of the following: 3027

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory law 3028 and case law as it existed at the time of violation or threatened 3029 violation that was the basis of the injunction, a well-informed 3030 public body reasonably would believe that the public body was not 3031 violating or threatening to violate this section; 3032

(ii) That a well-informed public body reasonably would 3033 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct that was the basis 3034 of the injunction would serve the public policy that underlies the 3035 authority that is asserted as permitting that conduct or 3036 threatened conduct. 3037

invested in that entity by the investor under this section does 3372 not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars. If an investor 3373

~~or may disapprove a credit for which a tax credit certificate has~~ 3390
~~been issued under section 122.152 of the Revised Code, if the~~ 3391
~~director determines that the entity in which the applicant~~ 3392 ~~proposes to invest or has invested is not an Ohio entity eligible~~ 3393
~~to receive investments that qualify for the credit. If the~~ 3394 ~~director disapproves an application, the director shall certify~~ 3395
~~the action to the investor, the Edison center that recommended the~~ 3396 ~~application, the industrial technology and enterprise advisory~~ 3397 ~~council, and the tax commissioner, together with a written~~ 3398

~~disapproves a tax credit after a tax credit certificate is issued,~~ 3400
~~the investor shall not claim the credit for the taxable year that~~ 3401 ~~includes the day the director disapproves the credit, or for any~~ 3402 ~~subsequent taxable year.~~ 3403 under which businesses periodically must submit information to 3556 enable the ~~center~~ department to maintain the accuracy of the list. 3557

At the times required in the schedule, each business on the list 3558

(E) The ~~Edison centers~~ director and the ~~industrial technology~~ 3565

~~and enterprise advisory council and its committee~~ commission do 3566 not assume any responsibility for the accuracy or truthfulness of 3567 information furnished by an Ohio entity or its agents. 3568

An investor in an Ohio entity is solely responsible for due 3569

Sec. 122.17. (A) As used in this section: 3574

(1) "Income tax revenue" means the total amount withheld 3575 under section 5747.06 of the Revised Code by the taxpayer during 3576 the taxable year, or during the calendar year that includes the 3577 tax period, from the compensation of each employee employed in the 3578 project to the extent the employee's withholdings are not used to 3579 determine the credit under section 122.171 of the Revised Code. 3580
"Income tax revenue" excludes amounts withheld before the day the 3581 taxpayer becomes eligible for the credit. 3582

(2) "Baseline income tax revenue" means income tax revenue 3583 except that the applicable withholding period is the twelve months 3584 immediately preceding the date the tax credit authority approves 3585 the taxpayer's application multiplied by the sum of one plus an 3586 annual pay increase factor to be determined by the tax credit 3587 authority. If the taxpayer becomes eligible for the credit after 3588 the first day of the taxpayer's taxable year or after the first 3589 day of the calendar year that includes the tax period, the 3590 taxpayer's baseline income tax revenue for the first such taxable 3591 or calendar year of credit eligibility shall be reduced in 3592 proportion to the number of days during the taxable or calendar 3593 year for which the taxpayer was not eligible for the credit. For 3594 subsequent taxable or calendar years, "baseline income tax 3595 revenue" equals the unreduced baseline income tax revenue for the 3596 preceding taxable or calendar year multiplied by the sum of one 3597 plus the pay increase factor. 3598

(3) "Excess income tax revenue" means income tax revenue 3599 minus baseline income tax revenue. 3600

(B) The tax credit authority may make grants under this 3601 section to foster job creation in this state. Such a grant shall 3602 take the form of a refundable credit allowed against the tax 3603 imposed by section 5725.18, 5726.02, 5729.03, 5733.06, or 5747.02 3604 or levied under Chapter 5751. of the Revised Code. The credit 3605 shall be claimed for the taxable years or tax periods specified in 3606 the taxpayer's agreement with the tax credit authority under 3607 division (D) of this section. With respect to taxes imposed under 3608 section 5726.02, 5733.06, or 5747.02 or Chapter 5751. of the 3609 Revised Code, the credit shall be claimed in the order required 3610 under section 5726.98, 5733.98, 5747.98, or 5751.98 of the Revised 3611 Code. The amount of the credit available for a taxable year or for 3612 a calendar year that includes a tax period equals the excess 3613 income tax revenue for that year multiplied by the percentage 3614 specified in the agreement with the tax credit authority. Any 3615 credit granted under this section against the tax imposed by 3616 section 5733.06 or 5747.02 of the Revised Code, to the extent not 3617 fully utilized against such tax for taxable years ending prior to 3618 2008, shall automatically be converted without any action taken by 3619
the tax credit authority to a credit against the tax levied under 3620
after July 1, 2008, provided that the person to whom the credit 3622 was granted is subject to such tax. The converted credit shall 3623
specified in the agreement end. 3625

(C) A taxpayer or potential taxpayer who proposes a project 3626 to create new jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit 3627 authority to enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this 3628 section. The director of development services shall prescribe the 3629 form of the application. After receipt of an application, the 3630 authority may enter into an agreement with the taxpayer for a 3631 credit under this section if it determines all of the following: 3632

(1) The taxpayer's project will increase payroll and income 3633 tax revenue; 3634

(2) The taxpayer's project is economically sound and will 3635 benefit the people of this state by increasing opportunities for 3636 employment and strengthening the economy of this state; 3637

(3) Receiving the tax credit is a major factor in the 3638 taxpayer's decision to go forward with the project. 3639

(D) An agreement under this section shall include all of the 3640
following: 3641

(1) A detailed description of the project that is the subject 3642 of the agreement; 3643

(2) The term of the tax credit, which shall not exceed 3644 fifteen years, and the first taxable year, or first calendar year 3645 that includes a tax period, for which the credit may be claimed; 3646

(3) A requirement that the taxpayer shall maintain operations 3647 at the project location for at least the greater of seven years or 3648 the term of the credit plus three years; 3649

(4) The percentage, as determined by the tax credit 3650 authority, of excess income tax revenue that will be allowed as 3651 the amount of the credit for each taxable year or for each 3652 calendar year that includes a tax period; 3653

(5) The pay increase factor to be applied to the taxpayer's 3654 baseline income tax revenue; 3655

(6) A requirement that the taxpayer annually shall report to 3656
the director of development services employment, tax withholding, 3657 investment, and other information the director needs to perform 3658

the director's duties under this section; 3659

(7) A requirement that the director of development services 3660 annually review the information reported under division (D)(6) of 3661 this section and verify compliance with the agreement; if the 3662 taxpayer is in compliance, a requirement that the director issue a 3663 certificate to the taxpayer stating that the information has been 3664 verified and identifying the amount of the credit that may be 3665 claimed for the taxable or calendar year; 3666

(8) A provision providing that the taxpayer may not relocate 3667
a substantial number of employment positions from elsewhere in 3668 this state to the project location unless the director of 3669 development services determines that the legislative authority of 3670 the county, township, or municipal corporation from which the 3671 employment positions would be relocated has been notified by the 3672 taxpayer of the relocation. 3673

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment 3674 position from one political subdivision to another political 3675
position unless the employment position in the first political 3677 subdivision is replaced. 3678

(E) If a taxpayer fails to meet or comply with any condition 3679 or requirement set forth in a tax credit agreement, the tax credit 3680 authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 3681 of the tax credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may 3682 take effect in the current taxable or calendar year. 3683

(F) Projects that consist solely of point-of-final-purchase 3684 retail facilities are not eligible for a tax credit under this 3685 section. If a project consists of both point-of-final-purchase 3686 retail facilities and nonretail facilities, only the portion of 3687 the project consisting of the nonretail facilities is eligible for 3688 a tax credit and only the excess income tax revenue from the 3689 nonretail facilities shall be considered when computing the amount 3690 of the tax credit. If a warehouse facility is part of a 3691 point-of-final-purchase retail facility and supplies only that 3692 facility, the warehouse facility is not eligible for a tax credit. 3693 Catalog distribution centers are not considered 3694 point-of-final-purchase retail facilities for the purposes of this 3695 division, and are eligible for tax credits under this section. 3696

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 3697
the department of development services or the tax credit authority 3698 by an applicant or recipient of a tax credit under this section, 3699 and any information taken for any purpose from such statements or 3700 information, are not public records subject to section 149.43 of 3701 the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of the authority may 3702 make use of the statements and other information for purposes of 3703 issuing public reports or in connection with court proceedings 3704 concerning tax credit agreements under this section. Upon the 3705 request of the tax commissioner or, if the applicant or recipient 3706 is an insurance company, upon the request of the superintendent of 3707 insurance, the chairperson of the authority shall provide to the 3708 commissioner or superintendent any statement or information 3709 submitted by an applicant or recipient of a tax credit in 3710 connection with the credit. The commissioner or superintendent 3711 shall preserve the confidentiality of the statement or 3712
information. 3713

(H) A taxpayer claiming a credit under this section shall 3714 submit to the tax commissioner or, if the taxpayer is an insurance 3715 company, to the superintendent of insurance, a copy of the 3716 director of ~~development's~~ development services' certificate of 3717 verification under division (D)(7) of this section with the 3718 taxpayer's tax report or return for the taxable year or for the 3719 calendar year that includes the tax period. Failure to submit a 3720

invalidate a claim for a credit if the taxpayer submits a copy of 3722
the certificate to the commissioner or superintendent within sixty 3723 days after the commissioner or superintendent requests it. 3724

(I) The director of development services, after consultation 3725 with the tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and 3726
in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 3727 rules necessary to implement this section. The rules may provide 3728 for recipients of tax credits under this section to be charged 3729 fees to cover administrative costs of the tax credit program. The 3730
operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 3732
the time the director gives public notice under division (A) of 3733
section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 3734
chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 3736
the senate and the house of representatives. 3737

(J) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 3738
a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 3739 subchapter S of chapter one of subtitle A of the Internal Revenue 3740 Code, or any other business entity through which income flows as a 3741 distributive share to its owners. A partnership, S-corporation, or 3742 other such business entity may elect to pass the credit received 3743
under this section through to the persons to whom the income or 3744 profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 3745 distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 3746 required under division (D)(6) of this section. The election 3747 applies to and is irrevocable for the credit for which the report 3748 is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 3749
in which the income or profit is distributed. 3751

(K) If the director of development services determines that a 3752 taxpayer who has received a credit under this section is not 3753 complying with the requirement under division (D)(3) of this 3754 section, the director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 3755 noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 3756 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the tax 3757 credit authority may require the taxpayer to refund to this state 3758 a portion of the credit in accordance with the following: 3759

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project 3760 location for a period less than or equal to the term of the 3761 credit, an amount not exceeding one hundred per cent of the sum of 3762 any credits allowed and received under this section; 3763

location for a period longer than the term of the credit, but less 3765 than the greater of seven years or the term of the credit plus 3766 three years, an amount not exceeding seventy-five per cent of the 3767 sum of any credits allowed and received under this section. 3768

In determining the portion of the tax credit to be refunded 3769 to this state, the tax credit authority shall consider the effect 3770 of market conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the 3771 taxpayer continues to maintain other operations in this state. 3772 After making the determination, the authority shall certify the 3773 amount to be refunded to the tax commissioner or superintendent of 3774 insurance, as appropriate. If the amount is certified to the 3775 commissioner, the commissioner shall make an assessment for that 3776 amount against the taxpayer under Chapter 5726., 5733., 5747., or 3777 5751. of the Revised Code. If the amount is certified to the 3778 superintendent, the superintendent shall make an assessment for 3779 that amount against the taxpayer under Chapter 5725. or 5729. of 3780 the Revised Code. The time limitations on assessments under those 3781 chapters do not apply to an assessment under this division, but 3782 the commissioner or superintendent, as appropriate, shall make the 3783 assessment within one year after the date the authority certifies 3784 to the commissioner or superintendent the amount to be refunded. 3785

(L) On or before the first day of August each year, the 3786
governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the 3788 house of representatives on the tax credit program under this 3789
section. The report shall include information on the number of 3790 agreements that were entered into under this section during the 3791 preceding calendar year, a description of the project that is the 3792 subject of each such agreement, and an update on the status of 3793
calendar year. 3795

(M) There is hereby created the tax credit authority, which 3796 consists of the director of development services and four other 3797 members appointed as follows: the governor, the president of the 3798 senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives each shall 3799 appoint one member who shall be a specialist in economic 3800 development; the governor also shall appoint a member who is a 3801 specialist in taxation. Of the initial appointees, the members 3802 appointed by the governor shall serve a term of two years; the 3803 members appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker 3804 of the house of representatives shall serve a term of four years. 3805 Thereafter, terms of office shall be for four years. Initial 3806 appointments to the authority shall be made within thirty days 3807 after January 13, 1993. Each member shall serve on the authority 3808 until the end of the term for which the member was appointed. 3809 Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner provided for original 3810 appointments. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring 3811 prior to the expiration of the term for which the member's 3812 predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the remainder of 3813 that term. Members may be reappointed to the authority. Members of 3814 the authority shall receive their necessary and actual expenses 3815 while engaged in the business of the authority. The director of 3816 development services shall serve as chairperson of the authority, 3817 and the members annually shall elect a vice-chairperson from among 3818 themselves. Three members of the authority constitute a quorum to 3819 transact and vote on the business of the authority. The majority 3820 vote of the membership of the authority is necessary to approve 3821 any such business, including the election of the vice-chairperson. 3822

The director of development services may appoint a 3823 professional employee of the department of development services to 3824 serve as the director's substitute at a meeting of the authority. 3825
The director shall make the appointment in writing. In the absence 3826 of the director from a meeting of the authority, the appointed 3827 substitute shall serve as chairperson. In the absence of both the 3828 director and the director's substitute from a meeting, the 3829 vice-chairperson shall serve as chairperson. 3830

(N) For purposes of the credits granted by this section 3831 against the taxes imposed under sections 5725.18 and 5729.03 of 3832 the Revised Code, "taxable year" means the period covered by the 3833 taxpayer's annual statement to the superintendent of insurance. 3834 or repair of buildings, machinery, or equipment, or for 3838 general assembly, September 29, 1997. 3899

(8) "Taxable year" includes, in the case of a domestic or 3900 division (C) of this section, the tax credit authority may grant 3913 the following credits against the tax imposed by section 5725.18, 3914 5726.02, 5729.03, 5733.06, 5747.02, or 5751.02 of the Revised 3915

(1) A nonrefundable credit to an eligible business; 3917

(a) The business retains at least one thousand full-time 3924 equivalent employees at the project site. 3925

(b) The business makes or causes to be made payments for a 3926 respect to which the credit is granted. 3931

(c) In 2010, the business received a written offer of 3932 financial incentives from another state of the United States that 3933 that state. 3936

(3) A refundable credit to an eligible business with a total 3937 annual payroll of at least twenty million dollars, provided that 3938 the tax credit authority grants the tax credit on or after July 1, 3939 2011, and before January 1, 2014. 3940

The credits authorized in divisions (B)(1), (2), and (3) of 3941 this section may be granted for a period up to fifteen taxable 3942 years or, in the case of the tax levied by section 5751.02 of the 3943 Revised Code, for a period of up to fifteen calendar years. The 3944 credit amount for a taxable year or a calendar year that includes 3945 the tax period for which a credit may be claimed equals the income 3946 tax revenue for that year multiplied by the percentage specified 3947 in the agreement with the tax credit authority. The percentage may 3948 not exceed seventy-five per cent. The credit shall be claimed in 3949 the order required under section 5725.98, 5726.98, 5729.98, 3950 5733.98, 5747.98, or 5751.98 of the Revised Code. In determining 3951

the percentage and term of the credit, the tax credit authority 3952 shall consider both the number of full-time equivalent employees 3953 and the value of the capital investment project. The credit amount 3954 may not be based on the income tax revenue for a calendar year 3955 before the calendar year in which the tax credit authority 3956 specifies the tax credit is to begin, and the credit shall be 3957 claimed only for the taxable years or tax periods specified in the 3958 eligible business' agreement with the tax credit authority. In no 3959 event shall the credit be claimed for a taxable year or tax period 3960 terminating before the date specified in the agreement. Any credit 3961 granted under this section against the tax imposed by section 3962 5733.06 or 5747.02 of the Revised Code, to the extent not fully 3963 utilized against such tax for taxable years ending prior to 2008, 3964 shall automatically be converted without any action taken by the 3965 tax credit authority to a credit against the tax levied under 3966

If a nonrefundable credit allowed under division (B)(1) of 3972 this section for a taxable year or tax period exceeds the 3973 taxpayer's tax liability for that year or period, the excess may 3974 be carried forward for the three succeeding taxable or calendar 3975 years, but the amount of any excess credit allowed in any taxable 3976 year or tax period shall be deducted from the balance carried 3977 forward to the succeeding year or period. 3978

(C) A taxpayer that proposes a capital investment project to 3979 retain jobs in this state may apply to the tax credit authority to 3980 enter into an agreement for a tax credit under this section. The 3981 director of development services shall prescribe the form of the 3982 application. After receipt of an application, the authority shall 3983 forward copies of the application to the director of budget and 3984 management, the tax commissioner, the superintendent of insurance 3985 in the case of an insurance company, and the director of 3986 complete the proposed capital investment project. 4000

(3) The taxpayer intends to and has the ability to maintain 4001 decision to begin, continue with, or complete the project. 4005

(5) If the taxpayer is applying to enter into an agreement 4006 for a tax credit authorized under division (B)(3) of this section, 4007
the taxpayer's capital investment project will be located in the 4008 political subdivision in which the taxpayer maintains its 4009 principal place of business. 4010 of the agreement, including the amount of the investment, the 4014

For purposes of this section, the movement of an employment position from one political subdivision to another political

position unless the movement is confined to the project site. The 4069 transfer of an employment position from one political subdivision 4070 to another political subdivision shall not be considered a 4071 relocation of an employment position if the employment position in 4072
the first political subdivision is replaced by another employment 4073 position. 4074

(8) A waiver by the taxpayer of any limitations periods 4075

authority may amend the agreement to reduce the percentage or term 4080 of the credit. The reduction of the percentage or term may take 4081 effect in the current taxable or calendar year. 4082

(G) Financial statements and other information submitted to 4083
by an applicant for or recipient of a tax credit under this 4085 section, and any information taken for any purpose from such 4086 statements or information, are not public records subject to 4087 section 149.43 of the Revised Code. However, the chairperson of 4088 the authority may make use of the statements and other information 4089 for purposes of issuing public reports or in connection with court 4090 proceedings concerning tax credit agreements under this section. 4091 Upon the request of the tax commissioner, or the superintendent of 4092

invalidate a claim for a credit if the taxpayer submits a copy of 4107
days after the commissioner or superintendent requests it. 4109

(I) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer may include 4110
a partnership, a corporation that has made an election under 4111

profit of the partnership, S-corporation, or other entity is 4117
distributed. The election shall be made on the annual report 4118 required under division (E)(5) of this section. The election 4119
is submitted. If the election is made, the credit shall be 4121

(J) If the director of development services determines that a 4124 taxpayer that received a tax credit under this section is not 4125 complying with the requirement under division (E)(3) of this 4126 section, the director shall notify the tax credit authority of the 4127
noncompliance. After receiving such a notice, and after giving the 4128 taxpayer an opportunity to explain the noncompliance, the 4129 authority may terminate the agreement and require the taxpayer to 4130 refund to the state all or a portion of the credit claimed in 4131 previous years, as follows: 4132

(1) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 4133 for less than or equal to the term of the credit, an amount not to 4134 exceed one hundred per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed 4135 and received under this section. 4136

(2) If the taxpayer maintained operations at the project site 4137 longer than the term of the credit, but less than the greater of 4138
(a) the term of the credit plus three years, or (b) seven years, 4139 the amount required to be refunded shall not exceed seventy-five 4140 per cent of the sum of any tax credits allowed and received under 4141
this section. 4142

In determining the portion of the credit to be refunded to 4143
this state, the authority shall consider the effect of market 4144 conditions on the taxpayer's project and whether the taxpayer 4145 continues to maintain other operations in this state. After making 4146 the determination, the authority shall certify the amount to be 4147 refunded to the tax commissioner or the superintendent of 4148 insurance. If the taxpayer is not an insurance company, the 4149 commissioner shall make an assessment for that amount against the 4150 taxpayer under Chapter 5726., 5733., 5747., or 5751. of the 4151 Revised Code. If the taxpayer is an insurance company, the 4152 superintendent of insurance shall make an assessment under section 4153 5725.222 or 5729.102 of the Revised Code. The time limitations on 4154 assessments under those chapters and sections do not apply to an 4155 assessment under this division, but the commissioner or 4156 superintendent shall make the assessment within one year after the 4157 date the authority certifies to the commissioner or superintendent 4158 the amount to be refunded. 4159

(K) The director of development services, after consultation 4160 with the tax commissioner and the superintendent of insurance and 4161
in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 4162

operating fund created in section 122.174 of the Revised Code. At 4167
section 119.03 of the Revised Code of the adoption of the rules, 4169
chairpersons of the standing committees on economic development in 4171

(L) On or before the first day of August of each year, the 4173
governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the 4175
preceding calendar year, a description of the project that is the 4179

(M)(1) The aggregate amount of tax credits issued under 4183 division (B)(1) of this section during any calendar year for 4184 by taxpayers in any calendar year for capital improvement projects 4194 reviewed and approved by the tax credit authority in 2011, 2012, 4195 and 2013 combined shall not exceed twenty-five million dollars. An 4196 amount equal to the aggregate amount of credits first authorized 4197 in calendar year 2011, 2012, and 2013 may be claimed over the 4198 ensuing period up to fifteen years, subject to the terms of 4199 individual tax credit agreements. 4200 determines is not an eligible production expenditure. If the 4613 director disallows an expenditure, the director shall issue a 4614 written notice to the motion picture production company stating 4615 that the expenditure is disallowed and the reason for the 4616 disallowance. Upon examination of the report and disallowance of 4617 any expenditures, the director shall determine finally the lesser 4618

(a) The employee is removed from the position in the 6292 unclassified service due to incompetence, inefficiency, 6293 dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, insubordination, 6294 discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of duty, violation 6295 of this chapter or the rules of the director of administrative 6296 services, any other failure of good behavior, any other acts of 6297 misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office, or conviction 6298 of a felony. ~~An employee also forfeits the right to resume a~~ 6299 ~~position in the classified service upon; or~~ 6300

(b) Upon transfer to a different agency. 6301

(4) Reinstatement to a position in the classified service 6302 shall be to a position substantially equal to that position in the 6303 classified service held previously, as certified by the director 6304 of administrative services. If the position the person previously 6305 held in the classified service has been placed in the unclassified 6306 service or is otherwise unavailable, the person shall be appointed 6307 to a position in the classified service within the appointing 6308 authority's agency that the director of administrative services 6309 certifies is comparable in compensation to the position the person 6310 previously held in the classified service. Service in the position 6311 in the unclassified service shall be counted as service in the 6312 position in the classified service held by the person immediately 6313 prior to the person's appointment to the position in the 6314 unclassified service. When a person is reinstated to a position in 6315 the classified service as provided in this division, the person is 6316 entitled to all rights, status, and benefits accruing to the 6317 position in the classified service during the person's time of 6318 service in the position in the unclassified service. 6319

Sec. 124.12. (A) Within ninety days after an appointing 6320 authority appoints an employee to an unclassified position in the 6321 service of the state, the appointing authority shall notify the 6322 department of administrative services of that appointment. 6323

(B) On the date an appointing authority appoints an employee 6324 to an unclassified position in the state service, the appointing 6325 authority shall provide the employee with written information 6326 describing the nature of employment in the unclassified civil 6327 service. Within thirty days after the date an appointing authority 6328 appoints an employee to an unclassified position in the state 6329 service, the appointing authority shall provide the employee with 6330 written information describing the duties of that position. 6331 Failure of the appointing authority to provide the written 6332 information described in this division to the employee does not 6333 confer any additional rights upon the employee in any appellate 6334 body with jurisdiction over an appeal of the employee. 6335

(C) The department shall develop and provide each appointing 6336 authority in the ~~state~~ service of the state with a general written 6337 description of the nature of employment in the unclassified civil 6338 service that shall be provided to employees under division (B) of 6339

Sec. 124.14. (A)(1) The director of administrative services 6341 shall establish, and may modify or rescind, by rule, a job 6342 classification plan for all positions, offices, and employments 6343 the salaries of which are paid in whole or in part by the state. 6344
The director shall group jobs within a classification so that the 6345 positions are similar enough in duties and responsibilities to be 6346 described by the same title, to have the same pay assigned with 6347 equity, and to have the same qualifications for selection applied. 6348

The director shall, by rule, assign a classification title to each 6349 classification within the classification plan. However, the 6350 director shall consider in establishing classifications, including 6351 classifications with parenthetical titles, and assigning pay 6352 ranges such factors as duties performed only on one shift, special 6353 skills in short supply in the labor market, recruitment problems, 6354 separation rates, comparative salary rates, the amount of training 6355 required, and other conditions affecting employment. The director 6356 shall describe the duties and responsibilities of the class, 6357 establish the qualifications for being employed in each position 6358 in the class, and file with the secretary of state a copy of 6359 specifications for all of the classifications. The director shall 6360 file new, additional, or revised specifications with the secretary 6361 of state before they are used. 6362

The director shall, by rule, assign each classification, 6363 either on a statewide basis or in particular counties or state 6364 institutions, to a pay range established under section 124.15 or 6365 section 124.152 of the Revised Code. The director may assign a 6366 classification to a pay range on a temporary basis for a period of 6367 six months. The director may establish, by rule adopted under 6368 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, experimental classification 6369 plans for some or all employees paid directly by warrant of the 6370 director of budget and management. The rule shall include 6371 specifications for each classification within the plan and shall 6372 specifically address compensation ranges, and methods for 6373 advancing within the ranges, for the classifications, which may be 6374 assigned to pay ranges other than the pay ranges established under 6375 section 124.15 or 124.152 of the Revised Code. 6376

(2) The director of administrative services may reassign to a 6377 proper classification those positions that have been assigned to 6378 an improper classification. If the compensation of an employee in 6379 such a reassigned position exceeds the maximum rate of pay for the 6380 employee's new classification, the employee shall be placed in pay 6381 step X and shall not receive an increase in compensation until the 6382 maximum rate of pay for that classification exceeds the employee's 6383 compensation. 6384

(3) The director may reassign an exempt employee, as defined 6385 in section 124.152 of the Revised Code, to a bargaining unit 6386 classification if the director determines that the bargaining unit 6387 classification is the proper classification for that employee. 6388 Notwithstanding Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code or instruments 6389 and contracts negotiated under it, these placements are at the 6390 director's discretion. 6391

(4) The director shall, by rule, assign related 6392 classifications, which form a career progression, to a 6393 classification series. The director shall, by rule, assign each 6394 classification in the classification plan a five-digit number, the 6395 first four digits of which shall denote the classification series 6396 to which the classification is assigned. When a career progression 6397 encompasses more than ten classifications, the director shall, by 6398 rule, identify the additional classifications belonging to a 6399 classification series. The additional classifications shall be 6400 part of the classification series, notwithstanding the fact that 6401 the first four digits of the number assigned to the additional 6402 classifications do not correspond to the first four digits of the 6403 numbers assigned to other classifications in the classification 6404 series. 6405

~~(5) The director may establish, modify, or rescind a 6406 classification plan for county agencies that elect not to use the 6407 services and facilities of a county personnel department. The 6408 director shall establish any such classification plan by means of 6409 rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The rules 6410~~

~~shall include a methodology for the establishment of titles unique to county agencies, the use of state classification titles and classification specifications for common positions, the criteria for a county to meet in establishing its own classification plan, and the establishment of what constitutes a classification series for county agencies. The director may assess a county agency that chooses to use the classification plan a usage fee the director determines. All usage fees the department of administrative services receives shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the human resources fund created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code.~~

(1) Elected officials;

(2) Legislative employees, employees of the legislative service commission, employees in the office of the governor, employees who are in the unclassified civil service and exempt from collective bargaining coverage in the office of the secretary of state, auditor of state, treasurer of state, and attorney general, and employees of the supreme court;

(4) Any position for which the authority to determine compensation is given by law to another individual or entity;

(5) Employees of the bureau of workers' compensation whose compensation the administrator of workers' compensation establishes under division (B) of section 4121.121 of the Revised Code.

(C) The director may employ a consulting agency to aid and assist the director in carrying out this section. 6442

(D)(1) When the director proposes to modify a classification 6443 or the assignment of classes to appropriate pay ranges, the 6444 director shall send written notice of the proposed rule to the 6445 appointing authorities of the affected employees thirty days 6446 before a hearing on the proposed rule. The appointing authorities 6447 shall notify the affected employees regarding the proposed rule. 6448
The director also shall send those appointing authorities notice 6449 of any final rule that is adopted within ten days after adoption. 6450

(2) When the director proposes to reclassify any employee so 6451 that the employee is adversely affected, the director shall give 6452 to the employee affected and to the employee's appointing 6453 authority a written notice setting forth the proposed new 6454 classification, pay range, and salary. Upon the request of any 6455 classified employee in the service of the state who is not serving 6456 in a probationary period, the director shall perform a job audit 6457 to review the classification of the employee's position to 6458 determine whether the position is properly classified. The 6459 director shall give to the employee affected and to the employee's 6460 appointing authority a written notice of the director's 6461 determination whether or not to reclassify the position or to 6462 reassign the employee to another classification. An employee or 6463 appointing authority desiring a hearing shall file a written 6464 request for the hearing with the state personnel board of review 6465 within thirty days after receiving the notice. The board shall set 6466 the matter for a hearing and notify the employee and appointing 6467 authority of the time and place of the hearing. The employee, the 6468 appointing authority, or any authorized representative of the 6469 employee who wishes to submit facts for the consideration of the 6470 board shall be afforded reasonable opportunity to do so. After the 6471 hearing, the board shall consider anew the reclassification and 6472 may order the reclassification of the employee and require the 6473 director to assign the employee to such appropriate classification 6474 as the facts and evidence warrant. As provided in division (A)(1) 6475 of section 124.03 of the Revised Code, the board may determine the 6476 most appropriate classification for the position of any employee 6477 coming before the board, with or without a job audit. The board 6478 shall disallow any reclassification or reassignment classification 6479 of any employee when it finds that changes have been made in the 6480 duties and responsibilities of any particular employee for 6481 political, religious, or other unjust reasons. 6482

(E)(1) Employees of each county department of job and family 6483 services shall be paid a salary or wage established by the board 6484 of county commissioners. The provisions of section 124.18 of the 6485 Revised Code concerning the standard work week apply to employees 6486 of county departments of job and family services. A board of 6487 county commissioners may do either of the following: 6488

(a) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 6489 supplement the sick leave, vacation leave, personal leave, and 6490 other benefits of any employee of the county department of job and 6491 family services of that county, if the employee is eligible for 6492 the supplement under a written policy providing for the 6493 supplement; 6494

(b) Notwithstanding any other section of the Revised Code, 6495 personal leave, or other benefits for employees not inconsistent 6497 with the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement covering 6498 the affected employees. 6499

(2) Division (E)(1) of this section does not apply to 6500 employees for whom the state employment relations board 6501 establishes appropriate bargaining units pursuant to section 6502 4117.06 of the Revised Code, except in either of the following 6503 situations: 6504

(b) After the state employment relations board establishes appropriate bargaining units for such employees, all employee organizations withdraw from a representation election.

(2) Each board of trustees shall adopt rules under section 111.15 of the Revised Code to carry out the matters of governance described in division (F)(1) of this section. Until the board of trustees adopts those rules, a state university or college shall continue to operate pursuant to the applicable rules adopted by the director of administrative services under this chapter.

(G)(1) Each board of county commissioners may, by a resolution adopted by a majority of its members, establish a county personnel department to exercise the powers, duties, and functions specified in division (G) of this section. As used in division (G) of this section, "county personnel department" means a county personnel department established by a board of county commissioners under division (G)(1) of this section.

and functions specified in sections 124.01 to 124.64 and Chapter 6538

of the county, except for the powers and duties of the state 6540 personnel board of review, which powers and duties shall not be 6541 construed as having been modified or diminished in any manner by 6542 division (G)(2) of this section, with respect to the employees for 6543 whom the board of county commissioners is the appointing authority 6544 or co-appointing authority. 6545

(b) Nothing in division (G)(2) of this section shall be 6546 construed to limit the right of any employee who possesses the 6547 right of appeal to the state personnel board of review to continue 6548 to possess that right of appeal. 6549

(c) Any board of county commissioners that has established a 6550 county personnel department may contract with the department of 6551 administrative services, in accordance with division (H) of this 6552 section, another political subdivision, or an appropriate public 6553 or private entity to provide competitive testing services or other 6554 appropriate services. 6555

(3) After the county personnel department of a county has 6556 been established as described in division (G)(2) of this section, 6557 any elected official, board, agency, or other appointing authority 6558 of that county, upon written notification to the county personnel 6559 department, may elect to use the services and facilities of the 6560 county personnel department. Upon receipt of the notification by 6561 the county personnel department, the county personnel department 6562 shall exercise the powers, duties, and functions as described in 6563 division (G)(2) of this section with respect to the employees of 6564 that elected official, board, agency, or other appointing 6565 adopted by a majority of its members, may disband the county 6568

(5) Any elected official, board, agency, or appointing 6570 authority of a county may end its involvement with a county 6571 personnel department upon actual receipt by the department of a 6572 certified copy of the notification that contains the decision to 6573 no longer participate. 6574 adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, prescribe criteria and procedures for the following:~~ 6576 carrying out its duties, shall adhere to merit system principles 6579 with regard to employees of county departments of job and family 6580 services, child support enforcement agencies, and public child 6581 welfare agencies so that there is no threatened loss of federal 6582 funding for these agencies, and a requirement that the county be 6583 with division (G)(6)(a) of this section shall be reimbursed to the 6587 department of administrative services as determined by the 6588 director. All money the department receives for these audits shall 6589 be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the human 6590 resources fund created in section 124.07 of the Revised Code. 6591~~ legally blind or legally deaf persons applying for positions in 6658 the classified service of the state to ensure that the abilities 6659 of such applicants are properly assessed and that such applicants 6660 are not subject to discrimination because they are legally blind 6661 or legally deaf persons. 6662

Sec. 124.241. As used in this section, "professional 6663 employee" has the same meaning as in section 5126.20 of the 6664 Revised Code and "registered service employee" means a service 6665 applicant, except as necessary to gather equal employment 6683 opportunity or other statistics that, when compiled, will not 6684 identify any specific individual. 6685

Blank forms for applications shall be furnished by the 6686 director or the director's designee without charge to any person 6687 requesting the same. The director or the director's designee may 6688 upon examinations for the class or position is not less than the 6709 minimum fixed by the rules of the director, and who are otherwise 6710 eligible. Those persons shall take rank upon the eligible list as 6711 candidates in the order of their relative excellence as determined 6712 by the examination without reference to priority of the time of 6713 examination. If two or more applicants receive the same mark in an 6714 open competitive examination, priority in the time of filing the 6715 application with the director or the director's designee shall 6716 determine the order in which their names shall be placed on the 6717 eligible list, except that applicants eligible for veteran's 6718 preference under section 124.23 of the Revised Code shall receive 6719 priority in rank on the eligible list over nonveterans on the list 6720 with a rating equal to that of the veteran. Ties among veterans 6721 shall be decided by priority of filing the application. 6722

— An eligible list expires upon the filling or closing of the 6723 position. An expired eligible list may be used to fill a position 6724 of the same classification within the same appointing authority 6725 for which the list was created. But, in no event shall an expired 6726 list be used more than one year past its expiration date. 6727 prescribed under those sections, shall be made only from those 6732 persons whose names take rank order on an eligible list, and no 6733 employment, except as provided in those sections, shall be 6734 otherwise given in the classified civil service of this state ~~or~~ 6735 ~~any political subdivision of the state~~. The appointing authority 6736 shall appoint in the following manner: each time a selection is 6737 made, it shall be from one of the names that ranks in the top 6738 twenty-five per cent of the eligible list. But, in the event that 6739 ten or fewer names are on the eligible list, the appointing 6740 authority may select any of the listed candidates, or if the top 6741 twenty-five per cent of the eligible list is ten or fewer names, 6742 the appointing authority may select from one of the names that 6743 rank in the top ten of the eligible list. Each person who 6744 qualifies for the veteran's preference under section 124.23 of the 6745 Revised Code, who is a resident of this state, and whose name is 6746 on the eligible list for a position is entitled to preference in 6747 original appointment to any such competitive position in the 6748 classified civil service of the state ~~and its civil divisions~~ over 6749

noncompetitive examination. 6781

A temporary appointment may be made without regard to the 6782 rules of sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code. Except as 6783 attainments in those qualities, the director may suspend the 6800 provisions of sections 124.01 to 124.64 of the Revised Code that 6801 require competition in this special case, but no suspension shall 6802 be general in its application. All such cases of suspension shall 6803 be reported in the annual report of the director with the reasons 6804 for each suspension. The director shall suspend the provisions 6805 when the director of job and family services provides the 6806 position with the department of job and family services can best 6808

be filled if the provisions are suspended. 6809

(3) The acceptance or refusal by an eligible person of a 6810 temporary appointment shall not affect the person's standing on 6811 the eligible list for permanent appointment, nor shall the period 6812 of temporary service be counted as a part of the probationary 6813 service in case of subsequent appointment to a permanent position. 6814

(B) Persons who receive temporary or intermittent 6815 appointments are in the unclassified civil service and serve at 6816 the pleasure of their appointing authority. 6817 release of money appropriated for specific projects in accordance 6909 with the requirements of this section and except that the director 6910 of budget and management may approve the release of unencumbered 6911 credit for any single year of the service shall be determined by 7744 using the number of days of service for which the compensation was 7745 received in any such year as a numerator and using two hundred 7746 fifty days as a denominator. 7747

(3) When the member is paid on an hourly basis, the service 7748

the service credit requirement and of determining eligibility for 7775 benefits under sections 145.32, 145.33, 145.331, 145.35, 145.36, 7776 and 145.361 of the Revised Code, "five or more years of total 7777 contributing service in this system. 7779 or more months of such employment, upon establishing membership in 7786 the public employees retirement system, shall make a payment of 7787

the contributions they would have paid had they been members of 7788 this system for the eighteen months of employment preceding the 7789 date membership was established. When that payment has been made 7790 by all such employee members, a corresponding payment shall be 7791 paid into the employers' accumulation fund by that municipal 7792 corporation as the employer of the employees. 7793

(3) Where a member also is a member of the state teachers 7794 retirement system or the school employees retirement system, or 7795 to section 145.37 of the Revised Code or as provided in section 7797 dividing by three the sum of the three full calendar years of 7816 contributing service in which the member's earnable salary was 7817 highest, except that if the member has a partial year of 7818 contributing service in the year the member's employment 7819 terminates and the member's earnable salary for the partial year 7820 is higher than for any comparable period in the three years, the 7821 member's earnable salary for the partial year shall be substituted 7822 for the member's earnable salary for the comparable period during 7823 the three years in which the member's earnable salary was lowest. 7824

(2) If a member has less than three years of contributing 7825 service, the member's final average salary shall be the member's 7826 total earnable salary divided by the total number of years, 7827 including any fraction of a year, of the member's contributing 7828 service. 7829

(3) For the purpose of calculating benefits payable to a 7830 member qualifying for service credit under division (Z) of this 7831 section, "final average salary" means the total earnable salary on 7832

145.483 of the Revised Code. In any year subsequent to 1934, 7951 credit for any service shall be allowed by the following formula: 7952

(a) For each month for which the member's earnable salary is 7953 two hundred fifty dollars or more, allow one month's credit. 7954

(b) For each month for which the member's earnable salary is 7955 less than two hundred fifty dollars, allow a fraction of a month's 7956 credit. The numerator of this fraction shall be the earnable 7957 salary during the month, and the denominator shall be two hundred 7958 fifty dollars, except that if the member's annual earnable salary 7959 is less than six hundred dollars, the member's credit shall not be 7960 reduced below twenty per cent of a year for a calendar year of 7961 employment during which the member worked each month. Division 7962 (T)(1)(b) of this section shall not reduce any credit earned 7963 before January 1, 1985. 7964

(2) Notwithstanding division (T)(1) of this section, an 7965 elected official who prior to January 1, 1980, was granted a full 7966 year of credit for each year of service as an elected official 7967 shall be considered to have earned a full year of credit for each 7968 part-time. The public employees retirement board has no authority 7970 to reduce the credit. 7971 employer or the date of the employee's death, whichever occurs 7982 first. 7983

(Y) When a member has been elected or appointed to an office, 7984 the term of which is two or more years, for which an annual salary 7985 is established, and in the event that the salary of the office is 7986 increased and the member is denied the additional salary by reason 7987 of any constitutional provision prohibiting an increase in salary 7988 during a term of office, the member may elect to have the amount 7989 of the member's contributions calculated upon the basis of the 7990 increased salary for the office. At the member's request, the 7991 board shall compute the total additional amount the member would 7992 have contributed, or the amount by which each of the member's 7993 contributions would have increased, had the member received the 7994 increased salary for the office the member holds. If the member 7995 elects to have the amount by which the member's contribution would 7996 have increased withheld from the member's salary, the member shall 7997 notify the employer, and the employer shall make the withholding 7998 and transmit it to the retirement system. A member who has not 7999 elected to have that amount withheld may elect at any time to make 8000 a payment to the retirement system equal to the additional amount 8001 the member's contribution would have increased, plus interest on 8002 that contribution, compounded annually at a rate established by 8003 the board and computed from the date on which the last 8004 contribution would have been withheld from the member's salary to 8005 the date of payment. A member may make a payment for part of the 8006 period for which the increased contribution was not withheld, in 8007 which case the interest shall be computed from the date the last 8008 contribution would have been withheld for the period for which the 8009 payment is made. Upon the payment of the increased contributions 8010 as provided in this division, the increased annual salary as 8011 provided by law for the office for the period for which the member 8012 paid increased contributions thereon shall be used in determining 8013 the member's earnable salary for the purpose of computing the 8014 member's final average salary. 8015

(Z) "Five years of service credit," for the exclusive purpose 8016 of satisfying the service credit requirements and of determining 8017 eligibility for benefits under section 145.33 of the Revised Code, 8018 director may require applicants to furnish documentation of such 8483 estimates. 8484

The director, after consultation with the tax commissioner 8485 and in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall 8486 adopt rules that establish all of the following: 8487

(1) Forms and procedures by which applicants may apply for 8488 rehabilitation tax credit certificates; 8489

(2) Criteria for reviewing, evaluating, and approving 8490 applications for certificates within the limitations under 8491 division (D) of this section, criteria for assuring that the certificates issued encompass a mixture of high and low qualified rehabilitation expenditures, and criteria for issuing certificates under division (C)(3)(b) of this section;

(3) Eligibility requirements for obtaining a certificate under this section;

(4) The form of rehabilitation tax credit certificates;

(5) Reporting requirements and monitoring procedures;

(6) Procedures and criteria for conducting cost-benefit analyses of historic buildings that are the subjects of applications filed under this section. The purpose of a cost-benefit analysis shall be to determine whether rehabilitation of the historic building will result in a net revenue gain in state and local taxes once the building is used.

