network and public school districts, including, but not limited 5331 to, an adequate computer software system and a data base; 5332

(B) An information processing service center providing 5333 approved computerized financial accounting and reporting services 5334 to participating public offices. 5335

The auditor of state and any public office, other than a 5336 state agency and the Ohio education computer network and public 5337 school districts, may enter into any necessary agreements, without 5338 advertisement or bidding, for the provision of necessary goods, 5339 materials, supplies, and services to such public offices by the 5340 auditor of state through the network. 5341

The auditor of state may, by rule, provide for a system of 5342 user fees to be charged participating public offices for goods, 5343 materials, supplies, and services received from the network. All 5344 such fees shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of 5345 the uniform accounting network fund, which is hereby created. The 5346 fund shall be used by the auditor of state to pay the costs of 5347 establishing and maintaining the network. The fund shall be 5348 assessed a proportionate share of the auditor of state's 5349 administrative costs in accordance with procedures prescribed by 5350 the auditor of state ~~and approved by the director of budget and~~ 5351 management. 5352

Sec. 117.13. (A) The costs of audits of state agencies shall 5353 be recovered by the auditor of state in the following manner: 5354

(1) The costs of all audits of state agencies shall be paid 5355 to the auditor of state on statements rendered by the auditor of 5356 state. Money so received by the auditor of state shall be paid 5357 into the state treasury to the credit of the public audit expense 5358 fund--intrastate, which is hereby created, and shall be used to 5359 pay costs related to such audits. The costs of audits of a state 5360 agency shall be charged to the state agency being audited. The 5361 costs of any assistant auditor, employee, or expert employed 5362 pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code called upon to 5363 testify in any legal proceedings in regard to any audit, or called 5364 upon to review or discuss any matter related to any audit, may be 5365 charged to the state agency to which the audit relates. 5366

(2) The auditor of state shall establish by rule rates to be 5367 charged to state agencies for recovering the costs of audits of 5368 state agencies. 5369

(B) As used in this division, "government auditing standards" 5370 means the government auditing standards published by the 5371 comptroller general of the United States general accounting 5372
office. 5373

(1) Except as provided in divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this 5374 section, any costs of an audit of a private institution, 5375 association, board, or corporation receiving public money for its 5376 use shall be charged to the public office providing the public 5377 money in the same manner as costs of an audit of the public 5378

(2) If an audit of a private child placing agency or private 5380 noncustodial agency receiving public money from a public children 5381 services agency for providing child welfare or child protection 5382 services sets forth that money has been illegally expended, 5383 converted, misappropriated, or is unaccounted for, the costs of 5384 the audit shall be charged to the agency being audited in the same 5385 manner as costs of an audit of a public office, unless the 5386 findings are inconsequential, as defined by government auditing 5387 standards. 5388

(3) If such an audit does not set forth that money has been 5389 illegally expended, converted, misappropriated, or is unaccounted 5390 for or sets forth findings that are inconsequential, as defined by 5391 government auditing standards, the costs of the audit shall be 5392 charged as follows: 5393

(a) One-third of the costs to the agency being audited; 5394

(b) One-third of the costs to the public children services 5395 agency that provided the public money to the agency being audited; 5396

(c) One-third of the costs to the department of job and 5397 family services. 5398

(C) The costs of audits of local public offices shall be 5399 recovered by the auditor of state in the following manner: 5400

(1) The total amount of compensation paid assistant auditors 5401 of state, their expenses, the cost of employees assigned to assist 5402 the assistant auditors of state, the cost of experts employed 5403 pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code, and the cost of 5404 typing, reviewing, and copying reports shall be borne by the 5405 public office to which such assistant auditors of state are so 5406 assigned, ~~except that annual vacation and sick leave of assistant~~ 5407 ~~auditors of state, employees, and typists shall be financed from~~ 5408
~~the general revenue fund. The necessary traveling and hotel~~ 5409 ~~expenses of the deputy inspectors and supervisors of public~~ 5410 ~~offices shall be paid from the state treasury.~~ Assistant auditors 5411 of state shall be compensated by the taxing district or other 5412 public office audited for activities undertaken pursuant to 5413 division (B) of section 117.18 and section 117.24 of the Revised 5414 Code. The costs of any assistant auditor, employee, or expert 5415 employed pursuant to section 117.09 of the Revised Code called 5416 upon to testify in any legal proceedings in regard to any audit, 5417 or called upon to review or discuss any matter related to any 5418 audit, may be charged to the public office to which the audit 5419 relates. 5420

(2) The auditor of state shall certify the amount of such 5421 compensation, expenses, cost of experts, reviewing, copying, and 5422 typing to the fiscal officer of the local public office audited. 5423
The fiscal officer of the local public office shall forthwith draw 5424 a warrant upon the general fund or other appropriate funds of the 5425 local public office to the order of the auditor of state; 5426 provided, that the auditor of state is authorized to negotiate 5427 with any local public office and, upon agreement between the 5428 auditor of state and the local public office, may adopt a schedule 5429 for payment of the amount due under this section. Money so 5430 received by the auditor of state shall be paid into the state 5431 treasury to the credit of the public audit expense fund--local 5432 government, which is hereby created, and shall be used to pay the 5433 compensation, expense, cost of experts and employees, reviewing, 5434 copying, and typing of reports. 5435

(3) At the conclusion of each audit, or analysis and report 5436 made pursuant to section 117.24 of the Revised Code, the auditor 5437 of state shall furnish the fiscal officer of the local public 5438 office audited a statement showing the total cost of the audit, or 5439 of the audit and the analysis and report, and the percentage of 5440 the total cost chargeable to each fund audited. The fiscal officer 5441 may distribute such total cost to each fund audited in accordance 5442 with its percentage of the total cost. 5443

(4) The auditor of state shall provide each local public 5444 office a statement or certification of the amount due from the 5445 public office for services performed by the auditor of state under 5446 this or any other section of the Revised Code, as well as the date 5447 upon which payment is due to the auditor of state. Any local 5448 public office that does not pay the amount due to the auditor of 5449 state by that date may be assessed by the auditor of state for 5450 interest from the date upon which the payment is due at the rate 5451 per annum prescribed by section 5703.47 of the Revised Code. All 5452 interest charges assessed by the auditor of state may be collected 5453 in the same manner as audit costs pursuant to division (D) of this 5454

section. 5455

(5) The auditor of state shall establish by rule rates to be 5456 charged to local public offices for recovering the costs of audits 5457 of local public offices. 5458

(D) If the auditor of state fails to receive payment for any 5459 amount due, including, but not limited to, fines, fees, and costs, 5460 from a public office for services performed under this or any 5461 other section of the Revised Code, the auditor of state may seek 5462 payment through the office of budget and management. (Amounts due 5463 include any amount due to an independent public accountant with 5464 whom the auditor has contracted to perform services, all costs and 5465 fees associated with participation in the uniform accounting 5466 network, and all costs associated with the auditor's provision of 5467 local government services.) Upon certification by the auditor of 5468 state to the director of budget and management of any such amount 5469 due, the director shall withhold from the public office any amount 5470 available, up to and including the amount certified as due, from 5471 any funds under the director's control that belong to or are 5472 lawfully payable or due to the public office. The director shall 5473 promptly pay the amount withheld to the auditor of state. If the 5474 director determines that no funds due and payable to the public 5475 office are available or that insufficient amounts of such funds 5476 are available to cover the amount due, the director shall withhold 5477 and pay to the auditor of state the amounts available and, in the 5478 case of a local public office, certify the remaining amount to the 5479 county auditor of the county in which the local public office is 5480 located. The county auditor shall withhold from the local public 5481 office any amount available, up to and including the amount 5482 certified as due, from any funds under the county auditor's 5483 control and belonging to or lawfully payable or due to the local 5484 public office. The county auditor shall promptly pay any such 5485 amount withheld to the auditor of state. 5486

Sec. 118.023. (A) Upon determining that one or more of the 5487 conditions described in section 118.022 of the Revised Code are 5488 present, the auditor of state shall issue a written declaration of 5489
the existence of a fiscal watch to the municipal corporation, 5490 county, or township and the county budget commission. The fiscal 5491 watch shall be in effect until the auditor of state determines 5492 that none of the conditions are any longer present and cancels the 5493 watch, or until the auditor of state determines that a state of 5494 fiscal emergency exists. The auditor of state, or a designee, 5495 shall provide such technical and support services to the municipal 5496 corporation, county, or township after a fiscal watch has been 5497 declared to exist as the auditor of state considers necessary. ~~The~~ 5498 ~~controlling board shall provide sufficient funds for any costs~~ 5499
~~that the auditor of state may incur in determining if a fiscal~~ 5500
~~watch exists and for providing technical and support services.~~ 5501

(B) Within one hundred twenty days after the day a written 5502 declaration of the existence of a fiscal watch is issued under 5503 division (A) of this section, the mayor of the municipal 5504 corporation, the board of county commissioners of the county, or 5505 the board of township trustees of the township for which a fiscal 5506 watch was declared shall submit to the auditor of state a 5507 financial recovery plan that shall identify actions to be taken to 5508 eliminate all of the conditions described in section 118.022 of 5509 the Revised Code, include a schedule detailing the approximate 5510 dates for beginning and completing the actions, and include a 5511 five-year forecast reflecting the effects of the actions. The 5512 financial recovery plan is subject to review and approval by the 5513 auditor of state. The auditor of state may extend the amount of 5514 time by which a financial recovery plan is required to be filed, 5515 for good cause shown. 5516

(C) If a feasible financial recovery plan for a municipal 5517 corporation, county, or township for which a fiscal watch was 5518 declared is not submitted within the time period prescribed by 5519 division (B) of this section, or within any extension of time 5520 thereof, the auditor of state shall declare that a fiscal 5521 emergency condition exists under section 118.04 of the Revised 5522 Code in the municipal corporation, county, or township. 5523

Sec. 118.025. (A) The auditor of state shall develop 5524 guidelines for identifying fiscal practices and budgetary 5525 conditions of municipal corporations, counties, and townships 5526 that, if uncorrected, could result in a future declaration of a 5527 fiscal watch or fiscal emergency. 5528

(B) If the auditor of state determines that a municipal 5529 corporation, county, or township is engaging in any of those 5530 practices or that any of those conditions exist, the auditor of 5531 state may declare the municipal corporation, county, or township 5532 to be under a fiscal caution. 5533

(C) When the auditor of state declares a fiscal caution, the 5534 auditor of state shall promptly notify the municipal corporation, 5535 county, or township of that declaration and shall request the 5536 municipal corporation, county, or township to provide written 5537 proposals for discontinuing or correcting the fiscal practices or 5538 budgetary conditions that prompted the declaration and for 5539 preventing the municipal corporation, county, or township from 5540 experiencing further fiscal difficulties that could result in a 5541 declaration of fiscal watch or fiscal emergency. 5542

(D) The auditor of state, or a designee, may visit and 5543 inspect any municipal corporation, county, or township that is 5544 declared to be under a fiscal caution. The auditor of state may 5545 provide technical assistance to the municipal corporation, county, 5546 or township in implementing proposals to eliminate the practices 5547 or budgetary conditions that prompted the declaration of fiscal 5548 caution and may make recommendations concerning those proposals. 5549

(E) If the auditor of state finds that a municipal 5550 corporation, county, or township declared to be under a fiscal 5551 caution has not made reasonable proposals or otherwise taken 5552 action to discontinue or correct the fiscal practices or budgetary 5553 conditions that prompted the declaration of fiscal caution, and if 5554 the auditor of state considers it necessary to prevent further 5555 fiscal decline, the auditor of state may determine that the 5556 municipal corporation, county, or township should be in a state of 5557 fiscal watch. 5558

Sec. 118.04. (A) The existence of a fiscal emergency 5559 condition constitutes a fiscal emergency. The existence of fiscal 5560 emergency conditions shall be determined by the auditor of state. 5561 Such determination, for purposes of this chapter, may be made only 5562 upon the filing with the auditor of state of a written request for 5563 such a determination by the governor, by the county budget 5564 commission, by the mayor of the municipal corporation, or by the 5565 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 5566 corporation when authorized by a majority of the members of such 5567 legislative authority, by the board of county commissioners, or by 5568 the board of township trustees, or upon initiation by the auditor 5569 of state. The request may designate in general or specific terms, 5570

but without thereby limiting the determination thereto, the 5571 condition or conditions to be examined to determine whether they 5572 constitute fiscal emergency conditions. Promptly upon receipt of 5573 such written request, or upon initiation by the auditor of state, 5574 the auditor of state shall transmit copies of such request or a 5575 written notice of such initiation to the mayor and the presiding 5576 officer of the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 5577 or to the board of county commissioners or the board of township 5578 trustees by personal service or certified mail. Such 5579 determinations shall be set forth in written reports and 5580 supplemental reports, which shall be filed with the mayor, fiscal 5581 officer, and presiding officer of the legislative authority of the 5582 municipal corporation, or with the board of county commissioners 5583 or the board of township trustees, and with the treasurer of 5584 state, secretary of state, governor, director of budget and 5585 management, and county budget commission, within thirty days after 5586 the request. The auditor of state shall so file an initial report 5587 immediately upon determining the existence of any fiscal emergency 5588 condition. 5589

(B) In making such determination, the auditor of state may 5590 rely on reports or other information filed or otherwise made 5591 available by the municipal corporation, county, or township, 5592 accountants' reports, or other sources and data the auditor of 5593 state considers reliable for such purpose. As to the status of 5594 funds or accounts, a determination that the amounts stated in 5595 section 118.03 of the Revised Code are exceeded may be made 5596 without need for determination of the specific amount of the 5597 excess. The auditor of state may engage the services of 5598 independent certified or registered public accountants, including 5599 public accountants engaged or previously engaged by the municipal 5600 corporation, county, or township, to conduct audits or make 5601 reports or render such opinions as the auditor of state considers 5602 desirable with respect to any aspect of the determinations to be 5603 made by the auditor of state. 5604

(C) A determination by the auditor of state under this 5605 section that a fiscal emergency condition does not exist is final 5606 and conclusive and not appealable. A determination by the auditor 5607 of state under this section that a fiscal emergency exists is 5608 final, except that the mayor of any municipal corporation affected 5609 by a determination of the existence of a fiscal emergency 5610 condition under this section, when authorized by a majority of the 5611 members of the legislative authority, or the board of county 5612 commissioners or board of township trustees, may appeal the 5613 determination of the existence of a fiscal emergency condition to 5614 the court of appeals having territorial jurisdiction over the 5615 municipal corporation, county, or township. The appeal shall be 5616 heard expeditiously by the court of appeals and for good cause 5617 shown shall take precedence over all other civil matters except 5618 earlier matters of the same character. Notice of such appeal must 5619 be filed with the auditor of state and such court within thirty 5620 days after certification by the auditor of state to the mayor and 5621
presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 5622 corporation or to the board of county commissioners or board of 5623 township trustees as provided for in division (A) of this section. 5624
In such appeal, determinations of the auditor of state shall be 5625 presumed to be valid and the municipal corporation, county, or 5626 township shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 5627 evidence, that each of the determinations made by the auditor of 5628 state as to the existence of a fiscal emergency condition under 5629 section 118.03 of the Revised Code was in error. If the municipal 5630 corporation, county, or township fails, upon presentation of its 5631 case, to prove by clear and convincing evidence that each such 5632 determination by the auditor of state was in error, the court 5633 shall dismiss the appeal. The municipal corporation, county, or 5634 township and the auditor of state may introduce any evidence 5635 relevant to the existence or nonexistence of such fiscal emergency 5636 conditions at the times indicated in the applicable provisions of 5637 divisions (A) and (B) of section 118.03 of the Revised Code. The 5638 pendency of any such appeal shall not affect or impede the 5639 operations of this chapter; no restraining order, temporary 5640 injunction, or other similar restraint upon actions consistent 5641 with this chapter shall be imposed by the court or any court 5642 pending determination of such appeal; and all things may be done 5643 under this chapter that may be done regardless of the pendency of 5644 any such appeal. Any action taken or contract executed pursuant to 5645 this chapter during the pendency of such appeal is valid and 5646 enforceable among all parties, notwithstanding the decision in 5647 such appeal. If the court of appeals reverses the determination of 5648 the existence of a fiscal emergency condition by the auditor of 5649 state, the determination no longer has any effect, and any 5650 procedures undertaken as a result of the determination shall be 5651 terminated. 5652

(D) All expenses incurred by the auditor of state relating to 5653 a determination or termination of a fiscal emergency under this 5654 section ~~or~~, a fiscal watch under section 118.021 of the Revised 5655
Code, or a fiscal caution under section 118.025 of the Revised 5656 Code, including providing technical and support services, shall be 5657 reimbursed from an appropriation for that purpose. If necessary, 5658 the controlling board may provide sufficient funds for these 5659 purposes. 5660

Sec. 118.05. (A) Pursuant to the powers of the general 5661 assembly and for the purposes of this chapter, upon the occurrence 5662 of a fiscal emergency in any municipal corporation, county, or 5663 township, as determined pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised 5664 Code, there is established, with respect to that municipal 5665 corporation, county, or township, a body both corporate and 5666 politic constituting an agency and instrumentality of the state 5667 and performing essential governmental functions of the state to be 5668 known as the "financial planning and supervision commission for 5669

..... (name of municipal corporation, county, or 5670 township)," which, in that name, may exercise all authority vested 5671 in such a commission by this chapter. A Except as otherwise 5672 provided in division (L) of this section, a separate commission is 5673 established with respect to each municipal corporation, county, or 5674 township as to which there is a fiscal emergency as determined 5675 under this chapter. 5676

(B) A commission shall consist of the following voting 5677 members: 5678

(1) Four ex officio members: the treasurer of state; the 5679 director of budget and management; in the case of a municipal 5680 corporation, the mayor of the municipal corporation and the 5681 presiding officer of the legislative authority of the municipal 5682 corporation; in the case of a county, the president of the board 5683 of county commissioners and the county auditor; and in the case of 5684 a township, a member of the board of township trustees and the 5685 county auditor. 5686

The treasurer of state may designate a deputy treasurer or 5687 director within the office of the treasurer of state or any other 5688 appropriate person who is not an employee of the treasurer of 5689 state's office; the director of budget and management may 5690 designate an individual within the office of budget and management 5691 or any other appropriate person who is not an employee of the 5692 office of budget and management; ~~the mayor may designate a 5693 responsible official within the mayor's office or the fiscal 5694 officer of the municipal corporation;~~ the presiding officer of the 5695 legislative authority of the municipal corporation may designate 5696 any other member of the legislative authority; the board of county 5697 commissioners may designate any other member of the board or the 5698 fiscal officer of the county; and the board of township trustees 5699 may designate any other member of the board or the fiscal officer 5700 of the township to attend the meetings of the commission when the 5701 ex officio member is absent or unable for any reason to attend. A 5702 designee, when present, shall be counted in determining whether a 5703 quorum is present at any meeting of the commission and may vote 5704 and participate in all proceedings and actions of the commission. 5705

The designations shall be in writing, executed by the ex officio 5706 member or entity making the designation, and filed with the 5707 secretary of the commission. The designations may be changed from 5708 time to time in like manner, but due regard shall be given to the 5709 need for continuity. 5710

(2) If a municipal corporation, county, or township has a 5711 population of at least one thousand, three members nominated and 5712 appointed as follows: 5713

The mayor and presiding officer of the legislative authority 5714
or the board of township trustees shall, within ten days after the 5716 determination of the fiscal emergency by the auditor of state 5717
under section 118.04 of the Revised Code, submit in writing to the 5718
governor the nomination of five persons agreed to by them and 5719 meeting the qualifications set forth in this division. If the 5720 governor is not satisfied that at least three of the nominees are 5721 well qualified, the governor shall notify the mayor and presiding 5722 officer, or the board of county commissioners, or the board of 5723 township trustees to submit in writing, within five days, 5724 additional nominees agreed upon by them, not exceeding three. The 5725 governor shall appoint three members from all the agreed-upon 5726 nominees so submitted or a lesser number that the governor 5727 considers well qualified within thirty days after receipt of the 5728 nominations, and shall fill any remaining positions on the 5729 commission by appointment of any other persons meeting the 5730 qualifications set forth in this division. All appointments by the 5731 governor shall be made with the advice and consent of the senate. 5732

Each of the three appointed members shall serve during the life of 5733 the commission, subject to removal by the governor for 5734 misfeasance, nonfeasance, or malfeasance in office. In the event 5735 of the death, resignation, incapacity, removal, or ineligibility 5736 to serve of an appointed member, the governor, pursuant to the 5737 process for original appointment, shall appoint a successor. 5738

population of less than one thousand, one member nominated and 5740

determination of the fiscal emergency by the auditor of state 5745
governor the nomination of three persons agreed to by them and 5747
governor is not satisfied that at least one of the nominees is 5749
well qualified, the governor shall notify the mayor and presiding 5750
officer, or the board of county commissioners, or the board of 5751
additional nominees agreed upon by them, not exceeding three. The 5753 governor shall appoint one member from all the agreed upon 5754 nominees so submitted or shall fill the position on the commission 5755 by appointment of any other person meeting the qualifications set 5756 forth in this division. All appointments by the governor shall be 5757 made with the advice and consent of the senate. The appointed 5758 member shall serve during the life of the commission, subject to 5759 removal by the governor for misfeasance, nonfeasance, or 5760 malfeasance in office. In the event of the death, resignation, 5761 incapacity, removal, or ineligibility to serve of the appointed 5762 member, the governor, pursuant to the process for original 5763 appointment, shall appoint a successor. 5764~~

Each appointed member shall be an individual: 5765

(a) Who has knowledge and experience in financial matters, 5766 financial management, or business organization or operations; 5767

(b) Whose residency, office, or principal place of 5768 professional or business activity is situated within the municipal 5769 corporation, county, or township; 5770 township, its officers, or the commission. 5807

(G) The auditor of state shall serve as the "financial 5808 supervisor" to the commission unless the auditor of state elects 5809 to contract for that service. As used in this chapter, "financial 5810 supervisor" means the auditor of state. 5811

(H) At the request of the commission, the auditor of state 5812 shall designate employees of the auditor of state's office to 5813 assist the commission and the financial supervisor and to 5814 of or failure to exercise the powers, duties, and functions 5827 granted to them in regard to their functioning under this chapter, 5828 but the commission, the financial supervisor, the auditor of 5829 state, and those other persons shall be subject to mandamus 5830 proceedings to compel performance of their duties under this 5831 chapter and with respect to any debt obligations issued pursuant 5832 or subject to this chapter. 5833 of state shall serve as the financial supervisor of the village or 5859 township and shall have all the powers and responsibilities of a 5860 commission. 5861

county, or township with the moneys of such funds, or missing from 5880
the construction funds or such special funds and not accounted 5881

(g) Restore the ability of the municipal corporation, county, 5887 or township to market long-term general obligation bonds under 5888 provisions of law applicable to municipal corporations, counties, 5889 or townships generally. 5890

(2) The legal authorities permitting the municipal 5891 corporation, county, or township to take the actions enumerated 5892 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section; 5893

(3) The approximate dates of the commencement, progress upon, 5894 and completion of the actions enumerated pursuant to division 5895 (A)(1) of this section, a five-year forecast reflecting the 5896 effects of those actions, and a reasonable period of time expected 5897 to be required to implement the plan. The municipal corporation, 5898 county, or township, in consultation with the commission and the 5899 financial supervisor, shall prepare a reasonable time schedule for 5900 progress toward and achievement of the requirements for the 5901 financial plan and the financial plan shall be consistent with 5902 that time schedule. 5903

(4) The amount and purpose of any issue of debt obligations 5904 that will be issued, together with assurances that any such debt 5905

the municipal corporation, county, or township and the county 5908 auditor; 5909

(5) Assurances that the municipal corporation, county, or 5910 township will establish monthly levels of expenditures and 5911 encumbrances pursuant to division (B)(2) of section 118.07 of the 5912
Revised Code; 5913

(6) Assurances that the municipal corporation, county, or 5914 township will conform to statutes with respect to tax budgets and 5915

(7) The detail, the form, and the supporting information that 5917
the commission may direct. 5918

(B) The financial plan developed pursuant to division (A) of 5919 this section shall be filed with the financial supervisor and the 5920 financial planning and supervision commission and shall be updated 5921 annually. After consultation with the financial supervisor, the 5922 commission shall either approve or reject any initial or 5923 subsequent financial plan. If the commission rejects the initial 5924 or any subsequent financial plan, it shall forthwith inform the 5925 mayor and legislative authority of the municipal corporation or 5926 the board of county commissioners or board of township trustees of 5927 the reasons for its rejection. Within thirty days after the 5928 rejection of any plan, the mayor with the approval of the 5929 legislative authority by the passage of an ordinance or 5930 resolution, or the board of county commissioners or board of 5931 township trustees, shall submit another plan meeting the 5932 requirements of divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this section, to the 5933 commission and the financial supervisor for approval or rejection 5934 by the commission. 5935

(C) Any initial or subsequent financial plan passed by the 5936 municipal corporation, county, or township shall be approved by 5937 the commission if it complies with divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this 5938 section, and if the commission finds that the plan is bona fide 5939 and can reasonably be expected to be implemented within the period 5940 specified in the plan. 5941

(D) Any financial plan may be amended subsequent to its 5942 adoption in the same manner as the passage and approval of the 5943 initial or subsequent plan pursuant to divisions (A) to (C) of 5944
this section. 5945

(E) If a municipal corporation, county, or township fails to 5946 submit a financial plan as required by this section, or fails to 5947 substantially comply with an approved financial plan, upon 5948 certification of the commission, all state funding for that 5949 municipal corporation, county, or township other than benefit 5950 assistance to individuals shall be escrowed until a feasible plan 5951 is submitted and approved or substantial compliance with the plan 5952 is achieved, as the case may be. 5953

Sec. 118.12. (A) After the date by which the municipal 5954 corporation, county, or township is required to submit a financial 5955 plan or segment of a financial plan to the financial planning and 5956 supervision commission, if the municipal corporation, county, or 5957 township has failed to submit a financial plan or segment as 5958 required by this chapter, expenditures from the general fund of 5959 the municipal corporation, county, or township in any month may 5960 not exceed eighty-five per cent of expenditures from the general 5961 fund for such month in the preceding fiscal year, except the 5962 commission may authorize a higher per cent for any month upon 5963 justification of need by the municipal corporation, county, or 5964 township. If considered prudent by the commission, expenditures 5965 from any other fund of the municipal corporation, county, or 5966 township also may be limited. 5967

(B) After submission of a proposed financial plan by the 5968 municipal corporation, county, or township to the commission, 5969 until approval or disapproval no expenditure may be made contrary 5970 to such proposed financial plan. 5971

(C) After disapproval by the commission of a proposed 5972 financial plan, no expenditure may be made by the municipal 5973 corporation, county, or township inconsistent with the reasons for 5974 disapproval given pursuant to division (B) of section 118.06 of 5975 the Revised Code; and if the municipal corporation, county, or 5976 township fails to submit a revised financial plan within the time 5977 required, the expenditure limits of division (A) of this section 5978 are applicable. 5979

(D) After approval of a financial plan, or any amendment 5980 thereof, no expenditure may be made contrary to the approved 5981 financial plan, or amendment thereof, without the advance approval 5982 of the financial supervisor. The commission, by a majority vote, 5983 may overrule the decision of the financial supervisor. 5984

Sec. 118.17. (A) During a fiscal emergency period and with 5985 the approval of the financial planning and supervision commission, 5986 a municipal corporation, county, or township may issue local 5987 government fund notes, in anticipation of amounts to be allocated 5988 to it pursuant to division (B) of section 5747.50 of the Revised 5989 Code or to be apportioned to it under section 5747.51 or 5747.53 5990 of the Revised Code in a future year or years, for a period of no 5991 more than eight calendar years. The principal amount of the notes 5992 and interest on the notes due and payable in any year shall not 5993 exceed fifty per cent of the total amount of local government fund 5994 moneys so allocated or apportioned to the municipal corporation, 5995 county, or township for the year preceding the year in which the 5996 notes are issued. The notes may mature in semiannual or annual 5997 installments in such amounts as may be fixed by the commission, 5998 and need not mature in substantially equal semiannual or annual 5999 installments. The notes of a municipal corporation may be 6000 authorized and issued, subject to the approval of the commission, 6001 in the manner provided in sections 717.15 and 717.16 of the 6002 Revised Code, except that, notwithstanding division (A)(2) of 6003 section 717.16 of the Revised Code, the rate or rates of interest 6004 payable on the notes shall be the prevailing market rate or rates 6005 as determined and approved by the commission, and except that they 6006 shall not be issued in anticipation of bonds, shall not constitute 6007 general obligations of the municipal corporation, and shall not 6008 pledge the full faith and credit of the municipal corporation. 6009

(B) The principal and interest on the notes provided for in 6010 this section shall be payable, as provided in this section, solely 6011 from the portion of the local government fund that would otherwise 6012 be apportioned to the municipal corporation, county, or township 6013 and shall not be payable from or constitute a pledge of or claim 6014 upon, or require the levy, collection, or application of, any 6015 unvoted ad valorem property taxes or other taxes, or in any manner 6016 occupy any portion of the indirect debt limit. 6017

(C) Local government fund notes may be issued only to the 6018 extent needed to achieve one or more of the following objectives 6019 of the financial plan: 6020

(1) Satisfying any contractual or noncontractual judgments, 6021 past due accounts payable, and all past due and payable payroll 6022 and fringe benefits to be taken into account under section 118.03 6023
of the Revised Code; 6024

(2) Restoring to construction funds or other restricted funds 6025 any money applied from such funds to uses not within the purposes 6026 of such funds and which could not be transferred to such use under 6027
section 5705.14 of the Revised Code; 6028

(3) Eliminating deficit balances in all deficit funds, 6029 including funds that may be used to pay operating expenses. 6030

In addition to the objectives set forth in divisions (C)(1) 6031 to (3) of this section, local government fund notes may be issued 6032 and the proceeds of those notes may be used for the purpose of 6033 retiring or replacing other moneys used to retire current revenue 6034 notes issued pursuant to section 118.23 of the Revised Code to the 6035 extent that the proceeds of the current revenue notes have been or 6036 are to be used directly or to replace other moneys used to achieve 6037 one or more of the objectives of the financial plan specified in 6038 divisions (C)(1) to (3) of this section. Upon authorization of the 6039 local government fund notes by the legislative authority of the 6040 municipal corporation, county, or township, the proceeds of the 6041 local government fund notes and the proceeds of any such current 6042 revenue notes shall be deemed to be appropriated, to the extent 6043 that the proceeds have been or are to be so used, for the purposes 6044 for which the revenues anticipated by any such current revenue 6045 notes are collected and appropriated within the meaning of section 6046

(D) The need for an issue of local government fund notes for 6048 such purposes shall be determined by taking into consideration 6049 other money and sources of moneys available therefor under this 6050 chapter or other provisions of law, and calculating the respective 6051 amounts needed therefor in accordance with section 118.03 of the 6052 Revised Code, including the deductions or offsets therein 6053 provided, for determining that a fiscal emergency condition 6054 exists, and by eliminating any duplication of amounts thereunder. 6055
The respective amounts needed to achieve such objectives and the 6056 resulting aggregate net amount shall be determined initially by a 6057 certification of the fiscal officer as and to the extent approved 6058 by the financial supervisor. The principal amount of such notes 6059 shall not exceed the aggregate net amount needed for such 6060 purposes. The aggregate amount of all issues of such notes shall 6061 not exceed three times the average of the allocation or 6062 apportionment to the municipal corporation, county, or township of 6063 moneys from the local government fund in each of the three fiscal 6064 years preceding the fiscal year in which the notes are issued. 6065

(E) The proceeds of the sale of local government fund notes 6066 shall be appropriated by the municipal corporation, county, or 6067 township for and shall be applied only to the purposes, and in the 6068 respective amounts for those purposes, set forth in the 6069 certification given pursuant to division (D) of this section, as 6070 the purposes and amounts may be modified in the approval by the 6071 commission provided for in this section. The proceeds shall be 6072 deposited in separate accounts with a fiscal agent designated in 6073 the resolution referred to in division (F) of this section and 6074 released only for such respective purposes in accordance with the 6075 procedures set forth in division (D) of section 118.20 of the 6076 Revised Code. Any amounts not needed for such purposes shall be 6077 deposited with the fiscal agent designated to receive deposits for 6078 payment of the principal of and interest due on the notes. 6079

(F) An application for approval by the financial planning and 6080 supervision commission of an issue of local government fund notes 6081 shall be authorized by a preliminary resolution adopted by the 6082 legislative authority. The resolution may authorize the 6083 application as a part of the initial submission of the financial 6084 plan for approval or as a part of any proposed amendment to an 6085 approved financial plan or at any time after the approval of a 6086 financial plan, or amendment to a financial plan, that proposes 6087 the issue of such notes. The preliminary resolution shall 6088 designate a fiscal agent for the deposit of the proceeds of the 6089 sale of the notes, and shall contain a covenant of the municipal 6090 corporation, county, or township to comply with this chapter and 6091 the financial plan. 6092

The commission shall review and evaluate the application and 6093 supporting certification and financial supervisor action, and 6094 shall thereupon certify its approval or disapproval, or 6095 modification and approval, of the application. 6096

The commission shall certify the amounts, maturities, 6097 interest rates, and terms of issue of the local government fund 6098 notes approved by the commission and the purposes to which the 6099 proceeds of the sale of the notes will be applied in respective 6100 amounts. 6101

The commission shall certify a copy of its approval, of the 6102 preliminary resolution, and of the related certification and 6103 action of the financial supervisor to the fiscal officer, the 6104 financial supervisor, the county budget commission, the county 6105 auditor, the county treasurer, and the fiscal agent designated to 6106 receive and disburse the proceeds of the sale of the notes. 6107

(G) Upon the sale of any local government fund notes issued 6108 under this section, the commission shall determine a schedule for 6109 the deposit of local government fund distributions that are 6110 pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on the 6111 notes with the fiscal agent or trustee designated in the agreement 6112 between the municipal corporation, county, or township and the 6113 holders of the notes to receive and disburse the distributions. 6114

The amounts to be deposited shall be adequate to provide for the 6115 payment of principal and interest on the notes when due and to pay 6116 all other proper charges, costs, or expenses pertaining thereto. 6117

The amount of the local government fund moneys apportioned to 6118 the municipal corporation, county, or township that is to be so 6119 deposited in each year shall not be included in the tax budget and 6120 appropriation measures of the municipal corporation, county, or 6121 township, or in certificates of estimated revenues, for that year. 6122

The commission shall certify the schedule to the officers 6123 designated in division (F) of this section. 6124

(H) Deposit of amounts with the fiscal agent or trustee 6125 pursuant to the schedule determined by the commission shall be 6126 made from local government fund distributions to or apportioned to 6127
the municipal corporation, county, or township as provided in this 6128 division. The apportionment of local government fund moneys to the 6129 municipal corporation, county, or township for any year from the 6130 undivided local government fund shall be determined as to the 6131 municipal corporation, county, or township without regard to the 6132 amounts to be deposited with the fiscal agent or trustee in that 6133 year in accordance with division (G) of this section. After the 6134 amount of the undivided local government fund apportioned to the 6135 municipal corporation, county, or township for a calendar year is 6136 determined, the county auditor and the county treasurer shall 6137 withhold from each monthly amount to be distributed to the 6138 municipal corporation, county, or township from the undivided 6139 local government fund, and transmit to the fiscal agent or trustee 6140 for deposit, one-twelfth of the amount scheduled for deposit in 6141 that year pursuant to division (G) of this section. 6142

(I) If the commission approves the application, the municipal 6143 corporation, county, or township may proceed with the issuance of 6144 the notes as approved by the commission. 6145

All notes issued under authority of this section are lawful 6146 investments for the entities enumerated in division (A)(1) of 6147 section 133.03 of the Revised Code and are eligible as security 6148 for the repayment of the deposit of public moneys. 6149

Upon the issuance of any notes under this section, the fiscal 6150 officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township shall 6151 certify the fact of the issuance to the county auditor and shall 6152 also certify to the county auditor the last calendar year in which 6153 any of the notes are scheduled to mature. 6154

(J) After the legislative authority of the municipal 6155 corporation, county, or township has passed an ordinance or 6156 resolution authorizing the issuance of local government fund notes 6157 and subsequent to the commission's preliminary or final approval 6158 of the ordinance or resolution, the director of law, prosecuting 6159 attorney, or other chief legal officer of the municipal 6160 corporation, county, or township shall certify a sample of the 6161 form and content of a note to be used to issue the local 6162 government fund notes to the commission. The commission shall 6163 determine whether the sample note is consistent with this section 6164 and the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of the 6165 local government fund notes, and if the sample note is found to be 6166 consistent with this section and the ordinance, the commission 6167 shall approve the sample note for use by the municipal 6168 corporation, county, or township. The form and content of the 6169 notes to be used by the municipal corporation, county, or township 6170 in issuing the local government fund notes may be modified at any 6171 time subsequent to the commission's approval of the sample note 6172 upon the approval of the commission and the director of law, 6173 prosecuting attorney, or other chief legal officer of the 6174 municipal corporation, county, or township. The failure of the 6175 director of law, prosecuting attorney, or other chief legal 6176 officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township to make 6177 the certification required by this division shall not subject that 6178 legal officer to removal pursuant to the Revised Code or the 6179 charter of a municipal corporation. If the director of law, 6180 prosecuting attorney, or other chief legal officer fails or 6181 refuses to make the certification required by this division, or if 6182 any officer of the municipal corporation, county, or township 6183 fails or refuses to take any action required by this section or 6184 the ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance or sale of 6185 local government fund notes, the mayor of the municipal 6186 corporation or the board of county commissioners or board of 6187 township trustees may cause the commencement of a mandamus action 6188 in the supreme court against the director of law, prosecuting 6189 attorney, or other chief legal officer to secure the certification 6190 required by this division or other action required by this section 6191 or the ordinance or resolution. If an adjudication of the matters 6192 that could be adjudicated in validation proceedings under section 6193 133.70 of the Revised Code is necessary to a determination of the 6194 mandamus action, the mayor, the board of county commissioners, or 6195 the board of township trustees or the mayor's or board's legal 6196 counsel shall name and cause to be served as defendants to the 6197 mandamus action all of the following: 6198

(1) The director of law, prosecuting attorney, or other chief 6199 legal officer, or other official of the municipal corporation, 6200 county, or township, whose failure or refusal to act necessitated 6201 the action; 6202

(2) The municipal corporation, through its mayor, or the 6203 board of county commissioners or board of township trustees; 6204

(3) The financial planning and supervision commission, 6205

through its chairperson; 6206

(4) The prosecuting attorney and auditor of each county in 6207 which the municipal corporation, county, or township is located, 6208 in whole or in part; 6209

(5) The auditor of state; 6210

(6) The property owners, taxpayers, citizens of the municipal 6211 corporation, county, or township and others having or claiming any 6212 right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected 6213 by the issuance of the local government fund notes by the 6214 municipal corporation, county, or township, or otherwise affected 6215 in any way thereby. 6216

Service upon all defendants described in division (J)(6) of 6217 this section shall be either by publication three times, with at 6218 least six days between each publication, in a newspaper of general 6219 circulation in Franklin county and a newspaper of general 6220 circulation in the county or counties where the municipal 6221 corporation, county, or township is located, or by publication in 6222 both such newspapers as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 6223 Code. The publication and the notice shall indicate that the 6224 nature of the action is in mandamus, the name of the parties to 6225 the action, and that the action may result in the validation of 6226 the subject local government fund notes. Authorization to commence 6227 such an action by the legislative authority of the municipal 6228 corporation, county, or township is not required. 6229

A copy of the complaint in the mandamus action shall be 6230 served personally or by certified mail upon the attorney general. 6231
If the attorney general has reason to believe that the complaint 6232 is defective, insufficient, or untrue, or if in the attorney 6233 general's opinion the issuance of the local government fund notes 6234 is not lawful or has not been duly authorized, defense shall be 6235 made to the complaint as the attorney general considers proper. 6236

(1) The complaint in mandamus, or subsequent pleadings, include appropriate allegations required by division (C) of section 133.70 of the Revised Code, and that the proceeding is in lieu of an action to validate under section 133.70 of the Revised Code;

(2) All parties described in divisions (J)(1) to (6) of this section have been duly served with notice or are otherwise properly before the court;

(3) Notice of the action has been published as required by division (J) of this section;

(4) The effect of validation is required to provide a complete review and determination of the controversy in mandamus, and to avoid duplication of litigation, danger of inconsistent results, or inordinate delay in light of the fiscal emergency, or that a disposition in the mandamus action would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of any subsequent validation proceedings under section 133.70 of the Revised Code.

(L) Any decision that includes a finding of validation has the same effect as a validation order established by an action under section 133.70 of the Revised Code.

