jurisdiction, nor any solid waste facilities as defined in section 94542
6123.01 of the Revised Code; 94543

(b) Any manufacturing facility that creates byproducts that 94544 may be used in the generation of electricity. 94545

(C) "Commence to construct" means any clearing of land, 94546 excavation, or other action that would adversely affect the 94547 natural environment of the site or route of a major utility 94548 facility, but does not include surveying changes needed for 94549 temporary use of sites or routes for nonutility purposes, or uses 94550 in securing geological data, including necessary borings to 94551 ascertain foundation conditions. 94552

(D) "Certificate" means a certificate of environmental 94553 compatibility and public need issued by the power siting board 94554 under section 4906.10 of the Revised Code or a construction 94555 certificate issued by the board under rules adopted under division 94556 (E) of section 4906.03 of the Revised Code. 94557

Sec. 4909.15. (A) The public utilities commission, when 94558 fixing and determining just and reasonable rates, fares, tolls, 94559 rentals, and charges, shall determine: 94560

(1) The valuation as of the date certain of the property of 94561 the public utility used and useful in rendering the public utility 94562 service for which rates are to be fixed and determined. The 94563 valuation so determined shall be the total value as set forth in 94564 division (J) of section 4909.05 of the Revised Code, and a 94565 reasonable allowance for materials and supplies and cash working 94566 capital, as determined by the commission. 94567

The commission, in its discretion, may include in the 94568 valuation a reasonable allowance for construction work in progress 94569 but, in no event, may such an allowance be made by the commission 94570 until it has determined that the particular construction project 94571 is at least seventy-five per cent complete. 94572

In determining the percentage completion of a particular 94573 construction project, the commission shall consider, among other 94574 relevant criteria, the per cent of time elapsed in construction; 94575 the per cent of construction funds, excluding allowance for funds 94576 used during construction, expended, or obligated to such 94577 construction funds budgeted where all such funds are adjusted to 94578 reflect current purchasing power; and any physical inspection 94579

A reasonable allowance for construction work in progress shall not exceed ten per cent of the total valuation as stated in this division, not including such allowance for construction work in progress. 94582

Where the commission permits an allowance for construction work in progress, the dollar value of the project or portion thereof included in the valuation as construction work in progress shall not be included in the valuation as plant in service until such time as the total revenue effect of the construction work in progress allowance is offset by the total revenue effect of the plant in service exclusion. Carrying charges calculated in a manner similar to allowance for funds used during construction shall accrue on that portion of the project in service but not reflected in rates as plant in service, and such accrued carrying charges shall be included in the valuation of the property at the conclusion of the offset period for purposes of division (J) of section 4909.05 of the Revised Code. 94586

94598

From and after April 10, 1985, no allowance for construction work in progress as it relates to a particular construction project shall be reflected in rates for a period exceeding forty-eight consecutive months commencing on the date the initial rates reflecting such allowance become effective, except as otherwise provided in this division. 94599
94604

where such action or inaction is not the result of the failure of 94612 the utility to reasonably endeavor to comply with any rule, 94613 standard, or approval prior to such change. 94614

In the event that such period expires before the project goes 94615 into service, the commission shall exclude, from the date of 94616 expiration, the allowance for the project as construction work in 94617 progress from rates, except that the commission may extend the 94618 expiration date up to twelve months for good cause shown. 94619

In the event that a utility has permanently canceled, 94620 abandoned, or terminated construction of a project for which it 94621 was previously permitted a construction work in progress 94622 allowance, the commission immediately shall exclude the allowance 94623 for the project from the valuation. 94624

In the event that a construction work in progress project 94625 previously included in the valuation is removed from the valuation 94626 pursuant to this division, any revenues collected by the utility 94627 from its customers after April 10, 1985, that resulted from such 94628 prior inclusion shall be offset against future revenues over the 94629 same period of time as the project was included in the valuation 94630 as construction work in progress. The total revenue effect of such 94631 offset shall not exceed the total revenues previously collected. 94632

In no event shall the total revenue effect of any offset or 94633 offsets provided under division (A)(1) of this section exceed the 94634 total revenue effect of any construction work in progress 94635 allowance. 94636

(2) A fair and reasonable rate of return to the utility on 94637 the valuation as determined in division (A)(1) of this section; 94638

(3) The dollar annual return to which the utility is entitled 94639 by applying the fair and reasonable rate of return as determined 94640 under division (A)(2) of this section to the valuation of the 94641 utility determined under division (A)(1) of this section; 94642

(4) The cost to the utility of rendering the public utility service for the test period less the total of any interest on cash or credit refunds paid, pursuant to section 4909.42 of the Revised Code, by the utility during the test period.

(a) Federal, state, and local taxes imposed on or measured by net income may, in the discretion of the commission, be computed by the normalization method of accounting, provided the utility maintains accounting reserves that reflect differences between taxes actually payable and taxes on a normalized basis, provided that no determination as to the treatment in the rate-making process of such taxes shall be made that will result in loss of any tax depreciation or other tax benefit to which the utility would otherwise be entitled, and further provided that such tax benefit as redounds to the utility as a result of such a computation may not be retained by the company, used to fund any dividend or distribution, or utilized for any purpose other than the defrayal of the operating expenses of the utility and the defrayal of the expenses of the utility in connection with construction work.

(b) The amount of any tax credits granted to an electric light company under section 5727.391 of the Revised Code for Ohio coal burned prior to January 1, 2000, shall not be retained by the company, used to fund any dividend or distribution, or utilized for any purposes other than the defrayal of the allowable operating expenses of the company and the defrayal of the allowable expenses of the company in connection with the installation, acquisition, construction, or use of a compliance facility. The amount of the tax credits granted to an electric light company under that section for Ohio coal burned prior to January 1, 2000, shall be returned to its customers within three years after initially claiming the credit through an offset to the company's rates or fuel component, as determined by the commission, as set forth in schedules filed by the company under 94675 section 4905.30 of the Revised Code. As used in division 94676 (A)(4)~~(e)~~(b) of this section, "compliance facility" has the same 94677 meaning as in section 5727.391 of the Revised Code. 94678

(B) The commission shall compute the gross annual revenues to 94679 which the utility is entitled by adding the dollar amount of 94680 return under division (A)(3) of this section to the cost of 94681 rendering the public utility service for the test period under 94682 division (A)(4) of this section. 94683

(C) The test period, unless otherwise ordered by the 94684 commission, shall be the twelve-month period beginning six months 94685 prior to the date the application is filed and ending six months 94686 subsequent to that date. In no event shall the test period end 94687 more than nine months subsequent to the date the application is 94688 filed. The revenues and expenses of the utility shall be 94689 determined during the test period. The date certain shall be not 94690 later than the date of filing. 94691

(D) ~~When the~~ (1) The commission shall fix and determine the 94692 performance or rendition of a service that will provide a public 94695 utility the allowable gross annual revenues under division (B) of 94696 this section, and order such just and reasonable rate, fare, 94697 charge, toll, rental, or service to be substituted for the 94698 existing one, when either of the following apply: 94699 making the determinations under divisions (A) and (B) of this 94701 section, that any of the following apply: 94702

(b) A public utility's rate, fare, charge, toll, rental, or 94715 schedule, or joint rate, fare, charge, toll, rental, or schedule, 94716 charged, demanded, exacted, or proposed to be charged, demanded, 94717 or exacted, was, or will be, determined in part based on the 94718 utility's payments of assessments under section 4911.18 of the 94719 Revised Code that were based on an appropriation to the office of 94720 the consumers' counsel for fiscal year 2011 or a prior fiscal year 94721 and that exceeded the minimum assessment under that section. 94722

(2) The commission shall make the fixations and 94723 determinations under division (D)(1)(a) of this section: 94724

~~(1)~~(a) With due regard among other things to the value of all 94725 property of the public utility actually used and useful for the 94726 convenience of the public as determined under division (A)(1) of 94727 this section, excluding from such value the value of any franchise 94728 or right to own, operate, or enjoy the same in excess of the 94729 amount, exclusive of any tax or annual charge, actually paid to 94730 any political subdivision of the state or county, as the 94731 consideration for the grant of such franchise or right, and 94732 excluding any value added to such property by reason of a monopoly 94733 or merger, with due regard in determining the dollar annual return 94734 under division (A)(3) of this section to the necessity of making 94735 reservation out of the income for surplus, depreciation, and 94736 contingencies, and; 94737

determinations under division (D)(1)(b) of this section 94755 exclusively with regard to the payments of assessments that are 94756 required to be calculated based on the appropriation to the office 94757 of the consumers' counsel for fiscal year 2012. The commission 94758 shall make all such fixations and determinations on or before 94759 December 31, 2011, unless the public utility has filed an 94760 application with the commission under section 4909.18 of the 94761 Revised Code and the application is pending on the effective date 94762

(4) After a determination and order made under division (D) 94764 of this section, no change in the rate, fare, toll, charge, 94765 rental, schedule, classification, or service shall be made, 94766 rendered, charged, demanded, exacted, or changed by such public 94767 utility without the order of the commission, and any other rate, 94768 fare, toll, charge, rental, classification, or service is 94769 prohibited. 94770

(E) Upon application of any person or any public utility, and 94771 after notice to the parties in interest and opportunity to be 94772 heard as provided in Chapters 4901., 4903., 4905., 4907., 4909., 94773 4921., and 4923. of the Revised Code for other hearings, has been 94774 given, the commission may rescind, alter, or amend an order fixing 94775 any rate, fare, toll, charge, rental, classification, or service, 94776 or any other order made by the commission. Certified copies of 94777 such orders shall be served and take effect as provided for 94778 original orders. 94779

Sec. 4911.02. (A) The consumers' counsel shall be appointed 94780 by the consumers' counsel governing board, and shall hold office 94781 at the pleasure of the board. 94782

(B)(1) The counsel may sue or be sued and has the powers and 94783 duties granted ~~him~~ the counsel under this chapter, and all 94784 necessary powers to carry out the purposes of this chapter. 94785

(2) Without limitation because of enumeration, the counsel: 94786

(a) Shall have all the rights and powers of any party in 94787 interest appearing before the public utilities commission 94788 regarding examination and cross-examination of witnesses, 94789 presentation of evidence, and other matters; 94790

(b) May take appropriate action with respect to residential 94791 consumer complaints concerning quality of service, service 94792 charges, and the operation of the public utilities commission; 94793

(c) May institute, intervene in, or otherwise participate in 94794 proceedings in both state and federal courts and administrative 94795 agencies on behalf of the residential consumers concerning review 94796 of decisions rendered by, or failure to act by, the public 94797

utilities commission; 94798

(d) May conduct long range studies concerning various topics 94799 relevant to the rates charged to ~~residential~~ residential consumers. 94800

(C) The counsel shall follow the policies of the state as set 94801 forth in Chapter 4929. of the Revised Code. 94802

Sec. 4911.021. The consumers' counsel shall not operate a 94803 telephone call center for consumer complaints. Any calls received 94804 by the consumers' counsel concerning consumer complaints shall be 94805 forwarded to the public utilities commission's call center. 94806

Sec. 4928.18. (A) Notwithstanding division (D)(2)~~(a)~~(b)(i) of 94807 section 4909.15 of the Revised Code, nothing in this chapter 94808 prevents the public utilities commission from exercising its 94809 authority under Title XLIX of the Revised Code to protect 94810 customers of retail electric service supplied by an electric 94811 utility from any adverse effect of the utility's provision of a 94812 product or service other than retail electric service. 94813

(B) The commission has jurisdiction under section 4905.26 of 94814 the Revised Code, upon complaint of any person or upon complaint 94815 or initiative of the commission on or after the starting date of 94816 competitive retail electric service, to determine whether an 94817 electric utility or its affiliate has violated any provision of 94818 section 4928.17 of the Revised Code or an order issued or rule 94819 adopted under that section. For this purpose, the commission may 94820 examine such books, accounts, or other records kept by an electric 94821 utility or its affiliate as may relate to the businesses for which 94822 corporate separation is required under section 4928.17 of the 94823 Revised Code, and may investigate such utility or affiliate 94824 operations as may relate to those businesses and investigate the 94825 interrelationship of those operations. Any such examination or 94826 investigation by the commission shall be governed by Chapter 4903. 94827

(C) In addition to any remedies otherwise provided by law, 94829
the commission, regarding a determination of a violation pursuant 94830 to division (B) of this section, may do any of the following: 94831

(1) Issue an order directing the utility or affiliate to 94832
comply; 94833

(2) Modify an order as the commission finds reasonable and 94834 appropriate and order the utility or affiliate to comply with the 94835 modified order; 94836

(3) Suspend or abrogate an order, in whole or in part; 94837

(4) Issue an order that the utility or affiliate pay 94838 restitution to any person injured by the violation or failure to 94839

(D) In addition to any remedies otherwise provided by law, 94841
the commission, regarding a determination of a violation pursuant 94842 to division (B) of this section and commensurate with the severity 94843 of the violation, the source of the violation, any pattern of 94844 violations, or any monetary damages caused by the violation, may 94845 do either of the following: 94846

(1) Impose a forfeiture on the utility or affiliate of up to 94847 twenty-five thousand dollars per day per violation. The recovery 94848 and deposit of any such forfeiture shall be subject to sections 94849 4905.57 and 4905.59 of the Revised Code. 94850

(2) Regarding a violation by an electric utility relating to 94851 a corporate separation plan involving competitive retail electric 94852 service, suspend or abrogate all or part of an order, to the 94853 extent it is in effect, authorizing an opportunity for the utility 94854 to receive transition revenues under a transition plan approved by 94855 the commission under section 4928.33 of the Revised Code. 94856

Corporate separation under this section does not prohibit the 94857 common use of employee benefit plans, facilities, equipment, or 94858 employees, subject to proper accounting and the code of conduct 94859 ordered by the commission as provided in division (A)(1) of this 94860

section. 94861

(E) Section 4905.61 of the Revised Code applies in the case 94862 of any violation of section 4928.17 of the Revised Code or of any 94863 rule adopted or order issued under that section. 94864

Sec. 4928.20. (A) The legislative authority of a municipal 94865 corporation may adopt an ordinance, or the board of township 94866 trustees of a township or the board of county commissioners of a 94867 county may adopt a resolution, under which, on or after the 94868 starting date of competitive retail electric service, it may 94869 aggregate in accordance with this section the retail electrical 94870 loads located, respectively, within the municipal corporation, 94871 township, or unincorporated area of the county and, for that 94872 purpose, may enter into service agreements to facilitate for those 94873 loads the sale and purchase of electricity. The legislative 94874 authority or board also may exercise such authority jointly with 94875 any other such legislative authority or board. For customers that 94876 are not mercantile customers, an ordinance or resolution under 94877 this division shall specify whether the aggregation will occur 94878 only with the prior, affirmative consent of each person owning, 94879 occupying, controlling, or using an electric load center proposed 94880 to be aggregated or will occur automatically for all such persons 94881 pursuant to the opt-out requirements of division (D) of this 94882 section. The aggregation of mercantile customers shall occur only 94883 with the prior, affirmative consent of each such person owning, 94884 occupying, controlling, or using an electric load center proposed 94885 to be aggregated. Nothing in this division, however, authorizes 94886 the aggregation of the retail electric loads of an electric load 94887 center, as defined in section 4933.81 of the Revised Code, that is 94888 located in the certified territory of a nonprofit electric 94889 supplier under sections 4933.81 to 4933.90 of the Revised Code or 94890 an electric load center served by transmission or distribution 94891 facilities of a municipal electric utility. 94892

(B) If an ordinance or resolution adopted under division (A) 94893 of this section specifies that aggregation of customers that are 94894 not mercantile customers will occur automatically as described in 94895 that division, the ordinance or resolution shall direct the board 94896 of elections to submit the question of the authority to aggregate 94897 to the electors of the respective municipal corporation, township, 94898 or unincorporated area of a county at a special election on the 94899 day of the next primary or general election in the municipal 94900 corporation, township, or county. The legislative authority or 94901 board shall certify a copy of the ordinance or resolution to the 94902 board of elections not less than ninety days before the day of the 94903 special election. No ordinance or resolution adopted under 94904 division (A) of this section that provides for an election under 94905 this division shall take effect unless approved by a majority of 94906 the electors voting upon the ordinance or resolution at the 94907 election held pursuant to this division. 94908

(C) Upon the applicable requisite authority under divisions 94909
(A) and (B) of this section, the legislative authority or board 94910 shall develop a plan of operation and governance for the 94911
aggregation program so authorized. Before adopting a plan under 94912 this division, the legislative authority or board shall hold at 94913 least two public hearings on the plan. Before the first hearing, 94914
the legislative authority or board shall publish notice of the 94915 hearings once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 94916
general circulation in the jurisdiction or as provided in section 94917
7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall summarize the plan and 94918 state the date, time, and location of each hearing. 94919

(D) No legislative authority or board, pursuant to an 94920 ordinance or resolution under divisions (A) and (B) of this 94921 section that provides for automatic aggregation of customers that 94922 are not mercantile customers as described in division (A) of this 94923 section, shall aggregate the electrical load of any electric load 94924 center located within its jurisdiction unless it in advance 94925 clearly discloses to the person owning, occupying, controlling, or 94926 using the load center that the person will be enrolled 94927 automatically in the aggregation program and will remain so 94928 enrolled unless the person affirmatively elects by a stated 94929 procedure not to be so enrolled. The disclosure shall state 94930 prominently the rates, charges, and other terms and conditions of 94931 enrollment. The stated procedure shall allow any person enrolled 94932 in the aggregation program the opportunity to opt out of the 94933 program every three years, without paying a switching fee. Any 94934 such person that opts out before the commencement of the 94935 aggregation program pursuant to the stated procedure shall default 94936 to the standard service offer provided under section 4928.14 or 94937 division (D) of section 4928.35 of the Revised Code until the 94938 person chooses an alternative supplier. 94939

municipal corporation that is authorized pursuant to divisions (A) 94941 to (D) of this section, resolutions may be proposed by initiative 94942 or referendum petitions in accordance with sections 731.28 to 94943

(2) With respect to a governmental aggregation for a township 94945 or the unincorporated area of a county, which aggregation is 94946 authorized pursuant to divisions (A) to (D) of this section, 94947 resolutions may be proposed by initiative or referendum petitions 94948 in accordance with sections 731.28 to 731.40 of the Revised Code, 94949
except that: 94950

(a) The petitions shall be filed, respectively, with the 94951 township fiscal officer or the board of county commissioners, who 94952

city auditor or village clerk. 94954

(b) The petitions shall contain the signatures of not less 94955 than ten per cent of the total number of electors in, 94956 respectively, the township or the unincorporated area of the 94957 county who voted for the office of governor at the preceding 94958 general election for that office in that area. 94959

(F) A governmental aggregator under division (A) of this 94960 section is not a public utility engaging in the wholesale purchase 94961 and resale of electricity, and provision of the aggregated service 94962 is not a wholesale utility transaction. A governmental aggregator 94963 shall be subject to supervision and regulation by the public 94964
utilities commission only to the extent of any competitive retail 94965 electric service it provides and commission authority under this 94966 chapter. 94967

(G) This section does not apply in the case of a municipal 94968 corporation that supplies such aggregated service to electric load 94969 centers to which its municipal electric utility also supplies a 94970 noncompetitive retail electric service through transmission or 94971 distribution facilities the utility singly or jointly owns or 94972 operates. 94973

(H) A governmental aggregator shall not include in its 94974 aggregation the accounts of any of the following: 94975

(1) A customer that has opted out of the aggregation; 94976

(2) A customer in contract with a certified electric services 94977 company; 94978

(3) A customer that has a special contract with an electric 94979 distribution utility; 94980

(4) A customer that is not located within the governmental 94981
aggregator's governmental boundaries; 94982

(5) Subject to division (C) of section 4928.21 of the Revised 94983

Code, a customer who appears on the "do not aggregate" list 94984 maintained under that section. 94985

(I) Customers that are part of a governmental aggregation 94986 under this section shall be responsible only for such portion of a 94987 surcharge under section 4928.144 of the Revised Code that is 94988 proportionate to the benefits, as determined by the commission, 94989 that electric load centers within the jurisdiction of the 94990 governmental aggregation as a group receive. The proportionate 94991 surcharge so established shall apply to each customer of the 94992 governmental aggregation while the customer is part of that 94993 aggregation. If a customer ceases being such a customer, the 94994 otherwise applicable surcharge shall apply. Nothing in this 94995 section shall result in less than full recovery by an electric 94996 distribution utility of any surcharge authorized under section 94997
4928.144 of the Revised Code. 94998

(J) On behalf of the customers that are part of a 94999 governmental aggregation under this section and by filing written 95000 notice with the public utilities commission, the legislative 95001 authority that formed or is forming that governmental aggregation 95002 may elect not to receive standby service within the meaning of 95003 division (B)(2)(d) of section 4928.143 of the Revised Code from an 95004 electric distribution utility in whose certified territory the 95005 governmental aggregation is located and that operates under an 95006 approved electric security plan under that section. Upon the 95007 filing of that notice, the electric distribution utility shall not 95008 charge any such customer to whom competitive retail electric 95009 generation service is provided by another supplier under the 95010 governmental aggregation for the standby service. Any such 95011 consumer that returns to the utility for competitive retail 95012 electric service shall pay the market price of power incurred by 95013 the utility to serve that consumer plus any amount attributable to 95014 the utility's cost of compliance with the alternative energy 95015 resource provisions of section 4928.64 of the Revised Code to 95016 serve the consumer. Such market price shall include, but not be 95017 limited to, capacity and energy charges; all charges associated 95018 with the provision of that power supply through the regional 95019 transmission organization, including, but not limited to, 95020 transmission, ancillary services, congestion, and settlement and 95021 administrative charges; and all other costs incurred by the 95022 utility that are associated with the procurement, provision, and 95023 administration of that power supply, as such costs may be approved 95024 by the commission. The period of time during which the market 95025 price and alternative energy resource amount shall be so assessed 95026 on the consumer shall be from the time the consumer so returns to 95027 the electric distribution utility until the expiration of the 95028 electric security plan. However, if that period of time is 95029 expected to be more than two years, the commission may reduce the 95030 time period to a period of not less than two years. 95031

(K) The commission shall adopt rules to encourage and promote 95032 large-scale governmental aggregation in this state. For that 95033 purpose, the commission shall conduct an immediate review of any 95034 rules it has adopted for the purpose of this section that are in 95035 effect on the effective date of the amendment of this section by 95036
S.B. 221 of the 127th general assembly, July 31, 2008. Further, 95037 within the context of an electric security plan under section 95038 4928.143 of the Revised Code, the commission shall consider the 95039 effect on large-scale governmental aggregation of any 95040 nonbypassable generation charges, however collected, that would be 95041 established under that plan, except any nonbypassable generation 95042 charges that relate to any cost incurred by the electric 95043 distribution utility, the deferral of which has been authorized by 95044 the commission prior to the effective date of the amendment of 95045 this section by S.B. 221 of the 127th general assembly, July 31, 95046

Sec. 4929.26. (A)(1) The legislative authority of a municipal corporation may adopt an ordinance, or the board of township trustees of a township or the board of county commissioners of a county may adopt a resolution, under which, in accordance with this section and except as otherwise provided in division (A)(2) of this section, the legislative authority or board may aggregate automatically, subject to the opt-out requirements of division (D) of this section, competitive retail natural gas service for the retail natural gas loads that are located, respectively, within the municipal corporation, township, or unincorporated area of the county and for which there is a choice of supplier of that service as a result of revised schedules approved under division (C) of section 4929.29 of the Revised Code, a rule or order adopted or issued by the commission under Chapter 4905. of the Revised Code, or an exemption granted by the commission under sections 4929.04 to 4929.08 of the Revised Code. An ordinance or a resolution adopted under this section shall expressly state that it is adopted pursuant to the authority conferred by this section. The legislative authority or board also may exercise its authority under this section jointly with any other such legislative authority or board. For the purpose of the aggregation, the legislative authority or board may enter into service agreements to facilitate the sale and purchase of the service for the retail natural gas loads.

(2)(a) No aggregation under an ordinance or resolution adopted under division (A)(1) of this section shall include the retail natural gas load of any person that meets any of the following criteria:

(i) The person is both a distribution service customer and a mercantile customer on the date of commencement of service to the aggregated load, or the person becomes a distribution service customer after that date and also is a mercantile customer.

(ii) The person is supplied with commodity sales service 95080 pursuant to a contract with a retail natural gas supplier that is 95081 in effect on the effective date of the ordinance or resolution. 95082

(iii) The person is supplied with commodity sales service as 95083 part of a retail natural gas load aggregation provided for 95084
under this chapter or Chapter 4905. of the Revised Code. 95086

(b) Nothing in division (A)(2)(a) of this section precludes a 95087 governmental aggregation under this section from permitting the 95088 retail natural gas load of a person described in division 95089 (A)(2)(a) of this section from being included in the aggregation 95090 upon the expiration of any contract or aggregation as described in 95091 division (A)(2)(a)(ii) or (iii) of this section or upon the person 95092 no longer being a customer as described in division (A)(2)(a)(i) 95093 of this section or qualifying to be included in an aggregation 95094 described under division (A)(2)(a)(iii) of this section. 95095

(B) An ordinance or resolution adopted under division (A) of 95096 this section shall direct the board of elections to submit the 95097 question of the authority to aggregate to the electors of the 95098 respective municipal corporation, township, or unincorporated area 95099 of a county at a special election on the day of the next primary 95100 or general election in the municipal corporation, township, or 95101 county. The legislative authority or board shall certify a copy of 95102 the ordinance or resolution to the board of elections not less 95103 than ninety days before the day of the special election. No 95104 ordinance or resolution adopted under division (A) of this section 95105 that provides for an election under this division shall take 95106 effect unless approved by a majority of the electors voting upon 95107 the ordinance or resolution at the election held pursuant to this 95108 division. 95109

(C) Upon the applicable requisite authority under divisions 95110

aggregation program so authorized. Before adopting a plan under 95113
this division, the legislative authority or board shall hold at 95114

(D) No legislative authority or board, pursuant to an 95121
section, shall aggregate any retail natural gas load located 95123 within its jurisdiction unless it in advance clearly discloses to 95124 the person whose retail natural gas load is to be so aggregated 95125 that the person will be enrolled automatically in the aggregation 95126 and will remain so enrolled unless the person affirmatively elects 95127 by a stated procedure not to be so enrolled. The disclosure shall 95128 state prominently the rates, charges, and other terms and 95129 conditions of enrollment. The stated procedure shall allow any 95130 person enrolled in the aggregation the opportunity to opt out of 95131 the aggregation every two years, without paying a switching fee. 95132 Any such person that opts out of the aggregation pursuant to the 95133 stated procedure shall default to the natural gas company 95134 providing distribution service for the person's retail natural gas 95135 load, until the person chooses an alternative supplier. 95136

(2) With respect to a governmental aggregation for a township 95142

resolutions may be proposed by initiative or referendum petitions 95145

(a) The petitions shall be filed, respectively, with the 95148
city auditor or village clerk. 95151

(b) The petitions shall contain the signatures of not less 95152 than ten per cent of the total number of electors in the township 95153 or the unincorporated area of the county, respectively, who voted 95154 for the office of governor at the preceding general election for 95155 that office in that area. 95156

(F) A governmental aggregator under division (A) of this 95157
section is not a public utility engaging in the wholesale purchase 95158 and resale of natural gas, and provision of the aggregated service 95159 is not a wholesale utility transaction. A governmental aggregator 95160
utilities commission only to the extent of any competitive retail 95162 natural gas service it provides and commission authority under 95163 this chapter. 95164

Sec. 4929.27. (A)(1) The legislative authority of a municipal 95165
corporation may adopt an ordinance, or the board of township 95166
trustees of a township or the board of county commissioners of a 95167 county may adopt a resolution, under which, in accordance with 95168 this section and except as otherwise provided in division (A)(2) 95169 of this section, the legislative authority or board may aggregate, 95170 with the prior consent of each person whose retail natural gas 95171 load is proposed to be aggregated, competitive retail natural gas 95172 service for any such retail natural gas load that is located, 95173 respectively, within the municipal corporation, township, or 95174 unincorporated area of the county and for which there is a choice 95175 of supplier of that service as a result of revised schedules 95176 approved under division (C) of section 4929.29 of the Revised 95177 Code, a rule or order adopted or issued by the commission under 95178 Chapter 4905. of the Revised Code, or an exemption granted by the 95179 commission under sections 4929.04 to 4929.08 of the Revised Code. 95180 An ordinance or a resolution adopted under this section shall 95181 expressly state that it is adopted pursuant to the authority 95182

accordance with sections 731.28 to 731.40 of the Revised Code, 95227

(a) The petitions shall be filed, respectively, with the 95229

(b) The petitions shall contain the signatures of not less 95233 divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section or pursuant to a 95382 resolution adopted solely for the purpose of division (A)(2) of 95383 this section, and charges imposed under division (A)(2) of this 95384 section may be separately imposed or combined with charges imposed 95385 under division (A)(1) of this section. 95386

(B) Any board adopting a resolution under this section 95387 pursuant to a final plan initiating the establishment of a 9-1-1 95388 system or pursuant to an amendment to a final plan shall adopt the 95389 resolution within sixty days after the board receives the final 95390 plan for the 9-1-1 system pursuant to division (C) of section 95391

4931.43 of the Revised Code. The board by resolution may change 95392 any charge imposed under this section whenever the board considers 95393 it advisable. Any resolution adopted under this section shall 95394 declare whether securities will be issued under Chapter 133. of 95395 the Revised Code in anticipation of the collection of unpaid 95396 special assessments levied under this section. 95397

(C) The board shall adopt a resolution under this section at 95398 a public meeting held in accordance with section 121.22 of the 95399 Revised Code. Additionally, the board, before adopting any such 95400 resolution, shall hold at least two public hearings on the 95401 proposed charges. Prior to the first hearing, the board shall 95402 publish notice of the hearings once a week for two consecutive 95403 weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or as 95404
provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall 95405 include a listing of the charges proposed in the resolution and 95406 the date, time, and location of each of the hearings. The board 95407 shall hear any person who wishes to testify on the charges or the 95408
resolution. 95409

(D) No resolution adopted under this section shall be 95410 effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption nor shall 95411 any such resolution be adopted as an emergency measure. The 95412 resolution is subject to a referendum in accordance with sections 95413 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code unless, in the resolution, 95414 the board of county commissioners directs the board of elections 95415 of the county to submit the question of imposing the charges to 95416 the electors of the county at the next primary or general election 95417 in the county occurring not less than ninety days after the 95418 resolution is certified to the board. No resolution shall go into 95419 effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon it in 95420 any election allowed under this division. 95421

(E) To collect charges imposed under division (A) of this 95422 section, the board of county commissioners shall certify them to 95423

the county auditor of the county who then shall place them upon 95424 the real property duplicate against the properties to be assessed, 95425 as provided in division (A) of this section. Each assessment shall 95426 bear interest at the same rate that securities issued in 95427 anticipation of the collection of the assessments bear, is a lien 95428 on the property assessed from the date placed upon the real 95429 property duplicate by the auditor, and shall be collected in the 95430 same manner as other taxes. 95431

(F) All money collected by or on behalf of a county under 95432 this section shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county 95433 and kept in a separate and distinct fund to the credit of the 95434 county. The fund shall be used to pay the costs allowed in 95435 division (A) of this section and specified in the resolution 95436 adopted under that division. In no case shall any surplus so 95437 collected be expended for other than the use and benefit of the 95438 county. 95439

Sec. 4931.52. (A) This section applies only to a county that 95440 meets both of the following conditions: 95441

(1) A final plan for a countywide 9-1-1 system either has not 95442 been approved in the county under section 4931.44 of the Revised 95443
Code or has been approved but has not been put into operation 95444
because of a lack of funding; 95445

(2) The board of county commissioners, at least once, has 95446 submitted to the electors of the county the question of raising 95447 funds for a 9-1-1 system under section 4931.51, 5705.19, or 95448 5739.026 of the Revised Code, and a majority of the electors has 95449 disapproved the question each time it was submitted. 95450

(B) A board of county commissioners may adopt a resolution 95451
imposing a monthly charge on telephone access lines to pay for the 95452 equipment costs of establishing and maintaining no more than three 95453 public safety answering points of a countywide 9-1-1 system, which 95454 public safety answering points shall be only twenty-four-hour 95455 dispatching points already existing in the county. The resolution 95456 shall state the amount of the charge, which shall not exceed fifty 95457 cents per month, and the month the charge will first be imposed, 95458 which shall be no earlier than four months after the special 95459 election held pursuant to this section. Each residential and 95460 business telephone company customer within the area served by the 95461 9-1-1 system shall pay the monthly charge for each of its 95462 residential or business customer access lines or their equivalent. 95463

of county commissioners shall hold at least two public hearings on 95465
the proposed charge. Before the first hearing, the board shall 95466
state the amount of the proposed charge, an explanation of the 95470
of the hearings. 95472

(C) A resolution adopted under division (B) of this section 95473
shall direct the board of elections to submit the question of 95474 imposing the charge to the electors of the county at a special 95475 election on the day of the next primary or general election in the 95476
county. The board of county commissioners shall certify a copy of 95477
the resolution to the board of elections not less than ninety days 95478 before the day of the special election. No resolution adopted 95479 under division (B) of this section shall take effect unless 95480 approved by a majority of the electors voting upon the resolution 95481
at an election held pursuant to this section. 95482

In any year, the board of county commissioners may impose a 95483
lesser charge than the amount originally approved by the electors. 95484
The board may change the amount of the charge no more than once a 95485 year. The board may not impose a charge greater than the amount 95486

(D) Money raised from a monthly charge on telephone access 95489
lines under this section shall be deposited into a special fund 95490 created in the county treasury by the board of county 95491
commissioners pursuant to section 5705.12 of the Revised Code, to 95492 be used only for the necessary equipment costs of establishing and 95493 maintaining no more than three public safety answering points of a 95494 countywide 9-1-1 system pursuant to a resolution adopted under 95495 division (B) of this section. In complying with this division, any 95496 county may seek the assistance of the public utilities commission 95497 with regard to operating and maintaining a 9-1-1 system. 95498

(E) Pursuant to the voter approval required by division (C) 95499 of this section, the final plan for a countywide 9-1-1 system that 95500
will be funded through a monthly charge imposed in accordance with 95501 this section shall be amended by the existing 9-1-1 planning 95502 committee, and the amendment of such a final plan is not an 95503 amendment of a final plan for the purpose of division (A) of 95504
section 4931.45 of the Revised Code. 95505

Sec. 4931.53. (A) This section applies only to a county that 95506 has a final plan for a countywide 9-1-1 system that either has not 95507 been approved in the county under section 4931.44 of the Revised 95508

imposing a monthly charge on telephone access lines to pay for the 95512 operating and equipment costs of establishing and maintaining no 95513 more than one public safety answering point of a countywide 9-1-1 95514 system. The resolution shall state the amount of the charge, which 95515 shall not exceed fifty cents per month, and the month the charge 95516 will first be imposed, which shall be no earlier than four months 95517 after the special election held pursuant to this section. Each 95518 residential and business telephone company customer within the 95519 area of the county served by the 9-1-1 system shall pay the 95520 monthly charge for each of its residential or business customer 95521 access lines or their equivalent. 95522

the proposed charge. Before the first hearing, the board shall 95525

shall direct the board of elections to submit the question of 95533
imposing the charge to the electors of the county at a special 95534
before the day of the special election. No resolution adopted 95538
under division (B) of this section shall take effect unless 95539
at an election held pursuant to this section. 95541

In any year, the board of county commissioners may impose a 95542
The board may change the amount of the charge no more than once a 95544 year. The board shall not impose a charge greater than the amount 95545

(D) Money raised from a monthly charge on telephone access 95548
lines under this section shall be deposited into a special fund 95549

be used only for the necessary operating and equipment costs of 95552 establishing and maintaining no more than one public safety 95553 answering point of a countywide 9-1-1 system pursuant to a 95554 resolution adopted under division (B) of this section. In 95555 complying with this division, any county may seek the assistance 95556 of the public utilities commission with regard to operating and 95557 maintaining a 9-1-1 system. 95558

(E) Nothing in sections 4931.40 to 4931.53 of the Revised 95559
Code precludes a final plan adopted in accordance with those 95560 sections from being amended to provide that, by agreement included 95561 in the plan, a public safety answering point of another countywide 95562 9-1-1 system is the public safety answering point of a countywide 95563 9-1-1 system funded through a monthly charge imposed in accordance 95564 with this section. In that event, the county for which the public 95565 safety answering point is provided shall be deemed the subdivision 95566 operating the public safety answering point for purposes of 95567 sections 4931.40 to 4931.53 of the Revised Code, except that, for 95568 the purpose of division (D) of section 4931.41 of the Revised 95569 Code, the county shall pay only so much of the costs associated 95570 with establishing, equipping, furnishing, operating, or 95571 maintaining the public safety answering point specified in the 95572 agreement included in the final plan. 95573

(F) Pursuant to the voter approval required by division (C) 95574
will be funded through a monthly charge imposed in accordance with 95576
this section, or that will be amended to include an agreement 95577 described in division (E) of this section, shall be amended by the 95578 existing 9-1-1 planning committee, and the amendment of such a 95579 final plan is not an amendment of a final plan for the purpose of 95580 division (A) of section 4931.45 of the Revised Code. 95581

Sec. 5101.16. (A) As used in this section and sections	95582

all of the following:	95598
(a) Ohio works first;	95599
(b) County administration of Ohio works first;	95600
(c) Prevention, retention, and contingency;	95601
(d) County administration of prevention, retention, and	95602

(f) County administration of disability financial assistance;	95605
(g) County administration of the supplemental nutrition	95606 assistance program;	95607
(h) County administration of medicaid.	95608
(7) "Title IV-A program" has the same meaning as in section	95609

(B) Each board of county commissioners shall pay the county 95611 share of public assistance expenditures in accordance with section 95612 5101.161 of the Revised Code. Except as provided in division (C) 95613 of this section, a county's share of public assistance 95614 expenditures is the sum of all of the following for state fiscal 95615 year 1998 and each state fiscal year thereafter: 95616

(1) The amount that is twenty-five per cent of the county's 95617 total expenditures for disability financial assistance and county 95618 administration of that program during the state fiscal year ending 95619 in the previous calendar year that the department of job and 95620 family services determines are allowable. 95621

(2) The amount that is ten per cent, or other percentage 95622 determined under division (D) of this section, of the county's 95623 total expenditures for county administration of the supplemental 95624 nutrition assistance program and medicaid during the state fiscal 95625 year ending in the previous calendar year that the department 95626 determines are allowable, less the amount of federal reimbursement 95627 credited to the county under division (E) of this section for the 95628 state fiscal year ending in the previous calendar year; 95629

(3) A percentage of the actual amount of the county share of 95630 program and administrative expenditures during federal fiscal year 95631 1994 for assistance and services, other than child care, provided 95632 under Titles IV-A and IV-F of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 95633 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 301, as those titles existed prior to the 95634 enactment of the "Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity 95635 Reconciliation Act of 1996," 110 Stat. 2105. The department of job 95636 and family services shall determine the actual amount of the 95637 county share from expenditure reports submitted to the United 95638 States department of health and human services. The percentage 95639 shall be the percentage established in rules adopted under 95640 division (F) of this section. 95641

(C)(1) If a county's share of public assistance expenditures 95642 determined under division (B) of this section for a state fiscal 95643 year exceeds one hundred ~~ten~~ five per cent of the county's share 95644 for those expenditures for the immediately preceding state fiscal 95645 year, the department of job and family services shall reduce the 95646 county's share for expenditures under divisions (B)(1) and (2) of 95647 this section so that the total of the county's share for 95648 expenditures under division (B) of this section equals one hundred 95649 ~~ten~~ five per cent of the county's share of those expenditures for 95650
the immediately preceding state fiscal year. 95651

(2) A county's share of public assistance expenditures 95652 determined under division (B) of this section may be increased 95653 pursuant to section 5101.163 of the Revised Code and a sanction 95654 under section 5101.24 of the Revised Code. An increase made 95655 pursuant to section 5101.163 of the Revised Code may cause the 95656 county's share to exceed the limit established by division (C)(1) 95657

(D)(1) If the per capita tax duplicate of a county is less 95659 than the per capita tax duplicate of the state as a whole and 95660 division (D)(2) of this section does not apply to the county, the 95661 percentage to be used for the purpose of division (B)(2) of this 95662 section is the product of ten multiplied by a fraction of which 95663 the numerator is the per capita tax duplicate of the county and 95664 the denominator is the per capita tax duplicate of the state as a 95665 whole. The department of job and family services shall compute the 95666 per capita tax duplicate for the state and for each county by 95667 dividing the tax duplicate for the most recent available year by 95668 the current estimate of population prepared by the department of 95669 development. 95670

(2) If the percentage of families in a county with an annual 95671 income of less than three thousand dollars is greater than the 95672 percentage of such families in the state and division (D)(1) of 95673 this section does not apply to the county, the percentage to be 95674 used for the purpose of division (B)(2) of this section is the 95675 product of ten multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator is 95676 the percentage of families in the state with an annual income of 95677 less than three thousand dollars a year and the denominator is the 95678 percentage of such families in the county. The department of job 95679 and family services shall compute the percentage of families with 95680 an annual income of less than three thousand dollars for the state 95681 and for each county by multiplying the most recent estimate of 95682 such families published by the department of development, by a 95683 fraction, the numerator of which is the estimate of average annual 95684 personal income published by the bureau of economic analysis of 95685 the United States department of commerce for the year on which the 95686 census estimate is based and the denominator of which is the most 95687 recent such estimate published by the bureau. 95688

(3) If the per capita tax duplicate of a county is less than 95689 the per capita tax duplicate of the state as a whole and the 95690 percentage of families in the county with an annual income of less 95691 than three thousand dollars is greater than the percentage of such 95692 families in the state, the percentage to be used for the purpose 95693 of division (B)(2) of this section shall be determined as follows: 95694

(a) Multiply ten by the fraction determined under division 95695
(D)(1) of this section; 95696

(b) Multiply the product determined under division (D)(3)(a) 95697 of this section by the fraction determined under division (D)(2) 95698

(4) The department of job and family services shall 95700 determine, for each county, the percentage to be used for the 95701 purpose of division (B)(2) of this section not later than the 95702 first day of July of the year preceding the state fiscal year for 95703 which the percentage is used. 95704

(E) The department of job and family services shall credit to a county the amount of federal reimbursement the department receives from the United States departments of agriculture and health and human services for the county's expenditures for administration of the supplemental nutrition assistance program and medicaid that the department determines are allowable administrative expenditures.

(F)(1) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules in accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code to establish all of the following:

(b) The allocation methodology and formula the department will use to determine the amount of funds to credit to a county under this section;

(c) The method the department will use to change the payment of the county share of public assistance expenditures from a calendar-year basis to a state fiscal year basis;

(d) The percentage to be used for the purpose of division (B)(3) of this section, which shall, except as provided in section 5101.163 of the Revised Code, meet both of the following requirements:

(i) The percentage shall not be less than seventy-five per cent nor more than eighty-two per cent;

(ii) The percentage shall not exceed the percentage that the state's qualified state expenditures is of the state's historic state expenditures as those terms are defined in 42 U.S.C. 609(a)(7).

(e) Other procedures and requirements necessary to implement

this section. 95735

(2) The director of job and family services may amend the 95736 rule adopted under division (F)(1)(d) of this section to modify 95737 the percentage on determination that the amount the general 95738 assembly appropriates for Title IV-A programs makes the 95739 modification necessary. The rule shall be adopted and amended as 95740 if an internal management rule and in consultation with the 95741 director of budget and management. 95742 prior payments in discharge of their rights under this section if, 96914 at the time the departments received such payments, they were not 96915 aware that additional medical expenses had been incurred but had 96916 not yet been paid by the departments. The third party becomes 96917 liable to the department of job and family services or county 96918

recipient or participant in securing the judgment, award, 96926 from the total judgment, award, settlement, or compromise, the 96936 department of job and family services or appropriate county 96937 department of job and family services shall receive no less than 96938 enforced separately or jointly by the department of job and family 96942 services or the appropriate county department of job and family 96943 services. To enforce their recovery rights, the departments may do 96944 to rules adopted under division (B) of that section, a maximum 99158 amount of income a family may have to be eligible for publicly 99159 funded child care, the income maximum specified by the county 99160 department. Publicly funded child care may be provided only to 99161 eligible infants, toddlers, preschool children, and school 99162 children under age thirteen. For an applicant to be eligible for 99163 publicly funded child care, the caretaker parent must be employed 99164 or participating in a program of education or training for an 99165 amount of time reasonably related to the time that the parent's 99166 children are receiving publicly funded child care. This 99167 restriction does not apply to families whose children are eligible 99168 for protective child care. 99169

Subject to available funds, a county department of job and 99170 family services shall allow a family to receive publicly funded 99171 child care unless the family's income exceeds the maximum income 99172 eligibility limit. Initial and continued eligibility for publicly 99173 funded child care is subject to available funds unless the family 99174 is receiving child care pursuant to division (A)(1), (2), (3), or 99175 (4) of section 5104.30 of the Revised Code. If the county 99176 department must limit eligibility due to lack of available funds, 99177 it shall give first priority for publicly funded child care to an 99178 assistance group whose income is not more than the maximum income 99179 eligibility limit that received transitional child care in the 99180 previous month but is no longer eligible because the twelve-month 99181 period has expired. Such an assistance group shall continue to 99182 receive priority for publicly funded child care until its income 99183 exceeds the maximum income eligibility limit. 99184

(3) An assistance group that ceases to participate in the 99185
Ohio works first program established under Chapter 5107. of the 99186 Revised Code is eligible for transitional child care at any time 99187 during the immediately following twelve-month period that both of 99188
the following apply: 99189

(a) The assistance group requires child care due to 99190 employment; 99191

(b) The assistance group's income is not more than one 99192 hundred fifty per cent of the federal poverty line. 99193

An assistance group ineligible to participate in the Ohio 99194 works first program pursuant to section 5101.83 or section 5107.16 99195 of the Revised Code is not eligible for transitional child care. 99196

(B) To the extent permitted by federal law, a county 99197 department of job and family services may require a caretaker 99198 parent determined to be eligible for publicly funded child care to 99199 pay a fee according to the schedule of fees established in rules 99200 adopted under section 5104.38 of the Revised Code. Each county 99201 department shall make protective child care services available to 99202 children without regard to the income or assets of the caretaker 99203 parent of the child. 99204

(C) A caretaker parent receiving publicly funded child care 99205 shall report to the entity that determined eligibility any changes 99206 in status with respect to employment or participation in a program 99207 of education or training not later than ten calendar days after 99208
the change occurs. 99209

(D) If a county department of job and family services 99210 determines that available resources are not sufficient to provide 99211 publicly funded child care to all eligible families who request 99212 it, the county department may establish a waiting list. A county 99213 department may establish separate waiting lists within the waiting 99214 list based on income. When resources become available to provide 99215 publicly funded child care to families on the waiting list, a 99216 county department that establishes a waiting list shall assess the 99217 needs of the next family scheduled to receive publicly funded 99218 child care. If the assessment demonstrates that the family 99219 continues to need and is eligible for publicly funded child care, 99220 the county department shall offer it to the family. If the county 99221 department determines that the family is no longer eligible or no longer needs publicly funded child care, the county department shall remove the family from the waiting list.

(E) A caretaker parent shall not receive publicly funded child care from more than one child care provider during any period unless the caretaker parent obtains approval from the county department of job and family services based on good cause.

(F) As used in this section, "maximum income eligibility limit" means the amount of income specified in rules adopted under division (A) of section 5104.38 of the Revised Code or, if a county department of job and family services specifies a higher amount pursuant to rules adopted under division (B) of that section, the amount the county department specifies.

Sec. 5104.341. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, both of the following apply:

(1) An eligibility determination made under section 5104.34 of the Revised Code for publicly funded child care is valid for one year;

(2) The county department of job and family services shall adjust the appropriate level of a fee charged under division (B) of section 5104.34 of the Revised Code if a caretaker parent reports changes in income, family size, or both.

