the Revised Code be enacted to read as follows: 14

Sec. 323.47. (A) If land held by tenants in common is sold 15 of the parties to such proceedings, or real estate is sold by 17 administrators, executors, guardians, or trustees, the court 18 shall order that the taxes, penalties, and assessments then due 19 and payable, and interest on those taxes, penalties, and 20 assessments, that are or will be a lien on such land or real 21 estate at the time the deed is transferred following the sale, 22 be discharged out of the proceeds of such sale or election. For 23 purposes of determining such amount, the county treasurer shall 24 estimate the amount of taxes, assessments, interest, and 25 penalties that will be payable at the time the deed of the 26 property is transferred to the purchaser. If the county 27 treasurer's estimate exceeds the amount of taxes, assessments, 28 interest, and penalties actually payable when the deed is 29 transferred to the purchaser, the officer who conducted the sale 30 shall refund to the purchaser the difference between the 31 estimate and the amount actually payable. If the amount of 32 taxes, assessments, interest, and penalties actually payable 33 when the deed is transferred to the purchaser exceeds the county 34 treasurer's estimate, the officer shall certify the amount of 35 the excess to the treasurer, who shall enter that amount on the 36 real and public utility property tax duplicate opposite the 37 property; the amount of the excess shall be payable at the next 38 before the confirmation of sale but that are not yet determined, 47 assessed, and levied for the year in which confirmation occurs, 48 apportioned pro rata to the part of that year that precedes 49 confirmation, and any penalties and interest on those taxes and assessments; 50

If the county treasurer's estimate exceeds that amount, the officer who conducted the sale shall refund to the purchaser the difference between the estimate and the actual amount. If the actual amount exceeds the county treasurer's estimate, the officer shall certify the amount of the excess to the treasurer, who shall enter that amount on the real and public utility property tax duplicate opposite the property; the amount of the excess shall be payable at the next succeeding date prescribed for payment of taxes in section 323.12 of the Revised Code. The purchaser of real estate at a judicial sale is responsible for payment of any and all taxes and assessments, and any penalties and interest on those taxes and assessments, that attach as of the day following the date of the sale, including taxes and assessments levied for the year in which the sale occurred, apportioned pro rata after the date of the judicial sale, and any penalties and interest on those taxes and assessments.~~ 55 issuance of the order of sale. The sale of the property shall be 292 conducted in accordance with the requirements in Chapter 2329. 293

of the Revised Code. 294

(F) Nothing in this section shall supersede or limit other 295 a mortgagee of the residential property may enter that property 302 to secure and protect it from damage. 303

(B) A mortgagee that has not filed a residential mortgage 304 loan foreclosure action on a property for which the mortgagee 305 relating to that property is guilty of criminal mischief in 316 violation of section 2909.07 of the Revised Code. This section 317 shall not apply to a person who is an owner of a residential 318 property who is making a good faith effort to improve or 319 maintain the value of the property. 320

Sec. 2329.01. (A) Lands and tenements, including vested 321 legal interests therein, permanent leasehold estates renewable 322 forever, and goods and chattels, not exempt by law, shall be 323 subject to the payment of debts, and liable to be taken on 324 execution and sold as provided in sections 2329.02 to 2329.61, 325 ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code. 326

(B) As used in sections 2329.02 to 2329.61 of the Revised 327
Code, "residential mortgage loan" and "residential property" 328

Code. 330

Sec. 2329.02. (A) Any judgment or decree rendered by any 331 court of general jurisdiction, including district courts of the 332 United States, within this state shall be a lien upon lands and 333 tenements of each judgment debtor within any county of this 334 state from the time there is filed in the office of the clerk of 335 the court of common pleas of such county a certificate of such 336 judgment, setting forth the court in which the same was 337 rendered, the title and number of the action, the names of the 338 judgment and costs, the rate of interest, if the judgment 340 provides for interest, and the date from which such interest 341 accrues, the date of rendition of the judgment, and the volume 342 and page of the journal entry thereof. 343

