an extension of the time within which that peace officer or 97 trooper must complete the required minimum number of hours of 98 continuing professional training set by the commission. An 99 extension granted under this division may be for any period of 100 time the executive director believes to be appropriate, and the 101 executive director shall specify in the notice granting the 102 extension the date on which the extension ends. Not later than 103 thirty days after the date on which a request is submitted to 104 the commission, for each peace officer and trooper for whom an 105 an appointing authority must complete the required minimum 113 number of hours of continuing professional training set by the 114 commission, the appointing authority shall require that peace 115 officer or trooper to complete the required minimum number of 116 hours of training not later than the date on which the extension 117

that surround the making of the statement and that render the 197 declarant particularly worthy of belief. 198

(2) There is no evidence that the unavailability of the 199
declarant was caused by, aided by, solicited by, or procured on 200 behalf of, the party who is offering the statement. 201

and the particulars of the statement sufficiently in advance of 237
the proceedings in order to provide the adverse party with a 238 fair opportunity to prepare to meet the statement. 239

(E) If the plaintiff intends to offer a statement pursuant 240 to division (A) or (B) of this section, the plaintiff shall 241 serve a written notice upon the defendant at least ten days 242 prior to the hearing or trial at which the plaintiff intends to 243 offer the statement, unless the plaintiff shows good cause for 244 the failure to provide that notice. In the event that good cause 245 is shown, the defendant shall be entitled to a reasonable 246 continuance of the hearing or trial. 247

(F) If a statement is offered under division (A) or (B) of 248
this section during trial, the court's determination as to the 249 availability of the victim as a witness shall be made out of the 250 presence of the jury. If the defendant elects to testify at the 251 domestic violence if the statement is offered against a party 272 that has engaged, or aided and abetted, in wrongdoing that was 273 intended to, and did, procure the unavailability of the 274 declarant as a witness. 275

(2) (a) The party seeking to introduce a statement under 276 division (A) (1) of this section must establish, by a 277
preponderance of the evidence, that the elements of division (A) 278
(1) of this section have been met at a preliminary hearing. 279

(b) The hearsay evidence that is the subject of the 280
preliminary hearing is admissible at the preliminary hearing. 281

However, a finding that the elements of division (A) of this 282 section have been met shall not be based solely on a hearsay 283
statement of the unavailable declarant that was not subject to 284 confrontation, and shall be supported by independent 285
corroborative evidence. 286

presence of the jury. However, if the hearing is conducted after 288 a jury trial has begun, the judge presiding at the hearing may 289 consider evidence already presented to the jury in deciding 290 whether the elements of division (A) (1) of this section have 291 been met. 292

(d) In deciding whether or not to admit the statement, the 293 judge may take into account whether it is trustworthy and 294 reliable. 295

section, in a civil action to recover damages based on an injury 297 to person or property based on a criminal act of domestic 298 of domestic violence is not inadmissible character evidence if 300 it is not otherwise inadmissible under Evidence Rule 403. 301

(C) In an action in which evidence is to be offered under 302 division (B) of this section, the plaintiff must disclose the 303 evidence to the defendant, including statements of witnesses or 304 a summary of the substance of any testimony that is expected to 305 be offered, in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, as 306 applicable. 307

construed to limit or preclude the admission or consideration of 309 evidence under any other law. 310

"domestic violence" has the same meaning as in section 3113.31 312

a minimum term of thirty years and a maximum term of life 902 imprisonment. 903

Sec. 2929.04. (A) Imposition of the death penalty for 904 aggravated murder is precluded unless one or more of the 905 proved beyond a reasonable doubt: 908

(1) The offense was the assassination of the president of 909

Revised Code, except that detention does not include 929 hospitalization, institutionalization, or confinement in a 930 mental health facility or intellectual disabilities facility 931 unless at the time of the commission of the offense either of 932 the following circumstances apply: 933

(a) The offender was in the facility as a result of being charged with a violation of a section of the Revised Code.	934 935
(b) The offender was under detention as a result of being convicted of or pleading guilty to a violation of a section of the Revised Code.	936 937 938
(5) Prior to the offense at bar, the offender was convicted of an offense an essential element of which was the purposeful killing of or attempt to kill another, or the offense at bar was part of a course of conduct involving the purposeful killing of or attempt to kill two or more persons by the offender.	939 940 941 942 943 944
(6) The victim of the offense was a law enforcement officer, as defined in section 2911.01 of the Revised Code, whom the offender had reasonable cause to know or knew to be a law enforcement officer as so defined, and either the victim, at the time of the commission of the offense, was engaged in the victim's duties, or it was the offender's specific purpose to kill a law enforcement officer as so defined.	945 946 947 948 949 950 951
(7) The offense was committed while the offender was committing, attempting to commit, or fleeing immediately after committing or attempting to commit kidnapping, rape, aggravated arson, aggravated robbery, or aggravated burglary, and either the offender was the principal offender in the commission of the aggravated murder or, if not the principal offender, committed the aggravated murder with prior calculation and design.	952 953 954 955 956 957 958
(8) The victim of the aggravated murder was a witness to an offense who was purposely killed to prevent the victim's testimony in any criminal proceeding and the aggravated murder was not committed during the commission, attempted commission,	959 960 961 962

or flight immediately after the commission or attempted 963 commission of the offense to which the victim was a witness, or 964 the victim of the aggravated murder was a witness to an offense 965 and was purposely killed in retaliation for the victim's 966 testimony in any criminal proceeding. 967

(9) The offender, in the commission of the offense, 968 purposefully caused the death of another who was under thirteen 969 years of age at the time of the commission of the offense, and 970 either the offender was the principal offender in the commission 971 of the offense or, if not the principal offender, committed the 972 offense with prior calculation and design. 973

