

As a law abiding citizen who happens to be a Life Member of the NRA and a concealed carry license holder and a believer in the US Constitution as it is written, this important bill needs to move forward unhindered to strengthen the law to punish those who break it, not those that abide by it.

Tom Hutson