division ~~(C)~~(F) of this section to award a contract to the lowest 1592 political subdivision determines is a nonresponsible bidder prior 1603 to requesting bids in accordance with rules adopted under section 1604

153.503 of the Revised Code. 1605

The factors that the state agency or political subdivision 1606 shall consider in determining whether a bidder on the contract is 1607 responsible include the experience of the bidder, the bidder's 1608 financial condition, conduct and performance on previous 1609 contracts, facilities, management skills, and ability to execute 1610 bidder in excess of a percentage of the bid amount of the project 1619 for which the bid is submitted as specified by the state agency or 1620 political subdivision; 1621

(2) That the bidder for a specified trade will not 1622

the bidder intends to use for the project; 1626

(3) That the bidder in a particular trade is licensed by the 1627
Ohio construction industry licensing board, as required under 1628 Chapter 4740. of the Revised Code, is licensed by the state fire 1629 state agency or political subdivision; 1637

(5) That the bidder in a specified trade employs only 1638 personnel who have graduated from or are currently enrolled in an 1639 apprenticeship program approved by the state or the federal 1640 government or a career technical program or who have at least the 1641 specified number of years of experience in the particular trade, 1642 experience modification rating greater than the level specified by 1651 the state agency or political subdivision with respect to the 1652 will require the apparent low bidder to submit additional 1659 information in order to be awarded the contract. If, after opening 1660 all of the bids, the state agency or political subdivision 1661 determines that the bid submitted by the apparent low bidder is 1662 more than that percentage in relation to the bid of the next 1663 lowest bidder, the state agency or political subdivision shall 1664 require the apparent low bidder to list a specified number of 1665 similar contracts for prior projects. The cost of each prior contract included in the list shall fall within a specified percentage of the estimated cost for the project for which the apparent low bidder submitted the bid, and each contract included in the list shall have been completed successfully by the apparent low bidder not more than a specified number of years prior to the current bid.

(D) For purposes of divisions (A) and (B) of this division section, the provision of a bid guaranty in accordance with divisions (A)(1) and (B) of section 153.54 of the Revised Code issued by a surety licensed to do business in this state is evidence of financial responsibility, but a state agency or political subdivision described in division (A) of this section may request additional financial information for review from an apparent low bidder after it opens all submitted bids. this section determines to award a contract to a bidder other than 1699
the apparent low bidder or bidders for the construction, 1700 reconstruction, improvement, enlargement, alteration, repair, 1701 painting, or decoration of a public improvement, it shall meet 1702 with the apparent low bidder or bidders upon a filing of a timely 1703 written protest. The protest must be received within five days of 1704 the notification required in division ~~(A)~~(E) of this section. No 1705 final award shall be made until the state agency or political 1706

119. of the Revised Code. 1710

(2) "Tax expenditure bill" means a bill introduced in the 2878 house of representatives or the senate that proposes to enact or 2879 modify one or more tax expenditures. 2880

(B) There is hereby created the joint tax expenditure review 2881 committee, consisting of eight members, composed of the following: 2882

(1) The chair and ranking minority member of the house of 2883 enactment of this section. Thereafter, the terms of the office 2895 shall be the same as the term of each general assembly. Members 2896 twice per year at the call of the chairperson. The committee is a 2909 public body for the purposes of section 121.22 of the Revised 2910

Code. 2911

A vacancy on the committee does not impair the right of the 2912 other members to exercise all the functions of the committee. The 2913 presence of a majority of the members of the committee constitutes 2914 a quorum for the conduct of business of the committee. The 2915 concurrence of at least a majority of the members of the committee 2916 is necessary for any action to be taken by the committee. 2917

The committee shall permit any person to present evidence or 2918 modified, beginning with the least recently enacted or modified 2928 tax expenditure. Alternatively, the review schedule may group tax 2929 expenditures by the individuals or industries benefiting from the 2930 expenditures, the objectives of each expenditure, or the policy 2931 rationale of each expenditure. In its review, the committee shall 2932 make recommendations as to whether each tax expenditure should be 2933 continued without modification, modified, scheduled for further 2934 review at a future date to consider repealing the expenditure, or 2935 repealed outright. For each expenditure reviewed, the committee 2936 may recommend accountability standards for the future review of 2937 the expenditure. The committee may consider, when reviewing a tax 2938 expenditure, any of the relevant factors in division (F) of this 2939

section. 2940

(E) Any tax expenditure bill shall include a statement 2941 explaining the objectives of the tax expenditure or its 2942 must be reviewed by the joint tax expenditure review committee. 2946 The committee shall commence its review following the introduction 2947 of the tax expenditure bill in the chamber in which the bill 2948 originates. During the committee's review, the committee may 2949 consider any of the relevant factors in division (F) of this 2950 section. The committee shall issue copies of its review to each 2951 member of the legislative committee to which the bill has been 2952 referred upon the conclusion of the committee's review. 2953

(F) In conducting reviews pursuant to division (D) or (E) of 2954 local taxing authorities, including, in the case of a review under 2960 division (D) of this section, any past fiscal effects and expected 2961 future fiscal impacts of the tax expenditure in the following 2962 eight-year period; 2963

(3) Public policy objectives that might support the tax 2964 expenditure. In researching such objectives, the committee may 2965 consider the expenditure's legislative history, the tax 2966 expenditure's sponsor's intent in proposing the tax expenditure, 2967 the extent to which the tax expenditure encourages or would 2968 encourage business growth or relocation into the state, promotes 2969 or would promote growth or retention of high-wage jobs in the 2970 state, or aids or would aid community stabilization. 2971

(4) Whether the tax expenditure successfully accomplishes any 2972 of the objectives identified in division (F)(3) of this section; 2973 this section would or could have been accomplished successfully in 2975 the absence of the tax expenditure or with less cost to the state 2976 or local governments; 2977

(6) Whether the objectives identified in division (F)(3) of 2978
this section could have been accomplished successfully through a 2979 program that requires legislative appropriations for funding; 2980

(7) The extent to which the tax expenditure may provide 2981 unintended benefits to an individual, organization, or industry 2982 other than those the legislature or sponsor intended or creates an 2983 unfair competitive advantage for its recipient with respect to 2984 other businesses in the state; 2985

(8) The extent to which terminating the tax expenditure may 2986 have negative effects on taxpayers that currently benefit from the 2987 tax expenditure; 2988

(9) The extent to which the repeal of the tax expenditure may 2989 have negative effects on the state's employment and economy; 2990

(10) The feasibility of modifying the tax expenditure to 2991 expenditure if the objectives of the tax expenditure are not 2993 fulfilled by the recipient of the tax expenditure. 2994

(G) The committee shall annually prepare a report of its 2995 determinations under this section and, not later than the 2996 thirty-first day of December of each year, provide a copy of the 2997 report to the governor, the speaker of the house of 2998 representatives, the president of the senate, the minority leader 2999 of state, their expenses, the cost of employees assigned to assist 5426 the assistant auditors of state, the cost of experts employed 5427 pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code, and the cost of 5428 typing, reviewing, and copying reports shall be borne by the 5429 public office to which such assistant auditors of state are so 5430 assigned, ~~except that annual vacation and sick leave of assistant~~ 5431 ~~auditors of state, employees, and typists shall be financed from~~ 5432

~~the general revenue fund. The necessary traveling and hotel~~ 5433
~~expenses of the deputy inspectors and supervisors of public~~ 5434 ~~offices shall be paid from the state treasury.~~ Assistant auditors 5435 of state shall be compensated by the taxing district or other 5436 public office audited for activities undertaken pursuant to 5437 division (B) of section 117.18 and section 117.24 of the Revised 5438 Code. The costs of any assistant auditor, employee, or expert 5439 employed pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code called 5440 upon to testify in any legal proceedings in regard to any audit, 5441 or called upon to review or discuss any matter related to any 5442 audit, may be charged to the public office to which the audit 5443 relates. 5444

(2) The auditor of state shall certify the amount of such 5445 compensation, expenses, cost of experts, reviewing, copying, and 5446 typing to the fiscal officer of the local public office audited. 5447
The fiscal officer of the local public office shall forthwith draw 5448 a warrant upon the general fund or other appropriate funds of the 5449 local public office to the order of the auditor of state; 5450 provided, that the auditor of state is authorized to negotiate 5451 with any local public office and, upon agreement between the 5452 auditor of state and the local public office, may adopt a schedule 5453 for payment of the amount due under this section. Money so 5454 received by the auditor of state shall be paid into the state 5455 treasury to the credit of the public audit expense fund--local 5456 government, which is hereby created, and shall be used to pay the 5457 compensation, expense, cost of experts and employees, reviewing, 5458 copying, and typing of reports. 5459

(3) At the conclusion of each audit, or analysis and report 5460 made pursuant to section 117.24 of the Revised Code, the auditor 5461 of state shall furnish the fiscal officer of the local public 5462 office audited a statement showing the total cost of the audit, or 5463 of the audit and the analysis and report, and the percentage of 5464 the total cost chargeable to each fund audited. The fiscal officer 5465 may distribute such total cost to each fund audited in accordance 5466 with its percentage of the total cost. 5467

(4) The auditor of state shall provide each local public 5468 office a statement or certification of the amount due from the 5469 public office for services performed by the auditor of state under 5470 this or any other section of the Revised Code, as well as the date 5471 upon which payment is due to the auditor of state. Any local 5472 public office that does not pay the amount due to the auditor of 5473 state by that date may be assessed by the auditor of state for 5474 interest from the date upon which the payment is due at the rate 5475 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All 5476 interest charges assessed by the auditor of state may be collected 5477 in the same manner as audit costs pursuant to division (D) of this 5478

section. 5479

(5) The auditor of state shall establish by rule rates to be 5480 charged to local public offices for recovering the costs of audits 5481 of local public offices. 5482

(D) If the auditor of state fails to receive payment for any 5483 amount due, including, but not limited to, fines, fees, and costs, 5484 from a public office for services performed under this or any 5485 other section of the Revised Code, the auditor of state may seek 5486 payment through the office of budget and management. (Amounts due 5487 include any amount due to an independent public accountant with 5488 whom the auditor has contracted to perform services, all costs and 5489 fees associated with participation in the uniform accounting 5490 network, and all costs associated with the auditor's provision of 5491 local government services.) Upon certification by the auditor of 5492 state to the director of budget and management of any such amount 5493 due, the director shall withhold from the public office any amount 5494 available, up to and including the amount certified as due, from 5495 any funds under the director's control that belong to or are 5496 lawfully payable or due to the public office. The director shall 5497 promptly pay the amount withheld to the auditor of state. If the 5498 director determines that no funds due and payable to the public 5499 office are available or that insufficient amounts of such funds 5500 are available to cover the amount due, the director shall withhold 5501 and pay to the auditor of state the amounts available and, in the 5502 case of a local public office, certify the remaining amount to the 5503 county auditor of the county in which the local public office is 5504 located. The county auditor shall withhold from the local public 5505 office any amount available, up to and including the amount 5506 certified as due, from any funds under the county auditor's 5507 control and belonging to or lawfully payable or due to the local 5508 public office. The county auditor shall promptly pay any such 5509 amount withheld to the auditor of state. 5510

Sec. 118.023. (A) Upon determining that one or more of the 5511 conditions described in section 118.022 of the Revised Code are 5512 present, the auditor of state shall issue a written declaration of 5513 the existence of a fiscal watch to the municipal corporation, 5514 county, or township and the county budget commission. The fiscal 5515 watch shall be in effect until the auditor of state determines 5516 that none of the conditions are any longer present and cancels the 5517 watch, or until the auditor of state determines that a state of 5518 fiscal emergency exists. The auditor of state, or a designee, 5519 shall provide such technical and support services to the municipal 5520 corporation, county, or township after a fiscal watch has been 5521 declared to exist as the auditor of state considers necessary. ~~The~~ 5522 ~~controlling board shall provide sufficient funds for any costs~~ 5523
~~that the auditor of state may incur in determining if a fiscal~~ 5524
~~watch exists and for providing technical and support services.~~ 5525

(B) Within one hundred twenty days after the day a written 5526 declaration of the existence of a fiscal watch is issued under 5527 division (A) of this section, the mayor of the municipal 5528 corporation, the board of county commissioners of the county, or 5529 the board of township trustees of the township for which a fiscal 5530 watch was declared shall submit to the auditor of state a 5531 financial recovery plan that shall identify actions to be taken to 5532 eliminate all of the conditions described in section 118.022 of 5533
the Revised Code, include a schedule detailing the approximate 5534 dates for beginning and completing the actions, and include a 5535 five-year forecast reflecting the effects of the actions. The 5536 financial recovery plan is subject to review and approval by the 5537 auditor of state. The auditor of state may extend the amount of 5538 time by which a financial recovery plan is required to be filed, 5539 for good cause shown. 5540

(C) If a feasible financial recovery plan for a municipal 5541 corporation, county, or township for which a fiscal watch was 5542 declared is not submitted within the time period prescribed by 5543 division (B) of this section, or within any extension of time 5544 thereof, the auditor of state shall declare that a fiscal 5545 emergency condition exists under section 118.04 of the Revised 5546 Code in the municipal corporation, county, or township. 5547

Sec. 118.025. (A) The auditor of state shall develop 5548 guidelines for identifying fiscal practices and budgetary 5549 conditions of municipal corporations, counties, and townships 5550 that, if uncorrected, could result in a future declaration of a 5551 fiscal watch or fiscal emergency. 5552

(B) If the auditor of state determines that a municipal 5553 corporation, county, or township is engaging in any of those 5554 practices or that any of those conditions exist, the auditor of 5555 state may declare the municipal corporation, county, or township 5556 to be under a fiscal caution. 5557

(C) When the auditor of state declares a fiscal caution, the 5558 auditor of state shall promptly notify the municipal corporation, 5559 county, or township of that declaration and shall request the 5560 municipal corporation, county, or township to provide written 5561 proposals for discontinuing or correcting the fiscal practices or 5562 budgetary conditions that prompted the declaration and for 5563 preventing the municipal corporation, county, or township from 5564 experiencing further fiscal difficulties that could result in a 5565 declaration of fiscal watch or fiscal emergency. 5566

(D) The auditor of state, or a designee, may visit and 5567 inspect any municipal corporation, county, or township that is 5568 declared to be under a fiscal caution. The auditor of state may 5569 provide technical assistance to the municipal corporation, county, 5570 or township in implementing proposals to eliminate the practices 5571 or budgetary conditions that prompted the declaration of fiscal 5572 caution and may make recommendations concerning those proposals. 5573

(E) If the auditor of state finds that a municipal 5574 corporation, county, or township declared to be under a fiscal 5575 caution has not made reasonable proposals or otherwise taken 5576 action to discontinue or correct the fiscal practices or budgetary 5577 conditions that prompted the declaration of fiscal caution, and if 5578 the auditor of state considers it necessary to prevent further 5579 fiscal decline, the auditor of state may determine that the 5580 municipal corporation, county, or township should be in a state of 5581 fiscal watch. 5582

Sec. 118.04. (A) The existence of a fiscal emergency 5583 condition constitutes a fiscal emergency. The existence of fiscal 5584 emergency conditions shall be determined by the auditor of state. 5585 Such determination, for purposes of this chapter, may be made only 5586 upon the filing with the auditor of state of a written request for 5587 such a determination by the governor, by the county budget 5588 commission, by the mayor of the municipal corporation, or by the 5589 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 5590 corporation when authorized by a majority of the members of such 5591 legislative authority, by the board of county commissioners, or by 5592 the board of township trustees, or upon initiation by the auditor 5593 of state. The request may designate in general or specific terms, 5594 but without thereby limiting the determination thereto, the 5595 condition or conditions to be examined to determine whether they 5596 constitute fiscal emergency conditions. Promptly upon receipt of 5597 such written request, or upon initiation by the auditor of state, 5598 the auditor of state shall transmit copies of such request or a 5599 written notice of such initiation to the mayor and the presiding 5600 officer of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 5601 or to the board of county commissioners or the board of township 5602 trustees by personal service or certified mail. Such 5603 determinations shall be set forth in written reports and 5604 supplemental reports, which shall be filed with the mayor, fiscal 5605 officer, and presiding officer of the legislative authority of the 5606 municipal corporation, or with the board of county commissioners 5607 or the board of township trustees, and with the treasurer of 5608 state, secretary of state, governor, director of budget and 5609 management, and county budget commission, within thirty days after 5610 the request. The auditor of state shall so file an initial report 5611 immediately upon determining the existence of any fiscal emergency 5612 condition. 5613

(B) In making such determination, the auditor of state may 5614 rely on reports or other information filed or otherwise made 5615 available by the municipal corporation, county, or township, 5616 accountants' reports, or other sources and data the auditor of 5617 state considers reliable for such purpose. As to the status of 5618 funds or accounts, a determination that the amounts stated in 5619 section 118.03 of the Revised Code are exceeded may be made 5620 without need for determination of the specific amount of the 5621 excess. The auditor of state may engage the services of 5622 independent certified or registered public accountants, including 5623 public accountants engaged or previously engaged by the municipal 5624 corporation, county, or township, to conduct audits or make 5625 reports or render such opinions as the auditor of state considers 5626 desirable with respect to any aspect of the determinations to be 5627 made by the auditor of state. 5628

(C) A determination by the auditor of state under this 5629 section that a fiscal emergency condition does not exist is final 5630 and conclusive and not appealable. A determination by the auditor 5631 of state under this section that a fiscal emergency exists is 5632 final, except that the mayor of any municipal corporation affected 5633 by a determination of the existence of a fiscal emergency 5634 condition under this section, when authorized by a majority of the 5635 members of the legislative authority, or the board of county 5636 commissioners or board of township trustees, may appeal the 5637 determination of the existence of a fiscal emergency condition to 5638 the court of appeals having territorial jurisdiction over the 5639 municipal corporation, county, or township. The appeal shall be 5640 heard expeditiously by the court of appeals and for good cause 5641 shown shall take precedence over all other civil matters except 5642 earlier matters of the same character. Notice of such appeal must 5643 be filed with the auditor of state and such court within thirty 5644 days after certification by the auditor of state to the mayor and 5645 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 5646 corporation or to the board of county commissioners or board of 5647 township trustees as provided for in division (A) of this section. 5648

In such appeal, determinations of the auditor of state shall be 5649 presumed to be valid and the municipal corporation, county, or 5650 township shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 5651 evidence, that each of the determinations made by the auditor of 5652 state as to the existence of a fiscal emergency condition under 5653 section 118.03 of the Revised Code was in error. If the municipal 5654 corporation, county, or township fails, upon presentation of its 5655 case, to prove by clear and convincing evidence that each such 5656 determination by the auditor of state was in error, the court 5657 shall dismiss the appeal. The municipal corporation, county, or 5658 township and the auditor of state may introduce any evidence 5659 relevant to the existence or nonexistence of such fiscal emergency 5660 conditions at the times indicated in the applicable provisions of 5661 divisions (A) and (B) of section 118.03 of the Revised Code. The 5662 pendency of any such appeal shall not affect or impede the 5663 operations of this chapter; no restraining order, temporary 5664 injunction, or other similar restraint upon actions consistent 5665 with this chapter shall be imposed by the court or any court 5666 pending determination of such appeal; and all things may be done 5667 under this chapter that may be done regardless of the pendency of 5668 any such appeal. Any action taken or contract executed pursuant to 5669 this chapter during the pendency of such appeal is valid and 5670 enforceable among all parties, notwithstanding the decision in 5671 such appeal. If the court of appeals reverses the determination of 5672 the existence of a fiscal emergency condition by the auditor of 5673 state, the determination no longer has any effect, and any 5674 procedures undertaken as a result of the determination shall be 5675 terminated. 5676

(D) All expenses incurred by the auditor of state relating to 5677 a determination or termination of a fiscal emergency under this 5678 section ~~or~~, a fiscal watch under section 118.021 of the Revised 5679 Code, or a fiscal caution under section 118.025 of the Revised 5680 Code, including providing technical and support services, shall be 5681 reimbursed from an appropriation for that purpose. If necessary, 5682 the controlling board may provide sufficient funds for these 5683 purposes. 5684

Sec. 118.05. (A) Pursuant to the powers of the general 5685 assembly and for the purposes of this chapter, upon the occurrence 5686 of a fiscal emergency in any municipal corporation, county, or 5687 township, as determined pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised 5688 Code, there is established, with respect to that municipal 5689 corporation, county, or township, a body both corporate and 5690 politic constituting an agency and instrumentality of the state 5691 and performing essential governmental functions of the state to be 5692 known as the "financial planning and supervision commission for 5693 ..... (name of municipal corporation, county, or 5694 township)," which, in that name, may exercise all authority vested 5695 in such a commission by this chapter. A Except as otherwise 5696 provided in division (L) of this section, a separate commission is 5697 established with respect to each municipal corporation, county, or 5698 township as to which there is a fiscal emergency as determined 5699 under this chapter. 5700

(B) A commission shall consist of the following voting 5701 members: 5702

(1) Four ex officio members: the treasurer of state; the 5703 director of budget and management; in the case of a municipal 5704 corporation, the mayor of the municipal corporation and the 5705 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 5706 corporation; in the case of a county, the president of the board 5707 of county commissioners and the county auditor; and in the case of 5708 a township, a member of the board of township trustees and the 5709 county auditor. 5710

The treasurer of state may designate a deputy treasurer or 5711 director within the office of the treasurer of state or any other 5712 appropriate person who is not an employee of the treasurer of 5713 state's office; the director of budget and management may 5714 designate an individual within the office of budget and management 5715 or any other appropriate person who is not an employee of the 5716 office of budget and management; ~~the mayor may designate a~~ 5717 ~~responsible official within the mayor's office or the fiscal~~ 5718 ~~officer of the municipal corporation;~~ the presiding officer of the 5719 legislative authority of the municipal corporation may designate 5720 any other member of the legislative authority; the board of county 5721 commissioners may designate any other member of the board or the 5722 fiscal officer of the county; and the board of township trustees 5723 may designate any other member of the board or the fiscal officer 5724 of the township to attend the meetings of the commission when the 5725 ex officio member is absent or unable for any reason to attend. A 5726 designee, when present, shall be counted in determining whether a 5727 quorum is present at any meeting of the commission and may vote 5728 and participate in all proceedings and actions of the commission. 5729

The designations shall be in writing, executed by the ex officio 5730 member or entity making the designation, and filed with the 5731 secretary of the commission. The designations may be changed from 5732 time to time in like manner, but due regard shall be given to the 5733 need for continuity. 5734

(2) If a municipal corporation, county, or township has a 5735 population of at least one thousand, three members nominated and 5736 appointed as follows: 5737

The mayor and presiding officer of the legislative authority 5738
of the municipal corporation, the board of county commissioners, 5739
or the board of township trustees shall, within ten days after the 5740
determination of the fiscal emergency by the auditor of state 5741
under section 118.04 of the Revised Code, submit in writing to the 5742 governor the nomination of five persons agreed to by them and 5743 meeting the qualifications set forth in this division. If the 5744 governor is not satisfied that at least three of the nominees are 5745 well qualified, the governor shall notify the mayor and presiding 5746 officer, or the board of county commissioners, or the board of 5747 township trustees to submit in writing, within five days, 5748
additional nominees agreed upon by them, not exceeding three. The 5749 governor shall appoint three members from all the agreed-upon 5750 nominees so submitted or a lesser number that the governor 5751 considers well qualified within thirty days after receipt of the 5752 nominations, and shall fill any remaining positions on the 5753 commission by appointment of any other persons meeting the 5754 qualifications set forth in this division. All appointments by the 5755 governor shall be made with the advice and consent of the senate. 5756
Each of the three appointed members shall serve during the life of 5757
the commission, subject to removal by the governor for 5758 misfeasance, nonfeasance, or malfeasance in office. In the event 5759 of the death, resignation, incapacity, removal, or ineligibility 5760 to serve of an appointed member, the governor, pursuant to the 5761 process for original appointment, shall appoint a successor. 5762

population of less than one thousand, one member nominated and 5764
appointed as follows: 5765~~

determination of the fiscal emergency by the auditor of state 5769
governor the nomination of three persons agreed to by them and 5771
governor is not satisfied that at least one of the nominees is 5773 well qualified, the governor shall notify the mayor and presiding 5774
governor shall appoint one member from all the agreed upon 5778 nominees so submitted or shall fill the position on the commission 5779 by appointment of any other person meeting the qualifications set 5780 forth in this division. All appointments by the governor shall be 5781 made with the advice and consent of the senate. The appointed 5782 member shall serve during the life of the commission, subject to 5783 removal by the governor for misfeasance, nonfeasance, or 5784 malfeasance in office. In the event of the death, resignation, 5785 incapacity, removal, or ineligibility to serve of the appointed 5786 member, the governor, pursuant to the process for original 5787 appointment, shall appoint a successor. 5788~~

Each appointed member shall be an individual: 5789

(a) Who has knowledge and experience in financial matters, 5790 financial management, or business organization or operations; 5791

(b) Whose residency, office, or principal place of professional or business activity is situated within the municipal corporation, county, or township;

(c) Who shall not become a candidate for elected public office while serving as a member of the commission.

(C) Immediately after appointment of the initial appointed ~~member or~~ members of the commission, the governor shall call the first meeting of the commission and shall cause written notice of the time, date, and place of the first meeting to be given to each member of the commission at least forty-eight hours in advance of the meeting.

(D) The director of budget and management shall serve as chairperson of the commission. The commission shall elect one of its members to serve as vice-chairperson and may appoint a secretary and any other officers, who need not be members of the commission, it considers necessary. The chairperson may remove a member appointed by the governor if that member fails to attend three consecutive meetings. In that event, the governor shall fill the vacancy in the same manner as the original appointment.

(E) The commission may adopt and alter bylaws and rules, which shall not be subject to section 111.15 or Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, for the conduct of its affairs and for the manner, subject to this chapter, in which its powers and functions shall be exercised and embodied.

(F) Four members of a commission established pursuant to divisions (B)(1) and (2) of this section constitute a quorum of the commission. ~~The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of such a commission is necessary for any action taken by vote of the commission. Three members of a commission established pursuant to divisions (B)(1) and (3) of this section constitute a quorum of the commission.~~ The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of ~~such a~~ the commission is necessary for any action taken by vote 5823 of the commission. No vacancy in the membership of the commission 5824 shall impair the rights of a quorum by such vote to exercise all 5825 the rights and perform all the duties of the commission. Members 5826 of the commission, and their designees, are not disqualified from 5827 voting by reason of the functions of the other office they hold 5828 and are not disqualified from exercising the functions of the 5829 other office with respect to the municipal corporation, county, or 5830 township, its officers, or the commission. 5831

(G) The auditor of state shall serve as the "financial 5832 supervisor" to the commission unless the auditor of state elects 5833 to contract for that service. As used in this chapter, "financial 5834 supervisor" means the auditor of state. 5835

(H) At the request of the commission, the auditor of state 5836 shall designate employees of the auditor of state's office to 5837 assist the commission and the financial supervisor and to 5838 coordinate the work of the auditor of state's office and the 5839 financial supervisor. Upon the determination of a fiscal emergency 5840 in any municipal corporation, county, or township, the municipal 5841 corporation, county, or township shall provide the commission with 5842 such reasonable office space in the principal building housing 5843 city, county, or township government, where feasible, as it 5844 determines is necessary to carry out its duties under this 5845
chapter. 5846

(I) The financial supervisor, the members of the commission, 5847 the auditor of state, and any person authorized to act on behalf 5848 of or assist them shall not be personally liable or subject to any 5849 suit, judgment, or claim for damages resulting from the exercise 5850 of or failure to exercise the powers, duties, and functions 5851 granted to them in regard to their functioning under this chapter, 5852 but the commission, the financial supervisor, the auditor of 5853 state, and those other persons shall be subject to mandamus 5854 proceedings to compel performance of their duties under this 5855 chapter and with respect to any debt obligations issued pursuant 5856 or subject to this chapter. 5857

(J) At the request of the commission, the administrative head 5858 of any state agency shall temporarily assign personnel skilled in 5859 accounting and budgeting procedures to assist the commission or 5860 the financial supervisor in its duties as financial supervisor. 5861

(K) The appointed members of the commission are not subject 5862 to section 102.02 of the Revised Code. Each appointed member of 5863 the commission shall file with the commission a signed written 5864 statement setting forth the general nature of sales of goods, 5865 property, or services or of loans to the municipal corporation, 5866 county, or township with respect to which that commission is 5867 established, in which the appointed member has a pecuniary 5868 interest or in which any member of the appointed member's 5869 immediate family, as defined in section 102.01 of the Revised 5870 Code, or any corporation, partnership, or enterprise of which the 5871 appointed member is an officer, director, or partner, or of which 5872 the appointed member or a member of the appointed member's 5873 immediate family, as so defined, owns more than a five per cent 5874 interest, has a pecuniary interest, and of which sale, loan, or 5875 interest such member has knowledge. The statement shall be 5876 supplemented from time to time to reflect changes in the general 5877 nature of any such sales or loans. 5878

(L) A commission is not established with respect to any 5879 village or township with a population of less than one thousand as 5880 of the most recent federal decennial census. Upon the occurrence 5881 of a fiscal emergency in such a village or township, the auditor 5882 of state shall serve as the financial supervisor of the village or 5883 township and shall have all the powers and responsibilities of a 5884 commission. 5885

Sec. 118.06. (A) Within one hundred twenty days after the 5886 first meeting of the commission, the mayor of the municipal 5887 corporation or the board of county commissioners or board of 5888 township trustees shall submit to the commission a detailed 5889 financial plan, as approved or amended and approved by ordinance 5890 or resolution of the legislative authority, containing the 5891
following: 5892

(1) Actions to be taken by the municipal corporation, county, 5893 or township to: 5894

(a) Eliminate all fiscal emergency conditions determined to 5895 exist pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised Code; 5896

(b) Satisfy any judgments, past due accounts payable, and all 5897 past due and payable payroll and fringe benefits; 5898

(c) Eliminate the deficits in all deficit funds; 5899

(d) Restore to construction funds and other special funds 5900 moneys from such funds that were used for purposes not within the 5901 purposes of such funds, or borrowed from such construction funds 5902 by the purchase of debt obligations of the municipal corporation, 5903 county, or township with the moneys of such funds, or missing from 5904 the construction funds or such special funds and not accounted 5905 for; 5906

(e) Balance the budgets, avoid future deficits in any funds, 5907 and maintain current payments of payroll, fringe benefits, and all 5908 accounts; 5909

(f) Avoid any fiscal emergency condition in the future; 5910

(g) Restore the ability of the municipal corporation, county, 5911 or township to market long-term general obligation bonds under 5912 provisions of law applicable to municipal corporations, counties, 5913 or townships generally. 5914

(2) The legal authorities permitting the municipal 5915 corporation, county, or township to take the actions enumerated 5916 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section; 5917

(3) The approximate dates of the commencement, progress upon, 5918 and completion of the actions enumerated pursuant to division 5919 (A)(1) of this section, a five-year forecast reflecting the 5920 effects of those actions, and a reasonable period of time expected 5921 to be required to implement the plan. The municipal corporation, 5922 county, or township, in consultation with the commission and the 5923 financial supervisor, shall prepare a reasonable time schedule for 5924 progress toward and achievement of the requirements for the 5925 financial plan and the financial plan shall be consistent with 5926 that time schedule. 5927

(4) The amount and purpose of any issue of debt obligations 5928 that will be issued, together with assurances that any such debt 5929 obligations that will be issued will not exceed debt limits 5930 supported by appropriate certifications by the fiscal officer of 5931 the municipal corporation, county, or township and the county 5932 auditor; 5933

(5) Assurances that the municipal corporation, county, or 5934 township will establish monthly levels of expenditures and 5935 encumbrances pursuant to division (B)(2) of section 118.07 of the 5936
Revised Code; 5937

(6) Assurances that the municipal corporation, county, or 5938 township will conform to statutes with respect to tax budgets and 5939 appropriation measures; 5940

(7) The detail, the form, and the supporting information that 5941
the commission may direct. 5942

(B) The financial plan developed pursuant to division (A) of 5943 this section shall be filed with the financial supervisor and the 5944 financial planning and supervision commission and shall be updated 5945 annually. After consultation with the financial supervisor, the 5946 commission shall either approve or reject any initial or 5947 subsequent financial plan. If the commission rejects the initial 5948 or any subsequent financial plan, it shall forthwith inform the 5949 mayor and legislative authority of the municipal corporation or 5950 the board of county commissioners or board of township trustees of 5951 the reasons for its rejection. Within thirty days after the 5952 rejection of any plan, the mayor with the approval of the 5953 legislative authority by the passage of an ordinance or 5954 resolution, or the board of county commissioners or board of 5955 township trustees, shall submit another plan meeting the 5956 requirements of divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this section, to the 5957 commission and the financial supervisor for approval or rejection 5958 by the commission. 5959

(C) Any initial or subsequent financial plan passed by the 5960 municipal corporation, county, or township shall be approved by 5961 the commission if it complies with divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this 5962 section, and if the commission finds that the plan is bona fide 5963 and can reasonably be expected to be implemented within the period 5964 specified in the plan. 5965

(D) Any financial plan may be amended subsequent to its 5966 adoption in the same manner as the passage and approval of the 5967 initial or subsequent plan pursuant to divisions (A) to (C) of 5968
this section. 5969

(E) If a municipal corporation, county, or township fails to 5970 submit a financial plan as required by this section, or fails to 5971 substantially comply with an approved financial plan, upon 5972 certification of the commission, all state funding for that 5973 municipal corporation, county, or township other than benefit 5974 assistance to individuals shall be escrowed until a feasible plan 5975 is submitted and approved or substantial compliance with the plan 5976 is achieved, as the case may be. 5977

Sec. 118.12. (A) After the date by which the municipal 5978 corporation, county, or township is required to submit a financial 5979 plan or segment of a financial plan to the financial planning and 5980 supervision commission, if the municipal corporation, county, or 5981 township has failed to submit a financial plan or segment as 5982 required by this chapter, expenditures from the general fund of 5983 the municipal corporation, county, or township in any month may 5984 not exceed eighty-five per cent of expenditures from the general 5985 fund for such month in the preceding fiscal year, except the 5986 commission may authorize a higher per cent for any month upon 5987 justification of need by the municipal corporation, county, or 5988 township. If considered prudent by the commission, expenditures 5989 from any other fund of the municipal corporation, county, or 5990 township also may be limited. 5991

(B) After submission of a proposed financial plan by the 5992 municipal corporation, county, or township to the commission, 5993 until approval or disapproval no expenditure may be made contrary 5994 to such proposed financial plan. 5995

(C) After disapproval by the commission of a proposed 5996 financial plan, no expenditure may be made by the municipal 5997 corporation, county, or township inconsistent with the reasons for 5998 disapproval given pursuant to division (B) of section 118.06 of 5999 the Revised Code; and if the municipal corporation, county, or 6000 township fails to submit a revised financial plan within the time 6001 required, the expenditure limits of division (A) of this section 6002 are applicable. 6003

(D) After approval of a financial plan, or any amendment 6004 thereof, no expenditure may be made contrary to the approved 6005 financial plan, or amendment thereof, without the advance approval 6006 of the financial supervisor. The commission, by a majority vote, 6007 may overrule the decision of the financial supervisor. 6008

Sec. 118.17. (A) During a fiscal emergency period and with 6009 the approval of the financial planning and supervision commission, 6010 a municipal corporation, county, or township may issue local 6011 government fund notes, in anticipation of amounts to be allocated 6012 to it pursuant to division (B) of section 5747.50 of the Revised 6013 Code or to be apportioned to it under section 5747.51 or 5747.53 6014 of the Revised Code in a future year or years, for a period of no 6015 more than eight calendar years. The principal amount of the notes 6016 and interest on the notes due and payable in any year shall not 6017 exceed fifty per cent of the total amount of local government fund 6018 moneys so allocated or apportioned to the municipal corporation, 6019 county, or township for the year preceding the year in which the 6020 notes are issued. The notes may mature in semiannual or annual 6021 installments in such amounts as may be fixed by the commission, 6022 and need not mature in substantially equal semiannual or annual 6023 installments. The notes of a municipal corporation may be 6024 authorized and issued, subject to the approval of the commission, 6025 in the manner provided in sections 717.15 and 717.16 of the 6026 Revised Code, except that, notwithstanding division (A)(2) of 6027 section 717.16 of the Revised Code, the rate or rates of interest 6028 payable on the notes shall be the prevailing market rate or rates 6029 as determined and approved by the commission, and except that they 6030 shall not be issued in anticipation of bonds, shall not constitute 6031 general obligations of the municipal corporation, and shall not 6032 pledge the full faith and credit of the municipal corporation. 6033

(B) The principal and interest on the notes provided for in 6034 this section shall be payable, as provided in this section, solely 6035 from the portion of the local government fund that would otherwise 6036 be apportioned to the municipal corporation, county, or township 6037 and shall not be payable from or constitute a pledge of or claim 6038 upon, or require the levy, collection, or application of, any 6039 unvoted ad valorem property taxes or other taxes, or in any manner 6040 occupy any portion of the indirect debt limit. 6041

(C) Local government fund notes may be issued only to the 6042 extent needed to achieve one or more of the following objectives 6043 of the financial plan: 6044

(1) Satisfying any contractual or noncontractual judgments, 6045 past due accounts payable, and all past due and payable payroll 6046 and fringe benefits to be taken into account under section 118.03 6047

(2) Restoring to construction funds or other restricted funds 6049 any money applied from such funds to uses not within the purposes 6050 of such funds and which could not be transferred to such use under 6051
section 5705.14 of the Revised Code; 6052

(3) Eliminating deficit balances in all deficit funds, 6053 including funds that may be used to pay operating expenses. 6054

In addition to the objectives set forth in divisions (C)(1) 6055 to (3) of this section, local government fund notes may be issued 6056 and the proceeds of those notes may be used for the purpose of 6057 retiring or replacing other moneys used to retire current revenue 6058 notes issued pursuant to section 118.23 of the Revised Code to the 6059 extent that the proceeds of the current revenue notes have been or 6060 are to be used directly or to replace other moneys used to achieve 6061 one or more of the objectives of the financial plan specified in 6062 divisions (C)(1) to (3) of this section. Upon authorization of the 6063 local government fund notes by the legislative authority of the 6064 municipal corporation, county, or township, the proceeds of the 6065 local government fund notes and the proceeds of any such current 6066 revenue notes shall be deemed to be appropriated, to the extent 6067 that the proceeds have been or are to be so used, for the purposes 6068 for which the revenues anticipated by any such current revenue 6069 notes are collected and appropriated within the meaning of section 6070

(D) The need for an issue of local government fund notes for 6072 such purposes shall be determined by taking into consideration 6073 other money and sources of moneys available therefor under this 6074 chapter or other provisions of law, and calculating the respective 6075 amounts needed therefor in accordance with section 118.03 of the 6076 Revised Code, including the deductions or offsets therein 6077 provided, for determining that a fiscal emergency condition 6078 exists, and by eliminating any duplication of amounts thereunder. 6079
The respective amounts needed to achieve such objectives and the 6080 resulting aggregate net amount shall be determined initially by a 6081 certification of the fiscal officer as and to the extent approved 6082 by the financial supervisor. The principal amount of such notes 6083 shall not exceed the aggregate net amount needed for such 6084 purposes. The aggregate amount of all issues of such notes shall 6085 not exceed three times the average of the allocation or 6086 apportionment to the municipal corporation, county, or township of 6087 moneys from the local government fund in each of the three fiscal 6088 years preceding the fiscal year in which the notes are issued. 6089

(E) The proceeds of the sale of local government fund notes 6090 shall be appropriated by the municipal corporation, county, or 6091 township for and shall be applied only to the purposes, and in the 6092 respective amounts for those purposes, set forth in the 6093 certification given pursuant to division (D) of this section, as 6094 the purposes and amounts may be modified in the approval by the 6095 commission provided for in this section. The proceeds shall be 6096 deposited in separate accounts with a fiscal agent designated in 6097 the resolution referred to in division (F) of this section and 6098 released only for such respective purposes in accordance with the 6099 procedures set forth in division (D) of section 118.20 of the 6100 Revised Code. Any amounts not needed for such purposes shall be 6101 deposited with the fiscal agent designated to receive deposits for 6102 payment of the principal of and interest due on the notes. 6103

(F) An application for approval by the financial planning and supervision commission of an issue of local government fund notes shall be authorized by a preliminary resolution adopted by the legislative authority. The resolution may authorize the application as a part of the initial submission of the financial plan for approval or as a part of any proposed amendment to an approved financial plan or at any time after the approval of a financial plan, or amendment to a financial plan, that proposes the issue of such notes. The preliminary resolution shall designate a fiscal agent for the deposit of the proceeds of the sale of the notes, and shall contain a covenant of the municipal corporation, county, or township to comply with this chapter and the financial plan.

The commission shall review and evaluate the application and supporting certification and financial supervisor action, and shall thereupon certify its approval or disapproval, or modification and approval, of the application.

The commission shall certify the amounts, maturities, interest rates, and terms of issue of the local government fund notes approved by the commission and the purposes to which the proceeds of the sale of the notes will be applied in respective amounts.

The commission shall certify a copy of its approval, of the preliminary resolution, and of the related certification and action of the financial supervisor to the fiscal officer, the financial supervisor, the county budget commission, the county auditor, the county treasurer, and the fiscal agent designated to receive and disburse the proceeds of the sale of the notes.

(G) Upon the sale of any local government fund notes issued under this section, the commission shall determine a schedule for the deposit of local government fund distributions that are pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on the notes with the fiscal agent or trustee designated in the agreement 6136 between the municipal corporation, county, or township and the 6137 holders of the notes to receive and disburse the distributions. 6138

The amounts to be deposited shall be adequate to provide for the 6139 payment of principal and interest on the notes when due and to pay 6140 all other proper charges, costs, or expenses pertaining thereto. 6141

The amount of the local government fund moneys apportioned to 6142 the municipal corporation, county, or township that is to be so 6143 deposited in each year shall not be included in the tax budget and 6144 appropriation measures of the municipal corporation, county, or 6145 township, or in certificates of estimated revenues, for that year. 6146

The commission shall certify the schedule to the officers 6147 designated in division (F) of this section. 6148

(H) Deposit of amounts with the fiscal agent or trustee 6149 pursuant to the schedule determined by the commission shall be 6150 made from local government fund distributions to or apportioned to 6151 the municipal corporation, county, or township as provided in this 6152 division. The apportionment of local government fund moneys to the 6153 municipal corporation, county, or township for any year from the 6154 undivided local government fund shall be determined as to the 6155 municipal corporation, county, or township without regard to the 6156 amounts to be deposited with the fiscal agent or trustee in that 6157 year in accordance with division (G) of this section. After the 6158 amount of the undivided local government fund apportioned to the 6159 municipal corporation, county, or township for a calendar year is 6160 determined, the county auditor and the county treasurer shall 6161 withhold from each monthly amount to be distributed to the 6162 municipal corporation, county, or township from the undivided 6163 local government fund, and transmit to the fiscal agent or trustee 6164 for deposit, one-twelfth of the amount scheduled for deposit in 6165 that year pursuant to division (G) of this section. 6166

(I) If the commission approves the application, the municipal 6167 corporation, county, or township may proceed with the issuance of 6168 the notes as approved by the commission. 6169

All notes issued under authority of this section are lawful 6170 investments for the entities enumerated in division (A)(1) of 6171 section 133.03 of the Revised Code and are eligible as security 6172 for the repayment of the deposit of public moneys. 6173

Upon the issuance of any notes under this section, the fiscal 6174 officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township shall 6175 certify the fact of the issuance to the county auditor and shall 6176 also certify to the county auditor the last calendar year in which 6177 any of the notes are scheduled to mature. 6178

(J) After the legislative authority of the municipal 6179 corporation, county, or township has passed an ordinance or 6180 resolution authorizing the issuance of local government fund notes 6181 and subsequent to the commission's preliminary or final approval 6182 of the ordinance or resolution, the director of law, prosecuting 6183 attorney, or other chief legal officer of the municipal 6184 corporation, county, or township shall certify a sample of the 6185 form and content of a note to be used to issue the local 6186 government fund notes to the commission. The commission shall 6187 determine whether the sample note is consistent with this section 6188 and the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the 6189 local government fund notes, and if the sample note is found to be 6190 consistent with this section and the ordinance, the commission 6191 shall approve the sample note for use by the municipal 6192 corporation, county, or township. The form and content of the 6193 notes to be used by the municipal corporation, county, or township 6194 in issuing the local government fund notes may be modified at any 6195 time subsequent to the commission's approval of the sample note 6196 upon the approval of the commission and the director of law, 6197 prosecuting attorney, or other chief legal officer of the 6198 municipal corporation, county, or township. The failure of the 6199 director of law, prosecuting attorney, or other chief legal 6200 officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township to make 6201 the certification required by this division shall not subject that 6202 legal officer to removal pursuant to the Revised Code or the 6203 charter of a municipal corporation. If the director of law, 6204 prosecuting attorney, or other chief legal officer fails or 6205 refuses to make the certification required by this division, or if 6206 any officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township 6207 fails or refuses to take any action required by this section or 6208 the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance or sale of 6209 local government fund notes, the mayor of the municipal 6210

township trustees may cause the commencement of a mandamus action 6212 in the supreme court against the director of law, prosecuting 6213 attorney, or other chief legal officer to secure the certification 6214 required by this division or other action required by this section 6215 or the ordinance or resolution. If an adjudication of the matters 6216 that could be adjudicated in validation proceedings under section 6217 133.70 of the Revised Code is necessary to a determination of the 6218 mandamus action, the mayor, the board of county commissioners, or 6219 the board of township trustees or the mayor's or board's legal 6220 counsel shall name and cause to be served as defendants to the 6221 mandamus action all of the following: 6222

(1) The director of law, prosecuting attorney, or other chief 6223 legal officer, or other official of the municipal corporation, 6224 county, or township, whose failure or refusal to act necessitated 6225
the action; 6226

(2) The municipal corporation, through its mayor, or the 6227 board of county commissioners or board of township trustees; 6228

(3) The financial planning and supervision commission, 6229 through its chairperson; 6230

(4) The prosecuting attorney and auditor of each county in 6231 which the municipal corporation, county, or township is located, 6232 in whole or in part; 6233

(5) The auditor of state; 6234

(6) The property owners, taxpayers, citizens of the municipal 6235 corporation, county, or township and others having or claiming any 6236 right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected 6237 by the issuance of the local government fund notes by the 6238 municipal corporation, county, or township, or otherwise affected 6239 in any way thereby. 6240

Service upon all defendants described in division (J)(6) of 6241 this section shall be either by publication three times, with at 6242 least six days between each publication, in a newspaper of general 6243 circulation in Franklin county and a newspaper of general 6244 circulation in the county or counties where the municipal 6245 corporation, county, or township is located, or by publication in 6246 both such newspapers as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 6247 Code. The publication and the notice shall indicate that the 6248 nature of the action is in mandamus, the name of the parties to 6249 the action, and that the action may result in the validation of 6250 the subject local government fund notes. Authorization to commence 6251 such an action by the legislative authority of the municipal 6252 corporation, county, or township is not required. 6253

A copy of the complaint in the mandamus action shall be 6254 served personally or by certified mail upon the attorney general. 6255
If the attorney general has reason to believe that the complaint 6256 is defective, insufficient, or untrue, or if in the attorney 6257 general's opinion the issuance of the local government fund notes 6258 is not lawful or has not been duly authorized, defense shall be 6259 made to the complaint as the attorney general considers proper. 6260

(K) The action in mandamus authorized by division (J) of this 6261 section shall take priority over all other civil cases pending in 6262

the court, except habeas corpus, and shall be determined with the least possible delay. The supreme court may determine that the local government fund notes will be consistent with the purpose and effects, including not occupying the indirect debt limit, provided for in this section and will be validly issued and acquired. Such a determination shall include a finding of validation of the subject local government fund notes if the court specifically finds that:

(1) The complaint in mandamus, or subsequent pleadings, include appropriate allegations required by division (C) of section 133.70 of the Revised Code, and that the proceeding is in lieu of an action to validate under section 133.70 of the Revised Code;

(2) All parties described in divisions (J)(1) to (6) of this section have been duly served with notice or are otherwise properly before the court;

(3) Notice of the action has been published as required by division (J) of this section;

(4) The effect of validation is required to provide a complete review and determination of the controversy in mandamus, and to avoid duplication of litigation, danger of inconsistent results, or inordinate delay in light of the fiscal emergency, or that a disposition in the mandamus action would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of any subsequent validation proceedings under section 133.70 of the Revised Code.

(L) Any decision that includes a finding of validation has the same effect as a validation order established by an action under section 133.70 of the Revised Code.

(M) Divisions (J) and (K) of this section do not prevent a municipal corporation, county, or township from using section 133.70 of the Revised Code to validate local government fund notes by the filing of a petition for validation in the court of common 6294 pleas of the county in which the municipal corporation, county, or 6295 township is located, in whole or in part. 6296

(N) It is hereby determined by the general assembly that a 6297 validation action authorized by section 133.70 of the Revised Code 6298 is not an adequate remedy at law with respect to a municipal 6299 corporation, county, or township that is a party to a mandamus 6300 action pursuant to divisions (J) and (K) of this section and in 6301 which a fiscal emergency condition has been determined to exist 6302 pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised Code because of, but not 6303 limited to, the following reasons: 6304

(1) It is urgently necessary for such a municipal 6305 corporation, county, or township to take prompt action to issue 6306 local government fund notes for the purposes provided in division 6307
(C) of this section; 6308

(2) The potentially ruinous effect upon the fiscal condition 6309 of a municipal corporation, county, or township by the passage of 6310 the time required to adjudicate such a separate validation action 6311 and any appeals thereof; 6312

(3) The reasons stated in division (K)(4) of this section. 6313

Sec. 118.31. (A) Upon petition of the financial supervisor 6314 and approval of the financial planning and supervision commission, 6315 if any, the attorney general shall file a court action to dissolve 6316 a municipal corporation or township if all of the following 6317 conditions apply: 6318

(1) The municipal corporation or township has a population of 6319 less than five thousand as of the most recent federal decennial 6320 census. 6321

(2) The municipal corporation or township has been under a 6322 fiscal emergency for at least four consecutive years. 6323

(3) Implementation of the financial plan of the municipal corporation or township required under this chapter cannot reasonably be expected to correct and eliminate all fiscal emergency conditions within five years. 6324
6327

(B) If the court finds that all of the conditions described in division (A) of this section apply to the municipal corporation or township, it shall appoint a receiver. The receiver, under court supervision, shall work with executive and legislative officers of the municipal corporation or township to wind up the affairs of and dissolve the municipal corporation in accordance with section 703.21 of the Revised Code or the township in accordance with the process in section 503.02 and sections 503.17 to 503.21 of the Revised Code. 6328
6332
6336

Sec. 118.99. (A) During the fiscal emergency period, no officer or employee of the municipal corporation, county, or township shall do any of the following: 6337

the name of any person to be considered at the meeting. 6623

(2) To consider the purchase of property for public purposes, 6624 or for the sale of property at competitive bidding, if premature 6625 disclosure of information would give an unfair competitive or 6626 bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest 6627 is adverse to the general public interest. No member of a public 6628 body shall use division (G)(2) of this section as a subterfuge for 6629 providing covert information to prospective buyers or sellers. A 6630 purchase or sale of public property is void if the seller or buyer 6631 of the public property has received covert information from a 6632 member of a public body that has not been disclosed to the general 6633 public in sufficient time for other prospective buyers and sellers 6634 to prepare and submit offers. 6635

If the minutes of the public body show that all meetings and 6636 deliberations of the public body have been conducted in compliance 6637 with this section, any instrument executed by the public body 6638 purporting to convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of any right, 6639 title, or interest in any public property shall be conclusively 6640 or regulations or state statutes; 6651

(6) Details relative to the security arrangements and 6652

office; 6656

If a public body holds an executive session to consider any of the matters listed in divisions (G)(2) to (7) of this section, the motion and vote to hold that executive session shall state which one or more of the approved matters listed in those divisions are to be considered at the executive session.

A public body specified in division (B)(1)(c) of this section shall not hold an executive session when meeting for the purposes specified in that division.

(H) A resolution, rule, or formal action of any kind is invalid unless adopted in an open meeting of the public body. A resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting that results from deliberations in a meeting not open to the public is invalid unless the deliberations were for a purpose specifically authorized in division (G) or (J) of this section and conducted at an executive session held in compliance with this section. A resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting is invalid if the public body that adopted the resolution, rule, or formal action violated division (F) of this section.

(I)(1) Any person may bring an action to enforce this section. An action under division (I)(1) of this section shall be brought within two years after the date of the alleged violation or threatened violation. Upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of this section in an action brought by any person, the court of common pleas shall issue an injunction to compel the members of the public body to comply with its provisions.

(2)(a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 6688 pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section, the court shall order 6689 the public body that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture of five 6690 hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction and shall 6691 award to that party all court costs and, subject to reduction as 6692 described in division (I)(2) of this section, reasonable 6693 attorney's fees. The court, in its discretion, may reduce an award 6694 of attorney's fees to the party that sought the injunction or not 6695 award attorney's fees to that party if the court determines both 6696 of the following: 6697

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 6698 and case law as it existed at the time of violation or threatened 6699 violation that was the basis of the injunction, a well-informed 6700 public body reasonably would believe that the public body was not 6701 violating or threatening to violate this section; 6702

(ii) That a well-informed public body reasonably would 6703 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the basis 6704 of the injunction would serve the public policy that underlies the 6705 authority that is asserted as permitting that conduct or 6706 threatened conduct. 6707

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an injunction 6708 pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section and the court 6709 determines at that time that the bringing of the action was 6710 frivolous conduct, as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 6711 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to the public body all 6712 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the 6713 court. 6714

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that sought 6715 the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably presumed 6716 upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of this section. 6717

(4) A member of a public body who knowingly violates an 6718 injunction issued pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section may 6719 be removed from office by an action brought in the court of common 6720

general. 6722

(J)(1) Pursuant to division (C) of section 5901.09 of the 6723 an applicant requests a public hearing: 6726 financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the 6732 applicant for, recipient of, or former recipient of financial 6735 assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code, 6736 and shall not exclude representatives selected by the applicant, 6737 recipient, or former recipient, from a meeting that the commission 6738 conducts as an executive session that pertains to the applicant's, 6739 recipient's, or former recipient's application for financial 6740 assistance. 6741

(3) A veterans service commission shall vote on the grant or 6742 denial of financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 6743 of the Revised Code only in an open meeting of the commission. The 6744 minutes of the meeting shall indicate the name, address, and 6745 occupation of the applicant, whether the assistance was granted or 6746 denied, the amount of the assistance if assistance is granted, and 6747 the votes for and against the granting of assistance. 6748 council and making decisions regarding the duties of the council, 6892

Service of a judge as a judicial advisor pursuant to this section 6913 is a judicial function. 6914

(2) The purpose of the county council is to streamline and 6915 coordinate existing government services for families seeking 6916 services for their children. In seeking to fulfill its purpose, a 6917 county council shall provide for the following: 6918

(a) Referrals to the cabinet council of those children for 6919 whom the county council cannot provide adequate services; 6920

(b) Development and implementation of a process that annually 6921 evaluates and prioritizes services, fills service gaps where 6922 possible, and invents new approaches to achieve better results for 6923 families and children; 6924

(c) Participation in the development of a countywide, 6925 comprehensive, coordinated, multi-disciplinary, interagency system 6926 for infants and toddlers with developmental disabilities or delays 6927

(d) Maintenance of an accountability system to monitor the county council's progress in achieving results for families and children;

(e) Establishment of a mechanism to ensure ongoing input from a broad representation of families who are receiving services within the county system.

(3) A county council shall develop and implement the following:

The local priorities shall focus on expectant parents and newborns thriving; infants and toddlers thriving; children being ready for school; children and youth succeeding in school; youth choosing healthy behaviors; and youth successfully transitioning into adulthood and take into account the indicators established by the cabinet council under division (A)(4)(a) of this section.

(c) An annual plan that identifies the county's interagency efforts to increase child well-being in the county.

On an annual basis, the county council shall submit a report on the status of efforts by the county to increase child well-being in the county to the county's board of county commissioners and the cabinet council. This report shall be made available to any other person on request.