(10) The offense was committed while the offender was 974 committing, attempting to commit, or fleeing immediately after 975 committing or attempting to commit terrorism. 976

(11) The victim of the offense was a family or household 977

a family or household member. 980

(B) If one or more of the aggravating circumstances listed 981 in division (A) of this section is specified in the indictment 982 or count in the indictment and proved beyond a reasonable doubt, 983 and if the offender did not raise the matter of age pursuant to 984 section 2929.023 of the Revised Code or if the offender, after 985 raising the matter of age, was found at trial to have been 986 eighteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of 987 the offense, the court, trial jury, or panel of three judges 988 shall consider, and weigh against the aggravating circumstances 989 proved beyond a reasonable doubt, the nature and circumstances 990 of the offense, the history, character, and background of the 991 offender, and all of the following factors: 992

(1) Whether the victim of the offense induced or facilitated it;	993 994

(4) The youth of the offender;	1003
(5) The offender's lack of a significant history of prior criminal convictions and delinquency adjudications;	1004 1005
(6) If the offender was a participant in the offense but not the principal offender, the degree of the offender's participation in the offense and the degree of the offender's participation in the acts that led to the death of the victim;	1006 1007 1008 1009
(7) Any other factors that are relevant to the issue of whether the offender should be sentenced to death.	1010 1011
(C) The defendant shall be given great latitude in the presentation of evidence of the factors listed in division (B) of this section and of any other factors in mitigation of the imposition of the sentence of death.	1012 1013 1014 1015
The existence of any of the mitigating factors listed in division (B) of this section does not preclude the imposition of a sentence of death on the offender but shall be weighed pursuant to divisions (D) (2) and (3) of section 2929.03 of the Revised Code by the trial court, trial jury, or the panel of	1016 1017 1018 1019 1020

three judges against the aggravating circumstances the offender 1021 was found guilty of committing. 1022

(D) As used in this section, "family or household member" 1023 has the same meaning as in section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 1024

Sec. 2935.032. (A) Not later than ninety days after ~~the~~ 1025 ~~effective date of this amendment~~ October 21, 1997, each agency, 1026 instrumentality, or political subdivision that is served by any 1027 peace officer described in division ~~(B) (1)~~ (A) of section 1028 2935.03 of the Revised Code shall adopt, in accordance with 1029 division (E) of this section, written policies, written 1030 procedures implementing the policies, and other written 1031 procedures for the peace officers who serve it to follow in 1032 implementing division (B) (3) of section 2935.03 of the Revised 1033 Code and for their appropriate response to each report of an 1034 alleged incident of the offense of domestic violence or an 1035 alleged incident of the offense of violating a protection order. 1036
The policies and procedures shall conform to and be consistent 1037 with the provisions of divisions (B) (1) and (B) (3) of section 1038 2935.03 of the Revised Code and divisions (B) to (D) of this 1039 section. Each policy adopted under this division shall include, 1040 but not be limited to, all of the following: 1041

(1) Provisions specifying that, if a peace officer who 1042 serves the agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision 1043 responds to an alleged incident of the offense of domestic 1044 violence, an alleged incident of the offense of violating a 1045 protection order, or an alleged incident of any other offense, 1046 both of the following apply: 1047

(a) If the officer determines that there are reasonable 1048 grounds to believe that a person knowingly caused serious 1049 physical harm to another or to another's unborn or knowingly 1050 caused or attempted to cause physical harm to another or to 1051 another's unborn by means of a deadly weapon or dangerous 1052 ordnance, then, regardless of whether the victim of the offense 1053 was a family or household member of the offender, the officer 1054 shall treat the incident as felonious assault, shall consider 1055 the offender to have committed and the victim to have been the 1056 victim of felonious assault, shall consider the offense that was 1057 committed to have been felonious assault in determining the 1058 manner in which the offender should be treated, and shall comply 1059 with whichever of the following is applicable: 1060

(i) Unless the officer has reasonable cause to believe 1061
that, during the incident, the offender who committed the 1062
felonious assault and one or more other persons committed 1063 offenses against each other, the officer shall arrest the 1064 offender who committed the felonious assault pursuant to section 1065 2935.03 of the Revised Code and shall detain that offender 1066 pursuant to that section until a warrant can be obtained, and 1067 the arrest shall be for felonious assault. 1068

(ii) If the officer has reasonable cause to believe that, 1069 during the incident, the offender who committed the felonious 1070 assault and one or more other persons committed offenses against 1071
each other, the officer shall determine in accordance with 1072 division (B) (3) (d) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code which 1073
of those persons is the primary physical aggressor. If the 1074 offender who committed the felonious assault is the primary 1075 physical aggressor, the officer shall arrest that offender for 1076 felonious assault pursuant to section 2935.03 of the Revised 1077
Code and shall detain that offender pursuant to that section 1078
until a warrant can be obtained, and the officer is not required 1079 to arrest but may arrest pursuant to section 2935.03 of the 1080 Revised Code any other person who committed an offense but who 1081

is not the primary physical aggressor. If the offender who 1082 committed the felonious assault is not the primary physical 1083 aggressor, the officer is not required to arrest that offender 1084 or any other person who committed an offense during the incident 1085 but may arrest any of them pursuant to section 2935.03 of the 1086 Revised Code and detain them pursuant to that section until a 1087
warrant can be obtained. 1088

