as audit costs pursuant to division (D) of this 4263
section. 4264

(5) The auditor of state shall establish by rule rates to be 4265 charged to local public offices for recovering the costs of audits 4266 of local public offices. 4267

(D) If the auditor of state fails to receive payment for any 4268 amount due, including, but not limited to, fines, fees, and costs, 4269 from a public office for services performed under this or any 4270 other section of the Revised Code, the auditor of state may seek 4271 payment through the office of budget and management. (Amounts due 4272 include any amount due to an independent public accountant with 4273 whom the auditor has contracted to perform services, all costs and 4274 fees associated with participation in the uniform accounting 4275 network, and all costs associated with the auditor's provision of 4276 local government services.) Upon certification by the auditor of 4277 state to the director of budget and management of any such amount 4278 due, the director shall withhold from the public office any amount 4279 available, up to and including the amount certified as due, from 4280 any funds under the director's control that belong to or are 4281 lawfully payable or due to the public office. The director shall 4282 promptly pay the amount withheld to the auditor of state. If the 4283 director determines that no funds due and payable to the public 4284 office are available or that insufficient amounts of such funds 4285 are available to cover the amount due, the director shall withhold 4286 and pay to the auditor of state the amounts available and, in the 4287 case of a local public office, certify the remaining amount to the 4288 county auditor of the county in which the local public office is 4289 located. The county auditor shall withhold from the local public 4290 office any amount available, up to and including the amount 4291 certified as due, from any funds under the county auditor's 4292 control and belonging to or lawfully payable or due to the local 4293 public office. The county auditor shall promptly pay any such 4294 amount withheld to the auditor of state. 4295

Sec. 118.023. (A) Upon determining that one or more of the 4296 conditions described in section 118.022 of the Revised Code are 4297 present, the auditor of state shall issue a written declaration of 4298 the existence of a fiscal watch to the municipal corporation, 4299 county, or township and the county budget commission. The fiscal 4300 watch shall be in effect until the auditor of state determines 4301 that none of the conditions are any longer present and cancels the 4302 watch, or until the auditor of state determines that a state of 4303 fiscal emergency exists. The auditor of state, or a designee, 4304 shall provide such technical and support services to the municipal 4305 corporation, county, or township after a fiscal watch has been 4306 declared to exist as the auditor of state considers necessary. The 4307 controlling board shall provide sufficient funds for any costs 4308 that the auditor of state may incur in determining if a fiscal 4309 watch exists and for providing technical and support services. 4310

(B) Within one hundred twenty days after the day a written 4311 declaration of the existence of a fiscal watch is issued under 4312 division (A) of this section, the mayor of the municipal 4313 corporation, the board of county commissioners of the county, or 4314 the board of township trustees of the township for which a fiscal 4315 watch was declared shall submit to the auditor of state a 4316 financial recovery plan that shall identify actions to be taken to 4317 eliminate all of the conditions described in section 118.022 of 4318 the Revised Code, include a schedule detailing the approximate 4319 dates for beginning and completing the actions, and include a 4320 five-year forecast reflecting the effects of the actions. The 4321 financial recovery plan is subject to review and approval by the 4322 auditor of state. The auditor of state may extend the amount of 4323 time by which a financial recovery plan is required to be filed, 4324 for good cause shown. 4325

(C) If a feasible financial recovery plan for a municipal 4326 corporation, county, or township for which a fiscal watch was 4327 declared is not submitted within the time period prescribed by 4328 division (B) of this section, or within any extension of time 4329 thereof, the auditor of state shall declare that a fiscal 4330 emergency condition exists under section 118.04 of the Revised 4331
Code in the municipal corporation, county, or township. 4332

Sec. 118.025. (A) The auditor of state shall develop 4333 guidelines for identifying fiscal practices and budgetary 4334 conditions of municipal corporations, counties, and townships 4335 that, if uncorrected, could result in a future declaration of a 4336 fiscal watch or fiscal emergency. 4337

(B) If the auditor of state determines that a municipal 4338 corporation, county, or township is engaging in any of those 4339 practices or that any of those conditions exist, the auditor of 4340 state may declare the municipal corporation, county, or township 4341 to be under a fiscal caution. 4342

(C) When the auditor of state declares a fiscal caution, the 4343 auditor of state shall promptly notify the municipal corporation, 4344 county, or township of that declaration and shall request the 4345 municipal corporation, county, or township to provide written 4346 proposals for discontinuing or correcting the fiscal practices or 4347 budgetary conditions that prompted the declaration and for 4348 preventing the municipal corporation, county, or township from 4349 experiencing further fiscal difficulties that could result in a 4350 declaration of fiscal watch or fiscal emergency. 4351

(D) The auditor of state, or a designee, may visit and 4352 inspect any municipal corporation, county, or township that is 4353 declared to be under a fiscal caution. The auditor of state may 4354 provide technical assistance to the municipal corporation, county, 4355 or township in implementing proposals to eliminate the practices 4356 or budgetary conditions that prompted the declaration of fiscal 4357 caution and may make recommendations concerning those proposals. 4358

(E) If the auditor of state finds that a municipal 4359 corporation, county, or township declared to be under a fiscal 4360 caution has not made reasonable proposals or otherwise taken 4361 action to discontinue or correct the fiscal practices or budgetary 4362 conditions that prompted the declaration of fiscal caution, and if 4363 the auditor of state considers it necessary to prevent further 4364 fiscal decline, the auditor of state may determine that the 4365 municipal corporation, county, or township should be in a state of 4366 fiscal watch. 4367

(F) The controlling board shall provide sufficient funds for 4368 any costs incurred by the auditor of state in determining if a 4369 fiscal caution exists and for providing technical and support 4370
services. 4371

Sec. 118.04. (A) The existence of a fiscal emergency 4372 condition constitutes a fiscal emergency. The existence of fiscal 4373 emergency conditions shall be determined by the auditor of state. 4374 Such determination, for purposes of this chapter, may be made only 4375 upon the filing with the auditor of state of a written request for 4376 such a determination by the governor, by the county budget 4377 commission, by the mayor of the municipal corporation, or by the 4378 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 4379 corporation when authorized by a majority of the members of such 4380 legislative authority, by the board of county commissioners, or by 4381 the board of township trustees, or upon initiation by the auditor 4382 of state. The request may designate in general or specific terms, 4383 but without thereby limiting the determination thereto, the 4384 condition or conditions to be examined to determine whether they 4385 constitute fiscal emergency conditions. Promptly upon receipt of 4386 such written request, or upon initiation by the auditor of state, 4387 the auditor of state shall transmit copies of such request or a 4388 written notice of such initiation to the mayor and the presiding 4389 officer of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 4390 or to the board of county commissioners or the board of township 4391 trustees by personal service or certified mail. Such 4392 determinations shall be set forth in written reports and 4393 supplemental reports, which shall be filed with the mayor, fiscal 4394 officer, and presiding officer of the legislative authority of the 4395 municipal corporation, or with the board of county commissioners 4396 or the board of township trustees, and with the treasurer of 4397 state, secretary of state, governor, director of budget and 4398 management, and county budget commission, within thirty days after 4399 the request. The auditor of state shall so file an initial report 4400 immediately upon determining the existence of any fiscal emergency 4401 condition. 4402

(B) In making such determination, the auditor of state may 4403 rely on reports or other information filed or otherwise made 4404 available by the municipal corporation, county, or township, 4405 accountants' reports, or other sources and data the auditor of 4406 state considers reliable for such purpose. As to the status of 4407 funds or accounts, a determination that the amounts stated in 4408 section 118.03 of the Revised Code are exceeded may be made 4409 without need for determination of the specific amount of the 4410 excess. The auditor of state may engage the services of 4411 independent certified or registered public accountants, including 4412 public accountants engaged or previously engaged by the municipal 4413 corporation, county, or township, to conduct audits or make 4414 reports or render such opinions as the auditor of state considers 4415 desirable with respect to any aspect of the determinations to be 4416 made by the auditor of state. 4417

(C) A determination by the auditor of state under this 4418 section that a fiscal emergency condition does not exist is final 4419 and conclusive and not appealable. A determination by the auditor 4420 of state under this section that a fiscal emergency exists is 4421 final, except that the mayor of any municipal corporation affected 4422 by a determination of the existence of a fiscal emergency 4423 condition under this section, when authorized by a majority of the 4424 members of the legislative authority, or the board of county 4425 commissioners or board of township trustees, may appeal the 4426 determination of the existence of a fiscal emergency condition to 4427 the court of appeals having territorial jurisdiction over the 4428 municipal corporation, county, or township. The appeal shall be 4429 heard expeditiously by the court of appeals and for good cause 4430 shown shall take precedence over all other civil matters except 4431 earlier matters of the same character. Notice of such appeal must 4432 be filed with the auditor of state and such court within thirty 4433 days after certification by the auditor of state to the mayor and 4434 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 4435 corporation or to the board of county commissioners or board of 4436 township trustees as provided for in division (A) of this section. 4437

In such appeal, determinations of the auditor of state shall be 4438 presumed to be valid and the municipal corporation, county, or 4439 township shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 4440 evidence, that each of the determinations made by the auditor of 4441 state as to the existence of a fiscal emergency condition under 4442 section 118.03 of the Revised Code was in error. If the municipal 4443 corporation, county, or township fails, upon presentation of its 4444 case, to prove by clear and convincing evidence that each such 4445 determination by the auditor of state was in error, the court 4446 shall dismiss the appeal. The municipal corporation, county, or 4447 township and the auditor of state may introduce any evidence 4448 relevant to the existence or nonexistence of such fiscal emergency 4449 conditions at the times indicated in the applicable provisions of 4450 divisions (A) and (B) of section 118.03 of the Revised Code. The 4451 pendency of any such appeal shall not affect or impede the 4452 operations of this chapter; no restraining order, temporary 4453 injunction, or other similar restraint upon actions consistent 4454 with this chapter shall be imposed by the court or any court 4455 pending determination of such appeal; and all things may be done 4456 under this chapter that may be done regardless of the pendency of 4457 any such appeal. Any action taken or contract executed pursuant to 4458 this chapter during the pendency of such appeal is valid and 4459 enforceable among all parties, notwithstanding the decision in 4460 such appeal. If the court of appeals reverses the determination of 4461 the existence of a fiscal emergency condition by the auditor of 4462 state, the determination no longer has any effect, and any 4463 procedures undertaken as a result of the determination shall be 4464 terminated. 4465

(D) ~~All~~ The auditor of state shall be reimbursed for any 4466 expenses incurred by the auditor of state relating to a 4467 determination or termination of a fiscal emergency under this 4468 section or a fiscal watch under section 118.021 of the Revised 4469 Code ~~shall be reimbursed from an appropriation for that purpose,~~ 4470 including technical and support services. If necessary, the 4471 controlling board shall provide sufficient funds for these 4472 purposes. 4473

Sec. 118.05. (A) Pursuant to the powers of the general 4474 assembly and for the purposes of this chapter, upon the occurrence 4475 of a fiscal emergency in any municipal corporation, county, or 4476 township, as determined pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised 4477 Code, there is established, with respect to that municipal 4478 corporation, county, or township, a body both corporate and 4479 politic constituting an agency and instrumentality of the state 4480 and performing essential governmental functions of the state to be 4481 known as the "financial planning and supervision commission for 4482
..... (name of municipal corporation, county, or 4483 township)," which, in that name, may exercise all authority vested 4484 in such a commission by this chapter. ~~A~~ Except as otherwise 4485 provided in division (L) of this section, a separate commission is 4486 established with respect to each municipal corporation, county, or 4487 township as to which there is a fiscal emergency as determined 4488
under this chapter. 4489

(B) A commission shall consist of the following voting 4490
members: 4491

(1) Four ex officio members: the treasurer of state; the 4492 director of budget and management; in the case of a municipal 4493 corporation, the ~~mayor of the municipal corporation and the~~ 4494 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 4495 corporation; in the case of a county, the president of the board 4496 of county commissioners ~~and the county auditor; and~~ in the case of 4497 a township, a member of the board of township trustees; and the 4498 county auditor or county fiscal officer. 4499

The treasurer of state may designate a deputy treasurer or 4500 director within the office of the treasurer of state or any other 4501 appropriate person who is not an employee of the treasurer of 4502 state's office; the director of budget and management may 4503 designate an individual within the office of budget and management 4504 or any other appropriate person who is not an employee of the 4505 office of budget and management; ~~the mayor may designate a~~ 4506 ~~responsible official within the mayor's office or the fiscal~~ 4507 ~~officer of the municipal corporation;~~ the presiding officer of the 4508 legislative authority of the municipal corporation may designate 4509 any other member of the legislative authority; the board of county 4510 commissioners may designate any other member of the board ~~or the~~ 4511 ~~fiscal officer of the county;~~ and the board of township trustees 4512 may designate any other member of the board or the fiscal officer 4513 of the township to attend the meetings of the commission when the 4514 ex officio member is absent or unable for any reason to attend. A 4515 designee, when present, shall be counted in determining whether a 4516 quorum is present at any meeting of the commission and may vote 4517 and participate in all proceedings and actions of the commission. 4518
The designations shall be in writing, executed by the ex officio 4519 member or entity making the designation, and filed with the 4520 secretary of the commission. The designations may be changed from 4521 time to time in like manner, but due regard shall be given to the 4522 need for continuity. 4523

(2) ~~If a municipal corporation, county, or township has a~~ 4524
~~population of at least one thousand, three members nominated and~~ 4525

~~appointed as follows:~~ 4526

~~The mayor and presiding officer of the legislative authority 4527
of the municipal corporation, the board of county commissioners, 4528 or the board of township trustees shall, within ten days after the 4529 determination of the fiscal emergency by the auditor of state 4530
under section 118.04 of the Revised Code, submit in writing to the 4531 governor the nomination of five persons agreed to by them and 4532 meeting the qualifications set forth in this division. If the 4533 governor is not satisfied that at least three of the nominees are 4534 well qualified, the governor shall notify the mayor and presiding 4535 officer, or the board of county commissioners, or the board of 4536 township trustees to submit in writing, within five days, 4537 additional nominees agreed upon by them, not exceeding three. The 4538 governor shall appoint three members from all the agreed upon 4539 nominees so submitted or a lesser number that the governor 4540 considers well qualified within thirty days after receipt of the 4541 nominations, and shall fill any remaining positions on the 4542 commission by appointment of any other persons meeting the 4543 qualifications set forth in this division. All appointments by the 4544 governor shall be made with the advice and consent of the senate. 4545
Each of the three appointed members shall serve during the life of 4546 the commission, subject to removal by the governor for 4547 misfeasance, nonfeasance, or malfeasance in office. In the event 4548 of the death, resignation, incapacity, removal, or ineligibility 4549 to serve of an appointed member, the governor, pursuant to the 4550 process for original appointment, shall appoint a successor. 4551~~

population of less than one thousand, one member nominated and 4553
appointed as follows: 4554~~

or the board of township trustees shall, within ten days after the 4557~~

~~determination of the fiscal emergency by the auditor of state 4558
under section 118.04 of the Revised Code, submit in writing to the 4559
governor the nomination of three persons agreed to by them and 4560 meeting the qualifications set forth in this division. If the 4561 governor is not satisfied that at least one of the nominees is 4562 well qualified, the governor shall notify the mayor and presiding 4563
officer, or the board of county commissioners, or the board of 4564
township trustees to submit in writing, within five days, 4565
additional nominees agreed upon by them, not exceeding three. The 4566
governor shall appoint one member from all the agreed upon 4567 nominees so submitted or shall fill the position on the commission 4568 by appointment of any other person meeting the qualifications set 4569 forth in this division. All appointments by the governor shall be 4570 made with the advice and consent of the senate. The appointed 4571 member shall serve during the life of the commission, subject to 4572 removal by the governor for misfeasance, nonfeasance, or 4573 malfeasance in office. In the event of the death, resignation, 4574 incapacity, removal, or ineligibility to serve of the appointed 4575 member, the governor, pursuant to the process for original 4576 appointment, shall appoint a successor. 4577~~

~~Each appointed member shall be an individual: 4578~~

~~(a) Who has knowledge and experience in financial matters, 4579 financial management, or business organization or operations; 4580~~

~~(b) Whose One member appointed by the governor, whose 4581 residency, office, or principal place of professional or business 4582 activity is situated within the municipal corporation, county, or 4583 township; 4584~~

~~(c) Who shall not become a candidate for elected public 4585 office while serving as a member of the commission. 4586~~

~~(C) Immediately after appointment of the initial appointed 4587 member or members of the commission, the governor shall call the 4588~~ first meeting of the commission and shall cause written notice of 4589 the time, date, and place of the first meeting to be given to each 4590 member of the commission at least forty-eight hours in advance of 4591 the meeting. 4592

(D) The director of budget and management shall serve as 4593 chairperson of the commission. The commission shall elect one of 4594 its members to serve as vice-chairperson and may appoint a 4595 secretary and any other officers, who need not be members of the 4596 commission, it considers necessary. The chairperson may remove the 4597 member appointed by the governor if that member fails to attend 4598 three consecutive meetings. In that event, the governor shall fill 4599 the vacancy in the same manner as the original appointment. 4600

(E) The commission may adopt and alter bylaws and rules, 4601 which shall not be subject to section 111.15 or Chapter 119. of 4602 the Revised Code, for the conduct of its affairs and for the 4603 manner, subject to this chapter, in which its powers and functions 4604 shall be exercised and embodied. 4605

(F) ~~Four members of a commission established pursuant to 4606 divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section constitute a quorum of 4607 the commission. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members 4608 of such a commission is necessary for any action taken by vote of 4609 the commission.~~ Three members of a commission established pursuant 4610 ~~to divisions (B)(1) and (3) of this section constitute a quorum of 4611
the commission. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members 4612 of ~~such a~~ the commission is necessary for any action taken by vote 4613 of the commission. No vacancy in the membership of the commission 4614 shall impair the rights of a quorum by such vote to exercise all 4615 the rights and perform all the duties of the commission. Members 4616 of the commission, and their designees, are not disqualified from 4617 voting by reason of the functions of the other office they hold 4618 and are not disqualified from exercising the functions of the 4619 other office with respect to the municipal corporation, county, or 4620~~ township, its officers, or the commission. 4621

(G) The auditor of state shall serve as the "financial 4622 supervisor" to the commission unless the auditor of state elects 4623 to contract for that service. As used in this chapter, "financial 4624 supervisor" means the auditor of state. 4625

(H) At the request of the commission, the auditor of state 4626 shall designate employees of the auditor of state's office to 4627 assist the commission and the financial supervisor and to 4628 coordinate the work of the auditor of state's office and the 4629 financial supervisor. Upon the determination of a fiscal emergency 4630 in any municipal corporation, county, or township, the municipal 4631 corporation, county, or township shall provide the commission with 4632 such reasonable office space in the principal building housing 4633 city, county, or township government, where feasible, as it 4634 determines is necessary to carry out its duties under this 4635
chapter. 4636

(I) The financial supervisor, the members of the commission, 4637 the auditor of state, and any person authorized to act on behalf 4638 of or assist them shall not be personally liable or subject to any 4639 suit, judgment, or claim for damages resulting from the exercise 4640 of or failure to exercise the powers, duties, and functions 4641 granted to them in regard to their functioning under this chapter, 4642 but the commission, the financial supervisor, the auditor of 4643 state, and those other persons shall be subject to mandamus 4644 proceedings to compel performance of their duties under this 4645 chapter and with respect to any debt obligations issued pursuant 4646 or subject to this chapter. 4647

(J) At the request of the commission, the administrative head 4648 of any state agency shall temporarily assign personnel skilled in 4649 accounting and budgeting procedures to assist the commission or 4650 the financial supervisor in its duties as financial supervisor. 4651

(K) The appointed members of the commission are not subject 4652 to section 102.02 of the Revised Code. Each appointed member of 4653 the commission shall file with the commission a signed written 4654 statement setting forth the general nature of sales of goods, 4655 property, or services or of loans to the municipal corporation, 4656 county, or township with respect to which that commission is 4657 established, in which the appointed member has a pecuniary 4658 interest or in which any member of the appointed member's 4659 immediate family, as defined in section 102.01 of the Revised 4660 Code, or any corporation, partnership, or enterprise of which the 4661 appointed member is an officer, director, or partner, or of which 4662 the appointed member or a member of the appointed member's 4663 immediate family, as so defined, owns more than a five per cent 4664 interest, has a pecuniary interest, and of which sale, loan, or 4665 interest such member has knowledge. The statement shall be 4666 supplemented from time to time to reflect changes in the general 4667 nature of any such sales or loans. 4668

(L) A commission is not established with respect to any 4669 village or township with a population of less than two thousand 4670 five hundred as of the most recent federal decennial census. Upon 4671 the occurrence of a fiscal emergency in such a village or 4672 township, the auditor of state shall serve as the financial 4673 supervisor of the village or township and shall have all the 4674 powers and responsibilities of a commission. 4675

Sec. 118.06. (A) Within one hundred twenty days after the 4676 first meeting of the commission, the mayor of the municipal 4677 corporation or the board of county commissioners or board of 4678 township trustees shall submit to the commission a detailed 4679 financial plan, as approved or amended and approved by ordinance 4680 or resolution of the legislative authority, containing the 4681
following: 4682

(1) Actions to be taken by the municipal corporation, county, or township to:	4683 4684
(a) Eliminate all fiscal emergency conditions determined to exist pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised Code;	4685 4686
(b) Satisfy any judgments, past due accounts payable, and all past due and payable payroll and fringe benefits;	4687 4688
(c) Eliminate the deficits in all deficit funds;	4689
(d) Restore to construction funds and other special funds moneys from such funds that were used for purposes not within the purposes of such funds, or borrowed from such construction funds by the purchase of debt obligations of the municipal corporation, county, or township with the moneys of such funds, or missing from the construction funds or such special funds and not accounted for;	4690 4691 4692 4693 4694 4695 4696
(e) Balance the budgets, avoid future deficits in any funds, and maintain current payments of payroll, fringe benefits, and all accounts;	4697 4698 4699
(f) Avoid any fiscal emergency condition in the future;	4700
(g) Restore the ability of the municipal corporation, county, or township to market long-term general obligation bonds under provisions of law applicable to municipal corporations, counties, or townships generally.	4701 4702 4703 4704
(2) The legal authorities permitting the municipal corporation, county, or township to take the actions enumerated pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section;	4705 4706 4707
(3) The approximate dates of the commencement, progress upon, and completion of the actions enumerated pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, a five-year forecast reflecting the effects of those actions , and a reasonable period of time expected to be required to implement the plan. The municipal corporation,	4708 4709 4710 4711 4712 county, or township, in consultation with the commission and the 4713 financial supervisor, shall prepare a reasonable time schedule for 4714 progress toward and achievement of the requirements for the 4715 financial plan and the financial plan shall be consistent with 4716 that time schedule. 4717

(4) The amount and purpose of any issue of debt obligations 4718 that will be issued, together with assurances that any such debt 4719 obligations that will be issued will not exceed debt limits 4720 supported by appropriate certifications by the fiscal officer of 4721 the municipal corporation, county, or township and the county 4722 auditor; 4723

(5) Assurances that the municipal corporation, county, or 4724 township will establish monthly levels of expenditures and 4725 encumbrances pursuant to division (B)(2) of section 118.07 of the 4726

(6) Assurances that the municipal corporation, county, or 4728 township will conform to statutes with respect to tax budgets and 4729 appropriation measures; 4730

(7) The detail, the form, and the supporting information that 4731 the commission may direct. 4732

(B) The financial plan developed pursuant to division (A) of 4733 this section shall be filed with the financial supervisor and the 4734 financial planning and supervision commission and shall be updated 4735 annually. After consultation with the financial supervisor, the 4736 commission shall either approve or reject any initial or 4737 subsequent financial plan. If the commission rejects the initial 4738 or any subsequent financial plan, it shall forthwith inform the 4739 mayor and legislative authority of the municipal corporation or 4740 the board of county commissioners or board of township trustees of 4741 the reasons for its rejection. Within thirty days after the 4742 rejection of any plan, the mayor with the approval of the 4743 legislative authority by the passage of an ordinance or 4744 resolution, or the board of county commissioners or board of 4745 township trustees, shall submit another plan meeting the 4746 requirements of divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this section, to the 4747 commission and the financial supervisor for approval or rejection 4748 by the commission. 4749

(C) Any initial or subsequent financial plan passed by the 4750 municipal corporation, county, or township shall be approved by 4751 the commission if it complies with divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this 4752 section, and if the commission finds that the plan is bona fide 4753 and can reasonably be expected to be implemented within the period 4754 specified in the plan. 4755

(D) Any financial plan may be amended subsequent to its 4756 adoption in the same manner as the passage and approval of the 4757 initial or subsequent plan pursuant to divisions (A) to (C) of 4758
this section. 4759

(E) If a municipal corporation, county, or township fails to 4760 submit a financial plan as required by this section, or fails to 4761 substantially comply with an approved financial plan, upon 4762 certification of the commission, all state funding for that 4763 municipal corporation, county, or township other than benefit 4764 assistance to individuals shall be escrowed until a feasible plan 4765 is submitted and approved or substantial compliance with the plan 4766 is achieved, as the case may be. 4767

Sec. 118.12. (A) After the date by which the municipal 4768 corporation, county, or township is required to submit a financial 4769 plan or segment of a financial plan to the financial planning and 4770 supervision commission, if the municipal corporation, county, or 4771 township has failed to submit a financial plan or segment as 4772 required by this chapter, expenditures from the general fund of 4773 the municipal corporation, county, or township in any month may 4774 not exceed eighty-five per cent of expenditures from the general 4775 fund for such month in the preceding fiscal year, except the 4776 commission may authorize a higher per cent for any month upon 4777 justification of need by the municipal corporation, county, or 4778 township. If considered prudent by the commission, expenditures 4779 from any other fund of the municipal corporation, county, or 4780 township also may be limited. 4781

(B) After submission of a proposed financial plan by the 4782 municipal corporation, county, or township to the commission, 4783 until approval or disapproval no expenditure may be made contrary 4784 to such proposed financial plan. 4785

(C) After disapproval by the commission of a proposed 4786 financial plan, no expenditure may be made by the municipal 4787 corporation, county, or township inconsistent with the reasons for 4788 disapproval given pursuant to division (B) of section 118.06 of 4789 the Revised Code; and if the municipal corporation, county, or 4790 township fails to submit a revised financial plan within the time 4791 required, the expenditure limits of division (A) of this section 4792 are applicable. 4793

(D) After approval of a financial plan, or any amendment 4794 thereof, no expenditure may be made contrary to the approved 4795 financial plan, or amendment thereof, without the advance approval 4796 of the financial supervisor. The commission, by a majority vote, 4797 may overrule the decision of the financial supervisor. 4798

Sec. 118.17. (A) During a fiscal emergency period and with 4799 the approval of the financial planning and supervision commission, 4800 a municipal corporation, county, or township may issue local 4801 government fund notes, in anticipation of amounts to be allocated 4802 to it pursuant to division (B) of section 5747.50 of the Revised 4803 Code or to be apportioned to it under section 5747.51 or 5747.53 4804 of the Revised Code in a future year or years, for a period of no 4805 more than eight calendar years. The principal amount of the notes 4806 and interest on the notes due and payable in any year shall not 4807 exceed fifty per cent of the total amount of local government fund 4808 moneys so allocated or apportioned to the municipal corporation, 4809 county, or township for the year preceding the year in which the 4810 notes are issued. The notes may mature in semiannual or annual 4811 installments in such amounts as may be fixed by the commission, 4812 and need not mature in substantially equal semiannual or annual 4813 installments. The notes of a municipal corporation may be 4814 authorized and issued, subject to the approval of the commission, 4815 in the manner provided in sections 717.15 and 717.16 of the 4816 Revised Code, except that, notwithstanding division (A)(2) of 4817 section 717.16 of the Revised Code, the rate or rates of interest 4818 payable on the notes shall be the prevailing market rate or rates 4819 as determined and approved by the commission, and except that they 4820 shall not be issued in anticipation of bonds, shall not constitute 4821 general obligations of the municipal corporation, and shall not 4822 pledge the full faith and credit of the municipal corporation. 4823

(B) The principal and interest on the notes provided for in 4824 this section shall be payable, as provided in this section, solely 4825 from the portion of the local government fund that would otherwise 4826 be apportioned to the municipal corporation, county, or township 4827 and shall not be payable from or constitute a pledge of or claim 4828 upon, or require the levy, collection, or application of, any 4829 unvoted ad valorem property taxes or other taxes, or in any manner 4830 occupy any portion of the indirect debt limit. 4831

(C) Local government fund notes may be issued only to the 4832 extent needed to achieve one or more of the following objectives 4833
of the financial plan: 4834

(1) Satisfying any contractual or noncontractual judgments, 4835 past due accounts payable, and all past due and payable payroll 4836 and fringe benefits to be taken into account under section 118.03 4837

(2) Restoring to construction funds or other restricted funds 4839 any money applied from such funds to uses not within the purposes 4840 of such funds and which could not be transferred to such use under 4841

(3) Eliminating deficit balances in all deficit funds, 4843 including funds that may be used to pay operating expenses. 4844

In addition to the objectives set forth in divisions (C)(1) 4845 to (3) of this section, local government fund notes may be issued 4846 and the proceeds of those notes may be used for the purpose of 4847 retiring or replacing other moneys used to retire current revenue 4848 notes issued pursuant to section 118.23 of the Revised Code to the 4849 extent that the proceeds of the current revenue notes have been or 4850 are to be used directly or to replace other moneys used to achieve 4851 one or more of the objectives of the financial plan specified in 4852 divisions (C)(1) to (3) of this section. Upon authorization of the 4853 local government fund notes by the legislative authority of the 4854 municipal corporation, county, or township, the proceeds of the 4855 local government fund notes and the proceeds of any such current 4856 revenue notes shall be deemed to be appropriated, to the extent 4857 that the proceeds have been or are to be so used, for the purposes 4858 for which the revenues anticipated by any such current revenue 4859 notes are collected and appropriated within the meaning of section 4860
133.10 of the Revised Code. 4861

(D) The need for an issue of local government fund notes for 4862 such purposes shall be determined by taking into consideration 4863 other money and sources of moneys available therefor under this 4864 chapter or other provisions of law, and calculating the respective 4865 amounts needed therefor in accordance with section 118.03 of the 4866 Revised Code, including the deductions or offsets therein 4867 provided, for determining that a fiscal emergency condition 4868 exists, and by eliminating any duplication of amounts thereunder. 4869

The respective amounts needed to achieve such objectives and the 4870 resulting aggregate net amount shall be determined initially by a 4871 certification of the fiscal officer as and to the extent approved 4872 by the financial supervisor. The principal amount of such notes 4873 shall not exceed the aggregate net amount needed for such 4874 purposes. The aggregate amount of all issues of such notes shall 4875 not exceed three times the average of the allocation or 4876 apportionment to the municipal corporation, county, or township of 4877 moneys from the local government fund in each of the three fiscal 4878 years preceding the fiscal year in which the notes are issued. 4879

(E) The proceeds of the sale of local government fund notes 4880 shall be appropriated by the municipal corporation, county, or 4881 township for and shall be applied only to the purposes, and in the 4882 respective amounts for those purposes, set forth in the 4883 certification given pursuant to division (D) of this section, as 4884 the purposes and amounts may be modified in the approval by the 4885 commission provided for in this section. The proceeds shall be 4886 deposited in separate accounts with a fiscal agent designated in 4887 the resolution referred to in division (F) of this section and 4888 released only for such respective purposes in accordance with the 4889 procedures set forth in division (D) of section 118.20 of the 4890 Revised Code. Any amounts not needed for such purposes shall be 4891 deposited with the fiscal agent designated to receive deposits for 4892 payment of the principal of and interest due on the notes. 4893

(F) An application for approval by the financial planning and 4894 supervision commission of an issue of local government fund notes 4895 shall be authorized by a preliminary resolution adopted by the 4896 legislative authority. The resolution may authorize the 4897 application as a part of the initial submission of the financial 4898 plan for approval or as a part of any proposed amendment to an 4899 approved financial plan or at any time after the approval of a 4900 financial plan, or amendment to a financial plan, that proposes 4901 the issue of such notes. The preliminary resolution shall 4902 designate a fiscal agent for the deposit of the proceeds of the 4903 sale of the notes, and shall contain a covenant of the municipal 4904 corporation, county, or township to comply with this chapter and 4905 the financial plan. 4906

The commission shall review and evaluate the application and 4907 supporting certification and financial supervisor action, and 4908 shall thereupon certify its approval or disapproval, or 4909 modification and approval, of the application. 4910

The commission shall certify the amounts, maturities, 4911 interest rates, and terms of issue of the local government fund 4912 notes approved by the commission and the purposes to which the 4913 proceeds of the sale of the notes will be applied in respective 4914 amounts. 4915

The commission shall certify a copy of its approval, of the 4916 preliminary resolution, and of the related certification and 4917 action of the financial supervisor to the fiscal officer, the 4918 financial supervisor, the county budget commission, the county 4919 auditor, the county treasurer, and the fiscal agent designated to 4920 receive and disburse the proceeds of the sale of the notes. 4921

(G) Upon the sale of any local government fund notes issued 4922 under this section, the commission shall determine a schedule for 4923 the deposit of local government fund distributions that are 4924 pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on the 4925 notes with the fiscal agent or trustee designated in the agreement 4926 between the municipal corporation, county, or township and the 4927 holders of the notes to receive and disburse the distributions. 4928
The amounts to be deposited shall be adequate to provide for the 4929 payment of principal and interest on the notes when due and to pay 4930 all other proper charges, costs, or expenses pertaining thereto. 4931

The amount of the local government fund moneys apportioned to 4932

the municipal corporation, county, or township that is to be so 4933 deposited in each year shall not be included in the tax budget and 4934 appropriation measures of the municipal corporation, county, or 4935 township, or in certificates of estimated revenues, for that year. 4936

The commission shall certify the schedule to the officers 4937 designated in division (F) of this section. 4938

(H) Deposit of amounts with the fiscal agent or trustee 4939 pursuant to the schedule determined by the commission shall be 4940 made from local government fund distributions to or apportioned to 4941 the municipal corporation, county, or township as provided in this 4942 division. The apportionment of local government fund moneys to the 4943 municipal corporation, county, or township for any year from the 4944 undivided local government fund shall be determined as to the 4945 municipal corporation, county, or township without regard to the 4946 amounts to be deposited with the fiscal agent or trustee in that 4947 year in accordance with division (G) of this section. After the 4948 amount of the undivided local government fund apportioned to the 4949 municipal corporation, county, or township for a calendar year is 4950 determined, the county auditor and the county treasurer shall 4951 withhold from each monthly amount to be distributed to the 4952 municipal corporation, county, or township from the undivided 4953 local government fund, and transmit to the fiscal agent or trustee 4954 for deposit, one-twelfth of the amount scheduled for deposit in 4955 that year pursuant to division (G) of this section. 4956

(I) If the commission approves the application, the municipal 4957 corporation, county, or township may proceed with the issuance of 4958 the notes as approved by the commission. 4959

All notes issued under authority of this section are lawful 4960 investments for the entities enumerated in division (A)(1) of 4961 section 133.03 of the Revised Code and are eligible as security 4962 for the repayment of the deposit of public moneys. 4963

Upon the issuance of any notes under this section, the fiscal officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township shall certify the fact of the issuance to the county auditor and shall also certify to the county auditor the last calendar year in which any of the notes are scheduled to mature.

any officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township 4997 fails or refuses to take any action required by this section or 4998 the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance or sale of 4999 local government fund notes, the mayor of the municipal 5000 corporation or the board of county commissioners or board of 5001 township trustees may cause the commencement of a mandamus action 5002 in the supreme court against the director of law, prosecuting 5003 attorney, or other chief legal officer to secure the certification 5004 required by this division or other action required by this section 5005 or the ordinance or resolution. If an adjudication of the matters 5006 that could be adjudicated in validation proceedings under section 5007 133.70 of the Revised Code is necessary to a determination of the 5008 mandamus action, the mayor, the board of county commissioners, or 5009 the board of township trustees or the mayor's or board's legal 5010 counsel shall name and cause to be served as defendants to the 5011 mandamus action all of the following: 5012

(1) The director of law, prosecuting attorney, or other chief 5013 legal officer, or other official of the municipal corporation, 5014 county, or township, whose failure or refusal to act necessitated 5015 the action; 5016

(2) The municipal corporation, through its mayor, or the 5017 board of county commissioners or board of township trustees; 5018

(3) The financial planning and supervision commission, 5019 through its chairperson; 5020

(4) The prosecuting attorney and auditor of each county in 5021 which the municipal corporation, county, or township is located, 5022
in whole or in part; 5023

(5) The auditor of state; 5024

(6) The property owners, taxpayers, citizens of the municipal 5025 corporation, county, or township and others having or claiming any 5026 right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected 5027 by the issuance of the local government fund notes by the 5028 municipal corporation, county, or township, or otherwise affected 5029

in any way thereby. 5030

Service upon all defendants described in division (J)(6) of 5031 this section shall be either by publication three times, with at 5032 least six days between each publication, in a newspaper of general 5033 circulation in Franklin county and a newspaper of general 5034 circulation in the county or counties where the municipal 5035 corporation, county, or township is located, or by publication in 5036 both such newspapers as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 5037 Code. The publication and the notice shall indicate that the 5038 nature of the action is in mandamus, the name of the parties to 5039 the action, and that the action may result in the validation of 5040 the subject local government fund notes. Authorization to commence 5041 such an action by the legislative authority of the municipal 5042 corporation, county, or township is not required. 5043

A copy of the complaint in the mandamus action shall be 5044 served personally or by certified mail upon the attorney general. 5045
If the attorney general has reason to believe that the complaint 5046 is defective, insufficient, or untrue, or if in the attorney 5047 general's opinion the issuance of the local government fund notes 5048 is not lawful or has not been duly authorized, defense shall be 5049 made to the complaint as the attorney general considers proper. 5050

(K) The action in mandamus authorized by division (J) of this 5051 section shall take priority over all other civil cases pending in 5052 the court, except habeas corpus, and shall be determined with the 5053 least possible delay. The supreme court may determine that the 5054 local government fund notes will be consistent with the purpose 5055 and effects, including not occupying the indirect debt limit, 5056 provided for in this section and will be validly issued and 5057 acquired. Such a determination shall include a finding of 5058 validation of the subject local government fund notes if the court 5059

specifically finds that: 5060

(1) The complaint in mandamus, or subsequent pleadings, 5061 include appropriate allegations required by division (C) of 5062 section 133.70 of the Revised Code, and that the proceeding is in 5063 lieu of an action to validate under section 133.70 of the Revised 5064
Code; 5065

(2) All parties described in divisions (J)(1) to (6) of this 5066 section have been duly served with notice or are otherwise 5067 properly before the court; 5068

(3) Notice of the action has been published as required by 5069 division (J) of this section; 5070

(4) The effect of validation is required to provide a 5071 complete review and determination of the controversy in mandamus, 5072 and to avoid duplication of litigation, danger of inconsistent 5073 results, or inordinate delay in light of the fiscal emergency, or 5074 that a disposition in the mandamus action would, as a practical 5075 matter, be dispositive of any subsequent validation proceedings 5076
under section 133.70 of the Revised Code. 5077

(L) Any decision that includes a finding of validation has 5078 the same effect as a validation order established by an action 5079
under section 133.70 of the Revised Code. 5080

(M) Divisions (J) and (K) of this section do not prevent a 5081 municipal corporation, county, or township from using section 5082 133.70 of the Revised Code to validate local government fund notes 5083 by the filing of a petition for validation in the court of common 5084 pleas of the county in which the municipal corporation, county, or 5085 township is located, in whole or in part. 5086

(N) It is hereby determined by the general assembly that a 5087 validation action authorized by section 133.70 of the Revised Code 5088 is not an adequate remedy at law with respect to a municipal 5089 corporation, county, or township that is a party to a mandamus 5090 action pursuant to divisions (J) and (K) of this section and in 5091 which a fiscal emergency condition has been determined to exist 5092 pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised Code because of, but not 5093 limited to, the following reasons: 5094

(1) It is urgently necessary for such a municipal 5095 corporation, county, or township to take prompt action to issue 5096 local government fund notes for the purposes provided in division 5097
(C) of this section; 5098

(2) The potentially ruinous effect upon the fiscal condition 5099 of a municipal corporation, county, or township by the passage of 5100 the time required to adjudicate such a separate validation action 5101 and any appeals thereof; 5102

(3) The reasons stated in division (K)(4) of this section. 5103

Sec. 118.31. (A) Upon petition of the financial supervisor 5104 and approval of the financial planning and supervision commission, 5105 if any, the attorney general shall file a court action to dissolve 5106 a municipal corporation, county, or township if all of the 5107 following conditions apply: 5108

(1) The municipal corporation, county, or township has a 5109 population of less than five thousand as of the most recent 5110 federal decennial census. 5111

(2) The municipal corporation, county, or township has been 5112 under a fiscal emergency for at least two consecutive years. 5113

(3) Implementation of the financial plan of the municipal 5114 corporation, county, or township required under this chapter 5115 cannot reasonably be expected to correct and eliminate all fiscal 5116 emergency conditions within five years. 5117

(B) If the court finds that all of the conditions described 5118 in division (A) of this section apply to the municipal 5119 corporation, county, or township, it shall enter an order removing 5120 the executive and legislative officers of the municipal 5121 corporation, county, or township and appoint a receiver to execute 5122 all management duties. The receiver, under court supervision, 5123 shall wind up the affairs of the municipal corporation, county, or 5124 township and dissolve it. 5125

Sec. 118.99. (A) During the fiscal emergency period, no 5126 officer or employee of the municipal corporation, county, or 5127 township shall do any of the following: 5128

(1) Knowingly enter into any contract, financial obligation, 5129
or other liability of the municipal corporation, county, or 5130 township involving an expenditure, or make any expenditure in 5131 excess of the amount permitted by section 118.12 of the Revised 5132
Code; 5133

(2) Knowingly enter into any contract, financial obligation, 5134
or other liability of the municipal corporation, county, or 5135 township, or knowingly execute or deliver debt obligations, or 5136 transfer, advance, or borrow moneys from one fund of the municipal 5137 corporation, county, or township to or for any other fund of the 5138 municipal corporation, county, or township where any of such 5139 actions are required to be approved by the financial planning and 5140 supervision commission unless such actions have been so approved 5141 or deemed to be approved as provided in or pursuant to this 5142
chapter; 5143

(3) Knowingly fail or refuse to take any of the actions 5144 required by this chapter for the preparation or amendment of the 5145 financial plan, or knowingly prepare, present, or certify any 5146 information or report for the commission or any of its employees, 5147 advisory committees, task forces, or agents that is false or 5148 misleading or which is recklessly prepared or presented without 5149 due care for its accuracy, or, upon learning that any such 5150 information is false or misleading, or was recklessly prepared or 5151 presented, knowingly fail promptly to advise the commission, or 5152 the employee, advisory committee, task force, or agent to whom 5153 such information was given, of that fact; 5154

(4) Knowingly use or cause to be used moneys of a 5155 construction fund for purposes other than the lawful purposes of 5156 the construction fund, or knowingly use or cause to be used moneys 5157 of a fund created under this chapter for the payment of principal 5158 and interest on debt obligations, or a bond retirement fund, or 5159 sinking fund for other than the payment of the principal of and 5160 interest on debt obligations or other authorized costs or payments 5161 from such funds, or knowingly fail to perform the duty of such 5162 officer or employee to cause the prompt deposit of moneys to any 5163 of the funds referred to in this division. 5164

(B) The prohibitions set forth in division (A) of this 5165 section are in addition to any other prohibitions provided by law 5166 for a municipal corporation, county, or township, or by or 5167 pursuant to a municipal charter. 5168

(C) In addition to any other penalty or liability provided by 5169 law for a municipal corporation, county, or township, or by or 5170 pursuant to a municipal charter, a violation of division (A)(1), 5171 (2), (3), or (4) of this section is a misdemeanor of the second 5172 degree. Upon conviction of any officer or employee of a municipal 5173 corporation, county, or township for any violation under division 5174
(A)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section, such officer or employee 5175 shall forfeit office or employment. For the seven-year period 5176 immediately following the date of conviction, such officer shall 5177 also be ineligible to hold any public office or other position of 5178 trust in this state or be employed by any public entity in this 5179
state. 5180

Sec. 121.03. The following administrative department heads 5181 shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of 5182

the senate, and shall hold their offices during the term of the	5183 appointing governor, and are subject to removal at the pleasure of	5184
the governor.	5185

Sec. 121.22. (A) This section shall be liberally construed to	5257 require public officials to take official action and to conduct	5258
all deliberations upon official business only in open meetings	5259 unless the subject matter is specifically excepted by law.	5260
(B) As used in this section:	5261
(1) "Public body" means any of the following:	5262
(a) Any board, commission, committee, council, or similar	5263 decision-making body of a state agency, institution, or authority,	5264 and any legislative authority or board, commission, committee,	5265 council, agency, authority, or similar decision-making body of any	5266
county, township, municipal corporation, school district, or other	5267 political subdivision or local public institution;	5268

(b) Any committee or subcommittee of a body described in division (B)(1)(a) of this section;	5269 5270
(c) A court of jurisdiction of a sanitary district organized wholly for the purpose of providing a water supply for domestic, municipal, and public use when meeting for the purpose of the appointment, removal, or reappointment of a member of the board of directors of such a district pursuant to section 6115.10 of the Revised Code, if applicable, or for any other matter related to such a district other than litigation involving the district. As used in division (B)(1)(c) of this section, "court of jurisdiction" has the same meaning as "court" in section 6115.01 of the Revised Code.	5271 5272 5273 5274 5275 5276 5277 5278 5279 5280
(2) "Meeting" means any prearranged discussion of the public business of the public body by a majority of its members.	5281 5282
(3) "Regulated individual" means either of the following:	5283
(a) A student in a state or local public educational institution;	5284 5285
(4) "Public office" has the same meaning as in section 149.011 of the Revised Code.	5290 5291
(C) All meetings of any public body are declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times. A member of a public body shall be present in person at a meeting open to the public to be considered present or to vote at the meeting and for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting.	5292 5293 5294 5295 5296
The minutes of a regular or special meeting of any public	5297 body shall be promptly prepared, filed, and maintained and shall	5298 be open to public inspection. The minutes need only reflect the	5299 general subject matter of discussions in executive sessions	5300 authorized under division (G) or (J) of this section.	5301

(D) This section does not apply to any of the following:	5302
(1) A grand jury;	5303
(2) An audit conference conducted by the auditor of state or	5304 independent certified public accountants with officials of the	5305 public office that is the subject of the audit;	5306
(3) The adult parole authority when its hearings are	5307 conducted at a correctional institution for the sole purpose of	5308 interviewing inmates to determine parole or pardon;	5309
(4) The organized crime investigations commission established	5310
under section 177.01 of the Revised Code;	5311
(5) Meetings of a child fatality review board established	5312
under section 307.621 of the Revised Code and meetings conducted	5313 pursuant to sections 5153.171 to 5153.173 of the Revised Code;	5314
(6) The state medical board when determining whether to	5315
suspend a certificate without a prior hearing pursuant to division	5316
(G) of either section 4730.25 or 4731.22 of the Revised Code;	5317
(7) The board of nursing when determining whether to suspend	5318
a license or certificate without a prior hearing pursuant to	5319
division (B) of section 4723.281 of the Revised Code;	5320
(8) The state board of pharmacy when determining whether to	5321
suspend a license without a prior hearing pursuant to division (D)	5322
of section 4729.16 of the Revised Code;	5323
(9) The state chiropractic board when determining whether to	5324 suspend a license without a hearing pursuant to section 4734.37 of	5325
the Revised Code;	5326
(10) The executive committee of the emergency response	5327

commission when determining whether to issue an enforcement order 5328 or request that a civil action, civil penalty action, or criminal 5329 action be brought to enforce Chapter 3750. of the Revised Code; 5330

(11) The board of directors of the nonprofit corporation 5331 formed under section 187.01 of the Revised Code or any committee 5332 thereof, and the board of directors of any subsidiary of that 5333 corporation or a committee thereof; 5334

(12) An audit conference conducted by the audit staff of the 5335 department of job and family services with officials of the public 5336 office that is the subject of that audit under section 5101.37 of 5337
the Revised Code. 5338

(E) The controlling board, the development financing advisory 5339 council, the industrial technology and enterprise advisory 5340 council, the tax credit authority, or the minority development 5341 financing advisory board, when meeting to consider granting 5342 assistance pursuant to Chapter 122. or 166. of the Revised Code, 5343 in order to protect the interest of the applicant or the possible 5344 investment of public funds, by unanimous vote of all board, 5345 council, or authority members present, may close the meeting 5346 during consideration of the following information confidentially 5347 received by the authority, council, or board from the applicant: 5348

(1) Marketing plans; 5349

(2) Specific business strategy; 5350

(3) Production techniques and trade secrets; 5351

(4) Financial projections; 5352

(5) Personal financial statements of the applicant or members 5353 of the applicant's immediate family, including, but not limited 5354 to, tax records or other similar information not open to public 5355 inspection. 5356

The vote by the authority, council, or board to accept or 5357 reject the application, as well as all proceedings of the 5358 authority, council, or board not subject to this division, shall 5359 be open to the public and governed by this section. 5360

(F) Every public body, by rule, shall establish a reasonable 5361 method whereby any person may determine the time and place of all 5362 regularly scheduled meetings and the time, place, and purpose of 5363 all special meetings. A public body shall not hold a special 5364 meeting unless it gives at least twenty-four hours' advance notice 5365 to the news media that have requested notification, except in the 5366 event of an emergency requiring immediate official action. In the 5367 event of an emergency, the member or members calling the meeting 5368 shall notify the news media that have requested notification 5369 immediately of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. 5370

The rule shall provide that any person, upon request and 5371 payment of a reasonable fee, may obtain reasonable advance 5372 notification of all meetings at which any specific type of public 5373 business is to be discussed. Provisions for advance notification 5374 may include, but are not limited to, mailing the agenda of 5375 meetings to all subscribers on a mailing list or mailing notices 5376 in self-addressed, stamped envelopes provided by the person. 5377

(G) Except as provided in division (J) of this section, the 5378 members of a public body may hold an executive session only after 5379 a majority of a quorum of the public body determines, by a roll 5380 call vote, to hold an executive session and only at a regular or 5381 special meeting for the sole purpose of the consideration of any 5382 of the following matters: 5383

(1) To consider the appointment, employment, dismissal, 5384 discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a public 5385 employee or official, or the investigation of charges or 5386 complaints against a public employee, official, licensee, or 5387 regulated individual, unless the public employee, official, 5388 licensee, or regulated individual requests a public hearing. 5389

Except as otherwise provided by law, no public body shall hold an executive session for the discipline of an elected official for conduct related to the performance of the elected official's official duties or for the elected official's removal from office. If a public body holds an executive session pursuant to division (G)(1) of this section, the motion and vote to hold that executive session shall state which one or more of the approved purposes listed in division (G)(1) of this section are the purposes for which the executive session is to be held, but need not include the name of any person to be considered at the meeting.

(2) To consider the purchase of property for public purposes, or for the sale of property at competitive bidding, if premature disclosure of information would give an unfair competitive or bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest is adverse to the general public interest. No member of a public body shall use division (G)(2) of this section as a subterfuge for providing covert information to prospective buyers or sellers. A purchase or sale of public property is void if the seller or buyer of the public property has received covert information from a member of a public body that has not been disclosed to the general public in sufficient time for other prospective buyers and sellers to prepare and submit offers.

If the minutes of the public body show that all meetings and deliberations of the public body have been conducted in compliance with this section, any instrument executed by the public body purporting to convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of any right, title, or interest in any public property shall be conclusively presumed to have been executed in compliance with this section insofar as title or other interest of any bona fide purchasers, lessees, or transferees of the property is concerned.

(3) Conferences with an attorney for the public body concerning disputes involving the public body that are the subject of pending or imminent court action;	5422

(4) Preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations or bargaining sessions with public employees concerning their compensation or other terms and conditions of their employment;	5423 5424 5425
(5) Matters required to be kept confidential by federal law or regulations or state statutes;	5426 5427
(6) Details relative to the security arrangements and emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office, if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be expected to jeopardize the security of the public body or public office;	5428 5429 5430 5431 5432
(7) In the case of a county hospital operated pursuant to Chapter 339. of the Revised Code, a joint township hospital operated pursuant to Chapter 513. of the Revised Code, or a municipal hospital operated pursuant to Chapter 749. of the Revised Code, to consider trade secrets, as defined in section 1333.61 of the Revised Code.	5433 5434 5435 5436 5437 5438
If a public body holds an executive session to consider any of the matters listed in divisions (G)(2) to (7) of this section, the motion and vote to hold that executive session shall state which one or more of the approved matters listed in those divisions are to be considered at the executive session.	5439 5440 5441 5442 5443
A public body specified in division (B)(1)(c) of this section shall not hold an executive session when meeting for the purposes specified in that division.	5444 5445 5446
(H) A resolution, rule, or formal action of any kind is invalid unless adopted in an open meeting of the public body. A resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting that results from deliberations in a meeting not open to the public is invalid unless the deliberations were for a purpose specifically authorized in division (G) or (J) of this section and conducted at	5447 5448 5449 5450 5451 5452 an executive session held in compliance with this section. A 5453 resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting is 5454 invalid if the public body that adopted the resolution, rule, or 5455 formal action violated division (F) of this section. 5456

(I)(1) Any person may bring an action to enforce this 5457 section. An action under division (I)(1) of this section shall be 5458 brought within two years after the date of the alleged violation 5459 or threatened violation. Upon proof of a violation or threatened 5460 violation of this section in an action brought by any person, the 5461 court of common pleas shall issue an injunction to compel the 5462 members of the public body to comply with its provisions. 5463

(2)(a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 5464 pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section, the court shall order 5465 the public body that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture of five 5466 hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction and shall 5467
award to that party all court costs and, subject to reduction as 5468 described in division (I)(2) of this section, reasonable 5469 attorney's fees. The court, in its discretion, may reduce an award 5470 of attorney's fees to the party that sought the injunction or not 5471 award attorney's fees to that party if the court determines both 5472
of the following: 5473

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 5474
and case law as it existed at the time of violation or threatened 5475 violation that was the basis of the injunction, a well-informed 5476 public body reasonably would believe that the public body was not 5477 violating or threatening to violate this section; 5478

(ii) That a well-informed public body reasonably would 5479 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the basis 5480 of the injunction would serve the public policy that underlies the 5481 authority that is asserted as permitting that conduct or 5482
threatened conduct. 5483

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an injunction pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section and the court determines at that time that the bringing of the action was frivolous conduct, as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to the public body all court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court.

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that sought the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably presumed upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of this section.

(4) A member of a public body who knowingly violates an injunction issued pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section may be removed from office by an action brought in the court of common pleas for that purpose by the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general.

(J)(1) Pursuant to division (C) of section 5901.09 of the Revised Code, a veterans service commission shall hold an executive session for one or more of the following purposes unless an applicant requests a public hearing:

(a) Interviewing an applicant for financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code;

(b) Discussing applications, statements, and other documents described in division (B) of section 5901.09 of the Revised Code;

(c) Reviewing matters relating to an applicant's request for financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code.

(2) A veterans service commission shall not exclude an applicant for, recipient of, or former recipient of financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code, and shall not exclude representatives selected by the applicant, recipient, or former recipient, from a meeting that the commission conducts as an executive session that pertains to the applicant's, 5515 recipient's, or former recipient's application for financial 5516 assistance. 5517

(3) A veterans service commission shall vote on the grant or 5518 denial of financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 5519 of the Revised Code only in an open meeting of the commission. The 5520 minutes of the meeting shall indicate the name, address, and 5521 occupation of the applicant, whether the assistance was granted or 5522 denied, the amount of the assistance if assistance is granted, and 5523 the votes for and against the granting of assistance. 5524

Sec. 121.37. (A)(1) There is hereby created the Ohio family 5525 and children first cabinet council. The council shall be composed 5526 of the superintendent of public instruction, the administrator of 5527 the rehabilitation services commission, and the directors of youth 5528 services, job and family services, mental health, health, alcohol 5529 and drug addiction services, developmental disabilities, aging, 5530 rehabilitation and correction, and budget and management. The 5531 chairperson of the council shall be the governor or the governor's 5532 designee and shall establish procedures for the council's internal 5533 control and management. 5534

The purpose of the cabinet council is to help families 5535 seeking government services. This section shall not be interpreted 5536 or applied to usurp the role of parents, but solely to streamline 5537 and coordinate existing government services for families seeking 5538 assistance for their children. 5539

(2) In seeking to fulfill its purpose, the council may do any 5540
of the following: 5541

(a) Advise and make recommendations to the governor and 5542 general assembly regarding the provision of services to children; 5543

(b) Advise and assess local governments on the coordination 5544 of service delivery to children; 5545

(c) Hold meetings at such times and places as may be 5546 prescribed by the council's procedures and maintain records of the 5547 meetings, except that records identifying individual children are 5548 confidential and shall be disclosed only as provided by law; 5549

(d) Develop programs and projects, including pilot projects, 5550 to encourage coordinated efforts at the state and local level to 5551 improve the state's social service delivery system; 5552

(e) Enter into contracts with and administer grants to county 5553 family and children first councils, as well as other county or 5554 multicounty organizations to plan and coordinate service delivery 5555 between state agencies and local service providers for families 5556 and children; 5557

(f) Enter into contracts with and apply for grants from 5558 federal agencies or private organizations; 5559

(g) Enter into interagency agreements to encourage 5560 coordinated efforts at the state and local level to improve the 5561 state's social service delivery system. The agreements may include 5562 provisions regarding the receipt, transfer, and expenditure of 5563
funds; 5564

(h) Identify public and private funding sources for services 5565 provided to alleged or adjudicated unruly children and children 5566 who are at risk of being alleged or adjudicated unruly children, 5567 including regulations governing access to and use of the services; 5568

(i) Collect information provided by local communities 5569 regarding successful programs for prevention, intervention, and 5570 treatment of unruly behavior, including evaluations of the 5571
programs; 5572

(j) Identify and disseminate publications regarding alleged 5573 or adjudicated unruly children and children who are at risk of 5574 being alleged or adjudicated unruly children and regarding 5575 programs serving those types of children; 5576

(k) Maintain an inventory of strategic planning facilitators 5577 for use by government or nonprofit entities that serve alleged or 5578 adjudicated unruly children or children who are at risk of being 5579 alleged or adjudicated unruly children. 5580

(3) The cabinet council shall provide for the following: 5581

(a) Reviews of service and treatment plans for children for 5582 which such reviews are requested; 5583

(b) Assistance as the council determines to be necessary to 5584 meet the needs of children referred by county family and children 5585 first councils; 5586

(c) Monitoring and supervision of a statewide, comprehensive, 5587 coordinated, multi-disciplinary, interagency system for infants 5588 and toddlers with developmental disabilities or delays and their 5589 families, as established pursuant to federal grants received and 5590 administered by the department of health for early intervention 5591 services under the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 5592 2004," 20 U.S.C.A. 1400, as amended. 5593

(4) The cabinet council shall develop and implement the 5594
following: 5595

(a) An interagency process to select the indicators that will 5596 be used to measure progress toward increasing child well-being in 5597 the state and to update the indicators on an annual basis. The 5598 indicators shall focus on expectant parents and newborns thriving; 5599 infants and toddlers thriving; children being ready for school; 5600 children and youth succeeding in school; youth choosing healthy 5601 behaviors; and youth successfully transitioning into adulthood. 5602

(b) An interagency system to offer guidance and monitor 5603 progress toward increasing child well-being in the state and in 5604

each county; 5605

(c) An annual plan that identifies state-level agency efforts 5606 taken to ensure progress towards increasing child well-being in 5607
the state. 5608

On an annual basis, the cabinet council shall submit to the 5609 governor and the general assembly a report on the status of 5610 efforts to increase child well-being in the state. This report 5611 shall be made available to any other person on request. 5612

(B)(1) Each board of county commissioners shall establish a 5613 county family and children first council. The board may invite any 5614 local public or private agency or group that funds, advocates, or 5615 provides services to children and families to have a 5616 representative become a permanent or temporary member of its 5617 county council. Each county council must include the following 5618 individuals: 5619

(a) At least three individuals who are not employed by an 5620 agency represented on the council and whose families are or have 5621 received services from an agency represented on the council or 5622 another county's council. Where possible, the number of members 5623 representing families shall be equal to twenty per cent of the 5624 council's membership. 5625

(b) The director of the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and 5626 mental health services that serves the county, or, in the case of 5627 a county that has a board of alcohol and drug addiction services 5628 and a community mental health board, the directors of both boards. 5629
If a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services 5630 covers more than one county, the director may designate a person 5631 to participate on the county's council. 5632

(c) The health commissioner, or the commissioner's designee, 5633 of the board of health of each city and general health district in 5634 the county. If the county has two or more health districts, the 5635 health commissioner membership may be limited to the commissioners	5636

of the two districts with the largest populations.	5637
(d) The director of the county department of job and family	5638
services;	5639
(e) The executive director of the public children services	5640 agency;	5641
(f) The superintendent of the county board of developmental	5642 disabilities;	5643
(g) The superintendent of the city, exempted village, or	5644
local school district with the largest number of pupils residing	5645 in the county, as determined by the department of education, which	5646 shall notify each board of county commissioners of its	5647 determination at least biennially;	5648
(h) A school superintendent representing all other school	5649
districts with territory in the county, as designated at a	5650 biennial meeting of the superintendents of those districts;	5651
(i) A representative of the municipal corporation with the	5652
largest population in the county;	5653
(j) The president of the board of county commissioners or an	5654 individual designated by the board;	5655
(k) A representative of the regional office of the department	5656 of youth services;	5657
(l) A representative of the county's head start agencies, as	5658
defined in section 3301.32 of the Revised Code;	5659
(m) A representative of the county's early intervention	5660 collaborative established pursuant to the federal early	5661 intervention program operated under the "Individuals with	5662 Disabilities Education Act of 2004";	5663
(n) A representative of a local nonprofit entity that funds,	5664
advocates, or provides services to children and families.	5665

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the public 5666 members of a county council are not prohibited from serving on the 5667 council and making decisions regarding the duties of the council, 5668 including those involving the funding of joint projects and those 5669 outlined in the county's service coordination mechanism 5670 implemented pursuant to division (C) of this section. 5671

The cabinet council shall establish a state appeals process 5672 to resolve disputes among the members of a county council 5673 concerning whether reasonable responsibilities as members are 5674 being shared. The appeals process may be accessed only by a 5675 majority vote of the council members who are required to serve on 5676 the council. Upon appeal, the cabinet council may order that state 5677 funds for services to children and families be redirected to a 5678 county's board of county commissioners. 5679

The county's juvenile court judge senior in service or 5680 another judge of the juvenile court designated by the 5681 administrative judge or, where there is no administrative judge, 5682 by the judge senior in service shall serve as the judicial advisor 5683 to the county family and children first council. The judge may 5684 advise the county council on the court's utilization of resources, 5685 services, or programs provided by the entities represented by the 5686 members of the county council and how those resources, services, 5687 or programs assist the court in its administration of justice. 5688 Service of a judge as a judicial advisor pursuant to this section 5689 is a judicial function. 5690

(2) The purpose of the county council is to streamline and 5691 coordinate existing government services for families seeking 5692 services for their children. In seeking to fulfill its purpose, a 5693 county council shall provide for the following: 5694

(a) Referrals to the cabinet council of those children for 5695 whom the county council cannot provide adequate services; 5696

(b) Development and implementation of a process that annually evaluates and prioritizes services, fills service gaps where possible, and invents new approaches to achieve better results for families and children;

(c) Participation in the development of a countywide, comprehensive, coordinated, multi-disciplinary, interagency system for infants and toddlers with developmental disabilities or delays and their families, as established pursuant to federal grants received and administered by the department of health for early intervention services under the "Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 2004";

(d) Maintenance of an accountability system to monitor the county council's progress in achieving results for families and children;

(e) Establishment of a mechanism to ensure ongoing input from a broad representation of families who are receiving services within the county system.

(3) A county council shall develop and implement the following:

(a) An interagency process to establish local indicators and monitor the county's progress toward increasing child well-being in the county;

(b) An interagency process to identify local priorities to increase child well-being. The local priorities shall focus on expectant parents and newborns thriving; infants and toddlers thriving; children being ready for school; children and youth succeeding in school; youth choosing healthy behaviors; and youth successfully transitioning into adulthood and take into account the indicators established by the cabinet council under division (A)(4)(a) of this section.

(c) An annual plan that identifies the county's interagency efforts to increase child well-being in the county. 5728

On an annual basis, the county council shall submit a report 5729 on the status of efforts by the county to increase child 5730 well-being in the county to the county's board of county 5731 commissioners and the cabinet council. This report shall be made 5732 available to any other person on request. 5733

(4)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(4)(b) of this 5734 section, a county council shall comply with the policies, 5735 procedures, and activities prescribed by the rules or interagency 5736 agreements of a state department participating on the cabinet 5737 council whenever the county council performs a function subject to 5738 those rules or agreements. 5739

(b) On application of a county council, the cabinet council 5740 may grant an exemption from any rules or interagency agreements of 5741 a state department participating on the council if an exemption is 5742 necessary for the council to implement an alternative program or 5743 approach for service delivery to families and children. The 5744 application shall describe the proposed program or approach and 5745 specify the rules or interagency agreements from which an 5746 exemption is necessary. The cabinet council shall approve or 5747 disapprove the application in accordance with standards and 5748 procedures it shall adopt. If an application is approved, the 5749 exemption is effective only while the program or approach is being 5750 implemented, including a reasonable period during which the 5751 program or approach is being evaluated for effectiveness. 5752

(5)(a) Each county council shall designate an administrative 5753 agent for the council from among the following public entities: 5754 the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, 5755 including a board of alcohol and drug addiction or a community 5756 mental health board if the county is served by separate boards; 5757 the board of county commissioners; any board of health of the 5758 county's city and general health districts; the county department 5759 of job and family services; the county agency responsible for the 5760 administration of children services pursuant to section 5153.15 of 5761 the Revised Code; the county board of developmental disabilities; 5762 any of the county's boards of education or governing boards of 5763 educational service centers; or the county's juvenile court. Any 5764 of the foregoing public entities, other than the board of county 5765 commissioners, may decline to serve as the council's 5766 administrative agent. 5767

A county council's administrative agent shall serve as the 5768 council's appointing authority for any employees of the council. 5769
The council shall file an annual budget with its administrative 5770 agent, with copies filed with the county auditor and with the 5771 board of county commissioners, unless the board is serving as the 5772 council's administrative agent. The council's administrative agent 5773 shall ensure that all expenditures are handled in accordance with 5774 policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by state 5775 departments in rules or interagency agreements that are applicable 5776 to the council's functions. 5777

The administrative agent of a county council shall send 5778 notice of a member's absence if a member listed in division (B)(1) 5779 of this section has been absent from either three consecutive 5780 meetings of the county council or a county council subcommittee, 5781 or from one-quarter of such meetings in a calendar year, whichever 5782 is less. The notice shall be sent to the board of county 5783 commissioners that establishes the county council and, for the 5784 members listed in divisions (B)(1)(b), (c), (e), and (l) of this 5785 section, to the governing board overseeing the respective entity; 5786 for the member listed in division (B)(1)(f) of this section, to 5787 the county board of developmental disabilities that employs the 5788 superintendent; for a member listed in division (B)(1)(g) or (h) 5789 of this section, to the school board that employs the 5790 superintendent; for the member listed in division (B)(1)(i) of 5791 this section, to the mayor of the municipal corporation; for the 5792 member listed in division (B)(1)(k) of this section, to the 5793 director of youth services; and for the member listed in division 5794

(B)(1)(n) of this section, to that member's board of trustees. 5795

The administrative agent for a county council may do any of 5796 the following on behalf of the council: 5797

(i) Enter into agreements or administer contracts with public 5798 or private entities to fulfill specific council business. Such 5799 agreements and contracts are exempt from the competitive bidding 5800 requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code if they have 5801 been approved by the county council and they are for the purchase 5802 of family and child welfare or child protection services or other 5803 social or job and family services for families and children. The 5804 approval of the county council is not required to exempt 5805 agreements or contracts entered into under section 5139.34, 5806 5139.41, or 5139.43 of the Revised Code from the competitive 5807 bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. 5808

(ii) As determined by the council, provide financial 5809 stipends, reimbursements, or both, to family representatives for 5810 expenses related to council activity; 5811

(iii) Receive by gift, grant, devise, or bequest any moneys, 5812 lands, or other property for the purposes for which the council is 5813 established. The agent shall hold, apply, and dispose of the 5814 moneys, lands, or other property according to the terms of the 5815 gift, grant, devise, or bequest. Any interest or earnings shall be 5816 treated in the same manner and are subject to the same terms as 5817 the gift, grant, devise, or bequest from which it accrues. 5818

(b)(i) If the county council designates the board of county 5819 commissioners as its administrative agent, the board may, by 5820 resolution, delegate any of its powers and duties as 5821 administrative agent to an executive committee the board 5822 establishes from the membership of the county council. The board 5823 shall name to the executive committee at least the individuals 5824 described in divisions (B)(1)(b) to (h) of this section and may 5825 appoint the president of the board or another individual as the 5826 chair of the executive committee. The executive committee must 5827 include at least one family county council representative who does 5828 not have a family member employed by an agency represented on the 5829 council. 5830

(ii) The executive committee may, with the approval of the 5831 board, hire an executive director to assist the county council in 5832 administering its powers and duties. The executive director shall 5833 serve in the unclassified civil service at the pleasure of the 5834 executive committee. The executive director may, with the approval 5835 of the executive committee, hire other employees as necessary to 5836 properly conduct the county council's business. 5837

(iii) The board may require the executive committee to submit 5838 an annual budget to the board for approval and may amend or repeal 5839 the resolution that delegated to the executive committee its 5840 authority as the county council's administrative agent. 5841

(6) Two or more county councils may enter into an agreement 5842 to administer their county councils jointly by creating a regional 5843 family and children first council. A regional council possesses 5844 the same duties and authority possessed by a county council, 5845 except that the duties and authority apply regionally rather than 5846 to individual counties. Prior to entering into an agreement to 5847 create a regional council, the members of each county council to 5848 be part of the regional council shall meet to determine whether 5849 all or part of the members of each county council will serve as 5850 members of the regional council. 5851

(7) A board of county commissioners may approve a resolution 5852 by a majority vote of the board's members that requires the county 5853 council to submit a statement to the board each time the council 5854 proposes to enter into an agreement, adopt a plan, or make a 5855 decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the 5856 Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or 5857 more families. The statement shall describe the proposed 5858 agreement, plan, or decision. 5859

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the 5860 statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its 5861 members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. 5862 Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period 5863 shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision. 5864

An agreement, plan, or decision for which a statement is 5865 required to be submitted to the board shall be implemented only if 5866 it is approved by the board. 5867

(C) Each county shall develop a county service coordination 5868 mechanism. The county service coordination mechanism shall serve 5869 as the guiding document for coordination of services in the 5870 county. For children who also receive services under the help me 5871 grow program, the service coordination mechanism shall be 5872 consistent with rules adopted by the department of health under 5873 section 3701.61 of the Revised Code. All family service 5874 coordination plans shall be developed in accordance with the 5875 county service coordination mechanism. The mechanism shall be 5876 developed and approved with the participation of the county 5877 entities representing child welfare; mental retardation and 5878 developmental disabilities; alcohol, drug addiction, and mental 5879 health services; health; juvenile judges; education; the county 5880 family and children first council; and the county early 5881 intervention collaborative established pursuant to the federal 5882 early intervention program operated under the "Individuals with 5883 Disabilities Education Act of 2004." The county shall establish an 5884 implementation schedule for the mechanism. The cabinet council may 5885 monitor the implementation and administration of each county's 5886 service coordination mechanism. 5887

Each mechanism shall include all of the following: 5888

(1) A procedure for an agency, including a juvenile court, or 5889
a family voluntarily seeking service coordination, to refer the 5890 child and family to the county council for service coordination in 5891 accordance with the mechanism; 5892

(2) A procedure ensuring that a family and all appropriate 5893 staff from involved agencies, including a representative from the 5894 appropriate school district, are notified of and invited to 5895 participate in all family service coordination plan meetings; 5896

(3) A procedure that permits a family to initiate a meeting 5897 to develop or review the family's service coordination plan and 5898 allows the family to invite a family advocate, mentor, or support 5899 person of the family's choice to participate in any such meeting; 5900

(4) A procedure for ensuring that a family service 5901 coordination plan meeting is conducted for each child who receives 5902 service coordination under the mechanism and for whom an emergency 5903 out-of-home placement has been made or for whom a nonemergency 5904 out-of-home placement is being considered. The meeting shall be 5905 conducted within ten days of an emergency out-of-home placement. 5906
The meeting shall be conducted before a nonemergency out-of-home 5907 placement. The family service coordination plan shall outline how 5908 the county council members will jointly pay for services, where 5909 applicable, and provide services in the least restrictive 5910 environment. 5911

(5) A procedure for monitoring the progress and tracking the 5912 outcomes of each service coordination plan requested in the county 5913 including monitoring and tracking children in out-of-home 5914 placements to assure continued progress, appropriateness of 5915 placement, and continuity of care after discharge from placement 5916 with appropriate arrangements for housing, treatment, and 5917

education.	5918
(6) A procedure for protecting the confidentiality of all	5919 personal family information disclosed during service coordination	5920 meetings or contained in the comprehensive family service	5921 coordination plan.	5922
(7) A procedure for assessing the needs and strengths of any	5923 child or family that has been referred to the council for service	5924 coordination, including a child whose parent or custodian is	5925 voluntarily seeking services, and for ensuring that parents and	5926 custodians are afforded the opportunity to participate;	5927
(8) A procedure for development of a family service	5928
coordination plan described in division (D) of this section;	5929
(9) A local dispute resolution process to serve as the	5930 process that must be used first to resolve disputes among the	5931 agencies represented on the county council concerning the	5932 provision of services to children, including children who are	5933 abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, alleged unruly, or	5934 delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile	5935 court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily	5936 seeking services. The local dispute resolution process shall	5937 comply with sections 121.38, 121.381, and 121.382 of the Revised	5938
Code. The local dispute resolution process shall be used to	5939 resolve disputes between a child's parents or custodians and the	5940 county council regarding service coordination. The county council	5941 shall inform the parents or custodians of their right to use the	5942 dispute resolution process. Parents or custodians shall use	5943 existing local agency grievance procedures to address disputes not	5944 involving service coordination. The dispute resolution process is	5945 in addition to and does not replace other rights or procedures	5946 that parents or custodians may have under other sections of the	5947
Revised Code.	5948

The cabinet council shall adopt rules in accordance with 5949
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing an administrative 5950 review process to address problems that arise concerning the 5951 operation of a local dispute resolution process. 5952

Nothing in division (C)(4) of this section shall be 5953 interpreted as overriding or affecting decisions of a juvenile 5954 court regarding an out-of-home placement, long-term placement, or 5955 emergency out-of-home placement. 5956

(D) Each county shall develop a family service coordination 5957 plan that does all of the following: 5958

(1) Designates service responsibilities among the various 5959 state and local agencies that provide services to children and 5960 their families, including children who are abused, neglected, 5961 dependent, unruly, or delinquent children and under the 5962 jurisdiction of the juvenile court and children whose parents or 5963 custodians are voluntarily seeking services; 5964

(2) Designates an individual, approved by the family, to 5965 track the progress of the family service coordination plan, 5966 schedule reviews as necessary, and facilitate the family service 5967 coordination plan meeting process; 5968

(3) Ensures that assistance and services to be provided are 5969 responsive to the strengths and needs of the family, as well as 5970 the family's culture, race, and ethnic group, by allowing the 5971 family to offer information and suggestions and participate in 5972 decisions. Identified assistance and services shall be provided in 5973 the least restrictive environment possible. 5974

(4) Includes a process for dealing with a child who is 5975 alleged to be an unruly child. The process shall include methods 5976 to divert the child from the juvenile court system; 5977

(5) Includes timelines for completion of goals specified in 5978 the plan with regular reviews scheduled to monitor progress toward 5979

those goals; 5980

(6) Includes a plan for dealing with short-term crisis 5981 situations and safety concerns. 5982

(E)(1) The process provided for under division (D)(4) of this 5983 section may include, but is not limited to, the following: 5984

(a) Designation of the person or agency to conduct the 5985 assessment of the child and the child's family as described in 5986 division (C)(7) of this section and designation of the instrument 5987 or instruments to be used to conduct the assessment; 5988

(b) An emphasis on the personal responsibilities of the child 5989 and the parental responsibilities of the parents, guardian, or 5990 custodian of the child; 5991

(c) Involvement of local law enforcement agencies and 5992 officials. 5993

(2) The method to divert a child from the juvenile court 5994 system that must be included in the service coordination process 5995 may include, but is not limited to, the following: 5996

(a) The preparation of a complaint under section 2151.27 of 5997
the Revised Code alleging that the child is an unruly child and 5998 notifying the child and the parents, guardian, or custodian that 5999 the complaint has been prepared to encourage the child and the 6000 parents, guardian, or custodian to comply with other methods to 6001 divert the child from the juvenile court system; 6002

(b) Conducting a meeting with the child, the parents, 6003 guardian, or custodian, and other interested parties to determine 6004 the appropriate methods to divert the child from the juvenile 6005 court system; 6006

(c) A method to provide to the child and the child's family a 6007 short-term respite from a short-term crisis situation involving a 6008 confrontation between the child and the parents, guardian, or 6009 custodian; 6010

(d) A program to provide a mentor to the child or the 6011 parents, guardian, or custodian; 6012

(e) A program to provide parenting education to the parents, 6013 guardian, or custodian; 6014

(f) An alternative school program for children who are truant 6015 from school, repeatedly disruptive in school, or suspended or 6016 expelled from school; 6017

(g) Other appropriate measures, including, but not limited 6018 to, any alternative methods to divert a child from the juvenile 6019 court system that are identified by the Ohio family and children 6020 first cabinet council. 6021

(F) Each county may review and revise the service 6022 coordination process described in division (D) of this section 6023 based on the availability of funds under Title IV-A of the "Social 6024 Security Act," 110 Stat. 2113 (1996), 42 U.S.C.A. 601, as amended, 6025 or to the extent resources are available from any other federal, 6026 state, or local funds. 6027

Sec. 121.40. (A) There is hereby created the Ohio ~~community~~ 6028 commission on service council and volunteerism consisting of 6029 twenty-one voting members including the superintendent of public 6030 instruction or the superintendent's designee, the chancellor of 6031 the Ohio board of regents or the chancellor's designee, the 6032 director of youth services or the director's designee, the 6033 director of aging or the director's designee, the chairperson of 6034 the committee of the house of representatives dealing with 6035 education or the chairperson's designee, the chairperson of the 6036 committee of the senate dealing with education or the 6037 chairperson's designee, and fifteen members who shall be appointed 6038 by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate and who 6039 shall serve terms of office of three years. The appointees shall 6040 include educators, including teachers and administrators; 6041 representatives of youth organizations; students and parents; 6042 representatives of organizations engaged in volunteer program 6043 development and management throughout the state, including youth 6044 and conservation programs; and representatives of business, 6045 government, nonprofit organizations, social service agencies, 6046 veterans organizations, religious organizations, or philanthropies 6047 that support or encourage volunteerism within the state. The 6048 director of the governor's office of faith-based and community 6049 initiatives shall serve as a nonvoting ex officio member of the 6050 ~~council~~ commission. Members of the ~~council~~ commission shall 6051 receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for actual and 6052 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official 6053 duties. 6054

(B) The ~~council~~ commission shall appoint an executive 6055 director for the ~~council~~ commission, who shall be in the 6056 unclassified civil service. The governor shall be informed of the 6057 appointment of an executive director before such an appointment is 6058 made. The executive director shall supervise the ~~council's~~ 6059 commission's activities and report to the ~~council~~ commission on 6060 the progress of those activities. The executive director shall do 6061 all things necessary for the efficient and effective 6062 implementation of the duties of the ~~council~~ commission. 6063

The responsibilities assigned to the executive director do 6064 not relieve the members of the ~~council~~ commission from final 6065 responsibility for the proper performance of the requirements of 6066
this section. 6067

(C) The ~~council~~ commission or its designee shall do all of 6068
the following: 6069

(1) Employ, promote, supervise, and remove all employees as 6070 needed in connection with the performance of its duties under this 6071 section and may assign duties to those employees as necessary to 6072 achieve the most efficient performance of its functions, and to 6073 that end may establish, change, or abolish positions, and assign 6074 and reassign duties and responsibilities of any employee of the 6075 ~~council~~ commission. Personnel employed by the ~~council~~ commission 6076 who are subject to Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code shall retain 6077 all of their rights and benefits conferred pursuant to that 6078 chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as eliminating 6079 or interfering with Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code or the 6080 rights and benefits conferred under that chapter to public 6081 employees or to any bargaining unit. 6082

(2) Maintain its office in Columbus, and may hold sessions at 6083 any place within the state; 6084

(3) Acquire facilities, equipment, and supplies necessary to 6085 house the ~~council~~ commission, its employees, and files and records 6086 under its control, and to discharge any duty imposed upon it by 6087 law. The expense of these acquisitions shall be audited and paid 6088 for in the same manner as other state expenses. For that purpose, 6089 the ~~council~~ commission shall prepare and submit to the office of 6090 budget and management a budget for each biennium according to 6091 sections 101.532 and 107.03 of the Revised Code. The budget 6092 submitted shall cover the costs of the ~~council~~ commission and its 6093 staff in the discharge of any duty imposed upon the ~~council~~ 6094 commission by law. The ~~council~~ commission shall not delegate any 6095 authority to obligate funds. 6096

(4) Pay its own payroll and other operating expenses from 6097 line items designated by the general assembly; 6098

(5) Retain its fiduciary responsibility as appointing 6099 authority. Any transaction instructions shall be certified by the 6100 appointing authority or its designee. 6101

(6) Establish the overall policy and management of the 6102

~~council~~ commission in accordance with this chapter; 6103

(7) Assist in coordinating and preparing the state 6104 application for funds under sections 101 to 184 of the "National 6105 and Community Service Act of 1990," 104 Stat. 3127 (1990), 42 6106
U.S.C.A. 12411 to 12544, as amended, assist in administering and 6107 overseeing the "National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993," 6108 P.L. 103-82, 107 Stat. 785, and the americorps program in this 6109 state, and assist in developing objectives for a comprehensive 6110 strategy to encourage and expand community service programs 6111 throughout the state; 6112

(8) Assist the state board of education, school districts, 6113 the chancellor of the board of regents, and institutions of higher 6114 education in coordinating community service education programs 6115 through cooperative efforts between institutions and organizations 6116 in the public and private sectors; 6117

(9) Assist the departments of natural resources, youth 6118 services, aging, and job and family services in coordinating 6119 community service programs through cooperative efforts between 6120 institutions and organizations in the public and private sectors; 6121

(10) Suggest individuals and organizations that are available 6122 to assist school districts, institutions of higher education, and 6123 the departments of natural resources, youth services, aging, and 6124 job and family services in the establishment of community service 6125 programs and assist in investigating sources of funding for 6126 implementing these programs; 6127

(11) Assist in evaluating the state's efforts in providing 6128 community service programs using standards and methods that are 6129 consistent with any statewide objectives for these programs and 6130 provide information to the state board of education, school 6131 districts, the chancellor of the board of regents, institutions of 6132 higher education, and the departments of natural resources, youth 6133 services, aging, and job and family services to guide them in 6134 making decisions about these programs; 6135

(12) Assist the state board of education in complying with 6136 section 3301.70 of the Revised Code and the chancellor of the 6137 board of regents in complying with division (B)(2) of section 6138
3333.043 of the Revised Code; 6139

(13) Advise, assist, consult with, and cooperate with, by 6140 contract or otherwise, agencies and political subdivisions of this 6141 state in establishing a statewide system for volunteers pursuant 6142 to section 121.404 of the Revised Code. 6143

(D) The ~~council~~ commission shall in writing enter into an 6144 agreement with another state agency to serve as the ~~council's~~ 6145 commission's fiscal agent. Before entering into such an agreement, 6146 the ~~council~~ commission shall inform the governor of the terms of 6147 the agreement and of the state agency designated to serve as the 6148 ~~council's~~ commission's fiscal agent. The fiscal agent shall be 6149 responsible for all the ~~council's~~ commission's fiscal matters and 6150 financial transactions, as specified in the agreement. Services to 6151 be provided by the fiscal agent include, but are not limited to, 6152
the following: 6153

(1) Preparing and processing payroll and other personnel 6154 documents that the ~~council~~ commission executes as the appointing 6155
authority; 6156

(2) Maintaining ledgers of accounts and reports of account 6157 balances, and monitoring budgets and allotment plans in 6158 consultation with the ~~council~~ commission; and 6159

(3) Performing other routine support services that the fiscal 6160 agent considers appropriate to achieve efficiency. 6161

(E)(1) The ~~council~~ commission, in conjunction and 6162 consultation with the fiscal agent, has the following authority 6163 and responsibility relative to fiscal matters: 6164

(a) Sole authority to draw funds for any and all federal programs in which the ~~council~~ commission is authorized to participate;

(b) Sole authority to expend funds from their accounts for programs and any other necessary expenses the ~~council~~ commission may incur and its subgrantees may incur; and

(c) Responsibility to cooperate with and inform the fiscal agent fully of all financial transactions.

(2) The ~~council~~ commission shall follow all state procurement, fiscal, human resources, statutory, and administrative rule requirements.

(3) The fiscal agent shall determine fees to be charged to the ~~council~~ commission, which shall be in proportion to the services performed for the ~~council~~ commission.

(4) The ~~council~~ commission shall pay fees owed to the fiscal agent from a general revenue fund of the ~~council~~ commission or from any other fund from which the operating expenses of the ~~council~~ commission are paid. Any amounts set aside for a fiscal year for the payment of these fees shall be used only for the services performed for the ~~council~~ commission by the fiscal agent in that fiscal year.

(F) The ~~council~~ commission may accept and administer grants from any source, public or private, to carry out any of the ~~council's~~ commission's functions this section establishes.

Sec. 121.401. (A) As used in this section and section 121.402 of the Revised Code, "organization or entity" and "unsupervised access to a child" have the same meanings as in section 109.574 of the Revised Code.

(B) The Ohio ~~community~~ commission on service council and volunteerism shall adopt a set of "recommended best practices" for organizations or entities to follow when one or more volunteers of 6195 the organization or entity have unsupervised access to one or more 6196 children or otherwise interact with one or more children. The 6197

"recommended best practices" shall focus on, but shall not be 6198 limited to, the issue of the safety of the children and, in 6199 addition, the screening and supervision of volunteers. The 6200
"recommended best practices" shall include as a recommended best 6201 practice that the organization or entity subject to a criminal 6202 records check performed by the bureau of criminal identification 6203 and investigation pursuant to section 109.57, section 109.572, or 6204 rules adopted under division (E) of section 109.57 of the Revised 6205 Code, all of the following: 6206

(1) All persons who apply to serve as a volunteer in a 6207 position in which the person will have unsupervised access to a 6208 child on a regular basis. 6209

(2) All volunteers who are in a position in which the person 6210 will have unsupervised access to a child on a regular basis and 6211 who the organization or entity has not previously subjected to a 6212 criminal records check performed by the bureau of criminal 6213 identification and investigation. 6214

(C) The set of "recommended best practices" required to be 6215 adopted by this section are in addition to the educational program 6216 required to be adopted under section 121.402 of the Revised Code. 6217

Sec. 121.402. (A) The Ohio ~~community~~ commission on service 6218 ~~council and volunteerism~~ shall establish and maintain an 6219 educational program that does all of the following: 6220

(1) Makes available to parents and guardians of children 6221 notice about the provisions of sections 109.574 to 109.577, 6222 section 121.401, and section 121.402 of the Revised Code and 6223 information about how to keep children safe when they are under 6224 the care, custody, or control of a person other than the parent or 6225 guardian; 6226

(2) Makes available to organizations and entities information 6227 regarding the best methods of screening and supervising 6228 volunteers, how to obtain a criminal records check of a volunteer, 6229 confidentiality issues relating to reports of criminal records 6230 checks, and record keeping regarding the reports; 6231

(3) Makes available to volunteers information regarding the 6232 possibility of being subjected to a criminal records check and 6233 displaying appropriate behavior to minors; 6234

(4) Makes available to children advice on personal safety and 6235 information on what action to take if someone takes inappropriate 6236 action towards a child. 6237

(B) The program shall begin making the materials described in 6238 this section available not later than March 22, 2002. 6239

Sec. 121.403. (A) The Ohio ~~community~~ commission on service 6240
~~council and volunteerism~~ may do any of the following: 6241

(1) Accept monetary gifts or donations; 6242

(2) Sponsor conferences, meetings, or events in furtherance 6243 of the ~~council's~~ commission's purpose described in section 121.40 6244 of the Revised Code and charge fees for participation or 6245 involvement in the conferences, meetings, or events; 6246

(3) Sell promotional items in furtherance of the ~~council's~~ 6247 commission's purpose described in section 121.40 of the Revised 6248
Code. 6249

(B) All monetary gifts and donations, funds from the sale of 6250 promotional items, contributions received from the issuance of 6251 Ohio "volunteer" license plates pursuant to section 4503.93 of the 6252 Revised Code, and any fees paid to the ~~council~~ commission for 6253 conferences, meetings, or events sponsored by the ~~council~~ 6254 commission shall be deposited into the Ohio ~~community~~ commission 6255 on service council and volunteerism gifts and donations fund, 6256 which is hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the fund 6257 may be used only as follows: 6258

(1) To pay operating expenses of the ~~council~~ commission, 6259 including payroll, personal services, maintenance, equipment, and 6260 subsidy payments; 6261

(2) To support ~~council~~ commission programs promoting 6262
volunteerism and community service in the state; 6263

(3) As matching funds for federal grants. 6264

Sec. 121.404. (A) The Ohio ~~community~~ commission on service 6265 ~~council and volunteerism~~ shall advise, assist, consult with, and 6266 cooperate with agencies and political subdivisions of this state 6267 to establish a statewide system for recruiting, registering, 6268 training, and deploying the types of volunteers the ~~council~~ 6269 commission considers advisable and reasonably necessary to respond 6270 to an emergency declared by the state or political subdivision. 6271

(B) A registered volunteer is not liable in damages to any 6272 person or government entity in tort or other civil action, 6273 including an action upon a medical, dental, chiropractic, 6274 optometric, or other health-related claim or veterinary claim, for 6275 injury, death, or loss to person or property that may arise from 6276 an act or omission of that volunteer. This division applies to a 6277 registered volunteer while providing services within the scope of 6278 the volunteer's responsibilities during an emergency declared by 6279 the state or political subdivision or in disaster-related 6280 exercises, testing, or other training activities, if the 6281 volunteer's act or omission does not constitute willful or wanton 6282 misconduct. 6283

(C) The Ohio ~~community~~ commission on service council and 6284 volunteerism shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the 6285

Revised Code to establish fees, procedures, standards, and 6286 requirements the ~~council~~ commission considers necessary to carry 6287 out the purposes of this section. 6288

(D)(1) A registered volunteer's status as a volunteer, and 6289 any information presented in summary, statistical, or aggregate 6290 form that does not identify an individual, is a public record 6291 pursuant to section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 6292

(2) Information related to a registered volunteer's specific 6293 and unique responsibilities, assignments, or deployment plans, 6294 including but not limited to training, preparedness, readiness, or 6295 organizational assignment, is a security record for purposes of 6296
section 149.433 of the Revised Code. 6297

(3) Information related to a registered volunteer's personal 6298 information, including but not limited to contact information, 6299 medical information, or information related to family members or 6300 dependents, is not a public record pursuant to section 149.43 of 6301
the Revised Code. 6302

(E) As used in this section and section 121.40 of the Revised 6303
Code: 6304

(1) "Registered volunteer" means any individual registered as 6305 a volunteer pursuant to procedures established under this section 6306 and who serves without pay or other consideration, other than the 6307 reasonable reimbursement or allowance for expenses actually 6308 incurred or the provision of incidental benefits related to the 6309 volunteer's service, such as meals, lodging, and childcare. 6310

(2) "Political subdivision" means a county, township, or 6311 municipal corporation in this state. 6312

Sec. 122.085. As used in sections 122.085 to 122.0820 of the 6313
Revised Code: 6314

(A)(1) "Allowable costs" includes costs related to the 6315

following:	6316
(a) Acquisition of land and buildings;	6317
(b) Building construction;	6318
(c) Making improvements to land and buildings, including the following:	6319 6320
(i) Expanding, reconstructing, rehabilitating, remodeling, renovating, enlarging, modernizing, equipping, and furnishing buildings and structures, including leasehold improvements;	6321 6322 6323
(ii) Site preparation, including wetland mitigation.	6324
(d) Planning or determining feasibility or practicability;	6325
(e) Indemnity or surety bonds and premiums on insurance;	6326
(f) Remediation, in compliance with state and federal environmental protection laws, of environmentally contaminated property on which hazardous substances exist under conditions that have caused or would likely cause the property to be identified as contaminated by the Ohio environmental protection agency or the United States environmental protection agency;	6327 6328 6329 6330 6331 6332
(g) Infrastructure improvements, including the following:	6333
(i) Demolition of buildings and other structures;	6334
(ii) Installation or relocation of water, storm water and sanitary sewer lines, water and waste water treatment facilities, pump stations, and water storage mechanisms and other similar equipment or facilities;	6335 6336 6337 6338
(iii) Construction of roads, bridges, traffic control devices, and parking lots and facilities;	6339 6340
(iv) Construction of utility infrastructure such as natural gas, electric, and telecommunications, including broadband and hookups;	6341 6342 6343
(v) Water and railway access improvements;	6344

(vi) Costs of professional services.	6345
(2) "Allowable costs" do not include administrative costs assessed by or fees paid to the recipient of a grant.	6346 6347
(B) " District public works Local government integrating and innovation committees" means those committees established under section 164.04 of the Revised Code.	6348 6349 6350
(C) "Eligible applicant" includes any political subdivision or non-profit nonprofit economic development organization, and, with prior approval of the director of development, private, for-profit entities. "Eligible applicant" does not include public or private institutions of higher education.	6351 6352 6353 6354 6355
(D) "Eligible project" includes projects that, upon completion, will be sites and facilities primarily intended for commercial, industrial, or manufacturing use. "Eligible projects" do not include sites and facilities intended primarily for residential, retail, or government use.	6356 6357 6358 6359 6360
(E) "Professional services" includes legal, environmental, archeological, engineering, architectural, surveying, design, or other similar services performed in conjunction with an eligible project. "Professional services" also includes designs, plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of costs, and other work products.	6361 6362 6363 6364 6365 6366
Sec. 122.088. In order to be considered for a grant under the annual competitive process, an eligible applicant shall fill out an application provided by the department of development and shall file it with the district public works local government integrating and innovation committee with jurisdiction over the area in which the eligible project is located.	6367 6368 6369 6370 6371 6372
Sec. 122.0810. (A) Each application for a grant pursuant to the annual competitive process received by a district public works	6373 6374

local government integrating and innovation committee shall be 6375 evaluated by the executive committee of the district committee. In 6376 conducting the evaluation, the executive committee shall determine 6377 whether the application for the proposed eligible project is 6378 complete and whether the project meets the requirements of section 6379 122.0815 of the Revised Code. If the application is complete and 6380 the eligible project meets the requirements of section 122.0815 of 6381 the Revised Code, the executive committee shall prioritize the 6382 eligible project pursuant to section 122.0816 of the Revised Code 6383 and pursuant to local priorities, as those priorities are 6384 determined by the executive committee, with all other eligible 6385 projects with complete applications that meet the requirements of 6386 section 122.0815 of the Revised Code. If the application is 6387 incomplete or the project does not meet the requirements of 6388 section 122.0815 of the Revised Code, the executive committee 6389 shall notify the applicant of the deficiencies and the period of 6390 time the applicant has to correct the deficiencies and submit the 6391 corrections to the executive committee. Failure to correct 6392 deficiencies within the time designated by the executive committee 6393 shall disqualify the project from consideration for a grant during 6394 the annual competitive process for that year. 6395

The executive committee, by the affirmative vote of a 6396 majority of all its members, shall select up to three eligible 6397 projects from the projects it has prioritized each year pursuant 6398 to the annual competitive process. The executive committee shall 6399 forward the applications and any accompanying information for each 6400 of the selected eligible projects to the department of development 6401 in the time and manner required by the rules governing the annual 6402 competitive process for the job ready site program. 6403

(B) For a ~~district public works~~ local government integrating 6404 and innovation committee that does not have an executive 6405 committee, the full committee shall perform the functions assigned 6406 to the executive committee under section 122.0816 of the Revised Code and division (A) of this section. 6407 6408

6410
6412

Sec. 122.0816. The department of development and the executive committees of ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and innovation committees shall apply the following factors to eligible projects under the annual competitive process to determine a priority order for the eligible projects subject to that process: 6413
6414
6416
6417
6418

(A) The potential economic impact of the eligible project; 6419

(B) The potential impact of the eligible project on economic distress; 6420

(C) The amount of local, federal, and private funding available for the eligible project; 6422
6423

(D) The demonstrated need for the eligible project; 6424

(E) The strength of the eligible project's marketing plan, if appropriate; 6425

(F) The level of financial need; 6427

(G) Any other factor the director of development determines should be considered. 6428

Sec. 122.0819. The rules adopted to govern the annual competitive process for the job ready site program may provide for recovery of the costs, or a portion thereof, incurred by ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and innovation committees and executive committees in conducting their duties under the program. 6430

Sec. 122.121. (A) If an endorsing municipality or endorsing county enters into a joinder undertaking with a site selection organization, the endorsing municipality or endorsing county may apply to the director of development, on a form and in the manner prescribed by the director, for a grant based on the projected incremental increase in the receipts from the tax imposed under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code within the market area designated under division (C) of this section, for the two-week period that ends at the end of the day after the date on which a game will be held, that is directly attributable, as determined by the director, to the preparation for and presentation of the game. The director shall determine the projected incremental increase in the tax imposed under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code from information certified to the director by the endorsing municipality or the endorsing county including, but not limited to, historical attendance and ticket sales for the game, income statements showing revenue and expenditures for the game in prior years, attendance capacity at the proposed venues, event budget at the proposed venues, and projected lodging room nights based on historical attendance, attendance capacity at the proposed venues, and duration of the game and related activities. The endorsing municipality or endorsing county is eligible to receive a grant under this section only if the projected incremental increase in receipts from the tax imposed under section 5739.02 of the Revised Code, as determined by the director, exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars. The amount of the grant shall be determined by the director but shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars. The director shall not issue grants with a total value of more than one million dollars in any fiscal year, and shall not issue any grant before July 1, ~~2011~~ 2013.

(B) If the director of development approves an application for an endorsing municipality or endorsing county and that endorsing municipality or endorsing county enters into a joinder 6468 agreement with a site selection organization, the endorsing 6469 municipality or endorsing county shall file a copy of the joinder 6470 agreement with the director of development, who immediately shall 6471 notify the director of budget and management of the filing. Within 6472 thirty days after receiving the notice, the director of budget and 6473 management shall establish a schedule to disburse from the general 6474 revenue fund to such endorsing municipality or endorsing county 6475 payments that total the amount certified by the director of 6476 development under division (A) of this section, but in no event 6477 shall the total amount disbursed exceed five hundred thousand 6478 dollars, and no disbursement shall be made before ~~July 1, 2011~~ 6479 2013. The payments shall be used exclusively by the endorsing 6480 municipality or endorsing county to fulfill a portion of its 6481 obligations to a site selection organization under game support 6482 contracts, which obligations may include the payment of costs 6483 relating to the preparations necessary for the conduct of the 6484 game, including acquiring, renovating, or constructing facilities; 6485 to pay the costs of conducting the game; and to assist the local 6486 organizing committee, endorsing municipality, or endorsing county 6487 in providing assurances required by a site selection organization 6488 sponsoring one or more games. 6489

(C) For the purposes of division (A) of this section, the 6490 director of development, in consultation with the tax 6491 commissioner, shall designate as a market area for a game each 6492 area in which they determine there is a reasonable likelihood of 6493 measurable economic impact directly attributable to the 6494 preparation for and presentation of the game and related events, 6495 including areas likely to provide venues, accommodations, and 6496 services in connection with the game based on the information and 6497 the copy of the joinder undertaking provided to the director under 6498 divisions (A) and (B) of this section. The director and 6499 commissioner shall determine the geographic boundaries of each 6500 market area. An endorsing municipality or endorsing county that 6501 has been selected as the site for a game must be included in a 6502 market area for the game. 6503

(D) A local organizing committee, endorsing municipality, or 6504 endorsing county shall provide information required by the 6505 director of development and tax commissioner to enable the 6506 director and commissioner to fulfill their duties under this 6507 section, including annual audited statements of any financial 6508 records required by a site selection organization and data 6509 obtained by the local organizing committee, endorsing 6510 municipality, or endorsing county relating to attendance at a game 6511 and to the economic impact of the game. A local organizing 6512 committee, an endorsing municipality, or an endorsing county shall 6513 provide an annual audited financial statement if so required by 6514 the director and commissioner, not later than the end of the 6515 fourth month after the date the period covered by the financial 6516 statement ends. 6517

(E) Within sixty days after the game, the endorsing 6518 municipality or the endorsing county shall report to the director 6519 of development about the economic impact of the game. The report 6520 shall be in the form and substance required by the director, 6521 including, but not limited to, a final income statement for the 6522 event showing total revenue and expenditures and revenue and 6523 expenditures in the market area for the game, and ticket sales for 6524 the game and any related activities for which admission was 6525 charged. The director of development shall determine, based on the 6526 reported information and the exercise of reasonable judgment, the 6527 incremental increase in receipts from the tax imposed under 6528 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code directly attributable to the 6529 game. If the actual incremental increase in such receipts is less 6530 than the projected incremental increase in receipts, the director 6531 may require the endorsing municipality or the endorsing county to 6532

refund to the state all or a portion of the grant. 6533

(F) No disbursement may be made under this section if the 6534 director of development determines that it would be used for the 6535 purpose of soliciting the relocation of a professional sports 6536 franchise located in this state. 6537

(G) This section may not be construed as creating or 6538 requiring a state guarantee of obligations imposed on an endorsing 6539 municipality or endorsing county under a game support contract or 6540 any other agreement relating to hosting one or more games in this 6541
state. 6542

Sec. 122.171. (A) As used in this section: 6543

(1) "Capital investment project" means a plan of investment 6544 at a project site for the acquisition, construction, renovation, 6545 or repair of buildings, machinery, or equipment, or for 6546 capitalized costs of basic research and new product development 6547 determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting 6548 principles, but does not include any of the following: 6549

(a) Payments made for the acquisition of personal property 6550 through operating leases; 6551

(b) Project costs paid before January 1, 2002; 6552

(c) Payments made to a related member as defined in section 6553 5733.042 of the Revised Code or to a consolidated elected taxpayer 6554 or a combined taxpayer as defined in section 5751.01 of the 6555
Revised Code. 6556

(2) "Eligible business" means a taxpayer and its related 6557 members with Ohio operations satisfying all of the following: 6558

(a) The taxpayer employs at least five hundred full-time 6559 equivalent employees or has an annual payroll of at least 6560 thirty-five million dollars at the time the tax credit authority 6561 grants the tax credit under this section; 6562

(b) The taxpayer makes or causes to be made payments for the capital investment project of ~~either~~ one of the following:

(i) If the taxpayer is engaged at the project site primarily as a manufacturer, at least fifty million dollars in the aggregate at the project site during a period of three consecutive calendar years, including the calendar year that includes a day of the taxpayer's taxable year or tax period with respect to which the credit is granted;

(ii) If the taxpayer is engaged at the project site primarily in significant corporate administrative functions, as defined by the director of development by rule, at least twenty million dollars in the aggregate at the project site during a period of three consecutive calendar years including the calendar year that includes a day of the taxpayer's taxable year or tax period with respect to which the credit is granted;

(iii) If the taxpayer is applying to enter into an agreement for a tax credit authorized under division (B)(3) of this section, at least five million dollars in the aggregate at the project site during a period of three consecutive calendar years, including the calendar year that includes a day of the taxpayer's taxable year or tax period with respect to which the credit is granted.

(c) The taxpayer had a capital investment project reviewed and approved by the tax credit authority as provided in divisions (C), (D), and (E) of this section.

(3) "Full-time equivalent employees" means the quotient obtained by dividing the total number of hours for which employees were compensated for employment in the project by two thousand eighty. "Full-time equivalent employees" shall exclude hours that are counted for a credit under section 122.17 of the Revised Code.

(4) "Income tax revenue" means the total amount withheld under section 5747.06 of the Revised Code by the taxpayer during the taxable year, or during the calendar year that includes the 6594 tax period, from the compensation of all employees employed in the 6595 project whose hours of compensation are included in calculating 6596 the number of full-time equivalent employees. 6597

(5) "Manufacturer" has the same meaning as in section 6598
5739.011 of the Revised Code. 6599

(6) "Project site" means an integrated complex of facilities 6600 in this state, as specified by the tax credit authority under this 6601 section, within a fifteen-mile radius where a taxpayer is 6602 primarily operating as an eligible business. 6603

(7) "Related member" has the same meaning as in section 6604 5733.042 of the Revised Code as that section existed on the 6605 effective date of its amendment by Am. Sub. H.B. 215 of the 122nd 6606 general assembly, September 29, 1997. 6607

(8) "Taxable year" includes, in the case of a domestic or 6608 foreign insurance company, the calendar year ending on the 6609 thirty-first day of December preceding the day the superintendent 6610 of insurance is required to certify to the treasurer of state 6611 under section 5725.20 or 5729.05 of the Revised Code the amount of 6612 taxes due from insurance companies. 6613

(B) The tax credit authority created under section 122.17 of 6614 the Revised Code may grant tax credits under this section for the 6615 purpose of fostering job retention in this state. Upon application 6616 by an eligible business and upon consideration of the 6617 recommendation of the director of budget and management, tax 6618 commissioner, the superintendent of insurance in the case of an 6619 insurance company, and director of development under division (C) 6620 of this section, the tax credit authority may grant the following 6621 credits against the tax imposed by section 5725.18, 5729.03, 6622
5733.06, 5747.02, or 5751.02 of the Revised Code: 6623

(1) A nonrefundable credit to an eligible business; 6624

(2) A refundable credit to an eligible business meeting the following conditions, provided that the director of budget and management, tax commissioner, superintendent of insurance in the case of an insurance company, and director of development have recommended the granting of the credit to the tax credit authority before July 1, 2011:

(a) The business retains at least one thousand full-time equivalent employees at the project site.

(b) The business makes or causes to be made payments for a capital investment project of at least twenty-five million dollars in the aggregate at the project site during a period of three consecutive calendar years, including the calendar year that includes a day of the business' taxable year or tax period with respect to which the credit is granted.

(c) In 2010, the business received a written offer of financial incentives from another state of the United States that the director determines to be sufficient inducement for the business to relocate the business' operations from this state to that state.

(3) A refundable credit to an eligible business with a total annual payroll of at least twenty million dollars, provided that the tax credit authority grants the tax credit on or after July 1, 2011, and before January 1, 2014.

The credits authorized in divisions (B)(1) ~~and~~, (2), and (3) of this section may be granted for a period up to fifteen taxable years or, in the case of the tax levied by section 5751.02 of the Revised Code, for a period of up to fifteen calendar years. The credit amount for a taxable year or a calendar year that includes the tax period for which a credit may be claimed equals the income tax revenue for that year multiplied by the percentage specified in the agreement with the tax credit authority. The percentage may not exceed seventy-five per cent. The credit shall be claimed in 6656 the order required under section 5725.98, 5729.98, 5733.98, 6657 5747.98, or 5751.98 of the Revised Code. In determining the 6658 percentage and term of the credit, the tax credit authority shall 6659 consider both the number of full-time equivalent employees and the 6660 value of the capital investment project. The credit amount may not 6661 be based on the income tax revenue for a calendar year before the 6662 calendar year in which the tax credit authority specifies the tax 6663 credit is to begin, and the credit shall be claimed only for the 6664 taxable years or tax periods specified in the eligible business' 6665 agreement with the tax credit authority. In no event shall the 6666 credit be claimed for a taxable year or tax period terminating 6667 before the date specified in the agreement. Any credit granted 6668 under this section against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 or 6669 5747.02 of the Revised Code, to the extent not fully utilized 6670 against such tax for taxable years ending prior to 2008, shall 6671 automatically be converted without any action taken by the tax 6672 credit authority to a credit against the tax levied under Chapter 6673 5751. of the Revised Code for tax periods beginning on or after 6674

July 1, 2008, provided that the person to whom the credit was 6675 granted is subject to such tax. The converted credit shall apply 6676 to those calendar years in which the remaining taxable years 6677 specified in the agreement end. 6678

If a nonrefundable credit allowed under division (B)(1) of 6679 this section for a taxable year or tax period exceeds the 6680 taxpayer's tax liability for that year or period, the excess may 6681 be carried forward for the three succeeding taxable or calendar 6682 years, but the amount of any excess credit allowed in any taxable 6683 year or tax period shall be deducted from the balance carried 6684 forward to the succeeding year or period. 6685

(C) A taxpayer that proposes a capital investment project to 6686 retain jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit authority to 6687 enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this section. The 6688 director of development shall prescribe the form of the 6689 application. After receipt of an application, the authority shall 6690 forward copies of the application to the director of budget and 6691 management, the tax commissioner, the superintendent of insurance 6692 in the case of an insurance company, and the director of 6693 development, each of whom shall review the application to 6694 determine the economic impact the proposed project would have on 6695 the state and the affected political subdivisions and shall submit 6696 a summary of their determinations and recommendations to the 6697

authority. 6698

(D) Upon review and consideration of the determinations and 6699 recommendations described in division (C) of this section, the tax 6700 credit authority may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for 6701 a credit under this section if the authority determines all of the 6702
following: 6703

(1) The taxpayer's capital investment project will result in 6704 the retention of employment in this state. 6705

(2) The taxpayer is economically sound and has the ability to 6706 complete the proposed capital investment project. 6707

(3) The taxpayer intends to and has the ability to maintain 6708 operations at the project site for at least the greater of (a) the 6709 term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years. 6710

(4) Receiving the credit is a major factor in the taxpayer's 6711 decision to begin, continue with, or complete the project. 6712

(5) If the taxpayer is applying to enter into an agreement 6713 for a tax credit authorized under division (B)(3) of this section, 6714 the taxpayer's capital investment project will be located in the 6715 political subdivision in which the taxpayer maintains its 6716 principal place of business. 6717

(E) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 6718

following: 6719

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 6720 of the agreement, including the amount of the investment, the 6721 period over which the investment has been or is being made, the 6722 number of full-time equivalent employees at the project site, and 6723 the anticipated income tax revenue to be generated. 6724

(2) The term of the credit, the percentage of the tax credit, 6725 the maximum annual value of tax credits that may be allowed each 6726 year, and the first year for which the credit may be claimed. 6727

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer maintain operations at 6728 the project site for at least the greater of (a) the term of the 6729 credit plus three years, or (b) seven years. 6730

~~(4) A requirement that the taxpayer retain a specified number 6731 of full-time equivalent employees at the project site and within 6732 this state for the term of the credit, including a requirement 6733 that the taxpayer continue to employ at least five hundred 6734 full-time equivalent employees during the entire term of the 6735 agreement in the case of a credit granted under division (B)(1) of 6736 this section, and one thousand full-time equivalent employees in 6737 the case of a credit granted under division (B)(2) of this section 6738
(a) In the case of a credit granted under division (B)(1) of this 6739 section, a requirement that the taxpayer retain at least five 6740 hundred full-time equivalent employees at the project site and 6741 within this state for the entire term of the credit, or a 6742 requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual payroll of at 6743 least thirty-five million dollars for the entire term of the 6744 credit; 6745~~

~~(b) In the case of a credit granted under division (B)(2) of 6746 this section, a requirement that the taxpayer retain at least one 6747 thousand full-time equivalent employees at the project site and 6748 within this state for the entire term of the credit; 6749~~

(c) In the case of a credit granted under division (B)(3) of this section, a requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual payroll of at least twenty million dollars for the entire term of the credit and either of the following: 6750
6753

(i) A requirement that the taxpayer retain at least five hundred full-time equivalent employees at the project site and within this state for the entire term of the credit; 6754
6756

(ii) A requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual payroll of at least thirty-five million dollars for the entire term of the credit. 6757

(5) A requirement that the taxpayer annually report to the director of development employment, tax withholding, capital investment, and other information the director needs to perform the director's duties under this section. 6760
6761
6763

6765
6767
6768
6769
6770
6771
6772
6774

(7) A provision providing that the taxpayer may not relocate a substantial number of employment positions from elsewhere in this state to the project site unless the director of development determines that the taxpayer notified the legislative authority of the county, township, or municipal corporation from which the employment positions would be relocated. 6775
6776
6778

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment position from one political subdivision to another political subdivision shall be considered a relocation of an employment position unless the movement is confined to the project site. The transfer of an employment position from one political subdivision to another political subdivision shall not be considered a relocation of an employment position if the employment position in the first political subdivision is replaced by another employment position.

(8) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods relating to assessments or adjustments resulting from the taxpayer's failure to comply with the agreement.

(F) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term of the credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may take effect in the current taxable or calendar year.

of the statement or other information. 6813

(H) A taxpayer claiming a tax credit under this section shall 6814 submit to the tax commissioner or, in the case of an insurance 6815 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 6816 director of development's certificate of verification under 6817 division (E)(6) of this section with the taxpayer's tax report or 6818 return for the taxable year or for the calendar year that includes 6819 the tax period. Failure to submit a copy of the certificate with 6820 the report or return does not invalidate a claim for a credit if 6821 the taxpayer submits a copy of the certificate to the commissioner 6822 or superintendent within sixty days after the commissioner or 6823 superintendent requests it. 6824

(I) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 6825 a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 6826 subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 6827 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 6828 distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 6829 other such business entity may elect to pass the credit received 6830 under this section through to the persons to whom the income or 6831 profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 6832 distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 6833 required under division (E)(5) of this section. The election 6834 applies to and is irrevocable for the credit for which the report 6835 is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 6836 apportioned among those persons in the same proportions as those 6837 in which the income or profit is distributed. 6838

(J) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 6839 that received a tax credit under this section is not complying 6840 with the requirement under division (E)(3) of this section, the 6841 director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 6842 noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 6843 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the 6844 authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 6845 refund to the state all or a portion of the credit claimed in 6846 previous years, as follows: 6847

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 6848 for less than or equal to the term of the credit, an amount not to 6849 exceed one hundred per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed 6850 and received under this section. 6851

(2) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 6852 longer than the term of the credit, but less than the greater of 6853
(a) the term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years, 6854 the amount required to be refunded shall not exceed seventy-five 6855 per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed and received under 6856
this section. 6857

In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded to 6858 this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 6859 conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the taxpayer 6860 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 6861 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 6862 refunded to the tax commissioner or the superintendent of 6863 insurance. If the taxpayer is not an insurance company, the 6864 commissioner shall make an assessment for that amount against the 6865 taxpayer under Chapter 5733., 5747., or 5751. of the Revised Code. 6866
If the taxpayer is an insurance company, the superintendent of 6867 insurance shall make an assessment under section 5725.222 or 6868 5729.102 of the Revised Code. The time limitations on assessments 6869 under those chapters and sections do not apply to an assessment 6870 under this division, but the commissioner or superintendent shall 6871 make the assessment within one year after the date the authority 6872 certifies to the commissioner or superintendent the amount to be 6873 refunded. 6874

(K) The director of development, after consultation with the 6875 tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and in 6876 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 6877 rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 6878 for recipients of tax credits under this section to be charged 6879 fees to cover administrative costs of the tax credit program. The 6880 fees collected shall be credited to the tax incentive programs 6881 operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 6882 the time the director gives public notice under division (A) of 6883 section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 6884 the director shall submit copies of the proposed rules to the 6885 chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 6886 the senate and the house of representatives. 6887

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 6888 director of development shall submit a report to the governor, the 6889 president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 6890 representatives on the tax credit program under this section. The 6891 report shall include information on the number of agreements that 6892 were entered into under this section during the preceding calendar 6893 year, a description of the project that is the subject of each 6894 such agreement, and an update on the status of projects under 6895 agreements entered into before the preceding calendar year. 6896

(M)(1) The aggregate amount of tax credits issued under 6897 division (B)(1) of this section during any calendar year for 6898 capital investment projects reviewed and approved by the tax 6899 credit authority may not exceed the following amounts: 6900

(a) For 2010, thirteen million dollars; 6901

(b) For 2011 through 2023, the amount of the limit for the 6902 preceding calendar year plus thirteen million dollars; 6903

(c) For 2024 and each year thereafter, one hundred 6904 ninety-five million dollars. 6905

(2) The aggregate amount of tax credits ~~issued~~ authorized 6906 under ~~division~~ divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this section ~~during~~ and 6907 allowed to be claimed by taxpayers in any calendar year for 6908 capital improvement projects reviewed and approved by the tax 6909 credit authority ~~may not exceed eight million dollars in 2011,~~ 6910 2012, and 2013 combined shall not exceed twenty-five million 6911 dollars. An amount equal to the aggregate amount of credits first 6912 authorized in calendar year 2011, 2012, and 2013 may be claimed 6913 annually for up to fifteen years, subject to the terms of 6914 individual tax credit agreements. 6915

The limitations in division (M) of this section do not apply 6916 to credits for capital investment projects approved by the tax 6917 credit authority before July 1, 2009. 6918

Sec. 122.65. As used in sections 122.65 to 122.659 of the 6919
Revised Code: 6920

(A) "Applicable cleanup standards" means either of the 6921
following: 6922

(1) For property to which Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code 6923 and rules adopted under it apply, the requirements for closure or 6924 corrective action established in rules adopted under section 6925
3734.12 of the Revised Code; 6926

(2) For property to which Chapter 3746. of the Revised Code 6927
and rules adopted under it apply, the cleanup standards that are 6928 established in rules adopted under section 3746.04 of the Revised 6929
Code. 6930

(B) "Applicant" means a county, township, municipal 6931 corporation, port authority, or conservancy district or a park 6932 district, other similar park authority, nonprofit organization, or 6933 organization for profit that has entered into an agreement with a 6934 county, township, municipal corporation, port authority, or 6935 conservancy district to work in conjunction with that county, 6936 township, municipal corporation, port authority, or conservancy 6937 district for the purposes of sections 122.65 to 122.658 of the Revised Code.

(C) "Assessment" means a phase I and phase II property assessment conducted in accordance with section 3746.04 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under that section.

(D) "Brownfield" means an abandoned, idled, or under-used industrial, commercial, or institutional property where expansion or redevelopment is complicated by known or potential releases of hazardous substances or petroleum.

(S) "Situational distress area" means a county or a municipal corporation that has experienced or is experiencing a closing or downsizing of a major employer that will adversely affect the county or municipal corporation's economy and that has applied to the director of development to be designated as a situational distress area for not more than thirty months by demonstrating all of the following:	7020 7021 7022 7023 7024 7025 7026
(1) The number of jobs lost by the closing or downsizing;	7027

municipal corporation's unemployment rate as measured by the 7029 director of job and family services; 7030

(3) The annual payroll associated with the job loss; 7031

(4) The amount of state and local taxes associated with the 7032
job loss; 7033

(5) The impact that the closing or downsizing has on 7034 suppliers located in the county or municipal corporation. 7035

Sec. 122.652. (A)(1) An applicant seeking a grant or loan for 7036 a brownfield cleanup or remediation project from the clean Ohio 7037 revitalization fund created in section 122.658 of the Revised Code 7038 shall request an application form from the appropriate integrating 7039 and innovation committee with geographical jurisdiction over the 7040 project for which a grant or loan is sought. The applicant shall 7041 complete the application and include all of the information 7042 required by sections 122.65 to 122.658 of the Revised Code and 7043 policies and requirements established under section 122.657 of the 7044
Revised Code. 7045

(2) In addition to the information that is required to be 7046 included in the application under division (A)(1) of this section, 7047 an applicant shall include an affidavit signed by the authorized 7048 representative of the applicant certifying that the applicant did 7049 not cause or contribute to the release of hazardous substances or 7050 petroleum at the brownfield that is the subject of the 7051
application. 7052

No person shall submit a false affidavit under division 7053
(A)(2) of this section. 7054

(3) After completion of the application, but prior to the 7055 submission of the application to the integrating and innovation 7056 committee under division (B) of this section, the applicant shall 7057 conduct a public meeting concerning the application and the 7058 proposed cleanup or remediation. Not later than forty-five days 7059 prior to conducting the public meeting, the applicant shall 7060 provide notice of the date, time, and location of the public 7061 meeting in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in 7062 which the property that is the subject of the application is 7063 located. In addition, not later than forty-five days prior to the 7064 hearing, the applicant shall post notice of the date, time, and 7065 location of the public meeting at the property on a sign that 7066 measures not less than four feet by four feet or, if the political 7067 subdivision in which the sign is to be posted prohibits a sign of 7068 that size, the maximum size of sign permitted by that political 7069

subdivision. 7070

In addition, not later than forty-five days prior to the 7071 public meeting, the applicant shall provide a copy of the 7072 application to a public library in the vicinity of the property 7073 for public review. The submission of the application and the 7074 location of the public library shall be included in the notice 7075 required under this division. The general public may submit 7076 comments to the applicant concerning the application prior to and 7077 at the public meeting. 7078

(B) An applicant shall submit a completed application, all 7079 required information, and an application summary to the 7080 appropriate integrating and innovation committee. Based on a 7081 review of the application summaries submitted to it, an 7082 integrating and innovation committee or, if required under 7083 division (C) of this section, the executive committee of the 7084 integrating and innovation committee shall prioritize all 7085 applications in accordance with criteria and procedures 7086 established pursuant to section 122.657 of the Revised Code. The 7087 integrating and innovation committee shall choose not more than 7088 six applications annually that it determines merit funding and 7089 shall forward those applications and all accompanying information 7090 to the clean Ohio council. In prioritizing and choosing 7091 applications under this division, an integrating and innovation 7092 committee or, if required under division (C) of this section, the 7093 executive committee of the integrating and innovation committee 7094 shall consult with local and regional economic development 7095 agencies or resources, community development agencies or 7096 organizations, local business organizations, and other appropriate 7097 entities located or operating in the geographic jurisdiction of 7098 the integrating and innovation committee. 7099

Notwithstanding this division or division (C) of this 7100 section, if an integrating and innovation committee receives only 7101 one application in any given year, the chair of the integrating 7102 and innovation committee or, if required under division (C) of 7103 this section, the chair of the executive committee of the 7104 integrating and innovation committee may forward that application 7105 to the clean Ohio council as the district's top priority project 7106 for that year without a vote of the full integrating and 7107 innovation committee or executive committee, as applicable. 7108
However, the chair of the integrating and innovation committee or 7109 chair of the executive committee, as applicable, shall provide 7110 written notice of the chair's intent to forward the application to 7111 each member of the integrating and innovation committee or 7112 executive committee, as applicable, not later than ~~fifteen~~ fifteen 7113 days prior to forwarding the application. 7114

(C) For purposes of division (B) of this section, all 7115 decisions of an integrating and innovation committee that is 7116 required to be organized in accordance with division (A)(5) or (6) 7117 of section 164.04 of the Revised Code shall be approved by its 7118 executive committee that is required to be established under 7119 division (A)(7) or (8) of that section. The affirmative vote of at 7120 least seven members of an executive committee established under 7121 division (A)(7) of section 164.04 of the Revised Code, or of at least nine members of an executive committee established under division (A)(8) of that section, is required for any action taken by an executive committee for purposes of division (B) of this section. A decision of an executive committee may be rejected by a vote of at least two-thirds of the full membership of the applicable integrating and innovation committee not later than thirty days after the executive committee action. If an executive committee is required under this division to prioritize applications under division (B) of this section, only applications that are approved by the executive committee may be submitted to the clean Ohio council for purposes of sections 122.65 to 122.659 of the Revised Code.

(D) The clean Ohio council shall supply application forms to each integrating and innovation committee.

Sec. 122.653. (A) Upon receipt of an application from an integrating and innovation committee, the clean Ohio council shall examine the application and all accompanying information to determine if the application is complete. If the council determines that the application is not complete, the council immediately shall notify the applicant that the application is not complete, provide a description of the information that is missing from the application, and return the application and all accompanying information to the applicant. The applicant may resubmit the application directly to the council.

(B) The council shall approve or disapprove in writing applications submitted to it by integrating and innovation committees or executive committees of integrating and innovation committees for grants or loans from the clean Ohio revitalization fund. The council shall not approve a project that fails to comply with the requirements established in sections 122.65 to 122.658 of the Revised Code and policies and requirements established under 7153 section 122.657 of the Revised Code. The council also shall not 7154 approve a project if the applicant caused or contributed to the 7155 contamination at the property. In approving or disapproving 7156 applications, the council shall use the selection process 7157 established in policies and requirements established under section 7158

122.657 of the Revised Code. 7159

(C) If the council approves an application under this 7160 section, the council shall enter into an agreement with the 7161 applicant to award a grant or make a loan for the applicant's 7162 brownfield cleanup or remediation project. The agreement shall be 7163 executed prior to the payment or disbursement of any funds 7164 approved by the council under this section. The agreement shall 7165 contain, at a minimum, all of the following: 7166

(1) The designation of a single officer or employee of the 7167 applicant who will serve as project manager; 7168

(2) Procedures for the payment or disbursement of funds from 7169 the grant or loan to the applicant; 7170

(3) A designation of the percentage of the estimated total 7171 cost of the project for which the grant or loan will provide 7172 funding, which shall not exceed seventy-five per cent of that cost 7173
as provided in section 122.658 of the Revised Code; 7174

(4) A description of the manner by which the applicant will 7175 provide the remainder of the estimated total cost of the project, 7176 which shall equal at least twenty-five per cent of that cost as 7177 provided in section 122.658 of the Revised Code; 7178

(5) An assurance that the applicant will clean up or 7179 remediate the brownfield to the applicable cleanup standards; 7180

(6) A provision for the reimbursement of grant moneys or 7181 immediate repayment of the loan, as applicable, if the completed 7182 project does not comply with the applicable cleanup standards; 7183

(7) Any other provisions that the council considers necessary 7184 in order to ensure that the project's implementation will comply 7185 with the requirements established in sections 122.65 to 122.658 of 7186
the Revised Code and policies and requirements established under 7187
section 122.657 of the Revised Code. 7188

(D) If the council executes an agreement under this section, 7189 the council shall forward a copy of the agreement to the 7190 department of development for the purposes of section 122.658 of 7191
the Revised Code. 7192

(E) A grant may be awarded or a loan may be made for a 7193 project under this section to an applicant to pay the costs of 7194 cleanup or remediation of a brownfield in order to comply with 7195 applicable cleanup standards. 7196

Sec. 122.657. For the purposes of sections 122.65 to 122.658 7197 of the Revised Code, the director of development shall establish 7198 policies and requirements regarding all of the following: 7199

(A) The form and content of applications for grants or loans 7200 from the clean Ohio revitalization fund under section 122.652 of 7201 the Revised Code. The policies and requirements shall require that 7202 each application include, at a minimum, all of the following: 7203

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the applicant; 7204

(2) The legal description of the property for which the grant 7205 or loan is requested; 7206

(3) A summary description of the hazardous substances or 7207 petroleum present at the brownfield and a certified copy of the 7208 results of an assessment; 7209

(4) A detailed explanation of the proposed cleanup or 7210 remediation of the brownfield, including an identification of the 7211 applicable cleanup standards, and a detailed description of the 7212 proposed use of the brownfield after completion of the cleanup or 7213

remediation;	7214
(5) An estimate of the total cost to clean up or remediate the brownfield in order to comply with the applicable cleanup standards. The total cost shall include the cost of employing a certified professional under section 122.654 of the Revised Code.	7215 7216 7217 7218
(6) A detailed explanation of the portion of the estimated total cost of the cleanup or remediation of the brownfield that the applicant proposes to provide as required under sections 122.653 and 122.658 of the Revised Code and financial records supporting the proposal;	7219 7220 7221 7222 7223
(7) A certified copy of a resolution or ordinance approving the project that the applicant shall obtain from the board of township trustees of the township or the legislative authority of the municipal corporation in which the property is located, whichever is applicable;	7224 7225 7226 7227 7228
(8) A description of the estimated economic benefit that will result from a cleanup or remediation of the brownfield;	7229 7230
(9) An application summary for purposes of review by an integrating and innovation committee or, if applicable, the executive committee of an integrating and innovation committee under division (B) of section 122.652 of the Revised Code;	7231 7232 7233 7234
(10) With respect to applications for loans, information demonstrating that the applicant will implement a financial management plan that includes, without limitation, provisions for the satisfactory repayment of the loan;	7235 7236 7237 7238
(11) Any other provisions that the director determines should be included in an application.	7239 7240
(B) Procedures for conducting public meetings and providing public notice under division (A) of section 122.652 of the Revised Code;	7241 7242 7243

(C) Criteria to be used by integrating and innovation 7244 committees or, if required under division (C) of section 122.652 7245 of the Revised Code, executive committees of integrating and 7246 innovation committees when prioritizing projects under division 7247 (B) of section 122.652 of the Revised Code. The policies and 7248 requirements also shall establish procedures that integrating and 7249 innovation committees or, if required under division (C) of 7250 section 122.652 of the Revised Code, executive committees of 7251 integrating and innovation committees shall use in applying the 7252
criteria. 7253

(D) A selection process that provides for the prioritization 7254 of brownfield cleanup or remediation projects for which grant or 7255 loan applications are submitted under section 122.652 of the 7256 Revised Code. The policies and requirements shall require the 7257 selection process to give priority to projects in which the 7258 post-cleanup or remediation use will be for a combination of 7259 residential, commercial, or industrial purposes, which may include 7260 the conversion of a portion of a brownfield to a recreation, park, 7261 or natural area that is integrated with the residential, 7262 commercial, or industrial use of the brownfield after cleanup or 7263 remediation, or will incorporate projects that are funded by 7264 grants awarded under sections 164.20 to 164.27 of the Revised 7265 Code. The policies and requirements shall require the selection 7266 process to incorporate and emphasize all of the following factors: 7267

(1) The potential economic benefit that will result from the 7268 cleanup or remediation of a brownfield; 7269

(2) The potential environmental improvement that will result 7270 from the cleanup or remediation of a brownfield; 7271

(3) The amount and nature of the match provided by an 7272 applicant as required under sections 122.653 and 122.658 of the 7273
Revised Code; 7274

(4) Funding priorities recommended by integrating and 7275 innovation committees or, if required under division (C) of 7276
section 122.652 of the Revised Code, executive committees of 7277 integrating and innovation committees under division (B) of 7278
section 122.652 of the Revised Code; 7279

(5) The potential benefit to low-income communities, 7280 including minority communities, that will result from the cleanup 7281 or remediation of a brownfield; 7282

(6) Any other factors that the director considers 7283
appropriate. 7284

(E) The development of criteria that the director shall use 7285
when awarding grants under section 122.656 of the Revised Code. 7286
The criteria shall give priority to public health projects. In 7287 addition, the director, in consultation with the director of 7288 environmental protection, shall establish policies and 7289 requirements that require the criteria to include a public health 7290 project selection process that incorporates and emphasizes all of 7291 the following factors: 7292

(1) The potential environmental improvement that will result 7293
from the cleanup or remediation; 7294

(2) The ability of an applicant to access the property for 7295 purposes of the cleanup or remediation; 7296

(3) The name and qualifications of the cleanup or remediation 7297 contractor; 7298

(4) Any other factors that the director of development 7299 considers appropriate. 7300

The director of development may develop any other policies 7301 and requirements that the director determines are necessary for 7302 the administration of section 122.656 of the Revised Code. 7303

(F) The development of a brownfield cleanup and remediation 7304 oversight program to ensure compliance with sections 122.65 to 7305 122.658 of the Revised Code and policies and requirements 7306 established under this section. The policies and requirements 7307 shall require the program to include, at a minimum, both of the 7308

following: 7309

(1) Procedures for the accounting of invoices and receipts 7310 and any other documents that are necessary to demonstrate that a 7311 cleanup or remediation was properly performed; 7312

(2) Procedures that are necessary to provide a detailed 7313 explanation of the status of the property five years after the 7314 completed cleanup or remediation. 7315

(G) A delineation of what constitutes administrative costs 7316 for purposes of divisions (D) and (F) of section 122.658 of the 7317
Revised Code; 7318

(H) Procedures and requirements for making loans and loan 7319 agreements that include at least all of the following: 7320

(1) Not more than fifteen per cent of moneys annually 7321 allocated to the clean Ohio revitalization fund shall be used for 7322 loans. 7323

(2) The loans shall be made at or below market rates of 7324 interest, including, without limitation, interest-free loans. 7325

(3) The recipient of a loan shall identify a source of 7326 security and a source of repayment of the loan. 7327

(4) All payments of principal and interest on a loan shall be 7328 deposited in the state treasury and credited to the clean Ohio 7329 revitalization revolving loan fund. 7330

(5) The clean Ohio council may accept notes and other forms 7331 of obligation to evidence indebtedness, accept mortgages, liens, 7332 pledges, assignments, and other security interests to secure such 7333 indebtedness, and take any actions that are considered by the 7334 council to be appropriate to protect such security and safeguard 7335 against losses, including, without limitation, foreclosure and 7336 bidding on the purchase of property upon foreclosure or other 7337

sale. 7338

(I) Any other policies and requirements that the director 7339 determines are necessary for the administration of sections 122.65 7340 to 122.658 of the Revised Code. 7341

Sec. 122.76. (A) The director of development, with 7342 controlling board approval, may lend funds to minority business 7343 enterprises and to community improvement corporations, Ohio 7344 development corporations, minority contractors business assistance 7345 organizations, and minority business supplier development councils 7346 for the purpose of loaning funds to minority business enterprises 7347 and for the purpose of procuring or improving real or personal 7348 property, or both, for the establishment, location, or expansion 7349 of industrial, distribution, commercial, or research facilities in 7350 the state, and to community development corporations that 7351 predominantly benefit minority business enterprises or are located 7352 in a census tract that has a population that is sixty per cent or 7353 more minority if the director determines, in the director's sole 7354 discretion, that all of the following apply: 7355

(1) The project is economically sound and will benefit the 7356 people of the state by increasing opportunities for employment, by 7357 strengthening the economy of the state, or expanding minority 7358 business enterprises. 7359

(2) The proposed minority business enterprise borrower is 7360 unable to finance the proposed project through ordinary financial 7361 channels at comparable terms. 7362

(3) The value of the project is or, upon completion, will be 7363 at least equal to the total amount of the money expended in the 7364 procurement or improvement of the project, ~~and one or more~~ 7365

~~financial institutions or other governmental entities have loaned 7366~~
~~not less than thirty per cent of that amount. 7367~~

(4) The amount to be loaned by the director will not exceed 7368 sixty per cent of the total amount expended in the procurement or 7369 improvement of the project. 7370

(5) The amount to be loaned by the director will be 7371 adequately secured by a first or second mortgage upon the project 7372 or by mortgages, leases, liens, assignments, or pledges on or of 7373 other property or contracts as the director requires, and such 7374 mortgage will not be subordinate to any other liens or mortgages 7375 except the liens securing loans or investments made by financial 7376 institutions referred to in division (A)(3) of this section, and 7377 the liens securing loans previously made by any financial 7378 institution in connection with the procurement or expansion of all 7379 or part of a project. 7380

(B) Any proposed minority business enterprise borrower 7381 submitting an application for assistance under this section shall 7382 not have defaulted on a previous loan from the director, and no 7383 full or limited partner, major shareholder, or holder of an equity 7384 interest of the proposed minority business enterprise borrower 7385 shall have defaulted on a loan from the director. 7386

(C) The proposed minority business enterprise borrower shall 7387 demonstrate to the satisfaction of the director that it is able to 7388 successfully compete in the private sector if it obtains the 7389 necessary financial, technical, or managerial support and that 7390 support is available through the director, the minority business 7391 development office of the department of development, or other 7392 identified and acceptable sources. In determining whether a 7393 minority business enterprise borrower will be able to successfully 7394 compete, the director may give consideration to such factors as 7395 the successful completion of or participation in courses of study, 7396 recognized by the board of regents as providing financial, 7397 technical, or managerial skills related to the operation of the 7398 business, by the economically disadvantaged individual, owner, or 7399 partner, and the prior success of the individual, owner, or 7400 partner in personal, career, or business activities, as well as to 7401 other factors identified by the director. 7402

(D) The director shall not lend funds for the purpose of 7403 procuring or improving motor vehicles or accounts receivable. 7404

Sec. 123.011. (A) As used in this section: 7405

(1) "Construct" includes reconstruct, improve, renovate, 7406 enlarge, or otherwise alter. 7407

(2) "Energy consumption analysis" means the evaluation of all 7408 energy consuming systems, components, and equipment by demand and 7409 type of energy, including the internal energy load imposed on a 7410 facility by its occupants and the external energy load imposed by 7411 climatic conditions. 7412

(3) "Energy performance index" means a number describing the 7413 energy requirements of a facility per square foot of floor space 7414 or per cubic foot of occupied volume as appropriate under defined 7415 internal and external ambient conditions over an entire seasonal 7416 cycle. 7417

(4) "Facility" means a building or other structure, or part 7418 of a building or other structure, that includes provision for a 7419 heating, refrigeration, ventilation, cooling, lighting, hot water, 7420 or other major energy consuming system, component, or equipment. 7421

(5) "Life-cycle cost analysis" means a general approach to 7422 economic evaluation that takes into account all dollar costs 7423 related to owning, operating, maintaining, and ultimately 7424 disposing of a project over the appropriate study period. 7425

(6) "Political subdivision" means a county, township, 7426 municipal corporation, board of education of any school district, 7427 or any other body corporate and politic that is responsible for 7428 government activities in a geographic area smaller than that of 7429

the state. 7430

(7) "State funded" means funded in whole or in part through 7431 appropriation by the general assembly or through the use of any 7432 guarantee provided by this state. 7433

~~(6)~~(8) "State institution of higher education" has the same 7434 meaning as in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code. 7435

(B) There is hereby created within the department of 7436 administrative services the office of energy services. The office 7437 shall be under the supervision of a manager, who shall be 7438 appointed by the director of administrative services. The director 7439 shall assign to the office such number of employees and furnish 7440 such equipment and supplies as are necessary for the performance 7441 of the office's duties. 7442

The office shall develop energy efficiency and conservation 7443 programs in each of the following areas: 7444

- (1) New construction design and review; 7445
- (2) Existing building audit and retrofit; 7446
- (3) Energy efficient procurement; 7447
- (4) Alternative fuel vehicles. 7448

The office may accept and administer grants from public and 7449 private sources for carrying out any of its duties under this 7450
section. 7451

(C) No state agency, department, division, bureau, office, 7452 unit, board, commission, authority, quasi-governmental entity, or 7453 institution, including those agencies otherwise excluded from the 7454 jurisdiction of the department under division (A)(3) of section 7455 123.01 of the Revised Code, shall lease, construct, or cause to be 7456 leased or constructed, within the limits prescribed in this 7457 section, a state-funded facility, without ~~having secured from the~~ 7458 ~~office~~ a proper life-cycle cost analysis or, in the case of a 7459 lease, an energy consumption analysis, as computed or prepared by 7460 a qualified architect or engineer in accordance with the rules 7461 required by division (D) of this section. 7462

Construction shall proceed only upon the disclosure to the 7463 office, for the facility chosen, of the life-cycle costs as 7464 determined in this section and the capitalization of the initial 7465 construction costs of the building. The results of life-cycle cost 7466 analysis shall be a primary consideration in the selection of a 7467 building design. That analysis shall be required only for 7468 construction of buildings with an area of five thousand square 7469 feet or greater. An energy consumption analysis for the term of a 7470 proposed lease shall be required only for the leasing of an area 7471 of twenty thousand square feet or greater within a given building 7472 boundary. That analysis shall be a primary consideration in the 7473 selection of a facility to be leased. 7474

Nothing in this section shall deprive or limit any state 7475 agency that has review authority over design, construction, or 7476 leasing plans from requiring a life-cycle cost analysis or energy 7477 consumption analysis. 7478

~~Whenever any state agency, department, division, bureau,~~ 7479
~~office, unit, board, commission, authority, quasi governmental~~ 7480 ~~entity, or institution requests release of capital improvement~~ 7481 ~~funds for any state funded facility, it shall submit copies of all~~ 7482 ~~pertinent life cycle cost analyses prepared pursuant to this~~ 7483
~~section and in accordance with rules adopted under Chapters 3781.~~ 7484
~~and 4101. of the Revised Code.~~ 7485

(D) For the purposes of assisting the department in its 7486 responsibility for state-funded facilities pursuant to section 7487 123.01 of the Revised Code and of cost-effectively reducing the 7488 energy consumption of those and any other state-funded facilities, 7489 thereby promoting fiscal, economic, and environmental benefits to 7490 this state, the office shall promulgate rules specifying 7491 cost-effective, energy efficiency and conservation standards that 7492 may govern the lease, design, construction, operation, and 7493 maintenance of all state-funded facilities, except facilities of 7494 state institutions of higher education or facilities operated by a 7495 political subdivision. The office of energy efficiency in the 7496 department of development shall cooperate in providing information 7497 and technical expertise to the office of energy services to ensure 7498 promulgation of rules of maximum effectiveness. The standards 7499 prescribed by rules promulgated under this division may draw from 7500 or incorporate, by reference or otherwise and in whole or in part, 7501 standards already developed or implemented by any competent, 7502 public or private standards organization or program. The rules 7503 also may include any of the following: 7504

(1) Specifications for a life-cycle cost analysis that shall 7505 determine, for the economic life of such state-funded facility, 7506 the reasonably expected costs of facility ownership, operation, 7507 and maintenance including labor and materials. Life-cycle cost may 7508 be expressed as an annual cost for each year of the facility's 7509 use. ~~Further, the life cycle cost analysis may demonstrate for~~ 7510 ~~each design how the design contributes to energy efficiency and~~ 7511 ~~conservation with respect to any of the following:~~ 7512

~~(a) The coordination, orientation, and positioning of the~~ 7513
~~facility on its physical site;~~ 7514

~~(b) The amount and type of glass employed in the facility and~~ 7515
~~the directions of exposure;~~ 7516

~~(c) Thermal characteristics of materials incorporated into~~ 7517 ~~facility design, including insulation;~~ 7518

~~(d) Architectural features that affect energy consumption,~~ 7519 ~~including the solar absorption and reflection properties of~~ 7520

external surfaces;	7521
(e) The variable occupancy and operating conditions of the	7522 facility and portions of the facility, including illumination	7523 levels;	7524
(f) Any other pertinent, physical characteristics of the	7525
design.	7526
A life-cycle cost analysis additionally may include an energy	7527 consumption analysis that conforms to division (D)(2) of this	7528
section.	7529
(2) Specifications for an energy consumption analysis of the	7530
facility's heating, refrigeration, ventilation, cooling, lighting,	7531 hot water, and other major energy consuming systems, components,	7532 and equipment. This analysis shall include both of the following:	7533
(a) The comparison of two or more system alternatives, one of	7534 which may be a system using solar energy;	7535
(b) The projection of the annual energy consumption of those	7536
major energy consuming systems, components, and equipment, for a	7537 range of operation of the facility over the economic life of the	7538 facility and considering their operation at other than full or	7539 rated outputs.	7540
A life-cycle cost analysis and energy consumption analysis	7541 shall be based on the best currently available methods of	7542 analysis, such as those of the national bureau institute of	7543 standards and technology , the United States department of housing	7544 and urban development energy or other federal agencies,	7545 professional societies, and directions developed by the	7546
department.	7547
(3) Specifications for energy performance indices, to be used	7548
to audit and evaluate competing design proposals submitted to the	7549
state.	7550

(4) A requirement that, not later than two years after ~~the~~ 7551 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ April 6, 2007, each state-funded 7552 facility, ~~except a facility of a state institution of higher~~ 7553 ~~education~~ or a facility operated by a political subdivision, is 7554 managed by at least one building operator certified under the 7555 building operator certification program or any equivalent program 7556 or standards as shall be prescribed in the rules and considered 7557 reasonably equivalent. 7558

(5) An application process by which a ~~project manager, as to~~ 7559 of a specified state-funded facility, ~~except a facility of a state~~ 7560 institution of higher education or a facility operated by a 7561 political subdivision, may apply for a waiver of compliance with 7562 any provision of the rules required by divisions (D)(1) to (4) of 7563
this section. 7564

(E) The office of energy services shall promulgate rules to 7565 ensure that energy efficiency and conservation will be considered 7566 in the purchase of products and equipment, except motor vehicles, 7567 by any state agency, department, division, bureau, office, unit, 7568 board, commission, authority, quasi-governmental entity, or 7569 institution. Minimum energy efficiency standards for purchased 7570 products and equipment may be required, based on federal testing 7571 and labeling where available or on standards developed by the 7572 office. The rules shall apply to the competitive selection of 7573 energy consuming systems, components, and equipment under Chapter 7574
125. of the Revised Code where possible. 7575

The office also shall ensure energy efficient and energy 7576 conserving purchasing practices by doing all of the following: 7577

(1) Cooperatively with the office of energy efficiency, 7578 identifying available energy efficiency and conservation 7579 opportunities; 7580

(2) Providing for interchange of information among purchasing 7581

agencies; 7582

(3) Identifying laws, policies, rules, and procedures that 7583 need modification; 7584

(4) Monitoring experience with and the cost-effectiveness of 7585 this state's purchase and use of motor vehicles and of major 7586 energy-consuming systems, components, equipment, and products 7587 having a significant impact on energy consumption by government; 7588

(5) Cooperatively with the office of energy efficiency, 7589
providing technical assistance and training to state employees 7590 involved in the purchasing process. 7591

The department of development shall make recommendations to 7592 the office regarding planning and implementation of purchasing 7593 policies and procedures supportive of energy efficiency and 7594 conservation. 7595

(F)(1) The office of energy services shall require all state 7596 agencies, departments, divisions, bureaus, offices, units, 7597 commissions, boards, authorities, quasi-governmental entities, 7598 institutions, and state institutions of higher education to 7599 implement procedures ensuring that all their passenger automobiles 7600 acquired in each fiscal year, except for those passenger 7601 automobiles acquired for use in law enforcement or emergency 7602 rescue work, achieve a fleet average fuel economy of not less than 7603 the fleet average fuel economy for that fiscal year as shall be 7604 prescribed by the office by rule. The office shall promulgate the 7605 rule prior to the beginning of the fiscal year in accordance with 7606 the average fuel economy standards established pursuant to federal 7607 law for passenger automobiles manufactured during the model year 7608 that begins during the fiscal year. 7609

(2) Each state agency, department, division, bureau, office, 7610 unit, commission, board, authority, quasi-governmental entity, 7611
institution, and state institution of higher education shall 7612 determine its fleet average fuel economy by dividing: 7613

(a) The total number of passenger vehicles acquired during 7614 the fiscal year, except for those passenger vehicles acquired for 7615 use in law enforcement or emergency rescue work, by 7616

(b) A sum of terms, each of which is a fraction created by 7617 dividing: 7618

(i) The number of passenger vehicles of a given make, model, 7619 and year, except for passenger vehicles acquired for use in law 7620 enforcement or emergency rescue work, acquired during the fiscal 7621 year, by 7622

(ii) The fuel economy measured by the administrator of the 7623
United States environmental protection agency, for the given make, 7624 model, and year of vehicle, that constitutes an average fuel 7625 economy for combined city and highway driving. 7626

As used in division (F)(2) of this section, "acquired" means 7627 leased for a period of sixty continuous days or more, or 7628 purchased. 7629

(G) Each state agency, department, division, bureau, office, 7630 unit, board, commission, authority, quasi-governmental entity, 7631 institution, and state institution of higher education shall 7632 comply with any applicable provision of this section or of a rule 7633 promulgated pursuant to division (D) or (F) of this section. 7634

Sec. 124.09. The director of administrative services shall do 7635
all of the following: 7636

(A) Prescribe, amend, and enforce administrative rules for 7637
the purpose of carrying out the functions, powers, and duties 7638 vested in and imposed upon the director by this chapter. Except in 7639 the case of rules adopted pursuant to section 124.14 of the 7640 Revised Code, the prescription, amendment, and enforcement of 7641 rules under this division are subject to approval, disapproval, or 7642 modification by the state personnel board of review. 7643

(B) Keep records of the director's proceedings and records of 7644 all applications for examinations and all examinations conducted 7645 by the director or the director's designee. All of those records, 7646 except examinations, proficiency assessments, and recommendations 7647 of former employers, shall be open to public inspection under 7648 reasonable regulations; provided the governor, or any person 7649 designated by the governor, may, for the purpose of investigation, 7650 have free access to all of those records, whenever the governor 7651 has reason to believe that this chapter, or the administrative 7652 rules of the director prescribed under this chapter, are being 7653 violated. 7654

(C) Prepare, continue, and keep in the office of the 7655 department of administrative services a complete roster of all 7656 persons in the classified civil service of the state who are paid 7657 directly by warrant of the director of budget and management. This 7658 roster shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable hours. 7659
It shall show in reference to each of those persons, the person's 7660 name, address, date of appointment to or employment in the 7661 classified civil service of the state, and salary or compensation, 7662 the title of the place or office that the person holds, the nature 7663 of the duties of that place or office, and, in case of the 7664 person's removal or resignation, the date of the termination of 7665 that service. 7666

(D) Approve the establishment of all new positions in the 7667 civil service of the state and the reestablishment of abolished 7668 positions; 7669

(E) Require the abolishment of any position in the civil 7670 service of the state that is not filled after a period of twelve 7671 months unless it is determined that the position is seasonal in 7672 nature or that the vacancy is otherwise justified; 7673

(F) Make investigations concerning all matters touching the 7674 enforcement and effect of this chapter and the administrative 7675 rules of the director of administrative services prescribed under 7676 this chapter. In the course of those investigations, the director 7677 or the director's deputy may administer oaths and affirmations and 7678 take testimony relative to any matter which the director has 7679 authority to investigate. 7680

(G) Have the power to subpoena and require the attendance and 7681 testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, public 7682 records, and other documentary evidence pertinent to the 7683 investigations, inquiries, or hearings on any matter which the 7684 director has authority to investigate, inquire into, or hear, and 7685 to examine them in relation to any matter which the director has 7686 authority to investigate, inquire into, or hear. Fees and mileage 7687 shall be allowed to witnesses and, on their certificate, duly 7688 audited, shall be paid by the treasurer of state or, in the case 7689 of municipal or civil service township civil service commissions, 7690 by the county treasurer, for attendance and traveling, as provided 7691 in section 119.094 of the Revised Code. All officers in the civil 7692 service of the state or any of the political subdivisions of the 7693 state and their deputies, clerks, and employees shall attend and 7694 testify when summoned to do so by the director or the state 7695 personnel board of review. Depositions of witnesses may be taken 7696 by the director or the board, or any member of the board, in the 7697 manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in 7698 the courts of common pleas. In case any person, in disobedience to 7699 any subpoena issued by the director or the board, or any member of 7700 the board, or the chief examiner, fails or refuses to attend and 7701 testify to any matter regarding which the person may be lawfully 7702 interrogated, or produce any documentary evidence pertinent to any 7703 investigation, inquiry, or hearing, the court of common pleas of 7704 any county, or any judge of the court of common pleas of any 7705 county, where the disobedience, failure, or refusal occurs, upon 7706 application of the director or the board, or any member of the 7707 board, or a municipal or civil service township civil service 7708 commission, or any commissioner of such a commission, or their 7709 chief examiner, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 7710 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 7711 a subpoena issued from the court or a refusal to testify in the 7712 court. 7713

(H) Make a report to the governor, on or before the first day 7714 of January of each year, showing the director's actions, the rules 7715 and all exceptions to the rules in force, and any recommendations 7716 for the more effectual accomplishment of the purposes of this 7717 chapter. The director shall also furnish any special reports to 7718 the governor whenever the governor requests them. The reports 7719 shall be printed for public distribution under the same 7720 regulations as are the reports of other state officers, boards, or 7721 commissions. 7722

Sec. 124.23. (A) All applicants for positions and places in 7723 the classified service shall be subject to examination, except for 7724 applicants for positions as professional or certified service and 7725 paraprofessional employees of county boards of developmental 7726 disabilities, who shall be hired in the manner provided in section 7727
124.241 of the Revised Code. 7728

(B) Any examination administered under this section shall be 7729 public and be open to all citizens of the United States and those 7730 persons who have legally declared their intentions of becoming 7731 United States citizens. For examinations administered for 7732 positions in the service of the state, the director of 7733 administrative services or the director's designee may determine 7734 certain limitations as to citizenship, age, experience, education, 7735 health, habit, and moral character. 7736

(C) Any person who has completed service in the uniformed 7737 services, who has been honorably discharged from the uniformed 7738 services or transferred to the reserve with evidence of 7739 satisfactory service, and who is a resident of this state and any 7740 member of the national guard or a reserve component of the armed 7741 forces of the United States who has completed more than one 7742 hundred eighty days of active duty service pursuant to an 7743 executive order of the president of the United States or an act of 7744 the congress of the United States may file with the director a 7745 certificate of service or honorable discharge, and, upon this 7746 filing, the person shall receive additional credit of twenty per 7747 cent, or an equivalent weight, of the person's total grade given 7748 in the ~~regular~~ examination in which the person receives a passing 7749 grade, and the person's ranking on an eligible list shall reflect 7750 the passing grade plus the additional credit. 7751

As used in this division, "service in the uniformed services" 7752 and "uniformed services" have the same meanings as in the 7753
"Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 7754 1994," 108 Stat. 3149, 38 U.S.C.A. 4303. 7755

(D) An examination may include an evaluation of such factors 7756 as education, training, capacity, knowledge, manual dexterity, and 7757 physical or psychological fitness. An examination shall consist of 7758 one or more tests in any combination. Tests may be written, oral, 7759 physical, demonstration of skill, or an evaluation of training and 7760 experiences and shall be designed to fairly test the relative 7761 capacity of the persons examined to discharge the particular 7762 duties of the position for which appointment is sought. Tests may 7763 include structured interviews, assessment centers, work 7764 simulations, examinations of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and 7765 any other acceptable testing methods. If minimum or maximum 7766 requirements are established for any examination, they shall be 7767 specified in the examination announcement. 7768

(E) Except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 7769 of the Revised Code, when a position in the classified service of 7770 the state is to be filled, an examination shall be administered. 7771

The director of administrative services shall have control of all 7772 examinations administered for positions in the service of the 7773 state and all other examinations the director administers as 7774 provided in section 124.07 of the Revised Code, except as 7775 otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised 7776 Code. The director shall, by rule adopted under Chapter 119. of 7777 the Revised Code, prescribe the notification method that is to be 7778 used by an appointing authority to notify the director that a 7779 position in the classified service of the state is to be filled. 7780
In addition to the positions described in section 124.30 of the 7781 Revised Code, the director may, with sufficient justification from 7782 the appointing authority, allow the appointing authority to fill 7783 the position by noncompetitive examination. The director shall 7784 establish, by rule adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 7785 standards that the director shall use to determine what serves as 7786 sufficient justification from an appointing authority to fill a 7787 position by noncompetitive examination. 7788

(F) No questions in any examination shall relate to political 7789 or religious opinions or affiliations. No credit for seniority, 7790 efficiency, or any other reason shall be added to an applicant's 7791 examination grade unless the applicant achieves at least the 7792 minimum passing grade on the examination without counting that 7793 extra credit. 7794

(G) Except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 7795 of the Revised Code, the director of administrative services or 7796 the director's designee shall give reasonable notice of the time, 7797 place, and general scope of every competitive examination for 7798 appointment that the director or the director's designee 7799 administers for positions in the classified service of the state. 7800
The director or the director's designee shall ~~send written,~~ 7801

~~printed, or electronic post notices via electronic media of every~~ 7802 ~~examination to be conducted for positions in the classified civil~~ 7803 ~~service of the state to each agency of the type the director of~~ 7804 ~~job and family services specifies and, in the case of a county in~~ 7805
~~which no such agency is located, to the clerk of the court of~~ 7806 ~~common pleas of that county and to the clerk of each city located~~ 7807 ~~within that county. Those notices shall be posted in conspicuous~~ 7808 ~~public places in the designated agencies or the courthouse, and~~ 7809
~~city hall of the cities, of the counties in which no designated~~ 7810 ~~agency is located for at least two weeks. The electronic notice~~ 7811 ~~shall be posted on the director's internet site on the world wide~~ 7812
~~web for a minimum of one week preceding any examination involved,~~ 7813
~~and in a conspicuous place in the office of the director of~~ 7814 ~~administrative services for at least two weeks preceding any~~ 7815 ~~examination involved. In case of examinations limited by the~~ 7816 ~~director to a district, county, city, or department, the director~~ 7817 ~~shall provide by rule for adequate publicity of an examination in~~ 7818
~~the district, county, city, or department within which competition~~ 7819 ~~is permitted.~~ 7820

Sec. 124.231. (A) As used in this section, "legally blind" 7821 person" means any person who qualifies as being blind under any 7822
Ohio or federal statute, or any rule adopted thereunder. As used 7823 in this section, "legally deaf person" means any person who 7824 qualifies as being deaf under any Ohio or federal statute, or any 7825 rule adopted thereunder. 7826

(B) ~~The~~ When an examination is to be administered under 7827 sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code, the director of 7828 administrative services or the director's designee shall whenever 7829 practicable arrange for special examinations to be administered to 7830 legally blind or legally deaf persons applying for ~~original~~ 7831 ~~appointments~~ positions in the classified service to ensure that 7832 the abilities of such applicants are properly assessed and that 7833 such applicants are not subject to discrimination because they are 7834 legally blind or legally deaf persons. 7835

~~(C) The director may administer equitable programs for the 7836 employment of legally blind persons and legally deaf persons in 7837 the classified service. 7838~~

~~Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the 7839 appointment of a legally blind or legally deaf person to a 7840 position in the classified service under the procedures otherwise 7841 provided in this chapter. 7842~~

Sec. 124.24. (A) Notwithstanding sections 124.01 to 124.64 7843 and Chapter 145. of the Revised Code, the examinations of 7844 applicants for the positions of deputy mine inspector, 7845 superintendent of rescue stations, assistant superintendent of 7846 rescue stations, electrical inspectors, ~~gas storage well 7847 inspector,~~ and mine chemists in the division of mineral resources 7848 management, department of natural resources, as provided in 7849 Chapters 1561., 1563., 1565., and 1567. of the Revised Code shall 7850 be provided for, conducted, and administered by the chief of the 7851 division of mineral resources management. 7852

From the returns of the examinations the chief shall prepare 7853 eligible lists of the persons whose general average standing upon 7854 examinations for such grade or class is not less than the minimum 7855 fixed by rules adopted under section 1561.05 of the Revised Code 7856 and who are otherwise eligible. All appointments to a position 7857 shall be made from ~~such~~ that eligible list in the same manner as 7858 appointments are made from eligible lists prepared by the director 7859 of administrative services. Any person upon being appointed to 7860 fill one of the positions provided for in this ~~section~~ division, 7861 from any such eligible list, shall have the same standing, rights, 7862 privileges, and status as other state employees in the classified 7863 service. 7864

(B) Notwithstanding sections 124.01 to 124.64 and Chapter 145. of the Revised Code, the examinations of applicants for the position of gas storage well inspector in the division of oil and gas resources management, department of natural resources, as provided in Chapter 1571. of the Revised Code shall be provided for, conducted, and administered by the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management.