(4)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(4)(b) of this section, a county council shall comply with the policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by the rules or interagency agreements of a state department participating on the cabinet council whenever the county council performs a function subject to those rules or agreements. 6963

(b) On application of a county council, the cabinet council 6964 may grant an exemption from any rules or interagency agreements of 6965 a state department participating on the council if an exemption is 6966 necessary for the council to implement an alternative program or 6967 approach for service delivery to families and children. The 6968 application shall describe the proposed program or approach and 6969 specify the rules or interagency agreements from which an 6970 exemption is necessary. The cabinet council shall approve or 6971 disapprove the application in accordance with standards and 6972 procedures it shall adopt. If an application is approved, the 6973 exemption is effective only while the program or approach is being 6974 implemented, including a reasonable period during which the 6975 program or approach is being evaluated for effectiveness. 6976

(5)(a) Each county council shall designate an administrative 6977 agent for the council from among the following public entities: 6978 the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, 6979 including a board of alcohol and drug addiction or a community 6980 mental health board if the county is served by separate boards; 6981 the board of county commissioners; any board of health of the 6982 county's city and general health districts; the county department 6983 of job and family services; the county agency responsible for the 6984 administration of children services pursuant to section 5153.15 of 6985 the Revised Code; the county board of developmental disabilities; 6986 any of the county's boards of education or governing boards of 6987 educational service centers; or the county's juvenile court. Any 6988 of the foregoing public entities, other than the board of county 6989 commissioners, may decline to serve as the council's 6990 administrative agent. 6991

A county council's administrative agent shall serve as the 6992 council's appointing authority for any employees of the council. 6993
The council shall file an annual budget with its administrative 6994 agent, with copies filed with the county auditor and with the 6995 board of county commissioners, unless the board is serving as the 6996 council's administrative agent. The council's administrative agent 6997 shall ensure that all expenditures are handled in accordance with 6998 policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by state 6999 departments in rules or interagency agreements that are applicable 7000 to the council's functions. 7001

The administrative agent of a county council shall send 7002 notice of a member's absence if a member listed in division (B)(1) 7003 of this section has been absent from either three consecutive 7004 meetings of the county council or a county council subcommittee, 7005 or from one-quarter of such meetings in a calendar year, whichever 7006 is less. The notice shall be sent to the board of county 7007 commissioners that establishes the county council and, for the 7008 members listed in divisions (B)(1)(b), (c), (e), and (l) of this 7009 section, to the governing board overseeing the respective entity; 7010 for the member listed in division (B)(1)(f) of this section, to 7011
the county board of developmental disabilities that employs the 7012 superintendent; for a member listed in division (B)(1)(g) or (h) 7013 of this section, to the school board that employs the 7014 superintendent; for the member listed in division (B)(1)(i) of 7015 this section, to the mayor of the municipal corporation; for the 7016 member listed in division (B)(1)(k) of this section, to the 7017 director of youth services; and for the member listed in division 7018
(B)(1)(n) of this section, to that member's board of trustees. 7019

The administrative agent for a county council may do any of 7020 the following on behalf of the council: 7021

(i) Enter into agreements or administer contracts with public 7022 or private entities to fulfill specific council business. Such 7023 agreements and contracts are exempt from the competitive bidding 7024 requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code if they have 7025 been approved by the county council and they are for the purchase 7026 of family and child welfare or child protection services or other 7027 social or job and family services for families and children. The 7028 approval of the county council is not required to exempt 7029 agreements or contracts entered into under section 5139.34, 7030 5139.41, or 5139.43 of the Revised Code from the competitive 7031 bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. 7032

(ii) As determined by the council, provide financial 7033 stipends, reimbursements, or both, to family representatives for 7034 expenses related to council activity; 7035

(iii) Receive by gift, grant, devise, or bequest any moneys, 7036 lands, or other property for the purposes for which the council is 7037 established. The agent shall hold, apply, and dispose of the 7038 moneys, lands, or other property according to the terms of the 7039 gift, grant, devise, or bequest. Any interest or earnings shall be 7040 treated in the same manner and are subject to the same terms as 7041 the gift, grant, devise, or bequest from which it accrues. 7042

(b)(i) If the county council designates the board of county 7043 commissioners as its administrative agent, the board may, by 7044 resolution, delegate any of its powers and duties as 7045 administrative agent to an executive committee the board 7046 establishes from the membership of the county council. The board 7047 shall name to the executive committee at least the individuals 7048 described in divisions (B)(1)(b) to (h) of this section and may 7049 appoint the president of the board or another individual as the 7050 chair of the executive committee. The executive committee must 7051 include at least one family county council representative who does 7052 not have a family member employed by an agency represented on the 7053 council. 7054

(ii) The executive committee may, with the approval of the 7055 board, hire an executive director to assist the county council in 7056 administering its powers and duties. The executive director shall 7057 serve in the unclassified civil service at the pleasure of the 7058 executive committee. The executive director may, with the approval 7059 of the executive committee, hire other employees as necessary to 7060 properly conduct the county council's business. 7061

(iii) The board may require the executive committee to submit 7062 an annual budget to the board for approval and may amend or repeal 7063 the resolution that delegated to the executive committee its 7064 authority as the county council's administrative agent. 7065

(6) Two or more county councils may enter into an agreement 7066 to administer their county councils jointly by creating a regional 7067 family and children first council. A regional council possesses 7068 the same duties and authority possessed by a county council, 7069 except that the duties and authority apply regionally rather than 7070 to individual counties. Prior to entering into an agreement to 7071 create a regional council, the members of each county council to 7072 be part of the regional council shall meet to determine whether 7073 all or part of the members of each county council will serve as 7074 members of the regional council. 7075

(7) A board of county commissioners may approve a resolution 7076 by a majority vote of the board's members that requires the county 7077 council to submit a statement to the board each time the council 7078 proposes to enter into an agreement, adopt a plan, or make a 7079 decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the 7080 Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or 7081 more families. The statement shall describe the proposed 7082 agreement, plan, or decision. 7083

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the 7084 statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its 7085 members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. 7086 Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period 7087 shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision. 7088

An agreement, plan, or decision for which a statement is 7089 required to be submitted to the board shall be implemented only if 7090 it is approved by the board. 7091

(C) Each county shall develop a county service coordination 7092 mechanism. The county service coordination mechanism shall serve 7093 as the guiding document for coordination of services in the 7094 county. For children who also receive services under the help me 7095 grow program, the service coordination mechanism shall be 7096 consistent with rules adopted by the department of health under 7097 section 3701.61 of the Revised Code. All family service 7098 coordination plans shall be developed in accordance with the 7099 county service coordination mechanism. The mechanism shall be 7100 developed and approved with the participation of the county 7101 entities representing child welfare; mental retardation and 7102 developmental disabilities; alcohol, drug addiction, and mental 7103 health services; health; juvenile judges; education; the county 7104 family and children first council; and the county early 7105 intervention collaborative established pursuant to the federal 7106 early intervention program operated under the "Individuals with 7107 Disabilities Education Act of 2004." The county shall establish an 7108 implementation schedule for the mechanism. The cabinet council may 7109 monitor the implementation and administration of each county's 7110 service coordination mechanism. 7111

Each mechanism shall include all of the following: 7112

(1) A procedure for an agency, including a juvenile court, or 7113 a family voluntarily seeking service coordination, to refer the 7114 child and family to the county council for service coordination in 7115 accordance with the mechanism; 7116

(2) A procedure ensuring that a family and all appropriate 7117 staff from involved agencies, including a representative from the 7118 appropriate school district, are notified of and invited to 7119 participate in all family service coordination plan meetings; 7120

(3) A procedure that permits a family to initiate a meeting 7121 to develop or review the family's service coordination plan and 7122 allows the family to invite a family advocate, mentor, or support 7123 person of the family's choice to participate in any such meeting; 7124

(4) A procedure for ensuring that a family service 7125 coordination plan meeting is conducted for each child who receives 7126 service coordination under the mechanism and for whom an emergency 7127 out-of-home placement has been made or for whom a nonemergency 7128 out-of-home placement is being considered. The meeting shall be 7129 conducted within ten days of an emergency out-of-home placement. 7130
The meeting shall be conducted before a nonemergency out-of-home 7131 placement. The family service coordination plan shall outline how 7132 the county council members will jointly pay for services, where 7133 applicable, and provide services in the least restrictive 7134 environment. 7135

(5) A procedure for monitoring the progress and tracking the 7136 outcomes of each service coordination plan requested in the county 7137 including monitoring and tracking children in out-of-home 7138 placements to assure continued progress, appropriateness of 7139 placement, and continuity of care after discharge from placement 7140 with appropriate arrangements for housing, treatment, and 7141 education. 7142

(6) A procedure for protecting the confidentiality of all 7143 personal family information disclosed during service coordination 7144 meetings or contained in the comprehensive family service 7145 coordination plan. 7146

(7) A procedure for assessing the needs and strengths of any 7147 child or family that has been referred to the council for service 7148 coordination, including a child whose parent or custodian is 7149 voluntarily seeking services, and for ensuring that parents and 7150 custodians are afforded the opportunity to participate; 7151

(8) A procedure for development of a family service 7152 coordination plan described in division (D) of this section; 7153

(9) A local dispute resolution process to serve as the 7154 process that must be used first to resolve disputes among the 7155 agencies represented on the county council concerning the 7156 provision of services to children, including children who are 7157 abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, alleged unruly, or 7158 delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile 7159 court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily 7160 seeking services. The local dispute resolution process shall 7161 comply with sections 121.38, 121.381, and 121.382 of the Revised 7162 Code. The local dispute resolution process shall be used to 7163 resolve disputes between a child's parents or custodians and the 7164 county council regarding service coordination. The county council 7165 shall inform the parents or custodians of their right to use the 7166 dispute resolution process. Parents or custodians shall use 7167 existing local agency grievance procedures to address disputes not 7168 involving service coordination. The dispute resolution process is 7169 in addition to and does not replace other rights or procedures 7170 that parents or custodians may have under other sections of the 7171
Revised Code. 7172

The cabinet council shall adopt rules in accordance with 7173
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing an administrative 7174 review process to address problems that arise concerning the 7175 operation of a local dispute resolution process. 7176

Nothing in division (C)(4) of this section shall be 7177 interpreted as overriding or affecting decisions of a juvenile 7178 court regarding an out-of-home placement, long-term placement, or 7179 emergency out-of-home placement. 7180

(D) Each county shall develop a family service coordination 7181 plan that does all of the following: 7182

(1) Designates service responsibilities among the various state and local agencies that provide services to children and their families, including children who are abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, or delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily seeking services;

(2) Designates an individual, approved by the family, to track the progress of the family service coordination plan, schedule reviews as necessary, and facilitate the family service coordination plan meeting process;

(4) Includes a process for dealing with a child who is alleged to be an unruly child. The process shall include methods to divert the child from the juvenile court system;

(5) Includes timelines for completion of goals specified in the plan with regular reviews scheduled to monitor progress toward those goals;

(6) Includes a plan for dealing with short-term crisis situations and safety concerns.

(E)(1) The process provided for under division (D)(4) of this section may include, but is not limited to, the following:

(b) An emphasis on the personal responsibilities of the child	7213
and the parental responsibilities of the parents, guardian, or	7214 custodian of the child;	7215
(c) Involvement of local law enforcement agencies and	7216
officials.	7217
(2) The method to divert a child from the juvenile court	7218 system that must be included in the service coordination process	7219 may include, but is not limited to, the following:	7220
(a) The preparation of a complaint under section 2151.27 of	7221
the Revised Code alleging that the child is an unruly child and	7222 notifying the child and the parents, guardian, or custodian that	7223
the complaint has been prepared to encourage the child and the	7224 parents, guardian, or custodian to comply with other methods to	7225 divert the child from the juvenile court system;	7226
(b) Conducting a meeting with the child, the parents,	7227
guardian, or custodian, and other interested parties to determine	7228
the appropriate methods to divert the child from the juvenile	7229
court system;	7230
(c) A method to provide to the child and the child's family a	7231 short-term respite from a short-term crisis situation involving a	7232 confrontation between the child and the parents, guardian, or	7233 custodian;	7234
(d) A program to provide a mentor to the child or the	7235 parents, guardian, or custodian;	7236

expelled from school;	7241
(g) Other appropriate measures, including, but not limited	7242 to, any alternative methods to divert a child from the juvenile 7243 court system that are identified by the Ohio family and children 7244 first cabinet council. 7245

(F) Each county may review and revise the service 7246 coordination process described in division (D) of this section 7247 based on the availability of funds under Title IV-A of the "Social 7248 Security Act," 110 Stat. 2113 (1996), 42 U.S.C.A. 601, as amended, 7249 or to the extent resources are available from any other federal, 7250 state, or local funds. 7251 management, tax commissioner, superintendent of insurance in the 7728 case of an insurance company, and director of development have 7729 recommended the granting of the credit to the tax credit authority 7730 before July 1, 2011: 7731

(a) The business retains at least one thousand full-time 7732 equivalent employees at the project site. 7733

(b) The business makes or causes to be made payments for a 7734 capital investment project of at least twenty-five million dollars 7735 in the aggregate at the project site during a period of three 7736 consecutive calendar years, including the calendar year that 7737 includes a day of the business' taxable year or tax period with 7738 respect to which the credit is granted. 7739

(c) In 2010, the business received a written offer of 7740 financial incentives from another state of the United States that 7741 the director determines to be sufficient inducement for the 7742 business to relocate the business' operations from this state to 7743 that state. 7744

(3) A refundable credit to an eligible business with a total 7745 annual payroll of at least twenty million dollars, provided that 7746 the tax credit authority grants the tax credit on or after July 1, 7747 2011, and before January 1, 2014. 7748

The credits authorized in divisions (B)(1) ~~and~~, (2), and (3) 7749 of this section may be granted for a period up to fifteen taxable 7750 years or, in the case of the tax levied by section 5751.02 of the 7751 Revised Code, for a period of up to fifteen calendar years. The 7752 credit amount for a taxable year or a calendar year that includes 7753 the tax period for which a credit may be claimed equals the income 7754 tax revenue for that year multiplied by the percentage specified 7755 in the agreement with the tax credit authority. The percentage may 7756 not exceed seventy-five per cent. The credit shall be claimed in 7757 the order required under section 5725.98, 5729.98, 5733.98, 7758 5747.98, or 5751.98 of the Revised Code. In determining the 7759 percentage and term of the credit, the tax credit authority shall 7760 consider both the number of full-time equivalent employees and the 7761 value of the capital investment project. The credit amount may not 7762 be based on the income tax revenue for a calendar year before the 7763 calendar year in which the tax credit authority specifies the tax 7764 credit is to begin, and the credit shall be claimed only for the 7765 taxable years or tax periods specified in the eligible business' 7766 agreement with the tax credit authority. In no event shall the 7767 credit be claimed for a taxable year or tax period terminating 7768 before the date specified in the agreement. Any credit granted 7769 under this section against the tax imposed by section 5733.06 or 7770 5747.02 of the Revised Code, to the extent not fully utilized 7771 against such tax for taxable years ending prior to 2008, shall 7772 automatically be converted without any action taken by the tax 7773 credit authority to a credit against the tax levied under Chapter 7774 5751. of the Revised Code for tax periods beginning on or after 7775

July 1, 2008, provided that the person to whom the credit was 7776 granted is subject to such tax. The converted credit shall apply 7777 to those calendar years in which the remaining taxable years 7778 specified in the agreement end. 7779

If a nonrefundable credit allowed under division (B)(1) of 7780 this section for a taxable year or tax period exceeds the 7781 taxpayer's tax liability for that year or period, the excess may 7782 be carried forward for the three succeeding taxable or calendar 7783 years, but the amount of any excess credit allowed in any taxable 7784 year or tax period shall be deducted from the balance carried 7785 forward to the succeeding year or period. 7786

(C) A taxpayer that proposes a capital investment project to 7787 retain jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit authority to 7788 enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this section. The 7789 director of development shall prescribe the form of the 7790 application. After receipt of an application, the authority shall 7791 forward copies of the application to the director of budget and 7792 management, the tax commissioner, the superintendent of insurance 7793 in the case of an insurance company, and the director of 7794 development, each of whom shall review the application to 7795 determine the economic impact the proposed project would have on 7796 the state and the affected political subdivisions and shall submit 7797 a summary of their determinations and recommendations to the 7798 authority. 7799

(D) Upon review and consideration of the determinations and 7800 recommendations described in division (C) of this section, the tax 7801 credit authority may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for 7802 a credit under this section if the authority determines all of the 7803

following: 7804

(1) The taxpayer's capital investment project will result in 7805 the retention of employment in this state. 7806

(2) The taxpayer is economically sound and has the ability to 7807 complete the proposed capital investment project. 7808

(3) The taxpayer intends to and has the ability to maintain 7809 operations at the project site for at least the greater of (a) the 7810 term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years. 7811

(4) Receiving the credit is a major factor in the taxpayer's 7812 decision to begin, continue with, or complete the project. 7813

(5) If the taxpayer is applying to enter into an agreement 7814 for a tax credit authorized under division (B)(3) of this section, 7815 the taxpayer's capital investment project will be located in the 7816 political subdivision in which the taxpayer maintains its 7817 principal place of business. 7818

(E) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 7819
following: 7820

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 7821 of the agreement, including the amount of the investment, the 7822 period over which the investment has been or is being made, the 7823 number of full-time equivalent employees at the project site, and 7824 the anticipated income tax revenue to be generated. 7825

(2) The term of the credit, the percentage of the tax credit, 7826 the maximum annual value of tax credits that may be allowed each 7827 year, and the first year for which the credit may be claimed. 7828

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer maintain operations at 7829 the project site for at least the greater of (a) the term of the 7830 credit plus three years, or (b) seven years. 7831

~~(4) A requirement that the taxpayer retain a specified number of full-time equivalent employees at the project site and within this state for the term of the credit, including a requirement that the taxpayer continue to employ at least five hundred full-time equivalent employees during the entire term of the agreement in the case of a credit granted under division (B)(1) of this section, and one thousand full-time equivalent employees in the case of a credit granted under division (B)(2) of this section~~ 7832
7839
(a) In the case of a credit granted under division (B)(1) of this section, a requirement that the taxpayer retain at least five hundred full-time equivalent employees at the project site and within this state for the entire term of the credit, or a requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual payroll of at least thirty-five million dollars for the entire term of the credit; 7840
7841
7846
(b) In the case of a credit granted under division (B)(2) of this section, a requirement that the taxpayer retain at least one thousand full-time equivalent employees at the project site and within this state for the entire term of the credit; 7847
7848
7850
(c) In the case of a credit granted under division (B)(3) of this section, a requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual payroll of at least twenty million dollars for the entire term of the credit and either of the following: 7851
7852
7854
(i) A requirement that the taxpayer retain at least five hundred full-time equivalent employees at the project site and within this state for the entire term of the credit; 7855
(ii) A requirement that the taxpayer maintain an annual payroll of at least thirty-five million dollars for the entire term of the credit. 7858
(5) A requirement that the taxpayer annually report to the director of development employment, tax withholding, capital 7861

investment, and other information the director needs to perform 7863 the director's duties under this section. 7864

(6) A requirement that the director of development annually 7865 review the annual reports of the taxpayer to verify the 7866 information reported under division (E)(5) of this section and 7867 compliance with the agreement. Upon verification, the director 7868 shall issue a certificate to the taxpayer stating that the 7869 information has been verified and identifying the amount of the 7870 credit for the taxable year or calendar year that includes the tax 7871 period. In determining the number of full-time equivalent 7872 employees, no position shall be counted that is filled by an 7873 employee who is included in the calculation of a tax credit under 7874

(7) A provision providing that the taxpayer may not relocate 7876 a substantial number of employment positions from elsewhere in 7877 this state to the project site unless the director of development 7878 determines that the taxpayer notified the legislative authority of 7879 the county, township, or municipal corporation from which the 7880 employment positions would be relocated. 7881

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment 7882 position from one political subdivision to another political 7883 subdivision shall be considered a relocation of an employment 7884 position unless the movement is confined to the project site. The 7885 transfer of an employment position from one political subdivision 7886 to another political subdivision shall not be considered a 7887 relocation of an employment position if the employment position in 7888 the first political subdivision is replaced by another employment 7889 position. 7890

(8) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods 7891 relating to assessments or adjustments resulting from the 7892 taxpayer's failure to comply with the agreement. 7893

(F) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 7894 or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit 7895 authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 7896 of the credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may take 7897 effect in the current taxable or calendar year. 7898

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 7899 the department of development or the tax credit authority by an 7900 applicant for or recipient of a tax credit under this section, and 7901 any information taken for any purpose from such statements or 7902 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 7903 the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of the authority may 7904 make use of the statements and other information for purposes of 7905 issuing public reports or in connection with court proceedings 7906 concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 7907 request of the tax commissioner, or the superintendent of 7908 insurance in the case of an insurance company, the chairperson of 7909 the authority shall provide to the commissioner or superintendent 7910 any statement or other information submitted by an applicant for 7911 or recipient of a tax credit in connection with the credit. The 7912 commissioner or superintendent shall preserve the confidentiality 7913 of the statement or other information. 7914

(H) A taxpayer claiming a tax credit under this section shall 7915 submit to the tax commissioner or, in the case of an insurance 7916 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 7917 director of development's certificate of verification under 7918 division (E)(6) of this section with the taxpayer's tax report or 7919 return for the taxable year or for the calendar year that includes 7920 the tax period. Failure to submit a copy of the certificate with 7921 the report or return does not invalidate a claim for a credit if 7922 the taxpayer submits a copy of the certificate to the commissioner 7923 or superintendent within sixty days after the commissioner or 7924 superintendent requests it. 7925

(I) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 7926
a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 7927 subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 7928 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 7929 distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 7930 other such business entity may elect to pass the credit received 7931 under this section through to the persons to whom the income or 7932 profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 7933 distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 7934 required under division (E)(5) of this section. The election 7935 applies to and is irrevocable for the credit for which the report 7936 is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 7937 apportioned among those persons in the same proportions as those 7938 in which the income or profit is distributed. 7939

(J) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 7940 that received a tax credit under this section is not complying 7941 with the requirement under division (E)(3) of this section, the 7942 director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 7943 noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 7944 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the 7945 authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 7946 refund to the state all or a portion of the credit claimed in 7947 previous years, as follows: 7948

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 7949 for less than or equal to the term of the credit, an amount not to 7950 exceed one hundred per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed 7951 and received under this section. 7952

(2) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 7953 longer than the term of the credit, but less than the greater of 7954
(a) the term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years, 7955 the amount required to be refunded shall not exceed seventy-five 7956 per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed and received under 7957

this section. 7958

In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded to 7959 this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 7960 conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the taxpayer 7961 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 7962 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 7963 refunded to the tax commissioner or the superintendent of 7964 insurance. If the taxpayer is not an insurance company, the 7965 commissioner shall make an assessment for that amount against the 7966 taxpayer under Chapter 5733., 5747., or 5751. of the Revised Code. 7967
If the taxpayer is an insurance company, the superintendent of 7968 insurance shall make an assessment under section 5725.222 or 7969 5729.102 of the Revised Code. The time limitations on assessments 7970 under those chapters and sections do not apply to an assessment 7971 under this division, but the commissioner or superintendent shall 7972 make the assessment within one year after the date the authority 7973 certifies to the commissioner or superintendent the amount to be 7974 refunded. 7975

(K) The director of development, after consultation with the 7976 tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and in 7977 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 7978 rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 7979 for recipients of tax credits under this section to be charged 7980 fees to cover administrative costs of the tax credit program. The 7981 fees collected shall be credited to the tax incentive programs 7982 operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 7983 the time the director gives public notice under division (A) of 7984 section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 7985 the director shall submit copies of the proposed rules to the 7986 chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 7987 the senate and the house of representatives. 7988

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 7989 director of development shall submit a report to the governor, the 7990 president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 7991 representatives on the tax credit program under this section. The 7992 report shall include information on the number of agreements that 7993 were entered into under this section during the preceding calendar 7994 year, a description of the project that is the subject of each 7995 such agreement, and an update on the status of projects under 7996 agreements entered into before the preceding calendar year. 7997

(M)(1) The aggregate amount of tax credits issued under 7998 division (B)(1) of this section during any calendar year for 7999 capital investment projects reviewed and approved by the tax 8000 credit authority may not exceed the following amounts: 8001

(a) For 2010, thirteen million dollars; 8002

(b) For 2011 through 2023, the amount of the limit for the 8003 preceding calendar year plus thirteen million dollars; 8004

(c) For 2024 and each year thereafter, one hundred 8005 ninety-five million dollars. 8006

(2) The aggregate amount of tax credits ~~issued~~ authorized 8007 under ~~division~~ divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this section ~~during and~~ 8008 allowed to be claimed by taxpayers in any calendar year for 8009 capital improvement projects reviewed and approved by the tax 8010 credit authority ~~may not exceed eight million dollars in 2011,~~ 8011 2012, and 2013 combined shall not exceed twenty-five million 8012 dollars. An amount equal to the aggregate amount of credits first 8013 authorized in calendar year 2011, 2012, and 2013 may be claimed 8014 over the ensuing period up to fifteen years, subject to the terms 8015 of individual tax credit agreements. 8016

The limitations in division (M) of this section do not apply 8017 to credits for capital investment projects approved by the tax 8018 credit authority before July 1, 2009. 8019

Sec. 122.76. (A) The director of development, with 8020 controlling board approval, may lend funds to minority business 8021 enterprises and to community improvement corporations, Ohio 8022 development corporations, minority contractors business assistance 8023 organizations, and minority business supplier development councils 8024 for the purpose of loaning funds to minority business enterprises 8025 and for the purpose of procuring or improving real or personal 8026 property, or both, for the establishment, location, or expansion 8027 of industrial, distribution, commercial, or research facilities in 8028 the state, and to community development corporations that 8029 predominantly benefit minority business enterprises or are located 8030 in a census tract that has a population that is sixty per cent or 8031 more minority if the director determines, in the director's sole 8032 discretion, that all of the following apply: 8033

(1) The project is economically sound and will benefit the 8034 people of the state by increasing opportunities for employment, by 8035 strengthening the economy of the state, or expanding minority 8036 business enterprises. 8037

(2) The proposed minority business enterprise borrower is 8038 unable to finance the proposed project through ordinary financial 8039 channels at comparable terms. 8040

at least equal to the total amount of the money expended in the 8042 procurement or improvement of the project, ~~and one or more~~ 8043 ~~financial institutions or other governmental entities have loaned~~ 8044
~~not less than thirty per cent of that amount.~~ 8045

(4) The amount to be loaned by the director will not exceed 8046 sixty per cent of the total amount expended in the procurement or 8047 improvement of the project. 8048

(5) The amount to be loaned by the director will be 8049 adequately secured by a first or second mortgage upon the project 8050 or by mortgages, leases, liens, assignments, or pledges on or of 8051 other property or contracts as the director requires, and such 8052 mortgage will not be subordinate to any other liens or mortgages 8053 except the liens securing loans or investments made by financial 8054 institutions referred to in division (A)(3) of this section, and 8055

the liens securing loans previously made by any financial 8056 institution in connection with the procurement or expansion of all 8057 or part of a project. 8058

(B) Any proposed minority business enterprise borrower 8059 submitting an application for assistance under this section shall 8060 not have defaulted on a previous loan from the director, and no 8061 full or limited partner, major shareholder, or holder of an equity 8062 interest of the proposed minority business enterprise borrower 8063 shall have defaulted on a loan from the director. 8064

(C) The proposed minority business enterprise borrower shall 8065 demonstrate to the satisfaction of the director that it is able to 8066 successfully compete in the private sector if it obtains the 8067 necessary financial, technical, or managerial support and that 8068 support is available through the director, the minority business 8069 development office of the department of development, or other 8070 identified and acceptable sources. In determining whether a 8071 minority business enterprise borrower will be able to successfully 8072 compete, the director may give consideration to such factors as 8073 the successful completion of or participation in courses of study, 8074 recognized by the board of regents as providing financial, 8075 technical, or managerial skills related to the operation of the 8076 business, by the economically disadvantaged individual, owner, or 8077 partner, and the prior success of the individual, owner, or 8078 partner in personal, career, or business activities, as well as to 8079 other factors identified by the director. 8080

(D) The director shall not lend funds for the purpose of 8081 procuring or improving motor vehicles or accounts receivable. 8082

Sec. 123.01. (A) The department of administrative services, 8083 in addition to those powers enumerated in Chapters 124. and 125. 8084 of the Revised Code and provided elsewhere by law, shall exercise 8085
the following powers: 8086

(1) To prepare, or contract to be prepared, by licensed 8087 engineers or architects, surveys, general and detailed plans, 8088 specifications, bills of materials, and estimates of cost for any 8089 projects, improvements, or public buildings to be constructed by 8090 state agencies that may be authorized by legislative 8091 appropriations or any other funds made available therefor, 8092 provided that the construction of the projects, improvements, or 8093 public buildings is a statutory duty of the department. This 8094 section does not require the independent employment of an 8095 architect or engineer as provided by section 153.01 of the Revised 8096 Code in the cases to which that section applies nor affect or 8097 alter the existing powers of the director of transportation. 8098

(2) To have general supervision over the construction of any 8099 projects, improvements, or public buildings constructed for a 8100 state agency and over the inspection of materials previous to 8101 buildings; 8103

(3) To make contracts for and supervise the construction of 8104 any projects and improvements or the construction and repair of 8105 the departments of public safety, job and family services, mental 8108 health, developmental disabilities, rehabilitation and correction, 8109 and youth services, the bureau of workers' compensation, the 8110 rehabilitation services commission, and boards of trustees of 8111 educational and benevolent institutions and except contracts for 8112 the construction of projects that do not require the issuance of a 8113 building permit or the issuance of a certificate of occupancy and 8114 that are necessary to remediate conditions at a hazardous waste 8115 facility, solid waste facility, or other location at which the 8116 director of environmental protection has reason to believe there 8117 is a substantial threat to public health or safety or the 8118 environment. These contracts shall be made and entered into by the 8119 directors of public safety, job and family services, mental 8120 health, developmental disabilities, rehabilitation and correction, 8121 and youth services, the administrator of workers' compensation, 8122 the rehabilitation services commission, the boards of trustees of 8123 such institutions, and the director of environmental protection, 8124 unit price basis of maximum estimated cost, with payment computed 8126 and made upon actual quantities or units. 8127

(4) To prepare and suggest comprehensive plans for the 8128 development of grounds and buildings under the control of a state 8129
agency; 8130

and memorials erected by the state, except where the supervision 8141 and maintenance is otherwise provided by law; 8142

(8) To procure, by lease, storage accommodations for a state 8143
agency; 8144

(9) To lease or grant easements or licenses for unproductive 8145 and unused lands or other property under the control of a state 8146 agency. Such leases, easements, or licenses shall be granted for a 8147 period not to exceed fifteen years and shall be executed for the 8148 state by the director of administrative services and the governor 8149 and shall be approved as to form by the attorney general, provided 8150 that leases, easements, or licenses may be granted to any county, 8151 township, municipal corporation, port authority, water or sewer 8152 district, school district, library district, health district, park 8153 district, soil and water conservation district, conservancy 8154

(10) To lease space for the use of a state agency; 8167

(11) To have general supervision and care of the storerooms, 8168 offices, and buildings leased for the use of a state agency; 8169

(12) To exercise general custodial care of all real property 8170 of the state; 8171

(13) To assign and group together state offices in any city 8172 in the state and to establish, in cooperation with the state 8173 agencies involved, rules governing space requirements for office 8174 or storage use; 8175

(14) To lease for a period not to exceed forty years, 8176 pursuant to a contract providing for the construction thereof 8177 under a lease-purchase plan, buildings, structures, and other 8178 improvements for any public purpose, and, in conjunction 8179 therewith, to grant leases, easements, or licenses for lands under 8180 the control of a state agency for a period not to exceed forty 8181 years. The lease-purchase plan shall provide that at the end of 8182 the lease period, the buildings, structures, and related 8183 improvements, together with the land on which they are situated, 8184 shall become the property of the state without cost. 8185

(a) Whenever any building, structure, or other improvement is 8186 to be so leased by a state agency, the department shall retain 8187 either basic plans, specifications, bills of materials, and 8188 estimates of cost with sufficient detail to afford bidders all 8189 needed information or, alternatively, all of the following plans, 8190 details, bills of materials, and specifications: 8191

(i) Full and accurate plans suitable for the use of mechanics 8192 and other builders in the improvement; 8193

(ii) Details to scale and full sized, so drawn and 8194 represented as to be easily understood; 8195

(iii) Accurate bills showing the exact quantity of different 8196 kinds of material necessary to the construction; 8197 performed, together with such directions as will enable a 8199 competent mechanic or other builder to carry them out and afford 8200 bidders all needed information; 8201

(v) A full and accurate estimate of each item of expense and 8202 of the aggregate cost thereof. 8203

(b) The department shall give public notice, in such 8204 newspaper, in such form, and with such phraseology as the director 8205 of administrative services prescribes, published once each week 8206 for four consecutive weeks, of the time when and place where bids 8207 will be received for entering into an agreement to lease to a 8208 state agency a building, structure, or other improvement. The last 8209 publication shall be at least eight days preceding the day for 8210 opening the bids. The bids shall contain the terms upon which the 8211 builder would propose to lease the building, structure, or other 8212 improvement to the state agency. The form of the bid approved by 8213 the department shall be used, and a bid is invalid and shall not 8214 be considered unless that form is used without change, alteration, 8215 or addition. Before submitting bids pursuant to this section, any 8216 builder shall comply with Chapter 153. of the Revised Code. 8217

(c) On the day and at the place named for receiving bids for 8218 entering into lease agreements with a state agency, the director 8219 of administrative services shall open the bids and shall publicly 8220 proceed immediately to tabulate the bids upon duplicate sheets. No 8221 lease agreement shall be entered into until the bureau of workers' 8222 compensation has certified that the person to be awarded the lease 8223 agreement has complied with Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, 8224 until, if the builder submitting the lowest and best bid is a 8225 foreign corporation, the secretary of state has certified that the 8226 corporation is authorized to do business in this state, until, if 8227 the builder submitting the lowest and best bid is a person 8228 nonresident of this state, the person has filed with the secretary 8229 of state a power of attorney designating the secretary of state as 8230 its agent for the purpose of accepting service of summons in any 8231 action brought under Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, and until 8232 the agreement is submitted to the attorney general and the 8233 attorney general's approval is certified thereon. Within thirty 8234 days after the day on which the bids are received, the department 8235 shall investigate the bids received and shall determine that the 8236 bureau and the secretary of state have made the certifications 8237 required by this section of the builder who has submitted the 8238 lowest and best bid. Within ten days of the completion of the 8239 investigation of the bids, the department shall award the lease 8240 agreement to the builder who has submitted the lowest and best bid 8241 and who has been certified by the bureau and secretary of state as 8242 required by this section. If bidding for the lease agreement has 8243 been conducted upon the basis of basic plans, specifications, 8244 bills of materials, and estimates of costs, upon the award to the 8245 builder the department, or the builder with the approval of the 8246 department, shall appoint an architect or engineer licensed in 8247 this state to prepare such further detailed plans, specifications, 8248 and bills of materials as are required to construct the building, 8249 structure, or improvement. The department shall adopt such rules 8250 as are necessary to give effect to this section. The department 8251 may reject any bid. Where there is reason to believe there is 8252 collusion or combination among bidders, the bids of those 8253 concerned therein shall be rejected. 8254 existed before its repeal by Amended Substitute House Bill 95 of 8259 the 125th general assembly; 8260

(16) To lease for a period not to exceed forty years, 8261
notwithstanding any other division of this section, the 8262 land for use by senior citizens by constructing, altering, 8269 renovating, repairing, expanding, and improving the site as it 8270 existed on June 25, 1982. A developer desiring to lease the land 8271 shall prepare for submission to the department a plan for 8272 development. Plans shall include provisions for roads, sewers, 8273 water lines, waste disposal, water supply, and similar matters to 8274 meet the requirements of state and local laws. The plans shall 8275 also include provision for protection of the property by insurance 8276 or otherwise, and plans for financing the development, and shall 8277 set forth details of the developer's financial responsibility. 8278

The department may employ, as employees or consultants, 8279 persons needed to assist in reviewing the development plans. Those 8280 persons may include attorneys, financial experts, engineers, and 8281 other necessary experts. The department shall review the 8282 development plans and may enter into a lease if it finds all of 8283 renovation of the buildings, roads, structures, and other 8292 necessary facilities shall begin within one year after the date of 8293 the lease and shall proceed according to a schedule agreed to 8294 between the department and the developer or the lease will be 8295 terminated. The lease shall contain such conditions and 8296 stipulations as the director considers necessary to preserve the 8297 best interest of the state. Moneys received by the state pursuant 8298 lease shall provide that at the end of the lease period the 8300 buildings, structures, and related improvements shall become the 8301 property of the state without cost. 8302

(17) To lease to any person any tract of land owned by the state and under the control of the department, or any part of such a tract, for the purpose of drilling for or the pooling of oil or gas. buildings as the director may require in the administration of the 8347 department; 8348

(3) The power of the director of public safety and the 8349 shall assign to the office such number of employees and furnish 8430 such equipment and supplies as are necessary for the performance 8431 of the office's duties. 8432

The office shall develop energy efficiency and conservation 8433 programs in each of the following areas: 8434

- (1) New construction design and review; 8435
- (2) Existing building audit and retrofit; 8436
- (3) Energy efficient procurement; 8437
- (4) Alternative fuel vehicles. 8438

The office may accept and administer grants from public and 8439 private sources for carrying out any of its duties under this 8440
section. 8441

(D) For the purposes of assisting the department in its 8476 responsibility for state-funded facilities pursuant to section 8477 123.01 of the Revised Code and of cost-effectively reducing the 8478 energy consumption of those and any other state-funded facilities, 8479 thereby promoting fiscal, economic, and environmental benefits to 8480 this state, the office shall promulgate rules specifying 8481 cost-effective, energy efficiency and conservation standards that 8482 may govern the lease, design, construction, operation, and 8483 maintenance of all state-funded facilities, except facilities of 8484 state institutions of higher education or facilities operated by a 8485 political subdivision. The office of energy efficiency in the 8486 department of development shall cooperate in providing information 8487 and technical expertise to the office of energy services to ensure 8488 promulgation of rules of maximum effectiveness. The standards 8489 prescribed by rules promulgated under this division may draw from 8490 or incorporate, by reference or otherwise and in whole or in part, 8491 standards already developed or implemented by any competent, 8492 public or private standards organization or program. The rules 8493 also may include any of the following: 8494

(1) Specifications for a life-cycle cost analysis that shall 8495 determine, for the economic life of such state-funded facility, 8496 the reasonably expected costs of facility ownership, operation, 8497 and maintenance including labor and materials. Life-cycle cost may 8498 be expressed as an annual cost for each year of the facility's 8499 use. ~~Further, the life cycle cost analysis may demonstrate for~~ 8500 ~~each design how the design contributes to energy efficiency and~~ 8501 ~~conservation with respect to any of the following:~~ 8502

~~(a) The coordination, orientation, and positioning of the~~ 8503 ~~facility on its physical site;~~ 8504

~~(b) The amount and type of glass employed in the facility and~~ 8505
~~the directions of exposure;~~ 8506

~~(c) Thermal characteristics of materials incorporated into~~ 8507 ~~facility design, including insulation;~~ 8508

~~(f) Any other pertinent, physical characteristics of the~~ 8515
~~design.~~ 8516

A life-cycle cost analysis additionally may include an energy consumption analysis that conforms to division (D)(2) of this section. 8517

(2) Specifications for an energy consumption analysis of the facility's heating, refrigeration, ventilation, cooling, lighting, hot water, and other major energy consuming systems, components, and equipment. ~~This analysis shall include both of the following:~~ 8520

~~(b) The projection of the annual energy consumption of those major energy consuming systems, components, and equipment, for a range of operation of the facility over the economic life of the facility and considering their operation at other than full or rated outputs.~~ 8526
8530

A life-cycle cost analysis and energy consumption analysis shall be based on the best currently available methods of analysis, such as those of the national ~~bureau~~ institute of standards and technology, the United States department of ~~housing and urban development~~ energy or other federal agencies, professional societies, and directions developed by the department. 8531
8532
8534
8537

(3) Specifications for energy performance indices, to be used to audit and evaluate competing design proposals submitted to the state. 8538

reasonably equivalent. 8548

(5) An application process by which a ~~project manager, as to~~ 8549
of a specified state-funded facility, except a facility of a state 8550 institution of higher education or a facility operated by a 8551 political subdivision, may apply for a waiver of compliance with 8552 any provision of the rules required by divisions (D)(1) to (4) of 8553
this section. 8554

(E) The office of energy services shall promulgate rules to 8555 ensure that energy efficiency and conservation will be considered 8556 in the purchase of products and equipment, except motor vehicles, 8557 by any state agency, department, division, bureau, office, unit, 8558 board, commission, authority, quasi-governmental entity, or 8559 institution. Minimum energy efficiency standards for purchased 8560 products and equipment may be required, based on federal testing 8561 and labeling where available or on standards developed by the 8562 office. The rules shall apply to the competitive selection of 8563 energy consuming systems, components, and equipment under Chapter 8564
125. of the Revised Code where possible. 8565

The office also shall ensure energy efficient and energy 8566 conserving purchasing practices by doing all of the following: 8567

(1) Cooperatively with the office of energy efficiency, 8568 identifying available energy efficiency and conservation 8569 opportunities; 8570

(2) Providing for interchange of information among purchasing 8571 agencies; 8572

(3) Identifying laws, policies, rules, and procedures that 8573 need modification; 8574

(4) Monitoring experience with and the cost-effectiveness of 8575 this state's purchase and use of motor vehicles and of major 8576 energy-consuming systems, components, equipment, and products 8577 having a significant impact on energy consumption by government; 8578

providing technical assistance and training to state employees 8580 involved in the purchasing process. 8581

The department of development shall make recommendations to 8582 the office regarding planning and implementation of purchasing 8583 policies and procedures supportive of energy efficiency and 8584 conservation. 8585

(F)(1) The office of energy services shall require all state 8586 agencies, departments, divisions, bureaus, offices, units, 8587 commissions, boards, authorities, quasi-governmental entities, 8588 institutions, and state institutions of higher education to 8589 implement procedures ensuring that all their passenger automobiles 8590 acquired in each fiscal year, except for those passenger 8591 automobiles acquired for use in law enforcement or emergency 8592 rescue work, achieve a fleet average fuel economy of not less than 8593 the fleet average fuel economy for that fiscal year as shall be 8594 prescribed by the office by rule. The office shall promulgate the 8595 rule prior to the beginning of the fiscal year in accordance with 8596 the average fuel economy standards established pursuant to federal 8597 law for passenger automobiles manufactured during the model year 8598 that begins during the fiscal year. 8599

(2) Each state agency, department, division, bureau, office, 8600 unit, commission, board, authority, quasi-governmental entity, 8601 institution, and state institution of higher education shall 8602 determine its fleet average fuel economy by dividing: 8603

(a) The total number of passenger vehicles acquired during 8604 the fiscal year, except for those passenger vehicles acquired for 8605 use in law enforcement or emergency rescue work, by 8606

(b) A sum of terms, each of which is a fraction created by 8607 dividing: 8608

(i) The number of passenger vehicles of a given make, model, 8609 and year, except for passenger vehicles acquired for use in law 8610 enforcement or emergency rescue work, acquired during the fiscal 8611 year, by 8612

(ii) The fuel economy measured by the administrator of the 8613
United States environmental protection agency, for the given make, 8614 model, and year of vehicle, that constitutes an average fuel 8615 economy for combined city and highway driving. 8616

As used in division (F)(2) of this section, "acquired" means 8617 leased for a period of sixty continuous days or more, or 8618 purchased. 8619

(G) Each state agency, department, division, bureau, office, 8620 unit, board, commission, authority, quasi-governmental entity, 8621 institution, and state institution of higher education shall 8622

shall regulate the rate of tolls to be collected on the public 8626 works of the state, and shall fix all rentals and collect all 8627 tolls, rents, fines, commissions, fees, and other revenues arising 8628 from any source in the public works, including the sale, 8629 construction, purchase, or rental of property, except that the 8630 director shall not collect a commission or fee from a real estate 8631 investigation, inquiry, or hearing, the court of common pleas of 8742 any county, or any judge of the court of common pleas of any 8743 board, or a municipal or civil service township civil service 8746 commission, or any commissioner of such a commission, or their 8747 chief examiner, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 8748 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 8749 a subpoena issued from the court or a refusal to testify in the 8750

court. 8751

(H) Make a report to the governor, on or before the first day 8752 of January of each year, showing the director's actions, the rules 8753 and all exceptions to the rules in force, and any recommendations 8754 for the more effectual accomplishment of the purposes of this 8755 chapter. The director shall also furnish any special reports to 8756 the governor whenever the governor requests them. The reports 8757 shall be printed for public distribution under the same 8758 regulations as are the reports of other state officers, boards, or 8759

(32) An administrator appointed by a county board of 8932 information services and records management under section 307.847 8933

(33) Employees placed in the unclassified service by another 8935
section of the Revised Code. 8936

(B) The classified service shall comprise all persons in the 8937 employ of the state and the several counties, cities, city health 8938 districts, general health districts, and city school districts of 8939
the state, not specifically included in the unclassified service. 8940 Upon the creation by the board of trustees of a civil service 8941 township civil service commission, the classified service shall 8942 also comprise, except as otherwise provided in division (A)(17) or 8943 (C) of this section, all persons in the employ of a civil service 8944 township police or fire department having ten or more full-time 8945 paid employees. The classified service consists of two classes, 8946 which shall be designated as the competitive class and the 8947 unskilled labor class. 8948

(1) The competitive class shall include all positions and 8949 employments in the state and the counties, cities, city health 8950 districts, general health districts, and city school districts of 8951

the state, and, upon the creation by the board of trustees of a 8952 civil service township of a township civil service commission, all 8953 positions in a civil service township police or fire department 8954 having ten or more full-time paid employees, for which it is 8955 practicable to determine the merit and fitness of applicants by 8956 competitive examinations. Appointments shall be made to, or 8957 employment shall be given in, all positions in the competitive 8958 class that are not filled by promotion, reinstatement, transfer, 8959 or reduction, as provided in this chapter, and the rules of the 8960 director of administrative services, by appointment from those 8961 certified to the appointing officer in accordance with this 8962
chapter. 8963

(2) The unskilled labor class shall include ordinary 8964 unskilled laborers. Vacancies in the labor class for positions in 8965 service of the state shall be filled by appointment from lists of 8966 applicants registered by the director. Vacancies in the labor 8967 class for all other positions shall be filled by appointment from 8968 lists of applicants registered by a commission. The director or 8969 the commission, as applicable, by rule, shall require an applicant 8970 for registration in the labor class to furnish evidence or take 8971 tests as the director or commission considers proper with respect 8972 to age, residence, physical condition, ability to labor, honesty, 8973 sobriety, industry, capacity, and experience in the work or 8974 employment for which application is made. Laborers who fulfill the 8975 requirements shall be placed on the eligible list for the kind of 8976 labor or employment sought, and preference shall be given in 8977 employment in accordance with the rating received from that 8978 evidence or in those tests. Upon the request of an appointing 8979 officer, stating the kind of labor needed, the pay and probable 8980 length of employment, and the number to be employed, the director 8981 or commission, as applicable, shall certify from the highest on 8982 the list double the number to be employed; from this number, the 8983 appointing officer shall appoint the number actually needed for 8984 the particular work. If more than one applicant receives the same 8985 rating, priority in time of application shall determine the order 8986 in which their names shall be certified for appointment. 8987

(C) A municipal or civil service township civil service 8988 commission may place volunteer firefighters who are paid on a 8989 fee-for-service basis in either the classified or the unclassified 8990 civil service. 8991

(D) This division does not apply to persons in the 8992 unclassified service who have the right to resume positions in the 8993 classified service under sections 4121.121, 5119.071, 5120.38, 8994 5120.381, 5120.382, 5123.08, 5139.02, and 5501.19 of the Revised 8995
Code. 8996

An appointing authority whose employees are paid directly by 8997 warrant of the director of budget and management may appoint a 8998 person who holds a certified position in the classified service 8999 within the appointing authority's agency to a position in the 9000 unclassified service within that agency. A person appointed 9001 pursuant to this division to a position in the unclassified 9002 service shall retain the right to resume the position and status 9003 held by the person in the classified service immediately prior to 9004 the person's appointment to the position in the unclassified 9005 service, regardless of the number of positions the person held in 9006 the unclassified service. An employee's right to resume a position 9007 in the classified service may only be exercised when an appointing 9008 authority demotes the employee to a pay range lower than the 9009 employee's current pay range or revokes the employee's appointment 9010 to the unclassified service. An employee forfeits the right to 9011 resume a position in the classified service when the employee is 9012 removed from the position in the unclassified service due to 9013 incompetence, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral 9014 conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, 9015 neglect of duty, violation of this chapter or the rules of the 9016 director of administrative services, any other failure of good 9017 behavior, any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, or 9018 nonfeasance in office, or conviction of a felony. An employee also 9019 forfeits the right to resume a position in the classified service 9020 upon transfer to a different agency. 9021

Reinstatement to a position in the classified service shall 9022 be to a position substantially equal to that position in the 9023 classified service held previously, as certified by the director 9024 of administrative services. If the position the person previously 9025 held in the classified service has been placed in the unclassified 9026 service or is otherwise unavailable, the person shall be appointed 9027 to a position in the classified service within the appointing 9028 authority's agency that the director of administrative services 9029 certifies is comparable in compensation to the position the person 9030 previously held in the classified service. Service in the position 9031 in the unclassified service shall be counted as service in the 9032 position in the classified service held by the person immediately 9033 prior to the person's appointment to the position in the 9034 unclassified service. When a person is reinstated to a position in 9035 the classified service as provided in this division, the person is 9036 entitled to all rights, status, and benefits accruing to the 9037 position in the classified service during the person's time of 9038 service in the position in the unclassified service. 9039

Sec. 124.14. (A)(1) The director of administrative services 9040 shall establish, and may modify or rescind, ~~by rule,~~ a job 9041 classification plan for all positions, offices, and employments 9042 the salaries of which are paid in whole or in part by the state. 9043
The director shall group jobs within a classification so that the 9044 positions are similar enough in duties and responsibilities to be 9045 described by the same title, to have the same pay assigned with 9046 equity, and to have the same qualifications for selection applied. 9047
The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign a classification title to each 9048 classification within the classification plan. However, the 9049 director shall consider in establishing classifications, including 9050 classifications with parenthetical titles, and assigning pay 9051 ranges such factors as duties performed only on one shift, special 9052 skills in short supply in the labor market, recruitment problems, 9053 separation rates, comparative salary rates, the amount of training 9054 required, and other conditions affecting employment. The director 9055 shall describe the duties and responsibilities of the class, 9056 establish the qualifications for being employed in each position 9057 in the class, and file with the secretary of state a copy of 9058 specifications for all of the classifications. The director shall 9059 file new, additional, or revised specifications with the secretary 9060 of state before they are used. 9061

The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign each classification, 9062 either on a statewide basis or in particular counties or state 9063 institutions, to a pay range established under section 124.15 or 9064 section 124.152 of the Revised Code. The director may assign a 9065 classification to a pay range on a temporary basis for a period of 9066 six months. The director may establish, ~~by rule adopted under~~ 9067 ~~Chapter 119. of the Revised Code,~~ experimental classification 9068 plans for some or all employees paid directly by warrant of the 9069 director of budget and management. ~~The rule~~ An experimental 9070 classification plan shall include specifications for each 9071 classification within the plan and shall specifically address 9072 compensation ranges, and methods for advancing within the ranges, 9073 for the classifications, which may be assigned to pay ranges other 9074 than the pay ranges established under section 124.15 or 124.152 of 9075
the Revised Code. 9076

(2) The director of administrative services may reassign to a 9077 proper classification those positions that have been assigned to 9078 an improper classification. If the compensation of an employee in 9079 such a reassigned position exceeds the maximum rate of pay for the 9080 employee's new classification, the employee shall be placed in pay 9081 step X and shall not receive an increase in compensation until the 9082 maximum rate of pay for that classification exceeds the employee's 9083 compensation. 9084

(3) The director may reassign an exempt employee, as defined 9085 in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, to a bargaining unit 9086 classification if the director determines that the bargaining unit 9087 classification is the proper classification for that employee. 9088 Notwithstanding Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code or instruments 9089 and contracts negotiated under it, these placements are at the 9090 director's discretion. 9091

(4) The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign related 9092 classifications, which form a career progression, to a 9093 classification series. The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign each 9094 classification in the classification plan a five-digit number, the 9095 first four digits of which shall denote the classification series 9096 to which the classification is assigned. When a career progression 9097 encompasses more than ten classifications, the director shall, ~~by~~ 9098 ~~rule,~~ identify the additional classifications belonging to a 9099 classification series. The additional classifications shall be 9100 part of the classification series, notwithstanding the fact that 9101 the first four digits of the number assigned to the additional 9102 classifications do not correspond to the first four digits of the 9103 numbers assigned to other classifications in the classification 9104 agreement to a state employee who is in a position with similar 9501 duties as, is supervised by, or is employed by the same appointing 9502 authority as, the employee to whom the benefit or payment is to be 9503 provided. 9504

As used in this division, "payment or benefit already 9505 provided by law" includes, but is not limited to, bereavement, 9506 personal, vacation, administrative, and sick leave, disability 9507 benefits, holiday pay, and pay supplements provided under the 9508 Revised Code, but does not include wages or salary. 9509

(E) New employees paid in accordance with schedule B of 9510 division (A) of this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of 9511 the Revised Code shall be employed at the minimum rate established 9512 for the range unless otherwise provided. Employees with 9513 qualifications that are beyond the minimum normally required for 9514 the position and that are determined by the director to be 9515 exceptional may be employed in, or may be transferred or promoted 9516 to, a position at an advanced step of the range. Further, in time 9517 of a serious labor market condition when it is relatively 9518 impossible to recruit employees at the minimum rate for a 9519 particular classification, the entrance rate may be set at an 9520 advanced step in the range by the director of administrative 9521 services. This rate may be limited to geographical regions of the 9522 state. Appointments made to an advanced step under the provision 9523 regarding exceptional qualifications shall not affect the step 9524 assignment of employees already serving. However, anytime the 9525 hiring rate of an entire classification is advanced to a higher 9526 step, all incumbents of that classification being paid at a step 9527 lower than that being used for hiring, shall be advanced beginning 9528 at the start of the first pay period thereafter to the new hiring 9529 rate, and any time accrued at the lower step will be used to 9530 calculate advancement to a succeeding step. If the hiring rate of 9531 a classification is increased for only a geographical region of 9532 the state, only incumbents who work in that geographical region 9533 shall be advanced to a higher step. When an employee in the 9534 unclassified service changes from one state position to another or 9535 is appointed to a position in the classified service, or if an 9536 employee in the classified service is appointed to a position in 9537 the unclassified service, the employee's salary or wage in the new 9538 position shall be determined in the same manner as if the employee 9539 were an employee in the classified service. When an employee in 9540 the unclassified service who is not eligible for step increases is 9541 appointed to a classification in the classified service under 9542 which step increases are provided, future step increases shall be 9543 based on the date on which the employee last received a pay 9544 increase. If the employee has not received an increase during the 9545 previous year, the date of the appointment to the classified 9546 service shall be used to determine the employee's annual step 9547 advancement eligibility date. In reassigning any employee to a 9548 classification resulting in a pay range increase or to a new pay 9549 range as a result of a promotion, an increase pay range 9550 adjustment, or other classification change resulting in a pay 9551 range increase, the director shall assign such employee to the 9552 step in the new pay range that will provide an increase of 9553 approximately four per cent if the new pay range can accommodate 9554 the increase. When an employee is being assigned to a 9555 classification or new pay range as the result of a class plan 9556 change, if the employee has completed a probationary period, the 9557 employee shall be placed in a step no lower than step two of the 9558

new pay range. If the employee has not completed a probationary 9559 period, the employee may be placed in step one of the new pay 9560 range. Such new salary or wage shall become effective on such date 9561 as the director determines. 9562

(F) If employment conditions and the urgency of the work 9563 require such action, the director of administrative services may, 9564 upon the application of a department head, authorize payment at 9565 any rate established within the range for the class of work, for 9566 work of a casual or intermittent nature or on a project basis. 9567 Payment at such rates shall not be made to the same individual for 9568 more than three calendar months in any one calendar year. Any such 9569 action shall be subject to the approval of the director of budget 9570 and management as to the availability of funds. This section and 9571 sections 124.14 and 124.152 of the Revised Code do not repeal any 9572 authority of any department or public official to contract with or 9573 fix the compensation of professional persons who may be employed 9574 temporarily for work of a casual nature or for work on a project 9575 basis. 9576

(G)(1) Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 9577 section, each state employee paid in accordance with schedule B of 9578 this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 9579 Code shall be eligible for advancement to succeeding steps in the 9580 range for the employee's class or grade according to the schedule 9581 established in this division. Beginning on the first day of the 9582 pay period within which the employee completes the prescribed 9583 probationary period in the employee's classification with the 9584 state, each employee shall receive an automatic salary adjustment 9585 equivalent to the next higher step within the pay range for the 9586 employee's class or grade. 9587

Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 9588 section, each employee paid in accordance with schedule E-1 of 9589 section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall be eligible to advance 9590 to the next higher step until the employee reaches the top step in 9591 the range for the employee's class or grade, if the employee has 9592 maintained satisfactory performance in accordance with criteria 9593 established by the employee's appointing authority. Those step 9594 advancements shall not occur more frequently than once in any 9595 twelve-month period. 9596

When an employee is promoted, the step entry date shall be 9597 set to account for a probationary period. When an employee is 9598 reassigned to a higher pay range, the step entry date shall be set 9599 to allow an employee who is not at the highest step of the range 9600 to receive a step advancement one year from the reassignment date. 9601 Step advancement shall not be affected by demotion. A promoted 9602 employee shall advance to the next higher step of the pay range on 9603 the first day of the pay period in which the required probationary 9604 period is completed. Step advancement shall become effective at 9605 the beginning of the pay period within which the employee attains 9606 the necessary length of service. Time spent on authorized leave of 9607 absence shall be counted for this purpose. 9608

If determined to be in the best interest of the state 9609 service, the director of administrative services may, either 9610 statewide or in selected agencies, adjust the dates on which 9611 annual step advancements are received by employees paid in 9612 accordance with schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 9613
Code. 9614

(2)(a) There shall be a moratorium on annual step 9615 advancements under division (G)(1) of this section beginning June 9616 21, 2009, through June 20, 2011. Step advancements shall resume 9617 with the pay period beginning June 21, 2011. Upon the resumption 9618 of step advancements, there shall be no retroactive step 9619 advancements for the period the moratorium was in effect. The 9620 moratorium shall not affect an employee's performance evaluation 9621 schedule. 9622

An employee who begins a probationary period before June 21, 2009, shall advance to the next step in the employee's pay range at the end of probation, and then become subject to the moratorium. An employee who is hired, promoted, or reassigned to a higher pay range between June 21, 2009, through June 20, 2011, shall not advance to the next step in the employee's pay range until the next anniversary of the employee's date of hire, promotion, or reassignment that occurs on or after June 21, 2011.

(3) Employees in intermittent positions shall be employed at the minimum rate established for the pay range for their classification and are not eligible for step advancements.

