section such that the public office or the person responsible 366 for the requested public record cannot reasonably identify what 367 public records are being requested, the public office or the 368 request but shall provide the requester with an opportunity to 370

(4) Unless specifically required or authorized by state or 385 no public office or person responsible for public records may 387 limit or condition the availability of public records by 388 requiring disclosure of the requester's identity or the intended 389 use of the requested public record. Any requirement that the 390 requester disclose the requester's identity or the intended use 391 of the requested public record constitutes a denial of the 392 request. 393

(5) A public office or person responsible for public 394 records may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may 395 ask for the requester's identity, and may inquire about the 396 intended use of the information requested, but may do so only 397 after disclosing to the requester that a written request is not 398 mandatory and that the requester may decline to reveal the 399 requester's identity or the intended use and when a written 400 request or disclosure of the identity or intended use would 401 benefit the requester by enhancing the ability of the public 402 office or person responsible for public records to identify, 403 locate, or deliver the public records sought by the requester. 404

(6) If any person chooses to obtain a copy of a public 405 record in accordance with division (B) of this section, the 406 choice made by the person seeking the copy under this division. 410

The public office or the person responsible for the public 411 record shall permit that person to choose to have the public 412 record duplicated upon paper, upon the same medium upon which 413 the public office or person responsible for the public record 414 keeps it, or upon any other medium upon which the public office 415 or person responsible for the public record determines that it 416 reasonably can be duplicated as an integral part of the normal 417 operations of the public office or person responsible for the 418 public record. When the person seeking the copy makes a choice 419 under this division, the public office or person responsible for 420 the public record shall provide a copy of it in accordance with 421 the choice made by the person seeking the copy. Nothing in this 422 section requires a public office or person responsible for the 423 public record to allow the person seeking a copy of the public 424 record to make the copies of the public record. 425

(7) (a) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) 426 of this section and subject to division (B) (6) of this section, 427 a public office or person responsible for public records shall 428 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United 429 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 430 within a reasonable period of time after receiving the request 431 for the copy. The public office or person responsible for the 432 public record may require the person making the request to pay 433 in advance the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by 434 United States mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is 435 transmitted other than by United States mail, and to pay in 436 advance the costs incurred for other supplies used in the 437 mailing, delivery, or transmission. 438 that it will follow in transmitting, within a reasonable period 440 of time after receiving a request, copies of public records by 441 United States mail or by any other means of delivery or 442

(i) A public office may limit the number of records 449 requested by a person that the office will physically deliver by 450 the requested records are not provided on the web site and 464 unless the person certifies to the office in writing that the 465 person does not intend to use or forward the requested records, 466 or the information contained in them, for commercial purposes. 467

(iii) For purposes of division (B)(7) of this section, 468
"commercial" shall be narrowly construed and does not include 469 reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering information 470 to assist citizen oversight or understanding of the operation or 471 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 472 criminal investigation or prosecution or concerning what would 477 be a criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 478 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request 479 to inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose 480 of acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 481 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 482 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 483 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought 484 in the public record is necessary to support what appears to be 485 a justiciable claim of the person. 486

(9) (a) Upon written request made and signed by a 487 include the journalist's name and title and the name and address 518 of the journalist's employer and shall state that disclosure of 519 the information sought would be in the public interest. 520

(b) Division (B)(9)(a) of this section also applies to 521 journalist requests for customer information maintained by a 522 municipally owned or operated public utility, other than social 523 security numbers and any private financial information such as 524 credit reports, payment methods, credit card numbers, and bank 525 account information. 526

(c) As used in division (B)(9) of this section, 527
"journalist" means a person engaged in, connected with, or 528 employed by any news medium, including a newspaper, magazine, 529 press association, news agency, or wire service, a radio or 530 television station, or a similar medium, for the purpose of 531 gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, editing, or 532 disseminating information for the general public. 533

(C)(1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure 534 of a public office or the person responsible for public records 535 to promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to 536 the person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of 537 this section or by any other failure of a public office or the 538 person responsible for public records to comply with an 539 obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section, the 540 person allegedly aggrieved may do only one of the following, and 541 not both: 542

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims 543 or the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 544

of the Revised Code; 545

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 546 orders the public office or the person responsible for the 547 public record to comply with division (B) of this section, that 548 awards court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person 549 that instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that 550 includes an order fixing statutory damages under division (C) (2) 551 of this section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the 552 court of common pleas of the county in which division (B) of 553 this section allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme 554 court pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of 555 Article IV, Ohio Constitution, or in the court of appeals for 556 the appellate district in which division (B) of this section 557 allegedly was not complied with pursuant to its original 558 jurisdiction under Section 3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 559

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand 560 delivery or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any 561 public record in a manner that fairly describes the public 562 record or class of public records to the public office or person 563 responsible for the requested public records, except as 564 otherwise provided in this section, the requester shall be 565 entitled to recover the amount of statutory damages set forth in 566 this division if a court determines that the public office or 567 the person responsible for public records failed to comply with 568 an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section. 569

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one 570 hundred dollars for each business day during which the public 571 office or person responsible for the requested public records 572 failed to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 573
(B) of this section, beginning with the day on which the 574 requester files a mandamus action to recover statutory damages, 575 up to a maximum of one thousand dollars. The award of statutory 576 damages shall not be construed as a penalty, but as compensation 577 for injury arising from lost use of the requested information. 578

The existence of this injury shall be conclusively presumed. The 579 award of statutory damages shall be in addition to all other 580 remedies authorized by this section. 581

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 582 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 583 following: 584

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 585 law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 586 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 587
for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 588
failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 589
(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 590 action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 591
the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 592 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 593 responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 594
a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 595
division (B) of this section; 596

(b) That a well-informed public office or person 597 responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 598 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public 599
office or person responsible for the requested public records 600
would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that 601
is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 602

(3) In a mandamus action filed under division (C) (1) of 603
this section, the following apply: 604

(a) (i) If the court orders the public office or the person responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not punitive.

