Honoring The Ohio State University College of Dentistry on its One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

WHEREAS, The members of the Senate of the 131st General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to congratulate The Ohio State University College of Dentistry on its One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, Recognition of this prestigious milestone is a fitting tribute to The Ohio State University College of Dentistry, for since it was chartered in 1890 as the Ohio Medical University Dental Department, the institution has played a vital role in preparing students to meet the challenges of the future. Its more than 11,000 graduates have made countless contributions to the advancement of dental materials, tools, and techniques, authored articles in prestigious journals, and held leadership posts with professional organizations and teaching positions at dental schools worldwide, and its faculty members have conducted research that has led to technological advancements in dental care and a better understanding of the causes, prevention, and treatment of oral diseases. In addition, the college's clinics provide oral health care to more than 129,000 patients annually, including outreach to underserved populations, and these accomplishments have gained the appreciation and esteem of many; and

WHEREAS, Colleges and universities provide people of all ages with much more than the basic educational skills, and we are certain that the instructors and administrators of The Ohio State University College of Dentistry will continue their dedication to helping students become capable and well-rounded individuals. As they take part in the school's One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary celebration, the students, staff, and alumni can be justly proud of this fine endeavor; and

WHEREAS, Education is vital to our nation's continued economic and social well-being, and as the need for global learning and understanding increases, so do the demands placed upon our system of education. The Ohio State University College of Dentistry has consistently and effectively met these demands, and all those associated with the school are deserving of high praise; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 131st General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, commend The Ohio State University College of Dentistry on the occasion of its One Hundred Twenty-fifth Anniversary and salute it as one of Ohio's finest educational institutions; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit a duly authenticated copy of this Resolution to The Ohio State University College of Dentistry.