(M) Divisions (J) and (K) of this section do not prevent a municipal corporation, county, or township from using section 6268 133.70 of the Revised Code to validate local government fund notes 6269 by the filing of a petition for validation in the court of common 6270 pleas of the county in which the municipal corporation, county, or 6271 township is located, in whole or in part. 6272

(N) It is hereby determined by the general assembly that a 6273 validation action authorized by section 133.70 of the Revised Code 6274 is not an adequate remedy at law with respect to a municipal 6275 corporation, county, or township that is a party to a mandamus 6276 action pursuant to divisions (J) and (K) of this section and in 6277 which a fiscal emergency condition has been determined to exist 6278 pursuant to section 118.04 of the Revised Code because of, but not 6279 limited to, the following reasons: 6280

(1) It is urgently necessary for such a municipal 6281 corporation, county, or township to take prompt action to issue 6282 local government fund notes for the purposes provided in division 6283
(C) of this section; 6284

(2) The potentially ruinous effect upon the fiscal condition 6285 of a municipal corporation, county, or township by the passage of 6286 the time required to adjudicate such a separate validation action 6287
and any appeals thereof; 6288

(3) The reasons stated in division (K)(4) of this section. 6289

Sec. 118.31. (A) Upon petition of the financial supervisor 6290 and approval of the financial planning and supervision commission, 6291 if any, the attorney general shall file a court action to dissolve 6292 a municipal corporation or township if all of the following 6293 conditions apply: 6294

(1) The municipal corporation or township has a population of 6295 less than five thousand as of the most recent federal decennial 6296 census. 6297

(2) The municipal corporation or township has been under a 6298 fiscal emergency for at least four consecutive years. 6299

(3) Implementation of the financial plan of the municipal 6300 corporation or township required under this chapter cannot 6301 reasonably be expected to correct and eliminate all fiscal 6302 emergency conditions within five years. 6303

(B) If the court finds that all of the conditions described 6304 in division (A) of this section apply to the municipal corporation 6305 or township, it shall appoint a receiver. The receiver, under 6306 court supervision, shall work with executive and legislative 6307 officers of the municipal corporation or township to wind up the 6308 affairs of and dissolve the municipal corporation in accordance 6309 with section 703.21 of the Revised Code or the township in 6310 accordance with the process in section 503.02 and sections 503.17 6311
to 503.21 of the Revised Code. 6312

Sec. 118.99. (A) During the fiscal emergency period, no 6313 officer or employee of the municipal corporation, county, or 6314 township shall do any of the following: 6315

(1) Knowingly enter into any contract, financial obligation, 6316
or other liability of the municipal corporation, county, or 6317 township involving an expenditure, or make any expenditure in 6318 excess of the amount permitted by section 118.12 of the Revised 6319
Code; 6320

(2) Knowingly enter into any contract, financial obligation, 6321
or other liability of the municipal corporation, county, or 6322 township, or knowingly execute or deliver debt obligations, or 6323 transfer, advance, or borrow moneys from one fund of the municipal 6324 corporation, county, or township to or for any other fund of the 6325 municipal corporation, county, or township where any of such 6326 actions are required to be approved by the financial planning and 6327 supervision commission unless such actions have been so approved 6328 or deemed to be approved as provided in or pursuant to this 6329

chapter; 6330

(3) Knowingly fail or refuse to take any of the actions 6331 required by this chapter for the preparation or amendment of the 6332 financial plan, or knowingly prepare, present, or certify any 6333 information or report for the commission or any of its employees, 6334 advisory committees, task forces, or agents that is false or 6335 misleading or which is recklessly prepared or presented without 6336 due care for its accuracy, or, upon learning that any such 6337 information is false or misleading, or was recklessly prepared or 6338 presented, knowingly fail promptly to advise the commission, or 6339 the employee, advisory committee, task force, or agent to whom 6340 such information was given, of that fact; 6341

(4) Knowingly use or cause to be used moneys of a 6342 construction fund for purposes other than the lawful purposes of 6343 the construction fund, or knowingly use or cause to be used moneys 6344 of a fund created under this chapter for the payment of principal 6345 and interest on debt obligations, or a bond retirement fund, or 6346 sinking fund for other than the payment of the principal of and 6347 interest on debt obligations or other authorized costs or payments 6348 from such funds, or knowingly fail to perform the duty of such 6349 officer or employee to cause the prompt deposit of moneys to any 6350 of the funds referred to in this division. 6351

(B) The prohibitions set forth in division (A) of this 6352 section are in addition to any other prohibitions provided by law 6353 for a municipal corporation, county, or township, or by or 6354 pursuant to a municipal charter. 6355

(C) In addition to any other penalty or liability provided by 6356 law for a municipal corporation, county, or township, or by or 6357 pursuant to a municipal charter, a violation of division (A)(1), 6358 (2), (3), or (4) of this section is a misdemeanor of the second 6359 degree. Upon conviction of any officer or employee of a municipal 6360 corporation, county, or township for any violation under division 6361 (A)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section, such officer or employee 6362 shall forfeit office or employment. For the seven-year period 6363 immediately following the date of conviction, such officer shall 6364 also be ineligible to hold any public office or other position of 6365 trust in this state or be employed by any public entity in this 6366

state. 6367

Sec. 119.032. (A) As used in this section: 6368

(1) "Agency" includes both an agency as defined in division 6369
(A)(2) of section 111.15 and an agency as defined in division (A) 6370
of section 119.01 of the Revised Code. 6371

(2) "Review date" means the review date assigned to a rule by 6372 an agency under division (B) or (E)(2) of this section or under 6373 section 111.15, 119.04, or 4141.14 of the Revised Code or a review 6374 date assigned to a rule by the joint committee on agency rule 6375 review under division (B) of this section. 6376

(3)(a) "Rule" means only a rule whose adoption, amendment, or 6377 rescission is subject to review under division (D) of section 6378 111.15 or division (H) of section 119.03 of the Revised Code. 6379

(b) "Rule" does not include a rule adopted, amended, or 6380 rescinded by the department of taxation under section 5703.14 of 6381 the Revised Code, a rule of a state college or university, 6382 community college district, technical college district, or state 6383 community college, or a rule that is consistent with and 6384 equivalent to the form required by a federal law and that does not 6385 exceed the minimum scope and intent of that federal law. 6386

(B) Not later than March 25, 1997, each agency shall assign a 6387 review date to each of its rules that is currently in effect and 6388 shall notify the joint committee on agency rule review of the 6389 review date for each such rule. The agency shall assign review 6390 dates to its rules so that approximately one-fifth of the rules 6391 are scheduled for review during each calendar year of the 6392 five-year period that begins March 25, 1997, except that an 6393 agency, with the joint committee's approval, may set a review 6394 schedule for the agency's rules in which there is no requirement 6395 that approximately one-fifth of the agency's rules be assigned a 6396 review date during each calendar year of the five-year period but 6397 in which all of the agency's rules are assigned a review date 6398 during that five-year period. An agency may change the review 6399 dates it has assigned to specific rules so long as the agency 6400 complies with the five-year time deadline specified in this 6401 division. 6402

Upon the request of the agency that adopted the rule, the 6403 joint committee on agency rule review may extend a review date of 6404 a rule to a date that is not later than one hundred eighty days 6405 after the original review date assigned to the rule by the agency 6406 under this division, division (E)(2) of this section, or section 6407 111.15, 119.04, or 4141.14 of the Revised Code. The joint 6408 committee may further extend a review date that has been extended 6409 under this paragraph if appropriate under the circumstances. 6410

(C) Prior to the review date of a rule, the agency that 6411 adopted the rule shall review the rule to determine all of the 6412
following: 6413

(1) Whether the rule should be continued without amendment, 6414 be amended, or be rescinded, taking into consideration the 6415
adopted; 6417

(2) Whether the rule needs amendment or rescission to give 6418 more flexibility at the local level; 6419

(3) Whether the rule needs amendment or rescission to 6420 eliminate unnecessary paperwork, or whether the rule incorporates 6421 a text or other material by reference and, if so, whether the text 6422 or other material incorporated by reference is deposited or 6423 displayed as required by section 121.74 of the Revised Code and 6424 whether the incorporation by reference meets the standards stated 6425 in sections 121.72, 121.75, and 121.76 of the Revised Code; 6426

(4) Whether the rule duplicates, overlaps with, or conflicts 6427 with other rules; 6428

(5) Whether the rule has an adverse impact on businesses, ~~as~~ 6429 ~~determined~~ reviewing the rule as if it were a draft rule being 6430 reviewed under ~~section~~ sections 107.52 and 107.53 of the Revised 6431 Code, and whether any such adverse impact has been eliminated or 6432 reduced ~~as required under section 121.82 of the Revised Code.~~ 6433

(D) In making the review required under division (C) of this 6434 section, the agency shall consider the continued need for the 6435 rule, the nature of any complaints or comments received concerning 6436 the rule, and any relevant factors that have changed in the 6437 subject matter area affected by the rule. 6438

(E)(1) On or before the designated review date of a rule, the 6439 agency that adopted the rule shall proceed under division (E)(2) 6440 or (5) of this section to indicate that the agency has reviewed 6441
the rule. 6442

(2) If the agency has determined that the rule does not need 6443 to be amended or rescinded, the agency shall file all the 6444 following, in electronic form, with the joint committee on agency 6445 rule review, the secretary of state, and the director of the 6446 legislative service commission: a copy of the rule, a statement of 6447 the agency's determination, and an accurate rule summary and 6448 fiscal analysis for the rule as described in section 127.18 of the 6449 Revised Code. The agency shall assign a new review date to the 6450 rule, which shall not be later than five years after the rule's 6451 immediately preceding review date. After the joint committee has 6452 reviewed such a rule for the first time, including any rule that 6453 was in effect on September 26, 1996, the agency in its subsequent 6454 reviews of the rule may provide the same fiscal analysis it 6455 provided to the joint committee during its immediately preceding 6456 review of the rule unless any of the conditions described in 6457 division (B)(4), (5), (6), (8), (9), or (10) of section 127.18 of 6458 the Revised Code, as they relate to the rule, have appreciably 6459 changed since the joint committee's immediately preceding review 6460 of the rule. If any of these conditions, as they relate to the 6461 rule, have appreciably changed, the agency shall provide the joint 6462 committee with an updated fiscal analysis for the rule. If no 6463 review date is assigned to a rule, or if a review date assigned to 6464 a rule exceeds the five-year maximum, the review date for the rule 6465 is five years after its immediately preceding review date. The 6466 joint committee shall give public notice in the register of Ohio 6467 of the agency's determination after receiving a notice from the 6468 agency under division (E)(2) of this section. The joint committee 6469 shall transmit a copy of the notice in electronic form to the 6470 director of the legislative service commission. The director shall 6471 publish the notice in the register of Ohio for four consecutive 6472 weeks after its receipt. 6473

(3) During the ninety-day period following the date the joint 6474 committee receives a notice under division (E)(2) of this section 6475 but after the four-week period described in division (E)(2) of 6476 this section has ended, the joint committee, by a two-thirds vote 6477 of the members present, may recommend the adoption of a concurrent 6478 resolution invalidating the rule if the joint committee determines 6479 that any of the following apply: 6480

(a) The agency improperly applied the criteria described in 6481 divisions (C) and (D) of this section in reviewing the rule and in 6482 recommending its continuance without amendment or rescission. 6483

(b) The agency failed to file proper notice with the joint 6484 committee regarding the rule, or if the rule incorporates a text 6485 or other material by reference, the agency failed to file, or to 6486 deposit or display, the text or other material incorporated by 6487 reference as required by section 121.73 or 121.74 of the Revised 6488 Code or the incorporation by reference fails to meet the standards 6489 stated in section 121.72, 121.75, or 121.76 of the Revised Code. 6490

(c) The rule has an adverse impact on businesses, as 6491 determined under section 107.52 of the Revised Code, and the 6492 agency has not eliminated or reduced that impact as required under 6493
section 121.82 of the Revised Code. 6494

(4) If the joint committee does not take the action described 6495 in division (E)(3) of this section regarding a rule during the 6496 ninety-day period after the date the joint committee receives a 6497 notice under division (E)(2) of this section regarding that rule, 6498 the rule shall continue in effect without amendment and shall be 6499 next reviewed by the joint committee by the date designated by the 6500 agency in the notice provided to the joint committee under 6501 division (E)(2) of this section. 6502

(5) If the agency has determined that a rule reviewed under 6503 division (C) of this section needs to be amended or rescinded, the 6504 agency, on or before the rule's review date, shall file the rule 6505 as amended or rescinded in accordance with section 111.15, 119.03, 6506 or 4141.14 of the Revised Code, as applicable. 6507

(6) Each agency shall provide the joint committee with a copy 6508 of the rules that it has determined are rules described in 6509 division (A)(3)(b) of this section. At a time the joint committee 6510 designates, each agency shall appear before the joint committee 6511 and explain why it has determined that such rules are rules 6512 described in division (A)(3)(b) of this section. The joint 6513 committee, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, may 6514 determine that any of such rules are rules described in division 6515 (A)(3)(a) of this section. After the joint committee has made such 6516 a determination relating to a rule, the agency shall thereafter 6517 treat the rule as a rule described in division (A)(3)(a) of this 6518

section. 6519

(F) If an agency fails to provide the notice to the joint 6520 committee required under division (E)(2) of this section regarding 6521 a rule or otherwise fails by the rule's review date to take any 6522 action regarding the rule required by this section, the joint 6523 committee, by a majority vote of the members present, may 6524 recommend the adoption of a concurrent resolution invalidating the 6525 rule. The joint committee shall not recommend the adoption of such 6526 a resolution until it has afforded the agency the opportunity to 6527 appear before the joint committee to show cause why the joint 6528 committee should not recommend the adoption of such a resolution 6529 regarding that rule. 6530

(G) If the joint committee recommends adoption of a 6531 concurrent resolution invalidating a rule under division (E)(3) or 6532
(F) of this section, the adoption of the concurrent resolution 6533 shall be in the manner described in division (I) of section 119.03 6534

Sec. 120.40. (A) The pay ranges established by the board of 6536 county commissioners for the county public defender ~~and staff~~, and 6537 those established by the joint board of county commissioners for 6538
the joint county public defender ~~and staff~~, shall not exceed the 6539 pay ranges assigned under section ~~124.14~~ 325.11 of the Revised 6540 Code for ~~comparable positions of the Ohio public defender and~~ 6541 ~~staff~~ county prosecutors. 6542

(B) The pay ranges established by the board of county 6543 commissioners for the staff of the county public defender and 6544
the staff of the joint county public defender shall not exceed the 6546 pay ranges assigned under section 124.14 of the Revised Code for 6547 comparable positions of the staff of the Ohio public defender. 6548

(G) Except as provided in division (J) of this section, the members of a public body may hold an executive session only after a majority of a quorum of the public body determines, by a roll call vote, to hold an executive session and only at a regular or special meeting for the sole purpose of the consideration of any of the following matters: 6746
6751

(1) To consider the appointment, employment, dismissal, discipline, promotion, demotion, or compensation of a public 6752

employee or official, or the investigation of charges or 6754 complaints against a public employee, official, licensee, or 6755 regulated individual, unless the public employee, official, 6756 licensee, or regulated individual requests a public hearing. 6757 Except as otherwise provided by law, no public body shall hold an 6758 executive session for the discipline of an elected official for 6759 conduct related to the performance of the elected official's 6760 official duties or for the elected official's removal from office. 6761
If a public body holds an executive session pursuant to division 6762 (G)(1) of this section, the motion and vote to hold that executive 6763 session shall state which one or more of the approved purposes 6764 listed in division (G)(1) of this section are the purposes for 6765 which the executive session is to be held, but need not include 6766 the name of any person to be considered at the meeting. 6767

(2) To consider the purchase of property for public purposes, 6768 or for the sale of property at competitive bidding, if premature 6769 disclosure of information would give an unfair competitive or 6770 bargaining advantage to a person whose personal, private interest 6771 is adverse to the general public interest. No member of a public 6772 body shall use division (G)(2) of this section as a subterfuge for 6773 providing covert information to prospective buyers or sellers. A 6774 purchase or sale of public property is void if the seller or buyer 6775 of the public property has received covert information from a 6776 member of a public body that has not been disclosed to the general 6777 public in sufficient time for other prospective buyers and sellers 6778 to prepare and submit offers. 6779

If the minutes of the public body show that all meetings and 6780 deliberations of the public body have been conducted in compliance 6781 with this section, any instrument executed by the public body 6782 purporting to convey, lease, or otherwise dispose of any right, 6783 title, or interest in any public property shall be conclusively 6784

(4) Preparing for, conducting, or reviewing negotiations or 6791 bargaining sessions with public employees concerning their 6792 compensation or other terms and conditions of their employment; 6793

(5) Matters required to be kept confidential by federal law 6794 or regulations or state statutes; 6795

(6) Details relative to the security arrangements and 6796 emergency response protocols for a public body or a public office, 6797 if disclosure of the matters discussed could reasonably be 6798 expected to jeopardize the security of the public body or public 6799
office; 6800

(7) In the case of a county hospital operated pursuant to 6801
Chapter 339. of the Revised Code, a joint township hospital 6802 operated pursuant to Chapter 513. of the Revised Code, or a 6803 municipal hospital operated pursuant to Chapter 749. of the 6804 Revised Code, to consider trade secrets, as defined in section 6805

If a public body holds an executive session to consider any 6807 of the matters listed in divisions (G)(2) to (7) of this section, 6808
the motion and vote to hold that executive session shall state 6809 which one or more of the approved matters listed in those 6810 divisions are to be considered at the executive session. 6811

A public body specified in division (B)(1)(c) of this section 6812 shall not hold an executive session when meeting for the purposes 6813 specified in that division. 6814

(H) A resolution, rule, or formal action of any kind is 6815 invalid unless adopted in an open meeting of the public body. A 6816 resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting that 6817 results from deliberations in a meeting not open to the public is 6818 invalid unless the deliberations were for a purpose specifically 6819 authorized in division (G) or (J) of this section and conducted at 6820 an executive session held in compliance with this section. A 6821 resolution, rule, or formal action adopted in an open meeting is 6822 invalid if the public body that adopted the resolution, rule, or 6823 formal action violated division (F) of this section. 6824

(I)(1) Any person may bring an action to enforce this 6825 section. An action under division (I)(1) of this section shall be 6826 brought within two years after the date of the alleged violation 6827 or threatened violation. Upon proof of a violation or threatened 6828 violation of this section in an action brought by any person, the 6829 court of common pleas shall issue an injunction to compel the 6830 members of the public body to comply with its provisions. 6831

(2)(a) If the court of common pleas issues an injunction 6832
pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section, the court shall order 6833 the public body that it enjoins to pay a civil forfeiture of five 6834 hundred dollars to the party that sought the injunction and shall 6835 award to that party all court costs and, subject to reduction as 6836 described in division (I)(2) of this section, reasonable 6837 attorney's fees. The court, in its discretion, may reduce an award 6838 of attorney's fees to the party that sought the injunction or not 6839 award attorney's fees to that party if the court determines both 6840 of the following: 6841

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 6842 and case law as it existed at the time of violation or threatened 6843 violation that was the basis of the injunction, a well-informed 6844 public body reasonably would believe that the public body was not 6845 violating or threatening to violate this section; 6846

(ii) That a well-informed public body reasonably would 6847 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the basis 6848 of the injunction would serve the public policy that underlies the 6849 authority that is asserted as permitting that conduct or 6850 threatened conduct. 6851

(b) If the court of common pleas does not issue an injunction 6852 pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section and the court 6853 determines at that time that the bringing of the action was 6854 frivolous conduct, as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 6855 of the Revised Code, the court shall award to the public body all 6856 court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the 6857 court. 6858

(3) Irreparable harm and prejudice to the party that sought 6859 the injunction shall be conclusively and irrebuttably presumed 6860 upon proof of a violation or threatened violation of this section. 6861

(4) A member of a public body who knowingly violates an 6862 injunction issued pursuant to division (I)(1) of this section may 6863 be removed from office by an action brought in the court of common 6864 pleas for that purpose by the prosecuting attorney or the attorney 6865 general. 6866

(J)(1) Pursuant to division (C) of section 5901.09 of the 6867 Revised Code, a veterans service commission shall hold an 6868 executive session for one or more of the following purposes unless 6869 an applicant requests a public hearing: 6870

(a) Interviewing an applicant for financial assistance under 6871 sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code; 6872

(b) Discussing applications, statements, and other documents 6873 described in division (B) of section 5901.09 of the Revised Code; 6874

(c) Reviewing matters relating to an applicant's request for 6875 financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the 6876

(2) A veterans service commission shall not exclude an 6878 applicant for, recipient of, or former recipient of financial 6879 assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 of the Revised Code, 6880 and shall not exclude representatives selected by the applicant, 6881 recipient, or former recipient, from a meeting that the commission 6882 conducts as an executive session that pertains to the applicant's, 6883 recipient's, or former recipient's application for financial 6884 assistance. 6885

(3) A veterans service commission shall vote on the grant or 6886 denial of financial assistance under sections 5901.01 to 5901.15 6887 of the Revised Code only in an open meeting of the commission. The 6888 minutes of the meeting shall indicate the name, address, and 6889 occupation of the applicant, whether the assistance was granted or 6890 denied, the amount of the assistance if assistance is granted, and 6891 the votes for and against the granting of assistance. 6892 implemented, including a reasonable period during which the 7119 program or approach is being evaluated for effectiveness. 7120

(5)(a) Each county council shall designate an administrative 7121 agent for the council from among the following public entities: 7122 the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services, 7123 including a board of alcohol and drug addiction or a community 7124 mental health board if the county is served by separate boards; 7125 the board of county commissioners; any board of health of the 7126 county's city and general health districts; the county department 7127 of job and family services; the county agency responsible for the 7128 administration of children services pursuant to section 5153.15 of 7129 the Revised Code; the county board of developmental disabilities; 7130 any of the county's boards of education or governing boards of 7131 educational service centers; or the county's juvenile court. Any 7132 of the foregoing public entities, other than the board of county 7133 commissioners, may decline to serve as the council's 7134 administrative agent. 7135

A county council's administrative agent shall serve as the 7136 council's appointing authority for any employees of the council. 7137
The council shall file an annual budget with its administrative 7138 agent, with copies filed with the county auditor and with the 7139 board of county commissioners, unless the board is serving as the 7140 council's administrative agent. The council's administrative agent 7141 shall ensure that all expenditures are handled in accordance with 7142 policies, procedures, and activities prescribed by state 7143 departments in rules or interagency agreements that are applicable 7144 to the council's functions. 7145

The administrative agent of a county council shall send 7146 notice of a member's absence if a member listed in division (B)(1) 7147 of this section has been absent from either three consecutive 7148 meetings of the county council or a county council subcommittee, 7149 or from one-quarter of such meetings in a calendar year, whichever 7150 is less. The notice shall be sent to the board of county 7151 commissioners that establishes the county council and, for the 7152 members listed in divisions (B)(1)(b), (c), (e), and (l) of this 7153 section, to the governing board overseeing the respective entity; 7154 for the member listed in division (B)(1)(f) of this section, to 7155 the county board of developmental disabilities that employs the 7156 superintendent; for a member listed in division (B)(1)(g) or (h) 7157 of this section, to the school board that employs the 7158 superintendent; for the member listed in division (B)(1)(i) of 7159 this section, to the mayor of the municipal corporation; for the 7160 member listed in division (B)(1)(k) of this section, to the 7161 director of youth services; and for the member listed in division 7162

(B)(1)(n) of this section, to that member's board of trustees. 7163

The administrative agent for a county council may do any of 7164 the following on behalf of the council: 7165

(i) Enter into agreements or administer contracts with public 7166 or private entities to fulfill specific council business. Such 7167 agreements and contracts are exempt from the competitive bidding 7168 requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code if they have 7169 been approved by the county council and they are for the purchase 7170 of family and child welfare or child protection services or other 7171 social or job and family services for families and children. The 7172 approval of the county council is not required to exempt 7173 agreements or contracts entered into under section 5139.34, 7174 5139.41, or 5139.43 of the Revised Code from the competitive 7175 bidding requirements of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. 7176

(ii) As determined by the council, provide financial 7177 stipends, reimbursements, or both, to family representatives for 7178 expenses related to council activity; 7179

(iii) Receive by gift, grant, devise, or bequest any moneys, 7180 lands, or other property for the purposes for which the council is 7181 established. The agent shall hold, apply, and dispose of the 7182 moneys, lands, or other property according to the terms of the 7183 gift, grant, devise, or bequest. Any interest or earnings shall be 7184 treated in the same manner and are subject to the same terms as 7185 the gift, grant, devise, or bequest from which it accrues. 7186

(b)(i) If the county council designates the board of county 7187 commissioners as its administrative agent, the board may, by 7188 resolution, delegate any of its powers and duties as 7189 administrative agent to an executive committee the board 7190 establishes from the membership of the county council. The board 7191 shall name to the executive committee at least the individuals 7192 described in divisions (B)(1)(b) to (h) of this section and may 7193 appoint the president of the board or another individual as the 7194 chair of the executive committee. The executive committee must 7195 include at least one family county council representative who does 7196 not have a family member employed by an agency represented on the 7197 council. 7198

(ii) The executive committee may, with the approval of the 7199 board, hire an executive director to assist the county council in 7200 administering its powers and duties. The executive director shall 7201 serve in the unclassified civil service at the pleasure of the 7202 executive committee. The executive director may, with the approval 7203 of the executive committee, hire other employees as necessary to 7204 properly conduct the county council's business. 7205

(iii) The board may require the executive committee to submit 7206 an annual budget to the board for approval and may amend or repeal 7207 the resolution that delegated to the executive committee its 7208 authority as the county council's administrative agent. 7209

(6) Two or more county councils may enter into an agreement 7210 to administer their county councils jointly by creating a regional 7211 family and children first council. A regional council possesses 7212 the same duties and authority possessed by a county council, 7213 except that the duties and authority apply regionally rather than 7214 to individual counties. Prior to entering into an agreement to 7215 create a regional council, the members of each county council to 7216 be part of the regional council shall meet to determine whether 7217 all or part of the members of each county council will serve as 7218 members of the regional council. 7219

(7) A board of county commissioners may approve a resolution 7220 by a majority vote of the board's members that requires the county 7221 council to submit a statement to the board each time the council 7222 proposes to enter into an agreement, adopt a plan, or make a 7223 decision, other than a decision pursuant to section 121.38 of the 7224 Revised Code, that requires the expenditure of funds for two or 7225 more families. The statement shall describe the proposed 7226 agreement, plan, or decision. 7227

Not later than fifteen days after the board receives the 7228 statement, it shall, by resolution approved by a majority of its 7229 members, approve or disapprove the agreement, plan, or decision. 7230 Failure of the board to pass a resolution during that time period 7231 shall be considered approval of the agreement, plan, or decision. 7232

An agreement, plan, or decision for which a statement is 7233 required to be submitted to the board shall be implemented only if 7234 it is approved by the board. 7235

(C) Each county shall develop a county service coordination 7236 mechanism. The county service coordination mechanism shall serve 7237 as the guiding document for coordination of services in the 7238 county. For children who also receive services under the help me 7239 grow program, the service coordination mechanism shall be 7240 consistent with rules adopted by the department of health under 7241 section 3701.61 of the Revised Code. All family service 7242 coordination plans shall be developed in accordance with the 7243 county service coordination mechanism. The mechanism shall be 7244 developed and approved with the participation of the county 7245 entities representing child welfare; mental retardation and 7246 developmental disabilities; alcohol, drug addiction, and mental 7247 health services; health; juvenile judges; education; the county 7248 family and children first council; and the county early 7249 intervention collaborative established pursuant to the federal 7250 early intervention program operated under the "Individuals with 7251 Disabilities Education Act of 2004." The county shall establish an 7252 implementation schedule for the mechanism. The cabinet council may 7253 monitor the implementation and administration of each county's 7254 service coordination mechanism. 7255

Each mechanism shall include all of the following: 7256

(1) A procedure for an agency, including a juvenile court, or 7257 a family voluntarily seeking service coordination, to refer the 7258 child and family to the county council for service coordination in 7259 accordance with the mechanism; 7260

(2) A procedure ensuring that a family and all appropriate 7261 staff from involved agencies, including a representative from the 7262 appropriate school district, are notified of and invited to 7263 participate in all family service coordination plan meetings; 7264

(3) A procedure that permits a family to initiate a meeting 7265 to develop or review the family's service coordination plan and 7266 allows the family to invite a family advocate, mentor, or support 7267 person of the family's choice to participate in any such meeting; 7268

(4) A procedure for ensuring that a family service 7269 coordination plan meeting is conducted for each child who receives 7270 service coordination under the mechanism and for whom an emergency 7271 out-of-home placement has been made or for whom a nonemergency 7272 out-of-home placement is being considered. The meeting shall be 7273 conducted within ten days of an emergency out-of-home placement. 7274
The meeting shall be conducted before a nonemergency out-of-home 7275 placement. The family service coordination plan shall outline how 7276 the county council members will jointly pay for services, where 7277 applicable, and provide services in the least restrictive 7278 environment. 7279

(5) A procedure for monitoring the progress and tracking the 7280 outcomes of each service coordination plan requested in the county 7281 including monitoring and tracking children in out-of-home 7282 placements to assure continued progress, appropriateness of 7283 placement, and continuity of care after discharge from placement 7284 with appropriate arrangements for housing, treatment, and 7285 education. 7286

(6) A procedure for protecting the confidentiality of all 7287 personal family information disclosed during service coordination 7288 meetings or contained in the comprehensive family service 7289 coordination plan. 7290

(7) A procedure for assessing the needs and strengths of any 7291 child or family that has been referred to the council for service 7292 coordination, including a child whose parent or custodian is 7293 voluntarily seeking services, and for ensuring that parents and 7294 custodians are afforded the opportunity to participate; 7295

(8) A procedure for development of a family service 7296 coordination plan described in division (D) of this section; 7297

(9) A local dispute resolution process to serve as the 7298 process that must be used first to resolve disputes among the 7299 agencies represented on the county council concerning the 7300 provision of services to children, including children who are 7301 abused, neglected, dependent, unruly, alleged unruly, or 7302 delinquent children and under the jurisdiction of the juvenile 7303 court and children whose parents or custodians are voluntarily 7304 seeking services. The local dispute resolution process shall 7305 comply with sections 121.38, 121.381, and 121.382 of the Revised 7306 Code. The local dispute resolution process shall be used to 7307 resolve disputes between a child's parents or custodians and the 7308 county council regarding service coordination. The county council 7309 shall inform the parents or custodians of their right to use the 7310 dispute resolution process. Parents or custodians shall use 7311 existing local agency grievance procedures to address disputes not 7312 involving service coordination. The dispute resolution process is 7313 in addition to and does not replace other rights or procedures 7314 that parents or custodians may have under other sections of the 7315

Revised Code. 7316

The cabinet council shall adopt rules in accordance with 7317
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code establishing an administrative 7318 review process to address problems that arise concerning the 7319 operation of a local dispute resolution process. 7320

Nothing in division (C)(4) of this section shall be 7321 interpreted as overriding or affecting decisions of a juvenile 7322 court regarding an out-of-home placement, long-term placement, or 7323 emergency out-of-home placement. 7324

(D) Each county shall develop a family service coordination 7325 plan that does all of the following: 7326

(1) Designates service responsibilities among the various 7327 state and local agencies that provide services to children and 7328

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment position from one political subdivision to another political subdivision shall be considered a relocation of an employment position unless the movement is confined to the project site. The transfer of an employment position from one political subdivision to another political subdivision shall not be considered a relocation of an employment position if the employment position in the first political subdivision is replaced by another employment position.

(8) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods relating to assessments or adjustments resulting from the taxpayer's failure to comply with the agreement.

(F) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term of the credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may take effect in the current taxable or calendar year.

of the statement or other information. 8058

(H) A taxpayer claiming a tax credit under this section shall 8059 submit to the tax commissioner or, in the case of an insurance 8060 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 8061 director of development's certificate of verification under 8062 division (E)(6) of this section with the taxpayer's tax report or 8063 return for the taxable year or for the calendar year that includes 8064 the tax period. Failure to submit a copy of the certificate with 8065 the report or return does not invalidate a claim for a credit if 8066 the taxpayer submits a copy of the certificate to the commissioner 8067 or superintendent within sixty days after the commissioner or 8068 superintendent requests it. 8069

(I) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 8070 a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 8071 subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 8072 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 8073 distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 8074 other such business entity may elect to pass the credit received 8075 under this section through to the persons to whom the income or 8076 profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 8077 distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 8078 required under division (E)(5) of this section. The election 8079 applies to and is irrevocable for the credit for which the report 8080 is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 8081 apportioned among those persons in the same proportions as those 8082 in which the income or profit is distributed. 8083

(J) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 8084 that received a tax credit under this section is not complying 8085 with the requirement under division (E)(3) of this section, the 8086 director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 8087 noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 8088 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the 8089

authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 8090 refund to the state all or a portion of the credit claimed in 8091 previous years, as follows: 8092

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 8093 for less than or equal to the term of the credit, an amount not to 8094 exceed one hundred per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed 8095 and received under this section. 8096

(2) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 8097 longer than the term of the credit, but less than the greater of 8098
(a) the term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years, 8099 the amount required to be refunded shall not exceed seventy-five 8100 per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed and received under 8101
this section. 8102

In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded to 8103 this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 8104 conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the taxpayer 8105 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 8106 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 8107 refunded to the tax commissioner or the superintendent of 8108 insurance. If the taxpayer is not an insurance company, the 8109 commissioner shall make an assessment for that amount against the 8110 taxpayer under Chapter 5733., 5747., or 5751. of the Revised Code. 8111
If the taxpayer is an insurance company, the superintendent of 8112 insurance shall make an assessment under section 5725.222 or 8113 5729.102 of the Revised Code. The time limitations on assessments 8114 under those chapters and sections do not apply to an assessment 8115 under this division, but the commissioner or superintendent shall 8116 make the assessment within one year after the date the authority 8117 certifies to the commissioner or superintendent the amount to be 8118 refunded. 8119

(K) The director of development, after consultation with the 8120 tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and in 8121 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 8122 rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 8123 for recipients of tax credits under this section to be charged 8124 fees to cover administrative costs of the tax credit program. The 8125 fees collected shall be credited to the tax incentive programs 8126 operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 8127

the time the director gives public notice under division (A) of 8128
section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 8129
the director shall submit copies of the proposed rules to the 8130
chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 8131
the senate and the house of representatives. 8132

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 8133
director of development shall submit a report to the governor, the 8134
president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 8135 representatives on the tax credit program under this section. The 8136 report shall include information on the number of agreements that 8137 were entered into under this section during the preceding calendar 8138 year, a description of the project that is the subject of each 8139 such agreement, and an update on the status of projects under 8140 agreements entered into before the preceding calendar year. 8141

(M)(1) The aggregate amount of tax credits issued under 8142 division (B)(1) of this section during any calendar year for 8143 capital investment projects reviewed and approved by the tax 8144 credit authority may not exceed the following amounts: 8145

(a) For 2010, thirteen million dollars; 8146

(b) For 2011 through 2023, the amount of the limit for the 8147 preceding calendar year plus thirteen million dollars; 8148

(c) For 2024 and each year thereafter, one hundred 8149 ninety-five million dollars. 8150

(2) The aggregate amount of tax credits ~~issued~~ authorized 8151 under ~~division~~ divisions (B)(2) and (3) of this section ~~during~~ and 8152 allowed to be claimed by taxpayers in any calendar year for 8153 capital improvement projects reviewed and approved by the tax 8154 credit authority ~~may not exceed eight million dollars in 2011,~~ 8155 2012, and 2013 combined shall not exceed twenty-five million 8156 dollars. An amount equal to the aggregate amount of credits first 8157 authorized in calendar year 2011, 2012, and 2013 may be claimed 8158 over the ensuing period up to fifteen years, subject to the terms 8159 of individual tax credit agreements. 8160

The limitations in division (M) of this section do not apply 8161 to credits for capital investment projects approved by the tax 8162 credit authority before July 1, 2009. 8163

Revised Code the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of 8216 computer data center equipment used or to be used at an eligible 8217 computer data center. Any such exemption shall extend to charges 8218 for the delivery, installation, or repair of the computer data 8219 center equipment subject to the exemption under this section. 8220

(C) A taxpayer that proposes a capital improvement project 8221 for an eligible computer data center in this state may apply to 8222 section for a complete or partial exemption from the taxes imposed 8224 under Chapters 5739. and 5741. of the Revised Code on computer 8225 of the application. After receipt of an application, the authority 8228 shall forward copies of the application to the director of budget 8229 and management, the tax commissioner, and the director of 8230 development, each of whom shall review the application to 8231 determine the economic impact that the proposed eligible computer 8232 data center would have on the state and any affected political 8233

(D) Upon review and consideration of such determinations and 8236 agreement with the taxpayer for a complete or partial exemption 8238 from the taxes imposed under Chapters 5739. and 5741. of the 8239

8248

(3) The taxpayer intends to and has the ability to maintain operations at the project site for the term of the agreement. 8249

8255

(2) The percentage of the exemption from the taxes imposed under Chapters 5739. and 5741. of the Revised Code for the computer data center equipment used or to be used at the eligible computer data center, the length of time the computer data center equipment will be exempted, and the first date on which the exemption applies. 8263

8272

(4) A requirement that during each year of the term of the agreement the taxpayer pay annual compensation that is subject to 8273
8274

the withholding obligation imposed under section 5747.06 of the 8275 Revised Code of at least five million dollars to its employees at 8276 the eligible computer data center. 8277

(5) A requirement that the taxpayer annually report to the 8278 director of development employment, tax withholding, capital 8279 investment, and other information required by the director to 8280 perform the director's duties under this section. 8281

(6) A requirement that the director of development annually 8282 review the annual reports of the taxpayer to verify the 8283 information reported under division (E)(5) of this section and 8284 compliance with the agreement. Upon verification, the director 8285 shall issue a certificate to the taxpayer stating that the 8286 information has been verified and that the taxpayer remains 8287 eligible for the exemption specified in the agreement. 8288

(7) A provision providing that the taxpayer may not relocate 8289 a substantial number of employment positions from elsewhere in 8290 this state to the project site unless the director of development 8291 determines that the taxpayer notified the legislative authority of 8292 the county, township, or municipal corporation from which the 8293 employment positions would be relocated. For purposes of this 8294 paragraph, the movement of an employment position from one 8295 political subdivision to another political subdivision shall be 8296 considered a relocation of an employment position unless the 8297 movement is confined to the project site. The transfer of an 8298 employment position from one political subdivision to another 8299 political subdivision shall not be considered a relocation of an 8300 employment position if the employment position in the first 8301 political subdivision is replaced by another employment position. 8302

(8) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods 8303 relating to assessments or adjustments resulting from the 8304 taxpayer's failure to comply with the agreement. 8305

(F) The term of an agreement under this section shall be 8306 determined by the tax credit authority, and the amount of the 8307 exemption shall not exceed one hundred per cent of such taxes that 8308 would otherwise be owed in respect to the exempted computer data 8309 center equipment. 8310

(G) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 8311 or requirement set forth in an agreement under this section, the 8312 tax credit authority may amend the agreement to reduce the 8313 percentage of the exemption or term during which the exemption 8314 applies to the computer data center equipment used or to be used 8315 at an eligible computer data center. The reduction of the 8316 percentage or term may take effect in the current calendar year. 8317

(H) Financial statements and other information submitted to 8318 the department of development or the tax credit authority by an 8319 applicant for or recipient of an exemption under this section, and 8320 any information taken for any purpose from such statements or 8321 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 8322 the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of the authority may 8323 make use of the statements and other information for purposes of 8324 issuing public reports or in connection with court proceedings 8325 concerning tax exemption agreements under this section. Upon the 8326 request of the tax commissioner, the chairperson of the authority 8327 shall provide to the tax commissioner any statement or other 8328 information submitted by an applicant for or recipient of an 8329 exemption under this section. The tax commissioner shall preserve 8330 the confidentiality of the statement or other information. 8331

(I) The tax commissioner shall issue a direct payment permit 8332 under section 5739.031 of the Revised Code to a taxpayer that 8333 enters into an agreement under this section. Such direct payment 8334 permit shall authorize the taxpayer to pay any sales and use taxes 8335 due on purchases of computer data center equipment used or to be 8336 used in an eligible computer data center and to pay any sales and 8337 use taxes due on purchases of tangible personal property or 8338 taxable services other than computer data center equipment used or 8339 to be used in an eligible computer data center directly to the tax 8340 commissioner. Each taxpayer shall pay pursuant to such direct 8341 payment permit all sales tax levied on such purchases under 8342 sections 5739.02, 5739.021, 5739.023, and 5739.026 of the Revised 8343 Code and all use tax levied on such purchases under sections 8344 5741.02, 5741.021, 5741.022, and 5741.023 of the Revised Code, 8345 consistent with the terms of the agreement entered into under this 8346

section. 8347

During the term of an agreement under this section the 8348 taxpayer shall submit to the tax commissioner a return that shows 8349 the amount of computer data center equipment purchased for use at 8350 the eligible computer data center, the amount of tangible personal 8351 property and taxable services other than computer data center 8352 equipment purchased for use at the eligible computer data center, 8353 the amount of tax under Chapter 5739. or 5741. of the Revised Code 8354 that would be due in the absence of the agreement under this 8355 section, the exemption percentage for computer data center 8356 equipment specified in the agreement, and the amount of tax due 8357 under Chapter 5739. or 5741. of the Revised Code as a result of 8358 the agreement under this section. The taxpayer shall pay the tax 8359 shown on the return to be due in the manner and at the times as 8360 may be further prescribed by the tax commissioner. The taxpayer 8361 shall include a copy of the director of development's certificate 8362 of verification issued under division (E)(6) of this section. 8363 Failure to submit a copy of the certificate with the return does 8364 not invalidate the claim for exemption if the taxpayer submits a 8365 copy of the certificate to the tax commissioner within sixty days 8366 after the tax commissioner requests it. 8367

(J) If the director of development determines that a taxpayer 8368 that received an exemption under this section is not complying 8369

director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 8371
noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 8372
authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 8374 pay to the state all or a portion of the taxes that would have 8375 been owed in regards to the exempt equipment in previous years, 8376 all as determined under rules adopted pursuant to division (K) of 8377 this section. In determining the portion of the taxes that would 8378 have been owed on the previously exempted equipment to be paid to 8379 this state by the taxpayer, the authority shall consider the 8380 effect of market conditions on the taxpayer's eligible computer 8381 data center and whether the taxpayer continues to maintain other 8382 operations in this state. After making the determination, the 8383 authority shall certify to the tax commissioner the amount to be 8384 paid by the taxpayer. The tax commissioner shall make an 8385 assessment for that amount against the taxpayer under Chapter 8386 5739. or 5741. of the Revised Code. The time limitations on 8387 assessments under those chapters do not apply to an assessment 8388 under this division, but the tax commissioner shall make the 8389 assessment within one year after the date the authority certifies 8390 to the tax commissioner the amount to be paid by the taxpayer. 8391

tax commissioner and in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 8393 Revised Code, shall adopt rules necessary to implement this 8394 section. The rules may provide for recipients of tax exemptions 8395 under this section to be charged fees to cover administrative 8396 costs incurred in the administration of this section. The fees 8397 collected shall be credited to the tax incentive programs 8398 operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 8399
section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 8401

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 8405
president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of 8407 representatives on the tax exemption authorized under this 8408 section. The report shall include information on the number of 8409 agreements that were entered into under this section during the 8410 preceding calendar year, a description of the eligible computer 8411 data center that is the subject of each such agreement, and an 8412 update on the status of eligible computer data centers under 8413 agreements entered into before the preceding calendar year. 8414

Sec. 122.76. (A) The director of development, with 8415 controlling board approval, may lend funds to minority business 8416 enterprises and to community improvement corporations, Ohio 8417 development corporations, minority contractors business assistance 8418 organizations, and minority business supplier development councils 8419 for the purpose of loaning funds to minority business enterprises 8420 and for the purpose of procuring or improving real or personal 8421 property, or both, for the establishment, location, or expansion 8422 of industrial, distribution, commercial, or research facilities in 8423 the state, and to community development corporations that 8424 predominantly benefit minority business enterprises or are located 8425 in a census tract that has a population that is sixty per cent or 8426 more minority if the director determines, in the director's sole 8427 discretion, that all of the following apply: 8428

(1) The project is economically sound and will benefit the 8429 people of the state by increasing opportunities for employment, by 8430 strengthening the economy of the state, or expanding minority 8431 business enterprises. 8432

(2) The proposed minority business enterprise borrower is 8433 unable to finance the proposed project through ordinary financial channels at comparable terms. 8434

8440

(4) The amount to be loaned by the director will not exceed sixty per cent of the total amount expended in the procurement or improvement of the project. 8441

8447
8450
8453

8455
8457
8459

8464 development office of the department of development, or other 8465 identified and acceptable sources. In determining whether a 8466 minority business enterprise borrower will be able to successfully 8467 compete, the director may give consideration to such factors as 8468 the successful completion of or participation in courses of study, 8469 recognized by the board of regents as providing financial, 8470 technical, or managerial skills related to the operation of the 8471 business, by the economically disadvantaged individual, owner, or 8472 partner, and the prior success of the individual, owner, or 8473 partner in personal, career, or business activities, as well as to 8474 other factors identified by the director. 8475

(D) The director shall not lend funds for the purpose of 8476 procuring or improving motor vehicles or accounts receivable. 8477

or storage use;	8570
(14) To lease for a period not to exceed forty years,	8571
pursuant to a contract providing for the construction thereof	8572 under a lease-purchase plan, buildings, structures, and other	8573 improvements for any public purpose, and, in conjunction	8574 therewith, to grant leases, easements, or licenses for lands under	8575
the control of a state agency for a period not to exceed forty	8576

the lease period, the buildings, structures, and related	8578 improvements, together with the land on which they are situated,	8579 shall become the property of the state without cost.	8580
(a) Whenever any building, structure, or other improvement is	8581 to be so leased by a state agency, the department shall retain	8582 either basic plans, specifications, bills of materials, and	8583 estimates of cost with sufficient detail to afford bidders all	8584 needed information or, alternatively, all of the following plans,	8585 details, bills of materials, and specifications:	8586
(i) Full and accurate plans suitable for the use of mechanics	8587
and other builders in the improvement;	8588
(ii) Details to scale and full sized, so drawn and	8589 represented as to be easily understood; 8590

(iii) Accurate bills showing the exact quantity of different 8591 kinds of material necessary to the construction; 8592

(iv) Definite and complete specifications of the work to be 8593 performed, together with such directions as will enable a 8594 competent mechanic or other builder to carry them out and afford 8595 bidders all needed information; 8596

(v) A full and accurate estimate of each item of expense and 8597 of the aggregate cost thereof. 8598

(b) The department shall give public notice, in such 8599 newspaper, in such form, and with such phraseology as the director 8600 of administrative services prescribes, published once each week 8601 for four consecutive weeks, of the time when and place where bids 8602 will be received for entering into an agreement to lease to a 8603 state agency a building, structure, or other improvement. The last 8604 publication shall be at least eight days preceding the day for 8605 opening the bids. The bids shall contain the terms upon which the 8606 builder would propose to lease the building, structure, or other 8607 improvement to the state agency. The form of the bid approved by 8608 the department shall be used, and a bid is invalid and shall not 8609 be considered unless that form is used without change, alteration, 8610 or addition. Before submitting bids pursuant to this section, any 8611 builder shall comply with Chapter 153. of the Revised Code. 8612

(c) On the day and at the place named for receiving bids for 8613 entering into lease agreements with a state agency, the director 8614 of administrative services shall open the bids and shall publicly 8615 proceed immediately to tabulate the bids upon duplicate sheets. No 8616 lease agreement shall be entered into until the bureau of workers' 8617 compensation has certified that the person to be awarded the lease 8618 agreement has complied with Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, 8619 until, if the builder submitting the lowest and best bid is a 8620 foreign corporation, the secretary of state has certified that the 8621 corporation is authorized to do business in this state, until, if 8622 the builder submitting the lowest and best bid is a person 8623 nonresident of this state, the person has filed with the secretary 8624 of state a power of attorney designating the secretary of state as 8625 its agent for the purpose of accepting service of summons in any 8626 action brought under Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, and until 8627 the agreement is submitted to the attorney general and the 8628 attorney general's approval is certified thereon. Within thirty 8629 days after the day on which the bids are received, the department 8630 shall investigate the bids received and shall determine that the 8631 bureau and the secretary of state have made the certifications 8632 required by this section of the builder who has submitted the 8633 lowest and best bid. Within ten days of the completion of the 8634 investigation of the bids, the department shall award the lease 8635 agreement to the builder who has submitted the lowest and best bid 8636 and who has been certified by the bureau and secretary of state as 8637 required by this section. If bidding for the lease agreement has 8638 been conducted upon the basis of basic plans, specifications, 8639 bills of materials, and estimates of costs, upon the award to the 8640 builder the department, or the builder with the approval of the 8641 department, shall appoint an architect or engineer licensed in 8642 this state to prepare such further detailed plans, specifications, 8643 and bills of materials as are required to construct the building, 8644 structure, or improvement. The department shall adopt such rules 8645 as are necessary to give effect to this section. The department 8646 may reject any bid. Where there is reason to believe there is 8647 collusion or combination among bidders, the bids of those 8648 concerned therein shall be rejected. 8649 this section, has the same meaning as in section 123.77 of the 8661

Such a lease shall be for the purpose of development of the 8663 land for use by senior citizens by constructing, altering, 8664 renovating, repairing, expanding, and improving the site as it 8665 existed on June 25, 1982. A developer desiring to lease the land 8666 shall prepare for submission to the department a plan for 8667 development. Plans shall include provisions for roads, sewers, 8668 set forth details of the developer's financial responsibility. 8673

The department may employ, as employees or consultants, 8674 persons needed to assist in reviewing the development plans. Those 8675 persons may include attorneys, financial experts, engineers, and 8676 necessary facilities shall begin within one year after the date of 8688 the lease and shall proceed according to a schedule agreed to 8689 between the department and the developer or the lease will be 8690 terminated. The lease shall contain such conditions and 8691 stipulations as the director considers necessary to preserve the 8692 lease shall provide that at the end of the lease period the 8695 buildings, structures, and related improvements shall become the 8696 property of the state without cost. 8697

(17) To lease to any person any tract of land owned by the 8698 state and under the control of the department, or any part of such 8699 storage space, and other uses, and to report its findings to the 8715

department; 8716

(ii) Creating and updating a master space utilization plan 8717 for all space allotted to state agencies. The plan shall 8718 incorporate space utilization metrics. 8719 effectiveness of state-owned buildings; 8721

(iv) Assessing the alternatives associated with consolidating 8722 the commercial leases for buildings located in Columbus. 8723 energy consuming systems, components, and equipment by demand and 8794 type of energy, including the internal energy load imposed on a 8795 facility by its occupants and the external energy load imposed by 8796 climatic conditions. 8797

(3) "Energy performance index" means a number describing the 8798 energy requirements of a facility per square foot of floor space 8799 or per cubic foot of occupied volume as appropriate under defined 8800 internal and external ambient conditions over an entire seasonal 8801 cycle. 8802

(4) "Facility" means a building or other structure, or part 8803 of a building or other structure, that includes provision for a 8804 heating, refrigeration, ventilation, cooling, lighting, hot water, 8805 or other major energy consuming system, component, or equipment. 8806

(5) "Life-cycle cost analysis" means a general approach to 8807 related to owning, operating, maintaining, and ultimately 8809 disposing of a project over the appropriate study period. 8810

(6) "Political subdivision" means a county, township, 8811 municipal corporation, board of education of any school district, 8812 appointed by the director of administrative services. The director 8824 shall assign to the office such number of employees and furnish 8825 such equipment and supplies as are necessary for the performance 8826 of the office's duties. 8827

The office shall develop energy efficiency and conservation 8828 programs in each of the following areas: 8829

- (1) New construction design and review; 8830
- (2) Existing building audit and retrofit; 8831
- (3) Energy efficient procurement; 8832
- (4) Alternative fuel vehicles. 8833

The office may accept and administer grants from public and 8834 private sources for carrying out any of its duties under this 8835
section. 8836

leased or constructed, within the limits prescribed in this 8842 section, a state-funded facility, without ~~having secured from the~~ 8843 ~~office~~ a proper life-cycle cost analysis or, in the case of a 8844 lease, an energy consumption analysis, as computed or prepared by 8845 a qualified architect or engineer in accordance with the rules 8846 required by division (D) of this section. 8847

Construction shall proceed only upon the disclosure to the 8848 office, for the facility chosen, of the life-cycle costs as 8849 determined in this section and the capitalization of the initial 8850 construction costs of the building. The results of life-cycle cost 8851 analysis shall be a primary consideration in the selection of a 8852 building design. That analysis shall be required only for 8853 construction of buildings with an area of five thousand square 8854 feet or greater. An energy consumption analysis for the term of a 8855 proposed lease shall be required only for the leasing of an area 8856 of twenty thousand square feet or greater within a given building 8857 boundary. That analysis shall be a primary consideration in the 8858 selection of a facility to be leased. 8859

