

I am writing to you as a former law enforcement officer. I am concerned about House Bill 315 and the repercussions it will have on society. Criminals, especially repeat offenders, will be free from jail while awaiting court appearances without any consequences if they choose not to go to court. This will put a larger burden on law enforcement officers and the court system as well.

Thank you

Retired Police Sergeant

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "V. Z. Tuzgok".