(b) If the officer determines that there are reasonable 1089 grounds to believe that a person, while under the influence of 1090 sudden passion or in a sudden fit of rage, either of which is 1091 brought on by serious provocation occasioned by the victim that 1092 is reasonably sufficient to incite the person into using deadly 1093 force, knowingly caused serious physical harm to another or to 1094 another's unborn or knowingly caused or attempted to cause 1095 physical harm to another or to another's unborn by means of a 1096 deadly weapon or dangerous ordnance, then, regardless of whether 1097 the victim of the offense was a family or household member of 1098 the offender, the officer shall treat the incident as aggravated 1099 assault, shall consider the offender to have committed and the 1100 victim to have been the victim of aggravated assault, shall 1101 consider the offense that was committed to have been aggravated 1102 assault in determining the manner in which the offender should 1103 be treated, and shall comply with whichever of the following is 1104 applicable: 1105

(i) Unless the officer has reasonable cause to believe 1106
that, during the incident, the offender who committed the 1107 aggravated assault and one or more other persons committed 1108 offenses against each other, the officer shall arrest the 1109 offender who committed the aggravated assault pursuant to 1110 section 2935.03 of the Revised Code and shall detain that 1111 offender pursuant to that section until a warrant can be 1112 obtained, and the arrest shall be for aggravated assault. 1113

(ii) If the officer has reasonable cause to believe that, 1114
during the incident, the offender who committed the aggravated 1115
each other, the officer shall determine in accordance with 1117
division (B) (3) (d) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code which 1118
of those persons is the primary physical aggressor. If the 1119 offender who committed the aggravated assault is the primary 1120
physical aggressor, the officer shall arrest that offender for 1121 aggravated assault pursuant to section 2935.03 of the Revised 1122
Code and shall detain that offender pursuant to that section 1123
until a warrant can be obtained, and the officer is not required 1124
to arrest but may arrest pursuant to section 2935.03 of the 1125
Revised Code any other person who committed an offense but who 1126
is not the primary physical aggressor. If the offender who 1127 committed the aggravated assault is not the primary physical 1128 aggressor, the officer is not required to arrest that offender 1129
or any other person who committed an offense during the incident 1130
but may arrest any of them pursuant to section 2935.03 of the 1131
warrant can be obtained. 1133

(2) Provisions requiring the peace officers who serve the 1134 agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision to do all of 1135 the following: 1136

(a) Respond without undue delay to a report of an alleged 1137 incident of the offense of domestic violence or the offense of 1138 violating a protection order; 1139

(b) If the alleged offender has been granted pretrial 1140 release from custody on a prior charge of the offense of 1141 domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection order 1142 and has violated one or more conditions of that pretrial 1143 release, document the facts and circumstances of the violation 1144 in the report to the law enforcement agency that the peace 1145 officer makes pursuant to division (D) of this section; 1146

(c) Separate the victim of the offense of domestic 1147 violence or the offense of violating a protection order and the 1148 alleged offender, conduct separate interviews with the victim 1149 and the alleged offender in separate locations, and take a 1150 written statement from the victim that indicates the frequency 1151 and severity of any prior incidents of physical abuse of the 1152 victim by the alleged offender, the number of times the victim 1153 has called peace officers for assistance, and the disposition of 1154 those calls, if known; 1155

(d) Comply with divisions (B)(1) and (B)(3) of section 1156 2935.03 of the Revised Code and with divisions (B), (C), and (D) 1157
of this section; 1158

(e) Screen the victim of the offense of domestic violence 1159 or the offense of violating a protection order using an 1160 evidence-based lethality assessment screening tool adopted under 1161 section 2935.033 of the Revised Code to determine if the case 1162 should be referred to the domestic violence high risk team that 1163
serves the agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision. 1164

(3) Sanctions to be imposed upon a peace officer who 1165 serves the agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision and 1166 who fails to comply with any provision in the policy or with 1167 division (B)(1) or (B)(3) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code 1168 or division (B), (C), or (D) of this section. 1169

(4) Examples of reasons that a peace officer may consider 1170 for not arresting and detaining until a warrant can be obtained 1171

a person who allegedly committed the offense of domestic 1172 violence or the offense of violating a protection order when it 1173 is the preferred course of action in this state that the officer 1174 arrest the alleged offender, as described in division (B) (3) (b) 1175 of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code. 1176

(B) (1) Nothing in this section or in division (B) (1) or 1177
(B) (3) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code precludes an 1178 agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision that is served 1179 by any peace officer described in division ~~(B) (1)~~ (A) of section 1180 2935.03 of the Revised Code from including in the policy it 1181 adopts under division (A) of this section either of the 1182 following types of provisions: 1183

(a) A provision that requires the peace officers who serve 1184 it, if they have reasonable grounds to believe that the offense 1185 of domestic violence or the offense of violating a protection 1186 order has been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction 1187 of the agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision and 1188 reasonable cause to believe that a particular person committed 1189 the offense, to arrest the alleged offender; 1190

(b) A provision that does not require the peace officers 1191 who serve it, if they have reasonable grounds to believe that 1192 the offense of domestic violence or the offense of violating a 1193 protection order has been committed within the limits of the 1194 jurisdiction of the agency, instrumentality, or political 1195 subdivision and reasonable cause to believe that a particular 1196 person committed the offense, to arrest the alleged offender, 1197 but that grants the officers less discretion in those 1198 circumstances in deciding whether to arrest the alleged offender 1199 than peace officers are granted by divisions (B) (1) and (B) (3) 1200

(2) If an agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision that is served by any peace officer described in division ~~(B) (1)~~ (A) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code includes in the policy it adopts under division (A) of this section a provision of the type described in division (B) (1) (a) or (b) of this section, the peace officers who serve the agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision shall comply with the provision in making arrests authorized under division (B) (1) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code.