From the returns of the examinations, the chief shall prepare an eligible list of the persons whose general average standing upon examinations for that position is not less than the minimum fixed by rules adopted under section 1571.014 of the Revised Code and who are otherwise eligible. An appointment to the position shall be made from that eligible list in the same manner as appointments are made from eligible lists prepared by the director of administrative services. Any person, upon being appointed to fill the position provided for in this division from any such eligible list, shall have the same standing, rights, privileges, and status as other state employees in the classified service.

Sec. 124.25. The director of administrative services shall require persons applying for an examination for original appointment to file with the director or the director's designee, within reasonable time prior to the examination, a formal application, in which the applicant shall state the applicant's name, address, and such other information as may reasonably be required concerning the applicant's education and experience. No inquiry shall be made as to religious or political affiliations or as to racial or ethnic origin of the applicant, except as necessary to gather equal employment opportunity or other statistics that, when compiled, will not identify any specific individual.

Blank forms for applications shall be furnished by the director or the director's designee without charge to any person 7896 requesting the same. The director or the director's designee may 7897 require in connection with such application such certificate of 7898 persons having knowledge of the applicant as the good of the 7899 service demands. The director or the director's designee may 7900 refuse to appoint or examine an applicant, or, after an 7901 examination, refuse to certify the applicant as eligible, who is 7902 found to lack any of the established preliminary requirements for 7903 the examination, who is addicted to the habitual use of 7904 intoxicating liquors or drugs to excess, who has a pattern of poor 7905 work habits and performance with previous employers, who has been 7906 convicted of a felony, who has been guilty of infamous or 7907 notoriously disgraceful conduct, who has been dismissed from 7908 either branch of the civil service for delinquency or misconduct, 7909 or who has made false statements of any material fact, or 7910 practiced, or attempted to practice, any deception or fraud in the 7911 application or examination, in establishing eligibility, or 7912 securing an appointment. 7913

Sec. 124.26. From the returns of the examinations, the 7914 director of administrative services or the director's designee 7915 shall prepare an eligible list of the persons whose general 7916 average standing upon examinations for the ~~grade or~~ class or 7917 position is not less than the minimum fixed by the rules of the 7918 director, and who are otherwise eligible. Those persons shall take 7919 rank upon the eligible list as candidates in the order of their 7920 relative excellence as determined by the examination without 7921 reference to priority of the time of examination. If two or more 7922 applicants receive the same mark in an open competitive 7923 examination, priority in the time of filing the application with 7924 the director or the director's designee shall determine the order 7925 in which their names shall be placed on the eligible list, except 7926 that applicants eligible for veteran's preference under section 7927

124.23 of the Revised Code shall receive priority in rank on the 7928 eligible list over nonveterans on the list with a rating equal to 7929 that of the veteran. Ties among veterans shall be decided by 7930 priority of filing the application. ~~If two or more applicants~~ 7931 ~~receive the same mark on a promotional examination, seniority~~ 7932
~~shall determine the order in which their names shall be placed on~~ 7933
~~the eligible list. The term of eligibility of each list shall be~~ 7934
~~fixed by the director at not less than one or more than two years.~~ 7935

~~When an eligible list is reduced to ten names or less, a new~~ 7936
~~list may be prepared. The director may consolidate two or more~~ 7937 ~~eligible lists of the same kind by the rearranging of eligibles~~ 7938
~~named in the lists, according to their grades. An eligible list~~ 7939 ~~expires upon the filling or closing of the position. An expired~~ 7940 ~~eligible list may be used to fill a position of the same~~ 7941 ~~classification within the same appointing authority for which the~~ 7942 ~~list was created. But, in no event shall an expired list be used~~ 7943
~~more than one year past its expiration date.~~ 7944

Sec. 124.27. (A) ~~The head of a department, office, or~~ 7945
~~institution, in which a position in the classified service is to~~ 7946
~~be filled, shall notify the director of administrative services of~~ 7947
~~the fact, and the director shall, except as otherwise provided in~~ 7948
~~this section and sections 124.30 and 124.31 of the Revised Code,~~ 7949 ~~certify to the appointing authority the names and addresses of the~~ 7950
~~ten candidates standing highest on the eligible list for the class~~ 7951
~~or grade to which the position belongs, except that the director~~ 7952
~~may certify less than ten names if ten names are not available.~~ 7953
~~When less than ten names are certified to an appointing authority,~~ 7954
~~appointment from that list shall not be mandatory. When a position~~ 7955
~~in the classified service in the department of mental health or~~ 7956
~~the department of developmental disabilities is to be filled, the~~ 7957 ~~director of administrative services shall make such certification~~ 7958
~~to the appointing authority within seven working days of the date~~ 7959

~~the eligible list is requested.~~ 7960

~~(B) The appointing authority shall notify the director of a 7961 position in the classified service to be filled, and the 7962 appointing authority shall fill the vacant position by appointment 7963 of one of the ten persons certified by the director. If more than 7964 one position is to be filled, the director may certify a group of 7965 names from the eligible list, and the appointing authority shall 7966 appoint in the following manner: beginning at the top of the list, 7967 each time a selection is made, it must be from one of the first 7968 ten candidates remaining on the list who is willing to accept 7969 consideration for the position. If an eligible list becomes 7970 exhausted, and until a new list can be created, or when no 7971 eligible list for a position exists, names may be certified from 7972 eligible lists most appropriate for the group or class in which 7973 the position to be filled is classified. A person who is certified 7974 from an eligible list more than three times to the same appointing 7975 authority for the same or similar positions may be omitted from 7976 future certification to that appointing authority, provided that 7977 certification for a temporary appointment shall not be counted as 7978 one of those certifications. Every person who qualifies for 7979 veteran's preference under section 124.23 of the Revised Code, who 7980 is a resident of this state, and whose name is on the eligible 7981 list for a position shall be entitled to preference in original 7982 appointments to any such competitive position in the civil service 7983 of the state and its civil divisions over all other persons 7984 eligible for those appointments and standing on the relevant 7985 eligible list with a rating equal to that of the person qualifying 7986 for veteran's preference. Appointments to all positions in the 7987 classified service, that are not filled by promotion, transfer, or 7988 reduction, as provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised 7989 Code and the rules of the director prescribed under those 7990 sections, shall be made only from those persons whose names are 7991 certified to the appointing authority take rank order on an 7992~~ eligible list, and no employment, except as provided in those 7993 sections, shall be otherwise given in the classified service of 7994 this state or any political subdivision of the state. The 7995 appointing authority shall appoint in the following manner: each 7996 time a selection is made, it shall be from one of the names that 7997 ranks in the top twenty-five per cent of the eligible list. But, 7998 in the event that ten or fewer names are on the eligible list, the 7999 appointing authority may select any of the listed candidates. 8000

~~(C)~~(B) All original and promotional appointments, including 8001 appointments made pursuant to section 124.30 of the Revised Code, 8002 but not intermittent appointments, shall be for a probationary 8003 period, not less than sixty days nor more than one year, to be 8004 fixed by the rules of the director, except as provided in section 8005 124.231 of the Revised Code, and except for original appointments 8006 to a police department as a police officer or to a fire department 8007 as a firefighter which shall be for a probationary period of one 8008 year. No appointment or promotion is final until the appointee has 8009 satisfactorily served the probationary period. If the service of 8010 the probationary employee is unsatisfactory, the employee may be 8011 removed or reduced at any time during the probationary period. If 8012 the appointing authority decides to remove a probationary employee 8013 in the service of the state, the appointing authority shall 8014 communicate the removal to the director ~~the reason for that~~ 8015 ~~decision~~. A probationary employee duly removed or reduced in 8016 position for unsatisfactory service does not have the right to 8017 appeal the removal or reduction under section 124.34 of the 8018
Revised Code. 8019

Sec. 124.31. ~~(A)~~ Vacancies in positions in the classified 8020 service of the state shall be filled insofar as practicable by 8021 promotions. The director of administrative services shall provide 8022 in the director's rules for keeping a record of efficiency for 8023 each employee in the classified civil service of the state, and 8024 for making promotions in the classified civil service of the state 8025 on the basis of merit, ~~to be ascertained insofar as practicable by~~ 8026 ~~promotional examinations, and~~ by conduct and capacity in office, 8027 and by seniority in service. The director shall provide that 8028 vacancies in positions in the classified civil service of the 8029 state shall be filled by promotion in all cases where, in the 8030 judgment of the director, it is for the best interest of the 8031 service. The director's rules shall authorize each appointing 8032 authority of a county to develop and administer in a manner it 8033 devises, an evaluation system for the employees it appoints. 8034

~~(B) All examinations for promotions shall be competitive and~~ 8035
~~may be conducted in the same manner as examinations described in~~ 8036
~~section 124.23 of the Revised Code. In promotional examinations,~~ 8037
~~seniority in service shall be added to the examination grade, but~~ 8038
~~no credit for seniority or any other reason shall be added to an~~ 8039
~~examination grade unless the applicant achieves at least the~~ 8040
~~minimum passing score on the examination without counting that~~ 8041
~~extra credit. Credit for seniority shall equal, for the first four~~ 8042
~~years of service, one per cent of the total grade attainable in~~ 8043
~~the promotion examination, and, for each of the fifth through~~ 8044
~~fourteenth years of service, six tenths per cent of the total~~ 8045
~~grade attainable.~~ 8046

~~In all cases where vacancies are to be filled by promotion,~~ 8047
~~the director shall certify to the appointing authority the names~~ 8048
~~of the three persons having the highest rating on the eligible~~ 8049 ~~list. The method of examination for promotions, the manner of~~ 8050 ~~giving notice of the examination, and the rules governing it shall~~ 8051
~~be in general the same as those provided for original~~ 8052
~~examinations, except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to~~ 8053
~~124.64 of the Revised Code.~~ 8054

Sec. 124.34. (A) The tenure of every officer or employee in 8055

the classified service of the state and the counties, civil 8056 service townships, cities, city health districts, general health 8057 districts, and city school districts of the state, holding a 8058 position under this chapter, shall be during good behavior and 8059 efficient service. No officer or employee shall be reduced in pay 8060 or position, fined, suspended, or removed, or have the officer's 8061 or employee's longevity reduced or eliminated, except as provided 8062 in section 124.32 of the Revised Code, and for incompetency, 8063 inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, 8064 insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of 8065 duty, violation of any policy or work rule of the officer's or 8066 employee's appointing authority, violation of this chapter or the 8067 rules of the director of administrative services or the 8068 commission, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of 8069 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office, or conviction 8070 of a felony. The denial of a one-time pay supplement or a bonus to 8071 an officer or employee is not a reduction in pay for purposes of 8072
this section. 8073

This section does not apply to any modifications or 8074 reductions in pay or work week authorized by division (Q) of 8075 section 124.181 or section 124.392 ~~or~~, 124.393, or 124.394 of the 8076
Revised Code. 8077

An appointing authority may require an employee who is 8078 suspended to report to work to serve the suspension. An employee 8079 serving a suspension in this manner shall continue to be 8080 compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay for hours 8081 worked. The disciplinary action shall be recorded in the 8082 employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary 8083 actions and has the same effect as a suspension without pay for 8084 the purpose of recording disciplinary actions. 8085

A finding by the appropriate ethics commission, based upon a 8086 preponderance of the evidence, that the facts alleged in a 8087 complaint under section 102.06 of the Revised Code constitute a 8088 violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of 8089 the Revised Code may constitute grounds for dismissal. Failure to 8090 file a statement or falsely filing a statement required by section 8091 102.02 of the Revised Code may also constitute grounds for 8092 dismissal. The tenure of an employee in the career professional 8093 service of the department of transportation is subject to section 8094

5501.20 of the Revised Code. 8095

Conviction of a felony is a separate basis for reducing in 8096 pay or position, suspending, or removing an officer or employee, 8097 even if the officer or employee has already been reduced in pay or 8098 position, suspended, or removed for the same conduct that is the 8099 basis of the felony. An officer or employee may not appeal to the 8100 state personnel board of review or the commission any disciplinary 8101 action taken by an appointing authority as a result of the 8102 officer's or employee's conviction of a felony. If an officer or 8103 employee removed under this section is reinstated as a result of 8104 an appeal of the removal, any conviction of a felony that occurs 8105 during the pendency of the appeal is a basis for further 8106 disciplinary action under this section upon the officer's or 8107 employee's reinstatement. 8108

A person convicted of a felony immediately forfeits the 8109 person's status as a classified employee in any public employment 8110 on and after the date of the conviction for the felony. If an 8111 officer or employee is removed under this section as a result of 8112 being convicted of a felony or is subsequently convicted of a 8113 felony that involves the same conduct that was the basis for the 8114 removal, the officer or employee is barred from receiving any 8115 compensation after the removal notwithstanding any modification or 8116 disaffirmance of the removal, unless the conviction for the felony 8117 is subsequently reversed or annulled. 8118

Any person removed for conviction of a felony is entitled to 8119 a cash payment for any accrued but unused sick, personal, and 8120 vacation leave as authorized by law. If subsequently reemployed in 8121 the public sector, the person shall qualify for and accrue these 8122 forms of leave in the manner specified by law for a newly 8123 appointed employee and shall not be credited with prior public 8124 service for the purpose of receiving these forms of leave. 8125

As used in this division, "felony" means any of the 8126
following: 8127

(1) A felony that is an offense of violence as defined in 8128
section 2901.01 of the Revised Code; 8129

(2) A felony that is a felony drug abuse offense as defined 8130
in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code; 8131

(3) A felony under the laws of this or any other state or the 8132
United States that is a crime of moral turpitude; 8133

(4) A felony involving dishonesty, fraud, or theft; 8134

(5) A felony that is a violation of section 2921.05, 2921.32, 8135
or 2921.42 of the Revised Code. 8136

(B) In case of a reduction, a suspension of more than forty 8137 work hours in the case of an employee exempt from the payment of 8138 overtime compensation, a suspension of more than twenty-four work 8139 hours in the case of an employee required to be paid overtime 8140 compensation, a fine of more than forty hours' pay in the case of 8141 an employee exempt from the payment of overtime compensation, a 8142 fine of more than twenty-four hours' pay in the case of an 8143 employee required to be paid overtime compensation, or removal, 8144 except for the reduction or removal of a probationary employee, 8145 the appointing authority shall serve the employee with a copy of 8146 the order of reduction, fine, suspension, or removal, which order 8147 shall state the reasons for the action. 8148

Within ten days following the date on which the order is 8149 served or, in the case of an employee in the career professional 8150 service of the department of transportation, within ten days 8151 following the filing of a removal order, the employee, except as 8152 otherwise provided in this section, may file an appeal of the 8153 order in writing with the state personnel board of review or the 8154 commission. For purposes of this section, the date on which an 8155 order is served is the date of hand delivery of the order or the 8156 date of delivery of the order by certified United States mail, 8157 whichever occurs first. If an appeal is filed, the board or 8158 commission shall forthwith notify the appointing authority and 8159 shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within 8160 thirty days from and after its filing with the board or 8161 commission. The board, commission, or trial board may affirm, 8162 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. 8163 However, in an appeal of a removal order based upon a violation of 8164 a last chance agreement, the board, commission, or trial board may 8165 only determine if the employee violated the agreement and thus 8166 affirm or disaffirm the judgment of the appointing authority. 8167

In cases of removal or reduction in pay for disciplinary 8168 reasons, either the appointing authority or the officer or 8169 employee may appeal from the decision of the state personnel board 8170 of review or the commission, and any such appeal shall be to the 8171 court of common pleas of the county in which the appointing 8172 authority is located, or to the court of common pleas of Franklin 8173 county, as provided by section 119.12 of the Revised Code. 8174

(C) In the case of the suspension for any period of time, or 8175 a fine, demotion, or removal, of a chief of police, a chief of a 8176 fire department, or any member of the police or fire department of 8177 a city or civil service township, who is in the classified civil 8178 service, the appointing authority shall furnish the chief or 8179 member with a copy of the order of suspension, fine, demotion, or 8180 removal, which order shall state the reasons for the action. The 8181 order shall be filed with the municipal or civil service township 8182 civil service commission. Within ten days following the filing of 8183 the order, the chief or member may file an appeal, in writing, 8184 with the commission. If an appeal is filed, the commission shall 8185 forthwith notify the appointing authority and shall hear, or 8186 appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within thirty days from 8187 and after its filing with the commission, and it may affirm, 8188 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. An 8189 appeal on questions of law and fact may be had from the decision 8190 of the commission to the court of common pleas in the county in 8191 which the city or civil service township is situated. The appeal 8192 shall be taken within thirty days from the finding of the 8193 commission. 8194

(D) A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 8195 Revised Code is grounds for termination of employment of a 8196 nonteaching employee under this section. 8197

(E) As used in this section, "last chance agreement" means an 8198 agreement signed by both an appointing authority and an officer or 8199 employee of the appointing authority that describes the type of 8200 behavior or circumstances that, if it occurs, will automatically 8201 lead to removal of the officer or employee without the right of 8202 appeal to the state personnel board of review or the appropriate 8203 commission. 8204

Sec. 124.393. (A) As used in this section: 8205

(1) "~~County exempt~~ Exempt employee" means a permanent 8206 full-time or permanent part-time county, township, or municipal 8207 corporation employee who is not subject to a collective bargaining 8208 agreement between a public employer and an exclusive 8209
representative. 8210

(2) "Fiscal emergency" means any of the following: 8211

(a) A fiscal emergency declared by the governor under section 126.05 of the Revised Code.	8212 8213
(b) A fiscal watch or fiscal emergency has been declared or determined under section 118.023 or 118.04 of the Revised Code.	8214 8215
(c) Lack of funds as defined in section 124.321 of the Revised Code.	8216 8217
(c) (d) Reasons of economy as described in section 124.321 of the Revised Code.	8218 8219
(B)(1) A county, township, or municipal corporation appointing authority may establish a mandatory cost savings program applicable to its county exempt employees. Each county exempt employee shall participate in the program of mandatory cost savings for not more than eighty hours, as determined by the appointing authority, in each of state fiscal years 2010 and 2011 to 2013 . The program may include, but is not limited to, a loss of pay or loss of holiday pay. The program may be administered differently among employees based on their classifications, appointment categories, or other relevant distinctions.	8220 8221 8222 8223 8224 8225 8226 8227 8228 8229
(2) After June 30, 2011 2013 , a county, township, or municipal corporation appointing authority may implement mandatory cost savings days as described in division (B)(1) of this section that apply to its county exempt employees in the event of a fiscal emergency.	8230 8231 8232 8233 8234
(C) A county, township, or municipal corporation appointing authority shall issue guidelines concerning how the appointing authority will implement the cost savings program.	8235 8236 8237
Sec. 124.394. (A) As used in this section:	8238
(1) "Exempt employee" means a permanent full-time or permanent part-time county employee , township, or municipal corporation who is not subject to a collective bargaining	8239 8240 8241

representative. 8243

(2) "Fiscal emergency" means any of the following: 8244

(a) A fiscal emergency declared by the governor under section 8245
126.05 of the Revised Code. 8246

(b) A fiscal watch or a fiscal emergency declared or 8247 determined by the auditor of state under section 118.023 or 118.04 8248

(c) Lack of funds as defined in section 124.321 of the 8250
Revised Code. 8251

(d) Reasons of economy as described in section 124.321 of the 8252
Revised Code. 8253

(B) A county, township, or municipal corporation appointing 8254 authority may establish a modified work week schedule program 8255 applicable to its exempt employees. Each exempt employee shall 8256 participate in any established modified work week schedule program 8257 in each of state fiscal years 2012 and 2013. The program may 8258 provide for a reduction from the usual number of hours worked 8259 during a week by exempt employees immediately before the 8260 establishment of the program by the appointing authority. The 8261 reduction in hours may include any number of hours so long as the 8262 reduction is not more than fifty per cent of the usual hours 8263 worked by exempt employees immediately before the establishment of 8264 the program. The program may be administered differently among 8265 employees based on classifications, appointment categories, or 8266 other relevant distinctions. 8267

(C) After June 30, 2013, a county, township, or municipal 8268 corporation appointing authority may implement a modified work 8269 week schedule program as described in division (B) of this section 8270 that applies to its exempt employees in the event of a fiscal 8271 emergency. 8272

Sec. 125.021. (A) Except as to the military department, the 8273 general assembly, the capitol square review advisory board the 8274 bureau of workers' compensation, the industrial commission, and 8275 institutions administered by boards of trustees, the department of 8276 administrative services may contract for telephone, other 8277 telecommunication, and computer services for state agencies. 8278 Nothing in this division precludes the bureau or the commission 8279 from contracting with the department to authorize the department 8280 to contract for those services for the bureau or the commission. 8281

(B)(1) As used in this division: 8282

(a) "Active duty" means active duty pursuant to an executive 8283 order of the president of the United States, an act of the 8284 congress of the United States, or section 5919.29 or 5923.21 of 8285
the Revised Code. 8286

(b) "Immediate family" means a person's spouse residing in 8287 the person's household, brothers and sisters of the whole or of 8288
the half blood, children, including adopted children and 8289 stepchildren, parents, and grandparents. 8290

(2) The department of administrative services may enter into 8291 a contract to purchase bulk long distance telephone services and 8292 make them available at cost, or may make bulk long distance 8293 telephone services available at cost under any existing contract 8294 the department has entered into, to members of the immediate 8295 family of persons deployed on active duty so that those family 8296 members can communicate with the persons so deployed. If the 8297 department enters into contracts under division (B)(2) of this 8298 section, it shall do so in accordance with sections 125.01 to 8299 125.11 of the Revised Code and in a nondiscriminatory manner that 8300 does not place any potential vendor at a competitive disadvantage. 8301

(3) If the department decides to exercise either option under 8302 division (B)(2) of this section, it shall adopt, and may amend, 8303 rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement that 8304

division. 8305

Sec. 125.024. (A) Except as provided in division (C) of this 8306 section, the department of administrative services shall select a 8307 single person from which to procure all drugs to be provided by 8308 the department of mental health, under section 5119.16 of the 8309 Revised Code, to the persons and government entities described in 8310 that section. 8311

(B) Before making a selection for purposes of division (A) of 8312 this section, the department of administrative services shall 8313 develop a process to be used in issuing a request for proposals, 8314 receiving responses to the request, and evaluating the responses 8315 on a competitive basis. Not later than sixty days after the 8316 effective date of this section, the department of administrative 8317 services shall issue the first request for proposals. Each 8318 subsequent request for proposals shall be issued at least ninety 8319 days but not more than one hundred twenty days before a contract 8320 for drug procurement services terminates. 8321

(C) Division (A) of this section does not apply if the 8322 department of administrative services determines, from a review of 8323 the proposals submitted through the process described in division 8324 (B) of this section, that the cost of procuring all drugs from a 8325 single person does not result in a net savings to the state when 8326 compared to the cost of procuring drugs from multiple persons. 8327

Sec. 125.15. All state agencies required to secure any 8328 equipment, materials, supplies, or services from the department of 8329 administrative services shall make acquisition in the manner and 8330 upon forms prescribed by the director of administrative services 8331 and shall reimburse the department for the equipment, materials, 8332 supplies, or services, including a reasonable sum to cover the 8333 department's administrative costs and costs relating to energy 8334 efficiency and conservation programs, whenever reimbursement is 8335 required by the department. The money so paid shall be deposited 8336 in the state treasury to the credit of the general services fund 8337 ~~or~~, the information technology fund, or the information technology 8338 governance fund, as appropriate. Those funds are hereby created. 8339

Sec. 125.18. (A) There is hereby established the office of 8340 information technology within the department of administrative 8341 services. The office shall be under the supervision of a state 8342 chief information officer to be appointed by the director of 8343 administrative services and subject to removal at the pleasure of 8344 the director. The chief information officer is an assistant 8345 director of administrative services. 8346

(B) Under the direction of the director of administrative 8347 services, the state chief information officer shall lead, oversee, 8348 and direct state agency activities related to information 8349 technology development and use. In that regard, the state chief 8350 information officer shall do all of the following: 8351

(1) Coordinate and superintend statewide efforts to promote 8352 common use and development of technology by state agencies. The 8353 office of information technology shall establish policies and 8354 standards that govern and direct state agency participation in 8355 statewide programs and initiatives. 8356

(2) Establish policies and standards for the acquisition and 8357 use of common information technology by state agencies, including, 8358 but not limited to, hardware, software, technology services, and 8359 security, and the extension of the service life of information 8360 technology systems, with which state agencies shall comply; 8361

(3) Establish criteria and review processes to identify state 8362 agency information technology projects or purchases that require 8363 alignment or oversight. As appropriate, the department of 8364 administrative services shall provide the governor and the 8365 director of budget and management with notice and advice regarding 8366

the appropriate allocation of resources for those projects. The 8367 state chief information officer may require state agencies to 8368 provide, and may prescribe the form and manner by which they must 8369 provide, information to fulfill the state chief information 8370 officer's alignment and oversight role; 8371

(4) Establish policies and procedures for the security of 8372 personal information that is maintained and destroyed by state 8373
agencies; 8374

(5) Employ a chief information security officer who is 8375 responsible for the implementation of the policies and procedures 8376 described in division (B)(4) of this section and for coordinating 8377 the implementation of those policies and procedures in all of the 8378
state agencies; 8379

(6) Employ a chief privacy officer who is responsible for 8380 advising state agencies when establishing policies and procedures 8381 for the security of personal information and developing education 8382 and training programs regarding the state's security procedures; 8383

(7) Establish policies on the purchasing, use, and 8384 reimbursement for use of handheld computing and telecommunications 8385 devices by state agency employees; 8386

(8) Establish policies for the reduction of printing and the 8387 use of electronic records by state agencies; 8388

(9) Establish policies for the reduction of energy 8389 consumption by state agencies; 8390

(10) Compute the amount of revenue attributable to the 8391 amortization of all equipment purchases and capitalized systems 8392 from information technology service delivery and major information 8393 technology purchases operating appropriation items and major 8394 computer purchases capital appropriation items that is recovered 8395 as part of the information technology services rates the 8396 department of administrative services charges and deposits into 8397 the information technology fund created in section 125.15 of the 8398

Revised Code. 8399

(C)(1) The chief information security officer shall assist 8400 each state agency with the development of an information 8401 technology security strategic plan and review that plan, and each 8402 state agency shall submit that plan to the state chief information 8403 officer. The chief information security officer may require that 8404 each state agency update its information technology security 8405 strategic plan annually as determined by the state chief 8406 information officer. 8407

(2) Prior to the implementation of any information technology 8408 data system, a state agency shall prepare or have prepared a 8409 privacy impact statement for that system. 8410

(D) When a state agency requests a purchase of information 8411 technology supplies or services under Chapter 125. of the Revised 8412 Code, the state chief information officer may review and reject 8413 the requested purchase for noncompliance with information 8414 technology direction, plans, policies, standards, or 8415 project-alignment criteria. 8416

(E) The office of information technology may operate 8417 technology services for state agencies in accordance with this 8418
chapter. 8419

(F) With the approval of the director of administrative 8420 services, the office of information technology may establish 8421 cooperative agreements with federal and local government agencies 8422 and state agencies that are not under the authority of the 8423 governor for the provision of technology services and the 8424 development of technology projects. 8425

(G) The office of information technology may operate a 8426 program to make information technology purchases. The director of 8427 administrative services may recover the cost of operating the 8428 program from all participating government entities by issuing 8429 intrastate transfer voucher billings for the procured technology 8430 or through any pass-through billing method agreed to by the 8431 director of administrative services, the director of budget and 8432 management, and the participating government entities that will 8433 receive the procured technology. 8434

If the director of administrative services chooses to recover 8435 the program costs through intrastate transfer voucher billings, 8436 the participating government entities shall process the intrastate 8437 transfer vouchers to pay for the cost. Amounts received under this 8438 section for the information technology purchase program shall be 8439 deposited to the credit of the information technology governance 8440 fund created in section 125.15 of the Revised Code. 8441

(H) Upon request from the director of administrative 8442 services, the director of budget and management may transfer cash 8443 from the information technology fund created in section 125.15 of 8444 the Revised Code to the major information technology purchases 8445 fund in an amount not to exceed the amount computed under division 8446 (B)(10) of this section. The major information technology 8447 purchases fund is hereby created in the state treasury. 8448

(I) As used in this section: 8449

(1) "Personal information" has the same meaning as in section 8450
149.45 of the Revised Code. 8451

(2) "State agency" means every organized body, office, or 8452 agency established by the laws of the state for the exercise of 8453 any function of state government, other than any state-supported 8454 institution of higher education, the office of the auditor of 8455 state, treasurer of state, secretary of state, or attorney 8456 general, the adjutant general's department, the bureau of workers' 8457 state teachers retirement system, the school employees retirement 8460 system, the state highway patrol retirement system, the general 8461 assembly or any legislative agency, the capitol square review 8462 advisory board, or the courts or any judicial agency. 8463

Sec. 125.182. The office of information technology, by itself 8464 or by contract with another entity, shall establish, operate, and 8465 maintain a state public notice web site. In establishing, 8466 maintaining, and operating the state public notice web site, the 8467 office of information technology shall: 8468

(A) Use a domain name for the web site that will be easily 8469 recognizable and remembered by and understandable to users of the 8470
web site; 8471

(B) Maintain the web site so that it is fully accessible to 8472 and searchable by members of the public at all times; 8473

(C) Not charge a fee to a person who accesses, searches, or 8474 otherwise uses the web site; 8475

(D) Not charge a fee to a state agency or political 8476 subdivision for publishing a notice on the web site; 8477

(E) Ensure that notices displayed on the web site conform to 8478 the requirements that would apply to the notices if they were 8479 being published in a newspaper, as directed in section 7.16 of the 8480 Revised Code or in the relevant provision of the statute or rule 8481 that requires the notice; 8482

(F) Ensure that notices continue to be displayed on the web 8483 site for not less than the length of time required by the relevant 8484 provision of the statute or rule that requires the notice; 8485

(G) Devise and display on the web site a form that may be 8486 downloaded and used to request publication of a notice on the web 8487

site;	8488
(H) Enable responsible parties to submit notices and requests for their publication;	8489 8490
(I) Maintain an archive of notices that no longer are displayed on the web site;	8491 8492
(J) Enable notices, both those currently displayed and those archived, to be accessed by key word, by party name, by case number, by county, and by other useful identifiers;	8493 8494 8495
(K) Maintain adequate systemic security and backup features, and develop and maintain a contingency plan for coping with and recovering from power outages, systemic failures, and other unforeseeable difficulties;	8496 8497 8498 8499
(L) Maintain the web site in such a manner that it will not infringe legally protected interests, so that vulnerability of the web site to interruption because of litigation or the threat of litigation is reduced; and	8500 8501 8502 8503
(M) Submit a status report to the secretary of state twice annually that demonstrates compliance with statutory requirements governing publication of notices.	8504 8505 8506
The office of information technology shall bear the expense of maintaining the state public notice web site domain name.	8507 8508
Sec. 125.213. There is hereby created the state employee child support fund. The fund shall be in the custody of the treasurer of state, but shall not be part of the state treasury. The fund shall consist of all money withheld or deducted from salaries and wages of state officials and employees pursuant to a withholding or deduction notice described in section 3121.03 of the Revised Code for forwarding to the office of child support in the department of job and family services pursuant to section 3121.19 of the Revised Code. All money in the fund, including	8509 8510 8511 8512 8513 8514 8515 8516 8517 investment earnings thereon, shall be used only for the following 8518

purposes: 8519

(A) Forwarding to the office of child support money withheld 8520 or deducted from salaries and wages of state officials and 8521 employees pursuant to a withholding or deduction notice described 8522
in section 3121.03 of the Revised Code; 8523

(B) Paying any direct or indirect costs associated with 8524 maintaining the fund. 8525

Sec. 125.28. (A)(1) Each state agency that is supported in 8526 whole or in part by nongeneral revenue fund money and that 8527 occupies space in the James A. Rhodes or Frank J. Lausche state 8528 office tower, Toledo government center, Senator Oliver R. Ocasek 8529 government office building, Vern Riffe center for government and 8530
the arts, ~~state of Ohio computer center~~, capitol square, or 8531 governor's mansion shall reimburse the general revenue fund for 8532 the cost of occupying the space in the ratio that the occupied 8533 space in each facility attributable to the nongeneral revenue fund 8534 money bears to the total space occupied by the state agency in the 8535 facility. 8536

(2) All agencies that occupy space in the old blind school or 8537 that occupy warehouse space in the general services facility shall 8538 reimburse the department of administrative services for the cost 8539 of occupying the space. The director of administrative services 8540 shall determine the amount of debt service, if any, to be charged 8541 to building tenants and shall collect reimbursements for it. 8542

(3) Each agency that is supported in whole or in part by 8543 nongeneral revenue fund money and that occupies space in any other 8544 facility or facilities owned and maintained by the department of 8545 administrative services or space in the general services facility 8546 other than warehouse space shall reimburse the department for the 8547 cost of occupying the space, including debt service, if any, in 8548

the ratio that the occupied space in each facility attributable to 8549 the nongeneral revenue fund money bears to the total space 8550 occupied by the state agency in the facility. 8551

(B) The director of administrative services may provide 8552 building maintenance services and skilled trades services to any 8553 state agency occupying space in a facility that is not owned by 8554 the department of administrative services and may collect 8555 reimbursements for the cost of providing those services. 8556

(C) All money collected by the department of administrative 8557 services for operating expenses of facilities owned or maintained 8558 by the department shall be deposited into the state treasury to 8559 the credit of the building management fund, which is hereby 8560 created. All money collected by the department for skilled trades 8561 services shall be deposited into the state treasury to the credit 8562 of the skilled trades fund, which is hereby created. All money 8563 collected for debt service shall be deposited into the general 8564 revenue fund. 8565

(D) The director of administrative services shall determine 8566 the reimbursable cost of space in state-owned or state-leased 8567 facilities and shall collect reimbursements for that cost. 8568

Sec. 125.89. Subject to the approval of the governor, the 8569 department of administrative services may enter into contracts, 8570 compacts, and cooperative agreements for and on behalf of the 8571 state of Ohio with the several states or the federal government, 8572 singularly or severally, in order to provide, with or without 8573 reimbursement, for the utilization by and exchange between them, 8574 singularly or severally, of property, facilities, personnel, and 8575 services of each by the other, and, for the same purpose, to enter 8576 into contracts and cooperative agreements with eligible public or 8577 private state or local authorities, institutions, organizations, 8578 or activities. ~~The department shall make, annually, a report of its actions under sections 125.84 to 125.90 of the Revised Code, in accordance with section 149.01 of the Revised Code, and file such report with the general assembly.~~

Sec. 126.12. (A)(1) The office of budget and management shall prepare and administer a statewide indirect cost allocation plan that provides for the recovery of statewide indirect costs from any fund of the state. The director of budget and management may make transfers of statewide indirect costs from the appropriate fund of the state to the general revenue fund on an intrastate transfer voucher. The director, for reasons of sound financial management, also may waive the recovery of statewide indirect costs. Prior to making a transfer in accordance with this division, the director shall notify the affected agency of the amounts to be transferred.

(2) To support development and upgrade costs to the state's enterprise resource planning system, the director also may make transfers of statewide indirect costs attributable to debt service paid for the system to the OAKS support organization fund created in section 126.24 of the Revised Code. Transfers may be made from either of the following:

(a) The appropriate fund of the state;

(b) The general revenue fund, if the statewide indirect costs have been collected under division (A)(1) of this section and deposited in the general revenue fund.

(B) As used in this section, "statewide indirect costs" means operating costs incurred by an agency in providing services to any other agency, for which there was no billing to such other agency for the services provided, and for which disbursements have been made from the general revenue fund.

(C) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in order to reduce the payment of adjustments to the federal government as determined under the plan prepared under division (A)(1) of this section, the director of budget and management shall, on or before the first day of September each fiscal year, designate such funds of the state as the director considers necessary to retain their own interest earnings.

Sec. 126.141. Any request for release of capital appropriations by the director of budget and management or the controlling board for facilities projects shall contain a contingency reserve, the amount of which shall be determined by the public authority, for payment of unanticipated project expenses. Any amount deducted from the encumbrance for a contractor's contract as an assessment for liquidated damages shall be added to the encumbrance for the contingency reserve. Contingency reserve funds shall be used to pay costs resulting from unanticipated job conditions, to comply with rulings regarding building and other codes, to pay costs related to errors, omissions, or other deficiencies in contract documents, to pay costs associated with changes in the scope of work, to pay interest due on late payments, and to pay the costs of settlements and judgments related to the project.

Any funds remaining upon completion of a project may, upon approval of the controlling board, be released for the use of the agency or instrumentality to which the appropriation was made for other capital facilities projects.

Sec. 126.21. (A) The director of budget and management shall do all of the following:

- (1) Keep all necessary accounting records;
- (2) Prescribe and maintain the accounting system of the state and establish appropriate accounting procedures and charts of 8639 accounts; 8640

(3) Establish procedures for the use of written, electronic, 8641 optical, or other communications media for approving and reviewing 8642 payment vouchers; 8643

(4) Reconcile, in the case of any variation between the 8644 amount of any appropriation and the aggregate amount of items of 8645 the appropriation, with the advice and assistance of the state 8646 agency affected by it and the legislative service commission, 8647 totals so as to correspond in the aggregate with the total 8648 appropriation. In the case of a conflict between the item and the 8649 total of which it is a part, the item shall be considered the 8650 intended appropriation. 8651

(5) Evaluate on an ongoing basis and, if necessary, recommend 8652 improvements to the internal controls used in state agencies; 8653

(6) Authorize the establishment of petty cash accounts. The 8654 director may withdraw approval for any petty cash account and 8655 require the officer in charge to return to the state treasury any 8656 unexpended balance shown by the officer's accounts to be on hand. 8657 Any officer who is issued a warrant for petty cash shall render a 8658 detailed account of the expenditures of the petty cash and shall 8659 report when requested the balance of petty cash on hand at any 8660 time. 8661

(7) Process orders, invoices, vouchers, claims, and payrolls 8662 and prepare financial reports and statements; 8663

(8) Perform extensions, reviews, and compliance checks prior 8664 to or after approving a payment as the director considers 8665 necessary; 8666

(9) Issue the official comprehensive annual financial report 8667 of the state. The report shall cover all funds of the state 8668 reporting entity and shall include basic financial statements and 8669 required supplementary information prepared in accordance with 8670 generally accepted accounting principles and other information as 8671 the director provides. All state agencies, authorities, 8672 institutions, offices, retirement systems, and other component 8673 units of the state reporting entity as determined by the director 8674 shall furnish the director whatever financial statements and other 8675 information the director requests for the report, in the form, at 8676 the times, covering the periods, and with the attestation the 8677 director prescribes. The information for state institutions of 8678 higher education, as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised 8679 Code, shall be submitted to the chancellor by the Ohio board of 8680 regents. The board shall establish a due date by which each such 8681 institution shall submit the information to the board, but no such 8682 date shall be later than one hundred twenty days after the end of 8683 the state fiscal year unless a later date is approved by the 8684 director. 8685

(B) In addition to the director's duties under division (A) 8686 of this section, the director may establish and administer one or 8687 more state payment card programs that permit or require state 8688 agencies to use a payment card to purchase equipment, materials, 8689 supplies, or services in accordance with guidelines issued by the 8690 director. The chief administrative officer of a state agency that 8691 uses a payment card for such purposes shall ensure that purchases 8692 made with the card are made in accordance with the guidelines 8693 issued by the director and do not exceed the unexpended, 8694 unencumbered, unobligated balance in the appropriation to be 8695 charged for the purchase. State agencies may participate in only 8696 those state payment card programs that the director establishes 8697 pursuant to this section. 8698

(C) In addition to the director's duties under divisions (A) 8699 and (B) of this section, the director may enter into any contract 8700 or agreement necessary for and incidental to the performance of 8701 the director's duties or the duties of the office of budget and management. 8702 8703

8705
8708

(E) The director may transfer cash between funds other than the general revenue fund in order to correct an erroneous payment or deposit regardless of the fiscal year during which the erroneous payment or deposit occurred. 8709
8710
8712

Sec. 126.24. The OAKS support organization fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of paying the operating, development, and upgrade expenses of the state's enterprise resource planning system. The fund shall consist of ~~cash transfers from the accounting and budgeting fund and the human resources services fund, and other~~ received pursuant to division (A)(2) of section 126.12 of the Revised Code and agency payroll charge revenues that are designated to support the operating, development, and upgrade costs of the Ohio administrative knowledge system. 8761

(D) "Private sector entity" means any corporation, whether 8762 for profit or not for profit, limited liability company, 8763 partnership, limited liability partnership, sole proprietorship, 8764 business trust, joint venture or other entity, but shall not mean 8765 the state, a political subdivision of the state, or a public or 8766 governmental entity, agency, or instrumentality of the state. 8767

(E) "Project" means real or personal property, or both, and 8768 improvements thereto or in support thereof, including undivided 8769 and other interests therein, used for or in the provision of 8770 highway services. 8771

(F) "Proposer" means a private sector entity, local or 8772 regional public entity or agency, or any group or combination 8773 thereof, in collaboration or cooperation with other private sector 8774 entities, local or regional public entities, submitting 8775 qualifications or a proposal for providing highway services. 8776

Sec. 126.601. Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised 8777
Code to the contrary, the director of budget and management and 8778 the director of transportation may take any action and execute any 8779 contract for the provision of highway services in order to more 8780 efficiently and effectively provide those services, including by 8781 generating additional resources in support of those services and 8782 related projects. Any such contract may contain the terms and 8783 conditions established by the director of budget and management 8784 and the department of transportation to carry out and effect the 8785 purposes of sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code. The 8786 director is hereby authorized to receive and deposit, consistent 8787 with section 126.603 of the Revised Code, any money received under 8788 the contract. Any such contract shall be sufficient to effect its 8789 purpose notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the 8790 contrary, including other laws governing the sale, lease or other 8791 disposition of property or interests therein, service contracts, 8792 or financial transactions by or for the state. The director of 8793 transportation may exercise all powers of the Ohio turnpike 8794 commission for purposes of sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the 8795 Revised Code, and may take any action and, with the director of 8796 budget and management, execute any contract necessary to effect 8797 the purposes of sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code, 8798 notwithstanding any provision of Chapter 5537. of the Revised Code 8799 to the contrary. 8800

Sec. 126.602. (A) Before entering into a contract for the 8801 provision of highway services, the director of budget and 8802 management shall publish notice of its intent to enter into a 8803 contract for the highway services and any related project. The 8804 notice shall notify interested parties of the opportunity to 8805 submit their qualifications or proposals, or both, for 8806 consideration and shall be published at least thirty days prior to 8807 the deadline for submitting those qualifications or proposals. The 8808 director also may advertise the information contained in the 8809 notice in appropriate trade journals and otherwise notify parties 8810 believed to be interested in providing the highway services and in 8811 any related project. The notice shall include a general 8812 description of the highway services to be provided and any related 8813 project and of the qualifications or proposals being sought and 8814 instructions for obtaining the invitation. 8815

(B) After inviting qualifications, the director of budget and 8816 management, in consultation with the department of transportation, 8817 shall evaluate the qualifications submitted and may hold 8818 discussions with proposers to further explore their 8819 qualifications. Following this evaluation, the director, in 8820 consultation with the department, may determine a list of 8821 qualified proposers based on criteria in the invitation and invite 8822 only those proposers to submit a proposal for the provision of the 8823 highway services and any related project. 8824

(C) After inviting proposals, the director of budget and 8825
management, in consultation with the department of transportation, 8826 shall evaluate the proposals submitted and may hold discussions 8827 with proposers to further explore their proposals, the scope and 8828 nature of the highway services they would provide, and the various 8829 technical approaches they may take regarding the highway services 8830 and any related project. Following this evaluation, the director, 8831 in consultation with the department, shall: 8832

(1) Select and rank no fewer than three proposers that the 8833 director considers to be the most qualified to enter into the 8834 contract, except when the director determines that fewer than 8835 three qualified proposers are available, in which case the 8836 director shall select and rank them; 8837

(2) Negotiate a contract with the proposer ranked most 8838 qualified to provide the highway services at a compensation 8839 determined in writing to be fair and reasonable, and to purchase, 8840 lease or otherwise take a legal interest in the project. 8841

(D)(1) Upon failure to negotiate a contract with the proposer 8842 ranked most qualified, the director shall inform the proposer in 8843 writing of the termination of negotiations and may enter into 8844 negotiations with the proposer ranked next most qualified. If 8845 negotiations again fail, the same procedure may be followed with 8846 each next most qualified proposer selected and ranked, in order of 8847 ranking, until a contract is negotiated. 8848

(2) If the director, in consultation with the department, 8849 fails to negotiate a contract with any of the ranked proposers, 8850 the director, in consultation with the department, may terminate 8851 the process or select and rank additional proposers, based on 8852 their qualifications or proposals, and negotiations shall continue 8853 as with the proposers selected and ranked initially until a 8854

contract is negotiated. 8855

8863
8864
8865
8866
8867
8868
8869

(F) Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code shall not apply to any project. Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code shall not apply to any employees working at or on a project to provide highway services. 8870

(G) The director of budget and management may reject any and all submissions of qualifications or proposals. 8873
8874

Sec. 126.603. (A) In addition to its powers under sections 127.14 and 127.16 of the Revised Code, the controlling board shall approve any invitation for qualifications or for proposals and related contract negotiated under sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code, which approval may be by pre-approval of specified terms of the contract. The controlling board may approve any transfer of moneys and funds necessary to support the highway services. 8875
8876
8878
8879
8880
8881
8882

(B) All money received by the director of budget and management under a contract executed pursuant to sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code shall be deposited into the state 8883
8884

treasury to the credit of the highway services fund, which is 8886 hereby created. Any interest earned on money in the fund shall be 8887

Sec. 126.604. The exercise of the powers granted by sections 8889 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code will be for the benefit of 8890 the people of the state and shall be liberally construed to effect 8891 the purposes thereof. Any project or part thereof owned by the 8892 state and used for performing any highway services pursuant to a 8893 contract entered into under sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the 8894 Revised Code that would be exempt from real property taxes or 8895 assessments in the absence of such contract shall remain exempt 8896 from real property taxes and assessments levied by the state and 8897 its subdivisions to the same extent as if not subject to that 8898 contract. The gross receipts and income of a successful proposer 8899 derived from providing highway services under a contract through a 8900 project owned by the state shall be exempt from gross receipts and 8901 income taxes levied by the state and its subdivisions, including 8902 the tax levied pursuant to Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code. Any 8903 transfer or lease between a successful proposer and the state of a 8904 project or part thereof, or item included or to be included in the 8905 project, shall be exempt from the taxes levied pursuant to 8906 Chapters 5739. and 5741. of the Revised Code if the state is 8907 retaining ownership of the project or part thereof that is being 8908 transferred or leased. 8909

Sec. 126.605. The director of budget and management, in 8910 consultation with the department of transportation, may retain or 8911 contract for the services of commercial appraisers, engineers, 8912 investment bankers, financial advisers, accounting experts, and 8913 other consultants, independent contractors or providers of 8914 professional services as are necessary in the judgment of the 8915 director to carry out the director's powers and duties under 8916 sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code, including the 8917 identification of highway services and any related projects to be 8918 subject to invitations for qualifications or proposals under 8919 sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code, the development of 8920 those invitations and related evaluation criteria, the evaluation 8921 of those invitations, and negotiation of any contract under 8922 sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code. 8923

Sec. 127.16. (A) Upon the request of either a state agency or 8924 the director of budget and management and after the controlling 8925 board determines that an emergency or a sufficient economic reason 8926 exists, the controlling board may approve the making of a purchase 8927 without competitive selection as provided in division (B) of this 8928
section. 8929

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no state 8930 agency, using money that has been appropriated to it directly, 8931 shall: 8932

(1) Make any purchase from a particular supplier, that would 8933 amount to fifty thousand dollars or more when combined with both 8934 the amount of all disbursements to the supplier during the fiscal 8935 year for purchases made by the agency and the amount of all 8936 outstanding encumbrances for purchases made by the agency from the 8937 supplier, unless the purchase is made by competitive selection or 8938 with the approval of the controlling board; 8939

(2) Lease real estate from a particular supplier, if the 8940 lease would amount to seventy-five thousand dollars or more when 8941 combined with both the amount of all disbursements to the supplier 8942 during the fiscal year for real estate leases made by the agency 8943 and the amount of all outstanding encumbrances for real estate 8944 leases made by the agency from the supplier, unless the lease is 8945 made by competitive selection or with the approval of the 8946 controlling board. 8947

(C) Any person who authorizes a purchase in violation of 8948 division (B) of this section shall be liable to the state for any 8949 state funds spent on the purchase, and the attorney general shall 8950 collect the amount from the person. 8951

(D) Nothing in division (B) of this section shall be 8952 construed as: 8953

(1) A limitation upon the authority of the director of 8954 transportation as granted in sections 5501.17, 5517.02, and 8955

(2) Applying to medicaid provider agreements under Chapter 8957
5111. of the Revised Code; 8958

(3) Applying to the purchase of examinations from a sole 8959 supplier by a state licensing board under Title XLVII of the 8960
Revised Code; 8961

(4) Applying to entertainment contracts for the Ohio state 8962 fair entered into by the Ohio expositions commission, provided 8963 that the controlling board has given its approval to the 8964 commission to enter into such contracts and has approved a total 8965 budget amount for such contracts as agreed upon by commission 8966 action, and that the commission causes to be kept itemized records 8967 of the amounts of money spent under each contract and annually 8968 files those records with the clerk of the house of representatives 8969 and the clerk of the senate following the close of the fair; 8970

(5) Limiting the authority of the chief of the division of 8971 mineral resources management to contract for reclamation work with 8972 an operator mining adjacent land as provided in section 1513.27 of 8973
the Revised Code; 8974

(6) Applying to investment transactions and procedures of any 8975 state agency, except that the agency shall file with the board the 8976 name of any person with whom the agency contracts to make, broker, 8977 service, or otherwise manage its investments, as well as the 8978 commission, rate, or schedule of charges of such person with 8979 respect to any investment transactions to be undertaken on behalf 8980 of the agency. The filing shall be in a form and at such times as 8981 the board considers appropriate. 8982

(7) Applying to purchases made with money for the per cent 8983 for arts program established by section 3379.10 of the Revised 8984
Code; 8985

(8) Applying to purchases made by the rehabilitation services 8986 commission of services, or supplies, that are provided to persons 8987 with disabilities, or to purchases made by the commission in 8988 connection with the eligibility determinations it makes for 8989 applicants of programs administered by the social security 8990 administration; 8991

(9) Applying to payments by the department of job and family 8992 services under section 5111.13 of the Revised Code for group 8993 health plan premiums, deductibles, coinsurance, and other 8994 cost-sharing expenses; 8995

(10) Applying to any agency of the legislative branch of the 8996 state government; 8997

(11) Applying to agreements or contracts entered into under 8998 section 5101.11, 5101.20, 5101.201, 5101.21, or 5101.214 of the 8999
Revised Code; 9000

(12) Applying to purchases of services by the adult parole 9001 authority under section 2967.14 of the Revised Code or by the 9002 department of youth services under section 5139.08 of the Revised 9003
Code; 9004

(13) Applying to dues or fees paid for membership in an 9005 organization or association; 9006

(14) Applying to purchases of utility services pursuant to section 9.30 of the Revised Code;	9007 9008
(15) Applying to purchases made in accordance with rules adopted by the department of administrative services of motor vehicle, aviation, or watercraft fuel, or emergency repairs of such vehicles;	9009 9010 9011 9012
(16) Applying to purchases of tickets for passenger air transportation;	9013 9014
(17) Applying to purchases necessary to provide public notifications required by law or to provide notifications of job openings;	9015 9016 9017
(18) Applying to the judicial branch of state government;	9018
(19) Applying to purchases of liquor for resale by the division of liquor control;	9019 9020
(20) Applying to purchases of motor courier and freight services made in accordance with department of administrative services rules;	9021 9022 9023
(21) Applying to purchases from the United States postal service and purchases of stamps and postal meter replenishment from vendors at rates established by the United States postal service;	9024 9025 9026 9027

9085

(E) When determining whether a state agency has reached the cumulative purchase thresholds established in divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section, all of the following purchases by such agency shall not be considered: 9086
9087
9089

(1) Purchases made through competitive selection or with controlling board approval; 9090
9091

(2) Purchases listed in division (D) of this section; 9092

(3) For the purposes of the threshold of division (B)(1) of this section only, leases of real estate. 9093
9094

(F) As used in this section, "competitive selection," "purchase," "supplies," and "services" have the same meanings as in section 125.01 of the Revised Code. 9095
9096

Sec. 131.23. The various political subdivisions of this state 9098 may issue bonds, and any indebtedness created by that issuance 9099 shall not be subject to the limitations or included in the 9100 calculation of indebtedness prescribed by sections 133.05, 133.06, 9101 133.07, and 133.09 of the Revised Code, but the bonds may be 9102 issued only under the following conditions: 9103

(A) The subdivision desiring to issue the bonds shall obtain 9104 from the county auditor a certificate showing the total amount of 9105 delinquent taxes due and unpayable to the subdivision at the last 9106 semiannual tax settlement. 9107

(B) The fiscal officer of that subdivision shall prepare a 9108 statement, from the books of the subdivision, verified by the 9109 fiscal officer under oath, which shall contain the following facts 9110 of the subdivision: 9111

(1) The total bonded indebtedness; 9112

(2) The aggregate amount of notes payable or outstanding 9113 accounts of the subdivision, incurred prior to the commencement of 9114 the current fiscal year, which shall include all evidences of 9115 indebtedness issued by the subdivision except notes issued in 9116 anticipation of bond issues and the indebtedness of any 9117 nontax-supported public utility; 9118

(3) Except in the case of school districts, the aggregate 9119 current year's requirement for disability financial assistance 9120 provided under Chapter 5115. of the Revised Code that the 9121 subdivision is unable to finance except by the issue of bonds; 9122

(4) The indebtedness outstanding through the issuance of any 9123 bonds or notes pledged or obligated to be paid by any delinquent 9124 taxes; 9125

(5) The total of any other indebtedness; 9126

(6) The net amount of delinquent taxes unpledged to pay any 9127

bonds, notes, or certificates, including delinquent assessments on	9128
improvements on which the bonds have been paid;	9129
(7) The budget requirements for the fiscal year for bond and	9130
note retirement;	9131
(8) The estimated revenue for the fiscal year.	9132
(C) The certificate and statement provided for in divisions	9133
(A) and (B) of this section shall be forwarded to the tax	9134
commissioner together with a request for authority to issue bonds	9135 of the subdivision in an amount not to exceed seventy per cent of	9136
the net unobligated delinquent taxes and assessments due and owing	9137 to the subdivision, as set forth in division (B)(6) of this	9138
section.	9139
(D) No subdivision may issue bonds under this section in	9140 excess of a sufficient amount to pay the indebtedness of the	9141 subdivision as shown by division (B)(2) of this section and,	9142 except in the case of school districts, to provide funds for	9143 disability financial assistance as shown by division (B)(3) of	9144
this section.	9145
(E) The tax commissioner shall grant to the subdivision	9146 authority requested by the subdivision as restricted by divisions	9147
(C) and (D) of this section and shall make a record of the	9148
certificate, statement, and grant in a record book devoted solely	9149 to such recording and which shall be open to inspection by the	9150 public.	9151
(F) The commissioner shall immediately upon issuing the	9152 authority provided in division (E) of this section notify the	9153 proper authority having charge of the retirement of bonds of the	9154 subdivision by forwarding a copy of the grant of authority and of	9155
the statement provided for in division (B) of this section.	9156
(G) Upon receipt of authority, the subdivision shall proceed	9157
according to law to issue the amount of bonds authorized by the	9158

commissioner, and authorized by the taxing authority, provided the 9159 taxing authority of that subdivision may submit, by resolution, to 9160 the electors of that subdivision the question of issuing the 9161 bonds. The resolution shall make the declarations and statements 9162 required by section 133.18 of the Revised Code. The county auditor 9163 and taxing authority shall thereupon proceed as set forth in 9164 divisions (C) and (D) of that section. The election on the 9165 question of issuing the bonds shall be held under divisions (E), 9166 (F), and (G) of that section, except that publication of the 9167 notice of the election shall be made on two separate days prior to 9168 the election in ~~one or more newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 9169 circulation in the subdivision, ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 9170 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the board of elections operates and 9171 maintains a web site, notice of the election also shall be posted 9172 on that web site for thirty days prior to the election. The bonds 9173 may be exchanged at their face value with creditors of the 9174 subdivision in liquidating the indebtedness described and 9175 enumerated in division (B)(2) of this section or may be sold as 9176 provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, and in either event 9177 shall be uncontestable. 9178

(H) The per cent of delinquent taxes and assessments 9179 collected for and to the credit of the subdivision after the 9180 exchange or sale of bonds as certified by the commissioner shall 9181 be paid to the authority having charge of the sinking fund of the 9182 subdivision, which money shall be placed in a separate fund for 9183 the purpose of retiring the bonds so issued. The proper authority 9184 of the subdivisions shall provide for the levying of a tax 9185 sufficient in amount to pay the debt charges on all such bonds 9186 issued under this section. 9187

(I) This section is for the sole purpose of assisting the 9188 various subdivisions in paying their unsecured indebtedness, and 9189 providing funds for disability financial assistance. The bonds 9190 issued under authority of this section shall not be used for any 9191 other purpose, and any exchange for other purposes, or the use of 9192 the money derived from the sale of the bonds by the subdivision 9193 for any other purpose, is misapplication of funds. 9194

(J) The bonds authorized by this section shall be redeemable 9195 or payable in not to exceed ten years from date of issue and shall 9196 not be subject to or considered in calculating the net 9197 indebtedness of the subdivision. The budget commission of the 9198 county in which the subdivision is located shall annually allocate 9199 such portion of the then delinquent levy due the subdivision which 9200 is unpledged for other purposes to the payment of debt charges on 9201 the bonds issued under authority of this section. 9202

(K) The issue of bonds under this section shall be governed 9203 by Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, respecting the terms used, 9204 forms, manner of sale, and redemption except as otherwise provided 9205 in this section. 9206

The board of county commissioners of any county may issue 9207 bonds authorized by this section and distribute the proceeds of 9208 the bond issues to any or all of the cities and townships of the 9209 county, according to their relative needs for disability financial 9210 assistance as determined by the county. 9211

All sections of the Revised Code inconsistent with or 9212 prohibiting the exercise of the authority conferred by this 9213 section are inoperative respecting bonds issued under this 9214
section. 9215

Sec. 131.44. (A) As used in this section: 9216

(1) "Surplus revenue" means the excess, if any, of the total 9217 fund balance over the required year-end balance. 9218

(2) "Total fund balance" means the sum of the unencumbered 9219 balance in the general revenue fund on the last day of the 9220 preceding fiscal year plus the balance in the budget stabilization fund. 9221 9222

(3) "Required year-end balance" means the sum of the following: 9223 9224

(a) Five per cent of the general revenue fund revenues for the preceding fiscal year; 9225
9226

(b) "Ending fund balance," which means one-half of one per cent of general revenue fund revenues for the preceding fiscal year; 9227

(c) "Carryover balance," which means, with respect to a fiscal biennium, the excess, if any, of the estimated general revenue fund appropriation and transfer requirement for the second fiscal year of the biennium over the estimated general revenue fund revenue for that fiscal year; 9230
9231
9234

9236
9238

(e) "Income tax reduction impact reserve," which means an amount equal to the reduction projected by the director of budget and management in income tax revenue in the current fiscal year attributable to the previous reduction in the income tax rate made by the tax commissioner pursuant to division (B) of section 5747.02 of the Revised Code. 9239
9240
9242
9244

(4) "Estimated general revenue fund appropriation and transfer requirement" means the most recent adjusted appropriations made by the general assembly from the general revenue fund and includes both of the following: 9245
9246
9248

(a) Appropriations made and transfers of appropriations from the first fiscal year to the second fiscal year of the biennium in 9249
9250 provisions of acts of the general assembly signed by the governor 9251 but not yet effective; 9252

(b) Transfers of ~~appropriation~~ appropriations from the first 9253 fiscal year to the second fiscal year of the biennium approved by 9254 the controlling board. 9255

(5) "Estimated general revenue fund revenue" means the most 9256 recent such estimate available to the director of budget and 9257
management. 9258

(B)(1) Not later than the thirty-first day of July each year, 9259 the director of budget and management shall determine the surplus 9260 revenue that existed on the preceding thirtieth day of June and 9261 transfer from the general revenue fund, to the extent of the 9262 unobligated, unencumbered balance on the preceding thirtieth day 9263 of June in excess of one-half of one per cent of the general 9264 revenue fund revenues in the preceding fiscal year, the following: 9265

(a) First, to the budget stabilization fund, any amount 9266 necessary for the balance of the budget stabilization fund to 9267 equal five per cent of the general revenue fund revenues of the 9268 preceding fiscal year; 9269

(b) Then, to the income tax reduction fund, which is hereby 9270 created in the state treasury, an amount equal to the surplus 9271 revenue. 9272

(2) Not later than the thirty-first day of July each year, 9273
the director shall determine the percentage that the balance in 9274 the income tax reduction fund is of the amount of revenue that the 9275 director estimates will be received from the tax levied under 9276 section 5747.02 of the Revised Code in the current fiscal year 9277 without regard to any reduction under division (B) of that 9278 section. If that percentage exceeds thirty-five one hundredths of 9279 one per cent, the director shall certify the percentage to the tax 9280 commissioner not later than the thirty-first day of July. 9281

(C) The director of budget and management shall transfer 9282 money in the income tax reduction fund to the general revenue 9283 fund, the local government fund, and the public library fund as 9284 necessary to offset revenue reductions resulting from the 9285 reductions in taxes required under division (B) of section 5747.02 9286 of the Revised Code in the respective amounts and percentages 9287 prescribed by division (A) of section 5747.03 and divisions ~~(A)~~(B) 9288 and ~~(B)~~(C) of section 131.51 of the Revised Code as if the amount 9289 transferred had been collected as taxes under Chapter 5747. of the 9290 Revised Code. If no reductions in taxes are made under that 9291 division that affect revenue received in the current fiscal year, 9292 the director shall not transfer money from the income tax 9293 reduction fund to the general revenue fund, the local government 9294 fund, and the public library fund. 9295

Sec. 131.51. (A) ~~Beginning January 2008, on~~ On or before July 9296 5, 2013, the tax commissioner shall compute the following amounts 9297 and certify those amounts to the director of budget and 9298
management: 9299

(1) A percentage calculated by multiplying one hundred by the 9300
quotient obtained by dividing the total amount credited to the 9301 local government fund in fiscal year 2013 by the total amount of 9302 tax revenue credited to the general revenue fund in fiscal year 9303 2013. The percentage shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth 9304 of one per cent. 9305

(2) A percentage calculated by multiplying one hundred by the 9306
quotient obtained by dividing the total amount credited to the 9307 public library fund in fiscal year 2013 by the total amount of tax 9308 revenue credited to the general revenue fund in fiscal year 2013. 9309
The percentage shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of 9310 one per cent. 9311

(B) On or before the ~~fifth~~ seventh day of each month, the 9312 director of budget and management shall credit to the local 9313 government fund ~~three and sixty eight one hundredths per cent of~~ 9314 an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the 9315 percentage calculated under division (A)(1) of this section by the 9316 total tax revenue credited to the general revenue fund during the 9317 preceding month. ~~In determining the total tax revenue credited to~~ 9318

~~the general revenue fund during the preceding month, the director~~ 9319 ~~shall include amounts transferred from that fund during the~~ 9320
~~preceding month pursuant to divisions (A) and (B) of this section.~~ 9321 Money shall be distributed from the local government fund as 9322 required under section 5747.50 of the Revised Code during the same 9323 month in which it is credited to the fund. 9324

~~(B) Beginning January 2008, on~~ (C) On or before the fifth 9325 seventh day of each month, the director of budget and management 9326 shall credit to the public library fund, ~~two and twenty two one~~ 9327 ~~hundredths per cent of~~ an amount equal to the product obtained by 9328 multiplying the percentage calculated under division (A)(2) of 9329 this section by the total tax revenue credited to the general 9330 revenue fund during the preceding month. ~~In determining the total~~ 9331 ~~tax revenue credited to the general revenue fund during the~~ 9332 ~~preceding month, the director shall include amounts transferred~~ 9333
~~from that fund during the preceding month pursuant to divisions~~ 9334
~~(A) and (B) of this section.~~ Money shall be distributed from the 9335 public library fund as required under section 5747.47 of the 9336 Revised Code during the same month in which it is credited to the 9337 fund. 9338

~~(C)(D)~~ The director of budget and management shall develop a 9339 schedule identifying the specific tax revenue sources to be used 9340 to make the monthly transfers required under divisions ~~(A)(B)~~ and 9341 ~~(B)(C)~~ of this section. The director may, from time to time, 9342 revise the schedule as the director considers necessary. 9343

Sec. 133.06. (A) A school district shall not incur, without a 9344 vote of the electors, net indebtedness that exceeds an amount 9345 equal to one-tenth of one per cent of its tax valuation, except as 9346 provided in divisions (G) and (H) of this section and in division 9347 (C) of section 3313.372 of the Revised Code, or as prescribed in 9348 section 3318.052 or 3318.44 of the Revised Code, or as provided in 9349
division (J) of this section. 9350

(B) Except as provided in divisions (E), (F), and (I) of this 9351 section, a school district shall not incur net indebtedness that 9352 exceeds an amount equal to nine per cent of its tax valuation. 9353

(C) A school district shall not submit to a vote of the 9354 electors the question of the issuance of securities in an amount 9355 that will make the district's net indebtedness after the issuance 9356 of the securities exceed an amount equal to four per cent of its 9357 tax valuation, unless the superintendent of public instruction, 9358 acting under policies adopted by the state board of education, and 9359 the tax commissioner, acting under written policies of the 9360 commissioner, consent to the submission. A request for the 9361 consents shall be made at least one hundred twenty days prior to 9362 the election at which the question is to be submitted. 9363

The superintendent of public instruction shall certify to the 9364 district the superintendent's and the tax commissioner's decisions 9365 within thirty days after receipt of the request for consents. 9366

If the electors do not approve the issuance of securities at 9367 the election for which the superintendent of public instruction 9368 and tax commissioner consented to the submission of the question, 9369
the school district may submit the same question to the electors 9370 on the date that the next special election may be held under 9371 section 3501.01 of the Revised Code without submitting a new 9372 request for consent. If the school district seeks to submit the 9373 same question at any other subsequent election, the district shall 9374 first submit a new request for consent in accordance with this 9375

division. 9376

(D) In calculating the net indebtedness of a school district, 9377 none of the following shall be considered: 9378

(1) Securities issued to acquire school buses and other 9379 equipment used in transporting pupils or issued pursuant to 9380 division (D) of section 133.10 of the Revised Code; 9381

(2) Securities issued under division (F) of this section, 9382 under section 133.301 of the Revised Code, and, to the extent in 9383 excess of the limitation stated in division (B) of this section, 9384 under division (E) of this section; 9385

(3) Indebtedness resulting from the dissolution of a joint 9386 vocational school district under section 3311.217 of the Revised 9387 Code, evidenced by outstanding securities of that joint vocational 9388 school district; 9389

(4) Loans, evidenced by any securities, received under 9390 sections 3313.483, 3317.0210, 3317.0211, and 3317.64 of the 9391
Revised Code; 9392

(5) Debt incurred under section 3313.374 of the Revised Code; 9393

(6) Debt incurred pursuant to division (B)(5) of section 9394 3313.37 of the Revised Code to acquire computers and related 9395
hardware; 9396

(7) Debt incurred under section 3318.042 of the Revised Code. 9397

(E) A school district may become a special needs district as 9398 to certain securities as provided in division (E) of this section. 9399

(1) A board of education, by resolution, may declare its 9400 school district to be a special needs district by determining both 9401
of the following: 9402

(a) The student population is not being adequately serviced 9403 by the existing permanent improvements of the district. 9404

(b) The district cannot obtain sufficient funds by the 9405 issuance of securities within the limitation of division (B) of 9406 this section to provide additional or improved needed permanent 9407 improvements in time to meet the needs. 9408

(2) The board of education shall certify a copy of that 9409 resolution to the superintendent of public instruction with a 9410 statistical report showing all of the following: 9411

(a) A history of and a projection of the growth of the 9412 student population; 9413

(b) The history of and a projection of the growth of the tax 9414 valuation; 9415

(c) The projected needs; 9416

(d) The estimated cost of permanent improvements proposed to 9417 meet such projected needs. 9418

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall certify 9419 the district as an approved special needs district if the 9420 superintendent finds both of the following: 9421

(a) The district does not have available sufficient 9422 additional funds from state or federal sources to meet the 9423 projected needs. 9424

(b) The projection of the potential average growth of tax 9425 valuation during the next five years, according to the information 9426 certified to the superintendent and any other information the 9427 superintendent obtains, indicates a likelihood of potential 9428 average growth of tax valuation of the district during the next 9429 five years of an average of not less than three per cent per year. 9430
The findings and certification of the superintendent shall be 9431 conclusive. 9432

(4) An approved special needs district may incur net 9433 indebtedness by the issuance of securities in accordance with the 9434 provisions of this chapter in an amount that does not exceed an 9435 amount equal to the greater of the following: 9436

(a) Nine per cent of the sum of its tax valuation plus an 9437 amount that is the product of multiplying that tax valuation by 9438 the percentage by which the tax valuation has increased over the 9439 tax valuation on the first day of the sixtieth month preceding the 9440 month in which its board determines to submit to the electors the 9441 question of issuing the proposed securities; 9442

(b) Nine per cent of the sum of its tax valuation plus an 9443 amount that is the product of multiplying that tax valuation by 9444
the percentage, determined by the superintendent of public 9445 instruction, by which that tax valuation is projected to increase 9446 during the next ten years. 9447

(F) A school district may issue securities for emergency 9448 purposes, in a principal amount that does not exceed an amount 9449 equal to three per cent of its tax valuation, as provided in this 9450
division. 9451

(1) A board of education, by resolution, may declare an 9452 emergency if it determines both of the following: 9453

(a) School buildings or other necessary school facilities in 9454 the district have been wholly or partially destroyed, or condemned 9455 by a constituted public authority, or that such buildings or 9456 facilities are partially constructed, or so constructed or planned 9457 as to require additions and improvements to them before the 9458 buildings or facilities are usable for their intended purpose, or 9459 that corrections to permanent improvements are necessary to remove 9460 or prevent health or safety hazards. 9461

(b) Existing fiscal and net indebtedness limitations make 9462 adequate replacement, additions, or improvements impossible. 9463

(2) Upon the declaration of an emergency, the board of 9464 education may, by resolution, submit to the electors of the 9465 district pursuant to section 133.18 of the Revised Code the 9466 question of issuing securities for the purpose of paying the cost, 9467 in excess of any insurance or condemnation proceeds received by 9468 the district, of permanent improvements to respond to the 9469 emergency need. 9470

(3) The procedures for the election shall be as provided in 9471
section 133.18 of the Revised Code, except that: 9472

(a) The form of the ballot shall describe the emergency 9473 existing, refer to this division as the authority under which the 9474 emergency is declared, and state that the amount of the proposed 9475 securities exceeds the limitations prescribed by division (B) of 9476
this section; 9477

(b) The resolution required by division (B) of section 133.18 9478 of the Revised Code shall be certified to the county auditor and 9479 the board of elections at least one hundred days prior to the 9480 election; 9481

(c) The county auditor shall advise and, not later than 9482 ninety-five days before the election, confirm that advice by 9483 certification to, the board of education of the information 9484 required by division (C) of section 133.18 of the Revised Code; 9485

(d) The board of education shall then certify its resolution 9486 and the information required by division (D) of section 133.18 of 9487
the Revised Code to the board of elections not less than ninety 9488 days prior to the election. 9489

(4) Notwithstanding division (B) of section 133.21 of the 9490 Revised Code, the first principal payment of securities issued 9491 under this division may be set at any date not later than sixty 9492 months after the earliest possible principal payment otherwise 9493 provided for in that division. 9494

(G) The board of education may contract with an architect, 9495 professional engineer, or other person experienced in the design 9496 and implementation of energy conservation measures for an analysis 9497 and recommendations pertaining to installations, modifications of 9498 installations, or remodeling that would significantly reduce 9499 energy consumption in buildings owned by the district. The report 9500 shall include estimates of all costs of such installations, 9501 modifications, or remodeling, including costs of design, 9502 engineering, installation, maintenance, repairs, and debt service, 9503 forgone residual value of materials or equipment replaced by the 9504 energy conservation measure, as defined by the Ohio school 9505 facilities commission, a baseline analysis of actual energy 9506 consumption data for the preceding five years, and estimates of 9507 the amounts by which energy consumption and resultant operational 9508 and maintenance costs, as defined by the ~~Ohio school facilities~~ 9509 commission, would be reduced. 9510

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 9511 of money the district would spend on such installations, 9512 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 9513 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 9514 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 9515 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 9516 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 9517 modification of installations or the remodeling of buildings for 9518
the purpose of significantly reducing energy consumption. 9519

If the commission determines that the board's findings are 9520 reasonable, it shall approve the board's request. Upon receipt of 9521 the commission's approval, the district may issue securities 9522 without a vote of the electors in a principal amount not to exceed 9523 nine-tenths of one per cent of its tax valuation for the purpose 9524 of making such installations, modifications, or remodeling, but 9525 the total net indebtedness of the district without a vote of the 9526 electors incurred under this and all other sections of the Revised 9527 Code, except section 3318.052 of the Revised Code, shall not 9528 exceed one per cent of the district's tax valuation. 9529

So long as any securities issued under division (G) of this 9530 section remain outstanding, the board of education shall monitor 9531 the energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance 9532 costs of buildings in which installations or modifications have 9533 been made or remodeling has been done pursuant to division (G) of 9534 this section and shall maintain and annually update a report 9535 documenting the reductions in energy consumption and resultant 9536 operational and maintenance cost savings attributable to such 9537 installations, modifications, or remodeling. The report shall be 9538 certified by an architect or engineer independent of any person 9539 that provided goods or services to the board in connection with 9540 the energy conservation measures that are the subject of the 9541 report. The resultant operational and maintenance cost savings 9542 shall be certified by the school district treasurer. The report 9543 shall be ~~made available~~ submitted annually to the commission ~~upon~~ 9544 ~~request~~. 9545

(H) With the consent of the superintendent of public 9546 instruction, a school district may incur without a vote of the 9547 electors net indebtedness that exceeds the amounts stated in 9548 divisions (A) and (G) of this section for the purpose of paying 9549 costs of permanent improvements, if and to the extent that both of 9550
the following conditions are satisfied: 9551

(1) The fiscal officer of the school district estimates that 9552 receipts of the school district from payments made under or 9553 pursuant to agreements entered into pursuant to section 725.02, 9554 1728.10, 3735.671, 5709.081, 5709.082, 5709.40, 5709.41, 5709.62, 9555
5709.63, 5709.632, 5709.73, 5709.78, or 5709.82 of the Revised 9556
Code, or distributions under division (C) of section 5709.43 of 9557 the Revised Code, or any combination thereof, are, after 9558 accounting for any appropriate coverage requirements, sufficient 9559 in time and amount, and are committed by the proceedings, to pay 9560 the debt charges on the securities issued to evidence that 9561 indebtedness and payable from those receipts, and the taxing 9562 authority of the district confirms the fiscal officer's estimate, 9563 which confirmation is approved by the superintendent of public 9564 instruction; 9565

(2) The fiscal officer of the school district certifies, and 9566 the taxing authority of the district confirms, that the district, 9567 at the time of the certification and confirmation, reasonably 9568 expects to have sufficient revenue available for the purpose of 9569 operating such permanent improvements for their intended purpose 9570 upon acquisition or completion thereof, and the superintendent of 9571 public instruction approves the taxing authority's confirmation. 9572

The maximum maturity of securities issued under division (H) 9573 of this section shall be the lesser of twenty years or the maximum 9574 maturity calculated under section 133.20 of the Revised Code. 9575

(I) A school district may incur net indebtedness by the 9576 issuance of securities in accordance with the provisions of this 9577 chapter in excess of the limit specified in division (B) or (C) of 9578 this section when necessary to raise the school district portion 9579 of the basic project cost and any additional funds necessary to 9580 participate in a project under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, 9581 including the cost of items designated by the Ohio school 9582 facilities commission as required locally funded initiatives and 9583 the cost for site acquisition. The school facilities commission 9584 shall notify the superintendent of public instruction whenever a 9585 school district will exceed either limit pursuant to this 9586
division. 9587

(J) A school district whose portion of the basic project cost 9588 of its classroom facilities project under sections 3318.01 to 9589 3318.20 of the Revised Code is greater than or equal to one 9590 hundred million dollars may incur without a vote of the electors 9591 net indebtedness in an amount up to two per cent of its tax 9592 valuation through the issuance of general obligation securities in 9593 order to generate all or part of the amount of its portion of the 9594 basic project cost if the controlling board has approved the 9595 school facilities commission's conditional approval of the project 9596 under section 3318.04 of the Revised Code. The school district 9597 board and the Ohio school facilities commission shall include the 9598 dedication of the proceeds of such securities in the agreement 9599 entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. No state 9600 moneys shall be released for a project to which this section 9601 applies until the proceeds of any bonds issued under this section 9602 that are dedicated for the payment of the school district portion 9603 of the project are first deposited into the school district's 9604 project construction fund. 9605

Sec. 133.18. (A) The taxing authority of a subdivision may by 9606 legislation submit to the electors of the subdivision the question 9607 of issuing any general obligation bonds, for one purpose, that the 9608 subdivision has power or authority to issue. 9609

(B) When the taxing authority of a subdivision desires or is 9610 required by law to submit the question of a bond issue to the 9611 electors, it shall pass legislation that does all of the 9612
following: 9613

(1) Declares the necessity and purpose of the bond issue; 9614

(2) States the date of the authorized election at which the 9615 question shall be submitted to the electors; 9616

(3) States the amount, approximate date, estimated net 9617 average rate of interest, and maximum number of years over which 9618 the principal of the bonds may be paid; 9619

(4) Declares the necessity of levying a tax outside the tax 9620 limitation to pay the debt charges on the bonds and any 9621 anticipatory securities. 9622

The estimated net average interest rate shall be determined 9623 by the taxing authority based on, among other factors, then 9624 existing market conditions, and may reflect adjustments for any 9625 anticipated direct payments expected to be received by the taxing 9626 authority from the government of the United States relating to the 9627 bonds and the effect of any federal tax credits anticipated to be 9628 available to owners of all or a portion of the bonds. The 9629 estimated net average rate of interest, and any statutory or 9630 charter limit on interest rates that may then be in effect and 9631 that is subsequently amended, shall not be a limitation on the 9632 actual interest rate or rates on the securities when issued. 9633

(C)(1) The taxing authority shall certify a copy of the 9634 legislation passed under division (B) of this section to the 9635 county auditor. The county auditor shall promptly calculate and 9636 advise and, not later than seventy-five days before the election, 9637 confirm that advice by certification to, the taxing authority the 9638 estimated average annual property tax levy, expressed in cents or 9639 dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation 9640 and in mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, that the county 9641 auditor estimates to be required throughout the stated maturity of 9642 the bonds to pay the debt charges on the bonds. In calculating the 9643 estimated average annual property tax levy for this purpose, the 9644 county auditor shall assume that the bonds are issued in one 9645 series bearing interest and maturing in substantially equal 9646 principal amounts in each year over the maximum number of years 9647 over which the principal of the bonds may be paid as stated in 9648 that legislation, and that the amount of the tax valuation of the 9649 subdivision for the current year remains the same throughout the 9650 maturity of the bonds, except as otherwise provided in division 9651 (C)(2) of this section. If the tax valuation for the current year 9652 is not determined, the county auditor shall base the calculation 9653 on the estimated amount of the tax valuation submitted by the 9654 county auditor to the county budget commission. If the subdivision 9655 is located in more than one county, the county auditor shall 9656 obtain the assistance of the county auditors of the other 9657 counties, and those county auditors shall provide assistance, in 9658 establishing the tax valuation of the subdivision for purposes of 9659 certifying the estimated average annual property tax levy. 9660

(2) When considering the tangible personal property component 9661 of the tax valuation of the subdivision, the county auditor shall 9662 take into account the assessment percentages prescribed in section 9663 5711.22 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may issue rules, 9664 orders, or instructions directing how the assessment percentages 9665 must be utilized. 9666

(D) After receiving the county auditor's advice under 9667 division (C) of this section, the taxing authority by legislation 9668 may determine to proceed with submitting the question of the issue 9669 of securities, and shall, not later than the seventy-fifth day 9670 before the day of the election, file the following with the board 9671 of elections: 9672

(1) Copies of the legislation provided for in divisions (B) 9673 and (D) of this section; 9674

(2) The amount of the estimated average annual property tax 9675 levy, expressed in cents or dollars and cents for each one hundred 9676 dollars of tax valuation and in mills for each one dollar of tax 9677 valuation, as estimated and certified to the taxing authority by 9678 the county auditor. 9679

(E)(1) The board of elections shall prepare the ballots and 9680 make other necessary arrangements for the submission of the 9681 question to the electors of the subdivision. If the subdivision is 9682 located in more than one county, the board shall inform the boards 9683 of elections of the other counties of the filings with it, and 9684 those other boards shall if appropriate make the other necessary 9685 arrangements for the election in their counties. The election 9686 shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the manner 9687 provided in Title XXXV of the Revised Code. 9688

(2) The election shall be held at the regular places for 9689 voting in the subdivision. If the electors of only a part of a 9690 precinct are qualified to vote at the election the board of 9691 elections may assign the electors in that part to an adjoining 9692 precinct, including an adjoining precinct in another county if the 9693 board of elections of the other county consents to and approves 9694 the assignment. Each elector so assigned shall be notified of that 9695 fact prior to the election by notice mailed by the board of 9696 elections, in such manner as it determines, prior to the election. 9697

(3) The board of elections shall publish a notice of the 9698 election, once in ~~one or more newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 9699 circulation in the subdivision, ~~at least once~~ no later than ten 9700 days prior to the election. The notice shall state all of the 9701
following: 9702

(a) The principal amount of the proposed bond issue; 9703

(b) The stated purpose for which the bonds are to be issued; 9704

(c) The maximum number of years over which the principal of 9705
the bonds may be paid; 9706

(d) The estimated additional average annual property tax 9707
levy, expressed in cents or dollars and cents for each one hundred 9708 dollars of tax valuation and in mills for each one dollar of tax 9709 valuation, to be levied outside the tax limitation, as estimated 9710 and certified to the taxing authority by the county auditor; 9711

(e) The first calendar year in which the tax is expected to 9712 be due. 9713

(F)(1) The form of the ballot to be used at the election 9714 shall be substantially either of the following, as applicable: 9715

(a) "Shall bonds be issued by the (name of 9716

subdivision) for the purpose of (purpose of the bond 9717 issue) in the principal amount of (principal amount of 9718 the bond issue), to be repaid annually over a maximum period of 9719 (the maximum number of years over which the principal 9720 of the bonds may be paid) years, and an annual levy of property 9721 taxes be made outside the (as applicable, "ten-mill" or 9722 "...charter tax") limitation, estimated by the county auditor to 9723 average over the repayment period of the bond issue 9724 (number of mills) mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, 9725 which amounts to (rate expressed in cents or dollars 9726 and cents, such as "36 cents" or "$1.41") for each one hundred 9727 dollars of tax valuation, commencing in (first year the 9728 tax will be levied), first due in calendar year (first 9729 calendar year in which the tax shall be due), to pay the annual 9730 debt charges on the bonds, and to pay debt charges on any notes 9731 issued in anticipation of those bonds? 9732

 (b) In the case of an election held pursuant to legislation 9737 adopted under section 3375.43 or 3375.431 of the Revised Code: 9738
 "Shall bonds be issued for (name of library) for 9739 the purpose of (purpose of the bond issue), in the 9740 principal amount of (amount of the bond issue) by 9741 (the name of the subdivision that is to issue the bonds 9742 and levy the tax) as the issuer of the bonds, to be repaid 9743 annually over a maximum period of (the maximum number 9744 of years over which the principal of the bonds may be paid) years, 9745 and an annual levy of property taxes be made outside the ten-mill 9746 limitation, estimated by the county auditor to average over the 9747 repayment period of the bond issue (number of mills) 9748 mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, which amounts to 9749 (rate expressed in cents or dollars and cents, such as 9750

(2) The purpose for which the bonds are to be issued shall be 9761 printed in the space indicated, in boldface type. 9762

(G) The board of elections shall promptly certify the results 9763 of the election to the tax commissioner, the county auditor of 9764 each county in which any part of the subdivision is located, and 9765 the fiscal officer of the subdivision. The election, including the 9766 proceedings for and result of the election, is incontestable other 9767 than in a contest filed under section 3515.09 of the Revised Code 9768 in which the plaintiff prevails. 9769

(H) If a majority of the electors voting upon the question 9770 vote for it, the taxing authority of the subdivision may proceed 9771 under sections 133.21 to 133.33 of the Revised Code with the 9772 issuance of the securities and with the levy and collection of a 9773 property tax outside the tax limitation during the period the 9774 securities are outstanding sufficient in amount to pay the debt 9775 charges on the securities, including debt charges on any 9776 anticipatory securities required to be paid from that tax. If 9777 legislation passed under section 133.22 or 133.23 of the Revised 9778 Code authorizing those securities is filed with the county auditor 9779 on or before the last day of November, the amount of the voted 9780 property tax levy required to pay debt charges or estimated debt 9781 charges on the securities payable in the following year shall if 9782 requested by the taxing authority be included in the taxes levied 9783 for collection in the following year under section 319.30 of the 9784

Revised Code. 9785

(I)(1) If, before any securities authorized at an election 9786 under this section are issued, the net indebtedness of the 9787 subdivision exceeds that applicable to that subdivision or those 9788 securities, then and so long as that is the case none of the 9789 securities may be issued. 9790

(2) No securities authorized at an election under this 9791 section may be initially issued after the first day of the sixth 9792 January following the election, but this period of limitation 9793 shall not run for any time during which any part of the permanent 9794 improvement for which the securities have been authorized, or the 9795 issuing or validity of any part of the securities issued or to be 9796 issued, or the related proceedings, is involved or questioned 9797 before a court or a commission or other tribunal, administrative 9798 agency, or board. 9799

(3) Securities representing a portion of the amount 9800 authorized at an election that are issued within the applicable 9801 limitation on net indebtedness are valid and in no manner affected 9802 by the fact that the balance of the securities authorized cannot 9803 be issued by reason of the net indebtedness limitation or lapse of 9804
time. 9805

(4) Nothing in this division (I) shall be interpreted or 9806 applied to prevent the issuance of securities in an amount to fund 9807 or refund anticipatory securities lawfully issued. 9808

(5) The limitations of divisions (I)(1) and (2) of this 9809 section do not apply to any securities authorized at an election 9810 under this section if at least ten per cent of the principal 9811 amount of the securities, including anticipatory securities, 9812 authorized has theretofore been issued, or if the securities are 9813 to be issued for the purpose of participating in any federally or 9814 state-assisted program. 9815

(6) The certificate of the fiscal officer of the subdivision 9816 is conclusive proof of the facts referred to in this division. 9817

Sec. 133.20. (A) This section applies to bonds that are 9818 general obligation Chapter 133. securities. If the bonds are 9819 payable as to principal by provision for annual installments, the 9820 period of limitations on their last maturity, referred to as their 9821 maximum maturity, shall be measured from a date twelve months 9822 prior to the first date on which provision for payment of 9823 principal is made. If the bonds are payable as to principal by 9824 provision for semiannual installments, the period of limitations 9825 on their last maturity shall be measured from a date six months 9826 prior to the first date on which provision for payment of 9827
principal is made. 9828

(B) Bonds issued for the following permanent improvements or 9829 for permanent improvements for the following purposes shall have 9830 maximum maturities not exceeding the number of years stated: 9831

(1) Fifty years: 9832

(a) The clearance and preparation of real property for 9833 redevelopment as an urban redevelopment project; 9834

(b) Acquiring, constructing, widening, relocating, enlarging, 9835 extending, and improving a publicly owned railroad or line of 9836 railway or a light or heavy rail rapid transit system, including 9837 related bridges, overpasses, underpasses, and tunnels, but not 9838 including rolling stock or equipment; 9839

(c) Pursuant to section 307.675 of the Revised Code, 9840 constructing or repairing a bridge using long life expectancy	9841 material for the bridge deck, and purchasing, installing, and	9842 maintaining any performance equipment to monitor the physical	9843 condition of a bridge so constructed or repaired. Additionally,	9844

the average maturity of the bonds shall not exceed the expected	9845 useful life of the bridge deck as determined by the county	9846 engineer under that section.	9847
(2) Forty years:	9848
(a) General waterworks or water system permanent	9849 improvements, including buildings, water mains, or other	9850 structures and facilities in connection therewith;	9851
(b) Sewers or sewage treatment or disposal works or	9852 facilities, including fireproof buildings or other structures in	9853 connection therewith;	9854
(c) Storm water drainage, surface water, and flood prevention	9855
facilities.	9856
(3) Thirty-five years:	9857
(a) An arena, a convention center, or a combination of an	9858 arena and convention center under section 307.695 of the Revised	9859
Code;	9860
(b) Sports facilities.	9861
(4) Thirty years:	9862
(a) Municipal recreation, excluding recreational equipment;	9863
(b) Urban redevelopment projects;	9864
(c) Acquisition of real property, except as provided in	9865 division (F) of this section;	9866
(d) Street or alley lighting purposes or relocating overhead	9867 wires, cables, and appurtenant equipment underground.	9868
(5) Twenty years: constructing, reconstructing, widening,	9869

opening, improving, grading, draining, paving, extending, or	9870 changing the line of roads, highways, expressways, freeways,	9871 streets, sidewalks, alleys, or curbs and gutters, and related	9872
bridges, viaducts, overpasses, underpasses, grade crossing	9873
eliminations, service and access highways, and tunnels.	9874
(6) Fifteen years:	9875
(a) Resurfacing roads, highways, streets, or alleys;	9876
(b) Alarm, telegraph, or other communications systems for	9877
police or fire departments or other emergency services;	9878
(c) Passenger buses used for mass transportation;	9879
(d) Energy conservation measures as authorized by section	9880
133.06 of the Revised Code.	9881
(7) Ten years:	9882
(a) Water meters;	9883
(b) Fire department apparatus and equipment;	9884
(c) Road rollers and other road construction and servicing	9885 vehicles;	9886
(d) Furniture, equipment, and furnishings;	9887
(e) Landscape planting and other site improvements;	9888
(f) Playground, athletic, and recreational equipment and	9889 apparatus;	9890
(g) Energy conservation measures as authorized by section	9891
505.264 of the Revised Code.	9892
(8) Five years: New motor vehicles other than those described	9893
in any other division of this section and those for which	9894 provision is made in other provisions of the Revised Code.	9895
(C) Bonds issued for any permanent improvements not within	9896
the categories set forth in division (B) of this section shall	9897

(D) Securities issued under section 505.265 of the Revised Code shall mature not later than December 31, 2035.

(E) A securities issue for one purpose may include permanent improvements within two or more categories under divisions (B) and (C) of this section. The maximum maturity of such a bond issue shall not exceed the average number of years of life or period of usefulness of the permanent improvements as measured by the weighted average of the amounts expended or proposed to be expended for the categories of permanent improvements.

(F) Securities issued by a school district or county to acquire or construct real property shall have a maximum maturity longer than thirty years, but not longer than forty years, if the ~~school district's~~ fiscal officer of the school district or county estimates the real property's useful life to be longer than thirty years, and certifies that estimate to the board of education or board of county commissioners, respectively.

Sec. 133.55. Before adopting any reassessment provided for in section 133.54 of the Revised Code, the fiscal officer shall prepare and file for public inspection a list containing the names of the owners, a tax duplicate description of each parcel of land on which the reassessment will be levied, and the total amount to 9929 be reassessed, separately stated as to each parcel, and the taxing 9930 authority shall publish notice for two consecutive weeks in a 9931 newspaper of general circulation in the political subdivision, or 9932 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, that such 9933 reassessment has been prepared by the fiscal officer and that it 9934 is on file in ~~his~~ the fiscal officer's office for the inspection 9935 and examination of the persons interested therein. Sections 9936 727.13, 727.15, and 727.16 of the Revised Code do not apply to any 9937 such assessments, but any person may file objections in writing 9938 with the fiscal officer within one week after the expiration of 9939 such notice and the taxing authority shall hear and determine any 9940 such objections at its next meeting. Such objections shall be 9941 limited solely to matters of description of parcels and owners and 9942 of computations of amounts, and no matters concluded by any 9943 proceedings on the original assessments shall form the basis for 9944 any such objections. When the reassessment list is confirmed by 9945 the taxing authority, it shall be complete and final and shall be 9946 recorded in the office of the fiscal officer. 9947

Sec. 135.05. Each governing board shall, at least three weeks 9948 prior to the date when it is required by section 135.12 of the 9949 Revised Code to designate public depositories, by resolution, 9950 estimate the aggregate maximum amount of public moneys subject to 9951 its control to be awarded and be on deposit as inactive deposits. 9952
The state board of deposit shall cause a copy of such resolution, 9953 together with a notice of the date on which the meeting of the 9954 board for the designation of such depositories will be held and 9955 the period for which such inactive deposits will be awarded, to be 9956 published once a week for two consecutive weeks in two newspapers 9957 of general circulation in each of the three most populous 9958 counties. The governing board of each subdivision shall cause a 9959 copy of such resolution, together with a notice of the date on 9960 which the meeting of the board for the designation of such 9961 depositories will be held and the period for which such inactive 9962 deposits will be awarded, to be published once a week for two 9963 consecutive weeks in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of ~~opposite~~ 9964 ~~politics and of~~ general circulation in the county or as provided 9965 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If a subdivision is located 9966 in more than one county, such publication shall be made in 9967 ~~newspapers published~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the 9968 county in which the major part of such subdivision is located, and 9969 of general circulation in the subdivision. A written notice 9970 stating the aggregate maximum amount to be awarded as inactive 9971 deposits of the subdivision shall be given to each eligible 9972 depository by the governing board at the time the first 9973 publication is made in the ~~newspapers~~ newspaper. 9974

All deposits of the public moneys of the state or any 9975 subdivision made during the period covered by the designation in 9976 excess of the aggregate amount so estimated shall be active 9977 deposits or interim deposits. Inactive, interim, and active 9978 deposits shall be separately awarded, made, and administered as 9979 provided by sections 135.01 to 135.21, ~~inclusive~~, of the Revised 9980
Code. 9981

Sec. 135.61. As used in sections 135.61 to 135.67 of the 9982
Revised Code: 9983

(A) "Eligible small business" means any person, including, 9984 but not limited to a person engaged in agriculture, that has all 9985 of the following characteristics: 9986

(1) Is headquartered in this state; 9987

(2) Maintains offices and operating facilities exclusively in 9988 this state and transacts business in this state; 9989

(3) Employs fewer than one hundred fifty employees, the 9990 majority of whom are residents of this state; 9991

(4) Is organized for profit. 9992

(B) "Eligible lending institution" means a financial 9993 institution that is eligible to make commercial loans, is a public 9994 depository of state funds under section 135.03 of the Revised 9995
Code, and agrees to participate in the linked deposit program. 9996

(C) "Linked deposit" means a certificate of deposit or other 9997 financial institution instrument placed by the treasurer of state 9998 with an eligible lending institution at a rate below current 9999 market rates, as determined and calculated by the treasurer of 10000 state, provided the institution agrees to lend the value of such 10001 deposit, according to the deposit agreement provided in division 10002 (C) of section 135.65 of the Revised Code, to eligible small 10003 businesses at a rate that reflects an equal percentage rate 10004 reduction below the present borrowing rate applicable to each 10005 specific business at the time of the deposit of state funds in the 10006 institution. 10007

(D) "Other financial institution instrument" has the same 10008 meaning as in section 135.81 of the Revised Code. 10009

Sec. 135.65. (A) The treasurer of state may accept or reject 10010 a linked deposit loan package or any portion thereof, based on the 10011 treasurer's evaluation of the eligible small businesses included 10012 in the package and the amount of state funds to be deposited. When 10013 evaluating the eligible small businesses, the treasurer shall give 10014 priority to the economic needs of the area where the business is 10015 located and the ratio of state funds to be deposited to jobs 10016 sustained or created and shall also consider any reports, 10017 statements, or plans applicable to the business, the overall 10018 financial need of the business, and such other factors as the 10019 treasurer considers appropriate. 10020

(B) Upon acceptance of the linked deposit loan package or any portion thereof, the treasurer of state may place certificates of deposit or other financial institution instruments with the eligible lending institution at a rate below current market rates, as determined and calculated by the treasurer of state. When necessary, the treasurer may place certificates of deposit or other financial institution instruments prior to acceptance of a linked deposit loan package.

(C) The eligible lending institution shall enter into a deposit agreement with the treasurer of state, which shall include requirements necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 135.61 to 135.67 of the Revised Code. Such requirements shall reflect the market conditions prevailing in the eligible lending institution's lending area. The agreement may include a specification of the period of time in which the lending institution is to lend funds upon the placement of a linked deposit, and shall include provisions for the certificates of deposit or other financial institution instruments to be placed for any maturity considered appropriate by the treasurer of state not to exceed two years, and may be renewed for up to an additional two years at the option of the treasurer. Interest shall be paid at the times determined by the treasurer of state.

(D) Eligible lending institutions shall comply fully with Chapter 135. of the Revised Code.

Sec. 135.66. (A) Upon the placement of a linked deposit with an eligible lending institution, such institution is required to lend such funds to each approved eligible small business listed in the linked deposit loan package required by division (D) of section 135.64 of the Revised Code and in accordance with the deposit agreement required by division (C) of section 135.65 of the Revised Code. The loan shall be at a rate that reflects a percentage rate reduction below the present borrowing rate 10052 applicable to each business that is equal to the percentage rate 10053 reduction below market rates at which the ~~certificate~~ certificates 10054 of ~~deposits~~ deposit or other financial institution instruments 10055 that constitute the linked deposit were placed. A certification of 10056 compliance with this section in the form and manner as prescribed 10057 by the treasurer of state shall be required of the eligible 10058 lending institution. 10059

(B) The treasurer of state shall take any and all steps 10060 necessary to implement the linked deposit program and monitor 10061 compliance of eligible lending institutions and eligible small 10062 businesses, including the development of guidelines as necessary. 10063
The treasurer of state and the department of development shall 10064 notify each other at least quarterly of the names of the 10065 businesses receiving financial assistance from their respective 10066
programs. 10067

Annually, by the first day of February, the treasurer of 10068 state shall report on the linked deposits program for the 10069 preceding calendar year to the governor, the speaker of the house 10070 of representatives, and the president of the senate. The speaker 10071 of the house shall transmit copies of this report to the 10072 chairpersons of the standing committees in the house which 10073 customarily consider legislation regarding agriculture and small 10074 business, and the president of the senate shall transmit copies of 10075 this report to the chairpersons of the standing committees in the 10076 senate which customarily consider legislation regarding 10077 agriculture and small business. The report shall set forth the 10078 linked deposits made by the treasurer of state under the program 10079 during the year and shall include information regarding the 10080 nature, terms, and amounts of the loans upon which the linked 10081 deposits were based and the eligible small businesses to which the 10082 loans were made. 10083

Sec. 145.27. (A)(1) As used in this division, "personal history record" means information maintained by the public employees retirement board on an individual who is a member, former member, contributor, former contributor, retirant, or beneficiary that includes the address, telephone number, social security number, record of contributions, correspondence with the public employees retirement system, or other information the board determines to be confidential.

(2) The records of the board shall be open to public inspection, except that the following shall be excluded, except with the written authorization of the individual concerned:

(a) The individual's statement of previous service and other information as provided for in section 145.16 of the Revised Code;

(b) The amount of a monthly allowance or benefit paid to the individual;

(c) The individual's personal history record.

(B) All medical reports and recommendations required by this chapter are privileged, except that copies of such medical reports or recommendations shall be made available to the personal physician, attorney, or authorized agent of the individual concerned upon written release from the individual or the individual's agent, or when necessary for the proper administration of the fund, to the board assigned physician.

(C) Any person who is a member or contributor of the system shall be furnished with a statement of the amount to the credit of the individual's account upon written request. The board is not required to answer more than one such request of a person in any one year. The board may issue annual statements of accounts to members and contributors.

(D) Notwithstanding the exceptions to public inspection in division (A)(2) of this section, the board may furnish the 10114

following information: 10115

(1) If a member, former member, contributor, former 10116 contributor, or retirant is subject to an order issued under 10117 section 2907.15 of the Revised Code or an order issued under 10118 division (A) or (B) of section 2929.192 of the Revised Code or is 10119 convicted of or pleads guilty to a violation of section 2921.41 of 10120 the Revised Code, on written request of a prosecutor as defined in 10121 section 2935.01 of the Revised Code, the board shall furnish to 10122 the prosecutor the information requested from the individual's 10123 personal history record. 10124

(2) Pursuant to a court or administrative order issued 10125 pursuant to Chapter 3119., 3121., 3123., or 3125. of the Revised 10126 Code, the board shall furnish to a court or child support 10127 enforcement agency the information required under that section. 10128

(3) At the written request of any person, the board shall 10129 provide to the person a list of the names and addresses of 10130 members, former members, contributors, former contributors, 10131 retirants, or beneficiaries. The costs of compiling, copying, and 10132 mailing the list shall be paid by such person. 10133

(4) Within fourteen days after receiving from the director of 10134 job and family services a list of the names and social security 10135 numbers of recipients of public assistance pursuant to section 10136 5101.181 of the Revised Code, the board shall inform the auditor 10137 of state of the name, current or most recent employer address, and 10138 social security number of each member whose name and social 10139 security number are the same as that of a person whose name or 10140 social security number was submitted by the director. The board 10141 and its employees shall, except for purposes of furnishing the 10142 auditor of state with information required by this section, 10143 preserve the confidentiality of recipients of public assistance in 10144 compliance with ~~division (A) of~~ section 5101.181 of the Revised 10145

Code. 10146

(5) The system shall comply with orders issued under section 10147

On the written request of an alternate payee, as defined in 10149 section 3105.80 of the Revised Code, the system shall furnish to 10150 the alternate payee information on the amount and status of any 10151 amounts payable to the alternate payee under an order issued under 10152
section 3105.171 or 3105.65 of the Revised Code. 10153

(6) At the request of any person, the board shall make 10154 available to the person copies of all documents, including 10155 resumes, in the board's possession regarding filling a vacancy of 10156 an employee member or retirant member of the board. The person who 10157 made the request shall pay the cost of compiling, copying, and 10158 mailing the documents. The information described in division 10159 (D)(6) of this section is a public record. 10160 or multilith, or printed internally or through a contract awarded 10276 to any person, company, or the state printing division of the 10277 department of administrative services, shall cause to be delivered 10278 to the state library one hundred copies of the publication, 10279 subject to the provisions of section 125.42 of the Revised Code. 10280

The state library board shall distribute the publications so 10281 received as follows: 10282

(A) Retain two copies in the state library; 10283

(B) Send two copies to the document division of the library 10284 of congress; 10285

(C) Send one copy to the Ohio historical society and to each 10286 public or college library in the state designated by the state 10287 library board to be a depository for state publications. In 10288 designating which libraries shall be depositories, the board shall 10289 select those libraries that can best preserve those publications 10290 and that are so located geographically as will make the 10291 publications conveniently accessible to residents in all areas of 10292
the state. 10293

(D) Send one copy to each state in exchange for like 10294 publications of that state. 10295

The provisions of this section ~~shall~~ do not apply to any 10296 publication of the general assembly or to the publications 10297 described in sections 149.07, 149.08, 149.091, and 149.17 of the 10298

Revised Code, except that the secretary of state shall forward to 10299 the document division of the library of congress two copies of all 10300 journals, two copies of the session laws ~~in bound form~~ as provided 10301 for in section 149.091 of the Revised Code, and two copies of all 10302 appropriation laws in separate form. 10303

Sec. 149.308. There is hereby created in the state treasury 10304 the Ohio historical society income tax contribution fund, which 10305 shall consist of money contributed to it under section 5747.113 of 10306 the Revised Code for taxable years beginning on or after January 10307 1, 2011, and of contributions made directly to it. Any person may 10308 contribute directly to the fund in addition to or independently of 10309 the income tax refund contribution system established in section 10310

The Ohio historical society shall use money credited to the 10312 fund in furtherance of the public functions with which the society 10313 is charged under section 149.30 of the Revised Code. 10314

Sec. 149.311. (A) As used in this section: 10315

(1) "Historic building" means a building, including its 10316 structural components, that is located in this state and that is 10317 either individually listed on the national register of historic 10318 places under 16 U.S.C. 470a, located in a registered historic 10319 district, and certified by the state historic preservation officer 10320 as being of historic significance to the district, or is 10321 government certified under 16 U.S.C. 470a(c). 10323

(2) "Qualified rehabilitation expenditures" means 10324 expenditures paid or incurred during the rehabilitation period, 10325 and before and after that period as determined under 26 U.S.C. 47, 10326 by an owner of a historic building to rehabilitate the building. 10327
"Qualified rehabilitation expenditures" includes architectural or 10328 engineering fees paid or incurred in connection with the	10329 rehabilitation, and expenses incurred in the preparation of	10330 nomination forms for listing on the national register of historic	10331 places. "Qualified rehabilitation expenditures" does not include	10332

any of the following:	10333
(a) The cost of acquiring, expanding, or enlarging a historic	10334
building;	10335
(b) Expenditures attributable to work done to facilities	10336 related to the building, such as parking lots, sidewalks, and	10337
landscaping;	10338
(c) New building construction costs.	10339
(3) "Owner" of a historic building means a person holding the	10340 fee simple interest in the building. "Owner" does not include the	10341 state or a state agency, or any political subdivision as defined	10342
in section 9.23 of the Revised Code.	10343
(4) "Certificate owner" means the owner of a historic	10344 building to which a rehabilitation tax credit certificate was	10345
issued under this section.	10346
(5) "Registered historic district" means a historic district	10347 listed in the national register of historic places under 16 U.S.C.	10348
470a, a historic district designated by a local government	10349 certified under 16 U.S.C. 470a(c), or a local historic district	10350
certified under 36 C.F.R. 67.8 and 67.9.	10351
(6) "Rehabilitation" means the process of repairing or	10352 altering a historic building or buildings, making possible an	10353 efficient use while preserving those portions and features of the	10354 building and its site and environment that are significant to its	10355 historic, architectural, and cultural values.	10356
(7) "Rehabilitation period" means one of the following:	10357
(a) If the rehabilitation initially was not planned to be	10358

completed in stages, a period chosen by the owner not to exceed 10359 twenty-four months during which rehabilitation occurs; 10360

(b) If the rehabilitation initially was planned to be 10361 completed in stages, a period chosen by the owner not to exceed 10362 sixty months during which rehabilitation occurs. 10363

(8) "State historic preservation officer" or "officer" means 10364 the state historic preservation officer appointed by the governor 10365 under 16 U.S.C. 470a. 10366

~~(9) "Application period" means any of the following time 10367 periods for which an application for a rehabilitation tax credit 10368 certificate may be filed under this section: 10369~~

~~(a) July 1, 2007, through June 30, 2008; 10370~~

~~(b) July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2010; 10371~~

~~(c) July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011. 10372~~

(B) ~~For any application period, the~~ The owner of a historic 10373 building may apply to the state historic preservation officer for 10374 a rehabilitation tax credit certificate for qualified 10375 rehabilitation expenditures paid or incurred after April 4, 2007, 10376 for rehabilitation of a historic building. The form and manner of 10377 filing such applications shall be prescribed by rule of the 10378 director of development, ~~and, except as otherwise provided in~~ 10379 ~~division (D) of this section, applications expire at the end of~~ 10380
~~each application period.~~ Each application shall state the amount 10381 of qualified rehabilitation expenditures the applicant estimates 10382 will be paid or incurred. The director may require applicants to 10383 furnish documentation of such estimates. 10384

The director, after consultation with the tax commissioner 10385 and in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall 10386 adopt rules that establish all of the following: 10387

(1) Forms and procedures by which applicants may apply for 10388

rehabilitation tax credit certificates;	10389
(2) Criteria for reviewing, evaluating, and approving applications for certificates within the limitations under division (D) of this section, criteria for assuring that the certificates issued encompass a mixture of high and low qualified rehabilitation expenditures, and criteria for issuing certificates under division (C)(3)(b) of this section;	10390 10391 10392 10393 10394 10395
(3) Eligibility requirements for obtaining a certificate under this section;	10396 10397
(4) The form of rehabilitation tax credit certificates;	10398
(5) Reporting requirements and monitoring procedures;	10399
(6) Any other rules necessary to implement and administer this section.	10400 10401
(C) The state historic preservation officer shall accept applications and forward them to the director of development, who shall review the applications and determine whether all of the following criteria are met:	10402 10403 10404 10405
(1) That the building that is the subject of the application is a historic building and the applicant is the owner of the building;	10406 10407 10408
(2) That the rehabilitation will satisfy standards prescribed by the United States secretary of the interior under 16 U.S.C. 470, et seq., as amended, and 36 C.F.R. 67.7 or a successor to that section;	10409 10410 10411 10412
(3) That receiving a rehabilitation tax credit certificate under this section is a major factor in:	10413 10414
(a) The applicant's decision to rehabilitate the historic building; or	10415 10416
(b) To increase the level of investment in such rehabilitation.	10417 10418

An applicant shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the state historic preservation officer and director of development that the rehabilitation will satisfy the standards described in division (C)(2) of this section before the applicant begins the physical rehabilitation of the historic building.

(D)(1) The director of development may approve an application and issue a rehabilitation tax credit certificate to an applicant only if the director determines that the criteria in divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section are met. The director shall consider the potential economic impact and the regional distributive balance of the credits throughout the state.

(2) A rehabilitation tax credit certificate shall not be issued before rehabilitation of a historic building is completed or for an amount greater than the estimated amount furnished by the applicant on the application for such certificate and approved by the director. The director shall not approve more than a total of ~~sixty~~ twenty-five million dollars of rehabilitation tax credits ~~for an application period per fiscal year.~~

~~(3) Of the sixty million dollars approved for application periods July 1, 2009, through June 30, 2010, and July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011, forty five million dollars shall be reserved in each application period for the award of rehabilitation tax credit certificates to applicants who, as of March 1, 2008, had filed completed applications that met the criteria described in divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section, who have not withdrawn the application, and who have not yet been approved to receive a certificate. If the total amount of credits awarded for such applications is less than forty five million dollars in an application period, the remainder shall be made available for other qualifying applications for that application period.~~

~~(4)~~ If an applicant whose application is approved for receipt of a rehabilitation tax credit certificate fails to provide to the 10451 director of development sufficient evidence of reviewable 10452 progress, including a viable financial plan, copies of final 10453 construction drawings, and evidence that the applicant has 10454 obtained all historic approvals within twelve months after the 10455 date the applicant received notification of approval, or if the 10456 applicant fails to provide evidence to the director of development 10457 that the applicant has secured and closed on financing for the 10458 rehabilitation within eighteen months after receiving notification 10459 of approval, the director shall notify the applicant that the 10460 approval has been rescinded. Credits that would have been 10461 available to an applicant whose approval was rescinded shall be 10462 available for other qualified applicants. Nothing in this division 10463 prohibits an applicant whose approval has been rescinded from 10464 submitting a new application for a rehabilitation tax credit 10465 certificate. 10466

(E) Issuance of a certificate represents a finding by the 10467 director of development of the matters described in divisions 10468 (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section only; issuance of a 10469 certificate does not represent a verification or certification by 10470 the director of the amount of qualified rehabilitation 10471 expenditures for which a tax credit may be claimed under section 10472 5725.151, 5725.34, 5729.17, 5733.47, or 5747.76 of the Revised 10473
Code. The amount of qualified rehabilitation expenditures for 10474 which a tax credit may be claimed is subject to inspection and 10475 examination by the tax commissioner or employees of the 10476 commissioner under section 5703.19 of the Revised Code and any 10477 other applicable law. Upon the issuance of a certificate, the 10478 director shall certify to the tax commissioner, in the form and 10479 manner requested by the tax commissioner, the name of the 10480 applicant, the amount of qualified rehabilitation expenditures 10481 shown on the certificate, and any other information required by 10482 the rules adopted under this section. 10483

(F)(1) On or before the first day of December ~~in 2007, 2008,~~ 10484 ~~2009, 2010, and 2011~~ each year, the director of development and 10485 tax commissioner jointly shall submit to the president of the 10486 senate and the speaker of the house of representatives a report on 10487 the tax credit program established under this section and sections 10488 5725.151, 5725.34, 5729.17, 5733.47, and 5747.76 of the Revised 10489
Code. The report shall present an overview of the program and 10490 shall include information on the number of rehabilitation tax 10491 credit certificates issued under this section during ~~an~~ 10492 ~~application period~~ the preceding fiscal year, an update on the 10493 status of each historic building for which an application was 10494 approved under this section, the dollar amount of the tax credits 10495 granted under sections 5725.151, 5725.34, 5729.17, 5733.47, and 10496 5747.76 of the Revised Code, and any other information the 10497 director and commissioner consider relevant to the topics 10498 addressed in the report. 10499

(2) On or before December 1, 2012, the director of 10500 development and tax commissioner jointly shall submit to the 10501 president of the senate and the speaker of the house of 10502 representatives a comprehensive report that includes the 10503 information required by division (F)(1) of this section and a 10504 detailed analysis of the effectiveness of issuing tax credits for 10505 rehabilitating historic buildings. The report shall be prepared 10506 with the assistance of an economic research organization jointly 10507 chosen by the director and commissioner. 10508

Sec. 153.01. (A) Whenever any building or structure for the 10509 use of the state or any institution supported in whole or in part 10510 by the state or in or upon the public works of the state that is 10511 administered by the director of administrative services or by any 10512 other state officer or state agency authorized by law to 10513 administer a project, including an educational institution listed 10514 in section 3345.50 of the Revised Code, is to be erected or 10515 constructed, whenever additions, alterations, or structural or 10516 other improvements are to be made, or whenever heating, cooling, 10517 or ventilating plants or other equipment is to be installed or 10518 material supplied therefor, the ~~aggregate estimated~~ cost of which 10519 amounts to ~~fifty two hundred~~ thousand dollars or more, or the 10520 amount determined pursuant to section 153.53 of the Revised Code 10521 or more, each officer, board, or other authority upon which 10522 devolves the duty of constructing, erecting, altering, or 10523 installing the same, referred to in sections 153.01 to 153.60 of 10524 the Revised Code as the ~~owner~~ public authority, shall cause to be 10525 made, by an architect or engineer whose contract of employment 10526 shall be prepared and approved by the attorney general, the 10527

following: 10528

~~(A)(1)~~ Full and accurate plans, suitable for the use of 10529 mechanics and other builders in the construction, improvement, 10530 addition, alteration, or installation; 10531

~~(B)(2)~~ Details to scale and full-sized, so drawn and 10532 represented as to be easily understood; 10533

~~(C)~~ ~~Accurate bills showing the exact quantity of different~~ 10534 ~~kinds of material necessary to the construction;~~ 10535

~~(D)(3)~~ Definite and complete specifications of the work to be 10536 performed, together with directions that will enable a competent 10537 mechanic or other builder to carry them out and afford bidders all 10538 needful information; 10539

~~(E)(4)~~ A full and accurate estimate of each item of expense 10540 and the aggregate cost of those items of expense; 10541

~~(F)(5)~~ A life-cycle cost analysis; 10542

~~(G)(6)~~ Further data as may be required by the department of 10543 administrative services. 10544

(B) The data described in divisions (A)(1) to (6) of this 10545 section shall not be required with respect to any work to be 10546 performed pursuant to a construction management contract entered 10547 into with a construction manager at risk as described in section 10548 9.334 of the Revised Code or pursuant to a design-build contract 10549 entered into with a design-build firm as described in section 10550

153.693 of the Revised Code. 10551

Sec. 153.02. (A) The director of administrative services, on 10552 the director's own initiative or upon request of the Ohio school 10553 facilities commission, may debar a contractor from contract awards 10554 for public improvements as referred to in section 153.01 of the 10555 Revised Code or for projects as defined in section 3318.01 of the 10556 Revised Code, upon proof that the contractor has done any of the 10557
following: 10558

(1) Defaulted on a contract requiring the execution of a 10559 takeover agreement as set forth in division (B) of section 153.17 10560

(2) Knowingly failed during the course of a contract to 10562 maintain the coverage required by the bureau of workers' 10563 compensation; 10564

(3) Knowingly failed during the course of a contract to 10565 maintain the contractor's drug-free workplace program as required 10566 by the contract; 10567

(4) Knowingly failed during the course of a contract to 10568 maintain insurance required by the contract or otherwise by law, 10569 resulting in a substantial loss to the owner, as owner is referred 10570 to in section 153.01 of the Revised Code, or to the commission and 10571 school district board, as provided in division (F) of section 10572
3318.08 of the Revised Code; 10573

(5) Misrepresented the firm's qualifications in the selection 10574 process set forth in sections 153.65 to 153.71 or section 3318.10 10575

(6) Been convicted of a criminal offense related to the 10577 application for or performance of any public or private contract, 10578 including, but not limited to, embezzlement, theft, forgery, 10579 bribery, falsification or destruction of records, receiving stolen 10580 property, and any other offense that directly reflects on the 10581 contractor's business integrity; 10582

(7) Been convicted of a criminal offense under state or 10583 federal antitrust laws; 10584

(8) Deliberately or willfully submitted false or misleading 10585 information in connection with the application for or performance 10586 of a public contract; 10587

(9) Been debarred from bidding on or participating in a 10588 contract with any state or federal agency. 10589

(B) When the director reasonably believes that grounds for 10590 debarment exist, the director shall send the contractor a notice 10591 of proposed debarment indicating the grounds for the proposed 10592 debarment and the procedure for requesting a hearing on the 10593 proposed debarment. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance 10594 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the contractor does not 10595 respond with a request for a hearing in the manner specified in 10596 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director shall issue the 10597 debarment decision without a hearing and shall notify the 10598 contractor of the decision by certified mail, return receipt 10599 requested. 10600

(C) The director shall determine the length of the debarment 10601 period and may rescind the debarment at any time upon notification 10602 to the contractor. During the period of debarment, the contractor 10603 is not eligible to bid for or participate in any contract for a 10604 public improvement as referred to in section 153.01 of the Revised 10605
Code or for a project as defined in section 3318.01 of the Revised 10606

Code. After the debarment period expires, the contractor shall be 10607 eligible to bid for and participate in such contracts ~~for a public~~ 10608 ~~improvement as referred to in section 153.01 of the Revised Code.~~ 10609

(D) The director, through the office of the state architect, 10610 shall maintain a list of all contractors currently debarred under 10611 this section. Any governmental entity awarding a contract for 10612 construction of a public improvement or project may use a 10613 contractor's presence on the debarment list to determine whether a 10614 contractor is responsible or best under section 9.312 or any other 10615 section of the Revised Code in the award of a contract. 10616

(a) Develop, implement, and provide to all employees a written substance use policy that conveys full and fair disclosure	10665

of the employer's expectations that no employee be at work with 10667 alcohol or drugs in the employee's system, and specifies the 10668 consequences for violating the policy. 10669

(b) Conduct drug and alcohol tests on employees in accordance 10670 with division (B)(2)(c) of this section and under the following 10671 conditions: 10672

(i) Prior to an individual's employment or during an 10673 employee's probationary period for employment, which shall not 10674 exceed one hundred twenty days after the probationary period 10675 begins; 10676

(ii) At random intervals while an employee provides labor or 10677 ~~onsite~~ on-site supervision of labor for a public improvement 10678 contract. The employer shall use the neutral selection procedures 10679 required by the United States department of transportation to 10680 determine which employees to test and when to test those 10681 employees. 10682

(iii) After an accident at the site where labor is being 10683 performed pursuant to a public improvement contract. For purposes 10684 of this division, "accident" has the meaning established in rules 10685 the administrator of workers' compensation adopts pursuant to 10686 Chapters 4121. and 4123. of the Revised Code for the bureau's 10687 drug-free workplace program, as those rules exist on ~~the effective~~ 10688 ~~date of this section~~ March 30, 2007. 10689

(iv) When the employer ~~or a~~ construction manager, 10690 construction manager at risk, or design-build firm has reasonable 10691 suspicion that prior to an accident an employee may be in 10692 violation of the employer's written substance use policy. For 10693 purposes of this division, "reasonable suspicion" has the meaning 10694 established in rules the administrator adopts pursuant to Chapters 10695 4121. and 4123. of the Revised Code for the bureau's drug-free 10696 workplace program, as those rules exist on ~~the effective date of~~ 10697

~~this section~~ March 30, 2007. 10698

(v) Prior to an employee returning to a work site to provide 10699 labor for a public improvement contract after the employee tested 10700 positive for drugs or alcohol, and again after the employee 10701 returns to that site to provide labor under that contract, as 10702 required by either the employer, ~~the~~ construction manager, 10703 construction manager at risk, design-build firm, or conditions in 10704 the contract. 10705

(c) Use the following types of tests when conducting a test 10706 on an employee under the conditions described in division 10707
(B)(2)(b) of this section: 10708

(i) Drug and alcohol testing that uses the federal testing 10709 model that the administrator has incorporated into the bureau's 10710 drug-free workplace program; 10711

(ii) Testing to determine whether the concentration of 10712 alcohol on an employee's breath is equal to or in excess of the 10713 level specified in division (A)(1)(d) or (h) of section 4511.19 of 10714 the Revised Code, which is obtained through an evidentiary breath 10715 test conducted by a breath alcohol technician using breath testing 10716 equipment that meets standards established by the United States 10717 department of transportation, or, if such technician and equipment 10718 are unavailable, a blood test may be used to determine whether the 10719 concentration of alcohol in an employee's blood is equal to or in 10720 excess of the level specified in division (A)(1)(b) or (f) of 10721
section 4511.19 of the Revised Code. 10722

(d) Require all employees to receive at least one hour of 10723 training that increases awareness of and attempts to deter 10724 substance abuse and supplies information about employee assistance 10725 to deal with substance abuse problems, and require all supervisors 10726 to receive one additional hour of training in skill building to 10727 teach a supervisor how to observe and document employee behavior 10728 and intervene when reasonable suspicion exists of substance use; 10729

(e) Require all supervisors and employees to receive the 10730 training described in division (B)(2)(d) of this section before 10731 work for a public improvement contract commences or during the 10732 term of a public improvement contract; 10733

(f) Require that the training described in division (B)(2)(d) 10734 of this section be provided using material prepared by an 10735 individual who has credentials or experience in substance abuse 10736 training; 10737

(g) Assist employees by providing, at a minimum, a list of 10738 community resources from which an employee may obtain help with 10739 substance abuse problems, except that this requirement does not 10740 preclude an employer from having a policy that allows an employer 10741 to terminate an employee's employment the first time the employee 10742 tests positive for drugs or alcohol or if an employee refuses to 10743 be tested for drugs, alcohol, or both. 10744

(C) Any time the United States department of health and human 10745 services changes the federal testing model that the administrator 10746 has incorporated into the bureau's drug-free workplace program in 10747 a manner that allows additional or new products, protocols, 10748 procedures, and standards in the model, the administrator may 10749 adopt rules establishing standards to allow employers to use those 10750 additional or new products, protocols, procedures, or standards to 10751 satisfy the requirements of division (B)(2)(c) of this section, 10752 and the bureau may approve an employer's drug-free workplace 10753 program that meets the administrator's standards and the other 10754 requirements specified in division (B)(2) of this section. 10755

(D) A contracting authority shall ensure that money 10756 appropriated by the general assembly for the contracting 10757 authority's public improvement contract or, in the case of a state 10758 institution of higher education, the institution's financing for 10759 the public improvement contract, is not expended unless the 10760 contractor for that contract is enrolled in and in good standing 10761 in a drug-free workplace program described in division (B) of this 10762 section. Prior to awarding a contract to a bidder, a contracting 10763 authority shall verify that the bidder is enrolled in and in good 10764 standing in such a program. 10765

(E) A contracting authority shall include all of the 10766 following statements in the public improvement contract entered 10767 into between the contracting authority and a contractor for the 10768 public improvement: 10769

(1) "Each contractor shall require all subcontractors with 10770 whom the contractor is in contract for the public improvement to 10771 be enrolled in and be in good standing in the Bureau of Workers' 10772 Compensation's Drug-Free Workplace Program or a comparable program 10773 approved by the Bureau that meets the requirements specified in 10774 section 153.03 of the Revised Code prior to a subcontractor 10775 providing labor at the project site of the public improvement." 10776

(2) "Each subcontractor shall require all lower-tier 10777 subcontractors with whom the subcontractor is in contract for the 10778 public improvement to be enrolled in and be in good standing in 10779 the Bureau of Workers' Compensation's Drug-Free Workplace Program 10780 or a comparable program approved by the Bureau that meets the 10781 requirements specified in section 153.03 of the Revised Code prior 10782 to a lower-tier subcontractor providing labor at the project site 10783 of the public improvement." 10784

(3) "Failure of a contractor to require a subcontractor to be 10785 enrolled in and be in good standing in the Bureau of Workers' 10786 Compensation's Drug-Free Workplace Program or a comparable program 10787 approved by the Bureau that meets the requirements specified in 10788 section 153.03 of the Revised Code prior to the time that the 10789 subcontractor provides labor at the project site will result in 10790 the contractor being found in breach of the contract and that 10791 breach shall be used in the responsibility analysis of that 10792 contractor or the subcontractor who was not enrolled in a program 10793 for future contracts with the state for five years after the date 10794 of the breach." 10795

(4) "Failure of a subcontractor to require a lower-tier 10796 subcontractor to be enrolled in and be in good standing in the 10797 Bureau of Workers' Compensation's Drug-Free Workplace Program or a 10798 comparable program approved by the Bureau that meets the 10799 requirements specified in section 153.03 of the Revised Code prior 10800 to the time that the lower-tier subcontractor provides labor at 10801 the project site will result in the subcontractor being found in 10802 breach of the contract and that breach shall be used in the 10803 responsibility analysis of that subcontractor or the lower-tier 10804 subcontractor who was not enrolled in a program for future 10805 contracts with the state for five years after the date of the 10806 breach." 10807

(F) In the event a construction manager, construction manager 10808 at risk, or design-build firm intends and is authorized to provide 10809 labor for a public improvement contract, a contracting authority 10810 shall verify, prior to awarding a contract for construction 10811 management services or design-build services, that the 10812 construction manager, construction manager at risk, or 10813 design-build firm was enrolled in and in good standing in a 10814 drug-free workplace program described in division (B) of this 10815 section prior to entering into the public improvement contract. 10816
The contracting authority shall not award a contract for 10817 construction manager services ~~to a construction manager or~~ 10818 design-build services if the construction manager, construction 10819 manager at risk, or design-build firm is not enrolled in or in 10820 good standing in such a program. 10821

Sec. 153.07. The notice provided for in section 153.06 of the 10822

Revised Code shall be published once each week for three 10823 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation, or as 10824 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in the county where 10825 the activity for which bids are submitted is to occur and in such 10826 other newspapers as ordered by the department of administrative 10827 services, the last publication to be at least eight days preceding 10828 the day for opening the bids, and in such form and with such 10829 phraseology as the department orders. Copies of the plans, 10830 details, ~~bills of material,~~ estimates of cost, and specifications 10831 shall be open to public inspection at all business hours between 10832 the day of the first publication and the day for opening the bids, 10833 at the office of the department where the bids are received, and 10834 such other place as may be designated in such notice. 10835

Sec. 153.08. On the day and at the place named in the notice 10836 provided for in section 153.06 of the Revised Code, the owner 10837 referred to in section 153.01 of the Revised Code shall open the 10838 bids and shall publicly, with the assistance of the architect or 10839 engineer, immediately proceed to tabulate the bids upon duplicate 10840 sheets. The public bid opening may be broadcast by electronic 10841 means pursuant to rules established by the director of 10842 administrative services. A bid shall be invalid and not considered 10843 unless a bid guaranty meeting the requirements of section 153.54 10844 of the Revised Code and in the form approved by the department of 10845 administrative services is filed with such bid ~~and unless such.~~ 10846
For a bid that is not filed electronically, the bid and bid 10847 guaranty are shall be filed in one sealed envelope. If the bid and 10848 bid guaranty are filed electronically, they must be received 10849 electronically before the deadline published pursuant to section 10850 153.06 of the Revised Code. For all bids filed electronically, the 10851 original, unaltered bid guaranty shall be made available to the 10852 public authority after the public bid opening. After 10853 investigation, which shall be completed within thirty days, the 10854 contract shall be awarded by such owner to the lowest responsive 10855 and responsible bidder in accordance with section 9.312 of the 10856

Revised Code. 10857

No contract shall be entered into until the industrial 10858 commission has certified that the person so awarded the contract 10859 has complied with sections 4123.01 to 4123.94 of the Revised Code, 10860 until, if the bidder so awarded the contract is a foreign 10861 corporation, the secretary of state has certified that such 10862 corporation is authorized to do business in this state, until, if 10863 the bidder so awarded the contract is a person nonresident of this 10864 state, such person has filed with the secretary of state a power 10865 of attorney designating the secretary of state as its agent for 10866 the purpose of accepting service of summons in any action brought 10867 under section 153.05 of the Revised Code or under sections 4123.01 10868 to 4123.94 of the Revised Code, and until the contract and bond, 10869 if any, are submitted to the attorney general and the attorney 10870 general's approval certified thereon. 10871

No contract shall be entered into unless the bidder possesses 10872 a valid certificate of compliance with affirmative action programs 10873 issued pursuant to section 9.47 of the Revised Code and dated no 10874 earlier than one hundred eighty days prior to the date fixed for 10875 the opening of bids for a particular project. 10876

Sec. 153.50. (A) ~~An~~ As used in sections 153.50 to 153.52 of 10877
the Revised Code: 10878

~~erection of buildings and other structures which cost less than~~ 10985
~~fifty thousand dollars.~~ 10986

Sec. 153.53. (A) As used in this section, "rate of inflation" 10987 has the same meaning as in section 107.032 of the Revised Code. 10988 10989

(B) Five years after the effective date of this section and 10990 every five years thereafter, the director of administrative 10991 services shall evaluate the monetary threshold specified in 10992 section 153.01 of the Revised Code and adopt rules adjusting that 10993 amount based on the average rate of inflation during each of the 10994 previous five years immediately preceding such adjustment. 10995

Sec. 153.54. (A) ~~Each~~ Except with respect to a contract 10996 described in section 9.334 or 153.693 of the Revised Code, each 10997 person bidding for a contract with the state or any political 10998 subdivision, district, institution, or other agency thereof, 10999 excluding therefrom the department of transportation, for any 11000 public improvement shall file with the bid, a bid guaranty in the 11001 form of either: 11002

(1) A bond in accordance with division (B) of this section 11003 for the full amount of the bid; 11004

(2) A certified check, cashier's check, or letter of credit pursuant to Chapter 1305. of the Revised Code, in accordance with division (C) of this section. Any such letter of credit is revocable only at the option of the beneficiary state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency. The amount of the certified check, cashier's check, or letter of credit shall be equal to ten per cent of the bid.

(B) A bid guaranty filed pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section shall be conditioned to:

(1) Provide that, if the bid is accepted, the bidder, after the awarding or the recommendation for the award of the contract, whichever the contracting authority designates, will enter into a proper contract in accordance with the bid, plans, details, and specifications, ~~and bills of material~~. If for any reason, other than as authorized by section 9.31 of the Revised Code or division (G) of this section, the bidder fails to enter into the contract, and the contracting authority awards the contract to the next lowest bidder, the bidder and the surety on the bidder's bond are liable to the state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency for the difference between the bid and that of the next lowest bidder, or for a penal sum not to exceed ten per cent of the amount of the bond, whichever is less. If the state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency does not award the contract to the next lowest bidder but resubmits the project for bidding, the bidder failing to enter into the contract and the surety on the bidder's bond, except as provided in division (G) of this section, are liable to the state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency for a penal sum not to exceed ten per cent of the amount of the bid or the costs in connection with the resubmission of printing new contract documents, required advertising, and printing and mailing notices to prospective bidders, whichever is less.

notices to prospective bidders, whichever is less. 11070

If the bidder enters into the contract, the bidder, at the 11071 time the contract is entered to, shall file a bond for the amount 11072 of the contract to indemnify the state, political subdivision, 11073 district, institution, or agency against all damage suffered by 11074 failure to perform the contract according to its provisions and in 11075 accordance with the plans, details, and specifications, ~~and bills~~ 11076 ~~of material therefor~~ and to pay all lawful claims of 11077 subcontractors, material suppliers, and laborers for labor 11078 performed or material furnished in carrying forward, performing, 11079 or completing the contract; and agree and assent that this 11080 undertaking is for the benefit of any subcontractor, material 11081 supplier, or laborer having a just claim, as well as for the 11082 state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency. 11083

(2) A construction manager who enters into a contract 11084 pursuant to sections 9.33 to 9.333 of the Revised Code, if 11085 required by the public ~~owner~~ authority at the time the 11086 construction manager enters into the contract, shall file a letter 11087 of credit pursuant to Chapter 1305. of the Revised Code, bond, 11088 certified check, or cashier's check, for the value of the 11089 construction management contract to indemnify the state, political 11090 subdivision, district, institution, or agency against all damage 11091 suffered by the construction manager's failure to perform the 11092 contract according to its provisions, and shall agree and assent 11093 that this undertaking is for the benefit of the state, political 11094 subdivision, district, institution, or agency. A letter of credit 11095 provided by the construction manager is revocable only at the 11096 option of the beneficiary state, political subdivision, district, 11097 institution, or agency. 11098

(D) Where the state, political subdivision, district, 11099 institution, or agency accepts a bid but the bidder fails or 11100 refuses to enter into a proper contract in accordance with the 11101 bid, plans, details, and specifications, ~~and bills of material~~ 11102 within ten days after the awarding of the contract, the bidder and 11103 the surety on any bond, except as provided in division (G) of this 11104 section, are liable for the amount of the difference between the 11105 bidder's bid and that of the next lowest bidder, but not in excess 11106 of the liability specified in division (B)(1) or (C) of this 11107 section. Where the state, political subdivision, district, 11108 institution, or agency then awards the bid to such next lowest 11109 bidder and such next lowest bidder also fails or refuses to enter 11110 into a proper contract in accordance with the bid, plans, details, 11111 and specifications, ~~and bills of material~~ within ten days after 11112 the awarding of the contract, the liability of such next lowest 11113 bidder, except as provided in division (G) of this section, is the 11114 amount of the difference between the bids of such next lowest 11115 bidder and the third lowest bidder, but not in excess of the 11116 liability specified in division (B)(1) or (C) of this section. 11117 Liability on account of an award to any lowest bidder beyond the 11118 third lowest bidder shall be determined in like manner. 11119

(E) Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, where the 11120 state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency 11121 resubmits the project for bidding, each bidder whose bid was 11122 accepted but who failed or refused to enter into a proper 11123 contract, except as provided in division (G) of this section, is 11124 liable for an equal share of a penal sum in connection with the 11125 resubmission, of printing new contract documents, required 11126 advertising, and printing and mailing notices to prospective 11127 bidders, but no bidder's liability shall exceed the amount of the 11128 bidder's bid guaranty. 11129

(F) All bid guaranties filed pursuant to this section shall 11130 be payable to the state, political subdivision, district, 11131 institution, or agency, be for the benefit of the state, political 11132 subdivision, district, institution, or agency or any person having 11133

a right of action thereon, and be deposited with, and held by, the board, officer, or agent contracting on behalf of the state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency. All bonds filed pursuant to this section shall be issued by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as surety approved by the board, officer, or agent awarding the contract on behalf of the state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency.

(G) A bidder for a contract with the state or any political subdivision, district, institution, or other agency thereof, excluding therefrom the Ohio department of transportation, for a public improvement costing less than one-half million dollars may withdraw the bid from consideration if the bidder's bid for some other contract with the state or any political subdivision, district, institution, or other agency thereof, excluding therefrom the department of transportation, for the public improvement costing less than one-half million dollars has already been accepted, if the bidder certifies in good faith that the total amount of all the bidder's current contracts is less than one-half million dollars, and if the surety certifies in good faith that the bidder is unable to perform the subsequent contract because to do so would exceed the bidder's bonding capacity. If a bid is withdrawn under authority of this division, the contracting authority may award the contract to the next lowest bidder or reject all bids and resubmit the project for bidding, and neither the bidder nor the surety on the bidder's bond are liable for the difference between the bidder's bid and that of the next lowest bidder, for a penal sum, or for the costs of printing new contract documents, required advertising, and printing and mailing notices to prospective bidders.

