

As a breast radiologist, I am strongly in support of improving breast density notification and providing supplemental screening coverage for women with dense breasts. This will elp the fight against breast cancer and is very important for patient care. Thank you for your consideration!