(I) When an employee is assigned to duty outside this state, the employee may be compensated, upon request of the department head and with the approval of the director of administrative 9655 services, at a rate not to exceed fifty per cent in excess of the 9656 employee's current base rate for the period of time spent on that 9657 duty. 9658

(J) Unless compensation for members of a board or commission 9659 is otherwise specifically provided by law, the director of 9660 administrative services shall establish the rate and method of 9661 payment for members of boards and commissions pursuant to the pay 9662 schedules listed in section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 9663

(K) Regular full-time employees in positions assigned to 9664 classes within the instruction and education administration series 9665 ~~under the rules of~~ by the director of administrative services, 9666 except certificated employees on the instructional staff of the 9667 state school for the blind or the state school for the deaf, whose 9668 positions are scheduled to work on the basis of an academic year 9669 rather than a full calendar year, shall be paid according to the 9670 pay range assigned by ~~such rules~~ the director, but only during 9671 those pay periods included in the academic year of the school 9672 where the employee is located. 9673

(1) Part-time or substitute teachers or those whose period of 9674 employment is other than the full academic year shall be 9675 compensated for the actual time worked at the rate established by 9676
this section. 9677

(2) Employees governed by this division are exempt from 9678 sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code. 9679

(3) Length of service for the purpose of determining 9680 eligibility for step advancements as provided by division (G) of 9681 this section and for the purpose of determining eligibility for 9682 longevity pay supplements as provided by division (E) of section 9683 124.181 of the Revised Code shall be computed on the basis of one 9684 full year of service for the completion of each academic year. 9685

(L) The superintendent of the state school for the deaf and 9686
the superintendent of the state school for the blind shall, 9687 subject to the approval of the superintendent of public 9688 instruction, carry out both of the following: 9689

(1) Annually, between the first day of April and the last day 9690 of June, establish for the ensuing fiscal year a schedule of 9691 hourly rates for the compensation of each certificated employee on 9692 the instructional staff of that superintendent's respective school 9693 constructed as follows: 9694

(a) Determine for each level of training, experience, and 9695 other professional qualification for which an hourly rate is set 9696 forth in the current schedule, the per cent that rate is of the 9697 rate set forth in such schedule for a teacher with a bachelor's 9698 degree and no experience. If there is more than one such rate for 9699 such a teacher, the lowest rate shall be used to make the 9700 computation. 9701

(b) Determine which six city, local, and exempted village 9702 school districts with territory in Franklin county have in effect 9703 on, or have adopted by, the first day of April for the school year 9704 that begins on the ensuing first day of July, teacher salary 9705 schedules with the highest minimum salaries for a teacher with a 9706 bachelor's degree and no experience; 9707

(c) Divide the sum of such six highest minimum salaries by 9708 ten thousand five hundred sixty; 9709

(d) Multiply each per cent determined in division (L)(1)(a) 9710 of this section by the quotient obtained in division (L)(1)(c) of 9711
this section; 9712

(e) One hundred five per cent of each product thus obtained 9713 shall be the hourly rate for the corresponding level of training, 9714 experience, or other professional qualification in the schedule 9715 for the ensuing fiscal year. 9716

(2) Annually, assign each certificated employee on the instructional staff of the superintendent's respective school to an hourly rate on the schedule that is commensurate with the employee's training, experience, and other professional qualifications.

If an employee is employed on the basis of an academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated by multiplying the employee's assigned hourly rate times one thousand seven hundred sixty. If an employee is not employed on the basis of an academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

(a) Multiply the number of days the employee is required to work pursuant to the employee's contract by eight;

(b) Multiply the product of division (L)(2)(a) of this section by the employee's assigned hourly rate.

Each employee shall be paid an annual salary in biweekly installments. The amount of each installment shall be calculated by dividing the employee's annual salary by the number of biweekly installments to be paid during the year.

Sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code do not apply to an employee who is paid under this division.

As used in this division, "academic year" means the number of days in each school year that the schools are required to be open for instruction with pupils in attendance. Upon completing an academic year, an employee paid under this division shall be deemed to have completed one year of service. An employee paid under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under division (L)(1), (2), or (3) of section 124.181 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, but is not eligible to receive a pay supplement under division (L)(4) or (5) of that section. An employee paid under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under division (L)(6) of section 124.181 9748 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, except that 9749

the supplement is not limited to a maximum of five per cent of the 9750 employee's regular base salary in a calendar year. 9751

(M) Division (A) of this section does not apply to "exempt 9752 employees," as defined in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, who 9753 are paid under that section. 9754

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, when an 9755 employee transfers between bargaining units or transfers out of or 9756 into a bargaining unit, the director of administrative services 9757 shall establish the employee's compensation and adjust the maximum 9758 leave accrual schedule as the director deems equitable. 9759

Sec. 124.23. (A) All applicants for positions and places in 9760 the classified service shall be subject to examination, except for 9761 applicants for positions as professional or certified service and 9762 paraprofessional employees of county boards of developmental 9763 disabilities, who shall be hired in the manner provided in section 9764
124.241 of the Revised Code. 9765

(B) Any examination administered under this section shall be 9766 public and be open to all citizens of the United States and those 9767 persons who have legally declared their intentions of becoming 9768 United States citizens. For examinations administered for 9769 positions in the service of the state, the director of 9770 administrative services or the director's designee may determine 9771 certain limitations as to citizenship, age, experience, education, 9772 health, habit, and moral character. 9773

(C) Any person who has completed service in the uniformed 9774 services, who has been honorably discharged from the uniformed 9775 services or transferred to the reserve with evidence of 9776 satisfactory service, and who is a resident of this state and any 9777 member of the national guard or a reserve component of the armed 9778 forces of the United States who has completed more than one 9779 hundred eighty days of active duty service pursuant to an 9780 executive order of the president of the United States or an act of 9781 the congress of the United States may file with the director a 9782 certificate of service or honorable discharge, and, upon this 9783 filing, the person shall receive additional credit of twenty per 9784 cent of the person's total grade given in the ~~regular~~ examination 9785 in which the person receives a passing grade. 9786

As used in this division, "service in the uniformed services" 9787 and "uniformed services" have the same meanings as in the 9788
"Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 9789 1994," 108 Stat. 3149, 38 U.S.C.A. 4303. 9790

(D) An examination may include an evaluation of such factors 9791 as education, training, capacity, knowledge, manual dexterity, and 9792 physical or psychological fitness. An examination shall consist of 9793 one or more tests in any combination. Tests may be written, oral, 9794 physical, demonstration of skill, or an evaluation of training and 9795 experiences and shall be designed to fairly test the relative 9796 capacity of the persons examined to discharge the particular 9797 duties of the position for which appointment is sought. Tests may 9798 include structured interviews, assessment centers, work 9799 simulations, examinations of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and 9800 any other acceptable testing methods. If minimum or maximum 9801 requirements are established for any examination, they shall be 9802 specified in the examination announcement. 9803

(E) Except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 9804 of the Revised Code, when a position in the classified service of 9805
the state is to be filled, an examination shall be administered. 9806
The director of administrative services shall have control of all 9807 examinations administered for positions in the service of the 9808 state and all other examinations the director administers as 9809 provided in section 124.07 of the Revised Code, except as 9810 otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code. The director shall, by rule adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, prescribe the notification method that is to be used by an appointing authority to notify the director that a position in the classified service of the state is to be filled. In addition to the positions described in section 124.30 of the Revised Code, the director may, with sufficient justification from the appointing authority, allow the appointing authority to fill the position by noncompetitive examination. The director shall establish, by rule adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, standards that the director shall use to determine what serves as sufficient justification from an appointing authority to fill a position by noncompetitive examination.

(G) Except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code, the director of administrative services or the director's designee shall give reasonable notice of the time, place, and general scope of every competitive examination for appointment that the director or the director's designee administers for positions in the classified service of the state. The director or the director's designee shall ~~send written, printed, or electronic post~~ notices via electronic media of every examination to be conducted for positions in the classified civil service of the state ~~to each agency of the type the director of job and family services specifies and, in the case of a county in which no such agency is located, to the clerk of the court of common pleas of that county and to the clerk of each city located~~ ~~within that county. Those notices shall be posted in conspicuous 9843 public places in the designated agencies or the courthouse, and 9844 city hall of the cities, of the counties in which no designated 9845 agency is located for at least two weeks. The electronic notice 9846 shall be posted on the director's internet site on the world wide 9847 web for a minimum of one week preceding any examination involved, 9848 and in a conspicuous place in the office of the director of 9849 administrative services for at least two weeks preceding any 9850 examination involved. In case of examinations limited by the 9851 director to a district, county, city, or department, the director 9852 shall provide by rule for adequate publicity of an examination in 9853 the district, county, city, or department within which competition 9854 is permitted. 9855~~

Sec. 124.231. (A) As used in this section, "legally blind 9856 person" means any person who qualifies as being blind under any 9857 Ohio or federal statute, or any rule adopted thereunder. As used 9858 in this section, "legally deaf person" means any person who 9859 qualifies as being deaf under any Ohio or federal statute, or any 9860 rule adopted thereunder. 9861

(B) ~~The~~ When an examination is to be administered under 9862 sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code, the director of 9863 administrative services or the director's designee shall whenever 9864 practicable arrange for special examinations to be administered to 9865 legally blind or legally deaf persons applying for ~~original~~ 9866 ~~appointments~~ positions in the classified service to ensure that 9867 the abilities of such applicants are properly assessed and that 9868 such applicants are not subject to discrimination because they are 9869 legally blind or legally deaf persons. 9870

~~(C) The director may administer equitable programs for the 9871 employment of legally blind persons and legally deaf persons in 9872 the classified service. 9873~~

~~Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the appointment of a legally blind or legally deaf person to a position in the classified service under the procedures otherwise provided in this chapter.~~

Sec. 124.24. (A) Notwithstanding sections 124.01 to 124.64 and Chapter 145. of the Revised Code, the examinations of applicants for the positions of deputy mine inspector, superintendent of rescue stations, assistant superintendent of rescue stations, electrical inspectors, ~~gas storage well inspector,~~ and mine chemists in the division of mineral resources management, department of natural resources, as provided in Chapters 1561., 1563., 1565., and 1567. of the Revised Code shall be provided for, conducted, and administered by the chief of the division of mineral resources management.

From the returns of the examinations the chief shall prepare eligible lists of the persons whose general average standing upon examinations for such grade or class is not less than the minimum fixed by rules adopted under section 1561.05 of the Revised Code and who are otherwise eligible. All appointments to a position shall be made from ~~such~~ that eligible list in the same manner as appointments are made from eligible lists prepared by the director of administrative services. Any person upon being appointed to fill one of the positions provided for in this ~~section~~ division, from any such eligible list, shall have the same standing, rights, privileges, and status as other state employees in the classified service.

(B) Notwithstanding sections 124.01 to 124.64 and Chapter 145. of the Revised Code, the examinations of applicants for the position of gas storage well inspector in the division of oil and gas resources management, department of natural resources, as provided in Chapter 1571. of the Revised Code shall be provided for, conducted, and administered by the chief of the division of 9905 oil and gas resources management. 9906

From the returns of the examinations, the chief shall prepare 9907 an eligible list of the persons whose general average standing 9908 upon examinations for that position is not less than the minimum 9909 fixed by rules adopted under section 1571.014 of the Revised Code 9910 and who are otherwise eligible. An appointment to the position 9911 shall be made from that eligible list in the same manner as 9912 appointments are made from eligible lists prepared by the director 9913 of administrative services. Any person, upon being appointed to 9914 fill the position provided for in this division from any such 9915 eligible list, shall have the same standing, rights, privileges, 9916 and status as other state employees in the classified service. 9917

Sec. 124.25. The director of administrative services shall 9918 require persons applying for an examination for original 9919 appointment to file with the director or the director's designee, 9920 within reasonable time prior to the examination, a formal 9921 application, in which the applicant shall state the applicant's 9922 name, address, and such other information as may reasonably be 9923 required concerning the applicant's education and experience. No 9924 inquiry shall be made as to religious or political affiliations or 9925 as to racial or ethnic origin of the applicant, except as 9926 necessary to gather equal employment opportunity or other 9927 statistics that, when compiled, will not identify any specific 9928 individual. 9929

Blank forms for applications shall be furnished by the 9930 director or the director's designee without charge to any person 9931 requesting the same. The director or the director's designee may 9932 require in connection with such application such certificate of 9933 persons having knowledge of the applicant as the good of the 9934 service demands. The director or the director's designee may 9935 refuse to appoint or examine an applicant, or, after an 9936 examination, refuse to certify the applicant as eligible, who is 9937 found to lack any of the established preliminary requirements for 9938 the examination, who is addicted to the habitual use of 9939 intoxicating liquors or drugs to excess, who has a pattern of poor 9940 work habits and performance with previous employers, who has been 9941 convicted of a felony, who has been guilty of infamous or 9942 notoriously disgraceful conduct, who has been dismissed from 9943 either branch of the civil service for delinquency or misconduct, 9944 or who has made false statements of any material fact, or 9945 practiced, or attempted to practice, any deception or fraud in the 9946 application or examination, in establishing eligibility, or 9947 securing an appointment. 9948

Sec. 124.26. From the returns of the examinations, the 9949 director of administrative services or the director's designee 9950 shall prepare an eligible list of the persons whose general 9951 average standing upon examinations for the ~~grade or~~ class or 9952 position is not less than the minimum fixed by the rules of the 9953 director, and who are otherwise eligible. Those persons shall take 9954 rank upon the eligible list as candidates in the order of their 9955 relative excellence as determined by the examination without 9956 reference to priority of the time of examination. If two or more 9957 applicants receive the same mark in an open competitive 9958 examination, priority in the time of filing the application with 9959 the director or the director's designee shall determine the order 9960 in which their names shall be placed on the eligible list, except 9961 that applicants eligible for veteran's preference under section 9962 124.23 of the Revised Code shall receive priority in rank on the 9963 eligible list over nonveterans on the list with a rating equal to 9964 that of the veteran. Ties among veterans shall be decided by 9965 priority of filing the application. ~~If two or more applicants~~ 9966 ~~receive the same mark on a promotional examination, seniority~~ 9967

~~shall determine the order in which their names shall be placed on the eligible list. The term of eligibility of each list shall be fixed by the director at not less than one or more than two years.~~

~~When an eligible list is reduced to ten names or less, a new list may be prepared. The director may consolidate two or more eligible lists of the same kind by the rearranging of eligibles named in the lists, according to their grades. An eligible list expires upon the filling or closing of the position. An expired eligible list may be used to fill a position of the same classification within the same appointing authority for which the list was created. But, in no event shall an expired list be used more than one year past its expiration date.~~

Sec. 124.27. (A) ~~The head of a department, office, or institution, in which a position in the classified service is to be filled, shall notify the director of administrative services of the fact, and the director shall, except as otherwise provided in this section and sections 124.30 and 124.31 of the Revised Code, certify to the appointing authority the names and addresses of the ten candidates standing highest on the eligible list for the class or grade to which the position belongs, except that the director may certify less than ten names if ten names are not available.
When less than ten names are certified to an appointing authority, appointment from that list shall not be mandatory. When a position in the classified service in the department of mental health or the department of developmental disabilities is to be filled, the director of administrative services shall make such certification to the appointing authority within seven working days of the date the eligible list is requested.~~

~~(B) The appointing authority shall notify the director of a position in the classified service to be filled, and the appointing authority shall fill the vacant position by appointment~~

~~of one of the ten persons certified by the director. If more than~~ 9999
~~one position is to be filled, the director may certify a group of~~ 10000 ~~names from the eligible list, and the appointing authority shall~~ 10001 ~~appoint in the following manner: beginning at the top of the list,~~ 10002
~~each time a selection is made, it must be from one of the first~~ 10003
~~ten candidates remaining on the list who is willing to accept~~ 10004
~~consideration for the position. If an eligible list becomes~~ 10005 ~~exhausted, and until a new list can be created, or when no~~ 10006 ~~eligible list for a position exists, names may be certified from~~ 10007 ~~eligible lists most appropriate for the group or class in which~~ 10008
~~the position to be filled is classified. A person who is certified~~ 10009
~~from an eligible list more than three times to the same appointing~~ 10010
~~authority for the same or similar positions may be omitted from~~ 10011 ~~future certification to that appointing authority, provided that~~ 10012 ~~certification for a temporary appointment shall not be counted as~~ 10013
~~one of those certifications. Every person who qualifies for~~ 10014
~~veteran's preference under section 124.23 of the Revised Code, who~~ 10015
~~is a resident of this state, and whose name is on the eligible~~ 10016
~~list for a position shall be entitled to preference in original~~ 10017
~~appointments to any such competitive position in the civil service~~ 10018
~~of the state and its civil divisions over all other persons~~ 10019
~~eligible for those appointments and standing on the relevant~~ 10020 ~~eligible list with a rating equal to that of the person qualifying~~ 10021
~~for veteran's preference. Appointments to all positions in the~~ 10022 ~~classified service, that are not filled by promotion, transfer, or~~ 10023 ~~reduction, as provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised~~ 10024
~~Code and the rules of the director prescribed under those~~ 10025
~~sections, shall be made only from those persons whose names are~~ 10026
~~certified to the appointing authority take rank order on an~~ 10027 ~~eligible list, and no employment, except as provided in those~~ 10028
~~sections, shall be otherwise given in the classified service of~~ 10029
~~this state or any political subdivision of the state. The~~ 10030 ~~appointing authority shall appoint in the following manner: each~~ 10031 time a selection is made, it shall be from one of the names that 10032 ranks in the top twenty-five per cent of the eligible list. But, 10033 in the event that ten or fewer names are on the eligible list, the 10034 appointing authority may select any of the listed candidates. Each 10035 person who qualifies for the veteran's preference under section 10036 124.23 of the Revised Code, who is a resident of this state, and 10037 whose name is on the eligible list for a position is entitled to 10038 preference in original appointment to any such competitive 10039 position in the civil service of the state and its civil divisions 10040 over all other persons who are eligible for those appointments and 10041 who are standing on the relevant eligible list with a rating equal 10042 to that of the person qualifying for the veteran's preference. 10043

~~(C)~~(B) All original and promotional appointments, including 10044 appointments made pursuant to section 124.30 of the Revised Code, 10045 but not intermittent appointments, shall be for a probationary 10046 period, not less than sixty days nor more than one year, to be 10047 fixed by the rules of the director, except as provided in section 10048 124.231 of the Revised Code, and except for original appointments 10049 to a police department as a police officer or to a fire department 10050 as a firefighter which shall be for a probationary period of one 10051 year. No appointment or promotion is final until the appointee has 10052 satisfactorily served the probationary period. If the service of 10053 the probationary employee is unsatisfactory, the employee may be 10054 removed or reduced at any time during the probationary period. If 10055 the appointing authority decides to remove a probationary employee 10056 in the service of the state, the appointing authority shall 10057 communicate the removal to the director ~~the reason for that~~ 10058 ~~decision~~. A probationary employee duly removed or reduced in 10059 position for unsatisfactory service does not have the right to 10060 appeal the removal or reduction under section 124.34 of the 10061

Sec. 124.31. ~~(A)~~ Vacancies in positions in the classified 10063 service of the state shall be filled insofar as practicable by 10064 promotions. The director of administrative services shall provide 10065 in the director's rules for keeping a record of efficiency for 10066 each employee in the classified civil service of the state, and 10067 for making promotions in the classified civil service of the state 10068 on the basis of merit, ~~to be ascertained insofar as practicable by~~ 10069 ~~promotional examinations, and~~ by conduct and capacity in office, 10070 and by seniority in service. The director shall provide that 10071 vacancies in positions in the classified civil service of the 10072 state shall be filled by promotion in all cases where, in the 10073 judgment of the director, it is for the best interest of the 10074 service. The director's rules shall authorize each appointing 10075 authority of a county to develop and administer in a manner it 10076 devises, an evaluation system for the employees it appoints. 10077

~~(B) All examinations for promotions shall be competitive and 10078 may be conducted in the same manner as examinations described in 10079 section 124.23 of the Revised Code. In promotional examinations, 10080 seniority in service shall be added to the examination grade, but 10081 no credit for seniority or any other reason shall be added to an 10082 examination grade unless the applicant achieves at least the 10083 minimum passing score on the examination without counting that 10084 extra credit. Credit for seniority shall equal, for the first four 10085 years of service, one per cent of the total grade attainable in 10086 the promotion examination, and, for each of the fifth through 10087 fourteenth years of service, six tenths per cent of the total 10088 grade attainable. 10089~~

~~In all cases where vacancies are to be filled by promotion, 10090 the director shall certify to the appointing authority the names 10091 of the three persons having the highest rating on the eligible 10092 list. The method of examination for promotions, the manner of 10093 giving notice of the examination, and the rules governing it shall 10094 be in general the same as those provided for original 10095~~

~~examinations, except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 10096
124.64 of the Revised Code. 10097~~

Sec. 124.34. (A) The tenure of every officer or employee in 10098 the classified service of the state and the counties, civil 10099 service townships, cities, city health districts, general health 10100 districts, and city school districts of the state, holding a 10101 position under this chapter, shall be during good behavior and 10102 efficient service. No officer or employee shall be reduced in pay 10103 or position, fined, suspended, or removed, or have the officer's 10104 or employee's longevity reduced or eliminated, except as provided 10105 in section 124.32 of the Revised Code, and for incompetency, 10106 inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, 10107 insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of 10108 duty, violation of any policy or work rule of the officer's or 10109 employee's appointing authority, violation of this chapter or the 10110 rules of the director of administrative services or the 10111 commission, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of 10112 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office, or conviction 10113 of a felony. The denial of a one-time pay supplement or a bonus to 10114 an officer or employee is not a reduction in pay for purposes of 10115
this section. 10116

This section does not apply to any modifications or 10117 reductions in pay or work week authorized by division (Q) of 10118 section 124.181 or section 124.392 ~~or~~, 124.393, or 124.394 of the 10119
Revised Code. 10120

An appointing authority may require an employee who is 10121 suspended to report to work to serve the suspension. An employee 10122 serving a suspension in this manner shall continue to be 10123 compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay for hours 10124 worked. The disciplinary action shall be recorded in the 10125 employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary 10126 actions and has the same effect as a suspension without pay for 10127 the purpose of recording disciplinary actions. 10128

A finding by the appropriate ethics commission, based upon a 10129 preponderance of the evidence, that the facts alleged in a 10130 complaint under section 102.06 of the Revised Code constitute a 10131 violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of 10132 the Revised Code may constitute grounds for dismissal. Failure to 10133 file a statement or falsely filing a statement required by section 10134 102.02 of the Revised Code may also constitute grounds for 10135 dismissal. The tenure of an employee in the career professional 10136 service of the department of transportation is subject to section 10137
5501.20 of the Revised Code. 10138

Conviction of a felony is a separate basis for reducing in 10139 pay or position, suspending, or removing an officer or employee, 10140 even if the officer or employee has already been reduced in pay or 10141 position, suspended, or removed for the same conduct that is the 10142 basis of the felony. An officer or employee may not appeal to the 10143 state personnel board of review or the commission any disciplinary 10144 action taken by an appointing authority as a result of the 10145 officer's or employee's conviction of a felony. If an officer or 10146 employee removed under this section is reinstated as a result of 10147 an appeal of the removal, any conviction of a felony that occurs 10148 during the pendency of the appeal is a basis for further 10149 disciplinary action under this section upon the officer's or 10150 employee's reinstatement. 10151

A person convicted of a felony immediately forfeits the 10152 person's status as a classified employee in any public employment 10153 on and after the date of the conviction for the felony. If an 10154 officer or employee is removed under this section as a result of 10155 being convicted of a felony or is subsequently convicted of a 10156 felony that involves the same conduct that was the basis for the 10157 removal, the officer or employee is barred from receiving any 10158 compensation after the removal notwithstanding any modification or 10159 disaffirmance of the removal, unless the conviction for the felony 10160 is subsequently reversed or annulled. 10161

Any person removed for conviction of a felony is entitled to 10162 a cash payment for any accrued but unused sick, personal, and 10163 vacation leave as authorized by law. If subsequently reemployed in 10164 the public sector, the person shall qualify for and accrue these 10165 forms of leave in the manner specified by law for a newly 10166 appointed employee and shall not be credited with prior public 10167 service for the purpose of receiving these forms of leave. 10168

As used in this division, "felony" means any of the 10169
following: 10170

(1) A felony that is an offense of violence as defined in 10171
section 2901.01 of the Revised Code; 10172

(2) A felony that is a felony drug abuse offense as defined 10173
in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code; 10174

(3) A felony under the laws of this or any other state or the 10175
United States that is a crime of moral turpitude; 10176

(4) A felony involving dishonesty, fraud, or theft; 10177

(5) A felony that is a violation of section 2921.05, 2921.32, 10178
or 2921.42 of the Revised Code. 10179

(B) In case of a reduction, a suspension of more than forty 10180 work hours in the case of an employee exempt from the payment of 10181 overtime compensation, a suspension of more than twenty-four work 10182 hours in the case of an employee required to be paid overtime 10183 compensation, a fine of more than forty hours' pay in the case of 10184 an employee exempt from the payment of overtime compensation, a 10185 fine of more than twenty-four hours' pay in the case of an 10186 employee required to be paid overtime compensation, or removal, 10187 except for the reduction or removal of a probationary employee, 10188 the appointing authority shall serve the employee with a copy of 10189 the order of reduction, fine, suspension, or removal, which order 10190 shall state the reasons for the action. 10191

Within ten days following the date on which the order is 10192 served or, in the case of an employee in the career professional 10193 service of the department of transportation, within ten days 10194 following the filing of a removal order, the employee, except as 10195 otherwise provided in this section, may file an appeal of the 10196 order in writing with the state personnel board of review or the 10197 commission. For purposes of this section, the date on which an 10198 order is served is the date of hand delivery of the order or the 10199 date of delivery of the order by certified United States mail, 10200 whichever occurs first. If an appeal is filed, the board or 10201 commission shall forthwith notify the appointing authority and 10202 shall hear, or appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within 10203 thirty days from and after its filing with the board or 10204 commission. The board, commission, or trial board may affirm, 10205 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. 10206 However, in an appeal of a removal order based upon a violation of 10207 a last chance agreement, the board, commission, or trial board may 10208 only determine if the employee violated the agreement and thus 10209 affirm or disaffirm the judgment of the appointing authority. 10210

In cases of removal or reduction in pay for disciplinary 10211 reasons, either the appointing authority or the officer or 10212 employee may appeal from the decision of the state personnel board 10213 of review or the commission, and any such appeal shall be to the 10214 court of common pleas of the county in which the appointing 10215 authority is located, or to the court of common pleas of Franklin 10216 county, as provided by section 119.12 of the Revised Code. 10217

(C) In the case of the suspension for any period of time, or 10218 a fine, demotion, or removal, of a chief of police, a chief of a 10219 fire department, or any member of the police or fire department of 10220 a city or civil service township, who is in the classified civil 10221 service, the appointing authority shall furnish the chief or 10222 member with a copy of the order of suspension, fine, demotion, or 10223 removal, which order shall state the reasons for the action. The 10224 order shall be filed with the municipal or civil service township 10225 civil service commission. Within ten days following the filing of 10226 the order, the chief or member may file an appeal, in writing, 10227 with the commission. If an appeal is filed, the commission shall 10228 forthwith notify the appointing authority and shall hear, or 10229 appoint a trial board to hear, the appeal within thirty days from 10230 and after its filing with the commission, and it may affirm, 10231 disaffirm, or modify the judgment of the appointing authority. An 10232 appeal on questions of law and fact may be had from the decision 10233 of the commission to the court of common pleas in the county in 10234 which the city or civil service township is situated. The appeal 10235 shall be taken within thirty days from the finding of the 10236

commission. 10237

(D) A violation of division (A)(7) of section 2907.03 of the 10238 Revised Code is grounds for termination of employment of a 10239 nonteaching employee under this section. 10240

(E) As used in this section, "last chance agreement" means an 10241 agreement signed by both an appointing authority and an officer or 10242 employee of the appointing authority that describes the type of 10243 behavior or circumstances that, if it occurs, will automatically 10244 lead to removal of the officer or employee without the right of 10245 appeal to the state personnel board of review or the appropriate 10246
commission. 10247

Sec. 124.393. (A) As used in this section: 10248

(1) "~~County exempt~~ Exempt employee" means a permanent 10249 full-time or permanent part-time county, township, or municipal 10250 corporation employee who is not subject to a collective bargaining 10251 agreement between a public employer and an exclusive representative. 10252

(2) "Fiscal emergency" means any of the following: 10254

(a) A fiscal emergency declared by the governor under section 10255

(b) A fiscal watch or fiscal emergency has been declared or 10257 determined under section 118.023 or 118.04 of the Revised Code. 10258

(c) Lack of funds as defined in section 124.321 of the 10259
Revised Code. 10260

~~(e)~~(d) Reasons of economy as described in section 124.321 of 10261
the Revised Code. 10262

(B)(1) A county, township, or municipal corporation 10263 appointing authority may establish a mandatory cost savings 10264 program applicable to its ~~county~~ exempt employees. Each ~~county~~ 10265 exempt employee shall participate in the program of mandatory cost 10266 savings for not more than eighty hours, as determined by the 10267 appointing authority, in each of state fiscal years 2010 ~~and 2011~~ 10268 to 2013. The program may include, but is not limited to, a loss of 10269 pay or loss of holiday pay. The program may be administered 10270 differently among employees based on their classifications, 10271 appointment categories, or other relevant distinctions. 10272

(2) After June 30, ~~2011~~ 2013, a county, township, or 10273 municipal corporation appointing authority may implement mandatory 10274 cost savings days as described in division (B)(1) of this section 10275 that apply to its ~~county~~ exempt employees in the event of a fiscal 10276 emergency. 10277

(C) A county, township, or municipal corporation appointing 10278 authority shall issue guidelines concerning how the appointing 10279 authority will implement the cost savings program. 10280

Sec. 124.394. (A) As used in this section: 10281

general assembly, the capitol square review advisory board, the 10317 bureau of workers' compensation, the industrial commission, and 10318 institutions administered by boards of trustees, the department of 10319 administrative services may contract for telephone, other 10320 telecommunication, and computer services for state agencies. 10321 Nothing in this division precludes the bureau or the commission 10322 from contracting with the department to authorize the department 10323 to contract for those services for the bureau or the commission. 10324

(B)(1) As used in this division: 10325

(a) "Active duty" means active duty pursuant to an executive 10326 order of the president of the United States, an act of the 10327 congress of the United States, or section 5919.29 or 5923.21 of 10328
the Revised Code. 10329

(b) "Immediate family" means a person's spouse residing in 10330 the person's household, brothers and sisters of the whole or of 10331 stepchildren, parents, and grandparents. 10333

(2) The department of administrative services may enter into 10334 a contract to purchase bulk long distance telephone services and 10335 make them available at cost, or may make bulk long distance 10336 telephone services available at cost under any existing contract 10337 the department has entered into, to members of the immediate 10338 family of persons deployed on active duty so that those family 10339 members can communicate with the persons so deployed. If the 10340 department enters into contracts under division (B)(2) of this 10341 section, it shall do so in accordance with sections 125.01 to 10342 125.11 of the Revised Code and in a nondiscriminatory manner that 10343 does not place any potential vendor at a competitive disadvantage. 10344

(3) If the department decides to exercise either option under 10345 division (B)(2) of this section, it shall adopt, and may amend, 10346 rules under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement that 10347
division. 10348

Sec. 125.024. (A) If the department of mental health provides 10349 the goods and services described in division (C)(3) of section 10350 5119.16 of the Revised Code to the persons and government entities 10351 described in that section, the department of administrative 10352 services shall issue a request for proposals for the purpose of 10353 determining whether such goods and services could be provided by a 10354 vendor, on behalf of the department of mental health, in a manner 10355 that achieves greater operational efficiencies and savings to the 10356 state than those that could be achieved if the department of 10357 mental health provides the goods and services itself. The request 10358 for proposals must be issued not later than sixty days after the 10359 effective date of this section. 10360

(B) Before issuing a request for proposals under division (A) 10361 of this section, the department of administrative services shall 10362 develop a process to be used in issuing the request for proposals, 10363 receiving responses to the request, and evaluating responses on a 10364 competitive basis. 10365

(C) If the department of administrative services determines, 10366 from a review of the proposals submitted through the process 10367 described in division (B) of this section, that a vendor is able 10368 to provide the goods and services described in division (C)(3) of 10369 section 5119.16 of the Revised Code in the manner described in 10370 division (A) of this section, the department shall enter into a 10371 contract with the vendor for the provision of such goods and 10372 services. 10373

(D) The department of administrative services shall adopt 10374 rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 10375 implement this section. At a minimum, the rules must specify the 10376 entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. No state 12575 of the project are first deposited into the school district's 12579 project construction fund. 12580

Sec. 133.18. (A) The taxing authority of a subdivision may by 12581 legislation submit to the electors of the subdivision the question 12582 of issuing any general obligation bonds, for one purpose, that the 12583 subdivision has power or authority to issue. 12584

(B) When the taxing authority of a subdivision desires or is required by law to submit the question of a bond issue to the electors, it shall pass legislation that does all of the following:

(1) Declares the necessity and purpose of the bond issue;

(2) States the date of the authorized election at which the question shall be submitted to the electors;

(3) States the amount, approximate date, estimated net average rate of interest, and maximum number of years over which the principal of the bonds may be paid;

(4) Declares the necessity of levying a tax outside the tax limitation to pay the debt charges on the bonds and any anticipatory securities.

The estimated net average interest rate shall be determined by the taxing authority based on, among other factors, then existing market conditions, and may reflect adjustments for any anticipated direct payments expected to be received by the taxing authority from the government of the United States relating to the bonds and the effect of any federal tax credits anticipated to be available to owners of all or a portion of the bonds. The estimated net average rate of interest, and any statutory or charter limit on interest rates that may then be in effect and that is subsequently amended, shall not be a limitation on the actual interest rate or rates on the securities when issued.

and in mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, that the county auditor estimates to be required throughout the stated maturity of the bonds to pay the debt charges on the bonds. In calculating the estimated average annual property tax levy for this purpose, the county auditor shall assume that the bonds are issued in one series bearing interest and maturing in substantially equal principal amounts in each year over the maximum number of years over which the principal of the bonds may be paid as stated in that legislation, and that the amount of the tax valuation of the subdivision for the current year remains the same throughout the maturity of the bonds, except as otherwise provided in division (C)(2) of this section. If the tax valuation for the current year is not determined, the county auditor shall base the calculation on the estimated amount of the tax valuation submitted by the county auditor to the county budget commission. If the subdivision is located in more than one county, the county auditor shall obtain the assistance of the county auditors of the other counties, and those county auditors shall provide assistance, in establishing the tax valuation of the subdivision for purposes of certifying the estimated average annual property tax levy.

(2) When considering the tangible personal property component of the tax valuation of the subdivision, the county auditor shall take into account the assessment percentages prescribed in section 5711.22 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may issue rules, orders, or instructions directing how the assessment percentages must be utilized.

(D) After receiving the county auditor's advice under division (C) of this section, the taxing authority by legislation may determine to proceed with submitting the question of the issue of securities, and shall, not later than the seventy-fifth day before the day of the election, file the following with the board of elections:

(1) Copies of the legislation provided for in divisions (B) 12648 and (D) of this section; 12649

(2) The amount of the estimated average annual property tax 12650 levy, expressed in cents or dollars and cents for each one hundred 12651 dollars of tax valuation and in mills for each one dollar of tax 12652 valuation, as estimated and certified to the taxing authority by 12653 the county auditor. 12654

(E)(1) The board of elections shall prepare the ballots and 12655 make other necessary arrangements for the submission of the 12656 question to the electors of the subdivision. If the subdivision is 12657 located in more than one county, the board shall inform the boards 12658 of elections of the other counties of the filings with it, and 12659 those other boards shall if appropriate make the other necessary 12660 arrangements for the election in their counties. The election 12661 shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the manner 12662 provided in Title XXXV of the Revised Code. 12663

(2) The election shall be held at the regular places for 12664 voting in the subdivision. If the electors of only a part of a 12665 precinct are qualified to vote at the election the board of 12666 elections may assign the electors in that part to an adjoining 12667 precinct, including an adjoining precinct in another county if the 12668 board of elections of the other county consents to and approves 12669 the assignment. Each elector so assigned shall be notified of that 12670 fact prior to the election by notice mailed by the board of 12671 elections, in such manner as it determines, prior to the election. 12672

(3) The board of elections shall publish a notice of the 12673 election, ~~once in one or more newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 12674 circulation in the subdivision, ~~at least once~~ no later than ten 12675 subdivision exceeds that applicable to that subdivision or those 12763 securities, then and so long as that is the case none of the 12764 securities may be issued. 12765

(2) No securities authorized at an election under this 12766 section may be initially issued after the first day of the sixth 12767 issuing or validity of any part of the securities issued or to be 12771 issued, or the related proceedings, is involved or questioned 12772 period of time. If a public record contains information that is 13881 exempt from the duty to permit public inspection or to copy the 13882 public record, the public office or the person responsible for the 13883 public record shall make available all of the information within 13884 the public record that is not exempt. When making that public 13885 record available for public inspection or copying that public 13886 record, the public office or the person responsible for the public 13887 record shall notify the requester of any redaction or make the 13888 redaction plainly visible. A redaction shall be deemed a denial of 13889 a request to inspect or copy the redacted information, except if 13890 federal or state law authorizes or requires a public office to 13891 make the redaction. 13892

(2) To facilitate broader access to public records, a public 13893 office or the person responsible for public records shall organize 13894 and maintain public records in a manner that they can be made 13895 available for inspection or copying in accordance with division 13896 (B) of this section. A public office also shall have available a 13897 copy of its current records retention schedule at a location 13898 readily available to the public. If a requester makes an ambiguous 13899 or overly broad request or has difficulty in making a request for 13900 copies or inspection of public records under this section such 13901 that the public office or the person responsible for the requested 13902 public record cannot reasonably identify what public records are 13903 being requested, the public office or the person responsible for 13904 the requested public record may deny the request but shall provide 13905 the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by 13906 informing the requester of the manner in which records are 13907 maintained by the public office and accessed in the ordinary 13908 course of the public office's or person's duties. 13909

(3) If a request is ultimately denied, in part or in whole, 13910 the public office or the person responsible for the requested 13911 public record shall provide the requester with an explanation, 13912 including legal authority, setting forth why the request was 13913 denied. If the initial request was provided in writing, the 13914 explanation also shall be provided to the requester in writing. 13915

The explanation shall not preclude the public office or the person 13916 responsible for the requested public record from relying upon 13917 additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action 13918 commenced under division (C) of this section. 13919

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 13920 federal law or in accordance with division (B) of this section, no 13921 public office or person responsible for public records may limit 13922 or condition the availability of public records by requiring 13923 disclosure of the requester's identity or the intended use of the 13924 requested public record. Any requirement that the requester 13925 disclose the requestor's identity or the intended use of the 13926 requested public record constitutes a denial of the request. 13927

(5) A public office or person responsible for public records 13928 may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may ask for 13929 the requester's identity, and may inquire about the intended use 13930 of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing 13931 to the requester that a written request is not mandatory and that 13932 the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or 13933 the intended use and when a written request or disclosure of the 13934 identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing 13935 the ability of the public office or person responsible for public 13936 records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought 13937 by the requester. 13938

(6) If any person chooses to obtain a copy of a public record 13939 in accordance with division (B) of this section, the public office 13940 or person responsible for the public record may require that 13941 person to pay in advance the cost involved in providing the copy 13942 of the public record in accordance with the choice made by the 13943 person seeking the copy under this division. The public office or 13944 the person responsible for the public record shall permit that 13945 person to choose to have the public record duplicated upon paper, 13946 upon the same medium upon which the public office or person 13947 responsible for the public record keeps it, or upon any other 13948 medium upon which the public office or person responsible for the 13949 public record determines that it reasonably can be duplicated as 13950 an integral part of the normal operations of the public office or 13951 person responsible for the public record. When the person seeking 13952 the copy makes a choice under this division, the public office or 13953 person responsible for the public record shall provide a copy of 13954 it in accordance with the choice made by the person seeking the 13955 copy. Nothing in this section requires a public office or person 13956 responsible for the public record to allow the person seeking a 13957 copy of the public record to make the copies of the public record. 13958

(7) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) of 13959 this section and subject to division (B)(6) of this section, a 13960 public office or person responsible for public records shall 13961 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United States 13962 mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission within a 13963 reasonable period of time after receiving the request for the 13964 copy. The public office or person responsible for the public 13965 record may require the person making the request to pay in advance 13966 the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by United States 13967 mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is transmitted other than 13968 by United States mail, and to pay in advance the costs incurred 13969 for other supplies used in the mailing, delivery, or transmission. 13970

Any public office may adopt a policy and procedures that it 13971 will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period of time 13972 after receiving a request, copies of public records by United 13973 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 13974 pursuant to this division. A public office that adopts a policy 13975 and procedures under this division shall comply with them in 13976 performing its duties under this division. 13977

In any policy and procedures adopted under this division, a 13978 public office may limit the number of records requested by a 13979 person that the office will transmit by United States mail to ten 13980 per month, unless the person certifies to the office in writing 13981 that the person does not intend to use or forward the requested 13982 records, or the information contained in them, for commercial 13983 purposes. For purposes of this division, "commercial" shall be 13984 narrowly construed and does not include reporting or gathering 13985 news, reporting or gathering information to assist citizen 13986 oversight or understanding of the operation or activities of 13987 government, or nonprofit educational research. 13988

(8) A public office or person responsible for public records 13989 is not required to permit a person who is incarcerated pursuant to 13990 a criminal conviction or a juvenile adjudication to inspect or to 13991 obtain a copy of any public record concerning a criminal 13992 investigation or prosecution or concerning what would be a 13993 criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 13994 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request to 13995 inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose of 13996 acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 13997 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 13998 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 13999 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought in 14000 the public record is necessary to support what appears to be a 14001 justiciable claim of the person. 14002

(9)(a) Upon written request made and signed by a journalist 14003 on or after December 16, 1999, a public office, or person 14004 responsible for public records, having custody of the records of 14005 the agency employing a specified peace officer, parole officer, 14006 prosecuting attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, correctional 14007 employee, youth services employee, firefighter, EMT, or 14008

investigator of the bureau of criminal identification and 14009 investigation shall disclose to the journalist the address of the 14010 actual personal residence of the peace officer, parole officer, 14011 prosecuting attorney, assistant prosecuting attorney, correctional 14012
employee, youth services employee, firefighter, EMT, or 14013
investigator of the bureau of criminal identification and 14014 investigation and, if the peace officer's, parole officer's, 14015 prosecuting attorney's, assistant prosecuting attorney's, 14016 correctional employee's, youth services employee's, firefighter's, 14017 EMT's, or investigator of the bureau of criminal identification 14018 and investigation's spouse, former spouse, or child is employed by 14019 a public office, the name and address of the employer of the peace 14020 officer's, parole officer's, prosecuting attorney's, assistant 14021 prosecuting attorney's, correctional employee's, youth services 14022 employee's, firefighter's, EMT's, or investigator of the bureau of 14023 criminal identification and investigation's spouse, former spouse, 14024 or child. The request shall include the journalist's name and 14025 title and the name and address of the journalist's employer and 14026 shall state that disclosure of the information sought would be in 14027 the public interest. 14028

(b) Division (B)(9)(a) of this section also applies to 14029 journalist requests for customer information maintained by a 14030 municipally owned or operated public utility, other than social 14031 security numbers and any private financial information such as 14032 credit reports, payment methods, credit card numbers, and bank 14033 account information. 14034

(c) As used in this division (B)(9) of this section, 14035
"journalist" means a person engaged in, connected with, or 14036 employed by any news medium, including a newspaper, magazine, 14037 press association, news agency, or wire service, a radio or 14038 television station, or a similar medium, for the purpose of 14039 gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, editing, or 14040 disseminating information for the general public. 14041

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure of a 14042 public office or the person responsible for public records to 14043 promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to the 14044 person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of this 14045 section or by any other failure of a public office or the person 14046 responsible for public records to comply with an obligation in 14047 accordance with division (B) of this section, the person allegedly 14048 aggrieved may commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 14049 orders the public office or the person responsible for the public 14050 record to comply with division (B) of this section, that awards 14051 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person that 14052 instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that includes 14053 an order fixing statutory damages under division (C)(1) of this 14054 section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the court of 14055 common pleas of the county in which division (B) of this section 14056 allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme court pursuant to 14057 its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of Article IV, Ohio 14058 Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate 14059 district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not 14060 complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 14061
3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 14062

If a requestor transmits a written request by hand delivery 14063 or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any public 14064 record in a manner that fairly describes the public record or 14065 class of public records to the public office or person responsible 14066 for the requested public records, except as otherwise provided in 14067 this section, the requestor shall be entitled to recover the 14068 amount of statutory damages set forth in this division if a court 14069 determines that the public office or the person responsible for 14070 public records failed to comply with an obligation in accordance 14071 with division (B) of this section. 14072

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 14073 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 14074 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 14075 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14076 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 14077 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 14078 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 14079 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 14080 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 14081 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 14082 damages shall be in addition to all other remedies authorized by 14083
this section. 14084

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 14085 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 14086
following: 14087

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 14088 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 14089 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 14090 the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 14091 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 14092 this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 14093 well-informed public office or person responsible for the 14094 requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 14095 or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 14096 for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 14097 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14098
section; 14099

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 14100 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 14101 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 14102 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 14103 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 14104 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 14105

(2)(a) If the court issues a writ of mandamus that orders the 14106 public office or the person responsible for the public record to 14107 comply with division (B) of this section and determines that the 14108 circumstances described in division (C)(1) of this section exist, 14109 the court shall determine and award to the relator all court 14110 costs. 14111

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 14112 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 14113 with division (B) of this section, the court may award reasonable 14114 attorney's fees subject to reduction as described in division 14115 (C)(2)(c) of this section. The court shall award reasonable 14116 attorney's fees, subject to reduction as described in division 14117
(C)(2)(c) of this section when either of the following applies: 14118

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 14119 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 14120 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 14121 under division (B) of this section. 14122

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 14123 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 14124 receive copies of the public records requested within a specified 14125 period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that 14126 specified period of time. 14127

(c) Court costs and reasonable attorney's fees awarded under 14128 this section shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 14129 Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred 14130 to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and 14131 to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. The court may 14132 reduce an award of attorney's fees to the relator or not award 14133 attorney's fees to the relator if the court determines both of the 14134
following: 14135

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the provisions of this section.

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public records policy in compliance with this section for responding to public records requests. In adopting a public records policy under this division, a public office may obtain guidance from the model public records policy developed and provided to the public office by the attorney general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not 14168 limit the number of public records that the public office will 14169 make available to a single person, may not limit the number of 14170 public records that it will make available during a fixed period 14171 of time, and may not establish a fixed period of time before it 14172 will respond to a request for inspection or copying of public 14173 records, unless that period is less than eight hours. 14174

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 14175 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of this 14176 section to the employee of the public office who is the records 14177 custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of the 14178 records of that office. The public office shall require that 14179 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public records 14180 policy. The public office shall create a poster that describes its 14181 public records policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous 14182 place in the public office and in all locations where the public 14183 office has branch offices. The public office may post its public 14184 records policy on the internet web site of the public office if 14185 the public office maintains an internet web site. A public office 14186 that has established a manual or handbook of its general policies 14187 and procedures for all employees of the public office shall 14188 include the public records policy of the public office in the 14189 manual or handbook. 14190

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant 14191 to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number 14192 of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person 14193 for the same records or for updated records during a calendar 14194 year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for 14195 bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of 14196 the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The 14197 bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the 14198 release of which is prohibited by law. 14199

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section: 14200

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 14201 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 14202 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 14203 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual costs 14204 paid to private contractors for copying services. 14205

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 14206 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 14207 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 14208 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 14209 class of records, or data base by a person who intends to use or 14210 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 14211 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 14212 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 14213 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 14214 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 14215 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 14216

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 14217 selling of any good, service, or other product. 14218

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 14219 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 14220 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed by 14221 the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 14222 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 14223 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer or 14224 records services. 14225

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, 14226
"surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 14227 purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 14228 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to 14229 assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 14230 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 14231

Sec. 149.351. (A) All records are the property of the public 14232 office concerned and shall not be removed, destroyed, mutilated, 14233 transferred, or otherwise damaged or disposed of, in whole or in 14234 part, except as provided by law or under the rules adopted by the 14235 records commissions provided for under sections 149.38 to 149.42 14236 of the Revised Code or under the records programs established by 14237 the boards of trustees of state-supported institutions of higher 14238 education under section 149.33 of the Revised Code. ~~Such~~ Those 14239 records shall be delivered by outgoing officials and employees to 14240 their successors and shall not be otherwise removed, destroyed, 14241 mutilated, or transferred, ~~or destroyed~~ unlawfully. 14242

(B) Any person who is aggrieved by the removal, destruction, 14243 mutilation, or transfer of, or by other damage to or disposition 14244 of a record in violation of division (A) of this section, or by 14245 threat of such removal, destruction, mutilation, transfer, or 14246 other damage to or disposition of such a record, may commence 14247 either or both of the following in the court of common pleas of 14248 the county in which division (A) of this section allegedly was 14249 violated or is threatened to be violated: 14250

(1) A civil action for injunctive relief to compel compliance 14251 with division (A) of this section, and to obtain an award of the 14252 reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the person in the civil 14253 action; 14254

(2) A civil action to recover a forfeiture in the amount of 14255 one thousand dollars for each violation, but not to exceed a 14256 cumulative total of ten thousand dollars, regardless of the number 14257 of violations, and to obtain an award of the reasonable attorney's 14258 fees incurred by the person in the civil action not to exceed the 14259 forfeiture amount recovered. 14260

(C)(1) A person is not aggrieved by a violation of division 14261

(A) of this section if clear and convincing evidence shows that 14262 the request for a record was contrived as a pretext to create 14263 potential liability under this section. The commencement of a 14264 civil action under division (B) of this section waives any right 14265 under this chapter to decline to divulge the purpose for 14266 requesting the record, but only to the extent needed to evaluate 14267 whether the request was contrived as a pretext to create potential 14268 liability under this section. 14269

(2) In a civil action under division (B) of this section, if 14270 clear and convincing evidence shows that the request for a record 14271 was a pretext to create potential liability under this section, 14272 the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to any defendant or 14273 defendants in the action. 14274

(D) Once a person recovers a forfeiture in a civil action 14275 commenced under division (B)(2) of this section, no other person 14276 may recover a forfeiture under that division for a violation of 14277 division (A) of this section involving the same record, regardless 14278 of the number of persons aggrieved by a violation of division (A) 14279 of this section or the number of civil actions commenced under 14280
this section. 14281

(E) A civil action for injunctive relief under division 14282
(B)(1) of this section or a civil action to recover a forfeiture 14283 under division (B)(2) of this section shall be commenced within 14284 six years after the day in which division (A) of this section was 14285 allegedly violated or was threatened to be violated. 14286

Sec. 153.01. (A) Whenever any building or structure for the 14287 use of the state or any institution supported in whole or in part 14288 by the state or in or upon the public works of the state that is 14289 administered by the director of administrative services or by any 14290 other state officer or state agency authorized by law to 14291 administer a project, including an educational institution listed 14292 in section 3345.50 of the Revised Code, is to be erected or 14293 constructed, whenever additions, alterations, or structural or 14294 other improvements are to be made, or whenever heating, cooling, 14295 or ventilating plants or other equipment is to be installed or 14296 material supplied therefor, the ~~aggregate estimated~~ cost of which 14297 amounts to ~~fifty two hundred~~ thousand dollars or more, or the 14298 amount determined pursuant to section 153.53 of the Revised Code 14299 or more, each officer, board, or other authority upon which 14300 devolves the duty of constructing, erecting, altering, or 14301 installing the same, referred to in sections 153.01 to 153.60 of 14302 the Revised Code as the ~~owner~~ public authority, shall cause to be 14303 made, by an architect or engineer whose contract of employment 14304 shall be prepared and approved by the attorney general, the 14305

following: 14306

~~(A)~~(1) Full and accurate plans, suitable for the use of 14307 mechanics and other builders in the construction, improvement, 14308 addition, alteration, or installation; 14309 of that portion of the work in the guaranteed maximum price. 14728

(D) The construction manager at risk or design-build firm 14729 shall determine the scope of work for separate and distinct bid 14730 packages and solicit bids from prequalified bidders, consistent 14731 with section 153.502 of the Revised Code. Bid packages for a 14732 subcontract shall be based on complete plans and specifications of 14733 the work to be performed, together with directions to enable a 14734 competent mechanic or other builder to carry out those directions 14735 and any other necessary information. Bids for subcontracts shall 14736 be opened publicly and subcontracts shall be awarded as determined 14737 by the construction manager at risk or design-build firm with 14738 notice to all bidders. The construction manager at risk or 14739 design-build firm shall make an estimate for each subcontract 14740 available to all prospective bidders at least ten days prior to 14741 the acceptance and opening of bids. If a guaranteed maximum price 14742 has been established for the project, the estimates shall be the 14743 estimates established in the guaranteed maximum price for the 14744 respective scopes of work. After a public bid opening, including 14745 any bid submitted in accordance with division (D) of this section, 14746 the construction manager at risk or design-build firm shall make 14747 recommendations to the public authority about the lowest 14748 responsive prequalified bidder. 14749

(E) Each subcontract awarded pursuant to this section shall 14750 be awarded to the lowest responsive prequalified bidder as 14751 determined by the construction manager at risk or design-build 14752 firm after a public bid opening, unless no bid is lower than the 14753 estimate for that subcontract. If no bid for a subcontract is 14754 lower than its estimate, the construction manager at risk or 14755 design-build firm may revise the scope of work and estimate for 14756 that subcontract and may seek new bids, or, subject to the terms 14757 of the contract for the project between the public authority and 14758 the construction manager at risk or design-build firm, use 14759 contingency funds in the guaranteed maximum price to pay the 14760 excess costs without any increase in the guaranteed maximum price. 14761

If a subcontract is awarded to the construction manager at risk or 14762 design-build firm, no contingency funds shall be used to pay any 14763 increase in the subcontract amount. 14764

Sec. 153.502. A contract or subcontract for a project with a 14765 public authority described in section 153.01 of the Revised Code 14766 that is an owner may be awarded only to a bidder on the contract 14767 or subcontract who has been prequalified to bid on contracts or 14768 subcontracts by the department of administrative services under 14769 rules adopted pursuant to section 153.503 of the Revised Code. 14770

Sec. 153.503. (A) The director of administrative services, 14771 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code and not later than 14772 June 30, 2012, shall adopt rules for public authorities referred 14773 to in section 153.01 of the Revised Code that are owners to do the 14774
following: 14775

(1) Prescribe the procedures and criteria for determining the 14776 best value selection of a construction manager at risk or 14777 design-build firm; 14778

(2) Prescribe forms, consistent with the forms adopted 14779 pursuant to division (B) of this section, for the contract 14780 documents to be used by a public authority when entering into a 14781 contract with a construction manager at risk or design-build firm. 14782

(3) Establish a program under which the state architect 14783 certifies public authorities as eligible to enter into contracts 14784 with construction managers at risk under sections 9.33 to 9.336 of 14785 the Revised Code and contracts with design-build firms under 14786 sections 153.65 to 153.73 of the Revised Code. 14787

The rules shall include criteria for determining whether the 14788 use of a construction manager at risk or design-build firm is in 14789 the best interests of the public authority and procedures for 14790 administrating contracts with and monitoring the performance of a 14791 construction manager at risk or design-build firm. 14792

(4) Require public authorities to use contract documents that 14793 conform to rules adopted by the director under section 153.16 of 14794 the Revised Code for all subcontracts and that allow amendments 14795 only upon the approval of the state architect. 14796

(5) Establish a program for prequalifying bidders on 14797 subcontracts generally and for specific projects. The criteria for 14798 prequalification shall be consistent with the factors described in 14799 division (B) of section 9.312 of the Revised Code for determining 14800 whether a bidder is a responsible bidder. 14801

(6) Establish procedures for the review, in an expedited 14802 manner, of any denial of prequalification on a contract or 14803 subcontract. In adopting rules under this division, the department 14804 shall consult with public authorities and representatives of the 14805 design and construction industries. The rules shall require that 14806 any bidder that is denied prequalification to bid shall be 14807 notified in writing by the department or the relevant public 14808 authority by certified or registered mail, return receipt 14809 requested, or overnight courier service. The notice shall include 14810 the reasons for denial. 14811

The rules shall require that within seven days after receipt 14812 of the notice, the bidder may file a written notice of protest 14813 with the sender of the notice by certified or registered mail, 14814 return receipt requested, or overnight courier service. The rules 14815 shall require that if a notice of protest is received, the 14816 recipient, either the department or the relevant public authority, 14817 shall conduct an investigation, provide the bidder with an 14818 opportunity to be heard, and issue a written determination to the 14819 bidder upholding or overturning the denial and setting forth the 14820 reasons for the determination. If the bidder has been denied 14821 prequalification for a subcontract for a specific project, the 14822 rules shall provide that the subcontract shall not be awarded to 14823 another bidder until the determination has been issued. 14824

(7) Establish criteria for construction managers at risk and 14825 design-build firms to follow in determining the lowest responsive 14826 prequalified bidder. The rules shall be consistent with the 14827 factors described in divisions (A) and (B) of section 9.312 of the 14828 Revised Code and other applicable laws. The rules shall require 14829 that any rejection of a bidder made by a construction manager at 14830 risk or a design-build firm shall be in writing and shall state 14831 the reasons for the rejection. 14832

The rules adopted under this section shall prohibit the 14833 prequalification of, or awarding of a subcontract to, any bidder 14834 against whom a tax lien or workers' compensation delinquency 14835 exists and is unresolved. 14836

(B) The state architect shall adopt rules in accordance with 14837
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to prescribe forms for the 14838 contract documents entered into by any public authority described 14839 in section 153.01 of the Revised Code that is an owner. The forms 14840 shall be uniform for all projects of such owners and shall provide 14841 that no contract shall be entered into until the contract and 14842 bond, if any, are submitted to the attorney general and the 14843 attorney general's approval is certified thereon. Any special 14844 provision added or change made on the form for a particular 14845 project shall be valid only if expressly approved in writing by 14846 the state architect. Any objection to a form that is not submitted 14847 to the owner in writing prior to the bid opening shall be 14848 considered waived. 14849

Sec. 153.504. Not later than three years after the director 14850 of administrative services adopts rules pursuant to section 14851 153.503 of the Revised Code, the director shall select a person 14852 that in the director's judgment would best perform an independent study of the prequalification program and commission that person to perform the study. On completion of the study, the person who performed it shall promptly submit the study's results to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the president of the senate.

Sec. 153.51. (A) When more than one branch or class of work specified in division (A) of section 153.50 of the Revised Code is required, no contract for the entire job, or for a greater portion thereof than is embraced in one such branch or class of work shall be awarded, unless the separate bids do not cover all the work and materials required or the bids for the whole or for two or more kinds of work or materials are lower than the separate bids in the aggregate.

(B)(1) The public authority referred to in section 153.50 of the Revised Code also may award a single, aggregate contract for the entire project pursuant to division (A) of this section. This award shall be made to the bidder who is the lowest responsive and responsible bidder or the lowest and best bidder, as applicable, as specified in section 153.52 of the Revised Code.