(H) Bid guaranties filed pursuant to division (A) of this section shall be returned to all unsuccessful bidders immediately after the contract is executed. The bid guaranty filed pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section shall be returned to the 11166 successful bidder upon filing of the bond required in division (C) 11167

of this section. 11168

(I) For the purposes of this section, "next lowest bidder" 11169 means, in the case of a political subdivision that has adopted the 11170 model Ohio and United States preference requirements promulgated 11171 pursuant to division (E) of section 125.11 of the Revised Code, 11172 the next lowest bidder that qualifies under those preference 11173
requirements. 11174

(J) For the purposes of this section and sections 153.56, 11175
153.57, and 153.571 of the Revised Code, "public improvement," 11176
"subcontractor," "material supplier," "laborer," and "materials" 11177 have the same meanings as in section 1311.25 of the Revised Code. 11178

Sec. 153.55. (A) For purposes of calculating the amount of a 11179 public improvement project to determine whether it is subject to 11180 section 153.01 of the Revised Code, no officer, board, or other 11181 authority of the state or any institution supported by the state 11182 shall subdivide a public improvement project into component parts 11183 or separate projects in order to avoid the threshold of that 11184 section, unless the component parts or separate projects thus 11185 created are conceptually separate and unrelated to each other, or 11186 encompass independent or unrelated needs. 11187

(B) In calculating the project amount for purposes of the 11188 threshold in section 153.01 of the Revised Code, the following 11189 expenses shall be included as costs of the project: 11190

(1) Professional fees and expenses for services associated 11191 with the preparation of plans; 11192

(2) Permit costs, testing costs, and other fees associated 11193 with the work; 11194

(3) Project construction costs; 11195

(4) A contingency reserve fund. 11196

Sec. 153.56. (A) Any person to whom any money is due for 11197 labor or work performed or materials furnished in a public 11198 improvement as provided in section 153.54 of the Revised Code, at 11199 any time after performing the labor or work or furnishing the 11200 materials, but not later than ninety days after the completion of 11201 the contract by the principal contractor or design-build firm and 11202 the acceptance of the public improvement for which the bond was 11203 provided by the duly authorized board or officer, shall furnish 11204 the sureties on the bond, a statement of the amount due to the 11205
person. 11206

(B) A suit shall not be brought against sureties on the bond 11207 until after sixty days after the furnishing of the statement 11208 described in division (A) of this section. If the indebtedness is 11209 not paid in full at the expiration of that sixty days, and if the 11210 person complies with division (C) of this section, the person may 11211 bring an action in the person's own name upon the bond, as 11212 provided in sections 2307.06 and 2307.07 of the Revised Code, that 11213 action to be commenced, notwithstanding section 2305.12 of the 11214 Revised Code, not later than one year from the date of acceptance 11215 of the public improvement for which the bond was provided. 11216

(C) To exercise rights under this section, a subcontractor or 11217 materials supplier supplying labor or materials that cost more 11218 than thirty thousand dollars, who is not in direct privity of 11219 contract with the principal contractor or design-build firm for 11220 the public improvement, shall serve a notice of furnishing upon 11221 the principal contractor or design-build firm in the form provided 11222
in section 1311.261 of the Revised Code. 11223

(D) A subcontractor or materials supplier who serves a notice 11224 of furnishing under division (C) of this section as required to 11225 exercise rights under this section has the right of recovery only 11226 as to amounts owed for labor and work performed and materials 11227 furnished during and after the twenty-one days immediately 11228 preceding service of the notice of furnishing. 11229

(E) For purposes of this section, ~~"principal:~~ 11230

(1) "Design-build firm" has the same meaning as in section 11231
153.65 of the Revised Code. 11232

(2) "Principal contractor" has the same meaning as in section 11233 1311.25 of the Revised Code, and may include a "construction 11234 manager" and a "construction manager at risk" as defined in 11235
section 9.33 of the Revised Code. 11236

Sec. 153.57. (A) The bond provided for in division (B) of 11237 section 9.333, division (C)(1) of section 153.54, and division (C) 11238 of section 153.70 of the Revised Code shall be in substantially 11239 the following form, and recovery of any claimant thereunder shall 11240 be subject to sections 153.01 to 153.60 of the Revised Code, to 11241 the same extent as if the provisions of those sections were fully 11242 incorporated in the bond form: 11243

"KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, the undersigned 11244 its bond." 11303

Sec. 153.581. As used in sections 153.581 and 153.591 of the 11304
Revised Code: 11305

(A) "Public works contract" means any contract awarded by a 11306 contracting authority for the construction, engineering, 11307 alteration, or repair of any public building, public highway, or 11308 other public work. 11309

(B) "Contracting authority" means the state, any township, 11310 county, municipal corporation, school board, or other governmental 11311 entity empowered to award a public works contract, and any 11312 construction manager at risk as defined in section 9.33 of the 11313 Revised Code or design-build firm as defined in section 153.65 of 11314
the Revised Code awarding a subcontract. 11315

(C) "Contractor" means any person, partnership, corporation, 11316 or association that has been awarded a public works contract. 11317

Sec. 153.65. As used in sections 153.65 to ~~153.71~~ 153.73 of 11318 design-build firm who would be assigned to perform the services, 11348 including the proposed architect of record. 11349

(2) Ability of the firm in terms of its workload and the 11350 availability of qualified personnel, equipment, and facilities to 11351 perform the required professional design services or design-build 11352 services competently and expeditiously; 11353

(3) Past performance of the firm as reflected by the 11354 evaluations of previous clients with respect to such factors as 11355 control of costs, quality of work, and meeting of deadlines; 11356

(4) Any other relevant factors as determined by the public 11357
authority; 11358

(5) With respect to a design-build firm, compliance with 11359 sections 4703.182, 4703.332, and 4733.16 of the Revised Code, 11360 including the use of a licensed professional for all design 11361
services. 11362

(E) "Design-build contract" means a contract between a public 11363 authority and another person that obligates the person to provide 11364 design-build services. 11365

(F) "Design-build firm" means a person capable of providing 11366
design-build services. 11367

(G) "Design-build services" means services that form an 11368 integrated delivery system for which a person is responsible to a 11369 public authority for both the design and construction, demolition, 11370 alteration, repair, or reconstruction of a public improvement. 11371

(H) "Architect of record" means the architect that serves as 11372 the final signatory on the plans and specifications for the 11373 design-build project. 11374

(I) "Criteria architect or engineer" means the architect or 11375 engineer retained by a public authority to prepare conceptual 11376 plans and specifications, to assist the public authority in 11377 connection with the establishment of the design criteria for a 11378 design-build project, and, if requested by the public authority, 11379 to serve as the representative of the public authority and 11380 provide, during the design-build project, other design and 11381 construction administration services on behalf of the public 11382 authority, including but not limited to, confirming that the 11383 design prepared by the design-build firm reflects the original 11384 design intent established in the design criteria package. 11385

(J) "Open book pricing method" means a method in which a 11386 design-build firm provides the public authority, at the public 11387 authority's request, all books, records, documents, contracts, 11388 subcontracts, purchase orders, and other data in its possession 11389 pertaining to the bidding, pricing, or performance of a contract 11390 for design-build services awarded to the design-build firm. 11391

Sec. 153.66. (A) Each public authority planning to contract 11392 for professional design services or design-build services shall 11393 encourage professional design firms and design-build firms to 11394 submit a statement of qualifications and update the statements at 11395 regular intervals. 11396

(B) Notwithstanding any contrary requirements in sections 11397 153.65 to 153.70 of the Revised Code, for every design-build 11398 contract, each public authority planning to contract for 11399 design-build services shall evaluate the statements of 11400 qualifications submitted by design-build firms for the project, 11401 including the qualifications of the design-build firm's proposed 11402 architect of record, in consultation with the criteria architect 11403 or engineer before selecting a design-build firm pursuant to 11404
section 153.693 of the Revised Code. 11405

Sec. 153.67. Each public authority planning to contract for 11406 professional design services or design-build services shall 11407 publicly announce all contracts available from it for such 11408 services. The announcements shall: 11409

(A) Be made in a uniform and consistent manner and shall be 11410 made sufficiently in advance of the time that responses must be 11411 received from qualified professional design firms or design-build 11412 firms for the firms to have an adequate opportunity to submit a 11413 statement of interest in the project; 11414

(B) Include a general description of the project, a statement 11415 of the specific professional design services or design-build 11416 services required, and a description of the qualifications 11417 required for the project; 11418

(C) Indicate how qualified professional design firms or 11419 design-build firms may submit statements of qualifications in 11420 order to be considered for a contract to design or design-build 11421 the project; 11422

(D) Be sent to ~~either~~ any of the following that the public 11423 authority considers appropriate: 11424

(1) ~~Each professional design firm that has a current~~ 11425
~~statement of qualifications on file with the public authority and~~ 11426
~~is qualified to perform the required professional design services~~ 11427 Design-build firms, including contractors or other entities that 11428 seek to perform the work as a design-build firm; 11429

(2) Architect, landscape architect, engineer, and surveyor 11430
~~trade associations, the~~ 11431

(3) The news media, and any; 11432

(4) Any publications or other public media that the public 11433 authority considers appropriate, including electronic media. 11434

Sec. 153.69. For every professional design services contract, 11435 each public authority planning to contract for professional design 11436 services shall evaluate the statements of qualifications of 11437

~~professional design firms currently on file, together with those~~ 11438 ~~that are~~ submitted by ~~other~~ professional design firms specifically 11439 regarding the project, and may hold discussions with individual 11440 firms to explore further the firms' statements of qualifications, 11441 the scope and nature of the services the firms would provide, and 11442 the various technical approaches the firms may take toward the 11443 project. Following this evaluation, the public authority shall: 11444

(A) Select and rank no fewer than three firms which it 11446 considers to be the most qualified to provide the required 11447 professional design services, except when the public authority 11448 determines in writing that fewer than three qualified firms are 11449 available in which case the public authority shall select and rank 11450 those firms; 11451

(B) Negotiate a contract with the firm ranked most qualified 11452 to perform the required services at a compensation determined in 11453 writing to be fair and reasonable to the public authority. 11454 Contract negotiations shall be directed toward: 11455

(1) Ensuring that the professional design firm and the agency 11456 have a mutual understanding of the essential requirements involved 11457 in providing the required services; 11458

(2) Determining that the firm will make available the 11459 necessary personnel, equipment, and facilities to perform the 11460 services within the required time; 11461

(3) Agreeing upon compensation which is fair and reasonable, 11462 taking into account the estimated value, scope, complexity, and 11463 nature of the services. 11464

(C) If a contract is negotiated with the firm ranked to 11465 perform the required services most qualified, the public authority 11466 shall, if applicable under section 127.16 of the Revised Code, 11467 request approval of the board to make expenditures under the 11468

contract. 11469

(D) Upon failure to negotiate a contract with the firm ranked 11470 most qualified, the public authority shall inform the firm in 11471 writing of the termination of negotiations and may enter into 11472 negotiations with the firm ranked next most qualified. If 11473 negotiations again fail, the same procedure ~~shall~~ may be followed 11474 with each next most qualified firm selected and ranked pursuant to 11475 division (A) of this section, in order of ranking, until a 11476
contract is negotiated. 11477

(E) Should the public authority fail to negotiate a contract 11478 with any of the firms selected pursuant to division (A) of this 11479 section, the public authority ~~shall~~ may select and rank additional 11480 firms, based on their qualifications, and negotiations ~~shall~~ may 11481 continue as with the firms selected and ranked initially until a 11482 contract is negotiated. 11483

(F) Nothing in this section affects a public authority's 11484
right to accept or reject any or all proposals in whole or in 11485
part. 11486

Sec. 153.692. For every design-build contract, the public 11487 authority planning to contract for design-build services shall 11488 first obtain the services of a criteria architect or engineer by 11489 doing either of the following: 11490

(A) Contracting for the services consistent with sections 11491
153.65 to 153.70 of the Revised Code; 11492

(B) Obtaining the services through an architect or engineer 11493 who is an employee of the public authority and notifying the 11494 department of administrative services before the services are 11495 performed. 11496

Sec. 153.693. (A) For every design-build contract, the public 11497 authority planning to contract for design-build services, in 11498 consultation with the criteria architect or engineer, shall 11499 evaluate the statements of qualifications submitted by 11500 design-build firms specifically regarding the project, including 11501 the design-build firm's proposed architect of record. Following 11502 this evaluation, the public authority shall: 11503

(1) Select and rank not fewer than three firms which it 11504 considers to be the most qualified to provide the required 11505 design-build services, except that the public authority shall 11506 select and rank fewer than three firms when the public authority 11507 determines in writing that fewer than three qualified firms are 11508
available; 11509

(2) Provide each selected design-build firm with all of the 11510
following: 11511

(a) A description of the project and project delivery; 11512

(b) The design criteria produced by the criteria architect or 11513 engineer under section 153.692 of the Revised Code; 11514

(c) A preliminary project schedule; 11515

(d) A description of any preconstruction services; 11516

(e) A description of the proposed design services; 11517

(f) A description of a guaranteed maximum price, including 11518 the estimated level of design on which such guaranteed maximum 11519 price is based; 11520

(g) The form of the design-build services contract; 11521

(h) A request for a pricing proposal that shall be divided 11522 into a design services fee and a preconstruction and design-build 11523 services fee. The pricing proposal of each design-build firm shall 11524 include at least all of the following: 11525

(i) A list of key personnel and consultants for the project; 11526

(ii) Design concepts adhering to the design criteria produced 11527

by the criteria architect or engineer under section 153.692 of the	11528
Revised Code;	11529
(iii) The design-build firm's statement of general conditions	11530
and estimated contingency requirements;	11531
(iv) A preliminary project schedule.	11532
(3) Evaluate the pricing proposal submitted by each selected	11533
firm and, at its discretion, hold discussions with each firm to	11534
further investigate its pricing proposal, including the scope and	11535
nature of the firm's proposed services and potential technical	11536
approaches;	11537
(4) Rank the selected firms based on the public authority's	11538
evaluation of the value of each firm's pricing proposal, with such	11539
evaluation considering each firm's proposed costs and	11540
qualifications;	11541
(5) Enter into contract negotiations for design-build	11542
services with the design-build firm whose pricing proposal the	11543
public authority determines to be the best value under this	11544
section.	11545
(B) In complying with division (A)(5) of this section,	11546
contract negotiations shall be directed toward:	11547
(1) Ensuring that the design-build firm and the public	11548
authority mutually understand the essential requirements involved	11549
in providing the required design-build services, the provisions	11550
for the use of contingency funds, and the terms of the contract,	11551
including terms related to the possible distribution of savings in	11552
the final costs of the project;	11553
(2) Ensuring that the design-build firm shall be able to	11554
provide the necessary personnel, equipment, and facilities to	11555
perform the design-build services within the time required by the	11556
design-build construction contract;	11557

(3) Agreeing upon a procedure and schedule for determining a 11558
guaranteed maximum price using an open book pricing method that 11559
shall represent the total maximum amount to be paid by the public 11560 authority to the design-build firm for the project and that shall 11561 include the costs of all work, the cost of its general conditions, 11562 the contingency, and the fee payable to the design-build firm. 11563

(C) If the public authority fails to negotiate a contract 11564 with the design-build firm whose pricing proposal the public 11565 authority determines to be the best value as determined under this 11566 section, the public authority shall inform the design-build firm 11567 in writing of the termination of negotiations. The public 11568 authority may then do the following: 11569

(1) Negotiate a contract with a design-build firm ranked next 11570 highest under this section following the negotiation procedure 11571 described in this section; 11572

(2) If negotiations fail with the design-build firm under 11573 division (C)(1) of this section, negotiate a contract with the 11574 design-build firm ranked next highest under this section following 11575 the negotiation procedure described in this section and continue 11576 negotiating with the design-build firms selected under this 11577 section in the order of their ranking until a contract is 11578 negotiated. 11579

(D) If the public authority fails to negotiate a contract 11580 with a design-build firm whose pricing proposal the public 11581 authority determines to be the best value as determined under this 11582 section, it may select additional design-build firms to provide 11583 pricing proposals to the public authority pursuant to this section 11584 or may select an alternative delivery method for the project. 11585

(E) The public authority may provide a stipend for pricing 11586 proposals received from design-build firms. 11587

(F) Nothing in this section affects a public authority's 11588

right to accept or reject any or all proposals in whole or in 11589
part. 11590

Sec. 153.694. If a professional design firm selected as the 11591 criteria architect or engineer creates the preliminary criteria 11592 and design criteria for a project and provides professional design 11593 services to a public authority to assist that public authority in 11594 evaluating the design-build requirements provided to the public 11595 authority by a design-build firm pursuant to section 153.692 of 11596 the Revised Code, that professional design firm shall not provide 11597 any design-build services pursuant to a design-build contract 11598
under section 153.693 of the Revised Code. 11599

Sec. 153.70. (A) Except for any person providing professional 11600 design services of a research or training nature, any person 11601 rendering professional design services to a public authority or to 11602 a design-build firm, including a criteria architect or engineer 11603 and person performing architect of record services, shall have and 11604 maintain, or be covered by, during the period the services are 11605 rendered, a professional liability insurance policy or policies 11606 with a company or companies that are authorized to do business in 11607 this state and that afford professional liability coverage for the 11608 professional design services rendered. The insurance shall be in 11609 amount considered sufficient by the public authority. At the 11610 public authority's discretion, the design-build firm shall carry 11611 contractor's professional liability insurance and any other 11612 insurance the public authority considers appropriate. 11613

(B) The requirement for professional liability insurance set 11615 forth in division (A) of this section may be waived by the public 11616 authority for good cause, or the public authority may allow the 11617 person providing the professional design services to provide other 11618 assurances of financial responsibility. 11619

(C) Before construction begins pursuant to a contract for design-build services with a design-build firm, the design-build firm shall provide a surety bond to the public authority in accordance with section 153.57 of the Revised Code in an amount not less than the combined contract values of any work under contract to be constructed pursuant to the contract for design-build services prior to the establishment of the guaranteed maximum price or in the amount of the guaranteed maximum price as agreed to by the public authority, as the case may be.

Sec. 153.71. Any public authority planning to contract for professional design services or design-build services may adopt, amend, or rescind rules, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, to implement sections 153.66 to 153.70 of the Revised Code. Sections 153.66 to 153.70 of the Revised Code do not apply to any of the following:

(A) Any project with an estimated professional design fee of less than twenty-five thousand dollars;

(B) Any project determined in writing by the public authority head to be an emergency requiring immediate action including, but not limited to, any projects requiring multiple contracts let as part of a program requiring a large number of professional design firms of the same type;

(C) Any public authority that is not empowered by law to contract for professional design services.

Sec. 153.72. A design-build firm contracted for design-build services by a public authority may do either of the following:

(A) Perform design, construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction work pursuant to such contract;

(B) Perform professional design services when contracted by a public authority for design-build services even if the design-build firm is not a professional design firm. 11650

Sec. 153.73. The requirements set forth in sections 153.65 to 11651 153.72 of the Revised Code for the bidding, selection, and award 11652 of a contract for professional design services or design-build 11653 services by a public authority prevail in the event of any 11654 conflict with any other provision of this chapter. 11655

Sec. 153.80. (A) A contract for the construction, demolition, 11656
alteration, repair, or reconstruction of a public improvement 11657
entered into on or after ~~the effective date of this section~~ April 11658 16, 1993, shall be deemed to include the provisions contained in 11659 division (B) of this section. 11660

(B)(1) In regard to any bond filed by the contractor for the 11661 work contracted, the contracting authority, in its sole 11662 discretion, may reduce the bond required by twenty-five per cent 11663 of the total amount of the bond after at least fifty per cent of 11664 the work contracted for has been completed and by fifty per cent 11665 after at least seventy-five per cent of the work contracted for 11666 has been completed provided that all of the following conditions 11667 are met: 11668

(a) The contracting authority determines that the percentage 11669 of the work that has been completed at the time of determination 11670 has been satisfactorily performed and meets the terms of the 11671 contract, including a provision in regard to the time when the 11672 whole or any specified portion of work contemplated in the 11673 contract must be completed; 11674

(b) The contracting authority determines that no disputed 11675 claim caused by the contractor exists or remains unresolved; 11676

(c) The successful bid upon which the contract is based was 11677 not more than ten per cent below the next lowest bid or not more 11678 than ten per cent below a cost estimate for the work as published 11679 by the contracting authority. 11680

(2) In regard to the amount of any funds retained, the 11681 contracting authority, in its sole discretion, may reduce the 11682 amount of funds retained pursuant to ~~section~~ sections 153.12 and 11683 153.14 of the Revised Code for the faithful performance of work by 11684 fifty per cent of the amount of funds required to be retained 11685 pursuant to those sections, provided that the surety on the bond 11686 remains liable for all of the following that are caused due to 11687 default by the contractor: 11688

(a) Completion of the job; 11689

(b) All delay claims; 11690

(c) All liquidated damages; 11691

(d) All additional expenses incurred by the contracting 11692
authority. 11693

(C) As used in this section: 11694

(1) "Contracting authority" means an officer, board, or other 11695 authority of the state, a county, township, municipal corporation, 11696 or school district, or of any other political subdivision of the 11697 state, authorized to contract for the construction, demolition, 11698 alteration, repair, or reconstruction of a public improvement, and 11699 any construction manager at risk as defined in section 9.33 of the 11700 Revised Code or design-build firm as defined in section 153.65 of 11701 the Revised Code awarding a subcontract, but does not include an 11702 officer, board, or other authority of the department of 11703 transportation. 11704

(2) "Delay claim" means a claim that arises due to default on 11705 provisions in a contract in regard to the time when the whole or 11706 any specified portion of work contemplated in the contract must be 11707 completed. 11708

Sec. 154.02. (A) Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 154. 11709 of the Revised Code, the issuing authority may issue obligations 11710

as from time to time authorized by or pursuant to act or 11711 resolution of the general assembly, consistent with such 11712 limitations thereon, subject to section 154.12 of the Revised 11713 Code, as the general assembly may thereby prescribe as to 11714 principal amount, bond service charges, or otherwise, and shall 11715 cause the proceeds thereof to be applied to those capital 11716 facilities designated by or pursuant to act of the general 11717 assembly for any of the following: 11718

(1) Mental hygiene and retardation, including housing for 11719 mental hygiene and retardation patients under Section 16 of 11720 Article VIII, Ohio Constitution; 11721

(2) State supported and assisted institutions of higher 11722 education, including community or technical education colleges; 11723

(3) Parks and recreation; 11724

(4) Ohio cultural facilities; 11725

(5) Ohio sports facilities; 11726

(6) Housing of branches and agencies of state government. 11727

(B) The authority provided by Chapter 154. of the Revised 11728 Code is in addition to any other authority provided by law for the 11729 same or similar purposes, except as may otherwise specifically be 11730 provided in Chapter 154. of the Revised Code. In case any section 11731 or provision of Chapter 154. of the Revised Code or in case any 11732 covenant, stipulation, obligation, resolution, trust agreement, 11733 indenture, lease agreement, act, or action, or part thereof, made, 11734 assumed, entered into, or taken under Chapter 154. of the Revised 11735 Code, or any application thereof, is for any reason held to be 11736 illegal or invalid, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect 11737 the remainder thereof or any other section or provision of Chapter 11738 154. of the Revised Code or any other covenant, stipulation, 11739 obligation, resolution, trust agreement, indenture, lease, 11740 agreement, act, or action, or part thereof, made, assumed, entered 11741 into, or taken under such chapter, which shall be construed and 11742 enforced as if such illegal or invalid portion were not contained 11743 therein, nor shall such illegality or invalidity or any 11744 application thereof affect any legal and valid application 11745 thereof, and each such section, provision, covenant, stipulation, 11746

agreement, act, or action, or part thereof, shall be deemed to be 11748 effective, operative, made, entered into or taken in the manner 11749 and to the full extent permitted by law. 11750

Sec. 154.07. For the respective purposes provided in sections 11751
154.20, 154.21, 154.22, ~~and 154.23,~~ 154.24, and 154.25 of the 11752 Revised Code, the issuing authority may issue obligations of the 11753 state of Ohio as provided in Chapter 154. of the Revised Code, 11754 provided that the holders or owners of obligations shall have no 11755 right to have excises or taxes levied by the general assembly for 11756 the payment of the bond service charges. The right of holders and 11757 owners to payment of bond service charges shall be limited to the 11758 revenues or receipts and funds pledged thereto in accordance with 11759 Chapter 154. of the Revised Code, and each obligation shall bear 11760 on its face a statement to that effect. Chapter 154. of the 11761 Revised Code does not permit, and no provision of that chapter 11762 shall be applied to authorize or grant, a pledge of charges for 11763 the treatment or care of mental hygiene and retardation patients 11764 to bond service charges on obligations other than those issued for 11765 capital facilities for mental hygiene and retardation, or a pledge 11766 of any receipts of or on behalf of state supported or state 11767 assisted institutions of higher education to bond service charges 11768 on obligations other than those issued for capital facilities for 11769 state supported or state assisted institutions of higher 11770 education, or a pledge of receipts with respect to parks and 11771 recreation to bond service charges on obligations other than those 11772 issued for capital facilities for parks and recreation, or a 11773 pledge of revenues or receipts received by or on behalf of any 11774 state agency to bond service charges on obligations other than 11775 those issued for capital facilities which are in whole or in part 11776 useful to, constructed by, or financed by the state agency that 11777 receives the revenues or receipts so pledged. 11778

Sec. 154.24. (A) In addition to the definitions provided in 11779
section 154.01 of the Revised Code: 11780

(1) "Capital facilities" includes, for purposes of this 11781 section, storage and parking facilities related to such capital 11782
facilities. 11783

(2) "Costs of capital facilities" includes, for purposes of 11784 this section, the costs of assessing, planning, and altering 11785 capital facilities, and the financing thereof, all related direct 11786 administrative expenses and allocable portions of direct costs of 11787 lessee state agencies, and all other expenses necessary or 11788 incident to the assessment, planning, alteration, maintenance, 11789 equipment, or furnishing of capital facilities and the placing of 11790 the same in use and operation, including any one, part of, or 11791 combination of such classes of costs and expenses. 11792

(3) "Governmental agency" includes, for purposes of this 11793 section, any state of the United States or any department, 11794 division, or agency of any state. 11795

(4) "State agency" includes, for purposes of this section, 11796 branches, authorities, courts, the general assembly, counties, 11797 municipal corporations, and any other governmental entities of 11798 this state that enter into leases with the commission pursuant to 11799 this section or that are designated by law as state agencies for 11800 the purpose of performing a state function that is to be housed by 11801 a capital facility for which the issuing authority is authorized 11802 to issue revenue obligations pursuant to this section. 11803

(B) Subject to authorization by the general assembly under section 154.02 of the Revised Code, the issuing authority may issue obligations pursuant to this chapter to pay costs of capital facilities for housing branches and agencies of state government, including capital facilities for the purpose of housing personnel, equipment, or functions, or any combination thereof that a state agency is responsible for housing, including obligations to pay the costs of capital facilities described in section 307.021 of the Revised Code, and the costs of capital facilities in which one or more state agencies are participating with the federal government, municipal corporations, counties, or other governmental entities, or any one or more of them, and in which that portion of the facility allocated to the participating state agencies is to be used for the purpose of housing branches and agencies of state government including housing personnel, equipment, or functions, or any combination thereof. Such participation may be by grants, loans, or contributions to other participating governmental agencies for any of those capital facilities.

(D)(1) For purposes of this division, "available receipts" means fees, charges, revenues, grants, subsidies, income from the investment of moneys, proceeds from the sale of goods or services, and all other revenues or receipts derived from the operation, leasing, or other disposition of capital facilities financed with obligations issued under this section or received by or on behalf of any state agency for which capital facilities are financed with obligations issued under this section or any state agency 11836 participating in or by which the capital facilities are 11837 constructed or financed; the proceeds of obligations issued under 11838 this section and sections 154.11 or 154.12 of the Revised Code; 11839 and any moneys appropriated by a governmental agency, and gifts, 11840 grants, donations, and pledges, and receipts therefrom, available 11841 for the payment of bond service charges on such obligations. 11842

(2) The issuing authority may pledge all, or such portion as 11843 it determines, of the available receipts to the payment of bond 11844 service charges on obligations issued under this section and 11845 section 154.11 or 154.12 of the Revised Code and for the 11846 establishment and maintenance of any reserves, as provided in the 11847 bond proceedings, and make other provisions therein with respect 11848 to such available receipts as authorized by this chapter, which 11849 provisions shall be controlling notwithstanding any other 11850 provision of law pertaining thereto. 11851

(E) There is hereby created one or more funds, as determined 11852 by the issuing authority in the bond proceedings, with identifying 11853 names as the issuing authority determines, which shall be in the 11854 custody of the treasurer of state but shall be separate and apart 11855 from and not a part of the state treasury. All money received by 11856 or on account of the issuing authority or the commission and 11857 required by the applicable bond proceedings to be deposited, 11858 transferred, or credited to a bond service fund created pursuant 11859 to this section, and all other money transferred or allocated to 11860 or received for the purposes of that fund, shall be deposited with 11861 the treasurer of state and credited to the applicable fund, 11862 subject to applicable provisions of the bond proceedings, but 11863 without necessity of any act or appropriation. Any bond service 11864 fund created pursuant to this section is a trust fund hereby 11865 pledged to the payment of bond service charges on the applicable 11866 obligations issued pursuant to this section and section 154.11 or 11867

154.12 of the Revised Code to the extent provided in the 11868 applicable bond proceedings, and payment thereof from such funds 11869 shall be made or provided for by the treasurer of state in 11870 accordance with the applicable bond proceedings without necessity 11871 for any act or appropriation. The director of budget and 11872 management may also create one or more improvement funds, with 11873 identifying names as the director determines, which shall be in 11874 the state treasury, to receive the proceeds of obligations issued 11875 under this section appropriated to fund costs of capital 11876
facilities. 11877

(F) This section is to be applied with other applicable 11878 provisions of this chapter. 11879

Sec. 154.25. (A) As used in this section: 11880

(1) "Available community or technical college receipts" means 11881 all money received by a community or technical college or 11882 community or technical college district, including income, 11883 revenues, and receipts from the operation, ownership, or control 11884 of facilities, grants, gifts, donations, and pledges and receipts 11885 therefrom, receipts from fees and charges, the allocated state 11886 share of instruction as defined in section 3333.90 of the Revised 11887 Code, and the proceeds of the sale of obligations, including 11888 proceeds of obligations issued to refund obligations previously 11889 issued, but excluding any special fee, and receipts therefrom, 11890 charged pursuant to division (D) of section 154.21 of the Revised 11891
Code. 11892

(2) "Community or technical college," "college," "community 11893 or technical college district," and "district" have the same 11894 meanings as in section 3333.90 of the Revised Code. 11895

(3) "Community or technical college capital facilities" means 11896 auxiliary facilities, education facilities, and housing and dining 11897 facilities, as those terms are defined in section 3345.12 of the 11898

Revised Code, to the extent permitted to be financed by the 11899 issuance of obligations under division (A)(2) of section 3357.112 11900 of the Revised Code, that are authorized by sections 3354.121, 11901 3357.112, and 3358.10 of the Revised Code to be financed by 11902 obligations issued by a community or technical college district, 11903 and for which the issuing authority is authorized to issue 11904 obligations pursuant to this section, and includes any one, part 11905 of, or any combination of the foregoing, and further includes site 11906 improvements, utilities, machinery, furnishings, and any separate 11907 or connected buildings, structures, improvements, sites, open 11908 space and green space areas, utilities, or equipment to be used 11909 in, or in connection with the operation or maintenance of, or 11910 supplementing or otherwise related to the services or facilities 11911 to be provided by, such facilities. 11912

(4) "Cost of community or technical college capital 11913 facilities" means the costs of acquiring, constructing, 11914 reconstructing, rehabilitating, remodeling, renovating, enlarging, 11915 improving, equipping, or furnishing community or technical college 11916 capital facilities, and the financing thereof, including the cost 11917 of clearance and preparation of the site and of any land to be 11918 used in connection with community or technical college capital 11919 facilities, the cost of any indemnity and surety bonds and 11920 premiums on insurance, all related direct administrative expenses 11921 and allocable portions of direct costs of the commission and the 11922 issuing authority, community or technical college or community or 11923 technical college district, cost of engineering, architectural 11924 services, design, plans, specifications and surveys, estimates of 11925 cost, legal fees, fees and expenses of trustees, depositories, 11926 bond registrars, and paying agents for obligations, cost of 11927 issuance of obligations and financing costs and fees and expenses 11928 of financial advisers and consultants in connection therewith, 11929 interest on obligations from the date thereof to the time when 11930 interest is to be covered by available receipts or other sources 11931 other than proceeds of those obligations, amounts necessary to 11932 establish reserves as required by the bond proceedings, costs of 11933 audits, the reimbursements of all moneys advanced or applied by or 11934 borrowed from the community or technical college, community or 11935 technical college district, or others, from whatever source 11936 provided, including any temporary advances from state 11937 appropriations, for the payment of any item or items of cost of 11938 community or technical college facilities, and all other expenses 11939 necessary or incident to planning or determining feasibility or 11940 practicability with respect to such facilities, and such other 11941 expenses as may be necessary or incident to the acquisition, 11942 construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, remodeling, 11943 renovation, enlargement, improvement, equipment, and furnishing of 11944 community or technical college capital facilities, the financing 11945 thereof and the placing of them in use and operation, including 11946 any one, part of, or combination of such classes of costs and 11947 expenses. 11948

(5) "Capital facilities" includes community or technical 11949 college capital facilities. 11950

(6) "Obligations" has the same meaning as in section 154.01 11951 or 3345.12 of the Revised Code, as the context requires. 11952

(B) The issuing authority is authorized to issue revenue 11953 obligations under Section 2i of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, 11954 on behalf of a community or technical college district and shall 11955 cause the net proceeds thereof, after any deposits of accrued 11956 interest for the payment of bond service charges and after any 11957 deposit of all or such lesser portion as the issuing authority may 11958 direct of the premium received upon the sale of those obligations 11959 for the payment of the bond service charges, to be applied to the 11960 cost of community or technical college capital facilities, 11961 provided that the issuance of such obligations is subject to the 11962 execution of a written agreement in accordance with division (C) 11963 of section 3333.90 of the Revised Code for the withholding and 11964 depositing of funds otherwise due the district, or the college it 11965 operates, in respect of its allocated state share of instruction. 11966

(C) The bond service charges and all other payments required 11967 to be made by the trust agreement or indenture securing the 11968 obligations shall be payable solely from available community or 11969 technical college receipts pledged thereto as provided in the 11970 resolution. The available community or technical college receipts 11971 pledged and thereafter received by the commission are immediately 11972 subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery 11973 thereof or further act, and the lien of any such pledge is valid 11974 and binding against all parties having claims of any kind against 11975 the authority, irrespective of whether those parties have notice 11976 thereof, and creates a perfected security interest for all 11977 purposes of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code and a perfected lien 11978 for purposes of any real property interest, all without the 11979 necessity for separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or 11980 recording of the resolution, trust agreement, indenture, or other 11981 agreement by which such pledge is created or any certificate, 11982 statement, or other document with respect thereto; and the pledge 11983 of such available community or technical college receipts is 11984 effective and the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to 11985 the purposes for which pledged. Every pledge, and every covenant 11986 and agreement made with respect to the pledge, made in the 11987 resolution may therein be extended to the benefit of the owners 11988 and holders of obligations authorized by this section, and to any 11989 trustee therefor, for the further securing of the payment of the 11990 bond service charges, and all or any rights under any agreement or 11991 lease made under this section may be assigned for such purpose. 11992

(D) This section is to be applied with other applicable 11993

Sec. 164.02. (A) There is hereby created the Ohio public 11995 works commission consisting of seven members who shall be 11996 appointed as follows: two persons shall be appointed by the 11997 speaker of the house of representatives; one person shall be 11998 appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; 11999 two persons shall be appointed by the president of the senate; one 12000 person shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate; 12001 and one person from the private sector, who shall have at least 12002 eight years experience in matters of public finance, shall be 12003 appointed alternately by the speaker of the house of 12004 representatives and the president of the senate, with the speaker 12005 of the house making the first appointment. The director of 12006 transportation, the director of environmental protection, the 12007 director of development, the director of natural resources, and 12008 the chairperson of the Ohio water development authority shall be 12009 nonvoting, ex officio members of the commission. The initial 12010 appointments made to the commission by the minority leaders of the 12011 senate and house of representatives and one of the initial 12012 appointments made by the speaker of the house of representatives 12013 and the president of the senate shall be for terms ending December 12014 31, 1989; one of the initial appointments made by the speaker of 12015 the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall 12016 be for terms ending December 31, 1990; and the initial term of the 12017 appointment to the commission that is alternately made by the 12018 speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the 12019 senate shall be for a term ending December 31, 1989. Thereafter, 12020 terms of office shall be for three years, each term ending on the 12021 same day of the same month of the year as did the term which it 12022 succeeds. Each member shall hold office from the date of 12023 appointment until the end of the term for which the member is 12024 appointed. Members may be reappointed one time. Vacancies shall be 12025 filled in the same manner provided for original appointments. Any 12026 member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the 12027 expiration date of the term for which the member's predecessor was 12028 appointed shall hold office for the remainder of that term. A 12029 member shall continue in office subsequent to the expiration date 12030

of the member's term until the member's successor takes office or 12031
until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 12032

The commission shall elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, 12033 and other officers as it considers advisable. Four members 12034 constitute a quorum. Members of the commission shall serve without 12035 compensation but shall be reimbursed for their actual and 12036 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. 12037

(B) The Ohio public works commission shall: 12038

(1) Review and evaluate persons who will be recommended to 12039 the governor for appointment to the position of director of the 12040 Ohio public works commission, and, when the commission considers 12041 it appropriate, recommend the removal of a director; 12042

(2) Provide the governor with a list of names of three 12043 persons who are, in the judgment of the commission, qualified to 12044 be appointed to the position of director. The commission shall 12045 provide the list, which may include the name of the incumbent 12046 director to the governor, not later than sixty days prior to the 12047 expiration of the term of such incumbent director. A director 12048 shall serve a two-year term upon initial appointment, and 12049 four-year terms if subsequently reappointed by the governor; 12050 however, the governor may remove a director at any time following 12051 the commission's recommendation of such action. Upon the 12052 expiration of a director's term, or in the case of the 12053 resignation, death, or removal of a director, the commission shall 12054 provide such list of the names of three persons to the governor 12055 within thirty days of such expiration, resignation, death, or 12056 removal. Nothing in this section shall prevent the governor, in 12057 the governor's discretion, from rejecting all of the nominees of 12058 the commission and requiring the commission to select three 12059 additional nominees. However, when the governor has requested and 12060 received a second list of three additional names, the governor 12061 shall make the appointment from one of the names on the first list 12062 or the second list. Appointment by the governor is subject to the 12063 advice and consent of the senate. 12064

In the case of the resignation, removal, or death of the 12065 director during the director's term of office, a successor shall 12066 be chosen for the remainder of the term in the same manner as is 12067 provided for an original appointment. 12068

(3) Provide oversight to the director and advise in the 12069 development of policy guidelines for the implementation of this 12070 chapter, and report and make recommendations to the general 12071 assembly with respect to such implementation; 12072

(4) Adopt bylaws to govern the conduct of the commission's 12073
business; 12074

(5) Appoint the members of the Ohio small government capital 12075 improvements commission in accordance with division (C) of this 12076
section. 12077

(C)(1) There is hereby created the Ohio small government 12078 capital improvements commission. The commission shall consist of 12079 ten members, including the director of transportation, the 12080 director of environmental protection, and the chairperson of the 12081 Ohio water development authority as nonvoting, ex officio members 12082 and seven voting members appointed by the Ohio public works 12083 commission. Each such appointee shall be a member of a ~~district~~ 12084 ~~public works~~ local government integrating and innovation committee 12085 who was appointed to the integrating and innovation committee 12086 pursuant to the majority vote of the chief executive officers of 12087 the villages of the appointee's district or by a majority of the 12088 boards of township trustees of the appointee's district. 12089

(2) Two of the initial appointments shall be for terms ending 12090 two years after March 29, 1988. The remaining initial appointments 12091 shall be for terms ending three years after March 29, 1988. 12092 Thereafter, terms of office shall be for two years, with each term 12093 ending on the same date of the same month as did the term that it 12094 succeeds. Each member shall hold office from the date of 12095 appointment until the end of the term for which the member is 12096 appointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as 12097 original appointments. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy 12098 occurring prior to the expiration date of the term for which the 12099 member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office as a member 12100 for the remainder of that term. A member shall continue in office 12101 subsequent to the expiration of the member's term until the 12102 member's successor takes office or until a period of sixty days 12103 has elapsed, whichever occurs first. Members of the commission may 12104 be reappointed to serve two additional terms, except that no 12105 member appointed to an initial term of three years may be 12106 reappointed to more than one additional term. No more than two 12107 members of the commission may be members of the same ~~district~~ 12108 ~~public works~~ local government integrating and innovation 12109 committee. 12110

(3) The Ohio small government capital improvements commission 12111 shall elect one of its appointed members as chairperson and 12112 another as vice-chairperson. Four voting members of the commission 12113 constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of four appointed 12114 members is required for any action taken by vote of the 12115 commission. No vacancy in the membership of the commission shall 12116 impair the right of a quorum by an affirmative vote of four 12117 appointed members to exercise all rights and perform all duties of 12118 the commission. Members of the commission shall serve without 12119
necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. 12121

(D) The Ohio small government capital improvements commission 12122
shall: 12123

(1) Advise the general assembly on the development of policy 12124 guidelines for the implementation of this chapter, especially as 12125 it relates to the interests of small governments and the use of 12126 the portion of bond proceeds set aside for the exclusive use of 12127 townships and villages; 12128

(2) Advise the township and village subcommittees of the 12129 various ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and 12130 innovation committees concerning the selection of projects for 12131 which the use of such proceeds will be authorized; 12132

(3) Affirm or overrule the recommendations of its 12133 administrator made in accordance with section 164.051 of the 12134 Revised Code concerning requests from townships and villages for 12135 financial assistance for capital improvement projects. 12136

(E) Membership on the Ohio public works commission or the 12137 Ohio small government capital improvements commission does not 12138 constitute the holding of a public office. No appointed member 12139 shall be required, by reason of section 101.26 of the Revised 12140 Code, to resign from or forfeit membership in the general 12141 assembly. 12142

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a 12143 county, municipal, or township public official may serve as a 12144 member of the Ohio public works commission or the Ohio small 12145 government capital improvements commission. 12146

Members of the commissions established by this section do not 12147 have an unlawful interest in a public contract under section 12148 2921.42 of the Revised Code solely by virtue of the receipt of 12149 financial assistance under this chapter by the local subdivision 12150 of which they are also a public official or appointee. 12151

(F) The director of the Ohio public works commission shall 12152 administer the small counties capital improvement program, which 12153 is hereby created. The program shall provide financial assistance 12154 to county governments of counties that have a population of less 12155 than eighty-five thousand according to the most recent decennial 12156 census. Under the program, the director shall review and may 12157 approve projects submitted by subcommittees of ~~district public~~ 12158 ~~works~~ local government integrating and innovation committees under 12159 division (E) of section 164.06 of the Revised Code. In approving 12160 projects, the director shall be guided by the provisions of 12161 division (B) of that section, while taking into consideration the 12162 special capital improvement needs of small counties. 12163

Sec. 164.04. (A) In each of the districts created in section 12164 164.03 of the Revised Code, a ~~district public works~~ local 12165 government integrating and innovation committee shall be 12166 established as follows: 12167

(1) In district one, the district committee shall consist of 12168 seven members appointed as follows: two members shall be appointed 12169 by the board of county commissioners or the chief executive 12170 officer of the county; two members shall be appointed by the chief 12171 executive officer of the most populous municipal corporation in 12172 the district; two members shall be appointed by a majority of the 12173 chief executive officers of the other municipal corporations 12174 located within the district; and one member, who shall have 12175 experience in local infrastructure planning and economic 12176 development and who shall represent the interests of private 12177 industry within the district, shall be appointed by a majority of 12178 the members of the district committee or their alternates. Except 12179 with respect to the selection of the private sector member of the 12180 committee, the affirmative vote of at least five committee members 12181 or their alternates is required for any action taken by a vote of 12182 the committee. 12183

(2) In district two, the district committee shall consist of 12184 nine members appointed as follows: two members shall be appointed 12185 by the board of county commissioners; three members shall be 12186 appointed by the chief executive officer of the most populous 12187 municipal corporation in the district; two members shall be 12188 appointed by a majority of the other chief executive officers of 12189 municipal corporations in the district; and two members shall be 12190 appointed by a majority of the boards of township trustees in the 12191 district. Of the members appointed by the board of county 12192 commissioners, one member shall have experience in local 12193 infrastructure planning and economic development, and one member 12194 shall be either a county commissioner or a county engineer of the 12195 district. The affirmative vote of at least seven members of the 12196 committee or their alternates is required for any action taken by 12197 a vote of the committee. 12198

(3) In districts three, four, eight, twelve, and nineteen, 12199 the district committee shall consist of nine members appointed as 12200 follows: two members shall be appointed by the board of county 12201 commissioners or by the chief executive officer of the county; two 12202 members shall be appointed by the chief executive officer of the 12203 most populous municipal corporation located within the district; 12204 two members shall be appointed by a majority of the other chief 12205 executive officers of the municipal corporations located in the 12206 district; two members shall be appointed by a majority of the 12207 boards of township trustees located in the district; and one 12208 member, who shall have experience in local infrastructure planning 12209 and economic development and who shall represent the interests of 12210 private industry within the district, shall be appointed by a 12211 majority of the members of the committee or their alternates. 12212 Except with respect to the selection of the private sector member 12213 of the committee, the affirmative vote of at least seven committee 12214 members or their alternates is required for any action taken by a 12215 vote of the committee. 12216

(4) In district six, the district committee shall consist of 12217 nine members appointed as follows: one member shall be appointed 12218 by the board of county commissioners of each county in the 12219 district; one member shall be appointed by the chief executive 12220 officer of the most populous municipal corporation in each county 12221 in the district; one member shall be appointed alternately by a 12222 majority of the chief executives of the municipal corporations, 12223 other than the largest municipal corporation, within one of the 12224 counties of the district; and one member shall be appointed 12225 alternately by a majority of the boards of township trustees 12226 within one of the counties in the district. The two persons who 12227 are the county engineers of the counties in the district also 12228 shall be members of the committee. At least six of these members 12229 or their alternates shall agree upon the appointment to the 12230 committee of a private sector person who shall have experience in 12231 local infrastructure planning and economic development. The 12232 affirmative vote of seven committee members or their alternates is 12233 required for any action taken by a vote of the committee. 12234

The first appointment to the committee made by the majority 12235 of the boards of township trustees of a county shall be made by 12236 the boards of township trustees located in the least populous 12237 county of the district, and the first appointment made by the 12238 majority of the chief executives of municipal corporations, other 12239 than the largest municipal corporation, of a county shall be made 12240 by the chief executives of municipal corporations, other than the 12241 largest municipal corporation, from the most populous county in 12242 the district. 12243

Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, the members of 12244 the district committee appointed alternately by a majority of the 12245 chief executive officers of municipal corporations, other than the 12246 largest municipal corporation, of a county and a majority of 12247 boards of township trustees of a county shall serve five-year 12248

terms. 12249

(5) In districts seven, nine, and ten, the district committee 12250 shall consist of two members appointed by the board of county 12251 commissioners of each county in the district, two members 12252 appointed by a majority of the chief executive officers of all 12253 cities within each county in the district, three members appointed 12254 by a majority of the boards of township trustees of all townships 12255 in the district, three members appointed by a majority of chief 12256 executive officers of all villages in the district, one member who 12257 is appointed by a majority of the county engineers in the district 12258 and who shall be a county engineer, and one member, who shall have 12259 experience in local infrastructure planning and economic 12260 development, shall be appointed by a majority of all other 12261 committee members or their alternates. If there is a county in the 12262 district in which there are no cities, the member that is to be 12263 appointed by the chief executive officers of the cities within 12264 that county shall be appointed by the chief executive officer of 12265 the village with the largest population in that county. 12266

(6) In districts five, eleven, and thirteen through eighteen, 12267 the members of each district committee shall be appointed as 12268 follows: one member shall be appointed by each board of county 12269 commissioners; one member shall be appointed by the majority of 12270 the chief executive officers of the cities located in each county; 12271 three members shall be appointed by a majority of the chief 12272 executive officers of villages located within the district; three 12273 members shall be appointed by a majority of the boards of township 12274 trustees located within the district; one member shall be 12275 appointed by a majority of the county engineers of the district 12276 and shall be a county engineer; and one member, who shall have 12277 experience in local infrastructure planning and economic 12278
development and who shall represent the interests of private 12279
industry within the district, shall be appointed by a majority of 12280

the members of the committee or their alternates. If there is a 12281 county in the district in which there are no cities, the member 12282 that is to be appointed by the chief executive officers of the 12283 cities within that county shall be appointed by the chief 12284 executive officer of the village with the largest population in 12285 that county. 12286

(7) In districts five, seven, nine, ten, eleven, thirteen, 12287 fourteen, sixteen, and seventeen organized in accordance with 12288 divisions (A)(5) and (6) of this section, a nine-member executive 12289 committee shall be established that shall include at least one of 12290
the persons appointed to the district committee by the chief 12291 executive officers of the villages within the district, at least 12292
one of the persons appointed to the district committee by the 12293 boards of township trustees within the district, the person 12294 appointed to the district committee to represent the interests of 12295 private industry, and six additional district committee members 12296 selected to serve on the executive committee by a majority of the 12297 members of the district committee or their alternates, except that 12298 not more than three persons who were appointed to the district 12299 committee by a board of county commissioners and not more than 12300 three persons who were appointed to the district committee by the 12301 chief executives of the cities located in the district shall serve 12302 on the executive committee. 12303

(8) In districts fifteen and eighteen organized in accordance 12304 with division (A)(6) of this section, an eleven-member executive 12305
committee shall be established that shall include at least one of 12306
the persons appointed to the district committee by the chief 12307
executive officers of the villages within the district, at least 12308
one of the persons appointed to the district committee by the 12309
boards of township trustees within the district, the person 12310 appointed to the district committee to represent the interests of 12311
private industry, and eight additional district committee members 12312

selected to serve on the executive committee by a majority of the 12313
members of the district committee or their alternates, except that 12314 not more than four persons who were appointed to the district 12315 committee by a board of county commissioners and not more than 12316 four persons who were appointed to the district committee by the 12317 chief executives of the cities located in the district shall serve 12318 on the executive committee. No more than two persons from each 12319 county shall be on the executive committee. 12320

All decisions of a district committee required to be 12321 organized in accordance with divisions (A)(5) and (6) of this 12322 section shall be approved by its executive committee. The 12323 affirmative vote of at least seven executive committee members or 12324 their alternates for executive committees formed under division 12325 (A)(7) of this section and at least nine members or their 12326 alternates for executive committees formed under division (A)(8) 12327 of this section is required for any action taken by vote of the 12328 executive committee, except that any decision of the executive 12329 committee may be rejected by a vote of at least two-thirds of the 12330 full membership of the district committee within thirty days of 12331 the executive committee action. Only projects approved by the 12332 executive committee may be submitted to the director of the Ohio 12333 public works commission pursuant to section 164.05 of the Revised 12334
Code. 12335

(B) Appointing authorities that appoint district committee 12336 members also may appoint an alternate for each committee member 12337 appointed under divisions (A)(1) to (6) of this section. If a 12338 district committee member is absent from a district or executive 12339 committee or subcommittee meeting, the alternate has the right to 12340 vote and participate in all proceedings and actions at that 12341 meeting. 12342

(C) Terms of office for members of district committees and 12343 their alternates shall be for three years, with each term ending 12344 on the same day of the same month as did the term that it 12345 succeeds. Each member and that member's alternate shall hold 12346 office from the date of appointment until the end of the term for 12347 which the member is appointed, except that, with respect to any 12348 member who was an elected or appointed official of a township, 12349 county, or municipal corporation or that member's alternate, the 12350 term of office for that person under this section shall not extend 12351 beyond the member's term as an elected or appointed official 12352 unless the member was appointed by a group of officials of more 12353 than one political subdivision or the members of the district 12354 committee, in which case the member's alternate shall continue to 12355 serve for the full term. Members and their alternates may be 12356 reappointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner provided 12357 for original appointments. Any member or that member's alternate 12358 appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration date 12359 of the term for which the member's or alternate's predecessor was 12360 appointed shall hold office for the remainder of that term. A 12361 member or that member's alternate shall continue in office 12362 subsequent to the expiration date of the member's or alternate's 12363 term until the member's or alternate's successor takes office or 12364 until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 12365

Each ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and 12366 innovation committee shall elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, 12367 and other officers it considers advisable. 12368

(D) For purposes of this chapter, if a subdivision is located 12369 in more than one county or in more than one district, the 12370 subdivision shall be deemed to be a part of the county or district 12371 in which the largest number of its population is located. However, 12372 if after a decennial census the change in a subdivision's 12373 population would result in the subdivision becoming part of a 12374 different county or district, the legislative authority of the 12375 subdivision may, by resolution, choose to remain a part of the 12376 county or district of which the subdivision was originally deemed 12377 to be a part. Such a decision is not revocable unless similar 12378 conditions arise following the next decennial census. 12379

(E) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a 12380 county, municipal, or township public official may serve as a 12381 member of a ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and 12382 innovation committee. 12383

(F) A member of a district committee or that member's 12384 alternate does not have an unlawful interest in a public contract 12385 under section 2921.42 of the Revised Code solely by virtue of the 12386 receipt of financial assistance under this chapter by the local 12387 subdivision of which the member or that member's alternate is also 12388 a public official or appointee. 12389

Sec. 164.05. (A) The director of the Ohio public works 12390 commission shall do all of the following: 12391

(1) Approve requests for financial assistance from ~~district~~ 12392
~~public works~~ local government integrating and innovation 12393 committees and enter into agreements with one or more local 12394 subdivisions to provide loans, grants, and local debt support and 12395 credit enhancements for a capital improvement project if the 12396 director determines that: 12397

(a) The project is an eligible project pursuant to this 12398
chapter; 12399

(b) The financial assistance for the project has been 12400 properly approved and requested by the district committee of the 12401 district which includes the recipient of the loan or grant; 12402

(c) The amount of the financial assistance, when added to all 12403 other financial assistance provided during the fiscal year for 12404 projects within the district, does not exceed that district's 12405 allocation of money from the state capital improvements fund for 12406 that fiscal year; 12407

(d) The district committee has provided such documentation 12408 and other evidence as the director may require that the district 12409 committee has satisfied the requirements of section 164.06 or 12410
164.14 of the Revised Code; 12411

(e) The portion of a district's annual allocation which the 12412 director approves in the form of loans and local debt support and 12413 credit enhancements for eligible projects is consistent with 12414 divisions (E) and (F) of this section. 12415

(2) Authorize payments to local subdivisions or their 12416 contractors for costs incurred for capital improvement projects 12417 which have been approved pursuant to this chapter. All requests 12418 for payments shall be submitted to the director on forms and in 12419 accordance with procedures specified in rules adopted by the 12420 director pursuant to division (A)(4) of this section. 12421

(3) Retain the services of or employ financial consultants, 12422 engineers, accountants, attorneys, and such other employees as the 12423 director determines are necessary to carry out the director's 12424 duties under this chapter and fix the compensation for their 12425
services; 12426

(4) Adopt rules establishing the procedures for making 12427 applications, reviewing, approving, and rejecting projects for 12428 which assistance is authorized under this chapter, and any other 12429 rules needed to implement the provisions of this chapter. Such 12430 rules shall be adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 12431

(5) Provide information and other assistance to local 12432 subdivisions and ~~district public works~~ local government 12433 integrating and innovation committees in developing their requests 12434 for financial assistance for capital improvements under this 12435 chapter and encourage cooperation and coordination of requests and 12436 the development of multisubdivision and multidistrict projects in 12437 order to maximize the benefits that may be derived by districts 12438 from each year's allocation;	12439

(6) Require local subdivisions, to the extent practicable, to use Ohio products, materials, services, and labor in connection with any capital improvement project financed in whole or in part under this chapter;	12440 12441 12442 12443
(7) Notify the director of budget and management of all approved projects, and supply all information necessary to track approved projects through the state accounting system;	12444 12445 12446
(8) Appoint the administrator of the Ohio small government capital improvements commission;	12447 12448
(9) Do all other acts, enter into contracts, and execute all instruments necessary or appropriate to carry out this chapter;	12449 12450
(10) Develop a standardized methodology for evaluating capital improvement needs which will be used by local subdivisions in preparing the plans required by division (C) of section 164.06 of the Revised Code. The director shall develop this methodology not later than July 1, 1991.	12451 12452 12453 12454 12455
(11) Establish a program to provide local subdivisions with technical assistance in preparing project applications. The program shall be designed to assist local subdivisions that lack the financial or technical resources to prepare project applications on their own.	12456 12457 12458 12459 12460
(B) When the director of the Ohio public works commission decides to conditionally approve or disapprove projects, the director's decisions and the reasons for which they are made shall be made in writing. These written decisions shall be conclusive for the purposes of the validity and enforceability of such determinations.	12461 12462 12463 12464 12465 12466
(C) Fees, charges, rates of interest, times of payment of interest and principal, and other terms, conditions, and	12467 12468

provisions of and security for financial assistance provided 12469 pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be such as the 12470 director determines to be appropriate. If any payments required by 12471 a loan agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter are not 12472 paid, the funds which would otherwise be apportioned to the local 12473 subdivision from the county undivided local government fund, 12474 pursuant to sections 5747.51 to 5747.53 of the Revised Code, may, 12475 at the direction of the director of the Ohio public works 12476 commission, be reduced by the amount payable. The county treasurer 12477 shall, at the direction of the director, pay the amount of such 12478 reductions to the state capital improvements revolving loan fund. 12479
The director may renegotiate a loan repayment schedule with a 12480 local subdivision whose payments from the county undivided local 12481 government fund could be reduced pursuant to this division, but 12482 such a renegotiation may occur only one time with respect to any 12483 particular loan agreement. 12484

(D) Grants approved for the repair and replacement of 12485 existing infrastructure pursuant to this chapter shall not exceed 12486 ninety per cent of the estimated total cost of the capital 12487 improvement project. Grants approved for new or expanded 12488 infrastructure shall not exceed fifty per cent of the estimated 12489 cost of the new or expansion elements of the capital improvement 12490 project. A local subdivision share of the estimated cost of a 12491 capital improvement may consist of any of the following: 12492

(1) The reasonable value, as determined by the director or 12493 the administrator, of labor, materials, and equipment that will be 12494 contributed by the local subdivision in performing the capital 12495 improvement project; 12496

(2) Moneys received by the local subdivision in any form from 12497 an authority, commission, or agency of the United States for use 12498 in performing the capital improvement project; 12499

(3) Loans made to the local subdivision under this chapter; 12500

(4) Engineering costs incurred by the local subdivision in performing engineering activities related to the project. 12501

A local subdivision share of the cost of a capital improvement shall not include any amounts awarded to it from the local transportation improvement program fund created in section 164.14 of the Revised Code. 12503
 12504
 12506

(E) The following portion of a ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and innovation committee's annual allocation share pursuant to section 164.08 of the Revised Code may be awarded to subdivisions only in the form of interest-free, low-interest, market rate of interest, or blended-rate loans: 12507

(J) No project shall be approved under this section unless 12578 the project is designed to have a useful life of at least seven 12579 years. In addition, the average useful life of all projects for 12580 which grants or loans are awarded in each district during a 12581 program year shall not be less than twenty years. 12582

Sec. 164.051. (A) The administrator of the Ohio small 12583 government capital improvements commission shall review projects 12584 submitted to ~~him~~ the administrator by subcommittees of ~~district~~ 12585 ~~public works~~ local government integrating and innovation 12586 committees in accordance with section 164.06 of the Revised Code. 12587
If ~~he~~ the administrator determines that a project satisfies the 12588 criteria of division (B) of that section, while taking into 12589 consideration the special needs of villages and townships, the 12590 administrator shall recommend to the Ohio small government capital 12591 improvements commission that the project be approved. If ~~he~~ the 12592 administrator determines that a project should not be approved or 12593 that a decision on the project should be delayed, such 12594 determinations and an explanation should also be sent to the Ohio 12595 small government capital improvements commission for final 12596

resolution.	12597
(B) With respect to projects which the Ohio small government capital improvements commission approves, the administrator is authorized to:	12598 12599 12600
(1) Enter into agreements to provide financial assistance in the form of loans, grants, or local debt support and credit enhancements to villages or townships with populations in the unincorporated areas of the township of less than five thousand;	12601 12602 12603 12604
(2) Authorize payments to such villages or townships or their contractors for the costs incurred for capital improvement projects which have been approved in accordance with this chapter. All requests for payments shall be submitted to the administrator on forms and in accordance with procedures specified in rules adopted pursuant to division (A)(4) of section 164.05 of the Revised Code.	12605 12606 12607 12608 12609 12610 12611
(4) Do all other acts and enter into contracts and execute all instruments necessary or appropriate to carry out this section.	12615 12616 12617

improvements commission, be reduced by the amount payable. The 12628 county treasurer shall, at the direction of the commission, pay 12629 the amount of such reductions to the state capital improvements 12630 revolving loan fund. Subject to the approval of the Ohio small 12631 government capital improvements commission, the administrator may 12632 renegotiate a loan repayment schedule with a local subdivision 12633 whose payments from the county undivided local government fund 12634 could be reduced pursuant to this division, but such a 12635 renegotiation may occur only one time with respect to any 12636 particular loan agreement. 12637

Sec. 164.06. (A) Each ~~district public works~~ local government 12638 integrating and innovation committee shall evaluate materials 12639 submitted to it by the local subdivisions located in the district 12640 concerning capital improvements for which assistance is sought 12641 from the state capital improvements fund and shall, pursuant to 12642 division (B) of this section, select the requests for financial 12643 assistance that will be formally submitted by the district to the 12644 director of the Ohio public works commission. In order to provide 12645 for the efficient use of the district's state capital improvements 12646 fund allocation each year, a district committee shall assist its 12647 subdivisions in the preparation and coordination of project plans. 12648

(B) In selecting the requests for assistance for capital 12649 improvement projects which will be submitted to the director, and 12650 in determining the nature, amount, and terms of the assistance 12651 that will be requested, a ~~district public works~~ local government 12652 integrating and innovation committee shall give priority to 12653 capital improvement projects for the repair or replacement of 12654 existing infrastructure and which would be unlikely to be 12655 undertaken without assistance under this chapter, and shall 12656 specifically consider all of the following factors: 12657

(1) The infrastructure repair and replacement needs of the 12658

district;	12659
(2) The age and condition of the system to be repaired or replaced;	12660 12661
(3) Whether the project would generate revenue in the form of user fees or assessments;	12662 12663
(4) The importance of the project to the health and safety of the citizens of the district;	12664 12665
(5) The cost of the project and whether it is consistent with division (G) of section 164.05 of the Revised Code and the district's allocation for grants, loans, and local debt support and credit enhancements for that year;	12666 12667 12668 12669
(6) The effort and ability of the benefited local subdivisions to assist in financing the project;	12670 12671
(7) The availability of federal or other funds for the project;	12672 12673
(8) The overall economic health of the particular local subdivision;	12674 12675
(9) The adequacy of the planning for the project and the readiness of the applicant to proceed should the project be approved;	12676 12677 12678
(10) Any other factors relevant to a particular project.	12679

improvement needs of the subdivision in the ensuing five-year 12689 period, and a list of the subdivision's priorities with respect to 12690 addressing those needs. Each year, the report shall be reviewed 12691 and updated by the subdivision to reflect capital improvement 12692 projects undertaken or completed in the past year and any changes 12693 in the subdivision's plan or priorities. The report and annual 12694 updates shall be made available upon request to the Ohio public 12695 works commission, the Ohio small government capital improvements 12696 commission, and the ~~district public works~~ local government 12697 integrating and innovation committee of the district of which the 12698 subdivision is a part. 12699

(D) In addition to reviewing and selecting the projects for 12700 which approval will be sought from the director of the Ohio public 12701 works commission for financial assistance from the state capital 12702 improvements fund, each ~~district public works~~ local government 12703 integrating and innovation committee shall appoint a subcommittee 12704 of its members that will represent the interests of villages and 12705 townships and that will review and select the capital improvement 12706 projects which will be submitted by the subcommittee to the 12707 administrator of the Ohio small government capital improvements 12708 commission for consideration of assistance from the portion of the 12709 net proceeds of obligations issued and sold by the treasurer of 12710 state which is allocated pursuant to division (B)(1) of section 12711 164.08 of the Revised Code. In reviewing and approving the 12712 projects selected by its subcommittee, the administrator, and the 12713 Ohio small government capital improvements commission shall be 12714 guided by the provisions of division (B) of this section, and 12715 shall also take into account the fact that villages and townships 12716 may have different public infrastructure needs than larger 12717 subdivisions. 12718

(E) The ~~district public works~~ local government integrating 12719 and innovation committee for each district that includes at least 12720 one county with a population of less than eighty-five thousand 12721 according to the most recent decennial census shall appoint a 12722 subcommittee of its members for the purposes of the small counties 12723 capital improvement program created under division (F) of section 12724 164.02 of the Revised Code. The subcommittee shall select and 12725 submit to the director the projects that will be considered for 12726 assistance from the money allocated to the program under division 12727 (B)(4) of section 164.08 of the Revised Code. 12728

Sec. 164.08. (A) Except as provided in sections 151.01 and 12729 151.08 or section 164.09 of the Revised Code, the net proceeds of 12730 obligations issued and sold by the treasurer of state pursuant to 12731 section 164.09 of the Revised Code before September 30, 2000, or 12732 pursuant to sections 151.01 and 151.08 of the Revised Code, for 12733 the purpose of financing or assisting in the financing of the cost 12734 of public infrastructure capital improvement projects of local 12735 subdivisions, as provided for in Section 2k, 2m, or 2p of Article 12736 VIII, Ohio Constitution, and this chapter, shall be paid into the 12737 state capital improvements fund, which is hereby created in the 12738 state treasury. Investment earnings on moneys in the fund shall be 12739 credited to the fund. 12740

(B) Beginning July 1, 2011, each program year the amount of 12741 obligations authorized by the general assembly in accordance with 12742 sections 151.01 and 151.08 or section 164.09 of the Revised Code, 12743 excluding the proceeds of refunding or renewal obligations, shall 12744 be allocated by the director of the Ohio public works commission 12745
as follows: 12746

(1) First, fifteen million dollars of the amount of 12747 obligations authorized shall be allocated to provide financial 12748 assistance to villages and to townships with populations in the 12749 unincorporated areas of the township of less than five thousand 12750 persons, for capital improvements in accordance with section 12751

164.051 and division (D) of section 164.06 of the Revised Code. As 12752 used in division (B)(1) of this section, "capital improvements" 12753 includes resurfacing and improving roads. 12754

(2) Following the allocation required by division (B)(1) of 12755 this section, the director may allocate three million dollars of 12756 the authorized obligations to provide financial assistance to 12757 local subdivisions for capital improvement projects which in the 12758 judgment of the director of the Ohio public works commission are 12759 necessary for the immediate preservation of the health, safety, 12760 and welfare of the citizens of the local subdivision requesting 12761 assistance. 12762

(3) For the second, third, fourth, and fifth years that 12763 obligations are authorized and are available for allocation under 12764 this chapter, one million dollars shall be allocated to the sewer 12765 and water fund created in section 1525.11 of the Revised Code. 12766 Money from this allocation shall be transferred to that fund when 12767 needed to support specific payments from that fund. 12768

(4) For program years twelve and fourteen that obligations 12769 are authorized and available for allocation under this chapter, 12770 two million dollars each program year shall be allocated to the 12771 small county capital improvement program for use in providing 12772 financial assistance under division (F) of section 164.02 of the 12773
Revised Code. 12774

(5) After the allocation required by division (B)(3) of this 12775 section is made, the director shall determine the amount of the 12776 remaining obligations authorized to be issued and sold that each 12777 county would receive if such amounts were allocated on a per 12778 capita basis each year. If a county's per capita share for the 12779 year would be less than three hundred thousand dollars, the 12780 director shall allocate to the district in which that county is 12781 located an amount equal to the difference between three hundred 12782 thousand dollars and the county's per capita share. 12783

(6) After making the allocation required by division (B)(5) 12784 of this section, the director shall allocate the remaining amount 12785 to each district on a per capita basis. 12786

(C)(1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the 12787 state capital improvements revolving loan fund, into which shall 12788 be deposited all repayments of loans made to local subdivisions 12789 for capital improvements pursuant to this chapter. Investment 12790 earnings on moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. 12791

(2) There may also be deposited in the state capital 12792 improvements revolving loan fund moneys obtained from federal or 12793 private grants, or from other sources, which are to be used for 12794 any of the purposes authorized by this chapter. Such moneys shall 12795 be allocated each year in accordance with division (B)(6) of this 12796
section. 12797

(3) Moneys deposited into the state capital improvements 12798 revolving loan fund shall be used to make loans for the purpose of 12799 financing or assisting in the financing of the cost of capital 12800 improvement projects of local subdivisions. 12801

(4) Investment earnings credited to the state capital 12802 improvements revolving loan fund that exceed the amounts required 12803 to meet estimated federal arbitrage rebate requirements shall be 12804 used to pay costs incurred by the public works commission in 12805 administering this section. Investment earnings credited to the 12806 state capital improvements revolving loan fund that exceed the 12807 amounts required to pay for the administrative costs and estimated 12808 rebate requirements shall be allocated to each district on a per 12809 capita basis. 12810

(5) Each program year, loan repayments received and on 12811 deposit in the state capital improvements revolving loan fund 12812 shall be allocated as follows: 12813

(a) Each ~~district public works~~ local government integrating 12814 and innovation committee shall be allocated an amount equal to the 12815 sum of all loan repayments made to the state capital improvements 12816 revolving loan fund by local subdivisions that are part of the 12817 district. Moneys not used in a program year may be used in the 12818 next program year in the same manner and for the same purpose as 12819 originally allocated. 12820

(b) Loan repayments made pursuant to projects approved under 12821 division (B)(1) of this section shall be used to make loans in 12822 accordance with section 164.051 and division (D) of section 164.06 12823 of the Revised Code. Allocations for this purpose made pursuant to 12824 division (C)(5) of this section shall be in addition to the 12825 allocation provided in division (B)(1) of this section. 12826

(c) Loan repayments made pursuant to projects approved under 12827 division (B)(2) of this section shall be used to make loans in 12828 accordance with division (B)(2) of this section. Allocations for 12829 this purpose made pursuant to division (C)(5) of this section 12830 shall be in addition to the allocation provided in division (B)(2) 12831
of this section. 12832

(d) Loans made from the state capital improvements revolving 12833 loan fund shall not be limited in their usage by divisions (E), 12834 (F), (G), (H), and (I) of section 164.05 of the Revised Code. 12835

(D) Investment earnings credited to the state capital 12836 improvements fund that exceed the amounts required to meet 12837 estimated federal arbitrage rebate requirements shall be used to 12838 pay costs incurred by the public works commission in administering 12839 sections 164.01 to 164.12 of the Revised Code. 12840

(E) The director of the Ohio public works commission shall 12841 notify the director of budget and management of the amounts 12842 allocated pursuant to this section and such information shall be 12843 entered into the state accounting system. The director of budget 12844 and management shall establish appropriation line items as needed 12845 to track these allocations. 12846

(F) If the amount of a district's allocation in a program 12847 year exceeds the amount of financial assistance approved for the 12848 district by the commission for that year, the remaining portion of 12849 the district's allocation shall be added to the district's 12850 allocation pursuant to division (B) of this section for the next 12851 succeeding year for use in the same manner and for the same 12852 purposes as it was originally allocated, except that any portion 12853 of a district's allocation which was available for use on new or 12854 expanded infrastructure pursuant to division (H) of section 164.05 12855 of the Revised Code shall be available in succeeding years only 12856 for the repair and replacement of existing infrastructure. 12857

(G) When an allocation based on population is made by the 12858 director pursuant to division (B) of this section, the director 12859 shall use the most recent decennial census statistics, and shall 12860 not make any reallocations based upon a change in a district's 12861 population. 12862

Sec. 164.14. (A) The local transportation improvement program 12863 fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund shall 12864 consist of moneys credited to it pursuant to sections 117.16 and 12865 5735.23 of the Revised Code, and, subject to the limitations of 12866 section 5735.05 of the Revised Code, shall be used to make grants 12867 to local subdivisions for projects that have been approved by 12868 ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and innovation 12869 committees and the Ohio public works commission in accordance with 12870 this section. The fund shall be administered by the Ohio public 12871 works commission, and shall be allocated each fiscal year on a per 12872 capita basis to ~~district public works~~ local government integrating 12873 and innovation committees in accordance with the most recent 12874 decennial census statistics. Money in the fund may be used to pay 12875 reasonable costs incurred by the commission in administering this 12876 section. Investment earnings on moneys credited to the fund shall 12877 be retained by the fund. 12878

(B) Grants awarded under this section may provide up to one 12879 hundred per cent of the estimated total cost of the project. 12880

(C) No grant shall be awarded for a project under this 12881 section unless the project is designed to have a useful life of at 12882 least seven years, except that the average useful life of all such 12883 projects for which grants are awarded in each district during a 12884 fiscal year shall be not less than twenty years. 12885

(D) For the period beginning on July 1, 1989, and ending on 12886
June 30, 1994, and for each succeeding five-year period, at least 12887 one-third of the total amount of money allocated to each district 12888 from the local transportation improvement program fund shall be 12889 awarded as follows: 12890

(1) Forty-two and eight-tenths per cent for projects of 12891 municipal corporations; 12892

(2) Thirty-seven and two-tenths per cent for projects of 12893 counties; 12894

(3) Twenty per cent for projects of townships, except that 12895 the requirement of division (D)(3) of this section shall not apply 12896 in districts where the combined population of the townships in the 12897 district is less than five per cent of the population of the 12898
district. 12899

(E) Each ~~district public works~~ local government integrating 12900 and innovation committee shall review, and approve or disapprove 12901 requests submitted to it by local subdivisions for assistance from 12902 the local transportation improvement program fund. In reviewing 12903 projects submitted to it, a ~~district public works~~ local government 12904 integrating and innovation committee shall consider the following 12905 factors: 12906

(1) Whether the project is of critical importance to the safety of the residents of the local subdivision;	12907 12908
(2) Whether the project would alleviate serious traffic problems or hazards or would respond to needs caused by rapid growth and development;	12909 12910 12911
(3) Whether the project would assist the local subdivision in attaining the transportation infrastructure needed to pursue significant and specific economic development opportunities;	12912 12913 12914
(4) The availability of other sources of funding for the project;	12915 12916
(5) The adequacy of the planning for the project and the readiness of the local subdivision to proceed should the project be approved;	12917 12918 12919
(6) The local subdivision's ability to pay for and history of investing in bridge and highway improvements;	12920 12921
(7) The impact of the project on the multijurisdictional highway and bridge needs of the district;	12922 12923
(8) The requirements of divisions (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section;	12924 12925
(9) The condition of the infrastructure system proposed for improvement;	12926 12927
(10) Any other factors related to the safety, orderly growth, or economic development of the district or local subdivision that the district public works local government integrating and innovation committee considers relevant.	12928 12929 12930 12931
A district public works local government integrating and innovation committee or its executive committee may appoint a subcommittee to assist it in carrying out its responsibilities under this section.	12932 12933 12934 12935
(F) Every project approved by a district public works local	12936 government integrating and innovation committee shall be submitted 12937 to the Ohio public works commission for its review and approval or 12938 disapproval. The commission shall not approve any project that 12939 fails to meet the requirements of this section. 12940

(G) Grants awarded from the local transportation improvement 12941 program fund shall not be limited in their usage by divisions (D), 12942 (E), (F), (G), (H), and (I) of section 164.05 of the Revised Code. 12943

(H) As used in this section, "local subdivision" means a 12944 county, municipal corporation, or township. 12945

(I) The director of the Ohio public works commission shall 12946
allocated pursuant to this section, and the allocation information 12948 shall be entered into the state accounting system. The director of 12949 budget and management shall establish appropriation line items as 12950 needed to track these allocations. 12951

Sec. 164.21. (A) Each ~~district public works~~ local government 12952 integrating and innovation committee or, if applicable, the 12953 executive committee of the integrating and innovation committee 12954 shall appoint a natural resources assistance council consisting of 12955 eleven members. Of the eleven members, one shall be a member of 12956 the appointing integrating and innovation committee and one shall 12957 represent a soil and water conservation district that is located 12958 within the geographical jurisdiction of the appointing integrating 12959 and innovation committee. The nine other members of the council 12960 shall be appointed from the following categories of organizations, 12961 units of government, or agencies and shall include at least one 12962 member from each of those categories: 12963

(1) A county, municipal corporation, township, conservancy 12964 district, regional or joint district or unit of local government, 12965 or regional or joint political subdivision that is located within 12966 the geographical jurisdiction of the appointing integrating and 12967

innovation committee; 12968

(2) A conservation organization, an environmental advocacy 12969 organization, an organization with a primary interest in watershed 12970 protection and restoration, the department of natural resources, 12971 the environmental protection agency, or the United States natural 12972 resources conservation service; 12973

(3) A city park system or metropolitan park system or a board 12974 of park commissioners from a county that is located within the 12975 geographical jurisdiction of the appointing integrating and 12976 innovation committee, a statewide parks and recreation 12977 organization, or the United States national park service; 12978

(4) A statewide organization representing agriculture, an 12979 organization representing forestry interests, the department of 12980 agriculture, or the United States department of agriculture; 12981

(5) An organization representing business, local realtors, or 12982 a planning agency, including a port authority, located within the 12983 geographical jurisdiction of the appointing integrating and 12984
innovation committee. 12985

No organization, unit of government, or agency that is listed 12986 in divisions (A)(1) to (5) of this section shall be represented by 12987 more than one member on the council at any given time. The 12988 membership of a natural resources assistance council shall reflect 12989 the demographic and economic diversity of the population located 12990 within the geographical area represented by the council. 12991

A council shall be appointed by the appropriate integrating 12992 and innovation committee not later than ninety days after ~~the~~ 12993 ~~effective date of this section~~ July 26, 2001. Of the initial 12994 members appointed to the council, four shall be appointed for one 12995 year, four shall be appointed for two years, and three shall be 12996 appointed for three years. Thereafter, terms of office for members 12997 of the council shall be for three years, with each term ending on 12998

the same day of the same month as did the term that it succeeds. 12999 Each member shall hold office from the date of appointment until 13000 the end of the term for which the member is appointed, except 13001 that, with respect to any member who is an elected or appointed 13002 official of a township, municipal corporation, or county, the term 13003 of office for that person on the council shall not extend beyond 13004 the member's term as an elected or appointed official. 13005

Members may be reappointed. Vacancies shall be filled in the 13006 same manner provided for original appointments. Any member 13007 appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration date 13008 of the term for which the member was appointed shall hold office 13009 for the remainder of that term. A member shall continue in office 13010 subsequent to the expiration date of the member's term until the 13011 member's successor takes office or until a period of sixty days 13012 has elapsed, whichever occurs first. Members may be removed by the 13013 ~~district public works~~ local government integrating and innovation 13014 committee for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office. 13015

(B) A natural resources assistance council shall elect a 13016 chairperson, a vice-chairperson, and other officers that the 13017 council considers appropriate. A council may adopt bylaws 13018 governing its operation, including bylaws that establish the 13019 frequency of regular meetings and any necessary procedures. All 13020 meetings of a council are subject to section 121.22 of the Revised 13021
Code. 13022

(C) Serving as a member of a natural resources assistance 13023 council under this section does not constitute holding a public 13024 office or position of employment under the laws of this state and 13025 does not confer a right to compensation from any agency of this 13026 state. A member of a natural resources assistance council does not 13027 have an unlawful interest in a public contract under section 13028 2921.42 of the Revised Code solely by virtue of the receipt of 13029
financial assistance under sections 164.20 to 164.27 of the 13030

Revised Code by the local political subdivision of which the member is also a public official or appointee. 13031
13032

(D) Sections 101.82 to 101.87 of the Revised Code do not apply to natural resources assistance councils. 13033
13034

Sec. 164.30. (A) There is hereby created in the state treasury the local government integrating and innovation fund. The fund shall be composed of credits to the fund from revenue from the commercial activity tax under section 5751.20 of the Revised Code. The purpose of the fund is to provide grants to local subdivisions to implement and enhance the sharing of services. 13035
13036
13038
13040

13042
13044
13045
13046
13048

13055
13057
13058
13059
13061

(D) Each local government integrating and innovation committee shall accept and review such applications and award grants to the applicants the committee determines to be proposing shared services resulting in the greatest cost efficiencies, subject to the following: 13062
13063
13065
13066

(1) Not less than twenty per cent of the grant money available to each district shall be awarded to townships. 13067
13068

13070
13072
13073
13074

(3) Not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars may be awarded to each applicant for each service-sharing proposal. 13075
13076

Upon approval of a grant application, a committee shall forward the application and evidence of the committee's approval to the director of the Ohio public works commission, who shall review the materials and, if the director finds that the application was properly approved under the terms of this section, the director shall authorize the award of the grant to the local subdivision. 13077
13078
13080
13081
13083

(E) Not more than three per cent of the money credited to the local government integrating and innovation fund may be used by the director of the Ohio public works commission to defray the costs of the commission or of local government integrating and innovation committees in administering this section. 13084

Sec. 166.02. (A) The general assembly finds that many local areas throughout the state are experiencing economic stagnation or decline, and that the economic development programs provided for 13089

in this chapter will constitute deserved, necessary reinvestment 13092 by the state in those areas, materially contribute to their 13093 economic revitalization, and result in improving the economic 13094 welfare of all the people of the state. Accordingly, it is 13095 declared to be the public policy of the state, through the 13096 operations of this chapter and other applicable laws adopted 13097 pursuant to Section 2p or 13 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, 13098 and other authority vested in the general assembly, to assist in 13099 and facilitate the establishment or development of eligible 13100 projects or assist and cooperate with any governmental agency in 13101 achieving such purpose. 13102

(B) In furtherance of such public policy and to implement 13103 such purpose, the director of development may: 13104

(1) After consultation with appropriate governmental 13105 agencies, enter into agreements with persons engaged in industry, 13106 commerce, distribution, or research and with governmental agencies 13107 to induce such persons to acquire, construct, reconstruct, 13108 rehabilitate, renovate, enlarge, improve, equip, or furnish, or 13109 otherwise develop, eligible projects and make provision therein 13110 for project facilities and governmental actions, as authorized by 13111 this chapter and other applicable laws, subject to any required 13112 actions by the general assembly or the controlling board and 13113 subject to applicable local government laws and regulations; 13114

(2) Provide for the guarantees and loans as provided for in 13115
sections 166.06 and 166.07 of the Revised Code; 13116

(3) Subject to release of such moneys by the controlling 13117 board, contract for labor and materials needed for, or contract 13118 with others, including governmental agencies, to provide, project 13119 facilities the allowable costs of which are to be paid for or 13120 reimbursed from moneys in the facilities establishment fund, and 13121 contract for the operation of such project facilities; 13122

(4) Subject to release thereof by the controlling board, from 13123 moneys in the facilities establishment fund acquire or contract to 13124 acquire by gift, exchange, or purchase, including the obtaining 13125 and exercise of purchase options, property, and convey or 13126 otherwise dispose of, or provide for the conveyance or disposition 13127 of, property so acquired or contracted to be acquired by sale, 13128 exchange, lease, lease purchase, conditional or installment sale, 13129 transfer, or other disposition, including the grant of an option 13130 to purchase, to any governmental agency or to any other person 13131 without necessity for competitive bidding and upon such terms and 13132 conditions and manner of consideration pursuant to and as the 13133 director determines to be appropriate to satisfy the objectives of 13134 sections 166.01 to 166.11 of the Revised Code; 13135

appraisers, consulting engineers, superintendents, managers, 13137 construction and accounting experts, attorneys, and employees, 13138 agents, and independent contractors as are necessary in the 13139 director's judgment and fix the compensation for their services; 13140

(6) Receive and accept from any person grants, gifts, and 13141 contributions of money, property, labor, and other things of 13142 value, to be held, used and applied only for the purpose for which 13143 such grants, gifts, and contributions are made; 13144

(7) Enter into appropriate arrangements and agreements with 13145 any governmental agency for the taking or provision by that 13146 governmental agency of any governmental action; 13147

(8) Do all other acts and enter into contracts and execute 13148 all instruments necessary or appropriate to carry out the 13149 provisions of this chapter; 13150

(9) Adopt rules to implement any of the provisions of this 13151 chapter applicable to the director. 13152

(C) The determinations by the director that facilities 13153 constitute eligible projects, that facilities are project 13154 facilities, that costs of such facilities are allowable costs, and 13155 all other determinations relevant thereto or to an action taken or 13156 agreement entered into shall be conclusive for purposes of the 13157 validity and enforceability of rights of parties arising from 13158 actions taken and agreements entered into under this chapter. 13159

(D) Except as otherwise prescribed in this chapter, all 13160 expenses and obligations incurred by the director in carrying out 13161 the director's powers and in exercising the director's duties 13162 under this chapter, shall be payable solely from, as appropriate, 13163 moneys in the facilities establishment fund, the loan guarantee 13164 fund, the innovation Ohio loan guarantee fund, the innovation Ohio 13165 loan fund, the research and development loan fund, the logistics 13166 and distribution infrastructure fund, the logistics and 13167 distribution infrastructure taxable bond fund, or moneys 13168 appropriated for such purpose by the general assembly. This 13169 chapter does not authorize the director or the issuing authority 13170 under section 166.08 of the Revised Code to incur bonded 13171 indebtedness of the state or any political subdivision thereof, or 13172 to obligate or pledge moneys raised by taxation for the payment of 13173 any bonds or notes issued or guarantees made pursuant to this 13174
chapter. 13175

~~(E) No financial assistance for project facilities shall be 13176 provided under this chapter unless the provisions of the agreement 13177 providing for such assistance specify that all wages paid to 13178 laborers and mechanics employed on such project facilities for 13179 which the assistance is granted shall be paid at the prevailing 13180 rates of wages of laborers and mechanics for the class of work 13181 called for by such project facilities, which wages shall be 13182 determined in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 4115. of 13183 the Revised Code for determination of prevailing wage rates, 13184 provided that the requirements of this division do not apply where 13185~~

~~the federal government or any of its agencies provides financing 13186 assistance as to all or any part of the funds used in connection 13187 with such project facilities and prescribes predetermined minimum 13188 wages to be paid to such laborers and mechanics; and provided 13189 further that should a nonpublic user beneficiary of the eligible 13190 project undertake, as part of the eligible project, construction 13191 to be performed by its regular bargaining unit employees who are 13192 covered under a collective bargaining agreement which was in 13193 existence prior to the date of the document authorizing such 13194 assistance then, in that event, the rate of pay provided under the 13195 collective bargaining agreement may be paid to such employees. 13196~~

~~(F) Any governmental agency may enter into an agreement with 13197 the director, any other governmental agency, or a person to be 13198 assisted under this chapter, to take or provide for the purposes 13199 of this chapter any governmental action it is authorized to take 13200 or provide, and to undertake on behalf and at the request of the 13201 director any action which the director is authorized to undertake 13202 pursuant to divisions (B)(3), (4), and (5) of this section or 13203 divisions (B)(3), (4), and (5) of section 166.12 of the Revised 13204 Code. Governmental agencies of the state shall cooperate with and 13205 provide assistance to the director of development and the 13206 controlling board in the exercise of their respective functions 13207
under this chapter. 13208~~

program, the representative shall take an examination administered 13343 by the department of aging. On attainment of a passing score, ~~he a~~ 13344 volunteer shall be certified by the department as a representative 13345 authorized to perform services specified in the certification. The 13346 department shall issue an identification card, which the 13347 representative shall show at the request of any person with whom 13348 ~~he the representative~~ deals while performing ~~his the~~ 13349 representative's duties and which ~~he shall surrender be~~ 13350 surrendered at the time ~~he the representative~~ separates from the 13351 office. Except as a supervised part of a training program, no 13352 volunteer shall perform any duty unless he is certified as a 13353 representative having received appropriate training for that duty. 13354

(E) The state ~~ombudsman~~ ombudsperson shall provide technical 13355 assistance to regional programs conducting training programs for 13356 volunteers and shall monitor the training programs. 13357

(F) Prior to scheduling an observation of a certification 13358 survey or licensing inspection for purposes of division (B)(4) of 13359 this section, the state ~~ombudsman~~ ombudsperson shall obtain 13360 permission to have the survey or inspection observed from both the 13361 director of health and the long-term care facility at which the 13362 survey or inspection is to take place. 13363

(G) The department of aging shall establish continuing 13364 education requirements for representatives of the office. 13365

Sec. 173.26. (A) Each of the following facilities shall 13366 annually pay to the department of aging six dollars for each bed 13367 maintained by the facility for use by a resident during any part 13368 of the previous year: 13369

the aging as defined in section 3721.01 of the Revised Code; 13371

(2) Facilities authorized to provide extended care services 13372 under Title XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 13373 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 301, as amended, including a long-term acute 13374 care hospital that provides medical and rehabilitative care to 13375 patients who require an average length of stay greater than 13376 twenty-five days and is classified by the centers for medicare and 13377 medicaid services as a long-term care hospital pursuant to 42 13378
C.F.R. 412.23(e); 13379

(3) County homes and district homes operated pursuant to 13380
Chapter 5155. of the Revised Code; 13381

(4) Adult care facilities as defined in section ~~3722.01~~ 13382
5119.70 of the Revised Code; 13383

(5) Facilities approved by the Veterans Administration under 13384
Section 104(a) of the "Veterans Health Care Amendments of 1983," 13385 97 Stat. 993, 38 U.S.C. 630, as amended, and used exclusively for 13386 the placement and care of veterans. 13387

The department shall, by rule adopted in accordance with 13388
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, establish deadlines for payments 13389 required by this section. A facility that fails, within ninety 13390 days after the established deadline, to pay a payment required by 13391 this section shall be assessed at two times the original invoiced 13392 payment. 13393

(B) All money collected under this section shall be deposited 13394 in the state treasury to the credit of the office of the state 13395 long-term care ombudsperson program fund, which is hereby created. 13396 Money credited to the fund shall be used solely to pay the costs 13397 of operating the regional long-term care ombudsperson programs. 13398

(C) The state long-term care ombudsperson and the regional programs may solicit and receive contributions to support the operation of the office or a regional program, except that no contribution shall be solicited or accepted that would interfere with the independence or objectivity of the office or program.

Sec. 173.391. (A) The department of aging or its designee shall do all of the following in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code:

(1) Certify a person or government entity to provide community-based long-term care services under a program the department administers if the person or government entity satisfies the requirements for certification established by rules adopted under division (B) of this section and pays the fee, if any, established by rules adopted under division (G) of this section;

(2) When required to do so by rules adopted under division (B) of this section, take one or more of the following disciplinary actions against a person or government entity ~~issued a certificate~~ certified under division (A)(1) of this section:

(a) Issue a written warning;

(b) Require the submission of a plan of correction or evidence of compliance with requirements identified by the department;

(c) Suspend referrals;

(d) Remove clients;

(e) Impose a fiscal sanction such as a civil monetary penalty or an order that unearned funds be repaid;

(f) Suspend the certification;

(g) Revoke the ~~certificate~~ certification;

(g) (h) Impose another sanction.	13428
(3) Hold Except as provided in division (E) of this section,	13429
hold hearings when there is a dispute between the department or	13430 its designee and a person or government entity concerning actions	13431
the department or its designee takes or does not take regarding a	13432
decision not to certify the person or government entity under	13433
division (A)(1) of this section or a disciplinary action under	13434 division (A) (1) or (2) (c) (e) to (g) (h) of this section.	13435
(B) The director of aging shall adopt rules in accordance	13436 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing certification	13437 requirements and standards for determining which type of	13438 disciplinary action to take under division (A)(2) of this section	13439 in individual situations. The rules shall establish procedures for	13440
all of the following:	13441
(1) Ensuring that community-based long-term care agencies	13442 comply with section 173.394 of the Revised Code;	13443
(2) Evaluating the services provided by the agencies to	13444 ensure that they the services are provided in a quality manner	13445 advantageous to the individual receiving the services;	13446
(3) Determining when to take disciplinary action under	13447 division (A)(2) of this section and which disciplinary action to	13448 take;	13449
(4) Determining what constitutes another sanction for	13450
purposes of division (A)(2)(h) of this section.	13451
(C) The procedures established in rules adopted under	13452 division (B)(2) of this section shall require that all of the	13453 following be considered as part of an evaluation described in	13454
division (B)(2) of this section:	13455
(1) The service provider's community-based long-term care	13456
agency's experience and financial responsibility;	13457

(2) The ~~service provider's~~ agency's ability to comply with 13458 standards for the community-based long-term care services that the 13459 ~~provider~~ agency provides under a program the department 13460 administers; 13461

(3) The ~~service provider's~~ agency's ability to meet the needs 13462 of the individuals served; 13463

(4) Any other factor the director considers relevant. 13464

(D) The rules adopted under division (B)(3) of this section 13465 shall specify that the reasons disciplinary action may be taken 13466 under division (A)(2) of this section include good cause, 13467 including misfeasance, malfeasance, nonfeasance, confirmed abuse 13468 or neglect, financial irresponsibility, or other conduct the 13469 director determines is injurious, or poses a threat, to the health 13470 or safety of individuals being served. 13471

(E) Subject to division (F) of this section, the department 13472 is not required to hold hearings under division (A)(3) of this 13473 section if any of the following conditions apply: 13474

(1) Rules adopted by the director of aging pursuant to this 13475 chapter require the community-based long-term care agency to be a 13476 party to a provider agreement; hold a license, certificate, or 13477 permit; or maintain a certification, any of which is required or 13478 issued by a state or federal government entity other than the 13479 department of aging, and either of the following is the case: 13480

(a) The provider agreement has not been entered into or the 13481 license, certificate, permit, or certification has not been 13482 obtained or maintained. 13483

(b) The provider agreement, license, certificate, permit, or 13484 certification has been denied, revoked, not renewed, or suspended 13485 or has been otherwise restricted. 13486

(2) The agency's certification under this section has been 13487 denied, suspended, or revoked for any of the following reasons: 13488

(a) A government entity of this state, other than the 13489 department of aging, has terminated or refused to renew any of the 13490 following held by, or has denied any of the following sought by, a 13491 community-based long-term care agency: a provider agreement, 13492 license, certificate, permit, or certification. Division (E)(2)(a) 13493 of this section applies regardless of whether the agency has 13494 entered into a provider agreement in, or holds a license, 13495 certificate, permit, or certification issued by, another state. 13496

(b) The agency or a principal owner or manager of the agency 13497 who provides direct care has entered a guilty plea for, or has 13498 been convicted of, an offense materially related to the medicaid 13499 program. 13500

(c) The agency or a principal owner or manager of the agency 13501 who provides direct care has entered a guilty plea for, or been 13502 convicted of, an offense listed in division (C)(1)(a) of section 13503 173.394 of the Revised Code, but only if none of the personal 13504 character standards established by the department in rules adopted 13505 under division (F) of section 173.394 of the Revised Code apply. 13506

(d) The United States department of health and human services 13507 has taken adverse action against the agency and that action 13508 impacts the agency's participation in the medicaid program. 13509

(e) The agency has failed to enter into or renew a provider 13510 agreement with the PASSPORT administrative agency, as that term is 13511 defined in section 173.42 of the Revised Code, that administers 13512 programs on behalf of the department of aging in the region of the 13513 state in which the agency is certified to provide services. 13514

(f) The agency has not billed or otherwise submitted a claim 13515 to the department for payment under the medicaid program in at 13516 least two years. 13517

(g) The agency denied or failed to provide the department or 13518 its designee access to the agency's facilities during the agency's normal business hours for purposes of conducting an audit or structural compliance review. 13519

(h) The agency has ceased doing business. 13522

(i) The agency has voluntarily relinquished its certification for any reason. 13523
13524

(3) The agency's provider agreement with the department of job and family services has been suspended under division (C) of section 5111.031 of the Revised Code. 13525
13527

13529
13531
13533

(F) If the department does not hold hearings when any condition described in division (E) of this section applies, the department may send a notice to the agency describing a decision not to certify the agency under division (A)(1) of this section or the disciplinary action the department proposes to take under division (A)(2)(e) to (h) of this section. The notice shall be sent to the agency's address that is on record with the department and may be sent by regular mail. 13534
13535
13537
13538
13539
13541

(G) The director of aging may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing a fee to be charged by the department of aging or its designee for certification issued under this section. 13542
13543
13545

All fees collected by the department or its designee under this section shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the provider certification fund, which is hereby created. Money credited to the fund shall be used to pay for 13546
13547
13549

community-based long-term care services, administrative costs 13550 associated with community-based long-term care agency 13551 certification under this section, and administrative costs related 13552 to the publication of the Ohio long-term care consumer guide. 13553

Sec. 173.40. (A) As used in sections 173.40 to 173.402 of the 13554 Revised Code, "PASSPORT: 13555

"Medicaid waiver component" has the same meaning as in 13556
section 5111.85 of the Revised Code. 13557

"PASSPORT program" means the program created under this 13558
section. 13559

"PASSPORT waiver" means the federal medicaid waiver granted 13560 by the United States secretary of health and human services that 13561 authorizes the medicaid-funded component of the PASSPORT program. 13562

"Unified long-term services and support medicaid waiver 13563 component" means the medicaid waiver component authorized by 13564
section 5111.863 of the Revised Code. 13565

(B) There is hereby created the preadmission screening system 13566 providing options and resources today program, or PASSPORT. The 13567 PASSPORT program shall provide home and community-based services 13568 as an alternative to nursing facility placement for individuals 13569 who are aged and disabled medicaid recipients and meet the 13570 program's applicable eligibility requirements. The Subject to 13571 division (C) of this section, the program shall have a 13572 medicaid-funded component and a state-funded component. 13573

(C)(1) Unless the medicaid-funded component of the PASSPORT 13574 program is terminated under division (C)(2) of this section, all 13575 of the following apply: 13576

(a) The department of aging shall administer the 13577 medicaid-funded component through a contract entered into with the 13578 department of job and family services under section 5111.91 of the 13579

Revised Code. 13580

(b) The medicaid-funded component shall be operated as a 13581 separate medicaid waiver component, as defined in section 5111.85 13582 of the Revised Code, until the United States secretary of health 13583 and human services approves the consolidated federal medicaid 13584 waiver sought under section 5111.861 of the Revised Code. The 13585 program shall be part of the consolidated federal medicaid waiver 13586 sought under that section if the United States secretary approves 13587 the waiver. The department of aging shall administer the program 13588 through a contract entered into with the department of job and 13589 family services under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code. The 13590

(c) For an individual to be eligible for the medicaid-funded 13591 component, the individual must be a medicaid recipient and meet 13592 the additional eligibility requirements applicable to the 13593 individual established in rules adopted under division (C)(1)(d) 13594
of this section. 13595

(d) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules 13596 under section 5111.85 of the Revised Code and the director of 13597 aging shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 13598 Revised Code to implement the program medicaid-funded component. 13599

(2) If the unified long-term services and support medicaid 13600 waiver component is created, the departments of aging and job and 13601 family services shall work together to determine whether the 13602 medicaid-funded component of the PASSPORT program should continue 13603 to operate as a separate medicaid waiver component or be 13604 terminated. If the departments determine that the medicaid-funded 13605 component of the PASSPORT program should be terminated, the 13606 medicaid-funded component shall cease to exist on a date the 13607 departments shall specify. 13608

(D)(1) The department of aging shall administer the 13609 state-funded component of the PASSPORT program. The state-funded 13610 component shall not be administered as part of the medicaid 13611 program. 13612

(2) For an individual to be eligible for the state-funded 13613 component, the individual must meet one of the following 13614 requirements and meet the additional eligibility requirements 13615 applicable to the individual established in rules adopted under 13616 division (D)(4) of this section: 13617

(a) The individual must have been enrolled in the 13618 state-funded component on September 1, 1991, (as the state-funded 13619 component was authorized by uncodified law in effect at that time) 13620 and have had one or more applications for enrollment in the 13621 medicaid-funded component (or, if the medicaid-funded component is 13622 terminated under division (C)(2) of this section, the unified 13623 long-term services and support medicaid waiver component) denied. 13624

(b) The individual must have had the individual's enrollment 13625 in the medicaid-funded component (or, if the medicaid-funded 13626 component is terminated under division (C)(2) of this section, the 13627 unified long-term services and support medicaid waiver component) 13628 terminated and the individual must still need the home and 13629 community-based services provided under the PASSPORT program to 13630 protect the individual's health and safety. 13631

(c) The individual must have an application for the 13632 medicaid-funded component (or, if the medicaid-funded component is 13633 terminated under division (C)(2) of this section, the unified 13634 long-term services and support medicaid waiver component) pending 13635 and the department or the department's designee must have 13636 determined that the individual meets the nonfinancial eligibility 13637 requirements of the medicaid-funded component (or, if the 13638 medicaid-funded component is terminated under division (C)(2) of 13639 this section, the unified long-term services and support medicaid 13640 waiver component) and not have reason to doubt that the individual 13641 meets the financial eligibility requirements of the 13642 medicaid-funded component (or, if the medicaid-funded component is terminated under division (C)(2) of this section, the unified long-term services and support medicaid waiver component).

(3) An individual who is eligible for the state-funded component because the individual meets the requirement of division (D)(2)(c) of this section may participate in the component for not more than three months.

(4) The director of aging shall adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code to implement the state-funded component. The additional eligibility requirements established in the rules may vary for the different groups of individuals specified in divisions (D)(2)(a), (b), and (c) of this section.

Sec. 173.401. (A) As used in this section:

"Area agency on aging" has the same meaning as in section 173.14 of the Revised Code.

"Long-term care consultation program" means the program the department of aging is required to develop under section 173.42 of the Revised Code.

"Long-term care consultation program administrator" or "administrator" means the department of aging or, if the department contracts with an area agency on aging or other entity to administer the long-term care consultation program for a particular area, that agency or entity.

"Nursing facility" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

~~"PASSPORT waiver" means the federal medicaid waiver granted by the United States secretary of health and human services that authorizes the PASSPORT program.~~

(B) The Subject to division (C)(2) of section 173.40 of the Revised Code, the department shall establish a home first 13673 component of the PASSPORT program under which eligible individuals 13674 may be enrolled in the medicaid-funded component of the PASSPORT 13675 program in accordance with this section. An individual is eligible 13676 for the PASSPORT program's home first component if ~~all~~ both of the 13677

following apply: 13678

(1) The individual ~~is~~ has been determined to be eligible for 13679 the medicaid-funded component of the PASSPORT program. 13680

~~(2) The individual is on the unified waiting list established 13681
under section 173.404 of the Revised Code. 13682~~

~~(3)~~ At least one of the following applies: 13683

(a) The individual has been admitted to a nursing facility. 13684

(b) A physician has determined and documented in writing that 13685 the individual has a medical condition that, unless the individual 13686 is enrolled in home and community-based services such as the 13687 PASSPORT program, will require the individual to be admitted to a 13688 nursing facility within thirty days of the physician's 13689 determination. 13690

(c) The individual has been hospitalized and a physician has 13691 determined and documented in writing that, unless the individual 13692 is enrolled in home and community-based services such as the 13693 PASSPORT program, the individual is to be transported directly 13694 from the hospital to a nursing facility and admitted. 13695

(d) Both of the following apply: 13696

(i) The individual is the subject of a report made under 13697 section 5101.61 of the Revised Code regarding abuse, neglect, or 13698 exploitation or such a report referred to a county department of 13699 job and family services under section 5126.31 of the Revised Code 13700 or has made a request to a county department for protective 13701 services as defined in section 5101.60 of the Revised Code. 13702

~~(D) Each quarter, the department of aging shall certify to the director of budget and management the estimated increase in costs of the PASSPORT program resulting from enrollment of individuals in the PASSPORT program pursuant to this section.~~

Sec. 173.403. ~~"Choices~~ (A) As used in this section: 13734

"Choices program" means the program created under this 13735
section. 13736

~~There~~ "Medicaid waiver component" has the same meaning as in 13737
section 5111.85 of the Revised Code. 13738

"Unified long-term services and support medicaid waiver 13739
component" means the medicaid waiver component authorized by 13740
section 5111.863 of the Revised Code. 13741

(B) Subject to division (C) of this section, there is hereby 13742 created the choices program. The program shall provide home and 13743 community-based services. ~~The choices program shall be operated as~~ 13744 ~~a separate medicaid waiver component, as defined in section~~ 13745
~~5111.85 of the Revised Code, until the United States secretary of~~ 13746 ~~health and human services approves the consolidated federal~~ 13747
~~medicaid waiver sought under section 5111.861 of the Revised Code.~~ 13748
~~The program shall be part of the consolidated federal medicaid~~ 13749 ~~waiver sought under that section if the United States secretary~~ 13750 ~~approves the waiver.~~ The department of aging shall administer the 13751 program through a contract entered into with the department of job 13752 and family services under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code. 13753 Subject to federal approval, the program shall be available 13754 statewide. 13755

(C) If the unified long-term services and support medicaid 13756 waiver component is created, the departments of aging and job and 13757
family services shall work together to determine whether the 13758 choices program should continue to operate as a separate medicaid 13759 waiver component or be terminated. If the departments determine 13760 that the choices program should be terminated, the program shall 13761 cease to exist on a date the departments shall specify. 13762 contract with the department of aging to provide administrative	13849 services regarding the PASSPORT program.	13850

(9) "Program administrator" means an area agency on aging or	13851 other entity under contract with the department of aging to 13852 administer the long-term care consultation program in a geographic 13853 region specified in the contract. 13854

(10) "Representative" means a person acting on behalf of an 13855 individual specified in division (G) of this section. A 13856 representative may be a family member, attorney, hospital social 13857 worker, or any other person chosen to act on behalf of the 13858 individual. 13859

(B) The department of aging shall develop a long-term care 13860 consultation program whereby individuals or their representatives 13861 are provided with long-term care consultations and receive through 13862 these professional consultations information about options 13863 available to meet long-term care needs and information about 13864 factors to consider in making long-term care decisions. The 13865 long-term care consultations provided under the program may be 13866 provided at any appropriate time, as permitted or required under 13867 this section and the rules adopted under it, including either 13868 prior to or after the individual who is the subject of a 13869 consultation has been admitted to a nursing facility or granted 13870 assistance in receiving home and community-based services covered 13871 by medicaid components the department of aging administers. 13872

(C) The long-term care consultation program shall be 13873 administered by the department of aging, except that the 13874 department may have the program administered on a regional basis 13875 by one or more program administrators. The department and each 13876 program administrator shall administer the program in such a 13877 manner that all of the following are included: 13878

(1) Coordination and collaboration with respect to all 13879 available funding sources for long-term care services; 13880

(2) Assessments of individuals regarding their long-term care 13881 service needs; 13882

(3) Assessments of individuals regarding their on-going eligibility for long-term care services;	13883 13884
(4) Procedures for assisting individuals in obtaining access to, and coordination of, health and supportive services, including department of aging-administered medicaid waiver components;	13885 13886 13887
(5) Priorities for using available resources efficiently and effectively.	13888 13889
(D) The program's long-term care consultations shall be provided by individuals certified by the department under section 173.422 of the Revised Code.	13890 13891 13892
(E) The information provided through a long-term care consultation shall be appropriate to the individual's needs and situation and shall address all of the following:	13893 13894 13895
(1) The availability of any long-term care options open to the individual;	13896 13897
(2) Sources and methods of both public and private payment for long-term care services;	13898 13899
(3) Factors to consider when choosing among the available programs, services, and benefits;	13900 13901
(4) Opportunities and methods for maximizing independence and self-reliance, including support services provided by the individual's family, friends, and community.	13902 13903 13904
(F) An individual's long-term care consultation may include an assessment of the individual's functional capabilities. The consultation may incorporate portions of the determinations required under sections 5111.202, 5119.061, and 5123.021 of the Revised Code and may be provided concurrently with the assessment required under section 5111.204 of the Revised Code.	13905 13906 13907 13908 13909 13910
(G)(1) Unless an exemption specified in division (I) of this section is applicable, each of the following shall be provided	13911 13912

with a long-term care consultation:	13913
(a) An individual who applies or indicates an intention to apply for admission to a nursing facility, regardless of the source of payment to be used for the individual's care in a nursing facility;	13914 13915 13916 13917
(b) An individual who requests a long-term care consultation;	13918
(c) An individual identified by the department or a program administrator as being likely to benefit from a long-term care consultation.	13919 13920 13921
(2) In addition to the individuals specified in division (G)(1) of this section, a long-term care consultation may be provided to a nursing facility resident regardless of the source of payment being used for the resident's care in the nursing facility.	13922 13923 13924 13925 13926
(H)(1) Except as provided in division (H)(2) or (3) of this section, a long-term care consultation provided pursuant to division (G) of this section shall be provided as follows:	13927 13928 13929
(2) An individual or the individual's representative may	13942 request that a long-term care consultation be provided on a date 13943 that is later than the date required under division (H)(1)(a) or 13944

(b) of this section. 13945

(3) If a long-term care consultation cannot be completed 13946 within the number of days required by division (H)(1) or (2) of 13947 this section, the department or program administrator may do any 13948
of the following: 13949

(a) In the case of an individual specified in division (G)(1) 13950 of this section, exempt the individual from the consultation 13951 pursuant to rules that may be adopted under division (L) of this 13952
section; 13953

(b) In the case of an applicant for admission to a nursing 13954 facility, provide the consultation after the individual is 13955 admitted to the nursing facility; 13956

(c) In the case of a resident of a nursing facility, provide 13957 the consultation as soon as practicable. 13958

(I) An individual is not required to be provided a long-term 13959 care consultation under division (G)(1) of this section if any of 13960 the following apply: 13961

(1) The department or program administrator has attempted to 13962 provide the consultation, but the individual or the individual's 13963 representative refuses to cooperate; 13964

(2) The individual is to receive care in a nursing facility 13965 under a contract for continuing care as defined in section 173.13 13966

(3) The individual has a contractual right to admission to a 13968 nursing facility operated as part of a system of continuing care 13969 in conjunction with one or more facilities that provide a less 13970 intensive level of services, including a residential care facility 13971 licensed under Chapter 3721. of the Revised Code, an adult care 13972 facility licensed under Chapter 3722 , sections 5119.70 to 5119.88	13973 of the Revised Code, or an independent living arrangement;	13974

(4) The individual is to receive continual care in a home for	13975
the aged exempt from taxation under section 5701.13 of the Revised	13976
(5) The individual is seeking admission to a facility that is	13978
not a nursing facility with a provider agreement under section	13979
5111.22, 5111.671, or 5111.672 of the Revised Code;	13980
(6) The individual is exempted from the long-term care	13981 consultation requirement by the department or the program	13982 administrator pursuant to rules that may be adopted under division	13983
(L) of this section.	13984
(J) As part of the long-term care consultation program, the	13985 department or program administrator shall assist an individual or	13986 individual's representative in accessing all sources of care and	13987 services that are appropriate for the individual and for which the	13988 individual is eligible, including all available home and	13989 community-based services covered by medicaid components the	13990 department of aging administers. The assistance shall include	13991 providing for the conduct of assessments or other evaluations and	13992
the development of individualized plans of care or services under	13993
section 173.424 of the Revised Code.	13994
(K) No nursing facility for which an operator has a provider	13995 agreement under section 5111.22, 5111.671, or 5111.672 of the	13996
Revised Code shall admit any individual as a resident, unless the	13997 nursing facility has received evidence that a long-term care	13998 consultation has been completed for the individual or division (I)	13999
of this section is applicable to the individual.	14000
(L) The director of aging may adopt any rules the director	14001 considers necessary for the implementation and administration of	14002
this section. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with	14003

Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and may specify any or all of the	14004
following:	14005
(1) Procedures for providing long-term care consultations	14006
pursuant to this section;	14007
(2) Information to be provided through long-term care	14008
consultations regarding long-term care services that are	14009
available;	14010
(3) Criteria and procedures to be used to identify and	14011 recommend appropriate service options for an individual receiving	14012
a long-term care consultation;	14013
(4) Criteria for exempting individuals from the long-term	14014 care consultation requirement;	14015
(5) Circumstances under which it may be appropriate to	14016 provide an individual's long-term care consultation after the	14017 individual's admission to a nursing facility rather than before	14018 admission;	14019
(6) Criteria for identifying nursing facility residents who	14020 would benefit from the provision of a long-term care consultation;	14021
(7) A description of the types of information from a nursing	14022 facility that is needed under the long-term care consultation	14023 program to assist a resident with relocation from the facility;	14024
(8) Standards to prevent conflicts of interest relative to	14025
the referrals made by a person who performs a long-term care	14026 consultation, including standards that prohibit the person from	14027 being employed by a provider of long-term care services;	14028
(9) Procedures for providing notice and an opportunity for a	14029 hearing under division (N) of this section.	14030
(M) To assist the department and each program administrator	14031 with identifying individuals who are likely to benefit from a	14032 long-term care consultation, the department and program	14033 administrator may ask to be given access to nursing facility 14034 resident assessment data collected through the use of the resident 14035 assessment instrument specified in rules adopted under section 14036 5111.02 of the Revised Code for purposes of the medicaid program. 14037 Except when prohibited by state or federal law, the department of 14038 health, department of job and family services, or nursing facility 14039 holding the data shall grant access to the data on receipt of the 14040 request from the department of aging or program administrator. 14041

(N)(1) The director of aging, after providing notice and an 14042 opportunity for a hearing, may fine a nursing facility an amount 14043 determined by rules the director shall adopt in accordance with 14044 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for any of the following reasons: 14045

(a) The nursing facility admits an individual, without 14046 evidence that a long-term care consultation has been provided, as 14047 required by this section; 14048

(b) The nursing facility denies a person attempting to 14049 provide a long-term care consultation access to the facility or a 14050 resident of the facility; 14051

(c) The nursing facility denies the department of aging or 14052 program administrator access to the facility or a resident of the 14053 facility, as the department or administrator considers necessary 14054 to administer the program. 14055

(2) In accordance with section 5111.62 of the Revised Code, 14056 all fines collected under division (N)(1) of this section shall be 14057 deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the residents 14058 protection fund. 14059

Sec. 173.501. (A) As used in this section:

"Nursing facility" has the same meaning as in section 5111.20 of the Revised Code.

"PACE provider" has the same meaning as in 42 U.S.C.

1396u-4(a)(3).	14153
(B) The department of aging shall establish a home first component of the PACE program under which eligible individuals may be enrolled in the PACE program in accordance with this section. An individual is eligible for the PACE program's home first component if all both of the following apply:	14154 14155 14156 14157 14158
(1) The individual is has been determined to be eligible for the PACE program.	14159 14160
(2) The individual is on the unified waiting list established under section 173.404 of the Revised Code.	14161 14162
(3) At least one of the following applies:	14163
(a) The individual has been admitted to a nursing facility.	14164
(b) A physician has determined and documented in writing that the individual has a medical condition that, unless the individual is enrolled in home and community-based services such as the PACE program, will require the individual to be admitted to a nursing facility within thirty days of the physician's determination.	14165 14166 14167 14168 14169
(d) Both of the following apply:	14175
(i) The individual is the subject of a report made under section 5101.61 of the Revised Code regarding abuse, neglect, or exploitation or such a report referred to a county department of job and family services under section 5126.31 of the Revised Code or has made a request to a county department for protective services as defined in section 5101.60 of the Revised Code.	14176 14177 14178 14179 14180 14181
(ii) A county department of job and family services and an	14182 area agency on aging have jointly documented in writing that, 14183 unless the individual is enrolled in home and community-based 14184 services such as the PACE program, the individual should be 14185 admitted to a nursing facility. 14186

(C) Each month, the department of aging shall identify 14187 individuals who are eligible for the home first component of the 14188 PACE program. When the department identifies such an individual, 14189 the department shall notify the PACE provider serving the area in 14190 which the individual resides. The PACE provider shall determine 14191 whether the PACE program is appropriate for the individual and 14192 whether the individual would rather participate in the PACE 14193 program than continue or begin to reside in a nursing facility. If 14194 the PACE provider determines that the PACE program is appropriate 14195 for the individual and the individual would rather participate in 14196 the PACE program than continue or begin to reside in a nursing 14197 facility, the PACE provider shall so notify the department of 14198 aging. On receipt of the notice from the PACE provider, the 14199 department of aging shall approve the individual's enrollment in 14200 the PACE program in accordance with priorities established in 14201 rules adopted under section 173.50 of the Revised Code. 14202

~~(D) Each quarter, the department of aging shall certify to 14203 the director of budget and management the estimated increase in 14204 costs of the PACE program resulting from enrollment of individuals 14205 in the PACE program pursuant to this section. 14206~~

Sec. 183.151. (A) As used in this section, "eligible 14207 institution of higher education" includes any of the following: 14208

3333.046 of the Revised Code;	14218
(5) An institution of higher education located outside of the	14219
state, but within fifty miles of the borders of this state.	14220
(B) Grants or loans awarded by the southern Ohio agricultural	14221
and community development foundation to provide education and	14222
training assistance pursuant to section 183.15 of the Revised Code	14223
shall be limited to applicants who are enrolled in an eligible	14224
institution of higher education. This section applies to grants	14225
and loans awarded by the foundation after the effective date of	14226
this section.	14227
Sec. 183.30. (A) (1) Except as provided in division (C) (A) (2)	14228 of this section, no more than five per cent of the total	14229
disbursements, encumbrances, and obligations of the southern Ohio	14230 agricultural and community development foundation in a fiscal year	14231 shall be for administrative expenses of the foundation in the same	14232 fiscal year.	14233
(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, no	14234 more than five per cent of the total disbursements, encumbrances,	14235 and obligations of the biomedical research and technology transfer	14236 trust fund in a fiscal year shall be for expenses relating to the	14237 administration of the trust fund by the third frontier commission	14238 in the same fiscal year.	14239
(C) This section's (2) The five per cent limitation on	14240 administrative expenses does not apply to any fiscal year for	14241 which the controlling board approves a spending plan that the	14242 foundation or commission submits to the board.	14243

(B) Payments may be made from the biomedical research and 14244 technology transfer trust fund for third frontier commission 14245 expenses related to the administration of awards made from the 14246 fund prior to the effective date of this section. No such payments 14247 shall be made after June 30, 2013. 14248 received by the issuing authority pursuant to division (B) of this	14314

section.	14315
(14) "Principal amount" means the aggregate of the amount as	14316 stated or provided for in the applicable bond proceedings as the	14317 amount on which interest or interest equivalent on particular	14318 obligations is initially calculated. "Principal amount" does not	14319 include any premium paid to the issuing authority by the initial	14320 purchaser of the obligations. "Principal amount" of a capital	14321 appreciation bond, as defined in division (C) of section 3334.01	14322 of the Revised Code, means its original face amount and not its	14323 accrued value, and "principal amount" of a zero coupon bond, as	14324 defined in division (J) of section 3334.01 of the Revised Code,	14325 means the discounted offering price at which the bond is initially	14326 sold to the public, disregarding any purchase price discount to	14327 the original purchaser, if provided in or for pursuant to the bond	14328
proceedings.	14329
(15) "Special funds" or "funds," unless the context indicates	14330 otherwise, means the bond service fund, and any other funds,	14331 including any reserve funds, created under the bond proceedings	14332 and stated to be special funds in those proceedings, including	14333 moneys and investments, and earnings from investments, credited	14334 and to be credited to the particular fund. "Special funds" does	14335 not include any improvement fund or investment earnings on amounts 14336 in any improvement fund, or other funds created by the bond 14337 proceedings that are not stated by those proceedings to be special 14338

funds. 14339

(B) The state may assign and sell to the issuing authority, 14340 and the issuing authority may accept and purchase, all or a 14341 portion of the amounts to be received by the state under the 14342 tobacco master settlement agreement for a purchase price payable 14343 by the issuing authority to the state consisting of the net 14344 proceeds of obligations and any residual interest, if any. Any 14345 such assignment and sale shall be irrevocable in accordance with 14346 its terms during the period any obligations secured by amounts so 14347 assigned and sold are outstanding under the applicable bond 14348 proceedings, and shall constitute a contractual obligation to the 14349 holders or owners of those obligations. Any such assignment and 14350 sale shall also be treated as an absolute transfer and true sale 14351 for all purposes, and not as a pledge or other security interest. 14352
The characterization of any such assignment and sale as a true 14353 sale and absolute transfer shall not be negated or adversely 14354 affected by only a portion of the amounts to be received under the 14355 tobacco master settlement agreement being transferred, the 14356 acquisition or retention by the state of a residual interest, the 14357 participation of any state officer or employee as a member or 14358 officer of, or providing staff support to, the issuing authority, 14359 any responsibility of an officer or employee of the state for 14360 collecting the amounts to be received under the tobacco master 14361 settlement agreement or otherwise enforcing that agreement or 14362 retaining any legal title to or interest in any portion of the 14363 amounts to be received under that agreement for the purpose of 14364 these collection activities, any characterization of the issuing 14365 authority or its obligations for purposes of accounting, taxation, 14366 or securities regulation, or by any other factors whatsoever. A 14367 true sale shall exist under this section regardless of whether the 14368 issuing authority has any recourse against the state or any other 14369 term of the bond proceedings or the treatment or characterization 14370 of the transfer as a financing for any purpose. Upon and following 14371 the assignment and sale, the state shall not have any right, 14372 title, or interest in the portion of the receipts under the 14373 tobacco master settlement agreement so assigned and sold, other 14374 than any residual interest that may be described in the applicable 14375 bond proceedings for those obligations, and that portion, if any, 14376 shall be the property of the issuing authority and not of the 14377 state, and shall be paid directly to the issuing authority, and 14378 shall be owned, received, held, and disbursed by the issuing 14379 authority and not by the state. 14380

The state may covenant, pledge, and agree in the bond 14381 proceedings, with and for the benefit of the issuing authority, 14382 the holders and owners of obligations, and providers of any credit 14383 enhancement facilities, that it shall: (1) maintain statutory 14384 authority for, and cause to be collected and paid directly to the 14385 issuing authority or its assignee, the pledged receipts, (2) 14386 enforce the rights of the issuing authority to receive the 14387 receipts under the tobacco master settlement agreement assigned 14388 and sold to the issuing authority, (3) not materially impair the 14389 rights of the issuing authority to fulfill the terms of its 14390 agreements with the holders or owners of outstanding obligations 14391 under the bond proceedings, (4) not materially impair the rights 14392 and remedies of the holders or owners of outstanding obligations 14393 or materially impair the security for those outstanding 14394 obligations, and (5) enforce Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, 14395 the tobacco master settlement agreement, and the consent decree to 14396 effectuate the collection of the pledged tobacco settlement 14397 receipts. The bond proceedings may provide or authorize the manner 14398 for determining material impairment of the security for any 14399 outstanding obligations, including by assessing and evaluating the 14400 pledged receipts in the aggregate. 14401

As further provided for in division (H) of this section, the 14402 bond proceedings may also include such other covenants, pledges, 14403 and agreements by the state to protect and safeguard the security 14404 and rights of the holders and owners of the obligations, and of 14405 the providers of any credit enhancement facilities, including, 14406 without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any covenant, 14407 pledge, or agreement customary in transactions involving the 14408 issuance of securities the debt service on which is payable from 14409 or secured by amounts received under the tobacco master settlement 14410 agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 14411 covenant, pledge, and agreement of the state, if and when made in 14412 the bond proceedings, shall be controlling and binding upon, and 14413 enforceable against the state in accordance with its terms for so 14414 long as any obligations are outstanding under the applicable bond 14415 proceedings. The bond proceedings may also include limitations on 14416 the remedies available to the issuing authority, the holders and 14417 owners of the obligations, and the providers of any credit 14418 enhancement facilities, including, without limiting the generality 14419 of the foregoing, a provision that those remedies may be limited 14420 to injunctive relief in circumstances where there has been no 14421 prior determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that the 14422 state has not enforced Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, the 14423 tobacco master settlement agreement, or the consent decree as may 14424 have been covenanted or agreed in the bond proceedings under 14425
division (B)(5) of this section. 14426

Nothing in this section or the bond proceedings shall 14427 preclude or limit, or be construed to preclude or limit, the state 14428 from regulating or authorizing or permitting the regulation of 14429 smoking or from taxing and regulating the sale of cigarettes or 14430 other tobacco products, or from defending or prosecuting cases or 14431 other actions relating to the sale or use of cigarettes or other 14432 tobacco products. Except as otherwise may be agreed in writing by 14433 the attorney general, nothing in this section or the bond 14434 proceedings shall modify or limit, or be construed to modify or 14435 limit, the responsibility, power, judgment, and discretion of the 14436 attorney general to protect and discharge the duties, rights, and 14437 obligations of the state under the tobacco master settlement 14438 agreement, the consent decree, or Chapter 1346. of the Revised 14439

Code. 14440

The governor and the director of budget and management, in 14441 consultation with the attorney general, on behalf of the state, 14442 and any member or officer of the issuing authority as authorized 14443 by that issuing authority, on behalf of the issuing authority, may 14444 take any action and execute any documents, including any purchase 14445 and sale agreements, necessary to effect the assignment and sale 14446 and the acceptance of the assignment and title to the receipts 14447 including, providing irrevocable direction to the escrow agent 14448 acting under the tobacco master settlement agreement to transfer 14449 directly to the issuing authority the amounts to be received under 14450 that agreement that are subject to such assignment and sale. Any 14451 purchase and sale agreement or other bond proceedings may contain 14452 the terms and conditions established by the state and the issuing 14453 authority to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this 14454 section, including, without limitation, covenants binding the 14455 state in favor of the issuing authority and its assignees and the 14456 owners of the obligations. Any such purchase and sale agreement 14457 shall be sufficient to effectuate such purchase and sale without 14458 regard to any other laws governing other property sales or 14459 financial transactions by the state. 14460

Not later than two years following the date on which there 14461 are no longer any obligations outstanding under the bond 14462 proceedings, all assets of the issuing authority shall vest in the 14463 state, the issuing authority shall execute any necessary 14464 assignments or instruments, including any assignment of any right, 14465 title, or ownership to the state for receipt of amounts under the 14466 tobacco master settlement agreement, and the issuing authority 14467 shall be dissolved. 14468

(C) The issuing authority is authorized to issue and to sell 14469 obligations as provided in this section. The aggregate principal 14470 amount of obligations issued under this section shall not exceed 14471 six billion dollars, exclusive of obligations issued under 14472 division (M)(1) of this section to refund, renew, or advance 14473 refund other obligations issued or incurred. At least seventy-five 14474 per cent of the aggregate net proceeds of the obligations issued 14475 under the authority of this section, exclusive of obligations 14476 issued to refund, renew, or advance refund other obligations, 14477 shall be paid to the state for deposit into the school building 14478 program assistance fund created in section 3318.25 of the Revised 14479
Code. 14480

(D) Each issue of obligations shall be authorized by 14481 resolution or order of the issuing authority. The bond proceedings 14482 shall provide for or authorize the manner for determining the 14483 principal amount or maximum principal amount of obligations of an 14484 issue, the principal maturity or maturities, the interest rate or 14485 rates, the date of and the dates of payment of interest on the 14486 obligations, their denominations, and the place or places of 14487 payment of debt service which may be within or outside the state. 14488 Unless otherwise provided by law, the latest principal maturity 14489 may not be later than the earlier of the thirty-first day of 14490 December of the fiftieth calendar year after the year of issuance 14491 of the particular obligations or of the fiftieth calendar year 14492 after the year in which the original obligation to pay was issued 14493 or entered into. Sections 9.96, 9.98, 9.981, 9.982, and 9.983 of 14494 the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 14495

The purpose of the obligations may be stated in the bond 14496 proceedings in general terms, such as, as applicable, "paying 14497 costs of capital facilities for a system of common schools" and 14498

"paying costs of facilities for state-supported and state-assisted 14499 institutions of higher education." Unless otherwise provided in 14500 the bond proceedings or in division (C) of this section, the net 14501 proceeds from the issuance of the obligations shall be paid to the 14502 state for deposit into the applicable improvement fund. In 14503 addition to the investments authorized in Chapter 135. of the 14504 Revised Code, the net proceeds held in an improvement fund may be 14505 invested by the treasurer of state in guaranteed investment 14506 contracts with providers rated at the time of any investment in 14507 the three highest rating categories by two nationally recognized 14508 rating agencies, all subject to the terms and conditions set forth 14509 in those agreements or the bond proceedings. Notwithstanding 14510 ~~division (B)(4) of section 3318.38~~ anything to the contrary in 14511 Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, net proceeds of obligations 14512 deposited into the school building program assistance fund created 14513 in section 3318.25 of the Revised Code may be used to pay basic 14514 project costs under ~~section 3318.38 of the Revised Code~~ that 14515 chapter at the times determined by the Ohio school facilities 14516 commission without regard to whether those expenditures are in 14517 proportion to the state's and the school district's respective 14518 shares of that basic project cost; provided that this shall not 14519 result in any change in the state or school district shares of the 14520 basic project costs ~~provided under Chapter 3318. of the Revised~~ 14521 ~~Code~~ as determined under that chapter. As used in the preceding 14522 sentence, "Ohio school facilities commission" and "basic project 14523 costs" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised 14524
Code. 14525

(E) The issuing authority may, without need for any other 14526 approval, appoint or provide for the appointment of paying agents, 14527 bond registrars, securities depositories, credit enhancement 14528 providers or counterparties, clearing corporations, and transfer 14529 agents, and retain or contract for the services of underwriters, 14530 investment bankers, financial advisers, accounting experts, 14531 marketing, remarketing, indexing, and administrative agents, other 14532 consultants, and independent contractors, including printing 14533 services, as are necessary in the judgment of the issuing 14534 authority to carry out the issuing authority's functions under 14535 this section and section 183.52 of the Revised Code. The attorney 14536 general as counsel to the issuing authority shall represent the 14537 authority in the execution of its powers and duties, and shall 14538 institute and prosecute all actions on its behalf. The issuing 14539 authority, in consultation with the attorney general, shall select 14540 counsel, and the attorney general shall appoint the counsel 14541 selected, for the purposes of carrying out the functions under 14542 this section and related sections of the Revised Code. Financing 14543 costs are payable, as may be provided in the bond proceedings, 14544 from the proceeds of the obligations, from special funds, or from 14545 other moneys available for the purpose, including as to future 14546 financing costs, from the pledged receipts. 14547

(F) The issuing authority may irrevocably pledge and assign 14548 all, or such portion as the issuing authority determines, of the 14549 pledged receipts to the payment of the debt service charges on 14550 obligations issued under this section, and for the establishment 14551 and maintenance of any reserves, as provided in the bond 14552 proceedings, and make other provisions in the bond proceedings 14553 with respect to pledged receipts as authorized by this section, 14554 which provisions are controlling notwithstanding any other 14555 provisions of law pertaining to them. Any and all pledged receipts 14556 received by the issuing authority and required by the bond 14557 proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, 14558 transferred, or credited to the bond service fund, and all other 14559 money transferred or allocated to or received for the purposes of 14560 that fund, shall be deposited and credited to the bond service 14561 fund created in the bond proceedings for the obligations, subject 14562 to any applicable provisions of those bond proceedings, but 14563 without necessity for any act of appropriation. Those pledged 14564 receipts shall immediately be subject to the lien of that pledge 14565 without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and shall 14566 not be subject to other court judgments. The lien of the pledge of 14567 those pledged receipts shall be valid and binding against all 14568 parties having claims of any kind against the issuing authority, 14569 irrespective of whether those parties have notice thereof. The 14570 pledge shall create a perfected security interest for all purposes 14571 of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code and a perfected lien for 14572 purposes of any other interest, all without the necessity for 14573 separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or recording of 14574 the applicable bond proceedings by which that pledge is created or 14575 any certificate, statement, or other document with respect 14576 thereto. The pledge of the pledged receipts shall be effective and 14577 the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to the purposes for 14578 which pledged. 14579

(G) Obligations may be further secured, as determined by the 14580 issuing authority, by an indenture or a trust agreement between 14581 the issuing authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any 14582 trust company or bank having a place of business within the state. 14583 Any indenture or trust agreement may contain the resolution or 14584 order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any provisions 14585 that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and other 14586 provisions that are customary or appropriate in an agreement of 14587 that type, including, but not limited to: 14588

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, indenture, trust agreement, 14589 or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 14590 the issuing authority has fully paid or provided for the payment 14591 of debt service on the obligations secured by it; 14592

(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be 14593 made by the bond proceedings, enforcement of those payments or 14594 agreements by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in 14595 equity, action at law, or any combination of them; 14596

(3) The rights and remedies of the holders or owners of obligations and of the trustee and provisions for protecting and enforcing them, including limitations on rights of individual holders and owners.

(H) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions customary or appropriate to the financing or to the obligations or to particular obligations including, but not limited to, provisions for:

(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the option of the issuing authority or of the holder or upon the occurrence of certain conditions, and at a particular price or prices and under particular terms and conditions;

(2) The form of and other terms of the obligations;

(5) The maintenance of each pledge or instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until the issuing authority has fully paid or provided for the payment of the debt service on the obligations or met other stated conditions;	14628

(6) In the event of default in any payments required to be made by the bond proceedings, or by any other agreement of the issuing authority made as part of a contract under which the obligations were issued or secured, including a credit enhancement facility, the enforcement of those payments by mandamus, a suit in equity, an action at law, or any combination of those remedial actions;	14629 14630 14631 14632 14633 14634 14635
(8) The replacement of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen obligations;	14641 14642
(9) The funding, refunding, or advance refunding, or other provision for payment, of obligations that will then no longer be outstanding for purposes of this section or of the applicable bond proceedings;	14643 14644 14645 14646
(10) Amendment of the bond proceedings;	14647
(11) Any other or additional agreements with the owners of obligations, and such other provisions as the issuing authority determines, including limitations, conditions, or qualifications, relating to any of the foregoing or the activities of the issuing authority in connection therewith.	14648 14649 14650 14651 14652
The bond proceedings shall make provision for the payment of the expenses of the enforcement activity of the attorney general referred to in division (B) of this section from the amounts from the tobacco master settlement agreement assigned and sold to the issuing authority under that division or from the proceeds of obligations, or a combination thereof, which may include provision	14653 14654 14655 14656 14657 14658 for both annual payments and a special fund providing reserve 14659 amounts for the payment of those expenses. 14660

The issuing authority shall not, and shall covenant in the 14661 bond proceedings that it shall not, be authorized to and shall not 14662 file a voluntary petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 14663 11 U.S.C. 101 et seq., as amended, or voluntarily commence any 14664 similar bankruptcy proceeding under state law including, without 14665 limitation, consenting to the appointment of a receiver or trustee 14666 or making a general or specific assignment for the benefit of 14667 creditors, and neither any public officer or any organization, 14668 entity, or other person shall authorize the issuing authority to 14669 be or become a debtor under the United States Bankruptcy Code or 14670 take any of those actions under the United States Bankruptcy Code 14671 or state law. The state hereby covenants, and the issuing 14672 authority shall covenant, with the holders or owners of the 14673 obligations, that the state shall not permit the issuing authority 14674 to file a voluntary petition under the United States Bankruptcy 14675 Code or take any of those actions under the United States 14676 Bankruptcy Code or state law during the period obligations are 14677 outstanding and for any additional period for which the issuing 14678 authority covenants in the bond proceedings, which additional 14679 period may, but need not, be a period of three hundred sixty-seven 14680 days or more. 14681

(I) The obligations requiring execution by or for the issuing 14682 authority shall be signed as provided in the bond proceedings, and 14683 may bear the official seal of the issuing authority or a facsimile 14684 thereof. Any obligation may be signed by the individual who, on 14685 the date of execution, is the authorized signer even though, on 14686 the date of the obligations, that individual is not an authorized 14687 signer. In case the individual whose signature or facsimile 14688 signature appears on any obligation ceases to be an authorized 14689 signer before delivery of the obligation, that signature or 14690 facsimile is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes as 14691 if that individual had remained the authorized signer until 14692 delivery. 14693

(J) Obligations are investment securities under Chapter 1308. 14694 of the Revised Code. Obligations may be issued in bearer or in 14695 registered form, registrable as to principal alone or as to both 14696 principal and interest, or both, or in certificated or 14697 uncertificated form, as the issuing authority determines. 14698 Provision may be made for the exchange, conversion, or transfer of 14699 obligations and for reasonable charges for registration, exchange, 14700 conversion, and transfer. Pending preparation of final 14701 obligations, the issuing authority may provide for the issuance of 14702 interim instruments to be exchanged for the final obligations. 14703

(K) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 14704 sale, in such manner, and at such price at, above, or below par, 14705 all as determined by and provided by the issuing authority in the 14706 bond proceedings. 14707

(L) Except to the extent that rights are restricted by the 14708 bond proceedings, any owner of obligations or provider of or 14709 counterparty to a credit enhancement facility may by any suitable 14710 form of legal proceedings protect and enforce any rights relating 14711 to obligations or that facility under the laws of this state or 14712 granted by the bond proceedings. Those rights include the right to 14713 compel the performance of all applicable duties of the issuing 14714 authority and the state. Each duty of the issuing authority and 14715 that issuing authority's officers, staff, and employees, and of 14716 each state entity or agency, or using district or using 14717 institution, and its officers, members, staff, or employees, 14718 undertaken pursuant to the bond proceedings, is hereby established 14719 as a duty of the entity or individual having authority to perform 14720 that duty, specifically enjoined by law and resulting from an 14721 office, trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of 14722 the Revised Code. The individuals who are from time to time 14723 members of the issuing authority, or their designees acting 14724 pursuant to section 183.52 of the Revised Code, or the issuing 14725 authority's officers, staff, agents, or employees, when acting 14726 within the scope of their employment or agency, shall not be 14727 liable in their personal capacities on any obligations or 14728 otherwise under the bond proceedings, or for otherwise exercising 14729 or carrying out any purposes or powers of the issuing authority. 14730

(M)(1) Subject to any applicable limitations in division (C) 14731 of this section, the issuing authority may also authorize and 14732 provide for the issuance of: 14733

(a) Obligations in the form of bond anticipation notes, and 14734 may authorize and provide for the renewal of those notes from time 14735 to time by the issuance of new notes. The holders of notes or 14736 appertaining interest coupons have the right to have debt service 14737 on those notes paid solely from the moneys and special funds, and 14738 all or any portion of the pledged receipts, that are or may be 14739 pledged to that payment, including the proceeds of bonds or 14740 renewal notes or both, as the issuing authority provides in the 14741 bond proceedings authorizing the notes. Notes may be additionally 14742 secured by covenants of the issuing authority to the effect that 14743 the issuing authority will do all things necessary for the 14744 issuance of bonds or renewal notes in such principal amount and 14745 upon such terms as may be necessary to provide moneys to pay when 14746 due the debt service on the notes, and apply their proceeds to the 14747 extent necessary, to make full and timely payment of debt service 14748 on the notes as provided in the applicable bond proceedings. In 14749 the bond proceedings authorizing the issuance of bond anticipation 14750 notes the issuing authority shall set forth for the bonds 14751 anticipated an estimated schedule of annual principal payments the 14752 latest of which shall be no later than provided in division (D) of 14753 this section. While the notes are outstanding there shall be 14754 deposited, as shall be provided in the bond proceedings for those 14755 notes, from the sources authorized for payment of debt service on 14756 the bonds, amounts sufficient to pay the principal of the bonds 14757 anticipated as set forth in that estimated schedule during the 14758 time the notes are outstanding, which amounts shall be used solely 14759 to pay the principal of those notes or of the bonds anticipated. 14760

(b) Obligations for the refunding, including funding and 14761 retirement, and advance refunding, with or without payment or 14762 redemption prior to maturity, of any obligations previously issued 14763 under this section and any bonds or notes previously issued for 14764 the purpose of paying costs of capital facilities for: (i) 14765 state-supported or state-assisted institutions of higher education 14766 as authorized by sections 151.01 and 151.04 of the Revised Code, 14767 pursuant to Sections 2i and 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, 14768 and (ii) housing branches and agencies of state government limited 14769 to facilities for a system of common schools throughout the state 14770 as authorized by sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the Revised Code, 14771
pursuant to Sections 2i and 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution. 14772 Refunding obligations may be issued in amounts sufficient to pay 14773 or to provide for repayment of the principal amount, including 14774 principal amounts maturing prior to the redemption of the 14775 remaining prior obligations or bonds or notes, any redemption 14776 premium, and interest accrued or to accrue to the maturity or 14777 redemption date or dates, payable on the prior obligations or 14778 bonds or notes, and related financing costs and any expenses 14779 incurred or to be incurred in connection with that issuance and 14780 refunding. Subject to the applicable bond proceedings, the portion 14781 of the proceeds of the sale of refunding obligations issued under 14782 division (M)(1)(b) of this section to be applied to debt service 14783 on the prior obligations or bonds or notes shall be credited to an 14784 appropriate separate account in the bond service fund and held in 14785 trust for the purpose by the issuing authority or by a corporate 14786 trustee, and may be invested as provided in the bond proceedings. 14787

Obligations authorized under this division shall be considered to 14788 be issued for those purposes for which the prior obligations or 14789 bonds or notes were issued. 14790

(2) The principal amount of refunding, advance refunding, or 14791 renewal obligations issued pursuant to division (M) of this 14792 section shall be in addition to the amount authorized in division 14793
(C) of this section. 14794

(N) Obligations are lawful investments for banks, savings and 14795 loan associations, credit union share guaranty corporations, trust 14796 companies, trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including 14797 domestic for life and domestic not for life, trustees or other 14798 officers having charge of sinking and bond retirement or other 14799 special funds of the state and political subdivisions and taxing 14800 districts of this state, notwithstanding any other provisions of 14801 the Revised Code or rules adopted pursuant to those provisions by 14802 any state agency with respect to investments by them, and are also 14803 acceptable as security for the repayment of the deposit of public 14804 moneys. The exemptions from taxation in Ohio as provided for in 14805 particular sections of the Ohio Constitution and section 5709.76 14806 of the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 14807

(O)(1) Unless otherwise provided or provided for in any 14808 applicable bond proceedings, moneys to the credit of or in a 14809 special fund shall be disbursed on the order of the issuing 14810 authority. No such order is required for the payment, from the 14811 bond service fund or other special fund, when due of debt service 14812 or required payments under credit enhancement facilities. 14813

(2) Payments received by the issuing authority under interest 14814 rate hedges entered into as credit enhancement facilities under 14815 this section shall be deposited as provided in the applicable bond 14816
proceedings. 14817

(P) The obligations shall not be general obligations of the 14818 state and the full faith and credit, revenue, and taxing power of 14819 the state shall not be pledged to the payment of debt service on 14820 them or to any guarantee of the payment of that debt service. The 14821 holders or owners of the obligations shall have no right to have 14822 any moneys obligated or pledged for the payment of debt service 14823 except as provided in this section and in the applicable bond 14824 proceedings. The rights of the holders and owners to payment of 14825 debt service are limited to all or that portion of the pledged 14826 receipts, and those special funds, pledged to the payment of debt 14827 service pursuant to the bond proceedings in accordance with this 14828 section, and each obligation shall bear on its face a statement to 14829 that effect. 14830

(Q) Each bond service fund is a trust fund and is hereby 14831 pledged to the payment of debt service on the applicable 14832 obligations. Payment of that debt service shall be made or 14833 provided for by the issuing authority in accordance with the bond 14834 proceedings without necessity for any act of appropriation. The 14835 bond proceedings may provide for the establishment of separate 14836 accounts in the bond service fund and for the application of those 14837 accounts only to debt service on specific obligations, and for 14838 other accounts in the bond service fund within the general 14839 purposes of that fund. 14840

(R) Subject to the bond proceedings pertaining to any 14841 obligations then outstanding in accordance with their terms, the 14842 issuing authority may in the bond proceedings pledge all, or such 14843 portion as the issuing authority determines, of the moneys in the 14844 bond service fund to the payment of debt service on particular 14845 obligations, and for the establishment and maintenance of any 14846 reserves for payment of particular debt service. 14847

(S)(1) Unless otherwise provided in any applicable bond 14848 proceedings, moneys to the credit of special funds may be invested 14849 by or on behalf of the issuing authority only in one or more of 14850

the following: 14851

14853
14855
14856
14857
14858

(b) Obligations of this state or any political subdivision of this state; 14859
14860

(c) Certificates of deposit of any national bank located in this state and any bank, as defined in section 1101.01 of the Revised Code, subject to inspection by the superintendent of financial institutions; 14861
14862
14864

(d) The treasurer of state's pooled investment program under section 135.45 of the Revised Code; 14865
14866

(e) Other investment agreements or repurchase agreements that are consistent with the ratings on the obligations. 14867
14868

14870
14873

(T) The treasurer of state shall have responsibility for keeping records, making reports, and making payments, relating to any arbitrage rebate requirements under the applicable bond proceedings. 14874
14875
14877

(U) The issuing authority shall make quarterly reports to the general assembly of the amounts in, and activities of, each improvement fund, including amounts and activities on the subfund 14878 level. Each report shall include a detailed description and 14881 analysis of the amount of proceeds remaining in each fund from the 14882 sale of obligations pursuant to this section, and any other 14883 deposits, credits, interest earnings, disbursements, expenses, 14884 transfers, or activities of each fund. 14885

(V) The costs of the annual audit of the authority conducted 14886 pursuant to section 117.112 of the Revised Code are payable, as 14887 may be provided in the bond proceedings, from the proceeds of the 14888 obligations, from special funds, or from other moneys available 14889 for the purpose, including as to future financing costs, from the 14890 pledged receipts. 14891

Sec. 185.01. As used in this chapter: 14892

(A) "Advanced practice nurse" has the same meaning as in 14893
section 4723.01 of the Revised Code. 14894

(B) "Collaboration" has the same meaning as in section 14895
4723.01 of the Revised Code. 14896

~~(C) "Health care coverage and quality council" means the 14897 entity established under section 3923.90 of the Revised Code. 14898~~

~~(D)~~ "Patient centered medical home education advisory group" 14899 means the entity established under section 185.03 of the Revised 14900 Code to implement and administer the patient centered medical home 14901 education pilot project. 14902

~~(E)~~(D) "Patient centered medical home education pilot 14903 project" means the pilot project established under section 185.02 14904

Sec. 185.03. (A) The patient centered medical home education 14906 advisory group is hereby created for the purpose of implementing 14907 and administering the patient centered medical home pilot project. 14908
The advisory group shall develop a set of expected outcomes for 14909

the pilot project. 14910

(B) The advisory group shall consist of the following voting 14911
members: 14912

(1) One individual with expertise in the training and 14913 education of primary care physicians who is appointed by the dean 14914 of the university of Toledo college of medicine; 14915

(2) One individual with expertise in the training and 14916
education of primary care physicians who is appointed by the dean 14917 of the Boonshoft school of medicine at Wright state university; 14918

(3) One individual with expertise in the training and 14919
education of primary care physicians who is appointed by the 14920 president and dean of the northeastern Ohio universities colleges 14921 of medicine and pharmacy; 14922

education of primary care physicians who is appointed by the dean 14924 of the Ohio university college of osteopathic medicine; 14925

(5) Two individuals appointed by the governing board of the 14926
Ohio academy of family physicians; 14927

(6) One individual appointed by the governing board of the 14928
Ohio chapter of the American college of physicians; 14929

(7) One individual appointed by the governing board of the 14930
American academy of pediatrics; 14931

Ohio osteopathic association; 14933

(9) One individual with expertise in the training and 14934
education of advanced practice nurses who is appointed by the 14935 governing board of the Ohio council of deans and directors of 14936 baccalaureate and higher degree programs in nursing; 14937

(10) One individual appointed by the governing board of the 14938
Ohio nurses association; 14939

(11) One individual appointed by the governing board of the Ohio association of advanced practice nurses;	14940 14941
(12) A member of the health care coverage and quality council, other than the advisory group member specified in division (C)(2) of this section, One individual appointed by the governing board of the Ohio council for home care and hospice;	14942 14943 14944 14945
(13) One individual appointed by the superintendent of insurance.	14946 14947
(C) The advisory group shall consist of the following nonvoting, ex officio members:	14948 14949
(1) The executive director of the state medical board, or the director's designee;	14950 14951
(2) The executive director of the board of nursing or the director's designee;	14952 14953
(3) The chancellor of the Ohio board of regents, or the chancellor's designee;	14954 14955

(5) The director of health or the director's designee.	14959
(D) Advisory group members who are appointed shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing authorities. Terms of office of appointed members shall be three years, except that a member's term ends if the pilot project ceases operation during the member's term.	14960 14961 14962 14963 14964
Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments.	14965 14966
Members shall serve without compensation, except to the extent that serving on the advisory group is considered part of their regular employment duties.	14967 14968 14969

(E) The advisory group shall select from among its members a chairperson and vice-chairperson. The advisory group may select any other officers it considers necessary to conduct its business.

A majority of the members of the advisory group constitutes a quorum for the transaction of official business. A majority of a quorum is necessary for the advisory group to take any action, except that when one or more members of a quorum are required to abstain from voting as provided in division (C)(1)(d) or (C)(2)(c) of section 185.05 of the Revised Code, the number of members necessary for a majority of a quorum shall be reduced accordingly.

The advisory group shall meet as necessary to fulfill its duties. The times and places for the meetings shall be selected by the chairperson.

(F) Sections 101.82 to 101.87 of the Revised Code do not apply to the advisory group.

Sec. 185.06. (A) To be eligible for inclusion in the patient centered medical home education pilot project, a physician practice shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Consist of physicians who are board-certified in family medicine, general pediatrics, or internal medicine, as those designations are issued by a medical specialty certifying board recognized by the American board of medical specialties or American osteopathic association;

(2) Be capable of adapting the practice during the period in which the practice receives funding from the patient centered medical home education advisory group in such a manner that the practice is fully compliant with the minimum standards for operation of a patient centered medical home, as those standards are established by the advisory group;

(3) ~~Comply with any reporting requirements recommended by the~~

~~section 3923.91 of the Revised Code;~~ 15001

~~(4)~~ Meet any other criteria established by the advisory group 15002
as part of the selection process. 15003

(B) To be eligible for inclusion in the pilot project, an 15004 advanced practice nurse primary care practice shall meet all of 15005 the following requirements: 15006

(1) Consist of advanced practice nurses who meet all of the 15007 following requirements: 15008

(a) Hold a certificate to prescribe issued under section 15009
4723.48 of the Revised Code; 15010

(b) Are board-certified as a family nurse practitioner or 15011 adult nurse practitioner by the American academy of nurse 15012 practitioners or American nurses credentialing center, 15013 board-certified as a geriatric nurse practitioner or women's 15014 health nurse practitioner by the American nurses credentialing 15015 center, or is board-certified as a pediatric nurse practitioner by 15016 the American nurses credentialing center or pediatric nursing 15017 certification board; 15018

(c) Has a collaboration agreement with a physician with board 15019 certification as specified in division (A)(1) of this section and 15020 who is an active participant on the health care team. 15021

(2) Be capable of adapting the primary care practice during 15022 the period in which the practice receives funding from the 15023 advisory group in such a manner that the practice is fully 15024 compliant with the minimum standards for operation of a patient 15025 centered medical home, as those standards are established by the 15026 advisory group; 15027

~~(3) Comply with any reporting requirements recommended by the~~ 15028

(4) Meet any other criteria established by the advisory group 15031
as part of the selection process. 15032

Sec. 185.10. The patient centered medical home education 15033 advisory group shall seek funding sources for the patient centered 15034 medical home education pilot project. In doing so, the advisory 15035 group may apply for grants, seek federal funds, seek private 15036 donations, or seek any other type of funding that may be available 15037 for the pilot project. ~~To ensure that appropriate sources of and 15038~~ ~~opportunities for funding are identified and pursued, the advisory 15039~~ ~~group may ask for assistance from the health care coverage and 15040~~ ~~quality council.~~ 15041

Sec. 301.02. Previous to the presentation of a petition to 15042 the general assembly praying that a new county be erected, or for 15043 the location or relocation of a county seat, notice of the 15044 intention to present such petition shall be given, at least thirty 15045 days before the ensuing session of the general assembly, by 15046 advertisement in a newspaper published of general circulation in 15047 each county from which such new county is intended to be taken. If 15048 no paper newspaper is printed of general circulation within the 15049 county, notice shall be given by advertisement affixed to the door 15050 of the house where courts are held for such county, for such 15051 period of thirty days. The notice shall set forth the boundary 15052 lines of the new county, or the place where it is proposed to 15053 locate such county seat. 15054

Sec. 301.15. Within sixty days after their appointment, the 15055 commissioners provided for by section 301.14 of the Revised Code, 15056 or any two of them, shall assemble at some convenient place in the 15057 new county. Twenty days' notice of the time, place, and purpose of 15058 such meeting shall be given by publication in a newspaper 15059

~~published in and circulated~~ of general circulation in ~~such the~~ 15060 county, or by being posted in three of the most public places in 15061 such county. When assembled, after having taken the oath of office 15062 prescribed by sections 3.22 and 3.23 of the Revised Code, such 15063 commissioners shall proceed to examine and select the most proper 15064 place as a seat of justice, as near the center of the county as 15065 possible, having regard to the situation, extent of population, 15066 quality of land, and the convenience and interest of the 15067 inhabitants. 15068

Sec. 301.28. (A) As used in this section: 15069

(1) "Financial transaction device" includes a credit card, 15070 debit card, charge card, or prepaid or stored value card, or 15071 automated clearinghouse network credit, debit, or e-check entry 15072 that includes, but is not limited to, accounts receivable and 15073 internet-initiated, point of purchase, and telephone-initiated 15074 applications or any other device or method for making an 15075 electronic payment or transfer of funds. 15076

(2) "County expenses" includes fees, costs, taxes, 15077 assessments, fines, penalties, payments, or any other expense a 15078 person owes to a county office under the authority of a county 15079 official other than dog registration and kennel fees required to 15080 be paid under Chapter 955. of the Revised Code. 15081

(3) "County official" includes the county auditor, county 15082 treasurer, county engineer, county recorder, county prosecuting 15083 attorney, county sheriff, county coroner, county park district and 15084 board of county commissioners, the clerk of the probate court, the 15085 clerk of the juvenile court, the clerks of court for all divisions 15086 of the courts of common pleas, and the clerk of the court of 15087 common pleas, the clerk of a county-operated municipal court, and 15088 the clerk of a county court. 15089

The term "county expenses" includes county expenses owed to 15090

the board of health of the general health district or a combined health district in the county. If the board of county commissioners authorizes county expenses to be paid by financial transaction devices under this section, then the board of health and the general health district and the combined health district may accept payments by financial transaction devices under this section as if the board were a "county official" and the district were a county office. However, in the case of a general health district formed by unification of general health districts under section 3709.10 of the Revised Code, this entitlement applies only if all the boards of county commissioners of all counties in the district have authorized payments to be accepted by financial transaction devices.

