

I oppose HB 22 because the expansion of obstructing justice is so broad that it makes even minor offenses a felony. The bill lacks specificity and specifically targets peaceful protestors is an attempt to silence free speech by making the penalties for demonstrating and protesting so egregious that people are reticent to speak up for marginalized and underrepresented communities.