(B) No such judgment or decree shall be a lien upon any 344 lands, whether or not situated within the county in which such 345 judgment is rendered, registered under sections 5309.02 to 346 5309.98, ~~inclusive,~~ and 5310.01 to 5310.21, ~~inclusive,~~ of the 347 Revised Code, until a certificate under the hand and official 348 seal of the clerk of the court in which the same is entered or 349 of record, stating the date and purport of the judgment, giving 350 the number of the case, the full names of the parties, plaintiff 351 and defendant, and the volume and page of the journal or record 352 in which it is entered, or a certified copy of such judgment, 353 stating such facts, is filed and noted in the office of the 354 county recorder of the county in which the land is situated, and 355 a memorial of the same is entered upon the register of the last 356 court, upon the order of any person in whose favor such judgment 360 was rendered or upon the order of any person claiming under ~~him~~ 361 each judgment all of the matters set forth in such certificate 370 as required by this section. The fee for such filing, docketing, 371 and indexing shall be taxed as increased costs of such judgment 372 upon such judgment docket and shall be included in the lien of 373

the judgment. 374

(D) When the clerk of any court, other than that rendering 375
the judgment, in whose office any such certificate is filed, has 376 in which the judgment was rendered, who shall note upon the 381 original docket the fact of the filing of said certificate, 382 showing the county in which the same was filed and the date of 383 such filing. When such certificate is filed, docketed, and 384 indexed in the office of the clerk of the court which rendered 385 the judgment, such clerk shall likewise indorse the certificate 386 and make like notation upon the original docket. 387

Each such judgment shall be deemed to have been rendered 388 in the county in which is kept the journal of the court 389 rendering the same, in which journal such judgment is entered. 390

(E) Certificates or certified copies of judgments or 391 decrees of any courts of general jurisdiction, including 392 district courts of the United States, within this state, may be 393 filed, registered, noted, and memorials thereof entered, in the 394 office of the recorder of any county in which is situated land 395 registered under sections 5309.02 to 5309.98, ~~inclusive,~~ and 396 5310.01 to 5310.21, ~~inclusive,~~ of the Revised Code, for the 397 purpose of making such judgments liens upon such registered 398 land. 399

(F) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Revised 400

Code, any judgment issued in a court of record may be 401 transferred to any other court of record. Any proceedings for 402 collection may be had on such judgment the same as if it had 403 been issued by the transferee court. 404

(G) When a clerk files a judgment of foreclosure in a 405 residential mortgage loan foreclosure action, the clerk shall 406 provide notice of that filing to the judgment debtor, the 407 judgment creditor, and any lienholder who has appeared in the 408

Sec. 2329.20. ~~No~~ Except as otherwise provided in this 410 value returned in the inquest required by section 2329.17 of the 413 Revised Code, ~~except that in~~. In all cases where in which a 414 junior mortgage or other junior lien is sought to be enforced 415 against real estate by an order, judgment, or decree of court, 416 claims or obligations secured thereby, are unaffected by such 418 order, judgment, or decree, the court making such order, 419 judgment, or decree, may determine the minimum amount for which 420 such real estate may be sold, such minimum amount to be not less 421 than two-thirds of the difference between the value of the real 422 estate appraised as provided in such section, and the amount 423 remaining unpaid on the claims or obligations secured by such 424 prior lien. The price at which a foreclosed residential property 425 sells at a sheriff's auction shall not be used as a basis for 426 establishing the market value of any other property. 427

