

Since there are already rules dealing with trespassing or blocking commerce, the only purpose for this bill is to stifle free speech and to intimidate those who are watching out for their community. If a commercial interest is legitimate, ie. if that interest is to serve the public, it should be able to deal with dissent without this draconian law. The state should not have to defend these unconstitutional attempts to stifle dissent just to please someone's political contributors.

Entered 4/1/19 by
Marjorie Shew
3915 S. Elliott Rd.
Stockport, Ohio 43787
740 557-3032