(C) When a peace officer described in division ~~(B) (1)~~ (A) of section 2935.03 of the Revised Code investigates a report of an alleged incident of the offense of domestic violence or an alleged incident of the offense of violating a protection order, the officer shall do all of the following:

(1) Complete a domestic violence report in accordance with division (D) of this section;

(2) Advise the victim of the availability of a temporary protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code or a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to section 3113.31 of the Revised Code;

(3) Give the victim the officer's name, the officer's badge number if the officer has a badge and the badge has a number, the report number for the incident if a report number is available at the time of the officer's investigation, a telephone number that the victim can call for information about the case, the telephone number of a domestic violence shelter in the area, and information on any local victim advocate program.

(D) A peace officer who investigates a report of an alleged incident of the offense of domestic violence or an

shall make a written report of the incident whether or not an 1232 arrest is made. The report shall document the officer's 1233 observations of the victim and the alleged offender, any visible 1234 injuries of the victim or alleged offender, any weapons at the 1235 scene, the actions of the alleged offender, any statements made 1236 by the victim or witnesses, and any other significant facts or 1237 circumstances. If the officer does not arrest and detain until a 1238 warrant can be obtained a person who allegedly committed the 1239 offense of domestic violence or the offense of violating a 1240 protection order when it is the preferred course of action in 1241 this state pursuant to division (B) (3) (b) of section 2935.03 of 1242 the Revised Code that the alleged offender be arrested, the 1243 officer must articulate in the report a clear statement of the 1244 officer's reasons for not arresting and detaining that alleged 1245 offender until a warrant can be obtained. The officer shall 1246 submit the written report to the law enforcement agency to which 1247 the officer has been appointed, employed, or elected. 1248

(E) Each agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision 1249 that is required to adopt policies and procedures under division 1250
(A) of this section shall adopt those policies and procedures in 1251 conjunction and consultation with shelters in the community for 1252 victims of domestic violence and private organizations, law 1253 enforcement agencies, and other public agencies in the community 1254 that have expertise in the recognition and handling of domestic 1255 violence cases. 1256

(F) To the extent described in and in accordance with 1257 section 9.86 or 2744.03 of the Revised Code, a peace officer who 1258 arrests an offender for the offense of violating a protection 1259 order with respect to a protection order or consent agreement of 1260 this state or another state that on its face is valid is immune 1261 from liability in a civil action for damages for injury, death, 1262 or loss to person or property that allegedly was caused by or 1263 related to the arrest. 1264

(G) Each agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision 1265 described in division (A) of this section that arrests an 1266 offender for an alleged incident of the offense of domestic 1267 violence or an alleged incident of the offense of violating a 1268 protection order shall consider referring the case to federal 1269 authorities for prosecution under 18 U.S.C. 2261 if the incident 1270 constitutes a violation of federal law. 1271

(H) As used in this section: 1272

(1) "Another's unborn" has the same meaning as in section 1273
2903.09 of the Revised Code. 1274

(2) "Dangerous ordnance" and "deadly weapon" have the same 1275 meanings as in section 2923.11 of the Revised Code. 1276

(3) "The offense of violating a protection order" includes 1277 the former offense of violating a protection order or consent 1278 agreement or anti-stalking protection order as set forth in 1279 section 2919.27 of the Revised Code as it existed prior to ~~the~~ 1280

Sec. 2935.033. (A) As used in this section, "qualified 1282 assessment screening tool included in the list of validated and 1284 evidence-based lethality assessment screening tools by the 1285 attorney general pursuant to division (C) of section 109.744 of 1286

the Revised Code. 1287

(B) Except as provided in division (D) of this section, 1288 not later than ninety days after the effective date of this 1289 section, the chief law enforcement officer of each agency, 1290

peace officer described in division (A) of section 2935.03 of 1292 the Revised Code shall create a domestic violence high risk team 1293 for handling alleged incidents of the offense of domestic 1294 violence and alleged incidents of the offense of violating a 1295 protection order whose victims are determined to be high risk. 1296
Each domestic violence high risk team shall create 1297 advocacy group that responds to domestic violence cases and who 1317 works in partnership with peace officers handling domestic 1318

violence cases; 1319

The policies and procedures adopted by the team shall include all of the following: 1335

(2) A lethality assessment screening tool, selected by the 1349 team from those qualified by the attorney general under division 1350

(C) of section 109.774 of the Revised Code, to be used by peace 1351 officers to screen victims of alleged incidents of domestic 1352

that surround the making of the statement and that render the 1408
declarant particularly worthy of belief. 1409

(2) There is no evidence that the unavailability of the 1410
behalf of, the party who is offering the statement. 1412

(3) The entire statement has been memorialized in a 1413

the proceedings in order to provide the adverse party with a 1447 fair opportunity to prepare to meet the statement. 1448

(E) If the prosecution intends to offer a statement 1449 pursuant to division (A) or (B) of this section, the prosecution 1450 shall serve a written notice upon the defendant at least ten 1451 days prior to the hearing or trial at which the prosecution 1452 intends to offer the statement, unless the prosecution shows 1453 good cause for the failure to provide that notice. In the event 1454 that good cause is shown, the defendant shall be entitled to a 1455 reasonable continuance of the hearing or trial. 1456