Sec. 2329.21. If the sum bid by the purchaser for the real 428 estate sold under section 2329.20 of the Revised Code relating 429 to the enforcement of junior liens is insufficient to pay the 430 costs and allowance which the court has determined prior to such 431 sale should be paid out of the proceeds thereof, pursuant to the 432 terms of the mortgage or lien sought to be enforced, then the 433 purchaser, in addition to the amount of ~~his~~ the purchaser's bid, 434 must pay a sum which with the amount so bid will be sufficient 435 to pay the costs and allowances. The court may fix the amount 436 remaining unpaid on such claims or obligations for the purpose 437 of the sale, and to that end require the parties to the suit to 438 furnish to it satisfactory evidence of such unpaid amount. The 439 advertisement for the sale of real estate sold under section 440 2329.20 of the Revised Code shall state that the purchaser shall 441 be responsible for those costs and allowances that the proceeds 442 of the sale are insufficient to cover. 443

Sec. 2329.211. A successful purchaser at a sale of lands 444 and tenements taken in execution shall make a deposit in the 445 amount of five per cent of the appraised value of the property, 446 but not less than five thousand dollars or more than ten 447 thousand dollars, to the officer conducting the sale. The 448 deposit is due at the time of sale, unless the purchaser is the 449 plaintiff in the action or the judgment creditor. In that case, 450 the deposit shall be tendered to the officer by the close of 451 business the day of the sale. Failure of the purchaser to timely 452 make its deposit shall invalidate the sale. 453

Sec. 2329.23. All notices and advertisements for the sale 454 of lands and tenements located in a municipal corporation, made 455 by virtue of the proceedings in a court of record, in addition 456 to a description of the lands and tenements, shall contain the 457 street number of the buildings erected on the lands, or the 458 street number of the lots offered for sale. If no such number 459 exists, then the notice or advertisement shall contain the name 460 of the street or road upon which the lands and tenements are 461 located together with the names of the streets or roads 462 immediately north and south or east and west of the lands and 463 tenements that cross or intersect the street or road upon which 464 they are located. The notice or advertisement shall, if 465 applicable, include the web site address of the officer who 466 makes the sale that allows a person to obtain a complete legal 467 description of the lands and tenements. 468

All notices and advertisements for the sale of residential 469 property located in a municipal corporation, made by virtue of 470 the proceeding in a court of record pursuant to a mortgage loan 471 foreclosure action, shall include the provisional date for a 472 second sale of the property, should the property not sell for 473 the minimum bid established pursuant to section 2329.20 of the 474 Revised Code. 475

Sec. 2329.26. (A) Lands and tenements taken in execution 476 shall not be sold until all of the following occur: 477

(1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in division (A) (1) (b) 478 of this section, the judgment creditor who seeks the sale of the 479 lands and tenements or the judgment creditor's attorney does 480 both of the following: 481

(i) Causes a written notice of the date, time, and place 482 of the sale, and of the provisional second sale described in 483 division (B) of section 2329.52 of the Revised Code, if 484 applicable, to be served in accordance with divisions (A) and 485
(B) of Civil Rule 5 upon the judgment debtor and upon each other 486 party to the action in which the judgment giving rise to the 487 execution was rendered; 488

(ii) At least seven calendar days prior to the date of the 489 sale, files with the clerk of the court that rendered the 490 judgment giving rise to the execution a copy of the written 491 notice described in division (A) (1) (a) (i) of this section with 492 proof of service endorsed on the copy in the form described in 493 division (D) of Civil Rule 5. 494

(b) Service of the written notice described in division 495
(A) (1) (a) (i) of this section is not required to be made upon any 496 party who is in default for failure to appear in the action in 497 which the judgment giving rise to the execution was rendered. 498

(2) The officer taking the lands and tenements gives 499 public notice of the date, time, and place of the sale, and of 500 the provisional second sale described in division (B) of section 501 2329.52 of the Revised Code, if applicable, once a week for at 502 least three consecutive weeks before the day of sale by 503 advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the 504 county. The newspaper shall meet the requirements of section 505 7.12 of the Revised Code. The court ordering the sale may 506 designate in the order of sale the newspaper in which this 507 public notice shall be published. 508

(3) The officer taking the lands and tenements shall 509 collect the purchaser's information required by section 2329.271 510
of the Revised Code. 511

