

The Montgomery County Auditor's November 2019 report revealed that several of our public school districts will lose hundreds of thousands of dollars in revenue in 2020 resulting from the Memorial Day tornadoes' property destruction. Here is a list of how much money the schools lost, published in an article by the Dayton Daily News on November 18, 2019:

SCHOOLS	Applications received	Total reduction in taxable value	Tax revenue loss
Trotwood-Madison City Schools	394	-$16,773,000	-$320,000
Dayton Public Schools	374	-$10,635,000	-$248,000
Northridge Local Schools	236	-$5,625,000	-$121,000
Brookville Local Schools	134	-$4,409,000	-$63,000
Vandalia Bulter City Schools	59	-$3,822,000	-$61,000
Northmont City Schools	52	-$3,741,000	-$72,000
Mad River Local Schools	13	-$1,145,000	-$23,000