child support order for the current support of the child, the 31402 court or agency shall calculate that amount using the basic child 31403 support schedule, worksheets, and child support laws in effect, 31404 and the incomes of the parents as they existed, for that prior 31405 period of time. 31406

(K) A court or agency may disregard a parent's additional 31407 income from overtime or additional employment when the court or 31408 agency finds that the additional income was generated primarily to 31409 support a new or additional family member or members, or under 31410 other appropriate circumstances. 31411

(L) If both parents involved in the immediate child support 31412 determination have a prior order for support relative to a minor 31413 child or children born to both parents, the court or agency shall 31414 collect information about the existing order or orders and 31415 consider those together with the current calculation for support 31416 to ensure that the total of all orders for all children of the 31417 parties does not exceed the amount that would have been ordered if 31418 all children were addressed in a single judicial or administrative 31419 proceeding. 31420

Sec. 3121.03. If a court or child support enforcement agency 31421 that issued or modified a support order, or the agency 31422 administering the support order, is required by the Revised Code 31423 to issue one or more withholding or deduction notices described in 31424 this section or other orders described in this section, the court 31425 or agency shall issue one or more of the following types of 31426 notices or orders, as appropriate, for payment of the support and 31427 also, if required by the Revised Code or the court, to pay any 31428 arrearages: 31429

(A)(1) If the court or the child support enforcement agency 31430 determines that the obligor is receiving income from a payor, the 31431 court or agency shall require the payor to do all of the 31432
following: 31433

(a) Withhold from the obligor's income a specified amount for 31434 support in satisfaction of the support order and begin the 31435 withholding no later than fourteen business days following the 31436 date the notice is mailed or transmitted to the payor under 31437 section 3121.035, 3123.021, or 3123.06 of the Revised Code and 31438 division (A)(2) of this section or, if the payor is an employer, 31439 no later than the first pay period that occurs after fourteen 31440 business days following the date the notice is mailed or 31441 transmitted; 31442

(b) Send the amount withheld to the office of child support 31443
in the department of job and family services pursuant to section 31444
business days after the date the obligor is paid; 31446

(c) Continue the withholding at intervals specified in the 31447 notice until further notice from the court or child support 31448
enforcement agency. 31449

To the extent possible, the amount specified to be withheld 31450 shall satisfy the amount ordered for support in the support order 31451 plus any arrearages owed by the obligor under any prior support 31452 order that pertained to the same child or spouse, notwithstanding 31453 any applicable limitations of sections 2329.66, 2329.70, 2716.02, 31454 2716.041, and 2716.05 of the Revised Code. However, in no case 31455 shall the sum of the amount to be withheld and any fee withheld by 31456 the payor as a charge for its services exceed the maximum amount 31457 permitted under section 303(b) of the "Consumer Credit Protection 31458 Act," 15 U.S.C. 1673(b). 31459

(2) A court or agency that imposes an income withholding 31460 requirement shall, within the applicable time specified in section 31461 3119.80, 3119.81, 3121.035, 3123.021, or 3123.06 of the Revised 31462 Code, send to the obligor's payor by regular mail or via secure 31463 federally managed data transmission interface a notice that 31464 contains all of the information applicable to withholding notices 31465 set forth in section 3121.037 of the Revised Code. The notice is 31466 final and is enforceable by the court. 31467

(B)(1) If the court or child support enforcement agency 31468 determines that the obligor has funds that are not exempt under 31469 the laws of this state or the United States from execution, 31470 attachment, or other legal process and are on deposit in an 31471 account in a financial institution under the jurisdiction of the 31472 court that issued the court support order, or in the case of an 31473 administrative child support order, under the jurisdiction of the 31474 common pleas court of the county in which the agency that issued 31475 or is administering the order is located, the court or agency may 31476 require any financial institution in which the obligor's funds are 31477 on deposit to do all of the following: 31478

(a) Deduct from the obligor's account a specified amount for 31479
support in satisfaction of the support order and begin the 31480 deduction no later than fourteen business days following the date 31481 the notice was mailed or transmitted to the financial institution 31482 under section 3121.035 or 3123.06 of the Revised Code and division 31483
(B)(2) of this section; 31484

(b) Send the amount deducted to the office of child support 31485
business days after the date the latest deduction was made; 31488

(c) Provide the date on which the amount was deducted; 31489

(d) Continue the deduction at intervals specified in the 31490
enforcement agency. 31492

To the extent possible, the amount to be deducted shall 31493 satisfy the amount ordered for support in the support order plus 31494 any arrearages that may be owed by the obligor under any prior 31495 support order that pertained to the same child or spouse, 31496 notwithstanding the limitations of sections 2329.66, 2329.70, and 31497

(2) A court or agency that imposes a deduction requirement shall, within the applicable period of time specified in section 3119.80, 3119.81, 3121.035, or 3123.06 of the Revised Code, send to the financial institution by regular mail or via secure federally managed data transmission interface a notice that contains all of the information applicable to deduction notices set forth in section 3121.037 of the Revised Code. The notice is final and is enforceable by the court.

The order, along with an additional order requiring the obligor to immediately notify the child support enforcement agency, in writing, if the obligor begins to receive income from a payor, shall be attached to and served on the obligor at the same time as service of the court support order or, if the court support order has previously been issued, as soon as possible after the issuance of the order under this section. The additional order requiring notice by the obligor shall state all of the following:

(1) That when the obligor begins to receive income from a payor the obligor may request that the court cancel its bond order and instead issue a notice requiring the withholding of an amount from income for support in accordance with this section;

(2) That when the obligor begins to receive income from a payor the court will proceed to collect on the bond if the court 31531 determines that payments due under the court support order have 31532 not been made and that the amount that has not been paid is at 31533 least equal to the support owed for one month under the court 31534 support order and will issue a notice requiring the withholding of 31535 an amount from income for support in accordance with this section. 31536

The notice required of the obligor shall include a description of 31537 the nature of any new employment, the name and business address of 31538 any new employer, and any other information reasonably required by 31539 the court. 31540

The court shall not order an obligor to post a cash bond 31541 under this section unless the court determines that the obligor 31542 has the ability to do so. 31543

A child support enforcement agency may not issue a cash bond 31544 order. If a child support enforcement agency is required to issue 31545 a withholding or deduction notice under this section with respect 31546 to a court support order but the agency determines that no 31547 withholding or deduction notice would be appropriate, the agency 31548 may request that the court issue a cash bond order under this 31549 section, and upon the request, the court may issue the order. 31550

(D)(1) If the obligor under a court support order is 31551 unemployed, has no income, and does not have an account at any 31552 financial institution, or on request of a child support 31553 enforcement agency under division (D)(1) or (2) of this section, 31554 the court shall issue an order requiring the obligor, if able to 31555 engage in employment, to seek employment or participate in a work 31556 activity to which a recipient of assistance under Title IV-A of 31557 the "Social Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, 31558 as amended, may be assigned as specified in section 407(d) of the 31559
"Social Security Act," 42 U.S.C.A. 607(d), as amended. The court 31560 shall include in the order requirements that the obligor register 31561 with the OhioMeansJobs web site and to notify the child support 31562 enforcement agency on obtaining employment, obtaining any income, 31563 or obtaining ownership of any asset with a value of five hundred 31564 dollars or more. The court may issue the order regardless of 31565 whether the obligee to whom the obligor owes support is a 31566 recipient of assistance under Title IV-A of the "Social Security 31567 Act." The court shall issue the order as part of a court support 31568 order or, if a court support order has previously been issued, as 31569 a separate order. If a child support enforcement agency is 31570 required to issue a withholding or deduction notice under this 31571 section with respect to a court support order but determines that 31572 no withholding or deduction notice would be appropriate, the 31573 agency may request that the court issue a court order under 31574 division (D)(1) of this section, and, on the request, the court 31575 may issue the order. 31576

(2) If the obligor under an administrative child support 31577 order is unemployed, has no income, and does not have an account 31578 at any financial institution, the agency shall issue an 31579 administrative order requiring the obligor, if able to engage in 31580 employment, to seek employment or participate in a work activity 31581 to which a recipient of assistance under Title IV-A of the "Social 31582 Security Act," 49 Stat. 620 (1935), 42 U.S.C.A. 301, as amended, 31583 may be assigned as specified in section 407(d) of the "Social 31584 Security Act," 42 U.S.C.A. 607(d), as amended. The agency shall 31585 include in the order requirements that the obligor register with 31586 the OhioMeansJobs web site and to notify the agency on obtaining 31587 employment or income, or ownership of any asset with a value of 31588 five hundred dollars or more. The agency may issue the order 31589 regardless of whether the obligee to whom the obligor owes support 31590 is a recipient of assistance under Title IV-A of the "Social 31591 Security Act." If an obligor fails to comply with an 31592 administrative order issued pursuant to division (D)(2) of this 31593 section, the agency shall submit a request to a court for the 31594 court to issue an order under division (D)(1) of this section. 31595

Sec. 3301.0711. (A) The department of education shall: 31596

(1) Annually furnish to, grade, and score all assessments 31597 required by divisions (A)(1) and (B)(1) of section 3301.0710 of 31598 the Revised Code to be administered by city, local, exempted 31599 village, and joint vocational school districts, except that each 31600 district shall score any assessment administered pursuant to 31601 division (B)(10) of this section. Each assessment so furnished 31602 shall include the data verification code of the student to whom 31603 the assessment will be administered, as assigned pursuant to 31604 division (D)(2) of section 3301.0714 of the Revised Code. In 31605 furnishing the practice versions of Ohio graduation tests 31606 prescribed by division (D) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised 31607 Code, the department shall make the tests available on its web 31608 site for reproduction by districts. In awarding contracts for 31609 grading assessments, the department shall give preference to 31610
Ohio-based entities employing Ohio residents. 31611

(2) Adopt rules for the ethical use of assessments and 31612 prescribing the manner in which the assessments prescribed by 31613 section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code shall be administered to 31614
students. 31615

(B) Except as provided in divisions (C) and (J) of this 31616 section, the board of education of each city, local, and exempted 31617 village school district shall, in accordance with rules adopted 31618
under division (A) of this section: 31619

(1) Administer the English language arts assessments 31620 prescribed under division (A)(1)(a) of section 3301.0710 of the 31621 Revised Code twice annually to all students in the third grade who 31622 have not attained the score designated for that assessment under 31623 division (A)(2)(c) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code. 31624

(2) Administer the mathematics assessment prescribed under 31625 division (A)(1)(a) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at 31626 least once annually to all students in the third grade.	31627

(3) Administer the assessments prescribed under division	31628
(A)(1)(b) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at least once	31629 annually to all students in the fourth grade.	31630
(4) Administer the assessments prescribed under division	31631
(A)(1)(c) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at least once	31632 annually to all students in the fifth grade.	31633
(5) Administer the assessments prescribed under division	31634
(A)(1)(d) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at least once	31635 annually to all students in the sixth grade.	31636
(6) Administer the assessments prescribed under division	31637
(A)(1)(e) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at least once	31638 annually to all students in the seventh grade.	31639
(7) Administer the assessments prescribed under division	31640
(A)(1)(f) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at least once	31641 annually to all students in the eighth grade.	31642
(8) Except as provided in division (B)(9) of this section,	31643
administer any assessment prescribed under division (B)(1) of	31644
section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code as follows:	31645
(a) At least once annually to all tenth grade students and at	31646 least twice annually to all students in eleventh or twelfth grade	31647 who have not yet attained the score on that assessment designated	31648
under that division;	31649
(b) To any person who has successfully completed the	31650 curriculum in any high school or the individualized education	31651 program developed for the person by any high school pursuant to	31652 section 3323.08 of the Revised Code but has not received a high	31653 school diploma and who requests to take such assessment, at any	31654 time such assessment is administered in the district.	31655
(9) In lieu of the board of education of any city, local, or	31656 exempted village school district in which the student is also 31657 enrolled, the board of a joint vocational school district shall 31658

section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code at least twice annually to 31660 any student enrolled in the joint vocational school district who 31661 has not yet attained the score on that assessment designated under 31662 that division. A board of a joint vocational school district may 31663 also administer such an assessment to any student described in 31664 division (B)(8)(b) of this section. 31665

(10) If the district has a three-year average graduation rate 31666 of not more than seventy-five per cent, administer each assessment 31667 prescribed by division (D) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised 31668
Code in September to all ninth grade students who entered ninth 31669 grade prior to July 1, 2014. 31670

Except as provided in section 3313.614 of the Revised Code 31671 for administration of an assessment to a person who has fulfilled 31672 the curriculum requirement for a high school diploma but has not 31673 passed one or more of the required assessments, the assessments 31674 prescribed under division (B)(1) of section 3301.0710 of the 31675 Revised Code shall not be administered after the date specified in 31676 the rules adopted by the state board of education under division 31677
(D)(1) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code. 31678

(11)(a) Except as provided in division (B)(11)(b) of this 31679 section, administer the assessments prescribed by division (B)(2) 31680 of section 3301.0710 and section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code in 31681 accordance with the timeline and plan for implementation of those 31682 assessments prescribed by rule of the state board adopted under 31683 division (D)(1) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code; 31684

(b) A student who has presented evidence to the district or 31685 school of having satisfied the condition prescribed by division 31686 (A)(1) of section 3313.618 of the Revised Code to qualify for a 31687 high school diploma prior to the date of the administration of the 31688 assessment prescribed under division (B)(1) of section 3301.0712 31689 of the Revised Code shall not be required to take that assessment. 31690 However, no board shall prohibit a student who is not required to 31691 take such assessment from taking the assessment. 31692

(C)(1)(a) In the case of a student receiving special 31693 education services under Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code, the 31694 individualized education program developed for the student under 31695 that chapter shall specify the manner in which the student will 31696 participate in the assessments administered under this section, 31697 except that a student with significant cognitive disabilities to 31698 whom an alternate assessment is administered in accordance with 31699 division (C)(1) of this section and a student determined to have a 31700 disability that includes an intellectual disability as outlined in 31701
guidance issued by the department shall not be required to take 31702
the assessment prescribed under division (B)(1) of section 31703 3301.0712 of the Revised Code. The individualized education 31704 program may excuse the student from taking any particular 31705 assessment required to be administered under this section if it 31706 instead specifies an alternate assessment method approved by the 31707 department of education as conforming to requirements of federal 31708 law for receipt of federal funds for disadvantaged pupils. To the 31709 extent possible, the individualized education program shall not 31710 excuse the student from taking an assessment unless no reasonable 31711 accommodation can be made to enable the student to take the 31712 assessment. No board shall prohibit a student who is not required 31713 to take an assessment under division (C)(1) of this section from 31714 taking the assessment. 31715

(b) Any alternate assessment approved by the department for a 31716 student under this division shall produce measurable results 31717 comparable to those produced by the assessment it replaces in 31718 order to allow for the student's results to be included in the 31719 data compiled for a school district or building under section 31720

(c)(i) Any student enrolled in a chartered nonpublic school 31722 who has been identified, based on an evaluation conducted in 31723 accordance with section 3323.03 of the Revised Code or section 504 31724 of the "Rehabilitation Act of 1973," 87 Stat. 355, 29 U.S.C.A. 31725 794, as amended, as a child with a disability shall be excused 31726 from taking any particular assessment required to be administered 31727 under this section if a plan developed for the student pursuant to 31728 rules adopted by the state board excuses the student from taking 31729 that assessment. 31730

(ii) A student with significant cognitive disabilities to 31731
the assessment prescribed under division (B)(1) of section 31736
3301.0712 of the Revised Code. 31737

(iii) In the case of any student so excused from taking an 31738 assessment under division (C)(1)(c) of this section, the chartered 31739 nonpublic school shall not prohibit the student from taking the 31740
assessment. 31741

(2) A district board may, for medical reasons or other good 31742 cause, excuse a student from taking an assessment administered 31743 under this section on the date scheduled, but that assessment 31744 shall be administered to the excused student not later than nine 31745 days following the scheduled date. The district board shall 31746 annually report the number of students who have not taken one or 31747 more of the assessments required by this section to the state 31748 board not later than the thirtieth day of June. 31749

(3) As used in this division, "limited English proficient 31750 student" has the same meaning as in 20 U.S.C. 7801. 31751

No school district board shall excuse any limited English proficient student from taking any particular assessment required to be administered under this section, except as follows:

(a) Any limited English proficient student who has been enrolled in United States schools for less than two years and for whom no appropriate accommodations are available based on guidance issued by the department shall not be required to take the assessment prescribed under division (B)(1) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code.

(b) Any limited English proficient student who has been enrolled in United States schools for less than one full school year shall not be required to take any reading, writing, or English language arts assessment.

However, no board shall prohibit a limited English proficient student who is not required to take an assessment under division (C)(3) of this section from taking the assessment. A board may permit any limited English proficient student to take an assessment required to be administered under this section with appropriate accommodations, as determined by the department. For each limited English proficient student, each school district shall annually assess that student's progress in learning English, in accordance with procedures approved by the department.

(4)(a) The governing authority of a chartered nonpublic school may excuse a limited English proficient student from taking any assessment administered under this section.

(b) No governing authority shall require a limited English proficient student who has been enrolled in United States schools for less than two years and for whom no appropriate accommodations are available based on guidance issued by the department to take the assessment prescribed under division (B)(1) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code.

(c) No governing authority shall prohibit a limited English proficient student from taking an assessment from which the student was excused under division (C)(4) of this section.

Each high school selected to provide intervention services under this division shall provide intervention services to any student whose results indicate that the student is failing to make 31815 satisfactory progress toward being able to attain scores at the 31816 proficient level on the Ohio graduation tests. Intervention 31817 services shall be provided in any skill in which a student 31818 demonstrates unsatisfactory progress and shall be commensurate 31819 with the student's performance. Schools shall provide the 31820 intervention services prior to the end of the school year, during 31821 the summer following the ninth grade, in the next succeeding 31822 school year, or at any combination of those times. 31823

(E) Except as provided in section 3313.608 of the Revised 31824
Code and division (N) of this section, no school district board of 31825 education shall utilize any student's failure to attain a 31826 specified score on an assessment administered under this section 31827 as a factor in any decision to deny the student promotion to a 31828 higher grade level. However, a district board may choose not to 31829 promote to the next grade level any student who does not take an 31830 assessment administered under this section or make up an 31831 assessment as provided by division (C)(2) of this section and who 31832 is not exempt from the requirement to take the assessment under 31833 division (C)(3) of this section. 31834

(F) No person shall be charged a fee for taking any 31835

(G)(1) Each school district board shall designate one 31837 location for the collection of assessments administered in the 31838 spring under division (B)(1) of this section and those 31839 district board shall submit the assessments to the entity with 31841 which the department contracts for the scoring of the assessments 31842

as follows: 31843

(a) If the district's total enrollment in grades kindergarten 31844 less than two thousand five hundred, not later than the Friday 31846 after all of the assessments have been administered; 31847

(b) If the district's total enrollment in grades kindergarten 31848 through twelve during the first full school week of October was 31849 two thousand five hundred or more, but less than seven thousand, 31850 not later than the Monday after all of the assessments have been 31851 administered; 31852

(c) If the district's total enrollment in grades kindergarten 31853 through twelve during the first full school week of October was 31854
seven thousand or more, not later than the Tuesday after all of 31855 the assessments have been administered. 31856

However, any assessment that a student takes during the 31857 make-up period described in division (C)(2) of this section shall 31858 be submitted not later than the Friday following the day the 31859 student takes the assessment. 31860

(2) The department or an entity with which the department 31861 contracts for the scoring of the assessment shall send to each 31862 school district board a list of the individual scores of all 31863 persons taking a state achievement assessment as follows: 31864 assessments prescribed by sections 3301.0710 and 3301.0712 of the 31867 Revised Code, but in no case shall the scores be returned later 31868 than the fifteenth day of June following the administration; 31873

(c) In the case of the writing component of an assessment or 31874 end-of-course examination in the area of English language arts, 31875 except for the third-grade English language arts assessment, the 31876 results may be sent after forty-five days of the administration of 31877 the writing component, but in no case shall the scores be returned 31878 later than the thirtieth day of June following the administration. 31879

(3) For assessments administered under this section by a 31880 joint vocational school district, the department or entity shall 31881 also send to each city, local, or exempted village school district 31882 a list of the individual scores of any students of such city, 31883 local, or exempted village school district who are attending 31884 school in the joint vocational school district. 31885

(4) A school district or other public or chartered nonpublic 31886 school may administer in a paper format any assessment 31887 administered under this section, and shall not be required to 31888 administer in an online format any such assessments. A district or 31889 school may administer such assessments in any combination of 31890 online and paper formats. 31891

The department of education shall furnish, free of charge, 31892 all such assessments regardless of the format selected by the 31893 district or school. 31894

(H) Individual scores on any assessments administered under 31895 this section shall be released by a district board only in 31896 accordance with section 3319.321 of the Revised Code and the rules 31897 adopted under division (A) of this section. No district board or 31898 its employees shall utilize individual or aggregate results in any 31899 manner that conflicts with rules for the ethical use of 31900 assessments adopted pursuant to division (A) of this section. 31901

(I) Except as provided in division (G) of this section, the 31902 department or an entity with which the department contracts for 31903 the scoring of the assessment shall not release any individual 31904 scores on any assessment administered under this section. The 31905 state board shall adopt rules to ensure the protection of student 31906 confidentiality at all times. The rules may require the use of the 31907 data verification codes assigned to students pursuant to division 31908

(D)(2) of section 3301.0714 of the Revised Code to protect the 31909 confidentiality of student scores. 31910

(J) Notwithstanding division (D) of section 3311.52 of the 31911 Revised Code, this section does not apply to the board of 31912 education of any cooperative education school district except as 31913 provided under rules adopted pursuant to this division. 31914

(1) In accordance with rules that the state board shall 31915
adopt, the board of education of any city, exempted village, or 31916
local school district with territory in a cooperative education 31917 school district established pursuant to divisions (A) to (C) of 31918 section 3311.52 of the Revised Code may enter into an agreement 31919 with the board of education of the cooperative education school 31920 district for administering any assessment prescribed under this 31921 section to students of the city, exempted village, or local school 31922 district who are attending school in the cooperative education 31923 school district. 31924

(2) In accordance with rules that the state board shall 31925
local school district with territory in a cooperative education 31927
school district established pursuant to section 3311.521 of the 31928 Revised Code shall enter into an agreement with the cooperative 31929 district that provides for the administration of any assessment 31930 prescribed under this section to both of the following: 31931

(a) Students who are attending school in the cooperative 31932 district and who, if the cooperative district were not 31933 established, would be entitled to attend school in the city, 31934 local, or exempted village school district pursuant to section 31935
3313.64 or 3313.65 of the Revised Code; 31936

(b) Persons described in division (B)(8)(b) of this section. 31937

Any assessment of students pursuant to such an agreement 31938 shall be in lieu of any assessment of such students or persons 31939 pursuant to this section. 31940

(K)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (K)(1) or (2) 31941 of this section, each chartered nonpublic school for which at 31942 least sixty-five per cent of its total enrollment is made up of 31943 students who are participating in state scholarship programs shall 31944 administer the elementary assessments prescribed by section 31945 3301.0710 of the Revised Code. In accordance with procedures and 31946 deadlines prescribed by the department, the parent or guardian of 31947 a student enrolled in the school who is not participating in a 31948 state scholarship program may submit notice to the chief 31949 administrative officer of the school that the parent or guardian 31950 does not wish to have the student take the elementary assessments 31951 prescribed for the student's grade level under division (A) of 31952 section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code. If a parent or guardian 31953 submits an opt-out notice, the school shall not administer the 31954 assessments to that student. This option does not apply to any 31955 assessment required for a high school diploma under section 31956
3313.612 of the Revised Code. 31957

(2) A chartered nonpublic school may submit to the 31958 superintendent of public instruction a request for a waiver from 31959 administering the elementary assessments prescribed by division 31960 (A) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code. The state 31961 superintendent shall approve or disapprove a request for a waiver 31962 submitted under division (K)(2) of this section. No waiver shall 31963 be approved for any school year prior to the 2015-2016 school 31964
year. 31965

To be eligible to submit a request for a waiver, a chartered 31966 nonpublic school shall meet the following conditions: 31967

(a) At least ninety-five per cent of the students enrolled in 31968 the school are children with disabilities, as defined under 31969 section 3323.01 of the Revised Code, or have received a diagnosis 31970 by a school district or from a physician, including a 31971 neuropsychiatrist or psychiatrist, or a psychologist who is 31972 authorized to practice in this or another state as having a 31973 condition that impairs academic performance, such as dyslexia, 31974 dyscalculia, attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, or 31975 Asperger's syndrome. 31976

(b) The school has solely served a student population 31977 described in division (K)(1)(a) of this section for at least ten 31978
years. 31979

(c) The school provides to the department at least five years 31980 of records of internal testing conducted by the school that 31981 affords the department data required for accountability purposes, 31982 including diagnostic assessments and nationally standardized 31983 norm-referenced achievement assessments that measure reading and 31984 math skills. 31985

(3) Any chartered nonpublic school that is not subject to 31986 division (K)(1) of this section may participate in the assessment 31987 program by administering any of the assessments prescribed by 31988 division (A) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code. The chief 31989 administrator of the school shall specify which assessments the 31990 school will administer. Such specification shall be made in 31991 writing to the superintendent of public instruction prior to the 31992 first day of August of any school year in which assessments are 31993 administered and shall include a pledge that the nonpublic school 31994 will administer the specified assessments in the same manner as 31995 public schools are required to do under this section and rules 31996 adopted by the department. 31997

(4) The department of education shall furnish the assessments 31998 prescribed by section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code to each 31999 chartered nonpublic school that is subject to division (K)(1) of 32000 this section or participates under division (K)(3) of this 32001
section. 32002

The published results of that assessment shall include the overall composite scores, mean scores, twenty-fifth percentile scores, and seventy-fifth percentile scores for each subject area of the assessment. 32037

(2) The department of education shall furnish the assessments described by sections 3301.0710 and 3301.0712 of the Revised Code 32064

(2) The department may field test proposed questions with 32080 samples of students to determine the validity, reliability, or 32081 appropriateness of questions for possible inclusion in a future 32082 assessments to ensure that different versions of the same 32084 assessment are of comparable difficulty. 32085

Field test questions and anchor questions shall not be 32086 considered in computing scores for individual students. Field test 32087 questions and anchor questions may be included as part of the 32088 redacted from any assessments which are released as a public 32095 record pursuant to division (O)(1) of this section. 32096

(4) This division applies to the assessments prescribed by 32097 to the 2011-2012 school year, not less than forty per cent of the 32103 questions on the assessment that are used to compute a student's 32104 score shall be a public record. The department shall determine 32105 which questions will be needed for reuse on a future assessment 32106

and those questions shall not be public records and shall be 32107
redacted from the assessment prior to its release as a public 32108 record. However, for each redacted question, the department shall 32109 inform each city, local, and exempted village school district of 32110 the statewide academic standard adopted by the state board under 32111 section 3301.079 of the Revised Code and the corresponding 32112 benchmark to which the question relates. The preceding sentence 32113 does not apply to field test questions that are redacted under 32114 division (O)(3) of this section. 32115

(c) The administrations of each assessment in the 2011-2012, 32116 2012-2013, and 2013-2014 school years shall not be a public 32117 of the Revised Code and the corresponding preferred answers that 32126 are used to compute a student's score shall become a public record 32127

~~(a)(i)~~ Forty per cent of the questions and preferred answers 32129 on the assessments on the thirty-first day of July following the 32130 administration of the assessment; 32131

~~(b)(ii)~~ Twenty per cent of the questions and preferred 32132 answers on the assessment on the thirty-first day of July one year 32133 after the administration of the assessment; 32134

~~(c)(iii)~~ The remaining forty per cent of the questions and 32135 preferred answers on the assessment on the thirty-first day of 32136 accordance with this division. 32144

(b) No questions and corresponding preferred answers shall 32145 become a public record under division (O)(6) of this section after 32146
July 31, 2017. 32147

(7) Division (O)(7) of this section applies to the 32148 assessments prescribed by division (A) of section 3301.0710 and 32149 division (B)(2) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code. 32150

Beginning with the assessments administered in the spring of 32151 the 2017-2018 school year, not less than forty per cent of the 32152 questions on each assessment that are used to compute a student's 32153 score shall be a public record. The department shall determine 32154 which questions will be needed for reuse on a future assessment 32155

the corresponding statewide academic standard adopted by the state 32160 board under section 3301.079 of the Revised Code and the 32161 corresponding benchmark to which the question relates. The 32162 department is not required to provide corresponding standards and 32163 benchmarks to field test questions that are redacted under 32164

(ii) of this section to assess mastery of American history and 32239 American government standards adopted under division (A)(1)(b) of 32240 section 3301.079 of the Revised Code and the topics required under 32241 division (M) of section 3313.603 of the Revised Code. Each high 32242 school of the district shall use the interim examinations until 32243 the state superintendent and chancellor select end-of-course 32244 examinations in American history and American government under 32245 division (B)(2) of this section. 32246

(b) Not later than July 1, 2014, the state superintendent and 32247 the chancellor shall select the end-of-course examinations in 32248 American history and American government. 32249

(i) The end-of-course examinations in American history and 32250
American government shall require demonstration of mastery of the 32251

American history and American government content for social 32252 studies standards adopted under division (A)(1)(b) of section 32253 3301.079 of the Revised Code and the topics required under 32254 division (M) of section 3313.603 of the Revised Code. 32255

(ii) At least twenty per cent of the end-of-course 32256 examination in American government shall address the topics on 32257 American history and American government described in division (M) 32258 of section 3313.603 of the Revised Code. 32259

(4)(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this 32260
section, beginning with the 2014-2015 school year, both of the 32261 following shall apply: 32262

(i) If a student is enrolled in an appropriate advanced 32263 placement or international baccalaureate course, that student 32264 shall take the advanced placement or international baccalaureate 32265 examination in lieu of the science, American history, or American 32266 government end-of-course examinations prescribed under division 32267 (B)(2) of this section. The state board shall specify the score 32268 levels for each advanced placement examination and international 32269 baccalaureate examination for purposes of calculating the minimum 32270 cumulative performance score that demonstrates the level of 32271 academic achievement necessary to earn a high school diploma. 32272

(ii) If a student is enrolled in an appropriate course under 32273
any other advanced standing program, as described in section 32274 3313.6013 of the Revised Code, that student shall not be required 32275 to take the science, American history, or American government 32276 end-of-course examination, whichever is applicable, prescribed 32277 under division (B)(2) of this section. Instead, that student's 32278 final course grade shall be used in lieu of the applicable 32279 end-of-course examination prescribed under that section. The state 32280 superintendent, in consultation with the chancellor, shall adopt 32281 guidelines for purposes of calculating the corresponding final 32282 course grades that demonstrate the level of academic achievement 32283 necessary to earn a high school diploma. 32284

Division (B)(4)(a)(ii) of this section shall apply only to 32285 courses for which students receive transcribed credit, as defined 32286 in ~~division (U)~~ of section 3365.01 of the Revised Code. It shall 32287 not apply to remedial or developmental courses. 32288

(b) No student shall take a substitute examination or 32289 examination prescribed under division (B)(4)(a) of this section in 32290 place of the end-of-course examinations in English language arts 32291
I, English language arts II, Algebra I, or geometry prescribed 32292
under division (B)(2) of this section. 32293

(c) The state board shall consider additional assessments 32294 that may be used, beginning with the 2016-2017 school year, as 32295 substitute examinations in lieu of the end-of-course examinations 32296 prescribed under division (B)(2) of this section. 32297

(5) The state board shall do all of the following: 32298

(a) Determine and designate at least five ranges of scores on 32299 each of the end-of-course examinations prescribed under division 32300 (B)(2) of this section, and substitute examinations prescribed 32301 under division (B)(4) of this section. Each range of scores shall 32302 be considered to demonstrate a level of achievement so that any 32303 student attaining a score within such range has achieved one of 32304
the following: 32305

(i) An advanced level of skill; 32306

(ii) An accelerated level of skill; 32307

(iii) A proficient level of skill; 32308 performance score based on the results of a student's 32312 end-of-course examinations or substitute examinations; 32313

(c) Determine the minimum cumulative performance score that demonstrates the level of academic achievement necessary to earn a high school diploma;

(d) Develop a table of corresponding score equivalents for the end-of-course examinations and substitute examinations in order to calculate student performance consistently across the different examinations.

A score of two on an advanced placement examination or a score of two or three on an international baccalaureate examination shall be considered equivalent to a proficient level of skill as specified under division (B)(5)(a)(iii) of this section.

(6)(a) A student who meets both of the following conditions shall not be required to take an end-of-course examination:

(i) The student received high school credit prior to July 1, 2015, for a course for which the end-of-course examination is prescribed.

Receipt of credit for the course described in division (B)(6)(a)(i) of this section shall satisfy the requirement to take the end-of-course examination. A student exempted under division (B)(6)(a) of this section may take the applicable end-of-course examination at a later date.

(b) For purposes of determining whether a student who is exempt from taking an end-of-course examination under division (B)(6)(a) of this section has attained the cumulative score prescribed by division (B)(5)(c) of this section, such student shall select either of the following:

(i) The student is considered to have attained a proficient score on the end-of-course examination from which the student is 32344 exempt; 32345

(ii) The student's final course grade shall be used in lieu 32346 of a score on the end-of-course examination from which the student 32347

The state superintendent, in consultation with the 32349 chancellor, shall adopt guidelines for purposes of calculating the 32350 corresponding final course grades and the minimum cumulative 32351 performance score that demonstrates the level of academic 32352 achievement necessary to earn a high school diploma. 32353

section, the state board may replace the algebra I end-of-course 32355 examination prescribed under division (B)(2) of this section with 32356 an algebra II end-of-course examination, beginning with the 32357 2016-2017 school year for students who enter ninth grade on or 32358 after July 1, 2016. 32359

(b) If the state board replaces the algebra I end-of-course 32360 examination with an algebra II end-of-course examination as 32361 authorized under division (B)(7)(a) of this section, both of the 32362
following shall apply: 32363

(i) A student who is enrolled in an advanced placement or 32364 international baccalaureate course in algebra II shall take the 32365 advanced placement or international baccalaureate examination in 32366 lieu of the algebra II end-of-course examination. 32367

(ii) A student who is enrolled in an algebra II course under 32368
3313.6013 of the Revised Code, shall not be required to take the 32370 algebra II end-of-course examination. Instead, that student's 32371 final course grade shall be used in lieu of the examination. 32372

(c) If a school district or school utilizes an integrated 32373 approach to mathematics instruction, the district or school may do 32374 either or both of the following: 32375

(i) Administer an integrated mathematics I end-of-course 32376 examination in lieu of the prescribed algebra I end-of-course 32377 examination; 32378

examination in lieu of the prescribed geometry end-of-course 32380
examination. 32381

(8)(a) For students entering the ninth grade for the first 32382 time on or after July 1, 2014, but prior to July 1, 2015, the 32383 assessment in the area of science shall be physical science or 32384 on or after July 1, 2015, the assessment in the area of science 32386 shall be biology. 32387

(b) Until July 1, 2019, the department of education shall 32388 make available the end-of-course examination in physical science 32389 for students who entered the ninth grade for the first time on or 32390 after July 1, 2014, but prior to July 1, 2015, and who wish to 32391 retake the examination. 32392

(c) Not later than July 1, 2016, the state board shall adopt 32393 rules prescribing the requirements for the end-of-course 32394 examination in science for students who entered the ninth grade 32395 for the first time on or after July 1, 2014, but prior to July 1, 32396 2015, and who have not met the requirement prescribed by section 32397
3313.618 of the Revised Code by July 1, 2019, due to a student's 32398

Revised Code. 32400

(9) Neither the state board nor the department of education 32401 shall develop or administer an end-of-course examination in the 32402 area of world history. 32403

(C) The state board shall convene a group of national 32404 guidance, and recommendations for the alignment of standards and 32406 model curricula to the assessments and in the design of the 32407 end-of-course examinations prescribed by this section. 32408

(D) Upon completion of the development of the assessment 32409 system, the state board shall adopt rules prescribing all of the 32410 requirements established in the Revised Code. The guidelines shall 32673 not authorize school districts to request social security numbers 32674 of individual students. The guidelines shall prohibit the 32675 reporting under this section of a student's name, address, and 32676 social security number to the state board of education or the 32677 department of education. The guidelines shall also prohibit the 32678 reporting under this section of any personally identifiable 32679 information about any student, except for the purpose of assigning 32680 the data verification code required by division (D)(2) of this 32681 section, to any other person unless such person is employed by the 32682 school district or the information technology center operated 32683 under section 3301.075 of the Revised Code and is authorized by 32684 the district or technology center to have access to such 32685 information or is employed by an entity with which the department 32686 contracts for the scoring or the development of state assessments. 32687

The guidelines may require school districts to provide the social 32688 security numbers of individual staff members and the county of 32689 residence for a student. Nothing in this section prohibits the 32690 state board of education or department of education from providing 32691 a student's county of residence to the department of taxation to 32692 facilitate the distribution of tax revenue. 32693

(2)(a) The guidelines shall provide for each school district 32694 or community school to assign a data verification code that is 32695 unique on a statewide basis over time to each student whose 32696 initial Ohio enrollment is in that district or school and to 32697 report all required individual student data for that student 32698 utilizing such code. The guidelines shall also provide for 32699 assigning data verification codes to all students enrolled in 32700 districts or community schools on the effective date of the 32701 guidelines established under this section. The assignment of data 32702 verification codes for other entities, as described in division 32703 (D)(2)(c) of this section, the use of those codes, and the 32704 reporting and use of associated individual student data shall be 32705 coordinated by the department in accordance with state and federal 32706
law. 32707

School districts shall report individual student data to the 32708 department through the information technology centers utilizing 32709 the code. The entities described in division (D)(2)(c) of this 32710 section shall report individual student data to the department in 32711 the manner prescribed by the department. 32712

Except as provided in sections 3301.941, 3310.11, 3310.42, 32713 3310.63, 3313.978, and 3317.20 of the Revised Code, and except for 32714 the purpose of making per-pupil payments to community schools 32715 under division (C) of section 3314.08 of the Revised Code, at no 32716 time shall the state board or the department have access to 32717 information that would enable any data verification code to be 32718 matched to personally identifiable student data. 32719

(b) Each school district and community school shall ensure 32720 that the data verification code is included in the student's 32721 records reported to any subsequent school district, community 32722 school, or state institution of higher education, as defined in 32723 section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, in which the student 32724 enrolls. Any such subsequent district or school shall utilize the 32725 same identifier in its reporting of data under this section. 32726

(c) The director of any state agency that administers a 32727 publicly funded program providing services to children who are 32728 younger than compulsory school age, as defined in section 3321.01 32729 of the Revised Code, including the directors of health, job and 32730 family services, mental health and addiction services, and 32731 developmental disabilities, shall request and receive, pursuant to 32732 sections 3301.0723 and 5123.0423 of the Revised Code, a data 32733 verification code for a child who is receiving those services. 32734

(E) The guidelines adopted under this section may require 32735 school districts to collect and report data, information, or 32736 reports other than that described in divisions (A), (B), and (C) 32737 of this section for the purpose of complying with other reporting 32738 requirements established in the Revised Code. The other data, 32739 information, or reports may be maintained in the education 32740 management information system but are not required to be compiled 32741 as part of the profile formats required under division (G) of this 32742 section or the annual statewide report required under division (H) 32743
of this section. 32744

(F) Beginning with the school year that begins July 1, 1991, 32745 the board of education of each school district shall annually 32746 collect and report to the state board, in accordance with the 32747 guidelines established by the board, the data required pursuant to 32748 this section. A school district may collect and report these data 32749 notwithstanding section 2151.357 or 3319.321 of the Revised Code. 32750

(G) The state board shall, in accordance with the procedures 32751 it adopts, annually compile the data reported by each school 32752 district pursuant to division (D) of this section. The state board 32753 shall design formats for profiling each school district as a whole 32754 and each school building within each district and shall compile 32755 the data in accordance with these formats. These profile formats 32756 shall: 32757

(1) Include all of the data gathered under this section in a 32758 manner that facilitates comparison among school districts and 32759 among school buildings within each school district; 32760

(2) Present the data on academic achievement levels as 32761 assessed by the testing of student achievement maintained pursuant 32762 to division (B)(1)(d) of this section. 32763

(H)(1) The state board shall, in accordance with the 32764 procedures it adopts, annually prepare a statewide report for all 32765 school districts and the general public that includes the profile 32766 of each of the school districts developed pursuant to division (G) 32767 of this section. Copies of the report shall be sent to each school 32768 district. 32769

(2) The state board shall, in accordance with the procedures 32770 it adopts, annually prepare an individual report for each school 32771 district and the general public that includes the profiles of each 32772 of the school buildings in that school district developed pursuant 32773 to division (G) of this section. Copies of the report shall be 32774 sent to the superintendent of the district and to each member of 32775
the district board of education. 32776

(3) Copies of the reports received from the state board under 32777 divisions (H)(1) and (2) of this section shall be made available 32778 to the general public at each school district's offices. Each 32779 district board of education shall make copies of each report 32780 available to any person upon request and payment of a reasonable 32781 fee for the cost of reproducing the report. The board shall 32782 annually publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the 32783 school district, at least twice during the two weeks prior to the 32784 week in which the reports will first be available, a notice 32785 containing the address where the reports are available and the 32786 date on which the reports will be available. 32787

(I) Any data that is collected or maintained pursuant to this 32788 section and that identifies an individual pupil is not a public 32789 record for the purposes of section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 32790

(J) As used in this section: 32791

(1) "School district" means any city, local, exempted 32792 village, or joint vocational school district and, in accordance 32793 with section 3314.17 of the Revised Code, any community school. As 32794

this section. 32798

(2) "Cost" means any expenditure for operating expenses made 32799 by a school district excluding any expenditures for debt 32800 retirement except for payments made to any commercial lending 32801

the Revised Code. 32803

(K) Any person who removes data from the information system 32804 established under this section for the purpose of releasing it to 32805 any person not entitled under law to have access to such 32806 information is subject to section 2913.42 of the Revised Code 32807 prohibiting tampering with data. 32808

the rules adopted under division (L)(10) of this section, the 32810 department of education may sanction any school district that 32811 reports incomplete or inaccurate data, reports data that does not conform to data requirements and descriptions published by the department, fails to report data in a timely manner, or otherwise does not make a good faith effort to report data as required by this section.

(2) If the department decides to sanction a school district under this division, the department shall take the following sequential actions:

(b) Withhold up to ten per cent of the total amount of state funds due to the district for the current fiscal year and, if not previously required under division (L)(2)(a) of this section, require the district to develop a corrective action plan in accordance with that division;

(c) Withhold an additional amount of up to twenty per cent of the total amount of state funds due to the district for the current fiscal year;

(d) Direct department staff or an outside entity to investigate the district's data reporting practices and make recommendations for subsequent actions. The recommendations may include one or more of the following actions:

(v) Assign department staff to supervise the district's data management system;	32847 32848
(vi) Conduct an investigation to determine whether to suspend or revoke the license of any district employee in accordance with division (N) of this section;	32849 32850 32851
(vii) If the district is issued a report card under section 3302.03 of the Revised Code, indicate on the report card that the district has been sanctioned for failing to report data as required by this section;	32852 32853 32854 32855
(viii) If the district is issued a report card under section 3302.03 of the Revised Code and incomplete or inaccurate data submitted by the district likely caused the district to receive a higher performance rating than it deserved under that section, issue a revised report card for the district;	32856 32857 32858 32859 32860

withheld funds from the district under that division, the 32873 department may release those funds to the district, except that if 32874 the department withheld funding under division (L)(2)(c) of this 32875 section, the department shall not release the funds withheld under 32876 division (L)(2)(b) of this section and, if the department withheld 32877 funding under division (L)(2)(d) of this section, the department 32878 shall not release the funds withheld under division (L)(2)(b) or 32879
(c) of this section. 32880

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, 32881 the department may use its own staff or an outside entity to 32882 conduct an audit of a school district's data reporting practices 32883 any time the department has reason to believe the district has not 32884 made a good faith effort to report data as required by this 32885 section. If any audit conducted by an outside entity under 32886 division (L)(2)(d)(i) or (5) of this section confirms that a 32887 district has not made a good faith effort to report data as 32888 required by this section, the district shall reimburse the 32889 department for the full cost of the audit. The department may 32890 withhold state funds due to the district for this purpose. 32891

(6) Prior to issuing a revised report card for a school 32892 district under division (L)(2)(d)(viii) of this section, the 32893 department may hold a hearing to provide the district with an 32894 opportunity to demonstrate that it made a good faith effort to 32895 report data as required by this section. The hearing shall be 32896 conducted by a referee appointed by the department. Based on the 32897 information provided in the hearing, the referee shall recommend 32898 whether the department should issue a revised report card for the 32899 district. If the referee affirms the department's contention that 32900 the district did not make a good faith effort to report data as 32901 required by this section, the district shall bear the full cost of 32902 conducting the hearing and of issuing any revised report card. 32903

(7) If the department determines that any inaccurate data 32904 reported under this section caused a school district to receive 32905 excess state funds in any fiscal year, the district shall 32906 reimburse the department an amount equal to the excess funds, in 32907 accordance with a payment schedule determined by the department. 32908

The department may withhold state funds due to the district for 32909 this purpose. 32910

(8) Any school district that has funds withheld under 32911 division (L)(2) of this section may appeal the withholding in 32912 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 32913

(9) In all cases of a disagreement between the department and 32914 a school district regarding the appropriateness of an action taken 32915 under division (L)(2) of this section, the burden of proof shall 32916 be on the district to demonstrate that it made a good faith effort 32917 to report data as required by this section. 32918

(10) The state board of education shall adopt rules under 32919
Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement division (L) of this 32920
section. 32921

(M) No information technology center or school district shall 32922 acquire, change, or update its student administration software 32923 package to manage and report data required to be reported to the 32924 department unless it converts to a student software package that 32925 is certified by the department. 32926

(N) The state board of education, in accordance with sections 32927 3319.31 and 3319.311 of the Revised Code, may suspend or revoke a 32928 license as defined under division (A) of section 3319.31 of the 32929 Revised Code that has been issued to any school district employee 32930 found to have willfully reported erroneous, inaccurate, or 32931 incomplete data to the education management information system. 32932

(O) No person shall release or maintain any information about 32933 any student in violation of this section. Whoever violates this 32934 division is guilty of a misdemeanor of the fourth degree. 32935

(P) The department shall disaggregate the data collected 32936 under division (B)(1)(n) of this section according to the race and 32937 socioeconomic status of the students assessed. 32938

(Q) If the department cannot compile any of the information 32939 required by division (H) of section 3302.03 of the Revised Code 32940 based upon the data collected under this section, the department 32941 shall develop a plan and a reasonable timeline for the collection 32942 of any data necessary to comply with that division. 32943

Sec. 3301.16. Pursuant to standards prescribed by the state 32944 board of education as provided in division (D) of section 3301.07 32945 of the Revised Code, the state board shall classify and charter 32946 school districts and individual schools within each district 32947 except that no charter shall be granted to a nonpublic school 32948 unless the school complies with divisions (K)(1) and (L) of 32949 section 3301.0711, as applicable, and ~~section~~ sections 3301.164 32950 and 3313.612 of the Revised Code. 32951

In the course of considering the charter of a new school 32952 district created under section 3311.26 or 3311.38 of the Revised 32953 Code, the state board shall require the party proposing creation 32954 of the district to submit to the board a map, certified by the 32955 county auditor of the county in which the proposed new district is 32956 located, showing the boundaries of the proposed new district. In 32957 the case of a proposed new district located in more than one 32958 county, the map shall be certified by the county auditor of each 32959 county in which the proposed district is located. 32960

The state board shall revoke the charter of any school 32961 district or school which fails to meet the standards for 32962 elementary and high schools as prescribed by the board. The state 32963 board shall also revoke the charter of any nonpublic school that 32964

3313.612 of the Revised Code. 32967

In the issuance and revocation of school district or school 32968 charters, the state board shall be governed by the provisions of 32969 Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 32970

No school district, or individual school operated by a school 32971 district, shall operate without a charter issued by the state 32972 board under this section. 32973

In case a school district charter is revoked pursuant to this 32974 section, the state board may dissolve the school district and 32975 transfer its territory to one or more adjacent districts. An 32976 equitable division of the funds, property, and indebtedness of the 32977 school district shall be made by the state board among the 32978 receiving districts. The board of education of a receiving 32979 district shall accept such territory pursuant to the order of the 32980 state board. Prior to dissolving the school district, the state 32981 board shall notify the appropriate educational service center 32982 governing board and all adjacent school district boards of 32983 education of its intention to do so. Boards so notified may make 32984 recommendations to the state board regarding the proposed 32985 dissolution and subsequent transfer of territory. Except as 32986 provided in section 3301.161 of the Revised Code, the transfer 32987 ordered by the state board shall become effective on the date 32988 specified by the state board, but the date shall be at least 32989 thirty days following the date of issuance of the order. 32990

A high school is one of higher grade than an elementary 32991 with sections 3301.07 and 3313.60 of the Revised Code and which 32993 also offers other subjects of study more advanced than those 32994 taught in the elementary schools and such other subjects as may be 32995 approved by the state board of education. 32996

An elementary school is one in which instruction and training 32997 are given in accordance with sections 3301.07 and 3313.60 of the Revised Code and which offers such other subjects as may be approved by the state board of education. In districts wherein a junior high school is maintained, the elementary schools in that district may be considered to include only the work of the first six school years inclusive, plus the kindergarten year.

Sec. 3301.164. Each chartered nonpublic school shall do the following:

(A) Publish on the school's web site the number of students enrolled in the school by the last day of October of the current school year;

(B) Publish on the school's web site the school's policy regarding background checks for teaching and nonteaching employees and for volunteers who have direct contact with students;

(C) Publish on the school's web site and make available to parents, guardians, and custodians of students enrolled in the school the curricula and reading lists for each grade level of the school.

Sec. 3301.65. (A) The department of education, not later than the first day of May each year, shall submit to the joint education oversight committee of the house of representatives and senate, created in section 103.45 of the Revised Code, the manual containing the standards, procedures, timelines, and other requirements the department intends to use to review or audit the full-time equivalency student enrollment reporting by all school districts, community schools established under Chapter 3314., STEM schools established under Chapter 3326., and college-preparatory boarding schools established under Chapter 3328. of the Revised Code for the next school year.

(B) In addition to the requirement of division (A) of this section, not later than the first day of May each year that the 33028 submit to the joint education oversight committee, and to each 33030 school district, community school, STEM school, and 33031 college-preparatory boarding school a detailed summary of the 33032 changes, specifically comparing the differences between the prior 33033 school year's manual and the proposed manual. The department shall 33034 post the summary and the proposed manual in a prominent location 33035 on the department's web site. 33036

(C) In the event that the department fails to comply with 33037 this section or the specific timelines prescribed herein, or the 33038 joint education oversight committee, pursuant to division (D) of 33039 section 103.45 of the Revised Code, determines that schools are 33040 not reasonably capable of compliance with the proposed manual, the 33041 proposed manual shall be ineffective, and the department shall 33042 conduct its reviews or audits using the manual and accompanying 33043 standards, procedures, timelines, and other requirements from the 33044 previous school year. 33045

Sec. 3302.03. Annually, not later than the fifteenth day of 33046
September or the preceding Friday when that day falls on a 33047 letter grade for overall academic performance and for each 33049 separate performance measure for each school district, and each 33050 school building in a district, in accordance with this section. 33051

The state board shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter 119. of the 33052 Revised Code to establish performance criteria for each letter 33053 grade and prescribe a method by which the department assigns each 33054 letter grade. For a school building to which any of the 33055 performance measures do not apply, due to grade levels served by 33056 the building, the state board shall designate the performance 33057 measures that are applicable to the building and that must be 33058 calculated separately and used to calculate the building's overall 33059 grade. The department shall issue annual report cards reflecting 33060 the performance of each school district, each building within each 33061 district, and for the state as a whole using the performance 33062 measures and letter grade system described in this section. The 33063 department shall include on the report card for each district and 33064 each building within each district the most recent two-year trend 33065 data in student achievement for each subject and each grade. 33066

(A)(1) For the 2012-2013 school year, the department shall 33067 issue grades as described in division (E) of this section for each 33068 of the following performance measures: 33069

(b) Performance index score for a school district or 33071 building. Grades shall be awarded as a percentage of the total 33072 possible points on the performance index system as adopted by the 33073 state board. In adopting benchmarks for assigning letter grades 33074 under division (A)(1)(b) of this section, the state board of 33075 education shall designate ninety per cent or higher for an "A," at 33076 least seventy per cent but not more than eighty per cent for a 33077
"C," and less than fifty per cent for an "F." 33078

(c) The extent to which the school district or building meets 33079
each of the applicable performance indicators established by the 33080
state board under section 3302.02 of the Revised Code and the 33081
percentage of applicable performance indicators that have been 33082 achieved. In adopting benchmarks for assigning letter grades under 33083 division (A)(1)(c) of this section, the state board shall 33084 designate ninety per cent or higher for an "A." 33085

(d) The four- and five-year adjusted cohort graduation rates. 33086

In adopting benchmarks for assigning letter grades under 33087 division (A)(1)(d), (B)(1)(d), or (C)(1)(d) of this section, the 33088 department shall designate a four-year adjusted cohort graduation 33089 rate of ninety-three per cent or higher for an "A" and a five-year 33090 cohort graduation rate of ninety-five per cent or higher for an 33091

"A." 33092

(e) The overall score under the value-added progress 33093 dimension of a school district or building, for which the 33094
department shall use up to three years of value-added data as 33095 available. The letter grade assigned for this growth measure shall 33096 be as follows: 33097

(i) A score that is at least two standard errors of measure 33098 above the mean score shall be designated as an "A." 33099

(ii) A score that is at least one standard error of measure 33100 but less than two standard errors of measure above the mean score 33101 shall be designated as a "B." 33102

(iii) A score that is less than one standard error of measure 33103 above the mean score but greater than or equal to one standard 33104 error of measure below the mean score shall be designated as a 33105
"C." 33106

(iv) A score that is not greater than one standard error of 33107 measure below the mean score but is greater than or equal to two 33108 standard errors of measure below the mean score shall be 33109 designated as a "D." 33110

(v) A score that is not greater than two standard errors of 33111 measure below the mean score shall be designated as an "F." 33112

Whenever the value-added progress dimension is used as a 33113 graded performance measure, whether as an overall measure or as a 33114 measure of separate subgroups, the grades for the measure shall be 33115 calculated in the same manner as prescribed in division (A)(1)(e) 33116

(f) The value-added progress dimension score for a school 33118
district or building disaggregated for each of the following 33119 subgroups: students identified as gifted, students with 33120 disabilities, and students whose performance places them in the 33121 lowest quintile for achievement on a statewide basis. Each 33122 subgroup shall be a separate graded measure. 33123

(2) Not later than April 30, 2013, the state board of 33124 education shall adopt a resolution describing the performance 33125 measures, benchmarks, and grading system for the 2012-2013 school 33126 year and, not later than June 30, 2013, shall adopt rules in 33127 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code that prescribe 33128 the methods by which the performance measures under division 33129 (A)(1) of this section shall be assessed and assigned a letter 33130 grade, including performance benchmarks for each letter grade. 33131

At least forty-five days prior to the state board's adoption 33132
of rules to prescribe the methods by which the performance 33133 measures under division (A)(1) of this section shall be assessed 33134
and assigned a letter grade, the department shall conduct a public 33135
presentation before the standing committees of the house of 33136
describing such methods, including performance benchmarks. 33138

(3) There shall not be an overall letter grade for a school 33139 district or building for the 2012-2013 school year. 33140

(B)(1) For the 2013-2014 and 2014-2015 school years, the 33141 department shall issue grades as described in division (E) of this 33142 section for each of the following performance measures: 33143

(a) Annual measurable objectives; 33144

(b) Performance index score for a school district or 33145
building. Grades shall be awarded as a percentage of the total 33146 possible points on the performance index system as created by the 33147 department. In adopting benchmarks for assigning letter grades 33148 under division (B)(1)(b) of this section, the state board shall 33149 designate ninety per cent or higher for an "A," at least seventy 33150 per cent but not more than eighty per cent for a "C," and less 33151

than fifty per cent for an "F." 33152

each of the applicable performance indicators established by the 33154
state board under section 3302.03 of the Revised Code and the 33155
percentage of applicable performance indicators that have been 33156
division (B)(1)(c) of this section, the state board shall 33158
designate ninety per cent or higher for an "A." 33159

(d) The four- and five-year adjusted cohort graduation rates; 33160

(e) The overall score under the value-added progress 33161
department shall use up to three years of value-added data as 33163 available. 33164

(f) The value-added progress dimension score for a school 33165
district or building disaggregated for each of the following 33166
subgroups: students identified as gifted in superior cognitive 33167 ability and specific academic ability fields under Chapter 3324. 33168
of the Revised Code, students with disabilities, and students 33169 whose performance places them in the lowest quintile for 33170 achievement on a statewide basis. Each subgroup shall be a 33171 separate graded measure. 33172

(g) Whether a school district or building is making progress 33173
in improving literacy in grades kindergarten through three, as 33174 determined using a method prescribed by the state board. The state 33175 board shall adopt rules to prescribe benchmarks and standards for 33176 assigning grades to districts and buildings for purposes of 33177 division (B)(1)(g) of this section. In adopting benchmarks for 33178 assigning letter grades under divisions (B)(1)(g) and (C)(1)(g) of 33179 this section, the state board shall determine progress made based 33180 on the reduction in the total percentage of students scoring below 33181 grade level, or below proficient, compared from year to year on 33182 the reading and writing diagnostic assessments administered under 33183 section 3301.0715 of the Revised Code and the third grade English 33184 language arts assessment under section 3301.0710 of the Revised 33185 Code, as applicable. The state board shall designate for a "C" 33186 grade a value that is not lower than the statewide average value 33187 for this measure. No grade shall be issued under divisions 33188 (B)(1)(g) and (C)(1)(g) of this section for a district or building 33189 in which less than five per cent of students have scored below 33190 grade level on the diagnostic assessment administered to students 33191 in kindergarten under division (B)(1) of section 3313.608 of the 33192

Revised Code. 33193

(h) For a high mobility school district or building, an 33194
additional value-added progress dimension score. For this measure, 33195
the department shall use value-added data from the most recent 33196 school year available and shall use assessment scores for only 33197
those students to whom the district or building has administered 33198
the assessments prescribed by section 3301.0710 of the Revised 33199
Code for each of the two most recent consecutive school years. 33200

As used in this division, "high mobility school district or 33201 building" means a school district or building where at least 33202 twenty-five per cent of its total enrollment is made up of 33203 students who have attended that school district or building for 33204
less than one year. 33205

(2) In addition to the graded measures in division (B)(1) of 33206
this section, the department shall include on a school district's 33207
or building's report card all of the following without an assigned 33208
letter grade: 33209

(a) The percentage of students enrolled in a district or 33210
building participating in advanced placement classes and the 33211 percentage of those students who received a score of three or 33212
better on advanced placement examinations; 33213