(B) A sale of lands and tenements taken in execution may 512 be set aside in accordance with division (A) or (B) of section 513
2329.27 of the Revised Code. 514

Sec. 2329.30. The court from which an execution or order 515 of sale issues, upon notice and motion of the officer who makes 516 the sale or of an interested party, may punish any purchaser of 517 lands and tenements who fails to pay within thirty days of the 518 confirmation of the sale the balance due on the purchase price 519 of the lands and tenements by forfeiting the sale of the lands 520 and tenements and returning any deposit paid in connection with 521 the sale of the lands and tenements, by forfeiting any deposit 522 paid in connection with the sale of the lands and tenements, as 523 for contempt, or in any other manner the court considers 524 appropriate. Upon motion, the court shall order the return of 525 any remaining portion of the deposit of the purchaser, less the 526 costs of a subsequent sale and any other remedy the court 527 considers appropriate. The effect of an order for contempt for 528 failure of the purchaser to pay shall be considered an order to 529 void the confirmation of sale and transfer. 530

Sec. 2329.31. (A) Upon the return of any writ of execution 531 for the satisfaction of which lands and tenements have been 532 sold, on careful examination of the proceedings of the officer 533 making the sale, if the court of common pleas finds that the 534 sale was made, in all respects, in conformity with sections 535 2329.01 to 2329.61 of the Revised Code, it shall, within thirty 536 days of the return of the writ, direct the clerk of the court of 537 common pleas to make an entry on the journal that the court is 538 satisfied of the legality of such sale ~~and that the attorney who~~ 539 ~~filed the writ of execution make to the purchaser a deed for the~~ 540 ~~lands and tenements.~~ Nothing in this section prevents the court 541 of common pleas from staying the confirmation of the sale to 542 permit a property owner time to redeem the property or for any 543 other reason that it determines is appropriate. In those 544 instances, the sale shall be confirmed within thirty days after 545 the termination of any stay of confirmation. 546

(B) The officer making the sale shall require the 547 purchaser, including a lienholder, to pay within thirty days of 548 the confirmation of the sale the balance due on the purchase 549 price of the lands and tenements. 550

(C) (1) The officer making the sale shall record the 551 prepared deed required by section 2329.36 of the Revised Code 552 within fourteen days after the confirmation of sale and payment 553 of the balance due. 554

(2) (a) If the deed is not prepared and recorded within the 555 fourteen-day period, the purchaser may file a motion with the 556 court to proceed with the recording of the confirmation of sale. 557

If the court finds that payment was made of the balance 558 due, it shall enter an order ordering the plaintiff to present a 559 certified copy of the order of confirmation of sale to the 560 county recorder for recording, and ordering the county recorder 561 to record the order of confirmation of sale in the record of 562 deeds. The order of confirmation of sale, when filed with the 563 county recorder, shall have the same effect as a deed prepared 564 pursuant to section 2329.36 of the Revised Code. 565

(b) Upon the issuance of the court order described in 566 division (C) (2) (a) of this section, the plaintiff, or the 567 plaintiff's attorney, shall present a certified copy of the 568 order of confirmation of sale to be recorded in the office of 569 the county recorder. The county recorder shall record the order 570 in the record of deeds. 571

(c) The clerk shall issue a copy of the court order 572 described in division (C) (2) (a) of this section to the county 573 auditor to transfer record ownership of the lands and tenements 574 for the purpose of real estate taxes. Real estate taxes coming 575 due after the date of the sale shall not prohibit the auditor 576 from transferring ownership of the lands and tenements on its 577 records or cause the recorder to deny recording. The real estate 578 taxes shall become the responsibility of the new title holder of 579 the lands and tenements beginning on the date of the 580 confirmation of sale. The sheriff shall not require the 581 confirmation of sale to be amended for taxes not due and payable 582 as of the date of the sale. 583