(B) Division (A) of this section does not apply ~~in either of the following circumstances:~~

~~(2) The if the recipient of the publicly funded child care ceases to be eligible for publicly funded child care.~~ of a child is paid by the child's parent or any other person, the 99273 amount paid shall be subtracted from the amount the provider is 99274 paid. 99275~~

when an individual or individuals possess five per cent ownership 101697 or equity in both the provider and a supplier. Significant 101698 ownership or equity is presumed to exist when an individual or 101699

all of the following conditions are met: 101708

(a) The supplier is a separate bona fide organization. 101709

(b) A substantial part of the supplier's business activity of 101710 the type carried on with the provider is transacted with others 101711 types of goods or services the supplier furnishes. 101713

(c) The types of goods or services are commonly obtained by 101714 other nursing facilities or intermediate care facilities for the 101715 mentally retarded from outside organizations and are not a basic 101716 element of patient care ordinarily furnished directly to patients 101717 by the facilities. 101718

(d) The charge to the provider is in line with the charge for 101719 the goods or services in the open market and no more than the 101720

supplier. 101722

(AA) "Relative of owner" means an individual who is related 101723 to an owner of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility 101724

(BB) "Renovation" and "extensive renovation" mean: 101735

(1) Any betterment, improvement, or restoration of an 101736 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded started 101737 before July 1, 1993, that meets the definition of a renovation or 101738 extensive renovation established in rules adopted by the director 101739 of job and family services in effect on December 22, 1992. 101740

(2) In the case of betterments, improvements, and 101741 restorations of intermediate care facilities for the mentally 101742 retarded started on or after July 1, 1993: 101743

(a) "Renovation" means the betterment, improvement, or 101744 restoration of an intermediate care facility for the mentally 101745 retarded beyond its current functional capacity through a 101746 structural change that costs at least five hundred dollars per 101747 bed. A renovation may include betterment, improvement, 101748 restoration, or replacement of assets that are affixed to the 101749 building and have a useful life of at least five years. A 101750 renovation may include costs that otherwise would be considered 101751 maintenance and repair expenses if they are an integral part of 101752 the structural change that makes up the renovation project. 101753 "Renovation" does not mean construction of additional space for 101754 beds that will be added to a facility's licensed or certified 101755 capacity. 101756

(b) "Extensive renovation" means a renovation that costs more 101757 than sixty-five per cent and no more than eighty-five per cent of 101758 the cost of constructing a new bed and that extends the useful 101759 life of the assets for at least ten years. 101760

For the purposes of division (BB)(2) of this section, the 101761 cost of constructing a new bed shall be considered to be forty 101762 thousand dollars, adjusted for the estimated rate of inflation 101763 from January 1, 1993, to the end of the calendar year during which 101764 the renovation is completed, using the consumer price index for 101765 shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north central 101766 region, as published by the United States bureau of labor 101767 statistics. 101768

The department of job and family services may treat a 101769 renovation that costs more than eighty-five per cent of the cost 101770 of constructing new beds as an extensive renovation if the 101771 department determines that the renovation is more prudent than 101772 construction of new beds. 101773

(CC) "Title XIX" means Title XIX of the "Social Security 101774 Act," 79 Stat. 286 (1965), 42 U.S.C. 1396, as amended. 101775 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded to have 101789 received approval of a plan for the proposed facility pursuant to 101790 section 5123.042 of the Revised Code as a condition of the 101791 operator being eligible for medicaid payments for the facility 101792 does not apply if, under former section 5123.193 of the Revised 101793 Code as enacted by Am. Sub. H.B. 1 of the 128th general assembly 101794 or section 5123.197 of the Revised Code, a residential facility 101795 qualify all of the facility's medicaid-certified beds in the 101801 medicare program established by Title XVIII. The director of job 101802 and family services may adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the 101803 Revised Code to establish the time frame in which a nursing 101804 facility must comply with this requirement. 101805

(2) The department of veterans services is not required to 101806

Sub. H.B. 1 of the 128th general assembly or section 5123.197 of the Revised Code, a residential facility license was obtained or modified for the facility without obtaining approval of a plan for the proposed residential facility pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code.

mentally retarded. 101887

Sec. 5111.225. (A) As used in this section: 101888

"Dual eligible individual" has the same meaning as in section 101889 1915(h)(2)(B) of the "Social Security Act," 124 Stat. 315 (2010), 101890 cent of a nursing facility's per diem rate for a medicaid day. 101893

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay the 101894 provider of a nursing facility the lesser of the following for 101895 nursing facility services the nursing facility provides on or 101896 after January 1, 2012, to a dual eligible individual who is 101897

each facility's rate for direct care costs quarterly. 101910

(B) Each facility's rate for direct care costs shall be based 101911 on the facility's cost per case-mix unit, subject to the maximum 101912 costs per case-mix unit established under division (B)(2) of this 101913 section, from the calendar year preceding the fiscal year in which 101914 the rate is paid. To determine the rate, the department shall do 101915
all of the following: 101916

(1) Determine each facility's cost per case-mix unit for the 101917 calendar year preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be 101918 paid by dividing the facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, 101919 per diem direct care costs for that year by its average case-mix 101920 score determined under section 5111.232 of the Revised Code for 101921 the same calendar year. 101922

(2)(a) Set the maximum cost per case-mix unit for each peer 101923
group of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded 101924 with more than eight beds specified in rules adopted under 101925 division ~~(E)~~(F) of this section at a percentage above the cost per 101926 case-mix unit of the facility in the group that has the group's 101927 median medicaid inpatient day for the calendar year preceding the 101928 fiscal year in which the rate will be paid, as calculated under 101929 division (B)(1) of this section, that is no less than the 101930 percentage calculated under division ~~(D)~~(E)(2) of this section. 101931

(b) Set the maximum cost per case-mix unit for each peer 101932
with eight or fewer beds specified in rules adopted under division 101934 ~~(E)~~(F) of this section at a percentage above the cost per case-mix 101935 unit of the facility in the group that has the group's median 101936 medicaid inpatient day for the calendar year preceding the fiscal 101937 year in which the rate will be paid, as calculated under division 101938 (B)(1) of this section, that is no less than the percentage 101939 calculated under division ~~(D)~~(E)(3) of this section. 101940

(c) In calculating the maximum cost per case-mix unit under 101941 divisions (B)(2)(a) ~~to~~ and (b) of this section for each peer 101942 group, the department shall exclude from its calculations the cost 101943 per case-mix unit of any facility in the group that participated 101944 in the medicaid program under the same operator for less than 101945 twelve months during the calendar year preceding the fiscal year 101946 in which the rate will be paid. 101947

(3) Estimate the rate of inflation for the eighteen-month 101948 period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year 101949 preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid and 101950 ending on the thirty-first day of December of the fiscal year in 101951 which the rate will be paid, using the ~~employment cost index for~~ 101952 ~~total compensation, health services component, published by the~~ 101953
~~United States bureau of labor statistics~~ specified in division (C) 101954 of this section. If the estimated inflation rate for the 101955 eighteen-month period is different from the actual inflation rate 101956 for that period, as measured using the same index, the difference 101957 shall be added to or subtracted from the inflation rate estimated 101958 under division (B)(3) of this section for the following fiscal 101959 year. 101960

(4) The department shall not recalculate a maximum cost per 101961 case-mix unit under division (B)(2) of this section or a 101962 percentage under division ~~(D)~~(E) of this section based on 101963 additional information that it receives after the maximum costs 101964 per case-mix unit or percentages are set. The department shall 101965 recalculate a maximum cost per case-mix units or percentage only 101966 if it made an error in computing the maximum cost per case-mix 101967 unit or percentage based on information available at the time of 101968 the original calculation. 101969

(C) The department shall use the following index for the 101970 purpose of division (B)(3) of this section: 101971

(1) The employment cost index for total compensation, health 101972 services component, published by the United States bureau of labor 101973
statistics; 101974

(2) If the United States bureau of labor statistics ceases to 101975 publish the index specified in division (C)(1) of this section, 101976 the index that is subsequently published by the bureau and covers 101977 nursing facilities' staff costs. 101978

(D) Each facility's rate for direct care costs shall be 101979 determined as follows for each calendar quarter within a fiscal 101980

(1) Multiply the lesser of the following by the facility's 101982 average case-mix score determined under section 5111.232 of the 101983 Revised Code for the calendar quarter that preceded the 101984 immediately preceding calendar quarter: 101985

(a) The facility's cost per case-mix unit for the calendar 101986 year preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid, as 101987 determined under division (B)(1) of this section; 101988

(b) The maximum cost per case-mix unit established for the 101989 fiscal year in which the rate will be paid for the facility's peer 101990 group under division (B)(2) of this section; 101991

(2) Adjust the product determined under division ~~(C)~~(D)(1) of 101992 this section by the inflation rate estimated under division (B)(3) 101993

the median cost per case-mix unit determined under division (B)(1) 101996 of this section for the facility that has the median medicaid 101997 inpatient day for calendar year 1992 for all intermediate care 101998
that would result in payment of all desk-reviewed, actual, 102000 allowable direct care costs for eighty and one-half per cent of 102001 the medicaid inpatient days for such facilities for calendar year 102002 1992. 102003

(2) The department shall calculate the percentage above the 102004 median cost per case-mix unit determined under division (B)(1) of 102005 this section for the facility that has the median medicaid 102006 inpatient day for calendar year 1992 for all intermediate care 102007 facilities for the mentally retarded with eight or fewer beds that 102008 would result in payment of all desk-reviewed, actual, allowable 102009 direct care costs for eighty and one-half per cent of the medicaid 102010 inpatient days for such facilities for calendar year 1992. 102011

~~(E)~~(F) The director of job and family services shall adopt 102012 rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code that specify peer 102013 groups of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded 102014 with more than eight beds and intermediate care facilities for the 102015 mentally retarded with eight or fewer beds, based on findings of 102016 significant per diem direct care cost differences due to geography 102017 and facility bed-size. The rules also may specify peer groups 102018 based on findings of significant per diem direct care cost 102019 differences due to other factors which may include case-mix. 102020

~~(F)~~(G) The department, in accordance with division (D) of section 5111.232 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under division ~~(E)~~(F) of that section, may assign case-mix scores or costs per case-mix unit if a provider fails to submit assessment data necessary to calculate an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded's case-mix score in accordance with that section.

Sec. 5111.231. (A) As used in this section, ~~"applicable:~~

(1) "Applicable calendar year" means the following:

this act to this section, the cost per case-mix unit determined 102076 under this division for a peer group shall be used for subsequent 102077 years until the department ~~redetermines it~~ conducts a rebasing. To 102078 determine a peer group's cost per case-mix unit, the department 102079 shall do all of the following: 102080

(a) Determine the cost per case-mix unit for each nursing 102081 facility in the peer group for the applicable calendar year by 102082 dividing each facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per 102083 diem direct care costs for the applicable calendar year by the 102084 facility's annual average case-mix score determined under section 102085 5111.232 of the Revised Code for the applicable calendar year;~~i~~ 102086

(b) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, identify 102087 which nursing facility in the peer group is at the twenty-fifth 102088 percentile of the cost per case-mix units determined under 102089 division (D)(1)(a) of this section;~~i~~ 102090

~~(c) Calculate the amount that is seven per cent above the 102091 cost per case mix unit determined under division (D)(1)(a) of this 102092 section for the nursing facility identified under division 102093
(D)(1)(b) of this section. 102094~~

~~(d) Multiply the amount calculated under division (D)(1)(c) 102095 of this section by Using the index specified in division (D)(3) of 102096 this section, multiply the rate of inflation for the 102097 eighteen-month period beginning on the first day of July of the 102098 applicable calendar year and ending the last day of December of 102099 the calendar year immediately following the applicable calendar 102100 year ~~using the following:~~ 102101~~

~~(i) In the case of the initial calculation made under 102102 division (D)(1)(d) of this section, the employment cost index for 102103
total compensation, health services component, published by the 102104
United States bureau of labor statistics, as the index existed on 102105
July 1, 2005; 102106~~

~~(ii) In the case of subsequent calculations made under 102107 division (D)(1)(d) of this section and except as provided in 102108 division (D)(1)(d)(iii) of this section, the employment cost index 102109 for total compensation, nursing and residential care facilities 102110 occupational group, published by the United States bureau of labor 102111
statistics; 102112~~

~~(iii) If the United States bureau of labor statistics ceases to publish the index specified in division (D)(1)(d)(ii) of this section, the index the bureau subsequently publishes that covers nursing facilities' staff costs by the cost per case-mix unit determined under division (D)(1)(a) of this section for the nursing facility identified under division (D)(1)(b) of this section;~~

(d) Until the first rebasing occurs, add one dollar and eighty-eight cents to the amount calculated under division (D)(1)(c) of this section.

(2) In making the identification under division (D)(1)(b) of this section, the department shall exclude both of the following:

(a) Nursing facilities that participated in the medicaid program under the same provider for less than twelve months in the applicable calendar year;

(b) Nursing facilities whose cost per case-mix unit is more than one standard deviation from the mean cost per case-mix unit for all nursing facilities in the nursing facility's peer group for the applicable calendar year.

(3) The following index shall be used for the purpose of the calculation made under division (D)(1)(c) of this section:

(a) Until the first rebasing occurs, the employment cost index for total compensation, health services component, published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, as the index existed on July 1, 2005;

(b) Effective with the first rebasing and except as provided in division (D)(3)(c) of this section, the employment cost index for total compensation, nursing and residential care facilities occupational group, published by the United States bureau of labor statistics;

(c) If the United States bureau of labor statistics ceases to publish the index specified in division (D)(3)(b) of this section, the index the bureau subsequently publishes that covers nursing facilities' staff costs.

Sec. 5111.235. (A) The department of job and family services shall pay a provider for each of the provider's eligible intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded a per resident per day rate for other protected costs established prospectively each fiscal year for each facility. The rate for each facility shall be the facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem other protected costs from the calendar year preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid, all adjusted for the estimated inflation rate for the eighteen-month period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid and ending on the thirty-first day of December of that fiscal year. The department shall estimate inflation using the ~~consumer price index for all urban consumers for nonprescription drugs and medical supplies, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics~~ specified in division (B) of this section. If the estimated inflation rate for the eighteen-month period is different from the actual inflation rate for that period, the difference shall be added to or subtracted from the inflation rate estimated for the following year.

(B) The department shall use the following index for the purpose of division (A) of this section: 102175 for the relevant time period, as measured using the same index, 102424 the difference shall be added to or subtracted from the inflation 102425 rate estimated pursuant to this division for the following fiscal 102426

year. 102427

(D) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules 102428 under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code that specify peer groups 102429 of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded with 102430 more than eight beds, and peer groups of intermediate care 102431 facilities for the mentally retarded with eight or fewer beds, 102432

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay a 102530

(D)(1) ~~At least once every ten years, the~~ The department 102570 shall determine the ~~median~~ rate for capital costs for each peer 102571 group established under division (C) of this section. The ~~median~~ 102572 department is not required to conduct a rebasing more than once 102573 every ten years. Except as necessary to implement the amendments 102574 made by this act to this section, the rate for capital costs 102575 determined under this division for a peer group shall be used for 102576 subsequent years until the department ~~redetermines it~~ conducts a 102577 rebasings. ~~To determine a~~ A peer group's median rate for capital 102578 costs shall be the rate for capital costs determined for the 102579 nursing facility in the peer group that is at the twenty-fifth 102580 percentile of the rate for capital costs for the applicable 102581 calendar year. In identifying that nursing facility, the 102582 department shall do both of the following: 102583

(a) Subject to division (D)(2) of this section, use the 102584 greater of each nursing facility's actual inpatient days for the 102585 applicable calendar year or the inpatient days the nursing 102586 facility would have had for the applicable calendar year if its 102587 occupancy rate had been one hundred per cent-; 102588

(b) Exclude both of the following: 102589

(i) Nursing facilities that participated in the medicaid 102590 program under the same provider for less than twelve months in the 102591 applicable calendar year; 102592

(ii) Nursing facilities whose capital costs are more than one 102593 standard deviation from the mean desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, 102594 per diem capital cost for all nursing facilities in the nursing 102595 facility's peer group for the applicable calendar year. 102596

(2) For the purpose of determining a nursing facility's 102597 occupancy rate under division (D)(1)(a) of this section, the 102598 department shall include any beds that the nursing facility 102599 removes from its medicaid-certified capacity after June 30, 2005, 102600 unless the nursing facility also removes the beds from its 102601 licensed bed capacity. 102602

(3) The department shall not redetermine a peer group's rate 102603 for capital costs under this division based on additional 102604 information that it receives after the rate is determined. The 102605 department shall redetermine a peer group's rate for capital costs 102606 only if the department made an error in determining the rate based 102607 on information available to the department at the time of the 102608 original determination. 102609

(E) Buildings shall be depreciated using the straight line 102610 method over forty years or over a different period approved by the 102611 department. Components and equipment shall be depreciated using 102612 the straight-line method over a period designated in rules adopted 102613 under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, consistent with the 102614 guidelines of the American hospital association, or over a 102615 different period approved by the department. Any rules authorized 102616 by this division that specify useful lives of buildings, 102617 components, or equipment apply only to assets acquired on or after 102618
July 1, 1993. Depreciation for costs paid or reimbursed by any 102619 government agency shall not be included in capital costs unless 102620 that part of the payment under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the 102621 Revised Code is used to reimburse the government agency. 102622

(F) The capital cost basis of nursing facility assets shall 102623 be determined in the following manner: 102624

(1) Except as provided in division (F)(3) of this section, 102625 for purposes of calculating the rates to be paid for facilities 102626 with dates of licensure on or before June 30, 1993, the capital 102627 cost basis of each asset shall be equal to the desk-reviewed, 102628 actual, allowable, capital cost basis that is listed on the 102629 facility's cost report for the calendar year preceding the fiscal 102630 year during which the rate will be paid. 102631

(2) For facilities with dates of licensure after June 30, 102632 1993, the capital cost basis shall be determined in accordance 102633 with the principles of the medicare program established under 102634 Title XVIII, except as otherwise provided in sections 5111.20 to 102635

(3) Except as provided in division (F)(4) of this section, if 102637 a provider transfers an interest in a facility to another provider 102638 after June 30, 1993, there shall be no increase in the capital 102639 cost basis of the asset if the providers are related parties or 102640 the provider to which the interest is transferred authorizes the 102641 provider that transferred the interest to continue to operate the 102642 facility under a lease, management agreement, or other 102643 arrangement. If the previous sentence does not prohibit the 102644 adjustment of the capital cost basis under this division, the 102645 basis of the asset shall be adjusted by ~~the lesser of the~~ 102646 ~~following:~~ 102647

time that the transferor held the asset, as calculated by the 102649 department of job and family services using the "Dodge building 102650 cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 102651
Marshall and Swift;~~ 102652

~~(b) One half one-half of the change in the consumer price 102653
index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the 102654
United States bureau of labor statistics, during the time that the 102655 transferor held the asset.~~ 102656

(4) If a provider transfers an interest in a facility to 102657 another provider who is a related party, the capital cost basis of 102658 the asset shall be adjusted as specified in division (F)(3) of 102659 this section if all of the following conditions are met: 102660

(a) The related party is a relative of owner; 102661

(b) Except as provided in division (F)(4)(c)(ii) of this 102662 section, the provider making the transfer retains no ownership 102663 interest in the facility; 102664

(c) The department of job and family services determines that 102665 the transfer is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules 102666 adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code. The rules shall 102667 provide that a transfer is an arm's length transaction if all of 102668
the following apply: 102669

(ii) The provider that made the transfer does not reacquire an interest in the facility except through the exercise of a creditor's rights in the event of a default. If the provider reacquires an interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the transfer never occurred when the department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs.

(iii) The transfer satisfies any other criteria specified in the rules.

(d) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a provider making the transfer who is at least sixty-five years of age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the same facility, the capital cost basis was adjusted most recently under division (F)(4) of this section or actual, allowable cost of ownership was determined most recently under division (G)(9) of this section.

(G) As used in this division:

"Imputed interest" means the lesser of the prime rate plus two per cent or ten per cent.

"Lease expense" means lease payments in the case of an operating lease and depreciation expense and interest expense in the case of a capital lease.

"New lease" means a lease, to a different lessee, of a nursing facility that previously was operated under a lease.

(1) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility that was effective on May 27, 1992, the entire lease expense is an actual, allowable capital cost during the term of the existing lease. The entire lease expense also is an actual, allowable capital cost if a lease in existence on May 27, 1992, is renewed under either of the following circumstances:

(a) The renewal is pursuant to a renewal option that was in existence on May 27, 1992;

(b) The renewal is for the same lease payment amount and between the same parties as the lease in existence on May 27, 1992.

(2) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility that was in existence but not operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense or the annual depreciation expense and imputed interest expense that would be calculated at the inception of the lease using the lessor's entire historical capital asset cost basis, adjusted by ~~the lesser of the following amounts:~~

~~(a) One half of the change in construction costs during the time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease, as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift;~~

~~(b) one-half of the change in the consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, during the time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease.~~

(3) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a facility with a date of licensure on or after May 27, 1992, that is initially operated under a lease, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the annual lease expense if there was a 102732 substantial commitment of money for construction of the facility 102733 after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993. If there was not 102734 a substantial commitment of money after December 22, 1992, and 102735 before July 1, 1993, actual, allowable capital costs shall include 102736 the lesser of the annual lease expense or the sum of the 102737

following: 102738

(a) The annual depreciation expense that would be calculated 102739 at the inception of the lease using the lessor's entire historical 102740 capital asset cost basis; 102741

(b) The greater of the lessor's actual annual amortization of 102742 financing costs and interest expense at the inception of the lease 102743 or the imputed interest expense calculated at the inception of the 102744 lease using seventy per cent of the lessor's historical capital 102745 asset cost basis. 102746

(4) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a lease of a 102747 facility with a date of licensure on or after May 27, 1992, that 102748 was not initially operated under a lease and has been in existence 102749 for ten years, actual, allowable capital costs shall include the 102750 lesser of the annual lease expense or the annual depreciation 102751 expense and imputed interest expense that would be calculated at 102752 the inception of the lease using the entire historical capital 102753 asset cost basis of the lessor, ~~adjusted by the lesser of the~~ 102754
~~following:~~ 102755

time the lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease,~~ 102757 ~~as calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 102758 indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 102759
Marshall and Swift;~~ 102760

United States bureau of labor statistics, during the time the 102763 lessor held each asset until the beginning of the lease. 102764

(5) Subject to division (B) of this section, for a new lease 102765 of a facility that was operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, 102766 actual, allowable capital costs shall include the lesser of the 102767 annual new lease expense or the annual old lease payment. If the 102768 old lease was in effect for ten years or longer, the old lease 102769 payment from the beginning of the old lease shall be adjusted by 102770
~~the lesser of the following:~~ 102771

beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease, as 102773 calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost 102774 indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by 102775
Marshall and Swift;~~ 102776

United States bureau of labor statistics, from the beginning of 102779 the old lease to the beginning of the new lease. 102780~~

of a facility that was not in existence or that was in existence 102782 but not operated under a lease on May 27, 1992, actual, allowable 102783 capital costs shall include the lesser of annual new lease expense 102784 or the annual amount calculated for the old lease under division 102785 (G)(2), (3), (4), or (6) of this section, as applicable. If the 102786 old lease was in effect for ten years or longer, the lessor's 102787 historical capital asset cost basis shall be ~~adjusted by the 102788 lesser of the following,~~ for purposes of calculating the annual 102789 amount under division (G)(2), (3), (4), or (6) of this section. 102790

beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease, as 102792

~~(b) One-half, adjusted by one-half~~ of the change in the 102796 consumer price index for all items for all urban consumers, as 102797 published by the United States bureau of labor statistics, from 102798 the beginning of the old lease to the beginning of the new lease. 102799

In the case of a lease under division (G)(3) of this section 102800 of a facility for which a substantial commitment of money was made 102801 after December 22, 1992, and before July 1, 1993, the old lease 102802 payment shall be adjusted for the purpose of determining the 102803 annual amount. 102804

(7) For any revision of a lease described in division (G)(1), 102805
(2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of this section, or for any subsequent 102806 lease of a facility operated under such a lease, other than 102807 execution of a new lease, the portion of actual, allowable capital 102808 costs attributable to the lease shall be the same as before the 102809 revision or subsequent lease. 102810

(8) Except as provided in division (G)(9) of this section, if 102811 a provider leases an interest in a facility to another provider 102812 who is a related party or previously operated the facility, the 102813 related party's or previous operator's actual, allowable capital 102814 costs shall include the lesser of the annual lease expense or the 102815 reasonable cost to the lessor. 102816

(9) If a provider leases an interest in a facility to another 102817 provider who is a related party, regardless of the date of the 102818 lease, the related party's actual, allowable capital costs shall 102819 include the annual lease expense, subject to the limitations 102820 specified in divisions (G)(1) to (7) of this section, if all of 102821 the following conditions are met: 102822

(a) The related party is a relative of owner; 102823

(b) If the lessor retains an ownership interest, it is, 102824 except as provided in division (G)(9)(c)(ii) of this section, in 102825 only the real property and any improvements on the real property; 102826

the lease is an arm's length transaction pursuant to rules adopted 102828 under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code. The rules shall provide 102829 that a lease is an arm's length transaction if all of the 102830 following apply: 102831

(i) Once the lease goes into effect, the lessor has no direct 102832 or indirect interest in the lessee or, except as provided in 102833 division (G)(9)(b) of this section, the facility itself, including 102834 interest as an owner, officer, director, employee, independent 102835 contractor, or consultant, but excluding interest as a lessor. 102836

(ii) The lessor does not reacquire an interest in the 102837 facility except through the exercise of a lessor's rights in the 102838 event of a default. If the lessor reacquires an interest in the 102839 facility in this manner, the department shall treat the facility 102840 as if the lease never occurred when the department calculates its 102841 reimbursement rates for capital costs. 102842

(iii) The lease satisfies any other criteria specified in the 102843 rules. 102844

(d) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic 102845 event, as determined by the department, or in the case of a lessor 102846 who is at least sixty-five years of age, not less than twenty 102847 years have elapsed since, for the same facility, the capital cost 102848 basis was adjusted most recently under division (F)(4) of this 102849 section or actual, allowable capital costs were determined most 102850 recently under division (G)(9) of this section. 102851

(10) This division does not apply to leases of specific items 102852 of equipment. 102853

Sec. 5111.251. (A) The department of job and family services 102854 shall pay a provider for each of the provider's eligible 102855 intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded for its 102856 reasonable capital costs, a per resident per day rate established 102857 prospectively each fiscal year for each intermediate care facility 102858 for the mentally retarded. Except as otherwise provided in 102859 sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code, the rate shall be 102860 based on the facility's capital costs for the calendar year 102861 preceding the fiscal year in which the rate will be paid. The rate 102862 shall equal the sum of the following: 102863

(1) The facility's desk-reviewed, actual, allowable, per diem 102864 cost of ownership for the preceding cost reporting period, limited 102865 as provided in divisions (C) and (F) of this section; 102866

(2) Any efficiency incentive determined under division (B) of 102867
this section; 102868

(3) Any amounts for renovations determined under division (D) 102869
of this section; 102870

(4) Any amounts for return on equity determined under 102871 division ~~(I)~~(H) of this section. 102872

Buildings shall be depreciated using the straight line method 102873 over forty years or over a different period approved by the 102874
the straight line method over a period designated by the director 102876 of job and family services in rules adopted under section 5111.02 102877 of the Revised Code, consistent with the guidelines of the 102878 American hospital association, or over a different period approved 102879 by the department of job and family services. Any rules authorized 102880
components, or equipment apply only to assets acquired on or after 102882
government agency shall not be included in costs of ownership or 102884 renovation unless that part of the payment under sections 5111.20 102885 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code is used to reimburse the government 102886 agency. 102887

(B) The department of job and family services shall pay to a 102888 provider for each of the provider's eligible intermediate care 102889 facilities for the mentally retarded an efficiency incentive equal 102890 to fifty per cent of the difference between any desk-reviewed, 102891 actual, allowable cost of ownership and the applicable limit on 102892 cost of ownership payments under division (C) of this section. For 102893 purposes of computing the efficiency incentive, depreciation for 102894 costs paid or reimbursed by any government agency shall be 102895 considered as a cost of ownership, and the applicable limit under 102896 division (C) of this section shall apply both to facilities with 102897 more than eight beds and facilities with eight or fewer beds. The 102898 efficiency incentive paid to a provider for a facility with eight 102899 or fewer beds shall not exceed three dollars per patient day, 102900 adjusted annually for the inflation rate for the twelve-month 102901 period beginning on the first day of July of the calendar year 102902 preceding the calendar year that precedes the fiscal year for 102903 which the efficiency incentive is determined and ending on the 102904 thirtieth day of the following June, using the consumer price 102905 index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for the north 102906 central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor 102907
statistics. 102908

(C) Cost of ownership payments for intermediate care 102909 facilities for the mentally retarded with more than eight beds 102910 shall not exceed the following limits: 102911

(1) For facilities with dates of licensure prior to January 102912
1, 1958, not exceeding two dollars and fifty cents per patient 102913 day; 102914

(2) For facilities with dates of licensure after December 31, 102915

(D) Beginning January 1, 1981, regardless of the original date of licensure, the department of job and family services shall pay a rate for the per diem capitalized costs of renovations to intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded made after January 1, 1981, not exceeding six dollars per patient day using 1980 as the base year and adjusting the amount annually until June 30, 1993, for fluctuations in construction costs calculated by the department using the "Dodge building cost indexes, northeastern and north central states," published by Marshall and Swift. The payment provided for in this division is the only payment that shall be made for the capitalized costs of a nonextensive renovation of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. Nonextensive renovation costs shall not be included in cost of ownership, and a nonextensive renovation shall not affect the date of licensure for purposes of division (C) of this section. This division applies to nonextensive renovations regardless of whether they are made by an owner or a lessee. If the tenancy of a lessee that has made renovations ends before the	103050 103051 103052 103053 103054 103055 103056 103057 103058 103059 103060 103061 103062 103063 103064 103065 103066 103067 depreciation expense for the renovation costs has been fully 103068 reported, the former lessee shall not report the undepreciated 103069 balance as an expense. 103070

For a nonextensive renovation to qualify for payment under 103071 this division, both of the following conditions must be met: 103072

(1) At least five years have elapsed since the date of 103073 licensure or date of an extensive renovation of the portion of the 103074 facility that is proposed to be renovated, except that this 103075 condition does not apply if the renovation is necessary to meet 103076 the requirements of federal, state, or local statutes, ordinances, 103077 rules, or policies. 103078

(2) The provider has obtained prior approval from the 103079 department of job and family services. The provider shall submit a 103080 plan that describes in detail the changes in capital assets to be 103081 accomplished by means of the renovation and the timetable for 103082 completing the project. The time for completion of the project 103083 shall be no more than eighteen months after the renovation begins. 103084
The director of job and family services shall adopt rules under 103085 section 5111.02 of the Revised Code that specify criteria and 103086 procedures for prior approval of renovation projects. No provider 103087 shall separate a project with the intent to evade the 103088 characterization of the project as a renovation or as an extensive 103089 renovation. No provider shall increase the scope of a project 103090 after it is approved by the department of job and family services 103091 unless the increase in scope is approved by the department. 103092

(E) The amounts specified in divisions (C) and (D) of this 103093 section shall be adjusted beginning July 1, 1993, for the 103094 estimated inflation for the twelve-month period beginning on the 103095 first day of July of the calendar year preceding the calendar year 103096 that precedes the fiscal year for which rate will be paid and 103097 ending on the thirtieth day of the following June, using the 103098 consumer price index for shelter costs for all urban consumers for 103099 the north central region, as published by the United States bureau of labor statistics. 103100

limitations specified in divisions (C) and (D) of this section. 103133

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or section 103134 5111.241 of the Revised Code, the director of job and family 103135 services may adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code 103136 that provide for a calculation of a combined maximum payment limit 103137 for indirect care costs and cost of ownership for intermediate 103138 care facilities for the mentally retarded with eight or fewer 103139 beds. 103140

~~(H) After the date on which a transaction of sale is closed, 103141 the provider shall refund to the department the amount of excess 103142 depreciation paid to the provider for the facility by the 103143 department for each year the provider has operated the facility 103144 under a provider agreement and prorated according to the number of 103145 medicaid patient days for which the provider has received payment 103146 for the facility. For the purposes of this division, "depreciation 103147 paid to the provider for the facility" means the amount paid to 103148 the provider for the intermediate care facility for the mentally 103149 retarded for cost of ownership pursuant to this section less any 103150 amount paid for interest costs. For the purposes of this division, 103151 "excess depreciation" is the intermediate care facility for the 103152 mentally retarded's depreciated basis, which is the provider's 103153 cost less accumulated depreciation, subtracted from the purchase 103154 price but not exceeding the amount of depreciation paid to the 103155 provider for the facility. 103156~~

~~(I) The department of job and family services shall pay a 103157 provider for each of the provider's eligible proprietary 103158 intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded a return on 103159 the facility's net equity computed at the rate of one and one-half 103160 times the average of interest rates on special issues of public 103161 debt obligations issued to the federal hospital insurance trust 103162 fund for the cost reporting period. No facility's return on net 103163~~ equity paid under this division shall exceed one dollar per 103164 patient day. 103165

In calculating the rate for return on net equity, the 103166 department shall use the greater of the facility's inpatient days 103167 during the applicable cost reporting period or the number of 103168 inpatient days the facility would have had during that period if 103169 its occupancy rate had been ninety-five per cent. 103170

~~(J)~~(I)(1) Except as provided in division ~~(J)~~(I)(2) of this 103171 section, if a provider leases or transfers an interest in a 103172 facility to another provider who is a related party, the related 103173 party's allowable cost of ownership shall include the lesser of 103174 the following: 103175

(a) The annual lease expense or actual cost of ownership, 103176 whichever is applicable; 103177

(b) The reasonable cost to the lessor or provider making the 103178 transfer. 103179

(2) If a provider leases or transfers an interest in a 103180 facility to another provider who is a related party, regardless of 103181 the date of the lease or transfer, the related party's allowable 103182 cost of ownership shall include the annual lease expense or actual 103183 cost of ownership, whichever is applicable, subject to the 103184 limitations specified in divisions (B) to ~~(I)~~(H) of this section, 103185 if all of the following conditions are met: 103186

(a) The related party is a relative of owner; 103187

(b) In the case of a lease, if the lessor retains any 103188 ownership interest, it is, except as provided in division 103189 ~~(J)~~(I)(2)(d)(ii) of this section, in only the real property and 103190 any improvements on the real property; 103191

(c) In the case of a transfer, the provider making the 103192 transfer retains, except as provided in division ~~(J)~~(I)(2)(d)(iv) 103193 of this section, no ownership interest in the facility; 103194

(d) The department of job and family services determines that 103195 the lease or transfer is an arm's length transaction pursuant to 103196 rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code. The rules 103197 shall provide that a lease or transfer is an arm's length 103198 transaction if all of the following, as applicable, apply: 103199

(i) In the case of a lease, once the lease goes into effect, 103200 the lessor has no direct or indirect interest in the lessee or, 103201 except as provided in division ~~(J)~~(I)(2)(b) of this section, the 103202 facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, 103203 director, employee, independent contractor, or consultant, but 103204 excluding interest as a lessor. 103205

(ii) In the case of a lease, the lessor does not reacquire an 103206 interest in the facility except through the exercise of a lessor's 103207 rights in the event of a default. If the lessor reacquires an 103208 interest in the facility in this manner, the department shall 103209 treat the facility as if the lease never occurred when the 103210 department calculates its reimbursement rates for capital costs. 103211

(iii) In the case of a transfer, once the transfer goes into 103212 effect, the provider that made the transfer has no direct or 103213 indirect interest in the provider that acquires the facility or 103214 the facility itself, including interest as an owner, officer, 103215
excluding interest as a creditor. 103217

(iv) In the case of a transfer, the provider that made the 103218 transfer does not reacquire an interest in the facility except 103219 through the exercise of a creditor's rights in the event of a 103220 default. If the provider reacquires an interest in the facility in 103221 this manner, the department shall treat the facility as if the 103222 transfer never occurred when the department calculates its 103223
reimbursement rates for capital costs. 103224

(v) The lease or transfer satisfies any other criteria 103225 specified in the rules. 103226

(e) Except in the case of hardship caused by a catastrophic 103227
or provider making the transfer who is at least sixty-five years 103229 of age, not less than twenty years have elapsed since, for the 103230 same facility, allowable cost of ownership was determined most 103231 recently under this division. 103232

Sec. 5111.254. (A) The department of job and family services 103233 shall establish initial rates for a nursing facility with a first 103234 date of licensure that is on or after July 1, 2006, including a 103235 facility that replaces one or more existing facilities, or for a 103236 nursing facility with a first date of licensure before that date 103237 that was initially certified for the medicaid program on or after 103238 that date, in the following manner: 103239

(1) The rate for direct care costs shall be the product of 103240 the cost per case-mix unit determined under division (D) of 103241 section 5111.231 of the Revised Code for the facility's peer group 103242 and the nursing facility's case-mix score. For the purpose of 103243 division (A)(1) of this section, the nursing facility's case-mix 103244 score shall be the following: 103245

(a) Unless the nursing facility replaces an existing nursing 103246 facility that participated in the medicaid program immediately 103247
before the replacement nursing facility begins participating in 103248 the medicaid program, the median annual average case-mix score for 103249 the nursing facility's peer group; 103250

(b) If the nursing facility replaces an existing nursing 103251
before the replacement nursing facility begins participating in 103253
the medicaid program, the semiannual case-mix score most recently 103254 determined under section 5111.232 of the Revised Code for the 103255 replaced nursing facility as adjusted, if necessary, to reflect 103256 any difference in the number of beds in the replaced and 103257 replacement nursing facilities. 103258

(2) The rate for ancillary and support costs shall be the 103259 rate for the facility's peer group determined under division (D) 103260 of section 5111.24 of the Revised Code. 103261

(3) The rate for capital costs shall be the ~~median~~ rate for 103262 the facility's peer group determined under division (D) of section 103263

(4) The rate for tax costs as defined in section 5111.242 of 103265 the Revised Code shall be the median rate for tax costs for the 103266 facility's peer group in which the facility is placed under 103267 division (C) of section 5111.24 of the Revised Code. 103268

(5) The quality incentive payment, if any, shall be the mean 103269 payment ~~specified in division (B) of~~ made to nursing facilities 103270 under section 5111.244 of the Revised Code. 103271

(B) Subject to division (C) of this section, the department 103272 shall adjust the rates established under division (A) of this 103273 section effective the first day of July, to reflect new rate 103274 calculations for all nursing facilities under sections 5111.20 to 103275

(C) If a rate for direct care costs is determined under this 103277 section for a nursing facility using the median annual average 103278 case-mix score for the nursing facility's peer group, the rate 103279 shall be redetermined to reflect the replacement nursing 103280 facility's actual semiannual case-mix score determined under 103281 section 5111.232 of the Revised Code after the nursing facility 103282 submits its first two quarterly assessment data that qualify for 103283 use in calculating a case-mix score in accordance with rules 103284 authorized by division (E) of section 5111.232 of the Revised 103285 Code. If the nursing facility's quarterly submissions do not 103286 qualify for use in calculating a case-mix score, the department 103287 shall continue to use the median annual average case-mix score for 103288 the nursing facility's peer group in lieu of the nursing 103289 facility's semiannual case-mix score until the nursing facility 103290 submits two consecutive quarterly assessment data that qualify for 103291 use in calculating a case-mix score. 103292

Sec. 5111.258. (A) Notwithstanding sections 5111.20 to 103293
5111.33 of the Revised Code (except section 5111.259 of the 103294 Revised Code), the director of job and family services shall adopt 103295 rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code that establish a 103296 methodology for calculating the prospective rates that will be 103297 paid each fiscal year to a provider for each of the provider's 103298 eligible nursing facilities and intermediate care facilities for 103299 the mentally retarded, and discrete units of the provider's 103300 nursing facilities or intermediate care facilities for the 103301 mentally retarded, that serve residents who have diagnoses or 103302 special care needs that require direct care resources that are not 103303 measured adequately by the applicable assessment instrument 103304 specified in rules authorized by section 5111.232 of the Revised 103305 Code, or who have diagnoses or special care needs specified in the 103306 rules as otherwise qualifying for consideration under this 103307 section. The facilities and units of facilities whose rates are 103308 established under this division may include, but shall not be 103309 limited to, any of the following: 103310

(1) In the case of nursing facilities, facilities and units 103311 of facilities that serve medically fragile pediatric residents, 103312 residents who are dependent on ventilators, or residents who have 103313 severe traumatic brain injury, end-stage Alzheimer's disease, or 103314 end-stage acquired immunodeficiency syndrome; 103315

(2) In the case of intermediate care facilities for the 103316 mentally retarded, facilities and units of facilities that serve 103317 residents who have complex medical conditions or severe behavioral 103318 problems. 103319

The department shall use the methodology established under 103320
this division to pay for services rendered by such facilities and 103321 units after June 30, 1993. 103322

The rules authorized by this division shall specify the 103323 criteria and procedures the department will apply when designating 103324 facilities and units that qualify for calculation of rates under 103325 this division. The criteria shall include consideration of whether 103326 all of the allowable costs of the facility or unit would be paid 103327 by rates established under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the 103328 Revised Code, and shall establish a minimum bed size for a 103329 facility or unit to qualify to have its rates established under 103330 this division. The criteria shall not be designed to require that 103331 residents be served only in facilities located in large cities. 103332 The methodology established by the rules shall consider the 103333 historical costs of providing care to the residents of the 103334 facilities or units. 103335

The rules may require that a facility designated under this 103336 division or containing a unit designated under this division 103337 receive authorization from the department to admit or retain a 103338 resident to the facility or unit and shall specify the criteria 103339 and procedures the department will apply when granting that 103340 authorization. 103341

Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 5111.20 to 103342
5111.33 of the Revised Code (except section 5111.259 of the 103343 Revised Code), the costs incurred by facilities or units whose 103344 rates are established under this division shall not be considered 103345 in establishing payment rates for other facilities or units. 103346

(B) The director may adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the 103347 Revised Code under which the department, notwithstanding any other 103348 provision of sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code 103349 (except section 5111.259 of the Revised Code), may adjust the 103350 rates determined under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised 103351 Code for a facility that serves a resident who has a diagnosis or 103352 special care need that, in the rules authorized by division (A) of 103353 this section, would qualify a facility or unit of a facility to 103354 have its rate determined under that division, but who is not in 103355 such a unit. The rules may require that a facility that qualifies 103356 for a rate adjustment under this division receive authorization 103357 from the department to admit or retain a resident who qualifies 103358 the facility for the rate adjustment and shall specify the 103359 criteria and procedures the department will apply when granting 103360 that authorization. 103361

Sec. 5111.259. The director of job and family services may 103362 submit a request to the United States secretary of health and 103363 human services for approval to establish a centers of excellence 103364 component of the medicaid program. The purpose of the centers of 103365 excellence component is to increase the efficiency and quality of 103366 nursing facility services provided to medicaid recipients with 103367 complex nursing facility service needs. If federal approval for 103368 the centers of excellence component is granted, the director may 103369 adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code governing 103370 the component, including rules that establish a method of 103371 determining the medicaid reimbursement rates for nursing 103372 facilities providing nursing facility services to medicaid 103373 recipients participating in the component. The rules may specify 103374 the extent to which, if any, of the provisions of section 5111.258 103375 of the Revised Code are to apply to the centers of excellence 103376 component. If such rules are adopted, the nursing facilities that 103377 provide nursing facility services to medicaid recipients 103378 participating in the centers of excellence component shall be paid 103379 for those services in accordance with the method established in 103380 the rules notwithstanding anything to the contrary in sections 103381 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code. 103382

Sec. 5111.261. (A) Except as provided in division (B) of this 103383 section and not later than three years after a provider files a 103384 cost report with the department of job and family services under 103385 section 5111.26 of the Revised Code, the provider may amend the 103386 cost report if the provider discovers a material error in the cost 103387 report or additional information to be included in the cost 103388 report. The department shall review the amended cost report for 103389 accuracy and notify the provider of its determination. 103390

(B) A provider may not amend a cost report if the department 103391 has notified the provider that an audit of the cost report or a 103392 cost report of the provider for a subsequent cost reporting period 103393 is to be conducted under section 5111.27 of the Revised Code. The 103394 provider may, however, provide the department information that 103395 affects the costs included in the cost report. Such information 103396 may not be provided after the adjudication of the final settlement 103397 of the cost report. 103398

Sec. ~~5111.261~~ 5111.263. Except as otherwise provided in 103399 section 5111.264 of the Revised Code, the department of job and 103400 family services, in determining whether an intermediate care 103401 facility for the mentally retarded's direct care costs and 103402 indirect care costs are allowable, shall place no limit on 103403 specific categories of reasonable costs other than compensation of 103404 owners, compensation of relatives of owners, and compensation of 103405 administrators. 103406

Compensation cost limits for owners and relatives of owners 103407 shall be based on compensation costs for individuals who hold 103408 comparable positions but who are not owners or relatives of 103409 owners, as reported on facility cost reports. As used in this 103410 section, "comparable position" means the position that is held by 103411 the owner or the owner's relative, if that position is listed 103412 separately on the cost report form, or if the position is not 103413 listed separately, the group of positions that is listed on the 103414 cost report form and that includes the position held by the owner 103415 or the owner's relative. In the case of an owner or owner's 103416 relative who serves the facility in a capacity such as corporate 103417 officer, proprietor, or partner for which no comparable position 103418 or group of positions is listed on the cost report form, the 103419 compensation cost limit shall be based on civil service 103420 equivalents and shall be specified in rules adopted under section 103421

Compensation cost limits for administrators shall be based on 103423 compensation costs for administrators who are not owners or 103424 relatives of owners, as reported on facility cost reports. 103425 Compensation cost limits for administrators of four or more 103426 intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded shall be 103427 the same as the limits for administrators of intermediate care 103428 facilities for the mentally retarded with one hundred fifty or 103429 more beds. 103430

Sec. 5111.27. (A) The department of job and family services 103431 shall conduct a desk review of each cost report it receives under 103432 section 5111.26 of the Revised Code. Based on the desk review, the 103433 department shall make a preliminary determination of whether the 103434 reported costs are allowable costs. The department shall notify 103435 each provider of whether any of the reported costs are 103436 preliminarily determined not to be allowable, the rate calculation 103437 under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code that results 103438 from that determination, and the reasons for the determination and 103439 resulting rate. The department shall allow the provider to verify 103440 the calculation and submit additional information. 103441

(B) The department may conduct an audit, as defined by rule 103442 adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code, of any cost 103443 report ~~and shall notify the provider of its findings.~~ 103444

~~Audits shall be conducted by auditors under contract with or 103445 employed by the department.~~ The decision whether to conduct an 103446 audit and the scope of the audit, which may be a desk or field 103447 audit, ~~shall~~ may be determined based on prior performance of the 103448 provider ~~and may be based on,~~ a risk analysis, or other evidence 103449 that gives the department reason to believe that the provider has 103450 reported costs improperly. A desk or field audit may be performed 103451 annually, but is required whenever a provider does not pass the 103452 risk analysis tolerance factors. An audit shall be conducted by 103453 auditors under contract with or employed by the department. The 103454 department shall notify a provider of the findings of an audit by 103455 issuing an audit report. The department shall issue the audit 103456 report no later than three years after the cost report is filed, 103457 or upon the completion of a desk or field audit on the report or a 103458 report for a subsequent cost reporting period, whichever is 103459 earlier. ~~During the time within which the department may issue an 103460 audit report, the provider may amend the cost report upon 103461 discovery of a material error or material additional information.~~ 103462
~~The department shall review the amended cost report for accuracy 103463 and notify the provider of its determination.~~ 103464

The department may establish a contract for the auditing of 103465 facilities by outside firms. Each contract entered into by bidding 103466 shall be effective for one to two years. The department shall 103467 establish an audit manual and program which shall require that all 103468 field audits, conducted either pursuant to a contract or by 103469 department employees: 103470

(1) Comply with the applicable rules prescribed pursuant to 103471
Titles XVIII and XIX; 103472

(2) Consider generally accepted auditing standards prescribed 103473

by the American institute of certified public accountants; 103474

(3) Include a written summary as to whether the costs 103475 included in the report examined during the audit are allowable and 103476 are presented ~~fairly~~ in accordance with ~~generally accepted~~ 103477 ~~accounting principles and department rules~~ state and federal laws 103478 and regulations, and whether, in all material respects, allowable 103479 costs are documented, reasonable, and related to patient care; 103480

(4) Are conducted by accounting firms or auditors who, during 103481 the period of the auditors' professional engagement or employment 103482 and during the period covered by the cost reports, do not have nor 103483 are committed to acquire any direct or indirect financial interest 103484 in the ownership, financing, or operation of a nursing facility or 103485 intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded in this 103486
state; 103487

(5) Are conducted by accounting firms or auditors who, as a 103488 condition of the contract or employment, shall not audit any 103489 facility that has been a client of the firm or auditor; 103490

(6) Are conducted by auditors who are otherwise independent 103491 as determined by the standards of independence ~~established by~~ 103492 ~~included in the American institute of certified public accountants~~ 103493 government auditing standards produced by the United States 103494 government accountability office; 103495

(7) Are completed within the time period specified by the 103496 department; 103497

(8) Provide to the provider complete written interpretations 103498 that explain in detail the application of all relevant contract 103499 provisions, regulations, auditing standards, rate formulae, and 103500 departmental policies, with explanations and examples, that are 103501 sufficient to permit the provider to calculate with reasonable 103502 certainty those costs that are allowable and the rate to which the 103503 provider's facility is entitled. 103504

For the purposes of division (B)(4) of this section, 103505 employment of a member of an auditor's family by a nursing 103506 facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded 103507 that the auditor does not review does not constitute a direct or 103508 indirect financial interest in the ownership, financing, or 103509 operation of the facility. 103510

(C) The department, pursuant to rules adopted under section 103511 5111.02 of the Revised Code, may conduct an exception review of 103512 assessment data submitted under section 5111.232 of the Revised 103513 Code. The department may conduct an exception review based on the 103514 findings of a certification survey conducted by the department of 103515 health, a risk analysis, or prior performance of the provider. 103516

Exception reviews shall be conducted at the facility by 103517 appropriate health professionals under contract with or employed 103518 by the department of job and family services. The professionals 103519 may review resident assessment forms and supporting documentation, 103520 conduct interviews, and observe residents to identify any patterns 103521 or trends of inaccurate assessments and resulting inaccurate 103522 case-mix scores. 103523

The rules shall establish an exception review program that 103524 requires that exception reviews do all of the following: 103525

(1) Comply with Titles XVIII and XIX; 103526

(2) Provide a written summary that states whether the 103527 resident assessment forms have been completed accurately; 103528

(3) Are conducted by health professionals who, during the 103529 period of their professional engagement or employment with the 103530 department, neither have nor are committed to acquire any direct 103531 or indirect financial interest in the ownership, financing, or 103532 operation of a nursing facility or intermediate care facility for 103533 the mentally retarded in this state; 103534

(4) Are conducted by health professionals who, as a condition 103535 of their engagement or employment with the department, shall not 103536 review any provider that has been a client of the professional. 103537

For the purposes of division (C)(3) of this section, 103538 employment of a member of a health professional's family by a 103539 nursing facility or intermediate care facility for the mentally 103540 retarded that the professional does not review does not constitute 103541 a direct or indirect financial interest in the ownership, 103542 financing, or operation of the facility. 103543

If an exception review is conducted before the effective date 103544 of the rate that is based on the case-mix data subject to the 103545 review and the review results in findings that exceed tolerance 103546 levels specified in the rules adopted under this division, the 103547 department, in accordance with those rules, may use the findings 103548 to recalculate individual resident case-mix scores, quarterly 103549 average facility case-mix scores, and annual average facility 103550 case-mix scores. The department may use the recalculated quarterly 103551 and annual facility average case-mix scores to calculate the 103552 facility's rate for direct care costs for the appropriate calendar 103553 quarter or quarters. 103554

(D) The department shall prepare a written summary of any 103555 audit disallowance or exception review finding that is made after 103556 the effective date of the rate that is based on the cost or 103557 case-mix data. Where the provider is pursuing judicial or 103558 administrative remedies in good faith regarding the disallowance 103559 or finding, the department shall not withhold from the provider's 103560 current payments any amounts the department claims to be due from 103561 the provider pursuant to section 5111.28 of the Revised Code. 103562

(E) The department shall not reduce rates calculated under 103563 sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code on the basis that 103564 the provider charges a lower rate to any resident who is not 103565 eligible for the medicaid program. 103566

(F) The department shall adjust the rates calculated under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 of the Revised Code to account for reasonable additional costs that must be incurred by intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded to comply with requirements of federal or state statutes, rules, or policies enacted or amended after January 1, 1992, or with orders issued by state or local fire authorities.