Nothing in this section shall deprive or limit any state 8860 agency that has review authority over design, construction, or 8861 leasing plans from requiring a life-cycle cost analysis or energy 8862 consumption analysis. 8863

~~Whenever any state agency, department, division, bureau,~~ 8864
~~office, unit, board, commission, authority, quasi-governmental~~ 8865 ~~entity, or institution requests release of capital improvement~~ 8866

(D) For the purposes of assisting the department in its 8871 responsibility for state-funded facilities pursuant to section 8872 123.01 of the Revised Code and of cost-effectively reducing the 8873 energy consumption of those and any other state-funded facilities, 8874 thereby promoting fiscal, economic, and environmental benefits to 8875 this state, the office shall promulgate rules specifying 8876 cost-effective, energy efficiency and conservation standards that 8877 may govern the lease, design, construction, operation, and 8878 maintenance of all state-funded facilities, except facilities of 8879 state institutions of higher education or facilities operated by a 8880 political subdivision. The office of energy efficiency in the 8881 department of development shall cooperate in providing information 8882 and technical expertise to the office of energy services to ensure 8883 promulgation of rules of maximum effectiveness. The standards 8884 prescribed by rules promulgated under this division may draw from 8885 or incorporate, by reference or otherwise and in whole or in part, 8886 standards already developed or implemented by any competent, 8887 public or private standards organization or program. The rules 8888 also may include any of the following: 8889

(1) Specifications for a life-cycle cost analysis that shall 8890 determine, for the economic life of such state-funded facility, 8891 the reasonably expected costs of facility ownership, operation, 8892 and maintenance including labor and materials. Life-cycle cost may 8893 be expressed as an annual cost for each year of the facility's 8894 use. ~~Further, the life cycle cost analysis may demonstrate for~~ 8895 ~~each design how the design contributes to energy efficiency and~~ 8896
~~conservation with respect to any of the following:~~ 8897

~~(a) The coordination, orientation, and positioning of the~~ 8898 ~~facility on its physical site;~~ 8899

~~(b) The amount and type of glass employed in the facility and~~ 8900
~~the directions of exposure;~~ 8901

~~(c) Thermal characteristics of materials incorporated into facility design, including insulation;~~ 8902
8903

8914

8925

A life-cycle cost analysis and energy consumption analysis shall be based on the best currently available methods of analysis, such as those of the national bureau institute of standards and technology, the United States department of ~~housing and urban development~~ energy or other federal agencies, professional societies, and directions developed by the 8926
8927
8929

(3) Specifications for energy performance indices, to be used 8933 to audit and evaluate competing design proposals submitted to the 8934

employment shall be given in, all positions in the competitive 9388 class that are not filled by promotion, reinstatement, transfer, 9389 or reduction, as provided in this chapter, and the rules of the 9390 director of administrative services, by appointment from those 9391 certified to the appointing officer in accordance with this 9392
chapter. 9393

(2) The unskilled labor class shall include ordinary 9394 unskilled laborers. Vacancies in the labor class for positions in 9395 service of the state shall be filled by appointment from lists of 9396 applicants registered by the director. Vacancies in the labor 9397 class for all other positions shall be filled by appointment from 9398 lists of applicants registered by a commission. The director or 9399 the commission, as applicable, by rule, shall require an applicant 9400 for registration in the labor class to furnish evidence or take 9401 tests as the director or commission considers proper with respect 9402 to age, residence, physical condition, ability to labor, honesty, 9403 sobriety, industry, capacity, and experience in the work or 9404 employment for which application is made. Laborers who fulfill the 9405 requirements shall be placed on the eligible list for the kind of 9406 labor or employment sought, and preference shall be given in 9407 employment in accordance with the rating received from that 9408 evidence or in those tests. Upon the request of an appointing 9409 officer, stating the kind of labor needed, the pay and probable 9410 length of employment, and the number to be employed, the director 9411 or commission, as applicable, shall certify from the highest on 9412 the list double the number to be employed; from this number, the 9413 appointing officer shall appoint the number actually needed for 9414 the particular work. If more than one applicant receives the same 9415 rating, priority in time of application shall determine the order 9416 in which their names shall be certified for appointment. 9417

(C) A municipal or civil service township civil service 9418 commission may place volunteer firefighters who are paid on a 9419 fee-for-service basis in either the classified or the unclassified 9420 civil service. 9421

(D) This division does not apply to persons in the 9422 unclassified service who have the right to resume positions in the 9423 classified service under sections 4121.121, 5119.071, 5120.38, 9424 5120.381, 5120.382, 5123.08, 5139.02, and 5501.19 of the Revised 9425
Code. 9426

An appointing authority whose employees are paid directly by 9427 warrant of the director of budget and management may appoint a 9428 person who holds a certified position in the classified service 9429 within the appointing authority's agency to a position in the 9430 unclassified service within that agency. A person appointed 9431 pursuant to this division to a position in the unclassified 9432 service shall retain the right to resume the position and status 9433 held by the person in the classified service immediately prior to 9434 the person's appointment to the position in the unclassified 9435 service, regardless of the number of positions the person held in 9436 the unclassified service. An employee's right to resume a position 9437 in the classified service may only be exercised when an appointing 9438 authority demotes the employee to a pay range lower than the 9439 employee's current pay range or revokes the employee's appointment 9440 to the unclassified service. An employee forfeits the right to 9441 resume a position in the classified service when the employee is 9442 removed from the position in the unclassified service due to 9443 incompetence, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral 9444 conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, 9445 neglect of duty, violation of this chapter or the rules of the 9446 director of administrative services, any other failure of good 9447 behavior, any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, or 9448 nonfeasance in office, or conviction of a felony. An employee also 9449 forfeits the right to resume a position in the classified service 9450 upon transfer to a different agency. 9451

Reinstatement to a position in the classified service shall 9452 be to a position substantially equal to that position in the 9453 classified service held previously, as certified by the director 9454 of administrative services. If the position the person previously 9455 held in the classified service has been placed in the unclassified 9456 service or is otherwise unavailable, the person shall be appointed 9457 to a position in the classified service within the appointing 9458 authority's agency that the director of administrative services 9459 certifies is comparable in compensation to the position the person 9460 previously held in the classified service. Service in the position 9461 in the unclassified service shall be counted as service in the 9462 position in the classified service held by the person immediately 9463 prior to the person's appointment to the position in the 9464 unclassified service. When a person is reinstated to a position in 9465 the classified service as provided in this division, the person is 9466 entitled to all rights, status, and benefits accruing to the 9467 position in the classified service during the person's time of 9468 service in the position in the unclassified service. 9469

Sec. 124.14. (A)(1) The director of administrative services 9470 shall establish, and may modify or rescind, ~~by rule,~~ a job 9471 classification plan for all positions, offices, and employments 9472 the salaries of which are paid in whole or in part by the state. 9473
The director shall group jobs within a classification so that the 9474 positions are similar enough in duties and responsibilities to be 9475 described by the same title, to have the same pay assigned with 9476 equity, and to have the same qualifications for selection applied. 9477
The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign a classification title to each 9478 classification within the classification plan. However, the 9479 director shall consider in establishing classifications, including 9480 classifications with parenthetical titles, and assigning pay 9481 ranges such factors as duties performed only on one shift, special 9482 skills in short supply in the labor market, recruitment problems, 9483 separation rates, comparative salary rates, the amount of training 9484 required, and other conditions affecting employment. The director 9485 shall describe the duties and responsibilities of the class, 9486 establish the qualifications for being employed in each position 9487 in the class, and file with the secretary of state a copy of 9488 specifications for all of the classifications. The director shall 9489 file new, additional, or revised specifications with the secretary 9490 of state before they are used. 9491

The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign each classification, 9492 either on a statewide basis or in particular counties or state 9493 institutions, to a pay range established under section 124.15 or 9494 section 124.152 of the Revised Code. The director may assign a 9495 classification to a pay range on a temporary basis for a period of 9496 six months. The director may establish, ~~by rule adopted under~~ 9497 ~~Chapter 119. of the Revised Code,~~ experimental classification 9498 plans for some or all employees paid directly by warrant of the 9499 director of budget and management. ~~The rule~~ An experimental 9500 classification plan shall include specifications for each 9501 classification within the plan and shall specifically address 9502 compensation ranges, and methods for advancing within the ranges, 9503 for the classifications, which may be assigned to pay ranges other 9504 than the pay ranges established under section 124.15 or 124.152 of 9505

the Revised Code. 9506

(2) The director of administrative services may reassign to a 9507 proper classification those positions that have been assigned to 9508 an improper classification. If the compensation of an employee in 9509 such a reassigned position exceeds the maximum rate of pay for the 9510 employee's new classification, the employee shall be placed in pay 9511 step X and shall not receive an increase in compensation until the 9512 maximum rate of pay for that classification exceeds the employee's 9513 compensation. 9514

(3) The director may reassign an exempt employee, as defined 9515 in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, to a bargaining unit 9516 classification if the director determines that the bargaining unit 9517 classification is the proper classification for that employee. 9518 Notwithstanding Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code or instruments 9519 and contracts negotiated under it, these placements are at the 9520 director's discretion. 9521

(4) The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign related 9522 classifications, which form a career progression, to a 9523 classification series. The director shall, ~~by rule,~~ assign each 9524 classification in the classification plan a five-digit number, the 9525 first four digits of which shall denote the classification series 9526 to which the classification is assigned. When a career progression 9527 encompasses more than ten classifications, the director shall, ~~by~~ 9528 ~~rule,~~ identify the additional classifications belonging to a 9529 classification series. The additional classifications shall be 9530 part of the classification series, notwithstanding the fact that 9531 the first four digits of the number assigned to the additional 9532 classifications do not correspond to the first four digits of the 9533 numbers assigned to other classifications in the classification 9534 series. 9535

(5) The director may establish, modify, or rescind a 9536 classification plan for county agencies that elect not to use the 9537 services and facilities of a county personnel department. ~~The~~ 9538 ~~director shall establish any such classification plan by means of~~ 9539 ~~rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The rules~~ 9540
The classification plan shall include a methodology for the 9541 establishment of titles unique to county agencies, the use of 9542 state classification titles and classification specifications for 9543 common positions, the criteria for a county to meet in 9544 establishing its own classification plan, and the establishment of 9545 what constitutes a classification series for county agencies. ~~The~~ 9546 director may assess a county agency that chooses to use the 9547 classification plan a usage fee the director determines. All usage 9548 fees the department of administrative services receives shall be 9549 paid into the state treasury to the credit of the human resources 9550 fund created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code. 9551

(B) Division (A) of this section and sections 124.15 and 9552
124.152 of the Revised Code do not apply to the following persons, 9553 positions, offices, and employments: 9554

(1) Elected officials; 9555

(2) Legislative employees, employees of the legislative 9556 service commission, employees in the office of the governor, 9557 employees who are in the unclassified civil service and exempt 9558 from collective bargaining coverage in the office of the secretary 9559 of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, and attorney 9560 general, and employees of the supreme court; 9561

(3) Employees of a county children services board that 9562

compensation is given by law to another individual or entity; 9566

Code. 9570

(C) The director may employ a consulting agency to aid and 9571 assist the director in carrying out this section. 9572

(D)(1) When the director proposes to modify a classification 9573 or the assignment of classes to appropriate pay ranges, the 9574 director shall send written notice of the ~~proposed rule~~ 9575 modification to the appointing authorities of the affected 9576 employees ~~thirty days before a hearing on the proposed rule. The,~~ 9577 and the appointing authorities shall notify the affected employees 9578 regarding the ~~proposed rule modification thirty days before the~~ 9579 modification occurs. The director also shall send those appointing 9580 authorities notice of any ~~final rule that is adopted~~ modification 9581 within ten days after ~~adoption~~ the modification. 9582

(2) When the director proposes to reclassify any employee so 9583 that the employee is adversely affected, the director shall give 9584 to the employee affected and to the employee's appointing 9585 authority a written notice setting forth the proposed new 9586 classification, pay range, and salary. Upon the request of any 9587 classified employee who is not serving in a probationary period, 9588 the director shall perform a job audit to review the 9589 classification of the employee's position to determine whether the 9590 position is properly classified. The director shall give to the 9591 employee affected and to the employee's appointing authority a 9592 written notice of the director's determination whether or not to 9593 reclassify the position or to reassign the employee to another 9594 classification. An employee or appointing authority desiring a 9595 hearing shall file a written request for the hearing with the 9596 state personnel board of review within thirty days after receiving 9597 the notice. The board shall set the matter for a hearing and 9598 notify the employee and appointing authority of the time and place 9599 of the hearing. The employee, the appointing authority, or any 9600 authorized representative of the employee who wishes to submit 9601 facts for the consideration of the board shall be afforded 9602 reasonable opportunity to do so. After the hearing, the board 9603 shall consider anew the reclassification and may order the 9604 reclassification of the employee and require the director to 9605 assign the employee to such appropriate classification as the 9606 facts and evidence warrant. As provided in division (A)(1) of 9607 section 124.03 of the Revised Code, the board may determine the 9608 most appropriate classification for the position of any employee 9609 coming before the board, with or without a job audit. The board 9610 shall disallow any reclassification or reassignment classification 9611 of any employee when it finds that changes have been made in the 9612 duties and responsibilities of any particular employee for 9613 political, religious, or other unjust reasons. 9614

(E)(1) Employees of each county department of job and family 9615 services shall be paid a salary or wage established by the board 9616 of county commissioners. The provisions of section 124.18 of the 9617 Revised Code concerning the standard work week apply to employees 9618 of county departments of job and family services. A board of 9619 county commissioners may do either of the following: 9620

(a) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 9621 supplement the sick leave, vacation leave, personal leave, and 9622 other benefits of any employee of the county department of job and 9623 family services of that county, if the employee is eligible for 9624 the supplement under a written policy providing for the 9625 supplement; 9626

(b) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 9627 personal leave, or other benefits for employees not inconsistent 9629 with the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement covering 9630 the affected employees. 9631

(2) Division (E)(1) of this section does not apply to 9632 employees for whom the state employment relations board 9633 establishes appropriate bargaining units pursuant to section 9634 4117.06 of the Revised Code, except in either of the following 9635 situations: 9636

(a) The employees for whom the state employment relations 9637 board establishes appropriate bargaining units elect no 9638 representative in a board-conducted representation election. 9639

(b) After the state employment relations board establishes 9640 appropriate bargaining units for such employees, all employee 9641 organizations withdraw from a representation election. 9642

(F)(1) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of sections 9643 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code, the board of trustees of 9644 each state university or college, as defined in section 3345.12 of 9645 the Revised Code, shall carry out all matters of governance 9646 involving the officers and employees of the university or college, 9647

111.15 of the Revised Code to carry out the matters of governance 9655 described in division (F)(1) of this section. Until the board of 9656 trustees adopts those rules, a state university or college shall 9657 continue to operate pursuant to the applicable rules adopted by 9658 the director of administrative services under this chapter. 9659

(G)(1) Each board of county commissioners may, by a 9660 resolution adopted by a majority of its members, establish a 9661 county personnel department to exercise the powers, duties, and 9662 functions specified in division (G) of this section. As used in 9663 division (G) of this section, "county personnel department" means 9664 a county personnel department established by a board of county 9665 commissioners under division (G)(1) of this section. 9666

(2)(a) Each board of county commissioners, by a resolution 9667 adopted by a majority of its members, may designate the county 9668 personnel department of the county to exercise the powers, duties, 9669 and functions specified in sections 124.01 to 124.64 and Chapter 9670 325. of the Revised Code with regard to employees in the service 9671 of the county, except for the powers and duties of the state 9672 personnel board of review, which powers and duties shall not be 9673 construed as having been modified or diminished in any manner by 9674 division (G)(2) of this section, with respect to the employees for 9675 whom the board of county commissioners is the appointing authority 9676 or co-appointing authority. 9677

(b) Nothing in division (G)(2) of this section shall be 9678 construed to limit the right of any employee who possesses the 9679 right of appeal to the state personnel board of review to continue 9680 to possess that right of appeal. 9681

(c) Any board of county commissioners that has established a 9682 county personnel department may contract with the department of 9683 administrative services, another political subdivision, or an 9684 appropriate public or private entity to provide competitive 9685 testing services or other appropriate services. 9686

(3) After the county personnel department of a county has 9687 been established as described in division (G)(2) of this section, 9688 any elected official, board, agency, or other appointing authority 9689 of that county, upon written notification to the county personnel 9690 department, may elect to use the services and facilities of the 9691 county personnel department. Upon receipt of the notification by 9692 the county personnel department, the county personnel department 9693 shall exercise the powers, duties, and functions as described in 9694 division (G)(2) of this section with respect to the employees of 9695 that elected official, board, agency, or other appointing 9696 authority. 9697

(4) Each board of county commissioners, by a resolution 9698 adopted by a majority of its members, may disband the county 9699 personnel department. 9700

(5) Any elected official, board, agency, or appointing 9701 authority of a county may end its involvement with a county 9702 personnel department upon actual receipt by the department of a 9703 certified copy of the notification that contains the decision to 9704 no longer participate. 9705

(6) The director of administrative services may, by rule 9706 adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 9707 prescribe criteria and procedures for the following: 9708 carrying out its duties, adhere to merit system principles with 9710 welfare agencies so that there is no threatened loss of federal 9713 funding for these agencies, and a requirement that the county be 9714 financially liable to the state for any loss of federal funds due 9715 to the action or inaction of the county personnel department. The 9716 costs associated with audits conducted to monitor compliance with 9717 division (G)(6)(a) of this section shall be reimbursed to the 9718 department of administrative services as determined by the 9719 director. All money the department receives for these audits shall 9720 be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the human 9721 resources fund created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code. 9722 to conduct periodic audits and reviews of county personnel 9724 departments to guarantee the uniform application of the powers, 9725 duties, and functions exercised pursuant to division (G)(2)(a) of 9726 this section. The costs of the audits and reviews shall be 9727 reimbursed to the department of administrative services as 9728 determined by the director by the county for which the services 9729 are performed. All money the department receives shall be paid 9730 into the state treasury to the credit of the human resources fund 9731 created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code. 9732

the rate and method of compensation for all employees who are paid 9734 directly by warrant of the director of budget and management and 9735

those employees. 9748

intermittent, seasonal, temporary, emergency, and casual employees 9750 in the service of the state who are not considered public 9751 employees under section 4117.01 of the Revised Code. Those 9752

tools, equipment, and other requirements of the department and 9908 payments for the maintenance of them. 9909

The director of administrative services may review collective 9910 bargaining agreements entered into under Chapter 4117. of the 9911 Revised Code that cover employees in the service of the state and 9912 determine whether certain benefits or payments provided to the 9913 employees covered by those agreements should also be provided to 9914 employees in the service of the state who are exempt from 9915 collective bargaining coverage and are paid in accordance with 9916 section 124.152 of the Revised Code or are listed in division 9917 (B)(2) or (4) of section 124.14 of the Revised Code. On completing 9918 the review, the director of administrative services, with the 9919 approval of the director of budget and management, may provide to 9920 some or all of these employees any payment or benefit, except for 9921 salary, contained in such a collective bargaining agreement even 9922 if it is similar to a payment or benefit already provided by law 9923 to some or all of these employees. Any payment or benefit so 9924 provided shall not exceed the highest level for that payment or 9925 benefit specified in such a collective bargaining agreement. The 9926 director of administrative services shall not provide, and the 9927 director of budget and management shall not approve, any payment 9928 or benefit to such an employee under this division unless the 9929 payment or benefit is provided pursuant to a collective bargaining 9930 agreement to a state employee who is in a position with similar 9931 duties as, is supervised by, or is employed by the same appointing 9932 authority as, the employee to whom the benefit or payment is to be 9933 provided. 9934

As used in this division, "payment or benefit already 9935 provided by law" includes, but is not limited to, bereavement, 9936 personal, vacation, administrative, and sick leave, disability 9937 benefits, holiday pay, and pay supplements provided under the 9938

Revised Code, but does not include wages or salary. 9939

(E) New employees paid in accordance with schedule B of 9940 division (A) of this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of 9941 the Revised Code shall be employed at the minimum rate established 9942 for the range unless otherwise provided. Employees with 9943 qualifications that are beyond the minimum normally required for 9944 the position and that are determined by the director to be 9945 exceptional may be employed in, or may be transferred or promoted 9946 to, a position at an advanced step of the range. Further, in time 9947 of a serious labor market condition when it is relatively 9948 impossible to recruit employees at the minimum rate for a 9949 particular classification, the entrance rate may be set at an 9950 advanced step in the range by the director of administrative 9951 services. This rate may be limited to geographical regions of the 9952 state. Appointments made to an advanced step under the provision 9953 regarding exceptional qualifications shall not affect the step 9954 assignment of employees already serving. However, anytime the 9955 hiring rate of an entire classification is advanced to a higher 9956 step, all incumbents of that classification being paid at a step 9957 lower than that being used for hiring, shall be advanced beginning 9958 at the start of the first pay period thereafter to the new hiring 9959 rate, and any time accrued at the lower step will be used to 9960 calculate advancement to a succeeding step. If the hiring rate of 9961 a classification is increased for only a geographical region of 9962 the state, only incumbents who work in that geographical region 9963 shall be advanced to a higher step. When an employee in the 9964 unclassified service changes from one state position to another or 9965 is appointed to a position in the classified service, or if an 9966 employee in the classified service is appointed to a position in 9967 the unclassified service, the employee's salary or wage in the new 9968 position shall be determined in the same manner as if the employee 9969 were an employee in the classified service. When an employee in 9970 the unclassified service who is not eligible for step increases is 9971 appointed to a classification in the classified service under 9972 which step increases are provided, future step increases shall be 9973 based on the date on which the employee last received a pay 9974 increase. If the employee has not received an increase during the 9975 previous year, the date of the appointment to the classified 9976 service shall be used to determine the employee's annual step 9977 advancement eligibility date. In reassigning any employee to a 9978 classification resulting in a pay range increase or to a new pay 9979 range as a result of a promotion, an increase pay range 9980 adjustment, or other classification change resulting in a pay 9981 range increase, the director shall assign such employee to the 9982 step in the new pay range that will provide an increase of 9983 approximately four per cent if the new pay range can accommodate 9984 the increase. When an employee is being assigned to a 9985 classification or new pay range as the result of a class plan 9986 change, if the employee has completed a probationary period, the 9987 employee shall be placed in a step no lower than step two of the 9988 new pay range. If the employee has not completed a probationary 9989 period, the employee may be placed in step one of the new pay 9990 range. Such new salary or wage shall become effective on such date 9991 as the director determines. 9992

(F) If employment conditions and the urgency of the work 9993 require such action, the director of administrative services may, 9994 upon the application of a department head, authorize payment at 9995 any rate established within the range for the class of work, for 9996 work of a casual or intermittent nature or on a project basis. 9997 Payment at such rates shall not be made to the same individual for 9998 more than three calendar months in any one calendar year. Any such 9999 action shall be subject to the approval of the director of budget 10000 and management as to the availability of funds. This section and 10001 sections 124.14 and 124.152 of the Revised Code do not repeal any 10002 authority of any department or public official to contract with or 10003 fix the compensation of professional persons who may be employed 10004 temporarily for work of a casual nature or for work on a project 10005 basis. 10006

(G)(1) Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 10007 section, each state employee paid in accordance with schedule B of 10008 this section or schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised 10009 Code shall be eligible for advancement to succeeding steps in the 10010 range for the employee's class or grade according to the schedule 10011 established in this division. Beginning on the first day of the 10012 pay period within which the employee completes the prescribed 10013 probationary period in the employee's classification with the 10014 state, each employee shall receive an automatic salary adjustment 10015 equivalent to the next higher step within the pay range for the 10016 employee's class or grade. 10017

Except as provided in divisions (G)(2) and (3) of this 10018 section, each employee paid in accordance with schedule E-1 of 10019 section 124.152 of the Revised Code shall be eligible to advance 10020 to the next higher step until the employee reaches the top step in 10021 the range for the employee's class or grade, if the employee has 10022 maintained satisfactory performance in accordance with criteria 10023 established by the employee's appointing authority. Those step 10024 advancements shall not occur more frequently than once in any 10025 twelve-month period. 10026

When an employee is promoted, the step entry date shall be 10027 set to account for a probationary period. When an employee is 10028 reassigned to a higher pay range, the step entry date shall be set 10029 to allow an employee who is not at the highest step of the range 10030 to receive a step advancement one year from the reassignment date. 10031 Step advancement shall not be affected by demotion. A promoted 10032 employee shall advance to the next higher step of the pay range on 10033 the first day of the pay period in which the required probationary 10034 period is completed. Step advancement shall become effective at 10035 the beginning of the pay period within which the employee attains 10036

the necessary length of service. Time spent on authorized leave of absence shall be counted for this purpose. 10037

If determined to be in the best interest of the state service, the director of administrative services may, either statewide or in selected agencies, adjust the dates on which annual step advancements are received by employees paid in accordance with schedule E-1 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 10039

Step advancements shall resume with the pay period beginning June 21, 2011. (3) Employees in intermittent positions shall be employed at 10069 the minimum rate established for the pay range for their 10070 classification and are not eligible for step advancements. 10071

(H) Employees in appointive managerial or professional 10072 positions paid in accordance with schedule C of this section or 10073 schedule E-2 of section 124.152 of the Revised Code may be 10074 appointed at any rate within the appropriate pay range. This rate 10075 of pay may be adjusted higher or lower within the respective pay 10076 range at any time the appointing authority so desires as long as 10077 the adjustment is based on the employee's ability to successfully 10078 administer those duties assigned to the employee. Salary 10079 adjustments shall not be made more frequently than once in any 10080 six-month period under this provision to incumbents holding the 10081 same position and classification. 10082

(I) When an employee is assigned to duty outside this state, 10083 the employee may be compensated, upon request of the department 10084 head and with the approval of the director of administrative 10085 services, at a rate not to exceed fifty per cent in excess of the 10086 employee's current base rate for the period of time spent on that 10087 duty. 10088

(J) Unless compensation for members of a board or commission 10089 is otherwise specifically provided by law, the director of 10090 administrative services shall establish the rate and method of 10091 payment for members of boards and commissions pursuant to the pay 10092 schedules listed in section 124.152 of the Revised Code. 10093

(K) Regular full-time employees in positions assigned to 10094 classes within the instruction and education administration series 10095 ~~under the rules of~~ by the director of administrative services, 10096 except certificated employees on the instructional staff of the 10097 state school for the blind or the state school for the deaf, whose 10098 positions are scheduled to work on the basis of an academic year 10099 rather than a full calendar year, shall be paid according to the 10100 pay range assigned by ~~such rules~~ the director, but only during 10101 those pay periods included in the academic year of the school 10102 where the employee is located. 10103

(1) Part-time or substitute teachers or those whose period of 10104 employment is other than the full academic year shall be 10105 compensated for the actual time worked at the rate established by 10106
this section. 10107

(2) Employees governed by this division are exempt from 10108 sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code. 10109

(3) Length of service for the purpose of determining 10110 eligibility for step advancements as provided by division (G) of 10111 this section and for the purpose of determining eligibility for 10112 longevity pay supplements as provided by division (E) of section 10113 124.181 of the Revised Code shall be computed on the basis of one 10114 full year of service for the completion of each academic year. 10115

(L) The superintendent of the state school for the deaf and 10116 the superintendent of the state school for the blind shall, 10117 subject to the approval of the superintendent of public 10118 instruction, carry out both of the following: 10119

(1) Annually, between the first day of April and the last day 10120 of June, establish for the ensuing fiscal year a schedule of 10121 hourly rates for the compensation of each certificated employee on 10122 the instructional staff of that superintendent's respective school 10123 constructed as follows: 10124

(a) Determine for each level of training, experience, and 10125 other professional qualification for which an hourly rate is set 10126 forth in the current schedule, the per cent that rate is of the 10127 rate set forth in such schedule for a teacher with a bachelor's 10128 degree and no experience. If there is more than one such rate for 10129 such a teacher, the lowest rate shall be used to make the 10130 computation. 10131

(b) Determine which six city, local, and exempted village school districts with territory in Franklin county have in effect on, or have adopted by, the first day of April for the school year that begins on the ensuing first day of July, teacher salary schedules with the highest minimum salaries for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no experience;

(c) Divide the sum of such six highest minimum salaries by ten thousand five hundred sixty;

(d) Multiply each per cent determined in division (L)(1)(a) of this section by the quotient obtained in division (L)(1)(c) of this section;

(e) One hundred five per cent of each product thus obtained shall be the hourly rate for the corresponding level of training, experience, or other professional qualification in the schedule for the ensuing fiscal year.

(2) Annually, assign each certificated employee on the instructional staff of the superintendent's respective school to an hourly rate on the schedule that is commensurate with the employee's training, experience, and other professional qualifications.

If an employee is employed on the basis of an academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated by multiplying the employee's assigned hourly rate times one thousand seven hundred sixty. If an employee is not employed on the basis of an academic year, the employee's annual salary shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

(a) Multiply the number of days the employee is required to work pursuant to the employee's contract by eight;

(b) Multiply the product of division (L)(2)(a) of this section by the employee's assigned hourly rate.

Each employee shall be paid an annual salary in biweekly 10162 installments. The amount of each installment shall be calculated 10163 by dividing the employee's annual salary by the number of biweekly 10164 installments to be paid during the year. 10165

Sections 124.13 and 124.19 of the Revised Code do not apply 10166 to an employee who is paid under this division. 10167

As used in this division, "academic year" means the number of 10168 days in each school year that the schools are required to be open 10169 for instruction with pupils in attendance. Upon completing an 10170 academic year, an employee paid under this division shall be 10171 deemed to have completed one year of service. An employee paid 10172 under this division is eligible to receive a pay supplement under 10173 division (L)(1), (2), or (3) of section 124.181 of the Revised 10174 Code for which the employee qualifies, but is not eligible to 10175 receive a pay supplement under division (L)(4) or (5) of that 10176 section. An employee paid under this division is eligible to 10177 receive a pay supplement under division (L)(6) of section 124.181 10178 of the Revised Code for which the employee qualifies, except that 10179 the supplement is not limited to a maximum of five per cent of the 10180 employee's regular base salary in a calendar year. 10181

(M) Division (A) of this section does not apply to "exempt 10182 employees," as defined in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, who 10183 are paid under that section. 10184

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, when an 10185 employee transfers between bargaining units or transfers out of or 10186 into a bargaining unit, the director of administrative services 10187 shall establish the employee's compensation and adjust the maximum 10188 leave accrual schedule as the director deems equitable. 10189

Sec. 124.23. (A) All applicants for positions and places in 10190 the classified service shall be subject to examination, except for 10191 applicants for positions as professional or certified service and 10192 paraprofessional employees of county boards of developmental 10193 disabilities, who shall be hired in the manner provided in section 10194

124.241 of the Revised Code. 10195

In addition to the positions described in section 124.30 of the 10246 Revised Code, the director may, with sufficient justification from 10247 the appointing authority, allow the appointing authority to fill 10248 the position by noncompetitive examination. The director shall 10249 establish, by rule adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, 10250 standards that the director shall use to determine what serves as 10251 sufficient justification from an appointing authority to fill a 10252 position by noncompetitive examination. 10253

(F) No questions in any examination shall relate to political 10254 or religious opinions or affiliations. No credit for seniority, 10255 efficiency, or any other reason shall be added to an applicant's 10256 examination grade unless the applicant achieves at least the 10257 minimum passing grade on the examination without counting that 10258 extra credit. 10259

~~public places in the designated agencies or the courthouse, and~~ 10274
~~city hall of the cities, of the counties in which no designated~~ 10275 ~~agency is located for at least two weeks. The electronic notice~~ 10276 web for a minimum of one week preceding any examination involved, 10278 and in a conspicuous place in the office of the director of 10279 administrative services for at least two weeks preceding any 10280 director to a district, county, city, or department, the director 10282 shall provide by rule for adequate publicity of an examination in 10283 the district, county, city, or department within which competition 10284

Sec. 124.231. (A) As used in this section, "legally blind 10286 administrative services or the director's designee shall whenever 10294 practicable arrange for special examinations to be administered to 10295 legally blind or legally deaf persons applying for ~~original~~ 10296 ~~appointments~~ positions in the classified service to ensure that 10297 the abilities of such applicants are properly assessed and that 10298 such applicants are not subject to discrimination because they are 10299 legally blind or legally deaf persons. 10300

~~(C) The director may administer equitable programs for the~~ 10301 ~~employment of legally blind persons and legally deaf persons in~~ 10302
~~the classified service.~~ 10303

~~Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the~~ 10304
~~appointment of a legally blind or legally deaf person to a~~ 10305

~~provided in this chapter.~~ 10307

Sec. 124.24. (A) Notwithstanding sections 124.01 to 124.64 10308 examinations for such grade or class is not less than the minimum 10320 fixed by rules adopted under section 1561.05 of the Revised Code 10321 and who are otherwise eligible. All appointments to a position 10322 shall be made from ~~such~~ that eligible list in the same manner as 10323 appointments are made from eligible lists prepared by the director 10324 of administrative services. Any person upon being appointed to 10325 fill one of the positions provided for in this ~~section~~ division, 10326 from any such eligible list, shall have the same standing, rights, 10327 privileges, and status as other state employees in the classified 10328

(B) Notwithstanding sections 124.01 to 124.64 and Chapter 10330
145. of the Revised Code, the examinations of applicants for the 10331 position of gas storage well inspector in the division of oil and 10332 upon examinations for that position is not less than the minimum 10339 fixed by rules adopted under section 1571.014 of the Revised Code 10340 and who are otherwise eligible. An appointment to the position 10341 shall be made from that eligible list in the same manner as 10342 appointments are made from eligible lists prepared by the director 10343

of administrative services. Any person, upon being appointed to 10344 fill the position provided for in this division from any such 10345 eligible list, shall have the same standing, rights, privileges, 10346 and status as other state employees in the classified service. 10347

Sec. 124.25. The director of administrative services shall 10348 require persons applying for an examination for original 10349 appointment to file with the director or the director's designee, 10350 within reasonable time prior to the examination, a formal 10351 application, in which the applicant shall state the applicant's 10352 name, address, and such other information as may reasonably be 10353 required concerning the applicant's education and experience. No 10354 inquiry shall be made as to religious or political affiliations or 10355 as to racial or ethnic origin of the applicant, except as 10356 necessary to gather equal employment opportunity or other 10357 statistics that, when compiled, will not identify any specific 10358 individual. 10359

Blank forms for applications shall be furnished by the 10360 director or the director's designee without charge to any person 10361 requesting the same. The director or the director's designee may 10362 require in connection with such application such certificate of 10363 persons having knowledge of the applicant as the good of the 10364 service demands. The director or the director's designee may 10365 refuse to appoint or examine an applicant, or, after an 10366 examination, refuse to certify the applicant as eligible, who is 10367 found to lack any of the established preliminary requirements for 10368 the examination, who is addicted to the habitual use of 10369 notoriously disgraceful conduct, who has been dismissed from 10373 either branch of the civil service for delinquency or misconduct, 10374 or who has made false statements of any material fact, or 10375 practiced, or attempted to practice, any deception or fraud in the 10376 application or examination, in establishing eligibility, or 10377 securing an appointment. 10378

Sec. 124.26. From the returns of the examinations, the 10379 director of administrative services or the director's designee 10380 shall prepare an eligible list of the persons whose general 10381 average standing upon examinations for the ~~grade or~~ class or 10382 position is not less than the minimum fixed by the rules of the 10383 director, and who are otherwise eligible. Those persons shall take 10384 rank upon the eligible list as candidates in the order of their 10385 relative excellence as determined by the examination without 10386 reference to priority of the time of examination. If two or more 10387 applicants receive the same mark in an open competitive 10388 examination, priority in the time of filing the application with 10389 the director or the director's designee shall determine the order 10390 in which their names shall be placed on the eligible list, except 10391 that applicants eligible for veteran's preference under section 10392 124.23 of the Revised Code shall receive priority in rank on the 10393 eligible list over nonveterans on the list with a rating equal to 10394 that of the veteran. Ties among veterans shall be decided by 10395 priority of filing the application. ~~If two or more applicants~~ 10396 ~~receive the same mark on a promotional examination, seniority~~ 10397 ~~shall determine the order in which their names shall be placed on~~ 10398

~~the eligible list. The term of eligibility of each list shall be~~ 10399 ~~fixed by the director at not less than one or more than two years.~~ 10400

~~When an eligible list is reduced to ten names or less, a new~~ 10401
~~list may be prepared. The director may consolidate two or more~~ 10402 ~~eligible lists of the same kind by the rearranging of eligibles~~ 10403 ~~named in the lists, according to their grades. An eligible list~~ 10404 ~~expires upon the filling or closing of the position. An expired~~ 10405 ~~eligible list may be used to fill a position of the same~~ 10406 ~~classification within the same appointing authority for which the~~ 10407 ~~list was created. But, in no event shall an expired list be used~~ 10408
~~more than one year past its expiration date.~~ 10409

Sec. 124.27. (A) ~~The head of a department, office, or~~ 10410
~~institution, in which a position in the classified service is to~~ 10411
~~be filled, shall notify the director of administrative services of~~ 10412
~~the fact, and the director shall, except as otherwise provided in~~ 10413
~~this section and sections 124.30 and 124.31 of the Revised Code,~~ 10414

~~certify to the appointing authority the names and addresses of the ten candidates standing highest on the eligible list for the class or grade to which the position belongs, except that the director may certify less than ten names if ten names are not available. When less than ten names are certified to an appointing authority, appointment from that list shall not be mandatory. When a position in the classified service in the department of mental health or the department of developmental disabilities is to be filled, the director of administrative services shall make such certification to the appointing authority within seven working days of the date the eligible list is requested.~~

~~(B) The appointing authority shall notify the director of a position in the classified service to be filled, and the appointing authority shall fill the vacant position by appointment of one of the ten persons certified by the director. If more than one position is to be filled, the director may certify a group of names from the eligible list, and the appointing authority shall appoint in the following manner: beginning at the top of the list, each time a selection is made, it must be from one of the first ten candidates remaining on the list who is willing to accept consideration for the position. If an eligible list becomes exhausted, and until a new list can be created, or when no eligible list for a position exists, names may be certified from eligible lists most appropriate for the group or class in which the position to be filled is classified. A person who is certified from an eligible list more than three times to the same appointing authority for the same or similar positions may be omitted from future certification to that appointing authority, provided that certification for a temporary appointment shall not be counted as one of those certifications. Every person who qualifies for veteran's preference under section 124.23 of the Revised Code, who is a resident of this state, and whose name is on the eligible list for a position shall be entitled to preference in original~~

~~appointments to any such competitive position in the civil service~~ 10448
~~of the state and its civil divisions over all other persons~~ 10449 ~~eligible for those appointments and standing on the relevant~~ 10450 ~~eligible list with a rating equal to that of the person qualifying~~ 10451 ~~for veteran's preference.~~ Appointments to all positions in the 10452 classified service, that are not filled by promotion, transfer, or 10453 reduction, as provided in sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised 10454 Code and the rules of the director prescribed under those 10455 sections, shall be made only from those persons whose names are 10456 ~~certified to the appointing authority~~ take rank order on an 10457 eligible list, and no employment, except as provided in those 10458 sections, shall be otherwise given in the classified service of 10459 this state or any political subdivision of the state. The 10460 appointing authority shall appoint in the following manner: each 10461 time a selection is made, it shall be from one of the names that 10462 rank in the top twenty-five per cent of the eligible list. But, 10463 in the event that ten or fewer names are on the eligible list, the 10464 appointing authority may select any of the listed candidates. Each 10465 person who qualifies for the veteran's preference under section 10466 124.23 of the Revised Code, who is a resident of this state, and 10467 whose name is on the eligible list for a position is entitled to 10468 preference in original appointment to any such competitive 10469 position in the civil service of the state and its civil divisions 10470 over all other persons who are eligible for those appointments and 10471 who are standing on the relevant eligible list with a rating equal 10472 to that of the person qualifying for the veteran's preference. 10473

~~(C)~~(B) All original and promotional appointments, including 10474 appointments made pursuant to section 124.30 of the Revised Code, 10475 but not intermittent appointments, shall be for a probationary 10476 period, not less than sixty days nor more than one year, to be 10477 fixed by the rules of the director, except as provided in section 10478 124.231 of the Revised Code, and except for original appointments 10479 to a police department as a police officer or to a fire department 10480 as a firefighter which shall be for a probationary period of one 10481 year. No appointment or promotion is final until the appointee has 10482 satisfactorily served the probationary period. If the service of 10483 the probationary employee is unsatisfactory, the employee may be 10484 removed or reduced at any time during the probationary period. If 10485 the appointing authority decides to remove a probationary employee 10486 in the service of the state, the appointing authority shall 10487 communicate the removal to the director ~~the reason for that~~ 10488 ~~decision~~. A probationary employee duly removed or reduced in 10489 position for unsatisfactory service does not have the right to 10490 appeal the removal or reduction under section 124.34 of the 10491

Revised Code. 10492

Sec. 124.31. ~~(A)~~ Vacancies in positions in the classified 10493 service of the state shall be filled insofar as practicable by 10494 promotions. The director of administrative services shall provide 10495 in the director's rules for keeping a record of efficiency for 10496 each employee in the classified civil service of the state, and 10497 for making promotions in the classified civil service of the state 10498 on the basis of merit, ~~to be ascertained insofar as practicable by~~ 10499 ~~promotional examinations, and~~ by conduct and capacity in office, 10500
~~and by seniority in service. The director shall provide that~~ 10501 ~~vacancies in positions in the classified civil service of the~~ 10502
~~state shall be filled by promotion in all cases where, in the~~ 10503 ~~judgment of the director, it is for the best interest of the~~ 10504 ~~service. The director's rules shall authorize each appointing~~ 10505 ~~authority of a county to develop and administer in a manner it~~ 10506 ~~devises, an evaluation system for the employees it appoints.~~ 10507

~~(B)~~ All examinations for promotions shall be competitive and 10508 may be conducted in the same manner as examinations described in 10509 section 124.23 of the Revised Code. In promotional examinations, 10510 seniority in service shall be added to the examination grade, but 10511 no credit for seniority or any other reason shall be added to an 10512

~~examination grade unless the applicant achieves at least the 10513 minimum passing score on the examination without counting that 10514 extra credit. Credit for seniority shall equal, for the first four 10515 years of service, one per cent of the total grade attainable in 10516 the promotion examination, and, for each of the fifth through 10517 fourteenth years of service, six tenths per cent of the total 10518 grade attainable. 10519~~

~~In all cases where vacancies are to be filled by promotion, 10520 the director shall certify to the appointing authority the names 10521 of the three persons having the highest rating on the eligible 10522 list. The method of examination for promotions, the manner of 10523 giving notice of the examination, and the rules governing it shall 10524 be in general the same as those provided for original 10525 examinations, except as otherwise provided in sections 124.01 to 10526
124.64 of the Revised Code. 10527~~

Sec. 124.34. (A) The tenure of every officer or employee in 10528 the classified service of the state and the counties, civil 10529 service townships, cities, city health districts, general health 10530 districts, and city school districts of the state, holding a 10531 position under this chapter, shall be during good behavior and 10532 efficient service. No officer or employee shall be reduced in pay 10533 or position, fined, suspended, or removed, or have the officer's 10534 or employee's longevity reduced or eliminated, except as provided 10535 in section 124.32 of the Revised Code, and for incompetency, 10536 inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, 10537 insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of 10538 duty, violation of any policy or work rule of the officer's or 10539 employee's appointing authority, violation of this chapter or the 10540 rules of the director of administrative services or the 10541 commission, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of 10542 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office, or conviction 10543 of a felony. The denial of a one-time pay supplement or a bonus to 10544 an officer or employee is not a reduction in pay for purposes of 10545

this section. 10546

This section does not apply to any modifications or 10547 reductions in pay or work week authorized by division (Q) of 10548 section 124.181 or section 124.392 ~~or~~, 124.393, or 124.394 of the 10549
Revised Code. 10550

An appointing authority may require an employee who is 10551 suspended to report to work to serve the suspension. An employee 10552 serving a suspension in this manner shall continue to be 10553 compensated at the employee's regular rate of pay for hours 10554 worked. The disciplinary action shall be recorded in the 10555 employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary 10556 actions and has the same effect as a suspension without pay for 10557 the purpose of recording disciplinary actions. 10558

A finding by the appropriate ethics commission, based upon a 10559 preponderance of the evidence, that the facts alleged in a 10560 complaint under section 102.06 of the Revised Code constitute a 10561 violation of Chapter 102., section 2921.42, or section 2921.43 of 10562 the Revised Code may constitute grounds for dismissal. Failure to 10563 file a statement or falsely filing a statement required by section 10564 102.02 of the Revised Code may also constitute grounds for 10565 dismissal. The tenure of an employee in the career professional 10566 service of the department of transportation is subject to section 10567

Conviction of a felony is a separate basis for reducing in 10569 pay or position, suspending, or removing an officer or employee, 10570 even if the officer or employee has already been reduced in pay or 10571 position, suspended, or removed for the same conduct that is the 10572 basis of the felony. An officer or employee may not appeal to the 10573 state personnel board of review or the commission any disciplinary 10574 action taken by an appointing authority as a result of the 10575 officer's or employee's conviction of a felony. If an officer or 10576 employee removed under this section is reinstated as a result of 10577 an appeal of the removal, any conviction of a felony that occurs 10578 during the pendency of the appeal is a basis for further 10579 disciplinary action under this section upon the officer's or 10580 employee's reinstatement. 10581

A person convicted of a felony immediately forfeits the 10582 person's status as a classified employee in any public employment 10583 on and after the date of the conviction for the felony. If an 10584 officer or employee is removed under this section as a result of 10585 being convicted of a felony or is subsequently convicted of a 10586 felony that involves the same conduct that was the basis for the 10587 removal, the officer or employee is barred from receiving any 10588 compensation after the removal notwithstanding any modification or 10589 disaffirmance of the removal, unless the conviction for the felony 10590 is subsequently reversed or annulled. 10591

Any person removed for conviction of a felony is entitled to 10592 a cash payment for any accrued but unused sick, personal, and 10593 vacation leave as authorized by law. If subsequently reemployed in 10594 the public sector, the person shall qualify for and accrue these 10595 forms of leave in the manner specified by law for a newly 10596 appointed employee and shall not be credited with prior public 10597 service for the purpose of receiving these forms of leave. 10598

As used in this division, "felony" means any of the 10599
following: 10600

(1) A felony that is an offense of violence as defined in 10601
section 2901.01 of the Revised Code; 10602

(2) A felony that is a felony drug abuse offense as defined 10603 in section 2925.01 of the Revised Code; 10604

(3) A felony under the laws of this or any other state or the 10605
United States that is a crime of moral turpitude; 10606 general assembly approves the consideration of proposals therefor 11461 by the enactment of legislation that may include specific terms 11462 and conditions of the sale, lease, or operation that proposals for 11463

the turnpike project must contain. 11464

(B) The director of transportation, upon the enactment of 11465 legislation as described in division (A) of this section, may 11466 execute any contract necessary to effect the purposes of sections 11470