Sec. 2329.311. In sales of residential properties taken in 584 execution or order of sale that are sold at an auction with no 585 set minimum bid pursuant to division (B) of section 2329.52 of 586 the Revised Code, the judgment creditor and the first lienholder 587 each have the right to redeem the property within fourteen days 588 after the sale by paying the purchase price. The redeeming party 589 shall pay the purchase price to the clerk of the court in which 590 the judgment was rendered or the order of sale was made. Upon 591 timely payment, the court shall proceed as described in section 592 2329.31 of the Revised Code, with the redeeming party considered 593 the successful purchaser at sale. 594

Sec. 2329.33. In ~~Except as provided in division (C) of~~ 595 section 2308.03 or any other section of the Revised Code, in 596 sales of real estate on execution or order of sale, at any time 597 before the confirmation thereof, the debtor may redeem it from 598 sale by depositing in the hands of the clerk of the court of 599 common pleas to which such execution or order is returnable, the 600 amount of the judgment or decree upon which such lands were 601 sold, with all costs, including poundage, and interest at the 602 rate of eight per cent per annum on the purchase money from the 603 day of sale to the time of such deposit, except where the 604 judgment creditor is the purchaser, the interest at such rate on 605 the excess above ~~his~~ the judgment creditor's claim. The 606 Redemption of the debtor is a satisfaction of the judgment 607 against the debtor only and shall not serve to discharge the 608 judgment debtor of the judgment creditor's advancements for real 609 estate taxes, insurance premium, and property protection if such 610 a requirement was included in the judgment. Upon successful 611 redemption, the judgment debtor may petition the court to 612 require the judgment creditor to provide an itemization of those 613 advances within a reasonable amount of time for payment by the 614 judgment debtor. Should the judgment debtor pay all sums 615 required by this section, the court of common pleas thereupon 616 shall make an order setting aside such sale, and apply the 617 deposit to the payment of such judgment or decree and costs, and 618 award such interest to the purchaser, who shall receive from the 619 officer making the sale the purchase money paid by ~~him~~ the 620 purchaser, and the interest from the clerk. This section does 621 not take away the power of the court to set aside such sale for 622 any reason for which it might have been set aside prior to April 623 16, 1888. 624

Sec. 2329.52. ~~When~~ (A) Except as otherwise provided in 625 division (B) of this section, when premises are ordered to be 626 sold, if said premises, or a part thereof, remain unsold for 627 want of bidders after having been once appraised, advertised, 628 and offered for sale, the court from which the order of sale 629 issued may, on motion of the plaintiff or defendant and from 630 time to time until said premises are disposed of, order a new 631 appraisement and sale or direct the amount for which said 632 premises, or a part thereof, may be sold. 633

The court may order that the premises be sold as follows: 634
One third cash in hand, one third in nine months from the day of 635 sale, and the remaining one third in eighteen months from the 636 day of sale, the deferred payments to draw interest at six per 637 cent and be secured by a mortgage on the premises. 638

(B) When a residential property is ordered to be sold 639 pursuant to a residential mortgage loan foreclosure action, if 640 the property remains unsold after the first auction with a 641 minimum bid of two-thirds of the appraised value as established 642 pursuant to section 2329.17 of the Revised Code, a second 643 auction shall be held with no set minimum bid, and the 644 residential property shall be sold to the highest bidder. This 645 second auction shall be held not earlier than seven days and not 646 later than thirty days after the first auction. As a condition 647 of the second auction, the purchaser shall pay, in addition to 648 the amount bid, a deposit to the sheriff to be used to pay the 649 costs and allowances of the sale. This deposit shall be not less 650 than five thousand dollars and not more than ten thousand 651 dollars, as determined by the sheriff. The sheriff shall return 652 the deposit, less the amount used for costs and allowances, to 653 the purchaser within fourteen days after the transfer of sale. A 654 residential property that remains unsold after two auctions may 655 be subsequently offered for sale from time to time with no set 656 minimum bid or disposed of in any other manner pursuant to this 657 chapter or any other provision of the Revised Code. 658
