

(130th General Assembly)
(Substitute Senate Bill Number 69)

AN ACT

To establish the Course and Program Sharing Network.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. The Course and Program Sharing Network is hereby established to be administered by the Chancellor of the Board of Regents. The Network shall consist of course-share programs that share existing curricula, increase course availability, and avoid unnecessary course duplication. Programs shall be developed through agreements among Ohio economic development organizations and other nonprofits approved by the Chancellor, colleges, universities, and adult career centers. The Chancellor shall develop administrative rules and procedures for course-share programs and the Network.