Sec. 5111.28. (A) If a provider properly amends its cost report under section ~~5111.27~~ 5111.261 of the Revised Code and the amended report shows that the provider received a lower rate under the original cost report than it was entitled to receive, the department of job and family services shall adjust the provider's rate prospectively to reflect the corrected information. The department shall pay the adjusted rate beginning two months after the first day of the month after the provider files the amended cost report. If the department finds, from an exception review of resident assessment information conducted after the effective date of the rate for direct care costs that is based on the assessment information, that inaccurate assessment information resulted in the provider receiving a lower rate than it was entitled to receive, the department prospectively shall adjust the provider's rate accordingly and shall make payments using the adjusted rate for the remainder of the calendar quarter for which the assessment information is used to determine the rate, beginning one month after the first day of the month after the exception review is completed.

date of the rate for direct care costs that is based on the 103599 assessment information, any of which results in a determination 103600 that the provider has received a higher rate than it was entitled 103601 to receive, the department shall recalculate the provider's rate 103602 using the revised information. The department shall apply the 103603 recalculated rate to the periods when the provider received the 103604 incorrect rate to determine the amount of the overpayment. The 103605 provider shall refund the amount of the overpayment. 103606

In addition to requiring a refund under this division, the 103607 department may charge the provider interest at the applicable rate 103608 specified in this division from the time the overpayment was made. 103609

(1) If the overpayment resulted from costs reported for 103610 calendar year 1993, the interest shall be no greater than one and 103611 one-half times the average bank prime rate. 103612

subsequent calendar years: 103614

(a) The interest shall be no greater than two times the 103615 average bank prime rate if the overpayment was equal to or less 103616 than one per cent of the total medicaid payments to the provider 103617 for the fiscal year for which the incorrect information was used 103618 to establish a rate. 103619

(b) The interest shall be no greater than two and one-half 103620 times the current average bank prime rate if the overpayment was 103621 greater than one per cent of the total medicaid payments to the 103622 provider for the fiscal year for which the incorrect information 103623 was used to establish a rate. 103624

(C) The department also may impose the following penalties: 103625

(1) If a provider does not furnish invoices or other 103626 documentation that the department requests during an audit within 103627 sixty days after the request, no more than the greater of one 103628 thousand dollars per audit or twenty-five per cent of the 103629 cumulative amount by which the costs for which documentation was 103630 not furnished increased the total medicaid payments to the 103631 provider during the fiscal year for which the costs were used to 103632 establish a rate; 103633

(2) If an exiting operator or owner fails to provide notice 103634 of a facility closure, voluntary termination, or voluntary 103635 withdrawal of participation in the medicaid program as required by 103636 section 5111.66 of the Revised Code, or an exiting operator or 103637 owner and entering operator fail to provide notice of a change of 103638 operator as required by section 5111.67 of the Revised Code, no 103639 more than the current average bank prime rate plus four per cent 103640 of the last two monthly payments. 103641

(D) If the provider continues to participate in the medicaid 103642 program, the department shall deduct any amount that the provider 103643 is required to refund under this section, and the amount of any 103644 interest charged or penalty imposed under this section, from the 103645 next available payment from the department to the provider. The 103646 department and the provider may enter into an agreement under 103647 which the amount, together with interest, is deducted in 103648 installments from payments from the department to the provider. 103649

(E) The department shall transmit refunds and penalties to 103650 the treasurer of state for deposit in the general revenue fund. 103651

(F) For the purpose of this section, the department shall 103652 determine the average bank prime rate using statistical release 103653 H.15, "selected interest rates," a weekly publication of the 103654 federal reserve board, or any successor publication. If 103655 statistical release H.15, or its successor, ceases to contain the 103656 bank prime rate information or ceases to be published, the 103657 department shall request a written statement of the average bank 103658 prime rate from the federal reserve bank of Cleveland or the 103659 federal reserve board. 103660

may make payments to a provider under sections 5111.20 to 5111.33 103662 of the Revised Code ~~for the fiscal year for which the cost of services is reimbursed,~~ to reserve a bed for a recipient during a 103663 temporary absence under conditions prescribed by the department, 103664 to include hospitalization for an acute condition, visits with 103665 relatives and friends, and participation in therapeutic programs 103666 outside the facility, when the resident's plan of care provides 103667 for such absence and federal participation in the payments is 103668 available. ~~The~~ 103669

~~(B) The maximum period during for which payments may be made to reserve a bed shall not exceed the maximum period specified under federal regulations, and shall not be more than following:~~ 103671
103672

103674

(2) For calendar year 2012 and each calendar year thereafter 103676
and in the case of a bed in a nursing facility, fifteen days; 103677

(3) For any calendar year and in the case of a bed in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, the number of days specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code. ~~if prior authorization of the department is obtained for hospital stays, visits with relatives and friends, and participation in therapeutic programs. The director of job and family services shall adopt rules under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code establishing conditions under which prior authorization may be obtained.~~

(C) The department shall establish the per diem rates to be paid to providers for reserving beds under this section. In establishing the per diem rates, the department shall do the following:

(1) In the case of a payment to reserve a bed in a nursing facility for a day during calendar year 2011, set the per diem rate at an amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the per diem rate the provider would be paid if the recipient were not absent from the nursing facility that day;

(2) In the case of a payment to reserve a bed in a nursing facility for a day during calendar year 2012 and each calendar year thereafter, set the per diem rate at an amount not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the per diem rate the provider would be paid if the recipient were not absent from the nursing facility that day;

(3) In the case of a payment to reserve a bed in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded for a day during any calendar year, set the per diem rate at an amount equal to a percentage specified in rules adopted under section 5111.02 of the Revised Code of the per diem rate the provider would be paid if the recipient were not absent from the facility that day.

Sec. 5111.35. As used in this section "a resident's rights" means the rights of a nursing facility resident under sections 3721.10 to 3721.17 of the Revised Code and subsection (c) of section 1819 or 1919 of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620

shall be consistent with the board's community mental health plan. 106322

(C) The department of mental health shall inspect and license 106323 and an insufficient number of licensed beds are available. 106346

(2) The residential facility applying for an interim license 106347

section. 106367

In conducting inspections the department may conduct an 106368 on-site examination and evaluation of the residential facility, 106369 its personnel, activities, and services. The department shall have 106370 access to examine all records, accounts, and any other documents 106371 relating to the operation of the residential facility, and shall 106372 have access to the facility in order to conduct interviews with 106373 the operator, staff, and residents. Following each inspection and 106374 review, the department shall complete a report listing any 106375 deficiencies, and including, when appropriate, a time table within 106376 which the operator shall correct the deficiencies. The department 106377 may require the operator to submit a plan of correction describing 106378 how the deficiencies will be corrected. 106379 standards for the health, safety, adequacy, and cultural 106391 specificity and sensitivity of treatment of and services for 106392 persons in residential facilities; establishing procedures for the 106393 issuance, renewal or revocation of the licenses of such 106394 facilities; establishing the maximum number of residents of a 106395 facility; establishing the rights of residents and procedures to 106396 protect such rights; and requiring an affiliation agreement 106397 approved by the board between a residential facility and a mental 106398 health agency. Such affiliation agreement must be consistent with 106399 the residential portion of the community mental health plan 106400 submitted pursuant to section 340.03 of the Revised Code. 106401

(H) The department may investigate any facility that has been 106402
cause to believe is operating as a residential facility without a 106404 valid license. 106405

(I) The department may withhold the source of any complaint 106406 reported as a violation of this act when the department determines 106407 that disclosure could be detrimental to the department's purposes 106408 or could jeopardize the investigation. The department may disclose 106409 the source of any complaint if the complainant agrees in writing 106410 to such disclosure and shall disclose the source upon order by a 106411 court of competent jurisdiction. 106412 located for an order enjoining any person from operating a 106415 residential facility without a license or from operating a 106416 licensed facility when, in the director's judgment, there is a 106417 real and present danger to the health or safety of any of the 106418 occupants of the facility. The court shall have jurisdiction to 106419 grant such injunctive relief upon a showing that the respondent 106420 named in the petition is operating a facility without a license or 106421 there is a real and present danger to the health or safety of any 106422 residents of the facility. 106423 adopted under this section is liable for a civil penalty of one 106425 hundred dollars for the first offense; for each subsequent 106426 if the director concludes that the conference was necessitated by 108081 a legitimate dispute. 108082

(E) The director may cancel or reduce the penalty for a class 108083
I violation if the facility corrects the violation within the time 108084

this section. 109057

~~(D) If the department of rehabilitation and correction does 109058 not provide laboratory services under this section in a 109059 satisfactory manner to the department of developmental 109060 developmental disabilities, youth services, or mental health shall 109062 attempt to resolve the matter of the unsatisfactory provision of 109063

If another index or measurement is being used, the department shall base its estimate on the most recent calculations of the rate of inflation available under the index or measurement. Each year thereafter, the inflation adjustment shall be estimated in the same manner, except that if the estimated rate of inflation for a year is different from the actual rate of inflation for that year, the difference shall be added to or subtracted from the rate of inflation estimated for the next succeeding year.~~

~~If a contract begins at any time other than July first, the inflation adjustment applied to the contract's total predicted funding need shall be determined by a method comparable to that used for contracts beginning July first. If an audit reveals that a reconciliation conducted under this section resulted in the contractor erroneously paying money to the state, the department shall refund the money to the contractor, or, in lieu of making a refund, the department may offset the erroneous payment against any money determined as a result of the audit to be owed by the contractor to the state. The department is not required to pay interest on any money refunded under this division.~~

(4) "Licensee" means the person or government agency that has 110976 definition of "related party" means a person or government entity 110981 that held or applied for a license to operate a residential 110982 facility, rather than a person or government entity certified to 110983 provide supported living. 110984

(B) Every person or government agency desiring to operate a 110985 residential facility shall apply for licensure of the facility to 110986 the director of developmental disabilities unless the residential 110987 facility is subject to section 3721.02, ~~3722.04~~ 5119.73, 5103.03, 110988 director of developmental disabilities shall license the operation 110997 a period that does not exceed one year, unless the director denies 110999 the license under division (D) of this section. A license shall be 111000 renewed for a period that does not exceed three years, unless the 111001 director refuses to renew the license under division (D) of this 111002 section. The director, when issuing or renewing a license, shall 111003 specify the period for which the license is being issued or 111004 renewed. A license remains valid for the length of the licensing 111005 period specified by the director, unless the license is 111006

(D) If it is determined that an applicant or licensee is not 111008 order for the suspension of admissions to a facility, issue an 111013 order for the placement of a monitor at a facility, issue an order 111014 authority under this chapter regarding residential facilities. In 111017 the director's selection and administration of the sanction to be 111018 imposed, all of the following apply: 111019

(1) The director may deny, refuse to renew, or revoke a 111020 license, if the director determines that the applicant or licensee 111021 has demonstrated a pattern of serious noncompliance or that a 111022 violation creates a substantial risk to the health and safety of 111023 residents of a residential facility. 111024

(2) The director may terminate a license if more than twelve 111025 consecutive months have elapsed since the residential facility was 111026 last occupied by a resident or a notice required by division (K) 111027 of this section is not given. 111028

(3) The director may issue an order for the suspension of 111029 admissions to a facility for any violation that may result in 111030 sanctions under division (D)(1) of this section and for any other 111031 violation specified in rules adopted under division (H)(2) of this 111032 section. If the suspension of admissions is imposed for a 111033 violation that may result in sanctions under division (D)(1) of 111034 this section, the director may impose the suspension before 111035 providing an opportunity for an adjudication under Chapter 119. of 111036 the Revised Code. The director shall lift an order for the 111037 suspension of admissions when the director determines that the 111038 violation that formed the basis for the order has been corrected. 111039

(4) The director may order the placement of a monitor at a 111040 residential facility for any violation specified in rules adopted 111041 under division (H)(2) of this section. The director shall lift the 111042 order when the director determines that the violation that formed 111043 the basis for the order has been corrected. 111044

(5) If the director determines that two or more residential 111045 facilities owned or operated by the same person or government 111046 entity are not being operated in compliance with a provision of 111047 this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules 111048 adopted under such a provision, and the director's findings are 111049 based on the same or a substantially similar action, practice, 111050 circumstance, or incident that creates a substantial risk to the 111051 health and safety of the residents, the director shall conduct a 111052 survey as soon as practicable at each residential facility owned 111053 or operated by that person or government entity. The director may 111054 take any action authorized by this section with respect to any 111055 facility found to be operating in violation of a provision of this 111056 chapter that applies to residential facilities or the rules 111057 adopted under such a provision. 111058

(6) When the director initiates license revocation 111059 proceedings, no opportunity for submitting a plan of correction 111060 shall be given. The director shall notify the licensee by letter 111061 of the initiation of the proceedings. The letter shall list the 111062 deficiencies of the residential facility and inform the licensee 111063 that no plan of correction will be accepted. The director shall 111064 also send a copy of the letter to the county board of 111065 developmental disabilities. The county board shall send a copy of 111066 the letter to each of the following: 111067

(a) Each resident who receives services from the licensee; 111068

(b) The guardian of each resident who receives services from 111069 the licensee if the resident has a guardian; 111070

(c) The parent or guardian of each resident who receives 111071 services from the licensee if the resident is a minor. 111072

(7) Pursuant to rules which shall be adopted in accordance 111073 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director may order the 111074 immediate removal of residents from a residential facility 111075 whenever conditions at the facility present an immediate danger of 111076 physical or psychological harm to the residents. 111077

(8) In determining whether a residential facility is being 111078 operated in compliance with a provision of this chapter that 111079 applies to residential facilities or the rules adopted under such 111080 a provision, or whether conditions at a residential facility 111081 present an immediate danger of physical or psychological harm to 111082 the residents, the director may rely on information obtained by a 111083 county board of developmental disabilities or other governmental 111084 agencies. 111085

(9) In proceedings initiated to deny, refuse to renew, or 111086 revoke licenses, the director may deny, refuse to renew, or revoke 111087 a license regardless of whether some or all of the deficiencies 111088 that prompted the proceedings have been corrected at the time of 111089

the hearing. 111090

(E) The director shall establish a program under which public 111091 notification may be made when the director has initiated license 111092 revocation proceedings or has issued an order for the suspension 111093 of admissions, placement of a monitor, or removal of residents. 111094
The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of 111095 the Revised Code to implement this division. The rules shall 111096 establish the procedures by which the public notification will be 111097 made and specify the circumstances for which the notification must 111098 be made. The rules shall require that public notification be made 111099 if the director has taken action against the facility in the 111100 eighteen-month period immediately preceding the director's latest 111101 action against the facility and the latest action is being taken 111102 for the same or a substantially similar violation of a provision 111103 of this chapter that applies to residential facilities or the 111104 rules adopted under such a provision. The rules shall specify a 111105 method for removing or amending the public notification if the 111106 director's action is found to have been unjustified or the 111107 violation at the residential facility has been corrected. 111108

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (F)(2) of this section, 111109 appeals from proceedings initiated to impose a sanction under 111110 division (D) of this section shall be conducted in accordance with 111111 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 111112

(2) Appeals from proceedings initiated to order the 111113 suspension of admissions to a facility shall be conducted in 111114 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, unless the order 111115 was issued before providing an opportunity for an adjudication, in 111116 which case all of the following apply: 111117

(a) The licensee may request a hearing not later than ten 111118 days after receiving the notice specified in section 119.07 of the 111119
Revised Code. 111120

(b) If a timely request for a hearing that includes the licensee's current address is made, the hearing shall commence not later than thirty days after the department receives the request.

(c) After commencing, the hearing shall continue uninterrupted, except for Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, unless other interruptions are agreed to by the licensee and the director.

(d) If the hearing is conducted by a hearing examiner, the hearing examiner shall file a report and recommendations not later than ten days after the last of the following:

(i) The close of the hearing;

(e) A copy of the written report and recommendation of the hearing examiner shall be sent, by certified mail, to the licensee and the licensee's attorney, if applicable, not later than five days after the report is filed.

(f) Not later than five days after the hearing examiner files the report and recommendations, the licensee may file objections to the report and recommendations.

(g) Not later than fifteen days after the hearing examiner files the report and recommendations, the director shall issue an order approving, modifying, or disapproving the report and recommendations.

(h) Notwithstanding the pendency of the hearing, the director shall lift the order for the suspension of admissions when the director determines that the violation that formed the basis for the order has been corrected.

(G) Neither a person or government agency whose application 111151 for a license to operate a residential facility is denied nor a 111152 related party of the person or government agency may apply for a 111153 license to operate a residential facility before the date that is 111154 one year after the date of the denial. Neither a licensee whose 111155 residential facility license is revoked nor a related party of the 111156 licensee may apply for a residential facility license before the 111157 date that is five years after the date of the revocation. 111158

(H) In accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the 111159 director shall adopt and may amend and rescind rules for licensing 111160 and regulating the operation of residential facilities, including 111161 intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. The rules 111162 for intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded may 111163 differ from those for other residential facilities. The rules 111164 shall establish and specify the following: 111165

(1) Procedures and criteria for issuing and renewing 111166 licenses, including procedures and criteria for determining the 111167 length of the licensing period that the director must specify for 111168 each license when it is issued or renewed; 111169

(2) Procedures and criteria for denying, refusing to renew, 111170 terminating, and revoking licenses and for ordering the suspension 111171 of admissions to a facility, placement of a monitor at a facility, 111172 and the immediate removal of residents from a facility; 111173

(3) Fees for issuing and renewing licenses, which shall be 111174

(4) Procedures for surveying residential facilities; 111177

(5) Requirements for the training of residential facility 111178
personnel; 111179

(6) Classifications for the various types of residential 111180 facilities; 111181

(7) Certification procedures for licensees and management	111182 contractors that the director determines are necessary to ensure	111183 that they have the skills and qualifications to properly operate	111184
or manage residential facilities;	111185
(8) The maximum number of persons who may be served in a	111186 particular type of residential facility;	111187
(9) Uniform procedures for admission of persons to and	111188

(10) Other standards for the operation of residential	111190 facilities and the services provided at residential facilities;	111191
(11) Procedures for waiving any provision of any rule adopted	111192

(I) Before issuing a license, the director of the department	111194 or the director's designee shall conduct a survey of the	111195 residential facility for which application is made. The director	111196 or the director's designee shall conduct a survey of each licensed	111197 residential facility at least once during the period the license	111198 is valid and may conduct additional inspections as needed. A	111199 survey includes but is not limited to an on-site examination and	111200 evaluation of the residential facility, its personnel, and the	111201 services provided there.	111202
In conducting surveys, the director or the director's	111203 designee shall be given access to the residential facility; all	111204 records, accounts, and any other documents related to the	111205 operation of the facility; the licensee; the residents of the	111206 facility; and all persons acting on behalf of, under the control	111207 of, or in connection with the licensee. The licensee and all	111208 persons on behalf of, under the control of, or in connection with	111209
the licensee shall cooperate with the director or the director's	111210
designee in conducting the survey.	111211
Following each survey, unless the director initiates a	111212 license revocation proceeding, the director or the director's 111213 designee shall provide the licensee with a report listing any 111214 deficiencies, specifying a timetable within which the licensee 111215 shall submit a plan of correction describing how the deficiencies 111216 will be corrected, and, when appropriate, specifying a timetable 111217 within which the licensee must correct the deficiencies. After a 111218 plan of correction is submitted, the director or the director's 111219 designee shall approve or disapprove the plan. A copy of the 111220 report and any approved plan of correction shall be provided to 111221 any person who requests it. 111222

The director shall initiate disciplinary action against any 111223 department employee who notifies or causes the notification to any 111224 unauthorized person of an unannounced survey of a residential 111225 facility by an authorized representative of the department. 111226

(J) In addition to any other information which may be 111227 required of applicants for a license pursuant to this section, the 111228 director shall require each applicant to provide a copy of an 111229 approved plan for a proposed residential facility pursuant to 111230 section 5123.042 of the Revised Code. This division does not apply 111231 to renewal of a license or to an applicant for an initial or 111232 modified license who meets the requirements of section 5123.193 or 111233

(K) A licensee shall notify the owner of the building in 111235 which the licensee's residential facility is located of any 111236 significant change in the identity of the licensee or management 111237 contractor before the effective date of the change if the licensee 111238 is not the owner of the building. 111239

Pursuant to rules which shall be adopted in accordance with 111240 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director may require 111241 notification to the department of any significant change in the 111242 ownership of a residential facility or in the identity of the 111243 licensee or management contractor. If the director determines that 111244 a significant change of ownership is proposed, the director shall 111245 consider the proposed change to be an application for development 111246 by a new operator pursuant to section 5123.042 of the Revised Code 111247 and shall advise the applicant within sixty days of the 111248 notification that the current license shall continue in effect or 111249 a new license will be required pursuant to this section. If the 111250 director requires a new license, the director shall permit the 111251 facility to continue to operate under the current license until 111252 the new license is issued, unless the current license is revoked, 111253 refused to be renewed, or terminated in accordance with Chapter 111254

119. of the Revised Code. 111255

(L) A county board of developmental disabilities, the legal 111256 rights service, and any interested person may file complaints 111257 alleging violations of statute or department rule relating to 111258 residential facilities with the department. All complaints shall 111259 be in writing and shall state the facts constituting the basis of 111260 the allegation. The department shall not reveal the source of any 111261 complaint unless the complainant agrees in writing to waive the 111262 right to confidentiality or until so ordered by a court of 111263 competent jurisdiction. 111264

The department shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 111265
119. of the Revised Code establishing procedures for the receipt, 111266 referral, investigation, and disposition of complaints filed with 111267 the department under this division. 111268

(M) The department shall establish procedures for the 111269 notification of interested parties of the transfer or interim care 111270 of residents from residential facilities that are closing or are 111271 losing their license. 111272

(N) Before issuing a license under this section to a 111273 residential facility that will accommodate at any time more than 111274 one mentally retarded or developmentally disabled individual, the 111275 director shall, by first class mail, notify the following: 111276

(1) If the facility will be located in a municipal corporation, the clerk of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation; 111277

(2) If the facility will be located in unincorporated territory, the clerk of the appropriate board of county commissioners and the fiscal officer of the appropriate board of township trustees. 111280
111281
111283

The director shall not issue the license for ten days after mailing the notice, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, in order to give the notified local officials time in which to comment on the proposed issuance. 111284
111285

architectural compatibility requirements that are uniformly 111309 imposed upon all single-family residences within the district or 111310 zone. 111311

(P) Any person may operate a licensed residential facility 111312 that provides room and board, personal care, habilitation 111313 services, and supervision in a family setting for at least nine 111314 but not more than sixteen persons with mental retardation or a 111315 developmental disability as a permitted use in any multiple-family 111316 residential district or zone of any political subdivision, except 111317 that a political subdivision that has enacted a zoning ordinance 111318 or resolution establishing planned unit development districts may 111319 exclude these residential facilities from those districts, and a 111320 political subdivision that has enacted a zoning ordinance or 111321 resolution may regulate these residential facilities in 111322 multiple-family residential districts or zones as a conditionally 111323 permitted use or special exception, in either case, under 111324 reasonable and specific standards and conditions set out in the 111325 zoning ordinance or resolution to: 111326

(1) Require the architectural design and site layout of the 111327

regulation; 111332

(3) Limit excessive concentration of these residential 111333
facilities. 111334

(Q) This section does not prohibit a political subdivision 111335 from applying to residential facilities nondiscriminatory 111336 regulations requiring compliance with health, fire, and safety 111337 regulations and building standards and regulations. 111338

(R) Divisions (O) and (P) of this section are not applicable 111339

to municipal corporations that had in effect on June 15, 1977, an ordinance specifically permitting in residential zones licensed residential facilities by means of permitted uses, conditional uses, or special exception, so long as such ordinance remains in effect without any substantive modification.

(S)(1) The director may issue an interim license to operate a residential facility to an applicant for a license under this section if either of the following is the case:

(a) The director determines that an emergency exists requiring immediate placement of persons in a residential facility, that insufficient licensed beds are available, and that the residential facility is likely to receive a permanent license under this section within thirty days after issuance of the interim license.

(b) The director determines that the issuance of an interim license is necessary to meet a temporary need for a residential facility.

(2) To be eligible to receive an interim license, an applicant must meet the same criteria that must be met to receive a permanent license under this section, except for any differing procedures and time frames that may apply to issuance of a permanent license.

(3) An interim license shall be valid for thirty days and may be renewed by the director for a period not to exceed one hundred fifty days.

(4) The director shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code as the director considers necessary to administer the issuance of interim licenses.

(T) Notwithstanding rules adopted pursuant to this section establishing the maximum number of persons who may be served in a particular type of residential facility, a residential facility shall be permitted to serve the same number of persons being 111371 served by the facility on the effective date of the rules or the 111372 number of persons for which the facility is authorized pursuant to 111373 a current application for a certificate of need with a letter of 111374 support from the department of developmental disabilities and 111375 which is in the review process prior to April 4, 1986. 111376

(U) The director or the director's designee may enter at any 111377 time, for purposes of investigation, any home, facility, or other 111378 structure that has been reported to the director or that the 111379 director has reasonable cause to believe is being operated as a 111380 residential facility without a license issued under this section. 111381

The director may petition the court of common pleas of the 111382 county in which an unlicensed residential facility is located for 111383 an order enjoining the person or governmental agency operating the 111384 facility from continuing to operate without a license. The court 111385 may grant the injunction on a showing that the person or 111386 governmental agency named in the petition is operating a 111387 residential facility without a license. The court may grant the 111388 injunction, regardless of whether the residential facility meets 111389 the requirements for receiving a license under this section. 111390

Sec. 5123.191. (A) The court of common pleas or a judge 111391 thereof in the judge's county, or the probate court, may appoint a 111392 receiver to take possession of and operate a residential facility 111393 licensed by the department of developmental disabilities, in 111394 causes pending in such courts respectively, when conditions 111395 existing at the facility present a substantial risk of physical or 111396 mental harm to residents and no other remedies at law are adequate 111397 to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the residents. 111398 Conditions at the facility that may present such risk of harm 111399 include, but are not limited to, instances when any of the 111400 following occur: 111401

(1) The residential facility is in violation of state or federal law or regulations. 111402
111403

(3) Arrangements for relocating residents need to be made. 111407

(4) Insolvency of the operator, licensee, or landowner threatens the operation of the facility. 111408
111409

(5) The facility or operator has demonstrated a pattern and practice of repeated violations of state or federal laws or regulations. 111410
111412

(B) A court in which a petition is filed pursuant to this section shall notify the person holding the license for the facility and the department of developmental disabilities of the filing. The court shall order the department to notify the legal rights service, facility owner, facility operator, county board of developmental disabilities, facility residents, and residents' parents and guardians of the filing of the petition. 111413
111414
111416
111417
111419

The court shall provide a hearing on the petition within five court days of the time it was filed, except that the court may appoint a receiver prior to that time if it determines that the circumstances necessitate such action. Following a hearing on the petition, and upon a determination that the appointment of a receiver is warranted, the court shall appoint a receiver and notify the department of developmental disabilities and appropriate persons of this action. 111420

111427

(C) A residential facility for which a receiver has been named is deemed to be in compliance with section 5123.19 and Chapter 3721. of the Revised Code for the duration of the receivership. 111428
111429

(E) In establishing a receivership, the court shall set forth the powers and duties of the receiver. The court may generally authorize the receiver to do all that is prudent and necessary to safely and efficiently operate the residential facility within the requirements of state and federal law, but shall require the receiver to obtain court approval prior to making any single expenditure of more than five thousand dollars to correct deficiencies in the structure or furnishings of a facility. The court shall closely review the conduct of the receiver it has appointed and shall require regular and detailed reports. The receivership shall be reviewed at least every sixty days.

(F) A receivership established pursuant to this section shall be terminated, following notification of the appropriate parties and a hearing, if the court determines either of the following:

(1) The residential facility has been closed and the former residents have been relocated to an appropriate facility.

Notwithstanding division (F)(2) of this section, the court shall not terminate a receivership for a residential facility that has previously operated under another receivership unless the responsibility for the operation of the facility is transferred to an operator approved by the court and the department of developmental disabilities.

(G) The department of developmental disabilities may, upon its own initiative or at the request of an owner, operator, or resident of a residential facility, or at the request of a resident's guardian or relative, a county board of developmental disabilities, or the legal rights service, petition the court to appoint a receiver to take possession of and operate a residential facility. When the department has been requested to file a petition by any of the parties listed above, it shall, within forty-eight hours of such request, either file such a petition or notify the requesting party of its decision not to file. If the department refuses to file, the requesting party may file a petition with the court requesting the appointment of a receiver to take possession of and operate a residential facility.

Petitions filed pursuant to this division shall include the following:

(1) A description of the specific conditions existing at the facility which present a substantial risk of physical or mental harm to residents;

(2) A statement of the absence of other adequate remedies at law;

(3) The number of individuals residing at the facility;

facility as a pattern or practice; 111495

(5) The name and address of the person holding the license 111496 for the facility and the address of the department of 111497 developmental disabilities. 111498

The court may award to an operator appropriate costs and 111499 expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, if it determines 111500 that a petitioner has initiated a proceeding in bad faith or 111501 merely for the purpose of harassing or embarrassing the operator. 111502

(H) Except for the department of developmental disabilities 111503 or a county board of developmental disabilities, no party or 111504 person interested in an action shall be appointed a receiver 111505 pursuant to this section. 111506

To assist the court in identifying persons qualified to be 111507 named as receivers, the director of developmental disabilities or 111508 the director's designee shall maintain a list of the names of such 111509 persons. The director shall, in accordance with Chapter 119. of 111510 the Revised Code, establish standards for evaluating persons 111511 desiring to be included on such a list. 111512

(I) Before a receiver enters upon the duties of that person, 111513 the receiver must be sworn to perform the duties of receiver 111514 faithfully, and, with surety approved by the court, judge, or 111515 clerk, execute a bond to such person, and in such sum as the court 111516 or judge directs, to the effect that such receiver will faithfully 111517 discharge the duties of receiver in the action, and obey the 111518 orders of the court therein. 111519

(J) Under the control of the appointing court, a receiver may 111520 bring and defend actions in the receiver's own name as receiver 111521 and take and keep possession of property. 111522

The court shall authorize the receiver to do the following: 111523

(1) Collect payment for all goods and services provided to 111524

the residents or others during the period of the receivership at 111525 the same rate as was charged by the licensee at the time the 111526 petition for receivership was filed, unless a different rate is 111527 set by the court; 111528

(2) Honor all leases, mortgages, and secured transactions 111529 governing all buildings, goods, and fixtures of which the receiver 111530 has taken possession and continues to use, subject to the 111531 following conditions: 111532

(a) In the case of a rental agreement, only to the extent of 111533 payments that are for the use of the property during the period of 111534 the receivership; 111535

(b) In the case of a purchase agreement only to the extent of 111536 payments that come due during the period of the receivership; 111537

~~(c) If the court determines that the cost of the lease, 111538 mortgage, or secured transaction was increased by a transaction 111539 required to be reported under division (B)(3) of section 5123.172 111540 of the Revised Code, only to the extent determined by the court to 111541 be the fair market value for use of the property during the period 111542 of the receivership. 111543~~

(3) If transfer of residents is necessary, provide for the 111544 orderly transfer of residents by doing the following: 111545

(a) Cooperating with all appropriate state and local agencies 111546 in carrying out the transfer of residents to alternative community 111547 placements; 111548

(b) Providing for the transportation of residents' belongings 111549 and records; 111550

(c) Helping to locate alternative placements and develop 111551 discharge plans; 111552

(d) Preparing residents for the trauma of discharge; 111553

(e) Permitting residents or guardians to participate in 111554 transfer or discharge planning except when an emergency exists and 111555 immediate transfer is necessary. 111556

(4) Make periodic reports on the status of the residential 111557 program to the appropriate state agency, county board of 111558 developmental disabilities, parents, guardians, and residents; 111559

(5) Compromise demands or claims; 111560

(6) Generally do such acts respecting the residential 111561 facility as the court authorizes. 111562

(K) Neither the receiver nor the department of developmental 111563 disabilities is liable for debts incurred by the owner or operator 111564 of a residential facility for which a receiver has been appointed. 111565

(L) The department of developmental disabilities may contract 111566 for the operation of a residential facility in receivership. The 111567 department shall establish the conditions of a contract. ~~A~~ 111568 ~~condition may be the same as, similar to, or different from a~~ 111569 ~~condition established by section 5123.18 of the Revised Code and~~ 111570
~~the rules adopted under that section for a contract entered into~~ 111571 ~~under that section.~~ Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 111572 contracts that are necessary to carry out the powers and duties of 111573 the receiver need not be competitively bid. 111574

(M) The department of developmental disabilities, the 111575 department of job and family services, and the department of 111576 health shall provide technical assistance to any receiver 111577 appointed pursuant to this section. 111578

Sec. 5123.194. In the case of an individual who resides in a 111579 residential facility and is preparing to move into an independent 111580 living arrangement and the individual's liable relative, the 111581 department of developmental disabilities may waive the support 111582 collection requirements of sections 5121.04, and 5123.122, ~~and~~ 111583 ~~5123.18~~ of the Revised Code for the purpose of allowing income or 111584 resources to be used to acquire items necessary for independent 111585 living. The department shall adopt rules in accordance with 111586 section 111.15 of the Revised Code to implement this section, 111587 including rules that establish the method the department shall use 111588 to determine when an individual is preparing to move into an 111589 independent living arrangement. 111590

Sec. 5123.352. There is hereby created in the state treasury 111591 the community developmental disabilities trust fund. The director 111592 of developmental disabilities, not later than sixty days after the 111593 end of each fiscal year, shall certify to the director of budget 111594

(3) "Population" of a county means that shown by the federal census for a census year or, for a noncensus year, the population as estimated by the department of development. 113160

(4) "Six-year moving average" means the average of the per-mill yields of a county for the most recent six years. 113163
113164

(5) "Yield per person" means the quotient obtained by dividing the six-year moving average of a county by the population of that county. 113165
113167

(6) "Tax equity payments" means payments to county boards of developmental disabilities under this section or a prior version of this section from money appropriated by the general assembly to the department of developmental disabilities for that purpose. 113168
113171

113173
113175

(8) "Threshold county" means the county with the lowest yield per person that is determined not to be eligible to receive tax equity payments. 113176

(B) At the request of the director of developmental 113179 disabilities, the tax commissioner shall certify to the director 113180 the taxable value of property on each county's most recent tax 113181 list of real and public utility property. The director may request 113182 any other tax information necessary for the purposes of this 113183

section. 113184

(C) Beginning in 2011, on or before the thirty-first day of 113185
May of that year and of every second year thereafter, the director 113186 of developmental disabilities shall determine whether a county is 113187 eligible to receive tax equity payments for the ensuing two fiscal 113188 years as follows: 113189

(1) The director shall determine the six-year moving average, 113190 population, and yield per person of each county in the state, 113191 based on the most recent information available. 113192

(2) The director shall calculate a tax equity funding 113193 threshold by adding the population of the county with the lowest 113194 yield per person and the populations of individual counties in 113195 order from lowest yield per person to highest yield per person 113196 until the addition of the population of another county would 113197 increase the aggregate sum to over thirty per cent of the total 113198 state population. A county is eligible to receive tax equity 113199 payments for the two-year period if its population is included in 113200 the calculation of the threshold and the addition of its 113201 population does not increase such sum to over thirty per cent of 113202 the total state population. 113203

(D)(1) Except as provided in divisions (D)(2) and (3) of this 113204 section, beginning in fiscal year 2012 and for each fiscal year 113205 thereafter, the director shall make tax equity payments to each 113206 eligible county equal to the population of the county multiplied 113207 by the difference between the yield per person of the threshold 113208 county and the yield per person of the eligible county. For 113209 purposes of this division, the population and yield per person of 113210 a county equal the population and yield per person most recently 113211 determined for that county under division (C)(1) of this section. 113212

The payments shall be made in quarterly installments of equal 113213 amounts not later than the thirtieth day of September, the 113214 thirty-first day of December, the thirty-first day of March, and 113215 the thirtieth day of June of each fiscal year. 113216

(2) In fiscal year 2012, if the amount determined under 113217 division (D)(1) of this section for an eligible county is at least 113218 twenty thousand dollars greater than or twenty thousand dollars 113219 less than the amount of tax equity payments the county received in 113220 fiscal year 2011, the county's tax equity payments for fiscal 113221 years 2012 through 2014 shall equal the following: 113222

(a) For fiscal year 2012, one-fourth of the amount calculated 113223
for the eligible county under division (D)(1) of this section plus 113224 three-fourths of the amount of tax equity payments the county 113225 received in fiscal year 2011; 113226

(b) For fiscal year 2013, one-half of the amount calculated 113227
for the eligible county under division (D)(1) of this section plus 113228 one-half of the amount of tax equity payments the county received 113229 in fiscal year 2011; 113230

(c) For fiscal year 2014, three-fourths of the amount 113231 calculated for the eligible county under division (D)(1) of this 113232 section plus one-fourth of the amount of tax equity payments the 113233 county received in fiscal year 2011. 113234

(3) In any fiscal year, if the total amount of tax equity 113235 payments for all eligible counties as determined under divisions 113236 (D)(1) and (2) of this section is greater than the amount 113237 appropriated to the department of developmental disabilities for 113238 the purpose of making such payments in that fiscal year, the 113239 director shall reduce the payments to each eligible county board 113240 in equal proportion. If the total amount of tax equity payments as 113241 determined under that division is less than the amount 113242 appropriated to the department for that purpose, the director 113243 shall determine how to allocate the excess money after 113244 consultation with the Ohio association of county boards serving 113245 people with developmental disabilities. 113246

(4) Tax equity payments shall be paid only to an eligible 113247 county board of developmental disabilities and not to a regional 113248 council established under section 5126.13 of the Revised Code or 113249 any other entity. 113250

(E)(1) Except as provided in division (E)(2) of this section, 113251 a county board of developmental disabilities shall use tax equity 113252 payments solely to pay the nonfederal share of medicaid 113253 expenditures it is required to pay under sections 5126.059 and 113254 5126.0510 of the Revised Code. Tax equity payments shall not be 113255 used to pay any salary or other compensation to county board 113256
personnel. 113257

(2) Upon the written request of a county board, the director 113258 of developmental disabilities may authorize a county board to use 113259 tax equity payments for infrastructure improvements necessary to 113260 support medicaid waiver administration. 113261

(3) The director may audit any county board receiving tax 113262 equity payments to ensure appropriate use of the payments in 113263 accordance with this section. If the director determines that a 113264 county board is using payments inappropriately, the director shall 113265 notify the county board in writing of the determination. Within 113266 thirty days after receiving the director's notification, the 113267 county board shall submit a written plan of correction to the 113268 director. The director may accept or reject the plan. If the 113269 director rejects the plan, the director may require the county 113270 board to repay all or a portion of the amount of tax equity 113271 payments used inappropriately. The director shall distribute any 113272 tax equity payments returned under this division to other eligible 113273 county boards in accordance with a plan developed by the director 113274 after consultation with the Ohio association of county boards 113275 servicing people with developmental disabilities. 113276

Sec. 5126.24. (A) As used in this section: 113277

(1) "License" means an educator license issued by the state 113278 board of education under section 3319.22 of the Revised Code or a 113279 certificate issued by the department of developmental 113280 disabilities. 113281

To arrange supported living for an individual, the board 113357 shall assist the individual in developing an individual service 113358 plan. In developing the plan, the individual shall choose a 113359 residence that is appropriate according to local standards; the 113360 individuals, if any, with whom the individual will live in the 113361 selection system. Each system shall enable an individual to choose 113386 to continue receiving supported living from the same providers, to 113387 select additional providers, or to choose alternative providers. 113388 Annually, the board shall review its provider selection system to 113389 individuals fair and equitable access to providers. 113391

In developing a provider selection system, the county board 113392 shall create a pool of providers for individuals to use in 113393 board through soliciting requests for proposals for supported 113397 living contracts. In either case, only providers that are 113398 certified by the director of developmental disabilities may be 113399 placed in the pool. 113400

If the board places all providers on record in the pool, the 113401 board shall review the pool at least annually to determine whether 113402 each provider has continued interest in being a provider and has 113403 maintained its certification by the department. At any time, an 113404 interested and certified provider may make a request to the board 113405 that it be added to the pool, and the board shall add the provider 113406 to the pool not later than seven days after receiving the request. 113407

If the board solicits requests for proposals for inclusion of 113408 providers in the pool, the board shall develop standards for 113409 shall be solicited at least annually. When requests are solicited, 113411 include a description of any applicable contract terms, the 113416 standards that are used to select providers for inclusion in the 113417 pool, and the process the board uses to resolve disputes arising 113418 from the selection process. The board shall accept requests from 113419 any entity interested in being a provider of supported living for 113420 individuals served by the board. Requests shall be approved or 113421 denied according to the standards developed by the board. 113422 Providers that previously have been placed in the pool are not 113423 required to resubmit a request for proposal to be included in the 113424 pool, unless the board's standards have been changed. 113425

In assisting an individual in choosing a provider, the county 113426 board shall provide the individual with uniform and consistent 113427 information pertaining to each provider in the pool. An individual 113428 may choose to receive supported living from a provider that is not 113429 traffic offenders. Consistent with division (B)(1) of this 113662 section, a county and the juvenile court of a county shall not use 113663 any of those moneys for capital construction projects. 113664

(iii) Moneys in the fund shall not be used to support 113665

(3) In accordance with rules adopted by the department 113685 pursuant to division (D) of section 5139.04 of the Revised Code, 113686 each juvenile court and the county served by that juvenile court 113687 department shall not disburse any payment of state subsidy funds 113736 to which the county otherwise is entitled pursuant to section 113737 5139.34 of the Revised Code and shall not disburse pursuant to 113738 division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code the applicable 113739 allocation until the juvenile court fully complies with division 113740 (B)(3)(c) of this section. If the juvenile court fails to prepare 113741 and submit those monthly statistical reports within one hundred 113742 eighty days of the date the department establishes for their 113743 submission, the department shall not disburse any payment of state 113744 to section 5139.34 of the Revised Code and shall not disburse 113746 pursuant to division (B) of section 5139.41 of the Revised Code 113747 the applicable allocation, and the state subsidy funds and the 113748 remainder of the applicable allocation shall revert to the 113749 department. If a juvenile court states in a monthly statistical 113750 report that the juvenile court adjudicated within a state fiscal 113751 for the performance of audits adopted by the department pursuant 113764 to that program and all requests made by the department pursuant 113765 to that program for information necessary to reconcile fiscal 113766 accounting. If an audit that is performed pursuant to a fiscal 113767 monitoring program or another monitoring program described in this 113768 division determines that the juvenile court or the county used 113769 moneys in the county's felony delinquent care and custody fund for 113770 expenses that are not authorized under division (B) of this 113771 section, within forty-five days after the department notifies the 113772 county of the unauthorized expenditures, the county either shall 113773 general revenue fund to the state's general revenue fund or shall 113775 file a written appeal with the department. If an appeal is timely 113776 filed, the director of the department shall render a decision on 113777 the appeal and shall notify the appellant county or its juvenile 113778 court of that decision within forty-five days after the date that 113779 the appeal is filed. If the director denies an appeal, the 113780 county's fiscal agent shall repay the amount of the unauthorized 113781 expenditures from the county general revenue fund to the state's 113782 general revenue fund within thirty days after receiving the 113783 director's notification of the appeal decision. 113784

(C) The determination of which county a reduction of the care 113785 and custody allocation will be charged against for a particular 113786 youth shall be made as outlined below for all youths who do not 113787 qualify as public safety beds. The determination of which county a 113788 charged against the committing county. 113792

(2) In the event of a recommitment, the reduction shall be 113793 charged against the original committing county until the 113794 expiration of the minimum period of institutionalization under the 113795 original order of commitment or until the date on which the youth 113796 is admitted to the department of youth services pursuant to the 113797 order of recommitment, whichever is later. Reductions of the 113798 allocation shall be charged against the county that recommitted 113799 the youth after the minimum expiration date of the original 113800 commitment. 113801

(3) In the event of a revocation of a release on parole, the 113802 reduction shall be charged against the county that revokes the 113803 youth's parole. 113804

(D) A juvenile court is not precluded by its allocation 113805 amount for the care and custody of felony delinquents from 113806 committing a felony delinquent to the department of youth services 113807 for care and custody in an institution or a community corrections 113808 facility when the juvenile court determines that the commitment is 113809 appropriate. 113810

and not revealed to any person, except upon proper order of a 114634 court. Failure to submit the required information or to expressly 114635 grant the director authority to obtain the required information 114636 shall result in the denial of a certificate of qualification. The 114637 director or the director's subordinates shall have access to the 114638 books of account and financial records of all applicants, unless 114639 the financial statement furnished by any applicant is prepared and 114640 applicant has complied with Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code. 114645

The director may require all qualified bidders to file 114646 not apply to contracts or projects of a transportation improvement 114712 district. 114713

Sec. 5540.031. (A) The board of trustees of a transportation 114714 improvement district may provide for the construction, 114715 reconstruction, improvement, alteration, or repair of any road, 114716 highway, public place, building, or other infrastructure and levy 114717 special assessments, if the board determines that the public 114718 improvement will benefit the area where it will be constructed, 114719 reconstructed, improved, altered, or repaired. However, if the 114720 improvement is proposed for territory in a political subdivision 114721 located outside the district's territory, the legislative 114722 authority of that political subdivision shall approve the 114723 undertaking of the improvement within the political subdivision. 114724

(B) If any improvements are made under this section, 114725 contracts for the improvement may provide that the improvement may 114726 be owned by the district or by the person or corporation supplying 114727 it to the district under a lease. 114728

(C) If the board of trustees of a district proposes an 114729 improvement described in division (A) of this section, the board 114730 shall conduct a hearing on the proposed improvement. The board 114731 shall indicate by metes and bounds the area in which the public 114732
improvement. 114734

(D) The board of trustees shall fix a day for a hearing on 114735 the proposed improvement. The secretary-treasurer of the board 114736 shall deliver, to each owner of a parcel of land or a lot that the 114737 board identifies as benefiting from the proposed improvement, a 114738 notice that sets forth the substance of the proposed improvement 114739 and the time and place of the hearing on it. At least fifteen days 114740 before the date set for the hearing, a copy of the notice shall be 114741 served upon the owner or left at ~~his~~ the owner's usual place of 114742 residence, or, if the owner is a corporation, upon an officer or 114743 agent of the corporation. On or before the day of the hearing, the 114744 person serving notice of the hearing shall make return thereon, 114745 under oath, of the time and manner of service, and shall file the 114746 notice with the secretary-treasurer of the board. 114747

At least fifteen days before the day set for the hearing on 114748 the proposed improvement, the secretary-treasurer shall give 114749 notice to each nonresident owner of a lot or parcel of land in the 114750 area to be benefited by the improvement, by publication once in a newspaper ~~published and~~ of general circulation in the one or more counties in which this area is located. The publication of the notice shall be verified by affidavit of the printer or other person having knowledge of the publication and shall be filed with the secretary-treasurer of the district on or before the date of the hearing.

