

I am in favor of abolishing the death penalty in Ohio. It is a barbaric practice that violates my moral fabric. Also there has been no justification given in testimony to continue its practice related to cost, deterrence, and closure. It has been shown to be racially and class biased and prone to errors in prosecuting and administering the actual execution procedure. Refocus on the needs of families of the victim.