(b) The number of a district's or building's students who 33214 have earned at least three college credits through dual enrollment 33215 or advanced standing programs, such as the post-secondary 33216 enrollment options program under Chapter 3365. of the Revised Code 33217 and state-approved career-technical courses offered through dual 33218 enrollment or statewide articulation, that appear on a student's 33219 transcript or other official document, either of which is issued 33220 by the institution of higher education from which the student 33221 earned the college credit. The credits earned that are reported 33222 under divisions (B)(2)(b) and (C)(2)(c) of this section shall not 33223 include any that are remedial or developmental and shall include 33224 those that count toward the curriculum requirements established 33225 for completion of a degree. 33226

(c) The percentage of students enrolled in a district or 33227 building who have taken a national standardized test used for 33228 college admission determinations and the percentage of those 33229
students who are determined to be remediation-free in accordance 33230 with standards adopted under division (F) of section 3345.061 of 33231

(d) The percentage of the district's or the building's 33233 students who receive industry-recognized credentials as approved 33234 under section 3313.6113 of the Revised Code. ~~The state board shall~~ 33235 ~~adopt criteria for acceptable industry recognized credentials.~~ 33236

(e) The percentage of students enrolled in a district or 33237 building who are participating in an international baccalaureate 33238
program and the percentage of those students who receive a score 33239 of four or better on the international baccalaureate examinations. 33240

(f) The percentage of the district's or building's students 33241 who receive an honors diploma under division (B) of section 33242
3313.61 of the Revised Code. 33243

(3) Not later than December 31, 2013, the state board shall 33244 adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code 33245 that prescribe the methods by which the performance measures under 33246 divisions (B)(1)(f) and (B)(1)(g) of this section will be assessed 33247 and assigned a letter grade, including performance benchmarks for 33248 each grade. 33249

measures under division (B)(1) of this section shall be assessed 33252
presentation before the standing committees of the house of 33254
describing such methods, including performance benchmarks. 33256

(4) There shall not be an overall letter grade for a school 33257
district or building for the 2013-2014, 2014-2015, 2015-2016, and 33258 2016-2017 school years. 33259

(C)(1) For the 2014-2015 school year and each school year 33260 thereafter, the department shall issue grades as described in 33261 division (E) of this section for each of the performance measures 33262 prescribed in division (C)(1) of this section. The graded measures 33263 are as follows: 33264

(a) Annual measurable objectives; 33265

(b) Performance index score for a school district or 33266
building. Grades shall be awarded as a percentage of the total 33267 possible points on the performance index system as created by the 33268
under division (C)(1)(b) of this section, the state board shall 33270
than fifty per cent for an "F." 33273

each of the applicable performance indicators established by the 33275

percentage of applicable performance indicators that have been 33277
division (C)(1)(c) of this section, the state board shall 33279
designate ninety per cent or higher for an "A." 33280

(d) The four- and five-year adjusted cohort graduation rates; 33281

dimension, or another measure of student academic progress if 33283 adopted by the state board, of a school district or building, for 33284 which the department shall use up to three years of value-added 33285 data as available. 33286

In adopting benchmarks for assigning letter grades for 33287 overall score on value-added progress dimension under division 33288 (C)(1)(e) of this section, the state board shall prohibit the 33289 assigning of a grade of "A" for that measure unless the district's 33290 or building's grade assigned for value-added progress dimension 33291 for all subgroups under division (C)(1)(f) of this section is a 33292
"B" or higher. 33293

For the metric prescribed by division (C)(1)(e) of this 33294 section, the state board may adopt a student academic progress 33295 measure to be used instead of the value-added progress dimension. 33296
If the state board adopts such a measure, it also shall prescribe 33297 a method for assigning letter grades for the new measure that is 33298 comparable to the method prescribed in division (A)(1)(e) of this 33299
section. 33300

(f) The value-added progress dimension score of a school 33301
district or building disaggregated for each of the following 33302
subgroups: students identified as gifted in superior cognitive 33303
ability and specific academic ability fields under Chapter 3324. 33304
of the Revised Code, students with disabilities, and students 33305

achievement on a statewide basis, as determined by a method 33307 prescribed by the state board. Each subgroup shall be a separate 33308 graded measure. 33309

The state board may adopt student academic progress measures 33310 to be used instead of the value-added progress dimension. If the 33311 state board adopts such measures, it also shall prescribe a method 33312 for assigning letter grades for the new measures that is 33313 comparable to the method prescribed in division (A)(1)(e) of this 33314
section. 33315

(g) Whether a school district or building is making progress 33316
determined using a method prescribed by the state board. The state 33318
assigning grades to a district or building for purposes of 33320 division (C)(1)(g) of this section. The state board shall 33321 designate for a "C" grade a value that is not lower than the 33322 statewide average value for this measure. No grade shall be issued 33323 under division (C)(1)(g) of this section for a district or 33324 building in which less than five per cent of students have scored 33325 below grade level on the kindergarten diagnostic assessment under 33326
division (B)(1) of section 3313.608 of the Revised Code. 33327

those students to whom the district or building has administered 33332
the assessments prescribed by section 3301.0710 of the Revised 33333

building" means a school district or building where at least 33336
twenty-five per cent of its total enrollment is made up of 33337

less than one year. 33339

(2) In addition to the graded measures in division (C)(1) of 33340

(a) The percentage of students enrolled in a district or 33344
building who have taken a national standardized test used for 33345
college admission determinations and the percentage of those 33346
students who are determined to be remediation-free in accordance 33347 with the standards adopted under division (F) of section 3345.061 33348

(b) The percentage of students enrolled in a district or 33350
building participating in advanced placement classes and the 33351
better on advanced placement examinations; 33353

(c) The percentage of a district's or building's students who 33354 have earned at least three college credits through advanced 33355 standing programs, such as the college credit plus program under 33356 Chapter 3365. of the Revised Code and state-approved 33357 career-technical courses offered through dual enrollment or 33358 statewide articulation, that appear on a student's college 33359 transcript issued by the institution of higher education from 33360 which the student earned the college credit. The credits earned 33361 that are reported under divisions (B)(2)(b) and (C)(2)(c) of this 33362 section shall not include any that are remedial or developmental 33363 and shall include those that count toward the curriculum 33364 requirements established for completion of a degree. 33365

(d) The percentage of the district's or building's students 33366
who receive an honor's diploma under division (B) of section 33367

(e) The percentage of the district's or building's students 33369 who receive industry-recognized credentials as approved under	33370

section 3313.6113 of the Revised Code;	33371
(f) The percentage of students enrolled in a district or	33372
program and the percentage of those students who receive a score	33374
of four or better on the international baccalaureate examinations;	33375
(g) The results of the college and career-ready assessments	33376 administered under division (B)(1) of section 3301.0712 of the	33377
Revised Code.	33378
(3) The state board shall adopt rules pursuant to Chapter	33379
119. of the Revised Code that establish a method to assign an	33380
overall grade for a school district or school building for the	33381
2017-2018 school year and each school year thereafter. The rules	33382 shall group the performance measures in divisions (C)(1) and (2)	33383 of this section into the following components:	33384
(a) Gap closing, which shall include the performance measure	33385
in division (C)(1)(a) of this section;	33386
(b) Achievement, which shall include the performance measures	33387
in divisions (C)(1)(b) and (c) of this section;	33388
(c) Progress, which shall include the performance measures in	33389 divisions (C)(1)(e) and (f) of this section;	33390
(d) Graduation, which shall include the performance measure	33391
in division (C)(1)(d) of this section;	33392
(e) Kindergarten through third-grade literacy, which shall	33393 include the performance measure in division (C)(1)(g) of this	33394
section;	33395
(f) Prepared for success, which shall include the performance	33396 measures in divisions (C)(2)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) of	33397 this section. The state board shall develop a method to determine	33398
a grade for the component in division (C)(3)(f) of this section	33399 using the performance measures in divisions (C)(2)(a), (b), (c), 33400 (d), (e), and (f) of this section. When available, the state board 33401 may incorporate the performance measure under division (C)(2)(g) 33402 of this section into the component under division (C)(3)(f) of 33403 this section. When determining the overall grade for the prepared 33404 for success component prescribed by division (C)(3)(f) of this 33405 section, no individual student shall be counted in more than one 33406 performance measure. However, if a student qualifies for more than 33407 one performance measure in the component, the state board may, in 33408 its method to determine a grade for the component, specify an 33409 additional weight for such a student that is not greater than or 33410 equal to 1.0. In determining the overall score under division 33411 (C)(3)(f) of this section, the state board shall ensure that the 33412 pool of students included in the performance measures aggregated 33413 under that division are all of the students included in the four- 33414 and five-year adjusted graduation cohort. 33415

In the rules adopted under division (C)(3) of this section, 33416 the state board shall adopt a method for determining a grade for 33417 each component in divisions (C)(3)(a) to (f) of this section. The 33418 state board also shall establish a method to assign an overall 33419 grade of "A," "B," "C," "D," or "F" using the grades assigned for 33420 each component. The method the state board adopts for assigning an 33421 overall grade shall give equal weight to the components in 33422 divisions (C)(3)(b) and (c) of this section. 33423

of rules to prescribe the methods for calculating the overall 33425 grade for the report card, as required by this division, the 33426 department shall conduct a public presentation before the standing 33427 committees of the house of representatives and the senate that 33428 consider education legislation describing the format for the 33429 report card, weights that will be assigned to the components of 33430 the overall grade, and the method for calculating the overall 33431

grade. 33432

(D) On or after ~~than~~ July 1, 2015, the state board may 33433 develop a measure of student academic progress for high school 33434 students using only data from assessments in English language arts 33435 and mathematics. If the state board develops this measure, each 33436 school district and applicable school building shall be assigned a 33437 separate letter grade for ~~if it~~ not sooner than the 2017-2018 33438 school year. The district's or building's grade for that measure 33439 shall not be included in determining the district's or building's 33440 overall letter grade. 33441

(E) The letter grades assigned to a school district or 33442 building under this section shall be as follows: 33443

(1) "A" for a district or school making excellent progress; 33444

(2) "B" for a district or school making above average 33445
progress; 33446

(3) "C" for a district or school making average progress; 33447

(4) "D" for a district or school making below average 33448

(5) "F" for a district or school failing to meet minimum 33450
progress. 33451

(F) When reporting data on student achievement and progress, 33452 the department shall disaggregate that data according to the 33453 following categories: 33454

(1) Performance of students by grade-level; 33455

(2) Performance of students by race and ethnic group; 33456

(3) Performance of students by gender; 33457

(4) Performance of students grouped by those who have been 33458 enrolled in a district or school for three or more years; 33459

enrolled in a district or school for more than one year and less than three years;	33461 33462
(6) Performance of students grouped by those who have been enrolled in a district or school for one year or less;	33463 33464
(7) Performance of students grouped by those who are economically disadvantaged;	33465 33466
(8) Performance of students grouped by those who are enrolled in a conversion community school established under Chapter 3314. of the Revised Code;	33467 33468 33469
(9) Performance of students grouped by those who are classified as limited English proficient;	33470 33471
(10) Performance of students grouped by those who have disabilities;	33472 33473
(11) Performance of students grouped by those who are classified as migrants;	33474 33475
(12) Performance of students grouped by those who are identified as gifted in superior cognitive ability and the specific academic ability fields of reading and math pursuant to Chapter 3324. of the Revised Code. In disaggregating specific academic ability fields for gifted students, the department shall use data for those students with specific academic ability in math and reading. If any other academic field is assessed, the department shall also include data for students with specific academic ability in that field as well.	33476 33477 33478 33479 33480 33481 33482 33483 33484
(13) Performance of students grouped by those who perform in the lowest quintile for achievement on a statewide basis, as determined by a method prescribed by the state board.	33485 33486 33487
The department may disaggregate data on student performance according to other categories that the department determines are appropriate. To the extent possible, the department shall	33488 33489 33490 disaggregate data on student performance according to any 33491 combinations of two or more of the categories listed in divisions 33492

(F)(1) to (13) of this section that it deems relevant. 33493

In reporting data pursuant to division (F) of this section, 33494 the department shall not include in the report cards any data 33495 statistical in nature that is statistically unreliable or that 33496 could result in the identification of individual students. For 33497 this purpose, the department shall not report student performance 33498 data for any group identified in division (F) of this section that 33499 contains less than ten students. If the department does not report 33500 student performance data for a group because it contains less than 33501 ten students, the department shall indicate on the report card 33502 that is why data was not reported. 33503

(G) The department may include with the report cards any 33504 additional education and fiscal performance data it deems 33505 valuable. 33506

(H) The department shall include on each report card a list 33507 of additional information collected by the department that is 33508 available regarding the district or building for which the report 33509 card is issued. When available, such additional information shall 33510 include student mobility data disaggregated by race and 33511 socioeconomic status, college enrollment data, and the reports 33512 prepared under section 3302.031 of the Revised Code. 33513

The department shall maintain a site on the world wide web. 33514
The report card shall include the address of the site and shall 33515 specify that such additional information is available to the 33516 public at that site. The department shall also provide a copy of 33517 each item on the list to the superintendent of each school 33518 district. The district superintendent shall provide a copy of any 33519 prescribed by division (B)(1) of section 3301.0710 or the college 34511

(1) "Annexation" and "annexed" mean annexation for municipal 34516 purposes under sections 709.02 to 709.37 of the Revised Code. 34517

(2) "Annexed territory" means territory that has been annexed 34518 for municipal purposes to a city served by an urban school 34519 district, but on September 24, 1986, has not been transferred to 34520 the urban school district. 34521

(3) "Urban school district" means a city school district with 34522 an average daily membership for the 1985-1986 school year in 34523 excess of twenty thousand that is the school district of a city 34524 that contains annexed territory. 34525

(4) "Annexation agreement" means an agreement entered into 34526 under division (F) of this section that has been approved by the 34527 state board of education or an agreement entered into prior to 34528 September 24, 1986, that meets the requirements of division (F) of 34529 this section and has been filed with the state board. 34530

(B) The territory included within the boundaries of a city, 34531 local, exempted village, or joint vocational school district shall 34532 be contiguous except where a natural island forms an integral part 34533 of the district, where the state board of education authorizes a 34534 noncontiguous school district, as provided in division (E)(1) of 34535 this section, or where a local school district is created pursuant 34536 to section 3311.26 of the Revised Code from one or more local 34537 school districts, one of which has entered into an agreement under 34538

section 3313.42 of the Revised Code. 34539

(C)(1) When all of the territory of a school district is 34540 annexed to a city or village, such territory thereby becomes a 34541 part of the city school district or the school district of which 34542 the village is a part, and the legal title to school property in 34543 such territory for school purposes shall be vested in the board of 34544 education of the city school district or the school district of 34545 which the village is a part. 34546

(2) When the territory so annexed to a city or village 34547 comprises part but not all of the territory of a school district, 34548 the said territory becomes part of the city school district or the 34549 school district of which the village is a part only upon approval 34550 by the state board of education, unless the district in which the 34551 territory is located is a party to an annexation agreement with 34552 the city school district. 34553

Any urban school district that has not entered into an 34554 annexation agreement with any other school district whose 34555 territory would be affected by any transfer under this division 34556 and that desires to negotiate the terms of transfer with any such 34557 district shall conduct any negotiations under division (F) of this 34558 section as part of entering into an annexation agreement with such 34559 a district. 34560

Any school district, except an urban school district, 34561 desiring state board approval of a transfer under this division 34562 shall make a good faith effort to negotiate the terms of transfer 34563 with any other school district whose territory would be affected 34564 by the transfer. Before the state board may approve any transfer 34565 of territory to a school district, except an urban school 34566 district, under this section, it must receive the following: 34567

(a) A resolution requesting approval of the transfer, passed 34568

by at least one of the school districts whose territory would be 34569 affected by the transfer; 34570

(b) Evidence determined to be sufficient by the state board 34571 to show that good faith negotiations have taken place or that the 34572 district requesting the transfer has made a good faith effort to 34573 hold such negotiations; 34574

(c) If any negotiations took place, a statement signed by all 34575 boards that participated in the negotiations, listing the terms 34576 agreed on and the points on which no agreement could be reached. 34577

(D) The state board of education shall adopt rules governing 34578 negotiations held by any school district except an urban school 34579 district pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section. The rules 34580 shall encourage the realization of the following goals: 34581

(1) A discussion by the negotiating districts of the present 34582 and future educational needs of the pupils in each district; 34583

(2) The educational, financial, and territorial stability of 34584 each district affected by the transfer; 34585

(3) The assurance of appropriate educational programs, 34586 services, and opportunities for all the pupils in each 34587 participating district, and adequate planning for the facilities 34588 needed to provide these programs, services, and opportunities. 34589

Districts involved in negotiations under such rules may agree 34590 to share revenues from the property included in the territory to 34591 be transferred, establish cooperative programs between the 34592 participating districts, and establish mechanisms for the 34593 settlement of any future boundary disputes. 34594

(E)(1) If territory annexed after September 24, 1986, is part 34595 of a school district that is a party to an annexation agreement 34596 with the urban school district serving the annexing city, the 34597 transfer of such territory shall be governed by the agreement. If 34598 the agreement does not specify how the territory is to be dealt 34599 with, the boards of education of the district in which the 34600 territory is located and the urban school district shall negotiate 34601 with regard to the transfer of the territory which shall be 34602 transferred to the urban school district unless, not later than 34603 ninety days after the effective date of municipal annexation, the 34604 boards of education of both districts, by resolution adopted by a 34605 majority of the members of each board, agree that the territory 34606 will not be transferred and so inform the state board of 34607 education. 34608

If territory is transferred under this division the transfer 34609 shall take effect on the first day of July occurring not sooner 34610 than ninety-one days after the effective date of the municipal 34611 annexation. Territory transferred under this division need not be 34612 contiguous to the district to which it is transferred. 34613

(2) Territory annexed prior to September 24, 1986, by a city 34614 served by an urban school district shall not be subject to 34615 transfer under this section if the district in which the territory 34616 is located is a party to an annexation agreement or becomes a 34617 party to such an agreement not later than ninety days after 34618 September 24, 1986. If the district does not become a party to an 34619 annexation agreement within the ninety-day period, transfer of 34620 territory shall be governed by division (C)(2) of this section. If 34621 the district subsequently becomes a party to an agreement, 34622 territory annexed prior to September 24, 1986, other than 34623 territory annexed under division (C)(2) of this section prior to 34624 the effective date of the agreement, shall not be subject to 34625 transfer under this section. 34626

(F) An urban school district may enter into a comprehensive 34627 agreement with one or more school districts under which transfers 34628 of territory annexed by the city served by the urban school 34629 district after September 24, 1986, shall be governed by the 34630 agreement. Such agreement must provide for the establishment of a cooperative education program under section 3313.842 of the Revised Code in which all the parties to the agreement are participants and must be approved by resolution of the majority of the members of each of the boards of education of the school districts that are parties to it. An agreement may provide for interdistrict payments based on local revenue growth resulting from development in any territory annexed by the city served by the urban school district.

An agreement entered into under this division may be altered, modified, or terminated only by agreement, by resolution approved by the majority of the members of each board of education, of all school districts that are parties to the agreement, except that with regard to any provision that affects only the urban school district and one of the other districts that is a party, that district and the urban district may modify or alter the agreement by resolution approved by the majority of the members of the board of that district and the urban district. Alterations, modifications, terminations, and extensions of an agreement entered into under this division do not require approval of the state board of education, but shall be filed with the board after approval and execution by the parties.

If an agreement provides for interdistrict payments, each party to the agreement, except any school district specifically exempted by the agreement, shall agree to make an annual payment to the urban school district with respect to any of its territory that is annexed territory in an amount not to exceed the amount certified for that year under former section 3317.029 of the Revised Code as that section existed prior to July 1, 1998; except that such limitation of annual payments to amounts certified under former section 3317.029 of the Revised Code does not apply to agreements or extensions of agreements entered into on or after

June 1, 1992, unless such limitation is expressly agreed to by the parties. The agreement may provide that all or any part of the payment shall be waived if the urban school district receives its payment with respect to such annexed territory under former section 3317.029 of the Revised Code and that all or any part of such payment may be waived if the urban school district does not receive its payment with respect to such annexed territory under such section.

With respect to territory that is transferred to the urban school district after September 24, 1986, the agreement may provide for annual payments by the urban school district to the school district whose territory is transferred to the urban school district subsequent to annexation by the city served by the urban school district.

(G) In the event territory is transferred from one school district to another under this section, an equitable division of the funds and indebtedness between the districts involved shall be made under the supervision of the state board of education and that board's decision shall be final. Such division shall not include funds payable to or received by a school district under Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code or payable to or received by a school district from the United States or any department or agency thereof. In the event such transferred territory includes real property owned by a school district, the state board of education, as part of such division of funds and indebtedness, shall determine the true value in money of such real property and all buildings or other improvements thereon. The board of education of the school district receiving such territory shall forthwith pay to the board of education of the school district losing such territory such true value in money of such real property, buildings, and improvements less such percentage of the true value in money of each school building located on such real property as is represented by the ratio of the total enrollment in day classes 34695 of the pupils residing in the territory transferred enrolled at 34696 such school building in the school year in which such annexation 34697 proceedings were commenced to the total enrollment in day classes 34698 of all pupils residing in the school district losing such 34699 territory enrolled at such school building in such school year. 34700

The school district receiving such payment shall place the 34701 proceeds thereof in its sinking fund or bond retirement fund. 34702

(H) The state board of education, before approving such 34703 transfer of territory, shall determine that such payment has been 34704 made and shall apportion to the acquiring school district such 34705 percentage of the indebtedness of the school district losing the 34706 territory as is represented by the ratio that the assessed 34707 valuation of the territory transferred bears to the total assessed 34708 valuation of the entire school district losing the territory as of 34709 the effective date of the transfer, provided that in ascertaining 34710 the indebtedness of the school district losing the territory the 34711 state board of education shall disregard such percentage of the 34712 par value of the outstanding and unpaid bonds and notes of said 34713 school district issued for construction or improvement of the 34714 school building or buildings for which payment was made by the 34715 acquiring district as is equal to the percentage by which the true 34716 value in money of such building or buildings was reduced in fixing 34717 the amount of said payment. 34718

(I) No transfer of school district territory or division of 34719 funds and indebtedness incident thereto, pursuant to the 34720 annexation of territory to a city or village shall be completed in 34721 any other manner than that prescribed by this section regardless 34722 of the date of the commencement of such annexation proceedings, 34723 and this section applies to all proceedings for such transfers and 34724 divisions of funds and indebtedness pending or commenced on or 34725 after October 2, 1959. 34726

(J) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Revised Code, including section 3311.24 of the Revised Code, beginning on the effective date of this amendment until October 1, 2021, no school district that is a party to an annexation agreement shall transfer territory to another school district that is a party to the annexation agreement without the approval of the boards of education of each of the school districts.

Sec. 3311.27. The board of education of a surviving school district, as that term is defined in section 5748.10 of the Revised Code, shall notify the tax commissioner as and in the manner required by that section.

Sec. 3311.751. Notwithstanding division (F) of section 5705.10 of the Revised Code, if a municipal school district board of education sells real property that it owns in its corporate capacity, moneys received from the sale may be paid into the general fund of the district, as long as all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The district has owned the real property for at least ten years.

(B) The real property and any improvements to that real property were not acquired with the proceeds of public obligations, as defined in section 133.01 of the Revised Code, of the district that are outstanding at the time of the sale.

(C) The deposit of those moneys in that manner is not prohibited by any agreements the district board has entered into with the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission.

Sec. 3311.771. As used in this section, "teacher" has the same meaning as in section 3319.09 of the Revised Code, except that it does not include a principal, supervisor, superintendent, or other school administrator. 34756

A board of education of a municipal school district may enter 34757 into an agreement with any teacher it employs under which the 34758 board provides to the teacher early retirement incentives, 34759 severance pay, or both, in return for an agreement to retire from 34760 the teacher's position, only if both of the following are the 34761 case: 34762

(A) The board determines that the agreement is financially 34763 sound. 34764

(B) The board complies with section 5705.412 of the Revised 34765
Code, with regard to any wage or salary schedule increase made 34766 during the school year. 34767

Notwithstanding division (A) of section 4117.10 of the 34768
Revised Code, this section prevails over any collective bargaining 34769 agreement entered into under Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code on 34770

Sec. 3313.372. (A) As used in this section, "energy 34772 conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an 34773 installation in, or remodeling of, a building, to reduce energy 34774 consumption. It includes: 34775

(1) Insulation of the building structure and systems within 34776
the building; 34777

(2) Storm windows and doors, multiglazed windows and doors, 34778 heat absorbing or heat reflective glazed and coated window and 34779 door systems, additional glazing, reductions in glass area, and 34780 other window and door system modifications that reduce energy 34781 consumption; 34782

(3) Automatic energy control systems; 34783

(4) Heating, ventilating, or air conditioning system 34784 modifications or replacements; 34785

(5) Caulking and weatherstripping;	34786
(6) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures to increase the energy efficiency of the system without increasing the overall illumination of a facility, unless such increase in illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or local building code for the proposed lighting system;	34787 34788 34789 34790 34791
(7) Energy recovery systems;	34792
(8) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of energy such as heat, as well as electricity, for use primarily within a building or complex of buildings;	34793 34794 34795
(9) Any other modification, installation, or remodeling approved by the Ohio school facilities construction commission as an energy conservation measure.	34796 34797 34798
(B) A board of education of a city, exempted village, local, or joint vocational school district may enter into an installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of energy conservation measures. The provisions of such installment payment contracts dealing with interest charges and financing terms shall not be subject to the competitive bidding requirements of section 3313.46 of the Revised Code, and shall be on the following terms:	34799 34800 34801 34802 34803 34804 34805
(1) Not less than one-fifteenth of the costs thereof shall be paid within two years from the date of purchase.	34806 34807
(2) The remaining balance of the costs thereof shall be paid within fifteen years from the date of purchase.	34808 34809
The provisions of any installment payment contract entered into pursuant to this section shall provide that all payments, except payments for repairs and obligations on termination of the contract prior to its expiration, shall not exceed the calculated energy, water, or waste water cost savings, avoided operating costs, and avoided capital costs attributable to the one or more	34810 34811 34812 34813 34814 34815 measures over a defined period of time. Those payments shall be 34816 made only to the extent that the savings described in this 34817 division actually occur. The energy services company shall warrant 34818 and guarantee that the energy conservation measures shall realize 34819 guaranteed savings and shall be responsible to pay an amount equal 34820 to any savings shortfall. 34821

An installment payment contract entered into by a board of 34822 education under this section shall require the board to contract 34823 in accordance with division (A) of section 3313.46 of the Revised 34824 Code for the installation, modification, or remodeling of energy 34825 conservation measures unless division (A) of section 3313.46 of 34826 the Revised Code does not apply pursuant to division (B)(3) of 34827 that section, in which case the contract shall be awarded through 34828 a competitive selection process pursuant to rules adopted by the 34829 ~~school~~ facilities construction commission. 34830

education under this section may include services for measurement 34832 and verification of energy savings associated with the guarantee. 34833
The annual cost of measurement and verification services shall not 34834 exceed ten per cent of the guaranteed savings in any year of the 34835 installment payment contract. 34836

(C) If a board of education determines that a surety bond is 34837 necessary to secure energy, water, or waste water cost savings 34838 guaranteed in a contract entered into by the board of education 34839 under this section, the energy services company shall provide a 34840 surety bond that satisfies all of the following requirements: 34841

(1) The penal sum of the surety bond for the first guarantee 34842 year shall equal the amount of savings included in the annual 34843 guaranteed savings amount that is measured and calculated in 34844 accordance with the measurement and verification plan included in 34845 the contract, but may not include guaranteed savings that are not 34846 measured or that are stipulated in the contract. The annual 34847 guaranteed savings amount shall include only the savings 34848 guaranteed in the contract for the one-year term that begins on 34849 the first day of the first savings guarantee year and may not 34850 include amounts from subsequent years. 34851

(2) The surety bond shall have a term of not more than one 34852 year unless renewed. At the option of the board of education, the 34853 surety bond may be renewed for one or two additional terms, each 34854 term not to exceed one year. The surety bond may not be renewed or 34855 extended so that it is in effect for more than three consecutive 34856
years. 34857

In the event of a renewal, the penal sum of the surety bond 34858 for each renewed year shall be revised so that the penal sum 34859 equals the annual guaranteed savings amount for such renewal year 34860 that is measured and calculated in accordance with the measurement 34861 and verification plan included in the contract, but may not 34862 include guaranteed savings that are not measured or that are 34863 stipulated in the contract. Regardless of the number of renewals 34864 of the bond, the aggregate liability under each renewed bond may 34865 not exceed the penal sum stated in the renewal certificate for the 34866 applicable renewal year. 34867

(3) The surety bond for the first year shall be issued within 34868 thirty days of the commencement of the first savings guarantee 34869 year under the contract. 34870

In the event of renewal, the surety shall deliver to the 34871 board of education a renewal certificate reflecting the revised 34872 penal sum within thirty days of the board of education's request. 34873
The board of education shall deliver the request for renewal not 34874 less than thirty days prior to the expiration date of the surety 34875 bond then in existence. A surety bond furnished pursuant to 34876 section 153.54 of the Revised Code shall not secure obligations 34877 related to energy, water, or waste water cost savings as 34878 referenced in division (C) of this section. 34879

(D) The board may issue the notes of the school district 34880 signed by the president and the treasurer of the board and 34881 specifying the terms of the purchase and securing the deferred 34882 payments provided in this section, payable at the times provided 34883 and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding the rate determined 34884 as provided in section 9.95 of the Revised Code. The notes may 34885 contain an option for prepayment and shall not be subject to 34886 Chapter 133. of the Revised Code. In the resolution authorizing 34887 the notes, the board may provide, without the vote of the electors 34888 of the district, for annually levying and collecting taxes in 34889 amounts sufficient to pay the interest on and retire the notes, 34890 except that the total net indebtedness of the district without a 34891 vote of the electors incurred under this and all other sections of 34892 the Revised Code, except section 3318.052 of the Revised Code, 34893 shall not exceed one per cent of the district's tax valuation. 34894 Revenues derived from local taxes or otherwise, for the purpose of 34895 conserving energy or for defraying the current operating expenses 34896 of the district, may be applied to the payment of interest and the 34897 retirement of such notes. The notes may be sold at private sale or 34898 given to the energy services company under the installment payment 34899 contract authorized by division (B) of this section. 34900

(E) Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in 34901 the calculation of the net indebtedness of a school district under 34902
section 133.06 of the Revised Code. 34903

(F) No school district board shall enter into an installment 34904 payment contract under division (B) of this section unless it 34905 first obtains a report of the costs of the energy conservation 34906 measures and the savings thereof as described under division (G) 34907 of section 133.06 of the Revised Code as a requirement for issuing 34908 energy securities, makes a finding that the amount spent on such 34909 measures is not likely to exceed the amount of money it would save 34910 in energy costs and resultant operational and maintenance costs as 34911 described in that division, except that that finding shall cover 34912 the ensuing fifteen years, and the ~~school~~ facilities construction 34913 commission determines that the district board's findings are 34914 reasonable and approves the contract as described in that 34915 division. 34916

The district board shall monitor the savings and maintain a 34917 report of those savings, which shall be submitted to the 34918 commission in the same manner as required by division (G) of 34919 section 133.06 of the Revised Code in the case of energy 34920 securities. 34921

Sec. 3313.603. (A) As used in this section: 34922

(1) "One unit" means a minimum of one hundred twenty hours of 34923 course instruction, except that for a laboratory course, "one 34924 unit" means a minimum of one hundred fifty hours of course 34925
instruction. 34926

(2) "One-half unit" means a minimum of sixty hours of course 34927 instruction, except that for physical education courses, "one-half 34928 unit" means a minimum of one hundred twenty hours of course 34929
instruction. 34930

(B) Beginning September 15, 2001, except as required in 34931 division (C) of this section and division (C) of section 3313.614 34932

following:	34942
(a) Biological sciences, one unit;	34943
(b) Physical sciences, one unit.	34944

(b) American government, one-half unit.	34949
(7) Social studies, two units.	34950
Beginning with students who enter ninth grade for the first	34951
time on or after July 1, 2017, the two units of instruction	34952 prescribed by division (B)(7) of this section shall include at	34953
least one-half unit of instruction in the study of world history	34954
and civilizations.	34955
(8) Elective units, seven units until September 15, 2003, and	34956
six units thereafter.	34957
Each student's electives shall include at least one unit, or	34958

business/technology, fine arts, and/or foreign language.	34960
(C) Beginning with students who enter ninth grade for the	34961
first time on or after July 1, 2010, except as provided in	34962 divisions (D) to (F) of this section, the requirements for	34963 graduation from every public and chartered nonpublic high school	34964 enter ninth grade for the first time on or after July 1, 2015, and 34974 who are pursuing a career-technical instructional track shall not 34975 be required to take algebra II, and instead may complete a 34976 career-based pathway mathematics course approved by the department 34977 of education as an alternative. 34978

(4) Physical education, one-half unit; 34979

(5) Science, three units with inquiry-based laboratory 34980 include the following, or their equivalent: 34983

(a) Physical sciences, one unit; 34984

(b) Life sciences, one unit; 34985

(c) Advanced study in one or more of the following sciences, 34986

following: 34994

(a) American history, one-half unit; 34995

(b) American government, one-half unit. 34996

Each school shall integrate the study of economics and 34998 financial literacy, as expressed in the social studies academic 34999 content standards adopted by the state board of education under 35000 division (A)(1) of section 3301.079 of the Revised Code and the 35001 academic content standards for financial literacy and 35002 entrepreneurship adopted under division (A)(2) of that section, 35003 into one or more existing social studies credits required under 35004 division (C)(7) of this section, or into the content of another 35005 class, so that every high school student receives instruction in 35006 those concepts. In developing the curriculum required by this 35007 paragraph, schools shall use available public-private partnerships 35008 and resources and materials that exist in business, industry, and 35009 through the centers for economics education at institutions of 35010 higher education in the state. 35011

Beginning with students who enter ninth grade for the first 35012
time on or after July 1, 2017, the two units of instruction 35013

and civilizations. 35016

(8) Five units consisting of one or any combination of 35017

by the congress of the United States under title 10 of the United 35021 States Code, or English language arts, mathematics, science, or 35022 social studies courses not otherwise required under division (C) 35023

Ohioans must be prepared to apply increased knowledge and 35025 skills in the workplace and to adapt their knowledge and skills 35026 quickly to meet the rapidly changing conditions of the 35027 twenty-first century. National studies indicate that all high 35028 school graduates need the same academic foundation, regardless of 35029 the opportunities they pursue after graduation. The goal of Ohio's 35030 system of elementary and secondary education is to prepare all 35031 students for and seamlessly connect all students to success in 35032 life beyond high school graduation, regardless of whether the next 35033 step is entering the workforce, beginning an apprenticeship, 35034 engaging in post-secondary training, serving in the military, or 35035 pursuing a college degree. 35036

The requirements for graduation prescribed in division (C) of 35037 this section are the standard expectation for all students 35038 entering ninth grade for the first time at a public or chartered 35039 nonpublic high school on or after July 1, 2010. A student may 35040 satisfy this expectation through a variety of methods, including, 35041 but not limited to, integrated, applied, career-technical, and 35042 traditional coursework. 35043

Whereas teacher quality is essential for student success when 35044 completing the requirements for graduation, the general assembly 35045 shall appropriate funds for strategic initiatives designed to 35046 strengthen schools' capacities to hire and retain highly qualified 35047 teachers in the subject areas required by the curriculum. Such 35048 initiatives are expected to require an investment of $120,000,000 35049 over five years. 35050

Stronger coordination between high schools and institutions 35051 of higher education is necessary to prepare students for more 35052 challenging academic endeavors and to lessen the need for academic 35053 remediation in college, thereby reducing the costs of higher 35054 education for Ohio's students, families, and the state. The state 35055 board and the chancellor of higher education shall develop 35056 policies to ensure that only in rare instances will students who 35057 complete the requirements for graduation prescribed in division 35058 (C) of this section require academic remediation after high 35059 school. 35060

School districts, community schools, and chartered nonpublic 35061 schools shall integrate technology into learning experiences 35062 across the curriculum in order to maximize efficiency, enhance 35063 learning, and prepare students for success in the 35064 technology-driven twenty-first century. Districts and schools 35065 shall use distance and web-based course delivery as a method of 35066 providing or augmenting all instruction required under this 35067 division, including laboratory experience in science. Districts 35068 and schools shall utilize technology access and electronic 35069 learning opportunities provided by the broadcast educational media 35070 commission, chancellor, the Ohio learning network, education 35071 technology centers, public television stations, and other public 35072 and private providers. 35073

(D) Except as provided in division (E) of this section, a 35074 student who enters ninth grade on or after July 1, 2010, and 35075 before July 1, 2016, may qualify for graduation from a public or 35076 chartered nonpublic high school even though the student has not 35077 completed the requirements for graduation prescribed in division 35078
(C) of this section if all of the following conditions are 35079 satisfied: 35080

(1) During the student's third year of attending high school, 35081 as determined by the school, the student and the student's parent, 35082 guardian, or custodian sign and file with the school a written 35083 statement asserting the parent's, guardian's, or custodian's 35084 consent to the student's graduating without completing the 35085 requirements for graduation prescribed in division (C) of this 35086 section and acknowledging that one consequence of not completing 35087 those requirements is ineligibility to enroll in most state 35088 universities in Ohio without further coursework. 35089

(2) The student and parent, guardian, or custodian fulfill 35090 any procedural requirements the school stipulates to ensure the 35091 student's and parent's, guardian's, or custodian's informed 35092 consent and to facilitate orderly filing of statements under 35093 division (D)(1) of this section. Annually, each district or school 35094 shall notify the department of the number of students who choose 35095 to qualify for graduation under division (D) of this section and 35096 the number of students who complete the student's success plan and 35097 graduate from high school. 35098

(3) The student and the student's parent, guardian, or 35099 custodian and a representative of the student's high school 35100 jointly develop a student success plan for the student in the 35101 manner described in division (C)(1) of section 3313.6020 of the 35102 Revised Code that specifies the student matriculating to a 35103 two-year degree program, acquiring a business and 35104 industry-recognized credential, or entering an apprenticeship. 35105

(4) The student's high school provides counseling and support 35106 for the student related to the plan developed under division 35107 (D)(3) of this section during the remainder of the student's high 35108 school experience. 35109

(5)(a) Except as provided in division (D)(5)(b) of this 35110 section, the student successfully completes, at a minimum, the 35111 curriculum prescribed in division (B) of this section. 35112

(b) Beginning with students who enter ninth grade for the 35113 first time on or after July 1, 2014, a student shall be required 35114 to complete successfully, at the minimum, the curriculum 35115 prescribed in division (B) of this section, except as follows: 35116

(i) Mathematics, four units, one unit which shall be one of 35117
the following: 35118

(I) Probability and statistics; 35119

(II) Computer programming; 35120

(III) Applied mathematics or quantitative reasoning; 35121

(IV) Any other course approved by the department using 35122 standards established by the superintendent not later than October 35123

(ii) Elective units, five units;	35125
(iii) Science, three units as prescribed by division (B) of this section which shall include inquiry-based laboratory experience that engages students in asking valid scientific questions and gathering and analyzing information.	35126 35127 35128 35129
The department, in collaboration with the chancellor, shall analyze student performance data to determine if there are mitigating factors that warrant extending the exception permitted by division (D) of this section to high school classes beyond those entering ninth grade before July 1, 2016. The department shall submit its findings and any recommendations not later than December 1, 2015, to the speaker and minority leader of the house of representatives, the president and minority leader of the senate, the chairpersons and ranking minority members of the standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate that consider education legislation, the state board of education, and the superintendent of public instruction.	35130 35131 35132 35133 35134 35135 35136 35137 35138 35139 35140 35141
(E) Each school district and chartered nonpublic school retains the authority to require an even more challenging minimum curriculum for high school graduation than specified in division (B) or (C) of this section. A school district board of education, through the adoption of a resolution, or the governing authority of a chartered nonpublic school may stipulate any of the following:	35142 35143 35144 35145 35146 35147 35148
(1) A minimum high school curriculum that requires more than twenty units of academic credit to graduate;	35149 35150
(2) An exception to the district's or school's minimum high school curriculum that is comparable to the exception provided in division (D) of this section but with additional requirements, which may include a requirement that the student successfully complete more than the minimum curriculum prescribed in division	35151 35152 35153 35154 35155

(B) of this section;	35156
(3) That no exception comparable to that provided in division	35157
(D) of this section is available.	35158
(F) A student enrolled in a dropout prevention and recovery	35159 program, which program has received a waiver from the department,	35160 may qualify for graduation from high school by successfully	35161 completing a competency-based instructional program administered	35162 by the dropout prevention and recovery program in lieu of	35163 completing the requirements for graduation prescribed in division	35164
(C) of this section. The department shall grant a waiver to a	35165 dropout prevention and recovery program, within sixty days after	35166
the program applies for the waiver, if the program meets all of	35167
the following conditions:	35168
(1) The program serves only students not younger than sixteen	35169 years of age and not older than twenty-one years of age.	35170
(2) The program enrolls students who, at the time of their	35171
initial enrollment, either, or both, are at least one grade level	35172 behind their cohort age groups or experience crises that	35173 significantly interfere with their academic progress such that	35174
they are prevented from continuing their traditional programs.	35175
(3) The program requires students to attain at least the	35176 applicable score designated for each of the assessments prescribed	35177 under division (B)(1) of section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code or,	35178 to the extent prescribed by rule of the state board under division	35179
(D)(5) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code, division (B)(2)	35180
of that section.	35181
(4) The program develops a student success plan for the	35182 student in the manner described in division (C)(1) of section	35183
3313.6020 of the Revised Code that specifies the student's	35184
matriculating to a two-year degree program, acquiring a business	35185
and industry-recognized credential, or entering an apprenticeship.	35186

(5) The program provides counseling and support for the student related to the plan developed under division (F)(4) of this section during the remainder of the student's high school experience.

(6) The program requires the student and the student's parent, guardian, or custodian to sign and file, in accordance with procedural requirements stipulated by the program, a written statement asserting the parent's, guardian's, or custodian's consent to the student's graduating without completing the requirements for graduation prescribed in division (C) of this section and acknowledging that one consequence of not completing those requirements is ineligibility to enroll in most state universities in Ohio without further coursework.

(7) Prior to receiving the waiver, the program has submitted to the department an instructional plan that demonstrates how the academic content standards adopted by the state board under section 3301.079 of the Revised Code will be taught and assessed.

(8) Prior to receiving the waiver, the program has submitted to the department a policy on career advising that satisfies the requirements of section 3313.6020 of the Revised Code, with an emphasis on how every student will receive career advising.

Divisions (F)(8) and (9) of this section apply only to waivers granted on or after July 1, 2015.

If the department does not act either to grant the waiver or to reject the program application for the waiver within sixty days as required under this section, the waiver shall be considered to 35218 be granted. 35219

(G) Every high school may permit students below the ninth 35220 grade to take advanced work. If a high school so permits, it shall 35221 award high school credit for successful completion of the advanced 35222 work and shall count such advanced work toward the graduation 35223 requirements of division (B) or (C) of this section if the 35224 advanced work was both: 35225

(1) Taught by a person who possesses a license or certificate 35226 issued under section 3301.071, 3319.22, or 3319.222 of the Revised 35227
Code that is valid for teaching high school; 35228

(2) Designated by the board of education of the city, local, 35229 or exempted village school district, the board of the cooperative 35230 education school district, or the governing authority of the 35231 chartered nonpublic school as meeting the high school curriculum 35232 requirements. 35233

Each high school shall record on the student's high school 35234 transcript all high school credit awarded under division (G) of 35235 this section. In addition, if the student completed a seventh- or 35236 eighth-grade fine arts course described in division (K) of this 35237 section and the course qualified for high school credit under that 35238 division, the high school shall record that course on the 35239 student's high school transcript. 35240

(H) The department shall make its individual academic career 35241 plan available through its Ohio career information system web site 35242 for districts and schools to use as a tool for communicating with 35243 and providing guidance to students and families in selecting high 35244 school courses. 35245

(I) A school district or chartered nonpublic school may 35246 integrate academic content in a subject area for which the state 35247 board has adopted standards under section 3301.079 of the Revised 35248

Code into a course in a different subject area, including a 35249 career-technical education course, in accordance with guidance for 35250 integrated coursework developed by the department. Upon successful 35251 completion of an integrated course, a student may receive credit 35252 for both subject areas that were integrated into the course. Units 35253 earned in English language arts, mathematics, science, and social 35254 studies that are for subject area content delivered through 35255 integrated academic and career-technical instruction are eligible 35256 to meet the graduation requirements of division (B) or (C) of this 35257
section. 35258

For purposes of meeting graduation requirements, if an 35259 end-of-course examination has been prescribed under section 35260 3301.0712 of the Revised Code for the subject area delivered 35261 through integrated instruction, the school district or school may 35262 administer the related subject area examinations upon the 35263 student's completion of the integrated course. 35264

Nothing in division (I) of this section shall be construed to 35265 excuse any school district, chartered nonpublic school, or student 35266 from any requirement in the Revised Code related to curriculum, 35267 assessments, or the awarding of a high school diploma. 35268

(J)(1) The state board, in consultation with the chancellor, 35269 shall adopt a statewide plan implementing methods for students to 35270 earn units of high school credit based on a demonstration of 35271 subject area competency, instead of or in combination with 35272 completing hours of classroom instruction. The state board shall 35273 adopt the plan not later than March 31, 2009, and commence phasing 35274 in the plan during the 2009-2010 school year. The plan shall 35275 include a standard method for recording demonstrated proficiency 35276 on high school transcripts. Each school district and community 35277 school shall comply with the state board's plan adopted under this 35278 division and award units of high school credit in accordance with 35279 the plan. The state board may adopt existing methods for earning 35280 high school credit based on a demonstration of subject area 35281 competency as necessary prior to the 2009-2010 school year. 35282

update the statewide plan adopted pursuant to division (J)(1) of 35284 this section to also include methods for students enrolled in 35285 seventh and eighth grade to meet curriculum requirements based on 35286 a demonstration of subject area competency, instead of or in 35287 combination with completing hours of classroom instruction. 35288 Beginning with the 2017-2018 school year, each school district and 35289 community school also shall comply with the updated plan adopted 35290 pursuant to this division and permit students enrolled in seventh 35291 and eighth grade to meet curriculum requirements based on subject 35292 area competency in accordance with the plan. 35293

(3) Not later than December 31, 2017, the department shall 35294 develop a framework for school districts and community schools to 35295 use in granting units of high school credit to students who 35296 demonstrate subject area competency through work-based learning 35297 experiences, internships, or cooperative education. Beginning with 35298 the 2018-2019 school year, each district and community school 35299 shall comply with the framework. Each district and community 35300 school also shall review any policy it has adopted regarding the 35301 demonstration of subject area competency to identify ways to 35302 incorporate work-based learning experiences, internships, and 35303 cooperative education into the policy in order to increase student 35304 engagement and opportunities to earn units of high school credit. 35305

(K) This division does not apply to students who qualify for 35306 graduation from high school under division (D) or (F) of this 35307 section, or to students pursuing a career-technical instructional 35308 track as determined by the school district board of education or 35309 the chartered nonpublic school's governing authority. 35310 Nevertheless, the general assembly encourages such students to 35311 consider enrolling in a fine arts course as an elective. 35312

Beginning with students who enter ninth grade for the first 35313
time on or after July 1, 2010, each student enrolled in a public 35314 or chartered nonpublic high school shall complete two semesters or 35315 the equivalent of fine arts to graduate from high school. The 35316 coursework may be completed in any of grades seven to twelve. Each 35317 student who completes a fine arts course in grade seven or eight 35318 may elect to count that course toward the five units of electives 35319 required for graduation under division (C)(8) of this section, if 35320 the course satisfied the requirements of division (G) of this 35321 section. In that case, the high school shall award the student 35322 high school credit for the course and count the course toward the 35323 five units required under division (C)(8) of this section. If the 35324 course in grade seven or eight did not satisfy the requirements of 35325 division (G) of this section, the high school shall not award the 35326 student high school credit for the course but shall count the 35327 course toward the two semesters or the equivalent of fine arts 35328 required by this division. 35329

(L) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, 35330 the board of education of each school district and the governing 35331 authority of each chartered nonpublic school may adopt a policy to 35332 excuse from the high school physical education requirement each 35333 student who, during high school, has participated in 35334 interscholastic athletics, marching band, or cheerleading for at 35335 least two full seasons or in the junior reserve officer training 35336 corps for at least two full school years. If the board or 35337 authority adopts such a policy, the board or authority shall not 35338 require the student to complete any physical education course as a 35339 condition to graduate. However, the student shall be required to 35340 complete one-half unit, consisting of at least sixty hours of 35341 instruction, in another course of study. In the case of a student 35342 who has participated in the junior reserve officer training corps 35343 for at least two full school years, credit received for that 35344 participation may be used to satisfy the requirement to complete 35345

one-half unit in another course of study. 35346

(M) It is important that high school students learn and 35347 understand United States history and the governments of both the 35348 United States and the state of Ohio. Therefore, beginning with 35349 students who enter ninth grade for the first time on or after July 35350 1, 2012, the study of American history and American government 35351 include the study of all of the following documents: 35353

(M)(1) to (4) of this section shall include study of that document 35360

The study of American history and government required by 35362 divisions (B)(6) and (C)(6) of this section shall include the 35363 historical evidence of the role of documents such as the 35364 of the provisions of the Constitution and Bill of Rights. 35367

Sec. 3313.6023. The board of education of each school 35368 district shall provide training in the use of an automated 35369 external defibrillator to each person employed by that district, 35370 except for substitutes, adult education instructors who are 35371 scheduled to work the full-time equivalent of less than one 35372 hundred twenty days per school year, or persons who are employed 35373 on an as-needed, seasonal, or intermittent basis. This training 35374 may be incorporated into the in-service training required by 35375 division (A) of section 3319.073 of the Revised Code. For this 35376 purpose, the board shall use one of the instructional programs 35377 listed in divisions (B)(1) and (2) of section 3313.6021 of the 35378

Revised Code. 35379

Each person to whom this section applies shall complete the 35380 training not later than July 1, 2018, and at least once every five 35381 person has met the assessment requirements of division (A)(1) or 35386

(2) of this section, as applicable. 35387

2014, the person has met the requirement prescribed by section 35395

Sec. 3314.016. This section applies to any entity that 35875 sponsors a community school, regardless of whether section 35876 3314.021 or 3314.027 of the Revised Code exempts the entity from 35877 the requirement to be approved for sponsorship under divisions 35878
(A)(2) and (B)(1) of section 3314.015 of the Revised Code. The 35879 office of Ohio school sponsorship established under section 35880 3314.029 of the Revised Code shall be rated under division (B) of 35881 this section, but divisions (A) and (C) of this section do not 35882 apply to the office. 35883

(A) An entity that sponsors a community school shall be 35884 permitted to enter into contracts under section 3314.03 of the 35885 Revised Code to sponsor additional community schools only if the 35886 entity meets all of the following criteria: 35887

(1) The entity is in compliance with all provisions of this 35888 chapter requiring sponsors of community schools to report data or 35889 information to the department of education. 35890

(2) The entity is not rated as "ineffective" under division 35891

(B)(1) Beginning with the 2015-2016 school year, the department shall develop and implement an evaluation system that annually rates and assigns an overall rating to each entity that sponsors a community school based on the following components:

(a) Academic performance of students enrolled in community schools sponsored by the same entity. The academic performance component shall be derived from the performance measures prescribed for the state report cards under section 3302.03 or 3314.017 of the Revised Code, and shall be based on the performance of the schools for the school year for which the evaluation is conducted. In addition to the academic performance for a specific school year, the academic performance component shall also include year-to-year changes in the overall sponsor portfolio. For a community school for which no graded performance measures are applicable or available, the department shall use nonreport card performance measures specified in the contract between the community school and the sponsor under division (A)(4) of section 3314.03 of the Revised Code.

If the department uses a component prescribed under division (C)(3) of section 3302.03 of the Revised Code to calculate the academic performance component specified under division (B)(1)(a) of this section, the department shall weight the progress component specified under division (C)(3)(c) of section 3302.03 of the Revised Code at sixty per cent of the total score for the academic performance component under this section.

(b) Adherence by a sponsor to the quality practices prescribed by the department under division (B)(3) of this section. For a sponsor that was rated "effective" or "exemplary" on its most recent rating, the department may evaluate that 35925 sponsor's adherence to quality practices once over a period of 35926 three years. If the department elects to evaluate a sponsor once 35927 over a period of three years, the most recent rating for a 35928 sponsor's adherence to quality practices shall be used when 35929 determining an annual overall rating conducted under this section. 35930

(c) Compliance with all applicable laws and administrative 35931 rules by an entity that sponsors a community school. 35932

(2) In calculating an academic performance component, the 35933 department shall exclude all community schools that have been in 35934 operation for not more than two full school years and all 35935 community schools described in division (A)(4)(b) of section 35936 3314.35 of the Revised Code. However, the academic performance of 35937 the community schools described in division (A)(4)(b) of section 35938 3314.35 of the Revised Code shall be reported, but shall not be 35939 used as a factor when determining a sponsoring entity's rating 35940
under this section. 35941

(3) The department, in consultation with entities that 35942 sponsor community schools, shall prescribe quality practices for 35943 community school sponsors and develop an instrument to measure 35944 adherence to those quality practices. The quality practices shall 35945 be based on standards developed by the national association of 35946 charter school authorizers or any other nationally organized 35947 community school organization. 35948

(4)(a) The department may permit peer review of a sponsor's 35949 adherence to the quality practices prescribed under division 35950 (B)(3) of this section. Peer reviewers shall be limited to 35951 individuals employed by sponsors rated "effective" or "exemplary" 35952 on the most recent ratings conducted under this section. 35953

(b) The department shall require individuals participating in 35954 peer review under division (B)(4)(a) of this section to complete 35955 training approved or established by the department. 35956

(c) The department may enter into an agreement with another 35957 entity to provide training to individuals conducting peer review 35958 of sponsors. Prior to entering into an agreement with an entity, 35959 the department shall review and approve of the entity's training 35960
program. 35961

(5) Not later than July 1, 2013, the state board of education 35962 shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 35963 Code prescribing standards for measuring compliance with 35964 applicable laws and rules under division (B)(1)(c) of this 35965
section. 35966

(6) The department annually shall rate all entities that 35967 sponsor community schools as either "exemplary," "effective," 35968 "ineffective," or "poor," based on the components prescribed by 35969 division (B) of this section, where each component is weighted 35970 equally. A separate rating shall be given by the department for 35971 each component of the evaluation system. 35972

The department shall publish the ratings between the first 35973 day of October and the fifteenth day of October. 35974

Not later than forty-five days prior to the department's 35975 publication of the final ratings, the department shall notify each 35976 sponsor in writing of its preliminary ratings and determinations 35977 for each component of the evaluation system. Each sponsor may, 35978 within ten days after receiving the preliminary ratings, make a 35979 written request for an informal hearing to dispute the overall 35980 rating or determination for any component. The department shall 35981 hold an informal hearing within ten days after receipt of a 35982 request for a hearing. Prior to the department's publication of 35983 the final ratings, the department shall issue a written decision 35984 either affirming or modifying the ratings and determinations and 35985 the reasons for that decision. 35986

The department shall provide training on an annual basis 35987 regarding the evaluation system prescribed under this section. The 35988 training shall, at a minimum, describe methodology, timelines, and 35989 data required for the evaluation system. The first training 35990 session shall occur not later than ~~thirty days after the effective~~ 35991 ~~date of this section~~ March 2, 2016. 35992

If the department uses a points system to determine component 35993 ratings and overall ratings under this section, the department 35994 shall not assign an automatic overall rating to an entity based 35995 solely on the entity receiving an equivalent score of zero points 35996 on one or more of the individual components prescribed in division 35997 (B)(1)(b) or (c) of this section. An overall rating shall be the 35998 cumulative score of the individual components prescribed under 35999 this section unless the entity receives a score of zero on the 36000 academic performance component prescribed in division (B)(1)(a) of 36001
this section. 36002

(7)(a) Entities with an overall rating of "exemplary" for at 36003 least two consecutive years may take advantage of the following 36004 incentives: 36005

(i) Renewal of the written agreement with the department, not 36006 to exceed ten years, provided that the entity consents to 36007 continued evaluation of adherence to quality practices as 36008 described in division (B)(1)(b) of this section; 36009

(ii) The ability to extend the term of the contract between 36010 the sponsoring entity and the community school beyond the term 36011 described in the written agreement with the department; 36012

(iii) An exemption from the preliminary agreement and 36013 contract adoption and execution deadline requirements prescribed 36014 in division (D) of section 3314.02 of the Revised Code; 36015

(iv) An exemption from the automatic contract expiration 36016 requirement, should a new community school fail to open by the 36017 thirtieth day of September of the calendar year in which the 36018 community school contract is executed; 36019

(v) No limit on the number of community schools the entity 36020 may sponsor; 36021

(vi) No territorial restrictions on sponsorship. 36022

An entity may continue to sponsor any community schools with 36023 which it entered into agreements under division (B)(7)(a)(v) or 36024 (vi) of this section while rated "exemplary," notwithstanding the 36025 fact that the entity later receives a lower overall rating. 36026

(b)(i) Entities that receive an overall rating of 36027
"ineffective" shall be prohibited from sponsoring any new or 36028 additional community schools during the time in which the sponsor 36029 is rated as "ineffective" and shall be subject to a quality 36030 improvement plan based on correcting the deficiencies that led to 36031 the "ineffective" rating, with timelines and benchmarks that have 36032 been established by the department. 36033

(ii) Entities that receive an overall rating of "ineffective" 36034 on their three most recent ratings shall have all sponsorship 36035 authority revoked. Within thirty days after receiving its third 36036 rating of "ineffective," the entity may appeal the revocation of 36037 its sponsorship authority to the superintendent of public 36038 instruction, who shall appoint an independent hearing officer to 36039 conduct a hearing in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised 36040 Code. The hearing shall be conducted within thirty days after 36041 receipt of the notice of appeal. Within forty-five days after the 36042 hearing is completed, the state board of education shall determine 36043 whether the revocation is appropriate based on the hearing 36044 conducted by the independent hearing officer, and if determined 36045 appropriate, the revocation shall be confirmed. 36046

(c) Entities that receive an overall rating of "poor" shall 36047 under division (H)(3) of this section, the department shall waive 36820 law enforcement emergencies, inoperability of school buses or 36824 other equipment necessary to the school's operation, damage to a 36825

The superintendent, auditor of state, and the governor shall jointly make recommendations to the general assembly for legislative changes that may be required to assure fiscal and academic accountability for such schools. 36865
36866
36868

(K)(1) If the department determines that a review of a community school's enrollment is necessary, such review shall be completed and written notice of the findings shall be provided to the governing authority of the community school and its sponsor within ninety days of the end of the community school's fiscal year, unless extended for a period not to exceed thirty additional days for one of the following reasons: 36869
36870
36875

(a) The department and the community school mutually agree to the extension. 36876
36877

(b) Delays in data submission caused by either a community school or its sponsor. 36878

(2) If the review results in a finding that additional funding is owed to the school, such payment shall be made within thirty days of the written notice. If the review results in a finding that the community school owes moneys to the state, the following procedure shall apply:

(a) Within ten business days of the receipt of the notice of findings, the community school may appeal the department's determination to the state board of education or its designee.