(7) Any other rules necessary to implement and administer this section.

(C) The director of development services shall review the applications with the assistance of the state historic preservation officer and determine whether all of the following criteria are met:

(1) That the building that is the subject of the application is a an historic building and the applicant is the owner of the building;

(2) That the rehabilitation will satisfy standards prescribed by the United States secretary of the interior under 16 U.S.C. 470, et seq., as amended, and 36 C.F.R. 67.7 or a successor to that section;

(a) The applicant's decision to rehabilitate the historic building; or 8522

(b) To increase the level of investment in such 8523 rehabilitation. 8524

An applicant shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the 8525 state historic preservation officer and director of development 8526 services that the rehabilitation will satisfy the standards 8527 described in division (C)(2) of this section before the applicant 8528 begins the physical rehabilitation of the historic building. 8529

(D)(1) If the director of development services determines 8530 that an application meets the criteria in divisions (C)(1), (2), 8531 and (3) of this section, the director shall conduct a cost-benefit 8532 analysis for the historic building that is the subject of the 8533 application to determine whether rehabilitation of the historic 8534 building will result in a net revenue gain in state and local 8535 taxes once the building is used. The director shall consider the 8536 results of the cost-benefit analysis in determining whether to 8537 approve the application. The director shall also consider the 8538 potential economic impact and the regional distributive balance of 8539 the credits throughout the state. The director may approve an 8540 application only after completion of the cost-benefit analysis. 8541

(2) A rehabilitation tax credit certificate shall not be 8542 issued for an amount greater than the estimated amount furnished 8543 by the applicant on the application for such certificate and 8544 approved by the director. The director shall not approve more than 8545 a total of sixty million dollars of rehabilitation tax credits per 8546 from a prior fiscal year for new applicants and such reallocated 8548 credits shall not apply toward the dollar limit of this division. 8549

(3) For rehabilitations with a rehabilitation period not 8550 exceeding twenty-four months as provided in division (A)(7)(a) of 8551 issued before the rehabilitation of the historic building is 8553 completed. 8554

(4) For rehabilitations with a rehabilitation period not 8555 exceeding sixty months as provided in division (A)(7)(b) of this 8556 section, a rehabilitation tax credit certificate shall not be 8557 issued before a stage of rehabilitation is completed. After all 8558 stages of rehabilitation are completed, if the director cannot 8559 determine that the criteria in division (C) of this section are 8560 satisfied for all stages of rehabilitations, the director shall 8561 certify this finding to the tax commissioner, and any 8562 rehabilitation tax credits received by the applicant shall be 8563 repaid by the applicant and may be collected by assessment as 8564 unpaid tax by the commissioner. 8565

(5) The director of development services shall require the 8566 applicant to provide a third-party cost certification by a 8567 certified public accountant of the actual costs attributed to the 8568 rehabilitation of the historic building when qualified 8569

a rehabilitation tax credit certificate fails to provide to the 8572 director ~~of development~~ sufficient evidence of reviewable 8573 progress, including a viable financial plan, copies of final 8574 construction drawings, and evidence that the applicant has 8575 obtained all historic approvals within twelve months after the 8576 date the applicant received notification of approval, and if the 8577 applicant fails to provide evidence to the director ~~of development~~ 8578 that the applicant has secured and closed on financing for the 8579 rehabilitation within eighteen months after receiving notification 8580 of approval, the director may rescind the approval of the 8581 application. The director shall notify the applicant if the 8582 approval has been rescinded. Credits that would have been 8583 available to an applicant whose approval was rescinded shall be 8584 available for other qualified applicants. Nothing in this division 8585 prohibits an applicant whose approval has been rescinded from 8586 submitting a new application for a rehabilitation tax credit 8587 certificate. 8588

(E) Issuance of a certificate represents a finding by the 8589 director of development services of the matters described in 8590 divisions (C)(1), (2), and (3) of this section only; issuance of a 8591 certificate does not represent a verification or certification by 8592 the director of the amount of qualified rehabilitation 8593 expenditures for which a tax credit may be claimed under section 8594 5725.151, 5725.34, 5726.52, 5729.17, 5733.47, or 5747.76 of the 8595 Revised Code. The amount of qualified rehabilitation expenditures 8596 for which a tax credit may be claimed is subject to inspection and 8597 examination by the tax commissioner or employees of the 8598 commissioner under section 5703.19 of the Revised Code and any 8599 other applicable law. Upon the issuance of a certificate, the 8600 director shall certify to the tax commissioner, in the form and 8601 manner requested by the tax commissioner, the name of the 8602 applicant, the amount of qualified rehabilitation expenditures 8603 shown on the certificate, and any other information required by 8604 the rules adopted under this section. 8605 director of development services and tax commissioner jointly 8607 shall submit to the president of the senate and the speaker of the 8608 house of representatives a report on the tax credit program 8609

5726.52, 5729.17, 5733.47, and 5747.76 of the Revised Code. The 8611 report shall present an overview of the program and shall include 8612 information on the number of rehabilitation tax credit 8613 certificates issued under this section during the preceding fiscal 8614 year, an update on the status of each historic building for which 8615 an application was approved under this section, the dollar amount 8616 of the tax credits granted under sections 5725.151, 5725.34, 8617 5726.52, 5729.17, 5733.47, and 5747.76 of the Revised Code, and 8618

this section. The authority shall publish a notice of a request 8816 within thirty days, the contract shall be awarded by such owner to 9513 the lowest responsive and responsible bidder in accordance with 9514

section 9.312 of the Revised Code. 9515

No contract shall be entered into until the industrial 9516 until, if the bidder so awarded the contract is a foreign 9519 corporation, the secretary of state has certified that such 9520 corporation is authorized to do business in this state, until, if 9521 the bidder so awarded the contract is a person nonresident of this 9522 state, such person has filed with the secretary of state a power 9523 issued pursuant to section 9.47 of the Revised Code and dated no 9532 earlier than one hundred eighty days prior to the date fixed for 9533 the opening of bids for a particular project. 9534

Sec. 153.09. If in the opinion of the owner referred to in 9535 section 153.01 of the Revised Code, the award of a contract to the 9536 lowest responsive and responsible bidder is not in the best 9537 interests of the state, the owner may accept another bid so opened 9538 or reject all bids, and advertise for other bids. Such 9539 advertisement shall be for such time, in such form, and in such 9540 newspaper as the ~~department~~ Ohio facilities construction 9541 commission directs. All contracts shall provide that such owner 9542 may make any change in work or materials on the conditions and in 9543 the manner provided in sections 153.10 and 153.11 of the Revised 9544

Sec. 153.11. Whenever the change referred to in section 9546 153.10 of the Revised Code is approved by the owner as defined in 9547 section 153.01 of the Revised Code, accepted in writing by the 9548 contractor, and filed, the same shall be considered as being a 9549 subdivision or that is authorized by state law, the award, and 9560 execution of the contract, shall be made within sixty days after 9561 the date on which the bids are opened. The failure to award and 9562 execute the contract within sixty days invalidates the entire bid 9563 proceedings and all bids submitted, unless the time for awarding 9564 and executing the contract is extended by mutual consent of the 9565 owner or its representatives and the bidder whose bid the owner 9566 accepts and with respect to whom the owner subsequently awards and 9567 executes a contract. The public owners referred to in this section 9568 shall include, in the plans and specifications for the project for 9569 which bids are solicited, the estimate of cost. The bid for which 9570 the award is to be made shall be opened at the time and place 9571 named in the advertisement for bids, unless extended by the owner 9572 or its representative or unless, within seventy-two hours prior to 9573 the published time for the opening of bids, excluding Saturdays, 9574 Sundays, and legal holidays, any modification of the plans or 9575 specifications and estimates of cost for the project for which 9576 bids are solicited is issued and mailed or otherwise furnished to 9577 persons who have obtained plans or specifications for the project, 9578 for which the time for opening of bids shall be extended one week, 9579 with no further advertising of bids required. The contractor, upon 9580 request, is entitled to a notice to proceed with the work by the 9581 owner or its representative upon execution of the contract. No 9582 contract to which this section applies shall be entered into if 9583 the price of the contract, or, if the project involves multiple 9584 contracts where the total price of all contracts for the project, 9585 is in excess of ten per cent above the entire estimate thereof, 9586 nor shall the entire cost of the construction, reconstruction, 9587 repair, painting, decorating, improvement, alteration, addition, 9588 or installation, including changes and estimates of expenses for 9589 architects or engineers, exceed in the aggregate the amount 9590 authorized by law. 9591

The unit or lump sum price stated in the contract shall be 9592 used in determining the amount to be paid and shall constitute 9593 full and final compensation for all the work. 9594

Partial payment to the contractor for work performed under 9595 the lump sum price shall be based on a schedule prepared by the 9596 contractor and approved by the architect or engineer who shall 9597 apportion the lump sum price to the major components entering into 9598 or forming a part of the work under the lump sum price. 9599

Partial payments to the contractor for labor performed under 9600 either a unit or lump sum price contract shall be made at the rate 9601 of ninety-two per cent of the estimates prepared by the contractor 9602 and approved by the architect or engineer. All labor performed 9603 after the job is fifty per cent completed shall be paid for at the 9604 rate of one hundred per cent of the estimates submitted by the 9605 contractor and approved by the architect or engineer. 9606

The amounts and time of payments of any public improvements 9607 contract made by the state or any county, township, municipal 9608 corporation, school district, or other political subdivision, or 9609 any public board, commission, authority, instrumentality, or 9610 special purpose district of or in the state or a political 9611 subdivision or that is authorized by state law, except as provided 9612 in section 5525.19 of the Revised Code, shall be governed by this 9613 section and sections 153.13 and 153.14 of the Revised Code. If the 9614 time for awarding the contract is extended by mutual consent, or 9615 if the owner or its representative fails to issue a timely notice 9616 to proceed as required by this section, the owner or its 9617 representative shall issue a change order authorizing delay costs 9618 to the contractor, which does not invalidate the contract. The 9619 amount of such a change order to the owner shall be determined in 9620 accordance with the provisions of the contract for change orders 9621 or force accounts or, if no such provision is set forth in the 9622 contract, the cost to the owner shall be the contractor's actual 9623 costs including wages, labor costs other than wages, wage taxes, 9624 materials, equipment costs and rentals, insurance, and 9625 subcontracts attributable to the delay, plus a reasonable sum for 9626 overhead. In the event of a dispute between the owner and the 9627 contractor concerning such change order, procedures shall be 9628 commenced under the applicable terms of the contract, or, if the 9629 contract contains no provision for resolving the dispute, it shall 9630 be resolved pursuant to the procedures for arbitration in Chapter 9631 2711. of the Revised Code, except as provided in division (B) of 9632 this section. Nothing in this division shall be construed as a 9633 limitation upon the authority of the director of transportation 9634 granted in Chapter 5525. of the Revised Code. 9635

(B) If a dispute arises between the state and a contractor 9636 concerning the terms of a public improvement contract let by the 9637 state or concerning a breach of the contract, and after 9638 administrative remedies provided for in such contract and any 9639 alternative dispute resolution procedures provided in accordance 9640 with guidelines established by the executive director of 9641 ~~administrative services~~ the Ohio facilities construction 9642 commission are exhausted, the contractor may bring an action to 9643 the court of claims in accordance with Chapter 2743. of the 9644 Revised Code. The state or the contractor may request the chief 9645 justice of the supreme court to appoint a referee or panel of 9646 referees in accordance with division (C)(3) of section 2743.03 of 9647 the Revised Code. As used in this division, "dispute" means a 9648 disagreement between the state and the contractor concerning a 9649 public improvement contract let by the state. 9650

Sec. 153.14. For the construction of those projects, 9651 improvements, and public buildings over which the ~~director of~~ 9652

~~administrative services~~ Ohio facilities construction commission 9653 has general supervision pursuant to section ~~123.01~~ 123.21 of the 9654 Revised Code, the estimates referred to in section 153.13 of the 9655 Revised Code shall be filed with the executive director by the 9656 owner referred to in section 153.01 or 153.12 of the Revised Code. 9657 Upon completion of a project referred to in section 153.13 of the 9658 Revised Code or any divisible part thereof, the maintenance and 9659 repair of such project or divisible part shall be assumed by the 9660
owner referred to in section 153.01 or 153.12 of the Revised Code. 9661

In addition to all other payments on account of work 9662 performed, there shall be allowed by the owner referred to in 9663 section 153.01 or 153.12 of the Revised Code and paid to the 9664 contractor a sum at the rate of ninety-two per cent of the invoice 9665 costs, not to exceed the bid price in a unit price contract, of 9666 material delivered on the site of the work, or a railroad station, 9667 siding, or other point in the vicinity of the work, or other 9668 approved storage site, provided such materials have been inspected 9669 and found to meet the specifications. The balance of such invoiced 9670 value shall be paid when such material is incorporated into and 9671 becomes a part of such building, construction, addition, 9672 improvement, alteration, or installation. When an estimate is 9673 allowed on account of material delivered on the site of the work 9674 or in the vicinity thereof or under the possession and control of 9675 the contractor but not yet incorporated therein, such material 9676 shall become the property of the owner under the contract, but if 9677 such material is stolen, destroyed, or damaged by casualty before 9678 being used, the contractor shall be required to replace it at ~~his~~ 9679 it is considered advisable by the owner or contractor, estimates 9682 and payments shall be made twice each month. 9683

Payment on approved estimates filed with the owner or its 9684 representative shall be made within thirty days. Upon the failure 9685 of the owner or its representative to make such payments within 9686 thirty days, or upon an unauthorized withholding of retainage, 9687 there shall be allowed to the contractor, in addition to any other 9688 remedies allowed by law, interest on such moneys not paid within 9689 thirty days. Interest on the unauthorized withholding of retainage 9690 shall be in addition to any interest earned in the escrow account 9691 set forth in section 153.13 of the Revised Code. The rate of such 9692 interest shall be the average of the prime rate established at the 9693 commercial banks in the city of over one hundred thousand 9694 population that is nearest the construction project. Nothing in 9695 this section shall be construed as a limitation upon the authority 9696

Revised Code. 9698

contractor shall be deemed to have exhausted all administrative 9712 remedies for purposes of division (B) of section 153.12 of the 9713

Sec. 153.17. (A) When in the opinion of the owner referred to 9715 in section 153.01 of the Revised Code, the work under any contract 9716 made under any law of the state is neglected by the contractor or 9717 such work is not prosecuted with the diligence and force specified 9718 or intended in the contract, such owner may make requisition upon 9719 the contractor for such additional specific force or materials to 9720 be brought into the work under such contract or to remove improper 9721 its faithful fulfillment requires. 9723 may contract with one or more takeover contractors to complete 9735 work that was not finished because of the default of the original 9736 contractor. The owner may enter into a contract with a takeover 9737 contractor without competitive bidding or controlling board 9738 approval. Upon execution of a takeover contract, the owner shall 9739 notify the director of budget and management. 9740

When the owner has taken over a project after a default has 9741 occurred, any moneys that the owner receives from the surety as a 9742 settlement for completion of the project shall be deposited in the 9743 original fund from which the capital appropriation for the project 9744 was made. The executive director, without controlling board 9745 approval, may authorize specified additional uses for the moneys 9746 related to completion of the project and may increase the 9747 fund the project by an amount equal to the moneys received from 9749

the surety. 9750

the satisfaction of the public authority that fewer than three 9767 prequalified bidders are available. The public authority shall 9768 verify that each prospective bidder meets the prequalification 9769 criteria and may eliminate any bidder it determines is not 9770 qualified. 9771

(C) Once the prospective bidders are prequalified and found 9772 acceptable by the public authority, the construction manager at 9773 risk or design-build firm shall solicit proposals from each of 9774 those bidders. The solicitation and selection of a subcontractor 9775 shall be conducted under an open book pricing method. As used in 9776 this division, "open book pricing method" has the same meaning as 9777 furnished to the county commissioners as well as a monthly summary 12051 statement of revenues and expenses for the preceding month 12052 sufficient to show the exact financial condition of the county 12053 transit system as of the last day of the preceding month. 12054

(19) With the approval of the county commissioners when the 12055 action is taken by the transit board, and without competitive 12056 bidding, sell, lease, or grant the right of use of all or a 12057 portion of the county transit system to any other political 12058 subdivision, taxing district, or other public body or agency 12059 having the power to operate a transit system; 12060 of the public utility or common carrier to compete in its original 12108 area of operation. 12109

(2) If any restoration or duplication of any property or 12110 facility proposed to be made under this division involves a 12111 relocation of such property or facility, the regional transit 12112 authority shall acquire no interest or right in or to the 12113 appropriated property or facility until the relocated property or 12114 facility is available for use and until marketable title thereto 12115 has been transferred to the public utility or common carrier. 12116

Upon the withdrawal of any municipal corporation from a township fire district created under division (C) of this section, the county auditor shall ascertain, apportion, and order a division of the funds on hand, moneys and taxes in the process of collection except for taxes levied for the payment of indebtedness, credits, and real and personal property, either in money or in kind, on the basis of the valuation of the respective tax duplicates of the withdrawing municipal corporation and the remaining territory of the fire district.

A board of township trustees may remove unincorporated territory of the township from the fire district upon the adoption of a resolution authorizing the removal. On the first day of July of the year following the adoption of the resolution, the unincorporated township territory described in the resolution ceases to be a part of the district, and the power of the fire district to levy a tax upon taxable property in that territory terminates, except that the fire district shall continue to levy and collect taxes for the payment of indebtedness within the territory of the fire district as it was composed at the time the indebtedness was incurred.

(D) The board of township trustees of any township, the board of fire district trustees of a fire district created under section 505.371 of the Revised Code, or the legislative authority of any municipal corporation may purchase, lease, or lease with an option to purchase the necessary fire-fighting equipment, buildings, and sites for the township, fire district, or municipal corporation and issue securities for that purpose with maximum maturities as provided in section 133.20 of the Revised Code. The board of township trustees, board of fire district trustees, or legislative authority may also construct any buildings necessary to house fire-fighting equipment and issue securities for that purpose with maximum maturities as provided in section 133.20 of the Revised

The board of township trustees, board of fire district 13633 trustees, or legislative authority may issue the securities of the 13634 township, fire district, or municipal corporation, signed by the 13635 board or designated officer of the municipal corporation and 13636 attested by the signature of the township fiscal officer, fire 13637 district clerk, or municipal clerk, covering any deferred payments 13638 and payable at the times provided, which securities shall bear 13639 interest not to exceed the rate determined as provided in section 13640 9.95 of the Revised Code, and shall not be subject to Chapter 133. 13641 of the Revised Code. The legislation authorizing the issuance of 13642 the securities shall provide for levying and collecting annually 13643 by taxation, amounts sufficient to pay the interest on and 13644 principal of the securities. The securities shall be offered for 13645 sale on the open market or given to the vendor or contractor if no 13646 sale is made. 13647

Section 505.40 of the Revised Code does not apply to any 13648 securities issued, or any lease with an option to purchase entered 13649 into, in accordance with this division. 13650

(E) A board of township trustees of any township or a board 13651 of fire district trustees of a fire district created under section 13652 505.371 of the Revised Code may purchase a policy or policies of 13653 liability insurance for the officers, employees, and appointees of 13654 the fire department, fire district, or joint fire district 13655 governed by the board that includes personal injury liability 13656 coverage as to the civil liability of those officers, employees, 13657 and appointees for false arrest, detention, or imprisonment, 13658 malicious prosecution, libel, slander, defamation or other 13659 violation of the right of privacy, wrongful entry or eviction, or 13660 other invasion of the right of private occupancy, arising out of 13661 the performance of their duties. 13662

When a board of township trustees cannot, by deed of gift or 13663 by purchase and upon terms it considers reasonable, procure land 13664 for a township fire station that is needed in order to respond in 13665 reasonable time to a fire or medical emergency, the board may 13666 appropriate land for that purpose under sections 163.01 to 163.22 13667 of the Revised Code. If it is necessary to acquire additional 13668 adjacent land for enlarging or improving the fire station, the 13669 board may purchase, appropriate, or accept a deed of gift for the 13670 land for these purposes. 13671

(F) As used in this division, "emergency medical service 13672

A board of township trustees, by adoption of an appropriate 13675 resolution, may choose to have the ~~Ohio~~ state board of emergency 13676 medical and transportation ~~board~~ services license any emergency 13677 medical service organization it operates. If the board adopts such 13678 a resolution, Chapter 4766. of the Revised Code, except for 13679 sections 4766.06 and 4766.99 of the Revised Code, applies to the 13680 organization. All rules adopted under the applicable sections of 13681 that chapter also apply to the organization. A board of township 13682 trustees, by adoption of an appropriate resolution, may remove its 13683 emergency medical service organization from the jurisdiction of 13684 the ~~Ohio~~ state board of emergency medical and transportation ~~board~~ 13685 services. 13686

Sec. 505.375. (A)(1)(a) The boards of township trustees of 13687 one or more townships and the legislative authorities of one or 13688 more municipal corporations, or the legislative authorities of two 13689 or more municipal corporations, or the boards of township trustees 13690 of two or more townships, may negotiate an agreement to form a 13691 fire and ambulance district for the delivery of both fire and 13692 ambulance services. The agreement shall be ratified by the 13693 adoption of a joint resolution by a majority of the members of 13694 each board of township trustees involved and a majority of the 13695 members of the legislative authority of each municipal corporation 13696 involved. The joint resolution shall specify a date on which the 13697 fire and ambulance district shall come into being. 13698

(b) If a joint fire district created under section 505.371 of 13699 the Revised Code or a joint ambulance district created under 13700 section 505.71 of the Revised Code is dissolved to facilitate the 13701 creation of a fire and ambulance district under division (A)(1)(a) 13702 of this section, the townships and municipal corporations forming 13703 the fire and ambulance district may transfer to the fire and 13704 ambulance district any of the funds on hand, moneys and taxes in 13705 the process of collection, credits, and real and personal property 13706 apportioned to them under division (D) of section 505.371 of the 13707 Revised Code or section 505.71 of the Revised Code, as applicable, 13708 for use by the fire and ambulance district in accordance with this 13709
section. 13710

(2)(a) The board of trustees of a joint ambulance district 13711 created under section 505.71 of the Revised Code and the board of 13712 fire district trustees of a joint fire district created under 13713 section 505.371 of the Revised Code may negotiate to combine their 13714 two joint districts into a single fire and ambulance district for 13715 the delivery of both fire and ambulance services, if the 13716 geographic area covered by the combining joint districts is 13717 exactly the same. Both boards shall adopt a joint resolution 13718 ratifying the agreement and setting a date on which the fire and 13719 ambulance district shall come into being. 13720

(b) On that date, the joint fire district and the joint 13721 ambulance district shall cease to exist, and the power of each to 13722 levy a tax upon taxable property shall terminate, except that any 13723 levy of a tax for the payment of indebtedness within the territory 13724 of the joint fire or joint ambulance district as it was composed 13725 at the time the indebtedness was incurred shall continue to be 13726 collected by the successor fire and ambulance district if the 13727 indebtedness remains unpaid. All funds and other property of the 13728 joint districts shall become the property of the fire and 13729 ambulance district, unless otherwise provided in the negotiated 13730 agreement. The agreement shall provide for the settlement of all 13731 debts and obligations of the joint districts. 13732

(B)(1) The governing body of a fire and ambulance district 13733 created under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall be a 13734 board of trustees of at least three but no more than nine members, 13735 appointed as provided in the agreement creating the district. 13736 Members of the board may be compensated at a rate not to exceed 13737 thirty dollars per meeting for not more than fifteen meetings per 13738 year, and may be reimbursed for all necessary expenses incurred, 13739 as provided in the agreement creating the district. 13740

(2) The board shall employ a clerk and other employees as it 13741 considers best, including a fire chief or fire prevention 13742 officers, and shall fix their compensation. Neither this section 13743 nor any other section of the Revised Code requires, or shall be 13744 construed to require, that the fire chief of a fire and ambulance 13745 district be a resident of the district. 13746

Before entering upon the duties of office, the clerk shall 13747 execute a bond, in the amount and with surety to be approved by 13748 the board, payable to the state, conditioned for the faithful 13749 performance of all of the clerk's official duties. The clerk shall 13750 deposit the bond with the presiding officer of the board, who 13751 shall file a copy of it, certified by the presiding officer, with 13752 the county auditor of the county containing the most territory in 13753 the district. 13754

The board also shall provide for the appointment of a fiscal 13755 officer for the district and may enter into agreements with 13756 volunteer fire companies for the use and operation of 13757 fire-fighting equipment. Volunteer firefighters acting under such 13758 an agreement are subject to the requirements for volunteer 13759 firefighters set forth in division (A) of section 505.38 of the 13760

Revised Code. 13761

(3) Employees of the district shall not be removed from 13762 office except as provided by sections 733.35 to 733.39 of the 13763 Revised Code, except that, to initiate removal proceedings, the 13764 board shall designate a private citizen or, if the employee is 13765 employed as a firefighter, the board may designate the fire chief, 13766 to investigate, conduct the proceedings, and prepare the necessary 13767 charges in conformity with those sections, and except that the 13768 board shall perform the functions and duties specified for the 13769 municipal legislative authority under those sections. The board 13770 may pay reasonable compensation to any private citizen hired for 13771 services rendered in the matter. 13772

(4) No person shall be appointed as a permanent full-time 13773 paid member of the district whose duties include fire fighting, or 13774 be appointed as a volunteer firefighter, unless that person has 13775 received a certificate issued under former section 3303.07 or 13776 section 4765.55 of the Revised Code evidencing satisfactory 13777 completion of a firefighter training program. The board may send 13778 its officers and firefighters to schools of instruction designed 13779 to promote the efficiency of firefighters and, if authorized in 13780 advance, may pay their necessary expenses from the funds used for 13781 the maintenance and operation of the district. 13782

The board may choose, by adoption of an appropriate 13783 resolution, to have the ~~Ohio~~ state board of emergency medical and 13784 ~~transportation board~~ services license any emergency medical 13785 service organization it operates. If the board adopts such a 13786 resolution, Chapter 4766. of the Revised Code, except for sections 13787 4766.06 and 4766.99 of the Revised Code, applies to the 13788
organization. All rules adopted under the applicable sections of 13789 that chapter also apply to the organization. The board may remove, 13790 by resolution, its emergency medical service organization from the 13791 jurisdiction of the ~~Ohio~~ state board of emergency medical and 13792 transportation ~~board~~ services. 13793

(C) The board of trustees of a fire and ambulance district 13794 created under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section may exercise 13795 the following powers: 13796

(1) Purchase or otherwise provide any fire apparatus, 13797 mechanical resuscitators, or other fire or ambulance equipment, 13798 appliances, or materials; fire hydrants; and water supply for 13799 firefighting purposes that seems advisable to the board; 13800

(2) Provide for the care and maintenance of equipment and, 13801 for that purpose, purchase, lease, lease with an option to 13802

(3) Establish and maintain lines of fire-alarm communications 13804 within the limits of the district; 13805

(4) Appropriate land for a fire station or medical emergency 13806 unit needed in order to respond in reasonable time to a fire or 13807 medical emergency, in accordance with Chapter 163. of the Revised 13808
Code; 13809

(5) Purchase, appropriate, or accept a deed or gift of land 13810 to enlarge or improve a fire station or medical emergency unit; 13811

(6) Purchase, lease, lease with an option to purchase, 13812 maintain, and use all materials, equipment, vehicles, buildings, 13813 and land necessary to perform its duties; 13814

(7) Contract for a period not to exceed three years with one 13815 or more townships, municipal corporations, counties, joint fire 13816 districts, joint ambulance districts, governmental agencies, 13817 nonprofit corporations, or private ambulance owners located either 13818 within or outside the state, to furnish or receive ambulance 13819 services or emergency medical services within the several 13820 territories of the contracting parties, if the contract is first 13821 authorized by all boards of trustees and legislative authorities 13822 concerned; 13823

(8) Establish reasonable charges for the use of ambulance or 13824 emergency medical services under the same conditions under which a 13825 board of fire district trustees may establish those charges under 13826
section 505.371 of the Revised Code; 13827

(9) Establish all necessary rules to guard against the 13828 occurrence of fires and to protect property and lives against 13829 damage and accidents; 13830

(10) Adopt a standard code pertaining to fire, fire hazards, 13831 and fire prevention prepared and promulgated by the state or by a 13832 public or private organization that publishes a model or standard 13833
code; 13834

(11) Provide for charges for false alarms at commercial 13835 establishments in the same manner as joint fire districts are 13836 authorized to do under section 505.391 of the Revised Code; 13837

(12) Issue bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, subject 13838 to Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, but only after approval by a 13839 vote of the electors of the district as provided by section 133.18 13840
of the Revised Code; 13841

(13) To provide the services and equipment it considers 13842 necessary, levy a sufficient tax, subject to Chapter 5705. of the 13843 Revised Code, on all the taxable property in the district. 13844

(D) Any municipal corporation or township may join an 13845 existing fire and ambulance district, whether created under 13846 division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, by its legislative 13847 authority's adoption of a resolution requesting the membership and 13848 upon approval of the board of trustees of the district. Any 13849 municipal corporation or township may withdraw from a district, 13850 whether created under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section, by 13851 its legislative authority's adoption of a resolution ordering 13852 withdrawal. Upon its withdrawal, the municipal corporation or 13853 township ceases to be a part of the district, and the district's 13854 power to levy a tax on taxable property in the withdrawing 13855 township or municipal corporation terminates, except that the 13856 district shall continue to levy and collect taxes for the payment 13857 of indebtedness within the territory of the district as it was 13858 composed at the time the indebtedness was incurred. 13859

Upon the withdrawal of any township or municipal corporation 13860 from a district, the county auditor of the county containing the 13861 most territory in the district shall ascertain, apportion, and 13862 order a division of the funds on hand, including funds in the 13863 ambulance and emergency medical services fund, moneys and taxes in 13864 the process of collection, except for taxes levied for the payment 13865 of indebtedness, credits, and real and personal property on the 13866 basis of the valuation of the respective tax duplicates of the 13867 withdrawing municipal corporation or township and the remaining 13868 territory of the district. 13869

(E) As used in this section: 13870

(1) "Governmental agency" includes all departments, boards, 13871 offices, commissions, agencies, colleges, universities, 13872 institutions, and other instrumentalities of this or another 13873 state. 13874

(2) "Emergency medical service organization" has the same 13875 meaning as in section 4766.01 of the Revised Code. 13876

Sec. 505.44. As used in this section: 13877

(A) "Emergency medical service organization" has the same 13878 meaning as in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 13879

(B) "State agency" means all departments, boards, offices, 13880 commissions, agencies, colleges, universities, institutions, and 13881 other instrumentalities of this or another state. 13882

In order to obtain the services of ambulance service 13883
organizations, to obtain additional services from ambulance 13884 service organizations in times of emergency, to obtain the 13885 services of emergency medical service organizations, or, if the 13886 township is located in a county with a population of forty 13887 thousand or less, to obtain the services of nonemergency patient 13888 transport service organizations, a township may enter into a 13889 contract with one or more state agencies, townships, municipal 13890 corporations, counties, nonprofit corporations, joint emergency 13891 medical services districts, fire and ambulance districts, or 13892 private ambulance owners, regardless of whether such state 13893 agencies, townships, municipal corporations, counties, nonprofit 13894 corporations, joint emergency medical services districts, fire and 13895 ambulance districts, or private ambulance owners are located 13896 within or outside the state, upon such terms as are agreed to by 13897 them, to furnish or receive services from ambulance or emergency 13898 medical service organizations or, if the township is located in a 13899 county with a population of forty thousand or less, to furnish or 13900 receive services from nonemergency patient transport service 13901 organizations, or may enter into a contract for the interchange of 13902 services from ambulance or emergency medical service organizations 13903 or, if the township is located in a county with a population of 13904 forty thousand or less, the interchange of services from 13905 nonemergency patient transport service organizations, within the 13906 several territories of the contracting parties, if the contract is 13907 first authorized by the respective boards of township trustees, 13908 the other legislative bodies, or the officer or body authorized to 13909 contract on behalf of the state agency. Such contracts shall not 13910 be entered into with a state agency or nonprofit corporation that 13911 receives more than half of its operating funds from governmental 13912 entities with the intention of directly competing with the 13913 operation of other ambulance, emergency medical, or nonemergency 13914 patient transport service organizations in the township unless the 13915 state agency or nonprofit corporation is awarded the contract 13916 after submitting the lowest and best bid to the board of township 13917 trustees. 13918

The contract may provide for compensation upon such terms as 13919 the parties may agree. 13920

Any township wishing to commence providing or wishing to 13921 enter into a contract for the first time to furnish or obtain 13922 services from nonemergency patient transport service organizations 13923 on or after March 1, 1993, including a township in which a private 13924 provider has been providing the service, shall demonstrate the 13925 need for public funding for the service to, and obtain approval 13926 from, the state board of emergency medical and transportation 13927 services or its immediate successor board prior to the 13928 establishment of a township-operated or township-funded service. 13929

Sec. 505.72. (A) The board of trustees of a joint ambulance 13930 district shall provide for the employment of such employees as it 13931 considers best, and shall fix their compensation. Such employees 13932 shall continue in office until removed as provided by sections 13933 733.35 to 733.39 of the Revised Code. To initiate removal 13934 proceedings, and for such purpose, the board shall designate a 13935 private citizen to investigate the conduct and prepare the 13936 necessary charges in conformity with sections 733.35 to 733.39 of 13937 the Revised Code. The board may pay reasonable compensation to 13938 such person for the person's services. 13939

In case of the removal of an employee of the district, an 13940 appeal may be had from the decision of the board to the court of 13941 common pleas of the county in which such district, or part of it, 13942 is situated, to determine the sufficiency of the cause of removal. 13943 Such appeal from the findings of the board shall be taken within 13944

ten days. 13945

(B) As used in this division, "emergency medical service 13946

(1) In order to obtain the services of ambulance service 13949
organizations, to obtain additional services from ambulance 13950 service organizations in times of emergency, or to obtain the 13951 services of emergency medical service organizations, a district 13952 may enter into a contract, for a period not to exceed three years, 13953 with one or more townships, municipal corporations, joint fire 13954 districts, nonprofit corporations, any other governmental unit 13955 that provides ambulance services or emergency medical services, or 13956 with private ambulance owners, regardless of whether such 13957 townships, municipal corporations, joint fire districts, nonprofit 13958 corporations, governmental unit, or private ambulance owners are 13959 located within or without this state, upon such terms as are 13960 agreed to, to furnish or receive services from ambulance or 13961 emergency medical service organizations or the interchange of 13962
within the several territories of the contracting subdivisions, if 13964 such contract is first authorized by all boards of trustees and 13965 legislative authorities concerned. 13966

The contract may provide for a fixed annual charge to be paid 13967 at the times agreed upon and stipulated in the contract, or for 13968 compensation based upon a stipulated price for each run, call, or 13969 emergency, or the elapsed time of service required in such run, 13970 call, or emergency, or any combination thereof. 13971

(2) Expenditures of a district for the services of ambulance 13972 service organizations or emergency medical service organizations, 13973 whether pursuant to contract or otherwise, are lawful 13974 expenditures, regardless of whether the district or the party with 13975 which it contracts charges additional fees to users of the 13976

services. 13977

(3) A district's board of trustees, by adoption of an 13978 appropriate resolution, may choose to have the ~~Ohio~~ state board of 13979 emergency medical and transportation board services license any 13980 emergency medical service organization the district operates. If a 13981 board adopts such a resolution, Chapter 4766. of the Revised Code, 13982 except for sections 4766.06 and 4766.99 of the Revised Code, 13983 applies to the district emergency medical service organization. 13984
All rules adopted under the applicable sections of that chapter 13985 also apply to the organization. A board, by adoption of an 13986 appropriate resolution, may remove the district emergency medical 13987 service organization from the jurisdiction of the ~~Ohio~~ state board 13988 of emergency medical and transportation board services. 13989

(C) Ambulance services or emergency medical services rendered 13990 for a joint ambulance district under this section and section 13991 505.71 of the Revised Code shall be deemed services of the 13992 district. These sections do not authorize suits against a district 13993 or any township or municipal corporation providing or receiving, 13994 or contracting to provide or receive, such services under these 13995 sections for damages for injury or loss to persons or property or 13996 for wrongful death caused by persons providing such services. 13997

Sec. 715.013. (A) Except as otherwise expressly authorized by 13998 the Revised Code, no municipal corporation shall levy a tax that 13999 is the same as or similar to a tax levied under Chapter 322., 14000 3734., 3769., 4123., 4141., 4301., 4303., 4305., 4307., 4309., 14001

5739., 5741., 5743., or 5749. of the Revised Code. 14003

(B) This section does not prohibit a municipal corporation 14004 from levying a tax on any of the following: 14005

(1) Amounts received for admission to any place; 14006

(3) On and after January 1, 2004, the income of a telephone company, as defined in section 5727.01 of the Revised Code. 14009

general fitness of the applicant are such as to warrant the belief 14682 that the business of making loans will be operated lawfully, 14683 honestly, and fairly under sections 1321.35 to 1321.48 of the 14684 Revised Code and within the purposes of those sections; that the 14685 applicant has fully complied with those sections and any rule or order adopted or issued pursuant to section 1321.43 of the Revised Code; and that the applicant is qualified to engage in the business of making loans under sections 1321.35 to 1321.48 of the Revised Code.

