Robb Mitchell

Robb Mitchell is originally from Lima Ohio, a 1983 graduate of Lima Sr. High School where he played football. He went on to play football for Wilmington College before graduating from Bowling Green State University in 1988. Robb now lives in Dublin Ohio an avid sports and car enthusiast Robb's passion for cars has lead to many friends in the automotive industry.

Shortly after graduation from Bowling Green Robb started Mitchell Insurance Agency Inc. with his own auto policy. Mitchell Insurance Agency is now a highly regarded agency in central Ohio. With 5 locations serving over 25,000 policies Mitchell Insurance Agency and its 35 employees have received more outstanding agent awards than any other Erie insurance Agency in Ohio over the past 26 years. For more information on Mitchell Insurance please visit our web site www.insurance-mitchell.com

Robb has served on the Agents Advisory board for Grange Insurance located in Columbus Ohio as well as the personal lines task force for the Erie Insurance Group in Erie Pa. Robb has also served in the role of President of the Buckeye Coffee House which is the largest group of independent agents representing the Erie in central Ohio.

Personally Robb and his wife Sue have two children, Corey a graduate of the University of Dayton and Colin a graduate of the University of Cincinnati. Both work for Mitchell Insurance. Robb and his wife Sue work extremely hard raising money for the Cure Tay-Sachs foundation and the JR Memorial / Buckeye Cruise for Cancer research. Robb's niece Dakota Bihn lost her fight with Tay-Sachs in April of 2014, and in December of 2018 Robb was diagnosed with Melanoma cancer.