(2) All or a part of the costs and expenses of providing for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, alteration, or repair of any improvement described in division (F)(1) of this section may be paid from a fund into which may be paid special assessments levied under this section against the lots and parcels of land in the area to be benefited by the improvement, if the board finds that the improvement will result in general or special benefits to the benefited area. These special assessments shall be levied not more than one time on the same lot or parcel of land. 114783 Such costs and expenses may also be paid from the treasury of the 114784 district or from other available sources in amounts the board 114785 finds appropriate. 114786

(3) The board shall levy special assessments at an amount not 114787 to exceed ten per cent of the assessable value of the lot or 114788 parcel of land being assessed. The board shall determine the 114789 assessable value of a lot or parcel of land in the following 114790 manner: the board shall first determine the fair market value of 114791 the lot or parcel being assessed in the calendar year in which the 114792 area to be benefited by the public improvement is first designated 114793 and then multiply this amount by the average rate of appreciation 114794 in value of the lot or parcel since that calendar year. The 114795 assessable value of the lot or parcel is the current fair market 114796 value of the lot or parcel minus the amount calculated in the 114797 manner described in the immediately preceding sentence. The board 114798 may adjust the assessable value of a lot or parcel of land to 114799 reflect a sale of the lot or parcel that indicates an appreciation 114800 in its value that exceeds its average rate of appreciation in 114801 value. 114802

(4) Special assessments levied by the board may be paid in 114803 full in a lump sum or may be paid and collected in equal 114804 semiannual installments, equal in number to twice the number of 114805 years for which the lease of the improvement is made or twice the 114806 number of years that the note, bond, instrument, or obligation 114807 that the assessments are pledged to pay requires. The assessments 114808 shall be paid and collected in the same manner and at the same 114809 time as real property taxes are paid and collected, and 114810 assessments in the amount of fifty dollars or less shall be paid 114811 in full, and not in installments, at the time the first or next 114812 installment would otherwise become due and payable. Complaints 114813 regarding assessments may be made to the county board of revision 114814 in the same manner as complaints relating to the valuation and 114815 assessment of real property. 114816

Credits against assessments shall be granted equal to the 114817 value of any construction, reconstruction, improvement, 114818 alteration, or repair that an owner of a parcel of land or lot 114819 makes to an improvement pursuant to an agreement between the owner 114820 and the district. 114821

(5) After the levy of a special assessment, the board, at any 114822 time during any year in which an installment of the assessment 114823 becomes due, may pay out of other available funds of the district, 114824 including any state or federal funds available to the district, 114825 the full amount of the price of the contract that the special 114826 assessments are pledged to pay for that year or any other portion 114827 of the remaining obligation. The board shall be the sole 114828 determiner of the definition, extent, and allocation of the 114829 benefit resulting from an improvement that the board authorizes 114830
under this section. 114831

(G)(1) The board shall certify to the appropriate county 114832 auditor the boundaries of the area that is benefited by any public 114833 improvement the board authorizes under this section and, when the 114834 board so requests, the auditor shall apportion the valuation of 114835 any lot or parcel of land lying partly within and partly outside 114836 the area so benefited. 114837

(2) The board by resolution shall assess against the lots and 114838 parcels of land located in the area that is benefited by a public 114839 improvement such portion of the costs of completing the public 114840 improvement as the board determines, for the period that may be 114841 necessary to pay the note, bond, instrument, or obligation issued 114842 to pay for the improvement and the proceedings in relation to it, 114843 and shall certify these costs to the appropriate county auditor. 114844

(3) Except for assessments that have been paid in full in a 114845 lump sum, the county auditor shall annually place upon the tax 114846 duplicate, for collection in semiannual installments, the two 114847 installments of the assessment for that year, which shall be paid 114848 and collected at the same time and in the same manner as real 114849 property taxes. The collected assessments shall be paid to the 114850 treasury of the district and the board of the district shall use 114851 the assessments for any purpose authorized by this chapter. 114852

Sec. 5540.05. The board of trustees of a district may acquire 114853 real property in fee simple in the name of the district in 114854 connection with, but in excess of that needed for, a project by 114855 any method other than appropriation and hold the property for such 114856 period of time as the board determines. All right, title, and 114857 interest of the district in the property may be sold at public 114858 auction or otherwise, as the board considers in the best interests 114859 of the district; but in no event shall the property be sold for 114860 less than two-thirds of its appraised value. Sale at public 114861 auction shall be undertaken only after the board advertises the 114862 sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the district for ~~at~~ 114863 ~~least~~ two weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 114864
Code, prior to the date set for the sale. 114865

Sec. 5543.10. (A) The county engineer, upon the order of the 114866 board of county commissioners or board of township trustees, shall 114867 construct sidewalks, curbs, or gutters of suitable materials, 114868 along or connecting the public highways, outside any municipal 114869 corporation, upon the petition of a majority of the abutting 114870 property owners. The expense of the construction of these 114871 improvements may be paid by the county or township, or by the 114872 county or township and abutting property owners in such proportion 114873 as determined by the board of county commissioners or board of 114874 township trustees. The board of county commissioners or board of 114875 township trustees may assess part or all of the cost of these 114876 improvements against the abutting property owners, in proportion 114877 to benefits accruing to their property. 114878

The board of county commissioners or board of township 114879 trustees, by unanimous vote, may order the construction, repair, 114880 or maintenance of sidewalks, curbs, and gutters along or 114881 connecting the public highways, outside a municipal corporation, 114882 without a petition for that construction, repair, or maintenance, 114883 and may assess none, all, or any part of the cost against abutting 114884 property owners, provided that notice is given by publication for 114885 three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation 114886 within the county or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 114887 Code, stating the intention of the board of county commissioners 114888 or board of township trustees to construct, repair, or maintain 114889 the specified improvements and fixing a date for a hearing on 114890 them. As part of a sidewalk improvement, the board may include the 114891 repair or reconstruction of a driveway within the sidewalk 114892 easement. As part of a curb improvement, the board may include 114893 construction or repair of a driveway apron. 114894

Notice to all abutting property owners shall be given by two 114895 publications in a newspaper of general circulation in the county 114896 or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, at least ten 114897 days prior to the date fixed in the notice for the making of 114898 assessments. The notice shall state the time and place when 114899 abutting property owners will be given an opportunity to be heard 114900 with reference to assessments. The board of county commissioners 114901 or board of township trustees shall determine whether assessments 114902 shall be paid in one or more installments. 114903

(B) The county engineer may trim or remove any and all trees, 114904 shrubs, and other vegetation growing in or encroaching onto the 114905 right-of-way of the easement of a public sidewalk along or 114906 connecting the public highways and maintained by the county, and 114907 the board of township trustees may trim or remove any and all 114908 trees, shrubs, and other vegetation growing in or encroaching onto 114909 the right-of-way of the easement of a public sidewalk along or 114910 connecting the public highways and maintained by the township, as 114911 is necessary in the engineer's or board's judgment to facilitate 114912 the right of the public to improvement and maintenance of, and 114913 uninterrupted travel on, public sidewalks in the county or 114914 township. 114915

Sec. 5549.21. The board of township trustees may purchase or 114916 lease such machinery and tools as are necessary for use in 114917 constructing, reconstructing, maintaining, and repairing roads and 114918 culverts within the township, and shall provide suitable places 114919 for housing and storing machinery and tools owned by the township. 114920
It may purchase such material and employ such labor as is 114921 necessary for carrying into effect this section, or it may 114922 authorize the purchase or employment of such material and labor by 114923 one of its number, or by the township highway superintendent, at a 114924 price to be fixed by the board. All payments on account of 114925 machinery, tools, material, and labor shall be made from the 114926 township road fund. Except as otherwise provided in sections 114927 505.08, 505.101, and 5513.01 of the Revised Code, all purchases of 114928 materials, machinery, and tools shall, if the amount involved 114929 exceeds ~~twenty-five~~ fifty thousand dollars, be made from the 114930 lowest responsible bidder after advertisement, as provided in 114931
section 5575.01 of the Revised Code. 114932

If, in compliance with section 505.10 of the Revised Code, 114933 the board wishes to sell machinery, equipment, or tools owned by 114934 the township to the person from whom it is to purchase other 114935 machinery, equipment, or tools, the board may offer, if the amount 114936 of the purchase alone involved does not exceed ~~twenty-five~~ fifty 114937 thousand dollars, to sell such machinery, equipment, or tools and 114938 have the amount credited by the vendor against the purchase of the 114939 other machinery, equipment, or tools. If the purchase price of the 114940 other machinery, equipment, or tools alone exceeds ~~twenty-five~~ 114941 fifty thousand dollars, the board may give notice to the 114942 competitive bidders of its willingness to accept offers for the 114943 purchase of the old machinery, equipment, or tools, and those 114944 offers shall be subtracted from the selling price of the other 114945 machinery, equipment, or tools as bid, in determining the lowest 114946 responsible bidder. Notice of the willingness of the board to 114947 accept offers for the purchase of the old machinery, equipment, or 114948 tools shall be made as a part of the advertisement for bids. 114949

Sec. 5552.06. (A) A board of county commissioners or a board 114950 of township trustees may adopt access management regulations or 114951 any amendments to those regulations after holding at least two 114952 public hearings at regular or special sessions of the board. The 114953 board shall consider the county engineer's proposed regulations 114954 prepared under division (B) of section 5552.04 or 5552.05 of the 114955 Revised Code and all comments on those regulations. The board, in 114956 its discretion, may, but need not, adopt any or all of those 114957 proposed regulations. After the public hearings, the board may 114958 decide not to adopt any access management regulations. 114959

The board shall publish notice of the public hearings in a 114960 newspaper of general circulation in the county or township, as 114961 applicable, once a week for ~~at least~~ two weeks or as provided in 114962 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, immediately preceding the 114963 hearings. The notice shall include the time, date, and place of 114964 each hearing. Copies of any proposed regulations or amendments 114965 shall be made available to the public at the board's office and, 114966 if the county engineer administers or is proposed to administer a 114967 point of access permit, in the engineer's office. 114968

(B) In addition to the notice required by division (A) of 114969 this section, not less than thirty days before holding a public 114970 hearing, a board of county commissioners shall send a copy of the 114971 county engineer's proposed regulations, a copy of the advisory 114972 committee's recommendations, and a request for written comments to 114973 the board of township trustees of each township in the county, the 114974 department of transportation district deputy director for the 114975 district in which the county is located, a representative of the 114976 metropolitan planning organization, where applicable, and at least 114977 the local professional associations representing the following 114978 professions: 114979

(1) Homebuilders; 114980

(2) Realtors; 114981

(3) Professional surveyors; 114982

(4) Attorneys; 114983

(5) Professional engineers. 114984

(C) In addition to the notice required by division (A) of 114985 this section, a board of township trustees shall send a copy of 114986 the county engineer's proposed regulations, a copy of the advisory 114987 committee's recommendations, and a request for written comments, 114988 not less than thirty days before holding a public hearing, to the 114989 department of transportation district deputy director for the 114990 district in which the township is located, a representative of the 114991 metropolitan planning organization, where applicable, and at least 114992
the local professional associations representing the professions 114993 listed in division (B) of this section. 114994

Sec. 5553.05. (A) In the resolution required by section 114995 5553.04 of the Revised Code, the board of county commissioners 114996 shall fix a date when it will view the proposed improvement, and 114997 also a date for a final hearing thereon. 114998

The board shall give notice of the time and place for both 114999 such view and hearing by publication once a week for two 115000 consecutive weeks in a newspaper ~~published and having~~ of general 115001

circulation in the county where such improvement is located, ~~but~~ 115002
~~if there is no such newspaper published in said county, then in a~~ 115003 ~~newspaper having general circulation in said county or as provided~~ 115004 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. Such notice, in addition to 115005 the date and place of such view and place and time of the final 115006 hearing, shall state briefly the character of such improvement. 115007

(B) If the board adopts a resolution to vacate a public road 115008 as provided in section 5553.04 of the Revised Code, or if a 115009 petition to vacate a public road is filed, the board shall, in 115010 addition to the notice of the time and place for hearing 115011 prescribed in division (A) of this section, send written notice of 115012 the hearing by first class mail at least twenty days before the 115013 date of the public hearing to owners of property abutting upon 115014 that portion of the road to be vacated, and to the director of 115015 natural resources. Such notice shall be mailed to the addresses of 115016 such owners appearing on the county auditor's current tax list or 115017 the treasurer's mailing list, and such other list or lists that 115018 may be specified by the board. The failure of the delivery of such 115019 notice does not invalidate any such vacating of the road 115020 authorized in the resolution. 115021

Sec. 5553.19. The county engineer shall view and survey the 115022 road as provided in section 5553.18 of the Revised Code, and shall 115023 make a return of the survey and plat of the road to the board of 115024 county commissioners. Upon the filing of the report of the 115025 engineer, the board shall give notice of the filing of such report 115026 by publication as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code or 115027 once each week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper 115028 ~~published and having~~ of general circulation in the county in which 115029 such road is situated, ~~but if there is no such newspaper published~~ 115030 ~~in said county, then in a newspaper having general circulation in~~ 115031 ~~said county.~~ Such notice shall state the date and time of the 115032 hearing upon the report of the engineer. If exceptions or 115033 objections are made, the board shall hear them, and it may approve 115034 or reject said report. If the report of the engineer is approved, 115035 the board shall cause such report to be recorded together with the 115036 survey and plat of such road. 115037

Sec. 5553.23. If a person through whose land a public road 115038 has been established, which is under the jurisdiction of the board 115039 of county commissioners, desires to turn or change or relocate 115040 such road or any part thereof through any part of ~~his~~ the person's 115041 land, ~~he~~ the person may file a petition with the board of county 115042 commissioners setting forth briefly the particular change ~~he~~ 115043 ~~desires~~ desired. Upon the receipt of such petition, the board 115044 shall give notice by publication once not later than two weeks 115045 prior to the date for the hearing on such petition in ~~some a~~ 115046 newspaper ~~published and~~ of general circulation in said county, ~~but~~ 115047
~~if there is no such newspaper published in said county, then in a~~ 115048 ~~newspaper having general circulation in said county,~~ stating that 115049 such petition has been filed and setting forth the change desired 115050 in such road and the date and place for the hearing on said 115051 petition. If a public road was once established for public 115052 convenience through private lands, but has not been improved by 115053 public funds and for more than twenty-one years has not been used, 115054 the owner of such land may petition the board to vacate the road 115055 in accordance with proceedings under sections 5553.04 to 5553.11 115056

A person through whose land a trail right of way has been 115058 preserved under section 5553.044 of the Revised Code may file a 115059 petition to turn or change the route of the trail right of way in 115060 the manner provided in this section, and such petition shall be 115061 acted upon in the manner set forth in sections 5553.23 to 5553.31 115062 of the Revised Code. Notice of the hearing in such case shall also 115063 be made by first class mail to the director of natural resources. 115064
If the board turns or changes the route of the trail right of way, 115065 it shall furnish the director with a full and accurate description 115066 or map of the change. 115067

Sec. 5553.42. The board of county commissioners shall give 115068 notice to the owners of lands through which the proposed road will 115069 pass of the filing of the petition provided for in section 5553.41 115070 of the Revised Code and the date and place of the hearing thereon. 115071 Such notice shall be served on such owners personally, or by 115072 leaving a copy of such notice at the usual place of residence of 115073 such owners at least five days before the date of the hearing on 115074 said petition. Proof of service of such notice shall be made by 115075 affidavit of the person serving such notice. If any of such owners 115076 are nonresidents of the county, the board shall give notice to 115077 such nonresidents by publication once each week for two 115078
circulation ~~within in~~ the county, ~~but if there is no such~~ 115080 ~~newspaper published in said county, then in a newspaper having~~ 115081 ~~general circulation in said county~~ or as provided in section 7.16 115082 of the Revised Code. A copy of the newspaper containing such 115083 notice shall be mailed by the county auditor to each nonresident 115084 whose post-office address is known to such auditor. Such notice 115085 shall state the time and place of the hearing on claims for 115086 compensation and damages. 115087

Sec. 5555.07. The county engineer shall prepare and file with 115088 the board of county commissioners, by the time fixed therefor by 115089 the board, copies of the surveys, plans, profiles, cross sections, 115090 estimates of costs, and specifications for the improvement and 115091 estimated assessments upon lands benefited thereby. Thereupon such 115092 board shall file such copies in its office for the inspection and 115093 examination of all persons interested. Except in a case involving 115094 the improvement of a public road in which no land or property is 115095 taken or assessed, the board shall publish in a newspaper 115096

~~published and of general circulation in the county, or if no~~ 115097 ~~newspaper is published in the county then in a newspaper having~~ 115098 ~~general circulation in the county,~~ for the period of two weeks or 115099 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, notice that a 115100 resolution has been adopted providing for said improvement, and 115101 that copies of the surveys, plans, profiles, cross sections, 115102 estimates, and specifications, together with estimated assessments 115103 upon the lands benefited by such improvement for the proportion of 115104 the cost thereof to be assessed therefor, are on file in the 115105 office of the board for the inspection of persons interested 115106 therein. Such notice shall state the time and place for hearing 115107 objections to said improvement and to such estimated assessments. 115108
In a case involving the improvement of a public road in which no 115109 land or property is taken or assessed, the board shall publish the 115110 notice required by this section once a week for two consecutive 115111 weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. 115112

At such hearing the board may order said surveys, plans, 115114 profiles, cross sections, estimates, and specifications to be 115115 changed or modified and shall make such adjustments of the 115116 estimated assessments as seem just to it. Thereupon the board may 115117 approve such surveys, plans, profiles, cross sections, 115118 specifications, and estimates and approve and confirm estimated 115119 assessments as made by the engineer or as modified and changed by 115120 the board. Such assessments when so approved and confirmed shall 115121 be certified to the county auditor of the county and shall 115122 thereupon become a lien upon the land charged therewith. The board 115123 may declare against said improvement. 115124

Sec. 5555.27. As soon as the county engineer has transmitted 115125 to the several boards of county commissioners copies of ~~his~~ the 115126 engineer's surveys, plans, profiles, cross sections, estimates, 115127 and specifications for the improvement, the joint board of county 115128 commissioners shall, except in cases of reconstruction or repair 115129 of roads where no lands or property are taken, fix a time and 115130 place for hearing objections to said improvement. The joint board 115131 shall thereupon, except in cases of reconstruction or repair of 115132 roads where no lands or property are taken, publish in a newspaper 115133 ~~published and~~ of general circulation within each interested 115134 county, ~~or if there is no such newspaper published in such county~~ 115135 ~~then in a newspaper having general circulation in such county,~~ 115136 once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 115137 7.16 of the Revised Code, a notice that such improvement is to be 115138 made and that copies of the surveys, plans, profiles, cross 115139 sections, estimates, and specifications therefor are on file in 115140 the office of the board of each interested county for the 115141 inspection and examination of all persons interested therein. Such 115142 notice shall also state the time and place for hearing objections 115143 to said improvement. Proceedings for the appropriation of land 115144 needed for such improvement shall be maintained in accordance with 115145 sections 163.01 to 163.22, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code. 115146

Sec. 5555.42. A board of county commissioners desiring to 115147 construct a county road improvement, and finding that no equitable 115148 method of apportioning the compensation, damages, and expenses 115149 thereof is provided by section 5555.41 of the Revised Code, or 115150 finding that an equitable assessment cannot be made by the use of 115151 any of the several assessment areas authorized by said section, 115152 may order the county engineer to make a tentative plan for such 115153 improvement and an approximate estimate of the cost. Such board 115154 may thereupon file an application in the court of common pleas 115155 describing the improvement in question, and a copy of the 115156 tentative plan and approximate estimate of cost shall be attached 115157 to such application. The board shall set forth in such application 115158 that the compensation, damages, and expenses of the improvement 115159 cannot be equitably apportioned under any of the several plans 115160 provided by said section or that such compensation, damages, and 115161 expenses cannot be equitably assessed by the use of any one of the 115162 several assessment areas authorized by said section, or that both 115163 such conditions exist, and it shall set forth a method of 115164 apportioning the compensation, damages, and expenses and a 115165 definite description of the area against which it desires to 115166 assess any part of such compensation, damages, and expenses. The 115167 application shall contain a prayer requesting authority from such 115168 court to construct the improvement and apportion the compensation, 115169 damages, and expenses according to the plan suggested by such 115170 board and to assess the designated portion of the cost against the 115171 real estate within the area described in the petition. 115172

Notice of the filing and pendency of such application shall 115173 be given once a week for four consecutive weeks by publication in 115174 ~~two newspapers published and of general circulation in the county,~~ 115175 ~~or if there are no such newspapers then in two newspapers a~~ 115176 newspaper of general circulation in such county or as provided in 115177 section 7.16 of the Revised Code. Such notice shall describe the 115178 route and termini of the improvement and set forth the estimated 115179 cost and the proposed method of apportionment and assessment area. 115180 After such notice has been given, the court or a judge thereof 115181 shall fix a time for a hearing on such application, and, at the 115182 time fixed, the court or a judge thereof shall hear such 115183 application and all evidence offered by the board or any taxpayer 115184 of the county for or against the proposed plan of apportionment 115185 and for or against the use of the suggested assessment area. If 115186 the court finds that the suggested plan of apportionment and the 115187 area against which special assessments are to be made are fair and 115188 just, that the cost of the improvement will not be excessive in 115189 view of the benefits conferred, and that all the real estate 115190 within the suggested assessment area will be benefited by the 115191 construction of the improvement upon the plan suggested and by the 115192 use of the method of apportionment set forth in said application, 115193 such court may authorize the board to proceed upon the suggested 115194 plan and to apportion the compensation, damages, and expenses in 115195 the manner set forth in the application and to assess against the 115196 real estate within the assessment area designated in the 115197 application, according to the benefits, that portion of the cost 115198 to be specially assessed; otherwise the court shall dismiss the 115199 application and the board may not proceed with the improvement. 115200

The court may modify the suggested plan of apportionment or the 115201 suggested assessment area and grant the prayer of the application 115202 subject to such modifications as it determines are just and 115203 proper. The board in its application may set up any division of 115204 cost which it thinks proper among the county, the owners of lands 115205 to be specially assessed, and any municipal corporation within 115206 which such projected improvement is situated in whole or in part, 115207 but no portion of the cost may be apportioned to a municipal 115208 corporation without the consent of such municipal corporation 115209 evidenced by an ordinance or resolution of its legislative 115210 authority. 115211

When the prayer of any such application is granted by the 115212 court or a judge thereof and the plan of apportionment and area of 115213 assessment is approved by such court, either as set forth in the 115214 application or as modified by the court, the board may proceed 115215 with the construction of the improvement and use the method of 115216 apportionment and the assessment area authorized by the court. In 115217 such event, the board may levy taxes and issue bonds in the manner 115218 provided by law with respect to improvements, the compensation, 115219 damages, and expenses of which are apportioned and paid as 115220 provided in section 5555.41 of the Revised Code, and all 115221 proceedings in connection with such improvement shall be conducted 115222 in accordance with sections 5555.01 to 5555.83 of the Revised 115223 Code, except as provided in this section. The special assessments 115224 shall be made by the board against the real estate within the 115225 assessment area authorized by the court, but no assessment against 115226 any lot or parcel of real estate shall exceed the actual benefits 115227 conferred thereon by the construction of the improvement. This 115228 section also applies to improvements of sections of a state 115229 highway within counties having a tax duplicate of real and 115230 personal property in excess of three hundred million dollars, and 115231 with respect to which the board desires to co-operate with the 115232 department of transportation. 115233

Sec. 5559.06. Upon the completion of the surveys, plans, 115234 profiles, cross sections, estimates, and specifications for an 115235 improvement under section 5559.02 of the Revised Code by the 115236 county engineer, ~~he~~ the engineer shall transmit to the board of 115237 county commissioners copies of such surveys, plans, profiles, 115238 cross sections, estimates, and specifications. The board shall 115239 then publish, in a newspaper ~~published and~~ of general circulation 115240 within the county, ~~and if there is no such newspaper published in~~ 115241
~~the county then in one having general circulation in such county,~~ 115242 once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 115243 7.16 of the Revised Code, a notice that such improvement is to be 115244
made and that copies of the surveys, plans, profiles, cross 115245 sections, estimates, and specifications for it are on file in the 115246 office of the board for the inspection and examination of all 115247 persons interested. Such notice shall also state the time and 115248 place for hearing objections to the improvement. 115249

In the event that land or property is to be taken for such 115250 improvement, such taking shall be in accordance with sections 115251 163.01 to 163.22, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code. 115252

Sec. 5559.10. As soon as all questions of compensation and 115253 damages have been determined in a road improvement case, the 115254 county engineer shall make, upon actual view, an estimated 115255 assessment upon the real estate to be charged therewith, of the 115256 compensation, damages, and costs of an improvement as provided by 115257 section 5559.02 of the Revised Code. Such estimated assessment 115258 shall be according to the benefit which will result to the real 115259 estate. In making such assessment the engineer may take into 115260 consideration any previous special assessments made upon the real 115261 estate for road improvements. The schedule of such assessments 115262 shall be filed in the office of the board of county commissioners 115263 for the inspection of the persons interested. Before adopting the 115264 assessment, the board shall publish, once each week for two 115265 consecutive weeks, in ~~some a newspaper published and~~ of general 115266 circulation in the county or as provided in section 7.16 of the 115267 Revised Code, ~~but if there is no such newspaper then in one having~~ 115268 ~~general circulation in the county~~, notice that such assessment has 115269 been made, is on file in the office of the board, and the date 115270 when objections will be heard to such assessment. If any owner of 115271 property affected thereby desires, ~~he~~ the owner may file ~~his~~ 115272 objections to said assessments, in writing, with the board before 115273 the time for hearing. If any objections are filed the board shall 115274 hear them and act as an equalizing board. It may change such 115275 assessments if, in its opinion, any change is necessary to make 115276 them just and equitable, and the board shall approve and confirm 115277 such assessments as reported by the engineer or modified by it. 115278 Such assessments, when so approved and confirmed, shall be a lien 115279 on the land chargeable therewith. 115280

Sec. 5559.12. After the board of county commissioners has 115281 decided to proceed with an improvement as provided by section 115282 5559.02 of the Revised Code, it shall advertise for bids once, not 115283 later than two weeks prior to the date fixed for the letting of 115284 the contract, in a newspaper ~~published and~~ of general circulation 115285 in the county, ~~but if there is no such newspaper then in one~~ 115286 ~~having general circulation in such county~~. Such notice shall state 115287
estimates, and specifications for such improvement are on file in 115289 the office of the board, and the time within which bids will be received. The board shall award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder.

The contract shall be let upon the basis of lump sum bids, unless the board orders that it be let upon the basis of unit price bids, in which event it shall be let upon such basis. The bids received shall be opened at the time stated in the notice. The board may reject all bids.

Sec. 5561.04. The board of county commissioners, desiring to proceed under sections 4957.06 and 5561.01 to 5561.15 of the Revised Code, shall, after receipt of the certificate of necessity and expediency from the director of transportation, as provided in section 5561.03 of the Revised Code, hold a public hearing as to the expediency of constructing such improvement, notice of which shall be given by publication in ~~two newspapers published and a newspaper~~ of general circulation in the county, ~~if such there be, otherwise in two newspapers of general circulation in such county,~~ for two weeks prior to the date set for such hearing or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and shall be served upon the railroad or interurban railway companies in the manner for the service of summons in civil actions, not less than twenty days prior to the date of such hearing.

The board, after such hearing and for the purpose of making or causing such an improvement to be made, may, by resolution adopted by unanimous vote, require the railroad company, in co-operation with the county engineer or any engineer designated by the board, to prepare and submit to the board within six months, unless longer time is mutually agreed upon in writing, plans and specifications for such improvements, specifying the number, character, and location of all piers and supports which are to be permanently placed in any road or highway, specifying the grades to be established for the roads and the height, 115321 character, and estimated cost of any viaduct or way above or below 115322 any railroad track, and the change of grade required to be made of 115323 such tracks including side tracks and switches. But in changing 115324 the grade of any railroad, no grade shall be required in excess of 115325 that adopted by the railroad company for its construction work on 115326 that division or part of the railroad on which the improvement is 115327 to be made, without the consent of the railroad company, nor shall 115328 the railroad company's tracks be required to be placed below 115329 high-water mark. 115330

Such resolution shall be published in the same manner as 115331 resolutions of the legislative authority of a municipal 115332 corporation declaring the necessity of a contemplated public 115333 improvement, and shall be served by the sheriff upon the railroad 115334 or interurban railway companies in the manner provided for the 115335 service of summons in civil actions. If the proposed public 115336 improvement is to be made within a municipal corporation, notice 115337 of the passage of the same shall be served upon the municipal 115338 corporation by delivering to the clerk of the village or 115339

Section 727.18 of the Revised Code shall apply to the notice 115373 date and place of such hearing. 115401

Upon receipt of such a petition the board of township 115402 trustees shall cause a competent engineer to make a survey of the 115403 ground over which the road is proposed to be changed, and to make 115404 a report in writing, together with a plat and survey of the 115405

At the hearing had on the petition the board of township 115409 trustees may hear evidence for or against changing the road, and 115410 if the board is satisfied that the proposed change will not cause 115411 serious injury or disadvantage to the public, it may make a 115412 finding of such fact in its journal and authorize the petitioner 115413 to change such road in conformity with the prayer of the petition. 115414
The board may grant the change as prayed for in the petition, or 115415 it may order such change of the route of such road as will, in its judgment, be for the best interest of the public.

engineer shall make, upon actual view, an estimated assessment, 115454 upon the real estate to be charged, of such part of the 115455 compensation, damages, and costs of such improvement as is to be 115456 specially assessed. Such assessment shall be according to the 115457 board of township trustees for the inspection of the persons 115463 equalizing board, and may change assessments if, in its opinion, 115477 any changes are necessary to make them just and equitable. The 115478 board shall approve and confirm assessments as reported by the 115479 engineer or modified by the board. Such assessments, when approved 115480 person. The commissioner may designate not more than two of the 115960 deputy commissioners to act as commissioner in case of the 115961

(B) The tax commissioner may adopt rules requiring any 116003 payment of tax shown on such a return to be due to be made 116004 electronically in a manner approved by the commissioner. 116005

(C) A rule adopted under this section does not apply to 116006

the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, to be 116015 excused from that requirement. For good cause shown, the 116016 commissioner may excuse the applicant from the requirement and 116017 permit the applicant to file the returns or reports or make the 116018 payments required under this section by nonelectronic means. 116019

Sec. 5703.37. (A)(1) Except as provided in division (B) of 116020 this section, whenever service of a notice or order is required in 116021 the manner provided in this section, a copy of the notice or order 116022 shall be served upon the person affected thereby either by 116023 personal service ~~or~~, by certified mail, or by a delivery service 116024 notifies the tax commissioner of the date of delivery. 116026

(2) With the permission of the person affected by the notice 116027 or order, the commissioner may enter into a written agreement to 116028 deliver a notice or order by alternative means as provided in this 116029 section, including, but not limited to, delivery by secure 116030 electronic mail. Delivery by such means satisfies the requirements 116031 for delivery under this section. 116032

(B)(1)(a) If certified mail is returned because of an 116033 undeliverable address, the commissioner shall first utilize 116034 reasonable means to ascertain a new last known address, including 116035 the use of a change of address service offered by the United 116036 States postal service. If, after using reasonable means, the 116037 commissioner is unable to ascertain a new last known address, the 116038 assessment is final for purposes of section 131.02 of the Revised 116039 Code sixty days after the notice or order sent by certified mail 116040 is first returned to the commissioner, and the commissioner shall 116041 certify the notice or order, if applicable, to the attorney 116042 general for collection under section 131.02 of the Revised Code. 116043

(b) Notwithstanding certification to the attorney general 116044 under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, once the commissioner or 116045 attorney general, or the designee of either, makes an initial 116046 contact with the person to whom the notice or order is directed, 116047 the person may protest an assessment by filing a petition for 116048 reassessment within sixty days after the initial contact. The 116049 certification of an assessment under division (B)(1)(a) of this 116050 section is prima-facie evidence that delivery is complete and that 116051 the notice or order is served. 116052

(2) If mailing of a notice or order by certified mail is 116053 returned for some cause other than an undeliverable address, the 116054 tax commissioner shall resend the notice or order by ordinary 116055 mail. The notice or order shall show the date the commissioner 116056 sends the notice or order and include the following statement: 116057

"This notice or order is deemed to be served on the addressee 116058 under applicable law ten days from the date this notice or order 116059 was mailed by the commissioner as shown on the notice or order, 116060 and all periods within which an appeal may be filed apply from and 116061 after that date." 116062

Unless the mailing is returned because of an undeliverable address, the mailing of that information is prima-facie evidence that delivery of the notice or order was completed ten days after the commissioner sent the notice or order by ordinary mail and that the notice or order was served.

If the ordinary mail is subsequently returned because of an undeliverable address, the commissioner shall proceed under division (B)(1)(a) of this section. A person may challenge the presumption of delivery and service under this division in accordance with division (C) of this section.

Code if the person does not file a petition for reassessment with the tax commissioner. 116095
116096

(D) Nothing in this section prohibits the tax commissioner or the commissioner's designee from delivering a notice or order by personal service. 116097
116099

116112

(2) "Undeliverable address" means an address to which the United States postal service is not able to deliver a notice or order, except when the reason for nondelivery is because the addressee fails to acknowledge or accept the notice or order. 116113 commissioner shall not make or issue an assessment for any tax due 116128 previously anticipated by the issuance of anticipation notes. In 116511 the case of a levy for a fixed period that is not for the purpose 116512 of current expenses, notes may be issued at any time after 116513 approval of the levy in an amount not more than fifty per cent of 116514 the total estimated proceeds of the levy throughout the remaining 116515 life of the levy, less an amount equal to the fraction of the 116516 proceeds of the levy previously anticipated by the issuance of 116517 anticipation notes. In the case of a levy for current expenses, 116518 notes may be issued after the approval of the levy by the electors 116519 and prior to the time when the first tax collection from the levy 116520 can be made. Such notes may be issued in an amount not more than 116521 fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy 116522 throughout the term of the levy in the case of a levy for a fixed 116523 period, or fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds for the 116524 first ten years of the levy in the case of a continuing levy. 116525

No anticipation notes that increase the net indebtedness of a 116526 county may be issued without the prior consent of the board of 116527 county commissioners of that county. The notes shall be issued as 116528 provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have 116529 principal payments during each year after the year of their 116530 issuance over a period not exceeding the life of the levy 116531 anticipated, and may have a principal payment in the year of their 116532 issuance. 116533

"Taxing authority" and "subdivision" have the same meanings 116534 as in section 5705.01 of the Revised Code. 116535

This section is supplemental to and not in derogation of 116536 sections 5705.20, 5705.21, and 5705.22 of the Revised Code. 116537

Sec. 5705.194. The board of education of any city, local, 116538 exempted village, cooperative education, or joint vocational 116539 school district at any time may declare by resolution that the 116540 revenue that will be raised by all tax levies which the district 116541 is authorized to impose, when combined with state and federal 116542 revenues, will be insufficient to provide for the emergency 116543 requirements of the school district or to avoid an operating 116544 deficit, and that it is therefore necessary to levy an additional 116545 tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation. The resolution shall be 116546 confined to a single purpose and shall specify that purpose. If 116547 the levy is proposed to renew all or a portion of the proceeds 116548 derived from one or more existing levies imposed pursuant to this 116549 section, it shall be called a renewal levy and shall be so 116550 designated on the ballot. If two or more existing levies are to be 116551 included in a single renewal levy but are not scheduled to expire 116552 in the same year, the resolution shall specify that the existing 116553 levies to be renewed shall not be levied after the year preceding 116554 the year in which the renewal levy is first imposed. 116555 Notwithstanding the original purpose of any one or more existing 116556 levies that are to be in any single renewal levy, the purpose of 116557 the renewal levy may be either to avoid an operating deficit or to 116558 provide for the emergency requirements of the school district. The 116559 resolution shall further specify the amount of money it is 116560 necessary to raise for the specified purpose for each calendar 116561 year the millage is to be imposed; if a renewal levy, whether the 116562 levy is to renew all, or a portion of, the proceeds derived from 116563 one or more existing levies; and the number of years in which the 116564 millage is to be in effect, which may include a levy upon the 116565 current year's tax list. The number of years may be any number not 116566 exceeding ten. 116567

The question shall be submitted at a special election on a date specified in the resolution. The date shall not be earlier than eighty days after the adoption and certification of the resolution to the county auditor and shall be consistent with the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. A resolution for a renewal levy shall not be placed on the ballot unless the question is submitted on a date on which a special election may be held under division (D) of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, except for the first Tuesday after the first Monday in February and August, during the last year the levy to be renewed may be extended on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate, or at any election held in the ensuing year, except that if the resolution proposes renewing two or more existing levies, the question shall be submitted on the date of the general or primary election held during the last year at least one of the levies to be renewed may be extended on that list and duplicate, or at any election held during the ensuing year. For purposes of this section, a levy shall be considered to be an "existing levy" through the year following the last year it can be placed on the real and public utility property tax list and duplicate.

The submission of questions to the electors under this section is subject to the limitation on the number of election dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code.

The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. A copy of the resolution shall immediately after its passing be certified to the county auditor of the proper county. Section 5705.195 of the Revised Code shall govern the arrangements for the submission of questions to the electors under this section and other matters concerning the election. Publication of notice of the election shall be made in one ~~or more newspapers~~ newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, 116600 or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the 116601 election, ~~and, if.~~ If the board of elections operates and 116602 maintains a web site, the board of elections shall post notice of 116603

the election on its web site for thirty days prior to the 116604 election. If a majority of the electors voting on the question 116605 submitted in an election vote in favor of the levy, the board of 116606 education of the school district may make the additional levy 116607 necessary to raise the amount specified in the resolution for the 116608 purpose stated in the resolution. The tax levy shall be included 116609 in the next tax budget that is certified to the county budget 116610 commission. 116611

After the approval of the levy and prior to the time when the 116612 first tax collection from the levy can be made, the board of 116613 education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy 116614 and issue anticipation notes in an amount not exceeding the total 116615 estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first 116616 year of the levy. 116617

The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of 116618
the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year 116619 after the year of their issuance over a period not to exceed five 116620 years, and may have principal payment in the year of their 116621
issuance. 116622

Sec. 5705.196. The election provided for in section 5705.194 116623 of the Revised Code shall be held at the regular places for voting 116624 in the district, and shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified 116625 in the same manner as regular elections in the district for the 116626 election of county officers, provided that in any such election in 116627 which only part of the electors of a precinct are qualified to 116628 vote, the board of elections may assign voters in such part to an 116629 adjoining precinct. Such an assignment may be made to an adjoining 116630 precinct in another county with the consent and approval of the 116631 board of elections of such other county. Notice of the election 116632 shall be published in one ~~or more newspapers~~ newspaper of general 116633 circulation in the district once a week for two consecutive weeks 116634

or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the 116635
maintains a web site, the board of elections shall post notice of 116637
the election on its web site for thirty days prior to the 116638 election. Such notice shall state the annual proceeds of the 116639 proposed levy, the purpose for which such proceeds are to be used, 116640 the number of years during which the levy shall run, and the 116641 estimated average additional tax rate expressed in dollars and 116642 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation as well as in 116643 mills for each one dollar of valuation, outside the limitation 116644 imposed by Section 2 of Article XII, Ohio Constitution, as 116645 certified by the county auditor. 116646

Sec. 5705.21. (A) At any time, the board of education of any 116647 city, local, exempted village, cooperative education, or joint 116648 vocational school district, by a vote of two-thirds of all its 116649 members, may declare by resolution that the amount of taxes which 116650 may be raised within the ten-mill limitation by levies on the 116651 current tax duplicate will be insufficient to provide an adequate 116652 amount for the necessary requirements of the school district, that 116653 it is necessary to levy a tax in excess of such limitation for one 116654 of the purposes specified in division (A), (D), (F), (H), or (DD) 116655 of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, for general permanent 116656 improvements, for the purpose of operating a cultural center, or 116657 for the purpose of providing education technology, and that the 116658 question of such additional tax levy shall be submitted to the 116659 electors of the school district at a special election on a day to 116660 be specified in the resolution. If the resolution states that the 116661 levy is for the purpose of operating a cultural center, the ballot 116662 shall state that the levy is "for the purpose of operating the 116663

..... (name of cultural center)." 116664

As used in this section, "cultural center" means a 116665 freestanding building, separate from a public school building, 116666 that is open to the public for educational, musical, artistic, and 116667 cultural purposes; "education technology" means, but is not 116668 limited to, computer hardware, equipment, materials, and 116669 accessories, equipment used for two-way audio or video, and 116670 software; and "general permanent improvements" means permanent 116671 improvements without regard to the limitation of division (F) of 116672 section 5705.19 of the Revised Code that the improvements be a 116673 specific improvement or a class of improvements that may be 116674 included in a single bond issue. 116675

The submission of questions to the electors under this 116676 section is subject to the limitation on the number of election 116677 dates established by section 5705.214 of the Revised Code. 116678

(B) Such resolution shall be confined to a single purpose and 116679 shall specify the amount of the increase in rate that it is 116680 necessary to levy, the purpose of the levy, and the number of 116681 years during which the increase in rate shall be in effect. The 116682 number of years may be any number not exceeding five or, if the 116683 levy is for current expenses of the district or for general 116684 permanent improvements, for a continuing period of time. The 116685 resolution shall specify the date of holding such election, which 116686 shall not be earlier than ninety days after the adoption and 116687 certification of the resolution and which shall be consistent with 116688 the requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. 116689

The resolution may propose to renew one or more existing 116690 levies imposed under this section or to increase or decrease a 116691 single levy imposed under this section. If the board of education 116692 imposes one or more existing levies for the purpose specified in 116693 division (F) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, the 116694 resolution may propose to renew one or more of those existing levies, or to increase or decrease a single such existing levy, for the purpose of general permanent improvements. If the resolution proposes to renew two or more existing levies, the levies shall be levied for the same purpose. The resolution shall identify those levies and the rates at which they are levied. The resolution also shall specify that the existing levies shall not be extended on the tax lists after the year preceding the year in which the renewal levy is first imposed, regardless of the years for which those levies originally were authorized to be levied.

The resolution shall go into immediate effect upon its passage, and no publication of the resolution shall be necessary other than that provided for in the notice of election. A copy of the resolution shall immediately after its passing be certified to the board of elections of the proper county in the manner provided by section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, and that section shall govern the arrangements for the submission of such question and other matters concerning such election, to which that section refers, except that such election shall be held on the date specified in the resolution. Publication of notice of that election shall be made in ~~one or more newspapers~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the election, ~~and, if~~ If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, the board of elections shall post notice of the election on its web site for thirty days prior to the election. If a majority of the electors voting on the question so submitted in an election vote in favor of the levy, the board of education may make the necessary levy within the school district at the additional rate, or at any lesser rate in excess of the ten-mill limitation on the tax list, for the purpose stated in the resolution. A levy for a continuing period of time may be reduced pursuant to section 5705.261 of the Revised Code. The tax levy shall be included in the next tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

(C)(1) After the approval of a levy on the current tax list and duplicate for current expenses, for recreational purposes, for community centers provided for in section 755.16 of the Revised Code, or for a public library of the district and prior to the time when the first tax collection from the levy can be made, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected during the first year of the levy.

(2) After the approval of a levy for general permanent improvements for a specified number of years, or for permanent improvements having the purpose specified in division (F) of section 5705.19 of the Revised Code, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy remaining to be collected in each year over a period of five years after the issuance of the notes.

The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year after the year of their issuance over a period not to exceed five years, and may have a principal payment in the year of their issuance.

(3) After approval of a levy for general permanent improvements for a continuing period of time, the board of education may anticipate a fraction of the proceeds of the levy and issue anticipation notes in a principal amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the total estimated proceeds of the levy to be collected in each year over a specified period of years, not exceeding ten, after the issuance of the notes.

The notes shall be issued as provided in section 133.24 of 116760
the Revised Code, shall have principal payments during each year 116761 after the year of their issuance over a period not to exceed ten 116762 years, and may have a principal payment in the year of their 116763
issuance. 116764

Sec. 5705.211. (A) As used in this section: 116765

(1) "Adjusted charge-off increase" for a tax year means two 116766
~~and two-tenths~~ per cent of the cumulative carryover property value 116767 increase. ~~If the cumulative carryover property value increase is~~ 116768 ~~computed on the basis of a school district's recognized valuation~~ 116769
~~for a fiscal year before fiscal year 2014, the adjusted charge-off~~ 116770 ~~increase shall be adjusted to account for the greater charge-off~~ 116771 ~~rates prescribed for such fiscal years under sections 3317.022 and~~ 116772

(2) "Cumulative carryover property value increase" means the 116774 sum of the increases in carryover value certified under division 116775 (B)(2) of section 3317.015 of the Revised Code and included in a 116776 school district's total taxable value in the computation of 116777 recognized valuation under division (B) of that section for all 116778 fiscal years from the fiscal year that ends in the first tax year 116779 a levy under this section is extended on the tax list of real and 116780 public utility property until and including the fiscal year that 116781 ends in the current tax year. 116782

(3) "Taxes charged and payable" means the taxes charged and 116783 payable from a tax levy extended on the real and public utility 116784 property tax list and the general list of personal property before 116785 any reduction under section 319.302, 323.152, or 323.158 of the 116786
Revised Code. 116787

(B) The board of education of a city, local, or exempted 116788 village school district may adopt a resolution proposing the levy 116789 of a tax in excess of the ten-mill limitation for the purpose of 116790 paying the current operating expenses of the district. If the 116791 resolution is approved as provided in division (D) of this 116792 section, the tax may be levied at such a rate each tax year that 116793 the total taxes charged and payable from the levy equals the 116794 adjusted charge-off increase for the tax year or equals a lesser 116795 amount as prescribed under division (C) of this section. The tax 116796 may be levied for a continuing period of time or for a specific 116797 number of years, but not fewer than five years, as provided in the 116798 resolution. The tax may not be placed on the tax list for a tax 116799 year beginning before the first day of January following adoption 116800 of the resolution. A board of education may not adopt a resolution 116801 under this section proposing to levy a tax under this section 116802 concurrently with any other tax levied by the board under this 116803

section. 116804

(C) After the first year a tax is levied under this section, 116805 the rate of the tax in any year shall not exceed the rate, 116806 estimated by the county auditor, that would cause the sums levied 116807 from the tax against carryover property to exceed one hundred four 116808 per cent of the sums levied from the tax against carryover 116809 property in the preceding year. A board of education imposing a 116810 tax under this section may specify in the resolution imposing the 116811 tax that the percentage shall be less than one hundred four per 116812 cent, but the percentage shall not be less than one hundred per 116813 cent. At any time after a resolution adopted under this section is 116814 approved by a majority of electors as provided in division (D) of 116815 this section, the board of education, by resolution, may decrease 116816 the percentage specified in the resolution levying the tax. 116817

(D) A resolution adopted under this section shall state that 116818 the purpose of the tax is to pay current operating expenses of the 116819 district, and shall specify the first year in which the tax is to 116820 be levied, the number of years the tax will be levied or that it 116821 will be levied for a continuing period of time, and the election 116822 at which the question of the tax is to appear on the ballot, which 116823 shall be a general or special election consistent with the 116824 requirements of section 3501.01 of the Revised Code. If the board 116825 of education specifies a percentage less than one hundred four per 116826 cent pursuant to division (C) of this section, the percentage 116827 shall be specified in the resolution. 116828

Upon adoption of the resolution, the board of education may 116829 certify a copy of the resolution to the proper county board of 116830 elections. The copy of the resolution shall be certified to the 116831 board of elections not later than ninety days before the day of 116832 the election at which the question of the tax is to appear on the 116833 ballot. Upon receiving a timely certified copy of such a 116834 resolution, the board of elections shall make the necessary 116835 arrangements for the submission of the question to the electors of 116836 the school district, and the election shall be conducted, 116837 canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections 116838 in the school district for the election of members of the board of 116839 education. Notice of the election shall be published in ~~one or~~ 116840 ~~more newspapers~~ a newspaper of general circulation in the school 116841 district once per week for four consecutive weeks or as provided 116842 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state that 116843 the purpose of the tax is for the current operating expenses of 116844 the school district, the first year the tax is to be levied, the 116845 number of years the tax is to be levied or that it is to be levied 116846 for a continuing period of time, that the tax is to be levied each 116847 year in an amount estimated to offset decreases in state base cost 116848 funding caused by appreciation in real estate values, and that the 116849 estimated additional tax in any year shall not exceed the previous 116850 year's by more than four per cent, or a lesser percentage 116851 specified in the resolution levying the tax, except for increases 116852 caused by the addition of new taxable property. 116853

The question shall be submitted as a separate proposition but 116854 may be printed on the same ballot with any other proposition 116855 submitted at the same election other than the election of 116856 officers. 116857

The form of the ballot shall be substantially as follows: 116858

"An additional tax for the benefit of (name of school 116859 district) for the purpose of paying the current operating expenses 116860 of the district, for (number of years or for continuing 116861 period of time), at a rate sufficient to offset any reduction in 116862 basic state funding caused by appreciation in real estate values? 116863
This levy will permit variable annual growth in revenue up to 116864
..... (amount specified by school district) per cent for the 116865 duration of the levy. 116866

	For the tax levy
	Against the tax levy	"

116867
116868
116869
116870

If a majority of the electors of the school district voting 116871 on the question vote in favor of the question, the board of 116872 elections shall certify the results of the election to the board 116873 of education and to the tax commissioner immediately after the 116874 canvass. 116875

(E) When preparing any estimate of the contemplated receipts 116876 from a tax levied pursuant to this section for the purposes of 116877 sections 5705.28 to 5705.40 of the Revised Code, and in preparing 116878 to certify the tax under section 5705.34 of the Revised Code, a 116879 board of education authorized to levy such a tax shall use 116880 information supplied by the department of education to determine 116881 the adjusted charge-off increase for the tax year for which that 116882 certification is made. If the board levied a tax under this 116883 section in the preceding tax year, the sum to be certified for 116884 collection from the tax shall not exceed the sum that would exceed 116885 the limitation imposed under division (C) of this section. At the 116886 request of the board of education or the treasurer of the school 116887 district, the county auditor shall assist the board of education 116888 in determining the rate or sum that may be levied under this 116889

section. 116890

The board of education shall certify the sum authorized to be 116891 levied to the county auditor, and, for the purpose of the county 116892 auditor determining the rate at which the tax is to be levied in 116893 the tax year, the sum so certified shall be the sum to be raised 116894 by the tax unless the sum exceeds the limitation imposed by 116895 division (C) of this section. A tax levied pursuant to this 116896 section shall not be levied at a rate in excess of the rate 116897 estimated by the county auditor to produce the sum certified by 116898 the board of education before the reductions under sections 116899 319.302, 323.152, and 323.158 of the Revised Code. Notwithstanding 116900 section 5705.34 of the Revised Code, a board of education 116901 authorized to levy a tax under this section shall certify the tax 116902 to the county auditor before the first day of October of the tax 116903 year in which the tax is to be levied, or at a later date as 116904 approved by the tax commissioner. 116905

Sec. 5705.214. Not more than three elections during any 116906 calendar year shall include the questions by a school district of 116907 tax levies proposed under any one or any combination of the 116908 following sections: sections 5705.194, 5705.199, 5705.21, 116909 5705.212, 5705.213, 5705.217, 5705.218, ~~and 5705.219,~~ and 5748.09 116910
of the Revised Code. 116911

Sec. 5705.218. (A) The board of education of a city, local, 116912 or exempted village school district, at any time by a vote of 116913 two-thirds of all its members, may declare by resolution that it 116914 may be necessary for the school district to issue general 116915 obligation bonds for permanent improvements. The resolution shall 116916 state all of the following: 116917

(1) The necessity and purpose of the bond issue; 116918

(2) The date of the special election at which the question 116919 shall be submitted to the electors; 116920

(3) The amount, approximate date, estimated rate of interest, 116921 and maximum number of years over which the principal of the bonds 116922 may be paid; 116923

(4) The necessity of levying a tax outside the ten-mill 116924 limitation to pay debt charges on the bonds and any anticipatory 116925 securities. 116926

On adoption of the resolution, the board shall certify a copy 116927 of it to the county auditor. The county auditor promptly shall 116928 estimate and certify to the board the average annual property tax 116929

(D) The question covered by a resolution adopted under 117349 section 5705.212 or 5705.213 of the Revised Code shall be 117350 submitted as a separate question, but may be printed on the same 117351 ballot with any other question submitted at the same election, 117352 other than the election of officers. More than one question may be submitted at the same election.