(2) The public authority referred to in section 153.50 of the Revised Code may assign all or any portion of its interest in the contract of the lowest responsive and responsible bidder or the lowest and best bidder, as applicable, to another successful bidder as an agreed condition for an award of the contract for the amount of its respective bid. Such assignment may include, but is not limited to, the duty to schedule, coordinate, and administer the contracts.

(C) A public authority referred to in division (A) of section 153.50 of the Revised Code is not required to award separate contracts for a branch or class of work specified in division (A) 14883 of section 153.50 of the Revised Code entering into an improvement 14884 if the estimated cost for that branch or class of work is less 14885 than ~~five~~ twenty thousand dollars. 14886

Sec. 153.52. The contract for doing the work belonging to 14887 each separate branch or class of work specified in division ~~(A)~~(B) 14888 of section 153.50 of the Revised Code, or for the furnishing of 14889 materials therefor, or both, shall be awarded by the public 14890 authority referred to in section 153.50 of the Revised Code, in 14891 its discretion, to the lowest responsive and responsible separate 14892 bidder therefor, in accordance with section 9.312 of the Revised 14893 Code in the case of any public authority of the state or any 14894 public institution belonging thereto, and to the lowest and best 14895 separate bidder in the case of a county, township, or municipal 14896 corporation, ~~or school district~~, or any public institution 14897 belonging thereto, and to the lowest responsive, separate, and 14898 responsible bidder in the case of a school district, and shall be 14899 made directly with the bidder in the manner and upon the terms, 14900 conditions, and limitations as to giving bond or bid guaranties as 14901 prescribed by law, unless it is let as a whole, or to bidders for 14902 more than one kind of work or materials. Sections 153.50 to 153.52 14903 of the Revised Code do not apply to the erection of buildings and 14904 other structures which cost less than ~~fifty~~ two hundred thousand 14905 dollars. 14906

Sec. 153.53. (A) As used in this section, "rate of inflation" 14907 has the same meaning as in section 107.032 of the Revised Code. 14908 14909

(B) Five years after the effective date of this section and 14910 every five years thereafter, the director of administrative 14911 services shall evaluate the monetary threshold specified in 14912 section 153.01 of the Revised Code and adopt rules adjusting that 14913 amount based on the average rate of inflation during each of the 14914 previous five years immediately preceding such adjustment. 14915

Sec. 153.54. (A) Each person bidding for a contract, 14916 including a subcontract awarded pursuant to section 153.501 of the 14917 Revised Code, with the state or any political subdivision, 14918 district, institution, or other agency thereof, excluding 14919 therefrom the department of transportation, for any public 14920 improvement shall file with the bid, a bid guaranty in the form of 14921 either: 14922

(1) A bond in accordance with division (B) of this section 14923 for the full amount of the bid; 14924

(2) A certified check, cashier's check, or letter of credit 14925 pursuant to Chapter 1305. of the Revised Code, in accordance with 14926 division (C) of this section. Any such letter of credit is 14927 revocable only at the option of the beneficiary state, political 14928 subdivision, district, institution, or agency. The amount of the 14929 certified check, cashier's check, or letter of credit shall be 14930 equal to ten per cent of the bid. 14931

(B) A bid guaranty filed pursuant to division (A)(1) of this 14932 section shall be conditioned to: 14933

(1) Provide that, if the bid is accepted, the bidder, after 14934 the awarding or the recommendation for the award of the contract, 14935 whichever the contracting authority designates, will enter into a 14936 proper contract in accordance with the bid, plans, details, and 14937 specifications, and bills of material. If for any reason, other 14938 than as authorized by section 9.31 of the Revised Code or division 14939 (G) of this section, the bidder fails to enter into the contract, 14940 and the contracting authority awards the contract to the next 14941 lowest bidder, the bidder and the surety on the bidder's bond are 14942 liable to the state, political subdivision, district, institution, 14943 or agency for the difference between the bid and that of the next 14944 lowest bidder, or for a penal sum not to exceed ten per cent of 14945

the amount of the bond, whichever is less. If the state, political 14946 subdivision, district, institution, or agency does not award the 14947 contract to the next lowest bidder but resubmits the project for 14948 bidding, the bidder failing to enter into the contract and the 14949 surety on the bidder's bond, except as provided in division (G) of 14950 this section, are liable to the state, political subdivision, 14951 district, institution, or agency for a penal sum not to exceed ten 14952 per cent of the amount of the bid or the costs in connection with 14953 the resubmission of printing new contract documents, required 14954 advertising, and printing and mailing notices to prospective 14955 bidders, whichever is less. 14956

(2) Indemnify the state, political subdivision, district, 14957 institution, or agency against all damage suffered by failure to 14958 perform the contract according to its provisions and in accordance 14959 with the plans, details, and specifications, ~~and bills of material~~ 14960 therefor and to pay all lawful claims of subcontractors, material 14961 suppliers, and laborers for labor performed or material furnished 14962 in carrying forward, performing, or completing the contract; and 14963 agree and assent that this undertaking is for the benefit of any 14964 subcontractor, material supplier, or laborer having a just claim, 14965 as well as for the state, political subdivision, district, 14966 institution, or agency. 14967

(C)(1) A bid guaranty filed pursuant to division (A)(2) of 14968 this section shall be conditioned to provide that if the bid is 14969 accepted, the bidder, after the awarding or the recommendation for 14970 the award of the contract, whichever the contracting authority 14971 designates, will enter into a proper contract in accordance with 14972 the bid, plans, details, specifications, and bills of material. If 14973 for any reason, other than as authorized by section 9.31 of the 14974 Revised Code or division (G) of this section, the bidder fails to 14975 enter into the contract, and the contracting authority awards the 14976 contract to the next lowest bidder, the bidder is liable to the 14977 state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency for 14978 the difference between the bidder's bid and that of the next 14979 lowest bidder, or for a penal sum not to exceed ten per cent of 14980

the amount of the bid, whichever is less. If the state, political 14981 subdivision, district, institution, or agency does not award the 14982
contract to the next lowest bidder but resubmits the project for 14983 bidding, the bidder failing to enter into the contract, except as 14984 provided in division (G) of this section, is liable to the state, 14985 political subdivision, district, institution, or agency for a 14986 penal sum not to exceed ten per cent of the amount of the bid or 14987 the costs in connection with the resubmission, of printing new 14988 contract documents, required advertising, and printing and mailing 14989 notices to prospective bidders, whichever is less. 14990

If the bidder enters into the contract, the bidder, at the 14991 time the contract is entered to, shall file a bond for the amount 14992 of the contract to indemnify the state, political subdivision, 14993 district, institution, or agency against all damage suffered by 14994 failure to perform the contract according to its provisions and in 14995 accordance with the plans, details, and specifications, ~~and bills~~ 14996 ~~of material therefor~~ and to pay all lawful claims of 14997 subcontractors, material suppliers, and laborers for labor 14998 performed or material furnished in carrying forward, performing, 14999 or completing the contract; and agree and assent that this 15000 undertaking is for the benefit of any subcontractor, material 15001 supplier, or laborer having a just claim, as well as for the 15002 state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency. 15003

(2) A construction manager who enters into a contract 15004 pursuant to sections 9.33 to 9.333 of the Revised Code, if 15005 required by the public ~~owner~~ authority at the time the 15006 construction manager enters into the contract, shall file a letter 15007 of credit pursuant to Chapter 1305. of the Revised Code, bond, 15008

certified check, or cashier's check, for the value of the 15009 construction management contract to indemnify the state, political 15010 subdivision, district, institution, or agency against all damage 15011 suffered by the construction manager's failure to perform the 15012 contract according to its provisions, and shall agree and assent 15013 that this undertaking is for the benefit of the state, political 15014 subdivision, district, institution, or agency. A letter of credit 15015 provided by the construction manager is revocable only at the 15016 option of the beneficiary state, political subdivision, district, 15017

(D) Where the state, political subdivision, district, 15019 institution, or agency accepts a bid but the bidder fails or 15020 refuses to enter into a proper contract in accordance with the 15021 bid, plans, details, and specifications, ~~and bills of material~~ 15022 within ten days after the awarding of the contract, the bidder and 15023 the surety on any bond, except as provided in division (G) of this 15024 section, are liable for the amount of the difference between the 15025 bidder's bid and that of the next lowest bidder, but not in excess 15026 of the liability specified in division (B)(1) or (C) of this 15027 section. Where the state, political subdivision, district, 15028 institution, or agency then awards the bid to such next lowest 15029 bidder and such next lowest bidder also fails or refuses to enter 15030 into a proper contract in accordance with the bid, plans, details, 15031 and specifications, ~~and bills of material~~ within ten days after 15032 the awarding of the contract, the liability of such next lowest 15033 bidder, except as provided in division (G) of this section, is the 15034 amount of the difference between the bids of such next lowest 15035 bidder and the third lowest bidder, but not in excess of the 15036 liability specified in division (B)(1) or (C) of this section. 15037 Liability on account of an award to any lowest bidder beyond the 15038 third lowest bidder shall be determined in like manner. 15039

(E) Notwithstanding division (C) of this section, where the 15040

resubmits the project for bidding, each bidder whose bid was 15042 accepted but who failed or refused to enter into a proper 15043 contract, except as provided in division (G) of this section, is 15044 liable for an equal share of a penal sum in connection with the 15045 resubmission, of printing new contract documents, required 15046 advertising, and printing and mailing notices to prospective 15047 bidders, but no bidder's liability shall exceed the amount of the 15048 bidder's bid guaranty. 15049

(F) All bid guaranties filed pursuant to this section shall 15050 be payable to the state, political subdivision, district, 15051 institution, or agency, be for the benefit of the state, political 15052 subdivision, district, institution, or agency or any person having 15053 a right of action thereon, and be deposited with, and held by, the 15054 board, officer, or agent contracting on behalf of the state, 15055 political subdivision, district, institution, or agency. All bonds 15056 filed pursuant to this section shall be issued by a surety company 15057 authorized to do business in this state as surety approved by the 15058 board, officer, or agent awarding the contract on behalf of the 15059
state, political subdivision, district, institution, or agency. 15060

(G) A bidder for a contract with the state or any political 15061 subdivision, district, institution, or other agency thereof, 15062 excluding therefrom the Ohio department of transportation, for a 15063 public improvement costing less than one-half million dollars may 15064 withdraw the bid from consideration if the bidder's bid for some 15065 other contract with the state or any political subdivision, 15066 district, institution, or other agency thereof, excluding 15067 therefrom the department of transportation, for the public 15068 improvement costing less than one-half million dollars has already 15069 been accepted, if the bidder certifies in good faith that the 15070 total amount of all the bidder's current contracts is less than 15071 one-half million dollars, and if the surety certifies in good 15072 faith that the bidder is unable to perform the subsequent contract 15073 because to do so would exceed the bidder's bonding capacity. If a 15074 bid is withdrawn under authority of this division, the contracting 15075 authority may award the contract to the next lowest bidder or 15076 reject all bids and resubmit the project for bidding, and neither 15077 the bidder nor the surety on the bidder's bond are liable for the 15078 difference between the bidder's bid and that of the next lowest 15079 bidder, for a penal sum, or for the costs of printing new contract 15080 documents, required advertising, and printing and mailing notices 15081 to prospective bidders. 15082

(H) Bid guaranties filed pursuant to division (A) of this 15083 section shall be returned to all unsuccessful bidders immediately 15084 after the contract is executed. The bid guaranty filed pursuant to 15085 division (A)(2) of this section shall be returned to the 15086 successful bidder upon filing of the bond required in division (C) 15087
of this section. 15088

(I) For the purposes of this section, "next lowest bidder" 15089 means, in the case of a political subdivision that has adopted the 15090 model Ohio and United States preference requirements promulgated 15091 pursuant to division (E) of section 125.11 of the Revised Code, 15092 the next lowest bidder that qualifies under those preference 15093 requirements. 15094

(J) For the purposes of this section and sections 153.56, 15095
153.57, and 153.571 of the Revised Code, "public improvement," 15096
"subcontractor," "material supplier," "laborer," and "materials" 15097 have the same meanings as in section 1311.25 of the Revised Code. 15098

Sec. 153.55. (A) As used in this section, "public improvement 15099 project" means any construction, reconstruction, improvement, 15100 enlargement, alteration, demolition, engineering, or repair of a 15101 building, highway, drainage system, water system, road, street, 15102 alley, sewer, ditch, sewage disposal plant, water works, bridge, 15103 culvert, or any other structure or work of any nature by or for a 15104 public authority. 15105

(B) For purposes of calculating the amount of a public 15106 improvement project to determine whether it is subject to sections 15107 153.01, 153.50, 153.51, and 153.52 of the Revised Code, no 15108 officer, board, or other authority of the state or any institution 15109 supported by the state, county, township, municipal corporation, 15110 or school district, or of any public institution belonging thereto 15111 shall subdivide a public improvement project into component parts 15112 or separate projects in order to avoid the thresholds of those 15113 sections, unless the component parts or separate projects thus 15114 created are conceptually separate and unrelated to each other, or 15115 encompass independent or unrelated needs. 15116

(C) In calculating the project amount for purposes of the 15117 threshold in section 153.01 of the Revised Code, the following 15118 expenses shall be included as costs of the project: 15119

(1) Professional fees and expenses for services associated 15120 with the preparation of plans; 15121

(2) Permit costs, testing costs, and other fees associated 15122 with the work; 15123

(3) Project construction costs; 15124

(4) A contingency reserve fund. 15125

Sec. 153.56. (A) Any person to whom any money is due for 15126 labor or work performed or materials furnished in a public 15127 improvement as provided in section 153.54 of the Revised Code, at 15128 any time after performing the labor or work or furnishing the 15129 materials, but not later than ninety days after the completion of 15130 the contract by the principal contractor or design-build firm and 15131 the acceptance of the public improvement for which the bond was 15132 provided by the duly authorized board or officer, shall furnish 15133 the sureties on the bond, a statement of the amount due to the person. 15134 15135

(B) A suit shall not be brought against sureties on the bond 15136 until after sixty days after the furnishing of the statement 15137 described in division (A) of this section. If the indebtedness is 15138 not paid in full at the expiration of that sixty days, and if the 15139 the tobacco master settlement agreement, and the consent decree to 17263 owners of the obligations, and the providers of any credit 17285 enhancement facilities, including, without limiting the generality 17286 of the foregoing, a provision that those remedies may be limited 17287 to injunctive relief in circumstances where there has been no 17288 prior determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that the 17289 state has not enforced Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, the 17290 six billion dollars, exclusive of obligations issued under 17339 division (M)(1) of this section to refund, renew, or advance 17340 refund other obligations issued or incurred. At least seventy-five 17341 per cent of the aggregate net proceeds of the obligations issued 17342 under the authority of this section, exclusive of obligations 17343 issued to refund, renew, or advance refund other obligations, 17344 shall be paid to the state for deposit into the school building 17345 program assistance fund created in section 3318.25 of the Revised 17346

Code. 17347

(D) Each issue of obligations shall be authorized by 17348 resolution or order of the issuing authority. The bond proceedings 17349 shall provide for or authorize the manner for determining the 17350 principal amount or maximum principal amount of obligations of an 17351 issue, the principal maturity or maturities, the interest rate or 17352 rates, the date of and the dates of payment of interest on the 17353 obligations, their denominations, and the place or places of 17354 payment of debt service which may be within or outside the state. 17355 Unless otherwise provided by law, the latest principal maturity 17356 may not be later than the earlier of the thirty-first day of 17357 December of the fiftieth calendar year after the year of issuance 17358 of the particular obligations or of the fiftieth calendar year 17359 after the year in which the original obligation to pay was issued 17360 or entered into. Sections 9.96, 9.98, 9.981, 9.982, and 9.983 of 17361 the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 17362

The purpose of the obligations may be stated in the bond 17363 proceedings in general terms, such as, as applicable, "paying 17364 costs of capital facilities for a system of common schools" and 17365 "paying costs of facilities for state-supported and state-assisted 17366 institutions of higher education." Unless otherwise provided in 17367 the bond proceedings or in division (C) of this section, the net 17368 proceeds from the issuance of the obligations shall be paid to the 17369 state for deposit into the applicable improvement fund. In 17370 addition to the investments authorized in Chapter 135. of the 17371 Revised Code, the net proceeds held in an improvement fund may be 17372 invested by the treasurer of state in guaranteed investment 17373 contracts with providers rated at the time of any investment in 17374 the three highest rating categories by two nationally recognized 17375 rating agencies, all subject to the terms and conditions set forth 17376 in those agreements or the bond proceedings. Notwithstanding 17377 ~~division (B)(4) of section 3318.38 anything to the contrary in~~ 17378 Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, net proceeds of obligations 17379 deposited into the school building program assistance fund created 17380 in section 3318.25 of the Revised Code may be used to pay basic 17381 project costs under ~~section 3318.38 of the Revised Code that~~ 17382 chapter at the times determined by the Ohio school facilities 17383 commission without regard to whether those expenditures are in 17384 proportion to the state's and the school district's respective 17385 shares of that basic project cost; provided that this shall not 17386 result in any change in the state or school district shares of the 17387 basic project costs ~~provided under Chapter 3318. of the Revised~~ 17388 ~~Code as determined under that chapter.~~ As used in the preceding 17389 sentence, "Ohio school facilities commission" and "basic project 17390 costs" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised 17391

Code. 17392

(E) The issuing authority may, without need for any other 17393 approval, appoint or provide for the appointment of paying agents, 17394 bond registrars, securities depositories, credit enhancement 17395 providers or counterparties, clearing corporations, and transfer 17396 agents, and retain or contract for the services of underwriters, 17397 investment bankers, financial advisers, accounting experts, 17398 marketing, remarketing, indexing, and administrative agents, other 17399 consultants, and independent contractors, including printing 17400 services, as are necessary in the judgment of the issuing 17401 authority to carry out the issuing authority's functions under 17402 this section and section 183.52 of the Revised Code. The attorney 17403 general as counsel to the issuing authority shall represent the 17404 authority in the execution of its powers and duties, and shall 17405 institute and prosecute all actions on its behalf. The issuing 17406 authority, in consultation with the attorney general, shall select 17407 counsel, and the attorney general shall appoint the counsel 17408 selected, for the purposes of carrying out the functions under 17409 this section and related sections of the Revised Code. Financing 17410 costs are payable, as may be provided in the bond proceedings, 17411 from the proceeds of the obligations, from special funds, or from 17412 other moneys available for the purpose, including as to future 17413 financing costs, from the pledged receipts. 17414

(F) The issuing authority may irrevocably pledge and assign 17415 all, or such portion as the issuing authority determines, of the 17416 pledged receipts to the payment of the debt service charges on 17417 obligations issued under this section, and for the establishment 17418 and maintenance of any reserves, as provided in the bond 17419 proceedings, and make other provisions in the bond proceedings 17420 with respect to pledged receipts as authorized by this section, 17421 which provisions are controlling notwithstanding any other 17422 provisions of law pertaining to them. Any and all pledged receipts 17423 received by the issuing authority and required by the bond 17424 proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, 17425 transferred, or credited to the bond service fund, and all other 17426 money transferred or allocated to or received for the purposes of 17427 that fund, shall be deposited and credited to the bond service 17428 fund created in the bond proceedings for the obligations, subject 17429 to any applicable provisions of those bond proceedings, but 17430 without necessity for any act of appropriation. Those pledged 17431 receipts shall immediately be subject to the lien of that pledge 17432 without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and shall 17433 not be subject to other court judgments. The lien of the pledge of 17434 those pledged receipts shall be valid and binding against all 17435 parties having claims of any kind against the issuing authority, 17436 irrespective of whether those parties have notice thereof. The 17437 pledge shall create a perfected security interest for all purposes 17438 of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code and a perfected lien for 17439 purposes of any other interest, all without the necessity for 17440 separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or recording of 17441 the applicable bond proceedings by which that pledge is created or 17442 any certificate, statement, or other document with respect 17443 thereto. The pledge of the pledged receipts shall be effective and 17444 the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to the purposes for 17445 which pledged. 17446

(G) Obligations may be further secured, as determined by the 17447 issuing authority, by an indenture or a trust agreement between 17448 the issuing authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any 17449 trust company or bank having a place of business within the state. 17450 Any indenture or trust agreement may contain the resolution or 17451 order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any provisions 17452 that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and other 17453 provisions that are customary or appropriate in an agreement of 17454 that type, including, but not limited to: 17455

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, indenture, trust agreement, 17456 or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 17457 the issuing authority has fully paid or provided for the payment 17458 of debt service on the obligations secured by it; 17459

(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be 17460 made by the bond proceedings, enforcement of those payments or 17461 agreements by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in 17462 equity, action at law, or any combination of them; 17463

(3) The rights and remedies of the holders or owners of 17464 obligations and of the trustee and provisions for protecting and 17465 enforcing them, including limitations on rights of individual 17466 holders and owners. 17467

(H) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions 17468 customary or appropriate to the financing or to the obligations or 17469 to particular obligations including, but not limited to, 17470 provisions for: 17471

(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the 17472 option of the issuing authority or of the holder or upon the 17473 occurrence of certain conditions, and at a particular price or 17474 prices and under particular terms and conditions; 17475

(2) The form of and other terms of the obligations; 17476

(3) The establishment, deposit, investment, and application 17477 of special funds, and the safeguarding of moneys on hand or on 17478 deposit, in lieu of the applicability of provisions of Chapter 17479 131. or 135. of the Revised Code, but subject to any special 17480 provisions of this section with respect to the application of 17481 particular funds or moneys. Any financial institution that acts as 17482 a depository of any moneys in special funds or other funds under 17483 the bond proceedings may furnish indemnifying bonds or pledge 17484 securities as required by the issuing authority. 17485

(4) Any or every provision of the bond proceedings being 17486 binding upon the issuing authority and upon such governmental 17487 agency or entity, officer, board, authority, agency, department, 17488 institution, district, or other person or body as may from time to 17489 time be authorized to take actions as may be necessary to perform 17490 all or any part of the duty required by the provision; 17491

(5) The maintenance of each pledge or instrument comprising 17492 part of the bond proceedings until the issuing authority has fully 17493 paid or provided for the payment of the debt service on the 17494 obligations or met other stated conditions; 17495

(6) In the event of default in any payments required to be 17496 made by the bond proceedings, or by any other agreement of the 17497 issuing authority made as part of a contract under which the 17498 obligations were issued or secured, including a credit enhancement 17499 facility, the enforcement of those payments by mandamus, a suit in 17500 equity, an action at law, or any combination of those remedial 17501 actions; 17502

(7) The rights and remedies of the holders or owners of 17503 obligations or of book-entry interests in them, and of third 17504 parties under any credit enhancement facility, and provisions for 17505 protecting and enforcing those rights and remedies, including 17506 limitations on rights of individual holders or owners; 17507

(8) The replacement of mutilated, destroyed, lost, or stolen 17508 obligations; 17509

(9) The funding, refunding, or advance refunding, or other 17510 provision for payment, of obligations that will then no longer be 17511 outstanding for purposes of this section or of the applicable bond 17512 proceedings; 17513

(10) Amendment of the bond proceedings; 17514

(11) Any other or additional agreements with the owners of 17515 obligations, and such other provisions as the issuing authority 17516 determines, including limitations, conditions, or qualifications, 17517 relating to any of the foregoing or the activities of the issuing 17518 authority in connection therewith. 17519

The bond proceedings shall make provision for the payment of 17520 the expenses of the enforcement activity of the attorney general 17521 referred to in division (B) of this section from the amounts from 17522 the tobacco master settlement agreement assigned and sold to the 17523 issuing authority under that division or from the proceeds of 17524 obligations, or a combination thereof, which may include provision 17525 for both annual payments and a special fund providing reserve 17526 amounts for the payment of those expenses. 17527

The issuing authority shall not, and shall covenant in the 17528 bond proceedings that it shall not, be authorized to and shall not 17529 file a voluntary petition under the United States Bankruptcy Code, 17530 11 U.S.C. 101 et seq., as amended, or voluntarily commence any 17531 similar bankruptcy proceeding under state law including, without 17532 limitation, consenting to the appointment of a receiver or trustee 17533 or making a general or specific assignment for the benefit of 17534 creditors, and neither any public officer or any organization, 17535 entity, or other person shall authorize the issuing authority to 17536 be or become a debtor under the United States Bankruptcy Code or 17537 take any of those actions under the United States Bankruptcy Code 17538 or state law. The state hereby covenants, and the issuing 17539 authority shall covenant, with the holders or owners of the 17540 obligations, that the state shall not permit the issuing authority 17541 to file a voluntary petition under the United States Bankruptcy 17542 Code or take any of those actions under the United States 17543 Bankruptcy Code or state law during the period obligations are 17544 outstanding and for any additional period for which the issuing 17545 authority covenants in the bond proceedings, which additional 17546 period may, but need not, be a period of three hundred sixty-seven 17547 days or more. 17548

(I) The obligations requiring execution by or for the issuing 17549 authority shall be signed as provided in the bond proceedings, and 17550 may bear the official seal of the issuing authority or a facsimile 17551 thereof. Any obligation may be signed by the individual who, on 17552 the date of execution, is the authorized signer even though, on 17553 the date of the obligations, that individual is not an authorized 17554 signer. In case the individual whose signature or facsimile 17555 signature appears on any obligation ceases to be an authorized 17556 signer before delivery of the obligation, that signature or 17557 facsimile is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes as 17558 if that individual had remained the authorized signer until 17559 delivery. 17560

(J) Obligations are investment securities under Chapter 1308. 17561 of the Revised Code. Obligations may be issued in bearer or in 17562 registered form, registrable as to principal alone or as to both 17563 principal and interest, or both, or in certificated or 17564 uncertificated form, as the issuing authority determines. 17565 Provision may be made for the exchange, conversion, or transfer of 17566 obligations and for reasonable charges for registration, exchange, 17567 conversion, and transfer. Pending preparation of final 17568 obligations, the issuing authority may provide for the issuance of 17569 interim instruments to be exchanged for the final obligations. 17570

(K) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 17571 sale, in such manner, and at such price at, above, or below par, 17572 all as determined by and provided by the issuing authority in the 17573 bond proceedings. 17574

(L) Except to the extent that rights are restricted by the 17575 bond proceedings, any owner of obligations or provider of or 17576 counterparty to a credit enhancement facility may by any suitable 17577 form of legal proceedings protect and enforce any rights relating 17578 to obligations or that facility under the laws of this state or 17579 granted by the bond proceedings. Those rights include the right to 17580 compel the performance of all applicable duties of the issuing 17581 authority and the state. Each duty of the issuing authority and 17582 that issuing authority's officers, staff, and employees, and of 17583 each state entity or agency, or using district or using 17584 institution, and its officers, members, staff, or employees, 17585 undertaken pursuant to the bond proceedings, is hereby established 17586 as a duty of the entity or individual having authority to perform 17587 that duty, specifically enjoined by law and resulting from an 17588 office, trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of 17589 the Revised Code. The individuals who are from time to time 17590 members of the issuing authority, or their designees acting 17591 pursuant to section 183.52 of the Revised Code, or the issuing 17592 authority's officers, staff, agents, or employees, when acting 17593 within the scope of their employment or agency, shall not be 17594 liable in their personal capacities on any obligations or 17595 otherwise under the bond proceedings, or for otherwise exercising 17596 or carrying out any purposes or powers of the issuing authority. 17597

(M)(1) Subject to any applicable limitations in division (C) 17598 of this section, the issuing authority may also authorize and 17599 provide for the issuance of: 17600

(a) Obligations in the form of bond anticipation notes, and 17601 may authorize and provide for the renewal of those notes from time 17602 to time by the issuance of new notes. The holders of notes or 17603 appertaining interest coupons have the right to have debt service 17604 on those notes paid solely from the moneys and special funds, and 17605 all or any portion of the pledged receipts, that are or may be 17606 pledged to that payment, including the proceeds of bonds or 17607 renewal notes or both, as the issuing authority provides in the 17608 bond proceedings authorizing the notes. Notes may be additionally 17609 secured by covenants of the issuing authority to the effect that 17610 the issuing authority will do all things necessary for the 17611 issuance of bonds or renewal notes in such principal amount and 17612 upon such terms as may be necessary to provide moneys to pay when 17613 due the debt service on the notes, and apply their proceeds to the 17614 extent necessary, to make full and timely payment of debt service 17615 on the notes as provided in the applicable bond proceedings. In 17616 the bond proceedings authorizing the issuance of bond anticipation 17617 notes the issuing authority shall set forth for the bonds 17618 anticipated an estimated schedule of annual principal payments the 17619 latest of which shall be no later than provided in division (D) of 17620 this section. While the notes are outstanding there shall be 17621 deposited, as shall be provided in the bond proceedings for those 17622 notes, from the sources authorized for payment of debt service on 17623 the bonds, amounts sufficient to pay the principal of the bonds 17624 anticipated as set forth in that estimated schedule during the 17625 time the notes are outstanding, which amounts shall be used solely 17626 to pay the principal of those notes or of the bonds anticipated. 17627

(b) Obligations for the refunding, including funding and 17628 retirement, and advance refunding, with or without payment or 17629 redemption prior to maturity, of any obligations previously issued 17630 under this section and any bonds or notes previously issued for 17631 the purpose of paying costs of capital facilities for: (i) 17632 state-supported or state-assisted institutions of higher education 17633 as authorized by sections 151.01 and 151.04 of the Revised Code, 17634 pursuant to Sections 2i and 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution, 17635 and (ii) housing branches and agencies of state government limited 17636 to facilities for a system of common schools throughout the state 17637
as authorized by sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the Revised Code, 17638
pursuant to Sections 2i and 2n of Article VIII, Ohio Constitution. 17639 Refunding obligations may be issued in amounts sufficient to pay 17640 or to provide for repayment of the principal amount, including 17641 principal amounts maturing prior to the redemption of the 17642 remaining prior obligations or bonds or notes, any redemption 17643 premium, and interest accrued or to accrue to the maturity or 17644 redemption date or dates, payable on the prior obligations or 17645 bonds or notes, and related financing costs and any expenses 17646 incurred or to be incurred in connection with that issuance and 17647 refunding. Subject to the applicable bond proceedings, the portion 17648 of the proceeds of the sale of refunding obligations issued under 17649 division (M)(1)(b) of this section to be applied to debt service 17650 on the prior obligations or bonds or notes shall be credited to an 17651 appropriate separate account in the bond service fund and held in 17652 trust for the purpose by the issuing authority or by a corporate 17653 trustee, and may be invested as provided in the bond proceedings. 17654 Obligations authorized under this division shall be considered to 17655 be issued for those purposes for which the prior obligations or 17656 bonds or notes were issued. 17657

(2) The principal amount of refunding, advance refunding, or 17658 renewal obligations issued pursuant to division (M) of this 17659 section shall be in addition to the amount authorized in division 17660
(C) of this section. 17661

(N) Obligations are lawful investments for banks, savings and 17662 loan associations, credit union share guaranty corporations, trust 17663 companies, trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including 17664 domestic for life and domestic not for life, trustees or other 17665 officers having charge of sinking and bond retirement or other 17666 special funds of the state and political subdivisions and taxing 17667 districts of this state, notwithstanding any other provisions of 17668 the Revised Code or rules adopted pursuant to those provisions by 17669 any state agency with respect to investments by them, and are also 17670 acceptable as security for the repayment of the deposit of public 17671 moneys. The exemptions from taxation in Ohio as provided for in 17672 particular sections of the Ohio Constitution and section 5709.76 17673 of the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 17674

(O)(1) Unless otherwise provided or provided for in any 17675 applicable bond proceedings, moneys to the credit of or in a 17676 special fund shall be disbursed on the order of the issuing 17677 authority. No such order is required for the payment, from the 17678 bond service fund or other special fund, when due of debt service 17679 or required payments under credit enhancement facilities. 17680

(2) Payments received by the issuing authority under interest 17681 rate hedges entered into as credit enhancement facilities under 17682 this section shall be deposited as provided in the applicable bond 17683
proceedings. 17684

(P) The obligations shall not be general obligations of the 17685 state and the full faith and credit, revenue, and taxing power of 17686 the state shall not be pledged to the payment of debt service on 17687 them or to any guarantee of the payment of that debt service. The 17688 holders or owners of the obligations shall have no right to have 17689 any moneys obligated or pledged for the payment of debt service 17690 except as provided in this section and in the applicable bond 17691 proceedings. The rights of the holders and owners to payment of 17692 debt service are limited to all or that portion of the pledged 17693 receipts, and those special funds, pledged to the payment of debt 17694 service pursuant to the bond proceedings in accordance with this 17695 section, and each obligation shall bear on its face a statement to 17696 that effect. 17697

(Q) Each bond service fund is a trust fund and is hereby 17698 pledged to the payment of debt service on the applicable 17699 obligations. Payment of that debt service shall be made or 17700 provided for by the issuing authority in accordance with the bond 17701 proceedings without necessity for any act of appropriation. The 17702 bond proceedings may provide for the establishment of separate 17703 accounts in the bond service fund and for the application of those 17704 accounts only to debt service on specific obligations, and for 17705 other accounts in the bond service fund within the general 17706 purposes of that fund. 17707

(R) Subject to the bond proceedings pertaining to any 17708 obligations then outstanding in accordance with their terms, the 17709 issuing authority may in the bond proceedings pledge all, or such 17710 portion as the issuing authority determines, of the moneys in the 17711 bond service fund to the payment of debt service on particular 17712 obligations, and for the establishment and maintenance of any 17713 reserves for payment of particular debt service. 17714

(S)(1) Unless otherwise provided in any applicable bond 17715 proceedings, moneys to the credit of special funds may be invested 17716 by or on behalf of the issuing authority only in one or more of 17717
the following: 17718

(a) Notes, bonds, or other direct obligations of the United 17719 States or of any agency or instrumentality of the United States, 17720 or in no-front-end-load money market mutual funds consisting 17721 exclusively of those obligations, or in repurchase agreements, 17722 including those issued by any fiduciary, secured by those 17723 obligations, or in collective investment funds consisting 17724 exclusively of those obligations; 17725

(b) Obligations of this state or any political subdivision of 17726
this state; 17727

(c) Certificates of deposit of any national bank located in 17728 this state and any bank, as defined in section 1101.01 of the 17729 Revised Code, subject to inspection by the superintendent of 17730 financial institutions; 17731

(d) The treasurer of state's pooled investment program under 17732
section 135.45 of the Revised Code; 17733

(e) Other investment agreements or repurchase agreements that 17734 are consistent with the ratings on the obligations. 17735

(2) The income from investments referred to in division 17736
(S)(1) of this section shall be credited to special funds or 17737 otherwise as the issuing authority determines in the bond 17738 proceedings. Those investments may be sold or exchanged at times 17739 as the issuing authority determines, provides for, or authorizes. 17740

(T) The treasurer of state shall have responsibility for 17741 keeping records, making reports, and making payments, relating to 17742 any arbitrage rebate requirements under the applicable bond 17743
proceedings. 17744

(U) The issuing authority shall make quarterly reports to the 17745 general assembly of the amounts in, and activities of, each 17746 improvement fund, including amounts and activities on the subfund 17747 level. Each report shall include a detailed description and 17748 analysis of the amount of proceeds remaining in each fund from the 17749 sale of obligations pursuant to this section, and any other 17750 deposits, credits, interest earnings, disbursements, expenses, 17751 transfers, or activities of each fund. 17752

(V) The costs of the annual audit of the authority conducted 17753 pursuant to section 117.112 of the Revised Code are payable, as 17754 may be provided in the bond proceedings, from the proceeds of the 17755 obligations, from special funds, or from other moneys available 17756 for the purpose, including as to future financing costs, from the 17757 pledged receipts. 17758

Sec. 185.01. As used in this chapter: 17759

(A) "Advanced practice nurse" has the same meaning as in 17760

Sec. 301.02. Previous to the presentation of a petition to 17908 the general assembly praying that a new county be erected, or for 17909 the location or relocation of a county seat, notice of the 17910 intention to present such petition shall be given, at least thirty 17911 days before the ensuing session of the general assembly, by 17912 advertisement in a newspaper published of general circulation in 17913 each county from which such new county is intended to be taken. If 17914 county, notice shall be given by advertisement affixed to the door 17916 of the house where courts are held for such county, for such 17917 period of thirty days. The notice shall set forth the boundary 17918 lines of the new county, or the place where it is proposed to 17919 locate such county seat. 17920

Sec. 301.15. Within sixty days after their appointment, the 17921 commissioners provided for by section 301.14 of the Revised Code, 17922 or any two of them, shall assemble at some convenient place in the 17923 new county. Twenty days' notice of the time, place, and purpose of 17924 such meeting shall be given by publication in a newspaper 17925 ~~published in and circulated~~ of general circulation in ~~such the~~ 17926 county, or by being posted in three of the most public places in 17927 such county. When assembled, after having taken the oath of office 17928 prescribed by sections 3.22 and 3.23 of the Revised Code, such 17929 commissioners shall proceed to examine and select the most proper 17930 place as a seat of justice, as near the center of the county as 17931 possible, having regard to the situation, extent of population, 17932 quality of land, and the convenience and interest of the 17933 inhabitants. 17934

Sec. 301.28. (A) As used in this section: 17935

(1) "Financial transaction device" includes a credit card, 17936 debit card, charge card, or prepaid or stored value card, or 17937 automated clearinghouse network credit, debit, or e-check entry 17938 that includes, but is not limited to, accounts receivable and 17939 internet-initiated, point of purchase, and telephone-initiated 17940 applications or any other device or method for making an 17941 electronic payment or transfer of funds. 17942

(2) "County expenses" includes fees, costs, taxes, 17943 assessments, fines, penalties, payments, or any other expense a 17944 person owes to a county office under the authority of a county 17945 official other than dog registration and kennel fees required to 17946 be paid under Chapter 955. of the Revised Code. 17947

(3) "County official" includes the county auditor, county 17948 treasurer, county engineer, county recorder, county prosecuting 17949 attorney, county sheriff, county coroner, county park district and 17950 board of county commissioners, the clerk of the probate court, the 17951 clerk of the juvenile court, the clerks of court for all divisions 17952 of the courts of common pleas, and the clerk of the court of 17953 common pleas, the clerk of a county-operated municipal court, and 17954 the clerk of a county court. 17955

The term "county expenses" includes county expenses owed to 17956 the board of health of the general health district or a combined 17957 health district in the county. If the board of county 17958 commissioners authorizes county expenses to be paid by financial 17959 transaction devices under this section, then the board of health 17960 and the general health district and the combined health district 17961 may accept payments by financial transaction devices under this 17962 section as if the board were a "county official" and the district 17963 were a county office. However, in the case of a general health 17964 district formed by unification of general health districts under 17965 section 3709.10 of the Revised Code, this entitlement applies only 17966 if all the boards of county commissioners of all counties in the 17967 district have authorized payments to be accepted by financial 17968 transaction devices. 17969

(B) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code and 17970 except as provided in division (D) of this section, a board of 17971 county commissioners may adopt a resolution authorizing the 17972 acceptance of payments by financial transaction devices for county 17973 expenses. The resolution shall include the following: 17974

(1) A specification of those county officials who, and of the 17975 county offices under those county officials that, are authorized 17976 to accept payments by financial transaction devices; 17977

(2) A list of county expenses that may be paid for through 17978 the use of a financial transaction device; 17979

(3) Specific identification of financial transaction devices 17980 that the board authorizes as acceptable means of payment for 17981 county expenses. Uniform acceptance of financial transaction 17982 devices among different types of county expenses is not required. 17983

(4) The amount, if any, authorized as a surcharge or 17984 convenience fee under division (E) of this section for persons 17985 using a financial transaction device. Uniform application of 17986 surcharges or convenience fees among different types of county 17987 expenses is not required. 17988

(5) A specific provision as provided in division (G) of this 17989 section requiring the payment of a penalty if a payment made by 17990 means of a financial transaction device is returned or dishonored 17991 for any reason. 17992

The board's resolution shall also designate the county 17993 treasurer as an administrative agent to solicit proposals, within 17994 guidelines established by the board in the resolution and in 17995 compliance with the procedures provided in division (C) of this 17996 section, from financial institutions, issuers of financial 17997 transaction devices, and processors of financial transaction 17998 devices, to make recommendations about those proposals to the 17999 board, and to assist county offices in implementing the county's 18000 financial transaction devices program. The county treasurer may 18001 decline this responsibility within thirty days after receiving a 18002 copy of the board's resolution by notifying the board in writing 18003 within that period. If the treasurer so notifies the board, the 18004 board shall perform the duties of the administrative agent. 18005

If the county treasurer is the administrative agent and fails 18006 to administer the county financial transaction devices program in 18007 accordance with the guidelines in the board's resolution, the 18008 board shall notify the treasurer in writing of the board's 18009 findings, explain the failures, and give the treasurer six months 18010 to correct the failures. If the treasurer fails to make the 18011 appropriate corrections within that six-month period, the board 18012 may pass a resolution declaring the board to be the administrative 18013 agent. The board may later rescind that resolution at its 18014 discretion. 18015

(C) The county shall follow the procedures provided in this 18016 division whenever it plans to contract with financial 18017 institutions, issuers of financial transaction devices, or 18018 processors of financial transaction devices for the purposes of 18019 this section. The administrative agent shall request proposals 18020 from at least three financial institutions, issuers of financial 18021 transaction devices, or processors of financial transaction 18022 devices, as appropriate in accordance with the resolution adopted 18023 under division (B) of this section. Prior to sending any financial 18024 institution, issuer, or processor a copy of any such request, the 18025 county shall advertise its intent to request proposals in a 18026 newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two 18027 consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 18028 Code. The notice shall state that the county intends to request 18029 proposals; specify the purpose of the request; indicate the date, 18030 which shall be at least ten days after the second publication, on 18031 which the request for proposals will be mailed to financial 18032 institutions, issuers, or processors; and require that any 18033 financial institution, issuer, or processor, whichever is 18034 appropriate, interested in receiving the request for proposals 18035 submit written notice of this interest to the county not later 18036 than noon of the day on which the request for proposals will be 18037 mailed. 18038

Upon receiving the proposals, the administrative agent shall 18039 review them and make a recommendation to the board of county 18040 commissioners on which proposals to accept. The board of county 18041 commissioners shall consider the agent's recommendation and review 18042 all proposals submitted, and then may choose to contract with any 18043 or all of the entities submitting proposals, as appropriate. The 18044 board shall provide any financial institution, issuer, or 18045 processor that submitted a proposal, but with which the board does 18046 not enter into a contract, notice that its proposal is rejected. 18047
The notice shall state the reasons for the rejection, indicate 18048 whose proposals were accepted, and provide a copy of the terms and 18049 conditions of the successful bids. 18050

(D) A board of county commissioners adopting a resolution 18051 under this section shall send a copy of the resolution to each 18052 county official in the county who is authorized by the resolution 18053 to accept payments by financial transaction devices. After 18054 receiving the resolution and before accepting payments by 18055 financial transaction devices, a county official shall provide 18056 written notification to the board of county commissioners of the 18057 official's intent to implement the resolution within the 18058 official's office. Each county office subject to the board's 18059 resolution adopted under division (B) of this section may use only 18060 the financial institutions, issuers of financial transaction 18061 devices, and processors of financial transaction devices with 18062 which the board of county commissioners contracts, and each such 18063 office is subject to the terms of those contracts. 18064

If a county office under the authority of a county official 18065 is directly responsible for collecting one or more county expenses 18066 and the county official determines not to accept payments by 18067 financial transaction devices for one or more of those expenses, 18068 the office shall not be required to accept payments by financial 18069 transaction devices, notwithstanding the adoption of a resolution 18070 by the board of county commissioners under this section. 18071

Any office of a clerk of the court of common pleas that 18072 accepts financial transaction devices on or before July 1, 1999, 18073 and any other county office that accepted such devices before 18074 January 1, 1998, may continue to accept such devices without being 18075 subject to any resolution passed by the board of county 18076 commissioners under division (B) of this section, or any other 18077 oversight by the board of the office's financial transaction 18078 devices program. Any such office may use surcharges or convenience 18079 fees in any manner the county official in charge of the office 18080 determines to be appropriate, and, if the county treasurer 18081 consents, may appoint the county treasurer to be the office's 18082 administrative agent for purposes of accepting financial 18083 transaction devices. In order not to be subject to the resolution 18084 of the board of county commissioners adopted under division (B) of 18085 this section, a county office shall notify the board in writing 18086 within thirty days after March 30, 1999, that it accepted 18087 financial transaction devices prior to January 1, 1998, or, in the 18088 case of the office of a clerk of the court of common pleas, the 18089 clerk has accepted or will accept such devices on or before July 18090

1, 1999. Each such notification shall explain how processing costs 18091 associated with financial transaction devices are being paid and 18092 shall indicate whether surcharge or convenience fees are being 18093 passed on to consumers. 18094

(E) A board of county commissioners may establish a surcharge 18095 or convenience fee that may be imposed upon a person making 18096 payment by a financial transaction device. The surcharge or 18097 convenience fee shall not be imposed unless authorized or 18098 otherwise permitted by the rules prescribed by an agreement 18099 governing the use and acceptance of the financial transaction 18100 device. 18101

If a surcharge or convenience fee is imposed, every county 18102 office accepting payment by a financial transaction device, 18103 regardless of whether that office is subject to a resolution 18104 adopted by a board of county commissioners, shall clearly post a 18105 notice in that office and shall notify each person making a 18106 payment by such a device about the surcharge or fee. Notice to 18107 each person making a payment shall be provided regardless of the 18108 medium used to make the payment and in a manner appropriate to 18109 that medium. Each notice shall include all of the following: 18110

(1) A statement that there is a surcharge or convenience fee 18111 for using a financial transaction device; 18112

(2) The total amount of the charge or fee expressed in 18113 dollars and cents for each transaction, or the rate of the charge 18114 or fee expressed as a percentage of the total amount of the 18115 transaction, whichever is applicable; 18116

(3) A clear statement that the surcharge or convenience fee 18117 is nonrefundable. 18118

(F) If a person elects to make a payment to the county by a 18119 financial transaction device and a surcharge or convenience fee is 18120 imposed, the payment of the surcharge or fee shall be considered 18121 voluntary and the surcharge or fee is not refundable. 18122

(G) If a person makes payment by financial transaction device 18123 and the payment is returned or dishonored for any reason, the 18124 person is liable to the county for payment of a penalty over and 18125 above the amount of the expense due. The board of county 18126 commissioners shall determine the amount of the penalty, which may 18127 be either a fee not to exceed twenty dollars or payment of the 18128 amount necessary to reimburse the county for banking charges, 18129 legal fees, or other expenses incurred by the county in collecting 18130 the returned or dishonored payment. The remedies and procedures 18131 provided in this section are in addition to any other available 18132 civil or criminal remedies provided by law. 18133

(H) No person making any payment by financial transaction 18134 device to a county office shall be relieved from liability for the 18135 underlying obligation except to the extent that the county 18136 realizes final payment of the underlying obligation in cash or its 18137 equivalent. If final payment is not made by the financial 18138 transaction device issuer or other guarantor of payment in the 18139 transaction, the underlying obligation shall survive and the 18140 county shall retain all remedies for enforcement that would have 18141 applied if the transaction had not occurred. 18142

(I) A county official or employee who accepts a financial 18143 transaction device payment in accordance with this section and any 18144 applicable state or local policies or rules is immune from 18145 personal liability for the final collection of such payments. 18146

Sec. 305.171. The following applies until the department of 18147 administrative services implements for counties the health care 18148 plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. If those plans do 18149 not include or address any benefits listed in division (A) of this 18150 section, the following provisions continue in effect for those 18151 benefits. 18152

(A) The board of county commissioners of any county may 18153 contract for, purchase, or otherwise procure and pay all or any 18154 part of the cost of group insurance policies that may provide 18155 benefits including, but not limited to, hospitalization, surgical 18156 care, major medical care, disability, dental care, eye care, 18157 medical care, hearing aids, or prescription drugs, and that may 18158 provide sickness and accident insurance, group legal services, or 18159 group life insurance, or a combination of any of the foregoing 18160 types of insurance or coverage, for county officers and employees 18161 and their immediate dependents from the funds or budgets from 18162 which the county officers or employees are compensated for 18163 services, issued by an insurance company. 18164

(B) The board of county commissioners also may negotiate and 18165 contract for any plan or plans of health care services with health 18166 insuring corporations holding a certificate of authority under 18167 Chapter 1751. of the Revised Code, provided that each county 18168 officer or employee shall be permitted to do both of the 18169
following: 18170

(1) Exercise an option between a plan offered by an insurance 18171 company and a plan or plans offered by health insuring 18172 corporations under this division, on the condition that the county 18173 officer or employee shall pay any amount by which the cost of the 18174 plan chosen by the county officer or employee pursuant to this 18175 division exceeds the cost of the plan offered under division (A) 18176
of this section; 18177

(2) Change from one of the plans to another at a time each 18178 year as determined by the board. 18179

(C) Section 307.86 of the Revised Code does not apply to the 18180 purchase of benefits for county officers or employees under 18181 divisions (A) and (B) of this section when those benefits are 18182 provided through a jointly administered health and welfare trust 18183 fund in which the county or contracting authority and a collective 18184 bargaining representative of the county employees or contracting authority agree to participate. 18185

resolution or ordinance, the political subdivision may propose 18359 joining the regional transit authority for a limited period of 18360 three years or without a time limit. 18361

(C) The political subdivision proposing to join the regional 18362 transit authority shall submit a copy of its resolution or 18363 ordinance to the legislative authority of each municipal 18364 corporation and the board of trustees of each township comprising 18365 the regional transit authority. Within thirty days of receiving 18366 the resolution or ordinance for inclusion in the regional transit 18367 authority, the legislative authority of each municipal corporation 18368 and the board of trustees of each township shall consider the 18369 question of whether to include the additional subdivision in the 18370 regional transit authority, shall adopt a resolution or ordinance 18371 approving or rejecting the inclusion of the additional 18372 subdivision, and shall present its resolution or ordinance to the 18373 board of trustees of the regional transit authority. 18374

(D) If a majority of the political subdivisions comprising 18375 the regional transit authority approve the inclusion of the 18376 additional political subdivision, the board of trustees of the 18377 regional transit authority, not later than the tenth day following 18378 the day on which the last ordinance or resolution is presented, 18379 shall notify the subdivision proposing to join the regional 18380 transit authority that it may certify the proposal to the board of 18381 elections for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the 18382 ballot at the next general election or at a special election 18383 conducted on the day of the next primary election that occurs not 18384 less than seventy-five days after the resolution or ordinance is 18385 certified to the board of elections. 18386

(E) Upon certification of a proposal to the board of 18387 elections pursuant to this section, the board of elections shall 18388 make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question 18389 to the electors of the territory to be included in the regional 18390 transit authority qualified to vote on the question, and the 18391 election shall be held, canvassed, and certified in the same 18392 manner as regular elections for the election of officers of the 18393 subdivision proposing to join the regional transit authority, 18394 except that, if the resolution proposed the inclusion without a 18395 time limitation the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 18396

"Shall the territory within the 18397
(Name or names of political subdivisions to be joined) be added to 18398
..... (Name) regional transit 18399 authority?" and shall a(n) (here insert type of tax or 18400

electors voting on the question, the addition of the new territory 18413 is effective six months from the date of the certification of its 18414 passage, and the regional transit authority may extend the levy of 18415 the tax against all the taxable property within the territory that 18416 was added. If the question is approved at a general election or at 18417 a special election occurring prior to the general election but 18418 after the fifteenth day of July, the regional transit authority 18419 may amend its budget and resolution adopted pursuant to section 18420 5705.34 of the Revised Code, and the levy shall be placed on the 18421 the election. If the budget of the regional transit authority is 18426 amended pursuant to this paragraph, the county auditor shall 18427 electors voting on the question, the board of trustees of the 18432 regional transit authority immediately shall amend the resolution 18433 or ordinance creating the regional transit authority to include 18434 the additional political subdivision. 18435

(H) If the question approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question added the subdivision for three years, the territory of the additional municipal corporation or township in the regional transit authority shall be removed from the territory of the regional transit authority three years after the date the territory was added, as determined in the effective date of the election, and shall no longer be a part of that authority without any further action by either the political subdivisions that were included in the authority prior to submitting the question to the electors or of the political subdivision added to the authority as a result of the election. The regional transit authority reduced to its territory as it existed prior to the inclusion of the additional municipal corporation or township shall be entitled to levy and collect any property taxes that it was authorized to levy and collect prior to the enlargement of its territory and for which authorization has not expired, as if the enlargement had not occurred.

expenditure, other than for the acquisition of real estate, the 18708 discharge of claims, or the acquisition of goods or services under 18709 the circumstances described in division (H) of this section, is 18710 expected to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, such expenditure 18711 shall be made through full and open competition by the use of 18712 competitive procedures. The regional transit authority shall use 18713 the competitive procedure, as set forth in divisions (B), (C), 18714 (D), and (E) of this section, that is most appropriate under the 18715 circumstances of the procurement. 18716

(B) Competitive sealed bidding is the preferred method of 18717 procurement and a regional transit authority shall use that method 18718 if all of the following conditions exist: 18719

(1) A clear, complete and adequate description of the goods, 18720 services, or work is available; 18721

(2) Time permits the solicitation, submission, and evaluation 18722 of sealed bids; 18723

(3) The award will be made on the basis of price and other 18724 price-related factors; 18725

(4) It is not necessary to conduct discussions with 18726 responding offerors about their bids; 18727

(5) There is a reasonable expectation of receiving more than 18728 one sealed bid. 18729

A regional transit authority shall publish a notice calling 18730 authority may require that a bidder for any contract other than a 18735 construction contract provide a bid guaranty in the form, quality, 18736 and amount considered appropriate by the regional transit 18737 authority. The board may let the contract to the lowest responsive 18738 and responsible bidder. Where fewer than two responsive bids are 18739 received, a regional transit authority may negotiate price with 18740 the sole responsive bidder or may rescind the solicitation and 18741 procure under division (H)(2) of this section. 18742

(C) A regional transit authority may use two-step competitive 18743 bidding, consisting of a technical proposal and a separate, 18744 subsequent sealed price bid from those submitting acceptable 18745 technical proposals, if both of the following conditions exist: 18746

(1) A clear, complete, and adequate description of the goods, 18747 services, or work is not available, but definite criteria exist 18748 for the evaluation of technical proposals; 18749

(2) It is necessary to conduct discussions with responding 18750 offerors. 18751

A regional transit authority shall publish a notice calling 18752 for technical proposals once a week for no less than two 18753 consecutive weeks in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general 18754 circulation within the territorial boundaries of the regional 18755 transit authority, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 18756 Code. A regional transit authority may require a bid guaranty in 18757 the form, quality, and amount the regional transit authority 18758 considers appropriate. The board may let the contract to the 18759 lowest responsive and responsible bidder. Where fewer than two 18760 responsive and responsible bids are received, a regional transit 18761 authority may negotiate price with the sole responsive and 18762 responsible bidder or may rescind the solicitation and procure 18763 under division (H)(2) of this section. 18764

(D) A regional transit authority shall make a procurement by 18765 competitive proposals if competitive sealed bidding or two-step 18766 competitive bidding is not appropriate. 18767

A regional transit authority shall publish a notice calling 18768 for proposals once a week for no less than two consecutive weeks 18769 in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation within the 18770 territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, or as 18771 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. A regional transit 18772 authority may require a proposal guaranty in the form, quality, 18773
and amount considered appropriate by the regional transit 18774 authority. The board may let the contract to the proposer making 18775 the offer considered most advantageous to the authority. Where 18776 fewer than two competent proposals are received, a regional transit authority may negotiate price and terms with the sole proposer or may rescind the solicitation and procure under division (H)(2) of this section.

(E)(1) A regional transit authority shall procure the services of an architect or engineer in the manner prescribed by the "Federal Mass Transportation Act of 1987," Public Law No. 100-17, section 316, 101 Stat. 227, 232-234, 49 U.S.C.A. app. 1608 and the services of a construction manager in the manner prescribed by sections 9.33 to 9.332 of the Revised Code.

(2) A regional transit authority may procure revenue rolling stock in the manner prescribed by division (B), (C), or (D) of this section.