(b) The board or its designee shall conduct an informal hearing on the matter within thirty days of receipt of such an appeal and shall issue a decision within fifteen days of the conclusion of the hearing.

(c) If the board has enlisted a designee to conduct the hearing, the designee shall certify its decision to the board. The board may accept the decision of the designee or may reject the decision of the designee and issue its own decision on the matter.

(d) Any decision made by the board under this division is final.

(3) If it is decided that the community school owes moneys to the state, the department shall deduct such amount from the school's future payments in accordance with guidelines issued by the superintendent of public instruction.

(L) The department shall not subtract from a school district's state aid account and shall not pay to a community school under division (C) of this section any amount for any of the following:

(1) Any student who has graduated from the twelfth grade of a public or nonpublic high school;

(2) Any student who is not a resident of the state;

(3) Any student who was enrolled in the community school during the previous school year when assessments were administered 36910 under section 3301.0711 of the Revised Code but did not take one 36911 or more of the assessments required by that section and was not 36912 excused pursuant to division (C)(1) or (3) of that section, unless 36913 the superintendent of public instruction grants the student a 36914 waiver from the requirement to take the assessment and a parent is 36915 not paying tuition for the student pursuant to section 3314.26 of 36916 the Revised Code. The superintendent may grant a waiver only for 36917 good cause in accordance with rules adopted by the state board of 36918

education. 36919

(4) Any student who has attained the age of twenty-two years, 36920 except for veterans of the armed services whose attendance was 36921 interrupted before completing the recognized twelve-year course of 36922 the public schools by reason of induction or enlistment in the 36923 armed forces and who apply for enrollment in a community school 36924 not later than four years after termination of war or their 36925 honorable discharge. If, however, any such veteran elects to 36926 enroll in special courses organized for veterans for whom tuition 36927 is paid under federal law, or otherwise, the department shall not 36928 subtract from a school district's state aid account and shall not 36929 pay to a community school under division (C) of this section any 36930 amount for that veteran. 36931

Sec. 3314.104. As used in this section, "teacher" has the 36932 same meaning as in section 3319.09 of the Revised Code, except 36933 that it does not include a principal, supervisor, superintendent, 36934
or other school administrator. 36935

The governing authority of a community school may enter into 36936 an agreement with any teacher it employs under which the governing 36937 authority provides to the teacher early retirement incentives, 36938 severance pay, or both, in return for an agreement to retire from 36939
the teacher's position, only if the governing authority determines 36940 that the agreement is financially sound. 36941

Notwithstanding division (A) of section 4117.10 of the 36942
Revised Code, this section prevails over any collective bargaining 36943
agreement entered into under Chapter 4117. of the Revised Code on 36944
or after the effective date of this section. 36945

Sec. 3316.20. (A)(1) The school district solvency assistance 36946 fund is hereby created in the state treasury, to consist of such 36947 amounts designated for the purposes of the fund by the general 36948 assembly. The fund shall be used to provide assistance and grants 36949 to school districts to enable them to remain solvent and to pay 36950 unforeseeable expenses of a temporary or emergency nature that 36951 they are unable to pay from existing resources. 36952

(2) There is hereby created within the fund an account known 36953 as the school district shared resource account, which shall 36954 consist of money appropriated to it by the general assembly. The 36955 money in the account shall be used solely for solvency assistance 36956 to school districts that have been declared under division (B) of 36957 section 3316.03 of the Revised Code to be in a state of fiscal 36958 emergency. 36959

(3) There is hereby created within the fund an account known 36960 as the catastrophic expenditures account, which shall consist of 36961 money appropriated to the account by the general assembly plus all 36962 investment earnings of the fund. Money in the account shall be 36963 used solely for the following: 36964

(a) Solvency assistance to school districts that have been 36965 declared under division (B) of section 3316.03 of the Revised Code 36966 to be in a state of fiscal emergency, in the event that all money 36967 in the shared resource account is utilized for solvency 36968 assistance; 36969

(b) Grants to school districts under division (C) of this 36970

section. 36971

(B) Solvency assistance payments under division (A)(2) or 36972
(3)(a) of this section shall be made from the fund by the 36973 superintendent of public instruction in accordance with rules 36974 adopted by the director of budget and management, after consulting 36975 with the superintendent, specifying approval criteria and 36976 procedures necessary for administering the fund. 36977

The fund shall be reimbursed for any solvency assistance 36978 amounts paid under division (A)(2) or (3)(a) of this section not 36979 later than the end of the second fiscal year following the fiscal 36980 year in which the solvency assistance payment was made, except 36981 that, upon the approval of the director of budget and management 36982 and the superintendent of public instruction, the fund may be 36983 reimbursed in another fiscal year designated by the director and 36984 superintendent that is not later than the end of the tenth fiscal 36985 year following the fiscal year in which the solvency assistance 36986 payment was made. If not made directly by the school district, 36987 such reimbursement shall be made by the director of budget and 36988 management from the amounts the school district would otherwise 36989 receive pursuant to Chapter 3317. of the Revised Code, or from any 36990 other funds appropriated for the district by the general assembly. 36991 Reimbursements shall be credited to the respective account from 36992 which the solvency assistance paid to the district was deducted. 36993

(C) The superintendent of public instruction may make 36994 recommendations, and the controlling board may grant money from 36995 the catastrophic expenditures account to any school district that 36996 suffers an unforeseen catastrophic event that severely depletes 36997 the district's financial resources. The superintendent shall make 36998 recommendations for the grants in accordance with rules adopted by 36999 the director of budget and management, after consulting with the 37000 superintendent. A school district shall not be required to repay 37001 any grant awarded to the district under this division, unless the 37002 district receives money from this state or a third party, 37003 including an agency of the government of the United States, 37004 specifically for the purpose of compensating the district for 37005 revenue lost or expenses incurred as a result of the unforeseen 37006 catastrophic event. If a school district receives a grant from the 37007 catastrophic expenditures account on the basis of the same 37008 circumstances for which an adjustment or recomputation is 37009 authorized under section 3317.025, ~~3317.026~~, ~~3317.027~~, 3317.028, 37010 3317.0210, or 3317.0211 of the Revised Code, the department of 37011 education shall reduce the adjustment or recomputation by an 37012 amount not to exceed the total amount of the grant, and an amount 37013 equal to the reduction shall be transferred, from the funding 37014 source from which the adjustment or recomputation would be paid, 37015 to the catastrophic expenditures account. Any adjustment or 37016 recomputation under such sections that is in excess of the total 37017 amount of the grant shall be paid to the school district. 37018

Sec. 3317.01. As used in this section, "school district," 37019 unless otherwise specified, means any city, local, exempted 37020 village, joint vocational, or cooperative education school 37021 district and any educational service center. 37022

This chapter shall be administered by the state board of 37023 education. The superintendent of public instruction shall 37024 calculate the amounts payable to each school district and shall 37025 certify the amounts payable to each eligible district to the 37026 treasurer of the district as provided by this chapter. As soon as 37027 possible after such amounts are calculated, the superintendent 37028 shall certify to the treasurer of each school district the 37029 district's adjusted charge-off increase, as defined in section 37030 5705.211 of the Revised Code. Certification of moneys pursuant to 37031 this section shall include the amounts payable to each school 37032 building, at a frequency determined by the superintendent, for 37033 each subgroup of students, as defined in section 3317.40 of the 37034

Revised Code, receiving services, provided for by state funding, 37035 from the district or school. No moneys shall be distributed 37036 pursuant to this chapter without the approval of the controlling 37037 board. 37038

The state board of education shall, in accordance with 37039 appropriations made by the general assembly, meet the financial 37040 obligations of this chapter. 37041

Moneys distributed to school districts pursuant to this 37042 chapter shall be calculated based on the annual enrollment 37043 calculated from the three reports required under sections 3317.03 37044 and 3317.036 of the Revised Code and paid on a fiscal year basis, 37045 beginning with the first day of July and extending through the 37046 thirtieth day of June. In any given fiscal year, prior to school 37047 districts submitting the first report required under section 37048 3317.03 of the Revised Code, enrollment for the districts shall be 37049 calculated based on the third report submitted by the districts 37050 for the previous fiscal year. The moneys appropriated for each 37051 fiscal year shall be distributed periodically to each school 37052 district unless otherwise provided for. The state board, in June 37053 of each year, shall submit to the controlling board the state 37054 board's year-end distributions pursuant to this chapter. 37055

Except as otherwise provided, payments under this chapter 37056 shall be made only to those school districts in which: 37057

(A) The school district, except for any educational service 37058 center and any joint vocational or cooperative education school 37059 district, levies for current operating expenses at least twenty 37060 mills. Levies for joint vocational or cooperative education school 37061 districts or county school financing districts, limited to or to 37062 the extent apportioned to current expenses, shall be included in 37063 this qualification requirement. School district income tax levies 37064 under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, limited to or to the 37065 extent apportioned to current operating expenses, shall be 37066 included in this qualification requirement to the extent 37067 determined by the tax commissioner under division ~~(D)~~(C) of 37068

section 3317.021 of the Revised Code. 37069

(B) The school year next preceding the fiscal year for which 37070 such payments are authorized meets the requirement of section 37071 3313.48 of the Revised Code, with regard to the minimum number of 37072 hours school must be open for instruction with pupils in 37073 attendance, for individualized parent-teacher conference and 37074 reporting periods, and for professional meetings of teachers. 37075

A school district shall not be considered to have failed to 37076 comply with this division because schools were open for 37077 instruction but either twelfth grade students were excused from 37078 attendance for up to the equivalent of three school days or only a 37079 portion of the kindergarten students were in attendance for up to 37080 the equivalent of three school days in order to allow for the 37081 gradual orientation to school of such students. 37082

A board of education or governing board of an educational 37083 service center which has not conformed with other law and the 37084 rules pursuant thereto, shall not participate in the distribution 37085 of funds authorized by this chapter, except for good and 37086 sufficient reason established to the satisfaction of the state 37087 board of education and the state controlling board. 37088

All funds allocated to school districts under this chapter, 37089 except those specifically allocated for other purposes, shall be 37090 used to pay current operating expenses only. 37091

Sec. 3317.013. The amounts for the following categories of 37092 special education programs, as these programs are defined for 37093 purposes of Chapter 3323. of the Revised Code, are as follows: 37094

(A) An amount of ~~$1,547, in fiscal year 2016, or $1,578, in~~ 37095

Sec. 3317.017. The department of education shall compute a 37161 school district's state share index as follows: 37162

(A) Calculate the district's valuation index, which equals 37163
the following quotient: 37164

(The district's three-year average valuation / the district's 37165 total ADM) / (the statewide three-year average valuation for 37166 school districts with a total ADM greater than zero / the 37167 statewide total ADM) 37168

(B)(1) Calculate the district's median income index, which 37169 equals the following quotient: 37170

(The district's median Ohio adjusted gross income / the 37171 median of the median Ohio adjusted gross income of all districts 37172 statewide with a total ADM greater than zero) 37173

(2) Calculate the district's income index, which equals the 37174 following sum: 37175

(The district's median income index X 0.5) + {[the three-year 37176 average federal adjusted gross income of the school district's 37177 residents / the district's formula ADM for fiscal year 2017] / 37178 (the three-year average federal adjusted gross income of all 37179 districts statewide with a formula ADM for fiscal year 2017 37180 greater than zero / the statewide formula ADM for fiscal year 37181 2017)] X 0.5} 37182

(C) Determine the district's wealth index as follows: 37183

(1) If the district's income index is less than the 37184 district's valuation index and the district's median income index 37185 is less than or equal to 1.5, then the district's wealth index 37186 shall be equal to [(0.4 X the district's income index) + (0.6 X 37187 the district's valuation index)]. 37188

(2) If the district's income index does not meet both of the 37189 conditions described in division (C)(1) of this section, then the 37190 district's wealth index shall be equal to the district's valuation 37191 index. 37192

(D) Determine the district's state share index as follows: 37193

(1) If the district's wealth index is less than or equal to 37194
0.35, then the district's state share index shall be equal to 37195
0.90. 37196

(2) If the district's wealth index is greater than 0.35 but 37197 less than or equal to 0.90, then the district's state share index 37198 shall be equal to $\{0.40 \times [(0.90 - \text{the district's wealth index}) /$ 37199
 $0.55]\} + 0.50$. 37200

less than 1.8, then the district's state share index shall be 37202 equal to $\{0.45 \times [(1.8 - \text{the district's wealth index}) / 0.9]\} +$ 37203
0.05. 37204

(4) If the district's wealth index is greater than or equal 37205 to 1.8, then the district's state share index shall be equal to 37206 0.05. 37207

(E)(1) For each school district for which the tax-exempt 37208 value of the district, as certified under division (A)(4) of 37209 section 3317.021 of the Revised Code, equals or exceeds thirty per 37210 cent of the potential value of the district, the department shall 37211 calculate the difference between the district's tax-exempt value 37212 and thirty per cent of the district's potential value. For this 37213 purpose, the "potential value" of a school district is the 37214 three-year average valuation of the district plus the tax-exempt 37215 value of the district. 37216

(2) For each school district to which division (E)(1) of this 37217 section applies, the department shall adjust the district's 37218 three-year average valuation used in the calculation under 37219 division (A) of this section by subtracting from it the amount 37220 calculated under division (E)(1) of this section. The department 37221 shall not, however, make any adjustments to the statewide 37222

three-year average valuation used in the calculation under 37223
division (A) of this section. 37224

(F)(1) For purposes of division (F) of this section, an 37225 "eligible school district" is a school district that satisfies all 37226
of the following: 37227

(a) The total taxable value of public utility personal 37228 property in the district is at least ten per cent of the 37229 district's total taxable value for tax year 2015. 37230

(b) The total taxable value of public utility personal 37231 property in the district for tax year 2016 is at least ten per 37232 cent less than the total taxable value of public utility property 37233 in the district for tax year 2015. 37234

(c) The total taxable value of power plants in the district 37235 for tax year 2016 is at least ten per cent less than the total 37236 taxable value of power plants in the district for tax year 2015. 37237

(2) Notwithstanding divisions (A) to (E) of this section, the 37238 department shall compute each eligible school district's state 37239 share index as follows: 37240

(a) Calculate the district's valuation index in accordance 37241 with division (A) of this section, except that, if the district's 37242 total taxable value for tax year 2016 is less than the district's 37243
"three-year average valuation," the district's "three-year average 37244 valuation" shall be replaced in that calculation with the 37245 district's total taxable value for tax year 2016; 37246

(b) Calculate the district's median income index and income 37247 index in accordance with division (B) of this section; 37248

(c) Determine the district's wealth index in accordance with division (C) of this section using the district's valuation index, median income index, and income index as calculated under divisions (F)(2)(a) and (b) of this section; 37249
37252

(d) Determine the district's state share index in accordance with division (D) of this section using the district's wealth index as determined under division (F)(2)(c) of this section. 37253

(G) When performing the calculations required under this section, the department shall not round to fewer than four decimal places. 37256

For purposes of these calculations for fiscal years ~~2016~~ 2018 and ~~2017~~ 2019, "total ADM" means the total ADM for fiscal year ~~2015~~ 2017; "median Ohio adjusted gross income" means the median Ohio adjusted gross income, as that term is defined in section 5747.01 of the Revised Code, for tax year ~~2013~~ 2015; "three-year average federal adjusted gross income" means the average of the federal adjusted gross income for tax years ~~2011~~ 2013, ~~2012~~ 2014, and ~~2013~~ 2015 as reported under section 3317.021 of the Revised Code; and "tax-exempt value" means the tax-exempt value for tax year ~~2014~~ 2016. 37259

accordance with rules adopted by the department. 37834

(C) The department shall calculate the statewide 37835 transportation cost per student as follows: 37836

(1) Determine each city, local, and exempted village school 37837 district's transportation cost per student by dividing the 37838 district's total costs for school bus service in the previous 37839 fiscal year by its qualifying ridership in the previous fiscal 37840
year. 37841

(2) After excluding districts that do not provide school bus 37842 service and the ten districts with the highest transportation 37843 costs per student and the ten districts with the lowest 37844 transportation costs per student, divide the aggregate cost for 37845 school bus service for the remaining districts in the previous 37846 fiscal year by the aggregate qualifying ridership of those 37847 districts in the previous fiscal year. 37848

(D) The department shall calculate the statewide 37849 fiscal year by the aggregate miles driven for school bus service 37861 in those districts in the previous fiscal year. 37862

(E) The department shall calculate each city, local, and 37863 exempted village school district's transportation payment as 37864

the district's qualifying ridership for the current fiscal year. 37867

(2) Multiply the statewide transportation cost per mile by 37868 the district's total number of miles driven for school bus service 37869 in the current fiscal year. 37870 school bus service and whose transportation is not funded under 37882 division (C) of section 3317.024 of the Revised Code. The rules 37883 shall include provisions for school district reporting of such 37884

students. 37885

(G)(1) For purposes of division (G) of this section, a school 37886 district's "transportation supplement percentage" means the 37887 following quotient: 37888

~~[(35, in fiscal year 2016, or 50, in fiscal year 2017) - the 37889 district's rider density]~~ / 100 37890

If the result of the calculation for a district under 37891

division (G)(1) of this section is less than zero, the district's transportation supplement percentage shall be zero.

(2) The department shall pay each district a transportation supplement calculated according to the following formula:

If the result of a calculation for a school district under division (C) of this section is greater than 2.5, the district's capacity ratio shall be 2.5.

(D) Calculate the capacity aid per pupil amount, which equals the following quotient:

(The amount determined under division (B) of this section) / (the average of the formula ADMs of all of the districts for which the amount calculated under division (A) of this section is less than the amount determined under division (B) of this section)

(E) Calculate each school district's capacity aid, which equals the following product:

The capacity aid per pupil amount calculated under division (D) of this section X the district's formula $ADM \times (\cancel{2.75, \text{ for fiscal year 2016, or 3.5, for fiscal year 2017}}) \underline{4.0}$ X the district's capacity ratio calculated under division (C) of this section

(C) Rank all such districts in order of adjusted valuation 38537 per pupil from the district with the lowest three-year average 38538 adjusted valuation per pupil to the district with the highest 38539 three-year average adjusted valuation per pupil; 38540

(D) Divide such ranking into percentiles with the first 38541 percentile containing the one per cent of school districts having 38542 the lowest three-year average adjusted valuations per pupil and 38543 the one-hundredth percentile containing the one per cent of school 38544 districts having the highest three-year average adjusted 38545 valuations per pupil; 38546

(E) Determine the school districts that have three-year 38547 average adjusted valuations per pupil that are greater than the 38548 median three-year average adjusted valuation per pupil for all 38549 school districts in the state; 38550

(F) On or before the first day of September, certify the 38551 information described in divisions (A) to (E) of this section to 38552 the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission. 38553

Sec. 3318.02. (A) For purposes of sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 38554 of the Revised Code, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 38555 commission shall periodically perform an assessment of the 38556 classroom facility needs in the state to identify school districts 38557 in need of additional classroom facilities, or replacement or 38558 reconstruction of existent classroom facilities, and the cost to 38559 each such district of constructing or acquiring such additional 38560 facilities or making such renovations. 38561

(B) Based upon the most recent assessment conducted pursuant 38562 to division (A) of this section, the commission shall conduct 38563 on-site visits to school districts identified as having classroom 38564 facility needs to confirm the findings of the periodic assessment 38565 and further evaluate the classroom facility needs of the district. 38566
The evaluation shall assess the district's need to construct or 38567 acquire new classroom facilities and may include an assessment of 38568 the district's need for building additions or for the 38569 reconstruction of existent buildings in lieu of constructing or 38570 acquiring replacement buildings. 38571

(C)(1) Except as provided in division (C)(2) of this section, 38572 on-site visits performed on or after May 20, 1997, shall be 38573 performed in the order specified in this division. The first round 38574 of on-site visits first succeeding the effective date of this 38575 amendment, May 20, 1997, shall be limited to the school districts 38576 in the first through fifth percentiles, excluding districts that 38577 are ineligible for funding under this chapter pursuant to section 38578 3318.04 of the Revised Code. The second round of on-site visits 38579 shall be limited to the school districts in the first through 38580 tenth percentiles, excluding districts that are ineligible for 38581 funding under this chapter pursuant to section 3318.04 of the 38582 Revised Code. Each succeeding round of on-site visits shall be 38583 limited to the percentiles included in the immediately preceding 38584 round of on-site visits plus the next five percentiles. Except for 38585 the first round of on-site visits, no round of on-site visits 38586 shall commence unless eighty per cent of the districts for which 38587 on-site visits were performed during the immediately preceding 38588 round, have had projects approved under section 3318.04 of the 38589

Revised Code. 38590

(2) Notwithstanding division (C)(1) of this section, the 38591 commission may perform on-site visits for school districts in the 38592 next highest percentile to the percentiles included in the current 38593 round of on-site visits, and then to succeeding percentiles one at 38594 a time, not to exceed the twenty-fifth percentile, if all of the 38595
following apply: 38596

(a) Less than eighty per cent of the districts for which 38597 on-site visits were performed in the current round, and in any 38598 percentiles for which on-site visits were performed in addition to 38599 the current round pursuant to this division, have had projects 38600 approved under section 3318.04 of the Revised Code; 38601

(b) There are funds appropriated for the purpose of sections 38602 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code that are not reserved and 38603 encumbered for projects pursuant to section 3318.04 of the Revised 38604

Code; 38605

(c) The commission makes a finding that such available funds 38606 would be more thoroughly utilized if on-site visits were extended 38607 to the next highest percentile. 38608

(D) Notwithstanding divisions (B) and (C) of this section, in 38609 any fiscal year, the commission may limit the number of districts 38610 for which it conducts on-site visits based upon its projections of 38611 the moneys available and moneys necessary to undertake projects 38612 under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code for that 38613
year. 38614

Sec. 3318.021. Notwithstanding section 3318.02 of the Revised 38615
Code, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission may 38616 conduct on-site visits to any school district whose district board 38617 adopts a resolution certifying to the commission the board's 38618 intent to participate in the school building assistance expedited 38619 local partnership program under section 3318.36 of the Revised 38620
Code. 38621

Sec. 3318.022. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in 38622 section 3318.02 of the Revised Code, within two years following 38623 the request of the school district, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 38624 construction commission shall assess the current conditions of the 38625 classroom facilities needs of any school district that is not yet 38626 eligible for state assistance under Chapter 3318. of the Revised 38627 Code and that requests such an assessment. The assessment made 38628 under this section shall not include a final agreement between the 38629 school district and the commission as to the basic project cost of 38630 the school district's classroom facilities needs. The commission 38631 shall not consider any request for an assessment under this 38632 section that is submitted sooner than ~~the effective date of this~~ 38633 ~~section~~ September 14, 2000. 38634

Sec. 3318.024. In the first year of a capital biennium, any 38635 funds appropriated to the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 38636 commission for classroom facilities projects under this chapter in 38637 the previous capital biennium that were not spent or encumbered, 38638 or for which an encumbrance has been canceled under section 38639 3318.05 of the Revised Code, shall be used by the commission only 38640 for projects under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised 38641 Code, subject to appropriation by the general assembly. 38642

In the second year of a capital biennium, any funds 38643 appropriated to the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission 38644 for classroom facilities projects under this chapter that were not 38645 spent or encumbered in the first year of the biennium and which 38646 are in excess of an amount equal to half of the appropriations for 38647 the capital biennium, or for which an encumbrance has been 38648 canceled under section 3318.05 of the Revised Code, shall be used 38649 by the commission only for projects under sections 3318.01 to 38650 3318.20, 3318.351, 3318.364, 3318.37, 3318.371, 3318.38, and 38651 3318.40 to 3318.46 of the Revised Code, subject to appropriation 38652 by the general assembly. 38653

Sec. 3318.03. (A) Before conducting an on-site evaluation of 38654 a school district under section 3318.02 of the Revised Code, at 38655 the request of the district board of education, the Ohio ~~school~~ 38656 facilities construction commission shall examine any classroom 38657 facilities needs assessment that has been conducted by the 38658 district and any master plan developed for meeting the facility 38659 needs of the district. 38660

(B) Upon conducting the on-site evaluation under section 38661
3318.02 of the Revised Code, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 38662 construction commission shall make a determination of all of the 38663
following: 38664

(1) The needs of the school district for additional classroom facilities; 38665
38666

(2) The number of classroom facilities to be included in a project and the basic project cost of constructing, acquiring, reconstructing, or making additions to each such facility; 38667

(3) The amount of such cost that the school district can supply from available funds, by the issuance of bonds previously authorized by the electors of the school district the proceeds of which can lawfully be used for the project and by the issuance of bonds under section 3318.05 of the Revised Code; 38670
38674

(4) The remaining amount of such cost that shall be supplied by the state; 38675
38676

(5) The amount of the state's portion to be encumbered in accordance with section 3318.11 of the Revised Code in the current and subsequent fiscal years from funds appropriated for purposes of sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code. 38677
38680

38682
38684
38686
38687

If the school district board determines that an existing facility has historical value or for other good cause determines that an existing facility should be renovated in lieu of acquiring a comparable facility by new construction, the commission may approve the expenditure of project funds for the renovation of 38691
38694
38695

that facility up to but not exceeding one hundred per cent of the 38696 estimated cost of acquiring a comparable facility by new 38697 construction, as long as the commission determines that the 38698 facility when renovated can be operationally efficient, will be 38699 adequate for the future needs of the district, and will comply 38700 with the other provisions of this division. 38701

(D) Sections 125.81 and 153.04 of the Revised Code shall not 38702
apply to classroom facilities constructed under either sections 38703 3318.01 to 3318.20 or sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised 38704
Code. 38705

Sec. 3318.031. (A) The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 38706 commission shall consider student and staff safety and health when 38707 reviewing design plans for classroom facility construction 38708 projects proposed under this chapter. After consulting with 38709 appropriate education, health, and law enforcement personnel, the 38710 commission may require as a condition of project approval under 38711 either section 3318.03 or division (B)(1) of section 3318.41 of 38712 the Revised Code such changes in the design plans as the 38713 commission believes will advance or improve student and staff 38714 safety and health in the proposed classroom facility. 38715

To carry out its duties under this division, the commission 38716 shall review and, if necessary, amend any construction and design 38717 standards used in its project approval process, including 38718 standards for location and number of exits, standards for lead 38719 safety in classroom facilities constructed before 1978 in which 38720 services are provided to children under six years of age, and 38721 location of restrooms, with a focus on advancing student and staff 38722 safety and health. 38723

(B) When reviewing design standards for classroom facility 38724 construction projects proposed under this chapter, the commission 38725 shall also consider the extent to which the design standards 38726 support the following:	38727

(1) Trends in educational delivery methods, including digital access and blended learning;	38728 38729
(2) Provision of sufficient space for training new teachers and promotion of collaboration among teaching candidates, experienced teachers, and teacher educators;	38730 38731 38732
(3) Provision of adequate space for teacher planning and collaboration;	38733 38734
(4) Provision of adequate space for parent involvement activities;	38735 38736
(5) Provision of sufficient space for innovative partnerships between schools and health and social service agencies.	38737 38738
Sec. 3318.032. (A) Except as otherwise provided in divisions (C) and (D) of this section, the portion of the basic project cost supplied by the school district shall be the greater of:	38739 38740 38741
(1) The required percentage of the basic project costs;	38742
(2)(a) For all districts except a district that opts to divide its entire classroom facilities needs into segments to be completed separately as authorized by section 3318.034 of the Revised Code, an amount necessary to raise the school district's net bonded indebtedness, as of the date the controlling board approved the project, to within five thousand dollars of the required level of indebtedness;	38743 38744 38745 38746 38747 38748 38749
(b) For a district that opts to divide its entire classroom facilities needs into segments to be completed separately as authorized by section 3318.034 of the Revised Code, an amount necessary to raise the school district's net bonded indebtedness, as of the date the controlling board approved the project, to within five thousand dollars of the following:	38750 38751 38752 38753 38754 38755

The required level of indebtedness X (the basic 38756 project cost of the segment as approved 38757 by the controlling board / the estimated basic 38758 project cost of the district's entire classroom facilities 38759 needs as determined jointly by the staff of the Ohio 38760 ~~school~~ facilities construction commission and the district) 38761

(B) The amount of the district's share determined under this 38762 section shall be calculated only as of the date the controlling 38763 board approved the project, and that amount applies throughout the 38764 thirteen-month period permitted under section 3318.05 of the 38765 Revised Code for the district's electors to approve the 38766 propositions described in that section. If the amount reserved and 38767 encumbered for a project is released because the electors do not 38768 approve those propositions within that period, and the school 38769 district later receives the controlling board's approval for the 38770 project, subject to a new project scope and estimated costs under 38771 section 3318.054 of the Revised Code, the district's portion shall 38772 be recalculated in accordance with this section as of the date of 38773 the controlling board's subsequent approval. 38774

(C) At no time shall a school district's portion of the basic 38775 project cost be greater than ninety-five per cent of the total 38776 basic project cost. 38777

(D) If the controlling board approves a project under 38778 sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code for a school 38779 district that previously received assistance under those sections 38780 or section 3318.37 of the Revised Code within the twenty-year 38781 period prior to the date on which the controlling board approves 38782 the new project, the district's portion of the basic project cost 38783 for the new project shall be the lesser of the following: 38784

(1) The portion calculated under division (A) of this 38785
section; 38786

(2) The greater of the following: 38787

(a) The required percentage of the basic project costs for the new project;	38788 38789
(b) The percentage of the basic project cost paid by the district for the previous project.	38790 38791
Sec. 3318.033. (A) As used in this section:	38792
(1) "Formula ADM" has the same meaning as in section 3317.02 of the Revised Code.	38793 38794
(2) "Open enrollment net gain" has the same meaning as in section 3318.011 of the Revised Code.	38795 38796
(B) This section applies to each school district that meets the following criteria:	38797 38798
(1) The Ohio school facilities construction commission certified its conditional approval of the district's project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code after July 1, 2006, and prior to September 29, 2007, and the project had not been completed as of September 29, 2007.	38799 38800 38801 38802 38803
(2) Within one year after the date of the commission's certification of its conditional approval, the district's electors approved a bond issue to pay the district's portion of the basic project cost or the district board of education complied with section 3318.052 of the Revised Code.	38804 38805 38806 38807 38808
(C) For each school district to which this section applies, the department of education shall recalculate the district's percentile ranking under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code for the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the district's project was conditionally approved and shall report the	38813 38814 38815 38816 38817 recalculated percentile ranking to the commission. For this 38818 purpose, the department shall recalculate every school district's 38819 percentile ranking for that fiscal year using the district's 38820 "valuation per pupil" as that term is defined in section 3318.011 38821 of the Revised Code on and after September 29, 2007. 38822

(D) For each school district to which this section applies, 38823 the commission shall use the recalculated percentile ranking 38824 reported under division (C) of this section to determine the 38825 district's portion of the basic project cost under section 38826 3318.032 of the Revised Code. The commission shall not use the 38827 recalculated percentile ranking for any other purpose, and the 38828 recalculated ranking shall not affect any other district's portion 38829 of the basic project cost under section 3318.032 of the Revised 38830
Code or any district's eligibility for assistance under sections 38831 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code. The commission shall 38832 revise the agreement entered into under section 3318.08 of the 38833 Revised Code to reflect the district's new portion of the basic 38834 project cost as determined under this division. 38835

Sec. 3318.034. (A) This section applies to both of the 38836
following: 38837

(1) Any school district that has not executed an agreement 38838 for a project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised 38839 Code prior to June 24, 2008; 38840

(2) Any school district that is eligible for additional 38841 assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code 38842 pursuant to division (B)(2) of section 3318.04 of the Revised 38843
Code. 38844

Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the 38845 contrary, with the approval of the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 38846 construction commission, any school district to which this section 38847 applies may opt to divide the district's entire classroom 38848 facilities needs, as those needs are jointly determined by the 38849 staff of the commission and the school district, into discrete 38850 segments and shall comply with all of the provisions of those 38851 sections unless otherwise provided in this section. 38852

(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, each 38853 segment shall comply with both of the following: 38854

(1) The segment shall consist of the new construction of one 38855 or more entire buildings, a stand-alone segment of a building that 38856 serves grades kindergarten through twelve, or the complete 38857 renovation of one or more entire existing buildings, with any 38858 necessary additions to that building. 38859

(2) The segment shall not include any construction of or 38860 renovation or repair to any building that does not complete the 38861 needs of the district with respect to that particular building at 38862 the time the segment is completed. 38863

(C) A district described in division (A)(2) of this section 38864 that has not received the additional assistance authorized under 38865 division (B)(2) of section 3318.04 of the Revised Code may 38866 undertake a segment, with commission approval, for the purpose of 38867 renovating or replacing work performed on a facility under the 38868 district's prior project. The commission may approve that segment 38869 if the commission determines that the renovation or replacement is 38870 necessary to protect the facility. The basic project cost of the 38871 segment shall be allocated between the state and the district in 38872 accordance with section 3318.032 of the Revised Code. However, the 38873 requirements of division (B) of this section shall not apply to a 38874 segment undertaken under this division. 38875

(D) The commission shall conditionally approve and seek 38876 controlling board approval in accordance with division (A) of 38877 section 3318.04 of the Revised Code of each segment. 38878

(E)(1) When undertaking a segment under this section, a 38879

school district may elect to prorate its full maintenance amount 38880
by setting aside for maintenance the amount calculated under 38881 division (E)(2) of this section to maintain the classroom 38882 facilities acquired under the segment, if the district will use 38883 one or more of the alternative methods authorized in sections 38884 3318.051, 3318.052, and 3318.084 of the Revised Code to generate 38885
the entire amount calculated under that division. If the district 38886
so elects, the commission and the district shall include in the 38887 agreement entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code a 38888 statement specifying that the district will use the amount 38889 calculated under that division only to maintain the classroom 38890 facilities acquired under the segment. 38891

(2) The commission shall calculate the amount for a school 38892 district to maintain the classroom facilities acquired under a 38893 segment as follows: 38894

The full maintenance amount X (the school district's portion 38895 of the basic project cost for the segment / the school district's 38896 portion of the basic project cost for the district's entire 38897 classroom facilities needs, as determined jointly by the staff of 38898 the commission and the district) 38899

(3) A school district may elect to prorate its full 38900 maintenance amount for any number of segments, provided the 38901 district will use one or more of the alternative methods 38902 authorized in sections 3318.051, 3318.052, and 3318.084 of the 38903 Revised Code to generate the entire amount calculated under 38904 division (E)(2) of this section to maintain the classroom 38905 facilities acquired under each segment for which it so elects. If 38906 the district cannot use one or more of those alternative methods 38907
to generate the entire amount calculated under that division, the 38908 district shall levy the tax described in division (B) of section 38909 3318.05 of the Revised Code or an extension of that tax under 38910
section 3318.061 of the Revised Code in an amount necessary to 38911

generate the remainder of its full maintenance amount. The 38912 commission shall calculate the remainder of the district's full 38913 maintenance amount as follows: 38914

The full maintenance amount - the sum of the amounts 38915 calculated for the district under division (E)(2) of this section 38916 for each prior segment of the district's project 38917

(4) In no case shall the sum of the amounts calculated for a 38918 school district's maintenance of classroom facilities under 38919 divisions (E)(2) and (3) of this section exceed the amount that 38920 would have been required for maintenance if the district had 38921 elected to undertake its project in its entirety instead of 38922 segmenting the project under this section. 38923

(5) If a school district commenced a segment under this 38924 section prior to September 10, 2012, but has not completed that 38925 segment, and has not levied the tax described in division (B) of 38926 section 3318.05 of the Revised Code or an extension of that tax 38927 under section 3318.061 of the Revised Code, the district may 38928 request approval from the commission to prorate its full 38929 maintenance amount in accordance with divisions (E)(1) to (4) of 38930 this section. If the commission approves the request, the 38931 commission and the district shall amend the agreement entered into 38932 under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code to reflect the change. 38933

(F) If a school district levies the tax described in division 38934
(B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code or an extension of that 38935 tax under section 3318.061 of the Revised Code, the tax shall run 38936 for twenty-three years from the date the segment for which the tax 38937 is initially levied is undertaken. The maintenance levy 38938 requirement, as defined in section 3318.18 of the Revised Code, 38939 does not apply to a segment undertaken under division (C) of this 38940
section. 38941

(G) As used in this section, "full maintenance amount" means 38942 the amount of total revenue that a school district likely would 38943 generate by one-half mill of the tax described in division (B) of 38944 section 3318.05 of the Revised Code over the entire 38945 twenty-three-year period required under that section, as 38946 determined by the commission in consultation with the department 38947 of taxation. 38948

Sec. 3318.035. (A) This section applies only if there is a 38949 change in the assessment rates on gas pipelines imposed under 38950 state law. 38951

(B) If at any time division (A) of this section applies and 38952
if the change in assessment rates described in that division 38953 affects a school district's valuation as determined under division 38954 (P) of section 3318.01 of the Revised Code by greater than ten per 38955 cent and if the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission had 38956 determined the state and school district portion of the basic 38957 project cost of such a district's project under section 3318.36 or 38958 3318.37 of the Revised Code prior to that change in valuation, the 38959 commission shall adjust the state and school district portions of 38960 the basic project cost of the school district's project using the 38961 valuation altered by the change in assessment rates described in 38962
division (A) of this section. 38963

Sec. 3318.036. (A) For purposes of this section: 38964

(1) "Eligible school district" is a city, local, or exempted 38965 village school district that satisfies both of the following 38966 conditions: 38967

(a) The district resulted from one of the following that 38968 became effective between July 1, 2013, and June 30, 2018: 38969

(i) A transfer of all of the territory of one school district 38970 to another school district in accordance with section 3311.22, 38971
3311.231, 3311.24, or 3311.38 of the Revised Code; 38972

(ii) The merger of two or more districts in accordance with section 3311.25 of the Revised Code;	38973 38974
(iii) The creation of a new local school district from all of one or more local school districts in accordance with section 3311.26 of the Revised Code;	38975 38976 38977
(iv) The consolidation of two or more school districts under section 3311.37 of the Revised Code.	38978 38979
(b) The district has demonstrated to the Ohio school facilities construction commission an efficient use of facility space, including a reduction in the number of buildings used by students and administrative staff.	38980 38981 38982 38983
(2) "Basic project cost" and "required percentage of the basic project cost" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised Code.	38984 38985 38986
(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this chapter:	38987
(1) If the commission determines that a district is an eligible school district, the commission shall give that district first priority for funding for a project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code as such funds become available, regardless of the district's percentile rank under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code. If the district results from a transfer, merger, consolidation, or creation of a new local district that takes effect prior to the effective date of this section April 6, 2017 , the district's portion of the basic project cost shall be the required percentage of the basic project cost based on the percentile ranking of the district that was transferred, merged, consolidated, or existed prior to the creation of the new district that has the lowest three-year average adjusted valuation per pupil, as calculated under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code, on the date that the transfer, merger, consolidation, or creation of the new district became	38988 38989 38990 38991 38992 38993 38994 38995 38996 38997 38998 38999 39000 39001 39002 39003

effective. 39004

(2) If an eligible school district is given priority under 39005
division (B)(1) of this section, the commission may reduce that 39006 district's portion of the basic project cost by twenty-five 39007 percentage points from the portion determined under section 39008 3318.032 of the Revised Code or, if the district results from a 39009 transfer, merger, consolidation, or creation of a new local 39010 district that takes effect prior to ~~the effective date of this~~ 39011 ~~section~~ April 6, 2017, from the portion determined under division 39012
(B)(1) of this section. At no time, however, shall that district's 39013 portion of the basic project cost be less than five per cent. 39014

division (B)(1) of this section, the commission may reduce that 39016 district's portion of the basic project cost by ten percentage 39017 points from the portion determined under section 3318.032 of the 39018 Revised Code or, if the district results from a transfer, merger, 39019 consolidation, or creation of a new local district that takes 39020 effect prior to ~~the effective date of this section~~ April 6, 2017, 39021 from the portion determined under division (B)(1) of this section, 39022 if the district's project satisfies the following conditions: 39023

(a) The project involves construction of a building on land 39024 owned by a state institution of higher education, as that term is 39025 defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised Code, and the 39026 commission approves the project. 39027

(b) The district and the state institution of higher 39028 education enter into a written agreement regarding the continued 39029 use of the institution's land by the district, and the commission 39030 approves the agreement. 39031

(c) On the date that the district and the state institution 39032 of higher education enter into the written agreement described in 39033 division (B)(3)(b) of this section, the state institution of 39034 higher education is participating in the college credit plus 39035 program established under Chapter 3365. of the Revised Code. 39036

At no time, however, shall that district's portion of the 39037 basic project cost be less than five per cent. 39038

The reduction of the district's portion of the basic project 39039 cost described in division (B)(3) of this section may be in 39040 addition to a reduction of the district's portion of the basic 39041 project cost under division (B)(2) of this section. 39042

(C) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, a 39043 district's project undertaken pursuant to this section shall be 39044 subject to all other requirements in sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 39045

Sec. 3318.037. (A) For purposes of this section, an "eligible 39047 school district" is a school district that satisfies all of the 39048 following conditions: 39049

(1) The district executed an agreement for a project under 39050 sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code that was segmented 39051
under section 3318.034 of the Revised Code. 39052

(2) The district has undertaken one or more segments of that 39053 project and has applied to the Ohio facilities construction 39054 commission for funding for a subsequent segment of the project. 39055

(3) Since the original project agreement described in 39056 division (A)(1) of this section was executed, the district has 39057 experienced a decrease in its adjusted valuation per pupil, as 39058 determined annually under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code, 39059 such that, as of the date the district submits its application for 39060 a subsequent segment of the project as described in division 39061 (A)(2) of this section, the district's annual percentile ranking 39062 under that section is lower than its percentile ranking on the 39063 date the district executed the original agreement for the project. 39064

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this chapter or in any rule of the commission, an eligible school district's portion of the cost for a subsequent segment of its project shall be the "required percentage of the basic project costs" based on the district's current percentile ranking for the fiscal year for which the district seeks funding for the segment.

Upon determining the respective state and district portions of the basic project cost for the segment pursuant to this section, the commission and the district shall amend the project agreement to stipulate those portions, and the commission shall encumber funds for the segment in accordance with section 3318.11 of the Revised Code.

(C) Nothing in this section shall affect the respective state and district portions of the basic project cost of segments of a district's project undertaken prior to the district's application for funding for a subsequent segment of the project under this section.

Sec. 3318.04. (A) If the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission makes a determination under section 3318.03 of the Revised Code in favor of constructing, acquiring, reconstructing, or making additions to a classroom facility, the project shall be conditionally approved. Such conditional approval shall be submitted to the controlling board for approval thereof. The controlling board shall forthwith approve or reject the commission's determination, conditional approval, the amount of the state's portion of the basic project cost, and, the amount of the state's portion to be encumbered in the current fiscal year. In the event of approval thereof by the controlling board, the commission shall certify such conditional approval to the school district board and shall encumber from the total funds appropriated for the purpose of sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code the amount approved under this section to be 39096 encumbered in the current fiscal year. 39097

The basic project cost for a project approved under this 39098 section shall not exceed the cost that would otherwise have to be 39099 incurred if the classroom facilities to be constructed, acquired, 39100 or reconstructed, or the additions to be made to classroom 39101 facilities, under such project meet, but do not exceed, the 39102 specifications for plans and materials for classroom facilities 39103 adopted by the commission. 39104

(B)(1) No school district shall have a project conditionally 39105 approved pursuant to this section if the school district has 39106 already received any assistance for a project funded under any 39107 version of sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, and 39108 the prior project was one for which the electors of such district 39109 approved a levy within the last twenty years pursuant to any 39110 version of section 3318.06 of the Revised Code for purposes of 39111 qualifying for the funding of that project, unless the district 39112 demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commission that the 39113 district has experienced since approval of its prior project an 39114 exceptional increase in enrollment significantly above the 39115 district's design capacity under that prior project as determined 39116 by rule of the commission. 39117

(2) Notwithstanding division (B)(1) of this section, any 39118 school district that received assistance under sections 3318.01 to 39119 3318.20 of the Revised Code, as those sections existed prior to 39120
May 20, 1997, may receive additional assistance under those 39121 sections, as they exist on and after May 20, 1997, prior to the 39122 expiration of the period of time required under division (B)(1) of 39123 this section, if the percentile in which the school district is 39124 located, as determined under section 3318.011 of the Revised Code, 39125 is eligible for assistance as prescribed in section 3318.02 of the 39126

The commission may provide assistance under sections 3318.01 39128 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code pursuant to this division to no 39129 more than five school districts per fiscal year until all eligible 39130 school districts have received the additional assistance 39131 authorized under this division. The commission shall establish 39132 application procedures, deadlines, and priorities for funding 39133 projects under this division. 39134

The commission at its discretion may waive current design 39135 specifications it has adopted for projects under sections 3318.01 39136 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code when assessing an application for 39137 additional assistance under this division for the renovation of 39138 classroom facilities constructed or renovated under a school 39139 district's previous project. If the commission finds that a school 39140 district's existing classroom facilities are adequate to meet all 39141 of the school district's needs, the commission may determine that 39142 no additional state assistance be awarded to a school district 39143
under this division. 39144

In order for a school district to be eligible to receive any 39145 additional assistance under this division, the school district 39146 electors shall extend the school district's existing levy 39147 dedicated for maintenance of classroom facilities under Chapter 39148 3318. of the Revised Code, pursuant to section 3318.061 of the 39149 Revised Code or shall provide equivalent alternative maintenance 39150 funds as specified in division (A)(2) of section 3318.06 of the 39151

(3) Notwithstanding division (B)(1) of this section, any 39153 school district that has received assistance under sections 39154 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code after May 20, 1997, may 39155 receive additional assistance if the commission decides in favor 39156 of providing such assistance pursuant to section 3318.042 of the 39157

(4) Notwithstanding division (B)(1) of this section, any 39159

school district that has opted to divide its entire classroom 39160 facilities needs into segments to be completed separately, as 39161 authorized by section 3318.034 of the Revised Code, and that has 39162 received assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the 39163 Revised Code for one of those segments may receive assistance 39164 under those sections for a subsequent segment. Assistance for any 39165 subsequent segment shall not include any additional work on a 39166 building included in a prior segment unless the district 39167
district has experienced since the completion of the prior segment 39169 an exceptional increase in enrollment in the grade levels housed 39170 in that building. 39171

Sec. 3318.041. A school district ranked in the first through 39172 twenty-fifth percentiles may adopt and certify to the Ohio ~~school~~ 39173 facilities construction commission a resolution specifying a 39174 proposed project that meets the requirements of this chapter and 39175 the needs of the district, as confirmed through an on-site visit 39176 pursuant to section 3318.02 of the Revised Code. The commission 39177 shall consider such projects for conditional approval pursuant to 39178 section 3318.03 and shall encumber funds pursuant to section 39179 3318.04 of the Revised Code in the order in which such resolutions 39180 are received. 39181

Sec. 3318.042. (A) The board of education of any school 39182 district that is receiving assistance under sections 3318.01 to 39183 3318.20 of the Revised Code after May 20, 1997, or under sections 39184 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, and whose project is still 39185 under construction, may request that the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 39186 construction commission examine whether the circumstances 39187 prescribed in either division (B)(1) or (2) of this section exist 39188 in the school district. If the commission so finds, the commission 39189 shall review the school district's original assessment and 39190 approved project and consider providing additional assistance to 39191 the school district to correct the prescribed conditions found to 39192 exist in the district. Additional assistance under this section 39193 shall be limited to additions to one or more buildings, remodeling 39194 of one or more buildings, or changes to the infrastructure of one 39195 or more buildings. 39196

(B) Consideration of additional assistance to a school 39197 district under this section is warranted in either of the 39198
following circumstances: 39199

(1) Additional work is needed to correct an oversight or 39200 deficiency not identified or included in the district's initial 39201
assessment. 39202

(2) Other conditions exist that, in the opinion of the 39203 commission, warrant additions or remodeling of the project 39204 facilities or changes to infrastructure associated with the 39205 district's project that were not identified in the initial 39206 assessment and plan. 39207

(C) If the commission decides in favor of providing 39208 additional assistance to any school district under this section, 39209 the school district shall be responsible for paying for its 39210 portion of the cost of the additions, remodeling, or 39211 infrastructure changes pursuant to section 3318.083 of the Revised 39212 Code. If, after making a financial evaluation of the school 39213 district, the commission determines that the school district is 39214 unable without undue hardship, according to the guidelines adopted 39215 by the commission, to fund the school district portion of the 39216 increase, then the state and the school district shall enter into 39217 an agreement whereby the state shall pay the portion of the cost 39218 increase attributable to the school district which is determined 39219 to be in excess of any local resources available to the district 39220 and the district shall thereafter reimburse the state. The 39221 commission shall establish the district's schedule for reimbursing 39222 the state, which shall not extend beyond ten years. The commission 39223 may lengthen the reimbursement schedule of a school district that 39224 has entered into an agreement under this section prior to ~~the~~ 39225 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ September 26, 2003, as long as 39226 the total term of that schedule does not extend beyond ten years. 39227 Debt incurred under this section shall not be included in the 39228 calculation of the net indebtedness of the school district under 39229

section 133.06 of the Revised Code. 39230

Sec. 3318.05. The conditional approval of the Ohio ~~school~~ 39231 facilities construction commission for a project shall lapse and 39232 the amount reserved and encumbered for such project shall be 39233 released unless the school district board accepts such conditional 39234 approval within one hundred twenty days following the date of 39235 certification of the conditional approval to the school district 39236 board and the electors of the school district vote favorably on 39237 both of the propositions described in divisions (A) and (B) of 39238 this section within thirteen months of the date of such 39239 certification, except that a school district described in division 39240
(C) of this section does not need to submit the proposition 39241 described in division (B) of this section. The propositions 39242 described in divisions (A) and (B) of this section shall be 39243 combined in a single proposal. If the district board or the 39244 district's electors fail to meet such requirements and the amount 39245 reserved and encumbered for the district's project is released, 39246 the district shall be given first priority for project funding as 39247 such funds become available, subject to section 3318.054 of the 39248
Revised Code. 39249

(A) On the question of issuing bonds of the school district 39250 board, for the school district's portion of the basic project 39251 cost, in an amount equal to the school district's portion of the 39252 basic project cost less the amount of the proceeds of any 39253 securities authorized or to be authorized under division (J) of 39254 section 133.06 of the Revised Code and dedicated by the school 39255 district board to payment of the district's portion of the basic 39256 project cost; and 39257

(B) On the question of levying a tax the proceeds of which 39258 shall be used to pay the cost of maintaining the classroom 39259 facilities included in the project. Such tax shall be at the rate 39260 of not less than one-half mill for each dollar of valuation for a 39261 period of twenty-three years, subject to any extension approved 39262
under section 3318.061 of the Revised Code. 39263

(C) If a school district has in place a tax levied under 39264 section 5705.21 of the Revised Code for general permanent 39265 improvements for a continuing period of time and the proceeds of 39266 such tax can be used for maintenance, or if a district agrees to 39267 the transfers described in section 3318.051 of the Revised Code, 39268 the school district need not levy the additional tax required 39269 under division (B) of this section, provided the school district 39270 board includes in the agreement entered into under section 3318.08 39271 of the Revised Code provisions either: 39272

(1) Earmarking an amount from the proceeds of that permanent 39273 improvement tax for maintenance of classroom facilities equivalent 39274 to the amount of the additional tax and for the equivalent number 39275 of years otherwise required under this section; 39276

(2) Requiring the transfer of money in accordance with 39277
section 3318.051 of the Revised Code. 39278

The district board subsequently may rescind the agreement to 39279 make the transfers under section 3318.051 of the Revised Code only 39280 so long as the electors of the district have approved, in 39281 accordance with section 3318.063 of the Revised Code, the levy of 39282 a tax for the maintenance of the classroom facilities acquired 39283 under the district's project and that levy continues to be 39284 collected as approved by the electors. 39285

(D) Proceeds of the tax to be used for maintenance of the classroom facilities under either division (B) or (C)(1) of this section, and transfers of money in accordance with section 3318.051 of the Revised Code shall be deposited into a separate fund established by the school district for such purpose.

Sec. 3318.051. (A) Any city, exempted village, or local school district that commences a project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20, 3318.36, 3318.37, or 3318.38 of the Revised Code on or after September 5, 2006, need not levy the tax otherwise required under division (B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code, if the district board of education adopts a resolution petitioning the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission to approve the transfer of money in accordance with this section and the commission approves that transfer. If so approved, the commission and the district board shall enter into an agreement under which the board, in each of twenty-three consecutive years beginning in the year in which the board and the commission enter into the project agreement under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code, shall transfer into the maintenance fund required by division (D) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code not less than an amount equal to one-half mill for each dollar of the district's valuation unless and until the agreement to make those transfers is rescinded by the district board pursuant to division (F) of this section.

(B) On the first day of July each year, or on an alternative date prescribed by the commission, the district treasurer shall certify to the commission and the auditor of state that the amount required for the year has been transferred. The auditor of state shall include verification of the transfer as part of any audit of the district under section 117.11 of the Revised Code. If the auditor of state finds that less than the required amount has been deposited into a district's maintenance fund, the auditor of state shall notify the district board of education in writing of that 39318 fact and require the board to deposit into the fund, within ninety 39319 days after the date of the notice, the amount by which the fund is 39320 deficient for the year. If the district board fails to demonstrate 39321 to the auditor of state's satisfaction that the board has made the 39322 deposit required in the notice, the auditor of state shall notify 39323 the department of education. At that time, the department shall 39324 withhold an amount equal to ten per cent of the district's funds 39325 calculated for the current fiscal year under Chapter 3317. of the 39326 Revised Code until the auditor of state notifies the department 39327 that the auditor of state is satisfied that the board has made the 39328 required transfer. 39329

(C) Money transferred to the maintenance fund shall be used 39330 for the maintenance of the facilities acquired under the 39331 district's project. 39332

(D) The transfers to the maintenance fund under this section 39333 does not affect a district's obligation to establish and maintain 39334 a capital and maintenance fund under section 3315.18 of the 39335
Revised Code. 39336

(E) Any decision by the commission to approve or not approve 39337 the transfer of money under this section is final and not subject 39338 to appeal. The commission shall not be responsible for errors or 39339 miscalculations made in deciding whether to approve a petition to 39340 make transfers under this section. 39341

(F) If the district board determines that it no longer can 39342 continue making the transfers agreed to under this section, the 39343 board may rescind the agreement only so long as the electors of 39344 the district have approved, in accordance with section 3318.063 of 39345 the Revised Code, the levy of a tax for the maintenance of the 39346 classroom facilities acquired under the district's project and 39347 that levy continues to be collected as approved by the electors. 39348 That levy shall be for a number of years that is equal to the 39349 difference between twenty-three years and the number of years that 39350 the district made transfers under this section and shall be at the 39351 rate of not less than one-half mill for each dollar of the 39352 district's valuation. The district board shall continue to make 39353 the transfers agreed to under this section until that levy has 39354 been approved by the electors. 39355

Sec. 3318.052. At any time after the electors of a school 39356 district have approved either or both a property tax levied under 39357 section 5705.21 or 5705.218 of the Revised Code for the purpose of 39358 permanent improvements, including general permanent improvements, 39359 amount shall be rounded up to the nearest one-fourth of one per 39448 cent. 39449

No state moneys shall be released for a project to which this 39450 section applies until the proceeds of the tax securities issued 39451 under this section that are dedicated for the payment of the 39452 district portion of the basic project cost of its classroom 39453 facilities project are first deposited into the district's project 39454 approval of a joint vocational school district's project lapses as 39459 provided in division (D) of section 3318.41 of the Revised Code, 39460 because the district's electors have not approved the ballot 39461 measures necessary to generate the district's portion of the basic 39462 project cost, and if the district board desires to seek a new 39463 request that the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission 39465 set the scope, basic project cost, and school district portion of 39466 the basic project cost prior to resubmitting the ballot measures 39467 to the electors. To do so, the commission shall use the district's 39468 current assessed tax valuation and the district's percentile for 39469 the prior fiscal year. For a district that has entered into an 39470 agreement under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code and desires to 39471 proceed with a project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the 39472 Revised Code, the district's portion of the basic project cost 39473 shall be the percentage specified in that agreement. The project 39474 scope and basic costs established under this division shall be 39475 valid for thirteen months from the date the commission approves 39476 them. 39477

(B) Upon the commission's approval under division (A) of this section, the district board may submit the ballot measures to the district's electors for approval of the project based on the new project scope and estimated costs. Upon electoral approval of those measures, the district shall be given first priority for project funding as such funds become available.

(C) When the commission determines that funds are available for the district's project, the commission shall do all of the following:

(1) Determine the school district portion of the basic project cost under section 3318.032 of the Revised Code, in the case of a city, exempted village, or local school district, or under section 3318.42 of the Revised Code, in the case of a joint vocational school district;

(2) Conditionally approve the project and submit it to the controlling board for approval pursuant to section 3318.04 of the Revised Code;

(3) Encumber funds for the project under section 3318.11 of the Revised Code;

(4) Enter into an agreement with the district board under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 3318.06. (A) After receipt of the conditional approval of the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission, the school district board by a majority of all of its members shall, if it desires to proceed with the project, declare all of the following by resolution:

(2) Unless the school district board has resolved to transfer money in accordance with section 3318.051 of the Revised Code or to apply the proceeds of a property tax or the proceeds of an income tax, or a combination of proceeds from such taxes, as authorized under section 3318.052 of the Revised Code, that to qualify for such state assistance it is necessary to do either of the following:

(a) Levy a tax outside the ten-mill limitation the proceeds of which shall be used to pay the cost of maintaining the classroom facilities included in the project;

(b) Earmark for maintenance of classroom facilities from the proceeds of an existing permanent improvement tax levied under section 5705.21 of the Revised Code, if such tax can be used for maintenance, an amount equivalent to the amount of the additional tax otherwise required under this section and sections 3318.05 and 3318.08 of the Revised Code.