(E) Taxes voted in excess of the ten-mill limitation under division (B) or (C) of this section shall be certified to the tax commissioner. If an additional tax is to be placed upon the tax list of the current year, as specified in the resolution providing for its submission, the result of the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of education. The board of education immediately shall make the necessary levy and certify it to the county auditor, who shall extend it on the tax list for collection. After the first year, the levy shall be included in the annual tax budget that is certified to the county budget commission.

Sec. 5705.261. The question of decrease of an increased rate of levy approved for a continuing period of time by the voters of a subdivision may be initiated by the filing of a petition with the board of elections of the proper county not less than ninety days before the general election in any year requesting that an election be held on such question. Such petition shall state the amount of the proposed decrease in the rate of levy and shall be signed by qualified electors residing in the subdivision equal in number to at least ten per cent of the total number of votes cast in the subdivision for the office of governor at the most recent general election for that office. Only one such petition may be filed during each five-year period following the election at which the voters approved the increased rate for a continuing period of time.

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of the district at the succeeding general election. The election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular elections in such subdivision for county offices. Notice 117384 of the election shall be published in a newspaper of general 117385 circulation in the district once a week for two consecutive weeks, 117386

or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the 117387
election, ~~and, if.~~ If the board of elections operates and 117388
maintains a web site, the board of elections shall post notice of 117389
the election on its web site for thirty days prior to the 117390 election. The notice shall state the purpose, the amount of the 117391 proposed decrease in rate, and the time and place of the election. 117392
The form of the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed 117393 by the secretary of state. The question covered by such petition 117394 shall be submitted as a separate proposition but it may be printed 117395 on the same ballot with any other propositions submitted at the 117396 same election other than the election of officers. If a majority 117397 of the qualified electors voting on the question of a decrease at 117398 such election approve the proposed decrease in rate, the result of 117399 the election shall be certified immediately after the canvass by 117400 the board of elections to the subdivision's taxing authority, 117401 which shall thereupon, after the current year, cease to levy such 117402 increased rate or levy such tax at such reduced rate upon the 117403 duplicate of the subdivision. If notes have been issued in 117404 anticipation of the collection of such levy, the taxing authority 117405 shall continue to levy and collect under authority of the election 117406 authorizing the original levy such amounts as will be sufficient 117407 to pay the principal of and interest on such anticipation notes as 117408 the same fall due. 117409

Sec. 5705.29. This section does not apply to a subdivision or 117410 taxing unit for which the county budget commission has waived the 117411 requirement to adopt a tax budget pursuant to section 5705.281 of 117412 the Revised Code. The tax budget shall present the following 117413 information in such detail as is prescribed by the auditor of 117414
state: 117415

(A)(1) A statement of the necessary current operating 117416 expenses for the ensuing fiscal year for each department and 117417 division of the subdivision, classified as to personal services 117418 and other expenses, and the fund from which such expenditures are 117419 to be made. Except in the case of a school district, this estimate 117420 may include a contingent expense not designated for any particular 117421 purpose, and not to exceed three per cent of the total amount of 117422 appropriations for current expenses. In the case of a school 117423 district, this estimate may include a contingent expense not 117424 per cent of the total amount of appropriations for current 117426 expenses. 117427

(2) A statement of the expenditures for the ensuing fiscal 117428 year necessary for permanent improvements, exclusive of any 117429 which such expenditures are to be made; 117432 columns of corresponding items of expenditures for the current 117438 fiscal year and the two preceding fiscal years. 117439

(B)(1) An estimate of receipts from other sources than the 117440 general property tax during the ensuing fiscal year, which shall 117441 include an estimate of unencumbered balances at the end of the 117442 current fiscal year, and the funds to which such estimated 117443 receipts are credited; 117444

(2) The amount each fund requires from the general property 117445 tax, which shall be the difference between the contemplated 117446 expenditure from the fund and the estimated receipts, as provided 117447 in this section. The section of the Revised Code under which the 117448 tax is authorized shall be set forth. 117449

(3) Comparative statements, so far as possible, in parallel 117450 columns of taxes and other revenues for the current fiscal year 117451 and the two preceding fiscal years. 117452 succeeding fiscal year; 117457

(3) The net amount for which a tax levy shall be made, 117458 classified as to bonds authorized and issued prior to January 1, 117459 1922, and those authorized and issued subsequent to such date, and 117460 as to what portion of the levy will be within and what in excess 117461 of the ten-mill limitation. 117462

(D) An estimate of amounts from taxes authorized to be levied 117463 in excess of the ten-mill limitation on the tax rate, and the fund 117464 to which such amounts will be credited, together with the sections 117465 of the Revised Code under which each such tax is exempted from all 117466 limitations on the tax rate. 117467

(E)(1) A board of education may include in its budget for the 117468 fiscal year in which a levy proposed under section 5705.194, 117469 5705.199, 5705.21, 5705.213, or 5705.219, a property tax levy 117470 proposed under section 5748.09, or the original levy under section 117471 5705.212 of the Revised Code is first extended on the tax list and 117472 duplicate an estimate of expenditures to be known as a voluntary 117473 contingency reserve balance, which shall not be greater than 117474 twenty-five per cent of the total amount of the levy estimated to 117475 be available for appropriation in such year. 117476

(2) A board of education may include in its budget for the 117477 fiscal year following the year in which a levy proposed under 117478 section 5705.194, 5705.199, 5705.21, 5705.213, or 5705.219, a 117479 property tax levy proposed under section 5748.09, or the original 117480 levy under section 5705.212 of the Revised Code is first extended 117481 on the tax list and duplicate an estimate of expenditures to be 117482 known as a voluntary contingency reserve balance, which shall not 117483 be greater than twenty per cent of the amount of the levy 117484 estimated to be available for appropriation in such year. 117485

(3) Except as provided in division (E)(4) of this section, 117486 the full amount of any reserve balance the board includes in its 117487 budget shall be retained by the county auditor and county 117488 treasurer out of the first semiannual settlement of taxes until 117489 the beginning of the next succeeding fiscal year, and thereupon, 117490 with the depository interest apportioned thereto, it shall be 117491 turned over to the board of education, to be used for the purposes 117492 of such fiscal year. 117493

(4) A board of education, by a two-thirds vote of all members 117494 of the board, may appropriate any amount withheld as a voluntary 117495 contingency reserve balance during the fiscal year for any lawful 117496 purpose, provided that prior to such appropriation the board of 117497 education has authorized the expenditure of all amounts 117498 appropriated for contingencies under section 5705.40 of the 117499 Revised Code. Upon request by the board of education, the county 117500 auditor shall draw a warrant on the district's account in the 117501 county treasury payable to the district in the amount requested. 117502

(F)(1) A board of education may include a spending reserve in 117503 its budget for fiscal years ending on or before June 30, 2002. The 117504 spending reserve shall consist of an estimate of expenditures not 117505 to exceed the district's spending reserve balance. A district's 117506 spending reserve balance is the amount by which the designated 117507 percentage of the district's estimated personal property taxes to 117508 be settled during the calendar year in which the fiscal year ends 117509 exceeds the estimated amount of personal property taxes to be so 117510 settled and received by the district during that fiscal year. 117511 Moneys from a spending reserve shall be appropriated in accordance 117512 with section 133.301 of the Revised Code. 117513

(2) For the purposes of computing a school district's 117514 spending reserve balance for a fiscal year, the designated 117515 percentage shall be as follows: 117516

Fiscal year ending in:	Designated percentage
1998	50%	117517

2001	20%	117520
2002	10%	117521

(G) Except as otherwise provided in this division, the county 117523 budget commission shall not reduce the taxing authority of a 117524 subdivision as a result of the creation of a reserve balance 117525 account. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the county 117526 budget commission shall not consider the amount in a reserve 117527 balance account of a township, county, or municipal corporation as 117528 an unencumbered balance or as revenue for the purposes of division 117529 (E)(3) or (4) of section 5747.51 of the Revised Code. The county 117530 budget commission may require documentation of the reasonableness 117531 of the reserve balance held in any reserve balance account. The 117532 commission shall consider any amount in a reserve balance account 117533 that it determines to be unreasonable as unencumbered and as 117534 revenue for the purposes of section 5747.51 of the Revised Code 117535 and may take such amounts into consideration when determining 117536 whether to reduce the taxing authority of a subdivision. 117537

Sec. 5705.314. If the board of education of a city, local, or 117538 exempted village school district proposes to change its levy 117539 within the ten-mill limitation in a manner that will result in an 117540 increase in the amount of real property taxes levied by the board 117541 in the tax year the change takes effect, the board shall hold a 117542 public hearing solely on the proposal before adopting a resolution 117543 to implement the proposal. The board shall publish notice of the 117544 hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the school 117545 district once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in 117546 section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second publication shall be 117547 not less than ten nor more than thirty days before the date of the 117548 hearing. ~~The, and the~~ notice shall include the date, time, place, 117549 and subject of the hearing, and a statement that the change 117550 proposed by the board may result in an increase in the amount of 117551 real property taxes levied by the board. At the time the board 117552 submits the notice for publication, the board shall send a copy of 117553 the notice to the auditor of the county where the school district 117554 is located or, if the school district is located in more than one 117555 county, to the auditor of each of those counties. 117556

Sec. 5705.392. (A) A board of county commissioners may adopt 117557 as a part of its annual appropriation measure a spending plan, or 117558 in the case of an amended appropriation measure, an amended 117559 spending plan, setting forth a quarterly schedule of expenses and 117560 expenditures of all appropriations for the fiscal year from the 117561 county general fund. The spending plan shall be classified to set 117562 forth separately a quarterly schedule of expenses and expenditures 117563 for each office, department, and division, and within each, the 117564 amount appropriated for personal services. Each office, 117565 department, and division shall be limited in its expenses and 117566 expenditures of moneys appropriated from the general fund during 117567 any quarter by the schedule established in the spending plan. The 117568 schedule established in the spending plan shall serve as a 117569 limitation during a quarter on the making of contracts and giving 117570 of orders involving the expenditure of money during that quarter 117571 for purposes of division (D) of section 5705.41 of the Revised 117572

Code. 117573

(B)(1) A board of county commissioners, by resolution, may 117574 adopt a spending plan or an amended spending plan setting forth 117575 separately a quarterly schedule of expenses and expenditures of 117576 appropriations from any county fund, for the second half of a 117577 fiscal year and any subsequent fiscal year, for any county office, 117578 department, or division that has spent or encumbered more than 117579 six-tenths of the amount appropriated for personal services and 117580 payrolls during the first half of any fiscal year. 117581

(2) During any fiscal year, a board of county commissioners, 117582 by resolution, may adopt a spending plan or an amended spending 117583 plan setting forth separately a quarterly schedule of expenses and 117584 expenditures of appropriations from any county fund, for any 117585 county office, department, or division that, during the previous 117586 fiscal year, spent one hundred five per cent or more of the total 117587 amount appropriated by the board in its annual appropriation 117588 measure required by section 5705.38 of the Revised Code. The 117589 spending plan or amended spending plan shall remain in effect 117590 three fiscal years, or until the county officer of the office for 117591 which the plan was adopted is no longer in office, including terms 117592 of office to which the county officer is re-elected, whichever is 117593 later. 117594

(3) At least thirty days before adopting a resolution under 117595 division (B)(1) or (2) of this section, the board of county 117596 commissioners shall provide written notice to each county office, 117597 department, or division for which it intends to adopt a spending 117598 plan or an amended spending plan. The notice shall be sent by 117599 regular first class mail or provided by personal service, and 117600 shall include a copy of the proposed spending plan or proposed 117601 amended spending plan. The county office, department, or division 117602 may meet with the board at any regular session of the board to 117603 comment on the notice, or to express concerns or ask questions 117604 about the proposed spending plan or proposed amended spending plan. 117605 117606

Sec. 5705.412. (A) As used in this section, "qualifying contract" means any agreement for the expenditure of money under which aggregate payments from the funds included in the school district's five-year forecast under section 5705.391 of the Revised Code will exceed the lesser of the following amounts: 117607
117608
117610
117611

(1) Five hundred thousand dollars; 117612

(2) One per cent of the total revenue to be credited in the current fiscal year to the district's general fund, as specified in the district's most recent certificate of estimated resources certified under section 5705.36 of the Revised Code. 117613
117614
117616

(B)(1) Notwithstanding section 5705.41 of the Revised Code, no school district shall adopt any appropriation measure, make any qualifying contract, or increase during any school year any wage or salary schedule unless there is attached thereto a certificate, signed as required by this section, that the school district has in effect the authorization to levy taxes including the renewal or replacement of existing levies which, when combined with the estimated revenue from all other sources available to the district at the time of certification, are sufficient to provide the operating revenues necessary to enable the district to maintain all personnel and programs for all the days set forth in its adopted school calendars for the current fiscal year and for a number of days in succeeding fiscal years equal to the number of days instruction was held or is scheduled for the current fiscal year, as follows: 117617
117618
117620
117621
117622
117623
117624
117625
117626
117627
117628
117629
117630
117631

~~(1)~~(a) A certificate attached to an appropriation measure under this section shall cover only the fiscal year in which the appropriation measure is effective and shall not consider the renewal or replacement of an existing levy as the authority to 117632
117633
117635

levy taxes that are subject to appropriation in the current fiscal 117636 year unless the renewal or replacement levy has been approved by 117637 the electors and is subject to appropriation in the current fiscal 117638
year. 117639

~~(2)~~(b) A certificate attached, in accordance with this 117640 section, to any qualifying contract shall cover the term of the 117641 contract. 117642

~~(3)~~(c) A certificate attached under this section to a wage or 117643 salary schedule shall cover the term of the schedule. 117644

If the board of education has not adopted a school calendar 117645 for the school year beginning on the first day of the fiscal year 117646 in which a certificate is required, the certificate attached to an 117647 appropriation measure shall include the number of days on which 117648 instruction was held in the preceding fiscal year and other 117649 certificates required under this section shall include that number 117650 of days for the fiscal year in which the certificate is required 117651 and any succeeding fiscal years that the certificate must cover. 117652

The certificate shall be signed by the treasurer and 117653
president of the board of education and the superintendent of the 117654 school district, unless the district is in a state of fiscal 117655 emergency declared under Chapter 3316. of the Revised Code. In 117656 that case, the certificate shall be signed by a member of the 117657 district's financial planning and supervision commission who is 117658 designated by the commission for this purpose. 117659

(2) In lieu of the certificate required under division (B) of 117660 this section, an alternative certificate stating the following may 117661 be attached: 117662

(a) The contract is a multi-year contract for materials, 117663 equipment, or nonpayroll services essential to the education 117664 program of the district; 117665

(b) The multi-year contract demonstrates savings over the 117666 duration of the contract as compared to costs that otherwise would 117667 have been demonstrated in a single year contract, and the terms 117668 will allow the district to reduce the deficit it is currently 117669 facing in future years as demonstrated in its five-year forecast 117670 adopted in accordance with section 5705.391 of the Revised Code. 117671

president of the board of education and the superintendent of the 117673 school district, unless the district is in a state of fiscal 117674 emergency declared under Chapter 3316. of the Revised Code. In 117675
that case, the certificate shall be signed by a member of the 117676 district's financial planning and supervision commission who is 117677
designated by the commission for this purpose. 117678

(C) Every qualifying contract made or wage or salary schedule 117679 adopted or put into effect without such a certificate shall be 117680 void, and no payment of any amount due thereon shall be made. 117681

(D) The department of education and the auditor of state 117682 jointly shall adopt rules governing the methods by which 117683 treasurers, presidents of boards of education, superintendents, 117684 and members of financial planning and supervision commissions 117685 shall estimate revenue and determine whether such revenue is 117686 sufficient to provide necessary operating revenue for the purpose 117687 of making certifications required by this section. 117688

(E) The auditor of state shall be responsible for determining 117689 whether school districts are in compliance with this section. At 117690 the time a school district is audited pursuant to section 117.11 117691 of the Revised Code, the auditor of state shall review each 117692 certificate issued under this section since the district's last 117693 audit, and the appropriation measure, contract, or wage and salary 117694 schedule to which such certificate was attached. If the auditor of 117695 state determines that a school district has not complied with this 117696 section with respect to any qualifying contract or wage or salary 117697 schedule, the auditor of state shall notify the prosecuting 117698 attorney for the county, the city director of law, or other chief 117699 law officer of the school district. That officer may file a civil 117700 action in any court of appropriate jurisdiction to seek a 117701 declaration that the contract or wage or salary schedule is void, 117702 to recover for the school district from the payee the amount of 117703 payments already made under it, or both, except that the officer 117704 shall not seek to recover payments made under any collective 117705 bargaining agreement entered into under Chapter 4117. of the 117706 Revised Code. If the officer does not file such an action within 117707 one hundred twenty days after receiving notice of noncompliance 117708 from the auditor of state, any taxpayer may institute the action 117709 in the taxpayer's own name on behalf of the school district. 117710

(F) This section does not apply to any contract or increase 117711 in any wage or salary schedule that is necessary in order to 117712 enable a board of education to comply with division (B) of section 117713 3317.13 of the Revised Code, provided the contract or increase 117714 does not exceed the amount required to be paid to be in compliance 117715 with such division. 117716

(G) Any officer, employee, or other person who expends or 117717 authorizes the expenditure of any public funds or authorizes or 117718 executes any contract or schedule contrary to this section, 117719 expends or authorizes the expenditure of any public funds on the 117720 void contract or schedule, or issues a certificate under this 117721 section which contains any false statements is liable to the 117722 school district for the full amount paid from the district's funds 117723 on the contract or schedule. The officer, employee, or other 117724 person is jointly and severally liable in person and upon any 117725 official bond that the officer, employee, or other person has 117726 given to the school district to the extent of any payments on the 117727 void claim, not to exceed ten thousand dollars. However, no 117728 officer, employee, or other person shall be liable for a mistaken 117729 estimate of available resources made in good faith and based upon 117730

authority. 118117

If a board of education has adopted a resolution waiving its 118118 right to approve agreements and the resolution remains in effect, 118119 by the board in its resolution. If a board of education adopts a 118127 resolution waiving its right to approve agreements or shortening 118128 the notification period, the board shall certify a copy of the 118129 resolution to the legislative authority. If the board of education 118130 rescinds such a resolution, it shall certify notice of the 118131 rescission to the legislative authority. 118132

(4) The legislative authority shall comply with section 118133 5709.83 of the Revised Code unless the board of education has 118134 adopted a resolution under that section waiving its right to 118135 receive such notice. 118136

(E) This division applies to zones certified by the director 118137 of development under this section prior to July 22, 1994. 118138

On or before October 15, ~~2011~~ 2012, the legislative authority 118139 that designated a zone to which this division applies may enter 118140 into an agreement with an enterprise if the legislative authority 118141 finds that the enterprise satisfies one of the criteria described 118142 in divisions (E)(1) to (5) of this section: 118143

(1) The enterprise currently has no operations in this state 118144
and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish 118145 operations in the zone; 118146

(2) The enterprise currently has operations in this state 118147
and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish 118148
operations at a new location in the zone that would not result in 118149
a reduction in the number of employee positions at any of the 118150 enterprise's other locations in this state; 118151

(3) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, 118152 intends to relocate operations, currently located in another 118153
state, to the zone; 118154

(4) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, 118155
intends to expand operations at an existing site in the zone that 118156
the enterprise currently operates; 118157

(5) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, 118158 intends to relocate operations, currently located in this state, 118159 to the zone, and the director of development has issued a waiver 118160 for the enterprise under division (B) of section 5709.633 of the 118161
Revised Code. 118162

The agreement shall require the enterprise to agree to 118163 establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and 118164
hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for 118165 existing employees, in return for one or more of the incentives 118166 described in division (C) of this section. 118167

(F) All agreements entered into under this section shall be 118168 in the form prescribed under section 5709.631 of the Revised Code. 118169
After an agreement is entered into under this section, if the 118170 legislative authority revokes its designation of a zone, or if the 118171 director of development revokes a zone's certification, any 118172 entitlements granted under the agreement shall continue for the 118173 number of years specified in the agreement. 118174

(G) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an 118175 agreement entered into under this section shall require that the 118176 enterprise pay an annual fee equal to the greater of one per cent 118177
of the dollar value of incentives offered under the agreement or 118178 five hundred dollars; provided, however, that if the value of the 118179 incentives exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the fee 118180 shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. The fee shall 118181 be payable to the legislative authority once per year for each 118182 year the agreement is effective on the days and in the form 118183 specified in the agreement. Fees paid shall be deposited in a 118184 special fund created for such purpose by the legislative authority 118185 and shall be used by the legislative authority exclusively for the 118186 purpose of complying with section 5709.68 of the Revised Code and 118187 by the tax incentive review council created under section 5709.85 118188 of the Revised Code exclusively for the purposes of performing the 118189 duties prescribed under that section. The legislative authority 118190 may waive or reduce the amount of the fee charged against an 118191 enterprise, but such a waiver or reduction does not affect the 118192 obligations of the legislative authority or the tax incentive 118193 review council to comply with section 5709.68 or 5709.85 of the 118194
Revised Code. 118195

(H) When an agreement is entered into pursuant to this 118196 section, the legislative authority authorizing the agreement shall 118197 forward a copy of the agreement to the director of development and 118198 to the tax commissioner within fifteen days after the agreement is 118199 entered into. If any agreement includes terms not provided for in 118200 section 5709.631 of the Revised Code affecting the revenue of a 118201 city, local, or exempted village school district or causing 118202 revenue to be forgone by the district, including any compensation 118203 to be paid to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of 118204

the Revised Code, those terms also shall be forwarded in writing 118205 to the director of development along with the copy of the 118206 agreement forwarded under this division. 118207

(I) After an agreement is entered into, the enterprise shall 118208 file with each personal property tax return required to be filed, 118209 or annual report required to be filed under section 5727.08 of the 118210 Revised Code, while the agreement is in effect, an informational 118211 return, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner for that 118212 purpose, setting forth separately the property, and related costs 118213 and values, exempted from taxation under the agreement. 118214

(J) Enterprises may agree to give preference to residents of 118215
the zone within which the agreement applies relative to residents 118216
of this state who do not reside in the zone when hiring new 118217 employees under the agreement. 118218

(K) An agreement entered into under this section may include 118219
a provision requiring the enterprise to create one or more 118220 temporary internship positions for students enrolled in a course 118221
of study at a school or other educational institution in the 118222 vicinity, and to create a scholarship or provide another form of 118223 educational financial assistance for students holding such a 118224 position in exchange for the student's commitment to work for the 118225 enterprise at the completion of the internship. 118226

(L) The tax commissioner's authority in determining the 118227 accuracy of any exemption granted by an agreement entered into 118228 under this section is limited to divisions (C)(1)(a) and (b), 118229

(C)(2)(a), (b), and (c), (C)(3), (D), and (I) of this section and 118230 divisions (B)(1) to (10) of section 5709.631 of the Revised Code 118231 and, as authorized by law, to enforcing any modification to, or 118232 revocation of, that agreement by the legislative authority of a 118233 municipal corporation or the director of development. 118234

Sec. 5709.63. (A) With the consent of the legislative 118235 authority of each affected municipal corporation or of a board of 118236 township trustees, a board of county commissioners may, in the 118237 manner set forth in section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, designate 118238 one or more areas in one or more municipal corporations or in 118239 unincorporated areas of the county as proposed enterprise zones. A 118240 board of county commissioners may designate no more than one area 118241 within a township, or within adjacent townships, as a proposed 118242 enterprise zone. The board shall petition the director of 118243 development for certification of the area as having the 118244 characteristics set forth in division (A)(1) or (2) of section 118245 5709.61 of the Revised Code as amended by Substitute Senate Bill 118246
No. 19 of the 120th general assembly. Except as otherwise provided 118247 in division (D) of this section, on and after July 1, 1994, boards 118248 of county commissioners shall not enter into agreements under this 118249 section unless the board has petitioned the director and the 118250 director has certified the zone under this section as amended by 118251 that act; however, all agreements entered into under this section 118252 as it existed prior to July 1, 1994, and the incentives granted 118253 under those agreements shall remain in effect for the period 118254 agreed to under those agreements. The director shall make the 118255 determination in the manner provided under section 5709.62 of the 118256
Revised Code. 118257

Any enterprise wishing to enter into an agreement with the 118258 board under division (B) or (D) of this section shall submit a 118259 proposal to the board on the form and accompanied by the 118260 application fee prescribed under division (B) of section 5709.62 118261 of the Revised Code. The enterprise shall review and update the 118262 estimates and listings required by the form in the manner required 118263 under that division. The board may, on a separate form and at any 118264 time, require any additional information necessary to determine 118265 whether an enterprise is in compliance with an agreement and to 118266 collect the information required to be reported under section 118267

5709.68 of the Revised Code. 118268

(B) If the board of county commissioners finds that an 118269 enterprise submitting a proposal is qualified by financial 118270 responsibility and business experience to create and preserve 118271 employment opportunities in the zone and to improve the economic 118272 climate of the municipal corporation or municipal corporations or 118273 the unincorporated areas in which the zone is located and to which 118274 the proposal applies, the board, on or before October 15, ~~2011~~ 118275 2012, and with the consent of the legislative authority of each 118276 affected municipal corporation or of the board of township 118277 trustees may do either of the following: 118278

(1) Enter into an agreement with the enterprise under which 118279 the enterprise agrees to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a 118280 facility in the zone and hire new employees, or preserve 118281 employment opportunities for existing employees, in return for the 118282 following incentives: 118283

(a) When the facility is located in a municipal corporation, 118284
the board may enter into an agreement for one or more of the 118285 incentives provided in division (C) of section 5709.62 of the 118286 Revised Code, subject to division (D) of that section; 118287

(b) When the facility is located in an unincorporated area, 118288
the board may enter into an agreement for one or more of the 118289
following incentives: 118290

(i) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed 118291 fifteen, of a specified portion, up to sixty per cent, of the 118292 assessed value of tangible personal property first used in 118293 business at a project site as a result of the agreement. If an 118294 exemption for inventory is specifically granted in the agreement 118295 pursuant to this division, the exemption applies to inventory 118296 required to be listed pursuant to sections 5711.15 and 5711.16 of 118297 the Revised Code, except, in the instance of an expansion or other 118298 situations in which an enterprise was in business at the facility 118299 prior to the establishment of the zone, the inventory that is 118300 exempt is that amount or value of inventory in excess of the 118301 amount or value of inventory required to be listed in the personal 118302 property tax return of the enterprise in the return for the tax 118303 year in which the agreement is entered into. 118304

(ii) Exemption for a specified number of years, not to exceed 118305
fifteen, of a specified portion, up to sixty per cent, of the 118306 increase in the assessed valuation of real property constituting 118307 the project site subsequent to formal approval of the agreement by 118308 the board; 118309

(iii) Provision for a specified number of years, not to 118310 exceed fifteen, of any optional services or assistance the board 118311 is authorized to provide with regard to the project site; 118312

(iv) The incentive described in division (C)(2) of section 118313
5709.62 of the Revised Code. 118314

(2) Enter into an agreement with an enterprise that plans to 118315 purchase and operate a large manufacturing facility that has 118316 ceased operation or has announced its intention to cease 118317 operation, in return for exemption for a specified number of 118318 years, not to exceed fifteen, of a specified portion, up to one 118319 hundred per cent, of tangible personal property used in business 118320 at the project site as a result of the agreement, or of real 118321 property constituting the project site, or both. 118322

(C)(1)(a) Notwithstanding divisions (B)(1)(b)(i) and (ii) of 118323 this section, the portion of the assessed value of tangible 118324 personal property or of the increase in the assessed valuation of 118325 real property exempted from taxation under those divisions may 118326 exceed sixty per cent in any year for which that portion is 118327 exempted if the average percentage exempted for all years in which 118328 the agreement is in effect does not exceed fifty per cent, or if 118329 the board of education of the city, local, or exempted village 118330 school district within the territory of which the property is or 118331 will be located approves a percentage in excess of sixty per cent. 118332

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the 118333 contrary, the exemptions described in divisions (B)(1)(b)(i), 118334 (ii), (iii), and (iv) and (B)(2) of this section may be for up to 118335 fifteen years if the board of education of the city, local, or 118336 exempted village school district within the territory of which the 118337 property is or will be located approves a number of years in 118338 excess of ten. 118339

(c) For the purpose of obtaining the approval of a city, 118340 local, or exempted village school district under division 118341 (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, the board of county 118342 commissioners shall deliver to the board of education a notice not 118343 later than forty-five days prior to approving the agreement, 118344 excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays as defined in 118345 section 1.14 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state the 118346 percentage to be exempted, an estimate of the true value of the 118347 property to be exempted, and the number of years the property is 118348 to be exempted. The board of education, by resolution adopted by a 118349 majority of the board, shall approve or disapprove the agreement 118350 and certify a copy of the resolution to the board of county 118351 commissioners not later than fourteen days prior to the date 118352 stipulated by the board of county commissioners as the date upon 118353 which approval of the agreement is to be formally considered by 118354 the board of county commissioners. The board of education may 118355 include in the resolution conditions under which the board would 118356 approve the agreement, including the execution of an agreement to 118357 compensate the school district under division (B) of section 118358 5709.82 of the Revised Code. The board of county commissioners may 118359 approve the agreement at any time after the board of education 118360 certifies its resolution approving the agreement to the board of 118361 county commissioners, or, if the board of education approves the 118362 agreement conditionally, at any time after the conditions are 118363 agreed to by the board of education and the board of county 118364 commissioners. 118365

If a board of education has adopted a resolution waiving its 118366
right to approve agreements and the resolution remains in effect, 118367 approval of an agreement by the board of education is not required 118368 under division (C) of this section. If a board of education has 118369 adopted a resolution allowing a board of county commissioners to 118370 deliver the notice required under this division fewer than 118371 forty-five business days prior to approval of the agreement by the 118372 board of county commissioners, the board of county commissioners 118373 shall deliver the notice to the board of education not later than 118374 the number of days prior to such approval as prescribed by the 118375 board of education in its resolution. If a board of education 118376 adopts a resolution waiving its right to approve agreements or 118377 shortening the notification period, the board of education shall 118378 certify a copy of the resolution to the board of county 118379 commissioners. If the board of education rescinds such a 118380 resolution, it shall certify notice of the rescission to the board 118381 of county commissioners. 118382

(2) The board of county commissioners shall comply with 118383 section 5709.83 of the Revised Code unless the board of education 118384 has adopted a resolution under that section waiving its right to 118385
receive such notice. 118386

(D) This division applies to zones certified by the director 118387

of development under this section prior to July 22, 1994. 118388

On or before October 15, ~~2011~~ 2012, and with the consent of 118389 the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation 118390 or board of township trustees of each affected township, the board 118391 of county commissioners that designated a zone to which this 118392 division applies may enter into an agreement with an enterprise if 118393 the board finds that the enterprise satisfies one of the criteria 118394 described in divisions (D)(1) to (5) of this section: 118395

(1) The enterprise currently has no operations in this state 118396
and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish 118397
operations in the zone; 118398

(2) The enterprise currently has operations in this state 118399
and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish 118400
operations at a new location in the zone that would not result in 118401
a reduction in the number of employee positions at any of the 118402
enterprise's other locations in this state; 118403

(3) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, 118404
state, to the zone; 118406

(4) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, 118407
intends to expand operations at an existing site in the zone that 118408
the enterprise currently operates; 118409

(5) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, 118410
intends to relocate operations, currently located in this state, 118411
to the zone, and the director of development has issued a waiver 118412
for the enterprise under division (B) of section 5709.633 of the 118413
Revised Code. 118414

The agreement shall require the enterprise to agree to 118415
establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and 118416
hire new employees, or preserve employment opportunities for 118417
existing employees, in return for one or more of the incentives 118418

described in division (B) of this section. 118419

(E) All agreements entered into under this section shall be 118420
in the form prescribed under section 5709.631 of the Revised Code. 118421
After an agreement under this section is entered into, if the 118422 board of county commissioners revokes its designation of a zone, 118423 or if the director of development revokes a zone's certification, 118424 any entitlements granted under the agreement shall continue for 118425 the number of years specified in the agreement. 118426

(F) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an 118427 agreement entered into under this section shall require that the 118428 enterprise pay an annual fee equal to the greater of one per cent 118429
of the dollar value of incentives offered under the agreement or 118430
five hundred dollars; provided, however, that if the value of the 118431
incentives exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the fee 118432
shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. The fee shall 118433 be payable to the board of county commissioners once per year for 118434 each year the agreement is effective on the days and in the form 118435 specified in the agreement. Fees paid shall be deposited in a 118436 special fund created for such purpose by the board and shall be 118437 used by the board exclusively for the purpose of complying with 118438 section 5709.68 of the Revised Code and by the tax incentive 118439 review council created under section 5709.85 of the Revised Code 118440 exclusively for the purposes of performing the duties prescribed 118441 under that section. The board may waive or reduce the amount of 118442 the fee charged against an enterprise, but such waiver or 118443 reduction does not affect the obligations of the board or the tax 118444 incentive review council to comply with section 5709.68 or 5709.85 118445
of the Revised Code, respectively. 118446

(G) With the approval of the legislative authority of a 118447 municipal corporation or the board of township trustees of a 118448 township in which a zone is designated under division (A) of this 118449 section, the board of county commissioners may delegate to that 118450 legislative authority or board any powers and duties of the board 118451 of county commissioners to negotiate and administer agreements 118452 with regard to that zone under this section. 118453

(H) When an agreement is entered into pursuant to this 118454 section, the board of county commissioners authorizing the 118455 agreement or the legislative authority or board of township 118456 trustees that negotiates and administers the agreement shall 118457 forward a copy of the agreement to the director of development and 118458
to the tax commissioner within fifteen days after the agreement is 118459 entered into. If any agreement includes terms not provided for in 118460
section 5709.631 of the Revised Code affecting the revenue of a 118461
revenue to be foregone by the district, including any compensation 118463
to be paid to the school district pursuant to section 5709.82 of 118464
the Revised Code, those terms also shall be forwarded in writing 118465
to the director of development along with the copy of the 118466
agreement forwarded under this division. 118467

(I) After an agreement is entered into, the enterprise shall 118468
file with each personal property tax return required to be filed, 118469 or annual report that is required to be filed under section 118470 5727.08 of the Revised Code, while the agreement is in effect, an 118471 informational return, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner 118472 for that purpose, setting forth separately the property, and 118473 related costs and values, exempted from taxation under the 118474 agreement. 118475

(J) Enterprises may agree to give preference to residents of 118476
the zone within which the agreement applies relative to residents 118477
employees under the agreement. 118479

(K) An agreement entered into under this section may include 118480
a provision requiring the enterprise to create one or more 118481
temporary internship positions for students enrolled in a course 118482

vicinity, and to create a scholarship or provide another form of 118484
educational financial assistance for students holding such a 118485
position in exchange for the student's commitment to work for the 118486
enterprise at the completion of the internship. 118487

(L) The tax commissioner's authority in determining the 118488 accuracy of any exemption granted by an agreement entered into 118489 under this section is limited to divisions (B)(1)(b)(i) and (ii), 118490 (B)(2), (C), and (I) of this section, division (B)(1)(b)(iv) of 118491 this section as it pertains to divisions (C)(2)(a), (b), and (c) 118492 of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, and divisions (B)(1) to 118493 (10) of section 5709.631 of the Revised Code and, as authorized by 118494 law, to enforcing any modification to, or revocation of, that 118495 agreement by the board of county commissioners or the director of 118496 development or, if the board's powers and duties are delegated 118497 under division (G) of this section, by the legislative authority 118498 of a municipal corporation or board of township trustees. 118499

Sec. 5709.632. (A)(1) The legislative authority of a 118500 municipal corporation defined by the United States office of 118501 management and budget as a principal city of a metropolitan 118502 statistical area may, in the manner set forth in section 5709.62 118503 of the Revised Code, designate one or more areas in the municipal 118504 corporation as a proposed enterprise zone. 118505

(2) With the consent of the legislative authority of each 118506 affected municipal corporation or of a board of township trustees, 118507 a board of county commissioners may, in the manner set forth in 118508 section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, designate one or more areas 118509 in one or more municipal corporations or in unincorporated areas 118510 of the county as proposed urban jobs and enterprise zones, except 118511 that a board of county commissioners may designate no more than 118512 one area within a township, or within adjacent townships, as a 118513 proposed urban jobs and enterprise zone. 118514

(3) The legislative authority or board of county 118515 commissioners may petition the director of development for 118516 certification of the area as having the characteristics set forth 118517 in division (A)(3) of section 5709.61 of the Revised Code. Within 118518 sixty days after receiving such a petition, the director shall 118519 determine whether the area has the characteristics set forth in 118520 that division and forward the findings to the legislative 118521 authority or board of county commissioners. If the director 118522 certifies the area as having those characteristics and thereby 118523 certifies it as a zone, the legislative authority or board may 118524 enter into agreements with enterprises under division (B) of this 118525 section. Any enterprise wishing to enter into an agreement with a 118526 legislative authority or board of county commissioners under this 118527 section and satisfying one of the criteria described in divisions 118528 (B)(1) to (5) of this section shall submit a proposal to the 118529 legislative authority or board on the form prescribed under 118530 division (B) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code and shall 118531 review and update the estimates and listings required by the form 118532 in the manner required under that division. The legislative 118533 authority or board may, on a separate form and at any time, 118534 require any additional information necessary to determine whether 118535 an enterprise is in compliance with an agreement and to collect 118536 the information required to be reported under section 5709.68 of 118537
the Revised Code. 118538

(B) Prior to entering into an agreement with an enterprise, 118539 the legislative authority or board of county commissioners shall 118540 determine whether the enterprise submitting the proposal is 118541 qualified by financial responsibility and business experience to 118542 create and preserve employment opportunities in the zone and to 118543 improve the economic climate of the municipal corporation or 118544 municipal corporations or the unincorporated areas in which the 118545 zone is located and to which the proposal applies, and whether the enterprise satisfies one of the following criteria:

(1) The enterprise currently has no operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations in the zone;

(2) The enterprise currently has operations in this state and, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to establish operations at a new location in the zone that would not result in a reduction in the number of employee positions at any of the enterprise's other locations in this state;

(3) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in another state, to the zone;

(4) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to expand operations at an existing site in the zone that the enterprise currently operates;

(5) The enterprise, subject to approval of the agreement, intends to relocate operations, currently located in this state, to the zone, and the director of development has issued a waiver for the enterprise under division (B) of section 5709.633 of the Revised Code.

(C) If the legislative authority or board determines that the enterprise is so qualified and satisfies one of the criteria described in divisions (B)(1) to (5) of this section, the legislative authority or board may, after complying with section 5709.83 of the Revised Code and on or before October 15, ~~2011~~ 2012, and, in the case of a board of commissioners, with the consent of the legislative authority of each affected municipal corporation or of the board of township trustees, enter into an agreement with the enterprise under which the enterprise agrees to establish, expand, renovate, or occupy a facility in the zone and

existing employees, in return for the following incentives: 118578

(1) When the facility is located in a municipal corporation, 118579 a legislative authority or board of commissioners may enter into 118580 an agreement for one or more of the incentives provided in 118581 division (C) of section 5709.62 of the Revised Code, subject to 118582 division (D) of that section; 118583

(2) When the facility is located in an unincorporated area, a 118584 board of commissioners may enter into an agreement for one or more 118585 of the incentives provided in divisions (B)(1)(b), (B)(2), and 118586
(B)(3) of section 5709.63 of the Revised Code, subject to division 118587
(C) of that section. 118588

(D) All agreements entered into under this section shall be 118589
in the form prescribed under section 5709.631 of the Revised Code. 118590
After an agreement under this section is entered into, if the 118591 legislative authority or board of county commissioners revokes its 118592 designation of the zone, or if the director of development revokes 118593 the zone's certification, any entitlements granted under the 118594 agreement shall continue for the number of years specified in the 118595
agreement. 118596

(E) Except as otherwise provided in this division, an 118597 agreement entered into under this section shall require that the 118598
enterprise pay an annual fee equal to the greater of one per cent 118599
of the dollar value of incentives offered under the agreement or 118600
five hundred dollars; provided, however, that if the value of the 118601
incentives exceeds two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the fee 118602 shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. The fee shall 118603 be payable to the legislative authority or board of commissioners 118604 once per year for each year the agreement is effective on the days 118605 and in the form specified in the agreement. Fees paid shall be 118606 deposited in a special fund created for such purpose by the 118607 legislative authority or board and shall be used by the 118608 legislative authority or board exclusively for the purpose of 118609 complying with section 5709.68 of the Revised Code and by the tax 118610 incentive review council created under section 5709.85 of the 118611 Revised Code exclusively for the purposes of performing the duties 118612 prescribed under that section. The legislative authority or board 118613 may waive or reduce the amount of the fee charged against an 118614 enterprise, but such waiver or reduction does not affect the 118615 obligations of the legislative authority or board or the tax 118616 incentive review council to comply with section 5709.68 or 5709.85 118617

of the Revised Code, respectively. 118618

(F) With the approval of the legislative authority of a 118619
municipal corporation or the board of township trustees of a 118620 township in which a zone is designated under division (A)(2) of 118621 this section, the board of county commissioners may delegate to 118622 that legislative authority or board any powers and duties of the 118623 board to negotiate and administer agreements with regard to that 118624 zone under this section. 118625

(G) When an agreement is entered into pursuant to this 118626 section, the legislative authority or board of commissioners 118627 authorizing the agreement shall forward a copy of the agreement to 118628 the director of development and to the tax commissioner within 118629 fifteen days after the agreement is entered into. If any agreement 118630 includes terms not provided for in section 5709.631 of the Revised 118631 Code affecting the revenue of a city, local, or exempted village 118632 school district or causing revenue to be forgone by the district, 118633 including any compensation to be paid to the school district 118634 pursuant to section 5709.82 of the Revised Code, those terms also 118635 shall be forwarded in writing to the director of development along 118636 with the copy of the agreement forwarded under this division. 118637

(H) After an agreement is entered into, the enterprise shall 118638 file with each personal property tax return required to be filed 118639 while the agreement is in effect, an informational return, on a 118640 form prescribed by the tax commissioner for that purpose, setting 118641 forth separately the property, and related costs and values, 118642 exempted from taxation under the agreement. 118643

(I) An agreement entered into under this section may include 118644
a provision requiring the enterprise to create one or more 118645
temporary internship positions for students enrolled in a course 118646
of study at a school or other educational institution in the 118647
vicinity, and to create a scholarship or provide another form of 118648
educational financial assistance for students holding such a 118649
position in exchange for the student's commitment to work for the 118650
enterprise at the completion of the internship. 118651

Sec. 5713.01. (A) Each county shall be the unit for assessing 118652 real estate for taxation purposes. The county auditor shall be the 118653 assessor of all the real estate in the auditor's county for 118654 purposes of taxation, but this section does not affect the power 118655 conferred by Chapter 5727. of the Revised Code upon the tax 118656 commissioner regarding the valuation and assessment of real 118657 property used in railroad operations. 118658

(B) The auditor shall assess all the real estate situated in 118659 the county at its taxable value in accordance with sections 118660 5713.03, 5713.31, and 5715.01 of the Revised Code and with the 118661 rules and methods applicable to the auditor's county adopted, 118662 prescribed, and promulgated by the tax commissioner. The auditor 118663 shall view and appraise or cause to be viewed and appraised at its 118664 true value in money, each lot or parcel of real estate, including 118665 land devoted exclusively to agricultural use, and the improvements 118666 located thereon at least once in each six-year period and the 118667 taxable values required to be derived therefrom shall be placed on 118668 the auditor's tax list and the county treasurer's duplicate for 118669 the tax year ordered by the commissioner pursuant to section 118670 5715.34 of the Revised Code. The commissioner may grant an 118671 extension of one year or less if the commissioner finds that good 118672 cause exists for the extension. When the auditor so views and 118673 appraises, the auditor may enter each structure located thereon to 118674 determine by actual view what improvements have been made therein 118675 or additions made thereto since the next preceding valuation. The 118676 auditor shall revalue and assess at any time all or any part of 118677 the real estate in such county, including land devoted exclusively 118678 to agricultural use, where the auditor finds that the true or 118679 taxable values thereof have changed, and when a conservation 118680 easement is created under sections 5301.67 to 5301.70 of the 118681 Revised Code. The auditor may increase or decrease the true or 118682 taxable value of any lot or parcel of real estate in any township, 118683 municipal corporation, or other taxing district by an amount which 118684 will cause all real property on the tax list to be valued as 118685 required by law, or the auditor may increase or decrease the 118686 aggregate value of all real property, or any class of real 118687 property, in the county, township, municipal corporation, or other 118688 taxing district, or in any ward or other division of a municipal 118689 corporation by a per cent or amount which will cause all property 118690 to be properly valued and assessed for taxation in accordance with 118691 Section 36, Article II, Section 2, Article XII, Ohio Constitution, 118692 this section, and sections 5713.03, 5713.31, and 5715.01 of the 118693

Revised Code. 118694

(C) When the auditor determines to reappraise all the real 118695 estate in the county or any class thereof, when the tax 118696 commissioner orders an increase in the aggregate true or taxable 118697 value of the real estate in any taxing subdivision, or when the 118698 taxable value of real estate is increased by the application of a 118699 uniform taxable value per cent of true value pursuant to the order 118700 of the commissioner, the auditor shall advertise the completion of 118701 the reappraisal or equalization action in a newspaper of general 118702 circulation in the county once a week for the three consecutive 118703 weeks next preceding the issuance of the tax bills, or as provided 118704 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code for the two consecutive weeks 118705 next preceding the issuance of the tax bills. When the auditor 118706 changes the true or taxable value of any individual parcels of 118707 real estate, the auditor shall notify the owner of the real 118708 estate, or the person in whose name the same stands charged on the 118709 duplicate, by mail or in person, of the changes the auditor has 118710 made in the assessments of such property. Such notice shall be 118711 given at least thirty days prior to the issuance of the tax bills. 118712 Failure to receive notice shall not invalidate any proceeding 118713

under this section. 118714

(D) The auditor shall make the necessary abstracts from books 118715 of the auditor's office containing descriptions of real estate in 118716 such county, together with such platbooks and lists of transfers 118717 of title to land as the auditor deems necessary in the performance 118718 of the auditor's duties in valuing such property for taxation. 118719 Such abstracts, platbooks, and lists shall be in such form and 118720 detail as the tax commissioner prescribes. 118721