(3) All contracts for construction in excess of one hundred thousand dollars shall be made only after the regional transit authority has published a notice calling for bids once a week for two consecutive weeks in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation within the territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The board may award a contract to the lowest responsive and responsible bidder. Where only one responsive and responsible bid is received, the regional transit authority may negotiate price with the sole responsive bidder or may rescind the solicitation. The regional transit authority shall award construction contracts in accordance with sections 153.12 to 153.14 and 153.54 of the Revised Code. Divisions (B) and (C) of this section shall not apply to the award of contracts for construction.

may require performance, payment, or maintenance guaranties or any 18810 combination of such guaranties in the form, quality, and amount it 18811 considers appropriate. The contract shall be approved by the board 18812 and signed on behalf of the regional transit authority and by the 18813 contractor. 18814

(G) In making a contract, a regional transit authority may 18815 give preference to goods produced in the United States in 18816 accordance with the Buy America requirements in the "Surface 18817 Transportation Assistance Act of 1982," Public Law No. 97-424, 18818 section 165, 96 Stat. 2097, 23 U.S.C.A. 101 note, as amended, and 18819 the rules adopted thereunder. The regional transit authority also 18820

12073, August 16, 1978, 43 Fed. Reg. 36873, as amended. 18824

(H) Competitive procedures under this section are not 18825 required in any of the following circumstances: 18826

(1) The board of trustees of a regional transit authority, by 18827 a two-thirds affirmative vote of its members, determines that a 18828

(3) The expenditure is for a renewal or renegotiation of a 18842 lease or license for telecommunications or electronic data 18843 processing equipment, services, or systems, or for the upgrade of 18844 such equipment, services, or systems, or for the maintenance 18845 thereof as supplied by the original source or its successors or 18846 assigns. 18847

(4) The purchase of goods or services is made from another 18848 political subdivision, public agency, public transit system, 18849 regional transit authority, the state, or the federal government, 18850

Revised Code. 18868

(8) The purchase consists of the product or services of a 18869 public utility. 18870

(9) The purchase is for the services of individuals with 18871 disabilities to work in the authority's commissaries or 18872 cafeterias, and those individuals are supplied by a nonprofit 18873 corporation or association whose purpose is to assist individuals 18874 with disabilities, whether or not that corporation or association 18875 is funded entirely or in part by the federal government, or the 18876 purchase is for services provided by a nonprofit corporation or 18877 association whose purpose is to assist individuals with 18878 disabilities, whether or not that corporation or association is 18879 funded entirely or in part by the federal government. For purposes 18880 of division (H)(9) of this section, "disability" has the same 18881 meaning as in section 4112.01 of the Revised Code. 18882

(I) A regional transit authority may enter into blanket 18883 purchase agreements for purchases of maintenance, operating, or 18884 repair goods or services where the item cost does not exceed five 18885 hundred dollars and the annual expenditure does not exceed one 18886 legislative authority of the subdivision that submitted the 18992 resolution to withdraw and to the board of trustees of the 18993 the electors residing within the county or within the territorial 19011 boundaries of the regional transit authority and approved by a 19012 majority of the electors voting on it. Such question shall be 19013 submitted at a general election or at a special election on a day 19014 county may do both of the following without following the 19055 competitive bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised 19056

Code: 19057

(1) Enter into a lease, including a lease with an option to 19058 purchase, of correctional facilities for a term not in excess of 19059 forty years. Before entering into the lease, the board shall 19060 publish, once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 19061 general circulation in the county or as provided in section 7.16 19062 of the Revised Code, a notice that the board is accepting 19063 proposals for a lease pursuant to this division. The notice shall 19064 state the date before which the proposals are required to be 19065 submitted in order to be considered by the board. 19066

(2) Subject to compliance with this section, grant leases, 19067 easements, and licenses with respect to, or sell, real property 19068 owned by the county if the real property is to be leased back by 19069 the county for use as correctional facilities. 19070

The lease under division (A)(1) of this section shall require 19071 the county to contract, in accordance with Chapter 153., sections 19072 307.86 to 307.92, and Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code, for the 19073 construction, improvement, furnishing, and equipping of 19074 correctional facilities to be leased pursuant to this section. 19075 Prior to the board's execution of the lease, it may require the 19076 lessor under the lease to cause sufficient money to be made 19077 available to the county to enable the county to comply with the 19078 certification requirements of division (D) of section 5705.41 of 19079
the Revised Code. 19080

A lease entered into pursuant to division (A)(1) of this 19081 section by a board may provide for the county to maintain and 19082 repair the correctional facility during the term of the leasehold, 19083 may provide for the county to make rental payments prior to or 19084 after occupation of the correctional facilities by the county, and 19085 may provide for the board to obtain and maintain any insurance 19086 that the lessor may require, including, but not limited to, public 19087 liability, casualty, builder's risk, and business interruption 19088 insurance. The obligations incurred under a lease entered into 19089 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section shall not be 19090 considered to be within the debt limitations of section 133.07 of 19091

the Revised Code. 19092

(B) The correctional facilities leased under division (A)(1) 19093 of this section may include any or all of the following: 19094

(1) Facilities in which one or more other governmental 19095 entities are participating or in which other facilities of the 19096 county are included; 19097

(2) Facilities acquired, constructed, renovated, or financed 19098 by the Ohio building authority and leased to the county pursuant 19099 to section 307.021 of the Revised Code; 19100

(3) Correctional facilities that are under construction or 19101 have been completed and for which no permanent financing has been 19102 arranged. 19103

(C) As used in this section: 19104

(1) "Correctional facilities" includes, but is not limited 19105 to, jails, detention facilities, workhouses, community-based 19106 correctional facilities, and family court centers. 19107

(2) "Construction" has the same meaning as in division (B) of 19108
section 4115.03 of the Revised Code. 19109

Sec. 307.041. (A) As used in this section, "energy 19110 conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an 19111 installation in, or remodeling of, an existing building, to reduce 19112 energy consumption. "Energy conservation measure" includes the 19113
following: 19114

(1) Insulation of the building structure and of systems 19115

within the building;	19116
(2) Storm windows and doors, multiglazed windows and doors,	19117

consumption;	19121

increase the energy efficiency of the system without increasing	19127
the overall illumination of a facility, unless such an increase in	19128
illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or	19129
local building code for the proposed lighting system;	19130
(7) Energy recovery systems;	19131
(8) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of	19132

the site of, and otherwise improving a central utility plant to	19136 provide heating and cooling services to a building or buildings	19137 together with distribution piping and ancillary distribution	19138 controls, equipment, and related facilities from the central	19139 utility plant to the building or buildings;	19140
(10) Any other modification, installation, or remodeling	19141 approved by the board of county commissioners as an energy	19142
conservation measure.	19143
(B) For the purpose of evaluating county buildings for energy	19144 conservation measures, a county may contract with an architect,	19145 professional engineer, energy services company, contractor, or 19146 other person experienced in the design and implementation of 19147 energy conservation measures for an energy conservation report. 19148

The report shall include all of the following: 19149

(1) Analyses of the buildings' energy needs and 19150 recommendations for building installations, modifications of 19151 existing installations, or building remodeling that would 19152 significantly reduce energy consumption in the buildings owned by 19153 that county; 19154

(2) Estimates of all costs of those installations, those 19155 modifications, or that remodeling, including costs of design, 19156 engineering, installation, maintenance, and repairs; 19157

(3) Estimates of the amounts by which energy consumption 19158 could be reduced; 19159

(4) The interest rate used to estimate the costs of any 19160 energy conservation measures that are to be financed; 19161

(5) The average system life of the energy conservation 19162 measures; 19163

(6) Estimates of the likely savings that will result from the 19164 reduction in energy consumption over the average system life of 19165 the energy conservation measure, including the methods used to 19166 estimate the savings; 19167

(7) A certification under the seal of a registered 19168 professional engineer that the energy conservation report uses 19169 reasonable methods of analysis and estimation. 19170

(C)(1) A county desiring to implement energy conservation 19171 measures may proceed under either of the following methods: 19172

(a) Using a report or any part of an energy conservation 19173 report prepared under division (B) of this section, advertise for 19174 bids and, except as otherwise provided in this section, comply 19175 with sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code; 19176

(b) Notwithstanding sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised 19177 Code, request proposals from at least three vendors for the 19178 implementation of energy conservation measures. A request for 19179 proposals shall require the installer that is awarded a contract 19180 under division (C)(2)(b) of this section to prepare an energy 19181 conservation report in accordance with division (B) of this 19182 section. Prior to sending any installer of energy conservation 19183 measures a copy of any request for proposals, the county shall 19184 advertise its intent to request proposals for the installation of 19185 energy conservation measures in a newspaper of general circulation 19186 in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided 19187 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state that 19188 the county intends to request proposals for the installation of 19189 energy conservation measures; indicate the date, which shall be at 19190 least ten days after the second publication, on which the request 19191 for proposals will be mailed to installers of energy conservation 19192 measures; and state that any installer of energy conservation 19193 measures interested in receiving the request for proposals shall 19194 submit written notice to the county not later than noon of the day 19195 on which the request for proposals will be mailed. 19196

(2)(a) Upon receiving bids under division (C)(1)(a) of this 19198 section, the county shall analyze them and select the lowest and 19199 best bid or bids most likely to result in the greatest energy 19200 savings considering the cost of the project and the county's 19201 ability to pay for the improvements with current revenues or by 19202 financing the improvements. 19203

(b) Upon receiving proposals under division (C)(1)(b) of this 19204 section, the county shall analyze the proposals and the 19205 installers' qualifications and select the most qualified installer 19206 to prepare an energy conservation report in accordance with 19207 division (B) of this section. After receipt and review of the 19208 energy conservation report, the county may award a contract to the 19209 selected installer to install the energy conservation measures 19210 that are most likely to result in the greatest energy savings 19211 considering the cost of the project and the county's ability to 19212 pay for the improvements with current revenues or by financing the 19213 improvements. 19214

(c) The awarding of a contract to install energy conservation 19215 measures under division (C)(2)(a) or (b) of this section shall be 19216 conditioned upon a finding by the contracting authority that the 19217 amount of money spent on the energy conservation measures is not 19218 likely to exceed the amount of money the county would save in 19219 energy, operating, maintenance, and avoided capital costs over the 19220 average system life of the energy conservation measures as 19221 specified in the energy conservation report. In making such a 19222 finding, the contracting authority may take into account increased 19223 costs due to inflation as shown in the energy conservation report. 19224 Nothing in this division prohibits a county from rejecting all 19225 bids or proposals under division (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section 19226 or from selecting more than one bid or proposal. 19227

(D) A board of county commissioners may enter into an 19228 installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of 19229 energy conservation measures. Provisions of installment payment 19230 contracts that deal with interest charges and financing terms 19231 shall not be subject to the competitive bidding requirements of 19232 section 307.86 of the Revised Code, and shall be on the following 19233 terms: 19234

(1) Not less than a specified percentage, as determined and 19235 approved by the board of county commissioners, of the costs of the 19236 contract shall be paid within two years from the date of purchase. 19237

(2) The remaining balance of the costs of the contract shall 19238 be paid within the lesser of the average system life of the energy 19239 conservation measures as specified in the energy conservation 19240 report or thirty years. 19241

(E) The board of county commissioners may issue the notes of 19242 the county specifying the terms of a purchase of energy 19243 conservation measures under this section and securing any deferred 19244 payments provided for in division (D) of this section. The notes 19245 shall be payable at the times provided and bear interest at a rate 19246 not exceeding the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of 19247 the Revised Code. The notes may contain an option for prepayment 19248 and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. 19249 Revenues derived from local taxes or otherwise for the purpose of 19250 conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses 19251 of the county may be pledged and applied to the payment of 19252 interest and the retirement of the notes. The notes may be sold at 19253 private sale or given to the contractor under an installment 19254 payment contract authorized by division (D) of this section. 19255

(F) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in 19256 the calculation of the net indebtedness of a county under section 19257
133.07 of the Revised Code. 19258

Sec. 307.10. (A) No sale of real property, or lease of real 19259 property used or to be used for the purpose of airports, landing 19260 fields, or air navigational facilities, or parts thereof, as 19261 provided by section 307.09 of the Revised Code shall be made 19262 unless it is authorized by a resolution adopted by a majority of 19263 the board of county commissioners. When a sale of real property as 19264 provided by section 307.09 of the Revised Code is authorized, the 19265 board may either deed the property to the highest responsible 19266 bidder, after advertisement once a week for four consecutive weeks 19267 in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or as provided 19268 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, or offer the real property 19269 for sale at a public auction, after giving at least thirty days' 19270 notice of the auction by publication in a newspaper of general 19271 circulation in the county. The board may reject any and all bids. 19272

The board may, as it considers best, sell real property pursuant 19273 to this section as an entire tract or in parcels. The board, by 19274 resolution adopted by a majority of the board, may lease real 19275 property, in accordance with division (A) of section 307.09 of the 19276 Revised Code, without advertising for bids. 19277

(B) The board, by resolution, may transfer real property in 19278 fee simple belonging to the county and not needed for public use 19279 to the United States government, to the state or any department or 19280 agency thereof, to municipal corporations or other political 19281 subdivisions of the state, to the county board of developmental 19282 disabilities, or to a county land reutilization corporation 19283 organized under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code for public 19284 purposes upon the terms and in the manner that it may determine to 19285 be in the best interests of the county, without advertising for 19286 bids. The board shall execute a deed or other proper instrument 19287 when such a transfer is approved. 19288

(C) The board, by resolution adopted by a majority of the 19289 board, may grant leases, rights, or easements to the United States 19290 government, to the state or any department or agency thereof, or 19291 to municipal corporations and other political subdivisions of the 19292 state, or to privately owned electric light and power companies, 19293 natural gas companies, or telephone or telegraph companies for 19294 purposes of rendering their several public utilities services, in 19295 accordance with division (B) of section 307.09 of the Revised 19296 Code, without advertising for bids. When such grant of lease, 19297 right, or easement is authorized, a deed or other proper 19298 instrument therefor shall be executed by the board. 19299

Sec. 307.12. (A) Except as otherwise provided in divisions 19300 (D), (E), and (G) of this section, when the board of county 19301 commissioners finds, by resolution, that the county has personal 19302 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of county 19303 officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, tools, or 19304 supplies, that is not needed for public use, is obsolete, or is 19305 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, and when the fair 19306 market value of the property to be sold or donated under this 19307 division is, in the opinion of the board, in excess of two 19308 thousand five hundred dollars, the board may do either of the 19309

following: 19310

(1) Sell the property at public auction or by sealed bid to 19311 the highest bidder. Notice of the time, place, and manner of the 19312 sale shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in 19313 the county at least ten days prior to the sale, and a typewritten 19314 or printed notice of the time, place, and manner of the sale shall 19315 be posted at least ten days before the sale in the offices of the 19316 county auditor and the board of county commissioners. 19317

If a board conducts a sale of property by sealed bid, the 19318 form of the bid shall be as prescribed by the board, and each bid 19319 shall contain the name of the person submitting it. Bids received 19320 shall be opened and tabulated at the time stated in the notice. 19321
The property shall be sold to the highest bidder, except that the 19322 board may reject all bids and hold another sale, by public auction 19323 or sealed bid, in the manner prescribed by this section. 19324

(2) Donate any motor vehicle that does not exceed four 19325 thousand five hundred dollars in value to a nonprofit organization 19326 exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) 19327 and (c)(3) for the purpose of meeting the transportation needs of 19328 participants in the Ohio works first program established under 19329 Chapter 5107. of the Revised Code and participants in the 19330 prevention, retention, and contingency program established under 19331
Chapter 5108. of the Revised Code. 19332

(B) When the board of county commissioners finds, by 19333 resolution, that the county has personal property, including motor 19334 vehicles acquired for the use of county officers and departments, 19335 and road machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, that is not 19336 needed for public use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for 19337 which it was acquired, and when the fair market value of the 19338 property to be sold or donated under this division is, in the 19339 opinion of the board, two thousand five hundred dollars or less, 19340 the board may do either of the following: 19341

(1) Sell the property by private sale, without advertisement 19342 or public notification; 19343

(2) Donate the property to an eligible nonprofit organization 19344 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 19345 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3). Before donating 19346 any property under this division, the board shall adopt a 19347 resolution expressing its intent to make unneeded, obsolete, or 19348 unfit-for-use county personal property available to these 19349 organizations. The resolution shall include guidelines and 19350 procedures the board considers necessary to implement a donation 19351 program under this division and shall indicate whether the county 19352 will conduct the donation program or the board will contract with 19353 a representative to conduct it. If a representative is known when 19354 the resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 19355 information such as the representative's name, address, and 19356 telephone number. 19357

The resolution shall include within its procedures a 19358 requirement that any nonprofit organization desiring to obtain 19359 donated property under this division shall submit a written notice 19360 to the board or its representative. The written notice shall 19361 include evidence that the organization is a nonprofit organization 19362 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 19363 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3); a description of 19364 the organization's primary purpose; a description of the type or 19365 types of property the organization needs; and the name, address, 19366 and telephone number of a person designated by the organization's 19367 governing board to receive donated property and to serve as its 19368 agent. 19369

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall publish, in 19370 a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice of its 19371 intent to donate unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use county 19372 personal property to eligible nonprofit organizations. The notice 19373 shall include a summary of the information provided in the 19374 resolution and shall be published ~~at least~~ twice or as provided in 19375 section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second and any subsequent 19376 notice shall be published not less than ten nor more than twenty 19377 days after the previous notice. A similar notice also shall be 19378 posted continually in a conspicuous place in the offices of the 19379 county auditor and the board of county commissioners, ~~and, if.~~ If 19380 the county maintains a web site on the internet, the notice shall 19381 be posted continually at that web site. 19382

The board or its representative shall maintain a list of all 19383 nonprofit organizations that notify the board or its 19384 representative of their desire to obtain donated property under 19385 this division and that the board or its representative determines 19386 to be eligible, in accordance with the requirements set forth in 19387 this section and in the donation program's guidelines and 19388 procedures, to receive donated property. 19389

The board or its representatives also shall maintain a list 19390 of all county personal property the board finds to be unneeded, 19391 obsolete, or unfit for use and to be available for donation under 19392 this division. The list shall be posted continually in a 19393 conspicuous location in the offices of the county auditor and the 19394 board of county commissioners, and, if the county maintains a web 19395 site on the internet, the list shall be posted continually at that 19396 web site. An item of property on the list shall be donated to the 19397 eligible nonprofit organization that first declares to the board 19398 or its representative its desire to obtain the item unless the 19399 board previously has established, by resolution, a list of 19400 eligible nonprofit organizations that shall be given priority with 19401 respect to the item's donation. Priority may be given on the basis 19402 that the purposes of a nonprofit organization have a direct 19403 relationship to specific public purposes of programs provided or 19404 administered by the board. A resolution giving priority to certain 19405 nonprofit organizations with respect to the donation of an item of 19406 property shall specify the reasons why the organizations are given 19407 that priority. 19408

(C) Members of the board of county commissioners shall 19409 consult with the Ohio ethics commission, and comply with the 19410 provisions of Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised Code, with 19411 respect to any sale or donation under division (A) or (B) of this 19412 section to a nonprofit organization of which a county 19413 commissioner, any member of the county commissioner's family, or 19414 any business associate of the county commissioner is a trustee, 19415 officer, board member, or employee. 19416

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A), 19417
(B), or (E) of this section and regardless of the property's 19418 value, the board of county commissioners may sell or donate county 19419 personal property, including motor vehicles, to the federal 19420 government, the state, any political subdivision of the state, or 19421 a county land reutilization corporation without advertisement or 19422 public notification. 19423

(E) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A), 19424
(B), or (G) of this section and regardless of the property's 19425 value, the board of county commissioners may sell personal 19426 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of county 19427
officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, tools, or 19428
supplies, that is not needed for public use, is obsolete, or is 19429 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, by internet auction. 19430

The board shall adopt, during each calendar year, a resolution 19431 expressing its intent to sell that property by internet auction. 19432
The resolution shall include a description of how the auctions 19433 will be conducted and shall specify the number of days for bidding 19434 on the property, which shall be no less than ten days, including 19435 Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The resolution shall 19436 indicate whether the county will conduct the auction or the board 19437 will contract with a representative to conduct the auction and 19438 shall establish the general terms and conditions of sale. If a 19439 representative is known when the resolution is adopted, the 19440 resolution shall provide contact information such as the 19441 representative's name, address, and telephone number. 19442

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall publish, in 19443
a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice of its 19444 intent to sell unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use county 19445 personal property by internet auction. The notice shall include a 19446 summary of the information provided in the resolution and shall be 19447 published ~~at least~~ twice or as provided in section 7.16 of the 19448 Revised Code. The second and any subsequent notice shall be 19449 published not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the 19450 previous notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually 19451 throughout the calendar year in a conspicuous place in the offices 19452 of the county auditor and the board of county commissioners,~~and,~~ 19453 ~~if.~~ If the county maintains a web site on the internet, the notice 19454 shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year at that 19455 web site. 19456

When property is to be sold by internet auction, the board or 19457 its representative may establish a minimum price that will be 19458 accepted for specific items and may establish any other terms and 19459 conditions for the particular sale, including requirements for 19460 pick-up or delivery, method of payment, and sales tax. This type 19461 of information shall be provided on the internet at the time of 19462 the auction and may be provided before that time upon request 19463 after the terms and conditions have been determined by the board 19464 or its representative. 19465

(F) When a county officer or department head determines that 19466 county-owned personal property under the jurisdiction of the 19467 officer or department head, including motor vehicles, road 19468 machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, is not of immediate 19469 need, the county officer or department head may notify the board 19470 of county commissioners, and the board may lease that personal 19471 property to any municipal corporation, township, other political 19472 subdivision of the state, or to a county land reutilization 19473 corporation. The lease shall require the county to be reimbursed 19474 under terms, conditions, and fees established by the board, or 19475 under contracts executed by the board. 19476

(G) If the board of county commissioners finds, by 19477 resolution, that the county has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 19478 that is not needed, or is unfit for public use, and the board 19479 desires to sell the vehicles, equipment, or machinery to the 19480 person or firm from which it proposes to purchase other vehicles, 19481 equipment, or machinery, the board may offer to sell the vehicles, 19482 equipment, or machinery to that person or firm, and to have the 19483 selling price credited to the person or firm against the purchase 19484 price of other vehicles, equipment, or machinery. 19485

(H) If the board of county commissioners advertises for bids 19486 for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or machinery to the 19487 county, it may include in the same advertisement a notice of the 19488 willingness of the board to accept bids for the purchase of 19489 county-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery that is obsolete or 19490 not needed for public use, and to have the amount of those bids 19491 subtracted from the selling price of the other vehicles, 19492 equipment, or machinery as a means of determining the lowest 19493 responsible bidder. 19494

(I) If a board of county commissioners determines that county 19495 personal property is not needed for public use, or is obsolete or 19496 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, and that the property 19497 has no value, the board may discard or salvage that property. 19498

(J) A county engineer, in the engineer's discretion, may 19499 dispose of scrap construction materials on such terms as the 19500 engineer determines reasonable, including disposal without 19501 recovery of costs, if the total value of the materials does not 19502 exceed twenty-five thousand dollars. The engineer shall maintain 19503 records of all dispositions made under this division, including 19504 identification of the origin of the materials, the final 19505 disposition, and copies of all receipts resulting from the 19506 dispositions. 19507

As used in division (I) of this section, "scrap construction 19508 materials" means construction materials that result from a road or 19509 bridge improvement, remain after the improvement is completed, and 19510 are not reusable. Construction material that is metal and that 19511 results from a road or bridge improvement and remains after the 19512 improvement is completed is scrap construction material only if it 19513 cannot be used in any other road or bridge improvement or other 19514 project in its current state. 19515

Sec. 307.676. (A) As used in this section: 19516

(1) "Food and beverages" means any raw, cooked, or processed 19517 edible substance used or intended for use in whole or in part for 19518 human consumption, including ice, water, spirituous liquors, wine, 19519 mixed beverages, beer, soft drinks, soda, and other beverages. 19520

(2) "Convention facilities authority" has the same meaning as 19521
in section 351.01 of the Revised Code. 19522

(3) "Convention center" has the same meaning as in section 19523

307.695 of the Revised Code. 19524

(B) The legislative authority of a county with a population 19525 of one million or more according to the most recent federal 19526 decennial census may, by resolution adopted on or before August 19527 30, 2004, by a majority of the members of the legislative 19528 authority and with the subsequent approval of a majority of the 19529 electors of the county voting upon it, levy a tax of not more than 19530 two per cent on every retail sale in the county of food and 19531 beverages to be consumed on the premises where sold to pay the 19532 expenses of administering the tax and to provide revenues for the 19533 county general fund. Such resolution shall direct the board of 19534 elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the 19535 electors of the county at the next primary or general election in 19536 the county occurring not less than ninety days after the 19537 resolution is certified to the board of elections, and such 19538 resolution may further direct the board of elections to include 19539 upon the ballot submitted to the electors any specific purposes 19540 for which the tax will be used. The legislative authority shall 19541 establish all regulations necessary to provide for the 19542 administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may 19543 prescribe the time for payment of the tax and may provide for 19544 imposition of a penalty, interest, or both for late payments, 19545 provided that any such penalty may not exceed ten per cent of the 19546 amount of tax due and the rate at which interest accrues may not 19547 exceed the rate per annum required under section 5703.47 of the 19548
Revised Code. 19549

(C) A tax levied under this section shall remain in effect 19550 for the period of time specified in the resolution or ordinance 19551 levying the tax, but in no case for a longer period than forty 19552 years. 19553

(D) A tax levied under this section is in addition to any 19554 other tax levied under Chapter 307., 4301., 4305., 5739., 5741., 19555 or any other chapter of the Revised Code. "Price," as defined in 19556 sections 5739.01 and 5741.01 of the Revised Code, does not include 19557 any tax levied under this section and any tax levied under this 19558 section does not include any tax imposed under Chapter 5739. or 19559

5741. of the Revised Code. 19560

(E)(1) No amount collected from a tax levied under this 19561 section shall be contributed to a convention facilities authority, 19562 corporation, or other entity created after July 1, 2003, for the 19563 principal purpose of constructing, improving, expanding, 19564 equipping, financing, or operating a convention center unless the 19565 mayor of the municipal corporation in which the convention center 19566 is to be operated by that convention facilities authority, 19567 corporation, or other entity has consented to the creation of that 19568 convention facilities authority, corporation, or entity. 19569 Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 351.04 of the 19570 Revised Code, if a tax is levied by a county under this section, 19571 the board of county commissioners of that county may determine the 19572 manner of selection, the qualifications, the number, and terms of 19573 office of the members of the board of directors of any convention 19574 facilities authority, corporation, or other entity described in 19575 division (E)(1) of this section. 19576

(2)(a) No amount collected from a tax levied under this 19577 section may be used for any purpose other than paying the direct 19578 and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, 19579 equipping, financing, or operating a convention center and for the 19580 real and actual costs of administering the tax, unless, prior to 19581 the adoption of the resolution of the legislative authority of the 19582 county directing the board of elections to submit the question of 19583 the levy, extension, or increase to the electors of the county, 19584 the county and the mayor of the most populous municipal 19585 corporation in that county have entered into an agreement as to 19586 the use of such amounts, provided that such agreement has been 19587 approved by a majority of the mayors of the other municipal 19588 corporations in that county. The agreement shall provide that the 19589 amounts to be used for purposes other than paying the convention 19590 center or administrative costs described in division (E)(2)(a) of 19591 this section be used only for the direct and indirect costs of 19592 capital improvements in accordance with the agreement, including 19593 the financing of capital improvements. Immediately following the 19594 execution of the agreement, the county shall: 19595

(i) In accordance with section 7.12 of the Revised Code, 19596 cause the agreement to be published ~~at least~~ once in a newspaper 19597 of general circulation in that county; or 19598

(ii) Post the agreement in at least five public places in the 19599 county, as determined by the legislative authority, for a period 19600 not less than fifteen days. 19601

(b) If the county in which the tax is levied has an 19602 association of mayors and city managers, the approval of that 19603 association of an agreement described in division (E)(2)(a) of 19604 this section shall be considered to be the approval of the 19605 majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations for 19606 purposes of that division. 19607

(F) Each year, the auditor of state shall conduct an audit of 19608 the uses of any amounts collected from taxes levied under this 19609 section and shall prepare a report of the auditor of state's 19610 findings. The auditor of state shall submit the report to the 19611 legislative authority of the county that has levied the tax, the 19612 speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the 19613 senate, and the leaders of the minority parties of the house of 19614 representatives and the senate. 19615

(G) The levy of any taxes under Chapter 5739. of the Revised 19616 Code on the same transactions subject to a tax under this section 19617 does not prevent the levy of a tax under this section. 19618

Sec. 307.70. In any county electing a county charter 19619 commission, the board of county commissioners shall appropriate 19620 money for the expenses of such commission in the preparation of a 19621 county charter, or charter amendment, and the study of problems 19622 involved. No appropriation shall be made for the compensation of 19623 members of the commission for their services. The board shall 19624 appropriate money for the printing and mailing or otherwise 19625 distributing to each elector in the county, as far as may be 19626 reasonably possible, a copy of a charter submitted to the electors 19627 of the county by a charter commission or by the board pursuant to 19628 petition as provided by Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. 19629
The copy of the charter shall be mailed or otherwise distributed 19630 at least thirty days prior to the election. The board shall 19631 appropriate money for the printing and distribution or publication 19632 of proposed amendments to a charter submitted by a charter 19633 commission pursuant to Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. 19634 Notice of amendments to a county charter shall be given by mailing 19635 or otherwise distributing a copy of each proposed amendment to 19636 each elector in the county, as far as may be reasonably possible, 19637 at least thirty days prior to the election or, if the board so 19638 determines, by publishing the full text of the proposed amendments 19639 once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper 19640 ~~published in the county. If no newspaper is published in the~~ 19641 ~~county or the board is unable to obtain publication in a newspaper~~ 19642
~~published in the county, the proposed amendments may be published~~ 19643
~~in a newspaper~~ of general circulation within the county, or as 19644 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. No public officer is 19645 precluded, because of being a public officer, from also holding 19646 office as a member of a county charter commission, except that not 19647 more than four officeholders may be elected to a county charter 19648 commission at the same time. No member of a county charter 19649 commission, because of charter commission membership, is precluded 19650 from seeking or holding other public office. 19651

Sec. 307.79. (A) The board of county commissioners may adopt, 19652 amend, and rescind rules establishing technically feasible and 19653 economically reasonable standards to achieve a level of management 19654 and conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion 19655 of the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 19656 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 19657 filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 19658 developed for nonfarm commercial, industrial, residential, or 19659 other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for determination 19660 of the acceptability of those management and conservation 19661 practices. The rules shall be designed to implement the applicable 19662 areawide waste treatment management plan prepared under section 19663 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 Stat. 816 19664 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement phase II of 19665 the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge 19666 elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules to 19667 implement phase II of the storm water program of the national 19668 pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be inconsistent 19669 with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than the rules or 19670 regulations adopted by the environmental protection agency under 19671 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this section shall not 19672 apply inside the limits of municipal corporations or the limits of 19673 townships with a limited home rule government that have adopted 19674 rules under section 504.21 of the Revised Code, to lands being 19675 used in a strip mine operation as defined in section 1513.01 of 19676 the Revised Code, or to land being used in a surface mine 19677 operation as defined in section 1514.01 of the Revised Code. 19678

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 19680
file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 19681 management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 19682

otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 19683 acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 19684 unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 19685 utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 19686 the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 19687
following: 19688

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 19689 agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 19690

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and 19691 approval or disapproval of the plans; 19692

(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a 19693 person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other 19694 project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a 19695 person whose plans have been disapproved; 19696

(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits; 19697

(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the 19698
denial of a permit. 19699

Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt 19700 from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules 19701 adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section 19702 may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit 19703 processing, and field inspections. 19704

No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, 19705 transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project 19706 undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in 19707 accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control 19708 policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the 19709 division of soil and water resources in the department of natural 19710 resources. 19711

(B) Rules or amendments may be adopted under this section 19712

only after public hearings at not fewer than two regular sessions 19713 of the board. The board of county commissioners shall cause to be 19714 published, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, 19715 notice of the public hearings, including time, date, and place, 19716 once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings, or 19717 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The proposed 19718 rules or amendments shall be made available by the board to the 19719 public at the board office or other location indicated in the 19720 notice. The rules or amendments shall take effect on the 19721 thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 19722

(C) The board of county commissioners may employ personnel to 19723 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 19724 under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 19725 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 19726 management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 19727 with one or more political subdivisions, other county officials, 19728 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 19729 obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 19730 sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 19731 for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 19732

(D) The board of county commissioners or any duly authorized 19733 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 19734 or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 19735
the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 19736 whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 19737 section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 19738 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 19739 may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 19740 county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 19741 inspection warrant as necessary to achieve the purposes of this 19742
chapter. 19743

(E)(1) If the board of county commissioners or its duly 19744 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 19745 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 19746 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 19747 obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 19748

and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 19749 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 19750 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 19751 violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 19752
representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 19753 violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 19754 elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 19755 violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 19756 representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 19757 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 19758 not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 19759
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 19760 or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 19761
after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 19762 attorney of the county if, in the opinion of the prosecuting 19763 attorney, the violation is egregious. 19764

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 19765 authorize representative shall request, in writing, the 19766 prosecuting attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other 19767 appropriate relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive 19768 erosion or sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules 19769 adopted under this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an 19770 injunction or other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, 19771 the court of common pleas may order the construction of sediment 19772 control improvements or implementation of other control measures 19773 and may assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more 19774 than five hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop 19775 work order issued under this section shall be considered a 19776 separate violation subject to a civil fine. 19777

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section against any public highway, transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in the department of natural resources.

Sec. 307.791. The question of repeal of a county sediment control rule adopted under section 307.79 of the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of elections of the county not less than ninety days before the general or primary election in any year a petition requesting that an election be held on such question. Such petition shall be signed by qualified electors 19809 residing in the county equal in number to ten per cent of those 19810 voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election in 19811 the county. 19812

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the 19813 board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 19814 the county at the next general or primary election. The election 19815 shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as 19816 regular elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the 19817 election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation 19818 in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 19819 election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 19820 Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 19821 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 19822 thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 19823 purpose, time, and place of the election and ~~the complete text a~~ 19824 succinct summary of each rule sought to be repealed. The form of 19825 the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the 19826 secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be 19827 submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the 19828 same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same 19829 election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the 19830 qualified electors voting on the question of repeal approve the 19831 repeal, the result of the election shall be certified immediately 19832 after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 19833 commissioners, who shall thereupon rescind the rule. 19834

Sec. 307.80. The board of county commissioners of any county 19835 may, by resolution, establish a county microfilming board. The 19836 county microfilming board shall consist of the county treasurer or 19837 ~~his~~ the treasurer's representative, the county auditor or ~~his~~ the 19838 auditor's representative, the clerk of the court of common pleas 19839 or ~~his~~ the clerk's representative, a member or representative of 19840 the board of county commissioners chosen by the board of county 19841 commissioners, and the county recorder or ~~his~~ the recorder's 19842 representative who shall serve as secretary. 19843

After the initial meeting of the county microfilming board, 19844 no county office shall purchase, lease, operate, or contract for 19845 the use of any microfilming or other image processing equipment, 19846 software, or services without prior approval of the board. 19847

As used in sections 307.80 to 307.806 of the Revised Code, 19848
"county office" means any officer, department, board, commission, 19849 agency, court, or other office of the county and the court of 19850 common pleas. The county hospital shall not be considered a 19851 "county office" when the county hospital uses microfilming to 19852 record and store for future access physical and psychiatric 19853 examinations or treatment records of its patients. The county 19854 hospital shall participate, at the request of the county 19855 microfilming board, in purchasing film and equipment and in 19856 entering into contracts for services for microfilming. 19857

Sec. 307.802. The county microfilming board shall coordinate 19858 the use of all microfilming or image processing equipment, 19859 software, or services in use throughout the county offices at the 19860 time the board is established. 19861

The board may, in writing, authorize any county office to 19862 contract for microfilming or image processing services, or operate 19863 or acquire microfilming or image processing equipment or software, 19864 where the board determines such action is desirable. The 19865 authorization shall be signed by a majority of the members of the 19866 board and shall be filed in the office of the board of county 19867 commissioners. 19868

The county microfilming board may establish a microfilming 19869 center which shall provide a centralized system for the use of 19870 microfilming or image processing equipment, software, or services 19871 for all county offices. 19872

Sec. 307.803. The board of county commissioners may purchase, 19873 lease, or otherwise acquire any microfilming or image processing 19874 equipment, software, or services that the board determines is 19875 necessary, or that the county microfilming board or county board 19876 of information services and records management authorizes, from 19877 funds budgeted and appropriated by the board of county 19878 commissioners for such purposes. 19879

Sec. 307.806. The county microfilming board may enter into a 19880 contract with the legislative authorities of any municipal 19881 corporation, township, port authority, water or sewer district, 19882 school district, library district, county law library association, 19883 health district, park district, soil and water conservation 19884 district, conservancy district, other taxing district, regional 19885 council established pursuant to Chapter 167. of the Revised Code, 19886 or otherwise, county land reutilization corporation organized 19887 under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code, or with the board of 19888 county commissioners or the microfilming board of any other 19889 county, or with any other federal or state governmental agency, 19890 and such authorities may enter into contracts with the county 19891 microfilming board, to provide microfilming or image processing 19892 services to any of them. The board shall establish a schedule of 19893 charges upon which the cost of providing such services shall be 19894 based. All moneys collected by the board for services rendered 19895 pursuant to contracts entered into under this section shall be 19896 deposited in the county general fund; however, such moneys may be 19897 segregated into a special fund in the county treasury until the 19898 end of the calendar year. County offices may also be charged for 19899 such services and the appropriation so charged and the 19900
appropriation of the board so credited. 19901

Sec. 307.81. (A) Where lands have been dedicated to or for 19902 the use of the public for parks or park lands, and where such 19903 lands have remained unimproved and unused by the public and there 19904 appears to be little or no possibility that such lands will be 19905 improved and used by the public, the board of county commissioners 19906 of the county in which the lands are located may, by resolution, 19907 declare such parks or park lands vacated upon the petition of a 19908 majority of the abutting freeholders. No such parks or park lands 19909 shall be vacated unless notice of the pendency and prayer of the 19910 petition is given in a newspaper of general circulation in the 19911 county in which such lands are situated for three consecutive 19912 weeks preceding action on such petition or as provided in section 19913 7.16 of the Revised Code. No such lands shall be vacated prior to 19914 a public hearing had thereon. 19915

(B) Before the board of county commissioners may act on a 19916 petition to vacate unimproved and unused parks or park lands under 19917 division (A) of this section, the board shall offer such parks or 19918 park lands to all political subdivisions described in division (C) 19919 of this section. The board shall give notice to those political 19920 subdivisions by first class mail that the parks or park lands may 19921 be declared vacated unless the board of county commissioners 19922 accepts an offer from another political subdivision to buy or 19923 lease the lands. The failure of delivery of any such notice does 19924 not invalidate any proceedings for the disposition of parks or 19925 park lands under this division. Any such political subdivision 19926 that wishes to buy or lease the parks or park lands shall make an 19927 offer for the lands to the board in writing not later than ninety 19928 days after receiving the notice. The board may reject any offer, 19929 except that if it receives an offer in which the political 19930 subdivision agrees to use the lands for park purposes and in which 19931 the board finds all of the other terms acceptable, the board shall 19932 accept that offer. No offer shall be accepted until notice of the 19933 offer is published for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 19934 general circulation in the county in which the lands are situated 19935 or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and a public 19936 hearing is held. Proceeds from the sale or lease of the lands 19937 shall be placed in the general fund of the county and be disbursed 19938 as prescribed in section 307.82 of the Revised Code. Any deed 19939 conveying the lands shall be executed as provided in that section. 19940

(C) In order to receive a notice or to make an offer 19941 regarding parks or park lands under division (B) of this section, 19942 a political subdivision must meet both of the following 19943 conditions: 19944

(1) Have the authority to acquire, develop, and maintain 19945 public parks or recreation areas; 19946

(2) Contain the parks or park lands in question within its 19947 boundaries, or adjoin a political subdivision that contains those 19948 parks or park lands within its boundaries. 19949

Sec. 307.82. Upon the vacation of parks or park lands, the 19950 board of county commissioners shall offer such lands for sale at a 19951 public auction at the courthouse of the county in which such lands 19952 are situated. No lands shall be sold until the board gives notice 19953 of intention to sell such lands. Such notice shall be published 19954 once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 19955 circulation in the county in which sale is to be had or as 19956 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The board shall sell 19957 such lands to the highest and best bidder, provided, the board may 19958 reject any and all bids made hereunder. 19959

When such sale is made, the auditor of the county in which 19960 sale is had and in which such lands are located, shall enter into 19961 a deed, conveying said lands to the purchaser thereof. At the time 19962 of sale, the auditor shall place the lands sold hereunder on the 19963 tax duplicate of the county at a value to be established by ~~him~~ 19964 the auditor as in cases where ~~he~~ the auditor re-enters property 19965 which has been tax exempt on the taxable list of the county. 19966

The proceeds from the sale of lands sold pursuant to this 19967 section shall be placed in the general fund of the county in which 19968 such lands are located and may be disbursed as other general fund 19969 moneys. 19970

Sec. 307.83. When real estate which has been dedicated to or 19971 for the use of the public for parks or park lands is vacated by 19972 the board of county commissioners pursuant to division (A) of 19973 section 307.81 of the Revised Code or is to be sold or leased for 19974 nonpark use under division (B) of that section, and where 19975 reversionary interests have been set up in the event of the 19976 non-use of such lands for the dedicated purpose, such reversionary 19977 interests shall accelerate and vest in the holders thereof upon 19978 such vacation, or prior to the acceptance of an offer to buy or 19979 lease the land. Thereupon the auditor of the county shall place 19980 the lands on the tax duplicate of the county in the names of such 19981 reversioners as are known to the board of county commissioners. If 19982 the board is unable to establish the names of such reversioners, 19983 it shall fix a date on or before which claims to such real estate 19984 may be asserted and after which such real estate shall be sold or 19985 leased. The board shall give notice of such date and of the sale 19986 or lease to be held thereafter, once each week for four 19987 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 19988 county wherein such lands are located or as provided in section 19989 7.16 of the Revised Code. In the event that no claims to such 19990 lands are asserted or found to be valid, the lands shall be sold 19991 pursuant to section 307.82 of the Revised Code in the case of a 19992 vacation of the lands pursuant to division (A) of section 307.81 19993 of the Revised Code, or be sold or leased pursuant to division (B) 19994 of section 307.81 of the Revised Code if an agreement with a 19995 political subdivision is entered into under that division, and the 19996 title of any holders of reversionary interests shall be 19997 extinguished. 19998

Sec. 307.84. The board of county commissioners of any county 19999 county treasurer's representative, the county recorder or the 20002 processing or record-keeping equipment, software, or services 20020 shall coordinate the use of all automatic or electronic data 20027 processing or record-keeping equipment, software, or services in 20028 use throughout the county offices at the time the board is 20029 established. 20030

The board may, in writing, authorize any county office to 20031 contract for automatic or electronic data processing or 20032 record-keeping services, or operate or acquire automatic or 20033 electronic data processing or record-keeping equipment, where the 20034 board determines such action is desirable. The authorization shall 20035 be signed by a majority of the members of the board and shall be 20036 filed in the office of the board of county commissioners. 20037

The county automatic data processing board may establish an 20038 automatic data processing center which shall provide a centralized 20039 system for the use of automatic or electronic data processing or 20040 record-keeping equipment, software, or services for all county 20041 data processing board or county board of information services and 20047 appropriated by the board of county commissioners for such 20049

purposes. 20050

governmental agency, and such authorities or entities may enter 20062 into contracts with the county automatic data processing board, to 20063 provide automatic or electronic data processing or record-keeping 20064 services to any of them. The board shall establish a schedule of 20065
charges upon which the cost of providing such services shall be 20066
based. All moneys collected by the board for services rendered 20067
pursuant to contracts entered into under this section shall be 20068
deposited in the county general fund; however, such moneys may be 20069
segregated into a special fund in the county treasury until the 20070 end of the calendar year. County offices may also be charged for 20071
such services and the appropriation so charged and the 20072
appropriation of the board so credited. 20073

Sec. 307.847. (A) In lieu of having a county records 20074 commission, a county microfilming board, and a county automatic 20075 data processing board, a board of county commissioners may, by 20076 resolution, establish a county board of information services and 20077 records management to coordinate the management of information 20078 resources of the county, the records and information management 20079 commissioners. Any member may designate a representative to serve 20093 on that member's behalf. All actions of the board shall be taken 20094 by a majority vote of all its members. 20095 microfilming board, and the county automatic data processing board 20128 county board of information services and records management under 20130 this section, the county board of information services and records 20131 management shall be deemed to constitute the continuation of the 20132 county records commission, the county microfilming board, and the 20133 county automatic data processing board, as applicable. 20134

Any business, proceeding, or other matter undertaken or 20135 commenced by the county records commission, the county 20136 microfilming board, or the county automatic data processing board 20137 obligations transferred or assigned and pending on the date of the 20139 establishment of the county board of information services and 20140 records management shall be conducted, prosecuted or defended, and 20141 completed by the county board of information services and records 20142 management in the same manner and with the same effect as if 20143 conducted by the county records commission, the county 20144 microfilming board, or the county automatic data processing board. 20145

In all such actions and proceedings, the county board of 20146 information services and records management shall be substituted 20147 as a party. 20148

All rules, acts, determinations, approvals, and decisions of 20149
the county records commission, the county microfilming board, or 20150 the county automatic data processing board pertaining to the 20151 functions transferred and assigned under this section to the 20152 county board of information services and records management in 20153 force at the time of the transfer, assignment, assumption, or 20154 devolution shall continue in force as rules, acts, determinations, 20155 approvals, and decisions of the board until duly modified or 20156 repealed by the board. 20157

Wherever the functions, powers, duties, and obligations of 20158
the county records commission, the county microfilming board, or 20159
the county automatic data processing board are referred to or 20160 designated in any law, contract, or other document pertaining to 20161 those functions, powers, duties, and obligations, the reference or 20162 designation shall be deemed to refer to the county board of 20163 information services and records management, as appropriate. 20164

No existing right or remedy of any character shall be lost, 20165 impaired, or affected by reason of the establishment of the county 20166 board of information services and records management, except 20167 insofar as those rights and remedies are administered by the 20168 county board of information services and records management. 20169 management may establish an automatic data processing center, 20179 microfilming center, records center, archives, and any other 20180 centralized or decentralized facilities it considers necessary to 20181 fulfill its duties. Any such centralized facilities shall be used 20182 by all county offices. The establishment of either centralized or 20183 decentralized facilities shall be contingent on the appropriation 20184 of funds by the board of county commissioners. 20185

If more than one centralized center is established, the 20186 county board of information services and records management may 20187 appoint an administrator for each center or may appoint the same 20188 person to serve as administrator of more than one center. The 20189 board shall appoint or contract for such other staff as it 20190 considers appropriate. The administrator of any center shall be in 20191 the unclassified civil service. Subject to the approval of the 20192 board, the administrator shall fix the compensation of such 20193 persons other than the administrator as are necessary for the 20194 center's operation. Employee salaries and other expenses of the 20195 center shall be paid from funds budgeted and appropriated to the 20196 board by the board of county commissioners. 20197 then all the administrators jointly, shall prepare an annual 20199 estimate of the revenues and expenditures of the county board of 20200 information services and records management for the ensuing fiscal 20201 but not limited to, salaries, rental, and purchase of equipment. 20206

The board's funds shall be disbursed by the county auditor's 20207 warrant drawn on the county treasury five days after receipt of a 20208 voucher approved by a majority of that board and by a majority of 20209 the board of county commissioners. 20210

On the first Monday in April of each year the administrator 20211 of each center shall file with the county board of information 20212 services and records management and the board of county 20213 commissioners a report of the operations of the center and a 20214 statement of the center's receipts and expenditures during the 20215 preceding calendar year. 20216

(E) With the approval of the board of county commissioners, 20217 the county board of information services and records management 20218 may enter into a contract with the legislative authority of any 20219 municipal corporation, township, port authority, water or sewer 20220 district, school district, library district, county law library 20221 the cost of providing such services shall be based. All moneys 20233

However, competitive bidding is not required when any of the following applies:

as in section 4112.01 of the Revised Code. 20743

(2) In connection with any transfer of registered land that 20744

Code, the county recorder shall delete from the sectional indexes 20747 maintained under this section all references to any restrictive 20748

if any inclusion of the restrictive covenant in a transfer, 20750 rental, or lease of housing accommodations, any honoring or 20751 exercising of the restrictive covenant, or any attempt to honor or 20752 exercise the restrictive covenant constitutes an unlawful 20753 discriminatory practice under division (H)(9) of section 4112.02 20754
of the Revised Code. 20755

Sec. 317.321. (A) Not later than the first day of October of 20756 county recorder proposes to acquire, or the nature of contract 20787 county recorder has no immediate plans for the acquisition of 20789 equipment or services, the proposal shall explain the general 20790 needs of the office ~~for equipment~~ and shall state that the intent 20791 of the proposal is to reserve funds for the office's future 20792 ~~equipment~~ needs. 20793

(B) The board of county commissioners shall receive the 20794

~~a purpose other than for acquiring, leasing, or otherwise~~ 20806 ~~obtaining micrographic or other equipment or contracts for use by~~ 20807
~~the county recorder or that the amount requested is excessive as~~ 20808

Sec. 319.301. (A) The reductions required by division (D) of this section do not apply to any of the following: 20838

(1) Taxes levied at whatever rate is required to produce a specified amount of tax money, including a tax levied under 20840 20841 section 5705.199 ~~or~~, 5705.211, or 5748.09 of the Revised Code, or 20842 an amount to pay debt charges; 20843

(2) Taxes levied within the one per cent limitation imposed 20844 by Section 2 of Article XII, Ohio Constitution; 20845

(3) Taxes provided for by the charter of a municipal 20846 corporation. 20847

(B) As used in this section: 20848

(1) "Real property" includes real property owned by a 20849 railroad. 20850

(2) "Carryover property" means all real property on the 20851 current year's tax list except: 20852

(a) Land and improvements that were not taxed by the district 20853 in both the preceding year and the current year; 20854

(b) Land and improvements that were not in the same class in 20855 both the preceding year and the current year. 20856

(3) "Effective tax rate" means with respect to each class of 20857 property: 20858

(a) The sum of the total taxes that would have been charged 20859 and payable for current expenses against real property in that 20860 class if each of the district's taxes were reduced for the current 20861 year under division (D)(1) of this section without regard to the 20862 application of division (E)(3) of this section divided by 20863

(b) The taxable value of all real property in that class. 20864

(4) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and 20865 payable prior to any reduction required by section 319.302 of the 20866
Revised Code. 20867

(C) The tax commissioner shall make the determinations 20868 required by this section each year, without regard to whether a 20869 taxing district has territory in a county to which section 5715.24 20870 of the Revised Code applies for that year. Separate determinations 20871 shall be made for each of the two classes established pursuant to 20872

section 5713.041 of the Revised Code. 20873

(D) With respect to each tax authorized to be levied by each 20874 taxing district, the tax commissioner, annually, shall do both of 20875
the following: 20876

(1) Determine by what percentage, if any, the sums levied by 20877 such tax against the carryover property in each class would have 20878 to be reduced for the tax to levy the same number of dollars 20879 against such property in that class in the current year as were 20880 charged against such property by such tax in the preceding year 20881 subsequent to the reduction made under this section but before the 20882 reduction made under section 319.302 of the Revised Code. In the 20883 case of a tax levied for the first time that is not a renewal of 20884 an existing tax, the commissioner shall determine by what 20885 percentage the sums that would otherwise be levied by such tax 20886 against carryover property in each class would have to be reduced 20887 to equal the amount that would have been levied if the full rate 20888 thereof had been imposed against the total taxable value of such 20889 property in the preceding tax year. A tax or portion of a tax that 20890 is designated a replacement levy under section 5705.192 of the 20891 Revised Code is not a renewal of an existing tax for purposes of 20892 this division. 20893

(2) Certify each percentage determined in division (D)(1) of 20894 this section, as adjusted under division (E) of this section, and 20895 the class of property to which that percentage applies to the 20896 auditor of each county in which the district has territory. The 20897 auditor, after complying with section 319.30 of the Revised Code, 20898 shall reduce the sum to be levied by such tax against each parcel 20899 of real property in the district by the percentage so certified 20900 for its class. Certification shall be made by the first day of 20901 September except in the case of a tax levied for the first time, 20902 in which case certification shall be made within fifteen days of 20903 the date the county auditor submits the information necessary to 20904 make the required determination. 20905

(E)(1) As used in division (E)(2) of this section, "pre-1982 20906 joint vocational taxes" means, with respect to a class of 20907 property, the difference between the following amounts: 20908

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 20909 the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint 20910 vocational school district of which the school district is a part 20911 after making all reductions under this section; 20912

(b) The following percentage of the taxable value of all real 20913 property in that class: 20914

(i) In 1987, five one-hundredths of one per cent; 20915

(ii) In 1988, one-tenth of one per cent; 20916

(iii) In 1989, fifteen one-hundredths of one per cent; 20917

(iv) In 1990 and each subsequent year, two-tenths of one per 20918
cent. 20919

If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds 20920 the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 20921 joint vocational taxes shall be zero. 20922

As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes 20923 charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of 20924 this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or 20925 thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 20926 5705.199, 5705.213, ~~or~~ 5705.219, or 5748.09 of the Revised Code. 20927

(2) If in the case of a school district other than a joint 20928 vocational or cooperative education school district any percentage 20929 required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either 20930 class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable 20931 for current expenses to be less than two per cent of the taxable 20932 value of all real property in that class that is subject to 20933 taxation by the district, the commissioner shall determine what 20934 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 20935 payable for current expenses against that class, after all 20936 reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to 20937 equal, when combined with the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes 20938 against that class, the lesser of the following: 20939

(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized 20940 to be levied; 20941

(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that 20942 class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the 20943 reduction required by this section for that class. 20944

(3)(a) If in the case of a joint vocational school district 20945 any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this 20946 section for either class of property could cause the total taxes 20947 charged and payable for current expenses for that class to be less 20948 than the designated amount, the commissioner shall determine what 20949
percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 20950 payable for current expenses for that class, after all reductions 20951 that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal the 20952 designated amount. The auditor shall use such percentages in 20953 making the reductions required by this section for that class. 20954

(b) As used in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, the 20955 designated amount shall equal the taxable value of all real 20956 property in the class that is subject to taxation by the district 20957 times the lesser of the following: 20958

(i) Two-tenths of one per cent; 20959

(ii) The district's effective rate plus the following 20960 percentage for the year indicated: 20961

WHEN COMPUTING THE	ADD THE FOLLOWING	20962
TAXES CHARGED FOR	PERCENTAGE:	20963

1987	0.025%	20964

1992	0.15%	20969
1993	0.175%	20970
1994 and thereafter	0.2%	20971

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate at which any tax is levied. 20972

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction factor for either class of property in a taxing district located in more than one county by the last day of November because information required under division (G) of this section is unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 20991
20994
20995

tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 20996 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 20997 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 20998 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 20999 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 21000 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 21001 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 21002 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 21003 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 21004 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 21005 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 21006 year. 21007

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 21008 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 21009 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 21010 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 21011
It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 21012 ensuing tax year. 21013

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 21014 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 21015 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 21016 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 21017 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 21018 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 21019 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 21020 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 21021 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 21022 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 21023 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 21024 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 21025 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 21026 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 21027 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 21028

Sec. 319.54. (A) On all moneys collected by the county 21029 treasurer on any tax duplicate of the county, other than estate 21030 tax duplicates, and on all moneys received as advance payments of 21031 personal property and classified property taxes, the county 21032 auditor, on settlement with the treasurer and tax commissioner, on 21033 or before the date prescribed by law for such settlement or any 21034 lawful extension of such date, shall be allowed as compensation 21035 for the county auditor's services the following percentages: 21036

(1) On the first one hundred thousand dollars, two and 21037 one-half per cent; 21038

(2) On the next two million dollars, eight thousand three 21039 hundred eighteen ten-thousandths of one per cent; 21040

(3) On the next two million dollars, six thousand six hundred 21041 fifty-five ten-thousandths of one per cent; 21042

(4) On all further sums, one thousand six hundred sixty-three 21043 ten-thousandths of one per cent. 21044

If any settlement is not made on or before the date 21045 prescribed by law for such settlement or any lawful extension of 21046 such date, the aggregate compensation allowed to the auditor shall 21047 be reduced one per cent for each day such settlement is delayed 21048 after the prescribed date. No penalty shall apply if the auditor 21049 and treasurer grant all requests for advances up to ninety per 21050 cent of the settlement pursuant to section 321.34 of the Revised 21051 Code. The compensation allowed in accordance with this section on 21052 settlements made before the dates prescribed by law, or the 21053 reduced compensation allowed in accordance with this section on 21054 settlements made after the date prescribed by law or any lawful 21055 extension of such date, shall be apportioned ratably by the 21056 auditor and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue 21057 payable to the state as well as to the county, townships, 21058 municipal corporations, and school districts. 21059

(B) For the purpose of reimbursing county auditors for the 21060 expenses associated with the increased number of applications for 21061 reductions in real property taxes under sections 323.152 and 21062 4503.065 of the Revised Code that result from the amendment of 21063 those sections by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly, 21064 there shall be paid from the state's general revenue fund to the 21065 county treasury, to the credit of the real estate assessment fund 21066 created by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to 21067 one per cent of the total annual amount of property tax relief 21068 reimbursement paid to that county under sections 323.156 and 21069 4503.068 of the Revised Code for the preceding tax year. Payments 21070 made under this division shall be made at the same times and in 21071 the same manner as payments made under section 323.156 of the 21072
Revised Code. 21073

(C) From all moneys collected by the county treasurer on any 21074 tax duplicate of the county, other than estate tax duplicates, and 21075 on all moneys received as advance payments of personal property 21076 and classified property taxes, there shall be paid into the county 21077 treasury to the credit of the real estate assessment fund created 21078 by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount to be determined 21079 by the county auditor, which shall not exceed the percentages 21080 prescribed in divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section. 21081

(1) For payments made after June 30, 2007, and before 2011, 21082

(d) On all further sums not exceeding one hundred fifty 21088 million dollars, three-quarters of one per cent;	21089

(e) On amounts exceeding one hundred fifty million dollars,	21090
five hundred eighty-five thousandths of one per cent.	21091
(2) For payments made in or after 2011, the following	21092
percentages:	21093
(a) On the first five hundred thousand dollars, four per	21094
cent;	21095
(b) On the next ten million dollars, two per cent;	21096
(c) On amounts exceeding ten million five hundred thousand	21097 dollars, three-fourths of one per cent.	21098
Such compensation shall be apportioned ratably by the auditor	21099 and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue payable to	21100
the state as well as to the county, townships, municipal	21101 corporations, and school districts.	21102
(D) Each county auditor shall receive four per cent of the	21103 amount of tax collected and paid into the county treasury, on	21104 property omitted and placed by the county auditor on the tax	21105 duplicate.	21106
(E) On all estate tax moneys collected by the county	21107
treasurer, the county auditor, on settlement semiannually with the	21108

following percentages:	21111
(1) Four per cent on the first one hundred thousand dollars;	21112
(2) One-half of one per cent on all additional sums.	21113
Such percentages shall be computed upon the amount collected	21114
and reported at each semiannual settlement, and shall be for the	21115 use of the general fund of the county.	21116
(F) On all cigarette license moneys collected by the county	21117

treasurer, shall be allowed as compensation for the auditor's 21119 services in the issuing of such licenses one-half of one per cent 21120 of such moneys, to be apportioned ratably and deducted from the 21121 shares of the revenue payable to the county and subdivisions, for 21122 the use of the general fund of the county. 21123

(G) The county auditor shall charge and receive fees as 21124
follows: 21125

(1) For deeds of land sold for taxes to be paid by the 21126 purchaser, five dollars; 21127 section 319.202 of the Revised Code, one dollar, or ten cents for 21134 each one hundred dollars or fraction of one hundred dollars, 21135 whichever is greater, of the value of the real property 21136 the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax 21462 to the electors of the county at the next primary or general 21463 election in the county occurring not less than ninety days after 21464 the resolution is certified to the board. No such resolution shall 21465 board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 21478 the county at the next general election. The election shall be 21479 conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular 21480 elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election 21481 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21482 district once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 21483 election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 21484

Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 21485 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 21486
thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 21487 purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot 21488 cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of 21489 state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as 21490 a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 21491 with any other proposition submitted at the same election other 21492

result of the election shall be certified immediately after the 21495 canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 21496 commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease 21497
to levy the tax. 21498