(2) The applicant is financially sound and has a net worth of not less than one hundred thousand dollars, or in the case of a nonprofit corporation that is incorporated under Chapter 1702. of the Revised Code, a net worth of not less than fifty thousand dollars. The applicant's net worth shall be computed according to generally accepted accounting principles.

(5) Neither the applicant nor any senior officer, or partner 14719 of the applicant, has been subject to any adverse judgment for 14720 conversion, embezzlement, misappropriation of funds, fraud, 14721 misfeasance or malfeasance, or breach of fiduciary duty, or if the 14722 applicant or any of those other persons has been subject to such a 14723 judgment, the applicant has proven to the superintendent, by a 14724 preponderance of the evidence, that the applicant's or other 14725 person's activities and employment record since the judgment show 14726 that the applicant or other person is honest, truthful, and of 14727 good reputation, and there is no basis in fact for believing that 14728 the applicant or other person will be subject to such a judgment 14729
again. 14730

(C) If the superintendent finds that the applicant does not 14731 meet the requirements of division (B) of this section, or the 14732 superintendent finds that the applicant knowingly or repeatedly 14733 contracts with or employs persons to directly engage in lending 14734 denial in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. The 14739 superintendent shall notify the applicant of the denial, the 14740 grounds for the denial, and the applicant's opportunity for a 14741 hearing. If the application is denied, the superintendent shall 14742 return the annual license fee but shall retain the investigation 14743 fee. 14744

(D) No person licensed under sections 1321.35 to 1321.48 of 14745 the Revised Code shall conduct business in this state unless the 14746 licensee has obtained and maintains in effect at all times a 14747 corporate surety bond issued by a bonding company or insurance 14748 company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be 14749 in favor of the superintendent and in the penal sum of at least 14750 one hundred thousand dollars, or in the case of a nonprofit 14751 corporation that is incorporated under Chapter 1702. of the 14752 Revised Code, in the amount of fifty thousand dollars. The term of 14753 the bond shall coincide with the term of the license. The licensee 14754 shall file a copy of the bond with the superintendent. The bond 14755 shall be for the exclusive benefit of any borrower injured by a 14756 violation by a licensee or any employee of a licensee, of any 14757 provision of sections 1321.35 to 1321.48 of the Revised Code. 14758

Sec. 1321.53. (A)(1) An application for a certificate of 14759 registration under sections 1321.51 to 1321.60 of the Revised Code 14760 shall contain an undertaking by the applicant to abide by those 14761 sections. The application shall be in writing, under oath, and in 14762 the form prescribed by the division of financial institutions, and 14763 shall contain any information that the division may require. 14764 Applicants that are foreign corporations shall obtain and maintain 14765 a license pursuant to Chapter 1703. of the Revised Code before a 14766 certificate is issued or renewed. 14767

(2) Upon the filing of the application and the payment by the 14768 applicant of a nonrefundable two_hundred_dollar investigation fee, 14769 a nonrefundable three_hundred_dollar annual registration fee, and 14770 any additional fee required by the nationwide mortgage licensing 14771 system and registry, the division shall investigate the relevant 14772 facts. If the application involves investigation outside this 14773 state, the applicant may be required by the division to advance 14774 sufficient funds to pay any of the actual expenses of such 14775 investigation, when it appears that these expenses will exceed two 14776 hundred dollars. An itemized statement of any of these expenses 14777 which the applicant is required to pay shall be furnished to the 14778 applicant by the division. No certificate shall be issued unless 14779 all the required fees have been submitted to the division. 14780

(3) All applicants making loans secured by an interest in real estate shall designate an employee or owner of the applicant as the applicant's primary point of contact. While acting as the primary point of contact, the employee or owner shall not be employed by any other registrant or mortgage broker.

(5)(a) Notwithstanding division (K) of section 121.08 of the Revised Code, the superintendent of financial institutions shall obtain a criminal history records check and, as part of that records check, request that criminal record information from the federal bureau of investigation be obtained. To fulfill this requirement, the superintendent shall do either of the following:

(i) Request the superintendent of the bureau of criminal identification and investigation, or a vendor approved by the bureau, to conduct a criminal records check based on the applicant's fingerprints or, if the fingerprints are unreadable, based on the applicant's social security number, in accordance with ~~division (A)(12)~~ of section 109.572 of the Revised Code;

(ii) Authorize the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry to request a criminal history background check as set forth in division (C) of section 1321.531 of the Revised Code.

(b) Any fee required under division (C)(3) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code or by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry shall be paid by the applicant.

(6) If an application for a certificate of registration does not contain all of the information required under division (A) of this section, and if such information is not submitted to the division or to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry within ninety days after the superintendent or the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry requests the information in writing, including by electronic transmission or facsimile, the superintendent may consider the application withdrawn.

(a)(i) Certificates of registration issued on or after July 1, 2010, shall annually expire on the thirty-first day of December, unless renewed by the filing of a renewal application and payment of a three_hundred_dollar nonrefundable annual registration fee, any assessment as determined by the superintendent pursuant to division (A)(7)(a)(ii) of this section, and any additional fee required by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry, on or before the last day of December of each year. No other fee or assessment shall be required of a registrant by the state or any political subdivision of this state.

(ii) If the renewal fees billed by the superintendent pursuant to division (A)(7)(a)(i) of this section are less than 14844 the estimated expenditures of the consumer finance section of the 14845 division of financial institutions, as determined by the 14846 superintendent, for the following fiscal year, the superintendent 14847 may assess each registrant at a rate sufficient to equal in the 14848 aggregate the difference between the renewal fees billed and the 14849 estimated expenditures. Each registrant shall pay the assessed 14850 amount to the superintendent prior to the last day of June. In no 14851 case shall the assessment exceed ten cents per each one hundred 14852 dollars of interest (excluding charge-off recoveries), points, 14853 loan origination charges, and credit line charges collected by 14854 that registrant during the previous calendar year. If such an 14855 assessment is imposed, it shall not be less than two hundred fifty 14856 dollars per registrant and shall not exceed thirty thousand 14857 dollars less the total renewal fees paid pursuant to division 14858

(A)(7)(a)(i) of this section by each registrant. 14859

(b) Registrants shall timely file renewal applications on 14860 forms prescribed by the division and provide any further 14861 information that the division may require. If a renewal 14862 application does not contain all of the information required under 14863 this section, and if that information is not submitted to the 14864 division or to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and 14865 registry within ninety days after the superintendent or the 14866 nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry requests the 14867 information in writing, including by electronic transmission or 14868 facsimile, the superintendent may consider the application 14869 withdrawn. 14870

(c) Renewal shall not be granted if the applicant's 14871 certificate of registration is subject to an order of suspension, 14872 revocation, or an unpaid and past due fine imposed by the 14873 superintendent. 14874

(d) If the division finds the applicant does not meet the 14875 conditions set forth in this section, it shall issue a notice of 14876 intent to deny the application, and forthwith notify the applicant 14877 of the denial, the grounds for the denial, and the applicant's 14878 reasonable opportunity to be heard on the action in accordance 14879 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 14880

(8) If there is a change of five per cent or more in the 14881 chief shall issue a permit within twenty-one days of the filing of 16040 the application unless the chief denies the application by order. 16041

(2) If the location of a well or proposed well will be or is 16042 at least eighteen days after the date of filing of the application 16044 for the permit unless, upon reasonable cause shown, the chief 16045 waives that period or the chief at the chief's discretion grants a 16046 request for an expedited review. However, the chief shall issue a 16047

section 1509.08 of the Revised Code. 16058

In addition to a complete application for a permit that meets 16059 the requirements of this section and the permit fee prescribed by 16060 this section, a request for expedited review shall be accompanied 16061 by a separate nonrefundable filing fee of two hundred fifty 16062 provide timely notice of the application and request. The chief 16068 shall issue a permit within seven days of the filing of the 16069 request unless the chief denies the application by order. 16070

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section governing expedited review of permit applications, the chief may refuse to accept requests for expedited review if, in the chief's judgment, the acceptance of the requests would prevent the issuance, within twenty-one days of their filing, of permits for which applications are pending.

(E) A well shall be drilled and operated in accordance with the plans, sworn statements, and other information submitted in the approved application.

(1) Five hundred dollars for a permit to conduct activities in a township with a population of fewer than ten thousand;

mandatory pooling, an additional five thousand dollars. 16107

For purposes of calculating fee amounts, populations shall be 16108 determined using the most recent federal decennial census. 16109

Each application for the revision or reissuance of a permit 16110 shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty 16111 dollars. 16112

(H) Prior to the issuance of a permit to drill a proposed 16113 well that is to be located in an urbanized area, the division 16114 shall conduct a site review to identify and evaluate any 16115 site-specific terms and conditions that may be attached to the 16116 permit. At the site review, a representative of the division shall 16117 consider fencing, screening, and landscaping requirements, if any, 16118 for similar structures in the community in which the well is 16119 proposed to be located. The terms and conditions that are attached 16120 to the permit shall include the establishment of fencing, 16121 screening, and landscaping requirements for the surface facilities 16122 of the proposed well, including a tank battery of the well. 16123 shall notify an inspector from the division at least twenty-four 16130 hours, or another time period agreed to by the chief's authorized 16131 representative, prior to the commencement of drilling, reopening, 16132 converting, well stimulation, or plugback operations. 16133

(K) A permittee for a horizontal well shall pay a fee of 16134 twenty-five thousand dollars to the county treasurer of the county 16135 in which the horizontal well will be located, and notify the 16136 treasurer of the parcel number of such well, before the permittee 16137 begins construction of the well pad on which the well will be 16138 situated. The permittee shall pay an additional fee of twenty-five 16139 thousand dollars to the county treasurer for each subsequent well 16140 drilled on the same well pad, which shall be paid prior to the 16141 commencement of drilling the well. The permittee shall notify the 16142 treasurer of the parcel number of the subsequent well at the time 16143 of paying the additional fee for the well. The county treasurer 16144 shall deposit the money in accordance with section 321.49 of the 16145
Revised Code. 16146

Sec. 1509.071. (A) When the chief of the division of oil and 16147 gas resources management finds that an owner has failed to comply 16148 with a final nonappealable order issued or compliance agreement 16149 entered into under section 1509.04, the restoration requirements 16150 of section 1509.072, plugging requirements of section 1509.12, or 16151 permit provisions of section 1509.13 of the Revised Code, or rules 16152 and orders relating thereto, the chief shall make a finding of 16153 that fact and declare any surety bond filed to ensure compliance 16154 with those sections and rules forfeited in the amount set by rule 16155 of the chief. The chief thereupon shall certify the total 16156 forfeiture to the attorney general, who shall proceed to collect 16157 the amount of the forfeiture. In addition, the chief may require 16158 an owner, operator, producer, or other person who forfeited a 16159 surety bond to post a new surety bond in the amount of fifteen 16160 thousand dollars for a single well, thirty thousand dollars for 16161 two wells, or fifty thousand dollars for three or more wells. 16162

In lieu of total forfeiture, the surety or owner, at the surety's or owner's option, may cause the well to be properly plugged and abandoned and the area properly restored or pay to the treasurer of state the cost of plugging and abandonment.

(B) All moneys collected because of forfeitures of bonds as provided in this section shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well fund created in section 1509.02 of the Revised Code.

The chief annually shall spend not less than fourteen per cent of the revenue credited to the fund during the previous fiscal year for the following purposes:

(1) In accordance with division (D) of this section, to plug idle and orphaned wells or to restore the land surface properly as required in section 1509.072 of the Revised Code;

(2) In accordance with division (E) of this section, to correct conditions that the chief reasonably has determined are causing imminent health or safety risks at an idle and orphaned well or a well for which the owner cannot be contacted in order to initiate a corrective action within a reasonable period of time as determined by the chief.

Expenditures from the fund shall be made only for lawful purposes. In addition, expenditures from the fund shall not be made to purchase real property or to remove a dwelling in order to access a well.

(C)(1) Upon determining that the owner of a well has failed to properly plug and abandon it or to properly restore the land surface at the well site in compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it or that a well is an abandoned well for which no funds are available to plug the well in accordance with this chapter, the chief shall do all of the following:

(b) Mail notice to the owner of the land on which the well is located informing the landowner that the well is to be plugged. If the owner of the oil or gas lease under which the well was drilled is different from the owner of the well or if any persons other than the owner of the well own interests in the lease, the chief also shall mail notice that the well is to be plugged to the owner of the lease or to each person owning an interest in the lease, as appropriate.

(2) If none of the persons described in division (C)(1)(c) of this section plugs the well within sixty days after the mailing of the notice required by that division, all equipment appurtenant to the well is hereby declared to be forfeited to this state without compensation and without the necessity for any action by the state for use to defray the cost of plugging and abandoning the well and restoring the land surface at the well site.

(D) Expenditures from the fund for the purpose of division (B)(1) of this section shall be made in accordance with either of the following:

(1) The expenditures may be made pursuant to contracts 16225 entered into by the chief with persons who agree to furnish all of 16226 the materials, equipment, work, and labor as specified and 16227 provided in such a contract for activities associated with the 16228 restoration or plugging of a well as determined by the chief. The 16229 activities may include excavation to uncover a well, geophysical 16230 methods to locate a buried well when clear evidence of leakage 16231 from the well exists, cleanout of wellbores to remove material 16232 from a failed plugging of a well, plugging operations, 16233 installation of vault and vent systems, including associated 16234 engineering certifications and permits, restoration of property, 16235 and repair of damage to property that is caused by such 16236 activities. Expenditures shall not be used for salaries, 16237 maintenance, equipment, or other administrative purposes, except 16238 for costs directly attributed to the plugging of an idle and 16239 orphaned well. Agents or employees of persons contracting with the 16240 chief for a restoration or plugging project may enter upon any 16241 land, public or private, on which the well is located for the 16242 purpose of performing the work. Prior to such entry, the chief 16243 shall give to the following persons written notice of the 16244 existence of a contract for a project to restore or plug a well, 16245 the names of the persons with whom the contract is made, and the 16246 date that the project will commence: the owner of the well, the 16247 owner of the land upon which the well is located, the owner or 16248 agents of adjoining land, and, if the well is located in the same 16249 township as or in a township adjacent to the excavations and 16250 workings of a mine and the owner or lessee of that mine has 16251 provided written notice identifying those townships to the chief 16252 at any time during the immediately preceding three years, the 16253 owner or lessee of the mine. 16254

(2)(a) The owner of the land on which a well is located who 16255 has received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section may 16256 plug the well and be reimbursed by the division of oil and gas 16257 resources management for the reasonable cost of plugging the well. 16258

In order to plug the well, the landowner shall submit an 16259 application to the chief on a form prescribed by the chief and 16260 approved by the technical advisory council on oil and gas created 16261 in section 1509.38 of the Revised Code. The application, at a 16262 minimum, shall require the landowner to provide the same 16263 information as is required to be included in the application for a 16264 permit to plug and abandon under section 1509.13 of the Revised 16265 Code. The application shall be accompanied by a copy of a proposed 16266 contract to plug the well prepared by a contractor regularly 16267 engaged in the business of plugging oil and gas wells. The 16268 proposed contract shall require the contractor to furnish all of 16269 the materials, equipment, work, and labor necessary to plug the 16270 well properly and shall specify the price for doing the work, 16271 including a credit for the equipment appurtenant to the well that 16272 was forfeited to the state through the operation of division 16273 (C)(2) of this section. Expenditures under division (D)(2)(a) of 16274 this section shall be consistent with the expenditures for 16275 activities described in division (D)(1) of this section. The 16276 application also shall be accompanied by the permit fee required 16277 by section 1509.13 of the Revised Code unless the chief, in the 16278 chief's discretion, waives payment of the permit fee. The 16279 application constitutes an application for a permit to plug and 16280 abandon the well for the purposes of section 1509.13 of the 16281

(b) Within thirty days after receiving an application and 16283 accompanying proposed contract under division (D)(2)(a) of this 16284 section, the chief shall determine whether the plugging would 16285 comply with the applicable requirements of this chapter and 16286 applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it and whether 16287 the cost of the plugging under the proposed contract is 16288 reasonable. If the chief determines that the proposed plugging 16289 would comply with those requirements and that the proposed cost of 16290 the plugging is reasonable, the chief shall notify the landowner 16291 of that determination and issue to the landowner a permit to plug 16292 and abandon the well under section 1509.13 of the Revised Code. 16293 Upon approval of the application and proposed contract, the chief 16294 shall transfer ownership of the equipment appurtenant to the well 16295 to the landowner. The chief may disapprove an application 16296 submitted under division (D)(2)(a) of this section if the chief 16297 determines that the proposed plugging would not comply with the 16298 applicable requirements of this chapter and applicable rules 16299 adopted and orders issued under it, that the cost of the plugging 16300 under the proposed contract is unreasonable, or that the proposed 16301 contract is not a bona fide, arm's length contract. 16302

(c) After receiving the chief's notice of the approval of the 16303 application and permit to plug and abandon a well under division 16304 (D)(2)(b) of this section, the landowner shall enter into the 16305 proposed contract to plug the well. 16306

(d) Upon determining that the plugging has been completed in 16307 compliance with the applicable requirements of this chapter and 16308 applicable rules adopted and orders issued under it, the chief 16309 shall reimburse the landowner for the cost of the plugging as set 16310 forth in the proposed contract approved by the chief. The 16311 reimbursement shall be paid from the oil and gas well fund. If the 16312 chief determines that the plugging was not completed in accordance 16313 with the applicable requirements, the chief shall not reimburse 16314 the landowner for the cost of the plugging, and the landowner or 16315 the contractor, as applicable, promptly shall transfer back to 16316 this state title to and possession of the equipment appurtenant to 16317 the well that previously was transferred to the landowner under 16318 division (D)(2)(b) of this section. If any such equipment was 16319 removed from the well during the plugging and sold, the landowner 16320 shall pay to the chief the proceeds from the sale of the 16321 equipment, and the chief promptly shall pay the moneys so received 16322 to the treasurer of state for deposit into the oil and gas well fund. 16323

16326
16328

As used in division (D)(2) of this section, "plug" and "plugging" include the plugging of the well and the restoration of the land surface disturbed by the plugging. 16329

(E) Expenditures from the oil and gas well fund for the purpose of division (B)(2) of this section may be made pursuant to contracts entered into by the chief with persons who agree to furnish all of the materials, equipment, work, and labor as specified and provided in such a contract. The competitive bidding requirements of Chapter 153. of the Revised Code do not apply if the chief reasonably determines that an emergency situation exists requiring immediate action for the correction of the applicable health or safety risk ~~requires immediate action~~. A contract or purchase of materials for purposes of addressing the emergency situation is not subject to division (B) of section 127.16 of the Revised Code. The chief, designated representatives of the chief, and agents or employees of persons contracting with the chief under this division may enter upon any land, public or private, for the purpose of performing the work. 16332

(3) Section 4733.17 of the Revised Code. 16354

(G) The owner of land on which a well is located who has 16355 received notice under division (C)(1)(b) of this section, in lieu 16356 of plugging the well in accordance with division (D)(2) of this 16357 section, may cause ownership of the well to be transferred to an 16358 owner who is lawfully doing business in this state and who has met 16359 the financial responsibility requirements established under 16360 section 1509.07 of the Revised Code, subject to the approval of 16361 the chief. The transfer of ownership also shall be subject to the 16362 landowner's filing the appropriate forms required under section 16363 1509.31 of the Revised Code and providing to the chief sufficient 16364 information to demonstrate the landowner's or owner's right to 16365 produce a formation or formations. That information may include a 16366 deed, a lease, or other documentation of ownership or property 16367 rights. 16368

The chief shall approve or disapprove the transfer of 16369 ownership of the well. If the chief approves the transfer, the 16370 owner is responsible for operating the well in accordance with 16371 this chapter and rules adopted under it, including, without 16372 limitation, all of the following: 16373

(1) Filing an application with the chief under section 16374 appurtenant to the well that has been identified by the chief as 16379 having been abandoned by the former owner; 16380

(3) Complying with all applicable requirements that are 16381 necessary to drill deeper, plug the well, or plug back the well. 16382

(H) The chief shall issue an order that requires the owner of 16383 a well to pay the actual documented costs of a corrective action 16384 that is described in division (B)(2) of this section concerning 16385 the well. The chief shall transmit the money so recovered to the 16386 treasurer of state who shall deposit the money in the state 16387 treasury to the credit of the oil and gas well fund. 16388

(I) The chief may engage in cooperative projects under this 16389

United States; any other governmental agencies; or any state 16391 university or college as defined in section 3345.27 of the Revised 16392 Code. A contract entered into for purposes of a cooperative 16393 project is not subject to division (B) of section 127.16 of the 16394

Sec. 1509.36. Any person adversely affected by an order by 16396 the chief of the division of oil and gas resources management may 16397 appeal to the oil and gas commission for an order vacating or 16398 modifying the order. 16399

The person so appealing to the commission shall be known as 16400 appellant and the chief shall be known as appellee. Appellant and 16401 appellee shall be deemed to be parties to the appeal. 16402

The appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the order 16403 complained of and the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The 16404 appeal shall be filed with the commission within thirty days after 16405 the date upon which the appellant received notice by certified 16406 mail and, for all other persons adversely affected by the order, 16407 within thirty days after the date of the order complained of. 16408 Notice of the filing of the appeal shall be filed with the chief 16409 within three days after the appeal is filed with the commission. 16410

Upon the filing of the appeal the commission promptly shall 16411 fix the time and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be 16412 held, and shall give the appellant and the chief at least ten 16413 days' written notice thereof by mail. The commission may postpone 16414 or continue any hearing upon its own motion or upon application of 16415

the appellant or of the chief. 16416

The filing of an appeal provided for in this section does not 16417 automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 16418 from, but upon application by the appellant the commission may 16419 suspend or stay the execution pending determination of the appeal 16420 upon such terms as the commission considers proper. 16421

Either party to the appeal or any interested person who, 16422 pursuant to commission rules has been granted permission to 16423 appear, may submit such evidence as the commission considers 16424 admissible. 16425

For the purpose of conducting a hearing on an appeal, the 16426 commission may require the attendance of witnesses and the 16427 production of books, records, and papers, and it may, and at the 16428 request of any party it shall, issue subpoenas for witnesses or 16429 subpoenas duces tecum to compel the production of any books, 16430 records, or papers, directed to the sheriffs of the counties where 16431 the witnesses are found. The subpoenas shall be served and 16432 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 16433
served and returned. The fees of sheriffs shall be the same as 16434 those allowed by the court of common pleas in criminal cases. 16435 Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 16436 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fees and mileage 16437 expenses incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in 16438 advance by the appellant, and the remainder of those expenses 16439 shall be paid out of funds appropriated for the expenses of the 16440 division of oil and gas resources management. 16441

In case of disobedience or neglect of any subpoena served on 16442 any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 16443 regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 16444 court of common pleas of the county in which the disobedience, 16445 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 16446 of the commission or any member thereof, shall compel obedience by 16447 attachment proceedings for contempt as in the case of disobedience 16448 of the requirements of a subpoena issued from that court or a 16449 refusal to testify therein. Witnesses at such hearings shall 16450 testify under oath, and any member of the commission may 16451 administer oaths or affirmations to persons who so testify. 16452

At the request of any party to the appeal, a ~~stenographic~~ 16453 record of the testimony and other evidence submitted shall be 16454 taken by an official court ~~shorthand~~ reporter at the expense of 16455
the party making the request ~~therefor~~ for the record. The record 16456 shall include all of the testimony and other evidence and the 16457 rulings on the admissibility thereof presented at the hearing. The 16458 commission shall pass upon the admissibility of evidence, but any 16459 party may at the time object to the admission of any evidence and 16460 except to the rulings of the commission thereon, and if the 16461 commission refuses to admit evidence the party offering same may 16462 make a proffer thereof, and such proffer shall be made a part of 16463 the record of the hearing. 16464

If upon completion of the hearing the commission finds that 16465 the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, it shall make a 16466 written order affirming the order appealed from; if the commission 16467 finds that the order was unreasonable or unlawful, it shall make a 16468 written order vacating the order appealed from and making the 16469 order that it finds the chief should have made. Every order made 16470 by the commission shall contain a written finding by the 16471 commission of the facts upon which the order is based. 16472

Notice of the making of the order shall be given forthwith to 16473 each party to the appeal by mailing a certified copy thereof to 16474 each such party by certified mail. 16475

The order of the commission is final unless vacated by the 16476 court of common pleas of Franklin county in an appeal as provided 16477 for in section 1509.37 of the Revised Code. Sections 1509.01 to 16478 1509.37 of the Revised Code, providing for appeals relating to 16479 orders by the chief or by the commission, or relating to rules 16480 adopted by the chief, do not constitute the exclusive procedure 16481 that any person who believes the person's rights to be unlawfully 16482 affected by those sections or any official action taken thereunder 16483 must pursue in order to protect and preserve those rights, nor do 16484 those sections constitute a procedure that that person must pursue 16485 before that person may lawfully appeal to the courts to protect 16486 and preserve those rights. 16487

each horizontal well; 16516

(2) Establishes to the director's satisfaction that the 16517

Sec. 1571.14. Any person claiming to be aggrieved or 16865 shall be delivered by appellant to the chief within three days 16884 after the appeal is filed with the director. 16885

Within seven days after receipt of the notice of appeal the 16886 chief shall prepare and certify to the director at the expense of 16887 appellant a complete transcript of the proceedings out of which 16888 the appeal arises, including a transcript of the testimony 16889 submitted to the chief. 16890

Upon the filing of the appeal the director shall fix the time 16891 and place at which the hearing on the appeal will be held, and 16892 shall give appellant and the chief at least ten days' written 16893 notice thereof by mail. The director may postpone or continue any 16894 hearing upon the director's own motion or upon application of 16895 appellant or of the chief. 16896

automatically suspend or stay execution of the order appealed 16898 from, but upon application by the appellant the director may 16899 suspend or stay such execution pending determination of the appeal 16900 upon such terms as the director deems proper. 16901

The hearing officer appointed by the director shall hear the 16902 appeal de novo, and either party to the appeal may submit such 16903 evidence as the hearing officer deems admissible. 16904 such witnesses are found, which subpoenas shall be served and 16911 returned in the same manner as subpoenas in criminal cases are 16912

Witnesses shall be paid the fees and mileage provided for under 16915 section 119.094 of the Revised Code. Such fee and mileage expenses 16916 incurred at the request of appellant shall be paid in advance by 16917 appellant, and the remainder of such expenses shall be paid out of 16918 funds appropriated for the expenses of the division of oil and gas 16919 resources management. 16920

any person, or the refusal of any witness to testify to any matter 16922
regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the 16923 court of common pleas of the county in which such disobedience, 16924 neglect, or refusal occurs, or any judge thereof, on application 16925
of the director, shall compel obedience by attachment proceedings 16926 for contempt as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of 16927 a subpoena issued from such court or a refusal to testify therein. 16928 Witnesses at such hearings shall testify under oath, and the 16929 hearing officer may administer oaths or affirmations to persons 16930 who so testify. 16931

taken by an official court ~~shorthand~~ reporter at the expense of 16934
the party making the request ~~therefor~~ for the record. The record 16935 shall include all of the testimony and other evidence and the 16936 rulings on the admissibility thereof presented at the hearing. The 16937 hearing officer shall pass upon the admissibility of evidence, but 16938 any party may at the time object to the admission of any evidence 16939 and except to the ruling of the hearing officer thereon, and if 16940 the hearing officer refuses to admit evidence, the party offering 16941 same may make a proffer thereof, and such proffer shall be made a 16942 part of the record of such hearing. 16943

If upon completion of the hearing the hearing officer finds 16944 that the order appealed from was lawful and reasonable, the 16945 hearing officer shall make a written order affirming the order 16946 appealed from. If the hearing officer finds that such order was 16947 unreasonable or unlawful, the hearing officer shall make a written 16948 order vacating the order appealed from and making the order that 16949 it finds the chief should have made. Every order made by the 16950 hearing officer shall contain a written finding by the hearing 16951 officer of the facts upon which the order is based. Notice of the 16952 making of such order shall be given forthwith to each party to the 16953 need not obtain a certificate of authority as a health insuring 17631 corporation to offer an open panel plan as long as the providers 17632 and health care facilities participating in the open panel plan 17633 receive their compensation directly from the insurer. If the 17634 providers and health care facilities participating in the open 17635 panel plan receive their compensation from any person other than 17636 the insurer, or if the insurer offers a closed panel plan, the 17637 insurer must obtain a certificate of authority as a health 17638 insuring corporation. 17639 intermediary organization that contracts with a health insuring 17651 corporation or self-insured employer, regardless of the method of 17652 reimbursement to the health care facility, provider, health 17653 delivery network, or intermediary organization, to obtain a 17654 certificate of authority as a health insuring corporation under 17655 this chapter, unless otherwise provided, in the case of contracts 17656 with a self-insured employer, by operation of the "Employee 17657

1001, as amended. 17659 including any health delivery network that is functioning as an 17661 intermediary organization doing business in this state, that is 17662 not required to obtain a certificate of authority under this 17663 chapter shall certify to the superintendent annually, not later 17664 by the highest ranking official which includes the following 17666

information: 17667

to conduct its business. 17672

(I) The superintendent shall not issue a certificate of 17673 authority to a health insuring corporation that is a provider 17674 sponsored organization unless all health care plans to be offered 17675 by the health insuring corporation provide basic health care 17676 services. Substantially all of the physicians and hospitals with 17677 ownership or control of the provider sponsored organization, as 17678 defined in section 1751.01 of the Revised Code, shall also be 17679 participating providers for the provision of basic health care 17680 services for health care plans offered by the provider sponsored 17681 organization. If a health insuring corporation that is a provider 17682 sponsored organization offers health care plans that do not 17683 provide basic health care services, the health insuring 17684 corporation shall be deemed, for purposes of section 1751.35 of 17685 the Revised Code, to have failed to substantially comply with this 17686 chapter. 17687

Except as specifically provided in this division and in 17688 division (A) of section 1751.28 of the Revised Code, the 17689 provisions of this chapter shall apply to all health insuring 17690 corporations that are provider sponsored organizations in the same 17691 manner that these provisions apply to all health insuring 17692 corporations that are not provider sponsored organizations. 17693

(J) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to 17694 any multiple employer welfare arrangement operating pursuant to 17695 Chapter 1739. of the Revised Code. 17696

(K) Any person who violates division (B) of this section, and 17697 any health delivery network that fails to comply with division (H) 17698 of this section, is subject to the penalties set forth in section 17699

Sec. 1751.13. (A)(1)(a) A health insuring corporation shall, 17701 either directly or indirectly, enter into contracts for the 17702 provision of health care services with a sufficient number and 17703 types of providers and healthcare facilities to ensure that all 17704 covered health care services will be accessible to enrollees from 17705 a contracted provider or health care facility. 17706

(b) A health insuring corporation shall not refuse to 17707 contract with a physician for the provision of health care 17708 services or refuse to recognize a physician as a specialist on the 17709 basis that the physician attended an educational program or a 17710 residency program approved or certified by the American 17711 osteopathic association. A health insuring corporation shall not 17712 refuse to contract with a health care facility for the provision 17713 of health care services on the basis that the health care facility 17714 is certified or accredited by the American osteopathic association 17715 or that the health care facility is an osteopathic hospital as 17716 ~~defined in section 3702.51 of the Revised Code.~~ 17717

(c) Nothing in division (A)(1)(b) of this section shall be 17718 construed to require a health insuring corporation to make a 17719 benefit payment under a closed panel plan to a physician or health 17720 care facility with which the health insuring corporation does not 17721 have a contract, provided that none of the bases set forth in that 17722 division are used as a reason for failing to make a benefit 17723 payment. 17724

(2) When a health insuring corporation is unable to provide a 17725 covered health care service from a contracted provider or health 17726 care facility, the health insuring corporation must provide that 17727 health care service from a noncontracted provider or health care 17728 facility consistent with the terms of the enrollee's policy, 17729 contract, certificate, or agreement. The health insuring 17730 corporation shall either ensure that the health care service be 17731 provided at no greater cost to the enrollee than if the enrollee 17732 had obtained the health care service from a contracted provider or 17733 health care facility, or make other arrangements acceptable to the 17734 superintendent of insurance. 17735

(3) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a health insuring 17736 corporation from entering into contracts with out-of-state 17737 providers or health care facilities that are licensed, certified, 17738 accredited, or otherwise authorized in that state. 17739

(B)(1) A health insuring corporation shall, either directly 17740 or indirectly, enter into contracts with all providers and health 17741 care facilities through which health care services are provided to 17742 its enrollees. 17743

(2) A health insuring corporation, upon written request, 17744 shall assist its contracted providers in finding stop-loss or 17745 reinsurance carriers. 17746

(C) A health insuring corporation shall file an annual 17747 certificate with the superintendent certifying that all provider 17748 contracts and contracts with health care facilities through which 17749 health care services are being provided contain the following: 17750

(1) A description of the method by which the provider or 17751 health care facility will be notified of the specific health care 17752 services for which the provider or health care facility will be 17753 responsible, including any limitations or conditions on such 17754
services; 17755

(2) The specific hold harmless provision specifying 17756 protection of enrollees set forth as follows: 17757

"[Provider/Health Care Facility] agrees that in no event, 17758 including but not limited to nonpayment by the health insuring 17759 corporation, insolvency of the health insuring corporation, or 17760 breach of this agreement, shall [Provider/Health Care Facility] 17761 bill, charge, collect a deposit from, seek remuneration or 17762 reimbursement from, or have any recourse against, a subscriber, 17763 enrollee, person to whom health care services have been provided, 17764 or person acting on behalf of the covered enrollee, for health 17765 care services provided pursuant to this agreement. This does not 17766 prohibit [Provider/Health Care Facility] from collecting 17767 co-insurance, deductibles, or copayments as specifically provided 17768 in the evidence of coverage, or fees for uncovered health care 17769 services delivered on a fee-for-service basis to persons 17770 referenced above, nor from any recourse against the health 17771 insuring corporation or its successor." 17772

(3) Provisions requiring the provider or health care facility 17773 to continue to provide covered health care services to enrollees 17774 in the event of the health insuring corporation's insolvency or 17775 discontinuance of operations. The provisions shall require the 17776 provider or health care facility to continue to provide covered 17777 health care services to enrollees as needed to complete any 17778 medically necessary procedures commenced but unfinished at the 17779 time of the health insuring corporation's insolvency or 17780 discontinuance of operations. The completion of a medically 17781 necessary procedure shall include the rendering of all covered 17782 health care services that constitute medically necessary follow-up 17783 care for that procedure. If an enrollee is receiving necessary 17784 inpatient care at a hospital, the provisions may limit the 17785 required provision of covered health care services relating to 17786 that inpatient care in accordance with division (D)(3) of section 17787 1751.11 of the Revised Code, and may also limit such required 17788 provision of covered health care services to the period ending 17789 thirty days after the health insuring corporation's insolvency or 17790 discontinuance of operations. 17791

The provisions required by division (C)(3) of this section 17792 liquidation order under Chapter 3903. of the Revised Code; 17797

(b) The end of the enrollee's period of coverage for a 17798 contractual prepayment or premium; 17799

(c) The enrollee obtains equivalent coverage with another 17800 health insuring corporation or insurer, or the enrollee's employer 17801 obtains such coverage for the enrollee; 17802

(d) The enrollee or the enrollee's employer terminates 17803 coverage under the contract; 17804

(e) A liquidator effects a transfer of the health insuring 17805 corporation's obligations under the contract under division (A)(8) 17806 of section 3903.21 of the Revised Code. 17807

(4) A provision clearly stating the rights and 17808 responsibilities of the health insuring corporation, and of the 17809 contracted providers and health care facilities, with respect to 17810 administrative policies and programs, including, but not limited 17811 to, payments systems, utilization review, quality assurance, 17812 assessment, and improvement programs, credentialing, 17813 confidentiality requirements, and any applicable federal or state 17814 programs; 17815

(5) A provision regarding the availability and 17816 confidentiality of those health records maintained by providers 17817 and health care facilities to monitor and evaluate the quality of 17818 care, to conduct evaluations and audits, and to determine on a 17819 concurrent or retrospective basis the necessity of and 17820 appropriateness of health care services provided to enrollees. The 17821 provision shall include terms requiring the provider or health 17822 care facility to make these health records available to 17823 appropriate state and federal authorities involved in assessing 17824 the quality of care or in investigating the grievances or 17825 complaints of enrollees, and requiring the provider or health care 17826 facility to comply with applicable state and federal laws related 17827 to the confidentiality of medical or health records. 17828

(6) A provision that states that contractual rights and 17829 responsibilities may not be assigned or delegated by the provider 17830 or health care facility without the prior written consent of the 17831 health insuring corporation; 17832

(7) A provision requiring the provider or health care 17833 facility to maintain adequate professional liability and 17834 malpractice insurance. The provision shall also require the 17835 provider or health care facility to notify the health insuring 17836 corporation not more than ten days after the provider's or health 17837 care facility's receipt of notice of any reduction or cancellation 17838 of such coverage. 17839

(8) A provision requiring the provider or health care facility to observe, protect, and promote the rights of enrollees as patients;

(9) A provision requiring the provider or health care facility to provide health care services without discrimination on the basis of a patient's participation in the health care plan, age, sex, ethnicity, religion, sexual preference, health status, or disability, and without regard to the source of payments made for health care services rendered to a patient. This requirement shall not apply to circumstances when the provider or health care facility appropriately does not render services due to limitations arising from the provider's or health care facility's lack of training, experience, or skill, or due to licensing restrictions.