126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code. 11471

Sec. 126.602. (A) Pursuant to legislation enacted under 11472 section 126.601 of the Revised Code and before entering into a 11473 contract for the provision of highway services, the director of 11474 budget and management shall publish notice of its intent to enter 11475 into a contract for the highway services and any related project. 11476
The notice shall notify interested parties of the opportunity to 11477 submit their qualifications or proposals, or both, for 11478 consideration and shall be published at least thirty days prior to 11479 the deadline for submitting those qualifications or proposals. The 11480 director also may advertise the information contained in the 11481 notice in appropriate trade journals and otherwise notify parties 11482 management, in consultation with the department of transportation, 11489 shall evaluate the qualifications submitted and may hold 11490 discussions with proposers to further explore their 11491 qualified proposers based on criteria in the invitation and invite 11494 only those proposers to submit a proposal for the provision of the 11495 highway services and any related project. 11496

(C) After inviting proposals, the director of budget and 11497 with proposers to further explore their proposals, the scope and 11500 technical approaches they may take regarding the highway services 11502 and any related project. Following this evaluation, the director, 11503 in consultation with the department, shall: 11504

(1) Select and rank no fewer than three proposers that the 11505 director considers to be the most qualified to enter into the 11506 director shall select and rank them; 11509

(2) Negotiate a contract with the proposer ranked most 11510 qualified to provide the highway services at a compensation 11511 determined in writing to be fair and reasonable, and to purchase, 11512

(D)(1) Upon failure to negotiate a contract with the proposer 11514 ranked most qualified, the director shall inform the proposer in 11515 writing of the termination of negotiations and may enter into 11516 negotiations with the proposer ranked next most qualified. If 11517 negotiations again fail, the same procedure may be followed with 11518 each next most qualified proposer selected and ranked, in order of 11519 ranking, until a contract is negotiated. 11520

(2) If the director, in consultation with the department, 11521 fails to negotiate a contract with any of the ranked proposers, 11522 the director, in consultation with the department, may terminate 11523 the process or select and rank additional proposers, based on 11524 their qualifications or proposals, and negotiations shall continue 11525 as with the proposers selected and ranked initially until a 11526 contract is negotiated. 11527

(E) Any contract entered into under this section may contain 11528 terms, as deemed appropriate by the director, in consultation with 11529 the department, including the duration of the contract, which 11530 shall not exceed seventy-five years, rates or fees for the highway 11531 services to be provided or methods or procedures for the 11532 equity, an action at law, or any combination of those remedial 11540 actions. 11541

(F) Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code shall not apply to any 11542 of a responsive proposal from unsuccessful bidders for a proposal 11547 to lease the turnpike under sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the 11548 Revised Code. The director may establish policies or procedures 11549 necessary to determine the amount of compensation to be provided 11550 for each project and the method of evaluating the value of the 11551 preliminary proposal submitted, but in no instance may the 11552 compensation exceed the value of such proposal. 11553

126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code will be for the benefit of 11566 the people of the state and shall be liberally construed to effect 11567 the purposes thereof. Any project or part thereof owned by the 11568 state and used for performing any highway services pursuant to a 11569 contract entered into under sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the 11570 Revised Code that would be exempt from real property taxes or 11571 assessments in the absence of such contract shall remain exempt 11572 from real property taxes and assessments levied by the state and 11573 its subdivisions to the same extent as if not subject to that 11574 contract. The gross receipts and income of a successful proposer 11575 derived from providing highway services under a contract through a 11576 project owned by the state shall be exempt from gross receipts and 11577 income taxes levied by the state and its subdivisions, including 11578 director to carry out the director's powers and duties under 11592 sections 126.60 to 126.605 of the Revised Code, including the 11593 identification of highway services and any related projects to be 11594

(1) Compromise the claim; 11987

(2) Extend for a reasonable period the time for payment of 11988

(3) Add fees to recover the cost of processing checks or 11992 other draft instruments returned for insufficient funds and the 11993 cost of providing electronic payment options. 11994

(F)(1) Except as provided in division (F)(2) of this section, 11995 if the attorney general finds, after investigation, that any claim 11996

(3) No initial action shall be commenced to collect any tax 12006 payable to the state that is administered by the tax commissioner, 12007 whether or not such tax is subject to division (B) of this 12008 tax, after the expiration of the period ending on the later of the 12010 dates specified in divisions (F)(3)(a) and (b) of this section, 12011 provided that such period shall be extended by the period of any 12012 stay to such collection or by any other period to which the 12013 parties mutually agree. If the initial action in aid of execution 12014 is commenced before the later of the dates specified in divisions 12015 (F)(3)(a) and (b) of this section, any and all subsequent actions 12016 may be pursued in aid of execution of judgment for as long as the 12017 debt exists. 12018

(a) Seven years after the assessment of the tax, penalty, 12019 interest, or additional charge is issued. 12020

(b) Four years after the assessment of the tax, penalty, 12021 interest, or additional charge becomes final. For the purposes of 12022 division (F)(3)(b) of this section, the assessment becomes final 12023 at the latest of the following: upon expiration of the period to 12024

States supreme court. 12028

For the purposes of division (F)(3) of this section, an 12029 initial action to collect a tax debt is commenced at the time when 12030 any action, including any action in aid of execution on a 12031 judgment, commences after a certified copy of the tax 12032 commissioner's entry making an assessment final has been filed in 12033 the office of the clerk of court of common pleas in the county in 12034 which the taxpayer resides or has its principal place of business 12035

5747.13, or 5751.09 of the Revised Code or in any other applicable 12038 law requiring such a filing. If an assessment has not been issued 12039 and there is no time limitation on the issuance of an assessment 12040 under applicable law, an action to collect a tax debt commences 12041 when the action is filed in the courts of this state to collect 12042 the liability. 12043

Revised Code and request that the director provide information to 12055 the attorney general as required in division (B) of this section. 12056
If the information the director provides identifies or results in 12057 identifying unclaimed funds held by the state for an obligor in 12058 default, the attorney general may file a claim under section 12059 169.08 of the Revised Code to recover the unclaimed funds. If the 12060 director allows the claim, the director shall pay the claim 12061 directly to the attorney general. The director shall not disallow 12062 a claim made by the attorney general because the attorney general 12063 is not the owner of the unclaimed funds according to the report 12064 made under section 169.03 of the Revised Code. 12065

(B) The director of commerce shall provide the attorney 12066 that corrections to permanent improvements are necessary to remove 12880 or prevent health or safety hazards. 12881

(b) Existing fiscal and net indebtedness limitations make 12882 adequate replacement, additions, or improvements impossible. 12883

(2) Upon the declaration of an emergency, the board of 12884 education may, by resolution, submit to the electors of the 12885

this section; 12897

(b) The resolution required by division (B) of section 133.18 12898 of the Revised Code shall be certified to the county auditor and 12899

(d) The board of education shall then certify its resolution 12906 consumption data for the preceding five years, and estimates of 12927 the amounts by which energy consumption and resultant operational 12928 and maintenance costs, as defined by the ~~Ohio school facilities~~ 12929 commission, would be reduced. 12930

If the board finds after receiving the report that the amount 12931 of money the district would spend on such installations, 12932 modifications, or remodeling is not likely to exceed the amount of 12933 money it would save in energy and resultant operational and 12934 maintenance costs over the ensuing fifteen years, the board may 12935 submit to the commission a copy of its findings and a request for 12936 approval to incur indebtedness to finance the making or 12937 modification of installations or the remodeling of buildings for 12938 the purpose of significantly reducing energy consumption. 12939

If the commission determines that the board's findings are 12940 reasonable, it shall approve the board's request. Upon receipt of 12941 the commission's approval, the district may issue securities 12942 without a vote of the electors in a principal amount not to exceed 12943 nine-tenths of one per cent of its tax valuation for the purpose 12944 of making such installations, modifications, or remodeling, but 12945 the total net indebtedness of the district without a vote of the 12946 electors incurred under this and all other sections of the Revised 12947 Code, except section 3318.052 of the Revised Code, shall not 12948 exceed one per cent of the district's tax valuation. 12949

So long as any securities issued under division (G) of this 12950 section remain outstanding, the board of education shall monitor 12951 the energy consumption and resultant operational and maintenance 12952 costs of buildings in which installations or modifications have 12953 been made or remodeling has been done pursuant to division (G) of 12954 this section and shall maintain and annually update a report 12955 documenting the reductions in energy consumption and resultant 12956 operational and maintenance cost savings attributable to such 12957 installations, modifications, or remodeling. The report shall be 12958 certified by an architect or engineer independent of any person 12959 that provided goods or services to the board in connection with 12960 the energy conservation measures that are the subject of the 12961 report. The resultant operational and maintenance cost savings 12962 shall be certified by the school district treasurer. The report 12963 shall be ~~made available~~ submitted annually to the commission ~~upon~~ 12964 ~~request~~. 12965

(H) With the consent of the superintendent of public instruction, a school district may incur without a vote of the electors net indebtedness that exceeds the amounts stated in divisions (A) and (G) of this section for the purpose of paying costs of permanent improvements, if and to the extent that both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(2) The fiscal officer of the school district certifies, and the taxing authority of the district confirms, that the district, at the time of the certification and confirmation, reasonably expects to have sufficient revenue available for the purpose of operating such permanent improvements for their intended purpose upon acquisition or completion thereof, and the superintendent of public instruction approves the taxing authority's confirmation.

The maximum maturity of securities issued under division (H) of this section shall be the lesser of twenty years or the maximum maturity calculated under section 133.20 of the Revised Code.

(I) A school district may incur net indebtedness by the issuance of securities in accordance with the provisions of this this section when necessary to raise the school district portion 12999 of the basic project cost and any additional funds necessary to 13000 participate in a project under Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, 13001 including the cost of items designated by the Ohio school 13002 facilities commission as required locally funded initiatives, the 13003 cost of other locally funded initiatives in an amount that does 13004 not exceed fifty per cent of the district's portion of the basic 13005 project cost, and the cost for site acquisition. The school 13006 facilities commission shall notify the superintendent of public 13007 instruction whenever a school district will exceed either limit 13008 pursuant to this division. 13009

(J) A school district whose portion of the basic project cost 13010 of its classroom facilities project under sections 3318.01 to 13011 3318.20 of the Revised Code is greater than or equal to one 13012 hundred million dollars may incur without a vote of the electors 13013 net indebtedness in an amount up to two per cent of its tax 13014 valuation through the issuance of general obligation securities in 13015 order to generate all or part of the amount of its portion of the 13016 basic project cost if the controlling board has approved the 13017 school facilities commission's conditional approval of the project 13018 under section 3318.04 of the Revised Code. The school district 13019 board and the Ohio school facilities commission shall include the 13020 dedication of the proceeds of such securities in the agreement 13021 entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. No state 13022 moneys shall be released for a project to which this section 13023 applies until the proceeds of any bonds issued under this section 13024 that are dedicated for the payment of the school district portion 13025 of the project are first deposited into the school district's 13026 project construction fund. 13027

Sec. 133.18. (A) The taxing authority of a subdivision may by 13028 legislation submit to the electors of the subdivision the question 13029 of issuing any general obligation bonds, for one purpose, that the 13030 subdivision has power or authority to issue. 13031

(B) When the taxing authority of a subdivision desires or is 13032 required by law to submit the question of a bond issue to the 13033 electors, it shall pass legislation that does all of the 13034
following: 13035

(1) Declares the necessity and purpose of the bond issue; 13036

(2) States the date of the authorized election at which the 13037 question shall be submitted to the electors; 13038

(3) States the amount, approximate date, estimated net 13039 average rate of interest, and maximum number of years over which 13040 the principal of the bonds may be paid; 13041

(4) Declares the necessity of levying a tax outside the tax 13042 limitation to pay the debt charges on the bonds and any 13043 anticipatory securities. 13044

The estimated net average interest rate shall be determined 13045 by the taxing authority based on, among other factors, then 13046 existing market conditions, and may reflect adjustments for any 13047 anticipated direct payments expected to be received by the taxing 13048 authority from the government of the United States relating to the 13049 bonds and the effect of any federal tax credits anticipated to be 13050 available to owners of all or a portion of the bonds. The 13051 estimated net average rate of interest, and any statutory or 13052 charter limit on interest rates that may then be in effect and 13053 that is subsequently amended, shall not be a limitation on the 13054 actual interest rate or rates on the securities when issued. 13055

(C)(1) The taxing authority shall certify a copy of the 13056 legislation passed under division (B) of this section to the 13057 county auditor. The county auditor shall promptly calculate and 13058 confirm that advice by certification to, the taxing authority the 13060 estimated average annual property tax levy, expressed in cents or 13061 dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation 13062 and in mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, that the county 13063 auditor estimates to be required throughout the stated maturity of 13064 the bonds to pay the debt charges on the bonds. In calculating the 13065 estimated average annual property tax levy for this purpose, the 13066 county auditor shall assume that the bonds are issued in one 13067 series bearing interest and maturing in substantially equal 13068 principal amounts in each year over the maximum number of years 13069 over which the principal of the bonds may be paid as stated in 13070 that legislation, and that the amount of the tax valuation of the 13071 subdivision for the current year remains the same throughout the 13072 maturity of the bonds, except as otherwise provided in division 13073 (C)(2) of this section. If the tax valuation for the current year 13074 is not determined, the county auditor shall base the calculation 13075 on the estimated amount of the tax valuation submitted by the 13076 county auditor to the county budget commission. If the subdivision 13077 is located in more than one county, the county auditor shall 13078 obtain the assistance of the county auditors of the other 13079 counties, and those county auditors shall provide assistance, in 13080 establishing the tax valuation of the subdivision for purposes of 13081 certifying the estimated average annual property tax levy. 13082

(2) When considering the tangible personal property component 13083 of the tax valuation of the subdivision, the county auditor shall 13084 take into account the assessment percentages prescribed in section 13085 5711.22 of the Revised Code. The tax commissioner may issue rules, 13086 orders, or instructions directing how the assessment percentages 13087 must be utilized. 13088

(D) After receiving the county auditor's advice under 13089 division (C) of this section, the taxing authority by legislation 13090 may determine to proceed with submitting the question of the issue 13091 of securities, and shall, not later than the seventy-fifth day 13092 before the day of the election, file the following with the board 13093 of elections: 13094

(1) Copies of the legislation provided for in divisions (B) 13095 and (D) of this section; 13096

(2) The amount of the estimated average annual property tax 13097 levy, expressed in cents or dollars and cents for each one hundred 13098 dollars of tax valuation and in mills for each one dollar of tax 13099 valuation, as estimated and certified to the taxing authority by 13100 the county auditor. 13101

(E)(1) The board of elections shall prepare the ballots and 13102 make other necessary arrangements for the submission of the 13103 question to the electors of the subdivision. If the subdivision is 13104 located in more than one county, the board shall inform the boards 13105 of elections of the other counties of the filings with it, and 13106 those other boards shall if appropriate make the other necessary 13107 arrangements for the election in their counties. The election 13108 shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the manner 13109 provided in Title XXXV of the Revised Code. 13110

(2) The election shall be held at the regular places for 13111 voting in the subdivision. If the electors of only a part of a 13112 precinct are qualified to vote at the election the board of 13113 elections may assign the electors in that part to an adjoining 13114 precinct, including an adjoining precinct in another county if the 13115 board of elections of the other county consents to and approves 13116 the assignment. Each elector so assigned shall be notified of that 13117 fact prior to the election by notice mailed by the board of 13118 elections, in such manner as it determines, prior to the election. 13119

(3) The board of elections shall publish a notice of the 13120 election, once in ~~one or more newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 13121 circulation in the subdivision, ~~at least once~~ no later than ten 13122 days prior to the election. The notice shall state all of the 13123

following:	13124
(a) The principal amount of the proposed bond issue;	13125
(b) The stated purpose for which the bonds are to be issued;	13126
(c) The maximum number of years over which the principal of the bonds may be paid;	13127 13128
(d) The estimated additional average annual property tax levy, expressed in cents or dollars and cents for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation and in mills for each one dollar of tax valuation, to be levied outside the tax limitation, as estimated and certified to the taxing authority by the county auditor;	13129 13130 13131 13132 13133 person responsible for public records shall make copies of the 14698 requested public record available at cost and within a reasonable 14699 period of time. If a public record contains information that is 14700 public record shall make available all of the information within 14703 the public record that is not exempt. When making that public 14704 record available for public inspection or copying that public 14705 record, the public office or the person responsible for the public 14706 record shall notify the requester of any redaction or make the 14707 redaction plainly visible. A redaction shall be deemed a denial of 14708 a request to inspect or copy the redacted information, except if 14709 federal or state law authorizes or requires a public office to 14710 make the redaction. 14711

(2) To facilitate broader access to public records, a public 14712 public record cannot reasonably identify what public records are 14722 being requested, the public office or the person responsible for 14723 the requested public record may deny the request but shall provide 14724 the requester with an opportunity to revise the request by 14725 informing the requester of the manner in which records are 14726 maintained by the public office and accessed in the ordinary 14727 course of the public office's or person's duties. 14728 including legal authority, setting forth why the request was 14732 denied. If the initial request was provided in writing, the 14733 explanation also shall be provided to the requester in writing. 14734

The explanation shall not preclude the public office or the person 14735 responsible for the requested public record from relying upon 14736 additional reasons or legal authority in defending an action 14737 commenced under division (C) of this section. 14738

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 14739 federal law or in accordance with division (B) of this section, no 14740 public office or person responsible for public records may limit 14741 or condition the availability of public records by requiring 14742 disclosure of the requester's identity or the intended use of the 14743 requested public record. Any requirement that the requester 14744 disclose the requestor's identity or the intended use of the 14745 requested public record constitutes a denial of the request. 14746

(5) A public office or person responsible for public records 14747 may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may ask for 14748 the requester's identity, and may inquire about the intended use 14749 of the information requested, but may do so only after disclosing 14750 to the requester that a written request is not mandatory and that 14751 the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or 14752 the intended use and when a written request or disclosure of the 14753 identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing 14754 the ability of the public office or person responsible for public 14755 records to identify, locate, or deliver the public records sought 14756 by the requester. 14757

(6) If any person chooses to obtain a copy of a public record 14758 in accordance with division (B) of this section, the public office 14759 person to pay in advance the cost involved in providing the copy 14761 of the public record in accordance with the choice made by the 14762 person seeking the copy under this division. The public office or 14763 the person responsible for the public record shall permit that 14764 person to choose to have the public record duplicated upon paper, 14765 upon the same medium upon which the public office or person 14766 responsible for the public record keeps it, or upon any other 14767 medium upon which the public office or person responsible for the 14768 public record determines that it reasonably can be duplicated as 14769 an integral part of the normal operations of the public office or 14770 person responsible for the public record. When the person seeking 14771 the copy makes a choice under this division, the public office or 14772 person responsible for the public record shall provide a copy of 14773 it in accordance with the choice made by the person seeking the 14774 copy. Nothing in this section requires a public office or person 14775 responsible for the public record to allow the person seeking a 14776 copy of the public record to make the copies of the public record. 14777

(7) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) of 14778 this section and subject to division (B)(6) of this section, a 14779 public office or person responsible for public records shall 14780 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United States 14781 mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission within a 14782 reasonable period of time after receiving the request for the 14783 copy. The public office or person responsible for the public 14784 record may require the person making the request to pay in advance 14785 the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by United States 14786 mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is transmitted other than 14787 by United States mail, and to pay in advance the costs incurred 14788 for other supplies used in the mailing, delivery, or transmission. 14789

Any public office may adopt a policy and procedures that it 14790 will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period of time 14791 after receiving a request, copies of public records by United 14792 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 14793 pursuant to this division. A public office that adopts a policy 14794 and procedures under this division shall comply with them in 14795 performing its duties under this division. 14796

In any policy and procedures adopted under this division, a 14797 public office may limit the number of records requested by a 14798 person that the office will transmit by United States mail to ten 14799 per month, unless the person certifies to the office in writing 14800 that the person does not intend to use or forward the requested 14801 records, or the information contained in them, for commercial 14802 purposes. For purposes of this division, "commercial" shall be 14803 narrowly construed and does not include reporting or gathering 14804 news, reporting or gathering information to assist citizen 14805 oversight or understanding of the operation or activities of 14806 government, or nonprofit educational research. 14807

(8) A public office or person responsible for public records 14808 is not required to permit a person who is incarcerated pursuant to 14809 a criminal conviction or a juvenile adjudication to inspect or to 14810 obtain a copy of any public record concerning a criminal 14811 investigation or prosecution or concerning what would be a 14812 criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 14813 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request to 14814 inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose of 14815 acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 14816 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 14817 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 14818 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought in 14819 the public record is necessary to support what appears to be a 14820 justiciable claim of the person. 14821

(9)(a) Upon written request made and signed by a journalist 14822 on or after December 16, 1999, a public office, or person 14823 title and the name and address of the journalist's employer and 14845 shall state that disclosure of the information sought would be in 14846 the public interest. 14847

(b) Division (B)(9)(a) of this section also applies to 14848 journalist requests for customer information maintained by a 14849 municipally owned or operated public utility, other than social 14850 security numbers and any private financial information such as 14851

Constitution, or in the court of appeals for the appellate 14878 district in which division (B) of this section allegedly was not 14879 complied with pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 14880
3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 14881

If a requestor transmits a written request by hand delivery 14882 or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any public 14883 record in a manner that fairly describes the public record or 14884 class of public records to the public office or person responsible 14885 for the requested public records, except as otherwise provided in 14886 this section, the requestor shall be entitled to recover the 14887 amount of statutory damages set forth in this division if a court 14888 determines that the public office or the person responsible for 14889 public records failed to comply with an obligation in accordance 14890 with division (B) of this section. 14891

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one hundred 14892 dollars for each business day during which the public office or 14893 person responsible for the requested public records failed to 14894 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14895 section, beginning with the day on which the requester files a 14896 mandamus action to recover statutory damages, up to a maximum of 14897 one thousand dollars. The award of statutory damages shall not be 14898 construed as a penalty, but as compensation for injury arising 14899 from lost use of the requested information. The existence of this 14900 injury shall be conclusively presumed. The award of statutory 14901 damages shall be in addition to all other remedies authorized by 14902

this section. 14903

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 14904 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 14905
following: 14906

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 14907 and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 14908 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible for 14909
the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 14910 to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 14911 this section and that was the basis of the mandamus action, a 14912 well-informed public office or person responsible for the 14913 requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 14914
or threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 14915 for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 14916 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14917
section; 14918

(b) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 14919 for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 14920 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 14921 responsible for the requested public records would serve the 14922 public policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as 14923 permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 14924

(2)(a) If the court issues a writ of mandamus that orders the 14925 public office or the person responsible for the public record to 14926 comply with division (B) of this section and determines that the 14927 circumstances described in division (C)(1) of this section exist, 14928 the court shall determine and award to the relator all court 14929 costs. 14930

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 14931 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 14932 with division (B) of this section, the court may award reasonable 14933 attorney's fees subject to reduction as described in division 14934 (C)(2)(c) of this section. The court shall award reasonable 14935
attorney's fees, subject to reduction as described in division 14936
(C)(2)(c) of this section when either of the following applies: 14937

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 14938 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 14939 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 14940 under division (B) of this section. 14941

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 14942 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 14943 receive copies of the public records requested within a specified 14944 period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that 14945 specified period of time. 14946

(c) Court costs and reasonable attorney's fees awarded under 14947 this section shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 14948 Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred 14949 to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and 14950 to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. The court may 14951 reduce an award of attorney's fees to the relator or not award 14952 attorney's fees to the relator if the court determines both of the 14953
following: 14954

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 14955

the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a failure 14958
to comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of 14959
requested public records reasonably would believe that the conduct 14962
for the requested public records did not constitute a failure to 14964 comply with an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this 14965
section; 14966

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person responsible 14967
for the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 14968
conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 14969 responsible for the requested public records as described in 14970 division (C)(2)(c)(i) of this section would serve the public 14971 policy that underlies the authority that is asserted as permitting 14972 that conduct or threatened conduct. 14973

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 14974 provisions of this section. 14975

(E)(1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 14976 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 14977 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 14978 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 14979 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 14980 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public records 14981 policy in compliance with this section for responding to public 14982 records requests. In adopting a public records policy under this 14983 division, a public office may obtain guidance from the model 14984 public records policy developed and provided to the public office 14985 by the attorney general under section 109.43 of the Revised Code. 14986 Except as otherwise provided in this section, the policy may not 14987 limit the number of public records that the public office will 14988 make available to a single person, may not limit the number of public records that it will make available during a fixed period of time, and may not establish a fixed period of time before it will respond to a request for inspection or copying of public records, unless that period is less than eight hours.

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of this section to the employee of the public office who is the records custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of the records of that office. The public office shall require that employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public records policy. The public office shall create a poster that describes its public records policy and shall post the poster in a conspicuous place in the public office and in all locations where the public office has branch offices. The public office may post its public records policy on the internet web site of the public office if the public office maintains an internet web site. A public office that has established a manual or handbook of its general policies and procedures for all employees of the public office shall include the public records policy of the public office in the manual or handbook.

(F)(1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit the number of bulk commercial special extraction requests made by a person for the same records or for updated records during a calendar year. The rules may include provisions for charges to be made for bulk commercial special extraction requests for the actual cost of the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus ten per cent. The bureau may charge for expenses for redacting information, the release of which is prohibited by law.

(2) As used in division (F)(1) of this section:

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 15021 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 15022 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual costs 15023 paid to private contractors for copying services. 15024

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 15025 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 15026 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 15027 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 15028 class of records, or data base by a person who intends to use or 15029 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale 15030 for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special extraction 15031 request" does not include a request by a person who gives 15032 assurance to the bureau that the person making the request does 15033 not intend to use or forward the requested copies for surveys, 15034 marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial purposes. 15035

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, or 15036 selling of any good, service, or other product. 15037

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 15038 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 15039 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed by 15040 the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 15041 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 15042 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer or 15043 records services. 15044

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this section, 15045
"surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 15046 purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 15047 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information to 15048 assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 15049 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 15050

Sec. 153.01. ~~Whenever~~ (A) Subject to division (B) of this 15051 section, whenever any building or structure for the use of the 15052 state or any institution supported in whole or in part by the 15053 state or in or upon the public works of the state that is 15054 administered by the director of administrative services or by any 15055 other state officer or state agency authorized by law to 15056 administer a project, including an educational institution listed 15057 in section 3345.50 of the Revised Code, is to be erected or 15058 sections 153.01 to 153.60 of the Revised Code as the owner, shall 15066 employment shall be prepared and approved by the attorney general, 15068

~~(A)~~(1) Full and accurate plans, suitable for the use of 15070 mechanics and other builders in the construction, improvement, 15071 addition, alteration, or installation; 15072

~~(B)~~(2) Details to scale and full-sized, so drawn and 15073 mechanic or other builder to carry them out and afford bidders all 15079 needful information; 15080

~~(E)~~(5) A full and accurate estimate of each item of expense 15081 and the aggregate cost of those items of expense; 15082

~~(F)~~(6) A life-cycle cost analysis; 15083

(B) For a state agency, as defined in section 9.33 of the 15086 Revised Code, or a state institution of higher education, as 15087 defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, the estimated 15088 project cost described in division (A) of this section shall be 15089 two hundred thousand dollars or more or the amount determined 15090 pursuant to section 153.53 of the Revised Code or more. 15091

(C) The data described in divisions (A)(1) to (7) of this 15092 section shall not be required with respect to any work to be 15093 performed pursuant to a construction management contract entered 15094 into with a construction manager at risk as described in section 15095 9.334 of the Revised Code or pursuant to a contract for 15096

Sec. 153.012. With respect to the award of any contract for 15099 excluding a contract for products produced or mined in Ohio or for 15107 be given to contractors or subcontractors having their ~~principle~~ 15110 principal place of business in Ohio over ~~contractors~~ contractors or 15111 subcontractors having their ~~principle~~ principal place of business 15112 in a state which provides a preference in that state in favor of 15113 contractors or subcontractors of that state for the same type of 15114 work. Where a preference is provided by another state for 15115 contractors or subcontractors of that state, contractors or 15116 subcontractors having their ~~principle~~ principal place of business 15117 in Ohio are to be granted in Ohio the same preference over them in 15118 the same manner and on the same basis and to the same extent as 15119 the preference is granted in letting contracts or subcontracts for 15120 the same type of work by the other state. If one party to a joint 15121 venture is a contractor or subcontractors having its ~~principle~~ 15122 principal place of business in Ohio, the joint venture shall be 15123 considered as having its ~~principle~~ principal place of business in 15124 Ohio. 15125

Sec. 153.02. (A) The director of administrative services, on 15126 the director's own initiative or upon request of the Ohio school 15127 facilities commission, may debar a contractor from contract awards 15128 for public improvements as referred to in section 153.01 of the 15129

(3) Knowingly failed during the course of a contract to 15139 maintain the contractor's drug-free workplace program as required 15140 by the contract; 15141

(4) Knowingly failed during the course of a contract to 15142 maintain insurance required by the contract or otherwise by law, 15143 resulting in a substantial loss to the owner, as owner is referred 15144 to in section 153.01 of the Revised Code, or to the commission and 15145

3318.08 of the Revised Code; 15147

(6) Been convicted of a criminal offense related to the 15151 application for or performance of any public or private contract, 15152 contractor's business integrity; 15156

(7) Been convicted of a criminal offense under state or 15157 federal antitrust laws; 15158

(8) Deliberately or willfully submitted false or misleading 15159 information in connection with the application for or performance 15160 of a public contract; 15161

(9) Been debarred from bidding on or participating in a 15162 contract with any state or federal agency. 15163 of proposed debarment indicating the grounds for the proposed 15166 debarment and the procedure for requesting a hearing on the 15167 proposed debarment. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance 15168 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. If the contractor does not 15169 respond with a request for a hearing in the manner specified in 15170 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the director shall issue the 15171 debarment decision without a hearing and shall notify the 15172 contractor of the decision by certified mail, return receipt 15173

(C) The director shall determine the length of the debarment 15175

Code or for a project as defined in section 3318.01 of the Revised 15180 Code. After the debarment period expires, the contractor shall be 15181 eligible to bid for and participate in such contracts ~~for a public~~ 15182 ~~improvement as referred to in section 153.01 of the Revised Code.~~ 15183

(D) The director, through the office of the state architect, 15184 shall maintain a list of all contractors currently debarred under 15185 this section. Any governmental entity awarding a contract for 15186 construction of a public improvement or project may use a 15187 contractor's presence on the debarment list to determine whether a 15188 contractor is responsible or best under section 9.312 or any other 15189 section of the Revised Code in the award of a contract. 15190

Sec. 153.03. (A) As used in this section: 15191

~~date of this section~~ March 30, 2007. 15263

(iv) When the employer ~~or a~~ construction manager, 15264 construction manager at risk, or design-build firm has reasonable 15265 workplace program, as those rules exist on ~~the effective date of~~ 15271 construction manager at risk, design-build firm, or conditions in 15278 the contract. 15279

the Revised Code, which is obtained through an evidentiary breath 15289 test conducted by a breath alcohol technician using breath testing 15290 equipment that meets standards established by the United States 15291 department of transportation, or, if such technician and equipment 15292 are unavailable, a blood test may be used to determine whether the 15293 concentration of alcohol in an employee's blood is equal to or in 15294 excess of the level specified in division (A)(1)(b) or (f) of 15295
section 4511.19 of the Revised Code. 15296

(d) Require all employees to receive at least one hour of 15297 training that increases awareness of and attempts to deter 15298 substance abuse and supplies information about employee assistance 15299 to deal with substance abuse problems, and require all supervisors 15300

(g) Assist employees by providing, at a minimum, a list of 15312 community resources from which an employee may obtain help with 15313 faith that the bidder is unable to perform the subsequent contract 15899 because to do so would exceed the bidder's bonding capacity. If a 15900 bid is withdrawn under authority of this division, the contracting 15901 authority may award the contract to the next lowest bidder or 15902 reject all bids and resubmit the project for bidding, and neither 15903 facility within thirty days of the physician's determination. 17827

(c) The individual has been hospitalized and a physician has 17828

Any such assignment and sale shall be irrevocable in accordance with its terms during the period any obligations secured by amounts so assigned and sold are outstanding under the applicable bond proceedings, and shall constitute a contractual obligation to the holders or owners of those obligations. Any such assignment and sale shall also be treated as an absolute transfer and true sale for all purposes, and not as a pledge or other security interest. The characterization of any such assignment and sale as a true sale and absolute transfer shall not be negated or adversely affected by only a portion of the amounts to be received under the tobacco master settlement agreement being transferred, the acquisition or retention by the state of a residual interest, the participation of any state officer or employee as a member or officer of, or providing staff support to, the issuing authority, any responsibility of an officer or employee of the state for collecting the amounts to be received under the tobacco master settlement agreement or otherwise enforcing that agreement or retaining any legal title to or interest in any portion of the 17999 amounts to be received under that agreement for the purpose of 18000 these collection activities, any characterization of the issuing 18001 authority or its obligations for purposes of accounting, taxation, 18002 or securities regulation, or by any other factors whatsoever. A 18003 true sale shall exist under this section regardless of whether the 18004 issuing authority has any recourse against the state or any other 18005 term of the bond proceedings or the treatment or characterization 18006 of the transfer as a financing for any purpose. Upon and following 18007 the assignment and sale, the state shall not have any right, 18008 title, or interest in the portion of the receipts under the 18009 tobacco master settlement agreement so assigned and sold, other 18010 than any residual interest that may be described in the applicable 18011 bond proceedings for those obligations, and that portion, if any, 18012 shall be the property of the issuing authority and not of the 18013 state, and shall be paid directly to the issuing authority, and 18014 shall be owned, received, held, and disbursed by the issuing 18015 authority and not by the state. 18016

The state may covenant, pledge, and agree in the bond 18017 proceedings, with and for the benefit of the issuing authority, 18018 the holders and owners of obligations, and providers of any credit 18019 enhancement facilities, that it shall: (1) maintain statutory 18020 authority for, and cause to be collected and paid directly to the 18021 issuing authority or its assignee, the pledged receipts, (2) 18022 enforce the rights of the issuing authority to receive the 18023 receipts under the tobacco master settlement agreement assigned 18024 and sold to the issuing authority, (3) not materially impair the 18025 rights of the issuing authority to fulfill the terms of its 18026 agreements with the holders or owners of outstanding obligations 18027 under the bond proceedings, (4) not materially impair the rights 18028 and remedies of the holders or owners of outstanding obligations 18029 or materially impair the security for those outstanding 18030 obligations, and (5) enforce Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, 18031 the tobacco master settlement agreement, and the consent decree to 18032 effectuate the collection of the pledged tobacco settlement 18033 receipts. The bond proceedings may provide or authorize the manner 18034 for determining material impairment of the security for any 18035 outstanding obligations, including by assessing and evaluating the 18036 pledged receipts in the aggregate. 18037

As further provided for in division (H) of this section, the 18038 bond proceedings may also include such other covenants, pledges, 18039 and agreements by the state to protect and safeguard the security 18040 and rights of the holders and owners of the obligations, and of 18041 the providers of any credit enhancement facilities, including, 18042 without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any covenant, 18043 pledge, or agreement customary in transactions involving the 18044 issuance of securities the debt service on which is payable from 18045 or secured by amounts received under the tobacco master settlement 18046 agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any 18047 covenant, pledge, and agreement of the state, if and when made in 18048 the bond proceedings, shall be controlling and binding upon, and 18049 enforceable against the state in accordance with its terms for so 18050 long as any obligations are outstanding under the applicable bond 18051 proceedings. The bond proceedings may also include limitations on 18052 the remedies available to the issuing authority, the holders and 18053 owners of the obligations, and the providers of any credit 18054 enhancement facilities, including, without limiting the generality 18055 of the foregoing, a provision that those remedies may be limited 18056 to injunctive relief in circumstances where there has been no 18057 prior determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that the 18058 state has not enforced Chapter 1346. of the Revised Code, the 18059 tobacco master settlement agreement, or the consent decree as may 18060 have been covenanted or agreed in the bond proceedings under 18061 division (B)(5) of this section. 18062

Nothing in this section or the bond proceedings shall 18063 preclude or limit, or be construed to preclude or limit, the state 18064 from regulating or authorizing or permitting the regulation of 18065 smoking or from taxing and regulating the sale of cigarettes or 18066 other tobacco products, or from defending or prosecuting cases or 18067 other actions relating to the sale or use of cigarettes or other 18068 tobacco products. Except as otherwise may be agreed in writing by 18069 the attorney general, nothing in this section or the bond 18070 proceedings shall modify or limit, or be construed to modify or 18071 limit, the responsibility, power, judgment, and discretion of the 18072 attorney general to protect and discharge the duties, rights, and 18073 obligations of the state under the tobacco master settlement 18074 agreement, the consent decree, or Chapter 1346. of the Revised 18075

Code. 18076

The governor and the director of budget and management, in 18077 consultation with the attorney general, on behalf of the state, 18078 and any member or officer of the issuing authority as authorized 18079 by that issuing authority, on behalf of the issuing authority, may 18080 take any action and execute any documents, including any purchase 18081 and sale agreements, necessary to effect the assignment and sale 18082 and the acceptance of the assignment and title to the receipts 18083 including, providing irrevocable direction to the escrow agent 18084 acting under the tobacco master settlement agreement to transfer 18085 directly to the issuing authority the amounts to be received under 18086 that agreement that are subject to such assignment and sale. Any 18087 purchase and sale agreement or other bond proceedings may contain 18088 the terms and conditions established by the state and the issuing 18089 authority to carry out and effectuate the purposes of this 18090 section, including, without limitation, covenants binding the 18091 state in favor of the issuing authority and its assignees and the 18092 owners of the obligations. Any such purchase and sale agreement 18093 shall be sufficient to effectuate such purchase and sale without 18094 regard to any other laws governing other property sales or 18095 financial transactions by the state. 18096

Not later than two years following the date on which there 18097 are no longer any obligations outstanding under the bond 18098 proceedings, all assets of the issuing authority shall vest in the 18099 state, the issuing authority shall execute any necessary 18100 assignments or instruments, including any assignment of any right, 18101 title, or ownership to the state for receipt of amounts under the 18102 tobacco master settlement agreement, and the issuing authority 18103 shall be dissolved. 18104

(C) The issuing authority is authorized to issue and to sell 18105 obligations as provided in this section. The aggregate principal 18106 amount of obligations issued under this section shall not exceed 18107 six billion dollars, exclusive of obligations issued under 18108 division (M)(1) of this section to refund, renew, or advance 18109 refund other obligations issued or incurred. At least seventy-five 18110 per cent of the aggregate net proceeds of the obligations issued 18111 under the authority of this section, exclusive of obligations 18112 issued to refund, renew, or advance refund other obligations, 18113 shall be paid to the state for deposit into the school building 18114 program assistance fund created in section 3318.25 of the Revised 18115
Code. 18116

(D) Each issue of obligations shall be authorized by 18117 resolution or order of the issuing authority. The bond proceedings 18118 shall provide for or authorize the manner for determining the 18119 principal amount or maximum principal amount of obligations of an 18120 issue, the principal maturity or maturities, the interest rate or 18121 rates, the date of and the dates of payment of interest on the 18122 obligations, their denominations, and the place or places of 18123 payment of debt service which may be within or outside the state. 18124 Unless otherwise provided by law, the latest principal maturity 18125 may not be later than the earlier of the thirty-first day of 18126 December of the fiftieth calendar year after the year of issuance 18127 of the particular obligations or of the fiftieth calendar year 18128 after the year in which the original obligation to pay was issued 18129 or entered into. Sections 9.96, 9.98, 9.981, 9.982, and 9.983 of 18130 the Revised Code apply to the obligations. 18131

The purpose of the obligations may be stated in the bond 18132 proceedings in general terms, such as, as applicable, "paying 18133 costs of capital facilities for a system of common schools" and 18134 "paying costs of facilities for state-supported and state-assisted 18135 institutions of higher education." Unless otherwise provided in 18136 the bond proceedings or in division (C) of this section, the net 18137 proceeds from the issuance of the obligations shall be paid to the 18138 state for deposit into the applicable improvement fund. In 18139 addition to the investments authorized in Chapter 135. of the 18140 Revised Code, the net proceeds held in an improvement fund may be 18141 invested by the treasurer of state in guaranteed investment 18142 contracts with providers rated at the time of any investment in 18143 the three highest rating categories by two nationally recognized 18144 rating agencies, all subject to the terms and conditions set forth 18145 in those agreements or the bond proceedings. Notwithstanding 18146 ~~division (B)(4) of section 3318.38~~ anything to the contrary in 18147 Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, net proceeds of obligations 18148 deposited into the school building program assistance fund created 18149 in section 3318.25 of the Revised Code may be used to pay basic 18150 project costs under ~~section 3318.38 of the Revised Code~~ that 18151 chapter at the times determined by the Ohio school facilities 18152 commission without regard to whether those expenditures are in 18153 proportion to the state's and the school district's respective 18154 shares of that basic project cost; provided that this shall not 18155 result in any change in the state or school district shares of the 18156 basic project costs ~~provided under Chapter 3318. of the Revised~~ 18157 ~~Code~~ as determined under that chapter. As used in the preceding 18158 sentence, "Ohio school facilities commission" and "basic project 18159 costs" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised 18160
Code. 18161

(E) The issuing authority may, without need for any other 18162 approval, appoint or provide for the appointment of paying agents, 18163 bond registrars, securities depositories, credit enhancement 18164 providers or counterparties, clearing corporations, and transfer 18165 agents, and retain or contract for the services of underwriters, 18166 investment bankers, financial advisers, accounting experts, 18167 marketing, remarketing, indexing, and administrative agents, other 18168 consultants, and independent contractors, including printing 18169 services, as are necessary in the judgment of the issuing 18170 authority to carry out the issuing authority's functions under 18171 this section and section 183.52 of the Revised Code. The attorney 18172 general as counsel to the issuing authority shall represent the 18173 authority in the execution of its powers and duties, and shall 18174 institute and prosecute all actions on its behalf. The issuing 18175 authority, in consultation with the attorney general, shall select 18176 counsel, and the attorney general shall appoint the counsel 18177 selected, for the purposes of carrying out the functions under 18178 this section and related sections of the Revised Code. Financing 18179 costs are payable, as may be provided in the bond proceedings, 18180 from the proceeds of the obligations, from special funds, or from 18181 other moneys available for the purpose, including as to future 18182 financing costs, from the pledged receipts. 18183

(F) The issuing authority may irrevocably pledge and assign 18184 all, or such portion as the issuing authority determines, of the 18185 pledged receipts to the payment of the debt service charges on 18186 obligations issued under this section, and for the establishment 18187 and maintenance of any reserves, as provided in the bond 18188 proceedings, and make other provisions in the bond proceedings 18189 with respect to pledged receipts as authorized by this section, 18190 which provisions are controlling notwithstanding any other 18191 provisions of law pertaining to them. Any and all pledged receipts 18192 received by the issuing authority and required by the bond 18193 proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, 18194 transferred, or credited to the bond service fund, and all other 18195 money transferred or allocated to or received for the purposes of 18196 that fund, shall be deposited and credited to the bond service 18197 fund created in the bond proceedings for the obligations, subject 18198 to any applicable provisions of those bond proceedings, but 18199 without necessity for any act of appropriation. Those pledged 18200 receipts shall immediately be subject to the lien of that pledge 18201 without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and shall 18202 not be subject to other court judgments. The lien of the pledge of 18203 those pledged receipts shall be valid and binding against all 18204 parties having claims of any kind against the issuing authority, 18205 irrespective of whether those parties have notice thereof. The 18206 pledge shall create a perfected security interest for all purposes 18207 of Chapter 1309. of the Revised Code and a perfected lien for 18208 purposes of any other interest, all without the necessity for 18209 separation or delivery of funds or for the filing or recording of 18210 the applicable bond proceedings by which that pledge is created or 18211 any certificate, statement, or other document with respect 18212 thereto. The pledge of the pledged receipts shall be effective and 18213 the money therefrom and thereof may be applied to the purposes for 18214 which pledged. 18215

(G) Obligations may be further secured, as determined by the 18216 issuing authority, by an indenture or a trust agreement between 18217 the issuing authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any 18218 trust company or bank having a place of business within the state. 18219 Any indenture or trust agreement may contain the resolution or 18220 order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any provisions 18221 that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and other 18222 provisions that are customary or appropriate in an agreement of 18223 that type, including, but not limited to: 18224

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, indenture, trust agreement, 18225 or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 18226

the issuing authority has fully paid or provided for the payment	18227 of debt service on the obligations secured by it;	18228
(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be	18229 made by the bond proceedings, enforcement of those payments or	18230 agreements by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in	18231 equity, action at law, or any combination of them;	18232
(3) The rights and remedies of the holders or owners of	18233 obligations and of the trustee and provisions for protecting and	18234 enforcing them, including limitations on rights of individual	18235 holders and owners.	18236
(H) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions	18237 customary or appropriate to the financing or to the obligations or	18238 guidelines established by the board in the resolution and in 19081 compliance with the procedures provided in division (C) of this 19082 section, from financial institutions, issuers of financial 19083 transaction devices, and processors of financial transaction 19084 devices, to make recommendations about those proposals to the 19085 board, and to assist county offices in implementing the county's 19086 financial transaction devices program. The county treasurer may 19087 decline this responsibility within thirty days after receiving a 19088 copy of the board's resolution by notifying the board in writing 19089 within that period. If the treasurer so notifies the board, the 19090 board shall perform the duties of the administrative agent. 19091

If the county treasurer is the administrative agent and fails 19092 to administer the county financial transaction devices program in 19093 accordance with the guidelines in the board's resolution, the 19094 board shall notify the treasurer in writing of the board's 19095 findings, explain the failures, and give the treasurer six months 19096 to correct the failures. If the treasurer fails to make the 19097 appropriate corrections within that six-month period, the board 19098 may pass a resolution declaring the board to be the administrative 19099 agent. The board may later rescind that resolution at its 19100 discretion. 19101

(C) The county shall follow the procedures provided in this 19102 division whenever it plans to contract with financial 19103 institutions, issuers of financial transaction devices, or 19104 processors of financial transaction devices for the purposes of 19105 this section. The administrative agent shall request proposals 19106 from at least three financial institutions, issuers of financial 19107 transaction devices, or processors of financial transaction 19108 devices, as appropriate in accordance with the resolution adopted 19109 under division (B) of this section. Prior to sending any financial 19110 institution, issuer, or processor a copy of any such request, the 19111 county shall advertise its intent to request proposals in a 19112 newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two 19113 consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 19114 Code. The notice shall state that the county intends to request 19115 proposals; specify the purpose of the request; indicate the date, 19116 which shall be at least ten days after the second publication, on 19117 which the request for proposals will be mailed to financial 19118 institutions, issuers, or processors; and require that any 19119 financial institution, issuer, or processor, whichever is 19120 appropriate, interested in receiving the request for proposals 19121 submit written notice of this interest to the county not later 19122 than noon of the day on which the request for proposals will be 19123 mailed. 19124

