of any legislative agency who is required to file a financial 472 disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the Revised Code 473 shall solicit or accept an honorarium. This division and 474 divisions (A), (B), and (C) of Section 7 of this Code of Ethics 475 do not prohibit a member or employee who is required to file a 476 financial disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the 477 Revised Code from accepting the payment of actual travel 478 expenses, including any expenses incurred in connection with the 479 travel for lodging, and meals, food, and beverages provided to 480 the member or employee at a meeting at which the member or 481 employee participates in a panel, seminar, or speaking 482 engagement or provided to the member or employee at a meeting or 483 convention of a national organization to which either house of 484 the General Assembly, or any state agency, including, but not 485 limited to, any legislative agency or state institution of 486 higher education as defined in section 3345.011 of the Revised 487

Code, pays membership dues. This division and divisions (A), 488
(B), and (C) of Section 7 of this Code of Ethics do not prohibit 489 an employee of the General Assembly or employee of any 490 legislative agency who is not required to file a financial 491 disclosure statement under section 102.02 of the Revised Code 492 from accepting an honorarium or the payment of travel, meal, and 493 lodging expenses if the honorarium, expenses, or both were paid 494 in recognition of demonstrable business, professional, or 495 esthetic interests of the employee that exist apart from the 496 employee's public employment, including, but not limited to, 497 such a demonstrable interest in public speaking and were not 498 paid by any person or other entity, or by any representative or 499 association of such person or entities, that is regulated by, 500 doing business with, or seeking to do business with the General 501 Assembly or any legislative agency. 502

(B) No member of the General Assembly shall conduct a 503 public or private fund raising event that seeks to provide money 504 for the member's personal use. 505

(C) As used in this section, "honorarium" means any 506 payment made in consideration for any speech given, article 507 published, or attendance at any public or private conference, 508 convention, meeting, social event, meal, or similar gathering. 509
"Honorarium" does not include ceremonial gifts or awards that 510 have insignificant monetary value; unsolicited gifts of nominal 511 value or trivial items of informational value; or earned income 512 from any person, other than a legislative agent, for personal 513 services that are customarily provided in connection with the 514 practice of a bona fide business, if that business initially 515 began before the member or employee conducting that business was 516 elected or appointed to the member's or employee's office or 517 position of employment. 518

SECTION 11. IMPROPER INDUCEMENT 519

If any person attempts to induce a member or employee of 520 or candidate for the General Assembly or employee of any 521 legislative agency to violate any provision of this Code of 522 Ethics, the member, employee, or candidate shall report the 523 matter to the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee. 524

SECTION 12. ADVISORY BODY 525

(A) The Joint Legislative Ethics Committee may recommend 526 legislation relating to ethics, conflicts of interest, and 527 financial disclosure and, upon a vote of a majority of its 528 members, may render advisory opinions with regard to questions 529 concerning these matters for members and employees of and 530 candidates for the General Assembly and for employees of any 531 legislative agency. 532

(B) When the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee renders an 533 advisory opinion that has been publicly sought and that relates 534 to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflicts of 535
interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102. or section 536 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the person to whom the 537 opinion was directed or who was similarly situated may 538 reasonably rely upon such opinion and shall be immune from 539 criminal prosecutions, civil suits, or actions for removal from 540 the person's office or position of employment for a violation of 541
Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code 542 based on facts and circumstances covered by the opinion, if the 543 opinion states that there is no violation of Chapter 102. or 544 section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code. The committee 545 shall include in every advisory opinion it renders a statement 546 as to whether the set of circumstances described in the advisory 547 opinion constitutes a violation of section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of 548

the Revised Code. When the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee 549 renders an opinion that has been publicly sought, the advisory 550 opinion is a public record available under section 149.43 of the 551 Revised Code. 552

(C) When the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee renders a 553 written opinion that has been privately sought and that relates 554 to a special set of circumstances involving ethics, conflicts of 555
interest, or financial disclosure under Chapter 102. or section 556 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the written opinion does 557 not have the legal effect of an advisory opinion issued under 558 division (B) of this section. When the Joint Legislative Ethics 559 Committee renders a written opinion that has been privately 560 sought, the written opinion is not a public record available 561 under section 149.43 of the Revised Code. 562

