

From the perspective of a Sexual Assault and Forensic Nurse examiner, it is imperative that perpetrators of violent sexual crimes to have appropriate charges. This is for the safety of the victims I see and the chance of recidivism or other future violent offenses to others in the public.