(10) A provision containing the specifics of any obligation on the primary care provider to provide, or to arrange for the provision of, covered health care services twenty-four hours per day, seven days per week;

(11) A provision setting forth procedures for the resolution of disputes arising out of the contract;

(12) A provision stating that the hold harmless provision required by division (C)(2) of this section shall survive the termination of the contract with respect to services covered and provided under the contract during the time the contract was in effect, regardless of the reason for the termination, including the insolvency of the health insuring corporation;

(13) A provision requiring those terms that are used in the contract and that are defined by this chapter, be used in the contract in a manner consistent with those definitions.

provider or health care facility shall contain any of the 17879 care services; 17895

(e) A provision that penalizes a provider or health care 17896 facility for providing information or testimony to a legislative 17897

completed as a new home study. 18375

(3) Before a recommending agency submits a recommendation to 18376 the department of job and family services on whether the 18377 department should issue a certificate to a foster home under 18378 section 5103.03 of the Revised Code, and every four years 18379 thereafter prior to a recertification under that section, the 18380 administrative director of the agency shall request that the 18381 superintendent of BCII conduct a criminal records check with 18382 respect to the prospective foster caregiver and a criminal records 18383

of investigation in the criminal records check, including 18403 fingerprint_based checks of national crime information databases 18404
as described in 42 U.S.C. 671. 18405

When the administrative director of an agency, or attorney, 18406 who arranges an adoption for a prospective parent requests, at the 18407 time of the initial home study, a criminal records check for a 18408 person pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section, the 18409

fingerprint_based checks of national crime information databases 18413

administrative director of an agency, or attorney, who arranges an 18416 adoption for a prospective parent requests a criminal records 18417 check for a person pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section, 18418 the administrative director or attorney may request that the 18419 superintendent of BCII include information from the federal bureau 18420
of investigation in the criminal records check, including 18421
fingerprint_based checks of national crime information databases 18422

When the administrative director of a recommending agency 18424 check, including fingerprint-based checks of national crime 18432 information databases as described in 42 U.S.C. 671, for the 18433 person subject to the criminal records check. In all other cases 18434 in which the administrative director of a recommending agency 18435 requests a criminal records check for a person pursuant to 18436 division (A)(3) of this section, the administrative director may 18437 request that the superintendent of BCII include information from 18438 the federal bureau of investigation in the criminal records check, 18439 including fingerprint-based checks of national crime information 18440

Prior to a hearing on a final decree of adoption or 18442 interlocutory order of adoption by a probate court, the 18443 administrative director of an agency, or an attorney, who arranges 18444 an adoption for a prospective parent shall provide to the clerk of 18445 the probate court either of the following: 18446

(a) Any information received pursuant to a request made under 18447 required under division (B)(2) of this section. 18457

(2) An appointing or hiring officer, administrative director, 18458 or attorney required by division (A) of this section to request a 18459 criminal records check shall provide to each person subject to a 18460 criminal records check a copy of the form prescribed pursuant to 18461 division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and a 18462

Revised Code, obtain the completed form and impression sheet from 18465 the person, and forward the completed form and impression sheet to 18466 the superintendent of BCII at the time the criminal records check 18467

Any person subject to a criminal records check who receives 18469 pursuant to this division a copy of the form prescribed pursuant 18470 to division (C)(1) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code and a 18471 copy of an impression sheet prescribed pursuant to division (C)(2) 18472 of that section and who is requested to complete the form and 18473 provide a set of fingerprint impressions shall complete the form 18474 or provide all the information necessary to complete the form and 18475 shall provide the impression sheet with the impressions of the 18476 person's fingerprints. If a person subject to a criminal records 18477 check, upon request, fails to provide the information necessary to 18478 complete the form or fails to provide impressions of the person's 18479 fingerprints, the appointing or hiring officer shall not appoint 18480 or employ the person as a person responsible for a child's care in 18481 out-of-home care, a probate court may not issue a final decree of 18482 adoption or an interlocutory order of adoption making the person 18483 an adoptive parent, and the department of job and family services 18484 shall not issue a certificate authorizing the prospective foster 18485 caregiver to operate a foster home. 18486

(C)(1) No appointing or hiring officer shall appoint or 18487 employ a person as a person responsible for a child's care in 18488 out-of-home care, the department of job and family services shall 18489 not issue a certificate under section 5103.03 of the Revised Code 18490 authorizing a prospective foster caregiver to operate a foster 18491 home, and no probate court shall issue a final decree of adoption 18492 or an interlocutory order of adoption making a person an adoptive 18493 parent if the person or, in the case of a prospective foster 18494 caregiver or prospective adoptive parent, any person eighteen 18495 years of age or older who resides with the prospective foster 18496 caregiver or prospective adoptive parent previously has been 18497 convicted of or pleaded guilty to any of the violations described 18498 in division (A)~~(8)~~(5) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code, 18499 unless the person meets rehabilitation standards established in 18500 rules adopted under division (F) of this section. 18501

(2) The appointing or hiring officer may appoint or employ a 18502 person as a person responsible for a child's care in out-of-home 18503 care conditionally until the criminal records check required by 18504 this section is completed and the officer receives the results of 18505 the criminal records check. If the results of the criminal records 18506 check indicate that, pursuant to division (C)(1) of this section, 18507 the person subject to the criminal records check does not qualify 18508 for appointment or employment, the officer shall release the 18509 any foster home license, certificate, or other similar 18515 authorization in another state occurring within the five years 18516 this state. The failure of a prospective foster caregiver to 18518 notify the recommending agency of any revocation of that type in 18519 another state that occurred within that five-year period shall be 18520 grounds for denial of the person's foster home application or the 18521 revocation of the person's foster home certification, whichever is 18522 applicable. If a person has had a revocation in another state 18523 within the five years prior to the date of the application, the 18524 department of job and family services shall not issue a foster 18525 home certificate to the prospective foster caregiver. 18526

(D) The appointing or hiring officer, administrative 18527 director, or attorney shall pay to the bureau of criminal 18528 identification and investigation the fee prescribed pursuant to 18529 division (C)(3) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code for each 18530 criminal records check conducted in accordance with that section 18531 upon a request pursuant to division (A) of this section. The 18532 officer, director, or attorney may charge the person subject to 18533 the criminal records check a fee for the costs the officer, 18534 director, or attorney incurs in obtaining the criminal records 18535 check. A fee charged under this division shall not exceed the 18536 amount of fees the officer, director, or attorney pays for the 18537 criminal records check. If a fee is charged under this division, 18538 the officer, director, or attorney shall notify the person who is 18539 the applicant at the time of the person's initial application for 18540 appointment or employment, an adoption to be arranged, or a 18541 certificate to operate a foster home of the amount of the fee and 18542 that, unless the fee is paid, the person who is the applicant will 18543 not be considered for appointment or employment or as an adoptive 18544 parent or foster caregiver. 18545

(E) The report of any criminal records check conducted by the 18546 bureau of criminal identification and investigation in accordance 18547 with section 109.572 of the Revised Code and pursuant to a request 18548 made under division (A) of this section is not a public record for 18549 the purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code and shall not 18550 be made available to any person other than the following: 18551

(1) The person who is the subject of the criminal records 18552
check or the person's representative; 18553

(2) The appointing or hiring officer, administrative 18554 director, or attorney requesting the criminal records check or the 18555 officer's, director's, or attorney's representative; 18556

(3) The department of job and family services, a county 18557 department of job and family services, or a public children 18558 services agency; 18559

(4) Any court, hearing officer, or other necessary individual 18560 involved in a case dealing with the denial of employment, a final 18561 decree of adoption or interlocutory order of adoption, or a foster 18562 home certificate. 18563

(F) The director of job and family services shall adopt rules 18564 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement 18565 this section. The rules shall include rehabilitation standards a 18566 person who has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense 18567 listed in division (A)~~(8)~~(5) of section 109.572 of the Revised 18568 Code must meet for an appointing or hiring officer to appoint or 18569 employ the person as a person responsible for a child's care in 18570 out-of-home care, a probate court to issue a final decree of 18571 adoption or interlocutory order of adoption making the person an 18572 adoptive parent, or the department to issue a certificate 18573 authorizing the prospective foster caregiver to operate a foster 18574 home or not revoke a foster home certificate for a violation 18575 specified in section 5103.0328 of the Revised Code. 18576

(G) An appointing or hiring officer, administrative director, 18577 or attorney required by division (A) of this section to request a 18578 criminal records check shall inform each person who is the 18579 applicant, at the time of the person's initial application for 18580 appointment or employment, an adoption to be arranged, or a foster 18581 home certificate, that the person subject to the criminal records 18582 check is required to provide a set of impressions of the person's 18583 fingerprints and that a criminal records check is required to be 18584 conducted and satisfactorily completed in accordance with section 18585
109.572 of the Revised Code. 18586

(H) The department of job and family services may waive the requirement that a criminal records check based on fingerprints be conducted for an adult resident of a prospective adoptive or foster home or the home of a foster caregiver if the recommending agency documents to the department's satisfaction that the adult resident is physically unable to comply with the fingerprinting requirement and poses no danger to foster children or adoptive children who may be placed in the home. In such cases, the recommending or approving agency shall request that the bureau of criminal identification and investigation conduct a criminal records check using the person's name and social security number.

Sec. 2152.121. (A) If a complaint is filed against a child alleging that the child is a delinquent child and the case is transferred pursuant to division (A)(1)(a)(i) or (A)(1)(b)(ii) of section 2152.12 of the Revised Code, the juvenile court that transferred the case shall retain jurisdiction for purposes of making disposition of the child when required under division (B) of this section.

(B) If a complaint is filed against a child alleging that the child is a delinquent child, if the case is transferred pursuant to division (A)(1)(a)(i) or (A)(1)(b)(ii) of section 2152.12 of 18648 the Revised Code, and if the child subsequently is convicted of or 18649 pleads guilty to an offense in that case, the sentence to be 18650 imposed or disposition to be made of the child shall be determined 18651 as follows: 18652

(1) The court in which the child is convicted of or pleads 18653 guilty to the offense shall determine whether, had a complaint 18654 been filed in juvenile court alleging that the child was a 18655 delinquent child for committing an act that would be that offense 18656 if committed by an adult, division (A) of section 2152.12 of the 18657 Revised Code would have required mandatory transfer of the case or 18658 division (B) of that section would have allowed discretionary 18659 transfer of the case. The court shall not consider the factor 18660 specified in division (B)(3) of section 2152.12 of the Revised 18661 Code in making its determination under this division. 18662

(2) If the court in which the child is convicted of or pleads 18663 guilty to the offense determines under division (B)(1) of this 18664 section that, had a complaint been filed in juvenile court 18665
alleging that the child was a delinquent child for committing an 18666 act that would be that offense if committed by an adult, division 18667
(A) of section 2152.12 of the Revised Code would not have required 18668 mandatory transfer of the case, and division (B) of that section 18669 would not have allowed discretionary transfer of the case, the 18670 court shall transfer jurisdiction of the case back to the juvenile 18671 court that initially transferred the case, the court and all other 18672 agencies that have any record of the conviction of the child or 18673 the child's guilty plea shall expunge the conviction or guilty 18674 plea and all records of it, the conviction or guilty plea shall be 18675 considered and treated for all purposes other than as provided in 18676 this section to have never occurred, the conviction or guilty plea 18677 shall be considered and treated for all purposes other than as 18678 provided in this section to have been a delinquent child 18679 adjudication of the child, and the juvenile court shall impose one 18680 or more traditional juvenile dispositions upon the child under 18681 sections 2152.19 and 2152.20 of the Revised Code. 18682

(3) If the court in which the child is convicted of or pleads 18683
guilty to the offense determines under division (B)(1) of this 18684
act that would be that offense if committed by an adult, division 18687
(A) of section 2152.12 of the Revised Code would not have required 18688 mandatory transfer of the case but division (B) of that section 18689 would have allowed discretionary transfer of the case, the court 18690 shall determine the sentence it believes should be imposed upon 18691 the child under Chapter 2929. of the Revised Code, shall impose 18692 that sentence upon the child, and shall stay that sentence pending 18693 completion of the procedures specified in this division. Upon 18694 imposition and staying of the sentence, the court shall transfer 18695 jurisdiction of the case back to the juvenile court that initially 18696 transferred the case and the juvenile court shall proceed in 18697 accordance with this division. In no case may the child waive a 18698 right to a hearing of the type described in division (B)(3)(b) of 18699 this section, regarding a motion filed as described in that 18700 division by the prosecuting attorney in the case. Upon transfer of 18701 jurisdiction of the case back to the juvenile court, both of the 18702
following apply: 18703

(a) Except as otherwise provided in division (B)(3)(b) of 18704 this section, the juvenile court shall impose a serious youthful 18705 offender dispositional sentence upon the child under division 18706 (D)(1) of section 2152.13 of the Revised Code. In imposing the 18707 adult portion of that sentence, the juvenile court shall consider 18708 and give preference to the sentence imposed upon the child by the 18709 court in which the child was convicted of or pleaded guilty to the 18710 offense. Upon imposing a serious youthful offender dispositional 18711 sentence upon the child as described in this division, the 18712 juvenile court shall notify the court in which the child was 18713 convicted of or pleaded guilty to the offense, the sentence 18714 imposed upon the child by that court shall terminate, the court 18715 and all other agencies that have any record of the conviction of 18716 the child shall expunge the conviction or guilty plea and all 18717 records of it, the conviction or guilty plea shall be considered 18718 and treated for all purposes other than as provided in this 18719 section to have never occurred, and the conviction or guilty plea 18720 shall be considered and treated for all purposes other than as 18721

provided in this section to have been a delinquent child 18722 adjudication of the child. 18723

(b) Upon the transfer, the prosecuting attorney in the case 18724 may file a motion in the juvenile court that objects to the 18725 imposition of a serious youthful offender dispositional sentence 18726 upon the child and requests that the sentence imposed upon the 18727 child by the court in which the child was convicted of or pleaded 18728 guilty to the offense be invoked. Upon the filing of a motion 18729 under this division, the juvenile court shall hold a hearing to 18730 determine whether the child is not amenable to care or 18731 rehabilitation within the juvenile system and whether the safety 18732 of the community may require that the child be subject solely to 18733 adult sanctions. If the juvenile court at the hearing finds that 18734 the child is not amenable to care or rehabilitation within the 18735 juvenile system or that the safety of the community may require 18736 that the child be subject solely to adult sanctions, the court 18737 shall grant the motion. Absent such a finding, the juvenile court 18738 shall deny the motion. In making its decision under this division, 18739 the juvenile court shall consider the factors listed in division 18740 (D) of section 2152.12 of the Revised Code as factors indicating 18741 that the motion should be granted, shall consider the factors 18742 listed in division (E) of that section as factors indicating that 18743 the motion should not be granted, and shall consider whether the 18744 applicable factors listed in division (D) of that section outweigh 18745 the applicable factors listed in division (E) of that section. 18746

If the juvenile court grants the motion of the prosecuting 18747 attorney under this division, the juvenile court shall transfer 18748 jurisdiction of the case back to the court in which the child was 18749 convicted of or pleaded guilty to the offense, and the sentence 18750 imposed by that court shall be invoked. If the juvenile court 18751 denies the motion of the prosecuting attorney under this section, 18752 the juvenile court shall impose a serious youthful offender 18753 dispositional sentence upon the child in accordance with division 18754
(B)(3)(a) of this section. 18755

(4) If the court in which the child is convicted of or pleads 18756
guilty to the offense determines under division (B)(1) of this 18757
section that, had a complaint been filed in juvenile court 18758
act that would be that offense if committed by an adult, division 18760
(A) of section 2152.12 of the Revised Code would have required 18761 mandatory transfer of the case, the court shall impose sentence 18762 upon the child under Chapter 2929. of the Revised Code. 18763

Sec. 2152.131. (A) The department of youth services, for the 18764 purposes of this section, shall select a single validated risk 18765 assessment tool for delinquent children that assesses the 18766 delinquent child's risk to reoffend. The assessment tool shall be 18767 used as described in division (B) of this section. 18768

(B)(1) In determining whether to initiate a serious youthful 18769 offender dispositional sentence process under section 2152.13 of 18770 the Revised Code with respect to an alleged delinquent child who 18771 is eligible for the dispositional sentence, a prosecuting attorney 18772 shall utilize the single validated risk assessment tool selected 18773 by the department of youth services under division (A) of this 18774
section. 18775

Sec. 2152.22. (A) When a child is committed to the legal 18810 custody of the department of youth services under this chapter, 18811 the juvenile court relinquishes control with respect to the child 18812 so committed, except as provided in divisions (B), (C), (D), and 18813
(H) of this section or in sections 2152.82 to 2152.86 of the 18814 Revised Code. Subject to divisions (B), (C), and (D) of this 18815 section, sections 2151.353 and 2151.412 to 2151.421 of the Revised 18816 Code, sections 2152.82 to 2152.86 of the Revised Code, and any 18817 other provision of law that specifies a different duration for a 18818 dispositional order, all other dispositional orders made by the 18819 court under this chapter shall be temporary and shall continue for 18820 a period that is designated by the court in its order, until 18821 terminated or modified by the court or until the child attains 18822 twenty-one years of age. 18823

The department shall not release the child from a department 18824 facility and as a result shall not discharge the child or order 18825 the child's release on supervised release prior to the expiration 18826 of the minimum period specified by the court in division (A)(1) of 18827 section 2152.16 of the Revised Code and any term of commitment 18828 imposed under section 2152.17 of the Revised Code or prior to the 18829 child's attainment of twenty-one years of age, except upon the 18830 order of a court pursuant to division (B), (C), or (D) of this 18831 section or in accordance with section 5139.54 of the Revised Code. 18832

(B)(1) The Unless the court grants judicial release under 18833 division (D)(1)(b) of this section, the court that commits a 18834 delinquent child to the department of youth services may grant 18835 judicial release of the child to court supervision under this 18836 division during the first half of the prescribed minimum term for 18837 which the child was committed to the department or, if the child 18838 was committed to the department until the child attains twenty-one 18839 years of age, during the first half of the prescribed period of 18840 commitment that begins on the first day of commitment and ends on 18841 the child's twenty-first birthday, provided any commitment imposed 18842 under division (A), (B), (C), or (D) of section 2152.17 of the 18843 Revised Code has ended. 18844

(2) If the department desires to release a child during a 18845 period specified in division (B)(1) of this section, it shall 18846 request the court that committed the child to grant a judicial 18847 release of the child to court supervision under this division. 18848 During whichever of those periods is applicable, the child or the 18849 parents of the child also may request that court to grant a 18850 judicial release of the child to court supervision. Upon receipt 18851 of a request for a judicial release to court supervision under 18852 this division from the department, the child, or the child's 18853 parent, or upon its own motion, the court that committed the child 18854 shall do one of the following: approve the release by journal 18855 entry; schedule within thirty days after the request is received a 18856 time for a hearing on whether the child is to be released; or 18857 reject the request by journal entry without conducting a hearing. 18858

If the court rejects an initial request for a release under 18859 this division by the child or the child's parent, the child or the 18860 child's parent may make one additional request for a judicial 18861 release to court supervision within the applicable period. The 18862 additional request may be made no earlier than thirty days after 18863 the filing of the prior request for a judicial release to court 18864 supervision. Upon the filing of a second request for a judicial 18865 release to court supervision, the court shall either approve or 18866 disapprove the release by journal entry or schedule within thirty 18867 days after the request is received a time for a hearing on whether 18868 the child is to be released. 18869

day of commitment and ends on the child's twenty-first birthday, 18902 provided any commitment imposed under division (A), (B), (C), or 18903
(D) of section 2152.17 of the Revised Code has ended. 18904

(2) If the department desires to release a child during a 18905 period specified in division (C)(1) of this section, it shall 18906 request the court that committed the child to grant a judicial 18907 release to department of youth services supervision. During 18908 whichever of those periods is applicable, the child or the child's 18909 parent also may request the court that committed the child to 18910 grant a judicial release to department of youth services 18911 supervision. Upon receipt of a request for judicial release to 18912 department of youth services supervision, the child, or the 18913 child's parent, or upon its own motion at any time during that 18914 period, the court shall do one of the following: approve the 18915 release by journal entry; schedule a time within thirty days after 18916 receipt of the request for a hearing on whether the child is to be 18917 released; or reject the request by journal entry without 18918 conducting a hearing. 18919

If the court rejects an initial request for release under 18920
this division by the child or the child's parent, the child or the 18921 child's parent may make one or more subsequent requests for a 18922 release within the applicable period, but may make no more than 18923 one request during each period of ninety days that the child is in 18924 a secure department facility after the filing of a prior request 18925 for early release. Upon the filing of a request for release under 18926 this division subsequent to an initial request, the court shall 18927 either approve or disapprove the release by journal entry or 18928 schedule a time within thirty days after receipt of the request 18929 for a hearing on whether the child is to be released. 18930

(3) If a court schedules a hearing under division (C)(2) of 18931 this section, it may order the department to deliver the child to 18932 the court on the date set for the hearing and shall order the 18933 department to present to the court at that time a treatment plan 18934 for the child's post-institutional care. The court may conduct the 18935 hearing without the child being present. The court shall determine 18936 at the hearing whether the child should be granted a judicial 18937 release to department of youth services supervision. 18938

If the court approves the judicial release to department of 18939 youth services supervision, the department shall prepare a written 18940 treatment and rehabilitation plan for the child pursuant to 18941 division (F) of this section that shall include the conditions of 18942 the child's release. It shall send the committing court and the 18943 juvenile court of the county in which the child is placed a copy 18944 of the plan. The court of the county in which the child is placed 18945 may adopt the conditions set by the department as an order of the 18946 court and may add any additional consistent conditions it 18947 considers appropriate, provided that the court may not add any 18948 condition that decreases the level or degree of supervision 18949 specified by the department in its plan, that substantially 18950 increases the financial burden of supervision that will be 18951 experienced by the department, or that alters the placement 18952 specified by the department in its plan. If the court of the 18953 county in which the child is placed adds to the department's plan 18954 any additional conditions, it shall enter those additional 18955 conditions in its journal and shall send to the department a copy 18956 of the journal entry of the additional conditions. 18957

If the court approves the judicial release to department of 18958 youth services supervision, the actual date on which the 18959 department shall release the child is contingent upon the 18960 department finding a suitable placement for the child. If the 18961 child is to be returned to the child's home, the department shall 18962 return the child on the date that the court schedules for the 18963 child's release or shall bear the expense of any additional time 18964 that the child remains in a department facility. If the child is 18965 unable to return to the child's home, the department shall 18966 exercise reasonable diligence in finding a suitable placement for 18967 the child, and the child shall remain in a department facility 18968 while the department finds the suitable placement. 18969

(D)(1) Subject to division (D)(3) of this section, the court 18970 that commits a delinquent child to the department of youth 18971 services may grant judicial release of the child under this 18972 division at any time after the expiration of one of the following 18973 periods of time: 18974

(a) Except as otherwise provided in division (D)(1)(b) of 18975 this section, if the child was committed to the department for a 18976 prescribed minimum period and a maximum period not to exceed the 18977 child's attainment of twenty-one years, the court may grant 18978 judicial release of the child at any time after the expiration of 18979 the prescribed minimum term for which the child was committed to 18980 the department. 18981

(b) If the child was committed to the department for both one 18982 or more definite periods under division (A), (B), (C), or (D) of 18983 section 2152.17 of the Revised Code and a period of the type 18984 described in division (D)(1)(a) of this section, all of the 18985 prescribed minimum periods of commitment imposed under division 18986 (A), (B), (C), or (D) of section 2152.17 of the Revised Code and 18987 the prescribed period of commitment of the type described in 18988 division (D)(1)(a) of this section shall be aggregated for 18989 purposes of this division, and the court may grant judicial 18990 release of the child at any time after the expiration of one year 18991 after the child begins serving the aggregate period of commitment. 18992

(2) If a court grants a judicial release of a child under 18993 division (D)(1) of this section, the release shall be a judicial 18994 release to department of youth services supervision, if the 18995 release is granted during a period described in division (C)(1) of 18996 this section, and the second and third paragraphs of division 18997

(C)(3) of this section apply regarding the release. In all other cases, the release shall be a judicial release to court supervision, and the second paragraph of division (B)(3) of this section applies regarding the release.

(3) A court at the time of making the disposition of a child shall provide notice in the order of disposition that the judge is retaining jurisdiction over the child for the purpose of a possible grant of judicial release of the child under division (D)(1) of this section. The failure of a court to provide this notice does not affect the authority of the court to grant a judicial release under that division and does not constitute grounds for setting aside the child's delinquent child adjudication or disposition or for granting any post-adjudication relief to the child.

(4) The department of youth services, a child committed to the department, or the parents of the child, during a period specified in division (D)(1) of this section, may request the court that committed the child to grant a judicial release of the child under that division. Upon receipt of a request for judicial release of a child under this division from the department, the child, or the child's parent, or upon its own motion, the court that committed the child shall do one of the following:

(a) Approve the request by journal entry;

(b) Schedule within thirty days after the request is received a time for a hearing on whether the child is to be released;

(c) Reject the request by journal entry without conducting a hearing.

If the court rejects an initial request for a release under this division by the child or the child's parent, division (C)(2) of this section applies regarding the making of additional requests.

If the court schedules a hearing under this division to consider the judicial release, the first paragraph of division (B)(3) of this section applies regarding the hearing.

If that court determines at the hearing that the child violated any of the post-release conditions, the court, if it determines that the violation was a serious violation, may order the child to be returned to the department for institutionalization, consistent with the original order of commitment of the child, or in any case may make any other disposition of the child authorized by law that the court considers proper. If the court of the county in which the child is placed orders the child to be returned to a department of youth services institution, the time during which the child was held in a secure department facility prior to the child's judicial release shall be considered as time served in fulfilling the prescribed period of institutionalization that is applicable to the child under the child's original order of commitment. If the court orders the child returned to a department institution, the child shall remain in institutional care for a minimum of three months or until the child successfully completes a revocation program of a duration of not less than thirty days operated either by the department or by an entity with which the department has contracted to provide a revocation program. 19061

(F) The department of youth services, prior to the release of 19062 a child pursuant to division (C) of this section or pursuant to 19063 division (D) of this section on department supervision, shall do 19064 all of the following: 19065

(1) After reviewing the child's rehabilitative progress 19066 history and medical and educational records, prepare a written 19067 treatment and rehabilitation plan for the child that includes 19068 conditions of the release; 19069

(2) Completely discuss the conditions of the plan prepared 19070 pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section and the possible 19071 penalties for violation of the plan with the child and the child's 19072 parents, guardian, or legal custodian; 19073

(3) Have the plan prepared pursuant to division (F)(1) of 19074 this section signed by the child, the child's parents, legal 19075 guardian, or custodian, and any authority or person that is to 19076 supervise, control, and provide supportive assistance to the child 19077 at the time of the child's release pursuant to division (C) or (D) 19078
of this section; 19079

(4) Prior to the child's release, file a copy of the 19080 treatment plan prepared pursuant to division (F)(1) of this 19081 section with the committing court and the juvenile court of the 19082 county in which the child is to be placed. 19083

(G) The department of youth services shall file a written 19084 progress report with the committing court regarding each child 19085 released pursuant to division (C) of this section or released 19086 pursuant to division (D) of this section on judicial release to 19087 department supervision at least once every thirty days unless 19088 specifically directed otherwise by the court. The report shall 19089 indicate the treatment and rehabilitative progress of the child 19090 and the child's family, if applicable, and shall include any 19091 suggestions for altering the program, custody, living 19092 arrangements, or treatment. The department shall retain legal 19093 custody of a child so released until it discharges the child or 19094 until the custody is terminated as otherwise provided by law. 19095

(H) When a child is committed to the legal custody of the 19096 department of youth services, the court retains jurisdiction to 19097 perform the functions specified in section 5139.51 of the Revised 19098 Code with respect to the granting of supervised release by the 19099 release authority and to perform the functions specified in 19100 section 5139.52 of the Revised Code with respect to violations of 19101 the conditions of supervised release granted by the release 19102 authority and to the revocation of supervised release granted by 19103 the release authority. 19104 elected by a majority of the judges of the Hamilton county court 19149 of common pleas and shall terminate on the date on which the 19150 administrative judge's successor is elected in the following year. 19151 requesting them, whether or not the persons are parties to an 19170 action pending in the division. 19171

The board of county commissioners shall appropriate the sum 19172 of money each year as will meet all the administrative expenses of 19173 whose term begins on January 3, 1997, and the successors to that 19200 judge shall each be elected and designated as the drug court judge 19201 of the court of common pleas of Hamilton county. The drug court 19202

Sec. 2307.89. The following apply to all tort actions for silicosis or mixed dust disease claims brought against a premises owner to recover damages or other relief for exposure to silica or mixed dust on the premises owner's property:

(A) A premises owner is not liable for any injury to any individual resulting from silica or mixed dust exposure unless that individual's alleged exposure occurred while the individual was at the premises owner's property.

(B) If exposure to silica or mixed dust is alleged to have occurred before January 1, 1972, it is presumed that a premises owner knew that this state had adopted safe levels of exposure for silica or mixed dust and that products containing silica or mixed dust were used on its property only at levels below those safe levels of exposure. To rebut this presumption, the plaintiff must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the premises owner knew or should have known that the levels of silica or mixed dust in the immediate breathing zone of the plaintiff regularly exceeded the threshold limit values adopted by this state and that the premises owner allowed that condition to persist.

(C)(1) A premises owner is presumed to be not liable for any injury to any invitee who was engaged to work with, install, or remove products containing silica or mixed dust on the premises owner's property if the invitee's employer held itself out as qualified to perform the work. To rebut this presumption, the plaintiff must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the premises owner had actual knowledge of the potential dangers of the products containing silica or mixed dust at the time of the alleged exposure that was superior to the knowledge of both the invitee and the invitee's employer.

(2) A premises owner that hired a contractor before January 1, 1972, to perform the type of work at the premises owner's property that the contractor was qualified to perform cannot be liable for any injury to any individual resulting from silica or mixed dust exposure caused by any of the contractor's employees or agents on the premises owner's property unless the premises owner directed the activity that resulted in the injury or gave or denied permission for the critical acts that led to the individual's injury.

(3) If exposure to silica or mixed dust is alleged to have occurred after January 1, 1972, a premises owner is not liable for any injury to any individual resulting from that exposure caused by a contractor's employee or agent on the premises owner's property unless the plaintiff establishes the premises owner's intentional violation of an established safety standard that was in effect at the time of the exposure and that the alleged violation was in the plaintiff's breathing zone and was the proximate cause of the plaintiff's medical condition.

(D) As used in this section:

(1) "Threshold limit values" means the maximum allowable concentration of silica, or other dust, set forth in regulation 247 of the "regulations for the prevention and control of diseases resulting from exposure to toxic fumes, vapors, mists, gases, and dusts in order to preserve and protect the public health," as adopted by the former public health council of the department of health on January 1, 1947, and set forth by the industrial exposure limits for the eight-hour time-weighted average airborne 20848 concentration as promulgated by the occupational safety and health 20849 administration (OSHA) in effect at the time of the alleged 20850 exposure. 20851

pursuant to division (B)(2) of this section and to obtain a 21600 certification as described in divisions (B)(3) and (4) of this 21601 section because the department failed to make the requested number 21602 of copies available to the physician or agent in accordance with 21603 division (D) of this section. 21604~~

(3) An employer or other principal is not liable in damages 21605 purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner. 21794

(2) If a claimant proves in the court of claims that an 21795 officer or employee, as defined in section 109.36 of the Revised 21796 Code, would have personal liability for the officer's or 21797 employee's acts or omissions but for the fact that the officer or 21798 employee has personal immunity under section 9.86 of the Revised 21799 Code, the state shall be held liable in the court of claims in any 21800 action that is timely filed pursuant to section 2743.16 of the 21801

Revised Code and that is based upon the acts or omissions. 21802

(3)(a) Except as provided in division (A)(3)(b) of this 21803 section, the state is immune from liability in any civil action or 21804 proceeding involving the performance or nonperformance of a public 21805 duty, including the performance or nonperformance of a public duty 21806 that is owed by the state in relation to any action of an 21807 individual who is committed to the custody of the state. 21808

(b) The state immunity provided in division (A)(3)(a) of this 21809 section does not apply to any action of the state under 21810 circumstances in which a special relationship can be established 21811 between the state and an injured party. A special relationship 21812 under this division is demonstrated if all of the following 21813 elements exist: 21814

(i) An assumption by the state, by means of promises or 21815 actions, of an affirmative duty to act on behalf of the party who 21816 was allegedly injured; 21817

(ii) Knowledge on the part of the state's agents that 21818 inaction of the state could lead to harm; 21819

(iii) Some form of direct contact between the state's agents 21820 and the injured party; 21821

(iv) The injured party's justifiable reliance on the state's 21822 affirmative undertaking. 21823

(B) The state hereby waives the immunity from liability of 21824 all hospitals owned or operated by one or more political 21825 subdivisions and consents for them to be sued, and to have their 21826 liability determined, in the court of common pleas, in accordance 21827 with the same rules of law applicable to suits between private 21828 parties, subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter. 21829
This division is also applicable to hospitals owned or operated by 21830 political subdivisions ~~which~~ that have been determined by the 21831 supreme court to be subject to suit prior to July 28, 1975. 21832

(C) Any hospital, as defined in section 2305.113 of the Revised Code, may purchase liability insurance covering its operations and activities and its agents, employees, nurses, interns, residents, staff, and members of the governing board and committees, and, whether or not such insurance is purchased, may, to ~~such the~~ extent ~~as that~~ its governing board considers appropriate, indemnify or agree to indemnify and hold harmless any such person against expense, including attorney's fees, damage, loss, or other liability arising out of, or claimed to have arisen out of, the death, disease, or injury of any person as a result of the negligence, malpractice, or other action or inaction of the indemnified person while acting within the scope of the indemnified person's duties or engaged in activities at the request or direction, or for the benefit, of the hospital. Any hospital electing to indemnify ~~such those~~ persons, or to agree to so indemnify, shall reserve ~~such any~~ funds ~~as that~~ are necessary, in the exercise of sound and prudent actuarial judgment, to cover the potential expense, fees, damage, loss, or other liability. The superintendent of insurance may recommend, or, if ~~such the~~ hospital requests the superintendent to do so, the superintendent shall recommend, a specific amount for any period that, in the superintendent's opinion, represents such a judgment. This authority is in addition to any authorization otherwise provided or permitted by law.

(D) Recoveries against the state shall be reduced by the aggregate of insurance proceeds, disability award, or other collateral recovery received by the claimant. This division does not apply to civil actions in the court of claims against a state university or college under the circumstances described in section 3345.40 of the Revised Code. The collateral benefits provisions of division (B)(2) of that section apply under those circumstances.