(E) The auditor, with the approval of the tax commissioner, 118722 may appoint and employ such experts, deputies, clerks, or other 118723 employees as the auditor deems necessary to the performance of the 118724 auditor's duties as assessor, or, with the approval of the tax 118725 commissioner, the auditor may enter into a contract with an 118726 individual, partnership, firm, company, or corporation to do all 118727 or any part of the work; the amount to be expended in the payment 118728 of the compensation of such employees shall be fixed by the board 118729 of county commissioners. If, in the opinion of the auditor, the 118730 board of county commissioners fails to provide a sufficient amount 118731 for the compensation of such employees, the auditor may apply to 118732 the tax commissioner for an additional allowance, and the 118733 additional amount of compensation allowed by the commissioner 118734 shall be certified to the board of county commissioners, and the 118735 same shall be final. The salaries and compensation of such 118736 experts, deputies, clerks, and employees shall be paid upon the 118737 warrant of the auditor out of the general fund or the real estate 118738 assessment fund of the county, or both. If the salaries and 118739 compensation are in whole or in part fixed by the commissioner, 118740 they shall constitute a charge against the county regardless of 118741 the amount of money in the county treasury levied or appropriated 118742 for such purposes. 118743

(F) Any contract for goods or services related to the 118744 auditor's duties as assessor, including contracts for mapping, 118745 computers, and reproduction on any medium of any documents, 118746 records, photographs, microfiche, or magnetic tapes, but not 118747 including contracts for the professional services of an appraiser, 118748 shall be awarded pursuant to the competitive bidding procedures 118749 set forth in sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code and 118750 shall be paid for, upon the warrant of the auditor, from the real 118751 estate assessment fund. 118752

(G) Experts, deputies, clerks, and other employees, in 118753 addition to their other duties, shall perform such services as the 118754 auditor directs in ascertaining such facts, description, location, 118755 character, dimensions of buildings and improvements, and other 118756 circumstances reflecting upon the value of real estate as will aid 118757 the auditor in fixing its true and taxable value and, in the case 118758 of land valued in accordance with section 5713.31 of the Revised 118759 Code, its current agricultural use value. The auditor may also 118760 summon and examine any person under oath in respect to any matter 118761 pertaining to the value of any real property within the county. 118762

Sec. 5715.17. When the county board of revision has completed 118763 its work of equalization and transmitted the returns to ~~him~~ the 118764 county auditor, the ~~county~~ auditor shall give notice by 118765 advertising in ~~two newspapers of opposite politics published in~~ 118766 ~~and~~ a newspaper of general circulation throughout the county that 118767 the tax returns for the current year have been revised and the 118768 valuations have been completed and are open for public inspection 118769 in ~~his~~ the auditor's office, and that complaints against any 118770 valuation or assessment, except the valuations fixed and 118771 assessments made by the department of taxation, will be heard by 118772 the board, stating in the notice the time and place of the meeting 118773 of such board. Such advertisement shall be inserted in a 118774 conspicuous place in ~~each~~ such newspaper and be published daily 118775 for ten days, ~~unless there is no daily newspaper published in and~~ 118776 ~~of general circulation throughout such county, in which event such~~ 118777 ~~advertisement shall be so published once each week for two weeks~~ 118778 or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. 118779

The auditor shall, upon request, furnish to any person a 118780 certificate setting forth the assessment and valuation of any 118781 tract, lot, or parcel of real estate or any specific personal 118782 property, and mail the same when requested to do so upon receipt 118783 of sufficient postage. 118784

The auditor shall furnish notice to boards of education of 118785 school districts within the county of all hearings, and the 118786 results of such hearings, held in regard to the reduction or 118787 increasing of tax valuations in excess of one hundred thousand 118788 dollars directly affecting the revenue of such district. 118789

Sec. 5715.23. Annually, immediately after the county board of 118790 revision has acted upon the assessments for the current year as 118791 required under section 5715.16 of the Revised Code and the county 118792 auditor has given notice by advertisement in ~~two newspapers a~~ 118793 newspaper of general circulation in the county that the valuations 118794 have been revised and are open for public inspection as provided 118795 in section 5715.17 of the Revised Code, each auditor shall make 118796 out and transmit to the tax commissioner an abstract of the real 118797 property of each taxing district in ~~his~~ the auditor's county, in 118798 which ~~he~~ the auditor shall set forth the aggregate amount and 118799 valuation of each class of real property in such county and in 118800 each taxing district therein as it appears on ~~his~~ the auditor's 118801 tax list or the statements and returns on file in ~~his~~ the 118802 auditor's office and an abstract of the current year's true value 118803 of land valued for such year under section 5713.31 of the Revised 118804 Code as it appears in the current year's agricultural land tax 118805 list. 118806

Sec. 5715.26. (A)(1) Upon receiving the statement required by 118807 section 5715.25 of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall 118808 forthwith add to or deduct from each tract, lot, or parcel of real 118809 property or class of real property the required percentage or 118810 amount of the valuation thereof, adding or deducting any sum less 118811 than five dollars so that the value of any separate tract, lot, or 118812 parcel of real property shall be ten dollars or some multiple 118813 thereof. 118814

(2) After making the additions or deductions required by this 118815 section, the auditor shall transmit to the tax commissioner the 118816 appropriate adjusted abstract of the real property of each taxing 118817 district in the auditor's county in which an adjustment was 118818 required. 118819

(3) If the commissioner increases or decreases the aggregate 118820 value of the real property or any class thereof in any county or 118821 taxing district thereof and does not receive within ninety days 118822 thereafter an adjusted abstract conforming to its statement for 118823 such county or taxing district therein, the commissioner shall 118824 withhold from such county or taxing district therein fifty per 118825 cent of its share in the distribution of state revenues to local 118826 governments pursuant to sections 5747.50 to 5747.55 of the Revised 118827 Code and shall direct the department of education to withhold 118828 therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues to school districts 118829 pursuant to ~~Chapters 3306.~~ and Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code. 118830

The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of such funds 118831 until such county auditor has complied with this division, and the 118832 department shall withhold the distribution of such funds until the 118833 commissioner has notified the department that such county auditor 118834 has complied with this division. 118835

(B)(1) If the commissioner's determination is appealed under 118836 section 5715.251 of the Revised Code, the county auditor, 118837 treasurer, and all other officers shall forthwith proceed with the 118838 levy and collection of the current year's taxes in the manner 118839 prescribed by law. The taxes shall be determined and collected as 118840 if the commissioner had determined under section 5715.24 of the 118841 Revised Code that the real property and the various classes 118842 thereof in the county as shown in the auditor's abstract were 118843 assessed for taxation and the true and agricultural use values 118844 were recorded on the agricultural land tax list as required by 118845
law. 118846

(2) If as a result of the appeal to the board it is finally 118847 determined either that all real property and the various classes 118848 thereof have not been assessed as required by law or that the 118849 values set forth in the agricultural land tax list do not 118850 correctly reflect the true and agricultural use values of the 118851 lands contained therein, the county auditor shall forthwith add to 118852 or deduct from each tract, lot, or parcel of real property or 118853 class of real property the required percentage or amount of the 118854 valuation in accordance with the order of the board or judgment of 118855 the court to which the board's order was appealed, and the taxes 118856 on each tract, lot, or parcel and the percentages required by 118857 section 319.301 of the Revised Code shall be recomputed using the 118858 valuation as finally determined. The order or judgment making the 118859 final determination shall prescribe the time and manner for 118860 collecting, crediting, or refunding the resultant increases or 118861 decreases in taxes. 118862

Sec. 5719.04. (A) Immediately after each settlement required 118863 by division (D) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code the county 118864 auditor shall make a tax list and duplicates thereof of all 118865 general personal and classified property taxes remaining unpaid, 118866 as shown by the county treasurer's books and the list of taxes 118867 returned as delinquent by the treasurer to the auditor at such 118868 settlement. The county auditor shall also include in such list all 118869 taxes assessed by the tax commissioner pursuant to law which were 118870 not charged upon the tax lists and duplicates on which such 118871 settlements were made nor previously charged upon a delinquent tax 118872 list and duplicates pursuant to this section, but the auditor 118873 shall not include taxes specifically excepted from collection 118874 pursuant to section 5711.32 of the Revised Code. Such tax list and 118875 duplicates shall contain the name of the person charged and the 118876 amount of such taxes, and the penalty, due and unpaid, and shall 118877 set forth separately the amount charged or chargeable on the 118878 general and on the classified list and duplicate. The auditor 118879 shall deliver one such duplicate to the treasurer on the first day 118880 of December, annually. Upon receipt of the duplicate the treasurer 118881 may prepare and mail tax bills to all persons charged with such 118882 delinquent taxes. Each bill shall include a notice that the 118883 interest charge prescribed by section 5719.041 of the Revised Code 118884 has begun to accrue. 118885

The auditor shall cause a copy of the delinquent personal and 118886 classified property tax list and duplicate provided for in this 118887 division to be published twice within sixty days after delivery of 118888 such duplicate to the treasurer in a newspaper ~~published in the~~ 118889 ~~English language in the county and~~ of general circulation ~~therein;~~ 118890 publish the tax list on a pre-printed insert in the newspaper. The 118893 cost of the second publication of the list shall not exceed 118894 three-fourths of the cost of the first publication of the list. 118895

Before such publication, the auditor shall cause a display 118896 notice of the forthcoming publication of such delinquent personal 118897 and classified property tax list to be inserted once a week for 118898 two consecutive weeks in a newspaper ~~published in the English~~ 118899 ~~language in the county and~~ of general circulation ~~therein in the~~ 118900 county. Copy for such display notice shall be furnished by the 118901 auditor to the newspaper selected to publish such delinquent tax 118902 lists simultaneously with the delivery of the duplicate to the 118903 treasurer. ~~If there is only one newspaper published in the county,~~ 118904 ~~such display notice and delinquent personal and classified~~ 118905 ~~property tax lists shall be published in it.~~ Publication of the 118906 delinquent lists may be made by a newspaper in installments, 118907 taxes from the day of delivery of the duplicate thereof until the 118912 final publication of the delinquent tax list. The name of any 118913 taxpayer who prior to seven days before either the first or second 118914 publication of said list pays such taxes in full or enters into a 118915 delinquent tax contract to pay such taxes in installments pursuant 118916 to section 5719.05 of the Revised Code shall be stricken from such 118917 list, and the taxpayer's name shall not be included in the list 118918 for that publication. 118919

The other such duplicate, from which shall first be 118920 eliminated the names of persons whose total liability for taxes 118921 and penalty is less than one hundred dollars, shall be filed by 118922 the auditor on the first day of December, annually, in the office 118923 of the county recorder, and the same shall constitute a notice of 118924 lien and operate as of the date of delivery as a lien on the lands 118925 and tenements, vested legal interests therein, and permanent 118926 leasehold estates of each person named therein having such real 118927 estate in such county. Such notice of lien and such lien shall not 118928 be valid as against any mortgagee, pledgee, purchaser, or judgment 118929 creditor whose rights have attached prior to the date of such 118930 delivery. Such duplicate shall be kept by the recorder, designated 118931 as the personal tax lien record, and indexed under the name of the 118932 person charged with such tax. No fee shall be charged by the 118933 recorder for the services required under this section. 118934

The auditor shall add to the tax list made pursuant to this 118935 section all such taxes omitted in a previous year when assessed by 118936 the auditor or finally assessed by the tax commissioner pursuant 118937 to law, and by proper certificates cause the same to be added to 118938 the treasurer's delinquent tax duplicate provided for in this 118939 section, and, in proper cases, file notice of the lien with the 118940 recorder, as provided in this section. 118941

If the authority making any assessment believes that the 118942 collection of such taxes will be jeopardized by delay, such 118943 assessing authority shall so certify on the assessment certificate 118944 thereof, and the auditor shall include a certificate of such 118945 jeopardy in the certificate given by the auditor to the treasurer. 118946
In such event the treasurer shall proceed immediately to collect 118947 such taxes, and to enforce the collection thereof by any means 118948 provided by law, and the treasurer may not accept a tender of any 118949 part of such taxes; but the person or the representatives of the 118950 person against whom such assessment is made may, in the event of 118951 an appeal to the tax commissioner therefrom, obtain a stay of 118952 collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such 118953 assessment by filing with the treasurer a bond in an amount not 118954 exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, with 118955 such surety as the treasurer deems necessary, conditioned upon the 118956 payment of the amount determined to be due by the decision of the 118957 commissioner which has become final, and further conditioned that 118958 if an appeal is not filed within the period provided by law, the 118959 amount of collection which is stayed by the bond will be paid on 118960 notice and demand of the treasurer at any time after the 118961 expiration of such period. The taxpayer may waive such stay as to 118962 the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond, and if as 118963 the result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the 118964 bond is paid, then the bond shall be proportionately reduced on 118965 the request of the taxpayer. 118966

(B) Immediately after each settlement required by division 118967
(D) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code the auditor shall make a 118968 separate list and duplicate, prepared as prescribed in division 118969 (A) of this section, of all general personal and classified 118970 property taxes that remain unpaid but are excepted from collection 118971 pursuant to section 5711.32 of the Revised Code. The duplicate of 118972 such list shall be delivered to the treasurer at the time of 118973 delivery of the delinquent personal and classified property tax 118974 duplicate. 118975

Sec. 5721.01. (A) As used in this chapter: 118976

(1) "Delinquent lands" means all lands upon which delinquent 118977 taxes, as defined in section 323.01 of the Revised Code, remain 118978 unpaid at the time a settlement is made between the county 118979 treasurer and auditor pursuant to division (C) of section 321.24 118980
of the Revised Code. 118981

(2) "Delinquent vacant lands" means all lands that have been 118982 delinquent lands for at least one year and that are unimproved by 118983 any dwelling. 118984

(3) "County land reutilization corporation" means a county 118985 land reutilization corporation organized under Chapter 1724. of 118986
the Revised Code. 118987

(B) As used in sections 5719.04, 5721.03, and 5721.31 of the Revised Code and in any other sections of the Revised Code to which those sections are applicable, a "newspaper" or "newspaper of general circulation ~~shall be a publication bearing a title or name, regularly issued as frequently as once a week for a definite price or consideration paid for by not less than fifty per cent of those to whom distribution is made, having a second class mailing privilege, being not less than four pages, published continuously during the immediately preceding one year period, and circulated generally in the political subdivision in which it is published.~~ Such publication shall be of a type to which the general public resorts for passing events of a political, religious, commercial, and social nature, current happenings, announcements, ~~miscellaneous reading matter, advertisements, and other notices"~~ has the same meaning as in section 7.12 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 5721.03. (A) At the time of making the delinquent land list, as provided in section 5721.011 of the Revised Code, the county auditor shall compile a delinquent tax list consisting of all lands on the delinquent land list on which taxes have become delinquent at the close of the collection period immediately preceding the making of the delinquent land list. The auditor shall also compile a delinquent vacant land tax list of all delinquent vacant lands prior to the institution of any foreclosure and forfeiture actions against delinquent vacant lands under section 5721.14 of the Revised Code or any foreclosure actions against delinquent vacant lands under section 5721.18 of the Revised Code.

The delinquent tax list, and the delinquent vacant land tax list if one is compiled, shall contain all of the information included on the delinquent land list, except that, if the auditor's records show that the name of the person in whose name the property currently is listed is not the name that appears on the delinquent land list, the name used in the delinquent tax list 119020 or the delinquent vacant land tax list shall be the name of the 119021 person the auditor's records show as the person in whose name the 119022 property currently is listed. 119023

Lands that have been included in a previously published 119024 delinquent tax list shall not be included in the delinquent tax 119025 list so long as taxes have remained delinquent on such lands for 119026 the entire intervening time. 119027

In either list, there may be included lands that have been 119028 omitted in error from a prior list and lands with respect to which 119029 the auditor has received a certification that a delinquent tax 119030 contract has become void since the publication of the last 119031 previously published list, provided the name of the owner was 119032 stricken from a prior list under section 5721.02 of the Revised 119033
Code. 119034

(B)(1) The auditor shall cause the delinquent tax list and 119035 the delinquent vacant land tax list, if one is compiled, to be 119036 published twice within sixty days after the delivery of the 119037 delinquent land duplicate to the county treasurer, in a newspaper 119038 of general circulation in the county. The newspaper shall meet the 119039 requirements of section 7.12 of the Revised Code. ~~The publication~~ 119040 ~~shall be printed in the English language~~ auditor may publish the 119041 list or lists on a pre-printed insert in the newspaper. The cost 119042 of the second publication of the list or lists shall not exceed 119043 three-fourths of the cost of the first publication of the list or 119044 lists. 119045

The auditor shall insert display notices of the forthcoming 119046 publication of the delinquent tax list and, if it is to be 119047 published, the delinquent vacant land tax list once a week for two 119048 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 119049 county. The display notices shall contain the times and methods of 119050 payment of taxes provided by law, including information concerning 119051 installment payments made in accordance with a written delinquent 119052 tax contract. The display notice for the delinquent tax list also 119053 shall include a notice that an interest charge will accrue on 119054 accounts remaining unpaid after the last day of November unless 119055 the taxpayer enters into a written delinquent tax contract to pay 119056 such taxes in installments. The display notice for the delinquent 119057 vacant land tax list if it is to be published also shall include a 119058 notice that delinquent vacant lands in the list are lands on which 119059 taxes have remained unpaid for one year after being certified 119060 delinquent, and that they are subject to foreclosure proceedings 119061 as provided in section 323.25, sections 323.65 to 323.79, or 119062 section 5721.18 of the Revised Code, or foreclosure and forfeiture 119063 proceedings as provided in section 5721.14 of the Revised Code. 119064 Each display notice also shall state that the lands are subject to 119065 a tax certificate sale under section 5721.32 or 5721.33 of the 119066 Revised Code or assignment to a county land reutilization 119067 corporation, as the case may be, and shall include any other 119068 information that the auditor considers pertinent to the purpose of 119069 the notice. The display notices shall be furnished by the auditor 119070 to the ~~newspapers~~ newspaper selected to publish the lists at least 119071 ten days before their first publication. 119072

(2) Publication of the list or lists may be made by a 119073 newspaper in installments, provided the complete publication of 119074 each list is made twice during the sixty-day period. 119075

(3) There shall be attached to the delinquent tax list a 119076 notice that the delinquent lands will be certified for foreclosure 119077 by the auditor unless the taxes, assessments, interest, and 119078 penalties due and owing on them are paid. There shall be attached 119079 to the delinquent vacant land tax list, if it is to be published, 119080 a notice that delinquent vacant lands will be certified for 119081 foreclosure or foreclosure and forfeiture by the auditor unless 119082 the taxes, assessments, interest, and penalties due and owing on 119083 them are paid within twenty-eight days after the final publication 119084 of the notice. 119085

(4) The auditor shall review the first publication of each 119086 list for accuracy and completeness and may correct any errors 119087 appearing in the list in the second publication. 119088

(C) For the purposes of section 5721.18 of the Revised Code, 119089 land is first certified delinquent on the date of the 119090 certification of the delinquent land list containing that land. 119091

Sec. 5721.04. The proper and necessary expenses of publishing 119092 the delinquent tax lists, delinquent vacant land tax lists, and 119093 display notices provided for by sections 5719.04 and 5721.03 of 119094 the Revised Code shall be paid from the county treasury as county 119095 expenses are paid, and the board of county commissioners shall 119096 make provision for them in the annual budget of the county 119097 submitted to the budget commission, and shall make the necessary 119098 appropriations. If the board fails to make such appropriations, or 119099 if an appropriation is insufficient to meet such an expense, any 119100 person interested may apply to the court of common pleas of the 119101 county for an allowance to cover the expense, and the court shall 119102 issue an order instructing the county auditor to issue ~~his~~ a 119103 warrant upon the county treasurer for the amount necessary. The 119104 order by the court shall be final and shall be complied with 119105 immediately. 119106

The aggregate amount paid ~~shall~~ for publication may be 119107 apportioned by the county auditor among the taxing districts in 119108 which the lands on each list are located in proportion to the 119109 amount of delinquent taxes so advertised in such subdivision, or 119110 the county auditor may charge the property owner of land on a list 119111 a flat fee established under section 319.54 of the Revised Code 119112 for the cost of publishing the list and, if the fee is not paid, 119113 may place the fee upon the tax duplicate as a lien on the land, to 119114 be collected as other taxes. Thereafter, the auditor, in making 119115 ~~his~~ the auditor's semiannual apportionment of funds, shall retain 119116 at each semiannual apportionment one half the amount apportioned 119117 to each such taxing district. The amounts retained shall be 119118 credited to the general fund of the county until the aggregate of 119119 all amounts paid in the first instance out of the treasury have 119120 been fully reimbursed. 119121

Sec. 5721.18. The county prosecuting attorney, upon the 119122 delivery to the prosecuting attorney by the county auditor of a 119123 delinquent land or delinquent vacant land tax certificate, or of a 119124 master list of delinquent or delinquent vacant tracts, shall 119125 institute a foreclosure proceeding under this section in the name 119126 of the county treasurer to foreclose the lien of the state, in any 119127 court with jurisdiction or in the county board of revision with 119128 jurisdiction pursuant to section 323.66 of the Revised Code, 119129 unless the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest 119130 are paid prior to the time a complaint is filed, or unless a 119131 foreclosure or foreclosure and forfeiture action has been or will 119132 be instituted under section 323.25, sections 323.65 to 323.79, or 119133 section 5721.14 of the Revised Code. If the delinquent land or 119134 delinquent vacant land tax certificate or the master list of 119135 delinquent or delinquent vacant tracts lists minerals or rights to 119136 minerals listed pursuant to sections 5713.04, 5713.05, and 5713.06 119137 of the Revised Code, the county prosecuting attorney may institute 119138 a foreclosure proceeding in the name of the county treasurer, in 119139 any court with jurisdiction, to foreclose the lien of the state 119140 against such minerals or rights to minerals, unless the taxes, 119141 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest are paid prior to 119142 the time the complaint is filed, or unless a foreclosure or 119143 foreclosure and forfeiture action has been or will be instituted 119144 under section 323.25, sections 323.65 to 323.79, or section 119145

The prosecuting attorney shall prosecute the proceeding to 119147 final judgment and satisfaction. Within ten days after obtaining a 119148 judgment, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the treasurer in 119149 writing that judgment has been rendered. If there is a copy of a 119150 written delinquent tax contract attached to the certificate or an 119151 asterisk next to an entry on the master list, or if a copy of a 119152 delinquent tax contract is received from the auditor prior to the 119153 commencement of the proceeding under this section, the prosecuting 119154 attorney shall not institute the proceeding under this section, 119155 unless the prosecuting attorney receives a certification of the 119156 treasurer that the delinquent tax contract has become void. 119157

(A) This division applies to all foreclosure proceedings not 119158 instituted and prosecuted under section 323.25 of the Revised Code 119159 or division (B) or (C) of this section. The foreclosure 119160 proceedings shall be instituted and prosecuted in the same manner 119161 as is provided by law for the foreclosure of mortgages on land, 119162 except that, if service by publication is necessary, such 119163 publication shall be made once a week for three consecutive weeks 119164 instead of as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure, and the 119165 service shall be complete at the expiration of three weeks after 119166 the date of the first publication. In any proceeding prosecuted 119167 under this section, if the prosecuting attorney determines that 119168 service upon a defendant may be obtained ultimately only by 119169 publication, the prosecuting attorney may cause service to be made 119170 simultaneously by certified mail, return receipt requested, 119171 ordinary mail, and publication. 119172

In any county that has adopted a permanent parcel number 119173 system, the parcel may be described in the notice by parcel number 119174 only, instead of also with a complete legal description, if the 119175 prosecuting attorney determines that the publication of the 119176 complete legal description is not necessary to provide reasonable 119177 notice of the foreclosure proceeding to the interested parties. If 119178

the complete legal description is not published, the notice shall 119179
indicate where the complete legal description may be obtained. 119180

It is sufficient, having been made a proper party to the 119181 foreclosure proceeding, for the treasurer to allege in the 119182 treasurer's complaint that the certificate or master list has been 119183 duly filed by the auditor, that the amount of money appearing to 119184 be due and unpaid is due and unpaid, and that there is a lien 119185 against the property described in the certificate or master list, 119186 without setting forth in the complaint any other or special matter 119187 relating to the foreclosure proceeding. The prayer of the 119188 complaint shall be that the court or the county board of revision 119189 with jurisdiction pursuant to section 323.66 of the Revised Code 119190 issue an order that the property be sold or conveyed by the 119191 sheriff or otherwise be disposed of, and the equity of redemption 119192 be extinguished, according to the alternative redemption 119193 procedures prescribed in sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised 119194 Code, or if the action is in the municipal court by the bailiff, 119195 in the manner provided in section 5721.19 of the Revised Code. 119196

In the foreclosure proceeding, the treasurer may join in one 119197 action any number of lots or lands, but the decree shall be 119198 rendered separately, and any proceedings may be severed, in the 119199 discretion of the court or board of revision, for the purpose of 119200 trial or appeal, and the court or board of revision shall make 119201 such order for the payment of costs as is considered proper. The 119202 certificate or master list filed by the auditor with the 119203 prosecuting attorney is prima-facie evidence at the trial of the 119204 foreclosure action of the amount and validity of the taxes, 119205 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest appearing due and 119206 unpaid and of their nonpayment. 119207

(B) Foreclosure proceedings constituting an action in rem may 119208 be commenced by the filing of a complaint after the end of the 119209 second year from the date on which the delinquency was first 119210 certified by the auditor. Prior to filing such an action in rem, 119211 the prosecuting attorney shall cause a title search to be 119212 conducted for the purpose of identifying any lienholders or other 119213 persons with interests in the property subject to foreclosure. 119214 Following the title search, the action in rem shall be instituted 119215 by filing in the office of the clerk of a court with jurisdiction 119216 a complaint bearing a caption substantially in the form set forth 119217 in division (A) of section 5721.181 of the Revised Code. 119218

Any number of parcels may be joined in one action. Each 119219 separate parcel included in a complaint shall be given a serial 119220 number and shall be separately indexed and docketed by the clerk 119221 of the court in a book kept by the clerk for such purpose. A 119222 complaint shall contain the permanent parcel number of each parcel 119223 included in it, the full street address of the parcel when 119224 available, a description of the parcel as set forth in the 119225 certificate or master list, the name and address of the last known 119226 owner of the parcel if they appear on the general tax list, the 119227 name and address of each lienholder and other person with an 119228 interest in the parcel identified in the title search relating to 119229 the parcel that is required by this division, and the amount of 119230 taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest due and 119231 unpaid with respect to the parcel. It is sufficient for the 119232 treasurer to allege in the complaint that the certificate or 119233 master list has been duly filed by the auditor with respect to 119234 each parcel listed, that the amount of money with respect to each 119235 parcel appearing to be due and unpaid is due and unpaid, and that 119236 there is a lien against each parcel, without setting forth any 119237 other or special matters. The prayer of the complaint shall be 119238 that the court issue an order that the land described in the 119239 complaint be sold in the manner provided in section 5721.19 of the 119240
Revised Code. 119241

(1) Within thirty days after the filing of a complaint, the 119242 clerk of the court in which the complaint was filed shall cause a 119243 notice of foreclosure substantially in the form of the notice set 119244 forth in division (B) of section 5721.181 of the Revised Code to 119245 be published once a week for three consecutive weeks in a 119246 newspaper of general circulation in the county. The newspaper 119247 shall meet the requirements of section 7.12 of the Revised Code. 119248

In any county that has adopted a permanent parcel number system, 119249 the parcel may be described in the notice by parcel number only, 119250 instead of also with a complete legal description, if the 119251 prosecuting attorney determines that the publication of the 119252
complete legal description is not necessary to provide reasonable 119253
notice of the foreclosure proceeding to the interested parties. If 119254
the complete legal description is not published, the notice shall 119255
indicate where the complete legal description may be obtained. 119256

After the third publication, the publisher shall file with 119257 the clerk of the court an affidavit stating the fact of the 119258 publication and including a copy of the notice of foreclosure as 119259 published. Service of process for purposes of the action in rem 119260 shall be considered as complete on the date of the last 119261 publication. 119262

Within thirty days after the filing of a complaint and before 119263 the final date of publication of the notice of foreclosure, the 119264 clerk of the court also shall cause a copy of a notice 119265 substantially in the form of the notice set forth in division (C) 119266 of section 5721.181 of the Revised Code to be mailed by certified 119267 mail, with postage prepaid, to each person named in the complaint 119268 as being the last known owner of a parcel included in it, or as 119269 being a lienholder or other person with an interest in a parcel 119270 included in it. The notice shall be sent to the address of each 119271 such person, as set forth in the complaint, and the clerk shall 119272 enter the fact of such mailing upon the appearance docket. If the 119273 name and address of the last known owner of a parcel included in a 119274 complaint is not set forth in it, the auditor shall file an 119275 affidavit with the clerk stating that the name and address of the 119276 last known owner does not appear on the general tax list. 119277

(2)(a) An answer may be filed in an action in rem under this 119278 division by any person owning or claiming any right, title, or 119279 interest in, or lien upon, any parcel described in the complaint. 119280
The answer shall contain the caption and number of the action and 119281 the serial number of the parcel concerned. The answer shall set 119282 forth the nature and amount of interest claimed in the parcel and 119283 any defense or objection to the foreclosure of the lien of the 119284 state for delinquent taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and 119285 interest as shown in the complaint. The answer shall be filed in 119286 the office of the clerk of the court, and a copy of the answer 119287 shall be served on the prosecuting attorney, not later than 119288 twenty-eight days after the date of final publication of the 119289 notice of foreclosure. If an answer is not filed within such time, 119290 a default judgment may be taken as to any parcel included in a 119291 complaint as to which no answer has been filed. A default judgment 119292 is valid and effective with respect to all persons owning or 119293 claiming any right, title, or interest in, or lien upon, any such 119294 parcel, notwithstanding that one or more of such persons are 119295 minors, incompetents, absentees or nonresidents of the state, or 119296 convicts in confinement. 119297

(b)(i) A receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and 119298
(3) of section 3767.41 of the Revised Code may file an answer 119299 pursuant to division (B)(2)(a) of this section, but is not 119300 required to do so as a condition of receiving proceeds in a 119301 distribution under division (B)(1) of section 5721.17 of the 119302
Revised Code. 119303

(ii) When a receivership under section 3767.41 of the Revised 119304
Code is associated with a parcel, the notice of foreclosure set 119305 forth in division (B) of section 5721.181 of the Revised Code and 119306 the notice set forth in division (C) of that section shall be 119307 modified to reflect the provisions of division (B)(2)(b)(i) of 119308

this section. 119309

(3) At the trial of an action in rem under this division, the 119310 certificate or master list filed by the auditor with the 119311 prosecuting attorney shall be prima-facie evidence of the amount 119312 and validity of the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and 119313 interest appearing due and unpaid on the parcel to which the 119314 certificate or master list relates and their nonpayment. If an 119315 answer is properly filed, the court may, in its discretion, and 119316 shall, at the request of the person filing the answer, grant a 119317 severance of the proceedings as to any parcel described in such 119318 answer for purposes of trial or appeal. 119319

(C) In addition to the actions in rem authorized under 119320 division (B) of this section and section 5721.14 of the Revised 119321 Code, an action in rem may be commenced under this division. An 119322 action commenced under this division shall conform to all of the 119323 requirements of division (B) of this section except as follows: 119324

(1) The prosecuting attorney shall not cause a title search 119325 to be conducted for the purpose of identifying any lienholders or 119326 other persons with interests in the property subject to 119327 foreclosure, except that the prosecuting attorney shall cause a 119328 title search to be conducted to identify any receiver's lien. 119329

(2) The names and addresses of lienholders and persons with 119330 an interest in the parcel shall not be contained in the complaint, 119331 and notice shall not be mailed to lienholders and persons with an 119332 interest as provided in division (B)(1) of this section, except 119333 that the name and address of a receiver under section 3767.41 of 119334 the Revised Code shall be contained in the complaint and notice 119335 shall be mailed to the receiver. 119336

(3) With respect to the forms applicable to actions commenced 119337 under division (B) of this section and contained in section 119338

5721.181 of the Revised Code: 119339

(a) The notice of foreclosure prescribed by division (B) of 119340 section 5721.181 of the Revised Code shall be revised to exclude 119341 any reference to the inclusion of the name and address of each 119342 lienholder and other person with an interest in the parcel 119343 identified in a statutorily required title search relating to the 119344 parcel, and to exclude any such names and addresses from the 119345 published notice, except that the revised notice shall refer to 119346 the inclusion of the name and address of a receiver under section 119347 3767.41 of the Revised Code and the published notice shall include 119348 the receiver's name and address. The notice of foreclosure also 119349 shall include the following in boldface type: 119350

"If pursuant to the action the parcel is sold, the sale shall 119351 not affect or extinguish any lien or encumbrance with respect to 119352 the parcel other than a receiver's lien and other than the lien 119353 for land taxes, assessments, charges, interest, and penalties for 119354 which the lien is foreclosed and in satisfaction of which the 119355 property is sold. All other liens and encumbrances with respect to 119356 the parcel shall survive the sale." 119357

(b) The notice to the owner, lienholders, and other persons 119358 with an interest in a parcel shall be a notice only to the owner 119359 and to any receiver under section 3767.41 of the Revised Code, and 119360 the last two sentences of the notice shall be omitted. 119361

(4) As used in this division, a "receiver's lien" means the 119362 lien of a receiver appointed pursuant to divisions (C)(2) and (3) 119363 of section 3767.41 of the Revised Code that is acquired pursuant 119364 to division (H)(2)(b) of that section for any unreimbursed 119365 expenses and other amounts paid in accordance with division (F) of 119366 that section by the receiver and for the fees of the receiver 119367 approved pursuant to division (H)(1) of that section. 119368

(D) If the prosecuting attorney determines that an action in rem under division (B) or (C) of this section is precluded by law, then foreclosure proceedings shall be filed pursuant to division (A) of this section, and the complaint in the action in personam shall set forth the grounds upon which the action in rem is precluded.

(E) The conveyance by the owner of any parcel against which a complaint has been filed pursuant to this section at any time after the date of publication of the parcel on the delinquent tax list but before the date of a judgment of foreclosure pursuant to section 5721.19 of the Revised Code shall not nullify the right of the county to proceed with the foreclosure.

Sec. 5721.19. (A) In its judgment of foreclosure rendered with respect to actions filed pursuant to section 5721.18 of the Revised Code, the court or the county board of revision with jurisdiction pursuant to section 323.66 of the Revised Code shall enter a finding with respect to each parcel of the amount of the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest, and the costs incurred in the foreclosure proceeding instituted against it, that are due and unpaid. The court or the county board of revision shall order such premises to be transferred pursuant to division (I) of this section or may order each parcel to be sold, without appraisal, for not less than either of the following:

(1) The fair market value of the parcel, as determined by the county auditor, plus the costs incurred in the foreclosure proceeding;

(2) The total amount of the finding entered by the court or the county board of revision, including all taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest payable subsequent to the delivery to the county prosecuting attorney of the delinquent land tax certificate or master list of delinquent tracts and prior to the transfer of the deed of the parcel to the purchaser following 119400 confirmation of sale, plus the costs incurred in the foreclosure 119401 proceeding. For purposes of determining such amount, the county 119402 treasurer may estimate the amount of taxes, assessments, interest, 119403 penalties, and costs that will be payable at the time the deed of 119404 the property is transferred to the purchaser. 119405

Notwithstanding the minimum sales price provisions of 119406 divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section to the contrary, a parcel 119407 sold pursuant to this section shall not be sold for less than the 119408 amount described in division (A)(2) of this section if the highest 119409 bidder is the owner of record of the parcel immediately prior to 119410 the judgment of foreclosure or a member of the following class of 119411 parties connected to that owner: a member of that owner's 119412 immediate family, a person with a power of attorney appointed by 119413 that owner who subsequently transfers the parcel to the owner, a 119414 sole proprietorship owned by that owner or a member of that 119415 owner's immediate family, or a partnership, trust, business trust, 119416 corporation, or association in which the owner or a member of the 119417 owner's immediate family owns or controls directly or indirectly 119418 more than fifty per cent. If a parcel sells for less than the 119419 amount described in division (A)(2) of this section, the officer 119420 conducting the sale shall require the buyer to complete an 119421 affidavit stating that the buyer is not the owner of record 119422 immediately prior to the judgment of foreclosure or a member of 119423 the specified class of parties connected to that owner, and the 119424 affidavit shall become part of the court records of the 119425 proceeding. If the county auditor discovers within three years 119426 after the date of the sale that a parcel was sold to that owner or 119427 a member of the specified class of parties connected to that owner 119428 for a price less than the amount so described, and if the parcel 119429 is still owned by that owner or a member of the specified class of 119430 parties connected to that owner, the auditor within thirty days 119431 after such discovery shall add the difference between that amount 119432 and the sale price to the amount of taxes that then stand charged 119433 against the parcel and is payable at the next succeeding date for 119434 payment of real property taxes. As used in this paragraph, 119435 "immediate family" means a spouse who resides in the same 119436 household and children. 119437

(B) Each parcel affected by the court's finding and order of 119438 sale shall be separately sold, unless the court orders any of such 119439 parcels to be sold together. 119440

Each parcel shall be advertised and sold by the officer to 119441 whom the order of sale is directed in the manner provided by law 119442 for the sale of real property on execution. The advertisement for 119443 sale of each parcel shall be published once a week for three 119444 consecutive weeks and shall include the date on which a second 119445 sale will be conducted if no bid is accepted at the first sale. 119446
Any number of parcels may be included in one advertisement. 119447

The notice of the advertisement shall be substantially in the 119448 form of the notice set forth in section 5721.191 of the Revised 119449 Code. In any county that has adopted a permanent parcel number 119450 system, the parcel may be described in the notice by parcel number 119451
only, instead of also with a complete legal description, if the 119452
prosecuting attorney determines that the publication of the 119453
complete legal description is not necessary to provide reasonable 119454 notice of the foreclosure sale to potential bidders. If the 119455 complete legal description is not published, the notice shall 119456 indicate where the complete legal description may be obtained. 119457

(C)(1) Whenever the officer charged to conduct the sale 119458 offers any parcel for sale the officer first shall read aloud a 119459 complete legal description of the parcel, or in the alternative, 119460 may read aloud only a summary description, including the complete 119461 street address of the parcel, if any, and a parcel number if the 119462 county has adopted a permanent parcel number system and if the 119463 advertising notice prepared pursuant to this section includes a 119464 complete legal description or indicates where the complete legal description may be obtained. Whenever the officer charged to conduct the sale offers any parcel for sale and no bids are made equal to the lesser of the amounts described in divisions (A)(1) and (2) of this section, the officer shall adjourn the sale of the parcel to the second date that was specified in the advertisement of sale. The second date shall be not less than two weeks or more than six weeks from the day on which the parcel was first offered for sale. The second sale shall be held at the same place and commence at the same time as set forth in the advertisement of sale. The officer shall offer any parcel not sold at the first sale. Upon the conclusion of any sale, or if any parcel remains unsold after being offered at two sales, the officer conducting the sale shall report the results to the court.

and interest on the parcel owed to all the taxing districts at 119498 that time. The auditor promptly shall pay to the clerk of the 119499 court the amounts of the reductions. 119500

(b) If reductions occur pursuant to division (C)(2)(a) of 119501 this section, and if at a subsequent time a parcel is sold at a 119502 foreclosure sale or a forfeiture sale pursuant to Chapter 5723. of 119503 the Revised Code, then, notwithstanding other provisions of the 119504 Revised Code, except section 5721.17 of the Revised Code, 119505 governing the distribution of the proceeds of a foreclosure or 119506 forfeiture sale, the proceeds first shall be distributed to 119507 reimburse the taxing districts subjected to reductions in their 119508 otherwise distributable real property taxes. The distributions 119509 shall be based on the same proportions used for purposes of 119510 division (C)(2)(a) of this section. 119511

(3) The court, in its discretion, may order any parcel not 119512 sold pursuant to the original order of sale to be advertised and 119513 offered for sale at a subsequent foreclosure sale. For such 119514 purpose, the court may direct the parcel to be appraised and fix a 119515 minimum price for which it may be sold. 119516

(D) Except as otherwise provided in division (B)(1) of 119517 section 5721.17 of the Revised Code, upon the confirmation of a 119518 sale, the proceeds of the sale shall be applied as follows: 119519

(1) The costs incurred in any proceeding filed against the 119520 parcel pursuant to section 5721.18 of the Revised Code shall be 119521 paid first. 119522

(2) Following the payment required by division (D)(1) of this 119523 section, the part of the proceeds that is equal to five per cent 119524 of the taxes and assessments due shall be deposited in equal 119525 shares into each of the delinquent tax and assessment collection 119526 ~~fund funds~~ created pursuant to section 321.261 of the Revised 119527 Code. If a county land reutilization corporation is operating in 119528 the county, the board of county commissioners, by resolution, may 119529 provide that an additional amount, not to exceed five per cent of 119530 such taxes and assessments, shall be credited to the county land 119531 reutilization corporation fund created by section 321.263 of the 119532 Revised Code to pay for the corporation's expenses. If such a 119533 resolution is in effect, the percentage of such taxes and 119534 assessments so provided shall be credited to that fund. 119535

(3) Following the payment required by division (D)(2) of this 119536 section, the amount found due for taxes, assessments, charges, 119537 penalties, and interest shall be paid, including all taxes, 119538 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest payable subsequent 119539 to the delivery to the county prosecuting attorney of the 119540 delinquent land tax certificate or master list of delinquent 119541 tracts and prior to the transfer of the deed of the parcel to the 119542 purchaser following confirmation of sale. If the proceeds 119543 available for distribution pursuant to division (D)(3) of this 119544 section are sufficient to pay the entire amount of those taxes, 119545 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest, the portion of the 119546 proceeds representing taxes, interest, and penalties shall be paid 119547 to each claimant in proportion to the amount of taxes levied by 119548 the claimant in the preceding tax year, and the amount 119549 representing assessments and other charges shall be paid to each 119550 claimant in the order in which they became due. If the proceeds 119551 are not sufficient to pay that entire amount, the proportion of 119552 the proceeds representing taxes, penalties, and interest shall be 119553 paid to each claimant in the same proportion that the amount of 119554 taxes levied by the claimant against the parcel in the preceding 119555 tax year bears to the taxes levied by all such claimants against 119556 the parcel in the preceding tax year, and the proportion of the 119557 proceeds representing items of assessments and other charges shall 119558 be credited to those items in the order in which they became due. 119559

(E) If the proceeds from the sale of a parcel are 119560 insufficient to pay in full the amount of the taxes, assessments, 119561 charges, penalties, and interest which are due and unpaid; the 119562 costs incurred in the foreclosure proceeding instituted against it 119563 which are due and unpaid; and, if division (B)(1) of section 119564 5721.17 of the Revised Code is applicable, any notes issued by a 119565 receiver pursuant to division (F) of section 3767.41 of the 119566 Revised Code and any receiver's lien as defined in division (C)(4) 119567 of section 5721.18 of the Revised Code, the court, pursuant to 119568 section 5721.192 of the Revised Code, may enter a deficiency 119569 judgment against the owner of record of the parcel for the unpaid 119570 amount. If that owner of record is a corporation, the court may 119571 enter the deficiency judgment against the stockholder holding a 119572 majority of that corporation's stock. 119573

If after distribution of proceeds from the sale of the parcel 119574 under division (D) of this section the amount of proceeds to be 119575 applied to pay the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, 119576 interest, and costs is insufficient to pay them in full, and the 119577 court does not enter a deficiency judgment against the owner of 119578 record pursuant to this division, the taxes, assessments, charges, 119579 penalties, interest, and costs shall be deemed satisfied. 119580

(F)(1) Upon confirmation of a sale, a spouse of the party 119581 charged with the delinquent taxes or assessments shall thereby be 119582 barred of the right of dower in the property sold, though such 119583 spouse was not a party to the action. No statute of limitations 119584 shall apply to such action. When the land or lots stand charged on 119585 the tax duplicate as certified delinquent, it is not necessary to 119586 make the state a party to the foreclosure proceeding, but the 119587 state shall be deemed a party to such action through and be 119588 represented by the county treasurer. 119589

(2) Except as otherwise provided in divisions (F)(3) and (G) 119590 of this section, unless such land or lots were previously redeemed 119591 pursuant to section 5721.25 of the Revised Code, upon the filing 119592 of the entry of confirmation of any sale or the expiration of the 119593 alternative redemption period as defined in section 323.65 of the 119594 Revised Code, if applicable, the title to such land or lots shall 119595 be incontestable in the purchaser and shall be free and clear of 119596 all liens and encumbrances, except a federal tax lien notice of 119597 which is properly filed in accordance with section 317.09 of the 119598 Revised Code prior to the date that a foreclosure proceeding is 119599 instituted pursuant to division (B) of section 5721.18 of the 119600 Revised Code and the easements and covenants of record running 119601 with the land or lots that were created prior to the time the 119602 taxes or assessments, for the nonpayment of which the land or lots 119603 are sold at foreclosure, became due and payable. 119604

(3) When proceedings for foreclosure are instituted under 119605 division (C) of section 5721.18 of the Revised Code, unless the 119606 land or lots were previously redeemed pursuant to section 5721.25 119607 of the Revised Code or before the expiration of the alternative 119608 redemption period, upon the filing of the entry of confirmation of 119609 sale or after the expiration of the alternative redemption period, 119610 as may apply to the case, the title to such land or lots shall be 119611 incontestable in the purchaser and shall be free of any receiver's 119612 lien as defined in division (C)(4) of section 5721.18 of the 119613 Revised Code and, except as otherwise provided in division (G) of 119614 this section, the liens for land taxes, assessments, charges, 119615 interest, and penalties for which the lien was foreclosed and in 119616 satisfaction of which the property was sold. All other liens and 119617 encumbrances with respect to the land or lots shall survive the 119618 sale. 119619

(4) The title shall not be invalid because of any 119620 irregularity, informality, or omission of any proceedings under 119621 this chapter, or in any processes of taxation, if such 119622 irregularity, informality, or omission does not abrogate the 119623 provision for notice to holders of title, lien, or mortgage to, or 119624 other interests in, such foreclosed lands or lots, as prescribed 119625 in this chapter. 119626

(G) If a parcel is sold under this section for the amount 119627 described in division (A)(2) of this section, and the county 119628 treasurer's estimate exceeds the amount of taxes, assessments, 119629 interest, penalties, and costs actually payable when the deed is 119630 transferred to the purchaser, the officer who conducted the sale 119631 shall refund to the purchaser the difference between the estimate 119632 and the amount actually payable. If the amount of taxes, 119633 assessments, interest, penalties, and costs actually payable when 119634 the deed is transferred to the purchaser exceeds the county 119635 treasurer's estimate, the officer shall certify the amount of the 119636 excess to the treasurer, who shall enter that amount on the real 119637 and public utility property tax duplicate opposite the property; 119638 the amount of the excess shall be payable at the next succeeding 119639 date prescribed for payment of taxes in section 323.12 of the 119640
Revised Code. 119641

(H) If a parcel is sold or transferred under this section or 119642 sections 323.28 and 323.65 to 323.78 of the Revised Code, the 119643 officer who conducted the sale or made the transfer of the 119644 property shall collect the recording fee and any associated costs 119645 to cover the recording from the purchaser or transferee at the 119646 time of the sale or transfer and, following confirmation of the 119647 sale or transfer, shall execute and record the deed conveying 119648 title to the parcel to the purchaser or transferee. For purposes 119649 of recording such deed, by placement of a bid or making a 119650 statement of interest by any party ultimately awarded the parcel, 119651 that purchaser or transferee thereby appoints the officer who 119652 makes the sale or is charged with executing and delivering the 119653 deed as agent for the purchaser or transferee for the sole purpose 119654 of accepting delivery of the deed. For such purposes, the 119655 confirmation of any such sale or order to transfer the parcel 119656 without appraisal or sale shall be deemed delivered upon the 119657 confirmation of such sale or transfer. 119658

(I) Notwithstanding section 5722.03 of the Revised Code, if 119659 the complaint alleges that the property is delinquent vacant land 119660 as defined in section 5721.01 of the Revised Code, abandoned lands 119661 as defined in section 323.65 of the Revised Code, or lands 119662 described in division (E) of section 5722.01 of the Revised Code, 119663 and the value of the taxes, assessments, penalties, interest, and 119664 all other charges and costs of the action exceed the auditor's 119665 fair market value of the parcel, then the court or board of 119666 revision having jurisdiction over the matter on motion of the 119667 plaintiff, or on the court's or board's own motion, shall, upon 119668 any adjudication of foreclosure, order, without appraisal and 119669 without sale, the fee simple title of the property to be 119670 transferred to and vested in an electing subdivision as defined in 119671 division (A) of section 5722.01 of the Revised Code. For purposes 119672 of determining whether the taxes, assessments, penalties, 119673 interest, and all other charges and costs of the action exceed the 119674 actual fair market value of the parcel, the auditor's most current 119675 valuation shall be rebuttably presumed to be, and constitute 119676 prima-facie evidence of, the fair market value of the parcel. In 119677 such case, the filing for journalization of a decree of 119678 foreclosure ordering that direct transfer without appraisal or 119679 sale shall constitute confirmation of the transfer and thereby 119680 terminate any further statutory or common law right of redemption. 119681

Sec. 5721.30. As used in sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the 119682
Revised Code: 119683

(A) "Tax certificate," "certificate," or "duplicate 119684 certificate" means a document that may be issued as a physical 119685 certificate, in book-entry form, or through an electronic medium, 119686 at the discretion of the county treasurer. Such document shall 119687 contain the information required by section 5721.31 of the Revised Code and shall be prepared, transferred, or redeemed in the manner prescribed by sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code. As used in those sections, "tax certificate," "certificate," and "duplicate certificate" do not refer to the delinquent land tax certificate or the delinquent vacant land tax certificate issued under section 5721.13 of the Revised Code.

