certainly in order. Since its inception two hundred years ago, the 6 Village of Wellington has been made up of citizens who are not 7 afraid of change but who welcome it. Without sacrificing their 8 businesses, and civic organizations both embody and thrive upon 16 the values of which our flag is an emblem. A vigorous commitment 17 to public service and an earnest devotion to lofty ideals have 18 vigilance, industriousness, and generosity have come to typify 20 their collective character; and 21 communities as Wellington for its own survival and stability. 23 Although it has known adversity and tribulation, it also has been 24 favored with its share of blessings. Under the guidance of an 25 administration that is distinguished by impeccable integrity, 26 sound judgment, and an expansive, purposeful vision, the village 27 is sure to remain on its admirable course and to continue to 28 transform challenges into opportunities; therefore be it 29