(B) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code and except as provided in division (D) of this section, a board of county commissioners may adopt a resolution authorizing the acceptance of payments by financial transaction devices for county expenses. The resolution shall include the following:

(1) A specification of those county officials who, and of the county offices under those county officials that, are authorized to accept payments by financial transaction devices;

(2) A list of county expenses that may be paid for through the use of a financial transaction device;

(3) Specific identification of financial transaction devices that the board authorizes as acceptable means of payment for county expenses. Uniform acceptance of financial transaction devices among different types of county expenses is not required.

(4) The amount, if any, authorized as a surcharge or convenience fee under division (E) of this section for persons using a financial transaction device. Uniform application of surcharges or convenience fees among different types of county expenses is not required. 15122

(5) A specific provision as provided in division (G) of this 15123 section requiring the payment of a penalty if a payment made by 15124 means of a financial transaction device is returned or dishonored 15125 for any reason. 15126

The board's resolution shall also designate the county 15127 treasurer as an administrative agent to solicit proposals, within 15128 guidelines established by the board in the resolution and in 15129 compliance with the procedures provided in division (C) of this 15130 section, from financial institutions, issuers of financial 15131 transaction devices, and processors of financial transaction 15132 devices, to make recommendations about those proposals to the 15133 board, and to assist county offices in implementing the county's 15134 financial transaction devices program. The county treasurer may 15135 decline this responsibility within thirty days after receiving a 15136 copy of the board's resolution by notifying the board in writing 15137 within that period. If the treasurer so notifies the board, the 15138 board shall perform the duties of the administrative agent. 15139

If the county treasurer is the administrative agent and fails 15140 to administer the county financial transaction devices program in 15141 accordance with the guidelines in the board's resolution, the 15142 board shall notify the treasurer in writing of the board's 15143 findings, explain the failures, and give the treasurer six months 15144 to correct the failures. If the treasurer fails to make the 15145 appropriate corrections within that six-month period, the board 15146 may pass a resolution declaring the board to be the administrative 15147 agent. The board may later rescind that resolution at its 15148 discretion. 15149

(C) The county shall follow the procedures provided in this 15150 division whenever it plans to contract with financial 15151 institutions, issuers of financial transaction devices, or 15152 processors of financial transaction devices for the purposes of 15153 this section. The administrative agent shall request proposals 15154 from at least three financial institutions, issuers of financial 15155 transaction devices, or processors of financial transaction 15156 devices, as appropriate in accordance with the resolution adopted 15157 under division (B) of this section. Prior to sending any financial 15158 institution, issuer, or processor a copy of any such request, the 15159 county shall advertise its intent to request proposals in a 15160 newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two 15161 consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 15162 Code. The notice shall state that the county intends to request 15163 proposals; specify the purpose of the request; indicate the date, 15164 which shall be at least ten days after the second publication, on 15165 which the request for proposals will be mailed to financial 15166 institutions, issuers, or processors; and require that any 15167 financial institution, issuer, or processor, whichever is 15168 appropriate, interested in receiving the request for proposals 15169 submit written notice of this interest to the county not later 15170 than noon of the day on which the request for proposals will be 15171 mailed. 15172

Upon receiving the proposals, the administrative agent shall 15173 review them and make a recommendation to the board of county 15174 commissioners on which proposals to accept. The board of county 15175 commissioners shall consider the agent's recommendation and review 15176 all proposals submitted, and then may choose to contract with any 15177 or all of the entities submitting proposals, as appropriate. The 15178 board shall provide any financial institution, issuer, or 15179 processor that submitted a proposal, but with which the board does 15180 not enter into a contract, notice that its proposal is rejected. 15181
The notice shall state the reasons for the rejection, indicate 15182 whose proposals were accepted, and provide a copy of the terms and 15183 conditions of the successful bids. 15184

(D) A board of county commissioners adopting a resolution 15185 under this section shall send a copy of the resolution to each 15186 county official in the county who is authorized by the resolution 15187 to accept payments by financial transaction devices. After 15188 receiving the resolution and before accepting payments by 15189 financial transaction devices, a county official shall provide 15190 written notification to the board of county commissioners of the 15191 official's intent to implement the resolution within the 15192 official's office. Each county office subject to the board's 15193 resolution adopted under division (B) of this section may use only 15194 the financial institutions, issuers of financial transaction 15195 devices, and processors of financial transaction devices with 15196 which the board of county commissioners contracts, and each such 15197 office is subject to the terms of those contracts. 15198

If a county office under the authority of a county official 15199 is directly responsible for collecting one or more county expenses 15200 and the county official determines not to accept payments by 15201 financial transaction devices for one or more of those expenses, 15202 the office shall not be required to accept payments by financial 15203 transaction devices, notwithstanding the adoption of a resolution 15204 by the board of county commissioners under this section. 15205

Any office of a clerk of the court of common pleas that 15206 accepts financial transaction devices on or before July 1, 1999, 15207 and any other county office that accepted such devices before 15208
January 1, 1998, may continue to accept such devices without being 15209 subject to any resolution passed by the board of county 15210 commissioners under division (B) of this section, or any other 15211 oversight by the board of the office's financial transaction 15212 devices program. Any such office may use surcharges or convenience 15213 fees in any manner the county official in charge of the office 15214 determines to be appropriate, and, if the county treasurer 15215 consents, may appoint the county treasurer to be the office's 15216 administrative agent for purposes of accepting financial 15217 transaction devices. In order not to be subject to the resolution 15218 of the board of county commissioners adopted under division (B) of 15219 this section, a county office shall notify the board in writing 15220 within thirty days after March 30, 1999, that it accepted 15221 financial transaction devices prior to January 1, 1998, or, in the 15222 case of the office of a clerk of the court of common pleas, the 15223 clerk has accepted or will accept such devices on or before July 15224 1, 1999. Each such notification shall explain how processing costs 15225 associated with financial transaction devices are being paid and 15226 shall indicate whether surcharge or convenience fees are being 15227 passed on to consumers. 15228

(E) A board of county commissioners may establish a surcharge 15229 or convenience fee that may be imposed upon a person making 15230 payment by a financial transaction device. The surcharge or 15231 convenience fee shall not be imposed unless authorized or 15232 otherwise permitted by the rules prescribed by an agreement 15233 governing the use and acceptance of the financial transaction 15234 device. 15235

If a surcharge or convenience fee is imposed, every county 15236 office accepting payment by a financial transaction device, 15237 regardless of whether that office is subject to a resolution 15238 adopted by a board of county commissioners, shall clearly post a 15239 notice in that office and shall notify each person making a 15240 payment by such a device about the surcharge or fee. Notice to 15241 each person making a payment shall be provided regardless of the 15242 medium used to make the payment and in a manner appropriate to 15243 that medium. Each notice shall include all of the following: 15244

(1) A statement that there is a surcharge or convenience fee 15245 for using a financial transaction device; 15246

(2) The total amount of the charge or fee expressed in 15247 dollars and cents for each transaction, or the rate of the charge 15248 or fee expressed as a percentage of the total amount of the 15249 transaction, whichever is applicable; 15250

(3) A clear statement that the surcharge or convenience fee 15251 is nonrefundable. 15252

(F) If a person elects to make a payment to the county by a 15253 financial transaction device and a surcharge or convenience fee is 15254 imposed, the payment of the surcharge or fee shall be considered 15255 voluntary and the surcharge or fee is not refundable. 15256

(G) If a person makes payment by financial transaction device 15257 and the payment is returned or dishonored for any reason, the 15258 person is liable to the county for payment of a penalty over and 15259 above the amount of the expense due. The board of county 15260 commissioners shall determine the amount of the penalty, which may 15261 be either a fee not to exceed twenty dollars or payment of the 15262 amount necessary to reimburse the county for banking charges, 15263 legal fees, or other expenses incurred by the county in collecting 15264 the returned or dishonored payment. The remedies and procedures 15265 provided in this section are in addition to any other available 15266 civil or criminal remedies provided by law. 15267

(H) No person making any payment by financial transaction 15268 device to a county office shall be relieved from liability for the 15269 underlying obligation except to the extent that the county 15270 realizes final payment of the underlying obligation in cash or its 15271 equivalent. If final payment is not made by the financial 15272 transaction device issuer or other guarantor of payment in the 15273 transaction, the underlying obligation shall survive and the 15274 county shall retain all remedies for enforcement that would have 15275 applied if the transaction had not occurred. 15276

(I) A county official or employee who accepts a financial 15277 transaction device payment in accordance with this section and any 15278 applicable state or local policies or rules is immune from 15279 personal liability for the final collection of such payments. 15280

Sec. 305.23. (A) As used in this section, "county office" 15281 means the offices of the county commissioner, county auditor, 15282 county treasurer, county engineer, county recorder, county 15283 prosecuting attorney, county sheriff, county coroner, county park 15284 district, clerk of the juvenile court, clerks of court for all 15285 divisions of the courts of common pleas, including the clerk of 15286 the court of common pleas, clerk of a county-operated municipal 15287 court, and clerk of a county court, and any agency or department 15288 under the authority of, or receiving funding in whole or in part 15289 from, any of those county offices. 15290

(B) A board of county commissioners may adopt a resolution 15291 establishing centralized purchasing, printing, transportation, 15292 vehicle maintenance, human resources, revenue collection, and mail 15293 operation services for a county office. The resolution shall 15294 specify all of the following: 15295

(1) Which county offices are required to use the centralized 15296
services; 15297

(2) If not all of the centralized services, which centralized 15298 service each county office must use; 15299

(3) A list of rates and charges the county office shall pay 15300 for the centralized services; 15301

(4) The date upon which each county office specified in the 15302 resolution shall begin using the centralized services. 15303

Not later than ten days after a resolution is adopted under 15304 this section, the clerk of the board of county commissioners shall 15305 send a copy of the resolution to each county office that is 15306 specified in the resolution. 15307

Sec. 306.322. (A) For any regional transit authority that 15308 levies a property tax and that includes a county having a 15309 population of at least four hundred thousand according to the most 15310 recent federal census, the procedures of this section apply until 15311 November 5, 2013, and are in addition to and an alternative to 15312 those established in sections 306.32 and 306.321 for joining to 15313 the regional transit authority additional counties, municipal 15314 corporations, or townships. 15315

(B) Any county, municipal corporation, or township may adopt 15316 a resolution or ordinance proposing to join a regional transit 15317 authority described in division (A) of this section. In its 15318 resolution or ordinance, the political subdivision may propose 15319 joining the regional transit authority for a limited period of 15320 three years or without a time limit. 15321

(C) The political subdivision proposing to join the regional 15322 transit authority shall submit a copy of its resolution or 15323 ordinance to the board of the county commissioners of each county, 15324 the legislative authority of each municipal corporation, and the 15325 board of trustees of each township comprising the regional transit 15326 authority. Within thirty days of receiving the resolution or 15327 ordinance for inclusion in the regional transit authority, the 15328 board of the county commissioners of each county, the legislative 15329 authority of each municipal corporation, and the board of trustees 15330 of each township shall consider the question of whether to include 15331 the additional subdivision in the regional transit authority, 15332 shall adopt a resolution or ordinance approving or rejecting the 15333 inclusion of the additional subdivision, and shall present its 15334 resolution or ordinance to the board of trustees of the regional 15335 transit authority. 15336

(D) If a majority of the political subdivisions comprising 15337 the regional transit authority approve the inclusion of the 15338 additional political subdivision, the board of trustees of the 15339 regional transit authority, not later than the tenth day following 15340 the day on which the last ordinance or resolution is presented, 15341 shall notify the subdivision proposing to join the regional transit authority that it may certify the proposal to the board of elections for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the ballot at the next general election or at a special election conducted on the day of the next primary election that occurs not less than seventy-five days after the resolution or ordinance is certified to the board of elections. 15342

15345
15346
15348

(E) Upon certification of a proposal to the board of elections pursuant to this section, the board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of the territory to be included in the regional transit authority qualified to vote on the question, and the election shall be held, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections for the election of officers of the subdivision proposing to join the regional transit authority, except that, if the resolution proposed the inclusion without a time limitation the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 15349
15350
15352
15353
15354
15355
15356
15357

"Shall the territory within the (Name or names of political subdivisions to be joined) be added to (Name) regional transit authority?" and shall a(n) (here insert type of tax or taxes) at a rate of taxation not to exceed (here insert maximum tax rate or rates) be levied for all transit purposes?" 15359
15360
15362
15363
15364

If the resolution proposed the inclusion with a three-year time limitation, the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 15365
15366

"Shall the territory within the
15368
15370
15371
15373

(F) If the question is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the question, the addition of the new territory is immediately effective, and the regional transit authority may extend the levy of the tax against all the taxable property within the territory that was added. If the question is approved at a general election or at a special election occurring prior to the general election but after the fifteenth day of July, the regional transit authority may amend its budget and resolution adopted pursuant to section 5705.34 of the Revised Code, and the levy shall be placed on the current tax list and duplicate and collected as other taxes are collected from all taxable property within the territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, including the territory within the political subdivision added as a result of the election. If the budget of the regional transit authority is amended pursuant to this paragraph, the county auditor shall prepare and deliver an amended certificate of estimated resources to reflect the change in anticipated revenues of the regional transit authority. 15374

15386
15387
15388
15389
15391

(G) If the question is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the question, the board of trustees of the regional transit authority immediately shall amend the resolution or ordinance creating the regional transit authority to include the additional political subdivision. 15392
15393
15396

(H) If the question approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question added the subdivision for three years, the territory of the additional county, municipal corporation, or township in the regional transit authority shall be removed from the territory of the regional transit authority three years after the date the territory was added, as determined in the effective date of the election, and shall no longer be a part of that authority without any further action by either the political subdivisions that were included in the authority prior to 15397

15403
15405 submitting the question to the electors or of the political 15406 subdivision added to the authority as a result of the election. 15407

The regional transit authority reduced to its territory as it 15408 existed prior to the inclusion of the additional county, municipal 15409 corporation, or township, shall be entitled to levy and collect 15410 any property taxes that it was authorized to levy and collect 15411 prior to the enlargement of its territory and for which 15412 authorization has not expired, as if the enlargement had not 15413 occurred. 15414

Sec. 306.35. Upon the creation of a regional transit 15415 authority as provided by section 306.32 of the Revised Code, and 15416 upon the qualifying of its board of trustees and the election of a 15417 president and a vice-president, the authority shall exercise in 15418 its own name all the rights, powers, and duties vested in and 15419 conferred upon it by sections 306.30 to 306.53 of the Revised 15420 Code. Subject to any reservations, limitations, and qualifications 15421 that are set forth in those sections, the regional transit 15422
authority: 15423

(A) May sue or be sued in its corporate name; 15424

(B) May make contracts in the exercise of the rights, powers, 15425 and duties conferred upon it; 15426

(C) May adopt and at will alter a seal and use such seal by 15427 causing it to be impressed, affixed, reproduced, or otherwise 15428 used, but failure to affix the seal shall not affect the validity 15429 of any instrument; 15430

(D)(1) May adopt, amend, and repeal bylaws for the 15431 administration of its affairs and rules for the control of the 15432 administration and operation of transit facilities under its 15433 jurisdiction, and for the exercise of all of its rights of 15434 ownership in those transit facilities; 15435

(2) The regional transit authority also may adopt bylaws and rules for the following purposes:	15436 15437
(a) To prohibit selling, giving away, or using any beer or intoxicating liquor on transit vehicles or transit property;	15438 15439
(b) For the preservation of good order within or on transit vehicles or transit property;	15440 15441
(c) To provide for the protection and preservation of all property and life within or on transit vehicles or transit property;	15442 15443 15444
(d) To regulate and enforce the collection of fares.	15445
(3) Before a bylaw or rule adopted under division (D)(2) of this section takes effect, the regional transit authority shall provide for a notice of its adoption to be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code.	15446 15447 15448 15449 15450 15451
(4) No person shall violate any bylaw or rule of a regional transit authority adopted under division (D)(2) of this section.	15452 15453
(E) May fix, alter, and collect fares, rates, and rentals and other charges for the use of transit facilities under its jurisdiction to be determined exclusively by it for the purpose of providing for the payment of the expenses of the regional transit authority, the acquisition, construction, improvement, extension, repair, maintenance, and operation of transit facilities under its jurisdiction, the payment of principal and interest on its obligations, and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with purchasers or holders of any such obligations, or with any person or political subdivision;	15454 15455 15456 15457 15458 15459 15460 15461 15462 15463
(F) Shall have jurisdiction, control, possession, and supervision of all property, rights, easements, licenses, moneys,	15464 15465

contracts, accounts, liens, books, records, maps, or other	15466 property rights and interests conveyed, delivered, transferred, or	15467 assigned to it;	15468
(G) May acquire, construct, improve, extend, repair, lease,	15469 operate, maintain, or manage transit facilities within or without	15470 its territorial boundaries, considered necessary to accomplish the	15471 purposes of its organization and make charges for the use of	15472 transit facilities;	15473
(H) May levy and collect taxes as provided in sections 306.40	15474
and 306.49 of the Revised Code;	15475
(I) May issue bonds secured by its general credit as provided	15476
in section 306.40 of the Revised Code;	15477
(J) May hold, encumber, control, acquire by donation, by	15478 purchase for cash or by installment payments, by lease-purchase	15479 agreement, by lease with option to purchase, or by condemnation,	15480 and may construct, own, lease as lessee or lessor, use, and sell,	15481 real and personal property, or any interest or right in real and	15482 personal property, within or without its territorial boundaries,	15483 for the location or protection of transit facilities and	15484 improvements and access to transit facilities and improvements,	15485
the relocation of buildings, structures, and improvements situated	15486 on lands acquired by the regional transit authority, or for any	15487 other necessary purpose, or for obtaining or storing materials to	15488 be used in constructing, maintaining, and improving transit	15489 facilities under its jurisdiction;	15490
(K) May exercise the power of eminent domain to acquire	15491 property or any interest in property, within or without its	15492 territorial boundaries, that is necessary or proper for the	15493 construction or efficient operation of any transit facility or	15494 access to any transit facility under its jurisdiction in	15495
accordance with section 306.36 of the Revised Code;	15496

(L) May provide by agreement with any county, including the 15497 counties within its territorial boundaries, or any municipal 15498 corporation or any combination of counties or municipal 15499 corporations for the making of necessary surveys, appraisals, and 15500 examinations preliminary to the acquisition or construction of any 15501 transit facility and the amount of the expense for the surveys, 15502 appraisals, and examinations to be paid by each such county or 15503 municipal corporation; 15504

(M) May provide by agreement with any county, including the 15505 counties within its territorial boundaries, or any municipal 15506 corporation or any combination of those counties or municipal 15507 corporations for the acquisition, construction, improvement, 15508 extension, maintenance, or operation of any transit facility owned 15509 or to be owned and operated by it or owned or to be owned and 15510 operated by any such county or municipal corporation and the terms 15511 on which it shall be acquired, leased, constructed, maintained, or 15512 operated, and the amount of the cost and expense of the 15513 acquisition, lease, construction, maintenance, or operation to be 15514 paid by each such county or municipal corporation; 15515

(N) May issue revenue bonds for the purpose of acquiring, 15516 replacing, improving, extending, enlarging, or constructing any 15517 facility or permanent improvement that it is authorized to 15518 acquire, replace, improve, extend, enlarge, or construct, 15519 including all costs in connection with and incidental to the 15520 acquisition, replacement, improvement, extension, enlargement, or 15521 construction, and their financing, as provided by section 306.37 15522
of the Revised Code; 15523

(O) May enter into and supervise franchise agreements for the 15524 operation of a transit system; 15525

(P) May accept the assignment of and supervise an existing 15526 franchise agreement for the operation of a transit system; 15527

(Q) May exercise a right to purchase a transit system in 15528 accordance with the acquisition terms of an existing franchise 15529 agreement; and in connection with the purchase the regional 15530 transit authority may issue revenue bonds as provided by section 15531 306.37 of the Revised Code or issue bonds secured by its general 15532 credit as provided in section 306.40 of the Revised Code; 15533

(R) May apply for and accept grants or loans from the United 15534 States, the state, or any other public body for the purpose of 15535 providing for the development or improvement of transit 15536 facilities, mass transportation facilities, equipment, techniques, 15537 methods, or services, and grants or loans needed to exercise a 15538 right to purchase a transit system pursuant to agreement with the 15539 owner of those transit facilities, or for providing lawful 15540 financial assistance to existing transit systems; and may provide 15541 any consideration that may be required in order to obtain those 15542 grants or loans from the United States, the state, or other public 15543 body, either of which grants or loans may be evidenced by the 15544 issuance of revenue bonds as provided by section 306.37 of the 15545 Revised Code or general obligation bonds as provided by section 15546
306.40 of the Revised Code; 15547

(S) May employ and fix the compensation of consulting 15548 engineers, superintendents, managers, and such other engineering, 15549 construction, accounting and financial experts, attorneys, and 15550 other employees and agents necessary for the accomplishment of its 15551 purposes; 15552

(T) May procure insurance against loss to it by reason of 15553 damages to its properties resulting from fire, theft, accident, or 15554 other casualties or by reason of its liability for any damages to 15555 persons or property occurring in the construction or operation of 15556 transit facilities under its jurisdiction or the conduct of its 15557 activities; 15558

(U) May maintain funds that it considers necessary for the 15559 efficient performance of its duties; 15560

(V) May direct its agents or employees, when properly 15561 identified in writing, after at least five days' written notice, 15562 to enter upon lands within or without its territorial boundaries 15563 in order to make surveys and examinations preliminary to the 15564 location and construction of transit facilities, without liability 15565 to it or its agents or employees except for actual damage done; 15566

(W) On its own motion, may request the appropriate zoning 15567 board, as defined in section 4563.03 of the Revised Code, to 15568 establish and enforce zoning regulations pertaining to any transit 15569 facility under its jurisdiction in the manner prescribed by 15570 sections 4563.01 to 4563.21 of the Revised Code; 15571

(X) If it acquires any existing transit system, shall assume 15572 all the employer's obligations under any existing labor contract 15573 between the employees and management of the system. If the board 15574 acquires, constructs, controls, or operates any such facilities, 15575 it shall negotiate arrangements to protect the interests of 15576 employees affected by the acquisition, construction, control, or 15577 operation. The arrangements shall include, but are not limited to: 15578

(1) The preservation of rights, privileges, and benefits 15579 under existing collective bargaining agreements or otherwise, the 15580 preservation of rights and benefits under any existing pension 15581 plans covering prior service, and continued participation in 15582 social security in addition to participation in the public 15583 employees retirement system as required in Chapter 145. of the 15584
Revised Code; 15585

(2) The continuation of collective bargaining rights; 15586

(3) The protection of individual employees against a 15587 worsening of their positions with respect to their employment; 15588

(4) Assurances of employment to employees of those transit 15589 systems and priority reemployment of employees terminated or laid 15590 off;	15591

(5) Paid training or retraining programs;	15592
(6) Signed written labor agreements.	15593
The arrangements may include provisions for the submission of	15594 labor disputes to final and binding arbitration.	15595
(Y) May provide for and maintain security operations,	15596 including a transit police department, subject to section 306.352	15597 of the Revised Code. Regional transit authority police officers	15598 shall have the power and duty to act as peace officers within	15599 transit facilities owned, operated, or leased by the transit	15600 authority to protect the transit authority's property and the	15601 person and property of passengers, to preserve the peace, and to	15602 enforce all laws of the state and ordinances and regulations of	15603 political subdivisions in which the transit authority operates.	15604
Regional transit authority police officers also shall have the	15605 power and duty to act as peace officers when they render emergency	15606 assistance outside their jurisdiction to any other peace officer	15607 who is not a regional transit authority police officer and who has	15608 arrest authority under section 2935.03 of the Revised Code.	15609
Regional transit authority police officers may render emergency	15610 assistance if there is a threat of imminent physical danger to the	15611 peace officer, a threat of physical harm to another person, or any	15612 other serious emergency situation and if either the peace officer	15613 who is assisted requests emergency assistance or it appears that	15614
the peace officer who is assisted is unable to request emergency	15615 assistance and the circumstances observed by the regional transit	15616 authority police officer reasonably indicate that emergency	15617 assistance is appropriate.	15618
Before exercising powers of arrest and the other powers and	15619 duties of a peace officer, each regional transit authority police	15620 officer shall take an oath and give bond to the state in a sum	15621 that the board of trustees prescribes for the proper performance 15622 of the officer's duties. 15623

Persons employed as regional transit authority police 15624 officers shall complete training for the position to which they 15625 have been appointed as required by the Ohio peace officer training 15626 commission as authorized in section 109.77 of the Revised Code, or 15627 be otherwise qualified. The cost of the training shall be provided 15628 by the regional transit authority. 15629

(Z) May procure a policy or policies insuring members of its 15630 board of trustees against liability on account of damages or 15631 injury to persons and property resulting from any act or omission 15632 of a member in the member's official capacity as a member of the 15633 board or resulting solely out of the member's membership on the 15634 board; 15635

(AA) May enter into any agreement for the sale and leaseback 15636 or lease and leaseback of transit facilities, which agreement may 15637 contain all necessary covenants for the security and protection of 15638 any lessor or the regional transit authority including, but not 15639 limited to, indemnification of the lessor against the loss of 15640 anticipated tax benefits arising from acts, omissions, or 15641 misrepresentations of the regional transit authority. In 15642 connection with that transaction, the regional transit authority 15643 may contract for insurance and letters of credit and pay any 15644 premiums or other charges for the insurance and letters of credit. 15645
The fiscal officer shall not be required to furnish any 15646 certificate under section 5705.41 of the Revised Code in 15647 connection with the execution of any such agreement. 15648

(BB) In regard to any contract entered into on or after March 15649 19, 1993, for the rendering of services or the supplying of 15650 materials or for the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, 15651 or reconstruction of transit facilities in which a bond is 15652 required for the faithful performance of the contract, may permit 15653 the person awarded the contract to utilize a letter of credit 15654 issued by a bank or other financial institution in lieu of the 15655 bond; 15656

(CC) May enter into agreements with municipal corporations 15657 located within the territorial jurisdiction of the regional 15658 transit authority permitting regional transit authority police 15659 officers employed under division (Y) of this section to exercise 15660 full arrest powers, as provided in section 2935.03 of the Revised 15661 Code, for the purpose of preserving the peace and enforcing all 15662 laws of the state and ordinances and regulations of the municipal 15663 corporation within the areas that may be agreed to by the regional 15664 transit authority and the municipal corporation. 15665

Sec. 306.43. (A) The board of trustees of a regional transit 15666 authority or any officer or employee designated by such board may 15667 make any contract for the purchase of goods or services, the cost 15668 of which does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. When an 15669 expenditure, other than for the acquisition of real estate, the 15670 discharge of claims, or the acquisition of goods or services under 15671 the circumstances described in division (H) of this section, is 15672 expected to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, such expenditure 15673 shall be made through full and open competition by the use of 15674 competitive procedures. The regional transit authority shall use 15675 the competitive procedure, as set forth in divisions (B), (C), 15676 (D), and (E) of this section, that is most appropriate under the 15677 circumstances of the procurement. 15678

(B) Competitive sealed bidding is the preferred method of 15679 procurement and a regional transit authority shall use that method 15680 if all of the following conditions exist: 15681

(1) A clear, complete and adequate description of the goods, 15682 services, or work is available; 15683

(2) Time permits the solicitation, submission, and evaluation 15684

of sealed bids; 15685

price-related factors; 15687

(4) It is not necessary to conduct discussions with 15688 responding offerors about their bids; 15689

(5) There is a reasonable expectation of receiving more than 15690
one sealed bid. 15691

A regional transit authority shall publish a notice calling 15692 for bids once a week for no less than two consecutive weeks in ~~at~~ 15693 ~~least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation within the 15694 territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, or as 15695 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. A regional transit 15696 authority may require that a bidder for any contract other than a 15697 construction contract provide a bid guaranty in the form, quality, 15698 and amount considered appropriate by the regional transit 15699 authority. The board may let the contract to the lowest responsive 15700 and responsible bidder. Where fewer than two responsive bids are 15701 received, a regional transit authority may negotiate price with 15702 the sole responsive bidder or may rescind the solicitation and 15703 procure under division (H)(2) of this section. 15704

(C) A regional transit authority may use two-step competitive 15705 bidding, consisting of a technical proposal and a separate, 15706 subsequent sealed price bid from those submitting acceptable 15707 technical proposals, if both of the following conditions exist: 15708

(1) A clear, complete, and adequate description of the goods, 15709 services, or work is not available, but definite criteria exist 15710 for the evaluation of technical proposals; 15711

(2) It is necessary to conduct discussions with responding 15712 offerors. 15713

A regional transit authority shall publish a notice calling 15714

for technical proposals once a week for no less than two 15715 consecutive weeks in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general 15716 circulation within the territorial boundaries of the regional 15717 transit authority, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 15718 Code. A regional transit authority may require a bid guaranty in 15719 the form, quality, and amount the regional transit authority 15720 considers appropriate. The board may let the contract to the 15721 lowest responsive and responsible bidder. Where fewer than two 15722 responsive and responsible bids are received, a regional transit 15723 authority may negotiate price with the sole responsive and 15724 responsible bidder or may rescind the solicitation and procure 15725 under division (H)(2) of this section. 15726

(D) A regional transit authority shall make a procurement by 15727 competitive proposals if competitive sealed bidding or two-step 15728 competitive bidding is not appropriate. 15729

A regional transit authority shall publish a notice calling 15730 for proposals once a week for no less than two consecutive weeks 15731 in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation within the 15732 territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, or as 15733 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. A regional transit 15734 authority may require a proposal guaranty in the form, quality, 15735
and amount considered appropriate by the regional transit 15736 authority. The board may let the contract to the proposer making 15737 the offer considered most advantageous to the authority. Where 15738 fewer than two competent proposals are received, a regional 15739 transit authority may negotiate price and terms with the sole 15740 proposer or may rescind the solicitation and procure under 15741 division (H)(2) of this section. 15742

(E)(1) A regional transit authority shall procure the 15743 services of an architect or engineer in the manner prescribed by 15744 the "Federal Mass Transportation Act of 1987," Public Law No. 15745 100-17, section 316, 101 Stat. 227, 232-234, 49 U.S.C.A. app. 1608 15746 and the services of a construction manager in the manner 15747 prescribed by sections 9.33 to 9.332 of the Revised Code. 15748

(2) A regional transit authority may procure revenue rolling 15749 stock in the manner prescribed by division (B), (C), or (D) of 15750
this section. 15751

(3) All contracts for construction in excess of one hundred 15752 thousand dollars shall be made only after the regional transit 15753 authority has published a notice calling for bids once a week for 15754 two consecutive weeks in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general 15755 circulation within the territorial boundaries of the regional 15756
transit authority, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 15757 Code. The board may award a contract to the lowest responsive and 15758 responsible bidder. Where only one responsive and responsible bid 15759 is received, the regional transit authority may negotiate price 15760 with the sole responsive bidder or may rescind the solicitation. 15761
The regional transit authority shall award construction contracts 15762 in accordance with sections 153.12 to 153.14 and 153.54 of the 15763 Revised Code. Divisions (B) and (C) of this section shall not 15764 apply to the award of contracts for construction. 15765

(F) All contracts involving expenditures in excess of one 15766 hundred thousand dollars shall be in writing and shall be 15767 accompanied by or shall refer to plans and specifications for the 15768 work to be done. The plans and specifications shall at all times 15769 be made and considered part of the contract. For all contracts 15770 other than construction contracts, a regional transit authority 15771 may require performance, payment, or maintenance guaranties or any 15772 combination of such guaranties in the form, quality, and amount it 15773 considers appropriate. The contract shall be approved by the board 15774 and signed on behalf of the regional transit authority and by the 15775
contractor. 15776

(G) In making a contract, a regional transit authority may 15777 give preference to goods produced in the United States in 15778 accordance with the Buy America requirements in the "Surface 15779 Transportation Assistance Act of 1982," Public Law No. 97-424, 15780 section 165, 96 Stat. 2097, 23 U.S.C.A. 101 note, as amended, and 15781 the rules adopted thereunder. The regional transit authority also 15782 may give preference to providers of goods produced in and services 15783 provided in labor surplus areas as defined by the United States 15784 department of labor in 41 U.S.C.A. 401 note, Executive Order No. 15785 12073, August 16, 1978, 43 Fed. Reg. 36873, as amended. 15786

(H) Competitive procedures under this section are not 15787 required in any of the following circumstances: 15788

(1) The board of trustees of a regional transit authority, by 15789 a two-thirds affirmative vote of its members, determines that a 15790 real and present emergency exists under any of the following 15791 conditions, and the board enters its determination and the reasons 15792 for it in its proceedings: 15793

(a) Affecting safety, welfare, or the ability to deliver 15794 transportation services; 15795

(b) Arising out of an interruption of contracts essential to 15796 the provision of daily transit services; 15797

(c) Involving actual physical damage to structures, supplies, 15798 equipment, or property. 15799

(2) The purchase consists of goods or services, or any 15800 combination thereof, and after reasonable inquiry the board or any 15801 officer or employee the board designates finds that only one 15802 source of supply is reasonably available. 15803

(3) The expenditure is for a renewal or renegotiation of a 15804 lease or license for telecommunications or electronic data 15805 processing equipment, services, or systems, or for the upgrade of 15806 such equipment, services, or systems, or for the maintenance 15807 thereof as supplied by the original source or its successors or 15808 assigns. 15809

15810
15812
15813
15814
15815
15816

(5) The sale and leaseback or lease and leaseback of transit facilities is made as provided in division (AA) of section 306.35 of the Revised Code.

15817
15819

(6) The purchase substantially involves services of a personal, professional, highly technical, or scientific nature, including but not limited to the services of an attorney, physician, surveyor, appraiser, investigator, court reporter, adjuster, advertising consultant, or licensed broker, or involves the special skills or proprietary knowledge required for the servicing of specialized equipment owned by the regional transit authority.

15822
15823
15824
15825
15827

(7) Services or supplies are available from a qualified nonprofit agency pursuant to sections 4115.31 to 4115.35 of the Revised Code.

15828
15830

(8) The purchase consists of the product or services of a public utility.

15831

disabilities, whether or not that corporation or association is 15841 funded entirely or in part by the federal government. For purposes 15842 of division (H)(9) of this section, "disability" has the same 15843 meaning as in section 4112.01 of the Revised Code. 15844

(I) A regional transit authority may enter into blanket 15845 purchase agreements for purchases of maintenance, operating, or 15846 repair goods or services where the item cost does not exceed five 15847 hundred dollars and the annual expenditure does not exceed one 15848 hundred thousand dollars. 15849

(J) Nothing contained in this section prohibits a regional 15850 transit authority from participating in intergovernmental 15851 cooperative purchasing arrangements. 15852

(K) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a regional 15853 transit authority shall make a sale or other disposition of 15854 property through full and open competition. Except as provided in 15855 division (L) of this section, all dispositions of personal 15856 property and all grants of real property for terms exceeding five 15857 years shall be made by public auction or competitive procedure. 15858

(L) The competitive procedures required by division (K) of 15859 this section are not required in any of the following 15860
circumstances: 15861

(1) The grant is a component of a joint development between 15862 public and private entities and is intended to enhance or benefit 15863 public transit. 15864

(2) The grant of a limited use or of a license affecting land 15865 is made to an owner of abutting real property. 15866

(3) The grant of a limited use is made to a public utility. 15867

(4) The grant or disposition is to a department of the 15868 federal or state government, to a political subdivision of the 15869 state, or to any other governmental entity. 15870

(5) Used equipment is traded on the purchase of equipment and 15871 the value of the used equipment is a price-related factor in the 15872 basis for award for the purchase. 15873

(6) The value of the personal property is such that 15874 competitive procedures are not appropriate and the property either 15875 is sold at its fair market value or is disposed of by gift to a 15876 nonprofit entity having the general welfare or education of the 15877 public as one of its principal objects. 15878

(M) The board of trustees of a regional transit authority, 15879 when making a contract funded exclusively by state or local moneys 15880 or any combination thereof, shall make a good faith effort to use 15881 disadvantaged business enterprise participation to the same extent 15882 required under Section 105(f) of the "Surface Transportation 15883 Assistance Act of 1982," Public Law No. 97-424, 96 Stat. 2100, and 15884 Section 106(c) of the "Surface Transportation and Uniform 15885 Relocation Assistance Act of 1987," Public Law No. 100-17, 101 15886
Stat. 145, and the rules adopted thereunder. 15887

(N) As used in this section: 15888

(1) "Goods" means all things, including specially 15889 manufactured goods, that are movable at the time of identification 15890 to the contract for sale other than the money in which the price 15891 is to be paid, investment securities, and things in action. 15892
"Goods" also includes other identified things attached to realty 15893 as described in section 1302.03 of the Revised Code. 15894

(2) "Services" means the furnishing of labor, time, or effort 15895 by a contractor, not involving the delivery of goods or reports 15896 other than goods or reports that are merely incidental to the 15897 required performance, including but not limited to insurance, 15898 bonding, or routine operation, routine repair, or routine 15899 maintenance of existing structures, buildings, real property, or 15900 equipment, but does not include employment agreements, collective 15901 bargaining agreements, or personal services. 15902

(3) "Construction" means the process of building, altering, 15903 repairing, improving, painting, decorating, or demolishing any 15904 structure or building, or other improvements of any kind to any 15905 real property owned or leased by a regional transit authority. 15906

(4) "Full and open competition" has the same meaning as in 15907 the "Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act," Public Law No. 15908
98-369, section 2731, 98 Stat. 1195 (1984), 41 U.S.C.A. 403. 15909

(5) A bidder is "responsive" if, applying the criteria of 15910 division (A) of section 9.312 of the Revised Code, the bidder is 15911
"responsive" as described in that section. 15912

(6) A bidder is "responsible" if, applying the criteria of 15913 division (A) of section 9.312 of the Revised Code and of the 15914
"Office of Federal Procurement Policy Act," Public Law No. 98-369, 15915 section 2731, 98 Stat. 1195 (1984), 41 U.S.C.A. 403, the bidder is 15916
"responsible" as described in those sections. 15917

Sec. 306.55. Beginning July 1, 2011 and until November 5, 15918 2013, any county, municipal corporation, or township that has 15919 created or joined a regional transit authority that levies a 15920 property tax and that includes a county having a population of at 15921 least four hundred thousand according to the most recent federal 15922 census, may withdraw from the regional transit authority in the 15923 manner provided in this section. The board of county 15924 commissioners, legislative authority of the municipal corporation, 15925 or board of township trustees of the township proposing to 15926 withdraw shall adopt a resolution to submit the question of 15927 withdrawing from the regional transit authority to the electors of 15928 the territory to be withdrawn and shall certify the proposal to 15929 the board of elections for the purpose of having the proposal 15930 placed on the ballot at the next general election or at a special 15931 election conducted on the day of the next primary election that 15932 occurs not less than seventy-five days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections. 15933

Upon certification of a proposal to the board of elections pursuant to this section, the board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of the territory to be withdrawn from the regional transit authority qualified to vote on the question, and the election shall be held, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections for the election of officers of the subdivision proposing to withdraw from the regional transit authority, except that the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 15935
15936
15938
15939
15940
15941
15942

"Shall the territory within the (Name of political subdivision to be withdrawn) be withdrawn from (Name) regional transit authority?" 15945
15948

If the question is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the question, the withdrawal is effective one year from the date of the certification of its passage. 15949

The board of elections to which the resolution was certified shall certify the results of the election to the board or legislative authority of the subdivision that submitted the resolution to withdraw and to the board of trustees of the regional transit authority from which the subdivision proposed to withdraw. 15952
15953
15955
15957

If the question of withdrawing from the regional transit authority is approved, the power of the regional transit authority to levy a tax on taxable property in the withdrawing subdivision terminates. 15958
15959
15961

Sec. 306.551. Any county, municipal corporation, or township 15962 that withdraws from a regional transit authority under section 15963 306.55 of the Revised Code may enter into a contract with a 15964 regional transit authority or other provider of transit services 15965 to provide transportation service for handicapped, disabled, or 15966 elderly persons and for any other service the legislative 15967 authority of the county, municipal corporation, or township may 15968 determine to be appropriate. 15969

Sec. 306.70. A tax proposed to be levied by a board of county 15970 commissioners or by the board of trustees of a regional transit 15971 authority pursuant to sections 5739.023 and 5741.022 of the 15972 Revised Code shall not become effective until it is submitted to 15973 the electors residing within the county or within the territorial 15974 boundaries of the regional transit authority and approved by a 15975 majority of the electors voting on it. Such question shall be 15976 submitted at a general election or at a special election on a day 15977 specified in the resolution levying the tax and occurring not less 15978 than ninety days after such resolution is certified to the board 15979 of elections, in accordance with section 3505.071 of the Revised 15980
Code. 15981

The board of elections of the county or of each county in 15982 which any territory of the regional transit authority is located 15983 shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such 15984 question to the electors of the county or regional transit 15985 authority, and the election shall be held, canvassed, and 15986 certified in the same manner as regular elections for the election 15987 of county officers. Notice of the election shall be published in 15988 ~~one or more newspapers which in the aggregate are a newspaper of~~ 15989 general circulation in the territory of the county or of the 15990 regional transit authority once a week for two consecutive weeks 15991 prior to the election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of 15992 the Revised Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains 15993 a web site, notice of the election also shall be posted on that 15994

web site for thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall 15995 state the type, rate, and purpose of the tax to be levied, the 15996 length of time during which the tax will be in effect, and the 15997 time and place of the election. 15998

More than one such question may be submitted at the same 15999 election. The form of the ballots cast at such election shall be: 16000

"Shall a(n) (sales and use) 16001 tax be levied for all transit purposes of the 16002 (here insert name of the county or regional transit authority) at 16003 a rate not exceeding (here insert percentage) 16004 per cent for (here insert number of years the tax 16005 is to be in effect, or that it is to be in effect for a continuing 16006 period of time)?" 16007

If the tax proposed to be levied is a continuation of an 16008 existing tax, whether at the same rate or at an increased or 16009 reduced rate, or an increase in the rate of an existing tax, the 16010 notice and ballot form shall so state. 16011

The board of elections to which the resolution was certified 16012 shall certify the results of the election to the county auditor of 16013 the county or secretary-treasurer of the regional transit 16014 authority levying the tax and to the tax commissioner of the 16015
state. 16016

Sec. 307.022. (A) The board of county commissioners of any 16017 county may do both of the following without following the 16018 competitive bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised 16019
Code: 16020

(1) Enter into a lease, including a lease with an option to 16021 purchase, of correctional facilities for a term not in excess of 16022 forty years. Before entering into the lease, the board shall 16023 publish, once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 16024 general circulation in the county or as provided in section 7.16 16025 of the Revised Code, a notice that the board is accepting 16026 proposals for a lease pursuant to this division. The notice shall 16027 state the date before which the proposals are required to be 16028 submitted in order to be considered by the board. 16029

(2) Subject to compliance with this section, grant leases, 16030 easements, and licenses with respect to, or sell, real property 16031 owned by the county if the real property is to be leased back by 16032 the county for use as correctional facilities. 16033

The lease under division (A)(1) of this section shall require 16034 the county to contract, in accordance with Chapter 153., sections 16035 307.86 to 307.92, and Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code, for the 16036 construction, improvement, furnishing, and equipping of 16037 correctional facilities to be leased pursuant to this section. 16038 Prior to the board's execution of the lease, it may require the 16039 lessor under the lease to cause sufficient money to be made 16040 available to the county to enable the county to comply with the 16041 certification requirements of division (D) of section 5705.41 of 16042
the Revised Code. 16043

A lease entered into pursuant to division (A)(1) of this 16044 section by a board may provide for the county to maintain and 16045 repair the correctional facility during the term of the leasehold, 16046 may provide for the county to make rental payments prior to or 16047 after occupation of the correctional facilities by the county, and 16048 may provide for the board to obtain and maintain any insurance 16049 that the lessor may require, including, but not limited to, public 16050 liability, casualty, builder's risk, and business interruption 16051 insurance. The obligations incurred under a lease entered into 16052 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section shall not be 16053 considered to be within the debt limitations of section 133.07 of 16054
the Revised Code. 16055

(B) The correctional facilities leased under division (A)(1) 16056 of this section may include any or all of the following:	16057

(1) Facilities in which one or more other governmental entities are participating or in which other facilities of the county are included;	16058 16059 16060
(2) Facilities acquired, constructed, renovated, or financed by the Ohio building authority and leased to the county pursuant to section 307.021 of the Revised Code;	16061 16062 16063
(3) Correctional facilities that are under construction or have been completed and for which no permanent financing has been arranged.	16064 16065 16066
(C) As used in this section:	16067
(1) "Correctional facilities" includes, but is not limited to, jails, detention facilities, workhouses, community-based correctional facilities, and family court centers.	16068 16069 16070
(2) "Construction" has the same meaning as in division (B) of section 4115.03 of the Revised Code.	16071 16072
Sec. 307.041. (A) As used in this section, "energy conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an installation in, or remodeling of, an existing building, to reduce energy consumption. "Energy conservation measure" includes the following:	16073 16074 16075 16076 16077
(1) Insulation of the building structure and of systems within the building;	16078 16079
(2) Storm windows and doors, multiglazed windows and doors, heat-absorbing or heat-reflective glazed and coated window and door systems, additional glazing, reductions in glass area, and other window and door system modifications that reduce energy consumption;	16080 16081 16082 16083 16084
(3) Automatic energy control systems;	16085

(4) Heating, ventilating, or air conditioning system	16086
modifications or replacements;	16087
(5) Caulking and weatherstripping;	16088
(6) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures to	16089
increase the energy efficiency of the system without increasing	16090
the overall illumination of a facility, unless such an increase in	16091
illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or	16092
local building code for the proposed lighting system;	16093
(7) Energy recovery systems;	16094
(8) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of	16095
energy such as heat, as well as electricity, for use primarily	16096
within a building or complex of buildings;	16097
(9) Acquiring, constructing, furnishing, equipping, improving	16098
the site of, and otherwise improving a central utility plant to	16099 provide heating and cooling services to a building or buildings	16100 together with distribution piping and ancillary distribution	16101 controls, equipment, and related facilities from the central	16102 utility plant to the building or buildings;	16103
(10) Any other modification, installation, or remodeling	16104 approved by the board of county commissioners as an energy	16105
conservation measure.	16106
(B) For the purpose of evaluating county buildings for energy	16107 conservation measures, a county may contract with an architect,	16108 professional engineer, energy services company, contractor, or	16109 other person experienced in the design and implementation of	16110 energy conservation measures for an energy conservation report.	16111
The report shall include all of the following:	16112
(1) Analyses of the buildings' energy needs and	16113
recommendations for building installations, modifications of	16114 existing installations, or building remodeling that would	16115 significantly reduce energy consumption in the buildings owned by that county;	16116 16117

(2) Estimates of all costs of those installations, those modifications, or that remodeling, including costs of design, engineering, installation, maintenance, and repairs;	16118 16119 16120
(3) Estimates of the amounts by which energy consumption could be reduced;	16121 16122
(4) The interest rate used to estimate the costs of any energy conservation measures that are to be financed;	16123 16124
(5) The average system life of the energy conservation measures;	16125 16126
(6) Estimates of the likely savings that will result from the reduction in energy consumption over the average system life of the energy conservation measure, including the methods used to estimate the savings;	16127 16128 16129 16130
(7) A certification under the seal of a registered professional engineer that the energy conservation report uses reasonable methods of analysis and estimation.	16131 16132 16133
(C)(1) A county desiring to implement energy conservation measures may proceed under either of the following methods:	16134 16135
(a) Using a report or any part of an energy conservation report prepared under division (B) of this section, advertise for bids and, except as otherwise provided in this section, comply with sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code;	16136 16137 16138 16139
(b) Notwithstanding sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code, request proposals from at least three vendors for the implementation of energy conservation measures. A request for proposals shall require the installer that is awarded a contract under division (C)(2)(b) of this section to prepare an energy conservation report in accordance with division (B) of this	16140 16141 16142 16143 16144 16145 section. Prior to sending any installer of energy conservation 16146 measures a copy of any request for proposals, the county shall 16147 advertise its intent to request proposals for the installation of 16148 energy conservation measures in a newspaper of general circulation 16149 in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided 16150 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state that 16151 the county intends to request proposals for the installation of 16152 energy conservation measures; indicate the date, which shall be at 16153 least ten days after the second publication, on which the request 16154 for proposals will be mailed to installers of energy conservation 16155 measures; and state that any installer of energy conservation 16156 measures interested in receiving the request for proposals shall 16157 submit written notice to the county not later than noon of the day 16158 on which the request for proposals will be mailed. 16159

(2)(a) Upon receiving bids under division (C)(1)(a) of this 16161 section, the county shall analyze them and select the lowest and 16162 best bid or bids most likely to result in the greatest energy 16163 savings considering the cost of the project and the county's 16164 ability to pay for the improvements with current revenues or by 16165 financing the improvements. 16166

(b) Upon receiving proposals under division (C)(1)(b) of this 16167 section, the county shall analyze the proposals and the 16168 installers' qualifications and select the most qualified installer 16169 to prepare an energy conservation report in accordance with 16170 division (B) of this section. After receipt and review of the 16171 energy conservation report, the county may award a contract to the 16172 selected installer to install the energy conservation measures 16173 that are most likely to result in the greatest energy savings 16174 considering the cost of the project and the county's ability to 16175 pay for the improvements with current revenues or by financing the 16176 improvements. 16177

(c) The awarding of a contract to install energy conservation measures under division (C)(2)(a) or (b) of this section shall be conditioned upon a finding by the contracting authority that the amount of money spent on the energy conservation measures is not likely to exceed the amount of money the county would save in energy, operating, maintenance, and avoided capital costs over the average system life of the energy conservation measures as specified in the energy conservation report. In making such a finding, the contracting authority may take into account increased costs due to inflation as shown in the energy conservation report. Nothing in this division prohibits a county from rejecting all bids or proposals under division (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section or from selecting more than one bid or proposal.

(D) A board of county commissioners may enter into an installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of energy conservation measures. Provisions of installment payment contracts that deal with interest charges and financing terms shall not be subject to the competitive bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code, and shall be on the following terms:

(1) Not less than a specified percentage, as determined and approved by the board of county commissioners, of the costs of the contract shall be paid within two years from the date of purchase.

(2) The remaining balance of the costs of the contract shall be paid within the lesser of the average system life of the energy conservation measures as specified in the energy conservation report or thirty years.

(E) The board of county commissioners may issue the notes of the county specifying the terms of a purchase of energy conservation measures under this section and securing any deferred payments provided for in division (D) of this section. The notes shall be payable at the times provided and bear interest at a rate not exceeding the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of 16210 the Revised Code. The notes may contain an option for prepayment 16211 and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. 16212 Revenues derived from local taxes or otherwise for the purpose of 16213 conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses 16214 of the county may be pledged and applied to the payment of 16215 interest and the retirement of the notes. The notes may be sold at 16216 private sale or given to the contractor under an installment 16217 payment contract authorized by division (D) of this section. 16218

(F) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in 16219 the calculation of the net indebtedness of a county under section 16220
133.07 of the Revised Code. 16221

Sec. 307.10. (A) No sale of real property, or lease of real 16222 property used or to be used for the purpose of airports, landing 16223 fields, or air navigational facilities, or parts thereof, as 16224 provided by section 307.09 of the Revised Code shall be made 16225 unless it is authorized by a resolution adopted by a majority of 16226 the board of county commissioners. When a sale of real property as 16227 provided by section 307.09 of the Revised Code is authorized, the 16228 board may either deed the property to the highest responsible 16229 bidder, after advertisement once a week for four consecutive weeks 16230 in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or as provided 16231 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, or offer the real property 16232 for sale at a public auction, after giving at least thirty days' 16233 notice of the auction by publication in a newspaper of general 16234 circulation in the county. The board may reject any and all bids. 16235
The board may, as it considers best, sell real property pursuant 16236 to this section as an entire tract or in parcels. The board, by 16237 resolution adopted by a majority of the board, may lease real 16238 property, in accordance with division (A) of section 307.09 of the 16239
Revised Code, without advertising for bids. 16240

Sec. 307.12. (A) Except as otherwise provided in divisions (D), (E), and (G) of this section, when the board of county commissioners finds, by resolution, that the county has personal property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of county officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, that is not needed for public use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for which it was acquired, and when the fair market value of the property to be sold or donated under this division is, in the opinion of the board, in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars, the board may do either of the

(1) Sell the property at public auction or by sealed bid to 16274 the highest bidder. Notice of the time, place, and manner of the 16275 sale shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in 16276 the county at least ten days prior to the sale, and a typewritten 16277 or printed notice of the time, place, and manner of the sale shall 16278 be posted at least ten days before the sale in the offices of the 16279 county auditor and the board of county commissioners. 16280

If a board conducts a sale of property by sealed bid, the 16281 form of the bid shall be as prescribed by the board, and each bid 16282 shall contain the name of the person submitting it. Bids received 16283 shall be opened and tabulated at the time stated in the notice. 16284
The property shall be sold to the highest bidder, except that the 16285 board may reject all bids and hold another sale, by public auction 16286 or sealed bid, in the manner prescribed by this section. 16287

(2) Donate any motor vehicle that does not exceed four 16288 thousand five hundred dollars in value to a nonprofit organization 16289 exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) 16290 and (c)(3) for the purpose of meeting the transportation needs of 16291 participants in the Ohio works first program established under 16292 Chapter 5107. of the Revised Code and participants in the 16293 prevention, retention, and contingency program established under 16294
Chapter 5108. of the Revised Code. 16295

(B) When the board of county commissioners finds, by 16296 resolution, that the county has personal property, including motor 16297 vehicles acquired for the use of county officers and departments, 16298 and road machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, that is not 16299 needed for public use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for 16300 which it was acquired, and when the fair market value of the 16301 property to be sold or donated under this division is, in the 16302 opinion of the board, two thousand five hundred dollars or less, 16303 the board may do either of the following: 16304

(1) Sell the property by private sale, without advertisement 16305 or public notification; 16306

(2) Donate the property to an eligible nonprofit organization 16307 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 16308 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3). Before donating 16309 any property under this division, the board shall adopt a 16310 resolution expressing its intent to make unneeded, obsolete, or 16311 unfit-for-use county personal property available to these 16312 organizations. The resolution shall include guidelines and 16313 procedures the board considers necessary to implement a donation 16314 program under this division and shall indicate whether the county 16315 will conduct the donation program or the board will contract with 16316 a representative to conduct it. If a representative is known when 16317 the resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 16318 information such as the representative's name, address, and 16319 telephone number. 16320

The resolution shall include within its procedures a 16321 requirement that any nonprofit organization desiring to obtain 16322 donated property under this division shall submit a written notice 16323 to the board or its representative. The written notice shall 16324 include evidence that the organization is a nonprofit organization 16325 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 16326 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3); a description of 16327 the organization's primary purpose; a description of the type or 16328 types of property the organization needs; and the name, address, 16329 and telephone number of a person designated by the organization's 16330 governing board to receive donated property and to serve as its 16331 agent. 16332

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall publish, in 16333
a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice of its 16334 intent to donate unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use county 16335 personal property to eligible nonprofit organizations. The notice 16336 shall include a summary of the information provided in the 16337 resolution and shall be published ~~at least~~ twice or as provided in 16338 section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second and any subsequent 16339 notice shall be published not less than ten nor more than twenty 16340 days after the previous notice. A similar notice also shall be 16341 posted continually in a conspicuous place in the offices of the 16342 county auditor and the board of county commissioners, ~~and, if~~. If 16343 the county maintains a web site on the internet, the notice shall 16344 be posted continually at that web site. 16345

The board or its representative shall maintain a list of all 16346 nonprofit organizations that notify the board or its 16347 representative of their desire to obtain donated property under 16348 this division and that the board or its representative determines 16349 to be eligible, in accordance with the requirements set forth in 16350 this section and in the donation program's guidelines and 16351 procedures, to receive donated property. 16352

The board or its representatives also shall maintain a list 16353 of all county personal property the board finds to be unneeded, 16354 obsolete, or unfit for use and to be available for donation under 16355 this division. The list shall be posted continually in a 16356 conspicuous location in the offices of the county auditor and the 16357 board of county commissioners, and, if the county maintains a web 16358 site on the internet, the list shall be posted continually at that 16359 web site. An item of property on the list shall be donated to the 16360 eligible nonprofit organization that first declares to the board 16361 or its representative its desire to obtain the item unless the 16362 board previously has established, by resolution, a list of 16363 eligible nonprofit organizations that shall be given priority with 16364 respect to the item's donation. Priority may be given on the basis 16365 that the purposes of a nonprofit organization have a direct 16366 relationship to specific public purposes of programs provided or 16367 administered by the board. A resolution giving priority to certain 16368 nonprofit organizations with respect to the donation of an item of 16369 property shall specify the reasons why the organizations are given 16370 that priority. 16371

(C) Members of the board of county commissioners shall 16372 consult with the Ohio ethics commission, and comply with the 16373 provisions of Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised Code, with 16374 respect to any sale or donation under division (A) or (B) of this 16375 section to a nonprofit organization of which a county 16376 commissioner, any member of the county commissioner's family, or 16377 any business associate of the county commissioner is a trustee, 16378 officer, board member, or employee. 16379

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A), 16380
(B), or (E) of this section and regardless of the property's 16381 value, the board of county commissioners may sell or donate county 16382 personal property, including motor vehicles, to the federal 16383 government, the state, any political subdivision of the state, or 16384 a county land reutilization corporation without advertisement or 16385 public notification. 16386

(E) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A), 16387
(B), or (G) of this section and regardless of the property's 16388 value, the board of county commissioners may sell personal 16389 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of county 16390 officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, tools, or 16391 supplies, that is not needed for public use, is obsolete, or is 16392 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, by internet auction. 16393
The board shall adopt, during each calendar year, a resolution 16394 expressing its intent to sell that property by internet auction. 16395
The resolution shall include a description of how the auctions 16396 will be conducted and shall specify the number of days for bidding 16397 on the property, which shall be no less than ten days, including 16398 Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The resolution shall 16399 indicate whether the county will conduct the auction or the board 16400 will contract with a representative to conduct the auction and 16401 shall establish the general terms and conditions of sale. If a 16402 representative is known when the resolution is adopted, the 16403 resolution shall provide contact information such as the 16404 representative's name, address, and telephone number. 16405

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall publish, in 16406
a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice of its 16407 intent to sell unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use county 16408 personal property by internet auction. The notice shall include a 16409 summary of the information provided in the resolution and shall be 16410 published ~~at least~~ twice or as provided in section 7.16 of the 16411 Revised Code. The second and any subsequent notice shall be 16412 published not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the 16413 previous notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually 16414 throughout the calendar year in a conspicuous place in the offices 16415 of the county auditor and the board of county commissioners, ~~and,~~ 16416 ~~if.~~ If the county maintains a web site on the internet, the notice 16417 shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year at that 16418
web site. 16419

When property is to be sold by internet auction, the board or 16420 its representative may establish a minimum price that will be 16421 accepted for specific items and may establish any other terms and 16422 conditions for the particular sale, including requirements for 16423 pick-up or delivery, method of payment, and sales tax. This type 16424 of information shall be provided on the internet at the time of 16425 the auction and may be provided before that time upon request 16426 after the terms and conditions have been determined by the board 16427 or its representative. 16428

(F) When a county officer or department head determines that 16429 county-owned personal property under the jurisdiction of the 16430 officer or department head, including motor vehicles, road 16431 machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, is not of immediate 16432 need, the county officer or department head may notify the board 16433 of county commissioners, and the board may lease that personal 16434 property to any municipal corporation, township, other political 16435 subdivision of the state, or to a county land reutilization 16436 corporation. The lease shall require the county to be reimbursed 16437 under terms, conditions, and fees established by the board, or 16438 under contracts executed by the board. 16439

(G) If the board of county commissioners finds, by 16440 resolution, that the county has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 16441 that is not needed, or is unfit for public use, and the board 16442 desires to sell the vehicles, equipment, or machinery to the 16443 person or firm from which it proposes to purchase other vehicles, 16444 equipment, or machinery, the board may offer to sell the vehicles, 16445 equipment, or machinery to that person or firm, and to have the 16446 selling price credited to the person or firm against the purchase 16447 price of other vehicles, equipment, or machinery. 16448

(H) If the board of county commissioners advertises for bids 16449 for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or machinery to the 16450 county, it may include in the same advertisement a notice of the 16451 willingness of the board to accept bids for the purchase of 16452 county-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery that is obsolete or 16453 not needed for public use, and to have the amount of those bids 16454 subtracted from the selling price of the other vehicles, 16455 equipment, or machinery as a means of determining the lowest 16456 responsible bidder. 16457

(I) If a board of county commissioners determines that county 16458 personal property is not needed for public use, or is obsolete or 16459 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, and that the property 16460 has no value, the board may discard or salvage that property. 16461

(J) A county engineer, in the engineer's discretion, may 16462 dispose of scrap construction materials on such terms as the 16463 engineer determines reasonable, including disposal without 16464 recovery of costs, if the total value of the materials does not 16465 exceed twenty-five thousand dollars. The engineer shall maintain 16466 records of all dispositions made under this division, including 16467 identification of the origin of the materials, the final 16468 disposition, and copies of all receipts resulting from the 16469 dispositions. 16470

As used in division (I) of this section, "scrap construction 16471 materials" means construction materials that result from a road or 16472 bridge improvement, remain after the improvement is completed, and 16473 are not reusable. Construction material that is metal and that 16474 results from a road or bridge improvement and remains after the 16475 improvement is completed is scrap construction material only if it 16476 cannot be used in any other road or bridge improvement or other 16477 project in its current state. 16478

Sec. 307.676. (A) As used in this section: 16479

(1) "Food and beverages" means any raw, cooked, or processed 16480 edible substance used or intended for use in whole or in part for 16481 human consumption, including ice, water, spirituous liquors, wine, 16482 mixed beverages, beer, soft drinks, soda, and other beverages. 16483

(2) "Convention facilities authority" has the same meaning as 16484
in section 351.01 of the Revised Code. 16485

(3) "Convention center" has the same meaning as in section 16486
307.695 of the Revised Code. 16487

(B) The legislative authority of a county with a population 16488 of one million or more according to the most recent federal 16489 decennial census may, by resolution adopted on or before August 16490 30, 2004, by a majority of the members of the legislative 16491 authority and with the subsequent approval of a majority of the 16492 electors of the county voting upon it, levy a tax of not more than 16493 two per cent on every retail sale in the county of food and 16494 beverages to be consumed on the premises where sold to pay the 16495 expenses of administering the tax and to provide revenues for the 16496 county general fund. Such resolution shall direct the board of 16497 elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the 16498 electors of the county at the next primary or general election in 16499 the county occurring not less than ninety days after the 16500 resolution is certified to the board of elections, and such 16501 resolution may further direct the board of elections to include 16502 upon the ballot submitted to the electors any specific purposes 16503 for which the tax will be used. The legislative authority shall 16504 establish all regulations necessary to provide for the 16505 administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may 16506 prescribe the time for payment of the tax and may provide for 16507 imposition of a penalty, interest, or both for late payments, 16508 provided that any such penalty may not exceed ten per cent of the 16509 amount of tax due and the rate at which interest accrues may not 16510 exceed the rate per annum required under section 5703.47 of the 16511

Revised Code. 16512

(C) A tax levied under this section shall remain in effect 16513 for the period of time specified in the resolution or ordinance 16514 levying the tax, but in no case for a longer period than forty 16515 years. 16516

(D) A tax levied under this section is in addition to any 16517 other tax levied under Chapter 307., 4301., 4305., 5739., 5741., 16518 or any other chapter of the Revised Code. "Price," as defined in 16519 sections 5739.01 and 5741.01 of the Revised Code, does not include 16520 any tax levied under this section and any tax levied under this 16521 section does not include any tax imposed under Chapter 5739. or 16522

(E)(1) No amount collected from a tax levied under this 16524 section shall be contributed to a convention facilities authority, 16525 corporation, or other entity created after July 1, 2003, for the 16526 principal purpose of constructing, improving, expanding, 16527 equipping, financing, or operating a convention center unless the 16528 mayor of the municipal corporation in which the convention center 16529 is to be operated by that convention facilities authority, 16530 corporation, or other entity has consented to the creation of that 16531 convention facilities authority, corporation, or entity. 16532 Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 351.04 of the 16533 Revised Code, if a tax is levied by a county under this section, 16534 the board of county commissioners of that county may determine the 16535 manner of selection, the qualifications, the number, and terms of 16536 office of the members of the board of directors of any convention 16537 facilities authority, corporation, or other entity described in 16538 division (E)(1) of this section. 16539

(2)(a) No amount collected from a tax levied under this 16540 section may be used for any purpose other than paying the direct 16541 and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, 16542 equipping, financing, or operating a convention center and for the 16543 real and actual costs of administering the tax, unless, prior to 16544 the adoption of the resolution of the legislative authority of the 16545 county directing the board of elections to submit the question of 16546 the levy, extension, or increase to the electors of the county, 16547 the county and the mayor of the most populous municipal 16548 corporation in that county have entered into an agreement as to 16549 the use of such amounts, provided that such agreement has been 16550 approved by a majority of the mayors of the other municipal 16551 corporations in that county. The agreement shall provide that the 16552 amounts to be used for purposes other than paying the convention 16553 center or administrative costs described in division (E)(2)(a) of 16554 this section be used only for the direct and indirect costs of 16555 capital improvements in accordance with the agreement, including 16556 the financing of capital improvements. Immediately following the 16557 execution of the agreement, the county shall: 16558

(i) In accordance with section 7.12 of the Revised Code, 16559 cause the agreement to be published ~~at least~~ once in a newspaper 16560 of general circulation in that county; or 16561

(ii) Post the agreement in at least five public places in the 16562 county, as determined by the legislative authority, for a period 16563 not less than fifteen days. 16564

(b) If the county in which the tax is levied has an 16565 association of mayors and city managers, the approval of that 16566 association of an agreement described in division (E)(2)(a) of 16567 this section shall be considered to be the approval of the 16568 majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations for 16569 purposes of that division. 16570

(F) Each year, the auditor of state shall conduct an audit of 16571 the uses of any amounts collected from taxes levied under this 16572 section and shall prepare a report of the auditor of state's 16573 findings. The auditor of state shall submit the report to the 16574 legislative authority of the county that has levied the tax, the 16575 speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the 16576 senate, and the leaders of the minority parties of the house of 16577 representatives and the senate. 16578

(G) The levy of any taxes under Chapter 5739. of the Revised 16579 Code on the same transactions subject to a tax under this section 16580 does not prevent the levy of a tax under this section. 16581

Sec. 307.70. In any county electing a county charter 16582 commission, the board of county commissioners shall appropriate 16583 money for the expenses of such commission in the preparation of a 16584 county charter, or charter amendment, and the study of problems 16585 involved. No appropriation shall be made for the compensation of 16586 members of the commission for their services. The board shall 16587 appropriate money for the printing and mailing or otherwise 16588 distributing to each elector in the county, as far as may be 16589 reasonably possible, a copy of a charter submitted to the electors 16590 of the county by a charter commission or by the board pursuant to 16591 petition as provided by Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. 16592

The copy of the charter shall be mailed or otherwise distributed 16593 at least thirty days prior to the election. The board shall 16594 appropriate money for the printing and distribution or publication 16595 of proposed amendments to a charter submitted by a charter 16596 commission pursuant to Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. 16597 Notice of amendments to a county charter shall be given by mailing 16598 or otherwise distributing a copy of each proposed amendment to 16599 each elector in the county, as far as may be reasonably possible, 16600 at least thirty days prior to the election or, if the board so 16601 determines, by publishing the full text of the proposed amendments 16602 once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper 16603 ~~published in the county. If no newspaper is published in the~~ 16604 ~~county or the board is unable to obtain publication in a newspaper~~ 16605
~~published in the county, the proposed amendments may be published~~ 16606 ~~in a newspaper~~ of general circulation within the county, or as 16607 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. No public officer is 16608 precluded, because of being a public officer, from also holding 16609 office as a member of a county charter commission, except that not 16610 more than four officeholders may be elected to a county charter 16611 commission at the same time. No member of a county charter 16612 commission, because of charter commission membership, is precluded 16613 from seeking or holding other public office. 16614

Sec. 307.79. (A) The board of county commissioners may adopt, 16615 amend, and rescind rules establishing technically feasible and 16616 economically reasonable standards to achieve a level of management 16617 and conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion 16618 of the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 16619 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 16620 filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 16621 developed for nonfarm commercial, industrial, residential, or 16622 other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for determination 16623 of the acceptability of those management and conservation 16624 practices. The rules shall be designed to implement the applicable 16625 areawide waste treatment management plan prepared under section 16626 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 Stat. 816 16627 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement phase II of 16628 the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge 16629 elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules to 16630 implement phase II of the storm water program of the national 16631 pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be inconsistent 16632 with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than the rules or 16633 regulations adopted by the environmental protection agency under 16634 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this section shall not 16635 apply inside the limits of municipal corporations or the limits of 16636 townships with a limited home rule government that have adopted 16637 rules under section 504.21 of the Revised Code, to lands being 16638 used in a strip mine operation as defined in section 1513.01 of 16639 the Revised Code, or to land being used in a surface mine 16640 operation as defined in section 1514.01 of the Revised Code. 16641

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 16643
file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 16644 management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 16645 otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 16646 acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 16647 unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 16648 utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 16649 the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 16650
following: 16651

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 16652 agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 16653

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and approval or disapproval of the plans;	16654 16655
(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a person whose plans have been disapproved;	16656 16657 16658 16659
(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits;	16660
(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the denial of a permit.	16661 16662
Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit processing, and field inspections.	16663 16664 16665 16666 16667
No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in the department of natural resources.	16668 16669 16670 16671 16672 16673 16674

thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 16685

(C) The board of county commissioners may employ personnel to 16686 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 16687 under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 16688 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 16689 management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 16690 with one or more political subdivisions, other county officials, 16691 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 16692 obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 16693 sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 16694 for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 16695

(D) The board of county commissioners or any duly authorized 16696 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 16697 or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 16698
the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 16699 whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 16700 section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 16701 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 16702 may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 16703 county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 16704 inspection warrant as necessary to achieve the purposes of this 16705
chapter. 16706

(E)(1) If the board of county commissioners or its duly 16707 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 16708 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 16709 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 16710 obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 16711 and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 16712 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 16713 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 16714 violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 16715 representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 16716 violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the violation continues, the board or its duly authorized representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting attorney of the county if, in the opinion of the prosecuting attorney, the violation is egregious.

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly authorize representative shall request, in writing, the prosecuting attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other appropriate relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules adopted under this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an injunction or other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, the court of common pleas may order the construction of sediment control improvements or implementation of other control measures and may assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop work order issued under this section shall be considered a separate violation subject to a civil fine.

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other appropriate relief from that order.

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section against any public highway, transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the 16749 board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in 16750

the department of natural resources. 16751

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 16752 under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 16753 if the board of county commissioners determines that a violation 16754 of any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this 16755 section exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 16756 attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other appropriate 16757 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 16758 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules or order. In 16759 granting relief, the court of common pleas may order the 16760 construction of sediment control improvements or implementation of 16761 other control measures and may assess a civil fine of not less 16762 than one hundred or more than five hundred dollars. Each day of 16763 violation of a rule adopted or administrative order issued under 16764 this section shall be considered a separate violation subject to a 16765 civil fine. 16766

Sec. 307.791. The question of repeal of a county sediment 16767 control rule adopted under section 307.79 of the Revised Code may 16768 be initiated by filing with the board of elections of the county 16769 not less than ninety days before the general or primary election 16770 in any year a petition requesting that an election be held on such 16771 question. Such petition shall be signed by qualified electors 16772 residing in the county equal in number to ten per cent of those 16773 voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election in 16774
the county. 16775

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the 16776
board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 16777 the county at the next general or primary election. The election 16778 shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as 16779 regular elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the 16780 election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation 16781 in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 16782 election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 16783

Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 16784 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 16785 thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 16786 purpose, time, and place of the election and ~~the complete text a~~ 16787 succinct summary of each rule sought to be repealed. The form of 16788 the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the 16789 secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be 16790 submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the 16791 same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same 16792 election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the 16793 qualified electors voting on the question of repeal approve the 16794 repeal, the result of the election shall be certified immediately 16795 after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 16796 commissioners, who shall thereupon rescind the rule. 16797

Sec. 307.81. (A) Where lands have been dedicated to or for 16798 the use of the public for parks or park lands, and where such 16799 lands have remained unimproved and unused by the public and there 16800 appears to be little or no possibility that such lands will be 16801 improved and used by the public, the board of county commissioners 16802 of the county in which the lands are located may, by resolution, 16803 declare such parks or park lands vacated upon the petition of a 16804 majority of the abutting freeholders. No such parks or park lands 16805 shall be vacated unless notice of the pendency and prayer of the 16806 petition is given in a newspaper of general circulation in the 16807 county in which such lands are situated for three consecutive 16808 weeks preceding action on such petition or as provided in section 16809 7.16 of the Revised Code. No such lands shall be vacated prior to 16810 a public hearing had thereon. 16811

(C) In order to receive a notice or to make an offer regarding parks or park lands under division (B) of this section, a political subdivision must meet both of the following conditions:

(1) Have the authority to acquire, develop, and maintain public parks or recreation areas;

(2) Contain the parks or park lands in question within its boundaries, or adjoin a political subdivision that contains those 16844 parks or park lands within its boundaries. 16845

Sec. 307.82. Upon the vacation of parks or park lands, the 16846 board of county commissioners shall offer such lands for sale at a 16847 public auction at the courthouse of the county in which such lands 16848 are situated. No lands shall be sold until the board gives notice 16849 of intention to sell such lands. Such notice shall be published 16850 once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 16851 circulation in the county in which sale is to be had or as 16852 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The board shall sell 16853 such lands to the highest and best bidder, provided, the board may 16854 reject any and all bids made hereunder. 16855

When such sale is made, the auditor of the county in which 16856 sale is had and in which such lands are located, shall enter into 16857 a deed, conveying said lands to the purchaser thereof. At the time 16858 of sale, the auditor shall place the lands sold hereunder on the 16859 tax duplicate of the county at a value to be established by ~~him~~ 16860 the auditor as in cases where ~~he~~ the auditor re-enters property 16861 which has been tax exempt on the taxable list of the county. 16862

The proceeds from the sale of lands sold pursuant to this 16863 section shall be placed in the general fund of the county in which 16864 such lands are located and may be disbursed as other general fund 16865 moneys. 16866

Sec. 307.83. When real estate which has been dedicated to or 16867 for the use of the public for parks or park lands is vacated by 16868 the board of county commissioners pursuant to division (A) of 16869 section 307.81 of the Revised Code or is to be sold or leased for 16870 nonpark use under division (B) of that section, and where 16871 reversionary interests have been set up in the event of the 16872 non-use of such lands for the dedicated purpose, such reversionary 16873 interests shall accelerate and vest in the holders thereof upon 16874 such vacation, or prior to the acceptance of an offer to buy or 16875 lease the land. Thereupon the auditor of the county shall place 16876 the lands on the tax duplicate of the county in the names of such 16877 reversioners as are known to the board of county commissioners. If 16878 the board is unable to establish the names of such reversioners, 16879 it shall fix a date on or before which claims to such real estate 16880 may be asserted and after which such real estate shall be sold or 16881 leased. The board shall give notice of such date and of the sale 16882 or lease to be held thereafter, once each week for four 16883 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 16884 county wherein such lands are located or as provided in section 16885 7.16 of the Revised Code. In the event that no claims to such 16886 lands are asserted or found to be valid, the lands shall be sold 16887 pursuant to section 307.82 of the Revised Code in the case of a 16888 vacation of the lands pursuant to division (A) of section 307.81 16889 of the Revised Code, or be sold or leased pursuant to division (B) 16890 of section 307.81 of the Revised Code if an agreement with a 16891 political subdivision is entered into under that division, and the 16892 title of any holders of reversionary interests shall be 16893 extinguished. 16894

Sec. 307.86. Anything to be purchased, leased, leased with an 16895 option or agreement to purchase, or constructed, including, but 16896 not limited to, any product, structure, construction, 16897 reconstruction, improvement, maintenance, repair, or service, 16898 except the services of an accountant, architect, attorney at law, 16899 physician, professional engineer, construction project manager, 16900 consultant, surveyor, or appraiser, by or on behalf of the county 16901 or contracting authority, as defined in section 307.92 of the 16902 Revised Code, at a cost in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars, 16903 except as otherwise provided in division (D) of section 713.23 and 16904 in sections 9.48, 125.04, 125.60 to 125.6012, 307.022, 307.041, 16905

307.861, 339.05, 340.03, 340.033, 4115.31 to 4115.35, 5119.16, 16906
5513.01, 5543.19, 5713.01, and 6137.05 of the Revised Code, shall 16907 be obtained through competitive bidding. However, competitive 16908 bidding is not required when any of the following applies: 16909

(A) The board of county commissioners, by a unanimous vote of 16910 its members, makes a determination that a real and present 16911 emergency exists, and that determination and the reasons for it 16912 are entered in the minutes of the proceedings of the board, when 16913 either of the following applies: 16914

(1) The estimated cost is less than fifty thousand dollars. 16915

(2) There is actual physical disaster to structures, radio 16916 communications equipment, or computers. 16917

For purposes of this division, "unanimous vote" means all 16918 three members of a board of county commissioners when all three 16919 members are present, or two members of the board if only two 16920 members, constituting a quorum, are present. 16921

Whenever a contract of purchase, lease, or construction is 16922 exempted from competitive bidding under division (A)(1) of this 16923 section because the estimated cost is less than fifty thousand 16924 dollars, but the estimated cost is twenty-five thousand dollars or 16925 more, the county or contracting authority shall solicit informal 16926 estimates from no fewer than three persons who could perform the 16927 contract, before awarding the contract. With regard to each such 16928 contract, the county or contracting authority shall maintain a 16929 record of such estimates, including the name of each person from 16930 whom an estimate is solicited. The county or contracting authority 16931 shall maintain the record for the longer of at least one year 16932 after the contract is awarded or the amount of time the federal 16933 government requires. 16934

(B)(1) The purchase consists of supplies or a replacement or 16935 supplemental part or parts for a product or equipment owned or 16936 leased by the county, and the only source of supply for the 16937 supplies, part, or parts is limited to a single supplier. 16938

(2) The purchase consists of services related to information 16939 technology, such as programming services, that are proprietary or 16940 limited to a single source. 16941

(C) The purchase is from the federal government, the state, 16942 another county or contracting authority of another county, or a 16943 board of education, educational service center, township, or 16944
municipal corporation. 16945

(D) The purchase is made by a county department of job and 16946 family services under section 329.04 of the Revised Code and 16947 consists of family services duties or workforce development 16948 activities or is made by a county board of developmental 16949 disabilities under section 5126.05 of the Revised Code and 16950 consists of program services, such as direct and ancillary client 16951 services, child care, case management services, residential 16952 services, and family resource services. 16953

(E) The purchase consists of criminal justice services, 16954 social services programs, family services, or workforce 16955 development activities by the board of county commissioners from 16956 nonprofit corporations or associations under programs funded by 16957 the federal government or by state grants. 16958

(F) The purchase consists of any form of an insurance policy 16959 or contract authorized to be issued under Title XXXIX of the 16960 Revised Code or any form of health care plan authorized to be 16961 issued under Chapter 1751. of the Revised Code, or any combination 16962 of such policies, contracts, plans, or services that the 16963 contracting authority is authorized to purchase, and the 16964 contracting authority does all of the following: 16965

(1) Determines that compliance with the requirements of this 16966 section would increase, rather than decrease, the cost of the 16967

purchase;	16968
(2) Requests issuers of the policies, contracts, plans, or services to submit proposals to the contracting authority, in a form prescribed by the contracting authority, setting forth the coverage and cost of the policies, contracts, plans, or services as the contracting authority desires to purchase;	16969 16970 16971 16972 16973
(3) Negotiates with the issuers for the purpose of purchasing the policies, contracts, plans, or services at the best and lowest price reasonably possible.	16974 16975 16976
(G) The purchase consists of computer hardware, software, or consulting services that are necessary to implement a computerized case management automation project administered by the Ohio prosecuting attorneys association and funded by a grant from the federal government.	16977 16978 16979 16980 16981
(H) Child care services are purchased for provision to county employees.	16982 16983
(I)(1) Property, including land, buildings, and other real property, is leased for offices, storage, parking, or other purposes, and all of the following apply:	16984 16985 16986
(a) The contracting authority is authorized by the Revised Code to lease the property.	16987 16988
(b) The contracting authority develops requests for proposals for leasing the property, specifying the criteria that will be considered prior to leasing the property, including the desired size and geographic location of the property.	16989 16990 16991 16992
(c) The contracting authority receives responses from prospective lessors with property meeting the criteria specified in the requests for proposals by giving notice in a manner substantially similar to the procedures established for giving notice under section 307.87 of the Revised Code.	16993 16994 16995 16996 16997

(d) The contracting authority negotiates with the prospective lessors to obtain a lease at the best and lowest price reasonably possible considering the fair market value of the property and any relocation and operational costs that may be incurred during the period the lease is in effect.

(2) The contracting authority may use the services of a real estate appraiser to obtain advice, consultations, or other recommendations regarding the lease of property under this division.

(J) The purchase is made pursuant to section 5139.34 or sections 5139.41 to 5139.46 of the Revised Code and is of programs or services that provide case management, treatment, or prevention services to any felony or misdemeanor delinquent, unruly youth, or status offender under the supervision of the juvenile court, including, but not limited to, community residential care, day treatment, services to children in their home, or electronic monitoring.

(K) The purchase is made by a public children services agency pursuant to section 307.92 or 5153.16 of the Revised Code and consists of family services, programs, or ancillary services that provide case management, prevention, or treatment services for children at risk of being or alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent children.

(L) The purchase is to obtain the services of emergency medical service organizations under a contract made by the board of county commissioners pursuant to section 307.05 of the Revised Code with a joint emergency medical services district.

(M) The county contracting authority determines that the use of competitive sealed proposals would be advantageous to the county and the contracting authority complies with section 307.862 of the Revised Code.

Any issuer of policies, contracts, plans, or services listed 17029 in division (F) of this section and any prospective lessor under 17030 division (I) of this section may have the issuer's or prospective 17031 lessor's name and address, or the name and address of an agent, 17032 placed on a special notification list to be kept by the 17033 contracting authority, by sending the contracting authority that 17034 name and address. The contracting authority shall send notice to 17035 all persons listed on the special notification list. Notices shall 17036 state the deadline and place for submitting proposals. The 17037 contracting authority shall mail the notices at least six weeks 17038 prior to the deadline set by the contracting authority for 17039 submitting proposals. Every five years the contracting authority 17040 may review this list and remove any person from the list after 17041 mailing the person notification of that action. 17042

Any contracting authority that negotiates a contract under 17043 division (F) of this section shall request proposals and negotiate 17044 with issuers in accordance with that division at least every three 17045 years from the date of the signing of such a contract, unless the 17046 parties agree upon terms for extensions or renewals of the 17047 contract. Such extension or renewal periods shall not exceed six 17048 years from the date the initial contract is signed. 17049

Any real estate appraiser employed pursuant to division (I) 17050 of this section shall disclose any fees or compensation received 17051 from any source in connection with that employment. 17052

Sec. 308.13. (A) The board of trustees of a regional airport 17053
authority or any officer or employee designated by such board may 17054 make any contract for the purchase of supplies or material or for 17055 labor for any work, under the supervision of the board, the cost 17056 of which shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars. Except where 17057 the contract is for equipment, materials, or supplies available 17058 from a qualified nonprofit agency pursuant to sections 4115.31 to 17059

4115.35 of the Revised Code, when an expenditure, other than for 17060 the acquisition of real estate, the discharge of noncontractual 17061 claims, personal services, or for the product or services of 17062 public utilities, exceeds fifteen thousand dollars, such 17063 expenditure shall be made only after a notice calling for bids has 17064 been published once a week for three consecutive weeks in ~~at least~~ 17065 ~~one~~ a newspaper of general circulation within the territorial 17066 boundaries of the regional airport authority, or as provided in 17067 section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the bid is for a contract for 17068
the construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or 17069 reconstruction of an improvement, it shall meet the requirements 17070 of section 153.54 of the Revised Code. If the bid is for any other 17071 contract authorized by this section, it shall be accompanied by a 17072 good and approved bond with ample security conditioned on the 17073 carrying out of the contract. The board may let the contract to 17074 the lowest and best bidder. Such contract shall be in writing and 17075 shall be accompanied by or shall refer to plans and specifications 17076 for the work to be done, approved by the board. The plans and 17077 specifications shall at all times be made and considered part of 17078 the contract. Said contract shall be approved by the board and 17079 signed by its chief executive officer and by the contractor, and 17080 shall be executed in duplicate. 17081

(B) Whenever a board of trustees of a regional airport 17082 authority or any officer or employee designated by the board makes 17083 a contract for the purchase of supplies or material or for labor 17084 for any work, the cost of which is greater than one thousand 17085 dollars but no more than fifteen thousand dollars, the board or 17086 designated officer or employee shall solicit informal estimates 17087 from no fewer than three potential suppliers before awarding the 17088 contract. With regard to each such contract, the board shall 17089 maintain a record of such estimates, including the name of each 17090 person from whom an estimate is solicited, for no less than one 17091 year after the contract is awarded. 17092

Sec. 317.20. (A) When, in the opinion of the board of county commissioners, sectional indexes are needed and it so directs, in addition to the alphabetical indexes provided for in section 317.18 of the Revised Code, the board may provide for making, in books prepared for that purpose, sectional indexes to the records of all real estate in the county beginning with some designated year and continuing through the period of years that the board specifies. The sectional indexes shall place under the heads of the original surveyed sections or surveys, parts of a section or survey, squares, subdivisions, permanent parcel numbers provided for under section 319.28 of the Revised Code, or lots, on the left-hand page or on the upper portion of that page of the index book, the name of the grantor, then the name of the grantee, then the number and page of the record in which the instrument is found recorded, then the character of the instrument, and then a pertinent description of the interest in property conveyed by the deed, lease, or assignment of lease and shall place under similar headings on the right-hand page or on the lower portion of that page of the index book, beginning at the bottom, all the mortgages, liens, notices provided for in sections 5301.51, 5301.52, and 5301.56 of the Revised Code, or other encumbrances affecting the real estate.

(B) The compensation for the services rendered under this section shall be paid from the general revenue fund of the county, and no additional levy shall be made in consequence of the services.

(C) If the board of county commissioners decides to have sectional indexes made, it shall advertise for three consecutive weeks in one newspaper of general circulation in the county or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code for sealed proposals to do the work provided for in this section, shall contract with the lowest and best bidder, and shall require the successful bidder to give a bond for the faithful performance of the contract 17125 in the sum that the board fixes. The work shall be done to the 17126 acceptance of the auditor of state upon allowance by the board. 17127

The board may reject any and all bids for the work, provided that 17128 no more than five cents shall be paid for each entry of each tract 17129 or lot of land. 17130

(D) When the sectional indexes are brought up and completed, 17131 the county recorder shall maintain the indexes and comply with 17132 division (E) of this section in connection with registered land. 17133

(E)(1) As used in division (E) of this section, "housing 17134 accommodations" and "restrictive covenant" have the same meanings 17135 as in section 4112.01 of the Revised Code. 17136

(2) In connection with any transfer of registered land that 17137 occurs on and after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ March 30, 17138 1999, in accordance with Chapters 5309. and 5310. of the Revised 17139 Code, the county recorder shall delete from the sectional indexes 17140 maintained under this section all references to any restrictive 17141 covenant that appears to apply to the transferred registered land, 17142 if any inclusion of the restrictive covenant in a transfer, 17143 rental, or lease of housing accommodations, any honoring or 17144 exercising of the restrictive covenant, or any attempt to honor or 17145 exercise the restrictive covenant constitutes an unlawful 17146 discriminatory practice under division (H)(9) of section 4112.02 17147
of the Revised Code. 17148

Sec. 319.11. The county auditor shall, on or before ninety 17149 days after the close of the fiscal year, prepare a financial 17150 report of the county for the preceding fiscal year in such form as 17151 prescribed by the auditor of state. Upon completing the report, 17152 the county auditor shall publish notice that the report has been 17153 completed and is available for public inspection at the office of 17154 the county auditor. The notice shall be published once in ~~two~~ 17155

~~newspapers~~ a newspaper of general circulation ~~published~~ in the 17156 county, ~~except that if only one newspaper is published in the~~ 17157 ~~county, then publication in only one newspaper is required, and~~ 17158
~~if.~~ If there are is no newspapers newspaper of general circulation 17159 in the county, then publication is required in the newspaper of 17160 general circulation in an adjoining county that has the largest 17161 circulation in ~~the~~ that adjoining county. The report shall contain 17162 at least the information required by section 117.38 of the Revised 17163 Code, and a copy shall be filed with the auditor of state. 17164

No county auditor shall fail or neglect to prepare the report 17165 or publish notice of completion of the report as required by this 17166
section. 17167

Sec. 319.301. (A) The reductions required by division (D) of 17168 this section do not apply to any of the following: 17169

(1) Taxes levied at whatever rate is required to produce a 17170 specified amount of tax money, including a tax levied under 17171 section 5705.199 or 5705.211 of the Revised Code, or an amount to 17172 pay debt charges; 17173

(2) Taxes levied within the one per cent limitation imposed 17174 by Section 2 of Article XII, Ohio Constitution; 17175

(3) Taxes provided for by the charter of a municipal 17176 corporation. 17177

(B) As used in this section: 17178

(1) "Real property" includes real property owned by a 17179 railroad. 17180

(2) "Carryover property" means all real property on the 17181 current year's tax list except: 17182

(a) Land and improvements that were not taxed by the district 17183 in both the preceding year and the current year; 17184

(3) "Effective tax rate" means with respect to each class of property: 17187
17188

(a) The sum of the total taxes that would have been charged and payable for current expenses against real property in that class if each of the district's taxes were reduced for the current year under division (D)(1) of this section without regard to the application of division (E)(3) of this section divided by 17189
17192
17193

(b) The taxable value of all real property in that class. 17194

(4) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and payable prior to any reduction required by section 319.302 of the Revised Code. 17195

(C) The tax commissioner shall make the determinations required by this section each year, without regard to whether a taxing district has territory in a county to which section 5715.24 of the Revised Code applies for that year. Separate determinations shall be made for each of the two classes established pursuant to section 5713.041 of the Revised Code. 17198
17199
17201
17202
17203

(D) With respect to each tax authorized to be levied by each taxing district, the tax commissioner, annually, shall do both of the following: 17204
17206

(1) Determine by what percentage, if any, the sums levied by such tax against the carryover property in each class would have to be reduced for the tax to levy the same number of dollars against such property in that class in the current year as were charged against such property by such tax in the preceding year subsequent to the reduction made under this section but before the reduction made under section 319.302 of the Revised Code. In the case of a tax levied for the first time that is not a renewal of an existing tax, the commissioner shall determine by what 17207
17208
17210
17211
17212
17213
17214
17215 percentage the sums that would otherwise be levied by such tax 17216 against carryover property in each class would have to be reduced 17217 to equal the amount that would have been levied if the full rate 17218 thereof had been imposed against the total taxable value of such 17219 property in the preceding tax year. A tax or portion of a tax that 17220 is designated a replacement levy under section 5705.192 of the 17221 Revised Code is not a renewal of an existing tax for purposes of 17222 this division. 17223

(2) Certify each percentage determined in division (D)(1) of 17224 this section, as adjusted under division (E) of this section, and 17225 the class of property to which that percentage applies to the 17226 auditor of each county in which the district has territory. The 17227 auditor, after complying with section 319.30 of the Revised Code, 17228 shall reduce the sum to be levied by such tax against each parcel 17229 of real property in the district by the percentage so certified 17230 for its class. Certification shall be made by the first day of 17231 September except in the case of a tax levied for the first time, 17232 in which case certification shall be made within fifteen days of 17233 the date the county auditor submits the information necessary to 17234 make the required determination. 17235

(E)(1) As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "pre-1982 17236 joint vocational taxes" means, with respect to a class of 17237 property, the difference between the following amounts: 17238

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 17239 the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint 17240 vocational school district of which the school district is a part 17241 after making all reductions under this section; 17242

(b) The following percentage of the taxable value of all real 17243 property in that class: 17244

(i) In 1987, five one-hundredths of one per cent; 17245

(ii) In 1988, one-tenth of one per cent; 17246

(iii) In 1989, fifteen one-hundredths of one per cent;	17247
(iv) In 1990 and each subsequent year, two-tenths of one per cent.	17248 17249
If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes shall be zero.	17250 17251 17252
As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 5705.199, 5705.213, or 5705.219 of the Revised Code.	17253 17254 17255 17256 17257
(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized to be levied;	17270 17271
(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the reduction required by this section for that class.	17272 17273 17274
(3)(a) If in the case of a joint vocational school district any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either class of property could cause the total taxes	17275 17276 17277 charged and payable for current expenses for that class to be less 17278 than the designated amount, the commissioner shall determine what 17279 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 17280 payable for current expenses for that class, after all reductions 17281 that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal the 17282 designated amount. The auditor shall use such percentages in 17283 making the reductions required by this section for that class. 17284

(b) As used in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, the 17285 designated amount shall equal the taxable value of all real 17286 property in the class that is subject to taxation by the district 17287 times the lesser of the following: 17288

(i) Two-tenths of one per cent; 17289

(ii) The district's effective rate plus the following 17290 percentage for the year indicated: 17291

WHEN COMPUTING THE	ADD THE FOLLOWING
TAXES CHARGED FOR	PERCENTAGE:
1987	0.025%	17294
1988	0.05%	17295
1989	0.075%	17296
1990	0.1%	17297
1991	0.125%	17298
1992	0.15%	17299
1993	0.175%	17300
1994 and thereafter	0.2%	17301

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate 17302 at which any tax is levied. 17303

(G) The commissioner may order a county auditor to furnish 17304 any information the commissioner needs to make the determinations 17305 required under division (D) or (E) of this section, and the 17306 auditor shall supply the information in the form and by the date 17307 specified in the order. If the auditor fails to comply with an 17308 order issued under this division, except for good cause as 17309 determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall withhold 17310 from such county or taxing district therein fifty per cent of 17311 state revenues to local governments pursuant to section 5747.50 of 17312 the Revised Code or shall direct the department of education to 17313 withhold therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues to school 17314 districts pursuant to ~~Chapters 3306.~~ and Chapter 3317. of the 17315 Revised Code. The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of 17316 such revenues until the county auditor has complied with this 17317 division, and the department shall withhold the distribution of 17318 such revenues until the commissioner has notified the department 17319 that the county auditor has complied with this division. 17320

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction 17321 factor for either class of property in a taxing district located 17322 in more than one county by the last day of November because 17323 information required under division (G) of this section is 17324 unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 17325 tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 17326 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 17327 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 17328 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 17329 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 17330 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 17331 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 17332 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 17333 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 17334 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 17335 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 17336
year. 17337

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 17338 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 17339 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 17340 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 17341 It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 17342 ensuing tax year. 17343

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 17344 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 17345 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 17346 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 17347 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 17348 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 17349 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 17350 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 17351 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 17352 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 17353 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 17354 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 17355 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 17356 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 17357 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 17358

Sec. 319.54. (A) On all moneys collected by the county 17359 treasurer on any tax duplicate of the county, other than estate 17360 tax duplicates, and on all moneys received as advance payments of 17361 personal property and classified property taxes, the county 17362 auditor, on settlement with the treasurer and tax commissioner, on 17363 or before the date prescribed by law for such settlement or any 17364 lawful extension of such date, shall be allowed as compensation 17365 for the county auditor's services the following percentages: 17366

(1) On the first one hundred thousand dollars, two and 17367
one-half per cent; 17368

(2) On the next two million dollars, eight thousand three 17369 hundred eighteen ten-thousandths of one per cent; 17370

(3) On the next two million dollars, six thousand six hundred 17371

fifty-five ten-thousandths of one per cent; 17372

(4) On all further sums, one thousand six hundred sixty-three 17373 ten-thousandths of one per cent. 17374

If any settlement is not made on or before the date 17375 prescribed by law for such settlement or any lawful extension of 17376 such date, the aggregate compensation allowed to the auditor shall 17377 be reduced one per cent for each day such settlement is delayed 17378 after the prescribed date. No penalty shall apply if the auditor 17379 and treasurer grant all requests for advances up to ninety per 17380 cent of the settlement pursuant to section 321.34 of the Revised 17381 Code. The compensation allowed in accordance with this section on 17382 settlements made before the dates prescribed by law, or the 17383 reduced compensation allowed in accordance with this section on 17384 settlements made after the date prescribed by law or any lawful 17385 extension of such date, shall be apportioned ratably by the 17386 auditor and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue 17387 payable to the state as well as to the county, townships, 17388 municipal corporations, and school districts. 17389

(B) For the purpose of reimbursing county auditors for the 17390 expenses associated with the increased number of applications for 17391 reductions in real property taxes under sections 323.152 and 17392 4503.065 of the Revised Code that result from the amendment of 17393 those sections by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly, 17394 there shall be paid from the state's general revenue fund to the 17395 county treasury, to the credit of the real estate assessment fund 17396 created by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to 17397 one per cent of the total annual amount of property tax relief 17398 reimbursement paid to that county under sections 323.156 and 17399 4503.068 of the Revised Code for the preceding tax year. Payments 17400 made under this division shall be made at the same times and in 17401 the same manner as payments made under section 323.156 of the 17402
Revised Code. 17403

(C) From all moneys collected by the county treasurer on any tax duplicate of the county, other than estate tax duplicates, and on all moneys received as advance payments of personal property and classified property taxes, there shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the real estate assessment fund created by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount to be determined by the county auditor, which shall not exceed the percentages prescribed in divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section.

(1) For payments made after June 30, 2007, and before 2011, the following percentages:

(a) On the first five hundred thousand dollars, four per cent;

(b) On the next five million dollars, two per cent;

(c) On the next five million dollars, one per cent;

(d) On all further sums not exceeding one hundred fifty million dollars, three-quarters of one per cent;

(e) On amounts exceeding one hundred fifty million dollars, five hundred eighty-five thousandths of one per cent.

(2) For payments made in or after 2011, the following percentages:

(a) On the first five hundred thousand dollars, four per cent;

(b) On the next ten million dollars, two per cent;

(c) On amounts exceeding ten million five hundred thousand dollars, three-fourths of one per cent.

Such compensation shall be apportioned ratably by the auditor and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue payable to the state as well as to the county, townships, municipal corporations, and school districts.

(D) Each county auditor shall receive four per cent of the amount of tax collected and paid into the county treasury, on property omitted and placed by the county auditor on the tax duplicate.

(E) On all estate tax moneys collected by the county treasurer, the county auditor, on settlement semiannually with the tax commissioner, shall be allowed, as compensation for the auditor's services under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code, the following percentages:

(1) Four per cent on the first one hundred thousand dollars;

(2) One-half of one per cent on all additional sums.

Such percentages shall be computed upon the amount collected and reported at each semiannual settlement, and shall be for the use of the general fund of the county.

(F) On all cigarette license moneys collected by the county treasurer, the county auditor, on settlement semiannually with the treasurer, shall be allowed as compensation for the auditor's services in the issuing of such licenses one-half of one per cent of such moneys, to be apportioned ratably and deducted from the shares of the revenue payable to the county and subdivisions, for the use of the general fund of the county.

(G) The county auditor shall charge and receive fees as follows:

(1) For deeds of land sold for taxes to be paid by the purchaser, five dollars;

(2) For the transfer or entry of land, lot, or part of lot, or the transfer or entry on or after January 1, 2000, of a used manufactured home or mobile home as defined in section 5739.0210 of the Revised Code, fifty cents for each transfer or entry, to be paid by the person requiring it;

(3) For receiving statements of value and administering	17463
section 319.202 of the Revised Code, one dollar, or ten cents for	17464
each one hundred dollars or fraction of one hundred dollars,	17465 whichever is greater, of the value of the real property	17466 transferred or, for sales occurring on or after January 1, 2000,	17467
the value of the used manufactured home or used mobile home, as	17468 defined in section 5739.0210 of the Revised Code, transferred,	17469 except no fee shall be charged when the transfer is made:	17470
(a) To or from the United States, this state, or any	17471
instrumentality, agency, or political subdivision of the United	17472
States or this state;	17473
(b) Solely in order to provide or release security for a debt	17474
or obligation;	17475
(c) To confirm or correct a deed previously executed and	17476 recorded or when a current owner on any record made available to	17477
the general public on the internet or a publicly accessible	17478 database and the general tax list of real and public utility	17479 property and the general duplicate of real and public utility	17480 property is a peace officer, parole officer, prosecuting attorney,	17481 assistant prosecuting attorney, correctional employee, youth	17482 services employee, firefighter, EMT, or investigator of the bureau	17483 of criminal identification and investigation and is changing the	17484 current owner name listed on any record made available to the	17485 general public on the internet or a publicly accessible database	17486 and the general tax list of real and public utility property and	17487
the general duplicate of real and public utility property to the	17488 initials of the current owner as prescribed in division (B)(1) of	17489
section 319.28 of the Revised Code;	17490
(d) To evidence a gift, in trust or otherwise and whether	17491
revocable or irrevocable, between husband and wife, or parent and	17492 child or the spouse of either;	17493

(e) On sale for delinquent taxes or assessments;	17494
(f) Pursuant to court order, to the extent that such transfer	17495 is not the result of a sale effected or completed pursuant to such	17496
order;	17497
(g) Pursuant to a reorganization of corporations or	17498
unincorporated associations or pursuant to the dissolution of a	17499 corporation, to the extent that the corporation conveys the	17500 property to a stockholder as a distribution in kind of the	17501 corporation's assets in exchange for the stockholder's shares in	17502
the dissolved corporation;	17503
(h) By a subsidiary corporation to its parent corporation for	17504
no consideration, nominal consideration, or in sole consideration	17505 of the cancellation or surrender of the subsidiary's stock;	17506
(i) By lease, whether or not it extends to mineral or mineral	17507 rights, unless the lease is for a term of years renewable forever;	17508
(j) When the value of the real property or the manufactured	17509 or mobile home or the value of the interest that is conveyed does	17510 not exceed one hundred dollars;	17511
(k) Of an occupied residential property, including a	17512 manufactured or mobile home, being transferred to the builder of a	17513 new residence or to the dealer of a new manufactured or mobile	17514 home when the former residence is traded as part of the	17515 consideration for the new residence or new manufactured or mobile	17516
home;	17517
(l) To a grantee other than a dealer in real property or in	17518 manufactured or mobile homes, solely for the purpose of, and as a	17519 step in, the prompt sale of the real property or manufactured or	17520
mobile home to others;	17521
(m) To or from a person when no money or other valuable and	17522
tangible consideration readily convertible into money is paid or	17523 to be paid for the real estate or manufactured or mobile home and 17524 the transaction is not a gift; 17525

(n) Pursuant to division (B) of section 317.22 of the Revised 17526
Code, or section 2113.61 of the Revised Code, between spouses or 17527 to a surviving spouse pursuant to section 5302.17 of the Revised 17528 Code as it existed prior to April 4, 1985, between persons 17529 pursuant to section 5302.17 or 5302.18 of the Revised Code on or 17530 after April 4, 1985, to a person who is a surviving, survivorship 17531 tenant pursuant to section 5302.17 of the Revised Code on or after 17532
April 4, 1985, or pursuant to section 5309.45 of the Revised Code; 17533

(o) To a trustee acting on behalf of minor children of the 17534 deceased; 17535

(p) Of an easement or right-of-way when the value of the 17536 interest conveyed does not exceed one thousand dollars; 17537

(q) Of property sold to a surviving spouse pursuant to 17538
section 2106.16 of the Revised Code; 17539

(r) To or from an organization exempt from federal income 17540 taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the "Internal Revenue Code of 17541 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 1, as amended, provided such 17542 transfer is without consideration and is in furtherance of the 17543 charitable or public purposes of such organization; 17544

(s) Among the heirs at law or devisees, including a surviving 17545 spouse, of a common decedent, when no consideration in money is 17546 paid or to be paid for the real property or manufactured or mobile 17547
home; 17548

(t) To a trustee of a trust, when the grantor of the trust 17549 has reserved an unlimited power to revoke the trust; 17550

(u) To the grantor of a trust by a trustee of the trust, when 17551 the transfer is made to the grantor pursuant to the exercise of 17552 the grantor's power to revoke the trust or to withdraw trust 17553 assets; 17554

(v) To the beneficiaries of a trust if the fee was paid on 17555 the transfer from the grantor of the trust to the trustee or if 17556 the transfer is made pursuant to trust provisions which became 17557 irrevocable at the death of the grantor; 17558

(w) To a corporation for incorporation into a sports facility 17559 constructed pursuant to section 307.696 of the Revised Code; 17560

(x) Between persons pursuant to section 5302.18 of the 17561
Revised Code; 17562

(y) From a county land reutilization corporation organized 17563 under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code to a third party. 17564

(4) For the cost of publishing the delinquent manufactured 17565 home tax list, the delinquent tax list, and the delinquent vacant 17566 land tax list, a flat fee, as determined by the county auditor, to 17567 be charged to the owner of a home on the delinquent manufactured 17568 home tax list or the property owner of land on the delinquent tax 17569 list or the delinquent vacant land tax list. 17570

The auditor shall compute and collect the fee. The auditor 17571 shall maintain a numbered receipt system, as prescribed by the tax 17572 commissioner, and use such receipt system to provide a receipt to 17573 each person paying a fee. The auditor shall deposit the receipts 17574 of the fees on conveyances in the county treasury daily to the 17575 credit of the general fund of the county, except that fees charged 17576 and received under division (G)(3) of this section for a transfer 17577 of real property to a county land reutilization corporation shall 17578 be credited to the county land reutilization corporation fund 17579 established under section 321.263 of the Revised Code. 17580

The real property transfer fee provided for in division 17581 (G)(3) of this section shall be applicable to any conveyance of 17582 real property presented to the auditor on or after January 1, 17583 1968, regardless of its time of execution or delivery. 17584

The transfer fee for a used manufactured home or used mobile home shall be computed by and paid to the county auditor of the county in which the home is located immediately prior to the transfer.

Sec. 321.18. As soon as sufficient funds are in the county treasury to redeem the warrants drawn on the treasury, and on which interest is accruing, the county treasurer shall give notice in a newspaper ~~published in and circulating~~ of general circulation in ~~his~~ the county that ~~he~~ the treasurer is ready to redeem such warrants, and from the date of the notice the interest on such warrants shall cease.

Sec. 322.02. (A) For the purpose of paying the costs of enforcing and administering the tax and providing additional general revenue for the county, any county may levy and collect a tax to be known as the real property transfer tax on each deed conveying real property or any interest in real property located wholly or partially within the boundaries of the county at a rate not to exceed thirty cents per hundred dollars for each one hundred dollars or fraction thereof of the value of the real property or interest in real property located within the boundaries of the county granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed by the deed. The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners of the county and, except as provided in division (A) of section 322.07 of the Revised Code, shall be levied at a uniform rate upon all deeds as defined in division (D) of section 322.01 of the Revised Code. Prior to the adoption of any such resolution, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of the hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of 17616 the week for two consecutive weeks, ~~the~~ or as provided in section 17617 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second publication ~~being~~ shall be 17618 not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first 17619 hearing. The tax shall be levied upon the grantor named in the 17620 deed and shall be paid by the grantor for the use of the county to 17621 the county auditor at the time of the delivery of the deed as 17622 provided in section 319.202 of the Revised Code and prior to the 17623 presentation of the deed to the recorder of the county for 17624 recording. 17625

(B) No resolution levying a real property transfer tax 17626 pursuant to this section or a manufactured home transfer tax 17627 pursuant to section 322.06 of the Revised Code shall be effective 17628 sooner than thirty days following its adoption. Such a resolution 17629 is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 17630 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless the resolution is adopted as an 17631 emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the 17632 public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into 17633 immediate effect. An emergency measure must receive an affirmative 17634 vote of all of the members of the board of commissioners, and 17635 shall state the reasons for the necessity. A resolution may direct 17636 the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax 17637 to the electors of the county at the next primary or general 17638 election in the county occurring not less than ninety days after 17639 the resolution is certified to the board. No such resolution shall 17640 go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon 17641
it. 17642

Sec. 322.021. The question of a repeal of a county permissive 17643 tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to division (B) of 17644 section 322.02 of the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with 17645 the board of elections of the county not less than ninety days 17646 before the general election in any year a petition requesting that 17647 an election be held on such question. Such petition shall be 17648 signed by qualified electors residing in the county equal in 17649 number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most 17650 recent gubernatorial election. 17651

board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 17653
the county at the next general election. The election shall be 17654 conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular 17655 elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election 17656 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 17657 district once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 17658 election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 17659
Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 17660 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 17661
thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 17662 purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot 17663 cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of 17664 state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as 17665 a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 17666 with any other proposition submitted at the same election other 17667 than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified 17668 electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the 17669 result of the election shall be certified immediately after the 17670 canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 17671 commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease 17672
to levy the tax. 17673

Sec. 323.08. After certifying the tax list and duplicate 17674 pursuant to section 319.28 of the Revised Code, the county auditor 17675 shall deliver a list of the tax rates, tax reduction factors, and 17676 effective tax rates assessed and applied against each of the two 17677 classes of property of the county to the county treasurer, who 17678 shall immediately cause a schedule of such tax rates and effective 17679 rates to be published in a newspaper of ~~the type described in~~ 17680 ~~section 5721.01 of the Revised Code having~~ general circulation in 17681 the county or, in lieu of such publication, the county treasurer 17682 may insert a copy of such schedule with each tax bill mailed. Such 17683 schedule shall specify particularly the rates and effective rates 17684 of taxation levied for all purposes on the tax list and duplicate 17685 for the support of the various taxing units within the county, 17686 expressed in dollars and cents for each one thousand dollars of 17687 valuation. The effective tax rates shall be printed in boldface 17688 type. 17689

The county treasurer shall publish notice of the date of the 17690 last date for payment of each installment of taxes once a week for 17691 two successive weeks prior to such date in ~~two newspapers a~~ 17692 newspaper of general circulation within the county or as provided 17693 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. ~~If only one such newspaper~~ 17694 ~~exists, the notice shall be published in it.~~ The notice shall be 17695 inserted in a conspicuous place in ~~each~~ the newspaper and shall 17696 also contain notice that any taxes paid after such date will 17697 accrue a penalty and interest and that failure to receive a tax 17698 bill will not avoid such penalty and interest. The notice shall 17699 contain a telephone number that may be called by taxpayers who 17700 have not received tax bills. 17701

As used in this section and section 323.131 of the Revised 17702
Code, "effective tax rate" means the effective rate after making 17703 the reduction required by section 319.301, but before making the 17704 reduction required by section 319.302 of the Revised Code. 17705

Sec. 323.73. (A) Except as provided in division (G) of this 17706 section or section 323.78 of the Revised Code, a parcel of 17707 abandoned land that is to be disposed of under this section shall 17708 be disposed of at a public auction scheduled and conducted as 17709 described in this section. At least twenty-one days prior to the 17710 date of the public auction, the clerk of court or sheriff of the 17711 county shall advertise the public auction in a newspaper of 17712 general circulation that meets the requirements of section 7.12 of 17713 the Revised Code in the county in which the land is located. The 17714 advertisement shall include the date, time, and place of the 17715 auction, the permanent parcel number of the land if a permanent 17716 parcel number system is in effect in the county as provided in 17717 section 319.28 of the Revised Code or, if a permanent parcel 17718 number system is not in effect, any other means of identifying the 17719 parcel, and a notice stating that the abandoned land is to be sold 17720 subject to the terms of sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised 17721

Code. 17722

(B) The sheriff of the county or a designee of the sheriff 17723 shall conduct the public auction at which the abandoned land will 17724 be offered for sale. To qualify as a bidder, a person shall file 17725 with the sheriff on a form provided by the sheriff a written 17726 acknowledgment that the abandoned land being offered for sale is 17727 to be conveyed in fee simple to the successful bidder. At the 17728 auction, the sheriff of the county or a designee of the sheriff 17729 shall begin the bidding at an amount equal to the total of the 17730 impositions against the abandoned land, plus the costs apportioned 17731 to the land under section 323.75 of the Revised Code. The 17732 abandoned land shall be sold to the highest bidder. The county 17733 sheriff or designee may reject any and all bids not meeting the 17734 minimum bid requirements specified in this division. 17735

(C) Except as otherwise permitted under section 323.74 of the 17736 Revised Code, the successful bidder at a public auction conducted 17737 under this section shall pay the sheriff of the county or a 17738 designee of the sheriff a deposit of at least ten per cent of the 17739 purchase price in cash, or by bank draft or official bank check, 17740 at the time of the public auction, and shall pay the balance of 17741 the purchase price within thirty days after the day on which the 17742 auction was held. Notwithstanding section 321.261 of the Revised Code, with respect to any proceedings initiated pursuant to sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code, from the total proceeds arising from the sale, transfer, or redemption of abandoned land, twenty per cent of such proceeds shall be deposited to the credit of the delinquent tax and assessment collection fund to reimburse the fund for costs paid from the fund for the transfer, redemption, or sale of abandoned land at public auction. Not more than one-half of the twenty per cent may be used by the treasurer for community development, nuisance abatement, foreclosure prevention, demolition, and related services or distributed by the treasurer to a land reutilization corporation. The balance of the proceeds, if any, shall be distributed to the appropriate political subdivisions and other taxing units in proportion to their respective claims for taxes, assessments, interest, and penalties on the land. Upon the sale of foreclosed lands, the clerk of court shall hold any surplus proceeds in excess of the impositions until the clerk receives an order of priority and amount of distribution of the surplus that are adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or receives a certified copy of an agreement between the parties entitled to a share of the surplus providing for the priority and distribution of the surplus. Any party to the action claiming a right to distribution of surplus shall have a separate cause of action in the county or municipal court of the jurisdiction in which the land reposes, provided the board confirms the transfer or regularity of the sale. Any dispute over the distribution of the surplus shall not affect or revive the equity of redemption after the board confirms the transfer or sale.

(D) Upon the sale or transfer of abandoned land pursuant to this section, the owner's fee simple interest in the land shall be conveyed to the purchaser. A conveyance under this division is free and clear of any liens and encumbrances of the parties named in the complaint for foreclosure attaching before the sale or 17776 transfer, and free and clear of any liens for taxes, except for 17777 federal tax liens and covenants and easements of record attaching 17778 before the sale. 17779

(E) The county board of revision shall reject the sale of 17780 abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a preponderance of 17781 the evidence that the person is delinquent in the payment of taxes 17782 levied by or pursuant to Chapter 307., 322., 324., 5737., 5739., 17783 5741., or 5743. of the Revised Code or any real property taxing 17784 provision of the Revised Code. The board also shall reject the 17785 sale of abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a 17786 preponderance of the evidence that the person is delinquent in the 17787 payment of property taxes on any parcel in the county, or to a 17788 member of any of the following classes of parties connected to 17789 that person: 17790

(1) A member of that person's immediate family; 17791

(2) Any other person with a power of attorney appointed by 17792

(3) A sole proprietorship owned by that person or a member of 17794 that person's immediate family; 17795

(4) A partnership, trust, business trust, corporation, 17796 association, or other entity in which that person or a member of 17797 that person's immediate family owns or controls directly or 17798 indirectly any beneficial or legal interest. 17799

(F) If the purchase of abandoned land sold pursuant to this 17800 section or section 323.74 of the Revised Code is for less than the 17801 sum of the impositions against the abandoned land and the costs 17802 apportioned to the land under division (A) of section 323.75 of 17803 the Revised Code, then, upon the sale or transfer, all liens for 17804 taxes due at the time the deed of the property is conveyed to the 17805 purchaser following the sale or transfer, and liens subordinate to 17806 liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied and discharged. 17807

(G) If the county board of revision finds that the total of 17808 the impositions against the abandoned land are greater than the 17809 fair market value of the abandoned land as determined by the 17810 auditor's then-current valuation of that land, the board, at any 17811 final hearing under section 323.70 of the Revised Code, may order 17812 the property foreclosed and, without an appraisal or public 17813 auction, order the sheriff to execute a deed to the certificate 17814 holder or county land reutilization corporation that filed a 17815 complaint under section 323.69 of the Revised Code, or to a 17816 community development organization, school district, municipal 17817 corporation, county, or township, whichever is applicable, as 17818 provided in section 323.74 of the Revised Code. Upon a transfer 17819 under this division, all liens for taxes due at the time the deed 17820 of the property is transferred to the certificate holder, 17821
community development organization, school district, municipal 17822 corporation, county, or township following the conveyance, and 17823 liens subordinate to liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied 17824 and discharged. 17825

Sec. 323.78. Notwithstanding anything in Chapters 323., 17826 5721., and 5723. of the Revised Code, if the county treasurer of a 17827 county in which a county land reutilization operates, in any 17828 petition for foreclosure of abandoned lands, or for foreclosure as 17829 a result of unpaid community development charges as described in 17830 section 349.17 of the Revised Code, elects to invoke the 17831 alternative redemption period, then upon any adjudication of 17832 foreclosure by any court or the board of revision in any 17833 proceeding under section 323.25, sections 323.65 to 323.79, or 17834 section 5721.18 of the Revised Code, the following apply: 17835

(A) Unless otherwise ordered by a motion of the court or 17836 board of revision, the petition shall assert, and any notice of 17837 final hearing shall include, that upon foreclosure of the parcel, 17838 the equity of redemption in any parcel by its owner shall be 17839 forever terminated after the expiration of the alternative 17840 redemption period, that the parcel thereafter may be sold at 17841 sheriff's sale either by itself or together with other parcels as 17842 permitted by law; or that the parcel may, by order of the court or 17843 board of revision, be transferred directly to a municipal 17844 corporation, township, county, new community authority, school 17845 district, or county land reutilization corporation without 17846 appraisal and without a sale, free and clear of all impositions 17847 and any other liens on the property, which shall be deemed forever 17848 satisfied and discharged. 17849

(B) After the expiration of the alternative redemption period 17850 following an adjudication of foreclosure, by order of the court or 17851 board of revision, any equity of redemption is forever 17852 extinguished, and the parcel may be transferred individually or in 17853 lots with other tax-foreclosed properties to a municipal 17854 corporation, township, county, new community authority, school 17855
district, or county land reutilization corporation without 17856 appraisal and without a sale, upon which all impositions and any 17857 other liens subordinate to liens for impositions due at the time 17858 the deed to the property is conveyed to a purchaser or transferred 17859 to a community development organization, county land reutilization 17860 corporation, municipal corporation, county, new community 17861 authority, township, or school district, shall be deemed satisfied 17862 and discharged. Other than the order of the court or board of 17863 revision so ordering the transfer of the parcel, no further act of 17864 confirmation or other order shall be required for such a transfer, 17865 or for the extinguishment of any right of redemption. 17866

(C) Upon the expiration of the alternative redemption period 17867 in cases to which the alternative redemption period has been 17868 ordered, if no community development organization, county land 17869 reutilization corporation, municipal corporation, county, new 17870 community authority, township, or school district has requested 17871 title to the parcel, the court or board of revision may order the 17872 property sold as otherwise provided in Chapters 323. and 5721. of 17873 the Revised Code, and, failing any bid at any such sale, the 17874 parcel shall be forfeited to the state and otherwise disposed of 17875 pursuant to Chapter 5723. of the Revised Code. 17876

Sec. 324.02. For the purpose of providing additional general 17877 revenues for the county and paying the expense of administering 17878 such levy, any county may levy a county excise tax to be known as 17879 the utilities service tax on the charge for every utility service 17880 to customers within the county at a rate not to exceed two per 17881 cent of such charge. On utility service to customers engaged in 17882 business, the tax shall be imposed at a rate of one hundred fifty 17883 per cent of the rate imposed upon all other consumers within the 17884 county. The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution adopted 17885 by the board of county commissioners of the county and shall be 17886 levied at uniform rates required by this section upon all charges 17887 for utility service except as provided in section 324.03 of the 17888 Revised Code. The tax shall be levied upon the customer and shall 17889 be paid by the customer to the utility supplying the service at 17890 the time the customer pays the utility for the service. If the 17891 charge for utility service is billed to a person other than the 17892 customer at the request of such person, the tax commissioner of 17893 the state may, in accordance with section 324.04 of the Revised 17894 Code, provide for the levy of the tax against and the payment of 17895 the tax by such other person. Each utility furnishing a utility 17896 service the charge for which is subject to the tax shall set forth 17897 the tax as a separate item on each bill or statement rendered to 17898 the customer. 17899

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a utilities 17900 service tax the board of county commissioners shall conduct two 17901 public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than 17902 three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, 17903 time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in 17904 a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on 17905 the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks,~~the~~ or as 17906 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second 17907 publication ~~being~~ shall be not less than ten nor more than thirty 17908 days prior to the first hearing. No resolution levying a utilities 17909 service tax pursuant to this section of the Revised Code shall be 17910 effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption and such 17911 resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 17912 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless such resolution is 17913 adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate 17914 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case 17915 it shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency measure must 17916 receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of 17917 commissioners, and shall state the reasons for such necessity. A 17918 resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the 17919 question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the 17920 next primary or general election in the county occurring not less 17921 than ninety days after such resolution is certified to the board. 17922

No such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a 17923 majority of those voting upon it. The tax levied by such 17924 resolution shall apply to all bills rendered subsequent to the 17925 sixtieth day after the effective date of the resolution. No bills 17926 shall be rendered out of the ordinary course of business to avoid 17927 payment of the tax. 17928

Sec. 324.021. The question of repeal of a county permissive 17929 tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to section 324.02 of 17930 the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of 17931 elections of the county not less than ninety days before the 17932 general election in any year a petition requesting that an 17933 election be held on such question. Such petition shall be signed 17934 by qualified electors residing in the county equal in number to 17935 ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent 17936 gubernatorial election. 17937

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the 17938
board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 17939
the county at the next general election. The election shall be 17940 conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular 17941
elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election 17942 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 17943
district once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 17944
election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 17945
Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 17946
notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 17947
thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 17948 purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot 17949 cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of 17950
state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as 17951
a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 17952
with any other proposition submitted at the same election other 17953
than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified 17954 electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the 17955 result of the election shall be certified immediately after the 17956
canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 17957

Sec. 340.02. As used in this section, "mental health 17960 professional" means a person who is qualified to work with 17961 mentally ill persons, pursuant to standards established by the 17962 director of mental health under section 5119.611 of the Revised 17963
Code. 17964

For each alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service 17965 district, there shall be appointed a board of alcohol, drug 17966 addiction, and mental health services of eighteen members. Nine 17967 members shall be interested in mental health programs and 17968 facilities and nine other members shall be interested in alcohol 17969 or drug addiction programs. All members shall be residents of the 17970 service district. The membership shall, as nearly as possible, 17971 reflect the composition of the population of the service district 17972 as to race and sex. 17973

The director of mental health shall appoint four members of 17974 the board, the director of alcohol and drug addiction services 17975 shall appoint four members, and the board of county commissioners 17976 shall appoint ten members. In a joint-county district, the county 17977 commissioners of each participating county shall appoint members 17978 in as nearly as possible the same proportion as that county's 17979 population bears to the total population of the district, except 17980 that at least one member shall be appointed from each 17981 participating county. 17982

The director of mental health shall ensure that at least one 17983 member of the board is a psychiatrist and one member of the board 17984 is a mental health professional. If the appointment of a 17985 psychiatrist is not possible, as determined under rules adopted by 17986 the director, a licensed physician may be appointed in place of 17987 the psychiatrist. If the appointment of a licensed physician is 17988 not possible, the director of mental health may waive the 17989 requirement that the psychiatrist or licensed physician be a 17990 resident of the service district and appoint a psychiatrist or 17991 licensed physician from a contiguous county. The director of 17992 mental health shall ensure that at least one member of the board 17993 is a person who has received or is receiving mental health 17994 services paid for by public funds and at least one member is a 17995 parent or other relative of such a person. 17996

The director of alcohol and drug addiction services shall 17997 ensure that at least one member of the board is a professional in 17998 the field of alcohol or drug addiction services and one member of 17999 the board is an advocate for persons receiving treatment for 18000 alcohol or drug addiction. Of the members appointed by the 18001 director of alcohol and drug addiction services, at least one 18002 shall be a person who has received or is receiving services for 18003 alcohol or drug addiction, and at least one shall be a parent or 18004 other relative of such a person. 18005

~~No member or employee of a board of alcohol, drug addiction,~~ 18006
~~and mental health services shall serve as a member of the board of~~ 18007
~~any agency with which the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and~~ 18008
~~mental health services has entered into a contract for the~~ 18009 ~~provision of services or facilities. No member of a board of~~ 18010 ~~alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services shall be an~~ 18011
~~employee of any agency with which the board has entered into a~~ 18012
~~contract for the provision of services or facilities. No person~~ 18013
~~shall be an employee of a board and such an agency unless the~~ 18014 ~~board and agency both agree in writing.~~ 18015

~~No person shall serve as a member of the board of alcohol,~~ 18016
~~drug addiction, and mental health services whose spouse, child,~~ 18017 ~~parent, brother, sister, grandchild, stepparent, stepchild,~~ 18018
~~stepbrother, stepsister, father in law, mother in law, son in law,~~ 18019
~~daughter in law, brother in law, or sister in law serves as a~~ 18020
~~member of the board of any agency with which the board of alcohol,~~ 18021 ~~drug addiction, and mental health services has entered into a~~ 18022
~~contract for the provision of services or facilities. No person~~ 18023 shall serve as a member or employee of the board whose spouse, 18024 child, parent, brother, sister, stepparent, stepchild, 18025 stepbrother, stepsister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, 18026 daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law serves as a 18027 county commissioner of a county or counties in the alcohol, drug 18028 addiction, and mental health service district. 18029

Each year each board member shall attend at least one 18030 inservice training session provided or approved by the department 18031 of mental health or the department of alcohol and drug addiction 18032 services. Such training sessions shall not be considered to be 18033 regularly scheduled meetings of the board. 18034

Each member shall be appointed for a term of four years, 18035 commencing the first day of July, except that one-third of initial 18036 appointments to a newly established board, and to the extent 18037 possible to expanded boards, shall be for terms of two years, 18038 one-third of initial appointments shall be for terms of three 18039 years, and one-third of initial appointments shall be for terms of 18040 four years. No member shall serve more than two consecutive 18041 four-year terms. A member may serve for three consecutive terms 18042 only if one of the terms is for less than two years. A member who 18043 has served two consecutive four-year terms or three consecutive 18044 terms totaling less than ten years is eligible for reappointment 18045 one year following the end of the second or third term, 18046 respectively. 18047

When a vacancy occurs, appointment for the expired or 18048 unexpired term shall be made in the same manner as an original 18049 appointment. The appointing authority shall be notified by 18050 certified mail of any vacancy and shall fill the vacancy within 18051 sixty days following that notice. 18052

Any member of the board may be removed from office by the 18053 appointing authority for neglect of duty, misconduct, or 18054 malfeasance in office, and shall be removed by the appointing 18055 authority if the member's spouse, child, parent, brother, sister, 18056 stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister, father-in-law, 18057 mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or 18058 sister-in-law serves as a county commissioner of a county or 18059 counties in the service district ~~or serves as a member or employee~~ 18060

~~of the board of an agency with which the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services has entered a contract for the provision of services or facilities.~~ The member shall be informed in writing of the charges and afforded an opportunity for a hearing. Upon the absence of a member within one year from either four board meetings or from two board meetings without prior notice, the board shall notify the appointing authority, which may vacate the appointment and appoint another person to complete the member's term.

Members of the board shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, as defined by rules of the departments of mental health and alcohol and drug addiction services.

Sec. 340.03. (A) Subject to rules issued by the director of mental health after consultation with relevant constituencies as required by division ~~(A)(11)~~(L) of section 5119.06 of the Revised Code, with regard to mental health services, the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services shall:

(1) Serve as the community mental health planning agency for the county or counties under its jurisdiction, and in so doing it shall:

(a) Evaluate the need for facilities and community mental health services;

(b) In cooperation with other local and regional planning and funding bodies and with relevant ethnic organizations, assess the community mental health needs, set priorities, and develop plans for the operation of facilities and community mental health services;

(c) In accordance with guidelines issued by the director of mental health after consultation with board representatives, 18091 annually develop and submit to the department of mental health, ~~no~~ 18092 ~~later than six months prior to the conclusion of the fiscal year~~ 18093

~~in which the board's current plan is scheduled to expire,~~ a 18094 community mental health plan listing community mental health 18095 needs, including the needs of all residents of the district now 18096 residing in state mental institutions and severely mentally 18097 disabled adults, children, and adolescents; all children subject 18098 to a determination made pursuant to section 121.38 of the Revised 18099 Code; and all the facilities and community mental health services 18100 that are or will be in operation or provided during the period for 18101 which the plan will be in operation in the service district to 18102 meet such needs. 18103

The plan shall include, but not be limited to, a statement of 18104 which of the services listed in section 340.09 of the Revised Code 18105 the board intends to make available. The board must include crisis 18106 intervention services for individuals in an emergency situation in 18107 the plan and explain how the board intends to make such services 18108 available. The plan must also include ~~an explanation of how the~~ 18109 ~~board intends to make any payments that it may be required to pay~~ 18110 ~~under section 5119.62 of the Revised Code,~~ a statement of the 18111 inpatient and community-based services the board proposes that the 18112 department operate, an assessment of the number and types of 18113 residential facilities needed, such other information as the 18114 department requests, and a budget for moneys the board expects to 18115 receive. ~~The board shall also submit an allocation request for~~ 18116 ~~state and federal funds. Within sixty days after the department's~~ 18117 ~~determination that the plan and allocation request are complete,~~ 18118
~~the~~ department shall approve or disapprove the plan ~~and request,~~ 18119 in whole or in part, according to the criteria developed pursuant 18120 to section 5119.61 of the Revised Code. The department's statement 18121 of approval or disapproval shall specify the inpatient and the 18122 community-based services that the department will operate for the 18123 board. Eligibility for state and federal funding shall be 18124 contingent upon an approved plan or relevant part of a plan. 18125

~~If the director disapproves all or part of any plan, the 18126 director shall inform the board of the reasons for the disapproval 18127 and of the criteria that must be met before the plan may be 18128 approved. The director shall provide the board an opportunity to 18129 present its case on behalf of the plan. The director shall give 18130 the board a reasonable time in which to meet the criteria, and 18131 shall offer the board technical assistance to help it meet the 18132 criteria. 18133~~

~~If the approval of a plan remains in dispute thirty days 18134 prior to the conclusion of the fiscal year in which the board's 18135 current plan is scheduled to expire, the board or the director may 18136 request that the dispute be submitted to a mutually agreed upon 18137 third party mediator with the cost to be shared by the board and 18138 the department. The mediator shall issue to the board and the 18139 department recommendations for resolution of the dispute. Prior to 18140 the conclusion of the fiscal year in which the current plan is 18141 scheduled to expire, the director, taking into consideration the 18142 recommendations of the mediator, shall make a final determination 18143 and approve or disapprove the plan, in whole or in part. 18144~~

If a board determines that it is necessary to amend a plan or 18145 an allocation request that has been approved under division 18146 (A)(1)(c) of this section, the board shall submit a proposed 18147 amendment to the director. The director may approve or disapprove 18148 all or part of the amendment. ~~If the director does not approve all 18149 or part of the amendment within thirty days after it is submitted, 18150 the amendment or part of it shall be considered to have been 18151 approved. The director shall inform the board of the reasons for 18152 disapproval of all or part of an amendment and of the criteria 18153 that must be met before the amendment may be approved. The 18154 director shall provide the board an opportunity to present its 18155~~ case on behalf of the amendment. The director shall give the board 18156 a reasonable time in which to meet the criteria, and shall offer 18157 the board technical assistance to help it meet the criteria. 18158

The board shall implement the plan approved by the 18159
department. 18160

~~(d) Receive, compile, and transmit to the department of 18161 mental health applications for state reimbursement; 18162~~

~~(e) Promote, arrange, and implement working agreements with 18163 social agencies, both public and private, and with judicial 18164
agencies. 18165~~

(2) Investigate, or request another agency to investigate, 18166 any complaint alleging abuse or neglect of any person receiving 18167 services from a community mental health agency as defined in 18168 section 5122.01 of the Revised Code, or from a residential 18169 facility licensed under section 5119.22 of the Revised Code. If 18170 the investigation substantiates the charge of abuse or neglect, 18171 the board shall take whatever action it determines is necessary to 18172 correct the situation, including notification of the appropriate 18173 authorities. Upon request, the board shall provide information 18174 about such investigations to the department. 18175

(3) For the purpose of section 5119.611 of the Revised Code, 18176 cooperate with the director of mental health in visiting and 18177 evaluating whether the services of a community mental health 18178 agency satisfy the certification standards established by rules 18179 adopted under that section; 18180

(4) In accordance with criteria established under division 18181
~~(G)~~(E) of section 5119.61 of the Revised Code, review and evaluate 18182 the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of services provided 18183 through its community mental health plan and submit its findings 18184 and recommendations to the department of mental health; 18185

(5) In accordance with section 5119.22 of the Revised Code, 18186 review applications for residential facility licenses and 18187 recommend to the department of mental health approval or 18188 disapproval of applications; 18189

(6) Audit, in accordance with rules adopted by the auditor of 18190 state pursuant to section 117.20 of the Revised Code, at least 18191 annually all programs and services provided under contract with 18192 the board. In so doing, the board may contract for or employ the 18193 services of private auditors. A copy of the fiscal audit report 18194 shall be provided to the director of mental health, the auditor of 18195 state, and the county auditor of each county in the board's 18196
district. 18197

(7) Recruit and promote local financial support for mental 18198 health programs from private and public sources; 18199

(8)(a) Enter into contracts with public and private 18200 facilities for the operation of facility services included in the 18201 board's community mental health plan and enter into contracts with 18202 public and private community mental health agencies for the 18203 provision of community mental health services that are listed in 18204 section 340.09 of the Revised Code and included in the board's 18205 community mental health plan. The board may not contract with a 18206 community mental health agency to provide community mental health 18207 services included in the board's community mental health plan 18208 unless the services are certified by the director of mental health 18209 under section 5119.611 of the Revised Code. Section 307.86 of the 18210 Revised Code does not apply to contracts entered into under this 18211 division. In contracting with a community mental health agency, a 18212 board shall consider the cost effectiveness of services provided 18213 by that agency and the quality and continuity of care, and may 18214 review cost elements, including salary costs, of the services to 18215 be provided. A utilization review process shall be established as 18216 part of the contract for services entered into between a board and 18217 a community mental health agency. The board may establish this 18218 process in a way that is most effective and efficient in meeting 18219 local needs. ~~In the case of~~ Until July 1, 2012, a contract with a 18220 community mental health agency or facility, as defined in section 18221 5111.023 of the Revised Code, to provide services listed in 18222 division (B) of that section, ~~the contract~~ shall provide for the 18223 agency or facility to be paid in accordance with the contract 18224 entered into between the departments of job and family services 18225 and mental health under section 5111.91 of the Revised Code and 18226 any rules adopted under division (A) of section 5119.61 of the 18227

Revised Code. 18228

If either the board or a facility or community mental health 18229 agency with which the board contracts under division (A)(8)(a) of 18230 this section proposes not to renew the contract or proposes 18231 substantial changes in contract terms, the other party shall be 18232 given written notice at least one hundred twenty days before the 18233 expiration date of the contract. During the first sixty days of 18234 this one hundred twenty-day period, both parties shall attempt to 18235 resolve any dispute through good faith collaboration and 18236 negotiation in order to continue to provide services to persons in 18237 need. If the dispute has not been resolved sixty days before the 18238 expiration date of the contract, either party may ~~notify the~~ 18239 ~~department of mental health of the unresolved dispute. The~~ 18240 ~~director may require~~ request that both parties ~~to~~ submit the 18241 dispute to a third party with the cost to be shared by the board 18242 and the facility or community mental health agency. The third 18243 party shall issue to the board, ~~the~~ and facility or agency, ~~and~~ 18244
~~the department~~ recommendations on how the dispute may be resolved 18245 twenty days prior to the expiration date of the contract, unless 18246 both parties agree to a time extension. ~~The director shall adopt~~ 18247 ~~rules establishing the procedures of this dispute resolution~~ 18248 ~~process.~~ 18249

(b) With the prior approval of the director of mental health, 18250

a board may operate a facility or provide a community mental health service as follows, if there is no other qualified private or public facility or community mental health agency that is immediately available and willing to operate such a facility or provide the service:

(ii) In a service district with a population of at least one hundred thousand but less than five hundred thousand, a board may operate a facility or provide a community mental health service for no longer than one year;

The director shall not give a board approval to operate a facility or provide a community mental health service under division (A)(8)(b)(ii) or (iii) of this section unless the director determines that it is not feasible to have the department operate the facility or provide the service.

The director shall not give a board approval to operate a facility or provide a community mental health service under division (A)(8)(b)(iii) of this section unless the director determines that the board will provide greater administrative efficiency and more or better services than would be available if the board contracted with a private or public facility or community mental health agency. 18282

The director shall not give a board approval to operate a 18283 facility previously operated by a person or other government 18284 entity unless the board has established to the director's 18285 satisfaction that the person or other government entity cannot 18286 effectively operate the facility or that the person or other 18287 government entity has requested the board to take over operation 18288 of the facility. The director shall not give a board approval to 18289 provide a community mental health service previously provided by a 18290 community mental health agency unless the board has established to 18291 the director's satisfaction that the agency cannot effectively 18292 provide the service or that the agency has requested the board 18293 take over providing the service. 18294

The director shall review and evaluate a board's operation of 18295 a facility and provision of community mental health service under 18296 division (A)(8)(b) of this section. 18297

Nothing in division (A)(8)(b) of this section authorizes a 18298 board to administer or direct the daily operation of any facility 18299 or community mental health agency, but a facility or agency may 18300 contract with a board to receive administrative services or staff 18301 direction from the board under the direction of the governing body 18302 of the facility or agency. 18303

(9) Approve fee schedules and related charges or adopt a unit 18304 cost schedule or other methods of payment for contract services 18305 provided by community mental health agencies in accordance with 18306 guidelines issued by the department as necessary to comply with 18307 state and federal laws pertaining to financial assistance; 18308

(10) Submit to the director and the county commissioners of 18309 the county or counties served by the board, and make available to 18310 the public, an annual report of the programs under the 18311 jurisdiction of the board, including a fiscal accounting; 18312

(11) Establish, to the extent resources are available, a community support system, which provides for treatment, support, and rehabilitation services and opportunities. The essential elements of the system include, but are not limited to, the following components in accordance with section 5119.06 of the Revised Code:

(a) To locate persons in need of mental health services to inform them of available services and benefits mechanisms;

(b) Assistance for clients to obtain services necessary to meet basic human needs for food, clothing, shelter, medical care, personal safety, and income;

(c) Mental health care, including, but not limited to, outpatient, partial hospitalization, and, where appropriate, inpatient care;

(d) Emergency services and crisis intervention;

(e) Assistance for clients to obtain vocational services and opportunities for jobs;

(f) The provision of services designed to develop social, community, and personal living skills;

(g) Access to a wide range of housing and the provision of residential treatment and support;

(h) Support, assistance, consultation, and education for families, friends, consumers of mental health services, and others;

(i) Recognition and encouragement of families, friends, neighborhood networks, especially networks that include racial and ethnic minorities, churches, community organizations, and meaningful employment as natural supports for consumers of mental health services;

(j) Grievance procedures and protection of the rights of consumers of mental health services; 18343

(k) Case management, which includes continual individualized 18344 assistance and advocacy to ensure that needed services are offered 18345 and procured. 18346

(12) Designate the treatment program, agency, or facility for 18347 each person involuntarily committed to the board pursuant to 18348 Chapter 5122. of the Revised Code and authorize payment for such 18349 treatment. The board shall provide the least restrictive and most 18350 appropriate alternative that is available for any person 18351 involuntarily committed to it and shall assure that the services 18352 listed in section 340.09 of the Revised Code are available to 18353 severely mentally disabled persons residing within its service 18354 district. The board shall establish the procedure for authorizing 18355 payment for services, which may include prior authorization in 18356 appropriate circumstances. The board may provide for services 18357 directly to a severely mentally disabled person when life or 18358 safety is endangered and when no community mental health agency is 18359 available to provide the service. 18360

(13) Establish a method for evaluating referrals for 18361 involuntary commitment and affidavits filed pursuant to section 18362 5122.11 of the Revised Code in order to assist the probate 18363 division of the court of common pleas in determining whether there 18364 is probable cause that a respondent is subject to involuntary 18365 hospitalization and what alternative treatment is available and 18366 appropriate, if any; 18367

(14) Ensure that apartments or rooms built, subsidized, 18368 renovated, rented, owned, or leased by the board or a community 18369 mental health agency have been approved as meeting minimum fire 18370 safety standards and that persons residing in the rooms or 18371 apartments are receiving appropriate and necessary services, 18372 including culturally relevant services, from a community mental 18373 health agency. This division does not apply to residential 18374 facilities licensed pursuant to section 5119.22 of the Revised Code.	18375 18376

(15) Establish a mechanism for involvement of consumer recommendation and advice on matters pertaining to mental health services in the alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health service district;	18377 18378 18379 18380
(D) No board member or employee of a board of alcohol, drug	18405 addiction, and mental health services shall be liable for injury 18406 or damages caused by any action or inaction taken within the scope 18407 of the board member's official duties or the employee's 18408 employment, whether or not such action or inaction is expressly 18409 authorized by this section, section 340.033, or any other section 18410 of the Revised Code, unless such action or inaction constitutes 18411 willful or wanton misconduct. Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code 18412 applies to any action or inaction by a board member or employee of 18413 a board taken within the scope of the board member's official 18414 duties or employee's employment. For the purposes of this 18415 division, the conduct of a board member or employee shall not be 18416 considered willful or wanton misconduct if the board member or 18417 employee acted in good faith and in a manner that the board member 18418 or employee reasonably believed was in or was not opposed to the 18419 best interests of the board and, with respect to any criminal 18420 action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the 18421 conduct was unlawful. 18422

(E) The meetings held by any committee established by a board 18423 of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services shall be 18424 considered to be meetings of a public body subject to section 18425
121.22 of the Revised Code. 18426

Sec. 340.05. A community mental health agency that receives a 18427 complaint under section ~~3722.17~~ 5119.87 of the Revised Code 18428 alleging abuse or neglect of an individual with mental illness or 18429 severe mental disability who resides in an adult care facility 18430 shall report the complaint to the board of alcohol, drug 18431 addiction, and mental health services serving the alcohol, drug 18432 addiction, and mental health service district in which the adult 18433 care facility is located. A board of alcohol, drug addiction, and 18434 mental health services that receives such a complaint or a report 18435 from a community mental health agency of such a complaint shall 18436 report the complaint to the director of mental health for the 18437 purpose of the director conducting an investigation under section 18438 ~~3722.17~~ 5119.87 of the Revised Code. The board may enter the adult 18439 care facility with or without the director and, if the health and 18440 safety of a resident is in immediate danger, take any necessary 18441 action to protect the resident. The board's action shall not 18442 violate any resident's rights under section ~~3722.12~~ 5119.81 of the 18443 Revised Code and rules adopted by the ~~public health council~~ 18444 department of mental health under ~~that chapter~~ sections 5119.70 to 18445 5119.88 of the Revised Code. The board shall immediately report to 18446 the director regarding the board's actions under this section. 18447

Sec. 340.091. Each board of alcohol, drug addiction, and 18448 mental health services shall contract with a community mental 18449 health agency under division (A)(8)(a) of section 340.03 of the 18450 Revised Code for the agency to do all of the following in 18451 accordance with rules adopted under section 5119.61 of the Revised 18452 Code for an individual referred to the agency under division 18453
(C)(2) of section ~~173.35~~ 5119.69 of the Revised Code: 18454

(A) Assess the individual to determine whether to recommend 18455 that a ~~PASSPORT~~ residential state supplement administrative agency 18456 designated under section 5119.69 of the Revised Code determine 18457 that the environment in which the individual will be living while 18458 receiving residential state supplement payments is appropriate for 18459 the individual's needs and, if it determines the environment is 18460 appropriate, issue the recommendation to the ~~PASSPORT~~ residential 18461 state supplement administrative agency; 18462

(B) Provide ongoing monitoring to ensure that services 18463 provided under section 340.09 of the Revised Code are available to 18464 the individual; 18465

(C) Provide discharge planning to ensure the individual's 18466 earliest possible transition to a less restrictive environment. 18467

Sec. 340.11. ~~(A)~~ A board of alcohol, drug addiction, and 18468 mental health services may procure a policy or policies of 18469 insurance insuring board members or employees of the board or 18470 agencies with which the board contracts against liability arising 18471 from the performance of their official duties. If the liability 18472 insurance is unavailable or the amount a board has procured or is 18473 able to procure is insufficient to cover the amount of a claim, 18474 the board may indemnify a board member or employee as follows: 18475

~~(1)(A)~~ For any action or inaction in ~~his~~ the capacity ~~as a~~ of 18476 board member or employee or at the request of the board, whether 18477 or not the action or inaction is expressly authorized by this or 18478 any other section of the Revised Code, if: 18479

~~(a)(1)~~ The board member or employee acted in good faith and 18480 in a manner that ~~he~~ the board member or employee reasonably 18481 believed was in or was not opposed to the best interests of the 18482 board; and 18483

~~(b)(2)~~ With respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the 18484 board member or employee had no reason to believe ~~his~~ the board 18485 member's or employee's conduct was unlawful. 18486

~~(2)(B)~~ Against any expenses, including attorneys' fees, the 18487 board member or employee actually and reasonably incurs as a 18488 result of a suit or other proceeding involving the defense of any 18489 action or inaction in ~~his~~ the capacity ~~as a~~ of board member or 18490 employee or at the request of the board, or in defense of any 18491 claim, issue, or matter raised in connection with the defense of 18492 such an action or inaction, to the extent that the board member or 18493 employee is successful on the merits or otherwise. 18494

~~(B)~~ ~~The board may utilize up to that per cent of its budget~~ 18495
~~as approved by the department of mental health to purchase~~ 18496 ~~insurance and to pool with funds of other boards of alcohol, drug~~ 18497 ~~addiction, and mental health services, as provided in division (E)~~ 18498

~~of section 5119.62 of the Revised Code, to pay expenditures for 18499 utilization of state hospital facilities that exceed the amount 18500 allocated to the board under the formula developed under that 18501
section. 18502~~

Sec. 341.192. (A) As used in this section: 18503

(1) "Jail" means a county jail, or a multicounty, 18504 municipal-county, or multicounty-municipal correctional center. 18505

(2) "Medical assistance program" has the same meaning as in 18506
section 2913.40 of the Revised Code. 18507

~~(2)~~(3) "Medical provider" means a physician, hospital, 18508 laboratory, pharmacy, or other health care provider that is not 18509 employed by or under contract to a county, municipal corporation, 18510 township, the department of youth services, or the department of 18511 rehabilitation and correction to provide medical services to 18512 persons confined in ~~the county~~ a jail or a state correctional 18513 institution, or is in the custody of a law enforcement officer. 18514

~~(3)~~(4) "Necessary care" means medical care of a nonelective 18515 nature that cannot be postponed until after the period of 18516 confinement of a person who is confined in a ~~county~~ jail or a 18517 state correctional institution, or is in the custody of a law 18518 enforcement officer without endangering the life or health of the 18519
person. 18520

(B) If a physician employed by or under contract to a county, 18521 municipal corporation, township, the department of youth services, 18522 or the department of rehabilitation and correction to provide 18523 medical services to persons confined in ~~the county~~ a jail or state 18524 correctional institution determines that a person who is confined 18525 in the ~~county~~ jail or a state correctional institution or who is 18526 in the custody of a law enforcement officer prior to the person's 18527 confinement in ~~the county~~ a jail or a state correctional 18528 institution requires necessary care that the physician cannot 18529 provide, the necessary care shall be provided by a medical 18530 provider. The county, municipal corporation, township, the 18531 department of youth services, or the department of rehabilitation 18532 and correction shall pay a medical provider for necessary care an 18533 amount not exceeding the authorized reimbursement rate for the 18534 same service established by the department of job and family 18535 services under the medical assistance program. 18536

Sec. 343.08. (A) The board of county commissioners of a 18537 county solid waste management district and the board of directors 18538 of a joint solid waste management district may fix reasonable 18539 rates or charges to be paid by every person, municipal 18540 corporation, township, or other political subdivision that owns 18541 premises to which solid waste collection, storage, transfer, 18542 disposal, recycling, processing, or resource recovery service is 18543 provided by the district and may change the rates or charges 18544 whenever it considers it advisable. Charges for collection, 18545 storage, transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or resource 18546 recovery service shall be made only against lots or parcels that 18547 are improved, or in the process of being improved, with at least 18548 one permanent, portable, or temporary building. The rates or 18549 charges may be collected by either of the following means: 18550

(1) Periodic billings made by the district directly or in 18551 conjunction with billings for public utility rates or charges by a 18552 county water district established under section 6103.02 of the 18553 Revised Code, a county sewer district established under section 18554 6117.02 of the Revised Code, or a municipal corporation or other 18555 political subdivision authorized by law to provide public utility 18556 service. When any such charges that are so billed are not paid, 18557 the board shall certify them to the county auditor of the county 18558 where the lots or parcels are located, who shall place them upon 18559 the real property duplicate against the property served by the 18560 collection, storage, transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or 18561 resource recovery service. The charges shall be a lien on the 18562 property from the date they are placed upon the real property 18563 duplicate by the auditor and shall be collected in the same manner 18564 as other taxes. 18565

(2) Certifying the rates or charges to the county auditor of 18566 the county where the lots or parcels are located, who shall place 18567 them on the real property duplicate against the lots or parcels. 18568
The rates or charges are a lien on the property from the date they 18569 are placed upon the real property duplicate by the auditor and 18570 shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes. 18571

The county or joint district need not fix a rate or charge 18572 against property if the district does not operate a collection 18573 system. 18574

Where a county or joint district owns or operates a solid 18575 waste facility, either without a collection system or in 18576 conjunction therewith, the board of county commissioners or board 18577 of directors may fix reasonable rates or charges for the use of 18578 the facility by persons, municipal corporations, townships, and 18579 other political subdivisions, may contract with any public 18580 authority or person for the collection of solid wastes in any part 18581 of any district for collection, storage, disposal, transfer, 18582 recycling, processing, or resource recovery in any solid waste 18583 facility, or may lease the facility to any public authority or 18584 person. The cost of collection, storage, transfer, disposal, 18585 recycling, processing, or resource recovery under such contracts 18586 may be paid by rates or charges fixed and collected under this 18587 section or by rates and charges fixed under those contracts and 18588 collected by the contractors. 18589

All moneys collected by or on behalf of a county or joint 18590 district as rates or charges for solid waste collection, storage, 18591 transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or resource recovery 18592 service in any district shall be paid to the county treasurer in a 18593 county district or to the county treasurer or other official 18594 designated by the board of directors in a joint district and kept 18595 in a separate and distinct fund to the credit of the district. The 18596 fund shall be used for the payment of the cost of the management, 18597 maintenance, and operation of the solid waste collection or other 18598 solid waste facilities of the district and, if applicable, the 18599 payment of the cost of collecting the rates or charges of the 18600 district pursuant to division (A)(1) or (2) of this section. Prior 18601 to the approval of the district's initial solid waste management 18602 plan under section 3734.55 of the Revised Code or the issuance of 18603 an order under that section requiring the district to implement an 18604 initial plan prepared by the director, as appropriate, the fund 18605 also may be used for the purposes of division (G)(1) or (3) of 18606 section 3734.57 of the Revised Code. On and after the approval of 18607 the district's initial plan under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of 18608 the Revised Code or the issuance of an order under either of those 18609 sections, as appropriate, requiring the district to implement an 18610 initial plan prepared by the director, the fund also may be used 18611 for the purposes of divisions (G)(1) to (10) of section 3734.57 of 18612 the Revised Code. Those uses may include, in accordance with a 18613 cost allocation plan adopted under division (B) of this section, 18614 the payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the 18615 district, the sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering 18616 department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for the 18617 purposes of this chapter and sections 3734.52 to 3734.572 of the 18618 Revised Code. Any surplus remaining after those uses of the fund 18619 may be used for the enlargement, modification, or replacement of 18620 such facilities and for the payment of the interest and principal 18621 on bonds and bond anticipation notes issued pursuant to section 18622 343.07 of the Revised Code. In no case shall money so collected be 18623 expended otherwise than for the use and benefit of the district. 18624

A board of county commissioners or directors, instead of 18625 operating and maintaining solid waste collection or other solid 18626 waste facilities of the district with county or joint district 18627 personnel, may enter into a contract with a municipal corporation 18628 having territory within the district pursuant to which the 18629 operation and maintenance of the facilities will be performed by 18630 the municipal corporation. 18631

The products of any solid waste collection or other solid 18632 waste facility owned under this chapter shall be sold through 18633 competitive bidding in accordance with section 307.12 of the 18634 Revised Code, except when a board of county commissioners or 18635 directors determines by resolution that it is in the public 18636 interest to sell those products in a commercially reasonable 18637 manner without competitive bidding. 18638

(B) A board of county commissioners or directors may adopt a 18639 cost allocation plan that identifies, accumulates, and distributes 18640 allowable direct and indirect costs that may be paid from the fund 18641 of the district created in division (A) of this section and 18642 prescribes methods for allocating those costs. The plan shall 18643 authorize payment from the fund for only those costs incurred by 18644 the district, the sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering 18645 department, or a federal or state grant program, and those costs 18646 incurred by the general and other funds of the county for a common 18647 or joint purpose, that are necessary and reasonable for the proper 18648 and efficient administration of the district under this chapter 18649 conditions, public services provision, financial plan, and the 18908 developer's management capability; 18909

(8) A statement that the development will comply with all applicable environmental laws and regulations.

