greater risk for specific traumas and adverse effects from 37
trauma; and 38

WHEREAS, The NCTSN acknowledges that poverty is a 43
contributing factor to childhood trauma; and 44

WHEREAS, Oppressive systems in the United States have been 45
perpetuating and maintaining a traumatized existence for African 46
Americans since slavery; and 47

WHEREAS, The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services 48

Administration (SAMHSA) recognizes that a trauma-informed 49 approach is not a prescribed set of practices or procedures, but 50
