

You CANNOT be serious.

It is not just a first amendment right, but rather an obligation -- a moral IMPERATIVE -- for any sane individual to try to save another's life. Muzzling bystanders who call out injustice, record abuse, and publicize wrongdoing, is not only censorship, but feeds into the dangerous perception that certain groups or classes of people are above the law.

NO ONE is above the law. And no one who is performing his or her duty honestly and with integrity should fear any bystander. If you are not doing something wrong, then you don't have anything to hide.

HB 22 is worthless, pointless, and downright dangerous. Instead of protecting law enforcement officers who cannot or will not 'serve and protect' as is their duty, let's empower the good cops who are doing things the right way, and root out those who are no longer effective.

Marianne Grashoff