Upon the filing of such petition, the organizational board of commissioners shall determine whether such petition complies with the requirements of this section as to form and substance. The board in subsequent proceedings may at any time permit the petition to be amended in form and substance to conform to the facts by correcting any errors in the description of the proposed new community district or in any other particular.

Upon the determination of the organizational board of commissioners that a sufficient petition has been filed in accordance with this section, the board shall fix the time and place of a hearing on the petition for the establishment of the proposed new community authority. Such ~~hearing shall be held not less than ninety five nor more than one hundred fifteen days after the petition filing date, except that if the petition has been signed by all proximate cities,~~ such hearing shall be held not less than thirty nor more than forty-five days after the petition filing date. The clerk of the organizational board of ~~county~~ commissioners with which the petition was filed shall give notice thereof by publication once each week for three consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in a newspaper of general circulation in any county of which a portion is within the proposed new community district. Such clerk shall also give written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing and furnish a certified copy of the petition to the clerk of the legislative authority of each proximate city which has not signed such petition. In the event that the legislative authority of a proximate city which did not sign the petition ~~does not approve~~ disapproves by ordinance, resolution, or motion the establishment of the proposed new community authority and ~~does not deliver~~ delivers such ordinance, resolution, or motion to the clerk of the organizational board of ~~county~~ commissioners with which the 18942 petition was filed within ~~ninety~~ twenty-eight days following the 18943 date of the ~~first publication of the~~ notice delivered to the clerk 18944 of the ~~public hearing~~ legislative authority of the proximate city, 18945 the organizational board of commissioners shall cancel such public 18946 hearing and terminate the proceedings for the establishment of the 18947 new community authority. Any disapproval by the proximate city 18948 must be for good cause shown that the proposed new community 18949 district will not be conducive to the public health, safety, 18950 convenience, and welfare, and is not intended to result in the 18951 development of a new community. 18952

Upon the hearing, if the organizational board of 18953 commissioners determines by resolution that the proposed new 18954 community district will be conducive to the public health, safety, 18955 convenience, and welfare, and is intended to result in the 18956 development of a new community, and if at least twenty-eight days 18957 have elapsed following the date of the notice delivered to the 18958 clerk of the legislative authority of each proximate city that has 18959 not signed the petition and no disapproval of a proximate city for 18960 good cause shown has been received by the clerk of the 18961 organizational board of commissioners, the board shall by its 18962 resolution, entered of record in its journal ~~and the journal of~~ 18963
~~the board of county commissioners with which the petition was~~ 18964 ~~filed,~~ declare the new community authority to be organized and a 18965 body politic and corporate with the corporate name designated in 18966 the resolution, and define the boundary of the new community 18967 district. In addition, the resolution shall provide the method of 18968 selecting the board of trustees of the new community authority and 18969 fix the surety for their bonds in accordance with section 349.04 18970

If the organizational board of commissioners finds that the 18972 establishment of the district will not be conducive to the public 18973 health, safety, convenience, or welfare, or is not intended to 18974 result in the development of a new community, or if the clerk of 18975 the organizational board of commissioners has received a 18976 disapproval for good cause shown from a proximate city, it shall 18977 reject the petition thereby terminating the proceedings for the 18978 establishment of the new community authority. 18979

(B) At any time after the creation of a new community 18980 authority, the developer may file an application with the ~~clerk of~~ 18981
~~the organizational~~ board of ~~county~~ commissioners ~~of the county in~~ 18982 with which the original petition was filed, setting forth a 18983 general description of territory it desires to add or to delete 18984 from such district, that such change will be conducive to the 18985 public health, safety, convenience, and welfare, and will be 18986 consistent with the development of a new community and will not 18987 jeopardize the plan of the new community. If the developer is not 18988 a municipal corporation, port authority, or county, all of such an 18989 addition to such a district shall be owned by, or under the 18990 control through leases of at least ~~seventy-five~~ forty years' 18991 duration, options, or contracts to purchase, of the developer. ~~In~~ 18992
~~the case of a new community authority established on or after the~~ 18993 ~~effective date of this amendment and before January 1, 2012, such~~ 18994 ~~leases may be of not less than forty years' duration.~~ Upon the 18995 filing of the application, the organizational board of 18996 commissioners shall follow the same procedure as required by this 18997 section in relation to the petition for the establishment of the 18998 proposed new community. 18999

(C) If all or any part of the new community district is 19000 annexed to one or more existing municipal corporations, their 19001 legislative authorities may appoint persons to replace any 19002 appointed citizen member of the board of trustees. The number of 19003 such trustees to be replaced by the municipal corporation shall be 19004 the number, rounded to the lowest integer, bearing the 19005 proportionate relationship to the number of existing appointed 19006 citizen members as the acreage of the new community district 19007 within such municipal corporation bears to the total acreage of 19008 the new community district. If any such municipal corporation 19009 chooses to replace an appointed citizen member, it shall do so by 19010 ordinance, the term of the trustee being replaced shall terminate 19011 thirty days from the date of passage of such ordinance, and the 19012 trustee to be replaced shall be determined by lot. Each newly 19013 appointed member shall assume the term of the member's 19014 predecessor. 19015

Sec. 349.04. The following method of selecting a board of 19016 trustees is deemed to be a compelling state interest. Within ten 19017 days after the new community authority has been established, as 19018 provided in section 349.03 of the Revised Code, an initial board 19019 of trustees shall be appointed as follows: the organizational 19020 board of commissioners shall appoint by resolution at least three, 19021 but not more than six, citizen members of the board of trustees to 19022 represent the interests of present and future residents and 19023 employers of the new community district and one member to serve as 19024 a representative of local government, and the developer shall 19025 appoint a number of members equal to the number of citizen members 19026 to serve as representatives of the developer. ~~In the case of a new~~ 19027 ~~community authority established on or after the effective date of~~ 19028
~~this amendment and before January 1, 2012, the citizen members may~~ 19029 ~~represent present and future employers within the new community~~ 19030
~~district and any present or future residents of the district.~~ 19031

Members shall serve two-year overlapping terms, with two of 19032 each of the initial citizen and developer members appointed to 19033 serve initial one year terms. The organizational board of 19034 commissioners shall adopt, by further resolution adopted within 19035 one year of such resolution establishing such initial board of 19036 trustees ~~adopt~~, a method for selection of successor members 19037 thereof which determines the projected total population of the 19038 projected new community and meets the following criteria: 19039

(A) The appointed citizen members shall be replaced by 19040 elected citizen members according to a schedule established by the 19041 organizational board of commissioners calculated to achieve one 19042 such replacement each time the new community district gains a 19043 proportion, having a numerator of one and a denominator of twice 19044 the number of citizen members, of its projected total population 19045 until such time as all of the appointed citizen members are 19046 replaced. 19047

(B) Representatives of the developer shall be replaced by 19048 elected citizen members according to a schedule established by the 19049
organizational board of commissioners calculated to achieve one 19050
such replacement each time the new community district gains a 19051 proportion, having a numerator of one and a denominator equal to 19052 the number of developer members, of its projected total population 19053 until such time as all of the developer's representatives are 19054 replaced. 19055

(C) The representative of local government shall be replaced 19056 by an elected citizen member at the time the new community 19057 district gains three-quarters of its projected total population. 19058

Elected citizen members of the board of trustees shall be 19059 elected by a majority of the residents of the new community 19060 district voting at elections held on the first Tuesday after the 19061 first Monday in December of each year. Each citizen member except 19062 an appointed citizen member shall be a qualified elector who 19063 resides within the new community district. ~~In the case of a new~~ 19064 ~~community authority established on or after the effective date of~~ 19065
~~this amendment and before January 1, 2012, The petition or the~~ 19066 organizational board of ~~directors~~ commissioners, by resolution, 19067 may adopt an alternative method of selection or election of 19068 successor members of the board of trustees. If the alternative 19069 method provides for the election of citizen members, the elections 19070 may be held at the times and in the manner provided in a the 19071 petition or resolution of the organizational board of 19072 commissioners, and ~~the~~ any elected citizen members shall be 19073 qualified electors who ~~resides~~ reside in the new community 19074

district. 19075

Citizen members shall not be employees of or have financial 19076 interest in the developer. If a vacancy occurs in the office of a 19077 member other than a member appointed by the developer, the 19078 organizational board of commissioners may appoint a successor 19079 member for the remainder of the unexpired term. Any appointed 19080 member of the board of trustees may at any time be removed by the 19081 organizational board of commissioners for misfeasance, 19082 nonfeasance, or malfeasance in office. Members appointed by the 19083 developer may also at any time be removed by the developer without 19084 a showing of cause. 19085

Each member of the board of trustees, before entering upon 19086 official duties, shall take and subscribe to an oath before an 19087 officer authorized to administer oaths in Ohio that the member 19088 will honestly and faithfully perform the duties of the member's 19089 office. Such oath shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the 19090 organizational board of ~~county~~ commissioners ~~in which the petition~~ 19091 ~~was filed~~. Upon taking the oath, the board of trustees shall elect 19092 one of its number as chairperson and another as vice-chairperson, 19093 and shall appoint suitable persons as secretary and treasurer who 19094 need not be members of the board. The treasurer shall be the 19095 fiscal officer of the authority. The board shall adopt by-laws 19096 governing the administration of the affairs of the new community 19097 authority. Each member of the board shall post a bond for the 19098 faithful performance of official duties and give surety therefor 19099 in such amount, but not less than ten thousand dollars, as the 19100 resolution creating such board shall prescribe. 19101

All of the powers of the new community authority shall be exercised by its board of trustees, but without relief of such responsibility, such powers may be delegated to committees of the board or its officers and employees in accordance with its by-laws. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of a majority of a quorum in any matter within the board's duties is sufficient for its determination, provided a quorum is present when such concurrence is had and a majority of those members constituting such quorum are trustees not appointed by the developer. All trustees shall be empowered to vote on all matters within the authority of the board of trustees, and no vote by a member appointed by the developer shall be construed to give rise to civil or criminal liability for conflict of interest on the part of public officials.

Sec. 349.06. In furtherance of the purposes of this chapter, a new community authority may:

(A) Acquire by purchase, lease, gift, or otherwise, on such terms and in such manner as it considers proper, real and personal property or any estate, interest, or right therein, within or without the new community district;

(B) Improve, maintain, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of real and personal property and community facilities, on such terms and in such manner as it considers proper;

(C) Landscape and otherwise aesthetically improve areas within the new community district, including but not limited to maintenance, landscaping and other community improvement services;

(D) Provide, engage in, or otherwise sponsor recreational, educational, health, social, vocational, cultural, beautification, and amusement activities and related services primarily for ~~residents of the district. In the case of a new community authority established on or after the effective date of this~~

~~amendment and before January 1, 2012, such activities and services~~ 19133
~~may be for~~ residents of, visitors to, employees working within, or 19134 employers operating businesses in the district, or any combination 19135 thereof. 19136

(E) Fix, alter, impose, collect and receive service and user 19137 fees, rentals, and other charges to cover all costs in carrying 19138 out the new community development program; 19139

(F) Adopt, modify, and enforce reasonable rules and 19140 regulations governing the use of community facilities; 19141

(G) Employ such managers, administrative officers, agents, 19142 engineers, architects, attorneys, contractors, sub-contractors, 19143 and employees as may be appropriate in the exercise of the rights, 19144 powers and duties conferred upon it, prescribe the duties and 19145 compensation for such persons, require bonds to be given by any 19146 such persons and by officers of the authority for the faithful 19147 performance of their duties, and fix the amount and surety 19148 therefor; and pay the same; 19149

(H) Sue and be sued in its corporate name; 19150

(I) Make and enter into all contracts and agreements and 19151 execute all instruments relating to a new community development 19152 program, including contracts with the developer and other persons 19153 or entities related thereto for land acquisition and land 19154 development; acquisition, construction, and maintenance of 19155 community facilities; the provision of community services and 19156 management and coordinating services; with federal, state, 19157 interstate, regional, and local agencies and political 19158 subdivisions or combinations thereof in connection with the 19159 financing of such program, and with any municipal corporation or 19160 other public body, or combination thereof, providing for the 19161 acquisition, construction, improvement, extension, maintenance or 19162 operation of joint lands or facilities or for the provision of any 19163 services or activities relating to and in furtherance of a new 19164 community development program, including the creation of or 19165 participation in a regional transit authority created pursuant to 19166

the Revised Code; 19167

(J) Apply for and accept grants, loans or commitments of 19168 guarantee or insurance including any guarantees of community 19169 authority bonds and notes, from the United States, the state, or 19170 other public body or other sources, and provide any consideration 19171 which may be required in order to obtain such grants, loans or 19172 contracts of guarantee or insurance. Such loans or contracts of 19173 guarantee or insurance may be evidenced by the issuance of bonds 19174
as provided in section 349.08 of the Revised Code; 19175

(K) Procure insurance against loss to it by reason of damage 19176 to its properties resulting from fire, theft, accident, or other 19177 casualties, or by reason of its liability for any damages to 19178 persons or property occurring in the construction or operation of 19179 facilities or areas under its jurisdiction or the conduct of its 19180
activities; 19181

(L) Maintain such funds or reserves as it considers necessary 19182 for the efficient performance of its duties; 19183

(M) Enter agreements with the boards of education of any 19184 school districts in which all or part of the new community 19185 district lies, whereby the community authority may acquire 19186 property for, may construct and equip, and may sell, lease, 19187 dedicate, with or without consideration, or otherwise transfer 19188 lands, schools, classrooms, or other facilities, whether or not 19189 within the new community district, from the authority to the 19190 school district for school and related purposes; 19191

(N) Prepare plans for acquisition and development of lands 19192 and facilities, and enter into agreements with city, county, or 19193 regional planning commissions to perform or obtain all or any part 19194 of planning services for the new community district; 19195

(O) Engage in planning for the new community district, which 19196 may be predominantly residential and open space, and prepare or 19197 approve a development plan or plans therefor, and engage in land 19198 acquisitions and land development in accordance with such plan or 19199 plans; 19200

(P) Issue new community authority bonds and notes and 19201 community authority refunding bonds, payable solely from the 19202 income source provided in section 349.08 of the Revised Code, 19203 unless the bonds are refunded by refunding bonds, for the purpose 19204 of paying any part of the cost as applied to the new community 19205 development program or parts thereof; 19206

(Q) Enforce any covenants running with the land of which the 19207 new community authority is the beneficiary, including but not 19208 limited to the collection by any and all appropriate means of any 19209 community development charge deemed to be a covenant running with 19210 the land and enforceable by the new community authority pursuant 19211 to section 349.07 of the Revised Code; and to waive, reduce, or 19212 terminate any community development charge of which it is the 19213 beneficiary to the extent not needed for any of the purposes 19214 provided in section 349.07 of the Revised Code, the procedure for 19215 which shall be provided in such covenants, and if new community 19216 authority bonds have been issued pledging any such community 19217 development charge, to the extent not prohibited in the resolution 19218 authorizing the issuance of such new community authority bonds or 19219 the trust agreement or indenture of mortgage securing the bonds; 19220

(R) Appropriate for its use, under sections 163.01 to 163.22 19221 of the Revised Code, any land, easement, rights, rights-of-way, 19222 franchises, or other property in the new community district 19223 required by the authority for community facilities. The authority 19224 may not so appropriate any land, easement, rights, rights-of-way, 19225 franchises, or other property that is not included in the new 19226 community district. 19227

~~(S) In the case of a new community authority established on~~ 19228
~~or after the effective date of this amendment and before January~~ 19229
~~1, 2012, enter~~ Enter into any agreements as may be necessary, 19230 appropriate, or useful to support a new community development 19231 program, including, but not limited to, cooperative agreements or 19232 other agreements with political subdivisions for services, 19233 materials, or products; for the administration, calculation, or 19234 collection of community development charges; or for sharing of 19235 revenue derived from community development charges, community 19236 facilities, or other sources. The agreements may be made with or 19237 without consideration as the parties determine. 19238

Sec. 349.07. (A) Notwithstanding any other rule of law, any 19239 covenant or agreement in deeds, land contracts, leases and any 19240 other instruments or conveyance by which real estate or any 19241 interest in real estate is conveyed by or to the developer or by 19242 the new community authority to any person or entity, including the 19243 developer, whereby such person or entity agrees, by acceptance of 19244 any such instrument of conveyance containing said covenant of 19245 agreement, to pay annually or semiannually a community development 19246 charge for the benefit and use of the new community authority to 19247 cover all or part of the cost of the acquisition, construction, 19248 operation and maintenance of land, land development and community 19249 facilities, the debt service thereof and any other cost incurred 19250 by the authority in the exercise of the powers granted by Chapter 19251 349. of the Revised Code shall be deemed to be a covenant running 19252 with the land and shall, in any event and without regard to 19253 technical classification, after such instrument has been duly 19254 recorded in the land records of the county, be fully binding on 19255 behalf of and enforceable by the new community authority against 19256 each such person or entity and all successors and assigns of the 19257 property conveyed by such instrument of conveyance. 19258

(B) No purchase agreement for any real estate or interest in 19259 real estate upon which a community development charge exists by 19260 reason of a covenant running with the land shall be enforceable by 19261 the seller or binding upon the purchaser unless such purchase 19262 agreement specifically refers to such community development charge 19263 and identifies the volume and page number of the deed records of 19264 the county in which the covenant running with the land 19265 establishing such community development charge is recorded, 19266 provided that in the event a conveyance of such real estate or 19267 interest in real estate is made pursuant to a purchase agreement 19268 which does not make such reference and identification, the 19269 covenant shall continue to be deemed to be a covenant running with 19270 the land fully binding on behalf of and enforceable by the 19271 community authority against such person or entity accepting the 19272 conveyance pursuant to such purchase agreement. 19273

(C) When any community development charge is not paid when 19274 due, in addition to any other remedies the new community authority 19275 shall have with respect to collection of such charges, the new 19276 community authority may certify the charge to the county auditor, 19277 who shall enter the unpaid charge on the tax list and duplicates 19278 of real property opposite the parcel against which it is charged, 19279 and certify the charge to the county treasurer. An unpaid 19280 community development charge is a lien on property against which 19281 it is charged from the date the charge is entered on the tax list, 19282 and shall be collected in the manner provided for the collection 19283 of real property taxes. Once the charge is collected, it shall be 19284 paid immediately to the new community district. 19285

(D) No community development charge established pursuant to 19286 this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting or limiting the 19287 taxing power of municipal corporations. 19288

Sec. 349.09. The issuance of new community authority bonds 19289 and notes or new community authority refunding bonds under this 19290 chapter need not comply with any other law applicable to the 19291 issuance of bonds or notes; however, sections 9.98 and 9.981 to 19292 9.983 and division (A) of section 133.03 of the Revised Code apply 19293 to such bonds and notes. 19294

Sec. 349.14. Except as provided in section 349.03 of the 19295 Revised Code, or as otherwise provided in a resolution adopted by 19296 the organizational board of commissioners, ~~of a new community~~ 19297 ~~authority established on or after the effective date of this~~ 19298 ~~amendment and before January 1, 2012,~~ a new community authority 19299 organized under this chapter may be dissolved only on the vote of 19300 a majority of the voters of the new community district at a 19301 special election called by the board of trustees on the question 19302 of dissolution. Such an election may be called only after the 19303 board has determined that the new community development program 19304 has been completed, when no community authority bonds or notes are 19305 outstanding, and other legal indebtedness of the authority has 19306 been discharged or provided for, and only after there has been 19307 filed with the board of trustees a petition requesting such 19308 election, signed by a number of qualified electors residing in the 19309 new community district equal to not less than eight per cent of 19310 the total vote cast for all candidates for governor in the new 19311 community district at the most recent general election at which a 19312 governor was elected. If a majority of the votes cast favor 19313 dissolution, the board of trustees shall, by resolution, declare 19314 the authority dissolved and thereupon the community authority 19315 shall be dissolved. A certified copy of the resolution shall, 19316 within fifteen days after its adoption, be filed with the clerk of 19317
the organizational board of ~~county~~ commissioners ~~of the county in~~ 19318 with which the petition for the organization of the new community 19319 authority was filed. 19320

Upon dissolution of a new community authority, the powers 19321

thereof shall cease to exist. Any property of the new community authority ~~which~~ that is located within the corporate limits of a municipality shall vest in that municipal corporation and all other property of the community authority shall vest in the county or township in which said property is located, as provided in the resolution or petition providing for dissolution. Any vesting of property in a township shall be subject to acceptance of the property by resolution of the board of township trustees. Any funds of the community authority at the time of dissolution shall be transferred to the municipal corporation and county or township, as provided in the resolution or petition providing for dissolution, in which the new community district is located in the proportion to the assessed valuation of taxable real property of the new community authority within such municipal corporation and county or township as said valuation appears on the current assessment rolls.

Sec. 349.17. (A) Any county, notwithstanding any other provision of law, may enter into an agreement with a new community authority within its boundaries for the purpose of designating the new community authority to act on behalf of the county in exercising the powers and performing the duties described in Chapter 5721. of the Revised Code with respect to delinquent property within the boundaries of the new community authority and the county, in the case that all or a portion of the community development charges related to the property are not paid when due.

(B) An agreement as described in division (A) of this section may permit a new community authority to, on behalf of the county, elect that the alternative redemption period following an adjudication of foreclosure as set forth in section 323.78 of the Revised Code apply to foreclosures of property within the new community district as a result of nonpayment of community development charges, taxes, or other charges.

(C) The powers extended to a community authority in this section shall not be construed as a limitation on the powers granted to a community authority under Chapter 349. of the Revised Code, but shall be construed as additional powers.

Sec. 501.07. Lands described in division (A) of section 501.06 of the Revised Code shall continue to be leased under the terms granted until such time as the lease may expire. At the time of expiration, subject to section 501.04 of the Revised Code, the land may be leased again by the board of education of the school district for whose benefit the land has been allocated or be offered for sale by public auction or by the receipt of sealed bids with the sale awarded by the school board to the highest bidder. Prior to the offering of these lands for sale, the school board shall have an appraisal made of these lands by at least two disinterested appraisers. Notification of the sale of these lands, including the minerals in or on these or other lands, shall be advertised ~~at least~~ once a week for two consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the land is located. No bids shall be accepted for less than the appraised value of the land.

Sec. 503.05. When a boundary line between townships is in dispute, the board of county commissioners, upon application of the board of township trustees of one of such townships, and upon notice in writing to the board of township trustees of such civil township, and on thirty days' public notice printed in a newspaper published of general circulation within the county, shall establish such boundary line and make a record thereof as provided by section 503.04 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 503.162. (A) After certification of a resolution as provided in section 503.161 of the Revised Code, the board of 19384 elections shall submit the question of whether the township's name 19385 shall be changed to the electors of the unincorporated area of the 19386 township in accordance with division (C) of that section, and the 19387 ballot language shall be substantially as follows: 19388

"Shall the township of (name) change its name to 19389
..... (proposed name)? 19390

..... For name change 19391

..... Against name change" 19392

(B)(1) At least forty-five days before the election on this 19393 question, the board of township trustees shall provide notice of 19394 the election and an explanation of the proposed name change in a 19395 newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 19396 two consecutive weeks ~~and~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the 19397 Revised Code. The board of township trustees shall post the notice 19398 and explanation in five conspicuous places in the unincorporated 19399 area of the township. 19400

(2) If the board of elections operates and maintains a web 19401 site, notice of the election and an explanation of the proposed 19402 name change shall be posted on that web site for at least thirty 19403 days before the election on this question. 19404

(C) If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition of 19405 changing the township's name is in the affirmative, the name 19406 change is adopted and becomes effective ninety days after the 19407 board of elections certifies the election results to the fiscal 19408 officer of the township. Upon receipt of the certification of the 19409 election results from the board of elections, the fiscal officer 19410 of the township shall send a copy of that certification to the 19411 secretary of state. 19412

(D) A change in the name of a township shall not alter the 19413 rights or liabilities of the township as previously named. 19414

Sec. 503.41. (A) A board of township trustees, by resolution, 19415 may regulate and require the registration of massage 19416 establishments and their employees within the unincorporated 19417 territory of the township. In accordance with sections 503.40 to 19418 503.49 of the Revised Code, for that purpose, the board, by a 19419 majority vote of all members, may adopt, amend, administer, and 19420 enforce regulations within the unincorporated territory of the 19421
township. 19422

(B) A board may adopt regulations and amendments under this 19423 section only after public hearing at not fewer than two regular 19424 sessions of the board. The board shall cause to be published in ~~at~~ 19425 ~~least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the township, or 19426 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, notice of the 19427 public hearings, including the time, date, and place, once a week 19428 for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings. The board shall 19429 make available proposed regulations or amendments to the public at 19430 the office of the board. 19431

(C) Regulations or amendments adopted by the board are 19432 effective thirty days after the date of adoption unless, within 19433 thirty days after the adoption of the regulations or amendments, 19434 the township fiscal officer receives a petition, signed by a 19435 number of qualified electors residing in the unincorporated area 19436 of the township equal to not less than ten per cent of the total 19437 vote cast for all candidates for governor in the area at the most 19438 recent general election at which a governor was elected, 19439 requesting the board to submit the regulations or amendments to 19440 the electors of the area for approval or rejection at the next 19441 primary or general election occurring at least ninety days after 19442 the board receives the petition. 19443

No regulation or amendment for which the referendum vote has 19444 been requested is effective unless a majority of the votes cast on 19445 the issue is in favor of the regulation or amendment. Upon 19446 certification by the board of elections that a majority of the 19447 votes cast on the issue was in favor of the regulation or 19448 amendment, the regulation or amendment takes immediate effect. 19449

(D) The board shall make available regulations it adopts or 19450 amends to the public at the office of the board and shall cause to 19451 be published once a notice of the availability of the regulations 19452 in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the township 19453 within ten days after their adoption or amendment. 19454

(E) Nothing in sections 503.40 to 503.49 of the Revised Code 19455 shall be construed to allow a board of township trustees to 19456 regulate the practice of any limited branch of medicine specified 19457 in section 4731.15 of the Revised Code or the practice of 19458 providing therapeutic massage by a licensed physician, a licensed 19459 chiropractor, a licensed podiatrist, a licensed nurse, or any 19460 other licensed health professional. As used in this division, 19461 "licensed" means licensed, certified, or registered to practice in 19462
this state. 19463

Sec. 504.02. (A) After certification of a resolution as 19464 provided in division (A) of section 504.01 of the Revised Code, 19465 the board of elections shall submit the question of whether to 19466 adopt a limited home rule government to the electors of the 19467 unincorporated area of the township, and the ballot language shall 19468 be substantially as follows: 19469

"Shall the township of (name) adopt a limited 19470 home rule government, under which government the board of township 19471 trustees, by resolution, may exercise limited powers of local 19472 self-government and limited police powers? 19473

..... For adoption of a limited home rule government 19474

..... Against adoption of a limited home rule government" 19475

question, the board of township trustees shall have notice of the 19477 election and a description of the proposed limited home rule 19478 government published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 19479 township once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in 19480 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and shall have the notice and 19481 description posted in five conspicuous places in the 19482 unincorporated area of the township. 19483

(2) If a board of elections operates and maintains a web 19484 site, notice of the election and a description of the proposed 19485 limited home rule government shall be posted on that web site for 19486 at least thirty days before the election on this question. 19487

(C) If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition of 19488 adopting a limited home rule government is in the affirmative, 19489 that government is adopted and becomes the government of the 19490 township on the first day of January immediately following the 19491
election. 19492

Sec. 504.03. (A)(1) If a limited home rule government is 19493 adopted pursuant to section 504.02 of the Revised Code, it shall 19494 remain in effect for at least three years except as otherwise 19495 provided in division (B) of this section. At the end of that 19496 period, if the board of township trustees determines that that 19497 government is not in the best interests of the township, it may 19498 adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the 19499 electors of the unincorporated area of the township the question 19500 of whether the township should continue the limited home rule 19501 government. The question shall be voted upon at the next general 19502 election occurring at least ninety days after the certification of 19503 the resolution to the board of elections. After certification of 19504 the resolution, the board of elections shall submit the question 19505 to the electors of the unincorporated area of the township, and 19506
the ballot language shall be substantially as follows: 19507

"Shall the township of (name) continue the limited home rule government under which it is operating? For continuation of the limited home rule government Against continuation of the limited home rule government" (2)(a) At least forty-five days before the election on the question of continuing the limited home rule government, the board of township trustees shall have notice of the election published in a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and shall have the notice posted in five conspicuous places in the unincorporated area of the township. (b) If a board of elections operates and maintains a web site, notice of the election shall be posted on that web site for at least thirty days before the election on the question of continuing the limited home rule government. (B) The electors of a township that has adopted a limited home rule government may propose at any time by initiative petition, in accordance with section 504.14 of the Revised Code, a resolution submitting to the electors in the unincorporated area of the township, in an election, the question set forth in division (A)(1) of this section. (C) If a majority of the votes cast under division (A) or (B) of this section on the proposition of continuing the limited home rule government is in the negative, that government is terminated effective on the first day of January immediately following the election, and a limited home rule government shall not be adopted in the unincorporated area of the township pursuant to section 504.02 of the Revised Code for at least three years after that date. (D) If a limited home rule government is terminated under this section, the board of township trustees immediately shall adopt a resolution repealing all resolutions adopted pursuant to 19539 this chapter that are not authorized by any other section of the 19540 Revised Code outside this chapter, effective on the first day of 19541

January immediately following the election described in division 19542
(A) or (B) of this section. However, no resolution adopted under 19543 this division shall affect or impair the obligations of the 19544 township under any security issued or contracts entered into by 19545 the township in connection with the financing of any water supply 19546 facility or sewer improvement under sections 504.18 to 504.20 of 19547 the Revised Code or the authority of the township to collect or 19548 enforce any assessments or other revenues constituting security 19549 for or source of payments of debt service charges of those 19550 securities. 19551

(E) Upon the termination of a limited home rule government 19552 under this section, if the township had converted its board of 19553 township trustees to a five-member board before September 26, 19554 2003, the current board member who received the lowest number of 19555 votes of the current board members who were elected at the most 19556 recent election for township trustees, and the current board 19557 member who received the lowest number of votes of the current 19558 board members who were elected at the second most recent election 19559 for township trustees, shall cease to be township trustees on the 19560 date that the limited home rule government terminates. Their 19561 offices likewise shall cease to exist at that time, and the board 19562 shall continue as a three-member board as provided in section 19563
505.01 of the Revised Code. 19564

Sec. 504.12. No resolution and no section or numbered or 19565 lettered division of a section shall be revised or amended unless 19566 the new resolution contains the entire resolution, section, or 19567 division as revised or amended, and the resolution, section, or 19568 division so amended shall be repealed. This requirement does not 19569 prevent the amendment of a resolution by the addition of a new 19570 section, or division, and in this case the full text of the former 19571 resolution need not be set forth, nor does this section prevent 19572 repeals by implication. Except in the case of a codification or 19573 recodification of resolutions, a separate vote shall be taken on 19574 each resolution proposed to be amended. Resolutions that have been 19575 introduced and have received their first reading or their first 19576 and second readings, but have not been voted on for passage, may 19577 be amended or revised by a majority vote of the members of the 19578 board of township trustees, and the amended or revised resolution 19579 need not receive additional readings. 19580

The board of township trustees of a limited home rule 19581 township may revise, codify, and publish in book form the 19582 resolutions of the township in the same manner as provided in 19583 section 731.23 of the Revised Code for municipal corporations. 19584 Resolutions adopted by the board shall be published in the same 19585 manner as provided by sections 731.21, 731.22, 731.24, 731.25, and 19586 731.26 of the Revised Code for municipal corporations, except that 19587 they shall be published in ~~newspapers circulating~~ a newspaper of 19588 general circulation within the township. The fiscal officer of the 19589 township shall perform the duties that the clerk of the 19590 legislative authority of a municipal corporation is required to 19591 perform under those sections. 19592

The procedures provided in this section apply only to 19593 resolutions adopted pursuant to a township's limited home rule 19594 powers as authorized by this chapter. 19595

Sec. 504.21. (A) The board of township trustees of a township 19596 that has adopted a limited home rule government may, for the 19597 unincorporated territory in the township, adopt, amend, and 19598 rescind rules establishing technically feasible and economically 19599 reasonable standards to achieve a level of management and 19600 conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion of 19601 the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 19602 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 19603

filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 19604 developed in the township for nonfarm commercial, industrial, 19605 residential, or other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for 19606 determination of the acceptability of those management and 19607 conservation practices. The rules shall be designed to implement 19608 the applicable areawide waste treatment management plan prepared 19609 under section 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 19610 Stat. 816 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement 19611 phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant 19612 discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. 19613
The rules to implement phase II of the storm water program of the 19614 national pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be 19615 inconsistent with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than 19616 the rules or regulations adopted by the environmental protection 19617 agency under 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this 19618 section shall not apply inside the limits of municipal 19619 corporations, to lands being used in a strip mine operation as 19620 defined in section 1513.01 of the Revised Code, or to land being 19621 used in a surface mine operation as defined in section 1514.01 of 19622
the Revised Code. 19623

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 19624
file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 19625
management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 19626
otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 19627
acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 19628
unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 19629
utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 19630
the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 19631
following: 19632

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 19633

agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 19634

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and 19635 approval or disapproval of the plans; 19636

(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a 19637 person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other 19638 project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a 19639 person whose plans have been disapproved; 19640

(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits; 19641

(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the 19642 denial of a permit. 19643

Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt 19644 from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules 19645 adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section 19646 may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit 19647 processing, and field inspections. 19648

No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, 19649 transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project 19650 undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in 19651 accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control 19652 policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the 19653 division of soil and water resources in the department of natural 19654 resources. 19655

(B) Rules or amendments may be adopted under this section 19656 only after public hearings at not fewer than two regular sessions 19657 of the board of township trustees. The board shall cause to be 19658 published, in a newspaper of general circulation in the township, 19659 notice of the public hearings, including time, date, and place, 19660 once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings, or 19661 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The proposed 19662 rules or amendments shall be made available by the board to the 19663 public at the board office or other location indicated in the 19664 notice. The rules or amendments shall take effect on the 19665

thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 19666

(C) The board of township trustees may employ personnel to 19667 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 19668
under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 19669 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 19670
management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 19671 with one or more political subdivisions, other township officials, 19672 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 19673
obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 19674
sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 19675
for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 19676

(D) The board of township trustees or any duly authorized 19677 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 19678
or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 19679
the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 19680
whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 19681
section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 19682 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 19683 may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 19684
county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 19685
section. 19687

(E)(1) If the board of township trustees or its duly 19688 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 19689 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 19690
issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 19691
obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 19692
and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 19693
activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 19694 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 19695
violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 19696

representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 19697
violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 19698
elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 19699
violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 19700
representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 19701 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 19702
not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 19703
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 19704
or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 19705
after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 19706 attorney of the county in which the township is located if, in the 19707 opinion of the prosecuting attorney, the violation is egregious. 19708

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 19709 authorized representative shall request, in writing, the 19710 prosecuting attorney to seek an injunction or other appropriate 19711
relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 19712 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules adopted under 19713 this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an injunction or 19714 other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, the court of 19715 common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 19716 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 19717 assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 19718 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop work 19719 order issued under this section shall be considered a separate 19720 violation subject to a civil fine. 19721

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this 19722
section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the 19723 county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other 19724 appropriate relief from that order. 19725

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section 19726
against any public highway, transportation, or drainage 19727
improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government 19728

agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of 19729
its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the 19730
board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in 19731
the department of natural resources. 19732

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 19733
under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 19734 if the board of township trustees determines that a violation of 19735 any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this section 19736 exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 19737 attorney of the county in which the township is located, to seek 19738 an injunction or other appropriate relief in the court of common 19739 pleas to abate excessive erosion or sedimentation and secure 19740 compliance with the rules or order. In granting relief, the court 19741 of common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 19742 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 19743
assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 19744 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule adopted or 19745 administrative order issued under this section shall be considered 19746 a separate violation subject to a civil fine. 19747

Sec. 505.101. The board of township trustees of any township 19748 may, by resolution, enter into a contract, without advertising or 19749 bidding, for the purchase or sale of materials, equipment, or 19750 supplies from or to any department, agency, or political 19751 subdivision of the state, for the purchase of services with a soil 19752 and water conservation district established under Chapter 1515. of 19753 the Revised Code, ~~or~~ for the purchase of supplies, services, 19754 materials, and equipment with a regional planning commission 19755 pursuant to division (D) of section 713.23 of the Revised Code, or 19756 for the purchase of services from an educational service center 19757 under section 3313.846 of the Revised Code. The resolution shall: 19758

(A) Set forth the maximum amount to be paid as the purchase 19759 price for the materials, equipment, supplies, or services; 19760

(B) Describe the type of materials, equipment, supplies, or 19761 services that are to be purchased; 19762

(C) Appropriate sufficient funds to pay the purchase price 19763 for the materials, equipment, supplies, or services, except that 19764 no such appropriation is necessary if funds have been previously 19765 appropriated for the purpose and remain unencumbered at the time 19766 the resolution is adopted. 19767

Sec. 505.108. Except as otherwise provided in this section 19768 and unless the property involved is required to be disposed of 19769 pursuant to another section of the Revised Code, property that is 19770 unclaimed for ninety days or more shall be sold by the chief of 19771 police or other head of the organized police department of the 19772 township, township police district, joint township police 19773 district, or office of a township constable at public auction, 19774 after notice of the sale has been provided by publication once a 19775 week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general 19776 circulation, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, 19777 in the county, or counties, if appropriate, in the case of a joint 19778 township police district. The proceeds of the sale shall be paid 19779 to the fiscal officer of the township and credited to the township 19780 general fund, except that, in the case of a joint township police 19781 district, the proceeds of a sale shall be paid to the fiscal 19782 officer of the most populous participating township and credited 19783 to the appropriate township general fund or funds according to 19784 agreement of the participating townships. 19785

If authorized to do so by a resolution adopted by the board 19786 of township trustees or, in the case of a joint township police 19787 district, each participating board of township trustees, and if 19788 the property involved is not required to be disposed of pursuant 19789 to another section of the Revised Code, the head of the 19790 department, district, or office may contribute property that is 19791 unclaimed for ninety days or more to one or more public agencies, 19792 to one or more nonprofit organizations no part of the net income 19793 of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or 19794 individual and no substantial part of the activities of which 19795 consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to 19796 influence legislation, or to one or more organizations satisfying 19797 section 501(c)(3) or (c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. 19798

Sec. 505.17. (A) Except in a township or portion of a 19799 township that is within the limits of a municipal corporation, the 19800 board of township trustees may make regulations and orders as are 19801 necessary to control passenger car, motorcycle, and internal 19802 combustion engine noise, as permitted under section 4513.221 of 19803 the Revised Code, and all vehicle parking in the township. This 19804 authorization includes, among other powers, the power to regulate 19805 parking on established roadways proximate to buildings on private 19806 property as necessary to provide access to the property by public 19807 safety vehicles and equipment, if the property is used for 19808 commercial purposes, the public is permitted to use the parking 19809 area, and accommodation for more than ten motor vehicles is 19810 provided, and the power to authorize the issuance of orders 19811 limiting or prohibiting parking on any township street or highway 19812 during a snow emergency declared pursuant to a snow-emergency 19813 authorization adopted under this division. All such regulations 19814 and orders shall be subject to the limitations, restrictions, and 19815 exceptions in sections 4511.01 to 4511.76 and 4513.02 to 4513.37 19816

A board of township trustees may adopt a general 19818 snow-emergency authorization, which becomes effective under 19819 division (B)(1) of this section, allowing the president of the 19820 board or some other person specified in the authorization to issue 19821 an order declaring a snow emergency and limiting or prohibiting 19822 parking on any township street or highway during the snow 19823 emergency. Any such order becomes effective under division (B)(2) 19824 of this section. Each general snow-emergency authorization adopted 19825 under this division shall specify the weather conditions under 19826 which a snow emergency may be declared in that township. 19827

(B)(1) All regulations and orders, including any 19828 snow-emergency authorization established by the board under this 19829 section, except for an order declaring a snow emergency as 19830 provided in division (B)(2) of this section, shall be posted by 19831 the township fiscal officer in five conspicuous public places in 19832 the township for thirty days before becoming effective, and shall 19833 be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the township 19834 for three consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 19835 Revised Code. In addition to these requirements, no general 19836 snow-emergency authorization shall become effective until 19837 permanent signs giving notice that parking is limited or 19838 prohibited during a snow emergency are properly posted, in 19839 accordance with any applicable standards adopted by the department 19840 of transportation, along streets or highways specified in the 19841 authorization. 19842

(2) Pursuant to the adoption of a snow-emergency 19843 authorization under this section, an order declaring a snow 19844 emergency becomes effective two hours after the president of the 19845 board or the other person specified in the general snow-emergency 19846 authorization makes an announcement of a snow emergency to the 19847 local news media. The president or other specified person shall 19848 request the local news media to announce that a snow emergency has 19849 been declared, the time the declaration will go into effect, and 19850 whether the snow emergency will remain in effect for a specified 19851 period of time or indefinitely until canceled by a subsequent 19852 announcement to the local news media by the president or other 19853 specified person. 19854

(C) Such regulations and orders may be enforced where traffic control devices conforming to section 4511.09 of the Revised Code are prominently displayed. Parking regulations authorized by this section do not apply to any state highway unless the parking regulations are approved by the director of transportation.

(D) A board of township trustees or its designated agent may order into storage any vehicle parked in violation of a township parking regulation or order, if the violation is not one that is required to be handled pursuant to Chapter 4521. of the Revised Code. The owner or any lienholder of a vehicle ordered into storage may claim the vehicle upon presentation of proof of ownership, which may be evidenced by a certificate of title to the vehicle, and payment of all expenses, charges, and fines incurred as a result of the parking violation and removal and storage of the vehicle.

(E) Whoever violates any regulation or order adopted pursuant to this section is guilty of a minor misdemeanor, unless the township has enacted a regulation pursuant to division (A) of section 4521.02 of the Revised Code, that specifies that the violation shall not be considered a criminal offense and shall be handled pursuant to Chapter 4521. of the Revised Code. Fines levied and collected under this section shall be paid into the township general revenue fund.

Sec. 505.264. (A) As used in this section, "energy conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an installation in, or remodeling of, an existing building, to reduce energy consumption. It includes the following:

(1) Insulation of the building structure and of systems within the building;

(2) Storm windows and doors, multiglazed windows and doors, heat-absorbing or heat-reflective glazed and coated window and door systems, additional glazing, reductions in glass area, and	19886 other window and door system modifications that reduce energy	19887 consumption;	19888

(3) Automatic energy control systems;	19889
(4) Heating, ventilating, or air conditioning system	19890
modifications or replacements;	19891
(5) Caulking and weatherstripping;	19892
(6) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures to	19893
increase the energy efficiency of the system without increasing	19894
the overall illumination of a facility, unless an increase in	19895
illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or	19896
local building code for the proposed lighting system;	19897
(7) Energy recovery systems;	19898
(8) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of	19899
energy such as heat, as well as electricity, for use primarily	19900
within a building or complex of buildings;	19901
(9) Any other modification, installation, or remodeling	19902
approved by the board of township trustees as an energy	19903
conservation measure.	19904
(B) For the purpose of evaluating township buildings for	19905 energy conservation measures, a township may contract with an	19906 architect, professional engineer, energy services company,	19907 contractor, or other person experienced in the design and	19908 implementation of energy conservation measures for a report that	19909 analyzes the buildings' energy needs and presents recommendations	19910 for building installations, modifications of existing	19911 installations, or building remodeling that would significantly	19912 reduce energy consumption in the buildings owned by that township.	19913
The report shall include estimates of all costs of the	19914 installations, modifications, or remodeling, including costs of	19915 design, engineering, installation, maintenance, and repairs, and 19916 estimates of the amounts by which energy consumption could be 19917 reduced. 19918

(C) A township desiring to implement energy conservation 19919 measures may proceed under either of the following methods: 19920

(1) Using a report or any part of a report prepared under 19921 division (B) of this section, advertise for bids and comply with 19922 the bidding procedures set forth in sections 307.86 to 307.92 of 19923
the Revised Code; 19924

(2) Request proposals from at least three vendors for the 19925 implementation of energy conservation measures. Prior to sending 19926 any installer of energy conservation measures a copy of any such 19927 request, the township shall advertise its intent to request 19928 proposals for the installation of energy conservation measures in 19929 a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 19930 two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 19931 Revised Code. The notice shall state that the township intends to 19932 request proposals for the installation of energy conservation 19933 measures; indicate the date, which shall be at least ten days 19934 after the second publication, on which the request for proposals 19935 will be mailed to installers of energy conservation measures; and 19936 state that any installer of energy conservation measures 19937 interested in receiving the request for proposal shall submit 19938 written notice to the township not later than noon of the day on 19939 which the request for proposal will be mailed. 19940

Upon receiving the proposals, the township shall analyze them 19941 and select the proposal or proposals most likely to result in the 19942 greatest energy savings considering the cost of the project and 19943 the township's ability to pay for the improvements with current 19944 revenues or by financing the improvements. The awarding of a 19945 contract to install energy conservation measures under division 19946 (C)(2) of this section shall be conditioned upon a finding by the 19947 township that the amount of money spent on energy savings measures 19948 is not likely to exceed the amount of money the township would 19949 save in energy and operating costs over ten years or a lesser 19950 period as determined by the township or, in the case of contracts 19951 for cogeneration systems, over five years or a lesser period as 19952 determined by the township. Nothing in this section prohibits a 19953 township from rejecting all proposals or from selecting more than 19954 one proposal. 19955

(D) A board of township trustees may enter into an 19956 installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of 19957 energy conservation measures. Any provisions of those installment 19958 payment contracts that deal with interest charges and financing 19959 terms shall not be subject to the competitive bidding procedures 19960 of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. Unless otherwise approved 19961 by a resolution of the board, an installment payment contract 19962 entered into by a board of township trustees under this section 19963 shall require the board to contract in accordance with the 19964 procedures set forth in section 307.86 of the Revised Code for the 19965 installation, modification, or remodeling of energy conservation 19966 measures pursuant to this section. 19967

(E) The board may issue securities of the township specifying 19968 the terms of the purchase and securing the deferred payments, 19969 payable at the times provided and bearing interest at a rate not 19970 exceeding the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of the 19971 Revised Code. The maximum maturity of the securities shall be as 19972 provided in division (B)(7)(g) of section 133.20 of the Revised 19973 Code. The securities may contain an option for prepayment and 19974 shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. Revenues 19975 derived from local taxes or otherwise, for the purpose of 19976 conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses 19977
of the township, may be applied to the payment of interest and the 19978 retirement of the securities. The securities may be sold at 19979 private sale or given to the contractor under the installment 19980

payment contract authorized by division (D) of this section. 19981

(F) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in 19982
the calculation of the net indebtedness of a township under 19983
section 133.09 of the Revised Code. 19984

Sec. 505.28. The board of township trustees may create a 19985 waste disposal district under sections 505.27 to 505.33 of the 19986 Revised Code, by a unanimous vote of the board and give notice 19987 thereof by a publication in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 19988 circulation in the township. If, within thirty days after such 19989 publication, a protest petition is filed with the board, signed by 19990 at least fifty per cent of the electors residing in the district, 19991 the act of the board in creating such district shall be void. If a 19992 petition is filed with the board asking for the creation of such a 19993 district in the township, accompanied by a map clearly showing the 19994 boundaries of such district, and signed by at least sixty-five per 19995 cent of the electors residing therein, with addresses of such 19996 signers, the board shall, within sixty days, create such a 19997
district. 19998

Each district shall be given a name, and the entire cost of 19999 any necessary equipment and labor shall be apportioned against 20000 each district by the respective boards. 20001

Sec. 505.373. The board of township trustees may, by 20002 resolution, adopt by incorporation by reference a standard code 20003 pertaining to fire, fire hazards, and fire prevention prepared and 20004 promulgated by the state or any department, board, or other agency 20005 of the state, or any such code prepared and promulgated by a 20006 public or private organization that publishes a model or standard 20007
code. 20008

After the adoption of the code by the board, a notice clearly 20009 identifying the code, stating the purpose of the code, and stating 20010 that a complete copy of the code is on file with the township 20011 fiscal officer for inspection by the public and also on file in 20012 the law library of the county in which the township is located and 20013 that the fiscal officer has copies available for distribution to 20014 the public at cost, shall be posted by the fiscal officer in five 20015 conspicuous places in the township for thirty days before becoming 20016 effective. The notice required by this section shall also be 20017

published in a newspaper of general circulation in the township 20018 once a week for three consecutive weeks or as provided in section 20019 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the adopting township amends or 20020 deletes any provision of the code, the notice shall contain a 20021 brief summary of the deletion or amendment. 20022

If the agency that originally promulgated or published the 20023 code thereafter amends the code, any township that has adopted the 20024 code pursuant to this section may adopt the amendment or change by 20025 incorporation by reference in the same manner as provided for 20026 adoption of the original code. 20027

Sec. 505.55. In the event that need for a township police 20028 district ceases to exist, the township trustees by a two-thirds 20029 vote of the board shall adopt a resolution specifying the date 20030 that the township police district shall cease to exist and provide 20031 for the disposal of all property belonging to the district by 20032 public sale. Such sale must be by public auction and upon notice 20033 thereof being published once a week for three weeks in a newspaper 20034 ~~published, or~~ of general circulation in such township, the or as 20035 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The last of such 20036 publications ~~to~~ shall be made at least five days before the date 20037 of the sale. Any moneys remaining after the dissolution of the 20038 district or received from the public sale of property shall be 20039 paid into the treasury of the township and may be expended for any 20040 public purpose when duly authorized by the township board of 20041 trustees. 20042

Sec. 505.73. (A) The board of township trustees may, by 20043 resolution, adopt by incorporation by reference, administer, and 20044 enforce within the unincorporated area of the township an existing 20045 structures code pertaining to the repair and continued maintenance 20046 of structures and the premises of those structures. For that 20047 purpose, the board shall adopt any model or standard code prepared 20048 and promulgated by this state, any department, board, or agency of 20049 this state, or any public or private organization that publishes a 20050 recognized model or standard code on the subject. The board shall 20051 ensure that the code adopted governs subject matter not addressed 20052 by the state residential building code and that it is fully 20053 compatible with the state residential and nonresidential building 20054 codes the board of building standards adopts pursuant to section 20055
3781.10 of the Revised Code. 20056

(B) The board shall assign the duties of administering and 20057 enforcing the existing structures code to a township officer or 20058 employee who is trained and qualified for those duties and shall 20059 establish by resolution the minimum qualifications necessary to 20060 perform those duties. 20061

(C)(1) After the board adopts an existing structures code, 20062 the township fiscal officer shall post a notice that clearly 20063 identifies the code, states the code's purpose, and states that a 20064 complete copy of the code is on file for inspection by the public 20065 with the fiscal officer and in the county law library and that the 20066 fiscal officer has copies available for distribution to the public 20067 at cost. 20068

(2) The township fiscal officer shall post the notice in five 20069 conspicuous places in the township for thirty days before the code 20070 becomes effective and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of 20071 general circulation in the township for three consecutive weeks or 20072 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the adopting township amends or deletes any provision of the code, the notice shall contain a brief summary of the deletion or amendment.

(D) If the agency that originally promulgated or published the existing structures code amends the code, the board may adopt the amendment or change by incorporation by reference in the manner provided for the adoption of the original code.

Sec. 507.09. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (D) of this section, the township fiscal officer shall be entitled to compensation as follows:

(1) In townships having a budget of fifty thousand dollars or less, three thousand five hundred dollars;

(2) In townships having a budget of more than fifty thousand but not more than one hundred thousand dollars, five thousand five hundred dollars;

(3) In townships having a budget of more than one hundred thousand but not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, seven thousand seven hundred dollars;

(4) In townships having a budget of more than two hundred fifty thousand but not more than five hundred thousand dollars, nine thousand nine hundred dollars;

(5) In townships having a budget of more than five hundred thousand but not more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, eleven thousand dollars;

(6) In townships having a budget of more than seven hundred fifty thousand but not more than one million five hundred thousand dollars, thirteen thousand two hundred dollars;

(7) In townships having a budget of more than one million five hundred thousand but not more than three million five hundred thousand dollars, fifteen thousand four hundred dollars;

(8) In townships having a budget of more than three million 20103 five hundred thousand dollars but not more than six million 20104 dollars, sixteen thousand five hundred dollars; 20105

(9) In townships having a budget of more than six million 20106 dollars, seventeen thousand six hundred dollars. 20107

(B) Any township fiscal officer may elect to receive less 20108 than the compensation the fiscal officer is entitled to under 20109 division (A) of this section. Any township fiscal officer electing 20110 to do this shall so notify the board of township trustees in 20111 writing, and the board shall include this notice in the minutes of 20112 its next board meeting. 20113

(C) The compensation of the township fiscal officer shall be 20114 paid in equal monthly payments. If the office of township fiscal 20115 officer is held by more than one person during any calendar year, 20116 each person holding the office shall receive payments for only 20117 those months, and any fractions of those months, during which the 20118 person holds the office. 20119

The board of township trustees may establish, by resolution, 20120 a method of compensating the township fiscal officer from the 20121 township general fund or from other township funds based on the 20122 proportion of time the township fiscal officer spends providing 20123 services related to each fund. If the board adopts such a 20124 resolution, the board shall require the township fiscal officer to 20125 document and to notify the board periodically of the amount of 20126 time the township fiscal officer spends providing services related 20127 to each fund. 20128

(D) Beginning in calendar year 1999, the township fiscal 20129 officer shall be entitled to compensation as follows: 20130

(1) In calendar year 1999, the compensation specified in 20131 division (A) of this section increased by three per cent; 20132

(2) In calendar year 2000, the compensation determined under 20133

division (D)(1) of this section increased by three per cent;	20134
(3) In calendar year 2001, the compensation determined under division (D)(2) of this section increased by three per cent;	20135 20136
(5) In calendar year 2003, the compensation determined under division (D)(4) of this section increased by three per cent or the percentage increase in the consumer price index as described in division (D)(7)(b) of this section, whichever percentage is lower;	20145 20146 20147 20148
(6) In calendar year 2004, except in townships having a budget of more than six million dollars, the compensation determined under division (D)(5) of this section for the calendar year 2003 increased by three per cent or the percentage increase in the consumer price index as described in division (D)(7)(b) of this section, whichever percentage is lower; in townships having a budget of more than six million but not more than ten million dollars, twenty-two thousand eighty-seven dollars; and in townships having a budget of more than ten million dollars, twenty-five thousand five hundred fifty-three dollars;	20149 20150 20151 20152 20153 20154 20155 20156 20157 20158
(7) In calendar years 2005 through 2008, the compensation determined under division (D) of this section for the immediately preceding calendar year increased by the lesser of the following:	20159 20160 20161
(a) Three per cent;	20162
(b) The percentage increase, if any, in the consumer price index over the twelve-month period that ends on the thirtieth day	20163 20164 of September of the immediately preceding calendar year, rounded 20165 to the nearest one-tenth of one per cent; 20166

(8) In calendar year 2009 and thereafter, the amount 20167 determined under division (D) of this section for calendar year 20168 2008. 20169

As used in this division, "consumer price index" has the same 20170 meaning as in section 325.18 of the Revised Code. 20171

Sec. 511.23. (A) When the vote under section 511.22 of the 20172 Revised Code is in favor of establishing one or more public parks, 20173 the board of park commissioners shall constitute a board, to be 20174 called the board of park commissioners of that township park 20175 district, and they shall be a body politic and corporate. Their 20176 office is not a township office within the meaning of section 20177 703.22 of the Revised Code but is an office of the township park 20178 district. The members of the board shall serve without 20179 compensation but shall be allowed their actual and necessary 20180 expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. 20181

(B) The board may locate, establish, improve, maintain, and 20182 operate a public park or parks in accordance with division (B) of 20183 section 511.18 of the Revised Code, with or without recreational 20184 facilities. Any township park district that contains only 20185 unincorporated territory and that operated a public park or parks 20186 outside the township immediately prior to July 18, 1990, may 20187 continue to improve, maintain, and operate these parks outside the 20188 township, but further acquisitions of land shall not affect the 20189 boundaries of the park district itself or the appointing authority 20190 for the board of park commissioners. 20191

The board may lease, accept a conveyance of, or purchase 20192 suitable lands for cash, by purchase by installment payments with 20193 or without a mortgage, by lease or lease-purchase agreements, or 20194 by lease with option to purchase, may acquire suitable lands 20195 through an exchange under section 511.241 of the Revised Code, or 20196 may appropriate suitable lands and materials for park district 20197 purposes. The board also may lease facilities from other political 20198 subdivisions or private sources. The board shall have careful 20199 surveys and plats made of the lands acquired for park district 20200 purposes and shall establish permanent monuments on the boundaries 20201 of the lands. Those plats, when executed according to sections 20202 711.01 to 711.38 of the Revised Code, shall be recorded in the 20203 office of the county recorder, and those records shall be 20204 admissible in evidence for the purpose of locating and 20205 ascertaining the true boundaries of the park or parks. 20206

(C) In furtherance of the use and enjoyment of the lands 20207 controlled by it, the board may accept donations of money or other 20208 property or act as trustees of land, money, or other property, and 20209 may use and administer the land, money, or other property as 20210 stipulated by the donor or as provided in the trust agreement. 20211

The board may receive and expend grants for park purposes 20212 from agencies and instrumentalities of the United States and this 20213 state and may enter into contracts or agreements with those 20214 agencies and instrumentalities to carry out the purposes for which 20215 the grants were furnished. 20216

(D) In exercising any powers conferred upon the board under 20217 divisions (B) and (C) of this section and for other types of 20218 assistance that the board finds necessary in carrying out its 20219 duties, the board may hire and contract for professional, 20220 technical, consulting, and other special services and may purchase 20221 goods and award contracts. The procuring of goods and awarding of 20222 contracts shall be done in accordance with the procedures 20223 established for the board of county commissioners by sections 20224
307.86 to 307.91 of the Revised Code. 20225

(E) The board may appoint an executive for the park or parks 20226 and may designate the executive or another person as the clerk of 20227 the board. It may appoint all other necessary officers and 20228 employees, fix their compensation, and prescribe their duties, or 20229 it may require the executive to appoint all other necessary 20230 officers and employees, and to fix their compensation and 20231 prescribe their duties, in accordance with guidelines and policies 20232 adopted by the board. 20233

(F) The board may adopt bylaws and rules that it considers 20234 advisable for the following purposes: 20235

(1) To prohibit selling, giving away, or using any 20236 intoxicating liquors in the park or parks; 20237

(2) For the government and control of the park or parks and 20238 the operation of motor vehicles in the park or parks; 20239

(3) To provide for the protection and preservation of all 20240 property and natural life within its jurisdiction. 20241

Before the bylaws and rules take effect, the board shall 20242 provide for a notice of their adoption to be published once a week 20243 for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 20244 Revised Code, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county 20245 within which the park district is located. 20246

No person shall violate any of the bylaws or rules. Fines 20247 levied and collected for violations shall be paid into the 20248 treasury of the township park district. The board may use moneys 20249 collected from those fines for any purpose that is not 20250 inconsistent with sections 511.18 to 511.37 of the Revised Code. 20251

(G) The board may do either of the following: 20252

(1) Establish and charge fees for the use of any facilities 20253 and services of the park or parks regardless of whether the park 20254 or parks were acquired before, on, or after ~~the effective date of~~ 20255
~~this amendment~~ September 21, 2000; 20256

(2) Enter into a lease agreement with an individual or 20257 organization that provides for the exclusive use of a specified 20258 portion of the park or parks within the township park district by 20259 that individual or organization for the duration of an event 20260 produced by the individual or organization. The board, for the 20261 specific portion of the park or parks covered by the lease 20262 agreement, may charge a fee to, or permit the individual or 20263 organization to charge a fee to, participants in and spectators at 20264 the event covered by the agreement. 20265

(H) If the board finds that real or personal property owned 20266 by the township park district is not currently needed for park 20267 purposes, the board may lease that property to other persons or 20268 organizations during any period of time the board determines the 20269 property will not be needed. If the board finds that competitive 20270 bidding on a lease is not feasible, it may lease the property 20271 without taking bids. 20272

(I) The board may exchange property owned by the township 20273 park district for property owned by the state, another political 20274 subdivision, or the federal government on terms that it considers 20275 desirable, without the necessity of competitive bidding. 20276

(J) Any rights or duties established under this section may 20277 be modified, shared, or assigned by an agreement pursuant to 20278
section 755.16 of the Revised Code. 20279

Sec. 511.25. If the board of park commissioners of a township 20280 park district finds that any lands that the board has acquired are 20281 not necessary for the purposes for which they were acquired, it 20282 may sell and dispose of those lands upon terms that the board 20283 considers advisable and may reject any purchase bid received under 20284 this section that the board determines does not meet its terms for 20285
sale. 20286

Except as otherwise provided in this section, no lands shall 20287 be sold without first giving notice of the board's intention to 20288 sell the lands by publication once a week for four consecutive 20289 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the township or as 20290 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall 20291 contain an accurate description of the lands being offered for 20292 sale and shall state the time and place at which sealed bids for 20293 the lands will be received. If the board rejects all of the 20294 purchase bids, it may reoffer the lands for sale in accordance 20295 with this section. 20296

The board also may sell park lands not necessary for district 20297 purposes to another political subdivision, the state, or the 20298 federal government without giving the notices or taking bids as 20299 otherwise required by this section. 20300

No lands acquired by a township park district may be sold 20301 without the approval of the court of common pleas of the county in 20302 which the park district is located, if the court appointed the 20303 board under section 511.18 of the Revised Code, or the approval of 20304 the board of township trustees, if the board of township trustees 20305 appointed the board of park commissioners under section 511.18 of 20306
the Revised Code. 20307

Sec. 511.28. A copy of any resolution for a tax levy adopted 20308 by the township board of park commissioners as provided in section 20309 511.27 of the Revised Code shall be certified by the clerk of the 20310 board of park commissioners to the board of elections of the 20311 proper county, together with a certified copy of the resolution 20312 approving the levy, passed by the board of township trustees if 20313 such a resolution is required by division (C) of section 511.27 of 20314 the Revised Code, not less than ninety days before a general or 20315 primary election in any year. The board of elections shall submit 20316 the proposal to the electors as provided in section 511.27 of the 20317 Revised Code at the succeeding general or primary election. A 20318 resolution to renew an existing levy may not be placed on the 20319 ballot unless the question is submitted at the general election 20320 held during the last year the tax to be renewed may be extended on 20321 the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at 20322 any election held in the ensuing year. The board of park 20323 commissioners shall cause notice that the vote will be taken to be 20324 published once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 20325 election in a newspaper of general circulation, or as provided in 20326 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in the county within which the 20327 park district is located. Additionally, if the board of elections 20328 operates and maintains a web site, the board of elections shall 20329 post that notice on its web site for thirty days prior to the 20330 election. The notice shall state the purpose of the proposed levy, 20331 the annual rate proposed expressed in dollars and cents for each 20332 one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one 20333 dollar of valuation, the number of consecutive years during which 20334 the levy shall be in effect, and the time and place of the 20335

election. 20336

The form of the ballots cast at the election shall be: "An 20337 additional tax for the benefit of (name of township park district) 20338
..... for the purpose of (purpose stated in the order of the 20339 board) at a rate not exceeding mills for 20340 each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to (rate expressed in 20341 dollars and cents)for each one hundred dollars of 20342 valuation, for (number of years the levy is to run)" 20343

	FOR THE TAX LEVY
	AGAINST THE TAX LEVY

If the levy submitted is a proposal to renew, increase, or 20348 decrease an existing levy, the form of the ballot specified in 20349 this section may be changed by substituting for the words "An 20350 additional" at the beginning of the form, the words "A renewal of 20351

a" in the case of a proposal to renew an existing levy in the same amount; the words "A renewal of mills and an increase of mills to constitute a" in the case of an increase; or the words "A renewal of part of an existing levy, being a reduction of mills, to constitute a" in the case of a decrease in the rate of the existing levy.

If the tax is to be placed on the current tax list, the form of the ballot shall be modified by adding, after the statement of the number of years the levy is to run, the phrase ", commencing in (first year the tax is to be levied), first due in calendar year (first calendar year in which the tax shall be due)."

The question covered by the order shall be submitted as a separate proposition, but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election, other than the election of officers. More than one such question may be submitted at the same election.

Sec. 511.34. In townships composed of islands, and on one of which islands lands have been conveyed in trust for the benefit of the inhabitants of the island for use as a park, and a board of park trustees has been provided for the control of the park, the board of township trustees may create a tax district of the island to raise funds by taxation as provided under divisions (A) and (B) of this section.

(A) For the care and maintenance of parks on the island, the board of township trustees annually may levy a tax, not to exceed one mill, upon all the taxable property in the district. The tax shall be in addition to all other levies authorized by law, and subject to no limitation on tax rates except as provided in this division.

The proceeds of the tax levy shall be expended by the board of township trustees for the purpose of the care and maintenance 20383 of the parks, and shall be paid out of the township treasury upon 20384 the orders of the board of park trustees. 20385

(B) For the purpose of acquiring additional land for use as a 20386 park, the board of township trustees may levy a tax in excess of 20387 the ten-mill limitation on all taxable property in the district. 20388
The tax shall be proposed by resolution adopted by two-thirds of 20389 the members of the board of township trustees. The resolution 20390 shall specify the purpose and rate of the tax and the number of 20391 years the tax will be levied, which shall not exceed five years, 20392 and which may include a levy on the current tax list and 20393 duplicate. The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its 20394 passage, and no publication of the resolution is necessary other 20395 than that provided for in the notice of election. The board of 20396 township trustees shall certify a copy of the resolution to the 20397 proper board of elections not later than ninety days before the 20398 primary or general election in the township, and the board of 20399 elections shall submit the question of the tax to the voters of 20400 the district at the succeeding primary or general election. The 20401 board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the 20402 submission of the question to the electors of the district, and 20403 the election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the 20404 same manner as regular elections in the township for the election 20405 of officers. Notice of the election shall be published in a 20406 newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 20407
two consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the 20408 Revised Code prior to the election ~~and, if.~~ If the board of 20409 elections operates and maintains a web site, notice of the 20410 election also shall be posted on that web site for thirty days 20411 prior to the election. The notice shall state the purpose of the 20412 tax, the proposed rate of the tax expressed in dollars and cents 20413 for each one hundred dollars of valuation and mills for each one 20414 dollar of valuation, the number of years the tax will be in 20415 effect, the first year the tax will be levied, and the time and place of the election. 20416

The form of the ballots cast at an election held under this division shall be as follows: 20418
 20419

"An additional tax for the benefit of (name of the township) for the purpose of acquiring additional park land at a rate of mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to (rate expressed in dollars and cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for (number of years the levy is to run) beginning in (first year the tax will be levied). 20420

20427
 20430

The question shall be submitted as a separate proposition but may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers. More than one such question may be submitted at the same election. 20431
 20432
 20435

If the levy is approved by a majority of electors voting on the question, the board of elections shall certify the result of the election to the tax commissioner. In the first year of the levy, the tax shall be extended on the tax lists after the February settlement following the election. If the tax is to be placed on the tax lists of the current year as specified in the resolution, the board of elections shall certify the result of the election immediately after the canvass to the board of township trustees, which shall forthwith make the necessary levy and certify the levy to the county auditor, who shall extend the levy on the tax lists for collection. the levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is 20447 certified to the county budget commission. 20448

Sec. 513.14. The board of elections shall advertise the 20449 proposed tax levy question mentioned in section 513.13 of the 20450 Revised Code in ~~two newspapers of opposite political faith, if two~~ 20451 ~~such newspapers are published in the joint township hospital~~ 20452 ~~district, or otherwise in one a newspaper, published or of general~~ 20453 circulation in the proposed township hospital district, once a 20454 week for two consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of 20455 the Revised Code, prior to the election ~~and, if.~~ If the board 20456 operates and maintains a web site, the board also shall advertise 20457 that proposed tax levy question on its web site for thirty days 20458 prior to the election. 20459

Sec. 515.04. The township fiscal officer shall fix a day, not 20460 more than thirty days from the date of notice to the board of 20461 township trustees, for the hearing of the petition authorized by 20462 section 515.02 or 515.16 of the Revised Code. The township fiscal 20463 officer or the fiscal officer's designee shall prepare and deliver 20464 to any of the petitioners a notice in writing directed to the lot 20465 and land owners and to the corporations, either public or private, 20466 affected by the improvement. The notice shall set forth the 20467 substance, pendency, and prayer of the petition and the time and 20468 place of the hearing on it. 20469

A copy of the notice shall be served upon each lot or land 20470 owner or left at the lot or land owner's usual place of residence, 20471 and upon an officer or agent of each corporation having its place 20472 of business in the district or area, at least fifteen days before 20473 the date set for the hearing. On or before the day of the hearing, 20474 the person serving the notice shall make return on it, under oath, 20475 of the time and manner of service and shall file the return with 20476 the township fiscal officer. 20477

The township fiscal officer or the fiscal officer's designee 20478 shall give the notice to each nonresident lot or land owner, by 20479 publication once, in a newspaper ~~published in and~~ of general 20480 circulation in the county in which the district or area is 20481 situated, at least two weeks before the day set for hearing. The 20482 notice shall be verified by affidavit of the printer or other 20483 person knowing the fact and shall be filed with the township 20484 fiscal officer or the fiscal officer's designee on or before the 20485 day of hearing. No further notice of the petition or the 20486 proceedings under it shall thereafter be required. 20487

Sec. 517.12. The board of township trustees may make rules 20488 specifying the times when cemeteries under its control shall be 20489 closed to the public. The board shall cause the rules to be 20490 published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 20491 general circulation within the township or as provided in section 20492 7.16 of the Revised Code, and may post appropriate notice in the 20493 township as considered necessary. 20494

The purposes of such rules shall be to assure a reasonable 20495 time of access to the cemeteries in view of the differences in 20496 attendance anticipated from past experience as to each, to exclude 20497 attendance at times when no proper purposes could normally be 20498 expected, to permit exceptions to the normal hours of access on 20499 reasonable request with adequate reason provided, and to 20500 facilitate the task of protecting the premises from vandalism, 20501 desecration, and other improper usage. 20502

Whoever violates these rules is guilty of a minor 20503 misdemeanor. 20504

Sec. 517.22. The board of township trustees or the trustees 20505 or directors of a cemetery association, after notice has first 20506 been given in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of general circulation in 20507 the county, may dispose of, at public sale, and convey any 20508 cemetery under their control that they have determined to 20509 discontinue as burial grounds, but possession of the cemetery 20510 shall not be given to a grantee until after the remains buried in 20511 that cemetery, together with stones and monuments, have been 20512 removed as provided by section 517.21 of the Revised Code. 20513

Sec. 521.03. On receiving a petition filed under section 20514 521.02 of the Revised Code, or at the request of the board of 20515 township trustees, the township fiscal officer shall fix a time, 20516 not more than thirty days after the date of giving notice of the 20517 filing to the board or the date of receiving the request from the 20518 board, and place for a hearing on the issue of repair or 20519 maintenance of the tiles. The township fiscal officer shall 20520 prepare a notice in writing directed to the lot and land owners 20521 and to the corporations, either public or private, affected by the 20522 improvement. The notice shall set forth the substance of the 20523 petition or board request, and the time and place of the hearing 20524 on it. 20525

If the hearing is to be held in response to a petition, the 20526 township fiscal officer shall deliver a copy of the notice to any 20527 of the petitioners, who shall see that the notice is served on 20528
each lot or land owner or left at the lot or land owner's usual 20529 place of residence, and served on an officer or agent of each 20530 corporation affected by the improvement, at least fifteen days 20531 before the date set for the hearing. If the hearing is to be held 20532 at the request of the board, the board shall see that the notice 20533 is so served. On or before the day of the hearing, the person 20534 serving the notice shall certify, under oath, the time and manner 20535 of service, and shall file this certification with the township 20536 fiscal officer. 20537

The township fiscal officer shall give notice of the hearing 20538 to each nonresident lot or land owner, by publication once, in a newspaper ~~published in and~~ of general circulation in the county in which the township is situated, at least two weeks before the day set for the hearing. This notice shall be verified by affidavit of the printer or other person knowing the fact, and shall be filed with the township fiscal officer on or before the day of the hearing. No further notice of the petition or the proceedings under it shall thereafter be required.

Sec. 523.01. The territory of one or more townships may be merged with that of a contiguous township to create a new township, in the manner provided under this chapter. The new township shall have all of, and only, the rights, powers, and responsibilities afforded by law to townships.

Sec. 523.02. (A) The boards of township trustees of two or more townships may propose a merger under section 523.01 of the Revised Code by adopting resolutions, by a majority vote of each board of township trustees of each township proposed for merger. Resolutions adopted under this section shall state all of the following:

(1) The necessity for merger;

(2) The townships that are to merge;

(3) The official name by which the new township shall be known;

(4) The boundaries of the new township created as the result of the merger.

(B) A copy of each resolution adopted under this section shall be filed with the respective township fiscal officer of each township that is subject to the merger. The merger shall become effective on the sixtieth day after the last such filing is accomplished, unless prior to the expiration of the sixty-day period, a referendum petition is filed under section 523.03 of the 20569

Revised Code. 20570

Sec. 523.03. (A) A qualified elector of a township proposed 20571 for merger, not later than sixty days after the filing of a 20572 resolution under division (B) of section 523.02 of the Revised 20573 Code regarding that township, may present to the board of township 20574 trustees of that township a referendum petition, signed by a 20575 number of qualified electors residing in the township, equal in 20576 number to not less than ten per cent of the total vote cast in the 20577 township for governor at the most recent general election at which 20578 a governor was elected, requesting the board to submit the 20579 question of the merger to the electors of the township for 20580 approval or rejection at a special election to be held on the day 20581 of the next primary or general election occurring at least ninety 20582 days after the petition is submitted. The referendum petition 20583 shall be governed by section 3501.38 of the Revised Code. 20584

(B) The referendum petition shall be filed at the office of 20585
the township fiscal officer of the township that is the subject of 20586 the petition. The person presenting the petition shall be given a 20587 receipt containing on it the time of the day, the date, and the 20588 purpose of the petition. The township fiscal officer shall cause 20589 the appropriate board of elections to check the sufficiency of 20590 signatures on the referendum petition and if the signatures are 20591 found to be sufficient, shall present the petition to the board of 20592 township trustees at a meeting of the board that occurs not later 20593 than thirty days following the filing of the petition. Upon 20594 presentation to the board of township trustees of a referendum 20595 petition, the board shall promptly certify the petition to the 20596 board of elections for the purpose of having the question of the 20597 merger placed on the ballot at a special election to be held on 20598 the day of the next general or primary election that occurs not 20599 less than ninety days after the date of the meeting of the board, 20600 the date of which shall be specified in the certification. 20601

(C) Signatures on a referendum petition may be withdrawn up to and including the meeting of the board of township trustees certifying the proposal to the appropriate board of elections. 20602

(D) Upon certification of the referendum petition to the appropriate board of elections, the board of elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question of merger to the qualified electors of the township proposed for merger that is the subject of the petition. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in the township for the election of township officers. Notice of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the election. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, the board shall post notice of the election on the web site for thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the necessity for merger, the townships that are proposed for merger, the official name by which the new township shall be known, the boundaries of the new township created as the result of the merger, and the time and place of the election. The form of the ballots cast at the election shall read as follows: 20605
20606
20608
20609
20610
20611

20622

"Shall the townships of (Names of all of the townships to be merged) be merged to create the new township of (Name of new township)?" 20623
20625

(E) No merger for which a referendum vote has been requested shall be put into effect unless a majority of the votes cast on the issue in the township that is the subject of the referendum petition is in favor of the merger. The merger shall take effect sixty days after certification by the board of elections that the merger has been approved by the electors. 20626

20631

Sec. 523.04. (A) A resolution for a merger under this chapter 20632 may be proposed by initiative petition by the electors of each 20633 township being proposed for merger, and adopted by election by 20634 these electors under the same circumstances, in the same manner, 20635 and subject to the same penalties as provided by sections 731.28 20636 to 731.40 and 731.99 of the Revised Code for municipal 20637 corporations, except that all of the following apply: 20638

(1) Each board of township trustees shall perform the duties 20639 imposed on the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 20640 under those sections; 20641

(2) Initiative petitions shall be filed with the township 20642 fiscal officer of each township proposed for merger, who shall 20643 perform the duties imposed under those sections upon the city 20644 auditor or village clerk; 20645

(3) Initiative petitions shall contain the signatures of not 20646 less than ten per cent of the total number of electors in a 20647 township proposed for merger who voted for the office of governor 20648 at the most recent general election in the township for that 20649
office; 20650

(4) Each signer of an initiative petition shall be an elector 20651 of the township in which the election on the proposed resolution 20652 is to be held. 20653

(B) The merger shall take effect sixty days after 20654 certification by the board or boards of elections that the merger 20655 has been approved by the electors of each township proposed for 20656
merger. 20657

Sec. 523.05. (A) The boards of township trustees of two or 20658 more townships, by adopting resolutions by unanimous vote of the 20659 board of township trustees of each township, may cause the 20660 appropriate board of elections for each township to submit to the 20661 electors of each township the question of merger under section 20662 523.01 of the Revised Code. The question shall be voted upon at 20663 the next general election occurring not less than ninety days 20664 after the certification of the resolutions to the appropriate 20665 board of elections. 20666

(B) In submitting to the electors of each township the 20667 question of merger, the board of elections shall submit the 20668 question in language substantially as follows: 20669

"Shall the townships of (Names of all of the 20670 townships to be merged) be merged to create the new township of 20671
..... (Name of the new township)?" 20672

(C) The merger shall take effect sixty days after 20673 certification by the board or boards of elections that the merger 20674
merger. 20676

Sec. 523.06. (A) Within sixty days after a merger takes 20677 effect under division (B) of section 523.02 of the Revised Code, 20678 or after approval of the merger by the electors under section 20679 523.04 or 523.05 of the Revised Code, each board of township 20680 trustees of the townships merged, by adopting a joint resolution 20681 approved by a majority of the members of each board, shall enter 20682 into a merger agreement that contains the specific terms and 20683 conditions of the merger. At a minimum, the merger agreement shall 20684 set forth all of the following: 20685

(1) The names of the former townships that were merged; 20686

(2) The name of the new township; 20687

(3) The place in which the principal office of the new 20688 township will be located or the manner in which it may be 20689 selected; 20690

(4) The territorial boundaries of the new township;	20691
(5) The date on which the merger took effect;	20692
(6) The governmental organization for the new township,	20693
including a plan for electing officers at the next general	20694
election that is held not later than ninety days after the merger	20695
agreement is finalized;	20696
(7) A procedure for the efficient and timely transition of	20697
specific services, functions, and responsibilities from each	20698
township and its respective offices to the new township;	20699
(8) Terms for the disposition of the assets and property of	20700
each township, if necessary;	20701
(9) The liquidation of existing indebtedness for each	20702
township, if necessary;	20703
(10) A plan for the common administration and enforcement of	20704
resolutions of the townships merged, and of ordinances, if a	20705
township is located in a municipal corporation, to be enforced	20706
uniformly within the new township;	20707
(11) A provision that specifies whether there will be any	20708
zoning changes as a result of the merger, if applicable;	20709
(12) A plan to conform the boundaries of an existing special	20710
purpose district with the new township, to dissolve the special	20711
purpose district, or to absorb the special purpose district into	20712
the new township. As used in this division, "special purpose	20713
district" has the meaning in division (F) of section 523.08 of the	20714
Revised Code.	20715
(B) A copy of the joint resolution and the merger agreement	20716
adopted under this section shall be filed with the township fiscal	20717
officer of the new township. The merger agreement shall take	20718
effect on the day on which such filing is made.	20719
(C) If no merger agreement, or if only a partial merger	20720 agreement, is entered into within the time period prescribed by 20721 division (A) of this section, the new township shall comply with 20722 and operate under a merger agreement that contains the terms and 20723 conditions required by section 523.08 of the Revised Code. 20724

Sec. 523.07. (A) A new township created by merger under this 20725 chapter shall succeed to the following interests of each township 20726 merged: 20727

(1) All money, taxes, and special assessments, whether in the 20728 township treasury or in the process of collection; 20729

(2) All property and interests in property, whether real or 20730 personal; 20731

(3) All rights and interests in contracts, or in securities, 20732 bonds, notes, or other instruments; 20733

(4) All accounts receivable and rights of action; 20734

(5) All other matters not included in this section that are 20735 not addressed in the merger agreement. 20736

(B) A new township created by merger under this chapter is 20737 liable for all outstanding franchises, contracts, debts, and other 20738 legal claims, actions, and obligations of each township merged. 20739

Sec. 523.08. If a merger agreement is entered into as 20740 required by section 523.06 of the Revised Code, this section does 20741 not apply. If a merger agreement is not entered into under section 20742 523.05 of the Revised Code, the merger agreement shall contain all 20743 of the terms and conditions specified in this section. If a 20744 partial merger agreement is entered into under section 523.05 of 20745 the Revised Code, this section applies only to the extent any term 20746 or condition that is required by section 523.05 of the Revised 20747 Code to be addressed in the merger agreement is not addressed 20748 therein. 20749

The terms and conditions of a merger agreement to which this 20750 section applies shall be as follows: 20751

(A) All members of each board of township trustees shall 20752 serve as board members of the new township. At the first general 20753 election held after a merger is approved, the electors of the new 20754 township shall elect three township trustees for an even number of 20755 years not to exceed four, with staggered terms of office. 20756

(B) The township fiscal officer of the largest township, by 20757 population, shall be the township fiscal officer for the new 20758 township. At the second election held after the merger, the 20759 electors shall elect a township fiscal officer, whose first term 20760 of office shall be modified to an even number of years not to 20761 exceed four to allow subsequent elections for that office to be 20762 held in the same year as other township fiscal officers. 20763

(C) Voted property tax levies shall remain in effect for the 20764 parcels of real property to which they applied prior to the 20765 merger, and the merger shall not affect the proceeds of a tax levy 20766 pledged for the retirement of any debt obligation. Upon expiration 20767 of a property tax levy, the levy may only be replaced or renewed 20768 by vote of the electors in the manner provided by law, to apply to 20769 real property within the boundaries of the new township. If the 20770 millage levied inside the ten-mill limitation of each township 20771 merged is different, the board of township trustees of the new 20772 township shall immediately equalize the millage for the entire new 20773
township. 20774

(D) For purposes of the retirement of all debt obligations of 20775 each township merged, the township fiscal officer shall continue 20776 to track parcels of real property and the tax revenue generated on 20777 those parcels by the tax districts that were in place prior to the 20778 merger, and shall provide that information on an annual basis to 20779 the board of township trustees of the new township. Debt 20780 obligations that existed at the time of the merger shall be 20781 retired from the revenue generated from the parcels of real 20782 property that made up the township that incurred the debt before 20783

the merger. 20784

(E)(1) With respect to any agreement entered into under 20785
Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code that covers any of the employees 20786 of the townships merged under this chapter, the state employment 20787 relations board, within sixty days after the date the merger is 20788 approved, shall designate the appropriate bargaining units for the 20789 employees of the new township in accordance with section 4117.06 20790 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding the recognition procedures 20791 prescribed in section 4117.05 and division (A) of section 4117.07 20792 of the Revised Code, the board shall conduct a representation 20793 election with respect to each bargaining unit designated under 20794 this division in accordance with divisions (B) and (C) of section 20795 4117.07 of the Revised Code. If an exclusive representative is 20796 selected through this election, the exclusive representative shall 20797 negotiate and enter into an agreement with the new township in 20798 accordance with Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code. Until the 20799 parties reach an agreement, any agreement in effect on the date of 20800 the merger shall apply to the employees that were in the 20801 bargaining unit that is covered by the agreement. An agreement in 20802 existence on the date of the merger is terminated on the effective 20803 date of an agreement negotiated under this division. 20804

(2) If an exclusive representative is not selected, any 20805 agreement in effect on the date of the merger shall apply to the 20806 employees that were in the bargaining unit that is covered by the 20807 agreement and shall expire on its terms. 20808

(3) Each agreement entered into under Chapter 4117. of the 20809 Revised Code on or after the effective date of this section 20810 involving a new township shall contain a provision regarding the 20811 designation of an exclusive representative and bargaining units 20812 for the new township as described in division (E) of this section. 20813

20814
20816
20817
20818
20820

(5) As used in division (E) of this section, "employee organization" and "exclusive representative" have the same meanings as in section 4117.01 of the Revised Code.

20823

(F)(1) If the boundaries of the new township are coextensive with a special purpose district that existed at the time of the merger, the special purpose district shall be dissolved into the new township. If the boundaries of the new township are not coextensive with a special purpose district, the new township shall remain in the existing special purpose district as a successor to the original township, unless the special purpose district is dissolved. The board of township trustees of the new township may place a question on the ballot at the next general election held after the merger to conform the boundaries, dissolve the special purpose district, or absorb the special purpose district into the new township on the terms specified in the resolution that places the question on the ballot for approval of the electors of the new township.

corporation. Such publication shall be made in the body type of 20855 the paper under headlines in eighteen point type, which headlines 20856 shall specify the nature of such legislation. ~~If a summary of an~~ 20857 ~~ordinance or resolution is published, the~~ The publication shall 20858 contain notice that the complete text of each such ordinance or 20859 resolution may be obtained or viewed at the office of the clerk of 20860
the legislative authority of the municipal corporation and may be 20861 viewed at any other location designated by the legislative 20862 authority of the municipal corporation. The city director of law, 20863 village solicitor, or other chief legal officer of the municipal 20864 corporation shall review ~~any~~ the summary of an ordinance or 20865
resolution published under this section prior to forwarding it to 20866
the clerk for publication, to ensure that the summary is legally 20867 accurate and sufficient. 20868

(C) Upon publication of a summary of an ordinance or 20869
resolution in accordance with this section, the clerk of the 20870 legislative authority shall supply a copy of the complete text of 20871 each such ordinance or resolution to any person, upon request, and 20872 may charge a reasonable fee, set by the legislative authority, for 20873 each copy supplied. The clerk shall post a copy of the text at ~~his~~ 20874
the clerk's office and at every other location designated by the 20875 legislative authority. 20876

(D) No newspaper shall be paid a higher price for the 20877 publication of summaries of ordinances than its ~~maximum bona fide~~ 20878 ~~commercial~~ government rate established under section 7.10 of the 20879
Revised Code. 20880

Sec. 711.35. Upon the filing of the application provided for 20881 in section 711.34 of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall 20882 give notice of the filing, by publication, for two consecutive 20883 weeks in a newspaper ~~published and~~ of general circulation in the 20884 county, ~~of the filing thereof, and~~ or as provided in section 7.16 20885 of the Revised Code. The county auditor shall also notify the 20886 board of county commissioners of such filing. 20887

Sec. 715.011. Each municipal corporation may lease for a 20888 period not to exceed forty years, pursuant to a contract providing 20889 for the construction thereof under a lease-purchase plan, 20890 buildings, structures, and other improvements for any authorized 20891 municipal purpose, and in conjunction therewith, may grant leases, 20892 easements, or licenses for lands under the control of the 20893 municipal corporation for a period not to exceed forty years. The 20894 lease shall provide that at the end of the lease period the 20895 buildings, structures, and related improvements together with the 20896 land on which they are situate shall become the property of the 20897 municipal corporation without cost. 20898

Whenever any building, structure, or other improvement is to 20899 be so leased by a municipal corporation, the appropriate 20900 contracting officer of the municipal corporation shall file with 20901 the clerk of the council such basic plans, specifications, bills 20902 of materials, and estimates of cost with sufficient detail to 20903 afford bidders all needed information, or alternatively, shall 20904 file the following plans, details, bills of materials, and 20905 specifications: 20906

(A) Full and accurate plans, suitable for the use of mechanics and other builders in such construction, addition, alteration, or installation;

(B) Details to scale and full sized, so drawn and represented as to be easily understood;

(C) Accurate bills showing the exact quantity of different kinds of material necessary to the construction;

(D) Definite and complete specifications of the work to be performed, together with such directions as will enable a competent mechanic or other builder to carry them out and afford bidders all needed information;

(E) A full and accurate estimate of each item of expense and of the aggregate cost thereof.

The council of the municipal corporation shall give public notice, in ~~the~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation, and in the form and with the phraseology as the council orders, published once each week for four consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, of the time and place, when and where bids will be received for entering into an agreement to lease to the municipal corporation a building, structure, or other improvement, the last publication to be at least eight days preceding the day for opening the bids. The bids shall contain the terms upon which the builder would propose to lease the building, structure, or other improvement to the municipal corporation. The form of the bid approved by the council of the municipal corporation shall be used and a bid shall be invalid and not considered unless such form is used without change, alteration, or addition. Before submitting bids pursuant to this section, any builder shall have complied with sections 153.50 to 153.52 of the Revised Code.

On the day and at the place named for receiving bids for entering into lease agreements with the municipal corporation, the 20938 appropriate contracting officer of the municipal corporation shall 20939 open the bids, and shall publicly proceed immediately to tabulate 20940 the bids upon triplicate sheets, one of each of which sheets shall 20941 be filed with the clerk of the council. No lease agreement shall 20942 be entered into until the bureau of workers' compensation has 20943 certified that the corporation, partnership, or person to be 20944 awarded the lease agreement has complied with Chapter 4123. of the 20945 Revised Code, and until, if the builder submitting the lowest and 20946 best bid is a foreign corporation, the secretary of state has 20947 certified that the corporation is authorized to do business in 20948 this state, and until, if the builder submitting the lowest and 20949 best bid is a person or partnership nonresident of this state, the 20950 person or partnership has filed with the secretary of state a 20951 power of attorney designating the secretary of state as its agent 20952 for the purpose of accepting service of summons in any action 20953 brought under Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, and until the 20954 agreement is submitted to the village solicitor or city director 20955 of law of the municipal corporation and ~~his~~ the solicitor's or 20956 director's approval is certified thereon. Within thirty days after 20957 the day on which the bids are received, the council shall 20958 investigate the bids received and shall determine that the bureau 20959 and the secretary of state have made the certifications required 20960 by this section of the builder who has submitted the lowest and 20961 best bid. Within ten days of the completion of the investigation 20962 of the bids the council may award the lease agreement to the 20963 builder who has submitted the lowest and best bid and who has been 20964 certified by the bureau and secretary of state as required by this 20965 section. If bidding for the lease agreement has been conducted 20966 upon the basis of basic plans, specifications, bills of materials, 20967 and estimates of costs, upon the award to the builder, the 20968 council, or the builder with the approval of the council, shall 20969 appoint an architect or engineer licensed in this state to prepare 20970 such further detailed plans, specifications, and bills of 20971 materials as are required to construct the building, structure, or 20972 improvement. 20973

The council may reject any bid. Where there is reason to 20974 believe there is collusion or combination among bidders, the bids 20975 of those concerned therein shall be rejected. 20976

Sec. 715.47. A municipal corporation may fill or drain any 20977 lot or land within its limits on which water at any time becomes 20978 stagnant, remove all putrid substances from any lot, and remove 20979 all obstructions from culverts, covered drains, or private 20980 property, laid in any natural watercourse, creek, brook, or 20981 branch, which obstruct the water naturally flowing therein, 20982 causing it to flow back or become stagnant, in a way prejudicial 20983 to the health, comfort, or convenience of any of the citizens of 20984 the neighborhood. If such culverts or drains are of insufficient 20985 capacity, the municipal corporation may make them of such capacity 20986 as reasonably to accommodate the flow of such water at all times. 20987
The legislative authority of such municipal corporation may, by 20988 resolution, direct the owner to fill or drain such lot, remove 20989 such putrid substance or such obstructions, and if necessary, 20990 enlarge such culverts or covered drains to meet the requirements 20991
thereof. 20992

After service of a copy of such resolution, or after a 20993 publication thereof, in a newspaper of general circulation in such 20994 municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 20995 Revised Code, for two consecutive weeks, such owner, or ~~his~~ such 20996 owner's agent or attorney, shall comply with the directions of the 20997 resolution within the time therein specified. 20998

In case of the failure or refusal of such owner to comply 20999 with the resolution, the work required thereby may be done at the 21000 expense of the municipal corporation, and the amount of money so 21001 expended shall be recovered from the owner before any court of 21002 competent jurisdiction. Such expense from the time of the adoption 21003 of the resolution shall be a lien on such lot, which may be 21004 enforced by suit in the court of common pleas, and like 21005 proceedings may be had as directed in relation to the improvement 21006 of streets. 21007

The officers connected with the health department of every 21008 such municipal corporation shall see that this section is strictly 21009 and promptly enforced. 21010

Sec. 717.08. The largest municipal corporation located in the 21011 Southwestern portion of the state that has a retirement system for 21012 its employees may enter into an agreement with the board of 21013 trustees of the retirement system for a single payment by the 21014 municipal corporation of all or a portion of the municipal 21015 corporation's accrued liability to the retirement system. The 21016 agreement may provide for a reduction in the amount of the accrued 21017 liability based on the value to the retirement system of receiving 21018 a single payment. 21019

The legislative authority of the municipal corporation may 21020 issue securities under Section 3 of Article XVIII, Ohio 21021 Constitution, or under Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, including 21022 Chapter 133. special obligation securities that pledge taxes, 21023 other than ad valorem property taxes, or other revenues for the 21024 purpose of providing some or all of the funds required to satisfy 21025 the municipal corporation's obligation under the agreement. 21026

Sec. 718.01. (A) As used in this chapter: 21027

(1) "Adjusted federal taxable income" means a C corporation's 21028 federal taxable income before net operating losses and special 21029 deductions as determined under the Internal Revenue Code, adjusted 21030
as follows: 21031

(a) Deduct intangible income to the extent included in 21032 federal taxable income. The deduction shall be allowed regardless 21033 of whether the intangible income relates to assets used in a trade 21034 or business or assets held for the production of income. 21035

(b) Add an amount equal to five per cent of intangible income 21036 deducted under division (A)(1)(a) of this section, but excluding 21037 that portion of intangible income directly related to the sale, 21038 exchange, or other disposition of property described in section 21039 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code; 21040

(c) Add any losses allowed as a deduction in the computation 21041 of federal taxable income if the losses directly relate to the 21042 sale, exchange, or other disposition of an asset described in 21043 section 1221 or 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code; 21044

(d)(i) Except as provided in division (A)(1)(d)(ii) of this 21045 section, deduct income and gain included in federal taxable income 21046 to the extent the income and gain directly relate to the sale, 21047 exchange, or other disposition of an asset described in section 21048 1221 or 1231 of the Internal Revenue Code; 21049

(ii) Division (A)(1)(d)(i) of this section does not apply to 21050 the extent the income or gain is income or gain described in 21051
section 1245 or 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code. 21052

(e) Add taxes on or measured by net income allowed as a 21053 deduction in the computation of federal taxable income; 21054

(f) In the case of a real estate investment trust and 21055 regulated investment company, add all amounts with respect to 21056 dividends to, distributions to, or amounts set aside for or 21057 credited to the benefit of investors and allowed as a deduction in 21058 the computation of federal taxable income; 21059

(g) ~~If~~ Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or 21060 excluded in computing federal taxable income, any income derived 21061 from providing public services under a contract through a project 21062 owned by the state, as described in section 126.604 of the Revised Code or derived from a contract entered into under section 9.06 of the Revised Code and described in division (J) of that section, or derived from a transfer agreement or from the enterprise transferred under that agreement under section 4313.02 of the Revised Code.

If the taxpayer is not a C corporation and is not an individual, the taxpayer shall compute adjusted federal taxable income as if the taxpayer were a C corporation, except+ guaranteed

~~(i) Guaranteed~~ payments and other similar amounts paid or accrued to a partner, former partner, member, or former member shall not be allowed as a deductible expense; ~~and~~ amounts

Nothing in division (A)(1) of this section shall be construed as allowing the taxpayer to add or deduct any amount more than once or shall be construed as allowing any taxpayer to deduct any amount paid to or accrued for purposes of federal self-employment tax.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as limiting or removing the ability of any municipal corporation to administer, audit, and enforce the provisions of its municipal income tax.

(2) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C. 1, as amended.

(3) "Schedule C" means internal revenue service schedule C filed by a taxpayer pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.

any lottery winnings or other similar games of chance. 21105
- (6) "S corporation" means a corporation that has made an 21106 election under subchapter S of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the 21107 Internal Revenue Code for its taxable year. 21108
- (7) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, 21109
"net profit" for a taxpayer other than an individual means 21110 adjusted federal taxable income and "net profit" for a taxpayer 21111 who is an individual means the individual's profit required to be 21112 reported on schedule C, schedule E, or schedule F, other than any 21113 amount allowed as a deduction under division (E)(2) or (3) of this 21114 section or amounts described in division (H) of this section. 21115
- (8) "Taxpayer" means a person subject to a tax on income 21116 levied by a municipal corporation. Except as provided in division 21117 (L) of this section, "taxpayer" does not include any person that 21118 is a disregarded entity or a qualifying subchapter S subsidiary 21119 for federal income tax purposes, but "taxpayer" includes any other 21120 person who owns the disregarded entity or qualifying subchapter S 21121 subsidiary. 21122
- (9) "Taxable year" means the corresponding tax reporting 21123

period as prescribed for the taxpayer under the Internal Revenue Code.	21124 21125

(B) No municipal corporation shall tax income at other than a uniform rate.	21147 21148
(C) No municipal corporation shall levy a tax on income at a rate in excess of one per cent without having obtained the approval of the excess by a majority of the electors of the municipality voting on the question at a general, primary, or special election. The legislative authority of the municipal	21149 21150 21151 21152 21153 corporation shall file with the board of elections at least ninety 21154 days before the day of the election a copy of the ordinance 21155 together with a resolution specifying the date the election is to 21156 be held and directing the board of elections to conduct the 21157 election. The ballot shall be in the following form: "Shall the 21158 Ordinance providing for a ... per cent levy on income for (Brief 21159 description of the purpose of the proposed levy) be passed? 21160

	FOR THE INCOME TAX
	AGAINST THE INCOME TAX	"

21161
 21163
 21164

In the event of an affirmative vote, the proceeds of the levy 21165 may be used only for the specified purpose. 21166

(D)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no 21167 municipal corporation shall exempt from a tax on income 21168 compensation for personal services of individuals over eighteen 21169 years of age or the net profit from a business or profession. 21170

(2)(a) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 21171
 2004, no municipal corporation shall tax the net profit from a 21172 business or profession using any base other than the taxpayer's 21173 adjusted federal taxable income. 21174

(b) Division (D)(2)(a) of this section does not apply to any 21175 taxpayer required to file a return under section 5745.03 of the 21176 Revised Code or to the net profit from a sole proprietorship. 21177

(E)(1) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation 21178 may, by ordinance or resolution, exempt from withholding and from 21179 a tax on income the following: 21180

(a) Compensation arising from the sale, exchange, or other 21181 disposition of a stock option, the exercise of a stock option, or 21182 the sale, exchange, or other disposition of stock purchased under 21183

a stock option; or	21184
(b) Compensation attributable to a nonqualified deferred	21185 compensation plan or program described in section 3121(v)(2)(C) of	21186
the Internal Revenue Code.	21187
(2) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation may	21188 adopt an ordinance or resolution that allows a taxpayer who is an	21189 individual to deduct, in computing the taxpayer's municipal income	21190 tax liability, an amount equal to the aggregate amount the	21191 taxpayer paid in cash during the taxable year to a health savings	21192 account of the taxpayer, to the extent the taxpayer is entitled to	21193 deduct that amount on internal revenue service form 1040.	21194
(3) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation may	21195 adopt an ordinance or resolution that allows a taxpayer who has a	21196
net profit from a business or profession that is operated as a	21197 sole proprietorship to deduct from that net profit the amount that	21198
the taxpayer paid during the taxable year for medical care	21199 insurance premiums for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and	21200 dependents as defined in section 5747.01 of the Revised Code. The	21201 deduction shall be allowed to the same extent the taxpayer is	21202 entitled to deduct the premiums on internal revenue service form	21203
1040. The deduction allowed under this division shall be net of	21204 any related premium refunds, related premium reimbursements, or	21205 related insurance premium dividends received by the taxpayer	21206 during the taxable year.	21207
(F) If an individual's taxable income includes income against	21208 which the taxpayer has taken a deduction for federal income tax	21209 purposes as reportable on the taxpayer's form 2106, and against	21210 which a like deduction has not been allowed by the municipal	21211 corporation, the municipal corporation shall deduct from the	21212 taxpayer's taxable income an amount equal to the deduction shown	21213 on such form allowable against such income, to the extent not	21214 otherwise so allowed as a deduction by the municipal corporation.	21215

(G)(1) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net profit from a 21216 business or profession that is operated as a sole proprietorship, 21217 no municipal corporation may tax or use as the base for 21218 determining the amount of the net profit that shall be considered 21219 as having a taxable situs in the municipal corporation, an amount 21220 other than the net profit required to be reported by the taxpayer 21221 on schedule C or F from such sole proprietorship for the taxable 21222
year. 21223

(2) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net profit from 21224 rental activity required to be reported on schedule E, no 21225 municipal corporation may tax or use as the base for determining 21226 the amount of the net profit that shall be considered as having a 21227 taxable situs in the municipal corporation, an amount other than 21228 the net profit from rental activities required to be reported by 21229 the taxpayer on schedule E for the taxable year. 21230

(H) A municipal corporation shall not tax any of the 21231
following: 21232

(1) The military pay or allowances of members of the armed 21233 forces of the United States and of members of their reserve 21234 components, including the Ohio national guard; 21235

(2) The income of religious, fraternal, charitable, 21236 scientific, literary, or educational institutions to the extent 21237 that such income is derived from tax-exempt real estate, 21238 tax-exempt tangible or intangible property, or tax-exempt 21239
activities; 21240

(3) Except as otherwise provided in division (I) of this 21241 section, intangible income; 21242

(4) Compensation paid under section 3501.28 or 3501.36 of the 21243 Revised Code to a person serving as a precinct election official, 21244 to the extent that such compensation does not exceed one thousand 21245 dollars annually. Such compensation in excess of one thousand 21246 dollars may be subjected to taxation by a municipal corporation. A 21247 municipal corporation shall not require the payer of such 21248 compensation to withhold any tax from that compensation. 21249

(5) Compensation paid to an employee of a transit authority, 21250 regional transit authority, or regional transit commission created 21251 under Chapter 306. of the Revised Code for operating a transit bus 21252 or other motor vehicle for the authority or commission in or 21253 through the municipal corporation, unless the bus or vehicle is 21254 operated on a regularly scheduled route, the operator is subject 21255 to such a tax by reason of residence or domicile in the municipal 21256 corporation, or the headquarters of the authority or commission is 21257 located within the municipal corporation; 21258

(6) The income of a public utility, when that public utility 21259 is subject to the tax levied under section 5727.24 or 5727.30 of 21260 the Revised Code, except a municipal corporation may tax the 21261 following, subject to Chapter 5745. of the Revised Code: 21262

(a) Beginning January 1, 2002, the income of an electric 21263 company or combined company; 21264

(b) Beginning January 1, 2004, the income of a telephone 21265 company. 21266

As used in division (H)(6) of this section, "combined 21267 company," "electric company," and "telephone company" have the 21268 same meanings as in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code. 21269

(7) On and after January 1, 2003, items excluded from federal 21270 gross income pursuant to section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code; 21271

(8) On and after January 1, 2001, compensation paid to a 21272 nonresident individual to the extent prohibited under section 21273

(9)(a) Except as provided in division (H)(9)(b) and (c) of 21275 this section, an S corporation shareholder's distributive share of 21276

net profits of the S corporation, other than any part of the 21277 distributive share of net profits that represents wages as defined 21278 in section 3121(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or net earnings 21279 from self-employment as defined in section 1402(a) of the Internal 21280 Revenue Code. 21281

(b) If, pursuant to division (H) of former section 718.01 of 21282 the Revised Code as it existed before March 11, 2004, a majority 21283 of the electors of a municipal corporation voted in favor of the 21284 question at an election held on November 4, 2003, the municipal 21285 corporation may continue after 2002 to tax an S corporation 21286 shareholder's distributive share of net profits of an S 21287
corporation. 21288

(c) If, on December 6, 2002, a municipal corporation was 21289 imposing, assessing, and collecting a tax on an S corporation 21290 shareholder's distributive share of net profits of the S 21291 corporation to the extent the distributive share would be 21292 allocated or apportioned to this state under divisions (B)(1) and 21293 (2) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code if the S corporation 21294 were a corporation subject to taxes imposed under Chapter 5733. of 21295 the Revised Code, the municipal corporation may continue to impose 21296 the tax on such distributive shares to the extent such shares 21297 would be so allocated or apportioned to this state only until 21298 December 31, 2004, unless a majority of the electors of the 21299 municipal corporation voting on the question of continuing to tax 21300 such shares after that date vote in favor of that question at an 21301 election held November 2, 2004. If a majority of those electors 21302 vote in favor of the question, the municipal corporation may 21303 continue after December 31, 2004, to impose the tax on such 21304 distributive shares only to the extent such shares would be so 21305 allocated or apportioned to this state. 21306

(d) For the purposes of division (D) of section 718.14 of the 21307 Revised Code, a municipal corporation shall be deemed to have 21308 elected to tax S corporation shareholders' distributive shares of 21309 net profits of the S corporation in the hands of the shareholders 21310 if a majority of the electors of a municipal corporation vote in 21311 favor of a question at an election held under division (H)(9)(b) 21312 or (c) of this section. The municipal corporation shall specify by 21313 ordinance or rule that the tax applies to the distributive share 21314 of a shareholder of an S corporation in the hands of the 21315 shareholder of the S corporation. 21316

(10) Employee compensation that is not "qualifying wages" as 21317
defined in section 718.03 of the Revised Code; 21318

(11) Beginning August 1, 2007, compensation paid to a person 21319 employed within the boundaries of a United States air force base 21320 under the jurisdiction of the United States air force that is used 21321 for the housing of members of the United States air force and is a 21322 center for air force operations, unless the person is subject to 21323 taxation because of residence or domicile. If the compensation is 21324 subject to taxation because of residence or domicile, municipal 21325 income tax shall be payable only to the municipal corporation of 21326 residence or domicile. 21327

(I) Any municipal corporation that taxes any type of 21328 intangible income on March 29, 1988, pursuant to Section 3 of 21329 Amended Substitute Senate Bill No. 238 of the 116th general 21330 assembly, may continue to tax that type of income after 1988 if a 21331 majority of the electors of the municipal corporation voting on 21332 the question of whether to permit the taxation of that type of 21333 intangible income after 1988 vote in favor thereof at an election 21334 held on November 8, 1988. 21335

(J) Nothing in this section or section 718.02 of the Revised 21336
Code shall authorize the levy of any tax on income that a 21337 municipal corporation is not authorized to levy under existing 21338 laws or shall require a municipal corporation to allow a deduction 21339 from taxable income for losses incurred from a sole proprietorship 21340 or partnership. 21341

(K)(1) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a municipal 21342 corporation from allowing, by resolution or ordinance, a net 21343 operating loss carryforward. 21344

(2) Nothing in this chapter requires a municipal corporation 21345 to allow a net operating loss carryforward. 21346

(L)(1) A single member limited liability company that is a 21347 disregarded entity for federal tax purposes may elect to be a 21348 separate taxpayer from its single member in all Ohio municipal 21349 corporations in which it either filed as a separate taxpayer or 21350 did not file for its taxable year ending in 2003, if all of the 21351 following conditions are met: 21352

(a) The limited liability company's single member is also a 21353 limited liability company; 21354

(b) The limited liability company and its single member were 21355 formed and doing business in one or more Ohio municipal 21356 corporations for at least five years before January 1, 2004; 21357

(c) Not later than December 31, 2004, the limited liability 21358 company and its single member each make an election to be treated 21359 as a separate taxpayer under division (L) of this section; 21360

(d) The limited liability company was not formed for the 21361 purpose of evading or reducing Ohio municipal corporation income 21362 tax liability of the limited liability company or its single 21363 member; 21364

(e) The Ohio municipal corporation that is the primary place 21365 of business of the sole member of the limited liability company 21366 consents to the election. 21367

(2) For purposes of division (L)(1)(e) of this section, a 21368 municipal corporation is the primary place of business of a 21369 limited liability company if, for the limited liability company's 21370 taxable year ending in 2003, its income tax liability is greater 21371 in that municipal corporation than in any other municipal 21372 corporation in Ohio, and that tax liability to that municipal 21373 corporation for its taxable year ending in 2003 is at least four 21374

hundred thousand dollars. 21375

Sec. 718.09. (A) This section applies to either of the 21376
following: 21377

(1) A municipal corporation that shares the same territory as 21378
a city, local, or exempted village school district, to the extent 21379 that not more than five per cent of the territory of the municipal 21380 corporation is located outside the school district and not more 21381 than five per cent of the territory of the school district is 21382 located outside the municipal corporation; 21383

(2) A municipal corporation that shares the same territory as 21384
a city, local, or exempted village school district, to the extent 21385 that not more than five per cent of the territory of the municipal 21386 corporation is located outside the school district, more than five 21387 per cent but not more than ten per cent of the territory of the 21388 school district is located outside the municipal corporation, and 21389 that portion of the territory of the school district that is 21390 located outside the municipal corporation is located entirely 21391 within another municipal corporation having a population of four 21392 hundred thousand or more according to the federal decennial census 21393 most recently completed before the agreement is entered into under 21394
division (B) of this section. 21395

(B) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation to 21396 which this section applies may propose to the electors an income 21397 tax, one of the purposes of which shall be to provide financial 21398 assistance to the school district through payment to the district 21399 of not less than twenty-five per cent of the revenue generated by 21400 the tax, except that the legislative authority may not propose to 21401

levy the income tax on the incomes of nonresident individuals. 21402 Prior to proposing the tax, the legislative authority shall 21403 negotiate and enter into a written agreement with the board of 21404 education of the school district specifying the tax rate, the 21405 percentage of tax revenue to be paid to the school district, the 21406 purpose for which the school district will use the money, the 21407 first year the tax will be levied, the date of the special 21408 election on the question of the tax, and the method and schedule 21409 by which the municipal corporation will make payments to the 21410 school district. The special election shall be held on a day 21411 specified in division (D) of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, 21412 except that the special election may not be held on the day for 21413 holding a primary election as authorized by the municipal 21414 corporation's charter unless the municipal corporation is to have 21415 a primary election on that day. 21416

After the legislative authority and board of education have 21417 entered into the agreement, the legislative authority shall 21418 provide for levying the tax by ordinance. The ordinance shall 21419 state the tax rate, the percentage of tax revenue to be paid to 21420 the school district, the purpose for which the municipal 21421 corporation will use its share of the tax revenue, the first year 21422 the tax will be levied, and that the question of the income tax 21423 will be submitted to the electors of the municipal corporation. 21424
The legislative authority also shall adopt a resolution specifying 21425 the regular or special election date the election will be held and 21426 directing the board of elections to conduct the election. At least 21427 ninety days before the date of the election, the legislative 21428 authority shall file certified copies of the ordinance and 21429 resolution with the board of elections. 21430

(C) The board of elections shall make the necessary 21431 arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of 21432 the municipal corporation, and shall conduct the election in the 21433 same manner as any other municipal income tax election. Notice of 21434 the election shall be published in a newspaper of general 21435 circulation in the municipal corporation once a week for four 21436 consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 21437 Code, prior to the election, and shall include statements of the 21438 rate and municipal corporation and school district purposes of the 21439 income tax, the percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the 21440 school district, and the first year the tax will be levied. The 21441 ballot shall be in the following form: 21442

"Shall the ordinance providing for a per cent levy on 21443 income for (brief description of the municipal corporation and 21444 school district purposes of the levy, including a statement of the 21445 percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the school 21446 district) be passed? The income tax, if approved, will not be 21447 levied on the incomes of individuals who do not reside in (the 21448 name of the municipal corporation). 21449

	For the income tax

21452
21453

(D) If the question is approved by a majority of the 21454 electors, the municipal corporation shall impose the income tax 21455 beginning in the year specified in the ordinance. The proceeds of 21456 the levy may be used only for the specified purposes, including 21457 payment of the specified percentage to the school district. 21458

Sec. 718.10. (A) This section applies to a group of two or 21459 more municipal corporations that, taken together, share the same 21460 territory as a single city, local, or exempted village school 21461 district, to the extent that not more than five per cent of the 21462 territory of the municipal corporations as a group is located 21463 outside the school district and not more than five per cent of the 21464 territory of the school district is located outside the municipal 21465 corporations as a group. 21466

(B) The legislative authorities of the municipal corporations 21467 in a group of municipal corporations to which this section applies 21468 each may propose to the electors an income tax, to be levied in 21469 concert with income taxes in the other municipal corporations of 21470 the group, except that a legislative authority may not propose to 21471 levy the income tax on the incomes of individuals who do not 21472 reside in the municipal corporation. One of the purposes of such a 21473 tax shall be to provide financial assistance to the school 21474 district through payment to the district of not less than 21475 twenty-five per cent of the revenue generated by the tax. Prior to 21476 proposing the taxes, the legislative authorities shall negotiate 21477 and enter into a written agreement with each other and with the 21478 board of education of the school district specifying the tax rate, 21479 the percentage of the tax revenue to be paid to the school 21480 district, the first year the tax will be levied, and the date of 21481 the election on the question of the tax, all of which shall be the 21482 same for each municipal corporation. The agreement also shall 21483 state the purpose for which the school district will use the 21484 money, and specify the method and schedule by which each municipal 21485 corporation will make payments to the school district. The special 21486 election shall be held on a day specified in division (D) of 21487 section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, including a day on which all 21488 of the municipal corporations are to have a primary election. 21489

After the legislative authorities and board of education have 21490 entered into the agreement, each legislative authority shall 21491 provide for levying its tax by ordinance. Each ordinance shall 21492 state the rate of the tax, the percentage of tax revenue to be 21493 paid to the school district, the purpose for which the municipal 21494 corporation will use its share of the tax revenue, and the first 21495 year the tax will be levied. Each ordinance also shall state that 21496

the question of the income tax will be submitted to the electors 21497 of the municipal corporation on the same date as the submission of 21498 questions of an identical tax to the electors of each of the other 21499 municipal corporations in the group, and that unless the electors 21500 of all of the municipal corporations in the group approve the tax 21501 in their respective municipal corporations, none of the municipal 21502 corporations in the group shall levy the tax. Each legislative 21503 authority also shall adopt a resolution specifying the regular or 21504 special election date the election will be held and directing the 21505 board of elections to conduct the election. At least ninety days 21506 before the date of the election, each legislative authority shall 21507 file certified copies of the ordinance and resolution with the 21508
board of elections. 21509

(C) For each of the municipal corporations, the board of 21510 elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission 21511 of the question to the electors, and shall conduct the election in 21512 the same manner as any other municipal income tax election. For 21513 each of the municipal corporations, notice of the election shall 21514 be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21515 municipal corporation once a week for four consecutive weeks, or 21516 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the 21517 election. The notice shall include a statement of the rate and 21518 municipal corporation and school district purposes of the income 21519 tax, the percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the school 21520 district, and the first year the tax will be levied, and an 21521 explanation that the tax will not be levied unless an identical 21522 tax is approved by the electors of each of the other municipal 21523 corporations in the group. The ballot shall be in the following 21524 form: 21525

"Shall the ordinance providing for a ... per cent levy on 21526

percentage of income tax revenue that will be paid to the school district) be passed? The income tax, if approved, will not be levied on the incomes of individuals who do not reside in (the name of the municipal corporation). In order for the income tax to be levied, the voters of (the other municipal corporations in the group), which are also in the (name of the school district) school district, must approve an identical income tax and agree to pay the same percentage of the tax revenue to the school district.

	For the income tax

(D) If the question is approved by a majority of the electors and identical taxes are approved by a majority of the electors in each of the other municipal corporations in the group, the municipal corporation shall impose the tax beginning in the year specified in the ordinance. The proceeds of the levy may be used only for the specified purposes, including payment of the specified percentage to the school district.

Sec. 719.012. In order to rehabilitate a building or structure that a municipal corporation determines to be a blighted property as defined in section 1.08 of the Revised Code, a municipal corporation may appropriate, in the manner provided in sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code, any such building or structure and the real property of which it is a part. The municipal corporation shall rehabilitate the building or structure or cause it to be rehabilitated within two years after the appropriation, so that the building or structure is no longer a public nuisance, insecure, unsafe, structurally defective, unhealthful, or unsanitary, or a threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, or in violation of a building code or ordinance adopted under section 731.231 of the Revised Code. Any 21560 building or structure appropriated pursuant to this section which 21561 is not rehabilitated within two years shall be demolished. 21562

If during the rehabilitation process the municipal 21563 corporation retains title to the building or structure and the 21564 real property of which it is a part, then within one hundred 21565 eighty days after the rehabilitation is complete, the municipal 21566 corporation shall appraise the rehabilitated building or structure 21567 and the real property of which it is a part, and shall sell the 21568 building or structure and property at public auction. The 21569 municipal corporation shall advertise the public auction in a 21570 newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation once 21571 a week for three consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 21572 of the Revised Code, prior to the date of sale. The municipal 21573 corporation shall sell the building or structure and real property 21574 to the highest and best bidder. No property that a municipal 21575 corporation acquires pursuant to this section shall be leased. 21576

Sec. 719.05. The mayor of a municipal corporation shall, 21577 immediately upon the passage of a resolution under section 719.04 21578 of the Revised Code, declaring an intent to appropriate property, 21579 for which but one reading is necessary, cause written notice to be 21580 given to the owner of, person in possession of, or person having 21581 an interest of record in, every piece of property sought to be 21582 appropriated, or to ~~his~~ the authorized agent of the owner or other 21583 such person. Such notice shall be served by a person designated 21584 for the purpose and return made in the manner provided for the 21585 service and return of summons in civil actions. If such owner, 21586 person, or agent cannot be found, notice shall be given by 21587 publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper 21588 of general circulation in the municipal corporation or as provided 21589 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and the legislative authority 21590 may thereupon pass an ordinance by a two-thirds vote of all 21591 members elected thereto, directing such appropriation to proceed. 21592

Sec. 721.03. No contract, except as provided in section 21593 721.28 of the Revised Code, for the sale or lease of real estate 21594 belonging to a municipal corporation shall be made unless 21595 authorized by an ordinance, approved by a two-thirds vote of the 21596 members of the legislative authority of such municipal 21597 corporation, and by the board or officer having supervision or 21598 management of such real estate. When the contract is so 21599 authorized, it shall be made in writing by such board or officer, 21600 and, except as provided in section 721.27 of the Revised Code, 21601 only with the highest bidder, after advertisement once a week for 21602 five consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation 21603 within the municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of 21604 the Revised Code. Such board or officer may reject any bids and 21605 readvertise until all such real estate is sold or leased. 21606

Sec. 721.15. (A) Personal property not needed for municipal 21607 purposes, the estimated value of which is less than one thousand 21608 dollars, may be sold by the board or officer having supervision or 21609 management of that property. If the estimated value of that 21610 property is one thousand dollars or more, it shall be sold only 21611 when authorized by an ordinance of the legislative authority of 21612 the municipal corporation and approved by the board, officer, or 21613 director having supervision or management of that property. When 21614 so authorized, the board, officer, or director shall make a 21615 written contract with the highest and best bidder after 21616 advertisement for not less than two ~~or~~ nor more than four 21617 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the 21618 municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 21619 Revised Code, or with a board of county commissioners upon such 21620 lawful terms as are agreed upon, as provided by division (B)(1) of 21621
section 721.27 of the Revised Code. 21622

(B) When the legislative authority finds, by resolution, that 21623 the municipal corporation has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 21624 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 21625 that the municipal corporation has need of other vehicles, 21626 equipment, or machinery of the same type, and that it will be in 21627 the best interest of the municipal corporation that the sale of 21628 obsolete, unneeded, or unfit vehicles, equipment, or machinery be 21629 made simultaneously with the purchase of the new vehicles, 21630 equipment, or machinery of the same type, the legislative 21631 authority may offer to sell, or authorize a board, officer, or 21632 director of the municipal corporation having supervision or 21633 management of the property to offer to sell, those vehicles, 21634 equipment, or machinery and to have the selling price credited 21635 against the purchase price of other vehicles, equipment, or 21636 machinery and to consummate the sale and purchase by a single 21637 contract with the lowest and best bidder to be determined by 21638 subtracting from the selling price of the vehicles, equipment, or 21639 machinery to be purchased by the municipal corporation the 21640 purchase price offered for the municipally-owned vehicles, 21641 equipment, or machinery. When the legislative authority or the 21642 authorized board, officer, or director of a municipal corporation 21643 advertises for bids for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or 21644 machinery to the municipal corporation, they may include in the 21645 same advertisement a notice of willingness to accept bids for the 21646 purchase of municipally-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery 21647
and to have the amount of those bids subtracted from the selling 21649 price as a means of determining the lowest and best bidder. 21650

(C) If the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 21651 determines that municipal personal property is not needed for 21652 public use, or is obsolete or unfit for the use for which it was 21653 acquired, and that the property has no value, the legislative 21654 authority may discard or salvage that property. 21655

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A) 21656 or (B) of this section and regardless of the property's value, the 21657 legislative authority of a municipal corporation may sell personal 21658 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of 21659 municipal officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, 21660 tools, or supplies, which is not needed for public use, or is 21661 obsolete or unfit for the use for which it was acquired, by 21662 internet auction. The legislative authority shall adopt, during 21663 each calendar year, a resolution expressing its intent to sell 21664 that property by internet auction. The resolution shall include a 21665 description of how the auctions will be conducted and shall 21666 specify the number of days for bidding on the property, which 21667 shall be no less than ten days, including Saturdays, Sundays, and 21668 legal holidays. The resolution shall indicate whether the 21669 municipal corporation will conduct the auction or the legislative 21670 authority will contract with a representative to conduct the 21671 auction and shall establish the general terms and conditions of 21672 sale. If a representative is known when the resolution is adopted, 21673 the resolution shall provide contact information such as the 21674
representative's name, address, and telephone number. 21675

After adoption of the resolution, the legislative authority 21676 shall publish, in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21677
municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 21678 Revised Code, notice of its intent to sell unneeded, obsolete, or 21679 unfit municipal personal property by internet auction. The notice 21680 shall include a summary of the information provided in the 21681 resolution and shall be published ~~at least~~ twice. The second ~~and~~ 21682 ~~any subsequent~~ notice shall be published not less than ten nor 21683 more than twenty days after the previous notice. A similar notice 21684 also shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year in a 21685 conspicuous place in the offices of the village clerk or city 21686 auditor, and the legislative authority, ~~and, if.~~ If the municipal 21687 corporation maintains a ~~website~~ web site on the internet, the 21688 notice shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year at 21689 that ~~website~~ web site. 21690

When the property is to be sold by internet auction, the 21691 legislative authority or its representative may establish a 21692 minimum price that will be accepted for specific items and may 21693 establish any other terms and conditions for the particular sale, 21694 including requirements for pick-up or delivery, method of payment, 21695 and sales tax. This type of information shall be provided on the 21696 internet at the time of the auction and may be provided before 21697 that time upon request after the terms and conditions have been 21698 determined by the legislative authority or its representative. 21699

Sec. 721.20. Notice of the filing, pendency, and prayer of 21700 the petition provided for by section 721.19 of the Revised Code 21701 shall be published for four consecutive weeks or as provided in 21702 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the day of hearing, in 21703 a newspaper ~~published in the municipal corporation, or if there is~~ 21704 ~~none, then in a newspaper published in the county, and~~ of general 21705 circulation in such municipal corporation. 21706

Sec. 723.07. No street or alley shall be vacated or narrowed 21707 unless notice of the pendency and prayer of the petition under 21708 section 723.04 of the Revised Code is given by publishing, in a 21709 newspaper ~~published or~~ of general circulation in such municipal 21710 corporation, for six consecutive weeks preceding action on such 21711 petition, or, ~~where~~ as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 21712 Code preceding action on the petition. Where no newspaper is 21713 ~~published~~ of general circulation in the municipal corporation, 21714 notice shall be given by posting the notice in three public places 21715 therein six weeks preceding such action. Action thereon shall take 21716 place within three months after the completion of the notice. 21717

Sec. 727.011. For the purpose of controlling the blight and 21718 disease of shade trees within public rights-of-way, and for 21719 planting, maintaining, trimming, and removing shade trees in and 21720 along the streets of a municipality, the legislative authority of 21721 such municipal corporation may establish one or more districts in 21722 the municipality designating the boundaries thereof, and may each 21723 year thereafter, by ordinance, designate the district in which 21724 such control, planting, care, and maintenance shall be effected, 21725 setting forth an estimate of the cost and providing for the levy 21726 of a special assessment upon all the real property in the 21727 district, in the amount and in the manner provided in section 21728 727.01 of the Revised Code, for planting, maintaining, trimming, 21729 and removing shade trees. The ordinance shall be adopted ~~and~~ 21730 ~~published~~ as other ordinances and a succinct summary of the 21731 ordinance shall be published in the manner provided in section 21732 731.21 of the Revised Code. Bonds and anticipatory notes may be 21733 issued in anticipation of the collection of such special 21734 assessments, under section 133.17 of the Revised Code. 21735

Sec. 727.012. For the purpose of constructing, maintaining, 21736 repairing, cleaning, and enclosing ditches, the legislative 21737 authority of such municipal corporation may establish one or more 21738 districts in the municipality designating the boundaries thereof, 21739 and may each year thereafter, by ordinance, designate the district 21740 in which such constructing, maintaining, repairing, cleaning, and 21741 enclosing of ditches shall be effected, setting forth an estimate 21742 of the cost and providing for the levying of a special assessment 21743 upon all the real property in the district, in the amount and in 21744 the manner provided in section 727.01 of the Revised Code, for 21745 constructing, maintaining, repairing, cleaning, and enclosing 21746 ditches. The ordinance shall be adopted ~~and published~~ as other 21747 ordinances and a succinct summary of the ordinance shall be 21748 published in the manner provided in section 731.21 of the Revised 21749 Code. Bonds and anticipatory notes may be issued in anticipation 21750 of the collection of such special assessments, under section 21751

Sec. 727.08. The cost of any public improvement to be paid 21753 for directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by funds derived 21754 from special assessments may include but not be limited to: 21755

(A) The purchase price of real estate or any interest therein 21756 when acquired by purchase, or not more than fifty per cent of the 21757 cost of acquiring such real estate or any interest therein when 21758 acquired by appropriation; 21759

(B) The cost of preliminary and other surveys; 21760

(C) The cost of preparing plans, specifications, profiles, 21761 and estimates except, to the extent that costs of plans, 21762 specifications, and estimates of cost have been paid for by the 21763 levy of assessments under section 729.11 of the Revised Code, such 21764 costs shall not be included in determining the cost of the 21765 improvement under this section; 21766

(D) The cost of printing, serving, and publishing notices, ~~and~~ 21767 and summaries of resolutions, ~~and~~ ordinances; 21768

(E) The cost of all special proceedings; 21769

(F) The cost of labor and material, whether furnished by 21770 contract or otherwise; 21771

(G) Interest on securities issued in anticipation of the levy 21772 and collection of the special assessments or, if securities in 21773 anticipation of the levy of the special assessments are not 21774 issued, interest, at a rate to be determined by the legislative 21775 authority in the resolution of necessity adopted pursuant to 21776 section 727.12 of the Revised Code, on moneys advanced by the 21777 municipal corporation for the cost of the public improvement in 21778 anticipation of the levy of the special assessments; 21779

(H) The total amount of damages, resulting from the 21780 improvement, assessed in favor of any owner of lands affected by 21781 the improvement, and interest thereon; 21782

(I) The cost incurred in connection with the preparation, 21783 levy, and collection of the special assessments, including legal 21784 expenses incurred by reason of the improvement; 21785

(J) Incidental costs directly connected with the improvement. 21786

Sec. 727.14. In lieu of the procedure provided in section 21787 727.13 of the Revised Code, the legislative authority may provide 21788 for notice of the passage of a resolution of necessity providing 21789 for the lighting, sprinkling, sweeping, or cleaning of any street, 21790 alley, public road, or place, or parts thereof or for treating the 21791 surface of the same with dust-laying or preservative substances, 21792 or for the planting, maintaining, and removing of shade trees, or 21793 for the constructing, maintaining, repairing, cleaning, and 21794 enclosing of ditches, and the filing of the estimated assessment 21795 under section 727.12 of the Revised Code, to be given by 21796 publication of such notice once a week for two consecutive weeks 21797 in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation 21798 or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. When it 21799 appears from the estimated assessment filed as provided by section 21800 727.12 of the Revised Code, that the assessment against the owner 21801 of any lot or parcel of land will exceed two hundred fifty 21802 dollars, such owner shall be notified of the assessment in the 21803 manner provided in section 727.13 of the Revised Code. 21804

Sec. 727.46. When a general plan has been prepared under 21805 section 727.44 of the Revised Code and reported to the legislative 21806 authority, it shall be filed with the clerk of the legislative 21807 authority and the legislative authority shall cause its clerk to 21808 publish, once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 21809 general circulation in the municipal corporation or as provided in 21810 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, a notice stating that such 21811 general plan has been prepared and is on file in the office of the 21812 clerk of the legislative authority for examination by interested 21813 persons and that written objections to such plan may be filed in 21814 the office of such clerk before the date specified in the notice, 21815 which shall not be earlier than the seventeenth day following the 21816 date of the first publication in said newspaper. Any person having 21817 an objection to the general plan shall file such objection in 21818 writing, with the clerk of the legislative authority within the 21819 time specified. 21820

Sec. 729.08. The legislative authority of the municipal 21821 corporation shall cause a notice to be published for three 21822 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21823
municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 21824 Revised Code, stating that such list of estimated assessments has 21825 been made and is on file in the office of the clerk of the 21826 legislative authority for the inspection and examination of 21827 persons interested therein. 21828

If any person objects to an assessment on such list, ~~he~~ the 21829 person shall file ~~his~~ the objection in writing with the clerk of 21830 the legislative authority within two weeks after the expiration of 21831 the notice provided in this section. 21832

Sec. 729.11. In addition to the power conferred upon 21833 municipal corporations under section 727.01 of the Revised Code to 21834 levy and collect special assessments, the legislative authority of 21835 a municipal corporation may, whenever it has determined by 21836 ordinance that it is necessary to construct, enlarge, or improve a 21837 system of storm or sanitary sewerage for the municipal corporation 21838 or any part thereof, including sewage disposal works, treatment 21839 plants, and sewage pumping stations, or a water supply system for 21840 the municipal corporation or any part thereof including mains, 21841 dams, reservoirs, wells, intakes, purification works, and pumping 21842 stations, and that any such improvement shall be constructed, 21843 enlarged, or improved, may levy upon property to be benefited in 21844 the municipal corporation or any designated part thereof, which 21845 property shall be described in the ordinance, a preliminary 21846 assessment upon the benefited lots and lands within the 21847 corporation or such part thereof, apportioned according to 21848 benefits or to the tax valuation or partly by one method and 21849 partly by the other, as the legislative authority determines for 21850 the purpose of paying the costs of general and detailed plans, 21851 specifications, estimates, preparation of the tentative 21852 assessment, financing, and legal services incident to the 21853 preparation of such plans, and a plan for financing the proposed 21854

improvements. 21855

Prior to the adoption of such ordinance, the legislative 21856 authority of such municipal corporation shall give notice of the 21857 pendency thereof and of the proposed determination of the 21858 necessity of the improvement therein generally described, which 21859 notice shall set forth the description of the benefited property 21860 as designated in the ordinance and the time and place of hearing 21861 of objections to and endorsements of the improvement. Such notice 21862 shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general 21863 circulation in the municipal corporation once a week for two 21864 consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 21865 Code, the first publication to be at least two weeks prior to the 21866 date set for the hearing. At such hearing, or at any adjournment 21867 thereof, of which no further published notice need be given, the 21868 legislative authority shall hear all persons whose properties are 21869 proposed to be assessed, and such evidence as is deemed to be 21870 necessary, and shall then determine the necessity of the proposed 21871 improvement and in addition shall determine whether the 21872 improvement shall be made by the municipal corporation, and shall 21873 direct the preparation of tentative assessments upon the benefited 21874 properties and by whom they shall be prepared. 21875

Such assessments shall be in the amount determined to be 21876 necessary by the legislative authority to pay the costs of general 21877 and detailed plans, specifications, estimates of cost, preparation 21878 of the tentative assessment, financing and legal services incident 21879 to the preparation of such plans, and a plan of financing the 21880 proposed improvements, and shall be payable in such number of 21881 years as the legislative authority determines, not to exceed 21882 twenty, together with interest on any notes which may be issued in 21883 anticipation of the collection of such assessments. 21884

The legislative authority may at any time levy additional 21885 assessments according to benefits or to tax valuation or partly by 21886 one method and partly by the other as the legislative authority 21887 determines for such purposes upon such properties to complete the 21888 payment of such costs or to pay the cost of any additional plans, 21889 specifications, estimates of cost, tentative assessments, and the 21890 cost of financing and legal services incident to the preparation 21891 of such plans and such plan of financing, which additional 21892 assessments shall be payable in such number of years as the 21893 legislative authority determines, not to exceed twenty years, 21894 together with interest on any notes and bonds which may be issued 21895 in anticipation of the collection thereof. 21896

Upon completion of the tentative assessments or any 21897 additional assessments, they shall be filed with the clerk of the 21898 legislative authority and shall be and remain open to public 21899 inspection, and thereupon, the legislative authority shall give at 21900 least ten days' notice of the filing thereof in one newspaper of 21901 general circulation in the municipal corporation, or shall give 21902 notice as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, which 21903 notice shall state the time and place when and where such 21904 tentative assessments shall be taken up for consideration. At such 21905 time and place or at any adjournment thereof, of which no further 21906 published notice need be given, the legislative authority shall 21907 hear all persons whose properties are proposed to be assessed, 21908 shall correct any errors and make any revisions that appear to be 21909 necessary or just, and may then pass an ordinance levying upon the 21910 properties determined to be benefited such assessments as so 21911 corrected and revised. 21912

The assessments levied by such ordinance shall be certified 21913 to the county auditor for collection as other taxes in the year or 21914 years in which they are payable; provided any such assessment in 21915 the amount of five dollars or less, or any unpaid balance of any 21916 such assessment which is five dollars or less, shall be paid in 21917 full, and not in installments, at the time the first or next 21918 installment would otherwise become due and payable. 21919

Upon the adoption of such ordinance levying assessments the 21920 legislative authority may authorize contracts to carry out the 21921 purposes for which such assessments have been levied without the 21922 prior issuance of notes and bonds; provided that the payments due 21923 by the municipal corporation do not fall due prior to the times in 21924 which such assessments shall be collected. The municipal 21925 corporation may also issue and sell its bonds with a maximum 21926 maturity of twenty years in anticipation of the collection of such 21927 assessments and may issue its notes in anticipation of the 21928 issuance of such bonds, which notes and bonds shall be issued and 21929 sold as provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. 21930

Sec. 731.141. In those villages that have established the 21931 position of village administrator, as provided by section 735.271 21932 of the Revised Code, the village administrator shall make 21933 contracts, purchase supplies and materials, and provide labor for 21934 any work under the administrator's supervision involving not more 21935 than twenty-five thousand dollars. When an expenditure, other than 21936 the compensation of persons employed by the village, exceeds 21937 twenty-five thousand dollars, the expenditure shall first be 21938 authorized and directed by ordinance of the legislative authority 21939 of the village. When so authorized and directed, except where the 21940 contract is for equipment, services, materials, or supplies to be 21941 purchased under division (D) of section 713.23 or section 125.04 21942 or 5513.01 of the Revised Code, available from a qualified 21943 nonprofit agency pursuant to sections 4115.31 to 4115.35 of the 21944 Revised Code, or required to be purchased from a qualified 21945 nonprofit agency under sections 125.60 to 125.6012 of the Revised 21946 Code, the village administrator shall make a written contract with 21947 the lowest and best bidder after advertisement for not less than 21948 two nor more than four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 21949 circulation within the village or as provided in section 7.16 of 21950 the Revised Code. The bids shall be opened and shall be publicly 21951 read by the village administrator or a person designated by the 21952 village administrator at the time, date, and place as specified in 21953 the advertisement to bidders or specifications. The time, date, 21954 and place of bid openings may be extended to a later date by the 21955 village administrator, provided that written or oral notice of the 21956 change shall be given to all persons who have received or 21957 requested specifications no later than ninety-six hours prior to 21958 the original time and date fixed for the opening. All contracts 21959 shall be executed in the name of the village and signed on its 21960 behalf by the village administrator and the clerk. 21961

The legislative authority of a village may provide, by 21962 ordinance, for central purchasing for all offices, departments, 21963 divisions, boards, and commissions of the village, under the 21964 direction of the village administrator, who shall make contracts, 21965 purchase supplies or materials, and provide labor for any work of 21966 the village in the manner provided by this section. 21967

Sec. 731.20. Ordinances, resolutions, and bylaws shall be 21968 authenticated by the signature of the presiding officer and clerk 21969 of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation. 21970 ~~Ordinances~~ A succinct summary of ordinances of a general nature or 21971 providing for improvements shall be published as provided by 21972 sections 731.21 and 731.22 of the Revised Code before going into 21973 operation. No ordinance shall take effect until the expiration of 21974 ten days after the first publication of such notice. As soon as a 21975 bylaw, resolution, or ordinance is passed and signed, it shall be 21976 recorded by the clerk in a book furnished by the legislative 21977 authority for that purpose. 21978

Sec. 731.21. (A) ~~Notwithstanding any conflicting provision of~~ 21979
~~section 7.12 of the Revised Code,~~ A succinct summary of each 21980

Proof of the publication and required circulation of any newspaper 22001 used as a medium of publication as provided by this section shall 22002 be made by affidavit of the proprietor of ~~either of such~~ 22003 ~~newspapers~~ the newspaper, and shall be filed with the clerk of the 22004 legislative authority. 22005

~~(B) If a summary of an ordinance or resolution is published~~ 22006
~~under division (A) of this section, the~~ The publication shall 22007 contain notice that the complete text of each such ordinance or 22008
the legislative authority of the municipal corporation and may be 22010
viewed at any other location designated by the legislative 22011
authority of the municipal corporation. The city director of law, 22012 village solicitor, or other chief legal officer of the municipal 22013 corporation shall review ~~any~~ the summary of an ordinance or 22014
resolution published under this section prior to forwarding it to 22015
the clerk for publication, to ensure that the summary is legally 22016
accurate and sufficient. 22017

resolution in accordance with this section, the clerk of the 22019
legislative authority shall supply a copy of the complete text of 22020
each such ordinance or resolution to any person, upon request, and 22021
each copy supplied. The clerk shall post a copy of the text at ~~his~~ 22023
the clerk's office and at every other location designated by the 22024
legislative authority. 22025

Sec. 731.211. In accordance with Section 9 of Article XVIII, 22026
Ohio Constitution, notice of proposed amendments to municipal 22027 charters shall be given in one of the following ways: 22028

(A) Not less than thirty days prior to the election at which 22029 the amendment is to be submitted to the electors, the clerk of the 22030 municipality shall mail a copy of the proposed charter amendment 22031 to each elector whose name appears upon the poll or registration 22032 books of the last regular or general election held therein. 22033

(B) The full text of the proposed charter amendment shall be 22034 published once a week for not less than two consecutive weeks in a 22035 newspaper ~~published of general circulation~~ in the municipal 22036 corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, 22037 with the first publication being at least fifteen days prior to 22038 the election at which the amendment is to be submitted to the 22039 electors. ~~If no newspaper is published in the municipal~~ 22040 ~~corporation, then such publication shall be made in a newspaper of~~ 22041
~~general circulation within the municipal corporation.~~ 22042

Sec. 731.22. The publication required in section 731.21 of 22043 the Revised Code shall be for the following times: 22044

(A) ~~Ordinances and resolutions, or summaries~~ Summaries of 22045 ordinances or resolutions, and proclamations of elections, once a 22046 week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of 22047
the Revised Code; 22048

(B) Notices, not less than two nor more than four consecutive 22049 weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code; 22050

(C) All other matters shall be published once. 22051

Sec. 731.23. When ordinances are revised, codified, 22052 rearranged, published in book form, and certified as correct by 22053 the clerk of the legislative authority of a municipal corporation 22054 and the mayor, such publication shall be a sufficient publication, 22055 and the ordinances so published, under appropriate titles, 22056 chapters, and sections, shall be held the same in law as though 22057 they had been published in a newspaper. A new ordinance so 22058 published in book form, a summary of which has not been published 22059 as required by sections 731.21 and 731.22 of the Revised Code, and 22060 which contains entirely new matter, shall be published as required 22061 by such sections. If such revision or codification is made by a 22062 municipal corporation and contains new matter, it shall be a 22063 sufficient publication of such codification, including the new 22064 matter, to publish, in the manner required by such sections, a 22065 notice of the enactment of such codifying ordinance, containing 22066 the title of the ordinance and a summary of the new matters 22067 covered by it. Such revision and codification may be made under 22068 appropriate titles, chapters, and sections and in one ordinance 22069 containing one or more subjects. 22070

Except as provided by this section, a succinct summary of all 22071 ordinances, including emergency ordinances, shall be published in 22072 accordance with section 731.21 of the Revised Code. 22073

Sec. 731.24. Immediately after the expiration of the period 22074 of publication ~~for ordinances or of~~ summaries of ordinances 22075 required by section 731.22 of the Revised Code, the clerk of the 22076 legislative authority of a municipal corporation shall enter on 22077 the record of ordinances, in a blank to be left for such purpose 22078 under the recorded ordinance, a certificate stating in which 22079 newspaper and on what dates such publication was made, and shall 22080 sign ~~his~~ the clerk's name thereto officially. Such certificate 22081 shall be prima-facie evidence that legal publication of the 22082 ~~ordinance or~~ summary of the ordinance was made. 22083

Sec. 731.25. ~~Notwithstanding any conflicting provision of~~ 22084 ~~section 7.12 of the Revised Code, in~~ In municipal corporations in 22085 which no newspaper is ~~published~~ generally circulated, publication 22086 of ~~ordinances and resolutions, or~~ summaries of ordinances and 22087 resolutions, and publication of all statements, orders, 22088 proclamations, notices, and reports, required by law or ordinance 22089 to be published, shall be accomplished ~~in either of the following~~ 22090 ~~methods, as determined by the legislative authority:~~ 22091

~~(A) By~~ by posting copies in not less than five of the most 22092 public places in the municipal corporation, as determined by the 22093 legislative authority, for a period of not less than fifteen days 22094 prior to the effective date thereof. 22095

~~(B) By publication in any newspaper printed in this state and 22096 of general circulation in such municipal corporation. 22097~~

Notices to bidders for the construction of public 22098 improvements and notices of the sale of bonds shall be published 22099 in ~~not more than two newspapers, printed in this state and a~~ 22100 newspaper of general circulation in such municipal corporation, 22101 for the time prescribed in section 731.22 of the Revised Code. 22102

Where such publication is by posting, the clerk shall make a 22103 certificate as to such posting, and as to the times when and the 22104 places where such posting is done, in the manner provided in 22105 section 731.24 of the Revised Code, and such certificate shall be 22106 prima-facie evidence that the copies were posted as required. 22107

Sec. 735.05. The director of public service may make any 22108 contract, purchase supplies or material, or provide labor for any 22109 work under the supervision of the department of public service 22110 involving not more than twenty-five thousand dollars. When an 22111 expenditure within the department, other than the compensation of 22112 persons employed in the department, exceeds twenty-five thousand 22113 dollars, the expenditure shall first be authorized and directed by 22114 ordinance of the city legislative authority. When so authorized 22115 and directed, except where the contract is for equipment, 22116 services, materials, or supplies to be purchased under division 22117 (D) of section 713.23 or section 125.04 or 5513.01 of the Revised 22118 Code or available from a qualified nonprofit agency pursuant to 22119 sections 4115.31 to 4115.35 of the Revised Code, the director 22120 shall make a written contract with the lowest and best bidder 22121 after advertisement for not less than two nor more than four 22122 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the city or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 735.20. When a whole plan, or any portion thereof, as provided in section 735.19 of the Revised Code is completed, or when the location of any avenue, street, roadway, or alley has been finally determined by the platting commissioner of a city, a plat of the plan, avenue, street, roadway, or alley shall be placed in the office of the city engineer for the inspection of persons interested, and notice that it is ready for inspection shall be published in ~~one or more newspapers,~~ a newspaper of general circulation within the city, for six consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 737.32. Except as otherwise provided in this section and unless the property involved is required to be disposed of pursuant to another section of the Revised Code, property that is unclaimed for ninety days or more shall be sold by the chief of police of the municipal corporation, marshal of the village, or licensed auctioneer at public auction, after notice of the sale has been provided by publication once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The proceeds of the sale shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipal corporation and shall be credited to the general fund of the municipal corporation.