(F) If a statement is offered under division (A) or (B) of 1457
this section during trial, the court's determination as to the 1458

presence of the jury. If the defendant elects to testify at the 1460 hearing on a motion brought pursuant to division (A) or (B) of 1461 this section, the court shall exclude from the examination every 1462 person except the clerk, the court reporter, the bailiff, the 1463 by the hearsay rule in a criminal proceeding involving domestic 1477 engaged, or aided and abetted, in wrongdoing that was intended 1479 to, and did, procure the unavailability of the declarant as a 1480 witness. 1481

(2) (a) The party seeking to introduce a statement under 1482
division (A) (1) of this section must establish, by a 1483
preponderance of the evidence, that the elements of division (A) 1484
(1) of this section have been met at a preliminary hearing. 1485

(b) The hearsay evidence that is the subject of the 1486
preliminary hearing is admissible at the preliminary hearing. 1487
However, a finding that the elements of division (A) (1) of this 1488
section have been met shall not be based solely on a hearsay 1489
statement of the unavailable declarant that was not subject to 1490
confrontation, and shall be supported by independent 1491
corroborative evidence. 1492

(c) The preliminary hearing shall be conducted outside the presence of the jury. However, if the hearing is conducted after a jury trial has begun, the judge presiding at the hearing may consider evidence already presented to the jury in deciding whether the elements of division (A) (1) of this section have been met. 1493

(B) Except as provided in division (F) or (G) of this section, in a criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, evidence of the defendant's commission of other acts of domestic violence is not inadmissible character evidence if it is not otherwise inadmissible under Evidence Rule 403. 1502
1506

(C) In an action in which evidence is to be offered under division (B) of this section, the prosecution must disclose the evidence to the defendant, including statements of witnesses or a summary of the substance of any testimony that is expected to be offered, in accordance with Criminal Rule 12(E) and the Rules of Civil Procedure, as applicable. 1507
1508
1510
1511
1512

(D) Divisions (B) to (F) of this section should not be construed to limit or preclude the admission or consideration of evidence under any other law. 1513
1515

(E) As used in divisions (B) to (G) of this section, "domestic violence" has the same meaning as in section 3113.31 of the Revised Code. 1516
1517

(F) Evidence of acts occurring more than ten years before the conduct involved in a criminal action should not be admissible under this section, unless the court determines that 1519

(C) A person may seek relief under this section on the person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member may seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or household member, by filing a petition with the court. The petition shall contain or state:	1599 1600 1601 1602 1603 amendment, a judge of the court or a designated magistrate shall 1621 be available to accept a petition filed under this section and 1622 hearing, may enter any temporary orders, with or without bond, 1625 including, but not limited to, an order described in division 1626 (E) (1) (a), (b), or (c) of this section, that the court finds 1627 necessary to protect the family or household member or the 1628 constitutes domestic violence against the family or household 1643 member or person with whom the respondent is or was in a dating 1644 relationship. 1645

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 1646 order described in division (E) (1) (b) or (c) of this section, 1647 the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is 1648 within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other 1649 type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) 1650 of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 1651 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 1652 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 1653 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 1654 heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 1655 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 1656 court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 1657 this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 1658 any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 1659 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 1660 court: 1661

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 1662 this division, the respondent has not been served with the 1663 petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 1664 hearing. 1665

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 1666

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain counsel. 1667

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1669

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 1670 expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing 1671 upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 1672 under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 1673 grants a continuance under that division. 1674

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 1675 section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 1676 requests an ex parte order but the court does not issue an ex 1677 parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 1678 as in a normal civil action and grant a full hearing on the 1679 matter. 1680

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 1681 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 1682 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 1683 violence against the family or household members or persons with 1684 whom the respondent is or was in a dating relationship. The 1685 order or agreement may: 1686

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 1687 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 1688 household members or persons with whom the respondent is or was 1689 in a dating relationship; 1690

(b) With respect to a petition involving family or 1691 household members, grant possession of the residence or 1692 household to the petitioner or other family or household member, 1693 to the exclusion of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, 1694

when the residence or household is owned or leased solely by the petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the petitioner or other family or household member;

(c) With respect to a petition involving family or household members, when the respondent has a duty to support the petitioner or other family or household member living in the residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the residence or household to the petitioner or other family or household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide suitable, alternative housing;

(d) With respect to a petition involving family or household members, temporarily allocate parental rights and responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or parenting time rights;

(e) With respect to a petition involving family or household members, require the respondent to maintain support, if the respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the support of the family or household member, or if the respondent has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household member;

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek counseling; 1725

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the 1726 residence, school, business, or place of employment of the 1727
petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or 1728 household members, a family or household member; 1729

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable 1730 and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent 1731 to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or, with 1732 respect to a petition involving family or household members, 1733 other family or household members and the apportionment of 1734 household and family personal property; 1735

(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, 1736 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 1737
the petitioner; 1738

(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal 1739 owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent; 1740

(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with 1741 sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code. 1742

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this 1743 section in a prior action involving the respondent and the 1744
petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving family or 1745 household members, one or more of the family or household 1746 members or victims, the court may include in a protection order 1747 that it issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to 1748 the residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against 1749 the respondent returning to the residence or household in the 1750 order, it also shall include in the order provisions of the type 1751 described in division (E)(7) of this section. This division does 1752 not preclude the court from including in a protection order or 1753 consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described 1754 in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted 1755 from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from 1756 entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment 1757 of the petitioner or, with respect to a petition involving 1758 family or household members, a family or household member, and, 1759 if the court includes any requirement of that type in an order 1760 or agreement, the court also shall include in the order 1761 provisions of the type described in division (E) (7) of this 1762

section. 1763

(3) (a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1764 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 1765 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 1766 approval, or not later than the date a respondent who is less 1767 than eighteen years of age attains nineteen years of age, unless 1768 modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this 1769
section. 1770