Upon receiving the proposals, the administrative agent shall 19125 review them and make a recommendation to the board of county 19126 commissioners on which proposals to accept. The board of county 19127 commissioners shall consider the agent's recommendation and review 19128 all proposals submitted, and then may choose to contract with any 19129 or all of the entities submitting proposals, as appropriate. The 19130 board shall provide any financial institution, issuer, or 19131 processor that submitted a proposal, but with which the board does 19132 not enter into a contract, notice that its proposal is rejected. 19133
The notice shall state the reasons for the rejection, indicate 19134 whose proposals were accepted, and provide a copy of the terms and 19135 conditions of the successful bids. 19136

(D) A board of county commissioners adopting a resolution 19137 under this section shall send a copy of the resolution to each 19138 county official in the county who is authorized by the resolution 19139 to accept payments by financial transaction devices. After 19140 receiving the resolution and before accepting payments by 19141 financial transaction devices, a county official shall provide 19142 written notification to the board of county commissioners of the 19143 official's intent to implement the resolution within the 19144 official's office. Each county office subject to the board's 19145 resolution adopted under division (B) of this section may use only 19146 the financial institutions, issuers of financial transaction 19147 devices, and processors of financial transaction devices with 19148 which the board of county commissioners contracts, and each such 19149 office is subject to the terms of those contracts. 19150

If a county office under the authority of a county official 19151 is directly responsible for collecting one or more county expenses 19152 and the county official determines not to accept payments by 19153 financial transaction devices for one or more of those expenses, 19154 the office shall not be required to accept payments by financial 19155 transaction devices, notwithstanding the adoption of a resolution 19156 by the board of county commissioners under this section. 19157

Any office of a clerk of the court of common pleas that 19158 accepts financial transaction devices on or before July 1, 1999, 19159 and any other county office that accepted such devices before 19160 January 1, 1998, may continue to accept such devices without being 19161 subject to any resolution passed by the board of county 19162 commissioners under division (B) of this section, or any other 19163 oversight by the board of the office's financial transaction 19164 devices program. Any such office may use surcharges or convenience 19165 fees in any manner the county official in charge of the office 19166 determines to be appropriate, and, if the county treasurer 19167 consents, may appoint the county treasurer to be the office's 19168 administrative agent for purposes of accepting financial 19169 transaction devices. In order not to be subject to the resolution 19170 of the board of county commissioners adopted under division (B) of 19171 this section, a county office shall notify the board in writing 19172 within thirty days after March 30, 1999, that it accepted 19173 financial transaction devices prior to January 1, 1998, or, in the 19174 case of the office of a clerk of the court of common pleas, the 19175 clerk has accepted or will accept such devices on or before July 19176 1, 1999. Each such notification shall explain how processing costs 19177 associated with financial transaction devices are being paid and 19178 shall indicate whether surcharge or convenience fees are being 19179 passed on to consumers. 19180

(E) A board of county commissioners may establish a surcharge 19181 or convenience fee that may be imposed upon a person making 19182 payment by a financial transaction device. The surcharge or 19183 convenience fee shall not be imposed unless authorized or 19184 otherwise permitted by the rules prescribed by an agreement 19185 governing the use and acceptance of the financial transaction 19186 device. 19187

If a surcharge or convenience fee is imposed, every county 19188 office accepting payment by a financial transaction device, 19189 regardless of whether that office is subject to a resolution 19190 adopted by a board of county commissioners, shall clearly post a 19191 notice in that office and shall notify each person making a 19192 payment by such a device about the surcharge or fee. Notice to 19193 each person making a payment shall be provided regardless of the 19194 medium used to make the payment and in a manner appropriate to 19195 that medium. Each notice shall include all of the following: 19196

(1) A statement that there is a surcharge or convenience fee 19197 for using a financial transaction device; 19198

(2) The total amount of the charge or fee expressed in 19199 dollars and cents for each transaction, or the rate of the charge 19200 or fee expressed as a percentage of the total amount of the 19201 transaction, whichever is applicable; 19202

(3) A clear statement that the surcharge or convenience fee 19203 is nonrefundable. 19204

(F) If a person elects to make a payment to the county by a 19205 financial transaction device and a surcharge or convenience fee is 19206 imposed, the payment of the surcharge or fee shall be considered 19207 voluntary and the surcharge or fee is not refundable. 19208

(G) If a person makes payment by financial transaction device 19209 and the payment is returned or dishonored for any reason, the 19210 person is liable to the county for payment of a penalty over and 19211 above the amount of the expense due. The board of county 19212 commissioners shall determine the amount of the penalty, which may 19213 be either a fee not to exceed twenty dollars or payment of the 19214 amount necessary to reimburse the county for banking charges, 19215 legal fees, or other expenses incurred by the county in collecting 19216 the returned or dishonored payment. The remedies and procedures 19217 provided in this section are in addition to any other available 19218 civil or criminal remedies provided by law. 19219

(H) No person making any payment by financial transaction 19220 device to a county office shall be relieved from liability for the 19221 underlying obligation except to the extent that the county 19222 realizes final payment of the underlying obligation in cash or its 19223 equivalent. If final payment is not made by the financial 19224 transaction device issuer or other guarantor of payment in the 19225 transaction, the underlying obligation shall survive and the 19226 county shall retain all remedies for enforcement that would have 19227 applied if the transaction had not occurred. 19228

(I) A county official or employee who accepts a financial 19229 transaction device payment in accordance with this section and any 19230 applicable state or local policies or rules is immune from 19231 personal liability for the final collection of such payments. 19232

Sec. 305.171. The following applies until the department of 19233 administrative services implements for counties the health care 19234 plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. If those plans do 19235 not include or address any benefits listed in division (A) of this 19236 section, the following provisions continue in effect for those 19237
benefits. 19238

(A) The board of county commissioners of any county may 19239 contract for, purchase, or otherwise procure and pay all or any 19240 part of the cost of group insurance policies that may provide 19241 benefits including, but not limited to, hospitalization, surgical 19242 care, major medical care, disability, dental care, eye care, 19243 medical care, hearing aids, or prescription drugs, and that may 19244 provide sickness and accident insurance, group legal services, or 19245 group life insurance, or a combination of any of the foregoing 19246 types of insurance or coverage, for county officers and employees 19247 and their immediate dependents from the funds or budgets from 19248 which the county officers or employees are compensated for 19249 services, issued by an insurance company. 19250

(B) The board of county commissioners also may negotiate and 19251 contract for any plan or plans of health care services with health 19252 insuring corporations holding a certificate of authority under 19253 Chapter 1751. of the Revised Code, provided that each county 19254 officer or employee shall be permitted to do both of the 19255
following: 19256

(1) Exercise an option between a plan offered by an insurance 19257 company and a plan or plans offered by health insuring 19258 corporations under this division, on the condition that the county 19259 officer or employee shall pay any amount by which the cost of the 19260 plan chosen by the county officer or employee pursuant to this 19261 division exceeds the cost of the plan offered under division (A) 19262
of this section; 19263

(2) Change from one of the plans to another at a time each 19264 year as determined by the board. 19265

(C) Section 307.86 of the Revised Code does not apply to the 19266 purchase of benefits for county officers or employees under 19267 divisions (A) and (B) of this section when those benefits are 19268 provided through a jointly administered health and welfare trust 19269 fund in which the county or contracting authority and a collective 19270 bargaining representative of the county employees or contracting 19271 authority agree to participate. 19272

(D) The board of trustees of a jointly administered trust 19273 fund that receives contributions pursuant to collective bargaining 19274 agreements entered into between the board of county commissioners 19275 of any county and a collective bargaining representative of the 19276 employees of the county may provide for self-insurance of all risk 19277 in the provision of fringe benefits, and may provide through the self-insurance method specific fringe benefits as authorized by the rules of the board of trustees of the jointly administered trust fund. The fringe benefits may include, but are not limited to, hospitalization, surgical care, major medical care, disability, dental care, vision care, medical care, hearing aids, prescription drugs, group life insurance, sickness and accident insurance, group legal services, or a combination of any of the foregoing types of insurance or coverage, for county employees and their dependents.

(E) The board of county commissioners may provide the benefits described in divisions (A) to (D) of this section through an individual self-insurance program or a joint self-insurance program as provided in section 9.833 of the Revised Code.

(F) When a board of county commissioners offers health benefits authorized under this section to a county officer or employee, the board may offer the benefits through a cafeteria plan meeting the requirements of section 125 of the "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 125, as amended, and, as part of that plan, may offer the county officer or employee the option of receiving a cash payment in any form permissible under such cafeteria plans. A cash payment made to a county officer or employee under this division shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the cost of premiums or payments that otherwise would be paid by the board for benefits for the county officer or employee under a policy or plan.

(G) The board of county commissioners may establish a policy authorizing any county appointing authority to make a cash payment to any county officer or employee in lieu of providing a benefit authorized under this section if the county officer or employee elects to take the cash payment instead of the offered benefit. A cash payment made to a county officer or employee under this division shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the cost of 19310 premiums or payments that otherwise would be paid by the board for 19311 benefits for the county officer or employee under an offered 19312 policy or plan. 19313

(H) No cash payment in lieu of a health benefit shall be made 19314 to a county officer or employee under division (F) or (G) of this 19315 section unless the county officer or employee signs a statement 19316 affirming that the county officer or employee is covered under 19317 another health insurance or health care policy, contract, or plan, 19318 and setting forth the name of the employer, if any, that sponsors 19319 the coverage, the name of the carrier that provides the coverage, 19320 and the identifying number of the policy, contract, or plan. 19321

(I) The legislative authority of a county-operated municipal 19322 court, after consultation with the judges, or the clerk and deputy 19323 clerks, of the municipal court, shall negotiate and contract for, 19324 purchase, or otherwise procure, and pay the costs, premiums, or 19325 charges for, group health care coverage for the judges, and group 19326 health care coverage for the clerk and deputy clerks, in 19327 accordance with section 1901.111 or 1901.312 of the Revised Code. 19328

(J) As used in this section: 19329

(1) "County officer or employee" includes, but is not limited 19330 to, a member or employee of the county board of elections. 19331

(2) "County-operated municipal court" and "legislative 19332 authority" have the same meanings as in section 1901.03 of the 19333
Revised Code. 19334

(3) "Health care coverage" has the same meaning as in section 19335
1901.111 of the Revised Code. 19336

Sec. 305.23. (A) As used in this section: 19337

(1) "County office" means the offices of the county 19338 commissioner, county auditor, county treasurer, county engineer, 19339 county recorder, county prosecuting attorney, county sheriff, 19340 county coroner, county park district, veterans service commission, 19341 clerk of the juvenile court, clerks of court for all divisions of 19342 the courts of common pleas, including the clerk of the court of 19343 common pleas, clerk of a county-operated municipal court, and 19344 clerk of a county court, and any agency, department, or division 19345 under the authority of, or receiving funding in whole or in part 19346 from, any of those county offices. 19347

(2) "Human resources" means any and all functions relating to 19348 human resource management, including civil service, employee 19349 benefits administration, collective bargaining, labor relations, 19350 risk management, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, 19351 and any human resource management function required by state or 19352 federal law, but "human resources" does not authorize a board of 19353 county commissioners to adopt a resolution establishing a 19354 centralized human resource service that requires any county office 19355 to conform to any classification and compensation plan, position 19356 descriptions, or organizational structure; to determine the rate 19357 of compensation of any employee appointed by the appointing 19358 authority of a county office or the salary ranges for positions of 19359 a county office within the aggregate limits set in the 19360 appropriation resolution of the board of county commissioners; to 19361 determine the number of or the terms of employment of any employee 19362 appointed by the appointing authority of a county office within 19363 the aggregate limits set in the board's appropriation resolution; 19364 or to exercise powers relating to the hiring, qualifications, 19365 evaluation, suspension, demotion, disciplinary action, layoff, 19366 furloughing, establishment of a modified work-week schedule, or 19367 the termination of any employee appointed by the appointing 19368 authority of any county office. 19369

(B) Subject to division (C) of this section, a board of 19370 county commissioners may adopt a resolution establishing 19371 centralized purchasing, printing, transportation, vehicle 19372 maintenance, human resources, revenue collection, and mail 19373 operation services for a county office. Before adopting a 19374 resolution under this section, the board of county commissioners, 19375 in a written notice, shall inform any other county office that 19376 will be impacted by the resolution of the board's desire to 19377 establish a centralized service or services. The written notice 19378 shall include a statement that provides the rationale and the 19379 estimated savings anticipated for centralizing a service or 19380 services. In addition, the board may request any other county 19381 office to serve as the agent and responsible party for 19382 administering a centralized service or services. That county 19383 office may enter into an agreement with the board of county 19384 commissioners to administer the centralized service or services 19385 under such terms and conditions as are included in the agreement, 19386 but nothing in this section authorizes the board of county 19387 commissioners to require a county office to serve as the agent and 19388 responsible party for administering a centralized service or 19389 services at the board's request. 19390

A resolution establishing a centralized service or services 19391 shall specify all of the following: 19392

(1) The name of the county office that will be the agent and 19393 responsible party for administering a centralized service or 19394 services, and if the agent and responsible party is not the board 19395 of county commissioners, the designation of the county office that 19396 has entered into an agreement under division (B) of this section 19397 with the board to be the agent and responsible party; 19398

(2) Which county offices are required to use the centralized 19399 services; 19400

(3) If not all of the centralized services, which centralized 19401 service each county office must use; 19402

(4) A list of rates and charges the county office shall pay for the centralized services; 19403
19404

(5) The date upon which each county office specified in the resolution shall begin using the centralized services. 19405
19406

Not later than ten days after a resolution is adopted under this section, the clerk of the board of county commissioners shall send a copy of the resolution to each county office that is specified in the resolution. 19407
19408
19410

(C) A board of county commissioners shall not adopt a resolution that establishes a centralized service or services regarding any of the following: 19411
19413

(1) Purchases made with moneys from the special fund designated as "general fund moneys to supplement the equipment needs of the county recorder" under section 317.321 of the Revised Code, from the real estate assessment fund established under section 325.31 of the Revised Code, or from the funds that are paid out of the general fund of the county under sections 325.071 and 325.12 of the Revised Code; 19414
19415
19417
19418
19419
19420

(2) Purchases of financial software used by the county auditor; 19421
19422

(3) The printing of county property tax bills; 19423

(4) The collection of any taxes, assessments, and fees the county treasurer is required by law to collect; 19424

(5) Purchases of computers, software, and micrographic equipment used by the county recorder. 19426
19427

(D) Nothing in this section authorizes the board of county commissioners to have control or authority over funds that are received directly by a county office under another section of the Revised Code, or to control, or have authority regarding, the expenditure or use of such funds. 19428

Sec. 306.322. (A) For any regional transit authority that 19433 levies a property tax and that includes in its membership 19434 political subdivisions that are located in a county having a 19435 population of at least four hundred thousand according to the most 19436 recent federal census, the procedures of this section apply until 19437 November 5, 2013, and are in addition to and an alternative to 19438 those established in sections 306.32 and 306.321 for joining to 19439 the regional transit authority additional counties, municipal 19440 corporations, or townships. 19441

(B) Any municipal corporation or township may adopt a 19442 resolution or ordinance proposing to join a regional transit 19443 authority described in division (A) of this section. In its 19444 resolution or ordinance, the political subdivision may propose 19445 joining the regional transit authority for a limited period of 19446 three years or without a time limit. 19447

(C) The political subdivision proposing to join the regional 19448 transit authority shall submit a copy of its resolution or 19449 ordinance to the legislative authority of each municipal 19450 corporation and the board of trustees of each township comprising 19451 the regional transit authority. Within thirty days of receiving 19452 the resolution or ordinance for inclusion in the regional transit 19453 authority, the legislative authority of each municipal corporation 19454 and the board of trustees of each township shall consider the 19455 question of whether to include the additional subdivision in the 19456 regional transit authority, shall adopt a resolution or ordinance 19457 approving or rejecting the inclusion of the additional 19458 subdivision, and shall present its resolution or ordinance to the 19459 board of trustees of the regional transit authority. 19460

(D) If a majority of the political subdivisions comprising 19461 the regional transit authority approve the inclusion of the 19462 additional political subdivision, the board of trustees of the 19463 regional transit authority, not later than the tenth day following 19464 the day on which the last ordinance or resolution is presented, 19465 shall notify the subdivision proposing to join the regional 19466 transit authority that it may certify the proposal to the board of 19467 elections for the purpose of having the proposal placed on the 19468 ballot at the next general election or at a special election 19469 conducted on the day of the next primary election that occurs not 19470 less than ninety days after the resolution or ordinance is 19471 certified to the board of elections. 19472

(E) Upon certification of a proposal to the board of 19473 elections pursuant to this section, the board of elections shall 19474 make the necessary arrangements for the submission of the question 19475 to the electors of the territory to be included in the regional 19476 transit authority qualified to vote on the question, and the 19477 election shall be held, canvassed, and certified in the same 19478 manner as regular elections for the election of officers of the 19479 subdivision proposing to join the regional transit authority, 19480 except that, if the resolution proposed the inclusion without a 19481 time limitation the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 19482

"Shall the territory within the 19483
(Name or names of political subdivisions to be joined) be added to 19484
..... (Name) regional transit 19485 authority?" and shall a(n) (here insert type of tax or 19486 taxes) at a rate of taxation not to exceed (here insert 19487 maximum tax rate or rates) be levied for all transit purposes?" 19488

If the resolution proposed the inclusion with a three-year 19489
time limitation, the question appearing on the ballot shall read: 19490

"Shall the territory within the 19491
..... (Name) regional transit 19493 authority?" for three years and shall a(n) (here insert 19494 type of tax or taxes) at a rate of taxation not to exceed 19495

(here insert maximum tax rate or rates) be levied for all transit purposes for three years?" 19496
19497

(F) If the question is approved by at least a majority of the electors voting on the question, the addition of the new territory is effective six months from the date of the certification of its passage, and the regional transit authority may extend the levy of the tax against all the taxable property within the territory that was added. If the question is approved at a general election or at a special election occurring prior to the general election but after the fifteenth day of July, the regional transit authority may amend its budget and resolution adopted pursuant to section 5705.34 of the Revised Code, and the levy shall be placed on the current tax list and duplicate and collected as other taxes are collected from all taxable property within the territorial boundaries of the regional transit authority, including the territory within the political subdivision added as a result of the election. If the budget of the regional transit authority is amended pursuant to this paragraph, the county auditor shall prepare and deliver an amended certificate of estimated resources to reflect the change in anticipated revenues of the regional transit authority. 19498

manner as regular elections for the election of officers of the 20065

If the question is approved by at least a majority of the 20073 months from the date of the certification of its passage. 20075

The board of elections to which the resolution was certified 20076 shall certify the results of the election to the board or 20077

Revised Code shall not become effective until it is submitted to 20096 the electors residing within the county or within the territorial 20097 majority of the electors voting on it. Such question shall be 20099 submitted at a general election or at a special election on a day 20100 of elections, in accordance with section 3505.071 of the Revised 20103

The board of elections of the county or of each county in 20105 which any territory of the regional transit authority is located 20106 shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission of such 20107 question to the electors of the county or regional transit 20108 authority, and the election shall be held, canvassed, and 20109 lessor under the lease to cause sufficient money to be made 20163 available to the county to enable the county to comply with the 20164 certification requirements of division (D) of section 5705.41 of 20165

after occupation of the correctional facilities by the county, and 20171 may provide for the board to obtain and maintain any insurance 20172 that the lessor may require, including, but not limited to, public 20173 liability, casualty, builder's risk, and business interruption 20174 insurance. The obligations incurred under a lease entered into 20175 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section shall not be 20176 have been completed and for which no permanent financing has been 20188 arranged. 20189

(C) As used in this section: 20190

section 4115.03 of the Revised Code. 20195

Sec. 307.041. (A) As used in this section, "energy 20196 conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an 20197 installation in, or remodeling of, an existing building, to reduce 20198 energy consumption. "Energy conservation measure" includes the 20199

the energy conservation measure, including the methods used to	20252 estimate the savings;	20253
(7) A certification under the seal of a registered	20254 professional engineer that the energy conservation report uses	20255 reasonable methods of analysis and estimation.	20256
(C)(1) A county desiring to implement energy conservation	20257
measures may proceed under either of the following methods:	20258
(a) Using a report or any part of an energy conservation	20259 report prepared under division (B) of this section, advertise for	20260 bids and, except as otherwise provided in this section, comply	20261 with sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised Code;	20262
(b) Notwithstanding sections 307.86 to 307.92 of the Revised	20263
Code, request proposals from at least three vendors for the	20264 implementation of energy conservation measures. A request for	20265 proposals shall require the installer that is awarded a contract	20266 under division (C)(2)(b) of this section to prepare an energy	20267 conservation report in accordance with division (B) of this 20268 section. Prior to sending any installer of energy conservation 20269 measures a copy of any request for proposals, the county shall 20270 advertise its intent to request proposals for the installation of 20271 energy conservation measures in a newspaper of general circulation 20272 in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided 20273 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The notice shall state that 20274 the county intends to request proposals for the installation of 20275 energy conservation measures; indicate the date, which shall be at 20276 least ten days after the second publication, on which the request 20277 for proposals will be mailed to installers of energy conservation 20278 measures; and state that any installer of energy conservation 20279 measures interested in receiving the request for proposals shall 20280 submit written notice to the county not later than noon of the day 20281 on which the request for proposals will be mailed. 20282

(2)(a) Upon receiving bids under division (C)(1)(a) of this 20284 section, the county shall analyze them and select the lowest and 20285 best bid or bids most likely to result in the greatest energy 20286 savings considering the cost of the project and the county's 20287 ability to pay for the improvements with current revenues or by 20288 financing the improvements. 20289

(b) Upon receiving proposals under division (C)(1)(b) of this 20290 section, the county shall analyze the proposals and the 20291 installers' qualifications and select the most qualified installer 20292 to prepare an energy conservation report in accordance with 20293 division (B) of this section. After receipt and review of the 20294 energy conservation report, the county may award a contract to the 20295 selected installer to install the energy conservation measures 20296 that are most likely to result in the greatest energy savings 20297 considering the cost of the project and the county's ability to 20298 pay for the improvements with current revenues or by financing the 20299 improvements. 20300

(c) The awarding of a contract to install energy conservation 20301 measures under division (C)(2)(a) or (b) of this section shall be 20302 conditioned upon a finding by the contracting authority that the 20303 amount of money spent on the energy conservation measures is not 20304 likely to exceed the amount of money the county would save in 20305 energy, operating, maintenance, and avoided capital costs over the 20306 average system life of the energy conservation measures as 20307 specified in the energy conservation report. In making such a 20308 finding, the contracting authority may take into account increased 20309 costs due to inflation as shown in the energy conservation report. 20310 Nothing in this division prohibits a county from rejecting all 20311 bids or proposals under division (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section 20312 or from selecting more than one bid or proposal. 20313

(D) A board of county commissioners may enter into an 20314 installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of 20315 energy conservation measures. Provisions of installment payment 20316 contracts that deal with interest charges and financing terms 20317 shall not be subject to the competitive bidding requirements of 20318 section 307.86 of the Revised Code, and shall be on the following 20319 terms: 20320

(1) Not less than a specified percentage, as determined and 20321 approved by the board of county commissioners, of the costs of the 20322 contract shall be paid within two years from the date of purchase. 20323

(2) The remaining balance of the costs of the contract shall 20324 be paid within the lesser of the average system life of the energy 20325 conservation measures as specified in the energy conservation 20326 report or thirty years. 20327

(E) The board of county commissioners may issue the notes of 20328 the county specifying the terms of a purchase of energy 20329 conservation measures under this section and securing any deferred 20330 payments provided for in division (D) of this section. The notes 20331 shall be payable at the times provided and bear interest at a rate 20332 not exceeding the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of 20333 the Revised Code. The notes may contain an option for prepayment 20334 and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. 20335 Revenues derived from local taxes or otherwise for the purpose of 20336 conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses 20337 of the county may be pledged and applied to the payment of 20338 interest and the retirement of the notes. The notes may be sold at 20339 private sale or given to the contractor under an installment 20340 payment contract authorized by division (D) of this section. 20341

(F) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in 20342 the calculation of the net indebtedness of a county under section 20343
133.07 of the Revised Code. 20344

Sec. 307.093. A board of county commissioners may enter into 20345 a sale and leaseback agreement under which the board agrees to 20346 convey a county-owned building to a purchaser who is obligated, 20347 immediately upon closing, to lease the building back to the board. 20348
The sale and leaseback agreement shall obligate the lessor to make 20349 improvements to the building, including renovations, energy 20350 conservation measures, and other measures that are necessary to 20351 improve the functionality and reduce the operating costs of the 20352 building. 20353

The authority granted by this section is not subject to the 20354 limitations imposed by sections 307.02 and 307.09 of the Revised 20355
Code. 20356

Sec. 307.10. (A) No sale of real property, or lease of real 20357 property used or to be used for the purpose of airports, landing 20358 fields, or air navigational facilities, or parts thereof, as 20359 provided by section 307.09 of the Revised Code shall be made 20360 unless it is authorized by a resolution adopted by a majority of 20361 the board of county commissioners. When a sale of real property as 20362 provided by section 307.09 of the Revised Code is authorized, the 20363 board may either deed the property to the highest responsible 20364 bidder, after advertisement once a week for four consecutive weeks 20365 in a newspaper of general circulation in the county or as provided 20366 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, or offer the real property 20367 for sale at a public auction, after giving at least thirty days' 20368 notice of the auction by publication in a newspaper of general 20369 circulation in the county. The board may reject any and all bids. 20370

The board may, as it considers best, sell real property pursuant 20371 to this section as an entire tract or in parcels. The board, by 20372 resolution adopted by a majority of the board, may lease real 20373 property, in accordance with division (A) of section 307.09 of the 20374 Revised Code, without advertising for bids. 20375

(B) The board, by resolution, may transfer real property in 20376 fee simple belonging to the county and not needed for public use 20377 to the United States government, to the state or any department or 20378 agency thereof, to municipal corporations or other political 20379 subdivisions of the state, to the county board of developmental 20380 disabilities, or to a county land reutilization corporation 20381 organized under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code for public 20382 purposes upon the terms and in the manner that it may determine to 20383 be in the best interests of the county, without advertising for 20384 bids. The board shall execute a deed or other proper instrument 20385 when such a transfer is approved. 20386

(C) The board, by resolution adopted by a majority of the 20387 board, may grant leases, rights, or easements to the United States 20388 government, to the state or any department or agency thereof, or 20389 to municipal corporations and other political subdivisions of the 20390 state, or to privately owned electric light and power companies, 20391 natural gas companies, or telephone or telegraph companies for 20392 purposes of rendering their several public utilities services, in 20393 accordance with division (B) of section 307.09 of the Revised 20394 Code, without advertising for bids. When such grant of lease, 20395 right, or easement is authorized, a deed or other proper 20396 instrument therefor shall be executed by the board. 20397

Sec. 307.12. (A) Except as otherwise provided in divisions 20398 (D), (E), and (G) of this section, when the board of county 20399 commissioners finds, by resolution, that the county has personal 20400 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of county 20401 officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, tools, or 20402 supplies, that is not needed for public use, is obsolete, or is 20403 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, and when the fair 20404 market value of the property to be sold or donated under this 20405 division is, in the opinion of the board, in excess of two 20406 thousand five hundred dollars, the board may do either of the 20407
following: 20408

(1) Sell the property at public auction or by sealed bid to 20409 the highest bidder. Notice of the time, place, and manner of the 20410 sale shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in 20411 the county at least ten days prior to the sale, and a typewritten 20412 or printed notice of the time, place, and manner of the sale shall 20413 be posted at least ten days before the sale in the offices of the 20414 county auditor and the board of county commissioners. 20415

If a board conducts a sale of property by sealed bid, the 20416 form of the bid shall be as prescribed by the board, and each bid 20417 shall contain the name of the person submitting it. Bids received 20418 shall be opened and tabulated at the time stated in the notice. 20419
The property shall be sold to the highest bidder, except that the 20420 board may reject all bids and hold another sale, by public auction 20421 or sealed bid, in the manner prescribed by this section. 20422

(2) Donate any motor vehicle that does not exceed four 20423 thousand five hundred dollars in value to a nonprofit organization 20424 exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) 20425 and (c)(3) for the purpose of meeting the transportation needs of 20426 participants in the Ohio works first program established under 20427 Chapter 5107. of the Revised Code and participants in the 20428 prevention, retention, and contingency program established under 20429 Chapter 5108. of the Revised Code. 20430

(B) When the board of county commissioners finds, by 20431 resolution, that the county has personal property, including motor 20432 vehicles acquired for the use of county officers and departments, 20433 and road machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, that is not 20434 needed for public use, is obsolete, or is unfit for the use for 20435 which it was acquired, and when the fair market value of the 20436 property to be sold or donated under this division is, in the 20437 opinion of the board, two thousand five hundred dollars or less, 20438 the board may do either of the following: 20439

(1) Sell the property by private sale, without advertisement 20440 or public notification; 20441

(2) Donate the property to an eligible nonprofit organization 20442 that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income 20443 taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3). Before donating 20444 any property under this division, the board shall adopt a 20445 resolution expressing its intent to make unneeded, obsolete, or 20446 unfit-for-use county personal property available to these 20447 organizations. The resolution shall include guidelines and 20448 procedures the board considers necessary to implement a donation 20449 program under this division and shall indicate whether the county 20450 will conduct the donation program or the board will contract with 20451 a representative to conduct it. If a representative is known when 20452 the resolution is adopted, the resolution shall provide contact 20453 information such as the representative's name, address, and 20454 telephone number. 20455

The resolution shall include within its procedures a requirement that any nonprofit organization desiring to obtain donated property under this division shall submit a written notice to the board or its representative. The written notice shall include evidence that the organization is a nonprofit organization that is located in this state and is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(a) and (c)(3); a description of the organization's primary purpose; a description of the type or types of property the organization needs; and the name, address, and telephone number of a person designated by the organization's governing board to receive donated property and to serve as its agent.

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall publish, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice of its intent to donate unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use county personal property to eligible nonprofit organizations. The notice shall include a summary of the information provided in the resolution and shall be published ~~at least~~ twice or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second and any subsequent notice shall be published not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the previous notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually in a conspicuous place in the offices of the county auditor and the board of county commissioners, ~~and, if.~~ If the county maintains a web site on the internet, the notice shall be posted continually at that web site.

The board or its representative shall maintain a list of all nonprofit organizations that notify the board or its representative of their desire to obtain donated property under this division and that the board or its representative determines to be eligible, in accordance with the requirements set forth in this section and in the donation program's guidelines and procedures, to receive donated property.

The board or its representatives also shall maintain a list 20488 of all county personal property the board finds to be unneeded, 20489 obsolete, or unfit for use and to be available for donation under 20490 this division. The list shall be posted continually in a 20491 conspicuous location in the offices of the county auditor and the 20492 board of county commissioners, and, if the county maintains a web 20493 site on the internet, the list shall be posted continually at that 20494 web site. An item of property on the list shall be donated to the 20495 eligible nonprofit organization that first declares to the board 20496 or its representative its desire to obtain the item unless the 20497 board previously has established, by resolution, a list of 20498 eligible nonprofit organizations that shall be given priority with 20499 respect to the item's donation. Priority may be given on the basis 20500 that the purposes of a nonprofit organization have a direct 20501 relationship to specific public purposes of programs provided or 20502 administered by the board. A resolution giving priority to certain 20503 nonprofit organizations with respect to the donation of an item of 20504 property shall specify the reasons why the organizations are given 20505 that priority. 20506

(C) Members of the board of county commissioners shall 20507 consult with the Ohio ethics commission, and comply with the 20508 provisions of Chapters 102. and 2921. of the Revised Code, with 20509 respect to any sale or donation under division (A) or (B) of this 20510 section to a nonprofit organization of which a county 20511 commissioner, any member of the county commissioner's family, or 20512 any business associate of the county commissioner is a trustee, 20513 officer, board member, or employee. 20514

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A), 20515
(B), or (E) of this section and regardless of the property's 20516 value, the board of county commissioners may sell or donate county 20517 personal property, including motor vehicles, to the federal 20518 government, the state, any political subdivision of the state, or 20519 a county land reutilization corporation without advertisement or 20520 public notification. 20521

(E) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division (A), 20522
(B), or (G) of this section and regardless of the property's 20523 value, the board of county commissioners may sell personal 20524 property, including motor vehicles acquired for the use of county 20525
officers and departments, and road machinery, equipment, tools, or 20526 supplies, that is not needed for public use, is obsolete, or is 20527 unfit for the use for which it was acquired, by internet auction. 20528
The board shall adopt, during each calendar year, a resolution 20529 expressing its intent to sell that property by internet auction. 20530
The resolution shall include a description of how the auctions 20531 will be conducted and shall specify the number of days for bidding 20532 on the property, which shall be no less than ten days, including 20533 Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. The resolution shall 20534 indicate whether the county will conduct the auction or the board 20535 will contract with a representative to conduct the auction and 20536 shall establish the general terms and conditions of sale. If a 20537 representative is known when the resolution is adopted, the 20538 resolution shall provide contact information such as the 20539 representative's name, address, and telephone number. 20540

After adoption of the resolution, the board shall publish, in 20541 a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice of its 20542 intent to sell unneeded, obsolete, or unfit-for-use county 20543 personal property by internet auction. The notice shall include a 20544 summary of the information provided in the resolution and shall be 20545 published ~~at least~~ twice or as provided in section 7.16 of the 20546 Revised Code. The second and any subsequent notice shall be 20547 published not less than ten nor more than twenty days after the 20548 previous notice. A similar notice also shall be posted continually 20549 throughout the calendar year in a conspicuous place in the offices 20550 of the county auditor and the board of county commissioners, ~~and,~~ 20551

~~if.~~ If the county maintains a web site on the internet, the notice 20552 shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year at that 20553 web site. 20554

When property is to be sold by internet auction, the board or 20555 its representative may establish a minimum price that will be 20556 accepted for specific items and may establish any other terms and 20557 conditions for the particular sale, including requirements for 20558 pick-up or delivery, method of payment, and sales tax. This type 20559 of information shall be provided on the internet at the time of 20560 the auction and may be provided before that time upon request 20561 after the terms and conditions have been determined by the board 20562 or its representative. 20563

(F) When a county officer or department head determines that 20564 county-owned personal property under the jurisdiction of the 20565 officer or department head, including motor vehicles, road 20566 machinery, equipment, tools, or supplies, is not of immediate 20567 need, the county officer or department head may notify the board 20568 of county commissioners, and the board may lease that personal 20569 property to any municipal corporation, township, other political 20570 subdivision of the state, or to a county land reutilization 20571 corporation. The lease shall require the county to be reimbursed 20572 under terms, conditions, and fees established by the board, or 20573 under contracts executed by the board. 20574

(G) If the board of county commissioners finds, by 20575 resolution, that the county has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 20576 that is not needed, or is unfit for public use, and the board 20577 desires to sell the vehicles, equipment, or machinery to the 20578 person or firm from which it proposes to purchase other vehicles, 20579 equipment, or machinery, the board may offer to sell the vehicles, 20580 equipment, or machinery to that person or firm, and to have the 20581 selling price credited to the person or firm against the purchase 20582 price of other vehicles, equipment, or machinery. 20583

(H) If the board of county commissioners advertises for bids for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or machinery to the county, it may include in the same advertisement a notice of the willingness of the board to accept bids for the purchase of county-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery that is obsolete or not needed for public use, and to have the amount of those bids subtracted from the selling price of the other vehicles, equipment, or machinery as a means of determining the lowest responsible bidder.

(I) If a board of county commissioners determines that county personal property is not needed for public use, or is obsolete or unfit for the use for which it was acquired, and that the property has no value, the board may discard or salvage that property.

(J) A county engineer, in the engineer's discretion, may dispose of scrap construction materials on such terms as the engineer determines reasonable, including disposal without recovery of costs, if the total value of the materials does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars. The engineer shall maintain records of all dispositions made under this division, including identification of the origin of the materials, the final disposition, and copies of all receipts resulting from the dispositions.

As used in division (I) of this section, "scrap construction materials" means construction materials that result from a road or bridge improvement, remain after the improvement is completed, and are not reusable. Construction material that is metal and that results from a road or bridge improvement and remains after the improvement is completed is scrap construction material only if it cannot be used in any other road or bridge improvement or other project in its current state.

Sec. 307.676. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Food and beverages" means any raw, cooked, or processed edible substance used or intended for use in whole or in part for human consumption, including ice, water, spirituous liquors, wine, mixed beverages, beer, soft drinks, soda, and other beverages.

(2) "Convention facilities authority" has the same meaning as in section 351.01 of the Revised Code.

(3) "Convention center" has the same meaning as in section 307.695 of the Revised Code.

(B) The legislative authority of a county with a population of one million or more according to the most recent federal decennial census may, by resolution adopted on or before August 30, 2004, by a majority of the members of the legislative authority and with the subsequent approval of a majority of the electors of the county voting upon it, levy a tax of not more than two per cent on every retail sale in the county of food and beverages to be consumed on the premises where sold to pay the expenses of administering the tax and to provide revenues for the county general fund. Such resolution shall direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less than ninety days after the resolution is certified to the board of elections, and such resolution may further direct the board of elections to include upon the ballot submitted to the electors any specific purposes for which the tax will be used. The legislative authority shall establish all regulations necessary to provide for the administration and allocation of the tax. The regulations may prescribe the time for payment of the tax and may provide for imposition of a penalty, interest, or both for late payments, provided that any such penalty may not exceed ten per cent of the amount of tax due and the rate at which interest accrues may not exceed the rate per annum required under section 5703.47 of the

Revised Code. 20647

(C) A tax levied under this section shall remain in effect 20648 for the period of time specified in the resolution or ordinance 20649 levying the tax, but in no case for a longer period than forty 20650 years. 20651

(D) A tax levied under this section is in addition to any 20652 other tax levied under Chapter 307., 4301., 4305., 5739., 5741., 20653 or any other chapter of the Revised Code. "Price," as defined in 20654 sections 5739.01 and 5741.01 of the Revised Code, does not include 20655 any tax levied under this section and any tax levied under this 20656 section does not include any tax imposed under Chapter 5739. or 20657
5741. of the Revised Code. 20658

(E)(1) No amount collected from a tax levied under this 20659 section shall be contributed to a convention facilities authority, 20660 corporation, or other entity created after July 1, 2003, for the 20661 principal purpose of constructing, improving, expanding, 20662 equipping, financing, or operating a convention center unless the 20663 mayor of the municipal corporation in which the convention center 20664 is to be operated by that convention facilities authority, 20665 corporation, or other entity has consented to the creation of that 20666 convention facilities authority, corporation, or entity. 20667 Notwithstanding any contrary provision of section 351.04 of the 20668 Revised Code, if a tax is levied by a county under this section, 20669 the board of county commissioners of that county may determine the 20670 manner of selection, the qualifications, the number, and terms of 20671 office of the members of the board of directors of any convention 20672 facilities authority, corporation, or other entity described in 20673
division (E)(1) of this section. 20674

(2)(a) No amount collected from a tax levied under this 20675 section may be used for any purpose other than paying the direct 20676 and indirect costs of constructing, improving, expanding, 20677 equipping, financing, or operating a convention center and for the 20678 real and actual costs of administering the tax, unless, prior to 20679 the adoption of the resolution of the legislative authority of the 20680 county directing the board of elections to submit the question of 20681 the levy, extension, or increase to the electors of the county, 20682 the county and the mayor of the most populous municipal 20683 corporation in that county have entered into an agreement as to 20684 the use of such amounts, provided that such agreement has been 20685 approved by a majority of the mayors of the other municipal 20686 corporations in that county. The agreement shall provide that the 20687 amounts to be used for purposes other than paying the convention 20688 center or administrative costs described in division (E)(2)(a) of 20689 this section be used only for the direct and indirect costs of 20690 capital improvements in accordance with the agreement, including 20691 the financing of capital improvements. Immediately following the 20692 execution of the agreement, the county shall: 20693

(i) In accordance with section 7.12 of the Revised Code, 20694 cause the agreement to be published ~~at least~~ once in a newspaper 20695 of general circulation in that county; or 20696

(ii) Post the agreement in at least five public places in the 20697 county, as determined by the legislative authority, for a period 20698 not less than fifteen days. 20699

(b) If the county in which the tax is levied has an 20700 association of mayors and city managers, the approval of that 20701 association of an agreement described in division (E)(2)(a) of 20702 this section shall be considered to be the approval of the 20703 majority of the mayors of the other municipal corporations for 20704 purposes of that division. 20705

(F) Each year, the auditor of state shall conduct an audit of 20706 the uses of any amounts collected from taxes levied under this 20707 section and shall prepare a report of the auditor of state's 20708 findings. The auditor of state shall submit the report to the 20709 legislative authority of the county that has levied the tax, the 20710 speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the 20711 senate, and the leaders of the minority parties of the house of 20712 representatives and the senate. 20713

(G) The levy of any taxes under Chapter 5739. of the Revised 20714 Code on the same transactions subject to a tax under this section 20715 does not prevent the levy of a tax under this section. 20716

Sec. 307.70. In any county electing a county charter 20717 commission, the board of county commissioners shall appropriate 20718 money for the expenses of such commission in the preparation of a 20719 county charter, or charter amendment, and the study of problems 20720 involved. No appropriation shall be made for the compensation of 20721 members of the commission for their services. The board shall 20722 appropriate money for the printing and mailing or otherwise 20723 distributing to each elector in the county, as far as may be 20724 reasonably possible, a copy of a charter submitted to the electors 20725 of the county by a charter commission or by the board pursuant to 20726 petition as provided by Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. 20727
The copy of the charter shall be mailed or otherwise distributed 20728 at least thirty days prior to the election. The board shall 20729 appropriate money for the printing and distribution or publication 20730 of proposed amendments to a charter submitted by a charter 20731 commission pursuant to Section 4 of Article X, Ohio Constitution. 20732 Notice of amendments to a county charter shall be given by mailing 20733 or otherwise distributing a copy of each proposed amendment to 20734 each elector in the county, as far as may be reasonably possible, 20735 at least thirty days prior to the election or, if the board so 20736 determines, by publishing the full text of the proposed amendments 20737 once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper 20738 ~~published in the county. If no newspaper is published in the~~ 20739 ~~county or the board is unable to obtain publication in a newspaper~~ 20740
~~published in the county, the proposed amendments may be published~~ 20741
~~in a newspaper~~ of general circulation within the county, or as 20742 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. No public officer is 20743 precluded, because of being a public officer, from also holding 20744 office as a member of a county charter commission, except that not 20745 more than four officeholders may be elected to a county charter 20746 commission at the same time. No member of a county charter 20747 commission, because of charter commission membership, is precluded 20748 from seeking or holding other public office. 20749

Sec. 307.79. (A) The board of county commissioners may adopt, 20750 amend, and rescind rules establishing technically feasible and 20751 economically reasonable standards to achieve a level of management 20752 and conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion 20753 of the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 20754 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 20755 filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 20756 developed for nonfarm commercial, industrial, residential, or 20757 other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for determination 20758 of the acceptability of those management and conservation 20759 practices. The rules shall be designed to implement the applicable 20760 areawide waste treatment management plan prepared under section 20761 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 Stat. 816 20762 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement phase II of 20763 the storm water program of the national pollutant discharge 20764 elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules to 20765 implement phase II of the storm water program of the national 20766 pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be inconsistent 20767 with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than the rules or 20768 regulations adopted by the environmental protection agency under 20769 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this section shall not 20770 apply inside the limits of municipal corporations or the limits of 20771 townships with a limited home rule government that have adopted 20772 rules under section 504.21 of the Revised Code, to lands being 20773 used in a strip mine operation as defined in section 1513.01 of 20774 the Revised Code, or to land being used in a surface mine 20775 operation as defined in section 1514.01 of the Revised Code. 20776 20777

The rules adopted under this section may require persons to 20778 file plans governing erosion control, sediment control, and water 20779 management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 20780 otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 20781 acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 20782 unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 20783
utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 20784 the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 20785
following: 20786

(1) Designate the board itself, its employees, or another 20787 agency or official to review and approve or disapprove the plans; 20788

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and 20789 approval or disapproval of the plans; 20790

(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a 20791 person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other 20792 project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a 20793 person whose plans have been disapproved; 20794

(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits; 20795

(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the 20796 denial of a permit. 20797

Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt 20798 from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules 20799 adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section 20800 may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit 20801 processing, and field inspections. 20802

No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, 20803 transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project 20804 undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in 20805 accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control 20806 policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the 20807 division of soil and water resources in the department of natural 20808 resources. 20809

(B) Rules or amendments may be adopted under this section 20810 only after public hearings at not fewer than two regular sessions 20811 of the board. The board of county commissioners shall cause to be 20812 published, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, 20813 notice of the public hearings, including time, date, and place, 20814 once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the hearings, or 20815 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The proposed 20816 rules or amendments shall be made available by the board to the 20817 public at the board office or other location indicated in the 20818 notice. The rules or amendments shall take effect on the 20819 thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 20820

(C) The board of county commissioners may employ personnel to 20821 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 20822 under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 20823 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 20824 management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 20825 with one or more political subdivisions, other county officials, 20826 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 20827 obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 20828 sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 20829
for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 20830

(D) The board of county commissioners or any duly authorized 20831 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 20832 or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 20833
the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 20834 whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 20835 section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 20836 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 20837 may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 20838 county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 20839 inspection warrant as necessary to achieve the purposes of this 20840

chapter. 20841

(E)(1) If the board of county commissioners or its duly 20842 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 20843 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 20844 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 20845 obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 20846 and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 20847 activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 20848 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 20849 violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 20850 representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 20851 violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 20852 elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 20853 violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 20854 representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 20855 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 20856 not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 20857
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 20858 or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 20859
after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 20860 attorney of the county if, in the opinion of the prosecuting 20861 attorney, the violation is egregious. 20862

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 20863 authorize representative shall request, in writing, the 20864 prosecuting attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other 20865 appropriate relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive 20866 erosion or sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules 20867 adopted under this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an 20868 injunction or other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, 20869 the court of common pleas may order the construction of sediment 20870 control improvements or implementation of other control measures 20871 and may assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more 20872 than five hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop 20873 work order issued under this section shall be considered a 20874 separate violation subject to a civil fine. 20875

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this 20876 section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the 20877 county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other 20878 appropriate relief from that order. 20879

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section 20880 against any public highway, transportation, or drainage 20881 improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government 20882 agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of 20883
its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the 20884 board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in 20885
the department of natural resources. 20886

