Special Requests: Overall, the REBA program does not help a new teacher, it creates more work. Most of the data collected, is already collected so therefore more work is being created. The RESA itself is just busy work. It creates more stress to new teachers who are having a hard enough time trying to stay a head.

Having a mentor is a good idea but having to meet as much as we do, takes away from time prepping and planning. Overall, I think the program is awful and needs to be removed. The $5 million could be used for funding schools and children in need!