(b) With respect to an order involving family or household 1771 members, subject to the limitation on the duration of an order 1772 or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, 1773 any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 1774 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 1775 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 1776 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 1777 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 1778 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1779 petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 1780 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 1781 an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this 1782 section, any order under division (E) (1) (e) of this section 1783 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 1784 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 1785 the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 1786

date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1787
petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 1788

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1789 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 1790 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 1791 approved. 1792

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 1793 a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the 1794 court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing 1795 under division (E)(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 1796 this section unless all of the following apply: 1797

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 1798 protection order in accordance with this section. 1799

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 1800 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 1801 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 1802 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 1803

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 1804 pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 1805 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 1806 specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing 1807 with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 1808

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 1809 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 1810 the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 1811 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 1812 an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary 1813 protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the respondent acted primarily in self-defense.

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to any real property.

(6) (a) With respect to an order involving family or household members, if a petitioner, or the child of a petitioner, who obtains a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to division (E) (1) of this section or a temporary protection order pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code and is the subject of a parenting time order issued pursuant to section 3109.051 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation or companionship order issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or division (E) (1) (d) of this section granting parenting time rights to the respondent, the court may require the public children services agency of the county in which the court is located to provide supervision of the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings of fact:

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent;

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the supervision.

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 1843 income or resources to pay that cost. 1844

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 1845 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 1846 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 1847 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 1848 place of employment of the petitioner or, with respect to a 1849 petition involving family or household members, a family or 1850 household member, the order or agreement shall state clearly 1851 that the order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 1852 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 1853 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1854 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 1855 those places otherwise upon the consent of the petitioner or 1856 other family or household member. 1857

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 1858 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 1859 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 1860 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 1861 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 1862 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 1863 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 1864 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1865

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 1866 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 1867 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 1868 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 1869 the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 1870 termination of the protection order or consent agreement 1871 pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 1872

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the original protection order or consent agreement may bring a motion for modification or termination of a protection order or consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner for the original protection order or consent agreement has requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of the original protection order or consent agreement or any other person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that modification or termination of the protection order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or because the terms of the original protection order or consent agreement are no longer appropriate.

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

(i) Whether the petitioner consents to modification or termination of the protection order or consent agreement;

(ii) Whether the petitioner fears the respondent;

(iii) The current nature of the relationship between the petitioner and the respondent;

(iv) The circumstances of the petitioner and respondent, including the relative proximity of the petitioner's and respondent's workplaces and residences and whether the petitioner and respondent have minor children together;	1902

(v) Whether the respondent has complied with the terms and conditions of the original protection order or consent agreement;	1903 1904 1905
(vi) Whether the respondent has a continuing involvement with illegal drugs or alcohol;	1906 1907
(vii) Whether the respondent has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a delinquent child for an offense of violence since the issuance of the protection order or approval of the consent agreement;	1908 1909 1910 1911
(viii) Whether any other protection orders, consent agreements, restraining orders, or no contact orders have been issued against the respondent pursuant to this section, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code, any other provision of state law, or the law of any other state;	1912 1913 1914 1915 1916
(ix) Whether the respondent has participated in any domestic violence treatment, intervention program, or other counseling addressing domestic violence and whether the respondent has completed the treatment, program, or counseling;	1917 1918 1919 1920
(x) The time that has elapsed since the protection order was issued or since the consent agreement was approved;	1921 1922
(xi) The age and health of the respondent;	1923
(xii) When the last incident of abuse, threat of harm, or commission of a sexually oriented offense occurred or other relevant information concerning the safety and protection of the petitioner or other protected parties.	1924 1925 1926 1927
(d) If a protection order or consent agreement is modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this section,	1928 1929

the court shall issue copies of the modified or terminated order 1930 or agreement as provided in division (F) of this section. A 1931 petitioner may also provide notice of the modification or 1932 termination to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 1933 county other than the county in which the order or agreement is 1934 modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this 1935
section. 1936

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 1937 termination of a protection order or consent agreement pursuant 1938 to this section and the court denies the motion, the court may 1939 assess costs against the respondent for the filing of the 1940 motion. 1941

(9) Any protection order issued or any consent agreement 1942 approved pursuant to this section shall include a provision that 1943 the court will automatically seal all of the records of the 1944 proceeding in which the order is issued or agreement approved on 1945 the date the respondent attains the age of nineteen years unless 1946 the petitioner provides the court with evidence that the 1947 respondent has not complied with all of the terms of the 1948 protection order or consent agreement. The protection order or 1949 consent agreement shall specify the date when the respondent 1950 attains the age of nineteen years. 1951

(F) (1) A copy of any protection order, or consent 1952 agreement, that is issued, approved, modified, or terminated 1953 under this section shall be issued by the court to the 1954 petitioner, to the respondent, and to all law enforcement 1955 agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order or 1956 agreement. The court shall direct that a copy of an order be 1957 delivered to the respondent on the same day that the order is 1958 entered. 1959

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court shall provide the parties to the order or agreement with the following notice orally or by form:

"NOTICE

As a result of this order or consent agreement, it may be unlawful for you to possess or purchase a firearm, including a rifle, pistol, or revolver, or ammunition pursuant to federal law under 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(8) for the duration of this order or consent agreement. If you have any questions whether this law makes it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm or ammunition, you should consult an attorney."

(3) All law enforcement agencies shall establish and maintain an index for the protection orders and the approved consent agreements delivered to the agencies pursuant to division (F)(1) of this section. With respect to each order and consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index the date and time that it received the order or consent agreement.