(B) "Certificate parcel" means the parcel of delinquent land that is the subject of and is described in a tax certificate.

(C) "Certificate holder" means a person, including a county land reutilization corporation, that purchases or otherwise acquires a tax certificate under section 5721.32, 5721.33, or 5721.42 of the Revised Code, or a person to whom a tax certificate has been transferred pursuant to section 5721.36 of the Revised Code.

(D) "Certificate purchase price" means, with respect to the sale of tax certificates under sections 5721.32, 5721.33, and 5721.42 of the Revised Code, the amount equal to delinquent taxes charged against a certificate parcel at the time the tax certificate respecting that parcel is sold or transferred, not including any delinquent taxes the lien for which has been conveyed to a certificate holder through a prior sale of a tax certificate respecting that parcel. Payment of the certificate purchase price in a sale under section 5721.33 of the Revised Code may be made wholly in cash or partially in cash and partially by noncash consideration acceptable to the county treasurer from the purchaser, and, in the case of a county land reutilization corporation, with notes. In the event that any such noncash consideration is delivered to pay a portion of the certificate purchase price, such noncash consideration may be subordinate to the rights of the holders of other obligations whose proceeds paid the cash portion of the certificate purchase price.

"Certificate purchase price" also includes the amount of the fee charged by the county treasurer to the purchaser of the certificate under division (H) of section 5721.32 of the Revised Code.

(F) With respect to a sale or transfer of tax certificates under section 5721.33 of the Revised Code, "certificate redemption price" means the amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) The certificate purchase price;

(2) Interest accrued on the certificate purchase price at the certificate rate of interest from the date on which a tax certificate is delivered through and including the day immediately preceding the day on which the certificate redemption price is paid; per year fixed pursuant to section 5721.42 of the Revised Code or 119757 by the county treasurer with respect to any tax certificate sold 119758

"the date the certificate is purchased," and any other phrase of 119768 similar content mean, with respect to a sale pursuant to an 119769 auction under section 5721.32 of the Revised Code, the date 119770 designated by the county treasurer for the submission of bids and, 119771 with respect to a negotiated sale or transfer under section 119772 5721.33 of the Revised Code, the date of delivery of the tax 119773 certificates to the purchasers thereof pursuant to a tax 119774 certificate sale/purchase agreement. 119775

(J) "Certificate interest period" means, with respect to a 119776

Revised Code and for the purpose of accruing interest under 119778 section 5721.41 of the Revised Code, the period beginning on the 119779

(M) "Noncash consideration" means any form of consideration other than cash, including, but not limited to, promissory notes whether subordinate or otherwise.

(N) "Private attorney" means any attorney licensed to practice law in this state whose license has not been revoked and

(O) "Related certificate parcel" means, with respect to a 119815 certificate holder, the certificate parcel with respect to which 119816

of the Revised Code. 119825

(O) "Certificate period" means the period of time after the 119826 sale or delivery of a tax certificate within which a certificate 119827 holder must initiate an action to foreclose the tax lien 119828 represented by the certificate as specified under division (A) of 119829 section 5721.32 of the Revised Code or as negotiated under section 119830

Sec. 5721.31. (A)(1) After receipt of a duplicate of the 119832 delinquent land list compiled under section 5721.011 of the 119833 Revised Code, or a delinquent land list compiled previously under 119834 that section, the county treasurer may select from the list 119835 parcels of delinquent land the lien against which the county 119836 treasurer may attempt to transfer by the sale of tax certificates 119837 under sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code. None of the 119838 following parcels may be selected for a tax certificate sale: 119839

(a) A parcel for which the full amount of taxes, assessments, 119840 penalties, interest, and charges have been paid; 119841

(b) A parcel for which a valid contract under section 119842
323.122, 323.31, or 5713.20 of the Revised Code is in force; 119843

(c) A parcel the owner of which has filed a petition in 119844 bankruptcy, so long as the parcel is property of the bankruptcy 119845 estate. 119846

(2) The county treasurer shall compile a separate list of 119847 parcels selected for tax certificate sales, including the same 119848 information as is required to be included in the delinquent land 119849
list. 119850

Upon compiling the list of parcels selected for tax 119851 certificate sales, the county treasurer may conduct a title search 119852 for any parcel on the list. 119853

(B)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (B)(3) of 119854 this section, when tax certificates are to be sold under section 119855 5721.32 of the Revised Code with respect to parcels, the county 119856 treasurer shall send written notice by certified mail to either 119857 the owner of record or all interested parties discoverable through 119858 a title search, or both, of each parcel on the list. A notice to 119859 an owner shall be sent to the owner's last known tax-mailing 119860 address. The notice shall inform the owner or interested parties 119861 that a tax certificate will be offered for sale on the parcel, and 119862 that the owner or interested parties may incur additional expenses 119863 as a result of the sale. 119864

(2) Except as otherwise provided in division (B)(3) of this 119865 section, when tax certificates are to be sold or transferred under 119866 section 5721.33 of the Revised Code with respect to parcels, the 119867 county treasurer, at least thirty days prior to the date of sale 119868 or transfer of such tax certificates, shall send written notice of 119869 the sale or transfer by certified mail to the last known 119870 tax-mailing address of the record owner of the property or parcel 119871 and may send such notice to all parties with an interest in the 119872 property that has been recorded in the property records of the 119873 county pursuant to section 317.08 of the Revised Code. The notice 119874 shall state that a tax certificate will be offered for sale or 119875 transfer on the parcel, and that the owner or interested parties 119876 may incur additional expenses as a result of the sale or transfer. 119877

(3) The county treasurer is not required to send a notice 119878 under division (B)(1) or (B)(2) of this section if the treasurer 119879 previously has attempted to send such notice to the owner of the 119880 parcel and the notice has been returned by the post office as 119881 undeliverable. The absence of a valid tax-mailing address for the 119882 owner of a parcel does not preclude the county treasurer from 119883 selling or transferring a tax certificate for the parcel. 119884

(C) The county treasurer shall advertise the sale of tax 119885 certificates under section 5721.32 of the Revised Code in a 119886 newspaper of general circulation in the county, once a week for 119887 two consecutive weeks. The newspaper shall meet the requirements 119888 of section 7.12 of the Revised Code. The advertisement shall 119889 include the date, the time, and the place of the public auction, 119890 abbreviated legal descriptions of the parcels, and the names of 119891 the owners of record of the parcels. The advertisement also shall 119892 include the certificate purchase prices of the parcels or the 119893 total purchase price of tax certificates for sale in blocks of tax 119894 certificates. 119895

(D) After the county treasurer has compiled the list of 119896 parcels selected for tax certificate sales but before a tax 119897 certificate respecting a parcel is sold or transferred, if the 119898 owner of record of the parcel pays to the county treasurer in cash 119899 the delinquent taxes respecting the parcel or otherwise acts so 119900 that any condition in division (A)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this 119901 section applies to the parcel, the owner of record of the parcel 119902 also shall pay a fee in an amount prescribed by the treasurer to 119903 cover the administrative costs of the treasurer under this section 119904 respecting the parcel. The fee shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the tax certificate administration fund.

(E) A tax certificate administration fund shall be created in the county treasury of each county selling tax certificates under sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code. The fund shall be administered by the county treasurer, and used solely for the purposes of sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code or as otherwise permitted in this division. Any fee received by the treasurer under sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code shall be credited to the fund, except the bidder registration fee under division (B) of section 5721.32 of the Revised Code and the county prosecuting attorney's fee under division (B)(3) of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code. To the extent there is a surplus in the fund from time to time, the surplus may, with the approval of the county treasurer, be utilized for the purposes of a county land reutilization corporation operating in the county.

(F) The county treasurers of more than one county may jointly conduct a regional sale of tax certificates under section 5721.32 of the Revised Code. A regional sale shall be held at a single location in one county, where the tax certificates from each of the participating counties shall be offered for sale at public auction. Before the regional sale, each county treasurer shall advertise the sale for the parcels in the treasurer's county as required by division (C) of this section. At the regional sale, tax certificates shall be sold on parcels from one county at a time, with all of the certificates for one county offered for sale before any certificates for the next county are offered for sale.

(G) The tax commissioner shall prescribe the form of the tax certificate under this section, and county treasurers shall use the form so prescribed.

Sec. 5721.32. (A) The sale of tax certificates by public auction may be conducted at any time after completion of the 119936 advertising of the sale under section 5721.31 of the Revised Code, 119937 on the date and at the time and place designated in the 119938 advertisements, and may be continued from time to time as the 119939 county treasurer directs. The county treasurer may offer the tax 119940 certificates for sale in blocks of tax certificates, consisting of 119941 any number of tax certificates as determined by the county 119942 treasurer, and may specify a certificate period of not less than 119943 three years and not more than six years. 119944

(B)(1) The sale of tax certificates under this section shall 119945 be conducted at a public auction by the county treasurer or a 119946 designee of the county treasurer. 119947

(2) No person shall be permitted to bid without completing a 119948 bidder registration form, in the form prescribed by the tax 119949 commissioner, and without filing the form with the county 119950 treasurer prior to the start of the auction, together with 119951 remittance of a registration fee, in cash, of five hundred 119952 dollars. The bidder registration form shall include a tax 119953 identification number of the registrant. The registration fee is 119954 refundable at the end of bidding on the day of the auction, unless 119955 the registrant is the winning bidder for one or more tax 119956 certificates or one or more blocks of tax certificates, in which 119957 case the fee may be applied toward the deposit required by this 119958
section. 119959

(3) The county treasurer may require a person who wishes to 119960 bid on one or more parcels to submit a letter from a financial 119961 institution stating that the bidder has sufficient funds available 119962 to pay the purchase price of the parcels and a written 119963 authorization for the treasurer to verify such information with 119964 the financial institution. The county treasurer may require 119965 submission of the letter and authorization sufficiently in advance 119966 of the auction to allow for verification. No person who fails to 119967 submit the required letter and authorization, or whose financial 119968 institution fails to provide the requested verification, shall be 119969 permitted to bid. 119970

(C) At the public auction, the county treasurer or the 119971 treasurer's designee or agent shall begin the bidding at eighteen 119972 per cent per year simple interest, and accept lower bids in even 119973 increments of one-fourth of one per cent to the rate of zero per 119974 cent. The county treasurer, designee, or agent shall award the tax 119975 certificate to the person bidding the lowest certificate rate of 119976 interest. The county treasurer shall decide which person is the 119977 winning bidder in the event of a tie for the lowest bid offered, 119978 or if a person contests the lowest bid offered. The county 119979 treasurer's decision is not appealable. 119980

(D)(1) The winning bidder shall pay the county treasurer a 119981 cash deposit of at least ten per cent of the certificate purchase 119982 price not later than the close of business on the day of the sale. 119983
The winning bidder shall pay the balance and the fee required 119984 under division (H) of this section not later than five business 119985 days after the day on which the certificate is sold. Except as 119986 provided under division (D)(2) of this section, if the winning 119987 bidder fails to pay the balance and fee within the prescribed 119988 time, the bidder forfeits the deposit, and the county treasurer 119989 shall retain the tax certificate and may attempt to sell it at any 119990 auction conducted at a later date. 119991

(2) At the request of a winning bidder, the county treasurer 119992 may release the bidder from the bidder's tax certificate purchase 119993 obligation. The county treasurer may retain all or any portion of 119994 the deposit of a bidder granted a release. After granting a 119995 release under this division, the county treasurer may award the 119996 tax certificate to the person that submitted the second lowest bid 119997 at the auction. 119998

(3) The county treasurer shall deposit the deposit forfeited 119999 or retained under divisions (D)(1) or (2) of this section in the 120000 county treasury to the credit of the tax certificate 120001 administration fund. 120002

(E) Upon receipt of the full payment of the certificate 120003 purchase price from the purchaser, the county treasurer shall 120004 issue the tax certificate and record the tax certificate sale by 120005 entering into a tax certificate register the certificate purchase 120006 price, the certificate rate of interest, the date the certificate 120007 was sold, the certificate period, the name and address of the 120008 certificate holder, and any other information the county treasurer 120009 considers necessary. The county treasurer may keep the tax 120010 certificate register in a hard-copy format or in an electronic 120011 format. The name and address of the certificate holder may be, 120012 upon receipt of instructions from the purchaser, that of the 120013 secured party of the actual purchaser, or an agent or custodian 120014 for the purchaser or secured party. The county treasurer also 120015 shall transfer the tax certificate to the certificate holder. The 120016 county treasurer shall apportion the part of the proceeds from the 120017 sale representing taxes, penalties, and interest among the several 120018 taxing districts in the same proportion that the amount of taxes 120019 levied by each district against the certificate parcel in the 120020 preceding tax year bears to the taxes levied by all such districts 120021 against the certificate parcel in the preceding tax year, and 120022 credit the part of the proceeds representing assessments and other 120023 charges to the items of assessments and charges in the order in 120024 which those items became due. Upon issuing a tax certificate, the 120025 delinquent taxes that make up the certificate purchase price are 120026 transferred, and the superior lien of the state and its taxing 120027 districts for those delinquent taxes is conveyed intact to the 120028 certificate holder. 120029

(F) If a tax certificate is offered for sale under this 120030 section but is not sold, the county treasurer may sell the 120031 certificate in a negotiated sale authorized under section 5721.33 120032 of the Revised Code, or may strike the corresponding certificate 120033 parcel from the list of parcels selected for tax certificate 120034 sales. The lien for taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and 120035 interest against a parcel stricken from the list thereafter may be 120036 foreclosed in the manner prescribed by section 323.25, sections 120037 323.65 to 323.79, or section 5721.14 or 5721.18 of the Revised 120038 Code unless, prior to the institution of such proceedings against 120039 the parcel, the county treasurer restores the parcel to the list 120040 of parcels selected for tax certificate sales. 120041

(G) A certificate holder shall not be liable for damages 120042 arising from a violation of sections 3737.87 to 3737.891 or 120043 Chapter 3704., 3734., 3745., 3746., 3750., 3751., 3752., 6109., or 120044 6111. of the Revised Code, or a rule adopted or order, permit, 120045 license, variance, or plan approval issued under any of those 120046 chapters, that is or was committed by another person in connection 120047 with the parcel for which the tax certificate is held. 120048

(H) When selling a tax certificate under this section, the 120049 county treasurer shall charge a fee to the purchaser of the 120050 certificate. The county treasurer shall set the fee at a 120051 reasonable amount that covers the treasurer's costs of 120052 administering the sale of the tax certificate. The county 120053 treasurer shall deposit the fee in the county treasury to the 120054 credit of the tax certificate administration fund. 120055

(I) After selling a tax certificate under this section, the 120056 county treasurer shall send written notice by certified mail to 120057 the owner of the certificate parcel at the owner's last known 120058 tax-mailing address. The notice shall inform the owner that the 120059 tax certificate was sold, shall describe the owner's options to 120060 redeem the parcel, including entering into a redemption payment 120061 plan under division (C)(1) of section 5721.38 of the Revised Code, 120062 and shall name the certificate holder and its secured party, if 120063 any. However, the county treasurer is not required to send a 120064 notice under this division if the treasurer previously has 120065 attempted to send a notice to the owner of the parcel at the 120066 owner's last known tax-mailing address, and the postal service has 120067 returned the notice as undeliverable. 120068

(J) A tax certificate shall not be sold to the owner of the 120069 certificate parcel. 120070 certificate holder may file with the county treasurer a notice of 120081 intent to foreclose, on a form prescribed by the tax commissioner, 120082 provided the certificate parcel has not been redeemed under 120083 least one certificate respecting the certificate parcel, held by 120085 the certificate holder filing the request for foreclosure or 120086 notice of intent to foreclose and eligible to be enforced through 120087 a foreclosure proceeding, has not been voided under section 120088 5721.381 of the Revised Code. If the certificate holder is a 120089 county land reutilization corporation, the corporation may 120090 under division (B)(1) of this section to the tax certificate 120260 redemption fund. The tax certificates respecting the payment shall 120261 be paid as provided in division (D) of section 5721.38 of the 120262 deposit the fee received under division (B)(3) of this section in 120266 the county treasury to the credit of the delinquent tax and 120267 assessment collection fund. 120268

~~(E)(1)(a) Except with respect to a county land reutilization 120269 corporation, if, in the case of a certificate purchased under 120270 section 5721.32 of the Revised Code, or under section 5721.42 of 120271
the Revised Code by the holder of a certificate issued under 120272 section 5721.32 of the Revised Code, the certificate holder does 120273 not file with the county treasurer a request for foreclosure or a 120274 notice of intent to foreclose with the required payment within six 120275 years after the date shown on the tax certificate as the date the 120276 certificate was sold or within the period provided under division 120277 (A)(3)(a) of this section, and during that time the certificate 120278 has not been voided under section 5721.381 of the Revised Code and 120279 the parcel has not been redeemed or foreclosed upon, the 120280 certificate holder's lien against the parcel is canceled, and the 120281 certificate is voided, subject to division (E)(1)(b) of this 120282
section. 120283~~

~~(b) In the case of any tax certificate purchased under 120284
section 5721.32 of the Revised Code or under section 5721.42 of 120285
the Revised Code by the holder of a certificate issued under 120286 section 5721.32 of the Revised Code prior to June 24, 2008, the 120287 county treasurer, upon application by the certificate holder, may 120288 sell to the certificate holder a new certificate extending the 120289~~

~~three year period prescribed by division (E)(1) of this section, 120290 as that division existed prior to that date, to six years after 120291 or any extension of that date. 120293~~

~~(2)(a) Except with respect to a county land reutilization 120294

the Revised Code by the holder of a certificate issued under 120297 section 5721.33 of the Revised Code, the certificate holder does 120298
not file with the county treasurer a request for foreclosure or a 120299 notice of intent to foreclose with respect to a certificate parcel 120300 with the required payment within ~~six years after the date shown on~~ 120301 ~~the tax certificate as the date the certificate was sold~~ the 120302 certificate period or any extension of that ~~date~~ period pursuant 120303 to division (C)(2) of section 5721.38 of the Revised Code, or 120304 within the period provided under division ~~(A)(3)(b)~~ (A)(2) of this 120305 section ~~or as specified under the terms of a negotiated sale under~~ 120306 ~~section 5721.33 of the Revised Code~~, and during that time the 120307 certificate has not been voided under section 5721.381 of the 120308 is canceled and the certificate is voided, subject to division 120311 ~~(E)(2)(b)~~ (E)(2) of this section. 120312~~

~~(b)(2) In the case of any tax certificate purchased under 120313 section ~~5721.33~~ 5721.32 of the Revised Code or under section 120314 5721.42 of the Revised Code by the holder of a certificate issued 120315 under section 5721.32 of the Revised Code prior to ~~October 10,~~ 120316 ~~2000~~ June 24, 2008, the county treasurer, upon application by the 120317 certificate holder, may sell to the certificate holder a new 120318 certificate extending the three-year period prescribed by division 120319 ~~(E)(2)~~ (E)(1) of this section, as that division existed prior to 120320 ~~October 10, 2000~~ that date, to six years after the date shown on 120321~~ the original certificate as the date it was sold or any extension 120322 of that date. 120323

~~(3)~~ The county treasurer and the certificate holder shall 120324 negotiate the premium, in cash, to be paid for a new certificate 120325 sold under division ~~(E)(1)(b)~~ or ~~(2)(b)~~ (E)(2) of this section. If 120326 the county treasurer and certificate holder do not negotiate a 120327 mutually acceptable premium, the county treasurer and certificate 120328 holder may agree to engage a person experienced in the valuation 120329 of financial assets to appraise a fair premium for the new 120330 certificate. The certificate holder has the option to purchase the 120331 new certificate for the fair premium so appraised. Not less than 120332 one-half of the fee of the person so engaged shall be paid by the 120333 certificate holder requesting the new certificate; the remainder 120334 of the fee shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the new 120335 certificate. If the certificate holder does not purchase the new 120336 certificate for the premium so appraised, the certificate holder 120337 shall pay the entire fee. The county treasurer shall credit the 120338 remaining proceeds from the sale to the items of taxes, 120339 assessments, penalties, interest, and charges in the order in 120340 which they became due. 120341

~~(4)~~ A certificate issued under division ~~(E)(1)(b)~~ or 120342
~~(2)(b)~~ (E)(2) of this section vests in the certificate holder and 120343 its secured party, if any, the same rights, interests, privileges, 120344 and immunities as are vested by the original certificate under 120345 sections 5721.30 to 5721.43 of the Revised Code. The certificate 120346 shall be issued in the same form as the form prescribed for the 120347 original certificate issued except for any modifications 120348 necessary, in the county treasurer's discretion, to reflect the 120349 extension under this division of the certificate holder's lien to 120350 six years after the date shown on the original certificate as the 120351 date it was sold or any extension of that date. The certificate 120352 holder may record a certificate issued under division ~~(E)(1)(b)~~ or 120353

~~(2)(b)(E)(2)~~ of this section or memorandum thereof as provided in 120354 division (B) of section 5721.35 of the Revised Code, and the 120355 county recorder shall index the certificate and record any 120356 subsequent cancellation of the lien as provided in that section. 120357
The sale of a certificate extending the lien under division 120358 ~~(E)(1)(b) or (2)(b)(E)(2)~~ of this section does not impair the 120359 right of redemption of the owner of record of the certificate 120360 parcel or of any other person entitled to redeem the property. 120361

~~(5)(3)~~ If the holder of a certificate purchased under section 120362 5721.32, 5721.33, or 5721.42 of the Revised Code submits a notice 120363 of intent to foreclose to the county treasurer but fails to file a 120364 foreclosure action in a court of competent jurisdiction within the 120365 time specified in division (C)(2) of this section, the liens 120366 represented by all tax certificates respecting the certificate 120367 parcel held by that certificate holder, and for which the deadline 120368 for filing a notice of intent to foreclose has passed, are 120369 canceled and the certificates voided, and the certificate holder 120370 forfeits the payment of the amounts described in division (B)(2) 120371
of this section. 120372

(F) With respect to tax certificates purchased under section 120373 5721.32, 5721.33, or 5721.42 of the Revised Code, upon the 120374 delivery to the private attorney by the county treasurer of the 120375 certification provided for under division (C)(2) of this section, 120376 the private attorney shall institute a foreclosure proceeding 120377 under this division in the name of the certificate holder to 120378 enforce the holder's lien, in any court or board of revision with 120379 jurisdiction, unless the certificate redemption price is paid 120380 prior to the time a complaint is filed. The attorney shall 120381 prosecute the proceeding to final judgment and satisfaction, 120382 whether through sale of the property or the vesting of title and 120383 possession in the certificate holder or other disposition under 120384 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code or as may otherwise 120385

be provided by law. 120386

The foreclosure proceedings under this division, except as 120387 otherwise provided in this division, shall be instituted and 120388 prosecuted in the same manner as is provided by law for the 120389 foreclosure of mortgages on land, except that, if service by 120390 publication is necessary, such publication shall be made once a 120391 week for three consecutive weeks and the service shall be complete 120392 at the expiration of three weeks after the date of the first 120393
publication. 120394

Any notice given under this division shall include the name 120395 of the owner of the parcel as last set forth in the records of the 120396 county recorder, the owner's last known mailing address, the 120397 address of the subject parcel if different from that of the owner, 120398 and a complete legal description of the subject parcel. In any 120399 county that has adopted a permanent parcel number system, such 120400 notice may include the permanent parcel number in addition to a 120401 complete legal description. 120402

It is sufficient, having been made a proper party to the 120403
foreclosure proceeding, for the certificate holder to allege in 120404 such holder's complaint that the tax certificate has been duly 120405 purchased by the certificate holder, that the certificate 120406 redemption price is due and unpaid, that there is a lien against 120407 the property described in the tax certificate, and, if applicable, 120408 that the certificate holder desires to invoke the alternative 120409 redemption period prescribed in sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the 120410 Revised Code, without setting forth in such holder's complaint any 120411 other special matter relating to the foreclosure proceeding. The 120412 complaint shall pray for an order directing the sheriff, or the 120413 bailiff if the complaint is filed in municipal court, to offer the 120414 property for sale in the manner provided in section 5721.19 of the 120415 Revised Code or otherwise transferred according to any applicable 120416 procedures provided in sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised 120417

Code, unless the complaint documents that the county auditor has 120418 determined that the true value of the certificate parcel is less 120419 than the certificate purchase price. In that case, the prayer of 120420 the complaint shall request that fee simple title to the property 120421 be transferred to and vested in the certificate holder free and 120422 clear of all subordinate liens. 120423

In the foreclosure proceeding, the certificate holder may 120424 join in one action any number of tax certificates relating to the 120425 same owner. However, the decree for each tax certificate shall be 120426 rendered separately and any proceeding may be severed, in the 120427 discretion of the court or board of revision, for the purpose of 120428 trial or appeal. Except as may otherwise be provided in sections 120429 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code, upon confirmation of sale, 120430 the court or board of revision shall order payment of all costs 120431 related directly or indirectly to the tax certificate, including, 120432 without limitation, attorney's fees of the holder's attorney in 120433 accordance with section 5721.371 of the Revised Code. The tax 120434 certificate purchased by the certificate holder is presumptive 120435 evidence in all courts and boards of revision and in all 120436 proceedings, including, without limitation, at the trial of the 120437 foreclosure action, of the amount and validity of the taxes, 120438 assessments, charges, penalties by the court and added to such 120439 principal amount, and interest appearing due and unpaid and of 120440 their nonpayment. 120441

(G) If a parcel is sold under this section, the officer who 120442 conducted the sale shall collect the recording fee from the 120443 purchaser at the time of the sale and, following confirmation of 120444 the sale, shall prepare and record the deed conveying the title to 120445 the parcel to the purchaser. 120446

Sec. 5721.38. (A) At any time prior to payment to the county 120447 treasurer by the certificate holder to initiate foreclosure 120448 proceedings under division (B) of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code, the owner of record of the certificate parcel, or any other person entitled to redeem that parcel, may redeem the parcel by paying to the county treasurer an amount equal to the total of the certificate redemption prices of all tax certificates respecting that parcel.

(B) At any time after payment to the county treasurer by the certificate holder to initiate foreclosure proceedings under section 5721.37 of the Revised Code, and before the filing of the entry of confirmation of sale of a certificate parcel, or the expiration of the alternative redemption period defined in section 323.65 of the Revised Code under foreclosure proceedings filed by the county prosecuting attorney, and before the decree conveying title to the certificate holder is rendered as provided for in division (F) of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code, the owner of record of the certificate parcel or any other person entitled to redeem that parcel may redeem the parcel by paying to the county treasurer the sum of the following amounts:

(1) The amount described in division (A) of this section;

(2) Interest on the certificate purchase price for each tax certificate sold respecting the parcel at the rate of eighteen per cent per year for the period beginning on the day on which the payment was submitted by the certificate holder and ending on the day the parcel is redeemed under this division;

(3) An amount equal to the sum of the county prosecuting attorney's fee under division (B)(3) of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code plus interest on that amount at the rate of eighteen per cent per year beginning on the day on which the payment was submitted by the certificate holder and ending on the day the parcel is redeemed under this division. If the parcel is redeemed before the complaint has been filed, the prosecuting attorney shall adjust the fee to reflect services performed to the date of redemption, and the county treasurer shall calculate the interest 120481 based on the adjusted fee and refund any excess fee to the 120482

certificate holder. 120483

(4) Reasonable attorney's fees in accordance with section 120484 5721.371 of the Revised Code if the certificate holder retained a 120485 private attorney to foreclose the lien; 120486

(5) Any other costs and fees of the proceeding allocable to 120487 the certificate parcel as determined by the court or board of 120488 revision. 120489

The county treasurer may collect the total amount due under 120490 divisions (B)(1) to (5) of this section in the form of guaranteed 120491 funds acceptable to the treasurer. Immediately upon receipt of 120492 such payments, the county treasurer shall reimburse the 120493 certificate holder who initiated foreclosure proceedings as 120494 provided in division (D) of this section. The county treasurer 120495 shall pay the certificate holder interest at the rate of eighteen 120496 per cent per year on amounts paid under divisions (B)(2) and (3) 120497 of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code, beginning on the day the 120498 certificate holder paid the amounts under those divisions and 120499 ending on the day the parcel is redeemed under this section. 120500

(C)(1) During the period beginning on the date a tax 120501 certificate is sold under section 5721.32 of the Revised Code and 120502 ending one year from that date, the county treasurer may enter 120503 into a redemption payment plan with the owner of record of the 120504 certificate parcel or any other person entitled to redeem that 120505 parcel. The plan shall require the owner or other person to pay 120506 the certificate redemption price for the tax certificate in 120507 installments, with the final installment due no later than one 120508 year after the date the tax certificate is sold. The certificate 120509 holder may at any time, by written notice to the county treasurer, 120510 agree to accept installments collected to the date of notice as 120511 payment in full. Receipt of such notice by the treasurer shall 120512 constitute satisfaction of the payment plan and redemption of the 120513 tax certificate. 120514

(2) During the period beginning on the date a tax certificate 120515 is sold under section 5721.33 of the Revised Code and ending on 120516 the date the decree is rendered on the foreclosure proceeding 120517 under division (F) of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code, the 120518 owner of record of the certificate parcel, or any other person 120519 entitled to redeem that parcel, may enter into a redemption 120520 payment plan with the certificate holder and all secured parties 120521 of the certificate holder. The plan shall require the owner or 120522 other person to pay the certificate redemption price for the tax 120523 certificate, an administrative fee not to exceed one hundred 120524 dollars per year, and the actual fees and costs incurred, in 120525 installments, with the final installment due no later than ~~six~~ 120526 ~~years after the date the tax certificate is sold~~ the expiration of 120527 the certificate period. The certificate holder shall give written 120528 notice of the plan to the applicable county treasurer within sixty 120529 days after entering into the plan and written notice of default 120530 under the plan within ninety days after the default. If such a 120531 plan is entered into, the time period for filing a request for 120532 foreclosure or a notice of intent to foreclose under section 120533 5721.37 of the Revised Code is extended by the length of time the 120534 plan is in effect and not in default. 120535

(D)(1) Immediately upon receipt of full payment under 120536 division (A) or (B) of this section, the county treasurer shall 120537 make an entry to that effect in the tax certificate register, 120538 credit the payment to the tax certificate redemption fund created 120539 in the county treasury, and shall notify the certificate holder or 120540 holders by ordinary first class or certified mail or by binary 120541 means that the parcel has been redeemed and the lien or liens 120542 canceled, and that payment on the certificate or certificates is 120543 forthcoming. The treasurer shall pay the tax certificate holder or 120544 holders promptly. 120545

The county treasurer shall administer the tax certificate 120546 redemption fund for the purpose of redeeming tax certificates. 120547 Interest earned on the fund shall be credited to the county 120548 general fund. If the county has established a county land 120549 reutilization corporation, the county treasurer may apply interest 120550 earned on the fund to the payment of the expenses of such 120551 corporation. 120552

(2) If a redemption payment plan is entered into pursuant to 120553 division (C)(1) of this section, the county treasurer immediately 120554 shall notify each certificate holder by ordinary first class or 120555 certified mail or by binary means of the terms of the plan. 120556 Installment payments made pursuant to the plan shall be deposited 120557 in the tax certificate redemption fund. Any overpayment of the 120558 installments shall be refunded to the person responsible for 120559 causing the overpayment if the person applies for a refund under 120560 this section. If the person responsible for causing the 120561 overpayment fails to apply for a refund under this section within 120562 five years from the date the plan is satisfied, an amount equal to 120563 the overpayment shall be deposited into the general fund of the 120564 county. If the county has established a county land reutilization 120565 corporation, the county treasurer may apply such overpayment to 120566
the payment of the expenses of the corporation. 120567

Upon satisfaction of the plan, the county treasurer shall 120568 indicate in the tax certificate register that the plan has been 120569 satisfied, and shall notify each certificate holder by ordinary 120570 first class or certified mail or by binary means that the plan has 120571 been satisfied and that payment on the certificate or certificates 120572 is forthcoming. The treasurer shall pay each certificate holder 120573 promptly. 120574

If a redemption payment plan becomes void, the county 120575 treasurer shall notify each certificate holder by ordinary first 120576 class or certified mail or by binary means. If a certificate 120577 holder files a request for foreclosure under section 5721.37 of 120578 the Revised Code, upon the filing of the request for foreclosure, 120579 any money paid under the plan shall be refunded to the person that 120580 paid the money under the plan. 120581

(3) Upon receipt of the payment required under division 120582
(B)(1) of section 5721.37 of the Revised Code, the treasurer shall 120583 pay all other certificate holders and indicate in the tax 120584 certificate register that such certificates have been satisfied. 120585
If a county has organized a county land reutilization corporation, 120586 the county treasurer may apply the redemption price and any 120587 applicable interest payable under division (B) of this section to 120588
the payment of the expenses of the corporation. 120589

Sec. 5721.42. After the settlement required under division 120590
(C) of section 321.24 of the Revised Code, the county treasurer 120591 shall notify the certificate holder of the most recently issued 120592 tax certificate, by ordinary first class or certified mail or by 120593 binary means, that the certificate holder may purchase a 120594 subsequent tax certificate by paying all delinquent taxes on the 120595 related certificate parcel, the lien against which has not been 120596 transferred by the sale of a tax certificate. During the thirty 120597 days after receiving the notice, the certificate holder possesses 120598 the exclusive right to purchase the subsequent tax certificate by 120599 paying those amounts to the county treasurer. The amount of the 120600 payment shall constitute a separate lien against the certificate 120601 parcel that shall be evidenced by the issuance by the treasurer to 120602 the certificate holder of an additional tax certificate with 120603 respect to the delinquent taxes so paid on the related certificate 120604 parcel. The amount of the payment as set forth in the tax 120605 certificate shall earn interest at the rate of eighteen per cent 120606 per year. The certificate period of each subsequent tax 120607 certificate shall terminate on the expiration date of the 120608 certificate period of the most recent tax certificate for the same 120609

certificate parcel. 120610

Sec. 5722.13. Real property acquired and held by an electing 120611 subdivision pursuant to this chapter that is not sold or otherwise 120612 transferred within fifteen years after such acquisition shall be 120613 offered for sale at public auction during the sixteenth year after 120614 acquisition. If the real property is not sold at that time, it may 120615 be disposed of or retained for any lawful purpose without further 120616 application of this chapter. 120617

Notice of the sale shall contain a description of each 120618 parcel, the permanent parcel number, and the full street address 120619 when available. The notice shall be published once a week for 120620 three consecutive weeks prior to the sale in a newspaper of 120621 general circulation within the electing subdivision. The newspaper 120622 shall meet the requirements of section 7.12 of the Revised Code. 120623

Each parcel subsequent to the fifteenth year after its 120624 acquisition as part of a land reutilization program shall be sold 120625 for an amount equal to not less than the greater of: 120626

(A) Two-thirds of its fair market value; 120627

(B) The total amount of accrued taxes, assessments, 120628 penalties, interest, charges, and costs incurred by the electing 120629 subdivision in the acquisition, maintenance, and disposal of each 120630 parcel and the parcel's share of the costs and expenses of the 120631 land reutilization program. 120632

The sale requirements of this section do not apply to real 120633 property acquired and held by a county land reutilization 120634
corporation. 120635

Sec. 5723.05. If the taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, 120636 interest, and costs due on the forfeited lands have not been paid 120637 when the county auditor fixes the date for the sale of forfeited 120638 lands, the auditor shall give notice of them once a week for two 120639 consecutive weeks prior to the date fixed by the auditor for the 120640 sale, ~~in two newspapers~~ as provided in section 5721.03 of the 120641 Revised Code. The notice shall state that if the taxes, 120642 assessments, charges, penalties, interest, and costs charged 120643 against the lands forfeited to the state for nonpayment of taxes 120644 are not paid into the county treasury, and the county treasurer's 120645 receipt produced for the payment before the time specified in the 120646 notice for the sale of the lands, which day shall be named in the 120647 notice, each forfeited tract on which the taxes, assessments, 120648 charges, penalties, interest, and costs remain unpaid will be 120649 offered for sale beginning on the date set by the auditor, at the 120650 courthouse in the county, in order to satisfy the unpaid taxes, 120651 assessments, charges, penalties, interest, and costs, and that the 120652 sale will continue from day to day until each of the tracts is 120653 sold or offered for sale. 120654

The notice also shall state that, if the forfeited land is 120655 sold for an amount that is less than the amount of the delinquent 120656 taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and interest against it, 120657 and, if division (B)(2) of section 5721.17 of the Revised Code is 120658 applicable, any notes issued by a receiver pursuant to division 120659
(F) of section 3767.41 of the Revised Code and any receiver's lien 120660
as defined in division (C)(4) of section 5721.18 of the Revised 120661 Code, the court, in a separate order, may enter a deficiency 120662 judgment against the last owner of record of the land before its 120663 forfeiture to the state, for the amount of the difference; and 120664 that, if that owner of record is a corporation, the court may 120665 enter the deficiency judgment against the stockholder holding a 120666
majority of that corporation's stock. 120667

Sec. 5723.18. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division 120668
(B)(2) of section 5721.17 and division (B) of section 319.43 of 120669 the Revised Code, the proceeds from a forfeiture sale shall be 120670 distributed as follows: 120671

(1) The county auditor shall deduct all costs pertaining to 120672 the forfeiture and sale of forfeited lands, including costs 120673 pertaining to a foreclosure and forfeiture proceeding instituted 120674 under section 5721.14 of the Revised Code, except those paid under 120675 section 5721.04 of the Revised Code, from the moneys received from 120676 the sale of land and town lots forfeited to the state for the 120677 nonpayment of taxes, and shall pay such costs into the proper 120678 fund. In the case of the forfeiture sale of a parcel against which 120679 a foreclosure and forfeiture proceeding was instituted under 120680 section 5721.14 of the Revised Code, if the proceeds from the 120681 forfeiture sale are insufficient to pay the costs pertaining to 120682 such proceeding, the county auditor, at the next semiannual 120683 apportionment of real property taxes, shall reduce the amount of 120684 real property taxes that the auditor otherwise would distribute to 120685 each subdivision to which taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, 120686 or interest charged against the parcel are due. The reduction in 120687 each subdivision's real property tax distribution shall equal the 120688 amount of the unpaid costs multiplied by a fraction, the numerator 120689 of which is the amount of taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, 120690 and interest due the subdivision, and the denominator of which is 120691 the total amount of taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and 120692 interest due all such subdivisions. 120693

(2) Following the payment required by division (A)(1) of this 120694 section, the part of the proceeds that is equal to ten per cent of 120695 the taxes and assessments due shall be deposited in equal shares 120696 into each of the delinquent tax and assessment collection ~~fund~~ 120697 funds created pursuant to section 321.261 of the Revised Code. 120698

(3) Following the payment required by division (A)(2) of this 120699 section, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed by the 120700 auditor to the appropriate subdivisions to pay the taxes, 120701 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest which are due and 120702 unpaid. If the proceeds available for distribution under this 120703 division are insufficient to pay the entire amount of those taxes, 120704 assessments, charges, penalties, and interest, the auditor shall 120705 distribute the proceeds available for distribution under this 120706 division to the appropriate subdivisions in proportion to the 120707 amount of those taxes, assessments, charges, penalties, and 120708 interest that each is due. 120709

(B) If the proceeds from the sale of forfeited land are 120710 insufficient to pay in full the amount of the taxes, assessments, 120711 charges, penalties, and interest; the costs incurred in the 120712 proceedings instituted pursuant to this chapter and section 120713 5721.18 of the Revised Code, or the foreclosure and forfeiture 120714 proceeding instituted pursuant to section 5721.14 of the Revised 120715 Code; and, if division (B)(2) of section 5721.17 of the Revised 120716 Code is applicable, any notes issued by a receiver pursuant to 120717 division (F) of section 3767.41 of the Revised Code and any 120718 receiver's lien as defined in division (C)(4) of section 5721.18 120719 of the Revised Code, the court may enter a deficiency judgment 120720 against the last owner of record of the land before its forfeiture 120721 to the state, for the unpaid amount. The court shall enter the 120722 judgment pursuant to section 5721.192 of the Revised Code. Except 120723 as otherwise provided in division (B) of section 319.43 of the 120724 Revised Code, the proceeds paid pursuant to the entry and 120725 satisfaction of such a judgment shall be distributed as if they 120726 had been received as a part of the proceeds from the sale of the 120727 land to satisfy the amount of the taxes, assessments, charges, 120728 penalties, and interest which are due and unpaid; the costs 120729 incurred in the associated proceedings which were due and unpaid; 120730
and, if division (B)(2) of section 5721.17 of the Revised Code is 120731
applicable, any notes issued by a receiver pursuant to division 120732
(F) of section 3767.41 of the Revised Code and any receiver's lien 120733
Code. 120735

public utility has failed for a period of ninety days to make any 120880 petition in the court of common pleas in the county of the state 120884 to be due, the enforcement of any lien in favor of the state, and 120887 an injunction to restrain such public utility and its officers, 120888 directors, and managing agents from the transaction of any 120889 business within this state, other than such acts as are incidental 120890 to liquidation or winding up, until the payment of such taxes, 120891 return. 120894

Such petition shall be in the name of the state. All or any 120895 of the public utilities having their principal places of business 120896 in the county may be joined in one suit. On the motion of the 120897 attorney general, the court of common pleas shall enter an order 120898 requiring all defendants to answer by a day certain, and may 120899 appoint a special master commissioner to take testimony, with such 120900 agents, if set forth in the petition, and the amount of any taxes, 120907 fees, or penalties claimed to be owing by said public utility. 120908

All of the officers, directors, shareholders, or managing 120909 agents of any public utility may be joined as defendants with such 120910 public utility. 120911

If it appears to the court upon hearing that any public 120912 utility which is a party to such proceeding is indebted to the 120913 state for taxes, fees, or penalties, judgment shall be entered 120914 therefor with interest, which shall be computed at the rate per 120915 annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code; and if it 120916 appears that any public utility has failed to make or file any 120917 report or return, a mandatory injunction may be issued against 120918 such public utility, its officers, directors, and managing agents, 120919 as such enjoining them from the transaction of any business within 120920

(G) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner 121259 shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school 121260 district, and local taxing unit its fixed-rate levy loss, which is 121261 the sum of its electric company tax value loss multiplied by the 121262 tax rate in effect in tax year 1998 for fixed-rate levies and its 121263 natural gas company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in 121264 effect in tax year 1999 for fixed-rate levies. 121265

(H) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner 121266
shall determine for each school district, joint vocational school 121267 district, and local taxing unit its fixed-sum levy loss, which is 121268 the amount obtained by subtracting the amount described in 121269 division (H)(2) of this section from the amount described in 121270 division (H)(1) of this section: 121271

(1) The sum of the electric company tax value loss multiplied 121272 by the tax rate in effect in tax year 1998, and the natural gas 121273 company tax value loss multiplied by the tax rate in effect in tax 121274 year 1999, for fixed-sum levies for all taxing districts within 121275 each school district, joint vocational school district, and local 121276 taxing unit. For the years 2002 through 2006, this computation 121277 shall include school district emergency levies that existed in 121278 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss, and 1999 121279 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, and all 121280 other fixed-sum levies that existed in 1998 in the case of the 121281 electric company tax value loss and 1999 in the case of the 121282 natural gas company tax value loss and continue to be charged in 121283 the tax year preceding the distribution year. For the years 2007 121284 through 2016 in the case of school district emergency levies, and 121285 levies, this computation shall exclude all fixed-sum levies that 121287 existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax value loss 121288 and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax value loss, 121289 but are no longer in effect in the tax year preceding the 121290 distribution year. For the purposes of this section, an emergency 121291 levy that existed in 1998 in the case of the electric company tax 121292 value loss, and 1999 in the case of the natural gas company tax 121293 value loss, continues to exist in a year beginning on or after 121294 January 1, 2007, but before January 1, 2017, if, in that year, the 121295 board of education levies a school district emergency levy for an 121296 annual sum at least equal to the annual sum levied by the board in 121297 tax year 1998 or 1999, respectively, less the amount of the 121298 payment certified under this division for 2002. 121299

(2) The total taxable value in tax year 1999 less the tax 121300 value loss in each school district, joint vocational school 121301 district, and local taxing unit multiplied by one-fourth of one 121302 mill. 121303

If the amount computed under division (H) of this section for 121304 any school district, joint vocational school district, or local 121305 taxing unit is greater than zero, that amount shall equal the 121306 fixed-sum levy loss reimbursed pursuant to division ~~(E)~~(F) of 121307 section 5727.85 of the Revised Code or division (A)(2) of section 121308 5727.86 of the Revised Code, and the one-fourth of one mill that 121309 is subtracted under division (H)(2) of this section shall be 121310 apportioned among all contributing fixed-sum levies in the 121311 proportion of each levy to the sum of all fixed-sum levies within 121312 each school district, joint vocational school district, or local 121313 taxing unit. 121314

(I) Notwithstanding divisions (D), (E), (G), and (H) of this 121315 section, in computing the tax value loss, fixed-rate levy loss, 121316 and fixed-sum levy loss, the tax commissioner shall use the 121317 greater of the 1998 tax rate or the 1999 tax rate in the case of 121318 levy losses associated with the electric company tax value loss, 121319 but the 1999 tax rate shall not include for this purpose any tax 121320 levy approved by the voters after June 30, 1999, and the tax 121321 commissioner shall use the greater of the 1999 or the 2000 tax 121322 rate in the case of levy losses associated with the natural gas 121323 company tax value loss. 121324

(J) Not later than January 1, 2002, the tax commissioner 121325 shall certify to the department of education the tax value loss 121326 determined under divisions (D) and (E) of this section for each 121327 taxing district, the fixed-rate levy loss calculated under 121328 division (G) of this section, and the fixed-sum levy loss 121329 calculated under division (H) of this section. The calculations 121330 under divisions (G) and (H) of this section shall separately 121331 display the levy loss for each levy eligible for reimbursement. 121332

(K) Not later than September 1, 2001, the tax commissioner 121333 shall certify the amount of the fixed-sum levy loss to the county 121334 auditor of each county in which a school district with a fixed-sum 121335 section from the amount described in division (A)(1)(a) of this 121344

section: 121345

(a) The state education aid computed for the school district 121346 or joint vocational school district for the current fiscal year as 121347 of the thirty-first day of July; 121348

(b) The state education aid that would be computed for the 121349 district or joint vocational school district; 121353

(c) The state education aid offset for fiscal year 2010 and 121354 fiscal year 2011 equals the greater of the state education aid 121355 offset calculated for that fiscal year under divisions (A)(1)(a) 121356 of this section shall be credited to the general fund of the local 121727 taxing unit that receives them. Amounts distributed to each county 121728 be in lieu of the payment to be made in February 2002 under 121742 division (A)(1) of this section. A local taxing unit receiving a 121743 payment under this division will no longer be entitled to any 121744

121766
121768

(2) The amounts distributed to each county under division (E) of this section shall be distributed by the county auditor to each local taxing unit in the county in the proportion that the unit's current taxes charged and payable are of the total current taxes charged and payable of all the local taxing units in the county. If the amount that the county auditor determines to be distributed to a local taxing unit is less than five dollars, that amount shall not be distributed, and the amount not distributed shall remain credited to the county undivided income tax fund. 2002. No return shall be filed for estates of decedents dying on 121979 or after January 1, 2013. 121980

(4)(a) Upon receipt of the estate tax return described in 121981 division (A)(1)(a) of this section and the accompanying 121982 certificate described in division (A)(1)(b) of this section, the 121983 probate court promptly shall give notice of the return, by a form 121984 prescribed by the tax commissioner, to the county auditor. The 121985 auditor then shall make a charge based upon the notice and shall 121986 certify a duplicate of the charge to the county treasurer. The 121987 treasurer then shall collect, subject to division (A) of section 121988 5731.25 of the Revised Code or any other statute extending the 121989 time for payment of an estate tax, the tax so charged. 121990

(b) Upon receipt of the return and the accompanying 121991 certificate, the probate court also shall forward the certificate 121992 to the auditor. When satisfied that the estate taxes under section 121993 5731.02 or division (A) of section 5731.19 of the Revised Code, 121994 that are shown to be due in the return, have been paid in full, 121995 the auditor shall stamp the certificate so forwarded to verify 121996 that payment. The auditor then shall return the stamped 121997 certificate to the probate court. 121998

(5)(a) The certificate described in division (A)(1)(b) of 121999 this section is a public record subject to inspection and copying 122000 in accordance with section 149.43 of the Revised Code. It shall be 122001 kept in the records of the probate court pertaining to the 122002 decedent's estate and is not subject to the confidentiality 122003 provisions of section 5731.90 of the Revised Code. 122004

(b) All persons are entitled to rely on the statements 122005 contained in a certificate as described in division (A)(1)(b) of 122006 this section if it has been filed in accordance with that 122007 division, forwarded to a county auditor and stamped in accordance 122008 with division (A)(4) of this section, and placed in the records of 122009 the probate court pertaining to the decedent's estate in 122010

the Revised Code. 122015

(B) An estate tax return filed under this section, in the 122016 form prescribed by the tax commissioner, and showing that no 122017 estate tax is due shall result in a determination that no estate 122018 tax is due, if the tax commissioner within three months after the 122019 receipt of the return by the department of taxation, fails to file 122020 exceptions to the return in the probate court of the county in 122021 which the return was filed. A copy of exceptions to a return of 122022 that nature, when the tax commissioner files them within that 122023 period, shall be sent by ordinary mail to the person who filed the 122024 return. The tax commissioner is not bound under this division by a 122025 determination that no estate tax is due, with respect to property 122026 not disclosed in the return. 122027

(C) If the executor, administrator, or other person required 122028 to file an estate tax return fails to file it within nine months 122029 of the date of the decedent's death, the tax commissioner may 122030 determine the estate tax in that estate and issue a certificate of 122031 determination in the same manner as is provided in division (B) of 122032 section 5731.27 of the Revised Code. A certificate of 122033 determination of that nature has the same force and effect as 122034 though a return had been filed and a certificate of determination 122035 issued with respect to the return. 122036

Sec. 5731.39. (A) No corporation organized or existing under 122037 the laws of this state shall transfer on its books or issue a new 122038

Revised Code or other corporation or person, having in possession, 122045 control, or custody a deposit standing in the name of a decedent, 122046 or in trust for a decedent, or in the name of a decedent and 122047 excess of three-fourths of the total value of such deposit, 122049 including accrued interest and dividends, as of the date of 122050 decedent's death, without the written consent of the tax 122051 commissioner. The written consent of the tax commissioner need not 122052 be obtained prior to the delivery or transfer of amounts having a 122053 value of three-fourths or less of said total value. 122054

(C) No life insurance company shall pay the proceeds of an 122055 annuity or matured endowment contract, or of a life insurance 122056 contract payable to the estate of a decedent, or of any other 122057 insurance contract taxable under Chapter 5731. of the Revised 122058 Code, without the written consent of the tax commissioner. Any 122059 the proceeds of any death benefit, retirement, pension or profit 122064 sharing plan in excess of two thousand dollars, without the 122065 written consent of the tax commissioner. Such trust company or 122066 other corporation or person, however, may pay the proceeds of any death benefit, retirement, pension, or profit-sharing plan which consists of insurance on the life of the decedent payable to a beneficiary other than the estate of the insured without the written consent of the tax commissioner.