(E) The only defendant in original actions in the court of claims is the state. The state may file a third-party complaint or 21865 counterclaim in any civil action, except a civil action for ~~two~~ 21866 ten thousand ~~five hundred~~ dollars or less, that is filed in the 21867 court of claims. 21868

(F) A civil action against an officer or employee, as defined 21869 in section 109.36 of the Revised Code, that alleges that the 21870 officer's or employee's conduct was manifestly outside the scope 21871 of the officer's or employee's employment or official 21872 responsibilities, or that the officer or employee acted with 21873 malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner 21874 shall first be filed against the state in the court of claims, ~~7~~ 21875 ~~which that~~ has exclusive, original jurisdiction to determine, 21876 initially, whether the officer or employee is entitled to personal 21877 immunity under section 9.86 of the Revised Code and whether the 21878 courts of common pleas have jurisdiction over the civil action. 21879 The officer or employee may participate in the immunity 21880 determination proceeding before the court of claims to determine 21881 whether the officer or employee is entitled to personal immunity 21882 under section 9.86 of the Revised Code. 21883

The filing of a claim against an officer or employee under 21884 this division tolls the running of the applicable statute of 21885 limitations until the court of claims determines whether the 21886 officer or employee is entitled to personal immunity under section 21887
9.86 of the Revised Code. 21888

(G) ~~Whenever~~ If a claim lies against an officer or employee 21889 who is a member of the Ohio national guard, and the officer or 21890 employee was, at the time of the act or omission complained of, 21891 subject to the "Federal Tort Claims Act," 60 Stat. 842 (1946), 28 21892 U.S.C. 2671, et seq., ~~then~~ the Federal Tort Claims Act is the 21893 exclusive remedy of the claimant and the state has no liability 21894 under this section. 21895

(H) If an inmate of a state correctional institution has a 21896 claim against the state for the loss of or damage to property and 21897 the amount claimed does not exceed three hundred dollars, before 21898 commencing an action against the state in the court of claims, the 21899 inmate shall file a claim for the loss or damage under the rules 21900 adopted by the director of rehabilitation and correction pursuant 21901 to this division. The inmate shall file the claim within the time 21902 allowed for commencement of a civil action under section 2743.16 21903 of the Revised Code. If the state admits or compromises the claim, 21904 the director shall make payment from a fund designated by the 21905 director for that purpose. If the state denies the claim or does 21906 not compromise the claim at least sixty days prior to expiration 21907 of the time allowed for commencement of a civil action based upon 21908 the loss or damage under section 2743.16 of the Revised Code, the 21909 inmate may commence an action in the court of claims under this 21910 chapter to recover damages for the loss or damage. 21911

The director of rehabilitation and correction shall adopt 21912 rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement 21913 this division. 21914

connection with a governmental or proprietary function shall be 21984 determined in accordance with this section and section 2743.022 of 21985
the Revised Code. 21986

21992

21995
21997
21999

22001
22003
22004

22015

(b) As used in division (C)(3)(a) of this section, "road" and "highway" have the same meanings as in section 5501.01 of the 22016
22017

(4) The department of transportation is liable for injury, 22021

(5) In addition to the circumstances described in divisions 22028
(C)(1) to (4) of this section, the department of transportation is 22029 liable for injury, death, or loss to person or property when civil 22030 liability is expressly imposed upon the department of 22031 transportation by a section of the Revised Code. Civil liability 22032 shall not be construed to exist under another section of the 22033 Revised Code merely because that section imposes a responsibility 22034 or mandatory duty upon the department of transportation, because 22035 that section provides for a criminal penalty, because of a general 22036 authorization in that section that the department of 22037 transportation may sue and be sued, or because that section uses 22038 the term "shall" in a provision pertaining to the department of 22039 transportation. 22040

Sec. 2743.022. (A) In a civil action brought against the 22041 department of transportation or an officer or employee of the 22042 department to recover damages for injury, death, or loss to person 22043 or property allegedly caused by any act or omission in connection 22044 with a governmental or proprietary function, the following 22045 defenses or immunities may be asserted to establish nonliability: 22046

(1) The department is immune from liability if the officer or 22047 employee involved was engaged in the performance of a 22048 quasi-judicial, prosecutorial, or quasi-legislative function. 22049

22053
22056

22058
22062

22064
22066
22067
22069

(5) The officer or employee of the department of transportation is immune from liability unless one of the following applies: 22070

(b) The officer's or employee's acts or omissions were with malicious purpose, in bad faith, or in a wanton or reckless manner. 22076

(c) Civil liability is expressly imposed upon the officer or 22079 employee by a section of the Revised Code. Civil liability shall 22080 not be construed to exist under another section of the Revised 22081 Code merely because that section imposes a responsibility or 22082 mandatory duty upon an officer or employee, because that section 22083 provides for a criminal penalty, because of a general 22084 authorization in that section that an officer or employee may sue 22085 and be sued, or because the section uses the term "shall" in a 22086 provision pertaining to an officer or employee. 22087

(B) Any immunity or defense conferred upon an officer or 22088 employee of the department of transportation by division (A)(5) of 22089 this section does not affect or limit any liability of the 22090 department of transportation for an act or omission of the officer 22091 or employee as provided in section 2743.021 of the Revised Code. 22092

(C) An order that denies the department of transportation or 22093 an officer or employee of the department the benefit of an alleged 22094 immunity from liability as provided in this section or any other 22095 provision of the law is a final order. 22096

Sec. 2743.09. The clerk of the court of claims shall do all 22097
of the following: 22098

(A) Administer oaths and take and certify affidavits, 22099 depositions, and acknowledgments of powers of attorney and other 22100 instruments in writing; 22101

(B) Prepare the dockets, enter and record the orders, 22102

(C) Maintain an office in Franklin county in rooms provided 22106 by the supreme court for that purpose; 22107

(D) Keep an appearance docket of civil actions, claims for an 22108 the Revised Code and who has failed to obtain leave to proceed 22114 under that section. 22115 assign it a number. This number shall be placed on the first page, 22117 and every continuation page, of the appearance docket that 22118 chronologically note in the appearance docket all process issued 22126 and returns, pleas, motions, papers filed in the action, orders, 22127 verdicts, and judgments. The notations shall be brief but shall 22128 show the date of filing, substance, and journal volume and page of 22129 each order, verdict, and judgment. An action is commenced for 22130 purposes of this division by the filing of a complaint, including 22131 a form complaint under section 2743.10 of the Revised Code or a 22132 petition for removal. 22133

At the time an appeal for an award of reparations is 22134 commenced, the clerk shall enter the full names of the claimant, 22135 the victim, and the attorneys in the appearance docket and shall 22136 index the claim alphabetically by the last name of the claimant 22137 and the victim. Thereafter, the clerk shall chronologically note 22138 in the appearance docket all process issued and returns, motions, 22139 papers filed in the claim, orders, decisions, and awards. The 22140 notations shall be brief but shall show the date of filing, 22141 substance, and journal volume and page of each order. 22142

(E) Keep all original papers filed in an action or claim in a 22143 separate file folder and a journal in which all orders, verdicts, 22144 and judgments of the court and commissioners shall be recorded; 22145

(F) Charge and collect fees pursuant to section 2303.20 of 22146 the Revised Code, keep a cashbook in which the clerk shall enter 22147

Code. 22156

Sec. 2743.10. (A) Civil actions against the state for ~~two ten~~ 22157 thousand ~~five hundred~~ dollars or less shall be determined 22158 administratively by the clerk of the court of claims, except that 22159 the clerk is not required to administratively determine a civil 22160 action of that nature if the civil action was commenced by a 22161 person who has been found to be a vexatious litigator under 22162 section 2323.52 of the Revised Code and who has failed to obtain 22163 leave to proceed under that section and if the clerk refused 22164 pursuant to division (D) of section 2743.09 of the Revised Code to 22165 accept for filing any pleading or paper that relates to the civil 22166 action and that was submitted for filing by that person and except 22167 the form complaint to the attorney general and the state 22174 department, board, office, commission, agency, institution, or 22175 other instrumentality whose actions or failure to act are the 22176 subject of complaint. The latter shall investigate the allegations 22177 made in the form complaint and report the results of its 22178 investigation to the clerk within sixty days of receipt of a copy 22179 of the form complaint. The clerk shall forward a copy of the 22180 report to the claimant and give the claimant an opportunity to 22181 respond to the report either in writing or by appearing before the 22182 clerk. 22183

(C) The clerk shall determine the civil action covered by 22184 division (A) of this section and make a report of the decision, 22185 together with findings of fact and conclusions of law, copies of 22186 which shall be mailed to the claimant and the state 22187 instrumentality. Except as otherwise provided in this division, 22188 the determination shall be based upon principles of law applicable 22189 in the court of claims, including, but not limited to, section 22190 3345.40 of the Revised Code if a state university or college is a 22191 defendant in the court of claims. 22192

Rules of evidence shall not be applicable in the 22193 determination. Procedures shall be governed by rules promulgated 22194 by the clerk, shall be informal, and shall be designed to 22195 accommodate persons who are not skilled in the law. 22196

(D) Upon the motion of a party, the court of claims shall 22197 review the determination of the clerk upon the clerk's report and 22198 papers filed in the action and shall enter judgment consistent 22199 with its findings. The judgment shall not be the subject of 22200 further appeal. No civil action arising out of the same 22201 transaction or set of facts may be commenced by the claimant in 22202 the court of claims. 22203

(E) The determination of the clerk pursuant to division (C) 22204 of this section shall be processed pursuant to section 2743.19 of 22205 the Revised Code as if it were a judgment. 22206

Sec. 2743.48. (A) As used in this section and section 2743.49 22207 of the Revised Code, a "wrongfully imprisoned individual" means an 22208 with a violation of any other section of the Revised Code or with 22677 a violation of any other municipal ordinance to submit to one or 22678 more tests so designated by the director of health if the 22679 other than the victim had contact with the accused that could have 22702 resulted in the transmission of HIV to that person, the court may 22703 inform that person that the test was performed and that the person 22704 has a right to receive the results of the test on request. If the 22705 accused tests positive for HIV, the test results shall be reported 22706 substantially equivalent to division (B) of any of those sections. 22720 was performed shall be made, other than as evidence in a grand 22722 jury proceeding or as evidence in a judicial proceeding in 22723 accordance with the Rules of Evidence. If the test result is 22724 negative, and the charge has not been dismissed or if the accused 22725 has been convicted of the charge or a different offense arising 22726 out of the same circumstances as the offense charged, the court 22727 shall order that the test be repeated not earlier than three 22728 months nor later than six months after the original test. 22729

section that the offender will be supervised under section 2967.28 23437 of the Revised Code after the offender leaves prison or to include 23438 in the judgment of conviction entered on the journal a statement 23439 to that effect does not negate, limit, or otherwise affect the 23440 mandatory period of supervision that is required for the offender 23441 under division (B) of section 2967.28 of the Revised Code. Section 23442 2929.191 of the Revised Code applies if, prior to July 11, 2006, a 23443 court imposed a sentence including a prison term of a type 23444 described in division (B)(2)(c) of this section and failed to 23445 notify the offender pursuant to division (B)(2)(c) of this section 23446 regarding post-release control or to include in the judgment of 23447 conviction entered on the journal or in the sentence a statement 23448 regarding post-release control. 23449

(d) Notify the offender that the offender may be supervised 23450 under section 2967.28 of the Revised Code after the offender 23451 leaves prison if the offender is being sentenced for a felony of 23452 the third, fourth, or fifth degree that is not subject to division 23453 (B)(2)(c) of this section. This division applies with respect to 23454 all prison terms imposed for an offense of a type described in 23455 this division, including a term imposed for any such offense that 23456 is a risk reduction sentence, as defined in section 2967.28 of the 23457 Revised Code. Section 2929.191 of the Revised Code applies if, 23458 prior to July 11, 2006, a court imposed a sentence including a 23459 prison term of a type described in division (B)(2)(d) of this 23460 section and failed to notify the offender pursuant to division 23461 (B)(2)(d) of this section regarding post-release control or to 23462 include in the judgment of conviction entered on the journal or in 23463
the sentence a statement regarding post-release control. 23464

(e) Notify the offender that, if a period of supervision is 23465 imposed following the offender's release from prison, as described 23466 in division (B)(2)(c) or (d) of this section, and if the offender 23467 violates that supervision or a condition of post-release control 23468 imposed under division (B) of section 2967.131 of the Revised Code, the parole board may impose a prison term, as part of the sentence, of up to one-half of the stated prison term originally imposed upon the offender. If a court imposes a sentence including a prison term on or after July 11, 2006, the failure of a court to notify the offender pursuant to division (B)(2)(e) of this section that the parole board may impose a prison term as described in division (B)(2)(e) of this section for a violation of that supervision or a condition of post-release control imposed under division (B) of section 2967.131 of the Revised Code or to include in the judgment of conviction entered on the journal a statement to that effect does not negate, limit, or otherwise affect the authority of the parole board to so impose a prison term for a violation of that nature if, pursuant to division (D)(1) of section 2967.28 of the Revised Code, the parole board notifies the offender prior to the offender's release of the board's authority to so impose a prison term. Section 2929.191 of the Revised Code applies if, prior to July 11, 2006, a court imposed a sentence including a prison term and failed to notify the offender pursuant to division (B)(2)(e) of this section regarding the possibility of the parole board imposing a prison term for a violation of supervision or a condition of post-release control.

(g) Include in the offender's sentence a statement notifying the offender of the information described in division (F)(3) of section 2929.14 of the Revised Code regarding earned credits under

section 2967.193 of the Revised Code. 23501

(h)(i) Determine, notify the offender of, and include in the 23502 sentencing entry the number of days that the offender has been 23503 confined for any reason arising out of the offense for which the 23504 offender is being sentenced and by which the department of 23505 rehabilitation and correction must reduce the stated prison term 23506 under section 2967.191 of the Revised Code. The court's 23507 calculation shall not include the number of days, if any, that the 23508 offender previously served in the custody of the department of 23509 rehabilitation and correction arising out of the offense for which 23510 the prisoner was convicted and sentenced. 23511

(ii) In making a determination under division (B)(2)(h)(i) of 23512 this section, the court shall consider the arguments of the 23513 parties and conduct a hearing if one is requested. 23514

(iii) The sentencing court retains continuing jurisdiction to 23515 correct any error not previously raised at sentencing in making a 23516 determination under division (B)(2)(h)(i) of this section. The 23517 offender may, at any time after sentencing, file a motion in the 23518 sentencing court to correct any error made in making a 23519 determination under division (B)(2)(h)(i) of this section, and the 23520 court may in its discretion grant or deny that motion. If the 23521 court changes the number of days in its determination or 23522 redetermination, the court shall cause the entry granting that 23523 change to be delivered to the department of rehabilitation and 23524 correction without delay. Sections 2931.15 and 2953.21 of the 23525 Revised Code do not apply to a motion made under this section. 23526

(iv) An inaccurate determination under division (B)(2)(h)(i) 23527 of this section is not grounds for setting aside the offender's 23528 conviction or sentence and does not otherwise render the sentence 23529 void or voidable. 23530

(3)(a) The court shall include in the offender's sentence a 23531 statement that the offender is a tier III sex 23532 offender/child-victim offender, and the court shall comply with 23533 the requirements of section 2950.03 of the Revised Code if any of 23534 the following apply: 23535

(i) The offender is being sentenced for a violent sex offense 23536 or designated homicide, assault, or kidnapping offense that the 23537 offender committed on or after January 1, 1997, and the offender 23538 is adjudicated a sexually violent predator in relation to that 23539 offense. 23540

(ii) The offender is being sentenced for a sexually oriented 23541 offense that the offender committed on or after January 1, 1997, 23542 and the offender is a tier III sex offender/child-victim offender 23543 relative to that offense. 23544

(iii) The offender is being sentenced on or after July 31, 23545 2003, for a child-victim oriented offense, and the offender is a 23546 tier III sex offender/child-victim offender relative to that 23547
offense. 23548

(iv) The offender is being sentenced under section 2971.03 of 23549 the Revised Code for a violation of division (A)(1)(b) of section 23550 2907.02 of the Revised Code committed on or after January 2, 2007. 23551

(v) The offender is sentenced to a term of life without 23552 parole under division (B) of section 2907.02 of the Revised Code. 23553

(vi) The offender is being sentenced for attempted rape 23554 committed on or after January 2, 2007, and a specification of the 23555 type described in section 2941.1418, 2941.1419, or 2941.1420 of 23556
the Revised Code. 23557

(vii) The offender is being sentenced under division 23558
(B)(3)(a), (b), (c), or (d) of section 2971.03 of the Revised Code 23559 for an offense described in those divisions committed on or after 23560 January 1, 2008. 23561

(b) Additionally, if any criterion set forth in divisions 23562
(B)(3)(a)(i) to (vii) of this section is satisfied, in the 23563 circumstances described in division (E) of section 2929.14 of the 23564 Revised Code, the court shall impose sentence on the offender as 23565 described in that division. 23566

(4) If the sentencing court determines at the sentencing 23567 hearing that a community control sanction should be imposed and 23568 the court is not prohibited from imposing a community control 23569 sanction, the court shall impose a community control sanction. The 23570 court shall notify the offender that, if the conditions of the 23571 sanction are violated, if the offender commits a violation of any 23572 law, or if the offender leaves this state without the permission 23573 of the court or the offender's probation officer, the court may 23574 impose a longer time under the same sanction, may impose a more 23575 restrictive sanction, or may impose a prison term on the offender 23576 and shall indicate the specific prison term that may be imposed as 23577 a sanction for the violation, as selected by the court from the 23578 range of prison terms for the offense pursuant to section 2929.14 23579

(5) Before imposing a financial sanction under section 23581
2929.18 of the Revised Code or a fine under section 2929.32 of the 23582 Revised Code, the court shall consider the offender's present and 23583 future ability to pay the amount of the sanction or fine. 23584

(6) If the sentencing court sentences the offender to a 23585 sanction of confinement pursuant to section 2929.14 or 2929.16 of 23586 the Revised Code that is to be served in a local detention 23587 facility, as defined in section 2929.36 of the Revised Code, and 23588 if the local detention facility is covered by a policy adopted 23589 pursuant to section 307.93, 341.14, 341.19, 341.21, 341.23, 23590 753.02, 753.04, 753.16, 2301.56, or 2947.19 of the Revised Code 23591
and section 2929.37 of the Revised Code, both of the following 23592 apply: 23593

(a) The court shall specify both of the following as part of the sentence: 23594
23595

(i) If the offender is presented with an itemized bill pursuant to section 2929.37 of the Revised Code for payment of the costs of confinement, the offender is required to pay the bill in accordance with that section. 23596
23597
23599

23601
23604

(b) The sentence automatically includes any certificate of judgment issued as described in division (B)(6)(a)(ii) of this section. 23605

23609
23611
23613
23614
23615
23616
23617
23618
23619
23621

(C)(1) If the offender is being sentenced for a fourth degree felony OVI offense under division (G)(1) of section 2929.13 of the Revised Code, the court shall impose the mandatory term of local 23622

incarceration in accordance with that division, shall impose a 23625 mandatory fine in accordance with division (B)(3) of section 23626 2929.18 of the Revised Code, and, in addition, may impose 23627 additional sanctions as specified in sections 2929.15, 2929.16, 23628 2929.17, and 2929.18 of the Revised Code. The court shall not 23629 impose a prison term on the offender except that the court may 23630 impose a prison term upon the offender as provided in division 23631
(A)(1) of section 2929.13 of the Revised Code. 23632

(2) If the offender is being sentenced for a third or fourth 23633 degree felony OVI offense under division (G)(2) of section 2929.13 23634 of the Revised Code, the court shall impose the mandatory prison 23635 term in accordance with that division, shall impose a mandatory 23636 fine in accordance with division (B)(3) of section 2929.18 of the 23637 Revised Code, and, in addition, may impose an additional prison 23638 term as specified in section 2929.14 of the Revised Code. In 23639 addition to the mandatory prison term or mandatory prison term and 23640 additional prison term the court imposes, the court also may 23641 impose a community control sanction on the offender, but the 23642 offender shall serve all of the prison terms so imposed prior to 23643 serving the community control sanction. 23644

(D) The sentencing court, pursuant to division (I)(1) of 23645 section 2929.14 of the Revised Code, may recommend placement of 23646 the offender in a program of shock incarceration under section 23647 5120.031 of the Revised Code or an intensive program prison under 23648 section 5120.032 of the Revised Code, disapprove placement of the 23649 offender in a program or prison of that nature, or make no 23650 recommendation. If the court recommends or disapproves placement, 23651 it shall make a finding that gives its reasons for its 23652 recommendation or disapproval. 23653

Sec. 2939.11. The official ~~shorthand~~ reporter of the county, 23654 or any ~~shorthand~~ reporter designated by the court of common pleas, 23655 at the request of the prosecuting attorney, or any such reporter 23656 designated by the attorney general in investigations conducted by 23657 ~~him~~ the attorney general, may take ~~shorthand~~ notes of or 23658 electronically record testimony before the grand jury, and furnish 23659 a transcript to the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general, 23660 and to no other person. The ~~shorthand~~ reporter shall withdraw from 23661 the jury room before the jurors begin to express their views or 23662 take their vote on the matter before them. Such reporter shall 23663 take an oath to be administered by the judge after the grand jury 23664 is sworn, imposing an obligation of secrecy to not disclose any 23665 testimony taken or heard except to the grand jury, prosecuting 23666 attorney, or attorney general, unless called upon in court to make 23667 disclosures. 23668

Sec. 2945.371. (A) If the issue of a defendant's competence 23669 to stand trial is raised or if a defendant enters a plea of not 23670 guilty by reason of insanity, the court may order one or more 23671 evaluations of the defendant's present mental condition or, in the 23672 case of a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, of the 23673 defendant's mental condition at the time of the offense charged. 23674
An examiner shall conduct the evaluation. 23675

(B) If the court orders more than one evaluation under 23676 division (A) of this section, the prosecutor and the defendant may 23677 recommend to the court an examiner whom each prefers to perform 23678 one of the evaluations. If a defendant enters a plea of not guilty 23679 by reason of insanity and if the court does not designate an 23680 examiner recommended by the defendant, the court shall inform the 23681 defendant that the defendant may have independent expert 23682 evaluation and that, if the defendant is unable to obtain 23683 independent expert evaluation, it will be obtained for the 23684 defendant at public expense if the defendant is indigent. 23685

(C) If the court orders an evaluation under division (A) of 23686 this section, the defendant shall be available at the times and 23687 places established by the examiners who are to conduct the 23688 evaluation. The court may order a defendant who has been released 23689 on bail or recognizance to submit to an evaluation under this 23690 section. If a defendant who has been released on bail or 23691 recognizance refuses to submit to a complete evaluation, the court 23692 may amend the conditions of bail or recognizance and order the 23693 sheriff to take the defendant into custody and deliver the 23694 defendant to a center, program, or facility operated or certified 23695 by the department of mental health or the department of 23696 developmental disabilities where the defendant may be held for 23697 evaluation for a reasonable period of time not to exceed twenty 23698 days. 23699

(D) A defendant who has not been released on bail or 23700 recognizance may be evaluated at the defendant's place of 23701 detention. Upon the request of the examiner, the court may order 23702 the sheriff to transport the defendant to a program or facility 23703 operated or certified by the department of mental health or the 23704 department of developmental disabilities, where the defendant may 23705 be held for evaluation for a reasonable period of time not to 23706 exceed twenty days, and to return the defendant to the place of 23707 detention after the evaluation. A municipal court may make an 23708 order under this division only upon the request of a certified 23709 forensic center examiner. 23710

(E) If a court orders the evaluation to determine a 23711 defendant's mental condition at the time of the offense charged, 23712 the court shall inform the examiner of the offense with which the 23713 defendant is charged. 23714

(F) In conducting an evaluation of a defendant's mental 23715 condition at the time of the offense charged, the examiner shall 23716 consider all relevant evidence. If the offense charged involves 23717 the use of force against another person, the relevant evidence to 23718 be considered includes, but is not limited to, any evidence that 23719 the defendant suffered, at the time of the commission of the 23720 offense, from the "battered woman syndrome." 23721

(G) The examiner shall file a written report with the court 23722 within thirty days after entry of a court order for evaluation, 23723 and the court shall provide copies of the report to the prosecutor 23724 and defense counsel. The report shall include all of the 23725
following: 23726

(1) The examiner's findings; 23727

(2) The facts in reasonable detail on which the findings are 23728 based; 23729

(3) If the evaluation was ordered to determine the 23730 defendant's competence to stand trial, all of the following 23731 findings or recommendations that are applicable: 23732

(a) Whether the defendant is capable of understanding the 23733 nature and objective of the proceedings against the defendant or 23734 of assisting in the defendant's defense; 23735

(b) If the examiner's opinion is that the defendant is 23736 incapable of understanding the nature and objective of the 23737 proceedings against the defendant or of assisting in the 23738 defendant's defense, whether the defendant presently is mentally 23739 ill or mentally retarded and, if the examiner's opinion is that 23740 the defendant presently is mentally retarded, whether the 23741 defendant appears to be a mentally retarded person subject to 23742
institutionalization by court order; 23743

(c) If the examiner's opinion is that the defendant is 23744
incapable of understanding the nature and objective of the 23745
proceedings against the defendant or of assisting in the 23746 defendant's defense, the examiner's opinion as to the likelihood 23747 of the defendant becoming capable of understanding the nature and 23748 objective of the proceedings against the defendant and of 23749 assisting in the defendant's defense within one year if the 23750 defendant is provided with a course of treatment; 23751

(d) If the examiner's opinion is that the defendant is 23752 incapable of understanding the nature and objective of the 23753
proceedings against the defendant or of assisting in the 23754 defendant's defense and that the defendant presently is mentally 23755 ill or mentally retarded, the examiner's recommendation as to the 23756 least restrictive placement or commitment alternative, consistent 23757 with the defendant's treatment needs for restoration to competency 23758 and with the safety of the community; 23759

~~(e) If the defendant is charged with a misdemeanor offense 23760 that is not an offense of violence and the examiner's opinion is 23761 that the defendant is incapable of understanding the nature and 23762 objective of the proceedings against the defendant or of assisting 23763 in the defendant's defense and that the defendant is presently 23764 mentally ill or mentally retarded, the examiner's recommendation 23765 as to whether the defendant is amenable to engagement in mental 23766 health treatment or developmental disability services. 23767~~

(4) If the evaluation was ordered to determine the 23768
defendant's mental condition at the time of the offense charged, 23769 the examiner's findings as to whether the defendant, at the time 23770 of the offense charged, did not know, as a result of a severe 23771 mental disease or defect, the wrongfulness of the defendant's acts 23772 charged. 23773

(H) If the examiner's report filed under division (G) of this 23774 section indicates that in the examiner's opinion the defendant is 23775 incapable of understanding the nature and objective of the 23776
proceedings against the defendant or of assisting in the 23777 defendant's defense and that in the examiner's opinion the 23778 defendant appears to be a mentally retarded person subject to 23779 institutionalization by court order, the court shall order the 23780 defendant to undergo a separate mental retardation evaluation 23781 conducted by a psychologist designated by the director of 23782 developmental disabilities. Divisions (C) to (F) of this section 23783 apply in relation to a separate mental retardation evaluation 23784 conducted under this division. The psychologist appointed under 23785 this division to conduct the separate mental retardation 23786 evaluation shall file a written report with the court within 23787 thirty days after the entry of the court order requiring the 23788 separate mental retardation evaluation, and the court shall 23789 provide copies of the report to the prosecutor and defense 23790 counsel. The report shall include all of the information described 23791 in divisions (G)(1) to (4) of this section. If the court orders a 23792 separate mental retardation evaluation of a defendant under this 23793 division, the court shall not conduct a hearing under divisions 23794 (B) to (H) of section 2945.37 of the Revised Code regarding that 23795 defendant until a report of the separate mental retardation 23796 evaluation conducted under this division has been filed. Upon the 23797 filing of that report, the court shall conduct the hearing within 23798 the period of time specified in division (C) of section 2945.37 of 23799

the Revised Code. 23800

(I) An examiner appointed under divisions (A) and (B) of this 23801 section or under division (H) of this section to evaluate a 23802 defendant to determine the defendant's competence to stand trial 23803 also may be appointed to evaluate a defendant who has entered a 23804 plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, but an examiner of that 23805 nature shall prepare separate reports on the issue of competence 23806 to stand trial and the defense of not guilty by reason of 23807 insanity. 23808

(J) No statement that a defendant makes in an evaluation or 23809 hearing under divisions (A) to (H) of this section relating to the 23810 defendant's competence to stand trial or to the defendant's mental 23811 condition at the time of the offense charged shall be used against 23812 the defendant on the issue of guilt in any criminal action or 23813 proceeding, but, in a criminal action or proceeding, the 23814 prosecutor or defense counsel may call as a witness any person who 23815 evaluated the defendant or prepared a report pursuant to a 23816 referral under this section. Neither the appointment nor the 23817 testimony of an examiner appointed under this section precludes 23818 the prosecutor or defense counsel from calling other witnesses or 23819 presenting other evidence on competency or insanity issues. 23820

(K) Persons appointed as examiners under divisions (A) and 23821
(B) of this section or under division (H) of this section shall be 23822 paid a reasonable amount for their services and expenses, as 23823 certified by the court. The certified amount shall be paid by the 23824 county in the case of county courts and courts of common pleas and 23825 by the legislative authority, as defined in section 1901.03 of the 23826 Revised Code, in the case of municipal courts. 23827

Sec. 2945.38. (A) If the issue of a defendant's competence to 23828 stand trial is raised and if the court, upon conducting the 23829 hearing provided for in section 2945.37 of the Revised Code, finds 23830 that the defendant is competent to stand trial, the defendant 23831 shall be proceeded against as provided by law. If the court finds 23832 the defendant competent to stand trial and the defendant is 23833 receiving psychotropic drugs or other medication, the court may 23834 authorize the continued administration of the drugs or medication 23835 or other appropriate treatment in order to maintain the 23836 defendant's competence to stand trial, unless the defendant's 23837 attending physician advises the court against continuation of the 23838 drugs, other medication, or treatment. 23839

(B)(1)(a) If, after taking into consideration all relevant 23840 reports, information, and other evidence, the court finds that the 23841 defendant is incompetent to stand trial and that there is a 23842 substantial probability that the defendant will become competent 23843 to stand trial within one year if the defendant is provided with a 23844 course of treatment, the court shall order the defendant to 23845 undergo treatment. If the defendant has been charged with a felony 23846 offense and if, after taking into consideration all relevant 23847 reports, information, and other evidence, the court finds that the 23848 defendant is incompetent to stand trial, but the court is unable 23849 at that time to determine whether there is a substantial 23850 probability that the defendant will become competent to stand 23851 trial within one year if the defendant is provided with a course 23852 of treatment, the court shall order continuing evaluation and 23853 treatment of the defendant for a period not to exceed four months 23854 to determine whether there is a substantial probability that the 23855 defendant will become competent to stand trial within one year if 23856

the defendant is provided with a course of treatment. 23857

(b) The court order for the defendant to undergo treatment or 23858 continuing evaluation and treatment under division (B)(1)(a) of 23859 this section shall specify that the defendant, if determined to 23860 require mental health treatment or continuing evaluation and 23861 treatment, either shall be committed to the department of mental 23862 health for treatment or continuing evaluation and treatment at a 23863 hospital, facility, or agency, as determined to be clinically 23864 appropriate by the department of mental health ~~and~~ or shall be 23865 committed to a facility certified by the department of mental 23866 health as being qualified to treat mental illness, to a public or 23867 community mental health facility, or to a psychiatrist or another 23868 mental health professional for treatment or continuing evaluation 23869 and treatment. Prior to placing the defendant, the department of 23870 mental health shall obtain court approval for that placement 23871 following a hearing. The court order for the defendant to undergo 23872 treatment or continuing evaluation and treatment under division 23873 (B)(1)(a) of this section shall specify that the defendant, if 23874 determined to require treatment or continuing evaluation and 23875 treatment for ~~a developmental disability~~ mental retardation, shall 23876 receive treatment or continuing evaluation and treatment at an 23877 institution or facility operated by the department of 23878 developmental disabilities, at a facility certified by the 23879 department of developmental disabilities as being qualified to 23880 treat mental retardation, at a public or private ~~community~~ mental 23881 retardation facility, or by a psychiatrist or another mental 23882 retardation professional. ~~The~~ In any case, the order may restrict 23883 the defendant's freedom of movement as the court considers 23884 necessary. The prosecutor in the defendant's case shall send to 23885

the chief clinical officer of the hospital, facility, or agency 23886 where the defendant is placed by the department of mental health, 23887 or to the managing officer of the institution, the director of the 23888 program or facility, or the person to which the defendant is 23889 committed, copies of relevant police reports and other background 23890 information that pertains to the defendant and is available to the 23891 prosecutor unless the prosecutor determines that the release of 23892 any of the information in the police reports or any of the other 23893 background information to unauthorized persons would interfere 23894 with the effective prosecution of any person or would create a 23895 substantial risk of harm to any person. 23896

~~In committing the defendant to the department of mental 23897 health, the court shall consider the extent to which the person is 23898 a danger to the person and to others, the need for security, and 23899 the type of crime involved and, if the court finds that 23900 restrictions on the defendant's freedom of movement are necessary, 23901 shall specify the least restrictive limitations on the person's 23902 freedom of movement determined to be necessary to protect public 23903 safety. In determining the place of commitment alternatives for 23904 ~~defendants determined to require treatment or continuing 23905 evaluation and treatment for developmental disabilities,~~ the court 23906 shall consider the extent to which the person is a danger to the 23907 person and to others, the need for security, and the type of crime 23908 involved and shall order the least restrictive alternative 23909 available that is consistent with public safety and treatment 23910~~ goals. In weighing these factors, the court shall give preference 23911 to protecting public safety. 23912

(c) If the defendant is found incompetent to stand trial, if 23913 the chief clinical officer of the hospital, facility, or agency 23914 where the defendant is placed, or the managing officer of the 23915 institution, the director of the program or facility, or the 23916 person to which the defendant is committed for treatment or 23917 continuing evaluation and treatment under division (B)(1)(b) of 23918 this section determines that medication is necessary to restore 23919 the defendant's competency to stand trial, and if the defendant 23920 lacks the capacity to give informed consent or refuses medication, 23921
the chief clinical officer of the hospital, facility, or agency 23922
where the defendant is placed, or the managing officer of the 23923
institution, the director of the program or facility, or the 23924
person to which the defendant is committed for treatment or 23925 continuing evaluation and treatment may petition the court for 23926 authorization for the involuntary administration of medication. 23927
The court shall hold a hearing on the petition within five days of 23928 the filing of the petition if the petition was filed in a 23929 municipal court or a county court regarding an incompetent 23930 defendant charged with a misdemeanor or within ten days of the 23931 filing of the petition if the petition was filed in a court of 23932 common pleas regarding an incompetent defendant charged with a 23933 felony offense. Following the hearing, the court may authorize the 23934 involuntary administration of medication or may dismiss the 23935 petition. 23936

~~(d) If the defendant is charged with a misdemeanor offense 23937 that is not an offense of violence, the prosecutor may hold the 23938 charges in abeyance while the defendant engages in mental health 23939 treatment or developmental disability services. 23940~~

(2) If the court finds that the defendant is incompetent to 23941 stand trial and that, even if the defendant is provided with a 23942 course of treatment, there is not a substantial probability that 23943 the defendant will become competent to stand trial within one 23944 year, the court shall order the discharge of the defendant, unless 23945 upon motion of the prosecutor or on its own motion, the court 23946 either seeks to retain jurisdiction over the defendant pursuant to 23947 section 2945.39 of the Revised Code or files an affidavit in the 23948 probate court for the civil commitment of the defendant pursuant 23949 to Chapter 5122. or 5123. of the Revised Code alleging that the 23950 defendant is a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by 23951 court order or a mentally retarded person subject to 23952 institutionalization by court order. If an affidavit is filed in 23953 the probate court, the trial court shall send to the probate court 23954 copies of all written reports of the defendant's mental condition 23955 that were prepared pursuant to section 2945.371 of the Revised 23956

Code. 23957

The trial court may issue the temporary order of detention 23958 that a probate court may issue under section 5122.11 or 5123.71 of 23959 the Revised Code, to remain in effect until the probable cause or 23960 initial hearing in the probate court. Further proceedings in the 23961 probate court are civil proceedings governed by Chapter 5122. or 23962
5123. of the Revised Code. 23963

(C) No defendant shall be required to undergo treatment, 23964 including any continuing evaluation and treatment, under division 23965 (B)(1) of this section for longer than whichever of the following 23966 periods is applicable: 23967

(1) One year, if the most serious offense with which the 23968 defendant is charged is one of the following offenses: 23969

(a) Aggravated murder, murder, or an offense of violence for 23970 which a sentence of death or life imprisonment may be imposed; 23971

(b) An offense of violence that is a felony of the first or 23972 second degree; 23973

(c) A conspiracy to commit, an attempt to commit, or 23974 complicity in the commission of an offense described in division 23975 (C)(1)(a) or (b) of this section if the conspiracy, attempt, or 23976 complicity is a felony of the first or second degree. 23977

(2) Six months, if the most serious offense with which the 23978 defendant is charged is a felony other than a felony described in 23979 division (C)(1) of this section; 23980

(3) Sixty days, if the most serious offense with which the 23981 defendant is charged is a misdemeanor of the first or second 23982 degree; 23983

(4) Thirty days, if the most serious offense with which the 23984 defendant is charged is a misdemeanor of the third or fourth 23985 degree, a minor misdemeanor, or an unclassified misdemeanor. 23986

(D) Any defendant who is committed pursuant to this section 23987 shall not voluntarily admit the defendant or be voluntarily 23988 admitted to a hospital or institution pursuant to section 5122.02, 23989
5122.15, 5123.69, or 5123.76 of the Revised Code. 23990

(E) Except as otherwise provided in this division, a 23991 defendant who is charged with an offense and is committed by the 23992 court under this section to the department of mental health ~~with~~ 23993 ~~restrictions on the defendant's freedom of movement~~ or is 23994 committed to an institution or facility for the treatment of 23995 ~~developmental disabilities~~ mental retardation shall not be granted 23996 unsupervised on-grounds movement, supervised off-grounds movement, 23997 or nonsecured status except in accordance with the court order. 23998
The court may grant a defendant supervised off-grounds movement to 23999 obtain medical treatment or specialized habilitation treatment 24000 services if the person who supervises the treatment or the 24001 continuing evaluation and treatment of the defendant ordered under 24002 division (B)(1)(a) of this section informs the court that the 24003 treatment or continuing evaluation and treatment cannot be 24004 provided at the hospital or facility where the defendant is placed 24005 by the department of mental health or the institution or facility 24006 to which the defendant is committed. The chief clinical officer of 24007 the hospital or facility where the defendant is placed by the 24008 department of mental health or the managing officer of the 24009 institution or director of the facility to which the defendant is 24010 committed, or a designee of any of those persons, may grant a 24011 defendant movement to a medical facility for an emergency medical 24012 situation with appropriate supervision to ensure the safety of the 24013 defendant, staff, and community during that emergency medical 24014 situation. The chief clinical officer of the hospital or facility 24015 where the defendant is placed by the department of mental health 24016 or the managing officer of the institution or director of the 24017 facility to which the defendant is committed shall notify the 24018 court within twenty-four hours of the defendant's movement to the 24019 medical facility for an emergency medical situation under this 24020

division. 24021

(F) The person who supervises the treatment or continuing 24022 evaluation and treatment of a defendant ordered to undergo 24023 treatment or continuing evaluation and treatment under division 24024 (B)(1)(a) of this section shall file a written report with the 24025 court at the following times: 24026

(1) Whenever the person believes the defendant is capable of 24027 understanding the nature and objective of the proceedings against 24028
the defendant and of assisting in the defendant's defense; 24029

(2) For a felony offense, fourteen days before expiration of 24030 the maximum time for treatment as specified in division (C) of 24031 this section and fourteen days before the expiration of the 24032 maximum time for continuing evaluation and treatment as specified 24033 in division (B)(1)(a) of this section, and, for a misdemeanor 24034 offense, ten days before the expiration of the maximum time for 24035 treatment, as specified in division (C) of this section; 24036

(3) At a minimum, after each six months of treatment; 24037

(4) Whenever the person who supervises the treatment or 24038 continuing evaluation and treatment of a defendant ordered under 24039 division (B)(1)(a) of this section believes that there is not a 24040 substantial probability that the defendant will become capable of 24041 understanding the nature and objective of the proceedings against 24042
the defendant or of assisting in the defendant's defense even if 24043
the defendant is provided with a course of treatment. 24044

(G) A report under division (F) of this section shall contain 24045 the examiner's findings, the facts in reasonable detail on which 24046 the findings are based, and the examiner's opinion as to the 24047 defendant's capability of understanding the nature and objective 24048 of the proceedings against the defendant and of assisting in the 24049 defendant's defense. If, in the examiner's opinion, the defendant 24050 remains incapable of understanding the nature and objective of the 24051 proceedings against the defendant and of assisting in the 24052 defendant's defense and there is a substantial probability that 24053 the defendant will become capable of understanding the nature and 24054 objective of the proceedings against the defendant and of 24055 assisting in the defendant's defense if the defendant is provided 24056 with a course of treatment, if in the examiner's opinion the 24057 defendant remains mentally ill or mentally retarded, and if the 24058 maximum time for treatment as specified in division (C) of this 24059 section has not expired, the report also shall contain the 24060 examiner's recommendation as to the least restrictive placement or 24061 commitment alternative that is consistent with the defendant's 24062 treatment needs for restoration to competency and with the safety 24063 of the community. The court shall provide copies of the report to 24064 the prosecutor and defense counsel. 24065

(H) If a defendant is committed pursuant to division (B)(1) 24066 of this section, within ten days after the treating physician of 24067 the defendant or the examiner of the defendant who is employed or 24068 retained by the treating facility advises that there is not a 24069 substantial probability that the defendant will become capable of 24070

understanding the nature and objective of the proceedings against 24071
the defendant or of assisting in the defendant's defense even if 24072
the defendant is provided with a course of treatment, within ten 24073 days after the expiration of the maximum time for treatment as 24074 specified in division (C) of this section, within ten days after 24075 the expiration of the maximum time for continuing evaluation and 24076 treatment as specified in division (B)(1)(a) of this section, 24077 within thirty days after a defendant's request for a hearing that 24078 is made after six months of treatment, or within thirty days after 24079 being advised by the treating physician or examiner that the 24080 defendant is competent to stand trial, whichever is the earliest, 24081 the court shall conduct another hearing to determine if the 24082 defendant is competent to stand trial and shall do whichever of 24083 the following is applicable: 24084

(1) If the court finds that the defendant is competent to 24085 stand trial, the defendant shall be proceeded against as provided 24086 by law. 24087

(2) If the court finds that the defendant is incompetent to 24088 stand trial, but that there is a substantial probability that the 24089 defendant will become competent to stand trial if the defendant is 24090 provided with a course of treatment, and the maximum time for 24091 treatment as specified in division (C) of this section has not 24092 expired, the court, after consideration of the examiner's 24093 recommendation, shall order that treatment be continued, may 24094 change the ~~least restrictive limitations on the defendant's~~ 24095 ~~freedom of movement~~ facility or program at which the treatment is 24096 to be continued, and, ~~if applicable~~, shall specify whether the 24097 treatment ~~for developmental disabilities~~ is to be continued at the 24098 same or a different facility or ~~institution~~ program. 24099

(3) If the court finds that the defendant is incompetent to 24100 stand trial, if the defendant is charged with an offense listed in 24101 division (C)(1) of this section, and if the court finds that there 24102 is not a substantial probability that the defendant will become 24103 competent to stand trial even if the defendant is provided with a 24104 course of treatment, or if the maximum time for treatment relative 24105 to that offense as specified in division (C) of this section has 24106 expired, further proceedings shall be as provided in sections 24107