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's agency has jurisdiction pursuant to division (N) of this section, any officer of a law enforcement agency shall enforce a protection order issued or consent agreement approved by any court in this state in accordance with the provisions of the order or agreement, including removing the respondent from the premises, if appropriate.

(G)(1) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that an order under this section may be obtained with or 1989 without bond. An order issued under this section, other than an 1990 ex parte order, that grants a protection order or approves a 1991 consent agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or 1992 approve a consent agreement that modifies or terminates a 1993 protection order or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify 1994 or terminate a protection order or consent agreement, is a 1995 final, appealable order. The remedies and procedures provided in 1996 this section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 1997 available civil or criminal remedies. 1998

(2) If as provided in division (G)(1) of this section an 1999 order issued under this section, other than an ex parte order, 2000 refuses to grant a protection order, the court, on its own 2001 motion, shall order that the ex parte order issued under this 2002 section and all of the records pertaining to that ex parte order 2003 be sealed after either of the following occurs: 2004

(a) No party has exercised the right to appeal pursuant to 2005
Rule 4 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. 2006

(b) All appellate rights have been exhausted. 2007

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 2008 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 2009 required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 2010 law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic 2011 violence against minor children, the court shall report the 2012 fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or 2013 municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised 2014
Code. 2015

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a 2016 domestic dispute shall provide information to the family or 2017 household members involved, or the persons in the dating 2018 relationship who are involved, whichever is applicable regarding 2019 the relief available under this section and, for family or 2020 household members, section 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 2021

(J) (1) Subject to divisions (E) (8) (e) and (J) (2) of this 2022 section and regardless of whether a protection order is issued 2023 or a consent agreement is approved by a court of another county 2024 or a court of another state, no court or unit of state or local 2025 government shall charge the petitioner any fee, cost, deposit, 2026 or money in connection with the filing of a petition pursuant to 2027 this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, 2028 registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, 2029 or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness 2030 subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order 2031 or consent agreement. 2032

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 2033
a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 2034 court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 2035 the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 2036 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 2037 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 2038 of a protection order or consent agreement. 2039

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 2040 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies 2041 an order for child support under this section. 2042

(2) If any person required to pay child support under an 2043 order made under this section on or after April 15, 1985, or 2044 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 2045 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 2046 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition 2047

to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court 2048 costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person 2049 and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of 2050 any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in 2051 relation to the act of contempt. 2052

(L) (1) A person who violates a protection order issued or 2053
a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to 2054
the following sanctions: 2055

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding 2056 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 2057 violation of the protection order or consent agreement 2058 constitutes a violation of that section; 2059

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 2060

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 2061 violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 2062 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 2063 the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the 2064 person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 2065
However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 2066 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or 2067 adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that 2068 section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent 2069 child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 2070 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 2071

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 2072 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 2073

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 2074 consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection 2075 order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide 2076

notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to 2077
the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 2078 than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is 2079 approved by registering that order or agreement in the other 2080 county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a 2081 copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law 2082 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 2083 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 2084 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 2085 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 2086 county of this state by registering the order in that county 2087 pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 2088 copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 2089 that county. 2090

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 2091 order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 2092 than the county in which the court that issued the order or 2093 approved the agreement is located in the following manner: 2094

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 2095 order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 2096 order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 2097 to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 2098 municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 2099 or agreement is to be registered. 2100

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 2101 agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 2102 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an 2103 endorsement of registration on the order or agreement and give 2104 the petitioner a copy of the order or agreement that bears that 2105 proof of registration. 2106

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have been registered with the clerk.

(O) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in counties that do not have a domestic relations division from designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection order or consent agreement.

Sec. 4510.13. (A) (1) Divisions (A) (2) to (9) of this section apply to a judge or mayor regarding the suspension of, or the grant of limited driving privileges during a suspension of, an offender's driver's or commercial driver's license or permit or nonresident operating privilege imposed under division (G) or (H) of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code, under division (B) or (C) of section 4511.191 of the Revised Code, or under section 4510.07 of the Revised Code for a conviction of a violation of a municipal OVI ordinance.

against any time of judicial suspension imposed pursuant to 2137 section 4511.19 or 4510.07 of the Revised Code, as described in 2138

the Revised Code; 2148

(c) The first three years of a suspension imposed under 2149

the Revised Code. 2156

(3) No judge or mayor shall grant limited driving 2157 privileges to an offender whose driver's or commercial driver's 2158

Revised Code, or under section 4510.07 of the Revised Code for a 2162 municipal OVI conviction if the offender, within the preceding 2163 ten years, has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to three or 2164 more violations of one or more of the Revised Code sections, 2165 municipal ordinances, statutes of the United States or another 2166 state, or municipal ordinances of a municipal corporation of 2167 another state that are identified in ~~divisions (G)~~ division (H) 2168

Revised Code if the offender, within the preceding ten years, 2174 has refused three previous requests to consent to a chemical 2175 test of the person's whole blood, blood serum or plasma, breath, 2176

Revised Code, under division (B) or (C) of section 4511.191 of 2183 the Revised Code, or under section 4510.07 of the Revised Code 2184 for a municipal OVI conviction if the offender is disqualified 2185

the Revised Code. 2188

(5) No judge or mayor shall grant limited driving 2189

any of the following periods of time: 2196 the Revised Code, or of a suspension imposed under division (C) 2200

(1) (a) of section 4511.191 of the Revised Code. On or after the 2201 sixteenth day of the suspension, the court may grant limited 2202 driving privileges, but the court may require that the offender 2203 shall not exercise the privileges unless the vehicles the 2204