Sec. 323.08. After certifying the tax list and duplicate 21499 classes of property of the county to the county treasurer, who 21503 shall immediately cause a schedule of such tax rates and effective 21504 rates to be published in a newspaper of ~~the type described in~~ 21505 ~~section 5721.01 of the Revised Code having~~ general circulation in 21506 the county or, in lieu of such publication, the county treasurer 21507 inserted in a conspicuous place in ~~each~~ the newspaper and shall 21521 also contain notice that any taxes paid after such date will 21522 accrue a penalty and interest and that failure to receive a tax 21523 bill will not avoid such penalty and interest. The notice shall 21524 contain a telephone number that may be called by taxpayers who 21525 have not received tax bills. 21526

At least twenty-one days prior to the date of the public auction, the clerk of court or sheriff of the county shall advertise the public auction in a newspaper of general circulation that meets the requirements of section 7.12 of the Revised Code in the county in which the land is located. The advertisement shall include the date, time, and place of the auction, the permanent parcel number of the land if a permanent parcel number system is in effect in the county as provided in section 319.28 of the Revised Code or, if a permanent parcel number system is not in effect, any other means of identifying the parcel, and a notice stating that the abandoned land is to be sold subject to the terms of sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code.

sheriff or designee may reject any and all bids not meeting the 21559 minimum bid requirements specified in this division. 21560

(C) Except as otherwise permitted under section 323.74 of the 21561 Revised Code, the successful bidder at a public auction conducted 21562 under this section shall pay the sheriff of the county or a 21563 designee of the sheriff a deposit of at least ten per cent of the 21564 purchase price in cash, or by bank draft or official bank check, 21565 at the time of the public auction, and shall pay the balance of 21566 the purchase price within thirty days after the day on which the 21567 auction was held. Notwithstanding section 321.261 of the Revised 21568 Code, with respect to any proceedings initiated pursuant to 21569 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code, from the total 21570 proceeds arising from the sale, transfer, or redemption of 21571 abandoned land, twenty per cent of such proceeds shall be 21572 deposited to the credit of the county treasurer's delinquent tax 21573 and assessment collection fund to reimburse the fund for costs 21574 paid from the fund for the transfer, redemption, or sale of 21575 abandoned land at public auction. Not more than one-half of the 21576 twenty per cent may be used by the treasurer for community 21577 development, nuisance abatement, foreclosure prevention, 21578 demolition, and related services or distributed by the treasurer 21579 to a land reutilization corporation. The balance of the proceeds, 21580 if any, shall be distributed to the appropriate political 21581 subdivisions and other taxing units in proportion to their 21582 respective claims for taxes, assessments, interest, and penalties 21583 on the land. Upon the sale of foreclosed lands, the clerk of court 21584 shall hold any surplus proceeds in excess of the impositions until 21585 the clerk receives an order of priority and amount of distribution 21586 of the surplus that are adjudicated by a court of competent 21587 jurisdiction or receives a certified copy of an agreement between 21588 the parties entitled to a share of the surplus providing for the 21589 priority and distribution of the surplus. Any party to the action 21590 claiming a right to distribution of surplus shall have a separate 21591 cause of action in the county or municipal court of the 21592 jurisdiction in which the land reposes, provided the board 21593 confirms the transfer or regularity of the sale. Any dispute over 21594 the distribution of the surplus shall not affect or revive the 21595 equity of redemption after the board confirms the transfer or 21596 sale. 21597

(D) Upon the sale or transfer of abandoned land pursuant to 21598 this section, the owner's fee simple interest in the land shall be 21599 conveyed to the purchaser. A conveyance under this division is 21600 free and clear of any liens and encumbrances of the parties named 21601 in the complaint for foreclosure attaching before the sale or 21602 transfer, and free and clear of any liens for taxes, except for 21603 federal tax liens and covenants and easements of record attaching 21604 before the sale. 21605

(E) The county board of revision shall reject the sale of 21606 abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a preponderance of 21607 the evidence that the person is delinquent in the payment of taxes 21608 levied by or pursuant to Chapter 307., 322., 324., 5737., 5739., 21609 5741., or 5743. of the Revised Code or any real property taxing 21610 provision of the Revised Code. The board also shall reject the 21611 sale of abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a 21612 preponderance of the evidence that the person is delinquent in the 21613 payment of property taxes on any parcel in the county, or to a 21614 member of any of the following classes of parties connected to 21615 that person: 21616

(1) A member of that person's immediate family; 21617

(2) Any other person with a power of attorney appointed by 21618
that person; 21619

(3) A sole proprietorship owned by that person or a member of 21620 that person's immediate family; 21621

(4) A partnership, trust, business trust, corporation, 21622 association, or other entity in which that person or a member of 21623 that person's immediate family owns or controls directly or 21624 indirectly any beneficial or legal interest. 21625

(F) If the purchase of abandoned land sold pursuant to this 21626 section or section 323.74 of the Revised Code is for less than the 21627 sum of the impositions against the abandoned land and the costs 21628 apportioned to the land under division (A) of section 323.75 of 21629 the Revised Code, then, upon the sale or transfer, all liens for 21630 taxes due at the time the deed of the property is conveyed to the 21631 purchaser following the sale or transfer, and liens subordinate to 21632 liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied and discharged. 21633

(G) If the county board of revision finds that the total of 21634 the impositions against the abandoned land are greater than the 21635 fair market value of the abandoned land as determined by the 21636 auditor's then-current valuation of that land, the board, at any 21637 final hearing under section 323.70 of the Revised Code, may order 21638 the property foreclosed and, without an appraisal or public 21639 auction, order the sheriff to execute a deed to the certificate 21640 holder or county land reutilization corporation that filed a 21641 complaint under section 323.69 of the Revised Code, or to a 21642 community development organization, school district, municipal 21643 corporation, county, or township, whichever is applicable, as 21644 provided in section 323.74 of the Revised Code. Upon a transfer 21645 under this division, all liens for taxes due at the time the deed 21646 of the property is transferred to the certificate holder, 21647
community development organization, school district, municipal 21648 corporation, county, or township following the conveyance, and 21649 liens subordinate to liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied 21650 and discharged. 21651

Sec. 323.75. (A) The county treasurer or county prosecuting 21652 attorney shall apportion the costs of the proceedings with respect 21653 to abandoned lands offered for sale at a public auction held 21654 pursuant to section 323.73 or 323.74 of the Revised Code among 21655 those lands according to actual identified costs, equally, or in 21656 proportion to the fair market values of the lands. The costs of 21657 the proceedings include the costs of conducting the title search, 21658 notifying record owners or other persons required to be notified 21659 of the pending sale, advertising the sale, and any other costs 21660 incurred by the county board of revision, county treasurer, county 21661 auditor, clerk of court, prosecuting attorney, or county sheriff 21662 in performing their duties under sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the 21663

Revised Code. 21664

(B) All costs assessed in connection with proceedings under 21665 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code may be paid after 21666 they are incurred, as follows: 21667

(1) If the abandoned land in question is purchased at public 21668 auction, from the purchaser of the abandoned land; 21669

(2) In the case of abandoned land transferred to a community 21670 development organization, school district, municipal corporation, 21671 county, or township under section 323.74 of the Revised Code, from 21672 either of the following: 21673

(a) At the discretion of the county treasurer, in whole or in 21674 part from the delinquent tax and assessment collection ~~fund funds~~ 21675 created under section 321.261 of the Revised Code, ~~in which case~~ 21676 ~~the amount shall be a prior charge to the fund before its equal~~ 21677 ~~allocation between~~ allocated equally among the respective funds of 21678 the county treasurer and of the prosecuting attorney; 21679

(b) From the community development organization, school 21680 district, municipal corporation, county, or township, whichever is 21681 applicable. 21682

(3) If the abandoned land in question is transferred to a 21683 certificate holder, from the certificate holder. 21684

(C) If a parcel of abandoned land is sold or otherwise 21685 transferred pursuant to sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised 21686 Code, the officer who conducted the sale or made the transfer, the 21687 prosecuting attorney, or the county treasurer may collect a 21688 recording fee from the purchaser or transferee of the parcel at 21689 the time of the sale or transfer and shall prepare the deed 21690 conveying title to the parcel or execute the deed prepared by the 21691 board for that purpose. That officer or the prosecuting attorney 21692 or treasurer is authorized to record on behalf of that purchaser 21693 or transferee the deed conveying title to the parcel, 21694 notwithstanding that the deed may not actually have been delivered 21695 to the purchaser or transferee prior to the recording of the deed. 21696 Receiving title to a parcel under sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the 21697 Revised Code constitutes the transferee's consent to an officer, 21698 prosecuting attorney, or county treasurer to file the deed to the 21699 parcel for recording. Nothing in this division shall be construed 21700 to require an officer, prosecuting attorney, or treasurer to file 21701 a deed or to relieve a transferee's obligation to file a deed. 21702 Upon confirmation of that sale or transfer, the deed shall be 21703 deemed delivered to the purchaser or transferee of the parcel. 21704

Sec. 324.02. For the purpose of providing additional general 21705 revenues for the county and paying the expense of administering 21706 such levy, any county may levy a county excise tax to be known as 21707 the utilities service tax on the charge for every utility service 21708 to customers within the county at a rate not to exceed two per 21709 cent of such charge. On utility service to customers engaged in 21710 business, the tax shall be imposed at a rate of one hundred fifty 21711 per cent of the rate imposed upon all other consumers within the 21712 county. The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution adopted 21713 by the board of county commissioners of the county and shall be 21714 levied at uniform rates required by this section upon all charges 21715 for utility service except as provided in section 324.03 of the Revised Code. The tax shall be levied upon the customer and shall be paid by the customer to the utility supplying the service at the time the customer pays the utility for the service. If the charge for utility service is billed to a person other than the customer at the request of such person, the tax commissioner of the state may, in accordance with section 324.04 of the Revised Code, provide for the levy of the tax against and the payment of the tax by such other person. Each utility furnishing a utility service the charge for which is subject to the tax shall set forth the tax as a separate item on each bill or statement rendered to the customer.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a utilities service tax the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, ~~the or as~~ provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second publication ~~being~~ shall be not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. No resolution levying a utilities service tax pursuant to this section of the Revised Code shall be effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless such resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency measure must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of commissioners, and shall state the reasons for such necessity. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less 21749 than ninety days after such resolution is certified to the board. 21750

No such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a 21751 majority of those voting upon it. The tax levied by such 21752 resolution shall apply to all bills rendered subsequent to the 21753 sixtieth day after the effective date of the resolution. No bills 21754 shall be rendered out of the ordinary course of business to avoid 21755 payment of the tax. 21756

Sec. 324.021. The question of repeal of a county permissive 21757 tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to section 324.02 of 21758 the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of 21759 elections of the county not less than ninety days before the 21760 general election in any year a petition requesting that an 21761 election be held on such question. Such petition shall be signed 21762 by qualified electors residing in the county equal in number to 21763 ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent 21764 gubernatorial election. 21765

board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 21767
the county at the next general election. The election shall be 21768 conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular 21769
elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election 21770 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21771
district once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 21772
election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 21773
Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 21774 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 21775
thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 21776 purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot 21777 cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of 21778
a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 21780

than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified 21782 electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the 21783 result of the election shall be certified immediately after the 21784
canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 21785
commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease 21786
to levy the tax. 21787

Sec. 325.20. (A) Except as otherwise provided by law, no 21788 elected county officer and no deputy or employee of the county 21789 shall attend, at county expense, any association meeting, 21790 convention, or training sessions conducted pursuant to section 21791 901.10 of the Revised Code, unless authorized by the board of 21792 county commissioners. Before such allowance may be made, the head 21793 of the county office desiring it shall apply to the board in 21794 writing showing the necessity of such attendance and the probable 21795 costs to the county. If a majority of the members of the board 21796 approves the application, such expenses shall be paid from the 21797 moneys appropriated to such office for traveling expenses. 21798

(B) The board of county commissioners shall approve or 21799 disapprove any travel outside this state if the travel expenses 21800 will or may be in excess of one hundred dollars and will or may be 21801 paid for from funds in either of the delinquent tax and assessment 21802 collection ~~fund~~ funds created in section 321.261 of the Revised 21803 Code or the real estate assessment fund created in section 325.31 21804 of the Revised Code. The head of the county office seeking 21805 approval shall apply to the board in writing showing the necessity 21806 of the travel and the probable costs to the county from either ~~the~~ 21807 delinquent tax and assessment collection fund or from the real 21808 estate assessment fund. If the travel is requested by a county 21809 auditor, and the board does not approve the travel, the auditor 21810 may not apply to the tax commissioner pursuant to section 5713.01 21811 of the Revised Code for an additional allowance for such travel. 21812 alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services shall be an 21864 employee of any agency with which the board has entered into a 21865 contract for the provision of services or facilities, unless the 21866 board member's employment duties with the agency consist of 21867 providing, only outside the district the board serves, services 21868

Each year each board member shall attend at least one 21886 inservice training session provided or approved by the department 21887 of mental health or the department of alcohol and drug addiction 21888 services. Such training sessions shall not be considered to be 21889 regularly scheduled meetings of the board. 21890

Each member shall be appointed for a term of four years, 21891 respectively. 21903

When a vacancy occurs, appointment for the expired or 21904 unexpired term shall be made in the same manner as an original 21905 appointment. The appointing authority shall be notified by 21906 certified mail of any vacancy and shall fill the vacancy within 21907 sixty days following that notice. 21908 prior notice, the board shall notify the appointing authority, 21924 which may vacate the appointment and appoint another person to 21925 complete the member's term. 21926

Sec. 343.08. (A) The board of county commissioners of a 22536 county solid waste management district and the board of directors 22537 of a joint solid waste management district may fix reasonable 22538 rates or charges to be paid by every person, municipal 22539 corporation, township, or other political subdivision that owns 22540 premises to which solid waste collection, storage, transfer, 22541 disposal, recycling, processing, or resource recovery service is 22542 resource recovery service. The charges shall be a lien on the 22561 property from the date they are placed upon the real property 22562 duplicate by the auditor and shall be collected in the same manner 22563 as other taxes. 22564

(2) Certifying the rates or charges to the county auditor of 22565 the county where the lots or parcels are located, who shall place 22566 them on the real property duplicate against the lots or parcels. 22567
The rates or charges are a lien on the property from the date they 22568 are placed upon the real property duplicate by the auditor and 22569 shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes. 22570

The county or joint district need not fix a rate or charge 22571 against property if the district does not operate a collection 22572 system. 22573

Where a county or joint district owns or operates a solid 22574 waste facility, either without a collection system or in 22575 conjunction therewith, the board of county commissioners or board 22576 of directors may fix reasonable rates or charges for the use of 22577 the facility by persons, municipal corporations, townships, and 22578 other political subdivisions, may contract with any public 22579 authority or person for the collection of solid wastes in any part 22580 of any district for collection, storage, disposal, transfer, 22581 recycling, processing, or resource recovery in any solid waste 22582 facility, or may lease the facility to any public authority or 22583 person. The cost of collection, storage, transfer, disposal, 22584 recycling, processing, or resource recovery under such contracts 22585 may be paid by rates or charges fixed and collected under this 22586 section or by rates and charges fixed under those contracts and 22587 collected by the contractors. 22588

All moneys collected by or on behalf of a county or joint 22589 district as rates or charges for solid waste collection, storage, 22590 transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or resource recovery 22591 service in any district shall be paid to the county treasurer in a 22592 county district or to the county treasurer or other official 22593 designated by the board of directors in a joint district and kept 22594 in a separate and distinct fund to the credit of the district. The 22595 fund shall be used for the payment of the cost of the management, 22596 maintenance, and operation of the solid waste collection or other 22597 solid waste facilities of the district and, if applicable, the 22598 payment of the cost of collecting the rates or charges of the 22599 district pursuant to division (A)(1) or (2) of this section. Prior 22600 to the approval of the district's initial solid waste management 22601 plan under section 3734.55 of the Revised Code or the issuance of 22602 an order under that section requiring the district to implement an 22603 initial plan prepared by the director, as appropriate, the fund 22604 also may be used for the purposes of division (G)(1) or (3) of 22605 section 3734.57 of the Revised Code. On and after the approval of 22606 the district's initial plan under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of 22607 the Revised Code or the issuance of an order under either of those 22608 sections, as appropriate, requiring the district to implement an 22609 initial plan prepared by the director, the fund also may be used 22610 for the purposes of divisions (G)(1) to (10) of section 3734.57 of 22611 the Revised Code. Those uses may include, in accordance with a 22612 cost allocation plan adopted under division (B) of this section, 22613 the payment of all allowable direct and indirect costs of the 22614 district, the sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering 22615 department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for the 22616 purposes of this chapter and sections 3734.52 to 3734.572 of the 22617 Revised Code. Any surplus remaining after those uses of the fund 22618 may be used for the enlargement, modification, or replacement of 22619 such facilities and for the payment of the interest and principal 22620 on bonds and bond anticipation notes issued pursuant to section 22621 343.07 of the Revised Code. In no case shall money so collected be 22622 expended otherwise than for the use and benefit of the district. 22623

A board of county commissioners or directors, instead of 22624 operating and maintaining solid waste collection or other solid 22625 waste facilities of the district with county or joint district 22626 personnel, may enter into a contract with a municipal corporation 22627 having territory within the district pursuant to which the 22628 operation and maintenance of the facilities will be performed by 22629 the municipal corporation. 22630

The products of any solid waste collection or other solid 22631 waste facility owned under this chapter shall be sold through 22632 competitive bidding in accordance with section 307.12 of the 22633 Revised Code, except when a board of county commissioners or 22634 directors determines by resolution that it is in the public 22635 interest to sell those products in a commercially reasonable 22636 manner without competitive bidding. 22637

(B) A board of county commissioners or directors may adopt a 22638 cost allocation plan that identifies, accumulates, and distributes 22639 allowable direct and indirect costs that may be paid from the fund 22640 of the district created in division (A) of this section and 22641 prescribes methods for allocating those costs. The plan shall 22642 authorize payment from the fund for only those costs incurred by 22643 the district, the sanitary engineer or sanitary engineering 22644 department, or a federal or state grant program, and those costs 22645 incurred by the general and other funds of the county for a common 22646 or joint purpose, that are necessary and reasonable for the proper 22647 and efficient administration of the district under this chapter 22648 and sections 3734.52 to 3734.572 of the Revised Code. The plan 22649 shall not authorize payment from the fund of any general 22650 government expense required to carry out the overall governmental 22651 responsibilities of a county. The plan shall conform to United 22652 States office of management and budget Circular A-87 "Cost 22653 Principles for State and Local Governments," published January 15, 22654 1983. 22655

(C) A board of county commissioners or directors shall fix 22656 rates or charges, or enter into contracts fixing the rates or 22657 charges to be collected by the contractor, for solid waste 22658 collection, storage, transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or 22659 resource recovery services at a public meeting held in accordance 22660 with section 121.22 of the Revised Code. In addition to fulfilling 22661 the requirements of section 121.22 of the Revised Code, the board, 22662 before fixing or changing rates or charges for solid waste 22663 collection, storage, transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or 22664 resource recovery services, or before entering into a contract 22665 that fixes rates or charges to be collected by the contractor 22666 providing the services, shall hold at least three public hearings 22667 on the proposed rates, charges, or contract. Prior to the first 22668 public hearing, the board shall publish notice of the public 22669 hearings as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code or once a 22670 week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 22671 circulation in the county or counties that would be affected by 22672 the proposed rates, charges, or contract. The notice shall include 22673 a listing of the proposed rates or charges to be fixed and 22674 collected by the board or fixed pursuant to the contract and 22675 collected by the contractor, and the dates, time, and place of 22676 each of the three hearings thereon. The board shall hear any 22677 person who wishes to testify on the proposed rates, charges, or 22678 contract. 22679

Sec. 345.03. A copy of any resolution adopted under section 22680 345.01 of the Revised Code shall be certified within five days by 22681 the taxing authority and not later than four p. m. of the 22682 ninetieth day before the day of the election, to the county board 22683 of elections, and such board shall submit the proposal to the 22684 electors of the subdivision at the succeeding general election. 22685
The board shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission 22686 of such question to the electors of the subdivision, and the 22687 election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in like 22688 manner as regular elections in such subdivision. 22689

Notice of the election shall be published once in a newspaper 22690 of general circulation in the subdivision, ~~at least once~~, not less 22691 than two weeks prior to such election. The notice shall set out 22692 the purpose of the proposed increase in rate, the amount of the 22693 increase expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred 22694 dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of 22695 property valuation, the number of years during which such increase 22696 will be in effect, and the time and place of holding such 22697 election. 22698

Sec. 349.03. (A) Proceedings for the organization of a new 22699 community authority shall be initiated by a petition filed by the 22700 developer in the office of the clerk of the board of county 22701 commissioners of one of the counties in which all or part of the 22702 proposed new community district is located. Such petition shall be 22703 signed by the developer and may be signed by each proximate city. 22704
The legislative authorities of each such proximate city shall act 22705 in behalf of such city. Such petition shall contain: 22706

(1) The name of the proposed new community authority; 22707

(2) The address where the principal office of the authority 22708 will be located or the manner in which the location will be 22709 selected; 22710

(3) A map and a full and accurate description of the 22711 boundaries of the new community district together with a 22712 description of the properties within such boundaries, if any, 22713 which will not be included in the new community district. Unless 22714 the district is wholly contained within municipalities, the total 22715 acreage included in such district shall not be less than one 22716 thousand acres, all of which acreage shall be owned by, or under 22717 the control through leases of at least seventy-five years' 22718 duration, options, or contracts to purchase, of the developer, if 22719 the developer is a private entity. Such acreage shall be 22720 developable as one functionally interrelated community. In the 22721 case of a new community authority established on or after the 22722 effective date of this amendment and before January 1, 2012, such 22723 leases may be of not less than forty years' duration, and the 22724 acreage may be developable so that the community is one 22725 functionally interrelated community. 22726

(4) A statement setting forth the zoning regulations proposed 22727 for zoning the area within the boundaries of the new community 22728 district for comprehensive development as a new community, and if 22729 the area has been zoned for such development, a certified copy of 22730 the applicable zoning regulations therefor; 22731

(5) A current plan indicating the proposed development 22732 program for the new community district, the land acquisition and 22733 land development activities, community facilities, services 22734 proposed to be undertaken by the new community authority under 22735 such program, the proposed method of financing such activities and 22736 services, including a description of the bases, timing, and manner 22737 of collecting any proposed community development charges, and the 22738 projected total residential population of, and employment within, 22739 the new community; 22740

(6) A suggested number of members, consistent with section 22741
349.04 of the Revised Code, for the board of trustees; 22742

(7) A preliminary economic feasibility analysis, including 22743 the area development pattern and demand, location and proposed new 22744 community district size, present and future socio-economic 22745 conditions, public services provision, financial plan, and the 22746 developer's management capability; 22747

(8) A statement that the development will comply with all 22748 applicable environmental laws and regulations. 22749

Upon the filing of such petition, the organizational board of 22750 commissioners shall determine whether such petition complies with 22751 the requirements of this section as to form and substance. The 22752 board in subsequent proceedings may at any time permit the 22753 petition to be amended in form and substance to conform to the 22754 facts by correcting any errors in the description of the proposed 22755 new community district or in any other particular. 22756

Upon the determination of the organizational board of 22757 commissioners that a sufficient petition has been filed in 22758 accordance with this section, the board shall fix the time and 22759 place of a hearing on the petition for the establishment of the 22760 proposed new community authority. Such hearing shall be held not 22761 less than ninety-five nor more than one hundred fifteen days after 22762 the petition filing date, except that if the petition has been 22763 signed by all proximate cities, such hearing shall be held not 22764 less than thirty nor more than forty-five days after the petition 22765 filing date. The clerk of the board of county commissioners with 22766 which the petition was filed shall give notice thereof by 22767 publication once each week for three consecutive weeks, or as 22768 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in a newspaper of 22769 general circulation in any county of which a portion is within the 22770 proposed new community district. Such clerk shall also give 22771 written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing and 22772 furnish a certified copy of the petition to the clerk of the 22773 legislative authority of each proximate city which has not signed 22774 such petition. In the event that the legislative authority of a 22775 proximate city which did not sign the petition does not approve by 22776 ordinance, resolution, or motion the establishment of the proposed 22777 new community authority and does not deliver such ordinance, 22778 resolution, or motion to the clerk of the board of county 22779 commissioners with which the petition was filed within ninety days 22780 following the date of the first publication of the notice of the 22781 public hearing, the organizational board of commissioners shall 22782 cancel such public hearing and terminate the proceedings for the 22783 establishment of the new community authority. 22784

Upon the hearing, if the organizational board of 22785 commissioners determines by resolution that the proposed new 22786 community district will be conducive to the public health, safety, 22787 convenience, and welfare, and is intended to result in the 22788 development of a new community, the board shall by its resolution, 22789 entered of record in its journal and the journal of the board of 22790 county commissioners with which the petition was filed, declare 22791 the new community authority to be organized and a body politic and 22792 corporate with the corporate name designated in the resolution, 22793 and define the boundary of the new community district. In 22794 addition, the resolution shall provide the method of selecting the 22795 board of trustees of the new community authority and fix the 22796 surety for their bonds in accordance with section 349.04 of the 22797

Revised Code. 22798

If the organizational board of commissioners finds that the 22799 establishment of the district will not be conducive to the public 22800 health, safety, convenience, or welfare, or is not intended to 22801 result in the development of a new community, it shall reject the 22802 petition thereby terminating the proceedings for the establishment 22803 of the new community authority. 22804

(B) At any time after the creation of a new community 22805 authority, the developer may file an application with the clerk of 22806 the board of county commissioners of the county in which the 22807 original petition was filed, setting forth a general description 22808 of territory it desires to add or to delete from such district, 22809 that such change will be conducive to the public health, safety, 22810 convenience, and welfare, and will be consistent with the 22811 development of a new community and will not jeopardize the plan of 22812 the new community. If the developer is not a municipal 22813 corporation, port authority, or county, all of such an addition to 22814 such a district shall be owned by, or under the control through 22815 leases of at least seventy-five years' duration, options, or 22816 contracts to purchase, of the developer. In the case of a new 22817 community authority established on or after the effective date of 22818 this amendment and before January 1, 2012, such leases may be of 22819 application, the organizational board of commissioners shall 22821 follow the same procedure as required by this section in relation 22822 to the petition for the establishment of the proposed new 22823 community. 22824

(C) If all or any part of the new community district is 22825 annexed to one or more existing municipal corporations, their 22826 legislative authorities may appoint persons to replace any 22827 appointed citizen member of the board of trustees. The number of 22828 such trustees to be replaced by the municipal corporation shall be 22829 the number, rounded to the lowest integer, bearing the 22830 proportionate relationship to the number of existing appointed 22831 citizen members as the acreage of the new community district 22832 within such municipal corporation bears to the total acreage of 22833 the new community district. If any such municipal corporation 22834 chooses to replace an appointed citizen member, it shall do so by 22835 ordinance, the term of the trustee being replaced shall terminate 22836 thirty days from the date of passage of such ordinance, and the 22837 trustee to be replaced shall be determined by lot. Each newly 22838 appointed member shall assume the term of the member's 22839 predecessor. 22840

of expiration, subject to section 501.04 of the Revised Code, the 22844 land may be leased again by the board of education of the school 22845 district for whose benefit the land has been allocated or be 22846 disinterested appraisers. Notification of the sale of these lands, 22851 including the minerals in or on these or other lands, shall be 22852 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in a newspaper of 22854 general circulation in the county in which the land is located. No 22855 land. 22857

Sec. 503.05. When a boundary line between townships is in 22858 dispute, the board of county commissioners, upon application of 22859 the board of township trustees of one of such townships, and upon 22860 notice in writing to the board of township trustees of such civil 22861 township, and on thirty days' public notice printed in a newspaper 22862 ~~published~~ of general circulation within the county, shall 22863 establish such boundary line and make a record thereof as provided 22864 by section 503.04 of the Revised Code. 22865

Sec. 503.162. (A) After certification of a resolution as 22866 provided in section 503.161 of the Revised Code, the board of 22867 elections shall submit the question of whether the township's name 22868 shall be changed to the electors of the unincorporated area of the 22869 township in accordance with division (C) of that section, and the 22870 ballot language shall be substantially as follows: 22871

"Shall the township of (name) change its name to 22872
..... (proposed name)? 22873

..... For name change 22874

..... Against name change" 22875

(B)(1) At least forty-five days before the election on this 22876 question, the board of township trustees shall provide notice of 22877 the election and an explanation of the proposed name change in a 22878 newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 22879 two consecutive weeks ~~and~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the 22880 Revised Code. The board of township trustees shall post the notice 22881 and explanation in five conspicuous places in the unincorporated 22882 area of the township. 22883

(2) If the board of elections operates and maintains a web 22884 site, notice of the election and an explanation of the proposed 22885 name change shall be posted on that web site for at least thirty 22886 days before the election on this question. 22887

(C) If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition of 22888 changing the township's name is in the affirmative, the name 22889 change is adopted and becomes effective ninety days after the 22890 board of elections certifies the election results to the fiscal 22891 officer of the township. Upon receipt of the certification of the 22892 election results from the board of elections, the fiscal officer 22893 of the township shall send a copy of that certification to the 22894 secretary of state. 22895

(D) A change in the name of a township shall not alter the 22896 rights or liabilities of the township as previously named. 22897

Sec. 503.41. (A) A board of township trustees, by resolution, 22898 may regulate and require the registration of massage 22899 establishments and their employees within the unincorporated 22900 territory of the township. In accordance with sections 503.40 to 22901 503.49 of the Revised Code, for that purpose, the board, by a 22902 majority vote of all members, may adopt, amend, administer, and 22903 enforce regulations within the unincorporated territory of the 22904 township. 22905

(B) A board may adopt regulations and amendments under this 22906 section only after public hearing at not fewer than two regular 22907 sessions of the board. The board shall cause to be published in ~~at~~ 22908 ~~least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the township, or 22909 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, notice of the 22910 for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings. The board shall 22912 make available proposed regulations or amendments to the public at 22913 the office of the board. 22914

(C) Regulations or amendments adopted by the board are 22915 effective thirty days after the date of adoption unless, within 22916 thirty days after the adoption of the regulations or amendments, 22917 the township fiscal officer receives a petition, signed by a 22918 number of qualified electors residing in the unincorporated area 22919 of the township equal to not less than ten per cent of the total 22920 vote cast for all candidates for governor in the area at the most 22921 recent general election at which a governor was elected, 22922 requesting the board to submit the regulations or amendments to 22923 the electors of the area for approval or rejection at the next 22924 primary or general election occurring at least ninety days after 22925 the board receives the petition. 22926

No regulation or amendment for which the referendum vote has 22927 been requested is effective unless a majority of the votes cast on 22928 the issue is in favor of the regulation or amendment. Upon 22929 certification by the board of elections that a majority of the 22930 votes cast on the issue was in favor of the regulation or 22931 amendment, the regulation or amendment takes immediate effect. 22932

(D) The board shall make available regulations it adopts or 22933 amends to the public at the office of the board and shall cause to 22934 be published once a notice of the availability of the regulations 22935 in ~~at least one~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the township 22936 within ten days after their adoption or amendment. 22937

(E) Nothing in sections 503.40 to 503.49 of the Revised Code 22938 shall be construed to allow a board of township trustees to 22939 regulate the practice of any limited branch of medicine specified 22940 in section 4731.15 of the Revised Code or the practice of 22941 providing therapeutic massage by a licensed physician, a licensed 22942 chiropractor, a licensed podiatrist, a licensed nurse, or any 22943 other licensed health professional. As used in this division, 22944 "licensed" means licensed, certified, or registered to practice in 22945

this state. 22946

Sec. 504.02. (A) After certification of a resolution as 22947 provided in division (A) of section 504.01 of the Revised Code, 22948 the board of elections shall submit the question of whether to 22949 adopt a limited home rule government to the electors of the 22950 unincorporated area of the township, and the ballot language shall 22951 be substantially as follows: 22952

"Shall the township of (name) adopt a limited 22953 home rule government, under which government the board of township 22954 trustees, by resolution, may exercise limited powers of local 22955 self-government and limited police powers? 22956
..... For adoption of a limited home rule government 22957
..... Against adoption of a limited home rule government" 22958

(B)(1) At least forty-five days before the election on this 22959 question, the board of township trustees shall have notice of the 22960 election and a description of the proposed limited home rule 22961 government published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 22962 township once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in 22963 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and shall have the notice and 22964 description posted in five conspicuous places in the 22965 unincorporated area of the township. 22966

(2) If a board of elections operates and maintains a web 22967 site, notice of the election and a description of the proposed 22968 limited home rule government shall be posted on that web site for 22969 at least thirty days before the election on this question. 22970

(C) If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition of 22971 adopting a limited home rule government is in the affirmative, 22972 that government is adopted and becomes the government of the 22973 township on the first day of January immediately following the election. 22974 22975

Sec. 504.03. (A)(1) If a limited home rule government is 22976 adopted pursuant to section 504.02 of the Revised Code, it shall 22977 remain in effect for at least three years except as otherwise 22978 provided in division (B) of this section. At the end of that 22979 period, if the board of township trustees determines that that 22980 government is not in the best interests of the township, it may 22981 adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the 22982 electors of the unincorporated area of the township the question 22983 of whether the township should continue the limited home rule 22984 government. The question shall be voted upon at the next general 22985 election occurring at least ninety days after the certification of 22986 the resolution to the board of elections. After certification of 22987 the resolution, the board of elections shall submit the question 22988 to the electors of the unincorporated area of the township, and 22989 the ballot language shall be substantially as follows: 22990

"Shall the township of (name) continue the 22991 limited home rule government under which it is operating? 22992
..... For continuation of the limited home rule government 22993
..... Against continuation of the limited home rule government" 22994

(2)(a) At least forty-five days before the election on the 22995 question of continuing the limited home rule government, the board 22996 of township trustees shall have notice of the election published 22997 in a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week 22998 for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 22999 Revised Code, and shall have the notice posted in five conspicuous 23000 places in the unincorporated area of the township. 23001

(b) If a board of elections operates and maintains a web 23002 site, notice of the election shall be posted on that web site for 23003 at least thirty days before the election on the question of 23004 continuing the limited home rule government. 23005

(B) The electors of a township that has adopted a limited 23006 home rule government may propose at any time by initiative 23007 petition, in accordance with section 504.14 of the Revised Code, a 23008 resolution submitting to the electors in the unincorporated area 23009 of the township, in an election, the question set forth in 23010 division (A)(1) of this section. 23011

(C) If a majority of the votes cast under division (A) or (B) 23012 of this section on the proposition of continuing the limited home 23013 rule government is in the negative, that government is terminated 23014 effective on the first day of January immediately following the 23015 election, and a limited home rule government shall not be adopted 23016 in the unincorporated area of the township pursuant to section 23017 504.02 of the Revised Code for at least three years after that 23018 date. 23019

(D) If a limited home rule government is terminated under 23020 this section, the board of township trustees immediately shall 23021 adopt a resolution repealing all resolutions adopted pursuant to 23022 this chapter that are not authorized by any other section of the 23023 Revised Code outside this chapter, effective on the first day of 23024
January immediately following the election described in division 23025
(A) or (B) of this section. However, no resolution adopted under 23026 this division shall affect or impair the obligations of the 23027 township under any security issued or contracts entered into by 23028 the township in connection with the financing of any water supply 23029 facility or sewer improvement under sections 504.18 to 504.20 of 23030 the Revised Code or the authority of the township to collect or 23031 enforce any assessments or other revenues constituting security 23032 for or source of payments of debt service charges of those 23033 securities. 23034

(E) Upon the termination of a limited home rule government 23035 under this section, if the township had converted its board of 23036 township trustees to a five-member board before September 26, 23037 2003, the current board member who received the lowest number of 23038 votes of the current board members who were elected at the most 23039 recent election for township trustees, and the current board 23040 member who received the lowest number of votes of the current 23041 board members who were elected at the second most recent election 23042 for township trustees, shall cease to be township trustees on the 23043 date that the limited home rule government terminates. Their 23044 offices likewise shall cease to exist at that time, and the board 23045 shall continue as a three-member board as provided in section 23046

505.01 of the Revised Code. 23047

Sec. 504.12. No resolution and no section or numbered or 23048 lettered division of a section shall be revised or amended unless 23049 the new resolution contains the entire resolution, section, or 23050 division as revised or amended, and the resolution, section, or 23051 division so amended shall be repealed. This requirement does not 23052 prevent the amendment of a resolution by the addition of a new 23053 section, or division, and in this case the full text of the former 23054 resolution need not be set forth, nor does this section prevent 23055 repeals by implication. Except in the case of a codification or 23056 recodification of resolutions, a separate vote shall be taken on 23057 each resolution proposed to be amended. Resolutions that have been 23058 introduced and have received their first reading or their first 23059 and second readings, but have not been voted on for passage, may 23060 be amended or revised by a majority vote of the members of the 23061 board of township trustees, and the amended or revised resolution 23062 need not receive additional readings. 23063

The board of township trustees of a limited home rule 23064 township may revise, codify, and publish in book form the 23065 resolutions of the township in the same manner as provided in 23066 section 731.23 of the Revised Code for municipal corporations. 23067 Resolutions adopted by the board shall be published in the same 23068 manner as provided by sections 731.21, 731.22, 731.24, 731.25, and 23069 731.26 of the Revised Code for municipal corporations, except that 23070 they shall be published in ~~newspapers circulating~~ a newspaper of 23071 general circulation within the township. The fiscal officer of the 23072 township shall perform the duties that the clerk of the 23073 legislative authority of a municipal corporation is required to 23074 perform under those sections. 23075

The procedures provided in this section apply only to 23076 resolutions adopted pursuant to a township's limited home rule 23077 powers as authorized by this chapter. 23078

Sec. 504.16. (A) Each township that adopts a limited home 23079 rule government shall promptly do one of the following: 23080

(1) Establish a police district pursuant to section 505.48 of 23081 the Revised Code, except that the district shall include all of 23082 the unincorporated area of the township and no other territory; 23083

(2) Establish a joint ~~township~~ police district pursuant to 23084
section ~~505.481~~ 505.482 of the Revised Code; 23085

(3) Contract pursuant to section 311.29, 505.43, or 505.50 of 23086 the Revised Code to obtain police protection services, including 23087 the enforcement of township resolutions adopted under this 23088 chapter, on a regular basis. 23089

(B) A township that has taken an action described in division 23090
(A) of this section before adopting a limited home rule government 23091 need not take any other such action upon adopting that government. 23092

(C) The requirement that a township take one of the actions 23093 described in divisions (A)(1), (2), and (3) of this section does 23094 not prevent a township that acts under division (A)(1) or (2) of 23095 this section from contracting under division (A)(3) of this 23096 section to obtain additional police protection services on a 23097 regular basis. 23098

Sec. 504.21. (A) The board of township trustees of a township 23099 that has adopted a limited home rule government may, for the 23100 unincorporated territory in the township, adopt, amend, and 23101 rescind rules establishing technically feasible and economically 23102 reasonable standards to achieve a level of management and 23103 conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion of 23104 the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 23105 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 23106
filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 23107 developed in the township for nonfarm commercial, industrial, 23108 residential, or other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for 23109 determination of the acceptability of those management and 23110 conservation practices. The rules shall be designed to implement 23111 the applicable areawide waste treatment management plan prepared 23112 under section 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 23113
Stat. 816 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement 23114 phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant 23115 discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. 23116
The rules to implement phase II of the storm water program of the 23117 national pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be 23118 inconsistent with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than 23119 the rules or regulations adopted by the environmental protection 23120 agency under 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this 23121 section shall not apply inside the limits of municipal 23122 corporations, to lands being used in a strip mine operation as 23123 defined in section 1513.01 of the Revised Code, or to land being 23124 used in a surface mine operation as defined in section 1514.01 of 23125
the Revised Code. 23126

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 23127
file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 23128 management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 23129
otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 23130

acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 23131
unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 23132
utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 23133
the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 23134
following: 23135

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 23136 agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 23137

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and 23138
approval or disapproval of the plans; 23139

(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a 23140
person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other 23141
project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a 23142 person whose plans have been disapproved; 23143

(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits; 23144

(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the 23145
denial of a permit. 23146

Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt 23147
from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules 23148
adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section 23149
may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit 23150
processing, and field inspections. 23151

No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, 23152
transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project 23153 undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in 23154
accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control 23155
policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the 23156 division of soil and water resources in the department of natural 23157
resources. 23158

(B) Rules or amendments may be adopted under this section 23159
only after public hearings at not fewer than two regular sessions 23160 of the board of township trustees. The board shall cause to be 23161 published, in a newspaper of general circulation in the township, 23162 notice of the public hearings, including time, date, and place, 23163

once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings, or 23164
as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The proposed 23165 rules or amendments shall be made available by the board to the 23166
public at the board office or other location indicated in the 23167
notice. The rules or amendments shall take effect on the 23168
thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 23169

(C) The board of township trustees may employ personnel to 23170 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 23171
under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 23172 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 23173
management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 23174 with one or more political subdivisions, other township officials, 23175 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 23176
obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 23177
sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 23178
for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 23179

(D) The board of township trustees or any duly authorized 23180 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 23181
or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 23182
the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 23183
whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 23184
section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 23185 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 23186
may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 23187
county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 23188
section. 23190

(E)(1) If the board of township trustees or its duly 23191 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 23192

adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 23193
issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 23194
obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 23195
and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 23196 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 23197 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 23198 violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 23199
representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 23200
violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 23201
elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 23202
violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 23203
representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 23204 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 23205 not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 23206
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 23207
or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 23208
after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 23209 attorney of the county in which the township is located if, in the 23210 opinion of the prosecuting attorney, the violation is egregious. 23211

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 23212 authorized representative shall request, in writing, the 23213 prosecuting attorney to seek an injunction or other appropriate 23214 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 23215 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules adopted under 23216 this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an injunction or 23217 other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, the court of 23218 common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 23219 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 23220 assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 23221 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop work 23222 order issued under this section shall be considered a separate 23223 violation subject to a civil fine. 23224

modifications or replacements;	23644
(5) Caulking and weatherstripping;	23645
(6) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures to	23646
increase the energy efficiency of the system without increasing	23647
the overall illumination of a facility, unless an increase in	23648
illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or	23649
local building code for the proposed lighting system;	23650
(7) Energy recovery systems;	23651
(8) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of	23652
energy such as heat, as well as electricity, for use primarily	23653 within a building or complex of buildings;	23654
(9) Any other modification, installation, or remodeling	23655
approved by the board of township trustees as an energy	23656
conservation measure.	23657
(B) For the purpose of evaluating township buildings for	23658 energy conservation measures, a township may contract with an	23659 architect, professional engineer, energy services company, 23660 contractor, or other person experienced in the design and 23661 implementation of energy conservation measures for a report that 23662 analyzes the buildings' energy needs and presents recommendations 23663 for building installations, modifications of existing 23664 installations, or building remodeling that would significantly 23665 reduce energy consumption in the buildings owned by that township. 23666

The report shall include estimates of all costs of the 23667 installations, modifications, or remodeling, including costs of 23668 design, engineering, installation, maintenance, and repairs, and 23669 estimates of the amounts by which energy consumption could be 23670 reduced. 23671

(C) A township desiring to implement energy conservation 23672 measures may proceed under either of the following methods: 23673

(1) Using a report or any part of a report prepared under 23674 division (B) of this section, advertise for bids and comply with 23675 the bidding procedures set forth in sections 307.86 to 307.92 of 23676
the Revised Code; 23677

(2) Request proposals from at least three vendors for the 23678 implementation of energy conservation measures. Prior to sending 23679 any installer of energy conservation measures a copy of any such 23680 request, the township shall advertise its intent to request 23681 proposals for the installation of energy conservation measures in 23682 a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 23683 two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 23684 Revised Code. The notice shall state that the township intends to 23685 request proposals for the installation of energy conservation 23686 measures; indicate the date, which shall be at least ten days 23687 after the second publication, on which the request for proposals 23688 will be mailed to installers of energy conservation measures; and 23689 state that any installer of energy conservation measures 23690 interested in receiving the request for proposal shall submit 23691 written notice to the township not later than noon of the day on 23692 which the request for proposal will be mailed. 23693

Upon receiving the proposals, the township shall analyze them 23694 and select the proposal or proposals most likely to result in the 23695 greatest energy savings considering the cost of the project and 23696 the township's ability to pay for the improvements with current 23697 revenues or by financing the improvements. The awarding of a 23698 contract to install energy conservation measures under division 23699 (C)(2) of this section shall be conditioned upon a finding by the 23700 township that the amount of money spent on energy savings measures 23701 is not likely to exceed the amount of money the township would 23702 save in energy and operating costs over ten years or a lesser 23703 period as determined by the township or, in the case of contracts 23704 for cogeneration systems, over five years or a lesser period as 23705 determined by the township. Nothing in this section prohibits a 23706 township from rejecting all proposals or from selecting more than 23707 one proposal. 23708

(D) A board of township trustees may enter into an 23709 installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of 23710 energy conservation measures. Any provisions of those installment 23711 payment contracts that deal with interest charges and financing 23712 terms shall not be subject to the competitive bidding procedures 23713 of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. Unless otherwise approved 23714 by a resolution of the board, an installment payment contract 23715 entered into by a board of township trustees under this section 23716 shall require the board to contract in accordance with the 23717 procedures set forth in section 307.86 of the Revised Code for the 23718 installation, modification, or remodeling of energy conservation 23719 measures pursuant to this section. 23720

(E) The board may issue securities of the township specifying 23721 the terms of the purchase and securing the deferred payments, 23722 payable at the times provided and bearing interest at a rate not 23723 exceeding the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of the Revised Code. The maximum maturity of the securities shall be as provided in division (B)(7)(g) of section 133.20 of the Revised Code. The securities may contain an option for prepayment and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. Revenues derived from local taxes or otherwise, for the purpose of conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses of the township, may be applied to the payment of interest and the retirement of the securities. The securities may be sold at private sale or given to the contractor under the installment payment contract authorized by division (D) of this section.

(F) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in the calculation of the net indebtedness of a township under section 133.09 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 505.267. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Lease-purchase agreement" has the same meaning as a lease with an option to purchase.

(2) "Public obligation" has the same meaning as in section 133.01 of the Revised Code.

(B) For any purpose for which a board of township trustees, ~~or a board of trustees of a joint township~~ police district board, a township fire district, a joint fire district, or a fire and ambulance district is authorized to acquire real or personal property, that board may enter into a lease-purchase agreement in accordance with this section to acquire the property. The board's resolution authorizing the lease-purchase agreement may provide for the issuance of certificates of participation or other evidences of fractionalized interests in the lease-purchase agreement, for the purpose of financing, or refinancing or refunding, any public obligation that financed or refinanced the acquisition of the property. Sections 9.94, 133.03, and 133.30 of the Revised Code shall apply to any such fractionalized interests. 23755

The lease-purchase agreement shall provide for a series of 23756 terms in which no term extends beyond the end of the fiscal year 23757 of the township or district in which that term commences. In 23758 total, the terms provided for in the agreement shall be for not 23759 more than the useful life of the real or personal property that is 23760 the subject of the agreement. A property's useful life shall be 23761 determined either by the maximum number of installment payments 23762 permitted under the statute that authorizes the board to acquire 23763 the property or, if there is no such provision, by the maximum 23764 number of years to maturity provided for the issuance of bonds in 23765 division (B) of section 133.20 of the Revised Code for that 23766 property. If the useful life cannot be determined under either of 23767 those statutes, it shall be estimated as provided in division (C) 23768 of section 133.20 of the Revised Code. 23769

The lease-purchase agreement shall provide that, at the end 23770 of the final term in the agreement, if all obligations of the 23771 township or district have been satisfied, the title to the leased 23772 property shall vest in the township or district executing the 23773 lease-purchase agreement, if that title has not vested in the 23774 township or district before or during the lease terms; except that 23775 the lease-purchase agreement may require the township or district 23776 to pay an additional lump sum payment as a condition of obtaining 23777 that title. 23778

(C) A board of trustees that enters into a lease-purchase 23779 agreement under this section may do any of the following with the 23780 property that is the subject of the agreement: 23781

(1) If the property is personal property, assign the board's 23782 rights to that property; 23783

(2) Grant the lessor a security interest in the property; 23784

(3) If the property is real property, grant leases, 23785 easements, or licenses for underlying land or facilities under the 23786 board's control for terms not exceeding five years beyond the 23787 final term of the lease-purchase agreement. 23788

(D) The authority granted in this section is in addition to, 23789 and not in derogation of, any other financing authority provided 23790 by law. 23791

Sec. 505.28. The board of township trustees may create a 23792 waste disposal district under sections 505.27 to 505.33 of the 23793 Revised Code, by a unanimous vote of the board and give notice 23794 thereof by a publication in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 23795 circulation in the township. If, within thirty days after such 23796 publication, a protest petition is filed with the board, signed by 23797 at least fifty per cent of the electors residing in the district, 23798 the act of the board in creating such district shall be void. If a 23799 petition is filed with the board asking for the creation of such a 23800 district in the township, accompanied by a map clearly showing the 23801 boundaries of such district, and signed by at least sixty-five per 23802 cent of the electors residing therein, with addresses of such 23803 signers, the board shall, within sixty days, create such a 23804 district. 23805

Each district shall be given a name, and the entire cost of 23806 any necessary equipment and labor shall be apportioned against 23807 each district by the respective boards. 23808

Sec. 505.373. The board of township trustees may, by 23809 resolution, adopt by incorporation by reference a standard code 23810 pertaining to fire, fire hazards, and fire prevention prepared and 23811 promulgated by the state or any department, board, or other agency 23812 of the state, or any such code prepared and promulgated by a 23813 public or private organization that publishes a model or standard 23814
code. 23815

After the adoption of the code by the board, a notice clearly identifying the code, stating the purpose of the code, and stating that a complete copy of the code is on file with the township fiscal officer for inspection by the public and also on file in the law library of the county in which the township is located and that the fiscal officer has copies available for distribution to the public at cost, shall be posted by the fiscal officer in five conspicuous places in the township for thirty days before becoming effective. The notice required by this section shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for three consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the adopting township amends or deletes any provision of the code, the notice shall contain a brief summary of the deletion or amendment.