If authorized to do so by an ordinance adopted by the legislative authority of the municipal corporation and if the property involved is not required to be disposed of pursuant to another section of the Revised Code, the chief of police or marshal may contribute property that is unclaimed for ninety days or more to one or more public agencies, to one or more nonprofit organizations no part of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual and no 22154 substantial part of the activities of which consists of carrying 22155 on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or 22156 to one or more organizations satisfying section 501(c)(3) or 22157

(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. 22158

Sec. 742.41. (A) As used in this section: 22159

(1) "Other system retirant" has the same meaning as in 22160
section 742.26 of the Revised Code. 22161

(2) "Personal history record" includes a member's, former 22162 member's, or other system retirant's name, address, telephone 22163 number, social security number, record of contributions, 22164 correspondence with the Ohio police and fire pension fund, status 22165 of any application for benefits, and any other information deemed 22166 confidential by the trustees of the fund. 22167

(B) The treasurer of state shall furnish annually to the 22168 board of trustees of the fund a sworn statement of the amount of 22169 the funds in the treasurer of state's custody belonging to the 22170 Ohio police and fire pension fund. The records of the fund shall 22171 be open for public inspection except for the following, which 22172 shall be excluded, except with the written authorization of the 22173 individual concerned: 22174

(1) The individual's personal history record; 22175

(2) Any information identifying, by name and address, the 22176 amount of a monthly allowance or benefit paid to the individual. 22177

(C) All medical reports and recommendations required are 22178 privileged, except that copies of such medical reports or 22179 recommendations shall be made available to the personal physician, 22180 attorney, or authorized agent of the individual concerned upon 22181 written release received from the individual or the individual's 22182 agent or, when necessary for the proper administration of the 22183 fund, to the board-assigned physician. 22184

(D) Any person who is a member of the fund or an other system 22185 retirant shall be furnished with a statement of the amount to the 22186 credit of the person's individual account upon the person's 22187 written request. The fund need not answer more than one such 22188 request of a person in any one year. 22189

(E) Notwithstanding the exceptions to public inspection in 22190 division (B) of this section, the fund may furnish the following 22191
information: 22192

(1) If a member, former member, or other system retirant is 22193 subject to an order issued under section 2907.15 of the Revised 22194 Code or an order issued under division (A) or (B) of section 22195 2929.192 of the Revised Code or is convicted of or pleads guilty 22196 to a violation of section 2921.41 of the Revised Code, on written 22197 request of a prosecutor as defined in section 2935.01 of the 22198 Revised Code, the fund shall furnish to the prosecutor the 22199 information requested from the individual's personal history 22200 record. 22201

(2) Pursuant to a court order issued pursuant to Chapter 22202 3119., 3121., 3123., or 3125. of the Revised Code, the fund shall 22203 furnish to a court or child support enforcement agency the 22204 information required under that section. 22205

(3) At the request of any organization or association of 22206 members of the fund, the fund shall provide a list of the names 22207 and addresses of members of the fund and other system retirants. 22208
The fund shall comply with the request of such organization or 22209 association at least once a year and may impose a reasonable 22210 charge for the list. 22211

(4) Within fourteen days after receiving from the director of 22212 job and family services a list of the names and social security 22213
numbers of recipients of public assistance pursuant to section 22214

5101.181 of the Revised Code, the fund shall inform the auditor of 22215 state of the name, current or most recent employer address, and 22216 social security number of each member or other system retirant 22217 whose name and social security number are the same as that of a 22218 person whose name or social security number was submitted by the 22219 director. The fund and its employees shall, except for purposes of 22220 furnishing the auditor of state with information required by this 22221 section, preserve the confidentiality of recipients of public 22222 assistance in compliance with ~~division (A)~~ of section 5101.181 of 22223
the Revised Code. 22224

(5) The fund shall comply with orders issued under section 22225
3105.87 of the Revised Code. 22226

On the written request of an alternate payee, as defined in 22227 section 3105.80 of the Revised Code, the fund shall furnish to the 22228 alternate payee information on the amount and status of any 22229 amounts payable to the alternate payee under an order issued under 22230
section 3105.171 or 3105.65 of the Revised Code. 22231

(6) At the request of any person, the fund shall make 22232
available to the person copies of all documents, including 22233 resumes, in the fund's possession regarding filling a vacancy of a 22234 police officer employee member, firefighter employee member, 22235 police retirant member, or firefighter retirant member of the 22236 board of trustees. The person who made the request shall pay the 22237 cost of compiling, copying, and mailing the documents. The 22238 information described in this division is a public record. 22239

(F) A statement that contains information obtained from the 22240 fund's records that is signed by the secretary of the board of 22241 trustees of the Ohio police and fire pension fund and to which the 22242 board's official seal is affixed, or copies of the fund's records 22243 to which the signature and seal are attached, shall be received as 22244 true copies of the fund's records in any court or before any 22245 officer of this state. 22246

Sec. 745.07. An ordinance passed pursuant to section 745.06 22247 of the Revised Code shall not take effect until submitted to the 22248 electors of the municipal corporation, at a special or general 22249 election held in the municipal corporation at such time as the 22250 legislative authority determines, and approved by a majority of 22251 the electors voting on it. The ordinance shall be passed by an 22252 affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the members of the 22253 legislative authority and shall be subject to the approval of the 22254 mayor as provided by law. The ordinance shall specify the form or 22255 phrasing of the question to be placed upon the ballot. Thirty 22256 days' notice of the election shall be given by publication once a 22257 week for two consecutive weeks in ~~two daily or weekly newspapers~~ 22258 ~~published or circulated~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the 22259 municipal corporation ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of 22260
the Revised Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains 22261
a web site, notice of the election also shall be posted on that 22262
web site for thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall 22263 contain the full form or phrasing of the question to be submitted. 22264
The clerk of the legislative authority shall certify the passage 22265 of the ordinance to the officers having control of elections in 22266 the municipal corporation, who shall cause the question to be 22267 voted on at the general or special election as specified in the 22268 ordinance. 22269

Sec. 747.05. The board of rapid transit commissioners shall 22270 have control of the expenditure of all moneys appropriated by the 22271 legislative authority of the city, received from the sale of bonds 22272 provided for in sections 747.01 to 747.13, ~~inclusive,~~ of the 22273 Revised Code, or from any other source, for the purchase, 22274 construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, or enjoyment of 22275 all such rapid transit property, but no liability shall be 22276 incurred or expenditure made unless the money required therefor is 22277 in the city treasury to the credit of the board of rapid transit 22278 commissioners' fund and not appropriated for any other purpose. 22279 Moneys to be derived from the sale of bonds, the issue of which 22280 has been authorized, shall be deemed to be in the treasury to the 22281 credit of such fund. 22282

All moneys expended for the construction and acquisition of 22283 parkways or boulevards, as authorized by such sections, shall be 22284 provided for partly by special appropriation or bond issue and 22285 partly by assessments, as specified in section 747.06 of the 22286 Revised Code, and such funds shall be separately accounted for, 22287 and such expenditure shall not be considered a part of the rapid 22288 transit expenditure authorized by this section. The board may let 22289 contracts for any part of the work to the lowest and best bidder 22290 after three weeks' advertisement in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of 22291 general circulation in the city or as provided in section 7.16 of 22292
the Revised Code. 22293

The board may reject any bid, and the proceedings for such 22294 contracts and payment therefor shall be the same as provided for 22295 the director of public service except the requirement of the 22296 approval of the board of control. 22297

Sec. 747.11. The board of rapid transit commissioners may 22298 grant to any corporation organized for street or interurban 22299 railway purposes the right to operate, by lease or otherwise, the 22300 depots, terminals, and railways mentioned in section 747.08 of the 22301 Revised Code upon such terms as the board is authorized by 22302 ordinance to agree upon with such corporation, subject to the 22303 approval of a majority of the electors of the city voting on the 22304 question. 22305

The board of rapid transit commissioners shall certify such 22306 lease or agreement to the board of elections, which shall then 22307 submit the question of the approval of such lease or agreement to 22308

the qualified electors of the city at either a special or general 22309 election as the ordinance specifies. Thirty days' notice of the 22310 election shall be given by publication in ~~one or more of the~~ 22311 ~~newspapers published~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the 22312 city once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the election, 22313 ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the 22314 board of elections operates and maintains a web site, the board of 22315 elections shall post notice of the election for thirty days prior 22316 to the election on its web site. The notice shall set forth the 22317 terms of the lease or agreement and the time of holding the 22318 election. On the approval by a majority of the voters voting at 22319 the election, the corporation may operate such depots, terminals, 22320 and railways as provided in the lease or agreement, and 22321 corporations organized under the laws of this state for street or 22322 interurban railway purposes may lease and operate such depots, 22323 terminals, and railways. 22324

Sec. 747.12. Whenever the board of rapid transit 22325 commissioners of a city declares by resolution that real estate of 22326 the city acquired for rapid transit purposes is not needed for the 22327 proper conduct and maintenance of such rapid transit system, such 22328 real estate may be sold or leased by the board to the highest 22329 bidder after advertisement once a week for three consecutive weeks 22330 in a newspaper of general circulation within the city or as 22331 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The board may reject 22332 any bid and readvertise until all such property is sold or leased. 22333
When the board has twice so offered to sell or lease such 22334 property, and it is not sold or leased, the board may privately 22335 sell or lease it. 22336

Moneys arising from such sales or leases shall be deposited 22337 in the treasury of the city to the credit of the board of rapid 22338 transit commissioners' fund, and may be expended for the purchase, 22339 construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, and enjoyment 22340 of the city's rapid transit property, as such board directs. 22341

Contracts, leases, deeds, bills of sale, or other instruments 22342 in writing pertaining to such sales or leases shall be executed on 22343 behalf of the city by the board, by its president and secretary. 22344

Sec. 755.16. (A) Any ~~municipal corporation, township,~~ 22345 ~~township park district, county, or school district~~ contracting 22346 subdivision, jointly with one or more other ~~municipal~~ 22347 ~~corporations, townships, township park districts, counties, or~~ 22348 ~~school districts or with an educational service center~~ contracting 22349 subdivisions, in any combination, ~~and a joint recreation district,~~ 22350 may acquire property for, construct, operate, and maintain any 22351 parks, playgrounds, playfields, gymnasiums, public baths, swimming 22352 pools, indoor recreation centers, educational facilities, or 22353 community centers. Any school district ~~or~~ educational service 22354 ~~center, or state institution of higher education~~ may provide by 22355 the erection of any school ~~or~~ educational service center, or 22356 state institution of higher education building or premises, or by 22357 the enlargement of, addition to, or reconstruction or improvement 22358 of any school ~~or~~ educational service center, or state institution 22359 of higher education building or premises, for the inclusion of any 22360 such parks, recreational facilities, educational facilities, and 22361 community centers to be jointly acquired, constructed, operated, 22362 and maintained. Any ~~municipal corporation, township, township park~~ 22363 ~~district, county, or school district~~ contracting subdivision, 22364 jointly with one or more other ~~municipal corporations, townships,~~ 22365 ~~township park districts, counties, or school districts or with an~~ 22366 ~~educational service center~~ contracting subdivisions, in any 22367 combination, ~~and a joint recreation district,~~ may equip, operate, 22368 and maintain those parks, recreational facilities, educational 22369 facilities, and community centers and may appropriate money for 22370 them those purposes. ~~An educational service center also may~~ 22371 ~~appropriate money for purposes of equipping, operating, and~~ 22372

~~maintaining those parks, recreational facilities, and community~~ 22373 ~~centers.~~ 22374

~~Any municipal corporation, township, township park district,~~ 22375 ~~county, school district, or educational service center~~ contracting 22376 subdivision agreeing to jointly acquire, construct, operate, or 22377 maintain parks, recreational facilities, educational facilities, 22378 and community centers pursuant to this section may contribute 22379 lands, money, other personal property, or services to the joint 22380 venture, as may be agreed upon. Any agreement shall specify the 22381 rights of the parties in any lands or personal property 22382 contributed. 22383

Any lands acquired by a township park district pursuant to 22384
Chapter 511. of the Revised Code and established as a public park 22385 or parks may be contributed to a joint venture authorized by this 22386 section. Fees may be charged in connection with the use of any 22387 recreational facilities, educational facilities, and community 22388 centers that may be constructed on those lands. 22389

(B) Any township may, jointly with a private land owner, 22390 construct, operate, equip, and maintain free public playgrounds 22391 and playfields. Any equipment provided by a township pursuant to 22392 this division shall remain township property and shall be used 22393 subject to a right of removal by the township. 22394

(C) As used in this section and in sections 755.17 and 755.18 22395
of the Revised Code: 22396

(1) "Community centers" means facilities characterized by all 22397
of the following: 22398

(a) They are acquired, constructed, operated, or maintained 22399 by ~~political~~ contracting subdivisions ~~or an educational service~~ 22400 ~~center~~ pursuant to division (A) of this section. 22401

(b) They may be used for governmental, civic, or educational 22402 operations or purposes, or recreational activities. 22403

(c) They may be used only by the ~~entities~~ contracting subdivisions that acquire, construct, operate, or maintain them or by any other person upon terms and conditions determined by those ~~entities~~ contracting subdivisions. 22404
22407

(2) "Educational service center" has the same meaning as in division (A) of section 3311.05 of the Revised Code. 22408
22409

(3) "Contracting subdivision" means a municipal corporation, township, joint recreation district, township park district, county, school district, educational service center, or state institution of higher education. 22410
22411
22413

(4) "School district" means any of the school districts or joint vocational school districts referred to in section 3311.01 of the Revised Code. 22414
22416

(5) "State institution of higher education" has the same meaning as in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code. 22417
22418

Sec. 755.29. The board of park trustees, before entering into any contract for the performance of any work, the cost of which exceeds ~~ten~~ twenty-five thousand dollars, shall cause plans and specifications and forms of bids to be prepared, and when adopted by the board, ~~it~~ shall have them printed for distribution among bidders. 22419
22420
22422
22424

Sec. 755.41. When lands lying within the limits of a municipal corporation have been dedicated to or for the use of the public for parks or park lands, and where such lands have remained unimproved and unused by the public for a period of twenty-one years and there appears to be little or no possibility that such lands will be improved and used by the public, the legislative authority of a municipal corporation in which said lands are located may, by ordinance, declare such parks or park lands vacated upon the petition of a majority of the abutting 22425
22426
22428
22429
22430
22431
22432
22433 freeholders. No such parks or park lands shall be vacated unless 22434 notice of the pendency and prayer of the petition is given, in a 22435 newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation in 22436 which such lands are situated for three consecutive weeks, or as 22437 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, preceding action on 22438 such petition. No such lands shall be vacated prior to a public 22439 hearing had thereon. 22440

Sec. 755.42. Upon the vacation of parks or park lands as 22441 provided by section 755.41 of the Revised Code, the legislative 22442 authority of a municipal corporation shall offer such lands for 22443 sale at a public auction. No lands shall be sold until the 22444 legislative authority of such municipal corporation gives notice 22445 of intention to sell such lands. Such notice shall be published as 22446 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code or once a week for 22447 four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in a 22448 municipal corporation in which the sale is to be had. The 22449 legislative authority of such municipal corporation or the board 22450 or officer having supervision or management of such real estate 22451 shall sell such lands to the highest and best bidder, provided 22452 that any and all bids made hereunder may be rejected. 22453

When such sale is made, the mayor or other officer of a 22454 municipal corporation in which sale is had and in which such lands 22455 are located, shall enter into a deed, conveying said lands to the 22456 purchaser thereof. At or after the time of sale, the auditor of 22457 the county shall place the lands sold hereunder on the tax 22458 duplicate of the county at a value to be established by ~~him~~ the 22459 auditor as in cases where ~~he~~ the auditor re-enters property which 22460 has been tax exempt on the taxable list of the county. 22461

The proceeds from the sale of lands sold pursuant to this 22462 section shall be placed in the general fund of the treasury of the 22463 municipal corporation in which such lands are located and may be 22464 disbursed as other general fund moneys. 22465

Sec. 755.43. When real estate ~~which~~ that has been dedicated 22466 to or for the use of the public for parks or park lands is vacated 22467 by the legislative authority of a municipal corporation pursuant 22468 to section 755.41 of the Revised Code, and where reversionary 22469 interests have been set up in the event of the non-use of such 22470 lands for the dedicated purpose, such reversionary interests shall 22471 accelerate and vest in the holders thereof upon such vacation. 22472 Thereupon, the auditor of the county shall place the lands on the 22473 tax duplicate of the county in the names of such reversionaries as 22474 are known to and supplied by the legislative authority of the 22475 municipal corporation or the board or officer having supervision 22476 or management of such real estate. If the legislative authority of 22477 such board or officer is unable to furnish the names of such 22478 reversioners, the legislative authority of a municipal corporation 22479 shall fix a date on or before which claims to such real estate may 22480 be asserted and after which such real estate shall be sold. Notice 22481 shall be given of such date and of the sale to be held thereafter, 22482 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code or once each week 22483 for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation 22484 in the municipal corporation wherein such lands are located. In 22485 the event that no claims to such lands are asserted or found to be 22486 valid, the lands shall be sold pursuant to section 755.42 of the 22487 Revised Code, and the title of any holders of reversionary 22488 interests shall be extinguished. 22489

Nothing contained in sections 755.41, 755.42, or 755.43 of 22490 the Revised Code shall be construed as limiting any of the home 22491 rule powers conferred upon municipalities by Article XVIII of the 22492 Constitution of the State of Ohio. 22493

Sec. 759.47. Land belonging to a public cemetery and used for 22494 an approach thereto, and which is, in the judgment of a majority 22495 of the officers having control or management thereof, unnecessary 22496 for cemetery purposes, may be sold by them at public sale to the 22497 highest bidder after advertisement as provided in section 7.16 of 22498 the Revised Code or once a week for five consecutive weeks in a 22499 newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the 22500 cemetery is situated. The board of township trustees or board of 22501 cemetery trustees of a municipal corporation making such sale 22502 shall execute in the name of the township or municipal corporation 22503 owning such cemetery proper conveyances for the land so sold. 22504 22505

Sec. 901.09. (A) The director of agriculture may employ and 22506 establish a compensation rate for seasonal produce graders and 22507 seasonal gypsy mothtrap tenders, who shall be in the unclassified 22508 civil service. 22509

(B) In lieu of employing seasonal gypsy moth tenders as 22510 provided in division (A) of this section, the director may 22511 contract with qualified individuals or entities to perform gypsy 22512 moth trapping. 22513

Sec. 924.52. (A) The Ohio grape industries committee may: 22514

(1) Conduct, and contract with others to conduct, research, 22515 including the study, analysis, dissemination, and accumulation of 22516 information obtained from the research or elsewhere, concerning 22517 the marketing and distribution of grapes and grape products, the 22518 storage, refrigeration, processing, and transportation of them, 22519 and the production and product development of grapes and grape 22520 products. The committee shall expend for these activities ~~no less~~ 22521 ~~than thirty per cent~~ and no more than seventy per cent of all 22522 money it receives from the Ohio grape industries fund created 22523
under section 924.54 of the Revised Code. 22524

(2) Provide the wholesale and retail trade with information 22525 relative to proper methods of handling and selling grapes and 22526 grape products; 22527

(3) Make or contract for market surveys and analyses, 22528 undertake any other similar activities that it determines are 22529 appropriate for the maintenance and expansion of present markets 22530 and the creation of new and larger markets for grapes and grape 22531 products, and make, in the name of the committee, contracts to 22532 render service in formulating and conducting plans and programs 22533 and such other contracts or agreements as the committee considers 22534 necessary for the promotion of the sale of grapes and grape 22535 products. The committee shall expend for these activities ~~no less~~ 22536 ~~than thirty per cent and~~ no more than seventy per cent of all 22537 money it receives from the fund. 22538

(4) Publish and distribute to producers and others 22539 information relating to the grape and grape product industries; 22540

(5) Propose to the director of agriculture for adoption, 22541 rescission, or amendment, pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised 22542 Code, rules necessary for the exercise of its powers and the 22543
performance of its duties; 22544

(6) Advertise for, post notices seeking, or otherwise solicit 22545 applicants to serve in administrative positions in the department 22546 of agriculture as employees who support the administrative 22547 functions of the committee. Applications shall be submitted to the 22548 committee. The committee shall select applicants that it wishes to 22549 recommend for employment and shall submit a list of the 22550 recommended applicants to the director. 22551

(B) The committee shall: 22552

(1) Promote the sale of grapes and grape products for the 22553 purpose of maintaining and expanding present markets and creating 22554 new and larger intrastate, interstate, and foreign markets for 22555 grapes and grape products, and inform the public of the uses and 22556 benefits of grapes and grape products;	22557

(2) Perform all acts and exercise all powers incidental to,	22558
in connection with, or considered reasonably necessary, proper, or	22559 advisable to effectuate the purposes of this section.	22560
Sec. 927.69. To effect the purpose of sections 927.51 to	22561
927.73 of the Revised Code, the director of agriculture or the	22562
director's authorized representative may:	22563
(A) Make reasonable inspection of any premises in this state	22564
and any property therein or thereon;	22565
(B) Stop and inspect in a reasonable manner, any means of	22566 conveyance moving within this state upon probable cause to believe	22567
it contains or carries any pest, host, commodity, or other article	22568 that is subject to sections 927.51 to 927.72 of the Revised Code;	22569
(C) Conduct inspections of agricultural products that are	22570 required by other states, the United States department of	22571 agriculture, other federal agencies, or foreign countries to	22572 determine whether the products are infested. If, upon making such	22573 an inspection, the director or the director's authorized	22574 representative determines that an agricultural product is not	22575 infested, the director or the director's authorized representative	22576 may issue a certificate, as required by other states, the United	22577
States department of agriculture, other federal agencies, or	22578 foreign countries, indicating that the product is not infested.	22579
If the director charges fees for any of the certificates,	22580 agreements, or inspections specified in this section, the fees	22581 shall be as follows:	22582
(1) Phyto sanitary Phytopsanitary certificates, twenty-five	22583 dollars for those collectors or dealers that are licensed under	22584 section 927.53 of the Revised Code shipments comprised exclusively	22585
of nursery stock;	22586

(2) Phyto-sanitary Phytosanitary certificates, one hundred dollars for all others;	22587 22588
(3) Phytosanitary certificates, twenty-five dollars for replacement of an issued certificate because of a mistake on the certificate or a change made by the shipper if no additional inspection is required;	22589 22590 22591 22592
(4) Compliance agreements, forty dollars;	22593
(4) (5) Agricultural products and their conveyances inspections, an amount equal to the hourly rate of pay in the highest step in the pay range, including fringe benefits, of a plant pest control specialist multiplied by the number of hours worked by such a specialist in conducting an inspection.	22594 22595 22596 22597 22598
The director may adopt rules under section 927.52 of the Revised Code that define the certificates, agreements, and inspections.	22599 22600 22601
The fees shall be credited to the plant pest program fund created in section 927.54 of the Revised Code.	22602 22603
Sec. 951.11. A person finding an animal at large in violation of section 951.01 or 951.02 of the Revised Code, may, and a law enforcement officer of a county, township, city, or village, on view or information, shall, take and confine such animal, forthwith giving notice thereof to the owner or keeper, if known, and, if not known, by publishing a notice describing such animal at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, township, city, or village wherein the animal was found. If the owner or keeper does not appear and claim the animal and pay the compensation prescribed in section 951.13 of the Revised Code for so taking, advertising, and keeping it within ten days from the date of such notice, such person or the county shall have a lien therefor and the animal may be sold at public auction as provided	22604 22605 22606 22607 22608 22609 22610 22611 22612 22613 22614 22615 22616

in section 1311.49 of the Revised Code, and the residue of the 22617 proceeds of sale shall be paid and deposited by the treasurer in 22618 the general fund of the county. 22619

Sec. 1309.528. ~~(A)~~ All fees collected by the secretary of 22620 state for filings under Title XIII or XVII of the Revised Code 22621 shall be deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the 22622 corporate and uniform commercial code filing fund, which is hereby 22623 created. All moneys credited to the fund, ~~subject to division (B)~~ 22624 ~~of this section,~~ shall be used for the purpose of paying for the 22625 operations of the office of the secretary of state and for the 22626 purpose of paying for expenses relating to the processing of 22627 filings under Title XIII or XVII of the Revised Code. 22628

secretary of state business technology fund. One per cent of the 22630 money credited to the corporate and uniform commercial code filing 22631 fund created in division (A) of this section shall be transferred 22632 to the credit of this fund. All moneys credited to this fund shall 22633 be used only for the upkeep, improvement, or replacement of 22634 equipment, or for the purpose of training employees in the use of 22635 equipment, used to conduct business of the secretary of state's 22636 office under Title XIII or XVII of the Revised Code. 22637~~

Sec. 1327.46. ~~(A)~~ As used in sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of 22638
the Revised Code: 22639

(A) "Weights and measures" means all weights and measures of 22640 every kind, instruments and devices for weighing and measuring, 22641 and any appliances and accessories associated with any such 22642 instruments and devices, except that ~~the term~~ "weights and 22643 measures" shall not be construed to include meters for the 22644 measurement of electricity, gas, whether natural or manufactured, 22645 or water when the same are operated in a public utility system. 22646

Such electricity, gas, and water meters, and appliances or 22647 accessories associated therewith, are specifically excluded from 22648 the purview of the weights and measures laws. 22649

(B) "Intrastate commerce" means all commerce or trade that is 22650 begun, carried on, and completed wholly within the limits of this 22651 state, and "introduced into intrastate commerce" defines the time 22652 and place in which the first sale and delivery of a commodity is 22653 made within the state, the delivery being made either directly to 22654 the purchaser or to a common carrier for shipment to the 22655 purchaser. 22656

(C) "Package" means any commodity put up or packaged in any 22657 manner in advance of sale in units suitable for either wholesale 22658 or retail sale. 22659

(D) "Consumer package" means a package that is customarily 22660 produced or distributed for sale through a retail sales agency for 22661 consumption by an individual or use by an individual. 22662

(E) "Weight" as used in connection with any commodity means 22663
net weight. 22664

(F) "Correct" as used in connection with weights and measures 22665 means conformity with all applicable requirements of sections 22666 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code and rules adopted pursuant 22667 to those sections. 22668

(G) "Primary standards" means the physical standards of the 22669 state that serve as the legal reference from which all other 22670 standards and weights and measures are derived. 22671

(H) "Secondary standards" means the physical standards that 22672 are traceable to the primary standards through comparisons, using 22673 acceptable laboratory procedures, and used in the enforcement of 22674 weights and measures laws and rules. 22675

(I) "Sale from bulk" means the sale of commodities when the 22676 quantity is determined at the time of sale. 22677

(J) "Net weight" means the weight of a commodity, excluding 22678 any materials, substances, or items not considered to be a part of 22679 the commodity. Materials, substances, or items not considered to 22680 be part of the commodity include, but are not limited to, 22681 containers, conveyances, bags, wrappers, packaging materials, 22682 labels, individual piece coverings, decorative accompaniments, and 22683 coupons. 22684

(K) "Random weight package" means a package that is one of a 22685 lot, shipment, or delivery of packages of the same commodity with 22686 no fixed pattern of weights. 22687

(L) "Sold" includes keeping, offering, or exposing for sale. 22688

(M) "Commercially used weighing and measuring device" means a 22689 device described in the national institute of standards and 22690 technology handbook 44 or its supplements and revisions and any 22691 other weighing and measuring device designated by rules adopted 22692 under division (C) of section 1327.50 of the Revised Code. 22693
"Commercially used weighing and measuring device" includes, but is 22694 not limited to, a livestock scale, vehicle scale, railway scale, 22695 vehicle tank meter, bulk rack meter, and LPG meter. 22696

(N) "Livestock scale" means a scale equipped with stock racks 22697 and gates that is adapted to weighing livestock standing on the 22698 scale platform. 22699

(O) "Vehicle scale" means a scale that is adapted to weighing 22700 highway, farm, or other large industrial vehicles other than 22701 railroad cars. 22702

(P) "Railway scale" means a rail scale that is designed to 22703 weigh railroad cars. 22704

(Q) "Vehicle tank meter" means a vehicle mounted device that 22705 is designed for the measurement and delivery of liquid products 22706

from a tank.	22707
(R) "Bulk rack meter" means a wholesale device, usually	22708
mounted on a rack, that is designed for the measurement and	22709
delivery of liquid products.	22710
(S) "LPG meter" means a system, including a mechanism or	22711
machine of the meter type, that is designed to measure and deliver	22712
liquefied petroleum gas in the liquid state by a definite quantity	22713
whether installed in a permanent location or mounted on a vehicle.	22714
Sec. 1327.50. The director of agriculture shall:	22715
(A) Maintain traceability of the state standards to those of	22716
the national institute of standards and technology;	22717
(B) Enforce sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code;	22718
(C) Issue reasonable rules for the uniform enforcement of	22719 sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code, which rules shall	22720 have the force and effect of law;	22721
(D) Establish standards of weight, measure, or count,	22722 reasonable standards of fill, and standards for the voluntary	22723 presentation of cost per unit information for any package;	22724
(E) Grant any exemptions from sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of	22725
the Revised Code, or any rules adopted under those sections, when	22726 appropriate to the maintenance of good commercial practices in the	22727
(F) Conduct investigations to ensure compliance with sections	22729
1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code;	22730
(G) Delegate to appropriate personnel any of these	22731 responsibilities for the proper administration of the director's	22732
office;	22733
(H) Test as often as is prescribed by rule the standards of	22734 weight and measure used by any municipal corporation or county	22735 within the state, and approve the same when found to be correct;	22736

(I) Inspect and test weights and measures kept, offered, or	22737 exposed for sale that are sold ;	22738
(J) Inspect and test to ascertain if they are correct,	22739 weights and measures commercially used either:	22740
(1) In determining the weight, measure, or count of	22741 commodities or things sold, or offered or exposed for sale, on the	22742 basis of weight, measure, or count;	22743
(2) In computing the basic charge or payment for goods or	22744 services rendered on the basis of weight, measure, or count.	22745
(K) Test all weights and measures used in checking the	22746 receipt or disbursement of supplies in every institution, for the	22747 maintenance of which funds are appropriated by the general	22748
assembly;	22749
(L) Approve for use, and may mark, such weights and measures	22750
as the director finds to be correct, and shall reject and mark as	22751 rejected such weights and measures as the director finds to be	22752 incorrect. Weights and measures that have been rejected may be	22753 seized if not corrected within the time specified or if used or	22754 disposed of in a manner not specifically authorized, and may be	22755 condemned and seized if found to be incorrect and not capable of	22756 being made correct.	22757
(M) Weigh, measure, or inspect packaged commodities kept,	22758 offered, or exposed for sale, that are sold, or in the process of	22759 delivery to determine whether they contain the amounts represented	22760 and whether they are kept, offered, or exposed for sale sold in	22761 accordance with sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code or	22762 rules adopted under those sections. In carrying out this section,	22763
the director shall employ recognized sampling procedures, such as	22764 those designated in the national institute of standards and	22765 technology handbook 133 "checking the net contents of packaged	22766 goods." 22767

(N) Prescribe by rule the appropriate term or unit of weight 22768 or measure to be used, whenever the director determines in the 22769 case of a specific commodity that an existing practice of 22770 declaring the quantity by weight, measure, numerical count, or 22771 combination thereof, does not facilitate value comparisons by 22772 consumers, or offers an opportunity for consumer confusion; 22773

(O) Allow reasonable variations from the stated quantity of 22774 contents, which shall include those caused by unavoidable 22775 deviations in good manufacturing practice and by loss or gain of 22776 moisture during the course of good distribution practice, only 22777 after the commodity has entered intrastate commerce; 22778

(P) Provide for the weights and measures training of 22779 inspector personnel and establish minimum training requirements, 22780 which shall be met by all inspector personnel, whether county, 22781 municipal, or state; 22782

(Q) Prescribe the methods of tests and inspections to be 22783 employed in the enforcement of sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the 22784 Revised Code. The director may prescribe the official test and 22785 inspection forms to be used. 22786

(R) Provide by rule for voluntary registration with the 22787 director of private weighing and measuring device servicing 22788 agencies, and personnel; 22789

(S) In conjunction with the national institute of standards 22790 and technology, operate a type evaluation program for 22791 certification of weighing and measuring devices as part of the 22792 national type evaluation program. The director shall establish a 22793 schedule of fees for services rendered by the department of 22794 agriculture for type evaluation services. The director may require 22795 any weighing or measuring instrument or device to be traceable to 22796 a national type evaluation program certificate of conformance 22797 prior to use for commercial or law enforcement purposes. 22798

Sec. 1327.501. (A) No person shall operate in this state a 22799 commercially used weighing and measuring device, for which a fee 22800 is established in division (G) of this section unless the operator 22801 of the device obtains a permit issued by the director of 22802 agriculture or the director's designee. 22803

(B) An application for a permit shall be submitted to the 22804 director on a form that the director prescribes and provides. The 22805 applicant shall include with the application any information that 22806 is specified on the application form as well as the application 22807 fee established in this section. 22808

(C) Upon receipt of a completed application and the required 22809 fee from an applicant, the director or the director's designee 22810 shall issue or deny the permit to operate the commercially used 22811 weighing and measuring device that was the subject of the 22812
application. 22813

(D) A permit issued under this section expires on the 22814 thirtieth day of June of the year following its issuance and may 22815 be renewed annually on or before the first day of July of that 22816 year upon payment of a permit renewal fee established in this 22817
section. 22818

(E) If a permit renewal fee is more than sixty days past due, 22819 the director may assess a late penalty in an amount established 22820 under this section. 22821

(F) The director shall do both of the following: 22822

(1) Establish procedures and requirements governing the 22823 issuance or denial of permits under this section; 22824

(2) Establish late penalties to be assessed for the late 22825 payment of a permit renewal fee and fees for the replacement of 22826 lost or destroyed permits. 22827

(G) An applicant for a permit to operate under this section	22828
shall pay an application fee in the following applicable amount:	22829
(1) Seventy-five dollars for a livestock scale;	22830
(2) Seventy-five dollars for a vehicle scale;	22831
(3) Seventy-five dollars for a railway scale;	22832
(4) Seventy-five dollars for a vehicle tank meter;	22833
(5) Seventy-five dollars for a bulk rack meter;	22834
(6) Seventy-five dollars for a LPG meter.	22835
A person who is issued a permit under this section and who	22836
seeks to renew that permit shall pay an annual permit renewal fee.	22837
The amount of a permit renewal fee shall be equal to the	22838
application fee for that permit established in this division.	22839
(H) All money collected through the payment of fees and the	22840
imposition of penalties under this section shall be credited to	22841
the metrology and scale certification and device permitting fund	22842
created in section 1327.511 of the Revised Code.	22843
Sec. 1327.51. (A) When necessary for the enforcement of	22844 sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code or rules adopted	22845 pursuant thereto, the director of agriculture and any weights and	22846 measures official acting under the authority of section 1327.52 of	22847
the Revised Code may do any of the following:	22848
(1) Enter any commercial premises during normal business	22849 hours, except that in the event such premises are not open to the	22850 public, he the director or official shall first present his the	22851
director's or official's credentials and obtain consent before	22852 making entry thereto, unless a search warrant previously has been	22853 obtained;	22854
(2) Issue stop-use, hold, and removal orders with respect to	22855 any weights and measures commercially used, and stop-sale, hold,	22856 and removal orders with respect to any packaged commodities or 22857 bulk commodity observed to be or believed to be ~~kept, offered, or~~ 22858 ~~exposed for sale~~ sold; 22859

(3) Seize for use as evidence any incorrect or unapproved 22860 weight or measure or any package or commodity found to be used, 22861 retained, ~~offered or exposed for sale,~~ or sold in violation of 22862 sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code or rules 22863 ~~promulgated~~ adopted pursuant thereto. 22864

(B) The director shall afford an opportunity for a hearing in 22865 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to any owner or 22866 operator whose property is seized by the ~~Ohio~~ department of 22867 agriculture. 22868

Sec. 1327.511. All money collected under ~~section~~ sections 22869 1327.50 and 1327.501 of the Revised Code from fees and for 22870 services rendered by the department of agriculture in operating 22871 the type evaluation program, a metrology laboratory program, and 22872 the device permitting program shall be deposited in the state 22873 treasury to the credit of the metrology and scale certification 22874 and device permitting fund, which is hereby created. Money 22875 credited to the fund shall be used to pay operating costs incurred 22876 by the department in administering the ~~program~~ programs. 22877

Sec. 1327.54. No person shall misrepresent the price of any 22878 commodity or service sold, ~~offered, exposed,~~ or advertised for 22879 sale by weight, measure, or count, nor represent the price in any 22880 manner calculated or tending to mislead or in any way deceive a 22881
person. 22882

Sec. 1327.57. (A) Except as otherwise provided by law, any 22883 consumer package or commodity in package form introduced or 22884 delivered for introduction into or received in intrastate 22885 commerce, ~~kept for the purpose of sale, or offered or exposed for~~ 22886

~~sale~~ sold in intrastate commerce shall bear on the outside of the package a definite, plain, and conspicuous declaration, as may be prescribed by rule adopted by the director of agriculture, of any of the following, as applicable:

(1) The identity of the commodity in the package unless the same can easily be identified through the wrapper or container;

(2) The net quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or count;

(3) In the case of any package ~~kept, or offered or exposed for sale, or~~ sold at any place other than on the premises where packed, the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor.

This section does not apply to beer or intoxicating liquor as defined in section 4301.01 of the Revised Code, or packages thereof, or to malt or brewer's wort, or packages thereof.

(B) Under division (A)(2) of this section, neither the qualifying term "when packed" or any words of similar import, nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure, or count that tends to exaggerate the amount of commodity in a package, shall be used.

(C) In addition to the declarations required by division (A) of this section, any package or commodity in package form, if the package is one of a lot containing random weights, measures, or counts of the same commodity and bears the total selling price of the package, shall bear on the outside of the package a plain and conspicuous declaration of the price per single unit of weight, measure, or count.

(D) No package or commodity in package form shall be so wrapped, nor shall it be in a container so made, formed, or filled, as to mislead the purchaser as to the quantity of the contents of the package, and the contents of a container shall not fall below any reasonable standard of fill that may have been prescribed for the commodity in question by the director. 22918

Sec. 1327.62. Whenever the director of agriculture, or ~~his~~ 22919 the director's designee, has cause to believe that any person has 22920 violated, or is violating, ~~section~~ any provision of sections 22921 ~~1327.54 or~~ 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code or a rule 22922 adopted under them, he the director, or ~~his~~ the director's 22923 designee, may conduct a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of 22924 the Revised Code to determine whether a violation has occurred. If 22925 the director or ~~his~~ the director's designee determines that the 22926 person has violated or is violating ~~section 1327.54 or~~ any 22927 provision of sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the Revised Code or a 22928 rule adopted under it, he the director or the director's designee 22929 may assess a civil penalty against the person. The person is 22930 liable for a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars 22931 for a first violation; for a second violation the person is liable 22932 for a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred 22933 dollars; for each subsequent violation that occurs within five 22934 years after the second violation, the person is liable for a civil 22935 penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars. 22936

Any person assessed a civil penalty under this section shall 22937 pay the amount prescribed to the department of agriculture. The 22938 department shall remit all moneys collected under this section to 22939 the treasurer of state for deposit in the general revenue fund. 22940

Sec. 1327.99. Whoever violates section 1327.501 or 1327.54 or 22941 division (A), (B), (C), or (D) of section 1327.61 of the Revised 22942 Code or a rule adopted under sections 1327.46 to 1327.61 of the 22943 Revised Code is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree on a 22944 first offense; on each subsequent offense within seven years after 22945 the first offense, such person is guilty of a misdemeanor of the 22946 first degree. 22947

Sec. 1329.04. Registration of a trade name or report of a fictitious name, under sections 1329.01 to 1329.10 of the Revised Code, shall be effective for a term of five years from the date of registration or report. Upon application filed within six months prior to the expiration of such term, on a form furnished by the secretary of state, the registration or report may be renewed at the end of each five-year period for a like term, provided that a general partnership shall renew its registration or report whenever any partner named on its registration or report ceases to be a partner. Such a renewal shall extend the registration or report for five years, unless further changes occur in the interim. The renewal fee specified in division (S)(3) of section 111.16 of the Revised Code, payable to the secretary of state, shall accompany the application for renewal of the registration or report.

The secretary of state shall notify persons who have registered trade names or reported fictitious names, within the six months next preceding the expiration of the five years from the date of registration or report, of the necessity of renewal by writing ordinary or electronic mail to the last known physical or electronic mail address of such persons.

Sec. 1329.42. A person who uses in this state a name, mark, or device to indicate ownership of articles or supplies may file in the office of the secretary of state, on a form to be prescribed by the secretary of state, a verified statement setting forth, but not limited to, the following information:

(A) The name and business address of the person filing the statement; and, if a corporation, the state of incorporation;

(B) The nature of the business of the applicant;

(C) The type of articles or supplies in connection with which the name, mark, or device is used. 22978

The statement shall include or be accompanied by a specimen 22979 evidencing actual use of the name, mark, or device, together with 22980 the filing fee specified in division (U)(1) of section 111.16 of 22981 the Revised Code. The registration of a name, mark, or device 22982 pursuant to this section is effective for a ten-year period 22983 beginning on the date of registration. If an application for 22984 renewal is filed within six months prior to the expiration of the 22985 ten-year period on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, 22986 the registration may be renewed at the end of each ten-year period 22987 for an additional ten-year period. The renewal fee specified in 22988 division (U)(2) of section 111.16 of the Revised Code shall 22989 accompany the application for renewal. The secretary of state 22990 shall notify a registrant within the six months next preceding the 22991 expiration of ten years from the date of registration of the 22992 necessity of renewal by ~~writing~~ ordinary or electronic mail to the 22993 last known physical or electronic mail address of the registrant. 22994

Sec. 1332.24. (A)(1) In accordance with section 1332.25 of 22995 the Revised Code, the director of commerce may issue to any 22996 person, or renew, a video service authorization, which 22997 authorization confers on the person the authority, subject to 22998 sections 1332.21 to 1332.34 of the Revised Code, to provide video 22999 service in its video service area; construct and operate a video 23000 service network in, along, across, or on public rights-of-way for 23001 the provision of video service; and, when necessary to provide 23002 that service, exercise the power of a telephone company under 23003 section 4931.04 of the Revised Code. The term of a video service 23004 authorization or authorization renewal shall be ten years. 23005

(2) For the purposes of the "Cable Communications Policy Act 23006 of 1984," Pub. L. No. 98-549, 98 Stat. 2779, 47 U.S.C. 521 et 23007 seq., a video service authorization shall constitute a franchise 23008 under that law, and the director shall be the sole franchising 23009 authority under that law for video service authorizations in this 23010

(3) The director may impose upon and collect an annual 23012 assessment on video service providers. All money collected under 23013 division (A)(3) of this section shall be deposited in the state 23014 treasury to the credit of the ~~division of administration video~~ 23015 service authorization fund created under section ~~121.08~~ 1332.25 of 23016 the Revised Code. The total amount assessed in a fiscal year shall 23017 not exceed the lesser of four hundred fifty thousand dollars or, 23018 as shall be determined annually by the director, the department's 23019 actual, current fiscal year administrative costs in carrying out 23020 its duties under sections 1332.21 to 1332.34 of the Revised Code. 23021
The director shall allocate that total amount proportionately 23022 among the video service providers to be assessed, using a formula 23023 based on subscriber counts as of the thirty-first day of December 23024 of the preceding calendar year, which counts shall be submitted to 23025 the director not later than the thirty-first day of January of 23026 each year, via a notarized statement signed by an authorized 23027 officer. Any information submitted by a video service provider to 23028 the director for the purpose of determining subscriber counts 23029 shall be considered trade secret information, shall not be 23030 disclosed except by court order, and shall not constitute a public 23031 record under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. On or about the 23032 first day of June of each year, the director shall send to each 23033 video service provider to be assessed written notice of its 23034 proportional amount of the total assessment. The provider shall 23035 pay that amount on a quarterly basis not later than forty-five 23036 days after the end of each calendar quarter. After the initial 23037 assessment, the director annually shall reconcile the amount 23038 collected with the total, current amount assessed pursuant to this 23039 section, and either shall charge each assessed video service 23040 provider its respective proportion of any insufficiency or 23041 proportionately credit the provider's next assessment for any 23042 excess collected. 23043

(B)(1) The director may investigate alleged violations of or 23044 failures to comply with division (A) of section 1332.23, division 23045
(A) of this section, division (C) of section 1332.25, division (C) 23046 or (D) of section 1332.26, division (A), (B), or (C) of section 23047 1332.27, division (A) of section 1332.28, division (A) or (B) of 23048 section 1332.29, or section 1332.30 or 1332.31 of the Revised 23049
Code, or complaints concerning any such violation or failure. 23050 Except as provided in this section, the director has no authority 23051 to regulate video service in this state, including, but not 23052 limited to, the rates, terms, or conditions of that service. 23053

(2) In conducting an investigation under division (B)(1) of 23054 this section, the director, by subpoena, may compel witnesses to 23055 testify in relation to any matter over which the director has 23056 jurisdiction and may require the production of any book, record, 23057 or other document pertaining to that matter. If a person fails to 23058 file any statement or report, obey any subpoena, give testimony, 23059 produce any book, record, or other document as required by a 23060 subpoena, or permit photocopying of any book, record, or other 23061 document subpoenaed, the court of common pleas of any county in 23062 this state, upon application made to it by the director, shall 23063 compel obedience by attachment proceedings for contempt, as in the 23064 case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from 23065 the court or a refusal to testify. 23066

(C)(1) If the director finds that a person has violated or 23067 failed to comply with division (A) of section 1332.23, division 23068
(A) of this section, division (C) of section 1332.25, division (C) 23069
or (D) of section 1332.26, division (A), (B), or (C) of section 23070
1332.27, division (A) of section 1332.28, division (A) or (B) of 23071
section 1332.29, or section 1332.30 or 1332.31 of the Revised 23072 Code, and the person has failed to cure the violation or failure 23073 after reasonable, written notice and reasonable time to cure, the 23074 director may do any of the following: 23075

(a) Apply to the court of common pleas of any county in this 23076 state for an order enjoining the activity or requiring compliance. 23077 Such an action shall be commenced not later than three years after 23078 the date the alleged violation or failure occurred or was 23079 reasonably discovered. Upon a showing by the director that the 23080 person has engaged in a violation or failure to comply, the court 23081 shall grant an injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate 23082 relief. 23083

(b) Enter into a written assurance of voluntary compliance 23084 with the person; 23085

(c) Pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the 23086 Revised Code, assess a civil penalty in an amount determined by 23087 the director, including for any failure to comply with an 23088 assurance of voluntary compliance under division (C)(1)(b) of this 23089 section. The amount shall be not more than one thousand dollars 23090 for each day of violation or noncompliance, not to exceed a total 23091 of ten thousand dollars, counting all subscriber impacts as a 23092 single violation or act of noncompliance. In determining whether a 23093 civil penalty is appropriate under division (C)(1)(c) of this 23094 section, the director shall consider all of the following factors: 23095

(i) The seriousness of the noncompliance; 23096

(ii) The good faith efforts of the person to comply; 23097

(iii) The person's history of noncompliance; 23098

(iv) The financial resources of the person; 23099

(v) Any other matter that justice requires. 23100

Civil penalties collected pursuant to division (C)(1)(c) of 23101 this section shall be deposited to the credit of the video service 23102 enforcement fund in the state treasury, which is hereby created, 23103 to be used by the department of commerce in carrying out its 23104 duties under this section. 23105

(2) Pursuant to an adjudication under Chapter 119. of the 23106 Revised Code, the director may revoke, in whole or in part, the 23107 video service authorization of any person that has repeatedly and 23108 knowingly violated or failed to comply with division (A) of 23109 section 1332.23, division (A) of this section, division (C) of 23110 section 1332.25, division (C) or (D) of section 1332.26, division 23111
(A), (B), or (C) of section 1332.27, division (A) of section 23112
1332.28, division (A) or (B) of section 1332.29, or section 23113
1332.30 or 1332.31 of the Revised Code and that has failed to cure 23114 the violations or noncompliances after reasonable written notice 23115 and reasonable time to cure. Such person acts knowingly, 23116 regardless of the person's purpose, when the person is aware that 23117 the person's conduct will probably cause a certain result or will 23118 probably be of a certain nature. A person has knowledge of 23119 circumstances when the person is aware that such circumstances 23120 probably exist. 23121

(3) The court shall conduct a de novo review in any appeal 23122 from an adjudication under division (C)(1)(c) or (C)(2) of this 23123
section. 23124

(D) The public utilities commission has no authority over a 23125 video service provider in its offering of video service or a cable 23126 operator in its offering of cable or video service, or over any 23127 person in its offering of video service pursuant to a competitive 23128 video service agreement. 23129

Sec. 1501.022. There is hereby created in the state treasury 23130 the injection well review fund consisting of moneys transferred to 23131 it under section 6111.046 of the Revised Code. Moneys in the fund 23132 shall be used by the chiefs of the divisions of mineral resources 23133 management, oil and gas resources management, geological survey, 23134 and soil and water resources in the department of natural 23135 resources exclusively for the purpose of executing their duties 23136

under sections 6111.043 to 6111.047 of the Revised Code. 23137

Sec. 1501.40. The department of natural resources is the 23138 designated state agency responsible for the coordination and 23139 administration of sections 120 to 136 of the "National and 23140 Community Service Act of 1990," 104 Stat. 3127 (1990), 42 U.S.C.A. 23141 12401 to 12456, as amended. With the assistance of the Ohio 23142 community commission on service council and volunteerism created 23143 in section 121.40 of the Revised Code, the director of natural 23144 resources shall coordinate with other state agencies to apply for 23145 funding under the act when appropriate and shall administer any 23146 federal funds the state receives under sections 120 to 136 of the 23147
act. 23148

Sec. 1503.05. (A) The chief of the division of forestry may 23149 sell timber and other forest products from the state forest and 23150 state forest nurseries whenever the chief considers such a sale 23151 desirable and, with the approval of the attorney general and the 23152 director of natural resources, may sell portions of the state 23153 forest lands when such a sale is advantageous to the state. 23154

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a timber 23155 sale agreement shall not be executed unless the person or 23156 governmental entity bidding on the sale executes and files a 23157 surety bond conditioned on completion of the timber sale in 23158 accordance with the terms of the agreement in an amount equal to 23159 twenty-five per cent of the highest value cutting section. All 23160 bonds shall be given in a form prescribed by the chief and shall 23161 run to the state as obligee. 23162

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 23163 signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 23164 either by the attorney in fact thereof, with a certified copy of 23165 the power of attorney attached. The chief shall not approve the 23166 bond unless there is attached a certificate of the superintendent 23167 of insurance that the company is authorized to transact a fidelity 23168 and surety business in this state. 23169

In lieu of a bond, the bidder may deposit any of the 23170
following: 23171

(1) Cash in an amount equal to the amount of the bond; 23172

(2) United States government securities having a par value 23173 equal to or greater than the amount of the bond; 23174

(3) Negotiable certificates of deposit or irrevocable letters 23175 of credit issued by any bank organized or transacting business in 23176 this state having a par value equal to or greater than the amount 23177 of the bond. 23178

The cash or securities shall be deposited on the same terms 23179 as bonds. If one or more certificates of deposit are deposited in 23180 lieu of a bond, the chief shall require the bank that issued any 23181 of the certificates to pledge securities of the aggregate market 23182 value equal to the amount of the certificate or certificates that 23183 is in excess of the amount insured by the federal deposit 23184 insurance corporation. The securities to be pledged shall be those 23185 designated as eligible under section 135.18 of the Revised Code. 23186
The securities shall be security for the repayment of the 23187 certificate or certificates of deposit. 23188

Immediately upon a deposit of cash, securities, certificates 23189 of deposit, or letters of credit, the chief shall deliver them to 23190 the treasurer of state, who shall hold them in trust for the 23191 purposes for which they have been deposited. The treasurer of 23192 state is responsible for the safekeeping of the deposits. A bidder 23193 making a deposit of cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or 23194 letters of credit may withdraw and receive from the treasurer of 23195 state, on the written order of the chief, all or any portion of 23196 the cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or letters of 23197 credit upon depositing with the treasurer of state cash, other 23198 United States government securities, or other negotiable 23199 certificates of deposit or irrevocable letters of credit issued by 23200 any bank organized or transacting business in this state, equal in 23201 par value to the par value of the cash, securities, certificates 23202 of deposit, or letters of credit withdrawn. 23203

A bidder may demand and receive from the treasurer of state 23204 all interest or other income from any such securities or 23205 certificates as it becomes due. If securities so deposited with 23206 and in the possession of the treasurer of state mature or are 23207 called for payment by their issuer, the treasurer of state, at the 23208 request of the bidder who deposited them, shall convert the 23209 proceeds of the redemption or payment of the securities into other 23210 United States government securities, negotiable certificates of 23211 deposit, or cash as the bidder designates. 23212

When the chief finds that a person or governmental agency has 23213 failed to comply with the conditions of the person's or 23214 governmental agency's bond, the chief shall make a finding of that 23215 fact and declare the bond, cash, securities, certificates, or 23216 letters of credit forfeited. The chief thereupon shall certify the 23217 total forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to 23218 collect the amount of the bond, cash, securities, certificates, or 23219 letters of credit. 23220

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety, at its option, may 23221 cause the timber sale to be completed or pay to the treasurer of 23222 state the cost thereof. 23223

All moneys collected as a result of forfeitures of bonds, 23224 cash, securities, certificates, and letters of credit under this 23225 section shall be credited to the state forest fund created in this 23226
section. 23227

(C) The chief may grant easements and leases on portions of 23228 the state forest lands and state forest nurseries under terms that 23229 are advantageous to the state, and the chief may grant mineral 23230 rights on a royalty basis on those lands and nurseries, with the 23231 approval of the attorney general and the director. 23232

(D) All moneys received from the sale of state forest lands, 23233 or in payment for easements or leases on or as rents from those 23234 lands or from state forest nurseries, shall be paid into the state 23235 treasury to the credit of the state forest fund, which is hereby 23236 created. In addition, all moneys received from federal grants, 23237 payments, and reimbursements, from the sale of reforestation tree 23238 stock, from the sale of forest products, other than standing 23239 timber, and from the sale of minerals taken from the state forest 23240 lands and state forest nurseries, together with royalties from 23241 mineral rights, shall be paid into the state treasury to the 23242 credit of the state forest fund. Any other revenues derived from 23243 the operation of the state forests and related facilities or 23244 equipment also shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit 23245 of the state forest fund, as shall contributions received for the 23246 issuance of Smokey Bear license plates under section 4503.574 of 23247 the Revised Code and any other moneys required by law to be 23248 deposited in the fund. 23249

The state forest fund shall not be expended for any purpose 23250 other than the administration, operation, maintenance, 23251 development, or utilization of the state forests, forest 23252 nurseries, and forest programs, for facilities or equipment 23253 incident to them, or for the further purchase of lands for state 23254 forest or forest nursery purposes and, in the case of 23255 contributions received pursuant to section 4503.574 of the Revised 23256
Code, for fire prevention purposes. 23257

All moneys received from the sale of standing timber taken 23258 from state forest lands and state forest nurseries shall be 23259 deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the forestry 23260 holding account redistribution fund, which is hereby created. The 23261 moneys shall remain in the fund until they are redistributed in 23262 accordance with this division. 23263

The redistribution shall occur at least once each year. To 23264 begin the redistribution, the chief first shall determine the 23265 amount of all standing timber sold from state forest lands and 23266 state forest nurseries, together with the amount of the total sale 23267 proceeds, in each county, in each township within the county, and 23268 in each school district within the county. The chief next shall 23269 determine the amount of the direct costs that the division of 23270 forestry incurred in association with the sale of that standing 23271 timber. The amount of the direct costs shall be subtracted from 23272 the amount of the total sale proceeds and shall be transferred 23273 from the forestry holding account redistribution fund to the state 23274 forest fund. 23275

The remaining amount of the total sale proceeds equals the 23276 net value of the standing timber that was sold. The chief shall 23277 determine the net value of standing timber sold from state forest 23278 lands and state forest nurseries in each county, in each township 23279 within the county, and in each school district within the county 23280 and shall send to each county treasurer a copy of the 23281 determination at the time that moneys are paid to the county 23282 treasurer under this division. 23283

Twenty-five per cent of the net value of standing timber sold 23284 from state forest lands and state forest nurseries located in a 23285 county shall be transferred from the forestry holding account 23286 redistribution fund to the state forest fund. Ten per cent of that 23287 net value shall be transferred from the forestry holding account 23288 redistribution fund to the general revenue fund. The remaining 23289 sixty-five per cent of the net value shall be transferred from the 23290 forestry holding account redistribution fund and paid to the 23291 county treasurer for the use of the general fund of that county. 23292

The county auditor shall do all of the following: 23293

(1) Retain for the use of the general fund of the county 23294 one-fourth of the amount received by the county under division (D) 23295
of this section; 23296

(2) Pay into the general fund of any township located within 23297 the county and containing such lands and nurseries one-fourth of 23298 the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 23299 lands and nurseries located in the township; 23300

(3) Request the board of education of any school district 23301 located within the county and containing such lands and nurseries 23302 to identify which fund or funds of the district should receive the 23303 moneys available to the school district under division (D)(3) of 23304 this section. After receiving notice from the board, the county 23305 auditor shall pay into the fund or funds so identified one-half of 23306
the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 23307 lands and nurseries located in the school district, distributed 23308 proportionately as identified by the board. 23309

The division of forestry shall not supply logs, lumber, or 23310 other forest products or minerals, taken from the state forest 23311 lands or state forest nurseries, to any other agency or 23312 subdivision of the state unless payment is made therefor in the 23313 amount of the actual prevailing value thereof. This section is 23314 applicable to the moneys so received. 23315

(E) The chief may enter into a personal service contract for 23316 consulting services to assist the chief with the sale of timber or 23317 other forest products and related inventory. Compensation for 23318 consulting services shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of 23319 timber or other forest products and related inventory that are the 23320 subject of the personal service contract. 23321

Sec. 1505.01. The division of geological survey: 23322

(A) Shall collect, study, and interpret all available 23323 information pertaining to the geomorphology, stratigraphy, 23324 paleontology, mineralogy, and geologic structure of the state and 23325 shall publish reports on the same; 23326

(B) Shall collect, study, and interpret all available data 23327 pertaining to the origin, distribution, extent, use, and valuation 23328 of mineralogical and geological raw materials and natural 23329 resources such as: clays, coals, building stones, gypsum, salt, 23330 limestones and, dolomite, aggregates, sand, gravel, shales ~~for~~ 23331 ~~cement and other uses, petroleum, oil, natural~~ gas, brines, ~~saline~~ 23332 ~~deposits,~~ molding sands, and other natural substances of use and 23333 value, excluding only those pertaining to water usable as such for 23334 agricultural, industrial, commercial, and domestic purposes, but 23335 not excluding other rock fluids such as natural and artificial 23336 brines and oil-well fluids; 23337

(C) Shall make special studies and reports of resources of 23338 geological nature within the state ~~which~~ that in its discretion 23339 are of current or potential economic, environmental, or 23340 educational significance or of significance to the health, 23341 welfare, and safety of the public; 23342

(D) May examine the technological processes by which mining, 23343 quarrying, or other extracting processes may be improved, or by 23344 which materials now uneconomical to exploit may be extracted and 23345 used commercially for the public welfare; 23346

(E) Shall make, store, catalog, and have available ~~for~~ 23347 ~~distribution in perpetuity~~ data, maps, diagrams, records, rock 23348 cores, samples, profiles, and geologic sections portraying the 23349 geological characteristics and topography of the state, both of 23350 general nature and of specific localities; 23351

(F) ~~May, or at the request of other agencies of the state~~ 23352 ~~government shall, advise and, consult, or collaborate with~~ 23353 ~~representatives of these agencies of the state, other state~~ 23354
~~governments, or the United States government on problems or issues~~ 23355
~~of a geological nature;~~ 23356

(G) Shall advise, consult, or collaborate with 23357 representatives of agencies of the state, other state governments, 23358 or the United States government on problems or issues of a 23359 geological nature when requested by such an agency or government; 23360

(H) May create custom maps, custom data sets, or other custom 23361 products for government agencies, colleges and universities, and 23362 persons; 23363

(I) May provide information on the geological nature of the 23364 state to government agencies, colleges and universities, and 23365
persons. 23366

Sec. 1505.011. (A) Custom maps, custom data sets, and other 23367 custom products created and information provided pursuant to 23368 divisions (H) and (I) of section 1505.01 of the Revised Code for 23369 use by governmental agencies and colleges and universities are 23370 intellectual property records as defined in section 149.43 of the 23371
Revised Code and may be held confidential pursuant to a contract. 23372

(B) Custom maps, custom data sets, and other custom products 23373 created and information provided pursuant to divisions (H) and (I) 23374 of section 1505.01 of the Revised Code for use by persons are 23375 intellectual property records as defined in section 149.43 of the 23376 Revised Code and shall be held confidential pursuant to a 23377
contract. 23378

Sec. 1505.04. (A) Any person, firm, government agency, or 23379 corporation who, for hire, or by its own forces for economic use 23380 or exploration, drills, bores, or digs within the state a well for 23381

the production or extraction of any gas or liquid, excluding only 23382 water to be used as such, but including natural or artificial 23383 brines and oil-filled waters, or who drills wells, bores, or digs 23384 within the state a well to explore geological formations, shall 23385 keep a careful and accurate log of ~~such~~ the activity and report 23386 the same together with the results of any rock or fluid analyses 23387 or of any production test results or pressure tests in such form 23388 as is designated by the division of geological survey to the chief 23389 of the division of geological survey. 23390

(B) The division may file such well logs and establish and 23391 observe such regulations regarding their availability and use as 23392 will meet the legitimate requirements of the owner or lessee of 23393 the well. Personnel of the division ~~of~~ may examine any such well 23394 during its construction to confirm the accuracy of the log and to 23395 collect samples of the cores, chips, fluids, gases, or sludge. 23396

(C) No person, firm, agency, or corporation shall fail to 23397 keep an accurate log or file a report as required in division (A) 23398
of this section. 23399

Sec. 1505.05. (A) Notwithstanding any other provision of the 23400 Revised Code to the contrary, the chief of the division of 23401 geological survey shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the 23402 Revised Code that establish a fee schedule for requests for 23403 manipulated, interpreted, or analyzed data from the geologic 23404 records, data, maps, rock cores, and samples archived by the 23405 division. The fee schedule may include the cost of specialized 23406 storage requirements, programming, labor, research, retrieval, 23407 data manipulation, and copying and mailing of records requested 23408 from the archives. In addition, the rules shall establish 23409 procedures for the levying and collection of the fees in the fee 23410 schedule. 23411

(B) For purposes of divisions (H) and (I) of section 1505.01 23412 of the Revised Code, the chief shall adopt rules under Chapter 23413 119. of the Revised Code that establish a fee schedule to be paid 23414 for creating custom maps, custom data sets, and other custom 23415 products and for providing geological information of the state. 23416

The fee schedule may include the costs of labor, research, 23417 analysis, equipment, and technology. In addition, the rules shall 23418 establish procedures for the levying and collection of the fees in 23419 the fee schedule. 23420

(C) The chief may reduce or waive a fee in a fee schedule 23421 established in rules adopted under division (A) or (B) of this 23422 section for a student that is enrolled in an institution of higher 23423
education. 23424

(D) Any revision to a fee schedule established in rules 23425 adopted under division (A) or (B) of this section shall be 23426 established in rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised 23427 Code. A revision to a fee schedule is subject to review by the 23428
Ohio geology advisory council created in section 1505.11 of the 23429 Revised Code and to approval by the director of natural resources. 23430

(E) All fees collected under this section shall be credited 23431 to the geological mapping fund created in section 1505.09 of the 23432
Revised Code. 23433

Sec. 1505.06. The chief of the division of geological survey 23434 in the discharge of ~~his~~ official duties under ~~section~~ sections 23435 1505.01 to 1505.08, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code, may call to 23436 ~~his~~ the chief's assistance, temporarily, any engineers or other 23437 employees in any state department, or in the Ohio state 23438 university, or other educational institutions financed wholly or 23439 in part by the state, for the purpose of making studies, surveys, 23440 maps, and plans for ~~erosion~~ economic development or geologic 23441 hazards projects. 23442

Such engineers and employees shall not receive any additional 23443 compensation over that which they receive from the departments by 23444 which they are employed, but they shall be reimbursed for their 23445 actual necessary expenses incurred while working under the 23446 direction of the chief on ~~erosion~~ the projects. 23447

Sec. 1505.09. There is hereby created in the state treasury 23448 the geological mapping fund, to be administered by the chief of 23449 the division of geological survey. The fund shall be used 23450 ~~exclusively~~ for the purposes of performing the necessary field, 23451 laboratory, and administrative tasks to map and make public 23452 reports on the geology, geologic hazards, and energy and mineral 23453 resources ~~of each county~~ of the state. The source of moneys for 23454 the fund shall include, but not be limited to, the mineral 23455 severance tax as specified in section 5749.02 of the Revised Code 23456 and the fees collected under rules adopted under section 1505.05 23457 of the Revised Code. The chief may seek federal or other moneys in 23458 addition to the mineral severance tax and fees to carry out the 23459 purposes of this section. If the chief receives federal moneys for 23460 the purposes of this section, ~~he~~ the chief shall deposit those 23461 moneys into the state treasury to the credit of a fund ~~which shall~~ 23462 ~~be created at that time~~ by the controlling board to carry out 23463 those purposes. Other moneys received by the chief for the 23464 purposes of this section in addition to the mineral severance tax, 23465 fees, and federal moneys shall be credited to the geological 23466 mapping fund. 23467

Sec. 1505.11. There is hereby created in the department of 23468 natural resources the Ohio geology advisory council consisting of 23469 seven members to be appointed by the governor with the advice and 23470 consent of the senate. No more than four of the members shall be 23471 of the same political party. Members shall be persons who have a 23472 demonstrated interest in ~~Ohio~~ the geology and mineral resources of 23473 this state and whose expertise reflects the various 23474 responsibilities of the division of geological survey. The council 23475 shall include at least one representative from each of the 23476 following: the oil and gas industry, the industrial minerals 23477 industry, the coal industry, hydrogeology interests, environmental 23478 geology interests, and an institution of higher education in this 23479 state. The chief of the division of geological survey may 23480 participate in the deliberations of the council, but shall not 23481 vote. 23482

Within ninety days after ~~the effective date of this section~~ 23483
May 3, 1990, the governor shall make initial appointments to the 23484 council. Of the initial appointments, three shall be for a term 23485 ending one year after ~~the effective date of this section~~ May 3, 23486 1990, three shall be for a term ending two years after ~~the~~ 23487 ~~effective date of this section~~ May 3, 1990, and one shall be for a 23488 term ending three years after ~~the effective date of this section~~ 23489 May 3, 1990. Thereafter, terms of office shall be for three years, 23490 with each term ending on the same day of the same month as did the 23491 term that it succeeds. Members may be reappointed. The governor 23492 may remove any member at any time for inefficiency, neglect of 23493 duty, or malfeasance in office. Vacancies shall be filled in the 23494 manner provided for original appointments. Any member appointed to 23495 fill a vacancy prior to the expiration date of the term for which 23496 ~~his~~ the member's predecessor was appointed shall hold office as a 23497 member for the remainder of that term. A member shall continue in 23498 office subsequent to the expiration date of ~~his~~ the member's term 23499 until ~~his~~ the member's successor takes office or until a period of 23500
sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 23501

Serving as an appointed member on the council does not 23502 constitute holding a public office or position of employment under 23503 the laws of this state and does not constitute grounds for removal 23504 of public officers or employees from their offices or positions of 23505 employment. 23506

Members shall serve without compensation, but shall be 23507 reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the 23508 performance of their official duties from moneys appropriated to 23509 the division. 23510

The council annually shall select from its members a ~~chairman~~ 23511 chairperson and a ~~vice-chairman~~ vice-chairperson. The council 23512 shall hold at least one meeting each calendar quarter and shall 23513 keep a record of its proceedings, which shall be open to public 23514 inspection. Special meetings may be called by the ~~chairman~~ 23515 chairperson and shall be called upon the written request of two or 23516 more members. A majority of the members constitutes a quorum. The 23517 division shall furnish clerical, technical, legal, and other 23518 services required by the council in the performance of its duties. 23519

The council shall do all of the following: 23520

(A) Advise the chief ~~of the division of geological survey~~ in 23521 carrying out the duties of the division under this chapter; 23522

(B) Recommend policy and legislation with respect to geology, 23523 resource analysis, and management that will promote the economic 23524 and industrial development of the state while minimizing threats 23525 to the natural environment of the state; 23526

(C) Review and make recommendations on the development of 23527 plans and programs for long-term, comprehensive geologic mapping 23528 and analysis throughout the state; 23529

(D) Recommend ways to enhance cooperation among governmental 23530 agencies having an interest in ~~Ohio~~ the geology of the state to 23531 encourage wise use and management of the geology and mineral 23532 resources of the state. To this end, the council shall request 23533 nonvoting representation from appropriate governmental agencies. 23534

(E) Review and make recommendations with respect to changes 23535 in the fee schedules established in rules adopted under section 23536

Sec. 1505.99. (A) Whoever violates section 1505.07 of the Revised Code shall be fined not less than one thousand nor more than two thousand dollars on a first offense; on each subsequent offense, the person shall be fined not less than two thousand nor more than five thousand dollars.

(B) Whoever violates section 1505.04 or 1505.10 of the Revised Code shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars on a first offense; on each subsequent offense, the person shall be fined not less than one thousand nor more than two thousand dollars. Notwithstanding any section of the Revised Code relating to the distribution or crediting of fines for violations of the Revised Code, all fines imposed under this division shall be paid into the geological mapping fund created in section 1505.09 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 1509.01. As used in this chapter:

(A) "Well" means any borehole, whether drilled or bored, within the state for production, extraction, or injection of any gas or liquid mineral, excluding potable water to be used as such, but including natural or artificial brines and oil field waters.

(B) "Oil" means crude petroleum oil and all other hydrocarbons, regardless of gravity, that are produced in liquid form by ordinary production methods, but does not include hydrocarbons that were originally in a gaseous phase in the reservoir.

(C) "Gas" means all natural gas and all other fluid hydrocarbons that are not oil, including condensate.

(D) "Condensate" means liquid hydrocarbons that were originally in the gaseous phase in the reservoir.

(E) "Pool" means an underground reservoir containing a common accumulation of oil or gas, or both, but does not include a gas storage reservoir. Each zone of a geological structure that is 23568 completely separated from any other zone in the same structure may 23569 contain a separate pool. 23570

(F) "Field" means the general area underlaid by one or more 23571 pools. 23572

(G) "Drilling unit" means the minimum acreage on which one 23573 well may be drilled, but does not apply to a well for injecting 23574 gas into or removing gas from a gas storage reservoir. 23575

(H) "Waste" includes all of the following: 23576

(1) Physical waste, as that term generally is understood in 23577
the oil and gas industry; 23578

(2) Inefficient, excessive, or improper use, or the 23579 unnecessary dissipation, of reservoir energy; 23580

(3) Inefficient storing of oil or gas; 23581

(4) Locating, drilling, equipping, operating, or producing an 23582 oil or gas well in a manner that reduces or tends to reduce the 23583 quantity of oil or gas ultimately recoverable under prudent and 23584 proper operations from the pool into which it is drilled or that 23585 causes or tends to cause unnecessary or excessive surface loss or 23586 destruction of oil or gas; 23587

(5) Other underground or surface waste in the production or 23588 storage of oil, gas, or condensate, however caused. 23589

(I) "Correlative rights" means the reasonable opportunity to 23590 every person entitled thereto to recover and receive the oil and 23591 gas in and under the person's tract or tracts, or the equivalent 23592 thereof, without having to drill unnecessary wells or incur other 23593 unnecessary expense. 23594

(J) "Tract" means a single, individually taxed parcel of land 23595 appearing on the tax list. 23596

(K) "Owner," unless referring to a mine, means the person who 23597 has the right to drill on a tract or drilling unit, to drill into 23598 and produce from a pool, and to appropriate the oil or gas 23599 produced therefrom either for the person or for others, except 23600 that a person ceases to be an owner with respect to a well when 23601 the well has been plugged in accordance with applicable rules 23602 adopted and orders issued under this chapter. "Owner" does not 23603 include a person who obtains a lease of the mineral rights for oil 23604 and gas on a parcel of land if the person does not attempt to 23605 produce or produce oil or gas from a well or obtain a permit under 23606 this chapter for a well or if the entire interest of a well is 23607 transferred to the person in accordance with division (B) of 23608

section 1509.31 of the Revised Code. 23609

(L) "Royalty interest" means the fee holder's share in the 23610 production from a well. 23611

(M) "Discovery well" means the first well capable of 23612 producing oil or gas in commercial quantities from a pool. 23613

(N) "Prepared clay" means a clay that is plastic and is 23614 thoroughly saturated with fresh water to a weight and consistency 23615 great enough to settle through saltwater in the well in which it 23616 is to be used, except as otherwise approved by the chief of the 23617 division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management. 23618

(O) "Rock sediment" means the combined cutting and residue 23619 from drilling sedimentary rocks and formation. 23620

(P) "Excavations and workings," "mine," and "pillar" have the 23621 same meanings as in section 1561.01 of the Revised Code. 23622

(Q) "Coal bearing township" means a township designated as 23623 such by the chief of the division of mineral resources management 23624
under section 1561.06 of the Revised Code. 23625

(R) "Gas storage reservoir" means a continuous area of a 23626 subterranean porous sand or rock stratum or strata into which gas 23627 is or may be injected for the purpose of storing it therein and 23628 removing it therefrom and includes a gas storage reservoir as 23629

defined in section 1571.01 of the Revised Code. 23630

(S) "Safe Drinking Water Act" means the "Safe Drinking Water 23631 Act," 88 Stat. 1661 (1974), 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f), as amended by the 23632
"Safe Drinking Water Amendments of 1977," 91 Stat. 1393, 42 23633
U.S.C.A. 300(f), the "Safe Drinking Water Act Amendments of 1986," 23634
100 Stat. 642, 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f), and the "Safe Drinking Water 23635 Act Amendments of 1996," 110 Stat. 1613, 42 U.S.C.A. 300(f), and 23636 regulations adopted under those acts. 23637

(T) "Person" includes any political subdivision, department, 23638 agency, or instrumentality of this state; the United States and 23639 any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof; and any legal 23640 entity defined as a person under section 1.59 of the Revised Code. 23641

(U) "Brine" means all saline geological formation water 23642 resulting from, obtained from, or produced in connection with 23643 exploration, drilling, well stimulation, production of oil or gas, 23644 or plugging of a well. 23645

(V) "Waters of the state" means all streams, lakes, ponds, 23646 marshes, watercourses, waterways, springs, irrigation systems, 23647 drainage systems, and other bodies of water, surface or 23648 underground, natural or artificial, that are situated wholly or 23649 partially within this state or within its jurisdiction, except 23650 those private waters that do not combine or effect a junction with 23651 natural surface or underground waters. 23652

(W) "Exempt Mississippian well" means a well that meets all 23653 of the following criteria: 23654

(1) Was drilled and completed before January 1, 1980; 23655

(2) Is located in an unglaciated part of the state; 23656

(3) Was completed in a reservoir no deeper than the 23657
Mississippian Big Injun sandstone in areas underlain by 23658

Pennsylvanian or Permian stratigraphy, or the Mississippian Berea sandstone in areas directly underlain by Permian stratigraphy;	23659 23660
(4) Is used primarily to provide oil or gas for domestic use.	23661
(X) "Exempt domestic well" means a well that meets all of the following criteria:	23662 23663
(1) Is owned by the owner of the surface estate of the tract on which the well is located;	23664 23665
(2) Is used primarily to provide gas for the owner's domestic use;	23666 23667
(3) Is located more than two hundred feet horizontal distance from any inhabited private dwelling house other than an inhabited private dwelling house located on the tract on which the well is located;	23668 23669 23670 23671
(4) Is located more than two hundred feet horizontal distance from any public building that may be used as a place of resort, assembly, education, entertainment, lodging, trade, manufacture, repair, storage, traffic, or occupancy by the public.	23672 23673 23674 23675
(Y) "Urbanized area" means an area where a well or production facilities of a well are located within a municipal corporation or within a township that has an unincorporated population of more than five thousand in the most recent federal decennial census prior to the issuance of the permit for the well or production facilities.	23676 23677 23678 23679 23680 23681
(Z) "Well stimulation" or "stimulation of a well" means the process of enhancing well productivity, including hydraulic fracturing operations.	23682 23683 23684
(AA) "Production operation" means all operations and activities and all related equipment, facilities, and other structures that may be used in or associated with the exploration and production of oil, gas, or other mineral resources that are	23685 23686 23687 23688

regulated under this chapter, including operations and activities	23689
associated with site preparation, site construction, access roads	23690
road construction, well drilling, well completion, well	23691 stimulation, well operation site activities , site reclamation, and	23692 well plugging. "Production operation" also includes all of the	23693
following:	23694
(1) The piping and , equipment, and facilities used for the	23695 production and preparation of hydrocarbon gas or liquids for	23696 transportation or delivery;	23697
(2) The processes of extraction and recovery, lifting,	23698 stabilization, treatment, separation, production processing,	23699 storage, waste disposal , and measurement of hydrocarbon gas and	23700 liquids, including related equipment and facilities ;	23701
(3) The processes and related equipment and facilities	23702 associated with production compression, gas lift, gas injection,	23703
and fuel gas supply, well drilling, well stimulation, and well	23704
completion activities, including dikes, pits, and earthen and	23705
other impoundments used for the temporary storage of fluids and	23706
waste substances associated with well drilling, well stimulation,	23707
and well completion activities.	23708
(BB) "Annular overpressurization" means the accumulation of	23709
fluids within an annulus with sufficient pressure to allow	23710 migration of annular fluids into underground sources of drinking	23711 water.	23712
(CC) "Idle and orphaned well" means a well for which a bond	23713 has been forfeited or an abandoned well for which no money is	23714 available to plug the well in accordance with this chapter and	23715 rules adopted under it.	23716
(DD) "Temporarily inactive well" means a well that has been	23717 granted temporary inactive status under section 1509.062 of the	23718
Revised Code.	23719

(EE) "Material and substantial violation" means any of the following:	23720
	23721
(1) Failure to obtain a permit to drill, reopen, convert, plugback, or plug a well under this chapter;	23722
	23723
(2) Failure to obtain or maintain insurance coverage that is required under this chapter;	23724
	23725
(3) Failure to obtain or maintain a surety bond that is required under this chapter;	23726
	23727
	23729
	23732

Sec. 1509.02. There is hereby created in the department of natural resources the division of mineral oil and gas resources management, which shall be administered by the chief of the division of mineral oil and gas resources management. The division has sole and exclusive authority to regulate the permitting, location, and spacing of oil and gas wells and production operations within the state. The regulation of oil and gas activities is a matter of general statewide interest that requires	23742 uniform statewide regulation, and this chapter and rules adopted 23750 under it constitute a comprehensive plan with respect to all 23751 aspects of the locating, drilling, well stimulation, completing, 23752 and operating of oil and gas wells within this state, including 23753 site construction and restoration, the permitting of discharges 23754 related to those activities, and the disposal of wastes from those 23755 wells. Nothing in this section affects the authority granted to 23756 the director of transportation and local authorities in section 23757 723.01 or 4513.34 of the Revised Code, provided that the authority 23758 granted under those sections shall not be exercised in a manner 23759 that discriminates against, unfairly impedes, or obstructs oil and 23760 gas activities and operations regulated under this chapter. 23761

The chief shall not hold any other public office, nor shall 23763 the chief be engaged in any occupation or business that might 23764 interfere with or be inconsistent with the duties as chief. 23765

All moneys collected by the chief pursuant to sections 23766
1509.06, 1509.061, 1509.062, 1509.071, 1509.13, 1509.22, 1509.221, 23767 1509.222, 1509.34, and 1509.50 of the Revised Code, ninety per 23768 cent of moneys received by the treasurer of state from the tax 23769 levied in divisions (A)(5) and (6) of section 5749.02 of the 23770 Revised Code, all civil penalties paid under section 1509.33 of 23771 the Revised Code, and, notwithstanding any section of the Revised 23772 Code relating to the distribution or crediting of fines for 23773 violations of the Revised Code, all fines imposed under divisions 23774 (A) and (B) of section 1509.99 of the Revised Code and fines 23775 imposed under divisions (C) and (D) of section 1509.99 of the 23776 Revised Code for all violations prosecuted by the attorney general 23777 and for violations prosecuted by prosecuting attorneys that do not 23778 involve the transportation of brine by vehicle shall be deposited 23779 into the state treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well 23780 fund, which is hereby created. Fines imposed under divisions (C) 23781 and (D) of section 1509.99 of the Revised Code for violations 23782 prosecuted by prosecuting attorneys that involve the 23783 transportation of brine by vehicle and penalties associated with a 23784 compliance agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter shall 23785 be paid to the county treasury of the county where the violation 23786

occurred. 23787

The fund shall be used solely and exclusively for the 23788 purposes enumerated in division (B) of section 1509.071 of the 23789 Revised Code, for the expenses of the division associated with the 23790 administration of this chapter and Chapter 1571. of the Revised 23791 Code and rules adopted under them, and for expenses that are 23792 critical and necessary for the protection of human health and 23793 safety and the environment related to oil and gas production in 23794 this state. The expenses of the division in excess of the moneys 23795 available in the fund shall be paid from general revenue fund 23796 appropriations to the department. 23797

Sec. 1509.021. On and after ~~the effective date of this~~ 23798
~~section~~ June 30, 2010, all of the following apply: 23799

(A) The surface location of a new well or a tank battery of a 23800 well shall not be within one hundred fifty feet of an occupied 23801 dwelling that is located in an urbanized area unless the owner of 23802 the land on which the occupied dwelling is located consents in 23803 writing to the surface location of the well or tank battery of a 23804 well less than one hundred fifty feet from the occupied dwelling 23805 and the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources 23806 management approves the written consent of that owner. However, 23807 the chief shall not approve the written consent of such an owner 23808 when the surface location of a new well or a tank battery of a 23809 well will be within one hundred feet of an occupied dwelling that 23810 is located in an urbanized area. 23811

(B) The surface location of a new well shall not be within 23812 one hundred fifty feet from the property line of a parcel of land 23813 that is not in the drilling unit of the well if the parcel of land 23814 is located in an urbanized area and directional drilling will be 23815 used to drill the new well unless the owner of the parcel of land 23816 consents in writing to the surface location of the well less than 23817 one hundred fifty feet from the property line of the parcel of 23818 land and the chief approves the written consent of that owner. 23819 However, the chief shall not approve the written consent of such 23820 an owner when the surface location of a new well will be less than 23821 one hundred feet from the property line of the owner's parcel of 23822 land that is not in the drilling unit of the well if the parcel of 23823 land is located in an urbanized area and directional drilling will 23824 be used. 23825

(C) The surface location of a new well shall not be within 23826 two hundred feet of an occupied dwelling that is located in an 23827 urbanized area and that is located on land that has become part of 23828
the drilling unit of the well pursuant to a mandatory pooling 23829 order issued under section 1509.27 of the Revised Code unless the 23830 owner of the land on which the occupied dwelling is located 23831 consents in writing to the surface location of the well at a 23832 distance that is less than two hundred feet from the occupied 23833 dwelling. However, if the owner of the land on which the occupied 23834 dwelling is located provides such written consent, the surface 23835 location of the well shall not be within one hundred feet of the 23836 occupied dwelling. 23837

If an applicant cannot identify an owner of land or if an 23838 owner of land is not responsive to attempts by the applicant to 23839 contact the owner, the applicant may submit an affidavit to the 23840
chief attesting to such an unidentifiable owner or to such 23841 unresponsiveness of an owner and attempts by the applicant to 23842 contact the owner and include a written request to reduce the 23843 distance of the location of the well from the occupied dwelling to 23844 less than two hundred feet. If the chief receives such an 23845 affidavit and written request, the chief shall reduce the distance 23846 of the location of the well from the occupied dwelling to a 23847 distance of not less than one hundred feet. 23848

(D) Except as otherwise provided in division (L) of this 23849 section, the surface location of a new well shall not be within 23850 one hundred fifty feet of the property line of a parcel of land 23851 that is located in an urbanized area and that has become part of 23852
the drilling unit of the well pursuant to a mandatory pooling 23853
order issued under section 1509.27 of the Revised Code unless the 23854 owner of the land consents in writing to the surface location of 23855 the well at a distance that is less than one hundred fifty feet 23856 from the owner's property line. However, if the owner of the land 23857 provides such written consent, the surface location of the well 23858 shall not be within seventy-five feet of the property line of the 23859 owner's parcel of land. 23860

If an applicant cannot identify an owner of land or if an 23861
owner of land is not responsive to attempts by the applicant to 23862
contact the owner, the applicant may submit an affidavit to the 23863
chief attesting to such an unidentifiable owner or to such 23864
unresponsiveness of an owner and attempts by the applicant to 23865
contact the owner and include a written request to reduce the 23866 distance of the location of the well from the property line of the 23867 owner's parcel of land to less than one hundred fifty feet. If the 23868 chief receives such an affidavit and written request, the chief 23869 shall reduce the distance of the location of the well from the 23870 property line to a distance of not less than seventy-five feet. 23871

(E) The surface location of a new tank battery of a well 23872 shall not be within one hundred fifty feet of an occupied dwelling 23873 that is located in an urbanized area and that is located on land 23874 that has become part of the drilling unit of the well pursuant to 23875 a mandatory pooling order issued under section 1509.27 of the 23876

Revised Code unless the owner of the land on which the occupied dwelling is located consents in writing to the location of the tank battery at a distance that is less than one hundred fifty feet from the occupied dwelling. However, if the owner of the land on which the occupied dwelling is located provides such written consent, the location of the tank battery shall not be within one hundred feet of the occupied dwelling.

If an applicant cannot identify an owner of land or if an owner of land is not responsive to attempts by the applicant to contact the owner, the applicant may submit an affidavit to the chief attesting to such an unidentifiable owner or to such unresponsiveness of an owner and attempts by the applicant to contact the owner and include a written request to reduce the distance of the location of the tank battery from the occupied dwelling to less than one hundred fifty feet. If the chief receives such an affidavit and written request, the chief shall reduce the distance of the location of the tank battery from the occupied dwelling to a distance of not less than one hundred feet.

(F) Except as otherwise provided in division (L) of this section, the location of a new tank battery of a well shall not be within seventy-five feet of the property line of a parcel of land that is located in an urbanized area and that has become part of the drilling unit of the well pursuant to a mandatory pooling order issued under section 1509.27 of the Revised Code unless the owner of the land consents in writing to the location of the tank battery at a distance that is less than seventy-five feet from the owner's property line. However, if the owner of the land provides such written consent, the location of the tank battery shall not be within the property line of the owner's parcel of land.

unresponsiveness of an owner and attempts by the applicant to 23910
contact the owner and include a written request to reduce the 23911 distance of the location of the tank battery from the property 23912 line of the owner's parcel of land to less than seventy-five feet. 23913
If the chief receives such an affidavit and written request, the 23914 chief shall reduce the distance of the location of the tank 23915 battery from the property line, provided that the tank battery 23916 shall not be within the property line of the owner's parcel of 23917 land. 23918

(G) For purposes of divisions (C) to (F) of this section, 23919 written consent of an owner of land may be provided by any of the 23920
following: 23921

(1) A copy of an original lease agreement as recorded in the 23922 office of the county recorder of the county in which the occupied 23923 dwelling or property is located that expressly provides for the 23924 reduction of the distance of the location of a well or a tank 23925 battery, as applicable, from an occupied dwelling or a property 23926 line; 23927

(2) A copy of a deed severing the oil or gas mineral rights, 23928 as applicable, from the owner's parcel of land as recorded in the 23929 office of the county recorder of the county in which the property 23930 is located that expressly provides for the reduction of the 23931 distance of the location of a well or a tank battery, as 23932 applicable, from an occupied dwelling or a property line; 23933

(3) A written statement that consents to the proposed 23934 location of a well or a tank battery, as applicable, and that is 23935 approved by the chief. For purposes of division (G)(3) of this 23936 section, an applicant shall submit a copy of a written statement 23937 to the chief. 23938

(H) For areas that are not urbanized areas, the surface 23939 location of a new well shall not be within one hundred feet of an 23940 occupied private dwelling or of a public building that may be used 23941 as a place of assembly, education, entertainment, lodging, trade, 23942 manufacture, repair, storage, or occupancy by the public. This 23943 division does not apply to a building or other structure that is 23944 incidental to agricultural use of the land on which the building 23945 or other structure is located unless the building or other 23946 structure is used as an occupied private dwelling or for retail 23947 trade. 23948

(I) The surface location of a new well shall not be within 23949 one hundred feet of any other well. However, an applicant may 23950 submit a written statement to request the chief to authorize a new 23951 well to be located at a distance that is less than one hundred 23952 feet from another well. If the chief receives such a written 23953 statement, the chief may authorize a new well to be located within 23954 one hundred feet of another well if the chief determines that the 23955 applicant satisfactorily has demonstrated that the location of the 23956 new well at a distance that is less than one hundred feet from 23957 another well is necessary to reduce impacts to the owner of the 23958 land on which the well is to be located or to the surface of the 23959 land on which the well is to be located. 23960

(J) For areas that are not urbanized areas, the location of a 23961 new tank battery of a well shall not be within one hundred feet of 23962 an existing inhabited structure. 23963

(K) The location of a new tank battery of a well shall not be 23964 within fifty feet of any other well. 23965

(L) The location of a new well or a new tank battery of a 23966 well shall not be within fifty feet of a stream, river, 23967 watercourse, water well, pond, lake, or other body of water. 23968 However, the chief may authorize a new well or a new tank battery 23969 of a well to be located at a distance that is less than fifty feet 23970 from a stream, river, watercourse, water well, pond, lake, or 23971 other body of water if the chief determines that the reduction in 23972 the distance is necessary to reduce impacts to the owner of the 23973 land on which the well or tank battery of a well is to be located 23974 or to protect public safety or the environment. 23975

(M) The surface location of a new well or a new tank battery 23976 of a well shall not be within fifty feet of a railroad track or of 23977 the traveled portion of a public street, road, or highway. This 23978 division applies regardless of whether the public street, road, or 23979 highway has become part of the drilling unit of the well pursuant 23980 to a mandatory pooling order issued under section 1509.27 of the 23981
Revised Code. 23982

~~(M)~~(N) A new oil tank shall not be within three feet of 23983 another oil tank. 23984

~~(N)~~(O) The surface location of a mechanical separator shall 23985 not be within any of the following: 23986

(1) Fifty feet of a well; 23987

(2) Ten feet of an oil tank; 23988

(3) One hundred feet of an existing inhabited structure. 23989

~~(O)~~(P) A vessel that is equipped in such a manner that the 23990 contents of the vessel may be heated shall not be within any of 23991
the following: 23992

(1) Fifty feet of an oil production tank; 23993

(2) Fifty feet of a well; 23994

(3) One hundred feet of an existing inhabited structure; 23995

(4) If the contents of the vessel are heated by a direct fire 23996 heater, fifty feet of a mechanical separator. 23997

Sec. 1509.022. Except as provided in section 1509.021 of the 23998
Revised Code, the surface location of a new well that will be 23999 drilled using directional drilling may be located on a parcel of 24000 land that is not in the drilling unit of the well. 24001

Sec. 1509.03. (A) The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ oil 24002 and gas resources management shall adopt, rescind, and amend, in 24003 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, rules for the 24004 administration, implementation, and enforcement of this chapter. 24005
The rules shall include an identification of the subjects that the 24006 chief shall address when attaching terms and conditions to a 24007 permit with respect to a well and production facilities of a well 24008 that are located within an urbanized area. The subjects shall 24009 include all of the following: 24010

(1) Safety concerning the drilling or operation of a well; 24011

(2) Protection of the public and private water supply; 24012

(3) Fencing and screening of surface facilities of a well; 24013

(4) Containment and disposal of drilling and production 24014 wastes; 24015

(5) Construction of access roads for purposes of the drilling 24016 and operation of a well; 24017

(6) Noise mitigation for purposes of the drilling of a well 24018 and the operation of a well, excluding safety and maintenance 24019 operations. 24020

No person shall violate any rule of the chief adopted under 24021
this chapter. 24022

(B) Any order issuing, denying, or modifying a permit or 24023 notices required to be made by the chief pursuant to this chapter 24024 shall be made in compliance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 24025 except that personal service may be used in lieu of service by 24026 mail. Every order issuing, denying, or modifying a permit under 24027 this chapter and described as such shall be considered an 24028 adjudication order for purposes of Chapter 119. of the Revised 24029

Code. 24030

Where notice to the owners is required by this chapter, the 24031 notice shall be given as prescribed by a rule adopted by the chief 24032 to govern the giving of notices. The rule shall provide for notice 24033 by publication except in those cases where other types of notice 24034 are necessary in order to meet the requirements of the law. 24035

(C) The chief or the chief's authorized representative may at 24036 any time enter upon lands, public or private, for the purpose of 24037 administration or enforcement of this chapter, the rules adopted 24038 or orders made thereunder, or terms or conditions of permits or 24039 registration certificates issued thereunder and may examine and 24040 copy records pertaining to the drilling, conversion, or operation 24041 of a well for injection of fluids and logs required by division 24042
(C) of section 1509.223 of the Revised Code. No person shall 24043 prevent or hinder the chief or the chief's authorized 24044 representative in the performance of official duties. If entry is 24045 prevented or hindered, the chief or the chief's authorized 24046 representative may apply for, and the court of common pleas may 24047 issue, an appropriate inspection warrant necessary to achieve the 24048 purposes of this chapter within the court's territorial 24049 jurisdiction. 24050

(D) The chief may issue orders to enforce this chapter, rules 24051 adopted thereunder, and terms or conditions of permits issued 24052 thereunder. Any such order shall be considered an adjudication 24053 order for the purposes of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. No 24054 person shall violate any order of the chief issued under this 24055 chapter. No person shall violate a term or condition of a permit 24056 or registration certificate issued under this chapter. 24057

(E) Orders of the chief denying, suspending, or revoking a 24058 registration certificate; approving or denying approval of an 24059 application for revision of a registered transporter's plan for 24060 disposal; or to implement, administer, or enforce division (A) of 24061 section 1509.224 and sections 1509.22, 1509.222, 1509.223, 1509.225, and 1509.226 of the Revised Code pertaining to the transportation of brine by vehicle and the disposal of brine so transported are not adjudication orders for purposes of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The chief shall issue such orders under division (A) or (B) of section 1509.224 of the Revised Code, as appropriate.

Sec. 1509.04. (A) The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ and gas resources management, or the chief's authorized representatives, shall enforce this chapter and the rules, terms and conditions of permits and registration certificates, and orders adopted or issued pursuant thereto, except that any peace officer, as defined in section 2935.01 of the Revised Code, may arrest for violations of this chapter involving transportation of brine by vehicle. The enforcement authority of the chief includes the authority to issue compliance notices and to enter into compliance agreements.

(B)(1) The chief or the chief's authorized representative may issue an administrative order to an owner for a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under it, terms and conditions of a permit issued under it, a registration certificate that is required under this chapter, or orders issued under this chapter.

(2) The chief may issue an order finding that an owner has committed a material and substantial violation.

(C) The chief, by order, immediately may suspend drilling, operating, or plugging activities that are related to a material and substantial violation and suspend and revoke an unused permit after finding either of the following:

(1) An owner has failed to comply with an order issued under division (B)(2) of this section that is final and nonappealable.

(2) An owner is causing, engaging in, or maintaining a condition or activity that the chief determines presents an imminent danger to the health or safety of the public or that results in or is likely to result in immediate substantial damage to the natural resources of this state.

(D)(1) The chief may issue an order under division (C) of this section without prior notification if reasonable attempts to notify the owner have failed or if the owner is currently in material breach of a prior order, but in such an event notification shall be given as soon thereafter as practical.

(2) Not later than five days after the issuance of an order under division (C) of this section, the chief shall provide the owner an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence that one of the following applies:

(a) The condition or activity does not present an imminent danger to the public health or safety or is not likely to result in immediate substantial damage to natural resources.

(b) Required records, reports, or logs have been submitted.

(3) If the chief, after considering evidence presented by the owner under division (D)(2)(a) of this section, determines that the activities do not present such a threat or that the required records, reports, or logs have been submitted under division (D)(2)(b) of this section, the chief shall revoke the order. The owner may appeal an order to the court of common pleas of the county in which the activity that is the subject of the order is located.

(E) The chief may issue a bond forfeiture order pursuant to section 1509.071 of the Revised Code for failure to comply with a final nonappealable order issued or compliance agreement entered into under this section.

(F) The chief may notify drilling contractors, transporters, service companies, or other similar entities of the compliance 24123 status of an owner. 24124

If the owner fails to comply with a prior enforcement action 24125 of the chief, the chief may issue a suspension order without prior 24126 notification, but in such an event the chief shall give notice as 24127 soon thereafter as practical. Not later than five calendar days 24128 after the issuance of an order, the chief shall provide the owner 24129 an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence that required 24130 records, reports, or logs have been submitted. If the chief, after 24131 considering the evidence presented by the owner, determines that 24132 the requirements have been satisfied, the chief shall revoke the 24133 suspension order. The owner may appeal a suspension order to the 24134 court of common pleas of the county in which the activity that is 24135 the subject of the suspension order is located. 24136

(G) The prosecuting attorney of the county or the attorney 24137 general, upon the request of the chief, may apply to the court of 24138 common pleas in the county in which any of the provisions of this 24139 chapter or any rules, terms or conditions of a permit or 24140 registration certificate, or orders adopted or issued pursuant to 24141 this chapter are being violated for a temporary restraining order, 24142 preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction restraining any 24143 person from such violation. 24144

Sec. 1509.041. The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 24145 ~~gas~~ resources management shall maintain a database on the division 24146 of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management's web site that is 24147 accessible to the public. The database shall list each final 24148 nonappealable order issued for a material and substantial 24149 violation under this chapter. The list shall identify the 24150 violator, the date on which the violation occurred, and the date 24151 on which the violation was corrected. 24152

Sec. 1509.05. No person shall drill a new well, drill an existing well any deeper, reopen a well, convert a well to any use other than its original purpose, or plug back a well to a source of supply different from the existing pool, without having a permit to do so issued by the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ and gas resources management, and until the original permit or a photostatic copy thereof is posted or displayed in a conspicuous and easily accessible place at the well site, with the name, current address, and telephone number of the permit holder and the telephone numbers for fire and emergency medical services maintained on the posted permit or copy. The permit or a copy shall be continuously displayed in that manner at all times during the work authorized by the permit.

Sec. 1509.06. (A) An application for a permit to drill a new well, drill an existing well deeper, reopen a well, convert a well to any use other than its original purpose, or plug back a well to a different source of supply, including associated production operations, shall be filed with the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ and gas resources management upon such form as the chief prescribes and shall contain each of the following that is applicable:

(1) The name and address of the owner and, if a corporation, the name and address of the statutory agent;

(2) The signature of the owner or the owner's authorized agent. When an authorized agent signs an application, it shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the appointment as such agent.

(3) The names and addresses of all persons holding the royalty interest in the tract upon which the well is located or is to be drilled or within a proposed drilling unit;

(4) The location of the tract or drilling unit on which the well is located or is to be drilled identified by section or lot	24183

number, city, village, township, and county;	24184
(5) Designation of the well by name and number;	24185
(6) The geological formation to be tested or used and the	24186 proposed total depth of the well;	24187
(7) The type of drilling equipment to be used;	24188
(8) If the well is for the injection of a liquid, identity of	24189
the geological formation to be used as the injection zone and the	24190 composition of the liquid to be injected;	24191
(9) For an application for a permit to drill a new well	24192 within an urbanized area, a sworn statement that the applicant has	24193 provided notice by regular mail of the application to the owner of	24194 each parcel of real property that is located within five hundred	24195 feet of the surface location of the well and to the executive	24196 authority of the municipal corporation or the board of township	24197 trustees of the township, as applicable, in which the well is to	24198 be located. In addition, the notice shall contain a statement that	24199 informs an owner of real property who is required to receive the	24200 notice under division (A)(9) of this section that within five days	24201 of receipt of the notice, the owner is required to provide notice	24202
under section 1509.60 of the Revised Code to each residence in an	24203 occupied dwelling that is located on the owner's parcel of real	24204 property. The notice shall contain a statement that an application	24205 has been filed with the division of mineral oil and gas resources	24206 management, identify the name of the applicant and the proposed	24207 well location, include the name and address of the division, and	24208 contain a statement that comments regarding the application may be	24209 sent to the division. The notice may be provided by hand delivery	24210 or regular mail. The identity of the owners of parcels of real	24211 property shall be determined using the tax records of the	24212 municipal corporation or county in which a parcel of real property	24213 is located as of the date of the notice. 24214

(10) A plan for restoration of the land surface disturbed by 24215 drilling operations. The plan shall provide for compliance with 24216 the restoration requirements of division (A) of section 1509.072 24217 of the Revised Code and any rules adopted by the chief pertaining 24218 to that restoration. 24219

(11) A description by name or number of the county, township, 24220 and municipal corporation roads, streets, and highways that the 24221 applicant anticipates will be used for access to and egress from 24222 the well site; 24223

(12) Such other relevant information as the chief prescribes 24224
by rule. 24225

Each application shall be accompanied by a map, on a scale 24226 not smaller than four hundred feet to the inch, prepared by an 24227 Ohio registered surveyor, showing the location of the well and 24228 containing such other data as may be prescribed by the chief. If 24229 the well is or is to be located within the excavations and 24230 workings of a mine, the map also shall include the location of the 24231 mine, the name of the mine, and the name of the person operating 24232 the mine. 24233

(B) The chief shall cause a copy of the weekly circular 24234 prepared by the division to be provided to the county engineer of 24235 each county that contains active or proposed drilling activity. 24236
The weekly circular shall contain, in the manner prescribed by the 24237 chief, the names of all applicants for permits, the location of 24238 each well or proposed well, the information required by division 24239 (A)(11) of this section, and any additional information the chief 24240 prescribes. In addition, the chief promptly shall transfer an 24241 electronic copy or facsimile, or if those methods are not 24242 available to a municipal corporation or township, a copy via 24243 regular mail, of a drilling permit application to the clerk of the 24244 legislative authority of the municipal corporation or to the clerk 24245 of the township in which the well or proposed well is or is to be 24246 located if the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 24247 or the board of township trustees has asked to receive copies of 24248 such applications and the appropriate clerk has provided the chief 24249 an accurate, current electronic mailing address or facsimile 24250 number, as applicable. 24251

(C)(1) Except as provided in division (C)(2) of this section, 24252 the chief shall not issue a permit for at least ten days after the 24253 date of filing of the application for the permit unless, upon 24254 reasonable cause shown, the chief waives that period or a request 24255 for expedited review is filed under this section. However, the 24256 chief shall issue a permit within twenty-one days of the filing of 24257 the application unless the chief denies the application by order. 24258

(2) If the location of a well or proposed well will be or is 24259 within an urbanized area, the chief shall not issue a permit for 24260 at least eighteen days after the date of filing of the application 24261 for the permit unless, upon reasonable cause shown, the chief 24262 waives that period or the chief at the chief's discretion grants a 24263 request for an expedited review. However, the chief shall issue a 24264 permit for a well or proposed well within an urbanized area within 24265 thirty days of the filing of the application unless the chief 24266 denies the application by order. 24267

(D) An applicant may file a request with the chief for 24268 expedited review of a permit application if the well is not or is 24269 not to be located in a gas storage reservoir or reservoir 24270 protective area, as "reservoir protective area" is defined in 24271 section 1571.01 of the Revised Code. If the well is or is to be 24272 located in a coal bearing township, the application shall be 24273 accompanied by the affidavit of the landowner prescribed in 24274
section 1509.08 of the Revised Code. 24275

In addition to a complete application for a permit that meets 24276 the requirements of this section and the permit fee prescribed by 24277 this section, a request for expedited review shall be accompanied 24278 by a separate nonrefundable filing fee of two hundred fifty 24279 dollars. Upon the filing of a request for expedited review, the 24280 chief shall cause the county engineer of the county in which the 24281 well is or is to be located to be notified of the filing of the 24282 permit application and the request for expedited review by 24283 telephone or other means that in the judgment of the chief will 24284 provide timely notice of the application and request. The chief 24285 shall issue a permit within seven days of the filing of the 24286 request unless the chief denies the application by order. 24287 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section governing expedited 24288 review of permit applications, the chief may refuse to accept 24289 requests for expedited review if, in the chief's judgment, the 24290 acceptance of the requests would prevent the issuance, within 24291 twenty-one days of their filing, of permits for which applications 24292 are pending. 24293

(E) A well shall be drilled and operated in accordance with 24294 the plans, sworn statements, and other information submitted in 24295 the approved application. 24296

(F) The chief shall issue an order denying a permit if the 24297 chief finds that there is a substantial risk that the operation 24298 will result in violations of this chapter or rules adopted under 24299 it that will present an imminent danger to public health or safety 24300 or damage to the environment, provided that where the chief finds 24301 that terms or conditions to the permit can reasonably be expected 24302 to prevent such violations, the chief shall issue the permit 24303 subject to those terms or conditions, including, if applicable, 24304 terms and conditions regarding subjects identified in rules 24305 adopted under section 1509.03 of the Revised Code. The issuance of 24306 a permit shall not be considered an order of the chief. 24307

(G) Each application for a permit required by section 1509.05 24308 of the Revised Code, except an application to plug back an 24309 existing well that is required by that section and an application 24310 for a well drilled or reopened for purposes of section 1509.22 of 24311 the Revised Code, also shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee 24312

as follows: 24313

(1) Five hundred dollars for a permit to conduct activities 24314 in a township with a population of fewer than ten thousand; 24315

(2) Seven hundred fifty dollars for a permit to conduct 24316 activities in a township with a population of ten thousand or 24317 more, but fewer than fifteen thousand; 24318

(3) One thousand dollars for a permit to conduct activities 24319 in either of the following: 24320

(a) A township with a population of fifteen thousand or more; 24321

(b) A municipal corporation regardless of population. 24322

(4) If the application is for a permit that requires 24323 mandatory pooling, an additional five thousand dollars. 24324

For purposes of calculating fee amounts, populations shall be 24325 determined using the most recent federal decennial census. 24326

Each application for the revision or reissuance of a permit 24327 shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty 24328 dollars. 24329

(H) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed 24330 well that is to be located in an urbanized area, the division 24331 shall conduct a site review to identify and evaluate any 24332 site-specific terms and conditions that may be attached to the 24333 permit. At the site review, a representative of the division shall 24334 consider fencing, screening, and landscaping requirements, if any, 24335 for similar structures in the community in which the well is 24336 proposed to be located. The terms and conditions that are attached 24337 to the permit shall include the establishment of fencing, 24338 screening, and landscaping requirements for the surface facilities 24339 of the proposed well, including a tank battery of the well. 24340

(I) A permit shall be issued by the chief in accordance with 24341 this chapter. A permit issued under this section for a well that 24342 is or is to be located in an urbanized area shall be valid for 24343 twelve months, and all other permits issued under this section 24344 shall be valid for twenty-four months. 24345

(J) A permittee or a permittee's authorized representative 24346 shall notify an inspector from the division of ~~mineral resources~~ 24347 ~~management~~ at least twenty-four hours, or another time period 24348 agreed to by the chief's authorized representative, prior to the 24349 commencement of drilling, reopening, converting, well stimulation, 24350 or plugback operations. 24351

Sec. 1509.061. An owner of a well who has been issued a 24352 permit under section 1509.06 of the Revised Code may submit to the 24353 chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management, 24354 on a form prescribed by the chief, a request to revise an existing 24355 tract upon which exists a producing or idle well. The chief shall 24356 adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules under section 1509.03 of 24357 the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration of this 24358 section. The rules at least shall stipulate the information to be 24359 included on the request form and shall establish a fee to be paid 24360 by the person submitting the request, which fee shall not exceed 24361 two hundred fifty dollars. 24362

The chief shall approve a request submitted under this 24363 section unless it would result in a violation of this chapter or 24364 rules adopted under it, including provisions establishing spacing 24365 or minimum acreage requirements. 24366

Sec. 1509.062. (A)(1) The owner of a well that has not been 24367 completed, a well that has not produced within one year after 24368 completion, or an existing well that has no reported production 24369 for two consecutive reporting periods as reported in accordance 24370 with section 1509.11 of the Revised Code shall plug the well in 24371 accordance with section 1509.12 of the Revised Code, obtain 24372 temporary inactive well status for the well in accordance with 24373 this section, or perform another activity regarding the well that 24374 is approved by the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 24375 resources management. 24376

(2) If a well has a reported annual production that is less 24377 than one hundred thousand cubic feet of natural gas or fifteen 24378 barrels of crude oil, or a combination thereof, the chief may 24379 require the owner of the well to submit an application for 24380 temporary inactive well status under this section for the well. 24381

(B) In order for the owner of a well to submit an application 24382 for temporary inactive well status for the well under this 24383 division, the owner and the well shall be in compliance with this 24384 chapter and rules adopted under it, any terms and conditions of 24385 the permit for the well, and applicable orders issued by the 24386 chief. An application for temporary inactive status for a well 24387 shall be submitted to the chief on a form prescribed and provided 24388 by the chief and shall contain all of the following: 24389

(1) The owner's name and address and, if the owner is a 24390 corporation, the name and address of the corporation's statutory 24391
agent; 24392

(2) The signature of the owner or of the owner's authorized 24393 agent. When an authorized agent signs an application, the 24394 application shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the 24395 appointment as such agent. 24396

(3) The permit number assigned to the well. If the well has 24397 not been assigned a permit number, the chief shall assign a permit 24398 number to the well. 24399

(4) A map, on a scale not smaller than four hundred feet to 24400 the inch, that shows the location of the well and the tank 24401 battery, that includes the latitude and longitude of the well, and 24402 that contains all other data that are required by the chief; 24403

(5) A demonstration that the well is of future utility and 24404 that the applicant has a viable plan to utilize the well within a 24405 reasonable period of time; 24406

(6) A demonstration that the well poses no threat to the 24407 health or safety of persons, property, or the environment; 24408

(7) Any other relevant information that the chief prescribes 24409
by rule. 24410

The chief may waive any of the requirements established in 24411 divisions (B)(1) to (6) of this section if the division of ~~mineral~~ 24412 oil and gas resources management possesses a current copy of the 24413 information or document that is required in the applicable 24414
division. 24415

(C) Upon receipt of an application for temporary inactive 24416 well status, the chief shall review the application and shall 24417 either deny the application by issuing an order or approve the 24418 application. The chief shall approve the application only if the 24419 chief determines that the well that is the subject of the 24420 application poses no threat to the health or safety of persons, 24421 property, or the environment. If the chief approves the 24422 application, the chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's 24423 approval. Upon receipt of the chief's approval, the owner shall 24424 shut in the well and empty all liquids and gases from all storage 24425 tanks, pipelines, and other equipment associated with the well. In 24426 addition, the owner shall maintain the well, other equipment 24427 associated with the well, and the surface location of the well in 24428 a manner that prevents hazards to the health and safety of people 24429 and the environment. The owner shall inspect the well at least 24430 every six months and submit to the chief within fourteen days 24431 after the inspection a record of inspection on a form prescribed 24432 and provided by the chief. 24433

(D) Not later than thirty days prior to the expiration of 24434 temporary inactive well status or a renewal of temporary inactive 24435 well status approved by the chief for a well, the owner of the 24436 well may submit to the chief an application for renewal of the 24437 temporary inactive well status on a form prescribed and provided 24438 by the chief. The application shall include a detailed plan that 24439 describes the ultimate disposition of the well, the time frames 24440 for that disposition, and any other information that the chief 24441 determines is necessary. The chief shall either deny an 24442 application by order or approve the application. If the chief 24443 approves the application, the chief shall notify the owner of the 24444 well of the chief's approval. 24445

(E) An application for temporary inactive well status shall 24446 be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of one hundred dollars. An 24447 application for a renewal of temporary inactive well status shall 24448 be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty dollars 24449 for the first renewal and five hundred dollars for each subsequent 24450 renewal. 24451

(F) After a third renewal, the chief may require an owner to 24452 provide a surety bond in an amount not to exceed ten thousand 24453 dollars for each of the owner's wells that has been approved by 24454 the chief for temporary inactive well status. 24455

(G) Temporary inactive well status approved by the chief 24456 expires one year after the date of approval of the application for 24457 temporary inactive well status or production from the well 24458 commences, whichever occurs sooner. In addition, a renewal of a 24459 temporary inactive well status expires one year after the 24460 expiration date of the initial temporary inactive well status or 24461 one year after the expiration date of the previous renewal of the 24462 temporary inactive well status, as applicable, or production from 24463 the well commences, whichever occurs sooner. 24464

(H) The owner of a well that has been approved by the chief 24465 for temporary inactive well status may commence production from 24466 the well at any time. Not later than sixty days after the 24467 commencement of production from such a well, the owner shall 24468 notify the chief of the commencement of production. 24469

(I) This chapter and rules adopted under it, any terms and 24470 conditions of the permit for a well, and applicable orders issued 24471 by the chief apply to a well that has been approved by the chief 24472 for temporary inactive well status or renewal of that status. 24473

Sec. 1509.07. An owner of any well, except an exempt 24474 Mississippian well or an exempt domestic well, shall obtain 24475 liability insurance coverage from a company authorized to do 24476 business in this state in an amount of not less than one million 24477 dollars bodily injury coverage and property damage coverage to pay 24478 damages for injury to persons or damage to property caused by the 24479 drilling, operation, or plugging of all the owner's wells in this 24480 state. However, if any well is located within an urbanized area, 24481 the owner shall obtain liability insurance coverage in an amount 24482 of not less than three million dollars for bodily injury coverage 24483 and property damage coverage to pay damages for injury to persons 24484 or damage to property caused by the drilling, operation, or 24485 plugging of all of the owner's wells in this state. The owner 24486 shall maintain the coverage until all the owner's wells are 24487 plugged and abandoned or are transferred to an owner who has 24488 obtained insurance as required under this section and who is not 24489 under a notice of material and substantial violation or under a 24490 suspension order. The owner shall provide proof of liability 24491 insurance coverage to the chief of the division of mineral oil and 24492 gas resources management upon request. Upon failure of the owner 24493 to provide that proof when requested, the chief may order the 24494 suspension of any outstanding permits and operations of the owner 24495 until the owner provides proof of the required insurance coverage. 24496

Except as otherwise provided in this section, an owner of any 24497 well, before being issued a permit under section 1509.06 of the 24498 Revised Code or before operating or producing from a well, shall 24499 execute and file with the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 24500 resources management a surety bond conditioned on compliance with 24501 the restoration requirements of section 1509.072, the plugging 24502 requirements of section 1509.12, the permit provisions of section 24503 1509.13 of the Revised Code, and all rules and orders of the chief 24504 relating thereto, in an amount set by rule of the chief. 24505

The owner may deposit with the chief, instead of a surety 24506 bond, cash in an amount equal to the surety bond as prescribed 24507 pursuant to this section or negotiable certificates of deposit or 24508 irrevocable letters of credit, issued by any bank organized or 24509 transacting business in this state or by any savings and loan 24510 association as defined in section 1151.01 of the Revised Code, 24511 having a cash value equal to or greater than the amount of the 24512 surety bond as prescribed pursuant to this section. Cash or 24513 certificates of deposit shall be deposited upon the same terms as 24514 those upon which surety bonds may be deposited. If certificates of 24515 deposit are deposited with the chief instead of a surety bond, the 24516 chief shall require the bank or savings and loan association that 24517 issued any such certificate to pledge securities of a cash value 24518 equal to the amount of the certificate that is in excess of the 24519 amount insured by any of the agencies and instrumentalities 24520 created under the "Federal Deposit Insurance Act," 64 Stat. 873 24521 (1950), 12 U.S.C. 1811, as amended, and regulations adopted under 24522 it, including at least the federal deposit insurance corporation, 24523 bank insurance fund, and savings association insurance fund. The 24524 securities shall be security for the repayment of the certificate 24525 of deposit. 24526

Immediately upon a deposit of cash, certificates of deposit, 24527 or letters of credit with the chief, the chief shall deliver them 24528 to the treasurer of state who shall hold them in trust for the 24529 purposes for which they have been deposited. 24530

Instead of a surety bond, the chief may accept proof of 24531 financial responsibility consisting of a sworn financial statement 24532 showing a net financial worth within this state equal to twice the 24533 amount of the bond for which it substitutes and, as may be 24534 required by the chief, a list of producing properties of the owner 24535 within this state or other evidence showing ability and intent to 24536 comply with the law and rules concerning restoration and plugging 24537 that may be required by rule of the chief. The owner of an exempt 24538 Mississippian well is not required to file scheduled updates of 24539 the financial documents, but shall file updates of those documents 24540 if requested to do so by the chief. The owner of a nonexempt 24541 Mississippian well shall file updates of the financial documents 24542 in accordance with a schedule established by rule of the chief. 24543
The chief, upon determining that an owner for whom the chief has 24544 accepted proof of financial responsibility instead of bond cannot 24545 demonstrate financial responsibility, shall order that the owner 24546 execute and file a bond or deposit cash, certificates of deposit, 24547 or irrevocable letters of credit as required by this section for 24548 the wells specified in the order within ten days of receipt of the 24549 order. If the order is not complied with, all wells of the owner 24550 that are specified in the order and for which no bond is filed or 24551 cash, certificates of deposit, or letters of credit are deposited 24552 shall be plugged. No owner shall fail or refuse to plug such a 24553 well. Each day on which such a well remains unplugged thereafter 24554 constitutes a separate offense. 24555

The surety bond provided for in this section shall be 24556 executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this 24557

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 24559
signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 24560 either by the principal's or surety's attorney in fact, with a 24561 certified copy of the power of attorney attached thereto. The 24562 chief shall not approve a bond unless there is attached a 24563 certificate of the superintendent of insurance that the company is 24564 authorized to transact a fidelity and surety business in this 24565
state. 24566

All bonds shall be given in a form to be prescribed by the 24567 chief and shall run to the state as obligee. 24568

An owner of an exempt Mississippian well or an exempt 24569 domestic well, in lieu of filing a surety bond, cash in an amount 24570 equal to the surety bond, certificates of deposit, irrevocable 24571 letters of credit, or a sworn financial statement, may file a 24572 one-time fee of fifty dollars, which shall be deposited in the oil 24573 and gas well plugging fund created in section 1509.071 of the 24574
Revised Code. 24575

An owner, operator, producer, or other person shall not 24576 operate a well or produce from a well at any time if the owner, 24577 operator, producer, or other person has not satisfied the 24578 requirements established in this section. 24579

Sec. 1509.071. (A) When the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 24580 oil and gas resources management finds that an owner has failed to 24581 comply with a final nonappealable order issued or compliance 24582 agreement entered into under section 1509.04, the restoration 24583 requirements of section 1509.072, plugging requirements of section 24584 1509.12, or permit provisions of section 1509.13 of the Revised 24585
Code, or rules and orders relating thereto, the chief shall make a 24586 finding of that fact and declare any surety bond filed to ensure 24587 compliance with those sections and rules forfeited in the amount 24588 set by rule of the chief. The chief thereupon shall certify the 24589 total forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to 24590 collect the amount of the forfeiture. In addition, the chief may 24591 require an owner, operator, producer, or other person who 24592 forfeited a surety bond to post a new surety bond in the amount of 24593 fifteen thousand dollars for a single well, thirty thousand 24594 dollars for two wells, or fifty thousand dollars for three or more 24595 wells. 24596

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety or owner, at the 24597 surety's or owner's option, may cause the well to be properly 24598 plugged and abandoned and the area properly restored or pay to the 24599 treasurer of state the cost of plugging and abandonment. 24600

(B) All moneys collected because of forfeitures of bonds as 24601 provided in this section shall be deposited in the state treasury 24602 to the credit of the oil and gas well fund created in section 24603
1509.02 of the Revised Code. 24604

The chief annually shall spend not less than fourteen per 24605 cent of the revenue credited to the fund during the previous 24606 fiscal year for the following purposes: 24607

(1) In accordance with division (D) of this section, to plug 24608 idle and orphaned wells or to restore the land surface properly as 24609 required in section 1509.072 of the Revised Code; 24610

(2) In accordance with division (E) of this section, to 24611 correct conditions that the chief reasonably has determined are 24612 causing imminent health or safety risks at an idle and orphaned 24613 well or a well for which the owner cannot be contacted in order to 24614 initiate a corrective action within a reasonable period of time as 24615 determined by the chief. 24616

Expenditures from the fund shall be made only for lawful 24617 purposes. In addition, expenditures from the fund shall not be 24618 made to purchase real property or to remove a dwelling in order to 24619 access a well. 24620

(C)(1) Upon determining that the owner of a well has failed 24621 to properly plug and abandon it or to properly restore the land 24622 surface at the well site in compliance with the applicable 24623 requirements of this chapter and applicable rules adopted and 24624 orders issued under it or that a well is an abandoned well for 24625 which no funds are available to plug the well in accordance with 24626 this chapter, the chief shall do all of the following: 24627

(a) Determine from the records in the office of the county 24628 recorder of the county in which the well is located the identity 24629 of the owner of the land on which the well is located, the 24630 identity of the owner of the oil or gas lease under which the well 24631 was drilled or the identity of each person owning an interest in 24632 the lease, and the identities of the persons having legal title 24633 to, or a lien upon, any of the equipment appurtenant to the well; 24634

(b) Mail notice to the owner of the land on which the well is 24635 located informing the landowner that the well is to be plugged. If 24636 the owner of the oil or gas lease under which the well was drilled 24637 is different from the owner of the well or if any persons other 24638 than the owner of the well own interests in the lease, the chief 24639 also shall mail notice that the well is to be plugged to the owner 24640 of the lease or to each person owning an interest in the lease, as 24641
appropriate. 24642

(c) Mail notice to each person having legal title to, or a 24643 lien upon, any equipment appurtenant to the well, informing the 24644 person that the well is to be plugged and offering the person the 24645 opportunity to plug the well and restore the land surface at the 24646 well site at the person's own expense in order to avoid forfeiture 24647 of the equipment to this state. 24648

(2) If none of the persons described in division (C)(1)(c) of 24649 this section plugs the well within sixty days after the mailing of 24650 the notice required by that division, all equipment appurtenant to 24651 the well is hereby declared to be forfeited to this state without 24652 compensation and without the necessity for any action by the state 24653 for use to defray the cost of plugging and abandoning the well and 24654 restoring the land surface at the well site. 24655

(D) Expenditures from the fund for the purpose of division 24656
(B)(1) of this section shall be made in accordance with either of 24657
the following: 24658

(1) The expenditures may be made pursuant to contracts 24659 entered into by the chief with persons who agree to furnish all of 24660 the materials, equipment, work, and labor as specified and 24661 provided in such a contract for activities associated with the 24662 restoration or plugging of a well as determined by the chief. The 24663 activities may include excavation to uncover a well, geophysical 24664 methods to locate a buried well when clear evidence of leakage 24665 from the well exists, cleanout of wellbores to remove material 24666 from a failed plugging of a well, plugging operations, 24667 installation of vault and vent systems, including associated 24668 engineering certifications and permits, restoration of property, 24669 and repair of damage to property that is caused by such 24670 activities. Expenditures shall not be used for salaries, 24671 maintenance, equipment, or other administrative purposes, except 24672 for costs directly attributed to the plugging of an idle and 24673 orphaned well. Agents or employees of persons contracting with the 24674 chief for a restoration or plugging project may enter upon any 24675 land, public or private, on which the well is located for the 24676 purpose of performing the work. Prior to such entry, the chief 24677 shall give to the following persons written notice of the 24678 existence of a contract for a project to restore or plug a well, 24679 the names of the persons with whom the contract is made, and the 24680 date that the project will commence: the owner of the well, the 24681 owner of the land upon which the well is located, the owner or 24682 agents of adjoining land, and, if the well is located in the same 24683 township as or in a township adjacent to the excavations and 24684 workings of a mine and the owner or lessee of that mine has 24685 provided written notice identifying those townships to the chief 24686 at any time during the immediately preceding three years, the 24687 owner or lessee of the mine. 24688

(2)(a) The owner of the land on which a well is located who 24689 has received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section may 24690 plug the well and be reimbursed by the division of oil and gas 24691 resources management for the reasonable cost of plugging the well. 24692
In order to plug the well, the landowner shall submit an 24693 application to the chief on a form prescribed by the chief and 24694 approved by the technical advisory council on oil and gas created 24695 in section 1509.38 of the Revised Code. The application, at a 24696 minimum, shall require the landowner to provide the same 24697 information as is required to be included in the application for a 24698 permit to plug and abandon under section 1509.13 of the Revised 24699 Code. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of a proposed 24700 contract to plug the well prepared by a contractor regularly 24701 engaged in the business of plugging oil and gas wells. The 24702 proposed contract shall require the contractor to furnish all of 24703 the materials, equipment, work, and labor necessary to plug the 24704 well properly and shall specify the price for doing the work, 24705 including a credit for the equipment appurtenant to the well that 24706 was forfeited to the state through the operation of division 24707 (C)(2) of this section. Expenditures under division (D)(2)(a) of 24708 this section shall be consistent with the expenditures for 24709 activities described in division (D)(1) of this section. The 24710 application also shall be accompanied by the permit fee required 24711 by section 1509.13 of the Revised Code unless the chief, in the 24712 chief's discretion, waives payment of the permit fee. The 24713 application constitutes an application for a permit to plug and 24714 abandon the well for the purposes of section 1509.13 of the 24715

Revised Code. 24716

(b) Within thirty days after receiving an application and 24717 accompanying proposed contract under division (D)(2)(a) of this 24718 section, the chief shall determine whether the plugging would 24719 comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter and 24720 applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it and whether 24721 the cost of the plugging under the proposed contract is 24722 reasonable. If the chief determines that the proposed plugging 24723 would comply with those requirements and that the proposed cost of 24724 the plugging is reasonable, the chief shall notify the landowner 24725 of that determination and issue to the landowner a permit to plug 24726 and abandon the well under section 1509.13 of the Revised Code. 24727 Upon approval of the application and proposed contract, the chief 24728 shall transfer ownership of the equipment appurtenant to the well 24729 to the landowner. The chief may disapprove an application 24730 submitted under division (D)(2)(a) of this section if the chief 24731 determines that the proposed plugging would not comply with the 24732 applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules 24733 adopted and orders issued under it, that the cost of the plugging 24734 under the proposed contract is unreasonable, or that the proposed 24735 contract is not a bona fide, ~~arms~~ arm's length contract. 24736

(c) After receiving the chief's notice of the approval of the 24737 application and permit to plug and abandon a well under division 24738 (D)(2)(b) of this section, the landowner shall enter into the 24739 proposed contract to plug the well. 24740

(d) Upon determining that the plugging has been completed in 24741 compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter and 24742 applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it, the chief 24743 shall reimburse the landowner for the cost of the plugging as set 24744 forth in the proposed contract approved by the chief. The 24745 reimbursement shall be paid from the oil and gas well fund. If the 24746 chief determines that the plugging was not completed in accordance 24747 with the applicable requirements, the chief shall not reimburse 24748 the landowner for the cost of the plugging, and the landowner or 24749 the contractor, as applicable, promptly shall transfer back to 24750 this state title to and possession of the equipment appurtenant to 24751 the well that previously was transferred to the landowner under 24752 division (D)(2)(b) of this section. If any such equipment was 24753 removed from the well during the plugging and sold, the landowner 24754 shall pay to the chief the proceeds from the sale of the 24755 equipment, and the chief promptly shall pay the moneys so received 24756 to the treasurer of state for deposit into the oil and gas well 24757

fund. 24758

The chief may establish an annual limit on the number of 24759 wells that may be plugged under division (D)(2) of this section or 24760 an annual limit on the expenditures to be made under that 24761
division. 24762

As used in division (D)(2) of this section, "plug" and 24763
"plugging" include the plugging of the well and the restoration of 24764 the land surface disturbed by the plugging. 24765

(E) Expenditures from the oil and gas well fund for the 24766 purpose of division (B)(2) of this section may be made pursuant to 24767 contracts entered into by the chief with persons who agree to 24768 furnish all of the materials, equipment, work, and labor as 24769 specified and provided in such a contract. The competitive bidding 24770 requirements of Chapter 153. of the Revised Code do not apply if 24771 the chief reasonably determines that correction of the applicable 24772 health or safety risk requires immediate action. The chief, 24773 designated representatives of the chief, and agents or employees 24774 of persons contracting with the chief under this division may 24775 enter upon any land, public or private, for the purpose of 24776 performing the work. 24777

(F) Contracts entered into by the chief under this section 24778 are not subject to either of the following: 24779

(1) Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code; 24780

(2) Section 153.54 of the Revised Code, except that the 24781 contractor shall obtain and provide to the chief as a bid guaranty 24782 a surety bond or letter of credit in an amount equal to ten per 24783 cent of the amount of the contract. 24784

(G) The owner of land on which a well is located who has 24785 received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section, in lieu 24786 of plugging the well in accordance with division (D)(2) of this 24787 section, may cause ownership of the well to be transferred to an 24788 owner who is lawfully doing business in this state and who has met 24789 the financial responsibility requirements established under 24790 section 1509.07 of the Revised Code, subject to the approval of 24791 the chief. The transfer of ownership also shall be subject to the 24792 landowner's filing the appropriate forms required under section 24793 1509.31 of the Revised Code and providing to the chief sufficient 24794 information to demonstrate the landowner's or owner's right to 24795 produce a formation or formations. That information may include a 24796 deed, a lease, or other documentation of ownership or property 24797 rights. 24798

The chief shall approve or disapprove the transfer of 24799 ownership of the well. If the chief approves the transfer, the 24800 owner is responsible for operating the well in accordance with 24801 this chapter and rules adopted under it, including, without 24802 limitation, all of the following: 24803

(1) Filing an application with the chief under section 24804 1509.06 of the Revised Code if the owner intends to drill deeper 24805 or produce a formation that is not listed in the records of the 24806 division for that well; 24807

(2) Taking title to and possession of the equipment 24808 appurtenant to the well that has been identified by the chief as 24809 having been abandoned by the former owner; 24810

(3) Complying with all applicable requirements that are 24811 necessary to drill deeper, plug the well, or plug back the well. 24812

(H) The chief shall issue an order that requires the owner of 24813 a well to pay the actual documented costs of a corrective action 24814 that is described in division (B)(2) of this section concerning 24815 the well. The chief shall transmit the money so recovered to the 24816 treasurer of state who shall deposit the money in the state 24817 treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well fund. 24818

Sec. 1509.072. No oil or gas well owner or agent of an oil or 24819 gas well owner shall fail to restore the land surface within the 24820 area disturbed in siting, drilling, completing, and producing the 24821 well as required in this section. 24822

(A) Within fourteen days after the date upon which the 24823 drilling of a well is completed to total depth in an urbanized 24824 area and within two months after the date upon which the drilling 24825 of a well is completed in all other areas, the owner or the 24826 owner's agent, in accordance with the restoration plan filed under 24827 division (A)(10) of section 1509.06 of the Revised Code, shall 24828 fill all the pits for containing brine and other waste substances 24829 resulting, obtained, or produced in connection with exploration or 24830 drilling for oil or gas that are not required by other state or 24831 federal law or regulation, and remove all drilling supplies and 24832 drilling equipment. Unless the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 24833 oil and gas resources management approves a longer time period, 24834 within three months after the date upon which the surface drilling 24835 of a well is commenced in an urbanized area and within six months 24836 after the date upon which the surface drilling of a well is 24837 commenced in all other areas, the owner or the owner's agent shall 24838 grade or terrace and plant, seed, or sod the area disturbed that 24839 is not required in production of the well where necessary to bind 24840 the soil and prevent substantial erosion and sedimentation. If the 24841 chief finds that a pit used for containing brine, other waste 24842 substances, or oil is in violation of section 1509.22 of the 24843 Revised Code or rules adopted or orders issued under it, the chief 24844 may require the pit to be emptied and closed before expiration of 24845 the fourteen-day or three-month restoration period. 24846

(B) Within three months after a well that has produced oil or 24847 gas is plugged in an urbanized area and within six months after a 24848 well that has produced oil or gas is plugged in all other areas, 24849 or after the plugging of a dry hole, unless the chief approves a 24850 longer time period, the owner or the owner's agent shall remove 24851 all production and storage structures, supplies, and equipment, 24852 and any oil, salt water, and debris, and fill any remaining 24853 excavations. Within that period the owner or the owner's agent 24854 shall grade or terrace and plant, seed, or sod the area disturbed 24855 where necessary to bind the soil and prevent substantial erosion 24856 and sedimentation. 24857

The owner shall be released from responsibility to perform 24858 any or all restoration requirements of this section on any part or 24859 all of the area disturbed upon the filing of a request for a 24860 waiver with and obtaining the written approval of the chief, which 24861 request shall be signed by the surface owner to certify the 24862 approval of the surface owner of the release sought. The chief 24863 shall approve the request unless the chief finds upon inspection 24864 that the waiver would be likely to result in substantial damage to 24865 adjoining property, substantial contamination of surface or 24866 underground water, or substantial erosion or sedimentation. 24867

The chief, by order, may shorten the time periods provided 24868 for under division (A) or (B) of this section if failure to 24869 shorten the periods would be likely to result in damage to public 24870 health or the waters or natural resources of the state. 24871

The chief, upon written application by an owner or an owner's 24872 agent showing reasonable cause, may extend the period within which 24873 restoration shall be completed under divisions (A) and (B) of this 24874 section, but not to exceed a further six-month period, except 24875 under extraordinarily adverse weather conditions or when essential 24876 equipment, fuel, or labor is unavailable to the owner or the 24877 owner's agent. 24878

If the chief refuses to approve a request for waiver or 24879 extension, the chief shall do so by order. 24880

Sec. 1509.073. A person that is issued a permit under this 24881 chapter to drill a new well or drill an existing well deeper in an 24882 urbanized area shall establish fluid drilling conditions prior to 24883 penetration of the Onondaga limestone and continue to use fluid 24884 drilling until total depth of the well is achieved unless the 24885 chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management 24886 authorizes such drilling without using fluid. 24887

Sec. 1509.08. Upon receipt of an application for a permit 24888 required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code, or upon receipt 24889 of an application for a permit to plug and abandon under section 24890 1509.13 of the Revised Code, the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 24891 oil and gas resources management shall determine whether the well 24892 is or is to be located in a coal bearing township. 24893

Whether or not the well is or is to be located in a coal 24894 bearing township, the chief, by order, may refuse to issue a 24895 permit required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code to any 24896 applicant who at the time of applying for the permit is in 24897 material or substantial violation of this chapter or rules adopted 24898 or orders issued under it. The chief shall refuse to issue a 24899 permit to any applicant who at the time of applying for the permit 24900 has been found liable by a final nonappealable order of a court of 24901 competent jurisdiction for damage to streets, roads, highways, 24902 bridges, culverts, or drainways pursuant to section 4513.34 or 24903

5577.12 of the Revised Code until the applicant provides the chief 24904 with evidence of compliance with the order. No applicant shall 24905 attempt to circumvent this provision by applying for a permit 24906 under a different name or business organization name, by 24907 transferring responsibility to another person or entity, by 24908 abandoning the well or lease, or by any other similar act. 24909

If the well is not or is not to be located in a coal bearing 24910 township, or if it is to be located in a coal bearing township, 24911 but the landowner submits an affidavit attesting to ownership of 24912 the property in fee simple, including the coal, and has no 24913 objection to the well, the chief shall issue the permit. 24914

If the application to drill, reopen, or convert concerns a 24915 well that is or is to be located in a coal bearing township, the 24916 chief shall transmit to the chief of the division of mineral 24917 resources management two copies of the application and three 24918 copies of the map required in section 1509.06 of the Revised Code, 24919 except that, when the affidavit with the waiver of objection 24920 described above is submitted, the chief of the division of oil and 24921 gas resources management shall not transmit the copies. 24922

The chief of the division of mineral resources management 24923 immediately shall notify the owner or lessee of any affected mine 24924 that the application has been filed and send to the owner or 24925 lessee two copies of the map accompanying the application setting 24926 forth the location of the well. 24927

If the owner or lessee objects to the location of the well or 24928 objects to any location within fifty feet of the original location 24929 as a possible site for relocation of the well, the owner or lessee 24930 shall notify the chief of the division of mineral resources 24931 management of the objection, giving the reasons for the objection 24932 and, if applicable, indicating on a copy of the map the particular 24933 location or locations within fifty feet of the original location 24934 to which the owner or lessee objects as a site for possible 24935 relocation of the well, within six days after the receipt of the notice. If the chief receives no objections from the owner or lessee of the mine within ten days after the receipt of the notice by the owner or lessee, or if in the opinion of the chief the objections offered by the owner or lessee are not sufficiently well founded, the chief immediately shall notify the owner or lessee of those findings. The owner or lessee may appeal the decision of the chief to the reclamation commission under section 1513.13 of the Revised Code. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days, notwithstanding provisions in divisions (A)(1) of section 1513.13 of the Revised Code, to the contrary, from the date on which the owner or lessee receives the notice. If the appeal is not filed within that time, the chief immediately shall approve the application ~~and~~, retain a copy of the application and map, and return a copy of the application to the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management with the approval noted on it. The chief of the division of oil and gas resources management then shall issue the permit if the provisions of this chapter pertaining to the issuance of such a permit have been complied with.

If the chief of the division of mineral resources management receives an objection from the owner or lessee of the mine as to the location of the well within ten days after receipt of the notice by the owner or lessee, and if in the opinion of the chief the objection is well founded, the chief shall disapprove the application and ~~suggest~~ immediately return it to the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management together with the reasons for disapproval and a suggestion for a new location for the well, provided that the suggested new location shall not be a location within fifty feet of the original location to which the owner or lessee has objected as a site for possible relocation of the well if the chief of the division of mineral resources management has determined that the objection is well founded. The chief of the division of oil and gas resources management 24969 immediately shall notify the applicant for the permit of the 24970 disapproval and any suggestion made by the chief of the division 24971 of mineral resources management as to a new location for the well. 24972

The applicant may withdraw the application or amend the 24973 application to drill the well at the location suggested by the 24974 chief, or the applicant may appeal the disapproval of the 24975 application by the chief to the reclamation commission. 24976

If the chief of the division of mineral resources management 24977 receives no objection from the owner or lessee of a mine as to the 24978 location of the well, but does receive an objection from the owner 24979 or lessee as to one or more locations within fifty feet of the 24980 original location as possible sites for relocation of the well 24981 within ten days after receipt of the notice by the owner or 24982 lessee, and if in the opinion of the chief the objection is well 24983 founded, the chief nevertheless shall approve the application and 24984 shall return it immediately to the chief of the division of oil 24985 and gas resources management together with the reasons for 24986 disapproving any of the locations to which the owner or lessee 24987 objects as possible sites for the relocation of the well. The 24988 chief of the division of oil and gas resources management then 24989 shall issue a permit if the provisions of this chapter pertaining 24990 to the issuance of such a permit have been complied with, 24991 incorporating as a term or condition of the permit that the 24992 applicant is prohibited from commencing drilling at any location 24993 within fifty feet of the original location that has been 24994 disapproved by the chief of the division of mineral resources 24995 management. The applicant may appeal to the reclamation commission 24996 the terms and conditions of the permit prohibiting the 24997 commencement of drilling at any such location disapproved by the 24998 chief of the division of mineral resources management. 24999

Any such appeal shall be filed within fifteen days, 25000 notwithstanding provisions in division (A)(1) of section 1513.13 25001 of the Revised Code to the contrary, from the date the applicant 25002 receives notice of the disapproval of the application, any other 25003 location within fifty feet of the original location, or terms or 25004 conditions of the permit, or the owner or lessee receives notice 25005 of the chief's decision. No approval or disapproval of an 25006 application shall be delayed by the chief of the division of 25007 mineral resources management for more than fifteen days from the 25008 date of sending the notice of the application to the mine owner or 25009 lessee as required by this section. 25010

All appeals provided for in this section shall be treated as 25011 expedited appeals. The reclamation commission shall hear any such 25012 appeal in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code and 25013 issue a decision within thirty days of the filing of the notice of 25014 appeal. 25015

The chief of the division of oil and gas resources management 25016 shall not issue a permit to drill a new well or reopen a well that 25017 is or is to be located within three hundred feet of any opening of 25018 any mine used as a means of ingress, egress, or ventilation for 25019 persons employed in the mine, nor within one hundred feet of any 25020 building or inflammable structure connected with the mine and 25021 actually used as a part of the operating equipment of the mine, 25022 unless the chief of the division of mineral resources management 25023 determines that life or property will not be endangered by 25024 drilling and operating the well in that location. 25025

The chief of the division of mineral resources management may 25026 suspend the drilling or reopening of a well in a coal bearing 25027 township after determining that the drilling or reopening 25028 activities present an imminent and substantial threat to public 25029 health or safety or to miners' health or safety and having been 25030 unable to contact the chief of the division of oil and gas 25031 resources management to request an order of suspension under 25032 section 1509.06 of the Revised Code. Before issuing a suspension order for that purpose, the chief of the division of mineral resources management shall notify the owner in a manner that in the chief's judgment would provide reasonable notification that the chief intends to issue a suspension order. The chief may issue such an order without prior notification if reasonable attempts to notify the owner have failed, but in that event notification shall be given as soon thereafter as practical. Within five calendar days after the issuance of the order, the chief shall provide the owner an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence that the activities do not present an imminent and substantial threat to public health or safety or to miners' health or safety. If, after considering the evidence presented by the owner, the chief determines that the activities do not present such a threat, the chief shall revoke the suspension order. An owner may appeal a suspension order issued by the chief of the division of mineral resources management under this section to the reclamation commission in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code or may appeal the order directly to the court of common pleas of the county in which the well is located.

