Adam Shank is the Executive Director of the Ohio Alliance of Boys & Girls Clubs. Prior to leading Clubs' statewide efforts, Mr. Shank served as the Director of Strategic Planning & Transformation for the Dublin City Schools, overseeing the district's operational excellence programming. In his current role, Mr. Shank is responsible for leading Clubs in Ohio through a strategic shift to grow organizational capacity and, more importantly, extend the impact Clubs have to all Ohio's youth.

Mr. Shank holds a B.A. in Politics & Government from Ohio Wesleyan University, a Juris Doctorate from the Franklin Thomas Backus School of Law at Case Western Reserve University, and a Master's Degree in Business Operational Excellence from the Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University.

Mr. Shank is also a licensed attorney and active contributor to the Association of Corporate Counsel, a national non-profit organization aimed at advancing the corporate legal profession. As the Past-President of the Central Ohio Chapter Mr. Shank worked closely with local and national contacts to grow and advance the offerings for members in the area.

In addition to his work in the non-profit, education and legal sectors, Mr. Shank routinely advises a wide array of organizations from the private, public, and nonprofit sectors on change management, strategic planning and deployment, strategic partnerships and development, leadership and team effectiveness, process improvement and whole-systems impact. He is an ardent believer in the mission of the Boys & Girls Clubs to ensure that all children, especially those that need us the most, can reach their full potential as responsible, caring, and productive citizens.

As a statewide non-profit leader focused on out-of-school educational and developmental programs for youth in some of our state's most underserved areas, Mr. Shank would provide a critical voice as a member of the Council.