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 20887 under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 20888 if the board of county commissioners determines that a violation 20889 of any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this 20890 section exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 20891 attorney of the county to seek an injunction or other appropriate 20892 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 20893 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules or order. In 20894 granting relief, the court of common pleas may order the 20895 construction of sediment control improvements or implementation of 20896 other control measures and may assess a civil fine of not less 20897 than one hundred or more than five hundred dollars. Each day of 20898 violation of a rule adopted or administrative order issued under 20899 this section shall be considered a separate violation subject to a 20900 civil fine. 20901

Sec. 307.791. The question of repeal of a county sediment 20902 control rule adopted under section 307.79 of the Revised Code may 20903 be initiated by filing with the board of elections of the county 20904 not less than ninety days before the general or primary election 20905 in any year a petition requesting that an election be held on such 20906 question. Such petition shall be signed by qualified electors 20907 residing in the county equal in number to ten per cent of those 20908 voting for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election in 20909 the county. 20910

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the 20911 board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 20912 the county at the next general or primary election. The election 20913 shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as 20914 regular elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the 20915 election shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation 20916 in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 20917 election ~~and, if or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised~~ 20918 Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 20919 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 20920 thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 20921 purpose, time, and place of the election and ~~the complete text a~~ 20922 succinct summary of each rule sought to be repealed. The form of 20923 the ballot cast at such election shall be prescribed by the 20924 secretary of state. The question covered by such petition shall be 20925 submitted as a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the 20926 same ballot with any other proposition submitted at the same 20927 election other than the election of officers. If a majority of the 20928 qualified electors voting on the question of repeal approve the 20929 repeal, the result of the election shall be certified immediately 20930 after the canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 20931 commissioners, who shall thereupon rescind the rule. 20932

Sec. 307.80. The board of county commissioners of any county 20933 may, by resolution, establish a county microfilming board. The 20934 county microfilming board shall consist of the county treasurer or 20935 ~~his~~ the treasurer's representative, the county auditor or ~~his~~ the 20936 auditor's representative, the clerk of the court of common pleas 20937 or ~~his~~ the clerk's representative, a member or representative of 20938 the board of county commissioners chosen by the board of county 20939 commissioners, and the county recorder or ~~his~~ the recorder's 20940 representative who shall serve as secretary. 20941

After the initial meeting of the county microfilming board, 20942 no county office shall purchase, lease, operate, or contract for 20943 the use of any microfilming or other image processing equipment, 20944 software, or services without prior approval of the board. 20945

As used in sections 307.80 to 307.806 of the Revised Code, 20946
"county office" means any officer, department, board, commission, 20947 agency, court, or other office of the county and the court of 20948 common pleas. The county hospital shall not be considered a 20949 "county office" when the county hospital uses microfilming to 20950 record and store for future access physical and psychiatric 20951 examinations or treatment records of its patients. The county 20952 hospital shall participate, at the request of the county 20953 microfilming board, in purchasing film and equipment and in 20954 entering into contracts for services for microfilming. 20955

Sec. 307.801. Within ninety days after a county microfilming 20956 board has been established, it shall hold its initial meeting at 20957 such time as the secretary of the board determines. Thereafter, 20958 the board shall meet annually on the ~~third~~ second Monday in 20959 January and at such other times and places as the secretary 20960 determines. The secretary shall, within five days after receiving 20961 a written request from any other member of the board, call the 20962 board together for a meeting. A majority of the board constitutes 20963 a quorum at any regular or special meeting. 20964

The board may, by unanimous consent, adopt such rules as it 20965 considers necessary for its operation, but no rule of the board 20966 shall derogate the authority or responsibility of any elected 20967 official. 20968

Sec. 307.802. The county microfilming board shall coordinate 20969 the use of all microfilming or image processing equipment, 20970 software, or services in use throughout the county offices at the 20971 time the board is established. 20972

The board may, in writing, authorize any county office to 20973 contract for microfilming or image processing services, or operate 20974 or acquire microfilming or image processing equipment or software, 20975 where the board determines such action is desirable. The 20976 authorization shall be signed by a majority of the members of the 20977 board and shall be filed in the office of the board of county 20978 commissioners. 20979

The county microfilming board may establish a microfilming 20980 center which shall provide a centralized system for the use of 20981 microfilming or image processing equipment, software, or services 20982 for all county offices. 20983

Sec. 307.803. The board of county commissioners may purchase, 20984 lease, or otherwise acquire any microfilming or image processing 20985 equipment, software, or services that the board determines is 20986 necessary, or that the county microfilming board or county board 20987 of information services and records management authorizes, from 20988 funds budgeted and appropriated by the board of county 20989 commissioners for such purposes. 20990

Sec. 307.806. The county microfilming board may enter into a 20991 contract with the legislative authorities of any municipal 20992 corporation, township, port authority, water or sewer district, 20993 school district, library district, county law library association, 20994 health district, park district, soil and water conservation 20995 district, conservancy district, other taxing district, regional 20996 council established pursuant to Chapter 167. of the Revised Code, 20997 or otherwise, county land reutilization corporation organized 20998 under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code, or with the board of 20999 county commissioners or the microfilming board of any other 21000 county, or with any other federal or state governmental agency, 21001 and such authorities may enter into contracts with the county 21002 microfilming board, to provide microfilming or image processing 21003 services to any of them. The board shall establish a schedule of 21004 charges upon which the cost of providing such services shall be 21005 based. All moneys collected by the board for services rendered 21006 pursuant to contracts entered into under this section shall be 21007 deposited in the county general fund; however, such moneys may be 21008 segregated into a special fund in the county treasury until the 21009 end of the calendar year. County offices may also be charged for 21010 such services and the appropriation so charged and the 21011 appropriation of the board so credited. 21012

Sec. 307.81. (A) Where lands have been dedicated to or for 21013 the use of the public for parks or park lands, and where such 21014 lands have remained unimproved and unused by the public and there 21015 appears to be little or no possibility that such lands will be 21016 improved and used by the public, the board of county commissioners 21017 of the county in which the lands are located may, by resolution, 21018 declare such parks or park lands vacated upon the petition of a 21019 majority of the abutting freeholders. No such parks or park lands 21020 shall be vacated unless notice of the pendency and prayer of the 21021 petition is given in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21022 county in which such lands are situated for three consecutive 21023 weeks preceding action on such petition or as provided in section 21024

7.16 of the Revised Code. No such lands shall be vacated prior to 21025 a public hearing had thereon. 21026

(B) Before the board of county commissioners may act on a 21027 petition to vacate unimproved and unused parks or park lands under 21028 division (A) of this section, the board shall offer such parks or 21029 park lands to all political subdivisions described in division (C) 21030 of this section. The board shall give notice to those political 21031 subdivisions by first class mail that the parks or park lands may 21032 be declared vacated unless the board of county commissioners 21033 accepts an offer from another political subdivision to buy or 21034 lease the lands. The failure of delivery of any such notice does 21035 not invalidate any proceedings for the disposition of parks or 21036 park lands under this division. Any such political subdivision 21037 that wishes to buy or lease the parks or park lands shall make an 21038 offer for the lands to the board in writing not later than ninety 21039 days after receiving the notice. The board may reject any offer, 21040 except that if it receives an offer in which the political 21041 subdivision agrees to use the lands for park purposes and in which 21042 the board finds all of the other terms acceptable, the board shall 21043 accept that offer. No offer shall be accepted until notice of the 21044 offer is published for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of 21045 general circulation in the county in which the lands are situated 21046 or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and a public 21047 hearing is held. Proceeds from the sale or lease of the lands 21048 shall be placed in the general fund of the county and be disbursed 21049 as prescribed in section 307.82 of the Revised Code. Any deed 21050 conveying the lands shall be executed as provided in that section. 21051

(C) In order to receive a notice or to make an offer 21052 regarding parks or park lands under division (B) of this section, 21053 a political subdivision must meet both of the following 21054 conditions: 21055

(1) Have the authority to acquire, develop, and maintain 21056 public parks or recreation areas; 21057

(2) Contain the parks or park lands in question within its 21058 boundaries, or adjoin a political subdivision that contains those 21059 parks or park lands within its boundaries. 21060

Sec. 307.82. Upon the vacation of parks or park lands, the 21061 board of county commissioners shall offer such lands for sale at a 21062 public auction at the courthouse of the county in which such lands 21063 are situated. No lands shall be sold until the board gives notice 21064 of intention to sell such lands. Such notice shall be published 21065 once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 21066 circulation in the county in which sale is to be had or as 21067 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The board shall sell 21068 such lands to the highest and best bidder, provided, the board may 21069 reject any and all bids made hereunder. 21070

When such sale is made, the auditor of the county in which 21071 sale is had and in which such lands are located, shall enter into 21072 a deed, conveying said lands to the purchaser thereof. At the time 21073 of sale, the auditor shall place the lands sold hereunder on the 21074 tax duplicate of the county at a value to be established by ~~him~~ 21075 the auditor as in cases where ~~he~~ the auditor re-enters property 21076 which has been tax exempt on the taxable list of the county. 21077

The proceeds from the sale of lands sold pursuant to this 21078 section shall be placed in the general fund of the county in which 21079 such lands are located and may be disbursed as other general fund 21080 moneys. 21081

Sec. 307.83. When real estate which has been dedicated to or 21082 for the use of the public for parks or park lands is vacated by 21083 the board of county commissioners pursuant to division (A) of 21084 section 307.81 of the Revised Code or is to be sold or leased for 21085 nonpark use under division (B) of that section, and where 21086 reversionary interests have been set up in the event of the 21087 non-use of such lands for the dedicated purpose, such reversionary 21088 interests shall accelerate and vest in the holders thereof upon 21089 such vacation, or prior to the acceptance of an offer to buy or 21090 lease the land. Thereupon the auditor of the county shall place 21091 the lands on the tax duplicate of the county in the names of such 21092 reversioners as are known to the board of county commissioners. If 21093 the board is unable to establish the names of such reversioners, 21094 it shall fix a date on or before which claims to such real estate 21095 may be asserted and after which such real estate shall be sold or 21096 leased. The board shall give notice of such date and of the sale 21097 or lease to be held thereafter, once each week for four 21098 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the 21099 county wherein such lands are located or as provided in section 21100 7.16 of the Revised Code. In the event that no claims to such 21101 lands are asserted or found to be valid, the lands shall be sold 21102 pursuant to section 307.82 of the Revised Code in the case of a 21103 vacation of the lands pursuant to division (A) of section 307.81 21104 of the Revised Code, or be sold or leased pursuant to division (B) 21105 of section 307.81 of the Revised Code if an agreement with a 21106 political subdivision is entered into under that division, and the 21107 title of any holders of reversionary interests shall be 21108 extinguished. 21109

Sec. 307.84. The board of county commissioners of any county 21110 may, by resolution, establish a county automatic data processing 21111 board. The board shall consist of the county treasurer or the 21112 county treasurer's representative, the county recorder or the 21113 county recorder's representative, the clerk of the court of common 21114 pleas or the clerk's representative, a member or representative of 21115 the board of county commissioners chosen by the board, two members 21116 or representatives of the board of elections chosen by the board 21117 of elections one of whom shall be a member of the political party 21118 receiving the greatest number of votes at the most recent general 21119 election for the office of governor and one of whom shall be a 21120 member of the political party receiving the second greatest number 21121 of votes at such an election, if the board of elections desires to 21122 participate, and the county auditor or the county auditor's 21123 representative who shall serve as secretary. The members of the 21124 county automatic data processing board may by majority vote add to 21125 the board any additional members whose officers use the facilities 21126 of the board. 21127

After the initial meeting of the county automatic data 21128 processing board, no county office shall purchase, lease, operate, 21129 or contract for the use of any automatic or electronic data 21130 processing or record-keeping equipment, software, or services 21131 without prior approval of the board. 21132

As used in sections 307.84 to 307.846 of the Revised Code, 21133
"county office" means any officer, department, board, commission, 21134 agency, court, or other office of the county, other than a board 21135 of county hospital trustees. 21136

Sec. 307.842. The county automatic data processing board 21137 shall coordinate the use of all automatic or electronic data 21138 processing or record-keeping equipment, software, or services in 21139 use throughout the county offices at the time the board is 21140 established. 21141

The board may, in writing, authorize any county office to 21142 contract for automatic or electronic data processing or 21143 record-keeping services, or operate or acquire automatic or 21144 electronic data processing or record-keeping equipment, where the 21145 board determines such action is desirable. The authorization shall 21146 be signed by a majority of the members of the board and shall be 21147 filed in the office of the board of county commissioners. 21148

The county automatic data processing board may establish an 21149 automatic data processing center which shall provide a centralized 21150 system for the use of automatic or electronic data processing or 21151 record-keeping equipment, software, or services for all county 21152 offices. 21153

Sec. 307.843. The board of county commissioners may purchase, 21154 lease, or otherwise acquire any automatic or electronic data 21155 processing or record-keeping equipment, software, or services that 21156 the board determines is necessary, or that the county automatic 21157 data processing board or county board of information services and 21158 records management recommends, from funds budgeted and 21159 appropriated by the board of county commissioners for such 21160
purposes. 21161

Sec. 307.846. The county automatic data processing board may 21162 enter into a contract with the legislative authorities of any 21163 municipal corporation, township, port authority, water or sewer 21164 district, school district, library district, county law library 21165 association, health district, park district, soil and water 21166 conservation district, conservancy district, other taxing 21167 district, regional council established pursuant to Chapter 167. of 21168 the Revised Code, county land reutilization corporation organized 21169 under Chapter 1724. of the Revised Code, or otherwise or with the 21170 board of county commissioners or the automatic data processing 21171 board of any other county, or with any other federal or state 21172 governmental agency, and such authorities or entities may enter 21173 into contracts with the county automatic data processing board, to 21174 provide automatic or electronic data processing or record-keeping 21175 services to any of them. The board shall establish a schedule of 21176 charges upon which the cost of providing such services shall be 21177
based. All moneys collected by the board for services rendered 21178
pursuant to contracts entered into under this section shall be 21179
deposited in the county general fund; however, such moneys may be 21180

segregated into a special fund in the county treasury until the 21181
end of the calendar year. County offices may also be charged for 21182
such services and the appropriation so charged and the 21183
appropriation of the board so credited. 21184

Sec. 307.847. (A) In lieu of having a county records 21185 commission and a county microfilming board, a board of county 21186 commissioners may, by resolution, require the county automatic 21187 data processing board established under section 307.84 of the 21188 Revised Code to coordinate the management of information resources 21189 of the county, the records and information management operations 21190 of all county offices, and the various records and information 21191 technologies acquired and operated by county offices. The 21192 resolution requiring the board to assume these duties shall 21193 specify the date on which the county records commission and the 21194 county microfilming board no longer exist. If the duties of the 21195 county automatic data processing board are expanded under this 21196 section, the prosecuting attorney, county engineer, county 21197 coroner, sheriff, and a judge of the court of common pleas 21198 selected by a majority vote of all judges of the court shall be 21199 added to the membership of the board. Any of these additional 21200 members may designate a representative to serve on that member's 21201 behalf. 21202

After a resolution is adopted under this section, no county 21203 office shall purchase, lease, operate, or contract for the use of 21204 any automatic data processing equipment, software, or services; 21205 microfilming equipment or services; records center or archives 21206 facilities; or any other image processing or electronic data 21207 processing or record-keeping equipment, software, or services 21208 without prior approval of the board. The board may adopt such 21209 rules as it considers necessary for its operation, but no rule 21210 shall derogate the authority or responsibility of any county 21211 elected official. The board's rules may include any regulations or 21212 standards the board wishes to impose. For purposes of this 21213 section, "county office" means any officer, department, board, 21214 commission, agency, court, or other office of the county and the 21215 court of common pleas, except that in the case of microfilming 21216 equipment, "county office" does not include the county hospital 21217 when the county hospital uses microfilming to record and store for 21218 future access physical and psychiatric examinations or treatment 21219 records of its patients. The county hospital shall participate, at 21220 the request of the county automatic data processing board, in 21221 purchasing film and equipment and in entering into contracts for 21222 services for microfilming. 21223

(B) In the resolution expanding the duties of the county 21224 automatic data processing board adopted under this section, the 21225 board of county commissioners shall designate the date on which 21226 all equipment, records, files, effects, and other personal 21227 property; contractual obligations; and assets and liabilities of 21228 the county records commission and the county microfilming board 21229 shall be transferred to the county automatic data processing 21230

(a) The taxes charged and payable in tax year 1981 against 22085 the property in that class for the current expenses of the joint 22086 vocational school district of which the school district is a part 22087 after making all reductions under this section; 22088

(b) The following percentage of the taxable value of all real 22089 property in that class:	22090

(i) In 1987, five one-hundredths of one per cent;	22091
(ii) In 1988, one-tenth of one per cent;	22092
(iii) In 1989, fifteen one-hundredths of one per cent;	22093
(iv) In 1990 and each subsequent year, two-tenths of one per cent.	22094 22095
If the amount in division (E)(1)(b) of this section exceeds the amount in division (E)(1)(a) of this section, the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes shall be zero.	22096 22097 22098
As used in divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section, "taxes charged and payable" has the same meaning as in division (B)(4) of this section and excludes any tax charged and payable in 1985 or thereafter under sections 5705.194 to 5705.197 or section 5705.199, 5705.213, or 5705.219 , or 5748.09 of the Revised Code.	22099 22100 22101 22102 22103
(2) If in the case of a school district other than a joint vocational or cooperative education school district any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this section for either class of property could cause the total taxes charged and payable for current expenses to be less than two per cent of the taxable value of all real property in that class that is subject to taxation by the district, the commissioner shall determine what percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and payable for current expenses against that class, after all reductions that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal, when combined with the pre-1982 joint vocational taxes against that class, the lesser of the following:	22104 22105 22106 22107 22108 22109 22110 22111 22112 22113 22114 22115
(a) The sum of the rates at which those taxes are authorized to be levied;	22116 22117
(b) Two per cent of the taxable value of the property in that class. The auditor shall use such percentages in making the	22118 22119 reduction required by this section for that class. 22120

(3)(a) If in the case of a joint vocational school district 22121 any percentage required to be used in division (D)(2) of this 22122 section for either class of property could cause the total taxes 22123 charged and payable for current expenses for that class to be less 22124 than the designated amount, the commissioner shall determine what 22125 percentages would cause the district's total taxes charged and 22126 payable for current expenses for that class, after all reductions 22127 that would otherwise be made under this section, to equal the 22128 designated amount. The auditor shall use such percentages in 22129 making the reductions required by this section for that class. 22130

(b) As used in division (E)(3)(a) of this section, the 22131 designated amount shall equal the taxable value of all real 22132 property in the class that is subject to taxation by the district 22133 times the lesser of the following: 22134

(i) Two-tenths of one per cent; 22135

(ii) The district's effective rate plus the following 22136 percentage for the year indicated: 22137

WHEN COMPUTING THE	ADD THE FOLLOWING
TAXES CHARGED FOR	PERCENTAGE:
1987	0.025%	22140
1988	0.05%	22141
1989	0.075%	22142
1990	0.1%	22143
1991	0.125%	22144
1992	0.15%	22145
1993	0.175%	22146
1994 and thereafter	0.2%	22147

(F) No reduction shall be made under this section in the rate 22148 at which any tax is levied. 22149

(G) The commissioner may order a county auditor to furnish 22150 any information the commissioner needs to make the determinations 22151 required under division (D) or (E) of this section, and the 22152 auditor shall supply the information in the form and by the date 22153 specified in the order. If the auditor fails to comply with an 22154 order issued under this division, except for good cause as 22155 determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall withhold 22156 from such county or taxing district therein fifty per cent of 22157 state revenues to local governments pursuant to section 5747.50 of 22158 the Revised Code or shall direct the department of education to 22159 withhold therefrom fifty per cent of state revenues to school 22160 districts pursuant to ~~Chapters 3306.~~ and Chapter 3317. of the 22161 Revised Code. The commissioner shall withhold the distribution of 22162 such revenues until the county auditor has complied with this 22163 division, and the department shall withhold the distribution of 22164 such revenues until the commissioner has notified the department 22165 that the county auditor has complied with this division. 22166

(H) If the commissioner is unable to certify a tax reduction 22167 factor for either class of property in a taxing district located 22168 in more than one county by the last day of November because 22169 information required under division (G) of this section is 22170 unavailable, the commissioner may compute and certify an estimated 22171 tax reduction factor for that district for that class. The 22172 estimated factor shall be based upon an estimate of the 22173 unavailable information. Upon receipt of the actual information 22174 for a taxing district that received an estimated tax reduction 22175 factor, the commissioner shall compute the actual tax reduction 22176 factor and use that factor to compute the taxes that should have 22177 been charged and payable against each parcel of property for the 22178 year for which the estimated reduction factor was used. The amount 22179 by which the estimated factor resulted in an overpayment or 22180 underpayment in taxes on any parcel shall be added to or 22181 subtracted from the amount due on that parcel in the ensuing tax 22182 year. 22183

A percentage or a tax reduction factor determined or computed 22184 by the commissioner under this section shall be used solely for 22185 the purpose of reducing the sums to be levied by the tax to which 22186 it applies for the year for which it was determined or computed. 22187 It shall not be used in making any tax computations for any 22188 ensuing tax year. 22189

(I) In making the determinations under division (D)(1) of 22190 this section, the tax commissioner shall take account of changes 22191 in the taxable value of carryover property resulting from 22192 complaints filed under section 5715.19 of the Revised Code for 22193 determinations made for the tax year in which such changes are 22194 reported to the commissioner. Such changes shall be reported to 22195 the commissioner on the first abstract of real property filed with 22196 the commissioner under section 5715.23 of the Revised Code 22197 following the date on which the complaint is finally determined by 22198 the board of revision or by a court or other authority with 22199 jurisdiction on appeal. The tax commissioner shall account for 22200 such changes in making the determinations only for the tax year in 22201 which the change in valuation is reported. Such a valuation change 22202 shall not be used to recompute the percentages determined under 22203 division (D)(1) of this section for any prior tax year. 22204

Sec. 319.54. (A) On all moneys collected by the county 22205 treasurer on any tax duplicate of the county, other than estate 22206 tax duplicates, and on all moneys received as advance payments of 22207 personal property and classified property taxes, the county 22208 auditor, on settlement with the treasurer and tax commissioner, on 22209 or before the date prescribed by law for such settlement or any 22210 lawful extension of such date, shall be allowed as compensation 22211 for the county auditor's services the following percentages: 22212

(1) On the first one hundred thousand dollars, two and 22213 one-half per cent; 22214

(2) On the next two million dollars, eight thousand three hundred eighteen ten-thousandths of one per cent;

(3) On the next two million dollars, six thousand six hundred fifty-five ten-thousandths of one per cent;

(4) On all further sums, one thousand six hundred sixty-three ten-thousandths of one per cent.

If any settlement is not made on or before the date prescribed by law for such settlement or any lawful extension of such date, the aggregate compensation allowed to the auditor shall be reduced one per cent for each day such settlement is delayed after the prescribed date. No penalty shall apply if the auditor and treasurer grant all requests for advances up to ninety per cent of the settlement pursuant to section 321.34 of the Revised Code. The compensation allowed in accordance with this section on settlements made before the dates prescribed by law, or the reduced compensation allowed in accordance with this section on settlements made after the date prescribed by law or any lawful extension of such date, shall be apportioned ratably by the auditor and deducted from the shares or portions of the revenue payable to the state as well as to the county, townships, municipal corporations, and school districts.

(B) For the purpose of reimbursing county auditors for the expenses associated with the increased number of applications for reductions in real property taxes under sections 323.152 and 4503.065 of the Revised Code that result from the amendment of those sections by Am. Sub. H.B. 119 of the 127th general assembly, there shall be paid from the state's general revenue fund to the county treasury, to the credit of the real estate assessment fund created by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount equal to one per cent of the total annual amount of property tax relief reimbursement paid to that county under sections 323.156 and 4503.068 of the Revised Code for the preceding tax year. Payments made under this division shall be made at the same times and in 22247 the same manner as payments made under section 323.156 of the 22248

Revised Code. 22249

(C) From all moneys collected by the county treasurer on any 22250 tax duplicate of the county, other than estate tax duplicates, and 22251 and classified property taxes, there shall be paid into the county 22253 treasury to the credit of the real estate assessment fund created 22254 by section 325.31 of the Revised Code, an amount to be determined 22255 by the county auditor, which shall not exceed the percentages 22256 prescribed in divisions (C)(1) and (2) of this section. 22257

(1) For payments made after June 30, 2007, and before 2011, 22258 the following percentages: 22259

(a) On the first five hundred thousand dollars, four per 22260 cent; 22261

(b) On the next five million dollars, two per cent; 22262

(c) On the next five million dollars, one per cent; 22263

(d) On all further sums not exceeding one hundred fifty 22264 million dollars, three-quarters of one per cent; 22265

(e) On amounts exceeding one hundred fifty million dollars, 22266 five hundred eighty-five thousandths of one per cent. 22267

(2) For payments made in or after 2011, the following 22268 the state as well as to the county, townships, municipal 22277 corporations, and school districts. 22278

(D) Each county auditor shall receive four per cent of the 22279 amount of tax collected and paid into the county treasury, on 22280 property omitted and placed by the county auditor on the tax 22281 duplicate. 22282

(E) On all estate tax moneys collected by the county 22283 treasurer, the county auditor, on settlement semiannually with the 22284 tax commissioner, shall be allowed, as compensation for the 22285 auditor's services under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code, the 22286 following percentages: 22287

(1) Four per cent on the first one hundred thousand dollars; 22288

(2) One-half of one per cent on all additional sums. 22289

Such percentages shall be computed upon the amount collected 22290 and reported at each semiannual settlement, and shall be for the 22291 use of the general fund of the county. 22292 treasurer and the prosecuting attorney each shall submit a report 22508 to the board of county commissioners regarding the use of the 22509 moneys appropriated ~~to~~ from their respective ~~offices from the~~ 22510 delinquent tax and assessment collection ~~fund~~ funds. Each report 22511 shall specify the amount appropriated ~~to the office~~ from the fund 22512 during the current calendar year, an estimate of the amount so 22513 appropriated that will be expended by the end of the year, a 22514 summary of how the amount appropriated has been expended in 22515 connection with delinquent tax collection activities or land 22516 reutilization, and an estimate of the amount that will be credited 22517 to the fund during the ensuing calendar year. 22518

The annual report of a county land reutilization corporation 22519 required by section 1724.05 of the Revised Code shall include 22520 information regarding the amount and use of the moneys that the 22521 corporation received from the treasurer's delinquent tax and 22522 assessment collection fund ~~of the county.~~ 22523

(D)(1) In any county, if the county treasurer or prosecuting attorney determines that the ~~amount appropriated to the office~~ 22524
~~from the county's balance to the credit of that officer's~~ 22525 ~~corresponding~~ delinquent tax and assessment collection fund ~~under~~ 22526 ~~division (A) of this section~~ exceeds the amount required to be 22527 used as prescribed by ~~that~~ division (A) of this section, the 22528 county treasurer or prosecuting attorney may expend the excess to 22529 prevent residential mortgage foreclosures in the county and to 22530 address problems associated with other foreclosed real property. 22531
The amount used for that purpose in any year may not exceed the 22532 amount that would cause the fund to have a reserve of less than 22533 twenty per cent of the amount expended in the preceding year for 22534 the purposes of division (A) of this section. The county treasurer 22535 or prosecuting attorney may not expend any money from the 22536 officer's fund for the purpose of land reutilization unless the 22537 county treasurer or prosecuting attorney obtains the approval of 22538 the county investment advisory committee established under section 22539
22541

Money authorized to be expended under division (D)(1) of this 22542 section shall be used to provide financial assistance in the form 22543 of loans to borrowers in default on their home mortgages, 22544 including for the payment of late fees, to clear arrearage 22545 balances, and to augment moneys used in the county's foreclosure 22546 prevention program. The money also may be used to assist municipal 22547 corporations or townships in the county, upon their application to 22548 the county treasurer, prosecuting attorney, or the county 22549 department of development, in the nuisance abatement of 22550 deteriorated residential buildings in foreclosure, or vacant, 22551 abandoned, tax-delinquent, or blighted real property, including 22552 paying the costs of boarding up such buildings, lot maintenance, 22553 and demolition. 22554

otherwise conveyed by the deed. The tax shall be levied pursuant 22587 to a resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners of 22588 the county and, except as provided in division (A) of section 22589 322.07 of the Revised Code, shall be levied at a uniform rate upon 22590 all deeds as defined in division (D) of section 322.01 of the 22591 Revised Code. Prior to the adoption of any such resolution, the 22592 board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings 22593 thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more 22594 than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place 22595 of the hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of 22596 general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of 22597 the week for two consecutive weeks, ~~the~~ or as provided in section 22598 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second publication being shall be 22599 not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first 22600 hearing. The tax shall be levied upon the grantor named in the 22601 deed and shall be paid by the grantor for the use of the county to 22602 the county auditor at the time of the delivery of the deed as 22603 provided in section 319.202 of the Revised Code and prior to the 22604 presentation of the deed to the recorder of the county for 22605 recording. 22606

(B) No resolution levying a real property transfer tax 22607 pursuant to this section or a manufactured home transfer tax 22608 pursuant to section 322.06 of the Revised Code shall be effective 22609 sooner than thirty days following its adoption. Such a resolution 22610 is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 22611 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless the resolution is adopted as an 22612 emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the 22613 public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into 22614 immediate effect. An emergency measure must receive an affirmative 22615 vote of all of the members of the board of commissioners, and 22616 shall state the reasons for the necessity. A resolution may direct 22617 the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax 22618 to the electors of the county at the next primary or general 22619 election in the county occurring not less than ninety days after 22620 the resolution is certified to the board. No such resolution shall 22621 go into effect unless approved by a majority of those voting upon 22622

it. 22623

Sec. 322.021. The question of a repeal of a county permissive 22624 tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to division (B) of 22625 section 322.02 of the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with 22626 the board of elections of the county not less than ninety days 22627 before the general election in any year a petition requesting that 22628 an election be held on such question. Such petition shall be 22629 signed by qualified electors residing in the county equal in 22630 number to ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most 22631 recent gubernatorial election. 22632

board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 22634
the county at the next general election. The election shall be 22635 conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular 22636 elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election 22637 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 22638 district once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 22639
election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 22640
Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 22641 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 22642
thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 22643 purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot 22644 cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of 22645 state. The question covered by such petition shall be submitted as 22646 a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 22647 with any other proposition submitted at the same election other 22648 than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified 22649 electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the 22650 result of the election shall be certified immediately after the 22651

canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 22652
commissioners, who shall thereupon, after the current year, cease 22653
to levy the tax. 22654

Sec. 323.08. After certifying the tax list and duplicate 22655 pursuant to section 319.28 of the Revised Code, the county auditor 22656 shall deliver a list of the tax rates, tax reduction factors, and 22657 effective tax rates assessed and applied against each of the two 22658 classes of property of the county to the county treasurer, who 22659 shall immediately cause a schedule of such tax rates and effective 22660 rates to be published in a newspaper of ~~the type described in~~ 22661 ~~section 5721.01 of the Revised Code having~~ general circulation in 22662 the county or, in lieu of such publication, the county treasurer 22663 may insert a copy of such schedule with each tax bill mailed. Such 22664 schedule shall specify particularly the rates and effective rates 22665 of taxation levied for all purposes on the tax list and duplicate 22666 for the support of the various taxing units within the county, 22667 expressed in dollars and cents for each one thousand dollars of 22668 valuation. The effective tax rates shall be printed in boldface 22669 type. 22670

The county treasurer shall publish notice of the date of the 22671 last date for payment of each installment of taxes once a week for 22672 two successive weeks prior to such date in ~~two newspapers a~~ 22673 newspaper of general circulation within the county or as provided 22674 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. ~~If only one such newspaper~~ 22675 ~~exists, the notice shall be published in it.~~ The notice shall be 22676 inserted in a conspicuous place in ~~each~~ the newspaper and shall 22677 also contain notice that any taxes paid after such date will 22678 accrue a penalty and interest and that failure to receive a tax 22679 bill will not avoid such penalty and interest. The notice shall 22680 contain a telephone number that may be called by taxpayers who 22681 have not received tax bills. 22682

As used in this section and section 323.131 of the Revised Code, "effective tax rate" means the effective rate after making the reduction required by section 319.301, but before making the reduction required by section 319.302 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 323.73. (A) Except as provided in division (G) of this section or section 323.78 of the Revised Code, a parcel of abandoned land that is to be disposed of under this section shall be disposed of at a public auction scheduled and conducted as described in this section. At least twenty-one days prior to the date of the public auction, the clerk of court or sheriff of the county shall advertise the public auction in a newspaper of general circulation that meets the requirements of section 7.12 of the Revised Code in the county in which the land is located. The advertisement shall include the date, time, and place of the auction, the permanent parcel number of the land if a permanent parcel number system is in effect in the county as provided in section 319.28 of the Revised Code or, if a permanent parcel number system is not in effect, any other means of identifying the parcel, and a notice stating that the abandoned land is to be sold subject to the terms of sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code.

sheriff or designee may reject any and all bids not meeting the 22715 minimum bid requirements specified in this division. 22716

(C) Except as otherwise permitted under section 323.74 of the 22717 Revised Code, the successful bidder at a public auction conducted 22718 under this section shall pay the sheriff of the county or a 22719 designee of the sheriff a deposit of at least ten per cent of the 22720 purchase price in cash, or by bank draft or official bank check, 22721 at the time of the public auction, and shall pay the balance of 22722 the purchase price within thirty days after the day on which the 22723 auction was held. Notwithstanding section 321.261 of the Revised 22724 Code, with respect to any proceedings initiated pursuant to 22725 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code, from the total 22726 proceeds arising from the sale, transfer, or redemption of 22727 abandoned land, twenty per cent of such proceeds shall be 22728 deposited to the credit of the county treasurer's delinquent tax 22729 and assessment collection fund to reimburse the fund for costs 22730 paid from the fund for the transfer, redemption, or sale of 22731 abandoned land at public auction. Not more than one-half of the 22732 twenty per cent may be used by the treasurer for community 22733 development, nuisance abatement, foreclosure prevention, 22734 demolition, and related services or distributed by the treasurer 22735 to a land reutilization corporation. The balance of the proceeds, 22736 if any, shall be distributed to the appropriate political 22737 subdivisions and other taxing units in proportion to their 22738 respective claims for taxes, assessments, interest, and penalties 22739 on the land. Upon the sale of foreclosed lands, the clerk of court 22740 shall hold any surplus proceeds in excess of the impositions until 22741 the clerk receives an order of priority and amount of distribution 22742 of the surplus that are adjudicated by a court of competent 22743 jurisdiction or receives a certified copy of an agreement between 22744 the parties entitled to a share of the surplus providing for the 22745 priority and distribution of the surplus. Any party to the action 22746 claiming a right to distribution of surplus shall have a separate 22747 cause of action in the county or municipal court of the 22748 jurisdiction in which the land reposes, provided the board 22749 confirms the transfer or regularity of the sale. Any dispute over 22750 the distribution of the surplus shall not affect or revive the 22751 equity of redemption after the board confirms the transfer or 22752 sale. 22753

(D) Upon the sale or transfer of abandoned land pursuant to 22754 this section, the owner's fee simple interest in the land shall be 22755 conveyed to the purchaser. A conveyance under this division is 22756 free and clear of any liens and encumbrances of the parties named 22757 in the complaint for foreclosure attaching before the sale or 22758 transfer, and free and clear of any liens for taxes, except for 22759 federal tax liens and covenants and easements of record attaching 22760 before the sale. 22761

(E) The county board of revision shall reject the sale of 22762 abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a preponderance of 22763 the evidence that the person is delinquent in the payment of taxes 22764 levied by or pursuant to Chapter 307., 322., 324., 5737., 5739., 22765 5741., or 5743. of the Revised Code or any real property taxing 22766 provision of the Revised Code. The board also shall reject the 22767 sale of abandoned land to any person if it is shown by a 22768 preponderance of the evidence that the person is delinquent in the 22769 payment of property taxes on any parcel in the county, or to a 22770 member of any of the following classes of parties connected to 22771 that person: 22772

(1) A member of that person's immediate family; 22773

(2) Any other person with a power of attorney appointed by 22774
that person; 22775

(3) A sole proprietorship owned by that person or a member of 22776 that person's immediate family; 22777

(4) A partnership, trust, business trust, corporation, 22778 association, or other entity in which that person or a member of 22779 that person's immediate family owns or controls directly or 22780 indirectly any beneficial or legal interest. 22781

(F) If the purchase of abandoned land sold pursuant to this 22782 section or section 323.74 of the Revised Code is for less than the 22783 sum of the impositions against the abandoned land and the costs 22784 apportioned to the land under division (A) of section 323.75 of 22785 the Revised Code, then, upon the sale or transfer, all liens for 22786 taxes due at the time the deed of the property is conveyed to the 22787 purchaser following the sale or transfer, and liens subordinate to 22788 liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied and discharged. 22789

(G) If the county board of revision finds that the total of 22790 the impositions against the abandoned land are greater than the 22791 fair market value of the abandoned land as determined by the 22792 auditor's then-current valuation of that land, the board, at any 22793 final hearing under section 323.70 of the Revised Code, may order 22794 the property foreclosed and, without an appraisal or public 22795 auction, order the sheriff to execute a deed to the certificate 22796 holder or county land reutilization corporation that filed a 22797 complaint under section 323.69 of the Revised Code, or to a 22798 community development organization, school district, municipal 22799 corporation, county, or township, whichever is applicable, as 22800 provided in section 323.74 of the Revised Code. Upon a transfer 22801 under this division, all liens for taxes due at the time the deed 22802 of the property is transferred to the certificate holder, 22803 community development organization, school district, municipal 22804 corporation, county, or township following the conveyance, and 22805 liens subordinate to liens for taxes, shall be deemed satisfied 22806 and discharged. 22807

Sec. 323.75. (A) The county treasurer or county prosecuting 22808 attorney shall apportion the costs of the proceedings with respect 22809 to abandoned lands offered for sale at a public auction held 22810 pursuant to section 323.73 or 323.74 of the Revised Code among 22811 those lands according to actual identified costs, equally, or in 22812 proportion to the fair market values of the lands. The costs of 22813 the proceedings include the costs of conducting the title search, 22814 notifying record owners or other persons required to be notified 22815 of the pending sale, advertising the sale, and any other costs 22816 incurred by the county board of revision, county treasurer, county 22817 auditor, clerk of court, prosecuting attorney, or county sheriff 22818 in performing their duties under sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the 22819

Revised Code. 22820

(B) All costs assessed in connection with proceedings under 22821 sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised Code may be paid after 22822 they are incurred, as follows: 22823

(1) If the abandoned land in question is purchased at public 22824 auction, from the purchaser of the abandoned land; 22825

(2) In the case of abandoned land transferred to a community 22826 development organization, school district, municipal corporation, 22827 county, or township under section 323.74 of the Revised Code, from 22828 either of the following: 22829

(a) At the discretion of the county treasurer, in whole or in 22830 part from the delinquent tax and assessment collection ~~fund funds~~ 22831 created under section 321.261 of the Revised Code, ~~in which case~~ 22832
~~the amount shall be a prior charge to the fund before its equal~~ 22833 ~~allocation between~~ allocated equally among the respective funds of 22834 the county treasurer and of the prosecuting attorney; 22835

(b) From the community development organization, school 22836 district, municipal corporation, county, or township, whichever is 22837 applicable. 22838

(3) If the abandoned land in question is transferred to a 22839 certificate holder, from the certificate holder. 22840

(C) If a parcel of abandoned land is sold or otherwise 22841 transferred pursuant to sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the Revised 22842 Code, the officer who conducted the sale or made the transfer, the 22843 prosecuting attorney, or the county treasurer may collect a 22844 recording fee from the purchaser or transferee of the parcel at 22845 the time of the sale or transfer and shall prepare the deed 22846 conveying title to the parcel or execute the deed prepared by the 22847 board for that purpose. That officer or the prosecuting attorney 22848 or treasurer is authorized to record on behalf of that purchaser 22849 or transferee the deed conveying title to the parcel, 22850 notwithstanding that the deed may not actually have been delivered 22851 to the purchaser or transferee prior to the recording of the deed. 22852 Receiving title to a parcel under sections 323.65 to 323.79 of the 22853 Revised Code constitutes the transferee's consent to an officer, 22854 prosecuting attorney, or county treasurer to file the deed to the 22855 parcel for recording. Nothing in this division shall be construed 22856 to require an officer, prosecuting attorney, or treasurer to file 22857 a deed or to relieve a transferee's obligation to file a deed. 22858 Upon confirmation of that sale or transfer, the deed shall be 22859 deemed delivered to the purchaser or transferee of the parcel. 22860

Sec. 324.02. For the purpose of providing additional general 22861 revenues for the county and paying the expense of administering 22862 such levy, any county may levy a county excise tax to be known as 22863 the utilities service tax on the charge for every utility service 22864 to customers within the county at a rate not to exceed two per 22865 cent of such charge. On utility service to customers engaged in 22866 business, the tax shall be imposed at a rate of one hundred fifty 22867 per cent of the rate imposed upon all other consumers within the 22868 county. The tax shall be levied pursuant to a resolution adopted 22869 by the board of county commissioners of the county and shall be 22870 levied at uniform rates required by this section upon all charges 22871 for utility service except as provided in section 324.03 of the Revised Code. The tax shall be levied upon the customer and shall be paid by the customer to the utility supplying the service at the time the customer pays the utility for the service. If the charge for utility service is billed to a person other than the customer at the request of such person, the tax commissioner of the state may, in accordance with section 324.04 of the Revised Code, provide for the levy of the tax against and the payment of the tax by such other person. Each utility furnishing a utility service the charge for which is subject to the tax shall set forth the tax as a separate item on each bill or statement rendered to the customer.