Such resolution shall also state that the question of issuing bonds of the board shall be combined in a single proposal with the question of such tax levy. More than one election under this section may be held in any one calendar year. Such resolution shall specify both of the following:

(a) That the rate which it is necessary to levy shall be at 39540 the rate of not less than one-half mill for each one dollar of 39541 valuation, and that such tax shall be levied for a period of 39542 twenty-three years; 39543

(b) That the proceeds of the tax shall be used to pay the 39544 cost of maintaining the classroom facilities included in the 39545 project. 39546

(B) A copy of a resolution adopted under division (A) of this 39547 section shall after its passage and not less than ninety days 39548 prior to the date set therein for the election be certified to the 39549 county board of elections. 39550

The resolution of the school district board, in addition to 39551 meeting other applicable requirements of section 133.18 of the 39552 Revised Code, shall state that the amount of bonds to be issued 39553 will be an amount equal to the school district's portion of the 39554 basic project cost, and state the maximum maturity of the bonds 39555 which may be any number of years not exceeding the term calculated 39556 under section 133.20 of the Revised Code as determined by the 39557 board. In estimating the amount of bonds to be issued, the board 39558 shall take into consideration the amount of moneys then in the 39559 bond retirement fund and the amount of moneys to be collected for 39560 and disbursed from the bond retirement fund during the remainder 39561 of the year in which the resolution of necessity is adopted. 39562

If the bonds are to be issued in more than one series, the 39563 resolution may state, in addition to the information required to 39564 be stated under division (B)(3) of section 133.18 of the Revised 39565 Code, the number of series, which shall not exceed five, the 39566 principal amount of each series, and the approximate date each 39567 series will be issued, and may provide that no series, or any 39568 portion thereof, may be issued before such date. Upon such a 39569 resolution being certified to the county auditor as required by 39570 division (C) of section 133.18 of the Revised Code, the county 39571 auditor, in calculating, advising, and confirming the estimated 39572 average annual property tax levy under that division, shall also 39573 calculate, advise, and confirm by certification the estimated 39574 average property tax levy for each series of bonds to be issued. 39575

Notice of the election shall include the fact that the tax 39576 levy shall be at the rate of not less than one-half mill for each 39577 one dollar of valuation for a period of twenty-three years, and 39578 that the proceeds of the tax shall be used to pay the cost of 39579 maintaining the classroom facilities included in the project. 39580

If the bonds are to be issued in more than one series, the 39581 board of education, when filing copies of the resolution with the 39582 board of elections as required by division (D) of section 133.18 39583 of the Revised Code, may direct the board of elections to include 39584 in the notice of election the principal amount and approximate 39585 date of each series, the maximum number of years over which the 39586 principal of each series may be paid, the estimated additional 39587 average property tax levy for each series, and the first calendar 39588 year in which the tax is expected to be due for each series, in 39589 addition to the information required to be stated in the notice 39590 under divisions (E)(3)(a) to (e) of section 133.18 of the Revised 39591
Code. 39592

(C)(1) Except as otherwise provided in division (C)(2) of 39593 this section, the form of the ballot to be used at such election 39594 shall be: 39595

"A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage. 39596 over a maximum period of (here insert the maximum 39602 ten-mill limitation, estimated by the county auditor to average 39605 over the repayment period of the bond issue (here 39606 insert the number of mills estimated) mills for each one dollar of 39607 tax valuation, which amounts to (rate expressed in 39608 cents or dollars and cents, such as "thirty-six cents" or "$0.36") 39609 for each one hundred dollars of tax valuation to pay the annual 39610 debt charges on the bonds and to pay debt charges on any notes 39611 issued in anticipation of the bonds?" 39612 and, unless the additional levy 39613 of taxes is not required pursuant 39614 to division (C) of section 39615

be used to pay the cost of maintaining the classroom facilities 39620 included in the project at the rate of (here insert the 39621 number of mills, which shall not be less than one-half mill) mills 39622 series and the board of education so elects, the form of the 39629 ballot shall be as prescribed in section 3318.062 of the Revised 39630 Code. If the board of education elects the form of the ballot 39631 prescribed in that section, it shall so state in the resolution 39632 adopted under this section. 39633

(D) If it is necessary for the school district to acquire a site for the classroom facilities to be acquired pursuant to sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, the district board may propose either to issue bonds of the board or to levy a tax to pay for the acquisition of such site, and may combine the question of doing so with the questions specified in division (B) of this section. Bonds issued under this division for the purpose of acquiring a site are a general obligation of the school district and are Chapter 133. securities.

The form of that portion of the ballot to include the question of either issuing bonds or levying a tax for site acquisition purposes shall be one of the following:

mills) mills for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a 39668 period of (here insert number of years the millage is to 39669 be imposed) years?" 39670

Where it is necessary to combine the question of issuing 39671
bonds of the school district and levying a tax as described in 39672 division (B) of this section with the question of issuing bonds of 39673 the school district for acquisition of a site, the question 39674 specified in that division to be voted on shall be "For the Bond 39675 Issues and the Tax Levy" and "Against the Bond Issues and the Tax 39676
Levy." 39677

Where it is necessary to combine the question of issuing 39678
bonds of the school district and levying a tax as described in 39679 division (B) of this section with the question of levying a tax 39680 division to be voted on shall be "For the Bond Issue and the Tax 39682

3318.056 of the Revised Code, the question specified in division 39687
(B) of this section to be voted on shall be "For the Bond Issues 39688 and the Tax Levies" and "Against the Bond Issues and the Tax 39689 which includes the question of issuing bonds vote in favor 39692 thereof, and if the agreement provided for by section 3318.08 of 39693 the Revised Code has been entered into, the school district board 39694 may proceed under Chapter 133. of the Revised Code, with the 39695 issuance of bonds or bond anticipation notes in accordance with 39696 the terms of the agreement. 39697

Sec. 3318.061. This section applies only to school districts 39698 resolution by vote of a majority of its members to extend the term 39704 of that tax beyond the expiration of that tax as originally 39705 approved under that section. The school district board may include 39706 in the resolution a proposal to extend the term of that tax at the 39707 section 3318.04 of the Revised Code or in the following year, as 39712 specified in the resolution. Such a resolution may be adopted at 39713 any time before such an agreement is entered into and before the 39714 tax levied pursuant to section 3318.06 of the Revised Code 39715 bonds to pay the school district's portion of the basic project 39717 cost, it shall conform with the requirements of divisions (A)(1), 39718 (2), and (3) of section 3318.06 of the Revised Code, except that 39719 the resolution also shall state that the tax levy proposed in the 39720 resolution is an extension of an existing tax levied under that 39721 section. A resolution proposing an extension adopted under this 39722 section does not take effect until it is approved by a majority of 39723 electors voting in favor of the resolution at a general, primary, 39724 except the term of the extension shall be as specified in this 39729

section. 39730

The school district board shall certify a copy of the 39731 resolution adopted under this section to the proper county board 39732 resolution as the date of the election at which the question will 39734 with the requirements of division (A)(3) of section 3318.06 of the 39736 Revised Code, except that the notice also shall state that the 39737 maintenance tax levy is an extension of an existing tax levy. 39738

The form of the ballot shall be as follows: 39739 division (B)(2) of section 3318.04 of the Revised Code or the 39747 following year)? 39748

of the basic project cost of the project; provided, that if at 39791 that time the county treasurer of each county in which the school 39792 district is located has not commenced the collection of taxes on 39793 the general duplicate of real and public utility property for the 39794 year in which the controlling board approved the project, the 39795 school district board shall authorize the issuance of a first 39796 installment of bond anticipation notes in an amount specified by 39797 the agreement, which amount shall not exceed an amount necessary 39798 to raise the net bonded indebtedness of the school district as of 39799 the date of the controlling board's approval to within five 39800 thousand dollars of the required level of indebtedness for the 39801 preceding year. In the event that a first installment of bond 39802 anticipation notes is issued, the school district board shall, as 39803 soon as practicable after the county treasurer of each county in 39804 which the school district is located has commenced the collection 39805 of taxes on the general duplicate of real and public utility 39806 property for the year in which the controlling board approved the 39807 project, authorize the issuance of a second and final installment 39808 of bond anticipation notes or a first and final issue of bonds. 39809

The combined value of the first and second installment of 39810 bond anticipation notes or the value of the first and final issue 39811 of bonds shall be equal to the school district's portion of the 39812 basic project cost. The proceeds of any such bonds shall be used 39813 first to retire any bond anticipation notes. Otherwise, the 39814 proceeds of such bonds and of any bond anticipation notes, except 39815 the premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be deposited in 39816 the school district's project construction fund. In determining 39817 the amount of net bonded indebtedness for the purpose of fixing 39818 the amount of an issue of either bonds or bond anticipation notes, 39819 gross indebtedness shall be reduced by moneys in the bond 39820 retirement fund only to the extent of the moneys therein on the 39821 first day of the year preceding the year in which the controlling 39822 board approved the project. Should there be a decrease in the tax 39823 valuation of the school district so that the amount of 39824 indebtedness that can be incurred on the tax duplicates for the 39825 year in which the controlling board approved the project is less 39826 than the amount of the first installment of bond anticipation 39827 notes, there shall be paid from the school district's project 39828 construction fund to the school district's bond retirement fund to 39829 be applied against such notes an amount sufficient to cause the 39830 net bonded indebtedness of the school district, as of the first 39831 day of the year following the year in which the controlling board 39832 approved the project, to be within five thousand dollars of the 39833 required level of indebtedness for the year in which the 39834 controlling board approved the project. The maximum amount of 39835 indebtedness to be incurred by any school district board as its 39836 share of the cost of the project is either an amount that will 39837 cause its net bonded indebtedness, as of the first day of the year 39838 following the year in which the controlling board approved the 39839 project, to be within five thousand dollars of the required level 39840 of indebtedness, or an amount equal to the required percentage of 39841 the basic project costs, whichever is greater. All bonds and bond 39842 anticipation notes shall be issued in accordance with Chapter 133. 39843 of the Revised Code, and notes may be renewed as provided in 39844

section 133.22 of the Revised Code. 39845

(B) The transfer of such funds of the school district board 39846 available for the project, together with the proceeds of the sale 39847 of the bonds or notes, except premium, accrued interest, and 39848 interest included in the amount of the issue, to the school 39849 district's project construction fund; 39850

(C) For all school districts except joint vocational school 39851 districts that receive assistance under sections 3318.40 to 39852 3318.45 of the Revised Code, the following provisions as 39853
applicable: 39854

(1) If section 3318.052 of the Revised Code applies, the 39855 earmarking of the proceeds of a tax levied under section 5705.21 39856 section 5705.218 of the Revised Code for the purpose of permanent 39858 improvements, or the proceeds of a school district income tax 39859 levied under Chapter 5748. of the Revised Code, or the proceeds 39860 from a combination of those two taxes, in an amount to pay all or 39861 part of the service charges on bonds issued to pay the school 39862 district portion of the project and an amount equivalent to all or 39863 part of the tax required under division (B) of section 3318.05 of 39864

the Revised Code; 39865

(2) If section 3318.052 of the Revised Code does not apply, 39866
one of the following: 39867

(a) The levy of the tax authorized at the election for the 39868 payment of maintenance costs, as specified in division (B) of 39869
section 3318.05 of the Revised Code; 39870

(b) If the school district electors have approved a 39871 continuing tax for general permanent improvements under section 39872 5705.21 of the Revised Code and that tax can be used for 39873 maintenance, the earmarking of an amount of the proceeds from such 39874 tax for maintenance of classroom facilities as specified in 39875
division (B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code; 39876

(c) If, in lieu of the tax otherwise required under division 39877
(B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code, the commission has 39878 approved the transfer of money to the maintenance fund in 39879 accordance with section 3318.051 of the Revised Code, a 39880 requirement that the district board comply with the provisions of 39881 that section. The district board may rescind the provision 39882 prescribed under division (C)(2)(c) of this section only so long 39883 as the electors of the district have approved, in accordance with 39884 section 3318.063 of the Revised Code, the levy of a tax for the 39885 maintenance of the classroom facilities acquired under the 39886 district's project and that levy continues to be collected as 39887 approved by the electors. 39888

(D) For joint vocational school districts that receive 39889
assistance under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, 39890 provision for deposit of school district moneys dedicated to 39891 maintenance of the classroom facilities acquired under those 39892 sections as prescribed in section 3318.43 of the Revised Code; 39893

(E) Dedication of any local donated contribution as provided 39894 for under section 3318.084 of the Revised Code, including a 39895 schedule for depositing such moneys applied as an offset of the 39896 district's obligation to levy the tax described in division (B) of 39897 section 3318.05 of the Revised Code as required under division 39898
(D)(2) of section 3318.084 of the Revised Code; 39899

(F) Ownership of or interest in the project during the period 39900 of construction, which shall be divided between the commission and 39901 the school district board in proportion to their respective 39902 contributions to the school district's project construction fund; 39903

(G) Maintenance of the state's interest in the project until 39904 any obligations issued for the project under section 3318.26 of 39905 the Revised Code are no longer outstanding; 39906

(H) The insurance of the project by the school district from 39907 the time there is an insurable interest therein and so long as the 39908 state retains any ownership or interest in the project pursuant to 39909 division (F) of this section, in such amounts and against such 39910 risks as the commission shall require; provided, that the cost of 39911 any required insurance until the project is completed shall be a 39912 part of the basic project cost; 39913

(I) The certification by the director of budget and 39914 management that funds are available and have been set aside to 39915 meet the state's share of the basic project cost as approved by 39916 the controlling board pursuant to either section 3318.04 or 39917
division (B)(1) of section 3318.41 of the Revised Code; 39918

(J) Authorization of the school district board to advertise 39919 for and receive construction bids for the project, for and on 39920 behalf of the commission, and to award contracts in the name of 39921 the state subject to approval by the commission; 39922

(K) Provisions for the disbursement of moneys from the school 39923 district's project account upon issuance by the commission or the 39924 commission's designated representative of vouchers for work done 39925 to be certified to the commission by the treasurer of the school 39926 district board; 39927

(L) Disposal of any balance left in the school district's 39928 project construction fund upon completion of the project; 39929

(M) Limitations upon use of the project or any part of it so 39930 long as any obligations issued to finance the project under 39931 section 3318.26 of the Revised Code are outstanding; 39932

(N) Provision for vesting the state's interest in the project 39933 to the school district board when the obligations issued to 39934 finance the project under section 3318.26 of the Revised Code are 39935 outstanding; 39936

(O) Provision for deposit of an executed copy of the 39937 agreement in the office of the commission; 39938

(P) Provision for termination of the contract and release of 39939 the funds encumbered at the time of the conditional approval, if 39940 the proceeds of the sale of the bonds of the school district board 39941 are not paid into the school district's project construction fund 39942 and if bids for the construction of the project have not been 39943 taken within such period after the execution of the agreement as 39944 may be fixed by the commission; 39945

(Q) Provision for the school district to maintain the project 39946 in accordance with a plan approved by the commission; 39947

(R) Provision that all state funds reserved and encumbered to 39948 pay the state share of the cost of the project and the funds 39949 provided by the school district to pay for its share of the 39950 project cost, including the respective shares of the cost of a 39951 segment if the project is divided into segments, be spent on the 39952 construction and acquisition of the project or segment 39953 simultaneously in proportion to the state's and the school 39954 district's respective shares of that basic project cost as 39955 determined under section 3318.032 of the Revised Code or, if the 39956 district is a joint vocational school district, under section 39957 3318.42 of the Revised Code. However, if the school district 39958 certifies to the commission that expenditure by the school 39959 district is necessary to maintain the federal tax status or 39960 tax-exempt status of notes or bonds issued by the school district 39961 to pay for its share of the project cost or to comply with 39962 applicable temporary investment periods or spending exceptions to 39963 rebate as provided for under federal law in regard to those notes 39964 or bonds, the school district may commit to spend, or spend, a 39965 greater portion of the funds it provides during any specific 39966 period than would otherwise be required under this division. 39967

(S) A provision stipulating that the commission may prohibit 39968 the district from proceeding with any project if the commission 39969 determines that the site is not suitable for construction 39970 purposes. The commission may perform soil tests in its 39971 determination of whether a site is appropriate for construction 39972 purposes. 39973

(T) A provision stipulating that, unless otherwise authorized 39974 by the commission, any contingency reserve portion of the 39975 construction budget prescribed by the commission shall be used 39976 only to pay costs resulting from unforeseen job conditions, to 39977 comply with rulings regarding building and other codes, to pay 39978 costs related to design clarifications or corrections to contract 39979 documents, and to pay the costs of settlements or judgments 39980 related to the project as provided under section 3318.086 of the 39981

(U) A provision stipulating that for continued release of 39983 project funds the school district board shall comply with sections 39984 3313.41, 3313.411, and 3313.413 of the Revised Code throughout the 39985 project and shall notify the department of education and the Ohio 39986 community school association when the board plans to dispose of 39987 facilities by sale under that section; 39988

(V) A provision stipulating that the commission shall not 39989 approve a contract for demolition of a facility until the school 39990 district board has complied with sections 3313.41, 3313.411, and 39991 3313.413 of the Revised Code relative to that facility, unless 39992 demolition of that facility is to clear a site for construction of 39993 a replacement facility included in the district's project; 39994

(W) A requirement for the school district to adhere to a 39995 facilities maintenance plan approved by the commission. 39996

Sec. 3318.081. If the board of education of a school district 39997 authorized to impose a tax pursuant to section 3318.06 of the 39998 Revised Code determines that taxable value of property subject to 39999 the tax has increased to the extent it will not be necessary to 40000 impose such tax for twenty-three years in order to generate an 40001 amount equal to the amount of the project cost supplied by the 40002 state, it may request the county auditor to determine the amount 40003 remaining to be paid and the estimated rate of taxation required 40004 each year to pay such remainder in equal installments over the 40005 maximum number of remaining years the tax may be in effect. The 40006 auditor shall make such determination upon request and certify the 40007 results thereof to the board of education. 40008

Upon receipt of the auditor's determination, the board of 40009 education may request the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 40010 commission to enter into a supplemental agreement under which the 40011 district may pay the remainder of the amount in annual amounts 40012 equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the amount remaining to 40013 be paid by the maximum number of remaining years the tax may be in 40014 effect. If such an agreement is entered into, the commission shall 40015 certify a copy thereof to the county auditor and the tax 40016 authorized by section 3318.06 of the Revised Code thereafter shall 40017 be levied at the rate required to make the annual payments 40018 required by the supplemental agreement rather than the rate 40019 required by such section. 40020

Sec. 3318.082. The board of education of any school district 40021 imposing a tax for the purpose of paying the state pursuant to 40022 section 3318.06 of the Revised Code prior to the effective date of 40023 the amendments to that section by Amended Substitute House Bill 40024
No. 748 of the 121st ~~General Assembly~~ general assembly, may enter 40025 into a supplemental agreement with the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 40026 construction commission under which the proceeds of such tax shall 40027 be distributed in accordance with the requirements of section 40028 3318.06 of the Revised Code, as amended by Amended Substitute 40029
House Bill No. 748 of the 121st general assembly. 40030

Sec. 3318.083. If, after the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 40031 construction commission and a school district enter into a written 40032 agreement under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code for the 40033 construction of a classroom facilities project, the commission 40034 approves an increase in the basic project cost above the amount 40035 budgeted plus any interest earned and available in the project 40036 construction fund, the state and the school district shall share 40037 the increased cost in proportion to their respective contributions 40038 to the district's project construction fund. 40039

Sec. 3318.084. (A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary 40040 in Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code, a school district board may 40041 apply any local donated contribution toward any of the following: 40042

(1) The district's portion of the basic project cost of a 40043 project under either sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 or sections 40044 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code to reduce the amount of 40045 bonds the district otherwise must issue in order to receive state 40046 assistance under those sections; 40047

(2) If the school district is not a joint vocational school 40048 district proceeding under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 40049 Revised Code, an offset of all or part of a district's obligation 40050 to levy the tax described in division (B) of section 3318.05 of 40051 the Revised Code, which shall be applied only in the manner 40052 prescribed in division (B) of this section; 40053

(3) If the school district is a joint vocational school 40054
district proceeding under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 40055 Revised Code, all or part of the amount the school district is 40056 obligated to set aside for maintenance of the classroom facilities 40057 acquired under that project pursuant to section 3318.43 of the 40058
Revised Code. 40059

(B) No school district board shall apply any local donated 40060 contribution under division (A)(2) of this section unless the Ohio 40061 ~~school~~ facilities construction commission first approves that 40062 application. 40063

Upon the request of the school district board to apply local 40064 donated contribution under division (A)(2) of this section, the 40065 commission in consultation with the department of taxation shall 40066 determine the amount of total revenue that likely would be 40067 generated by one-half mill of the tax described in division (B) of 40068
twenty-three-year period required under that section and shall 40070 deduct from that amount any amount of local donated contribution 40071 that the board has committed to apply under division (A)(2) of 40072 this section. The commission then shall determine in consultation 40073 with the department of taxation the rate of tax over twenty-three 40074 years necessary to generate the amount of a one-half mill tax not 40075 offset by the local donated contribution. Notwithstanding anything 40076 to the contrary in section 3318.06, 3318.061, or 3318.361 of the 40077 Revised Code, the rate determined by the commission shall be the 40078 rate for which the district board shall seek elector approval 40079 under those sections to meet its obligation under division (B) of 40080 section 3318.05 of the Revised Code. In the case of a complete 40081 offset of the district's obligation under division (B) of section 40082 3318.05 of the Revised Code, the district shall not be required to 40083 levy the tax otherwise required under that section. At the end of 40084 the twenty-three-year period of the tax required under division 40085 (B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code, whether or not the tax 40086 is actually levied, the commission in consultation of the 40087 department of taxation shall recalculate the amount that would 40088 have been generated by the tax if it had been levied at one-half 40089 mill. If the total amount actually generated over that period from 40090 both the tax that was actually levied and any local donated 40091 contribution applied under division (A)(2) of this section is less 40092 than the amount that would have been raised by a one-half mill 40093 tax, the district shall pay any difference. If the total amount 40094 actually raised in such manner is greater than the amount that 40095 would have been raised by a one-half mill tax the difference shall 40096 be zero and no payments shall be made by either the district or 40097

the commission. 40098

(C) As used in this section, "local donated contribution" 40099 means any of the following: 40100

(1) Any moneys irrevocably donated or granted to a school 40101 district board by a source other than the state which the board 40102 has the authority to apply to the school district's project under 40103 sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code and which the 40104 board has pledged for that purpose by resolution adopted by a 40105 majority of its members; 40106

(3) Any cash a school district has on hand that the school district board has encumbered for payment of the school district's share of its project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code that has been approved by the commission in consultation with the department of education, including the following:

(a) Any year-end operating fund balances that can be spent for classroom facilities;

(b) Any cash resulting from a lease-purchase agreement that the school district board has entered into under section 3313.375 of the Revised Code, provided that the agreement and the related financing documents contain provisions protecting the state's superior interest in the project.

actual amount that the commission will credit, at the request of 40139 the district board, toward the district's portion of the basic 40140 project cost, any project cost overruns, or the basic project cost 40141 of future segments if the project has been divided into segments 40142 under section 3318.38 of the Revised Code. The actual amount of 40143 the credit shall not exceed the lesser of the amount specified in 40144 the agreement or the actual cost of the construction or 40145 renovation. 40146

(D) No state moneys shall be released for a project to which 40147 this section applies until: 40148

(1) Any local donated contribution authorized under division 40149
(A)(1) of this section is first deposited into the school 40150 district's project construction fund. 40151

(2) The school district board and the commission have 40152 included a stipulation in their agreement entered into under 40153 section 3318.08 of the Revised Code under which the board will 40154 deposit into a fund approved by the commission according to a 40155 schedule that does not extend beyond the anticipated completion 40156 date of the project the total amount of any local donated 40157 contribution authorized under division (A)(2) or (3) of this 40158 section and dedicated by the board for that purpose. 40159

However, if any local donated contribution as described in 40160 division (C)(4) of this section has been approved under this 40161 section, the state moneys may be released even if the entity 40162 providing that local donated contribution has not spent the moneys 40163 so dedicated as long as the agreement required under that section 40164 has been executed. 40165

Sec. 3318.086. The construction budget for any project under 40166 sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 or sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 40167 Revised Code shall contain a contingency reserve in an amount 40168 prescribed by the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission, 40169 which unless otherwise authorized by the commission, shall be used 40170 only to pay costs resulting from unforeseen job conditions, to 40171

comply with rulings regarding building and other codes, to pay 40172
costs related to design clarifications or corrections to contract 40173 documents, and to pay the costs of settlements or judgments 40174 related to the project. 40175

Sec. 3318.091. (A) Promptly after the written agreement 40176 between the school district board and the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 40177 construction commission has been entered into, the school district 40178 board shall proceed with the issuance of its bonds or notes in 40179 anticipation thereof pursuant to the provision of such agreement 40180 required by division (A) of section 3318.08 of the Revised Code 40181 and the deposit of the proceeds thereof in the school district's 40182 project construction fund pursuant to the provision of such 40183 agreement required by division (B) of section 3318.08 of the 40184 Revised Code, and the school district board, with the approval of 40185 the commission shall employ a qualified professional person or 40186 firm to prepare preliminary plans, working drawings, 40187 specifications, estimates of cost, and such data as the school 40188 district board and the commission consider necessary for the 40189 project. When the preliminary plans and preliminary estimates of 40190 cost have been prepared, and approved by the school district 40191 board, they shall be submitted to the commission for approval, 40192 modification, or rejection. The commission shall ensure that the 40193 plans and materials proposed for use in the project comply with 40194 specifications for plans and materials that shall be established 40195 by the commission. When such preliminary plans and preliminary 40196 estimates of cost and any modifications thereof have been approved 40197 by the commission and the school district board, the school 40198 district board shall cause such qualified professional person or 40199 firm to prepare the working drawings, specifications, and 40200 estimates of cost. 40201

(B) Whenever project plans submitted to the commission for 40202 approval under division (A) of this section propose to locate a 40203 facility on a state route or United States highway or within one 40204

for good cause shown, a waiver from part or all of the standards 40296 prescribed under division (B) of this section. 40297

Sec. 3318.12. (A) The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 40298 commission shall cause to be transferred to the school district's 40299 project construction fund the necessary amounts from amounts 40300 representative shall issue vouchers against such fund, in such 40311 amounts, and at such times as required by the contracts for 40312 construction of the project. 40313

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in division 40314 cost of classroom facilities or portions or components of 40319 classroom facilities that are not included in the district's basic 40320 project cost but that are related to the district's project. If 40321 the district board adopts a resolution in favor of using those 40322 investment earnings as authorized under division (B)(2) of this 40323 section, the treasurer shall disburse the amount as designated and 40324 directed by the board. However, if the district board chooses to use any part of the investment earnings for classroom facilities or portions or components of classroom facilities that are not included in the basic project cost, as authorized under division (B)(2) of this section, and, subsequently, the cost of the project exceeds the amount in the project construction fund, the district board shall restore to the project construction fund the full amount of the investment earnings used under division (B)(2) of this section before any additional state moneys shall be released for the project.

(C) After a certificate of completion has been issued for a project under section 3318.48 of the Revised Code:

Revised Code. 40359

(D) Pursuant to appropriations of the general assembly, any 40360 moneys transferred to the commission under division (C)(2) or (3) 40361 of this section from a project construction fund for a project 40362 under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code may be used 40363 for future expenditures for projects under sections 3318.40 to 40364 3318.45 of the Revised Code, notwithstanding the two per cent 40365

Sec. 3318.121. As used in this section, "big-eight school 40368 that has opted with the approval of the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 40374 construction commission to divide the project into discrete 40375 segments to be completed sequentially, or otherwise, may, with the 40376 approval of the commission or the commission's designated 40377 representative, and pursuant to a resolution adopted by the school 40378 district board, transfer to a special construction fund investment 40379 attributable to the district's contribution to that fund, if the 40381 school district board and the commission, or its designated 40382 representative, determine that the unspent amount of the 40383 district's contribution to the project construction fund, 40384 including any investment earnings on that contribution that are 40385 not to be transferred to the special construction fund, together 40386 with the principal amount of any additional securities authorized 40387 by the voters of the district to be issued to pay the local share 40388 of the basic project cost of the entire project that have not yet 40389 been issued by the district, are projected at the time of the 40390 transfer to be not less than one hundred ten per cent of the 40391 amount required to provide for the entire remaining local share of 40392 the basic project cost because of reductions in the scope and 40393 estimated cost of the project that have been incorporated in the 40394 district's approved master facilities plan. The money in that 40395 special construction fund, including investment earnings 40396 attributable to money in that fund, shall be used by the district 40397 solely to pay costs of classroom facilities (A) in later segments 40398 of the project that are consistent with the specifications for 40399 plans and materials for classroom facilities adopted by the 40400 commission and those specifications used by the district for 40401 classroom facilities included in one or more prior segments, but 40402 which would cause the cost of the facilities in one or more later 40403 segments to be in excess of the approved budgeted basic project 40404 cost for the segment to be shared by the state and the district in 40405 proportion to the state's and the school district's respective 40406 shares of the basic project cost as determined under section 40407 3318.032 of the Revised Code, or (B) that were included in the 40408 master facilities plan prior to the reduction in scope. All 40409 investment earnings on a district's special construction fund 40410 shall be credited to the fund. After the entire project has been 40411 completed, any investment earnings remaining in the special 40412 construction fund shall be transferred to the district's 40413 maintenance fund required by division (B) of section 3318.05 of 40414 the Revised Code, and used solely for maintaining the classroom 40415 paying the cost of maintaining the classroom facilities included 40420 in the project under the agreement provided in section 3318.08 of 40421 the Revised Code or the supplemental agreement provided in section 40422 3318.081 of the Revised Code shall be included in the budget of 40423 the school district for each year upon the certification to the 40424 county budget commission or commissions of the county or counties 40425 in which said school district is located, by the Ohio ~~school~~ 40426 facilities construction commission of the balance due the state 40427 under said agreement or supplemental agreement. Such certification 40428 shall be made on or before the fifteenth day of July in each year. 40429 Thereafter, the respective county budget commissions shall treat 40430 such certification as an additional item on the tax budget for the 40431 school district as to which such certification has been made and 40432 shall provide for the levy therefor in the manner provided in 40433 sections 5705.27 to 5705.50 of the Revised Code for tax levies 40434 included directly in the budgets of the subdivisions. 40435

The levy of taxes shall be included in the next annual tax 40436 budget that is certified to the county budget commission after the 40437 execution of the agreement for the project. 40438

Sec. 3318.15. There is hereby created the public school 40439 building fund within the state treasury consisting of any moneys 40440 transferred or appropriated to the fund by the general assembly, 40441 moneys paid into or transferred in accordance with section 3318.47 40442 of the Revised Code, and any grants, gifts, or contributions 40443 received by the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission to 40444 be used for the purposes of the fund. All investment earnings of 40445 the fund shall be credited to the fund. 40446

Moneys transferred or appropriated to the fund by the general 40447 assembly and moneys in the fund from grants, gifts, and 40448 contributions shall be used for the purposes of Chapter 3318. of 40449

the Revised Code as prescribed by the general assembly. 40450

Sec. 3318.16. The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 40451 commission shall have an interest in real property purchased with 40452 moneys in the school district's project construction fund. 40453

Once obligations issued to finance a project under section 40454 3318.26 of the Revised Code are no longer outstanding, any 40455 interest held by the commission shall be transferred to the school 40456
district. 40457

Sec. 3318.18. (A) As used in this section: 40458

(1) "Valuation" of a school district means the sum of the 40459 amounts described in divisions (A)(1) and (2) of section 3317.021 40460 of the Revised Code as most recently certified for the district 40461 before the annual computation is made under division (B) of this 40462
section. 40463

(2) "Valuation per pupil" of a school district means the 40464 district's valuation divided by the district's formula ADM as most 40465 recently calculated under section 3317.03 of the Revised Code 40466 before the annual computation is made under division (B) of this 40467
section. 40468

(3) "Statewide average valuation per pupil" means the total 40469 of the valuations of all school districts divided by the total of 40470 the formula ADMs of all school districts as most recently 40471 calculated under section 3317.03 of the Revised Code before the 40472 annual computation is made under division (C) of this section. 40473

(4) "Maintenance levy requirement" means the tax required to 40474 section 3318.052, division (C)(1) or (C)(2)(b) of section 3318.08, 40479

Revised Code. 40485

(B) On or before July 1, 2006, the department of education 40486 shall compute the statewide average valuation per pupil and the 40487 valuation per pupil of each school district, and provide them to 40488 the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission. On or before 40489 the first day of July each year beginning in 2007, the department 40490 of education shall compute the statewide average valuation per 40491 pupil and the valuation per pupil of each school district that has 40492 not already entered into a project agreement, and provide the 40493 results of those computations to the commission. 40494

(C)(1) At the time the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 40495 commission enters into a project agreement with a school district, 40496 the commission shall compute the difference between the district's 40497 valuation per pupil and the statewide average valuation per pupil 40498

September 1, 2006, and the district's formula ADM reported for 40515
October 2005. 40516

(3) The amount computed for a school district under division 40517
(C)(1) or (2) of this section shall not change for the period 40518 during which payments are made to the district under division (D) 40519
of this section. 40520

(4) A computation need not be made under division (C)(1) or 40521
(2) of this section for a school district that certified a 40522 resolution to the commission under division (D)(3) of section 40523 3318.36 of the Revised Code until the district becomes eligible 40524 for state assistance as provided in that division. 40525

(D) In the fourth quarter of each fiscal year, for each 40526 school district for which a computation has been made under 40527 division (C) of this section, the department of education shall 40528 agreement. 40541

(F) There is hereby created in the state treasury the 40542 half-mill equalization fund. The fund shall receive transfers 40543 pursuant to section 5727.85 of the Revised Code. The fund shall be 40544 used first to make annual payments under division (D) of this 40545 section. If a balance remains in the fund after such payments are 40546 made in full for a year, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 40547 commission may request the controlling board to transfer a 40548 reasonable amount from such remaining balance to the public school 40549 building fund created under section 3318.15 of the Revised Code 40550 for the purposes of this chapter. 40551 conditions from performing their essential functions as agencies 40556 of state government to provide adequate classroom facilities and 40557 issuing securities under Chapter 133. of the Revised Code at 40558

in order to provide deserved assistance and materially contribute 40562 to the educational revitalization of such school districts and 40563 result in improving the education and welfare of all the people of 40564
the state. 40565

(B) Sections 3318.21 to 3318.29 of the Revised Code do not 40566 authorize the commission or the issuing authority to incur bonded 40567 indebtedness of the state or any political subdivision of the 40568 state, or to obligate or pledge moneys raised by taxation for the 40569 payment of any bonds or notes issued pursuant to sections 3318.21 40570 to 3318.29 of the Revised Code. 40571

Sec. 3318.25. There is hereby created in the state treasury 40572 the school building program assistance fund. The fund shall 40573 consist of the proceeds of obligations issued for the purposes of 40574 such fund pursuant to section 3318.26 of the Revised Code that are 40575 directed by the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission for 40580 the cost to the state of constructing classroom facilities under 40581 Chapter 3318. of the Revised Code as prescribed by the general 40582 assembly. 40583

Sec. 3318.26. (A) The provisions of this section apply only 40584 to obligations issued by the issuing authority prior to December 40585
1, 1999. 40586

(B) Subject to the limitations provided in section 3318.29 of 40587 the Revised Code, the issuing authority, upon the certification by 40588 the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission to the issuing 40589 authority of the amount of moneys or additional moneys needed in 40590 the school building program assistance fund for the purposes of 40591 sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 and sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 40592 Revised Code, or needed for capitalized interest, for funding 40593 reserves, and for paying costs and expenses incurred in connection 40594 with the issuance, carrying, securing, paying, redeeming, or 40595 retirement of the obligations or any obligations refunded thereby, 40596 including payment of costs and expenses relating to letters of 40597 credit, lines of credit, insurance, put agreements, standby 40598 purchase agreements, indexing, marketing, remarketing and 40599 administrative arrangements, interest swap or hedging agreements, 40600 and any other credit enhancement, liquidity, remarketing, renewal, 40601 or refunding arrangements, all of which are authorized by this 40602 section, shall issue obligations of the state under this section 40603 in the required amount. The proceeds of such obligations, except 40604 for obligations issued to provide moneys for the school building 40605 program assistance fund shall be deposited by the treasurer of 40606 state in special funds, including reserve funds, as provided in 40607 the bond proceedings. The issuing authority may appoint trustees, 40608 paying agents, and transfer agents and may retain the services of 40609 financial advisors and accounting experts and retain or contract 40610 for the services of marketing, remarketing, indexing, and 40611 administrative agents, other consultants, and independent 40612 contractors, including printing services, as are necessary in the 40613 issuing authority's judgment to carry out this section. The costs 40614 of such services are payable from the school building program 40615 assistance fund or any special fund determined by the issuing 40616 authority. 40617

(C) The holders or owners of such obligations shall have no 40618 right to have moneys raised by taxation obligated or pledged, and 40619 moneys raised by taxation shall not be obligated or pledged, for 40620 the payment of bond service charges. Such holders or owners shall 40621 have no rights to payment of bond service charges from any money 40622 or property received by the commission, treasurer of state, or the 40623 state, or from any other use of the proceeds of the sale of the 40624 obligations, and no such moneys may be used for the payment of 40625 bond service charges, except for accrued interest, capitalized 40626 interest, and reserves funded from proceeds received upon the sale 40627 of the obligations and except as otherwise expressly provided in 40628 the applicable bond proceedings pursuant to written directions by 40629 the treasurer of state. The right of such holders and owners to 40630 payment of bond service charges shall be limited to all or that 40631 portion of the pledged receipts and those special funds pledged 40632 thereto pursuant to the bond proceedings in accordance with this 40633 section, and each such obligation shall bear on its face a 40634 statement to that effect. 40635

(D) Obligations shall be authorized by resolution or order of 40636 the issuing authority and the bond proceedings shall provide for 40637 the purpose thereof and the principal amount or amounts, and shall 40638 provide for or authorize the manner or agency for determining the 40639 principal maturity or maturities, not exceeding the limits 40640 specified in section 3318.29 of the Revised Code, the interest 40641 rate or rates or the maximum interest rate, the date of the 40642 obligations and the dates of payment of interest thereon, their 40643 denomination, and the establishment within or without the state of 40644 a place or places of payment of bond service charges. Sections 40645 9.98 to 9.983 of the Revised Code are applicable to obligations 40646 issued under this section, subject to any applicable limitation 40647 under section 3318.29 of the Revised Code. The purpose of such 40648 obligations may be stated in the bond proceedings in terms 40649 describing the general purpose or purposes to be served. The bond 40650 proceedings shall also provide, subject to the provisions of any 40651 other applicable bond proceedings, for the pledge of all, or such 40652 part as the issuing authority may determine, of the pledged 40653 receipts and the applicable special fund or funds to the payment 40654 of bond service charges, which pledges may be made either prior or 40655 subordinate to other expenses, claims, or payments, and may be 40656 made to secure the obligations on a parity with obligations 40657 theretofore or thereafter issued, if and to the extent provided in 40658 the bond proceedings. The pledged receipts and special funds so 40659 pledged and thereafter received by the state are immediately 40660 subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery 40661 thereof or further act, and the lien of any such pledges is valid 40662 and binding against all parties having claims of any kind against 40663 the state or any governmental agency of the state, irrespective of 40664 whether such parties have notice thereof, and shall create a 40665 perfected security interest for all purposes of Chapter 1309. of 40666 the Revised Code, without the necessity for separation or delivery 40667 of funds or for the filing or recording of the bond proceedings by 40668 which such pledge is created or any certificate, statement or 40669 other document with respect thereto; and the pledge of such 40670 pledged receipts and special funds is effective and the money 40671 therefrom and thereof may be applied to the purposes for which 40672 pledged without necessity for any act of appropriation, except as 40673 required by section 3770.06 of the Revised Code. Every pledge, and 40674 every covenant and agreement made with respect thereto, made in 40675 the bond proceedings may therein be extended to the benefit of the 40676 owners and holders of obligations authorized by this section, and 40677 to any trustee therefor, for the further security of the payment 40678 of the bond service charges. 40679

(E) The bond proceedings may contain additional provisions as 40680 to: 40681

(1) The redemption of obligations prior to maturity at the 40682 option of the issuing authority at such price or prices and under 40683 such terms and conditions as are provided in the bond proceedings; 40684

(2) Other terms of the obligations; 40685

(3) Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations; 40686

(4) The terms of any trust agreement or indenture securing 40687 the obligations or under which the same may be issued; 40688

(5) The deposit, investment and application of special funds, 40689 and the safeguarding of moneys on hand or on deposit, without 40690 regard to Chapter 131., 133., or 135. of the Revised Code, but 40691 subject to any special provisions of sections 3318.21 to 3318.29 40692 of the Revised Code, with respect to particular funds or moneys, 40693 provided that any bank or trust company that acts as depository of 40694 any moneys in the special funds may furnish such indemnifying 40695 bonds or may pledge such securities as required by the issuing 40696
authority; 40697

(6) Any or every provision of the bond proceedings being 40698 binding upon such officer, board, commission, authority, agency, 40699 department, or other person or body as may from time to time have 40700 the authority under law to take such actions as may be necessary 40701 to perform all or any part of the duty required by such provision; 40702

(7) Any provision that may be made in a trust agreement or 40703 indenture; 40704

(8) The lease or sublease of any interest of the school 40705 district or the state in one or more projects as defined in 40706 division (C) of section 3318.01 of the Revised Code, or in one or 40707 more permanent improvements, to or from the issuing authority, as 40708 provided in one or more lease or sublease agreements between the 40709 school or the state and the issuing authority; 40710

(9) Any other or additional agreements with the holders of 40711 the obligations, or the trustee therefor, relating to the 40712 obligations or the security therefor. 40713

(F) The obligations may have the great seal of the state or a 40714 facsimile thereof affixed thereto or printed thereon. The 40715 obligations and any coupons pertaining to obligations shall be 40716 signed or bear the facsimile signature of the issuing authority. 40717 Any obligations or coupons may be executed by the person who, on 40718 the date of execution, is the proper issuing authority although on 40719 the date of such bonds or coupons such person was not the issuing 40720 authority. In case the issuing authority whose signature or a 40721 facsimile of whose signature appears on any such obligation or 40722 coupon ceases to be the issuing authority before delivery thereof, 40723 such signature or facsimile is nevertheless valid and sufficient 40724 for all purposes as if the issuing authority had remained the 40725 issuing authority until such delivery; and in case the seal to be 40726 affixed to obligations has been changed after a facsimile of the 40727 seal has been imprinted on such obligations, such facsimile seal 40728 shall continue to be sufficient as to such obligations and 40729 obligations issued in substitution or exchange therefor. 40730

(G) All obligations are negotiable instruments and securities 40731 under Chapter 1308. of the Revised Code, subject to the provisions 40732 of the bond proceedings as to registration. The obligations may be 40733 issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the issuing 40734 authority determines. Provision may be made for the registration 40735 of any obligations with coupons attached thereto as to principal 40736 alone or as to both principal and interest, their exchange for 40737 obligations so registered, and for the conversion or reconversion 40738 into obligations with coupons attached thereto of any obligations 40739 registered as to both principal and interest, and for reasonable 40740 charges for such registration, exchange, conversion, and 40741 reconversion. 40742

(H) Obligations may be sold at public sale or at private 40743 sale, as determined in the bond proceedings. 40744

(I) Pending preparation of definitive obligations, the 40745 issuing authority may issue interim receipts or certificates which 40746 shall be exchanged for such definitive obligations. 40747

(J) In the discretion of the issuing authority, obligations 40748 may be secured additionally by a trust agreement or indenture 40749 between the issuing authority and a corporate trustee which may be 40750 any trust company or bank having a place of business within the 40751 state. Any such agreement or indenture may contain the resolution 40752 or order authorizing the issuance of the obligations, any 40753 provisions that may be contained in any bond proceedings, and 40754 other provisions that are customary or appropriate in an agreement 40755 or indenture of such type, including, but not limited to: 40756

(1) Maintenance of each pledge, trust agreement, indenture, 40757 or other instrument comprising part of the bond proceedings until 40758 the state has fully paid the bond service charges on the 40759 obligations secured thereby, or provision therefor has been made; 40760

(2) In the event of default in any payments required to be 40761 made by the bond proceedings, or any other agreement of the 40762 issuing authority made as a part of the contract under which the 40763 obligations were issued, enforcement of such payments or agreement 40764 by mandamus, the appointment of a receiver, suit in equity, action 40765 at law, or any combination of the foregoing; 40766

(3) The rights and remedies of the holders of obligations and 40767 of the trustee, and provisions for protecting and enforcing them, 40768 including limitations on rights of individual holders of 40769 obligations; 40770

(4) The replacement of any obligations that become mutilated 40771 or are destroyed, lost, or stolen; 40772

(5) Such other provisions as the trustee and the issuing 40773 authority agree upon, including limitations, conditions, or 40774 qualifications relating to any of the foregoing. 40775

(K) Any holder of obligations or a trustee under the bond 40776 proceedings, except to the extent that the holder's or trustee's 40777 rights are restricted by the bond proceedings, may by any suitable 40778 form of legal proceedings, protect and enforce any rights under 40779 the laws of this state or granted by such bond proceedings. Such 40780 rights include the right to compel the performance of all duties 40781 of the issuing authority, the commission, or the director of 40782 budget and management required by sections 3318.21 to 3318.29 of 40783 the Revised Code or the bond proceedings; to enjoin unlawful 40784 activities; and in the event of default with respect to the 40785 payment of any bond service charges on any obligations or in the 40786 performance of any covenant or agreement on the part of the 40787 issuing authority, the commission, or the director of budget and 40788 management in the bond proceedings, to apply to a court having 40789 jurisdiction of the cause to appoint a receiver to receive and 40790 administer the pledged receipts and special funds, other than 40791 those in the custody of the treasurer of state or the commission, 40792 which are pledged to the payment of the bond service charges on 40793 such obligations or which are the subject of the covenant or 40794 agreement, with full power to pay, and to provide for payment of 40795 bond service charges on, such obligations, and with such powers, 40796 subject to the direction of the court, as are accorded receivers 40797 in general equity cases, excluding any power to pledge additional 40798 revenues or receipts or other income or moneys of the issuing 40799 authority or the state or governmental agencies of the state to 40800 the payment of such principal and interest and excluding the power 40801 to take possession of, mortgage, or cause the sale or otherwise 40802 dispose of any permanent improvement. 40803

Each duty of the issuing authority and the issuing 40804 authority's officers and employees, and of each governmental 40805 agency and its officers, members, or employees, undertaken 40806 pursuant to the bond proceedings or any agreement or loan made 40807 under authority of sections 3318.21 to 3318.29 of the Revised 40808 Code, and in every agreement by or with the issuing authority, is 40809 hereby established as a duty of the issuing authority, and of each 40810 such officer, member, or employee having authority to perform such 40811 duty, specifically enjoined by the law resulting from an office, 40812 trust, or station within the meaning of section 2731.01 of the 40813
Revised Code. 40814

The person who is at the time the issuing authority, or the 40815 issuing authority's officers or employees, are not liable in their 40816 personal capacities on any obligations issued by the issuing 40817 authority or any agreements of or with the issuing authority. 40818

(L) Obligations issued under this section are lawful 40819 investments for banks, societies for savings, savings and loan 40820 associations, deposit guarantee associations, trust companies, 40821 trustees, fiduciaries, insurance companies, including domestic for 40822 life and domestic not for life, trustees or other officers having 40823 charge of sinking and bond retirement or other special funds of 40824 political subdivisions and taxing districts of this state, the 40825 commissioners of the sinking fund of the state, the administrator 40826 of workers' compensation, the state teachers retirement system, 40827 the public employees retirement system, the school employees 40828 retirement system, and the Ohio police and fire pension fund, 40829 notwithstanding any other provisions of the Revised Code or rules 40830 adopted pursuant thereto by any governmental agency of the state 40831 with respect to investments by them, and also are acceptable as 40832 security for the deposit of public moneys. 40833

(M) Unless otherwise provided in any applicable bond 40834 proceedings, moneys to the credit of or in the special funds 40835 established by or pursuant to this section may be invested by or 40836 on behalf of the issuing authority only in notes, bonds, or other 40837 obligations of the United States, or of any agency or 40838 instrumentality of the United States, obligations guaranteed as to 40839 principal and interest by the United States, obligations of this 40840 state or any political subdivision of this state, and certificates 40841 of deposit of any national bank located in this state and any 40842 bank, as defined in section 1101.01 of the Revised Code, subject 40843 to inspection by the superintendent of financial institutions. If 40844 the law or the instrument creating a trust pursuant to division 40845 (J) of this section expressly permits investment in direct 40846 obligations of the United States or an agency of the United 40847 States, unless expressly prohibited by the instrument, such moneys 40848 also may be invested in no front end load money market mutual 40849 funds consisting exclusively of obligations of the United States 40850 or an agency of the United States and in repurchase agreements, 40851 including those issued by the fiduciary itself, secured by 40852 obligations of the United States or an agency of the United 40853 States; and in collective investment funds established in 40854 accordance with section 1111.14 of the Revised Code and consisting 40855 exclusively of any such securities, notwithstanding division 40856 (B)(1)(c) of that section. The income from such investments shall 40857 be credited to such funds as the issuing authority determines, and 40858 such investments may be sold at such times as the issuing 40859 authority determines or authorizes. 40860

(N) Provision may be made in the applicable bond proceedings 40861 for the establishment of separate accounts in the bond service 40862 fund and for the application of such accounts only to the 40863 specified bond service charges on obligations pertinent to such 40864 accounts and bond service fund and for other accounts therein 40865 within the general purposes of such fund. Unless otherwise 40866 provided in any applicable bond proceedings, moneys to the credit 40867 of or in the several special funds established pursuant to this 40868 section shall be disbursed on the order of the treasurer of state, 40869 provided that no such order is required for the payment from the 40870 bond service fund when due of bond service charges on obligations. 40871

(O) The issuing authority may pledge all, or such portion as 40872 the issuing authority determines, of the pledged receipts to the 40873 payment of bond service charges on obligations issued under this 40874 section, and for the establishment and maintenance of any 40875 reserves, as provided in the bond proceedings, and make other 40876 provisions therein with respect to pledged receipts as authorized 40877 by this chapter, which provisions shall be controlling 40878 notwithstanding any other provisions of law pertaining thereto. 40879

(P) The issuing authority may covenant in the bond 40880 proceedings, and any such covenants shall be controlling 40881 notwithstanding any other provision of law, that the state and 40882 applicable officers and governmental agencies of the state, 40883 including the general assembly, so long as any obligations are 40884 outstanding, shall: 40885

(1) Maintain statutory authority for and cause to be operated 40886 the state lottery, including the transfers to and from the lottery 40887 profits education fund created in section 3770.06 of the Revised 40888 Code so that the pledged receipts shall be sufficient in amount to 40889 meet bond service charges, and the establishment and maintenance 40890 of any reserves and other requirements provided for in the bond 40891 proceedings; 40892

(2) Take or permit no action, by statute or otherwise, that 40893 would impair the exclusion from gross income for federal income 40894 tax purposes of the interest on any obligations designated by the 40895 bond proceeding as tax-exempt obligations. 40896

(Q) There is hereby created the school building program bond 40897 service fund, which shall be in the custody of the treasurer of 40898 state but shall be separate and apart from and not a part of the 40899 state treasury. All moneys received by or on account of the 40900 issuing authority or state agencies and required by the applicable 40901 bond proceedings, consistent with this section, to be deposited, 40902 transferred, or credited to the school building program bond 40903 service fund, and all other moneys transferred or allocated to or 40904 received for the purposes of the fund, shall be deposited and 40905 credited to such fund and to any separate accounts therein, 40906 subject to applicable provisions of the bond proceedings, but 40907 without necessity for any act of appropriation, except as required 40908 by section 3770.06 of the Revised Code. During the period 40909 beginning with the date of the first issuance of obligations and 40910 continuing during such time as any such obligations are 40911 outstanding, and so long as moneys in the school building program 40912 bond service fund are insufficient to pay all bond service charges 40913 on such obligations becoming due in each year, a sufficient amount 40914 of the moneys from the lottery profits education fund included in 40915 pledged receipts, subject to appropriation for such purpose as 40916 provided in section 3770.06 of the Revised Code, are committed and 40917 shall be paid to the school building program bond service fund in 40918 each year for the purpose of paying the bond service charges 40919 becoming due in that year. The school building program bond 40920 service fund is a trust fund and is hereby pledged to the payment 40921 of bond service charges solely on obligations issued to provide 40922 moneys for the school building program assistance fund to the 40923 extent provided in the applicable bond proceedings, and payment 40924 thereof from such fund shall be made or provided for by the 40925 treasurer of state in accordance with such bond proceedings 40926 without necessity for any act of appropriation except as required 40927

by section 3770.06 of the Revised Code. 40928

(R) The obligations, the transfer thereof, and the income 40929 therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, at all 40930 times shall be free from taxation within the state. 40931

Sec. 3318.311. ~~Not later than six months after September 14,~~ 40932 ~~2000, the~~ The Ohio school facilities construction commission shall 40933 establish design specifications for classroom facilities that are 40934 appropriate for joint vocational education programs. The 40935 specifications shall provide standards for appropriate pupil 40936 instruction space but shall not include standards for any 40937 vocational education furnishings or equipment that is not 40938 comparable to, or the vocational education equivalent of, the 40939 furnishings or equipment for which assistance is available to 40940 other school districts under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the 40941
Revised Code. 40942

Beginning September 1, 2003, from time to time the commission 40943 may amend the specifications as determined necessary by the 40944 commission; however, any project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 40945 of the Revised Code approved by the commission prior to the most 40946 recent amendment to the specifications shall not be subject to the 40947 provisions of such amendment. 40948

Sec. 3318.351. (A) As used in this section: 40949

(1) "Classroom facilities" has the same meaning as in section 40950
3318.01 of the Revised Code. 40951

(2) "Emergency project" means reconstruction or renovation of 40952 or repair to any classroom facilities made necessary because of 40953 damage due to an act of God. 40954

(3) "Eligible school district" means any school district in 40955 the first through one-hundredth percentiles as determined under 40956
section 3318.011 of the Revised Code. 40957

(B)(1) There is hereby established the school building 40958 emergency assistance program, under which the Ohio ~~school~~ 40959 facilities construction commission shall distribute grants to 40960 eligible school districts from moneys specifically appropriated by 40961 the general assembly for the purposes of this section to assist in 40962 emergency projects. Any assistance under this section shall be 40963 used to pay the cost of only the portion of an emergency project 40964 that is not covered by insurance or other public or private 40965 emergency assistance received by or payable to the school 40966 district. Any damage to classroom facilities caused by age of the 40967 facilities or by lack of timely maintenance to the facilities 40968 shall not constitute damage that is subject to assistance under 40969
this section. 40970

(2) The commission shall establish procedures and deadlines 40971 for eligible school districts to follow in applying for assistance 40972 under this section. The commission shall consider such 40973 applications on a case-by-case basis taking into account the 40974 amount of moneys available under this section. 40975

(3) Every effort shall be made to conform an emergency 40976 project to design specifications adopted by the commission, 40977 including minimum capacity requirements adopted under section 40978 3318.03 of the Revised Code, unless in the judgment of the 40979 commission it is not possible to conform the project to such 40980 specifications. 40981

Sec. 3318.36. (A)(1) As used in this section: 40982

(a) "Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission," 40983

"classroom facilities," "school district," "school district board," "net bonded indebtedness," "required percentage of the basic project costs," "basic project cost," "valuation," and "percentile" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised Code.

(b) "Required level of indebtedness" means five per cent of the school district's valuation for the year preceding the year in which the commission and school district enter into an agreement under division (B) of this section, plus [two one-hundredths of one per cent multiplied by (the percentile in which the district ranks minus one)].

(c) "Local resources" means any moneys generated in any manner permitted for a school district board to raise the school district portion of a project undertaken with assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code.

(2) For purposes of determining the required level of indebtedness, the required percentage of the basic project costs under division (C)(1) of this section, and priority for assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, the percentile ranking of a school district with which the commission has entered into an agreement under this section between the first day of July and the thirty-first day of August in each fiscal year is the percentile ranking calculated for that district for the immediately preceding fiscal year, and the percentile ranking of a school district with which the commission has entered into such agreement between the first day of September and the thirtieth day of June in each fiscal year is the percentile ranking calculated for that district for the current fiscal year.

