2017-2018

S. B. No. 343

Senator Williams

A BILL

To amend sections 959.133 and 2151.88 of the Revised Code to grant a person immunity from prosecution for any damage resulting from the forcible entry of a motor vehicle for the purpose of removing a minor or an animal from the vehicle because the minor or animal is in imminent danger of suffering harm.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 959.133 and 2151.88 of the Revised Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 959.133. (A) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, a person shall be immune from civil or criminal liability for any damage resulting from the forcible entry of a motor vehicle for the purpose of removing an animal from the vehicle if the person does all of the following:

(1) Determines the vehicle is locked or there is otherwise no reasonable method for the animal to exit the vehicle.

(2) Has a good faith belief that forcible entry into the vehicle is necessary because the animal is in imminent danger of suffering harm if not immediately removed from the vehicle and,

based upon the circumstances known to the person at the time, 20
the belief is a reasonable one. 21

(3) Has made a good faith effort to contact the local law 22 enforcement agency, the fire department, or a 9-1-1 operator 23 prior to forcibly entering the vehicle. If contact is not 24 possible prior to forcibly entering the vehicle, the person 25 shall make contact as soon as possible after forcibly entering 26
the vehicle. 27

(4) Makes a good faith effort to place a notice on the 28
vehicle's windshield with the person's contact information, the 29 reason the entry was made, the location of the animal, and the 30 fact that the authorities have been notified. 31

(5) Remains with the animal in a safe location until law 32 enforcement or emergency responders arrive. 33

(6) Used not more force to enter the vehicle and remove 34 the animal from the vehicle than was necessary under the 35
circumstances. 36

(B) Nothing in this section shall affect the person's 37
civil or criminal liability if the person attempts to render aid 38 to the animal in addition to what is authorized by this section. 39

(C) A person shall not be immune from civil liability or 40 criminal prosecution for any damage resulting from the forcible 41 entry of a motor vehicle for the purpose of removing an animal 42 from the vehicle if the person's actions constitute recklessness 43 or willful or wanton misconduct with regard to the forcible 44
entry of the motor vehicle. 45

(D) As used in this section, "harm" means injury or death. 46

Sec. 2151.88. (A) Except as provided in division (C) of 47

this section, a person shall be immune from civil or criminal 48
liability for any damage resulting from the forcible entry of a 49 motor vehicle for the purpose of removing a minor from the 50 vehicle if the person does all of the following: 51

(1) Determines the vehicle is locked or there is otherwise 52
no reasonable method for the minor to exit the vehicle. 53

(2) Has a good faith belief that forcible entry into the 54 vehicle is necessary because the minor is in imminent danger of 55 suffering harm if not immediately removed from the vehicle and, 56 based upon the circumstances known to the person at the time, 57
the belief is a reasonable one. 58

(3) Has made a good faith effort to contact the local law 59 enforcement agency, the fire department, or a 9-1-1 operator 60
prior to forcibly entering the vehicle. If contact is not 61 possible prior to forcibly entering the vehicle, the person 62
shall make contact as soon as possible after forcibly entering 63
the vehicle. 64

(4) Makes a good faith effort to place a notice on the 65
vehicle's windshield with the person's contact information, the 66 reason the entry was made, the location of the minor, and the 67
fact that the authorities have been notified. 68

(5) Remains with the minor in a safe location until law 69
enforcement or emergency responders arrive. 70

(6) Used not more force to enter the vehicle and remove 71
the minor from the vehicle than was necessary under the 72
circumstances. 73

(B) Nothing in this section shall affect the person's 74
civil or criminal liability if the person attempts to render aid 75 to the minor in addition to what is authorized by this section. 76

(C) A person shall not be immune from civil liability or 77
criminal prosecution for any damage resulting from the forcible 78 entry of a motor vehicle for the purpose of removing a minor 79
from the vehicle if the person's actions constitute recklessness 80 or willful or wanton misconduct with regard to the forcible 81
entry of the motor vehicle. 82

(D) As used in this section, "harm" means injury or death. 83

Section 2. That existing sections 959.133 and 2151.88 of 84 the Revised Code are hereby repealed. 85