2945.39, 2945.401, and 2945.402 of the Revised Code. 24108

(4) If the court finds that the defendant is incompetent to 24109 stand trial, if the most serious offense with which the defendant 24110 is charged is a misdemeanor or a felony other than a felony listed 24111 in division (C)(1) of this section, and if the court finds that 24112 there is not a substantial probability that the defendant will 24113 become competent to stand trial even if the defendant is provided 24114 with a course of treatment, or if the maximum time for treatment 24115 relative to that offense as specified in division (C) of this 24116 section has expired, the court shall dismiss the indictment, 24117 information, or complaint against the defendant. A dismissal under 24118 this division is not a bar to further prosecution based on the 24119 same conduct. The court shall discharge the defendant unless the 24120 court or prosecutor files an affidavit in probate court for civil 24121 commitment pursuant to Chapter 5122. or 5123. of the Revised Code. 24122
If an affidavit for civil commitment is filed, the court may 24123 detain the defendant for ten days pending civil commitment. All of 24124 the following provisions apply to persons charged with a 24125 misdemeanor or a felony other than a felony listed in division 24126 (C)(1) of this section who are committed by the probate court 24127 subsequent to the court's or prosecutor's filing of an affidavit 24128 for civil commitment under authority of this division: 24129

(a) The chief clinical officer of the entity, hospital, or 24130 facility, the managing officer of the institution, the director of 24131
the program, or the person to which the defendant is committed or 24132 admitted shall do all of the following: 24133

(i) Notify the prosecutor, in writing, of the discharge of 24134 the defendant, send the notice at least ten days prior to the 24135 discharge unless the discharge is by the probate court, and state 24136 in the notice the date on which the defendant will be discharged; 24137

(ii) Notify the prosecutor, in writing, when the defendant is 24138 absent without leave or is granted unsupervised, off-grounds 24139 movement, and send this notice promptly after the discovery of the 24140 absence without leave or prior to the granting of the 24141 unsupervised, off-grounds movement, whichever is applicable; 24142

(iii) Notify the prosecutor, in writing, of the change of the 24143 defendant's commitment or admission to voluntary status, send the 24144 notice promptly upon learning of the change to voluntary status, 24145 and state in the notice the date on which the defendant was 24146 committed or admitted on a voluntary status. 24147

(b) Upon receiving notice that the defendant will be granted 24148 unsupervised, off-grounds movement, the prosecutor either shall 24149 re-indict the defendant or promptly notify the court that the 24150 prosecutor does not intend to prosecute the charges against the 24151 defendant. 24152

(I) If a defendant is convicted of a crime and sentenced to a 24153 jail or workhouse, the defendant's sentence shall be reduced by 24154 the total number of days the defendant is confined for evaluation 24155 to determine the defendant's competence to stand trial or 24156 treatment under this section and sections 2945.37 and 2945.371 of 24157 the Revised Code or by the total number of days the defendant is 24158 confined for evaluation to determine the defendant's mental 24159 condition at the time of the offense charged. 24160

Sec. 2945.39. (A) If a defendant who is charged with an 24161 offense described in division (C)(1) of section 2945.38 of the 24162

Revised Code is found incompetent to stand trial, after the 24163 expiration of the maximum time for treatment as specified in 24164 division (C) of that section or after the court finds that there 24165
is not a substantial probability that the defendant will become 24166
competent to stand trial even if the defendant is provided with a 24167 course of treatment, one of the following applies: 24168

(1) The court or the prosecutor may file an affidavit in 24169 probate court for civil commitment of the defendant in the manner 24170 provided in Chapter 5122. or 5123. of the Revised Code. If the 24171 court or prosecutor files an affidavit for civil commitment, the 24172 court may detain the defendant for ten days pending civil 24173 commitment. If the probate court commits the defendant subsequent 24174 to the court's or prosecutor's filing of an affidavit for civil 24175 commitment, the chief clinical officer of the entity, hospital, or 24176 facility, the managing officer of the institution, the director of 24177
admitted shall send to the prosecutor the notices described in 24179 divisions (H)(4)(a)(i) to (iii) of section 2945.38 of the Revised 24180 Code within the periods of time and under the circumstances 24181 specified in those divisions. 24182

(2) On the motion of the prosecutor or on its own motion, the 24183 court may retain jurisdiction over the defendant if, at a hearing, 24184 the court finds both of the following by clear and convincing 24185 evidence: 24186

(a) The defendant committed the offense with which the 24187
defendant is charged. 24188

(b) The defendant is a mentally ill person subject to 24189 hospitalization by court order or a mentally retarded person 24190 subject to institutionalization by court order. 24191

(B) In making its determination under division (A)(2) of this 24192 section as to whether to retain jurisdiction over the defendant, 24193 the court may consider all relevant evidence, including, but not 24194 limited to, any relevant psychiatric, psychological, or medical 24195 testimony or reports, the acts constituting the offense charged, 24196 and any history of the defendant that is relevant to the 24197 defendant's ability to conform to the law. 24198

(C) If the court conducts a hearing as described in division 24199 (A)(2) of this section and if the court does not make both 24200 findings described in divisions (A)(2)(a) and (b) of this section 24201 by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall dismiss the 24202 indictment, information, or complaint against the defendant. Upon 24203 the dismissal, the court shall discharge the defendant unless the 24204 court or prosecutor files an affidavit in probate court for civil 24205 commitment of the defendant pursuant to Chapter 5122. or 5123. of 24206 the Revised Code. If the court or prosecutor files an affidavit 24207 for civil commitment, the court may order that the defendant be 24208 detained for up to ten days pending the civil commitment. If the 24209 probate court commits the defendant subsequent to the court's or 24210 prosecutor's filing of an affidavit for civil commitment, the 24211 chief clinical officer of the entity, hospital, or facility, the 24212 managing officer of the institution, the director of the program, 24213 or the person to which the defendant is committed or admitted 24214 shall send to the prosecutor the notices described in divisions 24215 (H)(4)(a)(i) to (iii) of section 2945.38 of the Revised Code 24216 within the periods of time and under the circumstances specified 24217 in those divisions. A dismissal of charges under this division is 24218 not a bar to further criminal proceedings based on the same 24219 conduct. 24220

(D)(1) If the court conducts a hearing as described in 24221 division (A)(2) of this section and if the court makes the 24222 findings described in divisions (A)(2)(a) and (b) of this section 24223 by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall commit the 24224 defendant, if determined to require mental health treatment, 24225 either to the department of mental health for treatment at a 24226 hospital, facility, or agency as determined clinically appropriate 24227 by the department of mental health or to another medical or 24228 psychiatric facility, as appropriate. Prior to placing the 24229 defendant, the department of mental health shall obtain court 24230 approval for that placement. If the court conducts such a hearing 24231 and if it makes those findings by clear and convincing evidence, 24232 the court shall commit the defendant, if determined to require 24233 treatment for ~~developmental disabilities~~ mental retardation, to a 24234 facility operated by the department of developmental disabilities, 24235 or another facility, as appropriate. ~~In committing the defendant~~ 24236 ~~to the department of mental health, the court shall specify the~~ 24237 ~~least restrictive limitations on the defendant's freedom of~~ 24238 ~~movement determined to be necessary to protect public safety. In~~ 24239 ~~determining the place and nature of the commitment to a facility~~ 24240 ~~operated by the department of developmental disabilities or~~ 24241 ~~another facility for treatment of developmental disabilities, the~~ 24242 ~~court~~ In determining the place of commitment, the court shall 24243 consider the extent to which the person is a danger to the person 24244 and to others, the need for security, and the type of crime 24245 involved and shall order the least restrictive ~~commitment~~ 24246 alternative available that is consistent with public safety and 24247 the welfare of the defendant. In weighing these factors, the court 24248 shall give preference to protecting public safety. 24249

(2) If a court makes a commitment of a defendant under 24250 division (D)(1) of this section, the prosecutor shall send to the 24251 hospital, facility, or agency where the defendant is placed by the 24252 department of mental health or to the defendant's place of 24253 commitment all reports of the defendant's current mental condition 24254 and, except as otherwise provided in this division, any other 24255 relevant information, including, but not limited to, a transcript 24256 of the hearing held pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section, 24257 copies of relevant police reports, and copies of any prior arrest 24258 and conviction records that pertain to the defendant and that the prosecutor possesses. The prosecutor shall send the reports of the defendant's current mental condition in every case of commitment, and, unless the prosecutor determines that the release of any of the other relevant information to unauthorized persons would interfere with the effective prosecution of any person or would create a substantial risk of harm to any person, the prosecutor also shall send the other relevant information. Upon admission of a defendant committed under division (D)(1) of this section, the place of commitment shall send to the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services or the community mental health board serving the county in which the charges against the defendant were filed a copy of all reports of the defendant's current mental condition and a copy of the other relevant information provided by the prosecutor under this division, including, if provided, a transcript of the hearing held pursuant to division (A)(2) of this section, the relevant police reports, and the prior arrest and conviction records that pertain to the defendant and that the prosecutor possesses.

(3) If a court makes a commitment under division (D)(1) of this section, all further proceedings shall be in accordance with sections 2945.401 and 2945.402 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 2945.40. (A) If a person is found not guilty by reason of insanity, the verdict shall state that finding, and the trial court shall conduct a full hearing to determine whether the person is a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by court order or a mentally retarded person subject to institutionalization by court order. Prior to the hearing, if the trial judge believes that there is probable cause that the person found not guilty by reason of insanity is a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by court order or mentally retarded person subject to institutionalization by court order, the trial judge may issue a temporary order of detention for that person to remain in effect 24291 for ten court days or until the hearing, whichever occurs first. 24292

Any person detained pursuant to a temporary order of 24293 detention issued under this division shall be held in a suitable 24294 facility, taking into consideration the place and type of 24295 confinement prior to and during trial. 24296

(B) The court shall hold the hearing under division (A) of 24297 this section to determine whether the person found not guilty by 24298 reason of insanity is a mentally ill person subject to 24299 hospitalization by court order or a mentally retarded person 24300 subject to institutionalization by court order within ten court 24301 days after the finding of not guilty by reason of insanity. 24302 Failure to conduct the hearing within the ten-day period shall 24303 cause the immediate discharge of the respondent, unless the judge 24304 grants a continuance for not longer than ten court days for good 24305 cause shown or for any period of time upon motion of the 24306 respondent. 24307

(C) If a person is found not guilty by reason of insanity, 24308 the person has the right to attend all hearings conducted pursuant 24309 to sections 2945.37 to 2945.402 of the Revised Code. At any 24310 hearing conducted pursuant to one of those sections, the court 24311 shall inform the person that the person has all of the following 24312
rights: 24313

(1) The right to be represented by counsel and to have that 24314 counsel provided at public expense if the person is indigent, with 24315 the counsel to be appointed by the court under Chapter 120. of the 24316 Revised Code or under the authority recognized in division (C) of 24317 section 120.06, division (E) of section 120.16, division (E) of 24318 section 120.26, or section 2941.51 of the Revised Code; 24319

(2) The right to have independent expert evaluation and to 24320 have that independent expert evaluation provided at public expense 24321

if the person is indigent; 24322

(3) The right to subpoena witnesses and documents, to present 24323 evidence on the person's behalf, and to cross-examine witnesses 24324 against the person; 24325

(4) The right to testify in the person's own behalf and to 24326 not be compelled to testify; 24327

(5) The right to have copies of any relevant medical or 24328 mental health document in the custody of the state or of any place 24329 of commitment other than a document for which the court finds that 24330 the release to the person of information contained in the document 24331 would create a substantial risk of harm to any person. 24332

(D) The hearing under division (A) of this section shall be 24333 open to the public, and the court shall conduct the hearing in 24334 accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure. The court shall make 24335 and maintain a full transcript and record of the hearing 24336 proceedings. The court may consider all relevant evidence, 24337 including, but not limited to, any relevant psychiatric, 24338 psychological, or medical testimony or reports, the acts 24339 constituting the offense in relation to which the person was found 24340 not guilty by reason of insanity, and any history of the person 24341 that is relevant to the person's ability to conform to the law. 24342

(E) Upon completion of the hearing under division (A) of this 24343 section, if the court finds there is not clear and convincing 24344 evidence that the person is a mentally ill person subject to 24345 hospitalization by court order or a mentally retarded person 24346 subject to institutionalization by court order, the court shall 24347 discharge the person, unless a detainer has been placed upon the 24348 person by the department of rehabilitation and correction, in 24349 which case the person shall be returned to that department. 24350

(F) If, at the hearing under division (A) of this section, 24351 the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person 24352 is a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by court 24353 order, the court shall commit the person either to the department 24354 of mental health for ~~placement~~ treatment in a hospital, facility, 24355 or agency as determined clinically appropriate by the department 24356 of mental health or to another medical or psychiatric facility, as 24357 appropriate. Prior to placing the defendant, the department of 24358 mental health shall obtain court approval for that placement. If, 24359 at the hearing under division (A) of this section, the court ~~finds~~ 24360 determines by clear and convincing evidence that the person ~~is a~~ 24361 ~~mentally retarded person subject to institutionalization by court~~ 24362 ~~order~~ requires treatment for mental retardation, it shall commit 24363 the person to a facility operated by the department of 24364 developmental disabilities or another facility, as appropriate. 24365 Further proceedings shall be in accordance with sections 2945.401 24366 and 2945.402 of the Revised Code. ~~In committing the person to the~~ 24367 ~~department of mental health, the court shall specify the least~~ 24368 ~~restrictive limitations to the defendant's freedom of movement~~ 24369 ~~determined to be necessary to protect public safety.~~ In 24370 determining the place ~~and nature of the commitment of a mentally~~ 24371 ~~retarded person subject to institutionalization by court order,~~ 24372 the court shall consider the extent to which the person is a 24373 danger to the person and to others, the need for security, and the 24374 type of crime involved and shall order the least restrictive 24375 ~~commitment~~ alternative available that is consistent with public 24376 safety and the welfare of the person. In weighing these factors, 24377 the court shall give preference to protecting public safety. 24378

(G) If a court makes a commitment of a person under division 24379
(F) of this section, the prosecutor shall send to the hospital, 24380 facility, or agency where the person is placed by the department 24381 of mental health or to the defendant's place of commitment all 24382 reports of the person's current mental condition, and, except as 24383 otherwise provided in this division, any other relevant 24384 information, including, but not limited to, a transcript of the 24385 hearing held pursuant to division (A) of this section, copies of 24386 relevant police reports, and copies of any prior arrest and 24387 conviction records that pertain to the person and that the 24388 prosecutor possesses. The prosecutor shall send the reports of the 24389 person's current mental condition in every case of commitment, 24390 and, unless the prosecutor determines that the release of any of 24391 the other relevant information to unauthorized persons would 24392 interfere with the effective prosecution of any person or would 24393 create a substantial risk of harm to any person, the prosecutor 24394 also shall send the other relevant information. Upon admission of 24395 a person committed under division (F) of this section, the place of commitment shall send to the board of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services or the community mental health board serving the county in which the charges against the person were filed a copy of all reports of the person's current mental condition and a copy of the other relevant information provided by the prosecutor under this division, including, if provided, a transcript of the hearing held pursuant to division (A) of this section, the relevant police reports, and the prior arrest and conviction records that pertain to the person and that the prosecutor possesses. 24406

(H) A person who is committed pursuant to this section shall 24407 not voluntarily admit the person or be voluntarily admitted to a 24408 hospital or institution pursuant to section 5122.02, 5122.15, 24409

Sec. 2945.401. (A) A defendant found incompetent to stand 24411 trial and committed pursuant to section 2945.39 of the Revised 24412 Code or a person found not guilty by reason of insanity and 24413 committed pursuant to section 2945.40 of the Revised Code shall 24414 remain subject to the jurisdiction of the trial court pursuant to 24415 that commitment, and to the provisions of this section, until the 24416 final termination of the commitment as described in division 24417

(J)(1) of this section. If the jurisdiction is terminated under 24418 this division because of the final termination of the commitment 24419 resulting from the expiration of the maximum prison term or term 24420 of imprisonment described in division (J)(1)(b) of this section, 24421 the court or prosecutor may file an affidavit for the civil 24422 commitment of the defendant or person pursuant to Chapter 5122. or 24423
5123. of the Revised Code. 24424

(B) A hearing conducted under any provision of sections 24425 2945.37 to 2945.402 of the Revised Code shall not be conducted in 24426 accordance with Chapters 5122. and 5123. of the Revised Code. Any 24427 person who is committed pursuant to section 2945.39 or 2945.40 of 24428 the Revised Code shall not voluntarily admit the person or be 24429 voluntarily admitted to a hospital or institution pursuant to 24430 section 5122.02, 5122.15, 5123.69, or 5123.76 of the Revised Code. 24431
All other provisions of Chapters 5122. and 5123. of the Revised 24432 Code regarding hospitalization or institutionalization shall apply 24433 to the extent they are not in conflict with this chapter. A 24434 commitment under section 2945.39 or 2945.40 of the Revised Code 24435 shall not be terminated and the conditions of the commitment shall 24436 not be changed except as otherwise provided in division (D)(2) of 24437 this section with respect to a mentally retarded person subject to 24438 institutionalization by court order or except by order of the 24439 trial court. 24440

(C) The department of mental health or the institution ~~or~~ 24441 facility, or program to which a defendant or person has been 24442 committed under section 2945.39 or 2945.40 of the Revised Code 24443 shall report in writing to the trial court, at the times specified 24444 in this division, as to whether the defendant or person remains a 24445 mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by court order or a 24446 mentally retarded person subject to institutionalization by court 24447 order and, in the case of a defendant committed under section 24448 2945.39 of the Revised Code, as to whether the defendant remains 24449 incompetent to stand trial. The department, institution, ~~or~~ 24450 facility, or program shall make the reports after the initial six 24451 months of treatment and every two years after the initial report 24452 is made. The trial court shall provide copies of the reports to 24453 the prosecutor and to the counsel for the defendant or person. 24454 Within thirty days after its receipt pursuant to this division of 24455 a report from the department, institution, ~~or~~ facility, or 24456 program, the trial court shall hold a hearing on the continued 24457 commitment of the defendant or person or on any changes in the 24458 conditions of the commitment of the defendant or person. The 24459 defendant or person may request a change in the conditions of 24460 confinement, and the trial court shall conduct a hearing on that 24461 request if six months or more have elapsed since the most recent 24462 hearing was conducted under this section. 24463

(D)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (D)(2) of 24464 this section, when a defendant or person has been committed under 24465 section 2945.39 or 2945.40 of the Revised Code, at any time after 24466 evaluating the risks to public safety and the welfare of the 24467 defendant or person, the designee of the department of mental 24468 health or the managing officer of the institution or director of 24469 the facility or program to which the defendant or person is 24470 committed may recommend a termination of the defendant's or 24471 person's commitment or a change in the conditions of the 24472 defendant's or person's commitment. 24473

Except as otherwise provided in division (D)(2) of this 24474 section, if the designee of the department of mental health 24475 recommends on-grounds unsupervised movement, off-grounds 24476 supervised movement, or nonsecured status for the defendant or 24477 person or termination of the defendant's or person's commitment, 24478 the following provisions apply: 24479

(a) If the department's designee recommends on-grounds 24480 unsupervised movement or off-grounds supervised movement, the 24481 department's designee shall file with the trial court an 24482 application for approval of the movement and shall send a copy of 24483 the application to the prosecutor. Within fifteen days after 24484 receiving the application, the prosecutor may request a hearing on 24485 the application and, if a hearing is requested, shall so inform 24486 the department's designee. If the prosecutor does not request a 24487 hearing within the fifteen-day period, the trial court shall 24488 approve the application by entering its order approving the 24489 requested movement or, within five days after the expiration of 24490 the fifteen-day period, shall set a date for a hearing on the 24491 application. If the prosecutor requests a hearing on the 24492 application within the fifteen-day period, the trial court shall 24493 hold a hearing on the application within thirty days after the 24494 hearing is requested. If the trial court, within five days after 24495 the expiration of the fifteen-day period, sets a date for a 24496 hearing on the application, the trial court shall hold the hearing 24497 within thirty days after setting the hearing date. At least 24498 fifteen days before any hearing is held under this division, the 24499 trial court shall give the prosecutor written notice of the date, 24500 time, and place of the hearing. At the conclusion of each hearing 24501 conducted under this division, the trial court either shall 24502 approve or disapprove the application and shall enter its order 24503 accordingly. 24504

(b) If the department's designee recommends termination of 24505 the defendant's or person's commitment at any time or if the 24506 department's designee recommends the first of any nonsecured 24507 status for the defendant or person, the department's designee 24508 shall send written notice of this recommendation to the trial 24509 court and to the local forensic center. The local forensic center 24510 shall evaluate the committed defendant or person and, within 24511 thirty days after its receipt of the written notice, shall submit 24512 to the trial court and the department's designee a written report 24513 of the evaluation. The trial court shall provide a copy of the 24514 department's designee's written notice and of the local forensic 24515 center's written report to the prosecutor and to the counsel for 24516 the defendant or person. Upon the local forensic center's 24517 submission of the report to the trial court and the department's 24518 designee, all of the following apply: 24519

(i) If the forensic center disagrees with the recommendation 24520 of the department's designee, it shall inform the department's 24521 designee and the trial court of its decision and the reasons for 24522 the decision. The department's designee, after consideration of 24523 the forensic center's decision, shall either withdraw, proceed 24524 with, or modify and proceed with the recommendation. If the 24525 department's designee proceeds with, or modifies and proceeds 24526 with, the recommendation, the department's designee shall proceed 24527 in accordance with division (D)(1)(b)(iii) of this section. 24528

(ii) If the forensic center agrees with the recommendation of 24529 the department's designee, it shall inform the department's 24530 designee and the trial court of its decision and the reasons for 24531 the decision, and the department's designee shall proceed in 24532 accordance with division (D)(1)(b)(iii) of this section. 24533

(iii) If the forensic center disagrees with the 24534 recommendation of the department's designee and the department's 24535 designee proceeds with, or modifies and proceeds with, the 24536 recommendation or if the forensic center agrees with the 24537 recommendation of the department's designee, the department's 24538 designee shall work with community mental health agencies, 24539 programs, facilities, or boards of alcohol, drug addiction, and 24540 mental health services or community mental health boards to 24541 develop a plan to implement the recommendation. If the defendant 24542 or person is on medication, the plan shall include, but shall not 24543 be limited to, a system to monitor the defendant's or person's 24544 compliance with the prescribed medication treatment plan. The 24545 system shall include a schedule that clearly states when the 24546 defendant or person shall report for a medication compliance 24547 check. The medication compliance checks shall be based upon the 24548 effective duration of the prescribed medication, taking into 24549 account the route by which it is taken, and shall be scheduled at 24550 intervals sufficiently close together to detect a potential 24551 increase in mental illness symptoms that the medication is 24552 intended to prevent. 24553

The department's designee, after consultation with the board 24554 of alcohol, drug addiction, and mental health services or the 24555 community mental health board serving the area, shall send the 24556 recommendation and plan developed under division (D)(1)(b)(iii) of 24557 this section, in writing, to the trial court, the prosecutor, and 24558 the counsel for the committed defendant or person. The trial court 24559 shall conduct a hearing on the recommendation and plan developed 24560 under division (D)(1)(b)(iii) of this section. Divisions (D)(1)(c) 24561 and (d) and (E) to (J) of this section apply regarding the 24562 hearing. 24563

(c) If the department's designee's recommendation is for 24564 nonsecured status or termination of commitment, the prosecutor may 24565 obtain an independent expert evaluation of the defendant's or 24566 person's mental condition, and the trial court may continue the 24567 hearing on the recommendation for a period of not more than thirty 24568 days to permit time for the evaluation. 24569

The prosecutor may introduce the evaluation report or present 24570 other evidence at the hearing in accordance with the Rules of 24571
Evidence. 24572

(d) The trial court shall schedule the hearing on a 24573 department's designee's recommendation for nonsecured status or 24574 termination of commitment and shall give reasonable notice to the 24575 prosecutor and the counsel for the defendant or person. Unless 24576
or for other good cause, the hearing shall be held within thirty 24578 days after the trial court's receipt of the recommendation and 24579 plan. 24580

(2)(a) Division (D)(1) of this section does not apply to 24581 on-grounds unsupervised movement of a defendant or person who has 24582 been committed under section 2945.39 or 2945.40 of the Revised 24583 Code, who is a mentally retarded person subject to 24584 institutionalization by court order, and who is being provided 24585 residential habilitation, care, and treatment in a facility 24586 operated by the department of developmental disabilities. 24587

(b) If, pursuant to section 2945.39 of the Revised Code, the 24588 trial court commits a defendant who is found incompetent to stand 24589 trial and who is a mentally retarded person subject to 24590 institutionalization by court order, if the defendant is being 24591 provided residential habilitation, care, and treatment in a 24592 facility operated by the department of developmental disabilities, 24593 if an individual who is conducting a survey for the department of 24594 health to determine the facility's compliance with the 24595 certification requirements of the medicaid program under Chapter 24596 5111. of the Revised Code and Title XIX of the "Social Security 24597 Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, cites the 24598 defendant's receipt of the residential habilitation, care, and 24599 treatment in the facility as being inappropriate under the 24600 certification requirements, if the defendant's receipt of the 24601 residential habilitation, care, and treatment in the facility 24602 potentially jeopardizes the facility's continued receipt of 24603 federal medicaid moneys, and if as a result of the citation the 24604 chief clinical officer of the facility determines that the 24605 conditions of the defendant's commitment should be changed, the 24606 department of developmental disabilities may cause the defendant 24607 to be removed from the particular facility and, after evaluating 24608 the risks to public safety and the welfare of the defendant and 24609 after determining whether another type of placement is consistent 24610 with the certification requirements, may place the defendant in 24611 another facility that the department selects as an appropriate 24612 facility for the defendant's continued receipt of residential 24613 habilitation, care, and treatment and that is a no less secure 24614 setting than the facility in which the defendant had been placed 24615 at the time of the citation. Within three days after the 24616 defendant's removal and alternative placement under the 24617 circumstances described in division (D)(2)(b) of this section, the 24618 department of developmental disabilities shall notify the trial 24619 court and the prosecutor in writing of the removal and alternative 24620 placement. 24621

The trial court shall set a date for a hearing on the removal 24622 and alternative placement, and the hearing shall be held within 24623 twenty-one days after the trial court's receipt of the notice from 24624 the department of developmental disabilities. At least ten days 24625 before the hearing is held, the trial court shall give the 24626 prosecutor, the department of developmental disabilities, and the 24627 counsel for the defendant written notice of the date, time, and 24628 place of the hearing. At the hearing, the trial court shall 24629 consider the citation issued by the individual who conducted the 24630 survey for the department of health to be prima-facie evidence of 24631 the fact that the defendant's commitment to the particular 24632 facility was inappropriate under the certification requirements of 24633 the medicaid program under Chapter 5111. of the Revised Code and 24634 Title XIX of the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 24635
U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, and potentially jeopardizes the 24636 particular facility's continued receipt of federal medicaid 24637 moneys. At the conclusion of the hearing, the trial court may 24638 approve or disapprove the defendant's removal and alternative 24639 placement. If the trial court approves the defendant's removal and 24640 alternative placement, the department of developmental 24641 disabilities may continue the defendant's alternative placement. 24642
If the trial court disapproves the defendant's removal and 24643 alternative placement, it shall enter an order modifying the 24644 defendant's removal and alternative placement, but that order 24645 shall not require the department of developmental disabilities to 24646 replace the defendant for purposes of continued residential 24647 habilitation, care, and treatment in the facility associated with 24648 the citation issued by the individual who conducted the survey for 24649 the department of health. 24650

(E) In making a determination under this section regarding 24651 nonsecured status or termination of commitment, the trial court 24652 shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited 24653 to, all of the following: 24654

(1) Whether, in the trial court's view, the defendant or 24655 person currently represents a substantial risk of physical harm to 24656 the defendant or person or others; 24657

(2) Psychiatric and medical testimony as to the current 24658 mental and physical condition of the defendant or person; 24659

(3) Whether the defendant or person has insight into the 24660 ~~defendant's~~ defendant's or person's condition so that the 24661 defendant or person will continue treatment as prescribed or seek 24662 professional assistance as needed; 24663

(4) The grounds upon which the state relies for the proposed 24664 commitment; 24665

(5) Any past history that is relevant to establish the 24666 defendant's or person's degree of conformity to the laws, rules, 24667 regulations, and values of society; 24668

(6) If there is evidence that the defendant's or person's 24669 mental illness is in a state of remission, the medically suggested 24670 cause and degree of the remission and the probability that the 24671 defendant or person will continue treatment to maintain the 24672 remissive state of the defendant's or person's illness should the 24673 defendant's or person's commitment conditions be altered. 24674

(F) At any hearing held pursuant to division (C) or (D)(1) or 24675
(2) of this section, the defendant or the person shall have all 24676 the rights of a defendant or person at a commitment hearing as 24677 described in section 2945.40 of the Revised Code. 24678

(G) In a hearing held pursuant to division (C) or (D)(1) of 24679 this section, the prosecutor has the burden of proof as follows: 24680

(1) For a recommendation of termination of commitment, to 24681 show by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant or person 24682 remains a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by court 24683 order or a mentally retarded person subject to 24684 institutionalization by court order; 24685

(2) For a recommendation for a change in the conditions of 24686 the commitment to a less restrictive status, to show by clear and 24687 convincing evidence that the proposed change represents a threat 24688 to public safety or a threat to the safety of any person. 24689

(H) In a hearing held pursuant to division (C) or (D)(1) or 24690
(2) of this section, the prosecutor shall represent the state or 24691 the public interest. 24692

(I) At the conclusion of a hearing conducted under division 24693
(D)(1) of this section regarding a recommendation from the 24694 designee of the department of mental health, managing officer of 24695 the institution, or director of a facility or program, the trial 24696 court may approve, disapprove, or modify the recommendation and 24697 shall enter an order accordingly. 24698

(J)(1) A defendant or person who has been committed pursuant 24699 to section 2945.39 or 2945.40 of the Revised Code continues to be 24700 under the jurisdiction of the trial court until the final 24701 termination of the commitment. For purposes of division (J) of 24702 this section, the final termination of a commitment occurs upon 24703 the earlier of one of the following: 24704

(a) The defendant or person no longer is a mentally ill 24705 person subject to hospitalization by court order or a mentally 24706 retarded person subject to institutionalization by court order, as 24707 determined by the trial court; 24708

(b) The expiration of the maximum prison term or term of 24709 imprisonment that the defendant or person could have received if 24710 the defendant or person had been convicted of the most serious 24711 offense with which the defendant or person is charged or in 24712 relation to which the defendant or person was found not guilty by 24713 reason of insanity; 24714

(c) The trial court enters an order terminating the 24715 commitment under the circumstances described in division 24716 (J)(2)(a)(ii) of this section. 24717

(2)(a) If a defendant is found incompetent to stand trial and 24718 committed pursuant to section 2945.39 of the Revised Code, if 24719 neither of the circumstances described in divisions (J)(1)(a) and 24720
(b) of this section applies to that defendant, and if a report 24721 filed with the trial court pursuant to division (C) of this 24722 section indicates that the defendant presently is competent to 24723 stand trial or if, at any other time during the period of the 24724 defendant's commitment, the prosecutor, the counsel for the 24725 defendant, or the designee of the department of mental health or 24726 the managing officer of the institution or director of the 24727 facility or program to which the defendant is committed files an 24728 application with the trial court alleging that the defendant 24729 presently is competent to stand trial and requesting a hearing on 24730 the competency issue or the trial court otherwise has reasonable 24731 cause to believe that the defendant presently is competent to 24732 stand trial and determines on its own motion to hold a hearing on 24733 the competency issue, the trial court shall schedule a hearing on 24734 the competency of the defendant to stand trial, shall give the 24735 prosecutor, the counsel for the defendant, and the department's 24736 designee or the managing officer of the institution or the 24737 director of the facility to which the defendant is committed 24738 notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing at least 24739 fifteen days before the hearing, and shall conduct the hearing 24740 within thirty days of the filing of the application or of its own 24741 motion. If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the trial court 24742 determines that the defendant presently is capable of 24743 understanding the nature and objective of the proceedings against 24744

the defendant and of assisting in the defendant's defense, the 24745 trial court shall order that the defendant is competent to stand 24746 trial and shall be proceeded against as provided by law with 24747 respect to the applicable offenses described in division (C)(1) of 24748 section 2945.38 of the Revised Code and shall enter whichever of 24749 the following additional orders is appropriate: 24750

(i) If the trial court determines that the defendant remains 24751 a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by court order or 24752 a mentally retarded person subject to institutionalization by 24753 court order, the trial court shall order that the defendant's 24754 commitment to the department of mental health or to an institution 24755 ~~or, facility, or program~~ for the treatment of ~~developmental~~ 24756 ~~disabilities~~ mental retardation be continued during the pendency 24757

(C)(1) of section 2945.38 of the Revised Code. 24759

(ii) If the trial court determines that the defendant no 24760 longer is a mentally ill person subject to hospitalization by 24761
institutionalization by court order, the trial court shall order 24763 that the defendant's commitment to the department of mental health 24764 or to an institution ~~or, facility, or program~~ for the treatment of 24765 ~~developmental disabilities~~ mental retardation shall not be 24766
offenses described in division (C)(1) of section 2945.38 of the 24768 Revised Code. This order shall be a final termination of the 24769 commitment for purposes of division (J)(1)(c) of this section. 24770

(b) If, at the conclusion of the hearing described in 24771 division (J)(2)(a) of this section, the trial court determines 24772 that the defendant remains incapable of understanding the nature 24773 and objective of the proceedings against the defendant or of 24774 assisting in the defendant's defense, the trial court shall order 24775 that the defendant continues to be incompetent to stand trial, 24776
that the defendant's commitment to the department of mental health 24777
or to an institution ~~or~~, facility, or program for the treatment of 24778 ~~developmental disabilities~~ mental retardation shall be continued, 24779 and that the defendant remains subject to the jurisdiction of the 24780 trial court pursuant to that commitment, and to the provisions of 24781 this section, until the final termination of the commitment as 24782 described in division (J)(1) of this section. 24783

Sec. 2953.32. (A)(1) Except as provided in section 2953.61 of 24784 the Revised Code, a first offender may apply to the sentencing 24785 court if convicted in this state, or to a court of common pleas if 24786 convicted in another state or in a federal court, for the sealing 24787 of the conviction record. Application may be made at the 24788 expiration of three years after the offender's final discharge if 24789 convicted of a felony, or at the expiration of one year after the 24790 offender's final discharge if convicted of a misdemeanor. 24791

(2) Any person who has been arrested for any misdemeanor 24792 offense and who has effected a bail forfeiture may apply to the 24793 court in which the misdemeanor criminal case was pending when bail 24794 was forfeited for the sealing of the record of the case. Except as 24795 provided in section 2953.61 of the Revised Code, the application 24796 may be filed at any time after the expiration of one year from the 24797 date on which the bail forfeiture was entered upon the minutes of 24798 the court or the journal, whichever entry occurs first. 24799

(B) Upon the filing of an application under this section, the 24800 court shall set a date for a hearing and shall notify the 24801 prosecutor for the case of the hearing on the application. The 24802 prosecutor may object to the granting of the application by filing 24803 an objection with the court prior to the date set for the hearing. 24804

The prosecutor shall specify in the objection the reasons for 24805 believing a denial of the application is justified. The court 24806 shall direct its regular probation officer, a state probation 24807 officer, or the department of probation of the county in which the 24808 applicant resides to make inquiries and written reports as the 24809 court requires concerning the applicant. 24810

(C)(1) The court shall do each of the following: 24811

(a) Determine whether the applicant is a first offender or 24812 whether the forfeiture of bail was agreed to by the applicant and 24813 the prosecutor in the case. If the applicant applies as a first 24814 offender pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section and has two 24815 or three convictions that result from the same indictment, 24816 information, or complaint, from the same plea of guilty, or from 24817 the same official proceeding, and result from related criminal 24818 acts that were committed within a three-month period but do not 24819 result from the same act or from offenses committed at the same 24820 time, in making its determination under this division, the court 24821 initially shall determine whether it is not in the public interest 24822 for the two or three convictions to be counted as one conviction. 24823
If the court determines that it is not in the public interest for 24824 the two or three convictions to be counted as one conviction, the 24825 court shall determine that the applicant is not a first offender; 24826 if the court does not make that determination, the court shall 24827 determine that the offender is a first offender. 24828

(b) Determine whether criminal proceedings are pending 24829 against the applicant; 24830

(c) If the applicant is a first offender who applies pursuant 24831 to division (A)(1) of this section, determine whether the 24832 applicant has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the court; 24833

(d) If the prosecutor has filed an objection in accordance 24834 with division (B) of this section, consider the reasons against 24835 granting the application specified by the prosecutor in the 24836 objection; 24837

(e) Weigh the interests of the applicant in having the 24838 records pertaining to the applicant's conviction sealed against 24839 the legitimate needs, if any, of the government to maintain those 24840 records. 24841

(2) If the court determines, after complying with division 24842
(C)(1) of this section, that the applicant is a first offender or 24843 the subject of a bail forfeiture, that no criminal proceeding is 24844 pending against the applicant, and that the interests of the 24845 applicant in having the records pertaining to the applicant's 24846 conviction or bail forfeiture sealed are not outweighed by any 24847 legitimate governmental needs to maintain those records, and that 24848 the rehabilitation of an applicant who is a first offender 24849 applying pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section has been 24850 attained to the satisfaction of the court, the court, except as 24851 provided in divisions (G) and (H) of this section, shall order all 24852 official records pertaining to the case sealed and, except as 24853 provided in division (F) of this section, all index references to 24854 the case deleted and, in the case of bail forfeitures, shall 24855 dismiss the charges in the case. The proceedings in the case shall 24856 be considered not to have occurred and the conviction or bail 24857 forfeiture of the person who is the subject of the proceedings 24858 shall be sealed, except that upon conviction of a subsequent 24859 offense, the sealed record of prior conviction or bail forfeiture 24860 may be considered by the court in determining the sentence or 24861 other appropriate disposition, including the relief provided for 24862 in sections 2953.31 to 2953.33 of the Revised Code. 24863

(3) Upon the filing of an application under this section, the 24864 applicant, unless indigent, shall pay a fee of fifty dollars. The 24865 court shall pay thirty dollars of the fee into the state treasury. 24866

It shall pay twenty dollars of the fee into the county general 24867 revenue fund if the sealed conviction or bail forfeiture was 24868 pursuant to a state statute, or into the general revenue fund of 24869 the municipal corporation involved if the sealed conviction or 24870 bail forfeiture was pursuant to a municipal ordinance. 24871

(D) Inspection of the sealed records included in the order 24872 may be made only by the following persons or for the following 24873 purposes: 24874

(1) By a law enforcement officer or prosecutor, or the 24875 assistants of either, to determine whether the nature and 24876 character of the offense with which a person is to be charged 24877 would be affected by virtue of the person's previously having been 24878 convicted of a crime; 24879

(2) By the parole or probation officer of the person who is 24880 the subject of the records, for the exclusive use of the officer 24881 in supervising the person while on parole or under a community 24882 control sanction or a post-release control sanction, and in making 24883 inquiries and written reports as requested by the court or adult 24884 parole authority; 24885

(3) Upon application by the person who is the subject of the 24886 records, by the persons named in the application; 24887

(4) By a law enforcement officer who was involved in the 24888 case, for use in the officer's defense of a civil action arising 24889 out of the officer's involvement in that case; 24890

(5) By a prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's 24891 assistants, to determine a defendant's eligibility to enter a 24892 pre-trial diversion program established pursuant to section 24893
2935.36 of the Revised Code; 24894

(6) By any law enforcement agency or any authorized employee 24895 of a law enforcement agency or by the department of rehabilitation 24896 and correction as part of a background investigation of a person 24897 who applies for employment with the agency as a law enforcement 24898 officer or with the department as a corrections officer; 24899