Sec. 1509.09. A well may be drilled under a permit only at the location designated on the map required in section 1509.06 of the Revised Code. The location of a well may be changed after the issuance of a permit only with the approval of the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management and, if the well is located in a coal bearing township, with the approval of the chief of the division of mineral resources management using the procedures required in section 1509.08 of the Revised Code for a permit to drill a well unless the permit holder requests the issuance of an emergency drilling permit under this section due to a lost hole under such circumstances that completion of the well is not feasible at the original location. If a permit holder requests a change of location, the permit holder shall return the 25065 original permit and file an amended map indicating the proposed 25066 new location. 25067

Drilling shall not be commenced at a new location until the 25068 original permit bearing a notation of approval by the chief or 25069 chiefs is posted at the well site. However, a permit holder may 25070 commence drilling at a new location without first receiving the 25071 prior approval required by this section, if all of the following 25072 conditions are met: 25073

(A) Within one working day after spudding the new well, the 25074 permit holder files a request for an emergency drilling permit and 25075 submits to the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 25076 management an application for a permit that meets the requirements 25077 of section 1509.06 of the Revised Code, including the permit fee 25078 required by that section, with an amended map showing the new 25079 location. 25080

(B) ~~A mineral~~ An oil and gas resources inspector is present 25081 before spudding operations are commenced at the location. 25082

(C) The original well is plugged prior to the skidding of the 25083 drilling rig to the new location, and the plugging is witnessed or 25084 verified by ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector or, if 25085 the well is located in a coal bearing township, both a deputy mine 25086 inspector and ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector unless 25087 the chief or the chief's authorized representative temporarily 25088 waives the requirement, but in any event the original well shall 25089 be plugged before the drilling rig is moved from the location. 25090

(D) The new location is within fifty feet of the original 25091 location unless, upon request of the permit holder, the chief, 25092 with the approval of the chief of the division of mineral 25093 resources management if the well is located in a coal bearing 25094 township, agrees to a new location farther than fifty feet from 25095

the original location~~+~~ 25096

(E) The new location meets all the distance and spacing 25097 requirements prescribed by rules adopted under sections 1509.23 25098
and 1509.24 of the Revised Code~~+~~ 25099

(F) If the well is located in a coal bearing township, use of 25100 the new well location has not been disapproved by the chief of the 25101 division of mineral resources management and has not been 25102 prohibited as a term or condition of the permit under section 25103
1509.08 of the Revised Code. 25104

If the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 25105 management approves the change of location, the chief shall issue 25106 an emergency permit within two working days after the filing of 25107 the request for the emergency permit. If the chief disapproves the 25108 change of location, the chief shall, by order, deny the request 25109 and may issue an appropriate enforcement order under section 25110
1509.03 of the Revised Code. 25111

Sec. 1509.10. (A) Any person drilling within the state shall, 25112 within sixty days after the completion of drilling operations to 25113 the proposed total depth or after a determination that a well is a 25114 dry or lost hole, file with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 25115 resources management all wireline electric logs and an accurate 25116 well completion record on a form that is approved by the chief of 25117 the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management that 25118 designates: 25119

(1) The purpose for which the well was drilled; 25120

(2) The character, depth, and thickness of geological units 25121 encountered, including coal seams, mineral beds, associated fluids 25122 such as fresh water, brine, and crude oil, natural gas, and sour 25123 gas, if such seams, beds, fluids, or gases are known; 25124

(3) The dates on which drilling operations were commenced and 25125

completed;	25126
(4) The types of drilling tools used and the name of the person that drilled the well;	25127 25128
(5) The length in feet of the various sizes of casing and tubing used in drilling the well, the amount removed after completion, the type and setting depth of each packer, all other data relating to cementing in the annular space behind such casing or tubing, and data indicating completion as a dry, gas, oil, combination oil and gas, brine injection, or artificial brine well or a stratigraphic test;	25129 25130 25131 25132 25133 25134 25135
(6) The number of perforations in the casing and the intervals of the perforations;	25136 25137
(7) The elevation above mean sea level of the point from which the depth measurements were made, stating also the height of the point above ground level at the well, the total depth of the well, and the deepest geological unit that was penetrated in the drilling of the well;	25138 25139 25140 25141 25142
(8) If applicable, the type, volume, and concentration of acid, and the date on which acid was used in acidizing the well;	25143 25144
(9) If applicable, the type and volume of fluid used to stimulate the reservoir of the well, the reservoir breakdown pressure, the method used for the containment of fluids recovered from the fracturing of the well, the methods used for the containment of fluids when pulled from the wellbore from swabbing the well, the average pumping rate of the well, and the name of the person that performed the well stimulation. In addition, the owner shall include a copy of the log from the stimulation of the well, a copy of the invoice for each of the procedures and methods described in division (A)(9) of this section that were used on a well, and a copy of the pumping pressure and rate graphs. However, the owner may redact from the copy of each invoice that is	25145 25146 25147 25148 25149 25150 25151 25152 25153 25154 25155 25156 required to be included under division (A)(9) of this section the 25157 costs of and charges for the procedures and methods described in 25158 division (A)(9) of this section that were used on a well. 25159

(10) The name of the company that performed the logging of 25160 the well and the types of wireline electric logs performed on the 25161
well. 25162

The well completion record shall be submitted in duplicate. 25163
The first copy shall be retained as a permanent record in the 25164 files of the division, and the second copy shall be transmitted by 25165 the chief to the division of geological survey. 25166

(B)(1) Not later than sixty days after the completion of the 25167 drilling operations to the proposed total depth, the owner shall 25168 file all wireline electric logs with the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 25169 and gas resources management and the chief shall transmit such 25170 logs electronically, if available, to the division of geological 25171 survey. Such logs may be retained by the owner for a period of not 25172 more than six months, or such additional time as may be granted by 25173 the chief in writing, after the completion of the well 25174 substantially to the depth shown in the application required by 25175
section 1509.06 of the Revised Code. 25176

(2) If a well is not completed within sixty days after the 25177 completion of drilling operations, the owner shall file with the 25178 division of oil and gas resources management a supplemental well 25179 completion record that includes all of the information required 25180 under this section within sixty days after the completion of the 25181
well. 25182

(C) Upon request in writing by the chief of the division of 25183 geological survey prior to the beginning of drilling of the well, 25184 the person drilling the well shall make available a complete set 25185 of cuttings accurately identified as to depth. 25186

(D) The form of the well completion record required by this 25187 section shall be one that has been approved by the chief of the 25188 division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management and the chief 25189 of the division of geological survey. The filing of a log as 25190 required by this section fulfills the requirement of filing a log 25191 with the chief of the division of geological survey in section 25192

1505.04 of the Revised Code. 25193

(E) If there is a material listed on the invoice that is 25194 required by division (A)(9) of this section for which the division 25195 of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management does not have a 25196 material safety data sheet, the chief shall obtain a copy of the 25197 material safety data sheet for the material and post a copy of the 25198 material safety data sheet on the division's web site. 25199

Sec. 1509.11. The owner of any well producing or capable of 25200 producing oil or gas shall file with the chief of the division of 25201 ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management, on or before the 25202 thirty-first day of March, a statement of production of oil, gas, 25203 and brine for the last preceding calendar year in such form as the 25204 chief may prescribe. An owner that has more than one hundred wells 25205 in this state shall submit electronically the statement of 25206 production in a format that is approved by the chief. The chief 25207 shall include on the form, at the minimum, a request for the 25208 submittal of the information that a person who is regulated under 25209 this chapter is required to submit under the "Emergency Planning 25210 and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1728, 42 25211 U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations adopted under it, and that the 25212 division does not obtain through other reporting mechanisms. 25213

Sec. 1509.12. (A) No owner of any well shall construct a 25214 well, or permit defective casing in a well to leak fluids or 25215 gases, that causes damage to other permeable strata, underground 25216 sources of drinking water, or the surface of the land or that 25217 threatens the public health and safety or the environment. Upon 25218 the discovery that the casing in a well is defective or that a 25219 well was not adequately constructed, the owner of the well shall 25220 notify the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources 25221 management within twenty-four hours of the discovery, and the 25222 owner shall immediately repair the casing, correct the 25223 construction inadequacies, or plug and abandon the well. 25224

(B) When the chief finds that a well should be plugged, the 25225 chief shall notify the owner to that effect by order in writing 25226 and shall specify in the order a reasonable time within which to 25227 comply. No owner shall fail or refuse to plug a well within the 25228 time specified in the order. Each day on which such a well remains 25229 unplugged thereafter constitutes a separate offense. 25230

Where the plugging method prescribed by rules adopted 25231 pursuant to section 1509.15 of the Revised Code cannot be applied 25232 or if applied would be ineffective in carrying out the protection 25233 that the law is meant to give, the chief may designate a different 25234 method of plugging. The abandonment report shall show the manner 25235 in which the well was plugged. 25236

(C) In case of oil or gas wells abandoned prior to September 25237
1, 1978, the board of county commissioners of the county in which 25238 the wells are located may submit to the electors of the county the 25239 question of establishing a special fund, by general levy, by 25240 general bond issue, or out of current funds, which shall be 25241 approved by a majority of the electors voting upon that question 25242 for the purpose of plugging the wells. The fund shall be 25243 administered by the board and the plugging of oil and gas wells 25244 shall be under the supervision of the chief, and the board shall 25245 let contracts for that purpose, provided that the fund shall not 25246 be used for the purpose of plugging oil and gas wells that were 25247 abandoned subsequent to September 1, 1978. 25248

Sec. 1509.13. (A) No person shall plug and abandon a well 25249 without having a permit to do so issued by the chief of the 25250 division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management. The permit 25251 shall be issued by the chief in accordance with this chapter and 25252 shall be valid for a period of twenty-four months from the date of 25253

issue. 25254

(B) Application by the owner for a permit to plug and abandon 25255 shall be filed as many days in advance as will be necessary for a 25256 ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector or, if the well is 25257 located in a coal bearing township, both a deputy mine inspector 25258 and a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector to be present at 25259 the plugging. The application shall be filed with the chief upon a 25260 form that the chief prescribes and shall contain the following 25261
information: 25262

(1) The name and address of the owner; 25263

(2) The signature of the owner or the owner's authorized 25264 agent. When an authorized agent signs an application, it shall be 25265 accompanied by a certified copy of the appointment as that agent. 25266

(3) The location of the well identified by section or lot 25267
number, city, village, township, and county; 25268

(4) Designation of well by name and number; 25269

(5) The total depth of the well to be plugged; 25270

(6) The date and amount of last production from the well; 25271

(7) Other data that the chief may require. 25272

(C) If oil or gas has been produced from the well, the 25273 application shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty 25274 dollars. If a well has been drilled in accordance with law and the 25275 permit is still valid, the permit holder may receive approval to 25276 plug the well from a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector so 25277 that the well can be plugged and abandoned without undue delay. 25278 Unless waived by a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector, the 25279 owner of a well or the owner's authorized representative shall 25280 notify ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector at least 25281 twenty-four hours prior to the commencement of the plugging of a 25282 well. No well shall be plugged and abandoned without ~~a mineral~~ an 25283 oil and gas resources inspector present unless permission has been 25284 granted by the chief. The owner of a well that has produced oil or 25285 gas shall give written notice at the same time to the owner of the 25286 land upon which the well is located and to all lessors that 25287 receive gas from the well pursuant to a lease agreement. If the 25288 well penetrates or passes within one hundred feet of the 25289 excavations and workings of a mine, the owner of the well shall 25290 give written notice to the owner or lessee of that mine, of the 25291 well owner's intention to abandon the well and of the time when 25292 the well owner will be prepared to commence plugging it. 25293

(D) An applicant may file a request with the chief for 25294 expedited review of an application for a permit to plug and 25295 abandon a well. The chief may refuse to accept a request for 25296 expedited review if, in the chief's judgment, acceptance of the 25297 request will prevent the issuance, within twenty-one days of 25298 filing, of permits for which applications filed under section 25299 1509.06 of the Revised Code are pending. In addition to a complete 25300 application for a permit that meets the requirements of this 25301 section and the permit fee prescribed by this section, if 25302 applicable, a request shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 25303 filing fee of five hundred dollars unless the chief has ordered 25304 the applicant to plug and abandon the well. When a request for 25305 expedited review is filed, the chief shall immediately begin to 25306 process the application and shall issue a permit within seven days 25307 of the filing of the request unless the chief, by order, denies 25308 the application. 25309

(E) This section does not apply to a well plugged or 25310 abandoned in compliance with section 1571.05 of the Revised Code. 25311

Sec. 1509.14. Any person who abandons a well, when written permission has been granted by the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management to abandon and plug the well without an inspector being present to supervise the plugging, shall make a written report of the abandonment to the chief. The report shall be submitted not later than thirty days after the date of abandonment and shall include all of the following:

(A) The date of abandonment;

(B) The name of the owner or operator of the well at the time of abandonment and the post-office address of the owner or operator;

(C) The location of the well as to township and county and the name of the owner of the surface upon which the well is drilled, with the address thereof;

(D) The date of the permit to drill;

(E) The date when drilled;

(F) The depth of the well;

(G) The depth of the top of the formation to which the well was drilled;

(H) The depth of each seam of coal drilled through, if known;

(I) A detailed report as to how the well was plugged, giving in particular the manner in which the coal and various formations were plugged, and the date of the plugging of the well, including the names of those who witnessed the plugging of the well.

The report shall be signed by the owner or operator, or the agent of the owner or operator, who abandons and plugs the well and verified by the oath of the party so signing. For the purposes of this section, the ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources inspectors may take acknowledgments and administer oaths to the parties signing the report. 25341

Sec. 1509.15. When any well is to be abandoned, it shall 25342 first be plugged in accordance with a method of plugging adopted 25343 by rule by the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 25344 resources management. The abandonment report shall show the manner 25345
in which the well was plugged. 25346

Sec. 1509.17. (A) A well shall be constructed in a manner 25347 that is approved by the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 25348 ~~gas~~ resources management as specified in the permit using 25349 materials that comply with industry standards for the type and 25350 depth of the well and the anticipated fluid pressures that are 25351 associated with the well. In addition, a well shall be constructed 25352 using sufficient steel or conductor casing in a manner that 25353 supports unconsolidated sediments, that protects and isolates all 25354 underground sources of drinking water as defined by the Safe 25355 Drinking Water Act, and that provides a base for a blowout 25356 preventer or other well control equipment that is necessary to 25357 control formation pressures and fluids during the drilling of the 25358 well and other operations to complete the well. Using steel 25359 production casing with sufficient cement, an oil and gas reservoir 25360 shall be isolated during well stimulation and during the 25361 productive life of the well. In addition, sour gas zones and gas 25362 bearing zones that have sufficient pressure and volume to 25363 over-pressurize the surface production casing annulus resulting in 25364 annular overpressurization shall be isolated using approved 25365 cementing, casing, and well construction practices. However, 25366 isolating an oil and gas reservoir shall not exclude open-hole 25367 completion. A well shall not be perforated for purposes of well 25368 stimulation in any zone that is located around casing that 25369 protects underground sources of drinking water without written 25370 authorization from the chief in accordance with division (D) of 25371 this section. When the well penetrates the excavations of a mine, 25372 the casing shall remain intact as provided in section 1509.18 of 25373 the Revised Code and be plugged and abandoned in accordance with 25374

section 1509.15 of the Revised Code. 25375

(B) The chief may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. 25376 of the Revised Code that are consistent with division (A) of this 25377 section and that establish standards for constructing a well, for 25378 evaluating the quality of well construction materials, and for 25379 completing remedial cementing. In addition, the standards 25380 established in the rules shall consider local geology and various 25381 drilling conditions and shall require the use of reasonable 25382 methods that are based on sound engineering principles. 25383

(C) An owner or an owner's authorized representative shall 25384 notify ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector each time that 25385 the owner or the authorized representative notifies a person to 25386 perform the cementing of the conductor casing, the surface casing, 25387 or the production casing. In addition, not later than sixty days 25388 after the completion of the cementing of the production casing, an 25389 owner shall submit to the chief a copy of the cement tickets for 25390 each cemented string of casing and a copy of all logs that were 25391 used to evaluate the quality of the cementing. 25392

(D) The chief shall grant an exemption from this section and 25393 rules adopted under it for a well if the chief determines that a 25394 cement bond log confirms zonal isolation and there is a minimum of 25395 five hundred feet between the uppermost perforation of the casing 25396 and the lowest depth of an underground source of drinking water. 25397

Sec. 1509.181. (A) The chief of the division of mineral 25398 resources management may order the immediate suspension of the 25399 drilling or reopening of a well in a coal bearing township after 25400 determining that the drilling or reopening activities present an 25401 imminent and substantial threat to public health or safety or to a 25402 miner's health or safety. 25403

(B) Before issuing an order under division (A) of this 25404 section, the chief shall notify the chief of the division of oil 25405 and gas resources management and the owner in any manner that the 25406 chief of the division of mineral resources management determines 25407 would provide reasonable notification of the chief's intent to 25408 issue a suspension order. However, the chief may order the 25409 immediate suspension of the drilling or reopening of a well in a 25410 coal bearing township without prior notification to the owner if 25411 the chief has made reasonable attempts to notify the owner and the 25412 attempts have failed. If the chief orders the immediate suspension 25413 of such drilling or reopening, the chief shall provide the chief 25414 of the division of oil and gas resources management and the owner 25415 notice of the order as soon as practical. 25416

(C) Not later than five days after the issuance of an order 25417 under division (A) of this section to immediately suspend the 25418 drilling or reopening of a well in a coal bearing township, the 25419 chief of the division of mineral resources management shall 25420 provide the owner an opportunity to be heard and to present 25421 evidence that the drilling or reopening activities will not likely 25422 result in an imminent and substantial threat to public health or 25423 safety or to a miner's health or safety, as applicable. If the 25424 chief, after considering all evidence presented by the owner, 25425 determines that the activities do not present such a threat, the 25426 chief shall revoke the suspension order. 25427

(D) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an 25428 owner may appeal a suspension order issued under this section to 25429 the reclamation commission in accordance with section 1513.13 of 25430

Sec. 1509.19. An owner who elects to stimulate a well shall 25432 stimulate the well in a manner that will not endanger underground 25433 sources of drinking water. Not later than twenty-four hours before 25434 commencing the stimulation of a well, the owner or the owner's 25435 authorized representative shall notify a ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 25436 resources inspector. If during the stimulation of a well damage to 25437 the production casing or cement occurs and results in the 25438 circulation of fluids from the annulus of the surface production 25439 casing, the owner shall immediately terminate the stimulation of 25440 the well and notify the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and 25441 gas resources management. If the chief determines that the casing 25442 and the cement may be remediated in a manner that isolates the oil 25443 and gas bearing zones of the well, the chief may authorize the 25444 completion of the stimulation of the well. If the chief determines 25445 that the stimulation of a well resulted in irreparable damage to 25446 the well, the chief shall order that the well be plugged and 25447 abandoned within thirty days of the issuance of the order. 25448

For purposes of determining the integrity of the remediation 25449 of the casing or cement of a well that was damaged during the 25450 stimulation of the well, the chief may require the owner of the 25451 well to submit cement evaluation logs, temperature surveys, 25452 pressure tests, or a combination of such logs, surveys, and tests. 25453

Sec. 1509.21. No person shall, without first having obtained 25454 a permit from the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 25455 resources management, conduct secondary or additional recovery 25456 operations, including any underground injection of fluids or 25457 carbon dioxide for the secondary or tertiary recovery of oil or 25458 natural gas or for the storage of hydrocarbons that are liquid at 25459 standard temperature or pressure, unless a rule of the chief 25460 expressly authorizes such operations without a permit. The permit 25461 shall be in addition to any permit required by section 1509.05 of 25462 the Revised Code. Secondary or additional recovery operations 25463 shall be conducted in accordance with rules and orders of the 25464 chief and any terms or conditions of the permit authorizing such 25465 operations. In addition, the chief may authorize tests to evaluate 25466 whether fluids or carbon dioxide may be injected in a reservoir 25467 and to determine the maximum allowable injection pressure. The 25468 tests shall be conducted in accordance with methods prescribed in 25469 rules of the chief or conditions of the permit. Rules adopted 25470 under this section shall include provisions regarding applications 25471 for and the issuance of permits; the terms and conditions of 25472 permits; entry to conduct inspections and to examine records to 25473 ascertain compliance with this section and rules, orders, and 25474 terms and conditions of permits adopted or issued thereunder; the 25475 provision and maintenance of information through monitoring, 25476 recordkeeping, and reporting; and other provisions in furtherance 25477 of the goals of this section and the Safe Drinking Water Act. To 25478 implement the goals of the Safe Drinking Water Act, the chief 25479 shall not issue a permit for the underground injection of fluids 25480 for the secondary or tertiary recovery of oil or natural gas or 25481 for the storage of hydrocarbons that are liquid at standard 25482 temperature and pressure, unless the chief concludes that the 25483 applicant has demonstrated that the injection will not result in 25484 the presence of any contaminant in underground water that supplies 25485 or can be reasonably expected to supply any public water system, 25486 such that the presence of any such contaminant may result in the 25487 system's not complying with any national primary drinking water 25488 regulation or may otherwise adversely affect the health of 25489 persons. Rules, orders, and terms or conditions of permits adopted 25490 or issued under this section shall be construed to be no more 25491 stringent than required for compliance with the Safe Drinking 25492 Water Act, unless essential to ensure that underground sources of 25493 drinking water will not be endangered. 25494

Sec. 1509.22. (A) Except when acting in accordance with 25495 section 1509.226 of the Revised Code, no person shall place or 25496 cause to be placed brine, crude oil, natural gas, or other fluids 25497 associated with the exploration or development of oil and gas 25498 resources in surface or ground water or in or on the land in such 25499 quantities or in such manner as actually causes or could 25500 reasonably be anticipated to cause either of the following: 25501

(1) Water used for consumption by humans or domestic animals 25502 to exceed the standards of the Safe Drinking Water Act; 25503

(2) Damage or injury to public health or safety or the 25504
environment. 25505

(B) No person shall store or dispose of brine in violation of 25506 a plan approved under division (A) of section 1509.222 or section 25507 1509.226 of the Revised Code, in violation of a resolution 25508 submitted under section 1509.226 of the Revised Code, or in 25509 violation of rules or orders applicable to those plans or 25510 resolutions. 25511

(C) The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 25512 resources management shall adopt rules and issue orders regarding 25513 storage and disposal of brine and other waste substances; however, 25514 the storage and disposal of brine and other waste substances and 25515 the chief's rules relating to storage and disposal are subject to 25516 all of the following standards: 25517

(1) Brine from any well except an exempt Mississippian well 25518 shall be disposed of only by injection into an underground 25519 formation, including annular disposal if approved by rule of the 25520 chief, which injection shall be subject to division (D) of this 25521 section; by surface application in accordance with section 25522 1509.226 of the Revised Code; in association with a method of 25523 enhanced recovery as provided in section 1509.21 of the Revised 25524 Code; or by other methods approved by the chief for testing or 25525 implementing a new technology or method of disposal. Brine from 25526 exempt Mississippian wells shall not be discharged directly into 25527

the waters of the state. 25528

(2) Muds, cuttings, and other waste substances shall not be 25529 disposed of in violation of any rule. 25530

(3) Pits or steel tanks shall be used as authorized by the 25531 chief for containing brine and other waste substances resulting 25532 from, obtained from, or produced in connection with drilling, well 25533 stimulation, reworking, reconditioning, plugging back, or plugging 25534 operations. The pits and steel tanks shall be constructed and 25535 maintained to prevent the escape of brine and other waste 25536 substances. 25537

(4) A dike or pit may be used for spill prevention and 25538 control. A dike or pit so used shall be constructed and maintained 25539 to prevent the escape of brine and crude oil, and the reservoir 25540 within such a dike or pit shall be kept reasonably free of brine, 25541 crude oil, and other waste substances. 25542

(5) Earthen impoundments constructed pursuant to the 25543 division's specifications may be used for the temporary storage of 25544 fluids used in the stimulation of a well. 25545

(6) No pit, earthen impoundment, or dike shall be used for 25546 the temporary storage of brine or other substances except in 25547 accordance with divisions (C)(3) to (5) of this section. 25548

(7) No pit or dike shall be used for the ultimate disposal of 25549 brine or other liquid waste substances. 25550

(D) No person, without first having obtained a permit from 25551 the chief, shall inject brine or other waste substances resulting 25552 from, obtained from, or produced in connection with oil or gas 25553 drilling, exploration, or production into an underground formation 25554 unless a rule of the chief expressly authorizes the injection 25555 without a permit. The permit shall be in addition to any permit 25556 required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code, and the permit 25557 application shall be accompanied by a permit fee of one thousand 25558 dollars. The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 25559 119. of the Revised Code regarding the injection into wells of 25560 brine and other waste substances resulting from, obtained from, or 25561 produced in connection with oil or gas drilling, exploration, or 25562 production. The rules may authorize tests to evaluate whether 25563 fluids or carbon dioxide may be injected in a reservoir and to 25564 determine the maximum allowable injection pressure, which shall be 25565 conducted in accordance with methods prescribed in the rules or in 25566 accordance with conditions of the permit. In addition, the rules 25567 shall include provisions regarding applications for and issuance 25568 of the permits required by this division; entry to conduct 25569 inspections and to examine and copy records to ascertain 25570 compliance with this division and rules, orders, and terms and 25571 conditions of permits adopted or issued under it; the provision 25572 and maintenance of information through monitoring, recordkeeping, 25573 and reporting; and other provisions in furtherance of the goals of 25574 this section and the Safe Drinking Water Act. To implement the 25575 goals of the Safe Drinking Water Act, the chief shall not issue a 25576 permit for the injection of brine or other waste substances 25577 resulting from, obtained from, or produced in connection with oil 25578 or gas drilling, exploration, or production unless the chief 25579 concludes that the applicant has demonstrated that the injection 25580 will not result in the presence of any contaminant in ground water 25581 that supplies or can reasonably be expected to supply any public 25582 water system, such that the presence of the contaminant may result 25583 in the system's not complying with any national primary drinking 25584 water regulation or may otherwise adversely affect the health of 25585 persons. This division and rules, orders, and terms and conditions 25586 of permits adopted or issued under it shall be construed to be no 25587 more stringent than required for compliance with the Safe Drinking 25588 Water Act unless essential to ensure that underground sources of 25589

drinking water will not be endangered. 25590

(E) The owner holding a permit, or an assignee or transferee 25591 who has assumed the obligations and liabilities imposed by this 25592 chapter and any rules adopted or orders issued under it pursuant 25593 to section 1509.31 of the Revised Code, and the operator of a well 25594 shall be liable for a violation of this section or any rules 25595 adopted or orders or terms or conditions of a permit issued under 25596

it. 25597

(F) An owner shall replace the water supply of the holder of 25598 an interest in real property who obtains all or part of the 25599 holder's supply of water for domestic, agricultural, industrial, 25600 or other legitimate use from an underground or surface source 25601 where the supply has been substantially disrupted by 25602 contamination, diminution, or interruption proximately resulting 25603 from the owner's oil or gas operation, or the owner may elect to 25604 compensate the holder of the interest in real property for the 25605 difference between the fair market value of the interest before 25606 the damage occurred to the water supply and the fair market value 25607 after the damage occurred if the cost of replacing the water 25608 supply exceeds this difference in fair market values. However, 25609 during the pendency of any order issued under this division, the 25610 owner shall obtain for the holder or shall reimburse the holder 25611 for the reasonable cost of obtaining a water supply from the time 25612 of the contamination, diminution, or interruption by the operation 25613 until the owner has complied with an order of the chief for 25614 compliance with this division or such an order has been revoked or 25615 otherwise becomes not effective. If the owner elects to pay the 25616 difference in fair market values, but the owner and the holder 25617 have not agreed on the difference within thirty days after the 25618 chief issues an order for compliance with this division, within 25619 ten days after the expiration of that thirty-day period, the owner 25620 and the chief each shall appoint an appraiser to determine the 25621 difference in fair market values, except that the holder of the 25622 interest in real property may elect to appoint and compensate the 25623 holder's own appraiser, in which case the chief shall not appoint 25624 an appraiser. The two appraisers appointed shall appoint a third 25625 appraiser, and within thirty days after the appointment of the 25626 third appraiser, the three appraisers shall hold a hearing to 25627 determine the difference in fair market values. Within ten days 25628 after the hearing, the appraisers shall make their determination 25629 by majority vote and issue their final determination of the 25630 difference in fair market values. The chief shall accept a 25631 determination of the difference in fair market values made by 25632 agreement of the owner and holder or by appraisers under this 25633 division and shall make and dissolve orders accordingly. This 25634 division does not affect in any way the right of any person to 25635 enforce or protect, under applicable law, the person's interest in 25636 water resources affected by an oil or gas operation. 25637

(G) In any action brought by the state for a violation of 25638 division (A) of this section involving any well at which annular 25639 disposal is used, there shall be a rebuttable presumption 25640 available to the state that the annular disposal caused the 25641 violation if the well is located within a one-quarter-mile radius 25642 of the site of the violation. 25643

Sec. 1509.221. (A) No person, without first having obtained a 25644 permit from the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 25645 resources management, shall drill a well or inject a substance 25646 into a well for the exploration for or extraction of minerals or 25647 energy, other than oil or natural gas, including, but not limited 25648 to, the mining of sulfur by the Frasch process, the solution 25649 mining of minerals, the in situ combustion of fossil fuel, or the 25650 recovery of geothermal energy to produce electric power, unless a 25651 rule of the chief expressly authorizes the activity without a 25652 permit. The permit shall be in addition to any permit required by 25653 section 1509.05 of the Revised Code. The chief shall adopt rules 25654 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 25655 issuance of permits under this section. The rules shall include 25656 provisions regarding the matters the applicant for a permit shall 25657 demonstrate to establish eligibility for a permit; the form and 25658 content of applications for permits; the terms and conditions of 25659 permits; entry to conduct inspections and to examine and copy 25660 records to ascertain compliance with this section and rules, 25661 orders, and terms and conditions of permits adopted or issued 25662 thereunder; provision and maintenance of information through 25663 monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting; and other provisions in 25664 furtherance of the goals of this section and the Safe Drinking 25665 Water Act. To implement the goals of the Safe Drinking Water Act, 25666 the chief shall not issue a permit under this section, unless the 25667 chief concludes that the applicant has demonstrated that the 25668 drilling, injection of a substance, and extraction of minerals or 25669 energy will not result in the presence of any contaminant in 25670 underground water that supplies or can reasonably be expected to 25671 supply any public water system, such that the presence of the 25672 contaminant may result in the system's not complying with any 25673 national primary drinking water regulation or may otherwise 25674 adversely affect the health of persons. The chief may issue, 25675 without a prior adjudication hearing, orders requiring compliance 25676 with this section and rules, orders, and terms and conditions of 25677 permits adopted or issued thereunder. This section and rules, 25678 orders, and terms and conditions of permits adopted or issued 25679 thereunder shall be construed to be no more stringent than 25680 required for compliance with the Safe Drinking Water Act, unless 25681 essential to ensure that underground sources of drinking water 25682 will not be endangered. 25683

(B)(1) There is levied on the owner of an injection well who 25684 has been issued a permit under division (D) of section 1509.22 of 25685
the Revised Code the following fees: 25686

(a) Five cents per barrel of each substance that is delivered 25687 to a well to be injected in the well when the substance is 25688 produced within the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources 25689 management regulatory district in which the well is located or 25690 within an adjoining ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management 25691 regulatory district; 25692

(b) Twenty cents per barrel of each substance that is 25693 delivered to a well to be injected in the well when the substance 25694 is not produced within the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 25695 resources management regulatory district in which the well is 25696 located or within an adjoining ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources 25697 management regulatory district. 25698

(2) The maximum number of barrels of substance per injection 25699 well in a calendar year on which a fee may be levied under 25700 division (B) of this section is five hundred thousand. If in a 25701 calendar year the owner of an injection well receives more than 25702 five hundred thousand barrels of substance to be injected in the 25703 owner's well and if the owner receives at least one substance that 25704 is produced within the division's regulatory district in which the 25705 well is located or within an adjoining regulatory district and at 25706 least one substance that is not produced within the division's 25707 regulatory district in which the well is located or within an 25708 adjoining regulatory district, the fee shall be calculated first 25709 on all of the barrels of substance that are not produced within 25710 the division's regulatory district in which the well is located or 25711 within an adjoining district at the rate established in division 25712 (B)(2) of this section. The fee then shall be calculated on the 25713 barrels of substance that are produced within the division's 25714 regulatory district in which the well is located or within an 25715 adjoining district at the rate established in division (B)(1) of 25716 this section until the maximum number of barrels established in 25717 division (B)(2) of this section has been attained. 25718

(3) The owner of an injection well who is issued a permit 25719 under division (D) of section 1509.22 of the Revised Code shall 25720 collect the fee levied by division (B) of this section on behalf 25721 of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management and 25722 forward the fee to the division. The chief shall transmit all 25723 money received under division (B) of this section to the treasurer 25724 of state who shall deposit the money in the state treasury to the 25725 credit of the oil and gas well fund created in section 1509.02 of 25726 the Revised Code. The owner of an injection well who collects the 25727 fee levied by this division may retain up to three per cent of the 25728 amount that is collected. 25729

(4) The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 25730
119. of the Revised Code establishing requirements and procedures 25731 for collection of the fee levied by division (B) of this section. 25732

(C) In an action under section 1509.04 or 1509.33 of the 25733 Revised Code to enforce this section, the court shall grant 25734 preliminary and permanent injunctive relief and impose a civil 25735 penalty upon the showing that the person against whom the action 25736 is brought has violated, is violating, or will violate this 25737 section or rules, orders, or terms or conditions of permits 25738 adopted or issued thereunder. The court shall not require, prior 25739 to granting such preliminary and permanent injunctive relief or 25740 imposing a civil penalty, proof that the violation was, is, or 25741 will be the result of intentional conduct or negligence. In any 25742 such action, any person may intervene as a plaintiff upon the 25743 demonstration that the person has an interest that is or may be 25744 adversely affected by the activity for which injunctive relief or 25745 a civil penalty is sought. 25746

Sec. 1509.222. (A)(1) Except as provided in section 1509.226 25747 of the Revised Code, no person shall transport brine by vehicle in 25748 this state unless the business entity that employs the person 25749 first registers with and obtains a registration certificate and 25750 identification number from the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 25751 oil and gas resources management. 25752

(2) No more than one registration certificate shall be 25753 required of any business entity. Registration certificates issued 25754 under this section are not transferable. An applicant shall file 25755 an application with the chief, containing such information in such 25756 form as the chief prescribes, but including a plan for disposal 25757 that provides for compliance with the requirements of this chapter 25758 and rules of the chief pertaining to the transportation of brine 25759 by vehicle and the disposal of brine so transported and that lists 25760 all disposal sites that the applicant intends to use, the bond 25761 required by section 1509.225 of the Revised Code, and a 25762 certificate issued by an insurance company authorized to do 25763 business in this state certifying that the applicant has in force 25764 a liability insurance policy in an amount not less than three 25765 hundred thousand dollars bodily injury coverage and three hundred 25766 thousand dollars property damage coverage to pay damages for 25767 injury to persons or property caused by the collecting, handling, 25768 transportation, or disposal of brine. The policy shall be 25769 maintained in effect during the term of the registration 25770 certificate. The policy or policies providing the coverage shall 25771 require the insurance company to give notice to the chief if the 25772 policy or policies lapse for any reason. Upon such termination of 25773 the policy, the chief may suspend the registration certificate 25774 until proper insurance coverage is obtained. Each application for 25775 a registration certificate shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 25776 fee of five hundred dollars. 25777

(3) If a business entity that has been issued a registration 25778 certificate under this section changes its name due to a business 25779 reorganization or merger, the business entity shall revise the 25780 bond or certificates of deposit required by section 1509.225 of 25781 the Revised Code and obtain a new certificate from an insurance 25782 company in accordance with division (A)(2) of this section to 25783 reflect the change in the name of the business entity. 25784

(B) The chief shall issue an order denying an application for 25785 a registration certificate if the chief finds that either of the 25786 following applies: 25787

(1) The applicant, at the time of applying for the 25788 registration certificate, has been found liable by a final 25789 nonappealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction for 25790 damage to streets, roads, highways, bridges, culverts, or 25791 drainways pursuant to section 4513.34 or 5577.12 of the Revised 25792 Code until the applicant provides the chief with evidence of 25793 compliance with the order. 25794

(2) The applicant's plan for disposal does not provide for 25795 compliance with the requirements of this chapter and rules of the 25796 chief pertaining to the transportation of brine by vehicle and the 25797 disposal of brine so transported. 25798

(C) No applicant shall attempt to circumvent division (B) of 25799 this section by applying for a registration certificate under a 25800 different name or business organization name, by transferring 25801 responsibility to another person or entity, or by any similar act. 25802

(D) A registered transporter shall apply to revise a disposal 25803 plan under procedures that the chief shall prescribe by rule. 25804 However, at a minimum, an application for a revision shall list 25805 all sources and disposal sites of brine currently transported. The 25806 chief shall deny any application for a revision of a plan under 25807 this division if the chief finds that the proposed revised plan 25808 does not provide for compliance with the requirements of this 25809 chapter and rules of the chief pertaining to the transportation of 25810 brine by vehicle and the disposal of brine so transported. 25811 Approvals and denials of revisions shall be by order of the chief. 25812

(E) The chief may adopt rules, issue orders, and attach terms 25813 and conditions to registration certificates as may be necessary to 25814 administer, implement, and enforce sections 1509.222 to 1509.226 25815 of the Revised Code for protection of public health or safety or 25816 conservation of natural resources. 25817

Sec. 1509.223. (A) No permit holder or owner of a well shall 25818 enter into an agreement with or permit any person to transport 25819 brine produced from the well who is not registered pursuant to 25820 section 1509.222 of the Revised Code or exempt from registration 25821
under section 1509.226 of the Revised Code. 25822

(B) Each registered transporter shall file with the chief of 25823 the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management, on or 25824 before the fifteenth day of April, a statement concerning brine 25825 transported, including quantities transported and source and 25826 delivery points, during the last preceding calendar year, and such 25827 other information in such form as the chief may prescribe. 25828

(C) Each registered transporter shall keep on each vehicle 25829 used to transport brine a daily log and have it available upon the 25830 request of the chief or an authorized representative of the chief 25831 or a peace officer. The log shall, at a minimum, include all of 25832 the following information: 25833

(1) The name of the owner or owners of the well or wells 25834 producing the brine to be transported; 25835

(2) The date and time the brine is loaded; 25836

(3) The name of the driver; 25837

(4) The amount of brine loaded at each collection point; 25838

(5) The disposal location; 25839

(6) The date and time the brine is disposed of and the amount 25840 of brine disposed of at each location. 25841

No registered transporter shall falsify or fail to keep or 25842 submit the log required by this division. 25843

(D) Each registered transporter shall legibly identify with 25844 reflective paints all vehicles employed in transporting or 25845 disposing of brine. Letters shall be no less than four inches in 25846 height and shall indicate the identification number issued by the 25847 chief, the word "brine," and the name and telephone number of the 25848 transporter. 25849

(E) The chief shall maintain and keep a current list of 25850 persons registered to transport brine under section 1509.222 of 25851 the Revised Code. The list shall be open to public inspection. It 25852 is an affirmative defense to a charge under division (A) of this 25853 section that at the time the permit holder or owner of a well 25854 entered into an agreement with or permitted a person to transport 25855 brine, the person was shown on the list as currently registered to 25856 transport brine. 25857

Sec. 1509.224. (A) In addition to any other remedies provided 25858 in this chapter, if the chief of the division of mineral oil and 25859 gas resources management has reason to believe that a pattern of 25860 the same or similar violations of any requirements of ~~sections~~ 25861 section 1509.22, 1509.222, or 1509.223 of the Revised Code, or any 25862 rule adopted thereunder or term or condition of the registration 25863 certificate issued thereunder exists or has existed, and the 25864 violations are caused by the transporter's indifference, lack of 25865 diligence, or lack of reasonable care, or are willfully caused by 25866 the transporter, the chief shall immediately issue an order to the 25867 transporter to show cause why the certificate should not be 25868 suspended or revoked. After the issuance of the order, the chief 25869 shall provide the transporter an opportunity to be heard and to 25870 present evidence at an informal hearing conducted by the chief. 25871
If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the chief finds that such a 25872 pattern of violations exists or has existed, the chief shall issue 25873 an order suspending or revoking the transporter's registration 25874 certificate. An order suspending or revoking a certificate under 25875 this section may be appealed under sections 1509.36 and 1509.37 of 25876 the Revised Code, or notwithstanding any other provision of this 25877 chapter, may be appealed directly to the court of common pleas of 25878 Franklin county. 25879

(B) Before issuing an order denying a registration 25880 certificate; approving or denying approval of an application for 25881 revision of a registered transporter's plan for disposal; or to 25882 implement, administer, or enforce section 1509.22, 1509.222, 25883 1509.223, 1509.225, or 1509.226 of the Revised Code and rules and 25884 terms and conditions of registration certificates adopted or 25885 issued thereunder pertaining to the transportation of brine by 25886 vehicle and the disposal of brine so transported, the chief shall 25887 issue a preliminary order indicating the chief's intent to issue a 25888 final order. The preliminary order shall clearly state the nature 25889 of the chief's proposed action and the findings on which it is 25890 based and shall state that the preliminary order becomes a final 25891 order thirty days after its issuance unless the person to whom the 25892 preliminary order is directed submits to the chief a written 25893 request for an informal hearing before the chief within that 25894 thirty-day period. At the hearing the person may present evidence 25895 as to why the preliminary order should be revoked or modified. 25896 Based upon the findings from the informal hearing, the chief shall 25897 revoke, issue, or modify and issue the preliminary order as a 25898 final order. A final order may be appealed under sections 1509.36 25899
and 1509.37 of the Revised Code. 25900

Sec. 1509.225. (A) Before being issued a registration 25901 certificate under section 1509.222 of the Revised Code, an 25902 applicant shall execute and file with the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 25903 and gas resources management a surety bond for fifteen thousand 25904 dollars to provide compensation for damage and injury resulting 25905 from transporters' violations of sections 1509.22, 1509.222, and 25906 1509.223 of the Revised Code, all rules and orders of the chief of 25907 the division of ~~mineral resource~~ oil and gas resources management 25908 relating thereto, and all terms and conditions of the registration 25909 certificate imposed thereunder. The applicant may deposit with the 25910 chief, in lieu of a surety bond, cash in an amount equal to the 25911 surety bond as prescribed in this section, or negotiable 25912 certificates of deposit issued by any bank organized or 25913 transacting business in this state, or certificates of deposit 25914 issued by any building and loan association as defined in section 25915 1151.01 of the Revised Code, having a cash value equal to or 25916 greater than the amount of the surety bond as prescribed in this 25917 section. Cash or certificates of deposit shall be deposited upon 25918 the same terms as those upon which surety bonds may be deposited. 25919

If certificates of deposit are deposited with the chief in lieu of 25920 a surety bond, the chief shall require the bank or building and 25921 loan association that issued any such certificate to pledge 25922 securities of a cash value equal to the amount of the certificate 25923 that is in excess of the amount insured by any of the agencies and 25924 instrumentalities created under the "Federal Deposit Insurance 25925 Act," 64 Stat. 873 (1950), 12 U.S.C. 1811, as amended, and 25926 regulations adopted under it, including at least the federal 25927 deposit insurance corporation, bank insurance fund, and savings 25928 association insurance fund. 25929

Such securities shall be security for the repayment of the 25930 certificate of deposit. Immediately upon a deposit of cash or 25931 certificates with the chief, the chief shall deliver it to the 25932 treasurer of state who shall hold it in trust for the purposes for 25933 which it has been deposited. 25934

(B) The surety bond provided for in this section shall be 25935 executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this 25936 state. The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 25937 signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 25938 either by an attorney in fact, with a certified copy of the power 25939 of attorney attached thereto. The chief shall not approve the bond 25940 unless there is attached a certificate of the superintendent of 25941 insurance that the company is authorized to transact a fidelity 25942 and surety business in this state. All bonds shall be given in a 25943 form to be prescribed by the chief. 25944

(C) If a registered transporter is found liable for a 25945 violation of section 1509.22, 1509.222, or 1509.223 of the Revised 25946 Code or a rule, order, or term or condition of a certificate 25947 involving, in any case, damage or injury to persons or property, 25948 or both, the court may order the forfeiture of any portion of the 25949 bond, cash, or other securities required by this section in full 25950 or partial payment of damages to the person to whom the damages 25951 are due. The treasurer of state and the chief shall deliver the 25952 bond or any cash or other securities deposited in lieu of bond, as 25953 specified in the court's order, to the person to whom the damages 25954 are due; however, execution against the bond, cash, or other 25955 securities, if necessary, is the responsibility of the person to 25956 whom the damages are due. The chief shall not release the bond, 25957 cash, or securities required by this section except by court order 25958 or until the registration is terminated. 25959

Sec. 1509.226. (A) If a board of county commissioners, a 25960 board of township trustees, or the legislative authority of a 25961 municipal corporation wishes to permit the surface application of 25962 brine to roads, streets, highways, and other similar land surfaces 25963 it owns or has the right to control for control of dust or ice, it 25964 may adopt a resolution permitting such application as provided in 25965 this section. If a board or legislative authority does not adopt 25966 such a resolution, then no such surface application of brine is 25967 permitted on such roads, streets, highways, and other similar 25968 surfaces. If a board or legislative authority votes on a proposed 25969 resolution to permit such surface application of brine, but the 25970 resolution fails to receive the affirmative vote of a majority of 25971 the board or legislative authority, the board or legislative 25972 authority shall not adopt such a resolution for one year following 25973 the date on which the vote was taken. A board or legislative 25974 authority shall hold at least one public hearing on any proposal 25975 to permit surface application of brine under this division and may 25976 hold additional hearings. The board or legislative authority shall 25977 publish notice of the time and place of each such public hearing 25978 in a newspaper of general circulation in the political subdivision 25979 at least five days before the day on which the hearing is to be 25980 held. 25981

(B) If a board or legislative authority adopts a resolution 25982 permitting the surface application of brine to roads, streets, 25983 highways, and other similar land surfaces under division (A) of 25984 this section, the board or legislative authority shall, within 25985 thirty days after the adoption of the resolution, prepare and 25986 submit to the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 25987 resources management a copy of the resolution. Any department, 25988 agency, or instrumentality of this state or the United States that 25989 wishes to permit the surface application of brine to roads, 25990 streets, highways, and other similar land surfaces it owns or has 25991 a right to control shall prepare and submit guidelines for such 25992 application, but need not adopt a resolution under division (A) of 25993 this section permitting such surface application. 25994

All resolutions and guidelines shall be subject to the 25995 following standards: 25996

(1) Brine shall not be applied: 25997

(a) To a water-saturated surface; 25998

(b) Directly to vegetation near or adjacent to surfaces being 25999 treated; 26000

(c) Within twelve feet of structures crossing bodies of water 26001 or crossing drainage ditches; 26002

(d) Between sundown and sunrise, except for ice control.	26003
(2) The discharge of brine through the spreader bar shall stop when the application stops.	26004 26005
(3) The applicator vehicle shall be moving at least five miles per hour at all times while the brine is being applied.	26006 26007
(4) The maximum spreader bar nozzle opening shall be three-quarters of an inch in diameter.	26008 26009
(5) The maximum uniform application rate of brine shall be three thousand gallons per mile on a twelve-foot-wide road or three gallons per sixty square feet on unpaved lots.	26010 26011 26012
(6) The applicator vehicle discharge valve shall be closed between the brine collection point and the specific surfaces that have been approved for brine application.	26013 26014 26015
(7) Any valves that provide for tank draining other than through the spreader bar shall be closed during the brine application and transport.	26016 26017 26018
(8) The angle of discharge from the applicator vehicle spreader bar shall not be greater than sixty degrees from the perpendicular to the unpaved surface.	26019 26020 26021
(9) Only the last twenty-five per cent of an applicator vehicle's contents shall be allowed to have a pressure greater than atmospheric pressure; therefore, the first seventy-five per cent of the applicator vehicle's contents shall be discharged under atmospheric pressure.	26022 26023 26024 26025 26026
(10) Only brine that is produced from a well shall be allowed to be spread on a road. Fluids from the drilling of a well, flowback from the stimulation of a well, and other fluids used to treat a well shall not be spread on a road.	26027 26028 26029 26030
If a resolution or guidelines contain only the standards listed in division divisions (B)(1) to (10) of this section,	26031 26032 without addition or qualification, the resolution or guidelines 26033 shall be deemed effective when submitted to the chief without 26034 further action by the chief. All other resolutions and guidelines 26035 shall comply with and be no less stringent than this chapter, 26036 rules concerning surface application that the chief shall adopt 26037 under division (C) of section 1509.22 of the Revised Code, and 26038 other rules of the chief. Within fifteen days after receiving such 26039 other resolutions and guidelines, the chief shall review them for 26040 compliance with the law and rules and disapprove them if they do 26041 not comply. 26042

The board, legislative authority, or department, agency, or 26043 instrumentality may revise and resubmit any resolutions or 26044 guidelines that the chief disapproves after each disapproval, and 26045 the chief shall again review and approve or disapprove them within 26046 fifteen days after receiving them. The board, legislative 26047 authority, or department, agency, or instrumentality may amend any 26048 resolutions or guidelines previously approved by the chief and 26049 submit them, as amended, to the chief. The chief shall receive, 26050 review, and approve or disapprove the amended resolutions or 26051 guidelines on the same basis and in the same time as original 26052 resolutions or guidelines. The board, legislative authority, or 26053 department, agency, or instrumentality shall not implement amended 26054 resolutions or guidelines until they are approved by the chief 26055 under this division. 26056

(C) Any person, other than a political subdivision required 26057 to adopt a resolution under division (A) of this section or a 26058 department, agency, or instrumentality of this state or the United 26059 States, who owns or has a legal right or obligation to maintain a 26060 road, street, highway, or other similar land surface may file with 26061 the board of county commissioners a written plan for the 26062 application of brine to the road, street, highway, or other 26063 surface. The board need not approve any such plans, but if it 26064 approves a plan, the plan shall comply with this chapter, rules 26065 adopted thereunder, and the board's resolutions, if any. 26066

Disapproved plans may be revised and resubmitted for the board's 26067 approval. Approved plans may also be revised and submitted to the 26068 board. A plan or revised plan shall do all of the following: 26069

- (1) Identify the sources of brine to be used under the plan; 26070
- (2) Identify by name, address, and registration certificate, 26071 if applicable, any transporters of the brine; 26072
- (3) Specifically identify the places to which the brine will 26073 be applied; 26074
- (4) Specifically describe the method, rate, and frequency of 26075
application. 26076

(D) The board may attach terms and conditions to approval of 26077 a plan, or revised plan, and may revoke approval for any violation 26078 of this chapter, rules adopted thereunder, resolutions adopted by 26079 the board, or terms or conditions attached by the board. The board 26080 shall conduct at least one public hearing before approving a plan 26081 or revised plan, publishing notice of the time and place of each 26082 such public hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the 26083 county at least five days before the day on which the hearing is 26084 to be held. The board shall record the filings of all plans and 26085 revised plans in its journal. The board shall approve, disapprove, 26086 or revoke approval of a plan or revised plan by the adoption of a 26087 resolution. Upon approval of a plan or revised plan, the board 26088 shall send a copy of the plan to the chief. Upon revoking approval 26089 of a plan or revised plan, the board shall notify the chief of the 26090 revocation. 26091

(E) No person shall: 26092

- (1) Apply brine to a water-saturated surface; 26093
- (2) Apply brine directly to vegetation adjacent to the 26094 surface of roads, streets, highways, and other surfaces to which 26095 brine may be applied. 26096

(F) Each political subdivision that adopts a resolution under 26097 divisions (A) and (B) of this section, each department, agency, or 26098 instrumentality of this state or the United States that submits 26099 guidelines under division (B) of this section, and each person who 26100 files a plan under divisions (C) and (D) of this section shall, on 26101 or before the fifteenth day of April of each year, file a report 26102 with the chief concerning brine applied within the person's or 26103 governmental entity's jurisdiction, including the quantities 26104 transported and the sources and application points during the last 26105 preceding calendar year and such other information in such form as 26106 the chief requires. 26107

(G) Any political subdivision or department, agency, or 26108 instrumentality of this state or the United States that applies 26109 brine under this section may do so with its own personnel, 26110 vehicles, and equipment without registration under or compliance 26111 with section 1509.222 or 1509.223 of the Revised Code and without 26112 the necessity for filing the surety bond or other security 26113 required by section 1509.225 of the Revised Code. However, each 26114 such entity shall legibly identify vehicles used to apply brine 26115 with reflective paint in letters no less than four inches in 26116 height, indicating the word "brine" and that the vehicle is a 26117 vehicle of the political subdivision, department, agency, or 26118 instrumentality. Except as stated in this division, such entities 26119 shall transport brine in accordance with sections 1509.22 to 26120
1509.226 of the Revised Code. 26121

(H) A surface application plan filed for approval under 26122 division (C) of this section shall be accompanied by a 26123 nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars, which shall be credited to the 26124 general fund of the county. An approved plan is valid for one year 26125 from the date of its approval unless it is revoked before that 26126 time. An approved revised plan is valid for the remainder of the 26127 term of the plan it supersedes unless it is revoked before that 26128 time. Any person who has filed such a plan or revised plan and had 26129 it approved may renew it by refileing it in accordance with 26130 divisions (C) and (D) of this section within thirty days before 26131 any anniversary of the date on which the original plan was 26132 approved. The board shall notify the chief of renewals and 26133 nonrenewals of plans. Even if a renewed plan is approved under 26134 those divisions, the plan is not effective until notice is 26135 received by the chief, and until notice is received, the chief 26136 shall enforce this chapter and rules adopted thereunder with 26137 regard to the affected roads, streets, highways, and other similar 26138 land surfaces as if the plan had not been renewed. 26139

(I) A resolution adopted under division (A) of this section 26140 by a board or legislative authority shall be effective for one 26141 year following the date of its adoption and from month to month 26142 thereafter until the board or legislative authority, by 26143 resolution, terminates the authority granted in the original 26144 resolution. The termination shall be effective not less than seven 26145 days after enactment of the resolution, and a copy of the 26146 resolution shall be sent to the chief. 26147

Sec. 1509.23. (A) Rules of the chief of the division of 26148 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management may specify practices to 26149 be followed in the drilling and treatment of wells, production of 26150 oil and gas, and plugging of wells for protection of public health 26151 or safety or to prevent damage to natural resources, including 26152 specification of the following: 26153

(1) Appropriate devices; 26154

(2) Minimum distances that wells and other excavations, 26155 structures, and equipment shall be located from water wells, 26156 streets, roads, highways, rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, other 26157 bodies of water, railroad tracks, public or private recreational 26158 areas, zoning districts, and buildings or other structures. Rules 26159 adopted under division (A)(2) of this section shall not conflict 26160

with section 1509.021 of the Revised Code. 26161

(3) Other methods of operation; 26162

(4) Procedures, methods, and equipment and other requirements 26163 for equipment to prevent and contain discharges of oil and brine 26164 from oil production facilities and oil drilling and workover 26165 facilities consistent with and equivalent in scope, content, and 26166 coverage to section 311(j)(1)(c) of the "Federal Water Pollution 26167 Control Act Amendments of 1972," 86 Stat. 886, 33 U.S.C.A. 1251, 26168 as amended, and regulations adopted under it. In addition, the 26169 rules may specify procedures, methods, and equipment and other 26170 requirements for equipment to prevent and contain surface and 26171 subsurface discharges of fluids, condensates, and gases. 26172

(5) Notifications. 26173

(B) The chief, in consultation with the emergency response 26174 commission created in section 3750.02 of the Revised Code, shall 26175 adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 26176 that specify the information that shall be included in an 26177 electronic database that the chief shall create and host. The 26178 information shall be that which the chief considers to be 26179 appropriate for the purpose of responding to emergency situations 26180 that pose a threat to public health or safety or the environment. 26181
At the minimum, the information shall include that which a person 26182 who is regulated under this chapter is required to submit under 26183 the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 26184 100 Stat. 1728, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations adopted under 26185
it. 26186

In addition, the rules shall specify whether and to what 26187 extent the database and the information that it contains will be 26188 made accessible to the public. The rules shall ensure that the 26189 database will be made available via the internet or a system of 26190 computer disks to the emergency response commission and to every 26191 local emergency planning committee and fire department in this 26192

state. 26193

Sec. 1509.24. (A) The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 26194 and gas resources management, with the approval of the technical 26195 advisory council on oil and gas created in section 1509.38 of the 26196 Revised Code, may adopt, amend, or rescind rules relative to 26197 minimum acreage requirements for drilling units and minimum 26198 distances from which a new well may be drilled or an existing well 26199 deepened, plugged back, or reopened to a source of supply 26200 different from the existing pool from boundaries of tracts, 26201 drilling units, and other wells for the purpose of conserving oil 26202 and gas reserves. The rules relative to minimum acreage 26203 requirements for drilling units shall require a drilling unit to 26204 be compact and composed of contiguous land. 26205

(B) Rules adopted under this section and special orders made 26206 under section 1509.25 of the Revised Code shall apply only to new 26207 wells to be drilled or existing wells to be deepened, plugged 26208 back, or reopened to a source of supply different from the 26209 existing pool for the purpose of extracting oil or gas in their 26210 natural state. 26211

Sec. 1509.25. The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 26212 gas resources management, upon the chief's own motion or upon 26213 application of an owner, may hold a hearing to consider the need 26214 or desirability of adopting a special order for drilling unit 26215 requirements in a particular pool different from those established 26216 under section 1509.24 of the Revised Code. The chief shall notify 26217 every owner of land within the area proposed to be included within 26218 the order, of the date, time, and place of the hearing and the 26219 nature of the order being considered at least thirty days prior to 26220 the date of the hearing. Each application for such an order shall 26221 be accompanied by such information as the chief may request. If 26222 the chief finds that the pool can be defined with reasonable 26223 certainty, that the pool is in the initial state of development, 26224 and that the establishment of such different requirements for 26225 drilling a well on a tract or drilling unit in ~~such~~ the pool is 26226 reasonably necessary to protect correlative rights or to provide 26227 effective development, use, or conservation of oil and gas, the 26228 chief, with the written approval of the technical advisory council 26229 on oil and gas created in section 1509.38 of the Revised Code, 26230 shall make a special order designating the area covered by the 26231 order, and specifying the acreage requirements for drilling a well 26232 on a tract or drilling unit in ~~such~~ the area, which acreage 26233 requirements shall be uniform for the entire pool. The order shall 26234 specify minimum distances from the boundary of the tract or 26235 drilling unit for the drilling of wells and minimum distances from 26236 other wells and allow exceptions for wells drilled or drilling in 26237 a particular pool at the time of the filing of the application. 26238

The chief may exempt the discovery well from minimum acreage and 26239 distance requirements in the order. After the date of the notice 26240 for a hearing called to make ~~such~~ the order, no additional well 26241 shall be commenced in the pool for a period of sixty days or until 26242 an order has been made pursuant to the application, whichever is 26243 earlier. The chief, upon the chief's own motion or upon 26244 application of an owner, after a hearing and with the approval of 26245 the technical advisory council on oil and gas, may include 26246 additional lands determined to be underlaid by a particular pool 26247 or to exclude lands determined not to be underlaid by a particular 26248 pool, and may modify the spacing and acreage requirements of the 26249
order. 26250

Nothing in this section permits the chief to establish 26251 drilling units in a pool by requiring the use of a survey grid 26252 coordinate system with fixed or established unit boundaries. 26253

Sec. 1509.26. The owners of adjoining tracts may agree to 26254 pool ~~such~~ the tracts to form a drilling unit that conforms to the 26255 minimum acreage and distance requirements of the division of 26256 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management under section 1509.24 or 26257
1509.25 of the Revised Code. ~~Such~~ The agreement shall be in 26258 writing, a copy of which shall be submitted to the division with 26259 the application for a permit required by section 1509.05 of the 26260 Revised Code. Parties to the agreement shall designate one of 26261 their number as the applicant for ~~such~~ the permit. 26262

Sec. 1509.27. If a tract of land is of insufficient size or 26263 shape to meet the requirements for drilling a well thereon as 26264 provided in section 1509.24 or 1509.25 of the Revised Code, 26265 whichever is applicable, and the owner of the tract who also is 26266 the owner of the mineral interest has been unable to form a 26267 drilling unit under agreement as provided in section 1509.26 of 26268 the Revised Code, on a just and equitable basis, such an owner may 26269 make application to the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources 26270 management for a mandatory pooling order. 26271

The application shall include information as shall be 26272 reasonably required by the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 26273 and gas resources management and shall be accompanied by an 26274 application for a permit as required by section 1509.05 of the 26275 Revised Code. The chief shall notify all owners of land within the 26276 area proposed to be included within the drilling unit of the 26277 filing of the application and of their right to a hearing. After 26278 the hearing or after the expiration of thirty days from the date 26279 notice of application was mailed to such owners, the chief, if 26280 satisfied that the application is proper in form and that 26281 mandatory pooling is necessary to protect correlative rights and 26282 to provide effective development, use, and conservation of oil and 26283 gas, shall issue a drilling permit and a mandatory pooling order 26284 complying with the requirements for drilling a well as provided in 26285 section 1509.24 or 1509.25 of the Revised Code, whichever is 26286 applicable. The mandatory pooling order shall: 26287

(A) Designate the boundaries of the drilling unit within 26288 which the well shall be drilled; 26289

(B) Designate the proposed production site; 26290

(C) Describe each separately owned tract or part thereof 26291 pooled by the order; 26292

(D) Allocate on a surface acreage basis a pro rata portion of 26293 the production to the owner of each tract pooled by the order. The 26294 pro rata portion shall be in the same proportion that the 26295 percentage of the owner's acreage is to the state minimum acreage 26296 requirements established in rules adopted under this chapter for a 26297 drilling unit unless the applicant demonstrates to the chief using 26298 geological evidence that the geologic structure containing the oil 26299 or gas is larger than the minimum acreage requirement in which 26300 case the pro rata portion shall be in the same proportion that the 26301 percentage of the owner's acreage is to the geologic structure. 26302

(E) Specify the basis upon which each owner of a tract pooled 26303 by the order shall share all reasonable costs and expenses of 26304 drilling and producing if the owner elects to participate in the 26305 drilling and operation of the well; 26306

(F) Designate the person to whom the permit shall be issued. 26307

A person shall not submit more than five applications for 26308 mandatory pooling orders per year under this section unless 26309 otherwise approved by the chief. 26310

No surface operations or disturbances to the surface of the 26311 land shall occur on a tract pooled by an order without the written 26312 consent of or a written agreement with the owner of the tract that 26313 approves the operations or disturbances. 26314

If an owner of a tract pooled by the order does not elect to 26315 participate in the risk and cost of the drilling and operation of 26316 a well, the owner shall be designated as a nonparticipating owner 26317 in the drilling and operation of the well on a limited or carried 26318 basis and is subject to terms and conditions determined by the 26319 chief to be just and reasonable. In addition, if an owner is 26320 designated as a nonparticipating owner, the owner is not liable 26321 for actions or conditions associated with the drilling or 26322 operation of the well. If the applicant bears the costs of 26323 drilling, equipping, and operating a well for the benefit of a 26324 nonparticipating owner, as provided for in the pooling order, then 26325 the applicant shall be entitled to the share of production from 26326 the drilling unit accruing to the interest of that 26327 nonparticipating owner, exclusive of the nonparticipating owner's 26328 proportionate share of the royalty interest until there has been 26329 received the share of costs charged to that nonparticipating owner 26330 plus such additional percentage of the share of costs as the chief 26331 shall determine. The total amount receivable hereunder shall in no 26332 event exceed two hundred per cent of the share of costs charged to 26333 that nonparticipating owner. After receipt of that share of costs 26334 by such an applicant, a nonparticipating owner shall receive a 26335 proportionate share of the working interest in the well in 26336 addition to a proportionate share of the royalty interest, if any. 26337

If there is a dispute as to costs of drilling, equipping, or 26338 operating a well, the chief shall determine those costs. 26339

Sec. 1509.28. (A) The chief of the division of mineral oil 26340
and gas resources management, upon the chief's own motion or upon 26341 application by the owners of sixty-five per cent of the land area 26342 overlying the pool, shall hold a hearing to consider the need for 26343 the operation as a unit of an entire pool or part thereof. An 26344 application by owners shall be accompanied by such information as 26345 the chief may request. 26346

The chief shall make an order providing for the unit 26347 operation of a pool or part thereof if the chief finds that such 26348 operation is reasonably necessary to increase substantially the 26349 ultimate recovery of oil and gas, and the value of the estimated 26350 additional recovery of oil or gas exceeds the estimated additional 26351 cost incident to conducting ~~such~~ the operation. The order shall be 26352 upon terms and conditions that are just and reasonable and shall 26353 prescribe a plan for unit operations that shall include: 26354

(1) A description of the unitized area, termed the unit area; 26355

(2) A statement of the nature of the operations contemplated; 26356

(3) An allocation to the separately owned tracts in the unit 26357 area of all the oil and gas that is produced from the unit area 26358 and is saved, being the production that is not used in the conduct 26359 of operations on the unit area or not unavoidably lost. The 26360 allocation shall be in accord with the agreement, if any, of the 26361 interested parties. If there is no such agreement, the chief shall 26362 determine the value, from the evidence introduced at the hearing, 26363 of each separately owned tract in the unit area, exclusive of 26364 physical equipment, for development of oil and gas by unit 26365 operations, and the production allocated to each tract shall be 26366 the proportion that the value of each tract so determined bears to 26367 the value of all tracts in the unit area. 26368

(4) A provision for the credits and charges to be made in the 26369 adjustment among the owners in the unit area for their respective 26370 investments in wells, tanks, pumps, machinery, materials, and 26371 equipment contributed to the unit operations; 26372

(5) A provision providing how the expenses of unit 26373 operations, including capital investment, shall be determined and 26374 charged to the separately owned tracts and how the expenses shall 26375 be paid; 26376

(6) A provision, if necessary, for carrying or otherwise 26377 financing any person who is unable to meet the person's financial 26378 obligations in connection with the unit, allowing a reasonable 26379 interest charge for such service; 26380

(7) A provision for the supervision and conduct of the unit 26381 operations, in respect to which each person shall have a vote with 26382 a value corresponding to the percentage of the expenses of unit 26383 operations chargeable against the interest of ~~such~~ that person; 26384

(8) The time when the unit operations shall commence, and the 26385 manner in which, and the circumstances under which, the unit 26386 operations shall terminate; 26387

(9) Such additional provisions as are found to be appropriate 26388 for carrying on the unit operations, and for the protection or 26389 adjustment of correlative rights. 26390

(B) No order of the chief providing for unit operations shall 26391 become effective unless and until the plan for unit operations 26392 prescribed by the chief has been approved in writing by those 26393 owners who, under the chief's order, will be required to pay at 26394 least sixty-five per cent of the costs of the unit operation, and 26395 also by the royalty or, with respect to unleased acreage, fee 26396 owners of sixty-five per cent of the acreage to be included in the 26397 unit. If the plan for unit operations has not been so approved by 26398 owners and royalty owners at the time the order providing for unit 26399 operations is made, the chief shall upon application and notice 26400 hold such supplemental hearings as may be required to determine if 26401 and when the plan for unit operations has been so approved. If the 26402 owners and royalty owners, or either, owning the required 26403 percentage of interest in the unit area do not approve the plan 26404 for unit operations within a period of six months from the date on 26405 which the order providing for unit operations is made, ~~such~~ the 26406 order shall cease to be of force and shall be revoked by the 26407 chief. 26408

An order providing for unit operations may be amended by an 26409 order made by the chief, in the same manner and subject to the 26410 same conditions as an original order providing for unit 26411 operations, provided that: 26412

(1) If such an amendment affects only the rights and 26413 interests of the owners, the approval of the amendment by the 26414 royalty owners shall not be required. 26415

(2) No such order of amendment shall change the percentage 26416 for allocation of oil and gas as established for any separately 26417 owned tract by the original order, except with the consent of all 26418 persons owning interest in ~~such~~ the tract. 26419

The chief, by an order, may provide for the unit operation of 26420 a pool or a part thereof that embraces a unit area established by 26421 a previous order of the chief. Such an order, in providing for the 26422 allocation of unit production, shall first treat the unit area 26423 previously established as a single tract, and the portion of the 26424 unit production so allocated thereto shall then be allocated among 26425 the separately owned tracts included in ~~such~~ the previously 26426 established unit area in the same proportions as those specified 26427 in the previous order. 26428

Oil and gas allocated to a separately owned tract shall be 26429 deemed, for all purposes, to have been actually produced from ~~such~~ 26430 the tract, and all operations, including, but not limited to, the 26431 commencement, drilling, operation of, or production from a well 26432 upon any portion of the unit area shall be deemed for all purposes 26433 the conduct of such operations and production from any lease or 26434 contract for lands any portion of which is included in the unit 26435 area. The operations conducted pursuant to the order of the chief 26436 shall constitute a fulfillment of all the express or implied 26437 obligations of each lease or contract covering lands in the unit 26438 area to the extent that compliance with such obligations cannot be 26439 had because of the order of the chief. 26440

Oil and gas allocated to any tract, and the proceeds from the 26441 sale thereof, shall be the property and income of the several 26442 persons to whom, or to whose credit, the same are allocated or 26443 payable under the order providing for unit operations. 26444

No order of the chief or other contract relating to the sale 26445 or purchase of production from a separately owned tract shall be 26446 terminated by the order providing for unit operations, but shall 26447 remain in force and apply to oil and gas allocated to ~~such~~ the 26448 tract until terminated in accordance with the provisions thereof. 26449

Except to the extent that the parties affected so agree, no 26450 order providing for unit operations shall be construed to result 26451 in a transfer of all or any part of the title of any person to the 26452 oil and gas rights in any tract in the unit area. All property, 26453 whether real or personal, that may be acquired for the account of 26454 the owners within the unit area shall be the property of such 26455 owners in the proportion that the expenses of unit operations are 26456 charged. 26457

Sec. 1509.29. Upon application by an owner of a tract for 26458 which a drilling permit may not be issued, and a showing by the 26459 owner that the owner is unable to enter a voluntary pooling 26460 agreement and that the owner would be unable to participate under 26461 a mandatory pooling order, the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management shall issue a permit and order 26462 establishing the tract as an exception tract if the chief finds 26463 that ~~such~~ the owner would otherwise be precluded from producing 26464 oil or gas from the owner's tract because of minimum acreage or 26465 distance requirements. The order shall set a percentage of the 26466 maximum daily potential production at which the well may be 26467 26468

produced. The percentage shall be the same as the percentage that 26469 the number of acres in the tract bears to the number of acres in 26470 the minimum acreage requirement that has been established under 26471 section 1509.24 or 1509.25 of the Revised Code, whichever is 26472 applicable, but if the well drilled on ~~such~~ the tract is located 26473 nearer to the boundary of the tract than the required minimum 26474 distance, the percentage may not exceed the percentage determined 26475 by dividing the distance from the well to the boundary by the 26476 minimum distance requirement. Within ten days after completion of 26477 the well, the maximum daily potential production of the well shall 26478 be determined by such drill stem, open flow, or other tests as may 26479 be required by the chief. The chief shall require such tests, at 26480 least once every three months, as are necessary to determine the 26481 maximum daily potential production at that time. 26482

Sec. 1509.31. (A) Whenever the entire interest of an oil and 26483 gas lease is assigned or otherwise transferred, the assignor or 26484 transferor shall notify the holders of the royalty interests, and, 26485 if a well or wells exist on the lease, the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 26486 and gas resources management, of the name and address of the 26487 assignee or transferee by certified mail, return receipt 26488 requested, not later than thirty days after the date of the 26489 assignment or transfer. When notice of any such assignment or 26490 transfer is required to be provided to the division, it shall be 26491 provided on a form prescribed and provided by the division and 26492 verified by both the assignor or transferor and by the assignee or 26493 transferee and shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of one 26494 hundred dollars for each well. The notice form applicable to 26495 assignments or transfers of a well to the owner of the surface 26496 estate of the tract on which the well is located shall contain a 26497 statement informing the landowner that the well may require 26498 periodic servicing to maintain its productivity; that, upon 26499 assignment or transfer of the well to the landowner, the landowner 26500 becomes responsible for compliance with the requirements of this 26501 chapter and rules adopted under it, including, without limitation, 26502 the proper disposal of brine obtained from the well, the plugging 26503 of the well when it becomes incapable of producing oil or gas, and 26504 the restoration of the well site; and that, upon assignment or 26505 transfer of the well to the landowner, the landowner becomes 26506 responsible for the costs of compliance with the requirements of 26507 this chapter and rules adopted under it and the costs for 26508 operating and servicing the well. 26509

(B) When the entire interest of a well is proposed to be 26510 assigned or otherwise transferred to the landowner for use as an 26511 exempt domestic well, the owner who has been issued a permit under 26512 this chapter for the well shall submit to the chief of the 26513 division of oil and gas resources management an application for 26514 the assignment or transfer that contains all documents that the 26515 chief requires and a nonrefundable fee of one hundred dollars. The 26516 application for such an assignment or transfer shall be prescribed 26517 and provided by the chief. The chief may approve the application 26518 if the application is accompanied by a release of all of the oil 26519 and gas leases that are included in the applicable formation of 26520 the drilling unit, the release is in a form such that the well 26521 ownership merges with the fee simple interest of the surface 26522 tract, and the release is in a form that may be recorded. However, 26523 if the owner of the well does not release the oil and gas leases 26524 associated with the well that is proposed to be assigned or 26525 otherwise transferred or if the fee simple tract that results from 26526 the merger of the well ownership with the fee simple interest of 26527 the surface tract is less than five acres, the proposed exempt 26528 domestic well owner shall post a five thousand dollar bond with 26529 the division ~~of mineral resources management~~ prior to the 26530 assignment or transfer of the well to ensure that the well will be 26531 properly plugged. The chief, for good cause, may modify the 26532 requirements of this section governing the assignment or transfer 26533 of the interests of a well to the landowner. Upon the assignment 26534 or transfer of the well, the owner of an exempt domestic well is 26535 not subject to the severance tax levied under section 5749.02 of 26536 the Revised Code, but is subject to all applicable fees 26537 established in this chapter. 26538

(C) The owner holding a permit under section 1509.05 of the 26539 Revised Code is responsible for all obligations and liabilities 26540 imposed by this chapter and any rules, orders, and terms and 26541 conditions of a permit adopted or issued under it, and no 26542 assignment or transfer by the owner relieves the owner of the 26543 obligations and liabilities until and unless the assignee or 26544 transferee files with the division the information described in 26545 divisions (A)(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (10), (11), and (12) of 26546 section 1509.06 of the Revised Code; obtains liability insurance 26547 coverage required by section 1509.07 of the Revised Code, except 26548 when none is required by that section; and executes and files a 26549 surety bond, negotiable certificates of deposit or irrevocable 26550 letters of credit, or cash, as described in that section. Instead 26551 of a bond, but only upon acceptance by the chief ~~of the division~~ 26552 ~~of mineral resources management~~, the assignee or transferee may 26553 file proof of financial responsibility, described in section 26554 1509.07 of the Revised Code. Section 1509.071 of the Revised Code 26555 applies to the surety bond, cash, and negotiable certificates of 26556 deposit and irrevocable letters of credit described in this 26557 section. Unless the chief approves a modification, each assignee 26558 or transferee shall operate in accordance with the plans and 26559 information filed by the permit holder pursuant to section 1509.06 26560
of the Revised Code. 26561

(D) If a mortgaged property that is being foreclosed is 26562 subject to an oil or gas lease, pipeline agreement, or other 26563 instrument related to the production or sale of oil or natural gas 26564 and the lease, agreement, or other instrument was recorded 26565 subsequent to the mortgage, and if the lease, agreement, or other instrument is not in default, the oil or gas lease, pipeline agreement, or other instrument, as applicable, has priority over all other liens, claims, or encumbrances on the property so that the oil or gas lease, pipeline agreement, or other instrument is not terminated or extinguished upon the foreclosure sale of the mortgaged property. If the owner of the mortgaged property was entitled to oil and gas royalties before the foreclosure sale, the oil or gas royalties shall be paid to the purchaser of the foreclosed property.

Sec. 1509.32. Any person adversely affected may file with the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management a written complaint alleging failure to restore disturbed land surfaces in violation of section 1509.072 or 1509.22 of the Revised Code or a rule adopted thereunder.

Upon receipt of a complaint, the chief shall cause an investigation to be made of the lands where the alleged violation has occurred and send copies of the investigation report to the person who filed the complaint and to the owner. Upon finding a violation the chief shall order the owner to eliminate the violation within a specified time. If the owner fails to eliminate the violation within the time specified, the chief may request the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the violation occurs or the attorney general to bring appropriate action to secure compliance with ~~such~~ those sections. If the chief fails to bring an appropriate action to secure compliance with ~~such~~ those sections within twenty days after the time specified, the person filing the complaint may request the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the violation occurs to bring an appropriate action to secure compliance with ~~such~~ those sections. The division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management may cooperate with any state or local agency to provide technical advice or minimum standards for the restoration of various soils and land surfaces 26598 or to assist in any investigation. 26599

Sec. 1509.33. (A) Whoever violates sections 1509.01 to 26600 1509.31 of the Revised Code, or any rules adopted or orders or 26601 terms or conditions of a permit or registration certificate issued 26602 pursuant to these sections for which no specific penalty is 26603 provided in this section, shall pay a civil penalty of not more 26604 than four thousand dollars for each offense. 26605

(B) Whoever violates section 1509.221 of the Revised Code or 26606 any rules adopted or orders or terms or conditions of a permit 26607 issued thereunder shall pay a civil penalty of not more than two 26608 thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. 26609

(C) Whoever violates division (D) of section 1509.22 or 26610 division (A)(1) of section 1509.222 of the Revised Code shall pay 26611 a civil penalty of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars 26612 nor more than twenty thousand dollars for each violation. 26613

(D) Whoever violates division (A) of section 1509.22 of the 26614 Revised Code shall pay a civil penalty of not less than two 26615 thousand five hundred dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars 26616 for each violation. 26617

(E) Whoever violates division (A) of section 1509.223 of the 26618 Revised Code shall pay a civil penalty of not more than ten 26619 thousand dollars for each violation. 26620

(F) Whoever violates section 1509.072 of the Revised Code or 26621 any rules adopted or orders issued to administer, implement, or 26622 enforce that section shall pay a civil penalty of not more than 26623 five thousand dollars for each violation. 26624

(G) In addition to any other penalties provided in this 26625 chapter, whoever violates division (B) of section 1509.22 or 26626 division (A)(1) of section 1509.222 or knowingly violates division 26627

(A) of section 1509.223 of the Revised Code is liable for any 26628 damage or injury caused by the violation and for the cost of 26629 rectifying the violation and conditions caused by the violation. 26630
If two or more persons knowingly violate one or more of ~~such~~ those 26631 divisions in connection with the same event, activity, or 26632 transaction, they are jointly and severally liable under this 26633
division. 26634

(H) The attorney general, upon the request of the chief of 26635 the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management, shall 26636 commence an action under this section against any person who 26637 violates sections 1509.01 to 1509.31 of the Revised Code, or any 26638 rules adopted or orders or terms or conditions of a permit or 26639 registration certificate issued pursuant to these sections. Any 26640 action under this section is a civil action, governed by the Rules 26641 of Civil Procedure and other rules of practice and procedure 26642 applicable to civil actions. The remedy provided in this division 26643 is cumulative and concurrent with any other remedy provided in 26644 this chapter, and the existence or exercise of one remedy does not 26645 prevent the exercise of any other, except that no person shall be 26646 subject to both a civil penalty under division (A), (B), (C), or 26647 (D) of this section and a criminal penalty under section 1509.99 26648 of the Revised Code for the same offense. 26649

Sec. 1509.34. (A)(1) If an owner fails to pay the fees 26650 imposed by this chapter, or if the chief of the division of 26651 ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management incurs costs under 26652 division (E) of section 1509.071 of the Revised Code to correct 26653 conditions associated with the owner's well that the chief 26654 reasonably has determined are causing imminent health or safety 26655 risks, the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management 26656 shall have a priority lien against that owner's interest in the 26657 applicable well in front of all other creditors for the amount of 26658 any such unpaid fees and costs incurred. The chief shall file a 26659 statement in the office of the county recorder of the county in 26660 which the applicable well is located of the amount of the unpaid 26661 fees and costs incurred as described in this division. The 26662 statement shall constitute a lien on the owner's interest in the 26663 well as of the date of the filing. The lien shall remain in force 26664 so long as any portion of the lien remains unpaid or until the 26665 chief issues a certificate of release of the lien. If the chief 26666 issues a certificate of release of the lien, the chief shall file 26667 the certificate of release in the office of the applicable county 26668 recorder. 26669

(2) A lien imposed under division (A)(1) of this section 26670 shall be in addition to any lien imposed by the attorney general 26671 for failure to pay the assessment imposed by section 1509.50 of 26672 the Revised Code or the tax levied under division (A)(5) or (6) of 26673 section 5749.02 of the Revised Code, as applicable. 26674

(3) If the attorney general cannot collect from a severer or 26675 an owner for an outstanding balance of amounts due under section 26676 1509.50 of the Revised Code or of unpaid taxes levied under 26677 division (A)(5) or (6) of section 5749.02 of the Revised Code, as 26678 applicable, the tax commissioner may request the chief to impose a 26679 priority lien against the owner's interest in the applicable well. 26680
Such a lien has priority in front of all other creditors. 26681

(B) The chief promptly shall issue a certificate of release 26682 of a lien under either of the following circumstances: 26683

(1) Upon the repayment in full of the amount of unpaid fees 26684 imposed by this chapter or costs incurred by the chief under 26685 division (E) of section 1509.071 of the Revised Code to correct 26686
conditions associated with the owner's well that the chief 26687
reasonably has determined are causing imminent health or safety 26688 risks; 26689

(2) Any other circumstance that the chief determines to be in 26690

the best interests of the state. 26691

(C) The chief may modify the amount of a lien under this 26692 section. If the chief modifies a lien, the chief shall file a 26693 statement in the office of the county recorder of the applicable 26694 county of the new amount of the lien. 26695

(D) An owner regarding which the division has recorded a lien 26696 against the owner's interest in a well in accordance with this 26697 section shall not transfer a well, lease, or mineral rights to 26698 another owner or person until the chief issues a certificate of 26699 release for each lien against the owner's interest in the well. 26700

(E) All money from the collection of liens under this section 26701 shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the oil 26702 and gas well fund created in section 1509.02 of the Revised Code. 26703

Sec. 1509.36. Any person adversely affected by an order by 26704
the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources 26705 management may appeal to the oil and gas commission for an order 26706 vacating or modifying the order. 26707

The person so appealing to the commission shall be known as 26708 appellant and the chief shall be known as appellee. Appellant and 26709 appellee shall be deemed to be parties to the appeal. 26710

The appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the order 26711 complained of and the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The 26712 appeal shall be filed with the commission within thirty days after 26713 the date upon which the appellant received notice by certified 26714 mail and, for all other persons adversely affected by the order, 26715 within thirty days after the date of the order complained of. 26716 Notice of the filing of the appeal shall be filed with the chief 26717 within three days after the appeal is filed with the commission. 26718

Upon the filing of the appeal the commission promptly shall 26719 fix the time and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be 26720 held, and shall give the appellant and the chief at least ten 26721 days' written notice thereof by mail. The commission may postpone 26722 or continue any hearing upon its own motion or upon application of 26723 the appellant or of the chief. 26724

The filing of an appeal provided for in this section does not 26725 automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 26726 from, but upon application by the appellant the commission may 26727 suspend or stay the execution pending determination of the appeal 26728 upon such terms as the commission considers proper. 26729

Either party to the appeal or any interested person who, 26730 pursuant to commission rules has been granted permission to 26731 appear, may submit such evidence as the commission considers 26732 admissible. 26733

For the purpose of conducting a hearing on an appeal, the 26734 commission may require the attendance of witnesses and the 26735 production of books, records, and papers, and it may, and at the 26736 request of any party it shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or 26737 subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of any books, 26738 records, or papers, directed to the sheriffs of the counties where 26739 the witnesses are found. The subpoenas shall be served and 26740 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 26741 served and returned. The fees of sheriffs shall be the same as 26742 those allowed by the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 26743 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 26744 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fees and mileage 26745 expenses incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in 26746 advance by the appellant, and the remainder of those expenses 26747 shall be paid out of funds appropriated for the expenses of the 26748
division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management. 26749

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 26750 any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 26751 regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 26752 court of common pleas of the county in which the disobedience, 26753 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 26754 of the commission or any member thereof, shall compel obedience by 26755 attachment proceedings for contempt as in the case of disobedience 26756 of the requirements of a subpoena issued from that court or a 26757 refusal to testify therein. Witnesses at such hearings shall 26758 testify under oath, and any member of the commission may 26759 administer oaths or affirmations to persons who so testify. 26760

At the request of any party to the appeal, a stenographic or 26761 electronic record of the testimony and other evidence submitted 26762 shall be taken by an official court ~~shorthand~~ reporter at the 26763 expense of the party making the request ~~therefor~~ for the record. 26764
The record shall include all of the testimony and other evidence 26765 and the rulings on the admissibility thereof presented at the 26766 hearing. The commission shall pass upon the admissibility of 26767 evidence, but any party may at the time object to the admission of 26768 any evidence and except to the rulings of the commission thereon, 26769 and if the commission refuses to admit evidence the party offering 26770 same may make a proffer thereof, and such proffer shall be made a 26771 part of the record of the hearing. 26772

If upon completion of the hearing the commission finds that 26773 the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, it shall make a 26774 written order affirming the order appealed from; if the commission 26775 finds that the order was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall make a 26776 written order vacating the order appealed from and making the 26777 order that it finds the chief should have made. Every order made 26778 by the commission shall contain a written finding by the 26779 commission of the facts upon which the order is based. 26780

Notice of the making of the order shall be given forthwith to 26781 each party to the appeal by mailing a certified copy thereof to 26782 each such party by certified mail. 26783

The order of the commission is final unless vacated by the 26784 court of common pleas of Franklin county in an appeal as provided 26785 for in section 1509.37 of the Revised Code. Sections 1509.01 to 26786 1509.37 of the Revised Code, providing for appeals relating to 26787 orders by the chief or by the commission, or relating to rules 26788 adopted by the chief, do not constitute the exclusive procedure 26789 that any person who believes the person's rights to be unlawfully 26790 affected by those sections or any official action taken thereunder 26791 must pursue in order to protect and preserve those rights, nor do 26792 those sections constitute a procedure that that person must pursue 26793 before that person may lawfully appeal to the courts to protect 26794 and preserve those rights. 26795

Sec. 1509.38. There is hereby created in the division of 26796 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management a technical advisory 26797 council on oil and gas, which shall consist of eight members to be 26798 appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the 26799 senate. Three members shall be independent oil or gas producers, 26800 operators, or their representatives, operating and producing 26801 primarily in this state, three members shall be oil or gas 26802 producers, operators, or their representatives having substantial 26803 oil and gas producing operations in this state and at least one 26804 other state, one member shall represent the public, and one member 26805 shall represent persons having landowners' royalty interests in 26806 oil and gas production. All members shall be residents of this 26807 state, and all members, except the members representing the public 26808 and persons having landowners' royalty interests, shall have at 26809 least five years of practical or technical experience in oil or 26810 gas drilling and production. Not more than one member may 26811 represent any one company, producer, or operator. 26812

Terms of office shall be for three years, commencing on the 26813 first day of February and ending on the thirty-first day of 26814 January. Each member shall hold office from the date of 26815 appointment until the end of the term for which the member was 26816 appointed. A vacancy in the office of a member shall be filled by 26817 the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate. Any 26818 member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the 26819 expiration of the term for which the member's predecessor was 26820 appointed shall hold office for the remainder of that term. Any 26821 member shall continue in office subsequent to the expiration date 26822

of the member's term until the member's successor takes office, or 26823
until a period of sixty days has elapsed, whichever occurs first. 26824

The council shall select from among its members a 26825 chairperson, a vice-chairperson, and a secretary. All members are 26826 entitled to their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the 26827 performance of their duties as members, payable from the 26828 appropriations for the division. 26829

The governor may remove any member for inefficiency, neglect 26830 of duty, or malfeasance in office. 26831

The council shall hold at least one regular meeting in each 26832 quarter of a calendar year and shall keep a record of its 26833 proceedings. Special meetings may be called by the chairperson and 26834 shall be called by the chairperson upon receipt of a written 26835 request signed by two or more members of the council. A written 26836 notice of the time and place of each meeting shall be sent to each 26837 member of the council. Five members constitute a quorum, and no 26838 action of the council is valid unless five members concur. 26839

The council, when requested by the chief of the division of 26840 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management, shall consult with and 26841 advise the chief and perform other duties that may be lawfully 26842 delegated to it by the chief. The council may participate in 26843 hearings held by the chief under this chapter and has powers of 26844 approval as provided in sections 1509.24 and 1509.25 of the 26845 Revised Code. The council shall conduct the activities required, 26846 and exercise the authority granted, under Chapter 1510. of the 26847

The council, upon receiving a request from the chairperson of the oil and gas commission under division (C) of section 1509.35 of the Revised Code, immediately shall prepare and provide to the chairperson a list of its members who may serve as temporary members of the oil and gas commission as provided in that division.

Sec. 1509.40. Except as provided in section 1509.29 of the Revised Code, no authority granted in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing a limitation on the amount that any well, leasehold, or field is permitted to produce under proration orders of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management.

Sec. 1509.50. (A) An oil and gas regulatory cost recovery assessment is hereby imposed by this section on an owner. An owner shall pay the assessment in the same manner as a severer who is required to file a return under section 5749.06 of the Revised Code. However, an owner may designate a severer who shall pay the owner's assessment on behalf of the owner on the return that the severer is required to file under that section. If a severer so pays an owner's assessment, the severer may recoup from the owner the amount of the assessment. Except for an exempt domestic well, the assessment imposed shall be in addition to the taxes levied on the severance of oil and gas under section 5749.02 of the Revised Code.

(B)(1) Except for an exempt domestic well, the oil and gas regulatory cost recovery assessment shall be calculated on a quarterly basis and shall be one of the following:

(a) If the sum of ten cents per barrel of oil for all of the wells of the owner, one-half of one cent per one thousand cubic feet of natural gas for all of the wells of the owner, and the amount of the severance tax levied on each severer for all of the wells of the owner under divisions (A)(5) and (6) of section 26879 5749.02 of the Revised Code, as applicable, is greater than the 26880 sum of fifteen dollars for each well owned by the owner, the 26881 amount of the assessment is the sum of ten cents per barrel of oil 26882 for all of the wells of the owner and one-half of one cent per one 26883 thousand cubic feet of natural gas for all of the wells of the 26884 owner. 26885

(b) If the sum of ten cents per barrel of oil for all of the 26886 wells of the owner, one-half of one cent per one thousand cubic 26887 feet of natural gas for all of the wells of the owner, and the 26888 amount of the severance tax levied on each severer for all of the 26889 wells of the owner under divisions (A)(5) and (6) of section 26890 5749.02 of the Revised Code, as applicable, is less than the sum 26891 of fifteen dollars for each well owned by the owner, the amount of 26892 the assessment is the sum of fifteen dollars for each well owned 26893 by the owner less the amount of the tax levied on each severer for 26894 all of the wells of the owner under divisions (A)(5) and (6) of 26895
section 5749.02 of the Revised Code, as applicable. 26896

(2) The oil and gas regulatory cost recovery assessment for a 26897 well that becomes an exempt domestic well on and after ~~the~~ 26898 ~~effective date of this section~~ June 30, 2010, shall be sixty 26899 dollars to be paid to the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 26900 resources management on the first day of July of each year. 26901

(C) All money collected pursuant to this section shall be 26902 deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the oil and gas 26903 well fund created in section 1509.02 of the Revised Code. 26904

(D) Except for purposes of revenue distribution as specified 26905 in division (B) of section 5749.02 of the Revised Code, the oil 26906 and gas regulatory cost recovery assessment imposed by this 26907 section shall be treated the same and equivalent for all purposes 26908 as the taxes levied on the severance of oil and gas under that 26909 section. However, the assessment imposed by this section is not a 26910 tax under Chapter 5749. of the Revised Code.	26911

Sec. 1510.01. As used in this chapter:	26912
(A) "First purchaser" means:	26913
(1) With regard to crude oil, the person to whom title first is transferred beyond the gathering tank or tanks, beyond the facility from which the crude oil was first produced, or both;	26914 26915 26916
(2) With regard to natural gas, the person to whom title first is transferred beyond the inlet side of the measurement station from which the natural gas was first produced.	26917 26918 26919
(B) "Independent producer" means a person who complies with both of the following:	26920 26921
(1) Produces oil or natural gas and is not engaged in refining either product;	26922 26923
(2) Derives a majority of income from ownership in properties producing oil or natural gas.	26924 26925
(C) "Qualified independent producer association" means an association that complies with all of the following:	26926 26927
(1) It is in existence on December 18, 1997.	26928
(2) It is organized and operating within this state.	26929
(3) A majority of the members of its governing body are independent producers.	26930 26931
(D) "Technical advisory council" or "council" means the technical advisory council created in the division of mineral oil and gas resources management under section 1509.38 of the Revised Code.	26932 26933 26934 26935
Sec. 1510.08. (A)(1) Except as provided in division (A)(2) of this section, an operating committee may levy assessments on the production of oil and natural gas in this state for the purposes	26936 26937 26938 of a marketing program established under this chapter. 26939

(2) An operating committee shall not levy an assessment that 26940 was not approved by independent producers or that exceeds the 26941 amount authorized under division (B)(1) of section 1510.04 of the 26942 Revised Code. An operating committee shall not levy an assessment 26943 against an independent producer who is not eligible to vote in a 26944 referendum for the marketing program that the operating committee 26945 administers, as determined under division (C) of section 1510.02 26946

(B) The technical advisory council may require a first 26948 purchaser to withhold assessments from any amounts that the first 26949 purchaser owes to independent producers and, notwithstanding 26950 division (A)(2) of this section, to remit them to the chairperson 26951 of the council at the office of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 26952 gas resources management. A first purchaser who pays an assessment 26953 that is levied pursuant to this section for an independent 26954 producer may deduct the amount of the assessment from any moneys 26955 that the first purchaser owes the independent producer. 26956

(C) A marketing program shall require a refund of assessments 26957 collected under this section after receiving an application for a 26958 refund from an independent producer. An application for a refund 26959 shall be made on a form furnished by the council. The operating 26960 committee shall ensure that refund forms are available where 26961 assessments for its program are withheld. 26962

An independent producer who desires a refund shall submit a 26963 request for a refund not later than the thirty-first day of March 26964 of the year in which the request is submitted. The council shall 26965 refund the assessment to the independent producer not later than 26966 the thirtieth day of June of the year in which the request for the 26967 refund is submitted. 26968

(D) An operating committee shall not use moneys from any 26969 assessments that it levies for any political or legislative 26970 purpose or for preferential treatment of one person to the 26971 detriment of another person who is affected by the marketing 26972 program that the operating committee administers. 26973

Sec. 1515.08. The supervisors of a soil and water 26974 conservation district have the following powers in addition to 26975 their other powers: 26976

(A) To conduct surveys, investigations, and research relating 26977 to the character of soil erosion, floodwater and sediment damages, 26978 and the preventive and control measures and works of improvement 26979 for flood prevention and the conservation, development, 26980 utilization, and disposal of water needed within the district, and 26981 to publish the results of those surveys, investigations, or 26982 research, provided that no district shall initiate any research 26983 program except in cooperation or after consultation with the Ohio 26984 agricultural research and development center; 26985

(B) To develop plans for the conservation of soil resources, 26986 for the control and prevention of soil erosion, and for works of 26987 improvement for flood prevention and the conservation, 26988 development, utilization, and disposal of water within the 26989 district, and to publish those plans and information; 26990

(C) To implement, construct, repair, maintain, and operate 26991 preventive and control measures and other works of improvement for 26992 natural resource conservation and development and flood 26993 prevention, and the conservation, development, utilization, and 26994 disposal of water within the district on lands owned or controlled 26995 by this state or any of its agencies and on any other lands within 26996 the district, which works may include any facilities authorized 26997 under state or federal programs, and to acquire, by purchase or 26998 gift, to hold, encumber, or dispose of, and to lease real and 26999 personal property or interests in such property for those 27000

purposes; 27001

(D) To cooperate or enter into agreements with any occupier 27002 of lands within the district in the carrying on of natural 27003 resource conservation operations and works of improvement for 27004 flood prevention and the conservation, development, utilization, 27005 and management of natural resources within the district, subject 27006 to such conditions as the supervisors consider necessary; 27007

(E) To accept donations, gifts, grants, and contributions in 27008 money, service, materials, or otherwise, and to use or expend them 27009 according to their terms; 27010

(F) To adopt, amend, and rescind rules to carry into effect 27011 the purposes and powers of the district; 27012

(G) To sue and plead in the name of the district, and be sued 27013 and impleaded in the name of the district, with respect to its 27014 contracts and, as indicated in section 1515.081 of the Revised 27015 Code, certain torts of its officers, employees, or agents acting 27016 within the scope of their employment or official responsibilities, 27017 or with respect to the enforcement of its obligations and 27018 covenants made under this chapter; 27019

(H) To make and enter into all contracts, leases, and 27020 agreements and execute all instruments necessary or incidental to 27021 the performance of the duties and the execution of the powers of 27022 the district under this chapter, provided that all of the 27023
following apply: 27024

(1) Except as provided in section 307.86 of the Revised Code 27025 regarding expenditures by boards of county commissioners, when the 27026 cost under any such contract, lease, or agreement, other than 27027 compensation for personal services or rental of office space, 27028 involves an expenditure of more than the amount established in 27029 that section regarding expenditures by boards of county 27030 commissioners, the supervisors shall make a written contract with 27031

the lowest and best bidder after advertisement, for not less than 27032
two nor more than four consecutive weeks preceding the day of the 27033 opening of bids, in a newspaper of general circulation within the 27034 district or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code and in 27035 such other publications as the supervisors determine. The notice 27036 shall state the general character of the work and materials to be 27037 furnished, the place where plans and specifications may be 27038 examined, and the time and place of receiving bids. 27039

(2) Each bid for a contract shall contain the full name of 27040 every person interested in it. 27041

(3) Each bid for a contract for the construction, demolition, 27042 alteration, repair, or reconstruction of an improvement shall meet 27043 the requirements of section 153.54 of the Revised Code. 27044

(4) Each bid for a contract, other than a contract for the 27045
construction, demolition, alteration, repair, or reconstruction of 27046 an improvement, at the discretion of the supervisors, may be 27047 accompanied by a bond or certified check on a solvent bank in an 27048 amount not to exceed five per cent of the bid, conditioned that, 27049 if the bid is accepted, a contract shall be entered into. 27050

(5) The supervisors may reject any and all bids. 27051

(I) To make agreements with the department of natural 27052 resources giving it control over lands of the district for the 27053 purpose of construction of improvements by the department under 27054
section 1501.011 of the Revised Code; 27055

(J) To charge, alter, and collect rentals and other charges 27056 for the use or services of any works of the district; 27057

(K) To enter, either in person or by designated 27058 representatives, upon lands, private or public, in the necessary 27059 discharge of their duties; 27060

(L) To enter into agreements or contracts with the department 27061 for the determination, implementation, inspection, and funding of 27062 agricultural pollution abatement and urban sediment pollution 27063 abatement measures whereby landowners, operators, managers, and 27064 developers may meet adopted state standards for a quality 27065 environment, except that failure of a district board of 27066 supervisors to negotiate an agreement or contract with the 27067 department shall authorize the division of soil and water 27068 resources to implement the required program; 27069

(M) To conduct demonstrations and provide information to the 27070 public regarding practices and methods for natural resource 27071 conservation, development, and utilization; 27072

(N) To enter into contracts or agreements with the chief of 27073 the division of soil and water resources to implement and 27074 administer a program for urban sediment pollution abatement and to 27075 receive and expend moneys provided by the chief for that purpose; 27076

(O) To develop operation and management plans, as defined in 27077 section 1511.01 of the Revised Code, as necessary; 27078

(P) To determine whether operation and management plans 27079 developed under division (A) of section 1511.021 of the Revised 27080 Code comply with the standards established under division (E)(1) 27081 of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code and to approve or 27082 disapprove the plans, based on such compliance. If an operation 27083 and management plan is disapproved, the board shall provide a 27084 written explanation to the person who submitted the plan. The 27085 person may appeal the plan disapproval to the chief, who shall 27086 afford the person a hearing. Following the hearing, the chief 27087 shall uphold the plan disapproval or reverse it. If the chief 27088 reverses the plan disapproval, the plan shall be deemed approved 27089 under this division. In the event that any person operating or 27090 owning agricultural land or a concentrated animal feeding 27091 operation in accordance with an approved operation and management 27092 plan who, in good faith, is following that plan, causes 27093 agricultural pollution, the plan shall be revised in a fashion 27094 necessary to mitigate the agricultural pollution, as determined 27095 and approved by the board of supervisors of the soil and water 27096 conservation district. 27097

(Q) With regard to composting conducted in conjunction with 27098 agricultural operations, to do all of the following: 27099

(1) Upon request or upon their own initiative, inspect 27100 composting at any such operation to determine whether the 27101 composting is being conducted in accordance with section 1511.022 27102
of the Revised Code; 27103

(2) If the board determines that composting is not being so 27104 conducted, request the chief to issue an order under division (G) 27105 of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code requiring the person who is 27106 conducting the composting to prepare a composting plan in 27107 accordance with rules adopted under division (E)(8)(c) of that 27108 section and to operate in accordance with that plan or to operate 27109 in accordance with a previously prepared plan, as applicable; 27110

(3) In accordance with rules adopted under division (E)(8)(c) 27111 of section 1511.02 of the Revised Code, review and approve or 27112 disapprove any such composting plan. If a plan is disapproved, the 27113 board shall provide a written explanation to the person who 27114 submitted the plan. 27115

As used in division (Q) of this section, "composting" has the 27116 same meaning as in section 1511.01 of the Revised Code. 27117

(R) With regard to conservation activities that are conducted 27118 in conjunction with agricultural operations, to assist the county 27119 auditor, upon request, in determining whether a conservation 27120 activity is a conservation practice for purposes of Chapter 929. 27121 or sections 5713.30 to 5713.37 and 5715.01 of the Revised Code. 27122

As used in this division, "conservation practice" has the 27123
same meaning as in section 5713.30 of the Revised Code. 27124

(S) To do all acts necessary or proper to carry out the 27125 powers granted in this chapter. 27126

The director of natural resources shall make recommendations 27127 to reduce the adverse environmental effects of each project that a 27128 soil and water conservation district plans to undertake under 27129 division (A), (B), (C), or (D) of this section and that will be 27130 funded in whole or in part by moneys authorized under section 27131 1515.16 of the Revised Code and shall disapprove any such project 27132 that the director finds will adversely affect the environment 27133 without equal or greater benefit to the public. The director's 27134 disapproval or recommendations, upon the request of the district 27135 filed in accordance with rules adopted by the Ohio soil and water 27136 conservation commission, shall be reviewed by the commission, 27137 which may confirm the director's decision, modify it, or add 27138 recommendations to or approve a project the director has 27139 disapproved. 27140

Any instrument by which real property is acquired pursuant to 27141 this section shall identify the agency of the state that has the 27142 use and benefit of the real property as specified in section 27143
5301.012 of the Revised Code. 27144

Sec. 1515.14. Within the limits of funds appropriated to the 27145 department of natural resources and the soil and water 27146 conservation district assistance fund created in this section, 27147 there shall be paid in each calendar year to each local soil and 27148 water conservation district an amount not to exceed one dollar for 27149 each one dollar received in accordance with section 1515.10 of the 27150 Revised Code, received from tax levies in excess of the ten-mill 27151 levy limitation approved for the benefit of local soil and water 27152 conservation districts, or received from an appropriation by a 27153 municipal corporation or a township to a maximum of eight thousand 27154 dollars, provided that the Ohio soil and water conservation 27155 commission may approve payment to a district in an amount in 27156 excess of eight thousand dollars in any calendar year upon receipt 27157 of a request and justification from the district. The county 27158 auditor shall credit such payments to the special fund established 27159 pursuant to section 1515.10 of the Revised Code for the local soil 27160 and water conservation district. The department may make advances 27161 at least quarterly to each district on the basis of the estimated 27162 contribution of the state to each district. Moneys received by 27163 each district shall be expended for the purposes of the district. 27164

For the purpose of providing money to soil and water 27165 conservation districts under this section, there is hereby created 27166 in the state treasury the soil and water conservation district 27167 assistance fund consisting of money credited to it under sections 27168 3714.073 and 3734.901 and division (A)~~(5)~~(4) of section 3734.57 of 27169
the Revised Code. 27170

Sec. 1515.24. (A) Following receipt of a certification made 27171 by the supervisors of a soil and water conservation district 27172 pursuant to section 1515.19 of the Revised Code together with 27173 receipt of all plans, specifications, and estimates submitted 27174 under that section and upon completion of a schedule of estimated 27175 assessments in accordance with section 1515.211 of the Revised 27176 Code, the board of county commissioners may adopt a resolution 27177 levying upon the property within the project area an assessment at 27178 a uniform or varied rate based upon the benefit to the area 27179 certified by the supervisors, as necessary to pay the cost of 27180 construction of the improvement not otherwise funded and to repay 27181 advances made for purposes of the improvement from the fund 27182 created by section 1515.15 of the Revised Code. The board of 27183 county commissioners shall direct the person or authority 27184 preparing assessments to give primary consideration, in 27185 determining a parcel's estimated assessments relating to the 27186 disposal of water, to the potential increase in productivity that 27187

the parcel may experience as a result of the improvement and also 27188 to give consideration to the amount of water disposed of, the 27189 location of the property relative to the project, the value of the 27190 project to the watershed, and benefits. The part of the assessment 27191 that is found to benefit state, county, or township roads or 27192 highways or municipal streets shall be assessed against the state, 27193 county, township, or municipal corporation, respectively, payable 27194 from motor vehicle revenues. The part of the assessment that is 27195 found to benefit property owned by any public corporation, any 27196 political subdivision of the state, or the state shall be assessed 27197 against the public corporation, the political subdivision, or the 27198 state and shall be paid out of the general funds or motor vehicle 27199 revenues of the public corporation, the political subdivision of 27200 the state, or the state, except as otherwise provided by law. 27201

(B) The assessment shall be certified to the county auditor 27202 and by the county auditor to the county treasurer. The collection 27203 of the assessment shall conform in all matters to Chapter 323. of 27204
the Revised Code. 27205

(C) Any land owned and managed by the department of natural 27206 resources for wildlife, recreation, nature preserve, or forestry 27207 purposes is exempt from assessments if the director of natural 27208 resources determines that the land derives no benefit from the 27209 improvement. In making such a determination, the director shall 27210 consider the purposes for which the land is owned and managed and 27211 any relevant articles of dedication or existing management plans 27212 for the land. If the director determines that the land derives no 27213 benefit from the improvement, the director shall notify the board 27214 of county commissioners, within thirty days after receiving the 27215 assessment notification required by this section, indicating that 27216 the director has determined that the land is to be exempt and 27217 explaining the specific reason for making this determination. The 27218 board of county commissioners, within thirty days after receiving 27219 the director's exemption notification, may appeal the 27220 determination to the court of common pleas. If the court of common 27221 pleas finds in favor of the board of county commissioners, the 27222 department of natural resources shall pay all court costs and 27223 legal fees. 27224

(D)(1) The board shall give notice by first class mail to 27225 every public and private property owner whose property is subject 27226 to assessment, at the tax mailing or other known address of the 27227 owner. The notice shall contain a statement of the amount to be 27228 assessed against the property of the addressee, a description of 27229 the method used to determine the necessity for and the amount of 27230 the proposed assessment, a description of any easement on the 27231 property that is necessary for purposes of the improvement, and a 27232 statement that the addressee may file an objection in writing at 27233 the office of the board of county commissioners within thirty days 27234 after the mailing of notice. If the residence of any owner cannot 27235 be ascertained, or if any mailed notice is returned undelivered, 27236 the board shall publish the notice to all such owners in a 27237 newspaper of general circulation within the project area, ~~at least~~ 27238 once each week for three weeks, which or as provided in section 27239 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall include the information 27240 contained in the mailed notice, but shall state that the owner may 27241 file an objection in writing at the office of the board of county 27242 commissioners within thirty days after the last publication of the 27243 notice. 27244

(2) Upon receipt of objections as provided in this section, 27245 the board shall proceed within thirty days to hold a final hearing 27246 on the objections by fixing a date and giving notice by first 27247 class mail to the objectors at the address provided in filing the 27248 objection. If any mailed notice is returned undelivered, the board 27249 shall give due notice to the objectors in a newspaper of general 27250 circulation in the project area or as provided in section 7.16 of 27251 the Revised Code, stating the time, place, and purpose of the 27252 hearing. Upon hearing the objectors, the board may adopt a 27253 resolution amending and approving the final schedule of 27254 assessments and shall enter it in the journal. 27255

(3) Any owner whose objection is not allowed may appeal 27256 within thirty days to the court of common pleas of the county in 27257 which the property is located. 27258

(4) The board of county commissioners shall make an order 27259 approving the levying of the assessment and shall proceed under 27260 section 6131.23 of the Revised Code after one of the following has 27261 occurred, as applicable: 27262

(a) Final notice is provided by mail or publication. 27263

(b) The imposition of assessments is upheld in the final 27264 disposition of an appeal that is filed pursuant to division (D)(3) 27265
of this section. 27266

(c) The resolution levying the assessments is approved in a 27267 referendum that is held pursuant to section 305.31 of the Revised 27268
Code. 27269

(5) The county treasurer shall deposit the proceeds of the 27270 assessment in the fund designated by the board and shall report to 27271 the county auditor the amount of money from the assessment that is 27272 collected by the treasurer. Moneys shall be expended from the fund 27273 for purposes of the improvement. 27274

(E) Any moneys collected in excess of the amount needed for 27275 construction of the improvement and the subsequent first year's 27276 maintenance may be maintained in a fund to be used for maintenance 27277 of the improvement. In any year subsequent to a year in which an 27278 assessment for construction of an improvement levied under this 27279 section has been collected, and upon determination by the board of 27280 county commissioners that funds are not otherwise available for 27281 maintenance or repair of the improvement, the board shall levy on 27282 the property within the project area an assessment for maintenance 27283 at a uniform percentage of all construction costs based upon the 27284 assessment schedule used in determining the construction 27285 assessment. The assessment is not subject to the provisions 27286 concerning notice and petition contained in this section. An 27287 assessment for maintenance shall not be levied in any year in 27288 which the unencumbered balance of funds available for maintenance 27289 of the improvement exceeds twenty per cent of the cost of 27290 construction of the improvement, except that the board may adjust 27291 the level of assessment within the twenty per cent limitation, or 27292 suspend temporarily the levying of an assessment, for maintenance 27293 purposes as maintenance funds are needed. 27294

For the purpose of levying an assessment for maintenance of 27295 an improvement, a board may use the procedures established in 27296 Chapter 6137. of the Revised Code regarding maintenance of 27297 improvements as defined in section 6131.01 of the Revised Code in 27298 lieu of using the procedures established under this section. 27299

(F) The board of county commissioners may issue bonds and 27300 notes as authorized by section 131.23 or 133.17 of the Revised 27301
Code. 27302

Sec. 1517.02. There is hereby created in the department of 27303 natural resources the division of natural areas and preserves, 27304 which shall be administered by the chief of the division of 27305 natural areas and preserves. The chief shall take an oath of 27306 office and shall file in the office of the secretary of state a 27307 bond signed by the chief and by a surety approved by the governor 27308 for a sum fixed pursuant to section 121.11 of the Revised Code. 27309

The chief shall administer a system of nature preserves. The 27310 chief shall establish a system of nature preserves through 27311 acquisition and dedication of natural areas of state or national 27312 significance, which shall include, but not be limited to, areas 27313 that represent characteristic examples of Ohio's natural landscape 27314 types and its natural vegetation and geological history. The chief 27315 shall encourage landowners to dedicate areas of unusual 27316 significance as nature preserves, and shall establish and maintain 27317 a registry of natural areas of unusual significance. 27318

The chief may participate in watershed planning activities 27319 with other states or federal agencies. 27320

The chief shall do the following: 27321

(A) Formulate policies and plans for the acquisition, use, 27322 management, and protection of nature preserves; 27323

(B) Formulate policies for the selection of areas suitable 27324 for registration; 27325

(C) Formulate policies for the dedication of areas as nature 27326
preserves; 27327

(D) Prepare and maintain surveys and inventories of natural 27328 areas, rare and endangered species of plants and animals, and 27329 other unique natural features. The information shall be ~~stored~~ 27330 entered in the Ohio natural heritage database, established 27331 ~~pursuant to this division, and may be made available to any~~ 27332 ~~individual or private or public agency for research, educational,~~ 27333 ~~environmental, land management, or other similar purposes that are~~ 27334
~~not detrimental to the conservation of a species or feature.~~ 27335
~~Information regarding sensitive site locations of species that are~~ 27336 ~~listed pursuant to section 1518.01 of the Revised Code and of~~ 27337
~~unique natural features that are included in the Ohio natural~~ 27338
~~heritage database is not subject to section 149.43 of the Revised~~ 27339
~~Code if the chief determines that the release of the information~~ 27340
~~could be detrimental to the conservation of a species or unique~~ 27341 ~~natural feature under section 1531.04 of the Revised Code.~~ 27342

(E) Adopt rules for the use, visitation, and protection of 27343 nature preserves and natural areas owned or managed through 27344 easement, license, or lease by the department and administered by	27345

the division in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code;	27346
(F) Provide facilities and improvements within the state	27347 system of nature preserves that are necessary for their	27348 visitation, use, restoration, and protection and do not impair	27349 their natural character;	27350
(G) Provide interpretive programs and publish and disseminate	27351 information pertaining to nature preserves and natural areas for	27352 their visitation and use;	27353
(H) Conduct and grant permits to qualified persons for the	27354 conduct of scientific research and investigations within nature	27355
preserves;	27356
(I) Establish an appropriate system for marking nature	27357
preserves;	27358
(J) Publish and submit to the governor and the general	27359 assembly a biennial report of the status and condition of each	27360 nature preserve, activities conducted within each preserve, and	27361
plans and recommendations for natural area preservation.	27362
Sec. 1531.04. The division of wildlife, at the direction of	27363
the chief of the division, shall do all of the following:	27364
(A) Plan, develop, and institute programs and policies based	27365 on the best available information, including biological	27366 information derived from professionally accepted practices in	27367 wildlife and fisheries management, with the approval of the	27368 director of natural resources;	27369
(B) Have and take the general care, protection, and	27370 supervision of the wildlife in the state parks known as Lake St.	27371
Marys, The Portage Lakes, Lake Loramie, Indian Lake, Buckeye Lake,	27372
Guilford Lake, such part of Pymatuning reservoir as lies in this	27373
state, and all other state parks and lands owned by the state or	27374 in which it is interested or may acquire or become interested, 27375 except lands and lakes the care and supervision of which are 27376 vested in some other officer, body, board, association, or 27377 organization; 27378

(C) Enforce by proper legal action or proceeding the laws of 27379 the state and division rules for the protection, preservation, 27380 propagation, and management of wild animals and sanctuaries and 27381 refuges for the propagation of those wild animals, and adopt and 27382 carry into effect such measures as it considers necessary in the 27383 performance of its duties; 27384

(D) Promote, educate, and inform the citizens of the state 27385 about conservation and the values of fishing, hunting, and 27386 trapping, with the approval of the director; 27387

(E) Prepare and maintain surveys and inventories of rare and 27388 endangered species of plants and animals and other unique natural 27389 features. The information shall be stored in the Ohio natural 27390 heritage database, established pursuant to this division, and may 27391 be made available to any individual or private or public agency 27392 for research, educational, environmental, land management, or 27393 other similar purposes that are not detrimental to the 27394 conservation of a species or feature. Information regarding 27395 sensitive site locations of species that are listed pursuant to 27396 section 1518.01 of the Revised Code and of unique natural features 27397 that are included in the Ohio natural heritage database is not 27398 subject to section 149.43 of the Revised Code if the chief 27399 determines that the release of the information could be 27400 detrimental to the conservation of a species or unique natural 27401 feature. 27402

Sec. 1541.03. All lands and waters dedicated and set apart 27403 for state park purposes shall be under the control and management 27404 of the division of parks and recreation, which shall protect, 27405 maintain, and keep them in repair. The division shall have the	27406 following powers over all such lands and waters:	27407

(A) To make alterations and improvements;	27408
(B) To construct and maintain dikes, wharves, landings,	27409 docks, dams, and other works;	27410
(C) To construct and maintain roads and drives in, around,	27411 upon, and to the lands and waters to make them conveniently	27412 accessible and useful to the public;	27413
(D) Except as otherwise provided in this section, to adopt,	27414
amend, and rescind, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised	27415
Code, rules necessary for the proper management of state parks,	27416 bodies of water, and the lands adjacent to them under its	27417 jurisdiction and control, including the following:	27418
(1) Governing opening and closing times and dates of the	27419
parks;	27420
(2) Establishing fees and charges for use of facilities in	27421
state parks;	27422
(3) Governing camps, camping, and fees for camps and camping;	27423
(4) Governing the application for and rental of, rental fees	27424 for, and the use of cottages;	27425
(5) Relating to public use of state park lands, and governing	27426
the operation of motor vehicles, including speeds, and parking on	27427
those lands;	27428
(6) Governing all advertising within state parks and the	27429 requirements for the operation of places selling tangible personal	27430 property and control of food service sales on lands and waters	27431 under the control of the division, which rules shall establish	27432 uniform requirements;	27433
(7) Providing uniform standards relating to the size, type,	27434
location, construction, and maintenance of structures and devices	27435 used for fishing or moorage of watercraft, rowboats, sailboats, 27436 and powercraft, as those terms are defined in section 1547.01 of 27437 the Revised Code, over waters under the control of the division 27438 and establishing reasonable fees for the construction of and 27439 annual use permits for those structures and devices; 27440

(8) Governing state beaches, swimming, inflatable devices, 27441 and fees for them; 27442

(9) Governing the removal and disposition of any watercraft, 27443 rowboat, sailboat, or powercraft, as those terms are defined in 27444 section 1547.01 of the Revised Code, left unattended for more than 27445 seven days on any lands or waters under the control of the 27446
division; 27447

(10) Governing the establishment and collection of check 27448 collection charges for checks that are returned to the division or 27449 dishonored for any reason. 27450

(E) To coordinate and plan trails in accordance with section 27451
1519.03 of the Revised Code; 27452

(F) To cooperate with the United States and agencies of it 27453 and with political subdivisions in administering federal 27454 recreation moneys under the "Land and Water Conservation Fund Act 27455 of 1965," 78 Stat. 897, 16 U.S.C. 4601-8, as amended; prepare and 27456 distribute the statewide comprehensive outdoor recreation plan; 27457 and administer the state recreational vehicle fund created in 27458
section 4519.11 of the Revised Code; 27459

(G) To administer any state or federally funded grant program 27460 that is related to natural resources and recreation as considered 27461 necessary by the director of natural resources; 27462

(H) To assist the department of natural resources and its 27463 divisions by providing department-wide planning, capital 27464 improvements planning, and special purpose planning. 27465

With the approval of the director, the chief of the division 27466 of parks and recreation may enter into contracts or agreements 27467 with any agency of the United States government, any other public 27468 agency, or any private entity or organization for the performance 27469 of the duties of the division. 27470

The chief may sell, lease, or transfer minerals or mineral 27471 rights, with the approval of the director of natural resources, 27472 when the chief and the director determine it to be in the best 27473 interest of the state. Upon approval of the director, the chief 27474 may make, execute, and deliver contracts, including leases, to 27475 drill for oil and natural gas on and under lands owned by the 27476 state and administered by the division to any person who complies 27477 with the terms of such a contract. No such contract shall be valid 27478 for more than fifty years from its effective date. Consideration 27479 for minerals and mineral rights shall be by rental or royalty 27480 basis as prescribed by the chief and payable as prescribed by 27481 contract. Money collected from rentals shall be paid into the 27482 state treasury to the credit of the state park fund created in 27483 section 1541.22 of the Revised Code. Money collected from 27484 royalties shall be paid into the parks mineral royalties trust 27485 fund created in section 1541.25 of the Revised Code. 27486

The division shall adopt rules under this section 27487 establishing a discount program for all persons who are issued a 27488 golden buckeye card under section 173.06 of the Revised Code. The 27489 discount program shall provide a discount for all park services 27490 and rentals, but shall not provide a discount for the purchase of 27491 merchandise. 27492

The division shall not adopt rules establishing fees or 27493 charges for parking a motor vehicle in a state park or for 27494 admission to a state park. 27495

Every resident of this state with a disability that has been 27496 determined by the veterans administration to be permanently and 27497 totally disabling, who receives a pension or compensation from the 27498 veterans administration, and who received an honorable discharge 27499 from the armed forces of the United States, and every veteran to 27500 whom the registrar of motor vehicles has issued a set of license 27501 plates under section 4503.41 of the Revised Code, shall be exempt 27502 from the fees for camping, provided that the resident or veteran 27503 carries in the state park such evidence of the resident's or 27504 veteran's disability as the chief prescribes by rule. 27505

Unless otherwise provided by division rule, every resident of 27506 this state who is sixty-five years of age or older or who is 27507 permanently and totally disabled and who furnishes evidence of 27508 that age or disability in a manner prescribed by division rule 27509 shall be charged one-half of the regular fee for camping, except 27510 on the weekends and holidays designated by the division, and shall 27511 not be charged more than ninety per cent of the regular charges 27512 for state recreational facilities, equipment, services, and food 27513 service operations utilized by the person at any time of year, 27514 whether maintained or operated by the state or leased for 27515 operation by another entity. 27516

As used in this section, "food service operations" means 27517 restaurants that are owned by the department of natural resources 27518 at Hocking Hills, Lake Hope, Malabar Farm, and Rocky Fork state 27519 parks or are part of a state park lodge. "Food service operations" 27520 does not include automatic vending machines, concession stands, or 27521 snack bars. 27522

As used in this section, "prisoner of war" means any 27523 regularly appointed, enrolled, enlisted, or inducted member of the 27524 military forces of the United States who was captured, separated, 27525 and incarcerated by an enemy of the United States. Any person who 27526 has been a prisoner of war, was honorably discharged from the 27527 military forces, and is a resident of this state is exempt from 27528 the fees for camping. To claim this exemption, the person shall 27529 present written evidence in the form of a record of separation, a 27530 letter from one of the military forces of the United States, or 27531 such other evidence as the chief prescribes by rule that satisfies 27532 the eligibility criteria established by this section. 27533

Sec. 1541.05. (A) The chief of the division of parks and 27534 recreation, with the approval of the director of natural 27535 resources, may dispose of any of the following by sale, donation, 27536 trade, trade-in, recycling, or any other lawful means, in a manner 27537 that will benefit the division: 27538

(1) Standing timber that as a result of wind, storm, 27539 pestilence, or any other natural occurrence may present a hazard 27540 to life or property, timber that has weakened or fallen on lands 27541 under the control and management of the division, or any timber or 27542 other forest products that ~~requires~~ require management to improve 27543 wildlife habitat, protect against wildfires, provide access to 27544 recreational facilities, implement sustainable forestry practices, 27545 or improve the safety, quality, or appearance of any state park 27546 area; 27547

(2) Spoils of a dredging operation conducted by the division 27548 in waters under the control and management of the division. Prior 27549 to the disposition of any spoils under this division, the chief 27550 shall notify the director of environmental protection of the 27551 chief's intent so that the director may determine if the spoils 27552 constitute solid wastes or hazardous waste, as those terms are 27553 defined in section 3734.01 of the Revised Code, that must be 27554 disposed of in accordance with Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code. 27555
If the director does not notify the chief within thirty days after 27556 receiving notice of the disposition that the spoils must be 27557 disposed of in accordance with Chapter 3734. of the Revised Code, 27558
the chief may proceed with the disposition. 27559

(3) Notwithstanding sections 125.12 to 125.14 of the Revised 27560

Code, excess supplies and surplus supplies, as those terms are 27561
defined in section 125.12 of the Revised Code; 27562

(4) Agricultural products that are grown or raised by the 27563 division. As used in this division, "agricultural products" 27564 includes products of apiculture, animal husbandry, or poultry 27565 husbandry, field crops, fruits, and vegetables. 27566

(5) Abandoned personal property, including golf balls that 27567 are found on property under the control and management of the 27568
division. 27569

(B) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 27570 chief shall adopt, and may amend and rescind, such rules as are 27571 necessary to administer this section. 27572

(C) Proceeds Except as provided in division (D) of this 27573 section, proceeds from the disposition of items under this section 27574 shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the 27575 state park fund created in section 1541.22 of the Revised Code. 27576

(D) The chief of the division of parks and recreation may 27577 enter into a memorandum of understanding with the chief of the 27578 division of forestry to allow the division of forestry to 27579 administer the sale of timber and forest products on lands that 27580 are owned or controlled by the division of parks and recreation. 27581 Proceeds from the sale of timber or forest products pursuant to 27582 the memorandum of understanding shall be apportioned as follows: 27583

(1) Seventy-five per cent of the proceeds shall be deposited 27584 in the state treasury to the credit of the state park fund. 27585

(2) Twenty-five per cent of the proceeds shall be deposited 27586 in the state treasury to the credit of the state forest fund 27587 created in section 1503.05 of the Revised Code. 27588

Sec. 1541.25. There is hereby created the parks mineral 27589 royalties trust fund, which shall be in the custody of the 27590 treasurer of state and shall not be a part of the state treasury. 27591

The fund shall consist of royalties paid to the division of parks 27592 and recreation pursuant to the sale, lease, or transfer of 27593 minerals or mineral rights as provided in section 1541.03 of the 27594 Revised Code. Money in the fund shall be used by the division to 27595 facilitate capital improvements, maintenance, repairs, and 27596 renovations on properties that are owned by the state and 27597 administered by the division. 27598

Investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the 27599 parks mineral royalties fund created in section 1541.26 of the 27600 Revised Code. Quarterly each fiscal year, the investment earnings 27601 of the parks mineral royalties trust fund shall be transferred to 27602 the parks mineral royalties fund. 27603

Upon the request of the director of natural resources, the 27604 director of budget and management annually may transfer an amount 27605 not to exceed ten per cent of the principal of the parks mineral 27606 royalties trust fund to the parks mineral royalties fund. 27607

Sec. 1541.26. There is hereby created in the state treasury 27608 the parks mineral royalties fund. The fund shall consist of all 27609 investment earnings of the parks mineral royalties trust fund 27610 created in section 1541.25 of the Revised Code and any principal 27611 transferred from the trust fund as authorized by that section. 27612

Money in the parks mineral royalties fund shall be used by 27613 the division of parks and recreation to facilitate capital 27614 improvements, maintenance, repairs, and renovations on properties 27615 that are owned by the state and administered by the division. All 27616 expenditures from the fund shall be approved by the director of 27617 natural resources. 27618

Sec. 1545.09. (A) The board of park commissioners shall adopt 27619 such bylaws and rules as the board considers advisable for the 27620 preservation of good order within and adjacent to parks and 27621 reservations of land, and for the protection and preservation of 27622 the parks, parkways, and other reservations of land under its 27623 jurisdiction and control and of property and natural life therein. 27624

The board shall also adopt bylaws or rules establishing a 27625 procedure for contracting for professional, technical, consulting, 27626 and other special services. Any competitive bidding procedures of 27627 the board do not apply to the purchase of benefits for park 27628 district officers or employees when such benefits are provided 27629 through a health and welfare trust fund administered through or in 27630 conjunction with a collective bargaining representative of the 27631 park district employees, as authorized in section 1545.071 of the 27632 Revised Code. The Summaries of the bylaws and rules shall be 27633 published as provided in the case of ordinances of municipal 27634 corporations under section 731.21 of the Revised Code before 27635 taking effect. 27636

(B)(1) As used in division (B)(2) of this section, "similar 27637 violation under state law" means a violation of any section of the 27638 Revised Code, other than division (C) of this section, that is 27639 similar to a violation of a bylaw or rule adopted under division 27640
(A) of this section. 27641

(2) The board of park commissioners may adopt by bylaw a 27642 penalty for a violation of any bylaw or rule adopted under 27643 division (A) of this section, and any penalty so adopted shall not 27644 exceed in severity whichever of the following is applicable: 27645

(a) The penalty designated under the Revised Code for a 27646 violation of the state law that is similar to the bylaw or rule 27647 for which the board adopted the penalty; 27648

(b) For a violation of a bylaw or rule adopted under division 27649
(A) of this section for which the similar violation under state 27650 law does not bear a penalty or for which there is no similar 27651 violation under state law, a fine of not more than one hundred 27652 fifty dollars for a first offense and not more than one thousand 27653 dollars for each subsequent offense. 27654

(3) ~~Any~~ A summary of any bylaw adopted under division (B)(2) 27655 of this section shall be published as provided in the case of 27656 ordinances of municipal corporations under section 731.21 of the 27657 Revised Code before taking effect. 27658

(C) No person shall violate any bylaws or rules adopted under 27659 division (A) of this section. All fines collected for any 27660 violation of this section shall be paid into the treasury of such 27661 park board. 27662

Sec. 1545.12. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this 27663 section, if the board of park commissioners finds that any lands 27664 that it has acquired are not necessary for the purposes for which 27665 they were acquired by the board, it may sell and dispose of the 27666 lands upon terms the board considers advisable. The board also may 27667 lease or permit the use of any lands for purposes not inconsistent 27668 with the purposes for which the lands were acquired, and upon 27669 terms the board considers advisable. No lands shall be sold 27670 pursuant to this division without first giving notice of the 27671 board's intention to sell the lands by publication once a week for 27672 four consecutive weeks in ~~not less than two English newspapers a~~ 27673 newspaper of general circulation in the district or as provided in 27674 section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall contain an 27675 accurate description of the lands and shall state the time and 27676 place at which sealed bids will be received for the purchase of 27677 the lands, and the lands shall not thereafter be sold at private 27678 sale for less than the best and highest bid received without 27679 giving further notice as specified in this division. 27680

(B)(1) After compliance with division (B)(2) of this section, 27681 the board of park commissioners may sell land upon terms the board 27682 considers advisable to any park district established under section 27683

511.18 or Chapter 1545. of the Revised Code, any political 27684 subdivision of the state, the state or any department or agency of 27685 the state, or any department or agency of the federal government 27686 for conservation uses or for park or recreation purposes without 27687 the necessity of having to comply with division (A) of this 27688
section. 27689

(2) Before the board of park commissioners may sell land 27690 under division (B)(1) of this section, the board shall offer the 27691 land for sale to each of the following public agencies that is 27692 authorized to acquire, develop, and maintain land for conservation 27693 uses or for park or recreation purposes: each park district 27694 established under section 511.18 or Chapter 1545. of the Revised 27695 Code or political subdivision in which the land is located, each 27696 park district that is so established and that adjoins or each 27697 political subdivision that adjoins a park district so established 27698 or political subdivision in which the land is located, and each 27699 agency or department of the state or of the federal government 27700 that operates parks or conservation or recreation areas near the 27701 land. The board shall make the offer by giving a written notice 27702 that the land is available for sale, by first class mail, to these 27703 public agencies. A failure of delivery of the written notice to 27704 any of these public agencies does not invalidate any proceedings 27705 for the sale of land under this division. Any public agency that 27706 is so notified and that wishes to purchase the land shall make an 27707 offer to the board in writing not later than sixty days after 27708 receiving the written notice. 27709

If there is only one offer to purchase the land made in that 27710 sixty-day period, the board need not hold a public hearing on the 27711 offer. The board shall accept the offer only if it determines that 27712 acceptance of the offer will result in the best public use of the 27713
land. 27714

If there is more than one offer to purchase the land made in 27715 that sixty-day period, the board shall not accept any offer until 27716 the board holds a public hearing on the offers. If, after the 27717 hearing, the board decides to accept an offer, it shall accept the 27718 offer that it determines will result in the best public use of the 27719

land. 27720

(C) No lands shall be sold under this section at either 27721 public or private sale without the approval of the probate court 27722 of the county in which the lands are situated. 27723

Sec. 1547.302. (A) Unclaimed vessels or outboard motors 27724 ordered into storage under division (B) of section 1547.30 or 27725 section 1547.301 of the Revised Code shall be disposed of at the 27726 order of the sheriff of the county, the chief of police of the 27727 municipal corporation, township, or township police district, or 27728 another chief of a law enforcement agency in any of the following 27729 ways: 27730

(1) To a marine salvage dealer; 27731

(2) To any other facility owned, operated, or under contract 27732 with the state or the county, municipal corporation, township, or 27733 other political subdivision; 27734

(3) To a charitable organization, religious organization, or 27735 similar organization not used and operated for profit; 27736

(4) By sale at public auction by the sheriff, the chief, or 27737 an auctioneer licensed under Chapter 4707. of the Revised Code, 27738 after giving notice of the auction by advertisement, published 27739 once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 27740 circulation in the county or as provided in section 7.16 of the 27741
Revised Code. 27742

(B) Any moneys accruing from the disposition of an unclaimed 27743 vessel or motor that are in excess of the expenses resulting from 27744 the removal and storage of the vessel or motor shall be credited 27745 to the general revenue fund or to the general fund of the county, 27746 municipal corporation, township, or other political subdivision, 27747 as appropriate. 27748

(C) As used in this section, "charitable organization" has 27749 the same meaning as in section 1716.01 of the Revised Code. 27750

Sec. 1551.311. The general assembly hereby finds and declares 27751 that the future of the Ohio coal industry lies in the development 27752 of clean coal technology and that the disproportionate economic 27753 impact on the state under Title IV of the "Clean Air Act 27754 Amendments of 1990," 104 Stat. 2584, 42 U.S.C.A. 7651, warrants 27755 maximum federal assistance to this state for such development. It 27756 is therefore imperative that the ~~Ohio air quality department of~~ 27757 ~~development authority created under Chapter 3706. of the Revised~~ 27758 ~~Code~~, its Ohio coal development office, the Ohio coal industry, 27759 the Ohio Washington office in the office of the governor, and the 27760 state's congressional delegation make every effort to acquire any 27761 federal assistance available for the development of clean coal 27762 technology, including assisting entities eligible for grants in 27763 their acquisition. The Ohio coal development agenda required by 27764 section 1551.34 of the Revised Code shall include, in addition to 27765 the other information required by that section, a description of 27766 such efforts and a description of the current status of the 27767 development of clean coal technology in this state and elsewhere. 27768

Sec. 1551.32. (A) There is hereby established within the ~~Ohio~~ 27769 ~~air quality department of development authority~~ the Ohio coal 27770 development office whose purposes are to do all of the following: 27771

(1) Encourage, promote, and support siting, financing, 27772 construction, and operation of commercially available or scaled 27773 facilities and technologies, including, without limitation, 27774 commercial-scale demonstration facilities and, when necessary or 27775 appropriate to demonstrate the commercial acceptability of a 27776 specific technology, up to three installations within this state 27777 utilizing the specific technology, to more efficiently produce, 27778 beneficiate, market, or use Ohio coal; 27779

(2) Encourage, promote, and support the market acceptance and 27780 increased market use of Ohio coal through technology and market 27781 development; 27782

(3) Assist in the financing of coal development facilities; 27783

(4) Encourage, promote, and support, in state-owned 27784 buildings, facilities, and operations, use of Ohio coal and 27785 electricity sold by utilities and others in this state that use 27786
Ohio coal for generation; 27787

(5) Improve environmental quality, particularly through 27788 cleaner use of Ohio coal; 27789

(6) Assist and cooperate with governmental agencies, 27790 universities and colleges, coal producers, coal miners, electric 27791 utilities and other coal users, public and private sector coal 27792 development interests, and others in achieving these purposes. 27793

(B) The office shall give priority to improvement or 27794 reconstruction of existing facilities and equipment when 27795 economically feasible, to construction and operation of 27796 commercial-scale facilities, and to technologies, equipment, and 27797 other techniques that enable maximum use of Ohio coal in an 27798 environmentally acceptable, cost-effective manner. 27799

Sec. 1551.33. (A) The ~~Ohio air quality director of~~ 27800 ~~development authority, by the affirmative vote of a majority of~~ 27801 ~~its members,~~ shall appoint and fix the compensation of the 27802 director of the Ohio coal development office. The director shall 27803 serve at the pleasure of the ~~authority~~ director of development. 27804

(B) The director of the office shall do all of the following: 27805

- (1) Biennially prepare and maintain the Ohio coal development agenda required under section 1551.34 of the Revised Code; 27806 27807
- (2) Propose and support policies for the office consistent with the Ohio coal development agenda and develop means to implement the agenda; 27808
27810
- (3) Initiate, undertake, and support projects to carry out the office's purposes and ensure that the projects are consistent with and meet the selection criteria established by the Ohio coal development agenda; 27811
27812
27814
- (4) Actively encourage joint participation in and, when feasible, joint funding of the office's projects with governmental agencies, electric utilities, universities and colleges, other public or private interests, or any other person; 27815
27816
27818
- (5) Establish a table of organization for and employ such employees and agents as are necessary for the administration and operation of the office. Any such employees shall be in the unclassified service and shall serve at the pleasure of the ~~authority~~ director of development. 27819
27820
27822
27823
- (6) Appoint specified members of and convene the technical advisory committee established under section 1551.35 of the Revised Code; 27824
27826
27828

27836

utilities commission a report recommending that the commission 27837 allow the recovery of costs associated with the facility or 27838 project under section 4905.304 of the Revised Code and including 27839 the reasons for the recommendation. 27840

(8) Establish such policies, procedures, and guidelines as 27841 are necessary to achieve the office's purposes. 27842

(C) ~~By the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of~~ 27843
~~the Ohio air quality development authority, the~~ The director of 27844 the office may exercise any of the powers and duties ~~of the~~ 27845 ~~director of development as the authority and~~ that the director of 27846 the office ~~consider~~ considers appropriate or desirable to achieve 27847 the office's purposes, including, but not limited to, the powers 27848 and duties enumerated in sections 1551.11, 1551.12, ~~1551.13,~~ and 27849

Additionally, the director of the office may make loans to 27851 governmental agencies or persons for projects to carry out the 27852 office's purposes. Fees, charges, rates of interest, times of 27853 payment of interest and principal, and other terms, conditions, 27854 and provisions of the loans shall be such as the director of the 27855 office determines to be appropriate and in furtherance of the 27856 purposes for which the loans are made. The mortgage lien securing 27857 any moneys lent by the director of the office may be subordinate 27858 to the mortgage lien securing any moneys lent or invested by a 27859 financial institution, but shall be superior to that securing any 27860 moneys lent or expended by any other person. The moneys used in 27861 making the loans shall be disbursed upon order of the director of 27862 the office. 27863

Sec. 1551.35. (A) There is hereby established a technical 27864 advisory committee to assist the director of the Ohio coal 27865 development office in achieving the office's purposes. The 27866 director shall appoint to the committee one member of the public 27867 utilities commission and one representative each of coal 27868 production companies, the united mine workers of America, electric 27869 utilities, manufacturers that use Ohio coal, and environmental 27870 organizations, as well as two people with a background in coal 27871 research and development technology, one of whom is employed at 27872 the time of the member's appointment by a state university, as 27873 defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code. In addition, the 27874 committee shall include four legislative members. The speaker and 27875 minority leader of the house of representatives each shall appoint 27876 one member of the house of representatives, and the president and 27877 minority leader of the senate each shall appoint one member of the 27878 senate, to the committee. The director of environmental protection 27879 ~~and the director of development~~ shall serve on the committee as an 27880 ex officio ~~members~~ member. Any member of the committee may 27881 designate in writing a substitute to serve in the member's absence 27882 on the committee. The director of environmental protection may 27883 designate in writing the chief of the air pollution control 27884 division of the agency to represent the agency. Members shall 27885 serve on the committee at the pleasure of their appointing 27886 authority. Members of the committee appointed by the director of 27887 the office and, notwithstanding section 101.26 of the Revised 27888 Code, legislative members of the committee, when engaged in their 27889 official duties as members of the committee, shall be compensated 27890 on a per diem basis in accordance with division (J) of section 27891 124.15 of the Revised Code, except that the member of the public 27892 utilities commission and, while employed by a state university, 27893 the member with a background in coal research, shall not be so 27894 compensated. Members shall receive their actual and necessary 27895 expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. 27896

(B) The technical advisory committee shall review and make 27897 recommendations concerning the Ohio coal development agenda 27898 required under section 1551.34 of the Revised Code, project 27899 proposals, research and development projects submitted to the 27900 office by public utilities for the purpose of section 4905.304 of 27901 the Revised Code, proposals for grants, loans, and loan guarantees 27902 for purposes of sections 1555.01 to 1555.06 of the Revised Code, 27903 and such other topics as the director of the office considers 27904

appropriate. 27905

(C) The technical advisory committee may hold an executive 27906 session at any regular or special meeting for the purpose of 27907 considering research and development project proposals or 27908 applications for assistance submitted to the Ohio coal development 27909 office under section 1551.33, or sections 1555.01 to 1555.06, of 27910 the Revised Code, to the extent that the proposals or applications 27911 consist of trade secrets or other proprietary information. 27912

Any materials or data submitted to, made available to, or 27913 received by the ~~Ohio air quality~~ department of development 27914 ~~authority~~ or the director of the Ohio coal development office in 27915 connection with agreements for assistance entered into under this 27916 chapter or Chapter 1555. of the Revised Code, or any information 27917 taken from those materials or data for any purpose, to the extent 27918 that the materials or data consist of trade secrets or other 27919 proprietary information, are not public records for the purposes 27920
of section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 27921

As used in this division, "trade secrets" has the same 27922 meaning as in section 1333.61 of the Revised Code. 27923

Sec. 1555.02. It is hereby declared to be the public policy 27924 of this state through the operations of the Ohio coal development 27925 office under this chapter to contribute toward one or more of the 27926 following: to provide for the comfort, health, safety, and general 27927 welfare of all employees and other inhabitants of this state 27928 through research and development directed toward the discovery of 27929 new technologies or the demonstration or application of existing 27930 technologies to enable the conversion or use of Ohio coal as a 27931 fuel or chemical feedstock in an environmentally acceptable manner 27932 thereby enhancing the marketability and fostering the use of this 27933 state's vast reserves of coal, to assist in the financing of coal 27934 research and development and coal research and development 27935 projects or facilities for persons doing business in this state 27936 and educational and scientific institutions located in this state, 27937 to create or preserve jobs and employment opportunities or improve 27938 the economic welfare of the people of this state, or to assist and 27939 cooperate with such persons and educational and scientific 27940 institutions in conducting coal research and development. In 27941 furtherance of this public policy, the Ohio coal development 27942 office, with the advice of the technical advisory committee 27943 created in section 1551.35 of the Revised Code ~~and the affirmative~~ 27944

~~vote of a majority of the members of the Ohio air quality~~ 27945 ~~development authority~~, may make loans, guarantee loans, and make 27946 grants to persons doing business in this state or to educational 27947 or scientific institutions located in this state for coal research 27948 and development projects by such persons or educational or 27949 scientific institutions; may, with the advice of the technical 27950 advisory committee ~~and the affirmative vote of a majority of the~~ 27951
~~members of the Ohio air quality development authority~~, request the 27952 issuance of coal research and development general obligations 27953 under section 151.07 of the Revised Code to provide funds for 27954 making such loans, loan guarantees, and grants; and may, with the 27955 advice of the technical advisory committee ~~and the affirmative~~ 27956 ~~vote of a majority of the members of the Ohio air quality~~ 27957 ~~development authority~~, expend moneys credited to the coal research 27958 and development fund created in section 1555.15 of the Revised 27959 Code for the purpose of making such loans, loan guarantees, and 27960 grants. Determinations by the director of the Ohio coal 27961 development office that coal research and development or a coal 27962 research and development facility is a coal research and 27963 development project under this chapter and is consistent with the 27964 purposes of Section 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and 27965 this chapter shall be conclusive as to the validity and 27966 enforceability of the coal research and development general 27967 obligations issued to finance such project and of the 27968 authorizations, trust agreements or indentures, loan agreements, 27969 loan guarantee agreements, or grant agreements, and other 27970 agreements made in connection therewith, all in accordance with 27971 their terms. 27972

Sec. 1555.03. For the purposes of this chapter, the director 27973 of the Ohio coal development office may: 27974

(A) With the advice of the technical advisory committee 27975 created in section 1551.35 of the Revised Code ~~and the affirmative~~ 27976
~~vote of a majority of the members of the Ohio air quality~~ 27977 ~~development authority~~, make loans, guarantee loans, and make 27978 grants to persons doing business in this state or to educational 27979
or scientific institutions located in this state for coal research 27980 and development projects by any such person or educational or 27981 scientific institution and adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the 27982 Revised Code for making such loans, guarantees, and grants. 27983

(B) In making loans, loan guarantees, and grants under 27984 division (A) of this section and section 1555.04 of the Revised 27985 Code, the director of the office shall ensure that an adequate 27986 portion of the total amount of those loans, loan guarantees, and 27987 grants, as determined by the director with the advice of the 27988 technical advisory committee, is used for conducting research on 27989 fundamental scientific problems related to the utilization of Ohio 27990 coal and shall ensure, to the maximum feasible extent, joint 27991 financial participation by the federal government or other 27992 investors or interested parties in conjunction with any such loan, 27993 loan guarantee, or grant. The director, in each grant agreement or 27994 contract under division (A) of this section, loan contract or 27995 agreement under this division or section 1555.04 of the Revised 27996

Code, and contract of guarantee under section 1555.05 of the 27997 Revised Code, shall require that the facility or project be 27998 maintained and kept in good condition and repair by the person or 27999 educational or scientific institution to whom the grant or loan 28000 was made or for whom the guarantee was made. 28001

(C) From time to time, with the advice of the technical 28002
advisory committee ~~and the affirmative vote of a majority of the~~ 28003
~~members of the Ohio air quality development authority,~~ request the 28004
issuance of coal research and development general obligations 28005
under section 151.07 of the Revised Code, for any of the purposes 28006 set forth in Section 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, and 28007 subject to the limitations therein upon the aggregate total amount 28008 of obligations that may be outstanding at any time. 28009

(D) Include as a condition of any loan, loan guarantee, or 28010 grant contract or agreement with any such person or educational or 28011 scientific institution that the director of the office receive, in 28012 addition to payments of principal and interest on any such loan or 28013 service charges for any such guarantee, as appropriate, as 28014 authorized by Section 15, Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, a 28015 reasonable royalty or portion of the income or profits arising out 28016 of the developments, discoveries, or inventions, including patents 28017 or copyrights, that result in whole or in part from coal research 28018 and development projects conducted under any such contract or 28019 agreement, in such amounts and for such period of years as may be 28020 negotiated and provided by the contract or agreement in advance of 28021 the making of the grant, loan, or loan guarantee. Moneys received 28022 by the director of the office under this section may be credited 28023 to the coal research and development bond service fund or used to 28024 make additional loans, loan guarantees, grants, or agreements 28025
under this section. 28026

(E) Employ managers, superintendents, and other employees and 28027 retain or contract with consulting engineers, financial 28028 consultants, accounting experts, architects, and such other 28029 consultants and independent contractors as are necessary in the 28030 judgment of the director of the office to carry out this chapter, 28031 and fix the compensation thereof. 28032

(F) Receive and accept from any federal agency, subject to 28033 the approval of the governor, grants for or in aid of the 28034 construction or operation of any coal research and development 28035 project or for coal research and development, and receive and 28036 accept aid or contributions from any source of money, property, 28037 labor, or other things of value, to be held, used, and applied 28038 only for the purposes for which such grants and contributions are 28039 made. 28040

(G) Purchase fire and extended coverage and liability 28041 insurance for any coal research and development project, insurance 28042 protecting the office and its officers and employees against 28043 liability for damage to property or injury to or death of persons 28044 arising from its operations, and any other insurance the director 28045 of the office determines necessary or proper under this chapter. 28046 Any moneys received by the director from the proceeds of any such 28047 insurance with respect to a coal research and development project 28048 and any moneys received by the director from the proceeds of any 28049 settlement, judgment, foreclosure, or other insurance with respect 28050 to a coal research and development project or facility shall be 28051 credited to the coal research and development bond service fund. 28052

(H) In the exercise of the powers of the director of the 28053 office under this chapter, call to the director's assistance, 28054 temporarily, from time to time, any engineers, technical experts, 28055 financial experts, and other employees in any state department, 28056 agency, or commission, or in the Ohio state university, or other 28057 educational institutions financed wholly or partially by this 28058 state for purposes of assisting the director of the office with 28059 reviewing and evaluating applications for financial assistance 28060 under this chapter, monitoring performance of coal research and 28061 development projects receiving financial assistance under this 28062 chapter, and reviewing and evaluating the progress and findings of 28063 those projects. Such engineers, experts, and employees shall not 28064 receive any additional compensation over that which they receive 28065 from the department, agency, commission, or educational 28066 institution by which they are employed, but they shall be 28067 reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred while 28068 working under the direction of the director. 28069

(I) Do all acts necessary or proper to carry out the powers 28070 expressly granted in this chapter. 28071

Sec. 1555.04. (A) With respect to coal research and 28072 development projects financed wholly or partially from a loan or 28073 loan guarantee under this chapter, the director of the Ohio coal 28074 development office, in addition to other powers under this 28075 chapter, with the advice of the technical advisory committee 28076 created in section 1551.35 of the Revised Code ~~and the affirmative~~ 28077
~~vote of a majority of the members of the Ohio air quality~~ 28078 ~~development authority~~, may enter into loan agreements, accept 28079 notes and other forms of obligation to evidence such indebtedness 28080 and mortgages, liens, pledges, assignments, or other security 28081 interests to secure such indebtedness, which may be prior or 28082 subordinate to or on a parity with other indebtedness, 28083 obligations, mortgages, pledges, assignments, other security 28084 interests, or liens or encumbrances, and take such actions as the 28085 director of the office considers appropriate to protect such 28086 security and safeguard against losses, including, without 28087 limitation, foreclosure and the bidding upon and purchase of 28088 property upon foreclosure or other sale. 28089

(B) The authority granted by this section is cumulative and 28090 supplementary to all other authority granted in this chapter. The 28091 authority granted by this section does not alter or impair any 28092 similar authority granted elsewhere in this chapter with respect 28093 to other projects. 28094

Sec. 1555.05. (A) Subject to any limitations as to aggregate 28095 amounts thereof that may from time to time be prescribed by the 28096 general assembly and to other applicable provisions of this 28097 chapter, and subject to the one-hundred-million-dollar limitation 28098 provided in Section 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, the 28099 director of the Ohio coal development office, on behalf of this 28100 state, with the advice of the technical advisory committee created 28101 in section 1551.35 of the Revised Code ~~and the affirmative vote of~~ 28102
~~a majority of the members of the Ohio air quality development~~ 28103 ~~authority,~~ may enter into contracts to guarantee the repayment or 28104 payment of the unpaid principal amount of loans made to pay the 28105 costs of coal research and development projects. 28106

(B) The contract of guarantee may make provision for the 28107 conditions of, time for, and manner of fulfillment of the 28108 guarantee commitment, subrogation of this state to the rights of 28109 the parties guaranteed and exercise of such parties' rights by the 28110 state, giving the state the option of making payment of the 28111 principal amount guaranteed in one or more installments and, if 28112 deferred, to pay interest thereon from the source specified in 28113 division (A) of this section, and any other terms or conditions 28114 customary to such guarantees and as the director of the office may 28115 approve, and may contain provisions for securing the guarantee in 28116 the manner consistent with this section, covenants on behalf of 28117 this state to issue obligations under section 1555.08 of the 28118 Revised Code to provide moneys to fulfill such guarantees and 28119 covenants, and covenants restricting the aggregate amount of 28120 guarantees that may be contracted under this section and 28121 obligations that may be issued under section 151.07 of the Revised 28122

Code, and terms pertinent to either, to better secure the parties 28123 guaranteed. 28124

(C) The director of the office may fix service charges for 28125 making a guarantee. Such charges shall be payable at such times 28126 and place and in such amounts and manner as may be prescribed by 28127 the director. Moneys received from such charges shall be credited 28128 to the coal research and development bond service fund. 28129

(D) Any guaranteed parties under this section, by any 28130 suitable form of legal proceedings and except to the extent that 28131 their rights are restricted by the guarantee documents, may 28132 protect and enforce any rights under the laws of this state or 28133 granted by such guarantee or guarantee documents. Such rights 28134 include the right to compel the performance of all duties of the 28135 office required by this section or the guarantee or guarantee 28136 documents; and in the event of default with respect to the payment 28137 of any guarantees, to apply to a court having jurisdiction of the 28138 cause to appoint a receiver to receive and administer the moneys 28139 pledged to such guarantee with full power to pay, and to provide 28140 for payment of, such guarantee, and with such powers, subject to 28141 the direction of the court, as are accorded receivers in general 28142 equity cases, excluding any power to pledge or apply additional 28143 revenues or receipts or other income or moneys of this state. Each 28144 duty of the office and its director and employees required or 28145 undertaken under this section or a guarantee made under this 28146 section is hereby established as a duty of the office and of its 28147 director and each such employee having authority to perform such 28148 duty, specifically enjoined by the law resulting from an office, 28149 trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of the 28150 Revised Code. The persons who are at the time the director of the 28151 office, or its employees, are not liable in their personal 28152 capacities on any guarantees or contracts to make guarantees by 28153
the director. 28154

Sec. 1555.06. Upon application by the director of the Ohio 28155 coal development office ~~with the affirmative vote of a majority of~~ 28156
~~the members of the Ohio air quality development authority,~~ the 28157 controlling board, from appropriations available to the board, may 28158 provide funds for surveys or studies by the office of any proposed 28159 coal research and development project subject to repayment by the 28160 office from funds available to it, within the time fixed by the 28161 board. Funds to be repaid shall be charged by the office to the 28162 appropriate coal research and development project and the amount 28163 thereof shall be a cost of the project. This section does not 28164 abrogate the authority of the controlling board to otherwise 28165 provide funds for use by the office in the exercise of the powers 28166 granted to it by this chapter. 28167

Sec. 1555.08. (A) Subject to the limitations provided in 28168 Section 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, the commissioners 28169 of the sinking fund, upon certification by the director of the 28170 Ohio coal development office of the amount of moneys or additional 28171 moneys needed in the coal research and development fund for the 28172 purpose of making grants or loans for allowable costs, or needed 28173 for capitalized interest, for funding reserves, and for paying 28174 costs and expenses incurred in connection with the issuance, 28175 carrying, securing, paying, redeeming, or retirement of the 28176 obligations or any obligations refunded thereby, including payment 28177 of costs and expenses relating to letters of credit, lines of 28178 credit, insurance, put agreements, standby purchase agreements, 28179 indexing, marketing, remarketing and administrative arrangements, 28180 interest swap or hedging agreements, and any other credit 28181 enhancement, liquidity, remarketing, renewal, or refunding 28182 arrangements, all of which are authorized by this section, or 28183 providing moneys for loan guarantees, shall issue obligations of 28184 the state under this section in amounts authorized by the general 28185 assembly; provided that such obligations may be issued to the 28186 extent necessary to satisfy the covenants in contracts of 28187 guarantee made under section 1555.05 of the Revised Code to issue 28188 obligations to meet such guarantees, notwithstanding limitations 28189 otherwise applicable to the issuance of obligations under this 28190 section except the one-hundred-million-dollar limitation provided 28191 in Section 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution. The proceeds of 28192 such obligations, except for the portion to be deposited in the 28193 coal research and development bond service fund as may be provided 28194 in the bond proceedings, shall as provided in the bond proceedings 28195 be deposited in the coal research and development fund. The 28196 commissioners of the sinking fund may appoint trustees, paying 28197 agents, and transfer agents and may retain the services of 28198 financial advisors, accounting experts, and attorneys, and retain 28199 or contract for the services of marketing, remarketing, indexing, 28200 and administrative agents, other consultants, and independent 28201 contractors, including printing services, as are necessary in 28202 their judgment to carry out this section. 28203

(B) The full faith and credit of the state of Ohio is hereby 28204 pledged to obligations issued under this section. The right of the 28205 holders and owners to payment of bond service charges is limited 28206 to all or that portion of the moneys pledged thereto pursuant to 28207 the bond proceedings in accordance with this section, and each 28208 such obligation shall bear on its face a statement to that effect. 28209

(C) Obligations shall be authorized by resolution of the 28210 commissioners of the sinking fund on request of the director of 28211 the Ohio coal development office as provided in section 1555.02 of 28212 the Revised Code and the bond proceedings shall provide for the 28213 purpose thereof and the principal amount or amounts, and shall 28214 provide for or authorize the manner or agency for determining the 28215 principal maturity or maturities, not exceeding forty years from 28216 the date of issuance, the interest rate or rates or the maximum 28217 interest rate, the date of the obligations and the dates of 28218 payment of interest thereon, their denomination, and the 28219 establishment within or without the state of a place or places of 28220 payment of bond service charges. Sections 9.98 to 9.983 of the 28221 Revised Code apply to obligations issued under this section. The 28222 purpose of such obligations may be stated in the bond proceedings 28223 in terms describing the general purpose or purposes to be served. 28224

The bond proceedings shall also provide, subject to the provisions 28225 of any other applicable bond proceedings, for the pledge of all, 28226 or such part as the commissioners of the sinking fund may 28227 determine, of the moneys credited to the coal research and 28228 development bond service fund to the payment of bond service 28229 charges, which pledges may be made either prior or subordinate to 28230
obligations on a parity with obligations theretofore or thereafter 28232 issued, if and to the extent provided in the bond proceedings. The 28233 moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the state are 28234 immediately subject to the lien of such pledge without any 28235 physical delivery thereof or further act, and the lien of any such 28236 pledges is valid and binding against all parties having claims of 28237 any kind against the state or any governmental agency of the 28238 state, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof, 28239 and shall create a perfected security interest for all purposes of 28240 Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code, without the necessity for 28241 separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or recording of 28242
the bond proceedings by which such pledge is created or any 28243 certificate, statement, or other document with respect thereto; 28244 and the pledge of such moneys is effective and the money therefrom 28245 and thereof may be applied to the purposes for which pledged 28246 without necessity for any act of appropriation. Every pledge, and 28247 every covenant and agreement made with respect thereto, made in 28248 the bond proceedings may therein be extended to the benefit of the 28249 owners and holders of obligations authorized by this section, and 28250 to any trustee therefor, for the further security of the payment	28251 of the bond service charges.	28252

(D) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions as	28253
to:	28254
(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the	28255 option of the commissioners of the sinking fund at such price or	28256 prices and under such terms and conditions as are provided in the	28257
bond proceedings;	28258
(2) Other terms of the obligations;	28259
(3) Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations;	28260
(4) The terms of any trust agreement or indenture securing	28261
the obligations or under which the obligations may be issued;	28262
(5) The deposit, investment, and application of the coal	28263 research and development bond service fund, and the safeguarding	28264 of moneys on hand or on deposit, without regard to Chapter 131. or	28265
135. of the Revised Code, but subject to any special provisions of	28266
this chapter, with respect to particular moneys; provided, that	28267 any bank or trust company which acts as depository of any moneys	28268 in the fund may furnish such indemnifying bonds or may pledge such	28269 securities as required by the commissioners of the sinking fund;	28270
(6) Any other provision of the bond proceedings being binding	28271 upon the commissioners of the sinking fund, or such other body or	28272 person as may from time to time have the authority under law to	28273 take such actions as may be necessary to perform all or any part	28274 of the duty required by such provision;	28275
(7) Any provision which may be made in a trust agreement or	28276
indenture;	28277
(8) Any other or additional agreements with the holders of	28278
the obligations, or the trustee therefor, relating to the	28279 obligations or the security therefor, including the assignment of	28280 mortgages or other security obtained or to be obtained for loans 28281

under this chapter. 28282

(E) The obligations may have the great seal of the state or a 28283 facsimile thereof affixed thereto or printed thereon. The 28284 obligations shall be signed by such members of the commissioners 28285 of the sinking fund as are designated in the resolution 28286 authorizing the obligations or bear the facsimile signatures of 28287 such members. Any coupons attached to the obligations shall bear 28288 the facsimile signature of the treasurer of state. Any obligations 28289 may be executed by the persons who, on the date of execution, are 28290 the commissioners although on the date of such bonds the persons 28291 were not the commissioners. Any coupons may be executed by the 28292 person who, on the date of execution, is the treasurer of state 28293 although on the date of such coupons the person was not the 28294 treasurer of state. In case any officer or commissioner whose 28295 signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on any such 28296 obligations or any coupons ceases to be such officer or 28297 commissioner before delivery thereof, such signature or facsimile 28298 is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes as if the 28299 individual had remained such officer or commissioner until such 28300 delivery; and in case the seal to be affixed to obligations has 28301 been changed after a facsimile of the seal has been imprinted on 28302 such obligations, such facsimile seal shall continue to be 28303 sufficient as to such obligations and obligations issued in 28304 substitution or exchange therefor. 28305

(F) All obligations except loan guarantees are negotiable 28306 instruments and securities under Chapter 1308. of the Revised 28307 Code, subject to the provisions of the bond proceedings as to 28308 registration. The obligations may be issued in coupon or in 28309 registered form, or both, as the commissioners of the sinking fund 28310 determine. Provision may be made for the registration of any 28311 obligations with coupons attached thereto as to principal alone or 28312 as to both principal and interest, their exchange for obligations 28313 so registered, and for the conversion or reconversion into 28314 obligations with coupons attached thereto of any obligations 28315 registered as to both principal and interest, and for reasonable 28316 charges for such registration, exchange, conversion, and 28317 reconversion. 28318

(G) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 28319 sale, as determined in the bond proceedings. 28320

(H) Pending preparation of definitive obligations, the 28321 commissioners of the sinking fund may issue interim receipts or 28322 certificates which shall be exchanged for such definitive 28323 obligations. 28324

(I) In the discretion of the commissioners of the sinking 28325 fund, obligations may be secured additionally by a trust agreement 28326 or indenture between the commissioners and a corporate trustee, 28327 which may be any trust company or bank having a place of business 28328 within the state. Any such agreement or indenture may contain the 28329 resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any 28330 provisions that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and 28331 other provisions that are customary or appropriate in an agreement 28332 or indenture of such type, including, but not limited to: 28333

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, trust agreement, indenture, 28334
or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 28335 the state has fully paid the bond service charges on the 28336 obligations secured thereby, or provision therefor has been made; 28337

(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be 28338 made by the bond proceedings, or any other agreement of the 28339 commissioners of the sinking fund made as a part of the contract 28340 under which the obligations were issued, enforcement of such 28341 payments or agreement by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, 28342 suit in equity, action at law, or any combination of the 28343

foregoing;	28344
(3) The rights and remedies of the holders of obligations and	28345 of the trustee, and provisions for protecting and enforcing them,	28346 including limitations on rights of individual holders of	28347
obligations;	28348
(4) The replacement of any obligations that become mutilated	28349 or are destroyed, lost, or stolen;	28350
(5) Such other provisions as the trustee and the	28351 commissioners of the sinking fund agree upon, including	28352 limitations, conditions, or qualifications relating to any of the	28353
foregoing.	28354
(J) Any holder of obligations or a trustee under the bond	28355 proceedings, except to the extent that the holder's rights are	28356 restricted by the bond proceedings, may by any suitable form of	28357 legal proceedings protect and enforce any rights under the laws of	28358 this state or granted by such bond proceedings. Such rights	28359
include the right to compel the performance of all duties of the	28360
commissioners of the sinking fund, the Ohio air quality department	28361
of development authority , or the Ohio coal development office	28362 required by this chapter and Chapter 1551. of the Revised Code or	28363
the bond proceedings; to enjoin unlawful activities; and in the	28364 event of default with respect to the payment of any bond service	28365 charges on any obligations or in the performance of any covenant	28366 or agreement on the part of the commissioners, the authority	28367
department , or the office in the bond proceedings, to apply to a	28368 court having jurisdiction of the cause to appoint a receiver to	28369 receive and administer the moneys pledged, other than those in the	28370 custody of the treasurer of state, that are pledged to the payment	28371 of the bond service charges on such obligations or that are the	28372 subject of the covenant or agreement, with full power to pay, and	28373 to provide for payment of bond service charges on, such	28374 obligations, and with such powers, subject to the direction of the	28375 court, as are accorded receivers in general equity cases, 28376 excluding any power to pledge additional revenues or receipts or 28377 other income or moneys of the commissioners of the sinking fund or 28378 the state or governmental agencies of the state to the payment of 28379 such principal and interest and excluding the power to take 28380 possession of, mortgage, or cause the sale or otherwise dispose of 28381 any project. 28382

Each duty of the commissioners of the sinking fund and their 28383 employees, and of each governmental agency and its officers, 28384 members, or employees, undertaken pursuant to the bond proceedings 28385 or any grant, loan, or loan guarantee agreement made under 28386 authority of this chapter, and in every agreement by or with the 28387 commissioners, is hereby established as a duty of the 28388 commissioners, and of each such officer, member, or employee 28389 having authority to perform such duty, specifically enjoined by 28390 the law resulting from an office, trust, or station within the 28391 meaning of section 2731.01 of the Revised Code. 28392

The persons who are at the time the commissioners of the 28393 sinking fund, or their employees, are not liable in their personal 28394 capacities on any obligations issued by the commissioners or any 28395 agreements of or with the commissioners. 28396

(K) Obligations issued under this section are lawful 28397 investments for banks, societies for savings, savings and loan 28398 associations, deposit guarantee associations, trust companies, 28399 trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including domestic for 28400 life and domestic not for life, trustees or other officers having 28401 charge of sinking and bond retirement or other special funds of 28402 political subdivisions and taxing districts of this state, the 28403 commissioners of the sinking fund of the state, the administrator 28404 of workers' compensation, the state teachers retirement system, 28405 the public employees retirement system, the school employees 28406 retirement system, and the Ohio police and fire pension fund, 28407 notwithstanding any other provisions of the Revised Code or rules 28408 adopted pursuant thereto by any governmental agency of the state 28409 with respect to investments by them, and are also acceptable as 28410 security for the deposit of public moneys. 28411

(L) If the law or the instrument creating a trust pursuant to 28412 division (I) of this section expressly permits investment in 28413 direct obligations of the United States or an agency of the United 28414 States, unless expressly prohibited by the instrument, such moneys 28415 also may be invested in no-front-end-load money market mutual 28416 funds consisting exclusively of obligations of the United States 28417 or an agency of the United States and in repurchase agreements, 28418 including those issued by the fiduciary itself, secured by 28419 obligations of the United States or an agency of the United 28420 States; and in collective investment funds established in 28421 accordance with section 1111.14 of the Revised Code and consisting 28422 exclusively of any such securities, notwithstanding division 28423 (A)(1)(c) of that section. The income from such investments shall 28424 be credited to such funds as the commissioners of the sinking fund 28425 determine, and such investments may be sold at such times as the 28426 commissioners determine or authorize. 28427

(M) Provision may be made in the applicable bond proceedings 28428 for the establishment of separate accounts in the bond service 28429 fund and for the application of such accounts only to the 28430 specified bond service charges on obligations pertinent to such 28431 accounts and bond service fund and for other accounts therein 28432 within the general purposes of such fund. Moneys to the credit of 28433 the bond service fund shall be disbursed on the order of the 28434 treasurer of state; provided, that no such order is required for 28435 the payment from the bond service fund when due of bond service 28436 charges on obligations. 28437

(N) The commissioners of the sinking fund may pledge all, or 28438 such portion as they determine, of the receipts of the bond 28439 service fund to the payment of bond service charges on obligations 28440 issued under this section, and for the establishment and 28441 maintenance of any reserves, as provided in the bond proceedings, 28442 and make other provisions therein with respect to pledged receipts 28443 as authorized by this chapter, which provisions control 28444 notwithstanding any other provisions of law pertaining thereto. 28445

(O) The commissioners of the sinking fund may covenant in the 28446 bond proceedings, and any such covenants control notwithstanding 28447 any other provision of law, that the state and applicable officers 28448 and governmental agencies of the state, including the general 28449 assembly, so long as any obligations are outstanding, shall: 28450

(1) Maintain statutory authority for and cause to be levied 28451 and collected taxes so that the pledged receipts are sufficient in 28452 amount to meet bond service charges, and the establishment and 28453 maintenance of any reserves and other requirements provided for in 28454 the bond proceedings, and, as necessary, to meet covenants 28455 contained in any loan guarantees made under this chapter; 28456

(2) Take or permit no action, by statute or otherwise, that 28457 would impair the exemption from federal income taxation of the 28458 interest on the obligations. 28459

(P) All moneys received by or on account of the state and 28460 required by the applicable bond proceedings, consistent with this 28461 section, to be deposited, transferred, or credited to the coal 28462 research and development bond service fund, and all other moneys 28463 transferred or allocated to or received for the purposes of the 28464 fund, shall be credited to such fund and to any separate accounts 28465 therein, subject to applicable provisions of the bond proceedings, 28466 but without necessity for any act of appropriation. During the 28467 period beginning with the date of the first issuance of 28468 obligations and continuing during such time as any such 28469 obligations are outstanding, and so long as moneys in the bond 28470 service fund are insufficient to pay all bond service charges on 28471 such obligations becoming due in each year, a sufficient amount of 28472 moneys of the state are committed and shall be paid to the bond 28473 service fund in each year for the purpose of paying the bond 28474 service charges becoming due in that year without necessity for 28475 further act of appropriation for such purpose. The bond service 28476 fund is a trust fund and is hereby pledged to the payment of bond 28477 service charges to the extent provided in the applicable bond 28478 proceedings, and payment thereof from such fund shall be made or 28479 provided for by the treasurer of state in accordance with such 28480 bond proceedings without necessity for any act of appropriation. 28481

All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund. 28482

(Q) For purposes of establishing the limitations contained in 28483 Section 15 of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, the "principal 28484 amount" refers to the aggregate of the offering price of the bonds 28485 or notes. "Principal amount" does not refer to the aggregate value 28486 at maturity or redemption of the bonds or notes. 28487

(R) This section applies only with respect to obligations 28488 issued and delivered prior to September 30, 2000. 28489

Sec. 1555.17. All final actions of the director of the Ohio 28490 coal development office shall be journalized and such journal 28491 shall be open to inspection of the public at all reasonable times. 28492 Any materials or data, to the extent that they consist of trade 28493 secrets, as defined in section 1333.61 of the Revised Code, or 28494 other proprietary information, that are submitted or made 28495 available to, or received by, the ~~Ohio air quality~~ department of 28496 ~~development authority~~ or the director of the Ohio coal development 28497 office, in connection with agreements for assistance entered into 28498 under this chapter or Chapter 1551. of the Revised Code, or any 28499 information taken from those materials or data, are not public 28500 records for the purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 28501

Sec. 1561.06. The chief of the division of mineral resources 28502 management shall designate the townships in which mineable or 28503 quarryable coal or other mineral is or may be mined or quarried, 28504 which townships shall be considered coal or mineral bearing 28505 townships. The chief shall divide the coal or other mineral 28506 bearing townships into such districts as the chief deems best for 28507 inspection purposes, and the chief may change such districts 28508 whenever, in the chief's judgment, the best interests of the 28509 service require. 28510

The chief shall designate as provided in this section as coal 28511 or mineral bearing townships those townships in which coal is 28512 being mined or in which coal is found in such thickness as to make 28513
the mining of ~~such~~ the coal or mineral probable at some future 28514 time, and shall designate ~~such~~ the township as a unit. As used in 28515 this chapter and Chapters 1563., 1565., and 1567. of the Revised 28516 Code, "coal or mineral bearing township" means a township that has 28517 been so designated by the chief under this section. 28518

The chief shall also designate the townships in which coal is 28519 being mined or in which coal is found in such thickness as to make 28520 the mining of ~~such~~ the coal probable at some future time as "coal 28521 bearing townships" as ~~such~~ that term is used in Chapter 1509. of 28522 the Revised Code. The chief shall certify to the chief of the 28523 division of oil and gas resources management the townships that 28524 are designated as coal bearing townships. 28525

Sec. 1561.12. An applicant for any examination or certificate 28526 under this section shall, before being examined, register the 28527 applicant's name with the chief of the division of mineral 28528 resources management and file with the chief an affidavit as to 28529 all matters of fact establishing the applicant's right to receive 28530 the examination, a certificate of good character and temperate 28531 habits signed by at least three reputable citizens of the 28532 community in which the applicant resides, and a certificate from a reputable and disinterested physician as to the physical condition of ~~such~~ the applicant showing that the applicant is physically capable of performing the duties of the office or position.