(B)(1) There is hereby established the school building assistance expedited local partnership program. Under the program, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission may enter into an agreement with the board of any school district under which the board may proceed with the new construction or major repairs of a 41016 part of the district's classroom facilities needs, as determined 41017

under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, through the 41018 expenditure of local resources prior to the school district's 41019 eligibility for state assistance under those sections, and may 41020 apply that expenditure toward meeting the school district's 41021 portion of the basic project cost of the total of the district's 41022 classroom facilities needs, as recalculated under division (E) of 41023 this section, when the district becomes eligible for state 41024 assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 or section 3318.364 41025 of the Revised Code. Any school district that is reasonably 41026 expected to receive assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 41027 of the Revised Code within two fiscal years from the date the 41028 school district adopts its resolution under division (B) of this 41029 section shall not be eligible to participate in the program 41030 established under this section. 41031

(2) To participate in the program, a school district board 41032 shall first adopt a resolution certifying to the commission the 41033 board's intent to participate in the program. 41034

The resolution shall specify the approximate date that the 41035 board intends to seek elector approval of any bond or tax measures 41036 or to apply other local resources to use to pay the cost of 41037 classroom facilities to be constructed under this section. The 41038 resolution may specify the application of local resources or 41039 elector-approved bond or tax measures after the resolution is 41040 adopted by the board, and in such case the board may proceed with 41041 a discrete portion of its project under this section as soon as 41042 the commission and the controlling board have approved the basic 41043 project cost of the district's classroom facilities needs as 41044 specified in division (D) of this section. The board shall submit 41045 its resolution to the commission not later than ten days after the 41046 date the resolution is adopted by the board. 41047

The commission shall not consider any resolution that is 41048 submitted pursuant to division (B)(2) of this section, as amended 41049
by this amendment, sooner than September 14, 2000. 41050

(3) For purposes of determining when a district that enters 41051 into an agreement under this section becomes eligible for 41052
assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code 41053 or priority for assistance under section 3318.364 of the Revised 41054 Code, the commission shall use the district's percentile ranking 41055 determined at the time the district entered into the agreement 41056 under this section, as prescribed by division (A)(2) of this 41057
section. 41058

(4) Any project under this section shall comply with section 41059 3318.03 of the Revised Code and with any specifications for plans 41060 and materials for classroom facilities adopted by the commission 41061
under section 3318.04 of the Revised Code. 41062

(5) If a school district that enters into an agreement under 41063 this section has not begun a project applying local resources as 41064 provided for under that agreement at the time the district is 41065 notified by the commission that it is eligible to receive state 41066 assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code, 41067 all assessment and agreement documents entered into under this 41068 section are void. 41069

(6) Only construction of or repairs to classroom facilities 41070 that have been approved by the commission and have been therefore 41071 included as part of a district's basic project cost qualify for 41072 application of local resources under this section. 41073

(C) Based on the results of on-site visits and assessment, 41074 the commission shall determine the basic project cost of the 41075 school district's classroom facilities needs. The commission shall 41076 determine the school district's portion of such basic project 41077 cost, which shall be the greater of: 41078

(1) The required percentage of the basic project costs, 41079 determined based on the school district's percentile ranking; 41080

(2) An amount necessary to raise the school district's net 41081 bonded indebtedness, as of the fiscal year the commission and the 41082 school district enter into the agreement under division (B) of 41083 this section, to within five thousand dollars of the required 41084 level of indebtedness. 41085

(D)(1) When the commission determines the basic project cost 41086 of the classroom facilities needs of a school district and the 41087 school district's portion of that basic project cost under 41088 division (C) of this section, the project shall be conditionally 41089 approved. Such conditional approval shall be submitted to the 41090 controlling board for approval thereof. The controlling board 41091 shall forthwith approve or reject the commission's determination, 41092 conditional approval, and the amount of the state's portion of the 41093 basic project cost; however, no state funds shall be encumbered 41094 under this section. Upon approval by the controlling board, the 41095 school district board may identify a discrete part of its 41096 classroom facilities needs, which shall include only new 41097 construction of or additions or major repairs to a particular 41098 building, to address with local resources. Upon identifying a part 41099 of the school district's basic project cost to address with local 41100 resources, the school district board may allocate any available 41101 school district moneys to pay the cost of that identified part, 41102 including the proceeds of an issuance of bonds if approved by the 41103 electors of the school district. 41104

All local resources utilized under this division shall first 41105 be deposited in the project construction account required under 41106
section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. 41107

(2) Unless the school district board exercises its option 41108 under division (D)(3) of this section, for a school district to 41109 qualify for participation in the program authorized under this 41110 section, one of the following conditions shall be satisfied: 41111

(a) The electors of the school district by a majority vote 41112 shall approve the levy of taxes outside the ten-mill limitation 41113 for a period of twenty-three years at the rate of not less than 41114 one-half mill for each dollar of valuation to be used to pay the 41115 cost of maintaining the classroom facilities included in the basic 41116 project cost as determined by the commission. The form of the 41117 ballot to be used to submit the question whether to approve the 41118 tax required under this division to the electors of the school 41119 district shall be the form for an additional levy of taxes 41120 prescribed in section 3318.361 of the Revised Code, which may be 41121 combined in a single ballot question with the questions prescribed 41122
under section 5705.218 of the Revised Code. 41123

(b) As authorized under division (C) of section 3318.05 of 41124 the Revised Code, the school district board shall earmark from the 41125 proceeds of a permanent improvement tax levied under section 41126 5705.21 of the Revised Code, an amount equivalent to the 41127 additional tax otherwise required under division (D)(2)(a) of this 41128 section for the maintenance of the classroom facilities included 41129 in the basic project cost as determined by the commission. 41130

(c) As authorized under section 3318.051 of the Revised Code, 41131 the school district board shall, if approved by the commission, 41132 annually transfer into the maintenance fund required under section 41133 3318.05 of the Revised Code the amount prescribed in section 41134 3318.051 of the Revised Code in lieu of the tax otherwise required 41135 under division (D)(2)(a) of this section for the maintenance of 41136 the classroom facilities included in the basic project cost as 41137 determined by the commission. 41138

(d) If the school district board has rescinded the agreement 41139 to make transfers under section 3318.051 of the Revised Code, as 41140 provided under division (F) of that section, the electors of the 41141 school district, in accordance with section 3318.063 of the 41142

Revised Code, first shall approve the levy of taxes outside the 41143 ten-mill limitation for the period specified in that section at a 41144 rate of not less than one-half mill for each dollar of valuation. 41145

(e) The school district board shall apply the proceeds of a 41146 tax to leverage bonds as authorized under section 3318.052 of the 41147 Revised Code or dedicate a local donated contribution in the 41148 manner described in division (B) of section 3318.084 of the 41149 Revised Code in an amount equivalent to the additional tax 41150 otherwise required under division (D)(2)(a) of this section for 41151 the maintenance of the classroom facilities included in the basic 41152 project cost as determined by the commission. 41153

(3) A school district board may opt to delay taking any of 41154 the actions described in division (D)(2) of this section until the 41155 school district becomes eligible for state assistance under 41156 sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code. In order to 41157 exercise this option, the board shall certify to the commission a 41158 resolution indicating the board's intent to do so prior to 41159 entering into an agreement under division (B) of this section. 41160

(4) If pursuant to division (D)(3) of this section a district 41161 board opts to delay levying an additional tax until the district 41162 becomes eligible for state assistance, it shall submit the 41163 question of levying that tax to the district electors as follows: 41164

(a) In accordance with section 3318.06 of the Revised Code if 41165 it will also be necessary pursuant to division (E) of this section 41166 to submit a proposal for approval of a bond issue; 41167

(b) In accordance with section 3318.361 of the Revised Code 41168 if it is not necessary to also submit a proposal for approval of a 41169 bond issue pursuant to division (E) of this section. 41170

(5) No state assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of 41171 the Revised Code shall be released until a school district board 41172 that adopts and certifies a resolution under division (D) of this 41173 section also demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commission 41174 compliance with the provisions of division (D)(2) of this section. 41175

Any amount required for maintenance under division (D)(2) of 41176 this section shall be deposited into a separate fund as specified 41177 in division (B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code. 41178

(E)(1) If the school district becomes eligible for state 41179
assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code 41180 based on its percentile ranking under division (B)(3) of this 41181 section or is offered assistance under section 3318.364 of the 41182 Revised Code, the commission shall conduct a new assessment of the 41183 school district's classroom facilities needs and shall recalculate 41184 the basic project cost based on this new assessment. The basic 41185 project cost recalculated under this division shall include the 41186 amount of expenditures made by the school district board under 41187 division (D)(1) of this section. The commission shall then 41188 recalculate the school district's portion of the new basic project 41189 cost, which shall be the percentage of the original basic project 41190 cost assigned to the school district as its portion under division 41191 (C) of this section. The commission shall deduct the expenditure 41192 of school district moneys made under division (D)(1) of this 41193 section from the school district's portion of the basic project 41194 cost as recalculated under this division. If the amount of school 41195 district resources applied by the school district board to the 41196 school district's portion of the basic project cost under this 41197 section is less than the total amount of such portion as 41198 recalculated under this division, the school district board by a 41199 majority vote of all of its members shall, if it desires to seek 41200 state assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised 41201 Code, adopt a resolution as specified in section 3318.06 of the 41202 Revised Code to submit to the electors of the school district the 41203 question of approval of a bond issue in order to pay any 41204 additional amount of school district portion required for state 41205 assistance. Any tax levy approved under division (D) of this 41206 section satisfies the requirements to levy the additional tax 41207

under section 3318.06 of the Revised Code. 41208

(2) If the amount of school district resources applied by the 41209 school district board to the school district's portion of the 41210 basic project cost under this section is more than the total 41211 amount of such portion as recalculated under this division, within 41212 one year after the school district's portion is recalculated under 41213 division (E)(1) of this section the commission may grant to the 41214 school district the difference between the two calculated 41215 portions, but at no time shall the commission expend any state 41216 funds on a project in an amount greater than the state's portion 41217 of the basic project cost as recalculated under this division. 41218

Any reimbursement under this division shall be only for local 41219 resources the school district has applied toward construction cost 41220 expenditures for the classroom facilities approved by the 41221 commission, which shall not include any financing costs associated 41222 with that construction. 41223

The school district board shall use any moneys reimbursed to 41224 the district under this division to pay off any debt service the 41225 district owes for classroom facilities constructed under its 41226 project under this section before such moneys are applied to any 41227 other purpose. However, the district board first may deposit 41228 moneys reimbursed under this division into the district's general 41229 fund or a permanent improvement fund to replace local resources 41230 the district withdrew from those funds, as long as, and to the 41231 extent that, those local resources were used by the district for 41232 constructing classroom facilities included in the district's basic 41233 project cost. 41234

Sec. 3318.362. This section applies only to a school district 41235 that participates in the school building assistance expedited 41236 local partnership program under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code. 41237

A school district board that enters into an agreement with the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission under division (B) of section 3318.36 of the Revised Code may propose for issuance any bonds necessary for its participation in the program under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code for any number of years not exceeding the term calculated pursuant to section 133.20 of the Revised Code. Any moneys received from the state under division (E)(2) of section 3318.36 of the Revised Code shall be applied, as agreed in writing by the school district board and the commission, to pay debt service on outstanding bonds or bond anticipation notes issued by the school district board for its participation in the expedited local partnership program, including by placing those moneys in an applicable escrow fund under division (D) of section 133.34 of the Revised Code. 41239

Sec. 3318.363. (A) This section applies beginning in fiscal year 2003 and only to a school district participating in the school building assistance expedited local partnership program under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code. 41253
41256

(B) If there is a decrease in the tax valuation of a school district to which this section applies by ten per cent or greater from one tax year to the next due to a decrease in the assessment rate of the taxable property of an electric company that owns property in the district, as provided for in section 5727.111 of the Revised Code as amended by Am. Sub. S.B. 3 of the 123rd General Assembly, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission shall calculate or recalculate the state and school district portions of the basic project cost of the school district's project by determining the percentile rank in which the district would be located if such ranking were made using the 41257 adjusted valuation per pupil calculated under division (C) of this 41268 section rather than the three-year average adjusted valuation per 41269 pupil, calculated under division (B) of section 3318.011 of the 41270 Revised Code. For such district, the required percentage of the 41271 basic project cost used to determine the state and school district 41272 shares of that cost under division (C) of section 3318.36 of the 41273 Revised Code shall be based on the percentile rank as calculated 41274 under this section rather than as otherwise provided in division 41275 (C)(1) of section 3318.36 of the Revised Code. If the commission 41276 has determined the state and school district portion of the basic 41277 project cost of such a district's project under section 3318.36 of 41278 the Revised Code prior to that decrease in tax valuation, the 41279 commission shall adjust the state and school district shares of 41280 the basic project cost of such project in accordance with this 41281

section. 41282

(C)(1) As used in divisions (C) and (D) of this section, 41283
"total taxable value" and "formula ADM" have the same meanings as 41284 in section 3317.02 of the Revised Code, and "income factor" has 41285 the same meaning as in section 3318.011 of the Revised Code. 41286

(2) The adjusted valuation per pupil for a school district to 41287 which this section applies shall be calculated using the following 41288 formula: 41289

(The district's total taxable value for the tax year 41290 preceding the calendar year in which the current fiscal year 41291 begins / the district's formula ADM for the previous fiscal year) 41292
- [$30,000 x (1 - the district's income factor)]. 41293

(D) At the request of the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 41294 commission, the department of education shall report a district's 41295 total taxable value for the tax year preceding the calendar year 41296 in which the current fiscal year begins for any district to which 41297 this section applies as that information has been certified to the 41298 department by the tax commissioner pursuant to section 3317.021 of 41299

the Revised Code. 41300

Sec. 3318.364. In any fiscal year, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 41301 construction commission may, at its discretion, provide assistance 41302 under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code to a school 41303 district that has entered into an expedited local partnership 41304 agreement under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code before the 41305 district is otherwise eligible for that assistance based on its 41306 percentile rank, if the commission determines all of the 41307
following: 41308

(A) The district has made an expenditure of local resources 41309 under its expedited local partnership agreement on a discrete part 41310 of its district-wide project. 41311

(B) The district is ready to complete its district-wide 41312 project or a segment of the project, in accordance with section 41313
3318.034 of the Revised Code. 41314

(C) The district is in compliance with division (D)(2) of 41315
section 3318.36 of the Revised Code. 41316

(D) Sufficient state funds have been appropriated for 41317 classroom facilities projects for the fiscal year to pay the state 41318 share of the district's project or segment after paying the state 41319 share of projects for all of the following: 41320

(1) Districts that previously had their conditional approval 41321 lapse pursuant to section 3318.05 of the Revised Code; 41322

(2) Districts eligible for assistance under division (B)(2) 41323
of section 3318.04 of the Revised Code; 41324

(3) Districts participating in the exceptional needs school 41325 facilities assistance program under section 3318.37 or 3318.371 of 41326
the Revised Code; 41327

(4) Districts participating in the accelerated urban school 41328 building assistance program under section 3318.38 of the Revised 41329

Assistance under this section shall be offered to eligible 41331 districts in the order of their percentile rankings at the time 41332 they entered into their expedited local partnership agreements, 41333 from lowest to highest percentile. In the event that more than one 41334 district has the same percentile ranking, those districts shall be 41335 offered assistance in the order of the date they entered into 41336 their expedited local partnership agreements, from earliest to 41337 latest date. 41338

As used in this section, "local resources" and "percentile" 41339 have the same meanings as in section 3318.36 of the Revised Code. 41340

Sec. 3318.37. (A)(1) As used in this section: 41341

(a) "Full maintenance amount" has the same meaning as in 41342
section 3318.034 of the Revised Code. 41343

(b) A "school district with an exceptional need for immediate 41344 classroom facilities assistance" means a school district with an 41345 exceptional need for new facilities in order to protect the health 41346 and safety of all or a portion of its students. 41347

(2) No school district that participates in the school 41348 building assistance expedited local partnership program under 41349 section 3318.36 of the Revised Code shall receive assistance under 41350 the program established under this section unless the following 41351 conditions are satisfied: 41352

(a) The district board adopted a resolution certifying its 41353
intent to participate in the school building assistance expedited 41354
local partnership program under section 3318.36 of the Revised 41355
Code prior to September 14, 2000. 41356

(b) The district was selected by the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 41357 construction commission for participation in the school building 41358 assistance expedited local partnership program under section 41359

3318.36 of the Revised Code in the manner prescribed by the 41360 commission under that section as it existed prior to September 14, 41361 2000. 41362

(B)(1) There is hereby established the exceptional needs 41363 school facilities assistance program. Under the program, the Ohio 41364 ~~school~~ facilities construction commission may set aside from the 41365 moneys annually appropriated to it for classroom facilities 41366 assistance projects up to twenty-five per cent for assistance to 41367 school districts with exceptional needs for immediate classroom 41368 facilities assistance. 41369

(2)(a) After consulting with education and construction 41370 experts, the commission shall adopt guidelines for identifying 41371 school districts with an exceptional need for immediate classroom 41372 facilities assistance. 41373

(b) The guidelines shall include application forms and 41374 instructions for school districts to use in applying for 41375 assistance under this section. 41376

(3) The commission shall evaluate the classroom facilities, 41377 and the need for replacement classroom facilities from the 41378 applications received under this section. The commission, 41379 utilizing the guidelines adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of this 41380 section, shall prioritize the school districts to be assessed. 41381

Notwithstanding section 3318.02 of the Revised Code, the 41382 commission may conduct on-site evaluation of the school districts 41383 prioritized under this section and approve and award funds until 41384 such time as all funds set aside under division (B)(1) of this 41385 section have been encumbered. However, the commission need not 41386 conduct the evaluation of facilities if the commission determines 41387 that a district's assessment conducted under section 3318.36 of 41388 the Revised Code is sufficient for purposes of this section. 41389

(4) Notwithstanding division (A) of section 3318.05 of the 41390

Revised Code, the school district's portion of the basic project 41391 cost under this section shall be the "required percentage of the 41392 basic project costs," as defined in division (K) of section 41393
3318.01 of the Revised Code. 41394

(5) Except as otherwise specified in this section, any 41395 project undertaken with assistance under this section shall comply 41396 with all provisions of sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised 41397 Code. A school district may receive assistance under sections 41398 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code for the remainder of the 41399 district's classroom facilities needs as assessed under this 41400 section when the district is eligible for such assistance pursuant 41401 to section 3318.02 of the Revised Code, but any classroom facility 41402 constructed with assistance under this section shall not be 41403 included in a district's project at that time unless the 41404 commission determines the district has experienced the increased 41405 enrollment specified in division (B)(1) of section 3318.04 of the 41406
Revised Code. 41407

(C) No school district shall receive assistance under this 41408 section for a classroom facility that has been included in the 41409 discrete part of the district's classroom facilities needs 41410 identified and addressed in the district's project pursuant to an 41411 agreement entered into under section 3318.36 of the Revised Code, 41412 unless the district's entire classroom facilities plan consists of 41413 only a single building designed to house grades kindergarten 41414 through twelve. 41415

(D)(1) When undertaking a project under this section, a 41416 school district may elect to prorate its full maintenance amount 41417
by setting aside for maintenance the amount calculated under 41418 division (D)(2) of this section to maintain the classroom 41419 facilities acquired under the project, if the district will use 41420
one or more of the alternative methods authorized in sections 41421 3318.051, 3318.052, and 3318.084 of the Revised Code to generate 41422

the entire amount calculated under that division. If the district
agreement entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code a statement specifying that the district will use the amount calculated under that division only to maintain the classroom facilities acquired under the project under this section.

(2) The commission shall calculate the amount for a school district to maintain the classroom facilities acquired under a project under this section as follows:

The full maintenance amount X (the school district's portion of the basic project cost under this section / the school district's portion of the basic project cost for the district's entire classroom facilities needs, as determined jointly by the staff of the commission and the district)

(3) A school district may elect to prorate its full maintenance amount for any number of projects under this section, provided the district will use one or more of the alternative methods authorized in sections 3318.051, 3318.052, and 3318.084 of the Revised Code to generate the entire amount calculated under division (D)(2) of this section to maintain the classroom facilities acquired under each project for which it so elects. If the district cannot use one or more of those alternative methods
to generate the entire amount calculated under that division, the district shall levy the tax described in division (B) of section 3318.05 of the Revised Code or an extension of that tax under section 3318.061 of the Revised Code in an amount necessary to generate the remainder of its full maintenance amount. The commission shall calculate the remainder of the district's full maintenance amount as follows:

The full maintenance amount - the sum of the amounts calculated for the district under division (D)(2) of this section for each of the district's prior projects under this section

(4) In no case shall the sum of the amounts calculated for a school district's maintenance of classroom facilities under divisions (D)(2) and (3) of this section exceed the amount that would have been required for maintenance if the district had elected to meet its entire classroom facilities needs with a project under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code and had not undertaken one or more projects under this section.

Sec. 3318.371. The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission may provide assistance under the exceptional needs school facilities program established by section 3318.37 of the Revised Code to any school district for the purpose of the relocation or replacement of classroom facilities required as a result of any contamination of air, soil, or water that impacts the occupants of the facility.

The commission shall make a determination in accordance with guidelines adopted by the commission regarding eligibility and funding for projects under this section. The commission may contract with an independent environmental consultant to conduct a study to assist the commission in making the determination.

If the federal government or other public or private entity provides funds for restitution of costs incurred by the state or 41486 school district in the relocation or replacement of the classroom 41487 facilities, the school district shall use such funds in excess of 41488 the school district's share to refund the state for the state's 41489 contribution to the environmental contamination portion of the 41490 project. The school district may apply an amount of such 41491 restitution funds up to an amount equal to the school district's 41492 portion of the project, as defined by the commission, toward 41493 paying its portion of that project to reduce the amount of bonds 41494 the school district otherwise must issue to receive state 41495 assistance under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code. 41496

Sec. 3318.38. (A) As used in this section, "big-eight school 41497 district" has the same meaning as in section 3314.02 of the 41498
Revised Code. 41499

(B) There is hereby established the accelerated urban school 41500 building assistance program. Under the program, notwithstanding 41501 section 3318.02 of the Revised Code, any big-eight school district 41502 that has not been approved to receive assistance under sections 41503 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the Revised Code by July 1, 2002, may 41504 beginning on that date apply for approval of and be approved for 41505 such assistance. Except as otherwise provided in this section, any 41506 project approved and undertaken pursuant to this section shall 41507 comply with all provisions of sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 of the 41508
Revised Code. 41509

The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission shall 41510 provide assistance to any big-eight school district eligible for 41511 assistance under this section in the following manner: 41512

(1) Notwithstanding section 3318.02 of the Revised Code: 41513

(a) Not later than June 30, 2002, the commission shall 41514 conduct an on-site visit and shall assess the classroom facilities 41515 needs of each big-eight school district eligible for assistance 41516

under this section; 41517

(b) Beginning July 1, 2002, any big-eight school district 41518 eligible for assistance under this section may apply to the 41519 commission for conditional approval of its project as determined 41520 by the assessment conducted under division (B)(1)(a) of this 41521 section. The commission may conditionally approve that project and 41522 submit it to the controlling board for approval pursuant to 41523
section 3318.04 of the Revised Code. 41524

(2) If the controlling board approves the project of a 41525 big-eight school district eligible for assistance under this 41526 section, the commission and the school district shall enter into 41527 an agreement as prescribed in section 3318.08 of the Revised Code. 41528 Any agreement executed pursuant to this division shall include any 41529 applicable segmentation provisions as approved by the commission 41530
under division (B)(3) of this section. 41531

(3) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 41532 3318.05, 3318.06, and 3318.08 of the Revised Code, a big-eight 41533 school district eligible for assistance under this section may 41534 with the approval of the commission opt to divide the project as 41535 approved under division (B)(1)(b) of this section into discrete 41536 segments to be completed sequentially. Any project divided into 41537 segments shall comply with all other provisions of sections 41538 3318.05, 3318.06, and 3318.08 of the Revised Code except as 41539 otherwise specified in this division. 41540

If a project is divided into segments under this division: 41541

(a) The school district need raise only the amount equal to 41542 its proportionate share, as determined under section 3318.032 of 41543 the Revised Code, of each segment at any one time and may seek 41544 voter approval of each segment separately; 41545

(b) The state's proportionate share, as determined under 41546 section 3318.032 of the Revised Code, of only the segment which 41547 has been approved by the school district electors or for which the district has applied a local donated contribution under section 3318.084 of the Revised Code shall be encumbered in accordance with section 3318.11 of the Revised Code. Encumbrance of additional amounts to cover the state's proportionate share of later segments shall be approved separately as they are approved by the school district electors or as the district applies a local donated contribution to the segments under section 3318.084 of the Revised Code.

(c) The school district's maintenance levy requirement, as defined in section 3318.18 of the Revised Code, shall run for twenty-three years from the date the first segment is undertaken.

(C) In accordance with division (R) of section 3318.08 of the Revised Code, the state funds reserved and encumbered and the funds provided by the school district to pay the basic project cost of any segment of the project under this section, or of the entire project if it is not divided into segments, shall be spent on the construction and acquisition of the project simultaneously in proportion to the state's and the school district's respective shares of that basic project cost as determined under section 3318.032 of the Revised Code.

Sec. 3318.40. (A)(1) Sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code apply only to joint vocational school districts.

(2) As used in sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code:

(a) "Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission," "classroom facilities," "project," and "basic project cost" have the same meanings as in section 3318.01 of the Revised Code.

(b) "Acquisition of classroom facilities" means constructing, reconstructing, repairing, or making additions to classroom facilities. 41578

(B) There is hereby established the vocational school 41579 facilities assistance program. Under the program, the Ohio ~~school~~ 41580 facilities construction commission shall provide assistance to 41581 joint vocational school districts for the acquisition of classroom 41582 facilities suitable to the vocational education programs of the 41583 districts in accordance with sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 41584 Revised Code. For purposes of the program, beginning July 1, 2003, 41585 the commission annually may set aside up to two per cent of the 41586 aggregate amount appropriated to it for classroom facilities 41587 assistance projects in the public school building fund, 41588 established under section 3318.15 of the Revised Code, and the 41589 school building program assistance fund, established under section 41590
3318.25 of the Revised Code. 41591

(C) The commission shall not provide assistance for any 41592 distinct part of a project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of 41593 the Revised Code that when completed will be used exclusively for 41594 an adult education program or exclusively for operation of a 41595 driver training school for instruction leading to the issuance of 41596 a commercial driver's license under Chapter 4506. of the Revised 41597 Code, except for life safety items and basic building components 41598 necessary for complete and continuous construction or renovation 41599 of a classroom facility as determined by the commission. 41600

(D) The commission shall not provide assistance under 41601 sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code to acquire 41602 classroom facilities for vocational educational instruction at a 41603 location under the control of a school district that is a member 41604 of a joint vocational school district. Any assistance to acquire 41605 classroom facilities for vocational educational instruction at 41606 such location shall be provided to the school district that is a 41607 member of the joint vocational school district through other 41608 provisions of this chapter when that member school district is 41609 eligible for assistance under those provisions. 41610

(E) By September 1, 2003, the commission shall assess the 41611 classroom facilities needs of at least five joint vocational 41612 school districts, according to the order of priority prescribed in 41613 division (B) of section 3318.42 of the Revised Code, and based on 41614 the results of those assessments shall determine the extent to 41615 which amendments to the specifications adopted under section 41616 3318.311 of the Revised Code are warranted. The commission, 41617 thereafter, may amend the specifications as provided in that 41618
section. 41619

(F) After the commission has conducted the assessments 41620 prescribed in division (E) of this section, the commission shall 41621 establish, by rule adopted in accordance with section 111.15 of 41622 the Revised Code, guidelines for the commission to use in deciding 41623 whether to waive compliance with the design specifications adopted 41624 under section 3318.311 of the Revised Code when determining the 41625 number of facilities and the basic project cost of projects as 41626 prescribed in division (A)(1)(a) of section 3318.41 of the Revised 41627 Code. The guidelines shall address the following situations: 41628

(1) Under what circumstances, if any, particular classroom 41629 facilities are adequate to meet the needs of the school district 41630 even though the facilities do not comply with the specifications 41631 adopted under section 3318.311 of the Revised Code; 41632

(2) Under what circumstances, if any, particular classroom 41633 facilities will be renovated or repaired rather than replaced by 41634 construction of new facilities. 41635

Sec. 3318.41. (A)(1) The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 41636 commission annually shall assess the classroom facilities needs of 41637 the number of joint vocational school districts that the 41638 commission reasonably expects to be able to provide assistance to 41639 in a fiscal year, based on the amount set aside for that fiscal 41640 year under division (B) of section 3318.40 of the Revised Code and 41641 the order of priority prescribed in division (B) of section 41642 3318.42 of the Revised Code, except that in fiscal year 2004 the 41643 commission shall conduct at least the five assessments prescribed 41644 in division (E) of section 3318.40 of the Revised Code. 41645

Upon conducting an assessment of the classroom facilities 41646 needs of a school district, the commission shall make a 41647 determination of all of the following: 41648

(a) The number of classroom facilities to be included in a 41649 project and the basic project cost of acquiring the classroom 41650 facilities included in the project. The number of facilities and 41651 basic project cost shall be determined in accordance with the 41652 specifications adopted under section 3318.311 of the Revised Code 41653 except to the extent that compliance with such specifications is 41654 waived by the commission pursuant to the rule of the commission 41655 adopted under division (F) of section 3318.40 of the Revised Code. 41656

(b) The school district's portion of the basic project cost 41657 as determined under division (C) of section 3318.42 of the Revised 41658
Code; 41659

(c) The remaining portion of the basic project cost that 41660 shall be supplied by the state; 41661

(d) The amount of the state's portion of the basic project 41662 cost to be encumbered in accordance with section 3318.11 of the 41663 Revised Code in the current and subsequent fiscal years from funds 41664 set aside under division (B) of section 3318.40 of the Revised 41665
Code. 41666

(2) Divisions (A), (C), and (D) of section 3318.03 of the 41667
Revised Code apply to any project under sections 3318.40 to 41668

(B)(1) If the commission makes a determination under division 41670
(A) of this section in favor of the acquisition of classroom 41671 facilities for a project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, such project shall be conditionally approved. Such conditional approval shall be submitted to the controlling board for approval. The controlling board shall immediately approve or reject the commission's determination, conditional approval, the amount of the state's portion of the basic project cost, and the amount of the state's portion of the basic project cost to be encumbered in the current fiscal year. In the event of approval by the controlling board, the commission shall certify the conditional approval to the joint vocational school district board of education and shall encumber the approved funds for the current fiscal year.

and manner prescribed in section 3318.43 of the Revised Code. 41704

(D)(1) The conditional approval for a project certified under 41705 division (B)(1) of this section shall lapse and the amount 41706 reserved and encumbered for such project shall be released unless 41707 both of the following conditions are satisfied: 41708

(a) Within one hundred twenty days following the date of 41709 certification of the conditional approval to the joint vocational 41710 school district board, the school district board accepts the 41711 conditional approval and certifies to the commission the school 41712 district board's plan to generate the school district's portion of 41713 the basic project cost, as determined under division (C) of 41714 section 3318.42 of the Revised Code, and to set aside moneys for 41715 maintenance of the classroom facilities acquired under the 41716
project, as prescribed in section 3318.43 of the Revised Code. 41717

(b) Within thirteen months following the date of 41718
certification of the conditional approval to the school district 41719 board, the electors of the school district vote favorably on any 41720 ballot measures proposed by the school district board to generate 41721 the school district's portion of the basic project cost. 41722

(2) If the school district board or electors fail to satisfy 41723 the conditions prescribed in division (D)(1) of this section and 41724 the amount reserved and encumbered for the school district's 41725 project is released, the school district shall be given first 41726 priority over other joint vocational school districts for project 41727 funding under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code as 41728 such funds become available, subject to section 3318.054 of the 41729
Revised Code. 41730

(E) If the conditions prescribed in division (D)(1) of this 41731 section are satisfied, the commission and the school district 41732 board shall enter into an agreement as prescribed in section 41733 3318.08 of the Revised Code and shall proceed with the development 41734 of plans, cost estimates, designs, drawings, and specifications as 41735 prescribed in section 3318.091 of the Revised Code. 41736

(F) Costs in excess of those approved by the commission under 41737 section 3318.091 of the Revised Code shall be payable only as 41738 provided in sections 3318.042 and 3318.083 of the Revised Code. 41739

(G) Advertisement for bids and the award of contracts for 41740 construction of any project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of 41741 the Revised Code shall be conducted in accordance with section 41742

(H) In accordance with division (R) of section 3318.08 of the 41744 Revised Code, the state funds reserved and encumbered and the 41745 funds provided by the school district to pay the basic project 41746 cost of a project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised 41747 Code shall be spent simultaneously in proportion to the state's 41748 and the school district's respective portions of that basic 41749
project cost. 41750

(I) Sections 3318.13, 3318.14, and 3318.16 of the Revised 41751
Code apply to projects under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the 41752
Revised Code. 41753

Sec. 3318.42. (A) Not later than the sixty-first day after 41754
March 14, 2003, and subsequently not later than the sixty-first 41755 day after the first day of each ensuing fiscal year, the 41756 department of education shall do all of the following: 41757

(1) Calculate the valuation per pupil of each joint 41758 vocational school district according to the following formula: 41759

The school district's average taxable value divided by the 41760 school district's formula ADM calculated under section 41761 3317.03 of the Revised Code for the previous fiscal year. 41762

For purposes of this calculation: 41763

(a) "Average taxable value" means the average of the amounts 41764 certified for a school district in the second, third, and fourth 41765 preceding tax years under divisions (A)(1) and (2) of section 41766

3317.021 of the Revised Code. 41767

(b) "Formula ADM" has the same meaning as defined in section 41768
3317.02 of the Revised Code. 41769

(2) Calculate for each school district the three-year average 41770 of the valuations per pupil calculated for the school district for 41771 the current and two preceding fiscal years; 41772

(3) Rank all joint vocational school districts in order from 41773 the school district with the lowest three-year average valuation 41774 per pupil to the school district with the highest three-year 41775 average valuation per pupil; 41776

(4) Divide the ranking under division (A)(3) of this section 41777 into percentiles with the first percentile containing the one per 41778 cent of school districts having the lowest three-year average 41779 valuations per pupil and the one-hundredth percentile containing 41780 the one per cent of school districts having the highest three-year 41781 average valuations per pupil; 41782

(5) Certify the information described in divisions (A)(1) to 41783
(4) of this section to the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 41784 commission. 41785

(B) The commission annually shall select school districts for 41786
assistance under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code 41787 in the order of the school districts' three-year average 41788 valuations per pupil such that the school district with the lowest 41789 three-year average valuation per pupil shall be given the highest 41790 priority for assistance. 41791

(C) Each joint vocational school district's portion of the 41792 basic project cost of the school district's project under sections 41793 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code shall be one per cent times 41794 the percentile in which the district ranks, except that no school 41795 district's portion shall be less than twenty-five per cent or 41796 greater than ninety-five per cent of the basic project cost. 41797

Sec. 3318.43. Each year for twenty-three successive years 41798 after the commencement of a joint vocational school district's 41799 project under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, the 41800 board of education of that school district shall deposit into a 41801 separate maintenance account or into the school district's capital 41802 and maintenance fund established under section 3315.18 of the 41803 Revised Code, school district moneys dedicated to maintenance of 41804 the classroom facilities acquired under sections 3318.40 to 41805 3318.45 of the Revised Code in an amount equal to one and one-half 41806 of one per cent of the current insurance value of the classroom 41807 facilities acquired under the project, which value shall be 41808 subject to the approval of the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction 41809 commission. 41810

Sec. 3318.46. By rule adopted in accordance with section 41811
111.15 of the Revised Code, the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 41812
construction commission shall establish a program whereby the 41813 board of education of any joint vocational school district may 41814 enter into an agreement with the commission under which the board 41815 may proceed with the new construction or major repairs of a part 41816 of the school district's classroom facilities needs, as determined 41817
under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, through the 41818
expenditure of local resources prior to the school district's 41819 eligibility for state assistance under sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 41820 of the Revised Code. The program shall be structured in a manner 41821 similar to the program established under section 3318.36 of the 41822 Revised Code. The program shall be operational on July 1, 2004. 41823

Sec. 3318.48. (A) When all of the following have occurred, a 41824 project undertaken by a school district pursuant to this chapter 41825 shall be considered complete and the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities 41826 construction commission shall issue a certificate of completion to 41827

the district board of education: 41828

(1) All facilities to be constructed under the project, as 41829 specified in the project agreement entered into under section 41830 3318.08 of the Revised Code, have been completed and the board has 41831 received a permanent certificate of occupancy for each of those 41832
facilities. 41833

(2) The commission has issued certificates of contract 41834 completion on all prime construction contracts entered into by the 41835 board under section 3318.10 of the Revised Code. 41836

(3) The commission has completed a final accounting of the 41837 district's project construction fund and has determined that all 41838 payments from the fund were made in compliance with all policies 41839 of the commission. 41840

(4) Any litigation concerning the project has been finally 41841 resolved with no chance of appeal. 41842

(5) All construction management services typically provided 41843 by the commission to school districts have been delivered and the 41844 commission has canceled any remaining encumbrance of funds for 41845 those services. 41846

(B) The commission may issue a certificate of completion to a 41847 district board prior to all of the conditions described in 41848 division (A) of this section being satisfied, if the commission 41849 determines that the circumstances preventing the conditions from 41850 being satisfied are so minor in nature that the project should be 41851 considered complete. When issuing a certificate of completion 41852 under this division, the commission may specify any of the 41853
following: 41854

(1) Any construction or work that has yet to be completed and 41855 the manner in which the board shall oversee its completion, which 41856 may include procedures for reporting progress to the commission 41857 and for accounting of expenditures; 41858

(2) Terms and conditions for the resolution of any pending 41859 litigation; 41860

(3) Any remaining responsibilities of the construction 41861 manager regarding the project. 41862

(C) The commission may issue a certificate of completion to a 41863 district board that does not voluntarily participate in the 41864 process of closing out the district's project, if the construction 41865 manager for the project verifies that all facilities to be 41866 constructed under the project, as specified in the project 41867 agreement entered into under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code, 41868 have been completed and the commission determines that those 41869 facilities have been occupied for at least one year. In that case, 41870 all funds due to the commission under division (C) of section 41871 3318.12 of the Revised Code shall be returned to the commission 41872 not later than thirty days after receipt of the certificate of 41873 completion. If the funds due to the commission have not been 41874 returned within sixty days after receipt of the certificate of 41875 completion, the auditor of state shall issue a finding for 41876 recovery against the school district and shall request legal 41877 action under section 117.42 of the Revised Code. 41878

(D) Upon issuance of a certificate of completion under this 41879 section, the commission's ownership of and interest in the 41880 project, as specified in division (F) of section 3318.08 of the 41881 Revised Code, shall cease. This cessation shall not alter or 41882 otherwise affect the state's or commission's interest in the 41883 project or any limitations on the use of the project as specified 41884 in the project agreement pursuant to divisions (G), (M), and (N) 41885 of that section or as specified in section 3318.16 of the Revised 41886
Code. 41887

Sec. 3318.49. (A) The corrective action program is hereby 41888 established to provide funding for the correction of work, in 41889 connection with a project funded under sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 41890 or sections 3318.40 to 3318.45 of the Revised Code, that is found 41891 after occupancy of the facility to be defective or to have been 41892 omitted. 41893

(B) The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission may 41894 provide funding under this section only if the school district 41895 notifies the executive director of the commission of the defective 41896 or omitted work within five years after occupancy of the facility 41897 for which the district seeks the funding. 41898

(C) The commission shall establish procedures and deadlines 41899 for school districts to follow in applying for assistance under 41900 this section. The procedures shall include definitions of 41901
"defective" and "omitted," and shall require that remediation 41902 efforts focus first on engaging the respective contractors that 41903 designed and constructed the areas that have design or 41904 construction-related issues. The commission shall consider 41905 applications on a case-by-case basis, taking into account the 41906 amount of money appropriated and available for purposes of this 41907
section. 41908

(D) The commission may provide funding assistance necessary 41909 to take corrective measures after evaluating the defective or 41910 omitted work. 41911

(1) If the work to be corrected or remediated is part of a 41912 project not yet completed, the commission may amend the project 41913 agreement to increase the project budget and use corrective action 41914 funding to provide the state portion of the amendment. If the work 41915 to be corrected or remediated is part of a completed project and 41916 funds were retained or transferred pursuant to division (C) of 41917 section 3318.12 of the Revised Code, the commission may enter into 41918

a new agreement to address the corrective action. 41919

(2) Whether or not the project is completed, the district 41920 shall contribute a portion of the cost of the corrective action, 41921 to be determined in accordance with section 3318.032 of the 41922 Revised Code or, if the district is a joint vocational school 41923 district, section 3318.42 of the Revised Code. A district that is 41924 unable to provide its portion so that remediation can proceed may 41925 apply to the commission for additional assistance under section 41926
3318.042 of the Revised Code. 41927

(E) The commission shall assess responsibility for the 41928 defective or omitted work and seek cost recovery from responsible 41929 parties, if applicable. Any recovery of the expense of remediation 41930 shall be applied first to the district portion of the cost of the 41931 corrective action. Any remaining funds shall be applied to the 41932 state portion and deposited into the school building program 41933 assistance fund established under section 3318.25 of the Revised 41934
Code. 41935

Sec. 3318.50. (A) As used in this section and in section 41936 3318.52 of the Revised Code, "classroom facilities" means 41937 the principal and interest on a loan made to the governing 41946 authority of a community school established under Chapter 3314. of 41947 the Revised Code for the sole purpose of assisting the governing 41948 authority in acquiring, improving, or replacing classroom 41949 facilities for the community school by lease, purchase, remodeling 41950 of existing facilities, or any other means including new 41951 construction. 41952

The commission shall not make any loan guarantee under this 41953 section unless the commission has determined both that the 41954 applicant is creditworthy and that the classroom facilities that 41955 have been acquired, improved, or replaced under the loan meet 41956 applicable health and safety standards established by law for 41957 school buildings or those facilities that will be acquired, 41958 improved, or replaced under the loan will meet such standards. 41959

The commission shall not guarantee any loan under this 41960 section unless the loan is obtained from a financial institution 41961 regulated by the United States or this state. 41962

(C) At no time shall the commission exceed an aggregate 41963 liability of ten million dollars to repay loans guaranteed under 41964
this section. 41965

(D) Any payment made to a lending institution as a result of 41966 default on a loan guaranteed under this section shall be made from 41967 moneys in the community school classroom facilities loan guarantee 41968 fund established under section 3318.52 of the Revised Code. 41969

(E) The commission may assess a fee of up to five hundred 41970 dollars for each loan guaranteed under this section. 41971

(F) Not later than ninety days after September 5, 2001, the 41972 commission shall adopt rules that prescribe loan standards and 41973 procedures consistent with this section that are designed to 41974 protect the state's interest in any loan guaranteed by this 41975 section and to ensure that the state has a reasonable chance of 41976 recovering any payments made by the state in the event of a 41977 default on any such loan. 41978

Sec. 3318.60. (A) As used in this section and section 3318.61 41979

~~school~~ facilities construction commission shall provide assistance 41989 to the boards of trustees of college-preparatory boarding schools 41990 established under Chapter 3328. of the Revised Code for the 41991 acquisition of classroom facilities. 41992

(C) The program shall comply with sections 3318.01 to 3318.20 41993 of the Revised Code, except as follows: 41994

(1) The commission, in consultation with the board of 41995 trustees of a college-preparatory boarding school, shall determine 41996 the basic project cost based on all campus facilities needed for 41997 the school's programs and operations and shall take into account 41998 any unique spaces or square footages needed for such facilities 41999 when calculating the basic project cost. Regardless of the 42000 inclusion of nonclassroom facilities in the calculation of the 42001 basic project cost, state funds provided under the program shall 42002 be used only to pay for the acquisition of classroom facilities 42003 that do not exceed the construction and design standards 42004 established by the commission. 42005

(2) To be eligible for assistance under the program, the 42006 board of trustees of a college-preparatory boarding school shall 42007

(5) The agreement entered into by the commission with the board of trustees of a college-preparatory boarding school under section 3318.08 of the Revised Code shall provide for termination of the contract and release of the funds encumbered at the time of the project's conditional approval, if the board fails to secure the amount specified in division (C)(2) of this section within such period after the execution of the agreement as may be fixed by the commission.

(D) Within the ninety-day period immediately following ~~the effective date of this section~~ September 29, 2011, the commission shall adopt rules necessary for the implementation and administration of the program.

Sec. 3318.61. (A) In lieu of participating in the college-preparatory boarding school facilities program under section 3318.60 of the Revised Code, if the board of trustees of a college-preparatory boarding school established under Chapter 3328. of the Revised Code has leased, purchased, or otherwise acquired a site for the school, the board of trustees may request approval from the Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission for the board of trustees and the commission to enter into an agreement with a person or entity for the development of the site, under which agreement all of the following shall occur:

(1) The board of trustees will lease the site and any facilities located on that site to the person or entity for the purpose of enabling the person or entity to provide the campus facilities needed for the school's programs and operations by constructing new facilities on the site; reconstructing, repairing, or making additions to the existing facilities on the site; or both.

(2) The person or entity will lease the site and any new or existing facilities located on that site back to the board of trustees for use by the school.

section 3328.22 of the Revised Code;	42073
(d) Provision for securing property and liability insurance for the facilities;	42074 42075
(e) A description of how the development of the site will be financed by the person or entity;	42076 42077
(f) The length of the lease that the person or entity will offer the board of trustees, which shall not exceed forty years, and the monthly rent that will be owed to the person or entity for that lease.	42078 42079 42080 42081

(2) A stipulation that failure of the person or entity developing the site to comply with the schedule shall be grounds	42101 42102

for termination of the agreement; 42103

(3) A provision specifying which party to the agreement owns 42104 the facilities located on the site if the school closes prior to 42105 the expiration of the agreement and a provision indicating the 42106 period of time after the school's closure, if any, during which 42107 rent payments will continue to be paid to the person or entity 42108 developing the site. 42109

Sec. 3318.62. Any agreement between the Ohio ~~school~~ 42110 college-preparatory boarding school to provide facilities 42112 assistance under section 3318.60 or 3318.61 of the Revised Code 42113 only an alternative public purpose, including, but not limited to, 42117 primary, secondary, vocational, or higher education services. 42118

(B) If the school ceases its operations due to either the 42119 failure of the school's operator to comply with any of the 42120 requirements of the contract prescribed under section 3328.12 of 42121 the Revised Code or the default by the school's board of trustees 42122 portion of the state funds provided to the board of trustees under 42125 this chapter, based on a straight-line depreciation over the first 42126 eighteen years of occupancy. However, if, within twenty-four 42127 months after the school's cessation from operation, the classroom 42128 facilities of a college-preparatory boarding school are used for 42129 an alternative public purpose as prescribed by division (A) of 42130 this section, no return of funds by the board of trustees under 42131 this division shall be required. 42132

Sec. 3318.70. (A) As used in this section: 42133

Revised Code. 42142

(B) The Ohio ~~school~~ facilities construction commission shall 42143 establish guidelines for assisting STEM schools in the acquisition 42144 of classroom facilities. 42145

(C) Upon receipt of a written proposal by the governing body 42146 controlling board, shall provide funding to assist that STEM 42148 school in the acquisition of classroom facilities. The proposal of 42149 the governing body shall be submitted in a form and in the manner 42150 prescribed by the commission. The proposal shall indicate both the 42151 total amount of funding requested from the commission and the 42152 amount of other funding pledged for the acquisition of the 42153

classroom facilities, the latter of which shall not be less than 42154
the total amount of funding requested from the commission. Once 42155 the commission determines a proposal meets its established 42156 guidelines and if the controlling board approves that funding, the 42157 commission shall enter into an agreement with the governing body 42158 for the acquisition of the classroom facilities and shall 42159 encumber, in accordance with section 3318.11 of the Revised Code, 42160 the approved funding from the amounts appropriated to the 42161 commission for classroom facilities assistance projects. The 42162 agreement shall include a stipulation of the ownership of the 42163 classroom facilities in the event the STEM school permanently 42164 closes at any time. 42165

(3) "Qualifying partnership" means a group of city, exempted 42176 program under section 3313.842 of the Revised Code. The aggregate 42181 territory of the school districts composing a qualifying 42182 partnership shall be located in two adjacent counties, each having 42183

(C) Upon receipt of a written proposal from a qualifying 42191 partnership, the commission, subject to approval of the 42192 controlling board, shall provide funding to assist that qualifying 42193 partnership in the acquisition of classroom facilities described 42194 in division (B) of this section. The proposal of the qualifying 42195 partnership shall be submitted in a form and in the manner 42196 prescribed by the commission. The proposal shall indicate both the 42197

total amount of funding requested from the commission and the 42198
amount of other funding pledged for the acquisition of the 42199
classroom facilities, the latter of which shall not be less than 42200
the total amount of funding requested from the commission. Once 42201
the commission determines a proposal meets its established 42202 guidelines, and if the controlling board approves that funding, 42203 the commission shall enter into an agreement with the qualifying 42204 partnership for the acquisition of the classroom facilities and 42205 teacher it employs under which the board or governing board 42227 provides to the teacher early retirement incentives, severance 42228 pay, or both, in return for an agreement to retire from the 42229 teacher's position, only if both of the following are the case: 42230 each school district, in consultation with teachers employed by 42250 the board, shall adopt a standards-based teacher evaluation policy 42251 that conforms with the framework for evaluation of teachers 42252 developed under section 3319.112 of the Revised Code. The policy 42253 shall become operative at the expiration of any collective 42254 bargaining agreement covering teachers employed by the board that 42255 is in effect on September 29, 2011, and shall be included in any 42256 renewal or extension of such an agreement. 42257 most recent school year for which data is available, is average or 42278 higher, as determined by the department of education. 42279

(b) The board may evaluate each teacher who received a rating 42280 of skilled on the teacher's most recent evaluation conducted under 42281 this section once every two years, so long as the teacher's 42282 student academic growth measure, for the most recent school year 42283 otherwise scheduled to be conducted. 42300

~~(e) Beginning with the 2017-2018 school year, the board may 42301 elect not to conduct an evaluation of a teacher who is 42302 that teacher takes, for the first time, at least half of the 42305 performance based assessment prescribed by the state board of 42306 education for resident educators. 42307~~

(3) In any year that a teacher is not formally evaluated 42308 committees incorporate the professional development standards 42483 adopted by the state board of education pursuant to section 42484 this section, the board of education of each school district shall 42494 establish the structure for one or more local professional 42495 development committees to be operated by such school district. The 42496 committee structure so established by a district board shall 42497 remain in effect unless within thirty days prior to an anniversary 42498 of the date upon which the current committee structure was 42499 established, the board provides notice to all affected district 42500 employees that the committee structure is to be modified. 42501 Professional development committees may have a district-level or 42502 building-level scope of operations, and may be established with 42503 regard to particular grade or age levels for which an educator 42504 license is designated. 42505

Each professional development committee shall consist of at 42506 least three classroom teachers employed by the district, one 42507 principal employed by the district, and one other employee of the 42508 district appointed by the district superintendent. For committees 42509 with a building-level scope, the teacher and principal members 42510 shall be assigned to that building, and the teacher members shall 42511 be elected by majority vote of the classroom teachers assigned to 42512 that building. For committees with a district-level scope, the 42513 teacher members shall be elected by majority vote of the classroom 42514 teachers of the district, and the principal member shall be 42515 elected by a majority vote of the principals of the district, 42516 unless there are two or fewer principals employed by the district, 42517 in which case the one or two principals employed shall serve on 42518 the committee. If a committee has a particular grade or age level 42519 scope, the teacher members shall be licensed to teach such grade 42520 or age levels, and shall be elected by majority vote of the 42521 classroom teachers holding such a license and the principal shall 42522 be elected by all principals serving in buildings where any such 42523 teachers serve. The district superintendent shall appoint a 42524 replacement to fill any vacancy that occurs on a professional 42525 development committee, except in the case of vacancies among the 42526 elected classroom teacher members, which shall be filled by vote 42527 of the remaining members of the committee so selected. 42528

Terms of office on professional development committees shall 42529 be prescribed by the district board establishing the committees. 42530 committees shall be prescribed by the district board establishing 42532 the committees. A professional development committee may include 42533 additional members, except that the majority of members on each 42534 such committee shall be classroom teachers employed by the 42535 district. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior 42536 to the expiration date of the term for which a predecessor was 42537 appointed shall hold office as a member for the remainder of that 42538 term. 42539

The initial meeting of any professional development 42540 committee, upon election and appointment of all committee members, 42541 shall be called by a member designated by the district 42542 superintendent. At this initial meeting, the committee shall 42543 select a chairperson and such other officers the committee deems 42544 necessary, and shall adopt rules for the conduct of its meetings. 42545 Thereafter, the committee shall meet at the call of the 42546 chairperson or upon the filing of a petition with the district 42547 superintendent signed by a majority of the committee members 42548 calling for the committee to meet. 42549

(3) In the case of a school district in which an exclusive 42550 representative has been established pursuant to Chapter 4117. of 42551 the Revised Code, professional development committees shall be 42552 established in accordance with any collective bargaining agreement 42553 in effect in the district that includes provisions for such 42554 committees. 42555

If the collective bargaining agreement does not specify a 42556 different method for the selection of teacher members of the 42557 committees, the exclusive representative of the district's 42558 teachers shall select the teacher members. 42559

If the collective bargaining agreement does not specify a 42560 different structure for the committees, the board of education of 42561 the school district shall establish the structure, including the 42562 number of committees and the number of teacher and administrative 42563 members on each committee; the specific administrative members to 42564 be part of each committee; whether the scope of the committees 42565 will be district levels, building levels, or by type of grade or 42566 age levels for which educator licenses are designated; the lengths 42567 of terms for members; the manner of filling vacancies on the 42568 committees; and the frequency and time and place of meetings. 42569 However, in all cases, except as provided in division (F)(4) of 42570 this section, there shall be a majority of teacher members of any 42571 professional development committee, there shall be at least five 42572 total members of any professional development committee, and the 42573 exclusive representative shall designate replacement members in 42574 the case of vacancies among teacher members, unless the collective 42575 bargaining agreement specifies a different method of selecting 42576 such replacements. 42577

(4) Whenever an administrator's coursework plan is being 42578 discussed or voted upon, the local professional development 42579 committee shall, at the request of one of its administrative 42580 members, cause a majority of the committee to consist of 42581 administrative members by reducing the number of teacher members 42582 voting on the plan. 42583

(G)(1) The department of education, educational service 42584 centers, county boards of developmental disabilities, regional 42585 professional development centers, special education regional 42586 resource centers, college and university departments of education, 42587 head start programs, and the Ohio education computer network may 42588 establish local professional development committees to determine 42589 whether the coursework proposed by their employees who are 42590 licensed or certificated under this section or section 3319.222 of 42591
the Revised Code, or under the former version of either section as 42592 it existed prior to October 16, 2009, meet the requirements of the 42593 rules adopted under this section. They may establish local 42594 professional development committees on their own or in 42595 collaboration with a school district or other agency having 42596 authority to establish them. 42597

Local professional development committees established by 42598 county boards of developmental disabilities shall be structured in 42599

the Revised Code, or under the former version of either section as 42606
it existed prior to October 16, 2009. All other entities specified 42607 in division (G)(1) of this section shall structure their 42608 committees in accordance with guidelines which shall be issued by 42609 the state board. 42610

(2) Any public agency that is not specified in division 42611
(G)(1) of this section but provides educational services and 42612 employs or contracts for services of classroom teachers licensed 42613

Revised Code, or under the former version of either section as it 42615 existed prior to October 16, 2009, may establish a local 42616 professional development committee, subject to the approval of the 42617 department of education. The committee shall be structured in 42618 bureau of investigation has on the person. 43027

(D) The state board or the superintendent of public 43028 instruction may choose not to request any information about a 43029 person required by division (C) of this section if the person 43030 requirements of that division was conducted on the person as a 43032 condition of employment pursuant to section 3319.39 of the Revised 43033 this section who is subject to a criminal records check fails to 43042 submit fingerprints and written permission by the date specified 43043 in the applicable division, and the state board or the 43044 superintendent of public instruction does not apply division (D) 43045 of this section to the person, or if a person who is subject to 43046 division (G) of this section fails to submit fingerprints and 43047

The superintendent shall send the notification by regular mail to 43054 the person's last known residence address or last known place of 43055 state board, shall issue a written order rejecting the application 43061 or inactivating the person's professional or permanent teaching 43062 certificate or license. The rejection or inactivation shall remain 43063

~~this section~~ submits the fingerprints and written permission. 43071

The rejection or inactivation of a professional or permanent 43072 teaching certificate or license under division (E)(1) of this 43073 section does not constitute a suspension or revocation of the 43074 certificate or license by the state board under section 3319.31 of 43075 the Revised Code and the state board and the superintendent of 43076 public instruction need not provide the person with an opportunity 43077 for a hearing with respect to the rejection or inactivation. 43078

(2) If a person whose professional or permanent teaching 43079 certificate or license has been rejected or inactivated under 43080 division (E)(1) of this section submits fingerprints and written 43081 permission as required by division (B) or (G) of this section, the 43082 superintendent of public instruction, on behalf of the state 43083 board, shall issue a written order issuing or reactivating the 43084 certificate or license. The superintendent shall send the order to 43085 the person by regular mail. 43086

(F) Notwithstanding divisions (A) to (C) of this section, if 43087 a person holds more than one certificate, license, or permit 43088 described in division (A)(1) of this section, the following shall 43089 apply: 43090

(1) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of 43091 different durations, the person shall be subject to divisions (A) 43092 to (C) of this section only when applying for renewal of the 43093 certificate, license, or permit that is of the longest duration. 43094 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit with a 43095 shorter duration, the state board or the superintendent of public 43096 instruction shall determine whether the department of education 43097 has received any information about the person pursuant to section 43098 109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the person shall not be subject 43099 to divisions (A) to (C) of this section as long as the person's 43100 certificate, license, or permit with the longest duration is 43101 valid. 43102

(2) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of the same 43103 duration but do not expire in the same year, the person shall 43104 designate one of the certificates, licenses, or permits as the 43105 person's primary certificate, license, or permit and shall notify 43106 the department of that designation. The person shall be subject to 43107 divisions (A) to (C) of this section only when applying for 43108 renewal of the person's primary certificate, license, or permit. 43109 Prior to renewing any certificate, license, or permit that is not 43110 the person's primary certificate, license, or permit, the state 43111 board or the superintendent of public instruction shall determine 43112 whether the department has received any information about the 43113 person pursuant to section 109.5721 of the Revised Code, but the 43114 person shall not be subject to divisions (A) to (C) of this 43115 section as long as the person's primary certificate, license, or 43116 permit is valid. 43117

(3) If the certificates, licenses, or permits are of the same 43118 duration and expire in the same year and the person applies for 43119 renewal of the certificates, licenses, or permits at the same 43120 time, the state board or the superintendent of public instruction 43121 shall request only one criminal records check of the person under 43122
division (C) of this section. 43123

(G) If the department is unable to enroll a person who has 43124 submitted an application for licensure, or to whom the state board 43125 has issued a license, in the retained applicant fingerprint 43126 database established under section 109.5721 of the Revised Code 43127 because the person has not satisfied the requirements for 43128 enrollment, the department shall require the person to satisfy the 43129 requirements for enrollment, including requiring the person to 43130 submit, by a date prescribed by the department, one complete set 43131 of fingerprints and written permission that authorizes the 43132 superintendent of public instruction to forward the fingerprints 43133 to the bureau of criminal identification and investigation for the 43134 purpose of enrolling the person in the database. If the person 43135 fails to comply by the prescribed date, the department shall 43136 reject the application or shall take action to inactivate the 43137 person's license in accordance with division (E) of this section. 43138 amounts available for support of the program are inadequate to 44041 provide grants to all eligible students, the chancellor shall do 44042

one of the following: 44043

(a) Give preference in the payment of grants based upon 44044 expected family contribution, beginning with the lowest expected 44045 family contribution category and proceeding upward by category to 44046 the highest expected family contribution category; 44047

(b) Proportionately reduce the amount of each grant to be 44048 awarded for the academic year under this section; 44049

the shortage of available funds and has been submitted to and 44051 approved by the controlling board. 44052

(2) The needs-based financial aid grant shall be paid to the 44053 eligible student through the institution in which the student is 44054 enrolled, except that no needs-based financial aid grant shall be 44055 paid to any person serving a term of imprisonment. Applications 44056 for the grants shall be made as prescribed by the chancellor, and 44057 such applications may be made in conjunction with and upon the 44058 basis of information provided in conjunction with student 44059 this section who is not enrolled in an institution described in 44080 division (D)(6) of this section shall equal the student's 44081 remaining state cost of attendance after the student's Pell grant 44082 and expected family contribution are applied to the instructional 44083 and general charges for the undergraduate program. However, for 44084 students enrolled in a state university or college as defined in 44085 section 3345.12 of the Revised Code or a university branch, the 44086 chancellor may provide that the grant amount shall equal the 44087 student's remaining instructional and general charges for the 44088 undergraduate program after the student's Pell grant and expected 44089 family contribution have been applied to those charges, but, in no 44090 case, shall the grant amount for such a student exceed any maximum 44091 that the chancellor may set by rule. 44092

(3) For a student enrolled for a semester or quarter in 44093 addition to the portion of the academic year covered by a grant 44094 by the chancellor as provided in division (A) of this section. The 44097 maximum grant for a fourth quarter shall be one-third of the 44098

(5) For a student who is receiving federal veterans' benefits under the "All-Volunteer Force Educational Assistance Program," 38 U.S.C. 3001 et seq., or "Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Program," 38 U.S.C. 3301 et seq., or any successor program, the amount of a grant awarded under this section shall be applied toward the total state cost of attendance and the student's housing costs and living expenses. Living expenses shall include reasonable costs for room and board.

(6) A student who is enrolled in a program that may be completed in less than one year for which a certificate or industry-recognized credential is awarded in an in-demand job, as defined in section 3333.93 of the Revised Code and who is eligible for a grant under this section shall receive an amount determined by the chancellor using a calculation that does not apply the student's Pell grant to state cost of attendance.