The person to whom a written opinion is issued under this 563 division may request the committee to issue the written opinion 564 as an advisory opinion. The person may make the request at any 565 time within thirty days after the written opinion is issued and 566 prior to committing any proposed action discussed in the written 567 opinion. Upon receiving a timely request and with the approval 568 of a majority of the members of the committee, the committee may 569 issue the written opinion as an advisory opinion. If the 570 committee issues the written opinion as an advisory opinion, the 571 advisory opinion has the same legal effect as an advisory 572 opinion issued under division (B) of this section and is a 573 public record available under section 149.43 of the Revised 574 Code. If the person commits any proposed action discussed in the 575 written opinion before the committee issues the written opinion 576 as an advisory opinion, the advisory opinion grants no immunity 577 to the person regarding any action that is discussed in the 578 written opinion and that the person commits before the committee 579 issues the written opinion as an advisory opinion. 580

(D) The Joint Legislative Ethics Committee shall issue an 581 advisory opinion under division (B) of this section or a written 582 opinion under division (C) of this section, whether it is 583 publicly or privately sought, only at a meeting of the committee 584 and only with the approval of a majority of the members of the 585 committee. 586

(E) All requests for an opinion shall be submitted in 587 writing by the member or employee of or candidate for the 588 General Assembly or employee of any legislative agency who 589 desires the opinion and shall state in the request whether the 590 opinion is being publicly or privately sought. If the request 591 fails to state whether the opinion is being publicly or 592 privately sought, the committee shall consider the opinion to be 593 privately sought. The committee shall issue in writing all 594 advisory opinions that have been publicly sought, appropriately 595 number them, and make them available for public inspection. The 596 Joint Legislative Ethics Committee shall conduct all of its 597 proceedings surrounding the rendering of an opinion so as to 598 protect the confidentiality of those named in the request for 599
the opinion. 600

SECTION 13. CONSIDERATION AND HEARING OF COMPLAINTS 601

(A) (1) The Joint Legislative Ethics Committee shall 602 receive, and may initiate, complaints concerning breach of 603 privilege and complaints against members and employees of and 604 candidates for the General Assembly and employees of any 605 legislative agency concerning conduct alleged to be misconduct, 606 a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the 607 Revised Code, or this Code of Ethics. All complaints except 608 those by the committee shall be by affidavit made on personal 609 knowledge, subject to the penalties of perjury. A complaint by 610 the committee shall be by affidavit, based upon facts that 611 constitute reasonable cause to believe that a breach of 612 privilege, misconduct, or a violation of this Code of Ethics or 613

Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code 614
has occurred. The complaint shall not contain innuendo, 615 speculative assertions, or conclusory statements. 616

At the first meeting of the committee in each calendar 617 year, the chairperson of the committee for that year shall 618 appoint an investigation subcommittee. The subcommittee shall 619 consist of the chairperson of the committee for that year and a 620 member of the committee who is a member of the chamber and 621 political party of which the chairperson is not a member. This 622 subcommittee shall have the authority to issue subpoenas 623 regarding complaints referred to it and approve depositions by 624 the Office of the Legislative Inspector General. 625

(2) A complaint other than a complaint by the committee 626 shall be filed with the executive director of the Office of the 627 Legislative Inspector General of the Joint Legislative Ethics 628 Committee. Upon receiving the complaint, the executive director 629 or the executive director's designee shall gather, if necessary, 630 preliminary facts surrounding the complaint for presentation to 631 the chairperson or committee. Thereafter, the executive director 632 shall seal the complaint and deliver it to the chairperson of 633 the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee. A complaint by the 634 committee shall be drafted by the legal counsel of the Office of 635 the Legislative Inspector General, and, if at least eight 636 members of the committee approve the draft complaint, the draft 637 complaint shall be a complaint by the committee and shall be 638 filed with the Office of the Legislative Inspector General and 639 delivered to the chairperson of the committee. 640

Within fourteen days after the filing of a complaint by a complainant, the chairperson shall notify the complainant that the complaint has been filed with the committee, that all further proceedings of the committee are confidential, that the committee is required to dismiss the complaint if it is not disposed of within six months after the complaint is filed, and that, if a report dealing with the complaint has not been published in the House or Senate Journal, as appropriate, within that time, the complaint has been dismissed because no violation was found to have been committed by the accused person. Within fourteen days after the filing of any complaint, the chairperson shall deliver a copy of the complaint to the accused person and shall notify the accused person that the accused person may file, within twenty days after receiving the copy, a written response to the complaint with the executive director of the Office of the Legislative Inspector General and, if desired, may file in addition to the written response a request to appear personally before the committee to answer to the complaint. The executive director immediately shall seal the written response to the complaint, the request, or both and deliver the written response, the request, or both to the chairperson.