28535
28536
28537

Each applicant for examination for any of the following positions shall present evidence satisfactory to the chief that the applicant has been a resident and citizen of this state for two years next preceding the date of application:

28540
28541

(A) An applicant for the position of deputy mine inspector of underground mines shall have had actual practical experience of not less than six years, at least two of which shall have been in the underground workings of mines in this state. In the case of an applicant who would inspect underground coal mines, the two years shall consist of actual practical experience in underground coal mines. In the case of an applicant who would inspect noncoal mines, the two years shall consist of actual practical experience in noncoal mines. In lieu of two years of the actual practical experience required, the chief may accept as the equivalent thereof a certificate evidencing graduation from an accredited school of mines or mining, after a four-year course of study, but such credit shall not apply as to the two years' actual practical experience required in the mines in this state.

28550
28551
28552
28553
28554
28555

The applicant shall pass an examination as to the applicant's practical and technological knowledge of mine surveying, mining machinery, and appliances; the proper development and operation of mines; the best methods of working and ventilating mines; the nature, properties, and powers of noxious, poisonous, and explosive gases, particularly methane; the best means and methods of detecting, preventing, and removing the accumulation of such gases; the use and operation of gas detecting devices and appliances; first aid to the injured; and the uses and dangers of electricity as applied and used in, at, and around mines. ~~Such~~ The 28565 applicant shall also hold a certificate for foreperson of gaseous 28566 mines issued by the chief. 28567

(B) An applicant for the position of deputy mine inspector of 28568 surface mines shall have had actual practical mining experience of 28569 not less than six years, at least two of which shall have been in 28570 surface mines in this state. In lieu of two years of the actual 28571 practical experience required, the chief may accept as the 28572 equivalent thereof a certificate evidencing graduation from an 28573 accredited school of mines or mining, after a four-year course of 28574 study, but that credit shall not apply as to the two years' actual 28575 practical experience required in the mines in this state. The 28576 applicant shall pass an examination as to the applicant's 28577 practical and technological knowledge of surface mine surveying, 28578 machinery, and appliances; the proper development and operations 28579 of surface mines; first aid to the injured; and the use and 28580 dangers of explosives and electricity as applied and used in, at, 28581 and around surface mines. The applicant shall also hold a surface 28582 mine foreperson certificate issued by the chief. 28583

(C) An applicant for the position of electrical inspector 28584 shall have had at least five years' practical experience in the 28585 installation and maintenance of electrical circuits and equipment 28586 in mines, and the applicant shall be thoroughly familiar with the 28587 principles underlying the safety features of permissible and 28588 approved equipment as authorized and used in mines. 28589

The applicant shall be required to pass the examination 28590 required for deputy mine inspectors and an examination testing and 28591 determining the applicant's qualification and ability to 28592 competently inspect and administer the mining law that relates to 28593 electricity used in and around mines and mining in this state. 28594

(D) An applicant for the position of superintendent or 28595 assistant superintendent of rescue stations shall possess the same 28596 qualifications as those required for a deputy mine inspector. In 28597 addition, the applicant shall present evidence satisfactory to the 28598 chief that the applicant is sufficiently qualified and trained to 28599 organize, supervise, and conduct group training classes in first 28600 aid, safety, and rescue work. 28601

The applicant shall pass the examination required for deputy 28602 mine inspectors and shall be tested as to the applicant's 28603 practical and technological experience and training in first aid, 28604 safety, and mine rescue work. 28605

(E) An applicant for the position of mine chemist shall have 28606 such educational training as is represented by the degree MS in 28607 chemistry from a university of recognized standing, and at least 28608 five years of actual practical experience in research work in 28609 chemistry or as an assistant chemist. The chief may provide that 28610 an equivalent combination of education and experience together 28611 with a wide knowledge of the methods of and skill in chemical 28612 analysis and research may be accepted in lieu of the above 28613 qualifications. It is preferred that ~~such~~ the chemist shall have 28614 had actual experience in mineralogy and metallurgy. 28615

~~(F) An applicant for the position of gas storage well 28616 inspector shall possess the same qualifications as an applicant 28617 for the position of deputy mine inspector and shall have a 28618 practical knowledge and experience of and in the operation, 28619 location, drilling, maintenance, and abandonment of oil and gas 28620 wells, especially in coal or mineral bearing townships, and shall 28621 have a thorough knowledge of the latest and best method of 28622 plugging and sealing abandoned oil and gas wells. 28623~~

~~Such applicant for gas storage well inspector shall pass an 28624 examination conducted by the chief to determine the applicant's 28625 fitness to act as a gas storage well inspector before being 28626 eligible for appointment. 28627~~

Sec. 1561.13. The chief of the division of mineral resources	28628 management shall conduct examinations for offices and positions in	28629
the division of mineral resources management, and for mine	28630
forepersons, mine electricians, shot firers, surface mine	28631 blasters, and fire bosses, as follows:	28632
(A) Division of mineral resources management:	28633
(1) Deputy mine inspectors of underground mines;	28634
(2) Deputy mine inspectors of surface mines;	28635
(3) Electrical inspectors;	28636
(4) Superintendent of rescue stations;	28637
(5) Assistant superintendents of rescue stations;	28638
(6) Mine chemists at a division laboratory if the chief	28639 chooses to operate a laboratory;	28640
 (7) Gas storage well inspector.	28641
(B) Mine forepersons:	28642
(1) Mine foreperson of gaseous mines;	28643
(2) Mine foreperson of nongaseous mines;	28644
(3) Mine foreperson of surface mines.	28645
(C) Forepersons:	28646
(1) Foreperson of gaseous mines;	28647
(2) Foreperson of nongaseous mines;	28648
(3) Foreperson of surface maintenance facilities at	28649 underground or surface mines;	28650
(4) Foreperson of surface mines.	28651
(D) Fire bosses.	28652
(E) Mine electricians.	28653

(F) Surface mine blasters. 28654

(G) Shot firers. 28655

The chief annually shall provide for the examination of 28656 candidates for appointment or promotion as deputy mine inspectors 28657 and such other positions and offices set forth in division (A) of 28658 this section as are necessary. Special examinations may be held 28659 whenever it becomes necessary to make appointments to any of those 28660
positions. 28661

The chief shall provide for the examination of persons 28662 seeking certificates of competency as mine forepersons, 28663 forepersons, mine electricians, shot firers, surface mine 28664 blasters, and fire bosses quarterly or more often as required, at 28665 such times and places within the state as shall, in the judgment 28666 of the chief, afford the best facilities to the greatest number of 28667 applicants. Public notice shall be given through the press or 28668 otherwise, not less than ten days in advance, announcing the time 28669 and place at which examinations under this section are to be held. 28670

The examinations provided for in this section shall be 28671 conducted under rules adopted under section 1561.05 of the Revised 28672 Code and conditions prescribed by the chief. Any rules that relate 28673 to particular candidates shall, upon application of any candidate, 28674 be furnished to the candidate by the chief; they shall also be of 28675 uniform application to all candidates in the several groups. 28676

Sec. 1561.35. If the deputy mine inspector finds that any 28677 matter, thing, or practice connected with any mine and not 28678 prohibited specifically by law is dangerous or hazardous, or that 28679 from a rigid enforcement of this chapter and Chapters ~~1509.~~, 28680 1563., 1565., and 1567. and applicable provisions of Chapter 1509. 28681 of the Revised Code, the matter, thing, or practice would become 28682 dangerous and hazardous so as to tend to the bodily injury of any 28683 person, the deputy mine inspector forthwith shall give notice in 28684 writing to the owner, lessee, or agent of the mine of the 28685 particulars in which the deputy mine inspector considers the mine 28686 or any matter, thing, or practice connected therewith is dangerous 28687 or hazardous and recommend changes that the conditions require, 28688 and forthwith shall mail a copy of the report and the deputy mine 28689 inspector's recommendations to the chief of the division of 28690 mineral resources management. Upon receipt of the report and 28691 recommendations, the chief forthwith shall make a finding thereon 28692 and mail a copy to the owner, operator, lessee, or agent of the 28693 mine, and to the deputy mine inspector; a copy of the finding of 28694 the chief shall be posted upon the bulletin board of the mine. 28695 Where the miners have a mine safety committee, one additional copy 28696 shall be posted on the bulletin board for the use and possession 28697 of the committee. 28698

The owner, operator, lessee, or agent of the mine, or the 28699 authorized representative of the workers of the mine, within ten 28700 days may appeal to the reclamation commission for a review and 28701 redetermination of the finding of the chief in the matter in 28702 accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code, 28703 notwithstanding division (A)(1) of that section, which provides 28704 for appeals within thirty days. A copy of the decision of the 28705 commission shall be mailed as required by this section for the 28706 mailing of the finding by the chief on the deputy mine inspector's 28707 report. 28708

Sec. 1561.49. The chief of the division of mineral resources 28709 management may designate not more than thirty deputy mine 28710 inspectors, at least one of whom shall be classified and appointed 28711 as electrical inspector provided for in division (B) of section 28712 1561.12 of the Revised Code; ~~one gas storage well inspector;~~ one 28713 superintendent of rescue stations; three assistant superintendents 28714 of rescue stations; three chemists; and such clerks, 28715 stenographers, and other employees as are necessary for the 28716 administration of this chapter and Chapters 1563., 1565., and 28717 1567. and applicable provisions of Chapter 1509. of the Revised 28718

Code. 28719

Such officers, employees, and personnel shall be appointed 28720 and employed under such conditions and qualifications as set forth 28721 in ~~such~~ those chapters. 28722

Sec. 1563.06. For the purpose of making the examinations 28723 provided for in this chapter and Chapters ~~1509.~~ 1561., 1565., and 28724
1567. and applicable provisions of Chapter 1509. of the Revised 28725
Code, the chief of the division of mineral resources management, 28726 and each deputy mine inspector, may enter any mine at a reasonable 28727 time, by day or by night, but in such manner as will not 28728 necessarily impede the working of the mine, and the owner, lessee, 28729 or agent thereof shall furnish the means necessary for such entry 28730 and examination. 28731

Sec. 1563.24. In all mines generating methane in such 28732 quantities as to be considered a gaseous mine under section 28733 1563.02 of the Revised Code, the mine foreperson of such a mine 28734
shall: 28735

(A) Employ a sufficient number of competent persons holding 28736 foreperson of gaseous mines or fire boss certificates, except as 28737 provided in section 1565.02 of the Revised Code, to examine the 28738 working places whether they are in actual course of working or 28739 not, and the traveling ways and entrances to old workings with 28740 approved flame safety lamps, all of which shall be done not more 28741 than three hours prior to the time fixed for the employees to 28742 enter ~~such~~ the mine; 28743

(B) Have all old parts of the mine not in the actual course 28744 of working, but that are open and safe to travel, examined not 28745 less than once each three days by a competent person who holds a 28746 foreperson of gaseous mines or a fire boss certificate; 28747

(C) See that all parts of the mine not sealed off as provided 28748 in section 1563.41 of the Revised Code are kept free from standing 28749 gas, and upon the discovery of any standing gas, see that the 28750 entrance to the place where the gas is so discovered is fenced off 28751 and marked with a sign upon which is written the word "danger," 28752 and ~~such~~ the sign shall so remain until ~~such~~ the gas has been 28753 removed; 28754

(D) Have the mine examined on all idle days, holidays, and 28755
Sundays on which employees are required to work therein; 28756

(E) If more than three hours elapse between shifts, have the 28757 places in which the succeeding shift works examined by a competent 28758 person who holds a foreperson of gaseous mines or fire boss 28759
certificate; 28760

(F) See that this chapter and Chapters ~~1509.~~ 1561., 1565., 28761 and 1567. and applicable provisions of Chapter 1509. of the 28762 Revised Code, with regard to examination of working places, 28763 removal of standing gas, and fencing off of dangerous places, are 28764 complied with before the employees employed by the mine foreperson 28765 for this particular work are permitted to do any other work; 28766

(G) Have a report made on the blackboard provided for in 28767 section 1567.06 of the Revised Code, which report shall show the 28768 condition of the mine as to the presence of gas and the place 28769 where such gas is present, if there is any, before the mine 28770 foreperson permits the employees to enter the mine; 28771

(H) Have reports of the duties and activities enumerated in 28772 this section signed by the person who makes ~~such~~ the examination. 28773
The reports so signed shall be sent once each week to the deputy 28774 mine inspector of the district in which the mine is located on 28775 blanks furnished by the division of mineral resources management 28776 for that purpose, and a copy of ~~such~~ the report shall be kept on 28777 file at the mine. 28778

(I) Have the fire boss record a report after each 28779 examination, in ink, in the fire boss' record book, which book 28780 shall show the time taken in making the examination and also 28781 clearly state the nature and location of any danger that was 28782 discovered in any room, entry, or other place in the mine, and, if 28783 any danger was discovered, the fire boss shall immediately report 28784 the location thereof to the mine foreperson. 28785

No person shall enter the mine until the fire bosses return 28786 to the mine office on the surface, or to a station located in the 28787 mine, where a record book as provided for in this section shall be 28788 kept and signed by the person making the examination, and report 28789 to the oncoming mine foreperson that the mine is in safe condition 28790 for the employees to enter. When a station is located in any mine, 28791 the fire bosses shall sign also the report entered in the record 28792 book in the mine office on the surface. The record books of the 28793 fire bosses shall at all times during working hours be accessible 28794 to the deputy mine inspector and the employees of the mine. 28795

In every mine generating explosive gas in quantities 28796 sufficient to be detected by an approved flame safety lamp, when 28797 the working portions are one mile or more from the entrance to the 28798 mine or from the bottom of the shaft or slope, a permanent station 28799 of suitable dimensions may be erected by the mine foreperson, 28800 provided that the location is approved by the deputy mine 28801 inspector, for the use of the fire bosses, and a fireproof vault 28802 of ample strength shall be erected in ~~such~~ the station of brick, 28803 stone, or concrete, in which the temporary record book of the fire 28804 bosses, as described in this section, shall be kept. No person, 28805 except a mine foreperson of gaseous mines, and in case of 28806 necessity such other persons as are designated by the mine 28807 foreperson, shall pass beyond the permanent station and danger 28808 signal until the mine has been examined by a fire boss, and the 28809 mine or certain portions thereof reported by the fire boss to be 28810 safe. 28811

This section does not prevent a mine foreperson or foreperson 28812 of gaseous mines from being qualified to act and acting in the 28813 capacity of fire boss. The record book shall be supplied by the 28814 division and purchased by the operator. 28815

No mine foreperson or person delegated by the mine 28816 foreperson, or any operator of a mine, or other person, shall 28817 refuse or neglect to comply with this section. 28818

Sec. 1563.28. The ~~man~~ worker performing the duties of fire 28819 boss shall, in an approved manner, use a flame safety lamp when 28820 making examinations under this chapter and Chapters ~~1509.~~, 1561., 28821 1565., and 1567. and applicable provisions of Chapter 1509. of the 28822
Revised Code. As evidence of such examinations ~~he~~ the fire boss 28823 shall mark with chalk, upon the face of the coal or in some other 28824 conspicuous place, ~~his~~ the fire boss's initials and the date of 28825 the month that ~~such~~ the examination is made, and shall fully 28826 comply with all the law relating to gas and ~~his~~ the fire boss's 28827 duties as to making such examinations. After making ~~his~~ such an 28828 examination and report, prior to employees entering the mine for 28829 the oncoming shift, ~~he~~ the fire boss who made the examination or 28830 another fire boss shall return to the working places with the 28831 employees at the starting time of the oncoming shift. 28832

No person shall refuse or neglect to comply with this 28833
section. 28834

Sec. 1571.01. As used in this chapter, unless other meaning 28835 is clearly indicated in the context: 28836

(A) "Gas storage reservoir" or "storage reservoir" or 28837
"reservoir" means a continuous area of a subterranean porous sand 28838 or rock stratum or strata, any part of which or of the protective 28839 area of which, is within a coal bearing township, into which gas 28840 is or may be injected for the purpose of storing it therein and 28841 removing it therefrom, or for the purpose of testing whether such 28842 stratum is suitable for such storage purposes. 28843

(B) "Gas" means any natural, manufactured, or by-product gas 28844 or any mixture thereof. 28845

(C) "Reservoir operator" or "operator," when used in 28846 referring to the operator of a gas storage reservoir, means a 28847 person who is engaged in the work of preparing to inject, or who 28848 injects gas into, or who stores gas in, or who removes gas from, a 28849 gas storage reservoir, and who owns the right to do so. 28850

(D)(1) "Boundary," when used in referring to the boundary of 28851 a gas storage reservoir, means the boundary of such reservoir as 28852 shown on the map or maps thereof on file in the division of 28853 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management as required by this 28854
chapter. 28855

(2) "Boundary," when used in referring to the boundary of a 28856 reservoir protective area, means the boundary of such reservoir 28857 protective area as shown on the map or maps thereof on file in the 28858 division as required by this chapter. 28859

(E) "Reservoir protective area" or "reservoir's protective 28860 area" means the area of land outside the boundary of a gas storage 28861 reservoir shown as such on the map or maps thereof on file in the 28862 division as required by this chapter. The area of land shown on 28863 such map or maps as such reservoir protective area shall be 28864 outside the boundary of such reservoir, and shall encircle such 28865 reservoir and touch all parts of the boundary of such reservoir, 28866 and no part of the outside boundary of such protective area shall 28867 be less than two thousand nor more than five thousand linear feet 28868 distant from the boundary of such reservoir. 28869

(F) "Coal bearing township" means a township designated as a 28870 coal bearing township by the chief of the division of mineral 28871 resources management as required by section 1561.06 of the Revised 28872

Code. 28873

(G) "Coal mine" means the underground excavations of a mine 28874 that are being used or are usable or are being developed for use 28875 in connection with the extraction of coal from its natural deposit 28876 in the earth. "Underground excavations," when used in referring to 28877 the underground excavations of a coal mine, includes the abandoned 28878 underground excavations of such mine. It also includes the 28879 underground excavations of an abandoned coal mine if such 28880 abandoned mine is connected with underground excavations of a coal 28881 mine. "Coal mine" does not mean or include: 28882

(1) A mine in which coal is extracted from its natural 28883 deposit in the earth by strip or open pit mining methods or by 28884 other methods by which individuals are not required to go 28885 underground in connection with the extraction of coal from its 28886 natural deposit in the earth; 28887

(2) A mine in which not more than fourteen individuals are 28888 regularly employed underground. 28889

(H) "Operator," when used in referring to the operator of a 28890 coal mine, means a person who engages in the work of developing 28891 such mine for use in extracting coal from its natural deposit in 28892 the earth, or who so uses such mine, and who owns the right to do 28893
so. 28894

(I) "Boundary," when used in referring to the boundary of a 28895 coal mine, means the boundary of the underground excavations of 28896 such mine as shown on the maps of such mine on file in the 28897 division of mineral resources management as required by sections 28898 1563.03 to 1563.05 and 1571.03 of the Revised Code. 28899

(J) "Mine protective area" or "mine's protective area" means 28900 the area of land that the operator of a coal mine designates and 28901 shows as such on the map or maps of such coal mine filed with the 28902 division as required by sections 1563.03 to 1563.05 and 1571.03 of 28903 the Revised Code. Such area of land shall be outside of the 28904 boundary of such coal mine, but some part of the boundary of such 28905 area of land shall abut upon a part of the boundary of such coal 28906 mine. Such area of land shall be comprised of such tracts of land 28907 in which such coal mine operator owns the right to extract coal 28908 therefrom by underground mining methods and in which underground 28909 excavations of such coal mine are likely to be made within the 28910 ensuing year for use in connection with the extraction of coal 28911 therefrom. 28912

(K) "Pillar" means a solid block of coal or other material 28913 left unmined to support the overlying strata in a coal mine, or to 28914 protect a well. 28915

(L) "Retreat mining" means the removal of pillars and ribs 28916 and stumps and other coal remaining in a section of a coal mine 28917 after the development mining has been completed in such section. 28918

(M) "Linear feet," when used to indicate distance between two 28919 points that are not in the same plane, means the length in feet of 28920 the shortest horizontal line that connects two lines projected 28921 vertically upward or downward from the two points. 28922

(N) "Map" means a graphic representation of the location and 28923 size of the existing or proposed items it is made to represent, 28924 accurately drawn according to a given scale. 28925

(O) "Well" means any hole, drilled or bored, or being drilled 28926 or bored, into the earth, whether for the purpose of, or whether 28927 used for: 28928

(1) Producing or extracting any gas or liquid mineral, or 28929 natural or artificial brines, or oil field waters; 28930

(2) Injecting gas into or removing gas from an underground 28931 gas storage reservoir; 28932

(3) Introducing water or other liquid pressure into an oil 28933 bearing sand to recover oil contained in such sand, provided that 28934
"well" does not mean a hole drilled or bored, or being drilled or 28935 bored, into the earth, whether for the purpose of, or whether used 28936 for, producing or extracting potable water to be used as such. 28937

(P) "Testing" means injecting gas into, or storing gas in or 28938 removing gas from, a gas storage reservoir for the sole purpose of 28939 determining whether such reservoir is suitable for use as a gas 28940 storage reservoir. 28941

(Q) "Casing" means a string or strings of pipe commonly 28942 placed in a well. 28943

(R) "Inactivate" means to shut off temporarily all flow of 28944 gas from a well at a point below the horizon of the coal mine that 28945 might be affected by such flow of gas, by means of a plug or other 28946 suitable device or by injecting water, bentonite, or some other 28947 equally nonporous material into the well, or any other method 28948 approved by ~~the mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector. 28949

(S) "Gas storage well inspector" means the gas storage well 28950 inspector in the division. 28951

(T) The verb "open" or the noun "opening," when used in 28952 clauses relating to the time when a coal mine operator intends to 28953 open a new coal mine, or the time when a new coal mine is opened, 28954 or the time of the opening of a new coal mine, or when used in 28955 other similar clauses to convey like meanings, means that time and 28956 condition in the initial development of a new coal mine when the 28957 second opening required by section 1563.14 of the Revised Code is 28958 completed in such mine. 28959

Sec. 1571.012. An applicant for the position of gas storage 28960 well inspector shall register the applicant's name with the chief 28961 of the division of oil and gas resources management and file with 28962

the chief an affidavit as to all matters of fact establishing the 28963 applicant's right to take the examination for that position, a 28964 certificate of good character and temperate habits signed by at 28965 least three reputable citizens of the community in which the 28966 applicant resides, and a certificate from a reputable and 28967 disinterested physician as to the physical condition of the 28968 applicant showing that the applicant is physically capable of 28969 performing the duties of the position. The applicant also shall 28970 present evidence satisfactory to the chief that the applicant has 28971 been a resident and citizen of this state for at least two years 28972 next preceding the date of application. 28973

An applicant shall possess the same qualifications as an 28974 applicant for the position of deputy mine inspector established in 28975 section 1561.12 of the Revised Code. In addition, the applicant 28976 shall have practical knowledge and experience of and in the 28977 operation, location, drilling, maintenance, and abandonment of oil 28978 and gas wells, especially in coal or mineral bearing townships, 28979 and shall have a thorough knowledge of the latest and best method 28980 of plugging and sealing abandoned oil and gas wells. 28981

An applicant for gas storage well inspector shall pass an 28982 examination conducted by the chief to determine the applicant's 28983 fitness to act as gas storage well inspector before being eligible 28984 for appointment. 28985

Sec. 1571.013. (A) The chief of the division of oil and gas 28986 resources management shall conduct examinations for the position 28987 of gas storage well inspector. The chief annually shall provide 28988 for the examination of candidates for appointment as gas storage 28989 well inspector. Special examinations may be held whenever it 28990 becomes necessary to make an appointment of gas storage well 28991 inspector. 28992

28994

(C) The examinations provided for in this section shall be conducted in accordance with rules adopted under section 1571.014 of the Revised Code and conditions prescribed by the chief. 28996
28998

Sec. 1571.014. The chief of the division of oil and gas resources management shall appoint a gas storage well inspector from the eligible list of candidates for that position that is prepared under section 124.24 of the Revised Code. If a vacancy occurs in the position of gas storage well inspector, the chief shall fill the position by selecting a person from that list. 28999
29000
29002
29003
29004

The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary for conducting examinations for the position of gas storage well inspector. 29005
29007

Sec. 1571.02. (A) Any reservoir operator who, on September 9, 1957, is injecting gas into, storing gas in, or removing gas from a reservoir shall within sixty days after such date file with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management a map thereof as described in division (C) of this section, provided that if a reservoir operator is, on September 9, 1957, injecting gas into or storing gas in a reservoir solely for testing, the reservoir operator shall at once file such map with the division. 29008
29009
29011
29012
29013
29015

29017
29019
29020
29021

(C) Each map filed with the division pursuant to this section 29022 shall be prepared by a registered surveyor, registered engineer, 29023 or competent geologist. It shall show both of the following: 29024

(1) The location of the boundary of such reservoir and the 29025 boundary of such reservoir's protective area, and the known fixed 29026 monuments, corner stones, or other permanent markers in such 29027 boundary lines; 29028

(2) The boundary lines of the counties, townships, and 29029 sections or lots that are within the limits of such map, and the 29030 name of each such county and township and the number of each such 29031 section or lot clearly indicated thereon. The legend of the map 29032 shall indicate the stratum or strata in which the gas storage 29033 reservoir is located. 29034

The location of the boundary of the gas storage reservoir as 29035 shown on the map shall be defined by the location of those wells 29036 around the periphery of such reservoir that had no gas production 29037 when drilled into the storage stratum of such reservoir, provided 29038 that if the operator of such reservoir, upon taking into 29039 consideration the number and nature of such wells, the geological 29040 and production knowledge of the storage stratum, its character, 29041 permeability, and distribution, and operating experience, 29042 determines that the location of the boundary of such reservoir 29043 should be differently defined, the reservoir operator may, on such 29044 map, show the boundary of such reservoir to be located at a 29045 location different than the location defined by the location of 29046 those wells around the periphery of such reservoir that had no gas 29047 production when drilled into the storage stratum. 29048

Whenever the operator of a gas storage reservoir determines 29049 that the location of the boundary of such reservoir as shown on 29050 the most recent map thereof on file in the division pursuant to 29051 this section is incorrect, the reservoir operator shall file with 29052 the division an amended map showing the boundary of such reservoir 29053 to be located at the location that the reservoir operator then 29054 considers to be correct. 29055

(D) Each operator of a gas storage reservoir who files with 29056 the division a map as required by this section shall, at the end 29057 of each six-month period following the date of such filing, file 29058 with the division an amended map showing changes, if any, in the 29059 boundary line of such reservoir or of such reservoir's protective 29060 area that have occurred in the six-month period. Nothing in this 29061 division shall be construed to require such a reservoir operator 29062 to file an amended map at the end of any such six-month period if 29063 no such boundary changes have occurred in such period. 29064

An operator of a gas storage reservoir who is required by 29065 this section to file an amended map with the division shall not be 29066 required to so file such an amended map after such time when the 29067 reservoir operator files with the division a map pertaining to 29068 such reservoir, as provided in section 1571.04 of the Revised 29069
Code. 29070

Sec. 1571.03. (A) Every operator of a coal mine who is 29071 required by sections 1563.03 to 1563.05 of the Revised Code, to 29072 file maps of such mine, shall cause to be shown on each of such 29073 maps, in addition to the boundary lines of each tract under which 29074 excavations are likely to be made during the ensuing year, as 29075 referred to in section 1563.03 of the Revised Code: 29076

(1) The boundary of such coal mine in accordance with the 29077 meaning of the term "boundary" ~~when used in referring to the~~ 29078 ~~boundary of a coal mine, and the term "coal mine" as those terms~~ 29079
~~are defined~~ in section 1571.01 of the Revised Code; 29080

(2) The boundary of the mine protective area of such mine. 29081

This division shall not be construed to amend or repeal any 29082 provisions of sections 1563.03 to 1563.05 of the Revised Code, 29083 either by implication or otherwise. 29084

This division is intended only to add to existing statutory requirements pertaining to the filing of coal mine maps with the division of mineral resources management, the requirements established in this division.

(C) Every operator of a coal mine who expects that any part of the boundary of such mine will, on a date after September 9, 1957, be extended beyond its location on such date to a point within two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled through the horizon of such mine and into or through the stratum or strata of a gas storage reservoir within the boundary of such reservoir or within its protective area, shall send at least nine months' notice of such date and of the location of such well by registered mail to the operator of such reservoir, the division of mineral resources management, and ~~to~~ the division of oil and gas resources management. If at the end of three years after the date stated in the notice by an operator of a coal mine to an operator of a storage reservoir as the date upon which part of the boundary of such coal mine is expected to be extended to a point within two thousand linear feet of such well, no part of such coal mine is so extended, the operator of such coal mine shall be liable to the operator of such storage reservoir for all expenses incurred by such reservoir operator in doing the plugging or reconditioning of such well as the reservoir operator is required to do in such cases as provided in section 1571.05 of the Revised Code. Such 29117 mine operator shall in no event be liable to such reservoir 29118 operator: 29119

(1) For expenses of plugging or reconditioning such well 29120 incurred prior to receipt by such reservoir operator from such 29121 mine operator of a notice as provided for in this division; 29122

(2) For any expenses of plugging or reconditioning such well 29123
if any part of the work of plugging or reconditioning was 29124 commenced prior to receipt by such reservoir operator from such 29125
mine operator of a notice as provided for in this division. 29126

(D) If a person intends to open a new coal mine after 29127
September 9, 1957, and if at the time of its opening any part of 29128 the boundary of such mine will be within two thousand linear feet 29129 of a well that is drilled through the horizon of such mine and 29130 into or through the storage stratum or strata of a gas storage 29131 reservoir within the boundary of such reservoir or within its 29132 protective area, such person shall send by registered mail to the 29133 operator of such storage reservoir, the division of mineral 29134 resources management, and ~~to~~ the division of oil and gas resources 29135 management at least nine months' notice of the date upon which the 29136 person intends to open such mine, and of the location of such 29137 well. If at the end of nine months after the date stated in the 29138 notice by an operator of a coal mine to an operator of a storage 29139 reservoir, the division of mineral resources management, and ~~to~~ 29140 the division of oil and gas resources management, as the date upon 29141 which such coal mine operator intends to open such new mine, such 29142 new mine is not opened, the operator of such coal mine shall be 29143 liable to the operator of such storage reservoir for all expenses 29144 incurred by such reservoir operator in doing the plugging or 29145 reconditioning of such well as the reservoir operator is required 29146 to do in such cases as provided in section 1571.05 of the Revised 29147 Code, provided: 29148

(1) That such mine operator may, prior to the end of nine 29149 months after the date stated in such mine operator's notice to 29150 such reservoir operator, the division of mineral resources 29151 management, and the division of oil and gas resources management 29152 as the date upon which the mine operator intended to open such new 29153 mine, notify such reservoir operator, the division of mineral 29154 resources management, and the division of oil and gas resources 29155 management in writing by registered mail, that the opening of such 29156 new mine will be delayed beyond the end of such nine-month period 29157 of time, and that the mine operator requests that a conference be 29158 held as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code for the 29159 purpose of endeavoring to reach an agreement establishing a date 29160 subsequent to the end of such nine-month period of time, on or 29161 before which such mine operator may open such new mine without 29162 being liable to pay such reservoir operator expenses incurred by 29163 such reservoir operator in plugging or reconditioning such well as 29164 in this division provided; 29165

(2) That if such mine operator sends to such reservoir 29166 operator, the division of mineral resources management, and ~~to~~ the 29167 division of oil and gas resources management a notice and request 29168 for a conference as provided in division (D)(1) of this section, 29169 such mine operator shall not be liable to pay such reservoir 29170 operator for expenses incurred by such reservoir operator in 29171 plugging and reconditioning such well, unless such mine operator 29172 fails to open such new mine within the period of time fixed by an 29173 approved agreement reached in such conference, or fixed by an 29174 order by the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 29175 resources management upon a hearing held in the matter in the 29176 event of failure to reach an approved agreement in the 29177 conference~~r~~. After issuing an order under this division, the chief 29178 shall notify the chief of the division of mineral resources 29179 management and send a copy of the order to the chief. 29180

(3) That such mine operator shall in no event be liable to 29181 such reservoir operator: 29182

(a) For expense of plugging or reconditioning such well 29183 incurred prior to the receipt by such reservoir operator from such 29184 mine operator of the notice of the date upon which such mine 29185 operator intends to open such new mine; 29186

(b) For any expense of plugging or reconditioning such well 29187
if any part of the work of plugging or reconditioning was 29188
commenced prior to receipt by such reservoir operator from such 29189 mine operator of such notice. 29190

Sec. 1571.04. (A) Upon the filing of each map or amended map 29191 with the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management by 29192 operators of gas storage reservoirs as required by this chapter, 29193 and each coal mine map with the division of mineral resources 29194 management as required by sections 1563.03 to 1563.05 and division 29195
(A) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, the gas storage well 29196 inspector shall cause an examination to be made of all maps on 29197 file in ~~the division~~ those divisions as the gas storage well 29198 inspector may deem necessary to ascertain whether any part of a 29199 reservoir protective area as shown on any such map is within ten 29200 thousand linear feet of any part of the boundary of a coal mine as 29201 shown on any such map. If, upon making that examination, the gas 29202 storage well inspector finds that any part of such a reservoir 29203 protective area is within ten thousand linear feet of any part of 29204 the boundary of such a coal mine, the gas storage well inspector 29205 shall promptly send by registered mail notice to that effect to 29206 the operator of the reservoir and to the operator of the coal 29207 mine. 29208

(B) Within sixty days after receipt by an operator of a gas 29209 storage reservoir of a notice from the gas storage well inspector 29210 under division (A) of this section, such operator shall file on 29211 the same day with both the division ~~a map~~ of mineral resources 29212 management and the division of oil and gas resources management 29213 identical maps prepared by a registered surveyor, registered 29214 engineer, or competent geologist, which shall do all of the 29215

following: 29216

(1) Indicate the stratum or strata in which such gas storage 29217 reservoir is located; 29218

(2) Show the location of the boundary of the reservoir and 29219 the boundary of its protective area, and the known fixed 29220 monuments, corner stones, or other permanent markers in such 29221
boundary lines; 29222

(3) Show the boundary lines of the counties, townships, and 29223 sections or lots that are within the limits of such maps, and the 29224 name of each such county and township and the number of each such 29225 section or lot clearly indicated thereon; 29226

(4) Show the location of all oil or gas wells known to the 29227 operator of such reservoir that have been drilled within the 29228 boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area, and 29229 indicate which of such wells, if any, have been or are to be 29230 plugged or reconditioned for use in the operation of such 29231 reservoir. 29232

The location of the boundary of the gas storage reservoir as 29233 shown on the maps shall be defined by the location of those wells 29234 around the periphery of the reservoir that had no gas production 29235 when drilled into the storage stratum of the reservoir, provided 29236 that, if the operator of the reservoir, upon taking into 29237 consideration the number and nature of such wells, the geological 29238
and production knowledge of the storage stratum, its character, 29239
permeability, and distribution, and operating experience, 29240 determines that the location of the boundary of the reservoir 29241 should be differently defined, the reservoir operator may, on the 29242 maps, show the boundary of the reservoir to be located at a 29243 location different from the location defined by the location of 29244 those wells around the periphery of the reservoir that had no gas 29245 production when drilled into the storage stratum. 29246

(C) Any coal mine operator who receives from the gas storage 29247 well inspector a copy of a map as provided by division (E) of this 29248 section may request the gas storage well inspector to furnish the 29249 coal mine operator with: 29250

(1) The name of the original operator of any well shown on 29251 such map; 29252

(2) The date drilling of such well was completed; 29253

(3) The total depth of such well; 29254

(4) The depth at which oil or gas was encountered in such 29255 well if it was productive of oil or gas; 29256

(5) The initial rock pressure of such well; 29257

(6) A copy of the log of the driller of such well or other 29258 similar data; 29259

(7) The location of such well in respect to the property 29260 lines of the tract of land on which it is located; 29261

(8) A statement as to whether the well is inactive or active: 29262

(a) If inactive, the date of plugging and other pertinent 29263 data; 29264

(b) If active, whether it is being used for test purposes or 29265 storage purposes; 29266

(9) A statement of the maximum injection pressure 29267 contemplated by the operator of the reservoir shown on such map. 29268

Upon receipt of such a request, the gas storage well 29269 inspector shall promptly furnish the coal mine operator the 29270 information requested. If the information is not ascertainable 29271 from the files in the division of oil and gas resources 29272 management, the gas storage well inspector shall request the 29273 reservoir operator to furnish the division with such information 29274 to the extent that the reservoir operator has knowledge thereof. 29275 Upon receipt of such a request, the reservoir operator shall 29276 promptly furnish such information to the division. Thereupon the 29277 gas storage well inspector shall promptly transmit such 29278 information to the mine operator who requested it. 29279

Whenever the operator of a gas storage reservoir determines 29280 that the location of the boundary of the reservoir as shown on the 29281 most recent map thereof on file in the division pursuant to this 29282 section is incorrect, the reservoir operator shall file with the 29283 division an amended map showing the boundary of the reservoir to 29284 be located at the location that the reservoir operator then 29285 considers to be correct. 29286

(D) Each operator of a gas storage reservoir who files a ~~map~~ 29287 with the division of mineral resources management and the division 29288 of oil and gas resources management maps as required by this 29289 section shall, at the end of each six-month period following the 29290 date of such filing, file with ~~the~~ each division ~~an~~ identical 29291 amended ~~map~~ maps showing changes in the boundary line of the 29292 reservoir or of the reservoir's protective area that have occurred 29293 in the six-month period, and further showing or describing any 29294 other occurrences within that six-month period that cause the most 29295 recent ~~map~~ maps on file and pertaining to the reservoir to no 29296 longer be correct. Nothing in this division shall be construed to 29297 require such a reservoir operator to file an amended map at the 29298 end of any such six-month period if no boundary changes or other 29299 occurrences have occurred in that period. The operator of the 29300 reservoir shall also file with the division of mineral resources 29301 management and the division of oil and gas resources management, 29302 subsequent to the filing of a ~~map~~ maps as provided for in division 29303

(B) of this section, a statement whenever changing the maximum injection pressure is contemplated, stating for each affected well within the boundary of the reservoir or its protective area, the amount of change of injection pressure contemplated. The location or drilling of new wells or the abandonment or reconditioning of wells shall not be considered to be occurrences requiring the filing of an amended map or statement.

(E) Promptly upon the filing with the division of oil and gas resources management of a map or an amended map pertaining to a gas storage reservoir under this section, the gas storage well inspector shall send by registered mail to the operator of the coal mine a part of the boundary of which is within ten thousand linear feet of any part of the boundary of the reservoir or of the outside boundary of the reservoir's protective area, notice of the filing together with a copy of the map.

(F) When the operator of a gas storage reservoir files with the division a map of mineral resources management and the division of oil and gas resources management maps or ~~an~~ amended ~~map~~ maps under this section, the reservoir operator shall file as many copies of the ~~map~~ maps as ~~the~~ each division may require for its files and as are needed for sending a copy to each coal mine operator under division (E) of this section.

Sec. 1571.05. (A) Whenever any part of a gas storage reservoir or any part of its protective area underlies any part of a coal mine, or is, or within nine months is expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of the boundary of a coal mine that is operating in a coal seam any part of which extends over any part of the storage reservoir or its protective area, the operator of the reservoir, if the reservoir operator or some other reservoir operator has not theretofore done so, shall:

(1) Use every known method that is reasonable under the circumstance for discovering and locating all wells drilled within 29335 the area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 29336 part of the coal mine or its protective area; 29337

(2) Plug or recondition all known wells drilled within the 29338 area of the reservoir or its protective area that underlie any 29339 part of the coal mine. 29340

(B) Whenever an operator of a gas storage reservoir is 29341 notified by the operator of a coal mine, as provided in division 29342 (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, that the coal mine 29343 operator believes that part of the boundary of the mine is within 29344 two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled through the 29345 horizon of the coal mine and into or through the storage stratum 29346 or strata of the reservoir within the boundary of the reservoir or 29347 within its protective area, the reservoir operator shall plug or 29348 recondition the well as in this section prescribed, unless it is 29349 agreed in a conference or is ordered by the chief of the division 29350 of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management after a hearing, as 29351 provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, that the well 29352 referred to in the notice is not such a well as is described in 29353 division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code. 29354

Whenever an operator of a gas storage reservoir is notified 29355 by the operator of a coal mine as provided in division (C) or (D) 29356 of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, that part of the boundary 29357 of the mine is, or within nine months is intended or expected to 29358 be, within two thousand linear feet of a well that is drilled 29359 through the horizon of the mine and into or through the storage 29360 stratum or strata of the reservoir within the boundary of the 29361 reservoir or within its protective area, the reservoir operator 29362 shall plug or recondition the well as in this section prescribed. 29363

Whenever the operator of a coal mine considers that the use 29364 of a well such as in this section described, if used for injecting 29365 gas into, or storing gas in, or removing gas from, a gas storage 29366 reservoir, would be hazardous to the safety of persons or property 29367 on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine or the 29368 reservoir or well, the coal mine operator may file with the 29369 division objections to the use of the well for such purposes, and 29370 a request that a conference be held as provided in section 1571.10 29371 of the Revised Code, to discuss and endeavor to resolve by mutual 29372 agreement whether or not the well shall or shall not be used for 29373 such purposes, and whether or not the well shall be reconditioned, 29374 inactivated, or plugged. The request shall set forth the mine 29375 operator's reasons for such objections. If no approved agreement 29376 is reached in the conference, the gas storage well inspector shall 29377 within ten days after the termination of the conference, file with 29378 the chief a request that the chief hear and determine the matters 29379 considered at the conference as provided in section 1571.10 of the 29380 Revised Code. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the chief shall find 29381 and determine whether or not the safety of persons or of the 29382 property on or in the vicinity of the premises of the coal mine, 29383 or the reservoir, or the well requires that the well be 29384 reconditioned, inactivated, or plugged, and shall make an order 29385 consistent with that determination, provided that the chief shall 29386 not order a well plugged unless the chief first finds that there 29387 is underground leakage of gas therefrom. 29388

The plugging or reconditioning of each well described in a 29389 notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir operator as 29390 provided in division (B) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, 29391 which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be completed within 29392 such time as the gas storage well inspector may fix in the case of 29393 each such well. The plugging or reconditioning of each well 29394 described in a notice from a coal mine operator to a reservoir 29395 operator as provided in division (C) of section 1571.03 of the 29396 Revised Code, which must be plugged or reconditioned, shall be 29397 completed by the time the well, by reason of the extension of the 29398 boundary of the coal mine, is within two thousand linear feet of 29399 any part of the boundary of the mine. The plugging or 29400 reconditioning of each well described in a notice from a coal mine 29401 operator to a reservoir operator, as provided in division (D) of 29402 section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, which must be plugged or 29403 reconditioned, shall be completed by the time the well, by reason 29404 of the opening of the new mine, is within two thousand linear feet 29405 of any part of the boundary of the new mine. A reservoir operator 29406 who is required to complete the plugging or reconditioning of a 29407 well within a period of time fixed as in this division prescribed, 29408 may prior to the end of that period of time, notify the division 29409 and the mine operator from whom the reservoir operator received a 29410 notice as provided in division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 29411 of the Revised Code, in writing by registered mail, that the 29412 completion of the plugging or reconditioning of the well referred 29413 to in the notice will be delayed beyond the end of the period of 29414 time fixed therefor as in this section provided, and that the 29415 reservoir operator requests that a conference be held for the 29416 purpose of endeavoring to reach an agreement establishing a date 29417 subsequent to the end of that period of time, on or before which 29418 the reservoir operator may complete the plugging or reconditioning 29419 without incurring any penalties for failure to do so as provided 29420 in this chapter. If such a reservoir operator sends to such a mine 29421 operator and to the division a notice and request for a conference 29422 as in this division provided, the reservoir operator shall not 29423 incur any penalties for failure to complete the plugging or 29424 reconditioning of the well within the period of time fixed as in 29425 this division prescribed, unless the reservoir operator fails to 29426 complete the plugging or reconditioning of the well within the 29427 period of time fixed by an approved agreement reached in the 29428 conference, or fixed by an order by the chief upon a hearing held 29429 in the matter in the event of failure to reach an approved 29430 agreement in the conference. 29431

Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be 29432 plugged by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to the 29433 division notice thereof, as many days in advance as will be 29434 necessary for the gas storage well inspector or a deputy mine 29435 inspector to be present at the plugging. The notification shall be 29436 made on blanks furnished by the division and shall show the 29437

following information: 29438

(1) Name and address of the applicant; 29439

(2) The location of the well identified by section or lot 29440 number, city or village, and township and county; 29441

(3) The well name and number of each well to be plugged. 29442

(C) The operator shall give written notice at the same time 29443 to the owner of the land upon which the well is located, the 29444 owners or agents of the adjoining land, and adjoining well owners 29445 or agents of the operator's intention to abandon the well, and of 29446 the time when the operator will be prepared to commence plugging 29447 and filling the same. In addition to giving such notices, the 29448 reservoir operator shall also at the same time send a copy of the 29449 notice by registered mail to the coal mine operator, if any, who 29450 sent to the reservoir operator the notice as provided in division 29451 (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, in order 29452 that the coal mine operator or the coal mine operator's designated 29453 representative may attend and observe the manner in which the 29454 plugging of the well is done. 29455

If the reservoir operator plugs the well without ~~an~~ the gas 29456 storage well inspector ~~from the division~~ or a deputy mine 29457 inspector being present to supervise the plugging, the reservoir 29458 operator shall send to the division and to the coal mine operator 29459 a copy of the report of the plugging of the well, including in the 29460
report: 29461

(1) The date of abandonment; 29462

(2) The name of the owner or operator of the well at the time 29463 of abandonment and the well owner's or operator's post office	29464

address;	29465
(3) The location of the well as to township and county and	29466
the name of the owner of the surface upon which the well is	29467 drilled, with the address thereof;	29468
(4) The date of the permit to drill;	29469
(5) The date when drilled;	29470
(6) Whether the well has been mapped;	29471
(7) The depth of the well;	29472
(8) The depth of the top of the sand to which the well was	29473
drilled;	29474
(9) The depth of each seam of coal drilled through;	29475
(10) A detailed report as to how the well was plugged, giving	29476 in particular the manner in which the coal and various sands were	29477 plugged, and the date of the plugging of the well, including	29478 therein the names of those who witnessed the plugging of the well.	29479
The report shall be signed by the operator or the operator's	29480 agent who plugged the well and verified by the oath of the party	29481 so signing. For the purposes of this section, a deputy mine	29482 inspector may take acknowledgements and administer oaths to the	29483 parties signing the report.	29484
Whenever, in compliance with this division, a well is to be	29485
reconditioned by a reservoir operator, the operator shall give to	29486
the division notice thereof as many days before the reconditioning	29487 is begun as will be necessary for the gas storage well inspector,	29488
or a deputy mine inspector, to be present at the reconditioning.	29489
No well shall be reconditioned if an inspector of the division is	29490 not present unless permission to do so has been granted by the	29491 chief. The reservoir operator, at the time of giving notice to the	29492 division as in this section required, also shall send a copy of	29493

the notice by registered mail to the coal mine operator, if any, 29494 who sent to the reservoir operator the notice as provided in 29495 division (B), (C), or (D) of section 1571.03 of the Revised Code, 29496 in order that the coal mine operator or the coal mine operator's 29497 designated representative may attend and observe the manner in 29498 which the reconditioning of the well is done. 29499

If the reservoir operator reconditions the well when ~~no~~ the 29500 gas storage well inspector ~~of the division~~ or a deputy mine 29501 inspector is not present to supervise the reconditioning, the 29502 reservoir operator shall make written report to the division 29503 describing the manner in which the reconditioning was done, and 29504 shall send to the coal mine operator a copy of the report by 29505 registered mail. 29506

(D) Wells that are required by this section to be plugged 29507 shall be plugged in the manner specified in sections 1509.13 to 29508 1509.17 of the Revised Code, and the operator shall give the 29509 notifications and reports required by divisions (B) and (C) of 29510 this section. No such well shall be plugged or abandoned without 29511 the written approval of the division, and no such well shall be 29512 mudded, plugged, or abandoned without the gas storage well 29513 inspector or a deputy mine inspector present unless written 29514 permission has been granted by the chief or the gas storage well 29515 inspector. For purposes of this section, the chief of the division 29516 of mineral resources management has the authority given the chief 29517 of the division of oil and gas resources management in sections 29518 1509.15 and 1509.17 of the Revised Code. If such a well has been 29519 plugged prior to the time plugging thereof is required by this 29520 section, and, on the basis of the data, information, and other 29521 evidence available it is determined that the plugging was done in 29522 the manner required by this section, or was done in accordance 29523 with statutes prescribing the manner of plugging wells in effect 29524 at the time the plugging was done, and that there is no evidence 29525 of leakage of gas from the well either at or below the surface, 29526 and that the plugging is sufficiently effective to prevent the 29527 leakage of gas from the well, the obligations imposed upon the 29528 reservoir operator by this section as to plugging the well shall 29529 be considered fully satisfied. The operator of a coal mine any 29530 part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months is 29531 expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of the 29532 well may at any time raise a question as to whether the plugging 29533 of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent the leakage of 29534 gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall be determined by a 29535 conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the 29536

Revised Code. 29537

(E) Wells that are to be reconditioned as required by this 29538 section shall be, or shall be made to be: 29539

(1) Cased in accordance with the statutes of this state in 29540 effect at the time the wells were drilled, with the casing being, 29541 or made to be, sufficiently effective in that there is no evidence 29542 of any leakage of gas therefrom; 29543

(2) Equipped with a producing string and well head composed 29544 of new pipe, or pipe as good as new, and fittings designed to 29545 operate with safety and to contain the stored gas at maximum 29546 pressures contemplated. 29547

When a well that is to be reconditioned as required by this 29548 section has been reconditioned for use in the operation of the 29549 reservoir prior to the time prescribed in this section, and on the 29550 basis of the data, information, and other evidence available it is 29551 determined that at the time the well was so reconditioned the 29552 requirements prescribed in this division were met, and that there 29553 is no evidence of underground leakage of gas from the well, and 29554 that the reconditioning is sufficiently effective to prevent 29555 underground leakage from the well, the obligations imposed upon 29556 the reservoir operator by this section as to reconditioning the 29557 well shall be considered fully satisfied. Any operator of a coal 29558 mine any part of the boundary of which is, or within nine months 29559 is expected or intended to be, within two thousand linear feet of 29560 the well may at any time raise a question as to whether the 29561 reconditioning of the well is sufficiently effective to prevent 29562 underground leakage of gas therefrom, and the issue so made shall 29563 be determined by a conference or hearing as provided in section 29564

1571.10 of the Revised Code. 29565

If the gas storage well inspector at any time finds that a 29566 well that is drilled through the horizon of a coal mine and into 29567 or through the storage stratum or strata of a reservoir within the 29568 boundary of the reservoir or within its protective area is located 29569 within the boundary of the coal mine or within two thousand linear 29570 feet of the mine boundary, and was drilled prior to the time the 29571 statutes of this state required that wells be cased, and that the 29572 well fails to meet the casing and equipping requirements 29573 prescribed in this division, the gas storage well inspector shall 29574 promptly notify the operator of the reservoir thereof in writing, 29575 and the reservoir operator upon receipt of the notice shall 29576 promptly recondition the well in the manner prescribed in this 29577 division for reconditioning wells, unless, in a conference or 29578 hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, a 29579 different course of action is agreed upon or ordered. 29580

(F)(1) When a well within the boundary of a gas storage 29581 reservoir or within the reservoir's protective area penetrates the 29582 storage stratum or strata of the reservoir, but does not penetrate 29583 the coal seam within the boundary of a coal mine, the gas storage 29584 well inspector may, upon application of the operator of the 29585 storage reservoir, exempt the well from the requirements of this 29586 section. Either party affected by the action of the gas storage 29587 well inspector may request a conference and hearing with respect 29588 to the exemption. 29589

(2) When a well located within the boundary of a storage reservoir or a reservoir's protective area is a producing well in a stratum above or below the storage stratum, the obligations imposed by this section shall not begin until the well ceases to be a producing well.

(G) When retreat mining reaches a point in a coal mine when the operator of the mine expects that within ninety days retreat work will be at the location of a pillar surrounding an active storage reservoir well, the operator of the mine shall promptly send by registered mail notice to that effect to the operator of the reservoir. Thereupon the operators may by agreement determine whether it is necessary or advisable to temporarily inactivate the well. If inactivated, the well shall not be reactivated until a reasonable period of time has elapsed, such period of time to be determined by agreement by the operators. In the event that the parties cannot agree upon either of the foregoing matters, the question shall be submitted to the gas storage well inspector for a conference in accordance with section 1571.10 of the Revised Code.

(H)(1) The provisions of this section that require the plugging or reconditioning of wells shall not apply to such wells as are used to inject gas into, store gas in, or remove gas from a gas storage reservoir when the sole purpose of the injection, storage, or removal is testing. The operator of a gas storage reservoir who injects gas into, stores gas in, or removes gas from a reservoir for the sole purpose of testing shall be subject to all other provisions of this chapter that are applicable to operators of reservoirs.

the sole purpose of testing, the operator of the reservoir shall 29622 send by registered mail to the operator of the coal mine, the 29623 division of oil and gas resources management, and ~~to~~ the division 29624 of mineral resources management at least sixty days' notice of the 29625 date upon which the testing will be begun. 29626

If at any time within the period of time during which testing 29627 of a reservoir is in progress, any part of the reservoir or of its 29628 protective area comes within any part of the boundary of a coal 29629 mine, the operator of the reservoir shall promptly send notice to 29630 that effect by registered mail to the operator of the mine, the 29631 division of oil and gas resources management, and ~~to~~ the division 29632 of mineral resources management. 29633

(3) Any coal mine operator who receives a notice as provided 29634 for in division (H)(2) of this section may within thirty days of 29635 the receipt thereof file with the division objections to the 29636 testing. The gas storage well inspector also may, within the time 29637 within which a coal mine operator may file an objection, place in 29638 the files of the division objections to the testing. The reservoir 29639 operator shall comply throughout the period of the testing 29640 operations with all conditions and requirements agreed upon and 29641 approved in the conference on such objections conducted as 29642 provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code, or in an order 29643 made by the chief following a hearing in the matter as provided in 29644 section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. If in complying with the 29645 agreement or order either the reservoir operator or the coal mine 29646 operator encounters or discovers conditions that were not known to 29647 exist at the time of the conference or hearing and that materially 29648 affect the agreement or order, or the ability of the reservoir 29649 operator to comply therewith, either operator may apply for a 29650 rehearing or modification of the order. 29651

(I) In addition to complying with all other provisions of 29652 this chapter and any lawful orders issued thereunder, the operator 29653 of each gas storage reservoir shall keep all wells drilled into or 29654 through the storage stratum or strata within the boundary of the 29655 operator's reservoir or within the reservoir's protective area in 29656 such condition, and operate the same in such manner, as to prevent 29657 the escape of gas therefrom into any coal mine, and shall operate 29658 and maintain the storage reservoir and its facilities in such 29659 manner and at such pressures as will prevent gas from escaping 29660 from the reservoir or its facilities into any coal mine. 29661

Sec. 1571.06. (A) Distances between boundaries of gas storage 29662 reservoirs, reservoir protective areas, coal mines, coal mine 29663 protective areas, and wells, as shown on the most recent maps of 29664 storage reservoirs and of coal mines filed with the division of 29665 oil and gas resources management or the division of mineral 29666 resources management as required by this chapter and sections 29667 1563.03 to 1563.05 of the Revised Code, may be accepted and relied 29668 upon as being accurate and correct, by operators of coal mines and 29669 operators of reservoirs. Data, statements, and reports filed with 29670
~~the~~ either division as required by this chapter and sections 29671 1563.03 to 1563.05 of the Revised Code may be likewise accepted 29672 and relied upon. However, the gas storage well inspector or any 29673 reservoir operator or coal mine operator, or any other person 29674 having a direct interest in the matter, may at any time question 29675 the accuracy or correctness of any map, data, statement, or report 29676 so filed, with ~~the~~ either division by notifying ~~the division~~ both 29677 divisions thereof in writing. Such notice shall state the reasons 29678 why the question is raised. When any such notice is so filed, the 29679 gas storage well inspector shall proceed promptly to hold a 29680 conference on the question thus raised, as provided in section 29681
1571.10 of the Revised Code. 29682

(B) If, in any proceeding under this chapter, the accuracy or 29683 correctness of any map, data, statement, or report, filed by any 29684 person pursuant to the requirements of this chapter is in 29685 question, the person so filing the same shall have the burden of 29686 proving the accuracy or correctness thereof. 29687

(C) The operator of a gas storage reservoir shall, at all 29688 reasonable times, be permitted to inspect the premises and 29689 facilities of any coal mine any part of the boundary of which is 29690 within any part of the boundary of such gas storage reservoir or 29691 within its protective area, and the operator of a coal mine shall, 29692 at all reasonable times, be permitted to inspect the premises and 29693 facilities of any gas storage reservoir any part of the boundary 29694 of which or any part of the protective area of which is within the 29695 boundary of such coal mine. In the event that either such 29696 reservoir operator or such coal mine operator denies permission to 29697 make any such inspection, the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil 29698 and gas resources management on the chief's own motion, or on an 29699 application by the operator desiring to make such inspection, upon 29700 a hearing thereon if requested by either operator, after 29701 reasonable notice of such hearing, may make an order providing for 29702 such inspection. 29703

Sec. 1571.08. (A) Whenever in this chapter, the method or 29704 material to be used in discharging any obligations imposed by this 29705 chapter is specified, an alternative method or material may be 29706 used if approved by the gas storage well inspector or the chief of 29707 the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management. A person 29708 desiring to use such alternative method or material shall file 29709 with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management an 29710 application for permission to do so. Such application shall 29711 describe such alternative method or material in reasonable detail. 29712
The gas storage well inspector shall promptly send by registered 29713 mail notice of the filing of such application to any coal mine 29714 operator or reservoir operator whose mine or reservoir may be 29715 directly affected thereby. Any such coal mine operator or 29716 reservoir operator may within ten days following receipt of such 29717 notice, file with the division objections to such application. The 29718 gas storage well inspector may also file with the division an 29719 objection to such application at any time during which coal mine 29720 operators or reservoir operators are permitted to file objections. 29721

If no objections are filed within the ten-day period of time, the 29722 gas storage well inspector shall thereupon issue a permit 29723 approving the use of such alternative method or material. If any 29724 such objections are filed by any coal mine operator or reservoir 29725 operator, or by the gas storage well inspector, the question as to 29726 whether or not the use of such alternative method or material, or 29727 a modification thereof is approved, shall be determined by a 29728 conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the 29729
Revised Code. 29730

(B) Whenever in this chapter, provision is made for the 29731 filing of objections with the division, such objections shall be 29732 in writing and shall state as definitely as is reasonably possible 29733 the reasons for such objections. Upon the filing of any such 29734 objection the gas storage well inspector shall promptly fix the 29735 time and place for holding a conference for the purpose of 29736 discussing and endeavoring to resolve by mutual agreement the 29737 issue raised by such objection. The gas storage well inspector 29738 shall send written notice thereof by registered mail to each 29739 person having a direct interest therein. Thereupon the issue made 29740 by such objection shall be determined by a conference or hearing 29741 in accordance with the procedures for conferences and hearings as 29742
provided in section 1571.10 of the Revised Code. 29743

Sec. 1571.09. (A) The chief of the division of mineral oil 29744 and gas resources management or any officer or employee of the 29745 division thereunto duly authorized by the chief may investigate, 29746 inspect, or examine records and facilities of any coal mine 29747 operator or reservoir operator, for the purpose of determining the 29748 accuracy or correctness of any map, data, statement, report, or 29749 other item or article, filed with or otherwise received by the 29750 division pursuant to this chapter. When a material question is 29751 raised by any reservoir operator or coal mine operator as to the 29752 accuracy or correctness of any such map, data, statement, report, 29753 or other item or article, which may directly affect the reservoir 29754 operator or coal mine operator, the matter shall be determined by 29755 a conference or hearing as provided in section 1571.10 of the 29756

Revised Code. 29757

(B) The division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management 29758 shall keep all maps, data, statements, reports, well logs, 29759 notices, or other items or articles filed with or otherwise 29760 received by it pursuant to this chapter in a safe place and 29761 conveniently accessible to persons entitled to examine them. It 29762 shall maintain indexes of all such items and articles so that any 29763 of them may be promptly located. None of such items or articles 29764 shall be open to public inspection, but: (1) any of such items or 29765 articles pertaining to a mine may be examined by: the operator, 29766 owner, lessee, or agent of such mine; persons financially 29767 interested in such mine; owners of land adjoining such mine; the 29768 operator, owner, lessee, or agent of a mine adjoining such mine; 29769 authorized representatives of the persons employed to work in such 29770 mine; the operator of a gas storage reservoir any part of the 29771 boundary of which or of the boundary of its protective area is 29772 within ten thousand linear feet of the boundary of such mine, or 29773 the agent of such reservoir operator thereunto authorized by such 29774 reservoir operator; or any employee of the division of geological 29775 survey in the department of natural resources thereunto duly 29776 authorized by the chief of that division; and (2) any of such 29777 items or articles pertaining to a gas storage reservoir may be 29778 examined by: the operator of such reservoir; the operator of a 29779 coal mine any part of the boundary of which is within ten thousand 29780 linear feet of the boundary of a gas storage reservoir or of the 29781 boundary of its protective area, or the agent of such mine 29782 operator thereunto authorized by such mine operator, or the 29783 authorized representatives of the persons employed to work in such 29784 mine; or any employee of the division of geological survey 29785 thereunto duly authorized by the chief of that division. The 29786 division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management shall not 29787 permit any of such items or articles to be removed from its 29788 office, and it shall not furnish copies of any such items or 29789 articles to any person other than as provided in this chapter. 29790

The division shall keep a docket of all proceedings arising 29791 under this chapter, in which shall be entered the dates of any 29792 notice received or issued, the names of all persons to whom it 29793 sends a notice, and the address of each, the dates of conferences 29794 and hearings, and all findings, determinations, decisions, 29795 rulings, and orders, or other actions by the division. 29796

(C) Whenever any provision of this chapter requires the 29797 division to give notice to the operator of a coal mine of any 29798 proceeding to be held pursuant to this chapter, the division shall 29799 simultaneously give a copy of such notice to the authorized 29800 representatives of the persons employed to work in such mine. 29801

Sec. 1571.10. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 29802 person having a direct interest in the administration of this 29803 chapter may at any time file with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and 29804 gas resources management a written request that a conference be 29805 held for the purpose of discussing and endeavoring to resolve by 29806 mutual agreement any question or issue relating to the 29807 administration of this chapter, or to compliance with its 29808 provisions, or to any violation thereof. Such request shall 29809 describe the matter concerning which the conference is requested. 29810 Thereupon the gas storage well inspector shall promptly fix the 29811 time and place for the holding of such conference and shall send 29812 written notice thereof to each person having a direct interest 29813 therein. At such conference the gas storage well inspector or a 29814 representative of the division designated by the gas storage well 29815 inspector shall be in attendance, and shall preside at the 29816 conference, and the gas storage well inspector or designated 29817 representative may make such recommendations as the gas storage 29818 well inspector or designated representative deems proper. Any 29819 agreement reached at such conference shall be consistent with the 29820 requirements of this chapter and, if approved by the gas storage 29821 well inspector, it shall be reduced to writing and shall be 29822 effective. Any such agreement approved by the gas storage well 29823 inspector shall be kept on file in the division and a copy thereof 29824 shall be furnished to each of the persons having a direct interest 29825 therein. The conference shall be deemed terminated as of the date 29826 an approved agreement is reached or when any person having a 29827 direct interest therein refuses to confer thereafter. Such a 29828 conference shall be held in all cases prior to the holding of a 29829 hearing as provided in this section. 29830

(B) Within ten days after the termination of a conference at 29831 which no approved agreement is reached, any person who 29832 participated in such conference and who has a direct interest in 29833 the subject matter thereof, or the gas storage well inspector, may 29834 file with the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 29835 resources management a request that the chief hear and determine 29836 the matter or matters, or any part thereof considered at the 29837 conference. Thereupon the chief shall promptly fix the time and 29838 place for the holding of such hearing and shall send written 29839 notice thereof to each person having a direct interest therein. 29840
The form of the request for such hearing and the conduct of the 29841 hearing shall be in accordance with rules that the chief adopts 29842 under section 1571.11 of the Revised Code. Consistent with the 29843 requirement for reasonable notice each such hearing shall be held 29844 promptly after the filing of the request therefor. Any person 29845 having a direct interest in the matter to be heard shall be 29846 entitled to appear and be heard in person or by attorney. The 29847 division may present at such hearing any evidence that is material 29848 to the matter being heard and that has come to the division's 29849 attention in any investigation or inspection made pursuant to this 29850

chapter. 29851

(C) For the purpose of conducting such a hearing the chief 29852 may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of 29853 books, records, and papers, and the chief may, and at the request 29854 of any person having a direct interest in the matter being heard, 29855 the chief shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or subpoenas duces 29856 tecum to compel the production of any books, records, or papers, 29857 directed to the sheriffs of the counties where such witnesses are 29858 found, which subpoenas shall be served and returned in the same 29859 manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are served and returned. The 29860 fees of sheriffs shall be the same as those allowed by the court 29861 of common pleas in criminal cases. Witnesses shall be paid the 29862 fees and mileage provided for under section 119.094 of the Revised 29863 Code. Such fee and mileage expenses shall be paid in advance by 29864 the persons at whose request they are incurred, and the remainder 29865 of such expenses shall be paid out of funds appropriated for the 29866 expenses of the division. 29867

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 29868
any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 29869
regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 29870
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 29871 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 29872
of the chief, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings for 29873 contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a 29874 subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 29875 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the chief 29876 may administer oaths or affirmations to persons who so testify. 29877

(D) With the consent of the chief, the testimony of any 29878 witness may be taken by deposition at the instance of a party to 29879 any hearing before the chief at any time after hearing has been 29880 formally commenced. The chief may, of the chief's own motion, 29881 order testimony to be taken by deposition at any stage in any 29882 hearing, proceeding, or investigation pending before the chief. 29883 Such deposition shall be taken in the manner prescribed by the 29884 laws of this state for taking depositions in civil cases in courts 29885 of record. 29886

(E) After the conclusion of a hearing the chief shall make a 29887 determination and finding of facts. Every adjudication, 29888 determination, or finding by the chief shall be made by written 29889 order and shall contain a written finding by the chief of the 29890 facts upon which the adjudication, determination, or finding is 29891 based. Notice of the making of such order shall be given to the 29892 persons whose rights, duties, or privileges are affected thereby, 29893 by sending a certified copy thereof by registered mail to each of 29894 such persons. 29895

Adjudications, determinations, findings, and orders made by 29896 the chief shall not be governed by, or be subject to, Chapter 119. 29897
of the Revised Code. 29898

Sec. 1571.11. The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 29899 gas resources management shall adopt rules governing 29900 administrative procedures to be followed in the administration of 29901 this chapter, which shall be of general application in all matters 29902 and to all persons affected by this chapter. 29903

No rule adopted by the chief pursuant to this section shall 29904 be effective until the tenth day after a certified copy thereof 29905 has been filed in the office of the secretary of state. 29906

All rules filed in the office of the secretary of state 29907 pursuant to this section shall be recorded by the secretary of 29908 state under a heading entitled "Regulations relating to the 29909 storage of gas in underground gas storage reservoirs" and shall be 29910 numbered consecutively under such heading and shall bear the date 29911 of filing. Such rules shall be public records open to public 29912

inspection. 29913

No rule filed in the office of the secretary of state 29914 pursuant to this section shall be amended except by a rule that 29915 contains the entire rule as amended and that repeals the rule 29916 amended. Each rule that amends a rule shall bear the same 29917 consecutive rule number as the number of the rule that it amends, 29918 and it shall bear the date of filing. 29919

No rule filed in the office of the secretary of state 29920 pursuant to this section shall be repealed except by a rule. Each 29921 rule that repeals a rule shall bear the same consecutive rule 29922 number as the number of the rule that it repeals, and it shall 29923 bear the date of filing. 29924

The authority and the duty of the chief to adopt rules as 29925 provided in this section shall not be governed by, or be subject 29926 to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 29927

The chief shall have available at all times copies of all 29928 rules adopted pursuant to this section, and shall furnish same 29929 free of charge to any person requesting same. 29930

Sec. 1571.14. Any person claiming to be aggrieved or 29931 adversely affected by an order of the chief of the division of 29932 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management made as provided in 29933 section 1571.10 or 1571.16 of the Revised Code may appeal to the 29934 director of natural resources for an order vacating or modifying 29935 such order. Upon receipt of the appeal, the director shall appoint 29936 an individual who has knowledge of the laws and rules regarding 29937 the underground storage of gas and who shall act as a hearing 29938 officer in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code in 29939 hearing the appeal. 29940

The person appealing to the director shall be known as 29941 appellant and the chief shall be known as appellee. The appellant 29942 and the appellee shall be deemed parties to the appeal. 29943

The appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the order 29944 complained of and the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The 29945 appeal shall be filed with the director within thirty days after 29946 the date upon which appellant received notice by registered mail 29947 of the making of the order complained of, as required by section 29948 1571.10 of the Revised Code. Notice of the filing of such appeal 29949 shall be delivered by appellant to the chief within three days 29950 after the appeal is filed with the director. 29951

Within seven days after receipt of the notice of appeal the 29952 chief shall prepare and certify to the director at the expense of 29953 appellant a complete transcript of the proceedings out of which 29954 the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony 29955 submitted to the chief. 29956

Upon the filing of the appeal the director shall fix the time 29957 and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be held, and 29958 shall give appellant and the chief at least ten days' written 29959 notice thereof by mail. The director may postpone or continue any 29960 hearing upon the director's own motion or upon application of 29961 appellant or of the chief. 29962

The filing of an appeal provided for in this section does not 29963 automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 29964 from, but upon application by the appellant the director may 29965 suspend or stay such execution pending determination of the appeal 29966 upon such terms as the director deems proper. 29967

The hearing officer appointed by the director shall hear the 29968 appeal de novo, and either party to the appeal may submit such 29969 evidence as the hearing officer deems admissible. 29970

For the purpose of conducting a hearing on an appeal, the 29971 hearing officer may require the attendance of witnesses and the 29972 production of books, records, and papers, and may, and at the 29973 request of any party shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or 29974 subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of any books, 29975

records, or papers, directed to the sheriffs of the counties where 29976 such witnesses are found, which subpoenas shall be served and 29977 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 29978
served and returned. The fees of sheriffs shall be the same as 29979
those allowed by the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 29980
Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 29981 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fee and mileage expenses 29982 incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in advance by 29983 appellant, and the remainder of such expenses shall be paid out of 29984 funds appropriated for the expenses of the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 29985 and gas resources management. 29986

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 29987
any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 29988
regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 29989
court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 29990 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 29991 of the director, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 29992 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 29993
a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 29994 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the 29995 hearing officer may administer oaths or affirmations to persons 29996 who so testify. 29997

At the request of any party to the appeal, a stenographic or 29998
electronic record of the testimony and other evidence submitted 29999 shall be taken by an official court ~~shorthand~~ reporter at the 30000 expense of the party making the request ~~therefor~~ for the record. 30001
The record shall include all of the testimony and other evidence 30002
and the rulings on the admissibility thereof presented at the 30003 hearing. The hearing officer shall pass upon the admissibility of 30004 evidence, but any party may at the time object to the admission of 30005 any evidence and except to the ruling of the hearing officer 30006 thereon, and if the hearing officer refuses to admit evidence, the 30007 party offering same may make a proffer thereof, and such proffer 30008 shall be made a part of the record of such hearing. 30009

If upon completion of the hearing the hearing officer finds 30010 that the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, the 30011 hearing officer shall make a written order affirming the order 30012 appealed from. If the hearing officer finds that such order was 30013 unreasonable or unlawful, the hearing officer shall make a written 30014 order vacating the order appealed from and making the order that 30015 it finds the chief should have made. Every order made by the 30016 hearing officer shall contain a written finding by the hearing 30017 officer of the facts upon which the order is based. Notice of the 30018 making of such order shall be given forthwith to each party to the 30019 appeal by mailing a certified copy thereof to each such party by 30020 registered mail. 30021

Sec. 1571.16. (A) The gas storage well inspector or any 30022 person having a direct interest in the subject matter of this 30023 chapter may file with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 30024 resources management a complaint in writing stating that a person 30025 is violating, or is about to violate, a provision or provisions of 30026 this chapter, or has done, or is about to do, an act, matter, or 30027 thing therein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has 30028 failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, 30029 neglect, or refuse, to perform a duty enjoined upon the person by 30030 this chapter. Upon the filing of such a complaint, the chief of 30031
the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management shall 30032 promptly fix the time for the holding of a hearing on such 30033 complaint and shall send by registered mail to the person so 30034 complained of, a copy of such complaint together with at least 30035 five days' notice of the time and place at which such hearing will 30036 be held. Such notice of such hearing shall also be given to all 30037 persons having a direct interest in the matters complained of in 30038 such complaint. Such hearing shall be conducted in the same 30039 manner, and the chief and persons having a direct interest in the 30040 matter being heard, shall have the same powers, rights, and duties 30041 as provided in divisions (B), (C), (D), and (E) of section 1571.10 30042 of the Revised Code, in connection with hearings by the chief, 30043 provided that if after conclusion of the hearing the chief finds 30044 that the charges against the person complained of, as stated in 30045 such complaint, have not been sustained by a preponderance of 30046 evidence, the chief shall make an order dismissing the complaint, 30047 and if the chief finds that the charges have been so sustained, 30048 the chief shall by appropriate order require compliance with those 30049 provisions. 30050

(B) Whenever the chief is of the opinion that any person is 30051 violating, or is about to violate, any provision of this chapter, 30052 or has done, or is about to do, any act, matter, or thing therein 30053 prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or has failed, omitted, 30054 neglected, or refused, or is about to fail, omit, neglect, or 30055 refuse, to perform any duty enjoined upon the person by this 30056 chapter, or has failed, omitted, neglected, or refused, or is 30057 about to fail, omit, neglect, or refuse, to obey any lawful 30058 requirement or order made by the chief, or any final judgment, 30059 order, or decree made by any court pursuant to this chapter, then 30060 and in every such case, the chief may institute in a court of 30061 competent jurisdiction of the county or counties wherein the 30062 operation is situated, an action to enjoin or restrain such 30063 violations or to enforce obedience with law or the orders of the 30064 chief. No injunction bond shall be required to be filed in any 30065 such proceeding. Such persons or corporations as the court may 30066 deem necessary or proper to be joined as parties in order to make 30067 its judgment, order, or writ effective may be joined as parties. 30068

An appeal may be taken as in other civil actions. 30069

(C) In addition to the other remedies as provided in 30070 divisions (A) and (B) of this section, any reservoir operator or 30071 coal mine operator affected by this chapter may proceed by 30072 injunction or other appropriate remedy to restrain violations or 30073 threatened violations of this chapter or of orders of the chief, 30074 or of the hearing officer appointed under section 1571.14 of the 30075 Revised Code, or the judgments, orders, or decrees of any court or 30076 to enforce obedience therewith. 30077

(D) Each remedy prescribed in divisions (A), (B), and (C) of 30078 this section is deemed concurrent or contemporaneous with each 30079 other remedy prescribed therein, and the existence or exercise of 30080 any one such remedy shall not prevent the exercise of any other 30081 such remedy. 30082

(E) The provisions of this chapter providing for conferences, 30083 hearings by the chief, appeals to the hearing officer from orders 30084 of the chief, and appeals to the court of common pleas from orders 30085 of the hearing officer, and the remedies prescribed in divisions 30086 (A), (B), (C), and (D) of this section, do not constitute the 30087 exclusive procedure that a person, who deems the person's rights 30088 to be unlawfully affected by any official action taken thereunder, 30089 must pursue in order to protect and preserve such rights, nor does 30090 this chapter constitute a procedure that such a person must pursue 30091 before the person may lawfully proceed by other actions, legal or 30092 equitable, to protect and preserve such rights. 30093

Sec. 1571.18. After ~~the effective date of this section~~ June 30094 30, 2010, and not later than the thirty-first day of March each 30095 year, the owner of a well that is used for gas storage or of a 30096 well that is used to monitor a gas storage reservoir and that is 30097 located in a reservoir protective area shall pay to the chief of 30098 the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management a gas 30099 storage well regulatory fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars for 30100 each well that the owner owned as of the thirty-first day of 30101 December of the previous year for the purposes of administering 30102 this chapter and Chapter 1509. of the Revised Code. The chief may 30103 prescribe and provide a form for the collection of the fee imposed 30104 by this section and may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 30105 119. of the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration 30106

of this section. 30107

All money collected under this section shall be deposited in 30108 the state treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well fund 30109 created in section 1509.02 of the Revised Code. 30110

Sec. 1571.99. Any person who purposely violates any order of 30111
the chief of the division of mineral oil and gas resources 30112 management, of a hearing officer appointed by the director of 30113 natural resources under section 1571.14 of the Revised Code, or of 30114 the director, made pursuant to this chapter shall be punished by a 30115 fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or imprisoned in jail for 30116 a period not exceeding twelve months, or both, in the discretion 30117 of the court. 30118

Sec. 1701.07. (A) Every corporation shall have and maintain 30119 an agent, sometimes referred to as the "statutory agent," upon 30120 whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by 30121 statute to be served upon a corporation may be served. The agent 30122 may be a natural person who is a resident of this state or may be 30123 a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation holding a license 30124 as such under the laws of this state, that is authorized by its 30125 articles of incorporation to act as such agent and that has a 30126 business address in this state. 30127

(B) The secretary of state shall not accept original articles 30128 for filing unless there is filed with the articles a written 30129 appointment of an agent that is signed by the incorporators of the 30130 corporation or a majority of them and a written acceptance of the 30131 appointment that is signed by the agent. In all other cases, the 30132 corporation shall appoint the agent and shall file in the office 30133 of the secretary of state a written appointment of the agent that 30134 is signed by any authorized officer of the corporation and a 30135 written acceptance of the appointment that is either the original 30136 acceptance signed by the agent or a photocopy, facsimile, or 30137 similar reproduction of the original acceptance signed by the 30138

agent. 30139

(C) The written appointment of an agent shall set forth the 30140 name and address in this state of the agent, including the street 30141 and number or other particular description, and shall otherwise be 30142 in such form as the secretary of state prescribes. The secretary 30143 of state shall keep a record of the names of corporations, and the 30144 names and addresses of their respective agents. 30145

(D) If any agent dies, removes from the state, or resigns, 30146 the corporation shall forthwith appoint another agent and file 30147 with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary 30148 of state, a written appointment of the agent. 30149

(E) If the agent changes the agent's address from that 30150 appearing upon the record in the office of the secretary of state, 30151 the corporation or the agent shall forthwith file with the 30152 secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of 30153 state, a written statement setting forth the new address. 30154

(F) An agent may resign by filing with the secretary of 30155 state, on a form prescribed by the secretary of state, a written 30156 notice to that effect that is signed by the agent and by sending a 30157 copy of the notice to the corporation at the current or last known 30158 address of its principal office on or prior to the date the notice 30159 is filed with the secretary of state. The notice shall set forth 30160 the name of the corporation, the name and current address of the 30161 agent, the current or last known address, including the street and 30162 number or other particular description, of the corporation's 30163 principal office, the resignation of the agent, and a statement 30164 that a copy of the notice has been sent to the corporation within 30165 the time and in the manner prescribed by this division. Upon the 30166 expiration of thirty days after the filing, the authority of the 30167 agent shall terminate. 30168

(G) A corporation may revoke the appointment of an agent by 30169 filing with the secretary of state, on a form prescribed by the 30170 secretary of state, a written appointment of another agent and a 30171 statement that the appointment of the former agent is revoked. 30172

(H) Any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by 30173 statute to be served upon a corporation may be served upon the 30174 corporation by delivering a copy of it to its agent, if a natural 30175 person, or by delivering a copy of it at the address of its agent 30176 in this state, as the address appears upon the record in the 30177 office of the secretary of state. If (1) the agent cannot be 30178 found, or (2) the agent no longer has that address, or (3) the 30179 corporation has failed to maintain an agent as required by this 30180 section, and if in any such case the party desiring that the 30181 process, notice, or demand be served, or the agent or 30182 representative of the party, shall have filed with the secretary 30183 of state an affidavit stating that one of the foregoing conditions 30184 exists and stating the most recent address of the corporation that 30185 the party after diligent search has been able to ascertain, then 30186 service of process, notice, or demand upon the secretary of state, 30187 as the agent of the corporation, may be initiated by delivering to 30188 the secretary of state or at the secretary of state's office 30189 quadruplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand and by 30190 paying to the secretary of state a fee of five dollars. The 30191 secretary of state shall forthwith give notice of the delivery to 30192 the corporation at its principal office as shown upon the record 30193 in the secretary of state's office and at any different address 30194 shown on its last franchise tax report filed in this state, or to 30195 the corporation at any different address set forth in the above 30196 mentioned affidavit, and shall forward to the corporation at said 30197 addresses, by certified mail, with request for return receipt, a 30198 copy of the process, notice, or demand; and thereupon service upon 30199 the corporation shall be deemed to have been made. 30200

(I) The secretary of state shall keep a record of each 30201 process, notice, and demand delivered to the secretary of state or 30202 at the secretary of state's office under this section or any other 30203 law of this state that authorizes service upon the secretary of 30204 state, and shall record the time of the delivery and the action 30205 thereafter with respect thereto. 30206

(J) This section does not limit or affect the right to serve 30207 any process, notice, or demand upon a corporation in any other 30208 manner permitted by law. 30209

(K) Every corporation shall state in each annual report filed 30210 by it with the department of taxation the name and address of its 30211 statutory agent. 30212

(L) Except when an original appointment of an agent is filed 30213 with the original articles, a written appointment of an agent or a 30214 written statement filed by a corporation with the secretary of 30215 state shall be signed by any authorized officer of the corporation 30216 or by the incorporators of the corporation or a majority of them 30217 if no directors have been elected. 30218

(M) For filing a written appointment of an agent other than 30219 one filed with original articles, and for filing a statement of 30220 change of address of an agent, the secretary of state shall charge 30221 and collect the fee specified in division (R) of section 111.16 of 30222
the Revised Code. 30223

(N) Upon the failure of a corporation to appoint another 30224 agent or to file a statement of change of address of an agent, the 30225 secretary of state shall give notice thereof by ~~certified~~ ordinary 30226 or electronic mail to the corporation at the electronic mail 30227 address provided to the secretary of state, or at the address set 30228 forth in the notice of resignation or on the last franchise tax 30229 return filed in this state by the corporation. Unless the default 30230 is cured within thirty days after the mailing by the secretary of 30231 state of the notice or within any further period of time that the 30232 secretary of state grants, upon the expiration of that period of 30233 time from the date of the mailing, the articles of the corporation 30234 shall be canceled without further notice or action by the 30235 secretary of state. The secretary of state shall make a notation 30236 of the cancellation on the secretary of state's records. 30237

A corporation whose articles have been canceled may be 30238 reinstated by filing, on a form prescribed by the secretary of 30239 state, an application for reinstatement and the required 30240 appointment of agent or required statement, and by paying the 30241 filing fee specified in division (Q) of section 111.16 of the 30242 Revised Code. The rights, privileges, and franchises of a 30243 corporation whose articles have been reinstated are subject to 30244 section 1701.922 of the Revised Code. The secretary of state shall 30245 furnish the tax commissioner a monthly list of all corporations 30246 canceled and reinstated under this division. 30247

(O) This section does not apply to banks, trust companies, 30248 insurance companies, or any corporation defined under the laws of 30249 this state as a public utility for taxation purposes. 30250

Sec. 1702.59. (A) Every nonprofit corporation, incorporated 30251 under the general corporation laws of this state, or previous 30252 laws, or under special provisions of the Revised Code, or created 30253 before September 1, 1851, which corporation has expressly or 30254 impliedly elected to be governed by the laws passed since that 30255 date, and whose articles or other documents are filed with the 30256 secretary of state, shall file with the secretary of state a 30257 verified statement of continued existence, signed by a director, 30258 officer, or three members in good standing, setting forth the 30259 corporate name, the place where the principal office of the 30260 corporation is located, the date of incorporation, the fact that 30261 the corporation is still actively engaged in exercising its 30262 corporate privileges, and the name and address of its agent 30263 appointed pursuant to section 1702.06 of the Revised Code. 30264

(B) Each corporation required to file a statement of 30265
within each five years after the date of incorporation or of the 30267 last corporate filing. 30268

(C) Corporations specifically exempted by division (N) of 30269 section 1702.06 of the Revised Code, or whose activities are 30270 regulated or supervised by another state official, agency, bureau, 30271 department, or commission are exempted from this section. 30272

(D) The secretary of state shall give notice ~~in writing~~ by 30273 ordinary or electronic mail and provide a form for compliance with 30274 this section to each corporation required by this section to file 30275 the statement of continued existence, such notice and form to be 30276 mailed to the last known physical or electronic mail address of 30277 the corporation as it appears on the records of the secretary of 30278 state or which the secretary of state may ascertain upon a 30279 reasonable search. 30280

(E) If any nonprofit corporation required by this section to 30281 file a statement of continued existence fails to file the 30282 statement required every fifth year, then the secretary of state 30283 shall cancel the articles of such corporation, make a notation of 30284 the cancellation on the records, and mail to the corporation a 30285 certificate of the action so taken. 30286

(F) A corporation whose articles have been canceled may be reinstated by filing an application for reinstatement and paying to the secretary of state the fee specified in division (Q) of section 111.16 of the Revised Code. The name of a corporation whose articles have been canceled shall be reserved for a period of one year after the date of cancellation. If the reinstatement is not made within one year from the date of the cancellation of its articles of incorporation and it appears that a corporate name, limited liability company name, limited liability partnership name, limited partnership name, or trade name has been filed, the name of which is not distinguishable upon the record as provided in section 1702.06 of the Revised Code, the applicant for reinstatement shall be required by the secretary of state, as a condition prerequisite to such reinstatement, to amend its articles by changing its name. A certificate of reinstatement may be filed in the recorder's office of any county in the state, for which the recorder shall charge and collect a base fee of one dollar for services and a housing trust fund fee of one dollar pursuant to section 317.36 of the Revised Code. The rights, privileges, and franchises of a corporation whose articles have been reinstated are subject to section 1702.60 of the Revised Code.

(G) The secretary of state shall furnish the tax commissioner a list of all corporations failing to file the required statement of continued existence.

Sec. 1703.031. (A) If the laws of the United States prohibit, preempt, or otherwise eliminate the licensing requirement of sections 1703.01 to 1703.31 of the Revised Code with respect to a corporation that is a bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association chartered under the laws of the United States, the main office of which is located in another state, the bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association shall notify the secretary of state that it is transacting business in this state 30319 by submitting a notice in such form as the secretary of state 30320 prescribes. The notice shall be verified by the oath of the 30321 president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer of the bank, 30322 savings bank, or savings and loan association, and shall set forth 30323

all of the following: 30324

(1) The name of the corporation and any trade name under 30325 which it will do business in this state; 30326

(2) The location and complete address, including the county, 30327 of its main office in another state and its principal office, if 30328 any, in this state; 30329

(3) The appointment of a designated agent and the complete 30330 address of such agent in this state, which agent may be a natural 30331 person who is a resident of this state, or may be a domestic 30332 corporation for profit or a foreign corporation for profit holding 30333 a license as such under the laws of this state, provided that the 30334 domestic or foreign corporation has a business address in this 30335 state and is authorized by its articles of incorporation to act as 30336 such agent; 30337

(4) The irrevocable consent of the corporation to service of 30338 process on such agent so long as the authority of the agent 30339 continues and to service of process upon the secretary of state in 30340 the events provided for in section 1703.19 of the Revised Code; 30341

(5) A brief summary of the business to be transacted within 30342
this state. 30343

(B) The notice required by this section shall be accompanied 30344 by a certificate of good standing or subsistence, dated not 30345 earlier than sixty days prior to the submission of the notice, 30346 under the seal of the proper official of the agency of the United 30347 States that incorporated the bank, savings bank, or savings and 30348 loan association, setting forth the exact corporate title, the 30349 date of incorporation, and the fact that the bank, savings bank, 30350 or savings and loan association is in good standing or is a 30351 subsisting bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association. 30352

(C) Upon submission of the notice, a bank, savings bank, or 30353 savings and loan association shall pay a filing fee ~~of one hundred~~ 30354 ~~dollars~~ to the secretary of state as required by section 111.16 of 30355
the Revised Code. 30356

(D)(1) No such notice shall be accepted for filing if it 30357 appears that the name of the bank, savings bank, or savings and 30358 loan association is any of the following: 30359

(a) Prohibited by law; 30360

(b) Not distinguishable upon the records in the office of the 30361 secretary of state from the name of a limited liability company, 30362 whether domestic or foreign, or any other corporation, whether 30363 nonprofit or for profit and whether that of a domestic corporation 30364 or of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in 30365 this state, unless there is also filed with the secretary of state 30366 the consent of the other limited liability company or corporation 30367 to the use of the name, evidenced in a writing signed by any 30368 authorized representative or authorized officer of the other 30369 limited liability company or corporation; 30370

(c) Not distinguishable upon the records in the office of the 30371 secretary of state from a trade name, the exclusive right to which 30372 is at the time in question registered in the manner provided in 30373 Chapter 1329. of the Revised Code, unless there also is filed with 30374 the secretary of state the consent of the other corporation or 30375 person to the use of the name, evidenced in a writing signed by 30376 any authorized officer of the other corporation or authorized 30377 party of the other person owning the exclusive right to the 30378 registered trade name. 30379

(2) Notwithstanding division (D)(1)(b) of this section, if a 30380

notice is not acceptable for filing solely because the name of the bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association is not distinguishable from the name of another corporation or registered trade name, the bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association may be authorized to transact business in this state by filing with the secretary of state, in addition to those items otherwise prescribed by this section, a statement signed by an authorized officer directing the bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association to transact business in this state under an assumed business name or names that comply with the requirements of division (D) of this section and stating that the bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association will transact business in this state only under the assumed name or names.

(E) The secretary of state shall provide evidence of receipt of notice to each bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association that submits a notice required by this section.

Sec. 1703.07. If a foreign corporation has merged or consolidated with one or more foreign corporations, it shall file with the secretary of state a certificate setting forth the fact of merger or consolidation, certified by the secretary of state, or other proper official, of the state under the laws of which the foreign corporation was incorporated.

The secretary of state, before filing a certificate evidencing a foreign corporation's merger or consolidation, shall charge and collect from the foreign corporation a filing fee ~~of ten dollars~~ as required by section 111.16 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 1707.11. (A) Each person that is not organized under the laws of this state, that is not licensed under section 1703.03 of the Revised Code, or that does not have its principal place of business in this state, shall submit to the division of securities an irrevocable consent to service of process, as described in 30411 division (B) of this section, in connection with any of the 30412

following: 30413

(1) Filings to claim any of the exemptions enumerated in 30414 division (Q), (W), ~~(X)~~, or (Y) of section 1707.03 of the Revised 30415
Code; 30416

(2) Applications for registration by description, 30417 qualification, or coordination; 30418

(3) Notice filings pursuant to section 1707.092 of the 30419
Revised Code. 30420

(B) The irrevocable written consent shall be executed and 30421 acknowledged by an individual duly authorized to give the consent 30422 and shall do all of the following: 30423

(1) Designate the secretary of state as agent for service of 30424 process or pleadings; 30425

(2) State that actions growing out of the sale of such 30426 securities, the giving of investment advice, or fraud committed by 30427 a person on whose behalf the consent is submitted may be commenced 30428 against the person, in the proper court of any county in this 30429 state in which a cause of action may arise or in which the 30430 plaintiff in the action may reside, by serving on the secretary of 30431 state any proper process or pleading authorized by the laws of 30432
this state; 30433

(3) Stipulate that service of process or pleading on the 30434 secretary of state shall be taken in all courts to be as valid and 30435 binding as if service had been made upon the person on whose 30436 behalf the consent is submitted. 30437

(C) Notwithstanding any application, form, or other material 30438 filed with or submitted to the division that purports to appoint 30439 as agent for service of process a person other than the secretary 30440 of state, the application, form, or other material shall be 30441 considered to appoint the secretary of state as agent for service 30442 of process. 30443

(D) Service of any process or pleadings may be made on the 30444 secretary of state by duplicate copies, of which one shall be 30445 filed in the office of the secretary of state, and the other 30446 immediately forwarded by the secretary of state by certified mail 30447 to the principal place of business of the person on whose behalf 30448 the consent is submitted or to the last known address as shown on 30449 the filing made with the division. However, failure to mail such 30450 copy does not invalidate the service. 30451

(E) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, or of any 30452 rule adopted by the division of securities under this chapter, 30453 that requires the submission of a consent to service of process, 30454 the division may provide by rule for the electronic filing or 30455 submission of a consent to service of process. 30456

Sec. 1707.17. (A)(1) The license of every dealer in and 30457 salesperson of securities shall expire on the thirty-first day of 30458 December of each year, and may be renewed upon the filing with the 30459 division of securities of an application for renewal, and the 30460 payment of the fee prescribed in this section. The division shall 30461 give notice, without unreasonable delay, of its action on any 30462 application for renewal of a dealer's or salesperson's license. 30463

(2) The license of every investment adviser and investment 30464 adviser representative licensed under section 1707.141 or 1707.161 30465 of the Revised Code shall expire on the thirty-first day of 30466 December of each year. The licenses may be renewed upon the filing 30467 with the division of an application for renewal, and the payment 30468 of the fee prescribed in division (B) of this section. The 30469 division shall give notice, without unreasonable delay, of its 30470 action on any application for renewal. 30471

(3) An investment adviser required to make a notice filing 30472 under division (B) of section 1707.141 of the Revised Code 30473 annually shall file with the division the notice filing and the 30474 fee prescribed in division (B) of this section, no later than the 30475 thirty-first day of December of each year. 30476

(4) The license of every state retirement system investment 30477 officer licensed under section 1707.163 of the Revised Code and 30478 the license of a bureau of workers' compensation chief investment 30479 officer issued under section 1707.165 of the Revised Code shall 30480 expire on the thirtieth day of June of each year. The licenses may 30481 be renewed on the filing with the division of an application for 30482 renewal, and the payment of the fee prescribed in division (B) of 30483 this section. The division shall give notice, without unreasonable 30484 delay, of its action on any application for renewal. 30485

(B)(1) The fee for each dealer's license, and for each annual 30486 renewal thereof, shall be two hundred dollars. 30487

(2) The fee for each salesperson's license, and for each 30488 annual renewal thereof, shall be sixty dollars. 30489

(3) The fee for each investment adviser's license, and for 30490 each annual renewal thereof, shall be one hundred dollars. 30491

(4) The fee for each investment adviser notice filing 30492 required by division (B) of section 1707.141 of the Revised Code 30493 shall be one hundred dollars. 30494

(5) The fee for each investment adviser representative's 30495 license, and for each annual renewal thereof, shall be thirty-five 30496
dollars. 30497

(6) The fee for each state retirement system investment 30498 officer's license, and for each annual renewal thereof, shall be 30499 fifty dollars. 30500

(7) The fee for a bureau of workers' compensation chief 30501 investment officer's license, and for each annual renewal thereof, 30502 shall be fifty dollars. 30503

(C) A dealer's, salesperson's, investment adviser's, 30504 investment adviser representative's, bureau of workers' 30505 compensation chief investment officer's, or state retirement 30506 system investment officer's license may be issued at any time for 30507 the remainder of the calendar year. In that event, the annual fee 30508 shall not be reduced. 30509

(D) The division may, by rule or order, waive, in whole or in 30510 part, any of the fee requirements of this section for any person 30511 or class of persons if the imposition or waiver is appropriate in 30512 the public interest and for the protection of securities 30513 investors. 30514

Sec. 1711.05. Every county agricultural society annually 30515 shall publish an abstract of its treasurer's account in a 30516 newspaper of general circulation in the county and make a report 30517 of its proceedings during the year. It shall also make, in 30518 accordance with the rules of the department of agriculture, a 30519 synopsis of its awards for improvement in agriculture and in 30520 household manufactures and forward such synopsis to the director 30521 of agriculture at or before the annual meeting of the directors of 30522 the society with the director of agriculture, as provided for in 30523 section 901.06 of the Revised Code. No payment after such date 30524 shall be made from the county treasury to such society unless a 30525 certificate from the director is presented to the county auditor 30526 showing that such reports have been made. 30527

Sec. 1711.07. The board of directors of a county or 30528 independent agricultural society shall consist of at least eight 30529 members. An employee of the Ohio state university extension 30530 service and the county school superintendent shall be members ex 30531 officio. Their terms of office shall be determined by the rules of 30532 the department of agriculture. Any vacancy in the board caused by 30533 death, resignation, refusal to qualify, removal from county, or 30534 other cause may be filled by the board until the society's next 30535 annual election, when a director shall be elected for the 30536 unexpired term. There shall be an annual election of directors by 30537 ballot at a time and a place fixed by the board, but this election 30538 shall not be held later than the first Saturday in December 1994, 30539 and not later than the fifteenth day of November each year 30540 thereafter, beginning in 1995. The secretary of the society shall 30541 give notice of such election, for three weeks prior to the holding 30542 thereof, in ~~at least two newspapers~~ a newspaper of ~~opposite~~ 30543 ~~politics and of~~ general circulation in the county or as provided 30544 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, or by letter mailed to each 30545 member of the society. Only persons holding membership 30546 certificates at the close of the annual county fair, or at least 30547 fifteen calendar days before the date of election, as may be fixed 30548 by the board, may vote, unless such election is held on the 30549 fairground during the fair, in which case all persons holding 30550 membership certificates on the date and hour of the election may 30551 vote. When the election is to be held during the fair, notice of 30552 such election must be prominently mentioned in the premium list, 30553 in addition to the notice required in ~~newspapers~~ a newspaper. The 30554 terms of office of the retiring directors shall expire, and those 30555 of the directors-elect shall begin, not later than the first 30556

Saturday in January 1995, and not later than the thirtieth day of 30557
November each year thereafter, beginning in 1995. 30558

The secretary of such society shall send the name and address 30559 of each member of its board to the director of agriculture within 30560 ten days after the election. 30561

Sec. 1711.18. In a county in which there is a county 30562 agricultural society indebted fifteen thousand dollars or more, 30563 and such society has purchased a fairground or title to such 30564 fairground is vested in fee in the county, the board of county 30565 commissioners, upon the presentation of a petition signed by not 30566 less than five hundred resident electors of the county praying for 30567 the submission to the electors of the county of the question 30568 whether or not county bonds shall be issued and sold to liquidate 30569 such indebtedness, shall, by resolution within ten days 30570 thereafter, fix a date, which shall be within thirty days, upon 30571 which the question of issuing and selling such bonds, in the 30572 necessary amount and denomination, shall be submitted to the 30573 electors of the county. The board also shall cause a copy of such 30574 resolution to be certified to the county board of elections and 30575 such board of elections, within ten days after such certification, 30576 shall proceed to make the necessary arrangements for the 30577 submission of such question to such electors at the time fixed by 30578 such resolution. 30579

Such election shall be held at the regular places of voting 30580 in the county and shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified, 30581 except as otherwise provided by law, as are elections of county 30582 officers. The county board of elections must give fifteen days' 30583 notice of such submission by publication in ~~one or more newspapers~~ 30584 published a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a 30585 week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of 30586 the Revised Code, stating the amount of bonds to be issued, the 30587 purpose for which they are to be issued, and the time and places 30588 of holding such election. Those who vote in favor of the 30589 proposition shall have written or printed on their ballots "for 30590 the issue of bonds" and those who vote against it shall have 30591 written or printed on their ballots "against the issue of bonds." 30592 If a majority of those voting upon the question of issuing the 30593 bonds vote in favor thereof, then and only then shall they be 30594 issued and the tax provided for in section 1711.20 of the Revised 30595 Code be levied. 30596

Sec. 1711.30. Before issuing bonds under section 1711.28 of 30597 the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners, by 30598 resolution, shall submit to the qualified electors of the county 30599 at the next general election for county officers, held not less 30600 than ninety days after receiving from the county agricultural 30601 society the notice provided for in section 1711.25 of the Revised 30602 Code, the question of issuing and selling such bonds in such 30603 amount and denomination as are necessary for the purpose in view, 30604 and shall certify a copy of such resolution to the county board of 30605 elections. 30606

The county board of elections shall place the question of 30607 issuing and selling such bonds upon the ballot and make all other 30608 necessary arrangements for the submission, at the time fixed by 30609 such resolution, of such question to such electors. The votes cast 30610 at such election upon such question must be counted, canvassed, 30611 and certified in the same manner, except as provided by law, as 30612 votes cast for county officers. Fifteen days' notice of such 30613 submission shall be given by the county board of elections, by 30614 publication once a week for two consecutive weeks in ~~two or more~~ 30615 ~~newspapers published~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the 30616 county or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, stating 30617 the amount of bonds to be issued, the purpose for which they are 30618 to be issued, and the time and places of holding such election. 30619 Such question must be stated on the ballot as follows: "For the 30620 issue of county fair bonds, yes"; "For the issue of county fair 30621 bonds, no." If the majority of those voting upon the question of 30622 issuing the bonds vote in favor thereof, then and only then shall 30623 they be issued and the tax provided for in section 1711.29 of the 30624 Revised Code be levied. 30625

Sec. 1728.06. Every community urban redevelopment corporation 30626 qualifying under this chapter, before proceeding with any project 30627 authorized in this chapter, shall make written application to the 30628 municipal corporation for approval thereof. The application shall 30629 be in such form and shall certify to such facts and data as shall 30630 be required by the municipal corporation, and may include but not 30631 be limited to: 30632

(A) A general statement of the nature of the proposed 30633 project, that the undertaking conforms to all applicable municipal 30634 ordinances, that its completion will meet an existing need, and 30635 that the project accords with the master plan or official map, if 30636 any, of the municipal corporation; 30637

(B) A description of the proposed project outlining the area 30638 included and a description of each unit thereof if the project is 30639 to be undertaken in units and setting out such architectural and 30640 site plans as may be required; 30641

(C) A statement of the estimated cost of the proposed project 30642 in such detail as may be required, including the estimated cost of 30643 each unit if it is to be so undertaken; 30644

(D) The source, method, and amount of money to be subscribed 30645 through the investment of private capital, setting forth the 30646 amount of stock or other securities to be issued therefor; 30647

(E) A fiscal plan for the project outlining a schedule of 30648 rents, the estimated expenditures for operation and maintenance, 30649 payments for interest, amortization of debt and reserves, and 30650 payments to the municipal corporation to be made pursuant to a 30651 financial agreement to be entered into with the municipal 30652
corporation; 30653

(F) A relocation plan providing for the relocation of 30654 persons, including families, business concerns, and others, 30655 displaced by the project, which relocation plan shall include, but 30656 not be limited to, the proposed method for the relocation of 30657 residents who will be displaced from their dwelling accommodations 30658 in decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations within their 30659 means, or with provision for adjustment payments to bring such 30660 accommodations within their means, and without undue hardship, and 30661 reasonable moving costs; 30662

(G) The names and tax mailing addresses, as determined from 30663 the records of the county auditor not more than five days prior to 30664 the submission of the application to the mayor of the municipal 30665 corporation, of the owners of all property which the corporation 30666 proposes in its application to acquire. 30667

Such application shall be addressed and submitted to the 30668 mayor of the municipal corporation, who shall, within sixty days 30669 after receipt thereof, submit it with ~~his~~ the mayor's 30670 recommendations to the governing body. The application shall be a 30671 matter of public record upon receipt by the mayor. 30672

The governing body shall by notice published once a week for 30673 two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 30674
municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 30675 Revised Code, by written notice, by certified mail or personal 30676 service, to the owners of property which the corporation proposes 30677 in its application to purchase at the tax mailing address as set 30678 forth in the corporation's application, by the putting up of signs 30679 in at least five places within the area covered by the 30680 application, and by giving written notice, by certified mail or 30681 personal service, to community organizations known by the clerk of 30682 the governing body to represent a substantial number of the 30683 residents of the area covered by the application, advise that the 30684 application is on file in the office of the clerk of the governing 30685 body of the municipal corporation and is available for inspection 30686 by the general public during business hours and advise that a 30687 public hearing shall be held thereon, stating the place and time 30688 of the public hearing, which time shall be not less than fourteen 30689 days after the first publication, or after sending the mailed 30690 notice, or after the putting up of the signs, whichever is later. 30691

Following the public hearing and after complying with section 30692 5709.83 of the Revised Code, the governing body, taking into 30693 consideration the financial impact on the community, shall by 30694 resolution approve or disapprove the application, approval to be 30695 by an affirmative vote of not less than three-fifths of the 30696 governing body, but in the event of disapproval, changes may be 30697 suggested to secure its approval. 30698

An application may be revised or resubmitted in the same 30699 manner and subject to the same procedures as an original 30700 application. The clerk of the governing body shall diligently 30701 discharge the duties imposed on the clerk by this division, 30702 provided failure of the clerk to send written notices to all 30703 community organizations, in a good faith effort by the clerk to 30704 give the required notice, shall not invalidate any proceedings 30705 under this chapter. The failure of delivery of notice given by 30706 certified mail under this division shall not invalidate any 30707 proceedings under this chapter. 30708

Sec. 1728.07. Every approved project shall be evidenced by a 30709 financial agreement between the municipal corporation and the 30710 community urban redevelopment corporation. Such agreement shall be 30711 prepared by the community urban redevelopment corporation and 30712 submitted as a separate part of its application for project 30713 approval. 30714

The financial agreement shall be in the form of a contract 30715 requiring full performance within twenty years from the date of 30716 completion of the project and shall, as a minimum, include the 30717
following: 30718

(A) That all improvements in the project to be constructed or 30719 acquired by the corporation shall be exempt from taxation, subject 30720
to section 1728.10 of the Revised Code; 30721

(B) That the corporation shall make payments in lieu of real estate taxes not less than the amount as provided by section 1728.11 of the Revised Code; or if the municipal corporation is an impacted city, not less than the amount as provided by section 1728.111 of the Revised Code;

(C) That the corporation, its successors and assigns, shall use, develop, and redevelop the real property of the project in accordance with, and for the period of, the community development plan approved by the governing body of the municipal corporation for the blighted area in which the project is situated and shall so bind its successors and assigns by appropriate agreements and covenants running with the land enforceable by the municipal corporation.

(D) If the municipal corporation is an impacted city, the extent of the undertakings and activities of the corporation for the elimination and for the prevention of the development or spread of blight.

(E) That the corporation or the municipal corporation, or both, shall provide for carrying out relocation of persons, families, business concerns, and others displaced by the project, pursuant to a relocation plan, including the method for the relocation of residents in decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations, and reasonable moving costs, determined to be feasible by the governing body of the municipal corporation. Where the relocation plan is carried out by the corporation, its officers, employees, agents, or lessees, the municipal corporation shall enforce and supervise the corporation's compliance with the relocation plan. If the corporation refuses or fails to comply with the relocation plan and the municipal corporation fails or refuses to enforce compliance with such plan, the director of development may request the attorney general to commence a civil action against the municipality and the corporation to require compliance with such relocation plan. Prior to requesting action 30754 by the attorney general the director shall give notice of the 30755 proposed action to the municipality and the corporation, provide 30756 an opportunity to such municipality and corporation for 30757 discussions on the matter, and allow a reasonable time in which 30758 the corporation may begin compliance with the relocation plan, or 30759 the municipality may commence enforcement of the relocation plan. 30760

(F) That the corporation shall submit annually, within ninety 30761 days after the close of its fiscal year, its auditor's reports to 30762 the mayor and governing body of the municipal corporation; 30763

(G) That the corporation shall, upon request, permit 30764 inspection of property, equipment, buildings, and other facilities 30765 of the corporation, and also permit examination and audit of its 30766 books, contracts, records, documents, and papers by authorized 30767 representatives of the municipal corporation; 30768

(H) That in the event of any dispute between the parties the 30769 matters in controversy shall be resolved by arbitration in the 30770 manner provided therein; 30771

(I) That operation under the financial agreement is 30772 terminable by the corporation in the manner provided by Chapter 30773
1728. of the Revised Code; 30774

(J) That the corporation shall, at all times prior to the 30775 expiration or other termination of the financial agreement, remain 30776 bound by Chapter 1728. of the Revised Code; 30777

~~(K) That all wages paid to laborers and mechanics employed 30778 for work on such projects, other than for residential structures 30779 containing seven or less family units, shall be paid at the 30780 prevailing rates of wages of laborers and mechanics for the class 30781 of work called for by the project, which wages shall be determined 30782 in accordance with the requirements of Chapter 4115. of the 30783 Revised Code for determination of prevailing wage rates, provided 30784~~

~~that the requirements of this division do not apply where the 30785 federal government or any of its agencies furnishes by law or 30786 grant all or any part of the funds used in connection with such 30787 project and prescribes predetermined minimum wages to be paid to 30788 such laborers and mechanics. 30789~~

Modifications of the financial agreement may from time to 30790 time be made by agreement between the governing body of the 30791 municipal corporation and the community urban redevelopment 30792
corporation. 30793

Sec. 1751.01. As used in this chapter: 30794

(A)(1) "Basic health care services" means the following 30795 services when medically necessary: 30796

(a) Physician's services, except when such services are 30797 supplemental under division (B) of this section; 30798

(b) Inpatient hospital services; 30799

(c) Outpatient medical services; 30800

(d) Emergency health services; 30801

(e) Urgent care services; 30802

(f) Diagnostic laboratory services and diagnostic and 30803 therapeutic radiologic services; 30804

(g) Diagnostic and treatment services, other than 30805 prescription drug services, for biologically based mental 30806 illnesses; 30807

(h) Preventive health care services, including, but not 30808 limited to, voluntary family planning services, infertility 30809 services, periodic physical examinations, prenatal obstetrical 30810 care, and well-child care; 30811

(i) Routine patient care for patients enrolled in an eligible 30812 cancer clinical trial pursuant to section 3923.80 of the Revised 30813

Code. 30814

"Basic health care services" does not include experimental 30815 procedures. 30816

Except as provided by divisions (A)(2) and (3) of this 30817 section in connection with the offering of coverage for diagnostic 30818 and treatment services for biologically based mental illnesses, a 30819 health insuring corporation shall not offer coverage for a health 30820 care service, defined as a basic health care service by this 30821 division, unless it offers coverage for all listed basic health 30822 care services. However, this requirement does not apply to the 30823 coverage of beneficiaries enrolled in medicare pursuant to a 30824 medicare contract, or to the coverage of beneficiaries enrolled in 30825 the federal employee health benefits program pursuant to 5 30826 U.S.C.A. 8905, or to the coverage of medicaid recipients, ~~or to~~ 30827
~~the coverage of participants of the children's buy in program,~~ or 30828 to the coverage of beneficiaries under any federal health care 30829 program regulated by a federal regulatory body, or to the coverage 30830 of beneficiaries under any contract covering officers or employees 30831 of the state that has been entered into by the department of 30832
administrative services. 30833

(2) A health insuring corporation may offer coverage for 30834 diagnostic and treatment services for biologically based mental 30835 illnesses without offering coverage for all other basic health 30836 care services. A health insuring corporation may offer coverage 30837 for diagnostic and treatment services for biologically based 30838 mental illnesses alone or in combination with one or more 30839 supplemental health care services. However, a health insuring 30840 corporation that offers coverage for any other basic health care 30841 service shall offer coverage for diagnostic and treatment services 30842 for biologically based mental illnesses in combination with the 30843 offer of coverage for all other listed basic health care services. 30844

(3) A health insuring corporation that offers coverage for 30845 basic health care services is not required to offer coverage for 30846 diagnostic and treatment services for biologically based mental 30847 illnesses in combination with the offer of coverage for all other 30848 listed basic health care services if all of the following apply: 30849

(a) The health insuring corporation submits documentation 30850 certified by an independent member of the American academy of 30851 actuaries to the superintendent of insurance showing that incurred 30852 claims for diagnostic and treatment services for biologically 30853 based mental illnesses for a period of at least six months 30854 independently caused the health insuring corporation's costs for 30855 claims and administrative expenses for the coverage of basic 30856 health care services to increase by more than one per cent per 30857
year. 30858

(b) The health insuring corporation submits a signed letter 30859 from an independent member of the American academy of actuaries to 30860 the superintendent of insurance opining that the increase in costs 30861 described in division (A)(3)(a) of this section could reasonably 30862 justify an increase of more than one per cent in the annual 30863 premiums or rates charged by the health insuring corporation for 30864 the coverage of basic health care services. 30865

(c) The superintendent of insurance makes the following 30866 determinations from the documentation and opinion submitted 30867 pursuant to divisions (A)(3)(a) and (b) of this section: 30868

(i) Incurred claims for diagnostic and treatment services for 30869 biologically based mental illnesses for a period of at least six 30870 months independently caused the health insuring corporation's 30871 costs for claims and administrative expenses for the coverage of 30872 basic health care services to increase by more than one per cent 30873 per year. 30874

(ii) The increase in costs reasonably justifies an increase 30875 of more than one per cent in the annual premiums or rates charged 30876

by the health insuring corporation for the coverage of basic health care services.	30877 30878
Any determination made by the superintendent under this division is subject to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code.	30879 30880
(B)(1) "Supplemental health care services" means any health care services other than basic health care services that a health insuring corporation may offer, alone or in combination with either basic health care services or other supplemental health care services, and includes:	30881 30882 30883 30884 30885
(a) Services of facilities for intermediate or long-term care, or both;	30886 30887
(b) Dental care services;	30888
(c) Vision care and optometric services including lenses and frames;	30889 30890
(d) Podiatric care or foot care services;	30891
(e) Mental health services, excluding diagnostic and treatment services for biologically based mental illnesses;	30892 30893
(f) Short-term outpatient evaluative and crisis-intervention mental health services;	30894 30895
(g) Medical or psychological treatment and referral services for alcohol and drug abuse or addiction;	30896 30897
(h) Home health services;	30898
(i) Prescription drug services;	30899
(j) Nursing services;	30900
(k) Services of a dietitian licensed under Chapter 4759. of the Revised Code;	30901 30902
(l) Physical therapy services;	30903
(m) Chiropractic services;	30904

(n) Any other category of services approved by the superintendent of insurance.	30905 30906
(2) If a health insuring corporation offers prescription drug services under this division, the coverage shall include prescription drug services for the treatment of biologically based mental illnesses on the same terms and conditions as other physical diseases and disorders.	30907 30908 30909 30910 30911
(C) "Specialty health care services" means one of the supplemental health care services listed in division (B) of this section, when provided by a health insuring corporation on an outpatient-only basis and not in combination with other supplemental health care services.	30912 30913 30914 30915 30916
(D) "Biologically based mental illnesses" means schizophrenia, schizoaffective disorder, major depressive disorder, bipolar disorder, paranoia and other psychotic disorders, obsessive-compulsive disorder, and panic disorder, as these terms are defined in the most recent edition of the diagnostic and statistical manual of mental disorders published by the American psychiatric association.	30917 30918 30919 30920 30921 30922 30923
(E) "Children's buy in program" has the same meaning as in section 5101.5211 of the Revised Code.	30924 30925
(F) "Closed panel plan" means a health care plan that requires enrollees to use participating providers.	30926 30927
(G) (F) "Compensation" means remuneration for the provision of health care services, determined on other than a fee-for-service or discounted-fee-for-service basis.	30928 30929 30930
(H) (G) "Contractual periodic prepayment" means the formula for determining the premium rate for all subscribers of a health insuring corporation.	30931 30932 30933
(I) (H) "Corporation" means a corporation formed under Chapter	30934

1701. or 1702. of the Revised Code or the similar laws of another 30935
state. 30936

~~(J)~~(I) "Emergency health services" means those health care 30937 services that must be available on a seven-days-per-week, 30938 twenty-four-hours-per-day basis in order to prevent jeopardy to an 30939 enrollee's health status that would occur if such services were 30940 not received as soon as possible, and includes, where appropriate, 30941 provisions for transportation and indemnity payments or service 30942 agreements for out-of-area coverage. 30943

~~(K)~~(J) "Enrollee" means any natural person who is entitled to 30944 receive health care benefits provided by a health insuring 30945
corporation. 30946

~~(L)~~(K) "Evidence of coverage" means any certificate, 30947 agreement, policy, or contract issued to a subscriber that sets 30948 out the coverage and other rights to which such person is entitled 30949 under a health care plan. 30950

~~(M)~~(L) "Health care facility" means any facility, except a 30951 health care practitioner's office, that provides preventive, 30952 diagnostic, therapeutic, acute convalescent, rehabilitation, 30953 mental health, mental retardation, intermediate care, or skilled 30954 nursing services. 30955

~~(N)~~(M) "Health care services" means basic, supplemental, and 30956 specialty health care services. 30957

~~(O)~~(N) "Health delivery network" means any group of providers 30958 or health care facilities, or both, or any representative thereof, 30959 that have entered into an agreement to offer health care services 30960 in a panel rather than on an individual basis. 30961

~~(P)~~(O) "Health insuring corporation" means a corporation, as 30962 defined in division ~~(I)~~(H) of this section, that, pursuant to a 30963 policy, contract, certificate, or agreement, pays for, reimburses, 30964 or provides, delivers, arranges for, or otherwise makes available, 30965 basic health care services, supplemental health care services, or 30966 specialty health care services, or a combination of basic health 30967 care services and either supplemental health care services or 30968 specialty health care services, through either an open panel plan 30969 or a closed panel plan. 30970

"Health insuring corporation" does not include a limited 30971 liability company formed pursuant to Chapter 1705. of the Revised 30972 Code, an insurer licensed under Title XXXIX of the Revised Code if 30973 that insurer offers only open panel plans under which all 30974 providers and health care facilities participating receive their 30975 compensation directly from the insurer, a corporation formed by or 30976 on behalf of a political subdivision or a department, office, or 30977 institution of the state, or a public entity formed by or on 30978 behalf of a board of county commissioners, a county board of 30979 developmental disabilities, an alcohol and drug addiction services 30980 board, a board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health 30981 services, or a community mental health board, as those terms are 30982 used in Chapters 340. and 5126. of the Revised Code. Except as 30983 provided by division (D) of section 1751.02 of the Revised Code, 30984 or as otherwise provided by law, no board, commission, agency, or 30985 other entity under the control of a political subdivision may 30986 accept insurance risk in providing for health care services. 30987 However, nothing in this division shall be construed as 30988 prohibiting such entities from purchasing the services of a health 30989 insuring corporation or a third-party administrator licensed under 30990
Chapter 3959. of the Revised Code. 30991

~~(Q)~~(P) "Intermediary organization" means a health delivery 30992 network or other entity that contracts with licensed health 30993 insuring corporations or self-insured employers, or both, to 30994 provide health care services, and that enters into contractual 30995 arrangements with other entities for the provision of health care 30996 services for the purpose of fulfilling the terms of its contracts 30997 with the health insuring corporations and self-insured employers. 30998

~~(R)~~(O) "Intermediate care" means residential care above the 30999 level of room and board for patients who require personal 31000 assistance and health-related services, but who do not require 31001 skilled nursing care. 31002

~~(S)~~(R) "Medicaid" has the same meaning as in section 5111.01 31003
of the Revised Code. 31004

~~(T)~~(S) "Medical record" means the personal information that 31005 relates to an individual's physical or mental condition, medical 31006 history, or medical treatment. 31007

~~(U)~~(T) "Medicare" means the program established under Title 31008
XVIII of the "Social Security Act" 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 31009
1395, as amended. 31010

~~(V)~~(U)(1) "Open panel plan" means a health care plan that 31011 provides incentives for enrollees to use participating providers 31012 and that also allows enrollees to use providers that are not 31013 participating providers. 31014

(2) No health insuring corporation may offer an open panel 31015 plan, unless the health insuring corporation is also licensed as 31016 an insurer under Title XXXIX of the Revised Code, the health 31017 insuring corporation, on June 4, 1997, holds a certificate of 31018 authority or license to operate under Chapter 1736. or 1740. of 31019 the Revised Code, or an insurer licensed under Title XXXIX of the 31020 Revised Code is responsible for the out-of-network risk as 31021 evidenced by both an evidence of coverage filing under section 31022 1751.11 of the Revised Code and a policy and certificate filing 31023
under section 3923.02 of the Revised Code. 31024

~~(W)~~(V) "Panel" means a group of providers or health care 31025 facilities that have joined together to deliver health care 31026 services through a contractual arrangement with a health insuring 31027 corporation, employer group, or other payor. 31028

~~(X)~~(W) "Person" has the same meaning as in section 1.59 of 31029 the Revised Code, and, unless the context otherwise requires, 31030 includes any insurance company holding a certificate of authority 31031 under Title XXXIX of the Revised Code, any subsidiary and 31032 affiliate of an insurance company, and any government agency. 31033

~~(Y)~~(X) "Premium rate" means any set fee regularly paid by a 31034 subscriber to a health insuring corporation. A "premium rate" does 31035 not include a one-time membership fee, an annual administrative 31036 fee, or a nominal access fee, paid to a managed health care system 31037 under which the recipient of health care services remains solely 31038 responsible for any charges accessed for those services by the 31039 provider or health care facility. 31040

~~(Z)~~(Y) "Primary care provider" means a provider that is 31041 designated by a health insuring corporation to supervise, 31042 coordinate, or provide initial care or continuing care to an 31043 enrollee, and that may be required by the health insuring 31044 corporation to initiate a referral for specialty care and to 31045 maintain supervision of the health care services rendered to the 31046 enrollee. 31047

~~(AA)~~(Z) "Provider" means any natural person or partnership of 31048 natural persons who are licensed, certified, accredited, or 31049 otherwise authorized in this state to furnish health care 31050 services, or any professional association organized under Chapter 31051 1785. of the Revised Code, provided that nothing in this chapter 31052 or other provisions of law shall be construed to preclude a health 31053 insuring corporation, health care practitioner, or organized 31054 health care group associated with a health insuring corporation 31055 from employing certified nurse practitioners, certified nurse 31056 anesthetists, clinical nurse specialists, certified nurse 31057 midwives, dietitians, physician assistants, dental assistants, 31058 dental hygienists, optometric technicians, or other allied health 31059 personnel who are licensed, certified, accredited, or otherwise 31060 authorized in this state to furnish health care services. 31061

~~(BB)~~(AA) "Provider sponsored organization" means a 31062 corporation, as defined in division ~~(I)~~(H) of this section, that 31063 is at least eighty per cent owned or controlled by one or more 31064 hospitals, as defined in section 3727.01 of the Revised Code, or 31065 one or more physicians licensed to practice medicine or surgery or 31066 osteopathic medicine and surgery under Chapter 4731. of the 31067 Revised Code, or any combination of such physicians and hospitals. 31068 Such control is presumed to exist if at least eighty per cent of 31069 the voting rights or governance rights of a provider sponsored 31070 organization are directly or indirectly owned, controlled, or 31071 otherwise held by any combination of the physicians and hospitals 31072 described in this division. 31073

~~(CC)~~(BB) "Solicitation document" means the written materials 31074 provided to prospective subscribers or enrollees, or both, and 31075 used for advertising and marketing to induce enrollment in the 31076 health care plans of a health insuring corporation. 31077

~~(DD)~~(CC) "Subscriber" means a person who is responsible for 31078 making payments to a health insuring corporation for participation 31079 in a health care plan, or an enrollee whose employment or other 31080 status is the basis of eligibility for enrollment in a health 31081 insuring corporation. 31082

~~(EE)~~(DD) "Urgent care services" means those health care 31083 services that are appropriately provided for an unforeseen 31084 condition of a kind that usually requires medical attention 31085 without delay but that does not pose a threat to the life, limb, 31086 or permanent health of the injured or ill person, and may include 31087 such health care services provided out of the health insuring 31088 corporation's approved service area pursuant to indemnity payments 31089 or service agreements. 31090

Sec. 1751.04. (A) Except as provided by division (D) of this 31091 section, upon the receipt by the superintendent of insurance of a 31092 complete application for a certificate of authority to establish 31093 or operate a health insuring corporation, which application sets 31094 forth or is accompanied by the information and documents required 31095 by division (A) of section 1751.03 of the Revised Code, the 31096 superintendent shall review the application and accompanying 31097 documents and make findings as to whether the applicant for a 31098 certificate of authority has done all of the following with 31099 respect to any basic health care services and supplemental health 31100 care services to be furnished: 31101

(1) Demonstrated the willingness and potential ability to 31102 ensure that all basic health care services and supplemental health 31103 care services described in the evidence of coverage will be 31104 provided to all its enrollees as promptly as is appropriate and in 31105 a manner that assures continuity; 31106

(2) Made effective arrangements to ensure that its enrollees 31107 have reliable access to qualified providers in those specialties 31108 that are generally available in the geographic area or areas to be 31109 served by the applicant and that are necessary to provide all 31110 basic health care services and supplemental health care services 31111 described in the evidence of coverage; 31112

(3) Made appropriate arrangements for the availability of 31113 short-term health care services in emergencies within the 31114 geographic area or areas to be served by the applicant, 31115 twenty-four hours per day, seven days per week, and for the 31116 provision of adequate coverage whenever an out-of-area emergency 31117 arises; 31118

(4) Made appropriate arrangements for an ongoing evaluation 31119 and assurance of the quality of health care services provided to 31120 enrollees, including, if applicable, the development of a quality 31121 assurance program complying with the requirements of sections 31122 1751.73 to 1751.75 of the Revised Code, and the adequacy of the 31123 personnel, facilities, and equipment by or through which the 31124 services are rendered; 31125

(5) Developed a procedure to gather and report statistics 31126 relating to the cost and effectiveness of its operations, the 31127 pattern of utilization of its services, and the quality, 31128 availability, and accessibility of its services. 31129

(B) Based upon the information provided in the application 31130 for issuance of a certificate of authority, the superintendent 31131 shall determine whether or not the applicant meets the 31132 requirements of division (A) of this section. If the 31133 superintendent determines that the applicant does not meet these 31134 requirements, the superintendent shall specify in what respects it 31135 is deficient. However, the superintendent shall not deny an 31136 application because the requirements of this section are not met 31137 unless the applicant has been given an opportunity for a hearing 31138 on that issue. 31139

(C) If the applicant requests a hearing, the superintendent 31140 shall hold a hearing before denying an application because the 31141 applicant does not meet the requirements of this section. The 31142 hearing shall be held in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 31143
Revised Code. 31144

(D) Nothing in this section requires the superintendent to 31145 review or make findings with regard to an application and 31146 accompanying documents to establish or operate any of the 31147
following: 31148

(1) A health insuring corporation to cover solely medicaid 31149 recipients; 31150

(2) A health insuring corporation to cover solely medicare 31151 beneficiaries; 31152

(3) A health insuring corporation to cover solely medicaid 31153 recipients and medicare beneficiaries; 31154

(4) A health insuring corporation to cover solely	31155
participants of the children's buy in program;	31156
(5) A health insuring corporation to cover solely medicaid	31157
recipients and participants of the children's buy in program;	31158
(6) A health insuring corporation to cover solely medicaid	31159
recipients, medicare beneficiaries, and participants of the	31160
children's buy in program.	31161
Sec. 1751.11. (A) Every subscriber of a health insuring	31162 corporation is entitled to an evidence of coverage for the health	31163 care plan under which health care benefits are provided.	31164
(B) Every subscriber of a health insuring corporation that	31165 offers basic health care services is entitled to an identification	31166 card or similar document that specifies the health insuring	31167 corporation's name as stated in its articles of incorporation, and	31168 any trade or fictitious names used by the health insuring	31169 corporation. The identification card or document shall list at	31170 least one toll-free telephone number that provides the subscriber	31171 with access, to information on a twenty-four-hours-per-day,	31172 seven-days-per-week basis, as to how health care services may be	31173 obtained. The identification card or document shall also list at	31174 least one toll-free number that, during normal business hours,	31175 provides the subscriber with access to information on the coverage	31176 available under the subscriber's health care plan and information	31177 on the health care plan's internal and external review processes.	31178
(C) No evidence of coverage, or amendment to the evidence of	31179 coverage, shall be delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, or	31180 used, until the form of the evidence of coverage or amendment has	31181 been filed by the health insuring corporation with the	31182 superintendent of insurance. If the superintendent does not	31183 disapprove the evidence of coverage or amendment within sixty days	31184
after it is filed it shall be deemed approved, unless the	31185 superintendent sooner gives approval for the evidence of coverage 31186 or amendment. With respect to an amendment to an approved evidence 31187 of coverage, the superintendent only may disapprove provisions 31188 amended or added to the evidence of coverage. If the 31189 superintendent determines within the sixty-day period that any 31190 evidence of coverage or amendment fails to meet the requirements 31191 of this section, the superintendent shall so notify the health 31192 insuring corporation and it shall be unlawful for the health 31193 insuring corporation to use such evidence of coverage or 31194 amendment. At any time, the superintendent, upon at least thirty 31195 days' written notice to a health insuring corporation, may 31196 withdraw an approval, deemed or actual, of any evidence of 31197 coverage or amendment on any of the grounds stated in this 31198 section. Such disapproval shall be effected by a written order, 31199 which shall state the grounds for disapproval and shall be issued 31200 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 31201

(D) No evidence of coverage or amendment shall be delivered, 31202 issued for delivery, renewed, or used: 31203

(1) If it contains provisions or statements that are 31204 inequitable, untrue, misleading, or deceptive; 31205

(2) Unless it contains a clear, concise, and complete 31206 statement of the following: 31207

(a) The health care services and insurance or other benefits, 31208 if any, to which an enrollee is entitled under the health care 31209 plan; 31210

(b) Any exclusions or limitations on the health care 31211 services, type of health care services, benefits, or type of 31212 benefits to be provided, including copayments and deductibles; 31213

(c) An enrollee's personal financial obligation for 31214 noncovered services; 31215

(d) Where and in what manner general information and 31216

information as to how health care services may be obtained is	31217 available, including a toll-free telephone number;	31218
(e) The premium rate with respect to individual and	31219 conversion contracts, and relevant copayment and deductible	31220 provisions with respect to all contracts. The statement of the	31221 premium rate, however, may be contained in a separate insert.	31222
(f) The method utilized by the health insuring corporation	31223
for resolving enrollee complaints;	31224
(g) The utilization review, internal review, and external	31225 review procedures established under sections 1751.77 to 1751.85 of	31226
the Revised Code.	31227
(3) Unless it provides for the continuation of an enrollee's	31228 coverage, in the event that the enrollee's coverage under the	31229 group policy, contract, certificate, or agreement terminates while	31230
the enrollee is receiving inpatient care in a hospital. This	31231 continuation of coverage shall terminate at the earliest	31232 occurrence of any of the following:	31233
(a) The enrollee's discharge from the hospital;	31234
(b) The determination by the enrollee's attending physician	31235
that inpatient care is no longer medically indicated for the	31236 enrollee; however, nothing in division (D)(3)(b) of this section	31237 precludes a health insuring corporation from engaging in	31238 utilization review as described in the evidence of coverage.	31239
(c) The enrollee's reaching the limit for contractual	31240 benefits;	31241
(d) The effective date of any new coverage.	31242
(4) Unless it contains a provision that states, in substance,	31243 that the health insuring corporation is not a member of any	31244 guaranty fund, and that in the event of the health insuring	31245 corporation's insolvency, an enrollee is protected only to the	31246 extent that the hold harmless provision required by section 31247 1751.13 of the Revised Code applies to the health care services 31248 rendered; 31249

(5) Unless it contains a provision that states, in substance, 31250 that in the event of the insolvency of the health insuring 31251 corporation, an enrollee may be financially responsible for health 31252 care services rendered by a provider or health care facility that 31253 is not under contract to the health insuring corporation, whether 31254 or not the health insuring corporation authorized the use of the 31255 provider or health care facility. 31256

(E) Notwithstanding divisions (C) and (D) of this section, a 31257 health insuring corporation may use an evidence of coverage that 31258 provides for the coverage of beneficiaries enrolled in medicare 31259 pursuant to a medicare contract, or an evidence of coverage that 31260 provides for the coverage of beneficiaries enrolled in the federal 31261 employees health benefits program pursuant to 5 U.S.C.A. 8905, or 31262 an evidence of coverage that provides for the coverage of medicaid 31263