(E) No grant shall be made to any student in a course of study in theology, religion, or other field of preparation for a religious profession unless such course of study leads to an accredited bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, associate of arts, or associate of science degree.

recalculation is lower than the rate specified in division (F)(1) 44141 of this section or the secretary determines due to mitigating 44142 circumstances that the institution may continue to participate in 44143 federal financial aid programs. The chancellor shall adopt rules 44144 requiring any such appellant to provide information to the 44145 chancellor regarding an appeal. 44146

(b) Any student who has previously received a grant pursuant 44147 student was no longer eligible to receive all or part of the 44166 student's grant. There shall be an interest charge of one per cent 44167 per month on all moneys due and payable after such thirty-day 44168 period. The chancellor shall immediately notify the office of 44169 budget and management and the legislative service commission of 44170 efficiency report required pursuant to section 3333.95 of the 45166 Revised Code. For the findings required to be submitted by 45167 December 31, 2017, a board of trustees may submit the additional 45168 information required under this section as amended by this act, as 45169 an addendum to the findings the board submitted prior to January 45170

(B) On or before June 30, 1994, the board of trustees of each 45181 state university shall take formal action to adopt a faculty 45182 workload policy consistent with the standards developed under this 45183 section. Notwithstanding section 4117.08 of the Revised Code, the 45184 policies adopted under this section are not appropriate subjects 45185 for collective bargaining. Notwithstanding division (A) of section 45186 4117.10 of the Revised Code, any policy adopted under this section 45187 by a board of trustees prevails over any conflicting provisions of 45188

(C)(1) The board of trustees of each state university shall 45191 review the university's policy on faculty tenure and update that 45192 institution of higher education, as defined in section 3345.011 of 45204 the Revised Code, shall adopt a policy for conducting post-tenure 45205 review that includes development of a comprehensive post-tenure 45206 review plan. Each institution shall supply a copy of that plan to 45207 all tenured faculty. 45208

(B) The policy adopted pursuant to this section shall 45209 accomplish the following objectives: 45210 higher education and the most effective use of institutional 45213 resources; 45214

(2) Ensure accountability through the comprehensive 45215 evaluation of every tenured faculty member's performance. 45216 faculty member "exceeds expectations," "meets expectations," or 45220

"does not meet expectations." 45221

(2) A faculty member who is classified as "does not meet 45222 expectations" shall be required to submit a professional 45223 performance improvement plan to address identified areas for 45224 improvement. That plan shall be developed in accordance with 45225 policies provided by the institution through the institution's 45226 provost and in consultation with the appropriate dean of the 45227 college or program. 45228

(3) A tenured faculty member who does not show significant 45229 improvement in the areas identified in the professional 45230 performance improvement plan described in division (C)(2) of this 45231 section shall be subject to discipline, including a reduction in 45232 academic rank and dismissal, if appropriate. 45233

(D) For purposes of this section: 45234

(1) "Does not meet expectations" means a failure, as defined 45235 by the unit, beyond what can be considered the normal range of 45236 year-to-year variation in performance, but of a character that 45237 appears to be subject to correction. 45238

(2) "Exceeds expectations" means a clear and significant 45239 level of accomplishment beyond what is normal for the institution, 45240 discipline, or unit, the faculty rank, or any contractual 45241

(3) "Meets expectations" means a level of accomplishment that 45243 is commensurate with what is normal for the institution, 45244 discipline, unit, the faculty rank, or any contractual 45245 expectations as defined by the unit. 45246

(B)(1) Except as provided in divisions (B)(2), (C), (D), and (F) of this section, the results of an HIV test or the identity of 47866

which the release is to be effective; 47877

Revised Code, except that the identity of the individual tested 47894 shall not be revealed; 47895

(h) To law enforcement authorities pursuant to a search 47896

(2) The results of an HIV test or a diagnosis of AIDS or an 47901
AIDS-related condition may be disclosed to a health care provider, 47902 or an authorized agent or employee of a health care facility or a 47903 health care provider, if the provider, agent, or employee has a 47904 medical need to know the information and is participating in the 47905 diagnosis, care, or treatment of the individual on whom the test 47906 was performed or who has been diagnosed as having AIDS or an 47907 AIDS-related condition. 47908

This division does not impose a standard of disclosure 47909 different from the standard for disclosure of all other specific 47910 information about a patient to health care providers and 47911 facilities. Disclosure may not be requested or made solely for the 47912 purpose of identifying an individual who has a positive HIV test 47913 result or has been diagnosed as having AIDS or an AIDS-related 47914 condition in order to refuse to treat the individual. Referral of 47915 an individual to another health care provider or facility based on 47916 reasonable professional judgment does not constitute refusal to 47917 treat the individual. 47918

(3) Not later than ninety days after November 1, 1989, each 47919 health care facility in this state shall establish a protocol to 47920 be followed by employees and individuals affiliated with the 47921 facility in making disclosures authorized by division (B)(2) of 47922 this section. A person employed by or affiliated with a health 47923 care facility who determines in accordance with the protocol 47924 established by the facility that a disclosure is authorized by 47925 division (B)(2) of this section is immune from liability to any 47926 person in a civil action for damages for injury, death, or loss to 47927 person or property resulting from the disclosure. 47928

(C)(1) Any person or government agency may seek access to or 47929 authority to disclose the HIV test records of an individual in 47930 accordance with the following provisions: 47931

(a) The person or government agency shall bring an action in 47932 a court of common pleas requesting disclosure of or authority to 47933 disclose the results of an HIV test of a specific individual, who 47934 shall be identified in the complaint by a pseudonym but whose name 47935 shall be communicated to the court confidentially, pursuant to a 47936 court order restricting the use of the name. The court shall 47937 provide the individual with notice and an opportunity to 47938 participate in the proceedings if the individual is not named as a 47939 party. Proceedings shall be conducted in chambers unless the 47940 individual agrees to a hearing in open court. 47941

(b) The court may issue an order granting the plaintiff 47942 access to or authority to disclose the test results only if the 47943 court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the plaintiff 47944 has demonstrated a compelling need for disclosure of the 47945 information that cannot be accommodated by other means. In 47946 assessing compelling need, the court shall weigh the need for 47947 disclosure against the privacy right of the individual tested and 47948 against any disservice to the public interest that might result 47949 from the disclosure, such as discrimination against the individual 47950 or the deterrence of others from being tested. 47951

(c) If the court issues an order, it shall guard against 47952 unauthorized disclosure by specifying the persons who may have 47953 access to the information, the purposes for which the information 47954 shall be used, and prohibitions against future disclosure. 47955

(2) A person or government agency that considers it necessary 47956 to disclose the results of an HIV test of a specific individual in 47957 an action in which it is a party may seek authority for the 47958 disclosure by filing an in camera motion with the court in which 47959 the action is being heard. In hearing the motion, the court shall 47960 employ procedures for confidentiality similar to those specified 47961 in division (C)(1) of this section. The court shall grant the 47962 motion only if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that a 47963 compelling need for the disclosure has been demonstrated. 47964

(3) Except for an order issued in a criminal prosecution or 47965 an order under division (C)(1) or (2) of this section granting 47966 disclosure of the result of an HIV test of a specific individual, 47967 a court shall not compel a blood bank, hospital blood center, or 47968 blood collection facility to disclose the result of HIV tests 47969 performed on the blood of voluntary donors in a way that reveals 47970 the identity of any donor. 47971

(4) In a civil action in which the plaintiff seeks to recover 47972 damages from an individual defendant based on an allegation that 47973 the plaintiff contracted the HIV virus as a result of actions of 47974 the defendant, the prohibitions against disclosure in this section 47975 do not bar discovery of the results of any HIV test given to the 47976 defendant or any diagnosis that the defendant suffers from AIDS or 47977 an AIDS-related condition. 47978

(D) The results of an HIV test or the identity of an 47979 individual on whom an HIV test is performed or who is diagnosed as 47980 having AIDS or an AIDS-related condition may be disclosed to a 47981 federal, state, or local government agency, or the official 47982 representative of such an agency, for purposes of the medicaid 47983 program, the medicare program, or any other public assistance 47984
program. 47985

(E) Any disclosure pursuant to this section shall be in 47986 writing and accompanied by a written statement that includes the 47987 following or substantially similar language: "This information has 47988 been disclosed to you from confidential records protected from 47989 disclosure by state law. You shall make no further disclosure of 47990 this information without the specific, written, and informed 47991 release of the individual to whom it pertains, or as otherwise 47992 permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of 47993 medical or other information is not sufficient for the purpose of 47994 the release of HIV test results or diagnoses." 47995

(F) An individual who knows that the individual has received 47996 a positive result on an HIV test or has been diagnosed as having 47997 AIDS or an AIDS-related condition shall disclose this information 47998 to any other person with whom the individual intends to make 47999 common use of a hypodermic needle or engage in sexual conduct as 48000 defined in section 2907.01 of the Revised Code. An individual's 48001 compliance with this division does not prohibit a prosecution of 48002 the individual for a violation of division (B) of section 2903.11 48003
of the Revised Code. 48004

(G) Nothing in this section prohibits the introduction of 48005 evidence concerning an HIV test of a specific individual in a 48006 criminal proceeding. 48007

Sec. 3701.601. There is hereby created in the state treasury 48008 the breast and cervical cancer project income tax contribution 48009 fund, which shall consist of money contributed to it under section 48010 5747.113 of the Revised Code and of contributions made directly to 48011
it. Any person may contribute directly to the fund in addition to 48012 or independently of the income tax refund contribution system 48013 established in section 5747.113 of the Revised Code. 48014

The director of health shall distribute the contributed funds 48015 to the Ohio breast and cervical cancer project ~~funded by the~~ 48016 ~~national breast and cervical cancer early detection program~~ 48017 ~~established under the "Breast and Cervical Cancer Mortality~~ 48018 ~~Prevention Act of 1990," 104 Stat. 409, 42 U.S.C. 300k et seq.~~ 48019 administered under section 3701.144 of the Revised Code. The 48020 contributed funds shall be used specifically for the provision of 48021 breast and cervical cancer screening, diagnostic, and outreach 48022 services to uninsured and under-insured women who meet the 48023 eligibility requirements specified in that section. The breast and 48024 cervical cancer project, through its regional agencies, shall 48025 ~~first~~ use the contributed funds to pay for services provided 48026 directly by personnel of local departments of health, federally 48027 qualified health centers as defined by section 3701.047 of the 48028 Revised Code, or other community health centers. ~~If contributed~~ 48029 ~~funds remain after a regional agency pays for all screening,~~ 48030 ~~diagnostic, and outreach services provided by local departments of~~ 48031 ~~health, federally qualified health centers, or other community~~ 48032 ~~health centers, the regional agency may use contributed funds to~~ 48033 ~~pay for services provided by other providers.~~ 48034

Sec. 3701.61. (A)(1) The department of health shall establish 48035 the help me grow program ~~as~~. The program shall have a home 48036 visiting component and a part C early intervention services 48037 home visiting component. In accordance with division (F) of 48039 section 5123.02 of the Revised Code, the department of 48040 developmental disabilities is the lead agency for the part C early 48041 intervention services component. 48042

(2) The home visiting component of the help me grow program 48043 is to be the state's evidence-based parent support program that 48044 encourages early prenatal and well-baby care, as well as provides 48045 parenting education to promote the comprehensive health and 48046 development of children. ~~The program component shall also~~ provide 48047 home visiting services to families with a pregnant woman or an 48048 infant or toddler under three years of age who meet the 48049 eligibility requirements established in rules adopted under this 48050 section. Home visiting services shall be provided through 48051 years of age who have developmental delays or disabilities and 48058 meet eligibility requirements established in rules adopted under 48059 section 5123.041 of the Revised Code. It is the general assembly's 48060 intent that early intervention services be grounded in the 48061 philosophy that young children learn best from familiar people in 48062 familiar settings. Accordingly, each family with a child that 48063 receives early intervention services shall be a member of a local 48064 early intervention services team that includes not only the family 48065 but also a service coordinator and service providers. The team 48066 members shall work together to ensure that a child is accessing 48067 available supports and resources to enhance the child's learning 48068

developmental disabilities may select one or more persons or 48180

Before issuing a request for proposals to operate the system, 48182 the department of health and department of developmental 48183 disabilities shall consult the appropriate stakeholders to 48184 identify best practices and coordinate goals to ensure adequate 48185 access to services offered through the system. The request for 48186 proposals shall require bidders to specify how they would achieve 48187 the best practices and coordinated goals and allow adequate time 48188 for bidders to develop the partnerships that are necessary to 48189 implement the coordinated goals. 48190

(B) If the department of health and department of 48191 developmental disabilities choose to select one or more system 48192 operators as described in division (A) of this section, a contract 48193 with any system operator shall require that the system do ~~both~~ all 48194
of the following: 48195

(1) Serve as a single point of entry for access, assessment, 48196 part C early intervention services based on each family's location 48198 of residence; 48199

(2) Use a standardized form or other mechanism to assess for 48200 service; 48204

(3) Promote the availability of both home visiting and part C 48205 early intervention services; 48206

(4) Authorize providers, central coordinators, and other 48207 stakeholders to use help me grow promotional materials for both 48208

the home visiting and part C early intervention services 48209 intake and referral system. 48211

(C) The standardized form or other mechanism described in 48212 division (B)(2) of this section shall be agreed to by the home 48213 visiting consortium created under section 3701.612 of the Revised 48214 Code and the early intervention services advisory council created 48215
under section 5123.0422 of the Revised Code. 48216

~~If the Ohio home visiting consortium created under section~~ 48217
~~3701.612 of the Revised Code has recommended a standardized form~~ 48218
~~or other mechanism for this purpose, the contract may require the~~ 48219
~~use of that form or other mechanism.~~ 48220

(D) A contract entered into under division (B) of this 48221 section shall require a system operator to issue an annual report 48222 to the department of health and department of developmental 48223 disabilities that includes data regarding referrals made by the 48224 central intake and referral system, costs associated with the 48225 distributed to the home visiting consortium created under section 48228 3701.612 of the Revised Code and the early intervention services 48229

Code. 48231

(E) Nothing in this section is intended to do either of the 48232
following: 48233

(1) Prohibit the department of health or department of 48234 developmental disabilities from using alternative promotional 48235 materials or names for the central intake and referral system; 48236

(2) Require the use of help me grow program promotional 48237 materials or names. 48238

Sec. 3701.65. (A) There is hereby created in the state 48239 money returned to the fund under division (E)(1)(d) of this 48244 section. All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to 48245 the fund. 48246

(B)(1) At least annually, the director of health shall 48247 holders of particular bonds or notes pledging any particular 49574 revenues. Such pledge shall be valid and binding from the time the 49575 pledge is made and the revenues so pledged and thereafter received 49576 pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and 49578 the lien of any such pledge is valid and binding as against all 49579 and notes of the authority may be sold by the authority, at public 49601 or private sale, at or at not less than such price or prices as 49602 or any issue thereof may contain provisions, subject to such 49620 agreements with bondholders or noteholders as may then exist, 49621 which provisions shall be a part of the contract with the holders 49622 thereof, as to: the pledging of all or any part of the revenues of 49623 the authority to secure the payment of the bonds or notes or of 49624 any issue thereof; the use and disposition of revenues of the 49625 authority; a covenant to fix, alter, and collect rentals and other 49626 unit licensed as a rest home shall be considered as another group. 51043

(2) The home is both a nursing home and a residential 51044 facility. In that case, all the individuals in the part or unit 51045 licensed as a nursing home shall be considered as one group, and 51046 facility shall be considered as another group. 51048 services from the home, in which case the individuals in the 51053 separate and discrete part or unit shall not be considered in 51054 and discrete part or unit is in compliance with the Ohio basic 51056 building code established by the board of building standards under 51057 Chapters 3781. and 3791. of the Revised Code and the home permits 51058 the director, on request, to inspect the separate and discrete 51059 part or unit and speak with the individuals residing there, if 51060 they consent, to determine whether the separate and discrete part 51061 or unit meets the requirements of this division. 51062

(E)(1) The director of health shall charge the following 51063 application fee and annual renewal licensing and inspection fee 51064

the credit of the general operations fund created in section 51073 3701.83 of the Revised Code for use only in administering and 51074 enforcing this chapter and rules adopted under it. 51075 section 3721.17 of the Revised Code. Those results of an 51084

Sec. 3734.02. (A) The director of environmental protection, 51744 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt 51745 and may amend, suspend, or rescind rules having uniform 51746 application throughout the state governing solid waste facilities 51747 and the inspections of and issuance of permits and licenses for 51748 all solid waste facilities in order to ensure that the facilities 51749 will be located, maintained, and operated, and will undergo 51750 closure and post-closure care, in a sanitary manner so as not to 51751 create a nuisance, cause or contribute to water pollution, create 51752 a health hazard, or violate 40 C.F.R. 257.3-2 or 40 C.F.R. 51753 257.3-8, as amended. The rules may include, without limitation, 51754 financial assurance requirements for closure and post-closure care 51755 and corrective action and requirements for taking corrective 51756 action in the event of the surface or subsurface discharge or 51757 migration of explosive gases or leachate from a solid waste 51758 facility, or of ground water contamination resulting from the 51759 transfer or disposal of solid wastes at a facility, beyond the 51760 boundaries of any area within a facility that is operating or is 51761 undergoing closure or post-closure care where solid wastes were 51762 disposed of or are being disposed of. The rules shall not concern 51763 or relate to personnel policies, salaries, wages, fringe benefits, 51764 or other conditions of employment of employees of persons owning 51765 or operating solid waste facilities. The director, in accordance 51766 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, shall adopt and may amend, 51767 suspend, or rescind rules governing the issuance, modification, 51768 revocation, suspension, or denial of variances from the director's 51769 solid waste rules, including, without limitation, rules adopted 51770 under this chapter governing the management of scrap tires. 51771

Variances shall be issued, modified, revoked, suspended, or 51772 rescinded in accordance with this division, rules adopted under 51773 it, and Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The director may order 51774 the person to whom a variance is issued to take such action within 51775 such time as the director may determine to be appropriate and 51776 reasonable to prevent the creation of a nuisance or a hazard to 51777 the public health or safety or the environment. Applications for 51778 variances shall contain such detail plans, specifications, and 51779 information regarding objectives, procedures, controls, and other 51780 pertinent data as the director may require. The director shall 51781 grant a variance only if the applicant demonstrates to the 51782 director's satisfaction that construction and operation of the 51783 solid waste facility in the manner allowed by the variance and any 51784 terms or conditions imposed as part of the variance will not 51785 create a nuisance or a hazard to the public health or safety or 51786 the environment. In granting any variance, the director shall 51787 state the specific provision or provisions whose terms are to be 51788 varied and also shall state specific terms or conditions imposed 51789 upon the applicant in place of the provision or provisions. 51790

The director may hold a public hearing on an application for 51791 a variance or renewal of a variance at a location in the county 51792 where the operations that are the subject of the application for 51793 the variance are conducted. The director shall give not less than 51794 twenty days' notice of the hearing to the applicant by certified 51795 mail or by another type of mail accompanied by a receipt and shall 51796 publish at least one notice of the hearing in a newspaper with 51797 general circulation in the county where the hearing is to be held. 51798

The director shall make available for public inspection at the principal office of the environmental protection agency a current list of pending applications for variances and a current schedule of pending variance hearings. The director shall make a complete stenographic record of testimony and other evidence submitted at the hearing.

Within ten days after the hearing, the director shall make a written determination to issue, renew, or deny the variance and shall enter the determination and the basis for it into the record of the hearing. The director shall issue, renew, or deny an application for a variance or renewal of a variance within six months of the date upon which the director receives a complete application with all pertinent information and data required. No variance shall be issued, revoked, modified, or denied until the director has considered the relative interests of the applicant, other persons and property affected by the variance, and the general public. Any variance granted under this division shall be for a period specified by the director and may be renewed from time to time on such terms and for such periods as the director determines to be appropriate. No application shall be denied and no variance shall be revoked or modified without a written order stating the findings upon which the denial, revocation, or modification is based. A copy of the order shall be sent to the applicant or variance holder by certified mail or by another type of mail accompanied by a receipt.

(B) The director shall prescribe and furnish the forms necessary to administer and enforce this chapter. The director may cooperate with and enter into agreements with other state, local, or federal agencies to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The director may exercise all incidental powers necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(C) Except as provided in this division and divisions (N)(2) and (3) of this section, no person shall establish a new solid waste facility or infectious waste treatment facility, or modify an existing solid waste facility or infectious waste treatment facility, without submitting an application for a permit with accompanying detail plans, specifications, and information regarding the facility and method of operation and receiving a permit issued by the director, except that no permit shall be required under this division to install or operate a solid waste facility for sewage sludge treatment or disposal when the treatment or disposal is authorized by a current permit issued under Chapter 3704. or 6111. of the Revised Code.

No person shall continue to operate a solid waste facility for which the director ~~has denied a permit for which an application was required under division (A)(3) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, or for which the director~~ has disapproved plans and specifications required to be filed by an order issued under division (A)~~(5)~~(3) of ~~that~~ section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, after the date prescribed for commencement of closure of the facility in the order issued under division (A)~~(6)~~(4) of that section ~~3734.05 of the Revised Code~~ denying the permit application or approval.

On and after the effective date of the rules adopted under division (A) of this section and division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code governing solid waste transfer facilities, no person shall establish a new, or modify an existing, solid waste transfer facility without first submitting an application for a permit with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, and information regarding the facility and its method of operation to the director and receiving a permit issued by the director.

No person shall establish a new compost facility or continue to operate an existing compost facility that accepts exclusively source separated yard wastes without submitting a completed registration for the facility to the director in accordance with 51863 rules adopted under divisions (A) and (N)(3) of this section. 51864

This division does not apply to a generator of infectious 51865 wastes that does any of the following: 51866

by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of section 3734.021 of 51868

(a) Infectious wastes that are generated on any premises that 51870
are owned or operated by the generator; 51871

(b) Infectious wastes that are generated by a generator who 51872 has staff privileges at a hospital as defined in section 3727.01 51873

(c) Infectious wastes that are generated in providing care to 51875 a patient by an emergency medical services organization as defined 51876 in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 51877

(2) Holds a license or renewal of a license to operate a 51878 crematory facility issued under Chapter 4717. and a permit issued 51879
under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code; 51880

(3) Treats or disposes of dead animals or parts thereof, or 51881
the blood of animals, and is subject to any of the following: 51882

(a) Inspection under the "Federal Meat Inspection Act," 81 51883
Stat. 584 (1967), 21 U.S.C.A. 603, as amended; 51884

(b) Chapter 918. of the Revised Code; 51885

(c) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 51886

(D) Neither this chapter nor any rules adopted under it apply 51887 to single-family residential premises; to infectious wastes 51888 generated by individuals for purposes of their own care or 51889 treatment; to the temporary storage of solid wastes, other than 51890 scrap tires, prior to their collection for disposal; to the 51891 storage of one hundred or fewer scrap tires unless they are stored 51892 in such a manner that, in the judgment of the director or the 51893 board of health of the health district in which the scrap tires 51894 are stored, the storage causes a nuisance, a hazard to public 51895 health or safety, or a fire hazard; or to the collection of solid 51896 wastes, other than scrap tires, by a political subdivision or a 51897 person holding a franchise or license from a political subdivision 51898 of the state; to composting, as defined in section 1511.01 of the 51899 Revised Code, conducted in accordance with section 1511.022 of the 51900 Revised Code; or to any person who is licensed to transport raw 51901 rendering material to a compost facility pursuant to section 51902

953.23 of the Revised Code. 51903

(E)(1) As used in this division: 51904

(a) "On-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 51905 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated on the premises 51906 of the facility. 51907

(b) "Off-site facility" means a facility that stores, treats, 51908 or disposes of hazardous waste that is generated off the premises 51909 of the facility and includes such a facility that is also an 51910 on-site facility. 51911

(c) "Satellite facility" means any of the following: 51912

(i) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 51913 from other premises owned by the same person who generates the 51914 waste on the facility premises; 51915

(ii) An off-site facility operated so that all of the 51916 hazardous waste it receives is generated on one or more premises 51917 owned by the person who owns the facility; 51918

(iii) An on-site facility that also receives hazardous waste 51919 that is transported uninterruptedly and directly to the facility 51920 through a pipeline from a generator who is not the owner of the 51921 facility. 51922

(2) Except as provided in division (E)(3) of this section, no person shall establish or operate a hazardous waste facility, or use a solid waste facility for the storage, treatment, or disposal of any hazardous waste, without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit issued in accordance with section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and subject to the payment of an application fee not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, payable upon application for a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and upon application for a renewal permit issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, to be credited to the hazardous waste facility management fund created in section 3734.18 of the Revised Code. The term of a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit shall not exceed ten years.

In addition to the application fee, there is hereby levied an annual permit fee to be paid by the permit holder upon the anniversaries of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent renewal permits and to be credited to the hazardous waste facility management fund. Annual permit fees totaling forty thousand dollars or more for any one facility may be paid on a quarterly basis with the first quarterly payment each year being due on the anniversary of the date of issuance of the hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit and of any subsequent renewal permits. The annual permit fee shall be determined for each permit holder by the director in accordance with the following schedule:

A hazardous waste disposal facility that disposes of 51980 hazardous waste by deep well injection and that pays the annual 51981 permit fee established in section 6111.046 of the Revised Code is 51982 not subject to the permit fee established in this division for 51983 disposal facilities using deep well injection unless the director 51984 determines that the facility is not in compliance with applicable 51985 requirements established under this chapter and rules adopted 51986 under it. 51987

In determining the annual permit fee required by this section, the director shall not require additional payments for multiple units of the same method of storage, treatment, or disposal or for individual units that are used for both storage and treatment. A facility using more than one method of storage, treatment, or disposal shall pay the permit fee indicated by the schedule for each such method.

The director shall not require the payment of that portion of an annual permit fee of any permit holder that would apply to a hazardous waste management unit for which a permit has been issued, but for which construction has not yet commenced. Once construction has commenced, the director shall require the payment of a part of the appropriate fee indicated by the schedule that bears the same relationship to the total fee that the number of days remaining until the next anniversary date at which payment of the annual permit fee is due bears to three hundred sixty-five.

The director, by rules adopted in accordance with Chapters 119. and 3745. of the Revised Code, shall prescribe procedures for collecting the annual permit fee established by this division and may prescribe other requirements necessary to carry out this division.

(3) The prohibition against establishing or operating a hazardous waste facility without a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit does not apply to either of the following:

(a) A facility that is operating in accordance with a permit renewal issued under division (H) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, a revision issued under division (I) of that section as it existed prior to August 20, 1996, or a modification issued by the director under division (I) of that section on and after August 20, 1996;

If a modification is requested or proposed for a facility described in division (E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section, division (I)(7) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code applies.

(F) No person shall store, treat, or dispose of hazardous waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it, regardless of whether generated on or off the premises where the waste is stored, treated, or disposed of, or transport or cause to be transported any hazardous waste identified or listed under this chapter and rules adopted under it to any other premises, except at or to any of the following:

(1) A hazardous waste facility operating under a permit issued in accordance with this chapter;

(2) A facility in another state operating under a license or permit issued in accordance with the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended;

(3) A facility in another nation operating in accordance with the laws of that nation;

(4) A facility holding a permit issued pursuant to Title I of the "Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972," 86

Stat. 1052, 33 U.S.C.A. 1401, as amended; 52050

(5) A hazardous waste facility as described in division 52051
(E)(3)(a) or (b) of this section. 52052

(G) The director, by order, may exempt any person generating, 52053 collecting, storing, treating, disposing of, or transporting solid 52054 wastes, infectious wastes, or hazardous waste, or processing solid 52055 wastes that consist of scrap tires, in such quantities or under 52056 such circumstances that, in the determination of the director, are 52057 unlikely to adversely affect the public health or safety or the 52058 environment from any requirement to obtain a registration 52059 certificate, permit, or license or comply with the manifest system 52060 or other requirements of this chapter. Such an exemption shall be 52061 consistent with and equivalent to any regulations adopted by the 52062 administrator of the United States environmental protection agency 52063 under the "Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976," 90 52064 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as amended, except as otherwise 52065 provided in this chapter. 52066

(H) No person shall engage in filling, grading, excavating, 52067 building, drilling, or mining on land where a hazardous waste 52068 facility, or a solid waste facility, was operated without prior 52069 authorization from the director, who shall establish the procedure 52070 for granting such authorization by rules adopted in accordance 52071 with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 52072

A public utility that has main or distribution lines above or 52073 below the land surface located on an easement or right-of-way 52074 across land where a solid waste facility was operated may engage 52075 in any such activity within the easement or right-of-way without 52076 prior authorization from the director for purposes of performing 52077 emergency repair or emergency replacement of its lines; of the 52078 poles, towers, foundations, or other structures supporting or 52079 sustaining any such lines; or of the appurtenances to those 52080 structures, necessary to restore or maintain existing public 52081 utility service. A public utility may enter upon any such easement 52082 or right-of-way without prior authorization from the director for 52083 purposes of performing necessary or routine maintenance of those 52084 portions of its existing lines; of the existing poles, towers, 52085 foundations, or other structures sustaining or supporting its 52086 lines; or of the appurtenances to any such supporting or 52087 sustaining structure, located on or above the land surface on any 52088 such easement or right-of-way. Within twenty-four hours after 52089 commencing any such emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 52090 work, the public utility shall notify the director or the 52091 director's authorized representative of those activities and shall 52092 provide such information regarding those activities as the 52093 director or the director's representative may request. Upon 52094 completion of the emergency repair, replacement, or maintenance 52095 activities, the public utility shall restore any land of the solid 52096 waste facility disturbed by those activities to the condition 52097 existing prior to the commencement of those activities. 52098

(I) No owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility, in 52099 the operation of the facility, shall cause, permit, or allow the 52100 emission therefrom of any particulate matter, dust, fumes, gas, 52101 mist, smoke, vapor, or odorous substance that, in the opinion of 52102 the director, unreasonably interferes with the comfortable 52103 enjoyment of life or property by persons living or working in the 52104 vicinity of the facility, or that is injurious to public health. 52105 Any such action is hereby declared to be a public nuisance. 52106

(J) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in 52107 the event the director finds an imminent and substantial danger to 52108 public health or safety or the environment that creates an 52109 emergency situation requiring the immediate treatment, storage, or 52110 disposal of hazardous waste, the director may issue a temporary 52111 emergency permit to allow the treatment, storage, or disposal of 52112 the hazardous waste at a facility that is not otherwise authorized 52113 by a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to 52114 treat, store, or dispose of the waste. The emergency permit shall 52115 not exceed ninety days in duration and shall not be renewed. The 52116 director shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, rules in 52117 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 52118 issuance, modification, revocation, and denial of emergency 52119 permits. 52120

(K) Except for infectious wastes generated by a person who 52121 produces fewer than fifty pounds of infectious wastes at a 52122 premises during any one month, no owner or operator of a sanitary 52123 landfill shall knowingly accept for disposal, or dispose of, any 52124 infectious wastes that have not been treated to render them 52125 noninfectious. 52126

(L) The director, in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 52127 Revised Code, shall adopt, and may amend, suspend, or rescind, 52128 rules having uniform application throughout the state establishing 52129 a training and certification program that shall be required for 52130 employees of boards of health who are responsible for enforcing 52131 the solid waste and infectious waste provisions of this chapter 52132 and rules adopted under them and for persons who are responsible 52133 for the operation of solid waste facilities or infectious waste 52134 treatment facilities. The rules shall provide all of the 52135 following, without limitation: 52136

(1) The program shall be administered by the director and 52137 shall consist of a course on new solid waste and infectious waste 52138 technologies, enforcement procedures, and rules; 52139

(2) The course shall be offered on an annual basis; 52140

(3) Those persons who are required to take the course under 52141 division (L) of this section shall do so triennially; 52142

(4) Persons who successfully complete the course shall be 52143 certified by the director; 52144

(6)(a) All employees of a board of health who, on the effective date of the rules adopted under this division, are responsible for enforcing the solid waste or infectious waste provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted under them shall complete the course and be certified by the director not later than January 1, 1995;

(b) All employees of a board of health who, after the effective date of the rules adopted under division (L) of this section, become responsible for enforcing the solid waste or infectious waste provisions of this chapter and rules adopted under them and who do not hold a current and valid certification from the director at that time shall complete the course and be certified by the director within two years after becoming responsible for performing those activities.

No person shall fail to obtain the certification required under this division.

(M) The director shall not issue a permit under section 3734.05 of the Revised Code to establish a solid waste facility, or to modify a solid waste facility operating on December 21, 1988, in a manner that expands the disposal capacity or geographic area covered by the facility, that is or is to be located within the boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under Chapter 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area established under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit of the national park system, or any property that lies within the boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that has not been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of the 52177

United States department of the interior, located in this state, 52178 or any candidate area located in this state and identified for 52179 potential inclusion in the national park system in the edition of 52180
the "national park system plan" submitted under paragraph (b) of 52181 section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 Stat. 825, 16 52182
U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of filing of the 52183 application for the permit, unless the facility or proposed 52184 facility is or is to be used exclusively for the disposal of solid 52185 wastes generated within the park or recreation area and the 52186 director determines that the facility or proposed facility will 52187 not degrade any of the natural or cultural resources of the park 52188 or recreation area. The director shall not issue a variance under 52189 division (A) of this section and rules adopted under it, or issue 52190 an exemption order under division (G) of this section, that would 52191 authorize any such establishment or expansion of a solid waste 52192 facility within the boundaries of any such park or recreation 52193 area, state park purchase area, or candidate area, other than a 52194 solid waste facility exclusively for the disposal of solid wastes 52195 generated within the park or recreation area when the director 52196 determines that the facility will not degrade any of the natural 52197 or cultural resources of the park or recreation area. 52198

(N)(1) The rules adopted under division (A) of this section, 52199 other than those governing variances, do not apply to scrap tire 52200 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 52201
Those facilities are subject to and governed by rules adopted 52202 under sections 3734.70 to 3734.73 of the Revised Code, as 52203
applicable. 52204

(2) Division (C) of this section does not apply to scrap tire 52205 collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and recovery facilities. 52206
The establishment and modification of those facilities are subject 52207 to sections 3734.75 to 3734.78 and section 3734.81 of the Revised 52208

Code, as applicable. 52209

(3) The director may adopt, amend, suspend, or rescind rules 52210 under division (A) of this section creating an alternative system 52211 for authorizing the establishment, operation, or modification of a 52212 solid waste compost facility in lieu of the requirement that a 52213 person seeking to establish, operate, or modify a solid waste 52214 compost facility apply for and receive a permit under division (C) 52215 of this section and section 3734.05 of the Revised Code and a 52216 license under division (A)(1) of that section. The rules may 52217 include requirements governing, without limitation, the 52218 classification of solid waste compost facilities, the submittal of 52219 operating records for solid waste compost facilities, and the 52220 creation of a registration or notification system in lieu of the 52221 issuance of permits and licenses for solid waste compost 52222 facilities. The rules shall specify the applicability of divisions 52223
(A)(1), and (2)(a), ~~(3), and (4)~~ of section 3734.05 of the Revised 52224
Code to a solid waste compost facility. 52225

(O)(1) As used in this division, "secondary aluminum waste" 52226 means waste material or byproducts, when disposed of, containing 52227 aluminum generated from secondary aluminum smelting operations and 52228 consisting of dross, salt cake, baghouse dust associated with 52229 aluminum recycling furnace operations, or dry-milled wastes. 52230

(2) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall not 52231 dispose of municipal solid waste that has been commingled with 52232 secondary aluminum waste. 52233

(3) The owner or operator of a sanitary landfill may dispose 52234 of secondary aluminum waste, but only in a monocell or monofill 52235 that has been permitted for that purpose in accordance with this 52236 chapter and rules adopted under it. 52237

(P)(1) As used in divisions (P) and (Q) of this section: 52238

(a) "Natural background" means two picocuries per gram or the 52239 actual number of picocuries per gram as measured at an individual 52240 solid waste facility, subject to verification by the director of 52241 health. 52242

(b) "Drilling operation" includes a production operation as 52243 defined in section 1509.01 of the Revised Code. 52244

(2) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility shall not 52245 accept for transfer or disposal technologically enhanced naturally 52246 occurring radioactive material if that material contains or is 52247 contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of 52248 radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater 52249 than five picocuries per gram above natural background. 52250

(3) The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may 52251 receive and process for purposes other than transfer or disposal 52252 technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material 52253 that contains or is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or 52254 any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations 52255 equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural 52256 background, provided that the owner or operator has obtained and 52257 maintains all other necessary authorizations, including any 52258 authorization required by rules adopted by the director of health 52259
under section 3748.04 of the Revised Code. 52260

(4) The director of environmental protection may adopt rules 52261 in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 52262 receipt, acceptance, processing, handling, management, and 52263 disposal by solid waste facilities of material that contains or is 52264 contaminated with radioactive material, including, without 52265 limitation, technologically enhanced naturally occurring 52266 radioactive material that contains or is contaminated with 52267 radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and 52268 radium-228 at concentrations less than five picocuries per gram 52269 above natural background. Rules adopted by the director may 52270 include at a minimum both of the following: 52271

(a) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must monitor leachate and ground water for radium-226, radium-228, and other radionuclides;

(b) Requirements in accordance with which the owner or operator of a solid waste facility must develop procedures to ensure that technologically enhanced naturally occurring radioactive material accepted at the facility neither contains nor is contaminated with radium-226, radium-228, or any combination of radium-226 and radium-228 at concentrations equal to or greater than five picocuries per gram above natural background.

Sec. 3734.041. (A) The owner or operator holding a license issued under division (A) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code for a sanitary landfill that is so situated that a residence or other occupied structure off the premises of the landfill is located within one thousand feet horizontal distance from the exterior boundary of the landfill, and the owner or operator of any closed landfill that is so situated and for which a license was issued under division (A) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code, or the subsequent owner, lessee, or other person who has control of the land on which the closed landfill is located, shall, within sixty days after the effective date of the rules adopted under division (F) of this section, submit an explosive gas monitoring plan for the landfill or closed landfill to the director of environmental protection for approval for compliance with those rules. After approval of the plan, the owner ~~or,~~ 52303 operator ~~of the landfill, or, in the instance of a closed~~ 52304 ~~landfill, the owner or operator of the closed landfill, or the,~~ 52305 subsequent owner, lessee, or other person ~~who has control of the~~ 52306 ~~land on which the closed landfill is located~~ shall conduct 52307 monitoring of explosive gas levels at the landfill or closed 52308 landfill, and submit written reports of the results of the 52309 monitoring to the director and the board of health of the health 52310 district in which the landfill is located in accordance with the 52311 approved plan and the schedule for implementation contained in the 52312 approved plan. 52313

No person shall violate or fail to perform a duty imposed by 52314 a plan approved under this section. 52315

(B) Division (A) of this section does not apply to a sanitary 52316 landfill or closed sanitary landfill that exclusively disposes, or 52317 disposed, of solid wastes generated on the premises where the 52318 landfill or closed landfill is located; to a sanitary landfill or 52319 closed sanitary landfill that exclusively disposes, or disposed, 52320 of solid wastes generated on one or more premises owned by the 52321 person who owns the landfill or closed landfill; or to a sanitary 52322 landfill or closed sanitary landfill owned or operated by a person 52323 other than the generator of the wastes that exclusively disposes, 52324 or disposed, of nonputrescible solid wastes or nonputrescible 52325 wastes generated by a single generator at one or more premises 52326 owned by the generator. 52327

(C) ~~When~~ As used in this division and division (D) of this 52328 section, "responsible party" includes the owner or operator of a 52329 solid waste disposal facility; any current or former owner of a 52330 closed solid waste disposal facility; any person who was 52331 responsible for the operations of a closed solid waste disposal 52332 facility; any lessee or other person who has control of the 52333 property on which a closed solid waste disposal facility is 52334 located; a receiver appointed pursuant to Chapter 2735. of the 52335 Revised Code with respect to a solid waste disposal facility or 52336 closed solid waste disposal facility; and a trustee in bankruptcy. 52337

Notwithstanding division (B) of this section, if the director 52338 determines that, due to the types of wastes disposed of, the 52339 engineering design, the hydrogeological setting, the period of 52340 time since the commencement of operation, ~~and~~ the proximity of 52341 residential or other occupied structures located off the premises 52342 of ~~the landfill~~ a solid waste disposal facility to the exterior 52343 boundaries, ~~of~~ or information related to concentrations of 52344 explosive gas at or surrounding a sanitary landfill licensed under 52345 ~~division (A) of section 3734.05 of the Revised Code~~ facility or 52346 closed ~~sanitary landfill for which a license was issued under that~~ 52347 ~~division~~ facility, the potential exists for the formation and 52348 subsurface migration of explosive gases in such quantities and 52349 under such conditions as to ~~endanger~~ threaten human health or 52350 safety or the environment, the director ~~shall~~ may issue to the 52351 ~~owner or operator of the sanitary landfill, or, in the instance of~~ 52352
~~a closed sanitary landfill, the owner or operator of the sanitary~~ 52353 ~~landfill, or the subsequent owner, lessee, or other person who has~~ 52354 ~~control of the property on which the closed landfill is located,~~ 52355 any responsible party an order directing ~~such owner~~ the 52356 responsible party to prepare, ~~obtain approval of, and implement an~~ 52357 and submit a new or revised explosive gas monitoring and reporting 52358 ~~plan, in accordance with division (A) of~~ that complies with 52359 division (A) of this section and provides for the adequate 52360 evaluation of explosive gas generation at and migration from the 52361 solid waste disposal facility or closed solid waste disposal 52362 facility. A plan so submitted shall be approved in accordance with 52363 division (A) of this section. After approval of the plan, the 52364 responsible party shall conduct monitoring of explosive gas levels 52365 at the facility or closed facility and submit written reports of 52366 the results of the monitoring in accordance with the plan approved 52367 under this section. For the purposes of this division and division 52368

(D) of this section, explosive gases shall be considered to 52369 ~~endanger~~ threaten human health or safety or the environment if 52370 concentrations of methane generated by ~~the landfill~~ a facility in 52371 ~~landfill~~ occupied structures, ~~excluding gas control or recovery~~ 52372 ~~system components,~~ exceed twenty-five per cent of the lower 52373 explosive limit or if concentrations of methane generated by the 52374 ~~landfill~~ facility at the ~~landfill~~ facility boundary exceed the 52375 lower explosive limit. As used in this division, "lower explosive 52376 limit" means the lowest per cent by volume of methane that will 52377 produce a flame in air at twenty-five degrees centigrade and 52378 atmospheric pressure. 52379

(D) If a report submitted pursuant to a plan approved under 52380 division (A) of this section indicates that the formation of 52381 explosive gases at, and migration of explosive gases from, a 52382 ~~sanitary landfill~~ solid waste disposal facility or closed ~~sanitary~~ 52383 ~~landfill~~ solid waste disposal facility threatens human health or 52384 safety or the environment, the director or his authorized 52385 representative ~~shall promptly~~ may conduct an evaluation of the 52386 levels of explosive gases on the premises of the ~~landfill~~ facility 52387 and in occupied structures located in proximity to the boundaries 52388 of the ~~landfill~~ facility to determine whether the formation of 52389 explosive gases at, and migration of those gases from, the 52390 ~~landfill~~ facility or closed ~~landfill~~ facility constitutes such a 52391 threat. In addition, the director or the director's authorized 52392 representative, on their own initiative, may conduct an evaluation 52393 in accordance with division (G) of this section. Based upon the 52394 findings of ~~the an~~ an evaluation, ~~or of an evaluation conducted by~~ 52395 ~~the director, or his authorized representative, on his own~~ 52396 initiative, the director ~~shall~~ may issue an order under division 52397
(A) or (B) of section 3734.13 of the Revised Code, as the director 52398 considers necessary or appropriate, directing ~~the owner or~~ 52399 ~~operator of the landfill, or, in the instance of a closed~~ 52400

~~landfill, the owner or operator of the landfill, or the subsequent~~ 52401
~~owner, lessee, or other person who has control of the land on~~ 52402
~~which the closed landfill is located, any responsible party to~~ 52403 perform such measures as the director considers necessary or 52404 appropriate, to abate or minimize the formation of explosive gases 52405 or their migration off the premises of the ~~landfill~~ facility, to 52406 abate or remedy any conditions caused by the formation and 52407 migration of such gases that ~~endanger~~ threaten human health or 52408 safety or the environment and to take such actions as the director 52409 finds necessary or appropriate to prevent recurrence of the 52410 migration of explosive gases or decrease their concentration to 52411 levels set forth in division (C) of this section. 52412

After the issuance of an order under this division, the 52413 director shall inspect the ~~landfill at least once each week, or~~ 52414 facility at such ~~other~~ intervals as the director or ~~his~~ an 52415 authorized representative of the director considers necessary or 52416 appropriate, to ascertain compliance with the order until such 52417 time as the director determines that full compliance with those 52418 terms and conditions has been achieved. 52419

If a report submitted pursuant to a plan approved under 52420 division (A) of this section indicates that the formation of 52421
explosive gases at, and migration of explosive gases from, a 52422 ~~landfill~~ solid waste disposal facility that is subject to an order 52423 issued under division (D) of this section has recurred in such 52424 quantities or under such conditions as to threaten human health or 52425 safety or the environment, or if the director determines from an 52426 inspection of any such ~~landfill~~ facility that the ~~owner or~~ 52427 ~~operator of the landfill, or, in the instance of a closed~~ 52428
~~landfill, the owner or operator of the landfill, or the subsequent~~ 52429
~~owner, lessee, or other person who has control of the land on~~ 52430 ~~which the closed landfill is located, responsible party has~~ 52431 violated or is violating a term or condition of the order or that 52432 measures in addition to those prescribed by the order are 52433 necessary or appropriate under the circumstances, the director 52434 shall take such actions under division (A), (B), or (C) of section 52435 3734.13 of the Revised Code as ~~he~~ the director considers necessary 52436 or appropriate to protect human health or safety or the 52437

environment. 52438

(E) The director shall conduct random inspections of licensed 52439 and closed sanitary landfills for explosive gas levels and to 52440 monitor the accuracy of the reports submitted pursuant to plans 52441 approved under division (A) of this section. 52442

(F) The director shall adopt rules under Chapter 119. of the 52443 Revised Code prescribing standards for conducting the explosive 52444 gas monitoring required by division (A) of this section including, 52445 without limitation, standards governing the numbers, locations, 52446 and design and construction of monitoring wells; quality control 52447 procedures to be followed by persons conducting those evaluations 52448 to ensure the accuracy of the monitoring; the frequency for 52449 sampling the monitoring wells, which shall be at least quarterly, 52450 except as otherwise provided in this division; and the frequency 52451 of reporting monitoring results to the director and board of 52452 health. The rules shall require that, in the instance of closed 52453 sanitary landfills, explosive gas monitoring be conducted for the 52454 period of twenty years after closure or for such other period as 52455 the director considers necessary or appropriate. Such explosive 52456 gas monitoring shall be conducted quarterly during each of the 52457 five years immediately following closure of the landfills and 52458 semiannually thereafter. If such semiannual sampling shows that 52459 the methane limits set in division (C) of this section are 52460 exceeded, sampling may be resumed at a frequency determined by the 52461 director. 52462

(G) The director or the director's authorized representative 52463 may enter upon a solid waste disposal facility or a closed solid 52464 waste disposal facility to conduct an evaluation of the 52465 concentration of explosive gas generated at or migrating from the 52466 facility. The owner or operator of a solid waste disposal facility 52467 or closed solid waste disposal facility shall allow the director 52468 or representative to conduct such an evaluation of the facility, 52469 any structures within the boundary of the facility, and any 52470 occupied structures in close proximity to the boundary of the 52471 facility that are owned or controlled by the owner or operator. 52472

(H) The remedy provided by division (D) of this section is 52473 cumulative and concurrent with any other remedy provided in this 52474 chapter or Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code, and the existence or 52475 exercise of one remedy does not prevent the exercise of any other. 52476

Sec. 3734.05. (A)(1) Except as provided in divisions (A)~~(4)~~ 52477 ~~(8)~~, (6) and ~~(9)~~, (7) of this section, no person shall operate or 52478 maintain a solid waste facility without a license issued under 52479 this division by the board of health of the health district in 52480 which the facility is located or by the director of environmental 52481 protection when the health district in which the facility is 52482 located is not on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the 52483
Revised Code. 52484

During the month of December, but before the first day of 52485
January of the next year, every person proposing to continue to 52486 operate an existing solid waste facility shall procure a license 52487 under this division to operate the facility for that year from the 52488 board of health of the health district in which the facility is 52489 located or, if the health district is not on the approved list 52490 under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, from the director. The 52491 application for such a license shall be submitted to the board of 52492 health or to the director, as appropriate, on or before the last 52493 day of September of the year preceding that for which the license 52494 is sought. In addition to the application fee prescribed in 52495 division (A)(2) of this section, a person who submits an 52496 application after that date shall pay an additional ten per cent 52497 of the amount of the application fee for each week that the 52498 application is late. Late payment fees accompanying an application 52499 submitted to the board of health shall be credited to the special 52500 fund of the health district created in division (B) of section 52501 3734.06 of the Revised Code, and late payment fees accompanying an 52502 application submitted to the director shall be credited to the 52503 general revenue fund. A person who has received a license, upon 52504 sale or disposition of a solid waste facility, and upon consent of 52505 the board of health and the director, may have the license 52506 transferred to another person. The board of health or the director 52507 may include such terms and conditions in a license or revision to 52508 a license as are appropriate to ensure compliance with this 52509 chapter and rules adopted under it. The terms and conditions may 52510 establish the authorized maximum daily waste receipts for the 52511 facility. Limitations on maximum daily waste receipts shall be 52512 specified in cubic yards of volume for the purpose of regulating 52513 the design, construction, and operation of solid waste facilities. 52514 Terms and conditions included in a license or revision to a 52515 license by a board of health shall be consistent with, and pertain 52516 only to the subjects addressed in, the rules adopted under 52517 division (A) of section 3734.02 and division (D) of section 52518

3734.12 of the Revised Code. 52519

(2)(a) Except as provided in divisions (A)(2)(b), ~~(8)(6)~~, and 52520 ~~(9)(7)~~ of this section, each person proposing to open a new solid 52521 waste facility or to modify an existing solid waste facility shall 52522 submit an application for a permit with accompanying detail plans 52523 and specifications to the environmental protection agency for 52524 required approval under the rules adopted by the director pursuant 52525 to division (A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and 52526 applicable rules adopted under division (D) of section 3734.12 of 52527 the Revised Code at least two hundred seventy days before proposed 52528 operation of the facility and shall concurrently make application 52529 for the issuance of a license under division (A)(1) of this 52530 section with the board of health of the health district in which 52531 the proposed facility is to be located. 52532

(b) On and after the effective date of the rules adopted 52533 under division (A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and 52534 division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code governing 52535 solid waste transfer facilities, each person proposing to open a 52536 new solid waste transfer facility or to modify an existing solid 52537 waste transfer facility shall submit an application for a permit 52538 with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, and 52539 information regarding the facility and its method of operation to 52540 the environmental protection agency for required approval under 52541 those rules at least two hundred seventy days before commencing 52542 proposed operation of the facility and concurrently shall make 52543 application for the issuance of a license under division (A)(1) of 52544 this section with the board of health of the health district in 52545 which the facility is located or proposed. 52546

(c) Each application for a permit under division (A)(2)(a) or 52547
(b) of this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable 52548 application fee of four hundred dollars that shall be credited to 52549 the general revenue fund. Each application for an annual license 52550 under division (A)(1) or (2) of this section shall be accompanied 52551 by a nonrefundable application fee of one hundred dollars. If the 52552 application for an annual license is submitted to a board of 52553 health on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the Revised 52554 Code, the application fee shall be credited to the special fund of 52555 the health district created in division (B) of section 3734.06 of 52556 the Revised Code. If the application for an annual license is 52557 submitted to the director, the application fee shall be credited 52558 to the general revenue fund. If a permit or license is issued, the 52559 amount of the application fee paid shall be deducted from the 52560 capacity of a solid waste facility; 52568

(ii) Any expansion of the limits of solid waste placement at 52569
a solid waste facility; 52570

(iii) Any increase in the depth of excavation at a solid 52571 waste facility; 52572

(iv) Any change in the technique of waste receipt or type of 52573 waste received at a solid waste facility that may endanger human 52574 health, as determined by the director by rules adopted in 52575 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code. 52576

Not later than forty-five days after submitting an 52577 application under division (A)(2)(a) or (b) of this section for a 52578 permit to open a new or modify an existing solid waste facility, 52579 the applicant, in conjunction with an officer or employee of the 52580 environmental protection agency, shall hold a public meeting on 52581 the application within the county in which the new or modified 52582 solid waste facility is or is proposed to be located or within a 52583 contiguous county. Not less than thirty days before holding the 52584 public meeting on the application, the applicant shall publish 52585 notice of the meeting in each newspaper of general circulation 52586 that is published in the county in which the facility is or is 52587 proposed to be located. If no newspaper of general circulation is 52588 published in the county, the applicant shall publish the notice in 52589 a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The notice shall 52590

(e) Except as provided in division (A)(2)(f) of this section, 52610 prior to taking an action, other than a proposed or final denial, 52611 section for a permit to open a new or modify an existing solid 52613 waste facility, the director shall hold a public information 52614 session and a public hearing on the application within the county 52615 in which the new or modified solid waste facility is or is 52616 proposed to be located or within a contiguous county. If the 52617 application is for a permit to open a new solid waste facility, 52618 the director shall hold the hearing not less than fourteen days 52619 after the information session. If the application is for a permit 52620 to modify an existing solid waste facility, the director may hold 52621 both the information session and the hearing on the same day 52622 unless any individual affected by the application requests in 52623 writing that the information session and the hearing not be held 52624 on the same day, in which case the director shall hold the hearing 52625 not less than fourteen days after the information session. The 52626 director shall publish notice of the public information session or 52627 public hearing not less than thirty days before holding the 52628 information session or hearing, as applicable. The notice shall be 52629 published in each newspaper of general circulation that is 52630 published in the county in which the facility is or is proposed to 52631 be located. If no newspaper of general circulation is published in 52632

the county, the director shall publish the notice in a newspaper 52633 of general circulation in the county. The notice shall contain the 52634 date, time, and location of the information session or hearing, as 52635 applicable, and a general description of the proposed new or 52636 modified facility. At the public information session, an officer 52637 or employee of the environmental protection agency shall describe 52638 the status of the permit application and be available to respond 52639 to comments or questions concerning the application. At the public 52640 hearing, any person may submit written or oral comments on or 52641 objections to the approval of the application. The applicant, or a 52642 representative of the applicant who has knowledge of the location, 52643 construction, and operation of the facility, shall attend the 52644 information session and public hearing to respond to comments or 52645 questions concerning the facility directed to the applicant or 52646 representative by the officer or employee of the environmental 52647 protection agency presiding at the information session and 52648 hearing. 52649

(f) The solid waste management policy committee of a county 52650 or joint solid waste management district may adopt a resolution 52651 requesting expeditious consideration of a specific application 52652 submitted under division (A)(2)(a) of this section for a permit to 52653 modify an existing solid waste facility within the district. The 52654 resolution shall make the finding that expedited consideration of 52655 the application without the public information session and public 52656 hearing under division (A)(2)(e) of this section is in the public 52657 interest and will not endanger human health, as determined by the 52658 director by rules adopted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the 52659 Revised Code. Upon receiving such a resolution, the director, at 52660 the director's discretion, may issue a final action upon the 52661 application without holding a public information session or public 52662 hearing pursuant to division (A)(2)(e) of this section. 52663

~~(3) Except as provided in division (A)(10) of this section, 52664 and unless the owner or operator of any solid waste facility, 52665 other than a solid waste transfer facility or a compost facility 52666 that accepts exclusively source separated yard wastes, that 52667 commenced operation on or before July 1, 1968, has obtained an 52668 exemption from the requirements of division (A)(3) of this section 52669 in accordance with division (G) of section 3734.02 of the Revised 52670 Code, the owner or operator shall submit to the director an 52671 application for a permit with accompanying engineering detail 52672 plans, specifications, and information regarding the facility and 52673 its method of operation for approval under rules adopted under 52674 division (A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and applicable 52675 rules adopted under division (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised 52676 Code in accordance with the following schedule: 52677~~

~~(a) Not later than September 24, 1988, if the facility is 52678 located in the city of Garfield Heights or Parma in Cuyahoga 52679 county; 52680~~

~~(b) Not later than December 24, 1988, if the facility is 52681 located in Delaware, Greene, Guernsey, Hamilton, Madison, 52682

~~(c) Not later than March 24, 1989, if the facility is located 52684 in Champaign, Clinton, Columbiana, Huron, Paulding, Stark, or 52685

~~(f) Not later than December 24, 1989, if the facility is located in a county not listed in divisions (A)(3)(a) to (c) of
this section;~~

~~(g) Notwithstanding divisions (A)(3)(a) to (f) of this section, not later than December 31, 1990, if the facility is a solid waste facility owned by a generator of solid wastes when the solid waste facility exclusively disposes of solid wastes generated at one or more premises owned by the generator regardless of whether the facility is located on a premises where the wastes are generated and if the facility disposes of more than one hundred thousand tons of solid wastes per year, provided that any such facility shall be subject to division (A)(5) of this section.~~

~~(4) Except as provided in divisions (A)(8), (9), and (10) of this section, unless the owner or operator of any solid waste facility for which a permit was issued after July 1, 1968, but before January 1, 1980, has obtained an exemption from the requirements of division (A)(4) of this section under division (C) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, the owner or operator shall submit to the director an application for a permit with accompanying engineering detail plans, specifications, and information regarding the facility and its method of operation for approval under those rules.~~

~~(5) The director may issue an order in accordance with Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code to the owner or operator of a~~ solid waste facility requiring the person to submit to the 52720 director updated engineering detail plans, specifications, and 52721 information regarding the facility and its method of operation for 52722 approval under rules adopted under division (A) of section 3734.02 52723 of the Revised Code and applicable rules adopted under division 52724 (D) of section 3734.12 of the Revised Code if, in the director's 52725 judgment, conditions at the facility constitute a substantial 52726 threat to public health or safety or are causing or contributing 52727 to or threatening to cause or contribute to air or water pollution 52728 or soil contamination. Any person who receives such an order shall 52729 submit the updated engineering detail plans, specifications, and 52730 information to the director within one hundred eighty days after 52731 the effective date of the order. 52732

~~(6)(4)~~ The director shall act upon ~~an application submitted~~ 52733 ~~under division (A)(3) or (4) of this section and~~ any updated 52734 engineering plans, specifications, and information submitted under 52735 division (A)~~(5)(3)~~ of this section within one hundred eighty days 52736 after receiving them. If the director ~~denies any such permit~~ 52737 ~~application, the issues an order denying the application or~~ 52738 ~~disapproving the plans, specifications, and information submitted~~ 52739 under division (A)(3) of this section, the order shall include all 52740 of the following requirements that: 52741

(a) That the owner or operator submit a plan for closure and 52742 post-closure care of the facility to the director for approval 52743 within six months after issuance of the order~~;~~ 52744

(b) That the owner or operator cease accepting solid wastes 52745 for disposal or transfer at the facility~~;~~ and 52746

(c) The owner or operator commence closure of the facility 52747 not later than one year after issuance of the order. ~~If~~ 52748

If the director determines that closure of the facility 52749 within that one-year period would result in the unavailability of 52750 sufficient solid waste management facility capacity within the 52751 county or joint solid waste management district in which the 52752 facility is located to dispose of or transfer the solid waste 52753 generated within the district, the director in the order of ~~denial~~ 52754 ~~or~~ disapproval may postpone commencement of closure of the 52755 facility for such period of time as the director finds necessary 52756 for the board of county commissioners or directors of the district 52757 to secure access to or for there to be constructed within the 52758 district sufficient solid waste management facility capacity to 52759 meet the needs of the district, provided that the director shall 52760 certify in the director's order that postponing the date for 52761 commencement of closure will not endanger groundwater or any 52762 property surrounding the facility, allow methane gas migration to 52763 occur, or cause or contribute to any other type of environmental 52764 damage. 52765