(7) By any law enforcement agency or any authorized employee 24900 of a law enforcement agency, for the purposes set forth in, and in 24901 the manner provided in, section 2953.321 of the Revised Code; 24902

(8) By the bureau of criminal identification and 24903 investigation or any authorized employee of the bureau for the 24904 purpose of providing information to a board or person pursuant to 24905 division (F) or (G) of section 109.57 of the Revised Code; 24906

(9) By the bureau of criminal identification and 24907
investigation or any authorized employee of the bureau for the 24908 purpose of performing a criminal history records check on a person 24909 to whom a certificate as prescribed in section 109.77 of the 24910 Revised Code is to be awarded; 24911

(10) By the bureau of criminal identification and 24912
investigation or any authorized employee of the bureau for the 24913 purpose of conducting a criminal records check of an individual 24914 pursuant to division (B) of section 109.572 of the Revised Code 24915 that was requested pursuant to any of the sections identified in 24916 division (B)(1) of that section; 24917

(11) By the bureau of criminal identification and 24918 investigation, an authorized employee of the bureau, a sheriff, or 24919 an authorized employee of a sheriff in connection with a criminal 24920 records check described in section 311.41 of the Revised Code; 24921

(12) By the attorney general or an authorized employee of the 24922 attorney general or a court for purposes of determining a person's 24923 classification pursuant to Chapter 2950. of the Revised Code; 24924

(13) By a prosecuting attorney or the attorney general, or 24925 the assistants of either, for purposes of defending a civil action 24926 brought pursuant to division (B)(1) of section 2743.48 of the 24927

Revised Code. 24928

When the nature and character of the offense with which a 24929 person is to be charged would be affected by the information, it 24930 may be used for the purpose of charging the person with an 24931
offense. 24932

(E) In any criminal proceeding, proof of any otherwise 24933 admissible prior conviction may be introduced and proved, 24934 notwithstanding the fact that for any such prior conviction an 24935 order of sealing previously was issued pursuant to sections 24936 2953.31 to 2953.36 of the Revised Code. 24937

(F) The person or governmental agency, office, or department 24938 that maintains sealed records pertaining to convictions or bail 24939 forfeitures that have been sealed pursuant to this section may 24940 maintain a manual or computerized index to the sealed records. The 24941 index shall contain only the name of, and alphanumeric identifiers 24942 that relate to, the persons who are the subject of the sealed 24943 records, the word "sealed," and the name of the person, agency, 24944 office, or department that has custody of the sealed records, and 24945 shall not contain the name of the crime committed. The index shall 24946 be made available by the person who has custody of the sealed 24947 records only for the purposes set forth in divisions (C), (D), and 24948
(E) of this section. 24949

(G) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or section 24950 2953.33 of the Revised Code that requires otherwise, a board of 24951 education of a city, local, exempted village, or joint vocational 24952 school district that maintains records of an individual who has 24953 been permanently excluded under sections 3301.121 and 3313.662 of 24954 the Revised Code is permitted to maintain records regarding a 24955 conviction that was used as the basis for the individual's 24956 permanent exclusion, regardless of a court order to seal the 24957 record. An order issued under this section to seal the record of a 24958 conviction does not revoke the adjudication order of the 24959 superintendent of public instruction to permanently exclude the 24960 individual who is the subject of the sealing order. An order 24961 issued under this section to seal the record of a conviction of an 24962 individual may be presented to a district superintendent as 24963 evidence to support the contention that the superintendent should 24964 recommend that the permanent exclusion of the individual who is 24965 the subject of the sealing order be revoked. Except as otherwise 24966 authorized by this division and sections 3301.121 and 3313.662 of 24967 the Revised Code, any school employee in possession of or having 24968 access to the sealed conviction records of an individual that were 24969 the basis of a permanent exclusion of the individual is subject to 24970

section 2953.35 of the Revised Code. 24971

(H) For purposes of sections 2953.31 to 2953.36 of the 24972 Revised Code, DNA records collected in the DNA database and 24973 fingerprints filed for record by the superintendent of the bureau 24974 of criminal identification and investigation shall not be sealed 24975 unless the superintendent receives a certified copy of a final 24976 court order establishing that the offender's conviction has been 24977 overturned. For purposes of this section, a court order is not 24978
"final" if time remains for an appeal or application for 24979 discretionary review with respect to the order. 24980

Sec. 2961.22. (A)(1) Any prisoner serving a prison term in a 24981 state correctional institution who satisfies all of the following 24982 is eligible to apply to the department of rehabilitation and 24983 correction at a time specified in division (A)(2) of this section 24984 and in accordance with division (D) of this section for a 24985 certificate of achievement and employability: 24986

(a) The prisoner has satisfactorily completed one or more 24987 in-prison vocational programs approved by rule by the department 24988 of rehabilitation and correction. 24989

(b) The prisoner has demonstrated exemplary performance as 24990 determined by completion of one or more cognitive or behavioral 24991 improvement programs approved by rule by the department while 24992 incarcerated in a state correctional institution, while under 24993 supervision, or during both periods of time. 24994

(c) The prisoner has completed community service hours. 24995

(d) The prisoner shows other evidence of achievement and 24996 rehabilitation while under the jurisdiction of the department. 24997

(2) An eligible prisoner may apply to the department of 24998 rehabilitation and correction under division (A)(1) of this 24999 section for a certificate of achievement and employability no 25000 earlier than one year prior to the date scheduled for the release 25001 of the prisoner from department custody and no later than the date 25002 of release of the prisoner. 25003

(B)(1) Any prisoner who has been released from a state 25004 correctional institution, who is under supervision on parole or 25005 under a post-release control sanction, and who satisfies all of 25006 the criteria set forth in division (A)(1) of this section is 25007 eligible to apply to the adult parole authority at a time 25008 specified in division (B)(2) of this section and in accordance 25009 with division (D) of this section for a certificate of achievement 25010 and employability. 25011

(2) An eligible prisoner may apply to the adult parole 25012 authority under division (B)(1) of this section for a certificate 25013 of achievement and employability at any time while the prisoner is 25014 under supervision on parole or under a post-release control 25015 sanction. 25016

(C)(1) An eligible prisoner may apply to the department of 25017 rehabilitation and correction or to the adult parole authority at 25018 a time specified in division (A) or (B) of this section, whichever 25019 is applicable, for a certificate of achievement and employability 25020 that grants the prisoner relief from one or more mandatory civil 25021 impacts that would affect a potential job within a field in which 25022 the prisoner trained as part of the prisoner's in-prison 25023 vocational program. The prisoner shall specify the mandatory civil 25024 impacts from which the prisoner is requesting relief under the 25025 certificate. Upon application by a prisoner in accordance with 25026 this division, if the mandatory civil impact of any licensing 25027 agency would be affected by the issuance of the certificate to the 25028 prisoner, the department or authority shall notify the licensing 25029 agency of the filing of the application, provide the licensing 25030 agency with a copy of the application and all evidence that the 25031 department, authority, or court has regarding the prisoner, and 25032 afford the licensing agency with an opportunity to object in 25033 writing to the issuance of the certificate to the prisoner. 25034

(2) Upon application by a prisoner in accordance with 25035 division (C)(1) of this section, the department of rehabilitation 25036 and correction or the adult parole authority, whichever is 25037 applicable, shall consider the application and all objections to 25038 the issuance of a certificate of achievement and employability to 25039 the prisoner, if any, that were made by a licensing agency under 25040 division (C)(1) of this section. If the department or authority 25041 determines that the prisoner is an eligible prisoner, that the 25042 application was filed at a time specified in division (B) of this 25043 section, and that any licensing agency objections to the issuance 25044 of the certificate to the prisoner are not sufficient to deny the 25045 issuance of the certificate to the prisoner, subject to division 25046 (C)(3) of this section, the department or authority shall issue 25047 the prisoner a certificate of achievement and employability that 25048 grants the prisoner relief from the mandatory civil impacts that 25049 are specified in the prisoner's application and that would affect 25050 a potential job within a field in which the prisoner trained as 25051 part of the prisoner's in-prison vocational program. 25052

(3) The mandatory civil impacts identified in division (A)(1) 25053 of section 2961.01 and in division (B) of section 2961.02 of the 25054 Revised Code shall not be affected by any certificate of 25055 achievement and employability issued under this section. No 25056 certificate of achievement and employability issued to a prisoner 25057 under this section grants the prisoner relief from the mandatory 25058 civil impacts identified in division (A)(1) of section 2961.01 and 25059 in division (B) of section 2961.02 of the Revised Code. 25060

(E) The department of rehabilitation and correction shall 25061 adopt rules that define in-prison vocational programs and 25062 cognitive or behavioral improvement programs that a prisoner may 25063 complete to satisfy the criteria described in divisions (A)(1)(a) 25064 and (b) of this section. 25065

(F) The department of rehabilitation and correction and the 25066 adult parole authority shall not be liable for any claim for 25067 damages arising from the department's or authority's issuance, 25068 denial, or revocation of a certificate of achievement and 25069 employability or for the department's or authority's failure to 25070 revoke a certificate of achievement and employability under the 25071 circumstances described in section 2961.24 of the Revised Code. 25072

Sec. 2967.03. The adult parole authority may exercise its 25073 functions and duties in relation to the pardon, commutation of 25074 sentence, or reprieve of a convict upon direction of the governor 25075 or upon its own initiative. It may exercise its functions and 25076 duties in relation to the parole of a prisoner who is eligible for 25077 parole upon the initiative of the head of the institution in which 25078 the prisoner is confined or upon its own initiative. When a 25079 prisoner becomes eligible for parole, the head of the institution 25080 mental and moral qualities and characteristics, their knowledge of 25086 a trade or profession, their former means of livelihood, their 25087 family relationships, and any other matters affecting their 25088 fitness to be at liberty without being a threat to society. 25089

The authority may recommend to the governor the pardon, 25090 commutation of sentence, ~~medical release~~, or reprieve of any 25091 convict or prisoner or grant a parole to any prisoner for whom 25092 parole is authorized, if in its judgment there is reasonable 25093 ground to believe that granting a pardon, commutation, ~~medical~~ 25094 ~~release~~, or reprieve to the convict or paroling the prisoner would 25095 further the interests of justice and be consistent with the 25096 welfare and security of society. However, the authority shall not 25097 recommend a pardon, or commutation of sentence, ~~or medical release~~ 25098 ~~of~~, or grant a parole to, any convict or prisoner until the 25099 authority has complied with the applicable notice requirements of 25100 sections 2930.16 and 2967.12 of the Revised Code and until it has 25101 considered any statement made by a victim or a victim's 25102 representative that is relevant to the convict's or prisoner's 25103 case and that was sent to the authority pursuant to section 25104 2930.17 of the Revised Code, any other statement made by a victim 25105 or a victim's representative that is relevant to the convict's or 25106 prisoner's case and that was received by the authority after it 25107 provided notice of the pendency of the action under sections 25108 2930.16 and 2967.12 of the Revised Code, and any written statement 25109 of any person submitted to the court pursuant to division (G) of 25110 section 2967.12 of the Revised Code. If a victim, victim's 25111 representative, or the victim's spouse, parent, sibling, or child 25112 appears at a full board hearing of the parole board and gives 25113 testimony as authorized by section 5149.101 of the Revised Code, 25114 the authority shall consider the testimony in determining whether 25115 to grant a parole. The trial judge and prosecuting attorney of the 25116 trial court in which a person was convicted shall furnish to the 25117 authority, at the request of the authority, a summarized statement 25118 of the facts proved at the trial and of all other facts having 25119 reference to the propriety of recommending a pardon, commutation, 25120 or medical release, or granting a parole, together with a 25121 recommendation for or against a pardon, commutation, medical 25122 release, or parole, and the reasons for the recommendation. The 25123 trial judge, the prosecuting attorney, specified law enforcement 25124 agency members, and a representative of the prisoner may appear at 25125 a full board hearing of the parole board and give testimony in 25126 regard to the grant of a parole to the prisoner as authorized by 25127 section 5149.101 of the Revised Code. All state and local 25128 officials shall furnish information to the authority, when so 25129 requested by it in the performance of its duties. 25130

The adult parole authority shall exercise its functions and 25131 duties in relation to the release of prisoners who are serving a 25132 stated prison term in accordance with section 2967.28 of the 25133
Revised Code. 25134

Sec. 2967.05. (A) As used in this section: 25135

(1) "Imminent danger of death" means that the inmate has a 25136 medically diagnosable condition that will cause death to occur 25137 within a short period of time. 25138

As used in division (A)(1) of this section, "within a short 25139 period of time" means generally within six months. 25140

(2)(a) "Medically incapacitated" means any diagnosable 25141 medical condition, including mental dementia and severe, permanent 25142 medical or cognitive disability, that prevents the inmate from 25143 completing activities of daily living without significant 25144 assistance, that incapacitates the inmate to the extent that 25145 institutional confinement does not offer additional restrictions, 25146 that is likely to continue throughout the entire period of parole, 25147 and that is unlikely to improve noticeably. 25148

(b) "Medically incapacitated" does not include conditions 25149 related solely to mental illness unless the mental illness is 25150 accompanied by injury, disease, or organic defect. 25151

(3)(a) "Terminal illness" means a condition that satisfies 25152 all of the following criteria: 25153

(i) The condition is irreversible and incurable and is caused 25154 by disease, illness, or injury from which the inmate is unlikely 25155 to recover. 25156

(ii) In accordance with reasonable medical standards and a 25157 reasonable degree of medical certainty, the condition is likely to 25158 cause death to the inmate within twelve months. 25159

(iii) Institutional confinement of the inmate does not offer 25160 additional protections for public safety or against the inmate's 25161 risk to reoffend. 25162

(b) The department of rehabilitation and correction shall 25163 adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to 25164 implement the definition of "terminal illness" in division 25165
(A)(3)(a) of this section. 25166

(B) Upon the recommendation of the director of rehabilitation 25167 and correction, accompanied by a certificate of the attending 25168 physician that an inmate is terminally ill, medically 25169 incapacitated, or in imminent danger of death, the governor may 25170 order the inmate's release as if on parole, reserving the right to 25171 return the inmate to the institution pursuant to this section. If, 25172 subsequent to the inmate's release, the inmate's health improves 25173 so that the inmate is no longer terminally ill, medically 25174 incapacitated, or in imminent danger of death, the inmate shall be 25175 returned, by order of the governor, to the institution from which 25176 the inmate was released. If the inmate violates any rules or 25177 conditions applicable to the inmate, the inmate may be returned to 25178 an institution under the control of the department of 25179 rehabilitation and correction. The governor may direct the adult 25180 parole authority to investigate or cause to be investigated the 25181 inmate and make a recommendation ~~in the manner set forth in~~ 25182 ~~section 2967.03 of the Revised Code.~~ An inmate released under this 25183 the Revised Code to establish the procedure for medical release of 25188 an inmate when an inmate is terminally ill, medically 25189 incapacitated, or in imminent danger of death. 25190

(C) No inmate is eligible for release under this section if 25191 the inmate is serving a death sentence, a sentence of life without 25192 parole, a sentence under Chapter 2971. of the Revised Code for a 25193 felony of the first or second degree, a sentence for aggravated 25194 murder or murder, or a mandatory prison term for an offense of 25195 offender's or parolee's conditional release or of the releasee's 25205 term of post-release control. The court of common pleas that 25206 placed an offender under a sanction consisting of a term in a 25207 halfway house or in an alternative residential sanction may 25208 require the offender to reside in a halfway house or other 25209

(C) of this section. An agreement under this division shall 25219 provide for the purchase of beds, shall set limits of supervision 25220 and levels of occupancy, and shall determine the scope of services 25221 for all eligible offenders, including those subject to a 25222 residential sanction, as defined in rules adopted by the director 25223 of rehabilitation and correction in accordance with Chapter 119. 25224 of the Revised Code, or those released from prison without 25225 supervision. The payments for beds and services shall not exceed 25226 community residential center during the term of an agreement. The 25228 director of rehabilitation and correction shall adopt rules in 25229 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code for determining 25230 substance abuse, mental health counseling, counseling for sex 25245 offenders, ~~and~~ electronic monitoring services, aftercare, and 25246 other nonresidential services that the director identifies by 25247 rule. 25248

a halfway house, reentry center, or community residential center 25250 as a suitable facility for the care and treatment of adult 25251 offenders, including offenders sentenced under section 2929.16 or 25252 center, or community residential center complies with the 25254 standards that the division adopts in accordance with Chapter 119. 25255 of the Revised Code for the licensure of halfway houses, reentry 25256 centers, and community residential centers. The division shall 25257 annually inspect each licensed halfway house, licensed reentry 25258 fully served. 25374

An offender serving a stated prison term ~~one~~ of one year or 25375 more that includes a mandatory prison term that is not a 25376 disqualifying prison term and is not a restricting prison term is 25377 not automatically ineligible as a result of the offender's service 25378 of that mandatory term for release from prison under this section, 25379 and the offender's eligibility for release from prison under this 25380 section is determined in accordance with this division. 25381

(2) If an offender confined in a state correctional 25382 institution under a stated prison term is eligible for release 25383 under this section as described in division (C)(1) of this 25384 participation while confined in a state correctional institution 25394 in school, training, work, treatment, and other rehabilitative 25395 activities and any disciplinary action taken against the offender 25396 while so confined. The director shall include with the ~~petition a~~ 25397 ~~post-release control assessment and placement plan, when relevant,~~ 25398

(E) When the director submits a ~~petition~~ written notice to a 25401 sentencing court that an offender is eligible to be considered for 25402 early release under this section ~~for release of an offender~~, the 25403 department promptly shall provide to the prosecuting attorney of 25404

The department also shall post a copy of the written notice 25412 ~~of the petition~~ on the database it maintains under section 5120.66 25413 of the Revised Code and include information on where a person may 25414 send comments regarding the ~~petition~~ recommendation of early 25415 release. 25416

The information provided to the court, the prosecutor, and 25417 the victim or victim's representative under divisions (D) and (E) 25418 of this section shall include the name and contact information of 25419 a specific department of rehabilitation and correction employee 25420 who is available to answer questions about the offender who is the 25421 subject of the written notice submitted by the director, 25422 including, but not limited to, the offender's institutional 25423 conduct and rehabilitative activities while incarcerated. 25424

(F) Upon receipt of a ~~petition for release of an offender~~ 25425 written notice submitted by the director under division (B) of 25426 this section, the court ~~may deny the petition without~~ either 25427 shall, on its own motion, schedule a hearing to consider releasing 25428 the offender who is the subject of the notice or shall inform the 25429 department that it will not be conducting a hearing relative to 25430 the offender. The court shall not grant a ~~petition for an early~~ 25431 release ~~of~~ to an offender without holding a hearing. If a court 25432 ~~denies a petition for release of an offender without~~ declines to 25433 hold a hearing relative to an offender with respect to a written 25434 notice submitted by the director, the court may later consider 25435 release of that offender under this section on a ~~subsequent~~ 25436 ~~petition. The court shall enter its ruling within~~ its own motion 25437 by scheduling a hearing for that purpose. Within thirty days after 25438 the ~~petition~~ written notice is ~~filed~~ submitted, the court shall 25439 inform the department whether or not the court is scheduling a 25440 hearing on the offender who is the subject of the notice. 25441

(G) If the court ~~grants~~ schedules a hearing ~~on~~ upon receiving 25442 a ~~petition for release of an offender~~ written notice submitted 25443 under division (B) of this section or upon its own motion under 25444 division (F) of this section, the court shall notify the head of 25445 the state correctional institution in which the offender is 25446 confined of the hearing prior to the hearing. If the court makes a 25447 journal entry ordering the offender to be conveyed to the hearing, 25448 except as otherwise provided in this division, the head of the 25449 correctional institution shall deliver the offender to the sheriff 25450 of the county in which the hearing is to be held, and the sheriff 25451 prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offender was 25454 indicted, the court may permit the offender to appear at the 25455 hearing by video conferencing equipment if equipment of that 25456 nature is available and compatible. 25457

Upon receipt of notice from a court of a hearing on the 25458 release of an offender under this division, the head of the state 25459 correctional institution in which the offender is confined 25460 immediately shall notify the appropriate person at the department 25461 of rehabilitation and correction of the hearing, and the 25462 department within twenty-four hours after receipt of the notice 25463 shall post on the database it maintains pursuant to section 25464 5120.66 of the Revised Code the offender's name and all of the 25465 the court ~~grants~~ schedules a hearing ~~on a petition for release of~~ 25467 ~~an offender~~ under this section, the court promptly shall give 25468 notice of the hearing to the prosecuting attorney of the county in 25469 which the offender was indicted. Upon receipt of the notice from 25470 the court, the prosecuting attorney shall notify pursuant to 25471 section 2930.16 of the Revised Code any victim of the offender or 25472 the victim's representative of the hearing. 25473

(H) If the court ~~grants~~ schedules a hearing ~~on a petition for~~ 25474 ~~release of an offender~~ under this section, at the hearing, the 25475 court shall afford the offender and the offender's attorney an 25476 opportunity to present written information and, if present, oral 25477 information relevant to the ~~motion~~ offender's early release. The 25478 court shall afford a similar opportunity to the prosecuting 25479 attorney, victim or victim's representative, as defined in section 25480 2930.01 of the Revised Code, and any other person the court 25481 determines is likely to present additional relevant information. 25482
If the court pursuant to division (G) of this section permits the 25483 offender to appear at the hearing by video conferencing equipment, 25484 the offender's opportunity to present oral information shall be as 25485 a part of the video conferencing. The court shall consider any 25486 statement of a victim made under section 2930.14 or 2930.17 of the 25487 Revised Code, any victim impact statement prepared under section 25488 2947.051 of the Revised Code, and any report, ~~plan~~, and other 25489 documentation submitted by the director under division (D) of this 25490 section. After ruling on ~~the motion~~ whether to grant the offender 25491 early release, the court shall notify the victim in accordance 25492 with sections 2930.03 and 2930.16 of the Revised Code. 25493

(I) If the court grants ~~a petition for release of~~ an offender 25494 early release under this section, it shall order the release of 25495 the offender, shall place the offender under one or more 25496 appropriate community control sanctions, under appropriate 25497 conditions, and under the supervision of the department of 25498 probation that serves the court, and shall reserve the right to 25499 reimpose the sentence that it reduced and from which the offender 25500 was released if the offender violates the sanction. The court 25501 shall not make a release under this section effective prior to the 25502 date on which the offender ~~has served at least eighty per cent of~~ 25503

~~the offender's stated prison term that remains to be served after~~ 25504
~~the offender~~ becomes eligible as described in division (C) of this 25505 section. If the sentence under which the offender is confined in a 25506 state correctional institution and from which the offender is 25507 being released was imposed for a felony of the first or second 25508 degree, the court shall consider ordering that the offender be 25509 monitored by means of a global positioning device. If the court 25510 reimposes the sentence that it reduced and from which the offender 25511 was released and if the violation of the sanction is a new 25512 offense, the court may order that the reimposed sentence be served 25513 either concurrently with, or consecutive to, any new sentence 25514 imposed upon the offender as a result of the violation that is a 25515 new offense. The period of all community control sanctions imposed 25516 under this division shall not exceed five years. The court, in its 25517 discretion, may reduce the period of community control sanctions 25518 by the amount of time the offender spent in jail or prison for the 25519
offense. 25520

If the court grants ~~a petition for release of~~ an offender 25521 early release under this section, it shall notify the appropriate 25522 person at the department of rehabilitation and correction of the 25523 release, and the department shall post notice of the release on 25524 the database it maintains pursuant to section 5120.66 of the 25525
Revised Code. 25526

(J) The department shall adopt under Chapter 119. of the 25527

Revised Code any rules necessary to implement this section. 25528

Sec. 2967.191. The department of rehabilitation and 25529 correction shall reduce the stated prison term of a prisoner or, 25530 if the prisoner is serving a term for which there is parole 25531 eligibility, the minimum and maximum term or the parole 25532 eligibility date of the prisoner by the total number of days that 25533 the prisoner was confined for any reason arising out of the 25534 offense for which the prisoner was convicted and sentenced, 25535 including confinement in lieu of bail while awaiting trial, 25536 confinement for examination to determine the prisoner's competence 25537 to stand trial or sanity, and confinement while awaiting 25538 transportation to the place where the prisoner is to serve the 25539 prisoner's prison term, as determined by the sentencing court 25540 under division (B)(2)(h)(i) of section 2929.19 of the Revised 25541 Code. The department of rehabilitation and correction also shall 25542 reduce the stated prison term of a prisoner or, if the prisoner is 25543 serving a term for which there is parole eligibility, the minimum 25544 and maximum term or the parole eligibility date of the prisoner by 25545 the total number of days, if any, that the prisoner previously 25546 served in the custody of the department of rehabilitation and 25547 correction arising out of the offense for which the prisoner was 25548 convicted and sentenced. 25549

Sec. 2967.193. (A)(1) Except as provided in division (C) of 25550 this section and subject to the maximum aggregate total specified 25551 in division (A)(2) of this section, a person confined in a state 25552 correctional institution may provisionally earn one day or five 25553 days of credit, based on the category set forth in division 25554 (D)(1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of this section in which the person 25555 is included, toward satisfaction of the person's stated prison 25556 term for each completed month during which the person productively 25557 participates in an education program, vocational training, 25558 employment in prison industries, treatment for substance abuse, or 25559 any other constructive program developed by the department with 25560 specific standards for performance by prisoners. Except as 25561 provided in division (C) of this section and subject to the 25562 maximum aggregate total specified in division (A)(2) of this 25563 section, a person so confined who successfully completes two 25564 programs or activities of that type may, in addition, 25565 provisionally earn up to five days of credit toward satisfaction 25566 of the person's stated prison term for the successful completion 25567 of the second program or activity. The person shall not be awarded 25568 any provisional days of credit for the successful completion of 25569 the first program or activity or for the successful completion of 25570 any program or activity that is completed after the second program 25571 or activity. At the end of each calendar month in which a prisoner 25572 productively participates in a program or activity listed in this 25573 division or successfully completes a program or activity listed in 25574 this division, the department of rehabilitation and correction 25575 shall determine and record the total number of days credit that 25576 the prisoner provisionally earned in that calendar month. If the 25577 prisoner violates prison rules, the department may deny the 25578 prisoner a credit that otherwise could have been provisionally 25579 awarded to the prisoner or may withdraw one or more credits 25580 previously provisionally earned by the prisoner. Days of credit 25581 provisionally earned by a prisoner shall be finalized and awarded 25582 by the department subject to administrative review by the 25583 department of the prisoner's conduct. 25584

(2) The aggregate days of credit provisionally earned by a 25585 person for program or activity participation and program and 25586 activity completion under this section and the aggregate days of 25587 credit finally credited to a person under this section shall not 25588 exceed eight per cent of the total number of days in the person's 25589 stated prison term. 25590

(B) The department of rehabilitation and correction shall 25591 adopt rules that specify the programs or activities for which 25592 credit may be earned under this section, the criteria for 25593 determining productive participation in, or completion of, the 25594 programs or activities and the criteria for awarding credit, 25595 including criteria for awarding additional credit for successful 25596 program or activity completion, and the criteria for denying or 25597 withdrawing previously provisionally earned credit as a result of 25598 a violation of prison rules. 25599

(C) No person confined in a state correctional institution to 25600 whom any of the following applies shall be awarded any days of 25601 credit under division (A) of this section: 25602

(1) The person is serving a prison term that section 2929.13 25603 or section 2929.14 of the Revised Code specifies cannot be reduced 25604 pursuant to this section or this ~~Chapter~~ chapter or is serving a 25605 sentence for which section 2967.13 or division (B) of section 25606 2929.143 of the Revised Code specifies that the person is not 25607 entitled to any earned credit under this section. 25608

(2) The person is sentenced to death or is serving a prison 25609 term or a term of life imprisonment for aggravated murder, murder, 25610 or a conspiracy or attempt to commit, or complicity in committing, 25611 aggravated murder or murder. 25612

(3) The person is serving a sentence of life imprisonment 25613 without parole imposed pursuant to section 2929.03 or 2929.06 of 25614 the Revised Code, a prison term or a term of life imprisonment 25615 without parole imposed pursuant to section 2971.03 of the Revised 25616 Code, or a sentence for a sexually oriented offense that was 25617 committed on or after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ 25618
September 30, 2011. 25619

(D) This division does not apply to a determination of 25620 whether a person confined in a state correctional institution may 25621 earn any days of credit under division (A) of this section for 25622 successful completion of a second program or activity. The 25623 determination of whether a person confined in a state correctional 25624 institution may earn one day of credit or five days of credit 25625 under division (A) of this section for each completed month during 25626 which the person productively participates in a program or 25627 activity specified under that division shall be made in accordance 25628 with the following: 25629

(1) The offender may earn one day of credit under division 25630
(A) of this section, except as provided in division (C) of this 25631 section, if the most serious offense for which the offender is 25632 confined is any of the following that is a felony of the first or 25633 second degree, regardless of the date of that offense: 25634

(a) A violation of division (A) of section 2903.04 or of 25635
section 2903.03, 2903.11, 2903.15, 2905.01, 2907.24, 2907.25, 25636 2909.02, 2909.09, 2909.10, 2909.101, 2909.26, 2909.27, 2909.29, 25637
2911.01, 2911.02, 2911.11, 2911.12, 2919.13, 2919.151, 2919.22, 25638 2921.34, 2923.01, 2923.131, 2923.162, 2923.32, 2925.24, or 2927.24 25639
of the Revised Code; 25640

(b) A conspiracy or attempt to commit, or complicity in 25641 committing, any other offense for which the maximum penalty is 25642 imprisonment for life or any offense listed in division (D)(1)(a) 25643
of this section. 25644

(2) The offender may earn one day of credit under division 25645
(A) of this section, except as provided in division (C) of this 25646 section, if the offender is serving a stated prison term that 25647 includes a prison term imposed for a sexually oriented offense 25648 that the offender committed prior to ~~the effective date of this~~ 25649 ~~amendment~~ September 30, 2011. 25650

(3) The offender may earn one day of credit under division 25651
(A) of this section, except as provided in division (C) of this 25652

includes a prison term imposed for a felony other than carrying a 25654 concealed weapon an essential element of which is any conduct or 25655 failure to act expressly involving any deadly weapon or dangerous 25656 ordnance, regardless of the date of that offense. 25657

(4) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, if 25658
the most serious offense for which the offender is confined is a 25659 felony of the first or second degree and divisions (D)(1), (2), 25660 and (3) of this section do not apply to the offender, ~~the offender~~ 25661 ~~may earn one day of credit under division (A) of this section if~~ 25662
~~the offender committed that offense prior to the effective date of~~ 25663 ~~this amendment, and the offender may earn five days of credit~~ 25664 under division (A) of this section ~~if the offender committed that~~ 25665 ~~offense on or after the effective date of this amendment,~~ 25666 regardless of the date of that offense. 25667

(5) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, if 25668
the most serious offense for which the offender is confined is a 25669 felony of the third, fourth, or fifth degree or an unclassified 25670 felony and neither division (D)(2) nor (3) of this section applies 25671 to the offender, ~~the offender may earn one day of credit under~~ 25672 ~~division (A) of this section if the offender committed that~~ 25673 ~~offense prior to the effective date of this amendment, and the~~ 25674 offender may earn five days of credit under division (A) of this 25675 section ~~if the offender committed that offense on or after the~~ 25676 ~~effective date of this amendment, regardless of the date of that~~ 25677
offense. 25678

(E) If a court imposes a sentence including a prison term on 25679 or after ~~the effective date of this amendment~~ September 30, 2011, 25680 for a felony, and if the court is required to include notice of 25681 the type described in division (F)(3) of section 2929.14 of the 25682 Revised Code in the offender's sentence, the failure of the court 25683 to include the notice does not affect the eligibility of the 25684 offender under this section to earn any days of credit as a 25685 deduction from the offender's stated prison term or otherwise 25686 render any part of this section or any action taken under this 25687 section void or voidable and does not constitute grounds for 25688 setting aside the offender's conviction or sentence or for 25689 granting postconviction relief to the offender. 25690

(F) The department annually shall seek and consider the 25691 written feedback of the Ohio prosecuting attorneys association, 25692 the Ohio judicial conference, the Ohio public defender, the Ohio 25693 association of criminal defense lawyers, and other organizations 25694 and associations that have an interest in the operation of the 25695 corrections system and the earned credits program under this 25696 section as part of its evaluation of the program and in 25697 determining whether to modify the program. 25698

(G) As used in this section, "sexually oriented offense" has 25699 the same meaning as in section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 25700

Sec. 2967.26. (A)(1) The department of rehabilitation and 25701 correction, by rule, may establish a transitional control program 25702 for the purpose of closely monitoring a prisoner's adjustment to 25703 community supervision during the final one hundred eighty days of 25704 the prisoner's confinement. If the department establishes a 25705 transitional control program under this division, the adult parole 25706 authority may transfer eligible prisoners to transitional control 25707 status under the program during the final one hundred eighty days 25708 of their confinement and under the terms and conditions 25709 established by the department, shall provide for the confinement 25710 as provided in this division of each eligible prisoner so 25711 transferred, and shall supervise each eligible prisoner so 25712 transferred in one or more community control sanctions. Each 25713 eligible prisoner who is transferred to transitional control 25714 status under the program shall be confined in a suitable facility 25715 that is licensed pursuant to division (C) of section 2967.14 of 25716 the Revised Code, or shall be confined in a residence the 25717 department has approved for this purpose and be monitored pursuant 25718 to an electronic monitoring device, as defined in section 2929.01 25719 of the Revised Code. If the department establishes a transitional 25720 control program under this division, the rules establishing the 25721 program shall include criteria that define which prisoners are 25722 eligible for the program, criteria that must be satisfied to be 25723 approved as a residence that may be used for confinement under the 25724 program of a prisoner that is transferred to it and procedures for 25725 the department to approve residences that satisfy those criteria, 25726 and provisions of the type described in division (C) of this 25727 section. At a minimum, the criteria that define which prisoners 25728 are eligible for the program shall provide all of the following: 25729

(a) That a prisoner is eligible for the program if the 25730 prisoner is serving a prison term or term of imprisonment for an 25731 offense committed prior to March 17, 1998, and if, at the time at 25732 which eligibility is being determined, the prisoner would have 25733 been eligible for a furlough under this section as it existed 25734 immediately prior to March 17, 1998, or would have been eligible 25735 for conditional release under former section 2967.23 of the 25736 Revised Code as that section existed immediately prior to March 25737
17, 1998; 25738

(b) That no prisoner who is serving a mandatory prison term 25739 is eligible for the program until after expiration of the 25740 mandatory term; 25741

(c) That no prisoner who is serving a prison term or term of 25742 life imprisonment without parole imposed pursuant to section 25743 2971.03 of the Revised Code is eligible for the program. 25744

(2) At least three weeks prior to transferring to 25745 transitional control under this section a prisoner who is serving 25746 a term of imprisonment or prison term for an offense committed on 25747 or after July 1, 1996, the adult division of parole authority and 25748 community services of the department of rehabilitation and 25749 correction shall give notice of the pendency of the transfer to 25750 transitional control to the court of common pleas of the county in 25751 which the indictment against the prisoner was found and of the 25752 fact that the court may disapprove the transfer of the prisoner to 25753 transitional control and shall include a report prepared by the 25754 head of the state correctional institution in which the prisoner 25755 is confined. The head of the state correctional institution in 25756 which the prisoner is confined, upon the request of the adult 25757 parole authority, shall provide to the authority for inclusion in 25758 the notice sent to the court under this division a report on the 25759 prisoner's conduct in the institution and in any institution from 25760 which the prisoner may have been transferred. The report shall 25761 cover the prisoner's participation in school, vocational training, 25762 work, treatment, and other rehabilitative activities and any 25763 disciplinary action taken against the prisoner. If the court 25764 disapproves of the transfer of the prisoner to transitional 25765 control, the court shall notify the authority of the disapproval 25766 within thirty days after receipt of the notice. If the court 25767 timely disapproves the transfer of the prisoner to transitional 25768 control, the authority shall not proceed with the transfer. If the 25769 court does not timely disapprove the transfer of the prisoner to 25770 transitional control, the authority may transfer the prisoner to 25771 transitional control. 25772

(3) If the victim of an offense for which a prisoner was 25773 sentenced to a prison term or term of imprisonment has requested 25774 notification under section 2930.16 of the Revised Code and has 25775 provided the department of rehabilitation and correction with the 25776 victim's name and address, the adult parole authority, at least 25777 three weeks prior to transferring the prisoner to transitional 25778 control pursuant to this section, shall notify the victim of the 25779 pendency of the transfer and of the victim's right to submit a 25780 statement to the authority regarding the impact of the transfer of 25781 the prisoner to transitional control. If the victim subsequently 25782 submits a statement of that nature to the authority, the authority 25783 shall consider the statement in deciding whether to transfer the 25784 prisoner to transitional control. 25785

(4) The department of rehabilitation and correction, at least 25786 three weeks prior to transferring a prisoner to transitional 25787 control pursuant to this section, shall post on the database it 25788 maintains pursuant to section 5120.66 of the Revised Code the 25789 prisoner's name and all of the information specified in division 25790 (A)(1)(c)(iv) of that section. In addition to and independent of 25791 the right of a victim to submit a statement as described in 25792 division (A)(3) of this section or to otherwise make a statement 25793 and in addition to and independent of any other right or duty of a 25794 person to present information or make a statement, any person may 25795 send to the adult parole authority at any time prior to the 25796 authority's transfer of the prisoner to transitional control a 25797 written statement regarding the transfer of the prisoner to 25798 transitional control. In addition to the information, reports, and 25799 statements it considers under divisions (A)(2) and (3) of this 25800 section or that it otherwise considers, the authority shall 25801 consider each statement submitted in accordance with this division 25802 in deciding whether to transfer the prisoner to transitional 25803 control. 25804

(B) Each prisoner transferred to transitional control under 25805 this section shall be confined in the manner described in division 25806
(A) of this section during any period of time that the prisoner is 25807 not actually working at the prisoner's approved employment, 25808 engaged in a vocational training or another educational program, 25809 engaged in another program designated by the director, or engaged 25810 in other activities approved by the department. 25811

(C) The department of rehabilitation and correction shall 25812 adopt rules for transferring eligible prisoners to transitional control, supervising and confining prisoners so transferred, administering the transitional control program in accordance with this section, and using the moneys deposited into the transitional control fund established under division (E) of this section.

(1) To visit a relative in imminent danger of death;

(2) To have a private viewing of the body of a deceased relative;

(3) To visit with family;

(4) To otherwise aid in the rehabilitation of the prisoner.