Sec. 505.43. In order to obtain police protection, or to obtain additional police protection, any township may enter into a contract with one or more townships, municipal corporations, park districts created pursuant to section 511.18 or 1545.01 of the Revised Code, ~~or~~ county sheriffs, joint police districts, or with a governmental entity of an adjoining state upon any terms that are agreed to by them, for services of police departments or use of police equipment, or the interchange of the service of police departments or use of police equipment within the several territories of the contracting subdivisions, if the contract is first authorized by respective boards of township trustees or other legislative bodies. The cost of the contract may be paid for from the township general fund or from funds received pursuant to the passage of a levy authorized pursuant to division (J) of 23848 section 5705.19 and section 5705.25 of the Revised Code. 23849

Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code, insofar as it is 23850 applicable to the operation of police departments, applies to the 23851 contracting political subdivisions and police department members 23852 when the members are rendering service outside their own 23853 subdivision pursuant to the contract. 23854

Police department members acting outside the subdivision in 23855 which they are employed may participate in any pension or 23856 indemnity fund established by their employer to the same extent as 23857 while acting within the employing subdivision, and are entitled to 23858 all the rights and benefits of Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, 23859 to the same extent as while performing service within the 23860 subdivision. 23861

The contract may provide for a fixed annual charge to be paid 23862 at the times agreed upon and stipulated in the contract. 23863

Sec. 505.48. (A) The board of township trustees of any 23864 township may, by resolution adopted by two-thirds of the members 23865 of the board, create a township police district comprised of all 23866 or a portion of the unincorporated territory of the township as 23867 the resolution may specify. If the township police district does 23868 not include all of the unincorporated territory of the township, 23869 the resolution creating the district shall contain a complete and 23870 accurate description of the territory of the district and a 23871 separate and distinct name for the district. 23872

At any time not less than one hundred twenty days after a 23873 township police district is created and operative, the territorial 23874 limits of the district may be altered in the manner provided in 23875 division (B) of this section or, if applicable, as provided in 23876
section 505.482 of the Revised Code. 23877

(B) Except as otherwise provided in section ~~505.482~~ 505.481 23878 of the Revised Code, the territorial limits of a township police 23879 district may be altered by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds 23880 vote of the board of township trustees. If the township police 23881 district imposes a tax, any territory proposed for addition to the 23882 district shall become part of the district only after all of the 23883 following have occurred: 23884

(1) Adoption by two-thirds vote of the board of township 23885 trustees of a resolution approving the expansion of the 23886 territorial limits of the district; 23887

(2) Adoption by a two-thirds vote of the board of township 23888

the additional territory; 23890

(3) Approval of the tax by the electors of the territory 23891

Each resolution of the board adopted under division (B)(2) of 23893 this section shall state the name of the township police district, 23894 a description of the territory to be added, and the rate and 23895 termination date of the tax, which shall be the rate and 23896 termination date of the tax currently in effect in the district. 23897

The board of trustees shall certify each resolution adopted 23898 under division (B)(2) of this section to the board of elections in 23899 accordance with section 5705.19 of the Revised Code. The election 23900 required under division (B)(3) of this section shall be held, 23901 canvassed, and certified in the manner provided for the submission 23902 of tax levies under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except 23903 that the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 23904

"Shall the territory within 23905 (description of the proposed territory to be added) be added to 23906
..... (name) township police district, and a property 23907 tax rate) be in effect for (here insert the number of 23909 years the tax is to be in effect or "a continuing period of time," 23910 as applicable)?" 23911

If the question is approved by at least a majority of the 23912 electors voting on it, the joinder shall be effective as of the 23913 first day of January of the year following approval, and, on that 23914 date, the township police district tax shall be extended to the 23915 taxable property within the territory that has been added. 23916

Sec. ~~505.482~~ 505.481. (A) If a township police district does 23917 not include all the unincorporated territory of the township, the 23918 remaining unincorporated territory of the township may be added to 23919 the district by a resolution adopted by a unanimous vote of the 23920 board of township trustees to place the issue of expansion of the 23921 district on the ballot for the electors of the entire 23922 unincorporated territory of the township. The resolution shall 23923 state whether the proposed township police district initially will 23924 hire personnel as provided in section 505.49 of the Revised Code 23925 or contract for the provision of police protection services or 23926 additional police protection services as provided in section 23927
505.43 or 505.50 of the Revised Code. 23928

The ballot measure shall provide for the addition into a new 23929 district of all the unincorporated territory of the township not 23930 already included in the township police district and for the levy 23931 of any tax then imposed by the district throughout the 23932 unincorporated territory of the township. The measure shall state 23933 the rate of the tax, if any, to be imposed in the district 23934 resulting from approval of the measure, which need not be the same 23935 rate of any tax imposed by the existing district, and the last 23936
a continuous period of time. 23938

(B) The election on the measure shall be held, canvassed, and 23939 certified in the manner provided for the submission of tax levies 23940 under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that the 23941 question appearing on the ballot shall read substantially as 23942

follows: 23943

"Shall the unincorporated territory within (name 23944 of the township) not already included within the (name 23945 of township police district) be added to the township police 23946 district to create the (name of new township police 23947 district) township police district?" 23948

The name of the proposed township police district shall be 23949 separate and distinct from the name of the existing township 23950 police district. 23951

If a tax is imposed in the existing township police district, 23952 the question shall be modified by adding, at the end of the 23953 question, the following: ", and shall a property tax be levied in 23954 the new township police district, replacing the tax in the 23955 existing township police district, at a rate not exceeding 23956
..... mills per dollar of taxable valuation, which amounts to 23957
..... (rate expressed in dollars and cents per one thousand 23958 dollars in taxable valuation), for (number of years the 23959 tax will be levied, or "a continuing period of time")." 23960

If the measure is not approved by a majority of the electors 23961 voting on it, the township police district shall continue to 23962 occupy its existing territory until altered as provided in this 23963 section or section 505.48 of the Revised Code, and any existing 23964 tax imposed under section 505.51 of the Revised Code shall remain 23965 in effect in the existing district at the existing rate and for as 23966 long as provided in the resolution under the authority of which 23967 the tax is levied. 23968

Sec. ~~505.481~~ 505.482. (A) The boards of township trustees of 23969 the sheriff shall send a notice by certified mail to the manager 24366 and to the owner, if different, of the real estate of which the 24367 commercial establishment is a part, or to the occupant, lessee, 24368 police district ceases to exist by operation of law, and the 24484 unpaid, the board of county commissioners shall continue to levy 24489 and collect taxes for the payment of that indebtedness within the 24490 territory of the joint police district as it was comprised at the 24491 time the indebtedness was incurred. 24492

Sec. 505.60. The following applies until the department of 24493 administrative services implements for townships the health care 24494
plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. If those plans do 24495 not include or address any benefits listed in division (A) of this 24496
section, the following provisions continue in effect for those 24497
benefits. 24498

(A) As provided in this section and section 505.601 of the 24499

Revised Code, the board of township trustees of any township may 24500 procure and pay all or any part of the cost of insurance policies 24501 that may provide benefits for hospitalization, surgical care, 24502 major medical care, disability, dental care, eye care, medical 24503 care, hearing aids, prescription drugs, or sickness and accident 24504 insurance, or a combination of any of the foregoing types of 24505 insurance for township officers and employees. The board of 24506 township trustees of any township may negotiate and contract for 24507 the purchase of a policy of long-term care insurance for township 24508 officers and employees pursuant to section 124.841 of the Revised 24509
Code. 24510

If the board procures any insurance policies under this 24511 section, the board shall provide uniform coverage under these 24512 policies for township officers and full-time township employees 24513 and their immediate dependents, and may provide coverage under 24514 these policies for part-time township employees and their 24515 immediate dependents, from the funds or budgets from which the 24516 officers or employees are compensated for services, such policies 24517 to be issued by an insurance company duly authorized to do 24518 business in this state. 24519

(B) The board may also provide coverage for any or all of the 24520 benefits described in division (A) of this section by entering 24521 into a contract for group health care services with health 24522 insuring corporations holding certificates of authority under 24523 Chapter 1751. of the Revised Code for township officers and 24524 employees and their immediate dependents. If the board so 24525 contracts, it shall provide uniform coverage under any such 24526 contracts for township officers and full-time township employees 24527 and their immediate dependents, from the funds or budgets from 24528 which the officers or employees are compensated for services, and 24529 may provide coverage under such contracts for part-time township 24530 employees and their immediate dependents, from the funds or 24531 budgets from which the officers or employees are compensated for 24532 services, provided that each officer and employee so covered is 24533 permitted to: 24534

(1) Choose between a plan offered by an insurance company and 24535 a plan offered by a health insuring corporation, and provided 24536 further that the officer or employee pays any amount by which the 24537 cost of the plan chosen exceeds the cost of the plan offered by 24538 the board under this section; 24539

(2) Change the choice made under this division at a time each 24540 year as determined in advance by the board. 24541

An addition of a class or change of definition of coverage to 24542 the plan offered under this division by the board may be made at 24543 any time that it is determined by the board to be in the best 24544 interest of the township. If the total cost to the township of the 24545 revised plan for any trustee's coverage does not exceed that cost 24546 under the plan in effect during the prior policy year, the 24547 revision of the plan does not cause an increase in that trustee's 24548
compensation. 24549

(C) Any township officer or employee may refuse to accept any 24550 coverage authorized by this section without affecting the 24551 availability of such coverage to other township officers and 24552 employees. 24553

(D) If any township officer or employee is denied coverage 24554 under a health care plan procured under this section or if any 24555 township officer or employee elects not to participate in the 24556 township's health care plan, the township may reimburse the 24557 officer or employee for each out-of-pocket premium attributable to 24558 the coverage provided for the officer or employee for insurance 24559 benefits described in division (A) of this section that the 24560 officer or employee otherwise obtains, but not to exceed an amount 24561 equal to the average premium paid by the township for its officers 24562 and employees under any health care plan it procures under this 24563

section. 24564

(E) The board may provide the benefits authorized under this 24565 section, without competitive bidding, by contributing to a health 24566 and welfare trust fund administered through or in conjunction with 24567 a collective bargaining representative of the township employees. 24568

The board may also provide the benefits described in this 24569 section through an individual self-insurance program or a joint 24570 self-insurance program as provided in section 9.833 of the Revised 24571
Code. 24572

(F) If a board of township trustees fails to pay one or more 24573 premiums for a policy, contract, or plan of insurance or health 24574 care services authorized under this section and the failure causes 24575 a lapse, cancellation, or other termination of coverage under the 24576 policy, contract, or plan, it may reimburse a township officer or 24577 employee for, or pay on behalf of the officer or employee, any 24578 expenses incurred that would have been covered under the policy, 24579 contract, or plan. 24580

(G) As used in this section and section 505.601 of the 24581

(1) "Part-time township employee" means a township employee 24583 who is hired with the expectation that the employee will work not 24584 more than one thousand five hundred hours in any year. 24585

(2) "Premium" does not include any deductible or health care 24586 costs paid directly by a township officer or employee. 24587

Sec. 505.601. The following applies until the department of 24588
plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. 24590

If a board of township trustees does not procure an insurance 24591 policy or group health care services as provided in section 505.60 24592 of the Revised Code, the board of township trustees may reimburse 24593 any township officer or employee for each out-of-pocket premium 24594 attributable to the coverage provided for that officer or employee 24595 for insurance benefits described in division (A) of section 505.60 24596 of the Revised Code that the officer or employee otherwise 24597 obtains, if all of the following conditions are met: 24598

(A) The board of township trustees adopts a resolution that 24599 states that the township has chosen not to procure a health care 24600 plan under section 505.60 of the Revised Code and has chosen 24601 instead to reimburse its officers and employees for each 24602 out-of-pocket premium attributable to the coverage provided for 24603 them for insurance benefits described in division (A) of section 24604 505.60 of the Revised Code that they otherwise obtain. 24605

(B) That resolution provides for a uniform maximum monthly or 24606 yearly payment amount for each officer or employee to cover 24607 themselves and their immediate dependents, beyond which the 24608 township will not reimburse the officer or employee. 24609

(C) That resolution states the specific benefits listed in 24610 division (A) of section 505.60 of the Revised Code for which the 24611 township will reimburse all officers and employees of the 24612 township. The township may not reimburse officers and employees 24613 for benefits other than those listed in division (A) of section 24614
505.60 of the Revised Code. 24615

Sec. 505.603. The following applies until the department of 24616 administrative services implements for townships the health care 24617 plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. If those plans do 24618 not include or address any benefits incorporated in this section, 24619 the following provisions continue in effect for those benefits. 24620

In addition to or in lieu of providing benefits to township 24621 officers and employees under section 505.60, 505.601, or 505.602 24622 of the Revised Code, a board of township trustees may offer 24623 benefits to officers and employees through a cafeteria plan that 24624 meets the requirements of section 125 of the "Internal Revenue 24625 Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 125, as amended, after 24626 first adopting a policy authorizing an officer or employee to 24627 receive a cash payment in lieu of a benefit otherwise offered to 24628 township officers or employees under any of those sections, but 24629 only if the cash payment does not exceed twenty-five per cent of 24630 the cost of premiums or payments that otherwise would be paid by 24631 the board for benefits for the officer or employee under an 24632 offered policy, contract, or plan. No cash payment in lieu of a 24633 benefit shall be made pursuant to this section unless the officer 24634 or employee signs a statement affirming that the officer or 24635 employee is covered under another health insurance or health care 24636 policy, contract, or plan in the case of a health benefit, or a 24637 life insurance policy in the case of a life insurance benefit, and 24638 setting forth the name of the employer, if any, that sponsors the 24639 coverage, the name of the carrier that provides the coverage, and 24640 an identifying number of the applicable policy, contract, or plan. 24641

Sec. 505.61. A board of township trustees may purchase a 24642 policy or policies of insurance to indemnify township constables 24643 appointed under Chapter 509. of the Revised Code or the chief of 24644 police, ~~patrolmen~~ patrol officers, and other employees of a 24645 township police district established under sections 505.48 to 24646 505.55 of the Revised Code against liability arising from the 24647 performance of their official duties. 24648

A joint police district board may purchase a policy or 24649 policies of insurance to indemnify the chief of police, patrol 24650 officers, and other employees of a joint police district 24651 established under section 505.482 of the Revised Code against 24652 liability arising from the performance of their duties. 24653

Sec. 505.67. (A) If the board of county commissioners of the 24654 county in which a township is located has not established a motor 24655 vehicle decal registration program under section 311.31 of the 24656 Revised Code, the board of township trustees may establish, by 24657 resolution, a voluntary motor vehicle decal registration program 24658 to be controlled and conducted by the chief law enforcement 24659 officer of the township within the unincorporated areas of the 24660 township. The board may establish a fee for participation in the 24661 program in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of administering 24662 the program and the cost of the decals. 24663

(B) Any resident of the township may enroll a motor vehicle 24664 that ~~he~~ the resident owns in the program by signing a consent 24665 form, displaying the decal issued under this section, and paying 24666 the prescribed fee. The motor vehicle owner shall remove the decal 24667 to withdraw from the program and also prior to the sale or 24668 transfer of ownership of the vehicle. Any law enforcement officer 24669 may conduct, at any place within this state at which the officer 24670 would be permitted to arrest the person operating the vehicle, an 24671 investigatory stop of any motor vehicle displaying a decal issued 24672 under this section when the vehicle is being driven between the 24673 hours of one a.m. and five a.m. A law enforcement officer may 24674 conduct an investigatory stop under this division regardless of 24675 whether the officer observes a violation of law involving the 24676 vehicle or whether ~~he~~ the officer has probable cause to believe 24677 that any violation of law involving the vehicle has occurred. 24678

(C) The consent form required under division (B) of this 24679 section shall: 24680

(1) Describe the conditions for participation in the program, 24681 including a description of an investigatory stop and a statement 24682 that any law enforcement officer may conduct, at any place within 24683 this state at which the officer would be permitted to arrest the 24684 person operating the vehicle, an investigatory stop of the motor 24685 vehicle when it is being driven between the hours of one a.m. and 24686

five a.m. 24687

(2) Contain other information identifying the vehicle and 24688 owner as the chief law enforcement officer of the township 24689 considers necessary. 24690

(D) The state director of public safety, in accordance with 24691 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules governing the 24692 color, size, and design of decals issued under this section and 24693 the location where the decals shall be displayed on vehicles that 24694 are enrolled in the program. 24695

(E) Divisions (A) to (D) of this section do not require a law 24696 enforcement officer to conduct an investigatory stop of a vehicle 24697 displaying a decal issued under this section. 24698

(F) As used in this section: 24699

(1) "Investigatory stop" means a temporary stop of a motor 24700 vehicle and its operator and occupants for purposes of determining 24701 the identity of the person who is operating the vehicle and, if 24702 the person who is operating it is not its owner, whether any 24703 violation of law has occurred or is occurring. An "investigatory 24704 stop" is not an arrest, but, if an officer who conducts an 24705 investigatory stop determines that illegal conduct has occurred or 24706 is ~~occurring~~ occurring, an "investigatory stop" may be the basis 24707 for an arrest. 24708

(2) "Law enforcement officer" means a sheriff, deputy 24709 sheriff, constable, police officer of a township or joint ~~township~~ 24710 police district, marshal, deputy marshal, municipal police 24711 officer, or state highway patrol trooper. 24712

Sec. 505.73. (A) The board of township trustees may, by 24713 resolution, adopt by incorporation by reference, administer, and 24714 enforce within the unincorporated area of the township an existing 24715 structures code pertaining to the repair and continued maintenance 24716 of structures and the premises of those structures. For that 24717 purpose, the board shall adopt any model or standard code prepared 24718 and promulgated by this state, any department, board, or agency of 24719 this state, or any public or private organization that publishes a 24720 recognized model or standard code on the subject. The board shall 24721 ensure that the code adopted governs subject matter not addressed 24722 by the state residential building code and that it is fully 24723 compatible with the state residential and nonresidential building 24724 codes the board of building standards adopts pursuant to section 24725

3781.10 of the Revised Code. 24726

(B) The board shall assign the duties of administering and 24727 enforcing the existing structures code to a township officer or 24728 employee who is trained and qualified for those duties and shall 24729 establish by resolution the minimum qualifications necessary to 24730 perform those duties. 24731

(C)(1) After the board adopts an existing structures code, 24732 the township fiscal officer shall post a notice that clearly 24733 identifies the code, states the code's purpose, and states that a 24734 complete copy of the code is on file for inspection by the public 24735 with the fiscal officer and in the county law library and that the 24736 fiscal officer has copies available for distribution to the public 24737 at cost. 24738

(2) The township fiscal officer shall post the notice in five 24739 conspicuous places in the township for thirty days before the code 24740 becomes effective and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of 24741 general circulation in the township for three consecutive weeks or 24742 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the adopting 24743 township amends or deletes any provision of the code, the notice 24744 shall contain a brief summary of the deletion or amendment. 24745

(D) If the agency that originally promulgated or published 24746 the existing structures code amends the code, the board may adopt 24747 the amendment or change by incorporation by reference in the 24748 manner provided for the adoption of the original code. 24749

Sec. 507.09. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (D) 24750 of this section, the township fiscal officer shall be entitled to 24751 compensation as follows: 24752

(1) In townships having a budget of fifty thousand dollars or 24753

(9) In townships having a budget of more than six million 24776 dollars, seventeen thousand six hundred dollars. 24777

(B) Any township fiscal officer may elect to receive less than the compensation the fiscal officer is entitled to under division (A) of this section. Any township fiscal officer electing to do this shall so notify the board of township trustees in writing, and the board shall include this notice in the minutes of its next board meeting.

(C) The compensation of the township fiscal officer shall be paid in equal monthly payments. If the office of township fiscal officer is held by more than one person during any calendar year, each person holding the office shall receive payments for only those months, and any fractions of those months, during which the person holds the office.

of no effect until the price to be paid for the work or materials 24951 under the altered or modified contract has been agreed upon in 24952 writing and signed by the contractor and at least two members of 24953 the board. 24954

boundaries of the park district itself or the appointing authority 24975 for the board of park commissioners. 24976

The board may lease, accept a conveyance of, or purchase 24977 suitable lands for cash, by purchase by installment payments with 24978 stipulated by the donor or as provided in the trust agreement. 24996

The board may receive and expend grants for park purposes 24997 from agencies and instrumentalities of the United States and this 24998 state and may enter into contracts or agreements with those 24999 agencies and instrumentalities to carry out the purposes for which 25000 the grants were furnished. 25001

(D) In exercising any powers conferred upon the board under 25002 divisions (B) and (C) of this section and for other types of 25003 assistance that the board finds necessary in carrying out its 25004 duties, the board may hire and contract for professional, 25005 technical, consulting, and other special services and may purchase 25006 goods and award contracts. The procuring of goods and awarding of 25007 contracts shall be done in accordance with the procedures 25008 and may designate the executive or another person as the clerk of 25012 the board. It may appoint all other necessary officers and 25013 employees, fix their compensation, and prescribe their duties, or 25014 it may require the executive to appoint all other necessary 25015 officers and employees, and to fix their compensation and 25016 prescribe their duties, in accordance with guidelines and policies 25017 adopted by the board. 25018

Before the bylaws and rules take effect, the board shall 25027 provide for a notice of their adoption to be published once a week 25028 for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 25029 Revised Code, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county 25030 within which the park district is located. 25031

No person shall violate any of the bylaws or rules. Fines 25032 levied and collected for violations shall be paid into the 25033 treasury of the township park district. The board may use moneys 25034 collected from those fines for any purpose that is not 25035 that individual or organization for the duration of an event 25045 produced by the individual or organization. The board, for the 25046 specific portion of the park or parks covered by the lease 25047 agreement, may charge a fee to, or permit the individual or 25048

the event covered by the agreement. 25050

(H) If the board finds that real or personal property owned 25051 by the township park district is not currently needed for park 25052 purposes, the board may lease that property to other persons or 25053 organizations during any period of time the board determines the 25054 property will not be needed. If the board finds that competitive 25055 bidding on a lease is not feasible, it may lease the property 25056 without taking bids. 25057

(I) The board may exchange property owned by the township 25058 park district for property owned by the state, another political 25059 subdivision, or the federal government on terms that it considers 25060 desirable, without the necessity of competitive bidding. 25061

(2) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation may adopt an ordinance or resolution that allows a taxpayer who is an individual to deduct, in computing the taxpayer's municipal income tax liability, an amount equal to the aggregate amount the taxpayer paid in cash during the taxable year to a health savings account of the taxpayer, to the extent the taxpayer is entitled to deduct that amount on internal revenue service form 1040.

related insurance premium dividends received by the taxpayer 26223 during the taxable year. 26224

(F) If an individual's taxable income includes income against 26225 which the taxpayer has taken a deduction for federal income tax 26226 purposes as reportable on the taxpayer's form 2106, and against 26227 which a like deduction has not been allowed by the municipal 26228 corporation, the municipal corporation shall deduct from the 26229 taxpayer's taxable income an amount equal to the deduction shown 26230 on such form allowable against such income, to the extent not 26231 otherwise so allowed as a deduction by the municipal corporation. 26232

(G)(1) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net profit from a 26233 business or profession that is operated as a sole proprietorship, 26234 as having a taxable situs in the municipal corporation, an amount 26237 other than the net profit required to be reported by the taxpayer 26238 on schedule C or F from such sole proprietorship for the taxable 26239

year. 26240

(2) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net profit from 26241 rental activity required to be reported on schedule E, no 26242 municipal corporation may tax or use as the base for determining 26243 to the extent that such compensation does not exceed one thousand 26262 dollars annually. Such compensation in excess of one thousand 26263 dollars may be subjected to taxation by a municipal corporation. A 26264 municipal corporation shall not require the payer of such 26265 compensation to withhold any tax from that compensation. 26266

(5) Compensation paid to an employee of a transit authority, 26267 regional transit authority, or regional transit commission created 26268 under Chapter 306. of the Revised Code for operating a transit bus 26269 or other motor vehicle for the authority or commission in or 26270 through the municipal corporation, unless the bus or vehicle is 26271 operated on a regularly scheduled route, the operator is subject 26272 corporation, or the headquarters of the authority or commission is 26274 located within the municipal corporation; 26275 company or combined company; 26281

(b) Beginning January 1, 2004, the income of a telephone 26282

(8) On and after January 1, 2001, compensation paid to a nonresident individual to the extent prohibited under section 718.011 of the Revised Code;

(9)(a) Except as provided in division (H)(9)(b) and (c) of this section, an S corporation shareholder's distributive share of net profits of the S corporation, other than any part of the distributive share of net profits that represents wages as defined in section 3121(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or net earnings from self-employment as defined in section 1402(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) If, pursuant to division (H) of former section 718.01 of the Revised Code as it existed before March 11, 2004, a majority of the electors of a municipal corporation voted in favor of the question at an election held on November 4, 2003, the municipal corporation may continue after 2002 to tax an S corporation shareholder's distributive share of net profits of an S corporation.

(c) If, on December 6, 2002, a municipal corporation was imposing, assessing, and collecting a tax on an S corporation shareholder's distributive share of net profits of the S corporation to the extent the distributive share would be allocated or apportioned to this state under divisions (B)(1) and (2) of section 5733.05 of the Revised Code if the S corporation were a corporation subject to taxes imposed under Chapter 5733. of the Revised Code, the municipal corporation may continue to impose the tax on such distributive shares to the extent such shares would be so allocated or apportioned to this state only until December 31, 2004, unless a majority of the electors of the municipal corporation voting on the question of continuing to tax such shares after that date vote in favor of that question at an election held November 2, 2004. If a majority of those electors vote in favor of the question, the municipal corporation may continue after December 31, 2004, to impose the tax on such distributive shares only to the extent such shares would be so allocated or apportioned to this state.

(d) For the purposes of division (D) of section 718.14 of the Revised Code, a municipal corporation shall be deemed to have elected to tax S corporation shareholders' distributive shares of net profits of the S corporation in the hands of the shareholders if a majority of the electors of a municipal corporation vote in favor of a question at an election held under division (H)(9)(b) or (c) of this section. The municipal corporation shall specify by ordinance or rule that the tax applies to the distributive share of a shareholder of an S corporation in the hands of the shareholder of the S corporation.

(10) Employee compensation that is not "qualifying wages" as defined in section 718.03 of the Revised Code; employed within the boundaries of a United States air force base taxation because of residence or domicile. If the compensation is subject to taxation because of residence or domicile, municipal income tax shall be payable only to the municipal corporation of residence or domicile.

(I) Any municipal corporation that taxes any type of intangible income on March 29, 1988, pursuant to Section 3 of Amended Substitute Senate Bill No. 238 of the 116th general assembly, may continue to tax that type of income after 1988 if a majority of the electors of the municipal corporation voting on the question of whether to permit the taxation of that type of intangible income after 1988 vote in favor thereof at an election held on November 8, 1988.

(J) Nothing in this section or section 718.02 of the Revised Code shall authorize the levy of any tax on income that a municipal corporation is not authorized to levy under existing laws or shall require a municipal corporation to allow a deduction from taxable income for losses incurred from a sole proprietorship or partnership.

(K)(1) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a municipal corporation from allowing, by resolution or ordinance, a net operating loss carryforward.

(a) The limited liability company's single member is also a limited liability company;

(b) The limited liability company and its single member were formed and doing business in one or more Ohio municipal corporations for at least five years before January 1, 2004;

(d) The limited liability company was not formed for the purpose of evading or reducing Ohio municipal corporation income tax liability of the limited liability company or its single member;

(e) The Ohio municipal corporation that is the primary place of business of the sole member of the limited liability company consents to the election.

(2) For purposes of division (L)(1)(e) of this section, a municipal corporation is the primary place of business of a limited liability company if, for the limited liability company's taxable year ending in 2003, its income tax liability is greater in that municipal corporation than in any other municipal corporation in Ohio, and that tax liability to that municipal corporation for its taxable year ending in 2003 is at least four hundred thousand dollars.

Sec. 718.09. (A) This section applies to either of the following:

(1) A municipal corporation that shares the same territory as a city, local, or exempted village school district, to the extent that not more than five per cent of the territory of the municipal corporation is located outside the school district and not more than five per cent of the territory of the school district is located outside the municipal corporation;

within another municipal corporation having a population of four 26409 hundred thousand or more according to the federal decennial census 26410 most recently completed before the agreement is entered into under 26411 division (B) of this section. 26412

(B) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation to 26413 which this section applies may propose to the electors an income 26414 tax, one of the purposes of which shall be to provide financial 26415 assistance to the school district through payment to the district 26416 of not less than twenty-five per cent of the revenue generated by 26417 the tax, except that the legislative authority may not propose to 26418 levy the income tax on the incomes of nonresident individuals. 26419 Prior to proposing the tax, the legislative authority shall 26420 negotiate and enter into a written agreement with the board of 26421 education of the school district specifying the tax rate, the 26422 percentage of tax revenue to be paid to the school district, the 26423 purpose for which the school district will use the money, the 26424 first year the tax will be levied, the date of the special 26425 election on the question of the tax, and the method and schedule 26426 by which the municipal corporation will make payments to the 26427 school district. The special election shall be held on a day 26428 specified in division (D) of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, 26429 except that the special election may not be held on the day for 26430 holding a primary election as authorized by the municipal 26431 corporation's charter unless the municipal corporation is to have 26432 a primary election on that day. 26433

After the legislative authority and board of education have 26434 entered into the agreement, the legislative authority shall 26435 provide for levying the tax by ordinance. The ordinance shall 26436 state the tax rate, the percentage of tax revenue to be paid to 26437 the school district, the purpose for which the municipal 26438 corporation will use its share of the tax revenue, the first year 26439 the tax will be levied, and that the question of the income tax 26440 will be submitted to the electors of the municipal corporation. 26441

The legislative authority also shall adopt a resolution specifying 26442 the regular or special election date the election will be held and 26443 directing the board of elections to conduct the election. At least 26444 ninety days before the date of the election, the legislative 26445 authority shall file certified copies of the ordinance and 26446 resolution with the board of elections. 26447

(C) The board of elections shall make the necessary 26448 arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of 26449 the municipal corporation, and shall conduct the election in the 26450 same manner as any other municipal income tax election. Notice of 26451 the election shall be published in a newspaper of general 26452 circulation in the municipal corporation once a week for four 26453 consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 26454 Code, prior to the election, and shall include statements of the 26455 rate and municipal corporation and school district purposes of the 26456 income tax, the percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the 26457 school district, and the first year the tax will be levied. The 26458 ballot shall be in the following form: 26459

"Shall the ordinance providing for a per cent levy on 26460 income for (brief description of the municipal corporation and 26461 school district purposes of the levy, including a statement of the 26462 percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the school 26463 district) be passed? The income tax, if approved, will not be 26464 levied on the incomes of individuals who do not reside in (the 26465 name of the municipal corporation). 26466

	For the income tax
	Against the income tax	"

26470

(D) If the question is approved by a majority of the 26471 electors, the municipal corporation shall impose the income tax 26472 beginning in the year specified in the ordinance. The proceeds of 26473 the levy may be used only for the specified purposes, including 26474 payment of the specified percentage to the school district. 26475

Sec. 718.10. (A) This section applies to a group of two or 26476 more municipal corporations that, taken together, share the same 26477 territory as a single city, local, or exempted village school 26478 district, to the extent that not more than five per cent of the 26479 territory of the municipal corporations as a group is located 26480 outside the school district and not more than five per cent of the 26481 territory of the school district is located outside the municipal 26482 corporations as a group. 26483

(B) The legislative authorities of the municipal corporations 26484 in a group of municipal corporations to which this section applies 26485 each may propose to the electors an income tax, to be levied in 26486 concert with income taxes in the other municipal corporations of 26487 the group, except that a legislative authority may not propose to 26488 levy the income tax on the incomes of individuals who do not 26489 reside in the municipal corporation. One of the purposes of such a 26490 tax shall be to provide financial assistance to the school 26491 district through payment to the district of not less than 26492 twenty-five per cent of the revenue generated by the tax. Prior to 26493 proposing the taxes, the legislative authorities shall negotiate 26494 and enter into a written agreement with each other and with the 26495 board of education of the school district specifying the tax rate, 26496 the percentage of the tax revenue to be paid to the school 26497 district, the first year the tax will be levied, and the date of 26498 the election on the question of the tax, all of which shall be the 26499 same for each municipal corporation. The agreement also shall 26500 state the purpose for which the school district will use the 26501 money, and specify the method and schedule by which each municipal 26502 corporation will make payments to the school district. The special 26503 election shall be held on a day specified in division (D) of 26504 section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, including a day on which all 26505 of the municipal corporations are to have a primary election. 26506

After the legislative authorities and board of education have 26507 entered into the agreement, each legislative authority shall 26508 provide for levying its tax by ordinance. Each ordinance shall 26509 state the rate of the tax, the percentage of tax revenue to be 26510 paid to the school district, the purpose for which the municipal 26511 corporation will use its share of the tax revenue, and the first 26512 year the tax will be levied. Each ordinance also shall state that 26513 the question of the income tax will be submitted to the electors 26514 of the municipal corporation on the same date as the submission of 26515 questions of an identical tax to the electors of each of the other 26516 municipal corporations in the group, and that unless the electors 26517 of all of the municipal corporations in the group approve the tax 26518 in their respective municipal corporations, none of the municipal 26519 corporations in the group shall levy the tax. Each legislative 26520 authority also shall adopt a resolution specifying the regular or 26521 special election date the election will be held and directing the 26522 board of elections to conduct the election. At least ninety days 26523 before the date of the election, each legislative authority shall 26524 file certified copies of the ordinance and resolution with the 26525 board of elections. 26526

(C) For each of the municipal corporations, the board of 26527 elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission 26528 of the question to the electors, and shall conduct the election in 26529 the same manner as any other municipal income tax election. For 26530 each of the municipal corporations, notice of the election shall 26531 be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 26532 municipal corporation once a week for four consecutive weeks, or 26533 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the 26534 election. The notice shall include a statement of the rate and 26535 municipal corporation and school district purposes of the income tax, the percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the school district, and the first year the tax will be levied, and an explanation that the tax will not be levied unless an identical tax is approved by the electors of each of the other municipal corporations in the group. The ballot shall be in the following form:

"Shall the ordinance providing for a ... per cent levy on income for (brief description of the municipal corporation and school district purposes of the levy, including a statement of the percentage of income tax revenue that will be paid to the school district) be passed? The income tax, if approved, will not be levied on the incomes of individuals who do not reside in (the name of the municipal corporation). In order for the income tax to be levied, the voters of (the other municipal corporations in the group), which are also in the (name of the school district) school district, must approve an identical income tax and agree to pay the same percentage of the tax revenue to the school district.

	For the income tax
	Against the income tax	"

(D) If the question is approved by a majority of the electors and identical taxes are approved by a majority of the electors in each of the other municipal corporations in the group, the municipal corporation shall impose the tax beginning in the year specified in the ordinance. The proceeds of the levy may be used only for the specified purposes, including payment of the specified percentage to the school district.

Sec. 719.012. In order to rehabilitate a building or structure that a municipal corporation determines to be a blighted property as defined in section 1.08 of the Revised Code, a 26567 municipal corporation may appropriate, in the manner provided in 26568 sections 163.01 to 163.22 of the Revised Code, any such building 26569 or structure and the real property of which it is a part. The 26570 municipal corporation shall rehabilitate the building or structure 26571 or cause it to be rehabilitated within two years after the 26572 appropriation, so that the building or structure is no longer a 26573 public nuisance, insecure, unsafe, structurally defective, 26574 unhealthful, or unsanitary, or a threat to the public health, 26575 safety, or welfare, or in violation of a building code or 26576 ordinance adopted under section 731.231 of the Revised Code. Any 26577 building or structure appropriated pursuant to this section which 26578 is not rehabilitated within two years shall be demolished. 26579

If during the rehabilitation process the municipal 26580 corporation retains title to the building or structure and the 26581 real property of which it is a part, then within one hundred 26582 eighty days after the rehabilitation is complete, the municipal 26583 corporation shall appraise the rehabilitated building or structure 26584 and the real property of which it is a part, and shall sell the 26585 building or structure and property at public auction. The 26586 municipal corporation shall advertise the public auction in a 26587 newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation once 26588 a week for three consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 26589 of the Revised Code, prior to the date of sale. The municipal 26590 corporation shall sell the building or structure and real property 26591 to the highest and best bidder. No property that a municipal 26592 corporation acquires pursuant to this section shall be leased. 26593

Sec. 719.05. The mayor of a municipal corporation shall, 26594 immediately upon the passage of a resolution under section 719.04 26595 of the Revised Code, declaring an intent to appropriate property, 26596 for which but one reading is necessary, cause written notice to be 26597 given to the owner of, person in possession of, or person having 26598 an interest of record in, every piece of property sought to be 26599 appropriated, or to ~~his~~ the authorized agent of the owner or other 26600 such person. Such notice shall be served by a person designated 26601 for the purpose and return made in the manner provided for the 26602 service and return of summons in civil actions. If such owner, 26603 person, or agent cannot be found, notice shall be given by 26604 publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper 26605 of general circulation in the municipal corporation or as provided 26606 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and the legislative authority 26607 may thereupon pass an ordinance by a two-thirds vote of all 26608 members elected thereto, directing such appropriation to proceed. 26609

Sec. 721.03. No contract, except as provided in section 26610 721.28 of the Revised Code, for the sale or lease of real estate 26611 belonging to a municipal corporation shall be made unless 26612 authorized by an ordinance, approved by a two-thirds vote of the 26613 members of the legislative authority of such municipal 26614 corporation, and by the board or officer having supervision or 26615 management of such real estate. When the contract is so 26616 authorized, it shall be made in writing by such board or officer, 26617 and, except as provided in section 721.27 of the Revised Code, 26618 only with the highest bidder, after advertisement once a week for 26619 five consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation 26620 within the municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of 26621 the Revised Code. Such board or officer may reject any bids and 26622 readvertise until all such real estate is sold or leased. 26623

Sec. 721.15. (A) Personal property not needed for municipal 26624 purposes, the estimated value of which is less than one thousand 26625 dollars, may be sold by the board or officer having supervision or 26626 management of that property. If the estimated value of that 26627 property is one thousand dollars or more, it shall be sold only 26628 when authorized by an ordinance of the legislative authority of 26629 the municipal corporation and approved by the board, officer, or 26630 director having supervision or management of that property. When 26631 so authorized, the board, officer, or director shall make a 26632 written contract with the highest and best bidder after 26633 advertisement for not less than two ~~or~~ nor more than four 26634 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the 26635 municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 26636 Revised Code, or with a board of county commissioners upon such 26637 lawful terms as are agreed upon, as provided by division (B)(1) of 26638

section 721.27 of the Revised Code. 26639

(B) When the legislative authority finds, by resolution, that 26640 the municipal corporation has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 26641 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 26642 that the municipal corporation has need of other vehicles, 26643 equipment, or machinery of the same type, and that it will be in 26644 the best interest of the municipal corporation that the sale of 26645 obsolete, unneeded, or unfit vehicles, equipment, or machinery be 26646 made simultaneously with the purchase of the new vehicles, 26647 equipment, or machinery of the same type, the legislative 26648 authority may offer to sell, or authorize a board, officer, or 26649 director of the municipal corporation having supervision or 26650 management of the property to offer to sell, those vehicles, 26651 equipment, or machinery and to have the selling price credited 26652 against the purchase price of other vehicles, equipment, or 26653 machinery and to consummate the sale and purchase by a single 26654 contract with the lowest and best bidder to be determined by 26655 subtracting from the selling price of the vehicles, equipment, or 26656 machinery to be purchased by the municipal corporation the 26657 purchase price offered for the municipally-owned vehicles, 26658 equipment, or machinery. When the legislative authority or the 26659 authorized board, officer, or director of a municipal corporation 26660 advertises for bids for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or 26661 machinery to the municipal corporation, they may include in the 26662 same advertisement a notice of willingness to accept bids for the 26663 purchase of municipally-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery 26664 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 26665 and to have the amount of those bids subtracted from the selling 26666 price as a means of determining the lowest and best bidder. 26667

(C) If the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 26668 credit of the person's individual account upon the person's 27386 written request. The fund need not answer more than one such 27387 authority under that law for video service authorizations in this 28363

state. 28364

(3) The director may impose upon and collect an annual 28365 based on subscriber counts as of the thirty-first day of December 28377 of the preceding calendar year, which counts shall be submitted to 28378 the director not later than the thirty-first day of January of 28379 each year, via a notarized statement signed by an authorized 28380

Code, or complaints concerning any such violation or failure. 28403 Except as provided in this section, the director has no authority 28404 to regulate video service in this state, including, but not 28405 for each day of violation or noncompliance, not to exceed a total 28444 of ten thousand dollars, counting all subscriber impacts as a 28445 single violation or act of noncompliance. In determining whether a 28446 civil penalty is appropriate under division (C)(1)(c) of this 28447 section, the director shall consider all of the following factors: 28448

(i) The seriousness of the noncompliance; 28449

- (ii) The good faith efforts of the person to comply; 28450
- (iii) The person's history of noncompliance; 28451
- (iv) The financial resources of the person; 28452

the violations or noncompliances after reasonable written notice 28468 and reasonable time to cure. Such person acts knowingly, 28469 regardless of the person's purpose, when the person is aware that 28470 the person's conduct will probably cause a certain result or will 28471 probably be of a certain nature. A person has knowledge of 28472 circumstances when the person is aware that such circumstances 28473 probably exist. 28474

(3) The court shall conduct a de novo review in any appeal 28475 from an adjudication under division (C)(1)(c) or (C)(2) of this 28476

(B)(1) Any period of time described in division (A) of this 28502 section shall be extended by any period of time during which the 28503 resources exclusively for the purpose of executing their duties 28611 under sections 6111.043 to 6111.047 of the Revised Code. 28612

Sec. 1501.40. The department of natural resources is the 28613 designated state agency responsible for the coordination and 28614

Sec. 1503.05. (A) The chief of the division of forestry may 28624 sell timber and other forest products from the state forest and 28625 state forest nurseries whenever the chief considers such a sale 28626 desirable and, with the approval of the attorney general and the 28627 director of natural resources, may sell portions of the state 28628 forest lands when such a sale is advantageous to the state. 28629

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a timber 28630 sale agreement shall not be executed unless the person or 28631 governmental entity bidding on the sale executes and files a 28632 surety bond conditioned on completion of the timber sale in 28633 accordance with the terms of the agreement in an amount equal to 28634 twenty-five per cent of the highest value cutting section. All 28635 bonds shall be given in a form prescribed by the chief and shall 28636 run to the state as obligee. 28637

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 28638 signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 28639 either by the attorney in fact thereof, with a certified copy of 28640 the power of attorney attached. The chief shall not approve the 28641 bond unless there is attached a certificate of the superintendent 28642 of insurance that the company is authorized to transact a fidelity 28643 and surety business in this state. 28644

In lieu of a bond, the bidder may deposit any of the 28645
following: 28646

(1) Cash in an amount equal to the amount of the bond; 28647

(2) United States government securities having a par value 28648 equal to or greater than the amount of the bond; 28649

(3) Negotiable certificates of deposit or irrevocable letters 28650 of credit issued by any bank organized or transacting business in 28651 this state having a par value equal to or greater than the amount 28652 of the bond. 28653

The cash or securities shall be deposited on the same terms 28654 as bonds. If one or more certificates of deposit are deposited in 28655 lieu of a bond, the chief shall require the bank that issued any 28656 of the certificates to pledge securities of the aggregate market 28657 value equal to the amount of the certificate or certificates that 28658 is in excess of the amount insured by the federal deposit 28659 of deposit, or letters of credit, the chief shall deliver them to the treasurer of state, who shall hold them in trust for the purposes for which they have been deposited. The treasurer of state is responsible for the safekeeping of the deposits. A bidder making a deposit of cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or letters of credit may withdraw and receive from the treasurer of state, on the written order of the chief, all or any portion of the cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or letters of credit upon depositing with the treasurer of state cash, other United States government securities, or other negotiable certificates of deposit or irrevocable letters of credit issued by any bank organized or transacting business in this state, equal in par value to the par value of the cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or letters of credit withdrawn.

A bidder may demand and receive from the treasurer of state all interest or other income from any such securities or certificates as it becomes due. If securities so deposited with and in the possession of the treasurer of state mature or are called for payment by their issuer, the treasurer of state, at the request of the bidder who deposited them, shall convert the proceeds of the redemption or payment of the securities into other United States government securities, negotiable certificates of deposit, or cash as the bidder designates.

When the chief finds that a person or governmental agency has failed to comply with the conditions of the person's or governmental agency's bond, the chief shall make a finding of that fact and declare the bond, cash, securities, certificates, or letters of credit forfeited. The chief thereupon shall certify the total forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to collect the amount of the bond, cash, securities, certificates, or letters of credit.

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety, at its option, may 28696 cause the timber sale to be completed or pay to the treasurer of 28697 state the cost thereof. 28698

All moneys collected as a result of forfeitures of bonds, 28699 cash, securities, certificates, and letters of credit under this 28700 section shall be credited to the state forest fund created in this 28701
section. 28702

(C) The chief may grant easements and leases on portions of 28703 the state forest lands and state forest nurseries under terms that 28704 are advantageous to the state, and the chief may grant mineral 28705 rights on a royalty basis on those lands and nurseries, with the 28706 approval of the attorney general and the director. 28707

(D) All moneys received from the sale of state forest lands, 28708 or in payment for easements or leases on or as rents from those 28709 lands or from state forest nurseries, shall be paid into the state 28710 treasury to the credit of the state forest fund, which is hereby 28711 created. In addition, all moneys received from federal grants, 28712 payments, and reimbursements, from the sale of reforestation tree 28713 timber, and from the sale of minerals taken from the state forest 28715 lands and state forest nurseries, together with royalties from 28716 mineral rights, shall be paid into the state treasury to the 28717 credit of the state forest fund. Any other revenues derived from 28718 the operation of the state forests and related facilities or 28719 equipment also shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit 28720 of the state forest fund, as shall contributions received for the 28721 the Revised Code and any other moneys required by law to be 28723 deposited in the fund. 28724

The state forest fund shall not be expended for any purpose 28725 other than the administration, operation, maintenance, 28726 development, or utilization of the state forests, forest 28727 nurseries, and forest programs, for facilities or equipment 28728 incident to them, or for the further purchase of lands for state 28729 forest or forest nursery purposes and, in the case of 28730 contributions received pursuant to section 4503.574 of the Revised 28731 Code, for fire prevention purposes. 28732

All moneys received from the sale of standing timber taken 28733 from state forest lands and state forest nurseries shall be 28734 deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the forestry 28735 holding account redistribution fund, which is hereby created. The 28736 moneys shall remain in the fund until they are redistributed in 28737 accordance with this division. 28738

The redistribution shall occur at least once each year. To 28739 begin the redistribution, the chief first shall determine the 28740 amount of all standing timber sold from state forest lands and 28741 state forest nurseries, together with the amount of the total sale 28742 proceeds, in each county, in each township within the county, and 28743 in each school district within the county. The chief next shall 28744 determine the amount of the direct costs that the division of 28745 forestry incurred in association with the sale of that standing 28746 timber. The amount of the direct costs shall be subtracted from 28747 the amount of the total sale proceeds and shall be transferred 28748 from the forestry holding account redistribution fund to the state 28749 forest fund. 28750

The remaining amount of the total sale proceeds equals the 28751 net value of the standing timber that was sold. The chief shall 28752 determine the net value of standing timber sold from state forest 28753 lands and state forest nurseries in each county, in each township 28754 within the county, and in each school district within the county 28755 and shall send to each county treasurer a copy of the 28756 determination at the time that moneys are paid to the county 28757 treasurer under this division. 28758

~~Twenty-five~~ Thirty-five per cent of the net value of standing 28759 timber sold from state forest lands and state forest nurseries 28760 located in a county shall be transferred from the forestry holding 28761 account redistribution fund to the state forest fund. ~~Ten per cent~~ 28762 ~~of that net value shall be transferred from the forestry holding~~ 28763 ~~account redistribution fund to the general revenue fund.~~ The 28764 remaining sixty-five per cent of the net value shall be 28765 transferred from the forestry holding account redistribution fund 28766 and paid to the county treasurer for the use of the general fund 28767 of that county. 28768

The county auditor shall do all of the following: 28769 one-fourth of the amount received by the county under division (D) 28771

of this section; 28772

(2) Pay into the general fund of any township located within 28773 the county and containing such lands and nurseries one-fourth of 28774 the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 28775 lands and nurseries located in the township; 28776

(3) Request the board of education of any school district 28777 located within the county and containing such lands and nurseries 28778 to identify which fund or funds of the district should receive the 28779 moneys available to the school district under division (D)(3) of 28780 this section. After receiving notice from the board, the county 28781 auditor shall pay into the fund or funds so identified one-half of 28782
the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 28783 lands and nurseries located in the school district, distributed 28784 proportionately as identified by the board. 28785

The division of forestry shall not supply logs, lumber, or 28786 other forest products or minerals, taken from the state forest 28787 lands or state forest nurseries, to any other agency or 28788 subdivision of the state unless payment is made therefor in the 28789 amount of the actual prevailing value thereof. This section is 28790 applicable to the moneys so received. 28791

fund from the ~~general revenue~~ state forest fund created in section 28806 1503.05 of the Revised Code. The amount transferred shall consist 28807 only of money deposited into the ~~general revenue~~ state forest fund 28808 from the sale of standing timber taken from state forest lands as 28809 set forth in that ~~section 1503.05 of the Revised Code~~. 28810

The chief shall use moneys in the wildfire suppression fund 28811 to reimburse firefighting agencies and private fire companies for 28812 their costs incurred in the suppression of wildfires. The chief 28813 shall provide such reimbursement pursuant to agreements and 28814 contracts entered into under section 1503.14 of the Revised Code 28815 and in accordance with the following schedule: 28816 seventy-dollar payment to the firefighting agency or private fire 28818 company; 28819

(B) For wildfire suppression on land under the administration 28820 or care of the department of natural resources or on land that is 28821 part of any national forest administered by the United States 28822 department of agriculture forest service, an initial 28823 one-hundred-dollar payment to the firefighting agency or private 28824 fire company; 28825

(C) For any wildfire suppression on land specified in 28826 division (A) or (B) of this section lasting more than two hours, 28827 an additional payment of thirty-five dollars per hour. 28828

If at any time moneys in the fund exceed two hundred thousand 28829 dollars, the chief shall disburse the moneys that exceed that 28830 amount to the firefighting agencies and private fire companies in 28831 accordance with rules that the chief shall adopt in accordance 28832 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The rules shall establish 28833 requirements and procedures that are similar in purpose and 28834 operation to the federal rural community fire protection program 28835 established under the "Cooperative Forestry Assistance Act of 28836 1978," 92 Stat. 365, 16 U.S.C.A. 2101, as amended. 28837 contact the owner, the applicant may submit an affidavit to the 29402 chief attesting to such an unidentifiable owner or to such 29403 unresponsiveness of an owner and attempts by the applicant to 29404 owner of the land consents in writing to the surface location of 29417 the well at a distance that is less than one hundred fifty feet 29418 from the owner's property line. However, if the owner of the land 29419 provides such written consent, the surface location of the well 29420 shall not be within seventy-five feet of the property line of the 29421 owner's parcel of land. 29422

If an applicant cannot identify an owner of land or if an 29423 shall reduce the distance of the location of the well from the 29432 property line to a distance of not less than seventy-five feet. 29433

(E) The surface location of a new tank battery of a well 29434 on which the occupied dwelling is located provides such written 29443 consent, the location of the tank battery shall not be within one 29444 hundred feet of the occupied dwelling. 29445

If an applicant cannot identify an owner of land or if an 29446 occupied dwelling to a distance of not less than one hundred feet. 29456

(F) Except as otherwise provided in division (L) of this 29457 section, the location of a new tank battery of a well shall not be 29458 within seventy-five feet of the property line of a parcel of land 29459 that is located in an urbanized area and that has become part of 29460 such written consent, the location of the tank battery shall not 29466 be within the property line of the owner's parcel of land. 29467

If an applicant cannot identify an owner of land or if an owner of land is not responsive to attempts by the applicant to contact the owner, the applicant may submit an affidavit to the chief attesting to such an unidentifiable owner or to such unresponsiveness of an owner and attempts by the applicant to contact the owner and include a written request to reduce the distance of the location of the tank battery from the property line of the owner's parcel of land to less than seventy-five feet. If the chief receives such an affidavit and written request, the chief shall reduce the distance of the location of the tank battery from the property line, provided that the tank battery shall not be within the property line of the owner's parcel of land.

(G) For purposes of divisions (C) to (F) of this section, written consent of an owner of land may be provided by any of the following:

(1) A copy of an original lease agreement as recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the occupied dwelling or property is located that expressly provides for the reduction of the distance of the location of a well or a tank battery, as applicable, from an occupied dwelling or a property line;

(2) A copy of a deed severing the oil or gas mineral rights, as applicable, from the owner's parcel of land as recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property is located that expressly provides for the reduction of the distance of the location of a well or a tank battery, as applicable, from an occupied dwelling or a property line;

(3) A written statement that consents to the proposed location of a well or a tank battery, as applicable, and that is approved by the chief. For purposes of division (G)(3) of this section, an applicant shall submit a copy of a written statement to the chief. 29500

(H) For areas that are not urbanized areas, the surface 29501 location of a new well shall not be within one hundred feet of an 29502 occupied private dwelling or of a public building that may be used 29503 as a place of assembly, education, entertainment, lodging, trade, 29504 manufacture, repair, storage, or occupancy by the public. This 29505 division does not apply to a building or other structure that is 29506 incidental to agricultural use of the land on which the building 29507 or other structure is located unless the building or other 29508 structure is used as an occupied private dwelling or for retail 29509 trade. 29510

(I) The surface location of a new well shall not be within 29511 one hundred feet of any other well. However, an applicant may 29512 submit a written statement to request the chief to authorize a new 29513 well to be located at a distance that is less than one hundred 29514 feet from another well. If the chief receives such a written 29515 statement, the chief may authorize a new well to be located within 29516 one hundred feet of another well if the chief determines that the 29517 applicant satisfactorily has demonstrated that the location of the 29518 new well at a distance that is less than one hundred feet from 29519 another well is necessary to reduce impacts to the owner of the 29520 land on which the well is to be located or to the surface of the 29521 land on which the well is to be located. 29522

(J) For areas that are not urbanized areas, the location of a 29523 new tank battery of a well shall not be within one hundred feet of 29524

However, the chief may authorize a new well or a new tank battery of a well to be located at a distance that is less than fifty feet from a stream, river, watercourse, water well, pond, lake, or other body of water if the chief determines that the reduction in the distance is necessary to reduce impacts to the owner of the land on which the well or tank battery of a well is to be located or to protect public safety or the environment.

(M) The surface location of a new well or a new tank battery of a well shall not be within fifty feet of a railroad track or of the traveled portion of a public street, road, or highway. This division applies regardless of whether the public street, road, or highway has become part of the drilling unit of the well pursuant to a mandatory pooling order issued under section 1509.27 of the Revised Code.

~~(M)~~(N) A new oil tank shall not be within three feet of another oil tank.

~~(N)~~(O) The surface location of a mechanical separator shall not be within any of the following:

- (1) Fifty feet of an oil production tank;
- (2) Fifty feet of a well;
- (3) One hundred feet of an existing inhabited structure;
- (4) If the contents of the vessel are heated by a direct fire heater, fifty feet of a mechanical separator.

Sec. 1509.022. Except as provided in section 1509.021 of the Revised Code, the surface location of a new well that will be drilled using directional drilling may be located on a parcel of land that is not in the drilling unit of the well.

Ohio registered surveyor, showing the location of the well and 29790 containing such other data as may be prescribed by the chief. If 29791 the well is or is to be located within the excavations and 29792 regular mail, of a drilling permit application to the clerk of the 29806 legislative authority of the municipal corporation or to the clerk 29807 of the township in which the well or proposed well is or is to be 29808

(C)(1) Except as provided in division (C)(2) of this section, 29814 the chief shall not issue a permit for at least ten days after the 29815 reasonable cause shown, the chief waives that period or a request 29817 for expedited review is filed under this section. However, the 29818 chief shall issue a permit within twenty-one days of the filing of 29819 the application unless the chief denies the application by order. 29820

(2) If the location of a well or proposed well will be or is 29821 within an urbanized area, the chief shall not issue a permit for 29822 at least eighteen days after the date of filing of the application 29823 for the permit unless, upon reasonable cause shown, the chief 29824 waives that period or the chief at the chief's discretion grants a 29825 request for an expedited review. However, the chief shall issue a 29826 permit for a well or proposed well within an urbanized area within 29827 thirty days of the filing of the application unless the chief 29828 denies the application by order. 29829

(D) An applicant may file a request with the chief for 29830 expedited review of a permit application if the well is not or is 29831 not to be located in a gas storage reservoir or reservoir 29832 protective area, as "reservoir protective area" is defined in 29833 section 1571.01 of the Revised Code. If the well is or is to be 29834 located in a coal bearing township, the application shall be 29835 accompanied by the affidavit of the landowner prescribed in 29836
section 1509.08 of the Revised Code. 29837

In addition to a complete application for a permit that meets 29838 the requirements of this section and the permit fee prescribed by 29839 this section, a request for expedited review shall be accompanied 29840 by a separate nonrefundable filing fee of two hundred fifty 29841 twenty-one days of their filing, of permits for which applications 29854 are pending. 29855

(E) A well shall be drilled and operated in accordance with 29856 the plans, sworn statements, and other information submitted in 29857 the approved application. 29858

(F) The chief shall issue an order denying a permit if the 29859 chief finds that there is a substantial risk that the operation 29860 will result in violations of this chapter or rules adopted under 29861 it that will present an imminent danger to public health or safety 29862 or damage to the environment, provided that where the chief finds 29863 that terms or conditions to the permit can reasonably be expected 29864 to prevent such violations, the chief shall issue the permit 29865 subject to those terms or conditions, including, if applicable, 29866 terms and conditions regarding subjects identified in rules 29867 adopted under section 1509.03 of the Revised Code. The issuance of 29868 a permit shall not be considered an order of the chief. 29869

(G) Each application for a permit required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code, except an application to plug back an existing well that is required by that section and an application for a well drilled or reopened for purposes of section 1509.22 of the Revised Code, also shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee as follows:

(1) Five hundred dollars for a permit to conduct activities in a township with a population of fewer than ten thousand;

(2) Seven hundred fifty dollars for a permit to conduct activities in a township with a population of ten thousand or more, but fewer than fifteen thousand;

(3) One thousand dollars for a permit to conduct activities in either of the following:

(a) A township with a population of fifteen thousand or more;

(b) A municipal corporation regardless of population.

(4) If the application is for a permit that requires mandatory pooling, an additional five thousand dollars.

For purposes of calculating fee amounts, populations shall be determined using the most recent federal decennial census.

Each application for the revision or reissuance of a permit shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty dollars.