The written consent of the tax commissioner need not be obtained prior to the delivery or transfer of any such securities, assets, or other property having a value of three-fourths or less of said total value.

provided, however, that a safe deposit company, financial 122102 institution, or other corporation or person having possession or 122103 control of a safe deposit box may deliver wills, deeds to burial 122104 lots, and insurance policies to a representative of the decedent, 122105 but that a representative of the safe deposit company, financial 122106 institution, or other corporation or person must supervise the 122107 opening of the box and make a written record of the wills, deeds, 122108 and policies removed. Such written record shall be included in the 122109 tax commissioner's inventory records. 122110

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this section: 122111

(1) The tax commissioner may authorize any delivery or 122112 transfer or waive any of the foregoing requirements under such 122113 terms and conditions as the commissioner may prescribe; 122114

(2) An adult care facility, as defined in section ~~3722.01~~ 122115 tax commissioner, and without the account having been opened and 122120 inventoried in the presence of the commissioner or the 122121 commissioner's agent. 122122

Failure to comply with this section shall render such safe 122123 deposit company, trust company, life insurance company, financial 122124 institution as defined in division (A) of section 5725.01 of the 122125 Revised Code, or other corporation or person liable for the amount 122126 of the taxes and interest due under the provisions of Chapter 122127 5731. of the Revised Code on the transfer of such stock, deposit, 122128

the amount of the taxes or penalties appearing to be due, the 122162 enforcement of any lien in favor of the state, and an injunction 122163 to restrain such corporation and its officers, directors, and 122164 managing agents from the transaction of any business within this 122165 state, other than such acts as are incidental to liquidation or 122166 winding up, until the payment of such taxes, fees, and penalties, 122167 and the costs of the proceeding which shall be fixed by the court, 122168 or the making and filing of such report or return. 122169

Such petition shall be in the name of the state. All or any 122170 of the corporations having their principal places of business in 122171 the county may be joined in one suit. On the motion of the 122172 attorney general, the court of common pleas shall enter an order 122173 requiring all defendants to answer by a day certain, and may 122174
appoint a special master commissioner to take testimony, with such 122175 other power and authority as the court confers, and permitting 122176 process to be served by registered mail and by publication in a 122177 newspaper of general circulation ~~published~~ in the county, which 122178 publication need not be made more than once, setting forth the 122179 name of each delinquent corporation, the matter in which such 122180 corporation is delinquent, the names of its officers, directors, 122181 and managing agents, if set forth in the petition, and the amount 122182

All or any of the officers, directors, shareholders, or 122185

If it appears to the court upon hearing that any corporation 122188 which is a party to such proceeding is indebted to the state for 122189 taxes, fees, or penalties, judgment shall be entered therefor with 122190 interest; and if it appears that any corporation has failed to 122191 make or file any report or return, a mandatory injunction may be 122192 issued against such corporation, its officers, directors, and 122193 managing agents, enjoining them from the transaction of any 122194 business within this state, other than acts incidental to 122195 liquidation or winding up, until the making and filing of all 122196 proper reports or returns and until the payment in full of all 122197 taxes, fees, and penalties. 122198

If the officers, directors, shareholders, or managing agents 122199 of a corporation are not made parties in the first instance, and a 122200 judgment or an injunction is rendered or issued against such 122201 corporation, such officers, directors, shareholders, or managing 122202 agents may be made parties to such proceedings upon the motion of 122203 the attorney general, and, upon notice to them of the form and 122204 terms of such injunction, they shall be bound thereby as fully as 122205 if they had been made parties in the first instance. 122206

In any action authorized by this section, a statement of the 122207 commissioner, or the secretary of state, when duly certified, 122208 shall be prima-facie evidence of the amount of taxes, fees, or 122209 penalties due from any corporation, or of the failure of any 122210 corporation to file with the commissioner or the secretary of 122211 state any report required by law, and any such certificate of the 122212 commissioner or the secretary of state may be required in evidence 122213 in any such proceeding. 122214

On the application of any defendant and for good cause shown, 122215 the court may order a separate hearing of the issues as to any 122216 defendant. 122217

The costs of the proceeding shall be apportioned among the 122218 parties as the court deems proper. 122219

The court in such proceeding may make, enter, and enforce 122220 such other judgments and orders and grant such other relief as is 122221 necessary or incidental to the enforcement of the claims and lien 122222 of the state. 122223

any prosecuting attorney to bring an action, as authorized by this 122226 section, in the name of the state with respect to any delinquent 122227 corporations within ~~his~~ the prosecuting attorney's county, and 122228

(c) Division (B)(48) of this section is limited to machinery, equipment, and software first stored, used, or consumed in this state within the period commencing June 24, 2008, and ending on the date that is five years after that date.

capabilities of the systems installed in the device as described 123852 in appendices A and B of part 60 of chapter 1 of title 14 of the 123853
Code of Federal Regulations. 123854

(51) Any transfer or lease of tangible personal property 123855 between the state and a successful proposer in accordance with 123856 sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code, provided the 123857 property is part of a project as defined in section 126.60 of the 123858 Revised Code and the state retains ownership of the project or 123859 part thereof that is being transferred or leased, between the 123860 state and JobsOhio in accordance with section 4313.02 of the 123861
Revised Code. 123862

(C) For the purpose of the proper administration of this 123863 chapter, and to prevent the evasion of the tax, it is presumed 123864 that all sales made in this state are subject to the tax until the 123865 contrary is established. 123866

(D) The levy of this tax on retail sales of recreation and 123867 sports club service shall not prevent a municipal corporation from 123868 levying any tax on recreation and sports club dues or on any 123869 income generated by recreation and sports club dues. 123870

(E) The tax collected by the vendor from the consumer under 123871 this chapter is not part of the price, but is a tax collection for 123872 the benefit of the state, and of counties levying an additional 123873 sales tax pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.026 of the Revised 123874 Code and of transit authorities levying an additional sales tax 123875 pursuant to section 5739.023 of the Revised Code. Except for the 123876 discount authorized under section 5739.12 of the Revised Code and 123877 the effects of any rounding pursuant to section 5703.055 of the 123878 Revised Code, no person other than the state or such a county or 123879 transit authority shall derive any benefit from the collection or 123880 payment of the tax levied by this section or section 5739.021, 123881 5739.023, or 5739.026 of the Revised Code. 123882

Sec. 5739.021. (A) For the purpose of providing additional 123883 general revenues for the county or supporting criminal and 123884 administrative justice services in the county, or both, and to pay 123885 the expenses of administering such levy, any county may levy a tax 123886 at the rate of not more than one per cent at any multiple of 123887 one-fourth of one per cent upon every retail sale made in the 123888 county, except sales of watercraft and outboard motors required to 123889 be titled pursuant to Chapter 1548. of the Revised Code and sales 123890 of motor vehicles, and may increase the rate of an existing tax to 123891 not more than one per cent at any multiple of one-fourth of one 123892 per cent. 123893

The tax shall be levied and the rate increased pursuant to a 123894 resolution of the board of county commissioners. The resolution 123895 shall state the purpose for which the tax is to be levied and the 123896 number of years for which the tax is to be levied, or that it is 123897 for a continuing period of time. If the tax is to be levied for 123898 the purpose of providing additional general revenues and for the 123899 purpose of supporting criminal and administrative justice 123900 services, the resolution shall state the rate or amount of the tax 123901 to be apportioned to each such purpose. The rate or amount may be 123902 different for each year the tax is to be levied, but the rates or 123903 amounts actually apportioned each year shall not be different from 123904 that stated in the resolution for that year. If the resolution is 123905 adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate 123906 preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, it must 123907 receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of 123908 county commissioners and shall state the reasons for such 123909 necessity. The board shall deliver a certified copy of the 123910 resolution to the tax commissioner, not later than the sixty-fifth 123911 day prior to the date on which the tax is to become effective, 123912 which shall be the first day of the calendar quarter. 123913

Prior to the adoption of any resolution under this section, 123914 the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public 123915 hearings on the resolution, the second hearing to be not less than 123916 three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, 123917 time, and place of the hearings shall be given by publication in a 123918 newspaper of general circulation in the county, or as provided in 123919 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, once a week on the same day of 123920 the week for two consecutive weeks, the second publication being 123921 not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first 123922 hearing. 123923

Except as provided in division (B)(3) of this section, the 123924 resolution shall be subject to a referendum as provided in 123925 sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code. 123926

If a petition for a referendum is filed, the county auditor 123927 with whom the petition was filed shall, within five days, notify 123928 the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the 123929 filing of the petition by certified mail. If the board of 123930 elections with which the petition was filed declares the petition 123931 invalid, the board of elections, within five days, shall notify 123932 the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of that 123933 declaration by certified mail. If the petition is declared to be 123934 invalid, the effective date of the tax or increased rate of tax 123935 levied by this section shall be the first day of a calendar 123936 quarter following the expiration of sixty-five days from the date 123937 the commissioner receives notice from the board of elections that 123938 the petition is invalid. 123939

(B)(1) A resolution that is not adopted as an emergency 123940 measure may direct the board of elections to submit the question 123941 of levying the tax or increasing the rate of tax to the electors 123942 of the county at a special election held on the date specified by 123943 the board of county commissioners in the resolution, provided that 123944 the election occurs not less than ninety days after a certified 123945 copy of such resolution is transmitted to the board of elections 123946 and the election is not held in February or August of any year. 123947 Upon transmission of the resolution to the board of elections, the 123948 board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in 123949 writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. No 123950 resolution adopted under this division shall go into effect unless 123951 approved by a majority of those voting upon it, and, except as 123952 provided in division (B)(3) of this section, shall become 123953 effective on the first day of a calendar quarter following the 123954 expiration of sixty-five days from the date the tax commissioner 123955 receives notice from the board of elections of the affirmative 123956 vote. 123957

(2) A resolution that is adopted as an emergency measure 123958 shall go into effect as provided in division (A) of this section, 123959 but may direct the board of elections to submit the question of 123960 repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax to the 123961 electors of the county at the next general election in the county 123962 occurring not less than ninety days after a certified copy of the 123963 resolution is transmitted to the board of elections. Upon 123964 transmission of the resolution to the board of elections, the 123965 board of county commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in 123966 writing of the levy question to be submitted to the electors. The 123967 ballot question shall be the same as that prescribed in section 123968 5739.022 of the Revised Code. The board of elections shall notify 123969
result of the election immediately after the result has been 123971 declared. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the 123972 question of repealing the tax or increase in the rate of the tax 123973 vote for repeal of the tax or repeal of the increase, the board of 123974 county commissioners, on the first day of a calendar quarter 123975 following the expiration of sixty-five days after the date the 123976 board and tax commissioner receive notice of the result of the 123977 election, shall, in the case of a repeal of the tax, cease to levy 123978 the tax, or, in the case of a repeal of an increase in the rate of 123979 the tax, cease to levy the increased rate and levy the tax at the 123980 rate at which it was imposed immediately prior to the increase in 123981 rate. 123982

(3) If a vendor that is registered with the central 123983 electronic registration system provided for in section 5740.05 of 123984
the Revised Code makes a sale in this state by printed catalog and 123985
the consumer computed the tax on the sale based on local rates 123986 published in the catalog, any tax levied or repealed or rate 123987 changed under this section shall not apply to such a sale until 123988
the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of 123989 one hundred twenty days from the date of notice by the tax 123990 commissioner pursuant to division (H) of this section. 123991

(C) If a resolution is rejected at a referendum or if a 123992 resolution adopted after January 1, 1982, as an emergency measure 123993 is repealed by the electors pursuant to division (B)(2) of this 123994 section or section 5739.022 of the Revised Code, then for one year 123995 after the date of the election at which the resolution was 123996 rejected or repealed the board of county commissioners may not 123997 adopt any resolution authorized by this section as an emergency 123998 measure. 123999

(D) The board of county commissioners, at any time while a 124000 tax levied under this section is in effect, may by resolution 124001 reduce the rate at which the tax is levied to a lower rate 124002 authorized by this section. Any reduction in the rate at which the 124003 tax is levied shall be made effective on the first day of a 124004 calendar quarter next following the sixty-fifth day after a 124005 certified copy of the resolution is delivered to the tax 124006 commissioner. 124007

(E) The tax on every retail sale subject to a tax levied 124008 pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the tax levied by 124009 section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and any tax levied pursuant to 124010 section 5739.023 or 5739.026 of the Revised Code. 124011

A county that levies a tax pursuant to this section shall 124012 levy a tax at the same rate pursuant to section 5741.021 of the 124013
Revised Code. 124014

The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected 124015 pursuant to section 5739.025 of the Revised Code. If the 124016 additional tax or some portion thereof is levied for the purpose 124017 of criminal and administrative justice services, the revenue from 124018 the tax, or the amount or rate apportioned to that purpose, shall 124019 be credited to a special fund created in the county treasury for 124020 receipt of that revenue. 124021

Any tax levied pursuant to this section is subject to the 124022 exemptions provided in section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and in 124023 addition shall not be applicable to sales not within the taxing 124024 power of a county under the Constitution of the United States or 124025
the Ohio Constitution. 124026

(F) For purposes of this section, a copy of a resolution is 124027
"certified" when it contains a written statement attesting that 124028 the copy is a true and exact reproduction of the original 124029
resolution. 124030

(G) If a board of commissioners intends to adopt a resolution 124031 to levy a tax in whole or in part for the purpose of criminal and 124032 administrative justice services, the board shall prepare and make 124033 available at the first public hearing at which the resolution is 124034 considered a statement containing the following information: 124035

(1) For each of the two preceding fiscal years, the amount of 124036 expenditures made by the county from the county general fund for 124037 the purpose of criminal and administrative justice services; 124038

(2) For the fiscal year in which the resolution is adopted, 124039 the board's estimate of the amount of expenditures to be made by 124040 the county from the county general fund for the purpose of 124041 criminal and administrative justice services; 124042

(3) For each of the two fiscal years after the fiscal year in 124043 which the resolution is adopted, the board's preliminary plan for 124044 expenditures to be made from the county general fund for the 124045 purpose of criminal and administrative justice services, both 124046 under the assumption that the tax will be imposed for that purpose 124047 and under the assumption that the tax would not be imposed for 124048 that purpose, and for expenditures to be made from the special 124049 fund created under division (E) of this section under the 124050 assumption that the tax will be imposed for that purpose. 124051

The board shall prepare the statement and the preliminary 124052 plan using the best information available to the board at the time 124053 the statement is prepared. Neither the statement nor the 124054 preliminary plan shall be used as a basis to challenge the 124055 validity of the tax in any court of competent jurisdiction, nor 124056 shall the statement or preliminary plan limit the authority of the 124057 board to appropriate, pursuant to section 5705.38 of the Revised 124058 Code, an amount different from that specified in the preliminary 124059 plan. 124060

(H) Upon receipt from a board of county commissioners of a 124061 certified copy of a resolution required by division (A) or (D) of 124062 this section, or from the board of elections of a notice of the 124063 results of an election required by division (A) or (B)(1) or (2) 124064 of this section, the tax commissioner shall provide notice of a 124065 tax rate change in a manner that is reasonably accessible to all 124066

The question covered by the petition shall be submitted as a 124130 separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 124131 with any other proposition submitted at the same election other than the election of officers.

(B) If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question of repeal of either a county permissive tax or an increase in the rate of a county permissive tax approve the repeal, the board of elections shall notify the board of county commissioners and the tax commissioner of the result of the election immediately after the result has been declared. commissioners shall not petition for the transfer of money from 124209 such special fund, and the tax commissioner shall not approve such 124210

If the tax is levied or the rate increased for such purpose 124212 for more than five years, the board of county commissioners also 124213 shall levy the tax or increase the rate of the tax for one or more 124214 of the purposes described in divisions (A)(1) to (5) of this 124215 from the tax each year in the manner required by division (C) of 124217

this section. 124218

(7) To provide additional revenue for the operation or 124219 division (F) of section 2921.01 of the Revised Code; 124221

(8) To provide revenue to finance the construction or 124222 renovation of a sports facility, but only if the tax is levied for 124223

the Revised Code. 124243

The rate of tax shall be a multiple of one-fourth of one per 124244 cent, unless a portion of the rate of an existing tax levied under 124245 section 5739.023 of the Revised Code has been reduced, and the 124246 rate of tax levied under this section has been increased, pursuant 124247 to section 5739.028 of the Revised Code, in which case the 124248 aggregate of the rates of tax levied under this section and 124249 section 5739.023 of the Revised Code shall be a multiple of 124250 one-fourth of one per cent. The tax shall be levied and the rate 124251 members of the board. The board shall deliver a certified copy of 124253 the resolution to the tax commissioner, not later than the 124254 sixty-fifth day prior to the date on which the tax is to become 124255 effective, which shall be the first day of a calendar quarter. 124256

Prior to the adoption of any resolution to levy the tax or to increase the rate of tax exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section, the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings on the resolution, the second hearing to be no fewer than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of the hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, ~~the.~~ The second publication being shall be no fewer than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. If the resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, it must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of county commissioners and shall state the reasons for the necessity.

If the tax is for more than one of the purposes set forth in divisions (A)(1) to (7), (9), and (10) of this section, or is exclusively for one of the purposes set forth in division (A)(1), (2), (4), (5), (6), (7), (9), or (10) of this section, the resolution shall not go into effect unless it is approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question of the tax.

(B) The board of county commissioners shall adopt a resolution under section 351.02 of the Revised Code creating the convention facilities authority, or under section 307.283 of the Revised Code creating the community improvements board, before adopting a resolution levying a tax for the purpose of a convention facilities authority under division (A)(1) of this section or for the purpose of a community improvements board under division (A)(4) of this section.

(2) Subsequent to holding a public hearing on the proposed amendment, the board of county commissioners may amend the allocation method established under division (C)(1) of this section for any year, if the amendment is approved by the governing board of each entity whose allocation for the year would be reduced by the proposed amendment. In the case of a tax that is levied for a continuing period of time, the board may not so amend the allocation method for any year before the sixth year that the tax is in effect.

(a) If the additional revenues provided to the convention facilities authority are pledged by the authority for the payment of convention facilities authority revenue bonds for as long as such bonds are outstanding, no reduction of the authority's allocation of the tax shall be made for any year except to the extent that the reduced authority allocation, when combined with the authority's other revenues pledged for that purpose, is sufficient to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds. 124321

(b) If the additional revenues provided to the county are 124322 pledged by the county for the payment of bonds or notes described 124323 bonds or notes are outstanding, no reduction of the county's or 124325 the community improvements board's allocation of the tax shall be 124326 made for any year, except to the extent that the reduced county or 124327 community improvements board allocation is sufficient to meet the 124328 debt service requirements for that year on such bonds or notes. 124329

(c) If the additional revenues provided to the transit 124330 authority are pledged by the authority for the payment of revenue 124331 bonds issued under section 306.37 of the Revised Code, for as long 124332 as such bonds are outstanding, no reduction of the authority's 124333 allocation of tax shall be made for any year, except to the extent 124334 that the authority's reduced allocation, when combined with the 124335 authority's other revenues pledged for that purpose, is sufficient 124336 to meet the debt service requirements for that year on such bonds. 124337

(d) If the additional revenues provided to the county are 124338 pledged by the county for the payment of bonds or notes issued 124339 under section 133.60 of the Revised Code, for so long as the bonds 124340 or notes are outstanding, no reduction of the county's allocation 124341 of the tax shall be made for any year, except to the extent that 124342 the reduced county allocation is sufficient to meet the debt 124343 service requirements for that year on the bonds or notes. 124344

(D)(1) The resolution levying the tax or increasing the rate 124345 of tax shall state the rate of the tax or the rate of the 124346 increase; the purpose or purposes for which it is to be levied; 124347 the number of years for which it is to be levied or that it is for 124348 a continuing period of time; the allocation method required by 124349 division (C) of this section; and if required to be submitted to 124350 the electors of the county under division (A) of this section, the 124351 date of the election at which the proposal shall be submitted to 124352 the electors of the county, which shall be not less than ninety 124353 days after the certification of a copy of the resolution to the 124354 board of elections and, if the tax is to be levied exclusively for 124355 the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this section, shall 124356 not occur in February or August of any year. Upon certification of 124357 the resolution to the board of elections, the board of county 124358 commissioners shall notify the tax commissioner in writing of the 124359 levy question to be submitted to the electors. If approved by a 124360 majority of the electors, the tax shall become effective on the 124361 first day of a calendar quarter next following the sixty-fifth day 124362 following the date the board of county commissioners and tax 124363 commissioner receive from the board of elections the certification 124364 of the results of the election, except as provided in division (E) 124365

of this section. 124366

(2)(a) A resolution specifying that the tax is to be used 124367 exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this 124368 section that is not adopted as an emergency measure may direct the 124369 board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax or 124370 increasing the rate of the tax to the electors of the county at a 124371 special election held on the date specified by the board of county 124372 commissioners in the resolution, provided that the election occurs 124373 not less than ninety days after the resolution is certified to the 124374 board of elections and the election is not held in February or 124375 August of any year. Upon certification of the resolution to the 124376 board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify 124377 the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be 124378 submitted to the electors. No resolution adopted under division 124379 (D)(2)(a) of this section shall go into effect unless approved by 124380 a majority of those voting upon it and, except as provided in 124381 division (E) of this section, not until the first day of a 124382 calendar quarter following the expiration of sixty-five days from 124383 the date the tax commissioner receives notice from the board of 124384 elections of the affirmative vote. 124385

(b) A resolution specifying that the tax is to be used 124386 exclusively for the purpose set forth in division (A)(3) of this 124387 section that is adopted as an emergency measure shall become 124388 effective as provided in division (A) of this section, but may 124389 direct the board of elections to submit the question of repealing 124390 the tax or increase in the rate of the tax to the electors of the 124391 county at the next general election in the county occurring not 124392 less than ninety days after the resolution is certified to the 124393 board of elections. Upon certification of the resolution to the 124394 board of elections, the board of county commissioners shall notify 124395
the tax commissioner in writing of the levy question to be 124396 submitted to the electors. The ballot question shall be the same 124397 as that prescribed in section 5739.022 of the Revised Code. The 124398 board of elections shall notify the board of county commissioners 124399 and the tax commissioner of the result of the election immediately 124400 after the result has been declared. If a majority of the qualified 124401 electors voting on the question of repealing the tax or increase 124402 in the rate of the tax vote for repeal of the tax or repeal of the 124403 increase, the board of county commissioners, on the first day of a 124404 calendar quarter following the expiration of sixty-five days after 124405 the date the board and tax commissioner received notice of the 124406 result of the election, shall, in the case of a repeal of the tax, 124407 cease to levy the tax, or, in the case of a repeal of an increase 124408 in the rate of the tax, cease to levy the increased rate and levy 124409 the tax at the rate at which it was imposed immediately prior to 124410 the increase in rate. 124411

(c) A board of county commissioners, by resolution, may 124412 reduce the rate of a tax levied exclusively for the purpose set 124413 forth in division (A)(3) of this section to a lower rate 124414 authorized by this section. Any such reduction shall be made 124415 effective on the first day of the calendar quarter next following 124416 the sixty-fifth day after the tax commissioner receives a 124417 certified copy of the resolution from the board. 124418

(E) If a vendor that is registered with the central 124419 electronic registration system provided for in section 5740.05 of 124420
the Revised Code makes a sale in this state by printed catalog and 124421
the consumer computed the tax on the sale based on local rates 124422
published in the catalog, any tax levied or repealed or rate 124423 changed under this section shall not apply to such a sale until 124424
the first day of a calendar quarter following the expiration of 124425
one hundred twenty days from the date of notice by the tax 124426 commissioner pursuant to division (G) of this section. 124427

(F) The tax levied pursuant to this section shall be in 124428 addition to the tax levied by section 5739.02 of the Revised Code 124429 and any tax levied pursuant to section 5739.021 or 5739.023 of the 124430
Revised Code. 124431

A county that levies a tax pursuant to this section shall 124432
levy a tax at the same rate pursuant to section 5741.023 of the 124433
Revised Code. 124434

The additional tax levied by the county shall be collected 124435 pursuant to section 5739.025 of the Revised Code. 124436

exemptions provided in section 5739.02 of the Revised Code and in 124438 addition shall not be applicable to sales not within the taxing 124439
the Ohio Constitution. 124441

(G) Upon receipt from a board of county commissioners of a 124442 certified copy of a resolution required by division (A) of this 124443 section, or from the board of elections a notice of the results of 124444 an election required by division (D)(1), (2)(a), (b), or (c) of 124445 this section, the tax commissioner shall provide notice of a tax 124446 rate change in a manner that is reasonably accessible to all 124447 affected vendors. The commissioner shall provide this notice at 124448 least sixty days prior to the effective date of the rate change. 124449

The commissioner, by rule, may establish the method by which 124450 notice will be provided. 124451

Sec. 5739.07. (A) When, pursuant to this chapter, a vendor 124452 has paid taxes to the treasurer of state or the treasurer of 124453 state's agent, or to the tax commissioner or the commissioner's 124454 the vendor has illegally or erroneously billed the consumer but 124458 has not collected the taxes from the consumer. 124459

(B) When, pursuant to this chapter, a consumer has paid taxes 124460 directly to the treasurer of state or the treasurer of state's 124461

(C) The commissioner shall refund to the consumer taxes paid 124466 illegally or erroneously to a vendor only if: 124467

(1) The commissioner has not refunded the tax to the vendor 124468 and the vendor has not refunded the tax to the consumer; or 124469

(2) The consumer has received a refund from a manufacturer or 124470 other person, other than the vendor, of the full purchase price, 124471

The commissioner may require the consumer to obtain or the 124474 vendor to provide a written statement confirming that the vendor 124475

(A)(3) of section 5739.16 of the Revised Code. If the time 124483 limitation is waived, the refund application period shall be 124484 extended for the same period as the waiver. 124485

(E) An application for refund shall be filed in accordance 124486 with division (D) of this section unless a person is subject to an 124487 assessment that is subject to the time limit of division (B) of 124488 section 5703.58 of the Revised Code for a tax not reported and 124489 paid between the four-year time limit described in division (D) of 124490 this section and the seven-year limit described in division (B) of 124491 section 5703.58 of the Revised Code, in which case the person may 124492 file an application for refund for the year in which the 124493 assessment is issued or any following year. 124494

(F) On the filing of an application for a refund, the 124495 commissioner shall determine the amount of refund to which the 124496 applicant is entitled. If the amount is not less than that 124497 claimed, the commissioner shall certify that amount to the 124498 director of budget and management and the treasurer of state for 124499 payment from the tax refund fund created by section 5703.052 of 124500 the Revised Code. If the amount is less than that claimed, the 124501 commissioner shall proceed in accordance with section 5703.70 of 124502

~~(F)~~(G) When a refund is granted under this section, it shall 124504 include interest thereon as provided by section 5739.132 of the 124505
Revised Code. 124506

Sec. 5739.101. (A) The legislative authority of a municipal 124507 corporation, by ordinance, or of a township, by resolution, may 124508 declare the municipal corporation or township to be a resort area 124509 for the purposes of this section, if all of the following criteria 124510 are met: 124511

(1) According to statistics published by the federal 124512 government based on data compiled during the most recent decennial 124513 census of the United States, at least sixty-two per cent of total 124514 housing units in the municipal corporation or township are 124515 classified as "for seasonal, recreational, or occasional use"; 124516

(2) Entertainment and recreation facilities are provided 124517 within the municipal corporation or township that are primarily 124518 intended to provide seasonal leisure time activities for persons 124519 other than permanent residents of the municipal corporation or 124520 township; 124521

(3) The municipal corporation or township experiences 124522 seasonal peaks of employment and demand for government services as 124523 a direct result of the seasonal population increase. 124524

(B) For the purpose of providing revenue for its general 124525 fund, the legislative authority of a municipal corporation or 124526 township, in its ordinance or resolution declaring itself a resort 124527 area under this section, may levy a tax on the privilege of 124528 engaging in the business of either of the following: 124529

(1) Making sales in the municipal corporation or township, 124530 whether wholesale or retail, but including sales of food only to 124531 the extent such sales are subject to the tax levied under section 124532
5739.02 of the Revised Code; 124533

(2) Intrastate transportation of passengers or property 124534 primarily to or from the municipal corporation or township by a 124535 railroad, watercraft, or motor vehicle subject to regulation by 124536 the public utilities commission, except not including 124537 transportation of passengers as part of a tour or cruise in which 124538 the passengers will stay in the municipal corporation or township 124539 for no more than one hour. 124540

The tax is imposed upon and shall be paid by the person 124541 making the sales or transporting the passengers or property. The 124542 rate of the tax shall be one-half, one, or one and one-half per 124543 cent of the person's gross receipts derived from making the sales 124544 or transporting the passengers or property to or from the 124545 municipal corporation or township. 124546

(C) The tax shall take effect on the first day of the month 124547 that begins at least sixty days after the effective date of the 124548 ordinance or resolution in which it is levied. The legislative 124549 authority shall certify copies of the ordinance or resolution to 124550 the tax commissioner and treasurer of state within five days after 124551 its adoption. In addition, one time each week during the two weeks 124552 following the adoption of the ordinance or resolution, the 124553 legislative authority shall cause to be published in a newspaper 124554 of general circulation in the municipal corporation or township or 124555 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, a notice 124556 explaining the tax and stating the rate of the tax, the date it 124557 will take effect, and that persons subject to the tax must 124558 register with the tax commissioner under section 5739.103 of the 124559
Revised Code. 124560

(D) No more than once a year, and subject to the rates 124561 prescribed in division (B) of this section, the legislative 124562 authority of the municipal corporation or township, by ordinance 124563 or resolution, may increase or decrease the rate of a tax levied 124564 under this section. The legislative authority, by ordinance or 124565 resolution, at any time may repeal such a tax. The legislative 124566 authority shall certify to the tax commissioner and treasurer of 124567 state copies of the ordinance or resolution repealing or changing 124568 the rate of the tax within five days after its adoption. In 124569 addition, one time each week during the two weeks following the 124570 adoption of the ordinance or resolution, the legislative authority 124571 shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation 124572 in the municipal corporation or township or as provided in section 124573

7.16 of the Revised Code, notice of the repeal or change. 124574

Sec. 5739.19. The tax commissioner may revoke any retail 124575 vendor's license upon ascertaining that the vendor has no need for 124576 the license because the vendor is not engaged in making taxable 124577 retail sales. Notice of the revocation shall be delivered to the 124578 vendor personally or by certified mail, ~~return receipt requested~~ 124579 or by an alternative delivery service as authorized under section 124580 5703.37 of the Revised Code. The revocation shall be effective on 124581 the first day of the month following the expiration of fifteen 124582 days after the vendor received the notice of the revocation. 124583

The revocation of the vendor's license shall be stayed if, 124584 within fifteen days after receiving notice of the revocation, the 124585 vendor objects, in writing, to the revocation. The commissioner 124586 shall consider the written objections of the vendor and issue a 124587 final determination on the revocation of the vendor's license. The 124588 commissioner's final determination may be appealed to the board of 124589 tax appeals pursuant to section 5717.02 of the Revised Code. The 124590 revocation shall be effective on the first day of the month 124591 following the expiration of all time limits for appeal. 124592

Sec. 5739.30. (A) No person, including any officer, employee, 124593 or trustee of a corporation or business trust, shall fail to file 124594 any return or report required to be filed by this chapter, or file 124595 or cause to be filed any incomplete, false or fraudulent return, 124596 report, or statement, or aid or abet another in the filing of any 124597 false or fraudulent return, report, or statement. 124598

(B) If any vendor required to file monthly returns under 124600 section 5739.12 of the Revised Code fails, on two consecutive 124601 months or on three or more months within a twelve-month period, to 124602 file such returns when due or to pay the tax thereon, or if any 124603 vendor authorized by the tax commissioner to file semiannual 124604 returns fails on two or more occasions within a twenty-four month 124605 period, to file such returns when due or to pay the tax due 124606 thereon, the commissioner may do any of the following: 124607

(1) Require the vendor to furnish security in an amount equal 124608 to the average tax liability of the vendor for a period of one 124609 year, as determined by the commissioner from a review of returns 124610 or other information pertaining to the vendor, which amount shall 124611 in no event be less than one thousand dollars. The security may be 124612 in the form of a corporate surety bond, satisfactory to the 124613 commissioner, conditioned upon payment of the tax due with the 124614 returns from the vendor. The security shall be filed within ten 124615 days following the vendor's receipt of the notice from the 124616 commissioner of its requirements. 124617

(2) Suspend the license issued to the vendor pursuant to 124618 section 5739.17 of the Revised Code. The suspension shall be 124619 effective ten days after service of written notice to the vendor 124620 of the commissioner's intention to do so. The notice shall be 124621 served upon the vendor personally ~~or~~, by certified mail, or by an 124622 alternative delivery service as authorized under section 5703.37 124623 of the Revised Code. On the first day of the suspension, the 124624 commissioner shall cause to be posted, at every public entrance of 124625 the vendor's premises, a notice identifying the vendor and the 124626 location and informing the public that the vendor's license is 124627 under suspension and that no retail sales may be transacted at 124628 that location. No person, other than the commissioner or the 124629 commissioner's agent or employee, shall remove, cover, or deface 124630 the posted notice. No license which has been suspended under this 124631 section shall be reinstated, and no posted notice shall be 124632 removed, until the vendor has filed complete and correct returns 124633 for all periods in which no return had been filed and paid the 124634 full amount of the tax, penalties, and other charges due on those 124635 returns. 124636

A corporate surety bond filed under this section shall be 124637 returned to the vendor if, for a period of twelve consecutive 124638 months following the date the bond was filed, the vendor has filed 124639 all returns and remitted payment with them within the time 124640 prescribed in section 5739.12 of the Revised Code. 124641

Sec. 5747.01. Except as otherwise expressly provided or 124642 clearly appearing from the context, any term used in this chapter 124643 that is not otherwise defined in this section has the same meaning 124644 as when used in a comparable context in the laws of the United 124645 States relating to federal income taxes or if not used in a 124646 comparable context in those laws, has the same meaning as in 124647 section 5733.40 of the Revised Code. Any reference in this chapter 124648 to the Internal Revenue Code includes other laws of the United 124649 States relating to federal income taxes. 124650

As used in this chapter: 124651

(A) "Adjusted gross income" or "Ohio adjusted gross income" 124652 means federal adjusted gross income, as defined and used in the 124653 Internal Revenue Code, adjusted as provided in this section: 124654

(1) Add interest or dividends on obligations or securities of 124655 any state or of any political subdivision or authority of any 124656 state, other than this state and its subdivisions and authorities. 124657

(2) Add interest or dividends on obligations of any 124658 authority, commission, instrumentality, territory, or possession 124659 of the United States to the extent that the interest or dividends 124660 are exempt from federal income taxes but not from state income 124661 taxes. 124662

(3) Deduct interest or dividends on obligations of the United 124663 States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, 124664 commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent 124665 that the interest or dividends are included in federal adjusted gross income but exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States.

(4) Deduct disability and survivor's benefits to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income.

(5) Deduct benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income under section 86 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer who is a beneficiary of a trust that makes an accumulation distribution as defined in section 665 of the Internal Revenue Code, add, for the beneficiary's taxable years beginning before 2002, the portion, if any, of such distribution that does not exceed the undistributed net income of the trust for the three taxable years preceding the taxable year in which the distribution is made to the extent that the portion was not included in the trust's taxable income for any of the trust's taxable years beginning in 2002 or thereafter.

"Undistributed net income of a trust" means the taxable income of the trust increased by (a)(i) the additions to adjusted gross income required under division (A) of this section and (ii) the personal exemptions allowed to the trust pursuant to section 642(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, and decreased by (b)(i) the deductions to adjusted gross income required under division (A) of this section, (ii) the amount of federal income taxes attributable to such income, and (iii) the amount of taxable income that has been included in the adjusted gross income of a beneficiary by reason of a prior accumulation distribution. Any undistributed net income included in the adjusted gross income of a beneficiary shall reduce the undistributed net income of the trust commencing with the earliest years of the accumulation period.

(7) Deduct the amount of wages and salaries, if any, not otherwise allowable as a deduction but that would have been 124698 allowable as a deduction in computing federal adjusted gross 124699 income for the taxable year, had the targeted jobs credit allowed 124700 and determined under sections 38, 51, and 52 of the Internal 124701 Revenue Code not been in effect. 124702

(8) Deduct any interest or interest equivalent on public 124703 obligations and purchase obligations to the extent that the 124704 interest or interest equivalent is included in federal adjusted 124705 gross income. 124706

(9) Add any loss or deduct any gain resulting from the sale, 124707 exchange, or other disposition of public obligations to the extent 124708 that the loss has been deducted or the gain has been included in 124709 computing federal adjusted gross income. 124710

(10) Deduct or add amounts, as provided under section 5747.70 124711 of the Revised Code, related to contributions to variable college 124712 savings program accounts made or tuition units purchased pursuant 124713 to Chapter 3334. of the Revised Code. 124714

(11)(a) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise allowable as a 124715 deduction or exclusion in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross 124716 income for the taxable year, the amount the taxpayer paid during 124717 the taxable year for medical care insurance and qualified 124718 long-term care insurance for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, 124719 and dependents. No deduction for medical care insurance under 124720 division (A)(11) of this section shall be allowed either to any 124721 taxpayer who is eligible to participate in any subsidized health 124722 plan maintained by any employer of the taxpayer or of the 124723 taxpayer's spouse, or to any taxpayer who is entitled to, or on 124724 application would be entitled to, benefits under part A of Title 124725 XVIII of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C. 124726
301, as amended. For the purposes of division (A)(11)(a) of this 124727 section, "subsidized health plan" means a health plan for which 124728 the employer pays any portion of the plan's cost. The deduction 124729 allowed under division (A)(11)(a) of this section shall be the net 124730 of any related premium refunds, related premium reimbursements, or 124731 related insurance premium dividends received during the taxable 124732

year. 124733

(b) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded 124734 in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income during the 124735 taxable year, the amount the taxpayer paid during the taxable 124736 year, not compensated for by any insurance or otherwise, for 124737 medical care of the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, and 124738 dependents, to the extent the expenses exceed seven and one-half 124739 per cent of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income. 124740

(c) Deduct, to the extent not otherwise deducted or excluded 124741 in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross income, any amount 124742 included in federal adjusted gross income under section 105 or not 124743 excluded under section 106 of the Internal Revenue Code solely 124744 because it relates to an accident and health plan for a person who 124745 otherwise would be a "qualifying relative" and thus a "dependent" 124746 under section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code but for the fact 124747 that the person fails to meet the income and support limitations 124748 under section 152(d)(1)(B) and (C) of the Internal Revenue Code. 124749

(d) For purposes of division (A)(11) of this section, 124750
"medical care" has the meaning given in section 213 of the 124751 Internal Revenue Code, subject to the special rules, limitations, 124752 and exclusions set forth therein, and "qualified long-term care" 124753 has the same meaning given in section 7702B(c) of the Internal 124754 Revenue Code. Solely for purposes of divisions (A)(11)(a) and (c) 124755 of this section, "dependent" includes a person who otherwise would 124756 be a "qualifying relative" and thus a "dependent" under section 124757 152 of the Internal Revenue Code but for the fact that the person 124758 fails to meet the income and support limitations under section 124759 152(d)(1)(B) and (C) of the Internal Revenue Code. 124760

(12)(a) Deduct any amount included in federal adjusted gross 124761 income solely because the amount represents a reimbursement or 124762 refund of expenses that in any year the taxpayer had deducted as 124763 an itemized deduction pursuant to section 63 of the Internal 124764 Revenue Code and applicable United States department of the 124765 treasury regulations. The deduction otherwise allowed under 124766 division (A)(12)(a) of this section shall be reduced to the extent 124767 the reimbursement is attributable to an amount the taxpayer 124768 deducted under this section in any taxable year. 124769

(b) Add any amount not otherwise included in Ohio adjusted 124770 gross income for any taxable year to the extent that the amount is 124771 attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of any amount 124772 deducted or excluded in computing federal or Ohio adjusted gross 124773 income in any taxable year. 124774

(13) Deduct any portion of the deduction described in section 124775 1341(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, for repaying previously 124776 reported income received under a claim of right, that meets both 124777 of the following requirements: 124778

(a) It is allowable for repayment of an item that was 124779 included in the taxpayer's adjusted gross income for a prior 124780 taxable year and did not qualify for a credit under division (A) 124781 or (B) of section 5747.05 of the Revised Code for that year; 124782

(b) It does not otherwise reduce the taxpayer's adjusted 124783 gross income for the current or any other taxable year. 124784

(14) Deduct an amount equal to the deposits made to, and net 124785 investment earnings of, a medical savings account during the 124786 taxable year, in accordance with section 3924.66 of the Revised 124787 Code. The deduction allowed by division (A)(14) of this section 124788 does not apply to medical savings account deposits and earnings 124789 otherwise deducted or excluded for the current or any other 124790 taxable year from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income. 124791

(15)(a) Add an amount equal to the funds withdrawn from a 124792 medical savings account during the taxable year, and the net 124793 investment earnings on those funds, when the funds withdrawn were 124794 used for any purpose other than to reimburse an account holder 124795 for, or to pay, eligible medical expenses, in accordance with 124796

section 3924.66 of the Revised Code; 124797

(b) Add the amounts distributed from a medical savings 124798 account under division (A)(2) of section 3924.68 of the Revised 124799 Code during the taxable year. 124800

(16) Add any amount claimed as a credit under section 124801 5747.059 of the Revised Code to the extent that such amount 124802 satisfies either of the following: 124803

(a) The amount was deducted or excluded from the computation 124804 of the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income as required to be 124805 reported for the taxpayer's taxable year under the Internal 124806 Revenue Code; 124807

(b) The amount resulted in a reduction of the taxpayer's 124808 federal adjusted gross income as required to be reported for any 124809 of the taxpayer's taxable years under the Internal Revenue Code. 124810

(17) Deduct the amount contributed by the taxpayer to an 124811 individual development account program established by a county 124812 department of job and family services pursuant to sections 329.11 124813 to 329.14 of the Revised Code for the purpose of matching funds 124814 deposited by program participants. On request of the tax 124815 commissioner, the taxpayer shall provide any information that, in 124816 the tax commissioner's opinion, is necessary to establish the 124817 amount deducted under division (A)(17) of this section. 124818

(18) Beginning in taxable year 2001 but not for any taxable 124819 year beginning after December 31, 2005, if the taxpayer is married 124820 and files a joint return and the combined federal adjusted gross 124821 income of the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse for the taxable 124822 year does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, or if the 124823 taxpayer is single and has a federal adjusted gross income for the 124824 taxable year not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, deduct amounts 124825 paid during the taxable year for qualified tuition and fees paid 124826 to an eligible institution for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's 124827 spouse, or any dependent of the taxpayer, who is a resident of 124828 this state and is enrolled in or attending a program that 124829 culminates in a degree or diploma at an eligible institution. The 124830 deduction may be claimed only to the extent that qualified tuition 124831 and fees are not otherwise deducted or excluded for any taxable 124832 year from federal or Ohio adjusted gross income. The deduction may 124833 not be claimed for educational expenses for which the taxpayer 124834 claims a credit under section 5747.27 of the Revised Code. 124835

(19) Add any reimbursement received during the taxable year 124836 of any amount the taxpayer deducted under division (A)(18) of this 124837 section in any previous taxable year to the extent the amount is 124838 not otherwise included in Ohio adjusted gross income. 124839

(20)(a)(i) Add five-sixths of the amount of depreciation 124840 expense allowed by subsection (k) of section 168 of the Internal 124841 Revenue Code, including the taxpayer's proportionate or 124842 distributive share of the amount of depreciation expense allowed 124843 by that subsection to a pass-through entity in which the taxpayer 124844 has a direct or indirect ownership interest. 124845

(ii) Add five-sixths of the amount of qualifying section 179 124846 depreciation expense, including a person's proportionate or 124847 distributive share of the amount of qualifying section 179 124848 depreciation expense allowed to any pass-through entity in which 124849 the person has a direct or indirect ownership. For the purposes of 124850 this division, "qualifying section 179 depreciation expense" means 124851 the difference between (I) the amount of depreciation expense 124852 directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under section 179 124853 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (II) the amount of depreciation 124854 expense directly or indirectly allowed to the taxpayer under 124855 section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code as that section existed 124856 on December 31, 2002. 124857

The tax commissioner, under procedures established by the 124858 commissioner, may waive the add-backs related to a pass-through 124859 entity if the taxpayer owns, directly or indirectly, less than 124860 five per cent of the pass-through entity. 124861

(b) Nothing in division (A)(20) of this section shall be 124862 construed to adjust or modify the adjusted basis of any asset. 124863

(c) To the extent the add-back required under division 124864
(A)(20)(a) of this section is attributable to property generating 124865 nonbusiness income or loss allocated under section 5747.20 of the 124866 Revised Code, the add-back shall be situated to the same location 124867 as the nonbusiness income or loss generated by the property for 124868 the purpose of determining the credit under division (A) of 124869 section 5747.05 of the Revised Code. Otherwise, the add-back shall 124870 be apportioned, subject to one or more of the four alternative 124871 methods of apportionment enumerated in section 5747.21 of the 124872
Revised Code. 124873

(d) For the purposes of division (A) of this section, net 124874 operating loss carryback and carryforward shall not include 124875 five-sixths of the allowance of any net operating loss deduction 124876 carryback or carryforward to the taxable year to the extent such 124877 loss resulted from depreciation allowed by section 168(k) of the 124878 Internal Revenue Code and by the qualifying section 179 124879 depreciation expense amount. 124880 to the same location. Otherwise, the add-back shall be apportioned 124888 using the apportionment factors for the taxable year in which the 124889

(A)(20)(d) of this section does not apply. 124899 taxpayer's military service, the deduction allowed under this 124950 division shall include only that portion of such retirement income 124951 that is attributable to the taxpayer's military service, to the 124952

The denominator of the revised qualifying ratio is the fair market value of all the trust's assets immediately after the subsequent transfer, net of any related liabilities.

(iii) Whether a transfer to the trust is by or from any of the sources enumerated in division (I)(3)(a) of this section shall be ascertained without regard to the domicile of the trust's beneficiaries.

(e) For the purposes of division (I)(3)(a)(i) of this section:

(i) A trust is described in division (I)(3)(e)(i) of this section if the trust is a testamentary trust and the testator of that testamentary trust was domiciled in this state at the time of the testator's death for purposes of the taxes levied under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code.

chapter, and prior to the death of the decedent the trust became 125119 irrevocable while the decedent was domiciled in this state for the 125120 purposes of this chapter. 125121

(iii) The transfer is made on account of a contractual 125122 relationship existing directly or indirectly between the 125123 transferor and either the decedent or the estate of the decedent 125124