If an emergency need for disposal capacity that may affect 52766 public health and safety exists as a result of closure of a 52767 facility under division (A)~~(6)~~(4) of this section, the director 52768 may issue an order designating another solid waste facility to 52769 accept the wastes that would have been disposed of at the facility 52770 to be closed. 52771

~~(7)~~(5) If the director determines that standards more 52772 stringent than those applicable in rules adopted under division 52773
(A) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and division (D) of 52774 section 3734.12 of the Revised Code, or standards pertaining to 52775 subjects not specifically addressed by those rules, are necessary 52776 to ensure that a solid waste facility constructed at the proposed 52777 location will not cause a nuisance, cause or contribute to water 52778 pollution, or endanger public health or safety, the director may 52779 issue a permit for the facility with such terms and conditions as 52780 the director finds necessary to protect public health and safety 52781 and the environment. If a permit is issued, the director shall 52782 state in the order issuing it the specific findings supporting 52783 each such term or condition. 52784

~~(8)(6)~~ Divisions (A)(1), and (2)(a), ~~(3), and (4)~~ of this 52785 section do not apply to a solid waste compost facility that 52786 accepts exclusively source separated yard wastes and that is 52787 registered under division (C) of section 3734.02 of the Revised 52788 Code or, unless otherwise provided in rules adopted under division 52789 (N)(3) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, to a solid waste 52790 compost facility if the director has adopted rules establishing an 52791 alternative system for authorizing the establishment, operation, 52792 or modification of a solid waste compost facility under that 52793
division. 52794

~~(9)(7)~~ Divisions (A)(1) to ~~(7)(5)~~ of this section do not 52795 apply to scrap tire collection, storage, monocell, monofill, and 52796 recovery facilities. The approval of plans and specifications, as 52797 applicable, and the issuance of registration certificates, 52798 permits, and licenses for those facilities are subject to sections 52799 3734.75 to 3734.78 of the Revised Code, as applicable, and section 52800
3734.81 of the Revised Code. 52801

~~(10) Divisions (A)(3) and (4) of this section do not apply to~~ 52802
~~a solid waste incinerator that was placed into operation on or~~ 52803
~~before October 12, 1994, and that is not authorized to accept and~~ 52804 ~~treat infectious wastes pursuant to division (B) of this section.~~ 52805

(B)(1) No person shall operate or maintain an infectious 52806 waste treatment facility without a license issued by the board of 52807 health of the health district in which the facility is located or 52808 by the director when the health district in which the facility is 52809 located is not on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the 52810
Revised Code. 52811

(2)(a) During the month of December, but before the first day 52812 of January of the next year, every person proposing to continue to 52813 operate an existing infectious waste treatment facility shall 52814 procure a license to operate the facility for that year from the 52815 board of health of the health district in which the facility is 52816 located or, if the health district is not on the approved list 52817

under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code, from the director. The 52818 application for such a license shall be submitted to the board of 52819
health or to the director, as appropriate, on or before the last 52820
day of September of the year preceding that for which the license 52821
is sought. In addition to the application fee prescribed in 52822 division (B)(2)(c) of this section, a person who submits an 52823 application after that date shall pay an additional ten per cent 52824
of the amount of the application fee for each week that the 52825
application is late. Late payment fees accompanying an application 52826 submitted to the board of health shall be credited to the special 52827 infectious waste fund of the health district created in division 52828
(C) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code, and late payment fees 52829 accompanying an application submitted to the director shall be 52830 credited to the general revenue fund. A person who has received a 52831 license, upon sale or disposition of an infectious waste treatment 52832 facility and upon consent of the board of health and the director, 52833 may have the license transferred to another person. The board of 52834 health or the director may include such terms and conditions in a 52835 license or revision to a license as are appropriate to ensure 52836 compliance with the infectious waste provisions of this chapter 52837 and rules adopted under them. 52838

(b) Each person proposing to open a new infectious waste 52839 treatment facility or to modify an existing infectious waste 52840 treatment facility shall submit an application for a permit with 52841 accompanying detail plans and specifications to the environmental 52842 protection agency for required approval under the rules adopted by 52843 the director pursuant to section 3734.021 of the Revised Code two 52844 hundred seventy days before proposed operation of the facility and 52845 concurrently shall make application for a license with the board 52846 of health of the health district in which the facility is or is 52847 proposed to be located. Not later than ninety days after receiving 52848 a complete application under division (B)(2)(b) of this section 52849 for a permit to open a new infectious waste treatment facility or 52850 modify an existing infectious waste treatment facility to expand 52851 its treatment capacity, or receiving a complete application under 52852 division (A)(2)(a) of this section for a permit to open a new 52853 solid waste incineration facility, or modify an existing solid 52854 waste incineration facility to also treat infectious wastes or to 52855 increase its infectious waste treatment capacity, that pertains to 52856 a facility for which a notation authorizing infectious waste 52857 treatment is included or proposed to be included in the solid 52858 waste incineration facility's license pursuant to division (B)(3) 52859 of this section, the director shall hold a public hearing on the 52860 application within the county in which the new or modified 52861 infectious waste or solid waste facility is or is proposed to be 52862 located or within a contiguous county. Not less than thirty days 52863 before holding the public hearing on the application, the director 52864 shall publish notice of the hearing in each newspaper that has 52865 general circulation and that is published in the county in which 52866 the facility is or is proposed to be located. If there is no 52867 newspaper that has general circulation and that is published in 52868

the county, the director shall publish the notice in a newspaper 52869
of general circulation in the county. The notice shall contain the 52870 date, time, and location of the public hearing and a general 52871 description of the proposed new or modified facility. At the 52872 public hearing, any person may submit written or oral comments on 52873 or objections to the approval or disapproval of the application. 52874
The applicant, or a representative of the applicant who has 52875 knowledge of the location, construction, and operation of the 52876 facility, shall attend the public hearing to respond to comments 52877 or questions concerning the facility directed to the applicant or 52878 representative by the officer or employee of the environmental 52879

protection agency presiding at the hearing. 52880

(c) Each application for a permit under division (B)(2)(b) of 52881 this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable application 52882 fee of four hundred dollars that shall be credited to the general 52883 revenue fund. Each application for an annual license under 52884 division (B)(2)(a) of this section shall be accompanied by a 52885 nonrefundable application fee of one hundred dollars. If the 52886 application for an annual license is submitted to a board of 52887
health on the approved list under section 3734.08 of the Revised 52888 Code, the application fee shall be credited to the special 52889 infectious waste fund of the health district created in division 52890
(C) of section 3734.06 of the Revised Code. If the application for 52891 an annual license is submitted to the director, the application 52892 fee shall be credited to the general revenue fund. If a permit or 52893 license is issued, the amount of the application fee paid shall be 52894 deducted from the amount of the permit fee due under division (Q) 52895 of section 3745.11 of the Revised Code or the amount of the 52896 license fee due under division (C) of section 3734.06 of the 52897
Revised Code. 52898

(d) The director may issue an order in accordance with 52899
Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code to the owner or operator of an 52900 infectious waste treatment facility requiring the person to submit 52901 to the director updated engineering detail plans, specifications, 52902 and information regarding the facility and its method of operation 52903 for approval under rules adopted under section 3734.021 of the 52904 Revised Code if, in the director's judgment, conditions at the 52905 facility constitute a substantial threat to public health or 52906 safety or are causing or contributing to or threatening to cause 52907 or contribute to air or water pollution or soil contamination. Any 52908 person who receives such an order shall submit the updated 52909 engineering detail plans, specifications, and information to the 52910 director within one hundred eighty days after the effective date 52911 of the order. 52912

(e) The director shall act on any updated engineering plans, 52913 specifications, and information submitted under division (B)(2)(d) 52914 them. If the director disapproves any such updated engineering 52916 plans, specifications, and information, the director shall include 52917 in the order disapproving the plans the requirement that the owner 52918 or operator cease accepting infectious wastes for treatment at the 52919 facility. 52920

(3) Division (B) of this section does not apply to a 52921 generator of infectious wastes that meets any of the following 52922
conditions: 52923

(a) Treats, by methods, techniques, and practices established 52924
by rules adopted under division (B)(2)(a) of section 3734.021 of 52925
the Revised Code, any of the following wastes: 52926

(i) Infectious wastes that are generated on any premises that 52927
are owned or operated by the generator; 52928

(ii) Infectious wastes that are generated by a generator who 52929
has staff privileges at a hospital as defined in section 3727.01 52930
of the Revised Code; 52931

(iii) Infectious wastes that are generated in providing care 52932 to a patient by an emergency medical services organization as 52933 defined in section 4765.01 of the Revised Code. 52934

(b) Holds a license or renewal of a license to operate a 52935 crematory facility issued under Chapter 4717. and a permit issued 52936
under Chapter 3704. of the Revised Code; 52937

(c) Treats or disposes of dead animals or parts thereof, or 52938
the blood of animals, and is subject to any of the following: 52939

(i) Inspection under the "Federal Meat Inspection Act," 81 52940
Stat. 584 (1967), 21 U.S.C.A. 603, as amended; 52941

(ii) Chapter 918. of the Revised Code; 52942

(iii) Chapter 953. of the Revised Code. 52943

Nothing in division (B) of this section requires a facility 52944 that holds a license issued under division (A) of this section as 52945 a solid waste facility and that also treats infectious wastes by 52946 the same method, technique, or process to obtain a license under 52947 division (B) of this section as an infectious waste treatment 52948 facility. However, the solid waste facility license for the 52949 facility shall include the notation that the facility also treats 52950 infectious wastes. 52951

The director shall not issue a permit to open a new solid 52952 waste incineration facility unless the proposed facility complies 52953 with the requirements for the location of new infectious waste 52954 incineration facilities established in rules adopted under 52955 division (B)(2)(b) of section 3734.021 of the Revised Code. 52956

(C) Except for a facility or activity described in division 52957
(E)(3) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code, a person who 52958 proposes to establish or operate a hazardous waste facility shall 52959 submit a complete application for a hazardous waste facility 52960 installation and operation permit and accompanying detail plans, 52961 specifications, and such information as the director may require 52962 to the environmental protection agency at least one hundred eighty 52963 days before the proposed beginning of operation of the facility. 52964
The applicant shall notify by certified mail the legislative 52965 authority of each municipal corporation, township, and county in 52966 which the facility is proposed to be located of the submission of 52967 the application within ten days after the submission or at such 52968 earlier time as the director may establish by rule. If the 52969 application is for a proposed new hazardous waste disposal or 52970 thermal treatment facility, the applicant also shall give actual 52971 notice of the general design and purpose of the facility to the 52972 legislative authority of each municipal corporation, township, and 52973 county in which the facility is proposed to be located at least 52974 ninety days before the permit application is submitted to the 52975 environmental protection agency. 52976

In accordance with rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the 52977 Revised Code, prior to the submission of a complete application 52978 for a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit, 52979 the applicant shall hold at least one meeting in the township or 52980 municipal corporation in which the facility is proposed to be 52981 located, whichever is geographically closer to the proposed 52982 location of the facility. The meeting shall be open to the public 52983 and shall be held to inform the community of the proposed 52984 hazardous waste management activities and to solicit questions 52985 from the community concerning the activities. 52986

(D)(1) Except as provided in section 3734.123 of the Revised 52987
Code, upon receipt of a complete application for a hazardous waste 52988 facility installation and operation permit under division (C) of 52989 this section, the director shall consider the application and 52990 accompanying information to determine whether the application 52991 complies with agency rules and the requirements of division (D)(2) 52992 of this section. After making a determination, the director shall 52993 issue either a draft permit or a notice of intent to deny the 52994 permit. The director, in accordance with rules adopted under 52995 section 3734.12 of the Revised Code or with rules adopted to 52996 implement Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code, shall provide public 52997 notice of the application and the draft permit or the notice of 52998 intent to deny the permit, provide an opportunity for public 52999 comments, and, if significant interest is shown, schedule a public 53000 meeting in the county in which the facility is proposed to be 53001 located and give public notice of the date, time, and location of 53002 the public meeting in a newspaper of general circulation in that 53003

(2) The director shall not approve an application for a 53005 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit or an application for a modification under division (I)(3) of this section unless the director finds and determines as follows:

(a) The nature and volume of the waste to be treated, stored, or disposed of at the facility;

(b) That the facility complies with the director's hazardous waste standards adopted pursuant to section 3734.12 of the Revised Code;

(c) That the facility represents the minimum adverse environmental impact, considering the state of available technology and the nature and economics of various alternatives, and other pertinent considerations;

(d) That the facility represents the minimum risk of all of the following:

(i) Fires or explosions from treatment, storage, or disposal methods;

(ii) Release of hazardous waste during transportation of hazardous waste to or from the facility;

(iii) Adverse impact on the public health and safety.

(e) That the facility will comply with this chapter and Chapters 3704. and 6111. of the Revised Code and all rules and standards adopted under them;

(f) That if the owner of the facility, the operator of the facility, or any other person in a position with the facility from which the person may influence the installation and operation of the facility has been involved in any prior activity involving transportation, treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste, that person has a history of compliance with this chapter and Chapters 3704. and 6111. of the Revised Code and all rules and standards adopted under them, the "Resource Conservation and

Recovery Act of 1976," 90 Stat. 2806, 42 U.S.C.A. 6921, as 53036 amended, and all regulations adopted under it, and similar laws 53037 and rules of other states if any such prior operation was located 53038 in another state that demonstrates sufficient reliability, 53039 expertise, and competency to operate a hazardous waste facility 53040 under the applicable provisions of this chapter and Chapters 3704. 53041 and 6111. of the Revised Code, the applicable rules and standards 53042 adopted under them, and terms and conditions of a hazardous waste 53043 facility installation and operation permit, given the potential 53044 for harm to the public health and safety and the environment that 53045 could result from the irresponsible operation of the facility. For 53046 off-site facilities, as defined in section 3734.41 of the Revised 53047 Code, the director may use the investigative reports of the 53048 attorney general prepared pursuant to section 3734.42 of the 53049 Revised Code as a basis for making a finding and determination 53050 under division (D)(2)(f) of this section. 53051

(g) That the active areas within a new hazardous waste 53052 facility where acute hazardous waste as listed in 40 C.F.R. 261.33 53053 (e), as amended, or organic waste that is toxic and is listed 53054 under 40 C.F.R. 261, as amended, is being stored, treated, or 53055 disposed of and where the aggregate of the storage design capacity 53056 and the disposal design capacity of all hazardous waste in those 53057 areas is greater than two hundred fifty thousand gallons, are not 53058 located or operated within any of the following: 53059

(i) Two thousand feet of any residence, school, hospital, 53060 jail, or prison; 53061

(ii) Any naturally occurring wetland; 53062

(iii) Any flood hazard area if the applicant cannot show that 53063 the facility will be designed, constructed, operated, and 53064 maintained to prevent washout by a one-hundred-year flood. 53065

Division (D)(2)(g) of this section does not apply to the 53066 facility of any applicant who demonstrates to the director that 53067 the limitations specified in that division are not necessary 53068 because of the nature or volume of the waste and the manner of 53069 management applied, the facility will impose no substantial danger 53070 to the health and safety of persons occupying the structures 53071 listed in division (D)(2)(g)(i) of this section, and the facility 53072 is to be located or operated in an area where the proposed 53073 hazardous waste activities will not be incompatible with existing 53074 land uses in the area. 53075

(h) That the facility will not be located within the 53076 boundaries of a state park established or dedicated under Chapter 53077 1546. of the Revised Code, a state park purchase area established 53078 under section 1546.06 of the Revised Code, any unit of the 53079 national park system, or any property that lies within the 53080 boundaries of a national park or recreation area, but that has not 53081 been acquired or is not administered by the secretary of the 53082
United States department of the interior, located in this state, 53083 or any candidate area located in this state identified for 53084 potential inclusion in the national park system in the edition of 53085
the "national park system plan" submitted under paragraph (b) of 53086
section 8 of "The Act of August 18, 1970," 84 Stat. 825, 16 53087
U.S.C.A. 1a-5, as amended, current at the time of filing of the 53088 application for the permit, unless the facility will be used 53089 exclusively for the storage of hazardous waste generated within 53090 the park or recreation area in conjunction with the operation of 53091 the park or recreation area. Division (D)(2)(h) of this section 53092 does not apply to the facility of any applicant for modification 53093 of a permit unless the modification application proposes to 53094 increase the land area included in the facility or to increase the 53095 quantity of hazardous waste that will be treated, stored, or 53096 disposed of at the facility. 53097

(3) Not later than one hundred eighty days after the end of 53098

the public comment period, the director, without prior hearing, 53099 shall issue or deny the permit in accordance with Chapter 3745. of 53100 the Revised Code. If the director approves an application for a 53101 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit, the 53102 director shall issue the permit, upon such terms and conditions as 53103 the director finds are necessary to ensure the construction and 53104 operation of the hazardous waste facility in accordance with the 53105 standards of this section. 53106

(E) No political subdivision of this state shall require any 53107 additional zoning or other approval, consent, permit, certificate, 53108 or condition for the construction or operation of a hazardous 53109 waste facility authorized by a hazardous waste facility 53110 installation and operation permit issued pursuant to this chapter, 53111 nor shall any political subdivision adopt or enforce any law, 53112 ordinance, or rule that in any way alters, impairs, or limits the 53113 authority granted in the permit. 53114

(F) The director may issue a single hazardous waste facility 53115 installation and operation permit to a person who operates two or 53116 more adjoining facilities where hazardous waste is stored, 53117 treated, or disposed of if the application includes detail plans, 53118 specifications, and information on all facilities. For the 53119 purposes of this section, "adjoining" means sharing a common 53120 boundary, separated only by a public road, or in such proximity 53121 that the director determines that the issuance of a single permit 53122 will not create a hazard to the public health or safety or the 53123
environment. 53124

(G) No person shall falsify or fail to keep or submit any 53125 plans, specifications, data, reports, records, manifests, or other 53126 information required to be kept or submitted to the director by 53127 this chapter or the rules adopted under it. 53128

(H)(1) Each person who holds an installation and operation 53129 permit issued under this section and who wishes to obtain a permit 53130 renewal shall submit a completed application for an installation 53131 and operation permit renewal and any necessary accompanying 53132 general plans, detail plans, specifications, and such information 53133 as the director may require to the director no later than one 53134 hundred eighty days prior to the expiration date of the existing 53135 permit or upon a later date prior to the expiration of the 53136 existing permit if the permittee can demonstrate good cause for 53137 the late submittal. The director shall consider the application 53138 and accompanying information, inspection reports of the facility, 53139 results of performance tests, a report regarding the facility's 53140 compliance or noncompliance with the terms and conditions of its 53141 permit and rules adopted by the director under this chapter, and 53142 such other information as is relevant to the operation of the 53143 facility and shall issue a draft renewal permit or a notice of 53144 intent to deny the renewal permit. The director, in accordance 53145 with rules adopted under this section or with rules adopted to 53146 implement Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code, shall give public 53147 notice of the application and draft renewal permit or notice of 53148 intent to deny the renewal permit, provide for the opportunity for 53149 public comments within a specified time period, schedule a public 53150 meeting in the county in which the facility is located if 53151 significant interest is shown, and give public notice of the 53152 public meeting. 53153

(2) Within sixty days after the public meeting or close of 53154
the public comment period, the director, without prior hearing, 53155 shall issue or deny the renewal permit in accordance with Chapter 53156 3745. of the Revised Code. The director shall not issue a renewal 53157 permit unless the director determines that the facility under the 53158 existing permit has a history of compliance with this chapter, 53159 rules adopted under it, the existing permit, or orders entered to 53160 enforce such requirements that demonstrates sufficient 53161 reliability, expertise, and competency to operate the facility 53162 henceforth under this chapter, rules adopted under it, and the 53163 renewal permit. If the director approves an application for a 53164 renewal permit, the director shall issue the permit subject to the 53165 payment of the annual permit fee required under division (E) of 53166 section 3734.02 of the Revised Code and upon such terms and 53167 conditions as the director finds are reasonable to ensure that 53168 continued operation, maintenance, closure, and post-closure care 53169 of the hazardous waste facility are in accordance with the rules 53170

adopted under section 3734.12 of the Revised Code. 53171

(3) An installation and operation permit renewal application 53172 submitted to the director that also contains or would constitute 53173 an application for a modification shall be acted upon by the 53174 director in accordance with division (I) of this section in the 53175 same manner as an application for a modification. In approving or 53176 disapproving the renewal portion of a permit renewal application 53177 containing an application for a modification, the director shall 53178 apply the criteria established under division (H)(2) of this 53179
section. 53180

(4) An application for renewal or modification of a permit 53181 that does not contain an application for a modification as 53182 described in divisions (I)(3)(a) to (d) of this section shall not 53183 be subject to division (D)(2) of this section. 53184

(I)(1) As used in this section, "modification" means a change 53185 or alteration to a hazardous waste facility or its operations that 53186 is inconsistent with or not authorized by its existing permit or 53187 authorization to operate. Modifications shall be classified as 53188 Class 1, 2, or 3 modifications in accordance with rules adopted 53189 under division (K) of this section. Modifications classified as 53190 Class 3 modifications, in accordance with rules adopted under that 53191 division, shall be further classified by the director as either 53192 Class 3 modifications that are to be approved or disapproved by 53193 the director under divisions (I)(3)(a) to (d) of this section or 53194 as Class 3 modifications that are to be approved or disapproved by 53195 the director under division (I)(5) of this section. Not later than 53196 thirty days after receiving a request for a modification under 53197 division (I)(4) of this section that is not listed in Appendix I 53198 to 40 C.F.R. 270.42 or in rules adopted under division (K) of this 53199 section, the director shall classify the modification and shall 53200 notify the owner or operator of the facility requesting the 53201 modification of the classification. Notwithstanding any other law 53202 to the contrary, a modification that involves the transfer of a 53203 hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit to a 53204 new owner or operator for any off-site facility as defined in 53205 section 3734.41 of the Revised Code shall be classified as a Class 53206 3 modification. The transfer of a hazardous waste facility 53207 installation and operation permit to a new owner or operator for a 53208 facility that is not an off-site facility shall be classified as a 53209 Class 1 modification requiring prior approval of the director. 53210

(2) Except as provided in section 3734.123 of the Revised 53211
Code, a hazardous waste facility installation and operation permit 53212 may be modified at the request of the director or upon the written 53213 request of the permittee only if any of the following applies: 53214

(a) The permittee desires to accomplish alterations, 53215 additions, or deletions to the permitted facility or to undertake 53216 alterations, additions, deletions, or activities that are 53217 inconsistent with or not authorized by the existing permit; 53218

(b) New information or data justify permit conditions in 53219 addition to or different from those in the existing permit; 53220

(c) The standards, criteria, or rules upon which the existing 53221 permit is based have been changed by new, amended, or rescinded 53222 standards, criteria, or rules, or by judicial decision after the 53223 existing permit was issued, and the change justifies permit 53224 conditions in addition to or different from those in the existing 53225 permit; 53226

(d) The permittee proposes to transfer the permit to another person. 53227
53228

(3) The director shall approve or disapprove an application for a modification in accordance with division (D)(2) of this section and rules adopted under division (K) of this section for all of the following categories of Class 3 modifications: 53229
53230
53232

(a) Authority to conduct treatment, storage, or disposal at a site, location, or tract of land that has not been authorized for the proposed category of treatment, storage, or disposal activity by the facility's permit; 53233
53234
53236

53238
53240
53241
53242
53243
53244
53245
53246
53247
53248
53249
53250
53251
53252
53254

(c) Authority to add any of the following categories of regulated activities not previously authorized at a facility by the facility's permit: storage at a facility not previously authorized to store hazardous waste, treatment at a facility not 53255
53256

previously authorized to treat hazardous waste, or disposal at a facility not previously authorized to dispose of hazardous waste; or authority to add a category of hazardous waste management unit not previously authorized at the facility by the facility's permit. Notwithstanding any provision of division (I) of this section to the contrary, a request for authority to add or to modify an activity or a hazardous waste management unit for the purposes of performing a corrective action shall be classified and approved or disapproved by the director under division (I)(5) of this section.

(d) Authority to treat, store, or dispose of waste types listed or characterized as reactive or explosive, in rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the Revised Code, or any acute hazardous waste listed in 40 C.F.R. 261.33(e), as amended, at a facility not previously authorized to treat, store, or dispose of those types of wastes by the facility's permit unless the requested authority is limited to wastes that no longer exhibit characteristics meeting the criteria for listing or characterization as reactive or explosive wastes, or for listing as acute hazardous waste, but still are required to carry those waste codes as established in rules adopted under section 3734.12 of the Revised Code because of the requirements established in 40 C.F.R. 261(a) and (e), as amended, that is, the "mixture," "derived-from," or "contained-in" regulations.

(4) A written request for a modification from the permittee shall be submitted to the director and shall contain such information as is necessary to support the request. Requests for modifications shall be acted upon by the director in accordance with this section and rules adopted under it.

(5) Class 1 modification applications that require prior approval of the director, as provided in division (I)(1) of this section or as determined in accordance with rules adopted under division (K) of this section, Class 2 modification applications, 53291 and Class 3 modification applications that are not described in 53292 divisions (I)(3)(a) to (d) of this section shall be approved or 53293 disapproved by the director in accordance with rules adopted under 53294 division (K) of this section. The board of county commissioners of 53295 the county, the board of township trustees of the township, and 53296 the city manager or mayor of the municipal corporation in which a 53297 hazardous waste facility is located shall receive notification of 53298 any application for a modification for that facility and shall be 53299 considered as interested persons with respect to the director's 53300 consideration of the application. 53301

As used in division (I) of this section: 53302

(a) "Owner" means the person who owns a majority or 53303 controlling interest in a facility. 53304

(b) "Operator" means the person who is responsible for the 53305 overall operation of a facility. 53306

The director shall approve or disapprove an application for a 53307 Class 1 modification that requires the director's approval within 53308 sixty days after receiving the request for modification. The 53309 director shall approve or disapprove an application for a Class 2 53310 modification within three hundred days after receiving the request 53311 for modification. The director shall approve or disapprove an 53312 application for a Class 3 modification within three hundred 53313 sixty-five days after receiving the request for modification. 53314

(6) The approval or disapproval by the director of a Class 1 53315 modification application is not a final action that is appealable 53316 under Chapter 3745. of the Revised Code. The approval or 53317 disapproval by the director of a Class 2 modification or a Class 3 53318 modification is a final action that is appealable under that 53319 chapter. In approving or disapproving a request for a 53320 modification, the director shall consider all comments pertaining 53321 to the request that are received during the public comment period 53322 and the public meetings. The administrative record for appeal of a 53323 final action by the director in approving or disapproving a 53324 request for a modification shall include all comments received 53325 during the public comment period relating to the request for 53326 modification, written materials submitted at the public meetings 53327 relating to the request, and any other documents related to the 53328 director's action. 53329

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 53330 contrary, a change or alteration to a hazardous waste facility 53331 described in division (E)(3)(a) or (b) of section 3734.02 of the 53332 Revised Code, or its operations, is a modification for the 53333 purposes of this section. An application for a modification at 53334 such a facility shall be submitted, classified, and approved or 53335 disapproved in accordance with divisions (I)(1) to (6) of this 53336 section in the same manner as a modification to a hazardous waste 53337 facility installation and operation permit. 53338

(J)(1) Except as provided in division (J)(2) of this section, 53339 an owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility that is 53340 operating in accordance with a permit by rule under rules adopted 53341 by the director under division (E)(3)(b) of section 3734.02 of the 53342 Revised Code shall submit either a hazardous waste facility 53343 installation and operation permit application for the facility or 53344 a modification application, whichever is required under division 53345 (J)(1)(a) or (b) of this section, within one hundred eighty days 53346 after the director has requested the application or upon a later 53347 date if the owner or operator demonstrates to the director good 53348

In the case of solid wastes that are taken to a solid waste 53628 transfer facility located in this state prior to being transported 53629 for disposal at a solid waste disposal facility located in this 53630 state or outside of this state, the fees levied under this 53631 division shall be collected by the owner or operator of the 53632 transfer facility as a trustee for the state. The amount of fees 53633 required to be collected under this division at such a transfer 53634 facility shall equal the total tonnage of solid wastes received at 53635 the facility multiplied by the fees levied under this division. In 53636 the case of solid wastes that are not taken to a solid waste 53637

to a solid waste disposal facility, the fees shall be collected by 53639 the owner or operator of the solid waste disposal facility as a 53640 trustee for the state. The amount of fees required to be collected 53641 under this division at such a disposal facility shall equal the 53642 total tonnage of solid wastes received at the facility that was 53643 not previously taken to a solid waste transfer facility located in 53644 this state multiplied by the fees levied under this division. Fees 53645 levied under this division do not apply to materials separated 53646 from a mixed waste stream for recycling by a generator or 53647 materials removed from the solid waste stream through recycling, 53648 as "recycling" is defined in rules adopted under section 3734.02 53649

The owner or operator of a solid waste transfer facility or 53651 disposal facility, as applicable, shall prepare and file with the 53652 director of environmental protection each month a return 53653 indicating the total tonnage of solid wastes received at the 53654 facility during that month and the total amount of the fees 53655 required to be collected under this division during that month. In 53656 addition, the owner or operator of a solid waste disposal facility 53657 shall indicate on the return the total tonnage of solid wastes 53658 received from transfer facilities located in this state during 53659 that month for which the fees were required to be collected by the 53660 transfer facilities. The monthly returns shall be filed on a form 53661 prescribed by the director. Not later than thirty days after the 53662 last day of the month to which a return applies, the owner or 53663 operator shall mail to the director the return for that month 53664 together with the fees required to be collected under this 53665 division during that month as indicated on the return or may 53666 submit the return and fees electronically in a manner approved by 53667 the director. If the return is filed and the amount of the fees 53668 due is paid in a timely manner as required in this division, the 53669 owner or operator may retain a discount of three-fourths of one 53670 per cent of the total amount of the fees that are required to be 53671 paid as indicated on the return. 53672

The owner or operator may request an extension of not more 53673 than thirty days for filing the return and remitting the fees, 53674 provided that the owner or operator has submitted such a request 53675 in writing to the director together with a detailed description of 53676 why the extension is requested, the director has received the 53677 request not later than the day on which the return is required to 53678 be filed, and the director has approved the request. If the fees 53679 are not remitted within thirty days after the last day of the 53680 month to which the return applies or are not remitted by the last 53681 day of an extension approved by the director, the owner or 53682 operator shall not retain the three-fourths of one per cent 53683 discount and shall pay an additional ten per cent of the amount of 53684 the fees for each month that they are late. For purposes of 53685 calculating the late fee, the first month in which fees are late 53686 begins on the first day after the deadline has passed for timely 53687 submitting the return and fees, and one additional month shall be 53688 counted every thirty days thereafter. 53689

The owner or operator of a solid waste facility may request a 53690 refund or credit of fees levied under this division and remitted 53691 to the director that have not been paid to the owner or operator. 53692 Such a request shall be made only if the fees have not been 53693 collected by the owner or operator, have become a debt that has 53694 become worthless or uncollectable for a period of six months or 53695 more, and may be claimed as a deduction, including a deduction 53696 claimed if the owner or operator keeps accounts on an accrual 53697 basis, under the "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," 68A Stat. 50, 26 53698 U.S.C. 166, as amended, and regulations adopted under it. Prior to 53699 making a request for a refund or credit, an owner or operator 53700 shall make reasonable efforts to collect the applicable fees. A 53701 request for a refund or credit shall not include any costs 53702 resulting from those efforts to collect unpaid fees. 53703

A request for a refund or credit of fees shall be made in 53704 writing, on a form prescribed by the director, and shall be 53705 supported by evidence that may be required in rules adopted by the 53706 director under this chapter. After reviewing the request, and if 53707 the request and evidence submitted with the request indicate that 53708 a refund or credit is warranted, the director shall grant a refund 53709 to the owner or operator or shall permit a credit to be taken by 53710 the owner or operator on a subsequent monthly return submitted by 53711 the owner or operator. The amount of a refund or credit shall not 53712 exceed an amount that is equal to ninety days' worth of fees owed 53713 to an owner or operator by a particular debtor of the owner or 53714 operator. A refund or credit shall not be granted by the director 53715 to an owner or operator more than once in any twelve-month period 53716 for fees owed to the owner or operator by a particular debtor. 53717

If, after receiving a refund or credit from the director, an 53718 owner or operator receives payment of all or part of the fees, the 53719 owner or operator shall remit the fees with the next monthly 53720 return submitted to the director together with a written 53721 explanation of the reason for the submittal. 53722

For purposes of computing the fees levied under this division 53723 or division (B) of this section, any solid waste transfer or 53724 disposal facility that does not use scales as a means of 53725 determining gate receipts shall use a conversion factor of three 53726 cubic yards per ton of solid waste or one cubic yard per ton for 53727 baled waste, as applicable. 53728

The fees levied under this division and divisions (B) and (C) 53729 of this section are in addition to all other applicable fees and 53730 taxes and shall be paid by the customer or a political subdivision 53731 to the owner or operator of a solid waste transfer or disposal 53732 facility. In the alternative, the fees shall be paid by a customer 53733 or political subdivision to a transporter of waste who 53734 subsequently transfers the fees to the owner or operator of such a facility. The fees shall be paid notwithstanding the existence of any provision in a contract that the customer or a political subdivision may have with the owner or operator or with a transporter of waste to the facility that would not require or allow such payment regardless of whether the contract was entered prior to or after October 16, 2009. For those purposes, "customer" means a person who contracts with, or utilizes the solid waste services of, the owner or operator of a solid waste transfer or disposal facility or a transporter of solid waste to such a facility.

(B) For the purposes specified in division (G) of this section, the solid waste management policy committee of a county or joint solid waste management district may levy fees upon the following activities:

(1) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility located in the district of solid wastes generated within the district;

(2) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility within the district of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of the district, but inside this state;

(3) The disposal at a solid waste disposal facility within the district of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of this state.

The solid waste management plan of the county or joint district approved under section 3734.521 or 3734.55 of the Revised Code and any amendments to it, or the resolution adopted under this division, as appropriate, shall establish the rates of the fees levied under divisions (B)(1), (2), and (3) of this section, if any, and shall specify whether the fees are levied on the basis of tons or cubic yards as the unit of measurement. A solid waste management district that levies fees under this division on the basis of cubic yards shall do so in accordance with division (A) 53766

of this section. 53767

The fee levied under division (B)(1) of this section shall be 53768 not less than one dollar per ton nor more than two dollars per 53769 ton, the fee levied under division (B)(2) of this section shall be 53770 not less than two dollars per ton nor more than four dollars per 53771 ton, and the fee levied under division (B)(3) of this section 53772 shall be not more than the fee levied under division (B)(1) of 53773
this section. 53774

Prior to the approval of the solid waste management plan of a 53775 district under section 3734.55 of the Revised Code, the solid 53776 waste management policy committee of a district may levy fees 53777 under this division by adopting a resolution establishing the 53778 proposed amount of the fees. Upon adopting the resolution, the 53779 committee shall deliver a copy of the resolution to the board of 53780 county commissioners of each county forming the district and to 53781 the legislative authority of each municipal corporation and 53782 township under the jurisdiction of the district and shall prepare 53783 and publish the resolution and a notice of the time and location 53784 where a public hearing on the fees will be held. Upon adopting the 53785 resolution, the committee shall deliver written notice of the 53786 adoption of the resolution; of the amount of the proposed fees; 53787 and of the date, time, and location of the public hearing to the 53788 director and to the fifty industrial, commercial, or institutional 53789 generators of solid wastes within the district that generate the 53790 largest quantities of solid wastes, as determined by the 53791 committee, and to their local trade associations. The committee 53792 shall make good faith efforts to identify those generators within 53793 the district and their local trade associations, but the 53794 nonprovision of notice under this division to a particular 53795 generator or local trade association does not invalidate the 53796 proceedings under this division. The publication shall occur at 53797 least thirty days before the hearing. After the hearing, the 53798 committee may make such revisions to the proposed fees as it 53799 considers appropriate and thereafter, by resolution, shall adopt 53800 the revised fee schedule. Upon adopting the revised fee schedule, 53801 the committee shall deliver a copy of the resolution doing so to 53802 the board of county commissioners of each county forming the 53803 district and to the legislative authority of each municipal 53804 corporation and township under the jurisdiction of the district. 53805 Within sixty days after the delivery of a copy of the resolution 53806 adopting the proposed revised fees by the policy committee, each 53807 such board and legislative authority, by ordinance or resolution, 53808 shall approve or disapprove the revised fees and deliver a copy of 53809 the ordinance or resolution to the committee. If any such board or 53810 legislative authority fails to adopt and deliver to the policy 53811 committee an ordinance or resolution approving or disapproving the 53812 revised fees within sixty days after the policy committee 53813 delivered its resolution adopting the proposed revised fees, it 53814 shall be conclusively presumed that the board or legislative 53815 authority has approved the proposed revised fees. The committee 53816 shall determine if the resolution has been ratified in the same 53817 manner in which it determines if a draft solid waste management 53818 plan has been ratified under division (B) of section 3734.55 of 53819

the Revised Code. 53820

The committee may amend the schedule of fees levied pursuant 53821 to a resolution adopted and ratified under this division by 53822 adopting a resolution establishing the proposed amount of the 53823 amended fees. The committee may repeal the fees levied pursuant to 53824 such a resolution by adopting a resolution proposing to repeal 53825 them. Upon adopting such a resolution, the committee shall proceed 53826 to obtain ratification of the resolution in accordance with this 53827
division. 53828

Not later than fourteen days after declaring the new fees to 53829 be ratified or the fees to be repealed under this division, the 53830 committee shall notify by certified mail the owner or operator of 53831

each solid waste disposal facility that is required to collect the 53832 fees of the ratification and the amount of the fees or of the 53833 repeal of the fees. Collection of any fees shall commence or 53834 collection of repealed fees shall cease on the first day of the 53835 second month following the month in which notification is sent to 53836 the owner or operator. 53837

Fees levied under this division also may be established, 53838 amended, or repealed by a solid waste management policy committee 53839 through the adoption of a new district solid waste management 53840 plan, the adoption of an amended plan, or the amendment of the 53841 plan or amended plan in accordance with sections 3734.55 and 53842 3734.56 of the Revised Code or the adoption or amendment of a 53843 district plan in connection with a change in district composition 53844
under section 3734.521 of the Revised Code. 53845

Not later than fourteen days after the director issues an 53846 order approving a district's solid waste management plan, amended 53847 plan, or amendment to a plan or amended plan that establishes, 53848 amends, or repeals a schedule of fees levied by the district, the 53849 committee shall notify by certified mail the owner or operator of 53850
each solid waste disposal facility that is required to collect the 53851 fees of the approval of the plan or amended plan, or the amendment 53852 to the plan, as appropriate, and the amount of the fees, if any. 53853
In the case of an initial or amended plan approved under section 53854 3734.521 of the Revised Code in connection with a change in 53855 district composition, other than one involving the withdrawal of a 53856 county from a joint district, the committee, within fourteen days 53857 after the change takes effect pursuant to division (G) of that 53858 section, shall notify by certified mail the owner or operator of 53859
each solid waste disposal facility that is required to collect the 53860 fees that the change has taken effect and of the amount of the 53861 fees, if any. Collection of any fees shall commence or collection 53862 of repealed fees shall cease on the first day of the second month 53863 following the month in which notification is sent to the owner or 53864 operator. 53865

If, in the case of a change in district composition involving 53866
the withdrawal of a county from a joint district, the director 53867 completes the actions required under division (G)(1) or (3) of 53868 section 3734.521 of the Revised Code, as appropriate, forty-five 53869 days or more before the beginning of a calendar year, the policy 53870 committee of each of the districts resulting from the change that 53871 obtained the director's approval of an initial or amended plan in 53872 connection with the change, within fourteen days after the 53873 director's completion of the required actions, shall notify by 53874 certified mail the owner or operator of each solid waste disposal 53875 facility that is required to collect the district's fees that the 53876 change is to take effect on the first day of January immediately 53877 following the issuance of the notice and of the amount of the fees 53878 or amended fees levied under divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this 53879 section pursuant to the district's initial or amended plan as so 53880 approved or, if appropriate, the repeal of the district's fees by 53881 that initial or amended plan. Collection of any fees set forth in 53882 such a plan or amended plan shall commence on the first day of 53883 January immediately following the issuance of the notice. If such 53884 an initial or amended plan repeals a schedule of fees, collection 53885 of the fees shall cease on that first day of January. 53886

If, in the case of a change in district composition involving 53887
the withdrawal of a county from a joint district, the director 53888 completes the actions required under division (G)(1) or (3) of 53889 section 3734.521 of the Revised Code, as appropriate, less than 53890 forty-five days before the beginning of a calendar year, the 53891 director, on behalf of each of the districts resulting from the 53892 change that obtained the director's approval of an initial or 53893 amended plan in connection with the change proceedings, shall 53894 notify by certified mail the owner or operator of each solid waste 53895 disposal facility that is required to collect the district's fees 53896 that the change is to take effect on the first day of January 53897 immediately following the mailing of the notice and of the amount 53898 of the fees or amended fees levied under divisions (B)(1) to (3) 53899 of this section pursuant to the district's initial or amended plan 53900 as so approved or, if appropriate, the repeal of the district's 53901 fees by that initial or amended plan. Collection of any fees set 53902 forth in such a plan or amended plan shall commence on the first 53903 day of the second month following the month in which notification 53904 is sent to the owner or operator. If such an initial or amended 53905 plan repeals a schedule of fees, collection of the fees shall 53906 cease on the first day of the second month following the month in 53907 which notification is sent to the owner or operator. 53908

If the schedule of fees that a solid waste management 53909 district is levying under divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this section 53910 is amended or repealed, the fees in effect immediately prior to 53911 the amendment or repeal shall continue to be collected until 53912 collection of the amended fees commences or collection of the 53913 repealed fees ceases, as applicable, as specified in this 53914 division. In the case of a change in district composition, money 53915 so received from the collection of the fees of the former 53916 districts shall be divided among the resulting districts in 53917 accordance with division (B) of section 343.012 of the Revised 53918 Code and the agreements entered into under division (B) of section 53919 343.01 of the Revised Code to establish the former and resulting 53920 districts and any amendments to those agreements. 53921

For the purposes of the provisions of division (B) of this 53922 section establishing the times when newly established or amended 53923 fees levied by a district are required to commence and the 53924 collection of fees that have been amended or repealed is required 53925 to cease, "fees" or "schedule of fees" includes, in addition to 53926 fees levied under divisions (B)(1) to (3) of this section, those 53927 levied under section 3734.573 or 3734.574 of the Revised Code. 53928

(C) For the purposes of defraying the added costs to a 53929 municipal corporation or township of maintaining roads and other 53930 public facilities and of providing emergency and other public 53931 services, and compensating a municipal corporation or township for 53932 reductions in real property tax revenues due to reductions in real 53933 property valuations resulting from the location and operation of a 53934 solid waste disposal facility within the municipal corporation or 53935 township, a municipal corporation or township in which such a 53936 solid waste disposal facility is located may levy a fee of not 53937 more than twenty-five cents per ton on the disposal of solid 53938 wastes at a solid waste disposal facility located within the 53939 boundaries of the municipal corporation or township regardless of 53940 where the wastes were generated. 53941

The legislative authority of a municipal corporation or 53942 township may levy fees under this division by enacting an 53943 ordinance or adopting a resolution establishing the amount of the 53944 fees. Upon so doing the legislative authority shall mail a 53945 certified copy of the ordinance or resolution to the board of 53946 county commissioners or directors of the county or joint solid 53947 waste management district in which the municipal corporation or 53948 township is located or, if a regional solid waste management 53949 authority has been formed under section 343.011 of the Revised 53950 Code, to the board of trustees of that regional authority, the 53951 owner or operator of each solid waste disposal facility in the 53952 municipal corporation or township that is required to collect the 53953 fee by the ordinance or resolution, and the director of 53954 environmental protection. Although the fees levied under this 53955 division are levied on the basis of tons as the unit of 53956 measurement, the legislative authority, in its ordinance or 53957 resolution levying the fees under this division, may direct that 53958 the fees be levied on the basis of cubic yards as the unit of 53959 measurement based upon a conversion factor of three cubic yards 53960 per ton generally or one cubic yard per ton for baled wastes. 53961

Not later than five days after enacting an ordinance or 53962 adopting a resolution under this division, the legislative 53963 authority shall so notify by certified mail the owner or operator 53964 of each solid waste disposal facility that is required to collect 53965 the fee. Collection of any fee levied on or after March 24, 1992, 53966 shall commence on the first day of the second month following the 53967 month in which notification is sent to the owner or operator. 53968

(D)(1) The fees levied under divisions (A), (B), and (C) of 53969 this section do not apply to the disposal of solid wastes that: 53970

(a) Are disposed of at a facility owned by the generator of 53971 the wastes when the solid waste facility exclusively disposes of 53972 solid wastes generated at one or more premises owned by the 53973 generator regardless of whether the facility is located on a 53974 premises where the wastes are generated; 53975

(b) Are generated from the combustion of coal, or from the 53976 combustion of primarily coal, regardless of whether the disposal 53977 facility is located on the premises where the wastes are 53978 generated; 53979

(c) Are asbestos or asbestos-containing materials or products 53980 disposed of at a construction and demolition debris facility that 53981 is licensed under Chapter 3714. of the Revised Code or at a solid 53982 waste facility that is licensed under this chapter. 53983

(2) Except as provided in section 3734.571 of the Revised 53984
Code, any fees levied under division (B)(1) of this section apply 53985 to solid wastes originating outside the boundaries of a county or 53986 joint district that are covered by an agreement for the joint use 53987 of solid waste facilities entered into under section 343.02 of the 53988

Revised Code by the board of county commissioners or board of 53989 directors of the county or joint district where the wastes are 53990 generated and disposed of. 53991

(3) When solid wastes, other than solid wastes that consist 53992 of scrap tires, are burned in a disposal facility that is an 53993 incinerator or energy recovery facility, the fees levied under 53994 divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section shall be levied upon 53995 the disposal of the fly ash and bottom ash remaining after burning 53996 of the solid wastes and shall be collected by the owner or 53997 operator of the sanitary landfill where the ash is disposed of. 53998

(4) When solid wastes are delivered to a solid waste transfer 53999 facility, the fees levied under divisions (B) and (C) of this 54000 section shall be levied upon the disposal of solid wastes 54001 transported off the premises of the transfer facility for disposal 54002 and shall be collected by the owner or operator of the solid waste 54003 disposal facility where the wastes are disposed of. 54004

(5) The fees levied under divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this 54005 section do not apply to sewage sludge that is generated by a waste 54006 water treatment facility holding a national pollutant discharge 54007 elimination system permit and that is disposed of through 54008 incineration, land application, or composting or at another 54009 resource recovery or disposal facility that is not a landfill. 54010

(6) The fees levied under divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this 54011 section do not apply to solid wastes delivered to a solid waste 54012 composting facility for processing. When any unprocessed solid 54013 waste or compost product is transported off the premises of a 54014 composting facility and disposed of at a landfill, the fees levied 54015 under divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section shall be 54016 collected by the owner or operator of the landfill where the 54017 unprocessed waste or compost product is disposed of. 54018

(7) When solid wastes that consist of scrap tires are 54019 processed at a scrap tire recovery facility, the fees levied under 54020 divisions (A), (B), and (C) of this section shall be levied upon 54021 the disposal of the fly ash and bottom ash or other solid wastes 54022 remaining after the processing of the scrap tires and shall be 54023 collected by the owner or operator of the solid waste disposal 54024 facility where the ash or other solid wastes are disposed of. 54025

(8) The director of environmental protection may issue an 54026 order exempting from the fees levied under this section solid 54027 wastes, including, but not limited to, scrap tires, that are 54028 generated, transferred, or disposed of as a result of a contract 54029 providing for the expenditure of public funds entered into by the 54030 administrator or regional administrator of the United States 54031 environmental protection agency, the director of environmental 54032 protection, or the director of administrative services on behalf 54033 of the director of environmental protection for the purpose of 54034 remediating conditions at a hazardous waste facility, solid waste 54035 facility, or other location at which the administrator or regional 54036 administrator or the director of environmental protection has 54037 reason to believe that there is a substantial threat to public 54038 health or safety or the environment or that the conditions are 54039 causing or contributing to air or water pollution or soil 54040 contamination. An order issued by the director of environmental 54041 protection under division (D)(8) of this section shall include a 54042 determination that the amount of the fees not received by a solid 54043 waste management district as a result of the order will not 54044 adversely impact the implementation and financing of the 54045 district's approved solid waste management plan and any approved 54046 amendments to the plan. Such an order is a final action of the 54047 director of environmental protection. 54048

(E) The fees levied under divisions (B) and (C) of this 54049 section shall be collected by the owner or operator of the solid 54050 waste disposal facility where the wastes are disposed of as a 54051 trustee for the county or joint district and municipal corporation 54052 or township where the wastes are disposed of. Moneys from the fees 54053 levied under division (B) of this section shall be forwarded to 54054 the board of county commissioners or board of directors of the 54055 district in accordance with rules adopted under division (H) of 54056 this section. Moneys from the fees levied under division (C) of 54057 this section shall be forwarded to the treasurer or such other 54058 officer of the municipal corporation as, by virtue of the charter, 54059 has the duties of the treasurer or to the fiscal officer of the 54060 township, as appropriate, in accordance with those rules. 54061

(F) Moneys received by the treasurer or other officer of the 54062 municipal corporation under division (E) of this section shall be 54063 paid into the general fund of the municipal corporation. Moneys 54064 received by the fiscal officer of the township under that division 54065 shall be paid into the general fund of the township. The treasurer 54066 or other officer of the municipal corporation or the township 54067 fiscal officer, as appropriate, shall maintain separate records of 54068 the moneys received from the fees levied under division (C) of 54069
this section. 54070

(G) Moneys received by the board of county commissioners or 54071 board of directors under division (E) of this section or section 54072 3734.571, 3734.572, 3734.573, or 3734.574 of the Revised Code 54073 shall be paid to the county treasurer, or other official acting in 54074 a similar capacity under a county charter, in a county district or 54075 to the county treasurer or other official designated by the board 54076 of directors in a joint district and kept in a separate and 54077 distinct fund to the credit of the district. If a regional solid 54078 waste management authority has been formed under section 343.011 54079 of the Revised Code, moneys received by the board of trustees of 54080 that regional authority under division (E) of this section shall 54081 be kept by the board in a separate and distinct fund to the credit 54082 of the district. Moneys in the special fund of the county or joint 54083 district arising from the fees levied under division (B) of this 54084 section and the fee levied under division (A) of section 3734.573 54085 of the Revised Code shall be expended by the board of county 54086 commissioners or directors of the district in accordance with the 54087 district's solid waste management plan or amended plan approved 54088 under section 3734.521, 3734.55, or 3734.56 of the Revised Code 54089 exclusively for the following purposes: 54090

(1) Preparation of the solid waste management plan of the 54091 district under section 3734.54 of the Revised Code, monitoring 54092 implementation of the plan, and conducting the periodic review and 54093 amendment of the plan required by section 3734.56 of the Revised 54094 Code by the solid waste management policy committee; 54095

(2) Implementation of the approved solid waste management 54096 plan or amended plan of the district, including, without 54097 limitation, the development and implementation of solid waste 54098 recycling or reduction programs; 54099

(3) Providing financial assistance to boards of health within 54100 the district, if solid waste facilities are located within the 54101 district, for enforcement of this chapter and rules, orders, and 54102 terms and conditions of permits, licenses, and variances adopted 54103 or issued under it, other than the hazardous waste provisions of 54104 this chapter and rules adopted and orders and terms and conditions 54105 of permits issued under those provisions; 54106

(4) Providing financial assistance to each county within the 54107 district to defray the added costs of maintaining roads and other 54108 public facilities and of providing emergency and other public 54109 services resulting from the location and operation of a solid 54110 waste facility within the county under the district's approved 54111 solid waste management plan or amended plan; 54112

(5) Pursuant to contracts entered into with boards of health 54113 within the district, if solid waste facilities contained in the 54114 district's approved plan or amended plan are located within the 54115 district, for paying the costs incurred by those boards of health 54116 for collecting and analyzing samples from public or private water 54117 wells on lands adjacent to those facilities; 54118

(6) Developing and implementing a program for the inspection 54119 of solid wastes generated outside the boundaries of this state 54120 that are disposed of at solid waste facilities included in the 54121 district's approved solid waste management plan or amended plan; 54122

(7) Providing financial assistance to boards of health within 54123 the district for the enforcement of section 3734.03 of the Revised 54124 ordinances; 54127

(8) Providing financial assistance to boards of health of 54128 health districts within the district that are on the approved list 54129 under section 3734.08 of the Revised Code to defray the costs to 54130 the health districts for the participation of their employees 54131 responsible for enforcement of the solid waste provisions of this 54132 chapter and rules adopted and orders and terms and conditions of 54133 permits, licenses, and variances issued under those provisions in 54134 the training and certification program as required by rules 54135 adopted under division (L) of section 3734.02 of the Revised Code; 54136

(9) Providing financial assistance to individual municipal 54137 corporations and townships within the district to defray their 54138 added costs of maintaining roads and other public facilities and 54139 of providing emergency and other public services resulting from 54140 the location and operation within their boundaries of a 54141 composting, energy or resource recovery, incineration, or 54142 recycling facility that either is owned by the district or is 54143 furnishing solid waste management facility or recycling services 54144 to the district pursuant to a contract or agreement with the board 54145 of county commissioners or directors of the district; 54146

(10) Payment of any expenses that are agreed to, awarded, or 54147 ordered to be paid under section 3734.35 of the Revised Code and 54148 of any administrative costs incurred pursuant to that section. In 54149 the case of a joint solid waste management district, if the board 54150 of county commissioners of one of the counties in the district is 54151 negotiating on behalf of affected communities, as defined in that 54152 section, in that county, the board shall obtain the approval of 54153 the board of directors of the district in order to expend moneys 54154 for administrative costs incurred. 54155

Prior to the approval of the district's solid waste 54156 management plan under section 3734.55 of the Revised Code, moneys 54157 in the special fund of the district arising from the fees shall be 54158 expended for those purposes in the manner prescribed by the solid 54159 waste management policy committee by resolution. 54160

Notwithstanding division (G)(6) of this section as it existed 54161 prior to October 29, 1993, or any provision in a district's solid 54162 waste management plan prepared in accordance with division 54163 (B)(2)(e) of section 3734.53 of the Revised Code as it existed 54164 prior to that date, any moneys arising from the fees levied under 54165

Sections 3735.27 to 3735.50 of the Revised Code do not limit 54602 the power of an authority to vest in a bondholder the right, in 54603 the event of a default by such authority, to take possession of a 54604 housing project or cause the appointment of a receiver thereof or 54605 all the restrictions imposed by such sections. 54607

Sec. 3735.66. The legislative authorities of municipal 54608 corporations and counties may survey the housing within their 54609 jurisdictions and, after the survey, may adopt resolutions 54610 describing the boundaries of community reinvestment areas which 54611 contain the conditions required for the finding under division (B) 54612 of section 3735.65 of the Revised Code. The findings resulting 54613 from the survey shall be incorporated in the resolution describing 54614 the boundaries of an area. The legislative authority may stipulate 54615 in the resolution that only new structures or remodeling 54616 classified as to use as commercial, industrial, or residential, or 54617 some combination thereof, and otherwise satisfying the 54618 requirements of section 3735.67 of the Revised Code are eligible 54619 does not include such a stipulation, all new structures and 54621 remodeling satisfying the requirements of section 3735.67 of the 54622 Revised Code are eligible for exemption from taxation regardless 54623 of classification. Whether or not the resolution includes such a 54624 stipulation, the classification of the structures or remodeling 54625 eligible for exemption in the area shall at all times be 54626 consistent with zoning restrictions applicable to the area. For 54627 the purposes of sections 3735.65 to 3735.70 of the Revised Code, 54628 whether a structure or remodeling composed of multiple units is 54629 classified as commercial or residential shall be determined by 54630 resolution or ordinance of the legislative authority or, in the 54631 absence of such a determination, by the classification of the use 54632 of the structure or remodeling under the applicable zoning 54633 regulations. 54634

If construction or remodeling classified as residential is 54635 eligible for exemption from taxation, the resolution shall specify 54636 a percentage, not to exceed one hundred per cent, of the assessed 54637 valuation of such property to be exempted. The percentage 54638 specified shall apply to all residential construction or 54639 remodeling for which exemption is granted. 54640

The resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall be 54641 published in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipal 54642 corporation, if the resolution is adopted by the legislative 54643 authority of a municipal corporation, or in a newspaper of general 54644 legislative authority of the county, once a week for two 54646 consecutive weeks or as provided in section 7.16 of the Revised 54647 this section shall designate a housing officer. In addition, each 54650 such legislative authority, not later than ~~fifteen~~ sixty days 54651 after the adoption of the resolution, shall petition the director 54652 of development services for the director to confirm the findings 54653 described in the resolution. The petition shall be accompanied by 54654 a copy of the resolution and by a map of the community 54655 reinvestment area in sufficient detail to denote the specific 54656 boundaries of the area and to indicate zoning restrictions 54657 applicable to the area. The director shall determine whether the 54658 findings contained in the resolution are valid, and whether the 54659 classification of structures or remodeling eligible for exemption 54660 under the resolution is consistent with zoning restrictions 54661 applicable to the area as indicated on the map. Within thirty days 54662 of receiving the petition, the director shall forward the 54663 director's determination to the legislative authority. The 54664 legislative authority or housing officer shall not grant any 54665 exemption from taxation under section 3735.67 of the Revised Code 54666 until the director forwards the director's determination to the 54667 legislative authority. The director shall assign to each community 54668 reinvestment area a unique designation by which the area shall be 54669 identified for purposes of sections 3735.65 to 3735.70 of the 54670

Revised Code. 54671

If zoning restrictions in any part of a community 54672 reinvestment area are changed at any time after the legislative 54673 authority petitions the director under this section, the 54674 legislative authority shall notify the director and shall submit a 54675 map of the area indicating the new zoning restrictions in the 54676 area. 54677

For the purpose of division (D) of this section, emissions of air contaminants may be calculated using engineering calculations, emission factors, material balance calculations, or performance testing procedures, as authorized by the director. The director, by rule, may require persons who are required to pay the fees assessed under division (D) of this section to pay those fees biennially rather than annually.

(E)(1) Consistent with the need to cover the reasonable costs of the Title V permit program, the director annually shall increase the fees prescribed in division (B) of this section by the percentage, if any, by which the consumer price index for the most recent calendar year ending before the beginning of a year exceeds the consumer price index for calendar year 1989. Upon calculating an increase in fees authorized by division (E)(1) of this section, the director shall compile revised fee schedules for the purposes of division (B) of this section and shall make the revised schedules available to persons required to pay the fees assessed under that division and to the public.