Prior to the adoption of any resolution levying a utilities service tax the board of county commissioners shall conduct two public hearings thereon, the second hearing to be not less than three nor more than ten days after the first. Notice of the date, time, and place of such hearings shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week on the same day of the week for two consecutive weeks, ~~the or as~~ provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The second publication ~~being~~ shall be not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior to the first hearing. No resolution levying a utilities service tax pursuant to this section of the Revised Code shall be effective sooner than thirty days following its adoption and such resolution is subject to a referendum as provided in sections 305.31 to 305.41 of the Revised Code, unless such resolution is adopted as an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, in which case it shall go into immediate effect. Such emergency measure must receive an affirmative vote of all of the members of the board of commissioners, and shall state the reasons for such necessity. A resolution may direct the board of elections to submit the question of levying the tax to the electors of the county at the next primary or general election in the county occurring not less 22905 than ninety days after such resolution is certified to the board. 22906

No such resolution shall go into effect unless approved by a 22907 majority of those voting upon it. The tax levied by such 22908 resolution shall apply to all bills rendered subsequent to the 22909 sixtieth day after the effective date of the resolution. No bills 22910 shall be rendered out of the ordinary course of business to avoid 22911 payment of the tax. 22912

Sec. 324.021. The question of repeal of a county permissive 22913 tax adopted as an emergency measure pursuant to section 324.02 of 22914 the Revised Code may be initiated by filing with the board of 22915 elections of the county not less than ninety days before the 22916 general election in any year a petition requesting that an 22917 election be held on such question. Such petition shall be signed 22918 by qualified electors residing in the county equal in number to 22919 ten per cent of those voting for governor at the most recent 22920 gubernatorial election. 22921

After determination by it that such petition is valid, the 22922
board of elections shall submit the question to the electors of 22923
the county at the next general election. The election shall be 22924 conducted, canvassed, and certified in the same manner as regular 22925
elections for county offices in the county. Notice of the election 22926 shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 22927
district once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the 22928
election ~~and, if~~ or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 22929
Code. If the board of elections operates and maintains a web site, 22930 notice of the election also shall be posted on that web site for 22931
thirty days prior to the election. The notice shall state the 22932 purpose, time, and place of the election. The form of the ballot 22933 cast at such election shall be prescribed by the secretary of 22934
a separate proposition, but it may be printed on the same ballot 22936

than the election of officers. If a majority of the qualified 22938 electors voting on the question of repeal approve the repeal, the 22939
canvass by the board of elections to the board of county 22941
to levy the tax. 22943

Sec. 325.20. (A) Except as otherwise provided by law, no 22944 department, or a federal or state grant program, incurred for the 23772 purposes of this chapter and sections 3734.52 to 3734.572 of the 23773 Revised Code. Any surplus remaining after those uses of the fund 23774 may be used for the enlargement, modification, or replacement of 23775 such facilities and for the payment of the interest and principal 23776 on bonds and bond anticipation notes issued pursuant to section 23777 343.07 of the Revised Code. In no case shall money so collected be 23778 expended otherwise than for the use and benefit of the district. 23779

A board of county commissioners or directors, instead of 23780 operating and maintaining solid waste collection or other solid 23781 waste facilities of the district with county or joint district 23782 personnel, may enter into a contract with a municipal corporation 23783 having territory within the district pursuant to which the 23784 operation and maintenance of the facilities will be performed by 23785 the municipal corporation. 23786

The products of any solid waste collection or other solid 23787 waste facility owned under this chapter shall be sold through 23788 competitive bidding in accordance with section 307.12 of the 23789 Revised Code, except when a board of county commissioners or 23790 directors determines by resolution that it is in the public 23791 interest to sell those products in a commercially reasonable 23792 manner without competitive bidding. 23793

(B) A board of county commissioners or directors may adopt a 23794 cost allocation plan that identifies, accumulates, and distributes 23795 allowable direct and indirect costs that may be paid from the fund 23796 of the district created in division (A) of this section and 23797 prescribes methods for allocating those costs. The plan shall 23798 authorize payment from the fund for only those costs incurred by 23799 incurred by the general and other funds of the county for a common 23802 or joint purpose, that are necessary and reasonable for the proper 23803 and efficient administration of the district under this chapter 23804 and sections 3734.52 to 3734.572 of the Revised Code. The plan 23805 shall not authorize payment from the fund of any general 23806 government expense required to carry out the overall governmental 23807 responsibilities of a county. The plan shall conform to United 23808 collection, storage, transfer, disposal, recycling, processing, or 23815 resource recovery services at a public meeting held in accordance 23816 with section 121.22 of the Revised Code. In addition to fulfilling 23817 the requirements of section 121.22 of the Revised Code, the board, 23818

resource recovery services, or before entering into a contract 23821 that fixes rates or charges to be collected by the contractor 23822 providing the services, shall hold at least three public hearings 23823 on the proposed rates, charges, or contract. Prior to the first 23824 public hearing, the board shall publish notice of the public 23825 hearings as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code or once a 23826 week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general 23827 circulation in the county or counties that would be affected by 23828 the proposed rates, charges, or contract. The notice shall include 23829 a listing of the proposed rates or charges to be fixed and 23830 collected by the board or fixed pursuant to the contract and 23831 collected by the contractor, and the dates, time, and place of 23832 each of the three hearings thereon. The board shall hear any 23833 person who wishes to testify on the proposed rates, charges, or 23834 contract. 23835

Sec. 345.03. A copy of any resolution adopted under section 23836 345.01 of the Revised Code shall be certified within five days by 23837 of elections, and such board shall submit the proposal to the 23840 electors of the subdivision at the succeeding general election. 23841

The board shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission 23842 of such question to the electors of the subdivision, and the 23843 election shall be conducted, canvassed, and certified in like 23844 manner as regular elections in such subdivision. 23845

Notice of the election shall be published once in a newspaper 23846 of general circulation in the subdivision, ~~at least once~~, not less 23847 the purpose of the proposed increase in rate, the amount of the 23849 increase expressed in dollars and cents for each one hundred 23850 dollars of valuation as well as in mills for each one dollar of 23851 property valuation, the number of years during which such increase 23852 will be in effect, and the time and place of holding such 23853 election. 23854

Sec. 349.03. (A) Proceedings for the organization of a new 23855 community authority shall be initiated by a petition filed by the 23856 developer in the office of the clerk of the board of county 23857 commissioners of one of the counties in which all or part of the 23858 proposed new community district is located. Such petition shall be 23859 signed by the developer and may be signed by each proximate city. 23860
The legislative authorities of each such proximate city shall act 23861 in behalf of such city. Such petition shall contain: 23862

(1) The name of the proposed new community authority; 23863

(2) The address where the principal office of the authority 23864 will be located or the manner in which the location will be 23865 selected; 23866

(3) A map and a full and accurate description of the 23867 boundaries of the new community district together with a 23868 description of the properties within such boundaries, if any, 23869 which will not be included in the new community district. Unless 23870 the district is wholly contained within municipalities, the total 23871 acreage included in such district shall not be less than one 23872 thousand acres, all of which acreage shall be owned by, or under 23873 the control through leases of at least seventy-five years' 23874 duration, options, or contracts to purchase, of the developer, if 23875 the developer is a private entity. Such acreage shall be 23876 developable as one functionally interrelated community. In the 23877 case of a new community authority established on or after the 23878 effective date of this amendment and before January 1, 2012, such 23879 leases may be of not less than forty years' duration, and the 23880 acreage may be developable so that the community is one 23881 functionally interrelated community. 23882

(4) A statement setting forth the zoning regulations proposed 23883 for zoning the area within the boundaries of the new community 23884 district for comprehensive development as a new community, and if 23885 the area has been zoned for such development, a certified copy of 23886 the applicable zoning regulations therefor; 23887

(5) A current plan indicating the proposed development 23888 program for the new community district, the land acquisition and 23889 land development activities, community facilities, services 23890 proposed to be undertaken by the new community authority under 23891 such program, the proposed method of financing such activities and 23892 services, including a description of the bases, timing, and manner 23893 of collecting any proposed community development charges, and the 23894 projected total residential population of, and employment within, 23895 the new community; 23896

(6) A suggested number of members, consistent with section 23897
349.04 of the Revised Code, for the board of trustees; 23898

(7) A preliminary economic feasibility analysis, including 23899 the area development pattern and demand, location and proposed new 23900 community district size, present and future socio-economic 23901 conditions, public services provision, financial plan, and the 23902 developer's management capability; 23903

(8) A statement that the development will comply with all 23904 applicable environmental laws and regulations. 23905

Upon the filing of such petition, the organizational board of 23906 commissioners shall determine whether such petition complies with 23907 the requirements of this section as to form and substance. The 23908 board in subsequent proceedings may at any time permit the 23909 petition to be amended in form and substance to conform to the 23910 facts by correcting any errors in the description of the proposed 23911 new community district or in any other particular. 23912

Upon the determination of the organizational board of 23913 commissioners that a sufficient petition has been filed in 23914 accordance with this section, the board shall fix the time and 23915 place of a hearing on the petition for the establishment of the 23916 proposed new community authority. Such hearing shall be held not 23917 less than ninety-five nor more than one hundred fifteen days after 23918 the petition filing date, except that if the petition has been 23919 signed by all proximate cities, such hearing shall be held not 23920 less than thirty nor more than forty-five days after the petition 23921 filing date. The clerk of the board of county commissioners with 23922 which the petition was filed shall give notice thereof by 23923 publication once each week for three consecutive weeks, or as 23924 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, in a newspaper of 23925 general circulation in any county of which a portion is within the 23926 proposed new community district. Such clerk shall also give 23927 written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing and 23928 furnish a certified copy of the petition to the clerk of the 23929 legislative authority of each proximate city which has not signed 23930 such petition. In the event that the legislative authority of a 23931 proximate city which did not sign the petition does not approve by 23932 ordinance, resolution, or motion the establishment of the proposed 23933 new community authority and does not deliver such ordinance, 23934 resolution, or motion to the clerk of the board of county 23935 commissioners with which the petition was filed within ninety days 23936 following the date of the first publication of the notice of the 23937 public hearing, the organizational board of commissioners shall 23938 cancel such public hearing and terminate the proceedings for the 23939 establishment of the new community authority. 23940

Upon the hearing, if the organizational board of 23941 commissioners determines by resolution that the proposed new 23942 community district will be conducive to the public health, safety, 23943 convenience, and welfare, and is intended to result in the 23944 development of a new community, the board shall by its resolution, 23945 entered of record in its journal and the journal of the board of 23946 county commissioners with which the petition was filed, declare 23947 the new community authority to be organized and a body politic and 23948 corporate with the corporate name designated in the resolution, 23949 and define the boundary of the new community district. In 23950 addition, the resolution shall provide the method of selecting the 23951 board of trustees of the new community authority and fix the 23952 surety for their bonds in accordance with section 349.04 of the 23953

Revised Code. 23954

If the organizational board of commissioners finds that the 23955 establishment of the district will not be conducive to the public 23956 health, safety, convenience, or welfare, or is not intended to 23957 result in the development of a new community, it shall reject the 23958 petition thereby terminating the proceedings for the establishment 23959 of the new community authority. 23960

(B) At any time after the creation of a new community 23961 authority, the developer may file an application with the clerk of 23962 the board of county commissioners of the county in which the 23963 original petition was filed, setting forth a general description 23964 of territory it desires to add or to delete from such district, 23965 that such change will be conducive to the public health, safety, 23966 convenience, and welfare, and will be consistent with the 23967 development of a new community and will not jeopardize the plan of 23968 the new community. If the developer is not a municipal 23969 corporation, port authority, or county, all of such an addition to 23970 such a district shall be owned by, or under the control through 23971 leases of at least seventy-five years' duration, options, or 23972 contracts to purchase, of the developer. In the case of a new 23973 community authority established on or after the effective date of 23974 this amendment and before January 1, 2012, such leases may be of 23975 not less than forty years' duration. Upon the filing of the 23976 application, the organizational board of commissioners shall 23977 follow the same procedure as required by this section in relation 23978 to the petition for the establishment of the proposed new 23979 community. 23980

(C) If all or any part of the new community district is 23981 annexed to one or more existing municipal corporations, their 23982 legislative authorities may appoint persons to replace any 23983 appointed citizen member of the board of trustees. The number of 23984 such trustees to be replaced by the municipal corporation shall be 23985 the number, rounded to the lowest integer, bearing the 23986 proportionate relationship to the number of existing appointed 23987 citizen members as the acreage of the new community district 23988 within such municipal corporation bears to the total acreage of 23989 the new community district. If any such municipal corporation 23990 chooses to replace an appointed citizen member, it shall do so by 23991 ordinance, the term of the trustee being replaced shall terminate 23992 thirty days from the date of passage of such ordinance, and the 23993 trustee to be replaced shall be determined by lot. Each newly 23994 appointed member shall assume the term of the member's 23995 predecessor. 23996

construction of any property for an authorized purpose and for the 24197 leasing, subleasing, sale, or other disposition of the property in 24198 a manner determined by the lake facilities authority in its sole 24199 discretion, without necessity for competitive bidding or 24200 performance bonds. 24201

(4) With respect to any public improvement undertaken by, or 24202 political subdivision with territory in the impacted lake district 24295 shall appoint one representative each to serve on the advisory 24296 council. The representative need not be an elected or appointed 24297

Sec. 353.05. The board of directors of a lake facilities 24299 authority, by resolution, may propose the levy of a tax upon the 24300 taxable property in the impacted lake district pursuant to section 24301
5705.55 of the Revised Code. 24302

Sec. 353.06. (A) Upon the affirmative vote of at least a 24303 majority of the qualified electors in a primary or general 24304 election within the distressed watershed voting at an election 24305 held for the purpose of authorizing same, the board of directors 24306 of a lake facilities authority may, by resolution, levy a lake 24307 facilities development charge on property within the territory of 24308 the distressed watershed. The charge may be used for any costs 24309 authorized under this chapter. A charge levied under this section 24310 may not exceed one-half per cent of the true value of a parcel of 24311 real property as enhanced by the improvement for which the charge 24312 is levied. The true value shall be determined as of the date of 24313 the resolution adopted under this division. The term of the lake 24314 facilities development charge shall not exceed thirty years. The 24315 charge shall be apportioned to and levied on each tract of land or 24316 other property in the distressed watershed based on either of the 24317 following allocation methods: 24318

(1) The benefit conferred on property owners within the 24319 distressed watershed as a result of remediation activities and 24320 other capital expenditures occurring within the distressed 24321 watershed pursuant to this chapter; 24322

(2) The measurable pollution or other harm caused by the 24323 property owners within the distressed watershed. 24324

The lake facilities development charges authorized under this 24325 section shall be used for any and all costs authorized by this 24326
chapter. 24327

(B) The board of directors shall prepare a listing of the 24328 properties to be affected by the lake facilities development 24329 charge and the estimated amount of such charges. Not later than 24330 thirty days before the date of the primary or general election at 24331 which the electors will vote on the imposition of the charge, the 24332 listing shall be placed on file in the office of the lake 24333 facilities authority, and notice by publication shall be given to 24334 property owners to be assessed. Not earlier than thirty days after 24335 the approval of the charge by the electors, the board of directors 24336 shall provide property owners with a final assessment notice for 24337 the first year of the charge by mail. Any owner of real property 24338 assessed shall pay the first year of the charge to the treasurer 24339 of the lake facilities authority within thirty days after receipt 24340 of the final assessment notice. 24341

For the first year of the charge, after the expiration of the 24342 thirty-day period during which property owners shall pay the lake 24343 facilities development charges, a copy of that part of the charge 24344 record shall be filed with the county auditor of the county and 24345 placed on the tax list, and the charges shall be a lien upon the 24346 several parcels of land respectively from and after the date of 24347 the order of the board approving and levying the charge until it 24348 is paid. For all subsequent years, the charges shall be a lien 24349 upon the several parcels of land, and the county treasurer of the 24350 county shall collect the charges in the same manner and at the 24351 time as property taxes are collected, and shall pay the amounts 24352 collected, together with any interest and penalty, to the 24353 treasurer of the lake facilities authority. For the purpose of 24354 enforcing the charge, the county treasurer has the same power and 24355 authority as allowed by law for the collection of property taxes. 24356

The lien imposed under this division shall be treated in the same 24357 manner as taxes for the purposes of the lien described in section 24358 323.11 of the Revised Code, including the priority and enforcement 24359 of the lien and the collection of the charges secured by the lien. 24360

In the event the charge specified in this section is not paid 24361 within the time limits prescribed by this section, a penalty equal 24362 to ten per cent of the charge amount then due, plus interest 24363 charged at the rate provided under section 5703.47 of the Revised 24364 Code, shall be added to the balance of the charges due. 24365

The form of the ballot in an election held on the question of 24366 levying a charge proposed pursuant to this section shall be as 24367 follows or in any other form acceptable to the secretary of state: 24368

"A charge for the benefit of (name of lake facilities 24369 authority) for the purpose of to be based on 24370

distressed watershed as a result of remediation activities and 24372
other capital expenditures occurring within the distressed 24373 watershed or the measurable pollution or other harm caused by the 24374 property owners within the distressed watershed), but not to 24375 exceed 10 mills for each one dollar of valuation, for 24376

Sec. 353.07. As used in this section, "hotel" and "transient 24382 quests" have the same meanings as in section 5739.01 of the 24383 Revised Code, except that "transient guests" includes persons 24384 renting a private or public campground. 24385

A resolution creating a lake facilities authority under 24386 section 353.02 of the Revised Code, or any amendments or 24387 supplements thereto, may authorize the authority to levy an excise 24388 tax on transactions by which lodging in a hotel or rental of a 24389 private or public campground is or is to be furnished to transient 24390 guests to pay any costs authorized under this chapter; to pay 24391 principal, interest, and premium on lake facilities authority tax 24392 anticipation bonds issued to pay those costs; to pay the operating 24393 costs of the authority; and to pay the costs of administering the 24394
tax. 24395

Upon the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the 24396 qualified electors in a primary or general election within the 24397 impacted lake district voting at an election held for the purpose 24398 of authorizing the tax, the board of directors of a lake 24399 facilities authority authorized to levy a tax under this section 24400 may, by resolution, levy an additional excise tax within the 24401 territory of the impacted lake district on all transactions by 24402 which lodging in a hotel or rental of a private or public 24403 campground is or is to be furnished to transient guests. The rate 24404 of the tax, when added to the aggregate rate of excise taxes 24405 levied in the impacted lake district pursuant to section 351.021, 24406 5739.08, or 5739.09 of the Revised Code, shall not cause the total 24407 aggregate rate to exceed five per cent on any such transaction. 24408

The lake facilities authority shall provide for the 24409 administration and allocation of a tax levied pursuant to this 24410 section. All receipts arising from the tax shall be expended for 24411 the purposes provided in, and in accordance with, this section. An 24412 excise tax levied under this section shall remain in effect at the 24413 rate at which it is levied for at least the duration of the period 24414 for which the receipts from the tax have been anticipated and 24415 pledged pursuant to section 353.09 of the Revised Code. 24416

The form of the ballot in an election held on the question of 24417 levying a tax proposed pursuant to this section shall be as 24418 follows or in any other form acceptable to the secretary of state: 24419

"An excise tax on all transactions by which lodging in a 24420 hotel or rental of a private or public campground is or is to be 24421 furnished to transient guests within the territory of the (name of 24422 impacted lake district) for the purpose of 24423 at a rate of for (number of years the tax 24424 is to be levied). 24425

Sec. 353.08. The director of natural resources may transfer 24429 real property owned by the state to a lake facilities authority 24430 for the purpose of promoting wetland banking, wildlife, or 24431 sporting activities. The division of wildlife within the 24432 department of natural resources may enter into an agreement with a 24433 lake facilities authority to establish wetland or natural areas to 24434 benefit wildlife or sporting activities. The agreement may be 24435 entered as part of, or in conjunction with, a mitigation banking 24436 program. 24437

Sec. 353.09. A lake facilities authority that levies the tax 24438 or development charge authorized by sections 353.05 and 5705.55 or 24439 section 353.06 of the Revised Code may, by resolution, anticipate 24440 the proceeds of the tax or charge and issue lake facilities 24441 authority anticipation bonds, and notes anticipating the proceeds 24442 or the bonds, in the principal amount that, in the opinion of the 24443 authority, are necessary for the purpose of paying the cost of an 24444 authorized purpose, and that the authority is able to pay over the 24445 term of the issue with the interest on the bonds or notes, or in 24446 the case of notes anticipating bonds over the term of the bonds, 24447 by the estimated amount of the taxes or charges anticipated. The 24448 taxes or charges are determined by the general assembly to satisfy 24449 any applicable requirement of Section 11 of Article XII, Ohio 24450 Constitution. 24451

Every issue of outstanding anticipation bonds shall be 24452 payable out of the proceeds of the taxes or charges anticipated 24453 and other revenues of the authority that are pledged for such 24454 payment. The pledge shall be valid and binding from the time the 24455 pledge is made, and the anticipated excise taxes, charges, and 24456 revenues so pledged and thereafter received by the authority 24457 immediately shall be subject to the lien of that pledge without 24458 any physical delivery of those taxes, charges, and revenues or 24459 further act. The lien of any pledge is valid and binding as 24460 against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, 24461 or otherwise against the authority, whether or not such parties 24462 have notice of the lien. Neither the resolution nor any trust 24463 agreement by which a pledge is created need be filed or recorded 24464 except in the authority's records. 24465

The anticipation bonds shall bear such date or dates, and 24466 shall mature at such time or times, in the case of any such notes 24467 or any renewals of such notes not exceeding twenty years from the 24468 date of issue of such original notes and in the case of any such 24469 bonds or any refunding bonds not exceeding forty years from the 24470 date of the original issue of notes or bonds for the purpose, and 24471 shall be executed in the manner that the resolution authorizing 24472 the bonds may provide. The anticipation bonds shall bear interest 24473 at such rates, or at variable rate or rates changing from time to 24474 time, in accordance with provisions provided in the authorizing 24475 resolution, be in such denominations and form, either coupon or 24476 registered, carry such registration privileges, be payable in such 24477 medium of payment and at such place or places, and be subject to 24478 such terms of redemption, as the authority may authorize or 24479 provide. 24480

Sec. 353.10. A lake facilities authority at any time may 24481 issue lake facilities authority revenue bonds in such principal 24482 amounts as, in the opinion of the lake facilities authority, are 24483 necessary for the purpose of paying the cost of one or more lake 24484 facilities authority facilities or parts thereof. A lake 24485 facilities authority at any time may issue renewal notes, issue 24486 bonds to retire its notes and, whenever it considers refunding 24487 expedient, refund any bonds by the issuance of lake facilities 24488 authority revenue refunding bonds, whether the bonds to be 24489 refunded have or have not matured, and issue lake facilities 24490 authority revenue bonds partly to refund outstanding bonds and 24491 partly for any other authorized purpose. The lake facilities 24492 authority revenue refunding bonds shall be sold and the proceeds 24493 applied to the purchase, redemption, or payment of the bonds to be 24494 refunded. Lake facilities authority revenue bonds shall be special 24495 obligations of the lake facilities authority payable out of the 24496 revenues of the lake facilities authority that are pledged for 24497 such payment. The pledge shall be valid and binding from the time 24498 the pledge is made and the revenues so pledged and thereafter 24499 received by the lake facilities authority immediately shall be 24500 subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery 24501 thereof or further act, and the lien of the pledge is valid and 24502 binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, 24503 contract, or otherwise against the lake facilities authority, 24504 irrespective of whether those parties have notice thereof. Neither 24505 the resolution nor any trust agreement by which a pledge is 24506 created need be filed or recorded except in the records of the 24507 lake facilities authority. 24508

Whether or not the lake facilities authority revenue bonds 24509 are of such form and character as to be negotiable instruments, 24510 the lake facilities authority revenue bonds shall have all the 24511 qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments, subject only to 24512 the provisions of the bonds for registration. 24513

The lake facilities authority revenue bonds shall be 24514 authorized by resolution of the lake facilities authority, and 24515 shall bear interest at such rate or rates, shall bear such date or 24516 dates, and shall mature at such time or times, and in such number 24517 of installments as may be provided in or pursuant to that 24518 resolution. The final maturity of any lake facilities authority 24519 revenue bond in the form of a note and any renewals thereof shall 24520 not exceed five years from the date of issue of the original note. 24521
The final maturity of any issue of lake facilities authority 24522 revenue bonds shall not be later than forty-five years from the 24523 date of issue of the original issue of bonds. Any such bonds or 24524 notes shall be executed in a manner as the resolution or 24525 resolutions may provide. The lake facilities authority revenue 24526 bonds shall be in such denominations, be in such form, either 24527 coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be 24528 payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be 24529 subject to such terms of redemption as may be provided in or 24530 pursuant to the resolution authorizing their issuance. Lake 24531 facilities authority revenue bonds of the lake facilities 24532 authority may be sold by the lake facilities authority, at public 24533 or private sale, at or at not less than a price or prices as the 24534 lake facilities authority determines. In case any officer whose 24535 signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on any bonds, 24536 notes, or coupons, ceases to be such officer before delivery of 24537 bonds or notes, the signature or facsimile shall nevertheless be 24538 sufficient for all purposes the same as if the officer had 24539 remained in office until such delivery, and in case the seal of 24540 the lake facilities authority has been changed after a facsimile 24541 has been imprinted on such bonds or notes, the facsimile seal will 24542 continue to be sufficient for all purposes. 24543

Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any lake facilities 24544 authority revenue bonds or any issue of bonds may contain 24545 provisions, subject to any agreements with bondholders as may then 24546 exist, which provisions shall be a part of the contract with the 24547 holders of bonds, as to the pledging of all or any part of the 24548 revenues of the lake facilities authority to secure the payment of 24549 the lake facilities authority bonds or of any issue of the bonds; 24550 the use and disposition of revenues of the lake facilities 24551 authority; a covenant to fix, alter, and collect rentals and other 24552 charges so that pledged revenues will be sufficient to pay costs 24553 of operation, maintenance, and repairs, pay principal of and 24554 interest on bonds secured by the pledge of such revenues, and 24555 provide any reserves that may be required by the applicable 24556 resolution or trust agreement; the setting aside of reserve funds, 24557 sinking funds, or replacement and improvement funds and the 24558 regulation and disposition thereof; the crediting of the proceeds 24559 of the sale of bonds to and among the funds referred to or 24560 provided for in or pursuant to the resolution authorizing the 24561 issuance of the bonds or notes; the use, lease, sale, or other 24562 disposition of any lake facilities authority facility or any other 24563 assets of the lake facilities authority; limitations on the 24564 purpose to which the proceeds of sale of bonds may be applied and 24565 the pledging of those proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds 24566 or of any issue of the bonds; as to notes issued in anticipation 24567 of the issuance of bonds, the agreement of the lake facilities 24568 authority to do all things necessary for the authorization, 24569 issuance, and sale of the bonds in amounts that may be necessary 24570 for the timely retirement of the notes; limitations on the 24571 issuance of additional bonds; the terms upon which additional 24572 bonds may be issued and secured; the refunding of outstanding 24573 bonds; the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract 24574 with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds 24575 the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which 24576 such consent may be given; limitations on the amount of moneys to 24577 be expended by the lake facilities authority for operating, 24578 administrative, or other expenses of the lake facilities 24579 authority; securing any bonds or notes by a trust agreement; and 24580 any other matters, of like or different character, that in any way 24581 affect the security or protection of the bonds or notes. 24582

Neither the board of directors of the lake facilities 24583 authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable 24584 personally on the bonds or be subject to any personal liability or 24585 accountability by reason of the issuance thereof. 24586

The issuance of lake facilities authority revenue bonds under 24587 this section need not comply with any other law applicable to the 24588 issuance of bonds or notes. 24589

Sec. 353.11. (A) With respect to facilities, and their 24590 financing, for an authorized purpose, under agreements whereby the 24591 person to whom the facility is to be leased, subleased, or sold, 24592 trust for the purposes of carrying out its powers and duties, 24727 by the lake facilities authority in the manner provided in Chapter 24734 135. of the Revised Code for the selection of eligible public 24735 depositories, and the deposits shall be secured as provided in 24736 that chapter. The resolution authorizing the issuance of such 24737

Revised Code or invested in linked deposit programs established by 24749 resolution of the board of directors in accordance with section 24750 135.80 of the Revised Code. Income from all investments of moneys 24751 in any fund shall be credited to funds as the lake facilities 24752 authority determines, subject to the provisions of any such 24753 resolution or trust agreement, and the investments may be sold at 24754 township in accordance with division (C) of that section, and the 24799 ballot language shall be substantially as follows: 24800

"Shall the township of (name) change its name to 24801
..... (proposed name)? 24802

..... For name change 24803

..... Against name change" 24804

(B)(1) At least forty-five days before the election on this 24805 question, the board of township trustees shall provide notice of 24806 the election and an explanation of the proposed name change in a 24807 newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 24808 changing the township's name is in the affirmative, the name 24818 change is adopted and becomes effective ninety days after the 24819 board of elections certifies the election results to the fiscal 24820 officer of the township. Upon receipt of the certification of the 24821 election results from the board of elections, the fiscal officer 24822 of the township shall send a copy of that certification to the 24823 secretary of state. 24824

(D) A change in the name of a township shall not alter the 24825 rights or liabilities of the township as previously named. 24826

Sec. 503.41. (A) A board of township trustees, by resolution, 24827 may regulate and require the registration of massage 24828 establishments and their employees within the unincorporated 24829 make available proposed regulations or amendments to the public at 24842 the office of the board. 24843 thirty days after the adoption of the regulations or amendments, 24846 the township fiscal officer receives a petition, signed by a 24847 number of qualified electors residing in the unincorporated area 24848 of the township equal to not less than ten per cent of the total 24849 vote cast for all candidates for governor in the area at the most 24850 recent general election at which a governor was elected, 24851 requesting the board to submit the regulations or amendments to 24852 the electors of the area for approval or rejection at the next 24853 primary or general election occurring at least ninety days after 24854 the board receives the petition. 24855 been requested is effective unless a majority of the votes cast on 24857 the issue is in favor of the regulation or amendment. Upon 24858 votes cast on the issue was in favor of the regulation or 24860 in section 4731.15 of the Revised Code or the practice of 24870 providing therapeutic massage by a licensed physician, a licensed 24871 chiropractor, a licensed podiatrist, a licensed nurse, or any 24872 other licensed health professional. As used in this division, 24873 "licensed" means licensed, certified, or registered to practice in 24874 this state. 24875

Sec. 504.02. (A) After certification of a resolution as 24876 provided in division (A) of section 504.01 of the Revised Code, 24877 the board of elections shall submit the question of whether to 24878 adopt a limited home rule government to the electors of the 24879 unincorporated area of the township, and the ballot language shall 24880 be substantially as follows: 24881

"Shall the township of (name) adopt a limited 24882 home rule government, under which government the board of township 24883 trustees, by resolution, may exercise limited powers of local 24884 self-government and limited police powers? 24885

..... For adoption of a limited home rule government 24886

..... Against adoption of a limited home rule government" 24887

question, the board of township trustees shall have notice of the 24889 election and a description of the proposed limited home rule 24890 government published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 24891 township once a week for two consecutive weeks or as provided in 24892 section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and shall have the notice and 24893 description posted in five conspicuous places in the 24894 unincorporated area of the township. 24895

(2) If a board of elections operates and maintains a web 24896 site, notice of the election and a description of the proposed 24897 limited home rule government shall be posted on that web site for 24898 at least thirty days before the election on this question. 24899

(C) If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition of 24900 adopting a limited home rule government is in the affirmative, 24901 that government is adopted and becomes the government of the 24902 township on the first day of January immediately following the 24903
election. 24904

Sec. 504.03. (A)(1) If a limited home rule government is 24905 adopted pursuant to section 504.02 of the Revised Code, it shall 24906 remain in effect for at least three years except as otherwise 24907 provided in division (B) of this section. At the end of that 24908 period, if the board of township trustees determines that that 24909 government is not in the best interests of the township, it may 24910 adopt a resolution causing the board of elections to submit to the 24911 electors of the unincorporated area of the township the question 24912 of whether the township should continue the limited home rule 24913 government. The question shall be voted upon at the next general 24914 election occurring at least ninety days after the certification of 24915 the resolution to the board of elections. After certification of 24916 the resolution, the board of elections shall submit the question 24917 to the electors of the unincorporated area of the township, and 24918 the ballot language shall be substantially as follows: 24919

"Shall the township of (name) continue the 24920 limited home rule government under which it is operating? 24921
..... For continuation of the limited home rule government 24922
..... Against continuation of the limited home rule government" 24923

(2)(a) At least forty-five days before the election on the 24924 question of continuing the limited home rule government, the board 24925 of township trustees shall have notice of the election published 24926 in a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week 24927 for two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 24928 Revised Code, and shall have the notice posted in five conspicuous 24929 places in the unincorporated area of the township. 24930

(b) If a board of elections operates and maintains a web 24931 site, notice of the election shall be posted on that web site for 24932 at least thirty days before the election on the question of 24933 continuing the limited home rule government. 24934

(B) The electors of a township that has adopted a limited 24935 home rule government may propose at any time by initiative 24936 petition, in accordance with section 504.14 of the Revised Code, a 24937 resolution submitting to the electors in the unincorporated area 24938 of the township, in an election, the question set forth in 24939 division (A)(1) of this section. 24940

(C) If a majority of the votes cast under division (A) or (B) 24941 of this section on the proposition of continuing the limited home 24942 rule government is in the negative, that government is terminated 24943 effective on the first day of January immediately following the 24944 election, and a limited home rule government shall not be adopted 24945 in the unincorporated area of the township pursuant to section 24946 504.02 of the Revised Code for at least three years after that 24947 date. 24948

(D) If a limited home rule government is terminated under 24949 this section, the board of township trustees immediately shall 24950 adopt a resolution repealing all resolutions adopted pursuant to 24951 this chapter that are not authorized by any other section of the 24952 Revised Code outside this chapter, effective on the first day of 24953
January immediately following the election described in division 24954
(A) or (B) of this section. However, no resolution adopted under 24955 this division shall affect or impair the obligations of the 24956 township under any security issued or contracts entered into by 24957 the township in connection with the financing of any water supply 24958 facility or sewer improvement under sections 504.18 to 504.20 of 24959 the Revised Code or the authority of the township to collect or 24960 enforce any assessments or other revenues constituting security 24961 for or source of payments of debt service charges of those 24962 securities. 24963

(E) Upon the termination of a limited home rule government 24964 under this section, if the township had converted its board of 24965 township trustees to a five-member board before September 26, 24966 2003, the current board member who received the lowest number of 24967 votes of the current board members who were elected at the most 24968 recent election for township trustees, and the current board 24969 member who received the lowest number of votes of the current 24970 board members who were elected at the second most recent election 24971 for township trustees, shall cease to be township trustees on the 24972 date that the limited home rule government terminates. Their 24973 offices likewise shall cease to exist at that time, and the board 24974 shall continue as a three-member board as provided in section 24975

505.01 of the Revised Code. 24976

Sec. 504.12. No resolution and no section or numbered or 24977 lettered division of a section shall be revised or amended unless 24978 the new resolution contains the entire resolution, section, or 24979 division as revised or amended, and the resolution, section, or 24980 division so amended shall be repealed. This requirement does not 24981 prevent the amendment of a resolution by the addition of a new 24982 section, or division, and in this case the full text of the former 24983 resolution need not be set forth, nor does this section prevent 24984 repeals by implication. Except in the case of a codification or 24985 recodification of resolutions, a separate vote shall be taken on 24986 each resolution proposed to be amended. Resolutions that have been 24987 introduced and have received their first reading or their first 24988 and second readings, but have not been voted on for passage, may 24989 be amended or revised by a majority vote of the members of the 24990 board of township trustees, and the amended or revised resolution 24991 need not receive additional readings. 24992

The board of township trustees of a limited home rule 24993 township may revise, codify, and publish in book form the 24994 resolutions of the township in the same manner as provided in 24995 section 731.23 of the Revised Code for municipal corporations. 24996 Resolutions adopted by the board shall be published in the same 24997 manner as provided by sections 731.21, 731.22, 731.24, 731.25, and 24998 731.26 of the Revised Code for municipal corporations, except that 24999 they shall be published in ~~newspapers circulating~~ a newspaper of 25000 general circulation within the township. The fiscal officer of the 25001 township shall perform the duties that the clerk of the 25002 legislative authority of a municipal corporation is required to 25003 perform under those sections. 25004

The procedures provided in this section apply only to 25005 resolutions adopted pursuant to a township's limited home rule 25006 powers as authorized by this chapter. 25007

Sec. 504.16. (A) Each township that adopts a limited home 25008 rule government shall promptly do one of the following: 25009

(1) Establish a police district pursuant to section 505.48 of 25010 the Revised Code, except that the district shall include all of 25011 the unincorporated area of the township and no other territory; 25012

(2) Establish a joint ~~township~~ police district pursuant to 25013
section ~~505.48~~ 505.482 of the Revised Code; 25014

(3) Contract pursuant to section 311.29, 505.43, or 505.50 of 25015 the Revised Code to obtain police protection services, including 25016 the enforcement of township resolutions adopted under this 25017 chapter, on a regular basis; 25018

(4) Designate one or more police constables under Chapter 25019
509. of the Revised Code. 25020

(B) A township that has taken an action described in division 25021
(A) of this section before adopting a limited home rule government 25022 need not take any other such action upon adopting that government. 25023

(C) The requirement that a township take one of the actions 25024 described in divisions (A)(1), (2), and (3) of this section does 25025 not prevent a township that acts under division (A)(1) or (2) of 25026 this section from contracting under division (A)(3) of this 25027 section to obtain additional police protection services on a 25028 regular basis. 25029

Sec. 504.21. (A) The board of township trustees of a township 25030 that has adopted a limited home rule government may, for the 25031 unincorporated territory in the township, adopt, amend, and 25032 rescind rules establishing technically feasible and economically 25033 reasonable standards to achieve a level of management and 25034 conservation practices that will abate wind or water erosion of 25035 the soil or abate the degradation of the waters of the state by 25036 soil sediment in conjunction with land grading, excavating, 25037

filling, or other soil disturbing activities on land used or being 25038 developed in the township for nonfarm commercial, industrial, 25039 residential, or other nonfarm purposes, and establish criteria for 25040 determination of the acceptability of those management and 25041 conservation practices. The rules shall be designed to implement 25042 the applicable areawide waste treatment management plan prepared 25043 under section 208 of the "Federal Water Pollution Control Act," 86 25044 Stat. 816 (1972), 33 U.S.C.A. 1228, as amended, and to implement 25045 phase II of the storm water program of the national pollutant 25046 discharge elimination system established in 40 C.F.R. Part 122. 25047
The rules to implement phase II of the storm water program of the 25048 national pollutant discharge elimination system shall not be 25049 inconsistent with, more stringent than, or broader in scope than 25050 the rules or regulations adopted by the environmental protection 25051 agency under 40 C.F.R. Part 122. The rules adopted under this 25052 section shall not apply inside the limits of municipal 25053

management before clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or 25060
otherwise wholly or partially disturbing one or more contiguous 25061 acres of land owned by one person or operated as one development 25062
unit for the construction of nonfarm buildings, structures, 25063
utilities, recreational areas, or other similar nonfarm uses. If 25064
the rules require plans to be filed, the rules shall do all of the 25065

(2) Establish procedures and criteria for the review and approval or disapproval of the plans;	25069 25070
(3) Require the designated entity to issue a permit to a person for the clearing, grading, excavating, filling, or other project for which plans are approved and to deny a permit to a person whose plans have been disapproved;	25071 25072 25073 25074
(4) Establish procedures for the issuance of the permits;	25075
(5) Establish procedures under which a person may appeal the denial of a permit.	25076 25077
Areas of less than one contiguous acre shall not be exempt from compliance with other provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section. The rules adopted under this section may impose reasonable filing fees for plan review, permit processing, and field inspections.	25078 25079 25080 25081 25082
No permit or plan shall be required for a public highway, transportation, or drainage improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in the department of natural resources.	25083 25084 25085 25086 25087 25088 25089
(B) Rules or amendments may be adopted under this section only after public hearings at not fewer than two regular sessions of the board of township trustees. as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The proposed 25096
public at the board office or other location indicated in the 25098
notice. The rules or amendments shall take effect on the 25099
thirty-first day following the date of their adoption. 25100

(C) The board of township trustees may employ personnel to 25101 assist in the administration of this section and the rules adopted 25102
under it. The board also, if the action does not conflict with the 25103 rules, may delegate duties to review sediment control and water 25104
management plans to its employees, and may enter into agreements 25105 with one or more political subdivisions, other township officials, 25106 or other government agencies, in any combination, in order to 25107
obtain reviews and comments on plans governing erosion control, 25108
sediment control, and water management or to obtain other services 25109
for the administration of the rules adopted under this section. 25110

(D) The board of township trustees or any duly authorized 25111 representative of the board may, upon identification to the owner 25112
or person in charge, enter any land upon obtaining agreement with 25113 the owner, tenant, or manager of the land in order to determine 25114
whether there is compliance with the rules adopted under this 25115
section. If the board or its duly authorized representative is 25116 unable to obtain such an agreement, the board or representative 25117
may apply for, and a judge of the court of common pleas for the 25118
county where the land is located may issue, an appropriate 25119
section. 25121

(E)(1) If the board of township trustees or its duly 25122 authorized representative determines that a violation of the rules 25123 adopted under this section exists, the board or representative may 25124 issue an immediate stop work order if the violator failed to 25125 obtain any federal, state, or local permit necessary for sediment 25126
and erosion control, earth movement, clearing, or cut and fill 25127

activity. In addition, if the board or representative determines 25128 such a rule violation exists, regardless of whether or not the 25129
violator has obtained the proper permits, the board or 25130
representative may authorize the issuance of a notice of 25131 violation. If, after a period of not less than thirty days has 25132 elapsed following the issuance of the notice of violation, the 25133
violation continues, the board or its duly authorized 25134
representative shall issue a second notice of violation. Except as 25135 provided in division (E)(3) of this section, if, after a period of 25136
not less than fifteen days has elapsed following the issuance of 25137
the second notice of violation, the violation continues, the board 25138
or its duly authorized representative may issue a stop work order 25139
after first obtaining the written approval of the prosecuting 25140 attorney of the county in which the township is located if, in the 25141 opinion of the prosecuting attorney, the violation is egregious. 25142

Once a stop work order is issued, the board or its duly 25143 authorized representative shall request, in writing, the 25144 prosecuting attorney to seek an injunction or other appropriate 25145 relief in the court of common pleas to abate excessive erosion or 25146 sedimentation and secure compliance with the rules adopted under 25147 this section. If the prosecuting attorney seeks an injunction or 25148 other appropriate relief, then, in granting relief, the court of 25149 common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 25150 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 25151 assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 25152 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule or stop work 25153 order issued under this section shall be considered a separate 25154 violation subject to a civil fine. 25155

(2) The person to whom a stop work order is issued under this 25156
section may appeal the order to the court of common pleas of the 25157
county in which it was issued, seeking any equitable or other 25158
appropriate relief from that order. 25159

(3) No stop work order shall be issued under this section 25160 against any public highway, transportation, or drainage 25161
improvement or maintenance project undertaken by a government 25162
agency or political subdivision in accordance with a statement of 25163
its standard sediment control policies that is approved by the 25164
board or the chief of the division of soil and water resources in 25165
the department of natural resources. 25166

(F) No person shall violate any rule adopted or order issued 25167
under this section. Notwithstanding division (E) of this section, 25168 if the board of township trustees determines that a violation of 25169 any rule adopted or administrative order issued under this section 25170 exists, the board may request, in writing, the prosecuting 25171 attorney of the county in which the township is located, to seek 25172 an injunction or other appropriate relief in the court of common 25173 pleas to abate excessive erosion or sedimentation and secure 25174 compliance with the rules or order. In granting relief, the court 25175 of common pleas may order the construction of sediment control 25176 improvements or implementation of other control measures and may 25177
assess a civil fine of not less than one hundred or more than five 25178 hundred dollars. Each day of violation of a rule adopted or 25179 administrative order issued under this section shall be considered 25180 a separate violation subject to a civil fine. 25181 index" has the same meaning as in section 325.18 of the Revised	25528

Code.	25529
(C) Whenever members of a board of township trustees are	25530 compensated per diem and not by annual salary, the board shall	25531 establish, by resolution, a method by which each member of the	25532 board shall periodically notify the township fiscal officer of the	25533 number of days spent in the service of the township and the kinds	25534 of services rendered on those days. The per diem compensation 25535 shall be paid from the township general fund or from other 25536 township funds in such proportions as the kinds of services 25537

January of the year following the year during which the board has 25560 voted to change the method of compensation. 25561

Sec. 505.264. (A) As used in this section, "energy 25562
conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an 25563 installation in, or remodeling of, an existing building, to reduce 25564 energy consumption. It includes the following: 25565

(1) Insulation of the building structure and of systems within the building;	25566 25567
(2) Storm windows and doors, multiglazed windows and doors, heat-absorbing or heat-reflective glazed and coated window and door systems, additional glazing, reductions in glass area, and other window and door system modifications that reduce energy consumption;	25568 25569 25570 25571 25572
(3) Automatic energy control systems;	25573
(4) Heating, ventilating, or air conditioning system modifications or replacements;	25574 25575
(5) Caulking and weatherstripping;	25576
(6) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures to increase the energy efficiency of the system without increasing the overall illumination of a facility, unless an increase in illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or local building code for the proposed lighting system;	25577 25578 25579 25580 25581
(7) Energy recovery systems;	25582
(8) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of energy such as heat, as well as electricity, for use primarily within a building or complex of buildings;	25583 25584 25585
(9) Any other modification, installation, or remodeling approved by the board of township trustees as an energy conservation measure.	25586 25587 25588
(B) For the purpose of evaluating township buildings for energy conservation measures, a township may contract with an architect, professional engineer, energy services company, contractor, or other person experienced in the design and implementation of energy conservation measures for a report that analyzes the buildings' energy needs and presents recommendations for building installations, modifications of existing	25589 25590 25591 25592 25593 25594 25595 installations, or building remodeling that would significantly 25596 reduce energy consumption in the buildings owned by that township. 25597

The report shall include estimates of all costs of the 25598 installations, modifications, or remodeling, including costs of 25599 design, engineering, installation, maintenance, and repairs, and 25600 estimates of the amounts by which energy consumption could be 25601 reduced. 25602

(C) A township desiring to implement energy conservation 25603 measures may proceed under either of the following methods: 25604

(1) Using a report or any part of a report prepared under 25605 division (B) of this section, advertise for bids and comply with 25606 the bidding procedures set forth in sections 307.86 to 307.92 of 25607
the Revised Code; 25608

(2) Request proposals from at least three vendors for the 25609 implementation of energy conservation measures. Prior to sending 25610 any installer of energy conservation measures a copy of any such 25611 request, the township shall advertise its intent to request 25612 proposals for the installation of energy conservation measures in 25613 a newspaper of general circulation in the township once a week for 25614 two consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the 25615 Revised Code. The notice shall state that the township intends to 25616 request proposals for the installation of energy conservation 25617 measures; indicate the date, which shall be at least ten days 25618 after the second publication, on which the request for proposals 25619 will be mailed to installers of energy conservation measures; and 25620 state that any installer of energy conservation measures 25621 interested in receiving the request for proposal shall submit 25622 written notice to the township not later than noon of the day on 25623 which the request for proposal will be mailed. 25624

Upon receiving the proposals, the township shall analyze them 25625 and select the proposal or proposals most likely to result in the 25626 greatest energy savings considering the cost of the project and 25627 the township's ability to pay for the improvements with current 25628 revenues or by financing the improvements. The awarding of a 25629 contract to install energy conservation measures under division 25630 (C)(2) of this section shall be conditioned upon a finding by the 25631 township that the amount of money spent on energy savings measures 25632 is not likely to exceed the amount of money the township would 25633 save in energy and operating costs over ten years or a lesser 25634 period as determined by the township or, in the case of contracts 25635 for cogeneration systems, over five years or a lesser period as 25636 determined by the township. Nothing in this section prohibits a 25637 township from rejecting all proposals or from selecting more than 25638 one proposal. 25639

(D) A board of township trustees may enter into an 25640 installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of 25641 energy conservation measures. Any provisions of those installment 25642 payment contracts that deal with interest charges and financing 25643 terms shall not be subject to the competitive bidding procedures 25644 of section 307.86 of the Revised Code. Unless otherwise approved 25645 by a resolution of the board, an installment payment contract 25646 entered into by a board of township trustees under this section 25647 shall require the board to contract in accordance with the 25648 procedures set forth in section 307.86 of the Revised Code for the 25649 installation, modification, or remodeling of energy conservation 25650 measures pursuant to this section. 25651

(E) The board may issue securities of the township specifying 25652 the terms of the purchase and securing the deferred payments, 25653 payable at the times provided and bearing interest at a rate not 25654 exceeding the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of the 25655 Revised Code. The maximum maturity of the securities shall be as 25656 provided in division (B)(7)(g) of section 133.20 of the Revised 25657 Code. The securities may contain an option for prepayment and 25658 shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. Revenues 25659 derived from local taxes or otherwise, for the purpose of 25660

conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses 25661
of the township, may be applied to the payment of interest and the 25662 retirement of the securities. The securities may be sold at 25663 private sale or given to the contractor under the installment 25664 payment contract authorized by division (D) of this section. 25665

(F) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in 25666 the calculation of the net indebtedness of a township under 25667
section 133.09 of the Revised Code. 25668

Sec. 505.267. (A) As used in this section: 25669

(1) "Lease-purchase agreement" has the same meaning as a 25670 lease with an option to purchase. 25671

(2) "Public obligation" has the same meaning as in section 25672
133.01 of the Revised Code. 25673

(B) For any purpose for which a board of township trustees, 25674 ~~or a board of trustees of a joint township police district board,~~ 25675 a township fire district, a joint fire district, or a fire and 25676 ambulance district is authorized to acquire real or personal 25677 property, that board may enter into a lease-purchase agreement in 25678 accordance with this section to acquire the property. The board's 25679 resolution authorizing the lease-purchase agreement may provide 25680 for the issuance of certificates of participation or other 25681 evidences of fractionalized interests in the lease-purchase 25682 agreement, for the purpose of financing, or refinancing or 25683 refunding, any public obligation that financed or refinanced the 25684 acquisition of the property. Sections 9.94, 133.03, and 133.30 of 25685 the Revised Code shall apply to any such fractionalized interests. 25686

The lease-purchase agreement shall provide for a series of 25687 terms in which no term extends beyond the end of the fiscal year 25688 of the township or district in which that term commences. In 25689 total, the terms provided for in the agreement shall be for not 25690 more than the useful life of the real or personal property that is 25691 the subject of the agreement. A property's useful life shall be 25692 determined either by the maximum number of installment payments 25693 permitted under the statute that authorizes the board to acquire 25694 the property or, if there is no such provision, by the maximum 25695 number of years to maturity provided for the issuance of bonds in 25696 division (B) of section 133.20 of the Revised Code for that 25697 property. If the useful life cannot be determined under either of 25698 those statutes, it shall be estimated as provided in division (C) 25699 of section 133.20 of the Revised Code. 25700

The lease-purchase agreement shall provide that, at the end 25701 of the final term in the agreement, if all obligations of the 25702 township or district have been satisfied, the title to the leased 25703 property shall vest in the township or district executing the 25704 lease-purchase agreement, if that title has not vested in the 25705 township or district before or during the lease terms; except that 25706 the lease-purchase agreement may require the township or district 25707 to pay an additional lump sum payment as a condition of obtaining 25708 that title. 25709

(C) A board of trustees that enters into a lease-purchase 25710 agreement under this section may do any of the following with the 25711 property that is the subject of the agreement: 25712

(1) If the property is personal property, assign the board's 25713 rights to that property; 25714

(2) Grant the lessor a security interest in the property; 25715

(3) If the property is real property, grant leases, 25716 easements, or licenses for underlying land or facilities under the 25717 board's control for terms not exceeding five years beyond the 25718 final term of the lease-purchase agreement. 25719

(D) The authority granted in this section is in addition to, 25720 and not in derogation of, any other financing authority provided 25721 by law. 25722