Within forty-five days after the filing of any complaint and at least twenty days after the chairperson has delivered a copy of the complaint to the accused person, the chairperson shall convene a meeting of the committee regarding the complaint. If at least eight members of the committee find that the complaint before the committee is not frivolous and that the facts alleged constitute on their face a breach of privilege, misconduct, a violation of this Code of Ethics, or a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the committee shall refer the complaint to the Office of the Legislative Inspector General for further investigation and 672 may delegate to the investigation subcommittee appointed 673 pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section the authority to 674 issue subpoenas regarding a given complaint or other matter. The 675 chairperson of the committee shall notify the accused of the 676 referral. Unless eight members of the committee find that the 677 complaint before the committee alleges facts that, on their 678 face, constitute a breach of privilege, misconduct, a violation 679 of this Code of Ethics, or a violation of Chapter 102. or 680 sections 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the committee 681 shall dismiss the complaint. 682

(B) The Office of the Legislative Inspector General shall 683 investigate each complaint referred to it by the committee and 684 shall investigate any other matters as directed by the 685 committee. The Office of the Legislative Inspector General may 686 request further information from the complainant, any person 687 presenting charges to the committee, the accused person if the 688 information sought is directly relevant to a complaint or 689 charges received by the committee pursuant to this section, and 690 any other person it believes may have information pertaining to 691 the complaint or other matter referred for investigation to the 692 Office of the Legislative Inspector General. It may request the 693 committee to issue a subpoena to obtain any necessary 694 information. Upon the approval of the investigation subcommittee 695 appointed pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section, the 696 Office of the Legislative Inspector General may depose any 697 person. Any person interviewed or deposed by the Office of the 698 Legislative Inspector General may be represented by an attorney. 699
The substance of any request for further information and the 700 information provided pursuant to any request are confidential. 701 Except as otherwise provided in this section, the person from 702 whom information is requested shall not divulge the substance of 703 the committee's request to any person other than the person's 704 attorney and shall not divulge the information provided in 705 response to the request to any person other than the person's 706 attorney and any person necessary to prepare the information for 707 delivery to the committee. Except as otherwise provided in this 708 section, no attorney or person who prepares information for 709 delivery to the committee shall divulge the substance of the 710 committee's request or the information provided in response to 711 the request. 712

Upon the completion of an investigation based on a 713 complaint referred to the Office of the Legislative Inspector 714
General, the executive director, or the executive director's 715 designee, shall present to the committee the executive 716 director's or designee's preliminary findings with respect to 717 the facts and evidence gathered regarding the complaint. Upon 718 receiving the preliminary findings, the committee, upon a vote 719 of at least eight members of the committee, may refer the 720 complaint back to the Office of the Legislative Inspector 721 General for further investigation, hold a hearing pursuant to 722 divisions (D) and (G) of this section, order remedial action 723 pursuant to division (D) of this section, or dismiss the 724 complaint. 725

Upon the completion of an investigation of any other 726 matter referred to the Office of the Legislative Inspector 727
General, the executive director or the executive director's 728
designee shall present to the committee the executive director's 729 or designee's preliminary findings with respect to the facts and 730 evidence gathered regarding the matter referred. Upon receiving 731 the preliminary findings, the committee, upon a vote of at least 732 eight members of the committee, may refer the matter back to the 733

Office of the Legislative Inspector General for further 734 investigation, request that a complaint be drafted by the legal 735 counsel of the Office of the Legislative Inspector General, 736 terminate the investigation, or hold a hearing pursuant to 737 division (E) of this section. 738

Before the fifth day of each month, the executive director 739 of the Office of the Legislative Inspector General shall make a 740 report, in writing, to the committee regarding the status of any 741 ongoing investigation that the committee referred to the Office 742 of the Legislative Inspector General. 743

(C) Before the committee takes any formal action against a 744 person who is the subject of an investigation based upon a 745 complaint filed with the committee, the committee shall consider 746 the complaint. 747

(D) The committee may defer action on a complaint against 748 members and employees of and candidates for the General Assembly 749 and employees of any legislative agency when the complaint 750 alleges conduct that at least eight members of the committee 751 find reason to believe is being reviewed by appropriate law 752 enforcement or regulatory authorities, or when at least eight 753 members of the committee determine that it is appropriate for 754 the conduct alleged in the complaint to be reviewed initially by 755 law enforcement or regulatory authorities. 756