Revised Code. On or after the one hundred eighty-first day of 2225 suspension, the court may grant limited driving privileges, and 2226

either of the following applies: 2227

(i) If the underlying arrest is alcohol-related, the court 2228 shall issue an order that, except as provided in division (C) of 2229 section 4510.43 of the Revised Code, for the remainder of the 2230 period of suspension the offender shall not exercise the 2231 equipped with a certified ignition interlock device. 2233

(ii) If the underlying arrest is drug-related, the court 2234 in its discretion may issue an order that, except as provided in 2235

either of the following applies: 2246

(i) If the underlying conviction is alcohol-related, the 2247 court shall issue an order that, except as provided in division 2248

(G) (1) (b) (v) of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code to take 2263 effect concurrently with the granting of limited driving 2264 privileges. The court shall send notice of the termination of 2265 the immobilization order to the registrar of motor vehicles. 2266

Upon receiving information that an offender violated any 2267 hearing and, in its discretion, issue an order reinstating the 2270 immobilization order for the balance of the immobilization 2271 period that remained when the court originally ordered the 2272 termination of the immobilization order. The court may issue the 2273 order only upon a showing of good cause that the offender 2274 violated any condition imposed by the court. The court shall 2275 send notice of the reinstatement of the immobilization order to 2276 the registrar. 2277

(f) The first one hundred eighty days of a suspension 2278 imposed under division (G) (1) (c) of section 4511.19 of the 2279 Revised Code or a comparable length suspension imposed under 2280 section 4510.07 of the Revised Code. On or after the one hundred 2281 eighty-first day of the suspension, the court may grant limited 2282 is remote, the court shall impose an additional court cost of 2421

commercial driver's license under section 4506.16 of the Revised 2474 signed by the person who installed the device. Upon presentation 2517 of the order and certificate to the registrar or a deputy 2518 offender a restricted license, unless the offender's driver's or 2520 commercial driver's license or permit is suspended under any 2521 other provision of law and limited driving privileges have not 2522 been granted with regard to that suspension. A restricted 2523 convicted of the violation of that section, former section 2554 2903.07 of the Revised Code, or any municipal ordinances 2555

similarly relating to the offenses referred to in those 2556 sections; 2557

(b) One violation of section 4511.19 of the Revised Code 2558 or a substantially similar municipal ordinance; 2559

(c) Two separate violations of any of the Revised Code 2560 sections referred to in division (A) (1) (a) of this section, or 2561 any municipal ordinance that is substantially similar to any of 2562 those sections. 2563

(2) Any person whose license or permit is suspended under 2564 division (A) (1) (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall mail or 2565 deliver the person's probationary driver's license, restricted 2566 license, or temporary instruction permit to the registrar within 2567 fourteen days of notification of the suspension. The registrar 2568 person for a violation described in division (A) (1) (b) of this 2579 section, the suspension shall take effect on the next day 2580 immediately following the end of that period of suspension. If 2581

the person is sixteen years of age or older and pleads guilty to 2582 or is convicted of a violation described in division (A) (1) (b) 2583 of this section and the person does not have a current, valid 2584 probationary driver's license, restricted license, or temporary 2585 person of a probationary driver's license, restricted license, 2587 driver's license, commercial driver's license, or temporary 2588 instruction permit, as the case may be, for six months beginning 2589 on the date the court imposes sentence upon the person for the 2590

the violation, the period of denial shall commence on the date 2593 the person attains the age of sixteen years. 2594

(3) The registrar shall suspend the person's license or 2595 permit under division (A) of this section regardless of whether 2596 the disposition of the case in juvenile court occurred after the 2597 person's eighteenth birthday. 2598 that if committed by an adult would be a drug abuse offense or a 2605 violation of division (B) of section 2917.11 of the Revised 2606 Code. The registrar, in the registrar's discretion, may 2607 terminate the suspension if the child, at the discretion of the 2608 court, attends and satisfactorily completes a drug abuse or 2609 alcohol abuse education, intervention, or treatment program 2610 specified by the court. Any person whose temporary instruction 2611 permit or probationary driver's license is suspended under this 2612 division shall mail or deliver the person's permit or license to 2613 the registrar within fourteen days of notification of the 2614 suspension. The registrar shall retain the permit or license 2615 during the period of the suspension. 2616

The registrar shall not suspend the probationary driver's license, restricted license, or temporary instruction permit of any person pursuant to division (A) of this section during any period for which the person has been granted limited driving privileges as provided in this division, if the registrar has received the notification described in this division from the court.

(c) A court shall not grant limited driving privileges to a person identified in division (C) (1) (a) or (b) of this section if the person, within the preceding six years, has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or adjudicated in juvenile court of having committed three or more violations of one or more of the divisions or sections set forth in ~~divisions (G)~~ division (H) (2) (b) to (g) of section 2919.22 of the Revised Code.

(2) (a) In a case in which a person is convicted of, pleads 2678 guilty to, or is adjudicated in juvenile court of having 2679 committed, prior to the person's eighteenth birthday, a second 2680 or third violation of section 4511.12, 4511.13, 4511.20 to 2681 4511.23, 4511.25, 4511.26 to 4511.48, 4511.57 to 4511.65, or 2682 and division (A) (1) (a) or (c) of this section requires the 2684 registrar of motor vehicles to suspend the person's license or 2685 permit, the court in which the person is convicted of, pleads 2686 guilty to, or is adjudicated of having committed the second or 2687 third violation may elect to order the registrar of motor 2688 vehicles to waive the suspension if all of the following apply: 2689

(i) Prior to the date on which the court imposes sentence 2690