(E) The adult parole authority may require a prisoner who is transferred to transitional control to pay to the division of parole and community services the reasonable expenses incurred by the division in supervising or confining the prisoner while under transitional control. Inability to pay those reasonable expenses shall not be grounds for refusing to transfer an otherwise eligible prisoner to transitional control. Amounts received by the division of parole and community services under this division shall be deposited into the transitional control fund, which is 25844 hereby created in the state treasury and which hereby replaces and 25845 succeeds the furlough services fund that formerly existed in the 25846 state treasury. All moneys that remain in the furlough services 25847 fund on March 17, 1998, shall be transferred on that date to the 25848 transitional control fund. The transitional control fund shall be 25849 used solely to pay costs related to the operation of the 25850 transitional control program established under this section. The 25851 director of rehabilitation and correction shall adopt rules in 25852 accordance with section 111.15 of the Revised Code for the use of 25853

the fund. 25854

(F) A prisoner who violates any rule established by the 25855 department of rehabilitation and correction under division (A), 25856 (C), or (D) of this section may be transferred to a state 25857 correctional institution pursuant to rules adopted under division 25858 (A), (C), or (D) of this section, but the prisoner shall receive 25859 credit towards completing the prisoner's sentence for the time 25860 spent under transitional control. 25861

If a prisoner is transferred to transitional control under 25862 this section, upon successful completion of the period of 25863 transitional control, the prisoner may be released on parole or 25864 under post-release control pursuant to section 2967.13 or 2967.28 25865 of the Revised Code and rules adopted by the department of 25866 rehabilitation and correction. If the prisoner is released under 25867 post-release control, the duration of the post-release control, 25868 the type of post-release control sanctions that may be imposed, 25869 the enforcement of the sanctions, and the treatment of prisoners 25870 who violate any sanction applicable to the prisoner are governed 25871 by section 2967.28 of the Revised Code. 25872

Sec. 2967.28. (A) As used in this section: 25873

(1) "Monitored time" means the monitored time sanction 25874

specified in section 2929.17 of the Revised Code. 25875

(2) "Deadly weapon" and "dangerous ordnance" have the same 25876 meanings as in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code. 25877

(3) "Felony sex offense" means a violation of a section 25878 contained in Chapter 2907. of the Revised Code that is a felony. 25879

(4) "Risk reduction sentence" means a prison term imposed by 25880 a court, when the court recommends pursuant to section 2929.143 of 25881 the Revised Code that the offender serve the sentence under 25882 section 5120.036 of the Revised Code, and the offender may 25883 potentially be released from imprisonment prior to the expiration 25884 of the prison term if the offender successfully completes all 25885 assessment and treatment or programming required by the department 25886 of rehabilitation and correction under section 5120.036 of the 25887
Revised Code. 25888

(B) Each sentence to a prison term for a felony of the first 25889 degree, for a felony of the second degree, for a felony sex 25890 offense, or for a felony of the third degree that is not a felony 25891 sex offense and in the commission of which the offender caused or 25892 threatened to cause physical harm to a person shall include a 25893 requirement that the offender be subject to a period of 25894 post-release control imposed by the parole board after the 25895 offender's release from imprisonment. This division applies with 25896 respect to all prison terms of a type described in this division, 25897 including a term of any such type that is a risk reduction 25898 sentence. If a court imposes a sentence including a prison term of 25899 a type described in this division on or after July 11, 2006, the 25900 failure of a sentencing court to notify the offender pursuant to 25901 division (B)(2)(c) of section 2929.19 of the Revised Code of this 25902 requirement or to include in the judgment of conviction entered on 25903 the journal a statement that the offender's sentence includes this 25904 requirement does not negate, limit, or otherwise affect the 25905 mandatory period of supervision that is required for the offender 25906 under this division. Section 2929.191 of the Revised Code applies 25907 if, prior to July 11, 2006, a court imposed a sentence including a 25908 prison term of a type described in this division and failed to 25909 notify the offender pursuant to division (B)(2)(c) of section 25910 2929.19 of the Revised Code regarding post-release control or to 25911 include in the judgment of conviction entered on the journal or in 25912

the sentence pursuant to division (D)(1) of section 2929.14 of the 25913 Revised Code a statement regarding post-release control. Unless 25914 reduced by the parole board pursuant to division (D) of this 25915 section when authorized under that division, a period of 25916 post-release control required by this division for an offender 25917 shall be of one of the following periods: 25918

(1) For a felony of the first degree or for a felony sex 25919 offense, five years; 25920

(2) For a felony of the second degree that is not a felony 25921 sex offense, three years; 25922

(3) For a felony of the third degree that is not a felony sex 25923 offense and in the commission of which the offender caused or 25924 threatened physical harm to a person, three years. 25925

(C) Any sentence to a prison term for a felony of the third, 25926 fourth, or fifth degree that is not subject to division (B)(1) or 25927
(3) of this section shall include a requirement that the offender 25928 be subject to a period of post-release control of up to three 25929 years after the offender's release from imprisonment, if the 25930 parole board, in accordance with division (D) of this section, 25931 determines that a period of post-release control is necessary for 25932 that offender. This division applies with respect to all prison 25933 terms of a type described in this division, including a term of 25934 any such type that is a risk reduction sentence. Section 2929.191 25935 of the Revised Code applies if, prior to July 11, 2006, a court 25936 imposed a sentence including a prison term of a type described in 25937 this division and failed to notify the offender pursuant to 25938 division (B)(2)(d) of section 2929.19 of the Revised Code 25939 regarding post-release control or to include in the judgment of 25940 conviction entered on the journal or in the sentence pursuant to 25941 division (D)(2) of section 2929.14 of the Revised Code a statement 25942 regarding post-release control. Pursuant to an agreement entered 25943 into under section 2967.29 of the Revised Code, a court of common 25944 pleas or parole board may impose sanctions or conditions on an 25945 offender who is placed on post-release control under this 25946

division. 25947

(D)(1) Before the prisoner is released from imprisonment, the 25948 parole board or, pursuant to an agreement under section 2967.29 of 25949 the Revised Code, the court shall impose upon a prisoner described 25950 in division (B) of this section, shall impose upon a prisoner 25951 described in division (C) of this section who is to be released 25952 before the expiration of the prisoner's stated prison term under a 25953 risk reduction sentence, may impose upon a prisoner described in 25954 division (C) of this section who is not to be released before the 25955 expiration of the prisoner's stated prison term under a risk 25956 reduction sentence, and shall impose upon a prisoner described in 25957 division (B)(2)(b) of section 5120.031 or in division (B)(1) of 25958 section 5120.032 of the Revised Code, one or more post-release 25959 control sanctions to apply during the prisoner's period of 25960 post-release control. Whenever the board or court imposes one or 25961 more post-release control sanctions upon a prisoner, the board or 25962 court, in addition to imposing the sanctions, also shall include 25963 as a condition of the post-release control that the offender not 25964 leave the state without permission of the court or the offender's 25965 parole or probation officer and that the offender abide by the 25966 law. The board or court may impose any other conditions of release 25967 under a post-release control sanction that the board or court 25968 considers appropriate, and the conditions of release may include 25969 any community residential sanction, community nonresidential 25970 sanction, or financial sanction that the sentencing court was 25971 authorized to impose pursuant to sections 2929.16, 2929.17, and 25972 2929.18 of the Revised Code. Prior to the release of a prisoner 25973 for whom it will impose one or more post-release control sanctions 25974 under this division, the parole board or court shall review the 25975 prisoner's criminal history, results from the single validated 25976 risk assessment tool selected by the department of rehabilitation 25977 and correction under section 5120.114 of the Revised Code, all 25978 juvenile court adjudications finding the prisoner, while a 25979 juvenile, to be a delinquent child, and the record of the 25980 prisoner's conduct while imprisoned. The parole board or court 25981 shall consider any recommendation regarding post-release control 25982 sanctions for the prisoner made by the office of victims' 25983 services. After considering those materials, the board or court 25984 shall determine, for a prisoner described in division (B) of this 25985 section, division (B)(2)(b) of section 5120.031, or division 25986 (B)(1) of section 5120.032 of the Revised Code and for a prisoner 25987 described in division (C) of this section who is to be released 25988

before the expiration of the prisoner's stated prison term under a 25989 risk reduction sentence, which post-release control sanction or 25990 combination of post-release control sanctions is reasonable under 25991 the circumstances or, for a prisoner described in division (C) of 25992 this section who is not to be released before the expiration of 25993 the prisoner's stated prison term under a risk reduction sentence, 25994 whether a post-release control sanction is necessary and, if so, 25995 which post-release control sanction or combination of post-release 25996 control sanctions is reasonable under the circumstances. In the 25997 case of a prisoner convicted of a felony of the fourth or fifth 25998 degree other than a felony sex offense, the board or court shall 25999 presume that monitored time is the appropriate post-release 26000 control sanction unless the board or court determines that a more 26001 restrictive sanction is warranted. A post-release control sanction 26002 imposed under this division takes effect upon the prisoner's 26003 release from imprisonment. 26004

Regardless of whether the prisoner was sentenced to the 26005 prison term prior to, on, or after July 11, 2006, prior to the 26006 release of a prisoner for whom it will impose one or more 26007 post-release control sanctions under this division, the parole 26008 board shall notify the prisoner that, if the prisoner violates any 26009 sanction so imposed or any condition of post-release control 26010 described in division (B) of section 2967.131 of the Revised Code 26011 that is imposed on the prisoner, the parole board may impose a 26012 prison term of up to one-half of the stated prison term originally 26013 imposed upon the prisoner. 26014

(2) If a prisoner who is placed on post-release control under 26015 this section is released before the expiration of the prisoner's 26016 stated prison term by reason of credit earned under section 26017 2967.193 of the Revised Code and if the prisoner earned sixty or 26018 more days of credit, the adult parole authority shall supervise 26019 the offender with an active global positioning system device for 26020 the first fourteen days after the offender's release from 26021 imprisonment. This division does not prohibit or limit the 26022 imposition of any post-release control sanction otherwise 26023 authorized by this section. 26024

(3) At any time after a prisoner is released from 26025 imprisonment and during the period of post-release control 26026 applicable to the releasee, the adult parole authority or, 26027 pursuant to an agreement under section 2967.29 of the Revised 26028 Code, the court may review the releasee's behavior under the 26029 post-release control sanctions imposed upon the releasee under 26030 this section. The authority or court may determine, based upon the 26031 review and in accordance with the standards established under 26032 division (E) of this section, that a more restrictive or a less 26033 restrictive sanction is appropriate and may impose a different 26034 sanction. The authority also may recommend that the parole board 26035 or court increase or reduce the duration of the period of 26036 post-release control imposed by the court. If the authority 26037 recommends that the board or court increase the duration of 26038 post-release control, the board or court shall review the 26039 releasee's behavior and may increase the duration of the period of 26040 post-release control imposed by the court up to eight years. If 26041 the authority recommends that the board or court reduce the 26042 duration of control for an offense described in division (B) or 26043

(C) of this section, the board or court shall review the 26044 releasee's behavior and may reduce the duration of the period of 26045 control imposed by the court. In no case shall the board or court 26046 reduce the duration of the period of control imposed for an 26047 offense described in division (B)(1) of this section to a period 26048 less than the length of the stated prison term originally imposed, 26049 and in no case shall the board or court permit the releasee to 26050 leave the state without permission of the court or the releasee's 26051 parole or probation officer. 26052

(E) The department of rehabilitation and correction, in 26053 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 26054 rules that do all of the following: 26055

(1) Establish standards for the imposition by the parole 26056 board of post-release control sanctions under this section that 26057 are consistent with the overriding purposes and sentencing 26058 principles set forth in section 2929.11 of the Revised Code and 26059 that are appropriate to the needs of releasees; 26060

(2) Establish standards that provide for a period of 26061 post-release control of up to three years for all prisoners 26062 described in division (C) of this section who are to be released 26063 before the expiration of their stated prison term under a risk 26064 reduction sentence and standards by which the parole board can 26065 determine which prisoners described in division (C) of this 26066 section who are not to be released before the expiration of their 26067 stated prison term under a risk reduction sentence should be 26068 placed under a period of post-release control; 26069

(3) Establish standards to be used by the parole board in 26070 reducing the duration of the period of post-release control 26071 imposed by the court when authorized under division (D) of this 26072 section, in imposing a more restrictive post-release control 26073 sanction than monitored time upon a prisoner convicted of a felony 26074 of the fourth or fifth degree other than a felony sex offense, or 26075 in imposing a less restrictive control sanction upon a releasee 26076 based on the releasee's activities including, but not limited to, 26077 remaining free from criminal activity and from the abuse of 26078 alcohol or other drugs, successfully participating in approved 26079 rehabilitation programs, maintaining employment, and paying 26080 restitution to the victim or meeting the terms of other financial 26081 sanctions; 26082

(4) Establish standards to be used by the adult parole 26083 authority in modifying a releasee's post-release control sanctions 26084 pursuant to division (D)(2) of this section; 26085

(5) Establish standards to be used by the adult parole 26086 authority or parole board in imposing further sanctions under 26087 division (F) of this section on releasees who violate post-release 26088 control sanctions, including standards that do the following: 26089

(a) Classify violations according to the degree of 26090 seriousness; 26091

(b) Define the circumstances under which formal action by the 26092 parole board is warranted; 26093

(c) Govern the use of evidence at violation hearings; 26094

(d) Ensure procedural due process to an alleged violator; 26095

(e) Prescribe nonresidential community control sanctions for 26096 most misdemeanor and technical violations; 26097

(f) Provide procedures for the return of a releasee to 26098 imprisonment for violations of post-release control. 26099

(F)(1) Whenever the parole board imposes one or more 26100 post-release control sanctions upon an offender under this 26101 section, the offender upon release from imprisonment shall be 26102 under the general jurisdiction of the adult parole authority and 26103 generally shall be supervised by the field services section 26104 through its staff of parole and field officers as described in 26105 section 5149.04 of the Revised Code, as if the offender had been 26106 placed on parole. If the offender upon release from imprisonment 26107 violates the post-release control sanction or any conditions 26108 described in division (A) of section 2967.131 of the Revised Code 26109 that are imposed on the offender, the public or private person or 26110 entity that operates or administers the sanction or the program or 26111 activity that comprises the sanction shall report the violation 26112 directly to the adult parole authority or to the officer of the 26113 authority who supervises the offender. The authority's officers 26114 may treat the offender as if the offender were on parole and in 26115 violation of the parole, and otherwise shall comply with this 26116
section. 26117

(2) If the adult parole authority or, pursuant to an 26118 agreement under section 2967.29 of the Revised Code, the court 26119 determines that a releasee has violated a post-release control 26120 sanction or any conditions described in division (A) of section 26121 2967.131 of the Revised Code imposed upon the releasee and that a 26122 more restrictive sanction is appropriate, the authority or court 26123 may impose a more restrictive sanction upon the releasee, in 26124 accordance with the standards established under division (E) of 26125 this section or in accordance with the agreement made under 26126 section 2967.29 of the Revised Code, or may report the violation 26127 to the parole board for a hearing pursuant to division (F)(3) of 26128 this section. The authority or court may not, pursuant to this 26129 division, increase the duration of the releasee's post-release 26130 control or impose as a post-release control sanction a residential 26131 sanction that includes a prison term, but the authority or court 26132 may impose on the releasee any other residential sanction, 26133 nonresidential sanction, or financial sanction that the sentencing 26134 court was authorized to impose pursuant to sections 2929.16, 26135

(3) The parole board or, pursuant to an agreement under 26137 section 2967.29 of the Revised Code, the court may hold a hearing 26138 on any alleged violation by a releasee of a post-release control 26139 sanction or any conditions described in division (A) of section 26140 2967.131 of the Revised Code that are imposed upon the releasee. 26141
If after the hearing the board or court finds that the releasee 26142 violated the sanction or condition, the board or court may 26143 increase the duration of the releasee's post-release control up to 26144 the maximum duration authorized by division (B) or (C) of this 26145 section or impose a more restrictive post-release control 26146 sanction. When appropriate, the board or court may impose as a 26147 post-release control sanction a residential sanction that includes 26148 a prison term. The board or court shall consider a prison term as 26149 a post-release control sanction imposed for a violation of 26150 post-release control when the violation involves a deadly weapon 26151 or dangerous ordnance, physical harm or attempted serious physical 26152 harm to a person, or sexual misconduct, or when the releasee 26153 committed repeated violations of post-release control sanctions. 26154 Unless a releasee's stated prison term was reduced pursuant to 26155 section 5120.032 of the Revised Code, the period of a prison term 26156 that is imposed as a post-release control sanction under this 26157 division shall not exceed nine months, and the maximum cumulative 26158 prison term for all violations under this division shall not 26159 exceed one-half of the stated prison term originally imposed upon 26160 the offender as part of this sentence. If a releasee's stated 26161 prison term was reduced pursuant to section 5120.032 of the 26162 Revised Code, the period of a prison term that is imposed as a 26163 post-release control sanction under this division and the maximum 26164 cumulative prison term for all violations under this division 26165 shall not exceed the period of time not served in prison under the 26166 sentence imposed by the court. The period of a prison term that is 26167 imposed as a post-release control sanction under this division 26168 shall not count as, or be credited toward, the remaining period of 26169 post-release control. 26170

If an offender is imprisoned for a felony committed while 26171 under post-release control supervision and is again released on 26172 post-release control for a period of time determined by division 26173 (F)(4)(d) of this section, the maximum cumulative prison term for 26174 all violations under this division shall not exceed one-half of 26175 the total stated prison terms of the earlier felony, reduced by 26176 any prison term administratively imposed by the parole board or 26177 court, plus one-half of the total stated prison term of the new 26178 felony. 26179

(4) Any period of post-release control shall commence upon an 26180 offender's actual release from prison. If an offender is serving 26181 an indefinite prison term or a life sentence in addition to a 26182 stated prison term, the offender shall serve the period of 26183 post-release control in the following manner: 26184

(a) If a period of post-release control is imposed upon the 26185 offender and if the offender also is subject to a period of parole 26186 under a life sentence or an indefinite sentence, and if the period 26187 of post-release control ends prior to the period of parole, the 26188 offender shall be supervised on parole. The offender shall receive 26189 credit for post-release control supervision during the period of 26190 parole. The offender is not eligible for final release under 26191 section 2967.16 of the Revised Code until the post-release control 26192 period otherwise would have ended. 26193

(b) If a period of post-release control is imposed upon the 26194 offender and if the offender also is subject to a period of parole 26195 under an indefinite sentence, and if the period of parole ends 26196 prior to the period of post-release control, the offender shall be 26197 supervised on post-release control. The requirements of parole 26198 supervision shall be satisfied during the post-release control 26199 period. 26200

(c) If an offender is subject to more than one period of 26201 post-release control, the period of post-release control for all 26202 of the sentences shall be the period of post-release control that 26203 expires last, as determined by the parole board or court. Periods 26204 of post-release control shall be served concurrently and shall not 26205 be imposed consecutively to each other. 26206

(d) The period of post-release control for a releasee who 26207 commits a felony while under post-release control for an earlier 26208 felony shall be the longer of the period of post-release control 26209 specified for the new felony under division (B) or (C) of this 26210 section or the time remaining under the period of post-release 26211 control imposed for the earlier felony as determined by the parole 26212 board or court. 26213

Sec. 2981.11. (A)(1) Any property that has been lost, 26214 abandoned, stolen, seized pursuant to a search warrant, or 26215 otherwise lawfully seized or forfeited and that is in the custody 26216 of a law enforcement agency shall be kept safely by the agency, 26217 pending the time it no longer is needed as evidence or for another 26218 lawful purpose, and shall be disposed of pursuant to sections 26219

(2) This chapter does not apply to the custody and disposal 26221 of any of the following: 26222

(B)(1) Each law enforcement agency that has custody of any property that is subject to this section shall adopt and comply with a written internal control policy that does all of the following:	26247 26248 26249 26250 are gained from the sale of the property and that are retained by 26263

(c) Complies with section 2981.13 of the Revised Code if the 26268 has any seized or forfeited property covered by this section in 26272 its custody, including amounts distributed under section 2981.13 26273 of the Revised Code to its law enforcement trust fund or a similar 26274 fund created for the state highway patrol, department of public 26275 safety, department of taxation, or state board of pharmacy, shall 26276 prepare a report covering the calendar year that cumulates all of 26277 the information contained in all of the public records kept by the 26278 agency pursuant to this section for that calendar year. The agency 26279 shall send a copy of the cumulative report to the attorney general 26280 following the calendar year covered by the report. 26282~~

~~(3) The records kept under the internal control policy shall 26283 be open to public inspection during the agency's regular business 26284 of the district voters and with the approval of the commission, 27060 the school district may issue securities to evidence the 27061 restructuring or refinancing. Those securities may extend the 27062 original period for repayment, not to exceed ten years, and may 27063 alter the frequency and amount of repayments, interest or other 27064 financing charges, and other terms of agreements under which the 27065 debt originally was contracted, at the discretion of the 27066 commission, provided that any loans received pursuant to section 27067 controlling board pursuant to section 3318.04 or division (B)(1) 27109 of section 3318.41 of the Revised Code, no contracts may be 27110 entered into pursuant to this section unless such revised estimate 27111 is approved by the commission and by the controlling board. When 27112 such revised estimate has been prepared, and after such approvals 27113 are given, if necessary, and if the school district board has 27114 caused to be transferred to the project construction fund the 27115 proceeds from the sale of the first or first and final installment 27116 of its bonds or bond anticipation notes pursuant to the provision 27117 of the written agreement required by division (B) of section 27118 3318.08 of the Revised Code, and when the director of budget and 27119 management has certified that there is a balance in the 27120 appropriation, not otherwise obligated to pay precedent 27121 obligations, pursuant to which the state's share of such revised 27122 estimate is required to be paid, the contract for all branches of 27123 work and materials to be furnished and supplied, or for any branch 27124 thereof as determined by the school district board, shall be 27125 awarded by the school district board to the lowest responsible 27126 opened, and the successful bidder shall enter into a contract 27129 within ten days after the successful bidder is notified of the 27130 award of the contract. 27131

Subject to the approval of the commission, the school 27132 district board may reject all bids and readvertise. Any contract 27133 made under this section shall be made in the name of the state and 27134 executed on its behalf by the president and treasurer of the 27135 school district board. 27136

The provisions of sections 9.312 and 3313.46 of the Revised Code, which are applicable to construction contracts of boards of education, shall apply to construction contracts for the project.

Sec. 3333.21. As used in sections 3333.21 to 3333.23 of the Revised Code, "term" and "academic year" mean "term" and "academic year" as defined by the chancellor of the Ohio board of regents. 27595
27597

The chancellor shall establish and administer an academic scholarship program. Under the program, a total of one thousand 27598 27599

new scholarships shall be awarded annually in the amount of not 27600 less than two thousand dollars per award. At least one such new 27601 scholarship shall be awarded annually to a student in each public 27602 high school and joint vocational school and each nonpublic high 27603 school for which the state board of education prescribes minimum 27604 standards in accordance with section 3301.07 of the Revised Code. 27605

To be eligible for the award of a scholarship, a student 27606 shall be a resident of Ohio and shall be enrolled as a full-time 27607 undergraduate student in an Ohio institution of higher education 27608 that meets the requirements of Title VI of the "Civil Rights Act 27609 of 1964" and is state-assisted, is nonprofit and holds a 27610 certificate of authorization issued under section 1713.02 of the 27611 Revised Code, is a private institution exempt from regulation 27612 under Chapter 3332. of the Revised Code as prescribed in section 27613 3333.046 of the Revised Code, or holds a certificate of 27614 registration and program authorization issued under section 27615 3332.05 of the Revised Code and awards an associate or bachelor's 27616 degree. Students who attend an institution holding a certificate 27617 of registration shall be enrolled in a program leading to an 27618 associate or bachelor's degree for which associate or bachelor's 27619 degree program the institution has program authorization to offer 27620 the program issued under section 3332.05 of the Revised Code. 27621

"Resident" and "full-time student" shall be defined in rules 27622 adopted by the chancellor. 27623

The chancellor shall award the scholarships on the basis of a 27624 formula designed by the chancellor to identify students with the 27625 highest capability for successful college study. The formula shall 27626 weigh the factor of achievement, as measured by grade point 27627 average, and the factor of ability, as measured by performance on 27628 a competitive examination specified by the chancellor. Students 27629 receiving scholarships shall be known as "Ohio academic scholars." 27630 ~~Annually, not later than the thirty first day of July, the~~ 27631

Sec. 3333.31. (A) For state subsidy and tuition surcharge 27635 purposes, status as a resident of Ohio shall be defined by the 27636 chancellor of the Ohio board of regents by rule promulgated 27637 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. No adjudication as 27638 to the status of any person under such rule, however, shall be 27639 required to be made pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 27640
The term "resident" for these purposes shall not be equated with 27641 the definition of that term as it is employed elsewhere under the 27642 laws of this state and other states, and shall not carry with it 27643 any of the legal connotations appurtenant thereto. Rather, except 27644 as provided in divisions (B) and (D) of this section, for such 27645 purposes, the rule promulgated under this section shall have the 27646 objective of excluding from treatment as residents those who are 27647 present in the state primarily for the purpose of attending a 27648 state-supported or state-assisted institution of higher education, 27649 and may prescribe presumptive rules, rebuttable or conclusive, as 27650 to such purpose based upon the source or sources of support of the 27651 student, residence prior to first enrollment, evidence of 27652 intention to remain in the state after completion of studies, or 27653 such other factors as the chancellor deems relevant. 27654

(B) The rules of the chancellor for determining student 27655 residency shall grant residency status to a veteran and to the 27656 veteran's spouse and any dependent of the veteran, if both of the 27657 following conditions are met: 27658

(1) The veteran either: 27659 honorably discharged or received a medical discharge that was 27661 related to the military service; 27662

(b) Was killed while serving on active military duty or has been declared to be missing in action or a prisoner of war.

(2) If the veteran seeks residency status for tuition surcharge purposes, the veteran has established domicile in this state as of the first day of a term of enrollment in an institution of higher education. If the spouse or a dependent of the veteran seeks residency status for tuition surcharge purposes, the veteran and the spouse or dependent seeking residency status have established domicile in this state as of the first day of a term of enrollment in an institution of higher education, except that if the veteran was killed while serving on active military duty ~~or~~, has been declared to be missing in action or a prisoner of war, or is deceased after discharge, only the spouse or dependent seeking residency status shall be required to have established domicile in accordance with this division.

(C) The rules of the chancellor for determining student residency shall not deny residency status to a student who is either a dependent child of a parent, or the spouse of a person who, as of the first day of a term of enrollment in an institution of higher education, has accepted full-time employment and established domicile in this state for reasons other than gaining the benefit of favorable tuition rates.

Documentation of full-time employment and domicile shall include both of the following documents:

(1) A sworn statement from the employer or the employer's representative on the letterhead of the employer or the employer's representative certifying that the parent or spouse of the student is employed full-time in Ohio;

(2) A copy of the lease under which the parent or spouse is the lessee and occupant of rented residential property in the state, a copy of the closing statement on residential real property of which the parent or spouse is the owner and occupant 27694 in this state or, if the parent or spouse is not the lessee or 27695 owner of the residence in which the parent or spouse has 27696 established domicile, a letter from the owner of the residence 27697 certifying that the parent or spouse resides at that residence. 27698

Residency officers may also evaluate, in accordance with the 27699 chancellor's rule, requests for immediate residency status from 27700 dependent students whose parents are not living and whose domicile 27701 follows that of a legal guardian who has accepted full-time 27702 employment and established domicile in the state for reasons other 27703 than gaining the benefit of favorable tuition rates. 27704

(D)(1) The rules of the chancellor for determining student 27705 residency shall grant residency status to a person who, while a 27706 resident of this state for state subsidy and tuition surcharge 27707 purposes, graduated from a high school in this state, if the 27708 person enrolls in an institution of higher education and 27709 establishes domicile in this state, regardless of the student's 27710 residence prior to that enrollment. 27711

(2) The rules of the chancellor for determining student 27712 residency shall not grant residency status to an alien if the 27713 alien is not also an immigrant or a nonimmigrant. 27714

(E) As used in this section: 27715

(1) "Dependent," "domicile," "institution of higher 27716 education," and "residency officer" have the meanings ascribed in 27717
the chancellor's rules adopted under this section. 27718

(2) "Alien" means a person who is not a United States citizen 27719 or a United States national. 27720

(3) "Immigrant" means an alien who has been granted the right 27721 by the United States bureau of citizenship and immigration 27722 without restrictions in the United States. 27724

(4) "Nonimmigrant" means an alien who has been granted the right by the United States bureau of citizenship and immigration services to reside temporarily in the United States.

Sec. 3333.60. As used in sections 3333.61 to ~~3333.70~~ 3333.69 of the Revised Code:

(A) "State university or college" has the same meaning as in section 3345.12 of the Revised Code.

(B) "State university" and "state institution of higher education" have the same meanings as in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code.

colleges consistent with all terms of the Ohio innovation 27755 partnership. 27756

The choose Ohio first scholarship program shall assign a 27757 number of scholarships to state universities and colleges to 27758 education. Choose Ohio first scholarships shall be awarded to each 27763 participating eligible student as a grant to the state university 27764 or college the student is attending and shall be reflected on the 27765 student's tuition bill. Choose Ohio first scholarships are 27766 student-centered grants from the state to students to use to 27767 attend a university or college and are not grants from the state 27768 to universities or colleges. 27769

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or 27770 sections 3333.62 to ~~3333.70~~ 3333.69 of the Revised Code, a 27771 nonpublic four-year Ohio institution of higher education may 27772 submit a proposal for choose Ohio first scholarships or Ohio 27773 purposes, unless otherwise directed in the donation or bequest. 27886

The board of trustees of a state college or university may 27887 utilize trust funds to invest in property, real and personal, as a 27888 university endowment portfolio. 27900

Notwithstanding any provision of the Revised Code to the 27901 of any university branch may establish and administer a faculty 27909 improvement program, under which any full-time faculty member with 27910 at least seven academic years of teaching service at the college, 27911 university, or branch may be granted professional leave for a 27912 period not to exceed one academic year to engage in further 27913 education, research, or any other purpose approved by the board. A 27914 board of trustees or managing authority that establishes such a 27915 program shall, by rule, adopt a definition of "academic years of 27916 teaching service" and of "full-time faculty member." 27917

No such board or authority shall pay any faculty member for 27918 or during a period of professional leave any salary exceeding the 27919 amount that would have been paid to such faculty member for 27920 performing the faculty member's regular duties during the period 27921 of the leave. No faculty member shall, by virtue of being on 27922 professional leave, suffer a reduction or termination of the 27923 faculty member's regular employee retirement or insurance benefits 27924 or of any other benefit or privilege being received as a faculty 27925 member at the college, university, or branch where the faculty 27926 member is employed. Whenever such a benefit would be reduced 27927 because of a reduction in the faculty member's salary during the 27928 period of professional leave, the faculty member shall be given a 27929 chance to have the benefit increased to its normal level, in 27930 accordance with rules adopted by the board of trustees or the 27931 managing authority. A faculty member who has been granted 27932 professional leave shall complete another seven years of service 27933 at the college, university, or branch at which the faculty member 27934 is employed before becoming eligible for another grant of 27935 professional leave at that college, university, or branch. 27936 Professional leave taken as part of a faculty improvement program 27937 established under this section shall not be deemed to be in lieu 27938 of released time or assigned duty in connection with a specific 27939 research, scholarly, or creative program. 27940

Boards of trustees and managing authorities may accept moneys 27941 from any person, political subdivision, or the federal government 27942 to support a faculty improvement program, and may establish such 27943 additional rules as are necessary to establish and administer it. 27944

Each grant of professional leave shall be in accordance with 27945 a professional improvement policy for professional leaves that has 27946 been approved by the board of trustees or the managing authority. 27947
No professional leave shall be granted that requires a 27948 compensating addition to the permanent faculty or staff of the 27949 college, university, or branch. No professional leave shall be 27950 approved unless a specific plan for the professional improvement 27951 of the faculty member while on leave has been submitted to and 27952 accepted by the president of the university, college, or branch. 27953
At the completion of the leave, the faculty member shall submit to 27954 the president a report detailing the attainments of the faculty 27955 member under this professional improvement plan. 27956

~~Not later than the thirtieth day of June of each year, the 27957 chancellor of the board of regents shall report to the 27958 chairpersons of the education committees of the house of 27959 representatives and the senate on the status of implementation of 27960 faculty improvement programs. The report shall include, but need 27961 not be limited to, the following: the number of professional leave 27962 grants made by each institution; the purpose of each professional 27963 leave; and a statement of the cost to the institution of each 27964 professional leave, to the extent that such cost exceeds the 27965 salary of the faculty member on professional leave. 27966~~

Sec. 3345.50. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in 27967 sections 123.01 and ~~123.15~~ 123.10 of the Revised Code, a state 27968 appropriated by the general assembly does not exceed four million 27975 dollars without the supervision, control, or approval of the 27976 ~~department of administrative services~~ Ohio facilities construction commission as specified in those sections, if both of the 27977 following occur: 27978

laws that govern the selection of consultants, preparation and 27988 approval of contract documents, receipt of bids, and award of 27989 contracts with respect to the project. 27990

The chancellor shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 27991
119. of the Revised Code that establish criteria for the 27992 administration by any such institution of higher education of a 27993 capital facilities project for which the total amount of funds 27994 expected to be appropriated by the general assembly exceeds four 27995 million dollars. The criteria, to be developed with the ~~department~~ 27996 ~~of administrative services~~ Ohio facilities construction commission 27997 and higher education representatives selected by the chancellor, 27998 shall include such matters as the adequacy of the staffing levels 27999 and expertise needed for the institution to administer the 28000 project, past performance of the institution in administering such 28001 projects, and the amount of institutional or other nonstate money 28002 to be used in financing the project. The chancellor and the 28003

~~department of administrative services~~ Ohio facilities construction 28004 commission shall approve the request of any such institution of 28005 general assembly without the supervision, control, or approval of 28016 the ~~department of administrative services~~ Ohio facilities 28017 construction commission as specified in those sections, if all of 28018

(2) Within sixty days after the effective date of the section 28022 of an act in which the general assembly initially makes an 28023 appropriation for the project, the board of trustees of the 28024 institution notifies the chancellor of the Ohio board of regents 28025 in writing of its request to administer the capital facilities 28026 project and the chancellor approves that request pursuant to 28027 chapter unless, with respect to the cultural project and to the 28452 Ohio cultural facility related to the project, all of the 28453

following apply: 28454

(1) The Ohio cultural facilities commission has determined 28455 that there is a need for the cultural project and the Ohio 28456 cultural facility related to the project in the region of the 28457 state in which the Ohio cultural facility is located or for which 28458 the facility is proposed. For a project receiving a state 28459 appropriation of fifty thousand dollars or less, the Ohio cultural 28460 facilities commission may delegate to its executive director the 28461 authority to determine need but only in the affirmative. 28462

(2) The Ohio cultural facilities commission has determined 28463 that, as an indication of substantial regional support for the 28464 cultural project, the cultural organization has made provision 28465 satisfactory to the Ohio cultural facilities commission, in its 28466 sole discretion, for local contributions amounting to not less 28467 than fifty per cent of the total state funding for the cultural 28468 project. For a project receiving a state appropriation of fifty 28469 thousand dollars or less, the Ohio cultural facilities commission 28470 may delegate to its executive director the authority to determine 28471 the adequacy of the regional support but only in the affirmative. 28472

(3) The general assembly has specifically authorized the 28473 spending of money on, or made an appropriation for, the 28474 construction of the cultural project, or for rental payments 28475 relating to the financing of the construction of the cultural 28476 project. Authorization to spend money, or an appropriation, for 28477 planning the cultural project does not constitute authorization to 28478 spend money on, or an appropriation for, construction of the 28479 cultural project. 28480

(E) No state funds, including any state bond proceeds, shall 28481 be spent on the construction of any state historical facility 28482 under this chapter unless the general assembly has specifically 28483 authorized the spending of money on, or made an appropriation for, 28484 the construction of the state historical project related to the 28485 facility, or for rental payments relating to the financing of the 28486 construction of the state historical project. Authorization to 28487 spend money, or an appropriation, for planning the state 28488 historical project does not constitute authorization to spend 28489 money on, or an appropriation for, the construction of the state 28490 historical project. 28491

(F) State funds shall not be used to pay or reimburse more 28492 than fifteen per cent of the initial estimated construction cost 28493 of an Ohio sports facility, excluding any site acquisition cost, 28494 and no state funds, including any state bond proceeds, shall be 28495 spent on any Ohio sports facility under this chapter unless, with 28496 respect to that facility, all of the following apply: 28497

(1) The Ohio cultural facilities commission has determined 28498 that there is a need for the facility in the region of the state 28499 for which the facility is proposed to provide the function of an 28500 Ohio sports facility as provided for in this chapter. For a 28501 facility receiving a state appropriation of fifty thousand dollars 28502 or less, the Ohio cultural facilities commission may delegate to 28503 its executive director the authority to determine need but only in 28504

the affirmative. 28505

(2) As an indication of substantial local support for the 28506 facility, the Ohio cultural facilities commission has received a 28507 financial and development plan satisfactory to it, and provision 28508 has been made, by agreement or otherwise, satisfactory to the Ohio 28509 cultural facilities commission, for a contribution amounting to 28510 not less than eighty-five per cent of the total estimated 28511 construction cost of the facility, excluding any site acquisition 28512 cost, from sources other than the state. For a facility receiving 28513 a state appropriation of fifty thousand dollars or less, the Ohio 28514 cultural facilities commission may delegate to its executive 28515 director the authority to evaluate the financial and development 28516 plan and the contribution and to determine their adequacy but only 28517 in the affirmative. 28518

(3) The general assembly has specifically authorized the 28519
spending of money on, or made an appropriation for, the 28520 construction of the facility, or for rental payments relating to 28521 state financing of all or a portion of the costs of constructing 28522 the facility. Authorization to spend money, or an appropriation, 28523 for planning or determining the feasibility of or need for the 28524 facility does not constitute authorization to spend money on, or 28525 an appropriation for, costs of constructing the facility. 28526

(4) If state bond proceeds are being used for the Ohio sports 28527 facility, the state or a governmental agency owns or has 28528 sufficient property interests in the facility or in the site of 28529 the facility or in the portion or portions of the facility 28530 financed from proceeds of state bonds, which may include, but is 28531 not limited to, the right to use or to require the use of the 28532 facility for the presentation of sport and athletic events to the 28533 public at the facility. 28534

(G) In addition to the requirements of division (F) of this 28535 section, no state funds, including any state bond proceeds, shall 28536 be spent on any Ohio sports facility that is a motorsports 28537 complex, unless, with respect to that facility, both of the 28538

following apply: 28539

(1) Motorsports events shall be presented at the facility 28540 pursuant to a lease entered into with the owner of the facility. 28541
The term of the lease shall be for a period of not less than the 28542 greater of the useful life of the portion of the facility financed 28543 from proceeds of state bonds as determined using the guidelines 28544 for maximum maturities as provided under divisions (B) and (C) of 28545 section 133.20 of the Revised Code, or the period of time 28546 remaining to the date of payment or provision for payment of 28547 outstanding state bonds allocable to costs of the facility, all as 28548 determined by the director of budget and management and certified 28549 by the director to the Ohio cultural facilities commission and to 28550 the treasurer of state. 28551

(2) Any motorsports organization that commits to using the 28552 facility for an established period of time shall give the 28553 political subdivision in which the facility is located not less 28554 than six months' advance notice if the organization intends to 28555 cease utilizing the facility prior to the expiration of that 28556 established period. Such a motorsports organization shall be 28557 liable to the state for any state funds used on the construction 28558 costs of the facility. 28559

(H) In addition to the requirements of division (F) of this 28560 section, no state bond proceeds shall be spent on any Ohio sports 28561 facility that is a tennis facility, unless the owner or manager of 28562 the facility provides contractual commitments from a national or 28563 international professional tennis organization in a form 28564 acceptable to the cultural facilities commission that assures that 28565 one or more sanctioned professional tennis events will be 28566 presented at the facility during each year that the bonds remain 28567 outstanding. 28568