(2) For the purposes of division (E)(1) of this section:

director may consider the objections and adjust the amount of the 56585 fee to ensure that it is accurate. 56586

(7) Beginning in fiscal year 2001, and every two years 56611 thereafter, the director shall review the total amount of moneys 56612 generated by the annual sludge fees to determine if that amount 56613 exceeded six hundred thousand dollars in either fiscal year, the 56616 director, after review of the fee structure and consultation with 56617 affected persons, shall issue an order reducing the amount of the 56618 fees levied under division (Y) of this section so that the 56619 estimated amount of moneys resulting from the fees will not exceed 56620 six hundred thousand dollars in any fiscal year. 56621

If, upon review of the fees under division (Y)(7) of this 56622 accumulated is less than six hundred thousand dollars, the 56625 director, after review of the fee structure and consultation with 56626 affected persons, may issue an order increasing the amount of the 56627 fees levied under division (Y) of this section so that the 56628 circumstances, such as the nonpayment of funds owed by a lottery 57732 sales agent, or other circumstances related to the public safety, 57733 convenience, or trust, require immediate action, the director may 57734 suspend a license without affording an opportunity for a prior 57735 schedules, or the establishment of a voluntary exclusion program. 57758

(C) Chapter 2915. of the Revised Code does not apply to, 57759 affect, or prohibit lotteries conducted pursuant to this chapter. 57760

(D) The commission may promulgate rules, in addition to those 57761 joint lottery games. Any revenue derived from the sale of 57766 advertising displayed on lottery tickets and on those other items 57767 shall be considered, for purposes of section 3770.06 of the 57768 Revised Code, to be related proceeds in connection with the 57769 statewide lottery or gross proceeds from statewide joint lottery 57770 games, as applicable. 57771

(E)(1) The commission shall meet with the director at least 57772 present vote in favor of the action. A written record shall be 57776 made of the proceedings of each meeting and shall be transmitted 57777 disbursements, and operating expenses for the preceding fiscal 57787 year and any recommendations for legislation considered necessary 57788 by the commission. 57789

gross revenue fund, which shall be in the custody of the treasurer 57791 revenues received from sales of lottery tickets, fines, fees, and 57793 related proceeds in connection with the statewide lottery and all 57794 gross proceeds from statewide joint lottery games shall be 57795 deposited into the fund. The treasurer of state shall invest any 57796 portion of the fund not needed for immediate use in the same 57797 manner as, and subject to all provisions of law with respect to 57798 the investment of, state funds. The treasurer of state shall 57799 disburse money from the fund on order of the director of the state 57800 holders of winning lottery tickets, that are not required to meet 57815 short-term prize liabilities, that are not credited to lottery 57816 sales agents in the form of bonuses, commissions, or 57817 reimbursements, and that are not necessary to cover operating 57818 expenses associated with those games or to otherwise comply with 57819 the agreements signed by the governor that the director enters 57820 into under division (J) of section 3770.02 of the Revised Code or 57821 the rules the commission adopts under division (B)(5) of section 57822 3770.03 of the Revised Code shall be transferred to the state 57823 lottery fund. All investment earnings of the fund shall be 57824 credited to the fund. Moneys shall be disbursed from the fund 57825 pursuant to vouchers approved by the director. Total disbursements 57826 for monetary prize awards to holders of winning lottery tickets in 57827 connection with the statewide lottery and purchases of goods and 57828 services awarded as prizes to holders of winning lottery tickets 57829 shall be of an amount equal to at least fifty per cent of the 57830 total revenue accruing from the sale of lottery tickets. 57831

(B) Pursuant to Section 6 of Article XV, Ohio Constitution, 57832 there is hereby established in the state treasury the lottery 57833 profits education fund. Whenever, in the judgment of the director 57834 of the state lottery commission, the amount to the credit of the 57835 state lottery fund that does not represent proceeds from statewide 57836 joint lottery games is in excess of that needed to meet the 57837 maturing obligations of the commission and as working capital for 57838 its further operations, the director of the state lottery 57839 commission shall recommend the amount of the excess to be 57840 transferred to the lottery profits education fund, and the 57841 director of budget and management may transfer the excess to the 57842 lottery profits education fund in connection with the statewide 57843 lottery. In addition, whenever, in the judgment of the director of 57844 the state lottery commission, the amount to the credit of the 57845 state lottery fund that represents proceeds from statewide joint 57846 lottery games equals the entire net proceeds of those games as 57847 described in division (B)(5) of section 3770.03 of the Revised 57848 Code and the rules adopted under that division, the director of 57849 the state lottery commission shall recommend the amount of the 57850 proceeds to be transferred to the lottery profits education fund, 57851 and the director of budget and management may transfer those 57852 proceeds to the lottery profits education fund. Investment 57853 earnings of the lottery profits education fund shall be credited 57854 the support of elementary, secondary, vocational, and special 57857 education programs as determined in appropriations made by the 57858 general assembly, or as provided in applicable bond proceedings 57859 for the payment of debt service on obligations issued to pay costs 57860 of capital facilities, including those for a system of common 57861 schools throughout the state pursuant to section 2n of Article 57862 VIII, Ohio Constitution. When determining the availability of 57863 money in the lottery profits education fund, the director of 57864 budget and management may consider all balances and estimated 57865 revenues of the fund. 57866

(C) There is hereby established in the state treasury the 57867 deferred prizes trust fund. With the approval of the director of 57868 budget and management, an amount sufficient to fund annuity prizes 57869 shall be transferred from the state lottery fund and credited to 57870 the trust fund. The treasurer of state shall credit all earnings 57871 arising from investments purchased under this division to the 57872 trust fund. Within sixty days after the end of each fiscal year, 57873 the treasurer of state shall certify to the director of budget and 57874 management whether the actuarial amount of the trust fund is 57875 sufficient over the fund's life for continued funding of all 57876 remaining deferred prize liabilities as of the last day of the 57877 fiscal year just ended. Also, within that sixty days, the director 57878 of budget and management shall certify the amount of investment 57879

the fiscal year just ending to provide for such continued funding 57881 of deferred prizes. Any earnings credited in excess of the latter 57882 certified amount shall be transferred to the lottery profits 57883 education fund. 57884

To provide all or a part of the amounts necessary to fund 57885 deferred prizes awarded by the commission in connection with the 57886 statewide lottery, the treasurer of state, in consultation with 57887 the commission, may invest moneys contained in the deferred prizes 57888 trust fund which represents proceeds from the statewide lottery in 57889 obligations of the type permitted for the investment of state 57890 funds but whose maturities are thirty years or less. 57891 Notwithstanding the requirements of any other section of the 57892 Revised Code, to provide all or part of the amounts necessary to 57893 fund deferred prizes awarded by the commission in connection with 57894 statewide joint lottery games, the treasurer of state, in 57895 consultation with the commission, may invest moneys in the trust 57896 fund which represent proceeds derived from the statewide joint 57897 lottery games in accordance with the rules the commission adopts 57898 under division (B)(5) of section 3770.03 of the Revised Code. 57899 division (A)(10) of section 135.143 of the Revised Code limiting 57901 to twenty-five per cent the amount of the state's total average 57902 portfolio that may be invested in debt interests other than 57903 commercial paper and limiting to five per cent the amount that may 57904 be invested in debt interests, including commercial paper, of a 57905

All purchases made under this division shall be effected on a 57907 delivery versus payment method and shall be in the custody of the 57908 treasurer of state. 57909

The treasurer of state may retain an investment advisor, if 57910 necessary. The commission shall pay any costs incurred by the 57911 treasurer of state in retaining an investment advisor. 57912

(D) The auditor of state shall conduct annual audits of all 57913 funds and any other audits as the auditor of state or the general 57914 assembly considers necessary. The auditor of state may examine all 57915 records, files, and other documents of the commission, and records 57916 of lottery sales agents that pertain to their activities as 57917 agents, for purposes of conducting authorized audits. 57918

(E) The state lottery commission shall establish an internal 57919 audit plan before the beginning of each fiscal year, subject to 57920 the approval of the office of internal audit in the office of 57921 budget and management. At the end of each fiscal year, the 57922 commission shall prepare and submit an annual report to the office 57923 of internal audit for the office's review and approval, specifying 57924 the internal audit work completed by the end of that fiscal year 57925 and reporting on compliance with the annual internal audit plan. 57926 Any preliminary or final report of an internal audit's findings 57927 and recommendations, which is produced by the office of internal 57928 audit of the state lottery commission, and all work papers of the 57929 internal audit, is confidential and not a public record under 57930 section 149.43 of the Revised Code until the final report of an 57931 internal audit's findings and recommendations has been submitted 57932 to the director of the commission and the chairperson of the 57933 commission, or the chairperson's commission member designee. 57934

(F) Whenever, in the judgment of the director of budget and 57935 management, an amount of net state lottery proceeds is necessary 57936 to be applied to the payment of debt service on obligations, all 57937 as defined in sections 151.01 and 151.03 of the Revised Code, the 57938 director shall transfer that amount directly from the state 57939 lottery fund or from the lottery profits education fund to the 57940 bond service fund defined in those sections. The provisions of 57941 this division are subject to any prior pledges or obligation of 57942 those amounts to the payment of bond service charges as defined in 57943 division (C) of section 3318.21 of the Revised Code, as referred 57944 to in division (B) of this section. 57945

Sec. 3770.07. (A)(1) Except as provided in ~~division~~ divisions 57946
(A)(2) and (H) of this section, lottery prize awards shall be 57947 pleas of the county in which the unlawful discriminatory practice 59741 allegedly occurred for the appropriate injunction or order, and 59742 the court shall hear and determine the application as 59743 expeditiously as possible. 59744

(b) If it is not practicable to comply with the requirements 59745 of division (B)(3)(a) of this section within the one-hundred-day 59746 period described in that division, the commission shall notify the 59747 complainant and the respondent in writing of the reasons for the 59748 noncompliance. 59749

(c) Prior to the issuance of a complaint under division 59750
(B)(3)(a)(ii) or (iii) of this section or prior to a notification 59751 of the complainant and the respondent under division (B)(3)(a)(i) 59752 of this section, the members of the commission and the officers 59753 and employees of the commission shall not make public in any 59754 manner and shall retain as confidential all information that was 59755 obtained as a result of or that otherwise pertains to a 59756 preliminary investigation of a charge filed pursuant to division 59757 (B)(1) of this section that alleges an unlawful discriminatory 59758 practice described in division (H) of section 4112.02 of the 59759
Revised Code. 59760

(d) Notwithstanding the types of action described in 59761 divisions (B)(3)(a)(ii) and (iii) of this section, prior to the 59762 issuance of a complaint or the referral of a complaint to the 59763 attorney general and prior to endeavoring to eliminate an unlawful 59764 discriminatory practice described in division (H) of section 59765 4112.02 of the Revised Code by informal methods of conference, 59766 conciliation, and persuasion, or by alternative dispute 59767 resolution, the commission may seek a temporary or permanent 59768 injunction or a temporary restraining order in the court of common 59769 pleas of the county in which the unlawful discriminatory practice 59770 allegedly occurred. 59771

(4) If the commission determines after a preliminary 59772 investigation other than one described in division (B)(3) of this 59773 section that it is not probable that an unlawful discriminatory 59774 practice has been or is being engaged in, it shall notify any 59775 complainant under division (B)(1) of this section that it has so 59776 determined and that it will not issue a complaint in the matter. 59777

If the commission determines after a preliminary investigation 59778 other than the one described in division (B)(3) of this section 59779 that it is probable that an unlawful discriminatory practice has 59780 been or is being engaged in, it shall endeavor to eliminate the 59781 practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and 59782 persuasion, or by alternative dispute resolution. 59783

(5) Nothing said or done during informal methods of 59784 conference, conciliation, and persuasion, or during alternative 59785 dispute resolution, under this section shall be disclosed by any 59786 member of the commission or its staff or be used as evidence in 59787 any subsequent hearing or other proceeding. If, after a 59788 preliminary investigation and the use of informal methods of 59789 conference, conciliation, and persuasion, or alternative dispute 59790 resolution, under this section, the commission is satisfied that 59791 any unlawful discriminatory practice will be eliminated, it may 59792 treat the charge involved as being conciliated and enter that 59793 disposition on the records of the commission. If the commission 59794 fails to effect the elimination of an unlawful discriminatory 59795
practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and 59796 persuasion, or by alternative dispute resolution under this 59797 section and to obtain voluntary compliance with this chapter, the 59798 commission shall issue and cause to be served upon any person, 59799 including the respondent against whom a complainant has filed a 59800 charge pursuant to division (B)(1) of this section, a complaint 59801 stating the charges involved and containing a notice of an 59802 opportunity for a hearing before the commission, a member of the 59803 commission, or a hearing examiner at a place that is stated in the 59804 notice and that is located within the county in which the alleged 59805 unlawful discriminatory practice has occurred or is occurring or 59806 in which the respondent resides or transacts business. The hearing 59807 shall be held not less than thirty days after the service of the 59808 complaint upon the complainant, the aggrieved persons other than 59809

the complainant on whose behalf the complaint is issued, and the respondent, unless the complainant, an aggrieved person, or the respondent elects to proceed under division (A)(2) of section 4112.051 of the Revised Code when that division is applicable. If a complaint pertains to an alleged unlawful discriminatory practice described in division (H) of section 4112.02 of the Revised Code, the complaint shall notify the complainant, an aggrieved person, and the respondent of the right of the complainant, an aggrieved person, or the respondent to elect to proceed with the administrative hearing process under this section or to proceed under division (A)(2) of section 4112.051 of the Revised Code.

(6) The attorney general shall represent the commission at any hearing held pursuant to division (B)(5) of this section and shall present the evidence in support of the complaint.

(7) Any complaint issued pursuant to division (B)(5) of this section after the filing of a charge under division (B)(1) of this section shall be so issued within one year after the complainant filed the charge with respect to an alleged unlawful discriminatory practice.

(C)(1) Any complaint issued pursuant to division (B) of this section may be amended by the commission, a member of the commission, or the hearing examiner conducting a hearing under division (B) of this section.

(a) Except as provided in division (C)(1)(b) of this section, a complaint issued pursuant to division (B) of this section may be amended at any time prior to or during the hearing.

(b) If a complaint issued pursuant to division (B) of this section alleges an unlawful discriminatory practice described in division (H) of section 4112.02 of the Revised Code, the complaint may be amended at any time up to seven days prior to the hearing and not thereafter. 59841

(2) The respondent has the right to file an answer or an 59842 amended answer to the original and amended complaints and to 59843 appear at the hearing in person, by attorney, or otherwise to 59844 examine and cross-examine witnesses. 59845

(D) The complainant shall be a party to a hearing under 59846 division (B) of this section, and any person who is an 59847 indispensable party to a complete determination or settlement of a 59848 question involved in the hearing shall be joined. Any aggrieved 59849 person who has or claims an interest in the subject of the hearing 59850 and in obtaining or preventing relief against the unlawful 59851 discriminatory practices complained of shall be permitted to 59852 appear only for the presentation of oral or written arguments, to 59853 present evidence, perform direct and cross-examination, and be 59854 represented by counsel. The commission shall adopt rules, in 59855 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 59856 authority granted under this division. 59857

(E) In any hearing under division (B) of this section, the 59858 commission, a member of the commission, or the hearing examiner 59859 shall not be bound by the Rules of Evidence but, in ascertaining 59860 the practices followed by the respondent, shall take into account 59861 all reliable, probative, and substantial statistical or other 59862 evidence produced at the hearing that may tend to prove the 59863 existence of a predetermined pattern of employment or membership, 59864 provided that nothing contained in this section shall be construed 59865 to authorize or require any person to observe the proportion that 59866 persons of any race, color, religion, sex, military status, 59867 familial status, national origin, disability, age, or ancestry 59868 bear to the total population or in accordance with any criterion 59869 other than the individual qualifications of the applicant. 59870

(F) The testimony taken at a hearing under division (B) of 59871 this section shall be under oath and shall be reduced to writing 59872 and filed with the commission. Thereafter, in its discretion, the 59873 commission, upon the service of a notice upon the complainant and 59874 the respondent that indicates an opportunity to be present, may 59875 take further testimony or hear argument. 59876

(G)(1)(a) If, upon all reliable, probative, and substantial 59877 evidence presented at a hearing under division (B) of this 59878 section, the commission determines that the respondent has engaged 59879 in, or is engaging in, any unlawful discriminatory practice, 59880 whether against the complainant or others, the commission shall 59881 state its findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall issue 59882 and, subject to the provisions of Chapter 119. of the Revised 59883 Code, cause to be served on the respondent an order requiring the 59884 respondent to do all of the following: 59885

~~(1)~~(i) Cease and desist from the unlawful discriminatory 59886 practice; 59887

(ii) Take any further affirmative or other action that will 59888 effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including, but not 59889 limited to, hiring, reinstatement, or upgrading of employees with 59890 or without back pay, or admission or restoration to union 59891 membership; 59892

(iii) Report to the commission the manner of compliance. 59893

If the commission directs payment of back pay, it shall make 59894 allowance for interim earnings. 59895

(b) If the commission finds a violation of division (H) of 59896 section 4112.02 of the Revised Code, in addition to the action 59897 described in division (G)(1)(a) of this section, the commission 59898 additionally may require the respondent to undergo ~~recommendation~~ 59899 remediation in the form of a class, seminar, or any other type of 59900 remediation approved by the commission, may require the ~~responded~~ 59901 respondent to pay actual damages and reasonable attorney's fees, 59902 and may, to vindicate the public interest, assess a civil penalty 59903 against the respondent as follows: 59904

(i) If division (G)(1)(b)(ii) or (iii) of this section does 59905 not apply, a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed ten thousand 59906 dollars; 59907

(ii) If division (G)(1)(b)(iii) of this section does not 59908 apply and if the respondent has been determined by a final order 59909 of the commission or by a final judgment of a court to have 59910 committed one violation of division (H) of section 4112.02 of the 59911 Revised Code during the five-year period immediately preceding the 59912 date on which a complaint was issued pursuant to division (B) of 59913 this section, a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed 59914 twenty-five thousand dollars; 59915

(iii) If the respondent has been determined by a final order 59916
of the commission or by a final judgment of a court to have 59917 committed two or more violations of division (H) of section 59918 4112.02 of the Revised Code during the seven-year period 59919 immediately preceding the date on which a complaint was issued 59920 pursuant to division (B) of this section, a civil penalty damages 59921 in an amount not to exceed fifty thousand dollars. 59922

(2) Upon the submission of reports of compliance, the 59923 commission may issue a declaratory order stating that the 59924 respondent has ceased to engage in particular unlawful 59925 discriminatory practices. 59926

(H) If the commission finds that no probable cause exists for 59927 crediting charges of unlawful discriminatory practices or if, upon 59928 all the evidence presented at a hearing under division (B) of this 59929 section on a charge, the commission finds that a respondent has 59930 not engaged in any unlawful discriminatory practice against the 59931 complainant or others, it shall state its findings of fact and 59932 shall issue and cause to be served on the complainant an order 59933 dismissing the complaint as to the respondent. A copy of the order 59934 shall be delivered in all cases to the attorney general and any other public officers whom the commission considers proper.

If, upon all the evidence presented at a hearing under division (B) of this section on a charge, the commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in any unlawful discriminatory practice against the complainant or others, it may award to the respondent reasonable attorney's fees to the extent provided in 5 U.S.C. 504 and accompanying regulations.

(I) Until the time period for appeal set forth in division (H) of section 4112.06 of the Revised Code expires, the commission, subject to the provisions of Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, at any time, upon reasonable notice, and in the manner it considers proper, may modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any finding or order made by it under this section.

(d) The director may, for good cause, extend the period of registration.	59978 59979

layoff. 59999

(iii) The director may waive the requirement that a claimant 60000 be actively seeking work if the director determines that the 60001 individual has been laid off and the employer who laid the 60002 individual off has notified the director in accordance with 60003 division (C) of section 4141.28 of the Revised Code that the 60004 employer has closed the employer's entire plant or part of the 60005 employer's plant for a purpose other than inventory or vacation 60006 that will cause unemployment for a definite period not exceeding 60007 twenty-six weeks beginning on the date the employer notifies the 60008 director, for the period of the specific shutdown, if all of the 60009
following apply: 60010

(I) The employer and the individuals affected by the layoff 60011 who are claiming benefits under this chapter jointly request the 60012 exemption. 60013

(II) The employer provides that the affected individuals 60014 shall return to work for the employer within twenty-six weeks 60015 after the date the employer notifies the director. 60016

(III) The director determines that the waiver of the active 60017 search for work requirement will promote productivity and economic 60018 stability within the state. 60019

(iv) Division (A)(4)(a)(iii) of this section does not exempt 60020 an individual from meeting the other requirements specified in 60021 division (A)(4)(a)(i) of this section to be able to work and 60022 otherwise fully be available for work. An exemption granted under 60023 division (A)(4)(a)(iii) of this section may be granted only with 60024 respect to a specific plant closing. 60025

For each week that the individual claims benefits, the individual shall keep a record of the individual's work search efforts and shall produce that record in the manner and means prescribed by the director.

(iii) No individual shall be required to register with the OhioMeansJobs web site if the individual is legally prohibited from using a computer, has a physical or visual impairment that makes the individual unable to use a computer, or has a limited ability to read, write, speak, or understand a language in which the OhioMeansJobs web site is available.

(iv) As used in division (A)(4)(b) of this section:

(II) "Registration" includes the creation, electronic posting, and maintenance of an active, searchable resume. 60056

(c) An individual who is attending a training course approved 60057 by the director meets the requirement of this division, if 60058 attendance was recommended by the director and the individual is 60059 regularly attending the course and is making satisfactory 60060 progress. An individual also meets the requirements of this 60061 division if the individual is participating and advancing in a 60062 training program, as defined in division (P) of section 5709.61 of 60063 the Revised Code, and if an enterprise, defined in division (B) of 60064 section 5709.61 of the Revised Code, is paying all or part of the 60065 cost of the individual's participation in the training program 60066 with the intention of hiring the individual for employment as a 60067 new employee, as defined in division (L) of section 5709.61 of the 60068 Revised Code, for at least ninety days after the individual's 60069 completion of the training program. 60070

(d) An individual who becomes unemployed while attending a 60071 regularly established school and whose base period qualifying 60072 weeks were earned in whole or in part while attending that school, 60073 meets the availability and active search for work requirements of 60074 division (A)(4)(a) of this section if the individual regularly 60075 attends the school during weeks with respect to which the 60076 individual claims unemployment benefits and makes self available 60077 on any shift of hours for suitable employment with the 60078 individual's most recent employer or any other employer in the 60079 individual's base period, or for any other suitable employment to 60080 which the individual is directed, under this chapter. 60081

(e) An individual who is a member in good standing with a 60082 labor organization that refers individuals to jobs meets the 60083 active search for work requirement specified in division (A)(4)(a) 60084 of this section if the individual provides documentation that the 60085 individual is eligible for a referral or placement upon request 60086 and in a manner prescribed by the director. 60087

(f) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, no otherwise eligible individual shall be denied benefits for any week because the individual is in training approved under section 236(a)(1) of the "Trade Act of 1974," 88 Stat. 1978, 19 U.S.C.A. 2296, nor shall that individual be denied benefits by reason of leaving work to enter such training, provided the work left is not suitable employment, or because of the application to any week in training of provisions in this chapter, or any applicable federal unemployment compensation law, relating to availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to accept work.

For the purposes of division (A)(4)(f) of this section, "suitable employment" means with respect to an individual, work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, as defined for the purposes of the "Trade Act of 1974," 88 Stat. 1978, 19 U.S.C.A. 2101, and wages for such work at not less than eighty per cent of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of that federal act.

(6) Participates in reemployment services, such as job search assistance services, if the individual has been determined to be likely to exhaust benefits under this chapter, including compensation payable pursuant to 5 U.S.C.A. Chapter 85, other than extended compensation, and needs reemployment services pursuant to the profiling system established by the director under division 60120

(K) of this section, unless the director determines that: 60121

(a) The individual has completed such services; or 60122

(b) There is justifiable cause for the claimant's failure to 60123 participate in such services. 60124

Ineligibility for failure to participate in reemployment 60125 services as described in division (A)(6) of this section shall be 60126 failed to participate without justifiable cause. 60128

(7) Participates in the reemployment and eligibility 60129 assessment program, or other reemployment services, as required by 60130 the director. As used in division (A)(7) of this section, 60131
"reemployment services" includes job search assistance activities, 60132 skills assessments, and the provision of labor market statistics 60133 or analysis. 60134

(a) For purposes of division (A)(7) of this section, 60135 either of the following circumstances applies to the individual: 60137

(i) The individual has completed similar services. 60138

(ii) Justifiable cause exists for the failure of the 60139 individual to participate in those services. 60140

(b) Within six months after October 11, 2013, notwithstanding 60141 any earlier contact an individual may have had with a local 60142
~~one-stop county office~~ OhioMeansJobs center, including as 60143 ~~described~~ defined in section ~~6301.08~~ 6301.01 of the Revised Code, 60144 beginning with the eighth week after the week during which an 60145 individual first files a valid application for determination of 60146 benefit rights in the individual's benefit year, the individual 60147 shall report to a local ~~one-stop county office~~ OhioMeansJobs 60148 center for reemployment services in the manner prescribed by the 60149

director. 60150

(c) An individual whose active search for work requirement 60151 has been waived under division (A)(4)(a) of this section or is 60152 considered to be satisfied under division (A)(4)(c), (d), or (e) 60153 of this section is exempt from the requirements of division (A)(7) 60154
of this section. 60155

(B) An individual suffering total or partial unemployment is 60156 eligible for benefits for unemployment occurring subsequent to a 60157 waiting period of one week and no benefits shall be payable during 60158 this required waiting period. Not more than one week of waiting 60159 period shall be required of any individual in any benefit year in 60160 order to establish the individual's eligibility for total or 60161 partial unemployment benefits. 60162

(C) The waiting period for total or partial unemployment 60163 shall commence on the first day of the first week with respect to 60164 which the individual first files a claim for benefits at an 60165 employment office or other place of registration maintained or 60166 designated by the director or on the first day of the first week 60167 with respect to which the individual has otherwise filed a claim 60168 for benefits in accordance with the rules of the department of job 60169 and family services, provided such claim is allowed by the 60170
director. 60171

(D) Notwithstanding division (A) of this section, no 60172 individual may serve a waiting period or be paid benefits under 60173
the following conditions: 60174

(1) For any week with respect to which the director finds 60175 that: 60176

(a) The individual's unemployment was due to a labor dispute 60177 other than a lockout at any factory, establishment, or other 60178 premises located in this or any other state and owned or operated 60179 by the employer by which the individual is or was last employed; 60180 and for so long as the individual's unemployment is due to such 60181 labor dispute. No individual shall be disqualified under this 60182 provision if either of the following applies: 60183

(i) The individual's employment was with such employer at any 60184 factory, establishment, or premises located in this state, owned 60185 or operated by such employer, other than the factory, 60186 establishment, or premises at which the labor dispute exists, if 60187 it is shown that the individual is not financing, participating 60188 in, or directly interested in such labor dispute; 60189

(ii) The individual's employment was with an employer not 60190 involved in the labor dispute but whose place of business was 60191 located within the same premises as the employer engaged in the 60192 dispute, unless the individual's employer is a wholly owned 60193 subsidiary of the employer engaged in the dispute, or unless the 60194 individual actively participates in or voluntarily stops work 60195 because of such dispute. If it is established that the claimant 60196 was laid off for an indefinite period and not recalled to work 60197 prior to the dispute, or was separated by the employer prior to 60198 the dispute for reasons other than the labor dispute, or that the 60199 individual obtained a bona fide job with another employer while 60200 the dispute was still in progress, such labor dispute shall not 60201 render the employee ineligible for benefits. 60202

(b) The individual has been given a disciplinary layoff for 60203 misconduct in connection with the individual's work. 60204

(2) For the duration of the individual's unemployment if the 60205 director finds that: 60206

(a) The individual quit work without just cause or has been 60207 discharged for just cause in connection with the individual's 60208 work, provided division (D)(2) of this section does not apply to 60209 the separation of a person under any of the following 60210 circumstances: 60211

(i) Separation from employment for the purpose of entering the armed forces of the United States if the individual is inducted into the armed forces within one of the following periods:

(I) Thirty days after separation;

(II) One hundred eighty days after separation if the individual's date of induction is delayed solely at the discretion of the armed forces.

(ii) Separation from employment pursuant to a labor-management contract or agreement, or pursuant to an established employer plan, program, or policy, which permits the employee, because of lack of work, to accept a separation from employment;

(iii) The individual has left employment to accept a recall from a prior employer or, except as provided in division (D)(2)(a)(iv) of this section, to accept other employment as provided under section 4141.291 of the Revised Code, or left or was separated from employment that was concurrent employment at the time of the most recent separation or within six weeks prior to the most recent separation where the remuneration, hours, or other conditions of such concurrent employment were substantially less favorable than the individual's most recent employment and where such employment, if offered as new work, would be considered not suitable under the provisions of divisions (E) and (F) of this section. Any benefits that would otherwise be chargeable to the account of the employer from whom an individual has left employment or was separated from employment that was concurrent employment under conditions described in division (D)(2)(a)(iii) of this section, shall instead be charged to the mutualized account created by division (B) of section 4141.25 of the Revised Code, except that any benefits chargeable to the account of a reimbursing employer under division (D)(2)(a)(iii) of this section shall be charged to the account of the reimbursing employer and 60244 not to the mutualized account, except as provided in division 60245

(D)(2) of section 4141.24 of the Revised Code. 60246

(iv) When an individual has been issued a definite layoff 60247 date by the individual's employer and before the layoff date, the 60248 individual quits to accept other employment, the provisions of 60249 division (D)(2)(a)(iii) of this section apply and no 60250 disqualification shall be imposed under division (D) of this 60251 section. However, if the individual fails to meet the employment 60252 and earnings requirements of division (A)(2) of section 4141.291 60253 of the Revised Code, then the individual, pursuant to division 60254 (A)(5) of this section, shall be ineligible for benefits for any 60255 week of unemployment that occurs prior to the layoff date. 60256

(b) The individual has refused without good cause to accept 60257 an offer of suitable work when made by an employer either in 60258 person or to the individual's last known address, or has refused 60259 or failed to investigate a referral to suitable work when directed 60260 to do so by a local employment office of this state or another 60261 state, provided that this division shall not cause a 60262 disqualification for a waiting week or benefits under the 60263
following circumstances: 60264

(i) When work is offered by the individual's employer and the 60265 individual is not required to accept the offer pursuant to the 60266 terms of the labor-management contract or agreement; or 60267

(ii) When the individual is attending a training course 60268 pursuant to division (A)(4) of this section except, in the event 60269 of a refusal to accept an offer of suitable work or a refusal or 60270 failure to investigate a referral, benefits thereafter paid to 60271 such individual shall not be charged to the account of any 60272 employer and, except as provided in division (B)(1)(b) of section 60273 4141.241 of the Revised Code, shall be charged to the mutualized 60274 account as provided in division (B) of section 4141.25 of the 60275

(c) Such individual quit work to marry or because of marital, parental, filial, or other domestic obligations.	60277 60278
(d) The individual became unemployed by reason of commitment to any correctional institution.	60279 60280
(e) The individual became unemployed because of dishonesty in connection with the individual's most recent or any base period work. Remuneration earned in such work shall be excluded from the individual's total base period remuneration and qualifying weeks that otherwise would be credited to the individual for such work in the individual's base period shall not be credited for the purpose of determining the total benefits to which the individual is eligible and the weekly benefit amount to be paid under section 4141.30 of the Revised Code. Such excluded remuneration and noncredited qualifying weeks shall be excluded from the calculation of the maximum amount to be charged, under division (D) of section 4141.24 and section 4141.33 of the Revised Code, against the accounts of the individual's base period employers. In addition, no benefits shall thereafter be paid to the individual based upon such excluded remuneration or noncredited qualifying weeks.	60281 60282 60283 60284 60285 60286 60287 60288 60289 60290 60291 60292 60293 60294 60295 60296
For purposes of division (D)(2)(e) of this section, "dishonesty" means the commission of substantive theft, fraud, or deceitful acts.	60297 60298 60299
(E) No individual otherwise qualified to receive benefits shall lose the right to benefits by reason of a refusal to accept new work if:	60300 60301 60302

any such organization. 60307

(2) The position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, 60308 lockout, or other labor dispute. 60309

(3) The work is at an unreasonable distance from the 60310 individual's residence, having regard to the character of the work 60311 the individual has been accustomed to do, and travel to the place 60312 of work involves expenses substantially greater than that required 60313 for the individual's former work, unless the expense is provided 60314
for. 60315

(4) The remuneration, hours, or other conditions of the work 60316 offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than 60317 those prevailing for similar work in the locality. 60318

(F) Subject to the special exceptions contained in division 60319
(A)(4)(f) of this section and section 4141.301 of the Revised 60320 Code, in determining whether any work is suitable for a claimant 60321 in the administration of this chapter, the director, in addition 60322 to the determination required under division (E) of this section, 60323 shall consider the degree of risk to the claimant's health, 60324 safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness for the 60325 work, the individual's prior training and experience, the length 60326 of the individual's unemployment, the distance of the available 60327 work from the individual's residence, and the individual's 60328 prospects for obtaining local work. 60329

(G) The "duration of unemployment" as used in this section 60330 means the full period of unemployment next ensuing after a 60331 separation from any base period or subsequent work and until an 60332 individual has become reemployed in employment subject to this 60333 chapter, or the unemployment compensation act of another state, or 60334 of the United States, and until such individual has worked six 60335 weeks and for those weeks has earned or been paid remuneration 60336 equal to six times an average weekly wage of not less than: 60337 eighty-five dollars and ten cents per week beginning on June 26, 60338 1990; and beginning on and after January 1, 1992, twenty-seven and 60339 one-half per cent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed 60340 each first day of January under division (B)(3) of section 4141.30 60341 of the Revised Code, rounded down to the nearest dollar, except 60342 for purposes of division (D)(2)(c) of this section, such term 60343 means the full period of unemployment next ensuing after a 60344 separation from such work and until such individual has become 60345 reemployed subject to the terms set forth above, and has earned 60346 wages equal to one-half of the individual's average weekly wage or 60347 sixty dollars, whichever is less. 60348

(H) If a claimant is disqualified under division (D)(2)(a), 60349
(c), or (d) of this section or found to be qualified under the 60350 exceptions provided in division (D)(2)(a)(i), (iii), or (iv) of 60351 this section or division (A)(2) of section 4141.291 of the Revised 60352 Code, then benefits that may become payable to such claimant, 60353 which are chargeable to the account of the employer from whom the 60354 individual was separated under such conditions, shall be charged 60355 to the mutualized account provided in section 4141.25 of the 60356 Revised Code, provided that no charge shall be made to the 60357 mutualized account for benefits chargeable to a reimbursing 60358 employer, except as provided in division (D)(2) of section 4141.24 60359 of the Revised Code. In the case of a reimbursing employer, the 60360 director shall refund or credit to the account of the reimbursing 60361 employer any over-paid benefits that are recovered under division 60362 (B) of section 4141.35 of the Revised Code. Amounts chargeable to 60363 other states, the United States, or Canada that are subject to 60364 agreements and arrangements that are established pursuant to 60365 section 4141.43 of the Revised Code shall be credited or 60366 reimbursed according to the agreements and arrangements to which 60367 the chargeable amounts are subject. 60368

(I)(1) Benefits based on service in employment as provided in 60369 divisions (B)(2)(a) and (b) of section 4141.01 of the Revised Code 60370 shall be payable in the same amount, on the same terms, and 60371 subject to the same conditions as benefits payable on the basis of 60372 other service subject to this chapter; except that after December 60373 31, 1977: 60374

(a) Benefits based on service in an instructional, research, 60375 or principal administrative capacity in an institution of higher 60376 education, as defined in division (Y) of section 4141.01 of the 60377 Revised Code; or for an educational institution as defined in 60378 division (CC) of section 4141.01 of the Revised Code, shall not be 60379 paid to any individual for any week of unemployment that begins 60380 during the period between two successive academic years or terms, 60381 or during a similar period between two regular but not successive 60382 terms or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in 60383 the individual's contract, if the individual performs such 60384 services in the first of those academic years or terms and has a 60385 contract or a reasonable assurance that the individual will 60386 perform services in any such capacity for any such institution in 60387 the second of those academic years or terms. 60388

(b) Benefits based on service for an educational institution 60389 or an institution of higher education in other than an 60390 instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity, 60391 shall not be paid to any individual for any week of unemployment 60392 which begins during the period between two successive academic 60393 years or terms of the employing educational institution or 60394 institution of higher education, provided the individual performed 60395 those services for the educational institution or institution of 60396 higher education during the first such academic year or term and, 60397 there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform 60398 those services for any educational institution or institution of 60399 higher education in the second of such academic years or terms. 60400

If compensation is denied to any individual for any week 60401 under division (I)(1)(b) of this section and the individual was 60402 not offered an opportunity to perform those services for an 60403 institution of higher education or for an educational institution 60404 for the second of such academic years or terms, the individual is 60405 entitled to a retroactive payment of compensation for each week 60406 for which the individual timely filed a claim for compensation and 60407 for which compensation was denied solely by reason of division 60408 (I)(1)(b) of this section. An application for retroactive benefits 60409 shall be timely filed if received by the director or the 60410 director's deputy within or prior to the end of the fourth full 60411 calendar week after the end of the period for which benefits were 60412 denied because of reasonable assurance of employment. The 60413 provision for the payment of retroactive benefits under division 60414 (I)(1)(b) of this section is applicable to weeks of unemployment 60415 beginning on and after November 18, 1983. The provisions under 60416 division (I)(1)(b) of this section shall be retroactive to 60417 September 5, 1982, only if, as a condition for full tax credit 60418 against the tax imposed by the "Federal Unemployment Tax Act," 53 60419 Stat. 183 (1939), 26 U.S.C.A. 3301 to 3311, the United States 60420 secretary of labor determines that retroactivity is required by 60421 federal law. 60422

(c) With respect to weeks of unemployment beginning after 60423
December 31, 1977, benefits shall be denied to any individual for 60424 any week which commences during an established and customary 60425 vacation period or holiday recess, if the individual performs any 60426 services described in divisions (I)(1)(a) and (b) of this section 60427 in the period immediately before the vacation period or holiday 60428 recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that the individual 60429 will perform any such services in the period immediately following 60430
the vacation period or holiday recess. 60431

(d) With respect to any services described in division 60432
(I)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section, benefits payable on the 60433 basis of services in any such capacity shall be denied as 60434 specified in division (I)(1)(a), (b), or (c) of this section to 60435 any individual who performs such services in an educational 60436 institution or institution of higher education while in the employ 60437 of an educational service agency. For this purpose, the term 60438 "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or 60439 governmental entity that is established and operated exclusively 60440 for the purpose of providing services to one or more educational 60441 institutions or one or more institutions of higher education. 60442

(e) Any individual employed by a county board of 60443 developmental disabilities shall be notified by the thirtieth day 60444 of April each year if the individual is not to be reemployed the 60445 following academic year. 60446

(f) Any individual employed by a school district, other than 60447 a municipal school district as defined in section 3311.71 of the 60448 Revised Code, shall be notified by the first day of June each year 60449 if the individual is not to be reemployed the following academic 60450
year. 60451

(2) No disqualification will be imposed, between academic 60452 years or terms or during a vacation period or holiday recess under 60453 this division, unless the director or the director's deputy has 60454 received a statement in writing from the educational institution 60455 or institution of higher education that the claimant has a 60456 contract for, or a reasonable assurance of, reemployment for the 60457 ensuing academic year or term. 60458

(3) If an individual has employment with an educational 60459 institution or an institution of higher education and employment 60460 with a noneducational employer, during the base period of the 60461 individual's benefit year, then the individual may become eligible 60462 for benefits during the between-term, or vacation or holiday 60463 recess, disqualification period, based on employment performed for 60464 the noneducational employer, provided that the employment is 60465 sufficient to qualify the individual for benefit rights separately 60466 from the benefit rights based on school employment. The weekly 60467 benefit amount and maximum benefits payable during a 60468 disqualification period shall be computed based solely on the 60469 nonschool employment. 60470

(J) Benefits shall not be paid on the basis of employment 60471 performed by an alien, unless the alien had been lawfully admitted 60472 to the United States for permanent residence at the time the 60473 services were performed, was lawfully present for purposes of 60474 performing the services, or was otherwise permanently residing in 60475 the United States under color of law at the time the services were 60476 performed, under section 212(d)(5) of the "Immigration and 60477 Nationality Act," 66 Stat. 163, 8 U.S.C.A. 1101: 60478

(1) Any data or information required of individuals applying 60479 for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them 60480 because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all 60481 applicants for benefits. 60482

(2) In the case of an individual whose application for 60483 benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that 60484 benefits to the individual are not payable because of the 60485 individual's alien status shall be made except upon a 60486 preponderance of the evidence that the individual had not, in 60487 fact, been lawfully admitted to the United States. 60488

(K) The director shall establish and utilize a system of 60489 profiling all new claimants under this chapter that: 60490

(1) Identifies which claimants will be likely to exhaust 60491 regular compensation and will need job search assistance services 60492 to make a successful transition to new employment; 60493

(2) Refers claimants identified pursuant to division (K)(1) 60494 of this section to reemployment services, such as job search 60495 assistance services, available under any state or federal law; 60496

(3) Collects follow-up information relating to the services 60497 received by such claimants and the employment outcomes for such 60498 claimant's subsequent to receiving such services and utilizes such 60499 information in making identifications pursuant to division (K)(1) 60500 of this section; and 60501

(4) Meets such other requirements as the United States 60502 secretary of labor determines are appropriate. 60503

(L) Except as otherwise provided in division (A)(6) of this 60504 section, ineligibility pursuant to division (A) of this section 60505 shall begin on the first day of the week in which the claimant 60506 becomes ineligible for benefits and shall end on the last day of 60507 the week preceding the week in which the claimant satisfies the 60508 eligibility requirements. 60509

(M) The director may adopt rules that the director considers 60510 necessary for the administration of division (A) of this section. 60511

Sec. 4141.43. (A) The director of job and family services may 60512 cooperate with the industrial commission, the bureau of workers' 60513 compensation, the United States internal revenue service, the 60514 United States employment service, and other similar departments 60515 and agencies, as determined by the director, in the exchange or 60516 disclosure of information as to wages, employment, payrolls, 60517 unemployment, and other information. The director may employ, 60518 jointly with one or more of such agencies or departments, 60519 auditors, examiners, inspectors, and other employees necessary for 60520 the administration of this chapter and employment and training 60521 services for workers in the state. 60522

(B) The director may make the state's record relating to the 60523 administration of this chapter available to the railroad 60524 retirement board and may furnish the board at the board's expense 60525 such copies thereof as the board deems necessary for its purposes. 60526

(C) The director may afford reasonable cooperation with every 60527 agency of the United States charged with the administration of any 60528 unemployment compensation law. 60529

(D) The director may enter into arrangements with the 60530 appropriate agencies of other states or of the United States or 60531 Canada whereby individuals performing services in this and other 60532 states for a single employer under circumstances not specifically 60533 provided for in division (B) of section 4141.01 of the Revised 60534 Code or in similar provisions in the unemployment compensation 60535 laws of such other states shall be deemed to be engaged in 60536 employment performed entirely within this state or within one of 60537 such other states or within Canada, and whereby potential rights 60538 to benefits accumulated under the unemployment compensation laws 60539 of several states or under such a law of the United States, or 60540 both, or of Canada may constitute the basis for the payment of 60541 benefits through a single appropriate agency under terms that the 60542 director finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected 60543 interests and will not result in any substantial loss to the 60544 unemployment compensation fund. 60545

(E) The director may enter into agreements with the 60546 appropriate agencies of other states or of the United States or 60547
Canada: 60548

(1) Whereby services or wages upon the basis of which an 60549 individual may become entitled to benefits under the unemployment 60550 compensation law of another state or of the United States or 60551 Canada shall be deemed to be employment or wages for employment by 60552 employers for the purposes of qualifying claimants for benefits 60553 under this chapter, and the director may estimate the number of 60554 weeks of employment represented by the wages reported to the 60555 director for such claimants by such other agency, provided such 60556 other state agency or agency of the United States or Canada has 60557 agreed to reimburse the unemployment compensation fund for such 60558 portion of benefits paid under this chapter upon the basis of such 60559 services or wages as the director finds will be fair and 60560 reasonable as to all affected interests; 60561

(2) Whereby the director will reimburse other state or 60562 federal or Canadian agencies charged with the administration of 60563 unemployment compensation laws with such reasonable portion of 60564 benefits, paid under the law of such other states or of the United 60565 States or of Canada upon the basis of employment or wages for 60566 employment by employers, as the director finds will be fair and 60567 reasonable as to all affected interests. Reimbursements so payable 60568 shall be deemed to be benefits for the purpose of section 4141.09 60569 and division (A) of section 4141.30 of the Revised Code. However, 60570 no reimbursement so payable shall be charged against any 60571 employer's account for the purposes of section 4141.24 of the 60572 Revised Code if the employer's account, under the same or similar 60573 circumstances, with respect to benefits charged under the 60574 provisions of this chapter, other than this section, would not be 60575 charged or, if the claimant at the time the claimant files the 60576 combined wage claim cannot establish benefit rights under this 60577 chapter. This noncharging shall not be applicable to a nonprofit 60578 organization that has elected to make payments in lieu of 60579 contributions under section 4141.241 of the Revised Code, except 60580 as provided in division (D)(2) of section 4141.24 of the Revised 60581 Code. The director may make to other state or federal or Canadian 60582 agencies and receive from such other state or federal or Canadian 60583 agencies reimbursements from or to the unemployment compensation 60584 fund, in accordance with arrangements pursuant to this section. 60585

(3) Notwithstanding division (B)(2)(f) of section 4141.01 of 60586 the Revised Code, the director may enter into agreements with 60587 other states whereby services performed for a crew leader, as 60588 defined in division (BB) of section 4141.01 of the Revised Code, 60589 may be covered in the state in which the crew leader either: 60590

(a) Has the crew leader's place of business or from which the crew leader's business is operated or controlled; 60591
60592

(b) Resides if the crew leader has no place of business in any state. 60593
60594

(F) The director may apply for an advance to the unemployment compensation fund and do all things necessary or required to obtain such advance and arrange for the repayment of such advance in accordance with Title XII of the "Social Security Act" as amended. 60595
60596
60599

(G) The director may enter into reciprocal agreements or arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other states in regard to services on vessels engaged in interstate or foreign commerce whereby such services for a single employer, wherever performed, shall be deemed performed within this state or within such other states. 60600
60601
60603
60605

60607
60609
60610
60611
60612
60613
60614

(1) Applying the base period of a single state law to a claim involving the combining of an individual's wages and employment covered under two or more state unemployment compensation laws, and 60615
60616
60618

(2) Avoiding the duplicate use of wages and employment by reason of such combining. 60619
60620

(I) The director shall cooperate with the United States 60621 department of labor to the fullest extent consistent with this 60622 chapter, and shall take such action, through the adoption of 60623 appropriate rules, regulations, and administrative methods and 60624 standards, as may be necessary to secure to this state and its 60625 citizens all advantages available under the provisions of the 60626

"Social Security Act" that relate to unemployment compensation, 60627 the "Federal Unemployment Tax Act," (1970) 84 Stat. 713, 26 60628

Sec. 4503.066. (A)(1) To obtain a tax reduction under section 61935 4503.065 of the Revised Code, the owner of the home shall file an 61936 application with the county auditor of the county in which the 61937 home is located. An application for reduction in taxes based upon 61938 a physical disability shall be accompanied by a certificate signed 61939 by a physician, and an application for reduction in taxes based 61940 upon a mental disability shall be accompanied by a certificate 61941 signed by a physician or psychologist licensed to practice in this 61942 state. The certificate shall attest to the fact that the applicant 61943 is permanently and totally disabled, shall be in a form that the 61944 department of taxation requires, and shall include the definition 61945 of totally and permanently disabled as set forth in section 61946 4503.064 of the Revised Code. An application for reduction in 61947 department of veterans affairs, or its predecessor or successor 61954

61956

(2) Each application shall constitute a continuing 61957 application for a reduction in taxes for each year in which the 61958 manufactured or mobile home is occupied by the applicant. Failure 61959 to receive a new application or notification under division (B) of 61960 this section after an application for reduction has been approved 61961 is prima-facie evidence that the original applicant is entitled to 61962 the reduction calculated on the basis of the information contained 61963 in the original application. The original application and any 61964 subsequent application shall be in the form of a signed statement 61965 and shall be filed ~~not later than the first Monday in June~~ on or 61966 before the thirty-first day of December of the year for which the 61967 reduction is sought. The statement shall be on a form, devised and 61968 supplied by the tax commissioner, that shall require no more 61969 information than is necessary to establish the applicant's 61970 eligibility for the reduction in taxes and the amount of the 61971 reduction to which the applicant is entitled. The form shall 61972 contain a statement that signing such application constitutes a 61973 delegation of authority by the applicant to the tax commissioner 61974 or the county auditor, individually or in consultation with each 61975 other, to examine any tax or financial records that relate to the 61976 income of the applicant as stated on the application for the 61977 purpose of determining eligibility under, or possible violation 61978 of, division (C) or (D) of this section. The form also shall 61979 contain a statement that conviction of willfully falsifying 61980 information to obtain a reduction in taxes or failing to comply 61981 with division (B) of this section shall result in the revocation 61982 of the right to the reduction for a period of three years. 61983

If an application filed for the current tax year is approved 61984 after the taxes have been paid for the current year, the amount of 61985 the reduction in taxes for the current year shall be treated as an 61986 overpayment of taxes in the same manner as a late application 61987

under division (A)(3) of this section. 61988

(3) A late application for a reduction in taxes for the year 61989 preceding the year for which an original application is filed may 61990 be filed with an original application. If the auditor determines 61991 that the information contained in the late application is correct, 61992 the auditor shall determine both the amount of the reduction in 61993 taxes to which the applicant would have been entitled for the 61994 current tax year had the application been timely filed and 61995 approved in the preceding year, and the amount the taxes levied 61996 under section 4503.06 of the Revised Code for the current year 61997 would have been reduced as a result of the reduction. When an 61998 applicant is permanently and totally disabled on the first day of 61999 January of the year in which the applicant files a late 62000 application, the auditor, in making the determination of the 62001 amounts of the reduction in taxes under division (A)(3) of this 62002 section, is not required to determine that the applicant was 62003 permanently and totally disabled on the first day of January of 62004 the preceding year. 62005

The amount of the reduction in taxes pursuant to a late 62006 application shall be treated as an overpayment of taxes by the 62007 applicant. The auditor shall credit the amount of the overpayment 62008 against the amount of the taxes or penalties then due from the 62009 applicant, and, at the next succeeding settlement, the amount of 62010 the credit shall be deducted from the amount of any taxes or 62011 penalties distributable to the county or any taxing unit in the 62012 county that has received the benefit of the taxes or penalties 62013 previously overpaid, in proportion to the benefits previously 62014 received. If, after the credit has been made, there remains a 62015 balance of the overpayment, or if there are no taxes or penalties 62016 due from the applicant, the auditor shall refund that balance to 62017 the applicant by a warrant drawn on the county treasurer in favor 62018 of the applicant. The treasurer shall pay the warrant from the 62019 general fund of the county. If there is insufficient money in the 62020 general fund to make the payment, the treasurer shall pay the 62021 warrant out of any undivided manufactured or mobile home taxes 62022 subsequently received by the treasurer for distribution to the 62023 county or taxing district in the county that received the benefit 62024 of the overpaid taxes, in proportion to the benefits previously 62025 received, and the amount paid from the undivided funds shall be 62026 deducted from the money otherwise distributable to the county or 62027 taxing district in the county at the next or any succeeding 62028 distribution. At the next or any succeeding distribution after 62029 making the refund, the treasurer shall reimburse the general fund 62030 for any payment made from that fund by deducting the amount of 62031 that payment from the money distributable to the county or other 62032 taxing unit in the county that has received the benefit of the 62033 taxes, in proportion to the benefits previously received. ~~On the~~ 62034 ~~second Monday in September of each year, the~~ The county auditor 62035 shall certify the total amount of the reductions in taxes made in 62036 the current year under division (A)(3) of this section to the tax 62037 commissioner who shall treat that amount as a reduction in taxes 62038 for the current tax year and shall make reimbursement to the 62039 county of that amount in the manner prescribed in section 4503.068 62040 of the Revised Code, from moneys appropriated for that purpose. 62041

(B) If in any year for which an application for reduction in 62042 taxes has been approved the owner no longer qualifies for the 62043 reduction, the owner shall notify the county auditor that the 62044 owner is not qualified for a reduction in taxes. 62045

During ~~January~~ February of each year, the county auditor 62046 shall furnish each person whose application for reduction has been 62047 approved, by ordinary mail, a form on which to report any changes 62048 in total income, ownership, occupancy, disability, and other 62049 information earlier furnished the auditor relative to the 62050 application. The form shall be completed and returned to the 62051 auditor not later than the ~~first Monday in June~~ thirty-first day 62052 of December if the changes would affect the person's eligibility 62053 for the reduction. 62054

(C) No person shall knowingly make a false statement for the 62055 purpose of obtaining a reduction in taxes under section 4503.065 62056
of the Revised Code. 62057

(D) No person shall knowingly fail to notify the county 62058 auditor of any change required by division (B) of this section 62059 that has the effect of maintaining or securing a reduction in 62060 taxes under section 4503.065 of the Revised Code. 62061

(E) No person shall knowingly make a false statement or 62062 certification attesting to any person's physical or mental 62063 condition for purposes of qualifying such person for tax relief 62064 pursuant to sections 4503.064 to 4503.069 of the Revised Code. 62065

(F) Whoever violates division (C), (D), or (E) of this 62066 section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the fourth degree. 62067

Sec. 4503.08. (A) The weight of all motor vehicles, except 62068 those taxed under ~~section~~ sections 4503.042 and 4503.65 of the 62069 Revised Code, shall be the weight of the vehicle fully equipped as 62070 determined on a standard scale. The weight of any machinery 62071 mounted upon or affixed to a motor vehicle and not inherently 62072 motor vehicle equipment shall not be included in the determination 62073 of the total weight. 62074

(B) The horsepower of all vehicles propelled by internal 62075 combustion engines shall be computed upon the following formula: 62076 square the diameter of the cylinder measured in inches, multiply 62077 by the number of cylinders, and divide by two and one half. For 62078 all motor vehicles propelled by steam engines, the rating of the 62079 horsepower shall be based on the system of rating adopted by the 62080

United States government. 62081

(C) For all motor vehicles propelled by electricity, the 62082 rating of the horsepower shall be the normal horsepower of the 62083 electric motor therein, to be ascertained by the registrar of 62084 motor vehicles. 62085

Sec. 4503.10. (A) The owner of every snowmobile, off-highway 62086 motorcycle, and all-purpose vehicle required to be registered 62087 under section 4519.02 of the Revised Code shall file an 62088 application for registration under section 4519.03 of the Revised 62089 Code. The owner of a motor vehicle, other than a snowmobile, 62090 off-highway motorcycle, or all-purpose vehicle, that is not 62091 designed and constructed by the manufacturer for operation on a 62092 street or highway may not register it under this chapter except 62093 upon certification of inspection pursuant to section 4513.02 of 62094 the Revised Code by the sheriff, or the chief of police of the 62095 municipal corporation or township, with jurisdiction over the 62096 political subdivision in which the owner of the motor vehicle 62097 resides. Except as provided in section 4503.103 of the Revised 62098 Code, every owner of every other motor vehicle not previously 62099 described in this section and every person mentioned as owner in 62100 the last certificate of title of a motor vehicle that is operated 62101 or driven upon the public roads or highways shall cause to be 62102 filed each year, by mail or otherwise, in the office of the 62103 registrar of motor vehicles or a deputy registrar, a written or 62104 electronic application or a preprinted registration renewal notice 62105 issued under section 4503.102 of the Revised Code, the form of 62106 the following registration year, which shall begin on the first 62108 day of January of every calendar year and end on the thirty-first 62109 day of December in the same year. Applications for registration 62110 and registration renewal notices shall be filed at the times 62111 established by the registrar pursuant to section 4503.101 of the 62112

Revised Code. A motor vehicle owner also may elect to apply for or 62113 electronic signature in accordance with rules adopted by the 62115 registrar. Except as provided in division (J) of this section, 62116 the registrar for that purpose, containing the following 62118 county and township in which that place is located. 62134

(b) In case the vehicle is not so used, the district of 62135 this section, the registrar and each deputy registrar shall 62224 collect an additional fee of eleven dollars for each application 62225 registration and registration renewal received. No additional fee 62230 shall be charged for vehicles registered under section 4503.65 of 62231 the Revised Code. The additional fee is for the purpose of 62232 defraying the department of public safety's costs associated with 62233 the administration and enforcement of the motor vehicle and 62234 traffic laws of Ohio. Each deputy registrar shall transmit the 62235 fees collected under division (C)(1) of this section in the time 62236 for the prompt transmittal of fees and for safeguarding the 62293 interests of the state and of counties, townships, municipal 62294 banking facilities are not available, they shall transmit the fees 62299 forthwith, by money order or otherwise, as the registrar, by rule 62300 approved by the director and the treasurer of state, may 62301 prescribe. The registrar may pay the usual and customary fees for 62302 such service. 62303

(G) This section does not prevent any person from making an 62304 application for a motor vehicle license directly to the registrar 62305 by mail, by electronic means, or in person at any of the 62306

(2)(a) The registrar shall adopt rules ensuring that each 62326 owner registering a motor vehicle in a county where a motor 62327 vehicle inspection and maintenance program is in effect under 62328 section 3704.14 of the Revised Code and rules adopted under it 62329

(K) The registrar shall determine the feasibility of implementing an electronic commercial fleet licensing and management program that will enable the owners of commercial registrar determines that implementing such a program is feasible, 62367 the registrar shall adopt new rules under this division or amend 62368 existing rules adopted under this division as necessary in order 62369 to respond to advances in technology. 62370

If international registration plan guidelines and provisions 62371 allow member jurisdictions to permit applications for 62372 registrations under the international registration plan to be made 62373 division shall permit such action. 62375

Sec. 4503.101. (A) The registrar of motor vehicles shall 62376 adopt rules to establish a system of motor vehicle registration 62377 owned by motor vehicle renting dealers to a system of registration 62399 so that the registrations of approximately one-twelfth of all such 62400 vehicles expire on the last day of each month of a calendar year. 62401

To effect a reassignment from the registration period in effect on 62402
June 30, 2003, to the new registration periods established by the 62403 rules adopted under this section as amended, the rules may require 62404 the motor vehicle to be registered for more or less than a 62405 twelve-month period at the time the motor vehicle's registration 62406 is subject to its initial renewal following the effective date of 62407 such rules. If necessary to effect an efficient transition, the 62408 rules may provide that the registration reassignments take place 62409 over two consecutive registration periods. The registration taxes 62410 to be charged shall be determined by the registrar on the basis of 62411 the annual tax otherwise due on the motor vehicle, prorated in 62412 is registered, except that the fee established by division (C)(1) 62414 of section 4503.10 of the Revised Code shall be collected in full 62415 for each renewal that occurs during the transition period and 62416 shall not be prorated. 62417 owner to separate the owner's fleet into up to four divisions for 62421 assignment to separate dates upon which to register the vehicles, 62422 provided that the registrar may disapprove any such request 62423 whenever the registrar has reason to believe that an uneven 62424 distribution of registrations throughout the calendar year has 62425 developed or is likely to develop. 62426

(E) Every owner or lessee of a motor vehicle holding a 62427 certificate of registration shall notify the registrar of any 62428