(E) (1) If, in any case in which a complaint is filed with 757 the committee, at least eight members of the committee find that 758 the complaint is not frivolous and there is reasonable cause to 759 believe that the facts alleged in the complaint constitute a 760 breach of privilege, misconduct, or a violation of Chapter 102. 761 or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, or this Code 762 of Ethics, the committee shall hold a hearing. At the hearing, 763 the legal counsel of the Office of the Legislative Inspector 764 General shall present to the committee the case against the 765 accused person, introduce evidence, call witnesses, and cross- 766 examine witnesses. The chairperson of the committee shall make 767 all rulings regarding procedure and the admissibility of 768 evidence. The hearing and all related proceedings of the 769 committee are absolutely confidential as provided under this 770 Code of Ethics and section 102.06 of the Revised Code. No member 771 or employee of the committee, person who staffs or otherwise 772 serves the committee, witness, or other person shall divulge any 773 information about the hearing or related proceedings, except 774 that a witness and the complainant may consult with an attorney 775 before and after the hearing and any related proceeding, any 776 witness may be represented by an attorney while the witness is 777 being examined or cross-examined, the accused person may be 778 represented by an attorney at all stages of the proceedings, and 779 the attorney of the accused person may attend all hearings and 780 related proceedings of the committee. 781

(2) If, in any case in which a complaint is filed with the 782 committee, at least eight members of the committee find that the 783 complaint is frivolous or that there is no reasonable cause to 784 believe that the charge or complaint constitutes a breach of 785 privilege, misconduct, or a violation of Chapter 102. or section 786 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, or this Code of Ethics, 787 the committee shall dismiss the complaint and notify the accused 788 person in writing of the dismissal of the complaint. If the 789 committee so dismisses the complaint, the committee shall not 790 issue a report of its findings unless the accused person 791 requests a report. If the accused person requests a report, the 792 committee shall issue a report in accordance with division (F) 793
(2) of this section. 794

(3) If, in any case in which a complaint is filed with the committee, the committee finds by unanimous concurrence of its membership that there is reasonable cause to believe that the charges presented constitute a breach of privilege, misconduct, or a violation of this Code of Ethics but do not constitute a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code and also finds by unanimous concurrence of its membership that the breach of privilege, misconduct, or violation was in good faith and without wrongful intent and the person has taken or will take suitable remedial action, it may order the person to take any further remedial action it considers necessary and, upon satisfaction that any order it makes is complied with, terminate the investigation, with the concurrence of the accused person. If an investigation is so terminated, the committee shall not issue a report of its findings unless the accused person requests a report. If the accused person requests a report, the committee shall issue a report in accordance with division (F) (2) of this section. If the accused person fails to comply with an order of the committee, the committee, upon concurrence of at least eight of its members, shall proceed with the original complaint filed against the person.

(F) (1) If, upon the basis of the hearing, at least eight members of the committee find, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, that the facts alleged in the complaint are true and constitute a violation of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, the committee, upon concurrence of at least eight of its members, shall order the Office of the Legislative Inspector General to prepare a report of the committee's findings to the appropriate prosecuting authority or other appropriate body for proceedings in prosecution of the violations and, in accordance with division (F)(1) of this 826 section, issue a report to the General Assembly recommending 827 reprimand, censure, expulsion, or other sanction the committee 828 considers appropriate. Upon acceptance by at least eight members 829 of the committee of the report to the appropriate prosecuting 830 authority or other appropriate body, the committee shall report 831 its findings to the appropriate prosecuting authority, the 832 Elections Commission, or other appropriate body. This report is 833 the investigative report described in division (E) of section 834 101.34 of the Revised Code and shall contain any findings of 835 fact and conclusions of law made by the committee. This report 836 shall not contain any papers, records, affidavits, or documents 837 upon any complaint, inquiry, or investigation relating to the 838 proceedings of the committee. If at least eight members of the 839 committee find, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, that 840 the facts alleged in the complaint are true and constitute a 841 violation of division (B) of section 102.031 of the Revised 842 Code, the committee may impose a fine of not more than one 843 thousand dollars upon the member. 844

(2) If, upon the basis of the hearing, at least eight 845 members of the committee find, based upon a preponderance of the 846 evidence, that a breach of privilege has been committed or that 847 a member or employee of or candidate for the General Assembly or 848 employee of any legislative agency has violated a provision of 849 this Code of Ethics that is not a violation of Chapter 102. or 850 section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code, or has committed 851 misconduct, the committee, upon concurrence of at least eight of 852 its members and in accordance with division (F)(1) of this 853 section, may issue a report recommending reprimand, censure, 854 expulsion, or other sanction the committee considers appropriate 855 or, upon a finding by unanimous concurrence of its membership 856 that the breach of privilege, misconduct, or violation was in 857 good faith and without wrongful intent and the person has taken 858 or will take suitable remedial action, may order the person to 859 take any further remedial action it considers necessary and, 860 upon satisfaction that any order it makes is complied with, 861 dismiss the complaint without issuing a report of its findings, 862 unless the accused person requests a report. If the accused 863 person requests a report, the committee shall issue a report in 864 accordance with division (F) (2) of this section. If the person 865 fails to comply with an order of the committee, the committee, 866 upon concurrence of eight of its members, shall recommend some 867 sanction. 868