(H) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed well that is to be located in an urbanized area, the division shall conduct a site review to identify and evaluate any site-specific terms and conditions that may be attached to the permit. At the site review, a representative of the division shall consider fencing, screening, and landscaping requirements, if any, for similar structures in the community in which the well is proposed to be located. The terms and conditions that are attached to the permit shall include the establishment of fencing, 29900 screening, and landscaping requirements for the surface facilities 29901 of the proposed well, including a tank battery of the well. 29902

(I) A permit shall be issued by the chief in accordance with 29903 agreed to by the chief's authorized representative, prior to the 29911 commencement of drilling, reopening, converting, well stimulation, 29912 or plugback operations. 29913

Sec. 1509.061. An owner of a well who has been issued a 29914 permit under section 1509.06 of the Revised Code may submit to the 29915 chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management, 29916 on a form prescribed by the chief, a request to revise an existing 29917 tract upon which exists a producing or idle well. The chief shall 29918 adopt, and may amend and rescind, rules under section 1509.03 of 29919 the Revised Code that are necessary for the administration of this 29920 section. The rules at least shall stipulate the information to be 29921 included on the request form and shall establish a fee to be paid 29922 by the person submitting the request, which fee shall not exceed 29923 two hundred fifty dollars. 29924

The chief shall approve a request submitted under this 29925 section unless it would result in a violation of this chapter or 29926 rules adopted under it, including provisions establishing spacing 29927 or minimum acreage requirements. 29928

Sec. 1509.062. (A)(1) The owner of a well that has not been 29929 completed, a well that has not produced within one year after 29930 completion, or an existing well that has no reported production 29931 for two consecutive reporting periods as reported in accordance 29932 with section 1509.11 of the Revised Code shall plug the well in 29933 accordance with section 1509.12 of the Revised Code, obtain 29934 temporary inactive well status for the well in accordance with 29935 this section, or perform another activity regarding the well that 29936 is approved by the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 29937 resources management. 29938

(2) If a well has a reported annual production that is less 29939 than one hundred thousand cubic feet of natural gas or fifteen 29940 barrels of crude oil, or a combination thereof, the chief may 29941 require the owner of the well to submit an application for 29942 temporary inactive well status under this section for the well. 29943

(B) In order for the owner of a well to submit an application 29944 for temporary inactive well status for the well under this 29945 division, the owner and the well shall be in compliance with this 29946 chapter and rules adopted under it, any terms and conditions of 29947 the permit for the well, and applicable orders issued by the 29948 chief. An application for temporary inactive status for a well 29949 shall be submitted to the chief on a form prescribed and provided 29950 by the chief and shall contain all of the following: 29951 appointment as such agent. 29958

(3) The permit number assigned to the well. If the well has 29959 not been assigned a permit number, the chief shall assign a permit 29960 number to the well. 29961

(4) A map, on a scale not smaller than four hundred feet to 29962 the inch, that shows the location of the well and the tank 29963 battery, that includes the latitude and longitude of the well, and 29964 that contains all other data that are required by the chief; 29965

(5) A demonstration that the well is of future utility and 29966 that the applicant has a viable plan to utilize the well within a 29967 reasonable period of time; 29968

(6) A demonstration that the well poses no threat to the 29969 health or safety of persons, property, or the environment; 29970

(7) Any other relevant information that the chief prescribes 29971
by rule. 29972

The chief may waive any of the requirements established in 29973 divisions (B)(1) to (6) of this section if the division of ~~mineral~~ 29974 oil and gas resources management possesses a current copy of the 29975 information or document that is required in the applicable 29976
division. 29977

(C) Upon receipt of an application for temporary inactive 29978 well status, the chief shall review the application and shall 29979 either deny the application by issuing an order or approve the 29980 application. The chief shall approve the application only if the 29981 application, the chief shall notify the applicant of the chief's 29985 approval. Upon receipt of the chief's approval, the owner shall 29986 shut in the well and empty all liquids and gases from all storage 29987 tanks, pipelines, and other equipment associated with the well. In 29988 addition, the owner shall maintain the well, other equipment 29989 associated with the well, and the surface location of the well in 29990 a manner that prevents hazards to the health and safety of people 29991 and the environment. The owner shall inspect the well at least 29992 every six months and submit to the chief within fourteen days 29993 after the inspection a record of inspection on a form prescribed 29994 and provided by the chief. 29995

(D) Not later than thirty days prior to the expiration of 29996 temporary inactive well status or a renewal of temporary inactive 29997 well status approved by the chief for a well, the owner of the 29998 well may submit to the chief an application for renewal of the 29999 temporary inactive well status on a form prescribed and provided 30000 by the chief. The application shall include a detailed plan that 30001 describes the ultimate disposition of the well, the time frames 30002 for that disposition, and any other information that the chief 30003 determines is necessary. The chief shall either deny an 30004 application by order or approve the application. If the chief 30005 approves the application, the chief shall notify the owner of the 30006 well of the chief's approval. 30007

(E) An application for temporary inactive well status shall 30008 be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of one hundred dollars. An 30009 application for a renewal of temporary inactive well status shall 30010 be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty dollars 30011 for the first renewal and five hundred dollars for each subsequent 30012 renewal. 30013

(F) After a third renewal, the chief may require an owner to 30014 provide a surety bond in an amount not to exceed ten thousand 30015 dollars for each of the owner's wells that has been approved by 30016 the chief for temporary inactive well status. 30017

(G) Temporary inactive well status approved by the chief 30018 expires one year after the date of approval of the application for 30019 temporary inactive well status or production from the well 30020 commences, whichever occurs sooner. In addition, a renewal of a 30021 temporary inactive well status expires one year after the 30022 expiration date of the initial temporary inactive well status or 30023 one year after the expiration date of the previous renewal of the 30024 temporary inactive well status, as applicable, or production from 30025 the well commences, whichever occurs sooner. 30026

(H) The owner of a well that has been approved by the chief 30027 for temporary inactive well status may commence production from 30028 the well at any time. Not later than sixty days after the 30029 commencement of production from such a well, the owner shall 30030 notify the chief of the commencement of production. 30031

(I) This chapter and rules adopted under it, any terms and 30032 conditions of the permit for a well, and applicable orders issued 30033 by the chief apply to a well that has been approved by the chief 30034 for temporary inactive well status or renewal of that status. 30035

Sec. 1509.07. An owner of any well, except an exempt 30036 Mississippian well or an exempt domestic well, shall obtain 30037 liability insurance coverage from a company authorized to do 30038 business in this state in an amount of not less than one million 30039 dollars bodily injury coverage and property damage coverage to pay 30040 damages for injury to persons or damage to property caused by the 30041 drilling, operation, or plugging of all the owner's wells in this 30042 state. However, if any well is located within an urbanized area, 30043 the owner shall obtain liability insurance coverage in an amount 30044 of not less than three million dollars for bodily injury coverage 30045 and property damage coverage to pay damages for injury to persons 30046 or damage to property caused by the drilling, operation, or 30047 plugging of all of the owner's wells in this state. The owner 30048 shall maintain the coverage until all the owner's wells are 30049 plugged and abandoned or are transferred to an owner who has 30050 obtained insurance as required under this section and who is not 30051 under a notice of material and substantial violation or under a 30052 suspension order. The owner shall provide proof of liability 30053 insurance coverage to the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 30054 gas resources management upon request. Upon failure of the owner 30055 to provide that proof when requested, the chief may order the 30056 suspension of any outstanding permits and operations of the owner 30057 until the owner provides proof of the required insurance coverage. 30058

Except as otherwise provided in this section, an owner of any 30059 well, before being issued a permit under section 1509.06 of the 30060 Revised Code or before operating or producing from a well, shall 30061 execute and file with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 30062 resources management a surety bond conditioned on compliance with 30063 the restoration requirements of section 1509.072, the plugging 30064 requirements of section 1509.12, the permit provisions of section 30065 1509.13 of the Revised Code, and all rules and orders of the chief 30066 relating thereto, in an amount set by rule of the chief. 30067

The owner may deposit with the chief, instead of a surety 30068 bond, cash in an amount equal to the surety bond as prescribed 30069 pursuant to this section or negotiable certificates of deposit or 30070 irrevocable letters of credit, issued by any bank organized or 30071 transacting business in this state or by any savings and loan 30072 association as defined in section 1151.01 of the Revised Code, 30073 having a cash value equal to or greater than the amount of the 30074 surety bond as prescribed pursuant to this section. Cash or 30075 certificates of deposit shall be deposited upon the same terms as 30076 those upon which surety bonds may be deposited. If certificates of 30077 deposit are deposited with the chief instead of a surety bond, the 30078 chief shall require the bank or savings and loan association that 30079 issued any such certificate to pledge securities of a cash value 30080 equal to the amount of the certificate that is in excess of the 30081 amount insured by any of the agencies and instrumentalities 30082 created under the "Federal Deposit Insurance Act," 64 Stat. 873 30083 (1950), 12 U.S.C. 1811, as amended, and regulations adopted under 30084 it, including at least the federal deposit insurance corporation, 30085 bank insurance fund, and savings association insurance fund. The 30086 securities shall be security for the repayment of the certificate 30087 of deposit. 30088

Immediately upon a deposit of cash, certificates of deposit, 30089 or letters of credit with the chief, the chief shall deliver them 30090 to the treasurer of state who shall hold them in trust for the 30091 purposes for which they have been deposited. 30092

Instead of a surety bond, the chief may accept proof of 30093 financial responsibility consisting of a sworn financial statement 30094 showing a net financial worth within this state equal to twice the 30095 amount of the bond for which it substitutes and, as may be 30096 required by the chief, a list of producing properties of the owner 30097 within this state or other evidence showing ability and intent to 30098 comply with the law and rules concerning restoration and plugging 30099 that may be required by rule of the chief. The owner of an exempt 30100 Mississippian well is not required to file scheduled updates of 30101 the financial documents, but shall file updates of those documents 30102 if requested to do so by the chief. The owner of a nonexempt 30103 Mississippian well shall file updates of the financial documents 30104 in accordance with a schedule established by rule of the chief. 30105
The chief, upon determining that an owner for whom the chief has 30106 accepted proof of financial responsibility instead of bond cannot 30107 demonstrate financial responsibility, shall order that the owner 30108 execute and file a bond or deposit cash, certificates of deposit, 30109 or irrevocable letters of credit as required by this section for 30110 the wells specified in the order within ten days of receipt of the 30111 order. If the order is not complied with, all wells of the owner 30112 that are specified in the order and for which no bond is filed or 30113 cash, certificates of deposit, or letters of credit are deposited 30114 shall be plugged. No owner shall fail or refuse to plug such a 30115 well. Each day on which such a well remains unplugged thereafter 30116 constitutes a separate offense. 30117

The surety bond provided for in this section shall be 30118 executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this 30119

state. 30120

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 30121
signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 30122 either by the principal's or surety's attorney in fact, with a 30123 certified copy of the power of attorney attached thereto. The 30124 chief shall not approve a bond unless there is attached a 30125 certificate of the superintendent of insurance that the company is 30126 authorized to transact a fidelity and surety business in this 30127

All bonds shall be given in a form to be prescribed by the 30129 chief and shall run to the state as obligee. 30130

An owner of an exempt Mississippian well or an exempt 30131 domestic well, in lieu of filing a surety bond, cash in an amount 30132 equal to the surety bond, certificates of deposit, irrevocable 30133 letters of credit, or a sworn financial statement, may file a 30134 one-time fee of fifty dollars, which shall be deposited in the oil 30135 and gas well plugging fund created in section 1509.071 of the 30136
Revised Code. 30137

An owner, operator, producer, or other person shall not 30138 operate a well or produce from a well at any time if the owner, 30139 operator, producer, or other person has not satisfied the 30140 requirements established in this section. 30141

Sec. 1509.071. (A) When the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 30142 oil and gas resources management finds that an owner has failed to 30143 comply with a final nonappealable order issued or compliance 30144 agreement entered into under section 1509.04, the restoration 30145 requirements of section 1509.072, plugging requirements of section 30146 1509.12, or permit provisions of section 1509.13 of the Revised 30147 Code, or rules and orders relating thereto, the chief shall make a 30148 finding of that fact and declare any surety bond filed to ensure 30149 compliance with those sections and rules forfeited in the amount 30150 set by rule of the chief. The chief thereupon shall certify the 30151

total forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to 30152 collect the amount of the forfeiture. In addition, the chief may 30153 require an owner, operator, producer, or other person who 30154 forfeited a surety bond to post a new surety bond in the amount of 30155 fifteen thousand dollars for a single well, thirty thousand 30156 dollars for two wells, or fifty thousand dollars for three or more 30157 wells. 30158

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety or owner, at the 30159 surety's or owner's option, may cause the well to be properly 30160 plugged and abandoned and the area properly restored or pay to the 30161 treasurer of state the cost of plugging and abandonment. 30162

(B) All moneys collected because of forfeitures of bonds as 30163 provided in this section shall be deposited in the state treasury 30164 to the credit of the oil and gas well fund created in section 30165
1509.02 of the Revised Code. 30166

The chief annually shall spend not less than fourteen per 30167 cent of the revenue credited to the fund during the previous 30168 fiscal year for the following purposes: 30169

(1) In accordance with division (D) of this section, to plug 30170 idle and orphaned wells or to restore the land surface properly as 30171 required in section 1509.072 of the Revised Code; 30172

(2) In accordance with division (E) of this section, to 30173 correct conditions that the chief reasonably has determined are 30174 causing imminent health or safety risks at an idle and orphaned 30175 well or a well for which the owner cannot be contacted in order to 30176 initiate a corrective action within a reasonable period of time as 30177 determined by the chief. 30178

Expenditures from the fund shall be made only for lawful 30179 purposes. In addition, expenditures from the fund shall not be 30180 made to purchase real property or to remove a dwelling in order to 30181 access a well. 30182

(C)(1) Upon determining that the owner of a well has failed 30183 to properly plug and abandon it or to properly restore the land 30184 surface at the well site in compliance with the applicable 30185 requirements of this chapter and applicable rules adopted and 30186 orders issued under it or that a well is an abandoned well for 30187 which no funds are available to plug the well in accordance with 30188 this chapter, the chief shall do all of the following: 30189

(a) Determine from the records in the office of the county 30190 recorder of the county in which the well is located the identity 30191 of the owner of the land on which the well is located, the 30192 identity of the owner of the oil or gas lease under which the well 30193 was drilled or the identity of each person owning an interest in 30194 the lease, and the identities of the persons having legal title 30195 to, or a lien upon, any of the equipment appurtenant to the well; 30196

(b) Mail notice to the owner of the land on which the well is 30197 located informing the landowner that the well is to be plugged. If 30198 the owner of the oil or gas lease under which the well was drilled 30199 is different from the owner of the well or if any persons other 30200 than the owner of the well own interests in the lease, the chief 30201 also shall mail notice that the well is to be plugged to the owner 30202 of the lease or to each person owning an interest in the lease, as 30203 appropriate. 30204

(c) Mail notice to each person having legal title to, or a 30205 lien upon, any equipment appurtenant to the well, informing the 30206 person that the well is to be plugged and offering the person the 30207 opportunity to plug the well and restore the land surface at the 30208 well site at the person's own expense in order to avoid forfeiture 30209 of the equipment to this state. 30210

(2) If none of the persons described in division (C)(1)(c) of 30211 this section plugs the well within sixty days after the mailing of 30212 the notice required by that division, all equipment appurtenant to 30213 the well is hereby declared to be forfeited to this state without 30214 compensation and without the necessity for any action by the state 30215 for use to defray the cost of plugging and abandoning the well and 30216 restoring the land surface at the well site. 30217

(D) Expenditures from the fund for the purpose of division 30218
(B)(1) of this section shall be made in accordance with either of 30219
the following: 30220

(1) The expenditures may be made pursuant to contracts 30221 entered into by the chief with persons who agree to furnish all of 30222 the materials, equipment, work, and labor as specified and 30223 provided in such a contract for activities associated with the 30224 restoration or plugging of a well as determined by the chief. The 30225 activities may include excavation to uncover a well, geophysical 30226 methods to locate a buried well when clear evidence of leakage 30227 from the well exists, cleanout of wellbores to remove material 30228 from a failed plugging of a well, plugging operations, 30229 installation of vault and vent systems, including associated 30230 engineering certifications and permits, restoration of property, 30231 and repair of damage to property that is caused by such 30232 activities. Expenditures shall not be used for salaries, 30233 maintenance, equipment, or other administrative purposes, except 30234 for costs directly attributed to the plugging of an idle and 30235 orphaned well. Agents or employees of persons contracting with the 30236 chief for a restoration or plugging project may enter upon any 30237 land, public or private, on which the well is located for the 30238 purpose of performing the work. Prior to such entry, the chief 30239 shall give to the following persons written notice of the 30240 existence of a contract for a project to restore or plug a well, 30241 the names of the persons with whom the contract is made, and the 30242 date that the project will commence: the owner of the well, the 30243 owner of the land upon which the well is located, the owner or 30244 agents of adjoining land, and, if the well is located in the same 30245 township as or in a township adjacent to the excavations and 30246 workings of a mine and the owner or lessee of that mine has 30247 provided written notice identifying those townships to the chief 30248 at any time during the immediately preceding three years, the 30249 owner or lessee of the mine. 30250

(2)(a) The owner of the land on which a well is located who 30251 has received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section may 30252 plug the well and be reimbursed by the division of oil and gas 30253 resources management for the reasonable cost of plugging the well. 30254
In order to plug the well, the landowner shall submit an 30255 application to the chief on a form prescribed by the chief and 30256 approved by the technical advisory council on oil and gas created 30257 in section 1509.38 of the Revised Code. The application, at a 30258 minimum, shall require the landowner to provide the same 30259 information as is required to be included in the application for a 30260 permit to plug and abandon under section 1509.13 of the Revised 30261 Code. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of a proposed 30262 contract to plug the well prepared by a contractor regularly 30263 engaged in the business of plugging oil and gas wells. The 30264 proposed contract shall require the contractor to furnish all of 30265 the materials, equipment, work, and labor necessary to plug the 30266 well properly and shall specify the price for doing the work, 30267 including a credit for the equipment appurtenant to the well that 30268 was forfeited to the state through the operation of division 30269 (C)(2) of this section. Expenditures under division (D)(2)(a) of 30270 this section shall be consistent with the expenditures for 30271 activities described in division (D)(1) of this section. The 30272 application also shall be accompanied by the permit fee required 30273 by section 1509.13 of the Revised Code unless the chief, in the 30274 chief's discretion, waives payment of the permit fee. The 30275 application constitutes an application for a permit to plug and 30276 abandon the well for the purposes of section 1509.13 of the Revised Code. 30277

(b) Within thirty days after receiving an application and accompanying proposed contract under division (D)(2)(a) of this section, the chief shall determine whether the plugging would comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it and whether the cost of the plugging under the proposed contract is reasonable. If the chief determines that the proposed plugging would comply with those requirements and that the proposed cost of the plugging is reasonable, the chief shall notify the landowner of that determination and issue to the landowner a permit to plug and abandon the well under section 1509.13 of the Revised Code. Upon approval of the application and proposed contract, the chief shall transfer ownership of the equipment appurtenant to the well to the landowner. The chief may disapprove an application submitted under division (D)(2)(a) of this section if the chief determines that the proposed plugging would not comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it, that the cost of the plugging under the proposed contract is unreasonable, or that the proposed contract is not a bona fide, ~~arms~~ arm's length contract. 30279

30298

(c) After receiving the chief's notice of the approval of the application and permit to plug and abandon a well under division (D)(2)(b) of this section, the landowner shall enter into the proposed contract to plug the well. 30299
30300
30302

(d) Upon determining that the plugging has been completed in compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it, the chief shall reimburse the landowner for the cost of the plugging as set forth in the proposed contract approved by the chief. The reimbursement shall be paid from the oil and gas well fund. If the 30303

30305
30307
30308

chief determines that the plugging was not completed in accordance 30309 with the applicable requirements, the chief shall not reimburse 30310 the landowner for the cost of the plugging, and the landowner or 30311 the contractor, as applicable, promptly shall transfer back to 30312 this state title to and possession of the equipment appurtenant to 30313 the well that previously was transferred to the landowner under 30314 division (D)(2)(b) of this section. If any such equipment was 30315 removed from the well during the plugging and sold, the landowner 30316 shall pay to the chief the proceeds from the sale of the 30317 equipment, and the chief promptly shall pay the moneys so received 30318 to the treasurer of state for deposit into the oil and gas well 30319 fund. 30320

The chief may establish an annual limit on the number of 30321 wells that may be plugged under division (D)(2) of this section or 30322 an annual limit on the expenditures to be made under that 30323
division. 30324

As used in division (D)(2) of this section, "plug" and 30325
"plugging" include the plugging of the well and the restoration of 30326 the land surface disturbed by the plugging. 30327

(E) Expenditures from the oil and gas well fund for the 30328 purpose of division (B)(2) of this section may be made pursuant to 30329 contracts entered into by the chief with persons who agree to 30330 furnish all of the materials, equipment, work, and labor as 30331 specified and provided in such a contract. The competitive bidding 30332 requirements of Chapter 153. of the Revised Code do not apply if 30333 the chief reasonably determines that correction of the applicable 30334 health or safety risk requires immediate action. The chief, 30335 designated representatives of the chief, and agents or employees 30336 of persons contracting with the chief under this division may 30337 enter upon any land, public or private, for the purpose of 30338 performing the work. 30339

(F) Contracts entered into by the chief under this section 30340 are not subject to either of the following: 30341

(1) Chapter 4115. of the Revised Code; 30342

(2) Section 153.54 of the Revised Code, except that the 30343 contractor shall obtain and provide to the chief as a bid guaranty 30344 a surety bond or letter of credit in an amount equal to ten per 30345 cent of the amount of the contract. 30346

(G) The owner of land on which a well is located who has 30347 received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section, in lieu 30348 of plugging the well in accordance with division (D)(2) of this 30349 section, may cause ownership of the well to be transferred to an 30350 owner who is lawfully doing business in this state and who has met 30351 the financial responsibility requirements established under 30352 section 1509.07 of the Revised Code, subject to the approval of 30353 the chief. The transfer of ownership also shall be subject to the 30354 landowner's filing the appropriate forms required under section 30355 1509.31 of the Revised Code and providing to the chief sufficient 30356 information to demonstrate the landowner's or owner's right to 30357 produce a formation or formations. That information may include a 30358 deed, a lease, or other documentation of ownership or property 30359 rights. 30360

The chief shall approve or disapprove the transfer of 30361 ownership of the well. If the chief approves the transfer, the 30362 owner is responsible for operating the well in accordance with 30363 this chapter and rules adopted under it, including, without 30364 limitation, all of the following: 30365

(1) Filing an application with the chief under section 30366 1509.06 of the Revised Code if the owner intends to drill deeper 30367 or produce a formation that is not listed in the records of the 30368 division for that well; 30369

(2) Taking title to and possession of the equipment 30370 appurtenant to the well that has been identified by the chief as 30371 having been abandoned by the former owner; 30372

(3) Complying with all applicable requirements that are 30373 necessary to drill deeper, plug the well, or plug back the well. 30374

(H) The chief shall issue an order that requires the owner of 30375 a well to pay the actual documented costs of a corrective action 30376 that is described in division (B)(2) of this section concerning 30377 the well. The chief shall transmit the money so recovered to the 30378 treasurer of state who shall deposit the money in the state 30379 treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well fund. 30380

Sec. 1509.072. No oil or gas well owner or agent of an oil or 30381 gas well owner shall fail to restore the land surface within the 30382 area disturbed in siting, drilling, completing, and producing the 30383 well as required in this section. 30384

(A) Within fourteen days after the date upon which the 30385 drilling of a well is completed to total depth in an urbanized 30386 area and within two months after the date upon which the drilling 30387 of a well is completed in all other areas, the owner or the 30388 owner's agent, in accordance with the restoration plan filed under 30389 division (A)(10) of section 1509.06 of the Revised Code, shall 30390 fill all the pits for containing brine and other waste substances 30391 resulting, obtained, or produced in connection with exploration or 30392 drilling for oil or gas that are not required by other state or 30393 federal law or regulation, and remove all drilling supplies and 30394 drilling equipment. Unless the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 30395 oil and gas resources management approves a longer time period, 30396 within three months after the date upon which the surface drilling 30397 of a well is commenced in an urbanized area and within six months 30398 after the date upon which the surface drilling of a well is 30399 commenced in all other areas, the owner or the owner's agent shall 30400 grade or terrace and plant, seed, or sod the area disturbed that 30401 is not required in production of the well where necessary to bind 30402 the soil and prevent substantial erosion and sedimentation. If the 30403 chief finds that a pit used for containing brine, other waste 30404 substances, or oil is in violation of section 1509.22 of the 30405 Revised Code or rules adopted or orders issued under it, the chief 30406 may require the pit to be emptied and closed before expiration of 30407 the fourteen-day or three-month restoration period. 30408

(B) Within three months after a well that has produced oil or 30409 gas is plugged in an urbanized area and within six months after a 30410 well that has produced oil or gas is plugged in all other areas, 30411 or after the plugging of a dry hole, unless the chief approves a 30412 longer time period, the owner or the owner's agent shall remove 30413 all production and storage structures, supplies, and equipment, 30414 and any oil, salt water, and debris, and fill any remaining 30415 excavations. Within that period the owner or the owner's agent 30416 shall grade or terrace and plant, seed, or sod the area disturbed 30417 where necessary to bind the soil and prevent substantial erosion 30418 and sedimentation. 30419

The owner shall be released from responsibility to perform 30420 any or all restoration requirements of this section on any part or 30421 all of the area disturbed upon the filing of a request for a 30422 waiver with and obtaining the written approval of the chief, which 30423 request shall be signed by the surface owner to certify the 30424 approval of the surface owner of the release sought. The chief 30425 shall approve the request unless the chief finds upon inspection 30426 that the waiver would be likely to result in substantial damage to 30427 adjoining property, substantial contamination of surface or 30428 underground water, or substantial erosion or sedimentation. 30429

The chief, by order, may shorten the time periods provided 30430 for under division (A) or (B) of this section if failure to 30431 shorten the periods would be likely to result in damage to public 30432 health or the waters or natural resources of the state. 30433

The chief, upon written application by an owner or an owner's 30434 agent showing reasonable cause, may extend the period within which 30435 restoration shall be completed under divisions (A) and (B) of this 30436 section, but not to exceed a further six-month period, except 30437 under extraordinarily adverse weather conditions or when essential 30438 equipment, fuel, or labor is unavailable to the owner or the 30439 owner's agent. 30440

If the chief refuses to approve a request for waiver or 30441 extension, the chief shall do so by order. 30442

Sec. 1509.073. A person that is issued a permit under this 30443 chapter to drill a new well or drill an existing well deeper in an 30444 urbanized area shall establish fluid drilling conditions prior to 30445 penetration of the Onondaga limestone and continue to use fluid 30446 drilling until total depth of the well is achieved unless the 30447 chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management 30448 authorizes such drilling without using fluid. 30449

Sec. 1509.08. Upon receipt of an application for a permit 30450 required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code, or upon receipt 30451 of an application for a permit to plug and abandon under section 30452 1509.13 of the Revised Code, the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ 30453 oil and gas resources management shall determine whether the well 30454 is or is to be located in a coal bearing township. 30455

Whether or not the well is or is to be located in a coal 30456 bearing township, the chief, by order, may refuse to issue a 30457 permit required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code to any 30458 applicant who at the time of applying for the permit is in 30459 material or substantial violation of this chapter or rules adopted 30460 or orders issued under it. The chief shall refuse to issue a 30461 permit to any applicant who at the time of applying for the permit 30462 has been found liable by a final nonappealable order of a court of 30463 competent jurisdiction for damage to streets, roads, highways, 30464 bridges, culverts, or drainways pursuant to section 4513.34 or 30465 5577.12 of the Revised Code until the applicant provides the chief 30466 with evidence of compliance with the order. No applicant shall 30467 attempt to circumvent this provision by applying for a permit 30468 under a different name or business organization name, by 30469 transferring responsibility to another person or entity, by 30470 abandoning the well or lease, or by any other similar act. 30471

If the well is not or is not to be located in a coal bearing 30472 township, or if it is to be located in a coal bearing township, 30473 but the landowner submits an affidavit attesting to ownership of 30474 the property in fee simple, including the coal, and has no 30475 objection to the well, the chief shall issue the permit. 30476

If the application to drill, reopen, or convert concerns a 30477 well that is or is to be located in a coal bearing township, the 30478 chief shall transmit to the chief of the division of mineral 30479 resources management two copies of the application and three 30480 copies of the map required in section 1509.06 of the Revised Code, 30481 except that, when the affidavit with the waiver of objection 30482 described above is submitted, the chief of the division of oil and 30483 gas resources management shall not transmit the copies. 30484

The chief of the division of mineral resources management 30485 immediately shall notify the owner or lessee of any affected mine 30486 that the application has been filed and send to the owner or 30487 lessee two copies of the map accompanying the application setting 30488 forth the location of the well. 30489

If the owner or lessee objects to the location of the well or 30490 objects to any location within fifty feet of the original location 30491 as a possible site for relocation of the well, the owner or lessee 30492 shall notify the chief of the division of mineral resources 30493 management of the objection, giving the reasons for the objection 30494 and, if applicable, indicating on a copy of the map the particular 30495 location or locations within fifty feet of the original location 30496 to which the owner or lessee objects as a site for possible 30497 relocation of the well, within six days after the receipt of the 30498 notice. If the chief receives no objections from the owner or 30499 lessee of the mine within ten days after the receipt of the notice 30500 by the owner or lessee, or if in the opinion of the chief the 30501 objections offered by the owner or lessee are not sufficiently 30502 well founded, the chief immediately shall notify the owner or 30503 lessee of those findings. The owner or lessee may appeal the 30504 decision of the chief to the reclamation commission under section 30505 1513.13 of the Revised Code. The appeal shall be filed within 30506 fifteen days, notwithstanding provisions in divisions (A)(1) of 30507 section 1513.13 of the Revised Code, to the contrary, from the 30508 date on which the owner or lessee receives the notice. If the 30509 appeal is not filed within that time, the chief immediately shall 30510 approve the application ~~and~~, retain a copy of the application and 30511 map, and return a copy of the application to the chief of the 30512 division of oil and gas resources management with the approval 30513 noted on it. The chief of the division of oil and gas resources 30514 management then shall issue the permit if the provisions of this 30515 chapter pertaining to the issuance of such a permit have been 30516 complied with. 30517

If the chief of the division of mineral resources management 30518 receives an objection from the owner or lessee of the mine as to 30519 the location of the well within ten days after receipt of the 30520 notice by the owner or lessee, and if in the opinion of the chief 30521 the objection is well founded, the chief shall disapprove the 30522 application and ~~suggest~~ immediately return it to the chief of the 30523 division of oil and gas resources management together with the 30524 reasons for disapproval and a suggestion for a new location for 30525 the well, provided that the suggested new location shall not be a 30526 location within fifty feet of the original location to which the 30527 owner or lessee has objected as a site for possible relocation of 30528 the well if the chief of the division of mineral resources 30529 management has determined that the objection is well founded. The 30530 chief of the division of oil and gas resources management 30531 immediately shall notify the applicant for the permit of the 30532 disapproval and any suggestion made by the chief of the division 30533 of mineral resources management as to a new location for the well. 30534

The applicant may withdraw the application or amend the 30535 application to drill the well at the location suggested by the 30536 chief, or the applicant may appeal the disapproval of the 30537 application by the chief to the reclamation commission. 30538

If the chief of the division of mineral resources management 30539 receives no objection from the owner or lessee of a mine as to the 30540 location of the well, but does receive an objection from the owner 30541 or lessee as to one or more locations within fifty feet of the 30542 original location as possible sites for relocation of the well 30543 within ten days after receipt of the notice by the owner or 30544 lessee, and if in the opinion of the chief the objection is well 30545 founded, the chief nevertheless shall approve the application and 30546 shall return it immediately to the chief of the division of oil 30547 and gas resources management together with the reasons for 30548 disapproving any of the locations to which the owner or lessee 30549 objects as possible sites for the relocation of the well. The 30550 chief of the division of oil and gas resources management then 30551 shall issue a permit if the provisions of this chapter pertaining 30552 to the issuance of such a permit have been complied with, 30553 incorporating as a term or condition of the permit that the 30554 applicant is prohibited from commencing drilling at any location 30555 within fifty feet of the original location that has been 30556 disapproved by the chief of the division of mineral resources 30557 management. The applicant may appeal to the reclamation commission 30558 the terms and conditions of the permit prohibiting the 30559 commencement of drilling at any such location disapproved by the 30560 chief of the division of mineral resources management. 30561

Any such appeal shall be filed within fifteen days, 30562 notwithstanding provisions in division (A)(1) of section 1513.13 30563 of the Revised Code to the contrary, from the date the applicant 30564 receives notice of the disapproval of the application, any other 30565 location within fifty feet of the original location, or terms or 30566 conditions of the permit, or the owner or lessee receives notice 30567 of the chief's decision. No approval or disapproval of an 30568 application shall be delayed by the chief of the division of 30569 mineral resources management for more than fifteen days from the 30570 date of sending the notice of the application to the mine owner or 30571 lessee as required by this section. 30572

All appeals provided for in this section shall be treated as 30573 expedited appeals. The reclamation commission shall hear any such 30574 appeal in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code and 30575 issue a decision within thirty days of the filing of the notice of 30576 appeal. 30577

The chief of the division of oil and gas resources management 30578 shall not issue a permit to drill a new well or reopen a well that 30579 is or is to be located within three hundred feet of any opening of 30580 any mine used as a means of ingress, egress, or ventilation for 30581 persons employed in the mine, nor within one hundred feet of any 30582 building or inflammable structure connected with the mine and 30583 actually used as a part of the operating equipment of the mine, 30584 unless the chief of the division of mineral resources management 30585 determines that life or property will not be endangered by 30586 drilling and operating the well in that location. 30587

The chief of the division of mineral resources management may 30588 suspend the drilling or reopening of a well in a coal bearing 30589 township after determining that the drilling or reopening 30590 activities present an imminent and substantial threat to public 30591 health or safety or to miners' health or safety and having been 30592 unable to contact the chief of the division of oil and gas 30593 resources management to request an order of suspension under 30594 section 1509.06 of the Revised Code. Before issuing a suspension 30595 order for that purpose, the chief of the division of mineral 30596 resources management shall notify the owner in a manner that in 30597 the chief's judgment would provide reasonable notification that 30598 the chief intends to issue a suspension order. The chief may issue 30599 such an order without prior notification if reasonable attempts to 30600 notify the owner have failed, but in that event notification shall 30601 be given as soon thereafter as practical. Within five calendar 30602 days after the issuance of the order, the chief shall provide the 30603 owner an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence that the 30604 activities do not present an imminent and substantial threat to 30605 public health or safety or to miners' health or safety. If, after 30606 considering the evidence presented by the owner, the chief 30607 determines that the activities do not present such a threat, the 30608 chief shall revoke the suspension order. An owner may appeal a 30609 suspension order issued by the chief of the division of mineral 30610 resources management under this section to the reclamation 30611 commission in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code 30612 or may appeal the order directly to the court of common pleas of 30613 the county in which the well is located. 30614

Sec. 1509.09. A well may be drilled under a permit only at 30615 the location designated on the map required in section 1509.06 of 30616 the Revised Code. The location of a well may be changed after the 30617 issuance of a permit only with the approval of the chief of the 30618 division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management and, if the 30619 well is located in a coal bearing township, with the approval of 30620 the chief of the division of mineral resources management using 30621 the procedures required in section 1509.08 of the Revised Code for 30622 a permit to drill a well unless the permit holder requests the 30623 issuance of an emergency drilling permit under this section due to 30624 a lost hole under such circumstances that completion of the well 30625 is not feasible at the original location. If a permit holder 30626 requests a change of location, the permit holder shall return the 30627 original permit and file an amended map indicating the proposed 30628 new location. 30629

Drilling shall not be commenced at a new location until the 30630 original permit bearing a notation of approval by the chief or 30631 chiefs is posted at the well site. However, a permit holder may 30632 commence drilling at a new location without first receiving the 30633 prior approval required by this section, if all of the following 30634 conditions are met: 30635

(A) Within one working day after spudding the new well, the 30636 permit holder files a request for an emergency drilling permit and 30637 submits to the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 30638 management an application for a permit that meets the requirements 30639 of section 1509.06 of the Revised Code, including the permit fee 30640 required by that section, with an amended map showing the new 30641 location~~+~~. 30642

(B) ~~A mineral~~ An oil and gas resources inspector is present 30643 before spudding operations are commenced at the location~~+~~. 30644

(C) The original well is plugged prior to the skidding of the 30645 drilling rig to the new location, and the plugging is witnessed or 30646 verified by ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector or, if 30647 the well is located in a coal bearing township, both a deputy mine 30648 inspector and ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector unless 30649 the chief or the chief's authorized representative temporarily 30650 waives the requirement, but in any event the original well shall 30651 be plugged before the drilling rig is moved from the location~~+~~. 30652

(D) The new location is within fifty feet of the original 30653 location unless, upon request of the permit holder, the chief~~,~~ 30654 with the approval of the chief of the division of mineral 30655 resources management if the well is located in a coal bearing 30656 township, agrees to a new location farther than fifty feet from 30657 the original location~~+~~. 30658

(E) The new location meets all the distance and spacing 30659 requirements prescribed by rules adopted under sections 1509.23 30660 and 1509.24 of the Revised Code~~+~~. 30661

(F) If the well is located in a coal bearing township, use of 30662 the new well location has not been disapproved by the chief of the 30663 division of mineral resources management and has not been 30664 prohibited as a term or condition of the permit under section 30665
1509.08 of the Revised Code. 30666

If the chief of the division of oil and gas resources 30667 management approves the change of location, the chief shall issue 30668 an emergency permit within two working days after the filing of 30669 the request for the emergency permit. If the chief disapproves the 30670 change of location, the chief shall, by order, deny the request 30671 and may issue an appropriate enforcement order under section 30672
1509.03 of the Revised Code. 30673

Sec. 1509.10. (A) Any person drilling within the state shall, 30674 within sixty days after the completion of drilling operations to 30675 the proposed total depth or after a determination that a well is a 30676 dry or lost hole, file with the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 30677 resources management all wireline electric logs and an accurate 30678 well completion record on a form that is approved by the chief of 30679 the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management that 30680 designates: 30681

(1) The purpose for which the well was drilled; 30682

(2) The character, depth, and thickness of geological units 30683 encountered, including coal seams, mineral beds, associated fluids 30684 such as fresh water, brine, and crude oil, natural gas, and sour 30685 gas, if such seams, beds, fluids, or gases are known; 30686

(3) The dates on which drilling operations were commenced and completed;	30687 30688
(4) The types of drilling tools used and the name of the person that drilled the well;	30689 30690
(5) The length in feet of the various sizes of casing and tubing used in drilling the well, the amount removed after completion, the type and setting depth of each packer, all other data relating to cementing in the annular space behind such casing or tubing, and data indicating completion as a dry, gas, oil, combination oil and gas, brine injection, or artificial brine well or a stratigraphic test;	30691 30692 30693 30694 30695 30696 30697
(6) The number of perforations in the casing and the intervals of the perforations;	30698 30699
(7) The elevation above mean sea level of the point from which the depth measurements were made, stating also the height of the point above ground level at the well, the total depth of the well, and the deepest geological unit that was penetrated in the drilling of the well;	30700 30701 30702 30703 30704
(8) If applicable, the type, volume, and concentration of acid, and the date on which acid was used in acidizing the well;	30705 30706
(9) If applicable, the type and volume of fluid used to stimulate the reservoir of the well, the reservoir breakdown pressure, the method used for the containment of fluids recovered from the fracturing of the well, the methods used for the containment of fluids when pulled from the wellbore from swabbing the well, the average pumping rate of the well, and the name of the person that performed the well stimulation. In addition, the owner shall include a copy of the log from the stimulation of the well, a copy of the invoice for each of the procedures and methods described in division (A)(9) of this section that were used on a well, and a copy of the pumping pressure and rate graphs. However,	30707 30708 30709 30710 30711 30712 30713 30714 30715 30716 30717

the owner may redact from the copy of each invoice that is 30718 required to be included under division (A)(9) of this section the 30719 costs of and charges for the procedures and methods described in 30720 division (A)(9) of this section that were used on a well. 30721

(10) The name of the company that performed the logging of 30722 the well and the types of wireline electric logs performed on the 30723
well. 30724

The well completion record shall be submitted in duplicate. 30725
The first copy shall be retained as a permanent record in the 30726 files of the division, and the second copy shall be transmitted by 30727 the chief to the division of geological survey. 30728

(B)(1) Not later than sixty days after the completion of the 30729 drilling operations to the proposed total depth, the owner shall 30730 file all wireline electric logs with the division of ~~mineral oil~~ 30731 and gas resources management and the chief shall transmit such 30732 logs electronically, if available, to the division of geological 30733 survey. Such logs may be retained by the owner for a period of not 30734 more than six months, or such additional time as may be granted by 30735 the chief in writing, after the completion of the well 30736 substantially to the depth shown in the application required by 30737
section 1509.06 of the Revised Code. 30738

(2) If a well is not completed within sixty days after the 30739 completion of drilling operations, the owner shall file with the 30740 division of oil and gas resources management a supplemental well 30741 completion record that includes all of the information required 30742 under this section within sixty days after the completion of the 30743
well. 30744

(C) Upon request in writing by the chief of the division of 30745 geological survey prior to the beginning of drilling of the well, 30746 the person drilling the well shall make available a complete set 30747 of cuttings accurately identified as to depth. 30748

(D) The form of the well completion record required by this section shall be one that has been approved by the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management and the chief of the division of geological survey. The filing of a log as required by this section fulfills the requirement of filing a log with the chief of the division of geological survey in section 1505.04 of the Revised Code.

(E) If there is a material listed on the invoice that is required by division (A)(9) of this section for which the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management does not have a material safety data sheet, the chief shall obtain a copy of the material safety data sheet for the material and post a copy of the material safety data sheet on the division's web site.

Sec. 1509.11. The owner of any well producing or capable of producing oil or gas shall file with the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management, on or before the thirty-first day of March, a statement of production of oil, gas, and brine for the last preceding calendar year in such form as the chief may prescribe. An owner that has more than one hundred wells in this state shall submit electronically the statement of production in a format that is approved by the chief. The chief shall include on the form, at the minimum, a request for the submittal of the information that a person who is regulated under this chapter is required to submit under the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act of 1986," 100 Stat. 1728, 42 U.S.C.A. 11001, and regulations adopted under it, and that the division does not obtain through other reporting mechanisms.

Sec. 1509.12. (A) No owner of any well shall construct a well, or permit defective casing in a well to leak fluids or gases, that causes damage to other permeable strata, underground sources of drinking water, or the surface of the land or that threatens the public health and safety or the environment. Upon 30780 the discovery that the casing in a well is defective or that a 30781 well was not adequately constructed, the owner of the well shall 30782 notify the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources 30783 management within twenty-four hours of the discovery, and the 30784 owner shall immediately repair the casing, correct the 30785 construction inadequacies, or plug and abandon the well. 30786

(B) When the chief finds that a well should be plugged, the 30787 chief shall notify the owner to that effect by order in writing 30788 and shall specify in the order a reasonable time within which to 30789 comply. No owner shall fail or refuse to plug a well within the 30790 time specified in the order. Each day on which such a well remains 30791 unplugged thereafter constitutes a separate offense. 30792

Where the plugging method prescribed by rules adopted 30793 pursuant to section 1509.15 of the Revised Code cannot be applied 30794 or if applied would be ineffective in carrying out the protection 30795 that the law is meant to give, the chief may designate a different 30796 method of plugging. The abandonment report shall show the manner 30797 in which the well was plugged. 30798

(C) In case of oil or gas wells abandoned prior to September 30799
1, 1978, the board of county commissioners of the county in which 30800 the wells are located may submit to the electors of the county the 30801 question of establishing a special fund, by general levy, by 30802 general bond issue, or out of current funds, which shall be 30803 approved by a majority of the electors voting upon that question 30804 for the purpose of plugging the wells. The fund shall be 30805 administered by the board and the plugging of oil and gas wells 30806 shall be under the supervision of the chief, and the board shall 30807 let contracts for that purpose, provided that the fund shall not 30808 be used for the purpose of plugging oil and gas wells that were 30809 abandoned subsequent to September 1, 1978. 30810

Sec. 1509.13. (A) No person shall plug and abandon a well 30811 without having a permit to do so issued by the chief of the 30812 division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas resources management. The permit 30813 shall be issued by the chief in accordance with this chapter and 30814 shall be valid for a period of twenty-four months from the date of 30815 issue. 30816

(B) Application by the owner for a permit to plug and abandon 30817 shall be filed as many days in advance as will be necessary for a 30818 ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector or, if the well is 30819 located in a coal bearing township, both a deputy mine inspector 30820 and a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector to be present at 30821 the plugging. The application shall be filed with the chief upon a 30822 form that the chief prescribes and shall contain the following 30823 information: 30824

(1) The name and address of the owner; 30825

(2) The signature of the owner or the owner's authorized 30826 agent. When an authorized agent signs an application, it shall be 30827 accompanied by a certified copy of the appointment as that agent. 30828

(3) The location of the well identified by section or lot 30829 number, city, village, township, and county; 30830

(4) Designation of well by name and number; 30831

(5) The total depth of the well to be plugged; 30832

(6) The date and amount of last production from the well; 30833

(7) Other data that the chief may require. 30834

(C) If oil or gas has been produced from the well, the 30835 application shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty 30836 dollars. If a well has been drilled in accordance with law and the 30837 permit is still valid, the permit holder may receive approval to 30838 plug the well from a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector so 30839 that the well can be plugged and abandoned without undue delay. 30840

Unless waived by a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector, the 30841 owner of a well or the owner's authorized representative shall 30842 notify a ~~mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector at least 30843 twenty-four hours prior to the commencement of the plugging of a 30844 well. No well shall be plugged and abandoned without a ~~mineral~~ an 30845 oil and gas resources inspector present unless permission has been 30846 granted by the chief. The owner of a well that has produced oil or 30847 gas shall give written notice at the same time to the owner of the 30848 land upon which the well is located and to all lessors that 30849 receive gas from the well pursuant to a lease agreement. If the 30850 well penetrates or passes within one hundred feet of the 30851 excavations and workings of a mine, the owner of the well shall 30852 give written notice to the owner or lessee of that mine, of the 30853 well owner's intention to abandon the well and of the time when 30854 the well owner will be prepared to commence plugging it. 30855

(D) An applicant may file a request with the chief for 30856 expedited review of an application for a permit to plug and 30857 abandon a well. The chief may refuse to accept a request for 30858 expedited review if, in the chief's judgment, acceptance of the 30859 request will prevent the issuance, within twenty-one days of 30860 filing, of permits for which applications filed under section 30861 1509.06 of the Revised Code are pending. In addition to a complete 30862 application for a permit that meets the requirements of this 30863 section and the permit fee prescribed by this section, if 30864 applicable, a request shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 30865 filing fee of five hundred dollars unless the chief has ordered 30866 the applicant to plug and abandon the well. When a request for 30867 expedited review is filed, the chief shall immediately begin to 30868 process the application and shall issue a permit within seven days 30869 of the filing of the request unless the chief, by order, denies 30870
the application. 30871

(E) This section does not apply to a well plugged or 30872 abandoned in compliance with section 1571.05 of the Revised Code. 30873

Sec. 1509.14. Any person who abandons a well, when written 30874 permission has been granted by the chief of the division of 30875 ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources management to abandon and plug the 30876 well without an inspector being present to supervise the plugging, 30877 shall make a written report of the abandonment to the chief. The 30878 report shall be submitted not later than thirty days after the 30879 date of abandonment and shall include all of the following: 30880

(A) The date of abandonment; 30881

(B) The name of the owner or operator of the well at the time 30882 of abandonment and the post-office address of the owner or 30883 operator; 30884

(C) The location of the well as to township and county and 30885 the name of the owner of the surface upon which the well is 30886 drilled, with the address thereof; 30887

(D) The date of the permit to drill; 30888

(E) The date when drilled; 30889

(F) The depth of the well; 30890

(G) The depth of the top of the formation to which the well 30891 was drilled; 30892

(H) The depth of each seam of coal drilled through, if known; 30893

(I) A detailed report as to how the well was plugged, giving 30894 in particular the manner in which the coal and various formations 30895 were plugged, and the date of the plugging of the well, including 30896 the names of those who witnessed the plugging of the well. 30897

The report shall be signed by the owner or operator, or the 30898 agent of the owner or operator, who abandons and plugs the well 30899 and verified by the oath of the party so signing. For the purposes 30900 of this section, the ~~mineral oil and gas~~ resources inspectors may 30901 take acknowledgments and administer oaths to the parties signing 30902 the report. 30903

Sec. 1509.15. When any well is to be abandoned, it shall 30904 first be plugged in accordance with a method of plugging adopted 30905 by rule by the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 30906 resources management. The abandonment report shall show the manner 30907
in which the well was plugged. 30908

Sec. 1509.17. (A) A well shall be constructed in a manner 30909 that is approved by the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and 30910 gas resources management as specified in the permit using 30911 materials that comply with industry standards for the type and 30912 depth of the well and the anticipated fluid pressures that are 30913 associated with the well. In addition, a well shall be constructed 30914 using sufficient steel or conductor casing in a manner that 30915 supports unconsolidated sediments, that protects and isolates all 30916 underground sources of drinking water as defined by the Safe 30917 Drinking Water Act, and that provides a base for a blowout 30918 preventer or other well control equipment that is necessary to 30919 control formation pressures and fluids during the drilling of the 30920 well and other operations to complete the well. Using steel 30921 production casing with sufficient cement, an oil and gas reservoir 30922 shall be isolated during well stimulation and during the 30923 productive life of the well. In addition, sour gas zones and gas 30924 bearing zones that have sufficient pressure and volume to 30925 over-pressurize the surface production casing annulus resulting in 30926 annular overpressurization shall be isolated using approved 30927 cementing, casing, and well construction practices. However, 30928 isolating an oil and gas reservoir shall not exclude open-hole 30929 completion. A well shall not be perforated for purposes of well 30930 stimulation in any zone that is located around casing that 30931 protects underground sources of drinking water without written 30932 authorization from the chief in accordance with division (D) of 30933 this section. When the well penetrates the excavations of a mine, 30934 the casing shall remain intact as provided in section 1509.18 of 30935 the Revised Code and be plugged and abandoned in accordance with 30936

section 1509.15 of the Revised Code. 30937

(B) The chief may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. 30938 of the Revised Code that are consistent with division (A) of this 30939 section and that establish standards for constructing a well, for 30940 evaluating the quality of well construction materials, and for 30941 completing remedial cementing. In addition, the standards 30942 established in the rules shall consider local geology and various 30943 drilling conditions and shall require the use of reasonable 30944 methods that are based on sound engineering principles. 30945

(C) An owner or an owner's authorized representative shall 30946 notify ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas resources inspector each time that 30947 the owner or the authorized representative notifies a person to 30948 perform the cementing of the conductor casing, the surface casing, 30949 or the production casing. In addition, not later than sixty days 30950 after the completion of the cementing of the production casing, an 30951 owner shall submit to the chief a copy of the cement tickets for 30952 each cemented string of casing and a copy of all logs that were 30953 used to evaluate the quality of the cementing. 30954

(D) The chief shall grant an exemption from this section and 30955 rules adopted under it for a well if the chief determines that a 30956 cement bond log confirms zonal isolation and there is a minimum of 30957 five hundred feet between the uppermost perforation of the casing 30958 and the lowest depth of an underground source of drinking water. 30959

Sec. 1509.181. (A) The chief of the division of mineral 30960 resources management may order the immediate suspension of the 30961 drilling or reopening of a well in a coal bearing township after 30962 determining that the drilling or reopening activities present an 30963 imminent and substantial threat to public health or safety or to a miner's health or safety. 30964 30965

(B) Before issuing an order under division (A) of this section, the chief shall notify the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management and the owner in any manner that the chief of the division of mineral resources management determines would provide reasonable notification of the chief's intent to issue a suspension order. However, the chief may order the immediate suspension of the drilling or reopening of a well in a coal bearing township without prior notification to the owner if the chief has made reasonable attempts to notify the owner and the attempts have failed. If the chief orders the immediate suspension of such drilling or reopening, the chief shall provide the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management and the owner notice of the order as soon as practical. 30966

30973
30974
30975
30976
30978

(D) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an owner may appeal a suspension order issued under this section to the reclamation commission in accordance with section 1513.13 of the Revised Code. 30990
30993

Sec. 1509.19. An owner who elects to stimulate a well shall 30994 stimulate the well in a manner that will not endanger underground 30995 sources of drinking water. Not later than twenty-four hours before 30996 commencing the stimulation of a well, the owner or the owner's 30997 authorized representative shall notify ~~a mineral~~ an oil and gas 30998 resources inspector. If during the stimulation of a well damage to 30999 the production casing or cement occurs and results in the 31000 circulation of fluids from the annulus of the surface production 31001 casing, the owner shall immediately terminate the stimulation of 31002 the well and notify the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and~~ 31003 gas resources management. If the chief determines that the casing 31004 and the cement may be remediated in a manner that isolates the oil 31005 and gas bearing zones of the well, the chief may authorize the 31006 completion of the stimulation of the well. If the chief determines 31007 that the stimulation of a well resulted in irreparable damage to 31008 the well, the chief shall order that the well be plugged and 31009 abandoned within thirty days of the issuance of the order. 31010

For purposes of determining the integrity of the remediation 31011 of the casing or cement of a well that was damaged during the 31012 stimulation of the well, the chief may require the owner of the 31013 well to submit cement evaluation logs, temperature surveys, 31014 pressure tests, or a combination of such logs, surveys, and tests. 31015

Sec. 1509.21. No person shall, without first having obtained 31016 a permit from the chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 31017 resources management, conduct secondary or additional recovery 31018 operations, including any underground injection of fluids or 31019 carbon dioxide for the secondary or tertiary recovery of oil or 31020 natural gas or for the storage of hydrocarbons that are liquid at 31021 standard temperature or pressure, unless a rule of the chief 31022 expressly authorizes such operations without a permit. The permit 31023 shall be in addition to any permit required by section 1509.05 of 31024 the Revised Code. Secondary or additional recovery operations 31025 shall be conducted in accordance with rules and orders of the 31026 chief and any terms or conditions of the permit authorizing such 31027 operations. In addition, the chief may authorize tests to evaluate 31028 whether fluids or carbon dioxide may be injected in a reservoir 31029 and to determine the maximum allowable injection pressure. The 31030 tests shall be conducted in accordance with methods prescribed in 31031 rules of the chief or conditions of the permit. Rules adopted 31032 under this section shall include provisions regarding applications 31033 for and the issuance of permits; the terms and conditions of 31034 permits; entry to conduct inspections and to examine records to 31035 ascertain compliance with this section and rules, orders, and 31036 terms and conditions of permits adopted or issued thereunder; the 31037 provision and maintenance of information through monitoring, 31038 recordkeeping, and reporting; and other provisions in furtherance 31039 of the goals of this section and the Safe Drinking Water Act. To 31040 implement the goals of the Safe Drinking Water Act, the chief 31041 shall not issue a permit for the underground injection of fluids 31042 for the secondary or tertiary recovery of oil or natural gas or 31043 for the storage of hydrocarbons that are liquid at standard 31044 temperature and pressure, unless the chief concludes that the 31045 applicant has demonstrated that the injection will not result in 31046 the presence of any contaminant in underground water that supplies 31047 or can be reasonably expected to supply any public water system, 31048 such that the presence of any such contaminant may result in the 31049 system's not complying with any national primary drinking water 31050 regulation or may otherwise adversely affect the health of 31051 persons. Rules, orders, and terms or conditions of permits adopted 31052 or issued under this section shall be construed to be no more 31053 stringent than required for compliance with the Safe Drinking 31054 Water Act, unless essential to ensure that underground sources of 31055 drinking water will not be endangered. 31056

Sec. 1509.22. (A) Except when acting in accordance with 31057 section 1509.226 of the Revised Code, no person shall place or 31058 cause to be placed brine, crude oil, natural gas, or other fluids 31059 associated with the exploration or development of oil and gas 31060 resources in surface or ground water or in or on the land in such 31061 quantities or in such manner as actually causes or could 31062 reasonably be anticipated to cause either of the following: 31063

(1) Water used for consumption by humans or domestic animals 31064 to exceed the standards of the Safe Drinking Water Act; 31065

(2) Damage or injury to public health or safety or the 31066
environment. 31067

(B) No person shall store or dispose of brine in violation of 31068 a plan approved under division (A) of section 1509.222 or section 31069 1509.226 of the Revised Code, in violation of a resolution 31070 submitted under section 1509.226 of the Revised Code, or in 31071 violation of rules or orders applicable to those plans or 31072 resolutions. 31073

(C) The chief of the division of ~~mineral oil and gas~~ 31074 resources management shall adopt rules and issue orders regarding 31075 storage and disposal of brine and other waste substances; however, 31076 the storage and disposal of brine and other waste substances and 31077 the chief's rules relating to storage and disposal are subject to 31078 all of the following standards: 31079

(1) Brine from any well except an exempt Mississippian well 31080 shall be disposed of only by injection into an underground 31081 formation, including annular disposal if approved by rule of the 31082 chief, which injection shall be subject to division (D) of this 31083 section; by surface application in accordance with section 31084 1509.226 of the Revised Code; in association with a method of 31085 enhanced recovery as provided in section 1509.21 of the Revised 31086 Code; or by other methods approved by the chief for testing or 31087 implementing a new technology or method of disposal. Brine from 31088 exempt Mississippian wells shall not be discharged directly into 31089

the waters of the state. 31090

(2) Muds, cuttings, and other waste substances shall not be 31091 disposed of in violation of any rule. 31092

(3) Pits or steel tanks shall be used as authorized by the 31093 chief for containing brine and other waste substances resulting 31094 from, obtained from, or produced in connection with drilling, well 31095 stimulation, reworking, reconditioning, plugging back, or plugging 31096 operations. The pits and steel tanks shall be constructed and 31097 maintained to prevent the escape of brine and other waste 31098 substances. 31099

(4) A dike or pit may be used for spill prevention and 31100 control. A dike or pit so used shall be constructed and maintained 31101 to prevent the escape of brine and crude oil, and the reservoir 31102 within such a dike or pit shall be kept reasonably free of brine, 31103 crude oil, and other waste substances. 31104

(5) Earthen impoundments constructed pursuant to the 31105 division's specifications may be used for the temporary storage of 31106 fluids used in the stimulation of a well. 31107

(6) No pit, earthen impoundment, or dike shall be used for 31108 the temporary storage of brine or other substances except in 31109 accordance with divisions (C)(3) to (5) of this section. 31110

(7) No pit or dike shall be used for the ultimate disposal of 31111 brine or other liquid waste substances. 31112

(D) No person, without first having obtained a permit from 31113 the chief, shall inject brine or other waste substances resulting 31114 from, obtained from, or produced in connection with oil or gas 31115 drilling, exploration, or production into an underground formation 31116 unless a rule of the chief expressly authorizes the injection 31117 without a permit. The permit shall be in addition to any permit 31118 required by section 1509.05 of the Revised Code, and the permit 31119 application shall be accompanied by a permit fee of one thousand 31120 dollars. The chief shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 31121 119. of the Revised Code regarding the injection into wells of 31122 brine and other waste substances resulting from, obtained from, or 31123 produced in connection with oil or gas drilling, exploration, or 31124 production. The rules may authorize tests to evaluate whether 31125 fluids or carbon dioxide may be injected in a reservoir and to 31126 determine the maximum allowable injection pressure, which shall be 31127 conducted in accordance with methods prescribed in the rules or in 31128 accordance with conditions of the permit. In addition, the rules 31129 shall include provisions regarding applications for and issuance 31130 of the permits required by this division; entry to conduct 31131 inspections and to examine and copy records to ascertain 31132 compliance with this division and rules, orders, and terms and 31133 conditions of permits adopted or issued under it; the provision 31134 and maintenance of information through monitoring, recordkeeping, 31135 and reporting; and other provisions in furtherance of the goals of 31136 this section and the Safe Drinking Water Act. To implement the 31137 goals of the Safe Drinking Water Act, the chief shall not issue a 31138 permit for the injection of brine or other waste substances 31139 resulting from, obtained from, or produced in connection with oil 31140 or gas drilling, exploration, or production unless the chief 31141 concludes that the applicant has demonstrated that the injection 31142 will not result in the presence of any contaminant in ground water 31143 that supplies or can reasonably be expected to supply any public 31144 water system, such that the presence of the contaminant may result 31145 in the system's not complying with any national primary drinking 31146 water regulation or may otherwise adversely affect the health of 31147 persons. This division and rules, orders, and terms and conditions 31148 of permits adopted or issued under it shall be construed to be no 31149 more stringent than required for compliance with the Safe Drinking 31150 Water Act unless essential to ensure that underground sources of 31151

drinking water will not be endangered. 31152

(E) The owner holding a permit, or an assignee or transferee 31153 who has assumed the obligations and liabilities imposed by this 31154 chapter and any rules adopted or orders issued under it pursuant 31155 to section 1509.31 of the Revised Code, and the operator of a well 31156 shall be liable for a violation of this section or any rules 31157 adopted or orders or terms or conditions of a permit issued under 31158
it. 31159

(F) An owner shall replace the water supply of the holder of 31160 an interest in real property who obtains all or part of the 31161 holder's supply of water for domestic, agricultural, industrial, 31162 or other legitimate use from an underground or surface source 31163 where the supply has been substantially disrupted by 31164 contamination, diminution, or interruption proximately resulting 31165 from the owner's oil or gas operation, or the owner may elect to 31166 compensate the holder of the interest in real property for the 31167 difference between the fair market value of the interest before 31168 the damage occurred to the water supply and the fair market value 31169 after the damage occurred if the cost of replacing the water 31170 supply exceeds this difference in fair market values. However, 31171 during the pendency of any order issued under this division, the 31172 owner shall obtain for the holder or shall reimburse the holder 31173 for the reasonable cost of obtaining a water supply from the time 31174 of the contamination, diminution, or interruption by the operation 31175 until the owner has complied with an order of the chief for 31176 compliance with this division or such an order has been revoked or 31177 otherwise becomes not effective. If the owner elects to pay the 31178 difference in fair market values, but the owner and the holder 31179 have not agreed on the difference within thirty days after the 31180 chief issues an order for compliance with this division, within 31181 ten days after the expiration of that thirty-day period, the owner 31182 and the chief each shall appoint an appraiser to determine the 31183 difference in fair market values, except that the holder of the 31184 interest in real property may elect to appoint and compensate the 31185 holder's own appraiser, in which case the chief shall not appoint 31186 an appraiser. The two appraisers appointed shall appoint a third 31187 appraiser, and within thirty days after the appointment of the 31188 third appraiser, the three appraisers shall hold a hearing to 31189 determine the difference in fair market values. Within ten days 31190 after the hearing, the appraisers shall make their determination 31191 by majority vote and issue their final determination of the 31192 difference in fair market values. The chief shall accept a 31193 determination of the difference in fair market values made by 31194 agreement of the owner and holder or by appraisers under this 31195 division and shall make and dissolve orders accordingly. This 31196 division does not affect in any way the right of any person to 31197 enforce or protect, under applicable law, the person's interest in 31198 water resources affected by an oil or gas operation. 31199

(G) In any action brought by the state for a violation of 31200 division (A) of this section involving any well at which annular 31201 disposal is used, there shall be a rebuttable presumption 31202 available to the state that the annular disposal caused the 31203 violation if the well is located within a one-quarter-mile radius 31204 of the site of the violation. 31205

Sec. 1509.221. (A) No person, without first having obtained a 31206 permit from the chief of the division of ~~mineral~~ oil and gas 31207 resources management, shall drill a well or inject a substance 31208 into a well for the exploration for or extraction of minerals or 31209 energy, other than oil or natural gas, including, but not limited 31210 to, the mining of sulfur by the Frasch process, the solution 31211 mining of minerals, the in situ combustion of fossil fuel, or the 31212 recovery of geothermal energy to produce electric power, unless a 31213 rule of the chief expressly authorizes the activity without a 31214 permit. The permit shall be in addition to any permit required by 31215 section 1509.05 of the Revised Code. The chief shall adopt rules 31216 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 31217 issuance of permits under this section. The rules shall include 31218 provisions regarding the matters the applicant for a permit shall 31219 demonstrate to establish eligibility for a permit; the form and 31220 content of applications for permits; the terms and conditions of 31221 permits; entry to conduct inspections and to examine and copy 31222 records to ascertain compliance with this section and rules, 31223 orders, and terms and conditions of permits adopted or issued 31224 thereunder; provision and maintenance of information through 31225 monitoring, recordkeeping, and reporting; and other provisions in 31226 furtherance of the goals of this section and the Safe Drinking 31227 Water Act. To implement the goals of the Safe Drinking Water Act, 31228 the chief shall not issue a permit under this section, unless the 31229 chief concludes that the applicant has demonstrated that the 31230 drilling, injection of a substance, and extraction of minerals or 31231 energy will not result in the presence of any contaminant in 31232 underground water that supplies or can reasonably be expected to 31233 supply any public water system, such that the presence of the 31234 contaminant may result in the system's not complying with any 31235 national primary drinking water regulation or may otherwise 31236 adversely affect the health of persons. The chief may issue, 31237 without a prior adjudication hearing, orders requiring compliance 31238 with this section and rules, orders, and terms and conditions of 31239 permits adopted or issued thereunder. This section and rules, 31240 orders, and terms and conditions of permits adopted or issued 31241 thereunder shall be construed to be no more stringent than 31242 required for compliance with the Safe Drinking Water Act, unless 31243 essential to ensure that underground sources of drinking water 31244