Sec. 505.28. The board of township trustees may create a 25723 waste disposal district under sections 505.27 to 505.33 of the 25724 Revised Code, by a unanimous vote of the board and give notice 25725 thereof by a publication in ~~two newspapers~~ a newspaper of general 25726 circulation in the township. If, within thirty days after such 25727 publication, a protest petition is filed with the board, signed by 25728 at least fifty per cent of the electors residing in the district, 25729 the act of the board in creating such district shall be void. If a 25730 petition is filed with the board asking for the creation of such a 25731 district in the township, accompanied by a map clearly showing the 25732 boundaries of such district, and signed by at least sixty-five per 25733 cent of the electors residing therein, with addresses of such 25734 signers, the board shall, within sixty days, create such a 25735 district. 25736

Each district shall be given a name, and the entire cost of 25737 any necessary equipment and labor shall be apportioned against 25738 each district by the respective boards. 25739

Sec. 505.373. The board of township trustees may, by 25740 resolution, adopt by incorporation by reference a standard code 25741 pertaining to fire, fire hazards, and fire prevention prepared and 25742 promulgated by the state or any department, board, or other agency 25743 of the state, or any such code prepared and promulgated by a 25744 public or private organization that publishes a model or standard 25745
code. 25746

After the adoption of the code by the board, a notice clearly 25747 identifying the code, stating the purpose of the code, and stating 25748 that a complete copy of the code is on file with the township 25749 fiscal officer for inspection by the public and also on file in 25750 the law library of the county in which the township is located and 25751 that the fiscal officer has copies available for distribution to 25752 the public at cost, shall be posted by the fiscal officer in five 25753 conspicuous places in the township for thirty days before becoming 25754 effective. The notice required by this section shall also be 25755 published in a newspaper of general circulation in the township 25756 once a week for three consecutive weeks or as provided in section 25757 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the adopting township amends or 25758 deletes any provision of the code, the notice shall contain a 25759 brief summary of the deletion or amendment. 25760

If the agency that originally promulgated or published the 25761 code thereafter amends the code, any township that has adopted the 25762 code pursuant to this section may adopt the amendment or change by 25763 incorporation by reference in the same manner as provided for 25764 adoption of the original code. 25765

Sec. 505.43. In order to obtain police protection, or to 25766 obtain additional police protection, any township may enter into a 25767 are agreed to by them, for services of police departments or use 25772 of police equipment, or the interchange of the service of police 25773 departments or use of police equipment within the several 25774 territories of the contracting subdivisions, if the contract is 25775 first authorized by respective boards of township trustees or 25776 other legislative bodies. The cost of the contract may be paid for 25777 from the township general fund or from funds received pursuant to 25778 the passage of a levy authorized pursuant to division (J) of 25779 section 5705.19 and section 5705.25 of the Revised Code. 25780 contracting political subdivisions and police department members 25783 when the members are rendering service outside their own 25784 subdivision pursuant to the contract. 25785 which they are employed may participate in any pension or 25787 indemnity fund established by their employer to the same extent as 25788 while acting within the employing subdivision, and are entitled to 25789 all the rights and benefits of Chapter 4123. of the Revised Code, 25790 to the same extent as while performing service within the 25791 subdivision. 25792

The contract may provide for a fixed annual charge to be paid 25793 at the times agreed upon and stipulated in the contract. 25794

Sec. 505.48. (A) The board of township trustees of any 25795 township may, by resolution adopted by two-thirds of the members 25796 of the board, create a township police district comprised of all 25797 the resolution may specify. If the township police district does 25799 not include all of the unincorporated territory of the township, 25800 the resolution creating the district shall contain a complete and 25801 accurate description of the territory of the district and a 25802 trustees of a resolution approving the expansion of the 25817 territorial limits of the district; 25818

The board of trustees shall certify each resolution adopted 25829 under division (B)(2) of this section to the board of elections in 25830 accordance with section 5705.19 of the Revised Code. The election 25831 required under division (B)(3) of this section shall be held, 25832 years the tax is to be in effect or "a continuing period of time," 25841 as applicable)?" 25842

If the question is approved by at least a majority of the 25843 electors voting on it, the joinder shall be effective as of the 25844 first day of January of the year following approval, and, on that 25845 date, the township police district tax shall be extended to the 25846

Sec. ~~505.482~~ 505.481. (A) If a township police district does 25848 not include all the unincorporated territory of the township, the 25849 remaining unincorporated territory of the township may be added to 25850 the district by a resolution adopted by a unanimous vote of the 25851 board of township trustees to place the issue of expansion of the 25852 district on the ballot for the electors of the entire 25853 unincorporated territory of the township. The resolution shall 25854

a continuous period of time. 25869

(B) The election on the measure shall be held, canvassed, and 25870 under section 5705.25 of the Revised Code, except that the 25872 of the county in the same calendar year, mail the manager of the 26287 commercial establishment or the occupant, lessee, agent, or tenant 26288 commercial establishment is a part, or to the occupant, lessee, 26299 agent, or tenant and to the owner, if different, of the real 26300 estate of which the residence is a part, indicating that failure 26301 to pay the bill within thirty days, or to show just cause why the 26302 bill should not be paid, will result in the assessment of a lien 26303 upon the real estate in the amount of the bill. If payment is not 26304 received within those thirty days or if just cause is not shown, 26305 the amount of the bill shall be entered upon the tax duplicate, 26306 shall be a lien upon the real estate from the date of the entry, 26307 and shall be collected as other taxes and returned to the county 26308 treasury. 26309

The sheriff shall not send a bill pursuant to this division 26310 if a bill has already been sent pursuant to division (A) of this 26311 section for the same false alarm. 26312

(C) As used in this section, "commercial establishment" has 26313 the same meaning as in section 505.391 of the Revised Code. 26314

Sec. 505.52. The board of trustees of a township police 26315 district or a joint police district board may issue bonds for the 26316 purpose of buying police equipment in the manner provided for in 26317 section 133.18 and pursuant to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. 26318
The proceeds of the bonds issued under this section, other than 26319 any premium and accrued interest which is credited to the sinking 26320 fund, shall be placed in the township treasury or joint police 26321 district board treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as the 26322
"police equipment fund." Money from the police equipment fund 26323 shall be paid out only upon order of the township board of 26324 trustees of the township police district or of the joint police 26325 district board. 26326

Sec. 505.53. The board of trustees of a township police 26327 district or a joint police district board may issue notes for a 26328 period not to exceed three years for the purpose of buying police 26329 equipment or a building or site to house police equipment. 26330
One-third of the purchase price of the equipment, building, or 26331 site shall be paid at the time of purchase, and the remainder of 26332 the purchase price shall be covered by notes maturing in two and 26333 three years respectively. Notes may bear interest not to exceed 26334 the rate determined as provided in section 9.95 of the Revised 26335 Code, and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. of the Revised 26336 Code. Such notes shall be offered for sale on the open market or 26337 given to a vendor if no sale is made. 26338

Sec. 505.54. The board of trustees of the township or the 26339 joint police district board may, upon nomination by the chief of 26340 police, send one or more of the officers, ~~patrolmen~~ patrol 26341 officers, or other employees of the township police district or 26342 the joint police district to a school of instruction designed to 26343 provide additional training or skills related to the employees 26344 work assignment in the district. The trustees may make advance 26345 tuition payments for any employee so nominated and may defray all 26346 or a portion of the employee's expenses while receiving this 26347 instruction. 26348

Sec. 505.541. (A) The board of township trustees or a joint 26349 police district board, respectively, may establish, by resolution, 26350 a parking enforcement unit within a township police district or 26351 within a joint police district, and provide for the regulation of 26352 parking enforcement officers. The chief of police of the district 26353 shall be the executive head of the parking enforcement unit, shall 26354 make all appointments and removals of parking enforcement 26355 officers, subject to any general rules prescribed by the board of 26356 township trustees by resolution or joint police district board, as 26357 appropriate, and shall prescribe rules for the organization, 26358 training, administration, control, and conduct of the parking 26359 enforcement unit. The chief of police may appoint parking 26360 enforcement officers who agree to serve for nominal compensation, 26361 and persons with physical disabilities may receive appointments as 26362 parking enforcement officers. 26363

(B) The authority of the parking enforcement officers shall 26364 be limited to the enforcement of section 4511.69 of the Revised 26365 Code and any other parking laws specified in the resolution 26366 creating the parking enforcement unit. Parking enforcement 26367 officers shall have no other powers. 26368

(C) The training the parking enforcement officers shall 26369 receive shall include instruction in general administrative rules 26370 and procedures governing the parking enforcement unit, the role of 26371 the judicial system as it relates to parking regulation and 26372 enforcement, proper techniques and methods relating to the 26373 enforcement of parking laws, human interaction skills, and first aid. 26374 26375

Sec. 505.55. In the event that need for a township police 26376 district ceases to exist, the township trustees by a two-thirds 26377 vote of the board shall adopt a resolution specifying the date 26378 that the township police district shall cease to exist and provide 26379 for the disposal of all property belonging to the district by 26380 public sale. Such sale must be by public auction and upon notice 26381 thereof being published once a week for three weeks in a newspaper 26382 ~~published, or~~ of general circulation in such township, ~~the~~ or as 26383 provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. The last of such 26384 publications ~~to~~ shall be made at least five days before the date 26385 of the sale. Any moneys remaining after the dissolution of the 26386 district or received from the public sale of property shall be 26387 paid into the treasury of the township and may be expended for any 26388 public purpose when duly authorized by the township board of 26389 trustees. 26390

Sec. 505.551. (A) Any township or municipal corporation may 26391 withdraw from a joint police district created under section 26392 505.482 of the Revised Code by adopting a resolution or an 26393 ordinance, respectively, ordering withdrawal. On or after the 26394 first day of January of the year following the adoption of the 26395 resolution or ordinance of withdrawal, the township or municipal 26396 corporation withdrawing ceases to be a part of the district, and 26397 the power of the district to levy a tax upon the taxable property 26398 in the withdrawing township or municipal corporation terminates, 26399 except that the district shall continue to levy and collect taxes 26400 for the payment of indebtedness within the territory of the 26401 district as it was comprised at the time the indebtedness was 26402 incurred. 26403

(B) Upon the withdrawal of any township or municipal 26404 corporation from a joint police district, the county auditor shall 26405 ascertain, apportion, and order a division of the funds on hand 26406 and moneys and taxes in the process of collection, except for 26407 taxes levied for the payment of indebtedness, credits, and real 26408 and personal property, either in money or in kind, on the basis of 26409 the valuation of the respective tax duplicates of the withdrawing 26410 township or municipal corporation and the remaining territory of 26411 the joint police district. 26412

(C) When the number of townships or municipal corporations 26413 comprising a joint police district is reduced to one, the joint 26414 police district ceases to exist by operation of law, and the 26415 funds, credits, and property remaining after apportionments to 26416 withdrawing townships or municipal corporations shall be assumed 26417 by the one remaining township or municipal corporation. When a 26418 joint police district ceases to exist and an indebtedness remains 26419 unpaid, the board of county commissioners shall continue to levy 26420 and collect taxes for the payment of that indebtedness within the 26421 territory of the joint police district as it was comprised at the 26422 time the indebtedness was incurred. 26423

Sec. 505.60. The following applies until the department of 26424 administrative services implements for townships the health care 26425
plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. If those plans do 26426
not include or address any benefits listed in division (A) of this 26427 section, the following provisions continue in effect for those 26428
benefits. 26429

(A) As provided in this section and section 505.601 of the 26430 Revised Code, the board of township trustees of any township may 26431 procure and pay all or any part of the cost of insurance policies 26432 that may provide benefits for hospitalization, surgical care, 26433 major medical care, disability, dental care, eye care, medical 26434 care, hearing aids, prescription drugs, or sickness and accident 26435 insurance, or a combination of any of the foregoing types of 26436 insurance for township officers and employees. The board of 26437 township trustees of any township may negotiate and contract for 26438 the purchase of a policy of long-term care insurance for township 26439 officers and employees pursuant to section 124.841 of the Revised 26440

Code. 26441

If the board procures any insurance policies under this 26442 section, the board shall provide uniform coverage under these 26443 policies for township officers and full-time township employees 26444 and their immediate dependents, and may provide coverage under 26445 these policies for part-time township employees and their 26446 immediate dependents, from the funds or budgets from which the 26447 officers or employees are compensated for services, such policies 26448 to be issued by an insurance company duly authorized to do 26449 business in this state. 26450

(B) The board may also provide coverage for any or all of the 26451 benefits described in division (A) of this section by entering 26452 into a contract for group health care services with health 26453 insuring corporations holding certificates of authority under 26454 Chapter 1751. of the Revised Code for township officers and 26455 employees and their immediate dependents. If the board so 26456 contracts, it shall provide uniform coverage under any such 26457 contracts for township officers and full-time township employees 26458 and their immediate dependents, from the funds or budgets from 26459 which the officers or employees are compensated for services, and 26460 may provide coverage under such contracts for part-time township 26461 employees and their immediate dependents, from the funds or 26462 budgets from which the officers or employees are compensated for 26463 services, provided that each officer and employee so covered is 26464 permitted to: 26465

(1) Choose between a plan offered by an insurance company and 26466 a plan offered by a health insuring corporation, and provided 26467 further that the officer or employee pays any amount by which the 26468 cost of the plan chosen exceeds the cost of the plan offered by 26469 the board under this section; 26470

(2) Change the choice made under this division at a time each 26471 year as determined in advance by the board. 26472

An addition of a class or change of definition of coverage to 26473 the plan offered under this division by the board may be made at 26474 any time that it is determined by the board to be in the best 26475 interest of the township. If the total cost to the township of the 26476 revised plan for any trustee's coverage does not exceed that cost 26477 under the plan in effect during the prior policy year, the 26478 revision of the plan does not cause an increase in that trustee's 26479
compensation. 26480

(C) Any township officer or employee may refuse to accept any 26481 coverage authorized by this section without affecting the 26482 availability of such coverage to other township officers and 26483 employees. 26484

(D) If any township officer or employee is denied coverage 26485 under a health care plan procured under this section or if any 26486 township officer or employee elects not to participate in the 26487 township's health care plan, the township may reimburse the 26488 officer or employee for each out-of-pocket premium attributable to 26489 the coverage provided for the officer or employee for insurance 26490 benefits described in division (A) of this section that the 26491 officer or employee otherwise obtains, but not to exceed an amount 26492 equal to the average premium paid by the township for its officers 26493 and employees under any health care plan it procures under this 26494
section. 26495

(E) The board may provide the benefits authorized under this 26496 section, without competitive bidding, by contributing to a health 26497 and welfare trust fund administered through or in conjunction with 26498

a collective bargaining representative of the township employees. 26499

The board may also provide the benefits described in this 26500 section through an individual self-insurance program or a joint 26501 self-insurance program as provided in section 9.833 of the Revised 26502
Code. 26503

(F) If a board of township trustees fails to pay one or more 26504 premiums for a policy, contract, or plan of insurance or health 26505 care services authorized under this section and the failure causes 26506 a lapse, cancellation, or other termination of coverage under the 26507 policy, contract, or plan, it may reimburse a township officer or 26508 employee for, or pay on behalf of the officer or employee, any 26509 expenses incurred that would have been covered under the policy, 26510 contract, or plan. 26511

(G) As used in this section and section 505.601 of the 26512
Revised Code: 26513

(1) "Part-time township employee" means a township employee 26514 who is hired with the expectation that the employee will work not 26515 more than one thousand five hundred hours in any year. 26516

(2) "Premium" does not include any deductible or health care 26517 costs paid directly by a township officer or employee. 26518

Sec. 505.601. The following applies until the department of 26519
plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. 26521

If a board of township trustees does not procure an insurance 26522 policy or group health care services as provided in section 505.60 26523 of the Revised Code, the board of township trustees may reimburse 26524 any township officer or employee for each out-of-pocket premium 26525 attributable to the coverage provided for that officer or employee 26526 for insurance benefits described in division (A) of section 505.60 26527 of the Revised Code that the officer or employee otherwise 26528 obtains, if all of the following conditions are met: 26529

(A) The board of township trustees adopts a resolution that 26530 states that the township has chosen not to procure a health care 26531 plan under section 505.60 of the Revised Code and has chosen 26532 instead to reimburse its officers and employees for each 26533 out-of-pocket premium attributable to the coverage provided for 26534 them for insurance benefits described in division (A) of section 26535 505.60 of the Revised Code that they otherwise obtain. 26536

(B) That resolution provides for a uniform maximum monthly or 26537 yearly payment amount for each officer or employee to cover 26538 themselves and their immediate dependents, beyond which the 26539 township will not reimburse the officer or employee. 26540

(C) That resolution states the specific benefits listed in 26541 division (A) of section 505.60 of the Revised Code for which the 26542 township will reimburse all officers and employees of the 26543 township. The township may not reimburse officers and employees 26544 for benefits other than those listed in division (A) of section 26545
505.60 of the Revised Code. 26546

Sec. 505.603. The following applies until the department of 26547 administrative services implements for townships the health care 26548
plans under section 9.901 of the Revised Code. If those plans do 26549 not include or address any benefits incorporated in this section, 26550 the following provisions continue in effect for those benefits. 26551

In addition to or in lieu of providing benefits to township 26552 officers and employees under section 505.60, 505.601, or 505.602 26553 of the Revised Code, a board of township trustees may offer 26554 benefits to officers and employees through a cafeteria plan that 26555 meets the requirements of section 125 of the "Internal Revenue 26556 Code of 1986," 100 Stat. 2085, 26 U.S.C.A. 125, as amended, after 26557 first adopting a policy authorizing an officer or employee to 26558 receive a cash payment in lieu of a benefit otherwise offered to 26559 township officers or employees under any of those sections, but 26560 only if the cash payment does not exceed twenty-five per cent of 26561 the cost of premiums or payments that otherwise would be paid by 26562 the board for benefits for the officer or employee under an 26563 offered policy, contract, or plan. No cash payment in lieu of a 26564 benefit shall be made pursuant to this section unless the officer 26565 or employee signs a statement affirming that the officer or 26566 employee is covered under another health insurance or health care 26567 policy, contract, or plan in the case of a health benefit, or a 26568 life insurance policy in the case of a life insurance benefit, and 26569 setting forth the name of the employer, if any, that sponsors the 26570 coverage, the name of the carrier that provides the coverage, and 26571 an identifying number of the applicable policy, contract, or plan. 26572

Sec. 505.61. A board of township trustees may purchase a 26573 policy or policies of insurance to indemnify township constables 26574 appointed under Chapter 509. of the Revised Code or the chief of 26575 police, ~~patrolmen~~ patrol officers, and other employees of a 26576 township police district established under sections 505.48 to 26577 505.55 of the Revised Code against liability arising from the 26578 performance of their official duties. 26579

A joint police district board may purchase a policy or 26580 policies of insurance to indemnify the chief of police, patrol 26581 officers, and other employees of a joint police district 26582 established under section 505.482 of the Revised Code against 26583 liability arising from the performance of their duties. 26584

Sec. 505.67. (A) If the board of county commissioners of the 26585 county in which a township is located has not established a motor 26586 vehicle decal registration program under section 311.31 of the 26587 Revised Code, the board of township trustees may establish, by 26588 resolution, a voluntary motor vehicle decal registration program 26589 to be controlled and conducted by the chief law enforcement 26590 officer of the township within the unincorporated areas of the 26591 township. The board may establish a fee for participation in the 26592 program in an amount sufficient to cover the cost of administering 26593 the program and the cost of the decals. 26594

(B) Any resident of the township may enroll a motor vehicle 26595 that ~~he~~ the resident owns in the program by signing a consent 26596 form, displaying the decal issued under this section, and paying 26597 the prescribed fee. The motor vehicle owner shall remove the decal 26598 to withdraw from the program and also prior to the sale or 26599 transfer of ownership of the vehicle. Any law enforcement officer 26600 may conduct, at any place within this state at which the officer 26601 would be permitted to arrest the person operating the vehicle, an 26602 investigatory stop of any motor vehicle displaying a decal issued 26603 under this section when the vehicle is being driven between the 26604 hours of one a.m. and five a.m. A law enforcement officer may 26605 conduct an investigatory stop under this division regardless of 26606 whether the officer observes a violation of law involving the 26607 vehicle or whether ~~he~~ the officer has probable cause to believe 26608 that any violation of law involving the vehicle has occurred. 26609

(C) The consent form required under division (B) of this 26610 section shall: 26611

(1) Describe the conditions for participation in the program, 26612 including a description of an investigatory stop and a statement 26613 that any law enforcement officer may conduct, at any place within 26614 this state at which the officer would be permitted to arrest the 26615 person operating the vehicle, an investigatory stop of the motor 26616 vehicle when it is being driven between the hours of one a.m. and 26617 five a.m. 26618

(2) Contain other information identifying the vehicle and 26619 owner as the chief law enforcement officer of the township 26620 considers necessary. 26621

(D) The state director of public safety, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt rules governing the color, size, and design of decals issued under this section and the location where the decals shall be displayed on vehicles that are enrolled in the program.

(E) Divisions (A) to (D) of this section do not require a law enforcement officer to conduct an investigatory stop of a vehicle displaying a decal issued under this section.

(F) As used in this section:

(1) "Investigatory stop" means a temporary stop of a motor vehicle and its operator and occupants for purposes of determining the identity of the person who is operating the vehicle and, if the person who is operating it is not its owner, whether any violation of law has occurred or is occurring. An "investigatory stop" is not an arrest, but, if an officer who conducts an investigatory stop determines that illegal conduct has occurred or is ~~occurring~~ occurring, an "investigatory stop" may be the basis for an arrest.

(2) "Law enforcement officer" means a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, police officer of a township or joint ~~township~~ police district, marshal, deputy marshal, municipal police officer, or state highway patrol trooper.

Sec. 505.73. (A) The board of township trustees may, by resolution, adopt by incorporation by reference, administer, and enforce within the unincorporated area of the township an existing structures code pertaining to the repair and continued maintenance of structures and the premises of those structures. For that purpose, the board shall adopt any model or standard code prepared and promulgated by this state, any department, board, or agency of this state, or any public or private organization that publishes a recognized model or standard code on the subject. The board shall ensure that the code adopted governs subject matter not addressed 26653 by the state residential building code and that it is fully 26654 compatible with the state residential and nonresidential building 26655 codes the board of building standards adopts pursuant to section 26656

3781.10 of the Revised Code. 26657

(B) The board shall assign the duties of administering and 26658 enforcing the existing structures code to a township officer or 26659 employee who is trained and qualified for those duties and shall 26660 establish by resolution the minimum qualifications necessary to 26661 perform those duties. 26662

(C)(1) After the board adopts an existing structures code, 26663 the township fiscal officer shall post a notice that clearly 26664 identifies the code, states the code's purpose, and states that a 26665 complete copy of the code is on file for inspection by the public 26666 with the fiscal officer and in the county law library and that the 26667 fiscal officer has copies available for distribution to the public 26668 at cost. 26669

(2) The township fiscal officer shall post the notice in five 26670 conspicuous places in the township for thirty days before the code 26671 becomes effective and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of 26672 general circulation in the township for three consecutive weeks or 26673 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code. If the adopting 26674 township amends or deletes any provision of the code, the notice 26675 shall contain a brief summary of the deletion or amendment. 26676

(D) If the agency that originally promulgated or published 26677 the existing structures code amends the code, the board may adopt 26678 the amendment or change by incorporation by reference in the 26679 manner provided for the adoption of the original code. 26680

Sec. 507.09. (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (D) 26681 of this section, the township fiscal officer shall be entitled to 26682 compensation as follows: 26683

(1) In townships having a budget of fifty thousand dollars or less, three thousand five hundred dollars;	26684 26685
(2) In townships having a budget of more than fifty thousand but not more than one hundred thousand dollars, five thousand five hundred dollars;	26686 26687 26688
(3) In townships having a budget of more than one hundred thousand but not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, seven thousand seven hundred dollars;	26689 26690 26691
(4) In townships having a budget of more than two hundred fifty thousand but not more than five hundred thousand dollars, nine thousand nine hundred dollars;	26692 26693 26694
(5) In townships having a budget of more than five hundred thousand but not more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, eleven thousand dollars;	26695 26696 26697
(6) In townships having a budget of more than seven hundred fifty thousand but not more than one million five hundred thousand dollars, thirteen thousand two hundred dollars;	26698 26699 26700
(7) In townships having a budget of more than one million five hundred thousand but not more than three million five hundred thousand dollars, fifteen thousand four hundred dollars;	26701 26702 26703
(8) In townships having a budget of more than three million five hundred thousand dollars but not more than six million dollars, sixteen thousand five hundred dollars;	26704 26705 26706
(9) In townships having a budget of more than six million dollars, seventeen thousand six hundred dollars.	26707 26708
(B) Any township fiscal officer may elect to receive less than the compensation the fiscal officer is entitled to under division (A) of this section. Any township fiscal officer electing to do this shall so notify the board of township trustees in writing, and the board shall include this notice in the minutes of	26709 26710 26711 26712 26713

its next board meeting. 26714

(C) The compensation of the township fiscal officer shall be 26715 paid in equal monthly payments. If the office of township fiscal 26716 officer is held by more than one person during any calendar year, 26717 each person holding the office shall receive payments for only 26718 those months, and any fractions of those months, during which the 26719 person holds the office. 26720

A township fiscal officer may be compensated from the 26721 township general fund or from other township funds based on the 26722 proportion of time the township fiscal officer spends providing 26723 services related to each fund. A township fiscal officer must 26724 document the amount of time the township fiscal officer spends 26725 providing services related to each fund by certification 26726 specifying the percentage of time spent working on matters to be 26727 paid from the township general fund or from other township funds 26728 in such proportions as the kinds of services performed. 26729

(D) Beginning in calendar year 1999, the township fiscal 26730 officer shall be entitled to compensation as follows: 26731

(1) In calendar year 1999, the compensation specified in 26732 division (A) of this section increased by three per cent; 26733

(2) In calendar year 2000, the compensation determined under 26734 division (D)(1) of this section increased by three per cent; 26735

(3) In calendar year 2001, the compensation determined under 26736 park district for property owned by the state, another political 26990

(C)(1) A qualified elector of a municipal corporation or 27732 agreement is submitted to the village solicitor or city director 27917 appoint an architect or engineer licensed in this state to prepare 27932 such further detailed plans, specifications, and bills of 27933 materials as are required to construct the building, structure, or 27934 improvement. 27935

causing it to flow back or become stagnant, in a way prejudicial 27945 the neighborhood. If such culverts or drains are of insufficient 27947 resolution, direct the owner to fill or drain such lot, remove 27951 such putrid substance or such obstructions, and if necessary, 27952 publication thereof, in a newspaper of general circulation in such 27956 municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 27957 Revised Code, for two consecutive weeks, such owner, or ~~his~~ such 27958 owner's agent or attorney, shall comply with the directions of the 27959 resolution within the time therein specified. 27960

In case of the failure or refusal of such owner to comply 27961 with the resolution, the work required thereby may be done at the 27962 expense of the municipal corporation, and the amount of money so 27963 expended shall be recovered from the owner before any court of 27964 competent jurisdiction. Such expense from the time of the adoption 27965 of the resolution shall be a lien on such lot, which may be 27966 enforced by suit in the court of common pleas, and like 27967 proceedings may be had as directed in relation to the improvement 27968 of streets. 27969

The officers connected with the health department of every 27970 the question of the income tax will be submitted to the electors 28441 of the municipal corporation on the same date as the submission of 28442 questions of an identical tax to the electors of each of the other 28443 municipal corporations in the group, and that unless the electors 28444 of all of the municipal corporations in the group approve the tax 28445 in their respective municipal corporations, none of the municipal 28446 corporations in the group shall levy the tax. Each legislative 28447 authority also shall adopt a resolution specifying the regular or 28448 special election date the election will be held and directing the 28449 board of elections to conduct the election. At least ninety days 28450 before the date of the election, each legislative authority shall 28451 file certified copies of the ordinance and resolution with the 28452 board of elections. 28453

(C) For each of the municipal corporations, the board of 28454 elections shall make the necessary arrangements for the submission 28455 of the question to the electors, and shall conduct the election in 28456 the same manner as any other municipal income tax election. For 28457 each of the municipal corporations, notice of the election shall 28458 be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the 28459 municipal corporation once a week for four consecutive weeks, or 28460 as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, prior to the 28461 election. The notice shall include a statement of the rate and 28462 municipal corporation and school district purposes of the income 28463 tax, the percentage of tax revenue that will be paid to the school 28464 district, and the first year the tax will be levied, and an 28465 explanation that the tax will not be levied unless an identical 28466 tax is approved by the electors of each of the other municipal 28467 corporations in the group. The ballot shall be in the following 28468 publication once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper 28532 of general circulation in the municipal corporation or as provided 28533 in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, and the legislative authority 28534 may thereupon pass an ordinance by a two-thirds vote of all 28535 members elected thereto, directing such appropriation to proceed. 28536

Sec. 721.03. No contract, except as provided in section 28537 721.28 of the Revised Code, for the sale or lease of real estate 28538 belonging to a municipal corporation shall be made unless 28539 authorized by an ordinance, approved by a two-thirds vote of the 28540 members of the legislative authority of such municipal 28541 corporation, and by the board or officer having supervision or 28542 management of such real estate. When the contract is so 28543 authorized, it shall be made in writing by such board or officer, 28544 and, except as provided in section 721.27 of the Revised Code, 28545 only with the highest bidder, after advertisement once a week for 28546 five consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation 28547 within the municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of 28548 the Revised Code. Such board or officer may reject any bids and 28549 readvertise until all such real estate is sold or leased. 28550

Sec. 721.15. (A) Personal property not needed for municipal 28551 purposes, the estimated value of which is less than one thousand 28552 dollars, may be sold by the board or officer having supervision or 28553 management of that property. If the estimated value of that 28554 property is one thousand dollars or more, it shall be sold only 28555 when authorized by an ordinance of the legislative authority of 28556 the municipal corporation and approved by the board, officer, or 28557 director having supervision or management of that property. When 28558 so authorized, the board, officer, or director shall make a 28559 written contract with the highest and best bidder after 28560 advertisement for not less than two ~~or~~ nor more than four 28561 lawful terms as are agreed upon, as provided by division (B)(1) of 28565

(B) When the legislative authority finds, by resolution, that 28567 the municipal corporation has vehicles, equipment, or machinery 28568 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 28569 that the municipal corporation has need of other vehicles, 28570 equipment, or machinery of the same type, and that it will be in 28571 the best interest of the municipal corporation that the sale of 28572 obsolete, unneeded, or unfit vehicles, equipment, or machinery be 28573 made simultaneously with the purchase of the new vehicles, 28574 equipment, or machinery of the same type, the legislative 28575 authority may offer to sell, or authorize a board, officer, or 28576 director of the municipal corporation having supervision or 28577 management of the property to offer to sell, those vehicles, 28578 machinery and to consummate the sale and purchase by a single 28581 contract with the lowest and best bidder to be determined by 28582 subtracting from the selling price of the vehicles, equipment, or 28583 machinery to be purchased by the municipal corporation the 28584 purchase price offered for the municipally-owned vehicles, 28585 equipment, or machinery. When the legislative authority or the 28586 authorized board, officer, or director of a municipal corporation 28587 advertises for bids for the sale of new vehicles, equipment, or 28588 machinery to the municipal corporation, they may include in the 28589 same advertisement a notice of willingness to accept bids for the 28590 purchase of municipally-owned vehicles, equipment, or machinery 28591 which is obsolete, or is not needed or is unfit for public use, 28592 and to have the amount of those bids subtracted from the selling 28593 price as a means of determining the lowest and best bidder. 28594

(C) If the legislative authority of the municipal corporation 28595 determines that municipal personal property is not needed for 28596 public use, or is obsolete or unfit for the use for which it was 28597 acquired, and that the property has no value, the legislative 28598 authority may discard or salvage that property. 28599 description of how the auctions will be conducted and shall 28610 specify the number of days for bidding on the property, which 28611 shall be no less than ten days, including Saturdays, Sundays, and 28612 legal holidays. The resolution shall indicate whether the 28613 municipal corporation will conduct the auction or the legislative 28614 authority will contract with a representative to conduct the 28615 auction and shall establish the general terms and conditions of 28616 sale. If a representative is known when the resolution is adopted, 28617 the resolution shall provide contact information such as the 28618 representative's name, address, and telephone number. 28619

After adoption of the resolution, the legislative authority 28620 shall publish, in a newspaper of general circulation in the 28621 municipal corporation or as provided in section 7.16 of the 28622 Revised Code, notice of its intent to sell unneeded, obsolete, or 28623 auditor, and the legislative authority, ~~and, if.~~ If the municipal 28631 corporation maintains a ~~website~~ web site on the internet, the 28632 notice shall be posted continually throughout the calendar year at 28633 that ~~website~~ web site. 28634

When the property is to be sold by internet auction, the 28635 legislative authority or its representative may establish a 28636 minimum price that will be accepted for specific items and may 28637 establish any other terms and conditions for the particular sale, 28638 including requirements for pick-up or delivery, method of payment, 28639 and sales tax. This type of information shall be provided on the 28640 internet at the time of the auction and may be provided before 28641 that time upon request after the terms and conditions have been 28642 determined by the legislative authority or its representative. 28643

Sec. 721.20. Notice of the filing, pendency, and prayer of 28644 the petition provided for by section 721.19 of the Revised Code 28645 the municipal corporation or any designated part thereof, which 28789 property shall be described in the ordinance, a preliminary 28790 assessment upon the benefited lots and lands within the 28791 corporation or such part thereof, apportioned according to 28792 date set for the hearing. At such hearing, or at any adjournment 28811 thereof, of which no further published notice need be given, the 28812 legislative authority shall hear all persons whose properties are 28813 proposed to be assessed, and such evidence as is deemed to be 28814 necessary, and shall then determine the necessity of the proposed 28815 improvement and in addition shall determine whether the 28816 direct the preparation of tentative assessments upon the benefited 28818 assessments shall be payable in such number of years as the 28837 legislative authority determines, not to exceed twenty years, 28838 together with interest on any notes and bonds which may be issued 28839 in anticipation of the collection thereof. 28840

Upon completion of the tentative assessments or any 28841 additional assessments, they shall be filed with the clerk of the 28842 legislative authority and shall be and remain open to public 28843 inspection, and thereupon, the legislative authority shall give at 28844 least ten days' notice of the filing thereof in one newspaper of 28845 notice as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised Code, which 28847 notice shall state the time and place when and where such 28848 tentative assessments shall be taken up for consideration. At such 28849 time and place or at any adjournment thereof, of which no further 28850 published notice need be given, the legislative authority shall 28851 hear all persons whose properties are proposed to be assessed, 28852 shall correct any errors and make any revisions that appear to be 28853

The assessments levied by such ordinance shall be certified 28857 to the county auditor for collection as other taxes in the year or 28858 years in which they are payable; provided any such assessment in 28859 the amount of five dollars or less, or any unpaid balance of any 28860 such assessment which is five dollars or less, shall be paid in 28861 installment would otherwise become due and payable. 28863

Upon the adoption of such ordinance levying assessments the 28864 legislative authority may authorize contracts to carry out the 28865 purposes for which such assessments have been levied without the 28866 prior issuance of notes and bonds; provided that the payments due 28867 by the municipal corporation do not fall due prior to the times in 28868 which such assessments shall be collected. The municipal 28869 corporation may also issue and sell its bonds with a maximum 28870 maturity of twenty years in anticipation of the collection of such 28871 assessments and may issue its notes in anticipation of the 28872 issuance of such bonds, which notes and bonds shall be issued and 28873 sold as provided in Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. 28874

Code, when any expenditure, other than the compensation of persons 28884 employed in the village, exceeds ~~twenty-five~~ fifty thousand 28885 dollars, such contracts shall be in writing and made with the 28886 lowest and best bidder after advertising once a week for not less 28887

act. 30538

Sec. 1503.05. (A) The chief of the division of forestry may 30539 sell timber and other forest products from the state forest and 30540 state forest nurseries whenever the chief considers such a sale 30541 desirable and, with the approval of the attorney general and the 30542 director of natural resources, may sell portions of the state 30543 forest lands when such a sale is advantageous to the state. 30544

(B) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a timber 30545 sale agreement shall not be executed unless the person or 30546 governmental entity bidding on the sale executes and files a 30547 surety bond conditioned on completion of the timber sale in 30548 accordance with the terms of the agreement in an amount equal to 30549 twenty-five per cent of the highest value cutting section. All 30550 bonds shall be given in a form prescribed by the chief and shall 30551 run to the state as obligee. 30552

The chief shall not approve any bond until it is personally 30553 signed and acknowledged by both principal and surety, or as to 30554 either by the attorney in fact thereof, with a certified copy of 30555 the power of attorney attached. The chief shall not approve the 30556 bond unless there is attached a certificate of the superintendent 30557 of insurance that the company is authorized to transact a fidelity 30558 and surety business in this state. 30559

In lieu of a bond, the bidder may deposit any of the 30560
following: 30561

(1) Cash in an amount equal to the amount of the bond; 30562

(2) United States government securities having a par value 30563 equal to or greater than the amount of the bond; 30564

(3) Negotiable certificates of deposit or irrevocable letters 30565 of credit issued by any bank organized or transacting business in 30566 this state having a par value equal to or greater than the amount 30567 of the bond. 30568

The cash or securities shall be deposited on the same terms 30569 as bonds. If one or more certificates of deposit are deposited in 30570 lieu of a bond, the chief shall require the bank that issued any 30571 of the certificates to pledge securities of the aggregate market 30572 value equal to the amount of the certificate or certificates that 30573 is in excess of the amount insured by the federal deposit 30574 insurance corporation. The securities to be pledged shall be those 30575 designated as eligible under section 135.18 of the Revised Code. 30576

The securities shall be security for the repayment of the 30577 certificate or certificates of deposit. 30578

Immediately upon a deposit of cash, securities, certificates 30579 of deposit, or letters of credit, the chief shall deliver them to 30580 the treasurer of state, who shall hold them in trust for the 30581 purposes for which they have been deposited. The treasurer of 30582 state is responsible for the safekeeping of the deposits. A bidder 30583 making a deposit of cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or 30584 letters of credit may withdraw and receive from the treasurer of 30585 state, on the written order of the chief, all or any portion of 30586 the cash, securities, certificates of deposit, or letters of 30587 credit upon depositing with the treasurer of state cash, other 30588 United States government securities, or other negotiable 30589 certificates of deposit or irrevocable letters of credit issued by 30590 any bank organized or transacting business in this state, equal in 30591 par value to the par value of the cash, securities, certificates 30592 of deposit, or letters of credit withdrawn. 30593

A bidder may demand and receive from the treasurer of state 30594 all interest or other income from any such securities or 30595 certificates as it becomes due. If securities so deposited with 30596 and in the possession of the treasurer of state mature or are 30597 called for payment by their issuer, the treasurer of state, at the 30598 request of the bidder who deposited them, shall convert the 30599 proceeds of the redemption or payment of the securities into other 30600 United States government securities, negotiable certificates of 30601 deposit, or cash as the bidder designates. 30602

When the chief finds that a person or governmental agency has failed to comply with the conditions of the person's or governmental agency's bond, the chief shall make a finding of that fact and declare the bond, cash, securities, certificates, or letters of credit forfeited. The chief thereupon shall certify the total forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to collect the amount of the bond, cash, securities, certificates, or letters of credit.

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety, at its option, may cause the timber sale to be completed or pay to the treasurer of state the cost thereof.

All moneys collected as a result of forfeitures of bonds, cash, securities, certificates, and letters of credit under this section shall be credited to the state forest fund created in this section.

(C) The chief may grant easements and leases on portions of the state forest lands and state forest nurseries under terms that are advantageous to the state, and the chief may grant mineral rights on a royalty basis on those lands and nurseries, with the approval of the attorney general and the director.

(D) All moneys received from the sale of state forest lands, or in payment for easements or leases on or as rents from those lands or from state forest nurseries, shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the state forest fund, which is hereby created. In addition, all moneys received from federal grants, payments, and reimbursements, from the sale of reforestation tree stock, from the sale of forest products, other than standing timber, and from the sale of minerals taken from the state forest lands and state forest nurseries, together with royalties from mineral rights, shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the state forest fund. Any other revenues derived from the operation of the state forests and related facilities or equipment also shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit 30635 of the state forest fund, as shall contributions received for the 30636 issuance of Smokey Bear license plates under section 4503.574 of 30637 the Revised Code and any other moneys required by law to be 30638 deposited in the fund. 30639

The state forest fund shall not be expended for any purpose 30640 other than the administration, operation, maintenance, 30641 development, or utilization of the state forests, forest 30642 nurseries, and forest programs, for facilities or equipment 30643 incident to them, or for the further purchase of lands for state 30644 forest or forest nursery purposes and, in the case of 30645 contributions received pursuant to section 4503.574 of the Revised 30646
Code, for fire prevention purposes. 30647

All moneys received from the sale of standing timber taken 30648 from state forest lands and state forest nurseries shall be 30649 deposited into the state treasury to the credit of the forestry 30650 holding account redistribution fund, which is hereby created. The 30651 moneys shall remain in the fund until they are redistributed in 30652 accordance with this division. 30653

The redistribution shall occur at least once each year. To 30654 begin the redistribution, the chief first shall determine the 30655 amount of all standing timber sold from state forest lands and 30656 state forest nurseries, together with the amount of the total sale 30657 proceeds, in each county, in each township within the county, and 30658 in each school district within the county. The chief next shall 30659 determine the amount of the direct costs that the division of 30660 forestry incurred in association with the sale of that standing 30661 timber. The amount of the direct costs shall be subtracted from 30662 the amount of the total sale proceeds and shall be transferred 30663 from the forestry holding account redistribution fund to the state 30664 forest fund. 30665

The remaining amount of the total sale proceeds equals the 30666 net value of the standing timber that was sold. The chief shall 30667 determine the net value of standing timber sold from state forest 30668 lands and state forest nurseries in each county, in each township 30669 within the county, and in each school district within the county 30670 and shall send to each county treasurer a copy of the 30671 determination at the time that moneys are paid to the county 30672 treasurer under this division. 30673

~~Twenty-five~~ Thirty-five per cent of the net value of standing 30674 timber sold from state forest lands and state forest nurseries 30675 located in a county shall be transferred from the forestry holding 30676 account redistribution fund to the state forest fund. ~~Ten per cent~~ 30677 ~~of that net value shall be transferred from the forestry holding~~ 30678 ~~account redistribution fund to the general revenue fund.~~ The 30679 remaining sixty-five per cent of the net value shall be 30680 transferred from the forestry holding account redistribution fund 30681 and paid to the county treasurer for the use of the general fund 30682 of that county. 30683

The county auditor shall do all of the following: 30684

(1) Retain for the use of the general fund of the county 30685 one-fourth of the amount received by the county under division (D) 30686
of this section; 30687

(2) Pay into the general fund of any township located within 30688 the county and containing such lands and nurseries one-fourth of 30689
the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 30690 lands and nurseries located in the township; 30691

(3) Request the board of education of any school district 30692 located within the county and containing such lands and nurseries 30693 to identify which fund or funds of the district should receive the 30694 moneys available to the school district under division (D)(3) of 30695 this section. After receiving notice from the board, the county 30696 auditor shall pay into the fund or funds so identified one-half of 30697

the amount received by the county from standing timber sold from 30698 lands and nurseries located in the school district, distributed 30699 proportionately as identified by the board. 30700

The division of forestry shall not supply logs, lumber, or 30701 other forest products or minerals, taken from the state forest 30702 lands or state forest nurseries, to any other agency or 30703 subdivision of the state unless payment is made therefor in the 30704 amount of the actual prevailing value thereof. This section is 30705 applicable to the moneys so received. 30706

(E) The chief may enter into a personal service contract for 30707 consulting services to assist the chief with the sale of timber or 30708 other forest products and related inventory. Compensation for 30709 consulting services shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of 30710 timber or other forest products and related inventory that are the 30711 subject of the personal service contract. 30712

Sec. 1503.141. There is hereby created in the state treasury 30713 the wildfire suppression fund. The fund shall consist of any 30714 federal moneys received for the purposes of this section and 30715 donations, gifts, bequests, and other moneys received for those 30716 purposes. In addition, the chief of the division of forestry 30717 annually may request that the director of budget and management 30718 transfer, and, if so requested, the director shall transfer, not 30719 more than one hundred thousand dollars to the wildfire suppression 30720 fund from the ~~general revenue~~ state forest fund created in section 30721 1503.05 of the Revised Code. The amount transferred shall consist 30722 only of money deposited into the ~~general revenue~~ state forest fund 30723 from the sale of standing timber taken from state forest lands as 30724 set forth in that section ~~1503.05 of the Revised Code~~. 30725

The chief shall use moneys in the wildfire suppression fund 30726 to reimburse firefighting agencies and private fire companies for 30727 their costs incurred in the suppression of wildfires. The chief 30728 shall provide such reimbursement pursuant to agreements and 30729 contracts entered into under section 1503.14 of the Revised Code 30730 and in accordance with the following schedule: 30731

(A) For wildfire suppression on private land, an initial 30732 seventy-dollar payment to the firefighting agency or private fire 30733 company; 30734

(B) For wildfire suppression on land under the administration 30735 or care of the department of natural resources or on land that is 30736 part of any national forest administered by the United States 30737 department of agriculture forest service, an initial 30738 one-hundred-dollar payment to the firefighting agency or private 30739 fire company; 30740

(C) For any wildfire suppression on land specified in 30741 division (A) or (B) of this section lasting more than two hours, 30742 an additional payment of thirty-five dollars per hour. 30743

If at any time moneys in the fund exceed two hundred thousand 30744 dollars, the chief shall disburse the moneys that exceed that 30745 amount to the firefighting agencies and private fire companies in 30746 accordance with rules that the chief shall adopt in accordance 30747 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The rules shall establish 30748 requirements and procedures that are similar in purpose and 30749 operation to the federal rural community fire protection program 30750 established under the "Cooperative Forestry Assistance Act of 30751 1978," 92 Stat. 365, 16 U.S.C.A. 2101, as amended. 30752 fire company" have the same meanings as in section 9.60 of the 30754

Revised Code. 30755

responsibilities of the division of geological survey. The council 30897 shall include at least one representative from each of the 30898 following: the oil and gas industry, the industrial minerals 30899 industry, the coal industry, hydrogeology interests, environmental 30900 geology interests, and an institution of higher education in this 30901 state. The chief of the division of geological survey may 30902 participate in the deliberations of the council, but shall not 30903

(C) Review and make recommendations on the development of 30949 plans and programs for long-term, comprehensive geologic mapping 30950 and analysis throughout the state; 30951

(D) Recommend ways to enhance cooperation among governmental 30952 agencies having an interest in ~~Ohio~~ the geology of the state to 30953 encourage wise use and management of the geology and mineral 30954 resources of the state. To this end, the council shall request 30955 nonvoting representation from appropriate governmental agencies. 30956

(E) Review and make recommendations with respect to changes 30957 in the fee schedules established in rules adopted under section 30958