(3) If, upon the basis of the hearing, at least eight 869 members of the committee do not find, based upon a preponderance 870 of the evidence, that the facts alleged in a complaint 871 constitute a breach of privilege, misconduct, or a violation of 872 Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code 873
or this Code of Ethics, the committee shall dismiss the 874 complaint. The complaint shall also be dismissed if the 875 committee has not conducted a hearing within ninety days after 876 the complaint is filed with the committee, or if the committee 877 has not finally disposed of the complaint within six months 878 after the complaint is filed with the committee. The committee 879 shall notify the accused person in writing of the dismissal of 880 the complaint. The committee shall not issue a report of its 881 findings unless the accused person requests a report. If the 882 accused person requests a report, the committee shall issue a 883 report in accordance with division (F) (2) of this section. If 884 the committee issues the report, all evidence and the record of 885 the hearing shall remain confidential unless the accused person 886 also requests that the evidence and record be made public. Upon 887 request by the accused person, the committee shall make the 888 evidence and the record available for public inspection. 889

(G) (1) Any report of the committee that is issued pursuant 890 to division (E) (1) of this section and contains a finding that 891 the facts in the complaint are true and constitute a violation 892 of Chapter 102. or section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised 893 Code, or that is issued pursuant to division (E) (2) of this 894 section and contains a finding that a breach of privilege, 895 misconduct, or violation of this Code of Ethics has occurred and 896 recommends reprimand, censure, expulsion, or another appropriate 897 sanction, shall be entered in the House Journal and the Senate 898 Journal. The House of Representatives and the Senate shall vote 899 on approval of any report entered in the House or Senate Journal 900 in accordance with this division. Concurrence of two-thirds of 901 the members of both the House and the Senate shall be necessary 902 for approval of the report, and, upon approval, any recommended 903 sanction shall be imposed immediately. 904

(2) If the investigation of the committee results in a 905 finding that a complaint that is filed is frivolous or that no 906 misconduct, breach of privilege, or violation of Chapter 102. or 907 section 2921.42 or 2921.43 of the Revised Code or this Code of 908 Ethics has been committed or if the committee terminates an 909 investigation or dismisses a complaint pursuant to division (E) 910
(2) or (3) of this section, the committee shall not issue a 911 report of its findings unless the accused person requests a 912 report. If the accused person requests a report, the committee 913 shall issue a report and publish it in the House Journal, if the 914 accused person is a member or employee of, or candidate for, the 915 House of Representatives, or the Senate Journal, if the accused 916 person is a member or employee of, or candidate for, the Senate 917 or an employee of any legislative agency. A report published in 918 the House or Senate Journal under division (F) (2) of this 919 section does not require a vote by the House or Senate. 920

(H) A person against whom a complaint is filed shall be 921 given by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by 922 personal service reasonable notice of the date, time, and place 923 of the hearing and a statement of the charges and the law or 924 provision directly involved, and shall be granted the following 925 rights: to be represented by counsel, to have counsel appointed 926 for the person if the person is unable to afford counsel without 927 undue hardship, to examine the evidence against the person, to 928 have access to all information relative to the complaint that is 929 in the possession or knowledge of the committee or the Office of 930 the Legislative Inspector General, to produce evidence and to 931 call and subpoena witnesses in the person's defense, to confront 932 the person's accusers, to cross-examine witnesses, to have a 933 stenographic record made of the hearing, to have the hearing 934 follow the rules of evidence applicable to the courts of this 935 state, and to have the hearing closed to the public. A person, 936 with the approval of the committee, may waive any or all of such 937 rights by executing a written waiver and filing it with the 938
committee. 939

(I) The chairperson of the committee and the executive 940 director and chief legal counsel of the Office of the 941 Legislative Inspector General may administer oaths, and the 942 committee or the investigation subcommittee appointed pursuant 943 to division (A) (1) of this section may issue subpoenas to any 944 person in the state compelling the attendance of witnesses and 945 the production of relevant papers, books, accounts, and records. 946
The committee or the investigation subcommittee shall issue 947 subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the 948 production of documents upon the request of an accused person. 949

Section 101.42 of the Revised Code shall govern the issuance of 950 such subpoenas insofar as applicable. Upon the refusal of any 951 person to obey a subpoena, be sworn, or answer as a witness, the 952