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in division (C) (3) (b) (iii) of this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not punitive.

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public office or the person responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the relator, subject to the provisions of division (C) (4) of this section:

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to the public records request in accordance with the time allowed under division (B) of this section.

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or receive copies of the public records requested within a specified period of time but failed to fulfill that promise within that specified period of time.

(iii) The public office or the person responsible for the public records acted in bad faith when the office or person voluntarily made the public records available to the relator for the first time after the relator commenced the mandamus action, but before the court issued any order concluding whether or not the public office or person was required to comply with division 634

(B) of this section. No discovery may be conducted on the issue 635 of the alleged bad faith of the public office or person 636 responsible for the public records. This division shall not be 637 construed as creating a presumption that the public office or 638 the person responsible for the public records acted in bad faith 639 when the office or person voluntarily made the public records 640 available to the relator for the first time after the relator 641 commenced the mandamus action, but before the court issued any 642 order described in this division. 643

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the 644 relator if the court determines both of the following: 645

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 646
law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 647
threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 648
for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 649
failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 650
(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 651
action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 652
the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 653
conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 654
responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 655
a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 656
division (B) of this section; 657

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person 658
responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 659
believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public 660
office or person responsible for the requested public records 661
would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that 662
is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 663

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable attorney's fees awarded under division (C) (3) (b) of this section: 664
666

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not punitive. 667
668

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was made available to the relator and the fees described in division (C) (4) (c) of this section. 669
670
672

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable fees incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount of the fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 673
674
675

(d) The court may reduce the amount of fees awarded if the court determines that, given the factual circumstances involved with the specific public records request, an alternative means should have been pursued to more effectively and efficiently resolve the dispute that was subject to the mandamus action filed under division (C) (1) of this section. 676
677
679
681

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under division (C) of this section and the court determines at that time that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the Revised Code, the court may award to the public office all court costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined by the court. 682
683
685
686
687
688

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the provisions of this section. 689
690

(E) (1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 691
692

division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 693 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 694 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 695 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public 696 records policy in compliance with this section for responding to 697 public records requests. In adopting a public records policy 698 under this division, a public office may obtain guidance from 699
the model public records policy developed and provided to the 700 public office by the attorney general under section 109.43 of 701 the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided in this section, 702 the policy may not limit the number of public records that the 703 public office will make available to a single person, may not 704 limit the number of public records that it will make available 705 during a fixed period of time, and may not establish a fixed 706 period of time before it will respond to a request for 707 inspection or copying of public records, unless that period is 708 less than eight hours. 709

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 710 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of 711 this section to the employee of the public office who is the 712 records custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of 713 the records of that office. The public office shall require that 714 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public 715 records policy. The public office shall create a poster that 716 describes its public records policy and shall post the poster in 717 a conspicuous place in the public office and in all locations 718 where the public office has branch offices. The public office 719 may post its public records policy on the internet web site of 720 the public office if the public office maintains an internet web 721 site. A public office that has established a manual or handbook 722 of its general policies and procedures for all employees of the 723 public office shall include the public records policy of the 724 public office in the manual or handbook. 725

(F) (1) The bureau of motor vehicles may adopt rules 726 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit 727 the number of bulk commercial special extraction requests made 728 by a person for the same records or for updated records during a 729 calendar year. The rules may include provisions for charges to 730 be made for bulk commercial special extraction requests for the 731 actual cost of the bureau, plus special extraction costs, plus 732 ten per cent. The bureau may charge for expenses for redacting 733 information, the release of which is prohibited by law. 734

(2) As used in division (F) (1) of this section: 735

(a) "Actual cost" means the cost of depleted supplies, 736 records storage media costs, actual mailing and alternative 737 delivery costs, or other transmitting costs, and any direct 738 equipment operating and maintenance costs, including actual 739 costs paid to private contractors for copying services. 740

(b) "Bulk commercial special extraction request" means a 741 request for copies of a record for information in a format other 742 than the format already available, or information that cannot be 743 extracted without examination of all items in a records series, 744 class of records, or database by a person who intends to use or 745 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or 746 resale for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special 747 extraction request" does not include a request by a person who 748 gives assurance to the bureau that the person making the request 749 does not intend to use or forward the requested copies for 750 surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 751 purposes. 752

(c) "Commercial" means profit-seeking production, buying, 753 or selling of any good, service, or other product. 754

(d) "Special extraction costs" means the cost of the time 755 spent by the lowest paid employee competent to perform the task, 756 the actual amount paid to outside private contractors employed 757 by the bureau, or the actual cost incurred to create computer 758 programs to make the special extraction. "Special extraction 759 costs" include any charges paid to a public agency for computer 760 or records services. 761

(3) For purposes of divisions (F)(1) and (2) of this 762 section, "surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for 763 commercial purposes" shall be narrowly construed and does not 764 include reporting or gathering news, reporting or gathering 765 information to assist citizen oversight or understanding of the 766 operation or activities of government, or nonprofit educational 767 research. 768

(G) A request by a defendant, counsel of a defendant, or 769 any agent of a defendant in a criminal action that public 770 records related to that action be made available under this 771 section shall be considered a demand for discovery pursuant to 772 the Criminal Rules, except to the extent that the Criminal Rules 773 plainly indicate a contrary intent. The defendant, counsel of 774 the defendant, or agent of the defendant making a request under 775 this division shall serve a copy of the request on the 776 prosecuting attorney, director of law, or other chief legal 777 officer responsible for prosecuting the action. 778

Section 2. That existing section 149.43 of the Revised 779
Code is hereby repealed. 780
