Hundredth Anniversary.

WHEREAS, Recognition of this prestigious milestone is a fitting tribute to the Hardin County Courthouse, for it has attained a remarkable record of service to the area. Completed in 1915 and added to the National Register of Historical Places in 1979, the courthouse currently stands in the center of Kenton and is the third building to be erected as the Hardin County Courthouse. This magnificent edifice is an example of Neoclassical Revival architecture, and the centennial of the structure is justifiable source of pride and an outstanding reflection on the community and its residents; and

WHEREAS, Over the years, the Hardin County Courthouse has enhanced the quality of life within the surrounding area and has earned a prominent place in local history. This building has come to represent law and justice in the county, and we are certain that in the years to come, it will continue to be a symbol of the tenets of Ohio's judicial system; and

WHEREAS, In this modern era, it is not only enlightening but also satisfying to discover that some representations of the past still stand for future generations as a record of, and a monument to, previous achievements. Indeed, the Hardin County Courthouse will continue to make positive contributions to the surrounding area while standing as an example of the rich heritage of bygone day; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Senate of the 131st General Assembly of Ohio, in adopting this Resolution, congratulate the Hardin County Courthouse on its One Hundredth Anniversary; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the Senate transmit a duly authenticated copy of this Resolution to the Hardin County Courthouse.
